"I don't want our guys coming here thinking this is just any other uniform. That's not just another jersey. It's a special piece of cloth. There are a lot of people who have in the past and who currently work hard on a daily basis from a coaching and a playing standpoint. They overachieve, and they give their heart and soul to make it special and to be a Razorback."

GAME

Since 1958, the Hogs are 502-138 at home for a winning percent of .784. Since moving into Bud Walton Arena in 1993-94, UA is 198-44 at home for a winning percentage of .818.

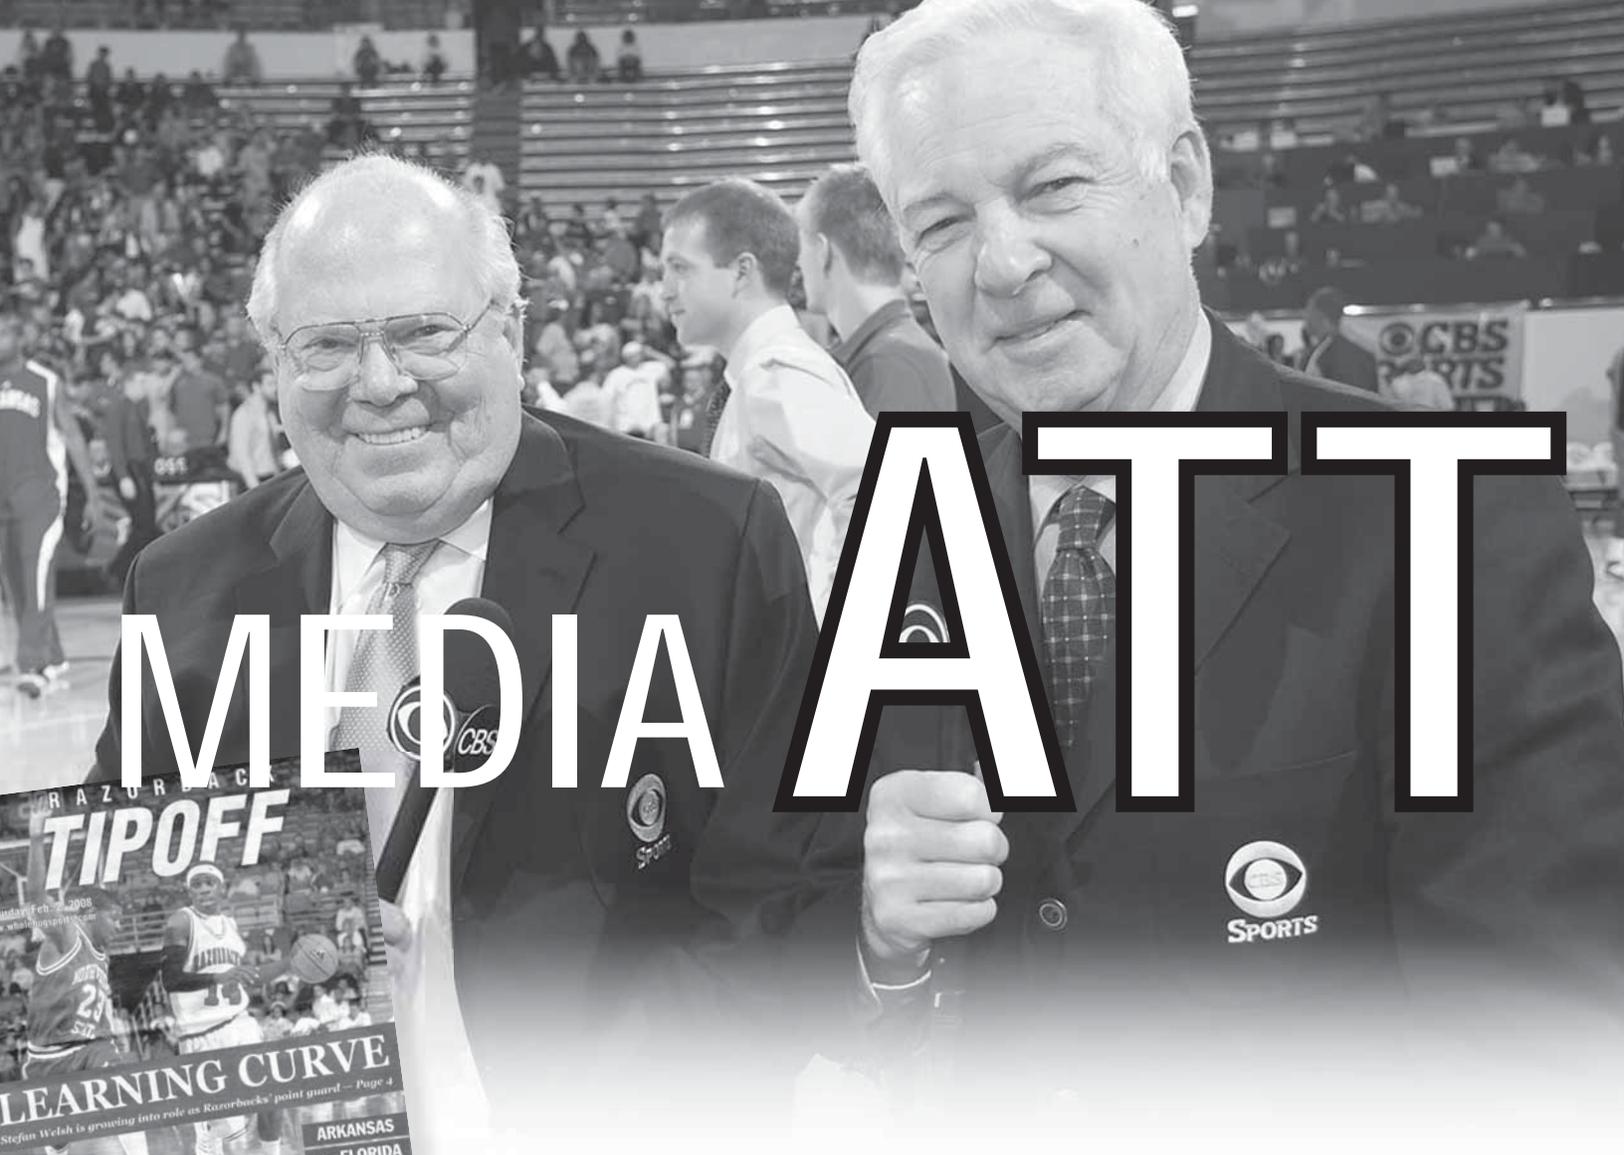

DAY

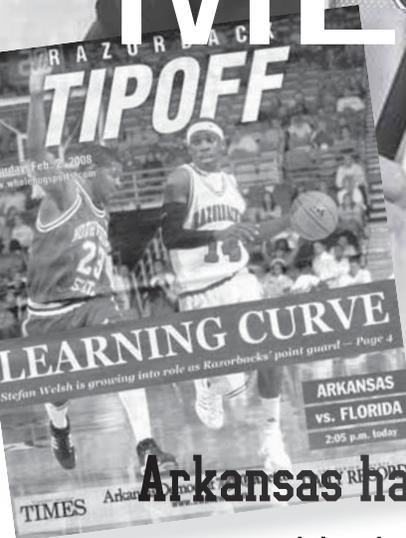

Arkansas has ranked among the top 15 in national attendance average for 15 straight years. Arkansas was No. 8 in 2008 (17,148).

MEDIA ATT

Arkansas has 20 regular-season games scheduled on television this season with nine of those on national television. In the last seven seasons, UA has appeared on television 189 times. Jimmy Dykes, an Arkansas graduate and basketball letterman, broadcasts games for ESPN.

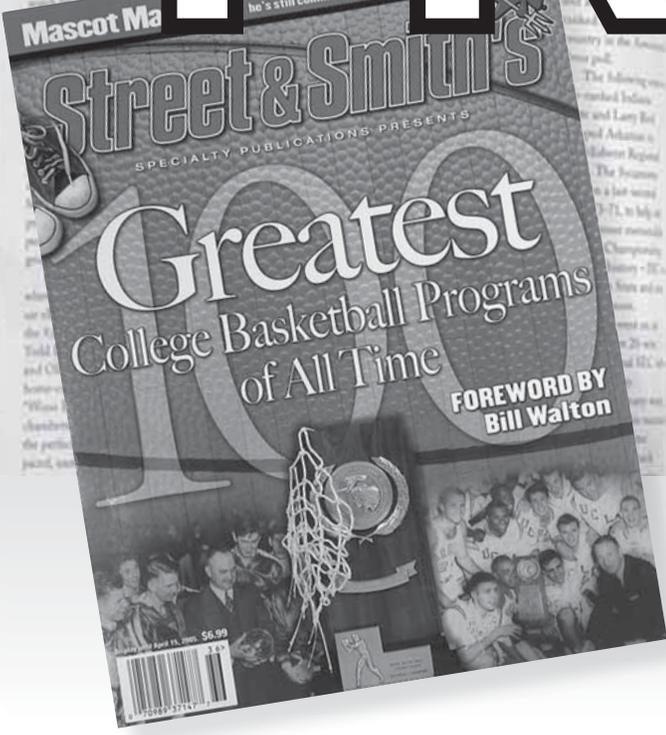

Fans follow the Razorbacks through extensive coverage by local, regional and national media.

TRADITION

... even though he's armed with a razorback head, he's still comin' at you in his own way.

By the time the Razorback basketball team played Bud Walton Arena, a 19,200-seat structure that replaced the old self-proclaimed "Basketball Palace of Mid-America," opened in 1979, Fayetteville had become one of the capitals of the college basketball world. National broadcasts of Razorback games were common, and Corliss Williamson, Corey Beck and Thurman became household names across all 50 states.

... season. As the Razorback coach, Richardson revolutionized the program with his up-tempo style, emphasizing the principle that defense wins championships.

In his 17-year tenure, which ended abruptly amid controversy in March 2002, Richardson had 16 20-win seasons, made the Final Four three times and transformed Arkansas into a perennial college basketball powerhouse.

Nevertheless, in the nine years since the Razorbacks returned to the national championship game in 1995 and lost to UCLA, Arkansas has not been able to recapture the magic. It hasn't even come close.

Yet, the euphoric feelings produced by the events of that year still remain.

The Williard and Pat Walker Family Training Center gives the Razorbacks 38,000 square feet of training space. The top floor features an 18,000-square foot weight room with a nutritional area and 13 42-inch flat screen televisions for viewing and adjusting technique. The second floor houses an athletic training room with rehabilitation equipment.

GTH & CONDITIONING

The first floor inside the pavilion features the 16,000-square foot Camden and Sue Greene Speed Development Center. It includes a three-lane 70-yard mondo track surface, a two-lane 60-yard sand pit and a 2,500-square foot AstroPlay agility area.

SEC

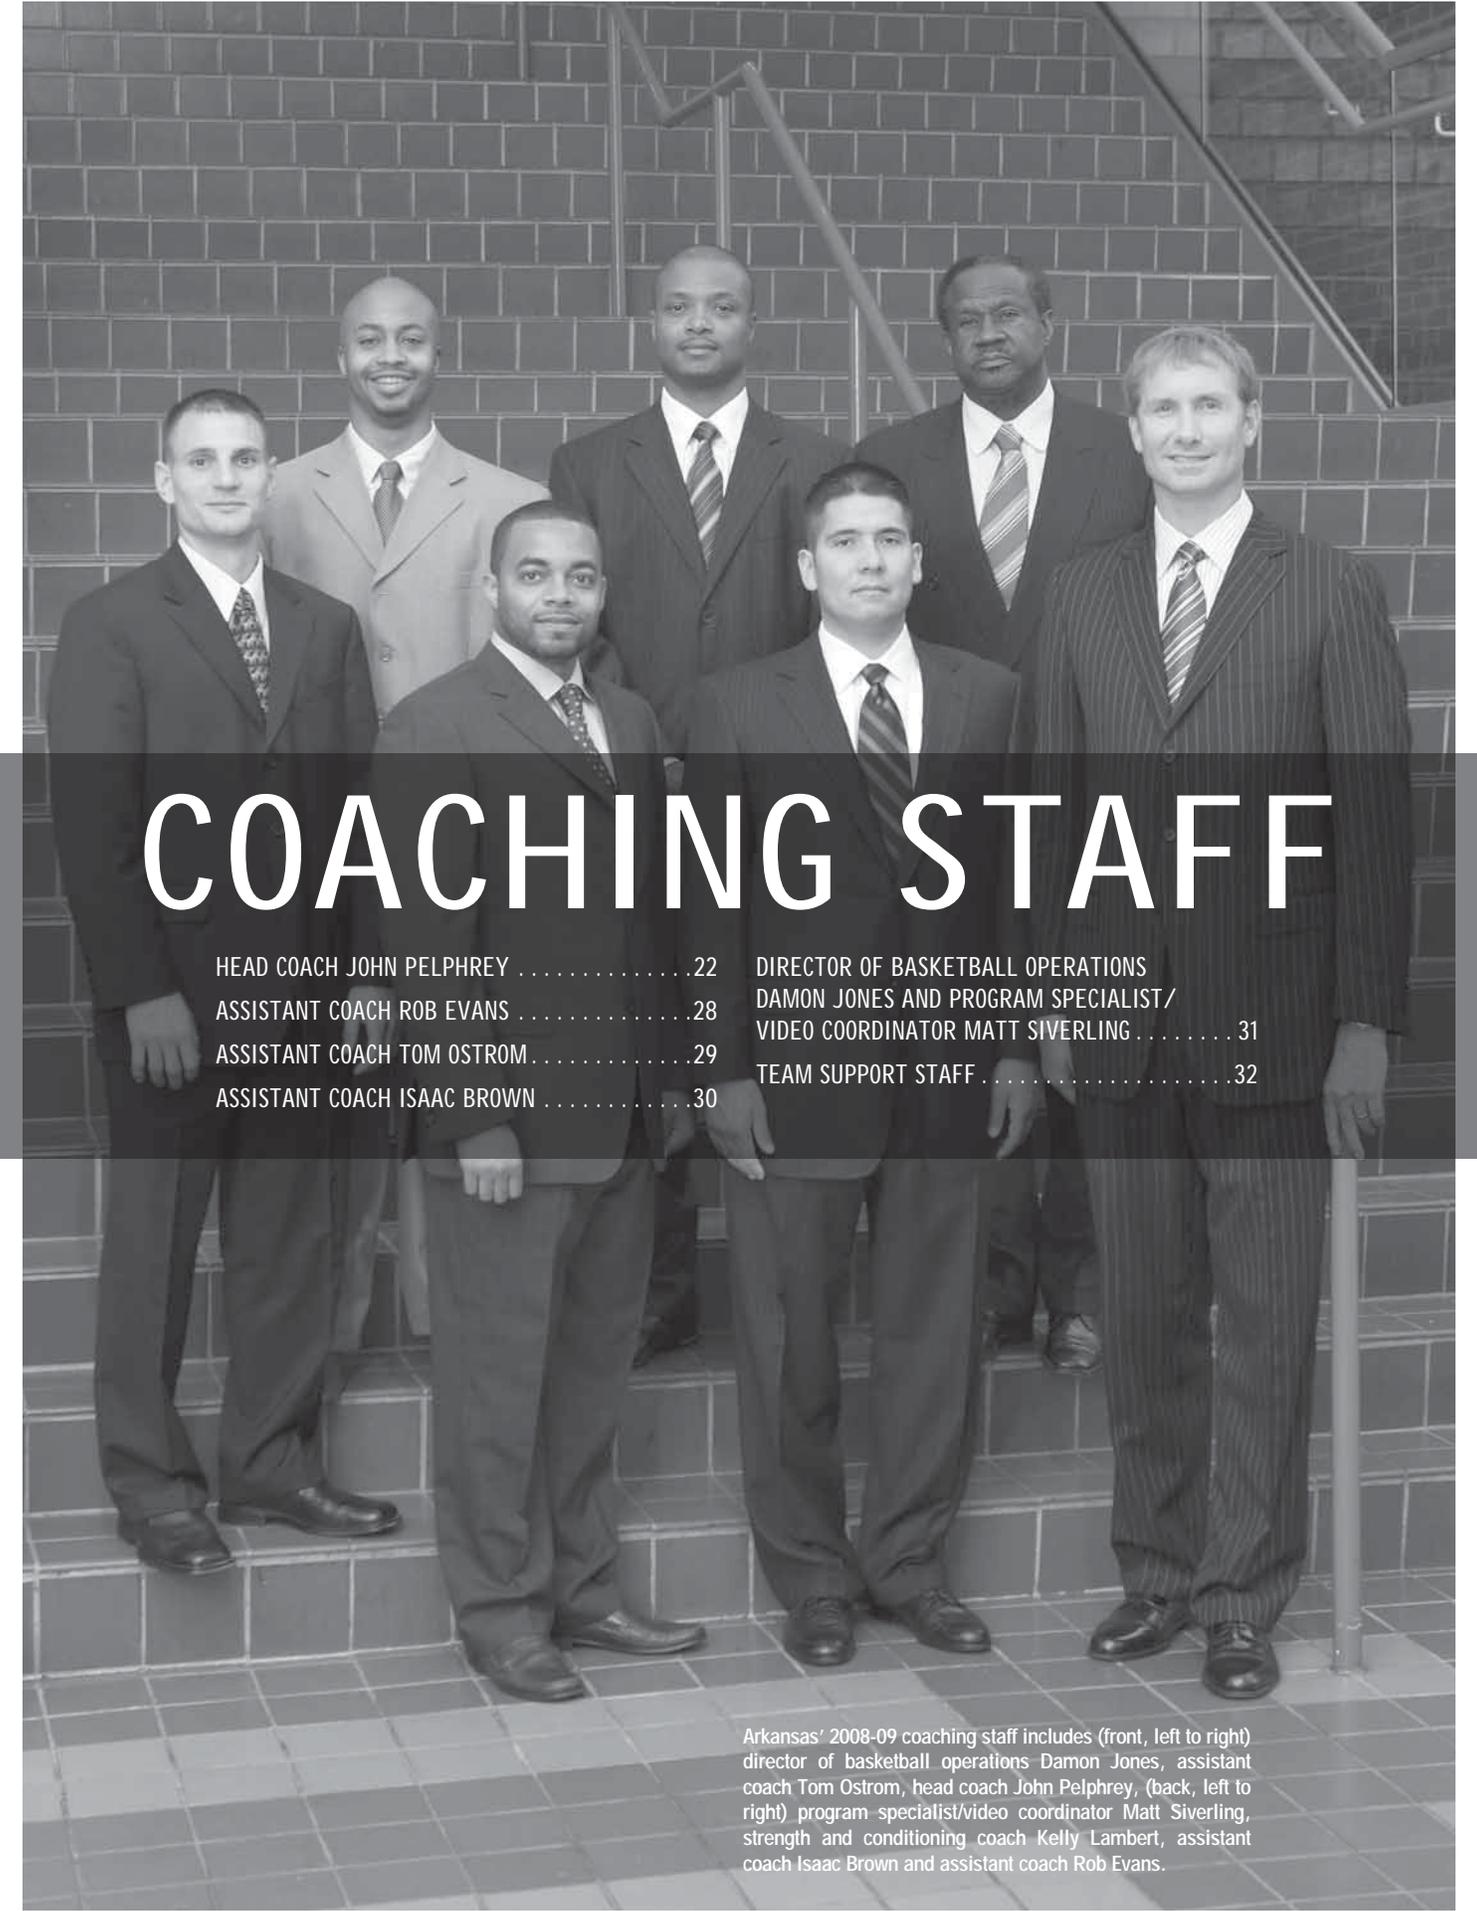

The SEC is the only league in the country to have all of its members ranked at least one week in the Associated Press top 25 (excluding pre-season polls) since 1999-2000. Arkansas was one of five league schools to earn a national ranking during the 2007-08 season.

The SEC ranks first among all conferences in record in the NCAA Tournament over the last three years.

Every team in the SEC has made at least once NCAA Tournament appearance in the last seven editions of the "Big Dance." Arkansas, Kentucky and Tennessee are the only league members to earn tournament bids each of the last three seasons.

The SEC Academic Consortium is housed on Arkansas' campus, opening in April 2008. It was established to share resources and coordinate efforts by the 12 league universities to bolster teaching, research, public service and other educational activities.

HEAD COACH JOHN PELPHREY

John Pelphrey is entering his second season at Arkansas following the best first-year head coaching performance in school history.

Pelphrey, who is beginning his seventh season overall as a head coach, set a school record in 2008 for wins by a first-year Arkansas head coach after taking the position on April 9, 2007. In the process, he also became the first first-year coach to lead Arkansas to a post-season tournament appearance as the Hogs advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Arkansas went 23-12, finished second in the Southeastern Conference's Western Division, advanced to the finals of the SEC Tournament and won a game in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1999. The Razorbacks were ranked as high as No. 18 during the season and ended the year receiving votes after going 6-2 against ranked teams with a win over No. 24 Indiana in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Pelphrey's 23 wins easily set a school record by a first-year head coach, topping the 19-7 mark of Eugene Lambert in 1943. Arkansas' best win total since 1999 (23-11) was achieved with improved offense and rebounding.

Last year's team averaged 74.1 points, its best since 2002 (74.9); shot .468 from the field, its best since 1994 (.488); made 514 free throws, its most since 1995 (609); had 1,274 rebounds, its most since 1998 (1,306); averaged 36.4 boards, its best since 2003 (38.0); and limited opponents to 32.2 rebounds, its best defensive average since 1985 (27.5).

Making an impact as a coach is nothing new for Pelphrey. A former standout at Kentucky for Eddie Sutton and Rick Pitino (1988-92), he has learned from some of the best as an assistant under Sutton and Billy Donovan.

Three years ago, he led South Alabama to the biggest turnaround in the nation, a Sun Belt Conference West Division title, the conference tournament title and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. In five years at USA, his teams went 14-14 in 2003, 12-16 in 2004, 10-18 in 2005, 24-7 in 2006 and 20-12 in 2007.

His 2007 squad replaced its top three scorers from 2006, but USA went 20-12 and won the Sun Belt regular season title at 13-5 before falling at Syracuse, 79-73, in a first-round NIT game.

Pelphrey's final USA team led the Sun Belt in turnover margin (+2.53), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.12) and three-point defense (.325), and was second in steals (7.22) and scoring defense (67.3). The Jaguars also made 272-of-749 three-pointers, an average of 8.5 per game, while scoring 71.3 points.

The 2006 team, which lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to eventual national champion Florida, 76-50, led the league in scoring margin (+8.1) and three-point defense (.300), and was second in steals (8.52) and scoring defense (65.6). USA hit 267-of-728 threes, an average of 8.6 per game, and scored 73.6 points a game.

In making the biggest turnaround in the nation, USA improved from 62.3 points in 2005 to 73.6 in 2006, from a .416 field-goal percentage to .453, a .646 free-throw percentage to .703, a .351 defensive three-point percentage to .300, 16.0 turnovers to 13.4, 11.0 assists to 14.1, 13.9 turnovers forced to 16.8, 7.6 steals to 8.5 and 207 made three-pointers to 267.

The Paintsville, Ky., native went to South Alabama following six seasons as an

John Pelphrey's background includes playing for both Eddie Sutton and Rick Pitino, and coaching with Sutton and Billy Donovan.

"John was the brightest player I've ever coached and the best leader. He not only was the hardest worker, but he got everybody else working harder and playing better. I knew he was going to be a coach. It was easy to see. Then he went with Billy Donovan and was able to learn the recruiting game, and there's no one better to learn it from than Billy."

— Rick Pitino, Louisville and former Kentucky head coach

assistant under Donovan at Florida from 1997-2002. He was also an assistant under Donovan for two years at Marshall in 1995 and '96.

The 2006 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year began his coaching career as an assistant to Sutton, who he played for at Kentucky, at Oklahoma State in 1994.

In his six seasons at Florida, the Gators went 124-65 with a then school-record four straight NCAA Tournament bids after one trip to the NIT. Florida reached the national championship game in 2000 and the Sweet 16 in 1999.

As an assistant under Donovan at Marshall, the Thundering Herd went 18-9 in 1995 and 17-11 in '96 after going 9-18 the year before they arrived.

Under Sutton at OSU in 1994, the Cowboys were 24-10 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Pelphrey began his coaching career following one season playing professionally in France and Spain.

He played two years under Sutton and three under Pitino at Kentucky. After redshirting in 1988, he lettered from 1989-92 and was a team captain in 1991 and '92. He averaged 1.7 points as a freshman under Sutton.

In Pitino's first year in 1990, with Donovan as an assistant, Pelphrey improved to 13.0 points as a sophomore. As a junior in '91, he averaged a team-high tying 14.4 points on a 22-6 squad, earning honorable mention All-America and first-team All-SEC honors.

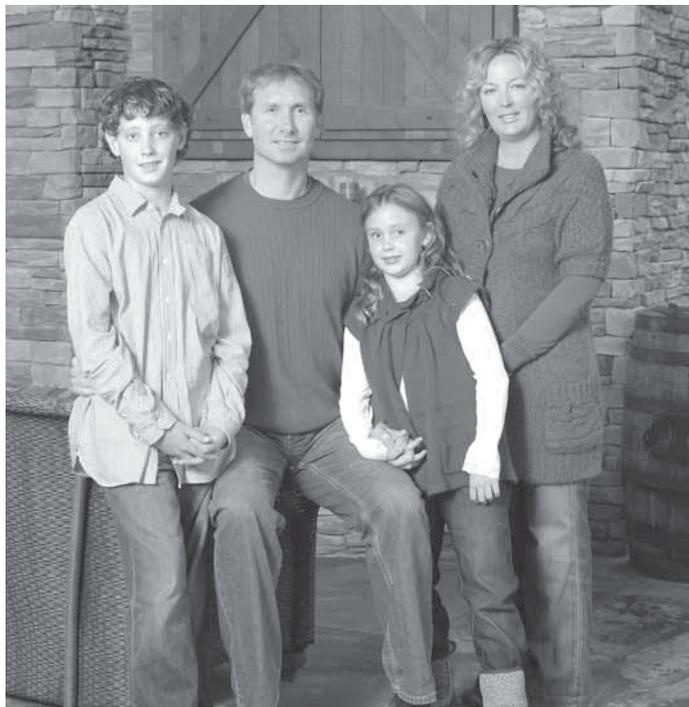

In 1992, he was second on the team with 12.5 points, helping the Wildcats go 29-7, win the SEC Tournament and end the year ranked No. 6 in the nation. Kentucky advanced to the Elite Eight in the NCAA Tournament, falling to Duke, 104-103 in overtime, in what is often regarded as one of the best college basketball games in history. Duke won on Christian Laettner's buzzer-beating jumper. Pelphrey was one of four seniors on that squad known to UK fans as "The Unforgettables."

Inducted into the Kentucky Hall of Fame in 2005 and named UK's Student-Athlete of the Year in 1989, his jersey number (No. 34) was retired in 1992. Over his UK career, he started 90 of 114 games and finished with a career scoring average of 11.0 points.

The son of two teachers, he served on UK's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee from 1990-92 and was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1990. He graduated from Kentucky in 1992.

Named Mr. Basketball in the state of Kentucky as a senior at Paintsville High in 1987, he scored 2,477 points and claimed 1,316 rebounds for his career.

Pelphrey is married to the former Tracy Lyon and they have a son, Jaxson Hamilton (12) and a daughter, Grace Donovan (9).

John Pelphrey is 29th on Kentucky's all-time scoring list with 1,257 points.

"John is a man of vision, an architect and someone who understands the process of building a program from the ground up. He connects well with people on every level. He is a man of great values, a great teacher, a great role model for the student-athletes he mentors and has been a success everywhere he has been because of these qualities."

— Jeremy Foley, Florida athletic director

"He was absolutely like a big brother to me. That's what he's going to be like for that program. His greatest asset is his leadership. When we were at Kentucky, he was the leader of the team. Sure, he was one of a few captains, but everyone knew who the real captain was."

— Travis Ford, Oklahoma State head coach and former teammate at Kentucky

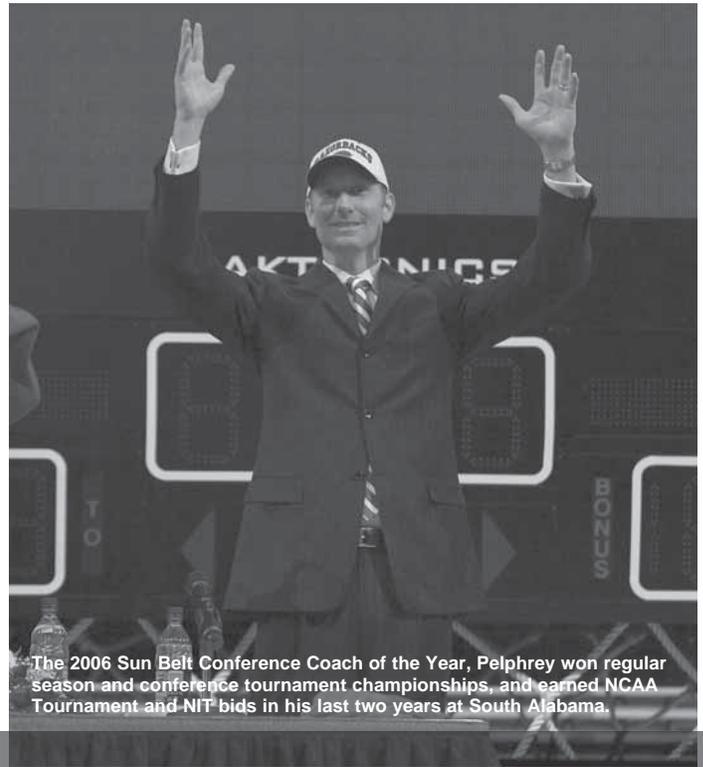

John Pelphrey's 15-year coaching career includes 10 winning seasons, nine post-season tournament bids, eight 20-win seasons, seven NCAA Tournament appearances, five division conference championships, three overall regular season conference titles, two NIT bids and one trip to the NCAA Final Four.

The 2006 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, Pelphrey won regular season and conference tournament championships, and earned NCAA Tournament and NIT bids in his last two years at South Alabama.

“JOHN PELPHREY IS A PHENOMENAL COACH, and I think people realize and respect that, but he’s an even better person. He understands about developing student-athletes as people, not just as players. John sets the highest standards in values and integrity, and instills these values in the young men he teaches. His work ethic and passion have made him a success at every level of basketball, from a player to an assistant to the transition to a head coach.”

:: BILLY DONOVAN FLORIDA HEAD COACH

“HE IS GOING TO BE LETHAL AT ARKANSAS. Arkansas has some of the greatest fans in college basketball. When you put that running and pressing style back in, it will be a great combination. John will do an unbelievable job bringing premier players into the program. It’s a great fit. It fits like a glove.”

:: RICK PITINO LOUISVILLE AND FORMER KENTUCKY HEAD COACH

“IT’S A WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY FOR JOHN BECAUSE OF THE HISTORY AND TRADITION OF THE ARKANSAS program, and because of the great administrative and fan support. It’s a great fit for Arkansas because he’s bringing a style of play from his Rick Pitino, Billy Donovan and Eddie Sutton background. His style will not only be successful, but also fun and exciting. He is a tireless worker and a tremendous recruiter.

“His coaching career has progressed on a fast learning curve. He had great opportunities with Billy Donovan and Eddie Sutton, who are two outstanding coaches, and he also played for Rick Pitino. He took a program (USA) that was not in very good shape and really built it back to be a strong program. They won their league, and played in both the NCAA Tournament and the NIT.

“He’s a really solid, solid basketball guy. I think he’s one of the young superstar coaches out there.”

:: C.M. NEWTON FORMER ATHLETIC DIRECTOR AT KENTUCKY, AND HEAD COACH AT VANDERBILT AND ALABAMA

“I SAW HIS TEAMS PLAY TWICE, INCLUDING IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME OF THE SUN BELT (IN 2007). Every player on that team laid it on the line for 40 minutes. It was the way he played at Kentucky for five years. I think that’s the most important thing I can tell you about him and the way he coaches. Effort and passion are very important parts of what fans in this state want. I know our fans will never leave the arena thinking the other team played harder than their Razorbacks. That’s a big, big deal to the people of this state.

“The people of Kentucky love John the same way our fans love Joe (Kleine). There is a reason his jersey is hanging from the rafters at Rupp Arena. He is beloved as few from that program have been. The fact is that there are a lot who played there with more God-given ability, just like Joe here, but he played every possession to the best of his ability, like Joe did. No one played the game harder at Kentucky than John Pelphrey and that’s the way he coaches.”

PELPHREY TIMELINE

> John Pelphrey played two years at Kentucky (1988 [red-shirted] and '89) for former Arkansas head coach Eddie Sutton. He also began his coaching career as an assistant on Sutton’s staff at Oklahoma State in 1994.

> Pelphrey played his last three years at Kentucky for head coach Rick Pitino. He averaged 13.0 points as a sophomore, 14.4 and was first-team All-SEC and an honorable mention All-American as a junior, and 12.5 points as a senior on a team finishing 29-7, reaching the Elite Eight and earning a No. 6 final ranking.

> After beginning his coaching career under Sutton, Pelphrey was an assistant to Billy Donovan, who was on Pitino’s staff at Kentucky, at Marshall (1995 and '96) and Florida (1997-2002). His last four teams at Florida won 22 or more games and earned NCAA Tournament bids with a trip to the national title game in 2000.

> Following nine years as an assistant, Pelphrey was the head coach at South Alabama for five years (2003-07). His 2006 team recorded the biggest turnaround in the nation, improving from 10-18 to 24-7 with a conference divisional title, the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. His 2007 team, despite losing the top three scorers from 2006, went 20-12, won the Sun Belt regular season title and earned a spot in the NIT.

> PELPHREY WAS NAMED HEAD COACH AT ARKANSAS ON APRIL 9, 2007.

ASSISTANT COACH ROB EVANS

Rob Evans, a former Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, is in his second season at Arkansas after joining head coach John Pelphrey's staff on April 19, 2007.

Evans was the head coach at Ole Miss from 1993-98 and at Arizona State from 1999-2006. He rebuilt both programs, leading Ole Miss to consecutive SEC Western Division titles and NCAA Tournament bids, and guiding Arizona State to four post-season tournament appearances, including three of the last five years in Tempe.

The Hobbs, N.M., native was a collegiate assistant for 24 years before taking over the Ole Miss program. He was an assistant to Eddie Sutton at Oklahoma State in 1991 and 1992 after spending 15 years as an assistant at Texas Tech (1976-90) and seven under Lou Henson at New Mexico State (1969-75), his alma mater.

In his first year at Arkansas, he helped the Razorbacks finish 23-12. The Hogs reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The 23 wins were the most since 1999 and the NCAA Tournament victory the first in nine years.

In 2008, Arkansas averaged 74.1 points, its best since 2002 (74.9); shot .468 from the field, its best since 1994 (.488); made 514 free throws, its most since 1995 (609); had 1,274 rebounds, its most since 1998 (1,306); averaged 36.4 boards, its best since 2003 (38.0); and limited opponents to 32.2 rebounds, its best defensive average since 1985 (27.5).

Evans has 39 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 14 years as a head coach. Six of his 14 teams as head coach earned post-season tournament bids with 17 of his teams overall advancing to post-season play.

He helped the Aggies earn four NCAA Tournament bids in seven years with a trip to the Final Four in 1970. While an assistant at NMSU, he also coached the freshman teams to a combined record of 90-15. Eight of his teams at Texas Tech won 17 or more games with three Southwest Conference Tournament titles and three NCAA Tournament bids. In his two seasons at OSU, the Cowboys reached the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 each year.

At Ole Miss, he took over a program with just one winning season in the previous nine seasons and only one NCAA Tournament bid in its history. After a 10-18 mark his first year, the Rebels were 14-13 in 1994 for their first winning season in seven years. Ole Miss was 8-19 and 12-15 the next two years, but went 20-9 in 1997 and 22-7 in 1998, winning Western Division titles each year and earning back-to-back NCAA Tournament bids for the first time. The consecutive 20-win seasons were the first for Ole Miss since 1937 and '38.

Evans was named SEC Coach of the Year and CollegiateInsider.com National Coach of the Year in 1997. In 1998, the Rebels beat Kentucky in Lexington for the first time since 1927.

At Arizona State, his first club went 14-16 in 1999, but the 19-13 finish in 2000, which included reaching the second round of the NIT, was just the fourth 19-win season for the Sun Devils in 19 years. Following a 13-16 finish in 2001, ASU went 14-15 in 2002 with injuries to three players. Despite the setbacks, Evans' team beat four NCAA Tournament teams, won at UCLA for the first time since 1987 and earned a spot in the NIT.

In 2003, the Sun Devils went 20-12 for their first 20-win season since 1995 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with an upset win over Memphis. ASU was 10-17 in 2004, 18-14 with a post-season tournament bid (NIT) for the third time in four years in 2005 and 11-17 in 2006.

His last club led the Pac-10 in three-point shooting (.378), allowed only 69.9 points a game for ASU's best defensive scoring average since 1991 (69.1) and lost four games by four points or less with another loss in overtime.

As a player, he was the first All-American at Lubbock (Texas) Christian College after averaging 19.8 points in 1966. Named team captain, he was also all-conference and all-region.

At New Mexico State, he captained the 1967 Aggies to a 15-11 record and the 1968 squad to a 23-6 mark. NMSU made the NCAA Tournament both years. The 1967 team lost to Elvin Hayes and Houston while the 1968 squad beat Dick Motta and Weber State before losing to eventual national champion UCLA and Lew Alcindor.

A former baseball star as well, he was drafted out of high school by the Colt 45s, which eventually became the Houston Astros. Following college, he signed as a free agent with the Dallas Chaparrals of the American Basketball Association and with the Oakland Raiders as a receiver.

Evans, who was selected NMSU's most outstanding athlete in 1967 and has been named to the school's all-time basketball team, was inducted into the Aggie Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993. In 1991, he was elected by his peers to be president of the National Association of Assistant Basketball Coaches, was inducted into the Lubbock Christian Hall of Fame in 1990, the Las Cruces, N.M., Hall of Fame in 1989, presented the Texas Tech Outstanding Achievement Award for 1986-87 and selected as NMSU's School of Education Alumnus of the Year in 1994.

Tom Ostrom is in his second season as an assistant at Arkansas, but this is the fifth straight year he's been a member of head coach John Pelphey's staff.

Ostrom spent the three previous years as an assistant to Pelphey at South Alabama. A former assistant at Florida under Billy Donovan, he was at South Alabama from 2005-07 after working at Florida from 1998-2004. Pelphey and Ostrom were on the same staff at Florida from 1998 through 2002.

In his first year at Arkansas, he helped the Razorbacks finish 23-12. The Hogs reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The 23 wins were the most since 1999 and the NCAA Tournament victory the first in nine years.

In 2008, Arkansas averaged 74.1 points, its best since 2002 (74.9); shot .468 from the field, its best since 1994 (.488); made 514 free throws, its most since 1995 (609); had 1,274 rebounds, its most since 1998 (1,306); averaged 36.4 boards, its best since 2003 (38.0); and limited opponents to 32.2 rebounds, its best defensive average since 1985 (27.5).

Ostrom helped South Alabama record the best turnaround in the nation in 2006. In his first year at USA, the Jaguars went 10-18 in 2005, but went 24-7 the following season. South Alabama won the Sun Belt Conference West Division title and the tournament championship to send the Jaguars to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998.

The 2006 team, which lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to eventual national champion Florida, led the league in scoring margin (+8.1) and three-point defense (.300), and was second in steals (8.52) and scoring defense (65.6). USA hit 267-of-728 threes, an average of 8.6 per game.

In making the biggest turnaround in the nation, USA improved from 62.3 points in 2005 to 73.6 in 2006, from a .416 field-goal percentage to .453, a .646 free-throw percentage to .703, a .351 defensive three-point percentage to .300, 16.0 turnovers to 13.4, 11.0 assists to 14.1, 13.9 turnovers forced to 16.8, 7.6 steals to 8.5 and 207 made three-pointers to 267.

Despite losing the top three scorers off that 2006 squad, Ostrom and the Jaguars posted a 20-12 record in 2007, won the Sun Belt regular season title and lost a 79-73 decision at Syracuse in the first round of the NIT.

The 2007 team led the Sun Belt in turnover margin (+2.53), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.12) and three-point defense (.325), and was second in steals (7.22) and scoring defense (67.3). The Jaguars also made 272-of-749 three-pointers, an average of 8.5 per game.

Prior to joining Pelphey's staff at USA, Ostrom spent seven seasons under Donovan at Florida, the first five as administrative assistant/video coordinator (1998-2002) and the final two as an assistant coach (2003-04). In his seven years, Florida was a combined 156-67, won two SEC regular season co-championships, three Eastern Division co-championships, played in the NIT his first season, played in the NCAA Tournament the last six years, reached the NCAA championship game in 2000, advanced to the Sweet 16 in 1999 and won 20 or more games his last six years.

A 1997 University of Minnesota graduate, Ostrom served as a student manager for the Golden Gophers. He prepped at Bethlehem Academy in Faribault, Minn.

ASSISTANT COACH ISAAC BROWN

Isaac Brown, who has 11 years of collegiate coaching experience at the NCAA Division I and junior college levels, is in his second season at Arkansas after joining the staff in May 2007.

Brown was a part of head coach John Pelphrey's staff at South Alabama all five years where he assisted in recruiting and on-floor coaching.

In his first year at Arkansas, he helped the Razorbacks finish 23-12. The Hogs reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The 23 wins were the most since 1999 and the NCAA Tournament victory the first in nine years.

Brown helped South Alabama record the best turnaround in the nation in 2006. South Alabama went 14-14 in 2003, 12-16 in 2004 and 10-18 in 2005, but went 24-7 in 2006. Brown began his coaching career at Pearl River Community College in Poplarville, Miss., in 1997. After two years, he went to his hometown school as an assistant at Pascagoula (Miss.) High School. Following one season, he moved back into the junior college ranks at Okaloosa-Walton Community College in Niceville, Fla. At OWCC, he recruited and coached Kedric Brown, who in 2001 became the first junior college player selected as an NBA lottery pick (No. 11 by Boston). He also coached guard Donell Taylor, who is with the NBA's Washington Wizards. Fifteen OWCC players signed Division I scholarships while Brown was on the staff.

Brown earned his bachelor's in health and physical education from Louisiana-Monroe in 1995. He played two years at Mississippi Gulf Coast CC (1989-90), spent one season at Texas A&M (1991), transferred to Louisiana-Monroe and sat out the 1992 season before helping his team win the 1993 Southland Conference title at 17-1, finish 27-4 overall and earn an NCAA Tournament bid.

As a player, he had one of his best games against the Razorbacks, but not while playing at former Southwest Conference rival Texas A&M. After transferring to Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana-Monroe) for his senior season, his team upset No. 9 Arkansas, 87-79, in Little Rock on Dec. 30, 1992. Brown was 5-of-8 shooting, including 3-of-4 on threes, finishing with 14 points.

Kelly Lambert is in his sixth season supervising the strength and conditioning of the Razorback basketball program. He also assisted with football until January 2008.

Overall, he is in his eighth year as a member of the Razorback staff and his sixth as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. He served as a graduate assistant from 2001-03 before becoming the second full-time strength and conditioning coach. He also served as a volunteer in 2000 before accepting a graduate assistant position in 2001.

In 2002, Lambert earned his certification as a collegiate strength and conditioning coach as a part of the first group which had to take the practical examination along with the written examination in order to become certified.

In addition to working with basketball and football, he has also worked with golf, baseball and tennis. During his tenure with the Razorbacks, Lambert has worked with the 2000 SEC basketball tournament champions, and three consecutive 20-win teams, which all earned NCAA Tournament bids. He has also helped student-athletes replace 15 of 20 all-time school records in lifting, agility and explosiveness tests.

In football, he helped mold four consecutive bowl teams and six total, including the 2000 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2002 Cotton Bowl, the 2002 Music City Bowl, the 2003 Independence Bowl, 2007 Capital One Bowl and the 2008 Cotton Bowl, as well as the 2002 and 2006 SEC Western Division champions. In 2005, Lambert coached several defensive backs to school lifting and 40-yard dash records. In 2006, he helped two defensive backs set all-time school records in two agility tests administered to the Razorback football team following the season. He has trained six first-round draft picks in the last five years. Overall, he has worked with 10 first-day draft picks and with 27 All-SEC selections in his eight years on the staff.

In 2006, Lambert personally trained Ronnie Brewer for the NBA Combine where he finished second overall out of 89 athletes. The combine consisted of various tests of strength, agility and explosiveness. The most recent athlete who went to the pre-draft combine, Sonny Weems, finished first on all tests of agility, speed and quickness. Lambert currently trains Brewer, who was a 2006 NBA Draft lottery pick and also a 2007-08 starter for the Utah Jazz; Dontell Jefferson, who was with the 2007 NBA Developmental League champion Dakota Wizards and the 2008 Euro-League champions; Darren McFadden, a 2008 NFL Draft first-round pick of the Oakland Raiders; and Marcus Monk who was a 2008 NFL Draft seventh-round pick of the Chicago Bears.

Lambert joined the Arkansas staff after completing his bachelor's degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in athletic training at the University of Central Arkansas in 1999. He earned his master's degree in sports management from Arkansas in 2003. He is a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and the USA Weightlifting Association.

TERRY MERCER
Office Manager

A major component of the University of Arkansas basketball program, Terry Mercer is in her 31st year as the office manager for Razorback basketball. Her friendly demeanor welcomes visitors to the basketball offices at Bud Walton Arena.

Mercer is in her second season working for head coach John Pelphrey. She worked with Stan Heath for five years, Nolan Richardson for 17 and seven for Eddie Sutton.

She handles all correspondence and helps with the administrative details of the John Pelphrey Razorback Basketball Camp in addition to organizing Pelphrey's hectic schedule. She is also heavily involved with Pel's Pals Foundation, which was established to provide resources and education for neonatal efforts across the country. Other duties include coordinating the Razorback golf outings.

Mercer has enjoyed the success of the Razorback program, making four trips to the Final Four and 23 NCAA Tournament excursions.

A native of Saratoga, N.C., where she graduated from high school in 1972, she worked for Southern Piping Company in Wilson, N.C., for six years before her husband, Elton, was transferred to Fayetteville.

She and Elton have a daughter, Heather, 29, a son, Jacob, 23, and two granddaughters. Heather is married to Dennis Starr, and they are the parents of Caitlyn, six, and Kenleigh, three.

DEEDEE BROWN-CAMPBELL
Associate Director of Academic Support

Deedee Brown-Campbell is in her fifth year in the academic support program at Arkansas, and her first as the associate director and her first working with the men's basketball program.

Prior to this year's merger of the men's and women's departments, Brown-Campbell was named assistant athletic director of academic support in July 2006 for the women's athletic program. Brown-Campbell served as the director of academic support for all women's teams since 2004. A former Arkansas All-American, she is a true product of the program.

Upon completing her athletic eligibility and graduating with a degree in kinesiology, Brown began her career as a graduate assistant working in athletic administration and as an academic counselor for just more than a year. She was hired full time in January 2004 as the assistant director of academic support and promoted to director in the summer of 2004.

A two-time All-American in the heptathlon as a member of Arkansas' perennial championship track & field program, Brown has made an impact since the day she set foot on campus in the fall of 1998. During her competition days, Brown was one of just a select few to ever earn more than 5,700 points in the heptathlon. She won two Southeastern Conference championships and still holds five women's school records in the pentathlon and heptathlon competitions.

Since retiring from competitive track in 2003, Brown has focused her attention on the classroom as a member of Arkansas' academic staff. In that capacity, she worked with Arkansas' women's basketball team and assisted its athletes to their highest grade point average ever when the squad earned a 3.30 cumulative GPA in the spring of 2004. Brown earned her master's degree in sport management in December 2004.

She is the daughter of Darrell and Angela Brown and is married to former Razorback football player Marcus Campbell. They recently had their first child, Chase.

He is a member of CoSIDA, the Basketball Writers Association of America and the Football Writers Association of America.

The Pearl, Miss., native worked as a graduate assistant for two years in the SID office at ULM before spending a year as a sports writer at the Lake Charles (La.) American Press.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Newcomers should have Huge Impact as Razorbacks Shift Strength from Inside to Outside

The good news for second-year head coach John Pelphey is several players in his highly-regarded signing class have the opportunity to make an immediate impact this season. Pelphey's newcomer class is ranked No. 11 in the nation by ESPN.com, No. 13 by CBSSports.com, No. 16 by Rivals and No. 24 by Scout.

The concern is the reason for that opportunity because the Razorbacks are missing four starters, seven lettermen and six seniors from last year. Loaded with experience, the 2008 squad went 23-12, finished second in the Southeastern Conference's Western Division, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Arkansas must replace its entire front line where four-year lettermen Steven Hill, Darian Townes, Charles Thomas and Vincent Hunter have departed. Also gone is All-SEC wing and NBA Draft pick Sonny Weems, guard Patrick Beverley and point guard Gary Ervin.

Along with that group, the Hogs are missing 86 percent of the scoring (2,233 of 2,593), 83 percent of the rebounds (975 of 1,180), 87 percent of the free throws

The Razorbacks are 16-6 over the last two years with Stefan Welsh in the starting lineup.

NOTING THE HOGS

PELPHREY SETS RECORD FOR WINS BY A FIRST-YEAR COACH: The win over Auburn on March 8, 2008, was Arkansas' 20th of the year and the 20th for John Pelphrey, which set a school record for wins by a first-year head coach at Arkansas. Pelphrey's 23 victories top the 19 by Eugene Lambert in 1943 and are six more than Eddie Sutton and Francis Schmidt. Pelphrey also became the first first-year coach in the program's history to take the Razorbacks to a national post-season tournament, guiding Arkansas into the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Coach	Record	Year	Post-Season
John Pelphrey	23-12	2008	NCAA Tourney (2nd rnd)
Eugene Lambert	19-7	1943	none
Francis Schmidt	17-11	1924	none
Eddie Sutton	17-9	1975	none
Charles Bassett	16-7	1930	none
Glen Rose	16-8	1934	none

STEF'S SHOT: Guard Stefan Welsh made 50 percent of his three-point attempts or better in four of the last six games. He was 2-of-4 in the NCAA Tournament first-round win over No. 24 Indiana, but he suffered a sprained ankle and was limited to just four minutes in the second round against No. 1 North Carolina. He was 0-of-1 against UNC.

Over the last six games, he was 11-of-21 on threes, 52.4 percent.

Entering that stretch, he was 27-of-93 for the year on threes, 29.0 percent. Through the first 29 games, he was averaging 5.1 points. Over the last six, he averaged 6.2. Not counting the four-minute appearance against UNC, he was 11-of-20 (55 percent) with an average of 7.4 points over five games.

STREAKS ENTERING THE SEASON

- Arkansas has made at least one three-pointer in 646 consecutive games. UA made at least one three in every game it played in the 1990s. The last time Arkansas failed to hit a three was in a 99-92 win at Texas in January 1989, and the Hogs attempted just two threes in that contest. Arkansas has played 679 games since the three-pointer was added to college basketball and failed to make a three in only six games. UA won those six games.
- The Hogs have won 34 straight games when scoring 80 points or more.
- Arkansas has ranked among the nation's top 15 in attendance average 15 straight years – every year since Bud Walton Arena opened in 1994. Arkansas was No. 8 last year with an average of 17,148.
- The Razorbacks have won 13 straight season openers and 32 consecutive home openers.

(447 of 514), 77 percent of the three-point goals (160 of 207), 79 percent of the assists (400 of 505), 85 percent of the blocked shots (154 of 182) and 81 percent of the steals (195 of 241) from last season.

With only three returning lettermen, Pelphrey and his staff recruited a group of six newcomers for 2009.

Last year's club relied on experience and depth inside. Strengths this year shift to overall speed and quickness, and depth in the backcourt.

THE BACKCOURT

One plus is the backcourt. Limited by the number of available guards last year, Pelphrey was not able to run and press as much as he may have preferred.

Starter Stefan Welsh (5.3 ppg, 2.1 assists), a junior, is back on the perimeter along with sophomore reserve Marcus Britt (0.8 ppg).

Welsh (6-3, 185), who is the top returning scorer from last year, started 21 games and shot well at the end of the season when he made 50 percent of his threes or better in four of the final six games. Over the final six games, he averaged 6.2 points and made 11-of-21 threes (.524).

From his freshman to sophomore season, Welsh improved his scoring average from 3.2 to 5.3, his assists from 27 (0.8) to 74 (2.1), his shooting percentage from .308 to .364, his three-point percentage from .303 to .333 and his steals from 10 (0.3) to 24 (0.7).

He had three or more assists in a game 15 times, and had one or no turnovers 15 times.

Britt (6-3, 198) saw action in 21 games with one start, and had 11 assists with seven turnovers.

Another returnee in the backcourt is junior Stephen Cox (6-3, 201), who averaged 0.2 points in 10 games as a reserve.

Newcomers could make the biggest impact outside with the addition of freshmen Rotnei Clarke, Courtney Fortson and Jason Henry, and junior Montrell McDonald.

Clarke (6-0, 184) is the all-time leading scorer in Oklahoma prep history. He led Verdigris to the Class 3A state championship while averaging 40.9 points, 8.0 rebounds and 6.9 assists. He made 159 three-pointers during the season. Arkansas made 207 as a team in 2008.

Clarke finished his career with 3,758 points, averaging 20.1 as a freshman, 34.2

QUOTES FROM HEAD COACH JOHN PELPHEY

"We had six seniors (last year) and they certainly did a tremendous amount for the University of Arkansas. They went to three straight NCAA tournaments and got us our first (NCAA Tournament) win in nine years.

"On the flip side of that is now we've lost 86 percent of our scoring, 83 percent of our rebounds and 79 percent of our assists. What a wonderful opportunity for a first-year player to come to a place like Arkansas that's won a national championship and arguably competes in the best conference in the country. To have a chance to play and compete and gain as much valuable experience going into the future as they're going to get in Year One, that's pretty unique and rare.

"You know what, it's so unique, I hope that it never happens again.

"One of our new guards is Courtney Fortson. He's a tremendous penetrator and distributor of the basketball who is as tough as nails. Another one is Rotnei Clarke. He's probably the best three-point shooter in the country and he's better at driving and creating his own shot than he's given credit for.

"As time goes on, Andre Clark and Brandon Moore will develop into good players.

"Montrell McDonald is a junior college transfer. He has a great motor and can be very active.

"Any success we have will come from our two (scholarship) juniors - Michael Washington and Stefan Welsh. We have no seniors. Those two have to be there from a work ethic and leadership standpoint, and they have to be committed.

"Those two will have bigger roles.

"We have to overachieve. If we do, it could be exciting for the whole state and one of the most memorable seasons of all-time. If we don't, with our non-conference schedule and the league we're in, it could be very, very tough.

"It feels like we're in our first year again. Last year, we had to teach on a daily basis. It will be the same thing again this year because we don't have a lot of continuity right now.

"We may be looking at a two-year project here. We've got a tremendous amount to replace, but we've got a time frame to be able to do it in and be successful with this upcoming group.

"I'm really excited about the young kids that are coming in.

"The team will rely heavily on the passionate fan base we have. Our fans have a huge, huge impact on winning and losing, and we need that more than ever this year."

as a sophomore, 37.2 as a junior and 40.9 as a senior. He scored 35 points in the state championship game, making 12-of-24 shots, including 5-of-10 threes. A four-star recruit, he was rated the No. 14 point guard in the nation by both Rivals and Scout prior to his senior season, and he had more than 30 scholarship offers. For his career, he made 498-of-1,057 threes (.471).

Fortson (5-11, 180) did not put up eye-boggling numbers like Clarke, but based on hard-nosed defense and his ability to run a team, he earned a rating as the seventh-best overall player in the nation by Tackle/Sports Illustrated. He led The Patterson School to a 34-2 record last year with averages of 25.0 points, 7.0 assists and 6.0 steals. He was named Mr. Basketball by the Alabama Sports Writers Association in his home state following his senior campaign in 2007 when he averaged 23.7 points, 7.1 rebounds and 4.2 steals for Jefferson Davis High.

McDonald (6-5, 181) is a junior transfer from Cowley College in Arkansas City, Kan. He helped Cowley finish 31-3 with a Jayhawk Conference championship by averaging 13.4 points, 5.6 rebounds, 3.1 assists, 2.1 blocked shots and 2.1 steals. McDonald played in 20 games as a freshman at George Washington University in 2006. He averaged 4.4 points and 1.5 rebounds on an Atlantic 10 Conference championship team finishing 27-3 with a No. 14 final national ranking.

Henry (6-6, 189) played high school with Weems, who ended his career last year as a first-team All-SEC selection and the collegiate slam dunk champion. Henry averaged 28.0 points, 8.0 rebounds and 6.0 assists as a senior at West Memphis High. Originally a signee at Cincinnati, he played at Cincinnati Harmony last year where he averaged 22.0 points, 6.5 rebounds and 2.0 steals on a 29-2 team.

McDonald will probably be counted on to fill the spot vacated by Weems with Henry competing for time as well. The other guard spots should be a combination of Britt, Clarke, Cox, Fortson and Welsh with the possibility of more than two on the floor at the same time.

Junior Michael Washington recorded two double-doubles as a sophomore.

NOTING THE HOGS

2008 RAZORBACKS ADD TO TOURNAMENT TRADITION: Arkansas earned its 30th NCAA Tournament bid in 2008, which ranks ninth-best in the nation. The Razorbacks beat No. 24 Indiana in the first round before losing to No. 1 North Carolina in the second round. The win was the first NCAA Tournament victory since 1999. The Razorbacks were 6-2 against ranked teams in 2008 and 7-7 against teams earning a spot in the NCAA Tournament.

ARKANSAS LOOKING FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT 20-WIN SEASON: Arkansas has recorded three straight 20-win seasons. UA was 23-12 last year, 21-14 in 2007 and 22-10 in 2006. The Razorbacks were also 15-1 at home in 2008, which matches the third-best record in Bud Walton Arena (16-0 in 1994 and 15-0 in 1998).

CLARKE'S SCORING AVERAGE BETTER THAN ANY OTHER ARKANSAS SIGNEE, EVER: Incoming freshman Rotnei Clarke scored 1,227 points and averaged 40.9 points a game as a senior at Class 3A Verdigris (Claremore, Okla.) High School. Arkansas' four returnees from 2008 (Marcus Britt, Stephen Cox, Michael Washington, Stefan Welsh) scored a total of 358 points.

Clarke's 40.9 points-per-game average as a senior is the best incoming average for a freshman in school history. Arkansas' yearly records on incoming players go back to the early 1970s. Two years ago, Patrick Beverley came to Arkansas after averaging 37.3 points as a senior at Marshall HS in Chicago. At the time, that was the best for an incoming freshman since 1987 when Cannon Whitby averaged 40 as a senior at Obion County (Tenn.) HS in 1986.

THE FRONT COURT

Despite the heavy losses inside of Hill, Townes, Thomas and Hunter, there are a pair of returnees who could be ready for starring roles.

Junior forward Michael Washington (6-9, 239) has started 10 games in his career and freshman forward Michael Sanchez (6-8, 236) is in his second season after redshirting last year. In most seasons, Washington and Sanchez would each see extensive playing time, but with last year's four seniors in front of them, Washington played just more than 13 minutes a game while it was an easy decision for Sanchez to redshirt and get plenty of work against the veterans in practice.

Washington averaged 4.3 points and 3.9 rebounds. His 62 offensive rebounds were second on the team to Townes (77). Washington played 10 or more minutes 27 times and 15 or more 14 times.

He is the leading returnee in rebounding and blocked shots (0.7).

In addition to banging against the bigger bodies of the seniors during the season, Sanchez picked up valuable game experience in the summer. Selected to participate in a Reach USA tour of China, he played with other collegians in five exhibition games against Shan Dong Gold, the third-ranked professional team in China. In the five games, he made 19-of-34 shots (.559), and averaged 8.2 points and 7.0 rebounds. He was sixth on the team in scoring, and second in both rebounding and field goal percentage.

As a prep senior at Har-Ber High in 2007, Sanchez averaged 15.8 points, 13.8 rebounds and 7.0 assists in helping his team reach the state Class 7A finals.

Establishing a front line rotation is a priority, but Pelphrey actually started last year. In addition to redshirting Sanchez, freshman Andre Clark joined the team at mid-term and redshirted during the spring semester. Clark is a 6-9, 218-pound forward from North Little Rock High School West. He earned Class 7A all-state honors as a senior in 2007 with averages of 17.0 points and 6.0 rebounds. He attended prep school last fall, but did not participate in basketball before enrolling at Arkansas for the spring.

The one true newcomer inside is 6-9, 215-pound forward Brandon Moore of New Orleans, La. Rated the No. 34 power forward in the nation by Rivals, he averaged 17.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 5.0 blocked shots as a senior at Holy Cross High. Rated the No. 126 prospect overall, he averaged 16.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 5.0 blocks as a junior.

Washington and Sanchez should carry the load inside early, but Clark and Moore will definitely figure into the rotation with McDonald and Henry options as well.

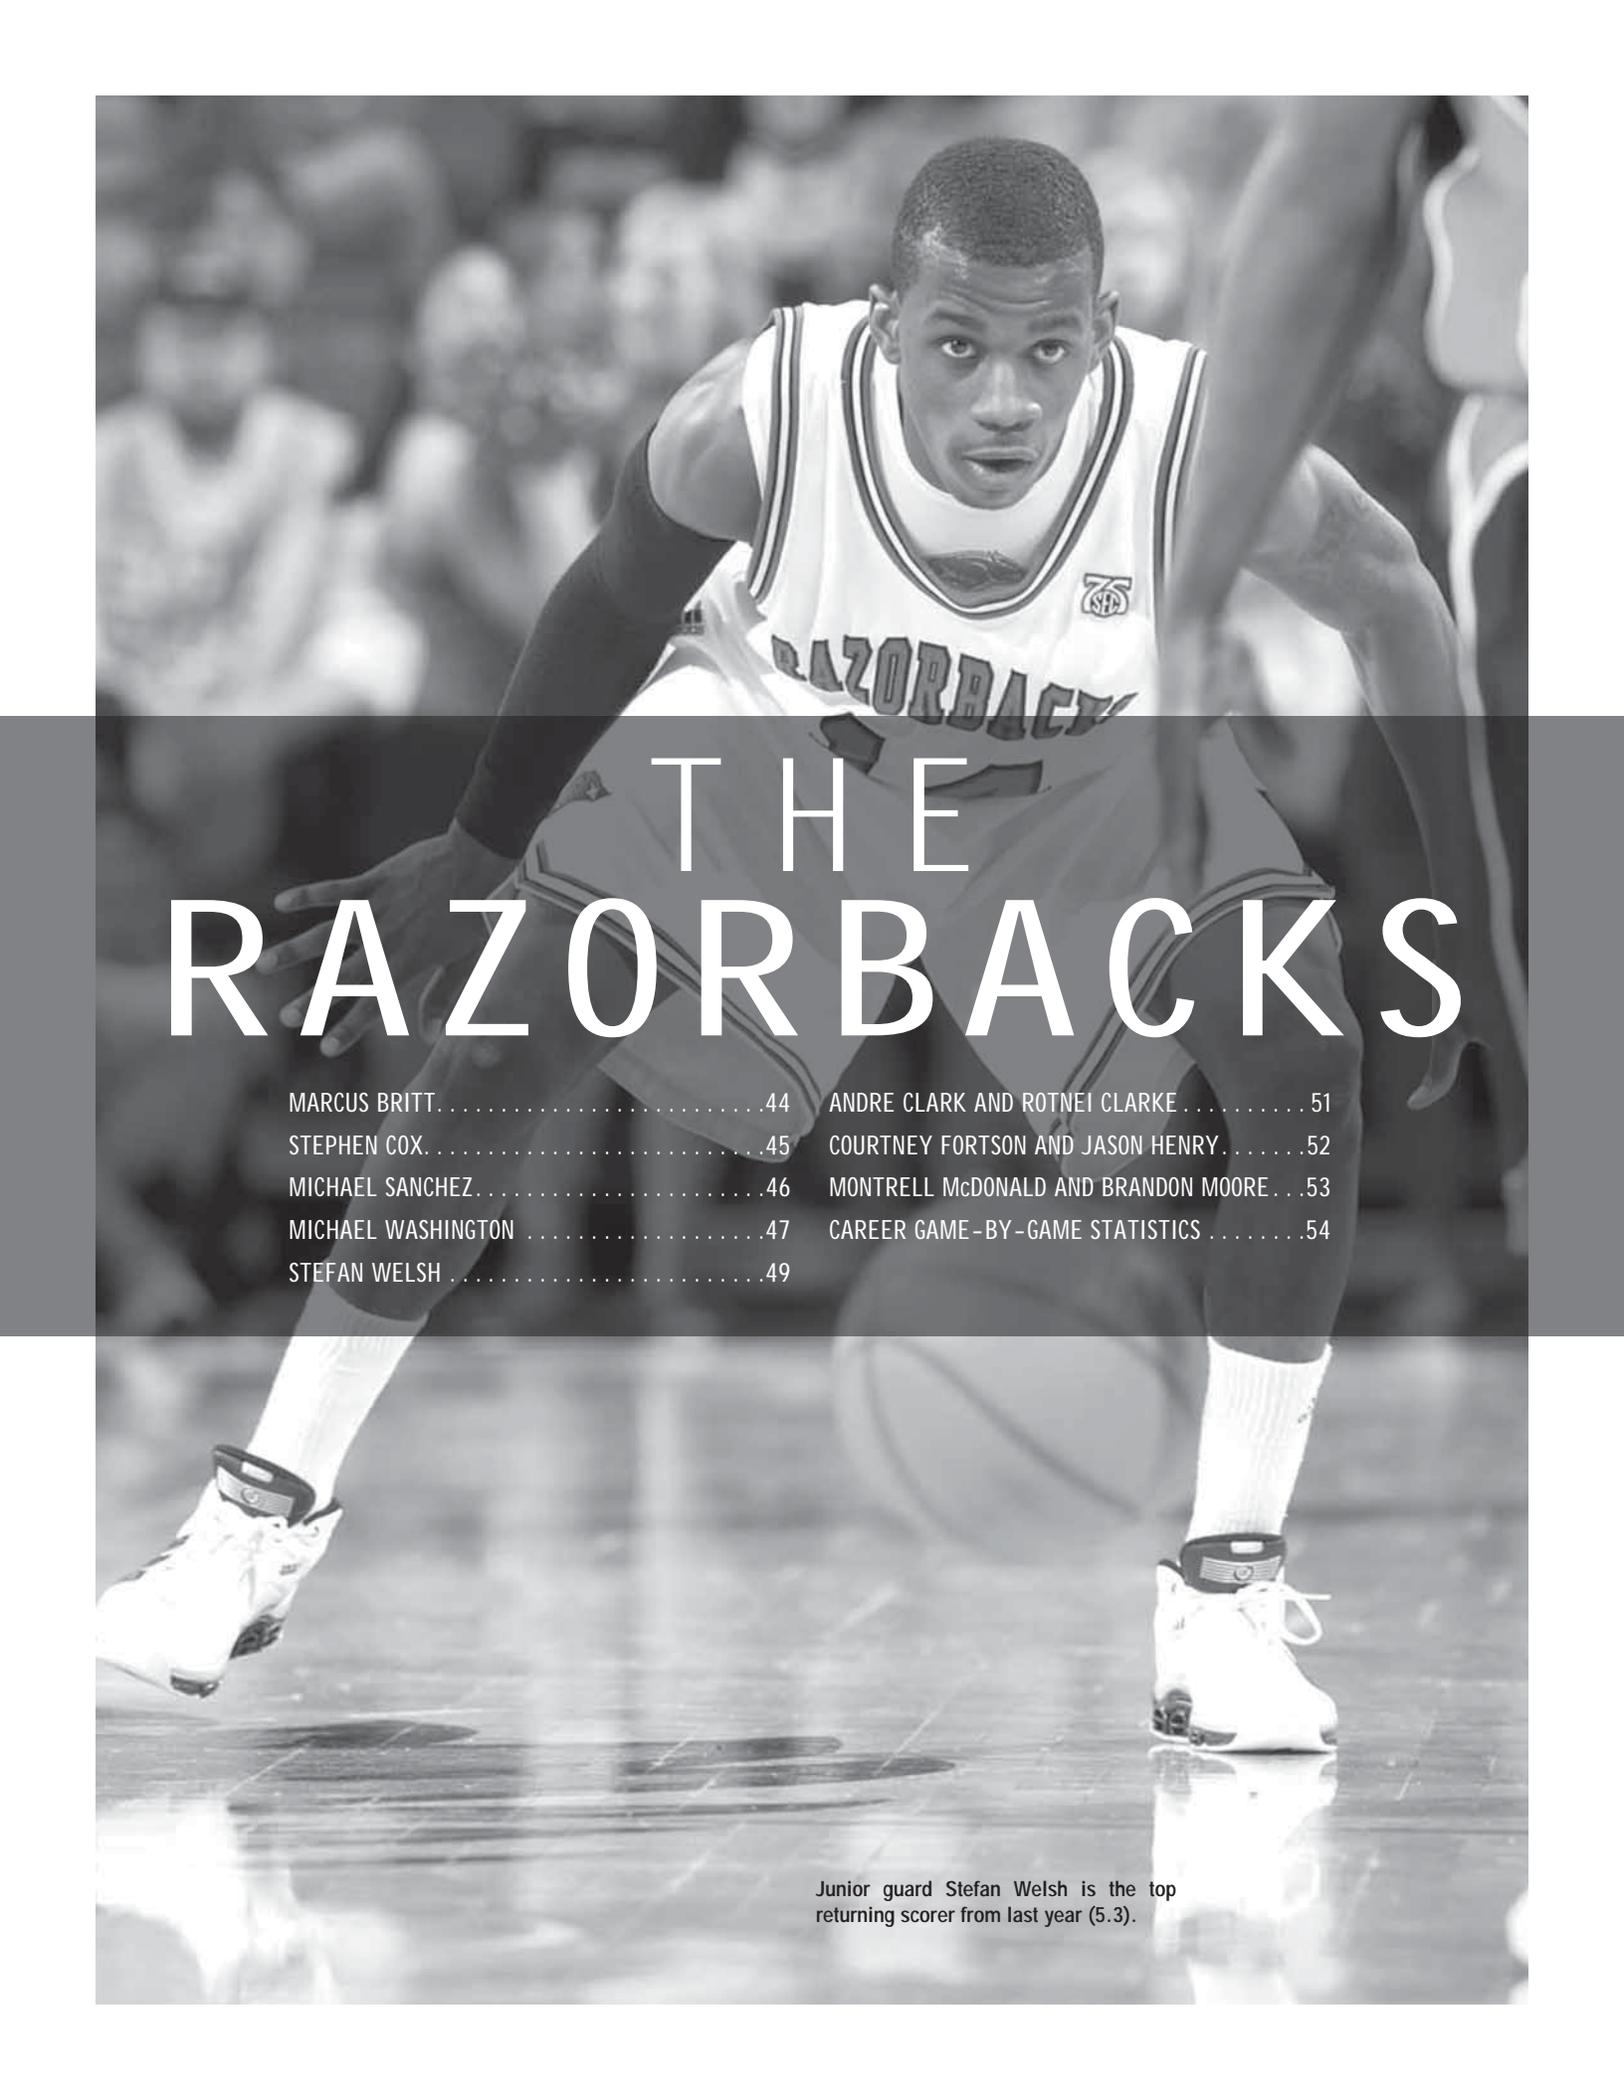

NOTING THE HOGS

FORTSON RATED AMONG TOP 10 PLAYERS IN THE NATION AT ANY POSITION: Incoming freshman point guard Courtney Fortson was rated the No. 7 overall player in the nation in 2008 by Tackle/Sports Illustrated. From Montgomery, Ala., he averaged 25.0 points, 7.0 assists and 6.0 steals at The Patterson School, a prep school in Lenoir, N.C. He was named his state's Mr. Basketball by the Alabama Sports Writers Association as a senior in 2007 after averaging 23.7 points, 7.1 rebounds and 4.2 steals at Jefferson Davis High School.

REDSHIRT FRESHMAN SANCHEZ GETS GAME EXPERIENCE IN CHINA: With a deep frontcourt in front of him, forward Michael Sanchez redshirted last year, but the 6-8, 236-pound freshman gained game experience over the summer. Selected to participate in a Reach USA exhibition tour of China, he played in five games against Shan Dong Gold, the third-ranked professional team in the country. In the five games, he made 19-of-34 shots (55.9 percent), and averaged 8.2 points and 7.0 rebounds. His scoring average was sixth-best on the team while his rebounding average and field goal percentage both ranked second-best.

Michael Sanchez averaged 9.0 points and 4.5 rebounds in two exhibition games in Cancun over Labor Day weekend prior to redshirting during the 2007-08 season.

2008-09 Preview: After being led by the frontcourt last year, the Razorbacks could be more perimeter oriented this year and Britt will be a part of that equation. He picked up valuable experience as a true freshman last season and will be in the backcourt rotation again this year. A good defender, he is also a good ball-handler.

2007-08: With the switch from a half-court style to more full-court, the Razorbacks needed additional ball-handlers and Britt was a regular in the rotation as a true freshman.

He averaged 0.8 points and 0.3 rebounds for the season while appearing in 27 games. He played just under six minutes per outing, and also had 11 assists and eight steals with only seven turnovers for the year.

He was 6-of-27 shooting (.222), including 2-of-15 on threes (.133). At the line, he was 8-of-9, 88.9 percent.

He missed the Louisiana-Monroe game (12/29) with a sprained ankle. He returned for the next game against Baylor (1/5) and had five points, going 3-of-3 at the line. He had two points and an assist with no turnovers in 12 minutes against LSU (2/20).

In the NCAA Tournament loss to No. 1 North Carolina (3/23), he was 1-of-2 from the field and 2-of-2 at the line for five points in 12 minutes.

Playing in one exhibition game in Cancun over Labor Day weekend prior to the season, he had five points, two assists and a steal.

In High School: At Forrest City High School, he averaged 18.0 points, 5.0 assists and 4.0 rebounds as a senior for head coach Dwight Lofton. A three-time all-state selection, he was first-team All-Arkansas, all-state, all-conference and named to the Class 6A all-tournament team as a senior. Named the state's sophomore of the year by the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, he averaged 18.5 points as a junior.

As a senior, he led the Mustangs to a 26-3 finish, the Class 6A East Conference title and into the state finals where the Mustangs fell to Jonesboro, 83-72. He had 27 points and made six threes in the championship game. In the 70-65 semifinal victory over Little Rock Parkview, he scored 25 points.

Rated the No. 96 prospect in the nation by '07 Hoops, he originally signed with Louisiana Tech during the early period, but was granted his release following a coaching change. Britt then signed with the Razorbacks after also considering South Florida and Colorado.

POLL WORTHY

The SEC is the only league in the country to have all of its members ranked at least one week in the Associated Press top 25 (excluding pre-season polls) since 1999-2000. Simply stated, every SEC team has been a top 25 team nationally at one point in the last nine seasons.

Arkansas was one of five league schools to earn a national ranking during the 2007-08 season.

EVERYBODY DANCE

Every team in the SEC has made at least one NCAA Tournament appearance in the last seven editions of the "Big Dance."

Arkansas, Kentucky and Tennessee are the only league members to earn tournament bids each of the last three seasons.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

All 12 SEC teams were ranked in the top 100 in strength of schedule, according to CollegeRPI.com. At No. 25, Arkansas was one of three conference teams ranked among the top 25.

SIX TEAMS DANCING

The SEC was second in the nation in number of bids to the 2008 NCAA Tournament. The league received six bids for the eighth time in the last 10 years, and five or more bids for the 12th straight year.

SEC SECOND IN OVERALL POST-SEASON BIDS

With six teams earning spots in the 2008 NCAA Tournament, including Arkansas, and two others earning spots in the post-season NIT, the SEC had eight total teams participating in post-season. That figure was second-best in the nation to the nine total bids earned by the Big East Conference.

TOPS IN TOURNEY WINS

The SEC ranks first among all conferences in record in the NCAA Tournament over the last three years. Over that span, the league is 28-15 for a winning percentage of .651. The Big 12 is next at 22-13 (.629), followed by the Pac-10 at 26-16 (.619).

HISTORY OF THE SEC

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another more than 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives in Atlanta on Dec. 22, 1894.

The SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 with Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer Mississippi State, Nashville, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas and Tulane joining the fold, and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920, including Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, MSU, UNC, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee. In 1922, Florida, LSU, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt, Virginia and VMI joined while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928, respectively. The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized (UA, AU, UF, UG, GTU, UK, LSU, UM, MSU, Sewanee, UT, Tulane and VU) as the SEC at the Southern Conference meetings of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville while the 10 coast members remained in the SC. Sewanee withdrew on Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964, and Tulane on June 1, 1966. The league maintained that membership until Arkansas joined on Aug. 1, 1990, and South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990.

First-team All-SEC pick Sonny Weems won the 20th annual State Farm College Slam Dunk championship at St. Mary's University in San Antonio prior to last year's Final Four.

2008 REVIEW: HOGS WIN 20 AGAIN, ADVANCE TO SECOND ROUND OF NCAA TOURNAMENT

ARKANSAS ADDS TO TRADITION OF SUCCESS: The 2008 NCAA Tournament bid added to Arkansas' great tradition.

The NCAA Tournament bid is the 30th in school history, which ranks ninth-best in the nation. Arkansas has appeared in 29 tournaments because it was unable to participate in the 1944 tournament due to a car accident.

The Razorbacks are also No. 12 in the nation with 40 NCAA Tournament victories, tied for No. 13 with 10 trips to the Sweet Sixteen and tied for ninth with six trips to the Final Four.

NCAA Tournament bids:	30	ninth-most in the nation
NCAA Tournament wins:	40	T12th-most in the nation
Sweet Sixteen appearances:	10	Tied for 13th-most
Final Four appearances:	6	Tied for ninth-most

WEEMS MATCHES SECOND-BEST NCAA TOURNAMENT SCORING GAME IN SCHOOL HISTORY: In the win over Indiana, Sonny Weems made 12-of-14 shots, including 3-of-4 threes, and was 4-of-4 at the line for a career-high 31 points, which ties for the second-best point total in school history in an NCAA Tournament game. Weems missed his first two shots of the game, then made 12 straight.

Mario Credit made 14-of-21 shots and scored 34 points in a 120-101 win over Loyola-Marymount on March 16, 1989. Weems' total equaled Todd Day's 31 points on 14-of-24 shooting against Alabama in 1991. That game was on March 21, the same date Weems had his 31.

HALFTIME LEAD A GOOD SIGN: Arkansas was 21-0 in 2008 when leading at the half. The Razorbacks were also 9-0 when scoring 80 or more points and 12-0 when shooting 50 percent or better from the floor.

ARKANSAS AGAINST NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAMS: Arkansas was 7-7 against teams in the NCAA Tournament. The Razorbacks were 2-0 against Vanderbilt, 1-0 against Indiana, Baylor and Oral Roberts, 1-1 against Tennessee and Mississippi State, 0-1 against North Carolina, Oklahoma and Kentucky, and 0-2 against Georgia.

ARKANSAS AGAINST RANKED TEAMS: With the win over No. 24 Indiana and the loss to No. 1 North Carolina, Arkansas finished 2008 6-2 against ranked teams. The Razorbacks had wins over No. 4 Tennessee (92-91), two over No. 18 Vanderbilt (81-75 and 78-73), No. 19 Florida (80-61), No. 24 Indiana (86-72) and No. 25 Mississippi State (78-58). The Hogs lost to No. 1 UNC (108-77) and at No. 4 Tennessee (93-71).

2008 HOGS DREW A CROWD(S) FOR BEST ATTENDANCE AVERAGE SINCE 2000: Arkansas' average attendance in 2008 was 17,148, its best since 2000 when UA ranked sixth in the nation with an average of 17,807. Arkansas' 2008 average was eighth-best in the nation, marking the 15th straight year the Razorbacks have ranked among the top 15.

WEEMS NAMED FIRST-TEAM ALL-SEC, WINS COLLEGE DUNK TITLE: Senior guard/forward Sonny Weems was named to the first-team All-SEC squad selected by the league's coaches. He was 16th in the SEC in scoring (15.0) and 12th in field goal percentage (.464). In SEC play only, he was eighth in scoring (17.3), 26th in rebounding (5.1), 15th in field goal percentage (.445), fourth in three-point percentage (.426) and sixth in three-point goals per game (2.50).

Weems won the 2008 national dunk championship competing at the 20th annual State Farm College Slam Dunk and 3-Point Championships on April 3. One of eight players invited to compete, the contest was held at St. Mary's University in San Antonio, Texas, in conjunction with the Final Four.

HILL NAMED TO SEC'S ALL-DEFENSIVE TEAM: Senior center Steven Hill was named to the SEC's all-defensive team selected by the league's coaches. The 2007 SEC Defensive Player of the Year averaged 4.2 points, 2.9 rebounds and 2.1 blocked shots. He is one of just four players in SEC history to record 300 or more career blocked shots. He finished his career with 318 to join LSU's Shaquille O'Neal (412, 1990-92), Auburn's Kyle Davis (360, 2001-04) and Georgia's Lavon Mercer (327, 1977-80) on that short list. The SEC selected an all-defensive team for the first time since 1992.

THOMAS AND TOWNES NAMED TO SEC ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM: Seniors Charles Thomas and Darian Townes earned SEC All-Tournament honors after helping the Razorbacks knock off No. 18 Vanderbilt and No. 4 Tennessee to reach the final. In the three games, Townes was 19-of-29 from the field (.655), and averaged 17.0 points, 6.0 rebounds, 1.3 blocked shots, 1.0 assist and 1.0 steal. Thomas was 17-of-30 from the floor (.567) and 14-of-15 at the line (.933) with averages of 16.3 points, 6.7 rebounds and 1.3 steals. Over the last nine games of his career, Townes led the team in field goal percentage (.655, 57-87), scoring (15.9) and rebounding (7.1) while adding 1.0 assist and 1.0 steal with seven blocked shots.

RAZORBACKS GET THIRD STRAIGHT 20-WIN SEASON, EQUAL THIRD-BEST BUD WALTON ARENA RECORD: With the win over Auburn on March 8, Arkansas earned its 20th victory and finished its regular-season home record at 15-1. Arkansas (23-12) has recorded three straight 20-win seasons for the first time since 1994 (31-3, national champion), 1995 (32-7, championship game) and 1996 (20-13, Sweet 16). 1994, 1995 and 1996 were actually the last three of nine consecutive 20-win campaigns. The 15-1 home record matches the third-best mark for the Hogs in Bud Walton Arena. Arkansas was 16-0 in 1994, 15-0 in 1998 and 15-1 in 2006.

WEEMS, HILL, TOWNES MOVE ON TO NBA: Sonny Weems was the ninth pick of the second round (No. 39 overall) of the 2008 NBA Draft by the Chicago Bulls. The next day, his rights were traded to the Denver Nuggets. He is the third Razorback in eight years to be drafted, following first-round picks Joe Johnson in 2001 and Ronnie Brewer in 2006.

Steven Hill also signed with Portland and Darian Townes with Sacramento. All three participated in the NBA Summer League.

BEVERLEY THE SHORTEST REBOUNDING LEADER IN SCHOOL HISTORY: Guard Patrick Beverley was in double figures rebounding six times in SEC play last year and led the team in rebounding in 12 of the last 21 games. He was Arkansas' top rebounder for the season (6.6) and in SEC play (8.3).

Overall, he was 11th in the SEC and was fourth in conference play. He was in double figures rebounding seven times with six of those coming in SEC play. He had 13 against Texas-San Antonio, 13 against Alabama, 12 against South Carolina, 15 at LSU, 10 against Mississippi State, 12 against Florida and 13 against Ole Miss.

At 6-1, Beverley was the only player among the league's top 16 shorter than 6-4.

Arkansas' rebounding records go back to the 1953 season. Several team season leaders led the team at 6-4, but Beverley is the first team leader in school history to be shorter than 6-4.

Beverley's 6.6 average was the best for a Razorback since Dionisio Gomez led the team with 6.6 in 2003. The last Hog with a better average was Derek Hood with an SEC-leading 10.3 in 1999.

BUD WALTON ARENA

"THE BASKETBALL PALACE OF MID-AMERICA"

Arkansas has played in Bud Walton Arena – The Basketball Palace of Mid-America - for 15 years and has drawn more than 4.1 million fans, ranked among national attendance leaders every season and won 80 percent of its games.

When Arkansas joined the Southeastern Conference in August of 1990, Razorback Athletic Director Frank Broyles knew the athletic facilities had to be upgraded to contend in America's most nationally competitive league.

His attention turned immediately to basketball. The Hogs were very successful, coming off a Final Four trip earlier that year, but had just a 9,000-seat home, Barnhill Arena.

One day, Bud Walton, co-founder of Wal-Mart, visited Broyles and asked him what Arkansas needed most to be competitive in the SEC. Broyles mentioned the need for additional basketball seats and was asked by Walton what a new arena would cost. The figure $30 million was discussed and Walton offered to pay half. From that visit, fabulous Bud Walton Arena was born.

Groundbreaking to grand opening was accomplished in a remarkable 18 months. The Razorbacks played in Bud Walton for the first time in November of 1993. Everything went perfectly during the first full year. Not only did Arkansas sell out the arena, the Razorbacks were unbeaten in their new home (16-0) and won the 1994 national championship.

The Hogs carry a 198-44 (.818) record into the 2009 season.

In 15 seasons, UA has an all-time average attendance of 17,243 in Bud Walton Arena. Arkansas has ranked in the top 15 nationally in attendance every year in BWA, including a No. 8 ranking in 2008 with an average of 17,148 per game.

Entering the 2008 campaign, UA has a combined mark of 502-138 in its last two homes for an outstanding home winning percentage of .784 over the last 51 years.

BWA houses a deluxe museum on the ground level that includes a tribute to Arkansas' 1994 NCAA championship and multiple Final Four appearances as well as the history of Razorback basketball, track and field, baseball, tennis and golf. Eye-catching displays on the concourse level salute recent Razorback highlights.

Enhancements for the 2009 season include the addition of courtside seating, electronic signage at the scorer's table, new retractable seats in the lower level, ribbon electronic boards along the bottom of the upper deck, replacing the Razorback on the court with the classic Razorback logo and opening up the student section by converting it from chairback seats to benches.

Eight suites were added prior to the 2008 season, raising the total to 47.

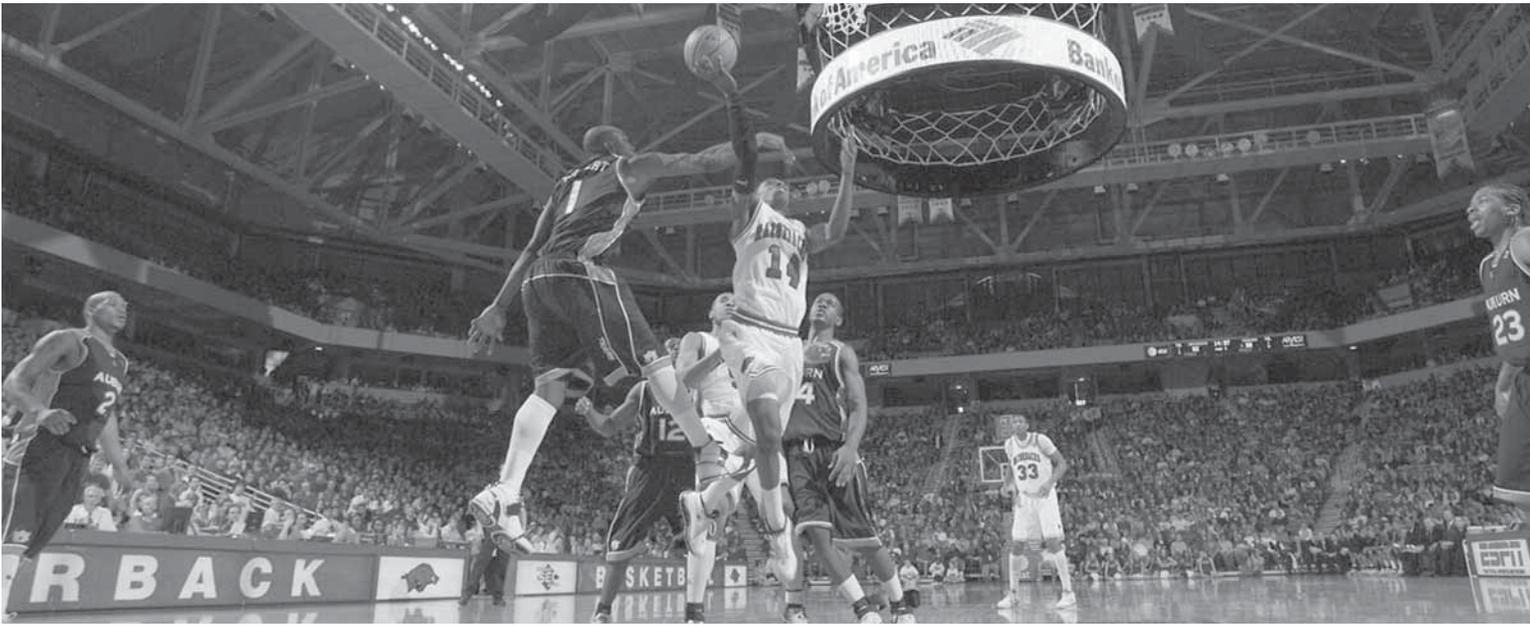

The Razorbacks received an expanded locker room in 2005, which includes a lounge with a spacious meeting area.

The 2004 season marked the debut of a new custom scoreboard in the shape of a basketball hoop. The board, 24 feet, three inches wide by 22 feet tall, features four video screens, each 12 feet, six inches wide by eight feet, 10 inches tall. An LED ring at the top is used to display game statistics.

As captivating as the displays, museum and championship banners are hanging from the arena floor's ceiling, the aspect of the facility demanding the most attention is spirit. Every game still produces an NCAA Tournament-type atmosphere with the exception of the crowd, which is anything but neutral.

According to Rosser International in Atlanta, when the arena was built, there were more seats in less space than in any such facility in the world. It's no wonder the noise level can be absolutely ear-splitting.

From pre-game to post-game, Bud Walton Arena is perfectly choreographed with the band, the spirit groups, the lighting system, the public address, the scoreboard and the team. Each game at Walton Arena is a rich experience leaving Razorback fans hungry for more.

UA Basketball Facilities

While the championship-caliber basketball and the sellout crowds are the most noticeable parts of BWA, what it offers to the basketball program on a daily basis is so much more.

From the spacious locker rooms and team meeting area to the artistically designed shower, Bud Walton provides top-notch accommodations for Arkansas players and coaches. UA's locker room was expanded for the 2005 season and now includes a lounge with a big screen television and computer work stations. It also features a meeting area large enough to comfortably accommodate the entire team and staff.

Arkansas' basketball team utilizes a fully stocked weight room as well as top-notch training facilities.

Even the hallway leading to the basketball offices features a hardwood floor replica complete with court markings and logos.

Razorback basketball history is alive and well in the Tommy Boyer Hall of Champions and in displays on the concourse level. The Yvonne Richardson Great Moments Theater delivers Arkansas' rich history at the touch of a button.

Whether it's players preparing for the next game, fans reliving great moments of the past or crowds anticipating tip-off, one visit and you'll know why Bud Walton Arena is truly "The Basketball Palace of Mid-America."

Michael Washington and the Razorbacks knocked off No. 18 Vanderbilt, No. 20 Florida and No. 25 Mississippi State at home last year, improving Arkansas' all-time Bud Walton Arena record against ranked teams to 26-15.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

Championships were a tradition at Arkansas long before the Razorbacks earned the national title in 1994. The '94 championship was the grandest of them all, but the NCAA trophy isn't exactly the only one on the shelf in the fabulous Bud Walton Arena museum.

In fact, Arkansas has made six trips to the NCAA Final Four. The Razorbacks have earned 30 bids to the NCAA Tournament.

In conference play, Arkansas has won 24 league championships with 22 coming in the Southwest Conference between 1926 and 1991. The Hogs won the Southeastern Conference crown in 1992, their first year in the league, after winning three straight SWC titles. The Hogs have also won seven league tournament crowns.

Since joining the SEC, Arkansas has been a dominant member. The Razorbacks won overall titles in 1992 and 1994, and Western Division titles in 1992, '93, '94 and '95, and won the tournament crown in 2000.

Arkansas has a long-standing tradition of winning in basketball. It started in the 1920s and has carried through to this time. Even though Arkansas didn't begin playing basketball until 1924, the Hogs won more SWC championships than any other school.

It didn't take long for the Hogs to have an impact on the SWC. Two years after starting the program, Arkansas won its first league crown. It was the first of five in a row. Francis Schmidt, Arkansas' first basketball coach, guided the Hogs to the 1926, '27, '28 and '29 titles. Chuck Bassett was the coach of the 1930 championship squad.

Wear Schoonover, Arkansas' first football All-American, captained the 1930 club. He earned All-SWC honors three times. In fact, the Razorbacks dominated the all-conference squads of the late 1920s. In 1928, Arkansas had four of the five All-SWC selections when Glen Rose, Tom Pickell, Gene Lambert Sr. and Schoonover were named all-league. Rose was also the first Razorback to earn All-America honors (1928), followed a year later by Pickell and Lambert.

The Hogs were loaded with all-conference talent during that time. Rose was a three-time All-SWC pick, as was Pickell.

Lambert and Rolla Adams made it twice, as did Milan Creighton.

From 1926 through 1929, Arkansas was a combined 60-5.

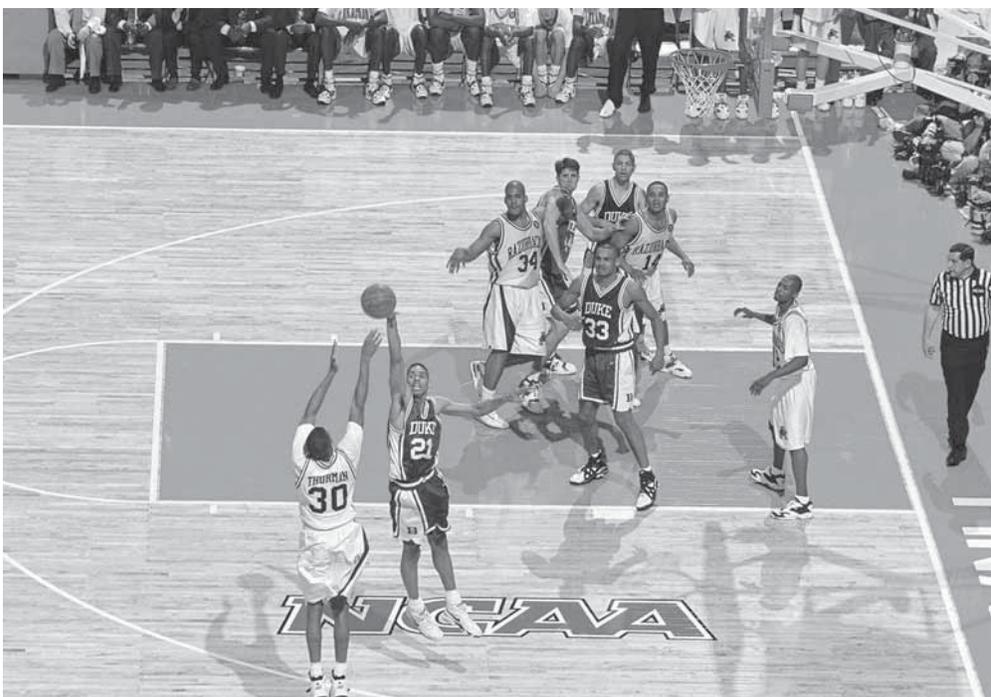

When Schmidt left Arkansas as coach, he went to league rival TCU and was tough to beat until the Razorbacks hired Rose as head coach.

He began another glorious run with a co-championship in 1935. The Hogs won SWC titles in '36, '38, '41 and '42. The 1936 Razorbacks almost represented the United States in the Olympics, winning four games in an Olympic playoff before losing to a team of all-stars from California in the semifinals of the tournament.

Jim Lee Howell, Ike Poole, Taft Moody, Don Lockard, Jack Robbins, Howard Hickey and Johnny Adams were the stars of their day. Adams was an All-American in 1941. He was Arkansas' fifth All-American but the last one UA would have until Ron Brewer made it in 1977.

From 1945 to 1950, Arkansas had four second-place finishes and shared the 1949 title. The Razorbacks then went through a mild recession before claiming a co-championship in 1958. By winning a playoff game against SMU, Arkansas qualified for the NCAA Tournament. It wasn't a pleasant experience. Oklahoma State, which featured Eddie Sutton as a player, downed the Hogs by 25, 65-40, and Oscar Robertson exploded for 58 points as the Hogs were drilled by Cincinnati, 97-62, in a consolation game.

As unpleasant as the tournament experience was, Arkansas would have loved to have gone back, but it didn't happen for 19 years. Not even Rose, who led the Hogs to the '58 title in his second stint as coach, could return Arkansas to glory. He retired following the 1966 season, but neither of his two successors, Duddy Waller or Lanny Van Eman, put a contender on the floor.

Scotty Thurman's clutch three-pointer with the shot clock winding down and 51 seconds left in the game gave Arkansas a 73-70 lead in the 76-72 victory over Duke in the 1994 NCAA championship game.

Van Eman did, however, bring excitement to the game. His teams regularly scored in the 80s and 90s at a time when the traditional powers played games in the 60s. Van Eman recruited Martin Terry from junior college and Terry set school single-season scoring records that still stand. He averaged 28.3 points per game as a senior. Even though he played only two seasons, Terry still ranks among Arkansas' top 10 all-time scorers.

Unfortunately, Van Eman's teams usually gave up more points than they scored. Twice in 1971, Arkansas scored 100 or more points and lost.

Van Eman's second club managed to win 16 games, but only five came in SWC play. Arkansas and Baylor, which paired for a thrilling 111-110 Baylor victory the year before, put on another wild show with the Razorbacks winning, 131-109, in Fayetteville, setting a league record for points scored by two teams in a conference game.

After the 1974 Hogs won just 10 games, Frank Broyles, newly appointed athletic director as well as an already established football coach, decided it was time to make a commitment to basketball. He turned things around by hiring Sutton.

Sutton caught the state's attention in his first season when the Razorbacks finished 17-9 and second in the SWC. By the time his second team finished its 19-9 campaign, construction workers were already renovating Barnhill Arena, a facility constructed in 1957.

The 1976 Hogs also featured the nucleus of what was to become one of the greatest teams in history. Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph were sophomores. Sidney Moncrief was a freshman and he quietly led the nation in field goal percentage (.665, 149-224), and Sutton knew he had something special.

With half of Barnhill's facelift completed before the 1977 season, a new wave of excitement swept through the entire state of Arkansas.

The Razorbacks blitzed through the SWC unbeaten, winning their first league title in 19 years. Brewer, Moncrief and Delph were the toast of the Ozarks. Arkansas

MEMORABLE GAMES

The history of Razorback basketball is filled with thrilling and even heart-stopping moments. The Final Four, conference championships, and last-second, game-winning jumpers shape memories of the "greatest" moments in UA history.

Following are 10 of those.

finished 26-2 but lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament when Moncrief fouled out, allowing Wake Forest to come from behind for a victory.

Expectations were high in 1978 and the Hogs didn't disappoint. For a week, the Razorbacks were even ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. A loss at Houston after two victories earlier in the week dropped the Hogs from their position at the top.

Arkansas shared the SWC title with Texas, but was upset by Houston, again on a last-second shot at the SWC Tournament. Stunned, the Razorbacks returned home unsure of whether or not they would receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament.

The Hogs got in and victories over Weber State and No. 2 UCLA thrust Arkansas into the regional finals. Brewer hit a long jumper with less than a minute to play and Jim Counce scored on a layup at the end to seal a 61-58 victory over Cal-Fullerton, sending the Hogs to the Final Four.

No. 1-ranked Kentucky ended Arkansas' dreams of a national title with a semifinals victory, but Brewer hit another of his patented buzzer shots in the third-place game, giving Arkansas a thrilling 71-69 victory over Notre Dame.

With All-American Brewer and the sleek-shooting Delph gone, Moncrief and Steve Schall were left to lead the 1979 Hogs. It was almost a repeat performance of 1978.

Moncrief was brilliant. He simply refused to allow his team to lose. After a brief midseason slump, Arkansas won 14 straight games, including two at the SWC Tournament and two in the NCAA Tournament. A victory over Louisville sent Arkansas into the Midwest Regional finals against No. 1-ranked Indiana State and superstar Larry Bird.

Arkansas could not stop Bird, but ISU could not contain Moncrief. In one of the greatest games in UA history, the Hogs suffered a 73-71 setback when a last-second Sycamore shot bounced twice and fell in. Arkansas finished 25-5 and the Moncrief era was history.

Sutton won three more SWC titles and left behind a legacy when his teams won 20 or more games nine years in a row. Arkansas played in the NCAA Tournament in each of those nine seasons, but never came close to returning to the Final Four. The Razorbacks even featured a team that had three future first-round NBA draft choices when Scott Hastings, Darrell Walker and Alvin Robertson played together. Joe Kleine, another future NBA product, redshirted that year (1982).

When Sutton left for Kentucky, Broyles turned a completely different

Corey Beck had 15 points, four assists and a team-high 10 rebounds in the championship game victory over Duke.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

APRIL 4, 1994, AT CHARLOTTE, N.C.

Despite UA's incredible basketball success through the years, the Razorbacks had never played for the national championship until their battle with Duke at the Charlotte Coliseum. The Hogs had been ranked No. 1 much of the year, but Duke had won two national titles in the three previous seasons and had defeated Arkansas in the 1990 Final Four at Denver.

Duke controlled the tempo in the first half and Corliss Williamson, who had been nearly unstoppable in the entire tournament, missed his first five shots for the Razorbacks. The Blue Devils led by as many as five points in the opening period, but Scotty Thurman drilled a late three-pointer to give UA a 34-33 halftime advantage.

Corey Beck hit a short jumper early in the second half to give the Hogs a 38-35 lead, but Duke scored 13 unanswered points and suddenly led 48-38 with 17:09 left. While the surge left Duke fans roaring their approval, it also sped up the tempo of the game. The Razorbacks trailed but actually had the Blue Devils right where they wanted them.

Playing at a quicker pace, Arkansas caught up in less than five minutes. When Al Dillard drilled a three with 8:08 remaining to give UA a five-point lead, it looked like momentum had swung to the Hogs for good. Duke fought back and tied the game at 65-65 and finally 70-all with 1:29 remaining. The Razorbacks took a timeout.

When Dwight Stewart fumbled a pass, he quickly passed it out to Thurman with the shot clock winding down. Thurman had no choice but to shoot. As his shot was narrowly clearing the outstretched hand of Antonio Lang, the shot clock hit zero. The shot, though, was true. It was a dagger to the hearts of the Blue Devils and surpassed U.S. Reed's half-court jumper against Louisville as the most famous shot in UA history.

Duke never recovered. Three free throws in the final seconds clinched the 76-72 victory that gave Arkansas the 1994 national championship.

direction when he hired Nolan Richardson. Richardson's teams were noted for defense, just as Sutton's were, but it was a different style of defense. Richardson's defense usually turned quickly to offense and his teams at Tulsa had led the nation in scoring.

Inheriting a group of players recruited to play at a slower pace, Richardson had to bite the bullet as his first season resulted in a 12-16 finish. Then he started recruiting. His second team won 19 games and his third was 21-9. His 1989 squad won Arkansas' first SWC title since 1982 and breezed through the league tournament. Arkansas set school scoring records and downed Loyola-Marymount in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before bowing to Louisville.

By then, Richardson's style and players had converted Razorback fans. Barnhill Arena was hopping every time the Hogs played. It wouldn't have taken a Final Four appearance for the state to go nuts, but when the Razorbacks reached the 1990 Final Four, the state went crazy.

The Hogs were SWC champs again and dominated the SWC Tournament for the second consecutive year. Triumphs over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas sent the Razorbacks into the Final Four. A loss to Duke in the semifinals ended the season at 30-5.

It nearly happened again in 1991. UA won a school-record 34 games before falling to Kansas in the Southeast Regional finals. Arkansas ended its history in the Southwest Conference by winning the final three regular season and tournament championships.

A new era was launched in 1992 and the Razorbacks didn't miss a beat. Arkansas won the Southeastern Conference title with a 13-3 record. Included were two victories over Shaquille O'Neal-led LSU and a big win at Kentucky. The Todd Day-Lee Mayberry-Oliver Miller era ended with a 26-8 season and another trip to the NAAs.

After winning the SEC's Western Division in '93 and pushing North Carolina to the limit in a Sweet 16 loss to the eventual national champions, Arkansas enjoyed its best season ever in 1994. UA won nearly everything possible. The Razorbacks were SEC champs, again sweeping LSU and winning at Kentucky, they made the school's fifth trip to the Final Four and completed their dream season by beating Arizona and Duke to win the national title.

A year later, Arkansas was No. 1 in all the preseason polls, but the Hogs stumbled early before making a late-season run. UA repeated as Western Division champion, then downed Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia to earn its sixth Final Four appearance.

A win over North Carolina in the semifinals allowed the Hogs to advance to the finals, but it was UCLA's year as the Bruins beat Arkansas for the 1995 crown, 89-78.

With every starter gone from the back-to-back Final Four clubs, Arkansas was expected to struggle in 1996. Richardson, however, molded together a young team and the Hogs peaked late. Seeded 12th in the NCAA East Regional, UA beat Penn State and Marquette to advance to the Sweet 16 before falling to top-ranked Massachusetts.

In 1997, Arkansas was forced to endure a NCAA inquiry, which proved fruitless, but it damaged the Hogs' recruiting. The streak of nine straight NCAA Tournament appearances ended but the Bud Walton Arena crowds were rejuvenated by three NIT games. Fans who never before had the opportunity to buy Razorback basketball tickets were able to attend and helped UA advance to the NIT semifinals in New York.

It was back to the NAAs in 1998 as the Razorbacks, who got 10.4 points and an SEC-leading 9.8 rebounds per game from Nick Davis, won 24 games and reached the second round with a win over Nebraska.

Arkansas won its 10th straight NCAA Tournament first-round game in 1999 as Pat Bradley set school records for career three-point shooting (366-915, .400). Derek Hood recorded more double-doubles than anyone in UA history (18) and also led the league in rebounding (10.3), and Kareem Reid broke Mayberry's career record for assists (748).

Charles Balentine's baseline jumper gave Arkansas a 65-64 victory over Michael Jordan and No. 1-ranked North Carolina in 1984.

North Carolina was 19-0 and ranked No. 1 nationally when the Tar Heels visited Pine Bluff. Arkansas was on its way to a second-place finish in the Southwest Conference and had defeated SMU in Dallas the day before.

Violent weather kept the Hogs from flying to Pine Bluff until the morning of the game, and the Razorbacks arrived in town two hours before the nationally televised contest.

If the Razorbacks were weary, they showed no signs of it. They defended North Carolina fiercely, holding the Tar Heels to 45 percent shooting. North Carolina had plenty of weapons. Michael Jordan, Sam Perkins and Brad Daugherty, all future NBA stars, were in the starting lineup along with Steve Hale, a guard from Tulsa whose second choice of schools was Arkansas.

The Hogs were armed with Joe Kleine and Alvin Robertson, but the unsung heroes were Darryl Bedford and Charles Balentine. Bedford, a freshman who had been a little used reserve, hit all six of his shots and scored 12 points. Balentine, of course, was the hero at the end.

A crowd of 7,529 was in a frenzy from the opening tipoff to the final buzzer. They watched Jordan score 21 points and Kleine answer with 20. Perkins had 17 and Hale 15. Leroy Sutton scored 11 points, Balentine 10 and Robertson nine for the Hogs.

North Carolina's largest lead of the first half was five points. UA led by as many as seven before taking a 38-34 advantage at the break. The second half was a nailbiter and the Tar Heels led by one with only seconds to play. Balentine drove the baseline and hit an eight-footer to give Arkansas the lead before UNC missed a buzzer shot.

Junior Stefan Welsh helped Arkansas reach the NCAA Tournament each of his first two seasons.

UA also had one of the most unique weeks in its basketball history. The final two home games came over a five-day span against No. 5 Kentucky and No. 2 Auburn. Never before had Arkansas played two top 10 teams at home in the same week. Arkansas beat UK, 74-70, and topped Auburn, 104-88.

Following an up-and-down season in 2000, Arkansas won four games in four days, including wins over No. 16 Kentucky, No. 10 LSU and No. 23 Auburn to win the school's first SEC Tournament title. Brandon Dean was the MVP after averaging 15.2 points in the title run.

The 2001 club rebounded from an 0-3 league start with a six-game winning streak late in the year to earn Arkansas' 13th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years and its 15th straight postseason tournament berth.

The Nolan Richardson era came to an end in 2002 when he was released from his contract. The Razorbacks dropped to 14-15, including a 13-14 mark under Richardson. Mike Anderson was 1-1 as interim head coach for the last two games of the season.

Stan Heath rebuilt the roster with recruiting classes ranked as high as No. 13 by Rivals.com in 2004 and No. 7 by Hoop Scoop in 2003. In 2005, the Razorbacks won the Paradise Jam tournament title and went 18-12.

In 2006, Heath had Arkansas back in the NCAA Tournament, going 22-10 behind honorable mention All-American Ronnie Brewer (18.4 ppg), All-SEC guard Jonathon Modica (16.1 ppg) and SEC Sixth Man of the Year Eric Ferguson (8.1 ppg).

Arkansas earned another NCAA bid in 2007. The Razorbacks won the Old Spice Classic, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and recorded the 27th 20-win season in school history by finishing 21-14. Patrick Beverley (13.9 ppg, 4.5 rpg) was the SEC newcomer and freshman of the year, and Steven Hill (6.2 ppg, 2.8 blocks) the SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

John Pelphrey, an honorable mention All-American as a player at Kentucky, became head coach for the 2008 season. His background includes playing for Eddie Sutton and Rick Pitino at Kentucky, and working as an assistant coach for Sutton at Oklahoma State, and Billy Donovan at Marshall and Florida.

Pelphrey's first Razorback team went 23-12, was 6-2 against ranked teams, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a win over No. 24 Indiana. Sonny Weems (15.0 ppg, 4.5 rpg) was first-team All-SEC and won the College Slam Dunk championship.

Sidney Moncrief and Larry Bird put on a great show in the 1979 Midwest Regional Final.

NCAA REGIONAL FINAL
MARCH 17, 1979, AT CINCINNATI, OHIO

A Final Four team in 1978, Arkansas was not expected to return in 1979 with the loss of Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph, two of the famed "Triplets." Sidney Moncrief, however, almost single-handedly pushed his team to greater heights than anyone expected.

Moncrief, senior Steve Schall and a cast of sophomores and freshmen put together a 14-game winning streak late in the year and arrived at the Midwest Regional finals ready to challenge No. 1-ranked and unbeaten Indiana State, and superstar Larry Bird. The stakes were a spot in the Final Four.

Bird was awesome. The Hogs simply could not stop him. With 9:22 left, he already had 27 points. Razorback Coach Eddie Sutton then made the ultimate gamble. He put the 6-4 Moncrief on the 6-9 Bird for the final seven minutes.

Bird scored just four more points. Moncrief, meanwhile, was almost as unstoppable as Bird had been. He finished with 24 points and eight rebounds, and had his team in a position to win late. Arkansas had the ball with 1:31 left and holding for the last shot with the score tied 71-71.

With 1:02 remaining, U.S. Reed tripped and was called for walking, giving the Sycamores the ball.

ISU held for the last shot, but could not get the ball to Bird, who was smothered by Moncrief. It was Bob Heaton who launched the shot with two seconds left and the Hogs watched helplessly as it hit both sides of the rim before dropping through, depriving the Hogs of a second straight trip to the Final Four.

UA IN THE FINAL FOUR

During Arkansas' long, illustrious basketball history, the Razorbacks have been to the NCAA Final Four six times.

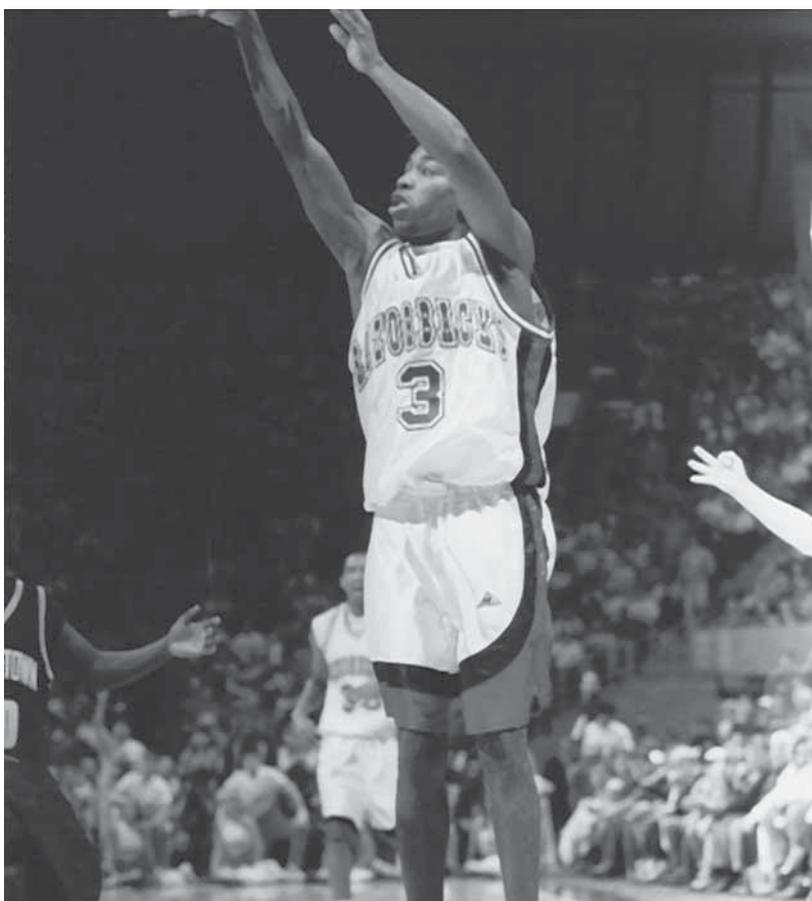

The Hogs have earned 30 bids to the NCAA Tournament and made 29 appearances, missing the 1944 event due to a car accident prior to the first-round games.

Only eight schools in the entire country have been to the Final Four more than Arkansas, and only eight schools have earned more than UA's 30 NCAA Tournament bids. Among Southeastern Conference schools, only Kentucky has been to the NCAA Tournament more often. In fact, Arkansas, Kentucky, LSU, Georgia, Mississippi State and Florida are the only league schools to reach the Final Four.

It was tougher to get in the tournament in the early days, but it also took fewer games to win the title.

In the 1940s, only eight teams participated in the NCAA Tournament, which first became an event in 1939. Up to that point, the NIT was the top national post-season tournament. Twice in the '40s, the Razorbacks advanced to the Final Four.

The 1941 Hogs roared through the Southwest Conference with a 12-0 mark and carried a 19-2 record into the tournament. Arkansas downed Wyoming, 65-40, to reach

Al Dillard scored 19 points in the Sweet 16 victory over Memphis en route to the 1995 Final Four.

It had been an incredible year for Arkansas. The Razorbacks repeated as Southwest Conference champs but had to nervously await an NCAA at-large bid when they were eliminated from the league tournament by Houston in the semifinals. The "Triplets," Ron Brewer, Sidney Moncrief and Marvin Delph, were the ringleaders of one of the greatest teams in school history.

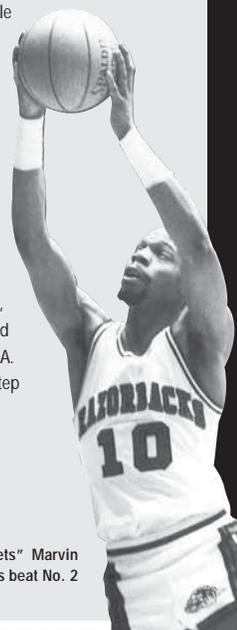

Still, the Hogs were underdogs and a new kid on the NCAA block when they faced second-ranked UCLA in the third round at Albuquerque. David Greenwood was the leader of the Bruins, who weren't far removed from their incredible string of NCAA championships.

UCLA was stunned as Arkansas roared to a 40-22 lead that was cut to 42-29 by half-time. The Bruins didn't panic. They pressed the Hogs and took a 60-58 lead.

Brewer tied the game with two free throws, Steve Schall hit a short turnaround and Delph drilled a jump shot to put the Hogs back in front. By game's end the Razorbacks were going strong.

Delph sizzled by hitting 11 of his 14 shots, finishing with 23 points. Moncrief had 21 and Brewer 18. Greenwood finished with 17 for UCLA.

The victory moved the Razorbacks a step closer to their eventual trip to the Final Four.

Ron Brewer had 18 points while fellow "Triplets" Marvin Delph had 23 and Sidney Moncrief 21 as Arkansas beat No. 2 UCLA on the way to the 1978 Final Four.

Defending NCAA champion Louisville and Southwest Conference champion Arkansas clawed at each other for 39 minutes and 55 seconds in the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the scoreboard read Louisville 73, Arkansas 72 after Derek Smith's short jumper for the Cardinals.

The Razorbacks, who had led by six points with 2:13 left, called timeout. U.S. Reed took the inbounds pass and coolly dribbled to the midcourt area near the sideline. With a second left on the clock, he launched a desperation 49-footer. The only thing desperate after the shot was the look on the faces of the Louisville players as they watched the ball hit nothing but net.

Reed shook hands with everyone on the press table after hitting a shot that will live forever in the minds of Razorback fans. He finished with 19 points. Darrell Walker had 23 and the Hogs were still alive in the NCAA Tournament.

the Final Four at Kansas City. Washington State handed the Razorbacks a 64-53 setback, meaning Arkansas and Pittsburgh tied for third since there was no third-place game.

UA returned in 1945, again to Kansas City. Arkansas was 16-8 entering the tournament but edged Oregon, 79-76, to reach the Final Four. Eventual national champion Oklahoma State, which Arkansas had defeated once earlier in the season, downed the Hogs and UA tied Ohio State for third place.

It took 33 years for Arkansas to return. In 1978, the Hogs were Southwest Conference champs and beat Weber State, second-ranked UCLA and California-Fullerton to advance to the Final Four at St. Louis. Top-ranked Kentucky led by just one with two minutes to play and posted a 64-59 victory.

There was a third-place game and Ron Brewer hit a buzzer shot from the top of the circle to send the Razorbacks past Notre Dame, 71-69. Brewer had 20 points and Marvin Delph 21 in their final game as Razorbacks.

Nolan Richardson guided the Hogs to the Final Four in 1990, 1994 and '95.

In 1990, wins over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas earned Arkansas a trip to Denver. UA was 30-4 heading into a semifinal showdown with Duke.

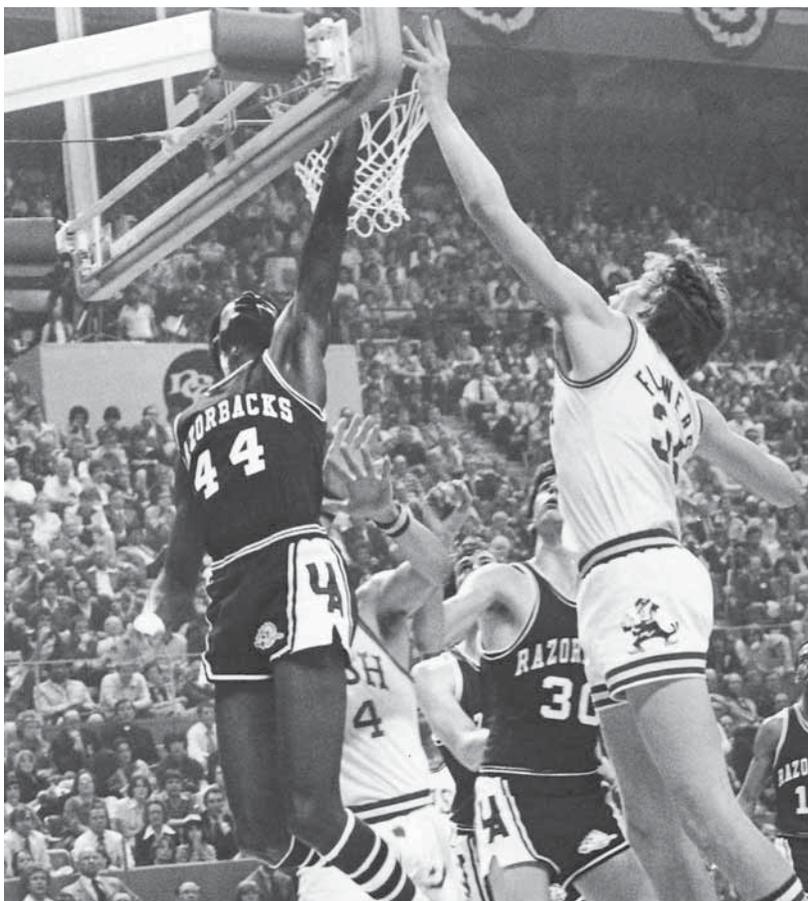

Richardson took his club to Denver a day early to adjust to the altitude, but the Hogs fell behind early in both halves and used plenty of adrenaline to catch up. UA led 69-62 with 10:38 remaining, but ran out of gas. Duke came back and won, 97-83, but also used most of its energy. The Blue Devils were beaten by Nevada-Las Vegas in the title game while UA tied Georgia Tech for third.

The ultimate came in 1994. The Hogs downed North Carolina A&T, Georgetown, Tulsa and Michigan to advance to the Final Four at Charlotte, N.C. The win over Arizona was Arkansas' first ever in the national semifinals and set up a clash with Duke.

With the score tied with less than a minute to play, a well-defended Scotty Thurman hit a three-pointer to lead the Razorbacks to a 76-72 victory and the national title.

With every starter from the championship squad returning, the Hogs were favored to return to the Final Four in 1995, and they did. Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia were knocked off along the way to the Final Four at Seattle, but none of the wins came by more than six points.

Arkansas fell behind early but rallied to get by North Carolina in the semifinals. Playing in the NCAA championship game for the second straight year, Arkansas came up short in an 89-78 loss to UCLA.

Marvin Delph averaged 18.0 points in two Final Four games in 1978.

It was Arkansas' first year as a member of the Southeastern Conference. Earlier in the season, Todd Day had exploded for a career-high 43 points as the Razorbacks defeated LSU, 101-90, at Baton Rouge. The Tigers recovered from the defeat, though, and by the time they arrived at Barnhill Arena, they had tied the Hogs for the SEC lead.

LSU's first ever visit to Fayetteville would determine the SEC championship.

The Tigers started strong. Shaquille O'Neal did his best to quiet an overflow crowd of 9,518 with 11 points in the opening half as LSU roared to a 51-36 advantage. O'Neal, however, scored his last points with 11:37 remaining to give the Tigers a 69-58 lead before the Razorbacks charged back.

Lee Mayberry, who hit a then-school record nine three-point field goals and finished with 35 points, teamed with Day, who finished with 27, to bring the Hogs from behind. Mayberry's last three-pointer tied the game at 87-all and Oliver Miller blocked O'Neal's shot at the buzzer to force overtime.

Arkansas blitzed the Tigers, 19-5, in the extra period. Day scored nine points and Mayberry had four during that time. The victory sent Barnhill Arena into a frenzy and the Razorbacks on the way to their first SEC title.

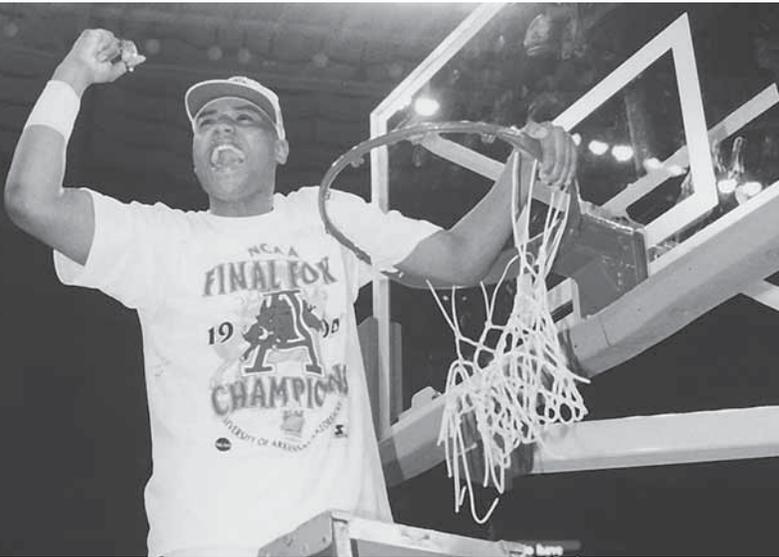

Oliver Miller had 10 points, 10 rebounds, three blocked shots and three steals against the Tigers.

THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Corey Beck averaged 12.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists in earning Final Four all-tournament honors in 1994.

Without a senior in the starting lineup, playing in the most palatial arena in college basketball with the President of the United States attending four games and led by a coach with a system that could not be drawn up on a blackboard, Arkansas vaulted into the elite of the elite when the Razorbacks won the 1994 NCAA championship.

Construction workers built Bud Walton Arena in record time and the 19,200-seat showcase dazzled fans and opponents as much as the Razorbacks did. Sellout crowds each time the doors were opened watched the Hogs go 16-0 at home. Only one game, the 84-83 victory over LSU, was decided by fewer than 10 points. UA won those 16 games by an average of 30 points.

UA blitzed Murray State, 93-67, in the Bud Walton Arena opener on Nov. 29, but the building was dedicated a few nights later when Missouri came to Fayetteville for an ESPN showcase game. The Dec. 2 game was decided in the first few minutes as Arkansas roared to a 120-68 victory over a Missouri club which went unbeaten in the Big Eight and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

Ranked No. 1 nationally for 10 weeks during the regular season, the Hogs lost only twice during the regular campaign. Alabama beat Arkansas, 66-64, in Tuscaloosa, and Mississippi State edged the Hogs, 72-71, in Starkville.

Sophomores Corliss Williamson and Scotty Thurman carried much of the load, and junior Corey Beck was the blue collar leader. When the Hogs had to score, they went inside to Williamson, who averaged 20.4 points per game. He shot .626 from the field and 70 percent at the free throw line.

FEBRUARY 4, 1990, AT AUSTIN, TEXAS

Arkansas already had a two-game lead over Texas in the Southwest Conference when the Razorbacks invaded Austin for a nationally televised game.

The Hogs owned a four-game winning streak over the Longhorns, and it was a must-win situation for Texas. The Razorbacks led for most of the first half but Texas gained a five-point advantage midway through the second half. It was 77-72 'Horns when Todd Day fouled out for Arkansas 3:31 from the end.

Texas still led, 86-83, and had Travis Mays at the free throw line with 12 seconds left, but Mays missed the free throw and Lee Mayberry stunned the Texas crowd of more than 16,000 with a long three-pointer three seconds from the buzzer to send the game into overtime.

Arkansas made sure Texas never recovered. A three-pointer by Ernie Murry got the Hogs started and Mayberry's jumper at 3:20 put the Hogs in front to stay. Mayberry and Lenzie Howell each scored 23 points to offset 24 by Joey Wright, 23 by Mays and 22 by Lance Blanks. The victory gave Arkansas a three-game lead it never surrendered on its way to the SWC title.

Lee Mayberry's deep three sent the game into overtime and Arkansas never looked back.

Corliss Williamson was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 1994 Final Four after averaging 26.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in Arkansas' two wins.

Thurman, though, was the last-minute hero. His three-pointer with seven seconds left gave Arkansas a one-point victory at Tennessee. He hit another three in the last 30 seconds to lift the Hogs past LSU at Baton Rouge in overtime.

Beck did much of the dirty work, defending with tenacity and leading the team in assists. He and junior Clint McDaniel were probably the best defensive guards in college basketball. Head coach Nolan Richardson certainly thought so. McDaniel also provided perimeter firepower, as did junior Dwight Stewart, Arkansas' fifth starter who was more a forward than a center.

Richardson used a deep bench to guide the Hogs to a 24-2 regular season finish. Al Dillard brought instant offense into any contest with his incredible three-point shooting range. He was Arkansas' third-leading scorer behind Williamson and Thurman (15.9 ppg) with an 8.9 average even though he played just more than 12 minutes a game. Roger Crawford, one of only two seniors on the squad, also brought instant firepower off the bench, but he was injured early in the NCAA Tournament run and was not available for the Final Four.

In his honor, UA players wore a No. 31 patch on their jerseys.

Freshmen Darnell Robinson and Lee Wilson, a pair of 6-11 centers, gave the Hogs size they didn't have in 1993 when they won 22 games and reached the Sweet 16 before falling to eventual national champion North Carolina. Senior Ken Biley and junior Elmer Martin also made significant contributions.

When President Bill Clinton visited Bud Walton Arena for a Dec. 28 blowout of Texas Southern, no one realized it would be a preview of later visits to the NCAA Tournament. The nation's most recognizable Razorback fan later appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated wearing sweats presented by Richardson.

A 13-game winning streak was snapped by Kentucky in the SEC Tournament, but the Razorbacks were still seeded first in the Midwest Regional at Oklahoma City. Williamson scored 24 points and had seven rebounds in a 94-79 first-round victory over North Carolina A&T. He followed with 21 points and Robinson, making a surprise start, added 13 in the 85-73 second-round win over Georgetown.

Earlier in the year, Tulsa gave Arkansas a scare before the Hogs won in overtime, 93-91, in Tulsa. The Golden Hurricane surprised UCLA and Oklahoma State to reach the Sweet 16 with UA in Dallas. This one was no contest as Williamson and Thurman scored 21 each, and McDaniel 19 in a 103-84 victory.

Michigan was Arkansas' regional final foe and the Hogs could not contain Hakeem Olajuwon and Houston were on their way to their third consecutive Final Four, they were ranked second nationally and hadn't lost a Southwest Conference game in two years. The Cougars had gone 16-0 in 1983 and were 15-0 going into the regular season finale at Barnhill Arena.

Arkansas was outstanding as well. The Hogs already had upset top-ranked North Carolina at Pine Bluff, but at 13-2 couldn't catch Houston in the SWC standings. No one in the overflow crowd of 9,438 cared as they watched a terrific contest showcased by national television.

Olajuwon was held to 10 points before fouling out, but Michael Young picked up the slack with 22 and Alvin Franklin earned 21. They weren't as hot as the Hogs, though. Joe Kleine, whose inside power put Olajuwon in foul trouble, scored 22 points, hitting all 10 of his free throws. Charles Balentine added 16, Ricky Norton 14 and Alvin Robertson 13 points and nine assists.

Houston led at the half but saw its hopes dim when Olajuwon drew his fourth and fifth fouls in a 38-second span six minutes from the end while trying to stop Kleine inside. Kleine hit all four free throws and the Hogs had a huge victory.

Joe Kleine scored 22 points, forced Hakeem Olajuwon to foul out and the Hogs beat No. 2 Houston in 1984.

 MARCH 4, 1984, AT FAYETTEVILLE

Juwan Howard, but neither could the Wolverines handle Thurman. With Williamson smothered by Michigan's inside defense and held to 12 points, Thurman tossed in 20 as UA reached the Final Four with a 76-68 win attended by President Clinton.

By the time the Hogs arrived at Charlotte, N.C., they were a confident bunch. They also had been somehow convinced by Richardson that they were not nationally respected, even though they had been ranked No. 1. Arizona was the semifinal opponent and the Wildcat guards, Damon Stoudamire and Khalid Reeves, were billed as the top offensive guards in the nation.

Beck and McDaniel were motivated to the hilt and smothered them. They combined to hit just 11 of their 43 shots, including just two of 22 three-point attempts. Williamson scored 29 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, and the Hogs advanced to the championship game with a 91-82 victory.

An entire state stood still on April 4, 1994. Arkansas fans who could not be there (more than 3,000 made the trip to Charlotte) watched and listened in every corner of the state. President Clinton was there again, and so was Duke, the 1991 and '92 national champion.

After an airtight first half that ended with Arkansas holding a 34-33 lead, Duke jumped out to a 10-point advantage in the first three minutes of the second half. However, the pace of the game picked up during the run and it never slowed down. The Razorbacks took advantage and were even with the Devils less than five minutes later.

When Arkansas built a 70-65 lead late in the contest, it looked safe, but Grant Hill's three tied the game with 1:29 remaining.

Although Williamson finished with 23 points, there was no doubt who would take the next shot for UA. Thurman launched a high-arching three-point attempt with only seconds left on the shot clock. The shot fell with 51 seconds left and when it settled through the net, the outcome had been determined. A pair of free throws by McDaniel and another by Dillard sealed Duke's fate, 76-72.

Once the national championship belonged to the Hogs, an entire state celebrated. President Clinton embraced Richardson on the court and later officially honored the Razorbacks at the White House.

The 1994 NCAA championship trophy is on display at Bud Walton Arena.

Dwight Stewart had six points, nine rebounds, four assists and four steals in the 1994 national championship game victory over Duke.

ARKANSAS 104, No. 2 AUBURN 88
 FEBRUARY 24, 1999 AT FAYETTEVILLE

Auburn hadn't won a Southeastern Conference championship in 39 years but already had clinched the title and was ranked second nationally with a 25-1 record when the Tigers came to Bud Walton Arena for Arkansas' regular season home finale.

The Razorbacks had stunned fifth-ranked Kentucky four days earlier and believed a win over Auburn would clinch a spot in the NCAA Tournament.

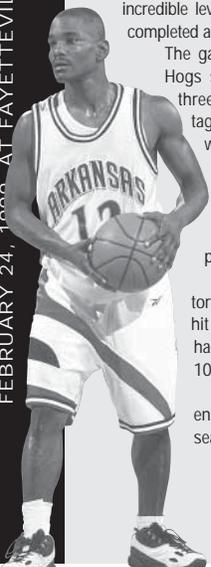

It was an emotional evening before the game started. Seniors Derek Hood, Pat Bradley and Kareem Reid, record-setters who persevered through four sometimes-difficult seasons, were introduced to the Bud Walton fans for the final time.

Arkansas' fans created the noisiest environment Coach Nolan Richardson, his players and long-time followers of the program could ever remember. An overflow crowd of 20,298 nearly shook the building with an incredible level of exhortation. Not a player or coach on either side completed an interview without mentioning the crowd.

The game itself was airtight throughout the first half. The Hogs surged ahead by 10 points twice but a last second three-pointer by Tiger star Chris Porter carved the advantage to four by intermission. It was a one-point game with 16:26 left but a rebound basket by Hood spurred the Razorbacks to a 30-10 run that left Auburn in shock. Both teams were quick, but the Tigers must have thought there were more than five Hogs on the floor as the noise pushed Arkansas beyond its highest previous performance level of the campaign.

When it was over, the Razorbacks had a 16-point victory and a spot secured in the NCAA Tournament. Bradley hit five three-pointers and finished with 23 points. Hood had 18 points and 13 rebounds. Reid earned 10 points and 10 assists. Junior Chris Walker added 21 points.

It was Arkansas' finest execution of the season and the entire state was buzzing about the contest long after the season was concluded.

Following a win over No. 5 Kentucky five days earlier, Kareem Reid's 10 points and 10 assists helped the Razorbacks knock off second-ranked Auburn, which came in 25-1, in 1999.

Kentucky's second-ever trip to Fayetteville was a highly-anticipated event. CBS moved the game to Super Bowl Sunday to ensure a large audience for the nationally televised event.

The Wildcats were 13-2, including 7-0 in the Southeastern Conference. Arkansas, the preseason No. 1 choice and defending national champion, had looked vulnerable at times during the season and was 15-4 with a 4-3 SEC mark.

By halftime it was obvious another special event was taking place, just as every Arkansas-Kentucky game had been. The Wildcats led by one when Reggie Garrett stunned the visitors with a halfcourt buzzer shot to give UA a 49-47 halftime lead.

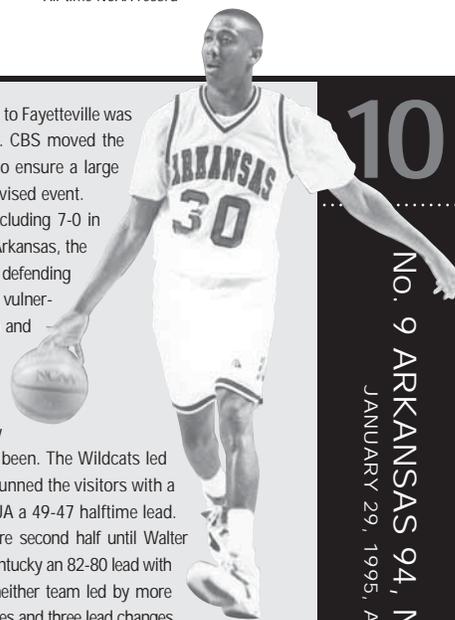

UA was tied or led the entire second half until Walter McCarty's short jumper gave Kentucky an 82-80 lead with 5:19 left. From that point on, neither team led by more than four, and there were three ties and three lead changes.

The teams traded salvos until Clint McDaniel made just one free throw with 51 seconds remaining. When McCarty scored on a put-back with 24 seconds to go, UK led by one.

Scotty Thurman, UA's greatest last-second shot maker ever, made sure the crowd went home happy. He drove past UK defenders, pulled up and hit an 18-footer with eight seconds to go to put the Razorbacks in front for good. McDaniel made a baseline steal in the final second and hit a free throw for the final two-point margin.

Thurman and Corliss Williamson combined for 50 points as the Hogs won their fourth straight regular season game over the Wildcats.

Scotty Thurman's pull-up jumper with eight seconds left was the game-winner against Kentucky.

Also due to a lack of space, credentials will not be issued to Web sites. The only possible exception is one credential may be issued to the official Web site of the opposing team and/or the Web site directly affiliated with the television network granted live broadcast rights for the game, space permitting.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The Media Relations Office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one to whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refused to comply with press row and/or photographic guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; and (4) any individual under the age of 16.

The Media Relations Office reserves the right to issue or deny any credential request.

No credentials will be mailed. All credentials are left at media will call. If enough time allows, approved parking passes can be mailed.

Southeastern Conference Internet Policy and Guidelines

Internet Real-Time Policy

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis, that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.

(b) It is agreed that video tape can be used on an Internet or online site with the following stipulations:

(i) video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(ii) Footage may be broadcast or otherwise distributed on the Internet or via any other online service or computer service, using the following limitations: a maximum of three (3) minutes from Satellite Feed Footage, Practice Footage and Event Footage.

(iii) Footage may not be used, sold, traded, loaned or given away to any other entity for any sports entertainment programs, specials, home videos, commercials and promotional use or in any other manner not specifically set forth in these policies without prior express written permission of the Southeastern Conference or the [University].

(iii) Any person, syndicator or other entity wishing to utilize footage to produce a televised entertainment program, special, commercial, home video or other use should contact the [University / contact name / phone number or email address] for permission, rights and associated fees.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

This policy is in effect for all SEC sporting events including championships. The limitations for each sporting event are listed below:

- Soccer: Five times per half; one at halftime
- Volleyball: Three per competition; one between competition
- Football: Three per quarter; one at halftime
- Cross Country: Ten per day/session
- Basketball: Five times per half; one at halftime; two times per overtime period
- Indoor Track & Field: Ten per day/session
- Gymnastics: Ten per session
- Baseball and Softball: one every half-inning (includes extra innings)
- Outdoor Track and Field: Ten per day/session
- Golf: Ten per day/session
- Tennis: Ten per day/session

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

Media Will Call

Located on the south side of Bud Walton Arena, just right of the main ticket window. All passes are left at media will call — no credentials are mailed.

Gameday Parking

A limited number of spaces are available in the lots south of Bud Walton Arena, located at the corner of Sixth Street and Razorback Road. All requests should be made to Associate MRD Robby Edwards along with credential requests.

Media Work Room

BWA's work room is one of the most spacious in the nation. It is located on the arena floor level, next to and adjoining the interview room. Weekly press briefings and John Pelphrey's post-game press conferences are held in the interview room. Media members can work from and file from the work room or the press seating area on the floor. Wireless Internet is available in the work room and at courtside. Please see Associate MRD Robby Edwards or a member of the media relations staff for login information. In addition, a minimum of eight telephones are available in the work room.

Photographers

BWA features three photo "wells." Two primary sections are located to the right of each goal as you are facing the court and a smaller section is on the baseline next to the visiting team bench. Tripods are not allowed on the floor at any time during play and photographers must sit on the floor so as to not block the view of spectators. Spots in the photo wells are not reserved. Photographers are not allowed to shoot from either sideline due to space limitations. Media relations reserves the right to limit the number of strobe units used.

Radio Broadcasts

Visiting teams may utilize the four courtesy phone lines available in BWA. ISDN is available. No banners are allowed to hang in front of any broadcast position.

Media Services

The University of Arkansas has one of the top statistical crews in college basketball. Our crew has worked NCAA Tournament regional championships and conference tournaments. Media will be provided play-by-play, halftime and final box scores, and shot charts for each half, in addition to coach and player quotes following the game.

Interview Policy

Arkansas players are available for interviews only on days of John Pelphrey's press briefings, which are generally two days prior to each game. Select players are available for interviews following games in the back of the interview room. Following all home games, after the 10-minute cooling-off period, Pelphrey sits in on Arkansas' post-game radio show and then proceeds to the media room either before or after the head coach of the visiting team.

John Pelphrey's Weekly Teleconferences

Each Monday and Thursday from Jan. 8 through March 5. The SEC teleconference features each league head coach for seven minutes on a broadcast quality hookup. The teleconference runs from 10 a.m. to approximately 11:30 a.m. (central). John Pelphrey's time slot is from 10:49 to 10:56. Media members can get the teleconference access numbers from either the SEC Media Relations Office (205-458-3010) or the UA Media Relations Office.

Razorback Satellite Services

At press time, no details were available on the uplink of highlights and interviews. The UA Media Relations Office will attempt to schedule highlight feeds following selected non-televised games. For details, contact the Media Relations Office.

ArkansasRazorbacks.com

The latest information on all Razorback athletics is at ArkansasRazorbacks.com — the official Web site of University of Arkansas athletics. Game notes, quotes from John Pelphrey's press conferences and game stories are a few of the items included. The site also offers biographical information on UA coaches and student-athletes, statistics and schedules. Fans can also access live stats of most Razorback events. RazorVision is a premium site available for a subscription fee.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

Razorback Athletics entered a new and exciting era this past summer with the formation of "Razorback Sports Properties" as the corporate partnerships and marketing division of the university's athletics program. Owned and operated by ISP Sports, the nation's foremost collegiate sports marketing company, "Razorback Sports Properties" will bring a national presence to the overall marketing of Razorback sports.

Headquartered in Winston-Salem, N.C., ISP is also a partner with more than 60 major college athletic programs, conferences, bowl games and venues. SEC members Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, South Carolina and Vanderbilt are part of the ISP family as well.

"Razorback Sports Properties" exclusively produces and markets a variety of sponsorship opportunities surrounding Arkansas Athletics, including all radio and television play-by-play and coaches' shows, advertising in various athletic department publications and on the official athletics department Web site (www.ArkansasRazorbacks.com), signage in university athletic facilities and at-event promotions.

KATV in Little Rock, the former radio and television rights holders for the university, remains as the flagship station for all television programming produced by "Razorback Sports Properties."

"From the beginning of our discussions with KATV and ISP, we were excited about what this partnership would mean for Razorback Athletics," Arkansas Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long says. "I have worked with a number of other multimedia rights holders, but in my opinion ISP is the best and is clearly the leader in college sports."

"The uniqueness of the Razorback brand and the strength of our university and athletic programs provides us a tremendous opportunity to increase our brand locally, regionally and nationally. The increased exposure and enhanced opportunities for national sponsorships will compliment our outstanding statewide exposure provided by our longtime partner, KATV."

Mike Nail (left), who is in his 28th year as the radio play-by-play "Voice of the Razorbacks," broadcast his 877th Arkansas game in 2008. Nail's post-season experience includes three trips to the Final Four, two national championship games, including the 1994 national championship victory over Duke, and 47 NCAA Tournament game broadcasts in 18 NCAA Tournament appearances. The former television sports director also handled the radio play-by-play assignment for Razorback football during the 2006 campaign. Nail has been married to Razorback Spirit Coordinator Jean Nail for 44 years.

Rick Schaeffer (right) is in his fifth year as the analyst, but his 28th year overall. Schaeffer was not on basketball broadcasts from 2000-04, but the former UA sports information director returned for the 2004-05 season.

Scott Inman (left) is in his third season as the play-by-play voice for Razorback basketball on television. The co-anchor of KATV's 5, 6 and 10 p.m. newscasts, the Stuttgart native graduated from Arkansas State in 1995.

Jimmy Dykes (right) is in his 15th year on the television broadcast team. He serves as a college basketball analyst for ESPN. A 1985 graduate of Arkansas, he was a three-year letterman at UA and a member of two Southwest Conference championship teams.

The University of Arkansas

One of America's leading land-grant universities, the University of Arkansas opens a new chapter in its storied history in 2008-09. The benefits of a billion-dollar Campaign for the Twenty-First Century are beginning to show. Arkansas enjoyed yet another record enrollment in Fall 2008 as 19,191 students enrolled at the Fayetteville campus to welcome a new Chancellor, Dr. G. David Gearhart.

One of the benchmarks to college education is the annual US News and World Report "Best Colleges" issue. The 2008 edition keeps the University of Arkansas in the top level of the leading institutions of higher learning in the United States. The peer review and data-driven survey had Arkansas in the top tier for the first time in school history.

In addition, the Sam M. Walton College of Business ranked 25th among the nation's top public undergraduate business schools, according to the 2007 US News. Adding to the good news, the College of Engineering was ranked for the first time.

The Carnegie Foundation categorizes the University of Arkansas as a research institution with "high research activity," which puts UA in the top 10 percent in the nation.

As a land-grant university, Arkansas strives to fulfill a three-fold mission of teaching, research and service. The Fayetteville campus also serves as the flagship institution of the University of Arkansas system, which includes branch universities and the UA Medical System. As the lead campus, UA serves as the state's major center of professional education and as the state's main source of theoretical and applied research.

We Prepare Students to Succeed

At the University of Arkansas, we strive for excellence in everything we do, and we achieve it with nationally ranked academic programs as well as with our athletic teams. Here, successful students will join with other graduates succeeding as major media executives, scientists, engineers, teachers, writers and Olympians.

Arkansas' true success is measured by its students. Since the turn of the 21st Century, Arkansas has brought home more than its share of the nation's most prestigious undergraduate awards. In fact, the University of Arkansas was the only public or private institution in the country to have Rhodes, Marshall, Goldwater, Udall, NSF and James Madison recipients in the same year back in 2001-02, and continues each year to add to the overall total of the highly competitive awards won by Arkansas students.

Walk through campus on Senior Walk. It features the names of all our graduates — more than 120,000 of them. You will immediately feel connected to the pride, quality and tradition that go with an Arkansas degree.

World-Class Faculty

At Arkansas, excellence begins in the classrooms and laboratories. Faculty members value research and the creation of knowledge, knowing that investigating the unknown translates into first-rate teaching. They publish nearly 100 books each year, participate in conferences around the world, file patents for their innovative projects and win prestigious honors and awards.

World-Class Facilities

Over $700 million in construction projects have reached completion, are beginning construction or are on the books at the University of Arkansas in the past decade. Our complexes range from splendidly equipped anthropology labs to high-tech robotics, semiconductor and laser facilities.

World-Class Support

Investment in the future is critical, and the recently completed Campaign for the Twenty-First Century resulted in a billion dollar infusion of gifts to the University of Arkansas. The effort reset the bar with the largest single gift to date to a U.S. public university in the history of American philanthropy with a $300 million gift from the Walton Family Charitable Trust. Primary among the programs created by the Walton gift was the designation of $200 million toward the establishment of the Honors College.

But that kind of commitment from the state and the region is not uncommon. It was the effort of the city of Fayetteville and Washington County in submitting the highest bid to the state in the 1870s that resulted in the University of Arkansas opening its doors here on Jan. 22, 1872.

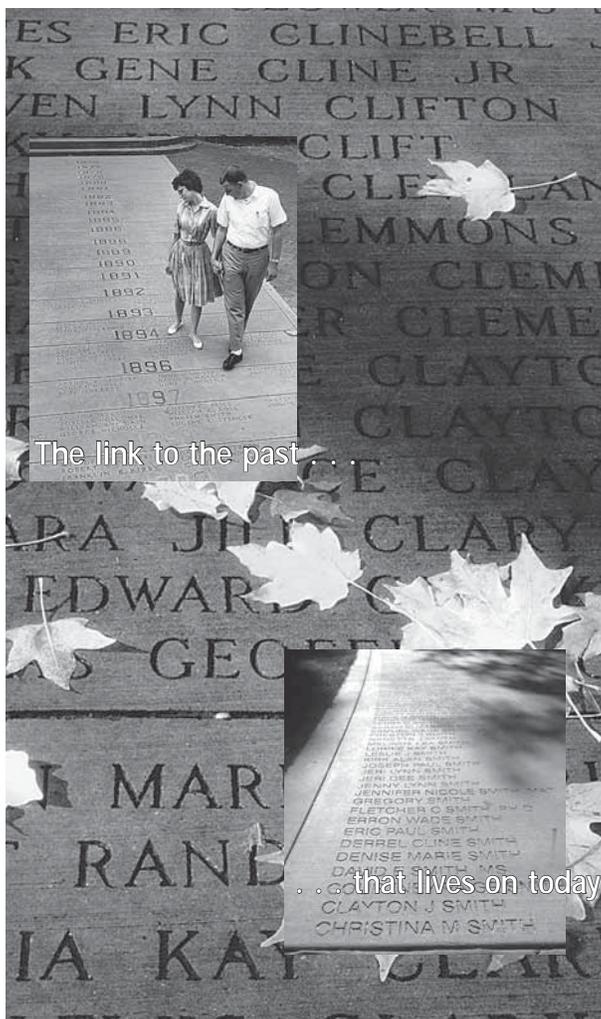

Old Main

One of the original buildings of Arkansas' campus, Old Main symbolizes the strong connection to the past and the focus upon the future which come together in the present at the University of Arkansas. Completed in 1876, Old Main stood the test of time until the mid-1980s when age and modern building codes threatened to send it to the wrecking ball as it did its sister building at the University of Illinois. A major fund-raising campaign by alumni totally renovated Old Main. Reopening in 1992, the building maintains the feel of a Victorian-era building with high ceilings and elaborate wooden trim. Just below the surface of the period hardwood floors, Old Main is hard-wired to the internet and built to last well into its second century.

Even with renovation, Old Main remained unfinished until 2006. One of the gifts during the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century specified the installation of a clock, originally planned for the blank faces of the south tower.

As mentioned, Old Main was built from shared plans with its counterpart on the Illinois campus, with one important difference. The north tower of Arkansas' Old Main is taller than the south tower. Legend says this was symbolic of the Civil War as the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

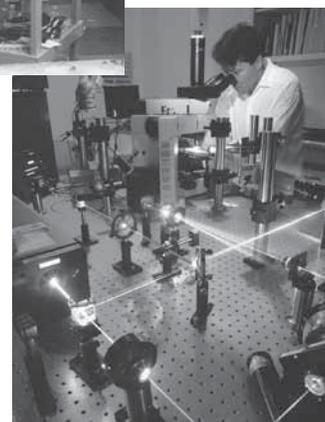

The link to the past

... that lives on today

Senior Walk

The University of Arkansas is proud to be the last university in the nation maintaining what once was a common tradition of etching its graduates' names into the campus sidewalks. The 100,000th graduate's name went down in cement during the 1990s. Senior Walk stretches over five miles of campus sidewalks. The story of Senior Walk is a perfect example of how the University of Arkansas brings its commitment to the past together with innovations for the future. When the costs involved in hand-etching names into concrete forced numerous other universities to give up, the University of Arkansas turned to its physical plant and engineering school grads to create a one-of-a-kind computerized sandblasting machine — the SandHog. Each summer, the SandHog roars across the front lawn of Old Main, etching the names of graduates into sidewalks.

Broad range of degrees

At Arkansas, students can major in one of over 120 undergraduate disciplines, many of which prepare them for entry into graduate studies ranging from law to medicine.

Nine Colleges, One University

The University has nine colleges to provide a wide range of majors:

Fine arts in some of the most modern facilities in the region at the Walton Arts Center to the famous Edward Durrell Stone Fine Arts Center.

Humanities programs from communications and history to philosophy, English and foreign languages taught by nationally acclaimed faculty.

Science programs engaging in research projects from experimenting with squeezed light to improve the accuracy of atomic clocks to computer algorithms that may someday create a genetic map of every person.

Whether students choose history or chemical engineering, the University of Arkansas has the programs, the faculty and the facilities to prepare them for the careers they want in the future.

J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences

The J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences, named after former University President and U.S. Senator J. William Fulbright, offers degrees in the liberal arts, which span everything from ancient Egyptian dynasties to the latest discoveries in nanotechnology. It was Fulbright College students who uncovered the world's largest nautiloid fossil, an eight-foot specimen that lived 325 million years ago, in a culvert near Fayetteville.

Our graduates are known throughout the world. We can thank alumnus Robert Maurer for the revolution in communications made possible by his invention of fiber optic cable.

The College consists of 19 departments in the arts, sciences, humanities and social sciences. Our flourishing honors program is built on the continuing success of our students. They regularly win competitive national awards, such as Marshall Scholarships,

Barry Goldwater Scholarships and NSF Fellowships. The College offers the premier Sturgis Fellowship for undergraduates.

Sam M. Walton College of Business

The Sam M. Walton College of Business is ranked among the top 25 public business schools in the United States. Named in honor of the world's most successful retailer and his family's generous 1998 gift of $50 million, the Walton College is Arkansas' flagship business school. The college offers two bachelor's degrees in six disciplines: accounting, economics, finance, information systems, management and marketing and logistics, as well as five master's degrees, including the MBA and two Ph.D. programs. In 2003, the Walton College introduced an innovative new business curriculum that integrates the business disciplines and better prepares its student for jobs. By connecting these disciplines, students see the big picture of a business instead of silos. The college seeks to provide each student with experiences in and out of the classroom that simulate actual business so they are prepared for real-world and global opportunities. Established in 1926, the Walton College has been accredited by the AACSB International since 1931.

College of Education and Health Professions

The College of Education and Health Professions prepares the professionals who touch people's lives every day — teachers, coaches, nurses, speech pathologists, counselors, school administrators and specialists in health science, exercise and recreation. The college's mission is to enhance the quality of life of the people of Arkansas, the nation and the world through the development of scholar-practitioners in education, health and human services.

Our students are involved in the community in many ways, including educating elementary children about health care at fairs sponsored by the Eleanor Mann School of Nursing and working as classroom teaching interns in local school districts.

Students enjoy hands-on learning in such partnerships with school districts and through research with faculty members. Research includes examining school reforms, studying treatment methods to reduce hospital stays for chronic diseases and learning about language acquisition by children.

School of Architecture

The School of Architecture enjoys a national reputation for producing outstanding designers who are well prepared for professional practice in architecture and landscape architecture. The late Fay Jones, a member of the School's first graduating class and later the school's first dean, received the AIA Gold Medal in 1990 at a White House ceremony; in 2000 the AIA ranked his Thorncrowne Chapel in Eureka Springs as the fourth-best building by an American architect in the twentieth century.

Current faculty members continue to win national and international acclaim for their work. Students gain hands-on experience at the school's community design center, which has won numerous national and international design and teaching awards, and Garvan Woodland Gardens, the school's woodland botanical garden in Hot Springs. International study programs in Rome, Mexico City, and summer field studies in Europe also expand our students' perspective.

Honors College

One of the major benefits of the $300 million Walton gift was the dedication of $200 million for the Honors College to fund undergraduate UA Honors College fellowships ($50,000 for four years), to establish special study abroad and undergraduate research opportunities, and to support outstanding faculty in their research and honors teaching efforts.

The UA Honors College serves all undergraduate majors. Honors students enjoy small classes, priority registration, special housing, increased interaction with faculty and enhanced opportunities for hands-on research.

Within the college, the Scholarship Office and the Office of Post-Graduate Fellowships provide additional services. Promising high school seniors are assisted with their applications for the many available Sturgis, Bodenhamer, Boyer and UA Honors College fellowships as well as Chancellor's and University scholarships.

School of Law

Named by U.S. News and World Report among the "most diverse" law schools in America, the School of Law builds on more than 80 years of tradition and alumni success to promote professionalism, civility and leadership. Our students follow a rigorous course of study that prepares them for success in law practice, business, public service and more. Whether pursuing a J.D. or an LL.M. in the nation's only agricultural law program, students have the opportunity to expand and refine their lawyering skills — and to serve their community and state — through the Legal Clinic, an active and effective pro bono program and various skills courses. Students also may participate in the publication of one of three law journals — Arkansas Law Review, Journal of Food Law & Policy and Journal of Islamic Law & Culture. The law school's outstanding faculty not only nurtures and challenges our students, but is committed to research and outreach. A recently completed expansion of the law center includes a state-of-the-art courtroom and classrooms, two-story entrance hall, reading room, conference room and coffee shop, making it one of the most striking buildings on campus and a popular gathering place for the university community.

Dr. G. David Gearhart, Chancellor

Dr. G. David Gearhart became the fifth chancellor of the University of Arkansas on July 1, 2008, following 10 years of service to the university in his capacity as vice chancellor for university advancement. During the decade leading up to his appointment as chancellor, he was the architect of the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century — the largest, most successful capital campaign in Arkansas history, which raised more than $1 billion for academic programs and increased the endowment from $119 million to almost $900 million.

A native of Fayetteville, Ark., Chancellor Gearhart was born and raised in the shadow of Old Main. An alumnus of the university whose name is twice inscribed on Senior Walk for the law degree (J.D.) and doctor of education degree (Ed.D.) he earned, Gearhart feels that his entire adult life has prepared him for this singular honor and challenge.

The path that would lead him back to his alma mater began in 1976, when Gearhart became assistant to the president at Westminster College in Fulton, Mo., where he received his baccalaureate two years earlier. In 1977, he was appointed the director of development at Westminster and led fundraising efforts for The Winston Churchill Memorial and Library. Thus was launched a nationally respected career in university advancement.

In 1978, he returned to his native state to become vice president for development at Hendrix College. After four years at Hendrix, Gearhart returned home for the first time when he was selected to be the director of development at the University of Arkansas. In this role, he spearheaded the Campaign for Books, which added more than 100,000 volumes to the University of Arkansas Library.

In 1985, Gearhart took another career leap in being appointed vice president for development and university relations at The Pennsylvania State University.

Three years later, he was promoted to senior vice president, responsible for the external relations programs for 23 campuses statewide. While at Penn State, he launched a major capital campaign, which raised in excess of $352 million. Total private gifts to Penn State during his 11 years at the university surpassed $950 million, and Gearhart's division was cited three times by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) with its grand gold medal, awarded to the nation's top advancement program.

In 1995, Gearhart joined the international consulting firm of Grenzebach, Glier, and Associates as senior vice president and managing director, but stayed closely connected to advancing the mission of higher education. The Chicago-based philanthropic management firm has hundreds of clients in the United States, Canada and Europe, and fundraising goals in excess of $40 billion. Clients managed by Gearhart included nearly two dozen non-profit organizations, colleges and universities, among them American, Brigham Young, Rutgers, Alabama, Connecticut, Miami (Fla.), Pittsburgh and Washington.

In 1998 Gearhart once again returned to his native state as vice chancellor for university advancement at Arkansas. He was responsible for development, alumni relations, constituent relations, special events and university relations programs. His most significant impact in this role was the stunningly successful Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, a billion-dollar capital campaign that placed the University of Arkansas as one of only 13 public universities at that time to have exceeded a billion dollars raised.

The centerpiece of this campaign was a $300 million gift from the Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation, the largest gift ever made to a public university. The direct results of Gearhart's leadership in this effort included the creation of 132 new endowed faculty positions, 1,738 new student scholarship and fellowship funds, dozens of new and renovated facilities and classrooms.

Gearhart was named a distinguished alumnus of his undergraduate alma mater, Westminster, in 1992, and the same year was named a Fulbright Scholar and studied at Oxford University, Merton College in Oxford, England. In 1996, he was named an honorary alumnus of Penn State, where he finished his doctoral coursework in higher education administration.

In addition to his responsibilities as chancellor,

Gearhart is a tenured member of the faculty in the College of Education and Health Professions, holding the rank of professor. A nationally respected expert in capital campaigns, he is the author of two books, The Capital Campaign in Higher Education and Philanthropy, Fund Raising and the Capital Campaign, as well as numerous articles.

Among his current professional affiliations, Gearhart serves as vice president of the University of Arkansas Fayetteville Campus Foundation, is a member of the board of advisors for the Arkansas World Trade Center, chair of the board of directors for the Winthrop Rockefeller Institute, and is a member of the advisory board of the Pryor Center for Oral and Visual History. He also is a licensed attorney in the state of Arkansas.

Gearhart is married to the former Jane Brockmann, whom he wed in 1974. They have two children: Katy, who is a graduate of Penn State currently working as a speech pathologist; and Brock, a graduate of Arkansas who is now a vice president for Merrill Lynch. Gearhart's late father, George A. Gearhart, was publisher of the Northwest Arkansas Times in Fayetteville. His mother, Joan Gearhart Havens, lives in Fayetteville.

Howard Brill, Faculty Athletics Representative

In his 14th year as the university's faculty representative for athletics is Howard W. Brill. A law professor at Arkansas since 1975, Brill served as the interim dean of the UA Law School in Fall 2005. He previously served as a member of the Faculty Athletics Committee from 1991-94 and was on a special committee to prepare the SEC's Gender Equity Policy in the spring of 1994. He chaired Arkansas' NCAA Self-Study committee, finishing in 1998.

Brill is a 1965 graduate of Duke and earned his law degree at Florida in 1970. He received his master's of law degree at Illinois in 1979. A widely published author, Brill wrote two books and numerous law review articles and has received several awards honoring his teaching. He is licensed to practice law in Arkansas, Florida and Illinois and is a member of the Arkansas Bar and the state Judicial Ethics Advisory Committee. He was recently selected the first Vincent Foster Professor of Legal Ethics and Professional Responsibility. He is a past member of the Governor's Code of Ethics Commission and the Arkansas Improvement District Commission of the General Assembly.

Active in community service, Brill has served as chairman of the City of Fayetteville's Civil Service Commission, has coached youth soccer and basketball and is a Sunday School teacher. He and his wife Katherine have three children, Christian, Elizabeth and Andrew.

Student-Athlete Support for Success and Achievement

STUDENT-ATHLETE ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND ACHIEVEMENT MISSION STATEMENT

The primary focus of the Razorback Student-Athlete Academic Support and Achievement Program is to provide the student-athlete with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to be a success in college and in life. This is accomplished through superior academic counseling, life skills training and preparation to enter the job market upon graduation.

The Bogle Academic Center

There is no higher priority for the University of Arkansas Athletic Department than the academic progress of its scholar-athletes. Thanks to the generous gift of Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the home of the Razorback Athletic Department's Student-Athlete Support Services is the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center. The 15,000-square foot Bogle Academic Center is located in the east side of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. Under the overall direction of Senior Associate Athletic Director Jon Fagg, the Bogle Academic Center houses the Arkansas Razorbacks Academic Support Program, the Razorback Office of Student Life and the Career Development Program.

Associate Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Support Services Melissa Harwood-Rom oversees the staff of professionals dedicated to directing student-athletes to reach their personal academic goals, and to do so in ways that balance their academic, athletic and personal lives.

Junior guard Stephen Cox (left) has been named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll following the 2006, 2007 and 2008 seasons. Redshirt freshman Michael Sanchez (right) was named to Arkansas' Athletic Department Honor Roll for fall 2007.

Student-Athlete Support Services

Recognizing the difficulty of balancing the demands of athletic competition at the highest level and completion of the rigorous academic standards of a Carnegie research-level university, the Razorback Athletic Department provides support services through both facilities and personnel to guide Arkansas student-athletes to their ultimate goal: University of Arkansas diploma.

The key components of the SAASA are personal development, career development, academic tutoring, study hall facilities, class attendance monitoring and incentive awards recognizing academic achievement.

University of Arkansas Academic Game Plan for Graduation

Student-athletes are expected to meet specific academic criteria in order to maintain eligibility. This is easily achieved by following the Academic Game Plan created by the Student-Athlete Academic Support and Achievement team.

The SAASA designs programs and sets specific goals to help student-athletes achieve academic success. An example of a key goal is the successful completion of 30 hours of coursework during each academic year. By maintaining this course load, Razorback athletes not only stay on track to graduate in four years, but easily meet eligibility requirements set by the NCAA.

Study Hall and Tutors

A quiet setting for uninterrupted study, the Bogle Academic Center provides three types of study hall space. The computer lab (above) has over 30 stations for individual computer-based study. An open study hall is available for group or individual study, and monitored by staff members of the SAASA. There are 17 individual study carrels that provide space for tutors to meet with student-athletes for individual instruction in specific subjects.

Each Razorback team sets its own criteria for study hall attendance. The use of tutors is a key element for academic success, allowing for individualized assistance and for reaching academic excellence in advanced subjects.

William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. The gift is in support of scholarships for students enrolled in the program who are interested in the field of journalism. "I know how great Arkansas is," Brewer, who majored in broadcast journalism, said. "It shows that I am a very proud Arkansan and I believe in the future of the University of Arkansas."

Class Attendance

The University of Arkansas Razorback Athletic Department has an overall student-athlete class attendance policy. Student-Athletes Academic Support and Achievement assists with the enforcement of this policy through regular checks on class attendance. If traveling with a team, student-athletes notify instructors early in each semester regarding assignments or exams.

Student Life

The social and personal development of student-athletes is as important to the University of Arkansas as the academic and athletic achievement. The Office of Student Life focuses on the personal development and community service components of the NCAA CHAMPS/

LifeSkills program. Training is provided in a variety of areas including financial planning, drug and alcohol education, time management, study skills and developing community service activities.

Career Development

The purpose of the Career Development Program is to assist student-athletes in making a smooth transition from the University of Arkansas into the workplace. This process begins during the freshman year with a one-hour course on career options.

Workshops are held to provide student-athletes training in resume writing, interviewing skills and etiquette. Individual assistance with locating summer internships and job placement gives student-athletes a head start into their chosen careers.

"The University of Arkansas isn't a huge university, but it has a huge reputation. My professors were concerned with my personal goals; concerned about how I wanted to develop as an individual. There is a great amount of one-on-one mentoring with the teachers. Arkansas Razorbacks in the Community

Being a part of the northwest Arkansas community is an important part of being a Razorback. The state of Arkansas provides tremendous support for every Razorback athletic team, therefore, it is only fitting the Razorbacks give back to the local community.

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department conducts several programs aimed at placing Razorbacks in the community, particularly as role models to our young people.

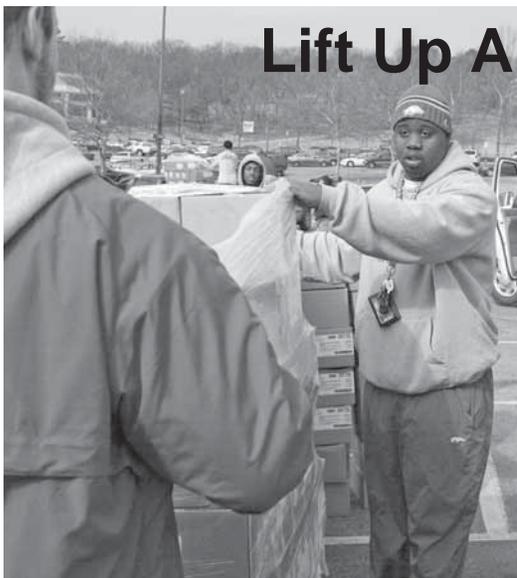

Coordinated through the Office of Student Life and the Razorback Marketing Office, two of the longest running programs with direct impact on the elementary schools of northwest Arkansas are the Book Hogs and Sweat Hawgs programs.

Book Hogs encourages reading in the elementary schools, with rewards for the top readers and top schools that include visits by Razorback athletes.

Sweat Hawgs impacts elementary students in the third through fifth grade by encouraging physical fitness activities in hopes of building good exercise habits early.

Through their individual teams, Razorback athletes also volunteer for projects ranging from Habitat for Humanity, local Boys and Girls Clubs, local Boy and Girl Scout troops, and visits to area and state children's hospitals. Individual athletes also volunteer for community projects like Razorbacks for Christmas.

A new initiative from the Arkansas Athletic Department for the 2008-09 academic year is the creation of a speaker's bureau for coaches and athletes to reach out to local schools at every level. The goal of Razorbacks Character Counts is to bring positive examples of the benefits of hard work, teamwork and leadership that participation in athletics can provide.

Lift Up America

Razorback athletes assist Lift Up America and its efforts to fight hunger. Former defensive tackle Charles Alexander and other football players help unload protein products donated by Tyson Foods for distribution to the Northwest Arkansas Food Bank's member agencies which benefited over 30 local groups.

Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics and Director of Athletics

Joining the University of Arkansas in the fall of 2007, Jeff Long became the director of Razorback athletics on Jan. 1, 2008, after serving as an advisor to University Chancellor Dr. John A. White. During his initial months at Arkansas, Long completed the search for the Razorbacks' new football coach and blended the University's separate men's and women's athletics department into one even stronger program.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long also holds the title of vice chancellor at the University of Arkansas which places him as a member of the University of Arkansas' Executive Committee, a group of senior staff that assists with the administration of the entire university at the direction of new Chancellor Dr. G. David Gearhart. Most recently the director of athletics at the University of Pittsburgh, Long brings his vision for excellence in both the classroom and on the field of competition.

Putting his stamp on Razorback athletics through an innovative reorganization and streamlining of the administration, Long's vision for the University of Arkansas will become a model. Along with creating a new internal structure, Long has Arkansas on the path to not only maintain its place as one of the nation's top programs, but to elevate its status by enhancing the Razorback program to an even higher level of achievement.

By assembling an executive team committed to his guiding principles of integrity, winning, community service and the promotion of a quality experience for each of the more than 450 Razorback student-athletes, Long has Arkansas on the path to not only remain one of the nation's top programs, but with aspirations to surpass its high level of achievement.

Long has more than two decades experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University and Eastern Kentucky University prior to his dual positions at the University of Arkansas. While known as an innovator in athletic department management, Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching and administrative staff positions at Duke University, Rice University and North Carolina State University.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long served on the NCAA Management Council as one of the athletic administrators that oversaw the operations and regulation for Division I. His experience as an athletic director and administrator in America's most prestigious conferences – the Big XII, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and now Southeastern Conference – has made his council highly sought on key issues regarding collegiate athletics. During his career, Long has served in five of the six Bowl Championship Series leagues.

Prior to Arkansas, Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign. Designed to enhance the student-athlete experience for Panther athletes through scholarship endowments and capital gifts for facility construction and renovation, the Quest resulted in almost $34 million in just over two and a half years. In 2005, Long dedicated a new Olympic sports weight room at Fitzgerald Field House as well as training facilities for gymnastics and wrestling. When he departed Pittsburgh, Long had plans for new competition venues for baseball, softball, soccer and track and field, plus enhancements for the Pitt Band.

His commitment to building the Pitt athletics brand resulted in a new primary mark for the Panthers which returned the powerful "PITT" brand to the University of Pittsburgh. He established a partnership with adidas for uniforms and apparel for all 19 Pitt teams and an agreement with ISP Sports, one of the nation's leading college sports marketing firms, to elevate Pitt's profile from a local to national level. Through Long's leadership the department worked with its partners to begin a weekly television program, "Panthers Weekly," which highlighted all 19 sports on FSN Pittsburgh, a monthly magazine publication, “Panther Eyes,” and raised the profile of radio broadcasts with Clear Channel for football, basketball, hockey, women’s basketball and other programs.

Long’s direction of the Panther program resulted not only in the mandatory recertification by the NCAA of Pitt athletics in 2005, but the citation of the University of Pittsburgh by the peer review team that he led a program that was a “model for others to follow.” Among the student-athlete changes initiated by Long was the formulation of a new position for career and life skills coordinator, developed in concert with the University of Pittsburgh’s Provost.

Long’s four-year tenure added up to Pittsburgh becoming one of the nation’s top programs, notably the Panthers’ selection as the No. 17 overall program in the nation in the December 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus All-Sport Rankings.

As an athletic leader, Long was a key advocate for the Big East during the league’s time of membership transition. Thanks in part to Long’s voice of leadership, the Big East maintained its position as a key member of the Bowl Championship System, and the Pitt Panthers earned the Big East’s automatic berth in 2004 at the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Along with his tenure on the Executive Council, Long also served on the NCAA’s Sports Wagering Task Force in 2004, and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors’ Association.

Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years. Managing the external affairs of the Sooners, he was an innovator in his direction of the key image areas of marketing and promotions, licensing, media relations, ticketing, radio and television rights and SoonerVision productions. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners’ highly successful football and men’s basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long’s first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. He made several revisions to the ECU athletic infrastructure and completed several facility projects. Long created the first modern corporate partner and sponsorship structure at ECU. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his lengthy career in college athletic administration at the University of Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned seven varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post graduate career in athletics as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami of Ohio. Long earned his master’s in education in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and NC State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina.

The Razorback Foundation, Inc.

In the early seventies, Coach Frank Broyles, Coach Wilson Matthews, Athletic Director George Cole and a small group of statewide business leaders formed the Razorback Scholarship Fund. Their goal was to provide Razorback fans with an innovative way to support the athletic program and became important in providing the much-needed support for scholarships, facilities and programs to advance Razorback athletics within the then nationally prominent Southwest Conference.

The times have changed and the Scholarship Fund changed with it, becoming Razorback Foundation, Inc., in 1988 and relocated off campus. The establishment of the Broyles-Matthews Scholarship, a new level of giving that provided even more benefits for the top donor classification, was created under the new foundation president, Terry Don Phillips. In 1991, Phillips moved into senior management of the athletic department, and another former football player, All-American Chuck Dicus, became the second president of Razorback Foundation, Inc.

The Foundation played a vital role in the Razorbacks' entry into the competitive Southeastern Conference, and the expansion of Arkansas' athletic facilities into some of the best in the nation in every sport.

Since the completion of Bud Walton Arena, the Razorback Foundation, Inc. has helped provide financial aid for the construction of the Broyles Athletic Center (football and administrative offices), Charlie Baum Stadium at George Cole Field (baseball), John McDonnell Field (outdoor track and field), Willard and Pat Walker Pavilion (indoor practice for football), Randal Tyson Track Center (indoor track and field), Dills Indoor Tennis Center, the George M. Billingsley Tennis Center (outdoor tennis) and Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, the 72,000 seat "Home of the Razorbacks."

With the unification of Arkansas' two athletic departments in 2008, the Razorback Foundation, Inc., prepares for a new mission in support of all 19 varsity intercollegiate teams at the University of Arkansas and providing assistance to the over 450 male and female student-athletes that proudly wear the Cardinal and White.

Mission Statement

The stated mission of the Razorback Foundation, Inc. is to support the athletic endeavors of the University of Arkansas Razorbacks. The Foundation assists our student-athletes by providing for scholarships, facilities and various programs that enable them to realize their dreams of achieving a quality college education while participating in athletics on a nationally competitive level.

Why Razorbacks?

Arkansas' athletic teams have not always been called the Razorbacks. During the early years of its athletic history, the Cardinal served as the University nickname.

A lot of things changed in 1909, however, when Arkansas football coach Hugo Bezdek called his players "a wild band of Razorback hogs," after guiding his team to a 16-0 victory over Louisiana State on October 30, 1909.

Alluding to the Razorback, characterized by a ridge back and tenacious, wild fighting ability, Bezdek never forgot this idea and often called his team "a fighting band of Razorbacks." This new nickname became increasingly popular and the student body voted to change the official University mascot from the Cardinal to the Razorbacks in 1910.

In the 1920s, "Wooo, Pig, Sooie" was added as the school yell, referred to more commonly as the "Hog Call."

There are dozens of Lions, Tigers and Bears, but in all of college athletics there is only one Razorback. The distinctive logo of the Arkansas teams is officially known as the Profile Hog, but is known to many fans as the Helmet Hog — a fixture of the football team's helmet for almost half a century.

"To sit in the stands now, I still get chill bumps every time."

1989 All-American offensive tackle Jim Mabry on what it means to a Razorback to run through the "A"

Running Through The "A"

For Razorback football players, there is nothing to compare with entering the stadium for a home Arkansas game. The emotion of running through the "A" stays with a player for life.

Lloyd Phillips won the Outland Trophy more than three decades ago. The veteran of the 1964 national championship team, Phillips remembers it like it was yesterday.

"The butterflies are flowing and you are [running], but it doesn't feel like your feet are even touching the ground," the 1966 Outland winner recalls.

Two-time Doak Walker Award winner and two-time Heisman runner-up Darren McFadden agrees.

"It is hard to describe the feeling you get as a Razorback player right before you take the field for a game," McFadden said. "You can hear more than 70 thousand fans calling the Hogs and can feel the excitement building. I will always remember that special feeling of running through the 'A.'"

The Razorback Marching Band sets the stage by forming a huge "A" as they march the length of the field playing Arkansas Fight. When they finish, the "A" stretches from the Razorback locker room to midfield. To the roar of the crowd and the band blasting out Arkansas Fight, the current Razorbacks run onto the field through the "A," connecting them to generations of previous men in the Cardinal and White.

"Just to be able to run through that 'A' and hear the fans cheer for you is unbelievable," 1989 All-American offensive tackle Jim Mabry said. "To sit in the stands now, I still get chill bumps every time the band starts playing and I see the guys running out."

There are plenty of powerful mascots in college athletics, but none as unique as the Razorback. Not many school mascots have escaped from their homes, not once, but twice, to ravage the local country side. By their nature, the Razorbacks are hard to contain.

A Mascot Like No Other

The wild hogs known as razorbacks native to the Arkansas wilderness bear no resemblance to the typical barnyard pig of today. The untamed razorback hog was a lean, feral animal that was ill-tempered. It fought and defeated anything that crossed its path, man or beast. Turn of the 20th century outdoor magazines lauded the razorback as "the most intelligent of all the hogs and is likewise the most courageous. . . . He has a clear, farseeing eye."

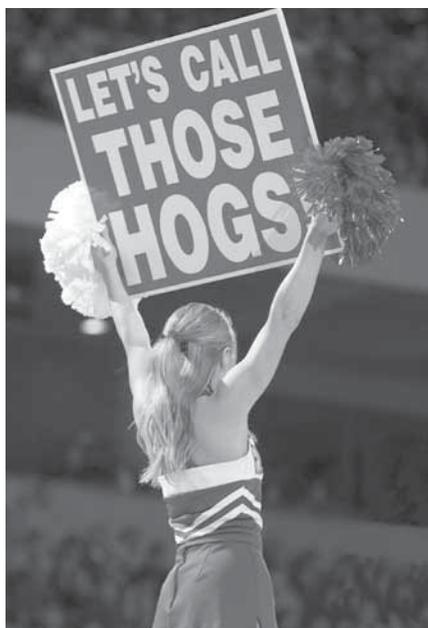

This was the mighty animal that inspired Hugo Bezdek to proclaim his team had fought "like a wild band of razorback hogs" against LSU in 1909.

Except for rare sightings in the Australian Outback, the Razorback only exists today in the form of Arkansas' players and fans. A Russian boar, which closely resembles the wild hog of Bezdek's day, currently serves as the official live mascot. He resides near campus, and attends all Arkansas home football games.

The tradition of a live mascot dates back to the 1960s with a series of hogs that have proudly represented Arkansas. In addition to appearances at games, they have gained a reputation for fierce behavior.

Big Red III escaped from an exhibit near Eureka Springs in the summer of 1977 and ravaged the countryside before being gunned down by an irate farmer. Another live mascot, Ragnar, was a wild hog captured in south Arkansas by Leola farmer Bill Robinson. Before Ragnar's spree was done, the mighty animal had killed a coyote, a 450-pound domestic pig and seven rattlesnakes. Ragnar died in 1978 of unknown causes.

A Proper Hog Call

A chant of “Woo Pig Sooie” is known worldwide as a Hog Call. Just like any good tradition, there are lots of versions of the Hog Call (even spellings).

A properly executed Hog Call is composed of three “calls,” slowly raising one’s arms from the knees to above the head during the “Woo.” Traditionalists prescribe an eight second “Woo.” The fingers should be wiggled and the “Woo” should build in volume and pitch as the arms rise.

Upon completion of the “Woo,” both arms are brought straight down with fists clinched as if executing a chin-up while yelling, “Pig”. The right arm is extended up and out with the “Sooie.”

A full Hog Call -- the kind one will always hear victorious Razorback teams execute after contests -- requires two more Hog Calls, followed immediately by a “Razor-Backs” yell, coordinated with a pumping motion of the right arm after the third “Sooie.” So, in order, the full Hog Call is:

Woooooooo. Pig. Sooie!
Woooooooo. Pig. Sooie!
Woooooooo. Pig. Sooie!
Razorbacks!

The Hog Hat

It is true; no Razorback fan’s closet is complete without an official Hog Hat. The original style was a hard plastic hat with a long snout, rough razorback ridges across the top and wickedly sharp, pointed curly-cue tail. The modern versions are often sculpted from softer material. Regardless, the Hog Hat is undoubtedly the most recognized piece of fan apparel in college athletics. Just ask ESPN GameDay’s Kirk Herbstreit as he dons the traditional Hog Hat.

Razorback Spirit Squads

Along with being a Razorback, serving as a Razorback cheerleader has a long tradition at the University of Arkansas. Currently, the Razorbacks have two squads, a Red and White, that inspire the crowds at all home sporting events.

Arkansas also has a dance team, the Razorback Pom Squad, which performs at halftime of many events. Members of the Pom Squad also serve at baseball games as RBI Girls.

Arkansas has a team of uniformed mascots, led by the original Big Red, the Fighting Razorback. Sue E. joined the family along with kid-sized Pork Chop in the late 1990s. Boss Hog is a 9-foot-tall inflatable mascot that rounds out the team.

Jean Nail serves as the coordinator for cheerleaders and mascots. For more information on the cheer squads and tryouts, go to the Spirit Squad section of Arkansas-Razorbacks.com.

Arkansas Fight

One of the first tasks of a new Razorback is learning to sing the University of Arkansas fight song. Arkansas Fight was written in the late 1920s. It is a unique tune, fitting of the only college in America with a Razorback mascot. Several other colleges have adapted the tune, but the lyrics remain unique to Arkansas.

Hit that line! Hit that line!
 Keep on going!
 Move that ball right
 down the field!
 Give a cheer. Rah! Rah!
 Never fear. Rah! Rah!
 Arkansas will never yield!
 On your toes, Razorbacks,
 to the finish,
 Carry on with all your might!
 For it’s A-A-R-K-A-N-S-A-S
 for Arkansas!
 Fight! Fight! Fi-i-i-ght!

The UA Alma Mater

Brodie Payne and Henry Tovey wrote the University of Arkansas Alma Mater in the early 1900s. They were inspired by the Ozark Mountain sunrise as it illuminated Old Main.

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty,
 Watches thy Soul
 from the mountains of God.
 Over the fates of thy children departed,
 Far from the land
 where their footsteps have trod.
 Beacon of hope in the ways dreary lighted,
 Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true.
 From those who adore unto one who
 adores us,
 Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

Fayetteville:
Top 10 Town

The largest city of the Northwest Arkansas region, Fayetteville was recently named No. 7 on Kiplinger's list of the Top 10 Best Cities in America. Fayetteville is just a short drive away from several of the area's finest attractions. Fayetteville is a short drive from Beaver Lake with more than 500 miles of shoreline for water sports and the Boston Mountains for camping, caving or hiking.

And if it's big-city excitement you want, Dallas is just six hours away, with Kansas City a three-hour drive, Oklahoma City just 3 1/2 hours, Memphis five hours and St. Louis six hours.

By air, Fayetteville is literally one stop to the world. Northwest Arkansas Regional (XNA) is non-stop to America's four largest cities plus another major 15 cities.

Fayetteville's famous Dickson Street is much more than a college hangout, adding upscale condominiums and specialty retail to its long-standing reputation as the center of entertainment and dining. From hosting major national events like Bikes, Blues and BBQ or serving as the final resting place for the goal posts after Razorback football upsets, one thing remains constant — Dickson is the heart of what's happening.

Fayetteville

From Robert Redford to James Earl Jones, the University of Arkansas hosted numerous famous speakers in recent years. Ranging from political satirist Al Franken to former Israeli prime minister Ehud Barak to CNN's Anderson Cooper, we've also had one of our more famous former law professors speak several times, President Bill Clinton.

One of America's largest motorcycle events, Bikes, Blues and BBQ adds another weekend of fall excitement.

JOHN PELPHREY

"This is a dream job for me. I know at the University of Arkansas you can compete for SEC championships and if we can compete in the SEC then we can compete nationally, and these (NCAA Tournament) banners prove that. The greatest thing about this program is that we have the most passionate fans in the country. When I go into that arena, I no longer have to worry about what that sound is when the Razorbacks come in. I now know that I am going to be a part of that when you guys Call the Hogs, and I can not tell you how special that is."
