

07//08 ARKANSAS RAZORBACKS BASKETBALL MEDIA GUIDE

FOR ME...”

The 2006 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, Pelphrey won regular season and conference tournament championships, and earned NCAA Tournament and NIT bids in his last two years at South Alabama.

Arkansas Athletic Director Frank Broyles (left) and Chancellor Dr. John White (right) introduced Pelphrey to fans and media on the floor of Bud Walton Arena on April 9, 2007.

...I KNOW AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS YOU CAN COMPETE FOR SEC CHAMPIONSHIPS AND IF WE CAN COMPETE IN THE SEC THEN WE CAN COMPETE NATIONALLY, AND THESE (NCAA TOURNAMENT) BANNERS PROVE THAT...THE GREATEST THING ABOUT THIS PROGRAM IS THAT WE HAVE THE MOST PASSIONATE FANS IN THE COUNTRY... WHEN I GO INTO THAT ARENA, I NO LONGER HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT WHAT THAT SOUND IS WHEN THE RAZORBACKS COME IN. I NOW KNOW THAT I AM GOING TO BE A PART OF THAT WHEN YOU GUYS ‘CALL THE HOGS,’ AND I CAN NOT TELL YOU HOW SPECIAL THAT IS.” JOHN PELPHREY, ARKANSAS HEAD COACH

HEAD COACH JOHN PELPHREY

"JOHN PELPHREY IS A PHENOMENAL COACH, and I think people realize and respect that, but he's an even better person. He understands about developing student-athletes as people, not just as players. John sets the highest standards in values and integrity, and instills these values in the young men he teaches. His work ethic and passion have made him a success at every level of basketball, from a player to an assistant to the transition to a head coach."

:: BILLY DONOVAN FLORIDA HEAD COACH

"HE IS GOING TO BE LETHAL AT ARKANSAS. Arkansas has some of the greatest fans in college basketball. When you put that running and pressing style back in, it will be a great combination. John will do an unbelievable job bringing premier players into the program. It's a great fit. It fits like a glove."

:: RICK PITINO LOUISVILLE AND FORMER KENTUCKY HEAD COACH

"IT'S A WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY FOR JOHN BECAUSE OF THE HISTORY AND TRADITION OF THE ARKANSAS program, and because of the great administrative and fan support. It's a great fit for Arkansas because he's bringing a style of play from his Rick Pitino, Billy Donovan and Eddie Sutton background. His style will not only be successful, but also fun and exciting. He is a tireless worker and a tremendous recruiter.

"His coaching career has progressed on a fast learning curve. He had great opportunities with Billy Donovan and Eddie Sutton, who are two outstanding coaches, and he also played for Rick Pitino. He took a program (USA) that was not in very good shape and really built it back to be a strong program. They won their league, and played in both the NCAA Tournament and the NIT.

"He's a really solid, solid basketball guy. I think he's one of the young superstar coaches out there."

:: C.M. NEWTON FORMER ATHLETIC DIRECTOR AT KENTUCKY, AND HEAD COACH AT VANDERBILT AND ALABAMA

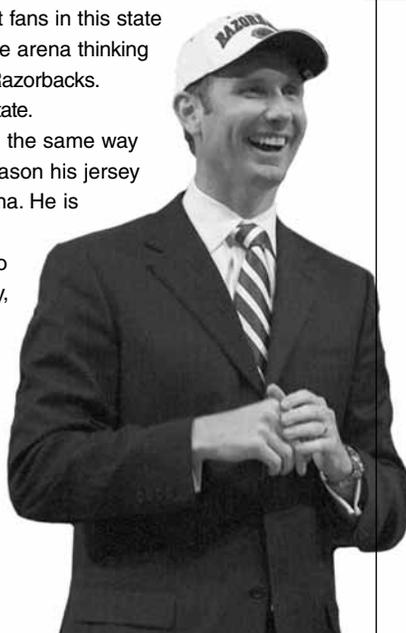

"I SAW HIS TEAMS PLAY TWICE, INCLUDING IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME OF THE SUN BELT A YEAR AGO.

Every player on that team laid it on the line for 40 minutes. It was the way he played at Kentucky for five years. I think that's the most important thing I can tell you about him and the way he coaches. Effort and passion are very important parts of what fans in this state want. I know our fans will never leave the arena thinking the other team played harder than their Razorbacks. That's a big, big deal to the people of this state.

"The people of Kentucky love John the same way our fans love Joe (Kleine). There is a reason his jersey is hanging from the rafters at Rupp Arena. He is beloved as few from that program have been. The fact is that there are a lot who played there with more God-given ability, just like Joe here, but he played every possession to the best of his ability, like Joe did. No one played the game harder at Kentucky than John Pelphrey and that's the way he coaches."

:: JIMMY DYKES

PELPHREY TIMELINE

> John Pelphrey played two years at Kentucky (1988 [redshirted] and '89) for former Arkansas head coach Eddie Sutton. He also began his coaching career as an assistant on Sutton's staff at Oklahoma State in 1994.

> Pelphrey played his last three years at Kentucky for head coach Rick Pitino. He averaged 13.0 points as a sophomore, 14.4 and was first-team All-SEC and an honorable mention All-American as a junior, and 12.5 points as a senior on a team finishing 29-7, reaching the Elite Eight and earning a No. 6 final ranking.

> After beginning his coaching career under Sutton, Pelphrey was an assistant to Billy Donovan, who was on Pitino's staff at Kentucky, at Marshall (1995 and '96) and Florida (1997-2002). His last four teams at Florida won 22 or more games and earned NCAA Tournament bids with a trip to the national title game in 2000.

> Following nine years as an assistant, Pelphrey was the head coach at South Alabama for five years (2003-07). His 2006 team recorded the biggest turnaround in the nation, improving from 10-18 to 24-7 with a conference divisional title, the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. His 2007 team, despite losing the top three scorers from 2006, went 20-12, won the Sun Belt regular season title and earned a spot in the NIT.

> PELPHREY WAS NAMED HEAD COACH AT ARKANSAS ON APRIL 9, 2007.

THE TOP 10 COUNTDOWN

Arkansas and its famed "40 minutes of hell" embarrassed Missouri on Dec. 2, 1993, rolling to a 120-68 win. It was the second game played in Bud Walton Arena.

That same Missouri team won 25 of its next 26 games. TTigers reached the Elite Eight and were ranked No. 5 at the end of the season.

Arkansas topped the 100-point mark eight more times at put together a 19-point average margin of victory on its to a 31-3 record, which culminated in the school's first national championship.

The Hogs got back to the 1995 title game, but lost to a 3 UCLA squad which is also on our list.

"I remember watching the film of Arkansas as we prepare play them and seeing all the weapons they had," said four Duke star Grant Hill, whose Blue Devils lost to Arkansas, 72 in the 1994 title game. "You realized they could blow you out. You were the kind of team that could blow you out."

"They just constantly three bodies at you, and in some"

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH JOHN PELPHREY24	DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS DAMON JONES AND PROGRAM SPECIALIST/ VIDEO COORDINATOR MATT SIVERLING31
ASSISTANT COACH ROB EVANS28	TEAM SUPPORT STAFF32

Rob Evans brings 38 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Arkansas staff.

John Pelphrey played for Eddie Sutton and Rick Pitino, and coached for Sutton and Billy Donovan before becoming a head coach himself.

HEAD COACH JOHN PELPHREY

John Pelphrey, a former assistant under Billy Donovan and Eddie Sutton who as a head coach guided South Alabama to the biggest turnaround in the nation two years ago and a conference championship last year, was named head basketball coach at Arkansas on April 9.

He also starred as a player at Kentucky from 1988-92 where he played for first Sutton and then Rick Pitino, who was assisted at the time by Donovan.

Pelphrey spent the past five years as the head coach at South Alabama. After going 14-14 in 2003, 12-16 in 2004 and 10-18 in 2005, his 2006 squad had the best turnaround in the nation, finishing 24-7. USA won the Sun Belt Conference West Division title and the tournament championship to give the Jaguars their first NCAA Tournament bid since 1998.

This past season, despite losing his top three scorers from 2006, USA went 20-12 and won the Sun Belt regular season title at 13-5 before falling at Syracuse, 79-73, in a first-round NIT game.

Last year's team led the Sun Belt in turnover margin (+2.53), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.12) and three-point defense (.325), and was second in steals (7.22) and scoring defense (67.3). The Jaguars also made 272-of-749 three-pointers, an average of 8.5 per game, while scoring 71.3 points.

The 2006 team, which lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to eventual national champion Florida, 76-50, led the league in scoring margin (+8.1) and three-point defense (.300), and was second in steals (8.52) and scoring defense (65.6). USA hit 267-of-728 threes, an average of 8.6 per game, and scored 73.6 points a game.

In making the biggest turnaround in the nation, USA improved from 62.3 points in 2005 to 73.6 in 2006, from a .416 field-goal percentage to .453, a .646 free-throw percentage to .703, a .351 defensive three-point percentage to .300, 16.0 turnovers to 13.4, 11.0 assists to 14.1, 13.9 turnovers forced to 16.8, 7.6 steals to 8.5 and 207 made three-pointers to 267.

The Paintsville, Ky., native went to South Alabama following six seasons as an assistant under Donovan at Florida from 1997-2002. He was also an assistant under Donovan for two years at Marshall in 1995 and '96.

The 2006 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year began his coaching career as an assistant to Sutton, who he played for at Kentucky, at Oklahoma State in 1994.

In his six seasons at Florida, the Gators went 124-65 with a then school-record four straight NCAA Tournament bids after one trip to the NIT. Florida reached the national championship game in 2000 and the Sweet 16 in 1999.

John Pelphrey's 14-year coaching career includes nine winning seasons, eight post-season tournament bids, seven 20-win seasons, six NCAA Tournament appearances, five division conference championships, three overall regular season conference titles, two NIT bids and one trip to the NCAA Final Four.

"John was the brightest player I've ever coached and the best leader. He not only was the hardest worker, but he got everybody else working harder and playing better. I knew he was going to be a coach. It was easy to see. Then he went with Billy Donovan and was able to learn the recruiting game, and there's no one better to learn it from than Billy."

— Rick Pitino, Louisville and former Kentucky head coach

As an assistant under Donovan at Marshall, the Thundering Herd went 18-9 in 1995 and 17-11 in '96 after going 9-18 the year before they arrived.

Under Sutton at OSU in 1994, the Cowboys were 24-10 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Pelphrey began his coaching career following one season playing professionally in France and Spain.

He played two years under Sutton and three under Pitino at Kentucky. After redshirting in 1988, he lettered from 1989-92 and was a team captain in 1991 and '92. He averaged 1.7 points as a freshman under Sutton.

In Pitino's first year in 1990, with Donovan as an assistant, Pelphrey improved to 13.0 points as a sophomore. As a junior in '91, he averaged a team-high tying 14.4 points on a 22-6 squad, earning honorable mention All-America and first-team All-SEC honors.

In 1992, he was second on the team with 12.5 points, helping the Wildcats go 29-7, win the SEC Tournament and end the year ranked No. 6 in the nation. Kentucky advanced to the Elite Eight in the NCAA Tournament, falling to Duke, 104-103 in overtime, in what is often regarded as one of the best college basketball games in history. Duke won on Christian Laettner's buzzer-beating jumper. Pelphrey was one of four seniors on that squad known to UK fans as "The Unforgettables."

Inducted into the Kentucky Hall of Fame in 2005 and named UK's Student-Athlete of the Year in 1989, his jersey number (No. 34) was retired in 1992. Over his UK career, he started 90 of 114 games and finished with a career scoring average of 11.0 points.

The son of two teachers, he served on UK's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee from 1990-92 and was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1990. He graduated from Kentucky in 1992.

Named Mr. Basketball in the state of Kentucky as a senior at Paintsville High in 1987, he scored 2,477 points and claimed 1,316 rebounds for his career.

Pelphrey is married to the former Tracy Lyon and they have a son, Jaxson Hamilton (11) and a daughter, Ann-Marie Grace Donovan (8).

John Pelphrey is 29th on Kentucky's all-time scoring list with 1,257 points.

"He was absolutely like a big brother to me. That's what he's going to be like for that program. His greatest asset is his leadership. When we were at Kentucky, he was the leader of the team. Sure, he was one of a few captains, but everyone knew who the real captain was."

— Travis Ford, Massachusetts head coach and former teammate at Kentucky

“John is a man of vision, an architect and someone who understands the process of building a program from the ground up. He connects well with people on every level. He is a man of great values, a great teacher, a great role model for the student-athletes he mentors and has been a success everywhere he has been because of these qualities.”

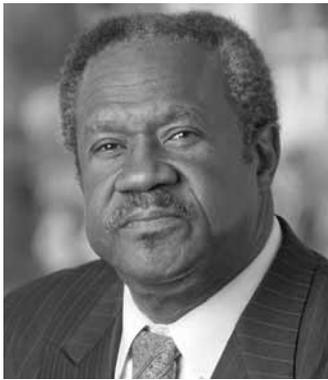

— Jeremy Foley, Florida athletic director

John Pelphrey's last two teams at South Alabama went a combined 44-19 with two conference division titles, one overall regular season conference title and a conference tournament championship.

ASSISTANT COACH ROB EVANS

Rob Evans, a former Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, joined head coach John Pelphey's staff at Arkansas as an assistant coach on April 19.

Evans was the head coach at Ole Miss from 1993-98 and at Arizona State from 1999-2006. He rebuilt both programs, leading Ole Miss to consecutive SEC Western Division titles and NCAA Tournament bids, and guiding Arizona State to four post-season tournament appearances, including three in of the last five years.

The Hobbs, N.M., native was a collegiate assistant for 24 years before taking over the Ole Miss program. He was an assistant to Eddie Sutton at Oklahoma State in 1991 and 1992 after spending 15 years as an assistant at Texas Tech (1976-90) and seven under Lou Henson at New Mexico State (1969-75), his alma mater.

Evans has 38 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 14 years as a head coach. Six of his 14 teams as head coach earned post-season tournament bids with 16 of his teams overall advancing to post-season play.

He helped the Aggies earn four NCAA Tournament bids in seven years with a trip to the Final Four in 1970. While an assistant at NMSU, he also coached the freshman teams to a combined record of 90-15. Eight of his teams at Texas Tech won 17 or more games with three Southwest Conference Tournament titles and three NCAA Tournament bids. In his two seasons at OSU, the Cowboys reached the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 each year.

At Ole Miss, he took over a program with just one winning season in the previous nine seasons and only one NCAA Tournament bid in its history. After a 10-18 mark his first year, the Rebels were 14-13 in 1994 for their first winning season in seven years. Ole Miss was 8-19 and 12-15 the next two years, but went 20-9 in 1997 and 22-7 in 1998, winning Western Division titles each year and earning back-to-back NCAA Tournament bids for the first time. The consecutive 20-win seasons were the first for Ole Miss since 1937 and '38.

Evans was named SEC Coach of the Year and CollegeInsider.com National Coach of the Year in 1997. In 1998, the Rebels beat Kentucky in Lexington for the first time since 1927.

At Arizona State, his first club went 14-16 in 1999, but the 19-13 finish in 2000, which included reaching the second round of the NIT, was just the fourth 19-win season for the Sun Devils in 19 years. Following a 13-16 finish in 2001, ASU went 14-15 in 2002 with injuries to three players. Despite the setbacks, Evans' team beat four NCAA Tournament teams, won at UCLA for the first time since 1987 and earned a spot in the NIT.

In 2003, the Sun Devils went 20-12 for their first 20-win season since 1995 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with an upset win over Memphis. ASU was 10-17 in 2004, 18-14 with a post-season tournament bid (NIT) for the third time in four years in 2005 and 11-17 in 2006.

His last club led the Pac-10 in three-point shooting (.378), allowed only 69.9 points a game for ASU's best defensive scoring average since 1991 (69.1) and lost four games by four points or less with another loss in overtime.

As a player, he was the first All-American at Lubbock (Texas) Christian College after averaging 19.8 points in 1966. Named team captain, he was also all-conference and all-region.

At New Mexico State, he captained the 1967 Aggies to a 15-11 record and the 1968 squad to a 23-6 mark. NMSU made the NCAA Tournament both years. The 1967 team lost to Elvin Hayes and Houston while the 1968 squad beat Dick Motta and Weber State before losing to eventual national champion UCLA and Lew Alcindor.

A former baseball star as well, he was drafted out of high school by the Colt 45s, which eventually became the Houston Astros. Following college, he signed as a free agent with the Dallas Chaparrals of the American Basketball Association and with the Oakland Raiders as a receiver.

Evans, who was selected NMSU's most outstanding athlete in 1967 and has been named to the school's all-time basketball team, was inducted into the Aggie Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993. In 1991, he was elected by his peers to be president of the National Association of Assistant Basketball Coaches, was inducted into the Lubbock Christian Hall of Fame in 1990, the Las Cruces, N.M., Hall of Fame in 1989, presented the Texas Tech Outstanding Achievement Award for 1986-87 and selected as NMSU's School of Education Alumnus of the Year in 1994.

Tom Ostrom is in his first season as an assistant at Arkansas, but this is the fourth straight year he's been a member of head coach John Pelphrey's staff.

Ostrom spent the three previous years as an assistant to Pelphrey at South Alabama. A former assistant at Florida under Billy Donovan, he was at South Alabama from 2005-07 after working at Florida from 1998-2004. Pelphrey and Ostrom were on the same staff at Florida from 1998 through 2002.

Ostrom helped South Alabama record the best turnaround in the nation in 2006. In his first year at USA, the Jaguars went 10-18 in 2005, but went 24-7 the following season. South Alabama won the Sun Belt Conference West Division title and the tournament championship to send the Jaguars to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998.

The 2006 team, which lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to eventual national champion Florida, led the league in scoring margin (+8.1) and three-point defense (.300), and was second in steals (8.52) and scoring defense (65.6). USA hit 267-of-728 threes, an average of 8.6 per game.

In making the biggest turnaround in the nation, USA improved from 62.3 points in 2005 to 73.6 in 2006, from a .416 field-goal percentage to .453, a .646 free-throw percentage to .703, a .351 defensive three-point percentage to .300, 16.0 turnovers to 13.4, 11.0 assists to 14.1, 13.9 turnovers forced to 16.8, 7.6 steals to 8.5 and 207 made three-pointers to 267.

Despite losing the top three scorers off that 2006 squad, Ostrom and the Jaguars posted a 20-12 record in 2007, won the Sun Belt regular season title and lost a 79-73 decision at Syracuse in the first round of the NIT.

The 2007 team led the Sun Belt in turnover margin (+2.53), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.12) and three-point defense (.325), and was second in steals (7.22) and scoring defense (67.3). The Jaguars also made 272-of-749 three-pointers, an average of 8.5 per game.

Prior to joining Pelphrey's staff at USA, Ostrom spent seven seasons under Donovan at Florida, the first five as administrative assistant/video coordinator (1998-2002) and the final two as an assistant coach (2003-04). In his seven years, Florida was a combined 156-67, won two SEC regular season co-championships, three Eastern Division co-championships, played in the NIT his first season, played in the NCAA Tournament the last six years, reached the NCAA championship game in 2000, advanced to the Sweet 16 in 1999 and won 20 or more games his last six years.

A 1997 University of Minnesota graduate, Ostrom served as a student manager for the Golden Gophers from 1989-93. He prepped at Bethlehem Academy in Faribault, Minn.

ASSISTANT COACH ISAAC BROWN

Isaac Brown, who has 10 years of collegiate coaching experience at the NCAA Division I and junior college levels, is in his first season at Arkansas after joining the staff on May 2.

Brown was a part of head coach John Pelphrey's staff at South Alabama all five years where he assisted in recruiting and on-floor coaching.

Brown helped the Jaguars record the best turnaround in the nation in 2006. South Alabama went 14-14 in 2003, 12-16 in 2004 and 10-18 in 2005, but went 24-7 in 2006. USA won the Sun Belt Conference West Division title and the tournament championship to send the Jaguars to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998.

The 2006 team, which lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to eventual national champion Florida, led the league in scoring margin (+8.1) and three-point defense (.300), and was second in steals (8.52) and scoring defense (65.6). USA hit 267-of-728 threes, an average of 8.6 per game.

Brown began his coaching career at Pearl River Community College in Poplarville, Miss., in 1997. After two years, he went to his hometown school as an assistant at Pascagoula (Miss.) High School. Following one season, he moved back into the junior college ranks at Okaloosa-Walton Community College in Niceville, Fla. At OWCC, he recruited and coached Kedric Brown, who in 2001 became the first junior college player selected as an NBA lottery pick. He also coached guard Donell Taylor, who is with the NBA's Washington Wizards. Fifteen OWCC players signed Division I scholarships while Brown was on the staff.

Brown earned his bachelor's in health and physical education from Louisiana-Monroe in 1995. He played two years at Mississippi Gulf Coast CC (1989-90), spent one season at Texas A&M (1991), transferred to Louisiana-Monroe and sat out the 1992 season before helping his team win the 1993 Southland Conference title at 17-1, finish 27-4 overall and earn an NCAA Tournament bid.

As a player, he had one of his best games against the Razorbacks, but not while playing at former Southwest Conference rival Texas A&M. After transferring to Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana-Monroe) for his senior season, his team upset No. 9 Arkansas, 87-79, in Little Rock on Dec. 30, 1992. Brown was 5-of-8 shooting, including 3-of-4 on threes, finishing with 14 points.

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS DAMON JONES

Damon Jones, who spent the last seven years working for the National Basketball Association in New York, is in his first year on the staff after being named Arkansas' director of basketball operations on Aug. 25.

Jones worked in the Community and Player Programs Department at the NBA, a group that provides support to NBA players and teams through community relations, player development and player marketing. His responsibilities included integrating programs and executing partnerships that promote social responsibility and support player growth.

While at the NBA in New York, Jones also worked to help promote the positive activities players participated in off the court, and help them with charitable event coordination and their foundations. He also assisted with international programs such as Basketball without Borders and played a role working with the USA Men's Basketball Senior National Team.

At Arkansas, the Bronx, N.Y., native will work with student-athletes on a day-to-day basis to build and maintain relationships and assist the staff in various capacities.

Jones earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Howard University in Washington, D.C., in 2000.

He and his wife Maliaka have one son, Chayse, and are expecting their second child in March.

PROGRAM SPECIALIST/VIDEO COORDINATOR MATT SIVERLING

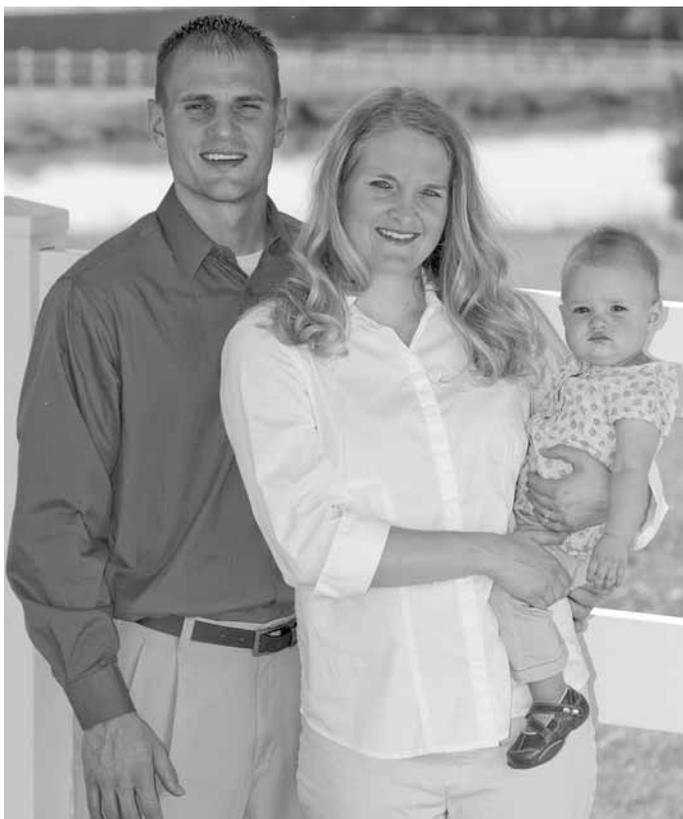

Matt Siverling is in his first year as Arkansas' program specialist and video coordinator after joining the staff on June 7.

He joined John Pelphrey's staff after spending the three previous years as an assistant basketball coach at the University of Wisconsin – Eau Claire. His responsibilities included recruiting, scouting, video editing, budget management, travel and camp. He also taught classes in the Department of Kinesiology and was a men's and women's assistant golf coach.

Siverling earned his master's from the University of Florida in exercise and sport sciences in 2004. While at Florida, he was a graduate assistant on the men's basketball staff from 2002-04, assisting with all aspects of the basketball program.

He earned his bachelor's from the University of Wisconsin – Eau Claire in kinesiology in 2002. As a student at the University of Wisconsin – Eau Claire, he worked as an assistant coach at Eau Claire North High School for three years.

A 1997 graduate of Ladysmith High School in Ladysmith, Wisc., Siverling is married to Lori. They have a daughter, Addison, and are expecting a child in February.

SUPPORT STAFF

DAVE ENGLAND
Head Basketball Trainer

In his 24th full year but his 25th season as a member of the Arkansas training staff, Dave England is in his 20th season as the head trainer for basketball and baseball.

In 2004, he received the District 6 Athletic Trainer Service Award from the National Athletic Trainers Association.

England also worked at Arkansas as a student and graduate assistant trainer. He returned to Fayetteville following a stint in the St. Louis Cardinals baseball organization.

He handles all training duties for Razorback basketball and baseball, and was honored in 2000 as the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association Trainer of the Year. He also handles all travel and various administrative duties for basketball.

A 1980 graduate of Arkansas with a bachelor's of science degree in education, England worked the 1976 Cotton Bowl and 1978 Orange Bowl football games as a student trainer. He was a graduate assistant for Dean Weber in 1980-81 and went with the Hogs to the 1980 Hall of Fame Bowl. He also worked with baseball during those days and went to the 1979 College World Series where the Razorbacks finished second.

He then accepted an offer to work with the Cardinals. After spending some time in the lower levels of the organization, he worked his way up to the position of head trainer for the Cardinals' Double-A team in Little Rock. He returned to Arkansas in the fall of 1984 as assistant trainer and was promoted to head trainer in 1989.

In working with Razorback basketball, England has been to 15 NCAA Tournaments and two NITs. He's made three trips to the Final Four and worked with the 1994 NCAA champions and the 1995 national runners-up. He returned to the College World Series with the baseball Hogs in 1985, 1987 and 2004 while the 2002 club advanced to a Super Regional. While working with football he has been to the Liberty and Cotton bowls twice, and the Orange, Holiday and Hall of Fame bowls.

One of seven founding members of the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association in 1987, England was inducted into the AATA Hall of Fame in 1999.

He has two daughters, Jennifer, 24, and Alyson, 15. He is married to the former Heather Cullum.

KELLY LAMBERT
Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Kelly Lambert is in his fourth season supervising the strength and conditioning of the Razorback basketball program while assisting with football. Overall, he is in his seventh year as a member of the Razorback staff and his fifth as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

He served as a graduate assistant from 2001-03 before becoming the second full-time strength and conditioning coach. He also served as a volunteer in 2000 before being offered a graduate assistant position in 2001.

In 2002, Lambert earned his certification as a collegiate strength and conditioning coach as a part of the first group which had to take the practical examination along with the written examination in order to become a certified collegiate strength and conditioning coach.

In addition to working with basketball and football, he has also worked with the golf, baseball and tennis teams.

During his tenure with the Razorbacks, Lambert has worked with the 2000 SEC Basketball Tournament champions and the 2006 and 2007 teams, which each earned NCAA Tournament bids. In his tenure of being the head strength coach for basketball, he has helped student-athletes replace 15 of 20 all-time school records in lifting, agility and explosiveness tests.

In football, he helped mold four consecutive bowl teams and five total, including the 2000 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2002 Cotton Bowl, the 2002 Music City Bowl, the 2003 Independence Bowl and the 2007 Capital One Bowl, as well as the 2002 and 2006 SEC Western Division champions.

In 2005, Lambert coached several defensive backs to personal lifting and 40-yard dash records. In 2006, he helped two defensive backs set all-time school records in two agility tests administered to the Razorback football team following the season.

Also in 2006, Lambert personally trained Ronnie Brewer for the NBA Combine where he finished second overall out of 89 athletes. The combine consisted of various tests of strength, agility and explosiveness. Lambert still trains Brewer, who is with the Utah Jazz, and former Razorback Dontell Jefferson, who is with the 2007 NBA developmental league champion Dakota Wizards.

Lambert came to the University of Arkansas upon completing his bachelor's degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in athletic training at the University of Central Arkansas in 1999. He earned his master's degree in sports management from the University of Arkansas in 2003. He is a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and the USA Weightlifting Association.

TERRY MERCER
Office Manager

A major component of the University of Arkansas basketball program, Terry Mercer is in her 30th year as the office manager for Razorback basketball. Her friendly demeanor welcomes visitors to the basketball offices at Bud Walton Arena.

Mercer is in her first season working for head coach John Pelphey. She worked with Stan Heath for five years, Nolan Richardson for 17 and seven for Eddie Sutton.

She handles all correspondence and helps with the administrative details of the John Pelphey Razorback Basketball Camp in addition to organizing Pelphey's hectic schedule. Other duties include coordinating the Razorback Golf Outing in 2006.

Mercer has enjoyed the success of the Razorback program, making four trips to the Final Four and 22 NCAA Tournament excursions.

A native of Saratoga, N.C., where she graduated from high school in 1972, she worked for Southern Piping Company in Wilson, N.C., for six years before her husband, Elton, was transferred to Fayetteville.

JASON WILLIAMSON
Academic Coordinator

Jason Williamson is in his fourth year as the academic coordinator for basketball after joining the student-athlete support services group on July 6, 2004.

His responsibilities include monitoring the academic progress of all basketball players, including coordinating the degree completion program, monitoring the eligibility process, assisting with financial aid issues, serving as the liaison between the basketball office and faculty and staff, and supervising two graduate assistants.

A member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics, he graduated from the University of Arkansas with a bachelor's in criminal justice in 1999 and earned his master's in 2001 in public administration.

He joined the Arkansas staff after spending the two previous years as an academic advisor at Clemson. At Clemson, he worked with men's basketball, women's basketball and track. He also planned and organized the annual academic awards banquet, and monitored the student-athlete enrichment program payroll system. In addition, he served as the community service coordinator for all student-athletes, coaches and administration.

Before going to Clemson, Williamson worked as an academic advisor at Ohio University during the 2001-02 school year, working with a total of 160 student-athletes in the sports of baseball, track, lacrosse and wrestling. He also taught an orientation class.

A member of the U.S. Army Reserves from 1993-2001, he has also worked at Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., as a loss prevention associate and at Youth Bridge, Inc., as a case manager.

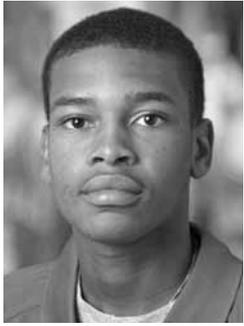

Williamson is married to the former Shele Whitecotton and they have a son, Kasius Eli, four.

The Razorbacks dished out 521 assists last year, the 10th-highest total in school history. Point guard Gary Ervin led the team with 169.

Steven Hill's field goal percentage improved from 47 percent in 2006 to 64 percent last season.

This past summer, Patrick Beverley set a USA Basketball Under-19 team record with 31 steals, breaking the previous mark of 20 set by Buck Johnson in 1983.

#21 PATRICK BEVERLEY

Guard - 6-1 - 180 - Sophomore - 1L - Chicago, Ill. (Marshall HS)

2007-08 Preview: Last year's Southeastern Conference newcomer and freshman of the year, guard Patrick Beverley ranked among SEC individual leaders in nine of 13 categories. Over the summer, he led the USA Basketball Under-19 team to a silver medal finish in the World Championships at Serbia. The U.S. went 8-1 with Beverley leading the team in scoring (13.0), assists (3.2) and steals (3.4). He tied for second in rebounding (5.3), was second in three-point shooting (.394, 13-33) and third in free-throw shooting (.750, 18-24). He set a USA Basketball team record with 31 steals, shattering the previous mark of 20 set by Buck Johnson in 1983, and tied for fourth with 29 assists.

2006-07: After ranking among the SEC's individual leaders in nine of 13 categories, Beverley won just about every award possible last year. The SEC newcomer and freshman of the year was second-team All-SEC, a first-team freshman All-American by CollegeInsider.com, a second-team freshman All-American by Basketball Times, a third-team freshman All-American by Rivals and CollegeHoops.net, second-team All-District 9 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, second-team All-District VII by the United States Basketball Writers Association, a three-time SEC Freshman of the Week and named to the Old Spice Classic all-tournament team.

He was 16th in the SEC in scoring (13.9), tied for 29th in rebounding (4.5), 15th in assists (3.14), sixth in steals (1.74), third in free-throw percentage (.812), eighth in three-point percentage (.386), 11th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.57), 12th in three-point goals per game (2.09) and fourth in minutes played (34.37).

He led the team in scoring, steals, free-throw shooting, three-point shooting, three-point goals per game and minutes played, and was second in assists and assist-to-turnover ratio. He led the team in scoring 14 times, in assists 10 times and in double-figure scoring games with 24.

In SEC play, he averaged 14.6 points, 4.3 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.4 steals while shooting 40.6 percent on threes and 85.3 percent at the line. He was 13th in the league in scoring, 15th in assists, 11th in steals, fourth in three-point percentage and second in free-throw percentage. He was also seventh in threes per game (2.4), second in minutes played (36.56) and 13th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.33) to rank among league leaders in eight of 13 areas.

Beverley averaged 14.7 points, 4.3 rebounds and 3.3 assists in 16 games at home; 15.0 points 4.6 rebounds and 3.2 assists in 10 road games; 15.1 points, 5.6 rebounds and 3.4 rebounds in seven games against ranked teams; and 15.2 points, 4.7 rebounds and 3.0 assists in 11 games against NCAA Tournament teams.

In his debut against Southeast Missouri State (11/10) in the season-opener, he scored 29 points in 28 minutes. He was 11-of-13 from the floor, including 6-of-7 on threes. He added five rebounds, four assists and four steals. His point total ties for the fourth-best by a freshman in school history. It was also the most for a Hog in a season-opener since All-American Sidney Moncrief had 30 against Oklahoma to start his senior season in 1979.

For his effort, Beverley earned the SEC Freshman of the Week honor, the first one ever awarded, and was named the Diaper Dandy of the Week by Dick Vitale.

In the win over Southern Illinois (11/23) in the Old Spice Classic, he was 4-of-6 from the floor, finishing with 12 points, five rebounds and four steals. In the semifinal win over Marist (11/24), he had a team-high 15 points, five assists and four steals along with four rebounds and two blocked shots. He helped UA win the title and was named to the all-tournament team with seven points, six rebounds and five assists in the championship game victory over West Virginia (11/26). He also earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors for the second time in three weeks.

In the loss at Missouri (11/30), he tied for the team lead with 15 points and had a team-high four assists. He also had five rebounds.

He was 7-of-9 shooting and scored a game-high 19 points with three steals against Oakland (12/14). At Texas (12/20), he had 19 points, eight rebounds and seven assists in 40 minutes.

Against Oral Roberts (12/22), he had game highs of 25 points and four steals while also adding four rebounds, four assists and two blocked shots. He was 5-of-9 from the floor and 13-of-15 at the line. He had 13 points, four rebounds and two steals against Louisiana Tech (12/30). In the win over Tulsa (1/2), he had 11 points, five rebounds, five assists, five steals and a blocked shot.

In the win over No. 8 Alabama (1/6), he tied for game-high scoring honors with 18 points, and added five rebounds and four assists. He had 15 points, five rebounds and five assists in the loss at Ole Miss (1/13).

In the win at No. 12 Alabama (1/27), he was 5-of-10 shooting, including 2-of-2 on threes, and 7-of-8 at the line, finishing with 19 points, five rebounds and two assists in 39 minutes. He made 5-of-6 free throws in the final 2:24.

In the loss to No. 24 Kentucky (2/3), he scored a game-high 25 points on 8-of-14 shooting, including 5-of-8 on threes, and added four rebounds and three assists. Beverley was solid in the win over Auburn (2/7), making 5-of-9 shots and finishing with 13 points, five rebounds, four assists and three steals in 40 minutes.

At LSU (2/10), he was only 5-of-13 shooting, including 1-of-6 on threes, but led the team with 17 points while adding three assists and two steals.

Beverley made 7-of-13 shots, including 6-of-11 threes, and had game highs of 24 points and four steals along with five rebounds and five assists in the home win over Ole Miss (2/17). He had nine points and three rebounds in the previous game at Mississippi State (2/14) to earn SEC Freshman of the Week honors for the third time.

At Auburn (2/21), he made just 6-of-16 shots, but led the team with 16 points. His missed his first nine shots, but hit two big threes late in the win over Mississippi State (2/28). He finished with 10 points and five rebounds.

Beverley recorded the first double-double of his career in the win at No. 19 Vanderbilt (3/3). He was 10-of-11 at the line, finishing with 20 points, a game-high 10 rebounds, a game-high tying four assists and two steals. In the SEC Tournament quarterfinals against Vanderbilt (3/9), he was just 5-of-14 shooting, but had 18 points, three rebounds and three assists with no turnovers.

In the NCAA Tournament against Southern California (3/16), he led the team with 15 points, but was just 4-of-13 from the floor while going 7-of-8 at the line.

In High School: As a senior at Chicago Marshall High, he led the state in scoring with 37.3 points while also adding 8.0 steals, 6.0 assists and 6.0 rebounds for Coach Lamont Bryant. He led his team to a third-place finish in Class AA with a 35-3 record.

Beverley scored 40 or more points nine times and 30 or more 18 times, and made nine threes in a career-high 48-point outing. He shot 56 percent from the field, 44.8 percent from three-point range and 91.2 percent from the line. Ranked the No. 59 prospect in the nation and the No. 14 shooting guard by Scout.com, and the No. 64 player in the nation by Rivals.com, he was third in voting for Mr. Basketball in the state of Illinois. He earned all-state and all-city honors, was named co-player of the year and set a record for the most points scored in a season.

Selected to play in the Roundball Classic, a national all-star game played in the United Center at Chicago on April 8, 2006, he had 13 points, six assists and three steals in helping the West to a 118-102 victory over the East.

As a junior, he averaged 26 points on a 28-2 squad.

He signed with Arkansas after also considering Michigan, St. John's, Virginia, Wake Forest, Indiana, DePaul, Florida State, Georgetown, Seton Hall, Arizona State, Purdue and Missouri, among others.

Beverley's scoring average as a senior (37.3) was the highest for an incoming freshman at Arkansas since 1987 when Cannon Whitby averaged 40 points as a senior at Obion County (Tenn.) High in 1986.

Personal: Born July 12, 1988, his parents are Patrick Bracy and Lisa Beverley. He is majoring in criminal justice.

#0 GARY ERVIN

Guard – 6-0 – 182 – Senior – 1L – Brooklyn, N.Y. (Mississippi State)

2007-08 Preview: A key in head coach John Pelphrey's new system at Arkansas, Ervin sat out the 2006 season after transferring from Mississippi State, but started 29 of 35 games last year. His 169 assists are the most for a Razorback since Kareem Reid had 181 in 1999. Ervin's 4.83 assists average is also Arkansas' best since Reid averaged 5.32 in '99. He helped Arkansas distribute 521 assists on the season, which is the 10th-best season total in school history.

2006-07: He was No. 8 on the CollegeHoops.net list of "Impact Transfers," and didn't disappoint after finishing fifth in the SEC in assists (4.83), ninth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.69) and 15th in minutes played (31.89). He also averaged 9.9 points and 3.6 rebounds while shooting 46.2 percent from the field (117-253) and finishing second on the team in three-point percentage (.370, 34-92).

In SEC play, he was third on the team with 10.8 points per game while adding 3.5 rebounds and 5.5 assists, which ranked second in the league.

He led the team in scoring six times and in assists 24 times, and was in double-figures scoring 15 times.

In six games in March, he averaged 11.8 points, 4.2 rebounds and 3.0 assists. In 16 games at home, he averaged 10.4 points, 3.1 rebounds and 5.6 assists while shooting 51.9 percent from the floor and 75 percent at the line. In seven games against ranked teams, he averaged 10.7 points, 4.0 rebounds and 6.6 assists, and shot 81.8 percent at the line.

Ervin earned SEC Player of the Week honors twice during the season, becoming the first multi-week winner for Arkansas since Jannero Pargo earned the honor twice in 2002. Ervin won his awards on Jan. 8 and March 5. The first time, he had 18 points and 11 assists against No. 8 Alabama for his first double-double at Arkansas. He also had six rebounds and three steals while making 7-of-8 shots. In the previous game, he had 14 points, six assists and two steals with no turnovers against Tulsa for weekly averages of 16.0 points, 8.5 assists, 3.5 rebounds and 2.5 steals with just one turnover in 68 minutes. He was 12-of-17 shooting (.706) and 6-of-7 at the line (.857).

His second honor came after setting career scoring highs in consecutive games. Against Mississippi State, he had 20 points, made 6-of-12 shots, was 6-of-7 at the line, had a game-high seven assists and added six rebounds. In the win at No. 19 Vanderbilt, he had a game-high 21 points on 6-of-10 shooting, five rebounds and a game-high tying four assists. His weekly averages were 20.5 points, 5.5 rebounds, 5.5 assists and 1.0 steal while shooting 54.5 percent from the floor (12-22) and 86.7 percent at the line (13-15).

In the season-opener against Southeast Missouri (11/10), his first game in two years, he had eight points, two rebounds and five assists in 19 minutes. Against Stephen F. Austin (11/18), he made 4-of-6 shots, and had 12 points and five assists.

Against the tough defense of Southern Illinois (11/23) in the Old Spice Classic, he had seven turnovers, but he also had 12 points on 4-of-7 shooting, a game-high nine rebounds and five assists. In the semifinal win over Marist (11/24), he had 13 points, five rebounds and three assists. In the championship game victory over West Virginia (11/26), he had eight points, four rebounds and seven assists.

He came off the bench against UMKC (12/2) and had good numbers with 12 points, eight rebounds and five assists. In the win over Oakland (12/14), he had nine points, eight assists and three steals with only one turnover.

At No. 2 Florida (1/9), he had 11 points, five rebounds, nine assists and a steal with just one turnover in 39 minutes.

He had six assists at Ole Miss (1/13), along with eight points, four rebounds and four steals, but turned the ball over seven times. He was 4-of-7 shooting, finishing with 13 points, five rebounds and three assists against Georgia (1/17).

In the win over No. 16 LSU (1/20), he came off the bench but had 11 points, four rebounds, seven assists and three steals. In the win at No. 12 Alabama (1/27), Ervin had eight points, six rebounds and six assists in 40 minutes. In the win over Auburn (2/7), he missed both shot attempts in the first half, but was 7-of-11 in the second half, finishing with 18 points. He had another big second half in the next game at LSU (2/10).

After going scoreless with no shot attempts in the first half, he was 6-of-8 in the second, finishing with 16 points, five rebounds and three assists.

Ervin came off the bench in the win over Ole Miss (2/17), and had a game-high eight assists with three turnovers along with seven points.

In the SEC Tournament opener against South Carolina (3/8), he was 7-of-9 shooting, finishing with a game-high tying 16 points along with five assists and two rebounds with no turnovers. In the quarterfinals against Vanderbilt (3/9), his driving jumper in the lane with 11 seconds left was the game-winner. He finished with six points, six rebounds and three assists. In the semifinals against Mississippi State (3/10), he was 7-of-13 shooting, and finished with 15 points, four rebounds and two assists.

In the NCAA Tournament against Southern California (3/16), he had just seven points on 3-of-12 shooting, but led the team with seven rebounds.

2005-06: Ervin sat out the 2006 season after transferring from Mississippi State. In his only game action of the year, he had four points and a game-high 10 assists in UA's Red-White Game.

At Mississippi State: As a sophomore in 2005, he started 33 of 34 games with averages of 7.4 points, 2.4 rebounds, 4.7 assists and 1.1 steals. He was third in the Southeastern Conference in assists and seventh in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.58:1). He shot 38.3 percent from the floor (88-230), 23.3 percent on three-pointers (10-43) and 69.5 percent at the line (66-95).

He had 14 assists against Florida A&M and 10 against Jacksonville State, becoming the first Bulldog to record 10 or more in consecutive games since Chuck Evans in 1993. He also recorded a pair of double-doubles with 11 points and 10 assists against JSU, and 15 points and 11 assists against Ole Miss.

Prior to the season, he was named the SEC's best penetrator by Street & Smith's, the SEC's player on the rise by The Sporting News and one of the top 10 breakout players in the nation by FOXSports.com.

He helped MSU go 23-11 and reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

As a freshman, he averaged 5.4 points, 2.5 assists, 1.1 rebounds and 1.0 steal while coming off the bench in 30 contests. An SEC All-Freshman pick, he helped MSU go 26-4, win the SEC regular season title and reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

He shot 43.0 percent from the floor (55-128), 32.1 percent on threes (9-28) and 65.7 percent at the line (44-67).

In High School: He prepped at Robeson High in Brooklyn but went to Notre Dame Prep in 2003 where he helped Bill Barton's team go 30-9 with a national top eight finish and a pair of tournament titles – the Maine Central Institute Classic and the War on the Shore Tournament. Ervin averaged 17.0 points and 7.0 assists for the year, but was named the MVP of the MCI Classic after averaging 23.5 points. His team's MVP and a co-captain, he had highs of 41 points and 16 assists, and was a finalist for the McDonald's All-American Game. He had 12 points, six assists, five rebounds and two steals while starting alongside LeBron James in the Jordan Capital Classic in Washington D.C.

At Robeson, he led Larry Major's team to the finals of the Public Schools Athletic League 'A' boys basketball championship as both a junior and senior. His teams were 27-2 in 2001 and 29-4 in 2002. He averaged 30.0 points and 10.0 assists as a senior in earning Newsday All-City Player of the Year honors. He had a high of 56 points against Canarsie High, including 30 points in the final 4:46. He scored a game-high 22 points for the New York all-stars in the 2002 Wendy's All-Star Shootout at Chicago and was MVP (19 points, seven assists) of the 2002 Wheelchair Basketball Classic at Long Island University. As a junior, he averaged 16.0 points and 9.0 assists in earning all-city honors from Newsday. He played AAU for Riverside Church, earning several all-tournament and MVP awards and helping his team win titles at the Rumble in the Bronx, Sabes Foundation Invitational and CYP Tournament during the summer of 2002.

Personal: Born Aug. 9, 1983, in Brooklyn, N.Y., he is the son of Gary Ervin Sr. and Mary Harris. He is majoring in sociology.

#51 STEVEN HILL

Forward/Center – 7-0 – 245 – Senior – 3L – Branson, Mo. (Branson HS)

2007-08 Preview: Last year's Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, he enters his final season 11th on the SEC's career blocked shots list with 244. He is third on Arkansas' chart. Hill has finished second in the SEC in blocks each of his first three years. He will again patrol the middle for the Hogs and should be heavily involved offensively.

2006-07: Hill earned SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors after improving his sophomore averages of 3.0 points and 3.5 rebounds to 6.2 points and 4.4 rebounds, finishing second in the SEC in blocked shots (2.8), shooting 64.1 percent from the field (93-145) and adding 1.1 steals per game. He was better in SEC play, averaging 7.0 points, 5.1 rebounds and leading the league with 3.13 blocked shots while shooting 66.2 percent (47-71).

His 93 shots made and 218 points scored doubled his career totals entering the season (73 and 67, respectively).

He recorded 99 rejections as a junior after making 91 blocks as a sophomore, becoming the first Hog to get 90 or more in more than one season. His .641 field goal percentage was the best for a Razorback (with 100 or more attempts) since Oliver Miller led the nation with a .704 mark in 1991 (254-361).

In 16 home games, he averaged 7.9 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.2 blocks while shooting 71.3 percent from the field (57-80). In seven games against ranked teams, he averaged 8.0 points, 5.6 rebounds and 2.6 blocks while shooting 61.9 percent.

In the season-opener against Southeast Missouri (11/10), he blocked seven shots and added four points and three rebounds. He had seven blocked shots in the second game against Stephen F. Austin (11/18) along with a then-career high 12 points on 6-of-7 shooting.

In the Old Spice Classic championship game win over West Virginia (11/26), he had eight points on 4-of-4 shooting, four rebounds and two blocked shots.

In the win over Central Michigan (12/5), he had 10 points, four rebounds and two blocked shots. He was 3-of-4 from the floor and 4-of-6 at the line. In the next game against Oakland (12/14), he was 5-of-5 from the field and had 11 points with two steals. The back-to-back double-figure scoring games were the first of his career.

He led the team with six rebounds against Louisiana Tech (12/30) while scoring seven points on 3-of-4 shooting. He was solid against Tulsa (1/2), finishing with eight points, five rebounds, four blocked shots and three steals.

He had four points, five rebounds and four blocked shots in the win over No. 8 Alabama (1/6). In the loss at No. 2 Florida (1/9), Hill had five points on 2-of-2 shooting, two rebounds and three blocked shots. Hill was solid at Ole Miss (1/13) with eight points on 4-of-4 shooting, three blocked shots and a team-high six rebounds.

Against Georgia (1/17), he was 6-of-6 shooting, to improve to 12-of-12 over his previous three games, and finished with a then-career high 15 points, seven rebounds and four blocked shots. In the win over No. 16 LSU (1/20), he set a career scoring high for a second straight game with 16 points. He made 8-of-10 shots, and added seven rebounds, three assists, three blocked shots and two steals.

Hill had game highs of 16 rebounds and four blocked shots, and a team-high two steals to go with eight points in the win at No. 12 Alabama (1/27).

Against No. 24 Kentucky (2/3), he had 13 points on 6-of-9 shooting and a game-high four steals. Hill was solid in the win over Auburn (2/7), going 4-of-4 from the floor and finishing with eight points, nine rebounds and three blocked shots.

Hill injured a hamstring at the end of the Auburn game and played at LSU (2/10), but was not 100 percent. He played 24 minutes off the bench, and had two points, two rebounds and four blocked shots.

At Mississippi State (2/14), he was 1-of-3 from the floor but 4-of-5 at the line, finishing with six points, and game highs of eight rebounds and five blocked shots. In the win over Ole Miss (2/17), he tied for team rebounding honors with seven, and had four points and three blocked shots.

In the SEC Tournament opener against South Carolina (3/8), he made 3-of-5 shots and was 2-of-2 at the line for eight points, and had a team-high 10 rebounds. In the semifinal against Mississippi State (3/10), he had six points, six rebounds and five blocked shots.

Hill had six points, four rebounds and two blocked shots against Southern California (3/16) in the NCAA Tournament.

2005-06: Hill averaged 3.0 points, 3.5 rebounds and 2.8 blocked shots for the year. He finished second in the SEC in blocked shots for the second straight year. He shot 47.3 percent from the floor (44-93) and 47.4 percent (9-19) at the line. All of his numbers were better in the SEC - 3.4 points, 3.6 rebounds, 2.9 blocked shots, a .511 field goal percentage and a .571 free throw percentage.

A member of the SEC's Academic Honor Roll, his total of 91 blocked shots was then the second-best single-season total in school history. His total set a new school record for sophomores, topping the previous mark of 85 set by Oliver Miller in 1991. Miller holds the school season record with 112 in 1992.

In 15 games against post-season tournament teams, he averaged 3.5 points, 3.7 rebounds and 2.9 blocked shots. He averaged 4.3 points, 3.3 rebounds and 3.3 blocks in January while shooting .567 from the floor (17-30).

Hill had several big games defensively. He had eight points, three rebounds and one blocked shot while holding No. 3 Connecticut's (11/21) Josh Boone to 2-of-4 shooting; 10 points, six rebounds, two blocked shots, one assist and one steal while limiting Mississippi State's (1/7) Wesley Morgan to 1-of-2 shooting; four points, three boards and six rejections while holding LSU's (1/11) Glen Davis to 5-of-19 shooting; four points, six rebounds and three blocks while holding Vanderbilt's (1/14) Ted Skuchas to 0-of-2 shooting; six points, six rebounds and seven blocks while limiting Alabama's (1/18) Jermareo Davidson to 6-of-18 shooting; and six points, two rebounds and five blocks while holding Ole Miss' (1/25) Dwayne Curtis to 4-of-12 shooting. In the NCAA Tournament against Bucknell, he held 6-11 center Chris McNaughton to six points and four rebounds on 2-of-6 shooting while forcing four turnovers. McNaughton entered the game averaging 12.9 points and 4.6 rebounds. Hill had six points, four boards and four blocks.

Hill got in foul trouble in the opener against Portland State (11/18), but was 3-of-6 from the floor, finishing with six points and four rebounds.

In the win over Kansas (11/22) in the Maui Invitational, he had two points, four rebounds and two blocked shots, including a rejection of a three-point attempt with one second left.

Against Southern Mississippi (11/30), he had four points on 2-of-2 shooting, four rebounds, four blocked shots and three steals.

In the win over Texas State (12/6), he tied the school record and set a Bud Walton Arena record with 10 blocked shots. He just missed his first double-double by finishing with nine rebounds. He was also 3-of-4 from the floor for six points.

In the next game against Missouri State (12/15), he had six blocked shots along with three points and four rebounds. Hill had eight blocked shots, four rebounds, two steals and two points against Texas-Pan American (12/30), giving him 23 blocked shots in his three previous games in Bud Walton Arena.

Against Alabama (2/21), he had five points, three rebounds, three blocked shots and two assists. He altered an Alabama shot in the lane in the final seconds, helping Arkansas hold on for the win.

In the SEC Tournament against No. 16 Florida (3/10), his two blocked shots gave him the UA sophomore record, topping Oliver Miller's total of 85 in 1990.

2004-05: He started 18 of 30 games as a true freshman and finished second in the SEC with 1.8 blocked shots per game while adding 2.3 points and 2.3 rebounds. He made 50.9 percent of his shots (29-57). In conference play, his percentage improved to 57.1 (8-14), but he averaged just 1.4 points, 1.3 rebounds and 1.0 blocked shot. He started five SEC games. Over the last 20 games, his shooting percentage was .583 (14-24) and his free throw percentage was .571 (8-14).

Hill's 54 blocked shots are the second-most ever for an Arkansas freshman. Oliver Miller had 60 in 1989. Hill's total and average were the most for a Razorback since Nick Davis in 1998 (80, 2.42).

He led the team in rebounding twice (6 vs. Eastern Michigan 11/22 & 5 vs. Tulsa 11/30).

He had four blocked shots in each of his first two games — Winthrop (11/19) and Troy (11/21) — and two against Eastern Michigan (11/22) in the Paradise Jam championship game to tie the tournament record of 10 set by Dimari Thompkins of Virginia Tech in 2002. He also led the team with six rebounds against EMU while adding two points, helping UA win the tournament title.

In the win over Tulsa (11/30), he had nine points, five rebounds, four blocked shots and two steals. Against No. 3 Illinois (12/4), he scored just one point but had four rebounds and six blocked shots. In the win at Missouri (12/7), he blocked four shots, and also had two points and two rebounds. Against Prairie View (12/18), he had 10 points, six rebounds and five blocked shots.

Against Hartford (12/23), he had six points, six rebounds, four steals and a blocked shot. He had five blocked shots against Alabama (1/11). Hill was 2-of-2 from the floor and the line for six points along with two rebounds and a steal in the win over Georgia (2/9).

In High School: A Nike All-American after being rated one of the top 20 players at the Nike Camp, he was rated the No. 7 center in the nation and the No. 33 overall prospect by TheInsidersHoops.com. A two-time all-state selection, he averaged 20.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 6.0 blocked shots as a senior. Listed as the best high school shot blocker in the country by Bob Gibbons' All-Star Sports, he broke the blocked shot record at the USA Basketball Sports Festival at Colorado Springs, Colo., during the summer of 2003 competing against 50 of the top players in the nation.

Personal: Born Nov. 14, 1985, in Chanute, Kan., he is the son of Troy and the late Penny Hill. He is majoring in business.

#33 VINCENT HUNTER

Forward – 6-10 – 229 – Senior - 3L – Little Rock, Ark. (J.A. Fair HS)

2007-08 Preview: Hunter has great versatility. He can score, rebound and defend inside, and he can defend and shoot on the perimeter. He also gets up and down the floor well. Able to play both forward and on the wing, he could be valuable in head coach John Pelphrey's system. In the two exhibition games in Cancun over Labor Day weekend, he averaged 4.5 points, 2.5 rebounds and 1.5 blocked shots, and the floor (28-70), 33 percent on threes (12-36) and 71 percent at the line (22-31). He tied for third on the team with 15 blocked shots and was eighth with 14 offensive rebounds. Six of his game appearances were for one minute or less. Without those six appearances, his averages would have been 3.5 points and 2.0 rebounds.

In 14 games at home, he averaged 4.1 points and 1.9 rebounds while shooting 51.4 percent from the field (19-37) and 55.6 percent on threes (10-18). In 10 road games, he shot just 28.6 percent (6-21) with averages of 1.9 points and 1.2 rebounds; and in nine neutral site games he shot 25 percent (3-12) with averages of 1.6 points and 1.8 boards.

Hunter averaged 6.2 points and 4.2 rebounds in six games in November, 2.4 and 1.6 in seven games in December, and 4.0 and 1.3 in eight games in January, but dropped to 0.7 and 1.0 in six games in February, and 0.0 and 0.2 in five games in March. He played 20 minutes a game in November, and 11 in December and January, but dipped to 6.7 in February and 2.8 in March.

In the opener against Southeast Missouri (11/10), he was 3-of-6 shooting, finishing with nine points, a game-high seven rebounds and a blocked shot. Against Stephen F. Austin (11/18), he had 11 points, five rebounds, three assists and two blocked shots. Against Marist in the semifinals of the Old Spice Classic (11/24), he had seven points, four boards and two assists. In the championship game win over West Virginia (11/26), he had six points and a game-high eight rebounds.

In the win over Oakland (12/14), he was 4-of-4 shooting, extending his streak of consecutive shots made to seven. He had 11 points. In the win over Tulsa (1/2), he had eight points, three rebounds and two blocked shots.

He had eight points and a blocked shot in the win over No. 8 Alabama (1/6). At No. 2 Florida (1/9), he had six points and five rebounds. Hunter had two points and three steals in five minutes in the win over No. 16 LSU (1/20).

Hunter started in the win at No. 12 Alabama (1/27), and finished with five points, two blocked shots and a steal in 12 minutes.

2005-06: He was slowed by injuries early in the year but came on late and finished with averages of 3.7 points and 2.4 rebounds while shooting 48.6 percent from the floor (35-72). In SEC play, he had a team-best .538 field goal percentage (14-26).

Over the last 10 games, he averaged 5.3 points and 3.8 rebounds in 14 minutes a game while shooting 51.4 percent from the floor (18-35). He led the team in rebounding twice and was in double figures scoring three times. After averaging 1.1 points and 0.6 rebounds in January, he improved to 4.9 and 3.3 in February, and 4.0 and 3.8 in March. In three games against ranked teams, he averaged 9.7 points and 4.3 rebounds with a .647 shooting percentage (11-17).

Hunter suffered a left knee injury in the second half of the LSU-Shreveport exhibition game on Nov. 12.

He missed the opener against Portland State (11/18) and the Maui Invitational (Nov. 21-23), but returned against Radford (11/26). In 14 minutes, he had five points, six rebounds and two blocked shots.

Against Southern Mississippi (11/30), he made 4-of-5 shots, and had 10 points and four rebounds. In the win over Texas-Pan American (12/30), he was 4-of-6 from the floor, finishing with nine points.

#3 CHARLES THOMAS

Forward – 6-8 – 231 – Senior – 3L - Jackson, Miss. (Callaway HS)

2007-08 Preview: One of the top rebounders and free-throw shooters in the Southeastern Conference, Thomas will again be counted on for toughness and scoring inside. He can also score from outside and will see time at both forward positions. He enters his final season with a .754 career free-throw percentage (269-357), 835 points and 433 rebounds. He needs 165 points to become the 31st member of Arkansas' 1,000-point club, 176 rebounds to move into the all-time top 10 with 609 and 57 free throws to crack that top 10 with 326. In the two exhibition games in Cancun over Labor Day weekend, he averaged 15.5 points and 11.0 rebounds while shooting 72 percent from the field.

2006-07: Thomas led the team in rebounding and was 14th in the SEC with 5.7 per game, was third on the team in scoring (10.7), and second on the team and sixth in the SEC in free-throw shooting (.775).

#5 DARIAN TOWNES

Forward/Center – 6-10 – 243 – Senior – 3L – Alexandria, Va. (Hargrave Military Academy)

2007-08 Preview: A key part of Arkansas' front line in helping the Razorbacks win 20-plus games and earn NCAA Tournament bids each of the last two years, Townes will again see extensive playing time down low and compete for a starting spot. Townes enters his final season with 893 points and 451 rebounds. Already fourth on the school's all-time blocked shot list (156), he needs 107 points to become the 31st member of Arkansas' 1,000-point club and 158 rebounds to join the top 10 with 609. In the two exhibition games in Cancun over Labor Day weekend, he averaged 15.0 points and 7.0 rebounds while shooting 52 percent from the field.

2006-07: Townes played in all 35 games with five starts, and was fifth on the team in scoring (8.1) and rebounding (4.3), and second in field goal percentage (.536, 118-220) and blocked shots (1.6), which ranked 10th in the SEC. In conference play, his averages improved to 8.9 points and 4.9 boards.

He was tough on the road, averaging 9.0 points and a team-best 5.5 rebounds while making 51.5 percent of his shots (35-68). In nine games at neutral sites, he shot a team-best 58.8 percent from the field (30-51) with averages of 7.4 points and 4.3 rebounds.

Townes averaged 8.9 points and 5.6 rebounds with a .545 shooting percentage (42-77) in 11 games against NCAA Tournament teams, and 8.6 points and 4.7 rebounds with a .529 shooting percentage (27-51) in seven games against ranked teams.

He led the team in scoring four times and in rebounding nine times, and scored in double figures 12 times.

In the win over Southern Illinois in the Old Spice Classic (11/23), he was 5-of-6 shooting for 12 points. In the win over UMKC (12/2), he had game highs of 19 points and eight rebounds.

Against Texas Tech (12/16), he was 5-of-8 shooting for 10 points along with a game-high eight rebounds. At Texas (12/20), he had nine points, six rebounds and two blocked shots. He sprained an ankle in the Texas game and was limited to just four minutes against Oral Roberts (12/22) after not expecting to play at all. He had 12 points, five rebounds and three blocked shots against Louisiana Tech (12/30).

In the win over No. 8 Alabama (1/6), he had eight points and four blocked shots. Townes was tough inside at No. 2 Florida (1/9), going 8-of-13 from the floor, finishing with a double-double and game highs of 18 points and 10 rebounds.

At Ole Miss (1/13), he scored eight points on 3-of-5 shooting, and had five rebounds, two assists and two blocked shots. In the win over No. 16 LSU (1/20), he made 5-of-9 shots, and finished with 10 points, four rebounds and two blocked shots in 19 minutes.

#13 SONNY WEEMS

Forward – 6-6 – 203 – Senior – 1L – West Memphis, Ark. (University of Arkansas-Fort Smith)

2007-08 Preview: A two-time all-tournament selection last year, Weems will be counted on for scoring, rebounding and defense again this year. He started 32 of 35 games in 2007 and should hold down the starting wing spot again this year. He missed one week of practice and the two exhibition games in Cancun over Labor Day weekend with a broken left hand.

2006-07: Listed as the No. 1 junior college transfer in the nation by CollegeHoops.net, Weems was solid in his first season with averages of 11.8 points, 4.8 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.3 steals while shooting 48.5 percent from the floor (161-332) and 72.9 percent at the line (51-70). He was second on the team in scoring, rebounding and steals, and third in assists, field goal percentage, free-throw percentage and three-point percentage (.361, 39-108).

He was named to the Old Spice Classic and Southeastern Conference all-tournament teams. He helped Arkansas win the Old Spice Classic by averaging a team-high 12.7 points along with 5.3 rebounds in three games. He had a game-high 19 points on 7-of-9 shooting in the title game win over West Virginia. Weems helped the Razorbacks reach the finals of the SEC Tournament with averages of 15.0 points and 5.3 rebounds.

In 21 games against post-season tournament teams, he averaged 13.0 points and 4.8 boards while shooting 51.4 percent from the field (110-214). In nine neutral site games, he led the team with 12.8 points and was second with 5.0 rebounds. He averaged 13.7 points and 4.6 rebounds while shooting 53.6 percent (37-69) in seven games against ranked teams. In six games in March, he averaged a team-high 13.3 points along with 5.0 rebounds, and shot 50.8 percent from the floor (30-59) and 85.7 percent at the line (12-14).

He led the team in scoring and rebounding six times each. He was in double figures scoring 23 times and in rebounding twice.

In his debut against Southeast Missouri (11/10), he had 12 points, three rebounds, two assists, two steals and two blocked shots. He had a huge game against Stephen F. Austin (11/18), recording a double-double with game highs of 24 points and 11 rebounds, and added four assists, two blocked shots and two steals.

In the win over Southern Illinois in the Old Spice Classic (11/23), he was just 1-of-9 shooting, but 5-of-6 at the line, finishing with seven points and three steals. He also played solid defense on Jamal Tatum, who was scoreless in overtime. In the semifinal win over Marist (11/24), he was 5-of-10 from the floor, finishing with a double-double of 12 points and a game-high 13 rebounds. He had a game-high 19 points in the championship game victory over West Virginia (11/26).

At Missouri (11/30), he was 5-of-8 shooting, finishing with 11 points and four rebounds. At Texas (12/20), he had 15 points and four rebounds.

He was 9-of-11 shooting against Oral Roberts (12/22), finishing with 18 points, three rebounds, two assists and a blocked shot. Against Tulsa (1/2), he was 4-of-4 on threes in the second half, and finished with 14 points, five rebounds, three assists and two steals.

In the win over No. 8 Alabama (1/6), he had 18 points on 8-of-12 shooting. At No. 2 Florida (1/9), Weems was 5-of-10 shooting, finishing with 13 points and three rebounds. He suffered a crack in his nose at Florida, missed a day of practice and was fitted for a mask, which he wore at Ole Miss (1/13) when he had eight points, five rebounds and two blocked shots.

In the win over No. 16 LSU (1/20), he was 4-of-9 shooting, but 4-of-7 on threes, and had 13 points, five rebounds and three assists with no turnovers in 38 minutes. At South Carolina (1/24), he had 11 points on 5-of-9 shooting, eight rebounds, two assists and three steals, but he also turned the ball over five times.

In the win at No. 12 Alabama (1/27), Weems made 7-of-14 shots, finishing with 16 points and nine rebounds, including six offensive boards. Against No. 24 Kentucky (2/3), Weems had 14 points on 5-of-7 shooting, including 2-of-3 on threes, five rebounds and three assists.

He made just 1-of-7 shots for two points against Auburn (2/7), but he had a game-high nine assists along with five rebounds and three steals. In the win over Ole Miss (2/17), he was 8-of-16 shooting, finishing with 19 points, five rebounds, two assists and two blocked shots. Against Tennessee (2/24), he was 9-of-15 shooting, and had a team-high 18 points along with seven rebounds, two steals, an assist and a blocked shot.

Against South Carolina in the SEC Tournament opener (3/8), he had 10 points, four rebounds, three assists and three steals, and helped limit Tre' Kelley to 11 points on 4-of-14 shooting. In the quarterfinals against Vanderbilt (3/9), he was 7-of-13 from the floor, including 3-of-6 on threes, for 17 points along with a game-high tying nine rebounds. In the semifinal against Mississippi State (3/10), he made 6-of-11 shots and 5-of-6 free throws, finishing with a game-high tying 18 points along with four rebounds and three assists. He had 15 points and four rebounds in the championship game against Florida (3/11), and was named to the all-tournament team.

In the NCAA Tournament against Southern California (3/16), he had 13 points on 5-of-10 shooting, four rebounds, two assists, one steal and a blocked shot.

At UA-Fort Smith: Weems helped lead UA-Fort Smith to the National Junior College

Athletic Association national championship in 2006. The No. 1 junior college player in the nation according to Juco Junction (Rivals.com) and Street & Smith's, he averaged 15.7 points as a sophomore. UA-FS went 33-3, and won the Bi-State Conference East Division title and the NJCAA Region II championship on the way to winning the national crown. An honorable mention All-American by the NJCAA, he averaged 14.0 points in the national tournament, including a 22-point outing in the 75-71 semifinal victory over Highland College. Weems was also named to the national tournament all-tournament team.

As a freshman, he earned third-team All-America honors after averaging 17.0 points, 5.0 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 2.0 steals. He also earned all-conference and all-region honors as UA-FS went 29-4 with a Bi-State Conference East Division title and a second-place finish in the Region II tournament.

Weems signed with the Hogs after also considering Tennessee, Oklahoma State, Oklahoma and Memphis, among others.

In High School: As a senior at West Memphis High School, he was first-team all-state, all-conference and the West Memphis Evening Times Player of the Year after averaging 14.6 points and 14.0 rebounds for Coach Larry Bray. His senior team was 27-2, won its final 26 games and claimed the 5A state championship. He also averaged 20.1 points as a sophomore on a 19-2 team and 23.2 as a junior on a 22-6 squad.

He also played football in high school and in track high-jumped 6-10.

Personal: Born July 8, 1986, his parents are Darrel and Sherry Levy. He is majoring in physical education.

He made his first start in the win over No. 16 LSU (1/20) and had a rebound in six minutes.

Against No. 24 Kentucky (2/3), he came off the bench and played 20 minutes. He made 5-of-11 shots, including 3-of-7 threes, and finished with 13 points, two rebounds and four assists with just one turnover.

In the win over Auburn (2/7), he had three points and two rebounds. He hit the first three of the game for the Razorbacks, extending Arkansas' streak of games with a three to 600.

At Mississippi State (2/14), he was 2-of-5 shooting, all threes, and finished with six points, two rebounds, a steal and a team-high tying three assists with no turnovers in 16 minutes. Welsh was huge in the home win over Mississippi State (2/28), hitting 6-of-7 shots, including 4-of-5 threes, and scoring 16 points in 19 minutes off the bench.

In the win at No. 19 Vanderbilt (3/3), he was 4-of-5 at the line, finishing with four points, a rebound, two assists and a steal. He had six points, on two threes, a rebound and one assist against South Carolina in the opener of the SEC Tournament (3/8). In the quarterfinals against Vanderbilt (3/9), he had four points, a rebound and a steal in 11 minutes. In the semifinal against Mississippi State (3/10), he hit 2-of-4 threes, and had six points, two rebounds and three assists with no turnovers in 22 minutes.

In High School: At Hargrave, he averaged 17.0 points, 5.0 rebounds, 5.0 assists and 4.0 steals on a team finishing 34-2. In the Champions Prep Classic, a game between the top two ranked prep schools in the nation, he had 17 points, six assists and four rebounds in helping Hargrave post a 107-101 victory over The Patterson School.

Welsh was rated the No. 69 player in the nation by Basketball Times and No. 98 by Scout.com.

He was an honorable mention McDonald's All-American as a senior at Woodside High in Newport News after averaging 20 points. He was a Nike All-American in 2004 and 2005, and also earned All-America honors from Street & Smith's. He was first-team all-state and MVP of the 2006 seven-city Battle of the Bay all-star game. He also averaged 22 points as a junior and 18 as a sophomore. Welsh helped Woodside win two state titles.

In summer 2005, he averaged 25 points in the Super Showcase in Orlando after leading his team to the title of the Nike Peach Jam.

He signed with Arkansas after also considering Xavier, Virginia, Marquette, Tennessee, Boston College, Providence and Rutgers.

Also a star on the football field at Woodside, he was second-team all-state as a wide receiver and defensive back, and first-team all-district as a receiver and kick returner.

RAZORBACK NEWCOMERS

#12 MARCUS BRITT

Freshman – HS – Madison, Ark.
(Forrest City HS)

2007-08 Preview: With the switch from a half-court style to more full-court, the Razorbacks need additional ball-handlers and Britt could factor into the rotation at point guard. He also gives head coach John Pelphrey another outside shooting threat. Playing in one exhibition game in Cancun over Labor Day weekend, he had five points, two assists and a steal.

In High School: At Forrest City High School, he averaged 18 points, five assists and four rebounds as a senior for head coach Dwight Lofton. A three-time all-state selection, he was first-team All-Arkansas, all-state, all-conference and named to the Class 6A all-tournament team as a senior. Named the state's sophomore of the year by the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, he averaged 18.5 points as a junior.

As a senior, he led the Mustangs to a 26-3 finish, the Class 6A East Conference title and into the state finals where the Mustangs fell to Jonesboro, 83-72. He had 27 points and made six threes in the championship game. In the 70-65 semifinal victory over Little Rock Parkview, he scored 25 points.

Rated the No. 96 prospect in the nation by '07 Hoops, he originally signed with Louisiana Tech during the early period, but was granted his release following a coaching change. Britt then signed with the Razorbacks after also considering South Florida and Colorado.

Personal: Born Feb. 27, 1988, his parents are Henry and Diana Lee. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences.

#25 STEPHEN COX

Sophomore – HS – Jonesboro, Ark. (Jonesboro HS)

2007-08 Preview: He joined the team as a walk-on this fall and will try to work his way into the guard rotation. He gives the Razorbacks much needed depth in the backcourt. He practiced with the team in August, but did not make the trip to Cancun, Mexico, for the two exhibition games over Labor Day weekend.

2006-07: Cox was a member of Arkansas' golf team in 2006 and 2007, redshirting his first year. Last year, he played 13 rounds in five tournaments and averaged 74.62 strokes per round. His best finish was a tie for fifth (76), which was second on the team, at the Lochinvar Challenge at Houston. He was also second on the team and tied for 38th overall (74-71-72, 217) in the John A. Burns Intercollegiate at O'ahu, Hawaii; fifth on the team and tied for 51st overall (79-75-74, 228) in the Callaway Invitational at San Diego; third on the team and tied for 32nd overall (76-71-73, 220) in the Border Olympics at Laredo, Texas; and fifth on the team and tied for 51st overall in the Hootie at Bulls Bay Intercollegiate at Awendaw, S.C.

In High School: He played basketball just one season and earned all-state honors as a senior at Jonesboro High School in 2005 after averaging 14.0 points, six rebounds and three assists for head coach Barry Pruitt.

He was also a two-time (2004 and 2005) all-state selection in golf and won the Lowell Manning Athlete of the Year award at JHS. He also competed in track one season.

Personal: Born April 7, 1986, he is the son of Steve and Virginia Cox. Cox was the 2003 and 2004 Arkansas State Junior Match Play golf champion and he qualified for the U.S. Junior Amateur. He is majoring in agribusiness marketing and management, and has twice been named to Arkansas' Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll and to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

His father was a two-time first-team All-Southwest Conference kicker at Arkansas in 1979 and 1980, and he led the nation in punting in '80 with a 46.5 yard average. He played eight seasons in the NFL with Cleveland (1981-84) and Washington (1985-88). A member of the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame, he won a Super Bowl with the Redskins in 1988 and owns the third-longest field goal in NFL history at 60 yards.

#23 LEVAN PATSATSIA

Freshman – HS – Tbilisi, Republic of Georgia (SSU Sukhumi)

2007-08 Preview: His name is pronounced La-von Pot-sot-see-ah. A veteran of international competition, he should figure into the perimeter rotation. Strong fundamentally, he can shoot, rebound and handle the ball. In the two exhibition games in Cancun over Labor Day weekend, he averaged 5.5 points, 4.5 rebounds and 2.5 steals.

Before Arkansas: Patsatsia played for the club team SSU Sukhumi in the Republic of Georgia from the ages of 10 through 16. He made Georgia's FIBA Under-19 World Championship team this past summer, but missed the tournament with a broken elbow. Prior to the injury, he was named the national team player of Georgia and the Under-18 Georgian Player of the Year.

Before making the national team, he played for Aron Sur in Spain and earned the rebounding award for the most rebounds in a six-game Christmas tournament. Before that, he played for FC Barcelona in Milega, Spain, leading his team to a tournament title and earning MVP honors after scoring 27 points in the championship game.

He was also named the MVP of the Attack basketball camp in Spain and attended the adidas top 50 Euro Camp in Berlin where he was voted the best shooter.

Personal: Born Sept. 27, 1988, he is the son of Nugzar and Manana Patsatsia. He attended 58 Ltd High School in Tbilisi.

#22 NATE RAKESTRAW

Guard – 6-4 – 206
Freshman – HS – Siloam Springs, Ark. (Har-Ber HS)

2007-08 Preview: Arkansas wanted to add strength along the perimeter and that is what Rakestraw provides. He's big at 6-4, but can play shooting guard or on the wing. In the two exhibition games in Cancun over Labor Day weekend, he averaged 3.0 points, 3.0 rebounds, 1.5 steals and 2.0 steals. He started in the 60-57 win over Quintana Roo and came off the bench in the 108-37 victory over Belize Select.

In High School: At Springdale Har-Ber High School, he averaged 19.4 points while hitting 41.3 percent of his three-pointers (78-181) as a senior for head coach Eric Burnett. A first-team Class 7A all-state selection, he was also named to the Class 7A state tournament team and to The Morning News' all-area squad after helping the Wildcats go 24-6 and reach the state finals.

In the state championship game, he made 9-of-14 shots, including 3-of-6 threes, and had 24 points and six rebounds. He had 15 in the quarterfinals and 13 in the semifinals.

Rated the No. 29 shooting guard in the nation by Scout.com, in the summer prior to his senior season, he averaged 27 points in AAU with the Arkansas Hawks and was a four-time all-tournament selection.

As a junior at Har-Ber, he averaged 18 points. As a sophomore, he prepped at Siloam Springs (Ark.) High, and averaged 21 points, nine rebounds and three steals, and was named the Benton County Sophomore of the Year.

Rakestraw signed with the Razorbacks after also considering Tennessee, TCU, Ole Miss, Missouri, Missouri State and Arkansas State, among others.

Personal: Born Aug. 26, 1988, he is the son of P.D. and Jan Rakestraw. He is majoring in business. His parents both graduated from Arkansas, and his parents, brother (Coleson) and sister (Emery) all play or played basketball at Siloam Springs. In high school he was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

#31 MICHAEL SANCHEZ

Forward – 6-8 – 231
Freshman – HS – Springdale, Ark. (Har-Ber HS)

2007-08 Preview: Arkansas has several experienced players inside, but Sanchez is expected to come in and immediately compete for significant playing time. He is strong inside and effective in transition. In the two exhibition games in Cancun over Labor Day weekend, he averaged 9.0 points and 4.5 rebounds while shooting 55 percent from the field. He made the winning basket in the final seconds after sprinting the length of the floor for a steal in the 60-57 win over Quintana Roo. He had 11 points and five rebounds in the 108-37 win over Belize Select.

In High School: At Springdale Har-Ber High School, he averaged 15.8 points, 13.8 rebounds and 7.0 assists in helping the Wildcats go 24-6 and reach the Class 7A championship game under head coach Eric Burnett. Sanchez recorded a double-double in every conference game he played. Sanchez was named first-team All-Arkansas, all-state and to the Class 7A state all-tournament team. He was also named to the all-area team by The Morning News.

In the state finals against Northside, he had 16 points on 7-of-14 shooting and seven rebounds. In the semifinal win over Rogers, he had 18 points and 14 rebounds.

As a junior, he averaged 18 points and 11 rebounds on a 15-14 club, despite being slowed by tendonitis. As a sophomore, he averaged 18 points and 12 rebounds, and was ranked among the top 50 sophomores in the nation by Scout.com. He was also invited to the NBA Players Association Camp and the Reebok ABCD camp.

He played AAU ball during the spring while considering attending a prep school this year and averaged 20 points and 13 rebounds as the Arkansas Hawks went 4-1 in the Pitt Jam Fest in Pittsburgh. In a game against the Michigan Mustangs, he had 25 points and 15 rebounds. Earlier in the spring, he averaged 21 points and 11 rebounds in the Real Deal on the Hill AAU tournament.

Sanchez signed with the Hogs after also considering Kentucky, Wake Forest, Colorado, Michigan, New Mexico, New Mexico State and Tennessee, among others.

Personal: Born Aug. 21, 1988, he is the son of Albert and Kim Sanchez. He is majoring in business with a minor in sociology. His mother played basketball at Arkansas and his father ran track for the Razorbacks. An honor graduate of Har-Ber, he was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

SEASON OUTLOOK

TOP NINE SCORERS RETURN FROM NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM, BUT NEW COACH MEANS NEW STYLE FOR HOGS

With all five starters and nine lettermen back from last year's NCAA Tournament team, Arkansas didn't need to add much for 2008, but there is a big addition this year.

He's 6-7 and has NCAA Tournament experience. He's been in the Southeastern Conference before and is familiar with Arkansas' rich tradition. He's played for Eddie Sutton and Rick Pitino, and he likes running and pressing.

John Pelphrey is the new head coach of the Razorbacks, but he's not new to Arkansas' history, the SEC or building and maintaining a program.

Pelphrey was named head coach on April 9 after reviving the program at South Alabama. His 2006 club recorded the biggest turnaround in the nation, going from 10-18 to 24-7 with Sun Belt Conference West Division and tournament titles. After losing six of his top nine scorers, the 2007 squad went 20-12 and won the regular season championship. The 2006 team earned an NCAA Tournament bid while the '07 team played in the NIT. Before going to USA, he was an assistant under Billy Donovan at Florida for six years and helped the Gators make four straight NCAA Tournament appearances with a national runner-up finish in 2000.

His first Arkansas team didn't lose six of its top nine. In fact, the Hogs return their top nine scorers from a team that went 21-14, finished a game out of the SEC's Western Division lead, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and earned a second straight NCAA Tournament bid.

Arkansas returns 98.6 percent of its scoring (70.1 of 71.1), 89.2 percent of its rebounding (31.5 of 35.3 rebounds), 90.1 percent of its assists (472 of 521), 94.2 percent of its steals (226 of 240), 92.3 percent of its three-pointers (197 of 212), 97.5 percent of its field goals made (859 of 881), 94.9 percent of its free throws made (487 of 513) and 98.6 percent of its blocked shots (218 of 221). Arkansas also returns 91.5 percent of its turnovers (487 of 532), which is an area Pelphrey wants to address while switching from a half-court style to a more aggressive running and pressing style.

Six of the top nine returnees are seniors, so there's plenty of experience to build around.

Almost all of Arkansas' scoring returns, but the Razorbacks were 10th in the league in scoring a year ago, ninth in three-point shooting (.346), 10th in rebounding (35.2) and 10th in assist-to-turnover ratio (0.98).

On the positive side, Arkansas was third in scoring defense (66.0), second in blocked shots (6.31), fourth in shooting (.461), fourth in field goal defense (.411) and fourth in rebounding defense (32.8). In SEC play only, UA led the league with a .411 defensive field goal percentage and was second with a .321 defensive three-point percentage.

In Arkansas' 16 home games last year, senior center Steven Hill averaged 7.9 points and 4.4 rebounds while shooting 71.3 percent from the floor.

NOTING THE HOGS

PELPHREY TAKES OVER HOG PROGRAM:

First-year head coach John Pelphrey was 80-67 in five years as the head coach at South Alabama from 2003-07. His 2006 club won the Sun Belt Conference West Division and tournament titles, and played in the NCAA Tournament before finishing 24-7. His 2007 club, despite losing the top three scorers from '06, was 20-12, won the Sun Belt regular season title and earned an NIT bid. A two-year team captain as a player at Kentucky in 1991 and '92, he was an assistant at Oklahoma State under Eddie Sutton, and at Marshall and Florida under Billy Donovan before going to South Alabama.

EVANS ADDS VETERAN EXPERIENCE TO COACHING STAFF:

Pelphrey's staff includes assistant Rob Evans, formerly the head coach at Ole Miss and Arizona State. Evans comes to Arkansas with 38 years of collegiate coaching experience. Evans was 86-81 in six years at Ole Miss from 1993-98, winning two SEC Western Division titles and taking the Rebels to the NCAA Tournament for the second and third times in the program's history. He was 119-120 in eight years at ASU with one NCAA Tournament bid and three NIT appearances, including post-season bids in three of his last five years.

RAZORBACK RECRUITING CLASS INCLUDES THREE ARKANSANS FOR FIRST TIME IN 23 YEARS:

Arkansas' recruiting class consists of three freshmen from Arkansas: guard Marcus Britt of Madison, guard Nate Rakestraw of Siloam Springs and forward Michael Sanchez of Springdale. This is the first time the Razorbacks have had three in-state signees since the eight-member class of 1984 included guard Allie Freeman (Little Rock, Hall HS), center/forward Andrew Lang (Pine Bluff, Dollarway HS) and forward Darryl Scott (Wynne HS). The fourth member of this year's class is not only from out-of-state, he's from out of the country. Freshman guard Levan Patsatsia (Lavan Pot-sot-see-ah) is from Tbilisi in the European country of Georgia.

STREAKS ENTERING THE SEASON

- Arkansas has made at least one three-pointer in 611 consecutive games. UA made at least one three in every game it played in the 1990s. The last time Arkansas failed to hit a three was in a 99-92 win at Texas in January 1989, and the Hogs attempted just two threes in that contest. Arkansas has played 679 games since the three-pointer was added to college basketball and failed to make a three in only six games. UA won those six games.

- The Hogs have won 24 straight games when scoring 80 points or more.

- Arkansas has ranked among the nation's top 15 in attendance average 14 straight years – every year since Bud Walton Arena opened in 1994. Arkansas was No. 9 last year with an average of 16,720.

- The Razorbacks have won 12 straight season openers and 31 consecutive home openers.

Sophomore guard Stefan Welsh had eight assists with four turnovers in an exhibition game in Cancun, Mexico, over Labor Day weekend, and could be a candidate for minutes at point guard this season.

THE INTERIOR

The strength of the team is the frontcourt where 7-0, 245-pound senior center Steven Hill is back to anchor the middle. A standout defensively since he first stepped on campus, his offensive game started coming around last year. He averaged 6.2 points, 4.4 rebounds and 2.8 blocked shots per game, but was better in the SEC with 7.0 points, 5.1 rebounds and 3.1 rejections. He averaged 13.0 points and 6.7 rebounds over a three-game stretch in the middle of the SEC season before a hamstring injury set him back.

Eleventh on the SEC's career blocked shots list and third on the Arkansas list, he has 244 rejections entering his final season. Oliver Miller is the school leader with 345 (1989-92).

Joining Hill at center is senior Darian Townes (8.1 ppg, 4.3 rpg, 1.6 blocks). The forwards are seniors Charles Thomas (10.7 ppg, 5.7 rpg, .775 FT%), Sonny Weems (11.8 ppg, 4.8 rpg, 2.1 assists) and Vincent Hunter (2.8 ppg, 1.7 rpg), and sophomore Michael Washington (3.5 ppg, 1.6 rpg).

Hill and Townes, who has dropped 11 pounds from last year's playing weight, will stay inside. Thomas, Weems, Hunter and Washington can all play inside with the ability to step outside.

Thomas (6-8, 231), who had four double-doubles last year, led the team in rebounding and was third in scoring. He had 18 rebounds in the SEC Tournament

QUOTES FROM HEAD COACH JOHN PELPHREY

The University of Arkansas:

"This is certainly a very, very passionate place. This is a place I have been a great admirer of for a long time, both as a player and a coach. To see the way they care about their school and their basketball program, and the way they turn out in large numbers; it's not every day that you get a chance to be a part of something like that. A lot of schools have good basketball and a lot of schools have big crowds, but very few places have both."

Style of play:

"We want to extend the floor both offensively and defensively, and be disruptive. At the same time, no coach wants to give up easy baskets. We have to be able to shrink the floor a little in the half court and prevent easy opportunities. Obviously the closer you get to the basket, the more you make and the more chances you have of getting fouled. Both of those things are bad. If we force perimeter shots that are challenged and get the rebound, that's good for us. Offensively, we want to play as fast as we possibly can in terms of getting up the floor. If we can get open three-point shots, we're going to look to take advantage of that. By the same token, we understand that you make more shots the closer to the basket you are with layups, post moves, drives and getting fouled. Those are important things, too. One thing I would say about this style of play is a lot of times people think when you play fast it is perimeter oriented. Nothing could be further from the truth. My first couple of years, playing for (Rick Pitino), we always had the ability to shoot the ball from the three-point line, but we had no inside or low-post game at all. Jamal Mashburn gave that to us. If you have a combination of both, now you have a chance to be a potent offensive basketball team. I don't think you can be one way or the other, offensively or defensively, and win at a high level. I think you have to have a combination of both. Your team needs to have something about it so that when you're playing against extremes, maybe you're playing against a team like Coach (John) Chaney at Temple in the past that played all zone or if you play against a lot of the Princeton-style offenses, you have to be able to adapt and change maybe from game to game and win a game in a different way. At the core of what I want to do is fast-breaking and extending the floor defensively. If we're not able to take it from you and wear you down, then we're at least going to try to take 10 seconds off the shot clock and give you less time to operate in the half court."

Typical message to players:

"Things that are constant themes for me are 'Today is the only day you can do anything about,' 'You control your effort and attitude' and 'I expect us to all be as selfless as we possibly can to serve the team and take care of each other.'"

Two weeks of practice and the Labor Day weekend trip to Cancun for exhibition games:

"Looking back, I think we were able to accomplish what we wanted. I think they got a feel for the way we want to play and how to go hard. I think we made some progress. I think a lot of anxiety was relieved in terms of 'how will I fit in' and 'how I'll be able to play in this system.' It was good in terms of doing things together as a group."

"In the games, we got a chance to get organized and come together, and play as a team."

Concerns following the two exhibition games:

"My concerns at the point guard spot are real. There's not a lot of depth at the guard spot. Sonny Weems and Patrick Beverley are very good on the wings, but the depth is not great. We do have strength and numbers up front."

"As much as I would like to play Charles Thomas some at small forward, power forward is his best spot. He was a warrior in practice. He gave great effort and his attitude is phenomenal."

"The biggest thing is taking care of the basketball and not turning it over, and consistently being hard-nosed and nasty on the defensive end."

Recruiting:

"We're looking at a lot of guys and working hard to catch up. A lot of people have been recruiting for a long time (for the class of 2008). This is a really important class. We have to make sure the guys we do bring in are good enough and tough enough, and that they will be able to help us. We're looking for toughness, heart and everyday guys. It's important to build a solid foundation for the program."

Building the program at South Alabama:

"The thing I felt very comfortable with going to South Alabama was that when (Rick Pitino) took over at Kentucky, it was obviously in a rebuilding stage so I understood that. When Billy (Donovan) took Marshall, I was a part of that and when he took over at Florida. All I knew was to take a program when it was down, that had been good in the past and had a chance to win, that had won, that had good players and coaches, but is down and go build it up. That's the way it worked out so that wasn't a concern for me. The thing I think I misjudged was the 8-5 rule. When I got to South Alabama, there was a reduction of scholarships, the program was really bankrupt of talent and there wasn't really a lot of continuity from one year to the next. The 8-5 rule is a horrible rule. You can sign a maximum of eight guys over a two-year period, but if any of those guys left, you couldn't replace them for two years. And guys leave. There are transfers all the time. Our program at South Alabama was extremely successful with transfer guys. Transferring is not a negative. It can be a positive for those young athletes. Normally year three is what you build towards. That's when we had success at Kentucky. We made it to the Elite Eight game. Billy got his team to the NCAA Tournament. Year three (at USA), we weren't there yet. We were better. I had three kids sitting out and players we had signed who were going to come in and have an impact, but the 8-5 rule slowed us down another year. Obviously in year four, everything really took shape the way it normally would in year three. I had not been a part of the rebuilding process with the 8-5 rule."

"Was I a better coach in year four than in year three? Probably not. The players got better. There was a sense among those players because of the building and the tough times of the previous three years. They became very selfless. That team was as selfless as you'll find. They really served each other. They set their personal agendas aside and all they really cared about was winning. We lost only seven all year (24-7 in 2006). The next year (2007), we lost six of the top nine off that team. We had eight new faces, but we were able to repeat and have a level of success with basically a whole new team. We knew it would take a little bit of time to find the chemistry. We were able to have some repeat success in terms of winning our division and the regular season and post-season success with the NIT (bid). This team (for 2008 at USA) has eight of 11 back and a young man sitting out who played in the SEC for two years. So South, at least on paper, has a chance to have one of the best teams they've ever had."

Coaching against Kentucky:

"It has been well-documented how I feel about the University of Kentucky, but by the same token, when it comes to competing, that is something I take seriously. I don't get too caught up in who it is against because they are all big games. We don't get a lot of games. We get 30 or 31 games a year and we have to be the best we can be no matter who we're playing. We do get a chance to measure ourselves against 'the best,' which is what Kentucky is because they've won more games in the history of college basketball than anyone else. That's a measuring stick you want to go by. As an athlete or someone who enjoys competing, that game does mean more because it's against a program that has done it better than anyone else in terms of winning. When you get a chance to compete against somebody like that, it's important because you're going to be ready to go. It will not be so much a factor for me in terms of that being my alma mater because I do love my alma mater, but I also know who is paying the bills and I know what my responsibilities as the head coach are. In a lot of respects, it will be just like any other game because we're looking for the end result, but I'm sure that game always ends up being very, very important on the SEC schedule."

against Mississippi State, the most for a Razorback in 10 years and the second-most since 1979. An ankle injury just a minute into the SEC Tournament championship game forced him from the contest and hurt the Hogs' chances. In the six games prior to the finals, he averaged 8.7 boards.

A career .754 free-throw shooter (269-357), he has 835 points and 433 rebounds. He needs just 165 points to become the 31st member of UA's 1,000-point club, 176 rebounds to move into the all-time top 10 with 609 and 57 free throws to crack that top 10 with 326.

Townes (6-10, 243) could also move up a couple of lists. Already fourth on the all-time blocked shots list with 156, he enters the season with 893 points and 451 rebounds. He needs 107 points for 1,000 and 158 rebounds to reach the top 10 with 609.

He leads all current Hogs with 44 career double-figure scoring games and has led the team in rebounding a team-best 29 times.

Like Hill, his numbers were better in SEC play, improving to 8.9 points and 4.9 rebounds with a .509 shooting percentage (59-116).

Weems (6-6, 203) started 32 of 35 games as a junior college transfer last year. He was second on the team in scoring, rebounding and steals (1.3). He made two all-tournament teams – the Old Spice Classic in Orlando and the SEC Tournament.

Weems, who should thrive in a more up-tempo style, led the team in scoring six times, in rebounding six times and in assists four times while recording 23 double-figure scoring games.

Hunter (6-10, 229) saw action in 32 games last year, but played just 10.6 minutes per outing. He had seven starts with highs of 11 points and eight rebounds. He played just eight minutes a game in conference action, but the switch to a running and pressing style should be a benefit.

Washington (6-10, 224) came on at the end of the season and should continue earning more minutes.

He had 15 points and six rebounds in the win at No. 19 Vanderbilt, and in the SEC Tournament had nine points against South Carolina, eight against Mississippi State and 17 with seven boards against Florida.

Over the last six games of the year, he averaged 9.3 points and 3.3 rebounds with a .522 field goal percentage (24-46).

THE PERIMETER

The key to a faster pace and scoring in transition is guard play. Senior Gary Ervin (6-0, 182) is back at point guard after averaging 9.9 points, 3.6 rebounds and 4.8 assists, which ranked fifth in the SEC.

His 169 assists were the most for a Razorback since Kareem Reid had 181 in 1999. As a team, Arkansas' 521 assists were the 10th-best total in school history.

Ervin, who was a two-time SEC Player of the Week selection, will run the offense again, but Pelphrey is expecting him to cut down on his 100 turnovers.

Joining Ervin in the backcourt are sophomores Patrick Beverley (13.9 ppg, 4.5 rpg, 3.1 assists) and Stefan Welsh (3.2 ppg).

Beverley (6-1, 180) was named SEC Newcomer of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches. A second-team All-SEC pick, he made several freshman All-America squads.

Ranked among the SEC's leaders in nine of 13 individual categories, he was 16th in scoring, third in free-throw shooting (.812), fourth in minutes played (1,203), sixth in steals (1.74), eighth in three-point percentage (.386), 11th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.57), 12th in three-point goals per game (2.09), 15th in assists (3.14) and 29th in rebounding (4.5).

He led the Hogs in scoring 14 times, in assists 10 times and in double-figure

As a freshman, guard Patrick Beverley ranked among SEC individual leaders in nine of 13 categories.

NOTING THE HOGS

HOGS COMING OFF BACK-TO-BACK NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES, 20-WIN SEASONS: Arkansas is coming off back-to-back 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament appearances. UA had not had back-to-back 20-win seasons since 1998 (24-9) and 1999 (23-11) or consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances since 2000 and 2001. Arkansas has not recorded three consecutive 20-win seasons since 1994, '95 and '96.

RAZORBACKS LOADED WITH EXPERIENCE: Arkansas returns all five starters and nine lettermen from last year. The top returnees are sophomore guard Patrick Beverley – last year's SEC Newcomer of the Year (AP), Freshman of the Year and second-team All-SEC pick (league coaches), freshman All-American (CollegelInsider.com) and third-team freshman All-American (Rivals, CollegeHoops.net); senior center/forward Steven Hill – last year's SEC Defensive Player of the Year and the school's third all-time leading shot blocker (244) after recording 99 as a junior and 91 as a sophomore; senior guard Gary Ervin – a two-time SEC Player of the Week, who had 169 assists last year (4.8), which is the best total for a Razorback since Kareem Reid had 181 in 1999; senior forward Sonny Weems – an all-tournament selection last year at the Old Spice Classic and in the SEC Tournament; and forward Charles Thomas – who had Arkansas' best rebounding average in four years (5.7), is a career .754 free throw shooter and needs 165 points for 1,000 for his career, 176 rebounds to tie for 10th on the school's career list at 609 and 57 free throws to move into that top 10 with 326.

DEFENSE A KEY TO 2006 SUCCESS: In SEC play last year, Arkansas led the league in defensive field goal percentage (.411), was second in three-point defense (.321) and third in scoring defense (68.2). Overall, Arkansas held opponents below 70 points 22 times and below 60 13 times. The 13 below 60 is the most for an Arkansas club since Eddie Sutton's last year as head coach in 1985 when the Hogs kept teams below 60 22 times.

Sophomore forward Michael Washington averaged 1.7 points through his first 20 games of the season, but closed the year by averaging 9.3 in the final six.

scoring games with 24. Over the summer, he led the USA Under-19 national team to a second-place finish in the FIBA World Championships. Beverley led the USA in scoring (13.0 ppg), assists (3.2) and steals (3.4), and set a USA Under-19 team record with 31 steals in the tournament.

Welsh (6-2, 185) earned more playing time as the season went on, playing 124 of his 381 minutes (32.5 percent) in the final seven games of the year. He had 16 points in the home win over Mississippi State and 13 against Kentucky.

Welsh saw action at both guard spots last season.

THE NEWCOMERS

Four signees make up Pelphrey's first recruiting class at Arkansas, and three of the four are perimeter players.

With only three returning guards, freshmen Marcus Britt, Levan Patsatsia and Nate Rakestraw could see immediate time in the backcourt while Michael Sanchez joins the deep group inside.

Britt (6-2, 191) averaged 18.0 points, 4.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists as a senior at Forrest City (Ark.) High. A three-time all-state selection, he was rated the No. 96 prospect in the nation by '07 Hoops after leading his team to the Class 6A state finals.

Rakestraw (6-4, 206) signed with Arkansas during the early period, then averaged 19.4 points while helping Springdale Har-Ber reach the state Class 7A finals. He shot 41.3 percent on threes after averaging 27.0 points a game in AAU play the previous summer. He was ranked the No. 29 shooting guard in the country by Scout.com.

Patsatsia (6-6, 215) is from Tbilisi, Georgia, in Europe. He played for the club team SSU Sukhumi and made Georgia's FIBA Under-19 World Championship team. He has been named the national team player of the year and the Under-18 Georgian Player of the Year.

Sanchez (6-8, 231) teamed with Rakestraw at Har-Ber and averaged 15.8 points, 13.8 rebounds and 7.0 assists. Slowed by a knee injury as a junior and senior, he considered going to prep school, but a good summer of AAU action helped him land a spot with the Razorbacks. At the Pitt Jam Fest in Pittsburgh, he averaged 20 points and 13 rebounds after earlier averaging 21 points and 11 rebounds at the Real Deal on the Hill AAU events.

Another newcomer is sophomore walk-on Stephen Cox, who was on Arkansas' golf team in 2006 and '07. A 6-3, 199-pound guard, he earned all-state honors on the court at Jonesboro (Ark.) High School with averages of 14.0 points, six rebounds and three assists.

NOTING THE HOGS

ARKANSAS RECORDS SECOND-BEST BLOCKED SHOT TOTAL IN SCHOOL HISTORY:

With three blocked shots against USC, Arkansas finished with 221 for the season, which is the second-best mark in school history. The 1991 club holds the school record with 229. The 2006 club recorded 194 rejections, which was the second-best season total in school history and is now third. UA's 98 blocked shots in SEC play are the most in school history.

ERVIN PASSES THE ROCK:

Senior guard Gary Ervin dished out 169 assists in 2007. That total is the best for a Razorback since Kareem Reid had 181 as a senior in 1999. Ervin averaged 4.83 per game. That figure is also the best for a Hog since 1999, when Reid averaged 5.32.

Ervin had plenty of help from freshman Patrick Beverley, who finished with 110 assists (3.1). Arkansas has had two players finish with 100 assists in each of the last three seasons. In 2006, Dontell Jefferson led the team with 142 (4.44) while Ronnie Brewer had 104 (3.3). In 2005, Eric Ferguson led the team with 128 (4.3) while Brewer had 101 (3.4).

Arkansas' 521 assists (14.9) for the season are the 10th-most in school history while the 245 in SEC play (15.3) tie for fifth-best.

HILL'S FIELD GOAL PERCENTAGE BEST FOR ARKANSAS IN 16 YEARS:

Steven Hill did not have enough shot attempts to qualify for the SEC or NCAA rankings, but he only needed 100 attempts to qualify for Arkansas' record book and he made 93-of-145 shots for a 64.1 shooting percentage. That percentage led the team and is the best for a Razorback in 16 years. The last Hog to do better was Oliver Miller in 1991 when he led the nation with a .704 percentage (254-361).

Hill's .641 percentage would have led the team in 53 of the 58 years Arkansas has recorded a season leader.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

The original building of Arkansas' campus, Old Main, completed in 1876, symbolizes a connection to the past and the focus on the future, which presently come together at UA. Old Main was actually a copy of a building on the University of Illinois campus. The building at Illinois was eventually destroyed. Legend has it the only difference between the two buildings is the UA's north tower, which is higher than the south tower, which was symbolism for the Civil War since the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

VISION

The University of Arkansas is a nationally competitive, student-centered research university serving Arkansas and the world.

HISTORY

Founded as a land-grant college and state university in 1871, the University of Arkansas opened its doors to students on Jan. 22, 1872. Under the Morrill Land-Grant College Act of 1862, federal land sales provided funds for the new university, which was charged with teaching "agricultural and the mechanic arts," "scientific and classical studies," and "military tactics" to Arkansas scholars.

Statewide elections, held to establish voting bonds to help finance the University, eventually determined the school's location. Washington County and the City of Fayetteville submitted the highest bid, a total of $130,000, to which was added a $50,000 state appropriation for the benefit of the institution and $135,000 from the sale of federal lands. With $12,000 of this money, the University purchased a 160-acre farm, the homestead of William McIlroy, and established its campus on a hilltop overlooking the Ozark Mountains.

There were few facilities and little money that first academic year, but the eight students and three faculty members who gathered for classes in 1872 showed the same dedication to learning and commitment to excellence that has carried the University of Arkansas into the 21st century. Over the past 135 years, the University has developed into a mature institution with nine schools and colleges, more than 800 faculty members, and 18,647 students. It serves as the major provider of graduate-level instruction in Arkansas. The research and scholarly endeavors of its faculty make it an economic and cultural engine for the state. And its public service activities reach every county in Arkansas, throughout the nation and around the world.

MISSION

As a land-grant university, the University of Arkansas strives to fulfill a three-fold mission of teaching, research and service. In addition, as the flagship campus of the University of Arkansas System, the U of A in Fayetteville serves as the state's major center of liberal and professional education and as Arkansas' main source of theoretical and applied research.

Students pursue a broad spectrum of academic programs leading to baccalaureate, master's, doctoral and professional degrees, not only in traditional disciplines within arts, humanities, social sciences and natural sciences, but also in the core professional areas of agricultural, food and life sciences; architecture; business; education; engineering; nursing; human environmental sciences; and law.

The University of Arkansas houses more than 200 academic programs and offers 83 bachelor's degrees in 74 fields of study. Students may also pursue a wide range of graduate degrees, including the master's, the educational specialist, the doctor of education and the doctor of philosophy. Information about graduate programs can be found in the Graduate School Catalog or online at <http://www.uark.edu/depts/gradinfo/>.

The Carnegie Foundation categorizes the University of Arkansas as a research institution with "high research activity," placing the U of A in the top 10 percent of universities nationwide and in a class by itself within the state of Arkansas. In its 2005 edition, U.S. News and World Report ranked the University in the top tier of institutions of higher education. Faculty members perform cutting-edge research for which they annually win prestigious grants and awards, and the University encourages undergraduates to participate in the research process. Such opportunities enhance the learning process by providing hands-on experience in lab and research techniques, by developing students' abilities to implement, experiment, discover and teach, and by fostering a mentoring relationship early in students' academic careers.

Research programs involving both faculty and students serve as vital sources of information on the economic and social needs of Arkansas. In many fields, research performed at the University of Arkansas reaches beyond the state to provide insight and guidance on issues of national and international concern. The University provides extensive technical and professional services to varied groups and individuals throughout the state, helping to further Arkansas' economic growth. The University operates nationally respected high school and college-level correspondence programs; it assists other institutions in developing educational programs; it offers graduate programs, both cooperatively and singly, throughout the state; and it makes specialized campus resources such as computing services and library holdings available to other institutions in the state.

LOCATION

A thriving city in the northwest corner of the state, Fayetteville is home to the 345 acres and 130 buildings that comprise the University of Arkansas campus. In the heart of the Ozark Mountains, the city boasts a lively cultural scene and easy access to outdoor recreation. In 2003, Outside magazine named Fayetteville 23rd out of the top 40 college towns in America. With a population of 60,000, Fayetteville was heralded as one of Business Week's 2002 "Dazzling Dozen" small cities in the U.S. Northwest Arkansas is the sixth-fastest-growing region in the nation, according to the U.S. Census, and was recently included among the top four "Best Places for Work" by CNN/Money. The Milken Institute rates the metropolitan economy as the eighth-strongest in the country. Fayetteville's temperate climate ensures beautiful seasons year-long, and it is central to larger metropolitan areas, including Dallas, Kansas City, Little Rock, Memphis, St. Louis and Tulsa.

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS

The academic units of the University of Arkansas include nine colleges and schools and two military departments: the Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences, which includes the School of Human Environmental Sciences; the School of Architecture; the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences, which includes the School of Social Work; the Sam M. Walton College of Business; the College of Education and Health Professions, which includes the Eleanor Mann School of Nursing; the College of Engineering; the School of Law; the Graduate School; the Honors College; and the Departments of Army and Air Force ROTC.

In addition, the Division of Continuing Education offers non-credit course work, correspondence courses for credit, and off-campus credit courses in cooperation with colleges and schools at Fayetteville. The School of Law and the Graduate School offer professional and graduate degrees.

THE SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE

The School of Architecture houses professional design programs of architecture and landscape architecture together with liberal studies programs in each discipline. The School's programs in architecture and landscape architecture include traditional five-year professional degree programs and four-year pre-professional degrees, combining studio design education with innovative teaching in history, theory, technology and urbanism. A broad range of course offerings equips graduates with the knowledge required for the challenges of a changing world.

Design instruction occurs in a carefully planned studio sequence, providing educational experiences appropriate for students who wish to pursue both traditional and non-traditional forms of professional practice. Fundamental principles and techniques of critical analysis are stressed, and the curriculum strives to empower students by developing skill, knowledge and a deep sense of responsibility to the cultures they will serve. Design studio projects survey issues and opportunities in built and natural settings, as well as complex social, physical and cultural relations that constitute the human-made environment.

DALE BUMPERS COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURAL, FOOD AND LIFE SCIENCES

The mission of the College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences is to prepare graduates who are intellectually enriched, technically competent, environmentally conscious and ethically responsible. We honor the land-grant tradition and respect the many values of its fabric and heritage while having sensitivity toward change for the future. Our goal is for our graduates to be responsible leaders, possessing strong communication skills, problem-solving abilities and having commitment to be self-directed, lifelong learners. To accomplish this, the broad curricula include basic courses in the general sciences and liberal arts, as well as agriculture and human environmental sciences.

J. WILLIAM FULBRIGHT COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

No one in 20th century America has done more to advance the study of international relations or promote human understanding than J. William Fulbright. Committed to the idea that a free society and a peaceful world require, above all, an educated citizenry, he urged with unflagging energy the use of historical perspective, cultural relativity and scientific objectivity in the study of human affairs. Senator Fulbright, like Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson and Abraham Lincoln before him, was committed to the belief that an educated, enlightened electorate will unerringly act not only in its own self interest, but also in the interest of all the people of the world.

In recognition of J. William Fulbright's contribution to the cause of liberal education and of his many services to his native state, the Board of Trustees of the University of Arkansas on November 20, 1981, resolved...

The College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, shall be named, henceforth, the J. WILLIAM FULBRIGHT COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES. His name will imbue that college, and the University, with his reputation and image for a devoted interest in higher education and its accomplishments through its scholars as reflected in its students. That name will endow the college in such a way as to make it a worldwide center for liberal learning in the general and for the study of international relations in particular.

The college, dedicated to implementing the Fulbright philosophy that liberal education is a prerequisite for enlightened citizenship in a democratic society, has adopted as its mission the following statement from Fulbright's writings:

...the highest function of higher education ... is the teaching of things in perspective, toward the purposes of enriching the life of the individual, cultivating the free and inquiring mind, and advancing the effort to bring reason, justice, and humanity into the relations of men and nations.

Consisting of 19 departments and 22 special programs and research centers, Fulbright College has a two-fold mission: to provide a broad, liberal education to all students within the University community and to furnish specialized knowledge at the upper division and graduate levels leading to a professional career. The general education curriculum within the college is designed to assure students' mastery of the English language, provide knowledge of the historical, social, intellectual and linguistic bases of human culture, provide habits of thought and investigation useful in later life, encourage exploration and development of aesthetic, political, and ethical values, and offer the necessary foundation for professional competence or further training in professional or graduate schools.

Recognizing that its students must become productive members of contemporary American society, Fulbright College offers undergraduate majors in 43 different fields ranging from chemistry and art to journalism and German. In addition, the college, in cooperation with the Graduate School, offers course work leading to master's degrees in 32 fields and doctoral degrees in 11 fields. As a natural corollary of their instructional role, the faculty of the college pursue active research programs in their fields and programs that enable them simultaneously to provide state-of-the-art education to their students and bring national and international recognition to the University.

SAM M. WALTON COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

The Sam M. Walton College of Business is a nationally competitive business school that connects people with organizations and scholarship with practice by combining excellent student learning experiences with quality research serving Arkansas and the world.

UA's David W. Mullins Library includes special collections papers from former U.S. Senator J. William Fulbright, former chief of staff and special assistant to the President, Thomas "Mack" McLarty, retired U.S. senators David Pryor and Dale Bumpers, architect Edward Durrell, civil rights activist Daisy Bates and composer William Grant Still.

The core values of the college are: excellence, professionalism, innovation and collegiality.

The Walton College, the flagship business school of the state of Arkansas, has a three-fold mission: teaching — to educate a diverse population of students in bachelor's, master's and doctoral programs to be tomorrow's business, community and academic leaders; research — to discover and disseminate knowledge through our research to support excellence and innovation in organizations; and service — to share our business expertise in support of our state, our professions and the academic community.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HEALTH PROFESSIONS

The mission of the College of Education and Health Professions is to enhance the quality of life of the citizens of Arkansas, the nation and the world through the development of scholar-practitioners in education, health and human services. The vision of the college is to become a nationally competitive, student-centered research college serving Arkansas and the world.

The goals of the College of Education and Health Professions are as follows: to strengthen the academic quality and reputation of the college by developing and enhancing programs of excellence in teaching, research and service; to improve the quality and diversity of our students, faculty and staff, and increase the size of our student enrollment; and to generate increased private and public support for the college's research, academic and service initiatives.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Engineering is one of the most rewarding of the major professions. Engineers have been primarily responsible for the present high standard of living and for the security of the nation in times of peace and war. Engineering graduates must have a background of sound mathematics, scientific and economic principles, and must be acquainted with industrial practices in their chosen field before they can assume responsibility in the profession. Many engineering graduates become managers and leaders in the public and private sectors because of the problem-solving skills that were developed as part of an engineering education.

The College of Engineering adds personal, social and economic value to the region, the state, the nation and to the world through engineering education and cutting-edge research in emerging technologies.

THE SCHOOL OF LAW

The primary goal of the School of Law is to prepare lawyers who will render high-quality professional service to their clients, who are interested in and capable of advancing legal progress and reform, and who are prepared to be leaders in their communities. These objectives can best be realized by a competent and dedicated full-time faculty working in partnership with an interested and involved bench and bar. The faculty and administrative staff at the School of Law strive to maintain mutually beneficial relationships with judges and practicing lawyers. Appellate courts regularly schedule cases at the School of Law, and the judges meet with students informally after the arguments. Full-time faculty members teach first-year courses and other required substantive law courses, while practice skill courses such as legal clinic and activities such as moot court and client counseling depend on the assistance of the practicing bar.

The School of Law also has a strong sense of responsibility to the people of Arkansas. Members of the faculty and student body are active in numerous public service activities. Legal counsel to the indigent is provided through the clinical education program and by special court appointments from time to time. Students and faculty also serve on the bar, in civic and legislative committees, and on task forces. A number of faculty and students contribute time and expertise to state agencies and law reform groups. All of these activities offer students real legal work, serving the people of Arkansas.

THE HONORS COLLEGE

The mission of the Honors College at the University of Arkansas is to provide exceptional opportunities for outstanding undergraduates to enhance their educational experiences and academic performances, and to serve the University by underscoring its reputation as a research institution, where students come first. This mission incorporates four areas of responsibility: recruitment; administration of honors fellowships, Honors College research grants, and studyabroad scholarships; coordination of honors programs and curricula; and coordination of related services.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

The Graduate School assists post-baccalaureate students with the opportunity to further their educational goals through programs of study, teaching and research in an environment that promotes freedom of expression, intellectual inquiry and professional integrity.

Additionally, the Graduate School assists the development of degree programs that are relevant and responsive to the needs of its students and the students' communities — state, nation and world — and the demands of technology, while maintaining a high standard of excellence in graduate education.

A LEGACY OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

Since its founding, the University of Arkansas has compiled a remarkable record of scientific, technological, intellectual and creative accomplishment. This is the university of the late U.S. Senator J. William Fulbright, who served it as a Rhodes Scholarship-winning student, alumnus and president (1939-41), before going on to service at the national level and founding, in 1946, the greatest international exchange program for faculty and students in the world.

Fulbright's injunction for academia guides the University of Arkansas to this day: "The highest function of higher education is the teaching of things in perspective, toward the purposes of enriching the life of the individual, cultivating the free and inquiring mind, and advancing the effort to bring reason, justice and humanity into the relations of men and nations."

In 1951, under U.S. State Department auspices, the University became the first land-grant institution in the nation to assemble an agricultural foreign mission. The object of that mission was to assist Panama in establishing an agricultural teaching, research and extension program similar to the one that had been so successful in modernizing agriculture in the United States.

Other significant accomplishments abound:

- Agricultural Chemistry Professors Barnett Sure (1920-51) and Marinus C. Kik (1927-67) made major advances in nutrition science. Sure co-discovered vitamin E and extended knowledge of how vitamin E, amino acids and B-vitamins function in reproduction and lactation. Kik developed the process for parboiling rice to increase retention of vitamins and shorten cooking time. He documented benefits of adding fish and chicken to rice and grain diets to provide adequate protein for a growing world population.
- Professor Dwight Isely of the Department of Entomology is considered the father of insect pest management in the United States. His research identified the weak point in the life cycle of insects that made them particularly susceptible to control strategies. Through his work on cotton insect pests, the codling moth, the striped cucumber beetle, southern corn rootworm, and rice water weevil, millions of dollars were saved in American agriculture.
- In 1954, University of Arkansas Finance Professor Harold A. Dulan, with UA Law Professor E.J. Ball and UA MBA graduate Lewis Callison, created the nation's first commercial variable annuity life insurance company. Later that year, the Participating Annuity Life Insurance Company sold the first commercial variable annuity ever offered to the U.S. public. This pioneer company was later bought by Aetna.
- In the 1950s, Professor Paul Kuroda of the Department of Chemistry predicted that self-sustaining nuclear chain reactions could have occurred naturally in earth's geologic history. In 1972, his prediction was confirmed when

ALUMNI

The 128-year-old Arkansas Alumni Association connects and serves more than 28,000 dues-paying members. Governed by a 33-member board with an executive director and professional staff, the association provides a variety of member benefits including the quarterly magazine Arkansas. The association is housed in the Janelle Y. Hembree Alumni House, a $3.5 million "home away from home" for alumni.

Among more than 116,000 living, addressable alumni are many who have risen to the top of their respective fields of endeavor, including:

Business:

- J. Kirk Thompson, '78, CEO and president, JB Hunt Transport Services Inc.
- Sonja Hubbard, '86, CEO and president, EZ Mart Stores Inc.
- Scott Ford '84, president and CEO, ALLTEL
- Luis H. Moreno, Jr. '55, head of National Bank of Panama
- Jim Walton, '71, chairman and CEO, Arvest Bank Group
- S. Robson Walton, '66, chairman, Wal-Mart Stores Inc.
- Margaret McEntire, '75, CEO, Candy Bouquet International
- Ginger Graham, '79, CEO and president, Amylin Pharmaceuticals
- Charles D. Morgan, '66, CEO, Acxiom

Science and Technology:

- Mary Good, '53, '55, '79, past president, American Association for the Advancement of Science
- Tommy Holloway '63, manager of NASA's Space Shuttle Programs
- J. Walter Keller '46, '48, '50, developer of the heart pacemaker
- Robert Maurer '49, inventor of fiber optic technology
- Robert T. Mitchell '64, '65, Cassini Program Manager, Jet Propulsion Laboratory

Government:

- Admiral Vern E. Clark '68, former Chief of Naval Operations
- J. William Fulbright '25, '48, former U.S. Senator and creator of the Fulbright Program for International Education Exchange (deceased)
- George Haley '52, former U.S. Ambassador to Gambia
- Ricardo Martinelli '73, former chairman, Panama Canal Commission
- Thomas F. "Mack" McLarty III '68, former White House Chief of Staff for President Clinton and Special Envoy to the Americas
- Mark Pryor, '85, '88, U.S. senator

Arts:

- Merideth D. Boswell '77, set decorator whose credits include "Dr. Seuss' How The Grinch Stole Christmas" and "Apollo 13," for which she received an Academy Award nomination
- E. Lynn Harris '77, author of What Becomes of the Brokenhearted
- E. Fay Jones '50, winner of American Institute of Architects' 1990 Gold Medal (deceased)
- Laurence Luckenbill '55, actor and producer
- Miller Williams '52, poet
- Ed Wilson '80, president, Fox Television Network
- Janis Kearney, '77, author and presidential diarist for President Clinton

Education:

- B. Alan Sugg, '60, president, University of Arkansas System
- John A. White, '62, chancellor, University of Arkansas
- James L. "Skip" Rutherford, '72, dean, Clinton School of Public Service

scientists discovered a natural nuclear reactor in Gabon, Africa. In 1960, he predicted the existence of Pu 244 as an element present during the solar system's formation. Confirmation of his theory enabled scientists to more accurately date the sequence of events in the solar system's early history.

- The Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing, a 60-hour program begun at the University of Arkansas in 1966, has grown into one of the most productive and highly ranked programs of its kind in America. Founded by English professors William Harrison and the late James Whitehead, later joined by Miller Williams, the program was in the vanguard of a revolution to transform the traditional study of literature into a demanding training ground for young writers. The writer-teachers and writer-students in the program, many of whom have won national fame and honors, have produced hundreds of works of fiction, poetry, creative non-fiction and translation.
- UA Plant pathologists George Templeton, David TeBeest, USDA weed scientist Roy Smith and graduate student Jim Daniels conducted research in the early 1970s that led to COLLEGO, the first biological herbicide for weed control in a field crop. Other UA scientists and students worked on the project that resulted in EPA registration of COLLEGO by Upjohn in 1982 for control of northern jointvetch in rice and soybeans.
- The most widely implemented automated mail sorting equipment in the world — the Wide Area Bar Code Reader — was developed by researchers in the University of Arkansas College of Engineering. A $50,000 grant from the U.S. Postal Service to Professors Dwight F. Mix and J.E. Bass in 1989 began the research and development effort. By 1999, more than 15,000 University of Arkansas bar code readers were located in every major USPS facility, increasing the efficiency of processing 20 billion pieces of mail a year at a savings of $200 million. This R&D effort has spawned four additional electronic systems to help the USPS "read the mail."
- During the 1980s, Professors Allen Hermann and Zhengzhi Sheng of the Department of Physics were in the vanguard of research in superconductivity — when electrical current flows without resistance in some materials at extremely cold temperatures. The thallium-based material they discovered held the world's record for high temperature, 125K, for five years (1988-93) and drew international attention to the University. Their work led to numerous patents and a manufacturing agreement as well as further advances in high-density electronics.

The University also attracted attention for its early work in racial integration in the segregated South. The University of Arkansas became the first major southern public university to admit a black student without litigation when Silas Hunt of Texarkana, an African-American veteran of World War II, was admitted to the University's law school in 1948. Roy Wilkins, administrator of the NAACP, wrote in 1950 that Arkansas was the "very first of the Southern states to accept the new trend without fighting a delaying action or attempting to limit, if not nullify, bare compliance." Additional African-American students followed Hunt's example in the late 1940s and throughout the 1950s.

The University of Arkansas is the only remaining university in the nation to etch the names of its graduates into the campus' sidewalks. Senior Walk stretches for more than five miles. When the costs of hand-etching names into concrete forced other universities to give up the practice, UA's physical plant and engineering school grads created a computerized sandblasting machine — the SandHog, which each summer adds that year's graduating class. Since the university's founding, the names of all of the almost 124,000 graduates have been etched into the sidewalks, their names arranged by year of graduation.

And, of course, two former faculty members made it to the White House. The nation's 42nd president, William J. Clinton (1993-2001), and first lady, Hillary Rodham Clinton (U.S. Senator from New York), were faculty members of the University of Arkansas School of Law in the mid-1970s. Mr. Clinton started in 1973, and Ms. Rodham began teaching in 1974. They were married in Fayetteville and left the faculty at the end of 1976 so Mr. Clinton could begin work as Arkansas' new attorney general.

Undeclared Major

Certain degree-seeking students who are temporarily undecided about their choice of a major field of study may select the undeclared major. However, all undergraduate students still must enroll in one of the colleges or schools. Each of these academic units makes provisions for undeclared majors and each has its own rules for the point at which a student must declare a major.

ARKANSAS RAZORBACK STUDENT-ATHLETE SUPPORT SERVICES

SUPPORT SERVICES MISSION STATEMENT

The primary focus of the Razorback Support Program is to provide the student-athlete with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to be a success in college and in life. This is accomplished through competent academic counseling, life skills training and preparation to enter the job market upon graduation.

Senior center Steven Hill was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2006.

Academic Support

The University of Arkansas Academic Support Center serves as the liaison between the athletic department and all faculty, staff and university personnel regarding academic concerns and procedures.

The Academic Support Center is committed to providing the Razorback student-athletes with the tools and resources they need to succeed in the competitive academic environment at the University of Arkansas, ultimately leading to graduation.

Support services include a mentoring program, monitored study hall, tutorial services, a computer laboratory and referrals to other campus support services.

UA's Academic Game Plan for Graduation

Student-athletes are expected to meet specific academic criteria in order to maintain their eligibility. This can be easily achieved by following the Academic Game Plan set out by the Academic Support Center.

The support center staff has designed programs and set specific goals to help student-athletes achieve academic success. One such goal is each student-athlete enroll and successfully complete 30 hours of coursework each academic year. By maintaining this course load, they will not only be on track to graduate in four years, but will easily meet eligibility requirements set by the NCAA.

Study Hall and Tutors

Study Hall is a quiet setting for uninterrupted study and is required for all scholarship student-athletes until a 2.5 GPA or better is achieved. The use of tutors is highly encouraged, if not required for some student-athletes.

Honors and Awards

- SEC Academic Honor Roll (3.0 GPA or above for two consecutive semesters)
- Lon Farrell Award (3.0 GPA for one or both semesters during academic year)
- Hard Workin' Hog (30 hours of coursework in one academic year)

The Office of Student Support Services assists Arkansas' student-athletes with life goals as well as academics and graduation. The student life portion of the program offers training in areas such as financial planning (above), drug and alcohol education, time management, study skills and developing community service activities.

Class Attendance

- Student-athletes are expected to attend all classes unless previously excused
- The Academic Support Staff regularly checks attendance
- If traveling with a team, student-athletes notify instructors early each semester regarding assignments and/or test(s)

The Razorback Program for Student-Athlete Success

The Office of Student Support Services of the University of Arkansas Athletic Department was established to assist student-athletes in their efforts toward attaining specific academic and life goals as well as graduation.

Recognizing the difficulty of being both a student and an athlete, the office seeks to help students develop appropriate skills, which will allow them to maximize their individual potential while participating in intercollegiate athletics.

The University of Arkansas is a participant in the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. This program addresses the needs of student-athletes in five primary areas: Academics, Personal Development, Career Development, Community Service and Athletic Excellence.

Student Life

The University of Arkansas is as concerned about the personal and social development of our student-athletes as it is their academics and athletics.

The Office of Student Life focuses on the personal development and community service components of the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program. Training is provided in a wide variety of areas such as financial planning, drug and alcohol education, time management, study skills and developing community service activities.

Career Development

The purpose of the Career Development Program is to assist student-athletes in making a smooth transition into the world of work. This process begins in the freshman year with a one-hour course in which career options are explored.

Workshops are also held to provide student-athletes training in resume writing, interviewing skills and etiquette. Individual assistance with locating summer internships and job placement helps give the student-athlete a head start in his or her career.

Participation in athletics enables individuals to develop the personal qualities that are in high demand in the business world today.

Dionisio Gomez earned SEC Academic Honor Roll honors in 2001 and graduated in 2003.

GLEN ROSE ACADEMIC AWARD

Glen Rose was the only coach to ever serve two tenures at Arkansas. In fact, he did just about everything possible as a Razorback. He was the Hogs' first All-American basketball player (1928) and was All-Southwest Conference three times. He was an All-SWC end in football in 1927.

He became head basketball coach in 1933 and led the Razorbacks to a nine-year record of 157-47 (.766). He coached the football team for a year during World War II and also worked as an administrator in the athletic department before leaving for 10 years.

Rose returned to Fayetteville in 1952 and spent 14 more seasons as head basketball coach. During his second stint, the Hogs were 171-154. His overall mark was 325-201.

A member of the Razorback Hall of Honor, Rose passed away Sept. 3, 1994. In his honor, Arkansas presents the Glen Rose Award to the Razorback basketball player who attains the highest academic achievement during each school year.

HOME OF CHAMPIONS

Note: UA has separate men and women's departments. Only men's sports are included in this publication.

In four of the 16 years the Hogs have been members of the SEC, they have won four league championships. In the 11 other years, Arkansas has won at least two, including two overall titles and two other Western Division championships in 2006-07. No other SEC school has won so many league championships in men's athletics during the past 16 years.

While the SEC is the nation's best conference, Arkansas takes its success far past the regional level. During UA's time in the SEC, the Hogs have produced 30 national championship teams. The other SEC schools combined have won 33 NCAA crowns in men's sports, meaning Arkansas has won almost as many as the rest of the league combined. LSU is the closest to matching UA's national title total, but the Razorbacks have a 30-8 lead over the Tigers. Next in the league are Auburn with seven, Florida with six, Georgia with five, Tennessee four, Kentucky two and Alabama one.

FOOTBALL

Arkansas went 10-4 in 2006, won the SEC's Western Division, played in the SEC Championship game, earned a bid to the Capital One Bowl and ended the season ranked No. 15 in the nation. All four losses came to teams ranked in the top 10 while the Razorbacks beat three ranked opponents, including the 27-10 win at No. 2 Auburn.

Running back Darren McFadden won the Doak Walker Award, which annually goes to the nation's top running back, finished second in voting for the Heisman Trophy, was the SEC Offensive Player of the Year and a consensus All-American. He rushed for a school-record 1,647 yards and six scores, with 14 touchdowns. Fellow junior Felix Jones, an All-SEC pick, ran for 1,168 yards and six scores, and finished second among the nation's top 100 leading rushers with 7.6 yards per carry.

Defensive end Jamaal Anderson, an All-SEC selection and an honorable mention All-American, led the SEC with a school-record tying 14 sacks, and had 20.5 tackles for loss and 65 total stops.

- Seven bowl games in the last nine years
- Four SEC Western Division titles in the last 12 years
- Fourteen players drafted over the last four years, including four in the first round, with 22 others signing free-agent contracts
- Twenty-two bowl games in the last 32 years and 35 overall
- 1964 national champion

BASKETBALL

Arkansas was 21-14 overall, earned its 29th NCAA Tournament bid, won the Old Spice Classic in Orlando, advanced to the finals of the SEC Tournament and went 4-3 against ranked teams.

Freshman Patrick Beverley ranked among the SEC leaders in nine of 13 categories, including 16th in scoring (13.9), 29th in rebounding (4.5), 15th in assists (3.14), sixth in steals (1.74) and third in free-throw percentage (.812). A freshman All-American, he was named the SEC Newcomer of the Year by the Associated Press and Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches.

Guard Gary Ervin (9.9 ppg) was named SEC Player of the Week twice, forward Sonny Weems (11.8 ppg, 4.8 rpg) was named to the SEC and Old Spice Classic all-tournament teams, and center Steven Hill (6.2 ppg, 4.4 rpg, 2.8 blocked shots) was named SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

- Twenty-nine NCAA Tournament bids, ninth all-time
- Six Final Four appearances, ninth all-time – 1994 national champion, 1995 runner-up
- Seventeen national post-season tournament appearances in 21 years
- Home attendance in national top 15 for 14 straight years

TRACK

In cross country, Arkansas won its 16th SEC title in 16 years and its 33rd consecutive conference title going back to UA's days in the Southwest Conference. The Hogs won the NCAA South Central Regional and finished fifth at the national meet behind Peter Kosgei's eighth-place finish.

The Razorbacks won the SEC indoor title and finished seventh in the NCAA meet behind All-American performances from Kosgei, Nkosinza Balumbu, Alain Bailey and Mychael Stewart.

Outdoors, Arkansas was third at the SEC meet. Balumbu and J-Mee Samuels earned All-America honors at the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

Head coach John McDonnell was named to the 2008 USA Olympic Team staff as a middle distance coach.

- Nineteen indoor NCAA titles since 1984; 26 conference titles since 1979
- Twelve outdoor NCAA titles since 1985; 22 conference titles since 1982

Overall, Arkansas has won 44 men's national championships in its athletic history, all but one since 1984. The only one before '84 was the post-bowl version of the football national championship in 1964. In the league, LSU is next with 18, followed by Florida with 10, Tennessee with nine, Auburn and Georgia with eight, Alabama and Kentucky with seven, and Ole Miss one.

Here's the breakdown on Arkansas' national titles: 19 in indoor track, 12 in outdoor track, 11 in cross country, one in football and one in basketball.

In 16 years, Arkansas has won 48 SEC championships, including 16 in cross country, 14 in indoor track, 13 in outdoor track, two in basketball and baseball, and one in golf. The Hogs have also won four Western Division titles in football, and three in basketball and baseball.

- Eleven cross country NCAA titles since 1984; 33 conference titles since 1974
- Twenty-five Olympians, 645 All-America selections, 111 NCAA individual event championships

BASEBALL

Behind the starting rotation of Nick Schmidt, Jess Todd and Duke Welker, Arkansas won the SEC Western Division title and advanced to the finals of the SEC Tournament.

Arkansas earned the No. 7 national seed and played host to an NCAA Regional for the third time in four years. The Razorbacks reached the finals before being eliminated and finishing 43-21. The Arkansas regional was the best-attended in the nation, drawing 38,710 fans for an average of 6,452.

Arkansas set a national record with a tickets sold attendance average of 8,047 during the regular season.

Schmidt (11-3, 2.69 ERA) and Todd (9-3, 2.89 ERA) were each named second-team All-Americans by Louisville Slugger and first-team All-SEC.

First baseman Danny Hamblin (.276, 60 RBI) hit 22 home runs, the second-most in a season at UA, and set a school career record with 57.

- Five College World Series, including 2004, and 20 NCAA Tournament appearances
- Fourteen 40-win seasons since 1979
- Baum Stadium rated the top college facility in the country by Baseball America in 1998
- National attendance average record for tickets sold per game in 2007 with 8,047

GOLF

Arkansas won the Del Walker Intercollegiate at Long Beach, Calif., finished second at the Lochinvar Challenge at Houston and had five other finishes of seventh or higher during the year.

Sophomore Andrew Landry led the team with a 72.08 average and had six top five finishes, including a runner-up finish at the Diet Pepsi Shocker Classic at Wichita, Kan., and four other third-place finishes. Freshman Stephen Cox was next with a 74.62 average and one top five finish.

Landry, a PING honorable mention All-American and a second-team All-SEC pick, finished tied for sixth at the NCAA Central Regional.

- Finished in the top 11 at the NCAA Tournament six times in 19 years
- Finished in the top 20 at the NCAA Tournament eight times
- Twenty-six tournament titles in the last 19 years

TENNIS

Replacing three seniors at the top of the singles lineup and five total lettermen from the 18-11 NCAA Tournament team of 2006 was too tough for the young Razorbacks as they won just seven matches for the year.

Sophomore Blake Strode, who went 27-7 at No. 4 as a freshman, was 27-11 at No. 1, including a 7-4 mark in the SEC and a 17-7 dual match record. He recorded four wins over opponents ranked among the nation's top 50.

Strode and junior Colin Mascall went 19-9 in doubles, and were ranked as high as 15th in the nation.

Strode reached the round of 32 in the NCAA singles tournament while Strode and Mascall were one of 32 doubles teams to qualify but were eliminated in the first round.

- Nine NCAA Tournament appearances in 14 years
- NCAA regional finals in six of last seven appearances
- Eight No. 1-ranked players since 1980 and 30 All-America selections

In 2007, senior guard Gary Ervin helped the Hogs win 21 games, advance to the finals of the SEC Tournament and earn an NCAA Tournament bid for the 29th time in school history.

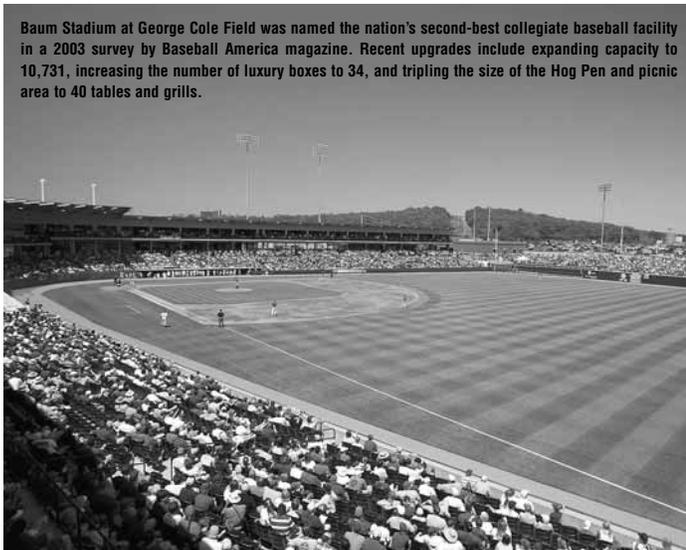

OTHER ARKANSAS FACILITIES

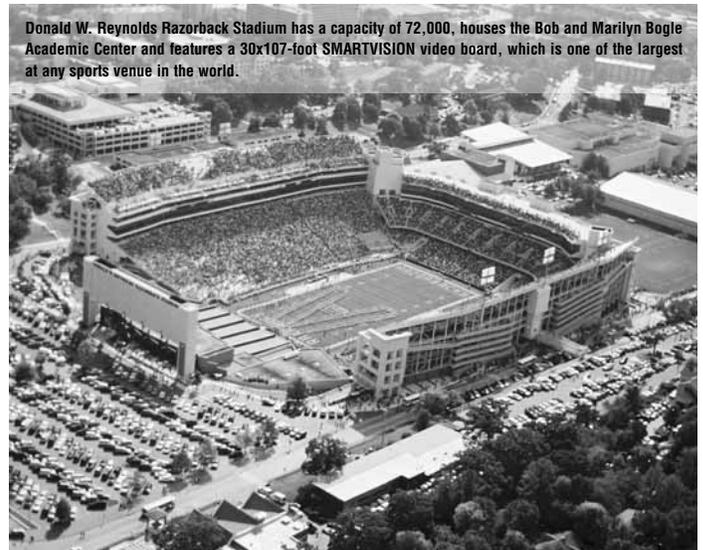

The Walker Family Training Center features an 18,000-square foot weight room (left) with a nutritional area, including a juice bar and ice cream/protein machine; and 13 42-inch flat screen televisions for viewing and adjusting technique. It also includes the 16,000-square foot Camden and Sue Greene Speed and Development Center, which features a three-lane 70-yard mondo track surface, a two-lane 60-yard sand pit and a 2,500-square foot AstroPlay agility area.

John McDonnell Field, the newest facility on campus, was completed in 2006. It was the site of the 2006 SEC Track and Field Outdoor Championships and will be the site of the 2009 NCAA Outdoor Championships.

Baum Stadium at George Cole Field was named the nation's second-best collegiate baseball facility in a 2003 survey by Baseball America magazine. Recent upgrades include expanding capacity to 10,731, increasing the number of luxury boxes to 34, and tripling the size of the Hog Pen and picnic area to 40 tables and grills.

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium has a capacity of 72,000, houses the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center and features a 30x107-foot SMARTVISION video board, which is one of the largest at any sports venue in the world.

UA ADMINISTRATION AND STAFF

DR. JOHN A. WHITE
Chancellor

A native Arkansan and University of Arkansas graduate, Dr. John A. White said he returned to his alma mater to do all he could to "make a difference" for the state which had done so much for him and his family. After a decade at the helm of the state's flagship institution, White has changed Arkansas forever.

With an ambitious agenda from the moment he was named chancellor, White's main goal is to realize the university's vision of becoming the nationally competitive, student-centered research university

Arkansas needs and deserves in the 21st century. In reaching that goal he seeks to enhance the university's academic reputation nationally and ensure that the university is the economic and cultural engine for the state of Arkansas.

Few goals could have been more ambitious than setting a billion-dollar fund raising campaign goal; a level of support achieved by fewer than 15 public universities in America. In a testament to his leadership, more than $1 billion dollars were raised in the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, including the largest single gift to a public university in the history of American philanthropy: the $300 million gift from the Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation.

In recognition of this achievement, the university's Alumni Association made a special exemption to its rules to name White as the recipient of the 2006 Distinguished Alumnus Award at the close of the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century.

A man whose leadership is sought by many, he recently has received several important appointments in the area of collegiate athletics to add to his already impressive resume. He is the presiding chair of the Northwest Arkansas Council and a member of the Northwest Arkansas Regional Airport Authority. White has served on both the NCAA Executive Committee and the NCAA Division I Board of Directors as well as a term as the president of the Southeastern Conference.

Upon his appointment as chancellor, White moved immediately to draw the best students from the state and beyond. To build a foundation for the future at Arkansas, White increased the number of students who received Chancellor's Scholarships. Resulting in a 12-fold increase in the number of new freshmen who were Chancellor's Scholars in the fall of 1998, the impact of that first class is just beginning with their graduation in 2002.

White has yet to rest. His priorities include increasing the instruction of Arkansas' students through information technology and an environment that is diverse and international in outlook; moving the university from the equivalent of the old Carnegie Foundation definitions of a Research II university to Research I status; increasing the diversity of the university's faculty, staff, and student body; increasing private gift support; and increasing state and federal support. He also is striving to increase enrollment to a 22,000-person student body that is competitive with those at the best publicly supported universities in the nation.

An advocate for improving his home state, he serves on the board of directors for the Arkansas Science and Technology Authority. White completed a second six-year term on the National Science Board last year, and has served as the chair of the Council of Presidents of the Southeastern Universities Research Association and as president of the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award Foundation.

White served previously as president of the Institute of Industrial Engineers, chairman of the American Association of Engineering Societies, and president of the National Consortium for Graduate Degrees for Minorities in Engineering and Science.

Prior to returning to Arkansas, White was dean of engineering at the Georgia Institute of Technology where he served on the faculty for 22 years. His career in higher education and in management and engineering consulting has carried him into the national ranks, including service as assistant director for engineering at the National Science Foundation in Washington, D.C., from 1988 to 1991.

Among his numerous awards, White was honored in June 2006 with the inaugural John L. Imhoff Award from the American Society for Engineering Education, an honor made personally significant as the late Imhoff recruited White to the industrial engineering field in 1958 and was a mentor to White until Imhoff's death.

White was named the 2005 Northwest Arkansas Humanitarian of the Year by the National Coalition for Community and Justice and the 2005 Regent's Medallion of Merit from Sigma Nu Fraternity. During his academic career, he also received the Donald E. Marlowe Award for Distinguished Education Administration of the American Society for Engineering Education, the Frank and Lillian Gilbreth Industrial Engineering Award of the Institute of Industrial Engineers, the Rodney D. Chipp Memorial Award of the Society of Women Engineers, the Distinguished Service Award of the National Science Foundation and the National Science Foundation Engineer of the Year award.

White earned a bachelor's degree in industrial engineering at Arkansas in 1962, a master's at Virginia Tech, and a doctorate at Ohio State. He also holds honorary doctorates from Katholieke Universiteit of Leuven, Belgium, and George Washington University.

White is married to Mary Elizabeth Quarles White and they have a daughter, a son, three granddaughters and a grandson.

HOWARD W. BRILL
Faculty Athletics Representative

In his 13th year as the University of Arkansas' faculty representative for athletics is Howard W. Brill. He has been a member of the university's faculty since 1975.

As faculty representative, Brill plays an integral role in the athletic department's interaction with conference and NCAA rules and regulations. He is the school's liaison between the faculty and the athletic department, and assists the athletic department in compliance matters. He is also the university's certifying official for student-athletes. He previously served as a member of the university's Faculty Athletics Committee from 1991-94 and was on a special committee to implement the SEC's Gender Equity Policy in the spring of 1994.

Brill is a 1965 graduate of Duke University and earned his law degree from the University of Florida in 1970. He received his master's of law degree in 1979 from the University of Illinois. A widely published author, Brill has written two books and numerous law review articles, and has received numerous awards honoring his teaching skills.

In 2005, he was appointed as university professor. His primary teaching areas are professional responsibility, remedies, civil procedure, and a special topics course on baseball and the law. He has taught at Cambridge, England, and St. Petersburg, Russia, in addition to the universities of Florida, Illinois, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

He is licensed to practice law in Arkansas, Florida and Illinois, and is a member of the Professional Ethics and Grievances Committee of the Arkansas Bar Association and the Arkansas Judicial Ethics Advisory Committee. He is the first Vincent Foster Professor of Legal Ethics and Professional Responsibility at the School of Law, and has served as a Special Justice of the Arkansas Supreme Court. He is a past member of the Governor's Code of Ethics Commission and the Arkansas Improvement District Commission of the General Assembly of Arkansas.

Active in community service, Brill has served as chairman of the City of Fayetteville's Civil Service Commission, has coached youth soccer and basketball, and is a Sunday School teacher. After graduating from Duke, he taught English language and African literature as a Peace Corps volunteer in Sokoto, Nigeria.

He and his wife Katherine have three children, Christian, Elizabeth and Andrew.

FRANK BROYLES
Athletic Director

For nearly five decades, University of Arkansas Athletic Director Frank Broyles has helped define the standard of excellence in intercollegiate athletics. A legendary coach, nationally respected athletic administrator and tireless goodwill ambassador for his university and state, Broyles' influence continues to shape the Razorback program as well as impact the vast collegiate athletic landscape.

In December 2007, Broyles will complete his 50th year of service to the University of Arkansas including 34½ years as athletic director. Beginning in January 2008, Broyles will transition to a full-time fundraiser for both the Razorback Foundation and the University of Arkansas. It is a new chapter in his distinguished half-century career serving the University and program he dearly loves. In fact, Broyles is as synonymous with the UA athletic program as the Hog on the side of the football helmet or even the very nickname, Razorbacks.

There is little doubt Broyles has had more positive impact on athletics in Arkansas than any person in the history of the state. The Arkansas Democrat-Gazette confirmed his status when it named him the most influential figure in athletics in the state during the Twentieth Century. On July 1, 2003, he took over as the chairman of the UA's Campaign for the Twenty-first Century. The ambitious campaign concluded in June 2005 after meeting its $1 billion goal.

Perhaps his greatest contribution to the Razorback program is his knack for hiring quality head coaches and surrounding them with the tools and facilities they need to compete at the highest level.

Broyles has a history of picking the right ones as head coaches and administrators at Arkansas. UA football coach Houston Nutt has led the Razorback football team to three SEC Western Division crowns and seven bowl games. John McDonnell is the most successful collegiate coach in history, with 42 national championships in cross country, indoor and outdoor track. Robert Cox is entering his 21st season as the coach of Arkansas' tradition-rich tennis program.

Although blessed with a stable of quality tenured coaches, Broyles has continually re-exhibited his ability to land some of the nation's top up and coming coaches for some of the Razorbacks' most successful programs.

Not long after legendary baseball coach Norm DeBrynn stepped down, Broyles hired Dave Van Horn. The former Razorback player and graduate assistant led Nebraska to back-to-back College World Series appearances before returning to Fayetteville. In only his second season at Arkansas, Van Horn led the Razorbacks to an SEC championship and a berth in the College World Series.

In June 2006, Broyles secured the services of Brad McMakin, one of the rising coaching stars in collegiate golf.

John Pelphrey is the latest rising coaching star to be lured to Fayetteville by Broyles. The former Kentucky basketball star has an impressive coaching pedigree including time playing or working for Eddie Sutton, Rick Pitino and Billy Donovan. He re-built a fledgling South Alabama program before heading to Arkansas last April.

The Arkansas AD knows facilities influence recruiting, the lifeblood of any program. Broyles has made sure Arkansas has facilities second to none. In fact, in an independent survey of SEC facilities published by The State, a South Carolina newspaper, in July 2007, Arkansas ranked among the league's best in every category including No. 1 rankings for facilities in basketball and baseball, a No. 3 ranking for Olympic Sport venues and a No. 5 ranking for football facilities.

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium underwent an ambitious renovation and expansion prior to the 2001 season. The project expanded stadium capacity from 51,000 to 72,000 while adding state-of-the-art amenities, including multiple club levels and a 30-foot-by-107-foot SMARTVISION LED screen atop the Broyles Athletic Center.

Football has also benefited from the construction of the Willard and Pat Walker Pavilion, a full-size indoor workout facility. In 2004, a new 38,000-square-foot strength and conditioning center was constructed within the existing facility to provide all Razorback student-athletes a deluxe training facility. During the same time, Arkansas' practice fields were also re-done and an artificial surface playing field was added. In 2005, the previous weight room facility was transformed into the Raymond Miller Hall of Champions. The spacious banquet room houses the Razorbacks' training table meals and serves as host to other university and athletic functions.

The completion of the Randal Tyson Track Center in 2000 allowed the Razorbacks to host the 2000 Southeastern Conference Indoor Track Championships as well as the 2000-06 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships.

Baum Stadium at George Cole Field was named the nation's top collegiate facility by Baseball America shortly after it debuted in 1996. In 2003, Baum Stadium saw the addition of 2,600 chairback sets, eight skyboxes, a natural grass playing surface and a scoreboard featuring a video screen. A then-NCAA record on-campus crowd of 10,027 watched the Hogs defeat Florida State on June 12, 2004, to earn their fifth trip to the College World Series. In 2006, 20 additional skyboxes and 1,500 chairback seats were added to expand the regular capacity to more than 10,000.

The Fred W. and Mary B. Smith Golf Center provides the Razorback golf team with one of the most modern golf practice facilities in the country including six indoor-outdoor hitting bays, a locker room, a swing analysis station and coaches' offices.

The Dills Indoor Tennis Center was dedicated in the spring of 2002 after the construction of two additional courts and an extensive renovation of the former indoor tennis and track center.

The most recent jewel in the facilities collection is the new John McDonnell Field. One of only two IAAF Class I certified track and field complexes in the nation, it has already been mentioned as one of the best outdoor track venues in the nation. The facility opened to rave reviews when it hosted the 2006 SEC Outdoor Track and Field Championships. In 2009, it will play host to the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships.

The current string of building projects began in 1992 when ground was broken on Bud Walton Arena. It opened in November of 1993 and the Razorbacks won the NCAA basketball championship during their first full season in the fabulous 19,200-seat facility. Walton Arena has been sold out for nearly all of its 14 years and houses a museum for basketball, track, baseball, golf and tennis.

Broyles knew that when he engineered Arkansas' switch from the Southwest Conference to the Southeastern Conference in August of 1990, improvements were necessary. He still works passionately at revising what has been built to make each project bigger and better.

All of the facility improvements have been financed through private donations without a dollar of tax revenues. With the recent completion of John McDonnell Field and the expansion of Baum Stadium, Arkansas has invested nearly $235 million in construction and renovation of athletic facilities during the past 27 years.

A past Division I chairman of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and a member of that organization's executive committee, Broyles showed incredible vision when he steered the Razorbacks into the SEC. It would have been easy to maintain the status quo as one of the dominant programs of the SWC and now perhaps the Big 12 Conference, but Broyles saw the possibilities for the Hogs in the SEC and ensured a solid future for Arkansas athletics.

It is a move that has proven prosperous for both parties. In its first 15 years in the nation's top league, Arkansas has won 30 national championships and 48 SEC titles. No other league school has won more than 10 national crowns in men's athletics during that span.

It was his ability to see the potential in a situation that led Broyles to Arkansas in the first place. He saw a state with only one major athletic program and envisioned the potential for a budding Razorback program in Arkansas. He united the state behind the Hogs as they became one of the dominant college football powers of the 1960s. He has taken things a step further as athletic director.

Broyles' philosophy of hiring quality coaches and building state-of-the-art facilities has keyed an unprecedented era of success at Arkansas. In the 23 years before Broyles became athletic director, Arkansas had never captured a national championship and owned only 22 SWC titles in sports other than football. During his 34-year plus term as AD, the Hogs have won 43 national championships, 57 SWC titles and 48 SEC crowns in the same collection of sports. Football hasn't suffered either, with 22 bowl trips, four league championships and four SEC Western Division titles during that same span.

One of six initial inductees into the UA Sports Hall of Honor and a 1983 inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, his contributions are not limited to athletic endeavors. Broyles was instrumental in the success of the University's Campaign for Books and served as a co-chairman on UA's Campaign for the Twenty-First Century. In fact, Broyles and his late wife Barbara pledged a sizable financial commitment to the project in the spring of 2002.

Born Dec. 26, 1924, Broyles was married to his high school sweetheart the former Barbara Day for 59 years. Barbara passed away from complications from Alzheimer's in October of 2004. The couple has four sons, Jack, Hank, Dan and Tommy; and twin daughters, Betsy and Linda. They have 19 grandchildren: Lex and his wife Gina, Ivan, Iris, Taylor, Madison, Molly, India, Jacob, Allyson, Jordan, Delaney, Franklin, Barbara, Thomas Michael Jr., Carmen, Ramey, Whitney, Jennifer and John.

On Dec. 1, 2005, Broyles married the former Gen Whitehead of Fayetteville. Her children with Jim Whitehead (deceased) are sons, Bruun, Eric, Ted and Phil, and daughters, Kathleen, Joan and Ruth. She also has 13 grandchildren.

JEFF LONG
Director of Athletics (effective Jan. 1, 2008)

Jeff Long, athletics director at the University of Pittsburgh, was named director of athletics at the University of Arkansas on Sept. 11 with a starting date of Jan. 1, 2008.

In his more than 20-year career in intercollegiate athletics, Long has served as an athletics administrator at the University of Oklahoma, Eastern Kentucky University, Virginia Tech University and the University of Michigan. He also has held coaching and administrative positions at Rice University, Duke University and North Carolina State University.

Long has spent the last four years at the helm of the Pitt athletics program, leading the Panthers to success on the fields of play, high achievement in the classroom and bold initiatives in the areas of facilities, development and student-welfare. One indication of Pitt's success was revealed in the Sports Illustrated on Campus All-Sport Rankings (December 2006) which listed the Panthers No. 17 nationally.

In his four years at Pittsburgh, Long has seen the athletics department re-certified by the NCAA Division I Committee on Athletics Certification, meaning the program conforms with the principles established by the NCAA Division I membership. The NCAA peer review team described several areas of Pitt's program as "models for others to follow."

Other highlights include launching the "Quest for Excellence" campaign in 2005, which has already raised $34 million for endowed athletics scholarships, capital gifts for building and improvement projects, and annual contributions for student-athlete scholarships; the addition of an Olympic sports weight room, in addition to new training facilities for wrestling and gymnastics; the creation of a career and life skills staff position, which focuses on the development of student-athletes; the development of a radio partnership with Clear Channel Communications in one of the largest media markets in the nation, which includes professional franchises in football, baseball and hockey; a partnership with ISP sports, a collegiate sports marketing company, in addition to the development of "Panthers Weekly," a television program devoted to Pitt's athletics programs produced by FSN Pittsburgh; the design of a new uniform "PITT" logo and a comprehensive partnership with adidas; and hosting, for the first time, NCAA Tournament women's basketball first and second-round games.

Individually, this past spring Long was named to the Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Group, which is focused on developing strategies to enhance the academic performance and graduation rates in that sport; he was named one of the Big East Conference's representatives on the 49-member NCAA Division I Management Council, which is involved in legislative issues and oversees groups responsible for academic affairs, eligibility, compliance, championships and competition; he is a member of the Executive Committee of the Division IA Athletic Directors' Association, a group dedicated to the welfare and future success of student-athletes; and in 2004 he was appointed to the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force.

Long's accomplishments and high aspirations during his time at Pitt are not surprising considering his outstanding professional and personal pedigree. He is cut from the mold of winners and has worked in many of the country's highest-profile conferences, including the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East and Atlantic Coast Conference.

Prior to his Pitt appointment, Long served as the senior associate athletics director at the University of Oklahoma for two-and-a-half years. He oversaw all external affairs, including development, marketing/promotions, licensing, media relations, ticket operations, radio/television and SoonerVision productions. He additionally was the primary administrator for football and men's basketball and the sport supervisor for baseball, wrestling and men's and women's golf.

Prior to Oklahoma, Long was the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky University. He significantly improved Eastern Kentucky's athletics infrastructure during his two years with the completion of several facility projects and the formation of viable corporate partnerships and sponsorships.

Long also served a short tenure at Virginia Tech as associate athletics director prior to his Eastern Kentucky post. The majority of his career in collegiate athletics administration, though, was spent at the University of Michigan. Hired by legendary coach and athletics director Bo Schembechler, Long elevated through a number of administrative posts at Michigan before ultimately reaching associate athletics director.

A 1982 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan with a bachelor's degree in economics, Long earned seven varsity letters in football and baseball. He received his master's degree in education from Miami University (Ohio) in 1983 after serving as a graduate assistant football coach.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The couple has two children, Stephanie (13) and Christina (8).

BILL GRAY
Senior Associate Athletic Director

Overseeing many facets of the athletic department is former Razorback standout Bill Gray, who is now in his 20th year as associate athletic director and his first as senior associate after working the previous four as executive associate AD. He supervises event management, football and basketball scheduling, post-season football and basketball, academics and compliance.

Gray, in his 24th year at Arkansas, joined the Razorbacks as recruiting coordinator in 1984. He served in that capacity for four years before moving into full-time administration.

He is involved in capital improvement, scheduling, and football and basketball game management. As recruiting coordinator, he helped build the Razorback Belle program. He was also instrumental in the creation of the Razorback Hall of Honor, now in its 18th year. He was chairman of the committee in charge of the details of Arkansas' football centennial celebration.

Gray lettered three years each in football and baseball at Arkansas while being a captain of the 1964 national championship team. He played quarterback and defensive back, and played in one Cotton Bowl and one Sugar Bowl during his career. His 68-yard toss to Jerry Lamb in the 1963 Sugar Bowl is still a school record for longest pass completion in a bowl game. He led the 1963 Razorbacks in scoring with 30 points on five touchdowns and led the '64 Hogs with three interceptions. Gray also led the 1965 baseball team with a .322 average.

After his college career, he played professional baseball for a year in the Minnesota Twins organization, then served as a graduate assistant football coach under Frank Broyles at Arkansas for a year. He then spent four seasons as a defensive backfield coach for the Oklahoma Sooners.

He left coaching and was in the restaurant business for 12 years in Little Rock. He then served three years as business administrator for Baptist churches in Wichita, Kan., and Shreveport, La., before returning to Arkansas.

A 1966 graduate of Arkansas with a degree in business administration, Gray and his wife Peggy have four children, Ken, Mike, Kristi and Carrie, and four grandchildren, John, Carley, Jacob and Isabella.

JERRY PUFALL
Senior Associate Athletic Director

Jerry Pufall is in his fifth year as associate AD for facilities after serving the previous two years as assistant athletic director. In his 12th year overall with the Razorbacks, he has served as an administrative assistant to baseball and director of special projects since joining the athletic department in the fall of 1994.

Pufall oversees the operation of Razorback facilities, including game day operations, scheduling, upkeep, maintenance and long-range planning for Baum Stadium, Bud Walton Arena, Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, Randal Tyson Track Center, Willard and Pat Walker Pavilion, Dills Indoor Tennis Center, John McDonnell Field and Razorback Cross Country Course.

In 2005, he provided construction management services for the athletic department on the 34,000 square foot strength training facility that was added to the north side of the Willard and Pat Walker Pavilion. The facility houses an 18,000 square-foot weight training area on the third floor and 16,000 square feet of specialty areas for conditioning and the development of agility, speed and quickness on the ground floor. In addition, a new state of the art artificial turf infill system was installed inside the pavilion.

During the 2003-04 season, Pufall served as the construction manager for the renovation of Baum Stadium. The renovation included converting the playing surface from artificial turf to natural grass, the addition of 10 luxury suites, a suite of offices for the coaching staff, and a custom brick superstructure scoreboard system including a LED video display, message center, inning-by-inning stats and control room.

During the summer of 2004, Pufall was responsible for the oversight on the renovation of the outdoor football practice facility, which included the total redesign of the sub grade, installation of a new sand based Bermuda grass field, installation of a new artificial turf infill system and the construction of a retaining wall at the north end of the west practice field.

In addition to his responsibility for facilities, Pufall supervises all technology related areas for the athletic department, including networking, game day operations, scoreboards, sound systems, video boards, laser systems and kiosk video displays in the Jerry Jones/Jim Lindsey and Tommy Boyer Hall of Champions museums.

Under his direction, the athletic department installed a full color laser system in Bud Walton Arena, the only permanent laser system installed in a collegiate basketball arena. The one-of-a-kind system is used for pre-game player introductions and halftime performances.

During the fall of 2000, the athletic department installed the largest LED video display in any sports venue in the world at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. The project, spearheaded by Pufall, brings state-of-the-art video entertainment, game action and instant replays to Razorback fans before, during and after games.

During the fall of 2003, the athletic department added LED video technology to Bud Walton Arena. The project provides a one-of-a-kind custom basketball goal design including four 10mm screens and two 16mm video rings. This installation, supervised by Pufall, provides Razorback fans with video quality found in only a handful of NBA arenas across the country.

Prior to joining the Razorbacks, Pufall served 17 years as the baseball coach, computer science and math instructor at Spooner (Wis.) High School, except for one year when he was a graduate assistant at UA for Norm DeBryn. That one-year, 1987, the Razorbacks advanced to the College World Series.

The Ashland, Wis., native returned to Arkansas in 1994 as an administrative assistant to baseball, overseeing the construction of Baum Stadium at George Cole Field.

A four-sport letterman and an all-conference quarterback and pitcher at Ashland High School, he enjoyed a four-year career at Northland College.

He and his wife, Judy, have two daughters, Julie and Jodie.

TOM DORRE
for Business Affairs

Tom Dorre is entering his sixth year as associate athletic director for business affairs, but he is in his 41st year at the University of Arkansas. Dorre joined the athletic department on Aug. 22, 2002.

In his current position, Dorre oversees business operations, including budgeting and accounting, ticketing, contracts, travel and purchasing.

Before joining the athletic department, Dorre spent the previous 16 years as the associate vice chancellor for finance. In that role over his last five years, he was responsible for UA's tax compliance office and managed the in-house software development team that created and implemented the university's business and administrative strategic information system. The system included applications for budgeting, general ledger, procurement, accounts payable, position control, departmental accounting, payroll, and personnel and electronic approval that met Y2K requirements and eliminated redundant data entry and the use of paper forms.

From 1987-97, Dorre, who earned an MBA from the university in 1980, managed the budget and financial affairs offices, which included all general ledger accounting functions as well as grant and contract compliance, plant and property reporting and compliance, external financial reporting, external audit compliance, and IRS compliance and reporting.

For just more than a year, from May 1993 to June 1994, he served as the interim vice chancellor for finance and administration. During that time, he managed the offices of financial affairs, business affairs, human resources, physical plant, computing service, public safety, financial management and analysis, and treasurer.

Dorre, a 1967 Arkansas graduate with a bachelor's degree in accounting, has been at the university in various positions since he graduated.

He began his career in the controllers office, a position he held from 1967-75. From 1975-81, he was UA's budget director. He worked as associate vice chancellor for administration from 1981 until becoming associate vice chancellor for finance in 1987.

Dorre is currently on the Arkansas Alumni Association Board of Directors, UA's Faculty Athletic Committee and UA's Survey Research Center Policy Board. In the past, he has served on the athletic and financial advisory committees, the Student Fee Review Board and the Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration Search Committee. He has also served two terms on the board of directors of the Economic Opportunity Agency of Washington County, Inc., among others.

Dorre and his wife Connie have one daughter, Kristy, and two grandchildren.

MATT SHANKLIN
Associate Athletic Director
for Marketing and Licensing

In the high profile world where name recognition is everything, selling the Razorbacks and making sure the public is aware of the Razorbacks is the job of Associate Athletic Director for Marketing and Licensing Matt Shanklin.

In his 18th year after joining the Razorback staff from East Carolina University, Shanklin is in charge of all department marketing/promotions, corporate sponsorships, signage sales and advertising sales for Razorback game programs. He serves as game coordinator for football and basketball, and is game manager for all baseball games. He coordinates all sales and programming for the football, basketball and baseball video boards. He is also responsible for ad sales for the athletic department Web site, Hogwired.com, and coordinates Razorzone, which offers audio and video content for Hog fans through Hogwired.com.

He also works closely with the football and basketball radio and television networks. Shanklin was instrumental in establishing the school's first baseball radio network in 1992, one of the nation's largest with more than 25 affiliates statewide. He is responsible for overseeing all football pregame activities, including The AT&T Trough. Shanklin spearheaded the "Nuttin' But Fun" logo campaign for the 1999 and 2000 Razorback football seasons. He was also instrumental in developing the Hogpen, a tailgating area for fans at Baum Stadium, the Hog Spa at Baum Stadium and the RBI Girls.

In September 1998, Shanklin became the university's licensing coordinator. His duties include coordination of all apparel, promotional and novelty licensing. Since taking over licensing duties, revenues in that area have increased annually, more than doubling, under his direction. In the summer of 2001, Shanklin oversaw the development and implementation of new Razorback logos. Since the launch of the new logos, licensing revenues have increased every quarter.

In 2000, Shanklin secured an exclusive telecommunications sponsorship with AT&T/Cingular Wireless, one of the largest sponsorship deals in collegiate athletics. The deal provides Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium with one of the largest video boards of any sports venue in the world.

Since 2001, he has also worked as general manager of Sports Shows, Inc., which sells, produces and distributes The Houston Nutt Show, The John Pelphrey Show and Razorback Classics.

Shanklin was assistant marketing director at East Carolina University for a year before coming to Arkansas. He had served as an intern at Arkansas for five months before joining the ECU staff.

A 1984 graduate of South Mecklenburg (N.C.) High School in Charlotte, N.C., where he lettered in baseball and soccer, Shanklin earned his degree in communications from North Carolina-Wilmington in 1988.

A graduate of Ohio University's highly respected sports administration program, Shanklin earned a master's degree in that program in the fall of 1989.

An avid golfer, Shanklin married the former Missy Emmerson of Jacksonville, Texas, in 2003. She has a daughter, Jordan, 12, and they are also the parents of Barbara Blake, two, and Isabella Grace, eight months.

KEVIN TRAINOR
for External Affairs

In his 13th year with the Razorbacks, Kevin Trainor is in his first as associate athletic director for external affairs after working the previous four as assistant athletic director for sports information. Trainor, who is in his eighth year heading UA's sports information office, joined the Razorbacks in July of 1995 and served three years as assistant director before being promoted to associate in 1998 and to the sports information director's post in 2000.

As associate athletic director for external affairs, Trainor oversees the media and public relations effort for Arkansas' eight men's sports locally, regionally and nationally. He is responsible for developing and implementing public relations strategies for the athletic department. In addition to his media relations duties, Trainor assists in the development of future football and basketball game schedules, including the coordination of regional and national television arrangements. He also serves as a department liaison to the Faculty Athletic Committee.

Trainor is the primary media contact for the Razorback football program. During his tenure in that position, Arkansas has boasted nine All-Americans, including 2006 Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden and 2003 Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award finalist Shawn Andrews. In 2006, he was recognized for his contributions to college football by the All-American Football Foundation with the Scoop Hudgens Outstanding Sports Information Director Award.

Trainor coordinates the day-to-day operation of the sports information department as well as game-day management for football. He also oversees administrative matters, including the production of media guides, game programs and management of the department's Web site, Hogwired.com.

In his role as associate SID, Trainor worked closely with football and served as the primary contact for the 2000 SEC Tournament champion Arkansas basketball squad. He also served as the color analyst on the Razorback Baseball Radio Network for five years. In his previous three seasons, Trainor was the media relations point man for Arkansas' nationally ranked tennis and baseball programs.

Before joining the Razorbacks full-time, Trainor served a year internship with the Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office where he assisted in coordinating publicity for 11 of the conference's 19 sports.

Trainor served a four-year stint as a student in the UA publicity office working as the swimming and diving contact for three years. He was part of the media relations team which handled the 1994 national champion Arkansas basketball team at the Final Four in Charlotte. He also served as publicity coordinator for the 1992 National Baseball Congress World Series in Wichita, Kan.

His collegiate experience includes 41 conference championships. He served as meet director for the 2006 SEC Outdoor Track and Field Championships at John McDonnell Field and as the assistant media coordinator for the 1995 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament. He has worked on the event management staffs of 13 Cotton Bowl games and the 1995 USF&G Sugar Bowl. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association of America (USBWAA).

Trainor earned his bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Arkansas in 1994. He also earned his master's degree from the UA in 2005.

Trainor and his wife, the former Ruth Whitehead, reside in Fayetteville and are the parents of Emma, six, and Ellie, three. The Fredonia, Kan., native is the brother of former Arkansas All-American placekicker Kendall Trainor.

LOUIS CAMPBELL
for Internal Operations

A former Arkansas assistant coach, Louis Campbell is back in administration as the assistant athletic director for internal operations. In 2006, he was back on the field as secondary coach before going back into administration this season. In 10 of the previous 11 years, he was Arkansas' director of football operations.

A native of Hamburg, Ark., Campbell joined the coaching staff as defensive secondary coach on Jan. 31, 1990, after one season with the National Football League's Tampa Bay

Buccaneers as a defensive assistant. He served eight seasons as a Razorback assistant coach under Jack Crowe, Joe Kines and Danny Ford, adding the title of assistant head coach under Ford prior to the 1996 season. Campbell switched to director of football operations prior to the 1998 season.

In 2006, Campbell helped Arkansas win the SEC's Western Division title, play in the SEC Championship Game and earn a spot in the Capital One Bowl. Arkansas finished 10-4 and ranked No. 15 in the nation.

Prior to last season, his last assignment on the field came at the end of the Razorbacks' 1999 regular season. When Keith Burns' departure from the UA coaching staff to take over as head coach at Tulsa left the Hogs without a defensive secondary coach for their Cotton Bowl meeting with Texas, Nutt asked Campbell to fill the void. In that game, he helped direct an Arkansas defensive unit that held the Longhorns to negative rushing yards (minus-27) for the first time in that program's history as the Razorbacks posted a 27-6 victory.

Campbell began his coaching career in 1973 at Alabama under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. After two years as a graduate assistant, Campbell was elevated to full-time status on the Crimson Tide coaching staff. Two years later in 1977, Campbell joined the SMU coaching staff as defensive secondary coach. He returned to Alabama prior to the 1980 season and coached defensive backs there through the 1984 campaign. Campbell helped the Crimson Tide to eight bowl games in his two tours of duty at the Tuscaloosa, Ala., school. The 1973 squad finished 11-

1-0 and earned a No. 1 final ranking from United Press International.

In 1985 Campbell began a four-year stint as defensive coordinator and defensive secondary coach at Oklahoma State, joining quarterbacks and receivers coach Houston Nutt on the Cowboys' coaching staff. He helped the Cowboys to three bowl appearances during his four seasons.

Campbell has accompanied teams to 19 bowl games in his 30 years as a collegiate coach and football administrator, including eight in his 15 years at Arkansas.

A four-sport letterman at Hamburg High School, Campbell was a three-year letterman as a defensive back at Arkansas. His 12 interceptions still rank in a tie for third on the UA career list and his three interceptions against Tennessee in the 1971 Liberty Bowl are a Razorback bowl record. He earned his undergraduate degree in education at UA in 1973.

Born Feb. 20, 1950, Campbell is married to the former Ila Murphy. The couple has a daughter, Caroline, and two sons, Shepard and Steadman. Caroline is a senior at Oklahoma State, Shepard coaches defensive backs at Tennessee-Martin and Steadman is the defensive backs coach at the University of North Alabama.

MARVIN CASTON
Assistant Athletic Director
for Compliance

Former Arkansas fullback Marvin Caston is in his first year as assistant athletic director for compliance but his third year overall heading up the compliance office.

A four-year football letterman for the Razorbacks, Caston worked as a graduate assistant in the business and compliance offices at Arkansas before taking a full-time compliance position at the University of South Florida. He returned to Arkansas on April 28, 2005.

The 1999 Arkansas graduate spent three years at USF. He was a compliance assistant at the Tampa, Fla., university in 2003 before being promoted and serving as compliance coordinator the last two years.

At South Florida, he maintained the day-to-day operation of the compliance office, served as the liaison between the athletic department and the office of financial aid, oversaw all student-athlete employment opportunities and reviewed paperwork received from student-athletes relating to Conference-USA and the NCAA.

Caston lettered at UA from 1996-99, playing on Houston Nutt's first two teams that were 9-3 in 1998 and 8-4 in '99. The 1998 team played Michigan in the Florida Citrus Bowl and ended the year ranked No. 16. The 1999 squad beat Texas in the Cotton Bowl and finished the season ranked No. 17.

Caston earned his bachelor's in social work in 1999 and was a member of the Southeastern Conference's Academic Honor Roll his senior year.

The Winnsboro, La., native worked as a graduate assistant in the business office in 2001 and the compliance office in 2002 while earning his master's in adult education. He also served as Chairman of the "A" Club Membership Drive and was Co-Director of the Athletic Prevention Programming & Leadership Education (APPLE) Program.

An adjunct instructor for the School of Social Work, Caston is a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators and the Black Coaches Association and serves on a host of committees within the University community. Marvin is married to the former Tommi J. Williams and the couple have a son, Thomas Marvin, two.

PAUL KIRKPATRICK
Assistant Athletic Director for Student Life and Academic Support

In his second stint at the University of Arkansas, Paul Kirkpatrick is in his 14th year as the director of student life and academic support. In his previous stint, he was an academic counselor and dorm manager for the athletic department for three years.

His duties include overseeing the Office of Student Life and Academic Support system as well as serving as a staff liaison with the academic community.

Kirkpatrick also spent a year as compliance coordinator and academic coordinator at the University of Nevada-Reno.

He first came to Arkansas in the fall of 1985 to attend graduate school. He served two-and-a-half years as hall manager at Bud Walton Hall, the athletic dorm, and three years in Arkansas' academic-athletic support system.

Born June 30, 1954, at Texarkana, Ark., Kirkpatrick graduated from Magnolia High School in 1972. He was an all-district football player and also earned letters in basketball and track.

He earned a football scholarship at Southern Arkansas and graduated with a degree in political science in 1976. He then served as a captain in the Army for six years, spending the last five years as a helicopter pilot.

Kirkpatrick went into investment banking before deciding to enroll at Arkansas. He had done additional graduate work in human resources management at Pepperdine while in the Army.

He and his wife, Lisa, have a blended family of four children, Erin, Rachel, Amanda Arnold and Ryan Arnold. He is also the proud grandfather of Blake Andrew Wilson, Elijah Aron Helf and Wiley Jude Helf.

JUSTIN MALAND
Assistant Athletic Director – Facilities

Justin Maland is in his first year as assistant athletic director for facilities and seventh year as a member of Arkansas' facility team. His areas of responsibility include oversight of all Razorback athletic facilities, including budgeting, game day operations, scheduling, upkeep, maintenance, long-range planning, daily facility operations, contracting services with outside vendors and coordination of special events.

Over the past three years, Maland has provided management services in several athletic facility renovation projects, including the Raymond Miller Hall of Champions, Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center, Walker Pavilion and Broyles Athletic Center. He also assisted in construction management of the 2007 Baum Stadium expansion and new Razorback Foundation Ticket Office building.

The Harrison, Ark., native was a catcher at Hendrix College where he earned his business economics degree with an emphasis in computer studies in 1999 before coming to Arkansas and serving two years with the Arkansas baseball program as a graduate administrative assistant. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports management in July of 2001.

Maland, 30, is married to the former Sarah Parnell of Booneville and they are the parents of Macy Jane, one.

TONI BAHN
Television Show Coordinator /
Walton Arena Assistant Manager

Toni Bahn is in her seventh year as the Houston Nutt and John Pelphey television shows coordinator and assistant Walton Arena manager. Before joining the staff on a full-time basis, she worked the previous year-and-a-half in the athletic department as a graduate assistant.

As assistant manager she serves as the primary on-site contact person for the arena and is responsible for scheduling all arena events and activities in coordination with the athletic department and outside users. Her guest relations responsibilities include responding to the needs of the 47 basketball suite holders, season ticket holders, campus and community usage requests and providing guided tours for local and regional groups.

In addition to her arena duties, the Jacksonville, Ark., native serves as the coordinator for "The John Pelphey Show" and "The Houston Nutt Show." As coordinator, she secures and maintains sponsorships, oversees the production of advertising, and plans and supervises hospitality events throughout the seasons.

Bahn earned her bachelor's in communication and political science from Arkansas in 2000. She will graduate this year with her master's degree in communication.

She is married to Chris Bahn, the Northwest Arkansas editor for the ArkansasSports360.com magazine and Web site, and a graduate of Arkansas State University.

Born, April 27, 1978, Bahn, a former Razorback Belle, was an honor graduate of Jacksonville High School.

CHUCK BARRETT
Director of Broadcasting

Chuck Barrett is in his first year as a member of the athletic department after joining the staff on July 1. Arkansas' director of broadcasting handles radio play-by-play duties for football and baseball. He is also the host of The Houston Nutt Show, the host of the Razorback Classics television show, a speaker at Razorback Club meetings and he handles all voice-over work for the athletic department, in addition to other duties.

Barrett, who is from Clarksville, Ark., has been a part of the Arkansas Razorback Sports Network football radio broadcasts for 14 years in a variety of roles. He has handled Razorback baseball radio play-by-play for the past 16 seasons.

Academic Counselor

Michael Beaumont, a graduate of the University of Central Arkansas and Arkansas State, joined the staff on Oct. 1, 2006, as an academic counselor for men's athletics working primarily with football.

Prior to moving to Fayetteville, Beaumont was a football and baseball coach at Lincoln High School and also served as assistant athletic director in addition to teaching. As the head baseball coach, he led his team to the 1-AAA conference championship in 2004 and was named conference Coach of the Year. The defensive coordinator on the high school football staff, he was the head coach of the junior high squad and guided Lincoln to the 2005 conference title.

Baumont served as the head video coordinator at UCA in Conway during the 1999 football season while completing his degree in health education. He then moved to Mountain View (Ark.) High School to work as the defensive and offensive line coach for the 2000 and 2001 seasons.

Married to the former Susan Patton, Beaumont, who also earned a bachelor's in exercise science and physiology from Arkansas State in 1992, and his wife have two daughters – Monica, 10, and Rachel, six.

TIM CHENEY
Equipment Manager

When it comes to ordering, maintaining and distributing equipment, Arkansas can rely on the experience of Tim Cheney.

Entering his 18th year as equipment manager, Cheney is in charge of all aspects of Razorback equipment. He and his staff handle the distribution to athletes and coaches, any necessary repair, and all ordering and laundering. They are also responsible for coordinating with the coaching staff to ensure all required practice accessories are where they should be for appropriate drills and workouts.

After the team has left the field and locker room, the equipment room staff is still around, getting everything ready for the next day.

Cheney was involved with the Razorback program long before he became equipment manager. He worked four years as a student trainer for Dean Weber, working all four seasons with football as well as a year with baseball. He became an assistant in the equipment room before assuming his current position in 1990.

He has worked numerous bowl games at Arkansas, including four Cotton bowls, the Capital One Bowl, the Orange Bowl, the Florida Citrus Bowl, the Holiday Bowl, two Liberty bowls, the CarQuest Bowl, two Independence bowls, the Music City Bowl and the Las Vegas Bowl.

Born May 26, 1966, Cheney was a student athletic trainer at Pine Bluff White Hall High School for three years before graduating in the spring of 1984. He and his wife, Tracey, have one daughter, Tye, 12, and one son, Tripp, eight.

Dr. Flint Harris is entering his fourth year as a full-time academic counselor, but he joined the staff after working two years as a graduate assistant in the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center.

In his full-time position, Harris monitors the academic progress of student-athletes in track, baseball and tennis. He conducts weekly meetings with each athlete, e-mails their professors and coaches, and monitors their class schedules. During the spring and fall semesters of 2006 and the fall of 2005, Harris helped guide the track, tennis and baseball teams to the three highest team grade point averages on campus.

Harris, who worked in the student life and academic support office as a graduate assistant from February 2002 until becoming a full-time staff member in August 2004, graduated with honors from the University of Arkansas in 2002 with a bachelor's in education. He received his master's with an emphasis in sports management in 2003 and earned his doctorate in May of 2005 in adult education.

Harris graduate from Oakridge High School in Arlington, Texas, in 1998. He is married to the former Rebekah Clemons of North Little Rock.

RODGER HUNTER
Student Life Coordinator

Rodger Hunter is in his eighth year at Arkansas after becoming UA's student life coordinator on Oct. 31, 2000. Hunter serves as a liaison with the departments of financial aid and residence life in assisting student-athletes with applications, federal aid, scholarship money, housing and meal plan contracts, and dorm assignments, and he helps develop programs which assist in their personal development.

As an administrator of the CHAMPS/Life Skills program, he coordinates programs which will benefit student-athletes in several areas, including values clarification, understanding diversity, personal health, developing self-esteem, stress management, interpersonal communication, media relations, financial planning, sports agents, alcohol and drug education, gambling and social development. He also provides UA's student-athletes with community service opportunities.

Hunter, who played football at Oklahoma State from 1977-78 before transferring to Arkansas State and earning his bachelor's in broadcasting, came to Arkansas after working as an outreach coordinator at Freedom House, a drug and alcohol treatment center in Russellville, Ark., for four years. His duties included serving as a facility manager, detox specialist, and a residential and outpatient counselor.

He was named the 1998 Arkansas Counselor of the Year. He currently serves as the contact person for coaches and student-athletes for all judicial issues and assists with the recruitment of prospective student-athletes on recruiting weekends and when prospective recruits are on campus.

An all-state performer in football and basketball as a senior at North Little Rock Ole Main High School, he made the USFL's Memphis Showboats in 1983 but was released before the first game.

Hunter has four grown children, including former Razorback fullback Justin Slaughter.

In 1994, he was the first student president of the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association. In 2002, he was honored by the National Athletic Trainers' Association for outstanding public relations efforts during 2001.

Linson got his start in athletic training at the Parker Orthopaedic, Spine and Sports Medicine clinic in Van Buren, working during the summers of 1990-92.

ROBERT MANN
Director of Retail Operations

Robert Mann is entering his fifth year as the manager of Hog Heaven, but he's run UA's store for nine total years.

He started at Hog Heaven as a student in 1994 and became manager after earning his bachelor's in marketing management from UA in 1995. In 2000, he moved to Florida to manage the Gator Gear portion of the University of Florida Bookstore, but returned to Hog Heaven in 2003.

His responsibilities include oversight of all operations of the store, including hiring and training staff. He also oversees all Razorback retail operations for all sports in all UA facilities.

A native of Bryant, Ark., Mann graduated from Bryant High School in 1980. He and his wife Elizabeth have a son, Matthew.

JOSH MAXSON
Assistant Sports Information Director

Josh Maxson is in his third full year as assistant sports information director after joining the UA staff on Jan. 19, 2005.

The primary contact for UA's baseball program, Maxson is also the primary contact for Razorback golf and a secondary contact for football. He is the athletic department's printing coordinator and is the editor of Game Day, Arkansas' official football game program. He also assists with the department's official Web site, Hogwired.com.

Maxson joined the Arkansas staff after spending two years as an assistant sports information director at the University of Miami. He served as the primary baseball contact for the Hurricanes, including coordinating media coverage for two trips (2003, 2004) to the College World Series. He was also the secondary contact for Miami's nationally ranked football program, including its trip to the Bowl Championship Series national championship game in the 2003 Fiesta Bowl. In addition, he worked the 2004 Orange Bowl and the 2004 Peach Bowl with the Hurricanes.

Prior to working at Miami, Maxson spent a year-and-a-half in the sports information office at the University of Nebraska. He assisted with day-to-day football responsibilities while serving as the primary contact for men's gymnastics in 2002 and women's gymnastics in 2003. He was part of the Cornhuskers' media relations staff that worked the 2002 Rose Bowl, the BCS national championship game.

Maxson worked as a student assistant in the media relations office at Oklahoma State University from 1998-2001. Maxson was the primary contact for the Cowboys' highly-ranked wrestling program for two years while also working with the women's track and field program.

Born April 26, 1978, Maxson earned his bachelor's degree in public relations from Oklahoma State in 2001. He is married to the former Jana Spence of Birmingham, Ala.

Montague is a 2001 graduate of Greenbrier, Ark., High School.

JEAN NAIL
Spirit Group Coordinator

Jean Nail is in her 26th year as spirit group coordinator for the Razorbacks. She coordinates the selection and performance schedule of the Razorback cheerleaders, pom squad, RBI girls and mascots.

As coordinator of the spirit groups and the Razorback mascots, Nail paces her student spirit leaders through daily practices in preparation for Razorback football, basketball, baseball and tennis events, and LadyBack basketball, gymnastics and volleyball events. The groups also appear at various university functions throughout the year and are active in summer camp seminars and competitions. Under her direction, the Razorback spirit groups have won numerous competitive awards and may compete in both cheerleading and dance team national competitions this fall.

Nail is married to Mike Nail, the play-by-play "Voice of the Basketball Razorbacks" for the last 26 seasons. Nail received her bachelor's in 1986 and master's in 1987 in education from Arkansas.

Jean and Mike have two daughters, Michelle (Mrs. Doug) Kehn and Elsa (Mrs. Scott) Salrin, and are the proud grandparents of John Michael Kehn, 12, and Aubrey Anne Kehn, nine.

MOLLY O'MARA
Assistant Sports Information Director

Molly O'Mara is in her second year as an assistant director of sports information at the University of Arkansas. She joined the staff in June 2006.

O'Mara serves as the primary contact for the Razorback cross country, track and field, and tennis programs. She also assists in the day-to-day responsibilities with football. In her first year, Arkansas won SEC titles in cross country and indoor track.

Prior to her arrival in Fayetteville, O'Mara served as a media relations assistant at Texas Tech University where she was the primary contact for volleyball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field, and men's and women's tennis. Additionally, she also assisted with game-day preparations for football, men's and women's basketball, and baseball.

Working with the Red Raider track program, O'Mara was the assistant meet director at the Texas Tech indoor and outdoor tracks meets. During her time in Lubbock, O'Mara coordinated the media responsibilities for 2004 Olympians Jonathan Johnson (USA) and Andrae Williams (Bahamas), and the 2005 Big 12 Champion men's squad.

O'Mara, a native of Melrose, Ma., is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and the Track and Field Writers of America (TAFWA). She got her start in sports information as a student assistant at the University of Massachusetts where she received her bachelor's degree in sport management from the Isenberg School of Management in 2004.

DONITA RITCHIE
Associate for Administration

Since 1979, Donita Ritchie has served as associate for administration to Athletic Director Frank Broyles with the exception of a year-and-a-half absence during which she lived in Austin, Texas, where she was executive assistant to the senior partner and executive vice president of one of the most prestigious architectural firms in the state.

A 1968 graduate of the University of Arkansas, Ritchie received the senior scholar award as the top honor graduate of the College of Education.

Ritchie is in charge of assisting the athletic director in the daily operation of the athletic department as well as serving in a public relations capacity. She plays a key role in the department's communication with leaders of athletics and business communities throughout the state and nation. Additionally, under Ritchie's direction is the coordination and scheduling of the university's flight department. She also coordinates the selection of furnishings and décor for the athletic offices and facilities.

Ritchie and her husband Buddy have four sons, Will and Winston Hubbard, and Steve and Mike Ritchie. Will and his wife Emily call the Hogs in the north Dallas area along with Winston and his wife Vicki, and their two junior cheerleaders – Jessi, 11, and Reagan, eight. Steve and his wife Dee Ann live in Rogers. Mike, an academic coordinator at Arkansas, and his wife Tara live in Springdale and are the parents of Carley, two.

MIKE RITCHIE
Academic Counselor

In his second stint at Arkansas, Mike Ritchie rejoined the student life and academic support staff in 2004 after spending the 2003-04 year at East Carolina as director of football operations.

Before going to ECU, he was an academic counselor at UA for four years. He first joined the staff in 1999 after working as the head men's basketball coach at Arkansas-Monticello.

As a counselor, he provides resources and assists student-athletes in their pursuit of a degree. He also works as a liaison between student-athletes and faculty members as well as assisting with on-campus recruiting visits.

Ritchie began his career in collegiate athletics at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech, where he served as a women's assistant basketball coach for four seasons. During his tenure, the Golden Suns won the 1991 NAIA national title.

He was the women's basketball head coach at Hendrix College for two years and was named the 1994 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. He was also an assistant at Arkansas State for a year while working as a physical education instructor at the university.

Named women's head basketball coach at Christian Brothers University in 1995, he coached two seasons at the Memphis, Tenn., school, guiding his teams to back-to-back runner-up finishes in the NAIA Southeast Region. His 16-victory inaugural season was the most wins at the school in 12 years and helped him earn the first of two Tennessee Collegiate Athletic Conference (TCAC) Coach of the Year honors.

He served one season as the women's associate head coach at Arkansas-Monticello before taking over the men's program in 1998. Inheriting a team that had won a total of nine games in the three previous seasons, Ritchie led the Boll Weevils to nine wins and a spot in their first Gulf South Conference Tournament. His squad responded with an upset of top-seeded host Lincoln Memorial.

Ritchie earned a pair of degrees in health and physical education from Arkansas Tech with a bachelor's in 1991 and a master's in 1993. He is currently pursuing a doctorate in adult and vocational education at UA.

He is married to the former Tara Ammons of Greenville, N.C., and they are the parents of Carley Roselynn, two.

MARK SCOBEY
Ticket Manager

Charged with the supervision of ticket operations for all University of Arkansas men's athletic department-related sporting events, Mark Scobey is in his 31st season with the Razorbacks.

During his tenure at the University of Arkansas, Scobey has assisted with ticket sales for a wide assortment of events on the Fayetteville campus, including SEC and NCAA hosted championship events in baseball, tennis and track. He has also been affiliated with 20 post-season football bowl games, the 1995, 2002 and 2006 SEC football championship games, and 23 post-season basketball tournament teams, including the 1978, 1990, 1994 and 1995 Final Four clubs.

In December 2002, Scobey worked with Paciolan Systems, Inc., as the project manager for a major software upgrade of the athletic department ticketing system. The addition of on-line ticket sales is now 35% of ticket volume and has given the ticket office staff more time for customer service.

Scobey and his staff are on this year's SEC Ticket Committee, which handles allotments for the SEC Basketball Tournament, and they may also work the SEC football championship game.

Scobey joined the UA athletic staff in 1977 as an assistant athletic ticket manager and became ticket manager in 1983.

A native of Warren, Ark., Scobey lives in historic Eureka Springs.

JASON SUITT
Marketing Coordinator

Jason Suitt is in his seventh year as marketing coordinator and his ninth year overall in the marketing office after working his first two years as an intern.

A 1998 graduate of South Carolina with a bachelor's in sports administration, Suitt coordinates game program advertisement sales, assists in game management and promotional material design, helps maintain the athletic department's Web site, Hogwired.com, coordinates the AT&T Trough tailgating area and serves as assistant general manager of the Razorback Baseball Radio Network.

Prior to joining UA's staff, he worked as an intern in the marketing and sports information offices at The Citadel in Charleston, S.C.

JOE SWINGLE
Director of Operations/Facilities

Joe Swingle is in his third full year as UA's director of internal operations/facilities after joining the staff on Jan. 3, 2005.

His responsibilities include all areas of facility management, focusing on managing and scheduling the facility operations staff and the day-to-day operations of the facilities. His duties also include preparing the athletic facilities for all Razorback and any special events.

Before coming to Arkansas, Swingle was the director of event management at Iowa State for two years. He was assistant director of game operations at the University of Missouri from 2000 until 2002.

He graduated from Missouri Southern with a bachelor's in physical education in 1994 and earned his master's in physical education from Arkansas Tech in 1997. He also did doctoral work at UA from 1997 through 2000.

A native of Carthage, Mo., he is married to the former Karen Hoepfl of Paragould, Ark. They are the parents of Molly, four, and Jack, two.

MARK TAYLOR
Assistant Equipment Manager

As assistant equipment manager, Mark Taylor plays a key role in providing Arkansas with one of the most experienced staffs around. Entering his 17th year with the Razorbacks, Taylor and equipment manager Tim Cheney have a combined 33 years of experience.

The equipment room staff handles the distribution to athletes and coaches, any necessary repair, and all ordering and laundering. They are also responsible for coordinating with the coaching staff to ensure all required practice accessories are where they should be for appropriate drills and workouts. After the team has left the field and locker room, the equipment room staff is still around, getting everything ready for the next day.

Taylor joined the athletic department in 1991 after serving in the equipment room at Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, La. He has made nine bowl trips with the Razorbacks, including the 1991 Independence Bowl, the 1995 CarQuest Bowl, the 1999 Florida Citrus Bowl, the 2000 Cotton Bowl, the 2000 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2002 Cotton Bowl, the 2002 Music City Bowl, the 2003 Independence Bowl and the 2007 Capital One Bowl.

An all-district football and basketball player at Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Taylor worked in the equipment room at Ouachita Baptist for four years while working on his degree. He graduated from high school in 1983 and earned his degree in health and physical education from Ouachita in 1988.

He spent his first year out of college in private business before accepting a position at Nicholls State. He earned his master's degree in education and supervision from Nicholls State while working for the equipment department.

Taylor and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Anna, 13, and Abby, nine.

FRED VORSANGER
Walton Arena Manager

Managing Bud Walton Arena is a full-time job that requires a capable person to handle the many complexities and intricacies associated with operating a 19,200-seat arena. Fred Vorsanger assumed that responsibility when he accepted Frank Broyles' invitation in 1992 to become the first manager of Bud Walton Arena. Vorsanger is entering his 16th year in that position.

In conjunction with the athletic department and outside users, he oversees all arena special events and activities. Customer service responsibilities include responding to the needs of 47 private suite holders and all season ticket holders. He is also responsible for the building's mechanical operations and preventative maintenance.

A veteran of higher education, a long-time employee of the university, a friend of the Razorbacks and a vice-president emeritus of the University of Arkansas, Vorsanger's name is listed as director on the letterhead of many area firms and organizations. He is a director of Arvest Bank and Trust, was a director of Tyson Foods, Inc., from 1977 to 2001, and is a director and chairman of Ozark Guidance Foundation, a member of the Northwest Arkansas Business Council, an advising director of Habitat for Humanity and a former trustee of the Council on Aging Foundation. He continues to serve as a director of the Area Agency on Aging of Northwest Arkansas. Vorsanger is currently chairman of the Area Health Education Center Advisory Board. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Heart Association, and was named citizen of the year in 2003. He was also a 2005 Eagle Award recipient from the Washington Regional Foundation.

A former alderman and Mayor of the city of Fayetteville, Vorsanger continues to be active in civic affairs. A Rotarian for 36 years, he served in 1997 as Governor for District 6110 covering parts of Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri. The Arkansas Alumni Association honored him at Homecoming in 1998 by naming him an honorary alumnus of the university. He also serves on the university steering committee for the Campaign for the Twenty-first Century, and is co-chair of the North Arkansas Region.

A native of Calumet City, Ill., Vorsanger received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Indiana University. He earned an MBA from George Washington University and did advanced study at the University of Arkansas. Vorsanger and his wife, Doreen, have three children and five grandchildren.

DEAN WEBER
Director of Athletic Training

Director of Athletic Training Dean Weber is truly the dean of the football department. Other than Athletic Director Frank Broyles, Weber has been associated with UA football longer than anyone else. The 2007 football season is his 35th with the Razorbacks.

Weber's duties include serving as head trainer for the football Hogs, overseeing operations in the athletic training room, administration, coordinating the complex travel schedule and details associated with Arkansas' football team, and organizing the 160-plus team travel party's travel and nutritional needs while away from campus.

A 1998 inductee into the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame and a 2000 inductee into the UA Sports Hall of Honor, Weber was an athletic trainer for the United States Olympic Team at the 1984 games. He has served on the training staff at three National Sports Festivals.

Also a member of the Southwest Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame, he is noted for his work with athletic shoes as they apply to playing surfaces and his research on turf toe injuries. In 1998, Weber and former assistant Kevin Pitts were recognized by the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association as the state's Athletic Trainers of the Year.

Weber joined the Arkansas staff in March 1973, after serving as assistant athletic trainer at North Carolina. He worked for the Tar Heels for five years before moving to Fayetteville.

His career as an athletic trainer began in high school at Fairfax, Va. He continued in his college days at Bridgewater (Va.) College, where he graduated in 1967 with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

He has participated in 25 bowl games as a trainer, including every Razorback bowl game since the 1976 Cotton Bowl. In addition, Weber has twice been on the training staff at the Japan Bowl and he worked with teams that went to the NCAA Final Four twice while he was at North Carolina.

Weber has two children, Matt and Ben, and 11 grandchildren, Drew, Taylor, Tylor, Caleb, Spencer, Abby, Kendall, Mason, Emily, Tyler Hays and Connor.

JASON WILFAWN
Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

A former graduate assistant at Arkansas, Jason Wilfawn returned to Fayetteville and is now in his third full year as a fulltime member of the strength and conditioning staff, working primarily with football and track.

Wilfawn returned to Arkansas after spending the previous three years as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Evansville, where he supervised the conditioning of all 14 Purple Aces varsity programs.

A member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified, he worked with both men and women's sports at Arkansas in 2000 and 2001. He helped write and implement in-season training programs for all men's athletic programs, helped produce UA's summer strength and conditioning manual, and assisted in proper spotting and lifting techniques.

A 1997 graduate of Central College in Pella, Iowa, with a bachelor's in elementary education, he coached football and supervised the weight room at Clarinda (Iowa) High School for three years before going to UA.

He is married to Angie, and they have three sons, Quentin, eight, Kortlen, five, and Keegan, three.

MATT WOLFE
Assistant Video Coordinator

Matt Wolfe is in his first full year as Arkansas' assistant video coordinator after joining the staff on Jan. 2, 2007.

In his position, he shoots video for the video boards at several home venues as well as shooting coaches video and producing highlight videos.

Before joining the UA staff, he was a production assistant at Network Video Productions in Fayetteville for almost six years.

THE RAZORBACK FOUNDATION

CHUCK DICUS
Razorback Foundation President

Former Razorback All-American receiver Chuck Dicus is in his 17th year as President of The Razorback Foundation, Inc. He joined the Foundation after working in the investment business in Little Rock.

As president, Dicus heads up the all-important effort of fund-raising for the Foundation. Those funds help the Razorbacks maintain a position among the nation's elite collegiate athletic programs.

A two-time All-American (1969 and 1970), Dicus finished his career with 118 receptions for 1,854 yards and 16 touchdowns.

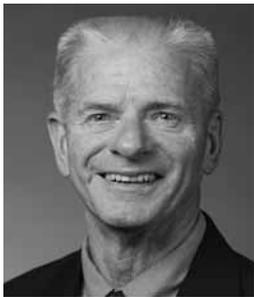

He was the most valuable player of the 1969 Sugar Bowl when his 12 catches for 169 yards and a touchdown helped the Razorbacks defeat previously unbeaten Georgia, 16-2.

He earned his undergraduate degree in business from Arkansas in 1971 and was drafted by the San Diego Chargers. He spent two years with San Diego and one with the Pittsburgh Steelers before leaving pro football.

His football achievements landed him a spot in the Razorback Hall of Honor, on the Arkansas All-Century football team and in the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame. In 2000, he was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

He is a past president of the Southeastern Conference Athletic Development Directors, a conference organization with its primary focus on fundraising.

Dicus and his wife, Cathy, live in Fayetteville. He has three sons, Neal, and twins, Charles and Jonathan.

NORM DEBRIYN
Vice President

After spending 33 years as head coach of the Razorback baseball team, Norm DeBriyn switched playing fields in 2002 and is now in his sixth year as vice president of the Razorback Foundation.

DeBriyn stepped down as head coach following the 2002 season in which he guided the Razorbacks to the program's first-ever NCAA Super Regional appearance. In 33 years as head coach, DeBriyn amassed a record of 1,161-650-6, which ranked him as the 14th-winningest coach in Division I history.

A native of Ashland, Wis., he guided the Razorbacks to four NCAA College World Series appearances, 15 NCAA post-season berths and three conference championships. DeBriyn earned six Southwest Conference Coach of the Year awards and one Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year honor.

Despite the mind-boggling numbers, the biggest testament to DeBriyn's contribution to the Razorback baseball program stands less than a half-mile from the Arkansas campus.

Baum Stadium at George Cole Field was named college baseball's best facility in a 1998 survey by Baseball America. The $8.9 million home of the Razorbacks was made possible by generous donations from the Charlie Baum, and Willard and Pat Walker families.

DeBriyn and his wife, the former Caroline Mock of Honolulu, Hawaii, have been married for 36 years. They have two sons, Todd and Marty, and one daughter, Carrie Jo.

HAROLD HORTON
Vice President

In his 10th year as vice president of the Razorback Foundation is Harold Horton. He has played, coached and served as an administrator in the UA Athletic Department for nearly half his life.

Horton moved to the foundation from his position as director of football operations, a title he held for four years, after serving as recruiting coordinator for the four previous years. In his capacity with The Razorback Foundation, Inc., he has continued to serve as executive director of the Razorback A Club (former letter winners).

A member of the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor and the University of Central Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame, he is a native of DeWitt. He played on Frank Broyles' first three Southwest Conference championship teams at Arkansas, lettering in 1959, 1960 and 1961, and played in the Gator, Cotton and Sugar bowls. His teams combined for a 25-8 record. Horton was elected captain in 1961 in a vote of his teammates. In 2003, he received an Outstanding American Award presented by the College Football Foundation.

After earning his degree in physical education in 1962, Horton was the head football coach at Bald Knob (Ark.) and Forrest City (Ark.) high schools for three years each.

Broyles hired Horton as linebackers coach in 1968. He moved to the defensive line in 1977 and served in that capacity for four seasons under Lou Holtz.

Following the 1980 season he went into private business for a year but returned to football in 1981 when he became head coach at Central Arkansas. His teams were 74-12-5, won two national championships and qualified for the NAIA playoffs six times. The 1983, 1987 and 1988 clubs were all undefeated at 10-0. He was named NAIA National Coach of the Year in 1983.

In 1999, Anthony Lucas was the first recipient of the Harold Horton Award recognizing excellence on the field and in the classroom.

Horton and his wife, Betty, have two children, Tim and Holly. Tim is the running backs coach at the University of Arkansas and is a former Razorback wide receiver. Tim and his wife Lauren have a daughter, Caroline, and a son, William Jackson. Holly (Mrs. Brian Banister), has two sons, Bentley and Barrett, and a daughter, Charlotte.

SEC FIRST IN NCAA TOURNEY RECORD AND WINS

With an 11-4 record in the 2007 NCAA Tournament, the SEC ranks first among all conferences in record and wins in the "Big Dance" over the last two seasons. The Southeastern Conference has amassed 24 victories during the last two NCAA Tournaments.

Conference	NCAA Record (2006-Present)
SEC	24-9 (.727)
Pac-10	18-10 (.643)
Big East	18-14 (.563)
ACC	13-11 (.542)
Big Ten	12-12 (.500)
Big 12	10-8 (.556)

SEC AMONG FINAL FOUR LEADERS

In the last 15 NCAA Tournaments (1993-2007), the SEC's 12 Final Four appearances are the second-most by any conference.

With Florida and LSU returning to the Final Four in the 2006 season, the SEC has had a total of five different teams make the national semifinals, behind only the Big Ten's seven over the 15-year span.

Last year's Final Four showing gives the SEC its 22nd all-time appearances (27th including five appearances by Arkansas prior to joining the SEC).

Atlantic Coast (13) – Duke, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Maryland

SEC (12) – Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi St.

Big Ten (11) – Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Ohio State, Wisconsin

Big 12* (7) – Kansas, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas
Big East^ (7) – Connecticut, Georgetown, Louisville, Marquette, Syracuse

Pacific-10 (7) – Arizona, Stanford, UCLA

*Including teams part of the Big 8; ^Including teams part of C-USA before joining the Big East

POLL WORTHY

The SEC is the only conference in the nation to have all of its teams ranked at least one week in the Associated Press top 25 (excluding preseason polls) since 1999-00. Simply stated, every SEC team has been a top-25 team nationally at one point in the last seven-plus seasons.

HISTORY OF THE SEC

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another more than 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives in Atlanta on Dec. 22, 1894.

The SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 with Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer, Mississippi State, Nashville, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas and Tulane joining the fold, and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920, including Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, MSU, UNC, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee. In 1922, Florida, LSU, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt, Virginia and VMI joined while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928, respectively. The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized (UA, AU, UF, UG, GTU, UK, LSU, UM, MSU, Sewanee, UT, Tulane and VU) as the SEC at the Southern Conference meetings of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville while the 10 coast members remained in the SC. Sewanee withdrew on Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964, and Tulane on June 1, 1966. The league maintained that membership until Arkansas joined on Aug. 1, 1990, and South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990.

Patrick Beverley was the 2007 SEC Newcomer of the Year and the SEC Freshman of the Year.

Last year, Gary Ervin became the first Razorback to earn multiple SEC Player of the Week awards since Jannero Pargo in 2002.

2007 REVIEW: ARKANSAS WINS 20, EARNS NCAA BID AGAIN

BACK IN THE DANCE: Arkansas reached the NCAA Tournament and won 20 games for the second straight year. The Razorbacks, a No. 12 seed, fell to fifth-seeded Southern California in the first round, 77-60, at Spokane, Wash. In 2006, Arkansas reached the tournament for the first time since 2001, losing to Bucknell in the first round, 59-55, at Dallas. Overall, Arkansas has now earned 29 NCAA bids, which ranks ninth-best in the nation, but has appeared in 28 tournaments because a car accident forced the 1944 squad to pull out of the field.

The Razorbacks, 21-14 in 2007 and 22-10 in 2006, are 39-28 (.582) in the tournament with six Final Four appearances – 1941, 1945, 1978, 1990, 1994, 1995, which also ranks ninth-best in the nation.

ARKANSAS 11-10 AGAINST 2007 POST-SEASON TOURNAMENT TEAMS: Arkansas went 4-7 during the season against teams in the NCAA field and 7-3 against teams in the NIT for an overall mark of 11-10 against last year's tournament clubs. Against NCAA Tournament teams, UA was 2-0 against Vanderbilt, and 1-0 against Southern Illinois and Oral Roberts. The Razorbacks were 0-2 against Florida, and 0-1 against Kentucky, Texas, Texas Tech, Tennessee and Southern California. Against NIT teams, the Hogs were 2-0 against Alabama, 2-1 against Mississippi State, 1-0 against West Virginia and Marist, 1-1 against Ole Miss and 0-1 against Georgia.

Arkansas was also 11-8 against teams returning either four or five starters from 2006, 4-3 against ranked teams and 8-11 away from Bud Walton Arena but 6-3 at neutral sites.

ERVIN TWO-TIME SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Junior guard Gary Ervin earned SEC Player of the Week honors twice during the season, becoming the first multi-week winner for the Razorbacks since guard Jannero Pargo earned the honor twice in 2002. Ervin won his awards on Jan. 8 and March 5.

He was recognized the first time after getting 18 points and 11 assists against No. 8 Alabama for his first double-double at Arkansas. He had two as a sophomore at Mississippi State in 2005 with 11 points and 10 assists against Jacksonville State, and 15 and 11 against Ole Miss.

Against Alabama, he also had six rebounds and three steals while making 7-of-8 shots. That game followed a solid effort against Tulsa, which included 14 points, six assists and two steals with no turnovers. He earned Player of the Week honors with averages of 16.0 points, 8.5 assists, 3.5 rebounds and 2.5 steals with just one turnover in 68 minutes. He was 12-of-17 shooting (.706) and 6-of-7 at the line (.857).

He got the award again on March 5 after setting career scoring highs in consecutive games. In the home win over Mississippi State, he scored 20 points, made 6-of-12 shots, was 6-of-7 at the line, had a game-high seven assists and added six rebounds. In the win at No. 19 Vanderbilt, he had a game-high 21 points on 6-of-10 shooting, including 2-of-3 on threes and 7-of-8 at the line. He also had five rebounds and a game-high tying four assists. For the week, he averaged 20.5 points, 5.5 rebounds, 5.5 assists and 1.0 steal while shooting 54.5 percent from the floor (12-22) and 86.7 percent at the line (13-15).

BELIEVERS IN BEVERLEY: Patrick Beverley played like anything but a freshman last year. Here's where he ranked among UA's team leaders (SEC rank in parenthesis):

Scoring: first, 13.9 (16)	FG %: sixth, .427
Rebounding: third, 4.5 (T29)	3PT FG %: first, .386 (8)
Assists: second, 3.14 (15)	FT %: first, .812 (3)
Steals: first, 1.74 (6)	Offensive Reb.: fifth, 38
Blocked Shots: fifth, 0.40	Minutes Played: first, 1,203 (4)
3PT Goals/Game: first, 2.09 (12)	Ast.-to-TO Ratio: second, 1.57 (11)

HILL SEC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Senior Steven Hill finished the season with 99 blocked shots and is now the only Razorback to have 90 or more blocked shots in more than one season. His total of 99 is the second-best season mark in school history, topping his total as a sophomore when he had 91. Below is a chart of Arkansas' all-time season leaders.

1. Oliver Miller, 112, 1991
2. Steven Hill, 99, 2007
3. Steven Hill, 91, 2006
4. Oliver Miller, 88, 1992

Hill has blocked shots since he first arrived on campus three years ago, but his all-around game has steadily improved.

Senior guard Gary Ervin had 169 assists last year, which was the most for a Hog since Kareem Reid had 181 in 1999.

Hill was second in the SEC in blocked shots with 2.83 per game after also ranking second each of the last two years. In SEC play only, he was first with 3.13 rejections per game.

He was also 21st in conference play only in rebounding (5.1). Hill made 93-of-145 shots (.641) and averaged 6.2 points. His 93 shots made and 218 points scored doubled his career totals in those categories entering the season (73 and 167, respectively).

He shot 50 percent or better in 25 of 35 games, including seven games when he was perfect from the floor and 11 others when he missed just one shot. He had five or more rebounds 14 times, he was fourth on the team with 37 steals, he had three or more blocked shots 17 times and scored six or more points 17 times.

Hill is Arkansas' first SEC Defensive Player of the Year award winner. The league began awarding defensive and sixth man of the year awards in 2004. Eric Ferguson became UA's first Sixth Man honoree in 2006.

On Arkansas' career blocked shot list, Hill ranks third while junior center/forward Darian Townes is fourth. Below is a list of UA's career leaders.

HILL, TOWNES AMONG UA'S ALL-TIME BLOCKED SHOT LEADERS:

1. Oliver Miller (1989-92)	345
2. Andrew Lang (1985-88)	252
3. Steven Hill (2005-Present)	244
4. Darian Townes (2005-Present)	156
5. Nick Davis (1996-98)	130
6. Derek Hood (1996-99)	103

THOMAS SLOWED IN NCAA TOURNAMENT BY INJURY, PACES HOGS ON THE BOARDS AND HAS BEST REBOUNDING GAME FOR UA IN 10 YEARS:

Senior forward Charles Thomas played in the NCAA Tournament against Southern California, but was clearly not 100 percent. He injured his left ankle just one minute into the SEC Tournament championship game against Florida. In the six games before the Florida contest, he lived up to his "Manimal" nickname by averaging 8.7 rebounds.

In the SEC Tournament semifinal against Mississippi State, he had a career-high 18 rebounds. In the two games before that, he had nine against both South Carolina and Vanderbilt. He had two at Vanderbilt, but in the two games before that, he had six against Tennessee and eight against Mississippi State.

His 18 rebounds against MSU are the most for a Hog in 10 years and the second-most since 1979. Nick Davis set the school record with 23 against Jackson State in 1997. All-American Sidney Moncrief had 18 against Oklahoma in 1979.

Thomas led the team in rebounding with 5.7 boards per game. That average is the best for a Razorback in four years. Dionisio Gomez led the Hogs with 6.6 as a senior in 2003.

THE THREE BALL: Arkansas took more three-point shots in 2007, made more threes and had a better percentage than in recent years. For the year, UA was 212-of-613, 34.6 percent. The number made is the most since the 2002 team made 232, the number attempted the most since the '02 club shot 694 and the percentage is the second-best since 2001. The '01 team shot 36.8 percent (273-741) and the 2005 team 37.2 percent (182-489). The 212 threes made and 613 attempted are both the 10th-most in a season in school history.

Individually, Patrick Beverley was 73-of-189 for 38.6 percent, leading the team in all three categories. His total made is the most since Jannero Pargo made 95 in 2002 and his percentage the second-best with a minimum of 50 attempts in the last four years. Jonathon Modica shot 42.9 percent in 2005 (30-70).

SPARE RIBS: ...Arkansas' 35 games played tie for the third-most in a year.

...UA's total of 571 rebounds and 35.7 average in SEC play are the seventh-best marks in the school's 16 years in the league.

...The 532 turnovers are the ninth-most in school history and the 256 in SEC play the second-most.

...Steven Hill enters his senior season with a .563 career field goal percentage (166-295) and 244 blocked shots. He is 101 blocked shots away from tying the school record.

...Charles Thomas enters his final season with a .754 career free throw percentage (269-357), 835 points and 433 rebounds. He needs 165 points to become the 31st member of UA's 1,000-point club, 176 rebounds to move into the all-time top 10 with 609 and 57 free threes to crack that top 10 with 326.

...Darian Townes enters his last season with 893 points and 451 rebounds. He needs 107 points to join the 1,000-point club and 158 rebounds to reach the top 10 with 609.

Oliver Miller and the Hogs advanced to the Final Four in 1990.

Scotty Thurman helped the Razorbacks make consecutive title game appearances in 1994 and '95 with an NCAA championship in '94.

BUD WALTON ARENA

“THE BASKETBALL PALACE OF MID-AMERICA”

Arkansas has played in Bud Walton Arena — The Basketball Palace of Mid-America — for 14 years and has drawn more than 3.8 million fans, ranked among national attendance leaders every season and won 80 percent of its games.

When Arkansas joined the Southeastern Conference in August of 1990, Razorback Athletic Director Frank Broyles knew the athletic facilities had to be upgraded to contend in America’s most nationally competitive league.

His attention turned immediately to basketball. The Hogs were very successful, coming off a Final Four trip earlier that year, but had just a 9,000-seat home, Barnhill Arena.

One day, Bud Walton, co-founder of Wal-Mart, visited Broyles and asked him what Arkansas needed most to be competitive in the SEC. Broyles mentioned the need for additional basketball seats and was asked by Walton what a new arena would cost. The figure $30 million was discussed and Walton offered to pay half. From that visit, fabulous Bud Walton Arena was born.

Groundbreaking to grand opening was accomplished in a remarkable 18 months. The Razorbacks played in Bud Walton for the first time in November of 1993. Everything went perfectly during the first full year. Not only did Arkansas sell out the arena, the Razorbacks were unbeaten in their new home (16-0) and won the 1994 national championship.

The Hogs carry a 183-43 (.810) record into the 2008 season.

In 14 seasons, UA has an all-time average attendance of 17,250 in Bud Walton Arena. Arkansas has ranked in the top 15 nationally in attendance every year in BWA, including a No. 9 ranking in 2007 with an average of 16,720.

Entering the 2008 campaign, UA has a combined mark of 487-137 in its last two homes for an outstanding home winning percentage of .780 over the last 50 years.

BWA houses a deluxe museum on the ground level that includes a tribute to Arkansas’ 1994 NCAA championship and multiple Final Four appearances as well as the history of Razorback basketball, track and field, baseball, tennis and golf. Eye-catching displays on the concourse level salute recent Razorback highlights.

The 2004 season marked the debut of a new custom scoreboard in the shape of a basketball hoop. The board, 24 feet, three inches wide by 22 feet tall, features four video screens, each 12 feet, six inches wide by eight feet, 10 inches tall. An LED ring at the top is used to display game statistics.

The Razorbacks received an expanded locker room in 2005, which includes a lounge with a spacious meeting area.

As captivating as the displays, museum and championship banners are hanging from the arena floor’s ceiling, the aspect of the facility demanding the most attention is spirit. Every game still produces an NCAA Tournament-type atmosphere with the exception of the crowd, which is anything but neutral.

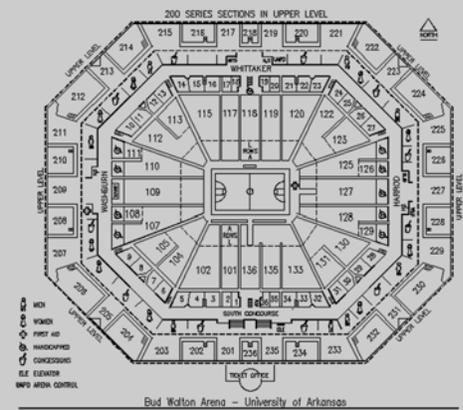

According to Rosser International in Atlanta, when the arena was built, there were more seats in less space than in any such facility in the world. It’s no wonder the noise level can be absolutely ear-splitting.

From pre-game to post-game, Bud Walton Arena is perfectly choreographed with the band, the spirit groups, the lighting system, the public address, the scoreboard and the team. Each game at Walton Arena is a rich experience leaving Razorback fans hungry for more.

UA Basketball Facilities

While the championship-caliber basketball and the sellout crowds are the most noticeable parts of BWA, what it offers to the basketball program on a daily basis is so much more.

From the spacious locker rooms and team meeting area to the artistically designed shower, Bud Walton provides top-notch accommodations for Arkansas players and coaches. UA's locker room was expanded for the 2005 season and now includes a lounge with a big screen television and computer work stations. It also features a meeting area large enough to comfortably accommodate the entire team and staff.

Arkansas' basketball team utilizes a fully stocked weight room as well as top-notch training facilities.

Even the hallway leading to the basketball offices features a hardwood floor replica complete with court markings and logos.

Razorback basketball history is alive and well in the Tommy Boyer Hall of Champions and in displays on the concourse level. The Yvonne Richardson Great Moments Theater delivers Arkansas' rich history at the touch of a button.

Whether it's players preparing for the next game, fans reliving great moments of the past or crowds anticipating tip-off, one visit and you'll know why Bud Walton Arena is truly "The Basketball Palace of Mid-America."

RAZORBACK HISTORY

Championships were a tradition at Arkansas long before the Razorbacks earned the national title in 1994. The '94 championship was the grandest of them all, but the NCAA trophy isn't exactly the only one on the shelf in the fabulous Bud Walton Arena museum.

In fact, Arkansas has made six trips to the NCAA Final Four. The Razorbacks have earned 29 bids to the NCAA Tournament.

In conference play, Arkansas has won 24 league championships with 22 coming in the Southwest Conference between 1926 and 1991. In fact, the Hogs won the Southeastern Conference crown in 1992, their first year in the league, after winning three straight SWC titles. The Hogs have also won seven league tournament crowns.

Since joining the SEC, Arkansas has been a dominant member. The Razorbacks won overall titles in 1992 and 1994, and Western Division titles in 1992, '93, '94 and '95, and then won the tournament crown in 2000.

Arkansas has a long-standing tradition of winning in basketball. It started in the 1920s and has carried through to this time. Even though Arkansas didn't begin playing basketball until 1924, the Hogs won more SWC championships than any other school.

It didn't take long for the Hogs to have an impact on the SWC. Two years after starting the program, Arkansas won its first league crown. It was the first of five in a row. Francis Schmidt, Arkansas' first basketball coach, guided the Hogs to the 1926, '27, '28 and '29 titles. Chuck Bassett was the coach of the 1930 championship squad.

Wear Schoonover, Arkansas' first football All-American, captained the 1930 club. He earned All-SWC honors three times. In fact, the Razorbacks dominated the all-conference squads of the late 1920s. In 1928, Arkansas had four of the five All-SWC selections when Glen Rose, Tom Pickell, Gene Lambert Sr. and Schoonover were named all-league. Rose was also the first Razorback to earn All-America honors (1928), followed a year later by Pickell and Lambert.

The Hogs were loaded with all-conference talent during that time. Rose was a three-time All-SWC pick, as was Pickell.

Lambert and Rolla Adams made it twice, as did Milan Creighton.

When Schmidt left Arkansas as coach, he went to league rival TCU and was tough to beat until the Razorbacks hired Rose as head coach.

He began another glorious run with a co-championship in 1935. The Hogs won SWC titles in '36, '38, '41 and '42. The 1936 Razorbacks almost represented the United States in the Olympics, winning four games in an Olympic playoff before losing to a team of all-stars from California in the semifinals of the tournament.

Jim Lee Howell, Ike Poole, Taft Moody, Don Lockard, Jack Robbins, Howard Hickey and Johnny Adams were the stars of their day. Adams was an All-American in 1941. He was Arkansas' fifth All-American but the last one UA would have until Ron Brewer made it in 1977.

From 1945 to 1950, Arkansas had four second-place finishes and shared the 1949 title. The Razorbacks then went through a mild recession before claiming a co-championship in 1958. By winning a playoff game against SMU, Arkansas qualified for the NCAA Tournament. It wasn't a pleasant experience. Oklahoma State, which featured Eddie Sutton as a player, downed the Hogs by 25, 65-40, and Oscar Robertson exploded for 58 points as the Hogs were drilled by Cincinnati, 97-62, in a consolation game.

As unpleasant as the tournament experience was, Arkansas would have loved to go back, but it didn't happen for 19 years. Not even Rose, who led the Hogs to the '58 title in his second stint as coach, could return Arkansas to glory. He retired following the 1966 season, but neither of his two successors, Duddy Waller or Lanny Van Eman, put a contender on the floor.

Van Eman did, however, bring excitement to the game. His teams regularly scored in the 80s and 90s at a time when the traditional powers played games in the 60s. Van Eman recruited Martin Terry from junior college and Terry set school single-season scoring records that still stand. He averaged 28.3 points per game as a senior. Even though he played only two seasons, Terry still ranks among Arkansas' top 10 all-time scorers.

Unfortunately, Van Eman's teams usually gave up more points than they scored. Twice in 1971, Arkansas scored 100 or more points and lost.

Van Eman's second club managed to win 16 games, but only five came in SWC play. Arkansas and Baylor, which paired for a thrilling 111-110 Baylor victory the year before, put on another wild show with the Razorbacks winning, 131-109, in Fayetteville, setting a league record for points scored by two teams in a conference game.

After the 1974 Hogs won just 10 games, Frank Broyles, newly appointed athletic director as well as an already established football coach, decided it was time to make a commitment to basketball. He turned things around by hiring Sutton.

Sutton caught the state's attention in his first season when the Razorbacks finished 17-9 and second in the SWC. By the time his second team finished its 19-9 campaign, construction workers were already renovating Barnhill Arena, a facility constructed in 1957.

The 1976 Hogs also featured the nucleus of what was to become one of the greatest teams in history. Brewer and Marvin Delph were sophomores. Sidney Moncrief was a freshman and he quietly led the nation in field goal percentage (.665, 149-224), and Sutton knew he had something special.

With half of Barnhill's facelift completed before the 1977 season, a new wave of excitement swept through the entire state of Arkansas.

MEMORABLE GAMES

The history of Razorback basketball is filled with thrilling and even heart-stopping moments. The Final Four, conference championships, and last-second, game-winning jumpers shape memories of the "greatest" moments in UA history. Following are 10 of those.

Corey Beck had 15 points, four assists and a team-high 10 rebounds in the championship game victory over Duke.

 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
 APRIL 4, 1994, AT CHARLOTTE, N.C.

Despite UA's incredible basketball success through the years, the Razorbacks had never played for the national championship until their battle with Duke at the Charlotte Coliseum. The Hogs had been ranked No. 1 much of the year, but Duke had won two national titles in the three previous seasons and had defeated Arkansas in the 1990 Final Four at Denver.

Duke controlled the tempo in the first half and Corliss Williamson, who had been nearly unstoppable in the entire tournament, missed his first five shots for the Razorbacks. The Blue Devils led by as many as five points in the opening period, but Scotty Thurman drilled a late three-pointer to give UA a 34-33 halftime advantage.

Corey Beck hit a short jumper early in the second half to give the Hogs a 38-35 lead, but Duke scored 13 unanswered points and suddenly led 48-38 with 17:09 left. While the surge left Duke fans roaring their approval, it also sped up the tempo of the game. The Razorbacks trailed but actually had the Blue Devils right where they wanted them.

Playing at a quicker pace, Arkansas caught up in less than five minutes. When Al Dillard drilled a three with 8:08 remaining to give UA a five-point lead, it looked like momentum had swung to the Hogs for good. Duke fought back and tied the game at 65-65 and finally 70-44 with 1:29 remaining. The Razorbacks took a timeout.

When Dwight Stewart fumbled a pass, he quickly passed it out to Thurman with the shot clock winding down. Thurman had no choice but to shoot. As his shot was narrowly clearing the outstretched hand of Antonio Lang, the shot clock hit zero. The shot, though, was true. It was a dagger to the hearts of the Blue Devils and surpassed U.S. Reed's half-court jumper against Louisville as the most famous shot in UA history.

Duke never recovered. Three free throws in the final seconds clinched the 76-72 victory that gave Arkansas the 1994 national championship.

The Razorbacks blitzed through the SWC unbeaten, winning their first league title in 19 years. Brewer, Moncrief and Delph were the toast of the Ozarks. Arkansas finished 26-2 but lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament when Moncrief fouled out, allowing Wake Forest to come from behind for a victory.

Expectations were high in 1978 and the Hogs didn't disappoint. For a week, the Razorbacks were even ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. A loss at Houston after two victories earlier in the week dropped the Hogs from their position at the top.

Arkansas shared the SWC title with Texas, but was upset by Houston, again on a last-second shot at the SWC Tournament. Stunned, the Razorbacks returned home unsure of whether or not they would receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament.

The Hogs got in and victories over Weber State and No. 2 UCLA thrust Arkansas into the regional finals. Brewer hit a long jumper with less than a minute to play and Jim Counce scored on a layup at the end to seal a 61-58 victory over Cal-Fullerton, sending the Hogs to the Final Four.

No. 1-ranked Kentucky ended Arkansas' dreams of a national title with a semifinal victory, but Brewer hit another of his patented buzzer shots in the third-place game, giving Arkansas a thrilling 71-69 victory over Notre Dame.

With All-American Brewer and the sleek-shooting Delph gone, Moncrief and Steve Schall were left to lead the 1979 Hogs. It was almost a repeat performance of 1978.

Moncrief was brilliant. He simply refused to allow his team to lose. After a brief midseason slump, Arkansas won 14 straight games, including two at the SWC Tournament and two in the NCAA Tournament. A victory over Louisville sent Arkansas into the Midwest Regional finals against No. 1-ranked Indiana State and superstar Larry Bird.

Arkansas could not stop Bird, but ISU could not contain Moncrief. In one of the greatest games in UA history, the Hogs suffered a 73-71 setback when a last-second Sycamore shot bounced twice and fell in. Arkansas finished 25-5 and the Moncrief era was history.

Sutton won three more SWC titles and left behind a legacy when his teams won 20 or more games nine years in a row. Arkansas played in the NCAA Tournament in each of those nine seasons, but never came close to returning to the Final Four. The Razorbacks even featured a team that had three future first-round NBA draft choices when Scott Hastings, Darrell Walker and Alvin Robertson played together. Joe Kleine, another future NBA product, redshirted that year (1982).

When Sutton left for Kentucky, Broyles turned a completely different direction when he hired Nolan Richardson. Richardson's teams were noted for defense, just as Sutton's were, but it was a different style of defense. Richardson's defense usually turned quickly to offense and his teams at Tulsa had led the nation in scoring.

Inheriting a group of players recruited to play at a slower pace, Richardson had to bite the bullet as his first season resulted in a 12-16 finish. Then he started recruiting. His second team won 19 games and his third was 21-9. His 1989 squad won Arkansas' first SWC title since 1982 and breezed through the league tournament. Arkansas set school scoring records and downed Loyola-Marymount in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before bowing to Louisville.

By then, Richardson's style and players already had converted Razorback fans. Barnhill Arena was hopping every time the Hogs played. It wouldn't have taken a Final Four appearance for the state to go nuts, but when the Razorbacks reached the 1990 Final Four, the state went crazy.

The Hogs were SWC champs again and dominated the SWC Tournament for the second consecutive year. Triumphs over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas sent the Razorbacks into the Final Four. A loss to Duke in the semifinals ended the season at 30-5.

It nearly happened again in 1991. UA won a school-record 34 games before falling to Kansas in the Southeast Regional finals. Arkansas ended its history in the Southwest Conference by winning the final three regular season and tournament championships.

A new era was launched in 1992 and the Razorbacks didn't miss a beat. Arkansas won the Southeastern Conference title with a 13-3 record. Included were two victories over Shaquille O'Neal-led LSU and a big win at Kentucky. The Todd Day-Lee Mayberry-Oliver Miller era ended with a 26-8 season and another trip to the NAAs.

After winning the SEC's Western Division in '93 and pushing North Carolina to the limit in a Sweet 16 loss to the eventual national champions, Arkansas enjoyed its best season ever in 1994. UA won nearly everything possible. The Razorbacks were SEC champs, again sweeping LSU and winning at Kentucky, they made the school's fifth trip to the Final Four and completed their dream season by beating Arizona and Duke to win the national title.

A year later, Arkansas was No. 1 in all the preseason polls, but the Hogs stumbled early before making a late-season run. UA repeated as Western Division champion, then downed Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia to earn its sixth Final Four appearance.

A win over North Carolina in the semifinals allowed the Hogs to advance to the finals, but it was UCLA's year as the Bruins beat Arkansas for the 1995 crown, 89-78.

With every starter gone from the back-to-back Final Four clubs, Arkansas was expected to struggle in 1996. Richardson, however, molded together a young team and the Hogs peaked late. Seeded 12th in the NCAA East Regional, UA beat Penn State and Marquette to advance to the Sweet 16 before falling to top-ranked Massachusetts.

In 1997, Arkansas was forced to endure an NCAA inquiry, which proved fruitless, but it damaged the Hogs' recruiting. The streak of nine straight NCAA Tournament appearances ended but the Bud Walton Arena crowds were rejuvenated by three NIT games. Fans who never had the opportunity to buy Razorback basketball tickets were able to attend and helped UA advance to the NIT semifinals in New York.

It was back to the NAAs in 1998 as the Razorbacks, who got 10.4 points and Charles Balentine's baseline jumper gave Arkansas a 65-64 victory over Michael Jordan and No. 1-ranked North Carolina in 1984.

North Carolina was 19-0 and ranked No. 1 nationally when the Tar Heels visited Pine Bluff. Arkansas was on its way to a second-place finish in the Southwest Conference and had defeated SMU in Dallas the day before.

Violent weather kept the Hogs from flying to Pine Bluff until the morning of the game, and the Razorbacks arrived in town two hours before the nationally televised contest.

If the Razorbacks were weary, they showed no signs of it. They defended North Carolina fiercely, holding the Tar Heels to 45 percent shooting. North Carolina had plenty of weapons. Michael Jordan, Sam Perkins and Brad Daugherty, all future NBA stars, were in the starting lineup along with Steve Hale, a guard from Tulsa whose second choice of schools was Arkansas.

The Hogs were armed with Joe Kleine and Alvin Robertson, but the unsung heroes were Darryl Bedford and Charles Balentine. Bedford, a freshman who had been a little used reserve, hit all six of his shots and scored 12 points. Balentine, of course, was the hero at the end.

A crowd of 7,529 was in a frenzy from the opening tipoff to the final buzzer. They watched Jordan score 21 points and Kleine answer with 20. Perkins had 17 and Hale 15. Leroy Sutton scored 11 points, Balentine 10 and Robertson nine for the Hogs.

North Carolina's largest lead of the first half was five points. UA led by as many as seven before taking a 38-34 advantage at the break. The second half was a nailbiter and the Tar Heels led by one with only seconds to play. Balentine drove the baseline and hit an eight-footer to give Arkansas the lead before UNC missed a buzzer shot.

Patrick Beverley helped the Hogs earn their 29th NCAA Tournament bid last season.

Sidney Moncrief and Larry Bird put on a great show in the 1979 Midwest Regional Final.

an SEC-leading 9.8 rebounds per game from Nick Davis, won 24 games and reached the second round with a win over Nebraska.

Arkansas won its 10th straight NCAA Tournament first-round game in 1999 as Pat Bradley set school records for career three-point shooting (366-915, .400). Derek Hood recorded more double-doubles than anyone in UA history (34) and also led the league in rebounding (10.3), and Kareem Reid broke Mayberry's career record for assists (748).

UA also had one of the most unique weeks in its basketball history. The final two home games came over a five-day span against No. 5 Kentucky and No. 2 Auburn. Never before had Arkansas played two top 10 teams at home in the same week. Arkansas beat UK, 74-70, and topped Auburn, 104-88.

Following an up-and-down season in 2000, Arkansas won four games in four days, including wins over No. 16 Kentucky, No. 10 LSU and No. 23 Auburn to win the school's first SEC Tournament title. Brandon Dean was the MVP after averaging 15.2 points in the title run.

The 2001 club rebounded from an 0-3 league start with a six-game winning streak late in the year to earn Arkansas' 13th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years and its 15th straight postseason tournament berth.

The Nolan Richardson era came to an end in 2002 when he was released from his contract. The Razorbacks dropped to 14-15, including a 13-14 mark under Richardson. Mike Anderson was 1-1 as interim head coach for the last two games of the season.

Stan Heath rebuilt the roster with recruiting classes ranked as high as No. 13 by Rivals.com in 2004 and No. 7 by Hoop Scoop in 2003. In 2005, the Razorbacks won the Paradise Jam tournament title and went 18-12.

In 2006, Heath had Arkansas back in the NCAA Tournament, going 22-10 behind honorable mention All-American Ronnie Brewer (18.4 ppg), All-SEC guard Jonathon Modica (16.1 ppg) and SEC Sixth Man of the Year Eric Ferguson (8.1 ppg).

Arkansas earned another NCAA bid in 2007. The Razorbacks won the Old Spice Classic, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and recorded the 27th 20-win season in school history by finishing 21-14. Patrick Beverley (13.9 ppg, 4.5 rpg) was the SEC newcomer and freshman of the year, and Steven Hill (6.2 ppg, 2.8 blocks) the SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

NCAA REGIONAL FINAL
MARCH 17, 1979, AT CINCINNATI, OHIO

A Final Four team in 1978, Arkansas was not expected to return in 1979 with the loss of Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph, two of the famed "Triplets." Sidney Moncrief, however, almost single-handedly pushed his team to greater heights than anyone expected.

Moncrief, senior Steve Schall and a cast of sophomores and freshmen put together a 14-game winning streak late in the year and arrived at the Midwest Regional finals ready to challenge No. 1-ranked and unbeaten Indiana State, and superstar Larry Bird. The stakes were a spot in the Final Four.

Bird was awesome. The Hogs simply could not stop him. With 9:22 left, he already had 27 points. Razorback Coach Eddie Sutton then made the ultimate gamble. He put the 6-4 Moncrief on the 6-9 Bird for the final seven minutes.

Bird scored just four more points. Moncrief, meanwhile, was almost as unstoppable as Bird had been. He finished with 24 points and eight rebounds, and had his team in a position to win late. Arkansas had the ball with 1:31 left and holding for the last shot with the score tied 71-71.

With 1:02 remaining, U.S. Reed tripped and was called for walking, giving the Sycamores the ball.

ISU held for the last shot, but could not get the ball to Bird, who was smothered by Moncrief. It was Bob Heaton who launched the shot with two seconds left and the Hogs watched helplessly as it hit both sides of the rim before dropping through, depriving the Hogs of a second straight trip to the Final Four.

UA IN THE FINAL FOUR

Dwight Stewart averaged 13.5 points and 6.5 rebounds in the 1995 Final Four against North Carolina and UCLA.

During Arkansas' long, illustrious basketball history, the Razorbacks have been to the NCAA Final Four six times.

The Hogs have earned 29 bids to the NCAA Tournament and made 28 appearances, missing the 1944 event due to a car accident prior to the first-round games.

Only eight schools in the entire country have been to the Final Four more than Arkansas, and only eight schools have earned more than UA's 29 NCAA Tournament bids. Among Southeastern Conference schools, only Kentucky has been to the NCAA Tournament more often. In fact, Arkansas, Kentucky, LSU, Georgia, Mississippi State and Florida are the only league schools to reach the Final Four.

It was tougher to get in the tournament in the early days, but it also took fewer games to win the title.

In the 1940s, only eight teams participated in the NCAA Tournament, which first became an event in 1939. Up to that point, the NIT was the top national post-season tournament. Twice in the '40s, the Razorbacks advanced to the Final Four.

The 1941 Hogs roared through the Southwest Conference with a 12-0 mark and carried a 19-2 record into the tournament. Arkansas downed Wyoming, 65-40, to reach the

It had been an incredible year for Arkansas. The Razorbacks repeated as Southwest Conference champs but had to nervously await an NCAA at-large bid when they were eliminated from the league tournament by Houston in the semifinals. The "Triplets," Ron Brewer, Sidney Moncrief and Marvin Delph, were the ringleaders of one of the greatest teams in school history.

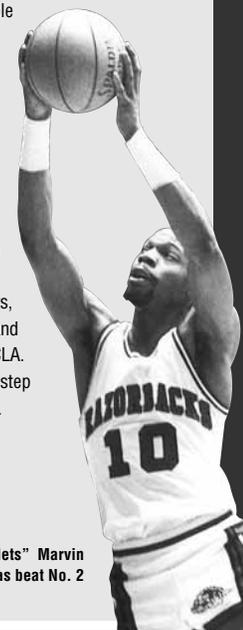

Still, the Hogs were underdogs and a new kid on the NCAA block when they faced second-ranked UCLA in the third round at Albuquerque. David Greenwood was the leader of the Bruins, who weren't far removed from their incredible string of NCAA championships.

UCLA was stunned as Arkansas roared to a 40-22 lead that was cut to 42-29 by half-time. The Bruins didn't panic. They pressed the Hogs and took a 60-58 lead.

Brewer tied the game with two free throws, Steve Schall hit a short turnaround and Delph drilled a jump shot to put the Hogs back in front. By game's end the Razorbacks were going strong.

Delph sizzled by hitting 11 of his 14 shots, finishing with 23 points. Moncrief had 21 and Brewer 18. Greenwood finished with 17 for UCLA.

The victory moved the Razorbacks a step closer to their eventual trip to the Final Four.

Ron Brewer had 18 points while fellow "Triplets" Marvin Delph had 23 and Sidney Moncrief 21 as Arkansas beat No. 2 UCLA on the way to the 1978 Final Four.

Defending NCAA champion Louisville and Southwest Conference champion Arkansas clawed at each other for 39 minutes and 55 seconds in the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the scoreboard read Louisville 73, Arkansas 72 after Derek Smith's short jumper for the Cardinals.

The Razorbacks, who had led by six points with 2:13 left, called timeout. U.S. Reed took the inbound pass and coolly dribbled to the midcourt area near the sideline. With a second left on the clock, he launched a desperation 49-footer. The only thing desperate after the shot was the look on the faces of the Louisville players as they watched the ball hit nothing but net.

Reed shook hands with everyone on the press table after hitting a shot that will live forever in the minds of Razorback fans. He finished with 19 points. Darrell Walker had 23 and the Hogs were still alive in the NCAA Tournament.

Lenzie Howell, who averaged 13.9 points a game for the year and was the NCAA Tournament Midwest Regional MVP, helped UA knock off Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas to reach the 1990 Final Four.

Final Four at Kansas City. Washington State handed the Razorbacks a 64-53 setback, meaning Arkansas and Pittsburgh tied for third since there was no third-place game.

UA returned in 1945, again to Kansas City. Arkansas was 16-8 entering the tournament but edged Oregon, 79-76, to reach the Final Four. Eventual national champion Oklahoma State, which Arkansas had defeated once earlier in the season, downed the Hogs and UA tied Ohio State for third place.

It took 33 years for Arkansas to return. In 1978, the Hogs were Southwest Conference champs and beat Weber State, second-ranked UCLA and California-Fullerton to advance to the Final Four at St. Louis. Top-ranked Kentucky led by just one with two minutes to play and posted a 64-59 victory.

There was a third-place game and Ron Brewer hit a buzzer shot from the top of the circle to send the Razorbacks past Notre Dame, 71-69. Brewer had 20 points and Marvin Delph 21 in their final game as Razorbacks.

Nolan Richardson guided the Hogs to the Final Four in 1990, 1994 and '95.

In 1990, wins over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas earned Arkansas a trip to Denver. UA was 30-4 heading into a semifinal showdown with Duke.

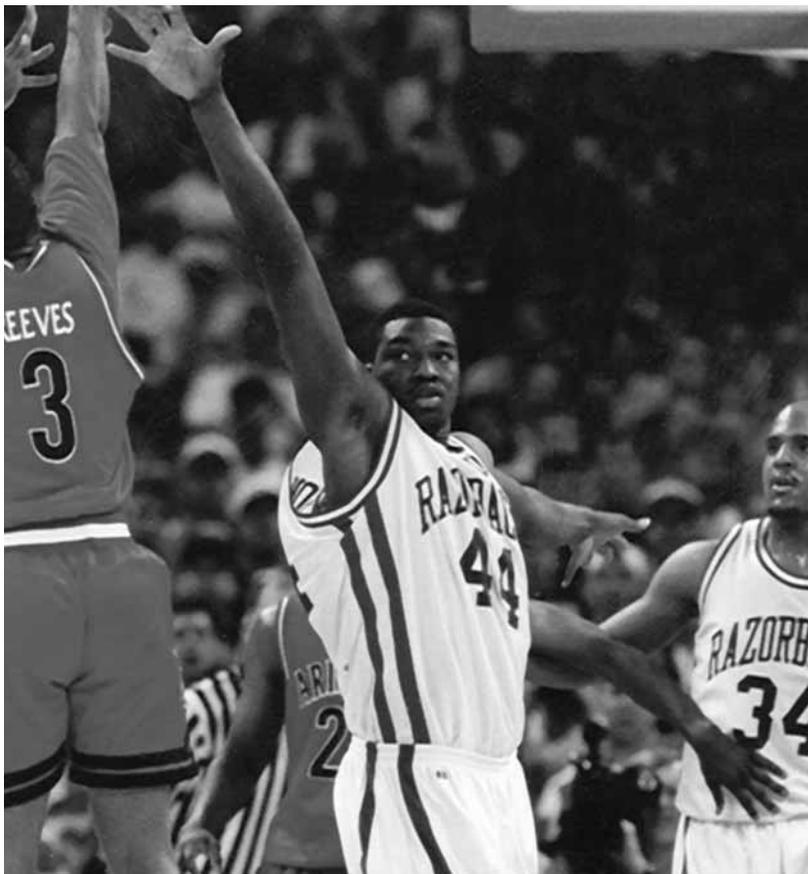

Richardson took his club to Denver a day early to adjust to the altitude, but the Hogs fell behind early in both halves and used plenty of adrenaline to catch up. UA led 69-62 with 10:38 remaining, but ran out of gas. Duke came back and won, 97-83, but also used most of its energy. The Blue Devils were beaten by Nevada-Las Vegas in the title game while UA tied Georgia Tech for third.

The ultimate came in 1994. The Hogs downed North Carolina A&T, Georgetown, Tulsa and Michigan to advance to the Final Four at Charlotte, N.C. The win over Arizona was Arkansas' first ever in the national semifinals and set up a clash with Duke.

With the score tied with less than a minute to play, a well-defended Scotty Thurman hit a three-pointer to lead the Razorbacks to a 76-72 victory and the national title.

With every starter from the championship squad returning, the Hogs were favored to return to the Final Four in 1995, and they did. Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia were knocked off along the way to the Final Four at Seattle, but none of the wins came by more than six points.

Arkansas fell behind early but rallied to get by North Carolina in the semifinals. Playing in the NCAA championship game for the second straight year, Arkansas came up short in an 89-78 loss to UCLA.

Darnell Robinson had 12 points and three blocked shots in the 1994 Final Four semifinal victory over Arizona.

It was Arkansas' first year as a member of the Southeastern Conference. Earlier in the season, Todd Day had exploded for a career-high 43 points as the Razorbacks defeated LSU, 101-90, at Baton Rouge. The Tigers recovered from the defeat, though, and by the time they arrived at Barnhill Arena, they had tied the Hogs for the SEC lead.

LSU's first ever visit to Fayetteville would determine the SEC championship.

The Tigers started strong. Shaquille O'Neal did his best to quiet an overflow crowd of 9,518 with 11 points in the opening half as LSU roared to a 51-36 advantage. O'Neal, however, scored his last points with 11:37 remaining to give the Tigers a 69-58 lead before the Razorbacks charged back.

Lee Mayberry, who hit a then-school record nine three-point field goals and finished with 35 points, teamed with Day, who finished with 27, to bring the Hogs from behind. Mayberry's last three-pointer tied the game at 87-all and Oliver Miller blocked O'Neal's shot at the buzzer to force overtime.

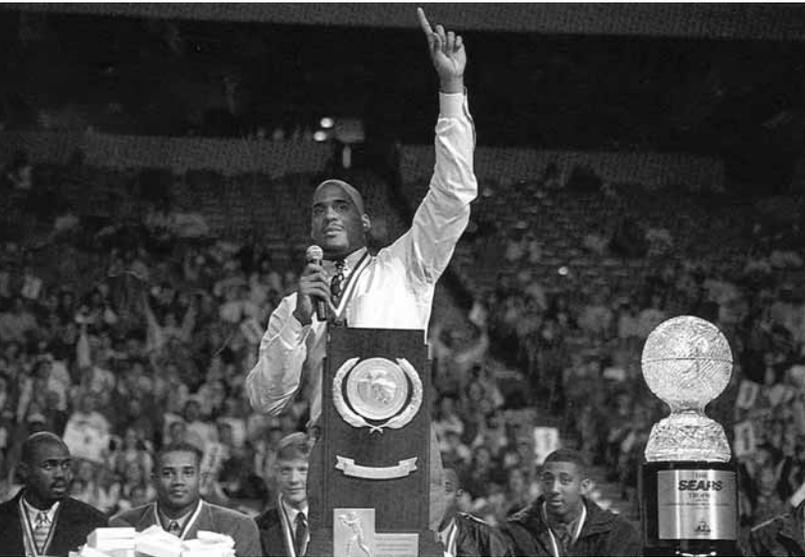

Arkansas blitzed the Tigers, 19-5, in the extra period. Day scored nine points and Mayberry had four during that time. The victory sent Barnhill Arena into a frenzy and the Razorbacks on the way to their first SEC title.

Oliver Miller had 10 points, 10 rebounds, three blocked shots and three steals against the Tigers.

THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Corliss Williamson was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 1994 Final Four after averaging 26.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in Arkansas' two wins.

Without a senior in the starting lineup, playing in the most palatial arena in college basketball with the President of the United States attending four games and led by a coach with a system that could not be drawn up on a blackboard, Arkansas vaulted into the elite of the elite when the Razorbacks won the 1994 NCAA championship.

Construction workers built Bud Walton Arena in record time and the 19,200-seat showcase dazzled fans and opponents as much as the Razorbacks did. Sellout crowds each time the doors were opened watched the Hogs go 16-0 at home. Only one game, the 84-83 victory over LSU, was decided by fewer than 10 points. UA won those 16 games by an average of 30 points.

UA blitzed Murray State, 93-67, in the Bud Walton Arena opener on Nov. 29, but the building was dedicated a few nights later when Missouri came to Fayetteville for an ESPN showcase game. The Dec. 2 game was decided in the first few minutes as Arkansas roared to a 120-68 victory over a Missouri club which went unbeaten in the Big Eight and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

Ranked No. 1 nationally for 10 weeks during the regular season, the Hogs lost only twice during the regular campaign. Alabama beat Arkansas, 66-64, in Tuscaloosa, and Mississippi State edged the Hogs, 72-71, in Starkville.

Sophomores Corliss Williamson and Scotty Thurman carried much of the load, and junior Corey Beck was the blue collar leader. When the Hogs had to score, they went inside to Williamson, who averaged 20.4 points per game. He shot .626 from the field and 70 percent at the free throw line.

Arkansas already had a two-game lead over Texas in the Southwest Conference when the Razorbacks invaded Austin for a nationally televised game.

The Hogs owned a four-game winning streak over the Longhorns, and it was a must-win situation for Texas. The Razorbacks led for most of the first half but Texas gained a five-point advantage midway through the second half. It was 77-72 'Horns when Todd Day fouled out for Arkansas 3:31 from the end.

Texas still led, 86-83, and had Travis Mays at the free throw line with 12 seconds left, but Mays missed the free throw and Lee Mayberry stunned the Texas crowd of more than 16,000 with a long three-pointer three seconds from the buzzer to send the game into overtime.

Arkansas made sure Texas never recovered. A three-pointer by Ernie Murry got the Hogs started and Mayberry's jumper at 3:20 put the Hogs in front to stay. Mayberry and Lenzie Howell each scored 23 points to offset 24 by Joey Wright, 23 by Mays and 22 by Lance Blanks. The victory gave Arkansas a three-game lead it never surrendered on its way to the SWC title.

Lee Mayberry's deep three sent the game to overtime and Arkansas never looked back.

Corey Beck averaged 12.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists in earning Final Four all-tournament honors in 1994.

Thurman, though, was the last-minute hero. His three-pointer with seven seconds left gave Arkansas a one-point victory at Tennessee. He hit another three in the last 30 seconds to lift the Hogs past LSU at Baton Rouge in overtime.

Beck did much of the dirty work, defending with tenacity and leading the team in assists. He and junior Clint McDaniel probably were the best defensive guards in college basketball. Head coach Nolan Richardson certainly thought so. McDaniel also provided perimeter firepower, as did junior Dwight Stewart, Arkansas' fifth starter who was more a forward than a center.

Richardson used a deep bench to guide the Hogs to a 24-2 regular season finish. Al Dillard brought instant offense into any contest with his incredible three-point shooting range. He was Arkansas' third-leading scorer behind Williamson and Thurman (15.9 ppg) with an 8.9 average even though he played just more than 12 minutes a game. Roger Crawford, one of only two seniors on the squad, also brought instant firepower off the bench, but he was injured early in the NCAA Tournament run and was not available for the Final Four.

In his honor, UA players wore a No. 31 patch on their jerseys.

Freshmen Darnell Robinson and Lee Wilson, a pair of 6-11 centers, gave the Hogs size they didn't have in 1993 when they won 22 games and reached the Sweet 16 before falling to eventual national champion North Carolina. Senior Ken Biley and junior Elmer Martin also made significant contributions.

When President Bill Clinton visited Bud Walton Arena for a Dec. 28 blowout of Texas Southern, no one realized it would be a preview of later visits to the NCAA Tournament. The nation's most recognizable Razorback fan later appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated wearing sweats presented by Richardson.

A 13-game winning streak was snapped by Kentucky in the SEC Tournament, but the Razorbacks were still seeded first in the Midwest Regional at Oklahoma City. Williamson scored 24 points and had seven rebounds in a 94-79 first-round victory over North Carolina A&T. He followed with 21 points and Robinson, making a surprise start, added 13 in the 85-73 second-round win over Georgetown.

Early in the year, Tulsa gave Arkansas a scare before the Hogs won in overtime, 93-91, in Tulsa. The Golden Hurricane surprised UCLA and Oklahoma State to reach the Sweet 16 with UA in Dallas. This one was no contest as Williamson and Thurman scored 21 each, and McDaniel 19 in a 103-84 victory.

Michigan was Arkansas' regional final foe and the Hogs could not contain Hakeem Olajuwon and Houston were on their way to their third consecutive Final Four, they were ranked second nationally and hadn't lost a Southwest Conference game in two years. The Cougars had gone 16-0 in 1983 and were 15-0 going into the regular season finale at Barnhill Arena.

Arkansas was outstanding as well. The Hogs already had upset top-ranked North Carolina at Pine Bluff, but at 13-2 couldn't catch Houston in the SWC standings. No one in the overflow crowd of 9,438 cared as they watched a terrific contest showcased by national television.

Olajuwon was held to 10 points before fouling out, but Michael Young picked up the slack with 22 and Alvin Franklin earned 21. They weren't as hot as the Hogs, though. Joe Kleine, whose inside power put Olajuwon in foul trouble, scored 22 points, hitting all 10 of his free throws. Charles Balentine added 16, Ricky Norton 14 and Alvin Robertson 13 points and nine assists.

Houston led at the half but saw its hopes dim when Olajuwon drew his fourth and fifth fouls in a 38-second span six minutes from the end while trying to stop Kleine inside. Kleine hit all four free throws and the Hogs had a huge victory.

Joe Kleine scored 22 points, forced Hakeem Olajuwon to foul out and the Hogs beat No. 2 Houston in 1984.

Juwan Howard, but neither could the Wolverines handle Thurman. With Williamson smothered by Michigan's inside defense and held to 12 points, Thurman tossed in 20 as UA reached the Final Four with a 76-68 win attended by President Clinton.

By the time the Hogs arrived at Charlotte, N.C., they were a confident bunch. They also had been somehow convinced by Richardson that they were not nationally respected, even though they had been ranked No. 1. Arizona was the semifinal opponent and the Wildcat guards, Damon Stoudamire and Khalid Reeves, were billed as the top offensive guards in the nation.

Beck and McDaniel were motivated to the hilt and smothered them. They combined to hit just 11 of their 43 shots, including just two of 22 three-point attempts. Williamson scored 29 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, and the Hogs advanced to the championship game with a 91-82 victory.

An entire state stood still on April 4, 1994. Arkansas fans who could not be there (more than 3,000 made the trip to Charlotte) watched and listened in every corner of the state. President Clinton was there again, and so was Duke, the 1991 and '92 national champion.

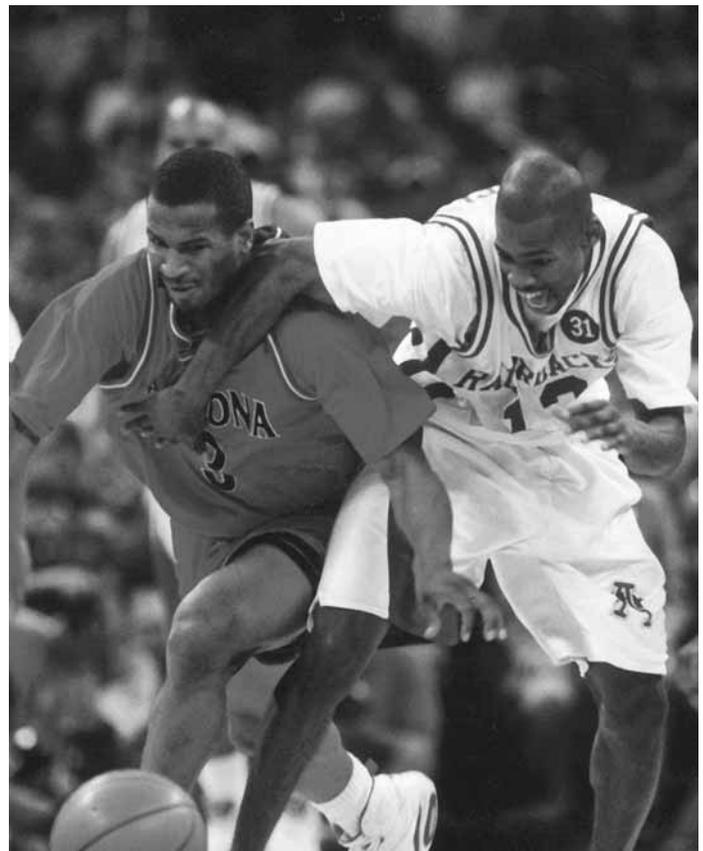

After an airtight first half that ended with Arkansas holding a 34-33 lead, Duke jumped out to a 10-point advantage in the first three minutes of the second half. However, the pace of the game picked up during the run and it never slowed down. The Razorbacks took advantage and were even with the Devils less than five minutes later.

When Arkansas built a 70-65 lead late in the contest, it looked safe, but Grant Hill's three tied the game with 1:29 remaining.

Although Williamson finished with 23 points, there was no doubt who would take the next shot for UA. Thurman launched a high-arching three-point attempt with only seconds left on the shot clock. The shot fell with 51 seconds left and when it settled through the net, the outcome had been determined. A pair of free throws by McDaniel and another by Dillard sealed Duke's fate, 76-72.

Once the national championship belonged to the Hogs, an entire state celebrated. President Clinton embraced Richardson on the court and later officially honored the Razorbacks at the White House.

The 1994 NCAA championship trophy is on display at Bud Walton Arena.

Auburn hadn't won a Southeastern Conference championship in 39 years but already had clinched the title and was ranked second nationally with a 25-1 record when the Tigers came to Bud Walton Arena for Arkansas' regular season home finale.

The Razorbacks had stunned fifth-ranked Kentucky four days earlier and believed a win over Auburn would clinch a spot in the NCAA Tournament.

It was an emotional evening before the game started. Seniors Derek Hood, Pat Bradley and Kareem Reid, record-setters who persevered through four sometimes-difficult seasons, were introduced to the Bud Walton fans for the final time.

Arkansas' fans created the noisiest environment Coach Nolan Richardson, his players and long-time followers of the program could ever remember. An overflow crowd of 20,298 nearly shook the building with an incredible level of exhortation. Not a player or coach on either side completed an interview without mentioning the crowd.

The game itself was airtight throughout the first half. The Hogs surged ahead by 10 points twice but a last second three-pointer by Tiger star Chris Porter carved the advantage to four by intermission. It was a one-point game with 16:26 left but a rebound basket by Hood spurred the Razorbacks to a 30-10 run that left Auburn in shock. Both teams were quick, but the Tigers must have thought there were more than five Hogs on the floor as the noise pushed Arkansas beyond its highest previous performance level of the campaign.

When it was over, the Razorbacks had a 16-point victory and a spot secured in the NCAA Tournament. Bradley hit five three-pointers and finished with 23 points. Hood had 18 points and 13 rebounds. Reid earned 10 points and 10 assists. Junior Chris Walker added 21 points.

It was Arkansas' finest execution of the season and the entire state was buzzing about the contest long after the season was concluded.

Following a win over No. 5 Kentucky five days earlier, Kareem Reid's 10 points and 10 assists helped the Razorbacks knock off second-ranked Auburn, which came in 25-1, in 1999.

Kentucky's second-ever trip to Fayetteville was a highly-anticipated event. CBS moved the game to Super Bowl Sunday to ensure a large audience for the nationally televised event.

The Wildcats were 13-2, including 7-0 in the Southeastern Conference. Arkansas, the preseason No. 1 choice and defending national champion, had looked vulnerable at times during the season and was 15-4 with a 4-3 SEC mark.

By halftime it was obvious another special event was taking place, just as every Arkansas-Kentucky game had been. The Wildcats led by one when Reggie Garrett stunned the visitors with a halfcourt buzzer shot to give UA a 49-47 halftime lead.

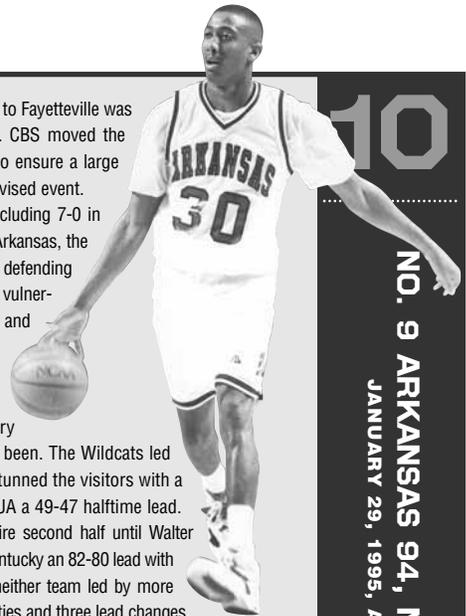

UA was tied or led the entire second half until Walter McCarty's short jumper gave Kentucky an 82-80 lead with 5:19 left. From that point on, neither team led by more than four, and there were three ties and three lead changes.

The teams traded salvos until Clint McDaniel made just one free throw with 51 seconds remaining. When McCarty scored on a put-back with 24 seconds to go, UK led by one.

Scotty Thurman, UA's greatest last-second shot maker ever, made sure the crowd went home happy. He drove past UK defenders, pulled up and hit an 18-footer with eight seconds to go to put the Razorbacks in front for good. McDaniel made a baseline steal in the final second and hit a free throw for the final two-point margin.

Thurman and Corliss Williamson combined for 50 points as the Hogs won their fourth straight regular season game over the Wildcats.

The CBS crew of Tim Brando (left) and Dan Bonner was one of six different network crews to air a game from Arkansas' Bud Walton Arena in 2007.

The coverage of Steven Hill and the Razorbacks has extended into the NCAA Tournament each of the last two seasons.

The following policies have been prepared in consideration of your needs, as well as the needs of our student-athletes, coaches and staff, in hopes of creating a positive working environment for us all. As always, we welcome your suggestions and will try to accommodate special needs.

Game Credentials

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be made online at <http://www.sportssystem.com/arkansashoops>. Requests should be made as early as possible and no later than two days prior to the game. Requests made after that time will not be considered.

Credentials will be granted to working media only and granted on a game-by-game basis. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.

Media and photo credentials will be issued according to the following priority:

1. Daily newspapers for production the following day
2. Sports editors only of other Arkansas daily newspapers
3. Originating broadcast of the visiting team
4. Accredited photographers (same priority as writers)
5. School publications (home and visiting campus publications are limited to a total of two media and two photo passes)
6. Accredited television sports directors and photographers
7. Approved special coverage
8. Professional scouts (one per team and limited to the first six requests)

Space limitations prevent accommodation of weekly media representatives and non-broadcasting radio personnel.

Also due to a lack of space, credentials will not be issued to Web sites. The only possible exception is one credential may be issued to the official Web site of the opposing team and/or the Web site directly affiliated with the television network granted live broadcast rights for the game, space permitting.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The Sports Information Office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one to whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refused to comply with press row and/or photographic guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; and (4) any individual under the age of 16.

No credentials will be mailed. All credentials are left at media will call. If enough time allows, approved parking passes can be mailed.

Southeastern Conference Internet Policy and Guidelines

By acceptance of a credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all basketball games hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or on-line site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

A. No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis, that is at least five minutes after the photographed happening of the event depicted by the still photo.

B. It is agreed that video tape is NOT to be used on an Internet or on-line site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, on-line "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

C. While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score {detail only given in halftime updates}, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed halftime story) so that an organization's Internet or on-line game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's right to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or on-line site of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes a play-by-play account of the game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in the revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

Media Will Call

Located on the south side of Bud Walton Arena, just right of the main ticket window. All passes are left at media will call — no credentials are mailed.

Game Day Parking

A limited number of spaces are available in the lots south of Bud Walton Arena, located at the corner of Sixth Street and Razorback Road. All requests should be made online at <http://www.sportssystem.com/arkansashoops> along with credential requests.

Media Work Room

BWA's work room is one of the most spacious in the nation. It is located on the arena floor level, next to and adjoining the interview room. Weekly press briefings and John Pelphrey's post-game press conferences are held in the interview room. Media members are encouraged to work from and file from the work room rather than press row. Wireless Internet is available in the work room and at press row. Please see Associate SID Robby Edwards or a member of the SID staff for login information. In addition, a minimum of 10 telephones are available in the work room.

Photographers

BWA features two photo "wells," which are located to the right of each goal as you are facing the court. Tripods are not allowed on the floor at any time during play and photographers must sit on the floor so as to not block the view of spectators.

Spots in the photo wells are not reserved. Photographers are not allowed to shoot from either sideline due to space limitations. Sports information reserves the right to limit the number of strobe units used.

Radio Broadcasts

Visiting teams may utilize the four courtesy phone lines available in BWA. ISDN is available. Broadcasters needing more than four lines should contact the UA Sports Information Office. No banners are allowed to hang in front of any broadcast position.

Media Services

The University of Arkansas has one of the top statistical crews in college basketball. Our crew has worked NCAA Tournament regional championships and conference tournaments. Media will be provided play-by-play, halftime and final box scores, and shot charts for each half, in addition to coach and player quotes following the game.

Interview Policy

Arkansas players are available for interviews only on days of John Pelphrey's press briefings, which are generally two days prior to each game. Select players are available for interviews following games in the back of the interview room. Following all home games, after the 10-minute cooling-off period, Pelphrey sits in on Arkansas' post-game radio show and then proceeds to the media room.

John Pelphrey's Weekly Teleconferences

Each Monday and Thursday from Jan. 7 through March 10. The SEC teleconference features each league head coach for seven minutes on a broadcast quality hookup. The teleconference runs from 10 a.m. to approximately 11:30 a.m. (central). John Pelphrey's time slot is from 10:49 to 10:56. Media members can get the teleconference access numbers from either the SEC Media Relations Office (205-458-3010) or the UA Sports Information Office.

Razorback Satellite Services

At press time, no details were available on the uplink of highlights and interviews. The UA Sports Information Office will attempt to schedule highlight feeds following selected non-televised games. For details, contact the Sports Information Office.

Hogwired.com

The latest information on all Razorback men's athletics is just a click away on the web at Hogwired.com — the official Web site of UA men's athletics. Game notes, quotes from John Pelphrey's press conferences and game stories are a few of the items included. The site also offers biographical information on UA coaches and student-athletes, statistics and schedules. Fans can also access live stats of UA football, basketball and baseball games. The RazorZone is a premium site featuring radio game broadcasts of football, basketball and baseball. Video from the RazorZone includes coaches shows, press conferences and selected live events.

ARKANSAS RAZORBACK SPORTS NETWORK

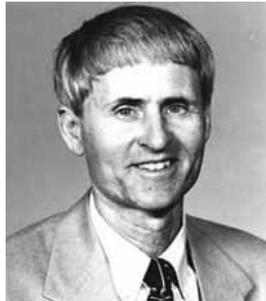

The Arkansas Razorback Sports Network, a division of Little Rock-based KATV Channel 7, is in its 14th year of producing and delivering every moment of Razorback basketball to thousands of Hog fans world-wide.

ARSN, as the exclusive provider of all Razorback sports programming, produces and distributes all men's basketball, football and baseball radio broadcasts, and televises six live basketball games each season. Each weekday during the basketball and football seasons, Hog fans can get all the latest news on the Razorbacks by listening to the daily "Razorback Report" on any of the ARSN affiliate stations.

In addition to radio, ARSN produces all pay-per-view events of the university and coordinates special projects, such as home video production and marketing.

GETTING THE HOGS ON THE AIR

Mike Nail and Rick Schaeffer

Mike Nail (left), who is in his 27th year as the radio play-by-play "Voice of the Razorbacks" broadcast his 842nd Arkansas game in 2007. Nail's post-season experience includes three trips to the Final Four, two national championship games, including the 1994 national championship victory over Duke, 45 NCAA Tournament game broadcasts in 17 NCAA Tournament appearances, four NIT appearances (2 pre-season, 2 post-season) and eight conference championships. The former television sports director also handled the radio play-by-play assignment for Razorback football during the 2006 campaign, yielding the play-by-play duties for six Arkansas basketball games to Scott Inman due to conflicts with football. Nail, who has been married to Razorback Spirit Coordinator Jean Nail for 43 years, will handle only the basketball play-by-play duties this season. Chuck Barrett was added to the Arkansas staff as director of broadcasting and has assumed the permanent play-by-play position for football.

Rick Schaeffer (right) is in his fourth year back as the analyst, but his 27th year overall. Schaeffer was not on ARSN broadcasts from 2000-04, but the former UA sports information director returned three years ago.

Scott Inman and Jimmy Dykes

Scott Inman (left) is in his second season as the play-by-play voice for Razorback basketball on ARSN television. In his ninth year with ARSN, he works as the host of the pre-game and post-game shows for football radio broadcasts. The co-anchor of KATV's 5, 6 and 10 p.m. newscasts, the Stuttgart native graduated from Arkansas State in 1995.

Jimmy Dykes (right) is in his 14th year on the ARSN television broadcast team. He serves as a college basketball analyst for ESPN, and has also worked for ABC and Raycom Sports. A 1985 graduate of Arkansas, he was a three-year letterman at UA and a member of two Southwest Conference championship teams.
