OVER THE LAST FIVE SEASONS

Arkansas has appeared on television 105 times.

ESPN's Rick Majerus and Brad Nessler (far left), and CBS Sports' Ian Eagle and Bill Raftery (left) broadcast games from Arkansas' Bud Walton Arena last season.

IN 2005, STREET & SMITH'S RELEASED a specialty publication on the "100 Greatest College Basketball Programs of All Time" with Arkansas ranking eighth on that list.

In describing the issue, editor Michael Fresina said "more than a ranking, this is a celebration of college basketball, a working history of the game's finest programs."

To compile the rankings, Street & Smith's examined several categories, including NCAA Tournament appearances, tournament victories, Final Four appearances, championship game appearances, titles won, conference and conference tournament championships, graduation rates and NBA first-round draft selections, among others.

TRADITION

ARKANSAS HAS MADE SIX TRIPS TO THE FINAL FOUR (1941, 1945, 1978, 1990, 1994, 1995), earned 27 bids to the NCAA Tournament, advanced to the Sweet 16 10 times, claimed a total of 39 victories in NCAA Tournament play and won 24 regular season and tournament conference championships.

The six Final Four appearances, 27 NCAA Tournament bids and 24 conference titles all rank ninth-best in the nation. The 39 NCAA Tournament victories rank 10th in the country while the Sweet 16 appearances rank 12th.

Last year's team won the Paradise Jam tournament (above) at St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands, and received votes in the Associated Press top 25.

ARKANSAS HAS RANKED IN THE TOP 15 IN NATIONAL attendance average for the last 12 years – every season since moving into Bud Walton Arena for the 1994 campaign.

In terms of exposure, the Razorbacks have had 105 games televised over the last five years.

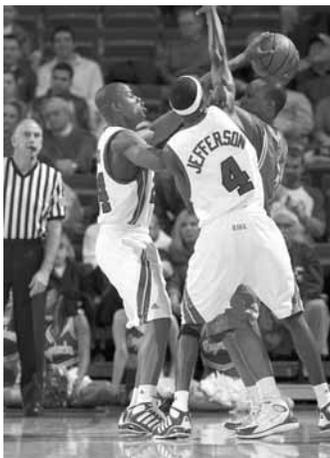

Individually, Arkansas has produced 21 All-America selections, 23 All-Southeastern conference selections in 13 years, including Ronnie Brewer (top right) last year, 10 SEC All-Freshman picks, including Darian Townes (center right) last year, and 22 NBA draft choices since 1978.

Townes was an honorable mention freshman All-American last year. Brewer is a preseason All-American and is on this year's preseason Wooden Award watch list.

PLAYER DEVELOP

improve its overall field goal percentage in the SEC from 12th to seventh and its three-point field goal percentage from 11th to fifth over the last three years. Arkansas' .457 field goal percentage last year was its best since 1995 and its .372 three-point mark was its best since 1997. Individually, Ferguson earned Paradise Jam all-tournament honors and is ninth on Arkansas' all-time assists chart (297) after ranking fifth in the league with 128 (4.27).

Aggressive defense (left) has helped the Hogs go from ninth in the SEC in steals to second (8.7), from ninth in blocked shots to first (5.2), limit opponents to the second-lowest three-point percentage in school history (.309) and hold opponents to 62.8 points per game, UA's lowest opponent average since 1985.

RONNIE BREWER (RIGHT) IS THE TOP returning scorer (16.2) and field goal percentage leader (.475) in the SEC this year. A member of the Wooden Award preseason watch list, he is also the only first-team all-conference selection returning from 2005.

Since 1992, the SEC has produced 29 All-America selections, 37 NBA first-round draft picks and 50 teams ranked in the final Associated Press top 25.

The SEC sent six teams to the NCAA Tournament in six of the last seven seasons. In the other season, five teams earned a bid.

In terms of attendance, the SEC has ranked among the top three conferences in 13 of the last 14 years.

Individually, Ronnie Brewer (top right) earned first-team All-SEC honors last year. Jonathon Modica (top left) was a second-team all-conference selection in 2004.

Darian Townes (above left) was named to the SEC's All-Freshman Team last year. Over the last three years, four Razorbacks have earned all-freshman honors, including Townes in 2005, Brewer and Olu Famutimi in 2004, and Modica in 2003.

In addition to Arkansas' current student-athletes making progress towards completing their degree requirements, former Hogs have also gotten into the act. Todd Day (top left), following a nine-year NBA career in which he averaged 12.8 points per game from 1993-2001, returned to Fayetteville and earned his degree in 2004. Clyde Fletcher, who lettered in 1991 and '92, and Ron Huery, who lettered from 1987-91, also returned and graduated in 2005.

HEAD COACH STAN HEATH

COACHING STAFF HEAD COACH STAN HEATH

UA head coach Stan Heath spent time with NBA legend Bill Russell at a Northwest Arkansas golf event this summer.

Another year was another sign of improvement for the Razorback basketball program under head coach Stan Heath. The most obvious examples are the win totals, which have gone from nine in 2003 to 12 in 2004 to 18 in 2005.

A closer look at the numbers shows drastic improvements in scoring, shooting, assists, turnover margin, blocked shots and steals, among others.

From 2003 through last season, the Razorbacks have gone from 12th in the SEC in scoring (61.6) to sixth (71.6); from 12th in field goal percentage (.393) to seventh (.457); from 11th in three-point shooting (.310) to fifth (.372); from 12th in free throw shooting (.609) to ninth (.663); from 12th in assists (9.8) to sixth (14.5); from 12th in turnover margin (-3.39) to second (+2.70); from ninth in blocked shots (3.5) to first (5.2); and from ninth in steals (6.5) to second (8.7).

In 2005, Arkansas won the Paradise Jam, a six-team tournament at St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands, received votes for the top 25 for the first time since 2001, and led the SEC in blocked shots (5.2) and three-point defense (.309). Heath's club also recorded UA's best shooting percentage (.457) since 1995 (.464) when the Hogs advanced to the Final Four championship game, its best three-point percentage since 1997 (both .372), blocked the most shots (156) since 1998 (156), held opponents to their lowest scoring average (62.8) since 1985 (61.7), limited opponents to the second-lowest three-point percentage (.309) in school history (.305 in 2001), allowed the second-lowest opponent rebound average (33.2) since 1989 (32.5 in 2003) and had the fewest shots blocked (81) since 1997 (78).

The only number that didn't go the way the Hogs wanted was a 3-4 record in one-possession games. After losing the first three, Arkansas won the next three and then dropped the seventh. With one or two more friendly bounces, the Razorbacks would likely have been a postseason team.

Heath's 2004 club was the eighth-youngest in the nation, based on players contributing quality minutes, but the Hogs took steps in the right direction with the win total increasing by three. The improved win total included a pair of wins over ranked teams – No. 22 Vanderbilt, 70-62, and No. 25 South Carolina, 82-66.

When he became Arkansas' 10th head basketball coach on March 28, 2002, he inherited a team returning just 25.1 points and 16.8 rebounds a game from the previous season.

Despite an all-freshmen backcourt, the Razorbacks enthusiastically bought into Heath's system and the results were evident. Heath's emphasis on defense resulted in UA holding opponents to 66.5 points a game, then the lowest total since 1988 (64.9). The biggest difference was on the boards. After ranking 12th in the Southeastern Conference in 2002 with a -8.7 rebounding margin, 10th with 8.0 offensive rebounds and 11th with 32.1 boards per game, Arkansas was the top rebounding team in the league with 38.0. The Hogs were also first with 14.54 offensive rebounds a game and third with a +5.5 rebounding margin.

Heath's coaching has a lot to do with those gains, but his recruiting is also a factor as he and his staff continue attracting several of the top players from across the country.

The 2003 class, which included Ronnie Brewer, Olu Famutimi and Vincent Hunter, was ranked No. 7 in the nation in the Recruiting Services Consensus Index and by Hoop Scoop, and No. 10 by CNN.com.

Heath and his staff earned praise in 2004 for signing Al Jefferson, the top prospect in the nation. Jefferson signed with Arkansas during the fall recruiting period but was selected by the Boston Celtics with the 15th pick in the first round of the 2004 NBA Draft.

Even though Jefferson did not suit up for Arkansas, his signing made inroads with other recruits nationally and the 2004 Razorback class was ranked No. 13 by Rivals.com and No. 16 by Hoop Scoop.

The 2003 class raised Arkansas' overall athletic ability. The 2004 class gave UA an inside presence with size in the form of 7-0 Steven Hill, 6-10 Darian Townes and 6-8 Charles Thomas.

Heath came to Arkansas after a record-setting season as the head coach at Kent State University. In 2001, his first year as a head coach, he led the Golden Flashes to a 30-6 record and to the Elite Eight in the NCAA Tournament.

Before going to KSU, he was an assistant for five years under Tom Izzo at Michigan State. He helped the Spartans advance to the Final Four three straight years (1999, 2000, 2001), win the 2000 national title, make another appearance in the Sweet 16 and go to a combined 132-37.

On March 19, 2001, Sports Illustrated featured "five college coaches waiting in the wings." Heath was on that list, along with assistant Leonard Perry of Iowa State, Florida assistant John Pelphrey, head coach Jeff Ruland of Iona and Hofstra assistant Jay Wright.

A month later, he was the head coach at Kent State.

Under his guidance, the Golden Flashes won the Mid-American

COACHING STAFF HEAD COACH STAN HEATH

What Michigan State Head Coach Tom Izzo Says About Stan Heath

"In his five years at Michigan State, he was a part of four straight Big Ten championships, three straight Final Fours and a national championship, so he has a blueprint and an understanding of what it takes to be successful. He took over a Kent State program that had high expectations, yet he found a way to exceed the expectations by winning championships and advancing to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight.

"Stan has a great basketball mind and relates very well with kids. He's a people person, while also being well organized with an understanding of what he needs to do to accomplish his goals."

Conference regular-season and tournament titles, and came within a victory of reaching the Final Four before falling to Indiana in the South Region finals.

Along the way, Kent set school and MAC records for wins (30), breaking the record of 29 set by Ball State in 1989; became the first MAC team to reach the Elite Eight since Ohio University in 1964; recorded a league-record 21-game winning streak, including a 17-1 mark in conference play; beat three ranked teams in the NCAA Tournament, including No. 20 Oklahoma State, 69-61, No. 8 Alabama, 71-58, and No. 9 Pittsburgh, 78-73 in overtime, before losing to Indiana, 81-69; went 12-0 at home with an average attendance of 4,928, Kent's best since 1970; led the MAC in scoring defense (64.0 ppg), scoring margin (+11.9 ppg), field goal percentage defense (.418), rebounding margin (+5.0 rpg) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.24) while also ranking second in three-point field goal percentage defense (.326) and turnover margin (+2.78); and suffered its five regular season losses by a total of 15 points.

Individually, Heath's 30 wins ties for the third-most by a first-year head coach in NCAA Division I history with John Warren of Oregon (1945). Only Bill Guthridge of North Carolina (34 in 1998) and Bill Hodges of Indiana State (33 in 1979) won more. The Detroit native was also voted the MAC Coach of the Year and named the national Rookie Coach of the Year by both CBSsportsline.com and CollegeInsider.com.

Before going to Kent, the three-year letterman from Eastern Michigan helped Izzo and the Spartans post records of 17-12 in 1997, 22-8 in 1998, 33-5 in 1999, 32-7 in 2000 and 28-5 in 2001. In addition to the three trips to the Final Four, MSU also reached the Sweet 16 in 1998 and the second round of the NIT in 1997.

Heath, who earned his bachelor's in social science from Eastern Michigan in 1988 and his master's in sports administration from Wayne State (Detroit, Mich.) University in 1993, began his collegiate career at Hillsdale (Mich.) College in 1989 as an assistant. After one season, he moved to Albion (Mich.) College where he was an assistant and the junior varsity head coach for two years. He worked at Wayne State in Detroit the following three years, including serving as associate head coach in 1994 when WSU set a school record for victories (25-5), helping the Tartars win two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles with a trip to the Division II Final Four in 1993.

After two seasons as an assistant at Bowling Green State University, he joined Izzo at Michigan State. He began his coaching career on the prep level, working as assistant varsity and head freshman coach at Lincoln High in Ypsilanti, Mich.

An all-state performer at Catholic Central High in Detroit, he lettered in 1985, '86 and '87 at Eastern Michigan.

He is married to the former Ramona Webb and they have two sons, Jordan (13) and Joshua (10).

ASSISTANT COACH DAN HIPSHER

Former University of Akron head coach Dan Hipsher joined Arkansas' staff as an assistant on June 10, 2005, bringing with him 27 years of collegiate coaching experience. A native of Lancaster, Ohio, Hipsher compiled a record of 238-182 in his 15 years as a head coach at three different universities from 1990-2004.

Hipsher has shown the ability as a head coach to maintain an already successful program as he did at Wittenberg University or rebuild struggling programs as he did at Stetson University and the University of Akron. In four years at NCAA Division III Wittenberg University (1990-93), he was 97-18; in two years at Stetson University (1994-95), he was 29-27; and in nine years at the University of Akron (1996-2004), he was 112-137. He earned conference coach of the year honors at each school. He also coached for USA Basketball at Colorado Springs, Colo., in 1997 and represented the Mid-American Conference on the National Association of Basketball Coaches' Division I Congress for seven years.

At Wittenberg University, a program jumpstarted in the 1960s by SEC coaching legend Ray Mears (Tennessee), Hipsher inherited a program rich in tradition that leads all of NCAA Division III basketball in victories. Hipsher's teams carried on that tradition in his four seasons, winning North Coast Athletic Conference regular season titles each year, the tournament title twice and advancing to the NCAA Tournament three times. Wittenberg led the nation in scoring defense in 1992 (56.9 ppg) and Hipsher was named NCAC and Great Lakes Region coach of the year in 1990.

When he moved to Stetson for the 1994 season, the Hatters had suffered three losing seasons in the previous four years. He went 14-15 his first season, but took Stetson to the championship game of the Trans America Athletic Conference Tournament. After a 15-12 mark and TAAC coach of the year honors in 1995, he moved to the University of Akron, which had posted three straight records of 8-18, including a 9-45 record in conference play.

The Zips were a combined 11-41 his first two years, but beginning with the 1998 season won 17 or more games for three straight years and led the MAC in conference victories during that span. The 1998 squad went 17-10 and won the Mid-American Conference's East Division with Hipsher earning MAC coach of the year accolades. He was also named Ohio's college coach of the year by the Columbus Dispatch, edging Cincinnati's Bob Huggins. The Zips were 18-9 in 1999 and finished 17-11 in 2000.

While Hipsher was at Akron, attendance for Zips games doubled at the James A. Rhodes Arena and his non-conference schedule included games against Alabama, Cincinnati, Notre Dame, Purdue, Syracuse, Wyoming, Xavier and North Carolina, among others. The Zips led all of NCAA Division I in three-point shooting in 2001 (.433). They led the MAC in overall shooting in 1998 (.472) and 2004 (.466), and in free throw percentage in 2000 (.763).

Hipsher was a first-team all-state selection as a junior and senior at Fostoria (Ohio) Senior High School before playing at Bowling Green State University. He was named to the Mid-American Conference All-Academic team twice (honorable mention College Sports Information Directors of America All-American) and also lettered twice as a pitcher on the baseball team.

After graduating from BGSU with a bachelor's in chemistry and biology in 1977, he worked as a graduate assistant at Miami University under Darrell Hedric, earning his master's in education a year later. That year, Miami won the MAC title and beat defending national champion Marquette in the first round of the 1978 NCAA Tournament.

After two years as an assistant at Miami-Dade South Community College under Bruce Huckle, he returned to Ohio as an assistant at the University of Dayton. In his nine years (1981-89) under Don Donoher, the Flyers were 152-114 and earned two trips to the NCAA Tournament and three to the NIT. Hipsher also served on the NABC Recruiting Committee from 1984-1989.

Overall as a head coach and assistant, his teams have earned six NCAA Tournament bids.

Hipsher and his wife, Sue, also a 1977 Bowling Green graduate, have two sons, Andy (25) and Bryan (23).

ASSISTANT COACH ORONDE TALIAFERRO

A former player for Stan Heath, Oronde Taliaferro (O-ron-day Ta-la-fair-o) is beginning his fifth season as an assistant under his former head coach, including his fourth under Heath at Arkansas.

After playing for Heath at Wayne State University in Detroit, Taliaferro, following a very successful prep coaching stint, also in Detroit, was a part of Heath's staff at Kent State and the great run the Golden Flashes had in the 2002 NCAA Tournament.

Taliaferro helped guide the Golden Flashes to a 30-6 record, a berth in the Elite Eight and within one win of the Final Four, and the Mid-American Conference regular-season and tournament championships as Kent led the MAC in scoring defense (64.0 ppg), scoring margin (+11.9 ppg), field goal percentage defense (.418), rebounding margin (+5.0) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.24) while also ranking second in three-point field goal percentage defense (.326) and turnover margin (+2.78).

Taliaferro followed Heath to Arkansas after the 2002 season at Kent State.

One of his players, guard Ronnie Brewer, earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a sophomore last year after earning freshman All-America honors in 2004 from Rivals.com and College Basketball News. Another one of his guards, senior Eric Ferguson, enters the season ninth on UA's all-time assists chart with 297.

Taliaferro went to KSU after five years as the boys varsity head coach at Detroit Central High School where his teams posted a combined record of 101-25. During the 1998 season, he guided Central to a 23-4 record and the Class A state championship in earning Detroit News & Free Press "Dream Team" Coach of the Year honors.

A two-time Public School League Coach of the Year, he also coached Central to the state semifinals in his first season (1997) while the 2001 squad went 20-4 for his second 20-win season in five years. One of his stars at Central was Antonio Gates, who set an NFL record for tight ends in 2004 by scoring 13 touchdowns for the San Diego Chargers.

As a player, Taliaferro led Wayne State to three Great Lakes Intercollegiate Conference titles, three NCAA Division II Sweet 16 appearances and a combined record of 71-20. He helped the Tartars reach the Final Four in 1993 and set a school record for victories in 1994 (25-5).

Heath originally recruited Taliaferro to Albion (Mich.) College, where he was an assistant in 1990 and 1991. Taliaferro played at Albion as a freshman before transferring to Wayne State.

Taliaferro prepped at Detroit Mumford High School where he was an honorable mention all-city selection as a senior after helping his team reach the city playoffs for the first time in 24 years. His coach at Mumford was the late Jim Boyce, the former Eastern Michigan University coach who recruited Heath to EMU in the mid-1980s.

Taliaferro and his wife, Kim, are the parents of three daughters, Errin, Kaela and Lynsey.

Ronny Thompson is in his third season as an assistant coach after joining head coach Stan Heath's staff during the summer of 2003.

Thompson came to the Razorbacks with a pedigree second to none. He is the son of legendary Hall of Famer and former Georgetown head coach John Thompson.

He is also the brother of current Georgetown head coach John Thompson III.

Thompson adds a wealth of knowledge and coaching experience to Heath's staff. He coached for five seasons as an assistant at Georgetown. In addition, he also worked with another Hall of Famer, head coach Larry Brown, and general manager Billy King as an NBA scout for the Philadelphia 76ers from 1996-98. While with the 76ers, Thompson was an integral part in assisting Brown and King in preparing for games as well as assisting in preparing for the NBA Draft.

Thompson, who played for his father from 1989-92, earned his bachelor's in sociology in 1992 and worked on Wall Street for Prudential Securities.

After working on Wall Street, he decided to pursue coaching and began his second career as an assistant to Jerry Green at the University of Oregon. From 1994-96, he was an assistant at Loyola before going to the NBA. Thompson joined his father's staff after the 1998 NBA season and remained with the Hoyas through 2003. Georgetown's 2001 squad reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The 2003 team reached the finals of the NIT while the 2000 team advanced to the second round of the NIT.

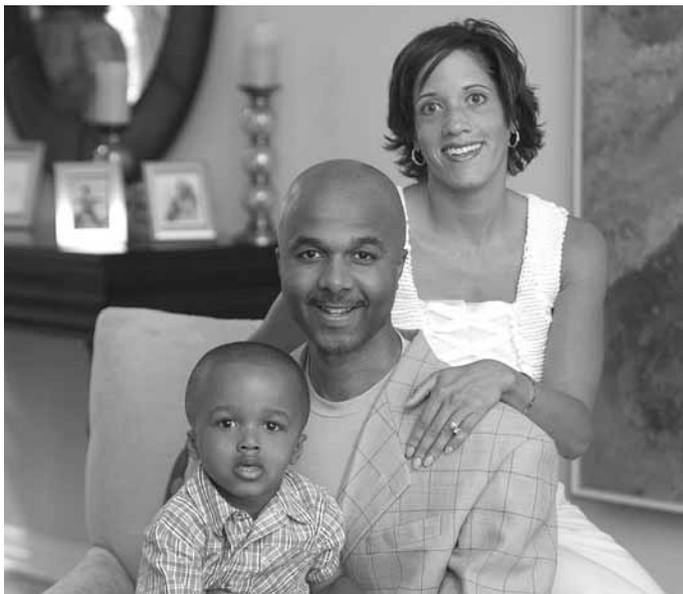

At Georgetown, Thompson's duties included coordinating recruiting, preparing scouting reports and player development, in addition to on-floor coaching.

His coaching career to this point has been special with time spent working with two coaches who have won NCAA titles and been inducted into the Hall of Fame. Not surprisingly, Heath has Thompson, one of the bright young minds in the coaching profession, involved in all aspects of the Razorback program.

One of Thompson's responsibilities is post play. Last year, Darian Townes earned honorable mention freshman All-America honors while another freshman, Steven Hill, was second in the Southeastern Conference in blocked shots.

As a player at Georgetown, Thompson was a member of teams that went a combined 94-35, reached the Elite Eight once and the Sweet 16 twice.

Thompson and his wife Erica have a son, Dylan (three) and a daughter, Devin, who was born May 20.

#51 STEVEN HILL

Center - 7-0 - 248 - Sophomore - 1L - Branson, Mo. (Branson HS)

2005-06 Preview:

He's gained weight (15 pounds) and strength, and has worked on his offensive game. Already strong defensively, he blocked 54 shots last year and is just 40 away from the seventh spot on Arkansas' career chart. Hill is expected to compete with Vincent Hunter and Charles Thomas for a starting spot. He and forward Darian Townes can play at the same time to give the Razorbacks a big front line.

He started 18 of 30 games as a true freshman and finished second in the SEC with 1.8 blocked shots per game while adding 2.3 points and 2.3 rebounds. He made 50.9 percent of his shots (29-57). In conference play, his percentage improved to 57.1 (8-14), but he averaged just 1.4 points, 1.3 rebounds and 1.0 blocked shot. He started five SEC games. Over the last 20 games, his shooting percentage was .583 (14-24) and his free throw percentage was .571 (8-14).

Hill's 54 blocked shots are the second-most ever for an Arkansas freshman. Oliver Miller had 60 in 1989. Hill's total and average are the most for a Razorback since Nick Davis in 1998 (80, 2.42).

He led the team in rebounding twice (6 vs. Eastern Michigan 11/22 & 5 vs. Tulsa 11/30). He had four blocked shots in each of his first two games - Winthrop (11/19) and Troy (11/21) - and two against Eastern Michigan (11/22) in the Paradise Jam championship game to tie the tournament record of 10 set by Dimari Thompkins of Virginia Tech in 2002. He also led the team with six rebounds against EMU while adding two points, helping UA win the tournament title.

In the win over Tulsa (11/30), he had nine points, five rebounds, four blocked shots and two steals. Against No. 3 Illinois (12/4), he scored just one point but had four rebounds and six blocked shots. In the win at Missouri (12/7), he blocked four shots, and also had two points and two rebounds. Against Prairie View (12/18), he had 10 points, six rebounds and five blocked shots.

Against Hartford (12/23), he had six points, six rebounds, four steals and a blocked shot. He had five blocked shots against Alabama (1/11). He made two-of-three shots, and had four points and two rebounds against Auburn (1/22). Hill was two-of-two from the floor and the line for six points along with two rebounds and a steal in the win over Georgia (2/9).

In High School:

A Nike All-American after being rated one of the top 20 players at the Nike Camp, he was rated the No. 7 center in the nation and the No. 33 overall prospect by TheInsidersHoops.com. A two-time all-state selection, he averaged 20.0 points, 10.0

rebounds and 6.0 blocked shots as a senior. Listed as the best high school shot blocker in the country by Bob Gibbons' All-Star Sports, he broke the blocked shot record at the USA Basketball Sports Festival at Colorado Springs, Colo., during the summer of 2003 competing against 50 of the top players in the nation.

Personal:

Born Nov. 14, 1985, in Chanute, Kan., he is the son of Troy and the late Penny Hill. He is majoring in business.

Stan Heath on Steven Hill:

"From last year to this year, Steven could be our most improved player. We feel like he can make a significant jump in his play. He's gained 15 pounds of muscle, so he's up to about 250. That added weight will help him be stronger around the basket, finish inside and be more confident. He's already a great defensive player who can block shots and control the middle. He's really added to his offense, and is getting more comfortable scoring and understanding how he can be effective. He's going to give 100 percent and I see him, after a solid freshman year, playing a much bigger role for us."

Forward – 6-10 – 220 – Sophomore – 1L – Little Rock, Ark. (J.A. Fair HS)

2005-06 Preview:

Hunter is back after missing last year. He may have been a starter last season, and will compete for a starting spot this year with Steven Hill and Charles Thomas. One of the more versatile players on the team, he can score and defend inside and outside.

He averaged 3.8 points and 2.8 rebounds as a freshman after averaging 7.8 points and 4.5 rebounds prior to the injury. The 2005 season was a redshirt year and he returns in 2006 as a sophomore.

The MVP of the Class 4A state tournament, he averaged 15.0 points, 12.0 rebounds and 8.0 blocked shots a game as a senior in leading J.A. Fair to the finals. He averaged 18.0 points, 12.0 rebounds and 5.7 blocked shots as a junior.

Personal:

Born Oct. 22, 1984, in Little Rock, he is the son of Vincent and Shirley Hunter, and he is majoring in sociology.

Stan Heath on Vincent Hunter:

"Vince was sorely missed last season. A very versatile player, he can play facing the basket and on the block, and he can guard and defend forwards as well as guards at times. He will help immensely against zones and presses."

#24 JONATHON MODICA

Guard – 6-5 – 208 – Senior – 3L – Smackover, Ark. (Smackover HS)

2005-06 Preview:

Modica, who can score inside and out, will be one of Arkansas' key players this year, along with Ronnie Brewer and Darian Townes. With the departure of guard Olu Famutimi, Modica should get more minutes and improve on last year's scoring and rebounding averages. Twenty-fourth on the school's all-time scoring list, he enters the season with 1,074 points. He is 294 points and 54 free throws away from moving into UA's top 15 in each category. His scoring was down last year, but his .520 field goal and .429 three-point percentages led the club. His .429 three-point percentage ranks fourth among all SEC returnees.

After earning second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a sophomore when he averaged 16.5 points and 4.5 rebounds a game, he finished third on the team in scoring in 2005 (9.6) and fifth in rebounding (2.8). He started 12 of 30 games and played 21 minutes a game after playing 29 minutes and starting 23 of 28 in 2004. In SEC play, his averages did improve to 10.1 points and 3.1 rebounds.

Despite the overall decrease in his numbers, his 289 points scored give him 1,074 for his career, which ranks 24th on UA's all-time list. His shooting percentage improved from 46 percent to 52 percent (103-198) and his three-point percentage from .325 to .429 (30-70). He led the team in scoring five times, in rebounding three times, in assists four times and was in double figures scoring 14 times with two 20-point games.

He earned SEC Player of the Week honors on Feb. 14 following UA's wins over LSU (2/12) and Georgia (2/9). Against Georgia, he had 14 points, four rebounds and two assists, and became the 28th Razorback to score 1,000 career points. Against LSU, he had season highs of 25 points and nine rebounds. For the week, he averaged 19.5 points and 6.5 rebounds while shooting 60.7 percent from the floor (17-28). He was UA's first conference Player of the Week since Jannero Pargo in 2002.

He scored 14 points, and had four rebounds and a career-high five steals against Troy (11/21). In the Paradise Jam championship game, he had 14 points against Eastern Michigan (11/22), helping the Razorbacks win the team title. Modica had a team-high 16 points on six-of-nine shooting, including three-of-four on three-pointers, against Lipscomb (12/20). In the win over Hartford (12/23), he was five-of-nine from the floor for 17 points.

He made eight-of-nine shots and scored a game-high 20 points against Louisiana-Monroe (12/31) while also adding four assists, three rebounds and two steals.

Against Alabama (1/11) he had 11 points on five-of-eight shooting, and a team-high five assists with no turnovers. At Mississippi State (1/15), he had a team-high 14 points. Modica made four-of-six shots, and had 12 points and four rebounds against Auburn (1/22).

In the win at Ole Miss (2/5), Modica started for the first time in 16 games (since Illinois on Dec. 4), and had 13 points, five rebounds and a career- and game-high seven assists. He scored four straight points, including two free throws, in a 24-second span to give Arkansas a 65-64 lead in the 66-65 victory.

As a senior, he averaged 33.2 points, 13.2 rebounds and 3.1 steals for Coach Mike Poff in leading Class 2A Smackover to a 20-7 finish. As a junior, he averaged 32.3 points, 9.3 rebounds and 3.2 steals on a 21-8 club. As a freshman, he averaged 33.1 points, 8.2 rebounds and 2.1 steals on a 17-6 squad.

In his first game at UA's Bud Walton Arena, he scored a game-high 17 points in 18 minutes to lead the East to an 88-79 win over the West in the state all-star game in June.

Modica had 28 points and eight rebounds in helping his team to a 149-120 victory in the Kentucky Derby Festival Classic, a national all-star game at Freedom Hall in Louisville, Ky. Rick Bozich of the Louisville Courier Journal wrote "If you wanted to find Modica on the floor, all you had to do was follow the ball. If it was on the floor, he was on top of it. If it was on the glass, he was after it. And nobody was faster filling the lanes."

His AAU credentials were also impressive. He scored 20 points and had 10 rebounds in leading the Arkansas Hawks to the state title in 2001.

Modica also played for the South at the 2001 USA Basketball Men's Youth Developmental Festival.

He played football until his senior season and then devoted all of his attention to basketball. As a junior, he completed 126-of-246 passes for 1,573 yards and 13 touchdowns, ran 85 times for 424 yards and six scores, and caught three passes for 61 yards and three TDs.

Born Sept. 26, 1984, he is the son of Amanda Stephens. Majoring in broadcast journalism, his nickname is "Pookie." He signed with Arkansas over Tennessee, Kentucky and Florida, among others.

Stan Heath on Jonathon Modica:

"Jonathon had very good freshman and sophomore seasons. He wasn't as productive as a junior, but he has worked on different parts of his game to make himself better. A very gifted scorer, he can play outside and shoot or go inside and post up. He has worked to improve on the defensive end and in rebounding - areas in which he can be very good. He's hungry and excited about having a very good senior season."

He came on strong in the second half of the season last year and will be counted on to produce again this year along with Ronnie Brewer and Jonathon Modica. A forward, he can also play center and may be on the floor along with Steven Hill to give the Razorbacks a big lineup. An honorable mention freshman All-American by Rivals.com in 2005, he is Arkansas' most effective post player since All-SEC forward Derek Hood (1996-99).

An honorable mention freshman All-American by Rivals.com and a member of the SEC's all-freshman team, he got better as the season went on. He was second on the team in scoring (10.2), rebounding (4.6), shooting percentage (.519), free throw percentage (.698, players with a minimum of 45 attempts) and blocked shots (48).

He tied for fourth in the SEC with 1.6 blocked shots per game. Among the league's freshmen, he was fifth in scoring, sixth in rebounding, seventh in shooting percentage (second among players with more than 60 attempts), eighth in free throw percentage (among players with more than 50 attempts) and second to teammate Steven Hill in blocked shots.

He led the team in scoring seven times, second-most on the team, led in rebounding five times and scored in double figures 17 times, which was also second on the club. His 17 double-figure scoring games tie for the fourth-most by a UA post player since 1995 and are the most for a Razorback since Derek Hood reached double-digits 26 times in 1999.

In non-conference play, he averaged 8.8 points and 4.0 rebounds while shooting 56.2 percent from the floor (50-89). In the SEC, he shot 49.3 percent (72-146) while improving his averages to 11.4 points and 5.1 rebounds. Stan Heath on Gary Ervin:

"He will sit out and use this year to not only improve by working on shooting and playing the point, but his value to us in practice will be very important. He will push our starters and the others. Our players will not face a better point guard in games than what they see every day in practice from Gary. That will only make them better. He is, from point A to point B, as fast as anybody in college basketball. He has a knack for making big plays at critical times. We're very excited about Gary and expect him to be an important part of our success in the future."

#14 SEAN McCURDY
Guard – 6-1 – 188
Freshman – HS – Westport, Conn.
(St. Anthony [N.J.] HS)

2005-06 Preview:

McCurdy missed his entire senior season with a broken bone in his right foot, but he has fully recovered and began playing pickup games with his teammates during the summer. He spent the early part of the summer working on his outside shooting. A candidate for the starting point guard spot along with Dontell Jefferson, he will see plenty of action.

In High School:

He missed his entire senior season with a broken bone in his right foot. As a junior, he averaged 15.0 points and 8.0 assists for a St. Anthony (Jersey City, N.J.) High School squad that went 30-0 and ended the year ranked No. 2 in the nation by USA Today. He prepped for legendary high school coach Bob Hurley.

Although a combo guard, he was ranked the seventh-best point guard at the Reebok ABCD Camp the summer prior to his senior year.

With McCurdy out with the foot injury his senior season, St. Anthony was 21-6.

As a sophomore, he averaged 12.0 points and 4.0 assists per game.

Stan Heath on Sean McCurdy:

"Sean comes from a winning program and has been well-coached. We feel with his toughness and skills, he will be a valuable asset. He knows how to win and will work very hard. He knows how to play, is very unselfish and shoots the ball well from the perimeter. Those are skills we've been looking for. He will help us at point guard."

#1 CYRUS McGOWAN
Forward – 6-9 – 236
Freshman – HS – Meridian, Miss.
(Meridian HS)

2005-06 Preview:

McGowan adds size to Arkansas' big front line. He will add depth to the power forward position. Instead of being rushed into service, he will get the chance to learn from UA's experienced players. He is expected to play this year, but may be a candidate for a red-shirt season.

In High School:

He led Meridian to the Mississippi Class 5A state finals where he got in foul trouble and had two points and 10 rebounds in a 74-62 loss to Murrah. He averaged 11.1 points, 12.3 rebounds and 4.0 blocked shots in leading Coach Ernie Watson's club to a 28-9 mark. MHS beat defending state champion Biloxi in the semifinals to advance to the finals for the first time since 1978 with McGowan claiming 16 rebounds in the win.

A second-team all-state selection by the Jackson Clarion-Ledger, heading into his senior year he was also rated the No. 72 player in the country by TheInsiders.com and the 24th-best prospect at the Reebok ABCD Camp. He was also rated the third-best prospect in Mississippi by Hoop Scoop.

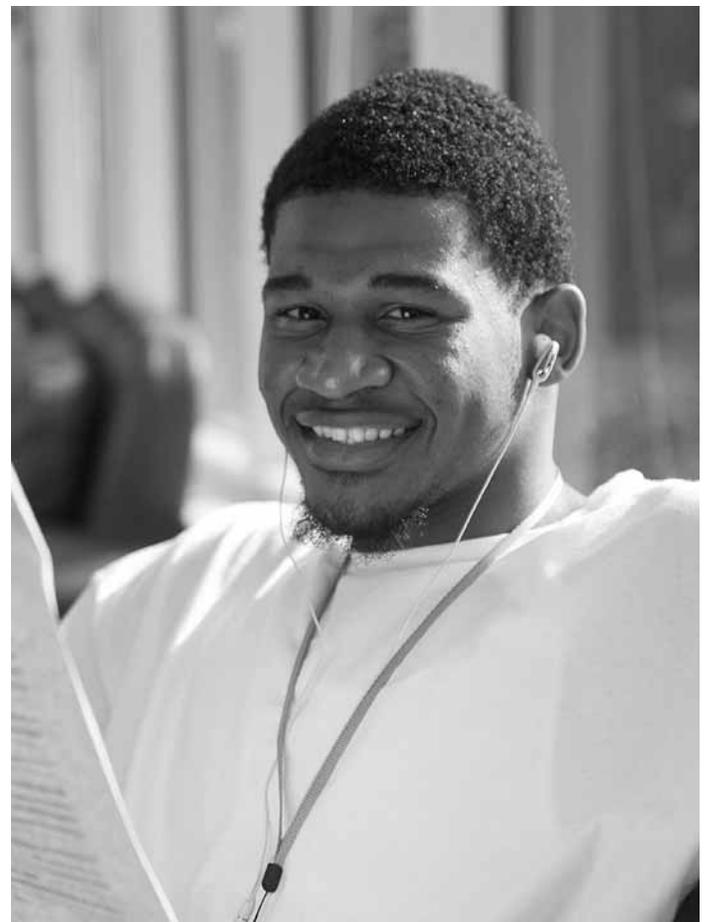

He was also named all-area, all-region and region MVP, and was nominated for McDonald's All-America honors.

Personal:

Born Oct. 30, 1986, his parents are Florence McGowan and Charlie McCarthy. A member of the national honor society in high school, he is majoring in communications.

Stan Heath on Cyrus McGowan:

"Cyrus is very strong and a good athlete. He will do a lot of the dirty work, such as rebounding and defending. His offensive skills are improving and he will be very good in time. He's an extra player in the frontcourt who can give us minutes. As time goes on, we expect him to improve and contribute."

SEASON OUTLOOK

Hogs Looking for a Return to the Postseason

Arkansas was oh so close last year. A friendly bounce here or there, or a three-pointer made from a half-inch farther out and the Razorbacks could have earned their first NCAA Tournament bid since 2001.

A 3-4 record in one-possession games (three points or less) kept Arkansas home during tourney time. If Eric Ferguson's last-second three-pointers fall against either Alabama or Kentucky; if Ronnie Brewer hits the pull-up jumper in the lane against Mississippi State in the final seconds; or if Michael Jones' three-pointer with 1.8 seconds left at LSU had remained a three instead of being changed to a game-tying two, the Hogs may have received their 28th bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Instead, UA stayed home, but improved to 18-12 with the win total increasing by six, won the Paradise Jam tournament in the Virgin Islands and received votes in the top 25 for the first time in four years.

Arkansas also recorded its best shooting percentage (.457) since 1995 (.464) when the Hogs advanced to the Final Four championship game; its best three-point percentage since 1997 (both .372), blocked the most shots (156) since 1998 (158); held opponents to their lowest scoring average (62.8) since 1985 (61.7); limited opponents to the second-lowest three-point percentage (.309) in school history (.305 in 2001); allowed the second-lowest opponent rebound average (33.2) since 1989 (32.5 in 2003); and had the fewest shots blocked (81) since 1997 (78).

The Hogs, who also led the Southeastern Conference in blocked shots (5.2) and three-point defense (.309), have shown steady improvement over the last three years. Since 2003, the Razorbacks have gone from 12th in the SEC in scoring (61.6) to sixth (71.6); from 12th in field goal percentage (.393) to seventh (.457); from 11th in three-point shooting (.310) to fifth (.372); from 12th in free throw shooting (.609) to ninth (.663); from 12th in assists (9.8) to sixth (14.5); from 12th in turnover margin (-3.39) to second (+2.70); from ninth in blocked shots (3.5) to first (5.2); and from ninth in steals (6.5) to second (8.7).

More importantly, the win totals have gone from nine to 12 and then to 18, but the Razorbacks are still looking to break a four-year postseason tournament drought.

This year could be the year.

THE RETURNEES

Arkansas returns four starters and seven lettermen from 2005, including the team's top three scorers and top two rebounders. Also back are the top four playmakers, top two shot blockers and top two steal leaders.

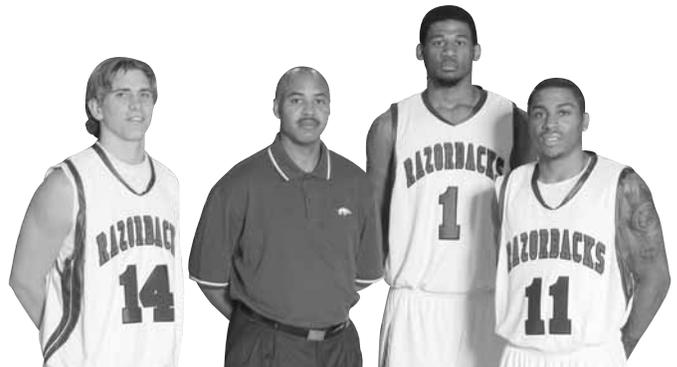

Head coach Stan Heath's core of returnees includes a career 1,000-point scorer, one of the school's top 10 assists men, the second-leading shot blocker in the SEC last year and an honorable mention freshman All-American.

And that doesn't include possibly the best all-around player in the SEC - 6-7, 217-pound junior guard Ronnie Brewer, who is a preseason All-American by both Athlon Sports (third team) and Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook (fourth team), as well as Blue Ribbon's SEC's preseason player of the year.

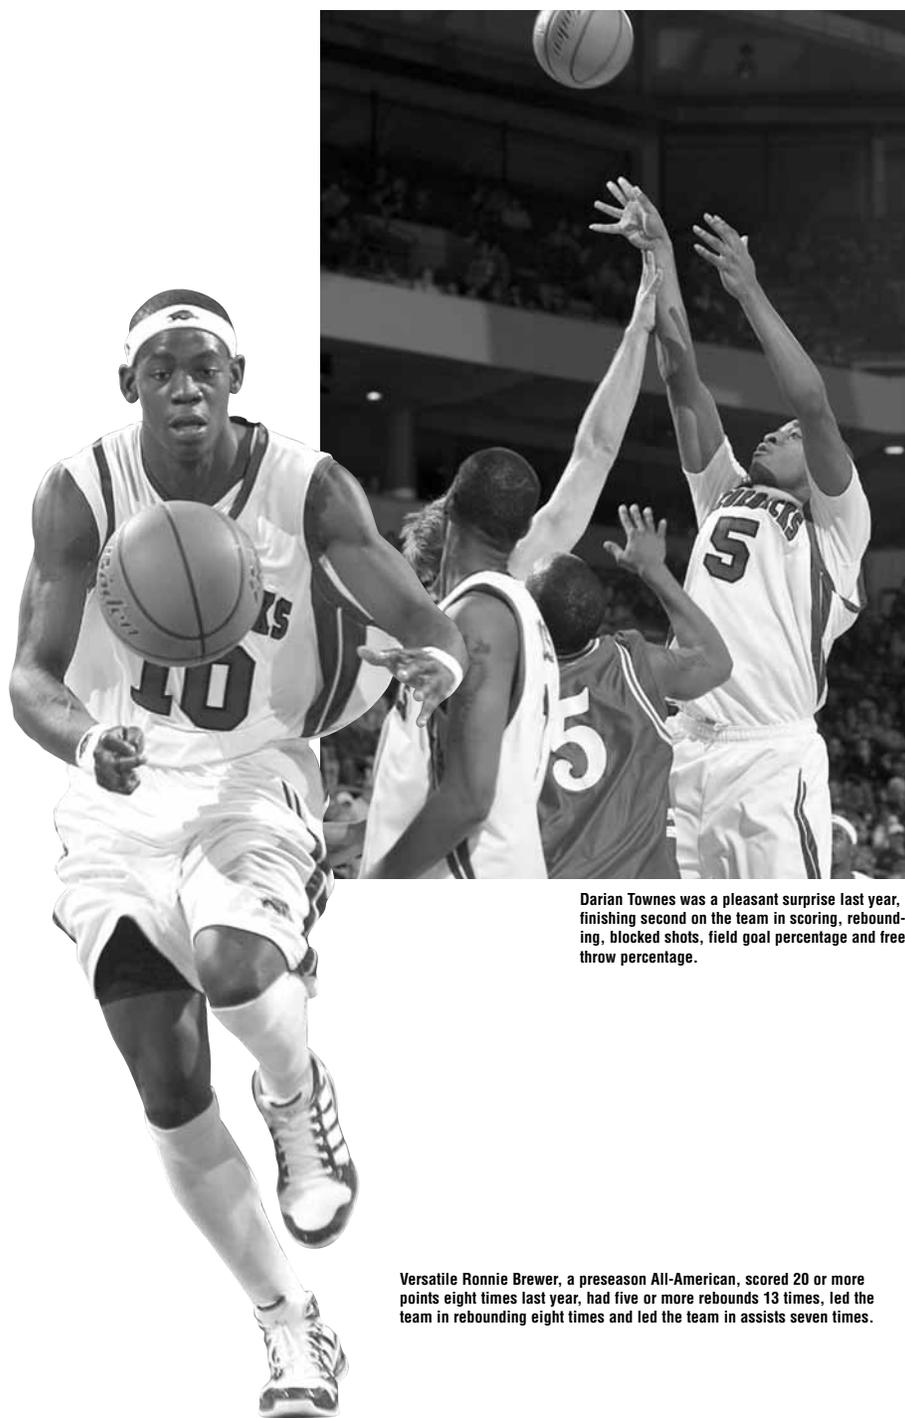

Brewer, the league's top returning scorer (16.2) and field goal percentage leader (.475), was first-team All-SEC and all-district by the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the United States Basketball Writers Association as a sophomore. He was also the MVP of the Paradise Jam after helping Arkansas win the six-team tournament with averages of 15.7 points, 3.7 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 2.7 steals while shooting 51.6 percent from the floor.

Eric Ferguson is ninth on Arkansas' all-time assists chart (297) and is only 31 steals away from that top 10 list, but he is also only 205 points away from reaching 1,000 for his career.

Head coach Stan Heath with this year's newcomers (from left): freshman guard Sean McCurdy, freshman forward Cyrus McGowan and junior guard Gary Ervin, who must sit out this year and will have two years to play beginning in 2006-07.

Darian Townes was a pleasant surprise last year, finishing second on the team in scoring, rebounding, blocked shots, field goal percentage and free throw percentage.

Versatile Ronnie Brewer, a preseason All-American, scored 20 or more points eight times last year, had five or more rebounds 13 times, led the team in rebounding eight times and led the team in assists seven times.

Streaks Entering the Season

- Arkansas has made at least one three-point bucket in 545 consecutive games. UA made at least on three in every game it played in the 1990s. The last time UA failed to make a three was in a 99-92 win at Texas in January 1989, and the Hogs attempted just two three-pointers in that contest. Arkansas has played 618 games since the three-pointer was added to college basketball and failed to make a three in only six games. UA won those six games.
- Arkansas has ranked among the nation's top 15 in attendance average 12 straight years - every year since Bud Walton Arena opened in 1994. UA ranked ninth in the nation and second in the SEC last season with an average of 15,788.
- The Razorbacks have won 10 straight season openers and 29 consecutive home openers.
- UA has won nine straight games when scoring 80 points or more.
- When forcing 20 or more turnovers, the Hogs have won eight straight.

NOTING THE HOGS

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS: At least one publication, Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook, expects the Razorbacks to have a good year. Arkansas is picked to finish second in the Western Division behind Alabama and junior guard Ronnie Brewer is the preseason SEC Player of the Year. Blue Ribbon also named Brewer a fourth-team preseason All-American while Athlon Sports has him listed as a third-team All-American. Athlon also named Brewer first-team All-SEC, and Jonathon Modica and Darian Townes third-team all-conference. Lindy's Basketball lists Brewer first-team all-conference and Modica third team. Blue Ribbon ranks Arkansas' backcourt second-best in the league (behind Kentucky) and its frontcourt third best (behind Alabama and Kentucky).

RETURNING ALL-STARS: Junior guard Ronnie Brewer is one of the most decorated returnees in the Southeastern Conference this season, but he's not the only Razorback who has earned recognition.

Brewer led the team in scoring and was eighth in the league with 16.2 points per game. He also led the team with 4.8 rebounds and was fifth in the league in field goal percentage (.475), second in steals (2.53) and fifth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.66).

He earned first-team All-SEC honors from the league's coaches and was second-team on teams chosen by AP and Rivals.com. The Fayetteville native was also first-team All-District 9 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches and first-team All-District 7 by the United States Basketball Writers Association. He earned second- (Rivals.com) and third-team (College Basketball News) freshman All-America honors.

Sophomore forward Darian Townes was an honorable mention freshman All-American (Rivals.com) and was named to the SEC's All-Freshman squad. He was second on the team in five categories - scoring (10.2), rebounding (4.6), field goal percentage (.519), free throw percentage (.698) and blocked shots (1.6). He was fourth in the SEC in blocked shots and his 17 double-figure scoring games are the most for a UA post player since Derek Hood had 26 in 1999.

Senior guard Jonathon Modica is a former all-conference selection, earning second-team honors as a sophomore in 2004 when he was eighth in the league in scoring (16.5), seventh in field goal percentage (.462) and ninth in free throw percentage (.782). As a junior, he averaged 9.6 points, 2.8 rebounds and 1.6 assists with his shooting percentage jumping to .520. He earned SEC Player of the Week honors, UA's first since 2002, by averaging 19.5 points and 6.5 rebounds with a .607 field goal percentage, in wins over Georgia and LSU.

Following a four-game scoreless stretch, Charles Thomas ended the year averaging 5.5 points and 4.0 rebounds over the final four games.

He was eighth in the league in scoring (16.2), fifth in shooting (.475), second in steals (2.5) and fifth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.66) while also leading the team in rebounding (4.8). In conference play only, he was even better, ranking sixth in scoring (16.4), 15th in rebounding (5.3) and second in steals (2.3) while adding 3.3 assists.

Brewer, listed as the most versatile player in the SEC and the league's top NBA prospect by Lindy's Basketball, can and will play everywhere except in the post.

That spot will be manned by the returning honorable mention freshman All-American, Darian Townes, or sophomore center Steven Hill, who was second in the SEC in blocked shots a year ago.

Townes, a 6-10, 255-pounder who should start at either forward or center, came on at the end of the year and started the final 13 games. He was second on the team in five categories – scoring (10.2), rebounding (4.6), shooting (.519), free throw percentage (.698) and blocked shots (1.6). He averaged 12.8 points and 5.5 rebounds over the last 12 games of the year.

Townes, who was named to the SEC's All-Freshman team and is a preseason all-conference pick by Athlon this year, scored in double figures 17 times, which ties for the fourth-highest total by an Arkansas post player since 1995 and is the most since Derek Hood reached double-digits 26 times in 1999.

Hill, a 7-0, 248-pounder, is competing for the other inside starting spot with 6-8, 245-pound sophomore Charles Thomas and 6-10, 220-pound sophomore

Quotes From Head Coach Stan Heath

"This team has a lot of possibilities. It's an experienced team that has gone through a lot of ups and downs, and has matured. We finally feel like we have all the pieces – not only in terms of talent and experience, but our guys now have a better understanding of how to win.

"We realize the importance of chemistry, hard work and effort required in practice every day, and carrying that over into games. We had a lot of close games last year. We won a few but we lost a few. Knowing how to win in those situations makes a big difference. We've made improvement each year. Last year's team was very close and on the verge of being an NCAA Tournament team. We fell short, but learned valuable lessons during that process. Going into the season, we have high expectations. We feel very confident in our ability to contend for a championship in the SEC. We know it will require a lot of work, and we will have to fight and work for everything we get. We will have some tests along the way. Our schedule is very, very difficult, but we're ready for the challenge.

"Our front line is deeper. We're probably not quite as deep on the perimeter. It may work out to our benefit that our better players will be on the floor consistently. We had a little bit of congestion and sometimes the minutes didn't work out where guys got into their rhythm during the course of a game. I feel like we'll go nine guys deep, maybe 10, but there will be three or four players who will get the majority of those minutes and they will be effective for us. Going into the season and based on what guys have done in the past, the three players we will rely on for both offense and defense are Ronnie Brewer, Darian Townes and Jonathon Modica. Rounding out that group is another group including Steven Hill, who has improved dramatically and will give us a significant presence, Vincent Hunter and Charles Thomas. We also have Eric Ferguson, who has a lot of experience, along with Sean McCurdy in the backcourt.

"I want us to play at a fast pace and speed up the game. I think our strength is in the open court. I want to pressure people and be better at rebounding. I would like to see us be one of the top teams in the conference in rebounding. That will open up fast-break and second-chance opportunities for us.

"Secondly, I want us to shoot the ball. We should be a better perimeter shooting team. We struggled at times when we faced zones from a lack of confidence. Shooting well will allow us, when a defense is playing us honest, to still have an inside game against teams that want to pack it in with a zone.

"Thirdly, I would like to see us be a lock-down, tough-minded defensive team that has the ability to shut down somebody for a four-to-five minute stretch and let us have a momentum run that opens up games for us. Our bread and butter will be our half-court, man-to-man defense, but we will still have other schemes we will utilize, whether it's full-court pressure or zones. We will mix things in there to keep teams off-balance. I feel this team has enough depth and flexibility to not only be a very good defensive team, but also be a team that makes defensive plays.

"If the matchups are right, right now, we would go with a lineup of Ronnie, Jonathon, Darian, Sean (McCurdy) or Dontell (Jefferson) at the point, and then Steven, Vincent or Charles. There will be a lot of competition on that front line. All of those players, whether they start or come off the bench, deserve minutes and will be effective for us.

"We will primarily use three players at the point. Dontell returns and is a much better player than what he showed last year. I think he will be more comfortable with a year under his belt. Sean has natural leadership abilities, ball skills and a feel for the game. Point guard is his natural spot. Ronnie can play all over the court, including the point, and Eric could play there. We primarily want to use Eric at the two-guard spot. He performs better in that spot. As long as Sean, Ronnie and Dontell man that position as well as I feel they can, there should be no reason to move Eric back to that spot. I like bringing Eric off the bench. I think he played much better in that role (last year) and he sparked our team."

Vincent Hunter.

Thomas, who can also play on the wing, averaged 5.5 points and 2.7 rebounds. His .768 free throw percentage led the team, among players with a minimum of 45 attempts. In non-conference play, he averaged 8.5 points and 3.4 rebounds while shooting 48.6 percent from the field and 78.3 percent at the line. In conference play, his numbers dropped to 3.1 points, 2.1 rebounds and a .308 shooting percentage, but he still shot well at the line (.739).

Hunter played in 24 games with nine starts two years ago, averaging 3.8 points and 3.2 rebounds. He dislocated his right shoulder five games into the season and missed the next four games. He averaged 7.8 points and 4.5 rebounds prior to the injury.

Last year, he dislocated it again during UA's Red-White Game and chose to have reconstructive surgery, forcing him to miss the entire season.

Hunter has good range and a nice shooting touch, and will be a key option against zone defenses. He can play either forward or on the wing.

Hill started the first 16 games. He averaged 2.3 points and 2.3 rebounds, and led the SEC in blocked shots until the final week before finishing second (1.8). His 54 rejections are the second-most ever for a UA freshman (Oliver Miller had 60 in 1989) and are the most for a Hog since Nick Davis had 80 in 1998.

Hill shot 50.9 percent for the year, including 57.1 percent in SEC play, but he took an average of less than two shots per game.

Jonathon Modica isn't afraid to shoot and he could get plenty of opportunities this year. Last year, the 6-5 senior guard became the 28th Razorback to score 1,000 career points and he enters the season 24th on UA's list with 1,074 points and a career average of 12.6 points per game.

A second-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore when he was eighth in the league in scoring (16.5), seventh in shooting (.462) and ninth in free throw percentage (.782) while adding 4.5 rebounds, his averages dropped to 9.6 points and 2.8 rebounds last year. He played 29 minutes a game in 2004 and 21 minutes a game last year. With sophomore wing Olu Famutimi (9.4 ppg, 4.2 rpg) declaring early for the NBA, Modica could get more minutes this year.

His averages were down, although in conference play they were up to 10.1 points and 3.1 rebounds, but his shooting percentages jumped from .462 as a sophomore to .520 last year and from .360 on threes to .429. He is expected to have a big year and has earned preseason All-SEC recognition from both Athlon and Lindy's.

When Modica, Brewer, Townes and even Hill look to score, they need to get the ball. Six-one senior guard Eric Ferguson has delivered in the past.

Ninth on UA's all-time assists list with 297, Ferguson was fifth in the league (4.27), second in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.37) and eighth in steals (1.7) while adding 8.8 points and 2.7 rebounds. A

WIDE WINGSPAN MAKES HOGS EVEN BIGGER:

With four players 6-9 or taller, the Razorbacks are already big, but the wingspan of several Razorbacks makes UA even bigger. It's not uncommon for basketball players to have a wingspan, the distance from the outstretched fingertips on one hand to the outstretched fingertips on the other, greater than their height, but the Hogs have eight players with a significantly longer reach.

Name	Height	Wingspan
Ronnie Brewer	6-7	6-10
Steven Hill	7-0	7-3
Vincent Hunter	6-10	7-1
Dontell Jefferson	6-5	6-8
Cyrus McGowan	6-9	7-1
Jonathon Modica	6-5	6-8
Charles Thomas	6-8	7-1
Darian Townes	6-10	7-2

TWO CURRENT HOGS AMONG UA'S ALL-TIME BEST:

Seniors Eric Ferguson and Jonathon Modica enter their senior season ranked among the school's all-time best at what they do best, passing and scoring, respectively.

Ferguson finished 2005 fifth in the conference in assists (4.27) and moved into Arkansas' all-time top 10 in that category. He enters 2006 ninth on the list with 297.

Modica moved into UA's 1,000-point club last season during his 14-point effort in the win over Georgia. He is the 28th Razorback to score 1,000 career points and enters his final season 24th on the list with 1,074 points. He is averaging 12.6 points per game for his career.

LEAGUE LEADERS: Arkansas led the SEC in two categories in 2005 - blocked shots and three-point field goal defense. UA averaged 5.2 blocked shots per game to top the conference in that category for the first time. The Hogs limited teams to a .309 three-point percentage, leading the league for the first time since 1994 (.296).

Arkansas was also second in scoring defense (62.8), turnover margin (+2.70) and steals (8.73).

Individually, Ronnie Brewer was eighth in scoring (16.2), fifth in field goal percentage (.475), second in steals (2.53) and fifth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.66). Eric Ferguson was fifth in assists (4.27), second in assist-to-turnover ratio (+2.37) and eighth in steals (1.70). Steven Hill was second in blocked shots (1.80) and Darian Townes tied for fourth (1.60).

GET THAT OUTTA HERE: Freshmen Steven Hill and Darian Townes helped Arkansas' defense by blocking shots all season in 2005. Hill finished with 54, the second-most for a freshman in school history, and Townes had 48, the third-most for a freshman. Oliver Miller holds the freshman record with 60 in 1989.

The totals for both Hill and Townes are the combo guard who will play both positions again this year, he led the club with 44 three-point buckets, and his assist total (128) and average are the best for a Hog since Kareem Reid in 1999 (181, 5.32).

He was named to the Paradise Jam all-tournament team after helping UA win the event with averages of 15.7 points, 4.3 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 2.5 steals while shooting 56.3 percent from the floor, including 53.8 percent on threes.

Brewer, Modica and Ferguson have combined to make 174 starts over their careers with Townes and Hill adding another 32 last year, but they aren't the only experienced players returning for Heath.

Thomas made 18 starts as a freshman and 6-5 senior guard Dontell Jefferson played in all 30 games with four starts.

In fact, Jefferson could be the starter at the point with Ferguson coming off the bench, as he did 13 times last year.

Jefferson averaged 4.1 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.1 assists per game. He played a big role in wins over Missouri, Ole Miss and Tennessee. He was four-of-four at the line in the final 1:06 at Missouri, one-of-two with the game-winner with three seconds left at Ole Miss and one-of-two with 23 seconds left in the two-point win over Tennessee.

Other returnees are sophomore guards Preston Cranford and Sammy Munsey.

Munsey, 6-2, played a total of 10 minutes in four games (0.0 ppg, 0.3 rpg) and Cranford, a 6-7 shooter, redshirted in 2005 after averaging 0.5 points in 15 appearances in 2004.

THE NEWCOMERS

This year's recruiting class gives Arkansas inside and outside help.

Six-nine, 236-pound freshman forward Cyrus McGowan can bang inside and could find his way into the frontcourt rotation while guard Sean McCurdy is expected to contend for the starting point guard spot.

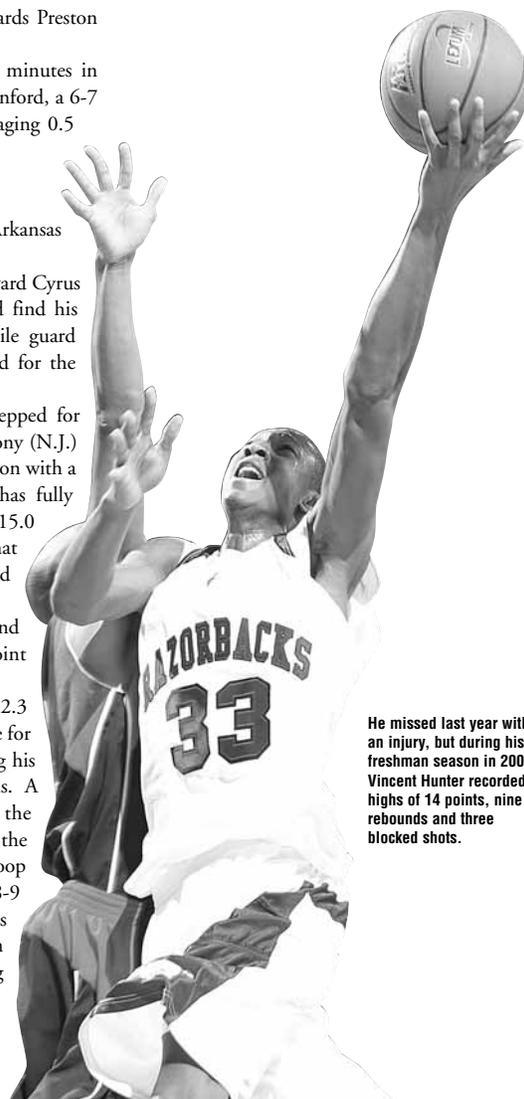

McCurdy, a 6-1, 188-pounder, prepped for the legendary Bob Hurley at St. Anthony (N.J.) High School. He missed his senior season with a broken bone in his right foot, but has fully recovered. As a junior, he averaged 15.0 points and 8.0 assists on a squad that went 30-0 and ended the year ranked No. 2 in the nation by USA Today.

He is expected to battle Jefferson and Ferguson for the starting spot at point guard.

McGowan averaged 11.1 points, 12.3 rebounds and 4.0 blocked shots a game for Meridian (Miss.) High School, helping his team reach the state Class 5A finals. A second-team all-state selection by the Jackson Clarion-Ledger, he was rated the third-best prospect in the state by Hoop Scoop. He helped Meridian to a 28-9 record and its first trip to the state finals since 1978 with a 16-rebound effort in the semifinal victory over defending state champion Biloxi.

After lettering two years ago, Preston Cranford redshirted last year. He could be a three-point threat for the Razorbacks this season.

He missed last year with an injury, but during his freshman season in 2004, Vincent Hunter recorded highs of 14 points, nine rebounds and three blocked shots.

NOTING THE HOGS

most for a Razorback since Nick Davis had 80 rejections in 1998. For the year, Arkansas had 156 rejections, which is the fifth-best season mark in school history and is the best since 1998 when UA recorded 158 blocks. UA led the SEC in blocked shots with 5.2.

TRIPLE-DIGIT THREAT: Guard Ronnie Brewer showed his versatility last year by reaching triple digits in five different categories, becoming the first Razorback to do so in nine years. Brewer reached three figures in field goals made (171), free throws made (108 – 4.8), rebounds (145), assists (101 – 3.4) and points scored (486 – 16.2). The last Hog to do so in five categories was Kareem Reid in 1996 in field goals made (141), free throws made (116), rebounds (101 – 3.1), assists (219 – 6.6) and points scored (426 – 12.9). Several other Hogs have reached triple digits in five categories, but no Arkansas player has done so in six categories.

TOWNES REACHES DOUBLE-FIGURES 17 TIMES, THE MOST FOR AN ARKANSAS POST PLAYER SINCE 1999:

Freshman forward Darian Townes averaged 10.2 points, 4.6 rebounds and 1.6 blocked shots for the year while shooting 51.9 percent from the floor (122-235) and 69.8 percent at the line (60-86). He finished second on the team in all five categories.

Townes was also second on the team with 17 double-digit scoring games, which is the most for an Arkansas post player since Derek Hood reached double-figures 26 times in 1999. By comparison, as a freshman, Hood had seven double-figure scoring games in 1996.

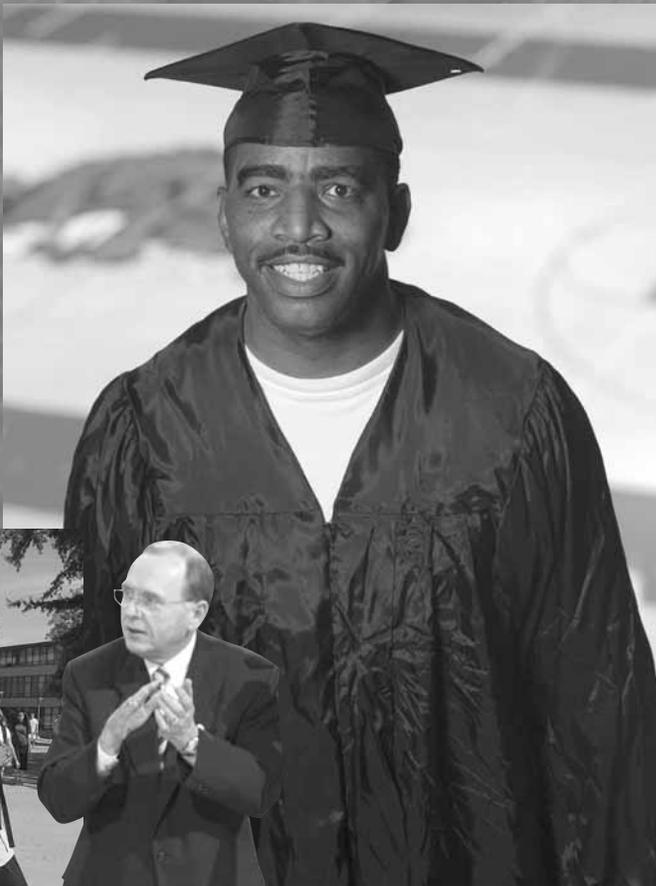

Here is a chart of double-figure games by UA post players since 1995:

Player/Season	Games	Double-Figure (Longest Streak)
Corliss Williamson, 1995	36	(22)
Derek Hood, 1999	26	(8)
Derek Hood, 1997	18	(5)
Nick Davis, 1998	17	(5)
Darian Townes, 2005	17	(5)
Derek Hood, 1998	15	(3)
Darnell Robinson, 1996	15	(8)
Alonzo Lane, 2000	13	(2)
Lee Wilson, 1997	11	(3)

TRAIL OF THREES: With one three-pointer in last year's season finale, the Razorbacks have now made at least one three-pointer in 545 consecutive games. UA made at least one trey in every game it played in the 1990s. The last time UA failed to make a three was in a 99-92 win at Texas in January 1989, and the Hogs attempted just two three-pointers in that contest. Arkansas has played 618 games since the three-pointer was added to college basketball and failed to make a three in only six games. UA won those six games.

Clyde Fletcher, who lettered on teams which won a Southwest Conference title in 1991 and the Southeastern Conference championship in '92, returned to school and completed his degree requirements in 2005, earning his bachelor's in vocational education. Other recent Razorbacks who have returned to Arkansas and graduated are Todd Day, who earned his bachelor's in 2004, and Ron Huery, who finished in 2005.

Vincent Hunter, Eric Ferguson and Darian Townes make their way across campus and head for the Union, which houses meeting, reception and banquet rooms; lounges, game rooms, a ballroom, a theater, a video theater, an art gallery, a food court, the University Bookstore, a U.S. Post Office, a hair salon, the Quick Copy Center, the Razorback Shop, a computer store and a travel agency.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS IS AMONG THE TOP 120 COLLEGES AND 20 BEST BARGAINS IN THE NATION, ACCORDING TO TWO LEADING RANKINGS RELEASED THIS SUMMER. UA IS TIED FOR 120th AMONG ALL UNIVERSITIES AND TIED FOR 59th AMONG ALL PUBLIC UNIVERSITIES IN THE 2005 U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

The University of Arkansas, the flagship campus of the University of Arkansas System, rests on a former hilltop farm overlooking the Ozark Mountains to the south. At the University's founding in 1871, the site in Fayetteville was described as "second to none in the state of Arkansas."

Located in Fayetteville, UA is both the major land-grant university for Arkansas and the state university. The University came into being under the Morrill Land-Grant College Act of 1862, through which federal land sales provided funds for new colleges devoted to "agriculture and the mechanic arts," "scientific and classical studies," and "military tactics" for the "liberal and practical education of the industrial classes." The University's founding satisfied the provision in the Arkansas Constitution of 1868 that the General Assembly "establish and maintain a State University."

Citizens in Fayetteville and surrounding Washington County raised $130,000 to secure the University in a statewide competition sparked by the General Assembly's Organic Act of 1871, providing for the "location, organization and maintenance of the Arkansas Industrial University with a normal department [i.e., teacher education] therein."

Today, the UA campus includes 130 buildings on 345 acres and offers more than 200 academic programs, more than some universities twice its size. Yet it maintains a low student-to-faculty ratio (currently 17:1) that makes personal attention possible.

THE CAMPUS AND SURROUNDING COMMUNITIES

The University of Arkansas is located in Fayetteville, a city of nearly 60,000 residents. Fayetteville is at the southern tip of a metroplex that runs northward for 25 miles along I-540 through Washington and Benton counties in Northwest Arkansas and ends in Bella Vista, an upscale retirement community near the state's northern border.

The metroplex also includes Springdale (home of Tyson Foods, the world's largest meat producer), Lowell (home of J.B. Hunt Trucking), Rogers and Bentonville (home of Wal-Mart Stores Inc., the world's largest corporation).

The two Northwest Arkansas counties (Washington and Benton) that contain this metroplex are growing rapidly, due to a booming regional economy. The Fayetteville-Springdale-Rogers metropolitan area is ranked by the U.S. Census Bureau as being the sixth fastest-growing metro area in the nation. From 1990 to 2000, the metropolitan area grew 47.5 percent, from 210,908 to 311,121.

Situated on the Ozark Mountain Plateau, Northwest Arkansas offers friendly people, beautiful scenery, a moderate climate, excellent school districts and a robust economy in which the unemployment rate runs well below national averages. Fayetteville itself presents the vibrant cultural life that would be expected in any major university town. Since the 1960s, the area has been a haven for writers, artists, poets and musicians.

UNIQUE TRADITIONS

Since the University's founding, the names of the almost 124,000 graduates have been etched into more than five miles of campus sidewalks, arranged by year of graduation. It's not uncommon to see alumni strolling Senior Walk to revisit their own names and fond memories of accomplishment and fun.

Among the notable names that grace Senior Walk are Sen. J. William Fulbright,

The University of Arkansas is the only remaining university in the nation to etch the names of its graduates into the campus' sidewalks. Senior Walk stretches for more than five miles. When the costs of hand-etching names into concrete forced other universities to give up the practice, UA's physical plant and engineering school grads created a computerized sandblasting machine – the SandHog, which each summer adds that year's graduating class. Since the university's founding, the names of all of the almost 124,000 graduates have been etched into the sidewalks, their names arranged by year of graduation.

who also served as president of the University and for whom Fulbright College is named; Meredith Boswell, Academy-Award-nominated set decorator; E. Fay Jones, internationally recognized architect; Jerry Jones, owner of the Dallas Cowboys; Pat Summerall, Fox Sports broadcaster and former NFL player; Donna Axum Whitworth, former Miss America; E. Lynn Harris, author of What Becomes of the Brokenhearted and Tiffany Wright, an ESPN reporter.

Old Main, the University's signature building, designed in Second Empire architectural style, has come to symbolize higher education in Arkansas. Old Main is one of 11 campus buildings on the National Register of Historic Places.

The Inn at Carnall Hall and Ella's Restaurant are the University's own on-campus 50-room historic inn and five-star restaurant. This beautiful facility serves the Hospitality and Restaurant Management academic program. Carnall Hall was built in 1905 as the University's first women's residence hall. The building was named after Ella Carnall, a noted teacher and role model for young women, and one of the campus' first female faculty members.

VIBRANT CAMPUS LIFE

The University offers a vibrant campus life for its mainly full-time, residential undergraduate student population. University residence halls accommodate approximately 4,000 students and the rest live in and about the city of Fayetteville.

There are 272 registered student organizations including special interest, religious, international and cultural organizations, honorary and professional service groups, and more.

Culturally and intellectually, the academic semesters overflow with faculty and student musical performances, theatre productions, art exhibits, concerts, poetry readings and visiting speakers - both on campus and at the adjacent Walton Arts Center. The University's Distinguished Lecture Series has featured former prime minister of Pakistan, Benizir Bhutto, and former prime minister of Israel, Erud Barak. It also has hosted James Earl Jones and staged a colorful debate between political pundits Al Franken and Ben Stein.

COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY

Enhancement of diversity is one of UA's five institutional goals. A University-wide Diversity Task Force is leading efforts to generate programs that strengthen not only racial and ethnic diversity, but cultural, religious, socioeconomic and geographic diversity as well. Funds have been allocated to implement many of the Task Force's recommendations, and new programs and initiatives are under way.

In October 2003, the University established the Silas Hunt Distinguished Scholarship in honor of the first African-American admitted to the University of Arkansas in modern times.

The University's Multicultural Center, located in the Arkansas Union, enhances the academic experience by preparing students for life in a pluralistic society. The staff seeks to provide a home-away-from-home atmosphere for African-American, Latino/a, Native-American and Asian-American students; an environment that promotes cross-cultural interaction; and collaboration throughout the University to generate educational, cultural, social programs and resources that assist in the development of a diverse community.

A PROUD LEGACY OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

Since its founding, the University of Arkansas has compiled a remarkable record of scientific, technological, intellectual and creative accomplishment. This is the university of the late U.S. Senator J. William Fulbright, who served it as a Rhodes Scholarship-winning student, alumnus and president (1939-41), before going on to service at the national level and founding, in 1946, the greatest international exchange program for faculty and students in the world.

Fulbright's injunction for academia guides the University of Arkansas to this day: "The highest function of higher education is the teaching of things in perspective, toward the purposes of enriching the life of the individual, cultivating the free and inquiring mind, and advancing the effort to bring reason, justice and humanity into the relations of men and nations."

TEACHING AND LEARNING

Teaching is a primary mission of the University of Arkansas. At this mainly residential campus, the faculty numbers 839, of which 94 percent are full-time. Nine of every 10 faculty members - 92 percent - hold either the doctorate or the terminal degree in their field. Sixty-five percent are tenured.

As research universities go, the University of Arkansas falls toward the smaller, more intimate end of the spectrum. More than 67 percent of all undergraduate class sections have 29 or fewer students.

Despite the intimate instructional environment, the University has more academic programs than many larger universities: 216 academic degree programs at the baccalaureate, master's and doctoral levels.

The campus culture places high value on excellent teaching. The instructional mission is aided by the Teaching and Faculty Support Center, a program run by faculty for faculty. The Center involves as many as 400 faculty per year in programs, seminars and workshops, as well as individual assistance and technological support to update and enhance their teaching methods.

STUDENTS

The University of Arkansas is working to increase the size and quality of its student body and is seeing success on both counts. Total enrollment has increased almost 21 percent since 1997, going from 14,740 students to 17,821 in 2005-06.

Student scores have risen as the institution has grown. In 1997, the average ACT score of the freshman class was 23.5. By 2003, it had risen to 25.4 (the national average is 20.8 on a scale of 1 to 36). Further, the average high school grade point average of the freshman class increased from 3.40 in 1997 to 3.60 in 2003. The proportion of entering students from the top 10 percent of their high school class has increased from 28 percent in 1997 to 36 percent in 2003.

Academic achievement on the national level is also part of the Arkansas story. In 2003-04, 88 undergraduates won prestigious state and national scholarships, fellowships and awards.

DALE BUMPERS COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURAL, FOOD & LIFE SCIENCES

The beginnings of the Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life

Sciences trace back to the founding of the University of Arkansas in 1871. The university's first Board of Trustees resolved that the institution would "teach such branches of learning as are related to Agriculture and the Mechanical Arts" and "to prosecute experiments for the promotion of agriculture and horticulture." In 1872, the College of Agriculture began offering a full four-year curriculum and hired its first faculty member.

In the 1990s, poultry science became a separate department apart from animal science and was a component of the new Center of Excellence for Poultry Science. By 1995 the center was housed in the new John W. Tyson Building, now a major landmark on the UA campus. Another sign of the college's expanding research and teaching roles was evident in completion of the Harry R. Rosen Center for Alternative Pest Control in 1996.

The college's varied curricula and support for it was reflected in another name change in 1995: the Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences. The name honors Arkansas' U.S. senator who brought significant federal support to the university's agricultural programs during his years in Congress.

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE

The School of Architecture has the only accredited, professional architecture and landscape architecture programs in Arkansas. Students may study the impact of urbanization on a rural setting. We encourage our students to develop high aspirations for the environments that, as future architects and landscape architects, they transform, create and inhabit.

Students will have opportunities for unique professional experience in our Rome Study Center for Architecture and the Humanities, Mexico Summer Urban Studio, European Summer Field Studies or the University of Arkansas Community Design Center (UACDC).

Our students have designed and constructed homes for low-income families, created a peace garden from the interpretation of different cultures, developed long-term habitation modules for NASA to use on Mars, designed and constructed a fully accessible tree house for a camp serving children with special needs and provided community planning services throughout Arkansas.

J. WILLIAM FULBRIGHT COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Fulbright College promotes an international perspective and encourages students to discover different cultures and values. Our graduates are educated not only for a career, but for a lifetime.

Our strong commitment to international education is evident in the College's many study abroad offerings — the possibilities are nearly unlimited.

Our reputation for academic excellence is built on the continuing success of our students. They regularly win the most competitive awards in the nation, from Barry Goldwater Scholarships to Rhodes and Marshall Scholarships.

The college mission is taken from the writings of Senator J. William Fulbright, founder of the world's largest exchange program for students and faculty: the highest function of higher education is the teaching of things in perspective, toward the purposes of enriching the life of the individual, cultivating the free and inquiring mind, and advancing the effort to bring reason, justice, and humanity into the relations of men and nations.

Nearly 70% of undergraduate classes have 29 or fewer students, while 93% have 50 or fewer students. Student to faculty ratio: 17:1; the College's Programs in Creative Writing and Translation are ranked among the best in the country; and the English and history departments are highly rated, while research programs in chemistry and physics are nationally competitive.

SAM M. WALTON COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

The Walton College was founded in 1926 in response to a growing demand for commercial education. Initially, designated as a "School," the Walton College consisted of four professors, and offered thirty-six courses in business administration, economics and sociology. Curricula were available in accounting, banking and finance, general business, industrial management and marketing.

In 1931, American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business Administration (AACSB) accreditation was awarded to the undergraduate degree program.

Since 1926, the Walton College has added several specialized units to its structure in the areas of public service, research and outreach. They include: (1) the Center for Business and Economic Research (1943) to engage in grants and contracts for federal, state and local government research and to provide support for faculty research; (2) the Bessie Moore Center for Economic Education (1978) to provide economic education and understanding to elementary and secondary school teachers; (3) the Small Business Development Center (1979) to counsel and train small business owners and managers on sound business practices, and new business techniques; (4) the Center for Management and Executive Development (1984) to provide continuing education for middle and upper level managers; (5) the Center for Teaching Effectiveness (1992); and (6) the Supply Chain Management Research Center (1996).

Dontell Jefferson (left) and Luke Allen are on the lawn in front of Old Main, which is the original building of Arkansas' campus. Completed in 1876, Old Main symbolizes a connection to the past and the focus on the future, which presently come together at UA. It was actually a copy of a building on the University of Illinois campus. The building at Illinois was eventually destroyed. Legend has it the only difference between the two buildings is the UA's north tower, which is higher than the south tower, which was symbolism for the Civil War since the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HEALTH PROFESSIONS

The teacher education program at UA is accredited by the State Board of Education. Students who complete any of the programs as outlined are eligible to receive licenses to teach at the grade level or in the fields for which they have made preparation upon application and presentation of acceptable scores on the PRAXIS I (formerly the National Teacher Examination).

The teacher education program of the College of Education & Health Professions is also accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education for the preparation of pre-kindergarten and elementary school teachers, secondary school teachers and school services personnel including administrators and school counselors, with approval through the doctoral degree. Because of this accreditation, students who complete the curricula are eligible to receive certificates in states that agree to certify graduates who are recommended by the College of Education & Health Professions as having fulfilled its requirements.

The University of Arkansas holds membership in and is accredited by the North Central Association Higher Learning Commission. The College of Education & Health Professions is also a member of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education and the University Council for Educational Administration.

The Bachelor of Science in Education (B.S.E.) degree program in recreation is accredited by the Council on Accreditation of the National Recreation and Park Association.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

For more than 100 years, the College of Engineering has successfully fulfilled its primary mission: to provide an excellent engineering education to undergraduate and graduate students at the University of Arkansas. Our distinguished alumni stand as a testament to our success.

The College of Engineering is at a crossroad and our faculty, staff, alumni and students face a choice: to accept incremental change or to challenge ourselves to become the best we can. Our faculty and staff have chosen the more ambitious and rigorous path. Specifically, our goal is: To become and be perceived as one of the top tier graduate and undergraduate engineering programs in the U.S.

By successfully accomplishing this objective, the College of Engineering will contribute to the University of Arkansas becoming a nationally-competitive, student-centered research institution serving Arkansas and the world.

SCHOOL OF LAW

At the University of Arkansas School of Law, we start with a long-standing tradition of respect, recognition and regular interaction between our faculty and students. Faculty and students can be found participating in fund-raising activities and other events to help local charities.

The University of Arkansas School of Law is a "Very Good Value," as recognized in the 2004 issue of The National Jurist, a nationally distributed magazine for persons contemplating the study of law or currently enrolled as law students. The magazine considered six factors in deciding upon appropriate rankings, using the latest complete set of American Bar Association data available. The School of Law has consistently ranked as one of the best public law schools in the country in publications such as The National Jurist and U.S. News & World Report.

The School of Law boasts one of the best student/faculty ratios in the country, which enables us to offer a wide range of upper-level electives taught in small sections. Outside of a handful of basic courses that traditionally have larger enrollments, the average enrollment in an upper-level elective is about 25 to 30 students, with many classes much smaller than this.

HONORS COLLEGE

In April of 2002, UA received the largest gift in the history of American public higher education – a $300 million commitment from the Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation. The Honors College received $200 million of this incredibly generous gift to fund undergraduate UA Honors College fellowships ($50,000 for four years), to establish special study abroad and undergraduate research opportunities, and to support outstanding faculty in their research and honors teaching efforts.

The UA Honors College serves all undergraduate majors. Honors students enjoy small classes, priority registration, special housing, increased interaction with faculty and enhanced opportunities for hands-on research.

DIVISION OF CONTINUING EDUCATION

With the use of technology, the Division of Continuing Education is erasing the geographic barriers to learning, while at the same time making teaching more powerful.

The technology-based services and systems reflect UA's commitment to stay on the cutting edge of technology. The Division of Continuing Education also offers courses to serve Northwest Arkansas and the world.

ARKANSAS RAZORBACK STUDENT-ATHLETE SUPPORT SERVICES

SUPPORT SERVICES MISSION STATEMENT

The primary focus of the Razorback Support Program is to provide the student-athlete with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to be a success in college and in life. This is accomplished through competent academic counseling, life skills training and preparation to enter the job market upon graduation.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS ACADEMICS

JASON WILLIAMSON ACADEMIC COORDINATOR

Jason Williamson is in his second year as the academic coordinator for basketball after joining the student-athlete support services group on July 6, 2004.

His responsibilities include monitoring the academic progress of all basketball players, including coordinating the degree completion program, monitoring the eligibility process, assisting with financial aid issues, serving as the liaison between the basketball office and faculty and staff, and supervising two graduate assistants.

A member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics, he graduated from the University of Arkansas with a bachelor's in criminal justice in 1999 and earned his master's in 2001 in public administration.

He joined the Arkansas staff after spending the two previous years as an academic advisor at Clemson. At Clemson, he worked with men's basketball, and women's basketball and track. He also planned and organized the annual academic awards banquet, and monitored the student-athlete enrichment program payroll system. In addition, he served as the community service coordinator for all student-athletes, coaches and administration.

Before going to Clemson, Williamson worked as an academic advisor at Ohio University during the 2001-02 school year, working with a total of 160 student-athletes in the sports of baseball, track, lacrosse and wrestling. He also taught an orientation class.

Located on the East side of expanded Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center provides both male and female student-athletes with a state-of-the-art academic support facility second to none. Approximately 15,000 square feet, the center includes a computer lab with 36 stations, formal and informal study areas, 14 individual tutor rooms with computers, Internet access, student life and career development resources, and a multi-purpose classroom. The center is open from 8 a.m. until 10 p.m. and provides Razorback student-athletes with academic counseling, tutorial services, academic skill development, life skills training and career development opportunities.

Michael Jones participated in commencement exercises last spring. Head coach Stan Heath has had eight seniors complete their playing careers at Arkansas, and all eight have gone through graduation.

Personal Development, Career Development, Community Service and Athletic Excellence.

Student Life

The University of Arkansas is as concerned about the personal and social development of our student-athletes as it is their academics and athletics.

The Office of Student Life focuses on the personal development and community service components of the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program. Training is provided in a wide variety of areas such as financial planning, drug and alcohol education, time management, study skills and developing community service activities.

Career Development

The purpose of the Career Development Program is to assist student-athletes in making a smooth transition into the world of work. This process begins in the freshman year with a one-hour course in which career options are explored.

Workshops are also held to provide student-athletes training in resume writing, interviewing skills and etiquette. Individual assistance with locating summer internships and job placement helps give the student-athlete a head start in his or her career.

Participation in athletics enables individuals to develop the personal qualities that are in high demand in the business world today.

Academic Support

The University of Arkansas Academic Support Center serves as the liaison between the athletic department and all faculty, staff and university personnel regarding academic concerns and procedures.

The Academic Support Center is committed to providing the Razorback student-athletes with the tools and resources they need to succeed in the competitive academic environment at the University of Arkansas, ultimately leading to graduation.

Support services include a mentoring program, monitored study hall, tutorial services, a computer laboratory and referrals to other campus support services.

UA's Academic Game Plan for Graduation

Student-athletes are expected to meet specific academic criteria in order to maintain their eligibility. This can be easily achieved by following the Academic Game Plan set out by the Academic Support Center.

The support center staff has designed programs and set specific goals to help student-athletes achieve academic success. One such goal is each student-athlete enroll and successfully complete 30 hours of coursework each academic year. By maintaining this course load, they will not only be on track to graduate in four years, but will easily meet eligibility requirements set by the NCAA.

Study Hall and Tutors

Study Hall is a quiet setting for uninterrupted study and is required for all scholarship student-athletes until a 2.5 GPA or better is achieved. The use of tutors is highly encouraged, if not required for some student-athletes.

Honors and Awards

- SEC Academic Honor Roll (3.0 GPA or above for two consecutive semesters)
- Lon Farrell Award (3.0 GPA for one or both semesters during academic year)
- Hard-Working Hog (30 hours of coursework in one academic year)

Class Attendance

- Student-athletes are expected to attend all classes unless previously excused
- The Academic Support Staff regularly checks attendance
- If traveling with a team, student-athletes notify instructors early each semester regarding assignments and/or test(s)

The Razorback Program for Student-Athlete Success

The Office of Student Support Services of the University of Arkansas Athletic Department was established to assist student-athletes in their efforts toward attaining specific academic and life goals as well as graduation.

Recognizing the difficulty of being both a student and an athlete, the office seeks to help students develop appropriate skills, which will allow them to maximize their individual potential while participating in intercollegiate athletics.

The University of Arkansas is a participant in the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. This program addresses the needs of student-athletes in five primary areas: Academics,

Glen Rose Academic Award

Glen Rose was the only coach to ever serve two tenures at Arkansas. In fact, he did just about everything possible as a Razorback. He was the Hogs' first All-American basketball player (1928) and was All-Southwest Conference three times. He was an All-SWC end in football in 1927.

He became head basketball coach in 1933 and led the Razorbacks to a nine-year record of 157-47 (.766). He coached the football team for a year during World War II and also worked as an administrator in the athletic department before leaving for 10 years.

Rose returned to Fayetteville in 1952 and spent 14 more seasons as head basketball coach. During his second stint, the Hogs were 171-154. His overall mark was 325-201.

A member of the Razorback Hall of Honor, Rose passed away Sept. 3, 1994. In his honor, Arkansas presents the Glen Rose Award to the Razorback basketball player who attains the highest academic achievement during each school year.

HOME OF CHAMPIONS

Note: UA has separate men and women's departments. Only men's sports are included in this publication.

In four of the 14 years the Hogs have been members of the SEC, they have won four league championships. In the 10 other years, Arkansas has won at least two, including three overall titles in both 2003-04 and 2004-05. No other SEC school has won so many league championships in men's athletics during the past 14 years.

While the SEC is the nation's best conference, Arkansas takes its success far past the regional level. During UA's time in the SEC, the Hogs have produced 29 national championship teams. The other SEC schools combined have won 26 NCAA crowns in men's sports, meaning Arkansas has won three more national titles than the rest of the league combined. LSU is the closest to matching UA's national title total, but the Razorbacks have a 29-8 lead over the Tigers. Next in the league are Auburn with five, Georgia with four, Florida and Tennessee with three, Kentucky two and Alabama one.

FOOTBALL

All-SEC quarterback Matt Jones became the league's career quarterback rushing leader by gaining 622 yards and scoring six times on 83 carries for career totals of 2,535 yards and 24 touchdowns on 382 rushes. He also completed 151-of-264 passes for 2,073 yards and 15 touchdowns with 12 interceptions. Jones was the 20th pick in the first round of the NFL Draft by Jacksonville. Defensive end Jeb Heckeba, a first-team All-SEC selection, was a fifth-round pick by Seattle after making 56 tackles with 13 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks.

- Six bowl games in the last seven years
- Eight players drafted over the last two years, including three in the first round, with 11 others signing free agent contracts
- Most home wins in the SEC over the last seven years (38)
- Twenty-one bowl games in the last 30 years and 33 overall
- 1964 national champion

BASKETBALL

Head coach Stan Heath's club continued showing marked improvement as UA went from 12-16 in 2004 to 18-12 in 2005. The Hogs, who won the Paradise Jam tournament title, led the SEC in blocked shots (5.2) and three-point defense (.309). Guard Ronnie Brewer (16.2 ppg, 4.8 rpg) earned first-team All-SEC honors. Junior Jonathon Modica became the 28th Razorback to score 1,000 career points and enter his senior year 24th on the all-time list with 1,074 (12.6 ppg).

- Twenty-seven NCAA Tournament bids, ninth all-time
- Six Final Four appearances, ninth all-time — 1994 national champion, 1995 runner-up
- Fifteen national postseason tournament appearances in 19 years
- Home attendance in national top 15 for 12 straight years

TRACK

Arkansas won its 41st NCAA title by winning the outdoor crown after earlier in the year winning its 40th NCAA title at the indoor meet. In cross country, Arkansas won its 14th SEC title in 14 tries and its 31st straight title overall before finishing third at the NCAA meet. Head coach John McDonnell was named national indoor and outdoor coach of the year by the U.S. Track Coaches Association, the 28th and 29th time in 33 years he's earned national coaching honors.

- Eighteen indoor NCAA titles since 1984; 24 conference titles since 1979
- Twelve outdoor NCAA titles since 1985; 21 conference titles since 1982
- Eleven cross country NCAA titles since 1984; 31 conference titles since 1974
- Twenty-five Olympians, 614 All-America selections, 105 NCAA individual event championships

Overall, Arkansas has won 43 men's national championships in its athletic history, all but one since 1984. The only one before '84 was the post-bowl version of the football national championship in 1964. In the league, LSU is next with 18, followed by Georgia and Tennessee with eight, Alabama, Kentucky and Florida with seven, Auburn with six and Ole Miss one.

Here's the breakdown on Arkansas' national titles: 18 in indoor track, 12 in outdoor track, 11 in cross country, one in football and one in basketball.

In 14 years, Arkansas has won 43 SEC championships, including 14 in cross country, 12 in indoor track, 12 in outdoor track, two in basketball and baseball, and one in golf. The Hogs have also won three Western Division titles in football and basketball, and two in baseball.

BASEBALL

UA overcame a rash of injuries and suspensions to go 39-22 and within a victory of earning a trip to an NCAA Super Regional for the third time in four years. Head coach Dave Van Horn's Hogs went 24-1 against regular-season non-conference competition and won a pair of huge SEC series at the end of the year against No. 4 Florida and No. 13 Alabama. Junior Charley Boyce was the team's MVP after throwing 122.1 innings, the second-most in school history, and going 11-10 with three saves and a 3.53 ERA.

- Five College World Series, including 2004, and 18 NCAA Tournament appearances
- Thirteen 40-win seasons since 1979
- Baum Stadium rated the top college facility in the country by Baseball America in 1998

GOLF

Arkansas earned its third straight NCAA Tournament bid and advanced to the NCAA Championships for the second time in three years. UA shot a two-under 278 as a team in the final round of the NCAA Central Regional to jump from 18th to sixth and earn its 14th trip to the NCAA Championships. The Hogs finished 26th in the nation.

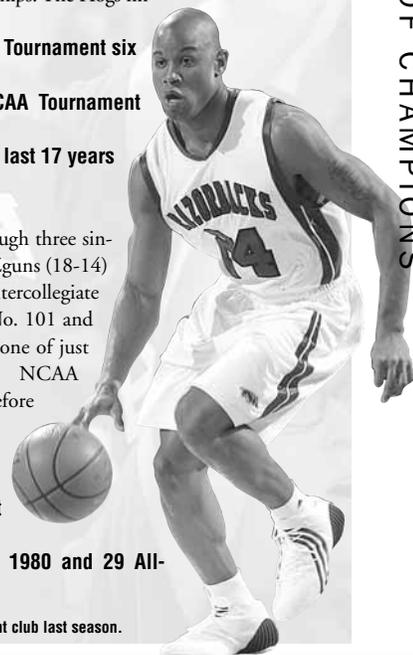

- Finished in the top 11 at the NCAA Tournament six times in 17 years
- Finished in the top 20 at the NCAA Tournament eight times
- Twenty-six tournament titles in the last 17 years

TENNIS

The Razorbacks were solid at one through three singles with Rohan Gajjar (21-15), Adrians Zguns (18-14) and Matt Roberts (26-10) earning final Intercollegiate Tennis Association rankings of No. 62, No. 101 and No. 118, respectively. Gajjar and Zguns, one of just 32 doubles teams invited to the NCAA Tournament, upset the No. 15 team before losing to the No. 1-ranked team.

- Eight NCAA Tournament appearances in 12 years
- NCAA regional finals in five of last six appearances
- Eight No. 1-ranked players since 1980 and 29 All-America selections

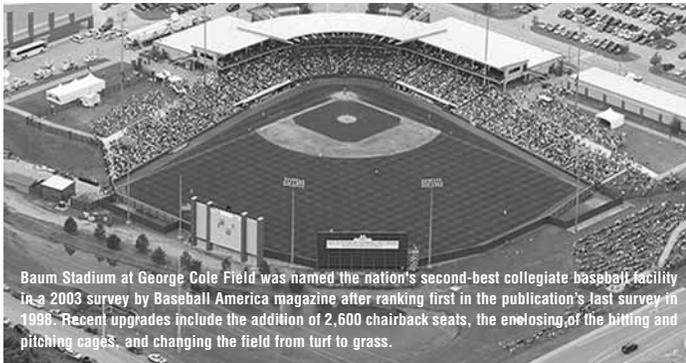

Senior Jonathon Modica joined Arkansas' 1,000-point club last season.

The Walker Family Training Center features an 18,000-square foot weight room with a nutritional area, including a juice bar and ice cream/protein machine; and 13 42-inch flat screen televisions for viewing and adjusting technique. It also includes the 16,000-square foot Camden and Sue Greene Speed Development Center, which features a three-lane 70-yard mondo track surface, a two-lane 60-yard sand pit and a 2,500-square foot AstroPlay agility area.

OTHER ARKANSAS FACILITIES

Baum Stadium at George Cole Field was named the nation's second-best collegiate baseball facility in a 2003 survey by Baseball America magazine after ranking first in the publication's last survey in 1998. Recent upgrades include the addition of 2,600 chairback seats, the enclosing of the hitting and pitching cages, and changing the field from turf to grass.

The Randal Tyson Track Center has served as the site of the NCAA indoor meets from 2000 through 2005.

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, where Arkansas drew a school-record average attendance of 70,689 in 2004, houses the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center and includes a 30x107-foot SMARTVISION video board, which is one of the largest at any sports venue in the world.

UA BASKETBALL

The 2005 Razorbacks won the Paradise Jam tournament title in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands.

Corey Beck and the Razorbacks cut down the nets after winning the 1994 national championship.

Darian Townes gave the Hogs something to smile about last year by averaging 10.2 points and 4.6 rebounds while shooting 51.9 percent from the field.

“THE BASKETBALL PALACE OF MID-AMERICA”

UA BASKETBALL BUD WALTON ARENA

Arkansas has played in Bud Walton Arena — The Basketball Palace of Mid-America — for 12 years and has drawn just over 3.5 million fans, ranked among national attendance leaders every season and won 80 percent of its games.

When Arkansas joined the Southeastern Conference in August of 1990, Razorback Athletic Director Frank Broyles knew the athletic facilities had to be upgraded to contend in America's most nationally competitive league.

His attention turned immediately to basketball. The Hogs were very successful, coming off a Final Four trip earlier that year, but had just a 9,000-seat home, Barnhill Arena.

One day, Bud Walton, co-founder of Wal-Mart, visited Broyles and asked him what Arkansas needed most to be competitive in the SEC. Broyles mentioned the need for additional basketball seats and was asked by Walton what a new arena would cost. The figure $30 million was discussed and Walton offered to pay half. From that visit, fabulous Bud Walton Arena was born.

Groundbreaking to grand opening was accomplished in a remarkable 18 months. The Razorbacks played in Bud Walton for the first time in November of 1993. Everything went perfect during the first full year. Not only did Arkansas sell out the arena, the Razorbacks were unbeaten in their new home (16-0) and won the 1994 national championship.

The Hogs carry a 155-39 (.799) record into the 2006 season.

In 12 seasons, UA has an all-time average attendance of 17,483 in Bud Walton Arena. Arkansas has ranked in the top 15 nationally in attendance every year in BWA, including a No. 9 ranking in 2005.

Entering the 2006 campaign, UA has a combined mark of 459-133 in its last two homes for an outstanding home winning percentage of .775 over the last 48 years.

BWA houses a deluxe museum on the ground level that includes a tribute to Arkansas' 1994 NCAA championship and multiple Final Four appearances as well as the history of Razorback basketball, track and field, baseball, tennis and golf. Eye-catching displays on the concourse level salute recent Razorback highlights.

The 2004 season marked the debut of a new custom scoreboard in the shape of a basketball hoop. The board, 24 feet, three inches wide by 22 feet tall, features four video screens, each 12 feet, six inches wide by eight feet, 10 inches tall. An LED ring at the top is used to display game statistics.

The Razorbacks received an expanded locker room in 2005, which includes a lounge with a spacious meeting area.

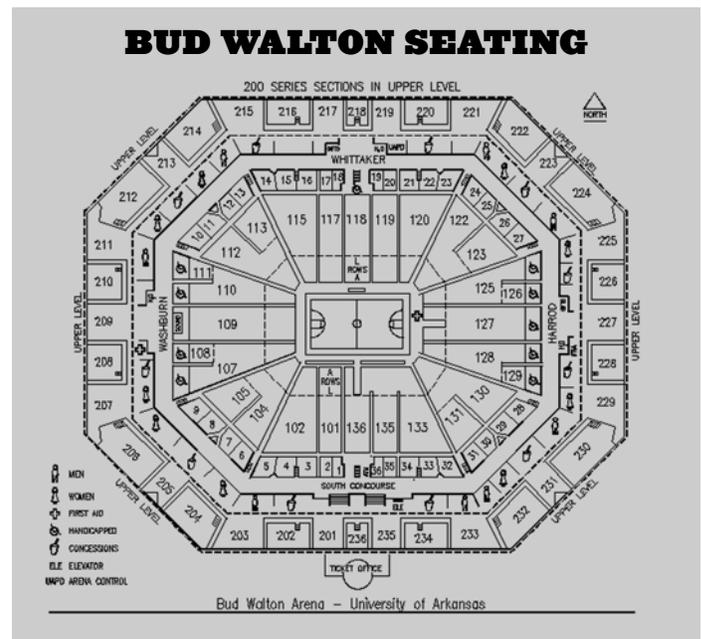

As captivating as the displays, museum and championship banners are hanging from the arena floor's ceiling, the aspect of the facility demanding the most attention is spirit. Every game still produces an NCAA Tournament-type atmosphere with the exception of the crowd, which is anything but neutral.

According to the architectural firm that designed the arena, Rosser International in Atlanta, there are more seats in less space than in any such facility in the world. It's no wonder the noise level can be absolutely ear-splitting.

From pre-game to post-game, Bud Walton Arena is perfectly choreographed with the band, the spirit groups, the lighting system, the public address, the scoreboard and the team. Each game at Walton Arena is a rich experience leaving Razorback fans hungry for more.

Bud Walton made Bud Walton Arena a possibility.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

Championships were a tradition at Arkansas long before the Razorbacks earned the national title in 1994. The '94 championship was the grandest of them all, but the NCAA trophy isn't exactly the only one on the shelf in the fabulous Bud Walton Arena museum.

In fact, Arkansas has made six trips to the NCAA Final Four. The Razorbacks have earned 27 bids to the NCAA Tournament.

In conference play, Arkansas has won 24 league championships with 22 coming in the Southwest Conference between 1926 and 1991. In fact, the Hogs won the Southeastern Conference crown in 1992, their first year in the league, after winning three straight SWC titles. The Hogs have also won seven league tournament crowns.

Since joining the SEC, Arkansas has been a dominant member. The Razorbacks won overall titles in 1992 and 1994, and Western Division titles in 1992, '93, '94 and '95, and then won the tournament crown in 2000.

Arkansas has a long-standing tradition of winning in basketball. It started in the 1920s and has carried through to this time. Even though Arkansas didn't begin playing basketball until 1924, the Hogs won more SWC championships than any other school.

It didn't take long for the Hogs to have an impact on the SWC. Two years after starting the program, Arkansas won its first league crown. It was the first of five in a row. Francis Schmidt, Arkansas' first basketball coach, guided the Hogs to the 1926, '27, '28 and '29 titles. Chuck Bassett was the coach of the 1930 championship squad.

Wear Schoonover, Arkansas' first football All-American, captained the 1930 club. He earned All-SWC honors three times. In fact, the Razorbacks dominated the all-conference squads of the late 1920s. In 1928, Arkansas had four of the five All-SWC selections when Glen Rose, Tom Pickell, Gene Lambert Sr. and Schoonover were named all-league. Rose was also the first Razorback to earn All-America honors (1928), followed a year later by Pickell and Lambert.

The Hogs were loaded with all-conference talent during that time. Rose was a three-time All-SWC pick, as was Pickell.

Lambert and Rolla Adams made it twice, as did Milan Creighton.

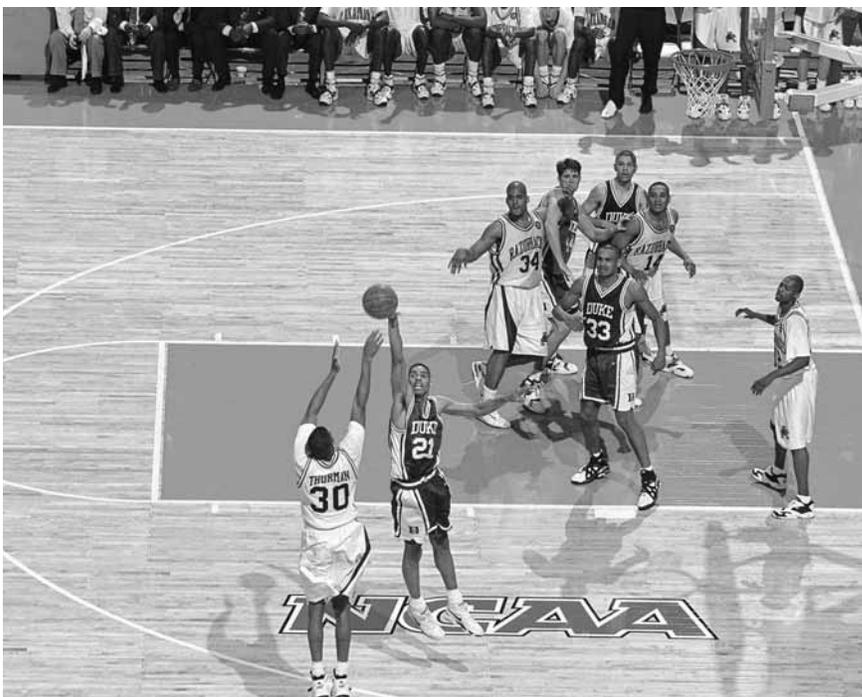

From 1926 through 1929, Arkansas was a combined 60-5.

When Schmidt left Arkansas as coach, he went to league rival TCU and was tough to beat until the Razorbacks hired Rose as head coach.

He began another glorious run with a co-championship in 1935. The Hogs won SWC titles in '36, '38, '41 and '42. The 1936 Razorbacks almost represented the United States in the Olympics, winning four games in an Olympic playoff before losing to a team of all-stars from California in the semifinals of the tournament.

Jim Lee Howell, Ike Poole, Taft Moody, Don Lockard, Jack Robbins, Howard Hickey and Johnny Adams were the stars of their day. Adams was an All-American in 1941. He was Arkansas' fifth All-American but the last one UA would have until Ron Brewer made it in 1977.

From 1945 to 1950, Arkansas had four second-place finishes and shared the 1949 title. The Razorbacks then went through a mild recession before claiming a co-championship in 1958. By winning a playoff game against SMU, Arkansas qualified for the NCAA Tournament. It wasn't a pleasant experience. Oklahoma State, which featured Eddie Sutton as a player, downed the Hogs by 25, 65-40, and Oscar Robertson exploded for 58 points as the Hogs were drilled by Cincinnati, 97-62, in a consolation game.

Scotty Thurman's clutch three-pointer with the shot clock winding down and 51 seconds left in the game gave Arkansas a 73-70 lead in the 76-72 victory over Duke in the 1994 NCAA championship game.

As unpleasant as the tournament experience was, Arkansas would have loved to goe back, but it didn't happen for 19 years. Not even Rose, who led the Hogs to the '58 title in his second stint as coach, could return Arkansas to glory. He retired following the 1966 season, but neither of his two successors, Duddy Waller or Lanny Van Eman, put a contender on the floor.

Van Eman did, however, bring excitement to the game. His teams regularly scored in the 80s and 90s at a time when the traditional powers played games in the 60s. Van Eman recruited Martin Terry from junior college and Terry set school single-season scoring records that still stand. He averaged 28.3 points per game as a senior. Even though he played only two seasons, Terry still ranks among Arkansas' top 10 all-time scorers.

Unfortunately, Van Eman's teams usually gave up more points than they scored. Twice in 1971, Arkansas scored 100 or more points and lost.

Van Eman's second club managed to win 16 games, but only five came in SWC play. Arkansas and Baylor, which paired for a thrilling 111-110 Baylor victory the year before, put on another wild show with the Razorbacks winning, 131-109, in Fayetteville, setting a league record for points scored by two teams in a conference game.

After the 1974 Hogs won just 10 games, Frank Broyles, newly appointed athletic director as well as an already established football coach, decided it was time to make a commitment to basketball. He turned things around by hiring Sutton.

Sutton caught the state's attention in his first season when the Razorbacks finished 17-9 and second in the SWC. By the time his second team finished its 19-9 campaign, construction workers were already renovating Barnhill Arena, a facility constructed in 1957.

The 1976 Hogs also featured the nucleus of what was to become one of the great-

MEMORABLE GAMES

The history of Razorback basketball is filled with thrilling and even heart-stopping moments. The Final Four, conference championships, and last-second, game-winning jumpers shape memories of the "greatest" moments in UA history. Following are 10 of those.

est teams in history. Brewer and Marvin Delph were sophomores. Sidney Moncrief was a freshman and he quietly led the nation in field goal percentage (.665, 149-224), and Sutton knew he had something special.

With half of Barnhill's facelift completed before the 1977 season, a new wave of excitement swept through the entire state of Arkansas.

The Razorbacks blitzed through the SWC unbeaten, winning their first league title in 19 years. Brewer, Moncrief and Delph were the toast of the Ozarks. Arkansas finished 26-2 but lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament when Moncrief fouled out, allowing Wake Forest to come from behind for a victory.

Expectations were high in 1978 and the Hogs didn't disappoint. For a week, the Razorbacks were even ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. A loss at Houston after two victories earlier in the week dropped the Hogs from their position at the top.

Arkansas shared the SWC title with Texas, but was upset by Houston, again on a last-second shot at the SWC Tournament. Stunned, the Razorbacks returned home unsure of whether or not they would receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament.

The Hogs got in and victories over Weber State and No. 2 UCLA thrust Arkansas into the regional finals. Brewer hit a long jumper with less than a minute to play and Jim Counce scored on a layup at the end to seal a 61-58 victory over Cal-Fullerton, sending the Hogs to the Final Four.

No. 1-ranked Kentucky ended Arkansas' dreams of a national title with a semifinal victory, but Brewer hit another of his patented buzzer shots in the third-place game, giving Arkansas a thrilling 71-69 victory over Notre Dame.

With All-American Brewer and the sleek-shooting Delph gone, Moncrief and Steve Schall were left to lead the 1979 Hogs. It was almost a repeat performance of 1978.

Moncrief was brilliant. He simply refused to allow his team to lose. After a brief midseason slump, Arkansas won 14 straight games, including two at the SWC Tournament and two in the NCAA Tournament. A victory over Louisville sent Arkansas into the Midwest Regional finals against No. 1-ranked Indiana State and superstar Larry Bird.

Arkansas could not stop Bird, but ISU could not contain Moncrief. In Corey Beck had 15 points, four assists and a team-high 10 rebounds in the championship game victory over Duke.

No. 2 ARKANSAS 76, No. 6 DUKE 72
NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
APRIL 4, 1994, AT CHARLOTTE, N.C.

Despite UA's incredible basketball success through the years, the Razorbacks had never played for the national championship until their battle with Duke at the Charlotte Coliseum. The Hogs had been ranked No. 1 much of the year, but Duke had won two national titles in the three previous seasons and had defeated Arkansas in the 1990 Final Four at Denver.

Duke controlled the tempo in the first half and Corliss Williamson, who had been nearly unstoppable in the entire tournament, missed his first five shots for the Razorbacks. The Blue Devils led by as many as five points in the opening period, but Scotty Thurman drilled a late three-pointer to give UA a 34-33 halftime advantage.

Corey Beck hit a short jumper early in the second half to give the Hogs a 38-35 lead, but Duke scored 13 unanswered points and suddenly led 48-38 with 17:09 left. While the surge left Duke fans roaring their approval, it also sped up the tempo of the game. The Razorbacks trailed but actually had the Blue Devils right where they wanted them.

Playing at a quicker pace, Arkansas caught up in less than five minutes. When Al Dillard drilled a three with 8:08 remaining to give UA a five-point lead, it looked like momentum had swung to the Hogs for good. Duke fought back and tied the game at 65-65 and finally 70-44 with 1:29 remaining. The Razorbacks took a timeout.

When Dwight Stewart fumbled a pass, he quickly passed it out to Thurman with the shot clock winding down. Thurman had no choice but to shoot. As his shot was narrowly clearing the outstretched hand of Antonio Lang, the shot clock hit zero. The shot, though, was true. It was a dagger to the hearts of the Blue Devils and surpassed U.S. Reed's half-court jumper against Louisville as the most famous shot in UA history.

Duke never recovered. Three free throws in the final seconds clinched the 76-72 victory that gave Arkansas the 1994 national championship.

one of the greatest games in UA history, the Hogs suffered a 73-71 setback when a last-second Sycamore shot bounced twice and fell in. Arkansas finished 25-5 and the Moncrief era was history.

Sutton won three more SWC titles and left behind a legacy when his teams won 20 or more games nine years in a row. Arkansas played in the NCAA Tournament in each of those nine seasons, but never came close to returning to the Final Four. The Razorbacks even featured a team that had three future first-round NBA draft choices when Scott Hastings, Darrell Walker and Alvin Robertson played together. Joe Kleine, another future NBA product, redshirted that year (1982).

When Sutton left for Kentucky, Broyles turned a completely different direction when he hired Nolan Richardson. Richardson's teams were noted for defense, just as Sutton's were, but it was a different style of defense. Richardson's defense usually turned quickly to offense and his teams at Tulsa had led the nation in scoring.

Inheriting a group of players recruited to play at a slower pace, Richardson had to bite the bullet as his first season resulted in a 12-16 finish. Then he started recruiting. His second team won 19 games and his third was 21-9. His 1989 squad won Arkansas' first SWC title since 1982 and breezed through the league tournament. Arkansas set school scoring records and downed Loyola-Marymount in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before bowing to Louisville.

By then, Richardson's style and players already had converted Razorback fans. Barnhill Arena was hopping every time the Hogs played. It wouldn't have taken a Final Four appearance for the state to go nuts, but when the Razorbacks reached the 1990 Final Four, the state went crazy.

The Hogs were SWC champs again and dominated the SWC Tournament for the second consecutive year. Triumphs over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas sent the Razorbacks into the Final Four. A loss to Duke in the semifinals ended the season at 30-5.

It nearly happened again in 1991. UA won a school-record 34 games before falling to Kansas in the Southeast Regional finals. Arkansas ended its history in the Southwest Conference by winning the final three regular season and tournament championships.

A new era was launched in 1992 and the Razorbacks didn't miss a beat. Arkansas won the Southeastern Conference title with a 13-3 record. Included were two victories over Shaquille O'Neal-led LSU and a big win at Kentucky. The Todd Day-Lee Mayberry-Oliver Miller era ended with a 26-8 season and another trip to the NAAs.

After winning the SEC's Western Division in '93 and pushing North Carolina to the limit in a Sweet 16 loss to the eventual national champions, Arkansas enjoyed its best season ever in 1994. UA won nearly everything possible. The Razorbacks were SEC champs, again sweeping LSU and winning at Kentucky, they made the school's fifth trip to the Final Four and completed their dream season by beating Arizona and Duke to win the national title.

A year later, Arkansas was No. 1 in all the preseason polls, but the Hogs stumbled early before making a late-season run. UA repeated as Western Division champion, then downed Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia to earn its sixth Final Four appearance.

A win over North Carolina in the semifinals allowed the Hogs to advance to the finals, but it was UCLA's year as the Bruins beat Arkansas for the 1995 crown, 89-78.

With every starter gone from the back-to-back Final Four clubs, Arkansas was expected to struggle in 1996. Richardson, however, molded together a young team and the Hogs peaked late. Seeded 12th in the NCAA East Regional, UA beat Penn State

Charles Balentine's baseline jumper gave Arkansas a 65-64 victory over Michael Jordan and No. 1-ranked North Carolina in 1984.

North Carolina was 19-0 and ranked No. 1 nationally when the Tar Heels visited Pine Bluff. Arkansas was on its way to a second-place finish in the Southwest Conference and had defeated SMU in Dallas the day before.

Violent weather kept the Hogs from flying to Pine Bluff until the morning of the game, and the Razorbacks arrived in town two hours before the nationally televised contest.

If the Razorbacks were weary, they showed no signs of it. They defended North Carolina fiercely, holding the Tar Heels to 45 percent shooting. North Carolina had plenty of weapons. Michael Jordan, Sam Perkins and Brad Daugherty, all future NBA stars, were in the starting lineup along with Steve Hale, a guard from Tulsa whose second choice of schools was Arkansas.

The Hogs were armed with Joe Kleine and Alvin Robertson, but the unsung heroes were Darryl Bedford and Charles Balentine. Bedford, a freshman who had been a little used reserve, hit all six of his shots and scored 12 points. Balentine, of course, was the hero at the end.

A crowd of 7,529 was in a frenzy from the opening tipoff to the final buzzer. They watched Jordan score 21 points and Kleine answer with 20. Perkins had 17 and Hale 15. Leroy Sutton scored 11 points, Balentine 10 and Robertson nine for the Hogs.

North Carolina's largest lead of the first half was five points. UA led by as many as seven before taking a 38-34 advantage at the break. The second half was a nailbiter and the Tar Heels led by one with only seconds to play. Balentine drove the baseline and hit an eight-footer to give Arkansas the lead before UNC missed a buzzer shot.

Jonathon Modica (smiling) and the Razorbacks were happy with 18 wins last year, but they're looking for more this season.

Sidney Moncrief and Larry Bird put on a great show in the 1979 Midwest Regional Final.

NCAA REGIONAL FINAL
MARCH 17, 1979, AT CINCINNATI, OHIO

A Final Four team in 1978, Arkansas was not expected to return in 1979 with the loss of Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph, two of the famed "Triplets." Sidney Moncrief, however, almost single-handedly pushed his team to greater heights than anyone expected.

Moncrief, senior Steve Schall and a cast of sophomores and freshmen put together a 14-game winning streak late in the year and arrived at the Midwest Regional finals ready to challenge No. 1-ranked and unbeaten Indiana State, and superstar Larry Bird. The stakes were a spot in the Final Four.

Bird was awesome. The Hogs simply could not stop him. With 9:22 left, he already had 27 points. Razorback Coach Eddie Sutton then made the ultimate gamble. He put the 6-4 Moncrief on the 6-9 Bird for the final seven minutes.

Bird scored just four more points. Moncrief, meanwhile, was almost as unstoppable as Bird had been. He finished with 24 points and eight rebounds, and had his team in a position to win late. Arkansas had the ball with 1:31 left and holding for the last shot with the score tied 71-71.

With 1:02 remaining, U.S. Reed tripped and was called for walking, giving the Sycamores the ball.

ISU held for the last shot, but could not get the ball to Bird, who was smothered by Moncrief. It was Bob Heaton who launched the shot with two seconds left and the Hogs watched helplessly as it hit both sides of the rim before dropping through, depriving the Hogs of a second straight trip to the Final Four.

and Marquette to advance to the Sweet 16 before falling to top-ranked Massachusetts.

In 1997, Arkansas was forced to endure an NCAA inquiry, which proved fruitless, but it damaged the Hogs' recruiting. The streak of nine straight NCAA Tournament appearances ended but the Bud Walton Arena crowds were rejuvenated by three NIT games. Fans who never had the opportunity to buy Razorback basketball tickets were able to attend and helped UA advance to the NIT semifinals in New York.

It was back to the NCAAs in 1998 as the Razorbacks, who got 10.4 points and an SEC-leading 9.8 rebounds per game from Nick Davis, won 24 games and reached the second round with a win over Nebraska.

Arkansas won its 10th straight NCAA Tournament first-round game in 1999 as Pat Bradley set school records for career three-point shooting (366-915, .400). Derek Hood recorded more double-doubles than anyone in UA history (34) and also led the league in rebounding (10.3), and Kareem Reid broke Mayberry's career record for assists (748).

UA also had one of the most unique weeks in its basketball history. The final two home games came over a five-day span against No. 5 Kentucky and No. 2 Auburn. Never before had Arkansas played two top 10 teams at home in the same week. Arkansas beat UK, 74-70, and topped Auburn, 104-88.

Following an up-and-down season in 2000, Arkansas won four games in four days, including wins over No. 16 Kentucky, No. 10 LSU and No. 23 Auburn to win the school's first SEC Tournament title. Brandon Dean was the MVP after averaging 15.2 points in the title run.

The 2001 club rebounded from an 0-3 league start with a six-game winning streak late in the year to earn Arkansas' 13th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years and its 15th straight postseason tournament berth.

The Nolan Richardson era came to an end in 2002 when he was released from his contract. The Razorbacks dropped to 14-15, including a 13-14 mark under Richardson. Mike Anderson was 1-1 as interim head coach for the last two games of the season.

Stan Heath has rebuilt the roster the last three years with recruiting classes ranked as high as No. 13 by Rivals.com in 2004 and No. 7 by Hoop Scoop in 2003. In 2005, the Razorbacks won the Paradise Jam tournament title and went 18-12. Sophomore Ronnie Brewer earned first-team All-SEC honors while junior Jonathon Modica became the 28th Razorback to score 1,000 career points.

UA IN THE FINAL FOUR

During Arkansas' long, illustrious basketball history, the Razorbacks have been to the NCAA Final Four six times.

The Hogs have earned 27 bids to the NCAA Tournament and made 26 appearances, missing the 1944 event due to a car accident prior to the first-round games.

Only eight schools in the entire country have been to the Final Four more than Arkansas, and only eight schools have earned more than UA's 27 NCAA Tournament bids. Among Southeastern Conference schools, only Kentucky has been to the NCAA Tournament more often. In fact, Arkansas' 1994 national championship put the Razorbacks in the same company as the Wildcats as the only SEC schools to ever win the national championship. LSU, Georgia, Mississippi State and Florida are the only other league schools to reach the Final Four.

It was tougher to get in the tournament in the early days, but it also took fewer games to win the title.

In the 1940s, only eight teams participated in the NCAA Tournament, which first became an event in 1939. Up to that point, the NIT was the top national post-season tournament. Twice in the '40s, the Razorbacks advanced to the Final Four.

The 1941 Hogs roared through the Southwest Conference with a 12-0 mark and carried a 19-2 record into the tournament. Arkansas downed Wyoming, 65-40, to reach the Al Dillard played just 12 minutes a game during the national championship season of 1994, but he was third on the team in scoring (8.9 ppg). In the same role the following season, he averaged 6.8 points a game as the Hogs reached the NCAA title game.

It had been an incredible year for Arkansas. The Razorbacks repeated as Southwest Conference champs but had to nervously await an NCAA at-large bid when they were eliminated from the league tournament by Houston in the semifinals. The "Triplets," Ron Brewer, Sidney Moncrief and Marvin Delph, were the ringleaders of one of the greatest teams in school history.

Still, the Hogs were underdogs and a new kid on the NCAA block when they faced second-ranked UCLA in the third round at Albuquerque. David Greenwood was the leader of the Bruins, who weren't far removed from their incredible string of NCAA championships.

UCLA was stunned as Arkansas roared to a 40-22 lead that was cut to 42-29 by half-time. The Bruins didn't panic. They pressed the Hogs and took a 60-58 lead.

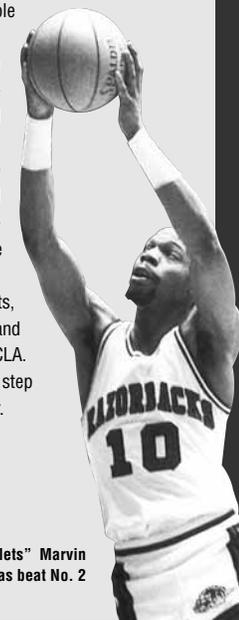

Brewer tied the game with two free throws, Steve Schall hit a short turnaround and Delph drilled a jump shot to put the Hogs back in front. By game's end the Razorbacks were going strong.

Delph sizzled by hitting 11 of his 14 shots, finishing with 23 points. Moncrief had 21 and Brewer 18. Greenwood finished with 17 for UCLA.

The victory moved the Razorbacks a step closer to their eventual trip to the Final Four.

U.S. Reed's midcourt buzzer-beater knocked off defending national champion Louisville in 1981 and was ranked by Sports Illustrated as the second-most historic event in college basketball behind North Carolina State's title game win over Houston in 1983.

A MOMENT TO REMEMBER
U. S. REED BEATS LOUISVILLE

Defending NCAA champion Louisville and Southwest Conference champion Arkansas clawed at each other for 39 minutes and 55 seconds in the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the scoreboard read Louisville 73, Arkansas 72 after Derek Smith's short jumper for the Cardinals.

The Razorbacks, who had led by six points with 2:13 left, called timeout. U.S. Reed took the inbounds pass and coolly dribbled to the midcourt area near the sideline. With a second left on the clock, he launched a desperation 49-footer. The only thing desperate after the shot was the look on the faces of the Louisville players as they watched the ball hit nothing but net.

Reed shook hands with everyone on the press table after hitting a shot that will live forever in the minds of Razorback fans. He finished with 19 points. Darrell Walker had 23 and the Hogs were still alive in the NCAA Tournament.

Lenzie Howell, who averaged 13.9 points a game for the year and was the NCAA Tournament Midwest Regional MVP, helped UA knock off Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas to reach the 1990 Final Four.

Final Four at Kansas City. Washington State handed the Razorbacks a 64-53 setback, meaning Arkansas and Pittsburgh tied for third since there was no third-place game.

UA returned in 1945, again to Kansas City. Arkansas was 16-8 entering the tournament but edged Oregon, 79-76, to reach the Final Four. Eventual national champion Oklahoma State, which Arkansas had defeated once earlier in the season, downed the Hogs and UA tied Ohio State for third place.

It took 33 years for Arkansas to return. In 1978, the Hogs were Southwest Conference champs and beat Weber State, second-ranked UCLA and California-Fullerton to advance to the Final Four at St. Louis. Top-ranked Kentucky led by just one with two minutes to play and posted a 64-59 victory.

There was a third-place game and Ron Brewer hit a buzzer shot from the top of the circle to send the Razorbacks past Notre Dame, 71-69. Brewer had 20 points and Marvin Delph 21 in their final game as Razorbacks.

Nolan Richardson guided the Hogs to the Final Four in 1990, 1994 and '95.

In 1990, wins over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas earned Arkansas a trip to Denver. UA was 30-4 heading into a semifinal showdown with Duke.

Richardson took his club to Denver a day early to adjust to the altitude, but the Hogs fell behind early in both halves and used plenty of adrenaline to catch up. UA led 69-62 with 10:38 remaining, but ran out of gas. Duke came back and won, 97-83, but also used most of its energy. The Blue Devils were beaten by Nevada-Las Vegas in the title game while UA tied Georgia Tech for third.

The ultimate came in 1994. The Hogs downed North Carolina A&T, Georgetown, Tulsa and Michigan to advance to the Final Four at Charlotte, N.C. The win over Arizona was Arkansas' first ever in the national semifinals and set up a clash with Duke.

With the score tied with less than a minute to play, a well-defended Scotty Thurman hit a three-pointer to lead the Razorbacks to a 76-72 victory and the national title.

With every starter from the championship squad returning, the Hogs were favored to return to the Final Four in 1995, and they did. Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia were knocked off along the way to the Final Four at Seattle, but none of the wins came by more than six points.

Arkansas fell behind early but rallied to get by North Carolina in the semifinals. Playing in the NCAA championship game for the second straight year, Arkansas came up short in an 89-78 loss to UCLA.

Steve Schall and Arkansas lost their 1978 Final Four semifinal game to Kentucky, but they beat Notre Dame in the third-place game.

It was Arkansas' first year as a member of the Southeastern Conference. Earlier in the season, Todd Day had exploded for a career-high 43 points as the Razorbacks defeated LSU, 101-90, at Baton Rouge. The Tigers recovered from the defeat, though, and by the time they arrived at Barnhill Arena, they had tied the Hogs for the SEC lead.

LSU's first ever visit to Fayetteville would determine the SEC championship.

The Tigers started strong. Shaquille O'Neal did his best to quiet an overflow crowd of 9,518 with 11 points in the opening half as LSU roared to a 51-36 advantage. O'Neal, however, scored his last points with 11:37 remaining to give the Tigers a 69-58 lead before the Razorbacks charged back.

Lee Mayberry, who hit a then-school record nine three-point field goals and finished with 35 points, teamed with Day, who finished with 27, to bring the Hogs from behind. Mayberry's last three-pointer tied the game at 87-all and Oliver Miller blocked O'Neal's shot at the buzzer to force overtime.

Arkansas blitzed the Tigers, 19-5, in the extra period. Day scored nine points and Mayberry had four during that time. The victory sent Barnhill Arena into a frenzy and the Razorbacks on the way to their first SEC title.

Oliver Miller had 10 points, 10 rebounds, three blocked shots and three steals against the Tigers.

UA BASKETBALL HISTORY

Corliss Williamson was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 1994 Final Four after averaging 26.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in Arkansas' two wins.

Without a senior in the starting lineup, playing in the most palatial arena in college basketball with the President of the United States attending four games and led by a coach with a system that could not be drawn up on a blackboard, Arkansas vaulted into the elite of the elite when the Razorbacks won the 1994 NCAA championship.

Construction workers built Bud Walton Arena in record time and the 19,200-seat showcase dazzled fans and opponents as much as the Razorbacks did. Sellout crowds each time the doors were opened watched the Hogs go 16-0 at home. Only one game, the 84-83 victory over LSU, was decided by fewer than 10 points. UA won those 16 games by an average of 30 points.

UA blitzed Murray State, 93-67, in the Bud Walton Arena opener on Nov. 29, but the building was dedicated a few nights later when Missouri came to Fayetteville for an ESPN showcase game. The Dec. 2 game was decided in the first few minutes as Arkansas roared to a 120-68 victory over a Missouri club which went unbeaten in the Big Eight and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

Ranked No. 1 nationally for 10 weeks during the regular season, the Hogs lost only twice during the regular campaign. Alabama beat Arkansas, 66-64, in Tuscaloosa, and Mississippi State edged the Hogs, 72-71, in Starkville.

Sophomores Corliss Williamson and Scotty Thurman carried much of the load, and junior Corey Beck was the blue collar leader. When the Hogs had to score, they went inside to Williamson, who averaged 20.4 points per game. He shot .626 from the field and 70 percent at the free throw line.

Arkansas already had a two-game lead over Texas in the Southwest Conference when the Razorbacks invaded Austin for a nationally televised game.

The Hogs owned a four-game winning streak over the Longhorns, and it was a must-win situation for Texas. The Razorbacks led for most of the first half but Texas gained a five-point advantage midway through the second half. It was 77-72 'Horns when Todd Day fouled out for Arkansas 3:31 from the end.

Texas still led, 86-83, and had Travis Mays at the free throw line with 12 seconds left, but Mays missed the free throw and Lee Mayberry stunned the Texas crowd of more than 16,000 with a long three-pointer three seconds from the buzzer to send the game into overtime.

Arkansas made sure Texas never recovered. A three-pointer by Ernie Murry got the Hogs started and Mayberry's jumper at 3:20 put the Hogs in front to stay. Mayberry and Lenzie Howell each scored 23 points to offset 24 by Joey Wright, 23 by Mays and 22 by Lance Blanks. The victory gave Arkansas a three-game lead it never surrendered on its way to the SWC title.

Lee Mayberry's deep three sent the game to overtime and Arkansas never looked back.

The Razorbacks prepare to celebrate winning the 1994 national championship.

Thurman, though, was the last-minute hero. His three-pointer with seven seconds left gave Arkansas a one-point victory at Tennessee. He hit another three in the last 30 seconds to lift the Hogs past LSU at Baton Rouge in overtime.

Beck did much of the dirty work, defending with tenacity and leading the team in assists. He and junior Clint McDaniel probably were the best defensive guards in college basketball. Head coach Nolan Richardson certainly thought so. McDaniel also provided perimeter firepower, as did junior Dwight Stewart, Arkansas' fifth starter who was more a forward than a center.

Richardson used a deep bench to guide the Hogs to a 24-2 regular season finish. Al Dillard brought instant offense into any contest with his incredible three-point shooting range. He was Arkansas' third-leading scorer behind Williamson and Thurman (15.9 ppg) with an 8.9 average even though he played just more than 12 minutes a game. Roger Crawford, one of only two seniors on the squad, also brought instant firepower off the bench, but he was injured early in the NCAA Tournament run and was not available for the Final Four.

In his honor, UA players wore a No. 31 patch on their jerseys.

Freshmen Darnell Robinson and Lee Wilson, a pair of 6-11 centers, gave the Hogs size they didn't have in 1993 when they won 22 games and reached the Sweet 16 before falling to eventual national champion North Carolina. Senior Ken Biley and junior Elmer Martin also made significant contributions.

When President Bill Clinton visited Bud Walton Arena for a Dec. 28 blowout of Texas Southern, no one realized it would be a preview of later visits to the NCAA Tournament. The nation's most recognizable Razorback fan later appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated wearing sweats presented by Richardson.

A 13-game winning streak was snapped by Kentucky in the SEC Tournament, but the Razorbacks were still seeded first in the Midwest Regional at Oklahoma City. Williamson scored 24 points and had seven rebounds in a 94-79 first-round victory over North Carolina A&T. He followed with 21 points and Robinson, making a surprise start, added 13 in the 85-73 second-round win over Georgetown.

Early in the year, Tulsa gave Arkansas a scare before the Hogs won in overtime, 93-91, in Tulsa. The Golden Hurricane surprised UCLA and Oklahoma State to reach the Sweet 16 with UA in Dallas. This one was no contest as Williamson and Thurman scored 21 each, and McDaniel 19 in a 103-84 victory.

Michigan was Arkansas' regional final foe and the Hogs could not contain Hakeem Olajuwon and Houston were on their way to their third consecutive Final Four, they were ranked second nationally and hadn't lost a Southwest Conference game in two years. The Cougars had gone 16-0 in 1983 and were 15-0 going into the regular season finale at Barnhill Arena.

Arkansas was outstanding as well. The Hogs already had upset top-ranked North Carolina at Pine Bluff, but at 13-2 couldn't catch Houston in the SWC standings. No one in the overflow crowd of 9,438 cared as they watched a terrific contest showcased by national television.

Olajuwon was held to 10 points before fouling out, but Michael Young picked up the slack with 22 and Alvin Franklin earned 21. They weren't as hot as the Hogs, though. Joe Kleine, whose inside power put Olajuwon in foul trouble, scored 22 points, hitting all 10 of his free throws. Charles Balentine added 16, Ricky Norton 14 and Alvin Robertson 13 points and nine assists.

Houston led at the half but saw its hopes dim when Olajuwon drew his fourth and fifth fouls in a 38-second span six minutes from the end while trying to stop Kleine inside. Kleine hit all four free throws and the Hogs had a huge victory.

Joe Kleine scored 22 points, forced Hakeem Olajuwon to foul out and the Hogs beat No. 2 Houston in 1984.

 MARCH 4, 1984, AT FAYETTEVILLE

Juwan Howard, but neither could the Wolverines handle Thurman. With Williamson smothered by Michigan's inside defense and held to 12 points, Thurman tossed in 20 as UA reached the Final Four with a 76-68 win attended by President Clinton.

By the time the Hogs arrived at Charlotte, N.C., they were a confident bunch. They also had been somehow convinced by Richardson that they were not nationally respected, even though they had been ranked No. 1. Arizona was the semifinal opponent and the Wildcat guards, Damon Stoudamire and Khalid Reeves, were billed as the top offensive guards in the nation.

Beck and McDaniel were motivated to the hilt and smothered them. They combined to hit just 11 of their 43 shots, including just two of 22 three-point attempts. Williamson scored 29 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, and the Hogs advanced to the championship game with a 91-82 victory.

An entire state stood still on April 4, 1994. Arkansas fans who could not be there (more than 3,000 made the trip to Charlotte) watched and listened in every corner of the state. President Clinton was there again, and so was Duke, the 1991 and '92 national champion.

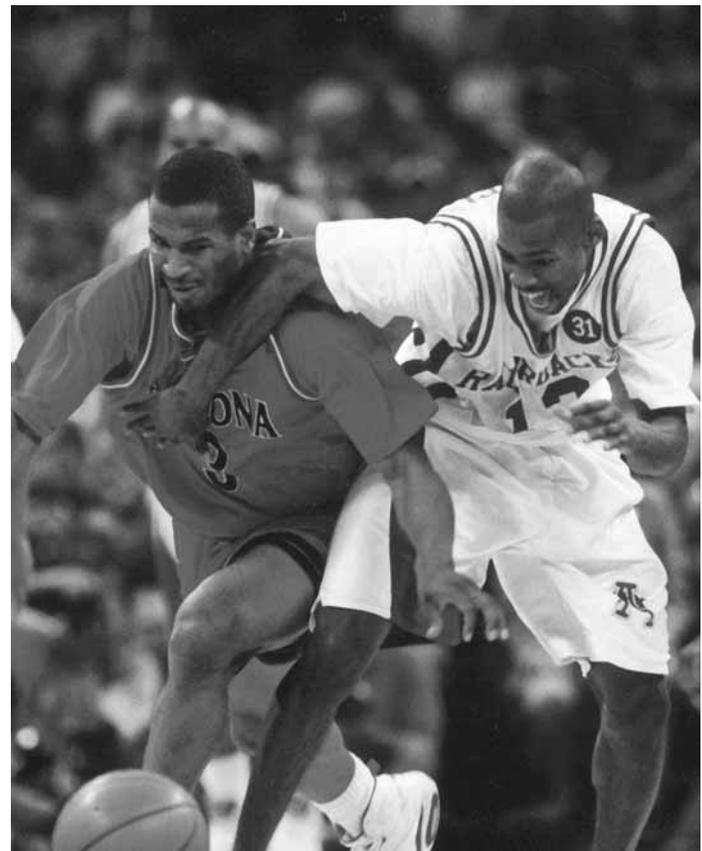

After an airtight first half that ended with Arkansas holding a 34-33 lead, Duke jumped out to a 10-point advantage in the first three minutes of the second half. However, the pace of the game picked up during the run and it never slowed down. The Razorbacks took advantage and were even with the Devils less than five minutes later.

When Arkansas built a 70-65 lead late in the contest, it looked safe, but Grant Hill's three tied the game with 1:29 remaining.

Although Williamson finished with 23 points, there was no doubt who would take the next shot for UA. Thurman launched a high-arching three-point attempt with only seconds left on the shot clock. The shot fell with 51 seconds left and when it settled through the net, the outcome had been determined. A pair of free throws by McDaniel and another by Dillard sealed Duke's fate, 76-72.

Once the national championship belonged to the Hogs, an entire state celebrated. President Clinton embraced Richardson on the court and later officially honored the Razorbacks at the White House.

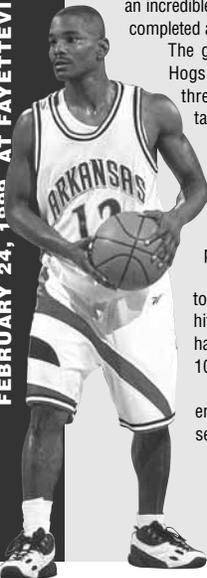

The 1994 NCAA championship trophy is on display at Bud Walton Arena.

Clint McDaniel (above) and Corey Beck shut down Arizona's Damon Stoudamire and Khalid Reeves in the 91-82 semifinal victory in 1994.

ARKANSAS 104, No. 2 AUBURN 88
FEBRUARY 24, 1999 AT FAYETTEVILLE

Auburn hadn't won a Southeastern Conference championship in 39 years but already had clinched the title and was ranked second nationally with a 25-1 record when the Tigers came to Bud Walton Arena for Arkansas' regular season home finale.

The Razorbacks had stunned fifth-ranked Kentucky four days earlier and believed a win over Auburn would clinch a spot in the NCAA Tournament.

It was an emotional evening before the game started. Seniors Derek Hood, Pat Bradley and Kareem Reid, record-setters who persevered through four sometimes-difficult seasons, were introduced to the Bud Walton fans for the final time.

Arkansas' fans created the noisiest environment Coach Nolan Richardson, his players and long-time followers of the program could ever remember. An overflow crowd of 20,298 nearly shook the building with an incredible level of exhortation. Not a player or coach on either side completed an interview without mentioning the crowd.

The game itself was airtight throughout the first half. The Hogs surged ahead by 10 points twice but a last second three-pointer by Tiger star Chris Porter carved the advantage to four by intermission. It was a one-point game with 16:26 left but a rebound basket by Hood spurred the Razorbacks to a 30-10 run that left Auburn in shock. Both teams were quick, but the Tigers must have thought there were more than five Hogs on the floor as the noise pushed Arkansas beyond its highest previous performance level of the campaign.

When it was over, the Razorbacks had a 16-point victory and a spot secured in the NCAA Tournament. Bradley hit five three-pointers and finished with 23 points. Hood had 18 points and 13 rebounds. Reid earned 10 points and 10 assists. Junior Chris Walker added 21 points.

It was Arkansas' finest execution of the season and the entire state was buzzing about the contest long after the season was concluded.

Following a win over No. 5 Kentucky five days earlier, Kareem Reid's 10 points and 10 assists helped the Razorbacks knock off second-ranked Auburn, which came in 25-1, in 1999.

Kentucky's second-ever trip to Fayetteville was a highly-anticipated event. CBS moved the game to Super Bowl Sunday to ensure a large audience for the nationally televised event.

The Wildcats were 13-2, including 7-0 in the Southeastern Conference. Arkansas, the preseason No. 1 choice and defending national champion, had looked vulnerable at times during the season and was 15-4 with a 4-3 SEC mark.

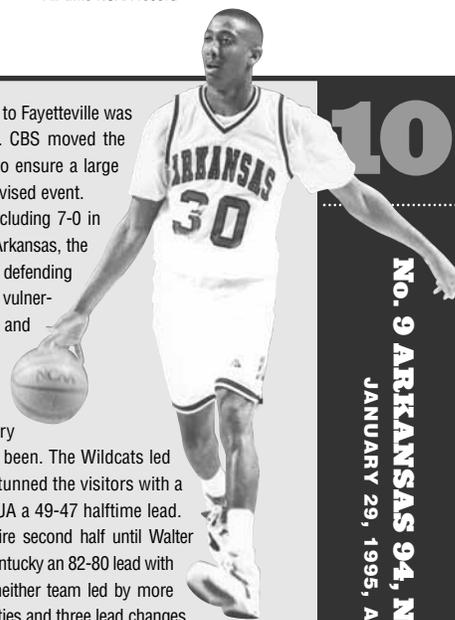

By halftime it was obvious another special event was taking place, just as every Arkansas-Kentucky game had been. The Wildcats led by one when Reggie Garrett stunned the visitors with a halfcourt buzzer shot to give UA a 49-47 halftime lead.

UA was tied or led the entire second half until Walter McCarty's short jumper gave Kentucky an 82-80 lead with 5:19 left. From that point on, neither team led by more than four, and there were three ties and three lead changes.

The teams traded salvos until Clint McDaniel made just one free throw with 51 seconds remaining. When McCarty scored on a put-back with 24 seconds to go, UK led by one.

Scotty Thurman, UA's greatest last-second shot maker ever, made sure the crowd went home happy. He drove past UK defenders, pulled up and hit an 18-footer with eight seconds to go to put the Razorbacks in front for good. McDaniel made a baseline steal in the final second and hit a free throw for the final two-point margin.

Thurman and Corliss Williamson combined for 50 points as the Hogs won their fourth straight regular season game over the Wildcats.

After graduating from Duke, he taught English language and African literature as a Peace Corps volunteer in Sokoto, Nigeria.

He and his wife Katherine have three children, Christian, Elizabeth and Andrew.

FRANK BROYLES
Athletic Director

For nearly five decades, University of Arkansas Athletic Director Frank Broyles has helped define the standard of excellence in intercollegiate athletics. A legendary coach, nationally respected athletic administrator and tireless goodwill ambassador for his university and state, Broyles' influence continues to shape the Razorback program as well as impact the vast collegiate athletic landscape.

Set to enter his 49th year with UA and his 33rd year as athletic director, Broyles is as synonymous with the UA athletic program as the Hog on the side of the football helmet or even the very nickname, Razorbacks. In June 2003, Broyles was given a five-year contract extension providing him an opportunity to serve the UA for more than a half century.

His intensely competitive spirit, boundless enthusiasm and love for Arkansas have inspired him to build an athletic program that is on the cutting edge in the ever-changing world of college athletics.

There is little doubt Broyles has had more positive impact on athletics in Arkansas than any person in the history of the state. The Arkansas Democrat-Gazette confirmed his status when it named him the most influential figure in athletics in the state during the 20th Century. On July 1, 2003, he took over as the chairman of the UA's Campaign for the 21st Century. The ambitious campaign concluded in June after meeting its $1 billion goal.

Perhaps his greatest contribution to the Razorback program is his knack for hiring quality head coaches and surrounding them with the tools and facilities they need to compete at the highest level.

Broyles has a history of picking the right ones as head coaches and administrators at Arkansas. UA football coach Houston Nutt has led the Razorback football team to two SEC Western Division crowns and six bowl games, and has revived the passion of football fans across the state. John McDonnell is the most successful collegiate coach in history, with 41 national championships in cross country, indoor and outdoor track. Robert Cox is entering his 19th season as the coach of Arkansas' tradition-rich tennis program. The Razorback tennis team has made eight NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 12 seasons including a Sweet 16 finish in 2004.

Although blessed with a stable of quality tenured coaches, Broyles has recently re-exhibited his ability to land some of the nation's top up and coming coaches for some of the Razorbacks' most successful programs.

In just the past three years, Broyles has hired high profile coaches for the Razorbacks' basketball, baseball and golf programs.

Stan Heath was a rising star in the collegiate basketball coaching world after leading Kent State to an improbable run to the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight. By the time the 2002 Final Four was underway the next weekend, Heath was donning an Arkansas sweater vest.

Not long after legendary baseball coach Norm DeBrynn stepped down, Broyles hired Dave Van Horn. The former Razorback player and graduate assistant led Nebraska to back-to-back College World Series appearances before returning to Fayetteville. In only his second season at Arkansas, Van Horn led the Razorbacks to an SEC championship and a berth in the College World Series.

The UA golf program is once again on track after Broyles lured former UA golfer Mike Ketcham back to his alma mater.

Broyles' philosophy of hiring quality coaches and building state-of-the-art facilities has keyed an unprecedented era of success at Arkansas. In the 23 years before Broyles became athletic director, Arkansas had never captured a national championship and owned only 22 SWC titles in sports other than football. During his 32-year term as AD, the Hogs have won 42 national championships, 57 SWC titles and 43 SEC crowns in the same collection of sports. Football hasn't suffered either, with 21 bowl trips, four league championships and three SEC Western Division titles during that same span.

One of six initial inductees into the UA Sports Hall of Honor and a 1983 inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, Broyles was once again honored by the National Football Foundation in 2000 as the recipient of the John L. Toner Award. The honor recognizes an athletic director who has demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics and particularly college football.

Broyles is a long-time member of the Arkansas State Sports Hall of Fame and was chosen by the Southwest Marketing Association as the 1988 Outstanding Marketer of the Year. He has been honored by the Atlanta Council of the Boy Scouts of America (Bobby Jones Award), the Arkansas Rotarians (Paul Harris Fellowship), Arkansas High School Coaches Association (Distinguished Service Award) and Arkansas Governor Mike Huckabee in a joint venture with Little Rock's KARK-TV (Distinguished Citizen Award). In 2003, Broyles was presented the inaugural Bear Bryant Lifetime Achievement Award by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He was also honored by the Knoxville [Tenn.] Quarterback Club with the Bob Woodruff Award.

Beginning his 49th year at Arkansas, Broyles has always been a wonderful ambassador for UA and the state. For nine years he was ABC's top color commentator on college football telecasts, teaming with legendary sportscaster Keith Jackson. Broyles has been the keynote speaker at conventions, civic group meetings and coaching clinics all over the nation. His insight into the world of college athletics is sought on a daily basis.

His contributions are not limited to athletic endeavors. Broyles was instrumental in the success of the University's Campaign for Books and served as a co-chairman on UA's Campaign for the Twenty-First Century. In fact, Broyles and his late wife Barbara pledged a sizable financial commitment to the project in the spring of 2002.

Born Dec. 26, 1924, Broyles was married to his high school sweetheart the former Barbara Day for 59 years. Barbara passed away due to complications from Alzheimer's in October 2004. The couple has four sons, Jack, Hank, Dan and Tommy; and twin daughters, Betsy and Linda. He has 19 grandchildren: Lex and his wife Gina, Ivan, Iris, Taylor, Madison, Molly, India, Jacob, Allyson, Jordan, Delaney, Franklin, Barbara, Thomas Michael Jr., Carmen, Ramey, Whitney, Jennifer and John.

DR. DERRICK GRAGG Senior Associate Athletic Director

Dr. Derrick Gragg is in his third year as UA's senior associate athletic director after serving his first three years as associate athletic director & director of compliance. Gragg oversees several internal and external functions, including compliance, the athletic marketing and sports information departments, Arkansas' spring sports programs, including track and field, baseball, golf and tennis, the strength and conditioning program, and the spirit squad programs. He also serves as the liaison between the men's athletic department and the UA development office.

During his career, Gragg has published several articles and editorials on intercollegiate athletics as well as a nationwide study on sports-related gambling. He also serves as a member of the American Heart Association Heartland Affiliate Board of Directors.

A former collegiate wide receiver, Gragg lettered four years at Vanderbilt while earning his degree. He graduated with a bachelor's in human development in 1992 and was a member of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll during his senior year.

Gragg served from 1993-95 as an academic counselor at his alma mater before adding the title of director of student life in his final year at Vanderbilt. In his time with the Commodores, he coordinated student life and support programs as well as supervised the academic counseling programs for student-athletes.

In 1995, Gragg was named director of compliance & operations at the University of Missouri. During his two years in Columbia, he was the game event manager for Olympic sports programs and served on the Big 12 Compliance Coordinators Group during his last year as compliance coordinator at the university.

Named assistant athletic director for compliance at Michigan in 1997, Gragg spent three years overseeing the UM compliance department. While serving in Ann Arbor, Gragg earned his master's degree in sports administration from Wayne State University (WSU). He also served on the faculty at WSU, teaching intercollegiate sport administration and sports marketing classes. Gragg earned his doctorate in higher education administration from UA in May of 2004. He is currently a university adjunct faculty member, teaching two undergraduate courses.

He is a member of the North American Society for the Sociology of Sport (NASSS), the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the Black Coaches Association (BCA).

Gragg and his wife, Sanya, have a daughter, DeSha, 11, and two sons, Avery, eight, and Phillip-Raymond, four.

BILL GRAY Executive Associate Athletic Director

Overseeing many facets of the athletic department is former Razorback standout Bill Gray, who is now in his 18th year as associate athletic director and his third as the executive associate AD. He supervises event management, football and basketball scheduling, and postseason football and basketball.

Gray, in his 22nd year at Arkansas, joined the Razorbacks as recruiting coordinator in 1984. He served in that capacity for four years before moving into full-time administration.

He is involved in capital improvement, scheduling, and football and basketball game management. As recruiting coordinator, he helped build the Razorback Belle program. He was also instrumental in the creation of the Razorback Hall of Honor, now in its 16th year. He was chairman of the committee in charge of the details of Arkansas' football centennial celebration.

Gray lettered three years each in football and baseball at Arkansas while being a captain of the 1964 national championship team. He played quarterback and defensive back, and played in one Cotton Bowl and one Sugar Bowl during his career. His 68-yard toss to Jerry Lamb in the 1963 Sugar Bowl is still a school record for longest pass completion in a bowl game. He led the 1963 Razorbacks in scoring with 30 points on five touchdowns and led the '64 Hogs with three interceptions. Gray also led the 1965 baseball team with a .322 average.

After his college career, he played professional baseball for a year in the Minnesota Twins organization, then served as a graduate assistant football coach under Frank Broyles at Arkansas for a year. He then spent four seasons as a defensive backfield coach for the Oklahoma Sooners.

He left coaching and was in the restaurant business for 12 years in Little Rock. He then served three years as business administrator for Baptist churches in Wichita, Kan., and Shreveport, La., before returning to Arkansas.

A 1966 graduate of Arkansas with a degree in business administration, Gray and his wife Peggy have four children, Ken, Mike, Kristi and Carrie, and four grandchildren, John, Carley, Jacob and Isabella.

TOM DORRE Associate Athletic Director for Business Affairs

Tom Dorre is entering his fourth year as associate athletic director for business affairs, but he is in his 39th year at the University of Arkansas. Dorre joined the athletic department on Aug. 22, 2002.

In his current position, Dorre oversees business operations, including budgeting and accounting, ticketing, contracts, travel and purchasing.

Before joining the athletic department, Dorre spent the previous 16 years as the associate vice chancellor for finance. In that role over his last five years, he was responsible for UA's tax compliance office and managed the in-house software development team that created and implemented the university's business and administrative strategic information system. The system included applications for budgeting, general ledger, procurement, accounts payable, position control, departmental accounting, payroll, and personnel and electronic approval that met Y2K requirements and eliminated redundant data entry and the use of paper forms.

From 1987-97, Dorre, who earned an MBA from the university in 1980, managed the budget and financial affairs offices, which included all general ledger accounting functions as well as grant and contract compliance, plant and property reporting and compliance, external financial reporting, external audit compliance, and IRS compliance and reporting.

For just more than a year, from May 1993 to June 1994, he served as the interim vice chancellor for finance and administration. During that time, he managed the offices of financial affairs, business affairs, human resources, physical plant, computing service, public safety, financial management and analysis, and treasurer.

Dorre, a 1967 Arkansas graduate with a bachelor's degree in accounting, has been at the university in various positions since he graduated.

He began his career in the controllers office, a position he held from 1967-75. From 1975-81, he was UA's budget director. He worked as associate vice chancellor for administration from 1981 until becoming associate vice chancellor for finance in 1987.

Dorre is currently on the Arkansas Alumni Association Board of Directors, UA's Faculty Athletic Committee and UA's Survey Research Center Policy Board. In the past, he has served on the athletic and financial advisory committees, the Student Fee Review Board and the Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration Search Committee. He has also served two terms on the board of directors of the Economic Opportunity Agency of Washington County, Inc., among others.

Dorre and his wife Connie have one daughter, Kristy, and two grandchildren.

JERRY PUFALL
Associate Athletic Director for Facilities

Jerry Pufall is in his fourth year as associate AD for facilities after serving the previous two years as assistant athletic director. In his 11th year overall with the Razorbacks, he has served as an administrative assistant to baseball and director of special projects since joining the athletic department in the fall of 1994.

Pufall oversees the operation of Razorback facilities, including game day operations, scheduling, upkeep, maintenance and long-range planning for Baum Stadium, Bud Walton Arena, Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, Randal Tyson Track Center, Willard and Pat Walker Pavilion, Dills Indoor Tennis Center, John McDonnell Field and Razorback Cross Country Course.

THE RAZORBACK FOUNDATION

UA ADMINISTRATION STAFF

CHUCK DICUS
Razorback Foundation President

Former Razorback All-American receiver Chuck Dicus is in his 15th year as President of The Razorback Foundation, Inc. He joined the Foundation after working in the investment business in Little Rock.

As president, Dicus heads up the all-important effort of fund-raising for the Foundation. Those funds help the Razorbacks maintain a position among the nation's elite collegiate athletic programs.

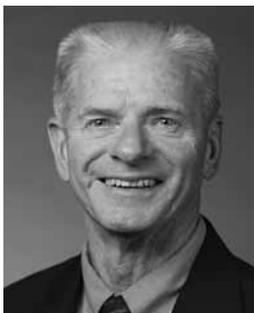

A two-time All-American (1969 and 1970), Dicus finished his career with 118 receptions for 1,854 yards and 16 touchdowns.

He was the most valuable player of the 1969 Sugar Bowl when his 12 catches for 169 yards and a touchdown helped the Razorbacks defeat previously unbeaten Georgia, 16-2.

He earned his undergraduate degree in business from Arkansas in 1971 and was drafted by the San Diego Chargers. He spent two years with San Diego and one with the Pittsburgh Steelers before leaving pro football.

His football achievements landed him a spot in the Razorback Hall of Honor, on the Arkansas All-Century football team and in the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame. In 2000, he was enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

A native of Ashland, Wis., he guided the Razorbacks to four NCAA College World Series appearances, 15 NCAA postseason berths and three conference championships. DeBriyn earned six Southwest Conference Coach of the Year awards and one Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year honor.

Despite the mind-boggling numbers, the biggest testament to DeBriyn's contribution to the Razorback baseball program stands less than a half-mile from the Arkansas campus.

Baum Stadium at George Cole Field was named college baseball's best facility in a 1998 survey by Baseball America. The $8.9 million home of the Razorbacks was made possible by generous donations from the Charlie Baum, and Willard and Pat Walker families.

DeBriyn and his wife, the former Caroline Mock of Honolulu, Hawaii, have been married for 34 years. They have two sons, Todd and Marty, and one daughter, Carrie Jo.

A member of the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor and the University of Central Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame, he is a native of DeWitt. He played on Frank Broyles' first three Southwest Conference championship teams at Arkansas, lettering in 1959, 1960 and 1961, and played in the Gator, Cotton and Sugar bowls. His teams combined for a 25-8 record. Horton was elected captain in 1961 in a vote of his teammates. In 2003, he received an Outstanding American Award presented by the College Football Foundation.

After earning his degree in physical education in 1962, Horton was the head football coach at Bald Knob (Ark.) and Forrest City (Ark.) high schools for three years each.

Broyles hired Horton as linebackers coach in 1968. He moved to the defensive line in 1977 and served in that capacity for four seasons under Lou Holtz.

Following the 1980 season he went into private business for a year but returned to football in 1981 when he became head coach at Central Arkansas. His teams were 74-12-5, won two national championships and qualified for the NAIA playoffs six times. The 1983, 1987 and 1988 clubs were all undefeated at 10-0. He was named NAIA National Coach of the Year in 1983.

In 1999, Anthony Lucas was the first recipient of the Harold Horton Award recognizing excellence on the field and in the classroom.

Horton and his wife, Betty, have two children. Their son Tim, an assistant football coach at the Air Force Academy and a former Razorback wide receiver, is married. ### National Championships Won by SEC Members in Men's Sports Since Arkansas Joined the League (Nov. 1991 - June 2005)

ARKANSAS	29	(11 indoor track, 10 outdoor track, seven cross country, one basketball)
LSU	8	(four baseball, two indoor track, one football, one outdoor track)
Auburn	5	(five swimming and diving)
Georgia	4	(two tennis, two golf)
Florida	3	(one football, two golf)
Tennessee	3	(one football, two indoor track)
Kentucky	2	(two basketball)
Alabama	1	(one football)

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 73-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2004-05 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured seven national titles and eight national runner-up finishes. Since 1990, the SEC has won 107 national team championships for an average of more than six per year.

SEC members won seven national titles last year with Arkansas claiming two of those — in men's indoor and outdoor track and field.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 10 of its 20 sponsored sports and in the top five in 16 of the 20 sports. Six SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls, five men's and five women's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament and an NCAA record-tying nine teams advanced to postseason play in baseball.

In addition to the seven team championships, 72 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships while 554 individuals were awarded with first-team All-America honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with 2,052 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, the SEC placed nine teams in the top 50 of the Sears/NACDA Director's Cup rankings with Arkansas coming in 32nd.

HISTORY OF THE SEC

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another more than 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives in Atlanta on Dec. 22, 1894.

The SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 with Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer Mississippi State, Nashville, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas and Tulane joining the fold, and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920, including Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, MSU, UNC, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee. In 1922, Florida, LSU, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt, Virginia and VMI joined while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928, respectively. The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized (UA, AU, UF, UG, GTU, UK, LSU, UM, MSU, Sewanee, UT, Tulane and VU) as the SEC at the Southern Conference meetings of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville while the 10 coast members remained in the SC. Sewanee withdrew on Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964, and Tulane on June 1, 1966. The league maintained that membership until Arkansas joined on Aug. 1, 1990, and South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990.

2005 REVIEW

While in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands, last year, the Razorbacks found time to take a snorkeling trip.

Michael Jones, the only senior on last year's club, participated in graduation ceremonies during the spring. Head coach Stan Heath has had eight seniors complete their eligibility in his three years at Arkansas, and all eight have walked across the stage during commencement exercises.

Olu Famutimi and Arkansas soared from 12 wins in 2004 to 18 last season.

HOGS RECORD BEST FINISH IN FOUR YEARS

THE SEASON: Arkansas finished the year 18-12 overall and 6-10 in the Southeastern Conference, which was good for fourth in the Western Division. UA recorded its best record in four years, since the 2001 club went 20-11 and earned an NCAA Tournament bid.

The Razorbacks improved by six wins over the 2004 record of 12-16. UA's 6-10 Southeastern Conference mark is its best since the 2002 team was also 6-10. The 2001 club was 10-6 in league play.

BREWER UA'S FIRST FIRST-TEAM ALL-SEC PICK IN 10 YEARS; TOWNES EARNS ALL-FRESHMAN HONORS: Guard Ronnie Brewer earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors from the league's coaches and forward Darian Townes made the league's all-freshman team.

Brewer is Arkansas' first first-team All-SEC selection since Scotty Thurman and Corliss Williamson in 1995. UA has had 10 second- or third-team selections since.

Townes, who also earned honorable mention freshman All-America honors (Rivals.com) is the fourth Razorback to earn league all-freshman honors in the last three years. Jonathon Modica made the rookie team in 2003, and Brewer and Olu Famutimi made it in 2004.

Eric Ferguson ranked fifth in the SEC in assists last year (4.27) and is ninth on Arkansas' all-time chart with 297.

HOG ATTENDANCE BACK IN THE TOP 10: Arkansas' average attendance increased by almost 1,000 fans per game from 2004 to 2005 and the Razorbacks moved back into the national top 10.

For 16 home games, in which the Hogs went 13-3, Arkansas averaged 15,788 fans per game, an increase of 996 per game over the 2004 average of 14,792.

Arkansas' 2005 attendance average was the ninth-best in the nation. The 2004 figure ranked No. 13 in the nation. Arkansas' attendance average has ranked among the nation's top 15 every season since the Razorbacks moved into Bud Walton Arena for the 1994 season. The Razorbacks moved back into the top 10 for the first time since 2001 when UA was also ninth. Arkansas was 13th in 2002, 14th in 2003 and 13th in 2004.

UA WINS PARADISE JAM TITLE: Arkansas opened the season by winning the Paradise Jam at the U.S. Virgin Islands. The Razorbacks beat Winthrop, 72-49; Troy, 89-54; and Eastern Michigan in the title game, 82-64. The tournament title is the first for Arkansas since 2000 when the Razorbacks won the Southeastern Conference Tournament. It's the first in-season tournament championship since the 1995 Hogs won the Rainbow Classic at Honolulu, Hawaii, with wins over Oklahoma, Cincinnati and Ohio.

Ronnie Brewer was the MVP of the Paradise Jam with averages of 15.7 points, 3.7 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 2.7 steals while shooting 51.6 percent from the floor (16-31). Eric Ferguson made the all-tournament team despite not starting, but averaging 15.7 points, 4.3 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 2.5 steals while shooting 56.3 percent from the field (18-32).

As a team, Arkansas set tournament records for the largest average margin of victory, 25.3; team scoring average, 81.0; and team blocked shots, 24.

CLOSE CALLS: Arkansas won by one at Ole Miss on Feb. 5, held on against LSU on Feb. 12 and got by Tennessee on Feb. 26, but the Razorbacks had a chance to win four other SEC games in the final seconds.

Against Mississippi State on March 1, Ronnie Brewer's potential game-tying jumper in the lane with two seconds left was partially blocked and MSU rebounded to hold on for a 57-55 victory.

Against No. 6 Kentucky on Jan. 29, trailing 68-67, Chuck Hayes missed a one-and-one with 5.5 seconds left. UA rebounded and Eric Ferguson got the ball around midcourt. His three-pointer from the top of the key bounced off the back of the rim as the horn sounded and UK avoided the upset.

At LSU on Jan. 19, UA trailed 58-56 with 10 seconds to play and inbounded from under its goal to Michael Jones at the top of the key. Jones took a step to his left, stepped back and hit a jumper which one official ruled a three and another ruled a two. The shot was ruled a two and Arkansas fell 66-63 in overtime.

Against No. 21 Alabama on Jan. 11, following a free throw by Kennedy Winston to give the Crimson Tide a 64-61 lead with 9.8 seconds remaining, Ferguson got an open three from the left wing. The game-tying shot was off the mark and Alabama escaped with a 64-61 victory.

For the year, UA played seven one-possession games (three points or less) and was 3-4 in those contests. In 2004, the Razorbacks lost their only one-possession game. In 2003, the Hogs were 1-1. UA was 2-2 in 2002 and 2001. The last time Arkansas played as many as seven in one season was the national runner-up year of 1995 when the Razorbacks were 9-1.

FERGUSON RANKED AMONG SEC LEADERS IN ASSISTS, ASSIST-TO-TURNOVER RATIO AND STEALS: Guard Eric Ferguson had a good year handling the ball. He finished the season fifth in the SEC in assists with 4.27 and second with an assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.37. He was also eighth in steals with 1.70. His assist average is the best for a Razorback since Kareem Reid averaged 5.32 in 1999. He had 128 assists for the year with only 54 turnovers. His assist total is the highest for a Razorback since Reid had 181 in 1999. His 54 turnovers are the fewest for UA's primary ball-handler since T.J. Cleveland had 47 (with 83 assists) in 2001.

Prior to the season-ending game at the SEC Tournament, Ferguson had a three-game stretch of 22 assists with just six turnovers with a career-high nine assists at Auburn.

His 297 career assists rank ninth on Arkansas' career chart.

CRANFORD NAMED TO SEC HONOR ROLL: Guard Preston Cranford was named to the Southeastern Conference's 2005 Winter Academic Honor Roll. The sophomore general business major redshirted in 2005. A native of Heber Springs, Ark., he played in 15 games as a true freshman in 2004, making two-of-seven shots and averaging 0.5 points.

DRAINING THREES: Arkansas recorded three of the top four single-game three-point shooting percentages in school history during 2005. The Razorbacks matched the record of .667 by going eight-of-12 against Prairie View A&M on Dec. 18. The only game in the top four not from 2005 was the .667 mark against Western Carolina (14-21) in 1999.

In 2004, Arkansas shot 31.4 percent, which ranked last in the Southeastern Conference. UA's 2005 percentage (.372) ranked fifth. Here are UA's all-time top three-point percentage games (2005 games in bold):

1. .667 (8-12) vs. Prairie View A&M, 12/18/04
.667 (14-21) vs. Western Carolina, 12/7/98
3. .650 (13-20) vs. Hartford, 12/23/04
4. .647 (11-17) vs. Winthrop, 11/19/04

MOST WINS EVER BY JANUARY: UA's 12 wins through Dec. 31 were the most ever for the Razorbacks before January. The Hogs had 11 victories by January in 1995 and '91.

At 12-1, Arkansas reached double-digits in wins by January for the first time since the 1999 Hogs were 10-2 through December.

Ronnie Brewer was a first-team All-SEC selection in 2005, the first first-team all-conference pick for the Razorbacks since Scotty Thurman and Corliss Williamson in 1995.

UA RECORDS

Before going on to a 13-year NBA career that included more than 1,000 blocked shots, Andrew Lang led Arkansas in rejections all four years from 1985-88 and in rebounding from 1986-88. He is second on UA's career blocked shot list with 252 and sixth in rebounds with 693.

Ronnie Brewer's 74 career steals in Southeastern Conference play are the fifth-most in school history. Eric Ferguson is just behind Brewer with 72.

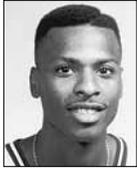

Vernon Murphy's 8.3 career rebounding average ties Sidney Moncrief for second-best in school history. Murphy led the team with 8.8 per game in 1971 and also topped the club in free throw shooting in 1972 at 82.4 percent.

The following policies have been prepared in consideration of your needs, as well as the needs of our student-athletes, coaches and staff, in hopes of creating a positive working environment for us all. As always, we welcome your suggestions and will try to accommodate special needs.

Game Credentials

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be made on letterhead by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets only. Requests should be made as early as possible and no later than two days prior to the game. Requests should be mailed or faxed (479-575-7481) to Robby Edwards at the address listed at the beginning of this section.

Credentials will be granted to working media only and granted on a game-by-game basis. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.

Media and photo credentials will be issued according to the following priority:

1. Daily newspapers for production the following day
2. Sports editors only of other Arkansas daily newspapers
3. Originating broadcast of the visiting team
4. Accredited photographers (same priority as writers)
5. School publications (home and visiting campus publications are limited to a total of two media and two photo passes)
6. Accredited television sports directors and photographers
7. Approved special coverage
8. Professional scouts (one per team and limited to the first six requests)

Space limitations prevent accommodation of weekly media representatives and non-broadcasting radio personnel.

Also due to a lack of space, credentials will not be issued to web sites. The only possible exception is one credential may be issued to the official web site of the opposing team and/or the web site directly affiliated with the television network granted live broadcast rights for the game, space permitting.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The Sports Information Office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one to whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refused to comply with press row and/or photographic guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; and (4) any individual under the age of 16.

The Sports Information Office reserves the right to issue or deny any credential request.

No credentials will be mailed. All credentials are left at media will call.

Southeastern Conference Internet Policy and Guidelines

By acceptance of a credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all basketball games hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or on-line site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

A. No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis, that is at least five minutes after the photographed happening of the event depicted by the still photo.

B. It is agreed that video tape is NOT to be used on an Internet or on-line site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, on-line "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

MEDIA INFORMATION

C. While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score {detail only given in halftime updates}, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed halftime story) so that an organization's Internet or on-line game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's right to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or on-line site of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes a play-by-play account of the game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in the revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

Media Will Call

Located on the south side of Bud Walton Arena, just right of the main ticket window. All passes are left at media will call — no credentials are mailed.

Game Day Parking

A limited number of spaces are available in the lots south of Bud Walton Arena, located at the corner of Sixth Street and Razorback Road. All requests should be made to Associate SID Robby Edwards.

Media Work Room

BWA's work room is one of the most spacious in the nation. It is located on the arena floor level, next to and adjoining the interview room. Weekly press briefings and Stan Heath's post-game press conferences are held in the interview room. Media members are encouraged to work from and file from the work room rather than press row. Wireless Internet is available in the work room and at press row. Please see Associate SID Robby Edwards for login information. In addition, a minimum of 10 telephones are available in the work room.

Photographers

BWA features two photo "wells," which are located to the right of each goal as you are facing the court. Tripods are not allowed on the floor at any time during play and photographers must sit on the floor so as to not block the view of spectators. Spots in the photo wells are not reserved. Photographers are not allowed to shoot from either sideline due to space limitations. Sports information reserves the right to limit the number of strobe units used.

Radio Broadcasts

Visiting teams may utilize the four courtesy phone lines available in BWA. ISDN is available. Broadcasters needing more than four lines should contact the UA Sports Information Office. No banners are allowed to hang in front of any broadcast position.

Media Services

The University of Arkansas has one of the top statistical crews in college basketball. Our crew has worked NCAA Tournament regional championships and conference tournaments. Media will be provided play-by-play, halftime and final box scores, and shot charts for each half, in addition to coach and player quotes following the game.

Interview Policy

Arkansas players are available for interviews only on days of Stan Heath's press briefings, which are generally two days prior to each game, and following each game in Arkansas' locker room. Following all home games, after the 10-minute cooling-off period, Heath sits in on Arkansas' postgame radio show and then proceeds to the media room.

Stan Heath's Weekly Teleconferences

Each Monday and Thursday from Jan. 5 through March 6. The SEC teleconference features each league head coach for seven minutes on a broadcast quality hookup. The teleconference runs from 10 a.m. to approximately 11:40 a.m. (central). Stan Heath's time slot is from 10:49 to 10:56. Media members can get the teleconference access numbers from either the SEC Media Relations Office (205-458-3010) or the UA Sports Information Office.

Razorback Satellite Services

At press time, no details were available on the uplink of highlights and interviews. The UA Sports Information Office will attempt to schedule highlight feeds following selected non-released games. For details, contact the Sports Information Office.

Hogwired.com

The latest information on all Razorback men's athletics is just a click away on the web at Hogwired.com — the official web site of UA men's athletics. Game notes, quotes from Stan Heath's press conferences and game stories are a few of the items included. The site also offers biographical information on UA coaches and student-athletes, statistics and schedules. Fans can also access live stats of UA football, basketball and baseball games. The RazorZone is a premium site featuring radio game broadcasts of football, basketball and baseball. Video from the RazorZone includes coaches shows, press conferences and selected live events.

ARKANSAS RAZORBACK SPORTS NETWORK

HITTING THE ROAD

Arkansas travels to Hawaii for the Maui Invitational this year. In the summer of 2003, UA played in Cancun, Mexico. Last year, Arkansas won the Paradise Jam tournament in the U.S. Virgin Islands (bottom left). Ronnie Brewer and head coach Stan Heath didn't have to go far to run into former NBA great Scottie Pippen (top right), who was on a golf outing in Northwest Arkansas this summer.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

In Stan Heath's three years as head coach, eight Razorbacks have completed their eligibility at Arkansas. All eight have participated in graduation ceremonies, including Dionisio Gomez (left) and Alonzo Lane (right) in above right photo. In addition, former Hogs Todd Day (2004), Clyde Fletcher (2005) and Ron Huery (2005) have returned to Fayetteville in the last three years and earned their degrees.
