SEASON IN REVIEW

Even after saying goodbye to seven players who went on to the pros and coming off a historic 38-1 season, expectations were still sky-high for the Wildcats in 2015-16. Somehow, someway, despite a second-round loss in the NCAA Tournament, UK still met them.

Led by spectacular individual seasons from Tyler Ulis and Jamal Murray, Kentucky captured a share of its 47th regular-season Southeastern Conference championship, its 29th SEC Tournament title and make its nation-leading 55th NCAA Tournament appearance.

The loss to Indiana in the second round was just the first time in the John Calipari era the Wildcats failed to make it past the second round when making the tournament.

Tyler Ulis, who was named an NCAA consensus first-team All-American, the shortest since Don Hennon (Pittsburgh) in 1958, set the new single-season school assists record previously held by John Wall. He came up big in UK's toughest games, averaging a team-best 24.4 points and a team-high 7.6 assists in UK's seven games vs. ranked opponents.

Murray, who was named a freshman All-American by Sporting News and the USBWA and an AP third-team All-American, completed the 2015-16 campaign with a 20.0 scoring average, easily the best of the Calipari era. He set the scoring mark for most points by a freshman in school history at 720, the UK freshman 3-point field goal record at 113 and broke Tony Delk's consecutive games with a made 3-pointer at 36 games.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than five days prior to game day online at sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. UK will accept requests to attend practice. All requests must be made by 10 a.m. on the day of the practice. In cases in which practices are open to the media, no cell phones are allowed in the practice facility.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media in the Joe Craft Center lower-level lobby. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews in the lower level lobby of the Joe Craft Center.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Ulis a Consensus All-America Selection

Kentucky men's basketball point guard Tyler Ulis was tabbed a consensus first-team All-American. Ulis, by virtue of the NCAA consensus All-America points system, earned the distinction. He was named a first-team All-American by the Associated Press and Sporting News and a second-team All-American by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and the National Association of Basketball

2015-16 SEASON NOTES

Coaches. The NCAA recognizes consensus All-Americans based on four "major" NCAA-recognized All-America teams: the AP, Sporting News, the USBWA and the NABC. Since 1984, the NCAA has applied a standardized point system based on those four All-America teams, with three points awarded to first-team honors, two to second-teams honors and one to third-team honors. The top five totals in the country plus ties are considered consensus first-team All-Americans, and the next five plus ties make the second team. Ulis, at 5-foot-9, is the shortest consensus first-team All-American since Pittsburgh's Don Hennon, at 5-9, earned the distinction in 1958

Ulis is the 21st consensus first-team All-American in school history and the fourth under Calipari. All told, UK has had 26 consensus first-team All-America honors. Forest Sale (1932, 1933), Ralph Beard (1947-49), Alex Groza (1947, 1949) and Cliff Hagan (1952, 1954) achieved the feat in multiple seasons.

Willie Cauley-Stein (2015), Anthony Davis (2012) and John Wall (2010) previously earned the distinction under Calipari. Kentucky's 26 consensus first-team All-America selections is tied with North Carolina for the second most all-time. Kansas leads with 28.

Kentucky in the NCAA Tournament

Kentucky made its nation-leading 55th all-time appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 2016. The Wildcats are 121-49 (.712) all-time in NCAA Tournament games and have advanced to 17 Final Fours.

It was the fourth time in program history the Wildcats were a No. 4 seed, where UK is 7-3 all-time. UK improved to 45-10 in tournament openers with the win over Stony Brook and has won 23 of its last 24 first-round tournament games.

Kentucky is 23-5 (.821) in NCAA Tournament games under the direction of Calipari. Calipari is 48-16 (.750) as a head coach in NCAA Tournament games.

Calipari-coached teams appeared in four of five Final Fours from 2011 to 2015 and were the first such school to achieve that feat since Duke went to five straight (1988-92). Calipari joined Duke's Mike Krzyzewski and UCLA's John Wooden to lead teams to four Final Fours in a five-year span.

Nation's Leaders

UK leads the nation in all-time NCAA Tournament victories with 121. It also leads the country in wins in the tournament since 2010, when John Calipari first led the Wildcats into the Big Dance:

- 23 Kentucky
- 19 Duke
- 16 Kansas, Wisconsin
- 15 Louisville, Michigan State
- 14 Svracuse

Calipari in the NCAA Tournament

Head coach John Calipari coached in his 17th NCAA Tournament in 2016. Kentucky is 23-5 (.821) in tournament games under the direction of Calipari. He is 48-16 (.750) as a head coach in on-court NCAA Tournament games.

Calipari-coached teams appeared in four of five Final Fours from 2011 to 2015 and was the first such school to achieve that feat since Duke went to five straight Final Fours (1988, 89, 90, 91, 92). Calipari led UK to four Final Fours in five years and leads the country with five Final Four appearances since 2008. He has advanced teams to six Final Fours in his on-court career, which is tied for the fifth most by a coach all-time. Only three coaches all-time have appeared in four of five Final Fours (Calipari, Mike Krzyzewski and John Wooden)

Of Calipari's 16 eliminations in the NCAA Tournament, he has only lost twice to double-digit seeds. He's never lost to a team seeded lower than 10th. Including the 2016 tournament, he has not lost to a seed lower than No. 3 in 10 of his last 12 NCAA Tournaments. The two losses were in the 2014 national championship game and against No. 5 Indiana this season.

He's 16-1 all-time in first-round NCAA Tournament games and 12-4 in second-round games.

ULIS SEC PLAYER OF THE YEAR HIGHLIGHTS POSTSEASON AWARDS

In clinching a share of the regular-season Southeastern Conference championship, the Kentucky Wildcats had a number of outstanding individual performances that led to a number of honors for individuals. As the team has benefitted from individuals, so too have the individuals from the team's success.

"Awards season" kicked off after the postseason with Tyler Ulis becoming UK's 21st consensus All-American. Jamal Murray earned several All-America distinctions as well, including third-team All-America by the Associated Press.

The duo dominated the annual Southeastern Conference awards with Ulis winning SEC Player of the Year and SEC Defensive Player of the Year while Murray made the All-SEC First Team and the SEC All-Freshman Team. It's the third time a player has won SEC Player of the Year and the fourth time they've won SEC Defensive Player of the Year in the John Calipari era. It's the second time in league history a player has won both SEC Player of the Year and SEC Defensive Player of the Year in the same season.

Alex Poythress was also named to the College Sports Information Directors of America Academic All-America Second Team, becoming the first Wildcat to achieve the distinction since Mark Pope was selected to the third team in 1995. The CoSIDA Academic All-America teams recognize the nation's top student-athletes for their combined performances athletically and in the classroom.

Ulis New Assist King

Kentucky sophomore point guard Tyler Ulis was already widely regarded among the UK fan base as arguably the best distributor of the basketball in the school's long and storied history. The numbers now confirm it.

Ulis broke John Wall's school record for most assists in a season during the NCAA Tournament game vs. Stony Brook. Wall's 2009-10 record was 241 assists. He did it in 38 games. Ulis finished the year with 246 dimes.

Ulis, the only player with 28 consecutive games with four or more assists since at least 1972-73, is only the third player in school history with 200 or more assists. He ranks 10th on the school's career list for assists with 381 dimes

SEC Champs! SEC Tournament Champs!

Kentucky clinched a share of the regular-season Southeastern Conference championship with a victory over LSU in the regular-season finale and a 13-5 record overall. The Wildcats tied with Texas A&M for the league crown.

It marked UK's league-leading 47th SEC championship, 37 more than anyone else in the league. It was also the fourth time UK has won at least a share of the SEC championship in head coach John Calipari's seven seasons at Kentucky.

For Calipari, it was his 14th league crown, spanning three different conferences.

UK also claimed its 29th SEC Tournament title with an overtime victory over Texas A&M. The rest of the league has a combined 27 SEC Tournament championships. Kentucky has won four league tournament crowns under Calipari.

Labissiere, Murray, Ulis Declare for NBA Draft

Kentucky fans have gotten the answer to the annual question of which Wildcats will declare for the NBA Draft. Three Wildcats have declared for the draft in freshmen Skal Labissiere and Jamal Murray and sophomore Tyler Ulis. Senior Alex Poythress is also eligibile for the draft.

New rules between the NCAA and NBA allow players to "test the waters." Players can declare for the draft and attend the NBA Combine, if invited. Then, so long as they have not hired an agent, they have 10 days to make a decision on whether to return to school based on the feedback they receive. With the NBA Combine set for May 11-15, May 25 is the date by which decisions must be made this season.

Labissiere, Murray and Ulis all intend to remain in this year's draft.

No other decisions have been made by other players, though head coach John Caliapri announced that he has encouraged all of his players to put their names into consideration and test the waters.

Fab-Ulis

John Calipari has called sophomore point guard Tyler Ulis possibly the best floor general he's ever coached. Even amid lofty company (i.e. past Calipari point guards like Derrick Rose, Tyreke Evans, John Wall and Brandon Knight), the numbers back it up.

The Southeastern Conference Player of the Year averaged 17.3 points and an SEC-best 7.0 assists in 2015-16. He finished the season ranked sixth nationally with a 3.6 assist-to-turnover ratio and seventh nationally in assists at 7.0 per game. He dished out 10 or more assists in six of his last 14 games and scored 20 or more points in 14 of his last 25 games.

The Chicago native was the only player in the SEC this season to average at least 17.3 points and 7.0 assists or better. He was one of just four players nationally to achieve that feat (Juan'Ya Green, Hofstra; Kahil Felder, Oakland; Denzel Valentine, Michigan State) and the lone underclassman.

He owns the single-season school record for most 20-point, five-assist games with 14, and according to the SEC Network, his three 20-point, 10-assist games this season are the most of any SEC player in the last 20 seasons.

In league play, Ulis averaged 8.4 assists with a 4.5 assist-to-turnover ratio. He played 672 of a possible 725 minutes in SEC games, committing a turnover every 19.8 minutes per game.

Ulis' value was probably best represented by his performances in Kentucky's biggest games. He averaged a team-best 24.4 points and a team-high 7.6 assists in UK's seven games vs. ranked opponents in either the Associated Press Top 25 or the USA Today Coaches' Poll. He shot 54.2 percent with a 3.8 assist-to-turnover ratio in those games. Those numbers are even more impressive when you consider he played 291 of the possible 295 minutes of those games including the entire 45 minutes of all three overtime contests.

Some of his other notable milestones:

- Ulis moved past John Wall for the most single-season assists in school history. Ulis passed Wall, who had 241 dimes in the 2009-10 season, during the NCAA Tournament game vs. Stony Brook
- He is only the third player in school history with 200 assists in a season
- Ulis is the only player with 28 consecutive games with four or more assists since at least 1972-73. Roger Harden (1985-86) held the record with 17 games
- He's the first UK player since 1972-73 with at least eight assists in six straight games

- He's the first player in school history to post at least 20 points, at least 10 assists and at least six steals in a single game (vs. Ole Miss). It was also the first 20-point, 10-assist game since Wall did it vs. Rider on Nov. 21, 2009
- Ulis is the first UK player with 26 points and eight assists (at Kansas) in a game since Jack Givens against Auburn on Feb. 23, 1976
- His 11-assist game vs. Florida was the first since John Wall dished out 11 vs. East Tennessee State on March 18, 2010
- He's the only Wildcat since 1972-73 with consecutive games of at least 20 points and at least eight assists (vs. Louisville and Ole Miss)
- With a then career-high 23 points at LSU, he became the first UK guard to score at least 20 points in three consecutive games since Jodie Meeks on Feb. 10, 14 and 17, 2009
- He is the first UK player to have at least 20 points and at least six assists (vs. Ole Miss and at LSU) in consecutive SEC games since Ed Davender on Feb. 24 and March 2, 1988
- He was the first Wildcat with at least 15 points and at least five assists in three consecutive games (Duke, Wright State and Boston U.) since Wall in 2009-10
- His nine assists vs. UCLA was the most by a Wildcat in a nonconference road game since Saul Smith dished out 10 vs. Michigan State on Dec. 16, 2000
- He is averaged 7.0 assists. No player in school history has averaged that much in a single season with a minimum of 100 assists
- In only his second season at UK, Ulis became the 16th player in school history with at least 300 assists. At 381 in his career, he moved past Saul Smith for 10th all-time
- He has set a single-season program record with seven games of 10 or more assists in a single season
- His career-high 14 assists vs. LSU in the regular-season finale is a school high vs. an SEC opponent. He is only the fifth player in school history to record 14 assists in a game
- With a 30-point, five-assist effort en route to MVP honors of the SEC Tournament, he became the first UK player with at least 30 points and at least five assists in a game since Tayshaun Prince vs. Iowa on Mar. 17, 2001
- Ulis in UK's three overtime games this season: 26.0 points, 8.0 assists per game, 3.1 assist-to-turnover ratio, 83.3 percent free-throw percentage, played all 135 minutes
- He became one of only three UK players with at least 30 points scored in an SEC Tournament championship game: Alex Groza (1949), Bill Spivey (1950), Tyler Ulis (2016)
- He joined Cliff Hagan (1952) as one of only two players to average at least 24 points per game in a single SEC Tournament

Murray One of Calipari's Best All-Time Scorers

Following the 2015-16 season, it's clear freshman guard Jamal Murray is not only one of the best pure scorers UK has had during the John Calipari era, he's one of the best Calipari has ever coached.

Murray led the Wildcats in scoring at 20.0 points per game which is the highest scoring average at Kentucky in the Calipari era. Brandon Knight, in 2010-11, finished at 17.3 points per game. Against Georgia in the Southeastern Conference Tournament, he passed Knight for the most points by a freshman in school history.

Murray's average was the most for any player under Calipari since Dajuan Wagner averaged 21.2 points during the 2001-02 season at Memphis. Murray got to his average more efficiently than Wagner did, averaging 14.9 shots per game while shooting 45.4 percent. Wagner finished the season averaging 18.0 shots per game while shooting 41.0 percent.

And that only tells just a small part of the story:

SCORING

- With 720 points this season, he scored the most points by a freshman in school history, and ranks eighth in the program's all-time single-season leaders
- His 35 points vs. Florida tied Terrence Jones (Jan. 11, 2011 vs. Auburn) for the school record single-game scoring mark by a freshman. It also tied Jones for the most points in a single game in the Calipari era
- With 35 points vs. Florida, 33 points vs. Ohio State and 33 at Vanderbilt, he is the only player under Calipari with three 30-point games in a season or in a career. He's also the only freshman to ever record three 30-point games in a single season
- His 27 second-half points vs. Ohio State are the most of any Wildcat under Calipari
- His 21 first-half points at Vanderbilt are the most of any Wildcat under Calipari. His 20 points vs. Florida are also the second most of any UK player in the Calipari era in the first half
- He scored in double figures in all but one game this season and 15 or more in 31 of the 36 contests
- He is the first Wildcat to reach double figures in 34 straight games in a single season since Kenny Walker did it in all 36 of his games during the 1985-86 season. Walker's 36 straight is a school record for a single season
- A 21-point scoring effort at Tennessee on Feb. 2, ignited a run of 12 consecutive games where Murray scored 20 or more points before the streak was snapped with a 17-point outing in the SEC Championship game. It was the longest such streak for any UK player since Kevin Grevey topped 20 or more points in 12 straight games in 1974-75. The only other Wildcat to do it in more games is Dan Issel, who did it 18 straight times in 1969-70

- He was the first UK player to score at least 18 points in each of the first seven SEC games of a season since Meeks in 2008-09. He is the first freshman in school history to achieve the feat
- He is the first player in the John Calipari era to score 700 or more points. Only Cotton Nash, who reached 700 points in 30 games in 1961-62, has done it faster at UK
- He owns the program record of 20 point-game efforts by a freshman at 18 games
- He was the third player in school history to score at least 12 points in at least 18 of his first 19 games played at UK. Cotton Nash (1961-62) scored at least 12 points in 35 of his first 36 games played at Kentucky and Bill Spivey (1949-50) scored at least 12 points in 24 of his first 25 games played at UK
- He averaged 26.4 points per game in February, the highest scoring month for a Wildcat since Meeks averaged 28.0 points per game in January 2009
- Murray averaged 22.6 points per game in SEC road contests this season
- According to ESPN, Murray is the nation's leading scorer at 25.8 points per game from Feb. 1 to March 3

3-POINT SHOOTING

- Owns the UK freshman record for most 3-point field goals in a single season with 113, surpassing Knight's previous record of 87. It's also an SEC freshman record
- His 113 made 3-pointers is second on the UK single-season and NCAA record for a freshman for made 3-point field goals list. Davidson's Stephen Curry (2006-07) owns the single-season freshman record with 122 3-pointers, while Meeks owns the UK record with 117
- He made a 3-pointer in all 36 games this season, the only player in program history to hit at least one trey in his first 36 collegiate games
- Having made a 3 in 36 straight, he moved past tied Tony Delk (1993-94 season), who had 32, for the most consecutive games with a made 3-pointer in school history
- His eight 3-pointers vs. Florida tied Eric Bledsoe (March 18, 2010 vs. East Tennessee State) for the most in the Calipari era
- \bullet He's one of only two players (Kyle Wiltjer) with two games of seven or more 3-point field goals in a game under Calipari
- His .800 percentage from behind the arc vs. Florida is the best 3-point percentage in a single game in school history with a minimum of 10 attempts
 Murray is the first freshman in school history to make at least five 3-point field goals in
- consecutive games

 Murray is the fifth player in UK history -- and first since Meeks in 2008-09 -- with six or

Murray-Ulis the Top Scoring Duo in the Country in League Play

Jamal Murray and Tyler Ulis were two of the best scoring guards in the country in 2015-16. Combined in league play, they were the best this season.

In conference-only games, Murray and Ulis averaged 40.8 points per game in conference play, more than any other duo in the major conferences, which includes the Power 5 conferences and the American and the Big East.

Home-Court Advantage

Kentucky ended the 2015-16 season on a 37-game win streak when playing in the friendly confines of Rupp Arena, the second-longest winning streak in the venue's history.

UK's last home loss came on Feb. 27, 2014 in an overtime loss to Arkansas. With an all-time record of 545-64 (.895) in Rupp Arena, Kentucky's current run includes the following streaks:

- Under John Calipari, UK is 119-4 (.967) in Rupp Arena, including 62-1 (.984) against nonconference opponents
- Calipari is tied with Tubby Smith for the second-most victories for any UK head coach in the arena

Wins vs. Losses

In most all of sports it's easy to pinpoint areas of improvement in losses versus a team's wins. The 2015-16 edition of the Kentucky Wildcats is no different. Here's a look at some of the key stats in wins compared with those same stats in losses.

Result	FG%	Opp. FG%	3-Pt. FG%	Opp 3-Pt. FG%	FT%	RPG	APG	TOPG	BPG	SPG	Pts in Pt.	PPG
Wins	.498	.383	.378	.293	.698	39.4	14.8	11.1	6.2	6.0	35.4	82.0
Losses	.423	.439	.335	.416	.663	36.8	12.4	11.3	4.6	5.0	28.7	72.0

- Calipari will open the 2016-17 season needing just three more victories to tie all-time wins leader Joe B. Hall
- Prior to the close victory over Louisville, UK had won 13 straight home games by at least 11 points, the longest such streak since a 27-game stretch from 1995-97
- Mississippi State shot 52.9 percent from the field. Prior to that, UK had held the last 54 home opponents and the last 81 nonconference home opponents to less than 50 percent from the field
- Kentucky has won its last 75 games in Rupp Arena when ranked in the top five of the Associated Press Top 25, dating back to the 2003-04 season
- With a victory over LSU in the regular-season finale, UK captured its 13th undefeated season in Rupp Arena and the fifth in seven seasons under Calipari

Workhorse(s)

Tyler Ulis' value can perhaps best be represented by the number of minutes he played this season. Simply put, the Wildcats needed him on the floor as often as he could play.

The result was Ulis averaged 36.8 minutes per game, most in the Southeastern Conference. He entered the NCAA Tournament ranked 25th nationally in minutes per game. The 36.8 minutes per game were the most at UK since Tom Parker averaged 37.9 minutes during the 1971-72 season. Only Brandon Knight (35.9 mpg) averaged more than 35 minutes in the John Calipari era previously.

Seven times this season Ulis played 40 or more minutes, including all 45 minutes in overtime games at Kansas, at Texas A&M and in the SEC championship game vs. the Aggies.

Freshman Jamal Murray ranked second in the SEC at 35.2 minutes per game. Freshman Isaiah Briscoe was in ninth at 32.2 minutes per contest.

Wall vs. Ulis

John Wall, the former No. 1 overall pick and first point guard during the John Calipari era, put up remarkable numbers in his one season at UK. UK floor general, Tyler Ulis, kept pace with Wall statistically through 36 games this season.

Ulis had 31 games with five or more assists while Wall had 27 through the same point in the season. Ulis protected the ball better than Wall did with just 69 turnovers compared with 141 for Wall. Each player missed one game during the team's 36 contests, although Ulis missed an additional half against South Florida. Also, they are the only two players in the Calipari era to both have a double-double by way of points and rebounds and points and assists in the same season.

Player	PPG (Total)	RPG (T)	APG (T)	TO (T)	A/TO	SPG(T)
Wall	16.8 (589)	4.1 (143)	6.5 (228)	4.0 (141)	1.6	1.7 (60)

Kentucky has the unquestionable reputation as the league's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 956-268 mark (.781) in conference play. Only two other teams have won more than 700 regular-season SEC games (Alabama, Tennessee) and no other team has a better winning percentage.

- UK has averaged 11.5 wins and only 3.2 losses per season in 83 seasons in the SEC
- Kentucky has won 47 SEC titles and 29 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 14 of the last 24 SEC Tournament titles
- has won at least a share of four of the last seven SEC regular-season championships under head coach John Calipari

Ulis Tabbed Bob Cousy Finalist

Sophomore point guard Tyler Ulis is one of five finalists for the 2016 Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year Award by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Named after Hall of Fame guard Bob Cousy, the annual honor recognizes the top point guard in Division I men's basketball.

Ulis' competition includes Yogi Ferrell of Indiana, Monte Morris from Iowa State, Oakland's Kahlil Felder and Kris Dunn of Providence.

A national committee comprised of top college basketball personnel determined the initial watch list of 20 candidates in October, trimmed it down to 10 in February and now named the final five finalists in March. The annual honor, which is now in its 13th season, will be presented to the winner at the ESPN College Basketball Awards Show in Los Angeles on April 8. Ulis will be in attendance.

The winner of the Cousy Award will be determined by a combination of fan votes and input from the Basketball Hall of Fame's selection committee. Fans are encouraged to visit HoophallAwards.com to cast their votes March 11-25.

Ulis is looking to become the first Kentucky guard to win the award.

Ulis Also a Wooden Award Finalist

Tyler Ulis was one of 15 players on the John R. Wooden Award national ballot and became one of the top-five vote getters to become a finalist for the nation's Player of the Year award. The Wooden Award is presented annually by the Los Angeles Athletic Club to the top player in college basketball.

The finalists are candidates for the Wooden All-American Team, out of which the Wooden Award winner will be selected. All 15 players on the ballot have proven to their universities that they are making progress towards graduation and are maintaining at least a cumulative 2.0 grade-point average.

Additionally, Ulis was named a Wooden Award All-American. He is the fifth Wildcat to be named a Wooden Award All-American since the inception of the team in 2007. He joins Willie Cauley-Stein (2015), Anthony Davis (2012), DeMarcus Cousins (2010) and John Wall (2010) as other UK players to earn the distinction.

Ulis, Murray Named USBWA Awards Finalists

The two leaders of arguably the nation's best backcourt, Tyler Ulis and Jamal Murray, were finalists for the U.S. Writers Basketball Association's two major awards, the Oscar Robertson Trophy and the Wayman Tisdale Award.

Ulis was tabbed one of 11 finalists for the Oscar Robertson Trophy, awarded annually to the USBWA's pick for the national player of the year. Murray was one of five finalists for the Wayman Tisdale Award, presented to the nation's freshman of the year.

Both awards will be presented at the College Basketball Awards gala in Oklahoma City on April 11 at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum. Access Sports, a non-profit organization committed to supporting various charitable causes, will serve as host for the gala. Funds from the gala are used to support youth basketball programs in Oklahoma that allow disadvantaged youth the opportunity to participate in leagues and training.

The USBWA, comprised of nearly 1,000 sports journalists covering college basketball for newspapers, magazines and websites, will select the recipients of the awards. This will be the first time the women's college player of the year will be featured at the gala.

No Surrender Here

Surrendering a 21-point lead at Tennessee wasn't just unusual for Kentucky in the John Calipari era, it was downright rare.

UK is 188-3 (.984) in the Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest. Two of those three losses (a 21-point lead at Tennessee and a 12-point lead at Auburn) have come during the 2015-16 campaign. The only other loss in the Cal era came during the 2012-13 season when UK gave up an 11-point first-half lead and lost 59-55 at Alabama. All three losses have come to Southeastern Conference foes on the road.

 $Perhaps \ most impressive \ of \ all \ is \ that \ 72.6 \ percent \ of \ games \ Calipari \ has \ coached \ in \ at \ Kentucky \ have \ produced \ 10-point \ leads$ at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 86.6 percent of Calipari's 217 career wins at Kentucky.

Foul Trouble

A common denominator in Kentucky's losses at Kansas and at Tennessee: foul trouble.

UK committed 33 fouls at Kansas, the most ever in the John Calipari era, and followed that with 26 fouls at Tennessee, which is tied for the ninth most in the Calipari era (the eighth most, 27 fouls, just recently happened at Florida). In both the Kansas and Tennessee games, the two teams made 30 free throws apiece, the highest marks of the season. Furthermore, four players fouled out at Kansas, the first time that's happened since Dec. 4, 2010 at North Carolina, and another two were disqualified from the Tennessee game with five fouls apiece.

The glaring foul problems shed light on a problem UK had for much of the season of letting the other team be the aggressor. Kentucky (737) committed more fouls than its opponents (713) and committed 51 more of them in Southeastern Conference

The result: UK's opponents shot more free throws (849) than Kentucky (813) and shot 89 more free throws in conference play. The last time the Wildcats ended a season with fewer free-throw attempts than its opponents was 2007-08.

- UK averaged 20.5 fouls per game, which was the highest average since the 1994-95 team committed 22.2 fouls per game
- UK attempted fewer free throws than its opponent in 17 of the last 20 games
- Kentucky's opponents scored 24.3 percent of their points against UK at the foul line. That's the 22nd most in the country. The Wildcats scored 19.6 percent of their points at the charity stripe, which was 223rd nationally
- In SEC play, Kentucky's opponents scored 26.9 percent of their points against the Wildcats at the foul line, the highest rate in the league. On the flipside, UK scored just 18.2 percent of its points at the line, the second-lowest mark in the conference

Whatcha Talkin Bout, Willis?

Kentucky received a spark from junior Derek Willis in the second half of the season thanks in large part to a postgame speech at Auburn. That's when John Calipari asked the team, "Do we need to make some changes?" One of those changes was Willis, who had just posted a career outing during the loss to the Tigers. Willis registered his first career double-double with 12 points and a team-high 12 rebounds.

Following that game, Willis was inserted into the starting lineup. Over the next 11 games, which included the Auburn performance, Willis averaged 11.2 points and a team-high 6.6 rebounds per game, including a career-high 25-point outing with a career-high seven 3-pointers vs. Tennessee. He led the Cats in rebounding in six of those 11 games.

Willis helped stretch the floor for guards Tyler Ulis, Isaiah Briscoe and Jamal Murray to convernt drives off of pick-and-rolls. All the while, Willis was reliable from the permiter with 28 made 3-pointers during the stretch. Another way of looking at Willis' production: He scored 123 points in those 11 games played; he had scored 122 in his first 48 games played at Kentucky

Willis returned to the lineup in the regular-season finale vs. LSU after missing the previous three games with a right ankle injury. He looked like his pre-injury form in the postseason. He averaged 7.4 points, 4.2 rebounds, 1.6 blocks and 1.6 made 3-pointers per game during the stretch.

Bow and Arrow: Cats on Target from Behind the Arc

There was a point in the season when it seemed like Kentucky's ineffectiveness behind the 3-point line would be the Wildcats' downfall. In the end, it became a strength.

With 10 3-pointers at Texas A&M, the Wildcats made at least 10 3-point field goals in five straight games, a new school record. And it's not as if UK was hoisting a ton of shots to make that many treys. As a matter of fact, during the five-game stretch, UK shot 44.0 percent or better from 3.

At one point this season, the Wildcats were in the bottom third nationally in both 3-point field goal percentage and 3-point field goals made per game. In league play, the Wildcats finished second in the Southeastern Conference in 3-point field goal percentage (.392) while making 7.4 3-point field goals a game against SEC foes.

Freshman guard Jamal Murray topped Brandon Knight's single-season freshman record for 3-point field goals in a season and led the way for the Wildcats from deep, averaging an SEC-best 3.3 3-point field goals during the regular season. Junior forward Derek Willis hit a conference-best 50.0 percent of his attempts from behind the arc in league play.

In the SEC Tournament, the Wildcats combined for 32 3-pointers on a 47.8-percent clip. The Wildcats made a season-best 13 3-pointers in the quarterfinals matchup vs. Alabama.

Briscoe is Ulis' Bledsoe

In keeping with comparisons, through 36 games it was statstically eerie at the similarities Isaiah Briscoe was for Tyler Ulis, as Eric Bledsoe was for John Wall in 2009-10.

Bledsoe was a heralded point guard, just as Briscoe entered the 2015-16 season as the No. 1 point guard in most recruiting services. Both players began their careers with a magnificant opening game. Bledsoe had 24 points, seven rebounds and four assists in his debut. Briscoe posted 11 points, 12 rebounds and a pair of assists.

Through 36 games in the season, Briscoe notched double-figure scoring in 19 games while Bledsoe also had recorded 19 double-digit games. Briscoe garnered 20 games with three or more assists, while Bledsoe had notched it in 19 such contests. Briscoe was more aggressive on the boards, averaging 5.3 per game, while Bledsoe held the better shooting numbers at 46.6 percent. It is important to note that Briscoe only played in 34 of UK's 36 games, while Bledsoe appeared in 35 of the 36.

Player	PPG (Total)	RPG (T)	APG (T)	TO (T)	A/TO	SPG(T)
Bledsoe	11.4 (400)	3.0 (106)	2.9 (102)	3.1 (110)	0.9	1.5 (51)
Briscoe	9.6 (326)	5.3 (181)	3.1 (107)	1.9 (66)	1.6	1.0 (35)

Poythress Returned to Form

Senior Alex Poythress returned to the elite athlete in 2015-16 that John Calipari expected him to be after returning from a torn ACL in December of 2014.

Poythress posted double-doubles in back-to-back games vs. Wright State and Boston University (the third and fourth of his career), the first Kentucky senior to post consecutive double-doubles since Josh Harrellson in 2010-11.

He then broke out for a 21-point, 13-rebound effort in leading UK past Eastern Kentucky. The 21 points were the most since his career-high of 22 set during his freshman season, and the 13 rebounds marked a new career-best mark. It was the first 20-point, 10-rebound game of his career, and the 21 points were the most for a UK senior since his former teammate Julius Mays scored 24 points against Missouri in the 2012-13 season.

The senior forward became the 52nd player in program history with 500 career boards after the vicory over Ole Miss. He's the third player in the Calipari era (Terrence Jones and Willie Cauley-Stein) to achieve the feat.

He enjoyed the best offensive performance of his career with a 25-point outing in a bounce-back win for the Wildcats at Alabama on Jan. 9. Poythress was 8 of 10 (.800) from the field and 9 of 11 (.818) from the charity stripe.

Poythress reached 900 career points on Senior Day, becoming just the 12th player in school history with 900 points, 500 rebounds and 70 blocks in a career.

After an injury to his other knee late in the season, Poythress scored in double digits in seven of the last nine games. He finished his career 36 points shy of becoming the school's 61st 1,000-point scorer.

Kentucky Elite Under Cal

Since John Calipari took over the program in 2009-10, no one in the country has had more wins than Kentucky, and only Kansas has a better winning percentage. UK is 217-47 (.825) during that time span.

1. Kansas: 216-43 (.8340)

2. Kentucky: 217-47 (.8220) 3. Gonzaga: 202-45 (.8178)

4. Duke: 210-47 (.8171)

5. Wichita State: 202-48 (.8080)

Calipari Reaches 200 UK Wins in Record Time

With a thrilling 75-73 victory over rival Louisville, John Calipari captured his 200th career win at Kentucky faster than any coach in UK history -- and nearly faster than anyone has ever done it at any other school.

Calipari reached the 200-win plateau in his 240th career game at Kentucky. Rick Pitino, previously the fastest to 200 wins at UK prior to Calipari, didn't capture his 200th Wildcat win until his 249th game. The legendary Adolph Rupp reached 200 during his 250th game.

Not only did Calipari reach the 200-win mark in record pace at Kentucky, he also nearly set the all-time Division I mark. With the win over U of L, he became the second-fastest Division I men's basketball coach to reach 200 victories at a single school, behind only LIU-Brooklyn's Clair Bee, who achieved the feat in 231 games.

Calipari is one of just 11 head coaches in Division I men's basketball history with at least 200 victories at two different schools and just the fifth coach at Kentucky to reach the 200-win plateau.

He's currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

Bounce Back

The Wildcats don't lose very often during the John Calipari era, but when they do, they almost always bounce back.

UK is 34-7 under Calipari following a loss. Kentucky's back-to-back losses at Kansas and at Tennessee were its first conescutive losses since since losing a pair to Arkansas and South Carolina on Feb. 27, 2014 and March 1, 2014, respectively.

The Wildcats have only lost back-to-back games seven times during the Calipari era and they've never lost three in a row with Calipari on the sidelines. The last time UK lost three games in a row was in February 2009 when the Wildcats dropped four straight games to end the regular season.

Next Man Up

When starting freshman guard Isaiah Briscoe turned his ankle in warmups prior to the Louisville game, all it meant was an opportunity for another player. That man vs. the Cardinals was junior guard Dominique Hawkins.

The Kentucky native cemented his legacy in the rivalry's storied history with the best game of his career. Hawkins posted career highs in points (13), 3-pointers made (three) and minutes (26) to lead the Wildcats over the Cardinals.

But Hawkins is far from the only Wildcat who has embraced the "next man up" mentality and stepped up for the Wildcats this season. Isaac Humphries filled in admirably with four points and a career-high six rebounds in the win over Florida when Alex Poythress was ruled out of the game with a right knee injury just minutes before tip. He did the same at Texas A&M when Derek Willis went down with a right ankle injury.

In 22 of UK's 36 games, a scholarship player either did not play or left the game with an injury or illness. Kentucky played with its full roster in just eight games after Jan. 1, but had its full roster during the postseason. It didn't slow the Wildcats down too much -- as evidenced by Kentucky's 27-9 record and regular-season and conference tournament Southeastern Conference championhips.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 44-17 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under John Calipari, UK is 173-30 vs. unranked competition, an .852 winning percentage.

The Wildcats' loss to UCLA was its first loss to an unranked opponent since March 1, 2014.

Poythress Named Candidate for Senior CLASS Award

Senior Alex Poythress was named one of 30 candidates for the prestigious Senior CLASS Award. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Senior CLASS award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make positive impact as leaders in their communities.

Poythress was the first Wildcat to earn recognition for the award since Darius Miller in 2012. He was also the only player from the Southeastern Conference among the 30 candidates.

Since his arrival on campus, Poythress has been a steady presence within the community. He's contributed to various activities such as the God's Pantry Food Drive and Samaritan's Feet. He is often a volunteer for stops at local children's hospitals as well as appearances at local elementary schools. Poythress has played kickball with elementary students, read to them at various times and has even made guest appearances at camps in his hometown.

Along with his teammates, he has been involved in a Hurricane Sandy telethon, a clothing drive for the needy, various meet-and-greets during the holidays, as well as a presence at the annual pizza delivery during Big Blue Madness campouts. Furthermore, Poythress is a mainstay within the UK Basketball camps throughout the summer serving as a camp counselor for kids of all ages as well as for the John Calipari Fantasy Camp.

Poythress graduated in just three years with a degree in business marketing. He earned a 3.517 undergraduate GPA and is now pursuing a master's of science in kinesiology and health promotion with an emphasis on sport leadership. He finished his first semester of grad school with a 4.0 GPA.

Still Big, Still Dominant on the Glass

Though Kentucky wasn't quite as big and as long as it was last season, the Wildcats were still one of the tallest teams in the country and one of the best on the boards. The Wildcats ranked first in the Southeastern Conference in rebounds allowed per game (33.6) and second in rebound margin (plus-5.2) and offensive rebound percentage (.375).

Against NJIT, Kentucky grabbed 31 more rebounds than the Highlanders, the best mark of the John Calipari era. The 54 total rebounds ranked as the fourth most of the Coach Cal era, and the 22 offensive rebounds tied for the fourth most in Calipari's seven seasons.

The battle of the boards has proven to be an important factor for the Wildcats, as were 19-3 when they outrebound their opponent.

Consistently Good

When you're everyone's Super Bowl, it's hard to stay at the top, but the Wildcats are doing exactly that under John Calipari. Before falling out of the top five on Dec. 21, UK had been ranked in the top five of the Associated Press Top 25 for 24 consecutive weeks, the longest such streak since going 30 straight weeks in the top five from 1953-55.

Three is Better Than Two

UK passed UNLV for the nation's longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer in its final game of 2015-16, knocking down at least one from long range in 975 consecutive games. U

NLV will enter the 2016-17 season with 974 made 3-pointers. The Cats' last game without a made 3-pointer came against Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1988 a "three-point" loss in the Great Alaska Shootout.

Lee Makes SEC Community Service Team

Junior Marcus Lee was tabbed to the Allstate Good Works Team by the National Association of Basketball Coaches and also the Southestern Conference Community Service Team. It's the second straight season he made the SEC Community Service Team.

From Wildcats to NBA All-Stars

Further proving the notion that the Kentucky men's basketball program helps prepare its players for the NBA better than any other school, three former Wildcats – DeMarcus Cousins,

Anthony Davis, and John Wall – were selected for the 2016 NBA All-Star Game as reserves. No college had more than two representatives in the NBA All-Star Game.

Davis led the West All-Stars to a 196-173 win with 24 points on 12-of-13 shooting and six rebounds. Wall added 22 points on 10-of-14 shooting with three assiss, while Cousins posted 11 points on a perfect 5-of-5 night from the floor.

It was the third All-Star appearances for Davis and Wall, while Cousins will made his second straight appearance.

Rookie Karl-Anthony Towns won the Skills Challenge in thrilling fashion, defeating fellow Wildcats Davis and Cousins. Towns became the first frontcourt player to win the challenge. Meanwhile Devin Booker finished in third place in the Three-Point Contest behind arguably the NBA's two best 3-point shooters in Steph Curry and Klav Thompson.

Booker was one of the stars of the Rising Stars Challenge, which pits 10 of the best first- and second-year NBA players from the United States against 10 first- and second-year NBA players from around the world. Booker scored 23 points behind five 3-pointers. Towns posted 18 points, seven rebounds and four assists, and Trey Lyles added two points and two rebounds. Nerlens Noel was chosen for the game but could not play due to injury.

Wynyard Joins Wildcats

With the 2015 fall semester complete, 2016 fall signee Tai Wynyard enrolled at Kentucky a semester early and joined the Wildcats. He was eligible for UK's game against Ohio State, but did not appear in any games. He is eligible for a redshirt season which will be determined at a later date.

Wynard, a 6-foot-10, 255-pound forward, graduated from his hometown school in Auckland, New Zealand. He was the youngest player to make the New Zealand National Team when he made the club at 16 years old.

The burly forward was named the most valuable player of the FIBA 3-on-3 World Championships after leading New Zealand to the gold medal. He was also a part of the World Select Team that edged the USA Junior National Select Team at the 2015 Nike Hoop Summit.

It has not been decided if Wynard will redshirt for th spring semester or if he will suit up for the Wildcats this season.

National Attention

Kentucky basketball always garners the eyes of the country as UK routinely draws some of the highest national rating numbers on TV for college basketball games. Of course, this season was no different.

UK's game against Duke in the Champions Classic was WatchESPN's most-watched college basketball game ever. Additionally, the game averaged 3,120,000 viewers, the second-most watched Champions Classic game during the event's history. The Wildcats' game vs. Kansas on Jan. 30 was the largest in the history of the Big/SEC 12 Challenge. The game drew 2,984,000 total viewers.

Five Double-Doubles

Five different Wildcats tallied a double-double this season. It was the first time five different players logged a double-double in the same season since since 2000-01, when Keith Bogans, Marquis Estill, Gerald Fitch, Jason Parker and Tayshaun Prince turned the trick.

Guards Isaiah Briscoe and Tyler Ulis both earned double-doubles via points and rebounds. Ulis also notched double-doubles with points and assists. He was the first player since John Wall to have two variations of a double-double in the same season.

Marcus Lee and Derek Willis both logged their first career double-doubles this season, while Alex Poythress notched four during his senior season after entering the year with two career double-doubles.

Forever Young

Kentucky began the 2015-16 season with two veterans in the starting lineup in junior Marcus Lee and sophomore Tyler Ulis. However, Kentucky once again checked in as one of the youngest teams in terms of experience, according to kenpom.com. UK ranked No. 339 out of 351 in terms of experience per minute and the fourth youngest among Power Five schools.

From the Hunted to the Hunter

As the winningest program in Division I college basketball and eight-time national champions, Kentucky is used to having a target on its back. However, the Wildcats are pretty good at playing the role of the hunter as well.

UK's victory over Duke marked the 11th NCAA defending national champion the Wildcats

Wildcats Faced Tough Nonconference Slate

UK's 14-game nonconference schedule featured 10 games against teams who advanced to the postseason in 2014-15. That list included national champion Duke in the third game of the season at the Champions Classic in the United Center in Chicago, which UK won.

In addition to Duke and Kansas, the Wildcats took on powerhouses such as UCLA, Ohio State and the annual rivalry game with Louisville. The Wildcats finished the season with the seventh-toughest nonconfernece schedule in the country.

Kentucky Signs Super Six in 2016 Class

The Kentucky men's basketball program has put together one of the strongest recruiting classes of all time, signing six of the nation's top players during the early fall signing period. Highly rated prospects Edrice "Bam" Adebayo, De'Aaron Fox, Wenyen Gabriel, Sacha Killeya-Jones, Malik Monk and Tai Wynyard have all signed with UK.

All six players are consensus four- or five-star prospects, and four are ranked in the top 10 by the major national recruiting services. In a class stocked full of highly regarded players, national analysts are already calling this the nation's top signing haul for 2016.

In every season in the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed either the nation's No. 1 or No. 2 recruiting class. UK looks to continue that streak with the latest additions of Adebayo, Fox, Gabriel, Killeya-Jones, Monk and Wynyard.

Adebayo, Fox and Monk have all been selected to the McDonald's All-America and Jordan Brand Classic Games. Killeya-Jones will join the trio at the McDonald's All-America game.

- Edrice "Bam" Adebayo, F, 6-9, 230 ranked as high as No. 6 overall by Rivals and ESPN
- De'Aaron Fox, G, 6-3, 170 ranked as high as No. 2 overall by 247Sports
- Wenyen Gabriel, F, 6-9, 200 ranked as high as No. 10 overall by Scout
- Sacha Killeya-Jones, F, 6-10, 207 ranked as high as No. 16 by 247Sports
- Malik Monk, G, 6-3, 185 ranked as high as No. 5 overall by 247Sports and ESPN
- Tai Wynyard, F, 6-9, 230

Decorated Kentucky Signees

Kentucky's 2016 signees are more than living up to their national rankings as their 2016 high school seasons come to a close. Among the awards and honors the class has already collected:

• Edrice "Bam" Adebayo - McDonald's All-American Games Morgan Wooten Player of the Year finalist, Naismith All-America Second Team, North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year

- De'Aaron Fox Naismith High School Player of the Year finalist, Naismith All-America First Team, Texas Gatorade Player of the Year
- Wenven Gabriel Naismith All-America Third Team
- Malik Monk McDonald's All-American Games Morgan Wooten Player of the Year finalist,
 Naismith All-America Second Team, Arkansas Gatorade Player of the Year

Future Wildcats Shine at McDonald's Game

Kentucky's top-ranked recruiting class was well represented during the 2016 McDonald's All-American Game in March as Edrice "Bam" Adebayo, De'Aaron Fox, Sacha Killeya-Jones and Malik Monk all suited up for the game.

Adebayo, Fox and Killeya-Jones will suited up for the East team and fell to Fox's West team by a 114-107 score.

Adebayo was the only player in the game to earn a double-double with 16 points and 12 rebounds. He added two steals, a block and an assist. Fox dished out seven assists, while Killeya-Jones showed a flare for doing a little bit of everything with a stat line of six points, two rebounds, two steals and an assist. Monk contributed 11 points, several coming by alley-oop style, and four assists to the West's winning cause. Fox also won the 3-point contest and finish second in the slam dunk competition.

With Adebayo, Fox, Killeya-Jones and Monk's appearance in the game, UK has signed 25 players during the John Calipari era who have been named to the prestigious high school event, more than any other school in the country during that time period. Four players or more from all but two signing classes have been tabbed McDonald's All-Americans during the Calipari era, including six in the 2013 class.

Kentucky has signed 57 McDonald's All-Americans since the team began in 1977.

Also, Adebayo, Fox and Monk were selected for the Jordan Brand Classic, which will be held April 15 at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. A total of 29 UK signees have been chosen for the Jordan Brand Classic during the Calipari era.

Four More Future Wildcats to Appear in Jordan Brand Classic

Edrice "Bam" Adebayo, De'Aaron Fox, Wenyen Gabriel and Malik Monk will suit up at the Jordan Brand Classic game to add to their postseason all-star game appearances. The game, featuring the top players from across the country, will be the nightcap of four games on April 15. The day will also feature an international game, the girls national game and a regional game featuring players form the New York City area.

Gabriel will play alongside Monk on the West Team. Fox and Adebayo will be on the East Team. Since John Calipari's arrival, 30 total players have been selected to the Jordan Brand Classic.

Another Historic NBA Draft for UK

A record six Wildcats were selected in the 2015 NBA Draft in June, tying Kentucky's NBA record set in 2012. Also tying an NBA record, four Wildcats were selected in the NBA lottery (the opening 14 picks). Karl-Anthony Towns was selected No. 1 overall, the program's third No. 1 overall selection since 2010.

John Calipari has had 25 players selected in the NBA Draft since becoming UK's head coach. Nineteen players have gone in the first round, and he's had three players taken No. 1 overall.

Calipari has had two or more players selected in the NBA Draft in eight consecutive seasons dating back to his time as the head coach at Memphis. He has had at least one player selected in the top 10 of the draft in each of the last eight seasons. No other school has even a first rounder in eight straight seasons.

Though Aaron Harrison went undrafted, he was signed by the Charlotte Hornets in the summer and made the Hornets' opening-day roster.

- 1st Karl-Anthony Towns (Minnesota Timberwolves)
- 6th Willie Cauley-Stein (Sacramento Kings)
- 12th Trey Lyles (Utah Jazz)
- 13th Devin Booker (Phoenix Suns)
- 44th Andrew Harrison (Memphis Grizzlies)
- 48th Dakari Johnson (Oklahoma City Thunder)

Three Former Cats Among Finalists for 2016 U.S. Olympic Team

Former Kentucky men's basketball stars DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis and John Wall were named finalists for the 2016 U.S. Olympic Men's Basketball Team by USA Basketball. The trio, all of whom played under current UK head coach John Calipari, are among 30 players vying for a spot on the final 12-man roster that will compete in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil in August, though Davis recently had to pull his name out after undergoing shoulder surgery.

Conley Named 2016 SEC Legend

Larry Conley was honored at the Southeastern Conference Tournament in Nashville as a member of the 2016 Legends during halftime of UK's win over Alabama.

Conley was a key member of the 1965-66 "Rupp's Runts," one of the most beloved teams in Kentucky basketball history, Larry Conley helped lead the Wildcats to a 1966 national runner-up finish, a 27-2 record and an SEC championship. On a starting five that featured no player taller than 6-foot-5, Conley dished out a team-best 100 assists while averaging 11.5 points per game. Conley was named to the All-SEC First Team by the league's coaches in 1966 for his efforts and the All-SEC Third Team by the Associated Press.

Conley was also an All-SEC Third Team selection in 1964 and 1965, a two-time Academic All-SEC selection, and an Academic All-American during the 1963-64 season. A member of the University of Kentucky Athletics Hall of Fame, Conley went on to play a season in the American Basketball Association for the Kentucky Colonels before diving into a longtime and ongoing broadcasting career. He's called games for ESPN, NBC, CBS, ABC, Fox Sports and Raycom Sports.

Kentucky's NBA Footprint Continues to Grow

The nation's most prolific NBA player-producing program once again led the country with 21 players on an opening-day NBA roster. Of the 446 players in the NBA to start the 2015-16 season, approximately 4.7 percent played college basketball at Kentucky. The Wildcats bettered any other college program by two players as the NBA season opened.

Kentucky's NBA dominance was best represented in Phoenix and Sacramento, where a combined seven Wildcats started the 2015-16 season on the respective rosters. Eric Bledsoe, Devin Booker, Archie Goodwin and Brandon Knight were all part of the Phoenix Suns' opening-day roster, while former UK stars Willie Cauley-Stein, DeMarcus Cousins and Rajon Rondo started the year in Sacramento.

Two other franchises – the Charlotte Hornets (Aaron Harrison, Michael Kidd-Gilchrist) and the Minnesota Timberwolves (Tayshaun Prince, Karl-Anthony Towns) – opened the season with two Wildcats apiece.

Success Rate Continues at 2015 Graduation

Four Wildcats -- Alex Poythress, Tod Lanter, Brian Long and Sam Malone -- all received their undergraduate degrees during the university's May 2015 commencement ceremonies, continuing the remarkable Success Rate under Calipari.

All 14 players who have been eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years in the Calipari era have received their degrees, including three players (Poythress, Patrick Patterson and Jarrod Polson) who completed their undergraduate degrees in three years.

Additionally, the team received an academic award in May for its Academic Progress Rate score. The Wildcats placed in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball schools. The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship.

Calipari, Dampier Enshrined in Naismith HOF

Kentucky Wildcats John Calipari and Louie Dampier were enshrined in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in September. The fraternity of basketball legends is considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport.

Calipari and Dampier were two of 11 basketball legends in the Class of 2015 and the ninth and 10th UK representatives, respectively, to join basketball's fraternity of legends.

A Winning Institution

Both the UK men's and women's basketball teams posted a seventh straight 20-win season in 2015-16. Kentucky is one of just three institutions (UK, BYU and Duke) in the NCAA that have seen both their men's and women's basketball programs tally 20 or more wins in seven consecutive seasons. UK's men's team had 27 total wins, while the women won 25.

Cats Rock at Rupp

UK has won 202 of its last 229 home games, including a 54-game winning streak in the venerable arena to begin the John Calipari era. All-time, the Wildcats are 546-64 (.895) in Rupp Arena.

Among the most notable marks of dominance in the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- The Wildcats are 293-40 (.880) in regular-season SEC games in the building
- Kentucky set a new program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- UK is currently on a 37-game winning streak at Rupp Arena, dating back to 2013-14
- The Wildcats have gone undefeated at home in five of John Calipari's seven seasons, including the last two
- Overall, UK has posted a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 40 seasons

Calipari Owns Record in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career winning streak. He currently also owns the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats have won 37 straight dating back to the 2013-14 season.

Pack the House

Kentucky has led the nation in average home attendance in 17 of the last 20 seasons, including a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

- Kentucky averaged 23,362 fans during the 2015-16 season
- UK has averaged 23,000 or more fans in six of Calipari's seven seasons

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just twice at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just once in Rupp Arena. Both losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 51-1 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The lone loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat the Wildcats at Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 119-4 (.967) at Rupp Arena under Calipari.

- UK is 16-1 vs. ranked opponents in Rupp in the Calipari era
- The Wildcats are 103-3 (.972) vs. unranked teams in Rupp under Calipari
- UK is 62-1 (.984) at home vs. nonconference foes under Calipari. The only loss was against Baylor on Dec. 1, 2012
- Calipari notched his 100th career win at Rupp Arena as UK's coach with the Wildcats' 110-75 rout of Auburn on Feb. 21, 2014. It took Calipari just 104 games to reach the century mark at home, the fastest of any UK coach
- With 119 wins in Rupp Arena, Calipari trails only Joe B. Hall for most victories in the arena. Hall won 122 games

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport.

Calipari and the Class of 2015, which included Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White, were enshrined during Hall of Fame festivities in Springfield, Mass., Sept. 10-11.

Calipari in the NCAA Tournament

Head coach John Calipari coached in his 17th NCAA Tournament in 2016. Kentucky is 23-5 (.821) in tournament games under the direction of Calipari. He is 48-16 (.750) as a head coach in on-court NCAA Tournament games.

Calipari-coached teams appeared in four of five Final Fours from 2011 to 2015 and was the first such school to achieve that feat since Duke went to five straight Final Fours (1988, 89, 90, 91, 92). Calipari led UK to four Final Fours in five years and leads the country with five Final Four appearances since 2008. He has advanced teams to six Final Fours in his on-court career, which is tied for the fifth most by a coach all-time. Only three coaches all-time have appeared in four of five Final Fours (Calipari, Mike Krzyzewski and John Wooden).

Of Calipari's 16 eliminations in the NCAA Tournament, he has only lost twice to double-digit seeds. He's never lost to a team seeded lower than 10th. Including the 2016 tournament, he has not lost to a seed lower than No. 3 in 10 of his last 12 NCAA Tournaments. The two losses were in the 2014 national championship game and against No. 5 Indiana this season.

He's 16-1 all-time in first-round NCAA Tournament games and 12-4 in second-round games.

Calipari Wins 200th Career Game at UK in Record Time

With a thrilling 75-73 victory over rival Louisville, John Calipari captured his 200th career win at Kentucky faster than any coach in UK history -- and nearly faster than anyone has ever done it at any other school.

Calipari reached the 200-win plateau in his 240th career game at Kentucky. Rick Pitino, previously the fastest to 200 wins at UK prior to Calipari, didn't capture his 200th Wildcat win until his 249th game. The legendary Adolph Rupp reached 200 during his 250th game.

Not only did Calipari reach the 200-win mark in record pace at Kentucky, he also nearly set the all-time Dvision I mark. With the win over U of L, he became the second-fastest Division I men's basketball coach to reach 200 victories at a single school, behind only LIU-Brooklyn's Clair Bee, who achieved the feat in 231 games.

Calipari is one of just 11 head coaches in Division I men's basketball history with at least 200 victories at two different schools and just the fifth coach at Kentucky to reach the 200-win plateau.

He's currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

Here's a look at some of the more impressive numbers in Calipari's journey to 200 wins:

- UK beat Florida more than anyone else during the first 200 wins, defeating the Gators 11 times
- Likewise, Kentucky beat Louisville (eight times) more than any other nonconference opponent
- Calipari defeated 89 different Division I schools (25.4 percent) of current Division I schools) during the run
- ullet A total of 176 wins came with UK ranked in the AP Top 25, and 66 of them were while UK was No. 1

UMass Raises Banner in Calipari's Honor

As part of a 20th anniversary celebration of the UMass men's basketball 1995-96 Final Four team, the UMass Department of Athletics honored John Calipari on Dec. 16 prior to its game against New Orleans by raising a banner into the rafters at the Mullins Center.

Calipari's banner joined the retired jerseys of five all-time Minutemen: George "Trigger" Burkey, Marcus Camby, Julius "Dr. J" Erving, Lou Roe and Al Skinner.

- Calipari began his head coaching career at UMass where he turned the Minutemen into a national powerhouse from 1988-96
- In addition to the 1995-96's team's 35-2 record and the Final Four appearance, Calipari led the Minutemen to the 1991-92 NCAA Sweet 16, the 1992-93 and 1993-94 NCAA second round, and the 1994-95 NCAA Elite Eight. UMass won five straight Atlantic 10 titles during that span as well

AHEAD OF THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

- Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to five NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure.
- John Calipari is ahead of the pace with the legend as far as victories to begin his career at UK. Also, Calipari (.822) is tied with Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

Calipari Named CBS Coach of the Year

After leading the Wildcats to at least a share of their fourth Southeastern Conference regular-season title in seven seasons at Kentucky, head coach John Calipari was named the SEC Coach of the Year by CBS Sports.

Tasked with replacing seven players who went to the NBA, Calipari once again worked his magic during the 2015-16 season, guiding UK to a 23-8 record in the regular season with marquee wins over defending national champion Duke, Louisville and South Carolina.

Calipari has been named a conference coach of the year nine times by either the league office or the Associated Press, most recently winning both in 2015.

Big-Game Cal

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky have a 44-17 record vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams, UK is 5-2 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five under Calipari.

All-time, Calipari is 11-6 in AP top-five matchups. According to the SEC Network, only four coaches have won more such games.

When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 67-42, including a 37-14 mark at Kentucky. In AP top-10 matchups he's got a 22-11 mark, including 11-4 at UK.

Nearly Unanimous

John Calipari collected nearly every major national coach of the year award after guiding the historic 2014-15 Wildcats to a perfect regular season and eventually a fourth Final Four appearance in five seasons. Among the awards Calipari won in 2014-15:

- Associated Press National Coach of the Year
- Naismith National Coach of the Year
- NABC National Coach of the Year
- The Sporting News National Coach of the Year
- Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year
- · SEC Coach of the Year
- 2015 USBWA District IV Coach of the Year

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking. With UK's No. 1 ranking this season, Calipari has guided five of his last seven and six of his last nine teams to the No. 1 ranking (and the eighth time he's done it overall).

When Coach Cal's teams have been at the top, they're been difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 107-11 (.907) as the top-ranked Associated Press coach in the country
- He's 66-6 (.917) when his team is at the top of the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass when the Minutemen were No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis when he had the Tigers at the pinnacle of the rankings
- Calipari (107) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (189) in active coaches with victories as the No. 1 head coach

There's No Place Like Home

Since the 2000 season, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 272-22 (.925) record at home through March 5. At UK, Coach Cal is 119-4 (.967) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's seven full seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opening in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games.

Life on the Road Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're nearly as good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 80-34 (.702) record on the road.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 14 league championships (including the 2010, 2012, 2015 and 2016 SEC championships) seven more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Ben Howland has seven conference titles). With a 2016 SEC Tournament championship, Calipari now owns 13 conference tournament titles, eight more than his closest competitor (Howland).

He's tallied a 303-91 (.769) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 96-24 (.800) record since joining the SEC.

Calipari's Undefeated Conference Teams

John Calipari is believed to be one of three coaches, along with Frank McGuire and Jerry Tarkanian, to lead multiple teams to an unblemished mark in multiple Division I conferences. Calipari did so at Memphis in Conference USA and Kentucky in the SEC.

- McGuire led St. John's in the Metro New York ('51, '52), North Carolina in the ACC ('57) and South Carolina in the ACC ('70) to undefeated marks
- Jerry Tarkanian guided Long Beach State in the Pacific Coast Athletics Association ('70, '71) and UNLV in the Big West ('87, '91, '92) to perfect conference seasons

600 On-Court Victories

With a win over No. 5 Kansas on Nov. 18, 2014, John Calipari claimed his 600th on-court victory as a Division I head coach. He became the 13th active Division I coach to achieve the feat.

30 is the new 20

With a home win vs. Tennessee on Feb. 18, John Calipari notched his 22nd consecutive season of 20 or more on-court wins as a collegiate head coach. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (20), Bill Self (18) and Jim Boeheim (17).

More impressive, Calipari has nine seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Mike Krzyzewski (13) and Roy Williams (10) have more.

Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 straight in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100 percent of the players (14 of 14) who have been eligiblie to receive their dipoma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's APR, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, UK has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 979 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in the last two reports. Kentucky's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May, was a 995, earning the team an NCAA academic award for finishing in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball programs.

Under Calipari, the team (scholarship competing players) has also posted a 3.0 grade-point average or better in five of the last seven semesters.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

Kentucky's 38-game winning streak in 2014-15 was historic, but it wasn't completely out of the norm for John Calipari. It was the 17th streak of Calipari's career where his teams have won 10 or more consecutive games during the season, the sixth where they have won 20 or more, the fifth where they have won 25 or more, the first where they have won 30 or more, and the first with 35 or more. Here's a list of all of them:

- 1. 38 Kentucky, 2014-15
- 2. 27 Memphis, 2008-09
- 3. 26 Memphis, 2007-08
 - 26 UMass, 1995-96
- 5. 25 Memphis, 2006-07

CALIPARI KNOWS DEFENSE

John Calipari's 2014-15 Kentucky Wildcat team was heralded as one of the best defensive teams ever. However, defense has always been a staple of Calipari-coached teams. Dating back to complete NCAA records beginning in 2001-02, Calipari's teams have been among national leaders in several critical defensive categories. (rankings through April 5)

RECRUITING TRAIL

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players over the past seven seasons than any other school under John Calipari's leadership. A quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects nationally over the past eight classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level.

Of the 23 top-25 players Kentucky has signed prior to this season (according to Rivals), 19 were drafted and 16 were selected in the first round. Those draft numbers don't include Marcus Lee, Alex Poythress and Kyle Wiltjer, who are currently in college.

But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros; they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Over the course of his career, Calipari's nearly 40 NBA pros have made approximately $1.25 billion in NBA contracts alone, which doesn't include endoresement deals and overseas contracts.

Calipari's Draft Picks

In 23 seasons as a head coach, John Calipari has coached 36 NBA Draft picks, including 25 first-round selections, with 14 of those going in the top 10. He's had four players draft No. 1 overall, twice as many as any other coach, and two or more players selected in eight consecutive NBA drafts, dating back to 2008 with Memphis.

A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national champion-ship and helped 38 players make it to the NBA during his 23-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up over 600 victories, 16 NCAA Tournament appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball's first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport's greatest program at Kentucky, he has totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari's on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped 38 players realize their dreams and guide them to the NBA, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari's help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are twice as many as any other coach, and he's had 25 players drafted during his six years at Kentucky, including 19 first-round picks.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 14 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including three players who earned their degree in just three years. In five of the last seven semesters, Calipari's scholarship competing players have posted a 3.0 grade-point average or better.

His foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country. In 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, and he organized another one in 2012 for victims of Superstorm Sandy. A year after helping raise $350,000 for charity during the inaugural UK alumni weekend, Calipari was the driving force behind the more than $1 million that was donated to local and national organizations during the second annual alumni weekend, and then $1.5 million in 2015.

Author of the New York Times Best Seller "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out" and "Bounce Back: Overcoming Setbacks to Succeed in Business and in Life," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that "it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."

Notes

- Scored seven points vs. Alabama in the SEC quarterfinals, the most for him since a nine-point outing vs. Georgia on Feb. 9

- Became the first Kentucky native to score in double figures for the Wildcats against Louisville since Darius Miller did so in the 2012 Final Four
- Calipari on Hawkins' performance vs. Louisville: "He'll fight like crazy, he's got a great temperament, a great demeanor. One of the great kids of all time. I mean, literally one of the great kids"
- Scored nine points against Georgia, his most since the Louisville game and second most in a game this year
- Has appeared in 83 career games and has made nine starts
