From the Notebook ...

Randle, Young Drafted

Former Wildcats Julius Randle and James Young were both selected in the NBA Draft's opening round in late June. Randle was taken No. 7 overall by the Los Angeles Lakers, while the Boston Celtics selected Young at No. 17. The duo increases UK's total to 19 picks over the last five years, including 15 taken in the first round.

Kentucky and the NBA Draft

John Calipari has had 19 players selected in the NBA Draft since becoming UK's head coach. Fifteen players have gone in the first round, and he's had a pair of players taken No. 1 overall. Calipari has had two or more players selected in the NBA Draft in seven consecutive seasons dating back to his time as the head coach at Memphis. He has had at least one player selected in the top 10 of the draft in each of the last seven seasons. No other school has even a first rounder in seven straight seasons.

Returning Starpower

Eight Wildcats return in 2014-15 from the national championship runner-up squad from a season ago. The eight include juniors Willie Cauley-Stein and Alex Poythress, and sophomores Aaron and Andrew Harrison, Dominique Hawkins, Dakari Johnson, Marcus Lee and Derek Willis.

UK returns 67 percent of its assists (300), 65 percent of minutes played, 59 percent of scoring (1,773) and 54 percent of rebounds (872) produced from the Final Four team a season ago providing John Calipari with the most returning starpower since taking over the reins of the UK program in 2009-10.

A Team of Champions

Seven players on the 2014-15 Kentucky men's basketball roster claimed a state or national title while in high school. Aaron and Andrew Harrison, Dominique Hawkins, Dakari Johnson, Trey Lyles, Sam Malone and Karl-Anthony Towns all claimed state basketball championships.

Johnson also led Montverde Academy to the National High School Invitational Championship in 2013.

All-Americans and Players of the Year

In addition to team success, this year's roster posts a slew of All-Americans or High School Players of the Year.

Devin Booker, Aaron Harrison, Andrew

Harrison, Dominique Hawkins, Dakari Johnson, Marcus Lee, Trey Lyles, Alex Poythress, Karl-Anthony Towns and Tyler Ulis all garnered All-America accolades to conclude their high-school careers.

Booker, Hawkins, Lyles, Poythress and Towns all earned Gatorade High School and state Player of the Year accolades.

McDonald's All-Americans

Adding to the accolades for the 2014-15 Wildcats is the largest comprised roster of high school McDonald's All-Americans since the inception of the game.

Devin Booker, Aaron and Andrew Harrison, Dakari Johnson, Marcus Lee, Trey Lyles, Alex Poythress, Karl-Anthony Towns and Tyler Ulis all suited up in the high school all-star game before arriving at Kentucky.

Calipari Owns Most Victories since 2005

Since the 2005-06 season, John Calipari's on-court record ranks him as the winningest coach over the last seven seasons. Totals through the conclusion of the 2014 season.

1. John Calipari	287-50
2. Bill Self	278-52
3. Mike Krzyzewski	261-59
4. Thad Matta	254-70
5. Roy Williams	254-71

2014 NCAA Tournament Recap

- Kentucky is the first team ever to win four straight games by five points or fewer in a single NCAA Tournament.
- UK is the second team (2012 Kansas) to win four straight games in an NCAA Tournament after not leading at halftime.
- According to ESPN Stats prior to the title game, with 3:00 minutes remaining during tournament action, Kentucky was +21 with the score within three points (-16 in the regular season). UK was also shooting 60% and holding opponents to 25% on field goals in the NCAA Tournament over the final three minutes in a three-point game.
- John Calipari made his fifth Final Four appearance, which is tied for the ninth most by a coach all-time.
- The Wildcats won 11-straight NCAA Tournament games, the longest streak since Florida won 12 straight in 2006 and 2007.
- Calipari-coached teams have appeared in four of the last seven Final Fours.
- Calipari is averaging 30 wins per season while leading the Wildcats and he's three wins shy of becoming the 13th active coach in Division I history to amass 600 wins.

- UK was the first team in history to eliminate three teams from the previous Final Four (Wichita State, Louisville, Michigan).
- Kentucky was the third team since seeding began in 1979 to eliminate an unbeaten team (Wichita State).
- With the win over Wisconsin, UK had won five games in the NCAA Tournament with a total margin of victory at 18 points. That was the lowest margin of victory for any NCAA title game participant in the history of the tournament.
- Kentucky committed just four turnovers against the Badgers. Not only was that a season-low mark, it's the lowest mark in school history for any NCAA Tournament game.
- Freshman Aaron Harrison knocked down the game-winning 3-pointer with less than 39 seconds to go in the contest in three straight games.

Three-Mania

UK has the nation's second-longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer and passed Vanderbilt with made 3-pointers in each of its six NCAA Tournament games. UK has hit a 3-pointer in 900 consecutive games. The Wildcats' last game without a 3-pointer came against Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1988, a "three-point" loss in the Great Alaska Shootout. Through the 2014 season, UK trails only UNLV. The Rebels' nation-leading streak is 908 games.

Freshman History

UK's top four scoring leaders in 2013-14 were all freshmen who accumulated 430 or more points. Only one other team in the history of the NCAA had four freshmen lead the team in scoring and produce 300 or more points. That team was Michigan's 'Fab Five' during the 1990-91 season.

20-Win Seasons

UK notched its 58th 20-win season in program history, and fifth straight under John Calipari in 2013-14. Calipari has now coached a 20-win team in 20 consecutive seasons as a collegiate head coach. He leads all active coaches with that streak. Mike Krzyzewski (Duke) and Jim Boehim (Syracuse) have 18 and 17, respectively. Billy Donovan (Florida) and Bill Self (Kansas) have both notched 16 straight 20-win seasons. Only Dean Smith's 27 consecutive seasons with 20 or more victories ranks more than Calipari's. Lute Olson also had 20 during his tenure at Arizona.

Kentucky Basketball Head Coach

John Calipari

A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari has guided five teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 31 players make it to the NBA during his 22-year college coaching career.

John Calipari reached the mountaintop in his third year in Lexington, guiding Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title. He is one of only two coaches to lead three different schools to a Final Four (UMass-1996; Memphis-2008; Kentucky-2011, 2012, 2014).

The Wildcats rode the trademark hard-nosed Calipari defense to the 2012 title, finishing the season as the nation's top-ranked team in field-goal percentage defense and blocked shots.

Kentucky lost three members of its 2011 Final Four team (two to the draft, one to graduation), but Calipari reloaded with the nation's top-ranked recruiting class for the third straight season. Included in the class were eventual National Player of the Year Anthony Davis and All-American Michael Kidd-Gilchrist.

En route to the national championship, Calipari guided the Wildcats to an NCAA record-tying 38 wins, a perfect 16-0 mark in the Southeastern Conference and the school's 45th SEC championship, all while extending his winning streak in Rupp Arena to 51 straight games. Calipari extended his perfect mark at home as UK's coach to 54 games before finally losing in his fourth year at Kentucky.

Upon being named head coach on April 1, 2009, Calipari continued to work his magic of resurrecting once proud programs, taking an NIT team in 2009 to the 2010 NCAA Elite Eight. Along the way he led the Wildcats to a No. 1 ranking (UK's first since 2003), the program's 44th SEC regular-season championship and 26th SEC Tournament title.

The honors continued after the 2009-10 season as Calipari became the first coach in UK history to receive the Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year award. He then watched as five of his players were selected in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft, the first time a school has ever produced five first-round picks. Among those picks was the first Wildcat ever taken as the No. 1 overall pick, John Wall.

In his inaugural season as head coach of the Wildcats, Calipari posted his fifth straight 30-win season, the only coach in NCAA Division I history to do so. In addition to the Rupp National Coach of the Year, Calipari was also named the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year.

When he led Kentucky back to the No. 1 spot in the country, Calipari became one of only two coaches (Frank McGuire) in NCAA history to lead three teams to a No. 1 ranking. He led UMass to a No. 1 ranking in 1995 and 1996, and he led Memphis to the No. 1 spot in the 2008 season.

In his second year in 2010-11, a season that was labeled as a "rebuilding effort," one in which Calipari and the Cats were supposed to struggle after losing an unprecedented five first-round picks in the 2010

NBA Draft, Kentucky reloaded as Calipari guided UK to its 27th SEC Tournament championship, kept his unbeaten record at Rupp Arena alive and collected his 500th career on-court win.

His latest season, in 2013-14, may have been his best work yet. Coaching the youngest team in the nation, Calipari guided Kentucky back to the Final Four for the third time in four seasons, coming up just one win short of his second national championship and the program's ninth title.

Calipari and the Cats reached the championship game in what some national pundits called one of the greatest NCAA Tournament runs of all-time. Seeded No. 8 in a region analysts called "the region of doom," UK knocked off previously undefeated and top-seeded Wichita State, downed defending national champion and archrival Louisville, defeated defending national runner-up and Big 10 champion Michigan, before edging Wisconsin in the Final Four. UK became the first team ever to knock off three of the previous season's Final Four teams. And the Cats did so starting five freshmen and coming off an appearance in the NIT the season before.

Much like he did at UMass, when his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his final 18 seniors that came through the Memphis program earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 10 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a degree in hand, while two (Jarrod Polson and Patrick Patterson) earned a degree in just three years.

Following a 3.4 grade-point average in the 2013 spring semester — the highest in Coach Cal's tenure at UK — the Wildcats' scholarship players posted a 3.11 GPA in the 2014 spring semester. It marked the sixth semester in the last seven semesters Coach Cal's team earned a 3.0 or better.

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, he has placed 31 players in the NBA during his college coaching career, including 19 over his first five seasons at Kentucky. The 19 picks over that five-season span is the most of any coach.

In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history. He followed that up with four players in the draft in 2011, six players in 2012 — the most in a two-round draft — two more in 2013 and another two in 2014.

Overall, he's churned out 19 NBA draft picks, 15 first-rounders, two No. 1 overall selections, five top-five picks and nine lottery selections at Kentucky. Since the 2008 draft, 24 of Coach Cal's players have been taken in the NBA Draft, including 17 first-rounders. Calipari has produced a top-10 pick in seven straight drafts. No other school has had a first-rounder in each of the last seven drafts.

Included in Calipari's NBA success are three No. 1 overall picks (Derrick Rose, John Wall and Anthony Davis) over a five-year period. No other coach has had three No. 1 picks, and 2012 was the first time two players from the same team (Davis and Kidd-Gilchrist) were taken with the top two picks in the draft.

After bringing the University of Massachusetts basketball program to national prominence in the '90s and resurrecting the Memphis basketball program in the 2000s, Calipari became the 22nd coach in UK history and seventh in the last 80 years.

Following his fifth season at UK, Calipari's overall on-court record is 597-166, giving him the fourth-highest winning percentage (.771) among active NCAA Division I coaches with 10 years experience at college basketball's Division I level, trailing only Mark Few, Roy Williams and Thad Matta. Heading into the 2014-15 season, he is just three wins shy of becoming the 13th active coach with 600 wins.

Calipari is one of only two coaches (Williams) in NCAA Division I history to have 400 or more wins in his first 16 years as a head coach, and his 173 victories from 2008-12 are the most ever for a coach over a five-year span in Division I history. Since the 2005-06 season, he has the best winning percentage among all Division I coaches. On the NCAA Division I list for winning percentage for all coaches (minimum 10 years), Calipari is in 10th place and ahead of Mike Krzyzewski, Jim Boeheim, Bob Huggins and Lute Olson.

Calipari's eight 30-win seasons are third most for a head coach in NCAA Division I history, and he is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons. For his college career (22 years), Calipari has 20 20-win seasons and 13 25-win campaigns. The 20 consecutive 20-win seasons tie Olson for the second-longest streak in NCAA history, trailing only Dean Smith, who had 27.

His NCAA Tournament record of 43-14 (.754) gives him the second-highest winning percentage among active coaches and the second highest of all-time (minimum 20 games). His five Final Four appearances is tied for ninth most by a coach all-time, and his 11 straight NCAA Tournament wins prior to the 2014 national championship loss was the longest winning streak in the tournament since the Florida Gators won 12 straight in 2006 and 2007.

Coach Cal started his head-coaching career at UMass in 1998, guiding a struggling program at UMass to the top of college basketball, capped off by a Final Four appearance in 1996.

At 29, when he was named head coach, Calipari began building a program from the ground up, going 10-18 his first season before posting a 17-14 record his second year (receiving a bid to the NIT). The Minutemen won their first Atlantic 10 championship in 1992 with a 30-5 record, including a 13-3 mark in league play. With a 77-71 overtime win over Syracuse in an East Regional second-round game, UMass made its first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

From there, the program skyrocketed under Coach Cal.

Calipari compiled a 193-71 record (.731) during his eight-year career at Massachusetts, including a 108-44 mark (.684) in A-10 play. In addition to five straight NCAA Tournaments and a Final Four appearance in 1996, UMass also made two appearances in the NIT, advancing to the NIT semifinals in 1991. The 1990-91 season was the first of six straight seasons in which the Minutemen won at least 20 games.

In his final season at UMass, Calipari was named the 1996 Naismith National Coach of the Year and The Sporting News National Coach of the Year. He was also named the A-10 Coach of the Year for the third time in four years, as well as Basketball Times East Region Coach of the Year.

During the Minutemen's 35-2 Final Four season in 1995-96, UMass posted wins over Kentucky, Maryland, Wake Forest, Georgia Tech, Syracuse, Virginia Tech and Louisville. UMass ended the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final regular-season poll after being the top-ranked team for nine weeks earlier in the year. The Minutemen also won their first 26 games of the season, setting a school record for most consecutive wins.

In addition to his Naismith National Coach of the Year honors in 1996, Calipari was a Naismith Coach of the Year finalist in 1994 and 1995. He was the USBWA District I Coach of the Year in 1993.

Calipari left UMass in June of 1996 to become executive vice president of basketball operations and head coach of the New Jersey Nets. He led the Nets to a second-place finish in the NBA's Atlantic Division and the playoffs in 1998, ending a five-year postseason drought for the franchise. The Nets' 17-game turnaround from the previous year was the best that season in the NBA.

He became a member of the Philadelphia 76ers coaching staff in 1999, rejoining Philadelphia coach Larry Brown, for whom Calipari was an assistant at Kansas.

Calipari returned to the college game in 2000 at Memphis, where he led the Tigers to the 2008 NCAA title game. Memphis' 38 wins in 2007-08 made him the winningest coach for a single season in NCAA history. As a result, Calipari was named Naismith National Coach of the Year for a second time in his career. He is only the second coach to receive the honor multiple times since the award's inception in 1987. Krzyzewski is the other to do so.

Calipari, the 2009 Sports Illustrated National Coach of the Year, led the Tigers to nine straight 20-win campaigns and nine consecutive postseason appearances, the only Memphis coach to do that. He posted 252 wins — 28 wins per season — as the Tigers' head coach, making him the winningest coach in school history.

Calipari, who is on the board of directors for the National Association of Basketball Coaches, began his coaching career at Kansas as a volunteer assistant under Ted Owens. In 1983, he was hired as the recruiting coordinator at the University of Vermont, but he was swayed back to the nation's heartland when Brown was hired as head coach at KU. He spent three seasons at Kansas (1982-85) before another three-year stint as an assistant coach to Paul Evans at Pittsburgh (1985-88).

The 55-year-old lettered two years at North Carolina-Wilmington before transferring to Clarion State. He played point guard at Clarion during the 1981 and 1982 seasons, leading the team in assists and free-throw percentage. The Eagles were ranked in the Division II Top 20 both years and participated in the 1981 NCAA Division II Tournament.

Calipari's foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country, and in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with another telethon in 2012 that raised $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy.

A year after helping raise $350,000 for charity during the inaugural UK alumni weekend, Calipari was the driving force behind the more than $1 million that was donated to local and national organizations during the second annual alumni weekend.

His foundation has also worked with and donated money to Samaritan's Feet, the West Liberty Recovery Fund, 4 Paws for Ability, the Starkey Hearing Foundation, the Urban League of Lexington and the V Foundation. Calipari has also headed up the EverFi Financial Literacy Program, which teaches students across Kentucky the importance of money management.

Author of the national bestseller, "Bounce Back: Overcoming Setbacks to Succeed in Business and in Life" and the recently released "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto "that it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."

Calipari and his wife, Ellen, have two daughters, Erin and Megan, and a son, Bradley.

RV/2 Kentucky (29-11, 12-6)

CAT SCRATCHES

- The Wildcats concluded their 111th season of basketball and remain the national leaders in total wins with 2,140.
- John Calipari coached teams are 130-39 (.769) in the months of March and April.
- The Wildcats advanced to their national-leading 53rd NCAA Tournament appearance. UK is 116-47 all-time in the NCAA Tournament. The 116 wins is the most of any program in the country.
- Kentucky advanced to its 12th National title appearance in program history and second in the Calipari era.
- The Blue and White is 18-3 (.857) in tournament games under the direction of John Calipari.
- Calipari is 43-14 (.754) as a head coach in NCAA Tournament games. Calipari's winning percentage is second among active head coaches.
- Kentucky has the most NCAA Tournament wins of any school since 2010 with 18 (13 – Florida, 12 – Connecticut, Kansas, Louisville; 11 – Butler, Duke, Ohio State, Syracuse).
- UK won 11-straight NCAA Tournament games. That was the most consecutive victories for a team in the NCAA Tournament since Florida won 12-straight en route to its national titles in 2006 and 2007.
- The young Cats committed just four turnovers against Wisconsin. That was the fewest turnovers in any NCAA Tournament game in school history and the third fewest of any game in the Calipari era.
- Freshman Julius Randle set single-season freshman records in rebounds (417) and free throws (204).
- Kentucky was the first program since Michigan in 1993 to start five freshmen in the NCAA title game. UK's five freshmen starters all scored more than 200 points this season tying only that same Michigan team as any program to achieve the feat.
- Sophomore Willie Cauley-Stein became the third player in program history, and the third in the last three seasons, to amass 100 or more blocks in a single year when he concluded the season with 106.
