CHAMPIONSHIP INSPIRATION

The blue and white checkered pattern that appears on UK's new uniforms and throughout this publication was inspired by the winning colors worn by Secretariat when the legendary thoroughbred captured the Triple Crown—horse racing's most coveted prize—in 1973.

THE COMMONWEALTH'S OBSESSION

“So fundamental is Kentucky basketball to Kentucky culture that the commonwealth virtually shuts down on game night. In Kentucky, the idea is not to let life interfere with basketball.”

— LONNIE WHEELER, CINCINNATI POST

Billy Gillispie signs autographs after throwing out the first pitch at a Lexington Legends minor league baseball game at Applebee's Park.

"People often ask me to try to explain why Kentuckians are so nutty about UK basketball. My guess is that it's because the commonwealth is so diverse, from the mountains of the east, where my family hails; to the central blue-grass, where we have a proud tradition of raising the world's best thoroughbreds; to the farmlands of the west. Basketball is one thing that unites us, something for which we all can be proud. An airline pilot once told my Nana that when he flies over the state, he can tell when UK is playing because the roads are empty."

BUILDING ON EXCELLENCE

“It’s a great honor for me to be here standing at the place where they basically invented basketball. We want to build on the tradition and cut down some more nets.”

— BILLY GILLISPIE

Billy Gillispie addressed a crowd of more than 4,000 fans at a pep rally announcing his hiring as Kentucky’s new men’s basketball coach on April 6, 2007.

Since 1931, only six men have served as head basketball coach at Kentucky, including (from left): Adolph Rupp, Joe B. Hall, Eddie Sutton, Rick Pitino, Tubby Smith and Billy Gillispie.

BILLY GILLISPIE

After some of the most dramatic single-season turnarounds in NCAA history at Texas-El Paso and Texas A&M, Billy Gillispie became the 21st coach of the Kentucky Wildcats on April 6, 2007.

He continued his magic in his first season in Lexington. After starting out 6-7 in pre-conference action, the Wildcats caught fire and posted a 12-4 mark in league play, including wins over No. 3 Tennessee and No. 12 Vanderbilt resulting in Gillispie being named SEC co-Coach of the Year by league coaches.

The honor marked the fifth straight season, Gillispie received his league's coach of the year award. The Cats in-conference heroics helped them secure their NCAA record 49th NCAA Tournament berth while keeping their string of 17 straight tournament appearances, the third-longest active streak, alive.

Prior to coming to Lexington, Gillispie spent three seasons as the head coach of the Texas A&M

Aggies. While in College Station, the three-time Big 12 Coach of the Year, engineered one of the most amazing turnarounds in college basketball history, leading ESPN's Steve Lavin, among others, to christen him a "miracle worker."

In the 2006-07 season, Gillispie, who was a finalist for the 2007 Naismith National Coach of the Year, and Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year led the Aggies to a school record 27-7 record which included a school best No. 3 seed in the NCAA's, in which they advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time since 1980.

In addition to leading the Aggies to a final No. 9 ranking in 2007, he led A&M to a top 10 ranking in both polls for 11 straight weeks. Before the 2007 season, the last time A&M was ranked in the top 10 in either poll was Jan. 3, 1979, when the Aggies were ranked 10th by the AP. The only other time A&M was ranked in the top 10 was a four-week run in the AP poll in 1959-60. That team was ranked No. 8 one week and 10th the following three weeks.

In Gillispie's first season in College Station in 2004-05, the Aggies were picked to finish last in the rugged Big 12, but shot out to a perfect 11-0 start and went on to finish 21-10, earning accolades as the country's most improved team. Gillispie became the Even more impressive, A&M went 8-8 in Big 12 play, including victories against No. 9-ranked Texas and No. 25-ranked Texas Tech, to become only the third college team ever to finish .500 in league play after going winless the previous season. The Aggies won two games in the National Invitation Tournament, A&M's first postseason appearance in 11 years.

The following season in 2005-06, A&M finished 22-9 and placed fourth in the Big 12 with a 10-6 mark, its best finish in the league's 10-year history. In addition, A&M advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 19 years.

But Gillispie was not finished yet as the Aggies pulled off a stunning first-round upset of national power Syracuse, then took LSU to the wire in the second round before losing on a three-point basket in the final seconds. The Tigers went on to the Final Four.

Gillispie was honored as Big 12 Coach of the Year by several major newspapers and was selected Texas College Coach of the Year by the TABC.

A native of the tiny West Texas town of Graford, Gillispie began his Division I career at Baylor in the mid-1990s. He went on to successful assistant coaching stints at Tulsa and Illinois before becoming UTEP's head coach in 2002.

The Miners finished 6-24 in his first season, but went 24-8 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2004, an incredible 18-win improvement that ranks among the best in history. As a result, Gillispie was named district coach of the year by the USBWA, Texas coach of the year by the TABC, and was a finalist for national coach of the year honors.

The Miners captured the 2004 Western Athletic Conference title, its first in 12 years, after being picked to finish ninth in the preseason poll. UTEP became only the third WAC team in history — and the first in 35 years — to win a league title after finishing last the previous year. In the exhibition season, the Miners ended the Harlem Globetrotters' 288-game winning streak with an 89-88 victory.

The Miners completed a 16-1 home ledger and built a huge following in El Paso, averaging 10,282 fans per game and ranking first in the NCAA in increased attendance. UTEP had eight sellout crowds of more than 12,000.

A tireless worker, the 48-year-old Gillispie has built a deserved reputation as one of the country's best recruiters. His prowess was reflected in his first recruiting class at UTEP, which featured a pair of first-team junior college All-Americans — Filiberto Rivera and Omar Thomas — and earned a top 25 ranking.

Rivera was the 2003 national junior college player of the year, while Thomas was the all-time leading scorer in junior college basketball and was the only JUCO player ever to score 2,000 points with 1,000 rebounds.

At A&M, Gillispie signed three straight top-25 recruiting classes.

Prior to being hired at UTEP in 2002, Gillispie served eight years as an assistant coach at Baylor, Tulsa and Illinois. He was a member of Bill Self's staffs at Tulsa from 1997-00 and at Illinois from 2000-02. Self is now the head coach at Kansas.

Gillispie was part of a coaching unit that recorded 85 wins over three years, the second-highest total in the nation in that period, and captured four consecutive conference championships — two in the Big Ten and two in the Western Athletic Conference.

When the WAC title at UTEP is included, Gillispie was a part of conference championship teams in five of six years, a record matched by few others.

"Few coaches have rocketed up the coaching ranks faster than Billy Clyde. A combination of confidence, brute work ethic and country charm have carried Gillispie a long way in a short time."

- PAT FORDE, ESPN.COM

“...perseverance, my parents, and I was fortunate enough to play for one of the best college basketball coaches in America in Coach Gillispie.”

— ACIE LAW, FORMER TEXAS A&M STAR ON THE REASONS WHY HE WAS DRAFTED IN THE NBA'S FIRST ROUND IN 2007

In addition, Gillispie was a member of the only coaching staff in NCAA history to lead two different schools to the Elite Eight in successive seasons — Tulsa in 2000 and Illinois in 2001.

Tulsa registered a 32-5 mark in 1999-00 and Illinois fashioned a composite mark of 53-17 in 2000-01 and 2001-02, winning back-to-back Big Ten titles for the first time in 50 years. The Illinois staff became the first since 1913 to win Big Ten titles in each of its first two seasons in the league. Illinois advanced to the Sweet 16 in the 2002 NCAA Tournament.

Tulsa earned a No. 9 national ranking in the final coaches' poll in 2000, while Illinois was rated No. 6 in 2001 and No. 11 in 2002.

His efforts on the recruiting trail helped Illinois land one of the nation's top 10 classes in 2002, featuring All-American Dee Brown, James Augustine, Aaron Spears, Deron Williams and Kyle Wilson.

Gillispie was the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Baylor from 1994-97 under head coach Harry Miller. The Bears notched 18 victories in 1996-97 after consecutive nine-win seasons the previous two years. Baylor's 1996 recruiting class was ranked as high as No. 6 in the country.

A 1983 graduate of Southwest Texas State with a bachelor's degree in Education, Gillispie got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1982-85.

From 1987-93, Gillispie served as head coach at three different high schools in Texas — Copperas Cove, New Braunfels Canyon and Killeen Ellison. His last prep team at Killeen Ellison recorded a 32-6 record in 1992-93 and set school records for winning percentage and points scored while finishing the year ranked No. 4 in the state.

Gillispie joined the JUCO ranks from 1993-94 as an assistant and recruiting coordinator at South Plains Junior College in Levelland, Texas.

Born in Abilene on Nov. 7, 1959, Gillispie was the middle of five children and the only boy. When he was in second grade, the family moved to Graford (pop. 578), located 65 miles northwest of Fort Worth.

“He’s revitalized this program, stimulated the interest and demonstrated that he’s going to put Kentucky back in the limelight of college basketball.”

— JOE B. HALL, UK BASKETBALL COACH (1973-85)

He played point guard at Graford High School and was a two-sport athlete in basketball and baseball at Ranger (Texas) Junior College from 1978-80.

Gillispie attended Sam Houston State for one year, where he was a student assistant under coach Bob Derryberry, then transferred to Texas State, where he served three years as a graduate assistant for Derryberry. He received a degree in education from Texas State in 1983.

Gillispie is a member of the NABC, TABC, Texas High School Coaches Association and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

JEREMY COX

Mesa State, 1991

Jeremy Cox is in his second year at Kentucky, after serving under Gillispie as an assistant coach at Texas A&M in 2006-07 where he helped lead the Aggies to a spot in the Sweet 16, and a school best final ranking of ninth in both the Associated Press and Coaches' polls.

Prior to his time in College Station, he was the head coach at Arkansas-Fort Smith for three seasons, guiding the Lions to the 2006 national junior college championship while also being named the NJCAA Coach of the Year.

Cox began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Wyoming (1991-92) and later was an assistant at the University of Texas-San Antonio for four seasons (1993-97).

As a part of former Lions coach Doc Sadler's staff at Arkansas-Fort Smith in 2002-03, Cox helped the Lions to a 20-8 finish and the Bi-State Conference East Division title.

He was promoted to head coach the next season after Sadler became an assistant coach on Billy Gillispie's staff at University of Texas-El Paso. Sadler was later promoted to head coach at UTEP after Gillispie was hired at Texas A&M.

As head coach, Cox guided the Lions to an 84-17 record, three consecutive 20-win seasons and two Bi-State Conference East Division championships.

In the 2006 season, UAFS was the unanimous preseason No. 1-ranked team in the nation for the first time in recent history and won its first NJCAA Region II championship since 2002 and its first national championship since 1981.

Cox arrived in Fort Smith after serving four years (1998-99 through 2001-02) as head coach at Garden City College (Kan.), where his teams amassed a 93-36 slate (.721 winning percentage). He got his first head coaching position at North Dakota State College of Science, where he led his team in 1997-98 to a 19-9 record, the NJCAA Region XIII championship, and was tagged 1998 NJCAA Region XIII Coach of the Year for his efforts.

In eight years as a head coach, Cox's teams compiled a 197-62 record.

Cox got his coaching start as an assistant at the University of Wyoming during the 1991-92 season and saw three Cowboys from that squad go on to play in the NBA, including Tim Breaux, Theo Ratliff and Reggie Slater. Following a stint as an assistant at Paris College (Texas) in 1992-93, Cox spent four years (1993-94 through 1996-97) on the sidelines as an assistant at the University of Texas at San Antonio.

"Jeremy has had success at every level because of his unmatched passion and ability to evaluate talent. He has won a national championship at the two-year level and is a big part of our success."

- BILLY GILLISPIE

Cox graduated cum laude in 1991 from Mesa State College (Colo.) and received his master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy (Ala.) in 1999. He and his wife, Cindy, have a son (Austin, 15) and daughter (Kaili, 9).

GLYNN CYPRIEN

Texas-San Antonio State, 2004

Glynn Cyprien, in his second season in Lexington, is no stranger to the SEC or the state of Kentucky, having served as an assistant coach at Arkansas in the 2006-07 season and an associate head coach at Western Kentucky in 1995.

Prior to his stop in Fayetteville, Cyprien was an associate head coach at New Mexico State where he helped the Aggies improve from 6-24 in 2005 to 16-14 in 2006, the second-best turnaround in the country that season.

Before going to New Mexico State, Cyprien served as an assistant coach under Eddie Sutton at Oklahoma State from 2000-2004. In his four seasons at OSU, the Cowboys were a combined 97-32. All four teams earned NCAA Tournament bids with the 2004 squad going 31-4 and reaching the Final Four. The 2003 club was 23-10 and reached the second round of the tournament. The 2002 team went 23-9 and lost to Stan Heath's Kent State club in the first round. The 2001 team was 20-10.

Prior to working at OSU, the New Orleans, La., native was associate head coach at UNLV for five years from 1996-2000 where he oversaw UNLV's recruiting. UNLV's 1997 recruiting class was rated best in the nation by The Sporting News and Basketball Times, and the 1999 class second-best by Hoop Scoop. While at UNLV, the '96 club was 10-16, but the Rebels were in the post-season each of the next four years. The 1997 team was 22-10 and lost at Arkansas in the first round of the NIT. The '98 team was 20-13 and earned an NCAA Tournament bid, the '99 club went 16-13 and played in the NIT, and the 2000 Rebels were 23-8 and played in the NCAA Tournament.

"Glynn is known as a great recruiter, and he is, but he's also an all-around quality coach. He's done a great job at several stops, and his background makes him a good fit for our staff."

- BILLY GILLISPIE

In 1995, he was associate head coach at Western Kentucky when the Hilltoppers won Sun Belt Conference regular-season and tournament titles, advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and ended the year ranked No. 21 with a 27-4 record. WKU's .871 winning percentage was second-best in the nation that season while the recruiting class was ranked No. 10.

Cyprien was also associate head coach at Jacksonville University from 1991-94. The Dolphins recorded the most improved winning percentage in the nation, going from .222 (6-21) to .607 (17-11).

A former assistant at Lamar and Texas-San Antonio, he helped Lamar improve from 7-20 to 15-12 in 1991. At UTSA, he helped the Roadrunners earn their first ever bid to the NCAA Tournament in 1988 (22-9) and followed with records of 21-8 in 1989 and 22-7 in 1990.

Cyprien lettered two seasons as a player at Southern University-New Orleans. In 2004, he earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Texas-San Antonio.

He has been a member of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) for 19 years and the Black Coaches Association (BCA) for 14 years.

Cyprien is married to the former Monique Bouldin and they are the parents of Asia (14) and Karter (6).

TRACY WEBSTER

Wisconsin, 1995

A native of Harvey, Ill., Webster is in his second season with the Wildcats.

Webster came to Kentucky following a three-year run as an assistant coach at Illinois after serving as an assistant at Purdue in 2003-04.

Prior to coaching in the Big Ten Conference, Webster spent three seasons as an assistant at Ball State from 2001-03. While in Muncie, Ind., he helped Ball State to the school's first outright Mid-American Conference West Division Championships and the Elite Eight of the National Invitational Tournament in 2002.

Webster was a three-year letterwinner and three-time team captain at the University of Wisconsin from 1992-94. He was team MVP and earned second-team All-Big Ten honors in 1992, was a third-team all-conference pick in '93 and earned honorable mention honors in '94.

Webster is the Wisconsin school record holder for career assists (501) and ranks second in career steals (183). He also stands 12th on the Badgers' career scoring chart with 1,264 points. He owns two Wisconsin season records, setting marks for 3-point percentage (.490 in 1991-92) and assists (179 in 1992-93).

After wrapping up his playing career, Webster served as the coordinator of community outreach programs at Wisconsin from 1994-97.

"I've known Tracy and observed him for a long time. He gets along with everyone. The players he has recruited over the years speak highly of him, because he develops relationships."

He began his coaching career as the head freshman and varsity assistant coach at Verona High School in Wisconsin from 1997-98. He then served as an assistant at the Division II level at Wisconsin-Parkside during the 1998-99 season.

Prior to his tenure at Ball State, Webster spent 1999-2000 as the director of Webster Extramural Basketball Productions and as a care coordinator at Willowglen Academy in Milwaukee.

Webster earned his bachelor's degree from Wisconsin in 1995. He is married to the former Shenetta Richardson.

ALVIN BROOKS

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Former Texas A&M assistant coach and University of Houston head coach, and current Director of Operations, Alvin Brooks is in his second season with the Kentucky basketball program.

Brooks, a three-year assistant at Texas A&M under coach Billy Gillispie, was also on Gillispie's staff at UTEP in 2003-04. Brooks has helped Gillispie engineer two of the best single-season turnarounds in college basketball history.

The Miners went 24-8 in 2003-04, won a share of the Western Athletic Conference championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 12 years.

Brooks, 49, served as head coach at Houston from 1993-1998. The Cougars went 17-10 and placed second in the Southwest Conference in 1996. Houston posted wins over No. 3-ranked Memphis and No. 19 Tulsa in his tenure.

Brooks has 27 years of college coaching experience and has been affiliated with 16 postseason tournament teams as a coach and player. He has tutored 12 players who went on to play in the NBA.

A 1992 graduate of Lamar, he was a two-year letterwinner for the Cardinals (1979-81), averaging 10.4 points and 6.9 assists per game in his career.

He earned second-team All-Southland Conference honors in 1981 and was the starting point guard on the 1980 team that reached the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Tournament. He was drafted by the San Antonio Spurs in 1981.

In the late 1970s, Brooks was a standout player at powerful Wheatley High School in Houston, where he averaged 25.9 points and nine assists per game and earned all-city recognition.

Brooks and his wife, Richelle, have five children — Alvin III, Andree, Vincent, Julian and Casey. Alvin III is an assistant basketball coach at Bradley University.

“Alvin is one of the finest men I’ve ever been around. He’s unbelievable in his relationships with young people. His understanding of college basketball is invaluable to us.”

– BILLY GILLISPIE

TODD FORCIER

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Todd Forcier enters his second year as the head strength and conditioning coach for the UK men's basketball program.

Forcier came to UK after spending five seasons at Syracuse, where he was the strength and conditioning coach for the 2003 National Champion men's basketball program. Additionally, he worked with the women's basketball, men's soccer, women's rowing and women's volleyball teams while at Syracuse.

"Kentucky is fortunate to be able to attract the very best, and Todd Forcier is one of the very best in the business," said head coach Billy Gillispie "Todd has helped his players achieve a great deal while also making sure they are physically prepared for any professional opportunities they may have when they leave school. We're excited to have him at UK.

Prior to his time with the Orange, Forcier served as the basketball strength coach at Dayton for four years. He also spent a year (1997-98) as assistant strength coach at UNLV and three years (1993-96) as assistant strength coach with the NBA's Seattle SuperSonics.

Forcier is a licensed massage therapist (LMT), Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and Performance Enhancement Specialist (PES). The Rainier, Washington native graduated from Washington State in 1999 with a degree in kinesiology.

His brother, Chad, is an assistant coach for the NBA's San Antonio Spurs, while his sister, Jade Hayes, is the girl's basketball coach at Bellevue Christian High School in Bellevue, Washington.

Forcier and his wife Shannon have a daughter, Emma Jean.

ERIC FRY

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Eric Fry enters his second season with the Kentucky basketball program after serving as an assistant athletic trainer for three years with the Colorado men's basketball team. Prior to his time at Colorado, Fry spent two years at the University of Denver serving as the volleyball, men's lacrosse, and men's and women's ski teams.

Fry was a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the University of Wisconsin before joining the Pioneer athletic training staff. He worked primarily with the Badger men's and women's swimming and diving teams along with the men's and women's soccer teams. He traveled to Europe with the women's soccer team just before moving to Denver in 2002.

He completed his undergraduate studies at Purdue University in 2000 and received a bachelor's degree in athletic training followed by earning a master's degree in Higher Education Administration in May of 2002. While at Purdue he worked as a student athletic trainer with the football, baseball, and basketball teams. During his time there he had the opportunity to work as an intern athletic trainer with the Kenai Peninsula Oilers, a summer baseball team located in Kenai, Alaska.

Fry is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and College Athletic Trainers' Society. Fry volunteers for the U.S. Olympic Committee's Sports Medicine Department and was in Bangkok, Thailand for the 2007 World University Games as the athletic trainer for the U.S. Tae Kwon Do and golf teams.

CHRIS WALKER

Second Season

Chris Walker enters his second season with the Kentucky basketball program.

In addition to day-to-day administrative responsibilities, Walker assists players with academic responsibilities, coordinates scouting and film preparation and acts as the liaison to the video department.

A two-year letterman at Texas A&M, Walker's association with coach Billy Gillispie is one for the ages. The night before Gillispie was hired as Texas A&M's basketball coach, prior to the 2004-05 season, Chris Walker's team won the school's intramural championship; a year later he was starting in the Big 12 Conference for the new coach. He walked-on to the team in the fall and quickly gained Gillispie's attention with his grit and determination.

Walker played in 31 games, starting in 26 — including 15 Big 12 games. He averaged 4.5 points and 3.1 rebounds, despite being a 6-5 forward in a league of talented giants. Consequently, he was named to the Big 12 All-Bench and All-Walkon Teams by The Daily Oklahoman.

Along the way, he earned his degree in computer science, graduating magna cum laude in December of 2005 with a 3.7 GPA.

Walker did not play organized basketball for two years after playing the 2001-02 season at UT-Dallas, a Division III school where he was named the conference's Freshman of the Year. He averaged 11.9 points and 5.3 rebounds and earned a spot on the Freshman All-America Team. He was a second-team all-region pick as a senior at Grapevine High School and was named the district's offensive player of the year.

PETER WARDEN

Second Season

Peter Warden is in his second season with the Kentucky basketball program, working with internal operations.

Warden spent five seasons at Texas A&M as a student manager, including two years as head manager prior to serving the 2006-07 season on Gillispie's administrative staff at Texas A&M.

He has served as an administrator for three foreign summer tours with Athletes in Action. AIA toured Australia in 2007 and played in the William Jones Cup in Taiwan in 2006. AIA also toured East Asia in 2005. The American team captured the Jones Cup in 2006.

A native of Houston, Texas, Warden received his undergraduate and master's degree in accounting from A&M's prestigious Professional Program in Accounting (PPA) in 2006. He was named the 2006 Outstanding PPA Student. In 2005, Warden spent a 10-week internship with the accounting firm BDO Seidman.

In high school, Warden attended Second Baptist and helped the school win TAPPS Class 4A state basketball and football championships. He also was a cross country runner and earned all-district honors as a distance runner in track.

Warden was co-founder of TXPrivatesports.com, a website devoted to coverage of private high school sports.

At A&M, he was active in Breakaway Ministries for five years and served the organization as an intern in 2005-06.

JEFF BERGSTROM

Second Season

Jeff Bergstrom enters his second season as a member of the UK basketball administrative staff.

His primary responsibilities include film exchange, film preparation and he acts as a liaison to the video department.

A 2007 graduate of Iowa State with a degree in Finance, Bergstrom was a walk-on with the Cyclone basketball program from 2003-07 playing under the tutelage of Coaches Wayne Morgan and Greg McDermott.

During his playing career, Bergstrom enjoyed a trip to the 2004 NIT Final Four and the second round of the 2005 NCAA Tournament. He won the Pete Taylor Mr. Hustle award his first three years on the squad and was named first team Academic All-Big 12 in his senior season.

All four years at Iowa State, Bergstrom was on the All-Big 12 Commissioner's Academic list as well as being an Iowa State scholar.

Originally from Houston, Texas, Bergstrom graduated from Kingwood High School in Houston where he helped lead his team to the Class 5A regional semifinals his senior year.

LOGAN LEE

First Season

Logan Lee is in his inaugural season with the Kentucky basketball program. However, it is not his first experience with UK head coach Billy Gillispie.

The San Antonio, Texas native finished his collegiate playing career at Texas A&M under Gillispie, where the Aggies tallied a 70-19 record with Lee as a walk-on.

Upon graduating from John Marshall High School in San Antonio, Lee attended South Plains College where he started 33 of 34 games his freshman season. He was named team offensive Player of the Year and team MVP while leading the Texans to the WJCAC Conference championship as well as the NJCAA Region V Championship.

Lee transferred to Hawaii for his sophomore season where started 26 games and led the team in assists while helping the Warriors to a third round appearance in the 2004 NIT.

After a year away, it was time for Lee to return to the Lonestar State where he walked on for Gillispie and A&M.

After graduating with a degree in Agricultural Leadership and Development in 2006, Lee stayed on with Texas A&M basketball where he worked as an Administrative Assistant in the 2007-08 season.

He earned a Master of Sciences degree from A&M in 2008 and then made the trek north to Lexington to rejoin his old college coach. As a member of Gillispie's staff, Lee assists with administrative responsibilities, academic achievements for the players, as well as off-court player development.

LEON SMITH

ASSISTANT ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Leon Smith is in his eighth season at his alma mater and his third as the Assistant Athletics Director. Smith serves primarily as the team administrator. His duties include managing and overseeing the annual budget, supervising all non-coaching staff and office supervisor, coordinating and negotiating all team travel, serving as staff liaison with all other departments and coordinating and directing any special projects assigned by the head coach and the athletic director.

Prior to returning to Lexington, Smith spent two years as an Assistant Director of Championships for the National Collegiate Athletic Association, overseeing management of several NCAA Division I, II and III Championships and serving as the national office liaison to those championship committees. Before joining the NCAA, he worked one year for USA Basketball, serving as the assistant director for men's programs.

As a Wildcat, the Louisville native lettered three seasons as a wide receiver for the UK football team (1993-95). His best season was his junior year when he led the team in receiving with 27 catches for 375 yards. Smith received numerous awards, including the CFA and "SEC Good Works Team" honors. At Trinity High School, he was a three-year starter in football during the team's state-record 50 consecutive victories, which included three Class 4A State Championships during his career.

Smith, 36, graduated from UK in 1995, and graduated from the NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males last year. He has an 11-year-old son, Tucker, and married the former Margaret Ekins. The couple gave birth to Margaret Elise Smith on September 5.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

DR. LEE T. TODD, JR.

Lee T. Todd, Jr. became the 11th president of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2001, after serving as senior vice president of IBM's Lotus Development Corp. President Todd is the sixth UK alumnus to hold the presidency.

President Todd has concentrated his efforts and energies on helping his alma mater achieve a greater level of national prominence. He launched the University of Kentucky's Top 20 Business Plan in December 2005. The plan is a quantitative analysis highlighting what it will take for UK to achieve its state-mandated goal of building a Top 20 public research university. Widely hailed as the first business plan by a public university in the nation, UK's plan garnered widespread national attention. It has been featured by national media outlets and recognized by peer institutions, as several higher education leaders have visited UK's campus to learn more about the Business Plan approach.

President Todd has focused his efforts and energies on helping his alma mater achieve a greater level of national prominence.

He continues to champion UK's outreach efforts. President Todd launched a university-funded research program called the Commonwealth Collaboratives. The initiative features 36 of UK's top research teams, who are focused on solving the intrinsic problems that have held the state back from reaching its full potential. It is part of UK's effort to ensure that its research hits the ground in Kentucky and changes lives throughout the Commonwealth.

President Todd has spearheaded an effort to revitalize health care in Kentucky. In June 2006, UK unveiled the Commonwealth's Medical Campus of the Future, a multi-phased project aimed at providing Kentuckians with cutting-edge, 21st century health care. As part of the revamped academic medical campus, UK will construct a new, one million square foot University of Kentucky Albert B. Chandler Hospital and a new College of Pharmacy.

President Todd is currently a member of the Board of Directors and Vice Chair of the Executive Committee for the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges (NASULGC). He is President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Executive Committee. President Todd serves on the Equitable Resources Board of Directors and is chair of the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education's STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) Task Force. He is chair of the National Consortium for Continuous Improvement in Higher Education's (NCCI) Leveraging Excellence Award selection panel. President Todd also is a member of the Business Higher Education Forum and the Council on Competitiveness.

He is married to the former Patricia Brantley, a UK graduate who earned her master's degree from Simmons College in Boston. They have two adult children, UK graduates Troy and Kathryn.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

MITCH BARNHART

Mitch Barnhart is in his seventh year as Director of Athletics for the University of Kentucky, having set a clear course for making Kentucky one of the top athletics programs in the country.

Hired July 15, 2002, Barnhart has made the desire for overall excellence the cornerstone of Wildcat Athletics. His decision to fully fund all 22 varsity sports has produced a wave of firsts in a number of programs, while also allowing UK to achieve at a consistently high level.

Numerous sports have reached never-before-seen levels of success. Baseball won the school's first-ever Southeastern Conference title in 2006, following in the SEC championship footsteps of women's tennis, men's golf and men's basketball from 2005. Four Wildcat coaches earned SEC Coach of the Year honors in 2005-06.

The women's soccer and rifle teams added league titles in 2006-07, with conference Coach of the Year honors going to Warren Lipka and Harry Mullins, respectively.

Mitch Barnhart has made the desire for overall excellence the cornerstone of Wildcat Athletics.

Perhaps the biggest on-field turnaround besides baseball has been in football, where Rich Brooks has led the Wildcats to back-to-back bowl wins (2006 and 2007) for the first time in more than 50 years. Barnhart's support of Brooks and his staff has manifested itself in a string of wins over traditional football powers, including a victory over top-ranked LSU in October 2007.

Financially, Barnhart instructed his staff to seek out new revenue streams, and that resulted in a record $80 million multi-media rights agreement with Host Communications (now IMG College). The additional resources allow UK to continue its commitment to its student-athletes, a commitment Barnhart takes personally. Athletics spends $1.5 million annually on its nationally-renowned CATS Academic Center and each spring hosts the CATSPYs, an awards program designed to recognize the very best in UK Athletics.

Other initiatives begun under Barnhart's leadership include the Big Blue Caravan, which connects UK to its vast fan base, the UK Athletics Hall of Fame, which honors past greats across all sports, a revamping of UK's donor program that has resulted in record K Fund dollars, and a 10-year, $10-million commitment to help fund the University's general scholarship program. UK also completed the Joe Craft Center, a $30 million expansion of Memorial Coliseum that includes new practice and office space for a variety of sports.

Barnhart's connection to UK's student-athlete is evident by his personal interaction and commitment to provide all support services necessary to meet the needs of these students.

Barnhart arrived at Kentucky from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before his tenure at OSU, he worked at Tennessee for 12 years (1986-98); served as assistant executive director of the SMU Mustang Club (1983-86); regional director for the Duck Athletic Fund at Oregon (1983); and was an intern for the Aztec Athletic Foundation at San Diego State (1982-1983). Barnhart, 49, is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He received his bachelor degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a masters in sports administration from Ohio University in 1982. He and his wife, the former Connie Brown, have three children, Kirby, Blaire and Scott.

SEC EXCELLENCE

Did you Know ...

- SEC teams have accounted for 10 national championships, led by Kentucky's seven NCAA titles.
- Every team in the SEC has made at least one NCAA Tournament appearance in the last seven editions of the "Big Dance," which shows the balance in the league over the past few seasons. Kentucky is the only SEC team to appear in all seven.
- The SEC is the only conference in the nation to have all of its teams ranked at least one week in The Associated Press Top 25 polls (excluding preseason polls) since 1999-2000.
- The 2007-08 season marked the 19th consecutive year the SEC had at least one team advance to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament.

Parrish: The Thoughts

By Gary Parrish
CBS SportsLine.com Senior Writer
Tell Gary your opinion!

Gary Parrish weighs in regularly on what's happening in college basketball.

E-Mail To A Friend!

Kentucky fans are passionate. Everybody has understood that for a while, and so when I wrote a column about Billy Gillispie I knew the response would be heavy, if only because anything written about the Wildcats garners heavy attention. I'll include some of the notes in this week's mailbag, but one message caught my attention so much that I had to reply to the guy personally.

It came from David.

It read. ...

Giddy? I just bought a summer home in Arizona so I could register my corvette there because it was the only state with the 4KYCATS license plate available. We are back! Nice read.

Naturally, I was intrigued. The idea of a man buying a summer home based solely on the idea that a particular license plate was available in that state seemed like the very definition of passionate. So I e-mailed David and asked for more details. His response was excellent.

A real estate agent told me how to go online and check the states' computers for personalized plate combinations. I was looking for a summer home and had tried other Rocky Mountain States for months to come up with a combination that would look cool on a red corvette, but everything is taken by all the wildcat fans. Found a home near Sedona, Arizona. Looked on the state's MVD computer, and lucky me there was 4KYCATS. Everywhere I drive that car I meet Kentucky bball fans. Bottom of Bryce Canyon national park: Ky fans. Top of the capitol dome in Denver: Ky fans. Ran out of gas on a charter boat in the mangrove swamp of the Florida Keys. Who comes to my rescue? Ky fans who saw my Ky jersey and towed me back, told me if I had been a Duke fan they would have left me there to die.

... there is no denying members of the so-called Big Blue Nation comprise the most passionate fan base in the country, and it's really not even close.

“No one is more passionate about basketball than Kentucky fans. It is a phenomena you cannot duplicate anywhere else. When you go there for a big game, it is one of the few places I can feel the electricity because it is so important to the people in the stands.”

KENTUCKY HEAD COACH BILLY GILLISPIE

ESPN GAMEDAY AT RUPP ARENA

Since hitting the road in 2005, ESPN's College Basketball GameDay has appeared twice at historic Rupp Arena. The GameDay crew, which includes Rece Davis, Jay Bilas, Hubert Davis and Digger Phelps, travels to the site of ESPN's featured Saturday night primetime game each week. GameDay visited Lexington for UK's home game with Mississippi State in 2005, and again in 2007 for a matchup with Florida.

"I love Rupp Arena. It oozes history and tradition ... on the inside. It has the feel of a basketball cathedral. Rupp is big, it is loud and it is intimidating. Kentucky wins at Rupp because the Wildcats are really good, but also because of Rupp."

— JAY BILAS, ESPN GAMEDAY

AT THE CENTER OF MEDIA ATTENTION

Kentucky basketball generates immense media attention from national, regional and local outlets. One of college basketball's largest media contingents follows the Wildcats throughout the year, home and away, to satisfy the insatiable appetite UK fans have for the Big Blue.

The exposure each Wildcat receives is not just exposure as a college basketball player. It is as a basketball player at the University of Kentucky, the best college basketball has to offer.

— JOE B. HALL, UK COACH (1973-85)

PRIME TIME EXPOSURE

As the nation's most-watched college basketball program, the Kentucky Wildcats are televised from coast-to-coast on a regular basis. Nearly every game since 1991 has been televised – nationally, regionally or statewide. During the 2008-09 season, UK will be televised nationally 13 times on either CBS (six times) or ESPN/ESPN2 (seven times). The Cats are also a regular on SEC regional TV partners Raycom Sports and FSN South.

WINNING ATMOSPHERE

RUPP ARENA

Adolph Rupp is synonymous with winning. As coach of Kentucky, he was a pioneer in the Wildcats' fast-break offense while becoming the winningest coach the game had ever seen.

The site that now serves as a tribute to his outstanding coaching accomplishments — Rupp Arena — has become one of the most recognizable gymnasiums in the world while serving as home to college basketball's most storied program.

Now in its 33rd season as the Kentucky Wildcats' home court, the facility has seen UK win 89 percent of its home games since it was opened in 1976.

Built by the city of Lexington, the arena is the major portion of the $53 million Lexington Center complex, which includes an expanded convention-exhibition hall, a 50-store tri-level enclosed shopping mall and a Hyatt Regency Hotel.

The Cats have won 19 national attendance titles since moving to Rupp for the 1976-77 season, including 12 in the last 13 years. Last year, UK averaged 22,554 fans at home.

Kentucky has rewarded those fans by posting a 415-54 (.885) all-time record in Rupp Arena, including a 236-31 (.884) record in regular-season SEC games in downtown Lexington.

An awesome structure in size and scope, Rupp Arena has served as NCAA Tournament host site 11 times, including the 1985 Final Four.

JOE CRAFT CENTER

As the headquarters of UK Athletics and Kentucky basketball, the Joe Craft Center provides the Wildcats with a multi-purpose practice and training center unlike any other in the nation. Located across the street from the Wildcat Lodge and just minutes from Rupp Arena, it brings together the various aspects of UK's practice, athletic training and treatment, strength training and conditioning, team meetings and film review all under one roof.

The building is named after Hazard (Ky.) native Joe Craft, who gave $6 million towards the $30 million state-of-the-art facility.

Wildcat student-athletes receive the very best care and treatment from a knowledgeable staff working with cutting edge facilities.

In addition to rehabilitation and treatment equipment, UK's training room features a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy room with a Hydroworx unit (underwater treadmill), an eight-person hot tub and an eight-person cold tub.

With nearly 3,500 square feet, the UK training room at the Joe Craft Center provides Kentucky basketball players with the resources to stay in top physical shape, including a physician's office for private consultations.

PROUD TO BE A NIKE ELITE SCHOOL

Only Champions Wear Titanium

Kentucky not only wears Nike, but is under an all-school contract with the athletic apparel company.

In 1997, UK signed the popular contract with the makers of the trademark swoosh. Thanks to Nike's extensive research and product development, UK student-athletes stay on the cutting edge of quality and style with all of their gear.

All 22 sports use Nike shoes and equipment and over the course of the contract, the Wildcats will receive millions of dollars worth of clothing, equipment and cash. The men's basketball team has been recognized by the apparel company as a "Titanium" team – its highest distinction.

While clothing adorned with "Kentucky" was already popular throughout the nation, thanks to Nike and its international marketing reach, UK's blue and white can now be found worldwide.

KENTUCKY BASKETBALL TIMELINE

February 18, 1903

State College (Kentucky) records its first win, an 11-10 decision over Lexington YMCA. The Wildcats finished that first season with a 1-2 record.

February 18, 1909

With a 28-23 win over Cincinnati, Kentucky clinched its first winning season in school history. Following a "Senior Day" loss to Central University, the Wildcats ended the year with a 5-4 record.

January, 1910

E. R. Sweetland signs a three-year pact as State's Director of Athletics and its first basketball coach.

March 1, 1912

Kentucky defeats Georgetown College, 19-18, to complete the season with a perfect 9-0 record and earn its first title as Southern Champions.

March 1, 1921

Kentucky upsets Tulane, Mercer, Mississippi A&M and Georgia to win the first Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association basketball championship. Hundreds of Wildcats fans await "play-by-play" via telegraph, and greet the team's train with a celebration and parade in downtown Lexington. It is believed to be the first college basketball tournament ever played.

Spring, 1921

Basil Hayden becomes UK's first All-America basketball player.

January 21, 1922

The Wildcats beat Louisville, 29-22, for their 100th victory.

Dec. 13, 1924

The Wildcats defeat Cincinnati in their first game in the new, 2,800-seat, $100,000 Alumni Gymnasium.

March 21, 1930

A Freeport, Ill., high school coach named Adolph Rupp is named head basketball coach at the University of Kentucky.

Dec. 18, 1930

UK defeats Georgetown College, 67-19, for the first of Adolph Rupp's 876 victories.

The 1909 Wildcats were the first to record a winning record, 5-4. Carey Spicer was Adolph Rupp's first All-American in 1931. Forest Sale was an All-American in 1932 and 1933.

Feb. 28, 1933

UK wins the first Southeastern Conference Tournament Championship by defeating Mississippi State, 46-27, in Atlanta.

Feb. 17, 1934

UK establishes a national record with its 23rd consecutive win (47-27 over Vanderbilt). Near riot erupts as fans vie for seats in Alumni Gym.

Feb. 14, 1938

Joe Hagan's 48-foot shot with 12 seconds left lifts the Wildcats over Marquette, 35-33. After the game, Gov. A. B. "Happy" Chandler pounds a nail into the floor to mark the spot where the shot was taken.

March 20, 1942

After winning its sixth SEC championship, UK wins its first NCAA Tournament game, 46-44, over Illinois.

March 20, 1946

UK wins Rupp's first national title, with a 46-45 victory over Rhode Island.

March 24, 1947

Before a Madison Square Garden record crowd of 18,493, Wat Misaka held Ralph Beard to two points and Utah ended the Wildcats' bid for back-to-back NIT Championships.

March 23, 1948

Adolph Rupp's "Fabulous Five" wins UK's first NCAA Championship, 58-42, over Baylor. The team is met in Lexington by 15,000 fans and given a parade on a fire truck.

August 13, 1948

The U.S. Olympic basketball team, featuring Kentucky's "Fabulous Five," wins the gold medal by defeating France, 64-21, at Wembley Stadium in London.

March 8, 1949

Kentucky ends the year ranked No. 1 in the first season of the Associated Press basketball poll.

March 26, 1949

UK wins its second consecutive NCAA championship, defeating Oklahoma A&M, 46-36, in Seattle.

Dec. 1, 1950

UK plays its first game in the new, $3.9 million, 11,500-seat Memorial Coliseum. Skeptics label the building a "white elephant."

March 27, 1951

UK wins its third NCAA title, defeating Kansas State, 68-58, in the finals in Minneapolis.

1952-53

UK's season is suspended by the NCAA.

Dec. 5, 1953

Cawood Ledford broadcasts his first game as the radio "Voice of the Wildcats."

March 9, 1954

Kentucky beats LSU, 63-56, in an SEC playoff game to cap a perfect 25-0 season and finish with the nation's No. 1 ranking.

Adolph Rupp and assistant Paul McBrayer made UK a national power in the early 1940s. Ralph Beard, Wah Jones, Cliff Hagan and John Crigler excelled under Rupp.

Jan. 8, 1955

Fans are stunned as Georgia Tech defeats UK, 59-58, in Memorial Coliseum, ending a 129-game home winning streak that still stands as a national record.

Dec. 7, 1957

What was then referred to as “the longest game in UK history” proves fruitful for the Wildcats as they defeat Temple 85-83 in three overtimes. Vernon Hatton scores UK’s final six points to edge the Owls.

March 21, 1958

In the Wildcats’ first game in Freedom Hall Vernon Hatton’s layup with 17 seconds left pushes the Wildcats past Temple, 61-60, and into the NCAA Championship game.

March 22, 1958

UK wins its fourth NCAA title by defeating Seattle, 84-72, in Louisville. The “Fiddlin’ Five” was led by Vernon Hatton’s 30 points. The win gave Rupp his most coveted title, the one he vowed to win after the NCAA had suspended UK’s 1953 season.

March 19, 1966

In one of the biggest upsets in NCAA Tournament history, top-ranked UK, featuring “Rupp’s Runts,” loses in the NCAA Championship game, 72-65, to Texas Western.

Jan. 27, 1968

At the time, it was believed that Adolph Rupp became college basketball’s all-time winningest coach when the Wildcats overcame a record-setting 52-point performance by LSU’s Pete Maravich to defeat the Tigers, 121-95. Years later, it was discovered that he had achieved that feat on Feb. 18, 1967, with a 103-74 win over Mississippi State.

Jan. 18, 1969

On the road against its long-time rival, UK became the first team in college basketball history to win 1,000 games, defeating Tennessee, 69-66.

June 9, 1969

Tom Payne, a seven-foot All-American from Louisville, becomes the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky.

Feb. 28, 1970

Dan Issel becomes UK’s first player to score 2,000 career points as UK defeats Vanderbilt, 90-86.

March 14, 1970

Dan Issel scores his 2,138th point, etching his name into the record book as UK’s all-time leading scorer. The top-ranked Wildcats are upset by Jacksonville, 106-100, in the NCAA Tournament.

March 18, 1972

Adolph Rupp coaches his last game at UK, a 73-54 loss to Florida State in the NCAA Tournament.

Dec. 2, 1972

Joe B. Hall coaches his first game as head coach at UK, a 75-66 win at Michigan State. UK goes on to win the SEC Championship and finish 22-8 during Hall’s inaugural season.

Louie Dampier and “Rupp’s Runts” in an NCAA semifinal win over Duke in 1966. Dan Issel remains UK’s all-time leading scorer. Joe B. Hall gave UK its fifth NCAA title in 1978.

March 22, 1975

UK upsets undefeated Indiana in the Mideast Regional semifinals to earn a trip to the Final Four. Before the title game with UCLA, legendary coach John Wooden announces his retirement. The Bruins go on to defeat UK, 92-85, on March 31.

March 8, 1976

Jack Givens keys a late rally as UK outlasts Mississippi State, 94-93 in overtime, in the last game played at Memorial Coliseum.

March 21, 1976

UK wins its second NIT Championship by defeating North Carolina-Charlotte, 71-67 in New York.

Nov. 27, 1976

UK defeats Wisconsin, 72-64, in the new, 23,000-seat, $53 million Rupp Arena. Rick Robey scores the first goal in Rupp with 19:30 left to play in the first half.

Dec. 10, 1977

As top-ranked UK is defeating Kansas on "Adolph Rupp Night" in Allen Field House on Naismith Drive in Lawrence, Kansas, Rupp dies. Thousands would participate in the funeral procession in Lexington.

March 27, 1978

Jack "Goose" Givens scores 41 points as UK wins its fifth NCAA Championship, 94-88, over Duke in St. Louis. More than 10,000 fans greet the team at Blue Grass Airport and 15,000 more celebrate at Memorial Coliseum.

March 26, 1983

In the first meeting between the schools in 24 years, Louisville defeats UK 80-68 in overtime to earn a trip to the Final Four.

March 31, 1984

Georgetown outscores UK 23-2 at the start of the second half to defeat the Wildcats, 53-40, in the NCAA semifinal game in Seattle.

March 22, 1985

Joe B. Hall announces his retirement after UK loses to St. John's, 86-70, in the NCAA West Regional in Denver.

Nov. 22, 1985

Eddie Sutton coaches his first game at Kentucky, a 77-58 win over Northwestern (La.) State.

Dec. 29, 1986

Following the Wildcats' 85-51 win at Louisville on Dec. 27, more than 19,000 fans filled Freedom Hall for a Kentucky practice to usher in the era of school-boy legend Rex Chapman.

March 10, 1989

Kentucky finishes the year with a 13-19 record, its first losing mark in 61 seasons.

March 19, 1989

In the wake of an NCAA investigation, Eddie Sutton resigns as UK basketball coach.

Sam Bowie, Kenny Walker and Rex Chapman were the stars of the '80s, while Rick Pitino's 1992 squad was truly "Unforgettable." Legendary broadcaster Cawood Ledford.

March 2, 1991

Before a crowd of 24,310 at Rupp Arena, Kentucky defeats Auburn, 114-93, to claim the best record in the Southeastern Conference and end its two-year probation.

March 15, 1992

Eligible for postseason play for the first time in three years, Kentucky dominates Alabama, 80-54, to take its 16th SEC Tournament Championship.

March 28, 1992

In what many called the "best NCAA Tournament game ever," Kentucky takes defending NCAA champion Duke into overtime before losing 104-103 in the East Regional finals in Philadelphia. A last-second shot by Christian Laettner sends Duke to the Final Four, and breaks the hearts of Wildcat fans everywhere. It is Cawood Ledford's last game as the "Voice of the Wildcats."

April 3, 1993

Kentucky faces Michigan in the NCAA semifinals, marking UK's 10th Final Four appearance. An 81-78 overtime loss to the Wolverines ended Kentucky's season at 30-4 and marked All-American Jamal Mashburn's last game in UK blue.

Feb. 15, 1994

Trailing by 31 points with 15:34 remaining in the game at LSU, the Wildcats pull off a Mardi Gras miracle. Connecting on 11 three-pointers and outscoring the Bayou Bengals 62-27 during the final 15:34, UK storms back to a 99-95 victory – the greatest comeback in UK history.

March 2, 1996

With a 101-63 victory over Vanderbilt in Rupp Arena on Senior Day, UK became the first team in 40 years to finish with a perfect record in the SEC, a 16-0 sweep. It was the Wildcats' 25th win in a row, tying the school record for consecutive wins in a season. Two games later, they set the new record at 27 games.

April 1, 1996

After avenging an early season loss to UMass with a win in the NCAA semifinals two days before, UK squashes a late Syracuse rally to win its sixth national title, 76-67.

May 6, 1997

Rick Pitino announces his resignation at Kentucky to take the challenge of rebuilding the NBA's most storied franchise, the Boston Celtics.

May 12, 1997

UK's director of athletics, C.M. Newton, introduced Orlando "Tubby" Smith as head coach.

Nov. 20, 1997

It was the dawning of an era as new head coaches Tubby Smith and Morehead State's Kyle Macy tipped off the season in Rupp Arena. Smith won his first game at UK, 88-49, over the former UK All-American and his Eagles.

March 22, 1998

In one of the most anticipated matchups of the NCAA Tournament, UK roars back from a 17-point deficit with 9:38 remaining to defeat Duke, 86-84. The victory buried the nightmare of UK-Duke '92 and advanced the Wildcats to their third straight Final Four.

March 30, 1998

The "Comeback Cats" rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to defeat Utah, 78-69, winning UK's second national title in three years, its seventh overall.

Sept. 5, 2001

After a long illness, Cawood Ledford dies at his home in Harlan. A planned tribute at Rupp Arena was canceled following the "9/11" terrorists attacks.

Dec. 8, 2001

Kentucky beats North Carolina for the Cats' 1,800th victory, the first college basketball team to reach that milestone.

March 16, 2003

After running the table in regular-season Southeastern Conference play, Kentucky defeats Mississippi State, 64-57, in the finals of the SEC Tournament to secure its 24th league tourney crown and complete a 19-0 season sweep of conference opponents. It marked the first time the feat had been accomplished in 51 seasons.

April 6, 2007

Billy Gillispie is named Kentucky's new head basketball coach. He is introduced to a crowd of more than 4,000 fans at a pep rally announcing his hiring. Gillispie replaced Tubby Smith, who left after 10 seasons at the helm of Kentucky basketball to become the head coach at Minnesota.

March 31, 2008

Long time Kentucky basketball manager Bill Keightley passed away at the age of 81 in Cincinnati. Affectionately known as "Mr. Wildcat", he had been associated with the Wildcats' basketball program since 1962. Keightley, who manned the "Bill Keightley Equipment Room" in Memorial Coliseum, was as much a fixture around UK basketball as the seven national championship trophies on display in the Joe Craft Center. A crowd of over 3,000 paid their respects at a tribute to Mr. Keightley held in Rupp Arena. Former players, coaches and managers traveled from across the country to eulogize him.

Tayshaun Prince earned All-America honors. Chuck Hayes was the backbone for teams that won 109 games from 2002-05. Rajon Rondo racked up high career steal totals. Cameron Mills introduces Billy Gillispie to the Big Blue faithful.

1947-48 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 58, BAYLOR 42

March 23, 1948 • New York, N.Y.

Alex Groza and Ralph Beard combined for 26 points and the Wildcats' defense held the Bears to 16 first-half points to capture UK's first NCAA title.

The title victory enabled the Wildcats to become only the second team ever to win both the NIT and NCAA titles. UK, which finished the season at 34-2, won the NIT title in 1946.

Paced by Groza and Beard, the Wildcats turned a 29-16 halftime lead into a 44-28 bulge midway through the second half. After Baylor rallied to cut the lead to 11, UK put the game out of reach as Wallace "Wah Wah" Jones scored four points to give the Wildcats a 15-point lead.

In addition to Groza and Beard, Kentucky also got nine points apiece from Jones and Kenneth Rollins.

KENTUCKY 46, OKLAHOMA A&M 36

March 26, 1949 • Seattle, Wash.

Paced by Alex Groza's 25 points and a defense that limited the Aggies to a mere nine field goals, the Wildcats were crowned NCAA Champions for the second straight year.

Groza, a unanimous selection as the "Player of the Tournament," scored more than twice as many points as any other player. A&M's Jack Shelton was the game's only other player to score in double figures. He finished with 12 points.

The Aggies, coached by Hank Iba, led 5-2, but the Wildcats scored seven straight points, five by Groza, and never trailed again as they took a 25-20 first-half lead.

UK extended the lead to 31-21 early in the second half and coasted the rest of the way.

1950-51 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 68, KANSAS STATE 58

March 27, 1951 • Minneapolis, Minn.

Bill Spivey scored 22 points and an ailing Cliff Hagan sparked UK to its third NCAA title. With a squad consisting of only six healthy players — Walt Hirsch was ineligible and Hagan was plagued by an infected throat — the Wildcats hardly looked like championship material as Kansas State broke out to a 20-12 lead.

It was then that Rupp inserted the ailing Hagan. It was a move that may have proved the difference as the sophomore forward sparked a rally that saw UK cut the Kansas State lead to 29-27 at the half.

Led by Hagan and Spivey, who dominated the boards, UK outscored Kansas State 41-29 in the second half to complete the come-from-behind victory.

1957-58 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 84, SEATTLE 72

March 27, 1958 • Louisville, Ky.

Senior Vernon Hatton scored 30 points and the Wildcats overcame a 25-point, 19-rebound performance by Elgin Baylor to capture their fourth NCAA championship.

Led by Hatton and Johnny Cox, who finished with 24 points, the Wildcats twice battled back from 11-point deficits to gain the victory.

Trailing for much of the game, UK grabbed its first lead with 6:08 left when Don Mills hit a hook shot to give the Wildcats a 61-60 lead. Moments later, Cox hit a jump shot to make it 63-60 and UK never trailed again.

John Crigler added 14 points and 14 rebounds for the victors. Mills and Adrian Smith finished with nine and seven points, respectively.

Aside from Baylor, Seattle received 17 points from Charley Brown and 16 from Jerry Frizzell.

1977-78 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 94, DUKE 88

March 27, 1978 • St. Louis, Mo.

Senior Jack Givens put on one of the finest individual performances in NCAA Championship history in leading the Wildcats past the Blue Devils.

With many Kentucky fans among the crowd of 18,271 chanting "Goose, Goose," Givens scored 41 points, three short of the record for a championship game, to help UK clinch its fifth NCAA title and the first in 20 years.

Givens scored 23 of his 41 points before intermission—including UK's last 16 of the half—to turn a 29-28 UK lead into a 45-38 cushion from which the Blue Devils would not recover. Overall, Givens made 18 of 27 field goal attempts, five of eight free throws and added eight rebounds and three assists.

1995-96 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 76, SYRACUSE 67

April 1, 1996 • East Rutherford, N.J.

Tony Delk tied a championship game record with seven three-pointers and the Wildcats withstood a late Orangemen rally to win UK's sixth national title before a capacity crowd of 19,229 in the Continental Airlines Arena at the Meadowlands.

Delk, the Final Four's Most Outstanding Player, canned seven of 12 three-pointers to lead the Cats with 24 points. But after Syracuse had cut the lead to two, 64-62, with 4:46 remaining, a Delk mis-fire was tipped in by Walter McCarty to extend UK's lead to four. After holding the Orangemen on the next possession, Derek Anderson drained a three to push the lead to seven. SU would get no closer than five in the final minutes.

Delk was joined on the Final Four All-Tournament team by freshman Ron Mercer, who was sensational off the bench, scoring a career-high 20 points on 8-12 shooting from the field, including 3-4 from three-point range.

1997-98 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 78, UTAH 69

March 30, 1998 • San Antonio, Texas

Kentucky battled back from a 41-31 halftime deficit to Utah — the largest halftime margin ever overcome in an NCAA title game — to claim the school's seventh national championship before 40,509 fans in the Alamodome.

Utah was propelled to the early lead thanks to a 24-6 rebounding advantage in the first half. But Heshimu Evans sparked the "Comeback Cats" off the bench with seven straight points early in the second half. Later, Final Four Most Outstanding Player Jeff Sheppard canned a baseline jumper with 4:54 remaining to give UK a 65-64 lead. The exhausted Utes then missed 11 consecutive field goals as the Wildcats claimed their second NCAA Championship in three years.

Scott Padgett joined Sheppard on the All-Final Four team after scoring 17 points. UK outrebounded the Utes 18-15 in the second half.

HELMS NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Founded in Los Angeles in the mid-1930s by Bill Schroeder and Paul Helms, the Helms Foundation researched records to rank the nation's top teams dating back to 1901. From 1939, when the NCAA Tournament started, the Helms and NCAA champions were the same, except for 1939-40-44-54. In addition to its NCAA Championship years of 1948, '49, '51, '58, '78, '96 and '98, Kentucky was named the Helms National Champion in 1933 (20-3) and 1954 (25-0).

Kentucky players Forest Sale (1933) and Leroy Edwards (1935) were named Helms National Players of the Year.

20 Coaches In 104 Seasons

Games Won—1966, Lost—621, Tied—1

- Unique tie game resulted from scorer's error discovered after game.
- + No schedule played in 1953 — Rupp's record for 41 seasons. Five wins in 1966 International Universities Tournament in Israel not included in team totals.
- « Basketball at UK reportedly started when W.W.H. Mustaine called together some students, took up a collection totaling $3 for a ball and told them to start playing. There was no official coach from 1903 until 1910. Managers ran the team.
- # Three games from 1988 NCAA Tournament vacated by decree of NCAA.

Tubby Smith led UK to the NCAA title with a 35-4 record in 1998.

Succeeding the legendary Adolph Rupp, Joe B. Hall (left) won 297 games, an NIT title and an NCAA title. Eddie Sutton (middle) coached UK from 1986-89, winning more than 69% of his games. His best team was his first, which finished 32-4. Billy Gillispie (right) is greeted by Wildcat fans after being introduced as just the sixth UK head coach in the last 77 years.

KENTUCKY ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

UK's Athletic Hall of Fame, organized in 2005, recognizes and honors persons whose participation and contributions enriched and strengthened the university athletic program. Athletes are required to wait five years after completing their Wildcat playing career before being eligible for the honor. The charter class was comprised of those individuals who had previously had their jersey retired at Rupp Arena, Commonwealth Stadium, Memorial Coliseum and Cliff Hagan Stadium.

BIG BLUE PAGE ANTRY

From frequent celebrity sightings to pre-game fireworks and videoboard introductions to special senior day festivities to the main event itself, there is nothing else like Kentucky basketball in Rupp Arena.

Forming the Y

Many well-known Wildcat fans have taken part in the traditional spelling out of Kentucky at UK games, including actress and UK alum Ashley Judd.

On, On, U of K ...

On, on U of K, we are right
for the fight today,
Hold that ball and hit that line,
every Wildcat star will shine,
We'll fight, fight, fight,
for the blue and white,
As we roll to that goal, varsity,
And we'll kick, pass and run,
'til the battle is won,
And we'll bring home the victory.

REMEMBERING BILL KEIGHTLEY

A fixture in the Kentucky basketball program for 47 years, Bill Keightley (aka “Mr. Wildcat”) cared passionately about the Kentucky uniform and everything it represented. More importantly, he also cared for each of the players who wore the uniform, spanning nearly five decades, six head coaches, 1,113 victories and three national titles.

As part of its new uniform design for the 2008-09 season, the University of Kentucky Athletics Department is proud to honor the extraordinary life of Bill Keightley (1926-2008) with a black bar patch on the right shoulder that is embroidered with the words, Mr. Wildcat. In addition, the letter “K” in the spelling of Kentucky on the front of the jersey is printed in black.

A lifetime of EXCELLENCE
