SUPPORT

“To those who swear by it and seemingly live for it, Kentucky basketball is commonly characterized by NCAA championships, a chromatic half-century panorama featuring the enduring images of the Baron in his brown suit, Cliff Hagan’s hook shot, Kyle Macy wiping his hands on his socks, Pitino’s press, the nicknamed teams – the Fabulous Five, the Fiddlin’ Five, Rupp’s Runts, the Unforgettables – and perhaps most indelibly, the mountain family gathered around the wood stove, lost in the wintry radio voice of Cawood Ledford.”

— LONNIE WHEELER, CINCINNATI POST

THE BULL

“There are three keys to winning, winning championships. The first thing is have really good players. The second thing is have really good players. And I hate to tell you that’s the third thing.”

— JOHN CALIPARI

“As a basketball coach, I don’t make a whole lot of promises; never have. But we make commitments. The commitment being, this will be about players first. I know how big this program is. But it’s only big because of the players who have gone through here. This program will be about players first.”

2010-11 RECRUITING CLASS

“Calipari gets players. He gets big players. He gets quick players. He gets talented players. He gets monstrously talented players.”

Degrees Happen Here

“Obviously academics are important. When I walk into a home, I want those young men and those families to know that we’re going to be there. My job is to make sure there’s growth academically, and they’re on line to graduate. It’s pretty obvious I’ve done that over my career as a coach.”

KENTUCKY PLAYERS WORK WITH THE BEST

The UK men’s basketball team works with Academic Counselor Michael Stone as part of the Ohio Casualty Center for Academic & Tutorial Services (CATS). Stone has been the counselor for men’s basketball at Kentucky since 2002 and helped UK earn an NCAA APR public recognition award in 2009 for placing in the top 10 percent of the nation’s men’s basketball scores.

HEAD COACH

Second-year UK head coach John Calipari continued to work his magic, taking an NIT team in 2009 to the 2010 NCAA Elite Eight. Along the way he led the Wildcats to a No. 1 ranking (UK's first since 2003), the program's 44th SEC Championship and 26th SEC Tournament title.

The honors continued after the season as Calipari became the first coach in UK history to receive the Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year award. He then watched as five of his players were selected in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft, the first time a school has ever produced five first round picks. Among those picks was the first Wildcat ever taken as the No. 1 overall pick, John Wall.

In his inaugural season as head coach of the Wildcats, Calipari posted his fifth-straight 30-win season, the only coach in NCAA Division I history to do so. In addition to the Rupp National Coach of the Year, Calipari was also named the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year.

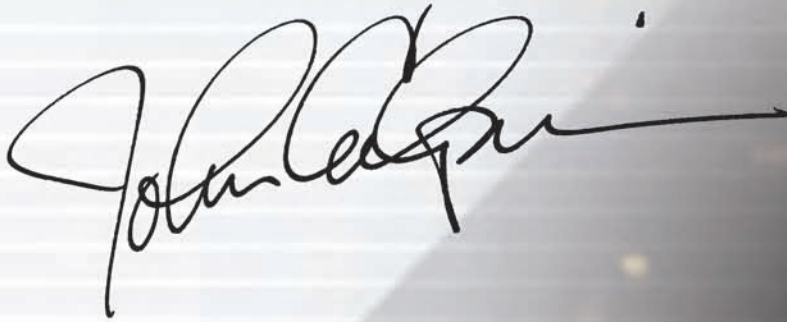

When he led Kentucky back to the No. 1 spot in the country, Calipari became one of only two coaches (Frank McGuire) in NCAA history to lead three teams to a No. 1 ranking. He led UMass to a No. 1 ranking in 1995 and 1996 and he led Memphis to the No. 1 spot in the 2008 season.

Since the 2005-06 season, Coach Cal ranks as the winningest coach over the last five years.

After bringing the University of Massachusetts basketball program to national prominence in the '90s and resurrecting the Memphis basketball program in the 2000s, Calipari became the 22nd coach in UK history, and is the seventh in the last 80 years.

Following his first season at UK, Calipari's overall record soared to 480-143 for an impressive 77.0 winning percentage. His 480 wins are the second-most in NCAA Division I history in the first 18 years, Roy Williams being the other.

john

Calipari's 77.0 winning percentage is the third-highest among active NCAA Division I coaches with 10 years experience at college basketball's Division I level, trailing only Mark Few and Roy Williams. On the NCAA Division I list for winning percentage for all coaches (minimum 10 years), Calipari is in 10th place and ahead of Krzyzewski, Jim Boeheim, Bob Huggins and Lute Olson.

With his five 30-win seasons, Calipari now has seven for his career, which is tied for the third-most (Jim Calhoun) for a head coach in NCAA Division I history. For his career (18 years), Calipari has 16 20-win seasons and 10 25-win campaigns.

In 1996, Calipari moved from UMass to the NBA after leading the Minutemen to the Final Four. For his efforts, Calipari was named Naismith National Coach of the Year.

Calipari led the Tigers to the 2008 NCAA title game, and Memphis' 38 wins in 2007-08 made him the winningest coach for a single season in NCAA history. As a result, Calipari was named Naismith National Coach of the Year for a second time in his career. He is only the second coach to receive the honor multiple times since the award's inception in 1987. Duke's Mike Krzyzewski is the other to do so.

Calipari, the 2009 Sports Illustrated National Coach of the Year, led the Tigers to nine-straight 20-win campaigns and nine-consecutive postseason appearances, the only Memphis coach to do that. He posted 252 wins — 28 wins per season — as the Tigers' head coach, making him the winningest coach in school history.

Much like he did at UMass, when his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari did the same at Memphis. Fifteen of the last 18 seniors that came through the Tiger program have earned their bachelor's degrees and the three seniors this season are on schedule to graduate in the spring of 2009.

Calipari compiled a 193-71 record (.731) during his eight-year career at Massachusetts, including a 108-44 mark (.684) in Atlantic 10 play. In addition to five-straight NCAA Tournaments, UMass also made two appearances in the NIT, advancing to the NIT final four in 1991. The 1990-91 season was the first of six-straight seasons in which the Minutemen won at least 20 games.

Calipari's personal 20-win streak has reached the 16-season mark after 35 wins in his first year at UK. All nine of his Memphis clubs won 20-plus games, along with his last six teams at UMass. In his final season at UMass, Calipari was named the 1996 Naismith National Coach of the Year and The Sporting News National Coach of the Year. He was also named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the third time in four years, as well as Basketball Times East Region Coach of the Year.

During the Minutemen's 35-2 season in 1995-96, UMass posted wins over Kentucky, Maryland, Wake Forest, Georgia Tech, Syracuse, Virginia Tech and Louisville. UMass ended the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final regular season poll after being the top-ranked team for nine weeks earlier in the year. The Minutemen also won their first 26 games of the season, setting a school record for most consecutive wins.

In addition to his National Coach of the Year honors in 1996, Calipari was a Naismith Coach of the Year finalist in 1994 and 1995. He was the USBWA District I Coach of the Year in 1993.

At 29, when he was named head coach, Calipari began to build a program from the ground up, going 10-18 his first season before posting a 17-14 record his second year (receiving a bid to the NIT).

The Minutemen won their first A-10 championship in 1992 with a 30-5 record, including a 13-3 mark in league play. With a 77-71 overtime win over Syracuse in an East Regional second-round game, UMass made its first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

Calipari left UMass in June of 1996 to become Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations and Head Coach of the New Jersey Nets. He led the Nets to a second-place finish in the NBA's Atlantic Division and the playoffs in 1998, ending a five-year postseason drought for the franchise. The Nets' 17-game turnaround from the previous year was the best that season in the NBA.

He became a member of the Philadelphia 76ers coaching staff in 1999, rejoining Philadelphia coach Larry Brown, for whom Calipari was an assistant at Kansas.

Calipari began his coaching career at Kansas as a volunteer assistant under Ted Owens. In 1983, he was hired as the recruiting coordinator at the University of Vermont, but was swayed back to the nation's heartland when Brown was hired as head coach at KU. He spent three seasons at Kansas (1982-85) before another three-year stint as an assistant coach to Paul Evans at Pittsburgh (1985-88).

The 51-year-old lettered two years at North Carolina-Wilmington before transferring to Clarion State. He played point guard at Clarion during the 1981 and 1982 seasons, leading the team in assists and free throw percentage. The Eagles were ranked in the Division II Top 20 both years and participated in the 1981 NCAA Division II Tournament.

Calipari and his wife, Ellen, have two daughters, Erin Sue and Megan Rae, and a son, Bradley Vincent. Erin graduated from UMass and is now in her second year of grad school at Wake Forest, while Megan is a junior at UMass.

- Calipari is one of two coaches in NCAA Division I history to have 400 or more wins in the first 16 years as a head coach. Calipari had 412 wins in his first 16 years. Roy Williams is the other coach to do so.
- Calipari is the winningest coach in NCAA Division I history for a five-year span with 172 victories (2006-10). His 38 wins in 2007-08 are the most coaching victories by a coach in a single season in NCAA Division I history.
- Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight 30-win seasons.
- His teams have won 56 of their last 58 regular-season games, dating back to Dec. 22, 2008. Prior to his two losses in the 2009-10 season, his last loss in a regular-season game came on Dec. 20, 2008 vs. Syracuse.
- Calipari's teams own a 46-6 record on the road dating back to 2005-06 season.
- Since taking over at Memphis in 2000, Calipari teams have posted a 172-19 record in home games.
- His conference regular-season win streak of 54 consecutive games broke the longest regular-season conference win streak of 51 by Adolph Rupp from 1950-54.
- His teams have won 65 straight games versus league opponents, including conference tournaments. Adolph Rupp held the record with 64 straight wins in the SEC (including the SEC Tournament) from 1945 to 1950.

In his initial season with the Wildcats, Antigua saw three of his recruits drafted in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft. As a result, he was named one of Yahoo! Sports Top 10 college basketball recruiters.

When he joined the Memphis staff in 2008, the Tigers were the winningest program over a three-year span in NCAA Division I, recording 104 victories from 2005-08. So what did Antigua do? He helped coach the Tigers to a 33-4 record and a spot in the 2009 NCAA Sweet 16. For the fourth straight season, the Tigers took the regular season and tournament titles, going undefeated in C-USA three of the four years.

Prior to his brief stay in Memphis, Antigua worked at his alma mater, Pittsburgh. During his five years at Pitt, he helped lead the Panthers to an overall record of 132-40 (.767 winning percentage) and a Big East Conference mark of 55-27 (.670 winning percentage). Pittsburgh recorded five straight 20-win campaigns and won 10 or more league games five consecutive years.

The Panthers had just as much success in the postseason during Antigua's years. Pitt won the 2003-04 Big East regular-season crown and advanced to four Big East Tournament championship games in his five years on staff, claiming the 2008 league postseason title. The Panthers earned NCAA Tournament bids all five of Antigua's years and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2004 and 2007.

Orlando

Antigua's first stint with Pittsburgh was his collegiate playing days from 1991-95. A four-year letterwinner and two-time team captain, Antigua ranks in the top 15 on the Panthers' all-time 3-pointers made (14th with 117 treys), blocked shots (14th with 78 swats) and career 3-point percentage (seventh at 38.6 percent).

A 1992 Big East Conference All-Rookie Team pick, Antigua helped lead the Panthers to an 18-16 record and a National Invitation Tournament (NIT) berth as a freshman. The following year, Antigua's Panthers went 17-11 and earned an NCAA Tournament bid. In 1994, he was named the United States Basketball Writers' Association (USBWA) Most Courageous Athlete, an honor presented annually to the college basketball player who displays courage on and off the court. Antigua graduated from Pittsburgh with a degree in social sciences in December 1995.

After graduation, Antigua was selected to play for the world-renowned Harlem Globetrotters, becoming the first player of Latin American descent to play for the squad. Nicknamed "Hurricane" for his dazzling moves, Antigua played with the Globetrotters for seven years until 2002.

Antigua also played in the Puerto Rico Superior Basketball League for eight years, and in both 1994-95 and 1997-98, he was a member of the Dominican Republic national team. Because of his dedication to the community, Antigua was named one of the nation's top 100 most influential Hispanic Americans by Hispanic Business magazine.

Prior to rejoining the Panthers' program, Antigua served as an assistant basketball coach at nearby Mt. Lebanon High School in 2002-03.

A Dominican Republic native who was raised in Bronx, N.Y., Antigua recovered from a 1988 Halloween incident where he was shot in the head near his left eye. Undeterred by the incident, Antigua quickly returned to the playing court two weeks later and went on to play three seasons at Pittsburgh with the slug in his head. Doctors initially ruled out removing the bullet as being too risky, but Antigua began suffering severe headaches.

Antigua's family also went through a period of homelessness. The oldest of three brothers, Antigua was credited with keeping the family together while housing was secured.

He overcame these difficulties and went on to serve as student council president at St. Raymond's High School. As a member of the school's basketball squad, Antigua played a major role in the team's New York Catholic League championship run. As a senior, he earned McDonald's All-America and Parade magazine All-America second-team honors and was also named All-New York City.

Fluent in Spanish, Antigua and his wife, Dana, have two children, a son, Orlando Anthony, and a daughter, Olivia.

KENNY PAYNE

ASSISTANT COACH

Kenny Payne begins his first year with John Calipari and Kentucky men's basketball as an assistant coach after spending the past six seasons as an assistant at Oregon.

During his tenure at Oregon, Payne helped the Ducks burst onto the national scene with two NCAA Tournament appearances in 2007 and 2008. Oregon also claimed one Pacific-10 Tournament title and three Ducks were selected in the first and second rounds of the NBA Draft under Payne.

During the 2006-07 season, the Ducks recorded an 11-7 Pac-10 record and dropped no other regular-season games, finishing with a 29-8 overall record. That season, Oregon captured the Pac-10 Tournament title and followed the tournament run with an impressive performance at the NCAA Tournament. The Ducks earned a No. 3 seed in the tournament and advanced to the Elite Eight, where they lost to eventual champion Florida.

The Ducks followed their Elite Eight run with another appearance in the 2008 NCAA Tournament. Payne and the Oregon coaching staff then brought in a top-20 recruiting class for the 2008 season with six highly-touted recruits.

Prior to coaching, Payne travelled the globe playing basketball for 10 different professional leagues. In 1989, Payne was chosen in the first round and 19th overall in the NBA Draft, playing four years for the Philadelphia 76ers.

Payne competed in the Continental Basketball Association (Tri-Cities, Wash.) and overseas in Italy, Japan, Brazil, the Philippines, Cypress, China and Argentina. He finished his professional career in 2000 following a season with Team Taipans of Cairns, Australia.

kenny

A four-year letterwinner at Louisville from 1985-89, Payne joined the Cardinals from Northeast Jones High School in Laurel, Miss., where he was a Parade All-American and the state's player of the year.

Payne helped lead Louisville to the 1986 NCAA national championship as a sophomore when he appeared in 34 games and averaged 3.6 points per game. As a senior, Payne averaged 14.5 points and 5.7 rebounds per game and was named second-team All-Metro Conference.

By the end of his Louisville career, Payne registered 1,083 points and shot 40 percent from 3-point range.

Payne earned a bachelor's of science in sport administration from Louisville in 2003.

He and his wife, Michelle, have two children, Alexis and Alexander.

JOHN ROBIC

ASSISTANT COACH

John Robic is in his second season with the Kentucky basketball program but is a long time associate of UK head coach John Calipari.

Beginning with their first season together at UMass in 1988-89, where Robic was an assistant under Calipari, the two are entering their 14th season together.

And it seems as if the Calipari-Robic duo is a proven combination for thrilling basketball seasons. Similar to those magical years he assisted in at UMass in the 1990s, Robic helped lead Memphis to the program's most storied era in school history in four seasons at Memphis (2006-09) as well as helping return Kentucky back among the nation's elite.

Robic helped the Wildcats post a 35-3 mark in his inaugural season at Kentucky. The Cats made an appearance in the 2010 Elite Eight while claiming SEC regular-season and tournament championships along the way.

He helped UK make history when five Wildcats were drafted in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft.

His last four years at Memphis, the Tigers won an NCAA record 137 games (137-14 record), while advancing to the 2006 and 2007 NCAA Elite Eights, the 2008 NCAA title game and sweeping the 2006-09 Conference USA regular season and tournament crowns. Memphis had win streaks of 27 games in 2008-09, 26 games in 2007-08 and 25 games in 2006-07, and the Tigers spent each week of the last four years in the national polls.

In 2007-08, Robic was a part of the Tigers' "Dream Season," which lasted through the NCAA championship game. Memphis set an NCAA record for victories with 38 wins (38-2 mark) and held down the No. 1 spot in both national polls for a school-record five straight weeks during the season.

Prior to 2005-06, Robic directed the Youngstown State program from 1999-2005. During his time there, he and his staff faced a huge challenge as the Penguins moved from the Mid-Continent Conference (Mid-Con) to the Horizon League, one of the nation's premier basketball conferences that includes Butler (2003, 2007 NCAA Sweet 16) and Wisconsin-Milwaukee (2005 NCAA Sweet 16).

john

Prior to its move to the Horizon League, Youngstown State put together a tremendous year in the Mid-Con in 2000-01, Robic's second year at the helm. The Penguins posted a 19-11 overall mark and an 11-5 Mid-Con record. The 19 overall wins were the second most in 16 seasons, and the 11 league victories tied the school record for most conference wins.

Before taking over at Youngstown State, Robic served as an assistant for 11 years at UMass for both Calipari and Bruiser Flint.

He played an integral role in building the Minutemen into a national power. After a 10-18 mark his first season on staff, Robic helped lead the Minutemen to nine consecutive winning campaigns.

From 1990-96, the Minutemen averaged 26 wins per year and had six straight 20-win seasons, including two 30-victory campaigns. UMass made the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in 1992, Elite Eight in 1995 and Final Four in 1996. It was UMass' first appearance on college basketball's largest stage.

After Calipari moved on to the NBA, Robic remained at UMass and was elevated to the associate head coach post under Flint from 1997-99. During his tenure at UMass, the Minutemen posted a 247-111 overall record (.690 winning percentage) and earned nine postseason tournament bids (seven NCAA, two NIT).

Prior to joining Calipari at UMass, Robic served as a graduate assistant on Larry Brown's staff at Kansas for two years (1986-87, 1987-88).

A graduate of North Hills High School in Pittsburgh, Pa., Robic attended Walsh College in Canton, Ohio, before transferring to Denison University in Granville, Ohio, where he earned his B.A. in speech communication and physical education in 1986.

At Denison, Robic garnered Division III All-America accolades as a senior and was a two-time all-conference performer. He was one of 10 former players to be named to the 10th Anniversary All-Decade Team in the league in 1994. In the fall of 2006, he was inducted into the Denison Athletic Hall of Fame. Robic was inducted into the North Hills High School Hall of Fame in 2004.

Robic and his wife, Heidi, have three daughters, Hayley, Alli and Sophie.

ROD STRICKLAND

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

Rod Strickland is in his second season on staff at Kentucky. A two-time All-American at DePaul and a 17-year NBA veteran, Strickland brings a wealth of collegiate and professional experience to John Calipari's Kentucky staff as a special assistant to the head coach. Strickland began his tenure under Calipari as director of student-athlete development/manager at Memphis in fall 2006, and in the summer of 2008, he was named director of basketball operations for the Tigers.

With Strickland on staff, Memphis posted a 104-10 record and continued to dominate Conference USA. In his three seasons with the Tigers, the team won three consecutive C-USA regular-season and tournament titles. Memphis reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament in 2009 and advanced to the Elite Eight in 2007. In 2008, the Tigers competed in the NCAA Tournament championship game and set the NCAA Division I record for victories in a single season with a 38-2 record.

The New York City native went to Memphis after a lengthy and successful career in the NBA. The 6-foot-3 guard was an NBA first round draft pick of the New York Knicks in 1988, and during his career, Strickland played for New York, San Antonio, Portland, Washington, Miami, Minnesota, Orlando, Toronto and Houston. Strickland played in 1,094 games and scored more than 14,000 points (13.2 career average) and dished out nearly 8,000 assists (7.3 career average).

The 1997-98 NBA campaign with Washington was Strickland's best, as he averaged a double-double with 17.8 points and 10.5 assists. His 10.5 assist average led the NBA that year, and he was selected to the All-NBA second team. That year, Strickland also became only the 25th player in NBA history to record 10,000 points and 5,000 assists. He also ranked among the NBA's top 10 in assists in the 1991-92 (fifth), 1993-94 (sixth), 1994-95 (fifth) and 1995-96 (fourth) seasons.

Prior to his time in the NBA, Strickland enjoyed a stellar career at DePaul. A 1987 and 1988 All-America pick, Strickland helped lead the Blue Demons to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1985-88, including Sweet 16 showings in 1986 and 1987. The four-time Blue Demon letterwinner ranks among the program's career leaders in scoring average (eighth; 16.6 ppg), assists (third; 557) and steals (second; 204).

In September of 2008, Strickland was inducted into the New York City Basketball Hall of Fame. Joining Strickland in the 19th induction class were Kenny Anderson, Louis Bender, Pete Gillen, Joe Goldstein, Bob McCullough, Sam Perkins and Eddie Younger.

Strickland and his wife, Cheryl, have four children, Torin, Tai, Terell and Tanner.

MARTIN NEWTON

DIRECTOR OF
BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Martin Newton is in his second season with the Kentucky basketball program, serving as the director of basketball operations.

Prior to joining Coach John Calipari's staff, Newton worked with Nike as Nike College Basketball Manager for 13 years, forming relationships with some of the highest profile collegiate basketball programs and personalities throughout the nation.

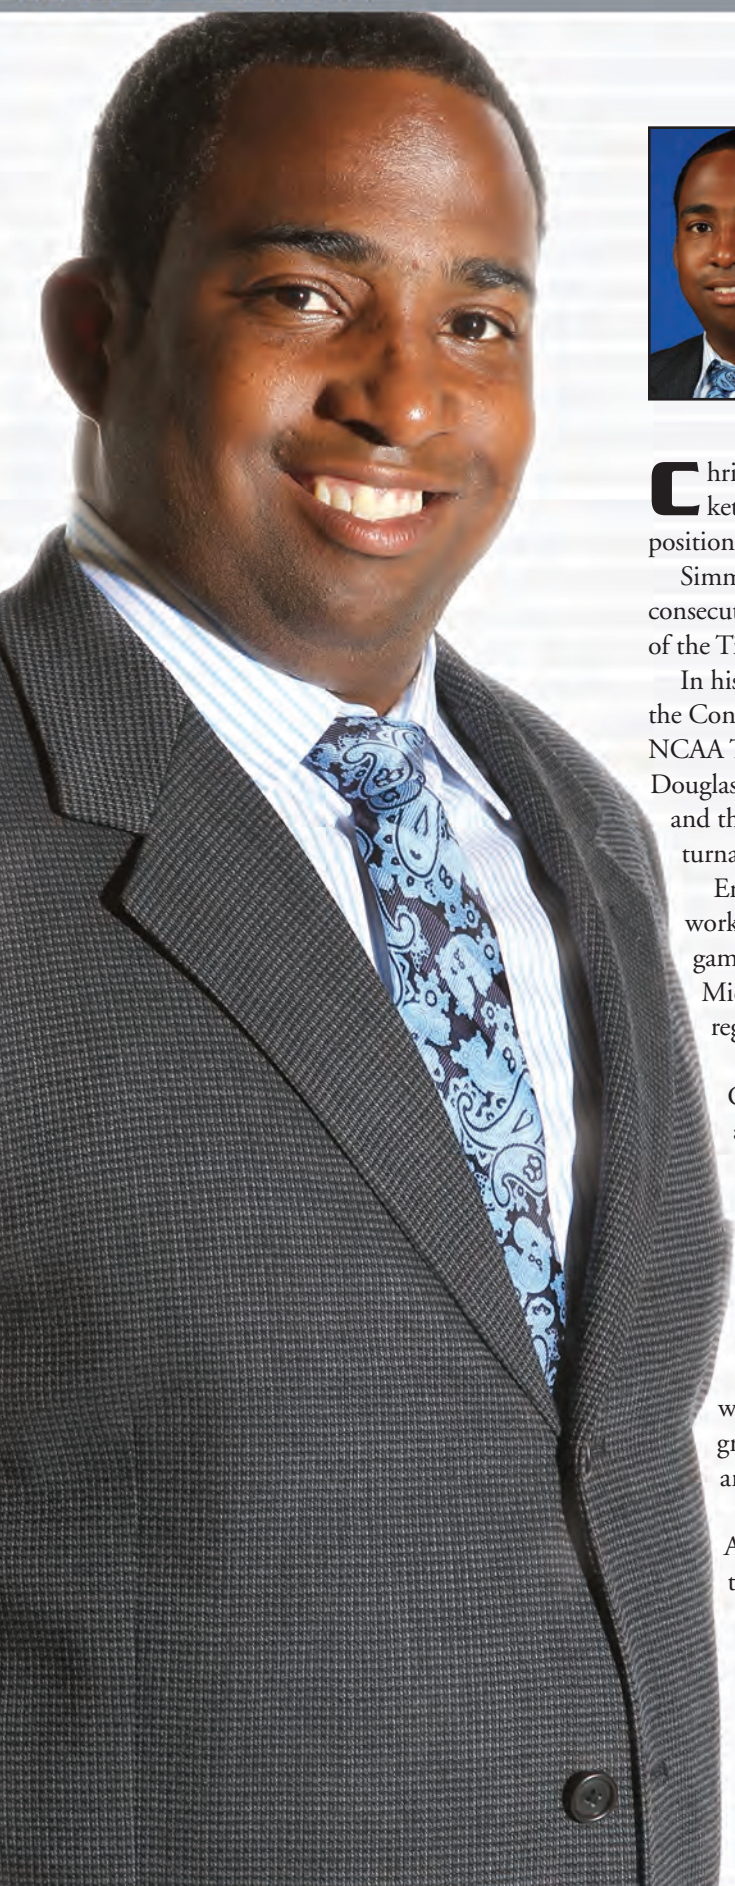

Before working with Nike, Newton spent 13 years working with Converse in sales and promotions and sports marketing.

Newton is no stranger to Kentucky basketball, having served as the television color commentator on the Big Blue Sports Network from 1996-2006. Prior to that, he served as the color commentator for the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers' basketball broadcasts.

A graduate of Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., Newton was a four-year starter at point guard for the Bulldogs, who he led in assists for four consecutive years.

Newton is married to the former Cindy Smith of Tuscaloosa, Ala. Together they have three children, Katie, Madison and Charles "Newty," who is currently a sophomore basketball player at Tennessee Tech University.

CHRIS SIMMONS

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chris Simmons begins his second season as head athletic trainer for men's basketball at the University of Kentucky after serving three seasons in a similar position at the University of Memphis.

Simmons was a member of the Tiger staff that helped direct Memphis to three consecutive record-setting seasons. While at Memphis, he was involved in all aspects of the Tigers' day-to-day medical and rehabilitative needs.

In his first year on staff in 2006-07, Memphis posted a 33-4 overall record, won the Conference USA regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. In fact, Simmons' around-the-clock aid on Chris Douglas-Roberts' sprained ankle in between the NCAA Tournament second round and the region semifinal got the Tiger guard ready for action with only a three-day turnaround.

En route to the NCAA title contest in the 2007-08 season, Simmons' quick work on Derrick Rose's cut above his eye suffered in the South Region semifinal game against Michigan State aided the Tigers' postseason run. Rose finished the Michigan State game and had a tremendous performance against Texas in the regional final to claim the NCAA South Region MVP honor.

In the summer of 2008, Simmons also served as athletic trainer for the Conference USA All-Star team that played a three-game exhibition tour against the Chinese National Team in China.

Prior to his time at Memphis, Simmons spent the 2005-06 basketball season as head athletic trainer/coordinator of basketball operations with the Arkansas RimRockers of the NBA Development League.

No stranger to the Southeastern Conference, Simmons earned his master's in 2004 from the University of Arkansas. During his tenure with the Razorbacks, he served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for football.

Prior to his time at Arkansas, he served as an athletic training intern with the National Football League's Cleveland Browns. Simmons is a 2002 graduate of the University of Memphis with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science.

The native of McComb, Miss., is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and a Performance Enhancement Specialist through the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

MIKE MALONE

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Mike Malone is in his first season with the Kentucky basketball program. He comes to the University of Kentucky after serving as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Minnesota since 2006. Malone developed the strength and conditioning program for the Minnesota baseball team, which appeared in NCAA Regionals in 2007, 2009 and 2010. He also assisted with men's and women's hockey, men's basketball, football men's and women's golf, and men's swimming.

Prior to the University of Minnesota, Malone worked for the Anaheim Angels organization at their double-A team in Little Rock, Ark. Previous to that Malone worked as the assistant director of performance enhancement for the University of Memphis basketball team that went to the Elite Eight in 2006 and produced two first-round NBA draft picks.

Previously, Malone was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at James Madison, assisting with more than 20 men's and women's sports. Prior to James Madison, he was also a strength and conditioning coach for the nine-time Division III football National Champion Mount Union Purple Raiders.

Malone has worked at Iowa State University and the University of Pittsburgh as an intern. He has worked with various sports and numerous professional athletes in the NHL, NFL, NBA, MLB, PGA Tour and professional boxing.

Coach Malone has also worked the Cincinnati Bengals training camp in the summers of 2007, 2008 and 2009.

The Wauwatosa, Wisc., native is a 2001 graduate of Mount Union College, earning a degree in exercise science. While at Mount Union, Malone was part of two Division III national championship football teams in 1998 and 2000.

BRYAN SETTLE

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Bryan Settle is in his second year working with the Kentucky basketball program as the equipment manager but his seventh year on John Calipari's staff.

Settle spent two years as the video coordinator for the Memphis Tiger basketball program. During the previous three years (2004-07) at Memphis, he served as the team's head manager while completing his undergraduate work at the university. He earned his bachelor's degree in sport and leisure studies in May 2007.

Settle was a member of the Tiger staff during its most memorable season in school history in 2007-08. Memphis won an NCAA record 38 games (38-2 record) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament championship game. The Tigers swept the Conference USA regular-season and tournament titles and won the NCAA South Region crown en route to the NCAA Tournament final.

As the Tigers' head manager from 2004-07, Settle was a part of a successful run in school history. The Tigers won 88 games from 2004-05 through 2006-07, including 33 victories in 2005-06 and 2006-07. Memphis captured consecutive Conference USA regular-season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight those two seasons. The 2004-05 squad played in the C-USA Tournament title game and advanced to the NIT Final Four.

Prior to his tenure at Memphis, Settle was a team manager for the Idaho Vandal basketball team in the 2003-04 campaign. From 2001-03, he attended Vincennes University in Vincennes, Ind., where he earned his associate degree in science.

A Danville, Ind., native, Settle graduated high school from Danville Community High School.

TONY DELK

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Tony Delk is in his second season as member of the UK men's basketball staff but is plenty familiar with the tradition of Kentucky basketball.

Delk (1993-96), a second-team AP All-American in 1996, helped guide the Wildcats to the 1996 NCAA Championship. UK's all-time leader in three-point field goals made (283), Delk ranks fifth on UK's all-time scoring list with 1,890 career points. He was the Wildcats' leading scorer in his sophomore, junior and senior seasons and capped a remarkable career tying the NCAA championship game record with seven three-point field goals en route to Final Four MVP honors.

The 16th overall pick of the Charlotte Hornets in the 1996 NBA Draft, Delk turned in a 10-year career in the NBA. He scored 14 points in his NBA debut in 1996 and made his NBA Playoffs debut in 1997, averaging 10.3 ppg in three games. At the beginning of the '98 season he was traded to Golden State where he averaged 10.4 points.

Delk had a career night with the Phoenix Suns on Jan. 2, 2001 when he exploded for 53 points on 20-for-27 shooting against the Sacramento Kings. It was during that season with the Suns that he enjoyed his most productive season, averaging a career-best 12.3 ppg.

The Brownsville, Tenn. native finished his career with 4,957 points, a 9.1 ppg average.

At the conclusion of his NBA career, Delk traveled overseas, playing professionally in Greece for traditional power Panathinaikos. In 2007, he helped lead the Shamrock to the Euroleague Championship.

In 2003, Delk founded the Taylor Delk Sickle Cell Foundation, a nonprofit organization in Brownsville, Tenn. The Taylor Delk Sickle Cell Foundation is named after Tony's daughter, Taylor, who has sickle cell disease. The foundation is dedicated to improving the quality of life for children and families affected by sickle cell disease. More information on the foundation and the sickle cell disease can be found at www.tdscf.org.

Delk's primary responsibilities on the UK staff will be to assist the director of basketball operations with office administrative duties, compliance forms and communications with the players.

He has three daughters, Taylor, Bella and Trinity.

BRENT SANDS

GRADUATE MANAGER

Brent Sands enters his first season with the Kentucky basketball program as a graduate assistant after graduating from the University of Memphis in August with a degree in finance.

Sands earned his degree at Memphis while also working as an assistant to the men's basketball strength and conditioning coach, Richard Hogans.

Sands, an Alpine, N.J., native, originally went to the University of Arizona. Wanting to be closer to home and seeing a unique opportunity to work with longtime family friend John Calipari, Sands transferred to Memphis and began working with Calipari and the Tigers in January of 2008. The Tigers went on to advance to the national championship game that season.

Sands attended high school at Don Bosco Prep in New Jersey, a highly regarded school in the football ranks where he started on special teams as a sophomore and played some cornerback as well. During Sands' sophomore year, Don Bosco Prep went on to win the state championship. Some of Sands' teammates from Don Bosco have gone on to have successful football careers in the NFL and at the Division I level. Sands would later transfer to Tenafly High School, also in New Jersey, for his junior and senior years.

He would like to be a part of sports after college in some capacity and is pursuing his master's of science in sports leadership at UK. Sands plans to graduate in 2012.

Sands has one older sister, Ashly, who currently attends New York Law School. Brent is the son of Glenn Sands and Patti Sands.

BRANDON WEEMS

GRADUATE MANAGER

Brandon Weems enters his second season with the Kentucky basketball program as a graduate assistant after graduating from Walsh University with an impressive basketball career.

With a degree in business management, Weems graduated from Walsh in 2008. At Walsh, Weems was a member of the 2005 NAIA Division II men's basketball national championship team. In addition to the national championship, Weems and the program won four conference championships. Weems also received All-America honors, led the country in assists his junior season, and stands second at Walsh for all-time assists. As a senior, Walsh named Weems as Male Athlete of the Year.

Weems is a native of Akron, Ohio, and a graduate of St. Vincent-St. Mary High School. While at St. Vincent-St. Mary, Weems won two state championships and a national championship.

As a graduate manager, his primary responsibility is being in charge of the John Calipari. He plans to graduate from Kentucky with a master's of science in sports leadership in 2011.

TIM ASHER

BASKETBALL VIDEO COORDINATOR

Tim Asher is in his ninth year as the Wildcats' basketball video coordinator after serving the 12 previous seasons as the team's traveling videographer. In addition, he has worked on the UK football team video staff for the past 24 years. In his role, Asher oversees all of the basketball program's video needs, including maintaining the Wildcats' sophisticated editing system. He was heavily involved in the design and integration of video throughout the Joe Craft Center.

Asher, 50, started his own company, Idle Minds Productions, in 1987, which provides video services for various networks, documentaries and commercials. He's been employed as a freelance trainer and demo artist on non-linear video systems for Sony Corporation since 1995, served as a field production specialist for WLEX-TV, and as a producer/director then production manager for WDKY-TV.

Asher earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Morehead State University. A native of Olive Hill, Ky., he and his wife, Cindy, have a 12-year-old daughter, Laura.

MARK COYLE

DEPUTY ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Mark Coyle is in his sixth year at the University of Kentucky and his first as the deputy director of athletics.

Coyle plays a prominent role in the day-to-day administration of Kentucky's 22-sport intercollegiate athletics department, assisting Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart with the direction of the department. Coyle also oversees the day-today responsibilities for men's basketball.

In his first five years at UK, Coyle served as the senior associate athletic director for external affairs, directing the marketing, fundraising, licensing and ticket units of the department.

Coyle joined the University of Kentucky from the University of Minnesota, where he served nearly four years in a number of external affairs capacities.

Coyle received his bachelor's degree in English from Drake University in 1991, where he was a three-year letter winner as a wide receiver. He earned his master's degree in teaching from Drake in 1992 and a master's degree in sports administration from Florida State University in 1993.

He resides in Lexington with his wife, Krystan, and their children, Grace, Nicholas and Benjamin.

LUNETHA PRYOR

ADMIN. ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

Lunetha Pryor is in her second year with the University of Kentucky's basketball program, and her second year with the UK athletics department. Before joining the Kentucky basketball office staff, Pryor spent a total of 23 years with the Memphis athletic department, including 11 years with the athletic business office and the ticket office. Pryor enjoys watching basketball and football in her spare time. She has a 14 year-old daughter, Kia Symone.

MICHAEL STONE

ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Michael Stone is entering his 13th year working with student-athletes in the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS) and his 12th year working with the men's basketball team.

Stone, a native of Clay City, Ky., has had a positive impact on the Kentucky men's basketball program during his tenure. A tireless worker, Stone has assisted current and former student-athletes in their academic responsibilities and post-graduation aspirations. He has been instrumental in the recent success of the Wildcats in the classroom.

A mere sampling of Stone's duties include: overseeing the nightly functions of the CATS Center, monitoring study hall for student-athletes from each of Kentucky's 22 sports and overseeing the CATS Academic Graduate/Academic Service Assistant program.

In addition to his responsibilities with the men's basketball program, Stone serves as the academic counselor for Kentucky's baseball team. Under his guidance, the men's basketball and baseball teams have consistently improved the team GPA throughout his tenure.

Stone is an active member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics. He currently serves as the Region II Representative for the Student-Athlete Recognition Committee, which honors student-athletes who have overcome great obstacles to achieve academic success while participating in intercollegiate athletics.

Stone received both a B.S. in economics and a B.B.A. in marketing (1997), as well as his master's in sports management (2002) from UK.

JOHN HAYDEN

ASSISTANT MEDIA RELATIONS DIRECTOR

John Hayden is in his fifth season working with the men's basketball program after being named assistant director of media relations in July of 2006. He spent six years in the same position at the University of Alabama where he directed the media and public relations efforts for the football, softball, women's soccer, and men's cross country and track and field programs.

During his tenure with Alabama, the softball team made four appearances at the College World Series (2000, 2003, 2005 and 2006).

After graduating from Alabama in December of 1998 with a degree in broadcasting, Hayden served as an intern in the media relations department with the Chicago White Sox's double-A affiliate, the Birmingham Barons, during the 1999 season.

In addition to his responsibilities with men's basketball, Hayden also works with the women's soccer team.

A Paducah, Ky., native, Hayden is the son of Bernard and Cathy Hayden and recently married the former Maria Angelini of Pittsburgh.

DeWAYNE PEEVY

SR. ASSOCIATE AD/ COMMUNICATIONS

DeWayne Peevy is in his third year as the senior associate athletic director of communications at the University of Kentucky.

Peevy, who joined UK in August 2008, oversees the public relations efforts for the entire athletics department in addition to his duties as the primary contact for UK's nationally recognized men's basketball program.

Upon his hiring, Peevy has also pioneered a 22-sport wide UK blog, an innovative and rare addition to a media relations department, and he provides senior administrative oversight of UK's award-winning sports publications department. Additionally, Peevy coordinates interviews with local and national media for head coach John Calipari and the men's basketball team, he serves as the editor of the basketball media guide and is the spokesman for the storied program.

The Birmingham, Ala., native also serves on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Final Four Media Coordination Committee and he previously served as the sports information director representative on the board of the United States Basketball Writers Association.

Peevy came to UK after spending eight years at the Southeastern Conference. He was responsible for the day-to-day publicity of SEC men's basketball. A graduate of the University of Montevallo, Peevy served as the media director of the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament from 2004-08.

Prior to his time at the SEC, Peevy spent nearly three years at his alma mater where he oversaw and handled all media and promotional operations for all nine varsity sports. He received six national publication awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America at Montevallo.

Peevy also served as the assistant information director at the Gulf South Conference from September 1996 to October 2007.

Peevy received his bachelor of business administration degree in accounting from the University of Montevallo in 1996.

He and his wife, Allison, have two children, Kaitlyn, 10, and Braden, 3.

2010-11 University of Kentucky Basketball Managers—From Left: Will Barton, Brett Miller, Bryan Settle, Mark Evans, Will Martin; Front: Zach Lipson

A fixture in the Kentucky basketball program for 47 years, Bill Keightley (aka “Mr. Wildcat”) cared passionately about the Kentucky uniform and everything it represented. More importantly, he also cared for each of the players who wore the uniform, spanning nearly five decades, six head coaches, 1,113 victories and three national titles.

During the 2008-09 season, the University of Kentucky Athletics Department honored the extraordinary life of Bill Keightley (1926-2008) with a black bar patch on the right shoulder of its uniforms that was embroidered with the words, Mr. Wildcat. In addition, the letter “K” in the spelling of Kentucky on the front of the jersey was printed in black.

A lifetime of EXCELLENCE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

DR. LEE T. TODD, JR.

Lee T. Todd, Jr. became the 11th president of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2001.

Todd is a native of Earlington, Ky. and a graduate of UK and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. President Todd is the sixth UK alumnus to hold the presidency. He is a former UK engineering professor; a successful businessman who launched two worldwide technology companies, both based in Kentucky; and a public advocate for research, technology, and an entrepreneurial economy in the Commonwealth.

President Todd is a member of the National Academies' Committee on Research Universities. He serves as chair of the Advisory Board for the National Science Foundation's Directorate for Education and Human Resources Committee. He is immediate past chair of the Board of Directors for the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities (APLU) and is presently chair of the APLU Science Math Teacher Imperative (SMTI). He represents the Southeastern Conference as a member of the NCAA Division I Board of Directors. President Todd is a member of the Executive Committee of the Business Higher Education Forum. He serves on the EQT Corporation Board of Directors and is chair of the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education's STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) Task Force. He is chair of the National Consortium for Continuous Improvement in Higher Education's (NCCI) Leveraging Excellence Award selection panel.

President Todd has focused his efforts and energies on helping his alma mater achieve a greater level of national prominence.

Under Todd's leadership, his alma mater has achieved a greater level of national prominence. To that end, he launched the University of Kentucky's Top 20 Business Plan in December 2005. The plan is a quantitative analysis of what it will take for UK to achieve its state-mandated goal of building a Top 20 public research university. Widely hailed as the first business plan in the nation by a public university, it has been featured by national media outlets and recognized by peer institutions.

President Todd has spearheaded an effort to revitalize health care in Kentucky. In June 2006, UK unveiled the Commonwealth's Medical Campus of the Future, a multi-phased project aimed at providing Kentuckians with cutting-edge, 21st century health care. As part of the revamped academic medical campus, UK is constructing a new, one million square foot University of Kentucky Albert B. Chandler Hospital and has completed a new College of Pharmacy.

He is married to the former Patricia Brantley, a UK graduate who earned her master's degree from Simmons College in Boston. They have two adult children, UK graduates Troy and Kathryn.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

MITCH BARNHART

Mitch Barnhart is in his ninth year at the University of Kentucky, with unparalleled accomplishments in his past and unprecedented goals for the future.

Looking to build on the successes under his direction, Barnhart's ambitious course for the future was revealed in November 2008 with the 15 by 15 by 15 Plan. The goals are to win at least 15 conference or national championships and rank among the NCAA's top 15 athletic programs by 2015 – all of which would be unprecedented achievements for UK Athletics – while continuing to expand the department's service to the commonwealth of Kentucky. Another goal is a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average for UK's 500-plus student-athletes on an annual basis.

The goal Barnhart set nine years ago to mold an athletics department that competed with integrity, won championships with class and succeeded in the classroom is beginning to come to fruition with the close of the 2009-10 athletics season.

UK continued its annual improvement in the Directors' Cup standings with a finish of 29th place in 2009-10. It was the school's best showing since Barnhart's arrival, its top finish since the 1997-98 season and only three slots away from the best mark in school history.

The primary academic target was met at the conclusion of the 2010 spring semester as UK's student-athletes notched a composite 3.04 GPA, the highest semester of the Barnhart era, but Barnhart wants to continue to see academic success and improvement in the future. In addition, UK has consistently posted strong numbers in the NCAA Academic Progress Rate as every one of UK's 22 varsity sports have avoided penalties in the APR's six-year existence. Graduation rates, which date back to classes that entered six years ago, are beginning to show the improvement Barnhart emphasized upon his arrival in 2002.

Barnhart's connection to UK student-athletes is evident by his individual interaction and dedication to provide the support services necessary to meet their needs. UK Athletics spends more than $1.5 million annually on its nationally renowned Center for Academic and Tutorial Services. He also began the CATSPYs, an annual awards program that honors the best of UK Athletics.

Additional initiatives begun under Barnhart's leadership include fully funding all 22 varsity sports with maximum number of scholarships and coaches, creating the UK Athletics Hall of Fame and the construction of the Joe Craft Center, a $30 million facility that includes practice and administrative space for a variety of sports.

Barnhart's influence reaches far beyond the fields of competition. Despite athletics' urgent financial needs, Barnhart founded a $1.2-million annual contribution to the University's scholarship program, a donation that was increased to $1.7 million annually in 2009-10.

Social responsibility in the Commonwealth of Kentucky also is a priority for Barnhart, who is extremely active in community service and encourages UK athletics staff and student-athletes to do the same.

He has been involved on the national level as well and in 2010 will become the chair of the NCAA Basketball Issues Committee.

Barnhart arrived at UK from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-83).

Barnhart is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University in 1982.

His family includes his wife, Connie, three children, Blaire, Scott, Kirby Willoughby and her husband, McKenzie.

2009 CANCUN CHALLENGE CHAMPIONS

The early portion of Kentucky's 2009-10 schedule included a trip to Cancun, Mexico, for the Cancun Challenge, where the Cats enjoyed some fun in the sun, basketball and a championship.

entucky was selected as one of eight teams to participate in the 2009 Cancun Challenge. As one of four teams (along with Cleveland State, Stanford and Virginia) to host two games in their home arenas, UK made the most of its invitation.

After dispatching Sam Houston State and Rider, the Cats journeyed to Cancun, Mexico, where they stayed and played (in a converted ballroom) their games in the all-inclusive Moon Palace Resort. Once there, the team defeated Cleveland State and then faced Stanford in the championship game.

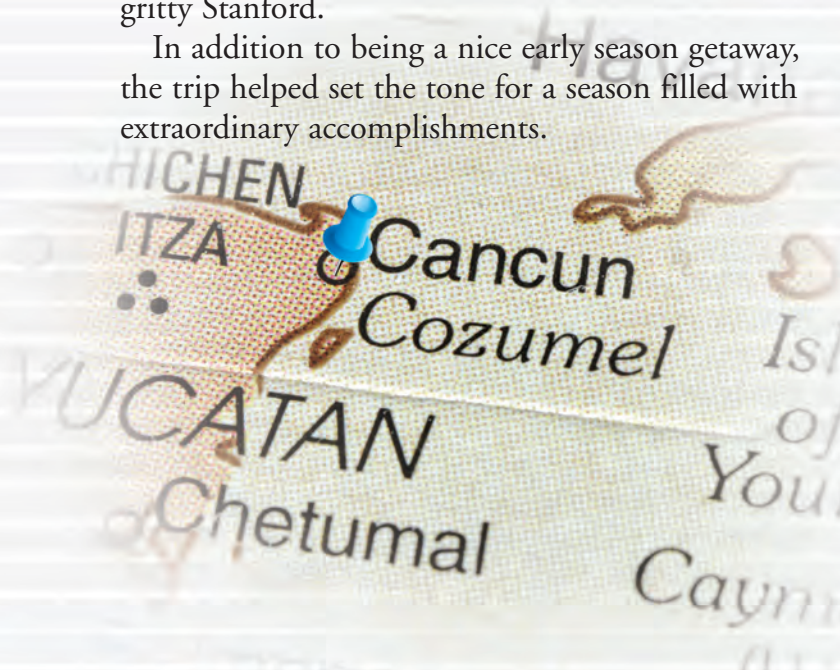

Behind 23 points from freshman sensation John Wall, including clutch shots in the final minute that sent the game to overtime, No. 5 Kentucky closed with an eight-point run for a 73-65 victory over gritty Stanford.

In addition to being a nice early season getaway, the trip helped set the tone for a season filled with extraordinary accomplishments.

Freshman John Wall earned Cancun Challenge MVP honors after totaling 23 points in the championship game overtime win over Stanford.

MAKING A BIG SPLASH IN THE “BIG APPLE”

Playing in front of a crowd of 15,874 in the second game of a double-header at Madison Square Garden, fourth-ranked Kentucky edged UConn in the DirecTV SEC/Big East Invitational.

Playing for the first time in Madison Square Garden and only his ninth game at Kentucky, highly-touted freshman guard John Wall proved to be “as good as advertised” in leading the Wildcats to a 64-61 victory over UConn in the DirecTV SEC/Big East Invitational.

Wall put Kentucky ahead for good on a three-point play when he was fouled hard as he drove to the basket - making it 63-61 with 30 seconds left. He scored a season-high 25 points, including 12 of his team’s last 15, and the fourth-ranked Wildcats beat No. 14 Connecticut 64-61. Patrick Patterson had 16 points and DeMarcus Cousins added 10 points and 10 rebounds.

The SEC-Big East Invitational was a star-studded affair with numerous celebrities among the crowd in Madison Square Garden. None other than Dick Vitale called the game for ESPN.

YOUNG CATS TAKE CENTER STAGE

The Wildcats responded on the world's biggest stage with a comeback victory over UConn. It was the coming out party for the Draft Cats: Eric Bledsoe, DeMarcus Cousins, Daniel Orton, Patrick Patterson and John Wall.

2010 SEC TOURNAMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Second-ranked and top-seeded Kentucky powered its way to the 2010 SEC Tournament finals with back-to-back victories over Alabama and Tennessee.

John Wall had 23 points, including seven straight in the second half to give the Wildcats the lead for good, and No. 2 Kentucky overcame an 11-point deficit in beating Alabama 73-67 in the SEC Tournament quarterfinals.

The win gave Kentucky its 12th 30-win season - the most by any school - and the Wildcats' first since 2003 when they went 32-4. It also marked the fifth straight such season for John Calipari and seventh overall to tie him with Connecticut's Jim Calhoun for third most among coaches.

Patrick Patterson scored 20 and Eric Bledsoe 10 for Kentucky. DeMarcus Cousins finished with seven points and eight boards.

2010 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONSHIP

Second-ranked and top-seeded Kentucky won its 26th SEC Tournament Championship with another thrilling victory over Mississippi State.

John Wall scored seven of his 15 points in overtime, and No. 2 Kentucky rallied from five down with 2:28 left in regulation to beat Mississippi State, 75-74. The Wildcats rewarded their faithful by adding their 26th SEC Tournament championship and an automatic berth to the NCAA tournament and their 44th regular season title.

Eric Bledsoe (left) led UK with 18 points on 7-of-14 shooting from the field, including two three-pointers in the SEC title game vs. Mississippi State.

The Wildcats (32-2) failed to capitalize on earlier chances with freshmen Wall and DeMarcus Cousins missing free throws and making youthful mistakes. But they came through over the defending tourney champs as Cousins' layup off Wall's missed 3-point-er from the right corner beat the regulation buzzer to give them some extra time.

"I was just looking for the red square. I didn't know. I just threw it up and I was looking for the red light and I knew I got it off so I ran."

2010 NCAA TOURNAMENT OPENING ROUNDS

Playing in a town nicknamed the “Big Easy,” Kentucky cruised by its first two NCAA Tournament opponents by an average of 29.5 points per game.

Eric Bledsoe’s eight 3-pointers set a new high for a Kentucky player in an NCAA tournament game, and the Kentucky Wildcats dominated throughout in a 100-71 victory over East Tennessee State in the East Regional first round game.

Scoring 29 points, Bledsoe started 8-of-8 on 3s before finally missing his first from long range late in the second half and finishing 8-of-9. Still, he surpassed Tony Delk’s previous school record of seven 3s in the 1996 championship game victory over Syracuse.

Patrick Patterson scored 22 points on 9-of-10 shooting, including a handful of dunks, while John Wall added 17 points and 11 assists for the Wildcats (33-2).

First & Second Rounds • March 18-20, 2010
New Orleans, La. • New Orleans Arena

Darius Miller scored a career-high 20 points and Kentucky made easy work of No. 9 seed Wake Forest during a 90-60 rout in their second-round meeting.

Miller scored 16 points in the first half to help the Wildcats build an early double-digit lead that ballooned to 31 in the second half.

Kentucky's performance against Wake Forest was balanced. No player had a stunning statistical line but several had good ones.

DeMarcus Cousins, turning in a dunk-filled performance in the paint, had 19 points on 9-of-10 shooting, while John Wall scored 14 and Eric Bledsoe 13.

2010 NCAA TOURNAMENT EAST REGIONAL

UK came aching close to reaching its 14th Final Four, topping Cornell in the Sweet 16 before falling to West Virginia in the East Regional Finals.

Kentucky avoided the latest big upset by the surprising Big Red of Cornell.

John Wall, DeMarcus Cousins and Patrick Patterson stopped Cornell's captivating NCAA tournament run, giving the top-seeded Wildcats a 62-45 win in the East Regional semifinals.

With much of the Carrier Dome crowd - and the country - pulling for an upset by the 12th-seeded Ivy Leaguers, Cornell bolted to a 10-2 lead in the opening minutes.

But Kentucky overcame the early deficit with a swarming defense, spoiling all the fun at Cornell's loudest and largest pep rally.

DeMarcus Cousins led UK with 16 points, while Patrick Patterson had nine points and 12 rebounds for Kentucky.

Patrick Patterson came up big on both ends of the court against former teammate Mark Coury and the Big Red of Cornell, finishing with nine points and 12 rebounds.

For everyone associated with the Big Blue Nation, especially the current players and coaches, it wasn't supposed to end this way. Kentucky rolled through the first three rounds of the 2010 NCAA Tournament and appeared to be destined for its 14th Final Four before running into a red-hot three-point shooting West Virginia team and losing 73-66.

The Wildcats, a strong favorite to win their first national championship since 1998 after overall No. 1 seed Kansas went down in the second round, picked a horrible time to go cold offensively – shooting just 34.3 percent from the field for the game and missing their first 20 three point attempts. UK finished a stunning 4-of-32 (12.5 percent) from three-point range. DeAndre Liggins finally hit a trey with 3:29 left to end the drought, but by then it was too late.

In contrast, West Virginia made eight threes in the first half without a 2-point basket and led 28-26 at halftime.

Despite the bitter loss, Wildcat fans were left with the reassuring realization that Kentucky basketball was back – in all its majestic glory – well positioned to compete for a national title on a regular basis.

2009-10 SEASON IN REVIEW

Beating the odds with one of the youngest teams in the country, UK won both the SEC regular season and tournament championships under first-year coach John Calipari.

2009-10 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- UK ended the season as the all-time NCAA leader in wins with 2,023
- Kentucky led the nation in attendance (24,110) for the fifth straight year and the 14th time in the last 15 years
- Kentucky got out to a 19-0 start and was the last undefeated team in the country.
- The Wildcats went a perfect 18-0 at home, tying the Rupp Arena mark for home wins in a season.
- Kentucky finished with a 14-2 record en route to its 44th SEC regular season championship and won the school's 26th SEC Tournament championship.

ROAD WARRIORS

Kentucky was tough on the road, posting a 7-2 mark in true road games including their first true win over Indiana (above).

- Freshman John Wall led Kentucky in scoring with a 16.6 ppg average to along with a school single season record, 241 assists.
- Wall was awarded the Adolph Rupp Trophy as National Player of the Year, the first player in the illustrious history of the UK basketball program to receive any one of the primary national player of the year awards.
- Fellow freshman DeMarcus Cousins was second on the team in scoring, averaging 15.1 ppg while posting a team-best 9.8 rpg average, destroying the UK freshman rebounding record.
- In his inaugural season as head coach of the Wildcats, John Calipari posted his fifth-straight 30-win season, the only coach in NCAA Division I history to do so. He received the Adolph Rupp Cup, which is awarded to the National Coach of the Year, the first time in the 38-year history of the award that a UK coach has won the award.

THE ONLY UNBEATEN TEAM LEFT STANDING

Under first-year UK head coach John Calipari, Kentucky ran its record to 19-0 to start the season – including impressive wins over Louisville (above) and Arkansas (right) – en route a No. 1 national ranking. It was the best start by the Wildcats since 1966 and the best start by a first-year Kentucky coach in school history. It was the third time in Calipari's college coaching career that he had the nation's last undefeated team.

PERFECT AT HOME

Kentucky went 18-0 at home in 2010, including a 73-62 victory over 12th-ranked Tennessee in Rupp Arena last February (above).

Kentucky finished the 2009-10 season with a 35-3 record, its most wins since the 1998 season.

In 1982, UK coach Joe B. Hall began the tradition of an event billed as “Midnight Special.” More than 8,500 fans attended that first practice in Memorial Coliseum. The seed of growth had been planted for what is still an annual, free event.

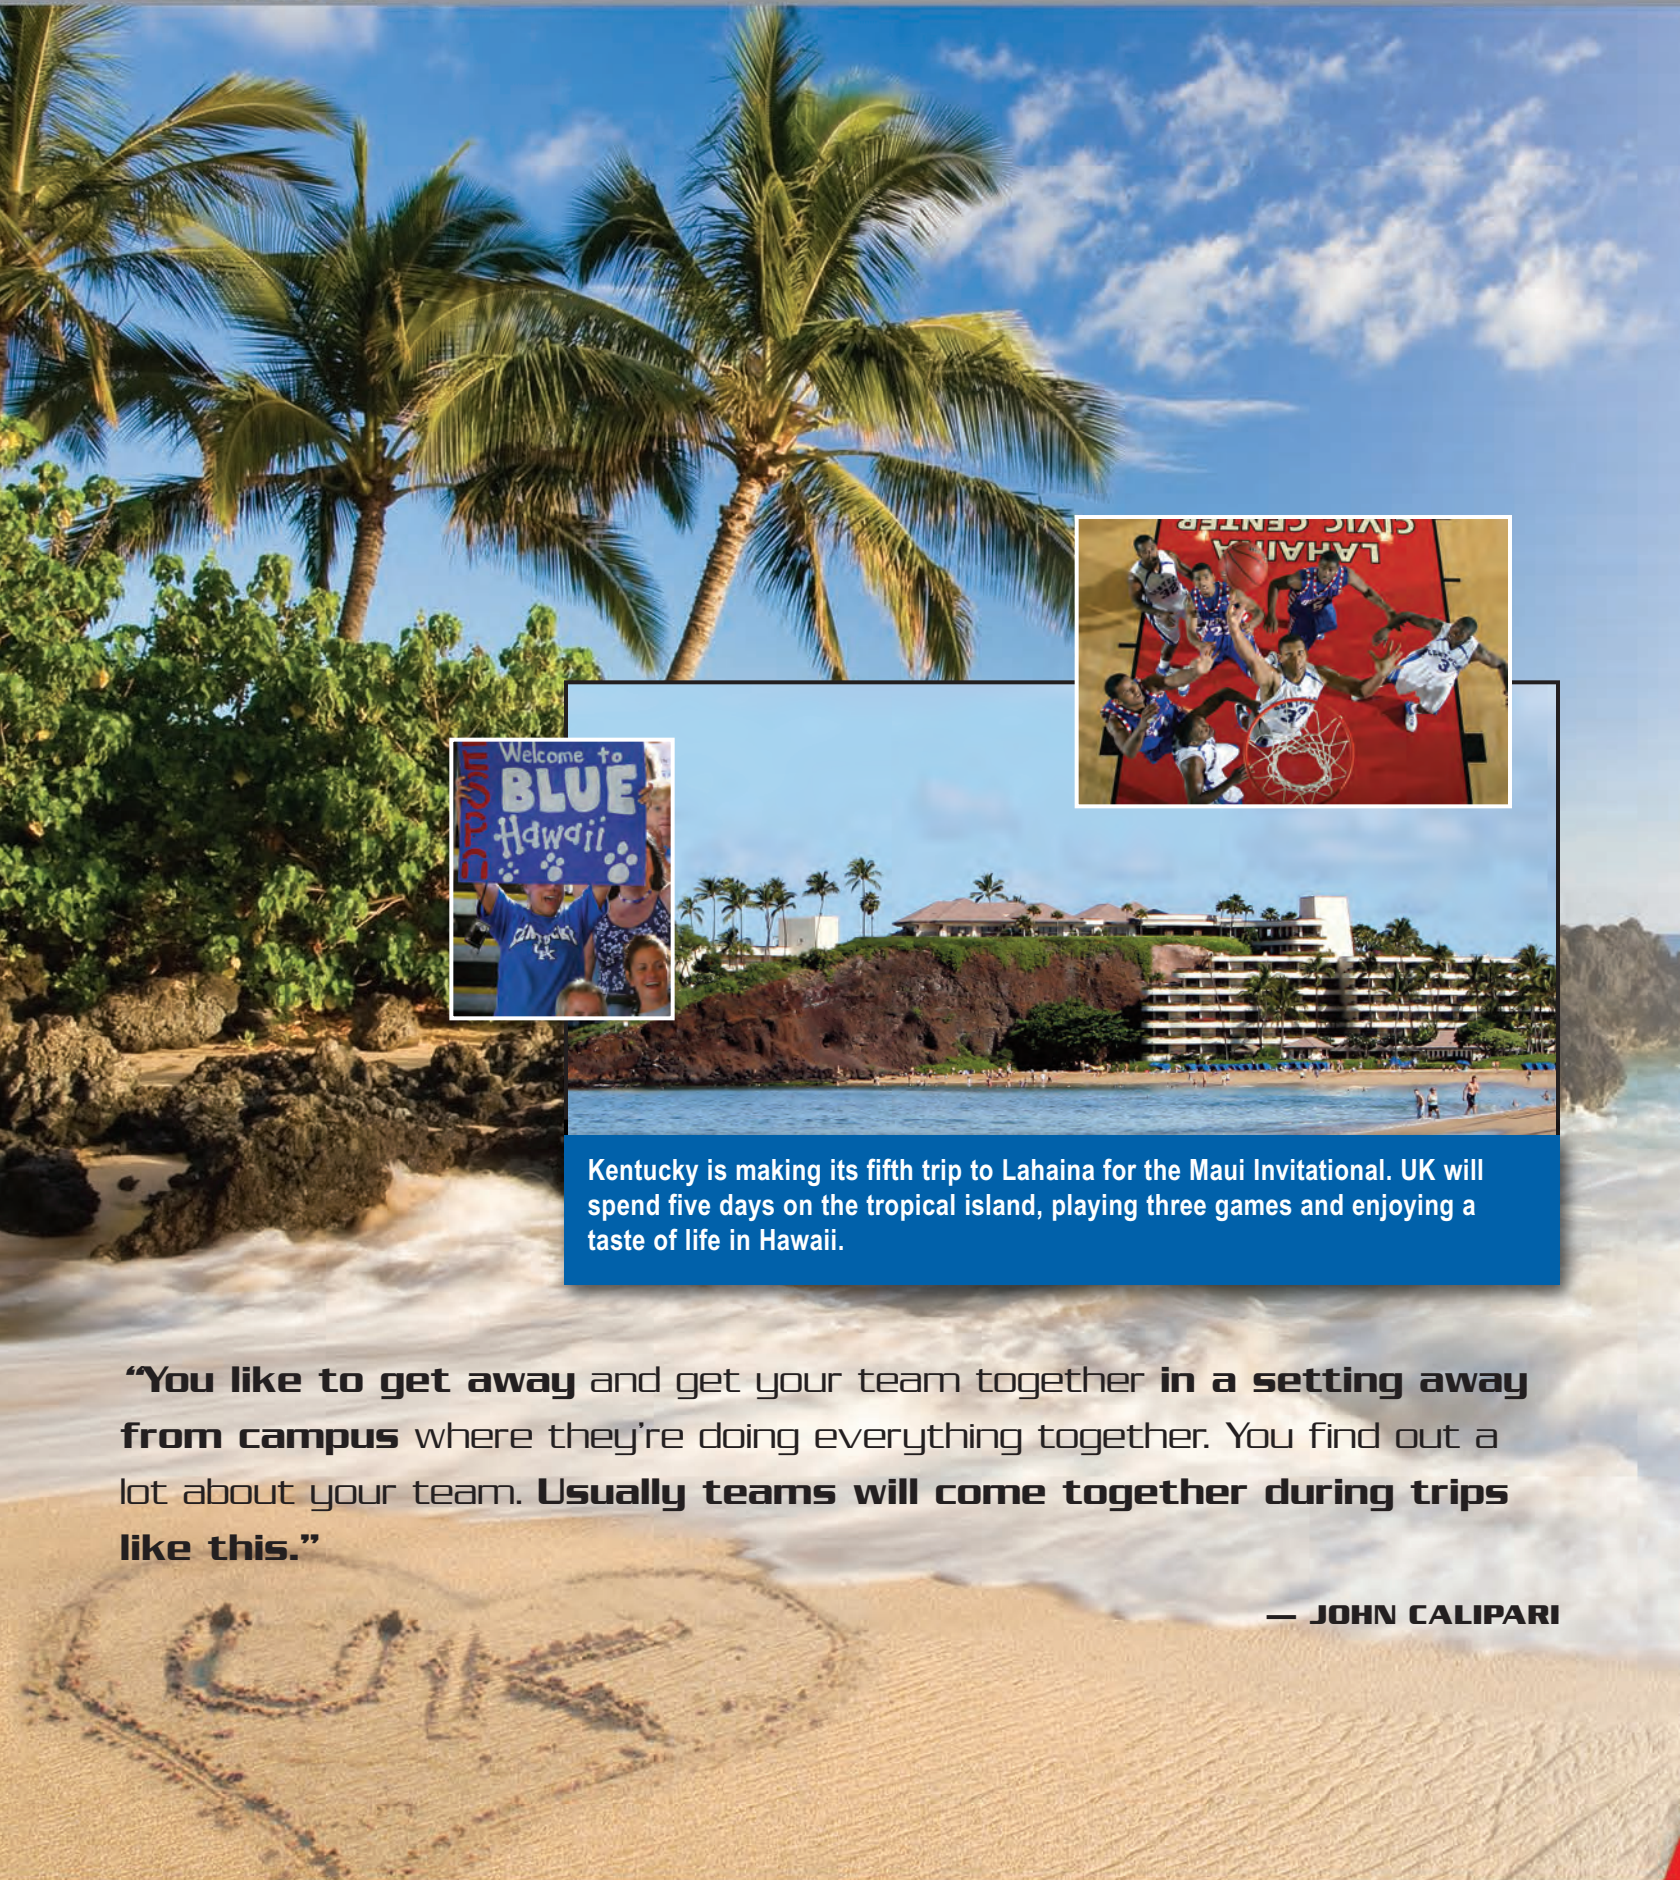

THE MADNESS STARTS EARLY

Two weeks before the event, the area surrounding the Joe Craft Center and Memorial Coliseum becomes a virtual blue and white tent city occupied by diehard UK fans waiting to get tickets for the first glimpse of their beloved Wildcats.

◀ BIG BLUE WELCOME

John Calipari was officially introduced to the Big Blue Nation in front of a frenzied crowd that rocked Rupp Arena for Big Blue Madness in October 2009.

Each year, all tickets for Big Blue Madness are typically distributed within the first hour of becoming available to the public. Madness is televised live in the Southeast via FS South and throughout the Commonwealth on the Big Blue Sports Network.

Kentucky is making its fifth trip to Lahaina for the Maui Invitational. UK will spend five days on the tropical island, playing three games and enjoying a taste of life in Hawaii.

“You like to get away and get your team together in a setting away from campus where they’re doing everything together. You find out a lot about your team. Usually teams will come together during trips like this.”

KENTUCKY RETURNS TO MAUI INVITATIONAL

The EA SPORTS Maui Invitational® is the nation's premier early-season college basketball tournament. This is the 27th year of tournament basketball in paradise. Maui's oceanfront Lahaina Civic Center will again be the venue for the eight-team competition during Thanksgiving week from Nov. 22-24, 2010.

Three teams with a combined 11 national championships, including Connecticut, Kentucky and Michigan State, will spearhead the 2010 field. These teams will be joined by Oklahoma, Virginia, Washington, Wichita State and host school Chaminade University of Honolulu in the hunt for the coveted Wayne Duke Championship Trophy.

Three of the seven Division I teams participated in the 2010 NCAA® Tournament highlighted by Michigan State's Final Four® run and Kentucky's trip to the Elite Eight®.

The ESPN networks will combine once again to offer live television coverage of all 12 tournament games. For the second straight year, every game will be produced in high definition on ESPN HD, ESPN2 HD and ESPNU HD, with the ESPN and ESPN2 games also streaming live on ESPN3.com.

UK FACES IRISH IN FREEDOM HALL

The two-night men's college basketball tournament takes place in two cities, beginning with a doubleheader Wednesday, Dec. 8, at Freedom Hall in Louisville. The matchups feature Seton Hall taking on Arkansas at 7 p.m. ET on ESPN2, followed by Notre Dame facing Kentucky at 9:30 p.m. ET on ESPN.

On Saturday, Dec. 11 at Consol Energy Center in Pittsburgh, Auburn will take on Rutgers at 12:30 p.m. ET on ESPN2, followed by Tennessee vs. Pittsburgh at 3 p.m. ET on ESPN.

KENTUCKY'S RECORD ...

vs. Notre Dame in Freedom Hall	19-4 (.826)
All-time in Louisville:	121-32 (.791)
All-time in Freedom Hall	58-17 (.773)

“This will be my first opportunity to be part of what has been a storied rivalry between the two schools in Freedom Hall. It’s going to be a great challenge to play Notre Dame as they are always a well-coached team with Mike Brey at the helm. It gives us another opportunity to play in front of our fans in Louisville.”

WINNING ATMOSPHERE RUPP ARENA

Adolph Rupp is synonymous with winning. As coach of Kentucky, he was a pioneer in the Wildcats' fast-break offense while becoming the winningest coach the game had ever seen.

The site that now serves as a tribute to his outstanding coaching accomplishments – Rupp Arena – has become one of the most recognizable gymnasiums in the world while serving as home to college basketball's most storied program.

Now in its 35th season as the Kentucky Wildcats' home court, the facility has seen UK win 88 percent of its home games since it was opened in 1976.

Built by the city of Lexington, the arena is the major portion of the $53 million Lexington Center

The Cats have won 22 national attendance titles since moving to Rupp for the 1976-77 season, including 14 in the last 15 years. Last year, UK averaged a record 24,111 fans at home.

Kentucky has rewarded those fans by posting a 445-60 (.881) all-time record in Rupp Arena, including a 248-35 (.876) record in regular-season SEC games in downtown Lexington.

Rupp Arena has served as NCAA Tournament host site 11 times, including the 1985 Final Four. Rupp will host the NCAA Tournament 1st/2nd rounds in 2013.

JOE CRAFT CENTER

As the headquarters of UK Athletics and Kentucky basketball, the Joe Craft Center provides the Wildcats with a multi-purpose practice and training center unlike any other in the nation. Located across the street from the Wildcat Lodge and just minutes from Rupp Arena, it brings together the various aspects of UK's practice, athletic training and treatment, strength training and conditioning, team meetings and film review all under one roof.

The building is named after Hazard (Ky.) native Joe Craft, who gave $6 million towards the $30 million state-of-the-art facility.

“It’s important to give each of our programs the facilities that are necessary for them to compete. The construction of the Joe Craft Center is the most important thing we could have done for Kentucky Basketball and the athletics department in total.”

The circular design of Kentucky's spacious team locker room provides each player with plenty of space while promoting team unity.

JOE CRAFT CENTER WEIGHT ROOM

Kentucky utilizes one of the best basketball weight rooms in the country, where every piece of equipment is selected to train athletes to their fullest.

The 3,000 square-foot Joe Craft Center weight room—under the direction of men’s basketball strength and conditioning coach Mike Malone—contains top-of-the-line equipment, such as Power Lift, Vertimax, Iron Grip, Woodway and Hammer Strength. Surrounded by 46-inch flat-screen plasmas, the facility incorporates a multimedia workout experience for the Wildcats. Each individual basketball player’s workout is posted on the screens, as opposed to printed paper. As with the rest of the Craft Center, the facility is available to UK basketball players 12 months out of the year.

Only Champions Wear Titanium

Kentucky not only wears Nike, but is under an all-school contract with the athletic apparel company.

In 1997, UK signed the popular contract with the makers of the trademark swoosh. Thanks to Nike's extensive research and product development, UK student-athletes stay on the cutting edge of quality and style with all of their gear.

All 22 sports use Nike shoes and equipment and over the course of the contract, the Wildcats will receive millions of dollars worth of clothing and equipment. The men's basketball team has been recognized by the apparel company as a "Titanium" team – its highest distinction.

While clothing adorned with "Kentucky" was already popular throughout the nation, thanks to Nike and its international marketing reach, UK's blue and white can now be found worldwide.

1947-48 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 58, BAYLOR 42

March 23, 1948 • New York, N.Y.

Alex Groza and Ralph Beard combined for 26 points and the Wildcats' defense held the Bears to 16 first-half points to capture UK's first NCAA title.

The title victory enabled the Wildcats to become only the second team ever to win both the NIT and NCAA titles. UK, which finished the season at 34-2, won the NIT title in 1946.

Paced by Groza and Beard, the Wildcats turned a 29-16 halftime lead into a 44-28 bulge midway through the second half. After Baylor rallied to cut the lead to 11, UK put the game out of reach as Wallace "Wah Wah" Jones scored four points to give the Wildcats a 15-point lead.

In addition to Groza and Beard, Kentucky also got nine points apiece from Jones and Kenneth Rollins.

1948-49 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 46, OKLAHOMA A&M 36

March 26, 1949 • Seattle, Wash.

Paced by Alex Groza's 25 points and a defense that limited the Aggies to a mere nine field goals, the Wildcats were crowned NCAA Champions for the second straight year.

Groza, a unanimous selection as the "Player of the Tournament," scored more than twice as many points as any other player. A&M's Jack Shelton was the game's only other player to score in double figures. He finished with 12 points.

The Aggies, coached by Hank Iba, led 5-2, but the Wildcats scored seven straight points, five by Groza, and never trailed again as they took a 25-20 first-half lead.

UK extended the lead to 31-21 early in the second half and coasted the rest of the way.

1950-51 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 68, KANSAS STATE 58

March 27, 1951 • Minneapolis, Minn.

Bill Spivey scored 22 points and an ailing Cliff Hagan sparked UK to its third NCAA title. With a squad consisting of only six healthy players — Walt Hirsch was ineligible and Hagan was plagued by an infected throat — the Wildcats hardly looked like championship material as Kansas State broke out to a 20-12 lead.

It was then that Rupp inserted the ailing Hagan. It was a move that may have proved the difference as the sophomore forward sparked a rally that saw UK cut the Kansas State lead to 29-27 at the half.

Led by Hagan and Spivey, who dominated the boards, UK outscored Kansas State 41-29 in the second half to complete the come-from-behind victory.

1957-58 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 84, SEATTLE 72

March 27, 1958 • Louisville, Ky.

Senior Vernon Hatton scored 30 points and the Wildcats overcame a 25-point, 19-rebound performance by Elgin Baylor to capture their fourth NCAA championship.

Led by Hatton and Johnny Cox, who finished with 24 points, the Wildcats twice battled back from 11-point deficits to gain the victory.

Trailing for much of the game, UK grabbed its first lead with 6:08 left when Don Mills hit a hook shot to give the Wildcats a 61-60 lead. Moments later, Cox hit a jump shot to make it 63-60 and UK never trailed again.

John Crigler added 14 points and 14 rebounds for the victors. Mills and Adrian Smith finished with nine and seven points, respectively.

Aside from Baylor, Seattle received 17 points from Charley Brown and 16 from Jerry Frizzell.

1977-78 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 94, DUKE 88

March 27, 1978 • St. Louis, Mo.

Senior Jack Givens put on one of the finest individual performances in NCAA Championship history in leading the Wildcats past the Blue Devils.

With many Kentucky fans among the crowd of 18,271 chanting "Goose, Goose," Givens scored 41 points, three short of the record for a championship game, to help UK clinch its fifth NCAA title and the first in 20 years.

Givens scored 23 of his 41 points before intermission—including UK's last 16 of the half—to turn a 29-28 UK lead into a 45-38 cushion from which the Blue Devils would not recover. Overall, Givens made 18 of 27 field goal attempts, five of eight free throws and added eight rebounds and three assists.

1995-96 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

UK 76, SYRACUSE 67

April 1, 1996 • East Rutherford, N.J.

Tony Delk tied a championship game record with seven three-pointers and the Wildcats withstood a late Orangemen rally to win UK's sixth national title before a capacity crowd of 19,229 in the Continental Airlines Arena at the Meadowlands.

Delk, the Final Four's Most Outstanding Player, canned seven of 12 three-pointers to lead the Cats with 24 points. But after Syracuse had cut the lead to two, 64-62, with 4:46 remaining, a Delk misfire was tipped in by Walter McCarty to extend UK's lead to four. After holding the Orangemen on the next possession, Derek Anderson drained a three to push the lead to seven. SU would get no closer than five in the final minutes.

Delk was joined on the Final Four All-Tournament team by freshman Ron Mercer, who was sensational off the bench, scoring a career-high 20 points on 8-12 shooting from the field, including 3-4 from three-point range.

1997-98 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KENTUCKY 78, UTAH 69

March 30, 1998 • San Antonio, Texas

Kentucky battled back from a 41-31 halftime deficit to Utah — the largest halftime margin ever overcome in an NCAA title game — to claim the school’s seventh national championship before 40,509 fans in the Alamodome.

Utah was propelled to the early lead thanks to a 24-6 rebounding advantage in the first half. But Heshimu Evans sparked the “Comeback Cats” off the bench with seven straight points early in the second half. Later, Final Four Most Outstanding Player Jeff Sheppard canned a baseline jumper with 4:54 remaining to give UK a 65-64 lead. The exhausted Utes then missed 11 consecutive field goals as the Wildcats claimed their second NCAA Championship in three years.

Scott Padgett joined Sheppard on the All-Final Four team after scoring 17 points. UK outrebounded the Utes 18-15 in the second half.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP HEAD COACHES

ADOLPH RUPP

The winningest coach in college basketball history when he retired in 1972, a mark that stood for 25 years. Along with four NCAA titles, he won an Olympic Gold Medal (1948), one NIT Championship (1946), 27 SEC titles and coached 24 All-Americans.

Years	Seasons	Record	Pct	NCAA Titles (Years)
1931-72	+42	876-190	.822	4 (1948, '49, '51, '58)

+ No schedule played in 1953 — Rupp's record for 41 seasons. Five wins in 1966 International Universities Tournament in Israel not included in team totals.

Adolph Rupp poses with All-American Cotton Nash.

JOE B. HALL

The former Rupp assistant coached three teams to the Final Four (1975, '78 and '84) and won the 1978 NCAA Championship, the school's fifth title and first in 20 seasons. He saw 23 players drafted during his 13-year tenure, five in the first round.

Years	Seasons	Record	Pct	NCAA Titles (Years)
1973-85	13	297-100	.748	1 (1978)

Rick Pitino helped restore Kentucky as a national powerhouse in the 1990s.

RICK PITINO

Coached Kentucky to its sixth NCAA title and a national runner-up finish in 1997. He had a 104-28 record vs. SEC teams with two SEC crowns and an amazing 17-1 SEC tourney mark. Six of his Wildcats were drafted in the first round, including three lottery picks.

Years	Seasons	Record	Pct	NCAA Titles (Years)
1990-97	8	219-50	.814	1 (1995)

TUBBY SMITH

Led Kentucky to five SEC crowns and five SEC Tournament titles, with six Sweet 16 finishes in his 10 seasons. Winning an NCAA title in his first season, he totaled 100 wins quicker than any other Wildcat coach except Hall of Famer Adolph Rupp.

Years	Seasons	Record	Pct	NCAA Titles (Years)
1998-07	10	263-83	.760	1 (1998)

HELMS

NATIONAL TITLES

Founded in Los Angeles in the mid-1930s by Bill Schroader and Paul Helms, the Helms Foundation researched records to rank the nation's top teams dating back to 1901. From 1939, when the NCAA Tournament started, the Helms titlists and NCAA champions were the same, except for 1939-40-44-54. In addition to its NCAA Championship years of 1948, '49, '51, '58, '78, '96 and '98, Kentucky was named the Helms National Titlist in 1933 (20-3) and 1954 (25-0).

Kentucky players Forest Sale (1933) and Leroy Edwards (1935) were named Helms National Players of the Year.

UK ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

UK's Athletic Hall of Fame, organized in 2005, recognizes and honors persons whose participation and contributions enriched and strengthened the university athletic program. Athletes are required to wait five years after completing their Wildcat playing career before being eligible for the honor. The charter class was comprised of those individuals who had previously had their jersey retired at Rupp Arena, Commonwealth Stadium, Memorial Coliseum and Cliff Hagan Stadium.

MAKING HISTORY

After reaching the Elite Eight last season, the Kentucky basketball program made history with five first round picks in the 2010 NBA Draft. From left: DeMarcus Cousins (5th, Sacramento Kings); Eric Bledsoe (18th, Los Angeles Clippers via trade with Oklahoma City Thunder); Patrick Patterson (14th, Houston Rockets); John Wall (1st, Washington Wizards); Daniel Orton (29th, Orlando Magic).
