Wildcats and Team USA

Anthony Davis suited up for Team USA at the 2012 London Olympics and helped the squad to the country's second-straight gold medal finish.

Davis is the 10th Wildcat to win gold with Team USA.

Additionally, former Kentucky men's basketball All-Americans DeMarcus Cousins and John Wall suited up for the Red, White and Blue this summer as members of the 2012 USA Men's Select Team that trained against the 2012 USA Basketball Men's National Team.

Record-Breaking Six Cats Drafted

The national champion Kentucky Wildcats made history once again as six players were selected in the NBA Draft, led by Anthony Davis, the second Wildcat selected as the first overall pick in the last three years.

Davis was selected No. 1 overall by the New Orleans Hornets, followed by Michael Kidd-Gilchrist at No. 2 by the Charlotte Bobcats. Davis and Kidd-Gilchrist are the first teammates to go No. 1-2 in NBA Draft history.

It marks the first time that six players from the same school were selected since the NBA Draft went to two rounds in 1989. UNLV is the only other team with six players selected in a single draft which the Runnin' Rebels achieved in the 1977 10-round draft.

Since, John Calipari's arrival the Wildcats have become the first program in the history of the NBA draft to have four or more players selected in three consecutive drafts. UK has had 11 players selected in the opening round and 15 players taken overall over the last three seasons. Every starter and sixth-man has been drafted by the NBA.

Davis Named SEC Athlete of the Year

Kentucky basketball player Anthony Davis has been named the 2011-2012 Roy F. Kramer Southeastern Conference Male Athlete of the Year per a vote by the league's athletics directors.

Davis is the sixth Kentucky winner of the conference's Athlete of the Year award, joining Tim Couch (1999), Jenny Hansen (1995), Jamal Mashburn (1993), Kyle Macy (1980) and Jack Givens (1978) as other recipients.

ESPY Awards

The University of Kentucky's men's basketball team as well as head coach John Calipari

Anthony Davis (left) and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist (right) became the first pair of teammates to go No. 1 and No. 2 in the NBA Draft highlighting a record-breaking night for Kentucky in late June. UK became the first school to have six players drafted in the modern draft, era while four Wildcats went in the first round. Since, UK coach John Calipari has arrived in Lexington every UK starter and the sixth-man has been drafted by the NBA.

Freshman Class Ranked No. 1 Again

For the fourth consecutive year the Wildcats have hauled in the most heralded recruiting class in the nation. UK's signees of Willie Cauley-Stein, Archie Goodwin, Nerlens Noel and Alex Poythress has been rated as the top class by several outlets. Coach John Calipari has now brought in the top ranked class in every season he has coached at the helm of the UK program.

Parade All-America Honors for Newcomers

Kentucky men's basketball signees Archie Goodwin, Nerlens Noel and Alex Poythress were named 2012 Parade Prep All-Americans.

The three selections pushed the number of Parade All-Americans that have signed with Kentucky over the years to 76.

Archie Goodwin (Sherwood, Ark., Sylvan Hills HS) was named Arkansas' Mr. Basketball and was also named Gatorade State Player of the Year and McDonalds All-America honors. Nerlens Noel (Everett, Mass, Tilton School) was also named the USA Today National Player of the Year. Alex Poythress (Clarksville, Tenn., Northeast HS) was named Tennessee's Mr. Basketball and was also named Gatorade State Player of the Year and McDonalds All-America honors.

Calipari and the Dominican National Team

The Dominicans came up one game short of their first-ever Olympic berth, losing to Nigeria 88-73 in early July in the third-place/fourth-place game of the 2012 FIBA Olympic World Qualifying Tournament in Caracas, Venezuela. Nigeria claimed the final spot at the 2012 Olympics in London with the win; the Dominican Republic heads home with a heartbreaking loss.

It was the closest the Dominicans had ever come to the Olympics.

Calipari Coaches the Best

For the fifth straight year, Calipari's point guard has been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft. Derrick Rose (No. 1, Chicago Bulls) and Tyreke Evans (No. 4, Sacramento Kings) both at Memphis followed by John Wall (No.1, Washington Wizards), Brandon Knight (No. 8, Detroit Pistons) and Marquis Teague (No. 28, Chicago Bulls) at UK.

In the past five NBA Drafts, Calipari has had 21 players drafted; including 13 in the first round.

Kentucky Basketball Head Coach

John Calipari

Kentucky head coach John Calipari reached the mountaintop in his third year in Lexington, guiding Kentucky to its eighth national championship and 15th Final Four. In doing so, he claimed his first national championship and his fourth appearance in the Final Four. He is one of only two coaches to lead three different schools to a Final Four (UMass-1996; Memphis-2008; Kentucky-2011, 2012).

The Wildcats rode the trademark hard-nosed Calipari defense to the title, finishing the season as the nation's top-ranked team in field-goal percentage defense and blocked shots.

Kentucky lost three members of its 2011 Final Four team (two to the draft, one to graduation), but Calipari reloaded with the nation's top-ranked recruiting class for the third straight season. Included in the class were eventual National Player of the Year Anthony Davis and All-American Michael Kidd-Gilchrist.

En route to the national championship, Calipari guided the Wildcats to an NCAA record-tying 38 wins, a perfect 16-0 mark in the Southeastern Conference, earning the school's 45th SEC championship, and extended his winning streak in Rupp Arena to 51 straight games. He has yet to lose a game at home as Kentucky's head coach.

Upon being named head coach on April 1, 2009, Calipari continued to work his magic of resurrecting once proud programs, taking an NIT team in 2009 to the 2010 NCAA Elite Eight. Along the way he led the Wildcats to a No. 1 ranking (UK's first since 2003), the program's 44th SEC regular-season championship and 26th SEC Tournament title.

The honors continued after the season as Calipari became the first coach in UK history to receive the Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year award. He then watched as five of his players were selected in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft, the first time a school has ever produced five first-round picks. Among those picks was the first Wildcat ever taken as the No. 1 overall pick, John Wall.

In his second year in 2010-11, a season that was labeled as a "rebuilding effort," one in which Calipari and the Cats were supposed to struggle after losing an unprecedented five first-round picks in the 2010 NBA Draft, Kentucky reloaded as Calipari guided UK to its 27th SEC Tournament championship, kept his unbeaten record at Rupp Arena alive and collected his 500th career on-court win.

In his inaugural season as head coach of the Wildcats, Calipari posted his fifth straight 30-win season, the only coach in NCAA Division I history to do so. In addition to the Rupp National Coach of the Year, Calipari was also named the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year.

When he led Kentucky back to the No. 1 spot in the country, Calipari became one of only two coaches (Frank McGuire) in NCAA history to lead three teams to a No. 1 ranking. He led UMass to a No. 1 ranking in 1995 and 1996, and he led Memphis to the No. 1 spot in the 2008 season.

Much like he did at UMass, when his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors that came through the Memphis program earned their bachelor's degrees, and the six seniors under Cal at Kentucky have all earned their degrees.

The Wildcats posted a 3.12 grade-point-average in the 2012 spring semester with 10 players earning a 3.0 GPA or better.

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, he has placed 27 players in the NBA during his college coaching career, including 15 over his first three seasons at Kentucky. The 15 picks over a three-season span is the most of any coach.

In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history. He followed that up with four players in the draft in 2011 and six players in 2012, the most in a two-round draft.

Overall, he's turned out 15 NBA draft picks, 11 first-rounders, two No. 1 overall selections, five top-five picks and seven lottery picks at Kentucky.

Included in Calipari's NBA success are three No. 1 overall picks (Derrick Rose, Wall and Davis) over the last five years. No other coach has had three No. 1 picks, and 2012 was the first time two players from the same team (Davis and Kidd-Gilchrist) were taken with the top two picks in the draft.

Since the 2005-06 season, Coach Cal ranks as the winningest coach over the last seven years.

After bringing the University of Massachusetts basketball program to national prominence in the '90s and resurrecting the Memphis basketball program in the 2000s, Calipari became the 22nd coach in UK history and seventh in the last 80 years.

Following his third season at UK, Calipari's overall on-court record soared to 547-154 for an impressive 78.0 winning percentage. His 547 wins are the second most in NCAA Division I history in the first 20 years, Roy Williams being the other.

Calipari's 78.0 winning percentage is the third-highest among active NCAA Division I coaches with 10 years experience at college basketball's Division I level, trailing only Mark Few and Roy Williams. On the NCAA Division I list for winning percentage for all coaches (minimum 10 years), Calipari is in 10th place and ahead of Mike Krzyzewski, Jim Boeheim, Bob Huggins and Lute Olson.

Calipari's eight 30-win seasons is tied for third most for a head coach in NCAA Division I history. For his career (20 years), Calipari has 18 20-win seasons and 12 25-win campaigns.

In 1996, Calipari moved from UMass to the NBA after leading the Minutemen to the Final Four. For his efforts, Calipari was named Naismith National Coach of the Year.

Calipari led the Tigers to the 2008 NCAA title game, and Memphis' 38 wins in 2007-08 made him the winningest coach for a single season in NCAA history. As a result, Calipari was named Naismith National Coach of the Year for a second time in his career. He is only the second coach to receive the honor multiple times since the award's inception in 1987. Krzyzewski is the other to do so.

Calipari, the 2009 Sports Illustrated National Coach of the Year, led the Tigers to nine straight 20-win campaigns and nine consecutive postseason appearances, the only Memphis coach to do that. He posted 252 wins — 28 wins per season — as the Tigers' head coach, making him the winningest coach in school history.

Calipari compiled a 193-71 record (.731) during his eight-year career at Massachusetts, including a 108-44 mark (.684) in Atlantic 10 play. In addition to five straight NCAA Tournaments, UMass also made two appearances in the NIT, advancing to the NIT final four in 1991. The 1990-91 season was the first of six straight seasons in which the Minutemen won at least 20 games.

Calipari's personal 20-win streak has reached the 17-season mark after 35 wins in his first year at UK and 29 in his second. All nine of his Memphis clubs won 20-plus games, along with his last six teams at UMass. In his final season at UMass, Calipari was named the 1996 Naismith National Coach of the Year and The Sporting News National Coach of the Year. He was also named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the third time in four years, as well as Basketball Times East Region Coach of the Year.

During the Minutemen's 35-2 season in 1995-96, UMass posted wins over Kentucky, Maryland, Wake Forest, Georgia Tech, Syracuse, Virginia Tech and Louisville. UMass ended the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final regular season poll after being the top-ranked team for nine weeks earlier in the year. The Minutemen also won their first 26 games of the season, setting a school record for most consecutive wins.

In addition to his National Coach of the Year honors in 1996, Calipari was a Naismith Coach of the Year finalist in 1994 and 1995. He was the USBWA District I Coach of the Year in 1993.

At 29, when he was named head coach, Calipari began to build a program from the ground up, going 10-18 his first season before posting a 17-14 record his second year (receiving a bid to the NIT).

The Minutemen won their first A-10 championship in 1992 with a 30-5 record, including a 13-3 mark in league play. With a 77-71 overtime win over Syracuse in an East Regional second-round game, UMass made its first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

Calipari left UMass in June of 1996 to become executive vice president of basketball operations and head coach of the New Jersey Nets. He led the Nets to a second-place finish in the NBA's Atlantic Division and the playoffs in 1998, ending a five-year postseason drought for the franchise. The Nets' 17-game turnaround from the previous year was the best that season in the NBA.

He became a member of the Philadelphia 76ers coaching staff in 1999, rejoining Philadelphia coach Larry Brown, for whom Calipari was an assistant at Kansas.

Calipari began his coaching career at Kansas as a volunteer assistant under Ted Owens. In 1983, he was hired as the recruiting coordinator at the University of Vermont, but he was swayed back to the nation's heartland when Brown was hired as head coach at KU. He spent three seasons at Kansas (1982-85) before another three-year stint as an assistant coach to Paul Evans at Pittsburgh (1985-88).

The 53-year-old lettered two years at North Carolina-Wilmington before transferring to Clarion State. He played point guard at Clarion during the 1981 and 1982 seasons, leading the team in assists and free-throw percentage. The Eagles were ranked in the Division II Top 20 both years and participated in the 1981 NCAA Division II Tournament.

Calipari and his wife, Ellen, have two daughters, Erin and Megan and a son, Bradley. Erin graduated from UMass and is now in grad school at Wake Forest, while Megan is pursuing her undergraduate degree at UMass. Brad is a sophomore at Lexington Christian Academy.
