Signing contract to become 22nd head basketball coach at LSU.

Will Wade

Head Coach

@wwadelsu

Frank William “Will” Wade was named the 22nd head men’s basketball coach at LSU on March 20, 2017. He comes to LSU after a two-year stint as the head coach at Virginia Commonwealth University with four years of very successful experience as a head basketball coach.

Wade was introduced to LSU fans in a most unique way for an introduction of a Tiger coach -- at a special media event held in the middle of the LSU Student Union. Wade told the media and a large contingent of LSU students:

“I am so excited about the opportunity to lead this program and LSU Basketball back to the top of the SEC and back to regular, consistent NCAA Tournament appearances. We have been to four Final Fours. We have been to 21 NCAA Tournaments. We have 10 SEC Championships, and we are going to add to all three of those categories over our tenure here.

“We are going to have players, staff members, everyone in our program is going to be committed to doing what it takes to make LSU the best basketball program that it can be. We are going to have unwavering commitment to put the team first, to put the state first, to put our school first to represent all of these folks in a first-class fashion. We are going to be a hard-working team that represents this great University that represents this great state,” Wade said.

LSU and its fans are not looking for a rebuilding program, but taking the foundation and making it solid again – a change of culture that gives the program a look of consistency year-after-year.

Wade, one of the youngest coaches in Division I at 34, but one of the most energetic showed his recruiting chops early with a class for the 2017-18 season that was ranked 16th in college basketball in the composite recruiting rankings.

Wade’s recruiting chops and promotional ideas has created a buzz in the pre-season that hasn’t been seen too often and the Coach has done his part, speaking most of the summer on the Tiger Tour and to student groups making sure they feel a part of the program.

Coach Wade has been seen on the night prior to a football game visiting with folks in the RV lots and on the first day of school was out in a golf cart picking up students and giving them a lift to opening day classes.

The native of Nashville, Tennessee, directed VCU to a 51-20 record and two NCAA Tournament appearances the last two seasons. The 2016 Rams advanced to the second round of the tournament, defeating seventh-seed Oregon State before losing to Oklahoma. Wade was the youngest head coach in the NCAA Tournament in 2016. In 2017, VCU lost to St. Mary's in the first round of the 2017 tourney.

The Rams were 28-8 over his two years in the Atlantic 10 Conference, posting 14-4 records both years. The team was 25-11 in 2016 and earned a share of the Atlantic 10 Conference regular season crown. The 2017 team won 26 games and finished second in the league, one-game behind Dayton.

Under his tutelage, guard Melvin Johnson earned First Team All-Atlantic 10 honors in 2015-16 while Je Quan Lewis represented VCU on the 2016-17 first team. Mo Alie-Cox was named to the A-10 Defensive Team in both 2016 and 2017.

Wade, age 34, previously served at VCU as an assistant with the Rams under Shaka Smart from 2009-13. VCU was 113-37 during that time, reached three NCAA Tournament and won the 2012 Colonial Athletic Association Championship. He was part of the staff in 2011 when VCU advanced from the NCAA "First Four" all the way to the Final Four in Houston.

During his tenure as a Ram assistant, Wade, who worked closely with VCU's post players, saw the Milwaukee Bucks select center

Larry Sanders with the 15th overall pick in the 2010 NBA Draft (now with Cleveland). In addition, Wade played a major role in the development of current NBA players Troy Daniels (Memphis) and Briante Weber (Charlotte). Weber owns VCU records for 3-pointers in a single season and career steals.

Wade is credited with being a key figure in four top non-power five recruiting classes in his four seasons at VCU.

Prior to becoming the head coach at VCU, Wade served as the head coach at Chattanooga for the 2013-14 and 2014-15 seasons.

His first Mocs squad went 18-15 in 2014, finishing 12-6 and second in regular season Southern Conference play. The 18 wins overall were the most by the program since 2008-09 and the 12 wins in league games was the highest total since 2010-11. The team made the school's first postseason appearance since 2009 in the CIT.

Wade was honored with the Anton Foy Southern Conference Coach of the Year award for his efforts in 2014. Also that year, Z. Mason became the first Chattanooga student-athlete to win the conference's Defensive Player of the Year award.

The Mocs won 22 games in 2015 and finished 15-3 in the league as Wade guided Chattanooga to its first 20-win season since 2004-05. He finished his two seasons there at 40-25 and 27-7 in league play. In the two seasons prior to his arrival, Chattanooga was 24-40 overall and 13-23 in SoCon play.

In his four years as a head coach, he has a combined record at Chattanooga and VCU of 91-45 and 55-15 in conference play with three post-season appearances.

Wade's reputation, where ever he has coached, is a person who is a tireless worker and relentless recruiter. Wade was VCU Head Coach Shaka Smart's first hire upon being named the head VCU coach in 2009.

That reputation was cemented prior to his arrival on the VCU campus. He served as an assistant to Tommy Amaker at Harvard in 2007-08 and 2008-09. Much like at VCU, he was Amaker's first hire. In their second year, the Crimson went 14-14, the first season of .500 or better in the program since 2001-02. Wade had a hand in the development of future NBA standout Jeremy Lin and assembled a top 25 recruiting class during his stay.

Wade's coaching start came at Clemson where he served as Director of Basketball Operations (2006-07) and Graduate Assistant (2005-06) after four seasons as a student manager (2002-05). There he worked for coaches Larry Shyatt (2002-03) and Oliver Purnell (2004-07).

In eight years on coaching staffs at Clemson, Harvard and VCU, the teams had a record of 177-97 with six postseason appearances (2005-13).

Wade is married to the former Lauren Deason, and the couple has one daughter, Caroline Elizabeth.

Bill Armstrong

Assistant Coach

@Coacha15

Coach Bill Armstrong joins the LSU men's basketball staff as an assistant coach following 11 seasons on the staff of the Ole Miss Rebels.

Armstrong served six years as an assistant coach for Ole Miss after five seasons as the Rebels' Coordinator of Basketball Operations.

During his time at Ole Miss, the Rebels won 20 games nine times in 11 seasons. In the last few years, he was on a staff that featured guard Stefan Moody, who earned All-SEC honors for two straight seasons and big man Sebastian Saiz, who finished first in the SEC in rebounding this past season.

Armstrong's contributions have helped Ole Miss to an SEC Tournament title, eight postseason berths and a pair of SEC West titles over the last 11 seasons.

He was on the staff in 2014, when Marshall Henderson ranked third in the nation with 4.3 3-pointers made per game and Jarvis Summers was the only player in the league to rank in the top 10 in scoring and top five in the SEC in both assists and field goal percentage.

Armstrong and the Rebels broke through in 2012-13, as Ole Miss tied a school record with 27 wins, claimed the school's second SEC Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2002. Armstrong also helped Henderson to SEC Player of the Year honors and Summers to rank second in the SEC in assist-to-turnover ratio.

Before his arrival in Oxford, Armstrong spent three years as an assistant coach at Birmingham-Southern. In his first season with the Panthers in 2003-04 - BSC's first season of full NCAA eligibility - Armstrong helped the team to a 20-7 record and a 12-4 mark in conference play, earning a share of the Big South regular-season championship. Birmingham-Southern posted a 19-9 finish in his final year.

A Birmingham native, Armstrong joined the BSC staff after serving as an assistant at Chipola Junior College in Marianna, Fla., where he helped lead the Indians to a 23-9 record and a second-place finish in the Panhandle Conference in 2002-03.

Prior to his stint at Chipola, Armstrong was a graduate assistant for UAB during the 2001-02 campaign under Murry Bartow. Armstrong graduated from UAB in 2001 with a degree in justice sciences. He was also the recipient of the Barbara Hallerman Scholarship for Leadership.

A four-year letterman at UAB from 1998-2001, Armstrong played under Kennedy, who was then an assistant coach with the Blazers. He served as team captain as a senior and helped the Blazers reach the NCAA Tournament in 1999 and the NIT in 1998.

Armstrong was a three-year letterwinner for his father, Jimmy, at Oneonta (Alabama) High School where he was Academic All-State, Class 2A All-State, averaging 19.7 points and 7.8 assists per game as a senior. His team won the Area 11 championship for two consecutive seasons (1994-96) and reached the Alabama Class 2A Sweet 16 both years.

Born November 18, 1977, Armstrong and his wife, Kenna, are the parents of five children: daughters Ella Michele, Sara McKay and Amelia Grace -- and sons, James Walton (Bo), and Ford.

Tony Benford

Assistant Coach

@TonyLBenford

Veteran coach Tony Benford, with 25 years in NCAA Division I basketball coaching experience, was the first hire of Head Coach Will Wade for the 2017-18 season.

Benford comes to LSU after five years as the head coach at the University of North Texas. He coached All-Conference selection and North Texas graduate Jeremy Combs, who is now a graduate transfer for the Tigers this coming season.

The 53-year-old Benford served as the assistant and later associate head coach at Marquette (2008-12). In his distinguished career as an assistant he worked at New Mexico (1992-98), Arizona State (1998-06) and Nebraska (2006-08).

During that time, he was tabbed by Basketball Times, Fox Sports and Hoop Scoop as one of the country's top assistant coaches in Division I basketball.

He has been part of teams that made 14 post-season appearances and has recruited and coached five NBA first-round draft picks: Ike Diogu from Garland, Texas (Arizona State, 2005); Charles Smith (New Mexico, 1997); Kenny Thomas (New Mexico, 1998); Lazar Hayward (Marquette, 2010); and, Jimmy Butler (Marquette, 2011). Six other players have been selected in the second round of the draft.

In six seasons with New Mexico, Benford helped the Lobos reach five NCAA Tournaments while winning 73.2 percent of their games. New Mexico picked up a pair of Western Athletic Conference tournament titles in 1993 and 1996, and a regular season championship in 1994. During his stint with the Lobos, Benford coached the top four scorers in program history, including all-time leading scorer Kenny Thomas.

Benford assisted the Arizona State Sun Devils to four NCAA Tournament appearances during his tenure, including a second round appearance in 2003 and recruited Pac-10 Players of the Year Diogu and Eddie House (2000).

In two campaigns at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers won 37 games, highlighted by a trip to the NIT in 2008.

Benford helped Marquette, where he was associate head coach his last two seasons, to the NCAA Sweet 16 in both 2011 and 2012. He helped recruit six All-Big East players to Marquette, including 2012 conference player of the year Jae Crowder, a second-team AP All-American. The Golden Eagles won at least 20 games and reached the NCAA Tournament in each of his four years with the program.

In his five years at North Texas as the team transitioned from the Sun Belt Conference to Conference USA, Benford tried to mold his teams into hard-working defense units. In 2014-15, UNT held opponents to 68.2 points per game and just 42 percent field goal percentage, which ranked third and fifth in school history. In his third season at the Denton, Texas school, his team blocked 153 shots, a school record and the squad's defensive field goal percentage inside the arc of 44.3 percent was the lowest in the Sun Belt.

Benford started his career coaching youth teams, including spending four years at All Saints School in Lubbock, Texas, where he served as head coach of the junior high squad.

A native of Hobbs, New Mexico, Benford played collegiately at Texas Tech and was the catalyst for the Red Raiders Southwest Conference regular-season and tournament titles in 1985, and their 1986 SWC Tournament championship. He earned

All-SWC and SWC Tournament MVP honors as a senior. He was a fourth-round pick in the 1986 NBA Draft of the Boston Celtics and played professionally in Holland during the 1986-87.

He was a prep all-star, earning Converse All-America status and the New Mexico Player of the Year after pouring in 27.5 points per game as a senior for Hobbs High School. He led his team to the state title in his final season, earning MVP honors at the state championship tournament.

Benford and his wife Deborah have four children: Jeremy Soria, Audriana, Tony, Jr., and Milena.

Greg Heiar

Assistant Coach

@gregheiar

After assisting Wichita State to one of the most successful stretches in the program history, Greg Heiar has joined Coach Will Wade to help transform the LSU men's basketball program back into a contender on the league and national level.

Heiar (pronounced "higher") comes to LSU after six seasons as an assistant coach at Wichita State.

In Heiar's six years at Wichita State, the Shockers posted 179 wins and five Missouri Valley Conference regular season championships and six consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, including a run to the 2013 NCAA Final Four. He worked extensively with the guards and helped mentor All-Americans Ron Baker and Fred VanVleet.

He also served two seasons as an assistant coach at Southern Miss and five seasons as head coach at Chipola (Fla.) Junior College.

Both Baker and VanVleet would sign NBA contracts after the conclusion of their senior seasons in 2016. VanVleet would earn Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year honors in both 2014 and 2016 finishing as the school's career assists and steals leader. Baker would finish in the top 10 of WSU's career scoring list.

In that 2016 season, WSU was the only team in Division I to surrender fewer than 60 points per game (59.0) and the team's +5.6 turnover margin ranked second nationally. Baker and VanVleet combined for a 2.6-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio and recorded as many steals (108) as they had turnovers (108).

The 42-year-old Heiar was part of the Shocker program in 2012-13 when the team defeated Pittsburgh, Gonzaga, LaSalle and Ohio State to advance to the NCAA Final Four.

Heiar worked primarily with the Shocker backcourt during his time at Wichita State.

At Southern Miss, Heiar helped the Eagles to a pair of 20-win seasons (2009-11). The 2009-10 squad reached the Conference USA semifinals and a postseason bid in the CIT.

Before moving to Southern Miss, he served six years at Chipola Junior College, including the last five as the head coach (2004-09). His teams won 164 games during his head coaching tenure (164-15) and was named Panhandle Conference Coach of the Year five times and Regional VIII Coach of the Year four times.

His team won five Panhandle Conference titles and had four appearances in the National JC Tournament, including a third place finish in 2009 when the team posted a 35-2 record.

In his time as head coach, Heiar coached 40 all-conference players and sent 39 players to Division I schools.

As a player, Heiar, a native of Dubuque, Iowa, earned second-team all-region honors at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa after leading his team to the JC Nationals for the first time in school history. That year he helped his team to a 25-10 record and a conference championship.

He would end up at Mount St. Clare College (later Franciscan University) in Clinton, Iowa, where he was a two-year captain and team MVP. He was a first-team all-conference choice and led the team to its first conference title in school history. He graduated from Mount St. Clare in 2000.

He started his coaching career there as a student assistant before starting as a grad assistant and later full-time assistant at Loras College in Iowa.

Coach Heiar and his wife, Jessica, have one daughter, Alexis.

Nelson Hernandez

Director of Operations

Nelson Hernandez joins LSU Head Coach Will Wade after serving in the same position during the 2016-17 season at VCU.

Prior to that he had a one-year tenure as director of player development and administrative assistant at Wright State.

As director of operations, Hernandez will aide Coach Wade in administrative areas such as travel and practice and assist with game scheduling just to name a few of a multitude of areas the operations director must be involved in.

Hernandez is well versed in team video needs having worked one season at Clemson, handling video responsibilities for all games during the 2014-15 season there and four seasons (2010-14) as the video coordinator at Utah State. There Hernandez was responsible for all film exchanges, as well as coordinating game day camera operations and filming practice.

During the 2009-10 season, Hernandez served as an assistant coach for Salt Lake Community College in Salt Lake City, Utah. Hernandez helped the Bruins to a 24-8 record that season as he handled scouting and the off-season individual workouts and conditioning for the team.

His first coaching job was as a student assistant coach for Suffolk Community College in Selden, New York during the 2004-05 season. While a student, Hernandez assisted the defending National Junior College Champion Sharks with on-court support during practice and helped focus on skill development workouts during the off-season.

Hernandez also was the founder, CEO and director of the Native American Youth to Elder Foundation (NAYEF)/Warrior Elite Basketball from 2004-10. Hernandez partnered with NBA legend Magic Johnson to promote healthy living, education, drug prevention and inspire youth to greatness through basketball. The organization reached over 75,000 youth throughout the years.

Hernandez also spent time working with the Salt Lake City Corporation where he served as the Sorenson Multi-Cultural Center sports coordinator. As sports coordinator, he assisted and supervised after school sports activities for low income youth ages 8-18, in which he set up practices and games for the children.

In 2011, Hernandez assisted in the production and creation of the award-winning basketball documentary about future Louisville women's basketball guards Shoni and Jude Schimmel called "Off the Rez" which premiered at the Tribeca Film Festival in New York City and eventually made its way to the television on TLC and ESPN during the Women's Final Four in 2013 with the help of Kelly Ripa and husband Mark Consuelos.

Hernandez also partnered with the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder in the spring of 2009 to create the first Native American Heritage Night promotion.

The Brooklyn, New York native attended Utah State where he received a Bachelor's of Science degree in May 2013 with an interdisciplinary studies emphasis, Physical Education and History cum laude.

Hernandez and his wife, June, have one son, Justin.

Tasmin Mitchell

Director of Student-Athlete Development • First Year at LSU

One of the top stars of LSU Basketball, Tasmin Mitchell, has returned to LSU to be with Coach Will Wade as his Director of Student-Athlete Development.

The native of Denham Springs, Louisiana, has been playing professionally in the NBA G-League and overseas with stops in France, Russia and Israel since his LSU playing career ended in 2010. He has spent the previous year prior to joining the LSU staff back home in Denham Springs after the floods of 2016 affected his family.

Mitchell said the opportunity to “give back to my University that gave me so much” made it an easy decision to accept the offer to join the staff.

Mitchell remains one of the top scorers and rebounders in LSU history, finishing third all-time in points at 1,989, a 14.5 points per game average for 137 career games. He averaged 11.4 points in 2006 when as a freshman he was a member of LSU’s last NCAA Final Four team when he teamed with Baton Rouge products Tyrus Thomas, Glen Davis and Garrett Temple along with St. Martinsville’s Darrel Mitchell in a great storyline of players that had been on the court since they were youngsters.

Mitchell’s 1,989 career points remains third behind only Pete Maravich and Durand Macklin on LSU’s scoring chart. His 950 rebounds remains sixth all-time and he stands behind five top names of LSU basketball history – Macklin, Shaquille O’Neal, Al Sanders, Bob Pettit and Ned Clark.

He is one of just three players in LSU history to record 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 200 assists and 100 steals in a career and is 4,692 minutes played is a school record as his 137 games played and 136 starts.

Besides the NCAA Final Four year, he was also one of the players to capture multiple Southeastern Conference titles as part of the 2009 championship team. He was honored in March of 2017 as the SEC Legend representing LSU at the league basketball tournament.

He was a McDonald’s All-American during his outstanding prep career at Denham Springs High School and is a member of the Denham Springs High School Hall of Fame. He was the school’s only four-time Class 5A All-State basketball player and was named Louisiana’s Mr. Basketball in 2005.

Mitchell, born on June 25, 1986 and a 2010 graduate of LSU, has for the past several years given back to the youth of Denham Springs through the T-Mitch Free Basketball Camp which he has organized and sponsored.

Brian Merritt

Coordinator of Basketball Operations • First Year at LSU

Coach Will Wade added Brian Merritt to the basketball staff for the 2017-18 season where he will serve as Coordinator of Basketball Operations and assist Director of Operations Nelson Hernandez.

Merritt, a native of St. Mary’s County, Maryland, comes to LSU most recently after serving as Director of Scouting/ Recruiting for John Lucas Enterprises.

He has also had several stints in college programs, most recently at Arizona State during the 2015-16 seasons. He was also an assistant at Texas A&M Corpus Christi (2007-10) and Hampton (2006-07).

He also spent three years at the University of Louisville (2003-05) where he served as the Director of Basketball Operations and assisted in opponent scouting.

Merritt played two seasons of basketball in college. He played his first season at Butler (Pa.) Community College and as a walk-on at Towson University. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in sports management in 2003 from Towson.

Merritt is considers himself a “jack-of-all-trades” and got his start in college basketball driving thousands of miles to camps along the East Coast.

In his stints at John Lucas Enterprises in Houston, Merritt helped establish the former NBA star’s development camps and assisted in the National Basketball Players Association Top 100 Camp.

Alex Wharton

Video Coordinator • First Year at LSU

Alex Wharton, who has been a member of Coach Will Wade's staff at both Chattanooga and VCU, continues his work with Coach Wade now as Director of Video Operations for the Tigers.

Wharton will help provide scouting videos to help prepare the Tigers and the coaching staff for future opponents and break downs of drills in practice that the team can watch as a team or individually.

Coach Wade hired Wharton prior to the 2013-14 season as video coordinator and then in 2014-15 was elevated to the position of director of basketball operations overseeing scheduling, camps, travel and all administrative aspects of the Chattanooga basketball program.

He was named Director of Video Operations at VCU prior to the start of the 2015-16 season.

Wharton has lots of experience in college basketball despite his relatively young age. Prior to linking up with Coach Wade, he worked in internal operations for the Houston basketball program for the 2013-14 season and as a graduate assistant at Angelo State for the 2012 and 2013 campaigns.

Wharton played two seasons at Grayson College (JC) in Texas. He later transferred to Houston, where he completed his bachelor's degree, but did not play basketball. Instead, he started his coaching career assisting at Lone Star Community College in Houston.

Wharton, a native of Houston, received his bachelor's in sports administration in 2011 from Houston and his master's in 2013, also in sports administration.

Brittany Carvalhido

Administrative Assistant • Eighth Season

Brittany Carvalhido enters her eighth season on the men's basketball staff, serving as administrative assistant for head coach Will Wade.

The former college basketball player is entering her 12th season of working for and with a Division I basketball staff.

Carvalhido completed her playing career at Oklahoma State in 2005, where she was a two-year letterwinner. In her senior season, she was team co-captain and an Academic Big 12 selection.

Before arriving at Oklahoma State, Carvalhido played two seasons at Hutchinson (Kansas) Community College and helped her teams win 47 games. She was a two-time All-Region selection and completed her career there as the school's career leader for 3-point field goals with 203 and eighth all-time leading scorer (779 points).

She was an All-Jayhawk Conference first team performer as a freshman.

Carvalhido started her coaching career at Tulsa where she served as the video coordinator on the women's basketball coaching staff from 2005-07. From Tulsa, she moved on to Rice where she served as the director of basketball operations during the 2007-08 season.

Carvalhido was hired as the director of basketball operations on the LSU women's coaching staff in the spring of 2008 where she served in that position until joining the LSU men's basketball staff prior to the 2010-11 season, first as executive assistant to the head coach and then into her present position.

Carvalhido is a native of Osborne, Kansas, where she was a four-year all-state athlete in basketball, tennis and track. She received her bachelor's degree in education from Oklahoma State in 2005.

She is married to Joe Carvalhido, Vice-President of Operations and Services of the Tiger Athletic Foundation. They have two children: Dane (6) and Ian (3).

Greg Goldin

Strength and Conditioning Coordinator • First Year at LSU

Greg Goldin joined the LSU basketball staff after working for the last four seasons for Coach Will Wade at Tennessee–Chattanooga (2013-15) and most recently at VCU (2015-17).

He previously also served as strength and conditioning coach under Steve Prohm at Murray State during the 2012-13 season and prior to that graduate assistant under former VCU strength coach Daniel Roose during the 2011-12 campaign.

Goldin has become well known for his efforts to integrate technological advancements in player wellness analytics, as well as devising a strength and conditioning routine to suit Coach Wade's aggressive style of play. Measuring and managing wear and tear on the body, as well as giving clues about potential issues off the court has been part of the program Goldin has developed in putting together conditioning programs under Wade.

Goldin believes that performance-monitoring technology is becoming more mainstream for college teams. He uses it as an educational tool to help athletes learn to take care of their bodies and to help coaches learn what they're doing to an athlete's body.

Golden served as graduate assistant under former VCU strength coach Daniel Roose during the 2011-12 campaign and aided the Rams' march to a CAA championship and NCAA Tournament berth.

He also is working as strength and conditioning coordinator at LSU with the nationally-ranked men's golf team

A native of Ilion, New York, Goldin is a 2011 graduate of Canisius College, where he received a degree in health and physical education, as well as health and human performance. He also received his graduate degree from Virginia Commonwealth University from the Center for Sports Leadership.

Shawn Eddy

Head Basketball Athletic Trainer • 13th Season • 22nd Year at LSU

Shawn Eddy enters his 13th season as the head athletic trainer for the LSU men's basketball program in which he provides comprehensive medical care for the players.

Prior to joining the basketball program, he served nine years as the head baseball athletic trainer at Alex Box Stadium for the LSU Baseball Tigers.

This is Eddy's 22nd season at LSU, arriving in July 1996 from Vanderbilt where he worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for two years. He was promoted to senior associate athletic trainer in 2005 and also oversees athletic training activities for the Tiger Girls program.

He also supervised the Dr. Martin J. Broussard Center for Athletic Training, LSU's state-of-the-art training facility attached to Tiger Stadium that serves all sports.

Eddy, 45, earned a bachelor's degree in exercise physiology in 1994 from the West Virginia University School of Medicine. He also earned a Master's degree from Vanderbilt in health promotion and education. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and Collegiate Athletic Trainers Society.

Eddy is married to Robin Levy, and he has three step children: Ben, Caro, and Cecilia.

The Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournament will be played on the western banks of the Mississippi River for the first time when St. Louis, Mo, plays host to the 2018 event.

Scottrade Center is a contemporary, 12-story glass and concrete structure located in the heart of downtown St. Louis. The home of the St. Louis Blues Hockey Club, Scottrade Center also features a full range of arena programming, including concerts, ice shows, family shows and other sporting events. Scottrade Center plays host to approximately 175 events per year, bringing nearly 2 million guests to downtown St. Louis annually and ranking it among the top arenas in the country.

The tournament has been played on the eastern banks of the Mississippi seven times with Baton Rouge (1938 and 1988), Memphis (1994 and 1997) and New Orleans (1996, 2003 and 2012) previously serving as hosts.

The winner of the 13-game tournament receives the SEC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The tournament seeds are determined by the 18-game conference schedule during the regular season. Teams are seeded 1-14 based on their regular season conference finish.

Atlanta served as host of the inaugural SEC Tournament played following the 1932-33 season and did so again after the 1933-34 season. The event was held every year through 1952, with the exception of 1935. After a 26-year layoff (1953-78), the tournament was renewed in 1979. The 2018 tournament will be the 59th in league history and the 40th since the renewal.

The event has helped set the stage for SEC teams in the NCAA Tournament, as 24 of the tournament champions since the tournament resumed in 1979 have advanced to at least the Sweet 16. Three of the last 12 SEC Tournament champions have gone on to win the national championship. Kentucky leads the league with 30 SEC Tournament titles. Alabama is second with six, while Tennessee and Florida are tied for third with four. Mississippi State has three championship trophies while Georgia, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt have two. Arkansas, Auburn, LSU and former league member Georgia Tech have each won one SEC Tournament championship.

LSU's First NCAA Final Four Heroes

One of the most recent reunions of NCAA Final Four teams at LSU brought back the group that will always be known as the first - the 1953 LSU Tigers, who were back in 2013 for a reminder to LSU fans about their magical journey to college basketball's pinnacle now 60-plus years ago.

Eight members of the team returned to campus and were honored with a Tipoff Club function prior to a hero's welcome on the floor of the Maravich Center.

Kenny Bridges, Ned Clark, Bob Freshley, Don Loughmiller, Benny McArdle, Bob Pettit, Charlie Roberts and Don Sebastien were back.

The 1953 team coached by Harry Rabenhorst won the Southeastern Conference that year and advanced to the national semifinals. It wasn't known as "The Final Four" yet, just the semifinal game of a national tournament. But the memories are still there of a magical time for these players.

Pettit would go on to legendary status at LSU and the NBA and he would have his number retired by LSU. But the 1953 season for the LSU Tigers was the story of a team that had a cast of players who could all contribute.

Their return visit in 2013, 20 years from the last time they were all together for an LSU basketball weekend, gave us a look back at a magical journey in the 1950s era of LSU and college basketball.

NOTES -- Tigers won their second consecutive SEC Championship, sharing the title with Kentucky at 14-0 as the teams did not play each other in the regular season in a dispute over a site for the game ... Teams met for the NCAA Tournament bid in a playoff in Nashville ... While Kentucky won, the Wildcats declined the bid and LSU went to the tournament for the second straight year.

1952-53 -- Record 22-3, 13-0 in the SEC, NCAA Final Four

NOTES -- The Tigers didn't lose in the league, despite the loss of one of their stars, Bob Pettit, for a few games in mid-season. LSU, coached by Harry Rabenhorst, was able to easily win the league and advanced through the regional round to its first NCAA Final Four in Kansas City.

1935 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

It was a different time and a different era. But in 1935, in the days before the NCAA Tournament and the National Invitation Tournament sprung to life and created true March Madness, there was a national championship being claimed on the hardwood at LSU.

Led by the school's first All-American, Sparky Wade, and Buddy Blair, the Tigers of 10th year head coach Harry Rabenhorst pulled off a feat that many people feel is the first magical moment of LSU basketball. The Tigers, after a 13-1 regular season and a co-championship in the Southeastern Conference, went to Atlantic City and played the best team in the East, the Pittsburgh Panthers, and won.

They called Wade the "Little Giant from Jena," and he could make a basketball do almost anything. He was 5-6 and a smaller preview of what would come in the late 1960s with Pete Maravich.

In 1935, the Tigers had a very favorable schedule that saw them play only three of 14 games away from the comfort of the Gym-Armory. The road games weren't bad trips at all, even in those days. One was to Houston to face Rice and the other two were to New Orleans to face Tulane.

The only loss of the season was that game against Rice, 56-47. Wade jokingly said in later years of that game, "The Rice Gym was an old auditorium with one chandelier with twenty-five watt bulbs. You could not see your feet or the color of uniforms. Even the floor was unwaxed."

But that was the only time the Tigers stumbled. Ironically, there was no SEC Tournament that particular year so LSU and Kentucky would not meet in basketball that season. Kentucky, undefeated in the conference, had not lost to LSU in a hoops contest and wouldn't until 26 years later.

So LSU and Pittsburgh were invited to the battle for the American Legion Bowl before some 5,000 at the Atlantic City Auditorium. LSU won by four, 41-37, but that tells so little of the story.

It was April 13, 1935. Doc Carlson's Panthers were 18-5 on the season. The Tigers started out very, very slow at a time when scoring points could be easily at a premium. The Tigers trailed 18-4 and still were down by nine, 26-17, at the half.

Gradually LSU rallied back. Buddy Blair made a long shot to give LSU a 35-33 lead. He then followed it with the next six points for the Tigers. Pittsburgh outscored LSU 17-16 in field goals, but LSU had a 9-3 advantage from the free throw line.

Blair led all scorers with 20 points, Shongaloo Lindsey added eight, Sparky Wade five, Jack Harris four and Arnold Bryan and Ben Journey two apiece. While Wade's point total was down, his ball handling and court presence meant much to LSU's win.

The Advocate trumpeted the news the next day: "Louisiana State University, power in the Southeastern Conference, came from far behind tonight to defeat the University of Pittsburgh, Eastern Conference champion, 41-37, in their inter-sectional basketball game."

"The Bayou Tigers from Baton Rouge, trailing 26-17 at the half, smothered Pittsburgh in the second half with their flashy passing and scored goal after goal from the field."

"Pittsburgh used a figure-eight offense," Buddy Blair once said. "We had not seen this before and it hindered us in the first half. In the second half, we got our fast break going and just about ran them crazy."

In the days before Bob Pettit arrived on campus, Harry Rabenhorst said in 1951 that Wade was head and shoulders the best player on campus. "We've had some great boys here at LSU. We've had some great ones, but Sparky Wade was the most spectacular and most colorful. He was a showman and probably the greatest dribbler in basketball. Sparky came to delight the fans. He never came up short on that count."

"I'm not as great as they say I am," Sparky once said. "I'm just a little fellow – five-eight if I stretch – but you know, basketball is the silliest game in the world. You have 10 guys and only one basketball, and if I have the ball, who can beat me?"

In 1935, only one team could beat the Tigers and powerful Pittsburgh couldn't stop a second half onslaught that led to a special moment in LSU basketball: a chance to claim a national championship.

In 1994, the remaining living members of the team were honored and a banner lowered from the Maravich Center to forever honor the accomplishments of this great team in Tiger basketball history.

In 2009, the widow of Sparky Wade and her family took part in LSU basketball's 100th anniversary celebration as Wade was named one of the 16 members of the LSU All-Century team.

Four NCAA Final Fours for LSU: 1953, 1981, 1986, 2006. All with different heroes and much different circumstances. LSU's first Final Four appearance came at the time when it wasn't a media event in the days before television. The second came at a time when the LSU program was at a zenith, winning 17-straight conference games. LSU's 1986 Final Four trip came when LSU fans least expected it, or even imagined it. LSU returned to the Final Four again in 2006, taking a conference championship season and moving through the tournament, upsetting the No. 1 team in the tournament and the country in the process. Here's a brief look at LSU's four NCAA Final Four appearances:

Record: 22-3, 13-0 in the SEC • Coach: Harry Rabenhorst

The NCAA Tournament was enlarged to a whopping 22 teams in 1953, adding four new conference winners and two more at-large entries. LSU, led by junior Bob Pettit, went through the conference undefeated in a year when Kentucky was barred from fielding a team, and advanced to the Final Four in Kansas City by downing Lebanon Valley (89-76) and Holy Cross (81-73). The Tigers were unable to sustain the momentum in the national semifinals, losing to Indiana, 80-67.

Record: 31-5, 17-1 in the SEC • Coach: Dale Brown

It has been over 30 years since LSU fans were "Silly in Philly" over LSU's trip to the Final Four. It was a year in which an LSU team, which featured Durand "Rudy" Macklin, Greg "Cookiemann" Cook, Ethan Martin, Howard Carter, Leonard Mitchell and Willie Sims among others, would win 26 straight games, including the first 17 in the league to advance as high as No.2 in the nation. Coach Dale Brown got the draw he wanted in the tournament, a route that would take him to the Final Four through the Louisiana Superdome. With the majority of 30,000-plus fans on hand pulling for LSU, the Tigers beat Arkansas (72-56) and Wichita State (96-85) in the regional rounds to advance to the Final Four. But Macklin was hurt in the Wichita game and was less than 100 percent. Again Indiana would be the team to beat LSU in the national semifinals, 69-47.

Record: 26-12, 9-9 in the SEC • Coach: Dale Brown

A season that started 14-0, had a chickenpox scare in the middle, and finished the regular season with eight losses in the last 13 games, still had much promise to it at the end. The Tigers, coming off an SEC Championship the year before, still showed enough to earn a spot in the NCAA Tournament field of 64. LSU was seeded 11th, but would get to play its first two games in the then LSU Assembly Center. The Tigers first beat Purdue in double-overtime, then used an Anthony Wilson buzzer beater to down Memphis. From there, it was a win over Georgia Tech and then Ricky Blanton, Don Redden, Wilson and Derrick Taylor pulled off the impossible, beating Kentucky in the regional finals after the Wildcats had won three previous meetings earlier in the year. LSU was at that time the lowest seed ever to make the NCAA Final Four, a mark that stood until 2006.

Record: 27-9, 14-2 in the SEC • Coach: John Brady

The Tigers won the Southeastern Conference with a 14-2 record, extending an unbeaten string of SEC wins in the Maravich Assembly Center to 17 games dating back to March 2004. LSU was the fourth seed in the NCAA Tournament's Atlanta Regional and was sent to Jacksonville, Fla., to begin tournament play. After dispatching Iona in the first round, LSU's battle with Texas A&M would be the first of three-straight epic battles that LSU would face on the road to the Final Four. It would take a Darrel Mitchell three-point shot with less than five seconds to play to get LSU the Round of 16, with a 58-57 win over the Aggies. The Tigers advanced to the Atlanta Regional semifinals where LSU downed the tournament top seed and the nation's No. 1-ranked team, Duke, and then went on to knock off No. 9 Texas in overtime, 70-60, to bring LSU back to the Final Four for the first time in 20 years.

Harry Rabenhorst

Before there was Dale Brown, there was Harry Rabenhorst. In an era when college basketball wasn't big news and when cable didn't send hundreds of games all across the country, Rabenhorst laid the foundation for those that would follow him in the LSU job.

Like Maravich with Pete, like Dale with Rudy, Chris and Shaq, Rabenhorst coached two of the legends of the game: Sparky Wade and Bob Pettit. Like Brown, he took his team to a Final Four in the days before anyone realized what a major event the NCAA Tournament was. But unlike any other LSU coach, Rabenhorst laid claim to a national championship, mythical though it may have been. It was a year to remember for Rabenhorst, but it was a long way from the end of his career.

The Baton Rouge native, however, came to LSU holding a record of a much different kind. He was a star athlete at Wake Forest in the years following World War I and holds the world record for the single longest punt of 110 yards.

After serving in the U.S. Army in World War I, Rabenhorst began his career in coaching in 1921 at Greensboro High School in Greensboro, N.C. After that, he moved to New Mexico Military Academy where he coached for three seasons before moving back to Baton Rouge and the start of a long and dedicated lifetime of service to LSU.

In any capacity he served, he showed the same gracious understanding of the individual and devotion to duty that have set him apart from the ordinary.

He was a walking encyclopedia of LSU athletics and could recall in a moment the big game, the big play and the individual star of almost every athletic success enjoyed by the Tigers during his tenure.

Few men alive in college athletics numbered among their close personal friends the great and near great personalities who dominated the athletic scene for much of the first 60 years of the 20th century. His list of associates reads like a "Who's Who" of American Collegiate Athletics, names that capture the imagination of sports fans and historians everywhere -- Knute Rockne, Amos Alonzo Stagg, Pop Warner, Fielding Yost, Wallace Wade, Adolph Rupp -- and many more.

Rabenhorst's career at LSU meant more than victories and championships. A popular and respected coach and administrator, he brought LSU distinction with his long and brilliant service and developed athletes who became outstanding students, and later outstanding citizens.

Harry Rabenhorst was a competitor. He was also a gentleman. He proved that you can be both and be successful.

When Coach Rabenhorst passed away in March, 1972, at the age of 73, then athletic director Carl Maddox said, "Coach Raby was revered and respected nationally by the many who came to know him in the world of intercollegiate athletics -- but more significant is the esteem and the love he earned from the men who played for him."

"I always enjoyed competing with him," said Adolph Rupp. "He was a great credit to the game. He developed some of LSU's outstanding players and teams."

He is still revered today by many and joined just the second class of administrators and coaches inducted into the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009.

Coach Raby was a man for all seasons and still to this day remains one of the league's all-time winningest basketball coaches. Those who played for him, loved him. Those who knew him, respected him. There's not much better can be said.

"...one of the true statesmen of college basketball."

- Former Temple Coach John Chaney

Dale Brown

When he arrived from Washington State via Minot, N. D., there weren't that many basketball fans in the state of Louisiana who knew who Dale Brown was. When he retired after the 1996-97 season, you would have been hard pressed to find a college basketball fan in the country who didn't have some inkling about who Dale Brown was and what he stood for.

When Brown arrived in Baton Rouge in March, 1972, he arrived with a dream that was perceived by many who knew the LSU basketball program as impossible. The dream was to make basketball important in football-crazy Tiger country. When Brown was introduced as the Tiger coach, LSU fans were still remembering the Pete Maravich era. Final Fours? Rudy Macklin? Chris Jackson? Shaq? All a dream. In those years, fans had to be convinced to come to the new arena known as the LSU Assembly Center.

Brown traveled from one end of the state to the other telling all who would listen about the future of LSU basketball. Some thought him foolish. Others questioned his statements. But none who saw or heard him criticized his effort and his tireless energy.

His first LSU team shocked the basketball world by knocking off third-ranked Memphis State in Brown's home opener in December, 1972. The Hustlers, as they were dubbed, gave the competition fits all season long. They won 14 games, finished 9-9 in the SEC and drew praise from all around the country for their determination. For his achievements with a team picked last in the league, Brown was named SEC Coach of the Year, the first of four such honors he would receive.

Starting with the 1976-77 season, the Tigers increased their victory total ever year for the next six seasons. The streak was highlighted by a 31-5 record in 1980-81 (the most wins in a season in LSU history) and the first of Brown's two trips to the Final Four. For his success that season Brown was honored as the 1981 National Coach of the Year.

Even more impressive was his second trip to the Final Four in 1985-86 when his Tigers were the lowest seeded team ever to make it to the Final Four after knocking off teams seeded first, second and third in the region (the only team ever to accomplish that feat on the road to the Final Four).

The Tigers won four SEC titles under Brown and only Adolph Rupp and Joe B. Hall at Kentucky won more SEC titles. His 448-301 record with 238 wins in regular season SEC play, put him second behind only Rupp in wins in the league. He was only the third SEC coach to coach 25 years as a head coach in the league.

Brown was part of 38.5 percent of LSU's 1,164 total victories in the first 89 seasons of basketball. Also, no coach in LSU history coached more consecutive games -- 749.

In 1990, Brown was the winning coach, capturing the Gold Medal for the South in the Olympic Festival in Minneapolis.

Brown was born in 1935 in Minot, a small railroad town in the northwest corner of North Dakota. In high school, he was the leading scorer in both football and basketball at St. Leo's of Minot. As a senior, he was the state scoring leader in basketball with a state record scoring average. He also set a school record in the 440-yard dash.

Brown earned 12 letters in basketball, football and track at Minot State University, making him the school's only athlete to achieve that goal.

John Chaney of Temple called Brown, "...one of the true statesmen of college basketball. His contributions to the game and society have impacted many. He is an outstanding coach and an outstanding person."

Legendary coach John Wooden of UCLA said: "I will always remember Dale for his enthusiasm. There are those who say he is a put-on -- they just can't believe that he can be what he professes. But I never questioned that. He amazed me because there is a lot more depth to the man. He was much more than a basketball coach."

At halftime of the Kentucky game in February 2004, athletics director Skip Bertman and the LSU basketball program honored Coach Brown with a banner in his honor to permanently hang from the rafters of the Maravich Assembly Center.

In March, 2012, the United States Basketball Writers Association at its annual breakfast at the NCAA Final Four weekend in New Orleans, honored Coach Brown and his two Final Four teams.

The honors have continued to come for Coach Brown as in September 2013, he was formally inducted under the coach/administrators category of the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame and in November 2014 he and star player Shaquille O'Neal were inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in Kansas City.

John Brady

John Brady's tenure of nearly 11 seasons as the LSU basketball coach can be looked at in many different ways. But his tenure is an important part of the history of the program as he was able to win division and league champions, develop players that captured top league honors on a regular basis and take his team to post-season play. In 2006, he joined Harry Rabenhorst and Dale Brown as the only LSU coaches to take teams to the NCAA Final Four.

Brady was able to take the LSU program and remake it a couple of times during his tenure to go to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2000 and to the pinnacle of college basketball in 2006, the school's first NCAA Final Four in 20 years. Along the way he won the school's first-ever division titles and won the first outright SEC title in 21 years.

Coach Brady arrived following in the unenviable position of taking over the program after Coach Dale Brown's 25 years. However, Brady arrived with a plan, and while his early teams were undermanned, undersized and underdogs, the team played hard and gave the best of teams problems. But it was the little things that kept them from getting many wins.

Brady's teams would win two SEC titles, three division crowns and at one point had six-consecutive winning seasons, the fourth longest streak of consecutive years with a positive overall record in the program's history.

In 2000, the Tigers advanced to the Sweet 16 as part of a 28-win season, the second-most wins in school history. In 2005, LSU captured the Western Division title and came back the next year for a special season Tiger fans will always remember.

LSU won 14-of-16 conference games in 2006 to win the title. The Tigers had success in the NCAA Tournament, defeating No. 1 Duke and No. 9 Texas to win the regional title comprised mainly with a lineup of homegrown athletes from the city and the state of Louisiana.

The win over Duke marked the second time that Brady's Tigers defeated a standing No. 1 team as the Tigers also defeated No. 1 Arizona, 66-65, in December 2002 at the Maravich Center, only the second time No. 1 had gone down in the building.

A major part of the success of the LSU program at that time was player development. John Brady coached the SEC Player of the Year three times (Stromile Swift in 2000, Brandon Bass in 2005 and Glen Davis in 2006). He had the SEC Freshman of the Year four times (Torriss Bright in 2000, Brandon Bass in 2004, Glen Davis in 2005, Tyrus Thomas in 2006).

Brady, who ended his career as the third winningest and the third-longest tenured coach in Tiger history, came to LSU after five years at Samford as head coach. Prior to that he served successful stints at Mississippi State and UNO as an assistant coach.

After his LSU days, he coached for eight years at Arkansas State before retiring from coaching following the 2016 season with 402 career wins.

Bob Pettit once said of himself as a youngster who would grow up to be a collegiate All-American and a force in the National Basketball Association:

"The greatest thing that ever happened to me is that when I first picked up a basketball I was terrible. If things come naturally, you might not bother to work at improving them, and you can fall short of your potential."

Being terrible meant being gangly and not very good. He was tall, but he wasn't able to yet make the moves that made him a future star. He was the last man on the junior varsity his freshman year at Baton Rouge High. As a sophomore, he was cut from the varsity. But because of that, he took his interest in basketball to heart and began to work hour- after-hour in back of his house in Baton Rouge.

As a 6-4 junior, he began to be noticed. His skills were still raw and undeveloped, but his size made him worth a second glance. He grew to 6-7 as a junior, and BRHS won the state championship.

Pettit once wrote: "Teammates. . . were miles ahead of me in all-around ability, but college scouts gave me the big rush act because I was six-seven by then. Fifteen schools offered me the standard scholarship."

LSU fans loved what they saw in Pettit, and he didn't disappoint. Here was a three-time First-Team All-SEC member who led his Tigers to a second place finish in 1952, conference titles in 1953 and 1954 and the NCAA Final Four in 1953.

He led the league in scoring all three years, with the highest averages seen to date in the league: 25.5 points in 1952, 24.9 in 1953 and 31.4 points per game in 1954. At the same time, he was averaging 13.1 (1952), 13.9 (1953) and an LSU best 17.3 (1954) rebounds per game. Only Pete Maravich and Chris Jackson would also break the 30-point average barrier at LSU.

Coach Cliff Wells of Tulane summed up Bob Pettit's days at LSU, "He's the best big man in college basketball today, and I've seen them all." LSU Coach Harry Rabenhorst called him, "the greatest LSU player since Sparky Wade."

He was a first round draft choice in 1954 of the then Milwaukee Hawks. Pettit played his entire 11-year career with the Hawks, moving with the club to St. Louis in 1955. He wrote nearly every record in the Hawks' record book and was a four-time MVP of the annual NBA All-Star game. He led the Hawks to the 1958 NBA Championship and five NBA Finals.

In 1954, his number 50 was retired at LSU, the first number in any sport retired in Tiger Town. In 1964, he became the first NBA player to exceed the 20,000-points scored barrier. In 1970, he was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame and in 2006 to the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame.

"Those were great years at LSU," Pettit once said. "They were such great years. I couldn't have asked for anything better than my four years at LSU. I received my degree in Business, played the sport I loved and made so many friends."

In 2009, he was honored again by the school he loved and continues to support as he was named one of the members of LSU's "All-Century Team."

Pettit still lives in South Louisiana and can be seen several times a season watching his Tigers play at the Maravich Center. He was back for a special weekend in 2013, honoring the 60th anniversary of the LSU 1953 NCAA Final Four team.

In February 2016, Pettit and his family unveiled a statue forever honoring his great basketball accomplishments.

Pete Maravich was billed as the one who would put Louisiana basketball on the map from the first day he joined his father Press at LSU. People weren't disappointed. His freshman year they packed the old John M. Parker Agricultural Center (known as the "Cow Palace") to watch the freshman team and then left quickly as the varsity Tigers won just three games in 1967.

By Pete's senior year, the Tigers would improve to 20-8 and wind up in New York City at the National Invitation Tournament, a fitting place for the big-city Maravich Show to close its LSU run.

To those who never saw him play live, but only watched what few games were on television or listened on radio, the Maravich story at LSU may seem larger than life. But his skills were perfected through hours and hours of repetitious drills at all hours of the day and night and in all kinds of settings.

Maravich ended up receiving the richest contract ever offered a college player at the time to sign with the Atlanta Hawks ($1.9 million), but during his 10-year career with the Hawks, the New Orleans and Utah Jazz and the Boston Celtics, his dream of a championship wasn't fulfilled. Pete was finding that life wasn't very fulfilling either.

There were hard times when he went in search of something to make his life complete. He had money, he had fame. He didn't have real happiness. But in 1982, Pistol Pete accepted Jesus Christ.

He began enjoying life, enjoying times with his wife and children. Television executives were discovering his knowledge of the game again as a color commentator and best of all for LSU fans, a rift that grew between star and college had diminished and was forgotten.

But the Pistol's life suddenly ended on Jan. 5, 1988, just over a month after appearing at the Assembly Center for an emotional ceremony to formally present a portrait of Pete and his father to him.

Shaquille O'Neal brought LSU to new heights during his three years with the Tigers, and the 7-1 center became a national celebrity in the days of saturation coverage of basketball by the media. But he earned his celebrity status with great play and an intimidation factor that made him the envy of coaches throughout the country.

After leaving LSU in April 1992, he was the number one pick of the National Basketball Association by the Orlando Magic and signed a multi-year contract estimated at over $40 million. In 1996, as a free agent, he signed with the Los Angeles Lakers. Following the 2004 season, O'Neal was traded to the Miami Heat. He also played in Phoenix, Cleveland and Boston before retiring after the 2011 season. He presently serves as a studio analyst for TNT Sports.

O'Neal's Records and Highlights

- Two-time consensus Southeastern Conference Player of the Year and first-team All-American, 1991-1992. Most Valuable Player on SEC Coaches Defensive Team, 1991-1992.
- National Player of the Year as chosen by the Associated Press (Rupp Award), United Press International, L. A. Gear and Sports Illustrated, 1991. Winner of the Tanqueray World Amateur Athlete of the Year Award, 1991. Southeastern Conference Athlete of the Year, 1991-1992. National Player of the Year as chosen by L. A. Gear, 1992 and runner-up for the Naismith Award and the John Wooden Award, 1992.

- Set SEC record for most blocks in a season three consecutive years (115-1990, 140-1991, 157-1992). Set SEC record for career blocks with 412. Blocked five or more shots in a game 45 times in 90 career games.
- Set SEC single game record with 12 blocks against Loyola Marymount in Feb. 1990. Blocked 11 shots against Brigham Young in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, setting a then-tournament standard for a single game, 1992.
- Averaged a national sophomore record 5.0 blocked shots a game, 1991. National leader in blocked shots (5.2 average), 1992.
- National leader in rebounding (14.7 average), 1991. Second nationally in rebounding (14.0 average), 1992.
- First player to lead the Southeastern Conference in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage and blocked shots in the same season, 1991. Led SEC in rebounding, field goal percentage, blocked shots and second in scoring, 1992. First player to lead the SEC in rebounding three straight seasons since Charles Barkley of Auburn, 1982-84.
- Finished with 1,217 rebounds, seventh all-time in the Southeastern Conference, second all-time at LSU.
- Finished with 1,941 points, fourth all-time at LSU behind only Pete Maravich (3,667-1967-70), Durand Macklin (2,080-1976-78; 79-81) and Howard Carter (1,942-1979-83).
- Career field goal percentage of 61.0 percent is second all-time at LSU and in the SEC (minimum 1,000 attempts).
- Had six career triple-doubles (points, rebounds and blocks in same game).
- Was the third LSU player (Pete Maravich and Chris Jackson) to have at least two 700-plus point seasons at LSU.
- Was the first LSU player to record back-to-back 400-plus rebound seasons.

Durand "Rudy" Macklin, whose recruitment to LSU marked the beginning of the Tigers rise to the top of college basketball under Dale Brown, received his long overdue recognition as his jersey was retired to the rafters of the Pete Maravich Assembly Center during the 2009-10 season.

Macklin came to LSU from Louisville, Ky., surprising many by leaving his home state to play for Coach Brown and a program that was still looking for its true direction.

But ever since his first game at LSU, Macklin showed he would be the leader and leave a mark on the program that is still talked about to this day.

In that first game, he set a school rebounding record that no one has come close to, pulling down 32 boards in a win against Tulane.

After his magnificent LSU career, he became the school's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 rebounds (a 10.4 rebounds per game average). That figure remains on top of the school chart. He also became the second leading scorer all-time at LSU behind Pete Maravich (2,080 points, 16.9 points per game average).

He is just the second player to score 2,000 points at LSU, and still to this day remains in the top 20 in league scoring totals.

Much of his success and his two All-American seasons in 1980 and 1981 were after returning from a serious knee injury that forced him to miss all but two games of the 1978-79 season.

In 1980, he averaged 17.6 points per game as the Tigers just missed winning the league title in a dramatic last-game overtime loss to Kentucky only to come back a week later and win the school's only SEC title. The Tigers that year advanced to the Elite 8 before losing to Louisville.

In 1981, he was also named Southeastern Conference Player of the Year and led the Tigers to their first NCAA Final Four since 1953. He beat out a star-studded cast of players which included Georgia's Dominique Wilkins, Kentucky's Sam Bowie and other future NBA players such as Jeff Malone of Mississippi State, Dale Ellis of Tennessee, Eddie Phillips of Alabama and teammate Howard Carter.

In Macklin's four years, LSU had records of 18-9, 23-6, 26-6 and 31-5. The Tigers won one SEC title, one SEC Tournament championship, advanced to the Elite 8 and the Final Four during the Macklin days.

One writer wrote of Macklin, "Macklin's aggressiveness has never been questioned in the Southeastern Conference. If they gave an award for the hardest worker, Macklin would have been the consensus choice of his peers, who marvel at how much effort he puts into the game."

Today, Macklin is still in Baton Rouge, heading the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports for over a decade and now serving as Director of the Office of Minority Health.

"Rudy is far more than a basketball player," Brown said. "He is a magnificent human being that contributes to society daily. He is a superb role model and an outstanding gentleman."

"We didn't win (the NCAA title) but LSU was pretty far down when I came here and pretty near the top when I left. I kind of feel like we accomplished our mission."

In 2000, he was honored as the school's Living Legend at the SEC Basketball Tournament. In 2005 he was elected to the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and in 2009 he was named a member of LSU's All-Century team.

Malcolm "Sparky" Wade

Guard • 5-9 • Jena, La.
1935

LSU's first basketball All-American averaged 9.7 points per game in 1933 and 12.4 points per game in 1934 to lead the scoring category for the first two years of the Southeastern Conference.

He was named an All-American in 1935 while leading LSU to the mythical national championship, averaging 12.7 points per game.

A native of Jena, Wade is considered the greatest dribbler and backcourt star in LSU basketball history.

Before moving to LSU, he was named to the high school All-State team three times from 1928 to 1930. He was elected MVP of the national high school championship playoffs as a senior.

Former Baton Rouge Morning Advocate sports editor Bud Montet, remembers Wade in these words:

"He could do everything with a basketball but dunk it, and make it sing. If there was an extraordinary floor-leader in the South at that time, it had to be Wade."

The three-time All-SEC selection is also a member of the Louisiana Sports Writers and Louisiana Association of Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame.

He was the "Little Giant from Jena." You can't talk LSU basketball without mention of the school's first All-American and first showman who could pass, score and dribble with the best of his and many others era.

Bobby Lowther

Forward • 6-5 • Alexandria, La.
1946

Bobby Lowther officially was recognized as a first-team All-American in 1995 after a historian of the Helms Foundation confirmed that all members of the 1946 team had been upgraded to first-team status.

Lowther is the only two-sport All-America athlete in LSU's storied sports history. In 1946, he made the Helms Foundation basketball All-America squad and was a two-event All-American in track and field, finishing second at the NCAA Championships in the javelin and fourth in the pole vault.

The 6-5, 185-pound Alexandria native was also the triple jump champion at the 1946 National AAU Championships.

In basketball, he averaged 14.7 points per game as he also earned first-team All-SEC honors.

He was voted LSU's "Best All-Around Athlete" in 1947 in a field that also included such future professional stars as Y. A. Tittle, Alvin Dark and Joe Adcock.

Lowther is a member of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association Hall of Fame and was chosen to be the "Living Legend" honoree representing LSU at the 2005 Southeastern Conference basketball tournament in Atlanta.

Chris Jackson

(Mahmoud Abdul-Rauf)
Guard • 6-1 • Gulfport, Miss.
1989, 1990

In just two years, Jackson was a two-time consensus SEC Player of the Year lighting up scoreboards across America. After scoring 48 and 53 points in the first month of his college career, he went on to become the most celebrated freshman of all time, setting an NCAA freshman scoring record, averaging 30.2 points per game.

He became just the second freshman ever to make the Associated Press first-team All-America squad and the first ever to make the U.S. Basketball Writers Association's All-America team.

He finished his short career as the seventh leading scorer in school history with 1,854 points (29.0 ppg). His records for freshman include most points in a game (55), most points in a season (965) and season average (30.2).

He won accolades throughout the country as he starred on the court while fighting an ongoing battle with Tourette's Syndrome.

Jackson was chosen to the second team on the Louisiana Association of Basketball Coaches All-Louisiana Team of the Century.

Glen Davis

Forward • 6-8 • Baton Rouge, La.
2006

Glen Davis was at his best during the Tigers' 2006 season when he was named SEC Player of the Year and a First-Team All-American for the Wooden Award.

Davis starred as the Tigers captured the SEC regular-season championship with a 14-2 record and then went on to defeat four teams en route to the NCAA Final Four.

In the regional rounds, the Tiger magic and Davis' personality was on display to the nation as he helped lead LSU to upsets over No. 1-ranked Duke and an overtime win over No. 9 Texas that got LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 20 years.

Davis would earn all-region honors for his play in the NCAA Tournament in a year in which he led the SEC in both scoring (18.6) and rebounding (9.7). In 2007, in his junior season and despite injuries and intense pressure to perform, he again led the league in rebounding (10.2) and earned SEC First-Team honors. He was a second round pick of the NBA's Seattle SuperSonics in the 2007 NBA Draft. He was traded to the Boston Celtics and became an NBA champion in his first year with the team.

Ben Simmons

Forward • 6-10 • Melbourne,
Australia
2016

Simmons, in his one season at LSU, earned first-team SEC honors and All-America honors after averaging 19.2 ppg, 11.8 rpg and 4.79 apg. He was the consensus national Freshman of the Year, including winning the prestigious Wayman Tisdale Award. He was named LSU's ninth first-team A-A by the United States Basketball Writers Association.

Simmons was fourth in the SEC in points average, first in rebounds, third in field goal percentage (56.0%) and second in steals per game (1.97). His 199 made free throws was the most in a season since Pete Maravich and only Maravich and Bob Pettit made more in a year. He was the first player in the SEC in the top five in points-rebounds-assists.

He finished the season with 23 double-doubles. He had six games of 20 points-15 rebounds and 5 assists and 17 games of 20 or more points.

Simmons was the school's second No. 1 pick in the NBA Draft, selected by the Philadelphia 76ers in June 2016.

This list represents basketball lettermen since LSU began basketball in 1908-09. The sports information office will appreciate your assistance in correcting any errors. Send all corrections or additions to Kent Lowe, P. O. Box 25095, Baton Rouge, La., 70894

Bernard Woodside

While some of the jersey numbers listed date back to the 1930s, records are somewhat incomplete through the 1950s. If you have changes, additions or corrections, please send them to Basketball SID Kent Lowe at clove@lsu.edu for future updates.

Maravich CENTER

The Pete Maravich Assembly Center continues to serve as the home of some of LSU's greatest moments in its college basketball history as the Tigers enter their 47th season in the venue they have called their basketball home the longest.

Again, this year changes continue to make the Maravich Center a great place for basketball on the portable wood playing surface.

The building takes on a new look for the 2017-18 season with the magnificent giant side and end video boards that allows fans everywhere in the building to have a clear look at video and statistics.

There is also new modern light capabilities that will offer some of the best light intensity that has been seen in the history of the building.

The building has seen constant changes since a three-year campaign began in 2005 to spruce up the building by the LSU Athletic Department.

In a year when the building would also become famous worldwide as the site of the largest triage unit in history after Hurricane Katrina, the athletic department was able to finish its renovation in time for the 2005-06 season and turn the building back into a showcase for LSU men's basketball.

An interactive concourse area depicting the history of the great players who have starred for LSU in the building, additional restrooms, new seats throughout the arena have taken the building to a new level. Now, the building features a practice facility for men and women along with a men's locker room complex helping the Assembly Center's appeal for players and fans for years to come.

The Maravich Assembly Center is, like the other venues LSU basketball has bounced around in through its long history, unique in its own way.

Before moving across from Tiger Stadium (in the 1971-72 season), the Tigers set up shop in the Pavilion on the old LSU campus, the Huey Long Field House Gym Armory (now the Cox Communications Academic Center) and the John M. Parker Agricultural Center. LSU and SEC fans knew the latter as the "Cow Palace" as it served as the primary home for LSU basketball for four decades.

But when the LSU Tigers commenced play in the Assembly Center in the 1971-72 season, it marked the beginning of a new era in LSU Roundball.

The building opened as the LSU Assembly Center, but during the summer of 1988, then Louisiana Governor Buddy Roemer signed legislation changing the official name of the building to the Pete Maravich Assembly Center in honor of the LSU star who had died tragically earlier that same year.

The Maravich Center is also the home for the LSU volleyball, gymnastics and women's basketball teams.

ADDS SCOREBOARD

The Maravich Center is now home to the largest center hung videoboard in college basketball and ranking 11th in size among all center hung boards in NBA arenas.

The videoboard will feature two sideline high-definition screens that each measure 42 feet by 21 feet for a total of 882 square feet of video space per board. The baseline facing boards, also in HD, will measure 24 feet by 20.5

feet for 984 square feet of video space. In all, the videoboard will give fans 2,748 square feet of HD video.

The videoboard, priced at over $3 million, was fully funded by the Tiger Athletic Foundation.

To put the size of the videoboard into perspective, it would take 105 50-inch televisions to equal the size of the new board.

ATURE

Some of the features that fans can expect to enjoy with the videoboard include:

- True 16:9 aspect high-definition video.
- Dedicated area for game-in-progress information (score, clock, etc.), individual and team stats.
- Dynamic content area that will feature out of town scores, crowd prompts, in-depth player stats and social media content.

In addition to the new center hung videoboard, the Maravich Center will be outfitted with four new portal screens, which will replace the scoreboards that used to occupy that space. There will also be a new scorer's table LED board.

The portal screen boards and scorer's table will feature game-in-progress information, stats and other dynamic content.

All new boards and screens in the Maravich Center can be tied together to produce content or unique displays during the course of a game or event.

Practice FACILITY

BELOW: The Legends Club connects to the Maravich Center concourse.

The modern “workplace” of hoops is helping LSU basketball be a better team and a better program every day.

While the front of the building is dominated by the statues of Shaquille O’Neal and Bob Pettit, it is what goes on inside the facility that is most important to the present and future of the LSU men’s basketball program.

The chance to schedule practice when needed and the chance to get shots up or work on free throws any time is what makes this facility so important.

The facility features exact duplicate full-size gymnasiums. Each has two portable goals and four overhead retractable goals. Both courts are exact replicas of the PMAC competition court. Each gym features a scoreboard, video filming balcony and scorer’s table with video and data connection. Each gym spans 11,324 square feet and includes a regulation NCAA court in length with two regulation high school courts in the opposite direction.

Besides, the men’s gymnasium, the facility is the primary work area for the basketball team with locker room, team lounge, training room, laundry facility, coaches locker room and storage areas.

The building also includes a central two-story lobby and staircase that ascends to the second level that has a room (The Legends Club) that can hold approximately 500 people for pre-game and post-game functions that leads into the Maravich Center concourse.

The lobby of the building showcases team displays and graphics, trophy cases (featuring the hardware of some of the great seasons) and memorabilia from the long history of LSU basketball.

Also design work is featured in the men’s basketball hallways complete with vibrant pictures that lead players and coaches down to the dressing room rotunda and hallway to the arena floor.

The display and wall graphics were designed by ZE Design of Centerville, Ohio.

The facility was constructed by Guy Hopkins Construction of Baton Rouge based on designs by the firm of Tom Holden Architects of Baton Rouge in a unique joint venture with RDG Sports of Des Moines, Iowa.

Dr. F. King Alexander

President, LSU

Dr. F. King Alexander is the President of Louisiana State University, which enrolls more than 45,000 students and includes institutions across Louisiana. He began at LSU on June 24, 2013. During his tenure as president, the university has seen consecutive record-breaking graduating classes in terms of both size and diversity and enrollment growth across all campuses.

Prior to this appointment, Dr. Alexander was president of California State University, Long Beach (2005-2013) one of the nation's largest public universities.

During his more than seven-year tenure at California State University, Long Beach, Dr. Alexander was twice named the California State University Student Association (CSSA) "President of the Year," which represents all 23 California State Universities and its more than 440,000 students.

Prior to becoming president of California State University, Long Beach, Dr. Alexander was president of Murray State University in Kentucky (2001-05) and was a faculty member at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, where he was the director of the graduate higher education program.

A Kentucky native who grew up in north Florida, Dr. Alexander received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in higher education administration with a focus on finance and educational policy analysis, and a Master of Science degree in comparative educational studies from the University of Oxford in Oxford, England.

As a teacher and administrator, Dr. Alexander has received many honors, including the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Education Alumni Achievement Award (2002) and has research university faculty affiliations at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Center for the Study of Postsecondary Education (WISCAPE) and Cornell University Higher Education Research Institute (CHERI).

Dr. Alexander also has been asked to represent public higher education colleges and universities on numerous occasions to the United State Congress on issues of college affordability, student indebtedness, and institutional efficiency and effectiveness in efforts to address many of the growing challenges facing American higher education. He has testified before the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor & Pensions (HELP), the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, and the Advisory Committee on Student Financial Assistance, to name a few. Due to his national recognition and involvement in higher education issues, Dr. Alexander has served on numerous U.S. higher education and statewide organizational leadership boards, and remains very active in policy and planning discussions.

Dr. Alexander and his wife, Shenette, have three children: Kylie, Savannah and Madison.

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Bill Demastes, a professor of English at LSU, is in his sixth year as Faculty Athletics Representative. Dr. Demastes earned his Ph.D. in English in 1986 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a Field of Study of Drama as Genre and a specialization in 20th-Century American and British Drama. He earned his masters in English in June 1979 from the University of Georgia in Athens, where he specialized in 19th-Century American Literature.

At LSU, he served as Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 2001-04 and Director of Undergraduate Studies for the Department of English from 1999-2001 and 2010-11. He has also served as Associate Chair of the Department of English (1998-99); Director of the Master of Arts in Liberal Arts Program (1996-04); and Director of Graduate Studies in the Department of English (1992-94; 2005-06).

He was honored with the LSU Alumni Association Faculty Excellence Award in 2000, and in 2002 he won the LSU Distinguished Faculty Award. He was named in 2009 an LSU Rainmaker, which is given to the top 100 LSU Faculty. In 2010 and 2013 he received the Tiger Athletic Foundation Undergraduate Teaching Award, and in the summer of 2011, he was named the Harry Ransom Summer Fellowship recipient by the University of Texas.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, overseeing historic growth of one of the most recognized brands in all of sports. Under his leadership, LSU has one of the country's premier programs with tremendous academics and athletics success. Now in his 10th year at LSU, Alleva remains dedicated to overall excellence and providing the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community.

Alleva's strategic plan involves an unwavering investment in the future of LSU Athletics that will benefit the university for generations and create an enduring, impactful environment for student-athletes that contains the best in facilities, academic support and coaching staffs.

Alleva has expertly managed the department's finances and operations, making LSU one of the nation's top 10 programs in terms of revenue, profit, ticket sales and investment into its student-athletes and athletic endeavors. He joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008, and he was named vice chancellor in August of 2009, marking the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

In the spring of 2016, he completed a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, an appointment that affirmed his reputation as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country. Alleva has been appointed to numerous national committees, including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva made an immediate impact with a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program -- "LSU: Defined by Excellence" -- to confirm the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary enterprise. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set goals and values for the entire athletics program.

In the classroom, a total of 89 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university last year. LSU's Graduation Success Rate as reported by the NCAA remains at an all-time high with a score of 88, four points higher than the national average. Alleva's ardent dedication to academics ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that cultivates success and the development of life skills.

The implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" community outreach program fosters a relationship between the local citizens and LSU student-athletes. The Tigers in 2016-17 logged 7,048 hours in community service work across 21 sports. They played an integral role in assisting victims of the devastating flood that struck the Baton Rouge area in August 2016, helping to provide relief, rebuilding and rebirth for the community.

He has also bolstered the L-Club program to connect with former student-athletes, and he instituted the thriving "Project Graduation" plan in which former student-athletes return to LSU to earn their degrees.

On the field of play, his tenure has been distinguished by a number of significant achievements, including four 10-win seasons and 86 total victories by the football team. The Tigers have played in a bowl game in each of his nine gridiron seasons, and LSU has finished in the Top 20 seven times in that period. LSU under Alleva's leadership has claimed the 2009 baseball national championship and four College World Series berths, the 2015 men's golf national championship, two women's basketball Sweet 16 appearances, five gymnastics Super Six berths, four softball College World Series appearances and 18 NCAA Top 5 finishes indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

The Tigers in the past nine seasons have earned 42 individual NCAA championships in the sports of men's and women's track and field, gymnastics, men's golf and women's golf. LSU has captured 16 Southeastern Conference team championships, and the Tigers have won 115 individual SEC titles during Alleva's term.

LSU enjoyed another banner year in 2016-17, as the school produced four Top 5 NCAA finishes and earned an outstanding No. 18 national ranking in the annual Learfield Directors' Cup, which measures the overall strength of collegiate athletic programs. Fourteen LSU teams competed in an NCAA championship event, and the Tigers finished in the Top 10 in eight sports.

Alleva's vision keeps LSU among the nation's leaders in facilities, and he is devoted to enhancing the experiences of fans at each of the Fighting Tigers' venues. Tiger Stadium is currently undergoing a significant upgrade in its concessions and restroom facilities, and this summer the largest center-hung video board in college basketball was installed in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

Last year, LSU unveiled two state-of-the-art venues – a Gymnastics Practice Facility and a Tennis Center featuring both indoor and outdoor courts – and construction is scheduled to begin this year on a Nutrition Center. An addition to the Football Operations Center's weight training area opened in August 2016, providing student-athletes with one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the world.

Under Alleva's direction, LSU in the fall of 2014 opened the expansion of the South End Zone of Tiger Stadium – a project that added premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards – continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. Since 2010, he has executed an aggressive campaign to preserve and enhance the appearance of Tiger Stadium that has included the installation of new windows, lighting systems, gating systems, and championship plazas.

Alleva supervised a major renovation to the University Club golf course that allows the LSU golf teams to play on one of the most challenging courses in the country. An overhaul of the LSU soccer facility has converted the stadium into fan-friendly venue, and the track and field program has received a new running surface in Bernie Moore Stadium and extensive renovations to its indoor facility.

An innovator with bold ideas that benefit Greater Baton Rouge, he was instrumental in the planning of Bayou Country Superfest, a three-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium from 2010 through 2016. The event attracted over 100,000 visitors each year and made a tremendous economic impact upon the community.

He became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, who earned his bachelor's degree in finance from Lehigh in 1975, was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. He also played on the baseball team and served as a graduate assistant football coach, earning an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, he played a key role in the Durham, N.C. sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham nearly 30 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny, and four grandchildren.

Verge Ausberry

Deputy Director of Athletics

A former LSU football standout, Verge Ausberry joined the athletics administrative staff in August 2001 as an Associate Athletics Director and was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006. He was named Deputy Director of Athletics in January 2015.

Ausberry supervises and is responsible for the LSU football and men's and women's track and field programs. He also oversees LSU's sports medicine and research, equipment staff, strength and conditioning staff, the video department, branding, life skills and alumni relations. Ausberry also assist the office of LSU President Dr.

F King Alexander in external and governmental relations.

Ausberry, a native of New Iberia, Louisiana, played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was part of two SEC championship teams, led the Tigers in tackles in 1988 and 1989, and played in four bowl games.

He first served the athletic department in compliance and the highly regarded Academic Center for Student-Athletes. After leaving the Academic Center, he joined the staff of the Tiger Athletic Foundation. Ausberry has also managed corporate relations, marketing, game management, and operations for the LSU athletic department during his time on staff.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May 1990, his Master of Education degree in May 1992 and his specialist in higher education administration in 2004. He is presently a doctoral candidate in higher education administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have two boys, Austin (13) and Jaiden (12).

Bo Bahnsen

Senior Associate AD/Compliance and Planning

Returning in 2009 to serve the department in the Compliance Office, Bahnsen is once again proving to be a very versatile member of the athletic department.

Before moving back to Compliance, Bahnsen served the previous five years, in a valuable role as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Relations, overseeing the ticket office and all customer service operations.

Prior to December of 2003, Bahnsen's primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

Bahnsen served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate at LSU. In 1982, he became the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team, where he worked for five years.

In July 1987, he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office and departmental travel operations until his promotion in 1989. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, and then was promoted to associate AD in 1996.

Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football-seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium. In 2009, he helped organize the highly successful LSU celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Wharton, Texas, Bahnsen attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

Bahnsen is married to the former Karen Mayson, a former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren and Devin.

Mark Ewing

Senior Associate AD/Business

Mark Ewing, a 33-year employee of Louisiana State University, is in his 17th year with the Athletics Department, and serves as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Business and the department's Chief Financial Officer.

His duties as the department's Chief Financial Officer includes oversight of the departments over $129 million budget, management of the athletic business office, oversight of all travel, human resources, and purchasing. He also supervises the Athletic Ticket Office and serves as the liaison for concession operations. He is responsible for the department's financial forecasting and provides the financial information necessary for funding athletic construction and maintenance projects. He also serves as the department's administrator for men's and women's golf.

Ewing came to athletics from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the university operating budget.

Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995.

Ewing is married to the former Gail Ingram of Morgan City, Louisiana and they have three daughters, Andrea, Arleen and Molly Sue. He also has four granddaughters -- Ainsley Grace, Dorothy Claire and Evelyn McLain, Audrey Kay -- and two grandsons, Parker Ryan and Lucas Henry.

Ronnie Haliburton

Senior Associate AD/Athletic Facility Management

A long-time member of the LSU community, Senior Associate Athletic Director for Operations and Facility Enhancements Ronnie Haliburton enters his 14th year with the Athletic Department.

In his current role Haliburton oversees the day-to-day operations of the facilities and grounds and game and event management of the athletic department. He has led restoration efforts of Tiger Stadium, LSU's Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes and the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and is managing a multi-phase redevelopment of all restrooms inside Tiger Stadium to be completed for the 2019 football season.

Prior to being elevated to his current position in February 2015, Haliburton served as Sr. Associate Athletic Director for Athletic Facility Management (2009-2015), Associate Athletics Director for Athletic Facility Management (2007-2009) and Director of Athletic Facility

Management (2003-2007).

Before working with athletics, Haliburton spent five years (1998-2003) as a manager with LSU's Facility Maintenance Department where he was responsible for the management of custodial operations, special event crews, and stock room inventory and equipment repairs.

Prior to his time with LSU's Facility Maintenance Department, Haliburton worked as a resident assistant in Broussard Hall athletic dormitory (1994) and as a student assistant strength coach with Athletics (1994-1995). He returned to Residential Life as a manager in 1996 before being named Coordinator of Residential Life later that year (1996-1998).

A standout tight end for the LSU Football team for four seasons (1986-1989), Haliburton was a member of two Southeastern Conference championship teams. He went on to be selected in the sixth round (164th choice overall) of the 1990 National Football League Draft by the Denver Broncos, for whom he played two seasons (1990-1991).

Haliburton was born in New Orleans, and he grew up in Port Arthur, Texas. He currently resides in Baton Rouge and has three daughters: Chantae' (24), Lauren (22) and Rohny (17).

Robert Munson

Senior Associate AD/External Affairs

Robert Munson is a Baton Rouge native and an 18-year veteran communications strategist who joined LSU athletics in September of 2017.

His duties include leading the athletic department's communications teams including sports information, marketing and promotions, creative and digital services and overseeing media productions.

In addition to his own strategy firm in Baton Rouge, Munson previously served as Executive Director of Sports Operations for SSG Sports, a division of Sanderson Strategies Group in Washington DC for which he also served as a Senior Advisor. SSG Sports represents Major League Baseball, multiple individual MLB teams, professional athletes, sports executives, leagues and collegiate athletic programs.

A Baton Rouge native and businessman, Munson brings a large variety of experience to LSU with years in corporate public relations, public affairs, crisis management, advertising, and television and film. His work has spanned multiple areas including sports, politics, government and business.

Miriam Segar

Senior Associate AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Former LSU women's basketball player Miriam Segar has been a part of the athletics administration since June of 1995 and is now the Senior Associate AD and the department's Senior Woman Administrator after having served as Associate Athletics Director for Student Services since April 2007. She had served as Assistant Athletics Director since 2004.

As LSU's Senior Woman Administrator, Segar's responsibilities include oversight of the highly successful Tiger Olympic Sports program. She also supervises the Tiger baseball program and the LSU cheerleaders.

Segar began her administrative career at LSU as the compliance coordinator where she served for three years. Following that, in 1998, Segar was named the director of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program where she worked until 2001 when she became the Director of Student Services. While working with CHAMPS/Life Skills, Segar guided the program to the Division I Athletic Directors Program of Excellence Award in 2001.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Segar spent one year at the SEC office as the championships assistant and the officiating assistant, assisting in the management of all SEC championships and tournaments and the coordination of women's basketball officials.

Segar, the 2006 Athletic Department Female Alumna of the Year, was a three-year captain for the Lady Tigers basketball team and received four letters from 1990 to 1994. She earned the 1994 NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship and was a member of the 1994 NCAA All-Academic team.

Segar and her husband Jamie have four children -- Grant, Reid, Maggie and Hayes.

Brian Broussard

Associate AD/Ticket Sales and Operations

A 21-year veteran of the Athletics Department, including 17 years as ticket manager, Brian Broussard was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations in July 2007 and Associate AD in 2012.

Broussard is responsible for revenue in excess of $50 million, which includes the management of ticket and parking sales and renewals for all sports, as well as Tradition Fund donations for football, men's basketball and baseball.

Broussard began at LSU in August 1996 as an assistant ticket manager responsible for men's basketball sales and the day-to-day operations of ticket office. In March 2000, he was promoted to ticket manager, becoming responsible for the ticketing in all sports.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Broussard was the ticket manager at Northwestern State in 1996. He worked as a promotions assistant at the University of Miami in 1995 and was the gameday club manager for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

The Gretna native earned his bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1993. He is married to the former Aimee Hodges of Alexandria.

Emmett David

Associate AD/Facility and Project Development

Emmett David joined the LSU Athletics Department in 2012 after serving as Director of the Office of Planning Design and Construction at LSU since June of 1996.

He assists in facility and project development for the Athletic Department and TAF that include the recently completed South Stadium addition, the tennis stadium and indoor facility, the gymnastics practice facility, football weight training facility, tiger habitat and other property holding enhancements.

Among his responsibilities for the University was to serve as facility officer for Doctoral I Research Institution consisting of 11.2 million gross square feet with 250 primary buildings. He also was responsible for the 5-year Capital Outlay project planning of some $484 million, deferred maintenance reporting and funding; and, ADA and Life Safety Code deficiency projects, budgets and tracking of expenditures of some $200 million. He was responsible for physical development on campus with projects such as Choppin Annex, Residential College, Business Education Complex, Raphael Semmes Parking Garage and numerous major maintenance, repair and restoration projects.

Emmett also coordinated and implemented master plans for multiple departments such as Parking and Traffic, Athletics, Veterinary Medicine, Student Health Center, Union, University Recreation, South Campus and Residential Life. He developed long range planning of future projects and the impact of associated displacement and managed space inventory that provided the bridge for current masterplans and campus redevelopment. Emmett also has served as a Staff Senator.

Emmett graduated from LSU with a Bachelor of Architecture in 1982 and his Master of Public Administration in 2006. He is a registered licensed architect by the state of Louisiana.

Emmett, and his wife Maurine, have two children Chloe a resident of Baton Rouge and Gabriel a resident of Riverside, California.

Mathew Shanklin

Associate AD/Marketing

Mathew Shanklin is in his seventh year at LSU serving as the Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing and as the General Business Manager for LSU Sports Properties, the multi-media rights holder for Tiger Athletics. Previously, Shanklin served 20 years as the Associate Athletic Director of Marketing and Licensing at the University of Arkansas.

Shanklin supervises all operations and client services for LSU Sports Properties, while also managing the LSU Marketing efforts. Since joining LSU, he has implemented several new initiatives including the Bengal Brigade Street team and the new band pre-game presentation for men's basketball and Hispanic broadcasts for LSU Football in Baton Rouge and New Orleans. He also spearheaded the unique halftime concert with Grammy winners 3 Doors Down and the LSU Marching Band at the LSU-Texas A&M game in 2015.

While at Arkansas, Shanklin was in charge of all department marketing/promotions, corporate sponsorships, advertising sales and coordinated all sales and programming for the football, basketball and baseball video boards. In 2000, Shanklin negotiated what was then the largest sponsorship in college sports when he secured an $11.3 million partnership with Southwestern Bell/Cingular. He was instrumental in developing the HogPen, a tailgating area for fans inside Baum Stadium, the Hog Spa hot tub area at Baum Stadium and the RBI Girls. Shanklin was instrumental in establishing the school's first baseball radio network in 1992, one of the nation's largest with more than 25 affiliates statewide as well as creating the first Hispanic radio network for the University of Arkansas. In 1998, Shanklin became the university's licensing coordinator and under his direction, licensing revenues increased every quarter.

Shanklin was assistant marketing director at East Carolina University for a year before going to Arkansas. He had served as an intern at Arkansas for five months before joining the ECU staff.

A 1984 graduate of South Mecklenburg (N.C.) High School in Charlotte, N.C., where he lettered in baseball and soccer, Shanklin earned his degree in communications from North Carolina-Wilmington in 1988.

A graduate of Ohio University's highly respected sports administration program, Shanklin earned a master's degree in that program in the fall of 1989.

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Shanklin married the former Missy Emerson of Jacksonville, Texas, in 2003. She has a daughter, Jordan who graduated from LSU in May, and they are also the parents of Barbara Blake (12) and Izabella Grace (10).

Michael Bonnette

Associate AD/Communications

Michael Bonnette enters his 18th year as LSU's Communications Director and 11th as Associate Athletic Director. Bonnette was originally elevated to Sports Information Director in August of 2000 and the promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in July of 2004.

As Communications Director, Bonnette serves as the chief contact for LSU's nationally-ranked football team as well as overseeing all publicity activities for the 21 sports sponsored by the Athletic Department.

The 47-year-old Bonnette, who served as an Associate Sports Information Director for seven years, is in his 24th year with the LSU Athletic Department.

His 2012 LSU Football media guide as named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA, one of several awards he has received from the organization and in the Louisiana Sports Writers Association annual writing contests. His 2014 football media guide was ranked second in the nation.

The Lake Charles, Louisiana native has been around the sports media profession his entire life as he is the son of retired McNeese State Sports Information Director Louis Bonnette, a member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame. The field at Cowboy Stadium in Lake Charles is named "Louis Bonnette Field". His brother, Matthew, continued the family tradition at McNeese by being named Sports Information Director in July 2012, following his Dad, who held that position for 46 years.

Bonnette, who is a 1993 graduate of LSU, is past president of SIDs for the Southeastern Conference and is currently the vice-president for SIDs for the LSWA. He is married to the former Robin Arnaud of Opelousas, Louisiana and the couple has three sons: Peyton, Grant and Max.

Neal Lamonica

Associate AD/Business & Finance

Neal Lamonica, a member of the LSU Athletic Department staff since January 2000, was promoted to Associate Athletic Director for Fiscal Operations in 2017.

His primary duties include monitoring the Athletic Department's over $129 million budget, and assisting coaches and administrators in formulating budgets for future years. He also serves as the liaison to the athletic department's retail sales operations and Tiger Booster Clubs.

Lamonica began his professional career at LSU in 2000 in the athletic department compliance office before moving to the business office in June 2003. He served as Coordinator of Athletic Business until December 2005, when he was named Business Manager. Lamonica was promoted to Director of Fiscal Operations in November 2009.

Lamonica received a bachelor's degree in mass communications from LSU in 1998, and he earned an LSU master's degree in business administration in 2003.

Lamonica and his wife, Blythe, are the parents of three sons -- Davis, Sam Henry and Luke.

David Taylor

Assistant AD/Game-Event Management

David Taylor, who has been a part of LSU's game management team since September 2005, was promoted in August 2014 to Assistant Athletic Director of Game and Event Management. Taylor handles all aspects regarding game management of athletic events while overseeing a staff that helps coordinate all events within the LSU Athletic Department grounds.

Taylor, who started as game management coordinator, was promoted to Assistant Director in 2006 and Associate Director in 2008. He assumed the directorship of Game and Event Management in September 2011.

Prior to that, Taylor served as Assistant Coordinator of Athletic Facilities and Game Operations at Texas State University from 2003 to 2005.

Taylor earned his B.S. degree from Texas-El Paso in 1999 and his Masters in Sports Management in 2003 from the University of Texas.

Blair Napolitano

Assistant AD/Compliance

Blair Napolitano, who is in her 11th year with the LSU athletic department, was promoted to assistant athletic director in October 2014. She directs the day-to-day-operations of the compliance office, and her primary duties include researching and communicating with coaches, counselors and prospective student-athletes regarding prospect's initial eligibility and amateurism status.

She also serves on the liaison for student-athletes to the LSU admissions office, and she researches and provides interpretations on NCAA rules and SEC bylaws to coaches, staff and student-athletes.

Napolitano began her LSU career as a compliance coordinator in October 2005, and she was named director of compliance in October 2009.

A native of Baton Rouge, she earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2005 while serving as a student manager for the track and field team from 2003-05. She received her Master's degree in business administration from LSU in August 2010.

Napolitano and her husband, Anthony, have three children - Carter, James and Charlotte.

Wendy Nall

Assistant AD/Human Resources

Wendy Nall has served in the LSU Athletics Human Resources department since 2001. She was promoted to Manager in 2003 and named an Assistant AD in November of 2015.

Nall, graduated from Southeastern Louisiana University in Hammond in May 2000 with a major in kinesiology with a sports administration concentration. She completed her Masters of Science at LSU in August 2001.

Nall is married to husband Slater and they have two daughters; Kendall and Olivia.

MODELS OF EXCELLENCE

LSU, in particular the efforts of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes, is one of eight colleges and universities nationwide that was honored by University Business magazine in its Spring 2016 Models of Excellence recognition program. The Models of Excellence program recognizes innovative approaches to encouraging and nurturing student success on campus. "For student-athletes, pressure bears down from all angles - from classroom expectations to media scrutiny," says University Business senior editor Tim Goral. "LSU realizes the unique challenges this population faces, and offers a holistic solution that helps this group succeed outside of game day."

"ENTER TO LEARN, LEAVE TO SERVE"

STUDY AREA

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 12 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

BO CAMPBELL AUDITORIUM

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used throughout the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

THE LIBRARY

The library provides a perfect setting for individual study, or with a tutor as a group.

ACADEMIC CENTER

A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory in 2002 put the Cox Communications Academic Center For Student-Athletes at the forefront of today's academic centers. The facility features over 54,000 square feet of working space, 136 computer workstations, study rooms and a 1,000-seat auditorium.

VISION

To be the premier provider of transformative student-athlete support services.

MISSION

To challenge our student-athletes to achieve their highest level of intellectual and personal development.

GOALS

- Graduate our Student-Athletes
- Prepare Student-Athletes for Life after LSU
- Promote and Preserve Academic Integrity Through Education and Example
- Nurture the Personal Well-Being and Professional Aspirations of Our Team

LSU GREATS

The following 11 individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman, the No. 19 for Ben McDonald, the No. 36 for Eddy Furniss and the No. 12 for Todd Walker. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010. Walker joined the prestigious list in April 2017.

50 BOB PETTIT

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 PETE MARAVICH

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 BILLY CANNON

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Billy Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 SHAQUILLE O'NEAL

Shaquille O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 SKIP BERTMAN

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Skip Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

40 RUDY MACKLIN

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single-game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

ABOUT LSU RETIRED JERSEYS

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, Furniss, Walker, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

37 TOMMY CASANOVA

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

19 BEN MCDONALD

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

33 SEIMONE AUGUSTUS

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year, and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the 2012 WNBA Finals MVP after winning a world title. She also led the United States to Olympic gold medals at the 2008 Beijing and 2012 London Games.

36 EDDY FURNISS

Eddy Furniss enjoyed one of the best four-season stretches (1995-98) in college baseball history. Furniss is still the Southeastern Conference all-time leader in hits (352), home runs (80), RBI (308), doubles (87) and total bases (689). He was selected in the fourth round of the 1998 Major League Draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates and played five seasons in the minor leagues before retiring to concentrate on a career in medicine.

12 TODD WALKER

Todd Walker, a two-time first-team All-American, led the Tigers to the national championship in 1993, earning the College World Series Most Outstanding Player award. Known for his incredible work ethic, Walker was a two-time finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, a first-team All-SEC member three years and the SEC Player of the Year in 1993. He posted a .396 career batting average, and he completed his collegiate career as the SEC all-time leader in hits (310), runs (234), RBI (246) and total bases (557). Walker was the eighth overall selection in the 1994 Major League Baseball Draft and enjoyed a 12-year career.

SHAQUILLE O'NEAL

A four-time NBA champion and 15-time All-Star, Shaquille O'Neal was one of the most dominant centers in NBA history. He announced his retirement from the NBA in June 2010 after a brilliant Hall of Fame career and has since become a television analyst on TNT. One of the most quotable figures on the planet, O'Neal earned his bachelor's degree from LSU in December 2000. In 2011, he penned his own biography, "Shaq Uncut, My Story," and then received his doctorate degree from Florida's Barry University in May 2012.

LOLO JONES

A three-time national champion hurdler at LSU, Lolo Jones continues to take the sporting world by storm. Jones became an inspirational figure as a two-time World Indoor Champion and the world record holder in the 60-meter hurdles with a time of 7.72. She competed in both the 2008 Beijing and 2012 London Olympic Games and became the first LSU athlete to ever grace the cover of Time Magazine in July 2012. A 2005 graduate of LSU, Jones is now a two-sport star. She was named to the U.S. National Bobsled Team that went on to claim gold at the 2013 FIBT World Championships and compete at the 2014 Winter Olympics.

Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame

To be a member of the Louisiana Sports Writers Hall of Fame is one of the greatest honors that could be bestowed on an athlete from this state or who has performed a portion of his career in this state. Each year's class continues to add to the prestige of the growing list of Hall of Fame inductees. The Hall of Fame ceremonies are conducted each June in Natchitoches at the Natchitoches Events Center just a block from the new multi-million dollar home of the Hall of Fame that opened in June 2013.

A total of 14 men and women who participated in the LSU basketball program either as players or coaches have been inducted in the Hall of Fame. In 2005, LSU's Durand "Rudy" Macklin, a member of the 1981 Final Four team and the No. 1 rebounder and No. 2 scorer in LSU men's history, along with late former LSU women's head coach Sue Gunter were inducted.

In 2009, the late Dr. Martin J. Broussard became the first athletic trainer ever inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame.

This past year, LSU and NBA icon Shaquille O'Neal delighted a packed house for his induction ceremony.

Credential and Access Guidelines

LSU's goal is to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards.

Media must meet the following guidelines in order to be granted credentials. Only media that meet the criteria and have approved the SEC Media Policy through the request of credentials on the LSU media site at LSUsports.net/media will be allowed to move forward on the credential site to request credentials and consideration for access to LSU Athletic events. No credential requests by media will be accepted by either email or phone, but must go through the credential site at LSUsports.net/media.

Past coverage and attendance at football games, football media luncheons, men's and women's basketball games, media sessions and baseball and softball games in the past 12 months will be taken into consideration for granting of credentials during the 2017-18 athletic year.

The number of credentials issued is limited by available resources. Due to space and facility restrictions, access, seat assignments in the press area as well as courtside photographers will be made on a space available basis. A CREDENTIAL DOES NOT NECESSARILY GUARANTEE A SEAT IN THE MEDIA SECTION.

General

Each Bearer must be and hereby represents that he or she is acting on a specific assignment for an accredited media agency and has a legitimate working function in connection with the Event attended. The credential is not transferable and may be revoked at any time.

The rights and privileges granted to Bearer may be terminated if any term or condition for use of the Credential is breached. The unauthorized use of the Credential subjects the Bearer to ejection from the Event.

While within the Event venue, Bearer shall, at all times adhere to the policies in place for the Event, abide by and respect access limitations, and accept and follow directions provided by the SEC or SEC member institution(s) hosting the Event.

Print

Daily newspapers are eligible to apply for credentials and access to media opportunities. The granting and number of credentials will be based on newspapers' circulation on a space available basis.

Membership in the Louisiana Press Association or membership in the Louisiana Sports Writers Association may be used in determining access to credentials. Weekly newspapers based on requests will be limited to non-conference games if space exists.

Specialty publications that cover college basketball or sports in the host site of the two participating schools are eligible to be granted on a space available basis.

Student newspapers from the city of the two teams are able to apply for credentials on the basis of a maximum of two press row seats for dailies and one press row seat for weeklies.

Television

Television stations that have nightly news broadcasts that originate in the locale of the station that includes sports coverage are eligible to apply for credentials. All other stations will be filled on a space available basis.

Student television stations from the two participating schools are eligible to apply on a space available basis.

The Credential confers on a Bearer a limited non-exclusive and non-transferable license (with no right of sublicense) to use broadcast video feeds of the Event only for regularly scheduled television newscast aired only on television (but not on any form of television available or viewable on the internet, except for a single, non-archived only simulcast by Bearer) within the period expiring at midnight on the seventh day after the Event and NO video used for such purposes shall exceed three minutes. Bearer may not broadcast any video of game action that is broadcast live until the Event has been completed.

Radio

National and regional networks are eligible to apply for credentials.

Radio stations that employ a full-time sports director or regularly airs sports news or locally-produced talk shows are eligible for apply for credentials. No talk show may have more than one credential and the maximum credentials a station may receive for a game, based on space availability, is two.

Unless short (10 to 30 second) live updates are allowed by the SEC or its member hosting the Event, radio stations that have not license right to the Event shall not broadcast any reports from the venue on a live basis or broadcast any live description of any Event while it is still in progress.

Internet

Internet sites of the home and visiting school (as determined by the Media Relations or Sports Information Director) are eligible to apply for credentials.

LSU's policy is to issue credentials only to those organizations whose primary purpose is to gather news and disseminating it and for which other commercial activities are ancillary.

Other internet sites must meet each of the following guidelines in addition to meeting the above criteria to be eligible to apply for credentials and access as determined on a space available basis.

- Web site must be a legal corporate entity.
- Web site must provide daily coverage of LSU or the visiting team with its own full-time staff of reporters, photographers and equipment.
- Web site must travel to and cover a majority of away games and all major post-season events.
- Web site must be accredited by the home university as working media.
- Web sites that sponsor message boards, message centers or chat room as their primary function where people are allowed to post anonymous information will not be issued credentials.
- The maximum number of credentials that a web site may receive is two based on space available and the discretion of the media relations or sport information director.

Internet Use – Video and Audio

Upon execution of a separate agreement with terms and conditions governing the use thereof, Bearer will be afforded access to video and audio of broadcast Events for use on Bearer's official news website(s), at no premium or charge. Otherwise, except as specifically permitted herein (with respect to online, non-archived simulcasts), Bearer shall not post, place, distribute or make available video (or audio from broadcast feeds) of game action of any Event (including any Bearer Generated Video of game action of an Event) on or through the internet or any other new media distribution platform (i.e., any other platform other than print media or a form of television not available or viewable over the internet, except for non-archived simulcasts specifically permitted herein) including, without limitation, wireless handsets, podcasts, cell phones or PDAs.

Blogging

By acceptance and use of an LSU media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions as established by LSU and the Southeastern Conference.

Blogging, including periodic updates of scores, statistics or other brief descriptions of the competition throughout the Event, is acceptable provided that the Bearer conforms to the blogging policies separately published by the SEC, as such policies may be revised from time-to-time. No Bearer may produce or disseminate in any form a real-time description or transmission of the Event in any manner that constitutes, or is intended to provide or is promoted or marketed as, a substitute for television or video coverage of such Event. Bearer agrees that the determination of whether a blog is a real-time description or transmission shall be made by the SEC in its reasonable discretion. If the SEC reasonably determines that a Bearer is producing a real-time description of the Event, the SEC reserves the right to pursue all available remedies against the Bearer and to revoke his Credential.

Unauthorized Use of Credentials

Press credentials will be issued to working press only. Press credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Press credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

All press credentials remain the property of the LSU Athletics Department and must be returned on request.

General Information on LSU Basketball Coverage

Entrance

The media entrance to the Pete Maravich Assembly Center is through the Northeast Corridor of the Maravich Center. The press workroom is located in that corridor. Access to the press room is limited to those with working credentials. A pre-game meal will be served approximately one hour before tipoff in the area across from the press room in the Northeast Corridor.

Parking

Media parking is located in lots near the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials.

Satellite Trucks

Any outlet using a satellite truck must request satellite truck parking and must have the truck in place at least two hours prior to tipoff. All production and uplink trucks should contact Dreyfus Milstead, Director of the Maravich Center, 225-578-8205 regarding parking and Director of Television Kevin Wagner, 225-578-1797, regarding production truck power hookup.

Phone Lines

Those writers wishing personal phone lines at press row or in the press room should contact the AT&T Office in Baton Rouge (1-800-238-5501) with LSU Sports Information as the contact.

There are a minimum of four phone lines available for every game for writers in the press room.

Wireless Internet Access

Wireless Internet access is available in the press room and on press row of the Maravich Center. For information on how to access please ask LSU Basketball SID Kent Lowe.

Head Coach Will Wade

Coach Wade will be available for phone and in-person interviews on most non-game weekdays during the season. Please coordinate all requests for personal interviews with Coach Wade at least two days in advance through Kent Lowe in the LSU Athletic Communications Office at 225-578-1864.

Coach Wade will, based on the game schedule, make comments at a media session in the practice facility media room two days prior to a game. The sessions will take place prior to the team's practice. He will also take part in the SEC Teleconferences beginning in January. Contact the SEC Office for the phone number.

On the road, Coach Wade will generally not be available once the team leaves Baton Rouge.

Players

LSU players will be available in the media sessions scheduled before practice two days prior to the game as the schedule permits. Special interviews should be requested 72 hours in advance through the LSU Sports Information Office.

Phone interviews will be handled on a case-by-case basis. NO players will be available for interviews on the road prior to the game.

The team apartments, locker room and team areas of the practice facility are off limits to media representatives at all times.

Postgame

LSU abides by Southeastern Conference policy regarding equal access to all members of the working media.

The LSU locker room is closed to all media after all games, home and away. Requested players will be brought to the practice facility media room for a group press conference after the 10-minute cooling off period. Coach Will Wade will come to the media room after conducting his post-game radio network locker room. On the road, media members can visit with Wade outside the locker-room or in the home team's interview area if so requested.

Practices

Practices are closed to the media for the 2017-18 season, with the exception of the first 30 minutes on days of media sessions.

David Landry Director of Sports Productions

David Landry begins his 11th season since returning to the Television Department in 2006. The Baton Rouge native spent 12 years in television production in the Baton Rouge area after serving as a full-time television producer for LSU Athletics from 1990-94. He was also involved in LSU Athletics television production from 1988-90 during his time as a student at the University.

Landry graduated from LSU in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism. He is married to the former Kim Segura of Baton Rouge and has two sons, Patrick and John.

Lee Scioneaux Video Production Manager

Lee Scioneaux starts his fourth year working with LSU Sports Productions, bringing his 27 years of experience in video production and marketing.

Scioneaux started his career in 1991 working at a Baton Rouge based video production facility and then in 1998 co-founded and operated his own production operation.

In 2008, Scioneaux joined the corporate world as a marketing director focusing on online media & production.

A native of LaPlace, and a 1990 graduate in broadcast journalism at LSU, Scioneaux married the former Michele Doming of Litcher and they have three children - Seth, Gabe, and Marie.

Andrew Franzella Video Production Specialist

Andrew Franzella is in his third year with the LSU Sports Productions team where he serves as a Video Production Specialist. Franzella helps produce all six television coaches shows for LSU and creates original video content for LSU Athletics' social media platforms.

Franzella and his wife, Lauren, are high school sweethearts from Mandeville, La. They both are LSU graduates who love living near the campus with their dog, Magnolia.

Benjamin Bullock Video Production Specialist

Benjamin Bullock joined the LSU Sports Properties team in August of 2016 as a Video Production Specialist, helping to produce all six television coaches shows and create original video content for LSU Athletics' social media platforms.

Previously, Bullock spent three years at his Alma Mater - Delaware State University - serving as the Assistant Athletic Media Relations Director and Director of Multimedia/Social Media.

A native of Wilmington, Delaware., Bullock has a younger brother, Daniel, while his parents are Christopher and Debbie. He's engaged to Anya Washington and the two are expected to tie the knot in June of 2018.

SEC Network

Kevin Wagner Assistant Athletic Director Network Operations

In April, 2014, Kevin Wagner was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director, Network Operations, and Wagner oversees the LSU Athletic Department's responsibilities for the SEC Television Network.

Included in those responsibilities is production of all live digital sports events originating at LSU for the SEC Network. Wagner will also oversee and coordinate all other TV production projects for the LSU Athletic Department.

For 25 years before his involvement with the SEC Network, Wagner served as the Executive Producer/Director for LSU's four major coaches' television shows and he coordinated video production for LSU's video scoreboards in Tiger Stadium, the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and Alex Box Stadium.

Wagner, 61, joined LSU's Television department as Assistant Coordinator in August of 1989, and was promoted to Coordinator of Electronic Media/Television in July of 1994.

A 1980 graduate of LSU in broadcast journalism, Wagner was a four-year Tiger letterman in diving (1975-79), earning All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1979 on the three-meter springboard.

A native of Houston with 38 years of TV production experience, Wagner and his wife Karen have two daughters - Allyson and Jennifer - and seven grandchildren: Kaleigh, Randy, Conner, Tanner, Carson, Kyndal, and Taylor.

John Schiebe Assistant Director Network Operations

John Schiebe begins his 24th season in the LSU Athletics Television Department. He came to LSU in August of 1994 from the University of Mississippi where he served as post-production supervisor in the Teleproductions Center.

Schiebe served as a production assistant in Educational Television Services at Oklahoma State from 1984-87 before becoming a producer/director in Agricultural Communications at OSU from 1987-93 when he joined Ole Miss.

A 1986 graduate of Oklahoma State, he was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota and attended high school in Oxford, Mississippi.

Schiebe is in his third year in the role assisting with production of athletic events in association with the SEC Network.

Schiebe is married to the former Mollie Clements of Memphis, Tennessee, and they have two children, Tom and Pat.

Radio Network History

The LSU Sports Radio Network, a division of LSU Sports Properties, brings Tiger basketball to LSU fans and alumni around the world. With four 50,000-watt affiliates, three 100,000-watt FM stations and two clear-signal 50,000 watt AM stations, LSU Fighting Tiger Basketball is distributed by satellite throughout the South. The LSU Sports Radio Network is anchored by flagship WDGL Eagle 98.1 FM in Baton Rouge.

The LSU Sports Radio Network is one of the most progressive college radio networks in the country, utilizing an in-house radio studio to originate more than 250 live broadcasts of LSU football, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball annually.

Eagle 98.1 is also the home of football and baseball. WYPY Talk 107.3 FM serves as a flagship station for women's basketball and softball.

In addition to live games, network programming includes a weekly live coaches' shows for football, men's and women's basketball, and baseball.

Former LSU Head Basketball Coach John Brady will join the Voice of the Tigers, Chris Blair, on this year's broadcasts.

The Will Wade Show

The Will Wade Show, presented by Capital One Bank, a weekly one-hour radio program returns for the 2017-18 season. It is designed to give Tiger fans a chance to visit both live and by phone with LSU Coach Will Wade.

The show will be hosted this season by the Voice of the Tigers, Chris Blair. The show will be broadcast again this year from the recently renovated T. J. Ribs on Acadian Thruway.

Fans have the opportunity to come out and watch the show. There is also a call-in segment that features questions from listeners on the LSU Sports Radio Network, in the Geaux Zone at LSUsports.net and on Twitter.

The first show, with Coach Wade, is Nov. 27 and runs primarily on Mondays through the remainder of the regular season.

The Will Wade Radio Show is broadcast from T. J. Ribs on Acadian Thruway.

"Voice of the Tigers"

Chris Blair

Director of Radio Broadcasting/
Voice of the Tigers

Chris Blair enters his second basketball season as the "Voice of the Tigers" after joining the LSU Sports Network in the spring of 2016.

Blair, Georgia Southern's radio voice for 10 seasons, was named in June 2015 as the next "Voice of the Tigers" and he officially joined the LSU Athletics Department on Dec. 7, 2015.

Blair's resume covers virtually all aspects of broadcasting, with broadcast management and marketing positions in Greenville and Columbia, South Carolina. Blair basically grew up inside a radio station, working at age 14 for his father, also a long-time broadcaster. His college broadcast experience includes working for the Clemson Tiger Sports Network and at Lander University.

Blair spent 10 years as play-by-play announcer for prep powerhouse Greenwood High School in South Carolina and handled the play-by-play for four state championship football games at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia, South Carolina.

Along with his play-by-play duties for Georgia Southern, Blair handled all the behind-the-scenes aspects with affiliate relations, network marketing plans and overall sound presentation of GSU Athletics on the air and on the Internet. He also hosted the weekly coaches radio shows and was the host for the weekly television show for GSU basketball.

Blair is married to the former Amber Anders and they have two children, Crafton Christopher and Rivers Elisabeth.

LSU Athletics, like all 14 schools in the SEC, built state-of-the-art control rooms and purchased HD camera equipment to provide the same quality coverage for events that viewers have been used to for years the ESPN family of network events.

SEC Network

The first three years of the SEC Network have proven to be one of the most successful launches by a network in all of cable television. Plus, it has brought Southeastern Conference sports to audiences nationwide.

That was the vision when the SEC and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multi-platform network which launched on Aug. 14, 2014. The network and its accompanying digital platform carries SEC contest 24/7 including some 1,500 events each year.

The network televises 45 football games, more than 100 men's basketball games, 60 women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, and events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually.

Besides the volume of over the air events, thanks to commitment by athletic departments like LSU, all 14 schools built state-of-the-art control rooms and purchased HD camera equipment to provide the same quality coverage for events that viewers were used to for years on ESPN family of network events.

These events were made exclusively through the ESPN app as part of SEC Network+ on computers, phones and tablets, allowing fans anywhere and almost anytime to watch their favorite teams play their favorite sports.

The SEC Network has also become known for its studio show "SEC Now" and its traveling weekly football pregame show "SEC Nation" besides its weekly coverage morning to night of Saturday SEC college football.

Coach Will Wade visits with Pat Bradley (L) and Paul Finebaum (R) during SEC Media Day in Nashville.
