SEC Announces Men's Basketball Schedule

Birmingham, Ala. -- The Southeastern Conference unveiled the 2012 men's basketball composite league schedule on Thursday afternoon. In the third year of its historic agreements with CBS Sports and ESPN, each of the 96 conference games will be televised live.

Almost half of the SEC's league games will be distributed nationally with ESPN or ESPN2 televising 27 contests, ESPNU showing eight and CBS Sports five. The SEC's games on the ESPN family of networks are exclusively branded as the "SEC on ESPN."

Regionally-syndicated games will be televised on the SEC Network as part of ESPN Regional Television (ERT). The SEC Network will televise 37 intra-conference games while Fox Sports Net will show 10 contests and CSS nine. The majority of games not televised nationally will be available as a part of ESPN Full Court, the pay subscription college basketball out-of-market service, and on ESPN3.com. In addition, ERT will produce and distribute a studio show each Saturday afternoon during conference play and at the SEC Tournament.

The SEC Basketball Tournament semifinals and championship game will be broadcast nationally on ABC. The SEC Network will televise the first two rounds of the tournament which this year will be played March 9-12 in New Orleans, La.
