As a player he was known simply as "Billy the Kid." A player with fire, passion and discipline. An overachiever.

A kid no more, Donovan has done the unthinkable in 17 years at Florida. He has taken a program that experienced pockets of success and has made history.

Two National Championships and three appearances in the title game.

Five SEC Championships.

Three consecutive SEC Tournament titles from 2005-07.

The No. 1 ranking in the nation in four different seasons, including starting and finishing the 2006-07 season in that spot.

Fifteen straight 20-win seasons, two 30-win seasons, including a school record 35 wins in 2006-07.

Sixteen consecutive postseason appearances.

There was a time when any of these goals seemed unattainable for the University of Florida basketball program – until March 27, 1996, when Florida athletic director Jeremy Foley hired the up-and-coming Donovan who has turned the Gators into a perennial national power.

Under Donovan, the once unattainable goals of the program have become a reality, as he has taken the University of Florida and established it among a very short list of elite programs in the nation. He has joined the greats in his profession and elevated the University of Florida to be mentioned among the great programs in college basketball.

Donovan Timeline

1996-present (18th season)	Florida Head Coach
1994-96 (2 seasons)	Marshall Head Coach
1989-94 (5 seasons)	Kentucky Associate Coach 1993-94 (1 season)  Assistant Coach 1990-93 (3 seasons)  Graduate Assistant Coach 1989-90 (1 season)
1987-88 (1 season)	New York Knicks Player
1983-87 (4 seasons)	Providence Student-Athlete

In 2007, the Gators became just the seventh team in NCAA history and the first in 15 years to win back-to-back titles. He joined Adolph Rupp as only the second coach in SEC history to guide his team to multiple national titles. In 2013, he surpassed Rupp with his 31st NCAA Tournament win, most by any SEC coach in the history of the conference. In April 2010, he became the youngest recipient ever of the Wooden Award's "Legends of Coaching" honor.

For those who have followed Donovan's career it should come as no surprise that he has made Florida basketball a winner.

He was a winner at Providence College, where he led the Friars to their best season in school history and a trip to the Final Four in 1987. He was a winner as a New York Knick playing with the elite athletes in the NBA. He was a winner in five years as an assistant at Kentucky and was part of the Wildcats' Final Four run in 1993. He was a winner as a head coach when he inherited a struggling Marshall program and in two short years won more than 60 percent of his games and put fans back in the seats. Now he has created hoop hysteria in Gainesville. Donovan is one of only two people in the history of Division I college basketball who have played in a Final Four, served as an assistant coach on a Final Four team and participated in the Final Four as a head coach.

Under Donovan, Florida has set a school record with 16 straight post-season appearances, including NCAA Tournament appearances 13 of the last 15 seasons and five Elite Eight appearances in the past eight seasons. The Gators have also put together 15 consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in school history.

UF made the school's first-ever appearance in the National Championship game in 2000 before winning the title in both 2006 and 2007. Donovan has won 31 NCAA Tournament games, more than any other SEC coach ever has. And on Dec. 20, 2006, he became the school's all-time leader in career wins, posting his 236th at UF, a total that has since risen to 415, third in SEC history.

After the school had just one Southeastern Conference championship in 77 seasons prior to his arrival, Donovan has tallied five SEC titles (2000, 2001, 2007, 2011 and 2013). Florida and Kentucky are the only two SEC schools to capture consecutive league crowns in the past 34 years. Florida captured five SEC East titles under Donovan (before the league abandoned divisions following the 2010-11 season) and won three straight SEC Tournament titles from 2005-07, the only three in school history. In leading the Gators to the SEC crown for the fourth time in 2011, Donovan picked up the first SEC Coach of the Year honor of his career and added another during the 2013 campaign.

Florida won 261 games in the first decade of this century – the fifth-most in the nation and the highest total in the SEC during that span, and nearly 100 wins better than any other decade in UF history.

Donovan's winning percentage at UF (.714) is the best among all Gator coaches who spent more than one season in Gainesville. He reached the 100-victory mark at UF quicker than any coach in school history, needing just 154 games to reach the century plateau. He won his 200th game at UF on Dec. 3, 2005, and broke the school record for wins (236th) on Dec. 20, 2006, doing so in 92 games fewer than previous record-holder Norm Sloan. In 2008-09, he became the first UF coach to win 300 games, and he added his 400th win at UF with a 31-point victory over Missouri in the teams' first meeting on Jan. 19, 2013.

Donovan picked up his 400th overall career win (including his two years at Marshall) with Florida's win over Stetson on Nov. 28, 2011, and holds a 450-186 career record.

Donovan's teams have knocked off 61 ranked opponents during his tenure, including a 14-2 mark during the Gators' two-year run as NCAA champions. Since 2006, Donovan has led UF to a 21-4 record in NCAA Tournament action. His .738 career winning percentage (31-11) in the NCAA Tournament ranks sixth among active coaches.

Donovan's squads have led the SEC in a statistical category 65 times, including 41 offensive categories, and have had the SEC's best scoring margin eight times. A total of 24 players have earned 75 All-SEC honors, including Chandler Parsons, who in 2010-11 became the first Gator to be named the SEC Player of the Year. Seventeen of Donovan's freshmen have been recognized as among the best in the league, including in 2011-12 when Bradley Beal became the first Gator to be named both SEC All-Freshman and first-team All-SEC. The Gators have an active streak of six straight seasons with at least one player on the SEC All-Freshman squad.

Nine of Donovan's players have been first-round draft picks in the NBA Draft, after the school boasted only two before his arrival, and he has inked 16 McDonald's All-Americans after UF had just three previously. In 2007, the University of Florida became the first school to have three players taken as top-10 picks of the NBA Draft, with Al Horford going third overall, Corey Brewer seventh and Joakim Noah ninth. UF had five players taken in the 2007 NBA Draft and has had six first-round picks since 2005.

Average attendance has topped 10,000 every season since 2000-01 and UF shattered the school record for average attendance in 2006-07

Did You Know?

Billy Donovan holds a 31-11 NCAA Tournament record and is 21-4 in the Big Dance since 2006. His 31 NCAA Tournament victories are the most ever by an SEC coach.

HEAD COACH BILLY DONOVAN

with an 11,826 average per game, including a school record 12,621 in the Gators' thrashing of Ohio State on Dec. 23, 2006. A record 226,815 fans passed through the turnstiles of the O'Dome in 2007-08.

Off the court, Donovan's players have excelled in the classroom. A league-best 61 SEC Academic Honor Roll honors have been earned by 34 student-athletes under Donovan, including a league record six in 1997 and 1998. In 2002-03, Matt Bonner earned his second consecutive Academic All-American of the Year award while earning First Team Academic All-America honors for the third straight year. Carrying a 3.98 GPA, Bonner is also the only player in school history to be named an Academic All-American three times. Lee Humphrey added to that list, earning second-team Academic All-America honors in 2005-06, while earning first-team honors in 2006-07.

Humphrey and Patric Young are both two-time winners of the SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year Award, and Ray Shipman also won in 2010. A Gator has earned that honor in five of the last eight seasons. Twenty-seven of the 31 seniors who have suited up to play for Donovan have graduated from the University of Florida.

Donovan recently landed his first international head coaching assignment, serving as USA Basketball head coach for the 2012 U18 FIBA Americas, leading the USA squad to a gold medal. He then spearheaded USA Basketball's gold medal-winning FIBA U19 World Championships team, which included UF's Michael Frazier II, in 2013.

The 48-year-old Donovan, Florida's 17th head coach, has certainly lived up to his national reputation as one of the nation's top coaches who preaches an up-tempo, full-court, pressing style of play built around a tremendous work ethic.

The work ethic at Florida started in the recruiting trenches. Just eight months into the job in Gainesville, Donovan landed two of the premier prep players in the state (4A Player of the Year Major Parker and 6A Player of the Year Brent Wright). With a full year under his belt, Donovan and his staff pushed themselves even harder and the results showed. Once again, the focus of the recruiting efforts remained in Florida and the Gators got early commitments from four of Florida's best – Teddy Dupay, LaDarius Halton, Udonis Haslem and Sylbrin Robinson. Those early commitments allowed Donovan and his staff to pursue one of the nation's most coveted high school stars, South Dakota standout Mike Miller. Miller, who joined Dupay on the prestigious McDonald's All-American team, chose Florida over Kansas and Kentucky to give the Gators a consensus top-five recruiting class.

Proving that class was no fluke, Donovan put together another consensus top-five recruiting class in 1999. This one landed another pair of McDonald All-Americans (Brett Nelson and Donnell Harvey, who joined Matt Bonner and Justin Hamilton as freshmen in 1999-2000). Florida was the only school in the nation to have multiple selections in the 1998 and 1999 McDonald's All-American games. The 2000 class included a Parade All-American, Orien Greene. The 2001 class featured a nation's best three McDonald's All-Americans – Kwame Brown, David Lee and James White, although Brown declared for the NBA Draft. Donovan's five-man recruiting class in 2002 – highlighted by another McDonald's All-American Anthony Roberson and Matt Walsh again ranked among the nation's best. Corey Brewer was the ninth McDonald's All-American recruited by Donovan's staff, while Jai Lucas and Nick Calathes became the 10th and 11th. Kenny Boynton was the 12th and went on to a 2,000-point career with the Gators. Current senior Patric Young was Donovan's 13th McDonald's All-American and 2012 first-round NBA draft pick Bradley Beal was the 14th. Mike Rosario, a former McDonald's All-American, transferred to UF after his sophomore season at Rutgers and played two seasons for the Gators.

Billy Donovan raises the net at the RCA Dome in Indianapolis after leading Florida to its first national championship in program history with a 73-57 win over UCLA on April 3, 2006.

The recruiting efforts have paid dividends on the floor. After inheriting a squad that scored 66.8 points a game, shot .429 from the field and won just 12 games the year before his arrival, Donovan's squads have ranked among the nation's best, averaging 24.4 wins per season and 76.9 points per game.

The Gators' 2012-13 team forged its identity on defense and rode that to an SEC Championship and NCAA Elite Eight appearance with a 29-8 overall record and a 14-4 league record. The Gators' 54.4 points allowed per game ranked third in the nation, while their +17.0 scoring margin was second. UF held opponents to .382 shooting from the floor, lowest by a Gator team since 1957-58. Florida twice held opponents to 10 points or fewer in the first half (10, South Carolina; 9, Alabama State), and South Carolina's 36 total points were the fewest by an SEC opponent since 1948. With all the defensive effort, the Gators did not sacrifice on the offensive end of the floor, leading the conference in field goal percentage (.478), 3-point field goal percentage (.378) and 3-pointers per game (8.1).

Despite losing three seniors from the previous season, the 2011-12 team made its second straight trip to the Elite Eight. Florida finished with a 26-11 mark and reached 25 wins for the seventh time in the past 13 seasons, while posting a 10-6 mark in SEC play. The team led the nation in 3-pointers with 9.6 per game and totaled a school-record 357 3-point field goals, which also ranks as the second-highest single-season total in SEC history. Florida hit 10 or more 3-pointers in 22 games, the most ever for a Donovan-coached team. Erving Walker ascended to fourth on the UF all-time scoring list while leading the SEC in assist-to-turnover ratio.

The 2010-11 Gators had one of the most impressive seasons in school history as UF finished the season with a 29-8 record, the 29 wins tying with the 1994 and 2000 Final Four teams for third-most wins in school history. Along the way, Florida won 13 of 16 SEC games, claiming just the third outright conference title in school history, Donovan was named SEC Coach of the Year for the first time in his career and Parsons became the first Gator to be honored as SEC Player of the Year. The Gators reached the Elite Eight before falling to eventual national finalist Butler.

In 2009-10, the Gators returned to the NCAA Tournament, posting a non-conference win over No. 2-ranked Michigan State along the way. Erving Walker earned Second Team All-SEC honors, while Kenny Boynton earned SEC All-Freshman honors. A relentless team, the Gators rallied from halftime deficits five times on the year.

The 2006-07 squad will go down as one of the great teams in college basketball history, closing out with a 35-5 mark, starting the year as No. 1 in the nation, and finishing the year in the same spot after another convincing NCAA Tournament run. With the pressures of college basketball's first possible repeat champion in 15 years, Donovan pushed all the right buttons, managing the complex personalities of one of the most talented lineups in the history of college basketball.

Florida dominated the Southeastern Conference, going 13-3 and winning the school's fourth SEC title and only its second outright title. The Gators demolished the field at the SEC Tournament to win the school's third straight title in the event.

Each of Florida's top six players were honored by the league, as Joakim Noah, Al Horford and Corey Brewer earned First Team All-SEC honors, Taurean Green earned Second Team honors, Lee Humphrey was the SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year and Chris Richard the Sixth Man of the Year. Noah (Second Team) and Horford (Third Team) earned AP All-America honors for their tremendous efforts.

The Gators went 8-1 against ranked opponents, including 3-0 against top-five teams. The Gators won their first six games of the season before dropping two out of three with a depleted roster. Donovan then led the team to its third 17-game winning streak in the last two years, as the Gators held the No. 1 spot from Jan. 15 until Feb. 19, the longest continuous run in school history.

After winning the SEC regular season title, the Gators shifted into another gear as the postseason approached. Florida won each of its three SEC Tournament games by 17+ points, waltzing to a third straight title behind an MVP performance from Horford.

After dismantling Jackson State in the NCAA Tournament opener, the Gators rallied from a two-point halftime deficit against Purdue to advance to the school's fourth Sweet 16 in the last nine years. Donovan guided the Gators to wins over Butler and Oregon to advance to the Final Four for the third time in his tenure and the second straight year behind a regional MVP performance from Green.

At the Final Four, the Gators proved to once again be the dominant team in college basketball, easily defeating UCLA in the national semifinal, then completing a dream season with a nine-point victory over Ohio State in the national title game, as Brewer earned MVP honors.

The 2006-07 Gator squad led the nation in field goal percentage (.526) and margin of victory (+17.2), while leading the SEC in seven major categories.

The 2005-06 team was one of the truly special teams in recent basketball history, tearing through the NCAA Tournament field to the Gators' first NCAA title. Donovan led the Gators to a then-school record 33 wins, including a record 17 straight to start the season. Florida served notice early in the season starting the year unranked and marching to the title of the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic at Madison Square Garden, beating ranked and much more experienced opponents Wake Forest and Syracuse in the process.

Florida reached New Year's undefeated for the first time in school history and finished regular season non-conference play a perfect 14-0. After finishing second in the SEC East, Florida turned it up a notch once the calendar turned to March. Florida defeated Kentucky at Rupp Arena for the first time since 1998, taking a 15-point decision on Senior Day. The Gators then stormed Nashville and took home their second straight SEC Tournament title, defeating Arkansas, LSU and South Carolina to claim the crown.

Florida then raced through the NCAA Tournament, demolishing its opponents by an average of 16.0 points per game in its six victories. The Gators opened with 26- and 22-point wins, respectively, over South Alabama and Wisconsin-Milwaukee and then swept Big East opponents Georgetown and Villanova in the Minneapolis Region to advance to the Final Four. Once in Indianapolis at the Final Four, Florida left no doubt that it was the most dominant team in the 2006 tournament, beating George Mason by 15 in the national semifinal, then UCLA by 16 in the national title game. Florida became the first school since UCLA in 1968 under legendary coach John Wooden, to win both the national semifinal and the final by 15+ points.

Did You Know?

Billy Donovan and Dick Harp are the only two men who have played in a Final Four, served as an assistant coach on a Final Four team and been head coach of a Final Four team? Donovan served as an assistant on the 1993 Kentucky team that advanced to the Final Four, while Harp served as an assistant on the 1952 and 1953 Kansas teams that advanced to the Final Four. Six men have participated in a Final Four as both a player and a head coach.

HEAD COACH BILLY DONOVAN

Joakim Noah earned Final Four MVP and Minneapolis Region MVP honors and was tremendous during the NCAA Tournament. The 6-11 forward averaged 16.2 points, 9.5 rebounds and swatted an NCAA Tournament record 29 shots over the six games.

Noah earned First Team All-SEC honors while Donovan's ideal plan of balance was executed to its fullest potential in 2005-06 as all five starters averaged in double-figures and all five were honored by the SEC. Florida finished second in the nation in field goal percentage and was among the national leaders in assists, as the group took Donovan's lead, made the extra pass and played the game unselfishly.

During the Gators' two-year run as national champions, Donovan led the squad to 18 straight postseason wins, the longest by any program since the great UCLA teams of John Wooden won 28 straight games. Donovan's teams have broken 64 school (individual and team), SEC and NCAA Tournament records over the two years.

The 2004-05 season did nothing but solidify Donovan's place among the coaching elite, as he guided the Gators to a 24-8 mark and the school's first SEC Tournament title. Donovan blended a team with returning upperclassmen David Lee, Anthony Roberson, Matt Walsh and Adrian Moss with a group of talented freshmen and sophomores.

The Gators won 12 games in SEC play for the fourth time under Donovan and led the league in scoring and scoring margin. Most notably, however, the Gators finished third in the league in points per game surrendered, a vast improvement after finishing 11th the year before.

Anthony Roberson was runner-up for SEC Player of the Year, earned Honorable Mention All-America from the Associated Press and First Team All-SEC from both the league coaches and AP. David Lee became the first Gator in 15 years to average a double-double in SEC play and earned Second Team honors across the board while Matt Walsh was a Second Team choice by the league coaches.

The Gators were brilliant down the stretch, winning six of their final seven regular season games, capped with a 53-52 victory over Kentucky on Senior Day before a then-school record crowd of 12,602 fans. The Gators then stormed through Atlanta, taking the toughest route possible. They defeated Mississippi State, a team they had lost to earlier in the year, and SEC West champion Alabama before picking up a 17-point win over Kentucky in the title game. The victory over Kentucky gave Florida two wins over the Wildcats in the span of a week, the first team to beat UK twice within a 10-day stretch since 1920.

Florida reached the NCAA Tournament and held off a solid Ohio team in the opening round before running into Villanova, one of the hottest teams in the nation, in the second round. When it was all said and done the Gators had won 20 games for the seventh straight year, reached the NCAA Tournament for the seventh straight year, made history in the SEC Tournament and had finished with the fourth most wins in school history.

In 2003-04, Donovan came up with, arguably, one of his finest coaching efforts, molding the third youngest team in the nation into a squad that reached the SEC Tournament Championship game for the first time in a decade.

Eight of the 10 scholarship players at the season's end were in either their freshman or sophomore years, as Donovan used a combination of seven different starting lineups throughout the season. Staring at 14-8 on Feb. 18, Donovan inspired his team to six wins in its final eight games heading into the NCAA Tournament, as the Gators won 20 games for the sixth straight season and reached the Dance for the sixth straight year.

Anthony Roberson earned Honorable Mention All-American honors and first-team All-SEC honors from both the coaches and Associated Press, while Matt Walsh earned second-team honors from each and David Lee earned Second Team honors from the league coaches and Third Team honors from the AP. Roberson averaged 17.9 points per game, the highest ever by a Donovan-coached player at UF, while Walsh's 15.8 points per game were then the fifth-best single season average by one of his players.

The season was filled with thrilling finishes, as the Gators defeated third-ranked Arizona at the Tip-Off Classic in Springfield, Mass., when Bonell Colas cut to the basket and finished a lay-up in the closing seconds, a victory that helped the Gators reach No. 1 in the nation on Dec. 8. Against Alabama in the SEC Tournament, Lee Humphrey hit a 17-foot jumper at the buzzer to give the Gators a thrilling 75-73 overtime victory, while Roberson followed the next day with a 35-point outburst against Vanderbilt, the most points by a Gator in over 20 years.

The 2002-03 team reached uncharted territories in one of the most successful seasons in school history. The Gators established a new school record with 24 regular season wins, while reaching No. 1 in the nation for the first time in school history on Feb. 3, 2003. The Gators earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, their highest positioning ever in the postseason, while their 25 wins overall were the third most in school history.

A year after finishing just 2-7 in games decided by five points or less, Donovan's squad became a gritty bunch that found a way to win the close ones, claiming seven games decided by five points or less in 2002-03. The Gators tied the school record with a 14-game winning streak, while setting a new O'Connell Center record with a 19-game home winning streak that extended over the final four games of the 2001-02 season until the 2002-03 home finale. Florida was ranked wire-to-wire for the fourth straight year, while matching the school record for SEC wins in a 16-game season with 12.

Anthony Roberson earned SEC Freshman of the Year honors, the first Gator to do so in nearly two decades, while Matt Bonner earned First Team All-SEC honors, Honorable Mention All-America honors, was the Verizon Academic All-American of the Year for the second straight year and was honored as the Men's College Basketball Student Athlete of the Year.

The 2001-02 squad set school records with its fourth consecutive NCAA appearance and a fourth consecutive 20-win season while Donovan led the Gators to a share of their third straight SEC Eastern Division Championship. Florida put together a school-record 14-game winning streak and climbed to a then program-best number two ranking in both polls in the January 14th rankings. Florida posted a final record of 22-9, with the nine losses coming by just an average of 5.0 points per game - the lowest margin of defeat in school history. Florida trailed by more than 10 points just twice all year and seven games came down to the final possession. Florida boasted a league-high five SEC Academic Honor Roll selections and the squad featured the National Academic All-American of the Year (Matt Bonner). In all, the Gator squad set 12 team records, including a then-school-best attendance average of 10,805.

The 2000-01 squad tied a school record with a third straight 20-win season and a third consecutive bid to the NCAA Tournament. At the NCAA Tournament, UF won its opening round game for the third straight year for the first time in school history. The final tally showed 24 wins and a share of the Southeastern Conference Championship

First-Round NBA Draft Picks

Florida had just two first-round NBA draft picks prior to Donovan's arrival. UF has had nine first-round selections under Donovan.

Name	Year	Team	Overall
Jason Williams	1998	Sacramento	7th
Mike Miller	2000	Orlando	5th
Donnell Harvey	2000	New York	22nd
David Lee	2005	New York	30th
Al Horford	2007	Atlanta	3rd

for the second consecutive year. UF was ranked No. 8 in the final Associated Press Poll, the highest finish in school history. Reaching those milestones wasn't easy. Florida players missed a combined 33 games because of injuries during the season and UF players had four surgeries during the SEC schedule. UF played at full strength for just nine games and none after December 28th. Florida played one game with seven scholarship players, 11 games with eight scholarship players and 10 games with nine scholarship players. Three of Florida's starters went down with injuries in a week's span of the SEC schedule, and after a 1-3 start to the SEC slate, the outlook was not good. UF's character and will prevailed, as the Gators won 11 of its final 12 league games, with the only loss a buzzer beater at Kentucky.

The 1999-2000 squad will go down as one of the greatest in school history. With preseason expectations higher than ever, the squad became the first in school history to be ranked in the national polls wire-to-wire. The season began with a sold out crowd of 12,487 to witness Florida's 35-point win over Florida State in the O'Connell Center. The season ended with 43,116 fans on hand at the RCA Dome in Indianapolis to watch the school's first-ever appearance in the National Championship game.

In between, there were a lot of other firsts for the Gator hoop program. For the first time in school history, season tickets were sold out before November. The Gators went 12-4 in Southeastern Conference action to share the league championship with Kentucky, Tennessee and LSU - only the second SEC crown in the 81-year history of the program. Florida averaged 9,783 fans and averaged a school record 11,593 fans for SEC home games. The fan support, coupled with UF's average margin of victory of 31.3 points per game, supported one national magazine's preseason claim that the O'Dome is the "Scariest Place to Play" in the nation. Florida made a school-record 31 appearances on television, including eight on CBS and six on the ESPN networks. UF faced a school-record 11 ranked opponents during the year and knocked off the nation's top-ranked team (Duke in the NCAA East Regional Semifinal) for the first time in school history. Two days later UF topped Oklahoma State to advance to the Final Four for the second time in school history and made Donovan just the sixth coach to both play and coach in the Final Four. He then became the fifth of those coaches to appear in the national title game after Florida defeated North Carolina in the National Semifinals.

When the storybook season ended with UF's highest final ranking in school history (second in the ESPN/Coaches' Poll), a total of 34 school records were set. Living up to Donovan's offensive trademark of running and pressing, UF led the SEC in scoring, scoring margin and assists.

Donovan's third squad won 22 games (the fourth most in school history at the time), advanced to the Sweet 16 for the third time in school history and averaged 80.3 points per game. UF's 1998-99 regular-season winning percentage of .731 was the third best in school history and its 10 conference wins were the second most at UF since the league went to a 16-game league format in 1992. En route to setting or tying 30 school records, the 1998-99 Gators became only the second squad in school history to be ranked in the Final Polls (17th in ESPN and 23rd in Associated Press). UF led the SEC in 3-point field goal percentage, 3-pointers per game and steals. For the second consecutive year, Florida led the league with five selections to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Donovan's 1997-98 Florida squad made the school's first postseason appearance in three years and won more games and league contests than the year before despite playing a school-record tying eight ranked opponents. The Gators led the nation in an offensive team category for the first time in school history after posting an NCAA best 9.83 3-pointers per game and also led the Southeastern Conference in 3-point field goal percentage. All told, the 1997-98 team set six single-season records and four game records, while a league-record six student-athletes were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll. The Gators defeated No. 7 Kentucky at Rupp Arena to mark the first time in 10 years Florida had defeated a ranked SEC team on the road and ended a 10-game slide to the Wildcats. The win also marked the first time the Gators would defeat an eventual national champion in the regular season.

The first order of business on the court in Donovan's first season was conditioning. The Gators lost a combined 61 pounds and decreased their body fat by a combined 27.7 percent before he ever coached a game at UF. Despite replacing three starters and more than 50 percent of the scoring from a club that won 12 games the year before and playing with just six scholarship players for over half of the SEC schedule, Donovan's first Florida squad broke nine school records during the 1996-97 season and won more games than the year before. The Gators ranked 10th nationally and went from worst to first in the league in 3-point shooting percentage as UF led the league in an offensive category for the first time since 1988-89. Every player who scored during the season set or tied career highs in single-game scoring, while seven of the eight players scored more points in 1996-97 than they did in their entire careers entering the season.

Donovan's work ethic also gave Marshall University, home of Donovan's first head coaching job in March of 1994, a basketball facelift. Donovan inherited a program that went 9-18 the year before his arrival and turned a nine-man squad into believers. The result was an 18-9 record and a North Division Championship in the Southern Conference. Marshall averaged just 13 victories a season in the six years before Donovan arrived and finished the 1993-94 season as one of the 10 most improved teams in the nation. Along the way, six school records fell as smooth as 3-pointers swishing in the net in Donovan's fast-paced offense. The Thundering Herd set school records for three pointers in a game (17), 3-point attempts in a game (35), 3-point attempts in a season (693) and 3-pointers made in a season (253). Marshall led the Southern Conference in scoring (84.4), scoring margin (+6.8), free throw percentage (74.2), blocked shots (4.1), steals (11.2), turnover margin (plus-123) and attendance (6,574). Donovan was named the National Rookie Coach of the Year by Basketball Times and added Southern Conference Coach of the Year and West Virginia College Coach of the Year (by West Virginia Sportswriters Association) honors.

It was more of the same in Donovan's second season in 1994-95. Marshall went 17-11, set five school records and led the league in scoring (91.4), field goal percentage (.495) and 3-pointers per game (10.1). Nationally, the Thundering Herd offense ranked third, while its field goal percentage and 3-pointers a game ranked sixth and second, respectively.

In two short years, his Marshall teams posted an overall mark of 35-20 (.636) and captured a league championship. In 55 games at the helm of the Thundering Herd, his teams averaged 88.8 points a game, shot .472 from the field, .382 from 3-point range and .717 from the line. On the average, his squads attempted 25 3-pointers a game and connected on 9.8 per game. Eleven times his squads had 100-plus points in a game and there was a 2,000-fan increase at the turnstiles during his two-year tenure.

Prior to his coaching job at Marshall, Donovan spent five years on Rick Pitino's staff at Kentucky. Donovan joined the Kentucky staff as a graduate assistant coach in 1989. Prior to the 1990-91 season he was promoted to assistant coach and then to associate coach before the 1993-94 season. During his five-year stay at Kentucky, the Wildcats posted a 122-38 (.763) record and advanced to the Final Four in 1993. In addition to his duties with on-floor coaching, Donovan also had a hand in recruiting all of the upperclassmen on the 1996 National Championship team.

As much as any assistant has digested and learned from the up-tempo, full-court, pressing philosophy adapted by Pitino, Donovan may have as good a grasp as any. Not only did he spend five years under Pitino at Kentucky, he also played the style under him at Providence and later, with the New York Knicks in the NBA.

A native of Rockville Centre, N.Y., Donovan was a part-time player for the Friars in his first two seasons, averaging just over two points as a freshman and three points as a sophomore. Enter Pitino as head coach at Providence in 1985, and "Billy the Kid" was born. Once considered undersized and underdeveloped, Donovan thrived under the new system and finished his career as one of the premier players in Providence history. As a junior he averaged 15.1 points per game and shot better than 50 percent from the field at the guard spot. Donovan then averaged 20.6 points a game and earned honorable mention All-America honors (UPI) as a senior, capping off a magical ride to the 1987 Final Four by being named the Southeast Regional Most Outstanding Player. Donovan still holds three Providence single-season school records

Billy Donovan led USA Basketball to the 2013 FIBA U19 World Championships gold medal. Donovan poses following the gold medal game with the team's assistant coaches, VCU head coach and former UF assistant coach Shaka Smart (left) and Virginia head coach Tony Bennett.

(3-pointers made, 97; 3-point attempts, 237; minutes played, 1234). Donovan was inducted into the Providence College Hall of Fame in June of 1999 and was named to the 10-man All-Time Providence Civic Center Team in January of 1999.

In the 1987 NBA Draft, Donovan was drafted in the third round (68th overall) by the Utah Jazz, where he played in the preseason before being waived. After a brief stint in the CBA with Wyoming, Donovan rejoined Pitino after signing a one-year contract as a free agent with the Knicks. Donovan played in 44 games, averaging 2.4 points and 2.0 assists per game.

After his one-year stint in the NBA, Donovan worked with an investment banking firm on Wall Street for a year before joining Pitino at UK.

Donovan's work ethic and never-say-die attitude was instilled at a young age when he played at St. Agnes High School in Long Island, New York. Never having enough time at the gym, Donovan was known to prop open the door to the gym before leaving practice so he could return on his own to shoot. On at least one occasion, his worried mother, Joan, found his bed empty at 2 a.m. No worry, said his father, William, who was a standout guard at Boston College and graduated in 1962 as the third-leading scorer in school history. Check the gym, and you will find him. Eventually, the school custodian gave Billy a key to the gym, and later his father built a lighted court in the back yard. The results paid off as Donovan earned first-team All-Long Island honors his last two seasons and led St. Agnes to the Long Island Catholic High School Championship his senior year.

Donovan and his wife, Christine, have four children: William (Billy), Hasbrouck, Bryan and Connor.

Rashon Burno enters his second season as an assistant coach at Florida after helping the Gators earn an SEC Championship in his first season with the team. Burno joined the UF coaching staff on April 12, 2012, coming to the Gators from Manhattan College.

A former point guard at DePaul, Burno is deeply involved with UF's backcourt players, and UF had three guards earn All-SEC honors in 2012-13 (Kenny Boynton, Mike Rosario and Scottie Wilbekin). The Gators also posted an 11-1 record last season when Burno handled the opponent scout, including a 5-0 record during the SEC regular season slate and an NCAA Tournament victory over Northwestern State.

As an assistant coach at Manhattan College, Burno helped the Jaspers to a 21-13 record in 2011-12 – the team's first season under head coach Steve Masiello – and a postseason win in the Collegelinsider.com Tournament. That marked a massive 15-win turnaround for a team that went 6-25 in 2010-11, as the Jaspers also earned the 11th 20-win season in the program's 106-year history.

Burno, a three-year team captain at DePaul who played for the Blue Demons from 1998-2002, reunited with his former head coach, Pat Kennedy, as an assistant coach at Towson University in 2010-11. He began his coaching career as head coach at Marmion Academy in the Chicago suburbs from 2007-10, while also serving as an economics and physical education teacher.

During his playing career at DePaul, Burno started 58 games and helped the Blue Demons to two postseason appearances, advancing to the 2001 NCAA Tournament and the 2000 National Invitational Tournament. He finished his career ranked third in DePaul history with 201 steals and was named to the 2001 Conference USA All-Tournament Team.

As a high school player, Burno helped anchor back-to-back national championship runs in 1996 and 1997 at St. Anthony's High School in Jersey City under Hall of Fame head coach Bob Hurley.

Burno, 35, and his wife, Ellen, have three children: Micah, Rashon and Braxton.

MATT McCALL

Assistant Coach

3rd Season

Florida, 2004

Ocala, Fla.

Hired April 25, 2011

McCall Timeline

2011-present (3rd season)	Florida Assistant Coach
2008-11 (3 seasons)	Florida Atlantic Assistant Coach
2003-08 (5 seasons)	Florida Dir. of Basketball Operations 2006-08 (2 seasons)  Head Manager 2004-06 (2 seasons)  Student Manager 2003-04 (1 season)

Matt McCall enters his third season at Florida, having helped the Gators to the 2013 SEC Championship and a pair of Elite Eight appearances in the NCAA Tournament. McCall has made an immediate impact on recruiting at UF, where he has helped secure some of the state's top talent for the Orange and Blue.

McCall returned to the Gators after previously working with the UF men's basketball program while earning his undergraduate and graduate degrees at the University of Florida. His hiring on April 25, 2011, came after three seasons as an assistant coach at Florida Atlantic, where he served under Mike Jarvis.

Florida has a 55-19 record (.743) during his tenure, as the Gators went 29-8 in 2012-13 and posted a 26-11 record in 2011-12.

During the 2012-13 campaign, the Gators went 12-3 in McCall's scouts, which included dominant wins over Wisconsin and Florida State, a sweep of rival Georgia, UF's SEC-clinching win vs. Vanderbilt and the NCAA Round of 32 victory against Minnesota.

In each of the Ocala native's three seasons at FAU, the Owls improved dramatically. After a 6-26 record in 2009, FAU jumped to a 14-16 mark in 2009-10, but posted a 10-8 finish in the Sun Belt Conference. Finally, in 2010-11, the Owls posted the school's highest win total at the Division I level, finishing with a 21-11 mark, a Sun Belt championship and an appearance in the NIT, which marked just the second postseason berth in program history. FAU posted a mid-season eight-game win streak, which is a school-best since competing in Division I.

While with the Owls, McCall developed a reputation as an energetic recruiter, helping the Owls bring in several recruits, including Greg Gantt and Dennis Mavin from the Gainesville area and Raymond Taylor from Miami. Gantt was among conference and national scoring leaders and 3-point shooters as he helped the Owls make the jump from six to 14 wins in 2009-10. In addition to his recruiting prowess, McCall focused on the backcourt and in-game adjustments and also helped coordinate coaches' and players' camps throughout the year.

McCall originally joined the UF program as a student manager in the 2002-03 season and became the head manager the following year. After earning his degree in exercise and sports science in 2004, McCall continued with the program while earning his master's in secondary education in May 2006. McCall then accepted a position as Florida's director of basketball operations, which he held for two seasons from 2006-08, including UF's second national title run in the 2006-07 season.

In total, the Gators earned two national championships, three straight SEC Tournament titles and an SEC championship during McCall's first stint with the program. The Basketball Times has featured McCall as one of the nation's up-and-coming young coaches.

McCall is the son of Beth and Wayne McCall. Wayne, a prominent Ocala attorney, was a linebacker and three-year letterwinner on the Gator football team from 1965-67.

McCall, 32, married the former Allison Rios in May 2012.

John Pelphrey enters the third season of his second stint as a UF assistant coach and ninth year overall with the Gators. He has been on staff for three SEC Championship teams, the team's past two Elite Eight appearances and the 2000 national championship game appearance. Overall, the team is 179-84 (.681) with Pelphrey on the bench.

Pelphrey returned to the Florida staff after nine seasons as a head coach, five at South Alabama and four at Arkansas. He previously served as an assistant coach with the Gators for six seasons from 1996-2002 and helped the team to a 124-65 record with a then-school record four straight appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Pelphrey was instrumental in the Gators advancing to their first national championship game in 2000, following a Sweet Sixteen appearance in 1999. Since Pelphrey's return to Gainesville, the Gators are 55-19 (.743) with a pair of Elite Eight appearances. During the 2012-13 season, Pelphrey routinely drew the toughest scouts, and the Gators went 9-4 in those games, including dominant wins in Gainesville vs. Marquette, Missouri and Kentucky.

Following his initial stay at Florida, the Paintsville, Ky., native went on to serve as head coach at South Alabama for five seasons from 2002-2007 and Arkansas for four seasons from 2007-11, earning two trips to the NCAA Tournament. Pelphrey holds a career 149-122 record (.550) as head coach, including an 80-63 mark (.559) at South Alabama and a record of 69-59 (.539) at Arkansas.

In 2005-06, Pelphrey guided the South Alabama Jaguars to a Sun Belt championship and the conference tournament title. That led to a spot in the NCAA Tournament, where South Alabama fell to Florida on the Gators' way to their first national championship. Pelphrey earned Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year honors that season as his team led the league in scoring margin and 3-point defense and finished second in steals and scoring defense. South Alabama also improved its offensive output by 11 points over the previous season and finished 24-7.

In his final season at South Alabama, Pelphrey guided the Jaguars to a 20-12 mark (13-5 Sun Belt) and an appearance in the NIT.

In 2007, Pelphrey was tabbed to lead the Arkansas program and responded by leading the team to 23 wins in 2007-08, the best total by a first-year coach in the school's history. The Razorbacks also went to the SEC Tournament final and into the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Arkansas' win against No. 24 Indiana in the Big Dance was its first since 1999. That squad finished with a 23-12 record and reached as high as No. 18 in the national polls and posted a 6-2 record against ranked opponents. Those 23 wins were the most at Arkansas since 1999.

During his stint as the Razorbacks' head coach, Pelphrey coached four All-SEC performers (Sonny Weems, Michael Washington, Courtney Fortson, Rotnei Clarke) and two SEC All-Freshman honorees (Fortson, Marshawn Powell). He was also instrumental in recruiting eventual All-SEC performer B.J. Young.

Prior to Pelphrey's first stint as a Florida assistant, he spent two seasons on Donovan's staff at Marshall, where the Thundering Herd went 18-9 in 1995 and 17-11 in 1996 after going 9-18 the year before they arrived. Prior to that, Pelphrey spent a season as an assistant coach under Eddie Sutton at Oklahoma State in 1994, where the Cowboys went 24-10 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Pelphrey began his coaching career following one season playing professionally in France and Spain.

Pelphrey played two years at Kentucky under Sutton and three under Rick Pitino. Part of UK's class known as The Unforgettables, he was inducted into the Kentucky Hall of Fame in 2005 and named the Wildcats' Student-Athlete of the Year in 1989. His jersey number (No. 34) was retired in 1992. During his Kentucky career, he started 90 of 114 games and finished with a career scoring average of 11.0 points.

Named Mr. Basketball in the state of Kentucky as a senior at Paintsville High School in 1987, he scored 2,477 points and grabbed 1,316 rebounds in his career.

Pelphrey is married to the former Tracy Lyon and they have a son, Jaxson and a daughter, Grace.

DAVE WERNER
Athletic Trainer
10th Season/
20th Season at UF
Eastern Ky., 1991
Versailles, Ind.

Dave "Duke" Werner, Associate Director for Sports Health, enters his 10th year as the University of Florida men's basketball Athletic Trainer and his 20th year with Gator athletics, having spent the previous 10 years working with the UF baseball program. Werner is responsible for student-athletes' daily care, as well as injury prevention and rehabilitation in the basketball program. He joined the Florida training staff in June 1994.

Werner has made a tremendous impact on the Gator basketball program, and his planning is instrumental to helping the team make it through the grind of a season in good health. He has provided care to 11 future NBA draft picks, including six first-round selections. His alma mater, Eastern Kentucky, named him the 2013 Department of Exercise and Sport Sciences Alumnus of the Year.

During the 2012-13 season, five of Florida's regular eight-man rotation missed time due to various injuries, but Werner's care helped three of those players miss just one game. In addition, Werner's rehab work with Will Yeguete allowed the power forward to return from early-February arthroscopic knee surgery in time to participate in the postseason.

Only one game was missed in 2005-06 due to injury, despite significant injuries to both Lee Humphrey and Corey Brewer, due to Werner's relentless rehabilitation. In 2006-07 Werner played an instrumental role in rehabbing Al Horford who sprained his ankle on Dec. 10 and returned just over two weeks later in time for a showdown with Ohio State. In 2007-08, the Gators had the same starting lineup for 35 of 36 games.

The Versailles, Ind., native has earned two gold medals as an Athletic Trainer with USA Basketball, at the 2013 U19 FIBA World Championships and the 2012 U18 FIBA Americas.

Werner brought to Florida an extensive background in professional sports after spending time in both the National Football League and minor league baseball. Prior to joining the Gator staff, he held a six-month Assistant Athletic Trainer position for the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers during the 1993 NFL season and served a four-year stint in the Baltimore Orioles minor league organization from 1988-91. As the head Athletic Trainer for the Orioles entries in the Gulf Coast League, Appalachian League and New York-Penn League during the span, Werner's baseball background translates into top-notch, experienced treatment and care for the Gator players.

As the Florida baseball Athletic Trainer, Werner was responsible for the training duties over 40 future professional players. Werner also watched and helped 12 former Gators make their way through minor league baseball into Major League uniforms.

A 1991 graduate of Eastern Kentucky, he earned a degree in athletic training, as well as a teaching certificate for grades 7 through 12 in physical education and health. Werner continued his education at the University of Louisville, earning a master's degree in sports administration in 1993. While at Louisville, he served as a Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Louisville athletic program and worked specifically with the Cardinal basketball, swimming and soccer programs.

The 44-year-old Werner is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, the Southeast Athletic Trainers' Association and the Athletic Trainers' Association of Florida. A graduate of South Ripley High School, Werner enjoys fishing, hunting and NASCAR racing.

He is married to the former Gwen Strayhorn, and they reside in Gainesville. The couple are the parents of two daughters, Makayla Teal, born May 17, 2005 and Catherine Grace, born Dec. 9, 2006, and one son, Colton Herman, born June 24, 2010.

PRESTON
GREENE
Strength & Conditioning
Coordinator
3rd Season
Clemson, 1999
Peachtree City, Ga.

Preston Greene enters his third season as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator at Florida after being hired on August 23, 2011. In his two seasons at Florida, he has helped the team earn a 55-19 record, win the 2013 SEC championship, make two Elite Eight finishes in the NCAA Tournament, and he trained Bradley Beal, the third-overall 2012 NBA draft pick and 2013 NBA draft pick Erik Murphy.

Greene came to the Gators after a two-year stint from 2009-11 as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach with Clemson men's basketball. During his time at Clemson, the Tigers posted a combined record of 43-23 and advanced to a pair of NCAA Tournaments. Clemson earned its first NCAA Tournament win in 14 years in 2011 when the Tigers knocked off UAB in the first round.

Greene is one of several internationally certified Level 5 coaches through the Poliquin International Certification Program (PICP) and is a BioSignature Modulation Practitioner. He also contributed to the third edition of Basketball for Dummies by Digger Phelps, released in October 2011, updating and revising a chapter on strength and conditioning. In addition, Greene has hosted several private internships from coaches internationally, including Sweden, Germany, Dubai (UAE) and Australia.

During his first season at Florida, Greene's work with the Gators was featured on the cover of Bigger, Faster, Stronger magazine, including an in-depth Q&A with Greene.

Greene, a 1999 Clemson graduate, returned to his alma mater after multiple stops, including a one-year stint (2008-09) as the Strength and Conditioning Coach for Stanford under head coach Johnny Dawkins. He designed and implemented all aspects of the Cardinal players' strength and speed development programs and oversaw the team's nutritional needs. Stanford posted a 20-14 record and advanced to the College Basketball Invitational.

Prior to his lone season in Palo Alto, Greene served as the Director of Strength & Conditioning for Charlotte from 2003-08. He worked primarily with the men's basketball team under coach Bobby Lutz and also worked closely with the men's golf team.

2012-13 NOTES

2012-13 Notes & Facts

- The Florida Gators earned their sixth SEC championship in program history, including their fifth under head coach Billy Donovan. It marked the fourth outright league title, the third during the Donovan Era.
- UF also made a trip to the NCAA Elite Eight for the third straight season, the only team in the nation to do so. It marks the Gators' sixth trip to that round since 2000, most in the SEC during that time frame (UK, five; all others, five combined).
- Florida made its 13th NCAA Tournament appearance under head coach Billy Donovan, who holds a 31-11 record (.738) in the event. His 31 tournament victories are the most by any SEC coach, surpassing Adolph Rupp's 30.
- Florida posted a 62-50 victory over FGCU in the Sweet 16, led by 15 points from Mike Rosario while limiting the Eagles to tied for their lowest scoring total of the season. UF's defense forced 20 turnovers in the game.
- The Gators advanced to the NCAA regional semifinals with a 78-64 win over Minnesota, led by a 25-point effort by Mike Rosario.
- UF won its Round of 64 game over Northwestern State, 79-47. Kenny Boynton scored his 2,000th career point in the NCAA Tournament opener.
- The Gators have the most SEC championships over the past seven seasons (since 2007: UF, three; UK, two; UT and LSU, one).
- This year's junior and senior classes are the first players in Florida history to earn two outright SEC Championships. UF previously earned shared titles in 2000 and 2001.
- UF played suffocating defense this season, holding four opponents to 40 points or fewer, 14 to 50 points or less and 25 under 60 points. Florida owned the No. 2 scoring margin nationally (+17.0) and ranked third in scoring defense (54.4).
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Gators became the first team since Coppin State in 1991-92 to record each of its victories by a double-digit margin.

Billy Donovan was named SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in his career (2011) as he led the Gators to their second SEC crown in the past three seasons.

Florida won its sixth SEC championship in program history, its fifth under Billy Donovan.

SEC Awards

- Head coach Billy Donovan was named SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in his career (2011), earning the recognition both from the league's coaches and the AP.
- Patric Young earned recognition as SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year for the second straight season.
- All five Gators earned All-SEC honors. Florida placed a league-best four players on the coaches' All-SEC teams with Erik Murphy on the first team, joined by Kenny Boynton, Mike Rosario and Patric Young on the second team.
- Murphy also earned AP first-team All-SEC honors, while Boynton, Rosario, Wilbekin and Young were all AP honorable mention All-SEC.
- Scottie Wilbekin and Young both earned SEC All-Defensive Team recognition, the first Gators in the limited history of the award (1991-92; 2008-present).
- Michael Frazier II earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman team, pushing Florida's streak to six straight seasons with a member of the All-Freshman team. The last time UF did not have a player on the All-Freshman team was in 2007 when the Gators had a veteran-laden repeat national championship team.

- Erik Murphy and Kenny Boynton both earned placement on the SEC All-Tournament Team, while Mike Rosario was named to the NCAA South Regional All-Tournament Team.

Gator Defense Dominates

- UF had the nation's No. 2 scoring margin (+17.0) and ranked third in scoring defense (54.4) and ninth in field goal percentage defense (.382). Florida recorded its best field goal percentage defense since the 1957-58 season (.367).
- SEC foes averaged 53.6 points per game vs. Florida during the regular season, and the Gators had a scoring margin of +17.6 in league play.
- Four of Florida's opponents scored 40 or fewer, 13 scored 50 points or less and 24 were held under 60 points. In regular season SEC action, the Gators held 11 opponents to 52 or fewer and six opponents to 47 or fewer.

Boynton Reaches Historic Milestone

- Kenny Boynton became the second player in UF history to eclipse the 2,000-point mark for his career and concluded his four-year tenure with 2,033 points.

The Gators' five usual starters each earned All-SEC recognition, and Patric Young (4) was named SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

2012-13 HIGHLIGHTS

Gators Open Season on a Ship

Florida opened its season on Nov. 9 aboard the USS Bataan at Naval Station Mayport in Jacksonville. Though the Navy-Marine Corps Classic game against Georgetown was suspended at halftime due to condensation on the court, the event was memorable for all involved. Florida held a 27-23 lead when the game was called at halftime.

UF Director of Athletics Jeremy Foley:

"What happened on the court did not detract one iota from what happened here tonight; the atmosphere, being part of it, the buzz, the excitement. Every fan out here could not believe what they were a part of, and I know the players felt the same way."

Head Coach Billy Donovan:

"Our guys are not in life or death situations. But the thing that stands out to me is the sacrifice, the unselfishness, being a part of something bigger than themselves, putting their lives in the hands of someone else...I think those are messages you try to get across to your team. Obviously, not at this level. Our guys aren't going to war...The discipline, focus, attention to detail, they're all things we want to see our basketball team do."

Note: All quotes in this section from GatorZone.com or Florida Communications postgame quote sheets.

Murphy Perfect vs. Wisconsin

Erik Murphy turned in one of the most efficient nights of his career in the Gators' 74-56 win over Wisconsin on Nov. 14, two days after missing practice with migraines. The senior hit all 10 field goal attempts, including two 3-pointers, and both free throw attempts. He became just the fourth Gator and the 18th SEC player to go perfect from the field with 10 or more attempts.

Erik Murphy:

"I had some looks down low this game...and they fell. We were just hitting shots. I don't know what else to say, really. We were getting looks and making them. That's really it."

Will Yeguete:

"Murph was hot. Mike [Rosario] was hot. Everything was going good for us. They couldn't stop what we were doing, so we just kept doing it."

Gators Blitz 'Noles in Tallahassee

The Gators gave an early glimpse as to what their defense would be capable of in a 72-47 blowout of Florida State in Tallahassee, fresh off a 33-point win over Marquette a week earlier. Florida State finally reached 20 points on the scoreboard with 12:34 left in the game, and Florida didn't allow a single FSU player to score more than 10 points.

Mike Rosario:

"The preparation we do and the concentration we have at practice on the defensive end, I'm telling you, it's special. We know we can be a really, really, really good defensive team, so we try to focus on that aspect and stay locked in on what's at stake."

Kenny Boynton:

"Our goal was to just overmatch their intensity from the start."

Patric Young:

"We just have to keep working and listening to Coach Donovan. When we listen to Coach, we come out with great energy and passion."

2012-13 HIGHLIGHTS

Boynton Breaks 3-Point Record

Kenny Boynton had one of the best 3-point shooting nights in Florida history as he eclipsed Lee Humphrey's record for career 3-pointers. Boynton shot 8-for-10 from long range on his way to 28 points as the Gators played the program's first road game at an Ivy League school, posting a 79-58 win in New Haven, Conn.

Kenny Boynton:

"It kind of felt like a high school game. I knew it was a matter of time. I just think I played tonight – and even the last game – with a clear mind and not thinking about [recent struggles]. I waited my turn."

Head Coach Billy Donovan:

"He got some space for himself because he put [the ball] on the floor and got into the lane early in the game. He was able to shoot the ball in more of a rhythm when he knew he had enough space to get the ball off. He really, really shot it well and that certainly helped us -- and he didn't do it with a large number of shots."

Gators Get Donovan's 400th UF Win

Less than 48 hours after topping Texas A&M in College Station, the Gators gave their other new conference mates an equally unfriendly welcome, posting an 83-52 win over Missouri at the O'Connell Center on Jan. 19. It marked Billy Donovan's 400th win at UF, while Scottie Wilbekin also had a day to remember, posting his first career double-double with 13 points and 10 assists and forcing the Tigers' Phil Pressey into 10 turnovers.

Scottie Wilbekin:

"Every time we play against somebody who is a well-known team it is going to be a challenge, but we don't just play one-on-one defense, we play great defense and each player holds each other accountable."

Will Yeguete:

"It all starts with Scottie...and we go from there."

Mike Rosario:

"We're showing how committed we are on the defensive end, but also how connected we are. We love playing with each other and we're all playing for something. We want to win a conference championship."

Gators Claim SEC Title

Florida wrapped up the SEC championship at home with a 66-40 win over Vanderbilt on March 6, giving the Gators their second conference title in three years. The veterans of the 2012-13 team became the first group at UF to win two outright SEC titles (2000 and 2001 were shared).

Head Coach Billy Donovan:

"The people that go through a nine-week schedule with no time off and have to come to practice every day and prepare for every game – deal with the ups and downs, highs and lows, injuries and setbacks – it is an incredible accomplishment for our team considering the things that we have overcome. I was very happy that they could celebrate and share it together. To be able to do that on our home court for Kenny Boynton, Erik Murphy, and Mike Rosario, a lot of times on senior night it doesn't quite end like that – you go undefeated at home your senior year, you clinch a conference championship outright, and you walk off the court with an opportunity to cut down nets."

Kenny Boynton:

"We set a goal from day one...We've got to keep it going – even the next classes – they've got to keep it going... Whether things are going good or bad, keep fighting and try to provide energy on the defensive end. The wins will come."

Murphy Reaches 1,000 in Nashville

Erik Murphy exploded for a career-best 27 points in the Gators' 80-58 SEC Tournament quarterfinal win vs. LSU on March 15. Murphy came into the game with 973 career points and left no doubt that he would be the 49th Gator to join the 1,000-point club. The Gators were runners-up in the tournament, and Murphy was named to the All-Tournament Team.

Erik Murphy:

"Whether the ball goes in the basket or not is out of your control. Coach has actually been saying just give good reps this week. Every rep in a good rep, whether it's in game or practice. I try to do that. The shots fell today."

Patric Young:

"It was really difficult practice [leading up to the SEC Tournament], but I enjoyed every minute of it. Coach really challenged us because he wants us to be great and we challenged each other. We went out there, I can say that we honestly left everything we had in those practices leading up to the tournament here, and it really did help prepare us and to really get us focused on finishing games and just going out and doing what it takes to win."

Boynton Hits 2,000 in NCAA Opener

Defense was the story as the Gators cruised through their opening NCAA Tournament game in Austin, Texas, with a 79-47 defeat of Northwestern State on March 22. NSU hung around as UF built a 40-32 halftime lead, but the Gators clamped down to allow only 15 second-half points. The game held historical importance for the UF program, as well, as Kenny Boynton became the second Gator to reach the 2,000-point career scoring milestone.

Kenny Boynton:

"In the first half, we had slip-ups and guys were cutting back door and getting some wide-open layups. In the second half, we came together as a team and started helping each other out."

Will Yeguete:

"We were just more focused. We made a commitment to each other to try and get the job done, whatever it takes. And you know what? Defending is what it took."

Gators Elite Once Again

Florida became the only team in the country to advance to the Elite Eight in each of the past three seasons, earning a 62-50 win over Florida Gulf Coast in the Sweet 16 round at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

Patric Young:

"You can't control if the ball goes in the basket, but you can control your effort on the defensive end."

Casey Prather:

"We really didn't get caught up into how many people were here and who they were rooting for. We had to win the game."

Michael Frazier II:

"A team like that, you just can't let breathe."

Florida 64, Georgia 47

January 23, 2013 • Stegeman Coliseum • Athens, Georgia

Despite Georgia jumping out to an 11-2 lead to start the game - and becoming only the second team to lead the Gators at the half this season - Florida dominated the second half, outscoring the Bulldogs 40-20 to take the 64-47 win. While proving to be one of the nation's top defensive players, junior guard Scottie Wilbekin showed he can be productive on offense as well, netting 13 of the Gators' first 19 points of the game. Wilbekin led the team in scoring for the first time in his career, tying his career high of 17 points. Also in double figures were senior guard Kenny Boynton (14), who hit his 300th 3-pointer as a Gator, and senior forward Erik Murphy (13), who scored all of his points in the second half. Junior forward Will Yeguete led the team with 11 rebounds and tied his career high of four steals.

2012-13 BOXSCORES

Florida 78, Minnesota 64

March 24, 2013 • Erwin Center • Austin, Texas

Florida punched their ticket to their third straight Sweet Sixteen appearance with a 14-point win over No. 11 seed Minnesota in only the second meeting between the two schools. Florida's 48 points at the half is the most first-half points ever by a Gator team in the NCAA Tournament. UF had three players score in double figures, led by senior guard Mike Rosario with 25 points on 8-12 shooting and 6-9 from 3-point range. It is his career high while donning the orange and blue and the most points scored by a Gator in the tournament since Vernon Macklin notched 25 versus Butler on March 26, 2011. Also scoring in double digits were senior forward Erik Murphy (15) and junior guard Scottie Wilbekin (12). Florida, who has been struggling from the free-throw line at times this year, was put at the charity stripe a season-high 36 times by the Gophers. Florida rose to the occasion, hitting 26 shots for 72.2 percent, with Wilbekin hitting 7-of-10.

Florida 62, Florida Gulf Coast, 50

March 29, 2013 • Cowboys Stadium • Arlington, Texas

The Gators overcame an 11-point deficit with a 16-0 run and went on to defeat No. 15 seed Florida Gulf Coast and advance to their third straight Elite Eight. The run, which started with 5:10 remaining in the first half, was sparked by two 3-pointers from Michael Frazier II. Leading UF in scoring for the 16th time this season was Mike Rosario with 15 points. Also scoring in double figures were Scottie Wilbekin (13) and Casey Prather (11). Will Yeguete had one of his best defensive performances and combined with Prather and Frazier to give Florida 19 points off the bench. Though the Gators struggled at times to get their shots to fall, their tenacity and offensive rebounding enabled them to tally 16 second-chance points. The Gators, who have held opponents to an average of 16.4 points below their average ppg so far this season, have held their NCAA Tournament opponents to 20.8 points below their scoring average. The 12-point victory also extended the Gators' feat of capturing all 29 of their wins by double digits.

March 18, 1999 • America West Arena, Phoenix, Ariz. • Regional Semifinals

Gonzaga edged the Gators to advance into the West Region final against No. 1 seed Connecticut. The Bulldogs' Casey Calvary provided the game-winning point, leaping over UF's Brent Wright and tipping in a missed shot with 4.4 seconds left. The tight contest featured 14 ties or lead changes in the second half. Florida had one last chance, but Eddie Shannon's desperation three-pointer at the buzzer was long. The Gators managed to keep the game close despite shooting 25 percent from behind the arc (6-of-24). In the first half, Gonzaga built its biggest advantage, 26-13, before Florida stormed back to tie it at 27 with 3:11 left before intermission. The Gators finished the season with the fourth best win total (22) in school history and were just the sixth UF Team to win 20 games.

March 19, 2000 • LJV Coliseum, Winston-Salem, N.C. • Second Round

Florida went on a 19-6 run and held Illinois without a field goal in the final 6:50 of the first half to take control of the game. The Gators edged UI by six points at the half and maintained the lead through the entire second half. The win marks the first time in UF history that the Gators have advanced to the Sweet Sixteen in back-to-back seasons. UF had four players in double figures led by Mike Miller's 19 points. Florida defeated former Gator head coach Lon Kruger, who coached at UF from 1990-96. Nelson's 16 points was the best offensive performance for a Gator off of the bench in the NCAA Tournament since Dwayne Davis scored 21 points against Michigan in 1988.

March 18, 2010 • Ford Center, Oklahoma City, Okla. • First Round

Freshman Kenny Boynton scored 27 points and helped Florida rally from a 13-point second-half deficit, but the Gators fell 99-92 to BYU in double overtime in the first round of the NCAA tournament in Oklahoma City. Boynton rallied the 10th-seeded Gators out of a 13-point hole in the second half and hit a 3-pointer from the right wing to put Florida ahead 71-68 with 2:36 left in regulation -- their first lead of the second half. Junior Chandler Parsons followed with a 3 of his own, but Jackson Emery was able to answer for BYU as the Cougars closed a four-point deficit down the stretch. Parsons finished with 20 points and 10 rebounds for Florida, redshirt junior Vernon Macklin scored 16 and sophomore Erving Walker added 12 points.

Erving Walker scored 21 points and made several clutch shots down the stretch, none bigger than a three-pointer with 1:14 remaining, as Florida beat UCLA 73-65 in the NCAA tournament Saturday. The second-seeded Gators (28-7) needed every bit of it to eliminate the No. 7 seed Bruins (23-11) from the NCAA tournament for the third time in the last six years. *In 2011, the NCAA Tournament field expanded to 68 and the Round of 32 became known as the third round.

NCAA TOURNAMENT BOXSCORES

Florida 83, BYU 74 (OT)

March 24, 2011 - New Orleans Arena, New Orleans, La. - Regional Semifinals

Alex Tyus scored 19 points and grabbed a career-high 17 rebounds – matching Horford's school record for a postseason game – in perhaps the best game of his career. He also became just the 11th player since 2000 to record at least 19 points and 17 rebounds in an NCAA Tournament game, a list that features former Oklahoma star Blake Griffin and North Carolina's Sean May. Florida gained the victory in the Teams' NCAA Tournament rematch thanks in part to limiting Jimmer Fredette to 3-15 from three-point range. The Cougars were 0-4 from long range in the overtime period while UF shot 5-7 from the field and 2-3 from behind the arc.

Florida 71, Virginia 45

March 16, 2012 - CenturyLink Center, Omaha, Neb. - Second Round

Casey Prather scored a career-high 14 points on a rare day Florida's 3-point shooters went cold, and the Gators had no trouble beating the Cavaliers (22-10), 71-45, Friday in the NCAA West Regional. Prather, playing the game of his collegiate life, popped off the bench to score a career-high 14 points on 6-for-7 shooting and tally four rebounds. Freshman guard Bradley Beal, who ducked down and acquiesced to Prather on that alley-oop play, scored 14 points and grabbed 11 rebounds. Sophomore center Patric Young was a perfect 6-for-6 from the floor, finishing with 13 points and seven rebounds. Florida (24-10) out rebounded Virginia, 39-23.

Butler 74, Florida 71 (OT)

March 26, 2011 - New Orleans Arena, New Orleans, La. - Regional Final

Florida's quest to reach its fifth Final Four in school history ended with a 74-71 overtime loss to Butler in the Elite Eight. A second-half comeback by a scrappy Butler team sent the Gators home. Florida led by as many as 11 in the second half, taking a 51-40 lead on a jumper by Alex Tyus with 9:26 remaining. The Bulldogs then started a 17-6 run at that point to tie the game at 57 on Shelvin Mack's lay-up with 3:03 left in regulation. Despite Butler's comeback, the Gators had a chance to win in regulation. With the score tied 60-all, Florida had possession for the final 30 seconds but Erving Walker's three-pointer bounced out.

Draft Highlights

Florida has had 11 players drafted since 2007 and at least one player picked in eight of the last 10 years. UF has had eight first round picks since 2000 and have had multiple players selected three times during that time (2000, 2007 and 2011) after seeing it happen just once before in school history (1984).

Billy Donovan's playing background was as a point guard, but Erik Murphy became the 11th Gator big man (6-foot-9 or taller) to be drafted since 2003. Adding in Udonis Haslem, who entered the league as a free agent, those big men have gone on to five All-Star selections, two All-NBA teams, two NBA All-Defensive Teams, three NBA All-Rookie teams and five NBA championships.

BACK-TO-BACK NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Billy Donovan

"Winning a national championship with no expectations – well maybe people can say, 'They got lucky, they got hot at the right time.' Then to win one with all of the expectations on you – I think they have to go down, in the word 'team,' as one of the greatest teams of all-time."

Al Horford

"We enjoyed the entire process, not just the end result. We enjoyed being around each other, playing ball with each other, we were a family, and I wouldn't trade this experience for anything in the world."

Joakim Noah

"People can say what they want, but in the end, they do have to say, 'Yeah, they did win back-to-back titles.'"

Lee Humphrey

"Just the opportunity to play with this group made the game of basketball so enjoyable. We played the game the right way, we trusted and loved each other like family, and we accomplished things none of us ever dreamed of because of it."

Corey Brewer

"We were the ultimate team. We were unselfish, we passed the ball, everyone made plays and everyone had a part in winning."

Two-Time National Champions

With the expectations of a nation awaiting, the University of Florida took its place in history with its second consecutive national title in 2007. A year earlier, the Gators had taken the nation by storm with no expectations at all. A year later, they took everyone's best shot and were still the last team standing at the Georgia Dome. When it was all said and done, the Gators became the first team in 15 years to repeat and joined the great teams in college basketball history in the process. Champions Forever.

The "History Boys"

After winning a second straight national title, Grant Wahl of Sports Illustrated dubbed these Gators as, "the History Boys, a once in a generation collective that achieved one of the rarest feats in modern American team sports." It was as much a tribute to the accomplishment as the path they paved to get there. The Gators were the epitome of unselfish. Its entire starting five averaged within 3.0 points of one another, but just as importantly, within 2.4 shots per game of one another, with none getting as many as 10.0 per game. The Gators posted 68 wins over the two years, tied for the fifth-highest two-year total in NCAA history. And in its two national titles, the Gators were dominant, outscoring opponents by 15.9 points per game over two years. A once in a generation collective indeed.

18 In A Row

In 2006 and 2007 the University of Florida was at its best when the stakes were the highest – in postseason. During that time the Gators pieced together 18 consecutive postseason wins, the longest stretch since the great championship UCLA teams of John Wooden in the 1960s and '70s won 28 in a row (under a four-game NCAA Tournament format). Florida went 12-0 in the NCAA Tournament, winning eight of 12 by double-digits, and went 6-0 in the SEC Tournament with a pair of titles (to reach three in a row overall) in that time.

Donovan Joins Elite Company

Billy Donovan became just the 12th coach to win multiple NCAA titles and one of only four active coaches to do so (Mike Krzyzewski 4, Jim Calhoun 3, Roy Williams 2). Furthermore, at 41 years of age in 2007, he became the third-youngest coach all-time to win multiple NCAA titles (Bobby Knight, Indiana – 35, 40; Phil Woolpert, San Francisco – 39, 40). He joined legendary Kentucky coach Adolph Rupp as the only coach in SEC history to boast multiple national titles.

STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER

Florida's Stephen C. O'Connell Center has a reputation around the country — enthusiastic and friendly if you're a Gator...noisy, deafening and menacing if you're the opposition. Florida's student section, dubbed the "Rowdy Reptiles," has made the O'Connell Center one of the toughest places to play in the nation. In recent years, ESPN The Magazine dubbed it the "Scariest Place to Play in the Country" in its college basketball preseason issue. ESPN Gameday raved about its atmosphere, placing it with the great venues in sports.

In recent years, a trip to the O'Connell Center hasn't meant a pleasant and fun-filled stay in sunny Florida for visiting clubs. UF is 220-31 (.876) in the O'Connell Center during the last 15 seasons. Florida's 125 home wins the last eight seasons rank in the top 10 nationally and No. 1 in the Southeastern Conference. Billy Donovan is 240-43 (.848) in the building during his 17 years in Gainesville and UF is 135-11 against nonconference opponents in the O'Dome, including a 40-game non-conference winning streak that lasted from 1998-2003. From March 1, 2006 to Nov. 20, 2007 the Gators rolled off a school-record 24 consecutive home wins, one of seven streaks of 15+ consecutive home wins in the Donovan era. Under Donovan, UF has put together winning streaks of 24, 20, 19 (twice), 17, 15 (twice; once active), 13, 12 and 11 in the O'Connell Center.

Built at a cost of $14 million, the O'Connell Center — named for former UF President Stephen C. O'Connell (1967-73) — has become the show-place for college basketball in the state of Florida. In 2007-08 Florida shattered its attendance record as 226,815 fans flocked through the gates, while UF averaged a school-record 11,826 fans per game in 2006-07 and had over 10,500 fans at every game for the first time ever. A school-record 12,621 fans turned out to see the Gators defeat Ohio State on Dec. 23, 2006 in what would be a preview of the national title game.

The O'Connell Center had a $10 million facelift in the summer of 1998 to replace the teflon coated roof with a permanent structure. The project also upgraded the sound and lighting system to give the Gators a state-of-the-art capability for pregame and in-game activities. Another $2.5 million project upgraded concessions, restrooms and entrances in the summer of 1999, while a pair of Daktronics Scoreboards were installed in the fall of 1999. Daktronics then installed four 12' x 16' video boards (10 mm resolution) in the O'Connell Center in time for the 2006-07 basketball season, at a cost of $2.5 million.

UF and the University Athletic Association are currently raising funds for a $50 million update and renovation to the O'Connell Center in the near future.

While the O'Connell Center has a reputation as an imposing basketball arena for visiting opponents with its 11,548 seats, the Center is also part of a centrally-located athletic complex. The facilities surrounding the O'Dome include Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field, McKethan Stadium at Perry Field, Percy Beard Track at James G. Pressly Stadium, the Scott Linder Stadium and Perry Indoor Facility at Ring Tennis Complex and the University Golf Course with the Bostick Clubhouse.

Inside the O'Connell Center is the main arena, an indoor track and field facility, one of the fastest swimming pools in the world, a gymnastics area, dance studio, martial arts room, a basketball practice court and strength and conditioning facilities.

The Gator basketball game day locker room features a video area with seating for the entire team, up-to-date technology for breaking down film, a locker room featuring private dressing areas for each player and a training room complete with the latest equipment.

The O'Connell Center also is the site of more than just Gator basketball games. It brings people together for many other sporting, entertainment, academic and business activities. Over the years, the facility has housed concerts, Disney shows, conventions, business exhibits, conferences, banquets, university and high school commencements, SEC and NCAA championship events and has served as a first, second, and third round site for the National Invitation Tournament in 2008 and 2009, as a first and second round site in 1986 and as a first round NIT site in 1992 and 1998.

Stephen C. O'Connell

Stephen C. O'Connell lived a life of service. The University of Florida's sixth president, who served from 1967 to 1973, was also a student body president, a World War II veteran and chief justice of the Florida Supreme Court.

Born in West Palm Beach on Jan. 22, 1916, O'Connell entered UF as a freshman in 1934. He earned a business degree and later graduated from the law school. He was elected student body president in 1938, was the president of Florida Blue Key and also served as president of his Alpha Tau Omega fraternity during his senior year. O'Connell was also captain of the boxing team. He went undefeated in 1938, winning the middleweight division Southeastern Conference Championship.

O'Connell served in Australia during World War II and ended his military career as a major. After the war, O'Connell returned to Florida and practiced law, eventually becoming chief counsel for the Florida State Road Department.

In 1955, he was appointed to the state Supreme Court and 12 years later he was elected its chief justice. He spent just four months as the head of the court before being announced in September of 1967 as the UF president. He took office in October of that year and was a calming force during a tumultuous era of racial tension and anti-war movements.

During his six-year tenure, he focused on increasing enrollment and racial diversity, while also reorganizing the Alumni Association. He also created an Office of Development staffed by professional fundraisers while watching academic standards and achievements grow.

O'Connell retired as president in 1973 and returned to practice law in Tallahassee. He lived there until April of 2001 when he lost his battle with lung cancer. His memory will forever live on campus through the Stephen C. O'Connell Center, which was dedicated to him in 1980.

Game Day Atmosphere

The O'Connell Center is not just energetic on the court, but also on the sidelines and in the stands. The Rowdy Reptiles line the entire length of the court opposite the team bench, while the Dazzlers, Cheerleaders and Albert pump up and entertain the crowd from tipoff to the final buzzer.

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

DR. J. BERNARD MACHEN

University of Florida President
Vanderbilt, 1968
Greenwood, Mississippi

Bernie Machen has served as the president of the University of Florida since January of 2004. During that time, he has strengthened the university's three core missions of teaching, research and service – while developing a fourth mission of economic development.

Thanks to his leadership, the university has improved its standing in the national higher education rankings and increased its positive influence on Florida's economy and quality of life. Today, despite the loss of about third of its state allocation to annual budget cuts, UF is more comprehensive and dynamic than at any time in its 159-year history.

Milestones of President Machen's tenure include:

- Growth in annual research funding from $470 million in 2003-04 to $644 million in the current fiscal year.
- More than 2.8 million square feet in new construction on campus, including nearly 600,000 square feet of new research space.
- Completion of UF's $1.7 billion capital campaign.
- The 40-acre public private partnership known as Innovation Square and the Innovation Hub technology incubator.
- UF's first major medical research facility outside Gainesville, the UF Research and Academic Center at Lake Nona in Orlando.
- The Machen Florida Opportunity Scholars program, enabling the enrollment of more than 2,600 low-income students who are the first in their families to attend college.
- The spring-summer Innovation Academy for entrepreneurially-minded undergraduates.

Dr. Machen also reorganized the UF Health Science Center, strengthening the ties between UF and the Shands family of hospitals. He emphasized clinical research through the Clinical and Translational Science Institute, and the Shands Cancer Hospital was completed under his watch.

Elsewhere at the university, Dr. Machen created the Bob Graham Center for Public Service and the Claude D. Pepper Older Americans Independence Center. His administration has been marked by a strong commitment to environmental causes, including a university-wide sustainability institute that is considered a model in public higher education. The UF Water Institute was created during his time at UF, and a UF nature preserve was designated as one of the first National Science Foundation-sponsored National Ecological Observatory Network sites.

Prior to his arrival at UF, Dr. Machen served for six years as president of the University of Utah, where he is credited with expanding its health sciences program, stabilizing the university's finances and bolstering diversity.

JEREMY N. FOLEY

Director of Athletics
Hobart, 1974
New London, N.H.

Foley Timeline

1976-present	Florida
March 19, 1992 - present	Director of Athletics
Jan. 1987 - March 1992	Sr. Associate Athletics Director
Sept. 1986 - Jan. 1987	Interim Athletics Director
June 1981 - Sept. 1986	Assoc. Athletics Director for Business Affairs

March 1979 - May 1980	Director of Ticket and Game Operations
Feb. 1977 - March 1979	Ticket Manager
Aug. 1976 - Feb. 1977	Intern

Jeremy N. Foley, who has handled virtually every aspect of the University of Florida's $100.5 million athletic program during his athletic administrative career – which began with an internship in the Gator Ticket Office in 1976 – was named UF's Director of Athletics in March of 1992. He is the third-longest tenured athletic director among Bowl Championship Series Conference schools.

Foley, 60, brings a passionate top-to-bottom team approach to the top athletic post at the University of Florida. Foley's philosophy involves the continued building of a comprehensive athletic program, with the goal of having the overall UF program ranked as the top athletic program in the nation.

As chief financial officer for the University Athletic Association (UAA), Foley has spearheaded a number of capital improvement projects in the athletic department. The project list includes two major expansions of the football stadium, a multipurpose athletic field house, new facilities for gymnastics, tennis, track & field, soccer, baseball, golf, swimming and diving, softball and lacrosse. Foley also played a role in the academic advising center on the University of Florida campus, which serves UF students and Gator student-athletes and assisted in funding the renovation of the Stephen C. O'Connell Center. The James W. "Bill" Heavener Football Complex, a project that enhanced the football experience for Gator student-athletes, staff and visitors, was completed in July of 2008 and received platinum certification from the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Green Building Rating System, the highest ranking available. It was the first building in Florida and the first athletic facility in the nation to achieve platinum status.

Foley's commitment to the overall athletic program includes a plan of increased opportunities for women, as three women's sports have been added under his tenure – soccer, softball and lacrosse.

Also, in an era when the NCAA estimates 90 percent of Division I schools are losing money on intercollegiate athletics, the University of Florida Athletic Association has contributed more than $73.9 million in the last 23 years to help fund University of Florida academic endeavors.

Florida has been equally successful on the field of play and in the classroom during Foley's administrative tenure. The Florida athletic program is the only one to rank among the nation's top 10 for 30-straight years (1983-84 – 2012-13) and among the top five 17 times in the last 24 years, according to national all-sport rankings.

UF became the first program in collegiate history to own both the men's basketball and football national titles in the same calendar year, after capturing crowns in 2006. The men's basketball team then became the first repeat champions in their sport in 15 years after cutting the nets down again in 2007.

Foley is the only athletic director in Division I history to supervise a program that has won multiple national titles in football (1996, 2006, 2008) and men's basketball (2006, 2007). Overall, 21 Gator teams have been crowned national champions under his watch. Florida has won a league-best 13 national championships since 2006, including at least one national championship in each of the last four years.

The 2012-13 athletics year was yet another highly successful year for the Gators with national titles in women's gymnastics and men's outdoor track and field, along with a record-tying nine conference titles, including eight in the SEC. Overall, 12 programs finished in the top 10 and Florida finished second in the national all-sports rankings, matching the best finish in school history (UF finished tied for second in 1997-98, 2009-10 and 2011-12). Florida has finished in the top three of those rankings in four of the past five years. Florida also won the men's Capital One Cup two years in a row (2010-11, 2011-12), while the women's program finished among the top 10 both years.

Florida's eight SEC titles in 2012-13 matched the league record. UF has now won a total of 213 SEC titles since the league began in 1932, with 114 of those SEC titles coming under Foley's watch. In addition, the lacrosse team won the American Lacrosse Conference regular season title for the third-consecutive year. Florida swept the Halifax Media Group Southeastern Conference All-Sports Titles for the 13th time and the fifth consecutive year. The Gators had 10 athletes named the conference performer of the year and four freshmen earned SEC Freshman of the Year honors.

The Gator athletic coaching family, which Foley had a large part in assembling, has collected 100 conference Coach of the Year awards during the last 23 years and have captured 21 national titles. In 2012-13, Florida had an amazing 10 coaches earn conference Coach of the Year honors.

UF's commitment in the classroom is equally impressive. Under Foley, UF student-athletes have been honored 95 times as Academic All-Americans.

Gator student athletes, coaches and administrators have also been a fixture in the community, taking part in a variety of community-related endeavors. Florida student athletes remained involved in the community and beyond. A total of 324 UF student athletes participated in 2,864 hours of community service in 2012-13, partnering with 24 schools, four civic organizations and 27 non-profit organizations. Florida was honored with a White House commendation for volunteerism in 1994.

Foley was named the Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal National Athletic Director of the Year in June of 2006 and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame awarded him the 2007 John L. Toner Award. The Toner Award is designed to honor and acknowledge outstanding athletics directors who have demonstrated superior administrative abilities, especially in the area of college football.

Foley also served on the NCAA Division I Management Council from 1997-2002. Foley was named Honorary Alumnus of the University of Florida by the Florida Alumni Association Board of Directors in October of 2000.

Born in Washington, D.C., but calling New London, N.H., home, Foley received his undergraduate degree in 1974 from Hobart College in Geneva, N.Y., where he also coached and scouted for the tradition-rich lacrosse program following graduation. He went on to earn his Master's Degree in Sports Administration from Ohio University in 1976 and then joined the Gator athletic program as an intern in the ticket office. In 1995, the Ohio Graduate School presented Foley with the school's Distinguished Alumni Award. The Ohio University Alumni Association also awarded Foley with the Medal of Merit in September of 2008.

In 2008, the Hobart Alumni Association presented Foley with the Medal of Excellence, their highest honor, for outstanding achievements as Athletic Director at the University of Florida, which has brought honor and distinction to his alma mater.

The Holderness School, a small, private, college preparation school in Plymouth, New Hampshire presented Foley, class of 1970, with their 2007 Distinguished Alumni Award in November of 2007.

An avid sports and Boston Red Sox fan, Foley ran the Boston Marathon in a 3:39.51 clip in April of 1995 and completed the course in 3:28.10 in 1998. A dog lover and proud owner of one Labrador retriever, he is involved with the Humane Society and local charities.

Gator IMG Sports Network

The Gator IMG Sports Network has the largest college basketball sports network in the Sunshine State, with almost 35 stations from the Panhandle to the Florida Keys broadcasting the complete University of Florida basketball schedule.

Mick Hubert, who came to Florida in 1989, handles play-by-play duties, while Mark Wise provides color commentary for most broadcasts.

Gator basketball broadcasts blanket the state, with many of the same stations also carrying Gator Hotline with Billy Donovan live from KC Crave in Gainesville once a month in January, February and March during the basketball season - the most extensive network sports coverage offered in Florida.

Sun Sports and IMG College, with offices in Orlando and Gainesville, are the rights-holders of the Gator IMG Sports Network.

All Gator IMG Sports Network basketball broadcasts can be heard live via GatorVision, the official video and audio streaming site of the Florida Gators.

Prospective Student-Athlete

You are a "prospective student-athlete" when you start ninth-grade classes. Before the ninth grade, you become a prospective student-athlete if a college gives you (or your relatives or friends) any financial aid or other benefits that the college does not provide to prospective students generally.

You become a "recruited prospective student-athlete" at a particular college if any coach or representative of the college's athletics interest (booster or representative) approaches you (or any member of your family) about enrolling and participating in athletics at that college. Activities by coaches or boosters that cause you to become a recruited prospective student-athlete are:

- providing you with an official visit;
- visiting you or any other member of your family anywhere other than the college campus;
- placing more than one telephone call to you or any other member of your family; or
- signing a National Letter of Intent or a University of Florida written offer of athletically related financial aid.

Academics and Amateurism

It is extremely important for you to give maximum academic effort as you conclude your high school attendance while maintaining your amateur status before entering college. To practice or play during your freshman year, you must meet the provisions of NCAA Bylaw 14.3, which include: (a) graduating from high school, (b) achieving a minimum cumulative grade point average in 16 core courses and achieving a corresponding minimum combined score on the SAT, or a minimum sum total score on the ACT as determined by the NCAA Eligibility Center. You must also meet the provisions of Bylaw 12.3, which include verification that you have retained your amateur status prior to entering college. The NCAA Eligibility Center must certify the initial-eligibility and amateur status of all incoming freshman student-athletes. Therefore, you must register with the Eligibility Center as soon as possible. For online web access contact: www.eligibilitycenter.org.

Inducements

All institutional staff members and boosters are prohibited from offering or providing any financial aid or other benefits to you or your relatives or friends other than those expressly permitted by NCAA regulations. Specifically prohibited inducements include:

- providing cash or loans in any amount, or
- signing or co-signing for a loan
- providing gifts of any kind, including clothing or equipment
- providing special discounts for goods or services
- providing free or reduced housing/rent

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Requests for credentials will be taken online and reviewed by Florida basketball SID Denver Parler. To access the credential request form, please visit www.sportssystem.com/floridahoops. Once you have submitted your credential request, you will receive an automated email from the Communications Department acknowledging your request was received and is being reviewed. Once a decision is made on your request, you will receive an email with further information.

CREDENTIAL PICK-UP: Depending on the situation, credentials will be mailed or held at the Press Will Call window at Gate One of the O'Connell Center, which opens for pick-up 90 minutes prior to each game. If enough advance notice is given, credentials can be mailed or overnighted at the expense of the media organization making the request.

INTERNET CREDENTIALS: Only official websites of each participating institution, along with networks holding contractual broadcast rights to a game and websites affiliated with a national publication or news outlet, will be issued credentials.

PLAYER/STAFF INTERVIEWS: All interview requests for the players or coaching staff should be coordinated through Denver Parler at least 24 hours in advance. Interviews will be arranged before or after practice according to class and meeting schedules during the preseason and once the season begins, players will typically be available at least once a week plus game days. Please contact Parler for player availability during the season. The Communications Office will not give out home or cell phone numbers for any players, and players may not be contacted directly by phone, text, email or social media. Members of the media are not permitted in team areas. Team locker room, training room and strength complex are considered private work areas. These areas, as well as players' housing (on-campus and off-campus), are off-limits to media representatives.

PRESS CONFERENCES: Head Coach Billy Donovan will conduct a weekly press conference at 11:15 a.m. each Monday during SEC season beginning Jan. 6 at the UF Women's Club, adjacent to the Florida Basketball Practice Facility. Gator players will be brought in afterwards when class schedules permit.

PRACTICE COVERAGE: University of Florida men's basketball practices are closed to the media, as is the game day shoot around both at home and on the road.

WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE: The Southeastern Conference office will conduct a weekly teleconference beginning with the start of conference play and continuing through the postseason teleconference on the Monday following the SEC Tournament. (Dates subject to change.)

VIDEO: Media outlets are limited to a total of three minutes of video per day to be posted on their websites or shown on a news broadcast. This applies to outlets that are primarily websites, as well as to TV station, newspaper or magazine websites.

MEDIA ROOM/INTERVIEW AREA: Located in the Martial Arts room near the Gate Four entrance/exit of the O'Connell Center, the media room includes work space, necessary electrical outlets, a television and wireless internet. A meal, snacks and soft drinks are also available in the media room. Post-game coaches and player press conferences are also conducted in this area.

FLORIDA LOCKER ROOM: The Gator locker room is closed to the media with the exception of the SEC and NCAA Tournaments. Coach Donovan and selected players will be available to the media following games in the media room/interview area. At Florida home games, players are available outside the locker room in the Gate 3 corner of the O'Connell Center while Coach Donovan will conduct a post-game press conference in the Martial Arts/Media Room.

VISITOR LOCKER ROOM: Interview policies and procedures will be determined by visiting Sports Information Directors and coaches. Those procedures will be announced on game days.

RADIO: ISDN and telephone lines are provided for visiting broadcasts. Broadcast coordinators/producers are encouraged to contact Denver Parler prior to arrival in Gainesville to make sure all broadcast needs are met. All other telephone requests must be made through Tony DeLuca at AT&T (ad1186@att.com). When ordering lines, contact Parler to assure proper placement along press row.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Restricted to two baseline locations closest to the team benches.

TELEPHONES: We strongly encourage you to make sure that your phone needs are met before game day. Telephone orders should be placed directly with Tony DeLuca at AT&T (ad1186@att.com). If you anticipate deadline problems, we recommend you order your own line to ensure meeting deadlines. The Communications Office will not be able to help you with a phone line/equipment on the day of a game.

GENERAL GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES: Game program/scorecards, game notes, play-by-play, complete halftime and final statistics, coaches quote sheets and post-game notes are all regular services on game days.

SEATING: Press seating is assigned, and all media members are asked to utilize their assigned seat. A limited number of front-row courtside press seats are available and will be provided to national publications, major daily newspapers and/or those who cover Florida basketball regularly. Additional seating will be at the front row table in the baseline bleachers near Gate 2 and in the second row courtside behind the press table.

PARKING: A limited number of parking spaces exist and can be requested online with your credential application. Please note that if you are picking up your credentials at Press Will Call, we will be unable to provide a parking pass as you will have to park before visiting Press Will Call. Free parking is available in the parking deck next to the O'Connell Center and is generally still available 75-90 minutes before the game. Preference will be given to the state's major daily newspapers, radio and television stations that cover the Gators on a regular basis. All other available parking passes will be distributed on a game-by-game basis.
