billy donovan

“What UK’s basketball bluebloods need to understand is this: Billy Donovan doesn’t need to go to Kentucky if he wants to coach a powerhouse program. He’s built one at Florida.”

— Mike Bianchi of the Orlando Sentinel

“Billy Donovan, a former altar boy, has always had faith. But in a season where the faith of many would have been tested, Donovan has grown more firm with each challenge...Donovan talks of God frequently. He talks about being blessed. He speaks of having faith. He talks about all of those things with his players. He believes that faith has helped this team overcome one injury after another. He believes it helped hold the team together when its SEC record was 1-3 and postseason outlook looked bleak.”

— Mic Huber of the Sarasota Herald

“Instead of following the pattern we’d always followed, hire a coach with a proven track record, we wanted to find an up-and-comer. In my 23 years at Florida, everybody told me it’d never be a basketball school. I’d heard that statement 1,000 times. I wanted someone looking to make his mark. It was going to take a lot of work, a passion and enthusiasm.”

— Florida Athletics Director Jeremy Foley

For those who have followed Billy Donovan’s career it should come as no surprise that he has made Florida basketball a winner.

Under Donovan, Florida has set a school record with 10 straight post-season appearances, including nine straight NCAA Tournament bids. UF made the school’s first-ever appearance in the National Championship game in 2000 before winning back to back National titles in 2006 and 2007. Donovan is already the winningest NCAA Tournament coach in UF history and his 22 NCAA Tournament wins more than triple the total of seven in school history before his arrival. He has guided the Gators to three Final Fours and two in a row, a first in Gator history.

After the school had just one Southeastern Conference Championship in 77 seasons prior to his arrival, Donovan has tallied three SEC titles (2000, 2001 and 2007). Florida and Kentucky are the only two SEC schools to capture consecutive league crowns in the past 30 years. He led the Gators to their first SEC Tournament title in 2005 and then again in 2006 and in 2007.

Florida’s 212 wins during the past eight years is the best such stretch in school history. After only being ranked in the national polls 42 times prior to Donovan’s arrival, UF had been ranked a school-record 95 consecutive weeks in the Associated Press poll and 99 weeks by the ESPN/USA Today poll before falling out on Feb. 16, 2004. The Gators started the 2005-06 season unranked, before entering at No. 14 in the AP Poll and No. 15 in the coaches’ poll on Nov. 20. After starting unranked, the Gators finished the year No. 1, a place they opened and finished the 2006-07 season at.

His winning percentage at UF (.717) is the best among all Gator coaches who spent more than one season at UF and he reached the 100 and 200 victory marks at UF quicker than any coach in school history, needing just 154 games to reach the century plateau and 292 games to reach 200 wins. Donovan became the school’s all-time leader in wins on Dec. 20 and stands at 261.

Donovan’s teams have knocked off 43 ranked opponents during his tenure. UF has won 37 of its last 55 meetings with ranked teams, including a 6-1 mark in 2005-06 and a 8-1 mark this year.

Donovan’s squads have led the SEC in a statistical category 33 times, including 29 offensive categories. Nineteen of his players have captured All-League honors and 10 of his freshmen have been recognized. Four of Donovan’s players have been first round draft picks in the NBA Draft, after the school boasted only two before his arrival, and he has inked nine McDonald’s All-Americans after UF had just three prior to his arrival. The fans are taking notice, attendance is up over 5,000 since Donovan’s arrival.
