The BIG EAST Conference

The brainchild of former Providence College men's basketball coach and athletic director Dave Gavitt, the BIG EAST Conference became a reality on May 31, 1979, as Providence, St. John's, Georgetown, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College formed the original seven-school alliance. While the membership has evolved, the focus of the BIG EAST has not wavered. The conference reflects a tradition of broad-based programs, led by administrators and coaches who place a stead-fast emphasis on academic integrity.

In 2012, the seven BIG EAST schools that do not compete in FBS football decided to return to the type of conference alignment that existed when Gavitt helped form the league in 1979 and quickly surged to national prominence as a college basketball force. On December 15, 2012, these seven institutions (DePaul University, Georgetown University, Marquette University, Providence College, St. John's University, Seton Hall University and Villanova University) announced their intention to separate from the football-playing schools in the previous BIG EAST and form an independent association.

On March 20, 2013, the seven schools reached an agreement that enabled them to keep the BIG EAST name and establish a new conference entity beginning on July 1, 2013. The schools also assumed the old conference's long-term agreement with Madison Square Garden to host the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament, one of the premier events in college athletics. The schools also announced the addition of three distinguished institutions that share the same academic and athletic values — Butler University, Creighton University and Xavier University — and forged a landmark, long-term broadcast partnership with FOX Sports.

FOX Sports and its recently established national cable network, FOX Sports 1, acquired the television rights to all BIG EAST contests in all sports in early 2013. The television agreement helped usher in the new BIG EAST era by making the league accessible to a national audience with complete coverage of all BIG EAST men's basketball regularseason and Tournament contests. A selection of regular-season women's basketball games as well as the semifinals and final of the BIG EAST Tournament were all shown via the FOX Networks, which reaches 90 million homes. Soccer, lacrosse, softball and baseball also had their conference championships aired on the FOX Sports channels in 2013-14. Dividends were paid immediately as BIG EAST teams enjoyed a significant jump in the number of nationally televised games on their schedules, with many seen on countrywide broadcasts four times as frequently as seasons past.

Starting in 2014-15, the BIG EAST and FOX Sports will launch a digital platform which will include 30 regular-season women's basketball games and over 80 Olympic sport contests, including postseason championship coverage. Fans will be able to access the live broadcasts as well as feature content and highlights free of charge.

BIG EAST institutions are located in seven of the nation's top 35 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Indianapolis, Milwaukee and Cincinnati. Under the direction of Commissioner Val Ackerman, the BIG EAST moved its head-quarters prior to the 2013-14 academic year from its original location in Providence, R.I., to Midtown Manhattan in New York City.

Ackerman was named the BIG EAST's fifth Commissioner on June 26, 2013, following Gavitt, the Conference's first Commissioner who served until 1990, Michael Tranghese, John Marinatto and Mike Aresco. Tranghese was the league's first full-time employee and the right-hand man to Gavitt for 11 years, taking over for Gavitt as Commissioner until 2009. Marinatto was the third Commissioner of the BIG EAST, serving from 2009-2012, when he was succeeded by Aresco.

It was with the BIG EAST's founder and first commissioner in mind when Ackerman, who previously served as President of USA Basketball and was the founding President of the WNBA, teamed with Big Ten Commissioner Jim Delany to establish the Gavitt Tipoff Games. Beginning in 2015-16, the Gavitt Tipoff Games will be an annual early-season series of eight men's basketball games played between the two conferences.

The BIG EAST will embark on its second year as a 10-team consortium in 2014-15. The league, which has always competed with integrity and sportsmanship at the highest levels of intercollegiate sports, began a new era in 2013-14, returning to its heritage, focusing athletically on basketball while forging into the future with leadership and vision.

The 2013-14 academic year marked the BIG EAST's first season since realignment. The conference crowned champions in 22 sports last year, the 35th season in its history, with its student-athletes achieving success in the classroom as well as the athletic arena.

Eight different schools won regular-season titles, including first-year member Creighton, which claimed the baseball regular-season crown, and 10 different schools won BIG EAST postseason championships. Fellow newcomer Xavier won the BIG EAST Baseball Championship.

The Musketeers were one of 34 different BIG EAST teams to earn NCAA Championship bids in 2013-14, with a remarkable nine teams (five men, four women) earning invites to the NCAA Soccer Tournaments. Nine different national postseason championships saw multiple BIG EAST teams participate, including four league squads in men's basketball and women's cross country, and two in volleyball, women's basketball, men's cross country, field hockey and women's lacrosse. Additionally, a plethora of individuals earned national postseason invitations in tennis, cross country and track and field.

Two BIG EAST teams and one individual performer won NCAA Championships in 2013-14, beginning with the Providence women's cross country team. The Friars claimed their second national championship in program history, as three PC runners were tabbed All-Americans and 30th-year head coach Ray Treacy was named National Coach of the Year by the USTFCCCA. Affiliate member Connecticut won its third NCAA title in field hockey in 2013, with Nancy Stevens named NFHCA National Coach of the Year and Marie Elena Bolles National Player of the Year.

Including the three Friar runners, 83 BIG EAST student-athletes across 16 sports were named All-Americans in 2013-14, including Villanova's Emily Lipari. A four-time All-American in 2013-14, Lipari won the national title in the mile at the NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships in March, marking the Wildcats' 20th indoor national champion.

In March, all eyes were on the hardwood as the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament returned to Madison Square Garden for the 32nd consecutive season. It was a tale of old versus new as conference charter member Providence advanced to the BIG EAST Championship for the first time in 20 years, while first-year participant Creighton, led by consensus National Player of the Year Doug McDermott, marched its way through the opening rounds to reach the final in its BIG EAST Tournament debut. In the end, the Friars, led by All-American Bryce Cotton,

Val Ackerman

VAL ACKERMAN was named the fifth Commissioner of the Big East Conference on June 26, 2013. She was the founding President of the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and a past President of USA Basketball, which oversees the U.S. men's and women's Olympic basketball program. She has had a long and accomplished career in the sports industry and is one of the few sports executives who has held leadership positions in both men's and women's sports at the collegiate, professional, national team and international levels.

Val attended the University of Virginia as one of the school's first female student-athlete scholarship recipients. She was a four-year starter, three-time captain and two-time Academic All-American for the Cavaliers' women's basketball team and the first 1,000-point scorer in the program's history. She graduated with high distinction with a degree in political and social thought in 1981 and played one year of professional basketball in France before earning a law degree from UCLA in 1985.

Val started her legal career as a corporate and banking associate at the New York law firm of Simpson Thacher and Bartlett and joined the National Basketball Association as a staff attorney in 1988. She was as an executive at the NBA for eight years, serving as Special Assistant to NBA Commissioner David Stern and Director (and later) Vice President of Business Affairs before being named the WNBA's first President in 1996. She guided the league to a much-heralded launch in 1997 and headed its day-to-day operations for its first eight seasons.

In 2005, Val was elected President of USA Basketball for the 2005-08 term, leading the organization to an overall competitive record of 222-23 and gold medal performances by the U.S. men's and women's basketball teams at the 2008 Olympics in Beijing. She was one of the NBA's original appointees to the USA Basketball Board of Directors in 1989 and served as an organizational liaison with USAB during the early years of NBA participation in FIBA competitions, including the 1992 and 1996 Olympics and 1994 World Championships. A USA Basketball Board member for 23 years, Val played a key role in the long-standing success of the U.S. women's national basketball team program, which won gold medals at the 1998, 2002 and 2010 FIBA World Championships and the 1996, 2000, 2004, 2008 and 2012 Olympic Games. In 2013, Val was named the recipient of USA Basketball's Edward S. Steitz Award, which recognizes outstanding contributions in international basketball.

Val also served two terms (2006-10 and 2010-14) as the U.S. representative for men's and women's basketball on the Central Board of the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), the sport's world governing body. She was a member of FIBA's Competition Commission and served on the Central Board of FIBA Americas, FIBA's zone authority for North, Central and South America.

Val is a member of the adjunct faculty for Columbia University's graduate sports management program and serves on the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics. She is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, which inducted her as a contributor in 2011, and is a Lifetime Trustee of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, which presented her with the John Bunn Lifetime Achievement Award in 2008. She has done consulting work for the National Hockey League, which she assisted in formulating a long-term plan to support women's ice hockey, and the NCAA, for which she prepared a comprehensive white paper in 2013 on growth strategies for women's college basketball. She also worked as a free-lance columnist for espnw.com, where she authored a series of articles on the subject of women and sports and participated as a member of the espnw Advisory Board.

Val's accomplishments in the sports business have earned her numerous awards, including the University of Virginia's Distinguished Alumna Award; the March of Dimes

Sports Achievement Award; induction into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame: the Girls Scouts of America National Women of Distinction Juliette Award; the NOW Legal Defense and Education Fund Equal Opportunity Award; inclusion on the Atlantic Coast Conference's 50th Anniversary Women's Basketball team; induction into the International Scholar-Athlete Hall of Fame; the Women's Basketball Coaches Association President's Citation; the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award; the International Olympic Committee Women and Sport Achievement Diploma; the Sports Business Journal Champions in Sports Business Award; inclusion as a Women's Sports Foundation/espnw 40 for 40 Honoree; induction into the National Consortium for Academics and Sports Hall of Fame; and the Women in Sports and Events (WISE) 20th Anniversary Women of Distinction Award.

Val is married to Charlie Rappaport, a retired tax partner of the Wall Street law firm of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett. They have two daughters, Emily (a 2014 graduate of Yale) and Sally (an undergraduate at Wesleyan University).

The BIG EAST Scholar-Athlete of the Year

The BIG EAST Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year award is one of a number of scholarships presented by the BIG EAST Conference during the academic year. The conference names a winner in men's and women's basketball each year. The winners are chosen by the BIG EAST Academic Affairs Committee.

captured their first title since 1994. Cotton won the Dave Gavitt Trophy as the BIG EAST Tournament Most Outstanding Player.

Along with the Bluejays and Friars, Villanova and Xavier earned NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament bids, while on the women's side, BIG EAST Tournament and regular-season champion DePaul punched its NCAA ticket, along with runner-up St. John's. The BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament was held for the first time at Allstate Arena in Rosemont, Ill., as the Blue Demons claimed their first tourney title in league history in front of a hometown crowd.

Successful strides were made academically as well, as 10 BIG EAST student-athletes were named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, including four first-team members. Butler's Katie Clark and Mara Olson (cross country, track and field) and Marquette's Charlie Lyon (soccer) and Kate Reigle (soccer) all garnered first-team honors.

The triumphs enjoyed by the BIG EAST in 2013-14 add to an already illustrious legacy steeped in men's basketball and expanded to other sports since the conference's founding.

BIG EAST men's basketball teams have enjoyed extraordinary success over the years. Georgetown, Marquette and Villanova have won the national championship, and DePaul, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall have all made it to the Final Four. The BIG EAST placed three men's basketball teams in the Final Four in 1985 - Georgetown, St. John's and Villanova -- the only time this has occurred in NCAA history. Over the past 11 years, Butler, Georgetown, Marquette and Villanova have each reached the Final Four, with Butler making two trips (in 2010 and 2011). Xavier has also advanced to the Elite Eight twice and the Sweet 16 three other times.

BIG EAST student-athletes have achieved recent success in other sports, as well. A BIG EAST team has won the NCAA women's cross country championship four of the last five years (Villanova won twice; Providence and Georgetown once), with one runner-up finish (Providence). Creighton's men's soccer team has reached the NCAA College Cup in two of the past three seasons. Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 36 national championships in six different sports, and 138 student-athletes have won individual national titles through 2013-14.

The league has long been considered a leader in innovative concepts in promotion and publicity, particularly regarding television. Those efforts have resulted in unparalleled visibility for the conference and BIG EAST student-athletes. BIG EAST student-athletes sport significantly high graduation rates, and the league has always been able to boast that many of its best students are also its best athletes.

BIG EAST'S NEW ERA BEGAN WITH A SPLASH IN 2013-14

A year ago, the BIG EAST Conference moved into a new era with a 10-school alignment and a basketball-centric attitude. The result was an unqualified success. The 10 teams played a double round-robin conference schedule for the first time since 1994-95. Three institutions were added as members — Butler University, Creighton University and Xavier University — and an unprecedented partnership with FOX Sports was announced. The BIG EAST continues to call Madison Square Garden its home for The BIG EAST Tournament, the longest running postseason tournament in college basketball held at the same venue.

FRIARS WON BIG EAST TOURNAMENT

The first BIG EAST Tournament with the new 10-team alignment also was a great success. Tremendous crowds and dramatic games were the rule again at the World's Most Famous Arena. Providence won its second crown in league history and first since 1994. The Friars, who were the No. 4 tournament seed, defeated second-seeded Creighton 65-58 in the championship game. PC guard Bryce Cotton won the Dave Gavitt Trophy as the Most Outstanding Player. Cotton scored a team-high 23 points.

NEW SCHOOLS MADE THEIR MARKS

The three new schools —Creighton, Xavier and Butler — made great contributions in their first BIG EAST seasons.

Creighton finished 27-8 overall, 14-4 in BIG EAST play, and was the BIG EAST Tournament runner-up. The Bluejays were led by forward Doug McDermott, the consensus National Player of the Year and BIG EAST Player of the Year. He led the country in scoring with a 26.7 average. In addition to its success on the floor, Creighton brought more than 3,000 fans to the BIG EAST Tournament. The Bluejays were also fifth nationally in attendance at their CenturyLink Arena, averaging 17,896 fans per game.

Xavier made the NCAA Tournament for the eighth time in the last nine seasons. The Musketeers, under coach Chris Mack, finished 21-13 overall and tied for third place in BIG EAST play with a 10-8 record. Guard Semaj Christon was All-BIG EAST First Team and All-Tournament Team.

Butler was very competitive with a 14-17 record under first-year coach Brandon Miller. The Bulldogs had an excruciating start to their inaugural BIG EAST campaign with four of their first six conference contests going to overtime and they dropped three of their four OT games. Starting guard Alex Barlow won the league's scholar-athlete award for men's basketball.

BIG EAST RETURNED TO DOUBLE ROUND-ROBIN

With its 10-team alignment, the BIG EAST played an 18-game double round-robin schedule for the first time since 1994-95. For the second straight season, conference play will begin Dec. 31 with all 10 teams in action.

VILLANOVA WAS KING OF REGULAR SEASON

The Villanova Wildcats won the 2013-14 BIG EAST regular-season title with a 16-2 record. Coach Jay Wright's team finished 29-5 overall and was ranked sixth nationally in the final Associated Press poll. The overall win total was the second highest in school history. The 16 league victories was a school record in BIG EAST play. The outright regular-season title was the first for Villanova since 1981-82. Wright was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year.

ALL 10 HAVE WINNING TRADITIONS

The BIG EAST can back up its boast of basketball success. All 10 BIG EAST schools own all-time winning records and each school has won at least 57 percent of its games. Last season, five schools posted 20-win campaigns — Villanova, Creighton, Providence, Xavier and St. John's.

GEORGETOWN KEPT POSTSEASON STREAK GOING

Georgetown advanced to the second round of the NIT last March and finished 18-15 overall. The Hoyas were led by the superb backcourt of senior Markel Starks and sophomore D'Vauntes Smith-Rivera. Starks was an All-BIG EAST First Team selection and Smith-Rivera made the Second Team. Smith-Rivera was third in the BIG EAST in scoring with a 17.6 average. Starks was fifth at 17.3. The Hoyas have been in the postseason in each of their 10 seasons under head coach John Thompson III.

ST. JOHN'S MADE THE NIT AGAIN

The St. John's Red Storm played in the NIT for a second straight year. The Red Storm finished 20-13 overall and 10-8 in BIG EAST play. St. John's appeared in the NIT for the 29th time, the most of any team in the country. Guard D'Angelo Harrison was an All-BIG EAST First Team selection and finished third in the BIG EAST in scoring with a 17.5 average. Center Chris Obekpa was first in the BIG EAST in blocked shots with a 2.9 average.

SIX OF TEN MADE THE POSTSEASON

Six of the 10 BIG EAST squads made it to postseason play. Villanova, Creighton, Xavier and Providence received NCAA Tournament invitations. St. John's and Georgetown made it to the NIT.

RECENT NCAA FINAL FOUR TRIPS

Four of the current 10 BIG EAST programs have appeared in the Final Four in the last 11 years. Butler made it twice, in 2010 and 2011. Villanova was a Final Four team in 2009. Georgetown made it in 2007 and Marquette was there in 2003.

ATTENDANCE ABOUNDS

BIG EAST fans showed their spirited support in the first season of the league's new 10-team alignment. Every BIG EAST school ranked in the top 81 teams nationally in attendance. That's among 349 Division I teams, according to the NCAA.

Creighton ranked fifth nationally with an average of 17,896 fans at its CenturyLink Center, the highest average in school history. It was the third straight season that the Bluejays have been ranked in the top six nationally. Marquette ranked 14th nationally with an average of 15,327 fans at the BMO Bradley Center. The Golden Eagles have been ranked in the top 20 in attendance in all nine of their seasons as a BIG EAST member. Xavier ranked 42nd with an average of 9,890 fans flocking to the Cintas Center. The Musketeers have filled their arena to 97.7 percent capacity since it opened in 2000-01. Villanova averaged 9,890 fans and ranked 48th. The Wildcats are riding of streak of 149 straight sellouts at The Pavilion on campus where the capacity is 6,500.

Three more BIG EAST teams ranked in the 50s: Georgetown (8,670-51st), Providence (8,347-56th) and Butler (7,788-59th) followed by St. John's (7,431-66th), DePaul (6,363-80th) and Seton Hall (6,336-81st).

MCDERMOTT WAS NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Creighton's Doug McDermott was the unanimous National Player of the Year in addition to winning the Senior CLASS Award. The 6-8 forward led the nation in scoring with a 26.7 average. He finished his career ranked fifth on the NCAA's all-time scoring list with 3,150 points. The BIG EAST Player of the Year, he became only the third player in NCAA history to win a Player of the Year award in two different conferences.

DEPAUL'S GARRETT, JR. NAMED ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

DePaul guard Billy Garrett, Jr. was named BIG EAST Rookie of the Year last season. He led all league freshmen with a 12.4 scoring average and 93 assists. In league games, his scoring mark increased to 13.8 ppg while hitting 39.7 percent from 3-point range. Garrett, Jr. also made the BIG EAST All-Academic Team. He serves as DePaul's representative on the BIG EAST Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

20 WINS REMAINS A GOOD YARDSTICK

When a BIG EAST team reaches 20 wins by the end of conference tournament play, it has an excellent chance of receiving an NCAA invitation. Since the BIG EAST began in 1979-80, 167 of 175 teams with 20 wins received NCAA bids (95.4 percent). In 2013-14, four of the five 20-win teams made the NCAA Championship.

WOJCIECHOWSKI IS LONE NEW COACH

Marquette's Steve Wojciechowski is the BIG EAST's only new head coach for 2014-15. Wojciechowski was an assistant and associate head coach at Duke over 15 seasons after a standout playing career with the Blue Devils. Duke won two national championships and compiled a 441-92 (.827) record during his coaching tenure.

BIG EAST, ST. JOHN'S HOSTED EAST REGIONAL AT MSG

The BIG EAST and St. John's hosted a very successful NCAA East Regional at Madison Square Garden, the first time MSG has hosted NCAA postseason games in 53 years.

SMITH-RIVERA SELECTED PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR WHITEHEAD NAMED TOP PRESEASON ROOKIE

Georgetown guard D'Vauntes Smith-Rivera has been chosen the 2014-15 BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year by a vote of the league's head coaches. Seton Hall freshman guard Isaiah Whitehead has been named BIG EAST Preseason Rookie of the Year.

Smith-Rivera, a 6-3 junior, is the sixth Georgetown player in BIG EAST history to earn Preseason Player of the Year honors. He finished third in the league in scoring last year with a 17.6 average. He led the BIG EAST in free throw shooting, making 87.3 percent, and shot 39.3 percent from 3-point range. One of the league's ironmen, Smith-Rivera was fourth in minutes played in league action, averaging 37.0 minutes per game. A native of Indianapolis, Ind., he finished strong late in the season, averaging 21.0 points per game over the last six contests.

Smith-Rivera was an All-BIG EAST Second Team selection in 2013-14 and a BIG EAST All-Rookie Team pick as a freshman.

Whitehead is a 6-4 guard who was a 2014 McDonald's All-American at Lincoln H.S. in Brooklyn, N.Y. He also was named Mr. Basketball in New York by the state's Basketball Coaches Association.

The 2014-15 Preseason All-BIG EAST First Team includes three seniors and two juniors. In addition to Smith-Rivera, the members include seniors D'Angelo Harrison of St. John's, JayVaughn Pinkston of Villanova and Matt Stainbrook of Xavier. The other junior is Kellen Dunham of Butler.

Harrison also earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors last year. He has led the Red Storm in scoring in each of the past two seasons. Last year, the 6-4 guard averaged 17.5 points per game and won the Haggerty Award as the top collegiate player in the New York Metropolitan area. A native of Missouri City, Texas, he leads all BIG EAST players with 866 career points in league play.

Pinkston was a prime contributor in the Villanova success that included a 29-5 overall record and a BIG EAST regular-season title. A 6-7, 235-pound forward, he supported the balanced Wildcat attack with a 14.1 scoring average and was one of three players to average 6.1 rebounds per game. Pinkston hails from Brooklyn, N.Y.

Like Pinkston, Stainbrook is a powerful low-post presence. The Xavier forward averaged 10.6 points and a team-leading 7.4

rebounds. He ranked second in the BIG EAST in field goal shooting, making 55.6 percent. The 6-10, 263-pound native of Bay Village, Ohio, earned All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention recognition last year.

Dunham emerged as one of the top shooters in the BIG EAST last season. His 16.4 scoring mark helped earn him All-BIG EAST Second Team honors. He is the league's third top returning scorer. His 78 3-point baskets ranked fifth in the conference. A 6-6 native of Pendleton, Ind., Dunham shot 80.3 percent from the foul line.

The Preseason All-BIG EAST Second Team is a younger group than the First Team with two seniors, a junior and two sophomores.

DePaul sophomore guard Billy Garrett, Jr. was the BIG EAST Rookie of the Year last season. He ranked first among league freshmen with a 12.4 scoring average and 93 assists.

The other sophomore is St. John's guard Rysheed Jordan who averaged 9.7 points and 3.0 assists.

The lone junior is Villanova guard Ryan Arcidiacono, a two-year starter who averaged 9.9 points and 3.5 assists. He was an All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention pick.

Hilliard, Arcidiacono's backcourt teammate, was a contributor to the Villanova balanced success with a 14.3 scoring average. He shot 41.4 percent from beyond the arc. Hilliard shared the BIG EAST Most Improved Player award with teammate Daniel Ochefu.

The Preseason All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention group includes three juniors: Butler guard Roosevelt Jones, who missed all of last season with a wrist injury, St. John's center Chris Obekpa who is already the school's all-time blocked shots leader and Seton Hall guard Sterling Gibbs who was the team's second leading scorer with a 13.2 average.

VILLANOVA CHOSEN UNANIMOUSLY TO WIN REGULAR SEASON IN COACHES' POLL

Villanova, with four starters returning from last year's team that won the BIG EAST regular season and finished 29-5 overall, has been selected to win the 2014-15 conference crown in the BIG EAST Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Wildcats received all nine possible first-place votes and 81 points. Coaches did not place their own teams in their ballots.

Last year, the Wildcats finished 16-2 in BIG EAST play to win their first outright crown since 1981-82. The VU overall win total of 29 was the second highest in school history. The 16 BIG EAST wins was a school record. This season, coach Jay Wright can rely on forward JayVaughn Pinkston and guard Darrun Hilliard, a pair of seniors, who both averaged 14 points per game last year. Junior guard Ryan Arcidiacono is back after averaging 9.9 points and 3.5 assists. Junior forward Daniel Ochefu averaged 5.7 points and 6.1 rebounds. Ochefu and Hilliard shared last year's BIG EAST Most Improved Player award.

Georgetown edged St. John's for second place in the poll by just two points, 67-65. The Hoyas finished 18-15 overall and 8-10 in BIG EAST play last season. Coach John Thompson III has some quality returnees, including junior D'Vauntes Smith-Rivera, the 2014-15 BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year. A 6-3 guard, Smith-Rivera finished third in the BIG EAST in scoring last year with a 17.6 average. Senior guard Jabril Trawick, a standout defender, is back after averaging 9.1 points. Six-ten Joshua Smith returns at center after averaging 11.5 points and 3.4 rebounds. He missed the second half of last season due to academic reasons.

St. John's will feature one of the league's deepest backcourts, including All-BIG EAST First Team guard D'Angelo Harrison. A 6-4 senior, Harrison ranked fourth in the BIG EAST in scoring last year with a 17.5 average. Point guard Rysheed Jordan made the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team after averaging 9.7 points and 3.0 assists. Senior guards Phil Greene IV and Jamal Branch are also battle tested. Junior center Chris Obekpa already is the Red Storm's all-time shot blocker. Last year, coach Steve Lavin's club was 20-13 overall and 10-8 in BIG EAST play.

Xavier is picked fourth. In their first season in the BIG EAST, the Musketeers made the NCAA Tournament, finishing 21-13 overall and tieing for third place in the league with a 10-8 record. It was Xavier's eighth 20-win season in the last nine years. This year, coach Chris Mack can build around senior starters Matt Stainbrook and Dee Davis. Stainbrook, a 6-10 center, averaged 10.6 points and a teamleading 7.4 rebounds while making All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention. Davis, a 6-0 guard, averaged 7.7 points and recorded a 4.7 assist mark, which ranked second in the BIG EAST.

Providence was slotted for fifth place with 49 points. The Friars won the BIG EAST Tournament title last year under coach Ed Cooley. They finished 23-12 overall and 10-8 in league play. For 2014-15, Providence welcomes back three key contributors from last season – forwards LaDontae Henton and Tyler Harris along with center Carson Desrosiers. Cooley also has guard Kris Dunn who missed last season with a shoulder injury. Henton averaged 14.0 points and led the team in rebounding at 7.9. Harris averaged 12.3 points and 5.3 boards. Desrosiers averaged 3.6 points and 2.4 blocked shots.

Seton Hall is expected to move up in the standings with the coaches picking the Pirates sixth. The Hall, 17-17 overall and 6-12 in the BIG EAST last year, has standout guard Sterling Gibbs who averaged 13.2 points and 4.2 assists. Freshman guard Jaren Sina averaged 6.0 points per game. The backcourt is expected to be even stronger with freshman Isaiah Whitehead, the 2014-15 BIG EAST Preseason Rookie of the Year, who is considered the centerpiece of a stellar recruiting class for coach Kevin Willard. Last season, the Pirates finished on an uptick reaching the BIG EAST Tournament semifinals as the No. 8 seed.

Butler is tied with Marquette for seventh in the poll. The Bulldogs are expected to improve with the return of starting guards Kellen Dunham and Alex Barlow along with guard Roosevelt Jones who missed all of last season with a wrist injury. Dunham was an All-BIG EAST Second Team pick with a 16.4 scoring average. Barlow averaged 6.6 points. Two seasons ago, Jones averaged 10.1 points and 5.6 boards. Forward Kameron Woods averaged 7.5 points and posted a league-leading 9.0 rebound mark.

Marquette and new head coach Steve Wojciechowski have two senior starters returning, guard Derrick Wilson and forward Juan Anderson. Wilson, who has played 100 collegiate games, averaged 5.0 points, 4.2 assists and 3.8 rebounds. Anderson started 19 games and averaged 3.2 points and 3.3 rebounds. Sophomore forward Deonte Burton made the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team after averaging 6.9 points. Guard Matt Carlino, a transfer from BYU who is eligible immediately, averaged 13.7 points last year.

Creighton is picked ninth. Last year, the Bluejays made a big splash in the BIG EAST by finishing second in the league with a 14-4 record and being the runner-up to Providence in the BIG EAST Tournament on the strength of consensus National Player of the Year Doug McDermott. Coach Greg McDermott has to replace four starters this season. Point guard Austin Chatman is the lone regular returning. He was third in the BIG EAST in assists with a 4.4 mark while averaging 8.1 points.

De Paul was placed 10th in the poll. The Blue Demons had two BIG EAST All-Rookie Team members last year, guard Billy Garrett, Jr. and center Tommy Hamilton IV. Garrett, Jr. also was BIG EAST Rookie of the Year. He led all conference freshmen with a 12.4 scoring average and 90 assists. Hamilton IV, a 6-11 center, averaged 7.7 points and 4.8 rebounds. Some newcomers, including 6-6 transfer forward Myke Henry, are expected to help right away.

BIG EAST CONTINUES LANDMARK AGREEMENT WITH FOX SPORTS

The BIG EAST Conference has always enjoyed tremendous television exposure and the 2014-15 season will be no different. The television schedule features expansive coverage through the league's partnership with FOX Sports and a repeat of its five-game marathon on New Year's Eve to tip off conference play. A robust BIG EAST Tuesday Showdown package on FOX Sports 1 will feature all 10 teams.

This season, FOX Sports 1 will carry more than 100 games nationally to approximately 90 million homes across the country. The FOX broadcast network has increased its coverage to at least eight games, all on weekends. Gus Johnson and Bill Raftery will again serve as FOX Sports' lead announce team for BIG EAST games.

BIG EAST Commissioner Val Ackerman said, "Our exposure on FOX Sports continues to grow this year, with additional games to be shown on the FOX broadcast network and supplemental programming planned on our recently announced BIG EAST Digital Network on FOX Sports GO. BIG EAST fans will have much to look forward to and, thanks to FOX, many ways to follow all the action."

The BIG EAST, which began a new era last year with a 10-team, basketball-centric membership, again will start its league schedule on December 31 with a five-game New Year's Eve marathon on FOX Sports 1, stretching from noon Eastern time until midnight.

FOX Sports 1 will be the place for a BIG EAST Tuesday Showdown package with an attractive 15-game schedule that will include a doubleheader most weeks. Each league team will appear at least twice. The Tuesday Showdown schedule begins January 6 with a doubleheader featuring Marquette at Georgetown followed by Villanova at St. John's.

Through the FOX agreement, CBS Sports will carry two games involving BIG EAST teams. CBS Sports Network will televise 13 conference games and additional non-league contests.

ESPN will carry numerous non-conference games involving BIG EAST teams when those squads are playing on away or neutral courts.

FOX Sports 1 will be the exclusive home of the 2015 BIG EAST Tournament Presented by New York Life at Madison Square Garden, to be played March 11-14. The BIG EAST Tournament, which will be conducted for the 33rd consecutive year at the World's Most Famous Arena, is college basketball's longest running postseason basketball conference tourney held at the same venue.

FOX Sports 1 Will Telecast Over 100 Games, Including a Tuesday Showdown Package That Will Feature All 10 Teams.

The BIG EAST on Television

2013-2014 TELEVISION HIGHLIGHTS

- The New Year's Eve marathon begins with St. John's at Seton Hall from the Prudential Center at noon ET. At 2:30 p.m., Butler will visit Villanova at The Pavilion. The marathon closes with Georgetown playing at Xavier at 10 p.m.
- The BIG EAST coverage on the FOX broadcast network has increased to at least eight games. FOX will televise at least five league contests. The three non-league games are: Northwestern at Butler on Dec. 6, Syracuse at Villanova on Dec. 20 and Duke at St. John's on Jan. 25 from Madison Square Garden. The FOX broadcast network schedule is listed in this release after the composite league schedule.
- CBS Sports will broadcast two games that include BIG EAST squads — Marquette hosts Wisconsin on Dec. 6 and Georgetown plays at St. John's on Feb. 28. In its second year televising BIG EAST men's basketball, CBS Sports Network will again carry a line-up of top league games. The Network will televise 13 league games and five non-conference contests.

- On Jan. 19, the Martin Luther King holiday, FOX Sports 1 will televise Villanova at Georgetown. On Presidents' Day, Feb. 16, FOX Sports 1 will feature a doubleheader with Seton Hall at Villanova followed by Butler at Creighton.
- The 2014-15 regular season will end on Saturday, March 7 with all 10 teams in action and jockeying for position for the following week's BIG EAST Tournament. The matchups are: Seton Hall at Georgetown, Butler at Providence, St. John's at Villanova at the Wells Fargo Center, DePaul at Marquette and Xavier at Creighton. The FOX broadcast network will televise one of these crucial games, with the selection being made later in the season.

- FOX Sports 1 will carry every game of the 2015 BIG EAST Tournament
 Presented by New York Life. The firstround doubleheader starts on Wednesday evening, March 11. Quarterfinal doubleheaders will be played Thursday afternoon and evening, March 12. The semifinal doubleheader is held Friday, March 13, followed by the championship game on Saturday evening, March 14.
- FOX Sports 1 will air at least 109 regular-season games, including nine BIG EAST Tournament games. In addition to the BIG EAST Tuesday Showdown, fans will be able to enjoy BIG EAST basketball on virtually every day of the conference season in January and February.
- FOX Sports Regional Networks will air up to 20 games, including conference and non-conference contests regionally.
- For the second straight season, each team will play an 18-game double round-robin schedule.

BIG EAST DIGITAL NETWORK

Coverage of BIG EAST basketball during the 2014-15 season will be included on the recently announced BIG EAST Digital Network. BEDN will have its own branded channel within FOX Sports GO, the app that provides live streaming video of FOX Sports content at home or on-the-go. BEDN will include 80-100 live streamed events, including women's basketball and Olympic sports. FOX Sports GO app users who are also subscribers of participating video providers can live stream basketball telecasts carried on the FOX broadcast network, FOX Sports 1, FOX Sports 2, and the FOX Sports Regional Network.

BULLDOGS PREVIEW

The Big Picture

On October 2, Butler announced that head coach Brandon Miller was taking a leave of absence for medical reasons. Assistant Chris Holtmann was named interim head coach. Some excruciating losses to start the conference season last year — three of the first four defeats were in overtime — led to a disappointing finish in the Bulldogs' inaugural BIG EAST campaign. Butler also played the season without maybe its best player, guard Roosevelt Jones, who was injured last summer. Still, the Bulldogs stayed competitive throughout the year. Jones is back with four other starters and improvement is expected. The Bulldogs are used to winning. They have played in six of the last eight NCAAs, including two trips the national championship game.

Who's Back

Guard Kellen Dunham emerged as one of the BIG EAST's top scorers last season with a 16.4 scoring average. He was an All-BIG EAST Second Team selection and is the league's third top returning scorer. Backcourt partner Alex Barlow averaged 6.6 points, 3.7 rebounds and 3.5 assists. He won the BIG EAST Scholar-Athlete Award for men's basketball. Jones, who averaged 10.1 points and 5.6 rebounds two seasons ago, also excels defensively. Forward Kameron Woods averaged 7.5 points and 9.0 boards. His 8.3 rebound average in league games was first in the BIG EAST. Six-seven Andrew Chrabascz became a starter in the second half of the season and averaged 6.3 points. He made the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team.

Who's Gone

Forward Khyle Marshall was a dependable performer who started every game. He was second on the team in scoring with a 14.9 average and pulled down 4.8 rebounds per game. Reserve guard Elijah Brown (6.8 ppg) transferred and forward Erik Fromm (5.5 ppg) graduated.

Storylines

All times are Eastern.

With the return of Jones, the Bulldogs can put three quality guards on the floor. Woods and Chrabascz will form a solid inside game. The coaching staff is looking for contributors off the bench. Senior Jackson Aldridge saw only limited action last year, but could help at guard. Six-six graduate transfer Arthur Etherington can help at either forward spot. Other support can come from three freshmen: 6-8 Jackson Davis, 6-7 Tyler Wideman and 6-6 Kelan Martin.

HOLTMANN NAMED INTERIM HEAD COACH

Assistant coach Chris Holtmann was named interim head coach for the Bulldogs on Oct. 2 when it was announced that head coach Brandon Miller would be taking a leave of absence for medical reasons.

Holtmann joined Miller's staff in July of 2013 after serving as the head coach at Gardner-Webb for the three seasons and leading a successful rebuilding program at the North Carolina school. In his final season, he led the Runnin' Bulldogs to a school Division I record 21 victories and a berth in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. Holtmann was named Big South Conference Coach of the Year.

Before Gardner-Webb, Holtmann spent two seasons as an assistant coach under former Butler assistant John Groce at Ohio University. He was part of the staff that helped lead the Bobcats to the 2010 Mid-American Conference Tournament title and an upset of No. 3 seed Georgetown in the opening round of the 2010 NCAA Championship. He also served for five seasons as an assistant coach at Gardner-Webb, including four seasons as Associate Head Coach.

A native of Nicholasville, Ky., Holtmann was an NAIA All-American guard at Taylor University. Holtmann earned a degree in psychology from Taylor in 1994 and a Master's Degree in athletic administration from Ball State in 2000. He and his wife, Lori, have one daughter, Nora Jane.

BLUEJAYS PREVIEW

The Big Picture

The Bluejays made quite a splash in their first season in the BIG EAST. They compiled a 27-8 overall record and were 14-4 in the BIG EAST. Coach Greg McDermott's team finished second in the regular season and was the BIG EAST Tournament runner-up. A No. 3 seed in the NCAA Championship, the Bluejays fell in the third round. CU has made 17 straight postseason appearances. Four starters from that team, including consensus National Player of the Year Doug McDermott, picked up their diplomas and the Bluejays are hopeful that some support players from last year's squad can become prime contributors for 2014-15.

Who's Back

Point guard Austin Chatman is the lone returning starter. He was third on the team in scoring with an 8.1 average and ranked third in the BIG EAST in assists with a 4.4 mark. Guard Devin Brooks, who played 16.6 minutes per game coming off the bench, averaged 6.5 points. Will Artino, a 6-11 senior center, made seven starts and averaged 5.5 points and 3.3 rebounds. Six-six Avery Dingman (3.2) and 6-2 Isaiah Zierden (3.2) are experienced guards. Six-nine sophomore Zach Hanson (2.8) saw limited action, but could see his playing time increase significantly.

Who's Gone

Forward Doug McDermott was the consensus National Player of the Year as well as BIG EAST Player of the Year. He led the nation in scoring with a 26.7 average. McDermott also set a BIG EAST record by scoring 498 points in league regular season play. He finished his career with 3,150 points and ranks fifth on the NCAA's all-time scoring list. Ethan Wragge was one of the country's top 3-point shooters. He averaged 10.4 points and led the league with 110 baskets from beyond the arc. Guard Grant Gibbs' value went beyond his averages of 7.2 points and 3.9 assists. Guard Jahenns Manigat averaged 7.0 points.

Storylines

XAVIER (FS2)......2:00

The Bluejays certainly will not have the firepower they have enjoyed in recent years. Coach McDermott wants his '14-15 team to be a little more defensive minded. He won't mind if the team leads the country again in assist/turnover ratio like it did last season (+1.80). James Milliken, a junior college shooting guard who sat out last season, could get a long look for a starting role. Others like Brooks, Zierden, and Dingman in the backcourt along with Artino will try to raise their games with increased opportunities. A pair of 6-7 freshmen, Ronnie Harrell and Leon Gilmore, will push to make the rotation with 6-6 graduate transfer Ricky Kreklow.

BLUE DEMONS PREVIEW

The Big Picture

The Blue Demons salvaged some satisfaction from a disappointing regular season when they knocked off Georgetown in the first round of the BIG EAST Tournament and there is some strong cause for optimism this year. Guard Billy Garrett, Jr. and center Tommy Hamilton IV both enjoyed successful freshmen seasons and can be the nucleus for coach Oliver Purnell moving forward. The Blue Demons have some experienced reserves, a promising transfer and a few newcomers to help lift DePaul in the standings.

Who's Back

Sophomore guard Billy Garrett, Jr. was the BIG EAST Rookie of the Year. He led all BIG EAST freshmen with a 12.4 scoring average and 90 assists. Hamilton IV impressed as a 6-11 freshman center, averaging 7.7 points and 4.8 rebounds. Both players made the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team. Reserve guards Durrell McDonald (5.4 ppg), and R.J. Curington (4.9 ppg) were in the rotation last year. Forwards Forrest Robinson (3.7 ppg) Greg Sequele (1.4 ppg, 1.7 rpg) both averaged double-figure minutes off the bench. DePaul hopes senior swingman Jamee Crockett (3.9 ppg) can bounce back from two injury-plagued seasons.

Who's Gone

Guard Brandon Young was a fouryear contributor who finished his Blue Demon career among the top eight in school history in scoring, field goals, 3-pointers, free throws, steals and assists. Forward Cleveland Melvin was the team's leading scorer at 16.7 ppg, but he was suspended from the team after 20 games and did not return. Sandi Marcus averaged 4.8 points and 4.6 assists at center.

Storylines

MA McGrath Phillips Arena All times are Eastern.

Purnell may be able to return to the pressing style he prefers with the influx of athletic newcomers. Illinois transfer Myke Henry, a 6-6 junior, is expected to contribute immediately at small forward. Three junior college transfers should have opportunities to make the rotation. Aaron Simpson is a high-scoring point guard. Six-eight forward Rashaun Stimage should have a strong chance to be a regular. Six-five Darrick Wood is a candidate at shooting guard or small forward.

HOYAS PREVIEW

The Big Picture

Last year, the Hoyas finished 18-15 overall, 8-10 in the BIG EAST and made it to the second round of the NIT. The Hoyas have lost two starters, All-BIG EAST First Team guard Markel Starks and forward Nate Lubick to graduation. But Starks' backcourt partner D'Vauntes Smith-Rivera, one of the BIG EAST's top scorers, is back along with 6-10 center Joshua Smith, starting forward Mikael Hopkins and veteran guard Jabril Trawick. Smith and Trawick did not play full seasons and were sorely missed. Georgetown has made seven NCAA trips and gained three NIT bids in 10 seasons under coach John Thompson III.

Who's Back

Smith-Rivera finished third in the BIG EAST in scoring last year with a 17.6 average. He led the league in free throw shooting, making 87.3 percent. Smith was sidelined after 13 games due to academic reasons. He averaged 11.5 points and 3.4 rebounds, but played only two conference games. Hopkins averaged 6.0 points, 4.9 rebounds and while blocking 50 shots. Guard Jabril Trawick, who missed five conference games with a wrist injury, is back after averaging 9.1 points. He is a top-notch defender. Forward Reggie Cameron showed some promise as a freshman, making 12 starts and averaging 3.8 points.

Who's Gone

Starks will be missed for his leadership and his averages of 17.3 points and 4.1 assists. Lubick's value was greater than his averages of 5.1 points and 5.4 rebounds. He always seemed to make the smart play. Aaron Bowen (6.0 ppg, 3.7 rpg) and Moses Ayegba (1.9 ppg, 2.8 rpg) were frontcourt reserves.

Storylines

The return of Smith is significant up front. Smith-Rivera and Trawick are backcourt veterans who can help mentor some of the freshmen. There is probably more available playing time to be had in the frontcourt this year where Smith, Hopkins and Cameron will be. Six-eight Paul White and 6-9 Isaac Copeland may have opportunities to contribute right away along with 6-5 forward L.J. Peak and 6-9 Trey Mourning. Tre Campbell is a point guard candidate.

GOLDEN EAGLES PREVIEW

The Big Picture

New coach Steve Wojciechowski takes over a Marquette program that had an eight-year streak of NCAA appearances end last year. Wojciechowski comes from Duke where he was part of two national championship teams as an assistant coach and was a standout player as well. His first Marquette team will have two returning starters and six letterwinners. New faces, which include transfers, a redshirt and some freshmen are expected to contribute immediately.

Who's Back

Senior guard Derrick Wilson is the most experienced returnee with 100 career games under his belt. Last year, he averaged 5.0 points, 4.2 assists and 3.8 rebounds. He has a career assist/ turnover ratio of 2.84. Senior forward Juan Anderson averaged 3.2 points and 3.3 rebounds in 19 starts. Guard/ forward Deonte Burton made the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team after averaging 6.9 points. Six-five JaJuan Johnson played 13.5 minutes per game as a freshman and averaged 4.3 points. Forward Steve Taylor, Jr. (2.5 ppg, 2.7 rpg) and guard John Dawson (2.0 ppg) both averaged 10 minutes per game.

Who's Gone

Forward Davante Gardner won the BIG EAST Sixth Man of the Year award in each of the past two seasons. Last year, he led the team in scoring with a 14.9 average. Forward Jamil Wilson averaged 11.7 points and a teamleading 5.9 rebounds. Steady center Chris Otule averaged 5.8 points and 4.3 boards. Guard Todd Mayo bypassed his senior season to pursue a pro career. He averaged 11.3 points.

Storylines

All times are Eastern.

Contributions from newcomers will be necessary for a successful season. Scoring punch was sometimes lacking last year. Help can come from guard Matt Carlino, a transfer from BYU who is eligible immediately. He averaged 13.7 points last season for the Cougars and was an honorable mention pick in the Mountain West Conference. Center Luke Fischer, a 6-11 transfer from Indiana, will be eligible after the first semester. He will be the only Golden Eagle taller than 6-7. Guard Duane Wilson, a top recruit last year, missed last season with a knee injury. Sandy Cohen is a 6-6 freshman who will push to be noticed.

FRIARS PREVIEW

The Big Picture

Coach Ed Cooley led the Friars to the BIG EAST Tournament title last March, only the second conference crown for the Friars in league history. PC rode the production and leadership of guard Bryce Cotton and some clutch contributions from others. The Friars also made their first NCAA trip in 10 years. Cooley has to replace Cotton and two other starters, but still has three key contributors from last season and a talented point guard who missed all of last year due to injury. Add a nationally ranked recruiting class and the Friars should be a force again in the BIG EAST.

Who's Back

Forward LaDontae Henton was second in scoring last season with 14.0 points per game and first in rebounding at 7.9. He's led the Friars in rebounding all three seasons. Forward Tyler Harris and center Carson Desrosiers both enjoyed good first seasons at PC after sitting out a transfer year. Harris averaged 12.3 points and 5.1 rebounds. Desrosiers averaged 3.6 points coming off the bench and was first in blocked shots at 2.4. Kris Dunn is a sophomore guard who missed last season with a shoulder injury. A herald prep recruit, he averaged 5.7 points two seasons ago as a freshman. Senior forward Ted Bancroft is an experienced reserve.

Who's Gone

Guard Bryce Cotton was the heart and soul of last year's squad. He ranked second in the BIG EAST in scoring at 21.8 points per game and won the Dave Gavitt Trophy as the most outstanding player of The BIG EAST Tournament. He also led the nation in minutes played (39.9). Kadeem Batts was a force near the basket who averaged 12.3 points and 7.4 rebounds. He finished his career with 1,289 points and 781 rebounds. Guard Josh Fortune transferred after averaging 8.4 points.

Storylines

The Friars certainly will miss Cotton, but a healthy Dunn should give Cooley a formidable leader in the backcourt again. Henton and Harris are reliable performers and Desrosiers will be a defensive force around the basket. The Friars may be looking for some perimeter shooting. Six-seven freshman Jalen Lindsey may be able help on the outside. Redshirt freshman Rodney Bullock may be able to contribute there as well. Six-eight forward Ben Bentil and 7-2 center Patrick Chukwu will help Desrosiers up front. Kyron Cartwright and Tyree Chambers are freshmen point guard candidates.

RED STORM PREVIEW

The Big Picture

Last season, the Red Storm made their second consecutive trip to the NIT while compiling a 20-13 overall mark and a 10-8 BIG EAST record. Coach Steve Lavin should have one of the league's top and deepest backcourts, which includes All-BIG EAST First Team selection D'Angelo Harrison, to go along with a couple of experienced performers up front. St. John's will be aiming for another 20-win season, but would prefer the year to end with an NCAA appearance.

Who's Back

For the past two seasons, Harrison has led the Red Storm in scoring. Last year, he ranked fourth in the BIG EAST with a 17.5 average. Rysheed Jordan enjoyed a strong season as a freshman point guard by averaging 9.7 points and 3.0 assists. Phil Greene IV was part of what was often a three-guard lineup. He averaged 7.4 points. Another senior guard, Jamal Branch, averaged 4.5 points as a top reserve. Forward Sir'Dominic Pointer is a defensive specialist who has served in a sixth-man role. He averaged 5.9 points and 3.2 rebounds. Junior center Chris Obekpa already is SJU's all-time shot blocker. He ranked first in the BIG EAST last year with a 2.9 average.

Who's Gone

Forward JaKarr Sampson decided to pursue a professional career after two seasons. Last year, he averaged 12.8 points and 6.1 rebounds. Forward Orlando Sanchez was a part-time starter who averaged 7.4 points and 6.1 rebounds.

Storylines

All times are Eastern.

Junior college transfer forward Keith Thomas might bolster the frontcourt immediately. The 6-8 forward has a reputation as a ferocious rebounder. Forward Christian Jones, a 6-7 sophomore who sat out last season, will be vying for available playing time as well. Six-eleven Adonis Delarosa is a freshman center candidate. If the new faces can offer some help right away in the frontcourt, the Red Storm can continue their BIG EAST success.

PIRATES PREVIEW

The Big Picture

The Pirates had their ups and downs last season, but finished on a high note. As the No. 8 seed in The BIG EAST Tournament, they notched two one-point victories, a 51-50 win over ninth-seeded Butler and then pulled off the most dramatic win of the tournament when they beat top-seeded Villanova at the buzzer 64-63. A loss to Providence in the semifinals ended the Hall's season at 17-17. A very highly-rated recruiting class to go with an experienced backcourt should translate into an improved record in 2014-15.

Who's Back

Guard Sterling Gibbs is the most productive returnee. In his first season as a Pirate after transferring from Texas, Gibbs averaged 13.2 points and led the team in assists with a 4.2 average. Freshman Jaren Sina started 19 games at point guard and showed a deft shooting touch. He averaged 6.0 points and showed to be a 3-point threat. Brandon Mobley also returns in the frontcourt after averaging 7.6 points and 4.2 boards. He made 16 starts. Forward Haralds Karlis (1.8 ppg, 1.5 rpg) made 11 starts. Reserve forward Stephane Manga (3.0, 1.8) also is back.

Who's Gone

Fuquan Edwin, the BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year and one of the most versatile players in the league, graduated. He led the team in scoring at 14.5 and was first in the league in steals at 2.7. Forward Eugene Teague was a productive low-post player who averaged 11.2 points and 7.9 rebounds, which ranked third in the BIG EAST. Guard Brian Oliver averaged 10.4 points. Forward Patrik Auda averaged 9.6 points and 4.5 boards.

Storylines

Coach Kevin Willard should have plenty of options with his seven freshmen. Isaiah Whitehead is the most heralded player in the recruiting class. He is a 6-4 guard who is expected to make significant contributions. Six-nine Angel Delgado should have a prime opportunity to see some playing time close to the basket, while 6-9 Rashed Anthony redshirted last year and is expected to challenge for a major role. Guard Khadeem Carrington brings strong scoring credentials. Six-six Desi Rodriguez will push for time on the wing. A pair of 6-7 forward, Michael Nzei and 6-7 Ismael Sanongo, will push to be noticed as well.

WILDCATS PREVIEW

The Big Picture

The Wildcats return four starters from last year's team that finished 29-5 overall and won the BIG EAST regularseason title outright with a 16-2 mark. The overall win total of 29 was the second highest in school history. The 16 BIG EAST wins was a conference high for Villanova. Coach Jay Wright won his third BIG EAST Coach of the Year award. The optimism for another standout season is certainly justified.

Who's Back

Last year, the top three scorers all averaged a little over 14 points per game. Two of those players return. Senior forward JayVaughn Pinkston averaged 14.1 points and 6.1 rebounds. Guard Darrun Hilliard averaged 14.3 points and shot 41.4 percent from 3-point range. Both are seniors. Pinkston is helped up front by 6-11 junior Daniel Ochefu, who averaged 5.7 points and tied Pinkston with a 6.1 rebounding average. Ochefu and Hilliard shared the BIG EAST Most Improved Player Award last season. Guard Ryan Arcidiacono is a two-year starter entering his junior season. Last year, he was All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention after averaging 9.9 points and 3.5 assists.

Sophomore guard Josh Hart is the top candidate to grab the available starting position. Last year, the 6-5 guard averaged 7.8 points and 4.0 rebounds while making the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team. Junior guard Dylan Ennis (5.1) and sophomore forward Kris Jenkins (4.1) are top reserves.

Who's Gone

While the Wildcats lost only one starter, he was an important piece to last year's superb season. Six-six guard James Bell averaged 14.4 points and made the All-BIG EAST First Team. He also connected on 85 3-pointers, which tied for third in the BIG EAST. Reserve guard Tony Chennault (2.7 ppg) graduated.

Storvlines

BC Barclay Center; MSG Madison Square Garden; WF Wells Fargo Arena

The 2014-15 Wildcats will be a veteran group, though a pair of freshman guards, 6-7 Mikal Bridges and 6-3 Phil Booth, will push to get into coach Wright's rotation. The Wildcats' threeguard attack was extremely effective last year and should enjoy success again. Statistics help tell the story. In league games, VU was second in scoring offense (77.2), first in scoring defense (67.3), second in field goal defense (42.2 percent) and first in scoring margin (+9.9). The Wildcats had enough depth that only Arcidacono played more than 30 minutes per game. Barring injuries, VU can use the same formula in '14-15.

MUSKETEERS PREVIEW

The Big Picture

In their first season in the BIG EAST, the Musketeers continued their high level of success that has stretched over the last two decades. Xavier finished 21-13 overall and tied for third place in the league with a 10-8 mark after being picked seventh in the preseason coaches' poll. The Musketeers notched their eighth 20-win season in the last nine years and their 16th 20-win season in the last 18 years. It was also XU's eighth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last nine years. This season, coach Chris Mack will look to blend six scholarship returnees with a herald six-member freshman recruiting class.

Who's Back

Center Matt Stainbrook and point guard Dee Davis, a pair of seniors, are the returning starters. Stainbrook was All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention last season after averaging 10.6 points and a team-leading 7.4 rebounds, which ranked fifth in the BIG EAST. He was second in field goal shooting at 55.6 percent. Davis averaged 7.7 points and his 4.7 assist mark was second in the league. Jalen Reynolds, an athletic 6-9 forward, showed great promise as a freshman, averaging 3.8 points and 3.8 boards. Junior forward James Farr was a reserve who averaged 4.6 points and 3.9 rebounds. Sophomore guards Myles Davis (5.3 ppg) and Brandon Rudolph (2.6 ppg) both averaged double figures in minutes last season.

Who's Gone

Guard Semaj Christon left for the NBA after two seasons. Last year his all-around skills made him an All-BIG EAST First Team pick after he averaged 17.0 points 4.2 assists and 1.3 steals. Forward Justin Martin was a solid contributor, averaging 11.7 points and 5.2 rebounds. Forward Isaiah Philmore also was dependable, averaging 9.3 points and 5.0 rebounds.

Storylines

The Musketeers are accustomed to success and the duo of Stainbrook and Dee Davis gives Mack a solid base. Newcomers may play a significant role. Junior guard Remy Abell, a 6-4 transfer from Indiana, could earn a starting role. He is considered an elite defender. Larry Austin, Jr. is a shooting guard who may force his way into the rotation. Freshman forward Trevon Bluiett carries strong shooting credentials. Frontcourt hopefuls include 6-10 Makinde London and 6-9 Sean O'Mara. In the backcourt, two more freshmen candidates are J.P. Macura and Edmond Sumner.

All-America Selections

Five organizations have been used during BIG EAST history to name All-America selections. They are the Associated Press, United Press International, The Sporting News, United States Basketball Writers Association and the National Association of Basketball Coaches. The Sporting News replaced UPI in 1997. A total of 300 athletes have earned distinction, with the complete list below.

The championship game of the 2014 BIG EAST Tournament Presented by New York Life was a clash of old and new. The Providence Friars, an original league member, battled the Creighton Bluejays who were playing in their first season in the BIG EAST.

Both sides had plenty of support on that Saturday night in Madison Square Garden. The Bluejays brought over 3,000 fans who wanted their first taste of the BIG EAST Tournament in the World's Most Famous Arena. Friar fans flocked to New York via car and Amtrak as they always do.

In the end, Providence prevailed 65-58 for only its second BIG EAST tourney crown ever and its first in 20 years. Friar guard Bryce Cotton scored 23 points and won the Dave Gavitt Trophy as the tournament's Most Outstanding Player. Creighton's Doug McDermott, who would win every national Player of the Year award over the next few weeks, led all scorers with 27 points.

Providence, the fourth seed, advanced to the championship game by defeating No. 5 seed St. John's 79-74 in the quarterfinals and No. 8 seed Seton Hall 80-74 in the semifinals.

Second-seeded Creighton had defeated No. 10 seed DePaul 84-62 in the quarterfinals. In the semifinals, the Bluejays beat No. 3 seed Xavier 86-78.

The early rounds produced a pair of surprise results. In the first round, DePaul knocked off No. 7 Georgetown 60-56. In the quarterfinals, Seton Hall stunned No. 1 seed Villanova 64-63 on a buzzer-beating basket by guard Sterling Gibbs. It was the second one-point win for the Pirates in less than 24 hours. They edged No. 9 seed Butler 51-50 in the first round.

BIG EAST

The BIG EAST began competition in 1979-80 and immediately grabbed the national spotlight. Legendary coaches and players have made the Garden the place to be every March.
