2016 BIG EAST MEN'S BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The 2016 BIG EAST Tournament Presented by the Jeep brand will be played at Madison Square Garden in New York City March 9-12 with the first round, quarterfinals and semifinals airing on FS1 and the championship returning to network television as it is broadcasted on FOX. It will be the 34th straight year in which the Garden has hosted the championship event, making it the longest-running conference tournament at the same venue in the country.

Seeding for the four-day event will be based on regular-season finish. Seed Nos. 1-6 earn a bye to the quarterfinals, while Nos. 7-10 will square off in the first round with the two winners advancing to the quarters.

The winner of the BIG EAST Championship earns the league's automatic bid to the 68-team NCAA Championship field.

For the second straight year the BIG EAST Tournament was a clash of old and new, as the title game featured top-seeded Villanova against No. 6 seed Xavier.

Villanova has had a long tradition of success as a member of the BIG EAST Conference, but BIG EAST Tournament titles had proven to be elusive. Going into last year, the Wildcats had won only once and that was back in 1995.

Last year, Villanova came to New York as the top tourney seed with a 16-2 BIG EAST record, a second-straight regular season crown and an overall mark of 29-2.

This time, the Wildcats delivered. In the championship game at Madison Square Garden, Villanova defeated sixth-seeded Xavier 69-52. Guard Josh Hart scored 15 points and earned the Dave Gavitt Trophy as the Most Outstanding Player. For the three-game journey to the title, Hart made 21-of-29 from the floor and averaged 17.6 ppg. The winner of the BIG EAST Sixth Man Award earlier in the week, Hart became the first non-starter to be named Most Outstanding Player. Guard Dylan Ennis and forward Darrun Hilliard were the other Wildcats named to the All-Tournament Team. Xavier was represented by forward Jalen Reynolds.

Villanova advanced to the final by edging No. 4 seed Providence 63-61. Ryan Arcidiacono hit two free throws with 3.1 seconds left to give the Wildcats the victory. Xavier also advanced with a two-point win in the semifinals, holding off No. 2 seed Georgetown 65-63. The Musketeers had a 21-point lead whittled down to one, but they made five free throws in the final 10 seconds. A day earlier, the Musketeers beat No. 3 seed Butler 67-61 in overtime.

Xavier was the first No. 6 seed to make a BIG EAST Tournament final since 2009. That same year was the last time a No. 6 seed met a No. 1 seed in the title game. Xavier was the lowest team to advance to the Championship game since No. 7 Louisville in 2012.

Josh Hart was named the Dave Gavitt Trophy as the Tournament MOP, helping top-seeded Villanova to their second BIG EAST Tournament title, first since 1995.
