HISTORY AND TRADITIONS

KENTUCKY FIGHT SONG

On, on U of K,
we are right for the fight today,
Hold that ball and hit that line,
Every Wildcat star will shine,
We'll fight, fight, fight,
For the blue and white,
As we roll to that goal, varsity,
And we'll kick, pass and run,
'til the battle is won,
And we'll bring home the victory.

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

The sun shines bright
on my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corntop's ripe
and the meadow's in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.
(Chorus)
Weep no more, my lady!
Oh! Weep no more today!
We will sing one song
for my old Kentucky home,
For my old Kentucky home far away.
The young folks roll
on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy, and bright;
By-n-by hard times
come a-knocking at the door,
Then my old Kentucky home, goodnight!

UK ALMA MATER

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
Sound her praise with voice united;
To the breeze her colors fling.
To the Blue and White be true;
Badge triumphant age on age;
Blue, the sky that o'er us bends;
White, Kentucky's stainless page.

WILDCATS NICKNAME

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant Philip Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like wildcats." The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

MASCOTS

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 year at Kentucky. Gary Tanner was the original Wildcat, entertaining fans at Commonwealth Stadium, Rupp Arena and Memorial Coliseum during athletic events. Today, the Wildcat mascot also attends academic functions and generally serves as a friendly ambassador for the University. Scratch, another costumed mascot, was unveiled in August of 1996. During UK games, the Wildcat and Scratch entertain with enthusiastic dances and cheers. In the past, UK had a live wildcat mascot that has resided in the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife's Salato Wildlife Center three miles west of Frankfort on US 60. The most recent live mascot was named "Blue." Through the years, UK has had other official live mascots with colorful names. Records indicate that the first wild animal, named "Tom," was given to the University in 1921. Other live mascots followed, including "TNT," "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale" and "Colonel."

SINGING THE FIGHT SONG

Matthew Mitchell introduced a new tradition to the Kentucky women's basketball team when he became the head coach in 2007. After each victory, the Wildcats gather at mid-court and sing the UK Fight Song with the fans.

CHEER AND DANCE TEAMS

The UK Cheer and Dance programs are recognized as two of the finest programs in America. On the UK campus, they are recognized as some of the finest athletes in the University's sports programs, and as public relations ambassadors of UK and the entire Commonwealth of Kentucky. The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented 24th national cheerleading championship in 2019 at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association.

100% GRADUATION RATE

Kentucky has a 100% graduation rate under head coach Matthew Mitchell and have secured a team GPA better than 3.0 each of the last 12 semesters.

SENIOR DAY

Senior Day at Kentucky has become one of the most celebrated ceremonies in college basketball. Honoring the senior class, UK's event is one of the most elaborate and moving programs of its kind. The pregame ceremony begins with player introductions. Once they all have burst through banners bearing their likenesses, their families join them at center court. Then the state song, "My Old Kentucky Home," is sung as the home crowd bids farewell.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, however, UK students had decided on blue and light yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre College football game on December 19, 1891. The shade of blue, which is close to a royal blue, was chosen when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" At the time, Richard C. Stoll (who lettered in football at UK in 1889-94) pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students then adopted that particular shade of blue. A year later, UK students officially dropped the light yellow color for white.

THE BIG BLUE NATION

UK fans, also referred to as the Big Blue Nation, are known for the electric atmosphere they create at all athletic events. Not only do the players feed off of their energy, but opposing teams often fear the intimidating roar of the UK crowd. For the 10th straight season, the University of Kentucky women's basketball team ranked in the top 20 nationally in average attendance, sitting 18th overall with 4,767 fans per home game during the 2018-19 season. UK averaged 6,454 fans in 2015-16, which was the second-best mark in program history behind 6,727 during the 2013-14 season. Throughout 18 home games – two played inside historic Rupp Arena – Kentucky accumulated a total season attendance of 85,807, an increase over last year's previous home attendance of 82,984. Kentucky has averaged 4,500 or more fans every year since 2009-10.

UK PEP BAND

With more than 80 members, the University of Kentucky pep band is one of the largest in the nation. Performing at both home football and basketball games, the pep band has been named by Southern Living magazine as one of the "top 10 bands in the South." The Alumni Band, composed of former UK band members, also is an important part of the UK WBB experience. The Alumni Band plays at several home games each year.

- Rupp Arena is entering its 44th season.
- An awesome structure in sight and scope, the arena is divided into two seating areas. The lower level features 10,000 cushioned theater seats while the upper arena has new chairback seats on the sidelines. The latter can be visually isolated to provide more natural setting for small shows.
- The Wildcats command an exclusive and updated state-of-the-art locker room, while other amenities include six team-size dressing rooms and eight smaller units.
- In 2013-14, UK set the new single-game attendance record when 23,706 fans saw UK face No. 2 Duke in Rupp Arena on Dec. 22, 2013. The attendance marked the largest crowd ever to see a college women's hoops game in the Commonwealth — the previous mark was 22,152 for the first Kentucky-Louisville game played in the KFC Yum! Center on Dec. 5, 2010.
- In 2015-16, Kentucky packed 17,150 fans in Rupp Arena on Dec. 20 against Duke, which was the fourth-largest home crowd in program history. On Dec. 10, the Wildcats had 14,425 fans at the historic arena, which was the sixth-largest home crowd in school history.
- Kentucky will play two games inside Rupp Arena in 2019-20.

Kentucky had 15 assists on 26 made baskets and has had 15 or more assists in three of its four games this season ... Senior guard Maci Morris led all scorers with 22 points going 8-of-16 from the field with five rebounds ... This was Morris' first 20-point scoring game of the season and the 13th of her career ... Sophomore forward Keke McKinney had a season-best nine rebounds.

Notables: Kentucky shot 50 percent from the field and 52 percent from long range with 13 3-pointers ... The 13 3s made were tied for the second most 3s made in a game in program history and the first time UK has accomplished that feat since hitting 14 against Mississippi State on Jan. 8, 2012 ... Howard's seven 3-pointers in the game tied the program record for most 3s made in a game.

ALL-TIME KENTUCKY COACHES

SUE FEAMSTER • 1971-76 • 64-39 (62.1%)

Sue Feamster became UK's first head women's basketball coach of the modern era when the program regained its varsity status in 1974. Women's basketball had been a varsity sport at UK from 1903 until 1925, when the University senate passed a bill abolishing the sport for being "too strenuous" for females. Feamster began coaching the UK women in 1971-72, when the squad earned a 10-3 record, and remained head coach as the squad rolled up a 26-15 record over the next two seasons. After women's basketball became a varsity sport, Feamster helped the program to a fast start, passing along to incoming coach Debbie Yow a squad that included All-American Pam Browning, who still holds several spots in the UK record book, and standout Ceal Barry.

DEBBIE YOW • 1976-80 • 79-40 (66.4%)

In the last year of her four seasons at Kentucky, Debbie Yow's Wildcats stormed to a 24-5 record and earned the school's first trip to the national playoffs — then the Association of Intercollegiate Women's Athletics Tournament. It was clear then that both Yow and the UK women's program were primed for success. And just as the Cats continued to earn postseason berths, Yow's career remained on the fast track as well. Yow enjoyed a successful coaching stint at Florida and subsequent athletics administration positions at Florida and UNC-Greensboro. She then became Athletics Director at St. Louis, and from 1994-2010, was AD at Maryland. She served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Athletics Directors.

TERRY HALL • 1980-87 • 138-66 (67.6%)

Terry Hall held the laudable distinction of being the winningest coach in UK women's basketball history as well as owning the best winning percentage of any coach to guide the program. Hall coached the Cats to seven straight winning seasons, starting with a 25-6 record and a trip to the second round of the AIAW national tournament before falling by one point to Maryland to end the 1980-81 season. The NCAA welcomed women's basketball into its ranks the following year, and that historical season ended with the Cats failing to eventual national champion Louisiana Tech in the Midwest Regional finals on the Lady Techsters' home floor. After the Cats failed to make the NCAA tournament in 1986-87, Hall left coaching for the business sector. But three years later, she accepted the head coaching job at Wright State, where she coached for seven years before succumbing to cancer in 1997.

SHARON FANNING • 1987-95 • 134-97 (58%)

Sharon Fanning guided the Cats through eight seasons and despite a dubious beginning that saw her squad record back-to-back losing seasons, she never suffered another losing season. In just her third year, Fanning coached the Wildcats to an impressive 23-8 record while also edging them into the top 25. UK won three tournament titles in 1989-90, including an 85-76 come-from-behind victory over Toledo in the NWIT Championship. The following season, the Wildcats advanced to the NCAA Tournament, UK's first appearance in the Big Dance in five years. Prior to her stint at UK, Fanning was a graduate assistant at Tennessee and a head coach at UT-Chattanooga. Since leaving UK, she was the head coach at Mississippi State University before retiring following the 2011-12 season.

BERNADETTE MATTOX • 1995-2003 • 91-135 (40.2%)

Bernadette Mattox spent eight seasons at the helm of the Wildcats basketball program. She began her coaching career at her alma mater, Georgia, but became a household name in Kentucky and across the nation when she was hired by former Wildcats coach Rick Pitino as the first female Division I assistant "bench" coach for a men's team in 1990. She was promoted to assistant athletics director at Kentucky for one year before taking over the UK women's program in 1995. Her most notable season came in 1998-99, when she led the Cats to their first 20-plus win season and first appearance in the NCAA Tournament in nearly a decade. The Cats won their first NCAA Tournament game in 17 years, finished with a 21-11 overall record and captured seven wins in the SEC, the most conference wins in school history at the time. After leaving UK in 2003, Mattox served 10 seasons as an assistant coach for the WNBA's Connecticut Sun.

MICKIE DEMOSS • 2003-07 • 71-56 (55.9%)

Mickie DeMoss will best be remembered as the architect who took over a struggling program in 2003 and in just a short amount of time rebuilt UK women's basketball back into a national contender. During her tenure the Wildcats participated in postseason play three consecutive seasons (one NCAA Tournament and two WNIT) and captured back-to-back 20-win seasons (2005-06 and 2006-07) for the first time since the 1989-90 and 1990-91 teams accomplished the feat. DeMoss was named the 2006 SEC Coach of the Year, a UK first, after guiding the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in seven seasons. The Cats posted a 22-9 overall record in 2005-06, including a school-record nine conference wins and Kentucky made national headlines when it defeated No. 1 Tennessee in Rupp Arena. It was UK's first win over a top-ranked team in school history. DeMoss also drastically increased fan attendance, as UK ranked in the top three of the SEC and top 20 in the national average attendance poll all four of her seasons. UK went from averaging 1,694 fans prior to her arrival in 2003 to breaking the school record with 5,863 fans per game in her final season. Since leaving UK, DeMoss has served as an assistant coach at Texas, Tennessee, Louisiana Tech, LSU and for the WNBA's Indiana Fever. She was enshrined in the WBB Hall of Fame in 2018.

MATTHEW MITCHELL • 2007-PRES • 281-125 (69.2%)

Matthew Mitchell's teams are known for using three "winning tools" for success: honesty, hard work and discipline. So it's no surprise that six seasons into his tenure as head coach he became the winningest head coach in program history. Mitchell became Kentucky's head coach on April 23, 2007, when he was hired by Barnhart. An imaginative salesman, Mitchell presented a vision of Kentucky as a powerhouse program and a warm and loving family. Year three (2009-10) was a pivotal season, as Mitchell was named SEC Coach of the Year for his remarkable job in turning around a team that went 16-16 overall, 5-9 in conference play a year prior, to an impressive 28-8 overall record in 2009-10. The Cats' 28 overall wins, including 11 in SEC play, represented a school record. UK finished second in the league despite being picked to finish 11th in the preseason polls. Mitchell's focus on the fundamentals and his "winning tools" is sure to bring continued success to his program that has reached new heights under his leadership. In his tenure in Lexington, UK has advanced to the SEC Tournament semifinals or better nine times. In 2012, Mitchell led UK to the SEC regular season championship, its first in 30 years. Under Mitchell, the Cats have finished top four in the SEC 11 times and have charted 25-plus wins seven seasons. Mitchell was named the SEC Coach of the Year by league coaches in 2018-19 after guiding the Wildcats to a 25-8 season and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

RETIRED JERSEY - VALERIE STILL

UK's All-Time Leading Scorer and Rebounder, UK Hall of Fame Charter Class

Some programs have a once-in-a-lifetime player who serves as a standard for all future student-athletes. An exceptional personality. An outstanding role model. A great basketball player. For Kentucky, that player is Valerie Still.

Although Still played long ago (1979-83), she remains the "Top Cat" in UK women's basketball annals. She was honored as such on Jan. 12, 2003 with a jersey retirement ceremony at halftime of the Alabama game. She became the first female letter winner in any UK sport to have her jersey retired.

Still is the leader among all Wildcats (men or women) for career scoring (2,763) and rebounding (1,525). She was a three-time consensus All-American. She led the program in scoring four-straight seasons with a career average of 23.2 points. At one point during the 1981-82 season, she led the nation in both scoring and rebounding before finishing second in both categories (24.8 ppg and 14.3 rpg).

She led the Cats to their highest national ranking (4th) in 1983 and helped UK roll up a 30-game home court win streak from 1980-82.

In 1983, Still led the sixth-ranked Cats to an 80-66 upset over powerhouse Old Dominion before a record crowd of 10,622 in UK's Memorial Coliseum.

After leaving Kentucky, Still had a successful career in the Italian Professional League. While in Italy, Still was a television actress and hosted her own TV show, "Still Basket." She is also an accomplished print model and a professional caliber jazz, pop and concert pianist.

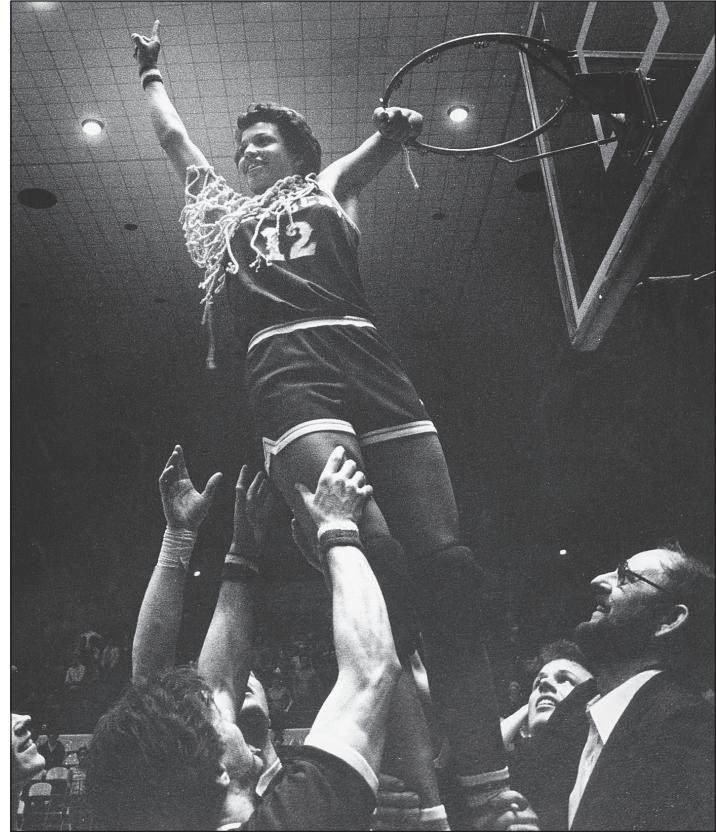

Upon her return to the United States, Still became a charter member of the American Basketball League for Women and was a two-time MVP of the ABL Championship Series. Still later played for the Washington Mystics of the WNBA before retiring from basketball. She also was an assistant coach for the Orlando Miracle for two seasons.

Still returned to Lexington to complete her degree in animal sciences and graduated with honors in 2001. She went on to earn a master's degree in African American and African studies at The Ohio State University and is working on a doctorate dissertation from there as well.

In September 2005, Still was inducted into the charter class in the newly created UK Athletics Hall of Fame. She was the only female of the 88 inductees.

In the summer of 2019, Still was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame becoming the first Wildcat player to be enshrined in those historic halls.

Still currently lives in Palmyra, N.J. with her son, Aaron, who is attending the Naval Academy Preparatory School. Recently, Still has starred in OWN's "Mom's Got Game" a reality show which explores the relationship with former WNBA basketball star Pamela McGee and her 25-year-old son, Denver Nuggets center, JaVale McGee. She also owns a publishing company, STILL Publications. One of her first projects was the release of UK legendary sports writer Russell Rice's latest book on UK basketball, "Big Blue Nation: Kentucky's Native Sons and Daughters."

Note: Beginning with the 1985-86 season, the USA Today/ESPN poll has selected its Top 25 teams after the NCAA championship game. USA Today's voting panel consists of 40 coaches representing a geographical mix of the nation and representing each of the nine Women's Basketball Coaches Association's districts. In 1993, USA Today joined with Cable News Network (CNN) to compile the poll. In 1998, ESPN replaced CNN as USA Today's partner in compiling the poll.

CATS IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

KENTUCKY AND THE SEC

Women's basketball first came under the auspices of the Southeastern Conference for the 1982-83 season. Games played between SEC teams before that time are not counted in the all-time SEC standings, since there was no uniform number of conference games played each season prior to that time. From 1980-85, the SEC champion was the winner of the SEC Tournament. Since 1986, the SEC champion has been determined by a round robin schedule. The tournament continues to be held to decide the recipient of the league's automatic NCAA tournament bid.

Eleven Kentucky players have been named to the SEC All-Tournament team:

Valerie Still (1980, 1981, 1982*)

Patty Jo Hedges (1982)

Jodie Whitaker (1988)

Stacy McIntyre (1992)

Victoria Dunlap (2010, 2011)

A'dia Mathies (2010, 2012, 2013)

Keyla Snowden (2012)

Jennifer O'Neill (2014)

DeNesha Stallworth (2014)

Makayla Epps (2015, 2016, 2017)

Evelyn Akhator (2017)

KENTUCKY WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TIMELINE

Kentucky women's basketball has been recognized as having a spirited and winning tradition. It was in the early 1900s that women began playing the new game on "Miss Nettie's Lawn" in Lexington ... and so the tradition continues.

1902 — The very first University of Kentucky basketball team was organized. Women's basketball begins on the UK campus with its first game on Feb. 21, 1903.

1904 — C.P. St. John coached the 1904 team, leading it to a 2-0 record with victories vs. Georgetown (14-10) and Jessamine Female Institute (28-1).

1903 — The 1903 UK women's basketball team was coached by Jane Todd Watson, finishing 1-0 by defeating KU (now Transylvania), 16-10.

1924 — The University Senate passed a bill to abolish women's basketball in part because according to state politicians basketball had proven to be a strenuous sport for boys and therefore was too strenuous for girls.

1974 — After a 50-year absence, at the turn of the 70s, women's teams at UK once again began playing intercollegiate games.

1974 — Sue Feamster coached UK from 1971-74 before it gained varsity status in 1974. Women's basketball finally reached varsity status and the team is given the nickname "Lady Cats."

1976 — Feamster handed over the coaching reins to Debbie Yow, who compiled a 79-40 record in four seasons from 1976-1980. In 1979, Yow recruited Valerie Still, Patty Jo Hedges and Lea Wise, one of the best recruiting classes in UK women's basketball history.

1980 — Terry Hall arrived at UK in 1980 and was named the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference Coach of the Year in her first season at UK.

1983 — With the talented trio of Hedges, Still and Wise, Kentucky was ranked fourth twice during the '82-83 season and broke the national record for attendance at a women's collegiate game when 10,622 fans saw the Cats defeat Old Dominion, 80-66, in Memorial Coliseum on Feb. 5, 1983.

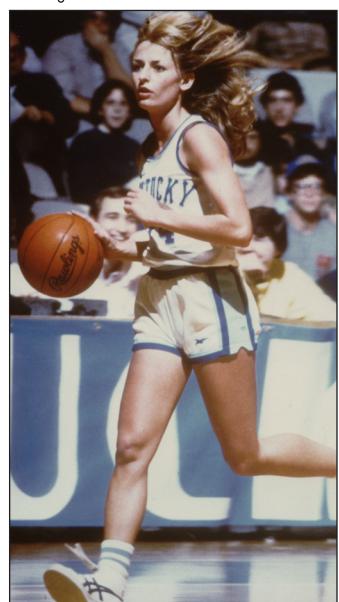

1979 — The Lady Kats upset second-ranked Tennessee, 66-64, before 4,500 fans in Memorial Coliseum. The attendance got a big boost when the much-anticipated game between the school's men's teams later that evening was canceled because of snow.

1982 — The Cats captured the SEC Tournament title for the first time in school history with an 80-74 victory over Tennessee. Following the game, the huge home crowd stormed the court in a celebration that lasted nearly 30 minutes.

1982 — Lea Wise hit 15-of-16 outside shots against Illinois in an NCAA playoff game, helping the Cats win, 88-80. Wise, a Lexington product, also led the team in autograph and photo requests because of her flashy and productive court play and her resemblance to actress Farrah Fawcett.

1983 — Valerie Still became the all-time leading scorer (among men and women) in Kentucky basketball history with 2,763 points in 119 games, a record that still stands.

2016 — Senior forward Evelyn Akhator started the 2016-17 season off in style with four straight double-doubles becoming only the sixth player in program history to record four straight double-doubles in a single season. Akhator ended her career with 31 double-doubles to rank tied for third most in program history overall. She also ended her career second all-time in rebounding average (10.1) and eighth all-time in scoring average (13.7).

2016 — Behind 30 points from Makayla Epps and an impressive team field-goal percentage of .492 the Wildcats took down No. 12 Oklahoma inside Memorial Coliseum as part of the SEC/Big 12 Challenge.

2017 — Kentucky was tabbed a No. 4 seed in the 2017 NCAA Tournament, marking its school-record eighth straight appearance in the event. UK was also selected to host the first and second rounds inside Memorial Coliseum for the fourth straight season.

2017

Makayla Epps ended her UK career with 1,790 points, which ranked fifth most in program history.

2017 — #ONE to Remember: Behind seniors Makayla Epps and Evelyn Akhator, UK defeated No. 3 Mississippi State on Senior Night inside Memorial Coliseum. The seniors scored 28 of the team's final 30 points, including an offensive putback by Epps with seconds left in overtime. The win was Kentucky's eighth straight win on Senior Night and the second time in the last three seasons that UK has defeated a top-three team on Senior Night.

2018 — Three impressive wins over South Florida, UCLA and North Carolina gave the Wildcats the 2019 Paradise Jam championship and set the tone throughout the nation that the Wildcats were back in a big way.

2019 — Kentucky returned to the NCAA Tournament after a year absence and earned the No. 6 seed in the Greensboro region. UK defeated Princeton in the first round before falling to NC State in Raleigh, N.C.

March 2019 — Rhyne Howard busted onto the national scene by becoming the unanimous national freshman of the year after earning the honor from the USBWA, WBCA and espnW. Howard became only the second freshman in program history to lead the Wildcats in scoring and rebounding, joining former UK All-American Valerie Still. Howard earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors a league-record eight times during the season.

2019 — Valerie Still became the first Kentucky women's basketball players to be inducted into the WBB Hall of Fame. Ceal Barry and Mickie DeMoss were inducted in the 2018 class. Barry played at UK but was inducted because of her coaching career.

SEC CREDENTIAL POLICY

By accepting or using a media credential ("Credential") for access to any game or athletic contest sponsored or hosted by the Southeastern Conference (the "SEC") or by any one or more of its member institutions (herein an "Event" or the "Events") each person and entity issued such a Credential (herein referred to, along with the employer of each such person, collectively as a "Bearer") agrees to the following terms and conditions:

GENERAL

Each Bearer must be and hereby represents that he or she is acting on a specific assignment for an accredited media agency and has a legitimate working function in connection with the Event attended. The Credential is not transferable and may be revoked at any time.

The rights and privileges granted to Bearer may be terminated if any term or condition for use of the Credential is breached. The unauthorized use of the Credential subjects the Bearer to ejection from the Event.

While within the Event venue, Bearer shall, at all times, adhere to the policies in place for the Event, abide by and respect access limitations, and accept and follow directions provided by the SEC or the SEC member institution(s) hosting the Event.

Bearer assumes all risks incidental to the performance by the Bearer of Bearer's services in connection with the Event and assumes all risks incidental to each Event, whether occurring before, during or after the actual playing of the Event, and agrees that the SEC, its member institutions, and their respective agents, employees, directors, officers, student-athletes, coaches, and contractors shall not be liable for bodily injury, property damage or theft losses suffered or incurred by Bearer at the Event.

Bearer understands that sports contests are physical, and that in the normal course of play it is possible for balls, players, or other objects to leave the court, track, course, or field of play and impact spectators. Bearer hereby waives and releases any and all Claims (as defined below) against the SEC and its member institutions arising directly or indirectly from any such injury, including those attributable to their negligence or that of their agents.

In the event that the name or likeness of Bearer is included in any broadcast, telecast, photograph, film, video or other media taken in connection with any Event, Bearer grants the SEC (or, if the media is controlled by a SEC member, grants such SEC member) the nonexclusive, transferable, perpetual right and license to use (and to sub-license the use of) such name and likeness in any media worldwide whether now known or thereafter devised.

Bearer agrees to indemnify and save harmless the SEC, its member institutions, and their respective agents, employees, directors, officers, student-athletes, coaches, and contractors, of and from any and all claims, liabilities, demands and causes of action asserted by persons and entities other than the SEC and its member institutions (jointly "Claims") arising out of any act or omission, or anything done or purported to have been done, by Bearer, including but not limited to Claims arising from Bearer's breach of any term or condition hereof. With respect to any Claim that might give rise to liability of the Bearer as an indemnitor, the indemnified party shall: (a) have the right to fully participate in the litigation of such claim with counsel selected by the indemnified party at the sole expense of the Bearer, and (b) not be obligated, without its consent, to participate in any settlement of such Claim.

SEC REAL-TIME INTERNET POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed halftime story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.
