PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

TOP 10 IN ESPN WAY-TOO-EARLY TOP 25

- Tennessee rose from No. 12 on May 2 to No. 9 in the Sept. 28 update of ESPN's "Way-Too-Early" Preseason Top 25.
- That movement came after the spring news that Tamari Key was back on the court after missing most of 2022-23 due to a medical condition and that two-time All-ACC performer Jewel Spear had transferred in from Wake Forest.
- Tennessee also was ranked No. 12 this fall by The Athletic and was No. 10 in CBS Sports' April assessment.

HEADING INTO 2023-24 WITH MOMENTUM

- UT returns eight veterans from a squad that navigated growing pains and a brutal schedule to finish 25-12 overall (13-3 SEC, 3rd/NCAA Sweet 16) in 2022-23.
- The Lady Vols are one of only seven programs advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16 in each of the past two seasons.
- Tennessee is the only school besides South Carolina to card top-three SEC finishes in each of the past four years.
- Kellie Harper guided the Big Orange past LSU and into the 2023 SEC Tournament title game, marking the program's first appearance since 2015.
- Top scorer Rickea Jackson (2023 Cheryl Miller Award Finalist) and UT's all-time blocks queen Tamari Key (2022 Lisa Leslie Award Finalist), both All-SEC players, return.
- UT's transfer class is ranked No. 6 by 247Sports, via a No. 7 rating for Jewel Spear and No. 19 spot for Destinee Wells.
- ESPN has Spear and Wells slotted at No. 4 & No. 15, respectively, in its portal rankings.

SIX RETURN WITH STARTING EXPERIENCE

- Tennessee welcomes back a veteran nucleus, with upperclassmen Tess Darby (35), Karoline Striplin (28), Rickea Jackson (24), Sara Puckett (15), Jasmine Powell (11) and Tamari Key (9) combining for 122 starts last season and amassing a total of 466 during their careers.
- Key departed after nine games in 2022-23 due to blood clots in her lungs, but she returned to practice in June 2023 ahead of UT's European Tour. She practiced but did not play in two games vs. all-star teams.
- Averaging 8.4 ppg. and 4.2 rpg., Key was UT's third-leading scorer and fourth-leading rebounder despite her condition last season.

- Darby (7.4), Jillian Hollingshead (6.2, 36 games but zero starts) and the trio of Powell, Striplin, Puckett were next, all at 4.7 ppg. Powell distributed 3.1 apg.

DISPLAYING PORTAL POWER

- Kellie Harper and her staff have recruited the transfer portal very successfully, and spring 2023 was no exception.
- The Lady Vols added seniors Jewel Spear (Wake Forest) and Destinee Wells (Belmont), who each have a COVID year option they could use for 2024-25.
- UT also welcomed sophomores Avery Strickland (Pitt) and Talaysia Cooper (South Carolina).
- Spear (32), Wells (35) and Strickland (11), who are eligible to play this season, combined for 78 starts last season and bring 189 total career starting nods to UT.
- Cooper, who made her transfer destination decision after the NCAA portal closed, is able to practice this season but must sit out the season due to that timing. Cooper played in 24 games last season for the Gamecocks.
- Last year's transfer portal class including Rickea Jackson (Mississippi State), Jasmine Powell (Minnesota) and Jillian Hollingshead (Georgia). All three made immediate impacts a year ago, and Jackson was the SEC's third-leading scorer at 19.2 ppg.

FIVE ALL-CONFERENCE HONOREES

- Tennessee has five players on its roster who have earned all-conference honors here or at their previous schools.
- Forward Rickea Jackson is a three-time WBCA All-America Honorable Mention choice, two-time All-SEC & SEC All-Tournament honoree and 2023 Cheryl Miller Award finalist.
- Center Tamari Key is a 2022 Lisa Leslie Award & Naismith Defensive Player of the Year finalist, All-SEC Second Team member & two-time SEC All-Defensive Team choice.
- Guard Jewel Spear was a two-time All-ACC and ACC All-Tournament honoree during three seasons at Wake Forest.
- Point guard Destinee Wells was a three-time first-team all-league pick (twice OVC, then MVC in 2022-23) at Belmont.
- Guard Jasmine Powell was Coaches All-Big Ten Second Team at Minnesota in 2020-21.

REPPING THE USA AT FIBA AMERICUP

- Tennessee standouts Rickea Jackson and Jewel Spear represented the United States at the 2023 FIBA Women's AmeriCup in Leon, Mexico, from July 1-9.
- Spear and Jackson were part of the youngest team in the AmeriCup tournament with an average age of 20, and they helped that squad capture a silver medal.
- Jackson (14.6 ppg.) finished the competition averaging a team-leading 14.6 points and 4.9 rebounds per game.
- Her scoring average was fourth among the 109 players who saw action in the tournament, earning her a spot in the AmeriCup All-Star Five.
- Jackson's 102 points were the second most in USA AmeriCup history behind Lisa Leslie (129, 7 games, 1993).
- Spear produced 5.6 ppg. and 1.4 apg. while leading the USA in three-pointers with 10 in just seven contests. She did so after signing with Tennessee on May 5.
- The two were roommates at the USA Trials in Colorado Springs and at the AmeriCup in Mexico, helping them begin building a bond that will benefit the Lady Vols this season.

TENNESSEE BY THE NUMBERS

- UT returns 1,798 of 2,852 points (63 percent) from 2022-23 and welcomes 1,417 in production from its three active newcomers for a combined sum of 3,215.

Rickea Jackson averaged 19.2 ppg. in all games and 21.4 ppg. in SEC contests during her first season at Tennessee in 2022-23.

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK (CONTINUED)

- The Big Orange women welcome back 147 of 198 three-pointers and bring aboard three transfers expected to play this season in Spear, Strickland and Wells. They combined for 197 last year for a 344 tally between their numbers and UT's returning sum.
- The Lady Vols welcome back 466 career starts and bring aboard 189 career starts from their active newcomers for a total of 655.
- Tennessee returns 849 of 1,463 individual rebounds (58 percent) and welcomes an additional 279 from its active transfers, totaling 1,128.

OPENING WITH A RECORD FOUR 1K SCORERS

- Tennessee finished the 2022-23 season with its most ever 1,000-point scorers (5). That group included Rickea Jackson (1,756), Jordan Walker (1,359), Jordan Horston (1,445), Jasmine Franklin (1,279) and Jasmine Powell (1,046).
- UT now has had three or more 1,000-point scorers at season's end on 13 occasions and four or more twice.
- It could match that UT record again in 2023-24, as Jackson and Powell return and are joined by Destinee Wells (1,613) and Jewel Spear (1,385), while Tamari Key is within striking distance at 881.
- That foursome of Jackson, Wells, Spear and Powell marks the first time Tennessee has entered a season with four 1,000-point scorers on its roster, the 10th time with two or more and the second time with three or more.

EXPECTED IMPROVEMENT BEYOND THE ARC

- Tennessee returns 147 three-pointers from a year ago, led by senior Tess Darby's 70.
- That total is the No. 9 single-season total in school history.
- Other top three-point shooters include Sara Puckett (26, 32.1 pct.), Jasmine Powell (19, 26.8 pct.), Rickea Jackson (16, 31.4 pct.) and Karoline Striplin (12, 38.7 pct.).
- Tennessee welcomes a transfer trio that tallied a combined 197 threes in 2022-23 and would have ranked first, third and fourth on last year's Lady Vol squad. All three led their schools in threes made a year ago.
- Jewel Spear hit 93 (35.4 pct.) at Wake Forest last season, Destinee Wells made 65 (45.5 pct.) at Belmont, and Avery Strickland knocked down 39 (33.9 pct.) at Pitt.
- UT's notable graduation losses from beyond the arc include Jordan Horston (20, 27.8 pct.) and Jordan Walker (16, 25.4%).

TESS IS ACCURATE FROM LONG RANGE

- Tess Darby has hit three-pointers at a .394 clip in her career (126-320), ranking No. 7 all-time at Tennessee.
- Her career sum of 126 treys stands just outside the UT top 10 (133 is No. 10).
- She connected on 40.9 percent (70-171) of her treys a year ago to card UT's second-best rate over the past 12 seasons.
- That percentage ranked No. 3 in the SEC in 2022-23.
- Her 70 makes last season stand as the ninth-best total in UT women's hoops history.

WHERE THEY STAND ON SEC LISTS

- Rickea Jackson ranks No. 1 in scoring (1,756), No. 7 in rebounding (569) and No. 7 in double-doubles (10) on the SEC's active career lists.
- Tamari Key stands No. 1 in blocked shots (295), No. 1 in triple-doubles (2), No. 3 in rebounds (601) and No. 4 in double-doubles (15).
- On the SEC all-time lists, Key enters 2023-24 ranked No. 9 in career blocks (295). Her season total of 119 in 2021-22 stands No. 4, and she owns the No. 3 (11) and No. 4 (10) single-game highs ever recorded by SEC players.

Tess Darby, who connected at a 40.9 percent clip, drained 70 three-pointers last year for the No. 9 single-season total in UT history.

TWO AMONG 2022-23 EFFICIENCY LEADERS

- UT's Rickea Jackson and Destinee Wells both ranked in the top 10 last season in offensive efficiency among high-volume scorers (minimum 18 possessions per game).
- Jackson was tied for third with Caitlin Clark and Angel Reese for points per possession at 1.05 (18.1 possessions per game/19.2 points per game).
- Only Villanova's Maddy Siegrist (1.12 PPP) and Murray State's Katelyn Young (1.09 PPP) had higher efficiency. Siegrist is now in the WNBA, while Young is back at MSU.
- Wells ranked eighth on the list at 1.01 PPP (19.1 POS/G & 19.5 PPG) while playing for Belmont last season.

TABLE IS SET FOR BIG SEASON BY RICKEA

- Rickea Jackson is a three-time All-America honorable mention selection and a three-time member of watch lists for the Cheryl Miller Award, Wade Trophy, Wooden Award Top 25 and Jersey Mike's Naismith Trophy Watch Lists.
- The Tennessee senior, who is playing for the same college head coach in back-to-back seasons for the first time, should be in the conversation for national and league player of the year as well as consensus All-America distinction.
- Last season she was a top-five finalist for the Cheryl Miller Award, an honorable mention All-American by WBCA, US-BWA and AP, and an All-SEC First Team selection by the coaches, AP and the USA TODAY Sports Network.
- Jackson finished third in the SEC last season at 19.2 points per game in all contests and second in league games at 21.4 ppg. LSU's Angel Reese (23.0/23.1) is the only SEC player returning who tallied higher scoring averages.
- Jackson's points average ranks fifth all-time by a senior at UT and also qualifies as the No. 5 career scoring average.
- She shot career bests of 54.8 percent from the field and 79.2 percent from the free-throw line in 2022-23.

JACKSON STACKING UP 20s

- Rickea Jackson accumulated 16 games of 20 points or more in 2022-23, ranking No. 9 at UT for most in a season and tying Jordan Horston for eighth-most in a career.
- She logged eight straight contests of 20+ points from Feb.

6 to March 4, surpassing seven-game efforts by Candace Parker (2006-07) and Bridgette Gordon (1987-88).

- The only Lady Vol with more consecutive 20+ point performances in a row is four-time All-American Chamique Holdscrow, who strung nine together in 1997-98.

KEY ONCE AGAIN PATROLLING THE PAINT

- After missing all but nine games a year ago due to blood clots being discovered in her lungs, 6-foot-6 redshirt senior Tamari Key looks to provide interior presence on both ends of the floor.
- Key was a 2021-22 Lisa Leslie Award top-five finalist and All-SEC Second Team selection by the coaches and the USA TODAY Sports Network, and she is a two-time SEC All-Defensive Team choice (2020-21 & 2021-22).
- She is UT's all-time record holder for blocks in a career (295), career blocks per game (2.98) triple-doubles in a career (2), blocks in a season (119, 2021-22), season blocks per game (3.50) and triple-doubles in a season (1, 2020-21 & 2021-22).
- She has UT's No. 2 (11) single-game blocks high as well as the No. 3, 4, 5, 6 and 9 sums as well.
- Offensively, Key has shot 59.3 pct. for her career to rank No. 4 all-time at Tennessee.
- Key averaged 8.4 ppg., 4.2 rpg. and 2.0 bpg. while shooting 66.7 percent from the field in 2022-23 before being sidelined. She put up 10.5/8.1/3.5/58.1 in 2021-22.

LADY VOL ROSTER NOTES

- After having 16 players on Tennessee's largest roster in modern history a year ago, Kellie Harper has assembled a squad of 13 in 2023-24.
- Twelve players will be active this season, while sophomore South Carolina transfer Talaysia Cooper will redshirt after opting to sign with Tennessee after the NCAA's transfer portal window had closed.
- Tess and Edie Darby (Greenfield, Tenn.) will play alongside one another for the second season. They are the second set of sisters to play basketball at Tennessee but the first to play on the same team.
- Amanda (1998-2002) and Abby Canon (2004-05) of Shelbyville, Tenn., were the first sister duo to represent the Big Orange, playing for Pat Summitt.
- Amanda Canon played on the 1998-99 Tennessee team, which included then-senior Kellie (Jolly) Harper.
- Tennessee has four players from the Volunteer State on the roster, including Tess and Edie Darby (Greenfield/GHS), Avery Strickland (Knoxville/Farragut H.S.) and Destinee Wells (Lakeland/Houston H.S.).
- Kaiya Wynn lived in Tennessee (Nashville) and attended Ensworth High School before her family moved to Texas for her senior year of high school. She lived in Richmond, Texas, and graduated from Foster High School.

HARPER IN YEAR FIVE AT ALMA MATER

- Kellie Harper enters year five at Tennessee and season 20 overall within range of 100 wins on Rocky Top and 400 for her career. She starts 2023-24 with an 88-39 mark while at UT and a 373-247 record overall.
- Harper has led her teams to 15 postseason bids in 19 years (8 NCAA/7 WNIT) through 2022-23, including a perfect three-for-three on NCAA bids while in Knoxville.
- She led UT to back-to-back NCAA Sweet 16s in 2021-22 and 2022-23, making her one of only seven coaches nationwide to do that in each of the past two seasons.
- Harper (MSU 2019/UT 2022 & 2023) is one of only 10 NCAA DI coaches to make three or more appearances in the NCAA Sweet 16 since the 2018-19 Big Dance, one of only six females to do so and the youngest of those six.

Tamari Key is Tennessee's all-time leader in blocked shots (295), but she also has hit 59.3 percent of her career field goal attempts.

- She has piloted her squads to 15 top-three league finishes and four conference tourney titles along the way, including four straight third-place SEC finishes at Tennessee.
- Her past two teams won 25 games, including a 25-9/11-5 SEC record in 2021-22 and a 25-12/13-3 SEC worksheet in 2022-23, despite losing All-SEC performers and game-changers Jordan Horston and Tamari Key in back-to-back campaigns for medical reasons.
- The Lady Vols' 13 SEC wins a year ago were the most since 2014-15, they recorded 25 victories in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15, and they advanced to the SEC Tournament title game for the first time since 2015.
- Harper is 43-18 in SEC games while on Rocky Top, ranking third in winning percentage in league games behind only LSU's Kim Mulkey and South Carolina's Dawn Staley. Harper and Staley are the only coaches to guide their teams to top-three SEC finishes in each of the past four seasons.
- Tennessee's 18-1 start in 2021-22 was its best since 2007-08. UT also defeated five ranked teams for the most since 2017-18, topping its total of five from Harper's first two seasons in Knoxville combined.
- One of only two skippers to guide four different programs to the NCAA Tournament, the 1999 UT graduate and three-time national champion point guard joined Jim Foster in that select company in 2020-21. She has done so while reshaping programs at Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and now Tennessee.

KEY LOSSES FROM A YEAR AGO

- Three key performers departed after the 2022-23 season, including four-year starter Jordan Horston and three-year starter Jordan Walker.
- Horston (15.6 ppg., 6.1 rpg., 3.3 apg.), a two-time All-SEC and All-America Honorable Mention choice, was the No. 9 pick in the WNBA Draft.
- Walker (5.7 ppg., 3.2 apg.) graduated with two master's degrees after starting 77 games over her three seasons in Knoxville following two seasons at Western Michigan.
- Reserve Jasmine Franklin exhausted her eligibility after one season at UT, putting up 4.5 ppg. and 3.8 rpg. while shooting 49 pct. in 35 games.

THE HARPER FILE

Born: May 3, 1977

Education:

White County High School (Sparta, Tenn.); '95
B.S. (Math), Tennessee, '99

Playing Career:

Tennessee ('95-'99): Three-time NCAA champion point guard, All-SEC Second Team & H.M. All-American in '99, All-Final Four '97 & '98

Family:

Spouse: Jon Harper Children: Jackson, Kiley

Classy. Personable. Trustworthy. Intentional. Proficient. Determined. Those are just a few of the adjectives that aptly describe fifth-year Tennessee head coach Kellie Harper. Her array of impressive traits has been on full display in leading one of only seven programs to make NCAA Sweet 16 appearances in each of the past two seasons.

Also one of only two skippers to guide four different programs to the NCAA Tournament, the 1999 UT graduate and three-time national champion point guard joined Jim Foster in that select company in 2020-21. She did so while reshaping programs at Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and Tennessee. Foster accomplished that feat during stops at St. Joseph's, Vanderbilt, Ohio State and Chattanooga during a career lasting from 1978 to 2018.

The respect for Harper's leadership capabilities, basketball acumen and development of the UT program has been underscored by her selection to the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Team Committee, upon which she is serving from 2021-24. It was further underscored in 2022-23, when USA TODAY Sports Network voted her as its Preseason SEC Coach of the Year.

In 19 complete years as a Division I head coach, Harper has led her teams to a 373-247 record and 15 postseason appearances (8 NCAA/7 WNIT) through the 2022-23 campaign. She has piloted her squads to 15 top-three league finishes and four conference tourney titles along the way, and in 2022-23 she led a team to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the third time in the past four seasons the event was held, including her final unit at Missouri State and her past two editions at Tennessee.

During her first four years on Rocky Top, Harper has led the program on a steady return toward lofty heights. Her past two teams won 25 games, including a 25-9/11-5 SEC record in 2021-22 and a 25-12/13-3 SEC worksheet in 2022-23, despite losing All-SEC performers and game-changers Jordan Horston and Tamari Key in back-to-back campaigns. The Lady Vols' 13 SEC wins a year ago were the most since 2014-15, and they recorded 25 victories in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15.

In 2022-23, Tennessee remained the only school perfect in NCAA Tournament berths, notching its 41st appearance. It also made its first trip to the SEC Tournament championship game since 2015, defeating #4/3 LSU in the semifinals and falling to #1/1 South Carolina during the title game in Greenville, S.C.

Harper is 88-39 overall and 43-18 vs. SEC competition during a quick makeover on Rocky Top, ranking third in winning percentage in league games behind only LSU's Kim Mulkey and South Carolina's Dawn Staley. Harper and Staley are the only SEC coaches to guide their teams to top-three SEC finishes in each of the past four seasons.

"Including her tenure at Missouri State, Kellie has guided her teams to three of the past four NCAA Sweet 16s," University of Tennessee Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White said after extending Harper's contract in 2023 through the 2027-28 campaign. "She's among an elite group of coaches in achieving that, and it didn't happen by accident. The Lady Vols have a strong program culture, visible player development, a commitment to excellence and intentional leadership in place, and I look forward to watching our program continue to rise under her leadership."

A native of Sparta, Tenn., Harper was a floor general for the legendary Pat Summitt at UT from 1995-99, playing 132 games and piloting the Lady Vols to NCAA National Championships in 1996, 1997 and 1998. She was part of a senior class that helped the Big Orange forge a 131-17 overall record as well as win two SEC regular season titles (1998, 1999) and three SEC Tournament crowns (1996, 1998, 1999).

High school recruits and players in the transfer portal have been drawn to Harper's valuable experiences as a player who reached the pinnacle at the all-time winningest program in women's college basketball history. The LVFL also attracts players who cherish a welcoming family environment and an atmosphere of competitive excellence that is embraced by arguably the country's most supportive fan base.

She was able to keep the previously signed No. 9 class (Jordan Horston, Tamari Key) intact when she was hired in 2019, managed to ink future starters Tess Darby, Keyen Green, Marta Suárez and Jordan Walker during the pandemic in 2020, and followed with a No. 15-ranked group in 2021 (including starters Sara Puckett and Karoline Striplin). She also added seven players through the portal the past two seasons, including key contributors Rickea Jackson, Jillian Hollingshead, Jasmine Powell and Jasmine Franklin in 2022 and the nation's No. 6 ranked portal class in 2023 by 247Sports in Jewel Spear, Destinee Wells, Avery Strickland and Talaysia Cooper.

UT signees also have embraced a coaching style from a mentor who builds foundational relationships and challenges young women daily to become the best players, teammates, students, leaders and people they can be. That formula has proven successful for everything from program chemistry to team success to individual accomplishments.

During Harper's brief time at Tennessee, she has coached three WNBA first-round picks in Renna Davis (2021), Rae Burrell (2022) and Jordan Horston (2023). It marked only the second time in school history that UT had players selected in the first round in three consecutive seasons. Pat Summitt produced first-round picks in 2001 (Tamika Catchings), 2002 (Michelle Snow) and 2003 (Gwen Jackson, Kara Lawson). Harper is one of only four active coaches and 10 all-time to accomplish that feat.

In 2022, Alexis Dye also earned a shot at the WNBA, going to camp with the Connecticut Sun. Previously, Lou Brown and Kasiyahna Kushkituah earned opportunities to play professionally overseas following their Lady Vol careers.

Davis (2020 AP/USBWA/WBCA, 2021 AP/USBWA/WBCA), Horston (2022 AP/WBCA, 2021 AP/WBCA) and Jackson (2023 AP/USBWA/WBCA) were All-America Honorable Mention selections under Harper's tutelage, and Davis claimed the Senior Class Award in 2021 as well.

At the league level, Harper has tutored All-SEC First-Teamers Davis (2020, 2021), Horston (2022, 2023) and Jackson (2023); All-SEC Second-Teamers Burrell (2021) and Tamari Key (2022); SEC All-Defensive Team member Key (2021, 2022); SEC All-Freshman Team honorees Horston (2020), Suárez (2021) and Puckett (2022); and SEC All-Tournament Team members Dye (2022), Horston (2023) and Jackson (2023).

In the classroom, 18 of 29 Lady Vols playing for Harper have earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition a total of 38 times through 2022-23. A program-best 12 of 14 Lady Vols made the honor roll in 2021-22, while nine (of 13) made it in 2020-21, nine (of 15) made it in 2022-23 and eight (of 12) did so in 2019-20. That '19-20 group carded a Lady Vol best-ever GPA of 3.48.

HARPER YEAR-BY-YEAR AT TENNESSEE

2019-20: Harper personally enjoyed the (then) finest start of any season in her career at 7-0 and recorded the most victories in her first season at a school (21-10), as UT climbed to a high ranking of No. 17. She picked up her 300th overall career win vs. Alabama and surpassed her 500th contest as a head coach along the way as UT tied for third in the SEC before the season ended without an NCAA Tournament due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

2020-21: In year two for Harper, the Lady Vols climbed as high as No. 13 in the AP Poll. They earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the second round and a 17-8 record despite having four games canceled due to COVID and losing three post players to season-ending injuries. UT carded an outright third-place finish in the SEC and defeated four ranked teams, including No. 2/3 South Carolina in Knoxville and No. 15/15 Indiana in Bloomington.

2021-22: Tennessee returned to national prominence in Harper's third year, but season-ending injuries to three players limited the team's ceiling after it began the year 18-1 (best start since 2007-08) and climbed to No. 4 in the AP Poll. Still, UT finished 25-9, placed third in the SEC at 11-5, beat five ranked foes and advanced to Harper's second career Sweet 16, the first for UT since 2015-16. Harper matched personal bests for wins in a season (25) and deepest NCAA tourney run (Sweet 16), and she had her most wins ever over ranked teams (5). The Tennessee Sports Writers Association named her the organization's state women's college basketball coach of the year.

2022-23: The Lady Vols recorded 25 wins (25-12) in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15, their 13 SEC victories (13-3, 3rd) were their most since 2014-15 and their trip to the SEC Tournament title game was their first since 2015. A fourth consecutive top-three SEC regular season finish tied South Carolina as the only programs to do so during that span, and UT's advancement to back-to-back Sweet 16s made it one of just seven schools to advance to that round in both 2021-22 and 2022-23. Harper guided teams to back-to-back 25-win seasons and NCAA Sweet 16s for the first time in her career and matched Pat Summitt's UT record by producing a first-round WNBA Draft pick for a third consecutive season.

Only the third Lady Vol head coach in the NCAA era of women's basketball, Harper took the reins at Tennessee after six years of leading the Missouri State Lady Bears, capped by the 2018-19 season's impressive march to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title and magical run to the NCAA Sweet 16.

Harper guided Missouri State to NCAA appearances in 2015-16 and 2018-19 with WNIT berths on three other occasions. At previous schools, she also led North Carolina State to the NCAA Tournament in 2009-10 (plus two WNIT appearances) and guided Western Carolina to NCAA berths in 2004-05 and 2008-09 (plus two trips to the WNIT).

In 28 full seasons as a Division I head coach, assistant coach or player, Harper has made 23 postseason appearances with a combined 621-300 record, 16 NCAA Tournament appearances and seven WNIT bids.

She recorded a 118-79 won-lost record at Missouri State, claiming Missouri Valley Conference Tournament crowns in 2016 and 2019 and notching regular-season runner-up finishes in 2015-16, 2017-18 and 2018-19. After her first team at MSU finished 14-17/6-12 MVC (6th), she never placed lower than third in the league standings or missed the postseason. Three of her last four editions there surpassed the 20-win plateau, including the 2015-16 squad that forged MSU's first NCAA appearance in a decade.

The 2018-19 MSU squad improved measurably as the season progressed, resiliently overcoming a 1-7 start to post the program's best overall record (25-10) since 2004-05 and its top league mark (16-2) since 2003-04 with a 24-3 run over the final 27 contests. The Lady Bears finished No. 24 in the final 2019 USA Today Sports Coaches Poll, which was their first national ranking in 15 years. Harper was named the Missouri Valley Coach of the Year and also was chosen as the 2019 Kay Yow Coach of the Year, which goes to the Division I women's head coach who embodies a winning spirit while displaying great character, on and off the court.

Her final Lady Bears team developed into her best one with a late season spree that included victories over No. 21 Drake, No. 24 DePaul and No. 13 Iowa State and a nine-point loss to sixth-ranked Stanford in the Sweet 16. Harper's 2018-19 squad featured only one senior and included 11 freshmen or sophomores on the 14-player roster.

Prior to her arrival at Missouri State, Harper became just the third women's basketball coach in North Carolina State history in 2009 and directed the Wolfpack to three postseason appearances and a 70-64 record during her four-year stint at the helm, including the 2010 NCAA Tournament. NC State joined Tobacco Road rivals Duke and North Carolina as the only Atlantic Coast Conference teams to score wins over the league's other 11 teams during that span and earned six top-25 victories in four seasons.

Before her tenure in Raleigh, Harper piloted Western Carolina to a 97-65 record and four postseason berths in five seasons, including a 70-31 mark her final three years in Cullowhee. The Catamounts captured the first two Southern Conference (SoCon) Tournament titles in school history while seven student-athletes captured all-conference honors during her tenure.

She earned 2007 SoCon Coach of the Year accolades and placed her squads in the WBCA Academic Top 25 on three occasions, including a fifth-place finish in 2007-08.

Prior to her first head coaching job, Harper spent three seasons as an assistant at Chattanooga, helping the Mocs to three consecutive Southern Conference championships, three NCAA appearances and a combined 78-15 record under head coach Wes Moore. She tutored four all-conference guards while at Chattanooga, including the 2004 league player of the year.

In advance of her time in Chattanooga, Harper spent two seasons at Auburn, the first as an administrative assistant before being promoted to assistant coach under Joe Ciampi for the 2000-01 campaign.

As a college player, Harper was part of a women's basketball dynasty at Tennessee. As a junior, she guided the Lady Vols to a 39-0 record and their third-straight national championship, averaging 7.6 points and 3.8 assists for the season and scoring a career-high 20 points in the national title game against Louisiana Tech. She went 4-of-5 from beyond the arc in that contest and was named to the 1998 All-Final Four Team.

Harper set an NCAA championship game record with 11 assists and dished out 20 helpers in two games for All-Final Four honors in 1997 after returning from a knee injury midway through her sophomore season. That year, the National Strength and Conditioning Association named her its Strength and Conditioning Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

For her Tennessee career, Harper scored 894 points and had 452 assists, leaving UT on the school's career top 10 lists for assists, assist average, 3-point attempts and 3-point percentage. She still ranks eighth in career assists and is 11th in 3-point percentage (.364, 99-272).

Harper was drafted by the Cleveland Rockers in the fourth round of the 1999 WNBA draft and earned her degree in mathematics that same year. She was a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member and earned both All-SEC Coaches Second Team and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. She also was named to the SEC Community Service Team as a senior.

She played for her father (the late Kenneth Jolly), an assistant coach at White County High School in Sparta, Tenn., and was a five-time All-American during her AAU playing career. She was inducted into the UT Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009 and White County High Hall of Fame in 2012. On Dec. 24, 2019, the basketball hardwood at the new Findlay Elementary School in Sparta was dedicated as "Kellie's Court."

Harper is married to Jon Harper, an assistant coach on her staffs at Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and Tennessee. The Harpers welcomed their first child, son Jackson, in November 2013, and had a daughter, Kiley, in June 2018.

SAMANTHA WILLIAMS

ASSISTANT COACH/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

THIRD YEAR AT TENNESSEE/23RD YEAR IN COACHING
AUBURN '96

One of the nation's top coaches and elite recruiters, Samantha Williams is in her third season at Tennessee and in her 23rd season in the college coaching ranks. Head coach Kellie Harper announced the addition of Williams to the Lady Vol staff on April 17, 2021.

Since arriving in Knoxville, Williams has been part of Tennessee's ascent toward championship contention. UT was 25-12 overall and 13-3 in the SEC in 2022-23, advancing to the SEC Tournament title game, remaining perfect with its 41st NCAA bid and making it to the NCAA Sweet 16. The Lady Vols recorded 25 wins in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15, and they reached 13 SEC victories for the first time since 2014-15. In addition to advancing to their first SEC Tourney title game since 2015, they made repeat Sweet 16 appearances for the initial time since 2014-15 and 2015-16.

During Williams' time at Tennessee, she has helped coach two WNBA first-round picks in Rae Burrell (2022) and Jordan Horston (2023), with those players joining Rennia Davis (2021) to become the first Lady Vol first-round picks in three consecutive years since Pat Summitt did it in 2001-03. In 2022, Alexis Dye also earned a shot at the WNBA, going to camp with the Connecticut Sun.

Horston (2022 & 2023 AP/WBCA) and Rickea Jackson (2023 AP/USBWA/WBCA) were All-America Honorable Mention selections under Williams' watch.

At the league level, Williams has helped coach All-SEC First-Teammers Horston (2022, 2023) and Jackson (2023); All-SEC Second-Teamer Tamari Key (2022); SEC All-Defensive Team member Key (2022); SEC All-Freshman Team honoree Sara Puckett (2022); and SEC All-Tournament Team members Dye (2022), Horston (2023) and Jackson (2023).

Under Williams' direction, high school recruits and players in the transfer portal have been drawn to a program headed by a head coach with valuable experiences as a player who reached the pinnacle at the all-time winningest program in women's history. She helped attract seven players through the portal the past two seasons, including key contributors Jackson, Jillian Hollingshead, Jasmine Powell and Jasmine Franklin in 2022 and the nation's No. 6 ranked portal class in 2023 by 247Sports in Jewel Spear, Destinee Wells and Avery Strickland.

In the May of 2022, Williams was tapped by Kellie Harper to coach UT's squad of Key, Sara Puckett, Jordan Walker and Kaiya Wynn at the 2022 Red Bull USA Basketball 3X Nationals in Springfield, Mass. She guided the Lady Vols to the quarterfinal round before they ended their stay with a 3-2 mark.

Williams, who came to Rocky Top after two seasons impressively addressing a major rebuilding job as head coach at Eastern Kentucky University, is highly-regarded for her work with backcourt players and for attracting top players to join nationally-prominent programs, just as she did as an assistant at Louisville (2011-19) and Duke (2007-11) before being chosen for the head coaching job at EKU.

At Eastern, Williams inherited a program that was 2-27 overall and 0-18 in the Ohio Valley Conference the year before she arrived, and she led the Colonels to 20 victories over two years. In her first season, Williams directed one of the biggest turnarounds in Division I basketball, as EKU won 11 games in 2019-20, nine more than the year before. It was the third-best turnaround in the nation and the largest win improvement by any first-year head coach.

The Colonels finished 11-18, 5-13 in the OVC, in 2019-20 and were 9-15, 8-12 in the OVC, during 2020-21's COVID-impacted season. Williams' final unit at EKU demonstrated continued growth and competitiveness despite a schedule that featured three ranked opponents in Louisville, Indiana and Northwestern, and a roster of 13 players, laden with seven freshmen she and her staff had recruited.

While serving as assistant head coach to Jeff Walz in Louisville from 2011-19, Williams helped guide the Cardinals to eight consecutive NCAA appearances. During her time there, Williams assisted U of L in reaching the Final Four twice, including an appearance in the 2013 national championship game, making four trips to the Elite 8 and advancing to the Sweet 16 six times. Louisville compiled a 236-55 record and six top-10 finishes in the national polls during her tenure.

In 2018-19, U of L was 32-4, earned a No. 1 NCAA seed, won a share of the ACC regular season championship for the second straight season, rose to fifth in the nation and played in the Elite Eight.

Williams coached four WNBA Draft picks at Louisville. She also sought and signed the nation's top-ranked recruiting class in 2015, the No. 6 ranked class in 2016 and the fourth ranked class in 2017. Between 2014 and 2017, Williams and the Louisville staff welcomed nine McDonald's All-Americans to their program.

Assisting the backcourt players, Williams helped Louisville chart five straight years with a top-40 ranking in shooting percentage. The Cardinals ranked seventh in the nation in 2017-18 at 48.2 percent.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Williams was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Duke on Joanne P. McCallie's staff from 2007-11. She helped the Blue Devils capture two ACC regular season championships, two ACC Tournament titles and make two appearances in the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight.

Williams was instrumental in Duke compiling three top-five recruiting classes, including the No. 1 class in 2009-10. She worked primarily with the team's perimeter players, developing a pair of All-Americans who were picks in the first two rounds of the WNBA Draft.

While working alongside Doug Bruno at DePaul as an assistant and recruiting coordinator from 2004-07, Williams helped the Blue Demons through the most successful period in school history, including three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 berth in 2006. The program achieved a 72-25 record (.742 winning percentage) during her time in Chicago.

Prior to her stint at DePaul, the 1996 Auburn graduate returned to her alma mater and spent the 2003-04 campaign as an assistant on the Plains working alongside her college coach Joe Ciampi in his final season. The Tigers posted a 22-9 record and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, with Williams helping mentor a pair of All-SEC (coaches and AP) selections during that campaign.

Williams began her collegiate coaching career as an assistant at St. Louis during the 2001-02 season. In 2002-03 she served as an assistant coach at Columbus State University, helping the Cougars to a 28-4 record, a Peach Belt Conference regular season championship and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Born in Luverne, Ala., and spending her high school years in Louisville, Kentucky, Williams was a four-year starter on the court at Auburn from 1992-96, serving as co-captain as a junior and a senior. She led Auburn to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including two Sweet 16 trips and an Elite 8 berth. Williams set the program record for career three-point field goals (161), and she finished her career with 1,106 points, 495 rebounds and 323 assists.

While at Auburn, Williams played for the U.S. Junior National Team that won the bronze medal at the R. William Jones Cup in Taipei, Taiwan.

After her collegiate career, Williams played one season of professional basketball in the American Basketball League with the San Jose Lasers (1996-97). Williams was a first-team Parade, and Street and Smith All-American, in addition to a USA Today Super 25 honoree, while playing basketball at DuPont Manual High School in Louisville.

JON HARPER

ASSISTANT COACH

FIFTH YEAR AT TENNESSEE/23RD YEAR AS AN ASSISTANT AUBURN '99

Jon Harper is in year five at Tennessee and season 23 as an assistant coach, including his 20th campaign as an assistant to spouse Kellie Harper after he joined the Lady Vol staff on April 15, 2019. The Harpers have worked together since they were assistants at Chattanooga from 2001-04.

During Harper's four seasons on Rocky Top, UT has forged a combined 88-39 overall mark and 43-18 record in SEC play, notching four third-place league finishes and advancing to the SEC Tournament semifinals in 2021 and 2022 and title game in 2023. UT also carded a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 the past two seasons, making the program one of only seven to advance to that round in both 2022 and 2023.

Arriving in Knoxville in 2019-20, Harper has been part of Tennessee's ascent toward championship contention. UT was 25-12 overall and 13-3 in the SEC in 2022-23, advancing to the SEC Tournament title game, remaining perfect with its 41st NCAA bid and making it to the NCAA Sweet 16. The Lady Vols recorded 25 wins in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15, and they reached 13 SEC victories for the first time since 2014-15. In addition to advancing to their first SEC Tourney title game since 2015, they made repeat Sweet 16 appearances for the first time since 2014-15 and 2015-16.

During Harper's brief time at Tennessee, he has helped coach three WNBA first-round picks in Renna Davis (2021), Rae Burrell (2022) and Jordan Horston (2023), with those players becoming the first Lady Vol first-round picks in three consecutive years since Pat Summitt did it in 2001-03. In 2022, Alexis Dye also earned a shot at the WNBA, going to camp with the Connecticut Sun. Previously, Lou Brown and Kasiyahna Kushiitah earned opportunities to play professionally overseas following their Lady Vol careers.

Davis (2020 & 2021 AP/USBWA/WBCA), Horston (2022 & 2023 AP/WBCA) and Rickea Jackson (2023 AP/USBWA/WBCA) were All-America Honorable Mention selections under Harper's tutelage, and Davis claimed the Senior Class Award in 2021 as well.

At the league level, Harper has tutored All-SEC First-Teamers Davis (2020, 2021), Horston (2022, 2023) and Jackson (2023); All-SEC Second-Teamers Burrell (2021) and Tamari Key (2022); SEC All-Defensive Team member Key (2021, 2022); SEC All-Freshman Team honorees Horston (2020), Marta Suárez (2021) and Sara Puckett (2022); and SEC All-Tournament Team members Alexis Dye (2022), Horston (2023) and Jackson (2023).

In the classroom, 18 of 29 Lady Vols playing for Harper have earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition a total of 38 times through 2022-23. A program-best 12 of 14 Lady Vols made the honor roll in 2021-22, while nine (of 13) made it in 2020-21, nine (of 15) made it in 2022-23 and eight (of 12) did so in 2019-20. That '19-20 group carded a Lady Vol best-ever GPA of 3.48.

With Harper's help, high school recruits and players in the transfer portal have been drawn to a program headed by a head coach with valuable experiences as a player who reached the pinnacle at the all-time winningest program in women's college basketball history. Tennessee was able to keep the previously signed No. 9 class (Jordan Horston, Tamari Key) intact when the Harpers were hired in 2019, managed to ink future starters Tess Darby, Keyen Green, Marta Suárez and Jordan Walker during the pandemic in 2020, and followed with a No. 15-ranked group in 2021 (including starters Sara Puckett and Karoline Striplin). He also aided in adding seven players through the portal the past two seasons, including key contributors Rickea Jackson, Jillian Hollingshead, Jasmine Powell and Jasmine Franklin in 2022 and the nation's No. 6 ranked portal class in 2023 by 247Sports in Jewel Spear, Destinee Wells, Avery Strickland and Talaysia Cooper.

Born: May 1, 1976

Education: Tucker High School (Stone Mountain, Ga.)
B.S., Auburn '99

Family: Spouse: Kellie Harper
Children: Jackson, Kiley

In six seasons at Missouri State, his previous stop, Harper mentored players who earned a total of 15 All-Missouri Valley Conference selections, including two-time first-team picks in Kenzie Williams and Liza Fruendt, 2016 MVC Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year Tyonna Snow, 2018 first-team selection Alexa Willard and 2019 first-team choice Daniell Gitzen.

The Lady Bears accumulated 118 wins, five top-three MVC finishes and five postseason berths with Harper on staff, including a 2016 NCAA Tournament appearance after a 24-10 record and MVC Tournament championship and a 2019 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 finish with a 25-10 record and MVC tourney title.

While at North Carolina State from 2009-13, Harper tutored four different players to a combination of All-Atlantic Coast Conference, All-ACC Freshman, all-tournament honors and a league Freshman of the Year award. Harper helped a team that was predicted to finish ninth in the ACC to a fifth-place finish and NCAA Tournament berth in 2010, as well as a pair of WNIT appearances his final two seasons there.

Prior to NC State, Harper spent five years as an assistant coach at Western Carolina with Kellie, and before that three seasons at Chattanooga, before heading to WCU with Kellie for the 2004-05 campaign.

During his time at Western Carolina, Harper worked with the backcourt players and helped produce five all-conference selections and the Southern Conference's Defensive Player of the Year in 2008. The Catamounts advanced to the postseason four of his five years on staff, including a pair of NCAA Tournament berths.

Harper got the coaching bug while serving as a practice player and then manager at Auburn for three seasons from 1996-99, and he worked his way up to numerous administrative responsibilities with the team.

While he was at Auburn, the Lady Tigers compiled a 58-29 record that included the 1997 SEC Tournament Championship and a pair of NCAA Tournament berths in 1997 and 1999.

Harper joined the Auburn team as a practice player and then manager, starting in 1996-97, and worked up to head manager in 1998-99. ## ASSISTANT COACH

THIRD YEAR AT TENNESSEE/13TH YEAR AS AN ASSISTANT ST. JOHN'S '10

A rising star in the profession, Joy McCorvey is in her third year at Tennessee and in her 13th season in coaching. Her résumé features 11 seasons of 20+ wins. In every campaign except 2020, when COVID-19 forced a halt in play, those teams went on to postseason play.

In June of 2022, McCorvey's reputation in the world of women's hoops earned her attention as one of the "Most Impactful High Major Assistant Coaches in Division I Women's Basketball by Silver Waves Media. Some of that comes from UT's finish her first year in Knoxville.

Arriving in Knoxville in 2021-22, McCorvey has been part of Tennessee's ascent toward championship contention. UT was 25-12 overall and 13-3 in the SEC in 2022-23, advancing to the SEC Tournament title game, remaining perfect with its 41st NCAA bid and making it to the NCAA Sweet 16. The Lady Vols recorded 25 wins in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15, and they reached 13 SEC victories for the first time since 2014-15. In addition to advancing to their first SEC Tourney title game since 2015, they made repeat Sweet 16 appearances for the initial time since 2014-15 and 2015-16.

During McCorvey's time at Tennessee, she has helped coach two WNBA first-round picks in Rae Burrell (2022) and Jordan Horston (2023), with those players joining Renna Davis (2021) to become the first Lady Vol first-round picks in three consecutive years since Pat Summitt did it in 2001-03. In 2022, Alexis Dye also earned a shot at the WNBA, going to camp with the Connecticut Sun.

Horston (2022 & 2023 AP/WBCA) and Rickea Jackson (2023 AP/USBWA/WBCA) were All-America Honorable Mention selections under McCorvey's watch.

At the league level, McCorvey has helped coach All-SEC First-Teamers Horston (2022, 2023) and Jackson (2023); All-SEC Second-Teamer Tamari Key (2022); SEC All-Defensive Team member Key (2022); SEC All-Freshman honoree Sara Puckett (2022); and SEC All-Tournament stars Dye (2022), Horston (2023) and Jackson (2023).

In the classroom, 18 of 29 Lady Vols during the Harper era have earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition a total of 38 times through 2022-23. A program-best 12 of 14 Lady Vols made the honor roll in 2021-22, while nine (of 13) made it in 2020-21, nine (of 15) made it in 2022-23 and eight (of 12) did so in 2019-20. That '19-20 group carded a Lady Vol best-ever GPA of 3.48.

With McCorvey's help, high school recruits and players in the transfer portal have been drawn to a program headed by a head coach with valuable experiences as a player who reached the pinnacle at the all-time winningest program in women's college basketball history. She also aided in attracting seven players through the portal the past two seasons, including key contributors Jackson, Jillian Hollingshead, Jasmine Powell and Jasmine Franklin in 2022 and the nation's No. 6 ranked portal class in 2023 by 247Sports in Jewel Spear, Destinee Wells, Avery Strickland and Talaysia Cooper.

McCorvey came to the Lady Vol program after spending the previous three seasons at Florida State on Sue Semrau's staff. When Semrau took leave for the 2020-21 campaign to care for her ailing mother, McCorvey was elevated to associate head coach.

At FSU, McCorvey played a key role in both player development and recruiting. In 2020-21, she was instrumental in the rapid development of Morgan Jones, personally coaching and helping mold the 6-foot-2 guard into one of the best players in the ACC. Jones averaged 12.8 points, 6.3 rebounds, shot 45.4 percent from the floor and tied for the team lead with 23 steals in a career year where she took an enormous step, earning All-ACC First Team honors, ACC All-Defensive Team accolades and WBCA All-America Honorable Mention acclaim.

McCorvey also made direct contributions in 2019-20. Her efforts were key in the rise of All-America forward Kiah Gillespie, who finished a tremendous two-year run with FSU by averaging 15.6 points, 8.7 rebounds and shooting 45.1 percent from the floor. The development of freshman center River Baldwin also was evident in 2019-20, as she won ACC Rookie of the Week twice.

With McCorvey handling the team's recruiting efforts and low-post play, Florida State made large strides in both areas under her watch. The Seminoles' 2019 signing class consisted of five-star players Baldwin and Sammie Puiasis as well as top-20 post London Clarkson. The 2021 group included four-star prospects in guard O'Mariah Gordon and forwards Makayla Timpson and Mariana Valenzuela.

Gillespie and Valencia Myers enjoyed standout seasons in 2018-19 under the guidance of McCorvey. Gillespie earned WBCA All-America honors and grabbed a spot on the All-ACC Team. Myers, in her first season, made the All-ACC Freshmen Team and emerged as one of the nation's most feared shot blockers with 54 rejections.

McCorvey played a big role in helping coach a Seminole squad that had to replace its entire starting five in 2018-19 to a 24-9 overall record and a 10-6 mark in the ACC. Despite entering the year with a majority of new faces and depleted depth due to injuries, FSU was able to make its 14th NCAA appearance in the last 15 seasons.

Prior to her stint in Tallahassee, McCorvey helped elevate the Michigan women's basketball program during her six seasons in Ann Arbor, assisting her college head coach Kim Barnes Arico in that endeavor. The Wolverines made six postseason appearances during that time, including the capturing of the 2017 WNIT title.

One of her responsibilities during her time at Michigan was the development of the post players, helping pave the way for a second-round NCAA Tournament appearance for the Wolverines in 2017-18. Michigan led the Big Ten that season in rebound margin at +8.5 per game, a statistic in which Florida State also excelled.

A special 2016-17 season in which Michigan set its program mark with 28 wins included helping former post player Cyesha Goree receive her second consecutive All-Big Ten Second Team honor. McCorvey's established résumé also includes coaching five different players to eight All-Big Ten honors.

A standout player at St. John's from 2006-10, McCorvey was hired at her alma mater for the 2011-12 season and spent a year on Barnes Arico's staff there prior to making the move to Michigan.

McCorvey worked primarily with the post players and helped guide the Red Storm to a 24-10 overall record and a second-place finish in the final BIG EAST Conference standings with a 13-3 league record. The Red Storm, which upset UConn on Feb. 19, 2012, 57-56, and ended the Huskies' 99-game home winning streak, made its third straight NCAA berth and advanced to the program's first Sweet 16 appearance.

Before entering the coaching ranks, McCorvey made a name for herself as one of the Red Storm's finest leaders, both on and off the court, during her four years as a student-athlete. She was instrumental in lifting St. John's into the national spotlight, leading the team to three postseason runs. As a senior in 2009-10, McCorvey was part of one of Barnes Arico's most successful teams, as the Red Storm finished with a 25-7 overall record and advanced to the Second Round of the 2010 NCAA Tournament.

A captain at St. John's, she was a three-time Big East All-Academic Team selection (2007-10), a top 30 candidate for the 2010 Lowe's® Senior CLASS Award, a member of St. John's University's prestigious President's Society and was the 2008 recipient of the St. John's University Marianne Noonan Memorial. She earned a bachelor's in childhood education from St. John's in 2010.

The native of Brewton, Alabama, and graduate of T.R. Miller High School, is just one of four St. John's players to amass more than 700 points and 700 rebounds.

Senior Associate Athletics Director Angie Boyd Keck works closely with SEC and NCAA staff as UT's Senior Woman Administrator and also serves as the sport administrator for women's basketball, men's and women's golf and volleyball.

Among her duties, she monitors and directs sports programs in all aspects of operations, budget planning, resource allocation and scheduling. She approves and monitors practice, competitive schedules and NCAA time management legislation as well as advising the director of athletics on all matters concerning assigned sports programs.

Additionally, she manages and facilitates administrative situations associated with those sports, conducts evaluations of assigned coaches and oversees the general conduct of the program, including player/coach relationships, event management, travel conditions and criteria, competitiveness and student-athlete behavior and conduct.

Keck assists with facility renovation/construction designs, fundraising for new facilities/renovations, and she also provides input for marketing plans and promotions for assigned sports.

During the development of Tennessee Athletics' comprehensive five-year strategic plan, Rise Glorious—published in July of 2022—Keck chaired the Mission, Vision & Values Committee.

Immediately prior to assuming her current post, she served as an associate AD—most recently for Business & Internal Affairs—from 2008-19. She took on the role of SWA in the summer of 2019.

In the fall of 2019, Keck began a four-year term on the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Committee. She also has served on UT's exempt staff council, the Work Culture Improvement Team and is a member of Women's Leaders in College Sports. She is also on the SEC Championships committee since 2020, which selects sites and oversees SEC Championships.

Keck began her career in intercollegiate administration in 1994-95, when she was the assistant women's golf coach with the Lady Vols. Prior to her coaching stint, she was a member of the inaugural Tennessee women's golf team in 1992. Keck (then Angie Boyd) captained the 1993-94 squad to a 13th-place NCAA finish in 1994. She was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in both her years as a player and earned a spot in the Lady Vols Hall of Fame (now the University of Tennessee Athletic Hall of Fame) in the Fall of 2005.

A 1994 graduate of Tennessee, Keck earned her bachelor's degree in Public Administration. In 1997, she received her master's in Sport Administration from UT.

Keck and her husband, Kelly, reside in Dandridge, Tennessee. They have a son, Josh, and a daughter, Sidney.

UT has a footprint that spans the entire state, including the main campus in Knoxville, the Space Institute in Tullahoma, and the Institute of Agriculture and its Extension offices in all 95 counties. # DR. DANIEL J. WHITE

VICE CHANCELLOR/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

FOURTH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
NOTRE DAME '02

Danny White's innovative and forward-thinking approach to the rapidly evolving landscape of intercollegiate athletics primed University of Tennessee Chancellor Donde Plowman to name him Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics on Jan. 21, 2021.

Boasting a literal lifetime of experience in the industry, White, 43, oversaw a period of unprecedented competitive, academic and service excellence at the University of Central Florida from 2015-21. Prior to that, White served as the AD at Buffalo from 2012-15.

"Danny White is an innovative leader in college athletics with a strong track record in recruiting and developing leaders," Plowman said. "He brings the combination of winning attitude, competitive drive and dedication to integrity and academics that we are looking for."

White's departmental successes have earned him numerous awards—a Sports Business Journal 40 Under 40 honoree in multiple years, a spot on the Orlando Business Journal 40 Under 40 list, multiple selections as one of the 50 Most Powerful People in Orlando by Orlando Magazine and he was a finalist for the 2018 and 2023 SBJ Athletics Director of the Year award.

A native of New Orleans, Louisiana, White was named a NACDA Athletics Director of the Year in the spring of 2019. In 2018, SBJ named him one of the six most influential people in sports business, while Orlando Magazine tabbed him as the area's most powerful person in sports. In 2020, Stadium rated White No. 4 nationally on its list of athletics directors based on the combined success of his coaching hires in football and men's basketball.

IMMEDIATE IMPACT AT TENNESSEE

"Danny's leadership, vision and record of sustained achievement will no doubt effectively guide the future of the University of Tennessee athletics program," Southeastern Conference Commissioner Greg Sankey said when White was hired at Tennessee.

Six days after he was named AD at Tennessee, White announced the hiring of Josh Heupel as the Volunteers' 27th head football coach. Heupel had spent the previous three years working alongside White as head coach at UCF, where he compiled an impressive 28-8 (20-5 AAC) record.

In just his second year leading the Tennessee football program, Heupel guided the Volunteers to an 8-0 start, 11 total wins and an NY6 triumph over Clemson at the Capital One Orange Bowl. Heupel's record-setting offense propelled Tennessee to No. 1 status in the first edition of the 2023 CFP rankings, and it yielded a Biletnikoff Award winner (receiver Jalin Hyatt) as well as a fifth-place finisher in the Heisman Trophy race (quarterback Hendon Hooker).

The Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in the summer of 2023 recognized Plowman, White and Heupel collectively as "Tennesseans of the Year."

The football program's emphatic resurgence in 2022 ignited a wick of team success that wove through Tennessee's entire athletic department, as a dozen other

2021-pres.: Tennessee, Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

UT teams followed suit with national top-16 finishes during 2022-23. That comprehensive success led to the Big Orange earning their second consecutive SEC All-Sports Trophy while becoming only the second school ever to sweep both the men's and women's all-sports standings.

Equally as impressive, Tennessee followed up a 13th-place finish in the 2021-22 LEARFIELD Directors' Cup standings with an all-time best finish of No. 6 in the 2022-23 Directors' Cup race.

After the baseball program swept the SEC regular-season and tournament titles in 2022, softball did the same in 2023. UT also became the only school to win a New Year's Six bowl game, advance both its men's and women's basketball teams to the Sweet Sixteen and send both its softball and baseball teams to the College World Series in the same academic year.

Tennessee is the only school ever to have hosted ESPN College GameDay for football, men's basketball and women's basketball all-time—and it hosted all three versions of the show in the same athletic year in 2022-23. Similarly, Tennessee also made history in 2023 as the only school ever to have both a softball and women's basketball game aired on ABC in the same year.

White's winning culture has extended proportionately across genders, as Tennessee has captured four men's and four women's SEC team championships during White's AD tenure. Vols have claimed 20 individual/relay SEC titles during that span, with Lady Vols racking up 15.

Prior to White's arrival on Rocky Top, Tennessee won eight total SEC championships over the previous 10-year span.

Academically, the Spring 2023 semester saw Tennessee's more than 550 student-athletes achieve a cumulative grade-point average of 3.38—its highest ever recorded. For the first time ever, all 16 sport programs earned a team GPA of at least 3.0. Under White's leadership, Tennessee's student-athletes have raised the all-sport GPA each semester – setting all new school records each time.

In addition to football, White has led national searches and made head coaching hires for Tennessee women's golf (Diana Cantú), soccer (Joe Kirt), track & field (Duane Ross), cross country/distance (Sean Carlson) and rowing (Kim Cupini).

Led by a leadership team handpicked by White, the Tennessee Fund in FY23 reported its second consecutive record year across multiple fundraising metrics. For the fiscal year that ended on June 30 (FY23), the Tennessee Fund team set records for fundraising total ($131,450,717), cash receipts ($72,821,769) and total donors (28,387).

Since White launched the My All Campaign in the summer of 2021, the Tennessee Fund has secured commitments totaling over $419 million, 84 percent of the campaign's goal of raising $500 million by summer 2026.

In a unique move that proved wise and effective, White moved Tennessee's outbound ticket sales efforts in-house. With a new structure and staff, the ticket sales staff generated more than $26 million in ticket revenue in 2022 and grew the football season-ticket base by 17 percent in one year. For the 2023 football season, all 70,500 season tickets were sold. The sellout figure emphatically eclipses the department's strategic plan goal of 61,000 by 9,500. The approaching 127th campaign of Volunteer football also saw a 96 percent season ticket renewal rate. In addition, Tennessee has sold over 9,000 new season tickets for 2023.

It marked the second time in the past 22 seasons that UT has sold out of its football season ticket inventory, last doing so in August 2016. The feat of selling out a 100,000-plus seat venue comes in an era of stadium downsizing across the country, further illustrating the passion of Vol Nation.

A pair of new premium-seating opportunities were introduced in Neyland Stadium during the 2022 football season—the Lower West Club and the North End Zone Social Deck (a White initiative). Both areas provided fans with a more modernized gameday experience. The 1,300-seat Lower West Club sold out quickly, while the North Social Deck sold out six of seven home games. Both new areas combined to generate more than $6 million in annual revenue (annual fund plus ticket sales).

The cumulative effect of the aforementioned initiatives and adjustments led to Tennessee Athletics forecasting its highest-ever operating revenue of over $200 million in FY23.

White has also spearheaded the modernization of two iconic Tennessee's athletics venues – Neyland Stadium and Lindsey Nelson Stadium. Phase 1 of the historic Neyland Stadium renovation is budgeted for $337 million. The project aligns with Tennessee Athletics' stated goals of modernizing the fan and visitor experience through enhanced amenities and diversified seating options, improving fan safety and security and aligning stadium features and aesthetics with campus architectural standards.

Through a multi-year construction process, Lindsey Nelson Stadium will transform into one of the premier college baseball venues in the country with world-class player development areas, multiple new gates, increased seating capacity to approximately 7,600 fans, wider concourses, more concession stands and restrooms and new luxurious premium-seating offerings. The project budget totals $95.8 million.

RIISING TO THE AD CHAIR

A former college basketball student-athlete at Towson and Notre Dame, White quickly ascended in the ranks of college athletics leadership. Prior to his first athletics director opportunity at Buffalo, he was senior associate athletics director at Ole Miss from 2009-12. He previously served two years as associate athletics director for development at Fresno State (2007-09) and one as assistant athletics director for development at Northern Illinois (2006-07).

Before pivoting to athletics administration, White spent one year as the director of basketball operations and another year as an assistant coach with the Ohio University men's basketball program.

White graduated from Notre Dame in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He earned master's degrees in both business administration and sports administration from Ohio University and completed a Ph.D. in higher education leadership from Ole Miss in 2016.

White comes from a family deeply involved in intercollegiate athletics. His father, Kevin, was the longtime vice president and director of athletics at Duke (and previously held that same role at Notre Dame, Arizona State, Tulane, Maine and Loras College). His brother, Michael, is the head men's basketball coach at Georgia. His brother, Brian, is the vice president and director of athletics at Florida Atlantic.

Danny and his wife, Shawn, have four children: Aidan, Molly, Caitlin and James.

2022-23
REVIEW

■ 2022-23 POSTSEASON NOTEBOOK

UT PERSEVERES, WINS 25, MAKES SWEET 16

- Tennessee won 25 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15, wrapping up the 2022-23 campaign at 25-12 overall and 13-3 in SEC play to finish third for the fourth straight year.
- The Lady Vols' 13 SEC victories were their most since 2014-15, and they advanced to their first SEC Tournament title game since 2015. They defeated No. 2 seed and eventual NCAA champ LSU in the SEC semifinals, 69-67, to do so.
- The Big Orange went to back-to-back Sweet 16s for the first time since 2014-15 and 2015-16 and were one of just seven schools to do that during the 2021-22 and 2022-23 postseasons.
- UT's season came to an end in the Seattle 3 Regional semifinals to No. 1 seed Virginia Tech, 73-64.
- The Lady Vols were resilient despite losing 6-6 center Tamari Key for the season after eight games when tests revealed blood clots in her lungs.

38TH SEASON WITH 25 WINS

- Tennessee reached a pair of milestone victory plateaus in 2022-23, improving numbers that date back to 1974.
- With the win over Toledo in the NCAA Second Round, the Lady Vols hit the 25-win target for the 38th time.
- Kellie Harper also tied her career best win tally for a season with that outcome, giving her back-to-back 25-win campaigns at Tennessee in 2021-22 and 2022-23 and four total for her career.
- Harper also won 25 at Missouri State in 2018-19 en route to a Sweet 16 and at Western Carolina in 2007-08.
- The regular-season finale triumph at Kentucky gave the Big Orange a 20-win campaign for the 46th time.
- It marked Tennessee's third 20-win season in Kellie Harper's four years as head coach (10th in her career), with the 2020-21 total of 17 wins impacted by several COVID-related game cancellations that no doubt would have pushed the Lady Vols to 20 victories.

SEC TOURNAMENT RUNNERS-UP

- Tennessee advanced to its first SEC Tournament Championship game since 2015.
- South Carolina defeated UT in Greenville, S.C., 74-58, but only after the Lady Vols had upset No. 2 seed and eventual national champ LSU, 69-67, in the semifinal round for the Big Orange's signature win of the season.
- It marked the first time UT has had two All-Tournament Team members since Cierra Burdick and Jordan Reynolds earned that recognition in 2015.
- Rickea Jackson averaged 25.7 ppg. and 7.7 rpg. while shooting 52.0 percent from the field and 95.7 percent (22-23) from the free-throw line during the 2023 event.
- Jackson's season-high 34 points against Kentucky in the quarterfinals were the most scored in any game by a Lady Vol since Diamond DeShields had 34 vs. Georgia on Feb. 5, 2017.
- A 14-of-14 (100-percent) effort at the charity stripe for Jackson vs. Kentucky in the quarterfinals was a school record for percentage with the most attempts.
- Jordan Horston (19.0 ppg.) also averaged in double figures for the weekend, with Horston leading the team in rebounding (8.7 rpg.), assists (3.0 apg.) and blocks (2.3 bpg.) en route to SEC All-Tournament honors.
- Tess Darby went six of 12 beyond the arc (50 percent) in three games.

- Jordan Horston's career-best seven blocks vs. Kentucky on March 3 tied centers Tamari Key (2020) and Kelley Cain (2009) for most swats ever in an SEC Tournament contest by a Lady Vol.

THE ONLY SCHOOL IN ALL 41

- The Lady Vols made their 41st consecutive NCAA Tournament, continuing as the only school to appear in every Division I tourney.
- Tennessee was an at-large qualifier for the 2023 NCAA Tournament, finishing third in the SEC regular season for the fourth-straight season and falling to No. 1/1 South Carolina in the SEC Tournament title game.
- UT earned a No. 4 seed for only the third occasion and has a 7-3 record all-time in that role after routing Saint Louis and Toledo in NCAA First and Second Rounds and falling to No. 1 seed Virginia Tech in the Sweet 16 in the Seattle 3 Regional at Climate Pledge Arena.
- UT is now 130-33 in NCAA Tournament play, ranking first all-time in games played (163) and ranking second in victories (130) and in winning percentage (.798).
- Tennessee is 5-3 in NCAA play under Kellie Harper, going 2-1 in 2023, 2-1 in 2022 and 1-1 in 2021 after the 2020 tournament was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- The Lady Vols have advanced to the NCAA regional round on 36 occasions, owning a 28-8 mark in the Sweet 16.

Rickea Jackson averaged 19.2 ppg. in the regular season, 21.4 ppg. in SEC games and 25.7 ppg. during the NCAA Tournament a year ago.

RECORDS FOR GAMEDAY APPEARANCES

- In 2023, Tennessee became the only school ever to host ESPN College GameDay on campus four times in the same athletic year, hosting during football (Florida, Alabama) as well as during women's (UConn) and men's basketball (Texas).
- The Lady Vols also became the first women's program to appear on Women's College GameDay twice during the same season, doing so at home vs. UConn on Jan. 26 and again prior to the SEC Tournament Championship vs. South Carolina on March 5 in Greenville, S.C.
- UT has twice as many GameDay appearances (4) as any other school and is the only one to host twice.
- UT hosted in 2011 (vs. Vanderbilt), appeared in 2022 (at South Carolina), hosted in 2023 (vs. UConn) and appeared in 2023 (vs. South Carolina in SEC Tourney).
- ESPN's Women's College GameDay also appeared in Storrs, Conn., in 2010 (Notre Dame at UConn) and at Iowa City, Iowa, 2023 (Indiana at Iowa).

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

- In her first season at Tennessee, senior forward Riquea Jackson paced the team in scoring (19.2) and field goal percentage (54.8), and was second in rebounding (6.1) and third in free throw percentage (79.2).
- Jackson finished third in the SEC in scoring, and her points average ranked sixth all-time by a senior at Tennessee and qualified as the No. 6 career scoring average at UT as well.
- In SEC games, Jackson elevated her average to 21.4 ppg., and in the SEC Tournament it was 25.7 ppg.
- She accumulated 16 games of 20 points or more, ranking No. 9 at UT for both season and career totals, and she had four double-doubles as well.
- Senior guard Jordan Horston was UT's second-leading scorer (15.6) and top rebounder (7.1).
- Horston also paced the Lady Vols in assist average (3.3), blocks (38) and steals (55).
- Despite the early end to her season, Tamari Key was third in scoring at 8.4 ppg. and pulled down 4.2 rpg.
- Jordan Walker averaged 5.7 ppg. during the regular season and jumped to 10.7 ppg. during NCAA play.

A UT RECORD FIVE 1K SCORERS

- Tennessee had a Lady Vol record five 1,000-point scorers on the 2022-23 team.
- The quintet included Riquea Jackson (1,756), Jordan Horston (1,445), Jordan Walker (1,359), Jasmine Franklin (1,279) and Jasmine Powell (1,046).
- Tamari Key, who would have made it six, ended her year in December at 881 due to a medical condition.
- The most 1,000-point scorers UT ever had on a roster previously was four in 2014-15: Bashaara Graves (1,169), Ariel Massengale (1,161), Cierra Burdick (1,072) and Isabelle Harrison (1,071).

TWO OF UT'S BEST-EVER AT SCORING 20+

- Jordan Horston (17) and Riquea Jackson (16) rank No. 8 and No. 9 in career 20-point games at UT.
- The top seven are Chamique Holdsclaw (83), Bridgette Gordon (58), Candace Parker (48), Tamika Catchings (27), Renna Davis (23), Diamond DeShields (21) and Meighan Simmons (20).
- Jackson's total of 16 in 2022-23 ranked as the ninth best single-season tally in school history.
- Only Chamique Holdsclaw (28, 24, 20), Candace Parker (21, 17), Bridgette Gordon (20, 18) and Tamika Catch-

Jordan Walker paced Tennessee with 119 assists in 2022-23, marking her second straight year of leading the team and eclipsing 100.

- ings (18) have more in a single season than Jackson's 16.
- Jackson has the eighth-highest winning percentage all-time among Lady Vols in games in which she's scored 20, with UT 14-2 (.875) in those contests.
- She logged eight straight contests of 20+ points from February 6 to March 4.
- The only Lady Vol with more consecutive 20+ point performances in a row is four-time All-American Chamique Holdsclaw, who strung nine together in 1997-98.

DIME-DROPPIN' CENTURY CLUB

- Tennessee featured three guards dishing out more than 100 assists in 2022-23, including Jordan Walker (119), Jordan Horston (117) and Jasmine Powell (116).
- It's UT's first 100-assist trio since Shanna Zolman (114), Alexis Hornbuckle (113) and Candace Parker (103) accomplished that feat during the 2005-06 season and only the sixth group to accomplish that feat.
- The other four groups were Catchings/Lawson/Clement in 1999-2000, Holdsclaw/Jolly/Clement in 1997-98, Sexton/Marsh/Marr in 1985-86 and Ostrowski/Collins/Hatmaker in 1983-84.
- Horston carded her third season of 100+ assists, while Powell and Walker each turned in their second.

DARBY FOR THREE

- Junior Tess Darby led the team in three-pointers with 70, which is the ninth-best total in UT history and the most since Ariel Massengale made 74 in 2014-15.

- Darby's career three-point field goal percentage (39.4) ranks No. 7 in the Tennessee record book.
- Her 126 career treys stand just seven shy of the UT all-time top 10.

STRONG ON THE GLASS

- Through three contests in 2022-23, UT was barely out-rebounding opponents (39.3-38.0). That margin wound up at +10.1 (42.9-32.8), out-boarding foes in 28 of 37 games, including 26 of the past 32.
- UT finished ranked No. 7 nationally and No. 3 in the SEC in rebound margin (10.1).
- UT was No. 12 nationally and No. 3 in the SEC in rebounds per game at 42.86.
- The Big Orange women finished No. 16 in the NCAA and No. 3 in the SEC for offensive boards per game (14.9).
- Tennessee allowed only 15 rebounds to Wright State on Dec. 11, which is second in UT history only to the 13 grabbed by Puerto Rico-Mayaguez on 11/29/02 and tied with the 15 by Ole Miss on 2/24/11.

2023 SEC POSTSEASON HONORS

- Rickea Jackson and Jordan Horston were members of the Coaches All-SEC First Team.
- Jackson made the USA TODAY Sports Network All-SEC First Team, while Horston was a second-team choice.
- Jackson and Horston were both recognized as members of the SEC All-Tournament Team.
- Tess Darby was named to the SEC Women's Basketball Community Service Team.

NATIONAL ACCOLADES

- Rickea Jackson was an All-America honorable mention choice by the AP, USBWA and WBCA.
- Jackson was a finalist for the Cheryl Miller Award.
- Jordan Horston was an All-America honorable mention selection by the AP and WBCA.

THE WNBA LOVES LADY VOLS

- Jordan Horston became the third Lady Vol in each of the past three seasons to be selected in the first round of the WNBA Draft.
- Horston went with the No. 9 overall pick to the Seattle Storm and made the AP and WNBA All-Rookie Teams.
- Rae Burrell was the No. 9 overall selection in the 2022 WNBA Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks, while Renna Davis went to the Minnesota Lynx in 2021.
- The Lady Vol basketball program has produced 65 professional players over the years, including 52 alumnae who went on to play in the WNBA. Of those 52 who continued their careers at the professional level in the WNBA, 45 were selected on Draft day and 20 were picked in the first round.
- Kellie Harper is one of only four active coaches and one of 10 coaches all-time (including the late Pat Summitt) to feature top-10 WNBA picks in three consecutive drafts. Summitt accomplished that in 2001, 2002 and 2003.

UT STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM AGAIN

- Nine Lady Vols were named to the 2022-23 SEC Academic Honor Roll.
- Eighteen of 29 Lady Vols playing for Kellie Harper have earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition a total of 38 times through 2022-23.
- Making the list in 2022-23 were returnees Tess Darby, Brooklynn Miles, Sara Puckett, Jessie Rennie, Karoline Striplin, Marta Suárez, Jordan Walker and Kaiya Wynn, as well as newcomer Edie Darby.
- The Lady Vols once again earned "Special Mention" status for their collective 3.048 grade point average as part of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's Academic Team Honor Roll.
- Tennessee was one of 29 NCAA Power Five schools, including only five from the SEC, to earn academic recognition from the WBCA.

In her final season on Rocky Top, Jordan Horston averaged 3.3 assists per game and became only the second Lady Vol in history to lead the team in that category four consecutive seasons, joining Dawn Marsh (1984-88) in that select club.

COLUMBUS, Ohio - No. 5/4 Tennessee dropped its season opener against No. 14/15 Ohio State, 87-75, on the road in Value City Arena at the Schottenstein Center.

Offensively, Tennessee shot 47 percent from the field and scored 44 points in the paint. UT held the advantage on the boards, out-rebounding OSU 40-30.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Jordan Horston logged her 14th career double-double with 20 points and 13 rebounds to go along with four assists and a steal. This also marked the 10th time in her career in which she eclipsed the 20-point margin.

Also playing in her first career game with the Lady Vols, Ricketa Jackson scored nine points and grabbed six rebounds. Tess Darby also added nine points behind three 3-pointers.

The Lady Vols gained the early advantage in the first quarter thanks to an 8-0 run and 50-percent shooting from the field. Horston and Jackson scored five points each as Tennessee pulled ahead 22-16.

In the second stanza, both teams went back and forth throughout the period. Powell sparked the Big Orange offense, dropping eight points and two assists in the quarter. Horston chipped in six points and five boards to help UT take a 41-33 lead into halftime.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Despite a double-double from Jasmine Powell and three 14-plus-point scorers, the No. 11/4 Tennessee Lady Volunteers fell to No. 12/11 Indiana, 79-67, at the Thompson-Boling Arena.

Powell turned in a strong night in just her second game played on The Summit, finishing with 16 points, 10 rebounds and four assists. It marks just the second career double-double for the senior transfer from Minnesota. The guard was the Lady Vols' leading scorer in the first half, sinking 11 points on 3-of-6 on 3-pointers.

Tennessee's leading scorer was Rieckea Jackson, who posted 17 points on 6-of-14 shooting and 2-of-3 marksmanship from downtown. She also made three free throw attempts in the game and was complimented by solid point play from Tamari Key, who also finished in double figures in scoring with 14 points. Key was perfect from the floor, converting all four layup tries in the game for the Big Orange (1-2).

Indiana (3-0) won the game with a balanced attack, having five different double-digit scorers, led by Sara Scalia and Mackenzie Holmes who both finished with 16. Holmes and Grace Berger both carded IU's first double-doubles of the season, as they both logged 10 boards. Berger finished with 13 points in her seventh career double-double, while Holmes is the team leader in the category, having 12 career games with multiple categories in double digits.

The night started off slow for the Lady Vols in the shooting department, but Powell supplied the early firepower by sinking a pair of 3-pointers. Tennessee lead 10-9 at the media timeout after back-to-back lay-ins from Jackson, but Indiana found its offensive rhythm, closing the quarter on a 12-4 run and leading 22-14 after 10 minutes of play.

The second stanza featured both sides getting shots and converting at a similar rate with the Hoosiers posting a 6-of-16 (37.5 percent) line, while UT was 6-of-18 (33.3 percent). The difference in the quarter was IU's ability to put it away from deep, doubling up the Lady Vols' total on 3-pointers with four makes to Tennessee's two.

Tennessee made a bid at climbing out of its hole in the middle minutes of the third quarter. The Lady Vols had a 5-for-5 field goal stretch that included a pair of makes from deep by Tessa Darby and was jump-started by an and-one from Jackson. While the team would outscore Indiana 20-17 in the quarter, the Lady Vols still faced an eight-point deficit entering the fourth period.

Jackson was a sparkplug in the final period and did all she could to lead the Big Orange to a comeback win. Tennessee cut the deficit to four at the 7:05 mark before the Hoosiers kicked into gear and brought their lead back up to 10. Jackson finished the quarter 2-of-3 from the floor with both buckets coming from beyond the arc. Indiana repelled any UT threats in the final 10 minutes as, going 8-of-13 (61.5 percent) from the floor and sinking all six shots from the free-throw line, closing out the final quarter with a 22-18 margin.

PARADISE ISLAND, Bahamas - No. 11/4 Tennessee took a commanding victory in its first game at the 2022 Bad Boy Mowers Women's Battle 4 Atlantic, defeating Rutgers, 94-54, in Imperial Arena.

The Lady Vols (2-2) shot a sizzling 53 percent from the floor, including 48 percent from behind the arc, and were led by senior forward Rieckea Jackson who poured in 26 points on 11-of-12 shooting while grabbing six boards in only 20 minutes of duty. Senior guards Jordan Horston and Jasmine Powell were also in double figures with 12 each, as well as redshirt-sophomore Marta Suárez who finished with 10. Powell and Suárez led UT with eight assists and seven rebounds, respectively.

All 15 of UT's active players saw the floor with 12 contributing at least two points toward the final score.

Kaylene Smikle was the high scorer for Rutgers (3-2) with 16 on the day. Kassandra Brown and Awa Sidibe were also in double figures with 12 and 10, respectively.

Tennessee jumped out early to a 7-0 lead started by back-to-back layups from Jackson and capped off with a trey from Powell. Rutgers got on the board just over two minutes into the game off a Brown layup. The Lady Vols went on to lead by as many as 13 before Smikle set off a 6-0 Scarlet Knight run in the closing minute of the quarter that trimmed the Lady Vol lead to 22-15.

RU whittled the Big Orange's lead down to six with a free throw at the start of the second period, but Tennessee responded with an 18-3 run spanning just three minutes and 40 seconds that put UT ahead 40-19 by the 5:13 mark. Eleven of those points were scored by Jackson who racked up 18 first-half points while going a perfect seven of seven from the floor.

Brown snapped the Rutgers scoring drought with a pair of free throws with just over five minutes remaining in the half. The Scarlet Knights scrawped back within 14 at 42-28 off a 7-0 run, but the Lady Vols closed out the half with 10 straight points punctuated by Powell's third 3-pointer of the game just before the buzzer, moving the halftime score to 52-28.

Both teams struggled offensively following halftime with neither scoring until almost 90 seconds into the quarter when Sidibe knocked down a jumper. Horston opened the second-half scoring for UT with a three on the fast break at the 8:12 mark and went on to score eight straight points, building Tennessee's lead up to 30 a minute and a half later.

Kai Carter knocked down a jumper for Rutgers with 6:40 left in the period, but Jackson hit back-to-back layups to set off a 22-0 Lady Vol scoring streak that spanned the rest of the quarter and was contributed to by six different UT players, sending the game into the final stanza with Tennessee up by 50 at 82-32.

Sidibe opened the fourth with a jumper to cut the deficit down to 48, but Jackson responded with a layup that was the first of six straight Tennessee points to give UT its largest lead of the game at 88-34 with 8:07 to play. The Lady Vol reserves got some quality minutes during the closing minutes, with sophomores Kaiya Wynn and Karoline Striplin both logging two buckets apiece as Tennessee road out the clock to a 94-54 victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Keeping control throughout the game, the No. 23/24-ranked Tennessee Lady Volunteers got back in the win column in their return to Rocky Top, defeating Colorado 69-51 at Thompson-Boling Arena.

It was a masterful showing on the offensive end for Jordan Horston and Riquea Jackson on their home court. The duo scored 23 and 20, respectively, shooting a combined 18-of-25 (72 percent) from the floor. Horston was UT's leading rebounder, securing eight boards, followed closely by Jackson who had four. Horston also tied for the team high in assists with Jasmine Powell, dishing out four vs. the Buffaloes.

As a team, the Lady Vols fired at a 48.1 percent clip, going 26-of-54, and were ruthless on the defensive side, swiping away 15 total steals. Jackson and Horston accounted for four each. Karoline Striplin was a force in the fourth quarter, swatting away three Colorado (4-2) shots in the final period alone. Tennessee did a superb job turning takeaways into points, as the Big Orange outscored CU 24-8 in fast break points and owned the paint to the tune of a 34-22 advantage.

The Orange & White never trailed in the game, building a lead as large as 24 points in the third quarter. Its stifling defense showed up in the box score, as the Buffaloes got up just 14 points in the first 20 minutes of action.

Colorado finished with three double-digit scorers, led by Kindyl Welta with 13. Jaylyn Sherrod totaled 11, while Aaronette Vonleh netted 10. Its leading scorer for the season at 17.2 ppg., Quay Miller, was held to only three by the Big Orange.

The night started quietly, but the Lady Vols picked up the pressure as the first quarter came to a close. Shortly after the media timeout, Tennessee rattled off a 9-2 run for the final 2:47 of the frame, highlighted by six Horston points and an emphatic tip-in with just two ticks left on the clock. After 10 minutes of play, the Big Orange led 17-9, thanks to 50 percent shooting from the floor (8-of-16) and 11 boards to Colorado's four.

Tennessee put the clamps on the Buffs in the second. CU would shoot just 2-of-13 (15.4 percent) from the field, scoring just five points in the quarter, tying for the ninth-fewest opponent points in a quarter in program history. On the offensive side, Jackson found her rhythm, cashing in six points and pulling down four boards. Tennessee entered the locker room at halftime holding a 30-14 lead.

Both offenses erupted in the third quarter, as the Lady Vols won the stanza, 27-21. Three UT players accounted for 25 of those points, as Horston had 10, complemented by eight from Jackson, who made all three shots from the field in the third, and seven from Jillian Hollingshead. Tennessee owned a 22-point advantage, 57-35, after three periods of play.

Colorado seemed to get it started on the offensive end, but Tennessee shut down any inklings of a rally quickly, swatting away five Buffalo shots and swiping another five in the final 10 minutes of play. Jordan Walker helped salt away the finish, getting to the line and knocking down four free throws. Tennessee allowed no field goals in the last 3:21 and forced the Buffs into four turnovers during that time frame, finishing off the victory back on Rocky Top.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - No. 23/24 Tennessee posted a season high in points, eclipsing the century mark to defeat Eastern Kentucky, 105-71, in a wire-to-wire victory at Thompson-Boling Arena.

The Lady Vols (4-4) were led by Jordan Horston, who became the 48th player in Lady Vol history to surpass 1,000 career points during her career. The 6-foot-2 senior guard finished with 14 points on 6-of-10 shooting to go along with eight rebounds, five assists, one steal and a block in the all-around performance.

In addition to her stat-stuffing effort, senior forward Riquea Jackson played a strong game, totaling 15 points, eight rebounds, five assists and a steal. Senior center Tamari Key posted one her strongest outings of the season, tallying 13 points, six rebounds and two blocks.

Offensively, Tennessee was on fire all day long, shooting 52 percent from the field and knocking down eight 3-pointers. The Lady Vols won the game in the paint, outscoring the Colonels (4-3, 70-32), and doubling them up on the glass, 62-31. Tennessee grabbed a campaign-best 25 offensive rebounds, which led to a 2022-high 34 second-chance points.

The Lady Vols dominated defensively, holding Eastern Kentucky to only 36 percent shooting, while forcing 15 turnovers. The Big Orange also notched eight steals and six blocks on the day.

UT's bench accumulated a season-high 58 points, including impressive performances from sophomore forward Jillian Hollingshead, who posted 13 points and a career-high eight rebounds, and sophomore forward Karoline Striplin, who shot 5-of-6 to post a season-best 10 points.

Tennessee picked up momentum early in the game, shooting 59 percent from the field in the first quarter, while five different Lady Vols knocked down a combined six 3-pointers. UT assisted on 9-of-13 shots and used a 19-4 run to take an early 33-11 lead. The Big Orange's 33 points in the frame marked its most in a quarter this season.

The Lady Vols dominated the paint in the second stanza, as Tennessee scored 24 of its 27 points down low. Striplin led the way with eight points on 4-of-4 shooting. UT continued sharing the ball well, assisting on 10 of its 13 shots in the period to take a 60-34 advantage into halftime.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Senior Jordan Horston recorded her second double-double of the season, as RV/RV Tennessee battled No. 9/9 Virginia Tech down to the wire in a nail-biter before coming up short in Thompson-Boling Arena, 59-56, in the 2022 Jimmy V Women's Classic.

The Lady Vols (4-5), who were playing without senior Rickea Jackson, graduate Jasmine Franklin and sophomore Jillian Hollingshead, were led by Horston who finished with a season-high 26 points and 11 rebounds. Seniors Tamari Key and Jasmine Powell logged 11 and nine points, respectively.

Kayara Traylor led four players in double figures for the Hokies (8-0). Tech jumped out to a 6-0 lead early before Powell got the Lady Vols on the board with a trey three and a half minutes into the game. VT then heated up from behind the arc to push the lead to 14-5 by the minute timeout. A 3-pointer by Traylor extended that lead to 12 before Horston drove into the lane to end the drought for UT. Key followed it up with a bucket from the block on the next possession to whittle the deficit down to single digits by the 3:32 mark, but the Hokies possessed a 23-13 advantage after one.

After Tennessee cut the gap to seven, another 3-pointer by the Hokies stretched the lead back to 10 by the midway point of the quarter. Horston answered, though, with a three of her own and followed it up with a layup to help the Lady Vols claw back within three with 2:14 to go. Amoree hit Virginia Tech's sixth and final three of the half with just over 90 seconds to play, but a pair of free throws by Horston cut the halftime gap to four, 34-30.

A Tennessee dry spell contributed to a 10-0 Hokies run and 46-34 lead early in the third. The Big Orange cut it back to 10 off a pair of free throws by Horston, and two more by Tess Darby on the next possession pulled UT within eight. After Virginia Tech's lead swelled to 10 again following a 3-pointer by Gregg at the 2:16 mark, Horston tallied to make it 51-43 after three.

Powell cut the deficit to six with a jumper 12 seconds into the fourth, but Traylor responded with a bucket on the other end, and the game became a back-and-forth affair with the score standing at 55-47 with five minutes left in the game. Both teams struggled to score following the final media timeout, but with 3:47 to go, Key blocked a shot under the VT basket, and Horston turned it into two points from the free-throw line on the other end. Powell found Key down low on UT's next possession, and Key beat her defender, hitting the short two to pull the Lady Vols within four at 55-51 with just under three minutes remaining. The Lady Vols got a couple looks on offense but couldn't convert before Liz Kitley hit a jumper to stretch the lead back to six with just under a minute to play. Key responded with a six-foot jumper on UT's next possession, and Horston came up with a steal with 30 seconds to play and hit the second of a pair of free throws to pull the Big Orange within three with 23 seconds on the clock.

Tennessee fouled Gregg on the inbound, and she hit one free throw, giving the Lady Vols the ball back with 15 seconds to play. Horston nailed a jumper within nine seconds left in the game to move UT within two at 58-56, and Powell tied the ball up on the inbound pass with the possession arrow in Tennessee's favor. Horston got an open jumper on the baseline, but it bounced long off the rim, and VT hit the second of a pair of free throws to hold Tennessee off with a final score of 59-56.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - The Lady Vols shot 59 percent from the floor to take a commanding 96-57 victory over Wright State in Thompson-Boling Arena. Four players were in double figures for Tennessee (6-5), with senior Rickea Jackson leading the charge with a 17-point effort on 6-of-9 shooting from the floor and a perfect 5-of-5 mark from the free-throw line. Sophomore Sara Puckett turned in a season-high 16 points, and senior Jordan Horston and graduate Jasmine Franklin each tallied 14. Franklin's total was also a season best, coming after missing the past two contests due to injury.

WSU (1-8) was led by Emily Chapman, who managed a game-high 18 points.

Karoline Striplin kicked off the scoring, netting a 10-foot jumper on UT's first possession, and Horston followed it up with a driving layup a minute later to give the Lady Vols a 4-0 advantage early. Makiya Miller got the Raiders on the board with an old-fashioned three-point play two minutes into the game, and the teams traded baskets until a trey by Isabelle Bolender tied the game at 12-all at the 5:07 mark. Tennessee responded with a 6-0 run over the next two minutes that put the Lady Vols ahead 18-12 with just under three minutes left in the first quarter. Chapman knocked down a three on Wright State's next possession, pulling the Raiders within three, a margin that would hold as the game went into the second period with UT leading 20-17.

The teams swapped buckets through the media timeout of the second quarter, with Tennessee stretching its lead to five on four occasions only to have WSU trim it back to two on the next play. With 4:58 left in the half, Tess Darby drained a three to set off a 10-3 Lady Vol run that moved the score to 40-30 by the 2:12 mark. Bryce Nixon hit a trey on the Raiders' next possession to cut it back to single digits, but Puckett closed out the half with four straight points to set the halftime score at 44-33.

UT came out with a hot hand in the third, shooting a scorching 84.6 percent on 11-of-13 shooting for the quarter. Horston scored the first basket of the half, and Darby followed it up with a three to extend the Lady Vol lead to 16 by the 8:14 mark. Bolender responded with a jumper for WSU, but Jordan Walker and Horston combined for five quick points to put the Lady Vols up by 19 a minute and a half later. The Raiders cut it back to 17 twice before Horston hit a layup to set off an 8-0 Big Orange run that stretched the advantage to 64-39 with 2:39 left in the quarter. Bolender ended the Wright State drought with a three-point play, but the Lady Vols strung together seven straight points to close out the period, capped off by a Franklin layup at the buzzer that sent the game into the final stanza with UT leading 71-42.

Franklin and Jackson combined for six straight points to extend the run to 13-0 and stretch Tennessee's lead to 35 points with 8:33 to play. The Raiders battled back with a 10-4 run fueled by back-to-back treys, but the Lady Vol reserves outscored WSU 10-3 over the final three minutes to coast to a 39-point victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - All 14 active Lady Vols contributed toward Tennessee's 99 points, as it cruised past UCF in Thompson-Boling Arena, 99-64.

With the 35-point triumph, head coach Kellie Harper's squad put its third straight decision in the win column and collected its fifth victory during a six-game home stand.

Tennessee (7-5) was led by senior Jordan Horston, who turned in 15 points and seven rebounds in pacing UT in scoring for the sixth time on the campaign. Freshman Justine Pissott was also in double figures, posting a career-high 14 points on 6/3 percent shooting from the floor. Graduate Jasmine Franklin tallied a season-best 11 rebounds to set the tone on the boards.

Three players were in double figures for the Knights (6-3), with Miya Burns, Sierra Godbolt, and Laila Jewett finishing with 12, 11, and 10 points, respectively.

Burns put UCF on the board first, knocking down a short jumper 18 seconds into the contest, but Tennessee took the lead two and a half minutes later, going up 6-4 off three straight buckets by Horston. The Knights reclaimed the lead off five quick points by Jewett, but an old-fashioned three-point play by Franklin put the Lady Vols on top 10-9 by the 4:13 mark. Horston and Pissott hit 3-pointers on back-to-back plays, while their squad limited UCF to two on the other end, giving UT its largest advantage of the quarter at 16-13. The Knights closed out the period with an 8-4 run to lead 21-20 at the end of the first.

Pissott opened the second quarter with another trey, and Horston followed it up with a layup to put UT ahead by four two minutes into play. Tennessee maintained that lead through the media timeout, but Burns knocked down a 3-pointer coming out of the break to pull UCF within one with 4:31 left in the half. Tennessee responded with a 5-0 run fueled by Jasmine Powell and Jordan Walker to lead 36-30 less than a minute later. Briana Harty responded with a three-point play on the other end, and the teams would trade baskets through the end of the half with UT's three-point advantage holding at 41-38.

Horston and Tess Darby combined for five points coming out of halftime, stretching the Lady Vols lead to eight just over a minute into the half. The Knights countered with a bucket on the other end, but Sara Puckett hit back-to-back treys to kick off a 14-2 Big Orange run that put UT ahead 60-42 by the 6:06 mark. Burns ended the UCF drought with a layup on the next play, and the game became a back-and-forth affair until Tess Darby hit a 12-foot jumper that was the first of eight straight Lady Vol points that put UT up by 24 with just under two minutes left in the third. That margin would hold until Rickea Jackson knocked down a trey before the buzzer to send the game into the final quarter with Tennessee ahead by 27 at 75-48.

Harty scored the first bucket of the fourth for Central Florida, but UT responded with a 14-0 run that was contributed to by six different Lady Vols in claiming a 89-50 lead with 6:10 to play. Godbolt and Brown strung together six straight points for the Knights to pull within 33, but that's as close as they'd get as Tennessee's reserves closed out the game to take a 99-64 victory.

STANFORD, Calif. -- Tennessee dropped a hard-fought contest at No. 2/2 Stanford, falling 77-70 in Maples Pavilion in a contest that featured 15 lead changes and seven ties.

Senior Jordan Horston was the top performer for UT (7-6), recording her third double-double of the season with 19 points, 10 rebounds and a season-high tying four steals. Senior Riceka Jackson and sophomore Sara Puckett were also in double figures with 14 and 11, respectively.

Stanford (11-1) was led by Cameron Brink, who finished with 21 points and 17 rebounds. Haley Jones and Hannah Jump added 19 each.

Tennessee forced a turnover on Stanford's first possession, and Horston turned it into two points on the other end to get UT on the board first. Jones scored SU's first points of the game on the next play before the Lady Vols were called for four fouls in the span of 40 seconds, resulting in two made free throws that gave Stanford its first lead of the game at 4-2 at the 7:45 mark. Back-to-back treys by sophomore Sara Puckett had UT back on top at 10-6 a little over a minute later, and the Lady Vols held on to a lead until two free throws off an administrative technical put Stanford ahead 11-10 with 5:21 to go in the quarter. The Cardinal went up three off a Brink layup on its next possession, and UT cut it down to one before a 5-1 run by Stanford stretched its lead to five. Jasmine Franklin and Horston each hit a free throw to close out the quarter, pulling the Big Orange within three at 20-17.

Graduate Jordan Walker drove into the lane and knocked down a layup five seconds into the second quarter to whittle the deficit down to one, and a jumper by Horston put the Lady Vols back on top a minute later. The Cardinal responded with a 6-0 run, but Puckett hit a long-range jumper to end the drought and drained her third three of the game 40 seconds later to pull UT within two at 28-26. Jones hit a layup for SU on the next play, but an old-fashioned three-point play by redshirt sophomore Marta Suarez cut it to one by the 4:53 mark. Agnes Emma Nnoppu hit the second of a pair of free throws for Stanford, but Suarez hit a second layup on the other side of the court to tie it up at 31-all with 3:37 left in the half. Another free throw put the Cardinal back on top, but a steal and score by Horston gave UT a one-point advantage with 2:12 to go. The game was tied again at 33 before Stanford went up by two off a Jump layup, but Horston hit a contested jumper at the buzzer to set the halftime score at 35-31.

Brink scored the first points of the second half from the free-throw line to put SU up by two, but junior Tess Darby answered with a trey on the other end to produce the eighth lead change of the game. There would be five additional lead changes and a tie over the next three and a half minutes before Darby stole the ball at half court and hit a fastbreak layup to put the Lady Vols ahead 46-44 at the media timeout. Senior Jasmine Powell converted on a pair of free throws following the timeout, and senior Riceka Jackson followed it up with buckets on back-to-back possessions to extend UT's lead to 52-44 with 3:37 left in the third. With the teams trading buckets, Brink had the final word in the third, knocking down a three at the buzzer to cut UT's lead to 58-53.

Brink struck again to start the fourth, scoring four of six straight Stanford points that gave the Cardinal the lead at 59-58 with 7:58 left in the game. A 3-pointer by Jump extended SU's lead to four before Franklin hit a jumper with 6:35 on the clock to end the skid. Stanford launched into an 8-1 run to lead by nine, and by 10 with a minute to go via a trey by Jump. Horston and Jackson combined for five points in the final 44 seconds of the game while UT limited SU to two free throws to account for the final score.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Tennessee closed out the non-conference portion of its schedule with a decisive 92-53 victory over Wofford in Thompson-Boling Arena.

Three Lady Vols (8-6) were in double figures, with senior Riceka Jackson leading the team with 16 points, and senior Jordan Horston and junior Tessa Darby finishing with 13 and 11, respectively. Graduate Jasmine Franklin led the team in rebounding with 10 boards on the night while adding eight points, and freshman Justin Pissott notched a season-high three 3-pointers as seven Lady Vols recorded points from deep.

Tennessee tied its season-best of 12 treys against Wofford, shooting 43 percent from beyond the arc, while holding Woff to a season-low 53 points on the night.

For the Terriers (9-4), Jackie Carman scored a game-high 17 points. Horston kicked things off for the Big Orange, knocking down two jumpers and a 3-pointer to score the first seven points of the game. Tennessee quickly picked up momentum from deep with three more Lady Vols hitting 3-pointers to fuel a 22-0 run. UT held the Terriers to just four points in the first quarter, tying the third quarter of the Rutgers game for the fewest points Tennessee has given up in a quarter this season.

The Big Orange continued to dominate offensively in the second quarter, shooting 50 percent from beyond the arc. Pissott netted three 3-pointers in just over a minute, while Sara Puckett drained two threes to stretch the score to 49-19 by the break. At halftime, Jackson and Pissott led the Lady Vols with nine points each, while Puckett followed with eight points, two rebounds and two steals.

The third quarter was a group effort inside the paint, with six Lady Vols contributing to a field goal percentage of 63 percent. Darby drilled two threes early in the period, marking her seventh game this season with multiple threes in a contest. Defensively, Tennessee notched three steals and a block, which led to five additional points for UT.

Kaia Wynn rounded out the final quarter for the Lady Vols, posting a season-high seven points and two rebounds. Tennessee's defense held the Terriers without a 3-pointer in the fourth, while limiting their field goal percentage to 23 percent. UT closed out the game with a strong showing at the free-throw line, hitting 11-of-14 free throws to secure a 92-53 victory over WC.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. - Senior Riceca Jackson had 28 points and nine boards to propel Tennessee to a 77-67 road win over Florida to open SEC play. Jackson finished 10 of 13 from the field and eight of nine from the free-throw line, tallying 15 of her points in the second half on 5-of-5 shooting from the field and 5-of-6 accuracy at the charity stripe.

The Lady Vols (9-6, 0-1 SEC) also got 15 points from senior guard Jordan Horston, who made up for first-half foul trouble with 12 second-half points on 5-of-9 shooting over the final 20 minutes.

Florida (11-3, 0-1 SEC), which was receiving votes in the USA TODAY Coaches Poll, was led by 21 points from Alberne Rimdal.

Tennessee overcame an uncharacteristic 14 first-half turnovers against an aggressive Gators defense. It did so by shooting 48 percent for the game, limiting UF to only three 3-pointers and outworking the home team on the glass, 45-27. UT's reserves also produced in a big way, outscoring Florida, 46-3, thanks to Jackson's 28-point effort in 25 minutes off the bench.

The teams traded baskets through a choppy opening five minutes. A Jackson turnaround jumper in the paint put Tennessee up 6-4, before Florida's Rimdal tied it at six-all heading into the media timeout at the 4:47 mark. The Gators put together an 8-2 run out of that break, forging a 14-8 lead with 1:20 to go in the quarter. A 6-1 counter capped by a layup with two seconds left by Karoline Stripin, however, pulled UT within one, 15-14, after the first period.

Juniior Tess Darby ended a 5-0 UF run with a jumper on the next trip down the court, and thanks to a Jackson layup and old-fashioned three-point play, followed by a Darby three, the Lady Vols were able to seize the lead back at 27-25 at the 4:59 media break. Jackson continued building her 13-point halftime ledger with a put-back and jumper to push the advantage to 31-25, forcing UF to call a timeout with 2:56 left in the half.

The Gators collected themselves and evened the score at 31 on a bucket by Rimdal, and two more from Deans. Jasmine Powell's old-fashioned three-point play with 57 ticks left pushed her team back in front, 34-31, and a pair of Jackson free throws with 26 seconds left gave UT a 36-31 lead at the half.

Tennessee built its advantage to nine on a Horston layup and Sara Puckett turnaround jumper, 40-31, in the first minute and a half of the third quarter. The Lady Vols found the lead to 13 twice before taking a 56-46 margin into the final frame.

A Puckett layup gave UT a 12-point fourth-quarter lead, 58-46, which Tennessee maintained through a UT-called timeout at the 8:45 mark. Florida kept fighting back, though, trimming the lead to six on three occasions and five on two others, but layups by Horston at the 6:36 and 6:05 marks turned back the Gators. A pair of free throws by Jackson with 4:53 remaining and by Jordan Walker with 4:20 to go also stemmed a determined UF squad and help UT cling to a 68-61 advantage.

After Rickards drew a foul and hit one of two free throw attempts for Florida to cut the gap to 68-62 with 4:12 left on the clock, Tennessee was able to finish off the Gators by dropping in five of an 11-of-14 fourth-quarter free throw effort along with layups from Jackson and Franklin to close the game by outscoring the hosts, 9-5, down the stretch for the 10-point triumph.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Tennessee never trailed in cruising to an 89-76 victory over #R/VNR Alabama in front of a crowd of 8,214 in Thompson-Boling Arena to record the women's basketball program's 500th win in the 36th year of the venue.

The Lady Vols (10-6, 2-0 SEC) shot 54 percent on the day with four players landing in double figures and three setting new season highs. Senior Riceca Jackson was the top scorer for UT with 22 on the day, while junior Tess Darby, sophomore Jlilan Hollingshead and graduate Jordan Walker all posted season bests with 16, 15 and 15, respectively. Senior Jordan Horston narrowly missed a double-double with nine points and a career-high-tying nine assists.

Megan Abrams was the leading scorer for UA (12-3, 1-1 SEC) with a game-high 24 points, and Loyal McQueen was close behind with 21.

Tennessee, ranked No. 18 in the NCAA's NET rankings, won its third straight game and posted its eighth triumph in its last 10 contests by defeating the No. 15 team in the NET, Alabama, meanwhile, saw its 10-game victory string come to an end on The Summit.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Tennessee improved to 3-0 in Southeastern Conference play, taking an 89-69 win over Mississippi State in Thompson-Boling Arena.

Senior guard Jordan Horston led UT (11-6, 3-0 SEC), doubling new season highs of 27 points and 14 rebounds to post her fourth double-double of the 2022-23 campaign. She nearly carded a "D-" in the fourth quarter alone, tallying 13 points and nine boards in the final frame. Fellow senior Riceka Jackson also had a hot hand with 18 points on the night, while junior Tess Darby finished with 13 points on four made 3-pointers.

The Lady Vols, who are receiving votes in the AP Poll this week, won their fourth straight contest and claimed victory for the ninth time in the past 11 outings.

Jessika Carter and Debraisha Powe were the top scorers for MSU (12-4, 1-2 SEC) with 21 apiece.

Darby put Tennessee on the board first, sinking a long-range three 18 seconds into the game. Back-to-back buckets by Mississippi State gave the Bulldogs a brief lead, but Horston and Darby combined for seven straight points to put the Lady Vols ahead 10-4 just over three minutes into play. MSU rallied back within one by the 3:49 mark, but UT closed out the quarter with a 10-4 run to lead 25-18 at the end of the first.

Mississippi State pulled within six on two occasions in the opening minutes of the second period, but with 7:59 left in the half, Sara Puckett drained a three and Jasmine Powell followed it up by drawing a foul on a fast-break layup to add another three points and extend UT's lead to 12. A minute and a half later, three straight baskets by the Bulldogs sliced that lead in half, but Horston responded with an eight-foot jumper with 3:46 to go to end the drought for Tennessee. Powe added five quick points for MSU, but Jackson closed out the half with six straight points to send UT in the break with a 41-32 lead.

The Bulldogs cut it back down to single digits on their first possession of the second half with a Powe 3-pointer. She followed it up with another tray on the next play, but Darby answered with a three of her own on the other end to move the score to 44-38 just over a minute into the third. A pair of free throws by Smith cut UT's lead back to four, and the teams traded buckets with each team scoring on its next three possessions before MSU pulled within two off an old-fashioned three-point play by Carter at the 6:32 mark. Jackson and Darby responded for the Lady Vols, combining for seven points over the span of 90 seconds to put the Big Orange on top by nine with 3:56 left in the third. The Lady Vols maintained a comfortable lead through the end of the period, taking a 61-54 lead into the fourth.

Tennessee opened its lead up to 66-56 with 7:25 left in the game, but the Bulldogs posted a 6-0 run to pull within four a minute and a half later. Jordan Walker ended the slump for UT with a tray at the 5:37 mark, but MSU was back within four 90 seconds later. The Lady Vols answered with a 7-0 run fueled by Horston, who scored nine of UT's final 11 points. The Bulldogs twice cut the deficit to single-digits but would get no closer as Tennessee closed out the game with an 11-point victory.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Tennessee secured its first win in Southeastern Conference women's basketball play, defeating Vanderbilt in Memorial Gymnasium, 84-71.

Three players were in double figures for the Lady Vols (12-6, 4-0 SEC). Senior small forward Riceka Jackson was the top scorer for UT with 23 points, while sophomore power forward Karoline Stripin posted a career-high 13 and senior guard Jordan Horston turned in 13 points to go along with eight assists and eight boards.

The Big Orange built its win streak to five games and claimed victory for the 10th time in the past 12 contests. Tennessee, which beat VU for the 15th time in the past 16 meetings in the series, remains tied atop the SEC standings along with South Carolina, LSU, Arkansas and Ole Miss.

The Commodores (9-9, 0-4 SEC), who fell to their in-state rivals at Memorial Gymnasium for the eighth-straight occasion, were led by Ciaja Harrison who had a game-high 27 points. Marnelle Garraud and Sacha Washington were also in double figures with 19 and 13, respectively.

Vanderbilt took the lead on its first possession with a layup as the shot clock expired. Stripin responded with a layup on the other end, but UT struggled to find its rhythm offensively, going without another basket until Stripin struck again at the 6:15 mark to tie the game up at 4-4. Jackson knocked down a pair of free throws a minute later to give UT its first lead of the game, and Darby extended it to five with an NBA-range 3-pointer with 3:39 to go in the quarter. Another three by Justine Pissott made it a 10-0 Tennessee run before Washington hit a layup to make the score 12-6 by the 2:11 mark. The Commodores narrowed the gap to three with a quick 3-pointer, but the Lady Vols closed out the period with six unanswered points to lead 18-9 at the buzzer.

Vanderbilt opened the second quarter with a 9-2 run fueled entirely by 3-pointers to pull within two with 7:31 left in the half. Stripin ended the skid for UT on the next play, and Darby hit her second tray of the game 30 seconds later to put the Lady Vols on top 25-17. VU scrapped back within four off another three by Garraud, but Tennessee responded, building its lead up to 11 before a Vanderbilt layup in the final second of the half set the halftime score at 38-29.

Jordan Walker drained a three at the start of the second half to become the fourth Lady Vol to hit from behind the arc. The teams traded baskets until a 3-pointer by Darby set off a 10-2 run that gave Tennessee a 53-35 lead by the 4:14 mark. Harrison ended the drought with a 3-pointer to kick start a 7-1 run that had the Commodores back within 12 points a minute later. A layup by Kaiya Wynn swung the momentum back in Tennessee's direction, as the Lady Vols went on to outscore Vandy 8-1 over the span of a minute and a half to lead by 19 with 1:11 left in the third. Both teams had some success at the free-throw line in the final minute, and the game went into the last stanza with the Lady Vols leading 65-48.

Jasmine Powell opened the fourth with a layup, and Sara Puckett followed it up with a pair of free throws to put UT on top by 21 with 8:43 left in the game. Garraud heated up for VU, scoring eight points of a 16-4 Vandy run that pulled the Commodores back within 11 with just over four minutes to play. Stripin scored underneath on the inbounds play, but back-to-back buckets by Harrison had cut UT's lead to single digits less than a minute later at 75-67. The Commodores would hang around within eight points until five straight points by Jackson in the final minutes iced the game, and Tennessee took an 84-71 victory in Nashville.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Tennessee used a 26-16 third-quarter burst to pull away and claim a 74-56 victory over Florida in Thompson-Boling Arena to remain undefeated in Southeastern Conference women's basketball play.

The Lady Vols won their eighth straight game and opened 7-0 in SEC play in the second year in a row. Those league starts are the best by UT since opening 13-0 in 2014-15.

Seniors Rickea Jackson and Jordan Horston led UT (15-6, 7-0 SEC), with Jackson turning in a game-high 16 points and Horston logging a double-double of 14 points and 10 rebounds.

UF (12-7, 1-5 SEC) was led by Ra Shaya Kyle and Kirsten Deans with 13 points each. Alberta Rimald, who had 21 points the last time these squads met, was limited to 10 this time around.

Tennessee picked up two offensive rebounds on its first possession before Horston converted on a short jumper to get the Big Orange on the board 45 seconds into the game. A minute later, Florida took its first lead off a layup by Faith Duf. The Lady Vols tied it up twice before Florida went on a 7-2 run to lead 15-10 with under a minute left in the first. Jasmine Franklin hit a pair of free throws cut it to two, and Jasmine Powell got off a three at the buzzer with a chance to tie the game, but the shot missed long, and the Gators took a 15-12 lead into the second quarter.

Jackson hit a layup and Jordan Walker followed it with another on UT's next possession to give the Lady Vols a one-point advantage just over a minute into the second period. The Gators reclaimed the lead once more before Tennessee launched into a 9-0 run set off by a Darby tray that put the Lady Vols on top by a margin of eight with 2:32 left in the half. Deans pulled the Gators within five with a long-range 3-pointer at the 1:40 mark, and she would trim the deficit down to four on UF's next possession with an old-fashioned three-point play. Darby scored the last points of the half with a layup off an entry pass from Horston to set the halftime score with UT leading 31-25.

The Gators opened the second half with a 5-2 run over the first minute and a half to pull within three, but Horston scored on consecutive plays to jump start a 9-0 run that had the Lady Vols ahead by 12 at the 6:28 mark. UF cut it back to single digits twice over the next three minutes, but eight unanswered points had Tennessee up 16 at the 2:09 mark. Kyle ended the drought for UF with a layup, but UT responded with back-to-back buckets by Jackson and Powell to lead by 18 with a minute left in the quarter. Duf converted on a pair of free throws before the horn sounded, and the game went into the final frame with Tennessee leading 57-41.

The Lady Vols opened the fourth with an 8-2 run to lead by 22 with 6:07 left in the game. Nina Richards hit a tray a minute later to pull the Gators within 19, but a pair of free throws by Franklin had UT back up by 21 in less than 30 seconds. Florida strung together four straight points from the free-throw line, but a pair of buckets by Justine Pissott in the closing minutes moved the score to 74-54 with 1:24 to play. The Gators logged the last points of the game on a jumper by Rimald, bringing the final score to 74-56.

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Tennessee used an 8-0 run over the last minute and a half to erase a five-point deficit and seize a 68-65 win over Missouri at Mizzou Arena, keeping its SEC record perfect at 8-0 and winning its ninth-straight game.

The 8-0 record in league play is UT's best start to the SEC schedule since the Lady Vols opened at 13-0 in 2014-15 en route to a 15-1 league record and regular-season title.

Sophomore Sara Puckett was 7-of-9 on the day in Mizzou Arena and went a perfect 3-for-3 from behind the arc, hitting a game-tying tray with 40 seconds on the clock to finish with a season-high 17 points for Tennessee (16-6, 8-0 SEC). Senior Rickea Jackson added 15 points, pushing her team ahead by three with a second left by scoring inside, drawing a foul and sinking the free throw.

Missouri (14-6, 3-4 SEC) was led by Hayley Frank, who posted a game-high 26 points and Jayla Kelly who finished with 14.

Jackson won the title and wasted no time getting UT on the board, sinking a three just seconds into the game. She went on to start the contest 3-of-3 from the floor to propel UT to an 11-6 lead by the midway point of the first. Following the media timeout, Jasmine Franklin scored five points over two possessions to put the Lady Vols up by 10 at the 3:30 mark. Frank converted on a three-point play on Mizzou's next possession, and Ashton Judd knocked down a tray on the next play to narrow the score to 16-12 just over a minute later. Puckett responded with a 3-pointer on the other end, and Jillian Hollingshead followed it up with back-to-back buckets to put the Lady Vols up by 11 before MU closed out the quarter with a pair of free throws to make it 23-14.

The Tigers opened the second quarter with five straight points to pull within four at 8:57 left in the half. A jumper by Karoline Stripin on the next play gave UT a six-point advantage, and the teams traded buckets through the 3:48 mark when Darby and Stripin scored on consecutive possessions to put the Lady Vols up 33-25. A Frank bucket at the 1:50 mark cut UT's lead to 33-27 at the half.

Frank hit a jumper 16 seconds into the second half and went on to score eight points of a 10-2 Missouri run spanning two and a half minutes that gave the Tigers their first lead of the game at 37-35. Jackson ended the skid for UT, floating through the lane to hit a six-foot jumper and tie the game at 37-37. Mizzou went on to lead by as many as seven before an 11-0 Tennessee scoring streak had the Big Orange leading 51-47 by the end of the quarter.

MU put together an 8-2 run to open the fourth, reclaiming the lead at 55-53 with 7:34 left in the game. Puckett responded with a three from the top of the arc in what would be the first of four lead changes over the next three minutes before Frank drained a tray with 3:28 on the clock to put the Tigers up 62-58. Franklin drove into the lane and went up strong to hit a layup with 1:46 left in the contest, but a 3-pointer by Frank on the other end gave Missouri a five-point advantage with 1:25 to go. Jordan Walker came up with a steal under UT's basket and converted on the layup, and Puckett banked in her third tray of the game with 40 seconds remaining to even the score at 65.

Tennessee's defense got the stop on the next possession, as Puckett came up with the rebound, and Jasmine Powell found Jackson in the lane who hit a turnaround jumper and drew the foul with 11 seconds left on the clock, converting on the free throw to put the Lady Vols up by three. Missouri was able to have a three up at the buzzer, but it clanked off the backboard, and the Lady Vols claimed a 68-65 win in Mizzou Arena.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Senior Jordan Horston poured in a game-high 27 points, but it wasn't enough to overcome a sharp-shooting No. 5/4 UConn squad that hit 57 percent from behind the arc in defeating Tennessee, 64-67, in front of a crowd of 13,804 at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Horston added seven rebounds to go with her season-high-tying 27 points to lead the Lady Vols (16-7, 8-0 SEC). Senior Riceka Jackson finished with 13 on the night, while sophomore Jillian Hollingshead managed 11 points and a team-high nine rebounds.

UConn (19-2, 11-0 Big East) was led by Lou Lopez Senechal and Aaliyah Edwards, who turned in 26 and 25, respectively. Nika Muhl dished out double-digit assists, logging 14 in the game.

Connecticut opened the contest with a Muhl 3-pointer, but Tennessee countered on the other end when Karoline Striplin found Jackson breaking behind the defense for a wide-open layup. Consecutive buckets by Edwards sparked a 10-3 UConn run that had the Huskies on top 13-5 by the 6:15 mark. Striplin ended the skid with a long-range jumper 20 seconds later, but Connecticut established an 11-point lead with just under four minutes left in the first. Hollingshead drained her third bucket in a row to cut it down to nine, but seven straight points by UConn opened it up to 29-13 with 2:03 on the clock. The Huskies maintained a 16-point lead through the buzzer, leading 33-17 at the end of one.

Neither team scored for nearly two-minutes at the start of the second until Jordan Walker got the steal and turned it into a layup on the other end. Horston followed it up with another steal on the next possession, finding Jackson for the layup to cut the deficit to 12. By the 3:40 mark the Lady Vols had whittled UConn's lead down to single digits, pulling within nine at 40-31 off a trey by Horston. That three set off an 8-0 run by Tennessee to close out the half, setting the halftime score at 40-36.

Horston got her own rebound to score the first points of the second half, but three straight points from the free-throw line had the Huskies on top by five just over a minute into the third. Jackson responded by driving into the lane for a short-range jumper, but seven quick points put the Huskies up 50-41 with 6:30 left in the third. Nine seconds later, Puckett nailed a three to narrow the deficit to six, but back-to-back buckets by Lopez Senechal had UConn back on top by 11 at the 4:40 mark. Connecticut went on to lead by as many as 15 before six straight Lady Vol points by Horston cut it back to 11. A pair of free throws by Edwards before the horn sent the game into the final stanza with UT trailing 68-55.

Just 10 seconds into the fourth, Horston got a steal and a score, and the contest became a back-and-forth affair until five straight points by Dorika Juhasz and Lopez Senechal put the Huskies up by 14. Back-to-back baskets by Horston and Jackson pulled UT within 12 with five minutes left in the game, but that's as close as Tennessee would get, as UConn closed out the contest with a 7-2 run to win 84-67.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - The Lady Vols took an 83-76 victory over a scrappy Auburn squad in front of a crowd of 9,039 in Thompson-Boling Arena.

The win is UT's 20th of the season, marking the program's 46th 20-win campaign. Head coach Kellie Harper carded her 10th 20-win campaign, including three in four seasons on Rocky Top with the 2020-21 total of victories limited by canceled contests due to COVID-19.

Prior to the game, Tennessee recognized seven Lady Vols in a Senior Day ceremony. Riquea Jackson, Jordan Horston, Tamari Key, Jessie Rennie, Jasmine Powell, Jordan Walker and Jasmine Franklin were all recognized at half court for their contributions during their Big Orange careers.

Tennessee (20-9, 12-2 SEC) was led by Jackson, who poured in 27 points, hitting an impressive 12 of 15 shots from the floor. Horston also put up big numbers with 19 points and eight rebounds, while junior Tessa Dwyer knocked down a season-best five three-pointers to tie her career high of 17 points.

Honesty Scott-Grayson was the leading scorer for the Tigers (14-12, 4-10 SEC) with 23 points on the day. Aicha Coulibaly turned in 15 points, and Sanaia Wells and Romi Levy each finished with 10.

The Lady Vols jumped out to a 4-2 lead off buckets by Karoline Stripin and Jackson, but Auburn took its first lead three minutes into the game at 6-4 off a fast-break layup. Thirty seconds later a trey by Darby put Tennessee on top 9-8, and four straight points by Jillian Hollingshead stretched that margin to five by the 5:21 mark. The Tigers responded with an 11-0 run set off by a long-range two-pointer by Wells to lead 19-13 with 2:33 to go in the first. A pair of free throws by Hollingshead and a three by Darby pulled UT back within one, but AU outscored Tennessee 5-2 in the final minute to own a 24-20 advantage at the end of one.

Jackson scored the first points of the second period, and Darby followed it up with her third trey of the game to reclaim the lead for UT at 25-24. Tennessee turned that momentum into an 11-0 run to go ahead 31-24 with 6:35 left in the half. Coulibaly ended the drought for Auburn with a layup, but Horston answered with a layup on the other end, and Tennessee maintained its seven-point advantage until the last 30 seconds of the half when a pair of free throws by Mar'haun Bostic pulled AU within five for a halftime score of 39-34.

Coulibaly and Horston opened the second half with two straight buckets for their respective teams, and Auburn crept within three points off a pair of free throws by Wells before Darby responded with five points on back-to-back buckets to give UT a 48-40 cushion by the 6:45 mark. Two and a half minutes later, the Tigers reclaimed the lead, going up 51-50 off an 11-2 run fueled primarily by Kharissa Richardson. The Lady Vols bounced back with six straight points by Jackson that jumpstarted an 8-0 run that put Tennessee ahead 58-51 with a minute left in the third. Five quick points by Coulibaly trimmed UT's lead down to two, but Powell scored the last two points of the period from the free-throw line to send the game into the fourth with the Big Orange on top, 60-56.

Jackson stretched UT's lead to six with a bucket 11 seconds into the final stanza, but a 3-pointer by Wells had the Tigers back within three a minute later. The Tigers would pull within three again at the 4:14 mark, but that's as close as they'd get as Jackson and Horston combined for 22 of UT's 23 fourth-quarter points to lead the Lady Vols to an 83-76 victory on Senior Day.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - The Lady Vols led by as many as 10 points in the first quarter, but No. 1 South Carolina bounced back and staved off a second-half rally to earn a 73-60 victory at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Senior Riquea Jackson was the top scorer for Tennessee (20-10, 12-3 SEC) with 21 points and five rebounds. Fellow senior Jordan Horston turned in a double-double with 14 points and 11 rebounds, and sophomore Karoline Stripin also had a double-digit outing with 11 points on the night.

Unbeaten South Carolina (28-0, 15-0 SEC), which won its 34th straight stretch, was led by Zia Cooke with 19 points. Brea Beal posted a double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds, and Kierra Fletcher and Aiyah Boston had 15 and 11 points, respectively.

Jackson scored the first bucket of the game on a driving layup, and Tennessee held South Carolina without a point for nearly two minutes before Boston scored on back-to-back plays to give USC a 4-2 lead with 7:47 on the clock. Horston knotted it up on the next possession for the first of four ties before UT reclaimed the lead at 10-8 a minute and a half later off a pair of free throws by Jackson. The Gamecocks responded with a layup on the other end, but Jillian Hollingshead hit a jumper that set off a 9-0 run, putting the Lady Vols on top 19-10 at the end of one.

Raven Johnson converted on a three-point play on South Carolina's first possession of the second quarter, and Kamilla Cardoso followed it up with a layup to pull the Gamecocks within four by the 9:15 mark. Stripin and Jackson combined for four quick points to kick off a 7-1 Lady Vol run capped off by a trey from Jordan Walker that put UT ahead 26-16 with 6:37 left in the half. Cooke responded with eight straight points to jumpstart a 17-0 run that sent the Gamecocks ahead 33-26 with 33 seconds left in the half. Stripin ended the drought for Tennessee with a three before the buzzer to send the game into halftime with South Carolina leading 33-29.

The Gamecocks stretched their lead to eight before Horston scored UT's first points of the second half with a jumper at the 8:17 mark. Jackson followed that with a pair of free throws on the next play to trim USC's margin down to four, but South Carolina answered with a 9-0 run to go up 46-33 with 5:37 to go in the third. Horston ended the Tennessee skid with a layup as she and Jackson combined for eight straight points to move the Lady Vols within 10 with just over three minutes left in the third. USC closed out the period with an 8-0 run to take a 59-41 advantage into the final stanza.

Stripin knocked down her second trey of the game to kick off the fourth, and Jackson added a layup on the next play to pull UT within 13. Victoria Saxton hit a pair of free throws on the other end, but Jackson and Stripin scored five quick points to cut South Carolina's advantage to 10 with 7:55 left in the game. USC maintained its 10-point lead until consecutive buckets by Tessa Dwyer and Hollingshead pulled UT within eight at 65-57 by the 4:14 media timeout. Tennessee stayed within single digits through the 4:14 mark, but a 6-0 USC run put the game out of reach.

LEXINGTON, KY. - The Lady Vols cruised to an 83-63 victory over Kentucky to wrap up the regular season in Memorial Coliseum.

Tennessee (21-10, 13-3 SEC), which picked up its first win in Lexington since 2017 and first victory at Memorial since 2015, finished with its highest conference win total since going 15-1 in 2014-15. The Big Orange closed the regular season winning four of their last five.

Senior Riceka Jackson was the top scorer for UT with 21 points and seven rebounds. Sophomore Jillian Hollingshead had a strong outing with 15 points on 88-percent shooting from the floor, and sophomore Karoline Stripin and graduate Jordan Walker were also in double figures, finishing with 12 and 10, respectively. Senior Jasmine Powell led the team in assists, dishing out a season-high-tying eight.

Maddie Scherr turned in a game-high-27 points to lead UK (10-18, 2-14 SEC), while Robyn Benton managed 17, and Jada Walker posted 10 on the day.

Stripin had the hot hand to start the game, scoring the first seven points of a 13-0 UT run spanning the initial four minutes and 29 seconds. Scherr converted on a layup to get the Wildcats on the board at the 5:31 mark, but back-to-back fast-break layups by Jordan Horston and Walker had the Lady Vols on top 17-2 with 4:39 to go in the first. Benton knocked down a three on UK's next possession, and UT responded with six straight points to go up 18 before a 10-0 run had the Wildcats back within eight with less than a minute to go in the opening quarter. Hollingshead got off the last shot of the period, hitting a 10-foot jumper to give UT a 25-15 lead at the end of one.

Benton drained a long-range two on Kentucky's first possession of the second period, but Tessa Darby answered with a trey on the other end, and the game became a back-and-forth affair through the media timeout, where UT held a 35-25 lead. Walker drained a three coming out of the break, and Powell found Hollingshead breaking to the basket on the next play to give the Lady Vols a 40-25 advantage with 3:45 left in the half. Kentucky responded by whittling the deficit down to within 13 in the closing minutes, but an old-fashioned three-point play by Jackson sent the game into halftime with UT leading 45-28.

Jada Walker opened the scoring in the second half with a layup to pull UK within 15, but Tennessee responded with six straight points to force a Kentucky timeout with 7:21 on the clock. A layup by Jackson stretched UT's run to 8-0 following the timeout before Scherr ended the skid for the Wildcats and made the score 53-32 at the 6:08 mark. Two and a half minutes later, the Lady Vols were up 25 off back-to-back buckets by Jackson and Powell. Scherr responded with a three-point play, but Tennessee outscored the Wildcats 9-4 over the last three minutes to take a 68-41 lead into the fourth quarter.

Jackson found Horston on the fast break to extend UT's lead to 29 at the outset of the fourth, but Scherr scored seven straight points to jumpstart a 17-4 run that pulled the Wildcats back within 16 with 3:30 to go in the game. Hollingshead ended the drought with a jumper and scored three consecutive buckets as UT went on to outscore the Wildcats 9-5 in the final minutes to take an 83-63 win on the road.

GREENVILLE, S.C. - Senior Riceka Jackson poured in 16 fourth-quarter points en route to a season-high 34 points, leading third-seeded Tennessee to an 80-71 victory over 14th-seeded Kentucky in the quarterfinals of the SEC Tournament at Bon Secours Wellness Arena.

Senior Jordan Horston was also in double figures for UT (22-10, 13-3 SEC) with 21 points, seven rebounds and seven assists, while junior Tessa Darby turned in 12 points on 80 percent shooting from behind the arc. It marked the second time this season that Jackson and Horston scored 20+ points in the same contest, with the Colorado game being the other occasion.

Kentucky (12-19, 2-14 SEC) was led by Robyn Benton with 20 points. Maddie Scherr, Jada Walker and Ajae Petty were also in double digits with 13, 12 and 11, respectively.

Tennessee won the tip and quickly went to work, scoring six straight points before the Wildcats got on the board with a jumper at the 7:19 mark. Fifty seconds later, Darby hit the first of three first-quarter treys to put Tennessee up 9-2, and Jordan Walker drew a charge that Jackson turned into two points on the other end to stretch that lead to nine points four minutes into the contest. Both teams settled in offensively, scoring on alternate possessions until a Scherr three set off an 8-0 run that had UK within two at 17-15 with 2:45 to go in the first. The Lady Vols responded with 10 unanswered points before Petty hit a layup at the buzzer to set the score at 27-17 at the end of one.

Kentucky crept back within single digits off a jumper by Amiya Jenkins to start the second period, but Jackson hit a layup on the next play in the first of nine straight Big Orange points that put the Lady Vols on top 36-19 with 4:01 to go in the first half. Scherr ended the drought for UK with a trey at the 2:46 mark, and Blair Green followed it up with another on the Wildcats' next possession as UK closed out the half with a 10-2 run for a halftime score of 38-30.

Benton scored the first basket of the second half to pull UK within six, and Horston answered with a jumper in the paint on the other end. Adeola Adeyeye once again cut it to six at the 7:42 mark, but back-to-back buckets put UT on top by 10 a minute later. The Lady Vols maintained that advantage until Benton and Petty combined for a 4-1 run that moved the Wildcats within seven with 2:28 left in the third. Horston hit a layup on UT's next possession, but a 6-0 streak had UK within three two minutes later. Jackson knocked down a contested jumper at the buzzer to send the game into the final stanza with Tennessee leading 53-48.

Jackson opened the fourth with a turnaround-jumper to stretch the Lady Vols' lead to seven, but Benton countered with a three on the other end that had the Wildcats back within four with 7:59 to play. Jackson sank two pairs of free throws to grow UT's lead to eight and went on to single-handedly fuel a 10-4 UT run that put the Lady Vols ahead 65-55 by the 4:46 mark. The Wildcats continued to fight, clawing back within four off a Benton trey with under a minute to play, but Tennessee converted on free throws in the closing seconds to take an 80-71 win and advance to the semifinal round of the SEC Tournament.

LADY VOL LEGENDS

Tennessee has recognized the careers of six supremely-gifted Lady Vols and a history-shattering coach with the hanging of jersey-banners from the rafters of Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center. The most recent individual added to the collection of Lady Vol legends came on Jan. 2, 2014, when a No. 3 banner honoring player Candace Parker was hoisted skyward.

Parker joined players Holly Warlick, Bridgette Gordon, Daedra Charles, Chamique Holdsclaw and Tamika Catchings, and coach Pat Summitt among those honored with a banner hanging in UT's basketball venue.

NO. 22 HOLLY WARLICK

Guard » 1976-80 » Knoxville, Tenn.

The first Tennessee athlete, either male or female, to have her jersey retired was Holly Warlick. Her uniform was retired on Feb. 18, 1980, in a ceremony after Tennessee's 89-72 win over Clemson in Stokely Athletics Center. A play-making wizard for the Lady Vols from 1976-80, Holly earned All-America honors three times. At the time of the ceremony, she held UT records for most assists in a game (14), most steals in a game (9), and most assists in a season (225).

Holly could not hang up her uniform right away. She played six more games after the retirement party. The final time she donned No. 22 was in the AIAW National Championship game when the Lady Vols fell to Old Dominion, 68-53.

During her years at Tennessee, the Lady Vols produced a 118-23 overall record, three trips to the Final Four and a first-ever SEC Tournament title. She later went on to become a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team.

Later serving as the head coach of the Lady Vols from 2012-19, Warlick's No. 22 banner hangs in the rafters above the court in Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center.

NO. 30 BRIDGETTE GORDON

Forward » 1985-89 » DeLand, Fla.

Ten years later, the second Lady Vol basketball jersey was retired. Bridgette Gordon returned to Rocky Top after a stellar career at Tennessee to see her No. 30 honored during halftime of Tennessee's 76-70 win over Texas on Jan. 17, 1990.

Bridgette led the Lady Vols to a 115-21 record during her four years at UT. She was the driving force behind an NCAA-record four consecutive trips to the Final Four as well as two NCAA and two SEC Championships.

Bridgette was the first freshman ever to lead UT in scoring, and she earned co-SEC Rookie of the Year and All-SEC honors. The next year she led Tennessee to its first NCAA title, earned All-SEC honors again and was named to the All-Final Four team. She copped All-SEC honors and was named MVP of the SEC Tournament as a junior. She also earned her first of two Kodak All-America honors that year.

After earning a gold medal as a member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic basketball team, Bridgette returned to Tennessee for her senior season. She led the Lady Vols to the 1989 NCAA title and was named MVP of the Final Four. She finished her career as the all-time leading scorer in NCAA Tournament history.

Bridgette graduated in 1989 with a B.S. in political science. She was basketball's nominee for the 1989 Honda-Broderick Award, which is symbolic for women's academic and athletic achievement. She later returned to Rocky Top to spend two seasons (2017-19) as an assistant coach for the Lady Vols.

NO. 32 DAEDRA CHARLES

Center » 1988-91 » Detroit, Mich.

When Tennessee hosted the SEC-Big 10 Challenge on Dec. 28, 1991, Daedra Charles became the next Lady Vol to have her jersey retired. Charles returned to Knoxville from Como, Italy, where she was playing professional basketball with former Lady Vol teammate Bridgette Gordon. Charles came to surprise Lady Vol head coach Pat Summitt by announcing the endowment of the Pat Head Summitt Scholarship, presented by Charles, Gordon and another former Lady Vol, Lisa McGill Reagan. Summitt, who was unaware of the endowment, had planned the retirement ceremony as a surprise for Charles.

A two-time Kodak All-American at Tennessee, Daedra was the 1991 SEC Female Athlete of the Year. She became the first player from the SEC to win the Wade Trophy, the highest honor in women's basketball. All this came after leading Tennessee to its third NCAA title in five years.

She finished her career seventh on the UT scoring list (1,495), sixth in rebounding (858) and second in shots blocked (95), despite missing her freshman season as a Prop 48 student. Still, Daedra graduated in four years, earning a bachelor's degree in child and family studies.

NO. 23 CHAMIQUE HOLDSCLAW

Forward » 1995-99 » Astoria, N.Y.

During halftime of the Lady Vols' 92-88 home triumph over archrival Connecticut on Feb. 1, 2001, the collegiate career of arguably the greatest women's player to ever play the game was officially closed when Chamique Holdsclaw became just the fourth Lady Vol to have her jersey retired.

The Naismith Player of the Century and one of only six four-time Kodak All-Americans in the history of women's basketball when her career concluded, Holdsclaw led the Orange and White to a 131-17 overall record and an unprecedented three consecutive national championships from 1996-98, while establishing herself as the program's all-time leader in scoring (3,025 points) and rebounding (1,295).

The NCAA Tournament's most outstanding player in 1997 and 1998, Holdsclaw still holds the record for most points (479 points), and held the mark for most rebounds (198 rebounds), tallied in tournament games until 2008.

The first two-time winner of the Associated Press Player of the Year Award, Holdsclaw garnered 34 individual awards during her career, including 21 player of the year honors from a variety of organizations. In 2006, Holdsclaw was named to the NCAA 25th Anniversary Team. She was previously named to the Kodak 25th Anniversary Team in 1999. She also played on the gold-medal winning 2000 U.S. Olympic Team and was named to the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2018.

NO. 24 TAMIKA CATCHINGS

Forward » 1997-01 » Duncanville, Texas

The fifth Lady Vol jersey to be retired belonged to Tamika Catchings in a halftime ceremony on Dec. 7, 2003, against Louisiana Tech. From the moment she stepped on the court in the number 24 orange and white jersey, we knew from her contagious smile that she was a special person, and from her deadly baseline-to-baseline hustling for all 40 minutes, a truly phenomenal player.

This special six-foot, one-inch forward had the heart of a champion and could play anywhere on the court. Her UT career was shortened during her senior year when she went crashing to the floor with a torn anterior cruciate ligament in game 17 versus Mississippi State.

Her list of awards was staggering, as she captured a slew of them while being tabbed as UT's second four-time Kodak All-American. What she accomplished in the span of her collegiate career is the stuff of legend. She played in 127 games as a Lady Vol. Her assault on the record books is legendary for both scoring (2,113 points) and rebounding (1,004 boards), with both marks ranking her third at UT at the conclusion of her career. She also finished her career second all-time in steals with 311 and blocked shots with 140. And remember, she missed half of her senior season.

Her teammates will tell you how special it was to earn a blue adidas headband after Catchings went out with the injury. Earning one meant they hustled like "Catch" would have. The Eleanor Roosevelt League for the Hard of Hearing honored her in 1998 – as a special role model for youngsters and adults with hearing impairments. Her UT academic counselors will relate stories about Catchings graduating ahead of her class in December 2000. People in the Knoxville community will tell you of the countless hours she put in with youths from all walks of life – from playgrounds to hospitals.

A WNBA All-Star for the Indiana Fever, Catchings added to her collection of accolades in the Summer of 2004 with a gold medal as a member of the USA Women's Basketball Team at the Athens Olympic Games. She also added gold medals at the 2008, 2012 and 2016 Olympiads as well and was enshrined into both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2021 after the COVID-19 health pandemic postponed Class of 2020 ceremonies for a year.

PAT SUMMITT

Head Coach » 1974-2012 » Henrietta, Tenn.

The sixth woman and first non-player to be honored with a banner was Pat Summitt, who coached Tennessee for 38 years and compiled a 1,098-208 career record with the most wins in NCAA women's or men's basketball history at the conclusion of her career. Summitt's banner was hoisted prior to a nationally-televised game vs. Notre Dame on Jan. 28, 2013.

The legendary Summitt directed Tennessee to eight NCAA National Championships, 31-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and 18 NCAA Final Fours. At the conference level, she led her squads to 16 SEC regular-season titles and 16 SEC Tournament championships, including a tourney title in her final season at the helm in 2012.

During her career, Summitt produced 21 WBCA/Kodak/State Farm All-Americans, 39 All-SEC players, 12 Olympians and 34 WNBA draft picks, including 15 first-round selections. The number she was most proud of, however, was the 100-percent graduation rate for the 122 players who completed their careers and earned degrees at Tennessee under her watch.

Collecting an incredible array of honors during her career, Summitt was named SEC Coach of the Year eight times – 1993, 1995, 1998, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2007 and 2011. She was named the 1987, 1989, 1994, 1998 and 2004 Naismith Women's College Coach of the Year and WBCA/Converse Coach of the Year in 1983 and 1995 and the IKON/WBCA Coach of the Year in 1998.

Summitt belongs to the FIBA International, Naismith Memorial, Women's Basketball, Women's Sports Foundation, UT Athletics Tennessee Sports, Greater Knoxville Sports and National Association for Sports and Physical Education Hall of Fame. Her most esteemed honor, however, came on May 29, 2012, when she received the Presidential Medal of Freedom (presented by President Barack Obama) at the White House.

NO. 3 CANDACE PARKER

Guard/Forward/Center » 2004-08 » Naperville, Ill.

The seventh woman and sixth player to be honored with a jersey retirement ceremony at Food City Center was Candace Parker. The 6-foot-4 Parker's banner was unveiled on Jan. 2, 2014, prior to the Lady Vols' SEC opener vs. LSU.

During her three-year playing career, Parker led the Lady Vols to a pair of NCAA Championships in 2007 and 2008, to an SEC regular-season crown in 2007 and to SEC Tournament titles in 2006 and 2008. Tennessee posted a 101-10 overall record during her time at Rocky Top and a 38-4 mark in SEC play.

Parker started 109 of her 110 career games, scoring the third-most points in school history (2,137) and pulling down the sixth-best rebounding tally at 972 as of her career's end. She still ranks No. 3 in career double-doubles with 45 and stands tied for No. 2 in career rebounding average (8.8) and No. 4 in career scoring average (19.4).

Not the first player to dunk in the college game or even at Tennessee, Parker did make the dunk a more common occurrence in women's basketball. She was the first to dunk in an NCAA game, doing so twice vs. Army on March 19, 2006. She also set UT records for most dunks in a game (2), season (4) and career (7).

Because of her play, she has earned a plethora of awards. Among them, John R. Wooden and USBWA Player of the Year (2007, 2008), NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player (2007, 2008), WBCA All-American (2006, 2007, 2008), SEC Female Athlete of the Year (2008), SEC Player of the Year (2007), Coaches First-Team All-SEC (2006, 2007, 2008), CoSIDA Academic All-American (2007, 2008) and CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year (2008).

After helping Tennessee win the 2008 NCAA title in Tampa, Fla., Parker was chosen as the first pick of that spring's WNBA Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks, earning league MVP and rookie of the year honors. She also played a key role in the U.S. women winning a gold medal at the 2008 and 2012 Summer Olympics and has continued to escalate her stature in both the professional ranks and internationally.

LADY VOLS IN THE WNBA DRAFT

The Lady Vol basketball program has produced 65 professional players over the years, including 52 alumnae who went on to play in the WNBA. Of those 52 who continued their careers at the professional level in the WNBA, 45 were selected on Draft day and 20 were picked in the first round.

Rennia Davis (2021), Rae Burrell (2022) and Jordan Horston (2023) made Kellie Harper one of only four active coaches and one of 10 all-time (including the late Pat Summitt) to feature top-10 WNBA picks in three consecutive drafts. Summitt accomplished that in 2001, 2002 and 2003.

Tennessee has placed two or more players in the first round of the draft five times. The 2012 draft was the Lady Vols' best ever, as Shekinna Stricklen (2nd, Seattle), Glory Johnson (4th, Tulsa) and Kelley Cain (7th, New York) all went in the first round. Vicki Baugh was taken in the third round (25th overall pick) by Tulsa.

Candace Parker and Alexis Hornbuckle were taken in 2008. The Sparks chose Parker with the first overall pick. Hornbuckle followed closely behind as the Shock picked her up with the fourth selection.

Dena Head and Daedra Charles were selected first and eighth respectively in the 1997 Elite Draft. Lady Vols doubled up again in 1999, with Chamique Holdsclaw going first to the Mystics and Tonya Edwards going seventh to the Lynx. Kara Lawson and Gwen Jackson were taken with back-to-back picks in 2003, with Lawson going fifth to the Shock and Jackson going sixth to the Fever.

THOMPSON-BOLING ARENA AT FOOD CITY CENTER

Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center is the third largest on-campus basketball arena in the country and a very tough place for visitors to win. The Lady Vols own a 508-56 (.901) record at the facility through 36 years entering the 2023-24 season.

The venue, located along the Tennessee River and named for B. Ray Thompson and retired UT President Edward J. Boling, debuted during the 1987-88 season. On Aug. 23, 2023, corporate partner Food City added its name via a 10-year rights agreement. The building is 448 feet long and 310 feet wide. It contains more than 411,000 square feet of floor space and more than 17 million cubic feet overall.

Following renovations in 2007, the facility has an official seating capacity of 21,678. As part of a $19 million renovation of the arena prior to the 2007-08 season, 32 luxury suites were added to the existing north balcony along with a loge area just below the suites that includes 166 side court seats. A $3 million center-hung scoreboard, new black seats and several concourse refurbishments also were part of the renovation. The distance from the playing floor to the roof is 120 feet, the equivalent of a 12-story building. The structure contains 142,000 square feet of roof area, which is approximately three and one-quarter acres.

The enormous facility houses the Tennessee women's and men's basketball offices. The UT Ticket Office is located on the Phillip Fulmer Way level on the west end of the building. A continuous-ring concourse encircles the building, permitting entrance to eight restrooms, six concession areas and 32 portals that lead to the arena. The playing floor level provides access to the media room and storage areas as well as the very impressive Larry Pratt Basketball Locker Room Complex and the visitor dressing rooms, constructed from 2017 to 2018.

Since the building opened on Dec. 3, 1987 (the Lady Vols beat Stetson, 102-59), UT women's basketball has enjoyed a number of lengthy home winning streaks. On Dec. 28, 2003, Texas snapped a 24-game run that dated back to the 2001-02 season. A previous streak of 26 consecutive wins in the home confines ended on Jan. 5, 2002, with an 86-72 loss to Connecticut. The Lady Vols broke the NCAA homecourt victories before Connecticut spoiled the streak with a 59-53 win in game number 70 on Jan. 6, 1996. Tennessee claimed 64 straight home SEC victories before third-ranked LSU snapped the streak with a 72-69 victory - its first ever in Knoxville - on Feb. 9, 2006. The Lady Vols took a 36-game home winning streak into the 2011-12 season before Baylor snapped it at 38 on Nov. 27, 2011.

UT won all 18 contests in Knoxville in 2014-15, setting a school and arena record for most home wins in a season and best record in a season. Coupled with winning its last four home games of the 2013-14 season and the first five in 2015-16, UT strung together 27-consecutive victories before falling to Texas on Nov. 29, 2015.

In 1998-99, the Lady Vols played before the largest average home crowd in the history of women's collegiate basketball, as 16,565 spectators per game clicked through the turnstiles. In all, 231,915 fans viewed home games in Knoxville. During the 1997-98 season, Tennessee set several collegiate attendance records. On Jan. 3, 1998, the Lady Vols entertained a new women's collegiate record 24,597 fans for the game with Connecticut. A month later, the first advance sell-out in UT women's basketball history occurred when the Lady Vols were set to meet Old Dominion in Knoxville. For the record, 24,373 fans attended the UT-ODU game.

The all-time attendance mark was reset during the 2001-02 season when 24,611 fans visited the arena for a #1/#2 clash between UT and Connecticut. It was again reset on Jan. 7, 2006, when the Huskies came to Knoxville in front of 24,653 spectators. The women's basketball attendance mark was established at the 2002 NCAA Final Four when 29,619 people filled the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas, for the championship game.

The Lady Vols started the record-breaking trend in women's collegiate basketball attendance in 1987. That season, the Lady Vols broke the (then) world record for single game attendance at a women's basketball game with 24,563 at the Tennessee versus Texas game on Dec. 9, 1987. Three years later, UT established new NCAA Women's Final Four attendance marks on March 30 and April 1, 1990, with a total paid attendance of 39,490 for the three-game event. The turnstile count of 34,196 (17,601 semis/16,595 finals) also broke all other attendance marks.

In 2013-14, UT led the NCAA in attendance for the 11th-straight season and the 17th time in the last 18 years. The Lady Vols have finished a season No. 1 in average attendance 19 times overall.

STOKELY ATHLETICS CENTER ►

Stokely Athletics Center was home to the Lady Volunteer basketball team from 1976-87. The facility, which still housed UT Athletics offices long after its days of hosting games, was closed for good in December 2012 and demolished during the summer of 2014.

The Stokely Arena, which was encircled by a four-lane Tartan indoor track, seated 12,700, while the building housed the former men's and women's athletics department offices. The building was originally called the UT Armory Field House in 1958 and seated just more than 7,000 spectators. Through the generosity of the late William B. Stokely, Jr., further construction was completed and on Dec. 1, 1966, the facility was renamed to honor the Stokely family.

In 1986, Stokely took on a new look as a wood playing surface replaced the old tartan court. The Horner "Pro King" hardwood was painted with the traditional outline of the state of Tennessee in the center of the floor and the familiar end line markings. The court was special-made for the University by the same manufacturer who supplied the basketball court to the Forum for the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games.

Stokely Athletics Center was the site of some historic games for the Lady Vols. The first women's contest played in SAC pitted Tennessee versus Kentucky on Nov. 13, 1976. The Lady Vols not only trounced the Lady Kats, 107-53, but UT's Patricia Roberts tossed in a Field House record 51 points. That mark stands as the Lady Vol record to this day.

Along the way, Tennessee hosted the great gold medalist USSR Olympic Team in 1979, the USA All-Star team in 1979 and the first Southeastern Conference Championships in 1980.

The last Lady Vol game in Stokely, before moving to Thompson-Boling Arena, was a 77-61 win over Auburn in the finals of the NCAA Mid-east Regionals on March 21, 1987. A week later, the Lady Vols returned to Stokely to celebrate UT's first NCAA basketball title with thousands of fans in attendance.

Although no formal attendance figures were kept prior to 1982, Tennessee most-assuredly was among the nation's elite in fan support.

ALUMNI GYM ►

Constructed in the 1930's, Alumni Gym was the first real home to the inaugural Lady Vol team in 1974, which was coached by Pat Summitt. The court in the tiny arena (seating 3,000) was the centerpiece of an encircling tri-balcony seating arrangement.

PRATT PAVILION

In October 2006, Tennessee Athletics had a ground-breaking ceremony to officially recognize construction on the Pratt Pavilion, the state-of-the-art basketball practice facility named in UT alumnus Larry F. Pratt's honor for his $5 million lead gift to the basketball programs. The Pratt Pavilion, which opened in the fall of 2007, houses two full-size gymnasiums, one each for the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as space for an athletic training room, weight room, film study room and a recruiting lounge.

Directly connected to Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center, Pratt Pavilion has convenient ground level parking. The 70,000-square-foot structure has four short courts within each of the two full-size courts. The facility is equipped with secured practice facilities, spacious locker rooms and recruiting rooms as well. Balconies at the south side of the building overlook the practice courts.

Pratt Pavilion had a total project cost of $16 million, funded entirely through private gifts. Lead donor Pratt's commitment in April 2006, coupled with leadership gifts from other campaign donors, including Jim Haslam, Brenda Lawson and Robbie Nutt, enabled UT to move forward with the project.

This was not Pratt's first donation. In the 1990s he honored his father Floyd by creating an endowed scholarship in his name as a member of the Nathan Dougherty Society. He also was recognized at the Tennessee vs. Georgia football game in 2003 for a $1 million donation to the STEP-UP Campaign. Pratt, an Athens, Tenn., native, currently resides in McLean, Va. He graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1972 from the UT College of Business and serves as president and CEO of First Savings Mortgage Corporation, the largest private mortgage banker in Washington D.C.

THE FEW. THE PROUD. THE NCAA CHAMPIONS.

The few. The proud. The NCAA Champions. During Pat Head Summitt's tenure as head coach (1974-2012), only 161 women were selected to wear the Orange and White of the University of Tennessee Lady Volunteers.

Fifty-eight players of 161 (through the 2011-12 season) earned the distinction of being an "NCAA Champion" during their playing days at the University of Tennessee. That's practically 40 percent! And that is truly remarkable. Additionally, forty percent of the 58 players brought home two or more titles.

A total of 12 coaches helped to bring the eight titles to the Knoxville campus. The common denominator of the eight championships was coach Summitt was (then) associate head coach Holly Warlick. In her first tenure with the Lady Vols, Mickie DeMoss claimed six rings (1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997 and 1998). Former assistants Al Brown (1996, 1997 and 1998) and Nikki Caldwell (2007, 2008) are the only former aides with numerous titles. Current assistant Dean Lockwood picked up his first national titles as a Lady Vol coach in 2007 and 2008. Seven graduate assistant coaches had the opportunity to experience one title each.

1987 National Champions

Tennessee may have failed in its first bid at the NCAA national championship in 1984, but the second time was the charm for the Lady Vols. Tennessee thumped Louisiana Tech, which was vying for its second title, 67-44.

"Well, the monkey's off my back," head coach Pat Summitt said. "I do not think I could go without recognizing that it was a tremendous team effort...has been for the last three weeks. This team has played as hard and as smart as I could ask any team to play."

The Lady Vols built a 33-24 halftime edge and never looked back. Seven minutes into the second half, Tennessee had increased its lead to 14, 47-33, and the rest was history as Tennessee took its first NCAA title.

Tennessee attempted 19 more field goals and grabbed 11 more rebounds than the Lady Techsters. A championship-game record crowd of 9,823 watched Tonya Edwards net 13 points and grab seven rebounds en route to most outstanding player honors. Two additional Lady Vols contributed 13 points - Bridgette Gordon and Sheila Frost. Gordon joined Edwards on the All-Championship team, as she also led the Tennessee carom parade, pulling down a game-high 12 rebounds.

1989 National Champions

It was a battle of Southeastern Conference powerhouses - Tennessee versus Auburn for all the marbles.

The Lady Vols looked to regain the national title they earned in 1987. Although they were up against a Lady Tiger team that had made its second straight national championship final, Tennessee took home its second NCAA championship in three years with a 76-60 win.

Playing in her triumphant final game, All-America forward Bridgette Gordon treated the 9,758 spectators to a spectacular 27-point performance, tying a championship-game record. She also collected 11 boards on the way to most outstanding player honors.

Gordon's seven first-half baskets helped the Lady Vols to a 35-27 halftime lead. Auburn was able to stay close, cutting the score to 50-47. But after a timeout, the Lady Vols went on a 13-4 run to put the game out of reach. The keys to the victory were the battle of the boards, where Tennessee outboarded Auburn 45-30, and the free throw line, where Tennessee shot 20-26, while Auburn was 8-12.

Sheila Frost joined Gordon on the All-Championship team. Playing in her final game at Tennessee, Frost had six points and 12 boards. Also coming up big for the Lady Vols in the final was Dena Head, with 19 points.

1991 National Champions

Vindication was finally Tennessee's in the 1991 NCAA women's final, as the Lady Vols downed a talented Virginia Cavalier club, 70-67, in the first NCAA Final Four overtime title game. Virginia had eliminated Tennessee before it could reach the 1990 Women's Final Four - which just happened to be held in Knoxville. But the Lady Vols took New Orleans and their third NCAA title in five years.

The first half was tight, with Tennessee holding a paper-thin 27-26 advantage at the intermission. But the Lady Vols opened up a small lead in the second half. Small lead; small comfort.

Virginia's Dawn Staley, who was named the most outstanding player, led the Virginia comeback to tie the game at 60 at the end of regulation. But the overtime belonged to Tennessee and Dena Head, who scored a championship record 28 points in the final.

Wade Trophy winner Daedra Charles added 19 points and 12 boards for Tennessee and joined Head on the All-Championship Team. Tennessee's effort was also aided by the play of Lisa Harrison, who poured in eight points and 13 boards.

With the victory, the Lady Volunteers kept their streak of odd-year championships going. Tennessee also won national titles in 1987 and 1989.

1996 National Champions

It seemed only fitting that the Lady Vols would win another NCAA crown in the "Queen City" of Charlotte, N.C. And it was equally fitting that the Lady Vols' fourth NCAA title would come over a fierce SEC rival in the Georgia Lady Bulldogs, 83-65.

After the emotionally draining overtime win versus Connecticut, the skeptics wondered if UT would have enough emotional energy left for the title game. They did...and then some. Although Georgia held a modest three point lead early in the game and led by two with 14:11 to go in the first half, it would be their only lead in the title contest. UT senior Latina Davis put the handcuffs on Player of the Year Saudia Roundtree in the first half as the Lady Vols grabbed an early nine point lead, 28-19 with 7:36 to go in the first half. Georgia recovered to trail by just five at the half, 42-37.

In the first three minutes of the second half, UT took off and never looked back. Abby Conklin's tray (her first of four) with 14:55 left gave UT a 16-point lead, 57-41. Davis upped the ante to a 21 point lead with 2:25 showing, 81-60. The celebrating started early as the Final Four MVP, Michelle Marciniak, and All-Tournament Team members Chamique Holdsclaw and Tiffany Johnson left the game to wildly cheering fans. Davis, who held Roundtree to 17 points below her average, was UT's quiet heroine.

On the night, Holdsclaw and Johnson tallied 16 points to lead UT, while Conklin added 14 points, Pashen Thompson a dozen, and Marciniak 10 in the final game of her career.

1997 National Champions

No team had ever won the NCAA championship coming in with more than six losses. But proving that it's wise to save your best for last, Tennessee took its fifth NCAA championship and second straight title with a 68-59 win over Old Dominion despite entering the tournament with a 23-10 record.

"Of all our runs to a championship, this one is really the most unexpected," said coach Pat Summitt. "It came from a team with tremendous heart and desire."

Tennessee took control quickly at the start of the title game, jumping out to a 20-8 lead. By halftime, the Lady Vols still had a comfortable lead, 34-22.

In the second half, Old Dominion clawed its way back, taking its first lead at 44-43 with 9:06 left in the game. The Lady Monarchs extended the lead to two, 49-47, before Chamique Holdscraw led the Lady Vols on a 12-2 run to put the game away for Tennessee.

Holdscraw was a unanimous choice as the most outstanding player, as she poured in 24 points and seven rebounds. Six of her points came during the decisive run at the end of the game. Joining Holdscraw on the All-Championship team was Kellie Jolly, who only scored five points, but set a championship record with 11 assists in the final game and a Final Four record with 20.

With the win, the Lady Vols earned their fifth national title, played in their seventh championship game and became only the second team to win consecutive championships. (Southern Cal., 1983 and 1984).

1998 National Champions

The 1998 Tennessee Lady Vols will be remembered as history-makers. A perfect 39-0 record and the most wins ever in women's collegiate basketball... an NCAA unprecedented three consecutive titles... and the systematic blowout night-after-night of the opposition.

When the team finally reached the NCAA title game against a dear old rival in Louisiana Tech, the contest started out tight with UT taking an 8-6 lead. Then "the greatest team ever to play the game," according to Louisiana Tech head coach Leon Barmore, exploded out to a 34-11 run over the next seven minutes. The points were coming in bunches to the tune of 63% field goal accuracy as these Lady Vols were on a mission.

By the halftime break, Tennessee led 55-32 and had registered an NCAA record for the most points scored in a half at the Final Four. Leading the way for UT in game 39 were the Three Meeks - MVP Chamique Holdscraw, Tamika Catchings and Semeka Randall—who collectively tallied 62 points and 25 rebounds in the Lady Vols' 93-75 victory.

Holdscraw, who scored 25 points and grabbed 10 rebounds, won the top player honors in the final game. She was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Catchings, who recorded 27 points in her first title game, and an honorary "Meek", Kellie Jolly, who added a career-high 20 points.

With the win, the Lady Vols earned their sixth national title, played in their eighth championship game and became the first team to win three consecutive NCAA titles.

2007 National Champions

On April 3, 2007, the Tennessee Lady Vols captured an elusive seventh national title, beating Rutgers to the ball for second and third shots in a 59-46 win to reclaim their customary place above all other programs.

Parker scored 17 points to lead her squad to a 34-3 final record, but the tournament's most outstanding player got plenty of help from Shannon Bobbitt who scored 13 points — nine of them on three treys in a lightning-quick span in the second half — and Nicky Anosike had 16 rebounds for the Lady Vols, who had 24 offensive boards.

After building a 16-point lead and then holding off a late push by Rutgers, the Lady Vols could finally celebrate, dribbling out the final 30 seconds under the Rutgers basket until Tennessee's players, some in tears, danced at midcourt as orange, blue and gold confetti fell from above.

"To win anything you have to be a tight team," Summitt said. "They believed in each other and they all had one goal, to be here in Cleveland and cut down the nets. I'm real, real proud of this team."

A three-pointer by Rutgers ended a 7-0 UT run that brought the Scarlet Knights to 50-42, but Parker made six straight free throws in 37 seconds to make it 56-44 with 1:08 left. As she went down the floor, Parker looked at the bench where senior Sidney Spencer was crying, knowing all the hard work during the offseason would end the best way possible.

The 2007 NCAA tournament ended the same way it has nearly one-third of the time since it started — with Tennessee setting up ladders to cut down the nets.

2008 National Champions

On April 8, 2008, the "under-rated" Tennessee Lady Vols captured their eighth national title, defeating Stanford 64-48. Incredible defensive pressure by UT forced 25 Cardinal turnovers which the Big Orange converted into 26 points.

"They came out with a great mentality to play hard, especially on the defensive end," Pat Summitt said. "On offense, we got more people involved, but it was our defense that got it done."

Tennessee standout Candace Parker, despite playing with a dislocated shoulder, scored 17 points and grabbed nine rebounds to help the Lady Vols capture their second straight championship, but unlike earlier games in the tournament when she had to carry the Lady Vols, her supporting cast came through. Shannon Bobbitt scored 13 points and Nicky Anosike added 12 points, eight rebounds and six steals for the Lady Vols. Freshman Vicki Baugh had eight points before tearing her ACL in the second half.

Bobbitt scored all of her points in the first half as the Lady Vols jumped out to a 37-29 advantage. Trailing by one early, Tennessee used a 13-4 run to take a 17-9 lead midway through the half. Bobbitt hit two three-pointers and made a nifty layup to cap the spurt. The teams traded baskets before two free throws by Bobbitt gave the Lady Vols a 35-25 lead — their biggest of the half.

Parker didn't shoot nearly as many jumpers as usual, instead taking the ball to the basket on an array of moves. She converted one steal in the second half into a pretty layup that gave the Lady Vols a 10-point advantage. She then followed it up with a three-point play on a driving layup. The Cardinal, who had a season low for points, would get no closer than eight the rest of the way. With the game in hand and a minute left, Parker went to the Tennessee bench for the final time, holding up four fingers on each hand to signify the eight titles the Lady Vols have won.

"One is disputable, but two, you can't stumble onto two national championships, so we're pretty good," Parker said.

HORSTON BECOMES 48TH PLAYER TO JOIN TENNESSEE'S 1,000-POINT CLUB

Tennessee Head Coach Kellie Harper (left) presents Jordan Horston (right) with a basketball on Dec. 4, 2022, commemorating Horston scoring 1,000 career points as Lady Vol. The 6-foot-2 guard entered her senior season with 900 points and surpassed the plateau on Nov. 27, 2022, with 14 points vs. Eastern Kentucky.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

Senior transfer All-Americans and Olympians Patricia Roberts and Jill Rankin played for the Lady Vols during their senior year only. Though they didn't become 1,000-point scorers at UT, their career marks are some of the nation's all-time bests.

LADY VOLS GO 2-0 ON 2023 EUROPEAN TOUR

UT OPENS TOUR WITH VICTORY OVER VENICE ALL-STARS

After arriving at the Palestra Leo Perziano on the island of Murano by boat, the Tennessee women's basketball team utilized only nine players in opening its European Tour on June 13 with an 89-76 victory over the Venice All-Stars.

It was the capper on a day that saw the travel party enjoy a tour of Venice, visit Piazza San Marco and Rialto Bridge among other locales, witness a glass blowing exhibition from a Murano artisan, float the canals in gondolas and grab lunch before the focus turned toward the first of two contests on this excursion. Then, of course, the team utilized the only mode of transportation that could get it to a game on an island famous for its glass, making the trek there in approximately 25 minutes.

Super senior forward Rickea Jackson fired in a game-high 20 points and filled the stat sheet with six rebounds, four assists and three steals to pace the Lady Vols vs. a veteran-laden squad. Junior forward Jillian Hollingshead contributed a 17-point, 11-rebound double-double, and junior forward Sara Puckett added 15 points and seven rebounds in the victory.

Transfer senior guards Jewel Spear and Destinee Wells are on the trip but did not see action. It was hoped that the standard reviews of the course credits earned at their previous schools could be completed in time for this trip, but to no one's fault that was not the case. While the early timing of this summer tour hindered Spear and Wells from hitting the court in Italy, it is expected that the routine process will be completed well in advance of the 2023-24 campaign.

LADY VOLS ROLL PAST ROME ALL-STARS, 100-48

Junior forward Sara Puckett and super senior forward Rickea Jackson led five players in double figures, as the Tennessee women's basketball team rolled to a 100-48 victory over the Rome All-Stars on June 15 at EuroBasket Roma Arena.

Puckett drained 11 of 16 shots from the field, including four-of-six accuracy beyond the arc, to tally 28 points along with 11 rebounds. Jackson also registered a double-double, tossing in 19 points and collecting a game-high 12 caroms. Junior forward Jillian Hollingshead chipped in 11 points, while senior guard/forward Tess Darby and sophomore guard/forward Avery Strickland contributed 10 each.

Just as things happened in Venice, everyone scored and contributed to the win. Super senior point guard Jasmine Powell rang up nine assists on the evening and grabbed six rebounds to go along with her two points. Junior forward Karoline Striplin finished with seven points and eight rebounds, while junior guard Kaiya Wynn added six points and six rebounds, and sophomore guard Edie Darby was good for six points and four assists, helping the Lady Vols tally 25 dimes for the game vs. only six turnovers.

Tennessee completed its competition on this trip with a 2-0 record. The Lady Vols are now 25-9 in 11 visits to foreign countries. That includes a 19-7 mark in exhibition-type contests and an 8-2 resume in countable games during the regular season.

MEDIA POLICIES

COVERING PRACTICE

Please contact Eric Trainer at the Strategic Communications Office at least a week in advance to arrange player or coach feature interviews. If you plan to cover an open practice session, please contact the Strategic Communications Office on a daily basis to check about changes in the schedule.

PLAYER AND COACH INTERVIEWS

Media wishing to interview coaches or players are encouraged to set up interviews in advance with the Strategic Communications Office. Generally, the best time to conduct an interview is on a designated day with an open portion of practice and pre-practice media opportunity. The Strategic Communications Office will help with all requests.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media outlets interested in obtaining credentials to cover Lady Vol basketball home games must apply for those online via Sports Systems. To apply, please visit: <http://www.sportssystem.com/seccredentials>. Applications for single-game credentials should be submitted five days prior to a game. Once you receive your approval letter via email, you will be provided options for credential pick-up.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers or those individuals on special assignment. During regular season games, work area includes the floor area at both ends of the court and alongside the corners of the playing floor opposite the team benches. Special arrangements for strobes or catwalk access must be made through the Strategic Communications and Food City Center Management Offices no later than one week in advance of the game. UT's arena security policy requires that all photographers placing strobes will go through a screening process and must be accompanied by a UT police officer or representative when placing strobes.

THE SEC MEDIA POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

MEDIA PARKING PASSES AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

Parking space is limited. The media must request parking access along with other credential requests. Media coverage on a regular basis will insure first priority in UT parking garage G-10. The media entrance is located adjacent to this parking area on Phillip Fulmer Way. Please be advised that everyone must proceed through metal detectors to enter Food City Center and is subject to having their bags checked.

PRESS ROW

Press row is located in the lower level southeast corner of the arena behind the baseline nearest the G-10 garage. Only accredited media will be allowed in this area. Children are not permitted on press row.

MEDIA ROOM SERVICES

The media room is on the east end of the arena. Soft drinks and a pregame meal will be offered just outside the media room in a curtained area. Postgame interviews will be conducted in the media room, and the working press has numerous electrical outlets and wireless internet available. Wireless internet also is available courtside. If you choose to install a phone line on press row, please contact UT Telephone Services at (865) 974-3121.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Services provided include statistics generated from the Genius Sports computer statistics program. Statistics can be accessed via laptop or iPad. Hard copies of halftime stats, final stats and play-by-play highlights at the end of each half also will be available. Coaches' quotes will be provided following the post-game interview sessions.

To access up-to-date stats during a game, visit UTstats.com for a live feed.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

A formal post-game interview is held in the basketball media room following each game. The media will be solicited for player names with five minutes left in the game. After a 10-minute cooling-off period, the visiting team coach and selected players will be brought to the media room. Following the visiting team's media session, select UT players will come to the media room, followed shortly afterward by head coach Kellie Harper. Risers for television cameras and a distribution box for radio will be available in the back of the arena.

RADIO

Requests to broadcast must be made in writing at the earliest possible date to receive permission. Stations are responsible for contacting Glenn Thackston at IMG/Lady Vol Network in Knoxville for use of the phone lines in Food City Center. Mr. Thackston can be reached during business hours at (865) 212-3570. The radio broadcast location is on the floor level at the main scorer's table.

TELEVISION GAMES

Food City Center permits the inside parking of television tractor-trailer units and offers secure parking adjacent to the arena for satellite uplink units. Personnel from Food City Center Management, including electricians, are available to meet arriving trucks in advance of the game. Please notify the Strategic Communications Office of arrival plans.

LADY VOL BASKETBALL PROGRAMMING

The Tennessee Lady Vols first found a home on the radio during the 1977-78 season. At that time, a handful of games were aired with John Ward, former play-by-play guru of UT football and men's basketball, handling the microphone. Bob Kesling debuted as the full-time voice for Lady Vol basketball and called the action through 1998-99 before handing off duties to Mickey Dearstone for 23 seasons until the conclusion of the 2021-22 campaign.

In 2022-23, Brian Rice stepped in as the network's third full-time play-by-play announcer after calling Lady Vol softball games for 10 years and serving as a fill-in for Mickey Dearstone in 2020-21. The Knoxville native also co-hosts The Erik Ainge Show from 9 a.m. to noon weekdays on Sports Radio WNML.

The flagship station of the University of Tennessee Lady Vol basketball broadcasts is the very same WNML (990 AM and 99.1 FM) in Knoxville. This will mark the 47th year of Lady Vol games on the air. The Lady Vol Network, with affiliates across the state, is the largest women's basketball radio network in the country. For more information about joining the Learfield/Lady Vol Network, contact Glenn Thackston at Learfield/Vol Network: (865) 212-3570.

Additionally, Lady Vol basketball games will again find a home on the Internet at www.utsports.com, as fans worldwide will be able to access the broadcasts. For more info., visit the Live Audio/Video section under the Fans tab.

Approximately 20 radio stations across the state of Tennessee will carry Lady Vol basketball games during the 2023-24 season. For listeners outside the range of the radio network, games can be heard on UTSports.com and the Tennessee Athletics App. Additionally, select Lady Vol games will once again be carried on SiriusXM Satellite Radio.

The site contains team information, scores, conference standings and statistics, awards recipients, history and records, feature stories, television information on conference events, details about tickets to SEC events, SEC merchandise and much, much more.

WEEKLY HONORS: The SEC will name a Player and Freshman of the Week each week throughout the regular season. Each week's selections will be released late Tuesday morning and also will be announced in the league's weekly release. The league women's basketball sports information directors make nominations for the award each week.

SEC HISTORY: The Southeastern Conference was formed Dec. 8-9, 1932, and included 13 schools at the time: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane, and Vanderbilt. The league's first president was Frank L. McVey of Kentucky. Due to the continually increasing amount of work administering the league, the office of Commissioner was established by its member institutions in 1940. Former Mississippi governor Martin Conner was named as the first commissioner, a post he held until 1948. Following Conner were Bernie Moore (1948-66), A.M. Coleman (1966-72), Dr. Boyd McWhorter (1972-86), Dr. Harvey Schiller (1986-90), Roy Kramer (1990-2002), and Mike Slive (2002-2015). Greg Sankey is currently Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference and its 14 member institutions.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. Cross country, golf, swimming, tennis and indoor track were added later. The SEC began recognizing women's championships during the 1979-80 academic year. The conference office officially took over regulation of women's athletics on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and twelve women's sports. Baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming and diving, tennis and track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country) are currently sanctioned for men. The women's sports are basketball, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country) and volleyball.
