PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

TENNESSEE AT A GLANCE

- Tennessee returns three starters and six letterwinners from last season's 25-8 squad that advanced to the NCAA Second Round.
- After effectively deploying the nation's No. 1 recruiting class as freshmen in 2017-18, the Lady Vols follow that by welcoming a No. 4-rated 2018-19 rookie collection. - With four players in the freshman class and three in the sophomore group, Tennessee will feature seven members of its 11-player roster (64 percent) playing their first or second year of college basketball.
- With five newcomers to the program (four freshmen, one graduate transfer), 45 percent of the Big Orange's roster will be first-year members of the UT program.
- Among the 25 wins accumulated by the 2017-18 Lady Vols were triumphs over national powers South Carolina (twice), Texas and Stanford.
- The Big Orange women were 11-5 in league play a year ago and finished tied for fourth, just one game out of sole possession of second in the SEC standings (Mississippi State went undefeated and made it to the NCAA title game).
- The Lady Vols lost four letterwinners, including two All-SEC starters, the SEC 6th Woman of the Year and another player who appeared in 30 games a year ago.

THE RETURNEES

- Tennessee returns three starters in 6-2 sophomore forward Rennia Davis (12.0 ppg., 7.6 rpg.), 6-0 sophomore point guard Evina Westbrook (8.4 ppg., 2.8 rpg., 4.3 app.) and 5-11 senior wing Meme Jackson (8.2 ppg., 4.2 rpg.).

- Davis is the Lady Vols' top returnee in scoring (12.0), rebounds (7.6) and steals (1.1).
- Top returning reserves include 6-3 redshirt senior forward Cheridene Green (4.1 ppg., 3.7 rpg.) and 6-4 sophomore center Kasiyahna Kushkituah (1.8 ppg., 1.4 rpg.).
- Davis and Westbrook started from day one a year ago and made the 2018 SEC All-Freshman Team.
- Jackson has started 52 games the past two seasons, leading UT in three-pointers (50) in 2017-18, while Kushkituah and Green played back-up roles and showed promising flashes as reserves a year ago.
- Also back is 6-3 junior center Kamera Harris, who is trying to earn minutes in the paint as well.

NO. 4-RANKED FRESHMAN CLASS

- Tennessee's 2018 signing class was ranked No. 4 by espnW HoopGurlz and ProspectsNation.com.
- Zaay Green (6-0 guard from Duncanville, Texas) is ranked No. 10 by ESPN and No. 26 by ProspectsNation. She is a McDonald's and Naismith All-American and was picked to play in the Jordan Brand Classic.
- Green hails from Duncanville (Texas) High School, the same prep alma mater as Lady Vol, WNBA and USA Basketball legend Tamika Catchings.
- Jazmine Massengill (6-0 point guard from Chattanooga) is ranked No. 11 by ProspectsNation and No. 25 by ESPN.

■ PRESEASON NOTEBOOK (CONTINUED)

She is a McDonald's All-American and was picked to play in the Jordan Brand Classic.

- Massengill is the first Lady Vol basketball player from Chattanooga.
- Mimi Collins (6-3 forward from Waldorf, Md.) is ranked No. 9 by ProspectsNation and No. 49 by ESPN. She is a McDonald's and Naismith All-American, a top-five finalist for the Naismith Girls' High School Player of the Year and was picked to play in the Jordan Brand Classic.
- Rae Burrell (6-1 wing from Las Vegas, Nev.) is rated No. 43 by ESPN and No. 119 by ProspectsNation. She was a two-time member of the American Family Insurance ALL-USA Nevada Girls Basketball Team and the 2018 Las Vegas Review-Journal Best of Nevada Preps Female Athlete of the Year.

GRAD. TRANSFER FROM "DOWN UNDER"

- Tennessee's fifth newcomer is graduate transfer Lou Brown, who came from Washington State and hails from Melbourne, Australia.
- Brown, unfortunately, suffered a torn ACL in her right knee during preseason practice and is out for the year. UT will apply for a sixth season of eligibility for her.
- She is UT's second-ever international player, following in the footsteps of teammate Cheridene Green, a native of London, England.
- Brown averaged 6.4 points, 6.0 rebounds and knocked down 29 three-pointers while starting 23 of 28 games as a redshirt junior a year ago for the Cougars.
- For her career, she tallied 529 points, 167 rebounds, 106 assists, 88 steals, 80 three-pointers and 66 blocks while drawing 71 starts in 95 contests.
- Before an injury sidelined her after seven games as a junior in 2016-17, Brown was averaging 10.4 points and 6.9 rebounds, posting career bests in points (16 vs. Nebraska) and rebounds (16 vs. Oklahoma State).
- Brown was ranked No. 2 by ProspectsNation.com among international high school recruits in 2014.
- Aussie Basketball USA founder Samantha Tomlinson played college basketball at Troy University alongside UT director of recruiting operations and player personnel Heather Ervin and was coached by (then) Troy assistant Sharrona Reaves, who is now the recruiting coordinator and an assistant coach for the Lady Vols.

LADY VOLS SPORTING TALL ROSTER

- Tennessee has only one player standing shorter than six-feet tall, and that is 5-11 senior wing Meme Jackson.
- This marks the third time in school history that the Lady Vols have sported 10 players standing six-feet tall or higher on a roster. The other occasions were in 2009-10 and 2014-15, when UT also had 10.
- The Lady Vols feature five players 6-3 or taller, marking the first time that has occurred during the Holly Warlick era and for the initial occasion since 2009-10.
- The only other times UT had five on the roster standing 6-3 or taller occurred in 2004-05 (6), 2005-06 (6), 2007-08 (5), 2008-09 (5) and 2009-10 (5).

LONG DISTANCE THREATS

- Tennessee returns 64.6 percent (102) of its 158 three-pointers made a year ago.
- Meme Jackson led UT in that category, knocking down 50 as a junior.
- Other returning long-range threats include sophomores Evina Westbrook and RENNIA DAVIS, who made 27 and 25, respectively, a year ago.
- Tennessee welcomes graduate transfer Lou Brown, who nailed 29 treys last season at Washington State. Due to injury, however, she will sit out 2018-19.

- UT also could get help from freshmen Zaay Green, Jazmine Massengill, Rae Burrell and Mimi Collins.
- Departed players Jaime Nared (27), Kortney Dunbar (19) and Anastasia Hayes (10) made a collective 56 three-balls in 2017-18.

WARLICK BEGINS SEVENTH SEASON

- Head coach Holly Warlick is in her seventh season at the helm of the Lady Vols.
- Warlick's career SEC winning percentage (.740, 71-25) ranks her first among all SEC women's head coaches.
- She has accumulated an overall record of 153-54 during the past six years.
- That win total ranks No. 11 among all Power 5 women's coaches, and every other coach on that list has 11 or more seasons of experience as a head coach.
- Only three coaches (Geno Auriemma, Muffet McGraw, Kim Mulkey - four each) have led their schools to more Elite Eights over the past six seasons than Warlick (three).
- Warlick's program is one of only 12 schools that has appeared in every NCAA Tournament the past six years.
- UT ranks eighth among Power Five schools with a 13-6 NCAA Tournament record during the past six seasons.
- Tennessee has claimed three SEC trophies in Warlick's first six seasons, winning regular-season crowns in 2013 and 2015 and claiming the tournament title in 2014.
- Warlick and her staff have had 11 Lady Vols taken in the WNBA Draft.
- The program also continues its 100 percent graduation rate for players who completed their undergraduate eligibility here.

GREAT G.A. ADDITION TO THE STAFF

- After the position was vacant last season, Holly Warlick filled her graduate assistant role with a former Lady Vol standout and team leader for 2018-19.
- Returning to Rocky Top is Nicky Anosike, a 6-4 center who was a four-year starter at UT from 2004-08 and helped the Lady Vols claim NCAA titles in 2007 and 2008.
- She was noted as a player who held, and insisted others hold, teammates accountable for their commitment and performance in practice and games.
- Anosike played in the WNBA (Minnesota/Washington/Los Angeles) from 2008-12 before embarking on a teaching career.
- Before returning to Knoxville, Anosike had been teaching sixth grade world history and eighth grade U.S. history at Azalea Middle School in St. Petersburg, Fla.
- Head coach Holly Warlick, assistant Bridgette Gordon and Anosike all played at Tennessee, and all were part of NCAA title teams as players and/or coaches.

ALWAYS A CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

- Tennessee's schedule features 17 of 29 contests against schools earning NCAA (13), WNIT (3) or WBI (1) berths last season.
- Among the marquee out-of-conference match-ups, the itinerary includes home games vs. Stanford (Dec. 18) and Notre Dame (Jan. 24) and a Dec. 9 contest at Texas.
- Combined with SEC showdowns at home vs. South Carolina and on the road at Mississippi State, the schedule provides Tennessee games against each of last year's NCAA finalists (Notre Dame and Mississippi State) and four of the nation's preseason top 10, according to Charlie Creme's ESPN.com Way-Too-Early Top 25.

■ PRESEASON NOTEBOOK (CONTINUED)

- Among UT's opponents this season, Notre Dame (1st), Stanford (6th), Mississippi State (8th), Texas (10th), Missouri (11th), Georgia (13th), South Carolina (15th) and Texas A&M (22nd) are in Crème's Top 25.
- Tennessee has selected dates for a pair of games that bring attention to great causes.
- The Lady Vols will play host to the annual "We Back Pat" game on Jan. 21 vs. Arkansas.
- The contest, which is held in conjunction with the Southeastern Conference's We Back Pat Week observance, creates awareness and raises money for the fight against Alzheimer's disease.
- Women's basketball and Lady Vol coaching legend Pat Summitt saw her career and life cut short by the disease.
- UT also will host its "Live Pink, Bleed Orange" game on Jan. 27 when LSU comes to town, generating publicity and funds for the fight against breast cancer.
- Coaches Holly Warlick (UT) and Nikki Caldwell (LSU), who both played and coached at Tennessee, started an organization called Champions For A Cause that is involved in fund-raising, support and education projects.

HEADED BACK TO THE JUNKANOO JAM

- Just as they did a year ago, the Lady Vols will head somewhere tropical after their opening three-game set.
- This time, UT will venture to the Bahamas to take part in the Junkanoo Jam at Resorts World Bimini on Nov. 22-24 at Gateway Christian Academy.
- The tournament, hosted annually over Thanksgiving, will feature Clemson, Eastern Kentucky, Florida State, Iowa, Oklahoma, Tennessee, UAB, and West Virginia.
- The field will be split into two divisions of four teams, the Junkanoo and Bimini Divisions, and each division will crown a champion.
- The Lucaya Division champions at the 2013 Junkanoo Jam in Freeport, Bahamas, Tennessee will open play this season on Nov. 22 vs. Clemson at 3 p.m. ET in the Junkanoo Division bracket.
- The winner plays Oklahoma or UAB at 2 p.m. on Nov. 24.
- The losers of the opening games meet on Nov. 23 at 7:45 p.m.
- OU (NCAA First Round) and UAB (WNIT Second Round) are coming off postseason appearances a year ago.
- Tennessee will be making its third in-season trip outside the U.S. during the Holly Warlick era and fourth international excursion during the past seven years. As mentioned, UT was 2-0 at the 2013 Junkanoo Jam, went 3-0 during a tour of Italy during the summer of 2015 and posted a 3-0 mark at the 2017 Cancun Challenge last fall for an 8-0 mark on foreign soil under Warlick.

REMEMBERING DAEDRA CHARLES-FURLOW

- Daedra Charles-Furlow, one of only six Lady Vols to have her jersey hung in the rafters of Thompson-Boling Arena, passed away in Detroit, Mich., on April 14, 2018, at the age of 49. Each player will wear a "DC" patch on their shooting shirt this year to honor her legacy.
- Charles was a 1992 Olympian, a two-time All-American and All-SEC performer (1990 & 1991), 1991 Wade Trophy winner, 1991 SEC Female Athlete of the Year and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductee (2007).

BRAND NEW LOCKER ROOM

- On Sept. 7, UT celebrated the dedication of the Larry Pratt Locker Room Complex at Thompson-Boling Arena.
- Pratt is the same person for whom the Tennessee practice facility, Pratt Pavilion, is named.

- Pratt's lead commitment of $2 million—coupled with other leadership gifts—enabled UT to finance the top-notch locker room facility entirely through private funds.
- The complex provides UT's basketball student-athletes very impressive headquarters during practices and games as well as for medical treatment, film sessions and other team-oriented functions.
- The project, which involved demolition of the old infrastructure and a complete rebuild of that space, resulted in brand-new dressing, meeting and film rooms for both teams and a state-of-the-art sports medicine area. The upgrades certainly enhance the experiences of current Vols and Lady Vols, but they also provide an impressive showpiece during the recruiting process.

UT SAYS GOODBYE TO FOUR PLAYERS

- Tennessee lost four players from last year's squad.
- The Lady Vols lost their top two scorers in 6-2 forward Jaime Nared (16.7 ppg.) and 6-6 center Mercedes Russell (15.3 ppg.) to graduation and the WNBA.
- Russell (9.2 rpg.) and Nared (7.4 rpg.) also were the team's top and third-leading rebounders, respectively.
- Russell and Nared were All-SEC First Team Selections and WBCA Honorable Mention All-Americans, and Nared also earned AP H.M. All-America accolades.
- Another graduate was Kortney Dunbar, who played about nine minutes per game and was a three-point shooting specialist, knocking down 19 treys in 2017-18 and 69 for her career.
- Anastasia Hayes, who averaged 9.3 ppg., 3.5 apg. and 2.5 rpg. en route to SEC 6th Woman of the Year accolades as a freshman last season, was dismissed from the program due to a violation of team rules on Aug. 31.

BACK-TO-BACK TOP-FOUR SIGNING CLASSES

- Tennessee welcomed back to back top-four signing classes in 2017 (No. 1) and 2018 (No. 4), according to the espnW HoopGurlz rankings.
- These are the best back-to-back recruiting classes of the Holly Warlick era.
- The 2017 group included Evina Westbrook, Anastasia Hayes, Rennia Davis and Kasiyahna Kushkituah, while the 2018 collection included Zaay Green, Jazmine Mas-sengill, Rae Burrell and Mimi Collins.
- They are UT's first back-to-back top-five groups since the No. 5 2012 unit (Bashaara Graves, Andraya Carter and Jasmine Jones) signed in Pat Summitt's final season and a No. 3 2013 group (Mercedes Russell, Jannah Tucker, Jordan Reynolds).
- Tennessee is restocking its roster after its 2015 (No. 13) and 2016 (no ranking) classes weren't up to typical program standards.

SIX McDONALD'S A-As ON ROSTER

- Tennessee has six McDonald's All-Americans on its 2018-19 roster, which is the same number as it had a year ago.
- Those players are sophomores Rennia Davis, Kasiyahna Kushkituah and Evina Westbrook, and freshmen Mimi Collins, Rae Burrell and Zaay Green.
- 2017 was the first time an entire Lady Vol signing class consisted only of McDonald's All-Americans.
- Tennessee now has had 34 McDonald's All-Americans on its rosters through the years.
- Holly Warlick has signed 12 McDonald's All-Americans as head coach and added another via transfer for 13 total in her seventh season as head coach.

HOLLY WARLICK

HEAD COACH

SEVENTH YEAR AS HEAD COACH/34TH YEAR ON STAFF
TENNESSEE '81

THE WARLICK FILE

Born: June 11, 1958

Education:

Bearden High School (Knoxville, Tenn.), '76
B.S., Tennessee, '81
M.S., Virginia Tech, '83

Playing Career:

University of Tennessee (1976-80): three-time All-American, Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductee, 1980 Olympic Team, first player at UT to have her jersey (#22) retired

In six complete years at the helm of Tennessee women's basketball, Holly Warlick has built a very impressive résumé in her young head coaching career. Her worksheet contains accomplishments few coaches have achieved in their entire careers, much less as first-time head coaches.

Those successes verify that Warlick was the right choice to take the reins at Tennessee and that she and her staff have the acumen to run a championship program. A disciple of the legendary Pat Summitt, Warlick has maintained the core values of her former coach, co-worker and friend while at the same time employing her own personality, style and competitive energy to coach today's players.

WARLICK RANKS AMONG THE NATION'S TOP COACHES

- Eleven Lady Vols have been taken in the WNBA Draft in Warlick's six seasons.
- Warlick has continued the Lady Vols' 100-percent graduation rate for players who have completed their collegiate careers at Tennessee.
- Only three schools have reached the NCAA Elite Eight more times in the past six seasons than the Lady Vols, who advanced to that round in 2013, 2015 and 2016.
- Warlick and Leon Barmore (formerly of Louisiana Tech) are the only skippers to direct their programs to three NCAA Elite Eight appearances in their first four seasons as head coaches.
- Holly Warlick's 153-54 record over the past six years ranks her 11th among Power Five women's coaches.
- She is the only coach in that group who has fewer than 10 seasons as a head coach.
- UT ranks eighth among Power Five schools with a 13-6 NCAA Tournament record during the past six seasons.
- Warlick's career SEC (.740, 71-25) winning percentage ranks her first among all SEC women's head coaches.
- Tennessee has claimed three SEC trophies in Warlick's first six seasons, winning regular-season crowns in 2013 and 2015 and claiming the tournament title in 2014.

Whether as an All-America player from 1976-80, an assistant and associate head coach for 27 seasons from 1985 to 2012, or head coach from 2012 to present, Warlick has thrived during her more than three decades in the spotlight at Rocky Top. She enters her seventh year as head coach and 38th season of overall affiliation with the program hoping to build upon last season's NCAA Second Round finish.

Warlick was announced as head coach of the Lady Vols on April 18, 2012, as women's hoops legend Pat Summitt stepped into the role of head coach emeritus. In a touching and symbolic gesture the following day at a press conference announcing the changes, Summitt presented her coaching whistle to her long-time aide and former floor general.

Since that day, Warlick and her staff have worked tirelessly to maintain the program's lofty expectations. Despite being picked to finish as low as fifth in the SEC and 20th nationally, her first squad won the 2013 SEC regular season title and made the NCAA Elite Eight, finishing 27-8/14-2 despite injuries that forced players to miss a combined 53 games. Her 2014 edition went 29-6/13-3, winning an SEC Tournament title and making it to the NCAA Sweet 16.

In 2015, her third team reached the 30-win plateau at 30-6/15-1, claiming a share of the regular-season SEC crown and charting the second NCAA Elite Eight appearance in her three seasons. Her last three units have finished 22-14, 20-12 and 25-8, advancing to the NCAA Elite Eight and back-to-back Second Round appearances, respectively. The last two seasons saw the Lady Vols knock off national powers South Carolina, Mississippi State, Stanford, Notre Dame and Texas along the way.

During Warlick's first six seasons, 11 Lady Vols have been taken in the WNBA Draft. Diamond DeShields (1st Rd.), Jaime Nared (2nd Rd.) and Mercedes Russell (2nd Rd.) were picked in 2018; Jordan Reynolds (2nd Rd.) and Schaquilla Nunn (2nd Rd.) were selected in 2017; Bashaara Graves (2nd Rd.) went in 2016; Isabelle Harrison (1st Rd.), Cierra Burdick (2nd Rd.) and Ariel Massengale (3rd Rd.) were chosen in 2015; Meighan Simmons (3rd Rd.) was taken in 2014 and Kamiko Williams (2nd Rd.) was selected in 2013. Simmons was twice named SEC Player of the Year (2013, 2014) during her UT career.

On the international scene, Warlick is a gold medal coach, and two of her players joined her in earning that hardware. Warlick served as an assistant, while Mercedes Russell and Diamond DeShields played on the undefeated (6-0) 2015 USA World University Games Team in South Korea.

From 2012-18, Tennessee also has produced in the classroom, with 15 players earning a total of 33 spots on the SEC Academic Honor Roll. In 2015, Cierra Burdick became Warlick's first CoSIDA Academic All-American, garnering second-team honors and also being named a UT Torchbearer, the most prestigious accolade a student at Tennessee can receive.

Warlick has been recognized personally for her performance. In 2013, members of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association named her the Spalding Maggie Dixon Division I Rookie Coach of the Year. She was selected by the AP and league coaches as the 2013 SEC Women's Basketball Coach of the Year, and members of the Tennessee Sports Writers Association also chose her as TSWA Women's Basketball Coach of the Year that season.

In May 2017, Warlick was recognized for her years of distinguished leadership, volunteer activities, philanthropic work and professional accomplishments that have contributed to improving the quality of life in Tennessee. She was named the 2017 Tennessee Woman of Distinction at the 32nd annual Chattanooga Women of Distinction Awards luncheon.

Warlick and her staff also continue to build for the future on the recruiting trail. They have welcomed 13 McDonald's All-Americans in six recruiting classes, including seven in the last two years. All four members of the No. 1-ranked 2017 signing class were McDonald's All-Americans, including the No. 2 player in Evina Westbrook, and three of four members of the No. 4-rated 2018 group were McDonald's All-Americans, led by No. 10 ranked Zaay Green.

After Warlick helped shape the direction of Lady Vol basketball as an assistant on Summitt's staff for more than a quarter of a century, the pupil took on greater responsibility and oversaw daily supervision of the basketball office during the 2011-12 season. She also handled a large measure of the media obligations after Summitt's Aug. 23, 2011, announcement regarding the diagnosis of early onset dementia, "Alzheimer's type."

Providing an excellent example of how people rally around each other, the Tennessee staff members pulled together remarkably in the face of that adversity. The end result was a 27-9 overall record, an SEC Tournament Championship and advancement to the NCAA Regional Final.

It's worth noting that Warlick was by Summitt's side, either as a player or an assistant, for 949 of the coach's NCAA-record 1,098 wins and all eight NCAA National Championships. Her value to the program has been evident for some time, as she had held the role of associate head coach since the 2005-06 campaign.

The WBCA also had recognized Warlick's contributions to Tennessee's success through the years, naming Warlick the nation's top assistant coach after she helped lead UT to its seventh national title in 2007. The NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches also recognized Warlick as one of the nation's top assistants in 1998, ranking her prominently in The Women's Basketball Journal poll.

In addition to the NCAA title and coaching honor in 2007, Warlick also teamed up for the first time with former fellow Lady Vol player and assistant Nikki (Caldwell) Fargas, the current head coach at LSU, to pursue her other passion. That pursuit is riding a motorcycle and raising money for the fight against breast cancer.

Warlick and Fargas created the Champions For A Cause Foundation, a long haul motorcycle ride dedicated to raising funds and awareness for a cure for breast cancer. The charitable organization has raised and donated more than $150,000. Past trips include the inaugural ride from San Francisco to Knoxville as well as trips from the Badlands to Las Vegas and from Knoxville to Key West, Fla., New Orleans, Niagara Falls and, most recently in 2013 and 2014, Panama City, Fla.

On Feb. 10, 2008, Warlick and Fargas presented a $10,000 check to the late N.C. State Head Coach Kay Yow and the Kay Yow/WBCA Cancer Fund. At Tennessee's "Live Pink, Bleed Orange" game vs. Vanderbilt on Feb. 17, 2013, three checks worth $15,000 were presented by Champions for a Cause to the UT Breast Health Outreach Program, Kay Yow Cancer Foundation and the Brady James Foundation to help raise money for breast cancer research. Those presentations to organizations have become an annual event, thanks to fundraising efforts and the generosity of many.

Warlick also presented a special pink basketball to her sister, Marion Ferrill, prior to the start of that game in 2013. Ferrill was diagnosed with breast cancer in the fall of 2012 and was pronounced cancer free on Sept. 30 after undergoing surgery shortly after her diagnosis. With all of her accomplishments in coaching and in her charitable endeavors it might be easy to overlook the fact that Warlick left just as powerful a mark on women's hoops as a player at UT. It doesn't seem that long ago that the charismatic Knoxville native was flying up and down the court as an All-America Lady Vol point guard.

For more than three decades, Warlick has been considered the finest point guard ever to play for the Lady Vols. In addition to being selected to the CONVERSE/Lady Vol Team of the Decade for the 1980s in January of 1994, five different halls of fame opened their doors to her.

On Feb. 27, 2004, she was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame. In October 2002, she became a member of the University of Tennessee Lady Vol Hall of Fame in the second class of inductees. In June 2001, the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame selected Warlick as one of 10 inductees enshrined into the Hall for the Class of 2001. For the hometown girl, who grew up in the Rocky Hill section of Knoxville and graduated from Bearden High School, it was a dream-come-true.

In the summer of 1994, Warlick gained admission to her first hall of fame. She was honored as one of the City of Knoxville's finest all-time athletes with her inclusion in the Greater Knoxville Sports Hall of Fame.

Including the 2017-18 season, Warlick has invested 37 years in the program, having helped shape UT into a national powerhouse with tenure as both a player and a coach. Warlick's expertise and major contributions to the team as an assistant came from her work with the guards. Simmons, Ariel Massengale, Shekina Stricklen, Kara Lawson, Angie Bjorklund and Shanna Zolman are just a few of the successful players Warlick helped recruit and coach as an assistant coach.

Warlick's association with the Lady Vols started in 1976 when she joined the program as a scholarship 400-meter track athlete who ended up walking on to the basketball team. Soon, she would become the most prolific player in the history of Tennessee Lady Vol basketball.

Warlick was the first player in Tennessee athletics (men or women) to have her jersey retired (No. 22) at the end of her career in 1980. Bearden, her prep alma mater in Knoxville, retired Warlick's high school jersey (also No. 22) prior to a home football game on Oct. 26, 2012.

Known as a play-making wiz during her four years as UT's point guard, Warlick was once tabbed the "best player in the South." As a rookie, Warlick helped lead the Lady Vols to their first Final Four appearance in school history in 1977. She had no trouble adjusting her enthusiasm and knowledge of the game into the coaching role.

In 19 of the past 37 years Warlick has been affiliated with UT, she has found herself at the Final Four as a player (1977, 1979, 1980) or as a coach (1986, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1991, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2007 and 2008). Her best Final Four showing as a player was national championship runner-up in her senior season. As a coach, she has helped the Lady Vols grab the brass ring all eight times (1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2007 and 2008).

A three-time All-American while playing for Summitt from 1976-80, Warlick previously held UT records for most assists in a game (14), most steals in a contest (nine), most assists in a season (225) and most games in a career (142). She continues to hold the Lady Vol single-season steals record with 141 in 1978-79.

Warlick possesses vast international playing experience as well. In addition to being a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team, which did not compete in the Moscow Olympics, Warlick and the 1980 U.S. team won gold at the 1980 FIBA Olympic Qualifying Tournament.

She also captured a gold medal playing for the USA at the 1979 FIBA World Championship, marking the first gold medal for the USA at the FIBA World Championships since 1957 and breaking a streak of five-straight golds by the USSR, a silver medal at the 1979 Pan American Games and gold at the 1979 R. William Jones Cup. Additionally, she served as a player representative on the USA BASKETBALL council and was a member of the USOC Advisory Council for Basketball.

In recognition of being a former Olympian, Warlick earned the distinct honor of running the Olympic torch through Knoxville as it made its way to the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta, Ga. Post-collegiately, she was a WPBL All-Star, leading the Nebraska Wranglers to the championship of the Women's Professional Basketball League in 1981.

Prior to joining the Tennessee staff for the 1985-86 season, Warlick gained experience at two other stops on the coaching circuit. She was an assistant coach at Virginia Tech from 1981-83 and an assistant from 1983-85 at Nebraska.

A native of Knoxville, Warlick earned her B.S. in marketing from Tennessee in 1981 and her master's degree in athletic administration from Virginia Tech in 1983. Warlick added "biker" to her vitae in 2001. To commemorate her induction into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, a number of Warlick's friends got together and presented her with a Harley-Davidson "Sportster" motorcycle. Just six years later, Warlick already was using her love of the bike towards a greater cause, establishing the Champions For A Cause Foundation with Fargas.

DEAN LOCKWOOD

ASSISTANT COACH

15TH YEAR ON STAFF/20TH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
SPRING ARBOR (MICH.) '82

Dean Lockwood is in his 15th year on the Lady Vol staff and in his 20th year of service to the University of Tennessee. He has worked alongside UT Head Coach Holly Warlick since July 2, 2004, when he became just the ninth assistant coach ever to serve under Pat Summitt at UT.

Since his return to Rocky Top, the Lady Vols have compiled a record of 399-95, captured seven SEC Tournament crowns and five SEC regular season championships, appeared in three NCAA Final Fours and won back-to-back national championships (2007 & 2008).

Five of Lockwood's pupils at Tennessee have developed into first-round picks in the WNBA Draft, including 2016 WNBA Finals MVP, 2013 WNBA MVP and WNBA All-Star Game MVP Candace Parker, the No. 1 overall selection in 2008 by Los Angeles. Parker honed her craft under Lockwood's tutelage and remains one of the most well-known and highly-compensated women's players of all-time.

Isabelle Harrison followed in Parker's footsteps in 2015, also going in the first round of the WNBA Draft. The dynamic 6-foot-3 post player was taken with the 12th pick by Phoenix, even though she was out for the season with a knee injury sustained during her senior season.

The other three first-rounders are WNBA All-Star Glory Johnson (No. 4, Tulsa, 2012), Kelley Cain (No. 7, New York, 2012) and Tye'sha Fluker (No. 10, Charlotte, 2006).

SHARRONA REAVES

ASSISTANT COACH/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

THIRD YEAR ON STAFF
ALABAMA '95

A third-year member of the staff, Sharrona Reaves joined the Lady Vol basketball program on April 19, 2016, when Holly Warlick hired her as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator.

Reaves showed little time demonstrating her abilities, spearheading Tennessee's approach in signing the No. 1 recruiting class with the 2017 group of Evina Westbrook, Anastasia Hayes, Rennia Davis and Kasiyahna Kushkituah. She followed that with the No. 4-rated group in 2018, including Rae Burrell, Mimi Collins, Zaay Green and Jazmine Massengill. Seven of those eight were McDonald's All-Americans.

Reaves coaches the wing players, and saw Jaime Nared earn All-SEC second-team honors in 2017 and first-team accolades in 2018 as well as honorable mention All-America acclaim from AP and the WBCA. Rookie Rennia Davis garnered 2018 SEC All-Freshman Team honors.

A native of Murfreesboro, Tenn., Reaves spent the previous three seasons at West Virginia University, serving as an assistant coach and as head coach Mike Carey's recruiting coordinator. While there she had the opportunity to direct and mentor players at every position on the floor.

During Reaves' recent stint in Morgantown, the Mountaineers forged a 78-30 record, including a No. 2 NCAA seed; a Big 12 regular season title and 30-5 record in 2013-14; a WNIT runner-up finish in 2014-15 and an NCAA second round outcome in 2015-16 as a No. 6 seed.

One of Reaves' pupils, Bria Holmes, became the program's highest-ranked WNBA Draft pick in 2016, going in the first round with the 11th pick to the Atlanta Dream. Another WVU player, Asya Bussie, was the No. 15 pick of the Minnesota Lynx in 2014.

With Reaves directing the recruiting efforts, WVU signed the 2016 WBCA Junior/Community College Player of the Year. Her abilities in that area have enabled the Mountaineers to land strong recruiting classes in not only her current stint with the team but also in a previous stop at the school.

Reaves returned to the WVU staff in May 2013 after serving as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under Carey from 2003-06. In her previous three seasons with the Mountaineer program, Reaves helped recruit two top-20 recruiting classes, including the signing of Mountaineer standout Olayinka Sanni, who went on to win a WNBA title with the Detroit Shock. She helped WVU to the Big East Conference Tournament finals in 2006, assisted in the WNIT finals in 2005 and was part of back-to-back 20-win seasons in 2004 and 2005. In addition to 21 wins in 2004, the Mountaineers advanced to the NCAA tournament for the first time since the 1992 season.

After leaving Morgantown in 2006, Reaves became the head coach at NCAA Division II's Long Island University C.W. Post. Under her guidance, Post had two consecutive winning seasons in 2006-07 and 2007-08, giving the Pioneers their first back-to-back winning

From 2008-10, Reaves was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator on the Mississippi State women's basketball staff, helping guide the 2009 Lady Bulldogs to the NCAA Second Round and the 2010 squad to their first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

Following her time with Mississippi State, Reaves left coaching to serve a short stint as the Compliance Coordinator at Alabama State University. # PHILLIP FULMER

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

FIRST YEAR AT TENNESSEE
TENNESSEE '72

Phillip Fulmer was appointed as the University of Tennessee's Director of Athletics on Dec. 1, 2017. He accepted the position after serving as special advisor to UT President Joe DiPietro for community, athletics and university relations since June 20, 2017.

Fulmer—a former Tennessee football co-captain who went on to lead the Volunteers to a football national championship and earn first-ballot induction into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame—has faithfully served the University of Tennessee for more than 40 years.

He wasted no time getting to work. Six days after taking the reins of the athletic department at his alma mater, he finalized a deal to make Jeremy Pruitt the 26th head coach in the storied history of the Tennessee football program.

Fulmer had experience in such endeavors, as in 2013 he was tabbed by the administration at ETSU to serve as “special assistant to the athletic director and advisor to football,” providing guidance and expertise as the school sought to restart its football program, which had been dormant for 10 years.

During his first year as AD, Fulmer also hired head coaches for volleyball (Eve Rackham) and men's golf (Brennan Webb) and came to terms on contract extensions for five others—including basketball coaches Rick Barnes and Holly Warlick.

The cornerstones of Tennessee Athletics under Fulmer's leadership are warmth, communication, trust and intensity.

» Communication – Open and honest communication — no surprises — as we pursue our goals.

» Trust – Trust is earned, not given. Every day... be trustworthy.

» Warmth – You know that I care about you, and I know you care about me; together, we care about our student-athletes, our university, our state, our fans and our community.

» Intensity – We attack each day with great intensity to achieve our goals and be the very best at our chosen calling.

Fulmer leaned on those same four pillars while leading his alma mater's storied football program to the most dominant era in its modern history.

Fulmer's 17 years at the helm of the Volunteers program produced a record of 152 wins and 52 losses. At the conclusion of Fulmer's final season, he was the dean of SEC football coaches and no active coach with at least a decade in Division I-A had a better winning percentage (.744).

Under his tutelage, the Volunteers were the first to win the Bowl Championship Series National Championship in 1998 and made five appearances in the SEC Championship game, winning it in 1997 and 1998 and also capturing SEC East titles in 1997, 1998, 2001, 2004 and 2007.

Fulmer was named SEC Coach of the Year and National Coach of the Year in 1998.

A 1972 Tennessee graduate, he starred on the offensive line during his playing career, serving as team co-captain as a senior. The Vols were 30-5 and won an SEC Championship and a Sugar Bowl during his playing career from 1969-71.

He returned to Rocky Top as an assistant coach in 1980 before being named head coach in 1992.

Fulmer built his programs by challenging and motivating his teams to victories when the pressure was highest. Among his many accolades:

» Nine Fulmer-coached squads eclipsed the 10-win mark and two others just missed with nine victories.

» Eighteen of Fulmer's Vols earned first-team All-America honors, 70 Vols garnered first-team All-SEC acclaim and he produced 19 first-round NFL Draft selections and had a total of 101 players selected overall.

» Under Fulmer, the Vols were ranked in the national polls at game time for 169 of his 204 games as head coach.

» Tennessee posted a 44-37 record against teams ranked in the Associated Press Top-25 Poll during his tenure.

» Fulmer is one of only three coaches to produce multiple winners of the Draddy Award (now known as the William V. Campbell Trophy), which recognizes the nation's top academic and athletic student-athlete by The National Football Foundation & College Football Hall of Fame. Offensive lineman Michael Munoz and quarterback Peyton Manning both received the award under Fulmer's tutelage.

Fulmer's family approach in developing and guiding his young men on and off the field gave him the opportunity to mentor some of the top names in college and NFL history—including Manning, Eric Berry, Chad Clifton, Al Wilson and Jason Witten. Fulmer's motivation was rooted in his role as a principled mentor who pushed his student-athletes to grow socially, spiritually, academically and personally, as well as athletically.

Fulmer's reputation as an ace recruiter led many analysts to praise him as one of the top head coach recruiters. His holistic approach earned recognition from his peers as he was named the second coach in history to earn the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Trophy, the presidency of the American Football Coaches Association, and national, regional and conference coach of the year honors.

His induction into the 2012 National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame on the first ballot was a rare accomplishment, signifying immense respect from his peers. He previously was inducted to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 2001 and the Greater Knoxville Sports Hall of Fame in 2008. He was welcomed into the Tennessee Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

Fulmer and his wife, Vicky, have been passionate and active supporters of several philanthropic causes. Phillip has served as the national spokesperson for The Jason Foundation, Inc., since 1998. He also serves as honorary chair of the Knoxville Alzheimer's Association Walk and sits on the Board of Trustees for the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Tennessee Valley. The annual Phillip Fulmer Golf Classic in 2001 has raised over $1 million for Boys & Girls Clubs of the Tennessee Valley. Additionally, Vicky stands as an honorary board member with Friends of the Smokies.

Fulmer's three daughters—Courtney, Brittany and Allison—each graduated from the University of Tennessee's College of Communication & Information. Brittany and Allison also lettered as Lady Vols, competing as a diver and a softball player, respectively. His son, Phillip Jr., lives and works in White House, Tennessee.

Between his Tennessee coaching tenure and his return to UT in 2017, Fulmer worked in business development and made motivational speaking appearances nationwide.

■ 2017-18 POSTSEASON NOTEBOOK

LADY VOLS WIND UP NO. 12 IN AP POLL

- Tennessee finished the 2017-18 season with a 25-8 overall record.
- UT ended up in four-way tie for fourth place in SEC standings at 11-5, one game out of second.
- If UT had won one more game, it would have owned the tie breaker over both South Carolina and Georgia (who tied for second) and would have been the No. 2 seed in the SEC Tournament.
- The Lady Vols finished ranked No. 12 in the AP Poll and No. 17 in the USA Today Coaches Poll (end of regular season).
- Tennessee did so after returning only two starters from the year before and only four players with significant experience while featuring three freshmen among its top five players.
- It marked Holly Warlick's fourth 25-win season (27 - 2013, 29 - 2014, 30 - 2015, 25 - 2018) after winning 22 in 2016 and 20 in 2017.
- UT finished 7-6 vs. ranked teams and 18-2 vs. unranked teams this season (LSU was later ranked and made the NCAA Tournament).
- Tennessee had quality wins over #2/4 Texas, #7/6 South Carolina, #9/8 South Carolina, 14/12 Texas A&M, #18/24 Stanford, #18/18 Georgia and #20/20 Marquette.
- The Lady Vols had been predicted to finish fourth by the media and fifth by the coaches in the SEC standings.

TENNESSEE EARNS 37TH TOURNEY BID

- As the only program to appear in every NCAA Tournament, the Tennessee women's basketball team was selected to the postseason for the 37th time last season, advancing to the second round.
- The No. 3 seed Lady Vols defeated the 14th-seeded Liberty Flames, 100-60, in the first round of the Lexington Regional at home in Knoxville on March 16, 2018.
- Rennia Davis led UT (25-7) with 18 points and 11 rebounds, marking her ninth career double-double and tying her with Tamika Catchings for the fifth most double-doubles ever recorded by a UT freshman. Redshirt junior Cheridene Green also posted a double-double, the second of her career, with 15 points and 12 rebounds.
- Tennessee's season came to an end in the second round, falling to the No. 6 seed #13/12 Oregon State Beavers in Knoxville, 66-59, on March 18.
- It marked UT's first-ever loss at home in the NCAA Tournament.
- Senior Mercedes Russell closed out her UT career with a double-double of 21 points and 14 rebounds in 38 minutes.
- Russell's double-double pushed her past Candace Parker into second place in career double-doubles with 46. She finished as UT's all-time leader for a senior with 16 in 2017-18.

UT POSTS 35TH 25-WIN SEASON

- With its win over Liberty in the NCAA Tournament, Tennessee achieved its 25th victory of the year, marking the 35th season the Lady Vols have reached that win total
- It marked the fourth 25-win campaign under Holly Warlick, with the Lady Vols last achieving that total during a 30-6 season in 2014-15.

- The Lady Vols hit the 20-win mark for the 42nd consecutive season on Feb. 8, 2018, winning at Arkansas, 90-85.

RUSSELL JOINS ELITE COMPANY

- Redshirt senior Mercedes Russell became just the sixth Lady Vol to ever record 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career, finishing with 1,597 and 1,085 to wind up 16th and third, respectively, on UT's career lists.
- The 6-foot-6 center was UT's top rebounder (9.2) and second-highest scorer (15.3) as a senior and shot .583 from the field to pace the team.
- Russell set the record for most double-doubles in a season by a Lady Vol senior at 16 after setting a junior record with 19 in 2016-17.
- She posted the second-most career double-doubles at UT (46), finishing behind only Chamique Holdscaw (57).
- Her 8.0 career rebound average is sixth all-time at UT, while her 9.2 season average was fifth among seniors.
- Russell's 15.3 ppg. average as a senior was the sixth highest ever by a true Lady Vol center.
- She finished fifth at UT in career FG pct. (.570) and ninth for a season at UT and 21st nationally (.583).
- She tallied 195 career blocked shots to wind up fifth all-time at Tennessee in that statistical category.
- Russell started her last 69 games at UT and 101 of 136 total contests as a Lady Vol.

NARED LEAVES MARK AT UT

- Senior Jaime Nared led Tennessee in scoring at 16.7 points per game and was third in rebounding at 7.4.
- Her team-leading 16.7 ppg. average ranks eighth all-time for a Lady Vol senior.
- She also led the team in free throw percentage (.820) and steals (73) as a senior.
- She finished her career with 1,460 points and 722 rebounds, winding up No. 26 among UT's 45 all-time 1,000-point scorers.
- Nared finished second on all-time UT season lists for free throws made (169) and free throws attempted (206).
- She wound up fifth on Lady Vol career lists for free throws made (429) and free throw pct. (.827, 429-519).
- Her 10 double-doubles last season ranked her No. 7 among all Lady Vol seniors and her 19 over four seasons put her at No. 19.

FIVE LADY VOLS EARN SEC HONORS

- Seniors Jaime Nared and Mercedes Russell were named to the eight-player All-SEC First Team, freshman Anastasia Hayes was chosen as 6th Woman of the Year and her classmates Rennia Davis and Evina Westbrook were selected for the eight-person SEC All-Freshman Team.
- Nared and Russell picked up Coaches All-SEC accolades for the second time in their careers, but they made the first team in 2018 after earning second-team honors a year ago. It marked the fourth time during the Holly Warlick era UT had two on the coaches' first team. Cierra Burdick and Isabelle Harrison had that distinction in 2015, while Meighan Simmons and Harrison made the cut in 2014 and Simmons and Bashaara Graves did so in 2013.

- Hayes is Tennessee's second-ever 6th Woman of the Year, following in the footsteps of Alyssia Brewer in 2010. Davis and Westbrook, meanwhile, are the fourth and fifth members of the SEC All-Freshman Team during the past six seasons. It marked the seventh time in history UT has had two players on that squad in the same year.
- Nared and Russell were AP All-SEC Second Team selections this year.

NAT'L HONORS FOR TWO LADY VOLS

- Seniors Mercedes Russell and Jaime Nared earned recognition from two national organizations for their senior-year efforts.
- Nared was an AP Honorable Mention All-American, a WBCA Honorable Mention All-American and made the WBCA All-Region 2 Team.
- Russell was a WBCA Honorable Mention All-American and made the WBCA All-Region 2 Team.

ACADEMIC ACCOLADES FOR DUNBAR

- Kortney Dunbar made the SEC Academic Honor Roll for the fourth time during her career.
- She also earned distinction from UT, including Chancellor's Honors for Extraordinary Academic Achievement and for being a Scholar-Athlete.

RUSSELL HONORED FOR GOOD WORKS

- Mercedes Russell was named to the 2018 SEC Women's Basketball Community Service Team.
- A member of the University of Tennessee Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Russell assists in planning community service events by UT student-athletes. She has participated in Hoops for Hope, bringing visibility to the Down Syndrome Awareness Group of East Tennessee. She took part in the Christmas Cookie Decorating Contest with East Tennessee Children's Hospital and the Community Holiday Meal that provided members of Knoxville's homeless community with a warm meal and toiletry kit.
- Additionally, she participated in Voloween, a Halloween event in which student-athletes host children in costume for an evening of games and treats at UT's Neyland-Thompson Sports Complex.

FRESHMEN MAKE IMMEDIATE IMPACT

- SEC All-Freshman guard/forward Rennia Davis became the 15th Lady Vol (adding redshirt freshman Candace Parker makes her 16th) to score in double figures during her first year as a Lady Vol.
- Davis averaged 12.0 points and 7.6 rebounds as a freshman, starting 32 of 33 games.
- She notched nine double-doubles to tie Tamika Catchings for fifth-most double-doubles recorded by a Lady Vol freshman. Tennessee players ahead of her on the list are Chamique Holdsclaw (16), Sheila Frost (11), Bashaara Graves (10) and Candace Parker (10).
- Davis finished sixth in rebounds per game all-time by any Lady Vol freshman at 7.6.

- She ranked No. 11 in rebounding in the SEC as a rookie, including second among freshmen.
- SEC All-Freshman point guard Evina Westbrook averaged 8.4 points, 4.3 assists and 2.8 rebounds while starting all 33 games as a rookie.
- Her 4.3 assists per game average was the No. 2 all-time mark by a UT freshman.
- Westbrook's 143 assists also were the second-most ever by a Lady Vol rookie.
- SEC 6th Woman of the Year Anastasia Hayes finished with averages of 9.3 ppg. and 3.5 apg.
- She was UT's first player off the bench on 27 occasions and scored in double figures 18 times.
- Her 3.5 assists per game average edged her coach and Lady Vol legend Holly Warlick (3.4 apg) for fourth place all-time by a Lady Vol freshman.

LINEUP STABILITY

- Holly Warlick started the same five players for the first 28 games before putting Kortney Dunbar into the lineup on Senior Day vs. South Carolina in place of freshman Rennia Davis.
- The standard quintet included Jaime Nared and Rennia Davis at the forward positions, Mercedes Russell at center and Evina Westbrook and Meme Jackson at guard. They started together 32 times in 33 contests.
- The 28-game streak was the longest Tennessee had opened a season with the same starting five since at least the 1977-78 season. Box scores that season and prior did not indicate who started.

THREE LADY VOLS GO IN WNBA DRAFT

- The Tennessee women's basketball program added to its impressive list of players advancing to the professional ranks, as three former Lady Vol standouts were selected in the 2018 WNBA Draft 2018.
- The Chicago Sky took Diamond DeShields (2015-17) with the third overall pick in the first round, UT's highest draftee since Shekinna Stricklen went second to the Seattle Storm in 2012.
- Jaime Nared (2014-18) was the second LVFL chosen, selected by the Las Vegas Aces with the 13th overall pick and first selection of the second round.
- Mercedes Russell (2013-18) was the third Big Orange product to hear her name called, going to the New York Liberty with the 22nd overall pick in the second round.
- All time, 42 Lady Vols have been taken in the WNBA Draft, including 11 during the Holly Warlick era.
- The eight previous Lady Vols taken during Warlick's six years include: the duo of Jordan Reynolds (2nd Rd., 19th pick, Atlanta) and Schaquilla Nunn (3rd Rd., 25th pick, San Antonio) in 2017; Bashaara Graves (2nd Rd., 22nd pick, Minnesota) in 2016; the trio of Isabelle Harrison (1st Rd., 12th pick, Phoenix), Cierra Burdick (2nd Rd., 14th pick, Los Angeles) and Ariel Messengale (3rd Rd., 29th pick, Atlanta) in 2015; Meighan Simmons in 2014 (3rd Rd., 26th pick, New York); and Kamiko Williams in 2013 (2nd Rd. 15th pick, New York).

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Double-doubles from No. 14/18 Tennessee's All-SEC senior leaders Mercedes Russell and Jaime Nared helped the Lady Vols cruise to an 87-49 season-opening win over ETSU with 8,869 looking on Sunday afternoon in Thompson Bowling Arena.

Members of preseason watch lists for the Lisa Leslie and Cheryl Miller Awards, respectively, Russell and Nared turned in solid efforts vs. ETSU (1-1). Russell scored 20 points and corralled 10 rebounds, while Nared chipped in 13 points and 13 rebounds. Freshman Anastasia Hayes came off the bench to contribute 17 points, the majority of which came from her impressive 12-for-13 shooting at the free-throw line.

The Buccaneers got out to a 6-5 lead in the early portion of the first quarter, but the Lady Vols (1-0) played lock-down defense, forcing ETSU into 0-for-11 shooting from the field the final 7:28 of the period. A 17-0 run from Tennessee that spanned the end of the first period into the early second quarter provided the Lady Vols a lead they would not relinquish.

The Lady Vols continued their imposing defensive play in the second quarter, as ETSU entered the break shooting just 15.4 percent (6-39) from the field and trailing, 37-16. The Bucs would finish the day at 24.7 percent on 19-of-77 shooting. Russell and Nared took over the game in the third quarter, combining to score 20 of the team's 30 points in the period as the Lady Vols offense started clicking. With a sizeable lead, Tennessee was able to get all 10 players on the roster into the game. Every player scored at least one basket from the field and grabbed at least one board.

Tennessee controlled the paint, scoring 44 of its 87 points there and combining for 59 rebounds and 12 blocks. In addition to the seniors' contributions, freshman Rennie Davis pulled down eight caroms, and redshirt junior Cheridene Green grabbed seven to go with seven points and three blocks in her Lady Vol debut. PUERTO AVENTURAS, Mexico -- Double-double performances by seniors Jaime Nared and Mercedes Russell fueled No. 12/14 Tennessee to a 101-99 overtime win over No. 20/20 Marquette on Thursday night at the Hard Rock Hotel Convention Center.

Nared got off to a quick start, scoring 15 points in the first half. She finished the day with 26 points, 15 rebounds and six assists for her second double-double this season and the 11th of her career. Russell came on strong in the second half, notching 12 of her 17 points and grabbing 13 of 15 boards in the final 25 minutes of the game. She also posted her second double-double this season and the 32nd of her career.

In a game riddled with 49 total fouls, the Lady Vols went 23-0-32 from the free throw line and saw Evina Westbrook (10 points) and Nared foul out in regulation and Renna Davis card her fifth foul in the extra frame. Before she departed, though, Davis produced UT's third double-double of the game by tallying 14 points and 10 rebounds.

The Lady Vols came out strong to start the game, scoring 10 unanswered points in the first 90 seconds. By the 5:48 mark all of Tennessee's starters had notched a basket. UT led by as many as 12 points before the Golden Eagles cut the lead to six off a three-point play by Allazia Blockton. Meme Jackson immediately answered, sinking a three on the next play with 4:13 to go in the quarter, but Marquette capitalized on Tennessee turnovers, going on an 11-2 run to cut the Lady Vols' lead to 27-25 by the end of the quarter.

Anastasia Hayes, who finished with 16 points, and Kortney Dunbar led off the second quarter for the Lady Vols, each sinking three pointers on back-to-back possessions. Tennessee led by as many as 10 points midway through the quarter, but Marquette countered, scrapping back to within three for a score of 50-47 at the half.

The Golden Eagles took their first lead of the game just 36 seconds into the second half off an Erika Davenport layup, going up 51-50. The lead would change two more times before Marquette managed to pull ahead 69-67 going into the fourth stanza.

Marquette jumped out to a 75-70 lead in the fourth before Tennessee scored nine points in 56 seconds to move ahead 79-75, converting on two Marquette turnovers. The Golden Eagles cut the lead to one point with 1:13 to go in the game. The two teams would then trade free throws with Tennessee hitting four and Marquette hitting five to force overtime at 89-89. Westbrook and Nared each fouled out in the fourth quarter, leaving the Lady Vols with only eight players available for the extra period.

Cheridene Green subbed in for the overtime period and immediately made an impact, knocking down four points and collecting two rebounds. Marquette rallied back and took a one-point lead with 1:11 to go before Hayes scored on back-to-back layups and converted on a free throw to go up 101 to 97. A Natisha Hiedeman bucket pulled the Golden Eagles within two at 101-99, but Tennessee held on for the victory.

PUERTO AVENTURAS, Mexico -- No. 12/14 Tennessee outlasted previously-unbeaten Oklahoma State Friday afternoon, winning 79-69 on day two of the Cancun Challenge.

Senior Jaime Nared and Mercedes Russell once again led the team in production, combining for 46 points and 18 rebounds. Nared had 21 points on the day, moving her career point total to 1,004 while adding 10 rebounds to notch her second straight double-double. Tennessee (5-0) maintained its double-digit lead until the 6:57 mark of the second quarter when OSU went on a 12-5 run to cut the lead to 30-22. Nared countered, stealing a ball off the dribble and converting it into two points, but the Cowgirls answered with five quick points to creep within five. Tennessee closed out the final two minutes of the half with a 7-1 run to take a 10-point lead into the locker room.

OSU (5-1) started the half with a 9-2 run to cut the lead to three at the 7:45 mark. Two Anastasia Hayes buckets would break the slump. She would do so again with just six seconds left in the quarter to give Tennessee a 57-49 lead heading in to the final stanza.

Russell opened up the fourth quarter with a layup to stretch UT's lead to 10. The team traded baskets for several possessions until OSU's Loryn Goodwin cut the lead to six with 4:36 to go in the game. Russell answered with back-to-back buckets and Tennessee went on to win 79-69.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Senior Jaime Nared scored 27 points and freshman Evina Westbrook dished out a career-high 12 assists to lead No. 11/13 Tennessee to a 131-69 victory over Troy on Wednesday night at Thompson-Boling Arena.

The Lady Vols (9-0) used a balanced offensive effort to put away the Trojans (4-2), as seven players reached double figures in points. Defensively, UT was able to hold the nation's fifth highest scoring offense to 22 points below its average of 91.8 per game.

Tennessee was ready from the tip again, racing out to a 12-0 lead for the second consecutive game. The Lady Vols led 34-15 at the end of the frame.

UT maintained a strong advantage on the glass, hauling in 31 rebounds in the first half and tallying 73 for the game, a total that ranks No. 3 in school history. Freshman forward Rennaia Davis recorded seven of those boards in addition to 10 points and four assists to lead Tennessee into the break ahead, 61-30. All nine active Lady Vols recorded at least a basket in the half, with Nared leading all scorers with 20 at the intermission.

The Lady Vols continued their offensive barrage into the second half, shooting 64 percent from the field and 4-for-7 from 3-point range in the third quarter. Their 44 points were the most scored in a single quarter in program history.

Tennessee's unselfishness was on full display throughout the game, as the team finished with 38 assists on 54 baskets. The assist total ranked second in school history, while the number of field goals made ranked fourth.

Davis and Meme Jackson recorded 16 points and 10 rebounds each, while Cheridene Green picked up a double-double of her own, scoring a career-high 16 points and bringing down 13 boards in just 20 minutes of play. It was Davis' fourth of the season and the first of Jackson's and Green's careers.

Freshman point guard Anastasia Hayes also tossed in 12 points and notched career highs with nine assists and seven rebounds. Kortney Dunbar shot 6-for-7 from the floor in the second half to finish with 17 points, and Kasiyahna Kuskithuah added six points and five boards. KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Senior Jaime Nared scored 23 points and recorded 13 rebounds to lead No. 11/13 Tennessee to a signature win over No. 2/4 Texas in front of a crowd of 9,651 on Sunday afternoon at Thompson-Boling Arena.

After another strong start in front of their home fans, the Lady Vols (10-0) never trailed during the game and held the Longhorns (7-1) to 36 percent shooting. Fueled by clutch rebounding and aggressive defense, Tennessee answered every Texas run to hang on down the stretch and earn its first home win over a top-two ranked opponent since beating No. 2 Stanford in 2010. It also halted a three-game losing skid to the Longhorns.

The Lady Vols opened the game on a 6-0 run and limited Texas to two points through the opening seven minutes of the game. The Longhorns were also held to just four field goals, as Tennessee finished the quarter ahead, 16-11. The 11 points were the fewest Texas has scored in a quarter this season. Mercedes Russell led the Big Orange offensively, shooting 3-for-6 for six points.

The Longhorns' defense turned it on in the second quarter, hauling Tennessee to 13 points on 27 percent shooting from the field. Texas used a 6-0 spurt of its own in the last five minutes of the half to claw its way back. Thanks to nine points from Evina Westbrook and eight from Nared, however, the Lady Vols went into the intermission leading, 29-27. Jatarie White led Texas in the first half with seven points and five rebounds.

Tennessee came out of the locker room ready in the second half, going on a 7-0 run in the early stages of the third quarter. The Lady Vols remained efficient offensively throughout the quarter, shooting 7-for-15 from the field for 19 points. Westbrook hit two 3-pointers for six points as the Big Orange took a 48-44 edge into the final 10 minutes.

The fourth quarter proved to be a high-scoring, back-and-forth affair, as both teams traded baskets in the closing minutes. As the clock wore down, Tennessee's guards were continuously met by an aggressive full-court press. Forward Cheridene Green emerged as a force in the post, scoring six of her eight points and bringing down three crucial offensive rebounds to provide the Lady Vols second chances on key possessions.

After trailing by as many as 10 points in the game, a layup by Texas' Lashann Higgs cut the score to 74-73 with one minute remaining. Tennessee, however, was able to ice the game from the free-throw line over the final moments, including four from Nared.

Russell finished with 15 points and 12 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the season and 34th over her career. Westbrook added a career-high 15 points of her own on 5-for-11 shooting in the winning effort. Ariel Atkins led the Longhorns offensively, shooting 6-for-14 with 21 points.

LONG BEACH, Calif. -- Junior Meme Jackson hit a career-high five three-pointers, and seniors Mercedes Russell and Jaime Nared each posted their fifth double-doubles of the season, propelling No. 7/7 Tennessee to a 90-61 win over Long Beach State (2-8) at Walter Pavilion on Sunday afternoon.

With the win, the Lady Vols improved to 11-0 for the first time since 2005-06. That season, UT won its first 18 contests before suffering a loss.

Russell finished with 14 points and 11 rebounds to log her 35th career double-double, tying her with Mary Ostrowski for fourth on UT's all-time list. Nared, meanwhile, contributed 11 points and 11 rebounds. On the strength of a 5-for-9 day beyond the arc, Jackson tossed in 15 points, tying freshman Anastasia Hayes as UT's high scorer. Freshman Evina Westbrook chipped in 14 to give Tennessee five players in double digits. She also added seven assists.

Jackson started the game with a hot hand, going 4-of-5 from behind the arc to help propel Tennessee to a 27-16 lead by the end of the first quarter. The Lady Vols connected on six of 11 three-point attempts in the period, with Westbrook and freshman Rennaia Davis adding to the long-range bonanza. Davis also had six rebounds in the opening 10 minutes and finished with 10 for the game.

UT continued to build on its lead in the second quarter, starting the period with a 12-3 run and leading by as many as 23 points before finishing the half with a 49-32 lead. Tennessee shot a sizzling 57 percent from the three-point line in the first half, knocking down eight of 14 attempted treys. They also controlled the boards, holding a 33-15 advantage at the intermission, with 12 of those caroms coming on the offensive glass.

Jackson set the tone for the third stanza, opening the quarter by knocking down her fifth three of the afternoon. While Tennessee cooled from the three-point line after that, the Lady Vols stiffened their defense, forcing six Long Beach State turnovers. They limited the 49ers to only 12 points during the period on 33.3 percent shooting.

With the game well in hand, Head Coach Holly Warlick was able to get her reserves some extended minutes. Hayes had seven of her 15 points in the final 10 minutes. Kortney Dunbar, meanwhile, drained a pair of threes, helping bring Tennessee's final long-range tally to 12-of-29 on the day.

STANFORD, Calif. -- Senior Jaime Nared posted a 28-point effort to lead the No. 7 Lady Vols to an 83-71 victory on the road against No. 18 Stanford (6-6). The win improved Tennessee to 12-0 on the season and broke a five-game Tennessee losing streak at Maples Pavilion dating back to Dec. 4, 2005. That season also marked the last time UT opened a season with 12 straight wins.

Senior Mercedes Russell contributed a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds on the night, while freshman Evina Westbrook posted a career high of 17 points. In addition to a season-high 28 points, Nared also posted a career-best seven steals.

Brittany McPhee was Stanford's leading scorer and the only Cardinal in double digits, notching 27 points on the night.

The Lady Vols got off to a cold start, going 0-of-5 from the field before Rennaia Davis ended the drought at the 6:20 mark. Tennessee claimed its first lead of the game 20 seconds later, going up 6-4 off an Evina Westbrook layup. Westbrook went on to shoot 4-of-5 from the field and 2-of-2 from the free throw line, finishing the quarter with 10 points to help propel Tennessee to a 23-14 lead by the end of the period.

McPhee added eight points for Stanford in the opening minutes of the second quarter, cutting Tennessee's lead to four with 5:09 to go in the half. Nared answered, sinking a 12-foot jumper before dishes out an assist to Russell on the following play to put the lead back at eight. Tennessee closed out the quarter with a 10-0 run to take a 46-30 lead into the locker room.

The Lady Vols struggled with fouls in the third quarter with Russell, Davis and Westbrook all picking up their third one before the four-minute mark. Nared contributed seven points in the quarter, and Tennessee took a 62-47 lead into the final period.

Stanford opened the fourth quarter with an 8-4 run to trim the lead to eleven with 6:30 to go in the game. Davis ended a nearly four-minute field goal drought for Tennessee, knocking down a jumper to make the score 68-55 with 6:11 to go. The Cardinal again mounted a run, going on a 7-0 spree to cut the lead to 68-62 with just over three minutes to play. Tennessee answered, hitting 15-of-16 free throws in the final 2:15 to win 83-71.

LEXINGTON, Ky. -- No. 7/7 Tennessee improved to 13-0 overall and 1-0 in the SEC on Sunday, defeating Kentucky (8-7, 0-1 SEC) 63-49 in front of a crowd of 8,921 at Rupp Arena.

The victory was UT's first in the venue in three tries. The Big Orange women lost to the Wildcats during the 2005-06 season and fell to UK here in the 1986 NCAA Final Four semifinals. The triumph was only the third in Tennessee's last seven trips to the Bluegrass.

The Lady Vols, who improved to 55-11 in the all-time series, were led in scoring by freshman Evina Westbrook who notched 17 points, tying her career high. Senior Jaime Nared recorded her sixth double-double of the season, contributing 11 points, 10 rebounds and six assists. Fellow senior Mercedes Russell added 16 points, seven rebounds and four blocked shots, while freshman Rénia Davis just missed a double-double with 11 rebounds and nine points.

Maci Morris was Kentucky's high-scorer with 18 points. She was the only Wildcat in double figures, as Tennessee held UK to 30.3 percent shooting for the game. The Lady Vols now have held 12 of 13 foes this season under 40 percent from the field (Marquette, 43.7, is the only one to shoot better than 40 percent).

Evina Westbrook and Meme Jackson set the tone early for the Lady Vols, each knocking down three for Tennessee's first two buckets of the game. Kentucky started the game cold, going 0-of-6 from the field. The Wildcats scored their first points off a Morris jumper with 5:50 remaining in the first quarter to end a 10-0 run by Tennessee. Jackson and Westbrook combined for three additional treys before the end of the quarter to help build a 19-point lead and head into the second stanza up 26-7.

The second quarter was a more evenly matched affair, with Kentucky scoring 13 points to Tennessee's 10. The Wildcats began hitting from distance with Makenzie Cann and Morris both knocking down threes in the opening minutes. The Lady Vols weathered a 4-24 scoring drought at the end of the half to take a 36-20 lead into the break.

UT opened the second half with a 9-3 run to claim a 22-point lead at the 7:01 mark. Davis and Russell scored five points apiece in the third to help Tennessee to a 49-31 lead entering the final stanza.

Tennessee and UK traded buckets to start the fourth before UT went on an 8-3 run to lead by 23 with 3:33 to play. The Wildcats answered by scoring seven unanswered points and closed out the game with an 11-2 run. It wasn't enough to overtake Tennessee, however, and the Lady Vols claimed a 63-49 victory.

KNOXVILLE -- Senior Jaime Nared recorded a double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds to lead No. 7/7 Tennessee to a 70-59 victory over Auburn (10-4, 1-1 SEC) on Thursday night at Thompson-Boling Arena. The win snapped a seven-game win streak for the Tigers and moved Tennessee to 14-0 for only the fifth time in school history.

Freshman Evina Westbrook chipped in a career-high 18 points and a game-high six assists, while senior Mercedes Russell added 10 points and four blocks on the night for Tennessee as the Lady Vols improved to 8-0 at home this season.

Daisa Alexander paced Auburn in scoring with 16 points, while Tiffany Lewis and Janiah McKay each added 10.

After a largely back-and-forth affair that included 16 lead changes, the Lady Vols (14-0, 2-0 SEC) ended the game on an 19-4 run, and overcome a season-high 28 turnovers to earn the win. With the victory, UT improves to 14-0 for the first time since the 2005-06 season when it won its first 18 games.

Both teams traded baskets over the first quarter, with six points from Russell leading the way for the Lady Vols. Westbrook recorded five assists in the frame, including one on each of Tennessee's first four field goals. After holding Auburn to 5-for-24 shooting from the floor, UT used a 5-0 run at the end of the quarter to take an 18-13 lead.

Auburn's full-court press proved to have an effect in the early stages of the second quarter, as Tennessee committed six turnovers over the first three minutes. The Tigers were able to grab the lead by way of an 8-0 run highlighted by two Alexander 3-pointers. Alexander finished the half with 12 points to lead Auburn, and Nared recorded nine points and seven rebounds for the Lady Vols as both squads battled to a 30-30 deadlock at the intermission.

The teams continued to fight down the stretch, and Auburn's aggressive defense kept forcing the Lady Vols into offensive mishaps. After going into the fourth quarter tied at 44, a pair of steals coming 10 seconds apart gave the Tigers a three-point advantage with under five minutes left in the game.

Anastasia Hayes stepped up offensively in the fourth quarter, scoring six of her nine points in the final eight minutes. With 1:15 remaining, Hayes converted on a layup-and-one to put the Lady Vols ahead by five. UT used a strong defensive effort and hit six free throws over the last two minutes to gain a double-digit lead and put the game away.

While Tennessee held the overall edge in rebounding for the 13th time this season, Auburn was able to come away with a 20-11 advantage on the offensive glass, and scored 30 of its points in the paint. The Lady Vols did hold the Tigers to 31 percent shooting for the game, with Nared recording a career-high four blocks to help anchor the defense.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Redshirt senior Mercedes Russell paced No. 7 Tennessee with a career-high 33 points, as the seventh-ranked Lady Volunteers pulled away from Vanderbilt in the fourth period to secure an 86-73 victory Sunday afternoon in Thompson-Boling Arena.

With the win, the Lady Vols improved to 15-0, 3-1 in Southeastern Conference play, and won their 11th consecutive home game dating back to last season. Vanderbilt, meanwhile, fell to 4-13, 0-3 SEC.

Redshirt junior Cheridene Green also had a career day for the Big Orange, pouring in 17 points and grabbing five rebounds. Senior Jaime Nared chipped in 15 points, five rebounds and six steals as the Lady Vols remained unbeaten through their first 15 games for the fourth time in school history.

Vanderbilt was led in scoring by Cierra Walker, who went 6-of-8 from behind the three-point arc and finished the day with 20 points and six assists. Christa Reed (16), Chelsea Hall (15) and Erin Whalen (10) also scored in double figures for the Commodores, who dropped their third straight game and seventh in their last eight.

The Lady Vols relied on their size advantage and physicality to jump to a quick 8-0 lead versus Vandy. After the hot start, VU was able to find an answer to Tennessee's physical play, getting a pair of threes from Whalen. As a result, the teams exited the first quarter locked up at 16-11.

Vanderbilt led through most of the first half of the second quarter, as the Commodores seemed unable to miss from behind the arc. The Lady Vols tied the game twice before a 10-0 run saw the home team seize momentum and take a 37-32 lead in to the locker room. The advantage was in large part due to a Herculean effort by Russell, scoring 17 points on 8-of-12 shooting from the floor.

In the third stanza, the teams exchanged the lead four times with Tennessee getting the better of it, entering the final period with a 65-62 lead. Down 62-61, Green drew a foul and gave Tennessee a chance to go on top. She hit the first shot to tie the game at 62-61, but the second rimmed out. Russell collected the rebound, which led to a Meme Jackson three-pointer to give UT a 65-62 lead as time expired. It was a lead the Lady Vols would not relinquish.

Tennessee turned the pressure up in the fourth period, as a successful press slowed down a Vanderbilt offense that was coming off the heels of a 30-point third period. Behind the support of the season's biggest crowd (10,023), the Lady Volunteers forced eight turnovers that were quickly converted into points: A 10-0 Tennessee run starting with 5:59 remaining put the game out of reach.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas -- Danni Williams made three free throws with 7.8 seconds remaining in overtime to put No. 17/16 Texas A&M ahead and help hand No. 6/6 Tennessee its first loss of the season, 79-76, on Thursday night at Reed Arena.

Mercedes Russell recorded 21 points and 10 rebounds to lead the Lady Vols (15-1, 3-1 SEC). The loss marks the first time Tennessee has dropped a game since being eliminated from last year's NCAA tournament on March 20.

Khaalia Hillsman led the Aggies (14-4, 3-1 SEC) with 22 points on 8-of-9 shooting from the floor and added 11 boards. Williams chipped in 12 of her own while going 3-for-7 from 3-point range. Texas A&M has now won its past two match-ups with the Lady Vols and the last two meetings in College Station, both in overtime.

Jaime Nared added 18 points for the Lady Vols, including four 3-pointers. The first quarter was highlighted by inside play, as each team recorded 16 points from inside the paint. Russell led UT with nine points, while Green added six points and four rebounds. Hillsman paced Texas A&M with six points on 3-for-3 shooting as the Aggies held a one-point edge at the end of the quarter.

Tennessee raised its defensive intensity towards the end of the first half holding the Aggies without a field goal over the last six minutes while going on a 12-2 run. Hillsman remained perfect from the floor, however, going 5-for-5 with 10 points and seven boards for A&M. Russell continued her strong offensive play with six more in the second quarter, and the Lady Vols recorded 10 assists on 16 baskets to take a 36-34 lead into the break.

Nared found her stroke from behind the arc in the third quarter, knocking down three 3-pointers for nine points in the period. After the teams traded baskets for most of the quarter, a 7-0 run by Texas A&M highlighted by two straight field goals from Williams put the Aggies in front, and they carried a three-point lead into the final 10 minutes. A&M's momentum continued in the early stages of the fourth quarter, as it surged to a seven-point advantage with 6:41 remaining. After being held to no field goals for a three-minute stretch, Cheridene Green answered for UT with three consecutive baskets to pull the Lady Vols within one. The Aggies went scoreless over the final four minutes of regulation, shooting 0-for-13 from the floor during that span.

With 1:15 on the clock, Nared drew the lane and finished on a layup to tie the score at 70. Both teams missed on open looks over the final moments, and the teams took their battle to overtime.

After jumping ahead by four, Tennessee struggled on offense down the stretch, and allowed A&M to tie the game at 74 on a Williams jumper. The closing stages of overtime were similar to regulation, as each possession proved to be more crucial than the last. With 19 seconds left on the clock, Russell pivoted her way free for an impressive jump hook off the glass that put the Lady Vols ahead by two, but afterward Williams was able to gain separation behind the arc, and drew a foul on her go-ahead 3-point attempt. Williams hit all three free throws to put the Aggies on top by one.

Tennessee had seven seconds for one final chance, but A&M's defensive pressure forced UT to foul Williams again, and the junior guard sank two more at the line to give the Aggies the decisive 79-76 edge with less than a second remaining.

Columbia, S.C. -- Senior Mercedes Russell recorded a 16-point, 12-rebound double-double to lead No. 6/6 Tennessee to an 86-70 victory over No. 9/8 South Carolina on Sunday at Colonial Life Arena.

Jaime Nared added 21 points as the Lady Vols (16-1, 4-1 SEC) bounced back from their first loss of the season with a win over the defending national champions and their second consecutive victory in Columbia. UT was fueled by a balanced attack, with five different players reaching double figures.

Tyasha Harris put on an offensive display for South Carolina (14-3, 3-2 SEC) with a game-high 28 points and four assists. The Gamecocks were able to cut the deficit to four with under six minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, but Tennessee relied on strong defense and timely scoring to end the game on a 16-4 run.

UT's freshman trio of Evina Westbrook, Rennaia Davis, and Anastasia Hayes had a strong showing in the second half, combining for 29 points over the final 20 minutes. Westbrook finished with 14 points, including 2-for-2 shooting from behind the arc, as well as a game-high five assists, while Davis and Hayes netted 11 points apiece.

Both teams were ready from the tip, with four players on each roster getting on the board in the first quarter. After going through a scoring drought for more than three minutes, UT finished the quarter on a 14-4 run that was sparked by five consecutive free throws from Nared. The 6-foot-2 senior forward led the way offensively with seven points and Meme Jackson added a pair of 3-pointers as Tennessee took a 21-14 lead into the second period.

The Gamecocks' offense started to click in the second quarter, led by nine points from Harris. With 2:42 left in the half, Donyiah Cliney worked through the lane and converted on a layup to cut the Lady Vol lead to three. As momentum began to swing back to the home team, Holly Warlick turned to the bench for an answer and subbed in Kortney Dunbar for the first time of the game. The senior forward did not wait long to make an impact, knocking down two 3-pointers just 26 seconds apart to give UT a 43-35 advantage at the intermission. Russell finished the half with 14 points on 6-for-8 shooting to lead the Big Orange.

Tennessee continued to rely on a balanced effort in the early stages of the second half, with three players reaching the 10-point mark by the end of the period. South Carolina was able to keep pace early, but a Davis jumper with 8:37 remaining in the quarter put UT ahead by double digits for the first time of the afternoon. Westbrook stepped up offensively with seven points, as the Lady Vols went into the game's final stanza holding an 11-point edge.

The fourth quarter proved to be the up-and-down affair that many expected in this top-10 matchup. South Carolina upped the pressure quickly and went on a 7-0 run highlighted by an Alexis Jennings and-one put-back to bring USC back to within four. However, it would prove to be the closest the Gamecocks could get to the Lady Vols, who were able to close out the final six minutes with a 16-4 run. Westbrook continued her strong play through the late stages of the fourth quarter, scoring nine points during the run.

Notre Dame, Ind. -- Meme Jackson scored 18 points, but it was not enough as No. 5/5 Notre Dame overcame a 23-point deficit to hand No. 6/7 Tennessee its second loss of the season, 84-70, on Thursday night at Purcell Pavilion.

After taking a 60-50 lead into the fourth quarter, the Lady Vols (16-2, 4-1 SEC) fell into an offensive slump, and were outscored 34-10 to close the game. The Fighting Irish (17-2, 5-1 ACC) were efficient throughout the second half, shooting 66 percent from 3-point range and committing just three turnovers.

Arke Ogunbowale had a strong offensive performance for Notre Dame, leading the way with 27 points and eight rebounds. Marina Mabrey added 20 points, including three 3-pointers in the second half, as well as a game-high seven assists.

Tennessee did feature a balanced scoring effort in the loss, with all five starters reaching double figures. Jaime Nared recorded 14 points and six boards, while Mercedes Russell, Rennaia Davis, and Evina Westbrook netted 12 each.

After the Irish jumped out to a 4-2 lead in the opening stages of the first quarter, Tennessee asserted itself on both ends, going on a 21-2 run over the next six minutes to grab a commanding early advantage. The Lady Vols also controlled the glass throughout the period, out-rebounding Notre Dame 14-5. UT's Russell and Davis recorded six points apiece to guide their team to a 17-point lead going into the second quarter.

The Lady Vols picked up right where they left off in the second stanza, as a Jackson 3-pointer on the first possession put Tennessee ahead by 20 for the first time. After trading baskets over the following minutes, the fifth-ranked Irish began to fight back towards the end of the quarter, yielding just one UT field goal in its last eight attempts. Notre Dame closed out the final five minutes of the half on a 10-0 run that was highlighted by two 3-pointers from Ogunbowale to cut the Big Orange lead to 39-27 going into the break.

In the third quarter, after keeping pace for six minutes, the Irish were able to scrap their way back into the game via a 9-1 run that trimmed the deficit to 10. Forward Jessica Shepard scored six points in the quarter on 3-for-3 shooting to help swing momentum back to Notre Dame. After a Jackie Young jumper made it 57-50 with under 30 seconds left in the quarter, UT was in need of an answer. Westbrook delivered just that, knocking down a 3-pointer at the buzzer to regain the 10-point Lady Vols advantage heading into the final period.

In the fourth quarter Tennessee was unable to slow Notre Dame, as the Irish dominated on both ends en route to outscore the Lady Vols, 34-10. An Ogunbowale free throw tied the game at 65 with under six minutes remaining, and 30 seconds later, a Mabrey 3-pointer from the corner gave Notre Dame its first lead since the game's opening minutes. The Irish did not look back the rest of the way, closing out the final five minutes on a 16-5 run. Tennessee's 10-point total was the fewest it recorded in a fourth quarter this season.

Ogunbowale netted 13 points in the final stanza for Notre Dame. The Irish had their way in the lane offensively for the majority of the game, as they scored 46 points in the paint on the night. Notre Dame was also a perfect 12-for-12 from the free throw line.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Mercedes Russell recorded 16 points on 7-for-9 shooting, but No. 6/7 Tennessee was unable to overcome a 13-point halftime deficit in a 71-52 loss to No. 3/3 Mississippi State on Sunday at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Jaime Nared added 12 points for the Lady Vols (16-3, 4-2 SEC), who now have dropped three of their last four. Victoria Vivians led the Bulldogs (20-0, 6-0 SEC) with 24 points and nine rebounds, while Teaira McCowan recorded 12 points and 18 boards.

After Anastasia Hayes made it a seven-point game with a free throw early in the fourth quarter, MSU was able to shut down UT offensively, allowing no field goals over the final eight minutes while closing the game on a 14-2 run.

Russell was active early on for the Lady Vols, scoring six of the team's first eight points. While much of the first quarter was highlighted by a fast pace and five lead changes, the Bulldogs began to chip away in the closing minutes, going on an 11-4 run to take a seven-point advantage heading into the second stanza. Vivians led MSU with nine points in the period.

The Bulldogs' defense continued to stymie UT in the second quarter, holding the Lady Vols to just 12 points on six shots. MSU dominated the offensive glass throughout the first half, hauling in nine offensive rebounds that led to 14 points off second chance opportunities. With under three minutes remaining, a Roshunda Johnson layup put the Bulldogs ahead by double digits for the first time of the afternoon. Russell continued her strong offensive play for UT, finishing the half with 12 points as the Lady Vols went into the break trailing, 39-26.

Tennessee started to regain momentum on both ends of the floor in the third quarter. After holding the Bulldogs scoreless over a two-minute stretch, a layup by Rennaia Davis trimmed the deficit back to 10. With time winding down, Evina Westbrook worked her way into the lane and sunk a mid-range jump shot to bring UT to within nine going into the game's final quarter.

The Lady Vols cut the lead to seven, 57-50, with 7:19 to go in the contest, but they were met with more offensive struggles the rest of the game and recorded a season-low eight points on 2-for-14 shooting during the period. MSU, meanwhile, shot 47 percent from the floor, and was able to pull away down the stretch thanks to a Tennessee scoring drought that lasted 3:44.

Davis grabbed 10 rebounds in addition to scoring seven points in the losing effort. Johnson netted 16 for MSU, while Blair Schaefer added four 3-pointers for 12 points.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Freshman forward Rennaia Davis tied her career high with 18 points and 10th forward Jaime Nared recorded her eighth double-double of the season to lead the 10th-ranked Tennessee women's basketball team to a 75-66 victory over Ole Miss on Thursday night at Thompson-Boling Arena.

The Lady Vols ended a two-game skid by holding the Rebels to just 37 percent shooting and finishing the game with a 20-4 edge in fastbreak points.

Nared's 15-point, 10-board double-double was the 17th of her career, while Davis matched her season-best scoring output from the Alabama State game on Dec. 3.

Freshman guard Anastasia Hayes came off the bench to score 16 points, including a pair of fourth-quarter three-pointers that helped the Lady Vols pull away from the Rebels.

Redshirt senior center Mercedes Russell added 13 points and freshman guard Evina Westbrook dished five assists, as Tennessee improved to 17-3 overall and 5-2 in the Southeastern Conference.

Ole Miss dropped to 11-9 overall and 1-6 in the SEC despite a career-high 31 points and seven three-pointers from junior guard Madinah Muhammad.

Muhammad's 22 points and six three-pointers in the first half kept the Rebels in the game after Tennessee scorched the nets for 30 points in the first quarter to tie the school record for points in quarter in an SEC game.

Ole Miss tied the game 49-49 at the 2:54 mark in the third quarter after junior guard Alissa Alston (19 points) converted back-to-back layups.

Tennessee answered with a 14-2 run sparked by Hayes, however. The rookie reserve point guard found Davis for a layup to put UT in front, 55-49, with one minute remaining in the third quarter. Tennessee took a 57-51 lead into the fourth quarter when Davis made another layup after Russell dished out of a double team.

The Lady Vols stormed past the Rebels for good early in the fourth quarter when Hayes made a three-pointer from the corner to make the score 60-51 with 9:10 left in the contest.

Nared's three-point play 30 seconds later extended the Orange and White lead to 12, 63-51.

Hayes drilled another triple with just over three minutes left in the contest to give UT a 71-55 lead, and Tennessee went on to win 75-66.

BATON ROUGE, La. -- Mercedes Russell scored 14 points and added 10 rebounds, but No. 10/10 Tennessee could not overcome a 44-point second half by LSU in a 70-59 loss on Sunday at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

The Lady Vols (17-4, 5-3 SEC) shot 9-for-30 from the field over the final 20 minutes, and saw a five-point halftime lead slip away in their fourth loss of the season. UT was also faced with foul trouble in the second half, as six players picked up at least three personal fouls.

LSU (13-6, 5-3 SEC) was fueled by a dominant effort on the glass, including 23 offensive rebounds. Chloe Jackson led the Lady Tigers with 21 points and nine boards, while Raigyne Louis added 18 points.

Meme Jackson recorded 13 points and three 3-pointers, while Evina Westbrook dished out seven assists to go along with 10 points for UT.

Tennessee shot 53 percent in the opening frame and recorded seven assists on eight baskets to grab a five-point advantage. Jaime Nared paced the Lady Vols with six points on 3-of-4 shooting in the period.

After a pair of quick baskets brought LSU back to within one early in the second quarter, the Lady Vols answered with an 11-2 run to put themselves ahead by 10 for the first time of the afternoon. However, LSU was able to hold UT to just two points and no field goals over the final five minutes, and a putback by Louis as time expired trimmed the Tennessee lead to 31-26 heading into the break.

Russell led the way with eight points and four rebounds in the first half. Westbrook also had a strong showing, recording six points and five assists while controlling the pace of the UT offense.

LSU fought its way back in the early stages of the second half, going on a quick 10-4 run to claim its first lead since the 8:52 mark of the first quarter. A Russell turnaround jumper late in the period ended a Tennessee scoring drought that nearly lasted four minutes. The Lady Tigers shot 42 percent from the field and held UT to its lowest point-total in a third quarter this season (nine) to take a 45-40 lead into the game's final stanza.

After Jackson knocked down a 3-pointer for Tennessee to open the fourth quarter, an 8-0 LSU run highlighted by six points from Chloe Jackson gave the Lady Tigers their first 10-point advantage. While UT tried to claw its way back down the stretch, LSU maintained key possessions with eight offensive rebounds in the quarter. LSU was able to put the game away late at the free throw line and forced four turnovers on the defensive end during the period.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Senior Jaime Nared scored 23 points and No. 12/13 Tennessee allowed just eight points in the fourth quarter in an 82-67 win over No. 14/12 Texas A&M on Thursday night at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Five players reached double figures for the Lady Vols (18-4, 6-3 SEC), who returned to the win column after dropping three of their previous four matchups. Mercedes Russell recorded 18 points and 13 rebounds to earn her 40th career double-double, while Anastasia Hayes netted 16 points, Rennie Davis scored 11 and Meme Jackson added 10.

UT showed a strong defensive effort in the second half, forcing 12 A&M turnovers and yielding no field goals over the final 3:21 of the game.

Chennedy Carter scored 25 points for the Aggies (17-7, 6-3 SEC), while Jasmine Lumpkin added 22 points and seven boards as the two teams split their regular-season series.

After A&M converted a layup to grab a 59-57 edge at the end of the third quarter, the Lady Vols answered with an 8-2 run to reclaim the lead early in the fourth period. Tennessee shot 8-for-12 over the final 10 minutes, including back-to-back 3-pointers in the closing moments which put the game away.

The opening quarter featured efficient offensive play, with both teams shooting 52 percent from the field. Lumpkin netted 12 points in the period for A&M, while Nared and Davis scored seven apiece to lead UT to a two-point advantage at the end of the frame.

The scoring did not cease during the second quarter, as two players from each team reached the 10-point mark. Lumpkin continued to perform for the Aggies on the offensive end and finished the half with 22 points on 10-of-11 shooting. After a largely back-and-forth half that included 22 lead changes, the Lady Vols closed out the final minute with a 7-0 run to take a 45-41 lead into the intermission. Nared paced Tennessee at the half with 13 points.

Both squads upped the defensive intensity in the third period, with UT forcing six A&M turnovers and the Aggies holding the Lady Vols to 12 points. After each team went through scoring droughts for two-plus minute stretches, a Danni Williams layup broke the deadlock and gave the Aggies a two-point edge going into the fourth period.

Tennessee used a balanced effort on both ends of the floor throughout the fourth quarter to pull away from A&M. After taking a four-point lead by way of an early 8-2 run, UT locked in defensively and held the Aggies scoreless for a stretch that lasted 3:49. The Lady Vols were able to gain some separation at the free throw line, going 7-for-8 from the charity stripe in the quarter. With under two minutes remaining, a Hayes 3-pointer from the corner gave UT its first double-digit lead of the night.

Fayetteville, Ark. -- Renna Davis recorded a career-high 33 points and 14 rebounds to lead No. 11/11 Tennessee to a 90-85 win over Arkansas on Thursday night at Bud Walton Arena.

Davis connected on 13-of-18 shots from the floor, as the Lady Vols (20-4, 8-3 SEC) earned their 20th victory for the 42nd season in a row. Meme Jackson added 21 points with five 3-pointers, while Jaime Nared netted 16 points, including four clutch free throws in the final 10 seconds to put the game away.

Devin Cosper scored 29 points for the Razorbacks (6-18, 2-8 SEC), while Malica Monk went 4-for-4 from beyond the 3-point arc and finished with 25 points. Arkansas cut the deficit to two at multiple points late in the fourth quarter, but Tennessee was able to hold on down the stretch despite not recording a field goal over the last 3:37.

UT used a well-balanced attack that saw seven players reach the box score. The Lady Vols also recorded 24 assists on 31 baskets, led by a career-high tying nine from Anastasia Hayes.

Tennessee had a strong effort on the glass throughout the first half, bringing down 12 offensive boards. Mercedes Russell secured six rebounds through the first 20 minutes to go along with six points as UT held a 43-36 lead at the break. Cosper netted 13 in the half for the Razorbacks.

The Lady Vols were in sync offensively in the third quarter and shot 66 percent from the floor while only committing four turnovers. After a Taylah Thomas free throw cut the score to 64-57 in favor of UT, a Davis 3-pointer with five seconds remaining in the quarter gave Tennessee a 10-point edge going into the game's final frame. Davis had 14 of UT's 24 points in the period.

Arkansas fought its way back in the early stages of the fourth, going on a quick 9-0 run to trim the deficit to one. With 5:42 remaining, a Jailyn Mason jumper gave the Razorbacks a 70-69 lead. Tennessee, however, was able to use timely defense late and relied on 15 fourth-quarter free throws to overcome three made field goals and pull away in the final seconds.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Mercedes Russell collected the 1,000th rebound of her fantastic career, leading No. 11/11 Tennessee to a 62-46 victory over No. 18/18 Georgia on Sunday at Thompson-Boling Arena.

The 6-foot-6 senior center became the sixth Lady Vol to reach the 1,000-rebound mark, joining all-time greats Chamique Holdisclaw (1295), Glory Johnson (1,218), Bashaara Graves (1,044), Sheila Frost (1,043) and Tamika Catchings (1,004). The redshirt senior finished with 13 points and a game-high 15 boards to help UT (21-4, 9-3 SEC) move into a tie for second place in the SEC standings.

The Lady Vols put on a stellar defensive performance in holding Georgia to a season-low 46 points and 29.5 percent shooting (8-of-61) from the field. UT dominated on the glass throughout the game, finishing with a 50-30 rebounding advantage, and forced UGA into 20 turnovers.

Senior forward Jaime Nared contributed 15 points for the Lady Vols, while Meme Jackson and Rennaia Davis added 11 apiece. Taja Cole and Mackenzie Engram scored 12 each to lead the Lady Bulldogs (21-4, 9-3 SEC).

After Georgia grabbed a 9-6 edge five minutes into the game, the Lady Vols answered with an 8-2 run capped off by a Nared 3-pointer to put themselves in front by three. UT shot efficiently throughout the first quarter, including going 3-for-5 from beyond the arc. A Davis triple from the wing with eight seconds remaining in the quarter gave the Big Orange a 17-13 lead at the end of the frame.

Tennessee's defense shut the Lady Bulldogs down for the majority of the second stanza, as UGA was held without a point until the 4:01 mark. UT continued to produce offensively during that drought, scoring 13 straight points to increase the lead to double digits for the first time of the afternoon. Nared led the way offensively with 12 points in the half on 3-of-5 shooting.

With Tennessee ahead by 21 in the final minute of the second quarter, the Lady Bulldogs were able to rattle off four quick points, including a Mackenzie Engram jumper as time in the half expired to cut the UT lead to 36-19 going into the intermission. Georgia's six points were the fewest Tennessee has allowed in a second quarter this season.

Russell's 1,000th-career rebound came as her eighth of the game with 124 left in the first half.

The two teams traded baskets through the third quarter. Cole scored eight points in the frame for UGA, while Russell led the Lady Vols with seven points and four boards as UT held an 18-point edge with the game heading into the final period.

The defensive intensity continued into the fourth quarter for Tennessee, as Georgia was held to 2-for-13 shooting during the frame and committed six turnovers. The Lady Bulldogs also went 0-for-8 from the floor during a scoring drought that lasted four minutes and 43 seconds.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Jaime Nared had a game-high 22 points, but it was not enough as No. 11/11 Tennessee lost to Alabama, 72-63, Thursday evening in Thompson-Boling Arena.

The Lady Vols (21-5, 9-4 SEC) came out on the losing end of a streaky game that saw leads exchanged on three different double-digit runs. Tennessee had the advantage in the paint, out-rebounding the Crimson Tide 45-39, but Alabama (16-10, 6-7 SEC) won the game behind a 42.6% field goal percentage.

Tennessee had three players in double figures. Nared led the Lady Vols with 22 points. Rennaia Davis scored 18, and Mercedes Russell added another 11. Both Davis and Russell collected double-doubles on the night, grabbing 10 and 11 rebounds, respectively.

The Crimson Tide's offense was paced by Jordan Lewis with 19 points and Ashley Williams with 16. Williams also registered 10 rebounds to complete a double-double.

An Anastasia Hayes breakout layup capped off a 12-2 run that gave Tennessee a 15-8 first quarter lead, but the Crimson Tide's scoring would not last. Alabama came alive in the second stanza, shooting 64.3% from the field and ending the half on a 12-0 run to take a 29-24 advantage into the break.

The scoring streaks continued in the third quarter with Tennessee making the first charge. The Lady Vols exploded for a 15-0 run covering just three minutes to take back the lead halfway through the period. COLUMBIA, Mo. -- No. 11/11 Tennessee dropped a hard-fought thriller at No. 13/13 Missouri Sunday, falling to the Tigers by a score of 77-73 in front of a record crowd of 11,092 at Mizzou Arena.

Senior Jaime Nared led the Lady Vols (21-6, 9-5 SEC) with 25 points, while Mercedes Russell added 10 points and nine rebounds.

UT overcame a 13-point second-quarter deficit and worked the game into a 62-62 tie with 5:18 remaining. However, the Tigers (22-5, 10-4 SEC) used clutch free-throw shooting down the stretch to pull ahead late, including two from Sophie Cunningham with one second remaining that put them ahead by four. Cunningham netted 32 points on 9-of-14 shooting to lead Missouri.

Mizzou hit eight of its first 10 shots in first quarter and used a 19-5 run over the last 6:35 of the frame to give itself a 25-13 lead. UT was led offensively by a freshman trio during the quarter, as Evina Westbrook and Remia Davis scored five points apiece, and Anastasia Hayes added three more.

Nared got it going in the second period, netting 14 points, including two 3-pointers to help bring Tennessee back to within single digits. Chertidene Green added four points and three rebounds and hit two free throws with 1:09 left in the half to cut it down to four. With 10 seconds remaining, Cunningham stole a pass and converted a reverse layup on the other end to give the Tigers a 42-36 lead at the intermission. Cunningham finished the half with 18 points.

The Lady Vols shot out of the gate in the second half, going on an early 10-0 run highlighted by a Russell layup that put them ahead for the first time in more than 20 minutes. Missouri was able to reclaim the lead with just more than a minute remaining thanks to a Lauren Aldridge 3-pointer and took a 58-58 edge into the final 10 minutes.

The teams traded points throughout the fourth quarter, but Tennessee was never able to pull in front during the period. Although UT held Mizzou to just three field goals, the Tigers went 12-for-14 from the free-throw line, including five in the last minute. With 10 seconds remaining, Tennessee had one final chance to draw up a play down by three. Mizzou fouled Davis with a second left on the clock, and her free throw that cut it to 75-73 proved to be too little, too late.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- #15/14 Tennessee defeated Florida at Exactech Arena on Thursday night, 70-42, giving Holly Warlick her 150th career win as a head coach (150-52) in her sixth season at the helm.

The Lady Vols (22-6, 10-6 SEC) were led in scoring by Jaime Nared and Evina Westbrook with 13 each. UT had three other players in double figures, including Meme Jackson (11), Remia Davis (11) and Anastasia Hayes (10). In a return to her home state, Davis added 10 rebounds to log her seventh career double-double.

Florida was led in scoring by Paulina Hersler, who ended the day with 12 points and five rebounds.

Tennessee launched a balanced attack from the start with UT's first three baskets coming from three different players. The Lady Vols ran a smothering press in the opening minutes, forcing five turnovers that were converted into nine points. UT got out to an 18-13 lead with 2:18 to go in the period, but Funda Nakkasoglu scored back-to-back buckets to tie the score at 18 by the end of the first quarter.

Chertidene Green opened the scoring for the Lady Vols in the second stanza driving through the lane for a layup. The teams traded buckets through the 5:38 mark, after which a Westbrook jumper launched a 6-0 run to put UT ahead by four with 4:28 to play. Florida answered, tying it up 28-28 with 1:11 to go in the period, but Tennessee closed out the half with four unanswered points to take a 32-28 lead into the break.

The Lady Vols picked up where they left off in the third, scoring 14 unanswered points while holding the Gators scoreless until the 2:14 mark when Hersler converted on a jumper. Following Hersler's bucket UT launched into another 10-0 run to close out the period. Tennessee held UF to only two points in the third quarter, the fewest points any SEC team has scored in a quarter against UT.

The teams traded baskets to start the final period, but Tennessee outscored Florida 9-3 in the final four minutes to coast to victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- No. 15/14 Tennessee closed out the regular season Sunday with a 65-46 victory over No. 7/6 South Carolina in front of a crowd of 13,058 on senior day at Thompson-Boling Arena.

After a pregame ceremony that celebrated their tremendous careers in the orange and white, Mercedes Russell, Jaime Nared and Kortney Dunbar helped lead the Lady Vols (23-6, 11-5 SEC) to their third consecutive win against the Gamecocks (23-6, 12-4 SEC).

Russell recorded a 16-point, 12-rebound double-double, while Rennaia Davis added 18 points and 10 boards for UT. Mikiah Herbert Harrigan led South Carolina with 17 points on 7-of-14 shooting.

After a slow start on the offensive end, Tennessee opened the second half with a 14-0 run and grabbed all momentum. The Lady Vols overcame a 10-point second quarter deficit on Sunday, which was their largest comeback in any win this year.

Both teams had to work through offensive droughts in the first quarter. South Carolina went on an early 9-0 run over a 4:55 span after Russell opened the scoring with a pair of free throws, but the Tennessee defense was able to respond by holding the Gamecocks scoreless for the next 3:48. Although a Davis layup cut it to four late in the frame, the Lady Vols could not get much else going and were held to eight points, their lowest total in a first quarter this season.

UT's offensive struggles continued in the early stages of the second period, as it did not record a point until nearly the halfway mark of the quarter. With six minutes left in the half, a jumper by LaDazhia Williams put the Gamecocks ahead by double digits. The Lady Vols closed out the half strong, however, outscoring USC 11-6 over the last five minutes. With 1:36 remaining in the half, an Evina Westbrook drive and floater off the glass made it a three-point contest. Despite putting up a season-low 21 points in the first half, a strong defensive effort from the Lady Vols kept the score within reach, as they went into the break trailing by five.

The Big Orange stormed out of the gate in the second half, opening the third quarter with a 14-0 run, highlighted by a Russell put-back that gave Tennessee its first advantage since leading 2-0. UT was clicking on all cylinders offensively and shot 65 percent from the field in the period. The Lady Vols continued to use a stingy effort on defense in limiting South Carolina to nine points and forcing five turnovers, as UT went into the final 10 minutes ahead 50-35.

The Lady Vols continued to separate themselves in the fourth quarter, maintaining their double-digit advantage throughout. UT asserted itself on the glass and finished the game with 21 offensive rebounds to USC's seven. A late 9-2 run capped off by a Dunbar 5-pointer with 1:36 remaining put Tennessee ahead by 22.

Russell's double-double was her 14th in 2017-18, tying her for the most in a single season by a Lady Vol senior. She set the junior record last year.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. -- Rennaia Davis knocked down a three-point shot with 5 seconds remaining to give No. 12 Tennessee a 64-61 victory over Auburn Thursday night at Bridgestone Arena and advance the Lady Vols to the quarterfinals of the SEC Tournament.

Jaiame Nared led UT in scoring, hitting 17 before a hard fall on a layup attempt eventually sidelined her. Mercedes Russell had 12 points and 15 rebounds to record her 45th career double-double, tying Candace Parker for the second most career double-doubles in Tennessee history behind only Chamique Holdstock. She went 10-of-10 from the free throw line, setting a new career high in free throws made.

Davis and Meme Jackson also scored in double figures for Tennessee (24-6) with 16 and 10, respectively. Auburn (14-15) was led in scoring by Janiah McKay with 24. Daisa Alexander added 16 for the Tigers.

It was a hard-played contest, with both teams running a full-court press for much of the game, leading to a combined 39 turnovers, 14 ties and 15 lead changes.

Tennessee employed a balanced attack against Auburn, with all five starters contributing a bucket to the team's first ten points. Neither team could pull away in the opening minutes and the score was knotted at 10-10 with four minutes to play in the quarter. The teams continued to trade buckets through the end of the quarter with Auburn managing an 18-16 lead at the end of the first.

Following the quarter break, Nared knocked down two free throws to tie the score at 18, and Anastasia Hayes followed it up with a three to give Tennessee the lead at 21-18. Auburn battled back, however, scoring on back-to-back possessions to reclaim the lead at 22-21 with 7:12 to play in the half. Tennessee answered with an 8-0 run, stretching its lead to 29-22 by the 5:35 mark. Auburn again fought its way back, tying the score at 35-35 before Auburn knocked down a long-range three at the buzzer to take an 8-35 lead into the break.

Tennessee started the third quarter by forcing a turnover and finding Jackson on the fast break for two quick points. At the media timeout the score was knotted at 45-45. Davis scored back-to-back layups to close the quarter for the Lady Vols, giving them a 49-47 lead heading into the fourth.

The Tigers evened the score on their first possession, but Tennessee launched a 6-0 run led by two Hayes jumpers to take a 55-49 lead with 8:16 to play. Auburn answered with a 5-0 run and the teams continued to trade buckets. With 2:25 to go McKay converted on a three-point play for Auburn to give them the lead at 59-58. Tennessee jumped out to a 61-59 lead with just over a minute to play, but Alexander hit a layup off a fast break to tie the game with 13 seconds left. Tennessee then drove down the court and found Davis behind the arc. She converted on the bank shot to give the Lady Vols a 64-61 win and move them into the quarterfinal round, where they'll meet No. 2 seed South Carolina on Friday at 6 CT (7 ET).

NASHVILLE, Tenn. -- No. 12 Tennessee erased a 16-point first-half deficit and closed within three in the third quarter but couldn't overcome No. 8 South Carolina, falling 73-62 in the quarterfinals of the SEC Tournament at Bridgestone Arena.

Freshman Anastasia Hayes led Tennessee (24-7) in scoring, tying her career high of 17 points. Senior Jaime Nared posted a double-double for Tennessee with 15 points and 13 rebounds, playing her ninth 40-minute game of the season.

A'ja Wilson led South Carolina (24-6) with 24 points and 12 rebounds. Alexis Jennings also recorded a double-double for the Gamecocks, logging 19 points and 12 rebounds.

Nared struck first for Tennessee, knocking down a three to give the Lady Vols their only lead of the game at 3-2. UT got off to a slow start from the floor, shooting 1-of-8 in the opening minutes while South Carolina jumped out to a 9-3 lead by the 4:51 media timeout. Hayes came off the bench to put up six points for the Lady Vols, while South Carolina capitalized on free throws, hitting 6-of-7 to take a 16-9 lead into the second quarter.

The Gamecocks started the second quarter with a 6-0 run to extend their lead to 13 with 7:58 to play in the half. Tennessee answered by scoring four quick points to cut the lead to 22-13 less than a minute later, but South Carolina rallied back and was up by 16 at the 5:40 mark. Tennessee answered with an 8-0 run to cut the deficit to eight with 3:25 to play in the half. South Carolina would knock down a jumper, though, to send Tennessee to the locker room down 33-23.

Nared scored the first three points of the second half for Tennessee as well, hitting all three free throws after being fouled behind the arc. Tennessee then went 4-of-4 from the floor to cut the lead to 39-35 off a Meme Jackson trey with 6:20 to play in the quarter. A'ja Wilson converted on a three-point play, however, to set off a 7-0 Gamecock run before Tennessee answered with an 8-0 run of its own, cutting the deficit to three with just over a minute in the period. South Carolina converted on a jumper to send the Lady Vols into the fourth down five at 48-43.

South Carolina came out hot at the beginning of the fourth, scoring 13 unanswered points before Nared came up with a jumper. Tennessee mounted an 8-0 run beginning with a Hayes layup at the 5:03 mark to cut the lead to 10 with 3:31 left in the game. Tennessee would trim the lead to as few as nine in the closing minutes but couldn't close the gap any further, falling 73-62.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- No. 12/13-ranked Tennessee soaped past Liberty, 100-60, as the No. 3 seed Lady Vols scored their highest point total in an NCAA Tournament game since 2006 when they defeated Army, 102-54.

Remia Davis led UT (25-7) with 18 points and 11 rebounds, marking her ninth career double-double and tying her with Tamika Catchings for the fifth most double-doubles ever recorded by a UT freshman. Redshirt junior Chertidene Green also posted a double-double, the second of her career, with 15 points and 12 rebounds.

No. 14 seed Liberty (24-10), which hadn't surrendered 100 points in a game since the Lady Vols defeated them 102-58 in the 1998 NCAA First Round, was led in scoring by Lela Sellers and Ola Makurat, each with 13 points.

Tennessee began the game by winning the tip and finding Jaime Nared, who converted on a 10-foot jumper. UT forced five turnovers in the opening seven minutes but struggled to convert on the offensive end, trailing 7-6 at the 3:15 mark. With 2:57 to play in the quarter, Chertidene Green set off an 11-0 run for Tennessee that put the Lady Vols up 17-7 before Makurat hit a three for Liberty. The Lady Vols ended the quarter up 20-10.

The Lady Flames came out firing in the second quarter, going 3-of-3 in the opening minutes with two of those shots coming from behind the arc. Tennessee was up 28-22 at the midway point of the second quarter, but a Sellers three and free throw cut it to 28-26 with 4:12 left in the half. With 1:55 to play, Green set off another run for Tennessee, and UT closed the half by outscoring Liberty 6-0 to take a 36-28 lead into the break.

Nared converted on a three-point play to start the second half, giving the Lady Vols a 39-28 lead, their largest of the game at that point. Tennessee went on to outscore Liberty 11-5 in the opening three minutes, leading 47-33 with seven minutes to play in the period. Tennessee forced seven turnovers and rode a sizzling .813 shooting percentage to a 74-48 lead by the end of the quarter.

Tennessee continued its high powered offense in the fourth quarter, shooting 78.6 percent from the field to pour in another 26 points and close out the game with a 100-60 victory over Liberty.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Senior center Mercedes Russell logged her 46th career double-double with 21 points and 14 rebounds to lead Tennessee, but it wasn't enough as the No. 12/13 Lady Vols (25-8) fell to No. 13/12 Oregon State (25-7) in the second round of the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament. Freshman Anastasia Hayes also had a double-digit outing for the No. 3 seed Lady Vols, posting 10 points and four assists, while classmate Renna Davis pulled down 11 rebounds.

Oregon State, the No. 6 seed, was led in scoring by Mikayla Pivec with 18 points. Marie Gulich, Kat Tudor and Katie McWilliams also reached double figures for the Beavers with 14, 13 and 12, respectively, as OSU picked up its first win over UT in five tries.

The Lady Vols launched a balanced attack in the first quarter with all five starters scoring at least two points in the first seven minutes of the game. Senior Jaime Nared knocked down a 10-foot jumper on Tennessee's first possession to open the scoring for the Lady Vols. Tennessee entered the media timeout with an 8-5 lead, and a 6-0 run following the timeout put the home team ahead 14-5 with 3:22 to go in the quarter. Tennessee's high-energy defense forced six turnovers in the opening period, translating into six points on the offensive end.

The Lady Vols maintained a 10-point lead until the 7:35 mark of the second quarter, when Tudor knocked down two free throws to set off a 9-0 run that put the Beavers within one with just over five minutes remaining in the half. She hit two more free throws with 2:44 to play to give Oregon State its first lead of the game at 24-23. Tennessee reclaimed the lead off a Davis three at the buzzer to take a 26-24 lead into the break.

The two teams traded baskets through the first two minutes of the third quarter until the Beavers managed a 5-0 run that put them up 33-30 at the 7:20 mark, but Tennessee answered with a 7-0 run of its own to lead 37-33 going into the media break. Oregon State scrapped back, fueled by a McWilliams three pointer, to claim a 44-39 lead by the end of the period.

The Lady Vols were cold shooting from the floor in the fourth, and the Beavers outscored them 10-3 over the first six and a half minutes of the quarter for a score of 54-42 at the 3:30 mark. Despite threes by Nared and Meme Jackson and a trio of layups by Russell in the closing minutes, Tennessee couldn't overcome the deficit and fell 66-59 in Thompson-Boling Arena. The loss snapped UT's 57-game home court NCAA winning streak and saw the Big Orange fall to 28-2 all-time in the second round.

LADY VOL LEGENDS

Tennessee has recognized the careers of six supremely-gifted Lady Vols and a history-shattering coach with the hanging of jersey-banners from the rafters of Thompson-Boling Arena. The most recent individual added to the collection of Lady Vol legends came on Jan. 2, 2014, when a No. 3 banner honoring player Candace Parker was hoisted skyward.

Parker joined players Holly Warlick, Bridgette Gordon, Daedra Charles, Chamique Holdsclaw and Tamika Catchings, and coach Pat Summitt among those honored with a banner hanging in UT's basketball venue.

NO. 22 HOLLY WARLICK

Guard » 1976-80 » Knoxville, Tenn.

The first Tennessee athlete, either male or female, to have her jersey retired was Holly Warlick. Her uniform was retired on Feb. 18, 1980, in a ceremony after Tennessee's 89-72 win over Clemson in Stokely Athletics Center. A play-making wizard for the Lady Vols from 1976-80, Holly earned All-America honors three times. At the time of the ceremony, she held UT records for most assists in a game (14), most steals in a game (9), and most assists in a season (225).

Holly could not hang up her uniform right away. She played six more games after the retirement party. The final time she donned No. 22 was in the AIAW National Championship game when the Lady Vols fell to Old Dominion, 68-53.

During her years at Tennessee, the Lady Vols produced a 118-23 overall record, three trips to the Final Four and a first-ever SEC Tournament title. She later went on to become a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team.

Now the head coach of the Lady Vols, Warlick's No. 22 banner hangs in the rafters above the court in Thompson-Boling Arena.

NO. 30 BRIDGETTE GORDON

Forward » 1985-89 » DeLand, Fla.

Ten years later, the second Lady Vol basketball jersey was retired. Bridgette Gordon returned to Thompson-Boling Arena after a stellar career at Tennessee to see her No. 30 honored during halftime of Tennessee's 76-70 win over Texas on Jan. 17, 1990.

Bridgette led the Lady Vols to a 115-21 record during her four years at UT. She was the driving force behind an NCAA-record four consecutive trips to the Final Four as well as two NCAA and two SEC Championships.

Bridgette was the first freshman ever to lead UT in scoring, and she earned co-SEC Rookie of the Year and All-SEC honors. The next year she led Tennessee to its first NCAA title, earned All-SEC honors again and was named to the All-Final Four team. She copped All-SEC honors and was named MVP of the SEC Tournament as a junior. She also earned her first of two Kodak All-America honors that year.

After earning a gold medal as a member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic basketball team, Bridgette returned to Tennessee for her senior season. She led the Lady Vols to the 1989 NCAA title and was named MVP of the Final Four. She finished her career as the all-time leading scorer in NCAA Tournament history.

Bridgette graduated in 1989 with a B.S. in political science. She was basketball's nominee for the 1989 Honda-Broderick Award, which is symbolic for women's academic and athletic achievement.

NO. 32 DAEDRA CHARLES

Center » 1988-91 » Detroit, Mich.

When Tennessee hosted the SEC-Big 10 Challenge in Dec. 28, 1991, Daedra Charles became the next Lady Vol to have her jersey retired. Charles returned to Knoxville from Como, Italy, where she was playing professional basketball with former Lady Vol teammate Bridgette Gordon. Charles came to surprise Lady Vol head coach Pat Summitt by announcing the endowment of the Pat Head Summitt Scholarship, presented by Charles, Gordon and another former Lady Vol, Lisa McGill Reagan. Summitt, who was unaware of the endowment, had planned the retirement ceremony as a surprise for Charles.

A two-time Kodak All-American at Tennessee, Daedra was the 1991 SEC Woman Athlete of the Year. She became the first player from the SEC to win the Wade Trophy, the highest honor in women's basketball. All this came after leading Tennessee to its third NCAA title in five years.

She finished her career seventh on the UT scoring list (1495), sixth in rebounding (858) and second in shots blocked (95), despite missing her freshman season as a Prop 48 student. Still, Daedra graduated in four years, earning a bachelor's degree in child and family studies.

NO. 23 CHAMIQUE HOLDSCLAW

Forward » 1995-99 » Astoria, N.Y.

During halftime of the Lady Vols' 92-88 home triumph over archrival Connecticut on Feb. 1, 2001, the collegiate career of arguably the greatest women's player to ever play the game was officially closed when Chamique Holdsclaw became just the fourth Lady Vol to have her jersey retired.

The Naismith Player of the Century and one of only six four-time Kodak All-Americans in the history of women's basketball, Holdsclaw led the Orange and White to a 131-17 overall record and an unprecedented three consecutive national championships from 1996-98, while establishing herself as the program's all-time leader in scoring (3,025 points) and rebounding (1,295).

The NCAA Tournament's most outstanding player in 1997 and 1998, Holdsclaw still holds the record for most points (479 points), and held the mark for most rebounds (198 rebounds), tallied in tournament games until 2008.

The first two-time winner of the Associated Press Player of the Year Award, Holdsclaw garnered 34 individual awards during her career, including 21 player of the year honors from a variety of organizations. In 2006, Holdsclaw was named to the NCAA 25th Anniversary Team. She was previously named to the Kodak 25th Anniversary Team in 1999. She also played on the gold-medal winning 2000 U.S. Olympic Team and was named to the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2018.

NO. 24 TAMIKA CATCHINGS

Forward » 1997-01 » Duncanville, Texas

The fifth Lady Vol jersey to be retired belonged to Tamika Catchings in a halftime ceremony on Dec. 7, 2003, against Louisiana Tech. From the moment she stepped on the court in the number 24 orange and white jersey, we knew from her contagious smile that she was a special person, and from her deadly baseline-to-baseline hustling for all 40 minutes, a truly phenomenal player.

This special six-foot, one-inch forward had the heart of a champion and could play anywhere on the court. Her UT career was shortened during her senior year when she went crashing to the floor with a torn anterior cruciate ligament in game 17 versus Mississippi State.

Her list of awards was staggering, as she captured a slew of them while being tabbed as UT's second four-time Kodak All-American. What she accomplished in the span of her collegiate career is the stuff of legend. She played in 127 games as a Lady Vol. Her assault on the record books is legendary for both scoring, with 2,113 points, and rebounding, 1,004 boards. Those marks ranked her third in UT history at the conclusion of her career. She also finished her career second all-time in steals with 311 and blocked shots with 136. And remember, she missed half of her senior season.

Her teammates will tell you how special it was to earn a blue adidas headband after Catchings went out with the injury. Earning one meant they hustled like "Catch" would have. The Eleanor Roosevelt League for the Hard of Hearing honored her in 1998 – as a special role model for youngsters and adults with hearing impairments. Her UT academic counselors will relate stories about Catchings graduating ahead of her class in December 2000. People in the Knoxville community will tell you of the countless hours she put in with youths from all walks of life – from playgrounds to hospitals.

An WNBA All-Star for the Indiana Fever, Catchings added to her collection of accolades in the Summer of 2004 with a gold medal as a member of the USA Women's Basketball Team at the Athens Olympic Games. She also added gold medals at the 2008, 2012 and 2016 Olympiads as well.

PAT SUMMITT

Head Coach » 1974-2012 » Henrietta, Tenn.

The sixth woman and first non-player to be honored with a banner at Thompson-Boling Arena was Pat Summitt, who coached Tennessee for 38 years and compiled a 1,098-208 career record with the most wins in NCAA women's or men's basketball history. Summitt's banner was hoisted prior to a nationally-televised game vs. Notre Dame on Jan. 28, 2013.

The legendary Summitt directed Tennessee to eight NCAA National Championships, 31-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and 18 NCAA Final Fours. At the conference level, she directed her squads to 16 SEC regular-season titles and 16 SEC tournament championships, including a tourney title in her final season at the helm in 2012.

During her career, Summitt produced 21 WBCA/Kodak/State Farm All-Americans, 39 All-SEC players, 12 Olympians and 34 WNBA draft picks, including 15 first-round selections. The number she was most proud of, however, was the 100-percent graduation rate for the 122 players who completed their careers and earned degrees at Tennessee.

Collecting an incredible array of honors during her career, Summitt was named SEC Coach of the Year eight times – 1993, 1995, 1998, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2007 and 2011. She was named the 1987, 1989, 1994, 1998 and 2004 Naismith Women's College Coach of the Year and WBCA/Converse Coach of the Year in 1983 and 1995 and the IKON/WBCA Coach of the Year in 1998.

Summitt belongs to the FIBA International, Naismith Memorial, Women's Basketball, Women's Sports Foundation, Tennessee Lady Vol, Tennessee Sports, Greater Knoxville Sports, and National Association for Sports and Physical Education Hall of Fame. Her most esteemed honor, however, came on May 29, 2012, when she received the Presidential Medal of Freedom (presented by President Barack Obama) at White House.

NO. 3 CANDACE PARKER

Guard/Forward/Center » 2004-08 » Naperville, Ill.

The seventh woman and sixth player to be honored with a jersey retirement ceremony at Thompson-Boling Arena was Candace Parker. The 6-foot-4 Parker's banner was unveiled on Jan. 2, 2014, prior to the Lady Vols' SEC opener vs. LSU.

During her three-year playing career, Parker led the Lady Vols to a pair of NCAA Championships in 2007 and 2008, to an SEC regular-season crown in 2007 and to SEC Tournament titles in 2006 and 2008. Tennessee posted a 101-10 overall record during her time at Rocky Top and a 38-4 mark in SEC play.

Parker started 109 of her 110 career games, scoring the third-most points in school history (2,137) and pulling down the sixth-best rebounding tally at 972, as of her career's end. She still ranks No. 3 in career double-doubles with 45 and stands tied for No. 2 in career rebounding average (8.8) and No. 4 in career scoring average (19.4).

Not the first player to dunk in the college game or even at Tennessee, Parker did make the dunk a more common occurrence in women's basketball. She was the first to dunk in an NCAA game, doing so twice vs. Army on March 19, 2006. She also set UT records for most dunks in a game (2), season (4) and career (7).

Because of her play, she has earned a plethora of awards. Among them, John R. Wooden and USBWA Player of the Year (2007, 2008), NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player (2007, 2008), WBCA All-American (2006, 2007, 2008), SEC Female Athlete of the Year (2008), SEC Player of the Year (2007), Coaches First-Team All-SEC (2006, 2007, 2008), CoSIDA Academic All-American (2007, 2008) and CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year (2008).

After helping Tennessee win the 2008 NCAA title in Tampa, Fla., Parker was chosen as the first pick of that spring's WNBA Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks, earning league MVP and rookie of the year honors. She also played a key role in the U.S. women winning a gold medal at the 2008 and 2012 Summer Olympics and has continued to escalate her stature in both the professional ranks and internationally.

LADY VOLS IN THE WNBA DRAFT

The Lady Vol basketball program has produced 59 professional players over the years, including 47 alumnae who went on to play in the WNBA. Of those 47 who continued their careers at the professional level in the WNBA, 42 were selected on Draft day and 17 were picked in the first round.

Tennessee has placed two or more players in the first round of the draft five times. The 2012 draft was the Lady Vols' best yet, as Shekinna Stricklen (2nd, Seattle), Glory Johnson (4th, Tulsa) and Kelley Cain (7th, New York) all went in the first round. Vicki Baugh was taken in the third round (25th overall pick) by Tulsa.

Candace Parker and Alexis Hornbuckle were taken in 2008. The Sparks chose Parker with the first overall pick. Hornbuckle followed closely behind as the Shock picked her up with the fourth selection.

Dena Head and Daedra Charles were selected first and eighth respectively in the 1997 draft. Lady Vols doubled up again in 1999, with Chamique Holdsclaw going first to the Mystics and Tonya Edwards going seventh to the Lynx. Kara Lawson and Gwen Jackson were taken with back-to-back picks in 2003, with Lawson going fifth to the Shock and Jackson going sixth to the Fever.

THOMPSON-BOLING ARENA

The Thompson-Boling Assembly Center and Arena is one of the largest on-campus arenas in the country and a very tough place for visitors to win. The Lady Vols own a 442-38 (.921) record at the facility through 31 years entering the 2018-19 season.

A mammoth structure located on the banks of the Tennessee River, it was named for B. Ray Thompson and retired UT President Edward J. Boling. The building is 448 feet long and 310 feet wide. It contains more than 411,000 square feet of floor space and more than 17 million cubic feet of space.

Following renovations in 2007, Thompson-Boling Arena has an official seating capacity of 21,678. As part of a $19 million renovation of the arena prior to the 2007-08 season, 32 luxury suites were added to the existing north balcony along with a loge area just below the suites that includes 166 side court seats. A $3 million center-hung scoreboard, new black seats and several concourse refurbishments also were part of the renovation. The distance from the playing floor to the roof is 120 feet, the equivalent of a 12-story building. The structure contains 142,000 square feet of roof area, which is approximately three and one-quarter acres.

The enormous facility houses the Tennessee women's and men's basketball offices. The UT Ticket Office is located on the Phillip Fulmer Way level on the west end of the building. A continuous-ring concourse encircles the building, permitting entrance to eight restrooms, six concession areas and 32 portals that lead to the arena. The playing floor level provides access to the media room and storage areas as well as the very impressive Larry Pratt Basketball Locker Room Complex and the visitor dressing rooms, constructed from 2017 to 2018.

In recent years, UT women's basketball has enjoyed a number of lengthy home winning streaks. On Dec. 28, 2003, Texas snapped a 24-game run that dated back to the 2001-02 season. A previous streak of 26 consecutive wins in the home confines ended on Jan. 5, 2002, with an 86-72 loss to Connecticut. The Lady Vols broke the NCAA homecourt winning streak record with 69 consecutive victories before Connecticut spoiled the streak with a 59-53 win in game number 70 on Jan. 6, 1996. Tennessee claimed 64 straight home SEC victories before third-ranked LSU snapped the streak with a 72-69 victory - its first ever in Knoxville - on Feb. 9, 2006. The Lady Vols took a 36-game home winning streak into the 2011-12 season before Baylor snapped it at 38 on Nov. 27, 2011.

UT won all 18 contests in Knoxville in 2014-15, setting a school and arena record for most home wins in a season and best record in a season. Coupled with winning its last four home games of the 2013-14 season and the first five in 2015-16, UT strung together 27-consecutive victories before falling to Texas on Nov. 29, 2015.

In 1998-99, the Lady Vols played before the largest average home crowd in the history of women's collegiate basketball, as 16,565 spectators per game clicked through the turnstiles. In all, 231,915 fans viewed home games in Knoxville. During the 1997-98 season, Tennessee set several collegiate attendance records. On Jan. 3, 1998, the Lady Vols entertained a new women's collegiate record 24,597 fans for the game with Connecticut. A month later, the first advance sell-out in UT women's basketball history occurred when the Lady Vols were set to meet Old Dominion in Knoxville. For the record, 24,373 fans attended the UT-ODU game.

The all-time attendance mark was reset during the 2001-02 season when 24,611 fans visited the arena for a #1/#2 clash between UT and Connecticut. It was again reset on Jan. 7, 2006, when the Huskies came to Knoxville in front of 24,653 spectators. The women's basketball attendance mark was established at the 2002 NCAA Final Four when 29,619 people filled the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas, for the championship game.

The Lady Vols started the record-breaking trend in women's collegiate basketball attendance in 1987. That season, the Lady Vols broke the (then) world record for single game attendance at a women's basketball game with 24,563 at the Tennessee versus Texas game on Dec. 9, 1987. Three years later, UT established new NCAA Women's Final Four attendance marks on March 30 and April 1, 1990, with a total paid attendance of 39,490 for the three-game event. The turnstile count of 34,196 (17,601 semis/16,595 finals) also broke all other attendance marks.

In 2013-14, UT led the NCAA in attendance for the 11th-straight season and the 17th time in the last 18 years before finishing second from 2014-17 and fourth in 2017-18.

STOKELY ATHLETICS CENTER ►

Stokely Athletics Center was home to the Lady Volunteer basketball team from 1976-87. The facility, which still housed UT Athletics offices long after its days of hosting games, was closed for good in December 2012 and demolished during the summer of 2014.

The Stokely Arena, which was encircled by a four-lane Tartan indoor track, seated 12,700, while the building housed the former men's and women's athletics department offices. The building was originally called the UT Armory Field House in 1958 and seated just more than 7,000 spectators. Through the generosity of the late William B. Stokely, Jr., further construction was completed and on Dec. 1, 1966, the facility was renamed to honor the Stokely family.

In 1986, Stokely took on a new look as a wood playing surface replaced the old tartan court. The Horner "Pro King" hardwood was painted with the traditional outline of the state of Tennessee in the center of the floor and the familiar end line markings. The court was special-made for the University by the same manufacturer who supplied the basketball court to the Forum for the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games.

Stokely Athletics Center was the site of some historic games for the Lady Vols. The first women's contest played in SAC pitted Tennessee versus Kentucky on Nov. 13, 1976. The Lady Vols not only trounced the Lady Kats, 107-53, but UT's Patricia Roberts tossed in a Field House record 51 points. That mark stands as the Lady Vol record to this day.

Along the way, Tennessee hosted the great gold medalist USSR Olympic Team in 1979, the USA All-Star team in 1979 and the first Southeastern Conference Championships in 1980.

The last Lady Vol game in Stokely, before moving to Thompson-Boling Arena, was a 77-61 win over Auburn in the finals of the NCAA Mid-east Regionals on March 21, 1987. A week later, the Lady Vols returned to Stokely to celebrate UT's first NCAA basketball title with thousands of fans in attendance.

Although no formal attendance figures were kept prior to 1982, Tennessee most-assuredly was among the nation's elite in fan support.

ALUMNI GYM ►

Constructed in the 1930's, Alumni Gym was the first real home to the inaugural Lady Vol team in 1974, which was coached by Pat Summitt. The court in the tiny arena (seating 3,000) was the centerpiece of an encircling tri-balcony seating arrangement.

PRATT PAVILION

In October 2006, Tennessee Athletics had a ground-breaking ceremony to officially recognize construction on the Pratt Pavilion, the state-of-the-art basketball practice facility named in UT alumnus Larry F. Pratt's honor for his $5 million lead gift to the basketball programs. The Pratt Pavilion, which opened in the fall of 2007, houses two full-size gymnasiums, one each for the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as space for an athletic training room, weight room, film study room and a recruiting lounge.

Directly connected to Thompson-Boling Arena, Pratt Pavilion has convenient ground level parking. The 70,000-square-foot structure has four short courts within each of the two full-size courts. The facility is equipped with secured practice facilities, spacious locker rooms and recruiting rooms as well. Balconies at the south side of the building overlook the practice courts.

Pratt Pavilion had a total project cost of $16 million, funded entirely through private gifts. Lead donor Pratt's commitment in April 2006, coupled with leadership gifts from other campaign donors, including Jim Haslam, Brenda Lawson and Robbie Nutt, enabled UT to move forward with the project.

This was not Pratt's first donation. In the 1990s he honored his father Floyd by creating an endowed scholarship in his name as a member of the Nathan Dougherty Society. He also was recognized at the Tennessee vs. Georgia football game in 2003 for a $1 million donation to the STEP-UP Campaign. Pratt, an Athens, Tenn., native, currently resides in McLean, Va. He graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1972 from the college of business and serves as president and CEO of First Savings Mortgage Corporation, the largest private mortgage banker in Washington D.C.

THE FEW. THE PROUD. THE NCAA CHAMPIONS.

The few. The proud. The NCAA Champions. During Pat Head Summitt's tenure as head coach (1974-2012), only 161 women were selected to wear the Orange and White of the University of Tennessee Lady Volunteers.

Fifty-eight players of 161 (through the 2011-12 season) earned the distinction of being an "NCAA Champion" during their playing days at the University of Tennessee. That's practically 40 percent! And that is truly remarkable. Additionally, forty percent of the 58 players have brought home two or more titles.

A total of 12 coaches helped to bring the eight titles to the Knoxville campus. The common denominator of the eight championships with coach Summitt was (then) associate head coach Holly Warlick. In her first tenure with the Lady Vols, Mickie DeMoss claimed six rings (1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997 and 1998). Former assistants Al Brown (1996, 1997 and 1998) and Nikki Caldwell (2007, 2008) are the only former aides with numerous titles. Current assistant Dean Lockwood picked up his first national titles as a Lady Vol coach in 2007 and 2008. Seven graduate assistant coaches had the opportunity to experience one title each.

1987 National Champions

Tennessee may have failed in its first bid at the NCAA national championship in 1984, but the second time was the charm for the Lady Vols. Tennessee thumped Louisiana Tech, which was vying for its second title, 67-44.

"Well, the monkey's off my back," head coach Pat Summitt said. "I do not think I could go without recognizing that it was a tremendous team effort...has been for the last three weeks. This team has played as hard and as smart as I could ask any team to play."

The Lady Vols built a 33-24 halftime edge and never looked back. Seven minutes into the second half, Tennessee had increased its lead to 14, 47-33, and the rest was history as Tennessee took its first NCAA title.

Tennessee attempted 19 more field goals and grabbed 11 more rebounds than the Lady Techsters. A championship-game record crowd of 9,823 watched Tonya Edwards net 13 points and grab seven rebounds en route to most outstanding player honors. Two additional Lady Vols contributed 13 points - Bridgette Gordon and Sheila Frost. Gordon joined Edwards on the All-Championship team, as she also led the Tennessee carom parade, pulling down a game-high 12 rebounds.

1989 National Champions

It was a battle of Southeastern Conference powerhouses - Tennessee versus Auburn for all the marbles.

The Lady Vols looked to regain the national title they earned in 1987. Although they were up against a Lady Tiger team that had made its second straight national championship final, Tennessee took home its second NCAA championship in three years with a 76-60 win.

Playing in her triumphant final game, All-America forward Bridgette Gordon treated the 9,758 spectators to a spectacular 27-point performance, tying a championship-game record. She also collected 11 boards on the way to most outstanding player honors.

Gordon's seven first-half baskets helped the Lady Vols to a 35-27 halftime lead. Auburn was able to stay close, cutting the score to 50-47. But after a timeout, the Lady Vols went on a 13-4 run to put the game out of reach. The keys to the victory were the battle of the boards, where Tennessee outrebanded Auburn 45-30, and the free throw line, where Tennessee shot 20-26, while Auburn was 8-12.

Sheila Frost joined Gordon on the All-Championship team. Playing in her final game at Tennessee, Frost had six points and 12 boards. Also coming up big for the Lady Vols in the final was Dena Head, with 19 points.

1991 National Champions

Vindication was finally Tennessee's in the 1991 NCAA women's final, as the Lady Vols downed a talented Virginia Cavalier club, 70-67, in the first NCAA Final Four overtime title game. Virginia had eliminated Tennessee before it could reach the 1990 Women's Final Four - which just happened to be held in Knoxville. But the Lady Vols took New Orleans and their third NCAA title in five years.

The first half was tight, with Tennessee holding a paper-thin 27-26 advantage at the intermission. But the Lady Vols opened up a small lead in the second half. Small lead; small comfort.

Virginia's Dawn Staley, who was named the most outstanding player, led the Virginia comeback to tie the game at 60 at the end of regulation. But the overtime belonged to Tennessee and Dena Head, who scored a championship record 28 points in the final.

Wade Trophy winner Daedra Charles added 19 points and 12 boards for Tennessee and joined Head on the All-Championship Team. Tennessee's effort was also aided by the play of Lisa Harrison, who poured in eight points and 13 boards.

With the victory, the Lady Volunteers kept their streak of odd-year championships going. Tennessee also won national titles in 1987 and 1989.

1996 National Champions

It seemed only fitting that the Lady Vols would win another NCAA crown in the "Queen City" of Charlotte, N.C. And it was equally fitting that the Lady Vols' fourth NCAA title would come over a fierce SEC rival in the Georgia Lady Bulldogs, 83-65.

After the emotionally draining overtime win versus Connecticut, the skeptics wondered if UT would have enough emotional energy left for the title game. They did...and then some. Although Georgia held a modest three point lead early in the game and led by two with 14:11 to go in the first half, it would be their only lead in the title contest. UT senior Latina Davis put the handcuffs on Player of the Year Saudia Roundtree in the first half as the Lady Vols grabbed an early nine point lead, 28-19 with 7:36 to go in the first half. Georgia recovered to trail by just five at the half, 42-37.

In the first three minutes of the second half, UT took off and never looked back. Abby Conklin's tray (her first of four) with 14:55 left gave UT a 16-point lead, 57-41. Davis upped the ante to a 21 point lead with 2:25 showing, 81-60. The celebrating started early as the Final Four MVP, Michelle Marciniak, and All-Tournament Team members Chamique Holdscraw and Tiffani Johnson left the game to wildly cheering fans. Davis, who held Roundtree to 17 points below her average, was UT's quiet heroine.

On the night, Holdscraw and Johnson tallied 16 points to lead UT, while Conklin added 14 points, Pashen Thompson a dozen, and Marciniak 10 in the final game of her career.

1998 National Champions

No team had ever won the NCAA championship coming in with more than six losses. But proving that it's wise to save your best for last, Tennessee took its fifth NCAA championship and second straight title with a 68-59 win over Old Dominion despite entering the tournament with a 23-10 record.

"Of all our runs to a championship, this one is really the most unexpected," said coach Pat Summitt. "It came from a team with tremendous heart and desire."

Tennessee took control quickly at the start of the title game, jumping out to a 20-8 lead. By halftime, the Lady Vols still had a comfortable lead, 34-22.

In the second half, Old Dominion clawed its way back, taking its first lead at 44-43 with 9:06 left in the game. The Lady Monarchs extended the lead to two, 49-47, before Chamique Holdscslaw led the Lady Vols on a 12-2 run to put the game away for Tennessee.

Holdscslaw was a unanimous choice as the most outstanding player, as she poured in 24 points and seven rebounds. Six of her points came during the decisive run at the end of the game. Joining Holdscslaw on the All-Championship team was Kellie Jolly, who only scored five points, but set a championship record with 11 assists in the final game and a Final Four record with 20.

With the win, the Lady Vols earned their fifth national title, played in their seventh championship game and became only the second team to win consecutive championships. (Southern Cal., 1983 and 1984).

The 1998 Tennessee Lady Vols will be remembered as history-makers. A perfect 39-0 record and the most wins ever in women's collegiate basketball... an NCAA unprecedented three consecutive titles... and the systematic blowout night-after-night of the opposition.

When the team finally reached the NCAA title game against a dear old rival in Louisiana Tech, the contest started out tight with UT taking an 8-6 lead. Then "the greatest team ever to play the game," according to Louisiana Tech head coach Leon Barnmore, exploded out to a 34-11 run over the next seven minutes. The points were coming in bunches to the tune of 63% field goal accuracy as these Lady Vols were on a mission.

By the halftime break, Tennessee led 55-32 and had registered an NCAA record for the most points scored in a half at the Final Four. Leading the way for UT in game 39 were the Three Meeks - MVP Chamique Holdscslaw, Tamika Catchings and Semeka Randall—who collectively tallied 62 points and 25 rebounds in the Lady Vols' 93-75 victory.

Holdscslaw, who scored 25 points and grabbed 10 rebounds, won the top player honors in the final game. She was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Catchings, who recorded 27 points in her first title game, and an honorary "Meek", Kellie Jolly, who added a career-high 20 points.

With the win, the Lady Vols earned their sixth national title, played in their eighth championship game and became the first team to win three consecutive NCAA titles.

2007 National Champions

On April 3, 2007, the Tennessee Lady Vols captured an elusive seventh national title, beating Rutgers to the ball for second and third shots in a 59-46 win to reclaim their customary place above all other programs.

Parker scored 17 points to lead her squad to a 34-3 final record, but the tournament's most outstanding player got plenty of help from Shannon Bobbitt who scored 13 points — nine of them on three treys in a lightning-quick span in the second half — and Nicky Anosike had 16 rebounds for the Lady Vols, who had 24 offensive boards.

After building a 16-point lead and then holding off a late push by Rutgers, the Lady Vols could finally celebrate, dribbling out the final 30 seconds under the Rutgers basket until Tennessee's players, some in tears, danced at midcourt as orange, blue and gold confetti fell from above.

"To win anything you have to be a tight team," Summitt said. "They believed in each other and they all had one goal, to be here in Cleveland and cut down the nets. I'm real, real proud of this team."

A three-pointer by Rutgers ended a 7-0 UT run that brought the Scarlet Knights to 50-42, but Parker made six straight free throws in 37 seconds to make it 56-44 with 1:08 left. As she went down the floor, Parker looked at the bench where senior Sidney Spencer was crying, knowing all the hard work during the offseason would end the best way possible.

The 2007 NCAA tournament ended the same way it has nearly one-third of the time since it started — with Tennessee setting up ladders to cut down the nets.

2008 National Champions

On April 8, 2008, the "under-rated" Tennessee Lady Vols captured their eighth national title, defeating Stanford 64-48. Incredible defensive pressure by UT forced 25 Cardinal turnovers which the Big Orange converted into 26 points.

"They came out with a great mentality to play hard, especially on the defensive end," Pat Summitt said. "On offense, we got more people involved, but it was our defense that got it done."

Tennessee standout Candace Parker, despite playing with a dislocated shoulder, scored 17 points and grabbed nine rebounds to help the Lady Vols capture their second straight championship, but unlike earlier games in the tournament when she had to carry the Lady Vols, her supporting cast came through. Shannon Bobbitt scored 13 points and Nicky Anosike added 12 points, eight rebounds and six steals for the Lady Vols. Freshman Vicki Baugh had eight points before tearing her ACL in the second half.

Bobbitt scored all of her points in the first half as the Lady Vols jumped out to a 37-29 advantage. Trailing by one early, Tennessee used a 13-4 run to take a 17-9 lead midway through the half. Bobbitt hit two three-pointers and made a nifty layup to cap the spurt. The teams traded baskets before two free throws by Bobbitt gave the Lady Vols a 35-25 lead — their biggest of the half.

Parker didn't shoot nearly as many jumpers as usual, instead taking the ball to the basket on an array of moves. She converted one steal in the second half into a pretty layup that gave the Lady Vols a 10-point advantage. She then followed it up with a three-point play on a driving layup. The Cardinal, who had a season low for points, would get no closer than eight the rest of the way. With the game in hand and a minute left, Parker went to the Tennessee bench for the final time, holding up four fingers on each hand to signify the eight titles the Lady Vols have won.

"One is disputable, but two, you can't stumble onto two national championships, so we're pretty good," Parker said.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

Senior transfer All-Americans and Olympians Patricia Roberts and Jill Rankin played for the Lady Vols during their senior year only. Though they didn't or haven't become 1,000-point scorers at UT, their career marks are some of the nation's all-time bests.

MEDIA POLICIES

COVERING PRACTICE

Please contact Eric Trainer at the Media Relations Office at least a week in advance to arrange player or coach feature interviews. If you plan to cover an open practice session, please contact the Media Relations Office on a daily basis to check about changes in the schedule.

PLAYER AND COACH INTERVIEWS

Media wishing to interview coaches or players are encouraged to set up interviews in advance with the Media Relations Office. Generally, the best time to conduct an interview is on a designated day with an open portion of practice and pre-practice media opportunity. The Media Relations Office will help with all requests.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media outlets interested in obtaining credentials to cover Lady Vol basketball home games must apply for those online via Sports Systems. To apply, please visit: <http://www.sportssystem.com/seccredentials>. Applications for single-game credentials should be submitted five days prior to a game. Once you receive your approval letter via email, you will be provided options for credential pick-up.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers or those individuals on special assignment. During regular season games, work area includes the floor area at both ends of the court and alongside the corners of the playing floor opposite the team benches. Special arrangements for strobes or catwalk access must be made through the Media Relations and Arena Management Offices no later than one week in advance of the game. UT's arena security policy requires that all photographers placing strobes will go through a screening process and must be accompanied by a UT police officer or representative when placing strobes.

THE SEC MEDIA POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

MEDIA PARKING PASSES AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

Parking space is limited. The media must request parking access along with other credential requests. Media coverage on a regular basis will insure first priority in UT parking garage G-10. The media entrance is located adjacent to this parking area on Phillip Fulmer Way. Please be advised that everyone must proceed through metal detectors to enter Thompson-Boling Arena.

PRESS ROW

Press row is located in the lower level southeast corner of the arena behind the baseline nearest the G-10 garage. Only accredited media will be allowed in this area. Children are not permitted on press row.

MEDIA ROOM SERVICES

The media room is on the east end of the arena. Soft drinks and a pregame meal will be offered just outside the media room in a curtained area. Postgame interviews will be conducted in the media room, and the working press has numerous electrical outlets and wireless internet available. Wireless internet also is available courtside. If you choose to install a phone line on press row, please contact UT Telephone Services at (865) 974-3121.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Services provided include statistics generated from the STATCREW computer statistics program. Statistics can be accessed via laptop or iPad. Hard copies of halftime stats, final stats and play-by-play highlights at the end of each half also will be available. Coaches' quotes will be provided following the post-game interview sessions.

To access up-to-date stats during a game, visit UTstats.com for a live feed.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

A formal post-game interview is held in the basketball media room following each game. The media will be solicited for player names with five minutes left in the game. After a 10-minute cooling-off period, the visiting team coach and selected players will be brought to the media room. Following the visiting team's media session, select UT players will come to the media room, followed shortly afterward by head coach Holly Warlick. Risers for television cameras and a distribution box for radio will be available in the back of the area.

RADIO

Requests to broadcast must be made in writing at the earliest possible date to receive permission. Stations are responsible for contacting Glenn Thackston at IMG/Lady Vol Network in Knoxville for use of the phone lines in Thompson-Boling Arena. Mr. Thackston can be reached during business hours at (865) 212-3570. The radio broadcast location is on the floor level at the main scorer's table.

TELEVISION GAMES

Thompson-Boling Arena permits the inside parking of television tractor-trailer units and offers secure parking adjacent to the arena for satellite uplink units. SEC ON THE WEB: For all you need to know about the Southeastern Conference and its member schools, access the SEC Web Page at www.SECsports.com. The site contains team information, scores, conference standings and statistics, awards recipients, history and records, feature stories, television information on conference events, details about tickets to SEC events, SEC merchandise and much, much more.

WEEKLY HONORS: The SEC will name a Player and Freshman of the Week each week throughout the regular season. Each week's selections will be released late Tuesday morning and also will be announced in the league's weekly release. The league women's basketball sports information directors make nominations for the award each week.

SEC HISTORY: The Southeastern Conference was formed Dec. 8-9, 1932, and included 13 schools at the time: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane, and Vanderbilt. The league's first president was Frank L. McVey of Kentucky. Due to the continually increasing amount of work administering the league, the office of Commissioner was established by its member institutions in 1940. Former Mississippi governor Martin Conner was named as the first commissioner, a post he held until 1948. Following Conner were Bernie Moore (1948-66), A.M. Coleman (1966-72), Dr. Boyd McWhorter (1972-86), Dr. Harvey Schiller (1986-90), Roy Kramer (1990-2002), and Mike Slive (2002-2015). Greg Sankey is currently Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference and its 14 member institutions.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. Cross country, golf, swimming, tennis and indoor track were added later. The SEC began recognizing women's championships during the 1979-80 academic year. The conference office officially took over regulation of women's athletics on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and twelve women's sports. Baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming and diving, tennis and track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country) are currently sanctioned for men. The women's sports are basketball, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country) and volleyball.

SEC WOMEN'S HOOPS BY THE NUMBERS

With nine national championships, 12 runner-up finishes, a nation-leading 38 Final Four appearances and 132 first-team All-America honors, the Southeastern Conference stands firmly as the nation's premier intercollegiate women's basketball conference.

The SEC has posted impressive non-conference records in the last decade. The SEC compiled a 147-49 (.750) non-conference record during the 2017-18 season.

Since the 1990 season, the SEC has compiled a 4093-1222 (.770) record against other conferences. The league has recorded 150+ wins during 13 seasons and has never recorded a non-conference winning percentage below .723.

SEC teams have earned appearances in 28 of 37 NCAA Final Fours, an accomplishment unmatched by any other league. The next closest is the Big East with 22 and the ACC with 21.

Overall, SEC squads have filled 38 of the 148 Final Four berths, including having two Final Four teams in 1988 (Auburn, Tennessee), 1989 (Auburn, Tennessee), 1995 (Georgia, Tennessee), 1996 (Georgia, Tennessee), 1998 (Arkansas, Tennessee), 2004 (LSU, Tennessee), 2005 (LSU, Tennessee), 2007 (LSU, Tennessee), 2008 (LSU, Tennessee) and 2017 (Mississippi State, South Carolina).

SEC teams have made 21 appearances in a nation-high 18 NCAA Championship games, winning nine NCAA Championships (Tennessee: 1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2007, 2008); South Carolina (2017).

The league also had the distinction of providing both national finalists three times in its history in 1996 (Tennessee 83, Georgia 65); 1989 (Tennessee 76, Auburn 60) and 2017 (South Carolina 67, Mississippi State 55).

SEC teams have won 422 NCAA Tournament games against 225 losses (.652) for an average of 11.4 NCAA wins per year. In addition, all 14 current members have made appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

The SEC has led or co-lead the pack in NCAA tournament bids 25 times in its 37-year history.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE (CONTINUED)

The Southeastern Conference had nine teams earn bids to the 2016 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship. That was the most SEC teams to receive bids to the NCAA tournament in conference history and the second time in NCAA history that one conference had sent nine teams to the tournament. The Big East did so in 2011.

Until 2004, the SEC was the only conference to ever have eight teams receive NCAA bids. The league achieved that feat five times, in 1999, 2002, 2012, 2014 and 2017.

The SEC was also the first league to ever have seven teams invited to the NCAA Tournament and earned this honor a leading 11 times (1986, 1991, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2003, 2004, 2009, 2013, 2014, & 2018).

The SEC is one of a handful of leagues to have won three national tournament titles with nine NCAA, two WNIT and four NWIT. Along with the nine NCAA championships; Arkansas (1999) and Auburn (2003) captured the current Women's NIT titles. But the first-ever SEC national title belongs to Georgia, winners of the 1981 NWIT which predates the current WNIT tournament. Vanderbilt (1984), LSU (1985) and Kentucky (1990) also won NWIT titles. As members of their previous conferences Arkansas (1987), South Carolina (1979) and Texas A&M (1995) won the WNIT, while Texas A&M (2011) won the NCAA title prior to joining the SEC.

The SEC has had 67 student-athletes named as a First-Team All-America selection. Those 67 have been named a total of 107 times since the 1982-83 season (first year of SEC sponsorship).

The Southeastern Conference had 19 former student-athletes make 2018 WNBA opening day rosters.
