PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

THE KELLIE HARPER ERA BEGINS

- Former Lady Vol Kellie Harper takes the reins at Tennessee after leading Missouri State to a Sweet 16 appearance in last season's NCAA Tournament.
- Harper, a native of Sparta, Tenn. (White County H.S.), played point guard at Tennessee from 1995-99, helping lead the Lady Vols to an NCAA Championship three-peat in 1996, 1997 and 1998. The '98 squad went 39-0.
- In 15 seasons as a head coach, Harper is 285-208 and is one of only 11 coaches to lead three different women's programs to NCAA Tournament appearances (Western Carolina/NC State/Missouri State).
- She will attempt to join Jim Foster in becoming the only coaches to take four different women's teams to the NCAA tourney.
- Harper has rebuilt and directed teams to 12 postseason appearances (5 NCAA/7 WNIT) during her career.
- The LVFL was 118-79 at Missouri State in six seasons, earning 2019 Kay Yow National Coach of the Year and 2019 MVC Coach of the Year accolades last season for leading the Lady Bears to the NCAA Sweet 16.
- She guided Missouri State to 2016 & 2019 MVC tourney titles, two NCAA appearances (2016, 2019) and three WNIT berths (2015, 2017, 2018).

HARPER'S STAFF

- Harper's staff includes husband Jon Harper as well as Lacey Goldwire and Jennifer Sullivan, who were at Arkansas and Ohio State, respectively, last year.

- Jon Harper is in his 16th season as a vital member of Kellie Harper's staff and assists with all aspects of the program. The two have worked together since they were assistants at Chattanooga from 2001-04.
- The 2019-20 campaign marks Lacey Goldwire's first as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at UT, her eighth season as a full-time coach and her 12th year overall in the coaching profession, including stops at Oklahoma State, Morehead State, Iowa, Arkansas and now Rocky Top. She has been part of programs that have earned postseason berths in nine of 11 seasons.
- Jennifer Sullivan is in her first season at UT after spending the 2018-19 campaign as an assistant at Ohio State. Sullivan was an integral part of Kellie Harper's program at Missouri State from 2013-18, serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator there alongside current UT colleague Jon Harper. She has 14 years of experience under her belt as an assistant.
- Catherine Greene is in her first season as director of basketball operations at Tennessee. She arrived on Rocky Top after serving from 2017-19 as the director of student-athlete enrichment for the University of North Carolina women's basketball program
- Director of Scouting and Analytics Alex Varlan previously had the title of video coordinator and is one of two members of the previous basketball staff to be retained.
- Heather Ervin is the director of player relations and administration and joins Varlan as a returning staff member. She is in her fourth year with the Lady Vol program and previ-

- Director of recruiting operations Jessica Jackson was on Harper's staff at Missouri State, played for Harper at Western Carolina and served as a graduate assistant with Harper at NC State.
- Tyler Watson is in his first year as the director of women's basketball sports performance. He previously worked with Harper as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Missouri State.

FAMILY AFFAIR

- In addition to having two coaches named Harper, expect to see a lot of the Harper children around the team.
- Jackson (turns six in November) and Kiley (1) are a big part of the Lady Vol family, and Tennessee followers can expect to see them around the program.
- Both traveled with the team during the 2019 European Tour and found 12 new Lady Vol sisters who enjoyed spending time with them.
- Coach Kellie Harper sees the Harper family and the Lady Vol Basketball family as one cohesive unit.

THE RETURNEES

- Tennessee returns two starters and six total letterwinners from last season's 19-13 squad that fell in the NCAA First Round.
- The Lady Vols return two highly-regarded starters in 6-2 junior guard/forward Rennia Davis (14.9 ppg., 7.7 rpg.) and 6-0 sophomore guard Zaay Green (9.4 ppg., 4.0 rpg., 2.3 apg.).
- Davis was a WBCA All-America Honorable Mention selection and All-SEC Second Team choice, while Green was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.
- Top returning reserves include 6-4 junior center Kasiyahna Kushkituah (4.8 ppg., 3.5 rpg.), sophomore wing Rae Burrell (3.6 ppg., 2.8 rpg.) and sophomore point guard Jazmine Massengill (3.4 ppg., 3.4 rpg., 1.3 apg.). Also back is 6-3 senior forward Kamera Harris.
- Kushkituah started 11 games and was averaging 10.2 ppg. and 6.2 rpg. in 24.8 mpg. through five games before a knee injury forced her out of action for two contests and set back her progress significantly. Burrell and Massengill, meanwhile, played in all 32 games a year ago.

EYE ON THE RECORD BOOKS

- Rennia Davis' scoring average (14.9) tied her for No. 5 all-time by a UT sophomore, while her rebound average (7.7) was ninth-best by a second-year Lady Vol.
- In career rebounding, Davis stands at No. 10 all-time at UT with an average of 7.66 per contest.
- In career free throw percentage, Davis ranks No. 10 in school history at .805 (140-174).
- For career double-doubles, Davis has posted 18, which ties her for 20th entering her junior year.
- Davis stands 141 points away from becoming the 46th player to score 1,000 points during her Lady Vol career.

BROWN GETS SIXTH YEAR FROM NCAA

- Tennessee has a seventh player who was on the roster last season but didn't play due to injury.
- Graduate transfer Lou Brown, who came from Washington State and hails from Melbourne, Australia, has been granted a sixth season of eligibility due to an injury suffered prior to the 2018-19 season.
- On Oct. 17, 2018, Brown tore the ACL in her right knee and was lost for the year. She remained a key part of the team at practice and games, always encouraging her teammates.

- Brown is UT's second-ever international player and the first from Australia.

- Brown averaged 6.4 points, 6.0 rebounds and knocked down 29 three-pointers while starting 23 of 28 games as a redshirt junior in 2017-18 for the Cougars.
- For her career, she tallied 529 points, 167 rebounds, 106 assists, 88 steals, 80 three-pointers and 66 blocks while drawing 71 starts in 95 contests.
- Brown was ranked No. 2 by ProspectsNation.com among international high school recruits in 2014.

NO. 9-RANKED FRESHMAN CLASS

- UT has the No. 9 ranked signing class in the nation, according to espnW HoopGurlz.
- The group is led by 6-2 freshman guard Jordan Horston, ranked as the No. 2 player overall and No. 1 guard in the nation. She was the MVP of the 2019 McDonald's All-America Game.
- Also included in that rookie group are 6-5 posts Tamari Key and Emily Saunders, ranked as a five-star by espnW HoopGurlz and a four-star by ProspectsNation.com, respectively.
- UT also added 5-foot-8 three-point ace Jessie Rennie from Bendigo, Australia, and 6-3 forward Jaiden McCoy, a Knoxville native who played at Northwest Florida State College and earned All-Panhandle Conference honors last season.

LADY VOLS FEATURE TALLEST ROSTER

- The 2019-20 squad is the tallest team in Lady Vol history, averaging 74 inches tall or 6-2.
- The 2018-19 squad tied with the 2005-06 unit as the previous tallest teams, averaging 6-1 41/64 in height. The 2017-18 team was fourth at 6-1 19/32, followed by the 2016-17 and 2003-04 groups in fifth at 6-1.
- Tennessee has only one player standing shorter than six-feet tall, and that is 5-8 freshman guard Jessie Rennie.
- This year's Lady Vols have 11 players standing 6-feet tall or higher, marking the most in program history.
- This marks the fourth time in school history that the Lady Vols have sported 10 or more players standing six-feet tall or higher on a roster. The other occasions were in 2009-10, 2014-15 and 2018-19, when UT had 10.
- The Lady Vols feature six players 6-3 or taller, marking the third time that has occurred. The only other times UT has had six on the roster standing 6-3 or taller occurred in 2005-06 and 2004-05.

YOUNG AND FULL OF POTENTIAL

- Seven of Tennessee's 12 players are freshmen or sophomores. There are four freshmen and three sophomores.
- The Lady Vols have two seniors, and one (Lou Brown) sat out last season due to injury, and the other (Kamera Harris) saw action in 19 contests and averaged 6.8 minutes per game.
- Besides Rennia Davis (31 games/30 starts) and Zaay Green (32 games/24 starts), UT returns four players who started a combined 12 games a year ago.

TWO IN GRADUATE SCHOOL

- Two Lady Vols already possess undergraduate degrees and are working toward master's degrees in communication and information with concentration in journalism and electronic media.
- Lou Brown earned a degree in sport management from Washington State in May 2018.
- Kamera Harris earned a degree in recreation and sport management in May 2019.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

- Junior RENNIA Davis is a member of the VOLeaders Academy Class of 2020. The first-of-its-kind program is a dynamic partnership between the UT Center for Leadership and Service, the Center for Sport, Peace and Society and the Athletics Department.
- Senior KAMERA Harris serves as the women's basketball representative for UT's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. She also is a member of the SEC Student-Athlete Leadership Council.
- Freshman TAMARI Key is serving as a women's basketball representative for UT's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee this season as well.

LADY VOLS BOND ON EUROPEAN TOUR

- Tennessee, which features a new coaching staff, a roster of 12 with six returnees and a half dozen others eyeing their first year on the floor at Rocky Top, went 3-0 on a trip to Western Europe from August 5-15.
- UT traveled to The Netherlands, Belgium and France on the excursion, which balanced practice, games, educational activities and visits to tourist sites.
- The Lady Vols defeated Dozy BV Den Helder in the city of Den Helder, Netherlands, 97-45, on Aug. 8. They then cruised by KBBC Upkot Sparta Laarne in Laarne, Belgium, 106-64, on Aug. 10. UT closed out the tour in France by rolling past AK Select in the village of Brétigny-sur-Orge, 93-43, on Aug. 13.
- Sophomores Rae Burrell and Zaay Green scored in double figures all three games for the Lady Vols, while junior RENNIA Davis and freshman Jordan Horston did so twice, and junior Kasiyahna Kushkituah and freshman Tamari Key each surpassed 10 points once each. Davis had the single-game high for the tour with 25 points vs. KBBC Upkot Sparta Laarne, while Burrell had 19 vs. AK Select.
- Four players tallied double-digit totals in rebounding during the trip, including sophomore Jazmine Massengill, Key, Burrell and Davis. Massengill had 12 vs. KBBC Upkot Sparta Laarne, while Key had 11 against Dozy BV Den Helder.
- Davis dished out eight assists vs. AK Select, while Massengill had six each vs. Dozy BV Den Helder and KBBC Upkot Sparta Laarne. Burrell had the tour high for steals with five vs. AK Select.
- Among their highlights off the court, the Lady Vols enjoyed a boat tour of Amsterdam's canals, visited the Anne Frank House and saw the windmills of Zaanse Schans while in The Netherlands.
- They strolled the streets of the beautiful and historic cities of Ghent and Bruges while in Belgium, took a tour of the Gravensteen Castle and enjoyed sampling waffles, chocolate and other Belgian delicacies.
- The final leg of the journey was to France, and the tour included a visit to Normandy to see Omaha Beach, the American cemetery and other World War II historic sites. Time in Paris included a Seine River cruise, ascending the Eiffel Tower at night and a visit to The Louvre.

A LOOK AT NON-CONFERENCE SLATE

- The Lady Vols host Carson-Newman in an exhibition game on Oct. 29. After opening the regular season on the road at East Tennessee State on Nov. 5, UT plays eight of its next 11 on Rocky Top. In addition to a Dec. 8 showdown with perennial rival #14 Texas, the Big Orange women play host to Central Arkansas (Nov. 7), Tennessee State (Nov. 14), Stetson (Nov. 19), Arkansas-Pine Bluff (Nov. 26), Air Force (Dec. 1), Colorado State (Dec. 11) and Howard (Dec. 29).
- The rest of the non-conference road slate isn't for the faint of heart. UT travels to defending NCAA runner-up and No.

20 preseason Notre Dame (Nov. 11) in the earliest-ever match-up between the schools. The Lady Vols also play at No. 4 Stanford (Dec. 18) and Portland State (Dec. 21) and renew a storied rivalry with No. 3 UConn (Jan. 23) at Hartford in a contest that will benefit the Pat Summitt Foundation and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

SURVEYING THE SEC SCHEDULE

- The Lady Vols open SEC action at home vs. Missouri on Jan. 2 before hitting the road for back-to-back games at No. 13 Kentucky and Ole Miss on Jan. 5 and 9, respectively.
- In addition to its battle vs. UK, Tennessee will face ranked SEC foes in home games vs. No. 9 Mississippi State (Feb. 6) and No. 10 Texas A&M (Feb. 16) as well as road contests vs. No. 7 South Carolina (Feb. 2) and No. 19 Arkansas (Feb. 10).
- The remaining home schedule includes Georgia (Jan. 12), Alabama (Jan. 20), LSU (Jan. 26), Vanderbilt (Feb. 23) and Ole Miss (Feb. 27).
- Other SEC road trips include stops at Florida (Jan. 16), Vanderbilt (Jan. 30), LSU (Feb. 13) and Auburn (March 1).

RIVALRY RENEWED

- The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame has organized a renewal of the historic series between the Tennessee Lady Volunteers and the UConn Huskies, starting in the 2019-20 season.
- As a longstanding rivalry, the teams consistently met from 1995-2007 but have not faced each other since. Widely regarded as the two most successful women's programs in the country, Tennessee and UConn account for 19 National Championships, dozens of impact players in the WNBA and many of the sport's all-time greats.
- As part of the two-year series, UConn will host Tennessee during the 2019-20 season with a portion of the proceeds benefitting the Pat Summitt Foundation and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. In the 2020-21 season, the Lady Vols will host the Huskies in Knoxville (date to be determined), with a portion of the proceeds again benefitting the Pat Summitt Foundation and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, as well as the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame.
- This year's contest will take place in Hartford, Connecticut, at 7 p.m. on Jan. 23. ESPN will televise the match-up.

FIVE MCDONALD'S A-As ON ROSTER

- Tennessee has five McDonald's All-Americans on its 2019-20 roster, which is one fewer than it had a year ago.
- Those players are juniors RENNIA Davis and Kasiyahna Kushkituah, sophomores Zaay Green and Jazmine Massengill and freshman Jordan Horston.
- Horston was named the MVP of the 2019 contest in Atlanta, Ga. She became the sixth Lady Vol signee to earn that honor, following Shanna Zolman (2002), Alexis Hornbuckle (2004), Meighan Simmons (2010), Mercedes Russell (2013) and Te'a Cooper (2015).
- Tennessee now has had 35 McDonald's All-Americans on its rosters through the years.

THREE STRAIGHT TOP 10 SIGNING CLASSES

- Tennessee has welcomed three consecutive top 10 signing classes in 2017 (No. 1), 2018 (No. 4) and 2019 (No. 9), according to the espnW HoopGurlz rankings.
- Top 60 players from those classes at Tennessee right now include RENNIA Davis (No. 12) and Kasiyahna Kushkituah (No. 55) in 2017; Zaay Green (No. 10) Jazmine Massengill (No. 25) and Rae Burrell (No. 43) in 2018; and Jordan Horston (No. 2) and Tamari Key (46) in 2019.

LADY VOL
STAFF

FIRST YEAR AT TENNESSEE/16TH YEAR AS HEAD COACH

■ THE HARPER FILE

Born: May 3, 1977

Education: White County High School (Sparta, Tenn.), '95
B.S. (Math), Tennessee, '99

Playing Career: Tennessee ('95-'99): Three-time NCAA champion point guard, All-SEC Second Team & H.M. All-American in '99, All-Final Four '97 & '98

Family: Spouse: Jon Harper Children: Jackson, Kiley

A 1999 University of Tennessee graduate and former women's basketball standout, Kellie (Jolly) Harper was announced by UT Director of Athletics Phillip Fulmer as the new head coach of the Lady Volunteers on April 9, 2019.

Harper became only the third Lady Vol head coach in the NCAA era of women's basketball. She took the reins at Tennessee after six years of leading the Missouri State Lady Bears, capped by the 2018-19 season's impressive march to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title and magical run to the NCAA Sweet 16.

A native of Sparta, Tenn., Harper was a point guard for the legendary Pat Summitt at UT from 1995-99, playing 132 games and helping the Lady Vols win NCAA National Championships in 1996, 1997 and 1998. She was part of a senior class that helped the Big Orange forge a 131-17 overall record as well as win two SEC regular-season titles (1998, 1999) and three SEC Tournament crowns (1996, 1998, 1999).

One of only 11 women's hoops skippers to lead three different schools to the NCAA Tournament, she has directed her teams to 12 postseason berths in her 15-year head coaching career.

Harper guided Missouri State to NCAA appearances in 2015-16 and 2018-19 with WNIT berths on three other occasions. She also led North Carolina State to the NCAA Tournament in 2009-10 (plus two WNIT appearances) and guided Western Carolina to NCAA berths in 2004-05 and 2008-09 (plus two trips to the WNIT).

Harper owns a 15-year head coaching record of 285-208, including five NCAA Tournament appearances and seven WNIT berths in that span. In 24 seasons as a Division I head coach, assistant coach or player, Harper has made 20 postseason appearances with a combined 533-261 record, 13 NCAA Tournament appearances and seven WNIT bids.

She recorded a 118-79 won-lost record at Missouri State, claiming Missouri Valley Conference Tournament crowns in 2016 and 2019 and notching regular-season runner-up finishes in 2015-16, 2017-18 and 2018-19.

This year's squad improved measurably as the season progressed, resiliently overcoming a 1-7 start to post the program's best overall record (25-10) since 2004-05 and its top league mark (16-2) since 2003-04 with a 24-3 run over the final 27 contests.

The Lady Bears finished No. 24 in the final 2019 USA Today Sports Coaches Poll, which was their first national ranking in 15 years. Harper was named the Missouri Valley Coach of the Year and also was chosen as the 2019 Kay Yow Coach of the Year. That award is presented annually to the Division I women's head coach who embodies a winning spirit while displaying great character, on and off the court.

Harper took over a MSU program that was coming off a 14-17 overall mark and 6-12 league mark in 2013-14. After a 14-17/8-10 slate in her first season in Springfield, the Lady Bears never finished lower than third in the league standings and made the postseason every year.

Three of her last four editions surpassed the 20-win plateau. Her final Lady Bears team developed into her best one with a late season spree that included victories over No. 21 Drake, No. 24 DePaul and No. 13 Iowa State and a nine-point loss to sixth-ranked Stanford in the Sweet 16. Harper's 2018-19 squad featured only one senior and included 11 freshmen or sophomores on the 14-player roster.

In addition to making the NCAA Tournament last season, Harper took Missouri State back to the NCAA Tournament after a decade absence in 2015-16, guiding her third MSU squad to an MVC Tournament title and 24-10 overall record. Her program also defeated SEC programs Missouri (twice), Arkansas and Ole Miss during her time at MSU.

Prior to her arrival at Missouri State, Harper became just the third women's basketball coach in North Carolina State history in 2009 and directed the Wolfpack to three post-season appearances and a 70-64 record during her four-year stint at the helm, including the 2010 NCAA Tournament. NC State joined Tobacco Road rivals Duke and North Carolina as the only Atlantic Coast Conference teams to score wins over the league's other 11 teams during that span and earned six top-25 victories in four seasons.

Prior to her tenure in Raleigh, Harper piloted Western Carolina to a 97-65 record and four postseason berths in five seasons, including a 70-31 mark her final three years in Cullowhee. The Catamounts captured the first two Southern Conference (SoCon) Tournament titles in school history while seven student-athletes captured all-conference honors during her tenure.

She earned 2007 SoCon Coach of the Year accolades and placed her squads in the WBCA Academic Top 25 on three occasions, including a fifth-place finish in 2007-08.

Before her first head coaching job, Harper spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Chattanooga, helping the Mocs to three consecutive Southern Conference championships, three NCAA appearances and a combined 78-15 record under head coach Wes Moore. She tutored four all-conference guards while at Chattanooga, including the 2004 league player of the year.

Prior to her time in Chattanooga, Harper spent two seasons at Auburn, the first as an administrative assistant before being promoted to assistant coach under Joe Ciampi for the 2000-01 campaign.

As a college player, Harper was part of a women's basketball dynasty at Tennessee. As a junior, she guided the Lady Vols to a 39-0 record and their third-straight national championship, averaging 7.6 points and 3.8 assists for the season and scoring a career-high 20 points in the national title game against Louisiana Tech. She went 4-of-5 from beyond the arc in that contest and was named to the 1998 All-Final Four Team.

Harper set an NCAA championship game record with 11 assists and dished out 20 helpers in two games for All-Final Four honors in 1997 after returning from a knee injury midway through her sophomore season. That year, the National Strength and Conditioning Association named her its Strength and Conditioning Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

For her Tennessee career, Harper scored 894 points and had 452 assists, leaving UT on the school's career top 10 lists for assists, assist average, 3-point attempts and 3-point percentage. She still ranks seventh in career assists and is 10th in 3-point percentage (.364, 99-272).

Harper was drafted by the Cleveland Rockers in the fourth round of the 1999 WNBA draft and earned her degree in mathematics that same year. She was a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member and earned both All-SEC Coaches Second Team and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. She also was named to the SEC Community Service Team as a senior.

She played for her father (the late Kenneth Jolly) at White County High School in Sparta, Tenn., and was a five-time All-American during her AAU playing career. She was inducted into the UT Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009 and White County High Hall of Fame in 2012.

Harper is married to Jon Harper, an assistant coach on her staffs at Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and now Tennessee. The Harpers welcomed their first child, son Jackson, in November 2013, and had a daughter, Kiley, in June 2018.

ASSISTANT COACH/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

FIRST YEAR AT TENNESSEE/12TH YEAR AS AN ASSISTANT OKLAHOMA STATE '10

Lacey Goldwire is in her first season at the University of Tennessee, joining Kellie Harper's staff as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator on April 25, 2019.

The 2019-20 campaign will mark her eighth season full-time and her 12th year overall in the coaching profession, including stops at Oklahoma State, Morehead State, Iowa, Arkansas and now Rocky Top. She has been part of programs that have earned postseason berths in nine of 11 seasons.

Goldwire came to Knoxville from the University of Arkansas, where she spent two seasons as an assistant on Mike Neighbors' staff. Since arriving in April 2017, she helped in the rebuilding process as the Razorbacks went from 13-18 in Neighbors' first season (2017-18) to 22-15 in 2018-19 with a trip to the SEC Tournament championship game and the WNIT third round.

Prior to joining Neighbors in Fayetteville, Goldwire contributed to four postseason appearances in as many years at the University of Iowa. She worked with the wing players and served as the recruiting coordinator for the Hawkeyes, helping set the table for a run to the 2019 NCAA Elite Eight.

Her initial season in Iowa City was the first of back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament. A 27-win season included a second round appearance in the Big Dance in 2013-14. Iowa returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2014-15 and defeated 14th-seeded American (75-67) in the first round and 11th-seeded Miami (88-70) in the second round. The victory secured a Sweet Sixteen berth at home on Mediacom Court in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Hawkeyes closed their season with a 26-8 record overall, a runner-up finish in Big Ten Conference play with a 14-4 mark, and a No. 11 national ranking in the USA Today Top 25 Coaches' Poll — then the highest for the program since 1995-96 (No. 7 in AP, No. 9 in USA Today). UI was one of 13 teams nationally to finish undefeated at home with an 18-0 mark, setting a program record for wins at home in a single season.

Goldwire and the Hawkeyes were one win shy of 20 in 2015-16, playing in the WNIT, but they reached 20 wins in 2016-17 and went deep into the WNIT bracket with wins over Missouri State, South Dakota and Colorado.

During her time in Iowa, Goldwire worked with consensus All-America selection Samantha Logic, whose honors also included being named a WBCA Division I Coaches All-American, USBWA All-American, ESPN Second Team All-American and Third Team Associated Press All-American. Logic was the only player in NCAA history to accumulate at least 1,500 career points, 800 rebounds, 800 assists and 200 steals. She also was one of 12 players in the country to be invited to attend the 2015 WNBA Draft, where she was selected with the 10th overall pick by the Atlanta Dream.

Goldwire spent the 2012-13 season as an assistant coach at Morehead State. Prior to joining the Eagles' staff, Goldwire served on the Oklahoma State staff for four seasons — two as a student assistant (2008-10) and two as a graduate assistant (2010-12).

Following Oklahoma State's tragic loss of its head and assistant coach during a plane crash in November of 2011, Goldwire was elevated to interim assistant coach, where she took on added recruiting duties. During her time with the program, the Cowgirls won 80 games and advanced

MEMPHIS '05

Jennifer Sullivan was officially announced as a member of the Lady Vol staff on April 15, 2019. She was an integral part of Kellie Harper's program at Missouri State from 2013-18, serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator there alongside current UT colleague Jon Harper before spending the 2018-19 season at Ohio State as an assistant coach.

After five seasons in Springfield, Mo., at MSU, Sullivan joined the OSU women's program last season. Her lone year in Columbus found the Buckeyes mixing together five graduate transfers and three freshmen with four returning players. Sullivan played an instrumental role in developing chemistry throughout the campaign. The Buckeyes started the year 4-8 but went on to win 10 of their final 15 regular season games to finish fifth in the Big Ten with a 10-8 mark.

At Missouri State, Sullivan played a significant role in the Lady Bears landing stellar recruiting classes each of her five seasons there. In her first recruiting class at MSU, Sullivan helped land a trio of all-state players from Missouri and another from Illinois that helped the Lady Bears to 79 wins and four postseason appearances during the careers, combining for 439 career games, more than 3,100 points and nearly 1,500 rebounds.

Missouri State's subsequent recruiting classes reinforced the school's strong presence in the region, with players from Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Illinois and Minnesota signing National Letters of Intent.

Prior to making the move to Springfield, Sullivan spent the 2012-13 season as associate head coach for Garry Brodhead at the University of Louisiana in Lafayette, serving as the team's recruiting coordinator while handling guard development and scheduling.

Prior to her stint with the Ragin' Cajuns, Sullivan was an assistant at Arkansas State in her hometown of Jonesboro for three seasons. Sullivan served as ASU's recruiting coordinator in addition to duties with summer camps, academic monitoring and opponent scouting.

PHILLIP FULMER

VICE CHANCELLOR/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

SECOND YEAR AT TENNESSEE
TENNESSEE '72

Phillip Fulmer was appointed as the University of Tennessee's Director of Athletics on Dec. 1, 2017. He accepted the position after serving as the UT system president's special advisor for community, athletics and university relations since June 20, 2017.

Fulmer—a former Tennessee football co-captain who went on to lead the Volunteers to a football national championship and earn first-ballot induction into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame—has faithfully served the University of Tennessee for more than 40 years.

He wasted no time getting to work in the AD chair. Six days after taking the reins of the athletic department at his alma mater, he finalized a deal to make Jeremy Pruitt the 26th head coach in the storied history of the Tennessee football program.

Fulmer had experience in such endeavors, as in 2013 he was tabbed by the administration at ETSU to serve as “special assistant to the athletic director and advisor to football,” providing guidance and expertise as the school sought to restart its football program, which had been dormant for 10 years.

Since taking over as AD, Fulmer also has hired head coaches for volleyball (Eve Rackham), men's golf (Brennan Webb) and Tennessee's storied Lady Vols basketball program (Kellie Harper). He also came to terms on new or extended contracts for several other coaches—including 2019 Naismith National Coach of the Year Rick Barnes.

Under Fulmer's leadership, Tennessee has laid claim to one team SEC championship (men's basketball in 2018), 24 individual SEC championships and three individual/relay NCAA titles.

Fulmer assumed his current duties midway through a year in which Tennessee finished 46th in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup. The Big Orange then improved to 35th in the 2017-18 Directors' Cup standings before ascending higher to a 25th-place finish in 2018-19.

The cornerstones of Tennessee Athletics under Fulmer's leadership are communication, trust, warmth and intensity.

»Communication – Open and honest communication—no surprises—as we pursue our goals.

»Trust – Trust is earned, not given. Every day... be trustworthy.

»Warmth – You know that I care about you, and I know you care about me; together, we care about our student-athletes, our university, our state, our fans and our community.

»Intensity – We attack each day with great intensity to achieve our goals and be the very best at our chosen calling.

Fulmer leaned on those same four pillars while leading his alma mater's storied football program to the most dominant era in its modern history.

Fulmer's 17 years at the helm of the Volunteers program produced a record of 152 wins and 52 losses. At the conclusion of Fulmer's final season, he was the dean of SEC football coaches and no active coach with at least a decade in Division I-A had a better winning percentage (.744).

Under his tutelage, the Volunteers were the first to win the Bowl Championship Series National Championship in 1998 and made five appearances in the SEC Championship game, winning it in 1997 and 1998 and also capturing SEC East titles in 1997, 1998, 2001, 2004 and 2007.

Fulmer was named SEC Coach of the Year and National Coach of the Year in 1998.

A 1972 Tennessee graduate, he starred on the offensive line during his playing career, serving as team co-captain as a senior. The Vols were 30-5 and won an SEC Championship and a Sugar Bowl during his playing career from 1969-71.

He returned to Rocky Top as an assistant coach in 1980 before being named head coach in 1992.

Fulmer built his programs by challenging and motivating his teams to victories when the pressure was highest. Among his many accolades:

»Nine Fulmer-coached squads eclipsed the 10-win mark and two others just missed with nine victories.

»Eighteen of Fulmer's Vols earned first-team All-America honors, 70 Vols garnered first-team All-SEC acclaim and he produced 19 first-round NFL Draft selections and had a total of 101 players selected overall.

»Under Fulmer, the Vols were ranked in the national polls at game time for 169 of his 204 games as head coach.

»Tennessee posted a 44-37 record against teams ranked in the Associated Press Top-25 Poll during his tenure.

»Fulmer is one of only three coaches to produce multiple winners of the Draddy Award (now known as the William V. Campbell Trophy), which recognizes the nation's top academic and athletic student-athlete by The National Football Foundation & College Football Hall of Fame.

Offensive lineman Michael Munoz and quarterback Peyton Manning both received the award under Fulmer's tutelage.

Fulmer's family approach in developing and guiding his young men on and off the field gave him the opportunity to mentor some of the top names in college and NFL history—including Manning, Eric Berry, Chad Clifton, Al Wilson and Jason Witten. Fulmer's motivation was rooted in his role as a principled mentor who pushed his student-athletes to grow socially, spiritually, academically and personally, as well as athletically.

Fulmer's reputation as an ace recruiter led many analysts to praise him as one of the top head coach recruiters. His holistic approach earned recognition from his peers as he was named the second coach in history to earn the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Trophy, the presidency of the American Football Coaches Association, and national, regional and conference coach of the year honors.

His induction into the 2012 National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame on the first ballot was a rare accomplishment, signifying immense respect from his peers. He previously was inducted to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 2001 and the Greater Knoxville Sports Hall of Fame in 2008. He was welcomed into the Tennessee Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

In 2019, Fulmer served as chair of the board of directors for the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

Fulmer's three daughters—Courtney, Brittany and Allison—each graduated from the University of Tennessee's College of Communication & Information. Brittany and Allison also lettered as Lady Vols, competing as a diver and a softball player, respectively. His son, Phillip Jr., lives and works in White House, Tennessee.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Sophomore guard Evina Westbrook's career-high 20 points and seven steals propelled No. 11/12 Tennessee past Presbyterian, 97-49, in both teams' season opener in Thompson-Boling Arena.

The Lady Vols (1-0) forced 39 turnovers in the victory, which is the most since Charlotte committed 40 miscues on Dec. 2, 1992. Tennessee also registered its most steals (22) since compiling 22 vs. ETSU on Dec. 2, 2015.

Overall, Tennessee had six players scoring in double figures, as redshirt senior forward Cheridene Green notched her third career double-double of 13 points and 11 rebounds. The other Lady Vols with 10 or more points included freshman guard/forward Rae Burrell (14), freshman guard Zaay Green (13), senior guard/forward Meme Jackson (11) and sophomore center Kasiyahna Kushitkuah (10). Tennessee recorded 44 points off turnovers and 60 points in the paint while shooting 47 percent from the floor in the win.

After a slow start, the Lady Vols scored seven points in 37 seconds to take their first lead of the game through four minutes of play. Tennessee forced six turnovers in its 16-0 run to end the first quarter. The Lady Vols notched 17 points off turnovers, seven steals and shot 45 percent from the floor en route to a 24-12 lead.

Once again in the second stanza, the Lady Vols were slow out of the gates, as they went on a two-minute scoring drought at the five-minute mark. Tennessee, however, relied on the charity stripe to provide its points. The Lady Vols went 9-of-10 from the free throw line, which is where nearly half of their second quarter points were generated. After forcing three turnovers in the final 1:24 of the quarter, Tennessee took a 46-29 lead into halftime.

Defense remained the name of the game for the Lady Vols in the second half, as the squad went on a 10-0 run to start the third quarter behind six steals and two blocks. Still, a three-minute scoring drought followed for Tennessee, which didn't allow a field goal from the Blue Hose (0-1) until the 4:14 mark of the third quarter. A Jackson deep ball broke the Lady Vols' drought and sparked a 15-3 run to end the quarter. Tennessee held Presbyterian to 11 third-quarter points and went into the fourth quarter with a 74-40 lead.

The Lady Vols took a game-high 40-point lead at the 7:42 mark of the final quarter after a pair of free throws from Burrell, igniting a 9-0 run from Tennessee. The Blue Hose proceeded to turn the ball over six more times over the next five minutes, helping improve the Lady Vols' run to 15-3. Tennessee held Presbyterian to just nine points on 4-of-13 shooting in the final frame to round out the afternoon.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Five Tennessee players scored in double figures, fueling the No. 12/12-ranked Lady Vols to a 73-46 win over UNC Asheville in Thompson-Boling Arena.

Senior guard Meme Jackson led Tennessee (2-0) with a team-high 13 points, while redshirt senior forward Cheridene Green tallied 12 on 5-of-6 shooting to help UT improve to 2-0 on the season.

UNC Asheville (0-2) got 14 points from Sonora Dengoli and 12 from Ali Trani, who was 4-of-9 from beyond the three-point line.

Although shooting 39 percent from the floor on the night, Tennessee hit at a 66.7 percent clip (8-of-12) in the fourth quarter to close the game. The Lady Vols out-rebounded the Bulldogs 46-24 on the glass, including 21-8 on the offensive end, and outscored UNCA 27-2 in second-chance points. UT also forced 20 turnovers by the visitors.

After opening the game shooting one-of-seven from the field, the Lady Vols bounced back with an 11-0 run and held UNC Asheville to a four-minute scoring drought. Green tallied eight of Tennessee's first 13 points to start things off, as the Lady Vols forced three turnovers in the run to go up 15-2. Both teams finished without a shot made for the final three minutes of the quarter, with Tennessee leading 21-8 after 10 minutes of play. Bulldogs senior guard Sonora Dengoli finished with seven of UNC Asheville's eight first-quarter points.

Green was the first Lady Vol in double-digits for points after a layup at the 7:29 mark of the second quarter. Tennessee started the frame with a 7-0 run and held the Bulldogs to yet another scoring drought, this time spanning over four minutes. The Lady Vols capped the half with a 13-0 run, ending an opening 20 minutes in which the Bulldogs spent over 11 minutes in scoring droughts.

UNC Asheville started the third quarter on a 15-6 tie, as the Lady Vols remained scoreless for three minutes. Tennessee also went without a field goal for the final six minutes of the quarter, turning the ball over five times during that span. A last-second three-pointer from the Bulldogs closed the Lady Vols' gap to 52-34 going into the final quarter. Tennessee was ultimately outscored 18-8 in the third quarter and finished out the period shooting 25 percent from the field.

The Lady Vols connected on seven of their first nine shots to open the final quarter, outscoring the Bulldogs 21-12 to finish the game. Davis, Jackson and Westbrook had all but two of Tennessee's points in the final 10 minutes.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- No. 12/12-ranked Tennessee came out hot and never let up in a 96-31 win over Florida A&M in Thompson-Boling Arena.

The Lady Vols began a season 3-0 for the sixth year in a row. The Rattlers fell to 0-3 with the loss.

Sophomore guard/forward Rennia Davis notched her 10th career double-double, scoring 14 points and pulling down a team-high of 11 rebounds on the day. Three other Lady Vols also finished with double-digit scoring, led by senior guard/forward Meme Jackson with 19 points. Jackson also had a career-high six steals with her previous-best being four against Central Arkansas on Nov. 30, 2017.

Freshman guard/forward Rae Burrell had another double-figure performance for UT with 14, while sophomore center Kasiyahna Kushkituah scored 13.

Freshman guard Mya Moya led Florida A&M with seven points, while Auryel Perkins collected five rebounds for the Rattlers.

The Lady Vols came out on fire, opening up the first quarter with a 20-0 scoring run led by Meme Jackson, who scored nine. Tennessee also played aggressive defense from the opening tip, forcing 10 turnovers by the Rattlers and turning those into 19 points for UT. With a 34-10 advantage after the first 10 minutes, the Lady Vols tied for the sixth-most points ever produced in a quarter by the program.

Tennessee kept up the momentum in the second quarter by extending the lead to 58-18 going into halftime, marking the most points scored in a half this season. Keeping up the aggressive offensive effort, the Lady Vols had six different players score from beyond the arc, also the most in a game so far this year and more than any game a year ago.

During the third quarter, Tennessee shot 63.6 percent overall. The Lady Vols went on an 8-0 scoring streak, with Davis tallying six of those points. FAMU was held to only eight points throughout the quarter and committed four turnovers.

In the fourth stanza, Tennessee had another lengthy run, a 16-0 burst, with five different Lady Vols scoring in that timeframe. UT didn't let up on the defensive side of the ball, either, as FAMU only had five points during the quarter, tying for the fourth fewest ever by an opponent.

BIMINI, Bahamas -- No. 11/11 Tennessee used a 13-0 run in the fourth quarter to pull away and defeat Clemson, 78-66, in the opening game of the 2018 Women's Junkanoo Jam at Gateway Christian Academy.

Entering the final period knotted up at 54, the Lady Vols outscored the Tigers 24-12 in the final stanza to improve to 4-0 on the season. Clemson, which previously lost by 12 in Columbia to No. 13/12 South Carolina, fell to 2-3.

Senior guard/forward Meme Jackson led UT in scoring, riding 4-of-9 shooting from beyond the arc to tally 14 points. Junior forward Rennia Davis was right behind Jackson with 13 points, followed by freshman Zaay Green with 12, senior forward Cheridene Green with 11 points and eight rebounds, and sophomore center Kasiyahna Kushkituah with 11 points and six boards.

Clemson had three in double figures, with Danielle Edwards and Simone Westbrook each firing in 19. Kobi Thornton added 10. The Lady Vols tallied 14 steals, forcing the Tigers into 23 turnovers, and out-rebounded CU, 41-32.

The first quarter was a back-and-forth affair, with each team trying to gain its footing. The Lady Vols led 7-4 at the first media timeout with 4:45 to go, getting field goals from Davis and Zaay Green, and a three-pointer from Jackson. Clemson, however, would shrug off a 14-8 rebounding deficit and nine turnovers to finish the quarter with a 17-16 lead after shooting 7-of-13 on field goals. UT, meanwhile, hit on 7-of-20 shots, with seven different players getting on the scoreboard.

The second period saw the Lady Vols surge to a six-point lead at 27-21 with 6:20 to go after Jackson hit her third three of the game and then fed Kushkituah for a lay-up inside. The Tigers fought back, however, outscoring UT 11-5 the rest of the way to forge a 32-all tie at the intermission. Jackson's nine points led UT, while Kushkituah added seven. Simone Westbrook paced Clemson with 12 on 5-of-10 shooting.

UT would lead by as many as seven during the third quarter, going on top 52-45 with 2:46 to go after a Jackson three. Clemson clawed back into it, though, outscoring UT 7-2 to send the game to the final frame deadlocked at 54.

The fourth period looked to mirror the first three, with the teams swapping baskets to make it 58-all with 7:38 remaining. Clemson wouldn't score again, however, until 1:56 remained, suffering the onslaught of a 13-0 Tennessee run that put the Lady Vols up, 71-60, with 2:19 to go. UT would hold off the Tigers with 5-of-6 free throw shooting in the final period and finished the game at 71 percent (10-14).

UT shot 60 percent (9-15) from the field in the fourth to close out the game, with Zaay Green (8), Davis (6) and Cheridene Green (5) scoring 19 of UT's 24 final-stanza points. The Lady Vols, meanwhile, held Clemson to 5-of-13 shooting and forced six fourth-quarter turnovers to seal the deal.

BIMINI, Bahamas -- No. 11/11 Tennessee came from 12 points down in the fourth quarter to send the game to overtime and seize a hard-fought victory over UAB, 73-69, in the Junkanoo Division title game at the 2018 Women's Junkanoo Jam.

Sophomore forward Renna Davis, who was named the tournament MVP, led the Lady Vols (5-0) with 18 points, including three huge second-half three-pointers at Gateway Christian Academy Gymnasium. Sophomore point guard Evinia Westbrook tossed in 16 points, followed by sophomore center Kasiyahna Kushitkuah, who registered her first career double-double with 13 points and 13 rebounds.

Senior Meme Jackson, who had 14 points in Thursday's win over Clemson, had eight points and eight boards vs. UAB and joined Davis on the all-tournament team.

UAB, which led by 10 points entering the fourth frame, fell to 4-1 with its first setback of the season. The Blazers were paced by junior forwards Katelynn Thomas and Rachael Childress, who tallied 19 points each. Junior guard Miyah Barnes chipped in 13, while senior guard Deanna Kuzmanic had 10.

The upset-minded Blazers upped their lead to 12 early in the fourth period at 58-46 and had a 60-48 advantage with 8:08 to go. Davis, however, stared that deficit in the face and made some big plays, draining three consecutive long-range threes that cut the gap to six, 63-57, with 5:20 to go. After a Kuzmanic layup with 5:07 remaining made it 65-57 Blazers, UT didn't allow UAB another point in regulation.

A three by Westbrook started a game-closing 8-0 run, followed by a layup from Kushitkuah, a free throw from Westbrook and a layup from Westbrook with 52 seconds to go that knotted it up at 65-all. After UAB's Kuzmanic missed a pair of free throws that would have put her team up two with 28 seconds left, the Lady Vols had the final possession and two shots at the basket before settling for overtime.

In the extra frame, UAB struck first with Barnes hitting a jumper to put UAB up, 67-65, with 3:39 to go. UT responded with a three-point play by Kushitkuah to move ahead, 68-67. A Westbrook driving layup with 2:54 to go and a free throw by the sophomore with 16 seconds left gave the Lady Vols a slight 71-67 cushion. Davis and Westbrook each hit one of two free throws inside the final 11 minutes to offset a Barnes jumper with six ticks left to close out the game.

The Lady Vols outscored UAB 19-9 in the fourth quarter and 8-4 in OT to claim a dramatic, come-from-behind victory. UT limited the Blazers to 3-of-13 shooting (23.1%) in the final stanza while hitting seven of 15 (46.7%). In overtime, both teams were two of eight from the field, but UT outscored UAB at the free throw line, 4-0, and out-rebounded the Blazers, seven to four.

STILLWATER, Okla. -- Sophomore Evinia Westbrook poured in a career-high 29 points to lead No. 11/11 Tennessee to a gritty road win over Oklahoma State in Gallagher-Iba Arena, 76-63.

Sophomore Renna Davis and freshman Zaay Green were also in double figures for Tennessee (6-0) with 17 and 13, respectively, with Green posting a new career high. Cheridene Green was a presence on the boards, pulling down a career-best 13 rebounds.

The Cowgirls (6-1) were led in scoring by Braxtin Miller, who finished the day with 29 points. Also in double digits for OSU were Jaden Hobbs, who went 4-of-6 from behind the arc for 12 points, and Vivian Gray, who tallied 14 points.

Meme Jackson got off to a fast start for the Lady Vols, grabbing a rebound and driving the full length of the court to score Tennessee's first points on a layup before then forcing the Cowgirls into a turnover on the inbounds pass. UT was hot from the floor in the opening minutes, hitting eight of its first nine shots and with all five starters contributing to its first 10 points.

The Lady Vols jumped out to a 14-7 lead before OSU battled back, cutting it to 14-12 off a pair of free throws by Abbie Winchester with 3:48 in the period. Tennessee battled back to extend its lead to 25-17 with just over a minute in the quarter, but OSU closed out the stanza with a 5-0 run to cut UT's lead to 25-22 at the end of the first.

Just over two and a half minutes into the second quarter, OSU tied it up at 29-all on a Hobbs 3-pointer before taking its first lead on the next possession off a Miller layup. The teams traded baskets until Miller knocked down a trey to end the half, putting Oklahoma State up 43-40.

Westbrook kicked things off in the second half, knocking down a three on UT's first possession to kick off a 17-3 run that put the Lady Vols up 57-46 midway through the third quarter. Tennessee capitalized on six forced turnovers in the period and took a 61-49 lead into the final stanza.

The Cowgirls chipped away at UT's lead to start the fourth stanza, pulling within five by the 4:18 mark. Zaay Green and Cheridene Green hit back-to-back buckets to turn the tide for the Lady Vols, however, extending UT's lead to 70-61 with 3:20 left in the game. OSU answered with a pair of made free throws, but Westbrook poured in another six points and Tennessee sealed a 76-63 victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- The sophomore duo of Renna Davis and Evina Westbrook combined for 44 points to lead No. 9/9 Tennessee to a 65-55 victory over Stetson in Thompson-Boling Arena.

Davis (24 points and nine rebounds) and Westbrook (20 points) combined to hit 20 of 21 free throws in the win, as the Lady Vols finished 25 of 30 for the game from the charity stripe for 83.3 percent. Freshman Zaaay Green tallied eight points and five rebounds, while Mimi Collins was strong on the glass with seven points and seven rebounds.

After being held to just 22 points at the half, Tennessee (7-0) rallied with a 22-0 run in the third quarter to outscore the Hatters 43-17 in the second half. Westbrook and Davis led the charge for the Lady Vols with 30 combined points in the final two quarters.

Stetson (1-7) was led by redshirt-senior forward Sarah Sagerer, who logged 19 points and six rebounds. Addi Walters was the only other Hatter with double-digit points (17), as she displayed 3-of-5 accuracy from deep range.

Tennessee got down early, as Stetson rode a 16-8 run on 5-of-6 shooting from the field to start the game. The Hatters hit three shots from beyond-the-arc and tallied eight points off turnovers in the first quarter. Stetson's 62 percent shooting from the field granted them a 23-15 lead through 10 minutes of play. Five Lady Vols players logged points in the quarter but shot just one of six from three-point range. Meanwhile, 20 of the Hatters first-quarter points came from two players, Walters and Sagerer.

Not much changed for Tennessee to begin the second quarter, as it missed its first three shots and Stetson shot out on a 9-0 run. The first points of the quarter for the Lady Vols came on a pair of free throws from Davis after five minutes of play. The Hatters took a 38-22 lead at halftime, as Tennessee registered 13 first half turnovers. Davis and Westbrook led the Lady Vols with 14 combined points at the halfway point.

Behind Westbrook's seven points early on, Tennessee hit its stride to start the second half and cut the Stetson lead to single digits after the Hatters had initially pushed their lead to 42-22, with 7:29 to go in the third. The Lady Vols forced four Hatters turnovers and a four-minute scoring drought to cut the lead to 42-37 halfway through the period. A three-pointer from Davis at the 2:43 mark gave Tennessee the lead and its longest run of the year (22-0). The Lady Vols outscored Stetson 22-6 in the stanza, going into the fourth quarter tied up at 44 points apiece.

The Lady Vols jumped out to a six-point run and held the Hatters to a near three-minute scoring drought to start the fourth quarter. Westbrook and Davis took over, meshing for 10 of Tennessee's first 14 points. Another near three-minute scoring drought for Stetson gave the Lady Vols a 60-53 lead with one minute remaining in the game. Tennessee iced the contest with a pair of free throws from Westbrook to claim a 10-point win.

AUSTIN, Texas -- Senior Meme Jackson logged a career-high 33 points to lift the No. 9/9 Lady Vols to an 88-82 victory over No. 12/12 Texas in the Frank Erwin Center.

Sophomore Evina Westbrook posted 23 points for her third straight 20+ point performance. Cheridene Green was also in double figures for Tennessee (8-0), adding 10 points and six rebounds.

Texas (7-2) was led in scoring by Audrey Warren with 21 points. Danni Williams, Destiny Littleton and Sug Sutton were also in double digits for the Longhorns with 14, 13 and 11, respectively.

Texas led by as many as 11 points in the first quarter, fueled by a 47.1 field goal percentage and 12 first-quarter points from Warren, but Jackson hit two foul shots at the end of the period to cut the deficit to nine at 23-14.

Jackson carried that momentum into the second quarter, converting an and-one on Tennessee's first possession to cut Texas' lead to six. The teams traded buckets until Tennessee mounted a 10-0 run to take the lead at 29-27 with 4:56 to play in the half. Jackson hit back-to-back treys to close out the quarter, giving Tennessee a 40-35 lead at the break. After allowing Texas to shoot eight of 17 from the floor in the first quarter, the Lady Vols held the Longhorns without a field goal for more than eight minutes in the second period.

The Longhorns came out firing in the second half with Williams connecting on a long-range three on their first possession. With just under five minutes to play in the quarter Texas tied it up at 52-all on a Sutton layup, but Tennessee answered with a 7-0 run to move ahead 59-52 at the 2:44 mark. The Lady Vols maintained a lead through the rest of the period, entering the final stanza up 62-57.

Texas pulled within two at 65-63 with 7:06 left in the game, but a three-point play by Westbrook and a quick trey from Mimi Collins extended the Lady Vols' lead to 71-65 less than a minute later. The Longhorns rallied again, pulling within one with just over three minutes to play, but the Lady Vols hit nine free throws in the closing minutes to secure an 88-82 victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Sophomore guard Evinia Westbrook tallied a career-highing 29 points and dished out 10 assists, as No. 9/8 ranked Tennessee fell 95-85 to No. 8/9 Stanford in Thompson-Boling Arena.

Sophomore forward Rennia Davis joined Westbrook in notching a double-double (14 points and 10 rebounds), carding her second of the season and 11th of her career. Senior guard/forward Meme Jackson (17) and freshman guard Zaay Green (14) were the other Tennessee players with double-digit points in the contest. Westbrook became the first Lady Vol since Candace Parker in 2007-08 to register four-straight 20-point games.

Stanford (8-1) was led by a 33-point and 13-rebound performance by Dijonai Carrington, as the Cardinal hit 58 percent of their three-point shots (14 of 24). Four other Stanford players scored in double figures, including Alanna Smith and Kiana Williams with 16 each, fueled by 3-of-4 shooting from three-point range. Lacie Hull tossed in 14, hitting four of five treys, while Maya Dodson chipped in 10.

A 3-for-5 start from deep range propelled Stanford to a 13-5 lead in the first five minutes of the game. Tennessee connected on just three of 10 shots to start, with its first 10 points coming from Davis and Cheridene Green. Despite the shaky start, a Jackson 3-pointer and a layup from Westbrook cut the Cardinal lead to 22-17 through ten minutes of play. Green led the Lady Vols with six first-quarter points and three rebounds.

Jackson kicked the second quarter off for Tennessee with a 3-pointer, cutting the Lady Vol deficit to just two points. Stanford, however, answered by hitting its first three shots of the second quarter, including two 3-pointers. Williams notched nine points from beyond the arc, as the Cardinal shot 9-for-15 from deep in the first half. Tennessee cut the Stanford lead to 47-37 prior to the break, with Westbrook leading the Lady Vols with 15 points over the first 20 minutes.

Tennessee fought back within three points of the lead after forcing four turnovers and shooting 5-for-7 from the floor in the first three minutes of the second half. The Lady Vols tallied a 19-8 start behind seven points from Westbrook and took their first lead of the game at the 5:21 mark in the third quarter. The Cardinal responded with a 9-0 run to end the quarter, as Stanford held a 67-62 lead going into the final frame.

Zaay Green scored five quick points for Tennessee to begin the final stanza, but the Cardinal answered back with a 6-0 run. The Lady Vols faced an eight-point deficit with a little over three minutes remaining in the game. A Stanford 3-pointer extended the Cardinal lead to 89-77 with two minutes remaining, and a pair of free throws from Williams iced the 95-85 victory for the Cardinal.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Senior wing Meme Jackson fired in 23 points to help No. 9/8 Tennessee head into the holiday break at 9-1 with an 80-61 win over ETSU in Thompson-Boling Arena.

Senior Cheridene Green (12 points), sophomore Rennia Davis (11 points and seven rebounds) and freshman Mimi Collins (11 points and six rebounds) joined Jackson as double-digit scorers for the Lady Vols, who bounced back from a loss to No. 8/9 Stanford on Tuesday night.

Jackson notched 21 of her 23 points from beyond the arc on 7-of-12 shooting from deep, tying for the fourth-most treys made by a Lady Vol in a single game. Collins, meanwhile, tallied 10 or more points for the first time in her career at Tennessee. Freshman Jazmine Massengill led the Lady Vols defensively with nine rebounds, five blocks and a pair of steals. Tennessee held the Buccaneers to 31-percent shooting on the night and won the rebounding battle by a 50-33 margin.

The Lady Vols kicked off the first quarter on an 11-3 run, where they held ETSU to just 1-of-8 shooting from the field. Tennessee tallied five second-chance points in the run and six points in the paint. The Buccaneers cut the Lady Vol lead down to just four points after hitting a 3-pointer at the 3:08 mark. The Lady Vols were outscored 14-13 for the remainder of the quarter, giving the home team a 22-14 advantage going into the second quarter. Davis led Tennessee with nine points and four rebounds in the first quarter.

After allowing six quick points from ETSU J to start the second stanza, the Lady Vols held the Buccaneers to 0-of-5 shooting and a three-minute scoring drought. Tennessee shot just 38 percent from the floor, however, leaving the door open for a comeback by ETSU. The Lady Vols went into the half with a 38-28 lead, with half of their points coming from the duo of Davis and Cheridene Green. Tennessee held the Buccaneers to just 30 percent shooting and a 2-of-10 clip from beyond the arc in the first half.

ETSU shot out to a 6-3 run in the third quarter, but a pair of 3-pointers from Jackson put the Lady Vols back on track. Jackson's third 3-pointer of the quarter gave Tennessee a 53-40 lead with three minutes remaining in the quarter. The Lady Vols went on to hold the Buccaneers to 1-of-11 shooting and a three-minute scoring drought. Tennessee rounded out the third quarter on a 14-2 run, giving the Lady Vols a 62-44 lead going into the final frame. Jackson propelled Tennessee with a total of 14 points on 4-of-5 shooting from deep range.

The Lady Vols took their largest lead of the game (23 points) with a layup from Massengill at the halfway point of the final quarter. ETSU had a three-minute interval without a field goal made in the fourth quarter, and the Lady Vols finished out the final five minutes of regulation without a field goal as well. Tennessee wrapped up the 80-61 victory behind a pair of 3-pointers and 45 percent shooting from the floor in the fourth quarter.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- No. 10/10 Tennessee led by as many as 18 points before holding off a late rally to secure an 84-76 victory over Belmont in front of a season-best crowd of 8,546 in Thompson-Boling Arena.

The Bruins (7-4) rallied from a 16-point halftime deficit to take their first lead since the opening minutes of the game with a 22-6 run in the second half. The Lady Vols (11-1), however, closed out the game on a 19-10 run to earn the victory.

Evinia Westbrook led the way for Tennessee with 20 points, seven assists and six rebounds. The sophomore guard had 11 points in the fourth quarter alone to resurrect the Lady Vols' offense after they managed only eight third-quarter points. It marked the sixth time in her career that Westbrook eclipsed the 20-point mark in a game, with all six occasions coming this season.

Sophomore forward Rennia Davis posted another strong performance, finishing with 19 points and six boards. Senior Meme Jackson and freshman Zaay Green both chipped in 10 points each to round out the double-digit scorers for the Lady Vols. Westbrook and freshman guard Jazmine Massengill dished out seven and five assists, respectively, as the Lady Vols ended up with 19 overall.

The Bruins (7-4) were led by a double-double from Ellie Harmeyer, who had 20 points and 10 rebounds. She had 16 points in the second half to give Belmont a chance.

The Lady Vols came out with the hot hand from deep in the first quarter, knocking down six 3-pointers to take a 26-20 lead. Davis was 3-of-3 from beyond the arc in the period and led all scorers with nine points. Belmont took a 10-6 lead early on, but Tennessee responded with an 11-0 run.

In the second period, UT used its size advantage to build a 16-point lead going into halftime, as six of the Lady Vols' 10 baskets in the quarter came in the paint. Tennessee sustained its success from the arc as well, knocking down nine 3-pointers before intermission, which was one short of the season high for three in a game.

UT shot a 53-percent clip (19-of-36) from the field in the first half to take a 51-35 lead into the break over the Bruins.

The Bruins wouldn't go away easily, though, outscoring the Lady Vols 23-8 in the third quarter to pull within one heading into the final period. Belmont ended the frame on a 16-2 run to make it a 59-58 game in favor of UT.

Belmont grabbed the lead, 64-63, with 6:12 remaining and again at 66-65, with 5:27 to go, causing some concern from the partisan crowd. The Lady Vols, however, used 8-of-13 accuracy from the field and 9-of-12 shooting from the free throw line in the fourth quarter, while holding Belmont to 8-of-22 on field goals, to turn back the Bruins' upset bid.

AUBURN, Ala. – The No. 10/10 Lady Vols (12-1, 1-0 SEC) shot a season-high 54.0 percent from the floor to claim their first SEC win of the season at Auburn (12-2, 0-1 SEC), 78-69.

Senior Meme Jackson went five of eight from behind the arc and a perfect 6-of-6 from the line to lead Tennessee in scoring with 27 points. Sophomore Renna Davis managed her fourth double-double of the season with 21 points and a career-high tying 14 rebounds. Zaay Green also found her way into double digits with 10 points while setting career highs in both rebounds and assists with eight and seven, respectively.

The Tigers were led by Unique Thompson who posted a double-double with 19 points and 12 rebounds. Crystal Primm was their second highest scorer with 16 points, while Daia Alexander added 13.

Auburn started the game strong, scoring three points and forcing a turnover in the opening minute of the game, but Jackson answered, knocking down her first 3-pointer of the contest at the 8:52 mark. While Jackson scored from the perimeter, Renna Davis found success inside, racking up seven points by the 4:28 mark to put Tennessee ahead 16-12. Auburn answered by closing out the quarter with a 6-1 run, taking an 18-17 lead into the second period.

The Tigers went up by three on their first possession of the second stanza, but Jackson responded again with a trey to tie it at 20 before Evin Westbrook also got in on the action, hitting a three herself to put UT up 23-20 with 8:15 to play in the half. The Lady Vols went on to lead 27-22 before Auburn rallied back with an 8-0 run, taking a 30-27 lead with 2:23 to play in the half. Jackson again answered, nailing her third trey of the game to knot it up at 30-all on the next possession. Both teams added five points to their tally by the end of the period, making it 35-35 at the half.

Tennessee took its first lead of the second half via a Davis 3-pointer just under two minutes into the third period. The teams traded buckets through the media timeout, after which UT launched an 11-4 run to go ahead 56-48 with two minutes remaining in the stanza. The Lady Vols maintained their eight-point advantage, taking a 58-50 lead into the final quarter.

The Tigers opened the fourth with two straight threes by Erin Howard, cutting UT's lead to 58-56 with 8:53 left in the game. Davis countered with an old-fashioned three-point play off a Zaay Green assist. Auburn rallied with a 6-0 run to take a one-point lead with 5:41 to play before UT hit back-to-back buckets to go up 65-62. The Tigers would reclaim a one-point lead off a Thompson layup at the 4:16 mark, but the Lady Vols replied with a 6-0 run and hit seven of eight free throws in the final two minutes to walk away with a huge 78-69 victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – No. 10/10 Tennessee was edged out by Missouri, 66-64, in its SEC home opener in front of a season-high crowd of 9,113 in Thompson-Boling Arena.

Tennessee trailed by five points with less than 90 seconds remaining but fought back and had a shot to tie at the buzzer. Renna Davis' runner in the lane fell short.

Davis and Evin Westbrook led the way for Tennessee (12-2, 1-1 SEC) with 16 points each. Cheridene Green finished with 13 points and 14 rebounds, her second double-double of the season and a career-high mark on the boards.

Missouri (13-3, 2-0 SEC) was paced by senior guard Sophie Cunningham, who finished with 20 points, six rebounds and six assists.

The contest was back-and-forth for the entire game, as the lead changed 13 times and neither team ever held a lead larger than five points.

Missouri was threatening to pull away late, taking a 65-60 lead with just under two minutes to play. On the ensuing Lady Vol possession, however, freshman Zaay Green drove to the basket and converted a three-point play to cut the deficit to two points. A free throw by Westbrook on Tennessee's next possession trimmed Missouri's lead to one.

After another stop by the Tennessee defense, the Lady Vols had an opportunity to take the lead, but a 15-foot jump shot by Davis rimmed in and out. Cunningham then converted a free throw to extend Missouri's lead to two points just before Davis' final shot missed at the buzzer.

The opening half of play was just as close as the second. A driving layup by Westbrook with seven seconds remaining in the half gave Tennessee a 25-24 halftime lead to close out an opening 20 minutes that was a defensive battle on both ends.

Neither team built an advantage larger than four points, while the lead changed hands eight times.

Westbrook led the way for the Lady Vols in the first half with 11 points, while no player for Missouri had more than six.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- The No. 13-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols fell, 73-71, to the 16th-ranked Kentucky Wildcats in Thompson-Boling Arena.

The Lady Vols (12-3, 1-2 SEC) trailed by two points after a pair of free throws from Meme Jackson with one minute remaining, but a three-pointer from Wildcats guard Jaida Roper put the game out of reach for the Big Orange.

Sophomore point guard Evina Westbrook led the charge offensively for the Lady Vols with 20 points, marking her seventh performance of the season of 20 or more points, and added six rebounds. Sophomore Rennaia Davis (21 points) and freshman Mimi Collins (career-high-tying 11 points) were the other Tennessee players with double-digit scoring. Senior Cheridene Green dominated the glass with a career-high 15 rebounds.

Kentucky (15-2, 2-1 SEC) was propelled by a 27-point night from senior guard Maci Morris, who connected at a 4-of-6 clip from deep range and shot over 60 percent from the field.

The Lady Vols fought from behind the entire game and cut the Wildcats' lead to four points six times in the fourth quarter and then shaved the edge to two with 1:43 remaining.

Kentucky kicked off the first quarter on a 7-0 run on 3-of-4 shooting, with Tennessee first getting on the scoreboard at the 7:10 mark with a layup from Westbrook. The Lady Vols started off the game 1-of-6 from the field, as the Wildcats rushed to a 19-5 lead at the halfway point of the quarter. Despite their rough start shooting, Tennessee found some life after holding Kentucky to a two-minute scoring drought. A last-second layup to finish the first quarter cut the Wildcats' lead to 27-16 after 10 minutes of play.

The Lady Vols defense clamped down to begin the second quarter, and an and-one from Westbrook at the 5:37 mark cut the Tennessee deficit to just eight points. However, the Lady Vols failed to score in the three following minutes, going 0-for-6 from the floor in the span. While dominating the boards by a 29-16 margin in the first half, Tennessee was unable to take advantage of second-chance opportunities. Still, a team-high 11-point first-half performance from Collins helped the Lady Vols trim a 17-point UK lead to a 38-28 deficit at halftime.

The Lady Vols' shooting woes continued, as ZaaY Green provided all but one of Tennessee's points through six minutes of play in the third quarter. The Lady Vols faced a 53-38 climb with two minutes remaining in the quarter, as only three Tennessee players scored through eight minutes into the second half. The Lady Vols clawed back into the game behind a pair of 3-pointers from Rennaia Davis to end the quarter. Davis' clutch 3-pointers were Tennessee's first of the game and presented the Lady Vols a 58-46 deficit going into the final quarter.

Tennessee stormed back with a Meme Jackson 3-pointer, followed by a post layup from Cheridene Green that cut the Kentucky lead to just four points with five minutes left in regulation. The Lady Vols held the Wildcats to just 1-of-6 shooting from the floor to start the fourth quarter, while firing in shots at a 5-of-6 clip on the other end.

After cutting the Kentucky lead to just two points with under two minutes remaining, a dagger 3-pointer from Roper extended the Wildcats' lead to 69-64. Kentucky iced the game at the free throw line, giving the Wildcats a 73-71 victory.

ATHENS, Ga. -- Sophomore point guard Evina Westbrook poured in 10 points in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough to overcome a third-quarter UT shooting slump and Georgia's second-half rally as UT fell at Stegeman Coliseum, 66-62.

There were five ties and 10 lead changes in the contest. Westbrook led Tennessee (12-4, 1-3 SEC) in scoring with a game-high 23 points, logging her eighth 20+ point performance of the season. Rennaia Davis had six points and 12 rebounds, while Cheridene also added six points and 10 rebounds.

Caliya Robinson was Georgia's (12-5, 3-1 SEC) high scorer with 16. Gabby Connally had 13, while Taja Cole and Jenna Staiti each had 12.

Meme Jackson gave Tennessee its first lead of the game, knocking down a three on UT's first possession to go up 3-2 in the opening minute. The lead changed four times before an Evina Westbrook layup with 5:21 left in the period set off a 15-1 run by the Lady Vols to put them up 22-10 by the end of the first.

The Lady Bulldogs started the second quarter outscoring Tennessee, 6-2, but the Lady Vols answered with an 8-0 run to take a 16-point lead by the 3:13 mark. UT pushed the lead to 17 with 2:20 remaining in the period on a pair of Davis free throws. Robinson and Stephanie Paul combined for seven points for Georgia in the closing minutes of the half, including a Robinson put-back just before the buzzer to pull the Lady Bulldogs within 12, 36-24.

Tennessee's shooting went cold to start the second half, with the Lady Vols going 0-for-5 from the floor while Georgia cut the lead to six. ZaaY Green banked in a 3-pointer with 6:30 to play in the period to put UT back up by nine. UT's shooting woes continued, however, and Georgia tied the game at 41-41 after back-to-back treys by Taja Cole. The teams traded buckets with UT going up 47-46 off a pair of Westbrook free throws. Cole again answered for the Lady Bulldogs, though, hitting her third 3-pointer of the day at the buzzer to give Georgia a 49-47 lead going into the final stanza.

Neither team shot well from the floor to begin the fourth, with Tennessee starting 1-4 and Georgia going 1-8 during the first three and a half minutes. The Lady Bulldogs then hit back-to-back layups to go up 57-50 before Westbrook knocked down a jumper to cut the lead to five. UT followed that up with three defensive stops and Westbrook converted buckets on three straight possessions to pull the Big Orange to within one with 3:37 to play. The Lady Bulldogs answered with four straight points, and Tennessee would cut it back to one once more with just over a minute left in the game. The Lady Vols, however, couldn't overcome the deficit, falling to UGA, 66-62.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Zaay Green recorded her first career double-double and No. 20/17 Tennessee out-rebounded Alabama, 49-44, but it wasn't enough to overcome a UA team that shot a blistering 50 percent from the floor en route to an 86-65 Tide victory in Tuscaloosa.

Sophomore Evina Westbrook was Tennessee's (12-5, 1-4 SEC) high scorer with 19 points and five assists. Zaay Green finished the day with 14 points and 11 rebounds, while fellow freshman Rae Burrell managed 12 points and seven rebounds.

Alabama (10-8, 2-3 SEC) was led by junior Cierra Johnson, who had 17 points and seven rebounds. Ariyah Copeland finished with 16 points and nine rebounds, while Shaquera Wade added 15 points.

The Lady Vols led by one on two occasions and out-rebounded Alabama 12 to nine in the opening quarter, but the Crimson Tide rode three-of-six shooting from behind the arc and a 52.9 field goal percentage to a 22-18 lead by the end of the first stanza. Nine players saw action for Tennessee in the first period with six of them contributing at least two points.

With 6:33 remaining in the half the Crimson Tide pulled ahead by six points, but Zaay Green and Kasiyahna Kushkituah combined for five straight points to put Tennessee within one by the media timeout. The Lady Vols took their first lead of the quarter off a Zaay Green 3-pointer with 2:23 remaining in the half. Alabama rallied with five quick points, but Evina Westbrook knocked down a 15-foot jumper to send UT into the locker room down two at 36-34.

The teams traded baskets in the opening minute and a half of the second half before a Copeland layup launched a 7-0 run by the Crimson Tide, giving the home team a 45-36 lead at the 7:36 mark. Zaay Green broke the drought for UT, driving and converting on a 10-foot jumper in the lane to set off a 10-2 run to pull UT within one with 4:21 to play in the third. UA rallied back, building back a five-point lead to go into the final stanza up 60-55.

Alabama had the hot hand in the fourth quarter, while Tennessee's offense fell cold, and the Crimson Tide went nine of 17 to outscore the Lady Vols 26-10 in the fourth quarter and close out the victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Despite an 18-point second-half performance from sophomore point guard Evina Westbrook, the No. RV/17 Tennessee Lady Vols fell to Arkansas, 80-79, at Thompson-Boling Arena. Westbrook's game-winning 3-point attempt came up short, as the Lady Vols fell in their first of two home "We Back Pat" games.

Westbrook led Tennessee with 24 points and five assists, while freshman guard Zaay Green (17 points and six rebounds) and senior forward Cheridene Green (15 points and 12 rebounds) had productive nights. Cheridene Green dominated the glass and recorded her third double-double of the year on 5-of-9 shooting. Nine Lady Vols scored on the night, with six Tennessee players notching four or more rebounds.

The Razorbacks had three players with at least 10 points, as senior guard Malica Monk led Arkansas with 23 points. Chelsea Dungee (19 points) and Alexis Tolefree (16 points) were the other Razorbacks with double-digit points. Arkansas logged 12 3-pointers and 20 points off turnovers in the win.

The Lady Vols kicked off the first quarter on an 11-4 run behind a pair of buckets from Zaay Green, while the Razorbacks shot 1-of-7 from the floor to start the game. Tolefree answered for Arkansas by hitting a trio of 3-pointers to give the Razorbacks a 17-13 lead with two minutes remaining in the first quarter. Tennessee shot 1-of-10 from the field to finish the quarter while holding Arkansas without a field goal for the final three minutes. Arkansas managed to take a 20-15 lead into the second quarter after each team shot 25 percent from the floor in the opening frame.

The Razorbacks found their groove early in the second quarter, recording a 7-0 run in just over a minute. Tennessee shot 30 percent from the field, while Arkansas hit 7-of-13 from the field to begin the second frame. A 3-pointer from Raven Northcross-Baker gave the Razorbacks their largest lead of the game (13) at the 2:28 mark of the quarter. Still, the Lady Vols charged back with a 6-0 run to finish the first half, cutting the Arkansas lead to 40-31 at the break. Eight Tennessee players recorded points through 20 minutes of play, with Zaay Green leading the Lady Vols at the intermission with 11 points and four rebounds.

Tennessee bounced back at the opening of the second half, as the Lady Vols cut the Razorbacks' lead to just three points after an one-and-one from Cheridene Green at the 6:32 mark. Arkansas, though, stayed hot from deep range by hitting three 3-pointers in under a minute, extending its lead back to double digits. Westbrook, however, powered the Lady Vols back into the game with 16 third-quarter points, and a Rae Burrell three cut the Tennessee deficit to 63-59 going into the final quarter.

Cheridene Green tied up the game for the Lady Vols with a jumper at the 8:01 mark of the fourth quarter, followed by a 3-pointer from Rennia Davis that gave Tennessee a 66-63 lead. Davis' bucket was the caper on a 10-point run that bridged the third and fourth stanzas.Tennessee held the Razorbacks to 1-of-7 shooting to start the fourth quarter, with Arkansas first getting on the board at the 7:18 mark. After trading buckets for several minutes, a jumper from Monk gave the Razorbacks an 80-79 lead with three seconds remaining in the game. Following a UT timeout, Westbrook's game-winning 3-point attempt off an inbound play fell short, giving Arkansas the victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Freshman guard Zaay Green scored 15 points in the first half to put UT up 34-31 at the break, but No. 1/1 Notre Dame rallied in the second half to grab a 77-62 win in Thompson-Boling Arena.

Green finished the game with a career-high 19 points, eight rebounds and five assists. Sophomore point guard Evina Westbrook was Tennessee's (12-7, 1-5 SEC) second highest scorer with 16 points, while senior forward Cheridene Green pulled down a team-high 11 rebounds for her seventh double-digit rebound game of the season.

Despite a four-point first-half performance, Arike Ogunbowale finished as the leading scorer for the Irish (19-1, 6-0 ACC) with 28 points, while three other Notre Dame players posted double-digit points. Jackie Young recorded a triple-double with 16 points, 13 rebounds, 10 assists and only two turnovers.

The Lady Vols dominated on both ends of the court early on, as they held Notre Dame without a field goal for over three minutes to start the game. Tennessee took an 8-4 lead over halfway through the quarter, thanks to second chance points that came courtesy of Kasiyahna Kushitkua and Cheridene Green's eight combined rebounds.

The Lady Vols followed up with a 7-0 run and forced the Irish on another three-minute scoring drought late in the first quarter. Notre Dame, however, hit its final four shots of the quarter to cut the Tennessee lead to 17-14 after 10 minutes of play. Westbrook, Davis and Zaay Green chipped in for 13 of the Lady Vols' first-quarter points.

Tennessee continued its hot streak into the second quarter, with Zaay Green's quick seven points giving the Lady Vols a 26-18 lead. The Irish bounced back, though, hitting their next six shots to cut the Tennessee lead to just one point with under four minutes remaining in the first half.

Notre Dame took its first lead of the game at the 3:12 mark of the second quarter on a layup from Brianna Turner. Once again, Zaay Green refused to let the Lady Vols falter, as a pair of layups from the true freshman put Tennessee back on top 34-31 going into the half. Green racked up 15 points, five rebounds and four assists before halftime.

Ogunbowale found her rhythm and led the Irish on a 12-4 run to start the second half and regain a 41-38 lead with 6:29 left in the third quarter. Meanwhile, the Lady Vols were held to a two-minute scoring drought, where they turned over the ball three times in the span. Five different Lady Vols combined for just 12 points in the third quarter, as Notre Dame took a 55-46 lead into the final stanza.

Notre Dame opened up the fourth quarter on a 7-0 run, giving the Irish their largest lead of the contest. Tennessee clawed back into the game by hitting its next three shots, but the Irish kept the Lady Vols at an arm's reach from the charity stripe. Tennessee was held to just 16 points in the fourth quarter on 6-of-9 shooting from the floor.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – The Lady Vols went 17-of-20 from the free throw line in the fourth quarter to secure their third straight victory, defeating rival Vanderbilt, 82-65, in Memorial Gymnasium.

Sophomore Evina Westbrook led UT (5-7, 4-5 SEC) in scoring with 18 points, followed closely by sophomore Renna Davis and senior Meme Jackson who had 17 apiece. Davis posted 12 rebounds to record her second straight and sixth overall double-double of the season. Freshman Meme Collins also found her way into double digits for Tennessee with 10 points, eight of which came in the fourth quarter.

Vanderbilt (6-16, 1-8 SEC) was led by redshirt junior Mariella Fasoula who had 16 points, eight rebounds and went a perfect 6-of-6 from the free throw line. Chelsie Hall and Autumn Newby each had 11 for the Commodores.

The game got off to a rocky start with every member of Tennessee's starting lineup snagging a rebound before UT got its first bucket, which came off a 3-pointer by Westbrook a minute and a half into the first quarter. Davis followed that up with a jumper to put the Lady Vols up 5-0, but Vandy answered with a 6-0 run to lead 6-5 midway through the first stanza. UT closed out the period by scoring 10 points while holding the Commodores to two buckets, taking a 16-10 lead into the second quarter.

The teams traded baskets through the opening minutes of the second period until a Jackson 3-pointer kicked off a 7-0 run that put the Lady Vols up by 13 at 27:14 with five minutes remaining in the half. Vanderbilt closed out the quarter knocking down seven of eight free throws to outscore UT 12-8, cutting the deficit to nine at 35-26 by halftime.

Vandy scored the first four points of the third quarter before Meme Jackson knocked down back-to-back buckets to put Tennessee back up by nine with just under eight minutes remaining in the period. Tennessee then went cold from the floor, going without a field goal for 2:49 while the Commodores went 3-of-3 to cut the lead to three by the media timeout. Davis broke the drought for UT, scoring on the inbounds play, after which UT forced a five-second violation to get the ball back. Westbrook then knocked down back-to-back jumpers to put Tennessee up 48-39 with four minutes to play in the third. VU responded with a 6-0 spurt to close out the third stanza, entering the final 10 minutes only down four at 53-49.

The Commodores came out shooting in the fourth, with Kaleigh Clemons-Green knocking down a three and Hall converting on two free throws to pull Vandy within one with 6:24 left in the game. Kasiyahna Kushkituah, who sat out much of the game due to fouls, answered with a short jumper, kicking off a 10-0 UT run that put the Lady Vols up 67-56 with 4:48 to play. The Lady Vols would maintain the lead and hit 6-of-8 free throws in the final two minutes to claim their 10th consecutive victory over Vandy.

STARKVILLE, Miss. -- The Lady Vols scrapped to within three in the third quarter but couldn't overcome a No. 6 Mississippi State team that shot an impressive 52.2 percent on the day.

Tennessee (15-8, 4-6 SEC) was led by sophomore Rennia Davis, who fired in a season-high 29 points. Freshman Zaay Green also was in double figures with 13. MSU's (22-1, 10-0 SEC) high scorer was senior Teaira McCowan, who logged a double-double with 24 points and 15 rebounds. Seniors Jordan Danberry and Anriel Howard also had big days for MSU, finishing with 20 and 16 points, respectively. Howard added 11 rebounds to claim a double-double on the afternoon.

The game got off to a fast start offensively with both teams scoring on their first two possessions. Mississippi State pulled ahead two and a half minutes into the contest with a 4-0 run, but freshman Jazmine Messengill answered by knocking down an eight-foot jumper in traffic and Zaay Green followed it up with a trey to tie the game at nine all. The teams kept it close through the first seven minutes, but the Bulldogs closed out the quarter with a 9-2 run to take a 25-17 lead into the second period.

MSU continued its run in the second quarter with a Jazzmun Holmes three-point play, but the Lady Vols rallied back with four quick points courtesy of Davis and Cheridene Green. With 7:23 remaining in the half, Davis knocked down a three to cut State's lead to six, then Meme Jackson converted on two free throws on the following possession to make it 30-26. The teams traded buckets before MSU went on a 6-0 spree to stretch its lead to 10 with just over a minute remaining in the half, but Davis and Jackson each knocked down threes in the final minute to cut the deficit to six at 40-34 going into the break.

Tennessee went a perfect four of four from the free throw line and converted on back-to-back layups to pull within three at 47-44 at the 6:09 mark. MSU answered with an 8-3 run to stretch the lead to eight with 2:57 to play in the period. The Bulldogs went on to build that lead to 12, taking a 61-49 lead into the final stanza.

MSU opened the fourth going four of five from the floor while UT went cold, hitting just one of three in the opening two minutes. That trend continued with the Bulldogs shooting a scorching 66.7 percent en route to 30 fourth-quarter points while Tennessee was held to only 14 points on 37.5 percent shooting in dropping its first game in four outings.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Freshman guard Zaay Green logged 19 of her career-high 25 points in the second half, powering Tennessee past Auburn, 73-62, in Thompson-Boling Arena.

The triumph gave UT a season sweep of the Tigers (18-7, 6-6 SEC). The Big Orange (16-8, 5-6 SEC) had won at AU in the SEC opener back on Jan. 3, 78-69. The Lady Vols recorded their third-straight home win, as the duo of senior Cheridene Green (16 points and 11 rebounds) and sophomore Rennia Davis (15 points and 10 rebounds) each tallied double-doubles on the evening. Sophomore Evin Westbrook, meanwhile, dished out 10 assists and added nine points and five rebounds in the victory.

Junior guard Daia Alexander led Auburn with 22 points. Sophomore Unique Thompson paced the Tigers on the boards with a double-double of 12 points and 13 rebounds, while Janiah McKay also chipped in 12 points.

A deep ball from Westbrook gave the Lady Vols their first lead of the game at the 7:39 mark of the first quarter at 7-5. Tennessee forced four turnovers over the next two minutes and shot 5-of-7 from the field to take a 15-11 lead with four minutes left to play in the opening stanza. Auburn stormed back with a 7-0 run and a 3-pointer to knock things up at the end of the quarter, 18-all. Each member of the Lady Vol starting five notched three or more points during the game's 10 minutes.

Each team started 1-of-7 from the floor to begin the second quarter, as things were tied at 23-23 with five minutes remaining until the half. A pair of quick buckets from the Tigers helped them regain a four-point lead, 25-23, as Tennessee suffered a two-minute scoring dry spell. The Tigers ended up taking a 32-27 advantage into the locker room.

Zaay Green recorded 10 points in the first six minutes of the third quarter to power a 14-3 Tennessee run and give the Lady Vols a 39-35 lead. Tennessee, meanwhile, knocked down the Auburn offense, holding it to 1-of-9 shooting from the floor to begin the second half. Zaay Green and Davis combined for 16 of the Lady Vols' 22 points in the third quarter, as the Tigers shot below 30 percent from the floor while scoring 10 points. As a result, UT took a 49-42 lead into the final frame.

Meme Jackson kept the Lady Vols' hot streak going with a deep 3-pointer to kick off Tennessee's fourth-quarter scoring. The Tigers didn't register their first points of the period until after more than two minutes had gone by. The Lady Vols continued applying pressure with a 10-2 run to give them a 64-51 lead (their largest of the game) with four minutes remaining. Auburn kept fighting, but a 3-pointer from Zaay Green with two minutes left pushed the lead back to 71-60 and dashed any hopes of an AU comeback.

COLUMBIA, Mo. -- Tennessee earned a hard-fought victory over RV/RV Missouri on Sunday, coming from four points down in the final stanza to claim a 62-60 triumph in front of a crowd of 8,559 in Mizou Arena.

Sophomore point guard Evin Westbrook led UT (17-8, 6-6 SEC) with 18 points and six assists, while sophomore forward Renna Davis logged her 17th career double-double with 16 points and 11 rebounds. Freshman forward Meme Collins also found her way into double digits, tying her career high of 11 points while adding six rebounds.

MU (19-8, 8-5 SEC) was led by Amber Smith with 14 points and five rebounds. Sophie Cunningham and Cierra Porter were close behind with 13 apiece.

The sophomores got things started for the Lady Vols with Davis and Westbrook combining for UT's first seven points. Westbrook gave Tennessee its first lead of the game, converting on an old-fashioned three-point play to put UT up 7-5 just over three minutes into the quarter. The Tigers tied it up on the following possession before senior Meme Jackson kicked off a six-point run that gave UT a 13-7 lead by the 5:33 mark. The Lady Vols maintained a seven-point lead until Mizou closed out the quarter with a 6-0 run of its own to pull within one at 22-21 by the end of the period.

With Jackson, Zaay Green and Cheridene Green in foul trouble, UT started the second period with all freshmen and sophomores on the court. Cunningham knocked down a layup to give Missouri a one-point lead to start the second stanza, but freshman Rae Burrell converted on a free throw on the following possession to tie it at 23-23. Both teams struggled offensively in the following minutes, but Collins knocked down two baskets to give Tennessee a one-point advantage at the media timeout as UT led 27-26 with 3:54 remaining in the half. UT maintained a one-point lead until a foul on a half-court heave at the buzzer gave Mizou's Akira Levy three free throws, of which she hit two, to give the Tigers a 31-30 lead at the break.

There were five lead changes in the opening two minutes of the second half before UT mounted a six-point run to lead 41-36 by the 6:29 mark. Mizou answered with a 6-0 run of its own, taking the lead at 43-42 off a Cunningham layup with just over two minutes remaining in the quarter. The teams traded buckets through the end of the period with Tennessee entering the final stanza down 49-48.

The Tigers led for the first five and a half minutes of the final frame before Davis knocked down a three to put UT up by one at 55-54. Davis again came up clutch, knocking down two free throws with 52 seconds to play to put the Lady Vols up 62-60. Levy got off a three-pointer that would have given Missouri the lead with two seconds remaining, but it came up short and UT ran out the clock to win 62-60.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas -- Tennessee outscored No. 21/22 Texas A&M 20-17 in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough to overcome an Aggies team that scored 27 points on nearly 70-percent shooting in the third quarter to send the Lady Vols to a 79-62 setback in Reed Arena.

UT (17-9, 6-7 SEC) was led in scoring by sophomore guard Evin Westbrook who had 17 points and five assists. Senior forward Cheridene Green posted a double-double with 11 points and 12 rebounds, and Renna Davis also managed double digits, finishing the day with 10 points.

Kayla Wells was the high scorer for Texas A&M (20-6, 9-4 SEC) with 29 points. Chennedy Carter was close behind with 28 points, while Shambria Washington had 11.

Texas native Zaay Green got off to a hot start, scoring UT's first four points to give the Lady Vols their first lead of the game at 4-2. Both teams struggled from the floor in the opening minutes, combining for just 14 points by the 3:49 mark when UT led 8-6. Tennessee maintained its lead until Carter converted on an old-fashioned three-point play to put the Aggies up by three at 17-14 with just over a minute to play. Cheridene Green, though, knocked down a short jumper in traffic to cut the lead to one by the end of the first.

Wells hit two 3-pointers and Carter knocked down two jumpers to put A&M up 29-23 at the 6:18 mark, but Mimi Collins answered with back-to-back buckets to cut the lead to one with just over three minutes remaining in the half. Wells responded by knocking down her third try of the quarter to put the Aggies back up by four before Cheridene Green nailed a jumper to cut the deficit to two with 1:45 to play. In the closing seconds Zaay Green narrowly missed a 10-foot jumper that would have tied the game at 32 all, and Washington capitalized, knocking down a three at the buzzer to put Texas A&M up 35-30 at the half.

Davis scored the first bucket of the second half to put the Lady Vols within three, but the Aggies mounted a 6-0 run to lead by nine at the 7:51 mark. Jackson answered by knocking down a jumper on the fast break, but A&M then scored eight unanswered points to go up 39-34 with 4:57 left in the quarter. The Aggies went on to ride a nearly 70-percent shooting percentage in the third quarter to a 62-42 lead entering the final stanza.

After A&M knocked down the initial basket of the fourth, the Lady Vols put together a 6-0 run to pull within 15 with just under eight minutes left in the game. The Aggies responded with Johnson and Carter combining to stretch the lead to 23. Westbrook knocked down eight points in the final five minutes, but it wasn't enough to turn the tables.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- A combined 18 second-half points from the sophomore duo of Rennia Davis and Evinna Westbrook was not enough for the Lady Vols to complete a frantic comeback against No. 13-ranked South Carolina, which notched an 82-67 win at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Tennessee (17-10, 6-8 SEC) cut the Gamecocks' lead down to seven points twice in the second half despite a 16-point deficit at the half.

In the loss, four Lady Vols recorded double-digit points on the afternoon: Davis (15), Zaay Green (12), Cheridene Green (11) and Westbrook (10). Freshman Rae Burrell added seven points from the bench, as Davis and Cheridene Green led Tennessee on the glass with nine rebounds apiece.

The Gamecocks (20-7, 12-2 SEC) were propelled by a 28-point performance from redshirt senior guard Bianca Cuevas-Moore, who connected on 3-of-7 shots from beyond-the-arc. Three additional players tallied over 10 points for South Carolina, with junior Tyasha Harris leading the pack with a double-double of 11 points and 14 assists.

Cheridene Green dominated the post early on, scoring all five of the Lady Vols' points to kick off the game. The Gamecocks, however, shot nearly 60 percent from the floor and tallied 10 fast break points early to take a 20-11 lead with three minutes remaining in the first quarter. South Carolina rode a 16-2 run in the final three minutes of play, extending their lead to 27-11 going into the second quarter.

The Gamecocks stretched their lead to 20 points after a 3-pointer at the 8:37 mark, as the Lady Vols shot 2-of-7 from the floor to start the second quarter. Davis powered Tennessee back by logging five quick points to cut the South Carolina lead to 15 points with three minutes left to play in the half. Still, the Lady Vols faced a 43-27 deficit going into the break, as the Gamecocks recorded seven steals and six blocks through two quarters.

Tennessee fought back with an 8-4 run to open the second half and began slowly chipping away at the South Carolina lead. Westbrook led the charge for Tennessee by adding six quick points during the Lady Vols' run. Tennessee held the Gamecocks without a field goal for three minutes, but South Carolina still possessed a 53-41 lead halfway through the third quarter. A layup from Westbrook cut the Lady Vols deficit to single digits at the 2:31 mark of the quarter and later the Big Orange whittled the USC lead to seven, 58-51, with 41 seconds to go in the period. Davis and Westbrook meshed for 14 points, but the Gamecocks kept responding to keep UT at bay, carrying a 60-51 lead going into the final quarter of play.

The two teams traded buckets, with all of Tennessee's 10 points coming from the paint and the charity stripe to begin the fourth quarter. UT cut the deficit to seven, 66-59, with 7:27 to go, but it could get no closer. A deep 3-pointer from Cuevas-Moore gave South Carolina a 76-65 lead with under three minutes remaining in the game. The Lady Vols held the Gamecocks to a two-minute scoring drought and shot 45 percent from the floor, but it was not enough to overcome the visitors.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Redshirt senior Cheridene Green posted a career-high 20 points, but it wasn't enough to overcome a Vanderbilt team that shot 53.8 percent from the floor, handing Tennessee a 76-69 loss at home.

Green's previous best scoring performance also came against Vanderbilt, on Jan. 17, 2018, when she tallied 17 points.

In addition to Green, sophomore Rennia Davis and freshman Mimi Collins were also in double figures for Tennessee (17-11, 6-9 SEC) with 14 each. Collins' total was a career high, while Davis posted her 21st double-figure scoring effort of the season.

Vanderbilt (7-21, 2-13 SEC) was led by Mariella Fasoula, who finished the day with 19 points and a game-high nine rebounds. She was joined in double digits by Cheisie Hall with 14 and Cierra Walker with 16.

Even though Vanderbilt entered the game shooting 43.3 percent from the field for the season, the team hit at a 53.8 percent clip against Tennessee, including a 64.7 percent effort in the third quarter.

After going on a 6-0 run deep in the final quarter, the Commodores took control of the game and didn't allow Tennessee to retake the lead after having five lead changes in the game. Vanderbilt also out-rebounded Tennessee 34-22 on the night, marking only the fifth time all season and second time in SEC play that an opponent has accomplished that feat.

The Lady Vols ended the first quarter with a 15-9 lead over Vanderbilt, connecting on 46.2 percent of their shots. Davis led the team with eight points and Collins scored three points in just two minutes of play. Tennessee also forced six turnovers in the opening frame.

During the second quarter, UT had a 10-point lead over Vanderbilt with eight minutes remaining in the half, but the home team went into halftime only 27-25 after the Commodores outscored the Lady Vols, 14-6, over the final 7:36 of the second period.

Vanderbilt led by five points with 5:52 left in the third quarter, but some solid defense and a 6-0 run by Tennessee cut the Dores' lead to only one, 47-46, to finish the third. The Lady Vols also shot 71.4 percent from the free throw line during the period, connecting on five of seven tries to aid a 7-for-18 effort from the floor.

The Lady Vols shot 60 percent from the field in the fourth quarter, with Cheridene Green supplying seven points before fouling out with 3:29 to go. UT had pulled to within four points of Vanderbilt with 2:58 to go, but the Commodores went 11 of 13 from the charity stripe the rest of the way to hold on for the win.

OXFORD, Miss. -- The Lady Vols closed out the regular season with a commanding victory over Ole Miss, winning 81-56 on 51.8-percent shooting at the Pavilion at Ole Miss.

Tennessee (18-11, 7-9 SEC) was led in scoring by Meme Jackson, who hit five threes in route to 20 points while tying her season high of six assists. Rennia Davis and Cheridene Green also were in double figures for UT with 13 and 11, respectively. Evina Westbrook narrowly missed a double-double, tallying nine points and nine assists.

The Rebels (9-21, 3-14 SEC) were led in scoring by redshirt senior Crystal Allen, who turned in 20 points. Freshman Gabby Crawford also was in double digits for UM with 16 points and nine rebounds.

Ole Miss jumped out to a 5-0 lead off back-to-back buckets by Crystal Allen, but Rennia Davis put UT on the board by knocking down a 12-foot jumper just over two minutes into the game. Davis struck again at the 5:34 mark to give UT its first lead of the game at 6-5. The score was knotted at 10-all with 2:20 to play in the first quarter, with Allen accounting for all of the UM's points. The Rebels then pulled ahead 13-10 off an old-fashioned three-point play by Crawford, but Tennessee closed out the final two minutes of the quarter with a 13-0 run, fueled by two Zaay Green steals, to take a 10-point lead into the second period.

La'Karis Salter knocked down a jumper on the Rebels' first possession to end the streak, but Rae Burrell answered for Tennessee, knocking down back-to-back buckets to kick off another double-digit run, as UT scored 10 unanswered points to lead 33-17 with 6:10 remaining in the half. Ole Miss rallied back, scoring on two straight possessions, but Tennessee answered with another 10-0 run to lead 43-19 at the half.

The Lady Vols picked up where they left off in the second half, outscoring the Rebels 14-6 in the first five minutes of the third quarter. Davis led UT in scoring in the frame with six points, all of which were scored from the free throw line. She hit her final two charity tosses of the third quarter with 1:07 remaining to put Tennessee up 64-31, but Taylor Smith knocked down a layup just before the buzzer to send the Rebels into the final stanza down 29.

Ole Miss outscored UT 16-8 in the first five minutes of the fourth quarter, led by Allen, who poured in 12 of those points. Tennessee went on to hit 4-of-5 from the floor the down the stretch, though, while holding Ole Miss without a field goal for the final 2:53 to claim an 81-56 victory in Oxford.

GREENVILLE, S.C. -- Sophomores Evina Westbrook and Rennia Davis combined for 27 second-half points to rally eighth-seeded Tennessee to a 69-66 win over ninth-seeded LSU in the second round of the SEC Tournament.

Westbrook led UT in scoring with 20 points while Davis was close behind with 19. Freshman Mimi Collins tallied 10 points in the game, eight of which came in the second half.

LSU was led by Khayla Pointer, who had 21 points and five assists. Faustine Aifuwa and Ayana Mitchell were also in double figures for the Lady Tigers with 16 each.

The Lady Vols got off to a shaky start, turning the ball over on the first two possessions while the Lady Tigers jumped out to a 4-0 lead, but Mimi Collins knocked down a 12-foot jumper on the baseline to get UT on board at the 8:36 mark. LSU went on to pull ahead 11-6, but Westbrook tied the game at 11-all with a baseline three at the 3:22 mark, and Meme Jackson knocked down a contested jumper to give the Lady Vols their first lead of the game at 13-11. Westbrook struck again just before the quarter break to put UT up 15-14 at the end of the first.

The teams traded buckets to start the second period until Pointer came up with a steal and score to put LSU ahead 20-19 at the 7:33 mark. Davis answered on the next possession, driving into the lane to put Tennessee back up 21-20. Back-to-back threes put the Lady Tigers ahead 28-23 with 3:42 remaining in the half, but Meme Jackson answered on the other end, knocking down a three to cut the lead to two. LSU closed out the half with a 6-0 run to take a 35-28 lead into halftime.

Westbrook poured in six points in the opening minutes of the third stanza to put the Lady Vols within three by the 5:46 mark, and Cheridene Green cut the deficit to one on the next possession with a rebound and put-back. The Lady Tigers stretched the lead back to five, but Westbrook answered with an old-fashioned three-point play to pull Tennessee within two at the 2:13 mark. Mimi Collins got off a shot from behind the arc as the buzzer sounded that would have put the Lady Vols up by one, but it rimmed out, sending UT into the final period down 49-47.

Westbrook and Davis combined for UT's first six points of the fourth quarter before Davis found Collins in transition. The freshman forward laid the ball in to give Tennessee its first lead of the half at 55-53. Aifuwa tied it up for LSU, but Collins once again answered, knocking down a long-range baseline jumper to put UT back on top, 57-55, at the media timeout. Davis knocked down two free throws after the timeout and followed it up with a trey to put Tennessee up 62-57 with just under three minutes left in the game. Mitchell cut it to two with 50 second to play, banking in a short jumper in the paint, but Westbrook responded on the other end, driving to the bucket to boost UT's lead back to four. LSU would hit two more field goals, but Tennessee worked down the clock shooting free throws to take a 69-66 victory and advance to the third round of the SEC Tournament.

GREENVILLE, S.C. -- The Lady Vols led by six after the first quarter but couldn't hold on against a top-seeded Mississippi State team that shot 61.5 percent in the second half, falling in the quarterfinals of the SEC Tournament, 83-68.

The sophomores led the way for Tennessee (19-12) with Evina Westbrook scoring 19 points while dishing out six assists, and Rennia Davis logging 16 points and eight rebounds. Senior Meme Jackson was also in double figures with 13 points on 5-of-9 shooting.

The No. 5/5 Bulldogs (28-2) were led by a trio of seniors with Anriel Howard pouring in 26 points, Jazzmun Holmes finishing with 16 and Teaira McCowan turning in a double-double with 17 points and 13 rebounds.

Tennessee struggled offensively out of the gate, remaining scoreless for the first three and a half minutes until Westbrook found Cheridene Green in transition for a layup to get UT on the board down four at 6-2. That sparked a 6-0 run that saw the Lady Vols tie it up at 6-all with just over five minutes remaining in the quarter. UT took its first lead of the game off a Westbrook 3-pointer at the 4:18 mark, going up 9-7. That would be the first of five lead changes in the quarter before Meme Jackson knocked down back-to-back threes and Cheridene Green sank two free throws to put UT up 23-17 at the end of the first period.

Mississippi State rallied back in the second, managing an 8-0 run to go up 27-25, but Rae Burrell answered with a 10-foot jumper on the other end to tie it up at 27 with just over five minutes left in the half. The Bulldogs stretched the lead to 38-29 with an 11-2 run before Westbrook responded by knocking down a baseline three to cut the deficit to six. Burrell blocked two shots on the defensive end, but MU closed out the quarter with five points, including a three-pointer at the buzzer, to take a 43-32 lead into the break.

Davis got things started for the Lady Vols in the second half, knocking down a baseline three to pull UT within 10. The teams continued to trade baskets in the opening minutes with the 10-point differential holding through the media timeout when the score stood at 54-44. Davis cut the lead to nine on UT's first possession following the timeout off a Westbrook assisted layup, but the Bulldogs closed out the quarter with a 9-6 run to lead 64-51 heading into the final stanza.

Westbrook scored the first basket of the fourth quarter, but the Bulldogs bounced back with a 6-0 run en route to leading by 23 with just under 3 minutes to play. Tennessee closed out the game with a 9-1 run, but it wasn't enough as UT fell to MSU in front of a crowd of 4,431 at Bon Secours Wellness Arena.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- The No. 11 seed Lady Vols (19-13) erased a 17-point deficit and led by as many as three in the fourth quarter, but their upset bid came up short in falling to No. 6 seed UCLA (21-12) in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at the XFINITY Center, 89-77.

Sophomore Rennia Davis had a double-double for Tennessee with 21 points and 10 rebounds. Sophomore Kasiyahna Kushkitsuah recorded a career-high 16 points, while freshman Mimi Collins, who hails from nearby Waldorf, Md., tied her career high of 14 points.

The Lady Vols twice cut the lead to single digits, but UCLA closed out the quarter with a 6-3 run to lead 44-32 at the half.

The Bruins opened the second half with four straight points before Meme Jackson answered by knocking down her second three of the game to move the score to 48-35. That set off a 9-0 run spanning just over three minutes that put the Lady Vols within seven by the under-5:00 media timeout. UT forced a defensive stop following the timeout and Kushkitsuah knocked down a layup on the other end to cut the deficit to five. UCLA bounced back with a Corsaro trey, but Tennessee kept the pressure on, scoring seven unanswered points to pull within one with 1:33 remaining in the period. Collins tied it up at 52-40 at a layup at the 1:12 mark, but the Bruins outscored the Lady Vols 6-3 in the final minute to take a three-point lead into the final stanza.

LADY VOL LEGENDS

Tennessee has recognized the careers of six supremely-gifted Lady Vols and a history-shattering coach with the hanging of jersey-banners from the rafters of Thompson-Boling Arena. The most recent individual added to the collection of Lady Vol legends came on Jan. 2, 2014, when a No. 3 banner honoring player Candace Parker was hoisted skyward.

Parker joined players Holly Warlick, Bridgette Gordon, Daedra Charles, Chamique Holdsclaw and Tamika Catchings, and coach Pat Summitt among those honored with a banner hanging in UT's basketball venue.

NO. 22 HOLLY WARLICK

Guard » 1976-80 » Knoxville, Tenn.

The first Tennessee athlete, either male or female, to have her jersey retired was Holly Warlick. Her uniform was retired on Feb. 18, 1980, in a ceremony after Tennessee's 89-72 win over Clemson in Stokely Athletics Center. A play-making wizard for the Lady Vols from 1976-80, Holly earned All-America honors three times. At the time of the ceremony, she held UT records for most assists in a game (14), most steals in a game (9), and most assists in a season (225).

Holly could not hang up her uniform right away. She played six more games after the retirement party. The final time she donned No. 22 was in the AIAW National Championship game when the Lady Vols fell to Old Dominion, 68-53.

During her years at Tennessee, the Lady Vols produced a 118-23 overall record, three trips to the Final Four and a first-ever SEC Tournament title. She later went on to become a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team.

Later serving as the head coach of the Lady Vols from 2012-19, Warlick's No. 22 banner hangs in the rafters above the court in Thompson-Boling Arena.

NO. 30 BRIDGETTE GORDON

Forward » 1985-89 » DeLand, Fla.

Ten years later, the second Lady Vol basketball jersey was retired. Bridgette Gordon returned to Thompson-Boling Arena after a stellar career at Tennessee to see her No. 30 honored during halftime of Tennessee's 76-70 win over Texas on Jan. 17, 1990.

Bridgette led the Lady Vols to a 115-21 record during her four years at UT. She was the driving force behind an NCAA-record four consecutive trips to the Final Four as well as two NCAA and two SEC Championships.

Bridgette was the first freshman ever to lead UT in scoring, and she earned co-SEC Rookie of the Year and All-SEC honors. The next year she led Tennessee to its first NCAA title, earned All-SEC honors again and was named to the All-Final Four team. She capped All-SEC honors and was named MVP of the SEC Tournament as a junior. She also earned her first of two Kodak All-America honors that year.

After earning a gold medal as a member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic basketball team, Bridgette returned to Tennessee for her senior season. She led the Lady Vols to the 1989 NCAA title and was named MVP of the Final Four. She finished her career as the all-time leading scorer in NCAA Tournament history.

Bridgette graduated in 1989 with a B.S. in political science. She was basketball's nominee for the 1989 Honda-Broderick Award, which is symbolic for women's academic and athletic achievement. She later returned to Rocky Top to spend two seasons (2017-19) as an assistant coach for the Lady Vols.

NO. 32 DAEDRA CHARLES

Center » 1988-91 » Detroit, Mich.

When Tennessee hosted the SEC-Big 10 Challenge in Dec. 28, 1991, Daedra Charles became the next Lady Vol to have her jersey retired. Charles returned to Knoxville from Como, Italy, where she was playing professional basketball with former Lady Vol teammate Bridgette Gordon. Charles came to surprise Lady Vol head coach Pat Summitt by announcing the endowment of the Pat Head Summitt Scholarship, presented by Charles, Gordon and another former Lady Vol, Lisa McGill Reagan. Summitt, who was unaware of the endowment, had planned the retirement ceremony as a surprise for Charles.

A two-time Kodak All-American at Tennessee, Daedra was the 1991 SEC Woman Athlete of the Year. She became the first player from the SEC to win the Wade Trophy, the highest honor in women's basketball. All this came after leading Tennessee to its third NCAA title in five years.

She finished her career seventh on the UT scoring list (1495), sixth in rebounding (858) and second in shots blocked (95), despite missing her freshman season as a Prop 48 student. Still, Daedra graduated in four years, earning a bachelor's degree in child and family studies.

NO. 23 CHAMIQUE HOLDSCLAW

Forward » 1995-99 » Astoria, N.Y.

During halftime of the Lady Vols' 92-88 home triumph over archrival Connecticut on Feb. 1, 2001, the collegiate career of arguably the greatest women's player to ever play the game was officially closed when Chamique Holdsclaw became just the fourth Lady Vol to have her jersey retired.

The Naismith Player of the Century and one of only six four-time Kodak All-Americans in the history of women's basketball, Holdsclaw led the Orange and White to a 131-17 overall record and an unprecedented three consecutive national championships from 1996-98, while establishing herself as the program's all-time leader in scoring (3,025 points) and rebounding (1,295).

The NCAA Tournament's most outstanding player in 1997 and 1998, Holdsclaw still holds the record for most points (479 points), and held the mark for most rebounds (198 rebounds), tallied in tournament games until 2008.

The first two-time winner of the Associated Press Player of the Year Award, Holdsclaw garnered 34 individual awards during her career, including 21 player of the year honors from a variety of organizations. In 2006, Holdsclaw was named to the NCAA 25th Anniversary Team. She was previously named to the Kodak 25th Anniversary Team in 1999. She also played on the gold-medal winning 2000 U.S. Olympic Team and was named to the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2018.

NO. 24 TAMIKA CATCHINGS

Forward » 1997-01 » Duncanville, Texas

The fifth Lady Vol jersey to be retired belonged to Tamika Catchings in a halftime ceremony on Dec. 7, 2003, against Louisiana Tech. From the moment she stepped on the court in the number 24 orange and white jersey, we knew from her contagious smile that she was a special person, and from her deadly baseline-to-baseline hustling for all 40 minutes, a truly phenomenal player.

This special six-foot, one-inch forward had the heart of a champion and could play anywhere on the court. Her UT career was shortened during her senior year when she went crashing to the floor with a torn anterior cruciate ligament in game 17 versus Mississippi State.

Her list of awards was staggering, as she captured a slew of them while being tabbed as UT's second four-time Kodak All-American. What she accomplished in the span of her collegiate career is the stuff of legend. She played in 127 games as a Lady Vol. Her assault on the record books is legendary for both scoring, with 2,113 points, and rebounding, 1,004 boards. Those marks ranked her third in UT history at the conclusion of her career. She also finished her career second all-time in steals with 311 and blocked shots with 136. And remember, she missed half of her senior season.

Her teammates will tell you how special it was to earn a blue adidas headband after Catchings went out with the injury. Earning one meant they hustled like "Catch" would have. The Eleanor Roosevelt League for the Hard of Hearing honored her in 1998 – as a special role model for youngsters and adults with hearing impairments. Her UT academic counselors will relate stories about Catchings graduating ahead of her class in December 2000. People in the Knoxville community will tell you of the countless hours she put in with youths from all walks of life – from playgrounds to hospitals.

An WNBA All-Star for the Indiana Fever, Catchings added to her collection of accolades in the Summer of 2004 with a gold medal as a member of the USA Women's Basketball Team at the Athens Olympic Games. She also added gold medals at the 2008, 2012 and 2016 Olympiads as well.

PAT SUMMITT

Head Coach » 1974-2012 » Henrietta, Tenn.

The sixth woman and first non-player to be honored with a banner at Thompson-Boling Arena was Pat Summitt, who coached Tennessee for 38 years and compiled a 1,098-208 career record with the most wins in NCAA women's or men's basketball history. Summitt's banner was hoisted prior to a nationally-televised game vs. Notre Dame on Jan. 28, 2013.

The legendary Summitt directed Tennessee to eight NCAA National Championships, 31-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and 18 NCAA Final Fours. At the conference level, she directed her squads to 16 SEC regular-season titles and 16 SEC tournament championships, including a tourney title in her final season at the helm in 2012.

During her career, Summitt produced 21 WBCA/Kodak/State Farm All-Americans, 39 All-SEC players, 12 Olympians and 34 WNBA draft picks, including 15 first-round selections. The number she was most proud of, however, was the 100-percent graduation rate for the 122 players who completed their careers and earned degrees at Tennessee.

Collecting an incredible array of honors during her career, Summitt was named SEC Coach of the Year eight times – 1993, 1995, 1998, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2007 and 2011. She was named the 1987, 1989, 1994, 1998 and 2004 Naismith Women's College Coach of the Year and WBCA/Converse Coach of the Year in 1983 and 1995 and the IKON/WBCA Coach of the Year in 1998.

Summitt belongs to the FIBA International, Naismith Memorial, Women's Basketball, Women's Sports Foundation, Tennessee Lady Vol, Tennessee Sports, Greater Knoxville Sports, and National Association for Sports and Physical Education Hall of Fame. Her most esteemed honor, however, came on May 29, 2012, when she received the Presidential Medal of Freedom (presented by President Barack Obama) at White House.

NO. 3 CANDACE PARKER

Guard/Forward/Center » 2004-08 » Naperville, Ill.

The seventh woman and sixth player to be honored with a jersey retirement ceremony at Thompson-Boling Arena was Candace Parker. The 6-foot-4 Parker's banner was unveiled on Jan. 2, 2014, prior to the Lady Vols' SEC opener vs. LSU.

During her three-year playing career, Parker led the Lady Vols to a pair of NCAA Championships in 2007 and 2008, to an SEC regular-season crown in 2007 and to SEC Tournament titles in 2006 and 2008. Tennessee posted a 101-10 overall record during her time at Rocky Top and a 38-4 mark in SEC play.

Parker started 109 of her 110 career games, scoring the third-most points in school history (2,137) and pulling down the sixth-best rebounding tally at 972, as of her career's end. She still ranks No. 3 in career double-doubles with 45 and stands tied for No. 2 in career rebounding average (8.8) and No. 4 in career scoring average (19.4).

Not the first player to dunk in the college game or even at Tennessee, Parker did make the dunk a more common occurrence in women's basketball. She was the first to dunk in an NCAA game, doing so twice vs. Army on March 19, 2006. She also set UT records for most dunks in a game (2), season (4) and career (7).

Because of her play, she has earned a plethora of awards. Among them, John R. Wooden and USBWA Player of the Year (2007, 2008), NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player (2007, 2008), WBCA All-American (2006, 2007, 2008), SEC Female Athlete of the Year (2008), SEC Player of the Year (2007), Coaches First-Team All-SEC (2006, 2007, 2008), CoSIDA Academic All-American (2007, 2008) and CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year (2008).

After helping Tennessee win the 2008 NCAA title in Tampa, Fla., Parker was chosen as the first pick of that spring's WNBA Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks, earning league MVP and rookie of the year honors. She also played a key role in the U.S. women winning a gold medal at the 2008 and 2012 Summer Olympics and has continued to escalate her stature in both the professional ranks and internationally.

LADY VOLS IN THE WNBA DRAFT

The Lady Vol basketball program has produced 60 professional players over the years, including 48 alumnae who went on to play in the WNBA. Of those 48 who continued their careers at the professional level in the WNBA, 42 were selected on Draft day and 17 were picked in the first round.

Tennessee has placed two or more players in the first round of the draft five times. The 2012 draft was the Lady Vols' best yet, as Shekinna Stricklen (2nd, Seattle), Glory Johnson (4th, Tulsa) and Kelley Cain (7th, New York) all went in the first round. Vicki Baugh was taken in the third round (25th overall pick) by Tulsa.

Candace Parker and Alexis Hornbuckle were taken in 2008. The Sparks chose Parker with the first overall pick. Hornbuckle followed closely behind as the Shock picked her up with the fourth selection.

Dena Head and Daedra Charles were selected first and eighth respectively in the 1997 draft. Lady Vols doubled up again in 1999, with Chamique Holdsclaw going first to the Mystics and Tonya Edwards going seventh to the Lynx. Kara Lawson and Gwen Jackson were taken with back-to-back picks in 2003, with Lawson going fifth to the Shock and Jackson going sixth to the Fever.

THOMPSON-BOLING ARENA

The Thompson-Boling Assembly Center and Arena is one of the largest on-campus arenas in the country and a very tough place for visitors to win. The Lady Vols own a 452-45 (.909) record at the facility through 32 years entering the 2019-20 season.

A mammoth structure located on the banks of the Tennessee River, it was named for B. Ray Thompson and retired UT President Edward J. Boling. The building is 448 feet long and 310 feet wide. It contains more than 411,000 square feet of floor space and more than 17 million cubic feet of space.

Following renovations in 2007, Thompson-Boling Arena has an official seating capacity of 21,678. As part of a $19 million renovation of the arena prior to the 2007-08 season, 32 luxury suites were added to the existing north balcony along with a loge area just below the suites that includes 166 side court seats. A $3 million center-hung scoreboard, new black seats and several concourse refurbishments also were part of the renovation. The distance from the playing floor to the roof is 120 feet, the equivalent of a 12-story building. The structure contains 142,000 square feet of roof area, which is approximately three and one-quarter acres.

The enormous facility houses the Tennessee women's and men's basketball offices. The UT Ticket Office is located on the Phillip Fulmer Way level on the west end of the building. A continuous-ring concourse encircles the building, permitting entrance to eight restrooms, six concession areas and 32 portals that lead to the arena. The playing floor level provides access to the media room and storage areas as well as the very impressive Larry Pratt Basketball Locker Room Complex and the visitor dressing rooms, constructed from 2017 to 2018.

Since the building opened on Dec. 3, 1987 (the Lady Vols beat Stetson, 102-59), UT women's basketball has enjoyed a number of lengthy home winning streaks. On Dec. 28, 2003, Texas snapped a 24-game run that dated back to the 2001-02 season. A previous streak of 26 consecutive wins in the home confines ended on Jan. 5, 2002, with an 86-72 loss to Connecticut. The Lady Vols broke the NCAA homecourt winning streak record with 69 consecutive victories before Connecticut spoiled the streak with a 59-53 win in game number 70 on Jan. 6, 1996. Tennessee claimed 64 straight home SEC victories before third-ranked LSU snapped the streak with a 72-69 victory – its first ever in Knoxville – on Feb. 9, 2006. The Lady Vols took a 36-game home winning streak into the 2011-12 season before Baylor snapped it at 38 on Nov. 27, 2011.

UT won all 18 contests in Knoxville in 2014-15, setting a school and arena record for most home wins in a season and best record in a season. Coupled with winning its last four home games of the 2013-14 season and the first five in 2015-16, UT strung together 27-consecutive victories before falling to Texas on Nov. 29, 2015. In 1998-99, the Lady Vols played before the largest average home crowd in the history of women's collegiate basketball, as 16,565 spectators per game clicked through the turnstiles. In all, 231,915 fans viewed home games in Knoxville. During the 1997-98 season, Tennessee set several collegiate attendance records. On Jan. 3, 1998, the Lady Vols entertained a new women's collegiate record 24,597 fans for the game with Connecticut. A month later, the first advance sell-out in UT women's basketball history occurred when the Lady Vols were set to meet Old Dominion in Knoxville. For the record, 24,373 fans attended the UT-ODU game.

The all-time attendance mark was reset during the 2001-02 season when 24,611 fans visited the arena for a #1/#2 clash between UT and Connecticut. It was again reset on Jan. 7, 2006, when the Huskies came to Knoxville in front of 24,653 spectators. The women's basketball attendance mark was established at the 2002 NCAA Final Four when 29,619 people filled the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas, for the championship game.

The Lady Vols started the record-breaking trend in women's collegiate basketball attendance in 1987. That season, the Lady Vols broke the (then) world record for single game attendance at a women's basketball game with 24,563 at the Tennessee versus Texas game on Dec. 9, 1987. Three years later, UT established new NCAA Women's Final Four attendance marks on March 30 and April 1, 1990, with a total paid attendance of 39,490 for the three-game event. The turnstile count of 34,196 (17,601 semis/16,595 finals) also broke all other attendance marks.

In 2013-14, UT led the NCAA in attendance for the 11th-straight season and the 17th time in the last 18 years. UT was second from 2014-17, fourth in 2017-18 and seventh in 2018-19.

STOKELY ATHLETICS CENTER ►

Stokely Athletics Center was home to the Lady Volunteer basketball team from 1976-87. The facility, which still housed UT Athletics offices long after its days of hosting games, was closed for good in December 2012 and demolished during the summer of 2014.

The Stokely Arena, which was encircled by a four-lane Tartan indoor track, seated 12,700, while the building housed the former men's and women's athletics department offices. The building was originally called the UT Armory Field House in 1958 and seated just more than 7,000 spectators. Through the generosity of the late William B. Stokely, Jr., further construction was completed and on Dec. 1, 1966, the facility was renamed to honor the Stokely family.

In 1986, Stokely took on a new look as a wood playing surface replaced the old tartan court. The Horner "Pro King" hardwood was painted with the traditional outline of the state of Tennessee in the center of the floor and the familiar end line markings. The court was special-made for the University by the same manufacturer who supplied the basketball court to the Forum for the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games.

Stokely Athletics Center was the site of some historic games for the Lady Vols. The first women's contest played in SAC pitted Tennessee versus Kentucky on Nov. 13, 1976. The Lady Vols not only trounced the Lady Kats, 107-53, but UT's Patricia Roberts tossed in a Field House record 51 points. That mark stands as the Lady Vol record to this day.

Along the way, Tennessee hosted the great gold medalist USSR Olympic Team in 1979, the USA All-Star team in 1979 and the first Southeastern Conference Championships in 1980.

The last Lady Vol game in Stokely, before moving to Thompson-Boling Arena, was a 77-61 win over Auburn in the finals of the NCAA Mid-east Regionals on March 21, 1987. A week later, the Lady Vols returned to Stokely to celebrate UT's first NCAA basketball title with thousands of fans in attendance.

Although no formal attendance figures were kept prior to 1982, Tennessee most-assuredly was among the nation's elite in fan support.

ALUMNI GYM ►

Constructed in the 1930's, Alumni Gym was the first real home to the inaugural Lady Vol team in 1974, which was coached by Pat Summitt. The court in the tiny arena (seating 3,000) was the centerpiece of an encircling tri-balcony seating arrangement.

PRATT PAVILION ►

In October 2006, Tennessee Athletics had a ground-breaking ceremony to officially recognize construction on the Pratt Pavilion, the state-of-the-art basketball practice facility named in UT alumnus Larry F. Pratt's honor for his $5 million lead gift to the basketball programs. The Pratt Pavilion, which opened in the fall of 2007, houses two full-size gymnasiums, one each for the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as space for an athletic training room, weight room, film study room and a recruiting lounge.

Directly connected to Thompson-Boling Arena, Pratt Pavilion has convenient ground level parking. The 70,000-square-foot structure has four short courts within each of the two full-size courts. The facility is equipped with secured practice facilities, spacious locker rooms and recruiting rooms as well. Balconies at the south side of the building overlook the practice courts.

Pratt Pavilion had a total project cost of $16 million, funded entirely through private gifts. Lead donor Pratt's commitment in April 2006, coupled with leadership gifts from other campaign donors, including Jim Haslam, Brenda Lawson and Robbie Nutt, enabled UT to move forward with the project.

This was not Pratt's first donation. In the 1990s he honored his father Floyd by creating an endowed scholarship in his name as a member of the Nathan Dougherty Society. He also was recognized at the Tennessee vs. Georgia football game in 2003 for a $1 million donation to the STEP-UP Campaign. Pratt, an Athens, Tenn., native, currently resides in McLean, Va. He graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1972 from the UT College of Business and serves as president and CEO of First Savings Mortgage Corporation, the largest private mortgage banker in Washington D.C.

THE FEW. THE PROUD. THE NCAA CHAMPIONS.

The few. The proud. The NCAA Champions. During Pat Head Summitt's tenure as head coach (1974-2012), only 161 women were selected to wear the Orange and White of the University of Tennessee Lady Volunteers.

Fifty-eight players of 161 (through the 2011-12 season) earned the distinction of being an "NCAA Champion" during their playing days at the University of Tennessee. That's practically 40 percent! And that is truly remarkable. Additionally, forty percent of the 58 players have brought home two or more titles.

A total of 12 coaches helped to bring the eight titles to the Knoxville campus. The common denominator of the eight championships with coach Summitt was (then) associate head coach Holly Warlick. In her first tenure with the Lady Vols, Mickie DeMoss claimed six rings (1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997 and 1998). Former assistants Al Brown (1996, 1997 and 1998) and Nikki Caldwell (2007, 2008) are the only former aides with numerous titles. Current assistant Dean Lockwood picked up his first national titles as a Lady Vol coach in 2007 and 2008. Seven graduate assistant coaches had the opportunity to experience one title each.

1987 National Champions

Tennessee may have failed in its first bid at the NCAA national championship in 1984, but the second time was the charm for the Lady Vols. Tennessee thumped Louisiana Tech, which was vying for its second title, 67-44.

"Well, the monkey's off my back," head coach Pat Summitt said. "I do not think I could go without recognizing that it was a tremendous team effort...has been for the last three weeks. This team has played as hard and as smart as I could ask any team to play."

The Lady Vols built a 33-24 halftime edge and never looked back. Seven minutes into the second half, Tennessee had increased its lead to 14, 47-33, and the rest was history as Tennessee took its first NCAA title.

Tennessee attempted 19 more field goals and grabbed 11 more rebounds than the Lady Techsters. A championship-game record crowd of 9,823 watched Tonya Edwards net 13 points and grab seven rebounds en route to most outstanding player honors. Two additional Lady Vols contributed 13 points - Bridgette Gordon and Sheila Frost. Gordon joined Edwards on the All-Championship team, as she also led the Tennessee carom parade, pulling down a game-high 12 rebounds.

It was a battle of Southeastern Conference powerhouses - Tennessee versus Auburn for all the marbles.

The Lady Vols looked to regain the national title they earned in 1987. Although they were up against a Lady Tiger team that had made its second straight national championship final, Tennessee took home its second NCAA championship in three years with a 76-60 win.

Playing in her triumphant final game, All-America forward Bridgette Gordon treated the 9,758 spectators to a spectacular 27-point performance, tying a championship-game record. She also collected 11 boards on the way to most outstanding player honors.

Gordon's seven first-half baskets helped the Lady Vols to a 35-27 halftime lead. Auburn was able to stay close, cutting the score to 50-47. But after a timeout, the Lady Vols went on a 13-4 run to put the game out of reach. The keys to the victory were the battle of the boards, where Tennessee outboarded Auburn 45-30, and the free throw line, where Tennessee shot 20-26, while Auburn was 8-12.

Sheila Frost joined Gordon on the All-Championship team. Playing in her final game at Tennessee, Frost had six points and 12 boards. Also coming up big for the Lady Vols in the final was Dena Head, with 19 points.

1991 National Champions

Vindication was finally Tennessee's in the 1991 NCAA women's final, as the Lady Vols downed a talented Virginia Cavalier club, 70-67, in the first NCAA Final Four overtime title game. Virginia had eliminated Tennessee before it could reach the 1990 Women's Final Four - which just happened to be held in Knoxville. But the Lady Vols took New Orleans and their third NCAA title in five years.

The first half was tight, with Tennessee holding a paper-thin 27-26 advantage at the intermission. But the Lady Vols opened up a small lead in the second half. Small lead; small comfort.

Virginia's Dawn Staley, who was named the most outstanding player, led the Virginia comeback to tie the game at 60 at the end of regulation. But the overtime belonged to Tennessee and Dena Head, who scored a championship record 28 points in the final.

Wade Trophy winner Daedra Charles added 19 points and 12 boards for Tennessee and joined Head on the All-Championship Team. Tennessee's effort was also aided by the play of Lisa Harrison, who poured in eight points and 13 boards.

With the victory, the Lady Volunteers kept their streak of odd-year championships going. Tennessee also won national titles in 1987 and 1989.

1996 National Champions

It seemed only fitting that the Lady Vols would win another NCAA crown in the "Queen City" of Charlotte, N.C. And it was equally fitting that the Lady Vols' fourth NCAA title would come over a fierce SEC rival in the Georgia Lady Bulldogs, 83-65.

After the emotionally draining overtime win versus Connecticut, the skeptics wondered if UT would have enough emotional energy left for the title game. They did...and then some. Although Georgia held a modest three point lead early in the game and led by two with 14:11 to go in the first half, it would be their only lead in the title contest. UT senior Latina Davis put the handcuffs on Player of the Year Saudia Roundtree in the first half as the Lady Vols grabbed an early nine point lead, 28-19 with 7:36 to go in the first half. Georgia recovered to trail by just five at the half, 42-37.

In the first three minutes of the second half, UT took off and never looked back. Abby Conklin's trey (her first of four) with 14:55 left gave UT a 16-point lead, 57-41. Davis upped the ante to a 21 point lead with 2:25 showing, 81-60. The celebrating started early as the Final Four MVP, Michelle Marciniak, and All-Tournament Team members Chamique Holdscaw and Tiffani Johnson left the game to wildly cheering fans. Davis, who held Roundtree to 17 points below her average, was UT's quiet heroine.

On the night, Holdscaw and Johnson tallied 16 points to lead UT, while Conklin added 14 points, Pashen Thompson a dozen, and Marciniak 10 in the final game of her career.

1997 National Champions

No team had ever won the NCAA championship coming in with more than six losses. But proving that it's wise to save your best for last, Tennessee took its fifth NCAA championship and second straight title with a 68-59 win over Old Dominion despite entering the tournament with a 23-10 record.

"Of all our runs to a championship, this one is really the most unexpected," said coach Pat Summitt. "It came from a team with tremendous heart and desire."

Tennessee took control quickly at the start of the title game, jumping out to a 20-8 lead. By halftime, the Lady Vols still had a comfortable lead, 34-22.

In the second half, Old Dominion clawed its way back, taking its first lead at 44-43 with 9:06 left in the game. The Lady Monarchs extended the lead to two, 49-47, before Chamique Holdsclew led the Lady Vols on a 12-2 run to put the game away for Tennessee.

Holdsclew was a unanimous choice as the most outstanding player, as she poured in 24 points and seven rebounds. Six of her points came during the decisive run at the end of the game. Joining Holdsclew on the All-Championship team was Kellie Jolly, who only scored five points, but set a championship record with 11 assists in the final game and a Final Four record with 20.

With the win, the Lady Vols earned their fifth national title, played in their seventh championship game and became only the second team to win consecutive championships. (Southern Cal., 1983 and 1984).

1998 National Champions

The 1998 Tennessee Lady Vols will be remembered as history-makers. A perfect 39-0 record and the most wins ever in women's collegiate basketball... an NCAA unprecedented three consecutive titles... and the systematic blowout night-after-night of the opposition.

When the team finally reached the NCAA title game against a dear old rival in Louisiana Tech, the contest started out tight with UT taking an 8-6 lead. Then "the greatest team ever to play the game," according to Louisiana Tech head coach Leon Barmore, exploded out to a 34-11 run over the next seven minutes. The points were coming in bunches to the tune of 63% field goal accuracy as these Lady Vols were on a mission.

By the halftime break, Tennessee led 55-32 and had registered an NCAA record for the most points scored in a half at the Final Four. Leading the way for UT in game 39 were the Three Meeks - MVP Chamique Holdsclew, Tamika Catchings and Semeka Randall—who collectively tallied 62 points and 25 rebounds in the Lady Vols' 93-75 victory.

Holdsclew, who scored 25 points and grabbed 10 rebounds, won the top player honors in the final game. She was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Catchings, who recorded 27 points in her first title game, and an honorary "Meek", Kellie Jolly, who added a career-high 20 points.

With the win, the Lady Vols earned their sixth national title, played in their eighth championship game and became the first team to win three consecutive NCAA titles.

2007 National Champions

On April 3, 2007, the Tennessee Lady Vols captured an elusive seventh national title, beating Rutgers to the ball for second and third shots in a 59-46 win to reclaim their customary place above all other programs.

Parker scored 17 points to lead her squad to a 34-3 final record, but the tournament's most outstanding player got plenty of help from Shannon Bobbitt who scored 13 points — nine of them on three treys in a lightning-quick span in the second half — and Nicky Anosike had 16 rebounds for the Lady Vols, who had 24 offensive boards.

After building a 16-point lead and then holding off a late push by Rutgers, the Lady Vols could finally celebrate, dribbling out the final 30 seconds under the Rutgers basket until Tennessee's players, some in tears, danced at midcourt as orange, blue and gold confetti fell from above.

"To win anything you have to be a tight team," Summitt said. "They believed in each other and they all had one goal, to be here in Cleveland and cut down the nets. I'm real, real proud of this team."

A three-pointer by Rutgers ended a 7-0 UT run that brought the Scarlet Knights to 50-42, but Parker made six straight free throws in 37 seconds to make it 56-44 with 1:08 left. As she went down the floor, Parker looked at the bench where senior Sidney Spencer was crying, knowing all the hard work during the offseason would end the best way possible.

The 2007 NCAA tournament ended the same way it has nearly one-third of the time since it started — with Tennessee setting up ladders to cut down the nets.

2008 National Champions

On April 8, 2008, the "under-rated" Tennessee Lady Vols captured their eighth national title, defeating Stanford 64-48. Incredible defensive pressure by UT forced 25 Cardinal turnovers which the Big Orange converted into 26 points.

"They came out with a great mentality to play hard, especially on the defensive end," Pat Summitt said. "On offense, we got more people involved, but it was our defense that got it done."

Tennessee standout Candace Parker, despite playing with a dislocated shoulder, scored 17 points and grabbed nine rebounds to help the Lady Vols capture their second straight championship, but unlike earlier games in the tournament when she had to carry the Lady Vols, her supporting cast came through. Shannon Bobbitt scored 13 points and Nicky Anosike added 12 points, eight rebounds and six steals for the Lady Vols. Freshman Vicki Baugh had eight points before tearing her ACL in the second half.

Bobbitt scored all of her points in the first half as the Lady Vols jumped out to a 37-29 advantage. Trailing by one early, Tennessee used a 13-4 run to take a 17-9 lead midway through the half. Bobbitt hit two three-pointers and made a nifty layup to cap the spurt. The teams traded baskets before two free throws by Bobbitt gave the Lady Vols a 35-25 lead — their biggest of the half.

Parker didn't shoot nearly as many jumpers as usual, instead taking the ball to the basket on an array of moves. She converted one steal in the second half into a pretty layup that gave the Lady Vols a 10-point advantage. She then followed it up with a three-point play on a driving layup. The Cardinal, who had a season low for points, would get no closer than eight the rest of the way. With the game in hand and a minute left, Parker went to the Tennessee bench for the final time, holding up four fingers on each hand to signify the eight titles the Lady Vols have won.

"One is disputable, but two, you can't stumble onto two national championships, so we're pretty good," Parker said.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

Senior transfer All-Americans and Olympians Patricia Roberts and Jill Rankin played for the Lady Vols during their senior year only. Though they didn't or haven't become 1,000-point scorers at UT, their career marks are some of the nation's all-time bests.

MEDIA POLICIES

COVERING PRACTICE

Please contact Eric Trainer at the Media Relations Office at least a week in advance to arrange player or coach feature interviews. If you plan to cover an open practice session, please contact the Media Relations Office on a daily basis to check about changes in the schedule.

PLAYER AND COACH INTERVIEWS

Media wishing to interview coaches or players are encouraged to set up interviews in advance with the Media Relations Office. Generally, the best time to conduct an interview is on a designated day with an open portion of practice and pre-practice media opportunity. The Media Relations Office will help with all requests.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media outlets interested in obtaining credentials to cover Lady Vol basketball home games must apply for those online via Sports Systems. To apply, please visit: <http://www.sportssystem.com/seccredentials>. Applications for single-game credentials should be submitted five days prior to a game. Once you receive your approval letter via email, you will be provided options for credential pick-up.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers or those individuals on special assignment. During regular season games, work area includes the floor area at both ends of the court and alongside the corners of the playing floor opposite the team benches. Special arrangements for strobes or catwalk access must be made through the Media Relations and Arena Management Offices no later than one week in advance of the game. UT's arena security policy requires that all photographers placing strobes will go through a screening process and must be accompanied by a UT police officer or representative when placing strobes.

THE SEC MEDIA POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

MEDIA PARKING PASSES AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

Parking space is limited. The media must request parking access along with other credential requests. Media coverage on a regular basis will insure first priority in UT parking garage G-10. The media entrance is located adjacent to this parking area on Phillip Fulmer Way. Please be advised that everyone must proceed through metal detectors to enter Thompson-Boling Arena and is subject to having their bags checked.

PRESS ROW

Press row is located in the lower level southeast corner of the arena behind the baseline nearest the G-10 garage. Only accredited media will be allowed in this area. Children are not permitted on press row.

MEDIA ROOM SERVICES

Postgame interviews will be conducted in the media room, and the working press has numerous electrical outlets and wireless internet available. Wireless internet also is available courtside. If you choose to install a phone line on press row, please contact UT Telephone Services at (865) 974-3121.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Services provided include statistics generated from the Genius Sports computer statistics program. Statistics can be accessed via laptop or iPad. To access up-to-date stats during a game, visit UTstats.com for a live feed.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

A formal post-game interview is held in the basketball media room following each game. The media will be solicited for player names with five minutes left in the game. After a 10-minute cooling-off period, the visiting team coach and selected players will be brought to the media room. Following the visiting team's media session, select UT players will come to the media room, followed shortly afterward by head coach Kellie Harper. Risers for television cameras and a distribution box for radio will be available in the back of the arena.

SEC ON THE WEB: For all you need to know about the Southeastern Conference and its member schools, access the SEC Web Page at www.SECsports.com. The site contains team information, scores, conference standings and statistics, awards recipients, history and records, feature stories, television information on conference events, details about tickets to SEC events, SEC merchandise and much, much more.

WEEKLY HONORS: The SEC will name a Player and Freshman of the Week each week throughout the regular season. Each week's selections will be released late Tuesday morning and also will be announced in the league's weekly release. The league women's basketball sports information directors make nominations for the award each week.

SEC HISTORY: The Southeastern Conference was formed Dec. 8-9, 1932, and included 13 schools at the time: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane, and Vanderbilt. The league's first president was Frank L. McVey of Kentucky. Due to the continually increasing amount of work administering the league, the office of Commissioner was established by its member institutions in 1940. Former Mississippi governor Martin Conner was named as the first commissioner, a post he held until 1948. Following Conner were Bernie Moore (1948-66), A.M. Coleman (1966-72), Dr. Boyd McWhorter (1972-86), Dr. Harvey Schiller (1986-90), Roy Kramer (1990-2002), and Mike Slive (2002-2015). Greg Sankey is currently Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference and its 14 member institutions.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. Cross country, golf, swimming, tennis and indoor track were added later. The SEC began recognizing women's championships during the 1979-80 academic year. The conference office officially took over regulation of women's athletics on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and twelve women's sports. Baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming and diving, tennis and track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country) are currently sanctioned for men. The women's sports are basketball, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country) and volleyball.

SEC WOMEN'S HOOPS BY THE NUMBERS

With nine national championships, 12 runner-up finishes, a nation-leading 38 Final Four appearances and 138 first-team All-America honors, the Southeastern Conference stands firmly as the nation's premier intercollegiate women's basketball conference.

Since the 1990 season, the SEC has compiled a 4221-1276 (.768) record against other conferences. The league has recorded 150+ wins during 13 seasons and has never recorded a non-conference winning percentage below .703.

SEC teams have earned appearances in 28 of 38 NCAA Final Fours, an accomplishment unmatched by any other league. The next closest are the Big East and ACC with 22 each.

Overall, SEC squads have filled 38 of the 152 Final Four berths, including having two Final Four teams in 1988 (Auburn, Tennessee), 1989 (Auburn, Tennessee), 1995 (Georgia, Tennessee), 1996 (Georgia, Tennessee), 1998 (Arkansas, Tennessee), 2004 (LSU, Tennessee), 2005 (LSU, Tennessee), 2007 (LSU, Tennessee), 2008 (LSU, Tennessee) and 2017 (Mississippi State, South Carolina).

SEC teams have made 21 appearances in a nation-high 18 NCAA Championship games, winning nine NCAA Championships (Tennessee: 1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2007, 2008); South Carolina (2017).

The league also had the distinction of providing both national finalists three times in its history in 1996 (Tennessee 83, Georgia 65); 1989 (Tennessee 76, Auburn 60) and 2017 (South Carolina 67, Mississippi State 55).

SEC teams have won 431 NCAA Tournament games against 229 losses (.653) for an average of 11.3 NCAA wins per year. In addition, all 14 current members have made appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE (CONTINUED)

The Southeastern Conference had nine teams earn bids to the 2016 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship. This was the most SEC teams to receive bids to the NCAA tournament in conference history and the second time in NCAA history that one conference has sent nine teams to the tournament. The Big East did so in 2011.

Until 2004, the SEC was the only conference to ever have eight teams receive NCAA bids. The league achieved that feat five times, in 1999, 2002, 2012, 2014 and 2017.

The SEC was also the first league to ever have seven teams invited to the NCAA Tournament and earned this honor a leading 12 times (1986, 1991, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2003, 2004, 2009, 2013, 2014, 2018, 2019).

The SEC is one of a handful of leagues to have won three national tournament titles with nine NCAA, two WNIT and four NWIT. Along with the nine NCAA championships; Arkansas (1999) and Auburn (2003) captured Women's NIT titles. But the first-ever SEC national title belongs to Georgia, winners of the 1981 NWIT which predates the current WNIT tournament. Vanderbilt (1984), LSU (1985) and Kentucky (1990) also won NWIT titles. As members of their previous conferences Arkansas (1987), South Carolina (1979) and Texas A&M (1995) won the WNIT, while Texas A&M (2011) won the NCAA title prior to joining the SEC.

The SEC has had 68 student-athletes named as first-team All-America selections. Those 68 have been named a total of 113 times since the 1982-83 season (first year of SEC sponsorship).

The Southeastern Conference had 20 former student-athletes make 2019 WNBA opening day rosters.

In this year's WNBA draft, a total of seven SEC women's basketball players were taken. Since the inaugural WNBA draft in 1997, the SEC has had 160 former players drafted for the professional league, including six No. 1 picks.

SEC schools have produced 42 Olympians since 1976, with 38 coming since the SEC began sponsoring women's basketball. Seimone Augustus, LSU; Tamika Catchings, Tennessee; Sylvia Fowles, LSU; and Candace Parker, Tennessee were part of the USA's gold-medal effort in London in 2012 while Augustus, Fowles and Catchings repeated the feat in Rio de Janeiro in 2016. They helped the Red, White and Blue win gold for the sixth-consecutive Olympiad.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The media credential system for the 2020 SEC Tournament will be available online from early January until late February. Go to www.SECsportsmedia.com for the online credentialing system.

TOURNAMENT INFORMATION

On Feb. 7, 1980, the first SEC women's basketball tournament began play. It ended four days later with Tennessee defeating Ole Miss for the title. Fast forward 37 years later and the SEC Tournament is still enjoying success and increased popularity.

Beginning with its inception and through 1986, the tournament was held at campus sites. The tournament was then sent to Albany, Ga., which served as the site for six years from 1987-92. The tournament then moved to Chattanooga, Tenn., where it was held from 1993-2000, with the exception of 1998 when the tournament moved to Columbus, Ga.

Since 2001 the tournament has enjoyed many new sites, including Memphis (2001), Nashville (2002, 2004, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2018), Little Rock, Ark. (2003, 2006, 2009, 2015), Greenville, S.C. (2005, 2017, 2019, 2020), Duluth, Ga. (2007, 2010, 2013, 2014) and Jacksonville, Fla. (2016).

The winner of the 13-game tournament will receive the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The tournament seeds and conference champion will be determined by the 16-game regular-season SEC schedule.

The 2020 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament will once again enjoy live television coverage. The SEC Network will televise all first, second and third round games. The semifinals will be aired on ESPNU for the seventh consecutive year, while the championship game will be televised on ESPN2.

Public tickets for this year's event are on sale now and can be purchased through the SEC website.
