■ PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

UT RETURNS MOST OF ITS FIREPOWER

- Tennessee returns five of its top six scorers and rebounders from 2019-20, including the top four in each category.
- Kellie Harper welcomes back 80.8 percent of her scoring, 76.4 percent of rebounds, 78.6 percent of blocks, 71.0 percent of steals and 64.8 percent of assists from a year ago.
- The Big Orange women also return 80.6 percent of their field goals, including 73.3 percent of their three-pointers, and 84.8 percent of free throws from last season.

FOUR "STARTERS" ARE BACK

- Tennessee returns four players who were in the starting lineup during the 2019-20 season. That group includes senior Rennia Davis, junior Rae Burrell and sophomore Tamari Key. Sophomore Jordan Horston earned 22 starts before giving way to Burrell in the final nine contests.
- Davis is Tennessee's top returnee. The 6-foot-2 guard/forward was a first-team All-SEC choice a year ago and an All-America honorable mention recipient from AP, the USBWA and WBCA. She averaged 18.0 points, 8.2 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game in 2019-20 while shooting 46.9 percent from the field and 80.2 percent from the free throw line.
- Burrell is a 6-1 guard/forward who averaged 10.5 ppg. and 5.5 rpg. while knocking down 21 three-pointers. The team's second-leading scorer and rebounder, she was the top reserve for the first 22 games before starting the final nine contests of the season. She averaged 12.3 ppg. and 5.7 rpg. during that end-of-year stint in the first five.
- Key is a 6-5 center who averaged 7.3 ppg., 4.7 rpg. and 2.8 bpg. while shooting 56 percent from the field. She finished No. 1 in the SEC in blocked shots (86) and blocks per game (2.8) and ranked 11th and 13th in the NCAA in those categories, respectively.
- Horston, a 6-2 point guard, averaged 10.1 ppg., 5.5 rpg. and 4.6 apg. in 2019-20. She ranked first on the team in assists (143) and steals (39), second in blocks (25) and three-pointers made (27), and third in points scored (313) and rebounds (170) en route to SEC All-Freshman honors.
- Her 143 assists and 4.6 assist average both ranked second all-time among freshmen at Tennessee, and she was fourth in the SEC for assist average.

DAVIS AN ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE

- Rennia Davis, who was among the Cheryl Miller Award Top 10, the John R. Wooden Late Season Top 20 and the Citizen Naismith Trophy Top 30 a year ago, should be among the candidates for All-America acclaim and SEC Player of the Year in 2020-21.
- Davis' scoring average was the best by a Lady Vol since Candace Parker averaged 21.3 ppg. in 2008, and she enters her final collegiate season tied with Bashaara Graves for 10th in UT history with 29 double-doubles during her first three seasons.
- Davis averaged 19.9 ppg. and 8.0 rpg. vs. SEC foes in 2019-20 while hitting 49.6% from the field and 82.8% at the charity stripe in 16 regular-season contests.
- She is the second-leading returning scorer in the SEC behind Kentucky's Rhyne Howard.
- Davis ranked fifth in the SEC in rebounding last season at 8.2 rpg. and eighth in field goal percentage (.469) and stands No. 5 in both categories among returning players.
- Finished No. 4 in the SEC in free throw percentage at .802 a year ago and is No. 2 among returnees this season.
- She is among the SEC's active player career leaders, ranking second in points (1,400 points) and double-doubles (29) and third in rebounds.

DAVIS COMES THROUGH IN THE CLUTCH

- Rennia Davis has hit 14 career buckets during her UT career with the clock winding down.
- Davis lifted Tennessee past Alabama last season and Auburn (SEC Tournament) as a freshman with game-winners.
- She also has put points on the board at the end of the first half three times during her career, including once in each of her first three seasons as a Lady Vol.
- Also clutch at the end of other quarters, Davis has scored in the closing seconds of the third quarter seven times and at the end of the first stanza on two occasions.

Rennia Davis is blessed with a "clutch gene," hitting 14 buckets with the clock winding down during her career, including two game-winners.

FOUR MORE LETTERWINNERS ARE BACK

- In addition to returning Davis, Burrell, Key and Horston, the Lady Vols welcome back four more letterwinners.
- Regulars off the bench include 6-4 senior center Kasiyahna Kushkituah (5.4 ppg., 4.4 rpg., 49% FG, 31 games played), 5-8 sophomore guard Jessie Rennie (2.7 ppg., 25 3FGs, 46% 3FG, 30 games played) and 6-3 redshirt senior forward Jaiden McCoy (2.7 ppg., 1.8 rpg., 26 games played).
- Rennie became UT's three-point shooting ace as the season wore on, connecting on 25 of 54 attempts for an impressive 46.3 percent accuracy and the second-best season percentage in UT history. Rennie was even better in league play, knocking down 54.2 percent (13-24) of her tries.
- At 6-5, sophomore center Emily Saunders saw action in only 10 games but averaged 3.7 ppg., 2.2 rpg. and 1.0 bpg. while shooting 71% on field goals.

TWO GRAD TRANSFERS OF IMPACT

- Tennessee welcomes a pair of highly-productive graduate transfers in Keyen Green from Liberty and Jordan Walker from Western Michigan. Walker graduated after three years at WMU and redshirted her second season there due to a knee injury, so she has two years of eligibility remaining.
- An All-MAC guard, Walker brings quickness and depth to the UT backcourt. The 5-8 redshirt junior averaged 16.0 ppg., 6.2 rpg., 2.5 apg. and 2.1 spg. while knocking down 66 three-pointers in 2019-20.
- Green, a first-team All-ASUN forward/center, should bolster UT's inside presence. The 6-1 redshirt senior averaged 13.9 ppg. and 7.5 rpg. last season and shot 59 percent from the field. She was the Big South Player of the Year in 2017-18 and a three-time all-league performer.
- ESPN picked Green No. 15 in its 2020-21 preseason Newcomer Impact Rankings.
- Green and Walker are the third and fourth grad transfers for UT, following in the footsteps of Schaquilla Nunn (2016-17) and Lou Brown (2018-20).

FRESHMAN TRIO

- UT's three-member rookie class includes 6-0 guard Destiny Salary (four-star prospect, #57 by espnW HoopGurlz), 6-1 guard/forward Tess Darby (#86 by Blue Star Media, four-star prospect by ProspectsNation.com, three-star prospect by espnW HoopGurlz) and 6-2 guard/forward Marta Suárez (a four-star prospect by Blue Star Europe).
- Salary, Darby and Suárez should provide the Lady Vols options for length and versatility at guard and wing.
- Darby was a four-time all-state selection (16.7 ppg., 6.3 rpg. as a senior), while Salary was a three-time all-state choice (21.0 ppg., 7.0 rpg., 4.0 apg. as a senior).
- Suárez was the leading scorer for Segle XXI Barcelona in Spain's LF2 League, averaging 12.7 ppg. and adding 5.6 rpg. while shooting 46 percent from the field, 44 percent on threes and 81.5 percent at the free throw line.

TRANSFER STATS ALONE TOP STATS LOST

- The addition of college veterans Jordan Walker and Keyen Green offsets most of the statistical losses from a year ago, though it is hard to predict whether they will produce similar numbers as they did at their previous schools.
- The duo combined for 926 points last season and provide 508 more points (+16.4 per game) than the four departing players produced together (418) for UT in 2019-20.
- The grad transfers' contributions equal 185 more field goals (+6.0), +111 free throws (+2.8), +86 rebounds (+2.8), +43 steals (+1.4) and +27 three-pointers (+0.9).
- By the same math, UT was unable to replace all of the departed assists (-70/-2.3), blocks (-20/-0.6) and starts (-1/-0.03).

- Worth keeping in mind, though, UT's returning players and three freshmen will join the graduate transfers in making up the numbers lost with the departing players.

HARPER CLIMBING INTO YEAR TWO

- Kellie Harper is in her second season at Tennessee and in her 17th year overall as a head coach.
- In year one, she led UT to a 21-10 record and 10-6 SEC mark to tie for third place in the league in 2019-20.
- Harper finished tied for sixth among all NCAA coaches in their first year at a school in 2019-20 and led all debut-season Power 5 skippers with that 21-victory result.
- The 21 wins were the most she had recorded in her first season at a school, and that league finish was her best in year one with a program and the finest by UT since 2014-15.
- In 16 full seasons as a head coach, Harper is 306-218 and is one of only 11 coaches to lead three different women's programs to NCAA Tournament appearances (Western Carolina/NC State/Missouri State).
- She will attempt to join Jim Foster (St. Joseph's, Vanderbilt, Ohio State, Chattanooga) in becoming the only coaches to take four different women's teams to the NCAA tourney.
- Harper has directed teams to 12 postseason appearances (5 NCAA/7 WNIT) during her career and was in position for number 13 a year ago when the 2020 NCAA Tournament was canceled due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) global health crisis.

STAFF REMAINS TOTALLY INTACT

- All of Kellie Harper's assistants, including husband Jon Harper, Lacey Goldwire and Jennifer Sullivan, return.
- The only change in the support staff was in the sports medicine area, as Casi Dailey rejoined Harper and returned to her master's degree alma mater when Jenna Kennedy made a career transition outside of athletics. Dailey previously worked with the Harpers at NC State in 2012-13.

LARGEST ROSTER SINCE 2010-11

- Tennessee's roster of 13 active players is the largest squad since a team of 13 took the court in 2010-11.
- UT did have a roster of 14 in 2014-15, but two players (Diamond DeShields, Mercedes Russell) sat out that season due to transfer rules and injury, respectively.
- For only the 10th time since the 1989-90 season, UT is slated to begin a year with 13 or more players on the roster.
- Including 2020-21, UT hopes to have 13 active players for just the seventh time since 1989-90.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

- Tennessee has two international student-athletes on this year's team. Sophomore guard Jessie Rennie hails from Bendigo, Australia, while freshman guard/forward Marta Suárez is from Oviedo, Spain.
- Including Cheridene Green (2017-19) from London, England, and Lou Brown (2018-20) from Melbourne, Australia, there have been four Lady Vols all-time from outside the U.S.

A MIXTURE OF YOUTH AND EXPERIENCE

- Seven of Tennessee's 13 players (53.8 percent) are freshmen (3) or sophomores (4).
- Three of those sophomores (Tamari Key, Jordan Horston, Jessie Rennie) played in 30+ games in 2019-20, and Key (29) and Horston (22) combined for 51 starts as rookies.
- The Lady Vols do have four seniors, including Rennie

■ PRESEASON NOTEBOOK (CONTINUED)

- Davis, Kasiyahna Kushkituah, Jaiden McCoy and Keyen Green.
- Davis is the only returning senior from the regular starting lineup (30 games played/30 starts). Kushkituah and McCoy each had one start a year ago, while graduate transfer Green started 91 games in three seasons at Liberty.
  - The junior class includes returnee Rae Burrell, who started the final nine games last year, and graduate transfer Jordan Walker, who started 64 games in two seasons on the court at Western Michigan.
  - UT still won't have a senior point guard. It's been since Jordan Reynolds in 2016-17 that UT had that luxury. Tennessee averaged 13.4 turnovers per game that season. The Lady Vols stood at 17.2 tpg. a year ago with a sophomore and freshman growing into those roles in an elite league.

THREE MCDONALD'S A-As ON ROSTER

- Tennessee has three McDonald's All-Americans on its 2020-21 roster, which is two fewer than it had a year ago.
- Those players are seniors Renna Davis and Kasiyahna Kushkituah, and sophomore Jordan Horston.
- Horston was named the MVP of the 2019 contest in Atlanta, Ga. She became the sixth Lady Vol signee to earn that honor, following Shanna Zolman (2002), Alexis Hornbuckle (2004), Meighan Simmons (2010), Mercedes Russell (2013) and Te'a Cooper (2015).
- Tennessee has had 35 McDonald's All-Americans on its rosters through the years.

LOSSES FROM A YEAR AGO

- UT lost a pair of one-year starters in 6-0 sophomore guard Jazmine Massengill (6.5 ppg., 4.7 rpg., 4.1 apg.) and 6-2 redshirt senior forward Lou Brown (4.6 ppg., 4.6 rpg., 22 3FGs).
- Sophomore Zaay Green, who would have been a starter, missed nearly the entire 2019-20 season with a knee injury. The 6-0 guard was averaging 13.0 ppg., 4.5 rpg. and 2.0 apg. through two games.
- Senior Kamera Harris, a 6-3 forward, played in 28 games and averaged 1.6 ppg. and 1.4 rpg.

EYE ON THE UT RECORD BOOKS

- Renna Davis' begins the season ranked No. 29 on UT's all-time scoring list with 1,400 points and with 735 career rebounds is poised to break into UT's all-time top 20 in rebounding this season when she reaches 800 boards.
- Davis ranks No. 10 in career per-game scoring at 14.9 ppg.
- At 7.82 rpg., Davis stands at No. 9 on UT's career rebounders per game list.
- With 29 career double-doubles, Davis stands 10th all-time at UT in that statistical category.
- In career free throw percentage, Davis ranks No. 10 at .804.
- Entering her sophomore year, Jordan Horston ranks No. 4 in career assist average at 4.61 per game.
- With 2,774 blocks per game as a rookie, UT's No. 2 all-time single-season mark, Tamari Key enters year two leading the Lady Vol career list as well.

STILL TALL, BUT NOT THE TALLEST

- The 2019-20 squad was the tallest team in Lady Vol history, averaging 74 inches tall or 6-2. The 2020-21 squad checks in with an average height of 6-1 3/8, which ranks No. 5 in program annals.
- The 2018-19 squad tied with the 2005-06 unit as the second-tallest teams, averaging 6-1 41/64 in height. The 2017-18 team ranks fourth at 6-1 19/32.
- This year's Lady Vols have 11 players standing 6-feet or taller, tying 2019-20 for the most in program history.

- This marks the fifth time in school history that the Lady Vols have sported 10 or more players standing six-feet tall or higher on a roster. The other occasions were with 11 a year ago and with 10 in 2009-10, 2014-15 and 2018-19.

GRADUATE PATCHES FOR FOUR LADY VOLS

- Four Lady Vols already possess undergraduate degrees and are working toward master's degrees. Each player proudly will wear an SEC graduate patch on her uniform.
- Renna Davis earned a bachelor's degree from UT in May 2020 in hotel, restaurant and tourism management with a minor in business administration. She is pursuing a master's in agricultural leadership, education and communications.
- Keyen Green graduated from Liberty University in May 2019 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. She is working toward a master's in agricultural leadership, education and communications as well.
- Kasiyahna Kushkituah was a May 2020 UT graduate in hotel, restaurant and tourism management with a minor in business administration. She is pursuing a master's in communication and information with a concentration in journalism and electronic media.
- Jordan Walker graduated from Western Michigan in 2020 with a bachelor's degree in political science and a minor in communications. She is pursuing a master's degree in business administration (MBA) at UT with a concentration in entrepreneurship and innovation.

REVIVAL SERIES - YEAR TWO

- The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame organized a renewal of the historic series between the Tennessee Lady Volunteers and the UConn Huskies, and those programs will meet for the second time in as many seasons.
- In the second installment of the two-year "Hall of Fame Revival Series," Tennessee will host UConn on Thursday, January 21, 2021, at Thompson-Boling Arena in Knoxville. The game will be televised and supported by the ESPN family of networks.
- The programs met for the first time since 2007 on Jan. 23, 2020. The Lady Vols took a 31-28 lead into the locker room at the half before UConn rallied to seize a 60-45 victory at the XL Center in Hartford, Conn. The Huskies lead the all-time series, 14-9, but Tennessee has won three of the past four meetings.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

- Sophomores Tamari Key and Jessie Rennie are members of the VOLeaders Academy Class of 2021. The first-of-its-kind program is a dynamic partnership between the UT Center for Leadership and Service, the Center for Sport, Peace and Society and the Athletics Department.
- Sophomores Rae Burrell and Tamari Key are serving as women's basketball representatives for UT's 2020-21 Student-Athlete Advisory Committee this season.
- Key also is Tennessee's SEC Student-Athlete Leadership Council & SAAC Representative for 2020-21.

GOLDWIRE WITH COACHES FOR CHANGE

- Tennessee women's basketball assistant coach Lacey Goldwire is part of a new social justice initiative called Coaches 4 Change, which unites coaches across the men's and women's collegiate basketball landscape in pursuit of positive progress.

Playing Career:

Tennessee ('95-'99): Three-time NCAA champion point guard, All-SEC Second Team & H.M. All-American in '99, All-Final Four '97 & '98

Family:

Spouse: Jon Harper Children: Jackson, Kiley

One of only 11 women's basketball head coaches to lead three different schools to the NCAA Tournament, Kellie (Jolly) Harper has begun year two as the leader of the iconic Tennessee Lady Volunteers. The 1999 UT graduate and former women's basketball standout was announced by Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Phillip Fulmer as the head coach of the Lady Vols on April 9, 2019.

A native of Sparta, Tenn., Harper was a point guard for the legendary Pat Summitt at UT from 1995-99, playing 132 games and piloting the Lady Vols to NCAA National Championships in 1996, 1997 and 1998. She was part of a senior class that helped the Big Orange forge a 131-17 overall record as well as win two SEC regular season titles (1998, 1999) and three SEC Tournament crowns (1996, 1998, 1999).

Year one back at her alma mater began with a fun and valuable summer trip to Western Europe and victorious exhibition games in The Netherlands, Belgium and France. The 2019-20 season ended suddenly under surreal circumstances, however, as the COVID-19 global health crisis forced the cancellation of the NCAA Tournament. In between those mileposts, though, there were many accomplishments of which to be proud.

First and foremost, a foundation was built, and there was clear improvement despite an inexperienced roster. A Lady Vol team that started two freshmen most of the way and played most of the season with only one returning starter from 2018-19 put together a 21-10 record and finished tied for third in the SEC at 10-6 after being picked seventh. Those numbers were up from a 19-13/7-9 (t8th) result prior to Harper's arrival, and the league placement was UT's highest since finishing first in 2014-15. She also mentored her initial two players to SEC recognition, including All-SEC First Team choice Renna Davis and SEC All-Freshman honoree Jordan Horston. Davis added honorable mention All-America accolades as well.

Off the court, eight of 12 players earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition. During the 2020 spring semester, those team members combined for a program-best 3.48 GPA.

Harper personally enjoyed the finest start of any season in her career at 7-0 and recorded the most total victories in her first season at a school with 21. She picked up her 300th overall career win vs. Alabama and surpassed her 500th contest as a head coach along the way. Her squad, meanwhile, finished second nationally in blocked shots per game (6.9), third in rebounds per game (45.97), third in defensive rebounds per game (31.2) and sixth in field goal percentage defense (33.8).

Her first recruiting class included four-star perimeter freshmen Destiny Salary, Tess Darby and Marta Suárez. UT also added graduate transfers Keyen Green (Liberty) and Jordan Walker (Central Michigan). Green came in at No. 15 on ESPN's Newcomers Impact Rankings list.

Only the third Lady Vol head coach in the NCAA era of women's basketball, Harper took the reins at Tennessee after six years of leading the Missouri State Lady Bears, capped by the 2018-19 season's impressive march to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title and magical run to the NCAA Sweet 16. She has directed her teams to 12 postseason berths in 16 complete years as a head coach and had the 2019-20 Lady Vols in position for her 13th overall and the school's 38th-consecutive NCAA bid before the tourney was canceled.

Harper guided Missouri State to NCAA appearances in 2015-16 and 2018-19 with WNIT berths on three other occasions. At previous schools, she also led North Carolina State to the NCAA Tournament in 2009-10 (plus two WNIT appearances) and guided Western Carolina to NCAA berths in 2004-05 and 2008-09 (plus two trips to the WNIT).

Harper ended 2019-20 with a 16-year career record of 306-218, including five NCAA Tournament appearances and seven WNIT berths in that span. In 25 full seasons as a Division I head coach, assistant coach or player, Harper has made 20 postseason appearances with a combined 554-271 record, 13 NCAA Tournament berths and seven WNIT bids.

She recorded a 118-79 won-lost record at Missouri State, claiming Missouri Valley Conference Tournament crowns in 2016 and 2019 and notching regular-season runner-up finishes in 2015-16, 2017-18 and 2018-19. After her first team at MSU finished 14-17/6-12 MVC (6th), she never placed lower than third in the league standings or missed the postseason. Three of her last four editions there surpassed the 20-win plateau, including the 2015-16 squad that forged MSU's first NCAA appearance in a decade.

The 2018-19 MSU squad improved measurably as the season progressed, resiliently overcoming a 1-7 start to post the program's best overall record (25-10) since 2004-05 and its top league mark (16-2) since 2003-04 with a 24-3 run over the final 27 contests. The Lady Bears finished No. 24 in the final 2019 USA Today Sports Coaches Poll, which was their first national ranking in 15 years. Harper was named the Missouri Valley Coach of the Year and also was chosen as the 2019 Kay Yow Coach of the Year, which goes to the Division I women's head coach who embodies a winning spirit while displaying great character, on and off the court.

Her final Lady Bears team developed into her best one with a late season spree that included victories over No. 21 Drake, No. 24 DePaul and No. 13 Iowa State and a nine-point loss to sixth-ranked Stanford in the Sweet 16. Harper's 2018-19 squad featured only one senior and included 11 freshmen or sophomores on the 14-player roster.

Prior to her arrival at Missouri State, Harper became just the third women's basketball coach in North Carolina State history in 2009 and directed the Wolfpack to three postseason appearances and a 70-64 record during her four-year stint at the helm, including the 2010 NCAA Tournament. NC State joined Tobacco Road rivals Duke and North Carolina as the only Atlantic Coast Conference teams to score wins over the league's other 11 teams during that span and earned six top-25 victories in four seasons.

Before her tenure in Raleigh, Harper piloted Western Carolina to a 97-65 record and four postseason berths in five seasons, including a 70-31 mark her final three years in Cullowhee. The Catamounts captured the first two Southern Conference (SoCon) Tournament titles in school history while seven student-athletes captured all-conference honors during her tenure.

She earned 2007 SoCon Coach of the Year accolades and placed her squads in the WBCA Academic Top 25 on three occasions, including a fifth-place finish in 2007-08.

Prior her first head coaching job, Harper spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Chattanooga, helping the Mocs to three consecutive Southern Conference championships, three NCAA appearances and a combined 78-15 record under head coach Wes Moore. She tutored four all-conference guards while at Chattanooga, including the 2004 league player of the year.

In advance of her time in Chattanooga, Harper spent two seasons at Auburn, the first as an administrative assistant before being promoted to assistant coach under Joe Ciampi for the 2000-01 campaign.

As a college player, Harper was part of a women's basketball dynasty at UT. As a junior, she guided the Lady Vols to a 39-0 record and their third-straight national title, averaging 7.6 points and 3.8 assists for the season and scoring a career-high 20 points in the national final against Louisiana Tech. She went 4-of-5 from beyond the arc in that contest and was named to the 1998 All-Final Four Team.

Harper set an NCAA championship game record with 11 assists and dished out 20 dimes in two games for All-Final Four honors in 1997 after returning from a knee injury midway through her sophomore year. That year, the National Strength and Conditioning Association named her its Strength and Conditioning Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

For her Tennessee career, Harper scored 894 points and had 452 assists, leaving UT on the school's career top 10 lists for assists, assist average, 3-point attempts and 3-point percentage. She still ranks seventh in career assists and is 10th in 3-point percentage (.364, 99-272).

Harper was drafted by the Cleveland Rockers in the fourth round of the 1999 WNBA draft and earned her degree in mathematics that same year. She was a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member and earned both All-SEC Coaches Second Team and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. She also was named to the SEC Community Service Team as a senior.

She played for her father (the late Kenneth Jolly) at White County High School in Sparta, Tenn., and was a five-time All-American during her AAU playing career. She was inducted into the UT Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009 and White County High Hall of Fame in 2012. On Dec. 24, 2019, the basketball hardwood at the new Findlay Elementary School in Sparta was dedicated as "Kellie's Court."

Harper is married to Jon Harper, an assistant coach on her staffs at Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and now Tennessee. The Harpers welcomed their first child, son Jackson, in November 2013, and had a daughter, Kiley, in June 2018.

LACEY GOLDWIRE

ASSISTANT COACH/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

SECOND YEAR AT TENNESSEE/13TH YEAR AS AN ASSISTANT OKLAHOMA STATE '10

Lacey Goldwire is in her second season at the University of Tennessee, joining Kellie Harper's staff as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator on April 25, 2019.

The 2020-21 campaign will mark her ninth season full-time and her 13th year overall in the coaching profession, including stops at Oklahoma State, Morehead State, Iowa, Arkansas and now Rocky Top. She has been part of programs that have earned postseason berths in nine of 12 seasons and was in line for number 10 had it not been for the cancellation of the 2020 NCAA Tournament due to the COVID-19 global health crisis.

Goldwire helped build a foundation in year one on Rocky Top. A UT team that played the bulk of the year with only one returning starter from a year ago and two freshmen in the first five put together a 21-10 record and finished tied for third in the SEC with a 10-6 mark after being picked seventh. Those numbers were up from a 19-13/7-9 (18th) result prior to Goldwire's arrival, and the league placement was UT's highest since finishing first in 2014-15.

The staff mentored its initial two players to SEC recognition, including All-SEC First Team choice Renna Davis and SEC All-Freshman honoree Jordan Horston. UT also signed four-star perimeter freshmen Destiny Salary, Tess Darby and Marta Suárez as well as graduate transfer post Keyen Green from Liberty and graduate transfer guard Jordan Walker from Western Michigan.

Goldwire came to Knoxville from the University of Arkansas, where she spent two seasons as an assistant on Mike Neighbors' staff from 2017-19. Since arriving in April 2017, she helped in the rebuilding process as the Razorbacks went from 13-18 in Neighbors' first season (2017-18) to 22-15 in 2018-19 with a trip to the SEC Tournament championship game and the WNIT third round.

Prior to joining Neighbors in Fayetteville, Goldwire contributed to four postseason appearances in as many years at the University of Iowa. She worked with the wing players and served as the recruiting coordinator for the Hawkeyes, helping set the table for a run to the 2019 NCAA Elite Eight.

Her initial season in Iowa City was the first of back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament. A 27-win season included a second round appearance in the Big Dance in 2013-14. Iowa returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2014-15 and defeated 14th-seeded American (75-67) in the first round and 11th-seeded Miami (88-70) in the second round. The victory secured a Sweet Sixteen berth at home on MediaCom Court in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Hawkeyes closed their season with a 26-8 record overall, a runner-up finish in Big Ten play with a 14-4 mark, and a No. 11 national ranking in the USA Today Top 25 Coaches' Poll — then the highest for the program since 1995-96 (No. 7 in AP, No. 9 in USA Today). UI was one of 13 teams nationally to finish undefeated at home with an 18-0 mark, setting a program record for wins at home in a single season.

Goldwire and the Hawkeyes were one win shy of 20 in 2015-16, playing in the WNIT, but they reached 20 wins in 2016-17 and went deep into the WNIT bracket with wins over Missouri State, South Dakota and Colorado.

During her time in Iowa, Goldwire worked with Samantha Logic, whose honors also included being named a WBCA Division I Coaches All-American, USBWA All-American, ESPN Second Team All-American and Third Team Associated Press All-American. Logic was the only player in NCAA history to accumulate at least 1,500 career points, 800 rebounds, 800 assists and 200 steals. She also was one of 12 players in the country to be invited to attend the 2015 WNBA Draft, where she was selected with the 10th overall pick by the Atlanta Dream.

Goldwire spent the 2012-13 season as an assistant at Morehead State. Prior to joining the Eagles' staff, Goldwire served on the Oklahoma State staff for four seasons — two as a student assistant (2008-10) and two as a graduate assistant (2010-12).

Following OSU's tragic loss of its head and assistant coach during a plane crash in November 2011, Goldwire was elevated to interim assistant coach, where she took on added recruiting duties. During her time with the program, the Cowgirls won 80 games and advanced to the postseason all four years, winning the 2012 WNIT championship.

A native of Oklahoma City, Goldwire played collegiately at East Central (Okla.) University, where she ranks fifth in career scoring with 1,340 points. She averaged 21.1 points and 5.9 rebounds as a senior and was tabbed Lone Star Conference North Co-Player of the Year and Second-Team All-South Central Region. She also earned ECU's Athlete of the Year honor in 2007-08. She was named honorable mention All-LSC following her sophomore and junior campaigns.

Goldwire, an all-state and all-city player at Del City (Okla.) High School, graduated from Oklahoma State with a bachelor of science in education and a master's degree in teaching, learning and leadership in 2010.

ASSISTANT COACH

SECOND YEAR AT TENNESSEE/20TH YEAR AS AN ASSISTANT AUBURN '99

Jon Harper is in year two at Tennessee and season 20 as an assistant coach, including his 17th campaign as an assistant to spouse Kellie Harper after he joined the Lady Vol staff on April 15, 2019. The Harpers have worked together since they were assistants at Chattanooga from 2001-04.

Harper helped build a foundation in year one on Rocky Top. A UT team that played the bulk of the year with only one returning starter from a year ago and two freshmen in the first five put together a 21-10 record and finished tied for third in the SEC with a 10-6 mark after being picked seventh. Those numbers were up from a 19-13/7-9 (t8th) result prior to Harper's arrival, and the league placement was UT's highest since finishing first in 2014-15.

The squad ranked second nationally in blocked shots per game (6.9), third in rebounds per game (45.97), third in defensive rebounds per game (31.2) and sixth in field goal percentage defense (33.8). The staff also mentored its initial two players to SEC recognition, including All-SEC First Team choice Renna Davis and SEC All-Freshman honoree Jordan Horston.

In six seasons at Missouri State, Harper mentored players who earned a total of 15 All-Missouri Valley Conference selections, including two-time first-team picks in Kenzie Williams and Liza Freundt, 2016 MVC Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year Tyonna Snow, 2018 first-team selection Alexa Willard and 2019 first-team choice Danielle Gitzen.

The Lady Bears accumulated 118 wins, five top-three MVC finishes and five postseason berths with Harper on staff, including a 2016 NCAA Tournament appearance after a 24-10 record and MVC Tournament championship and a 2019 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 finish with a 25-10 record and MVC tourney title.

While at North Carolina State from 2009-13, Harper tutored four different players to a combination of All-Atlantic Coast Conference, All-ACC Freshman, all-tournament honors and a league Freshman of the Year award. Harper helped a team that was predicted to finish ninth in the ACC to a fifth-place finish and NCAA Tournament berth in 2010, as well as a pair of WNIT appearances his final two seasons there.

Prior to NC State, Harper spent five years as an assistant coach at Western Carolina with Kellie, and before that three seasons at Chattanooga, before heading to WCU with Kellie for the 2004-05 campaign.

During his time at Western Carolina, Harper worked with the backcourt players and helped produce five all-conference selections and the Southern Conference's Defensive Player of the Year in 2008. The Catamounts advanced to the postseason four of his five years on staff, including a pair of NCAA Tournament berths.

Harper got the coaching bug while serving as a practice player and then manager at Auburn for three seasons from 1996-99, and he worked his way up to numerous administrative responsibilities with the team.

While he was at Auburn, the Lady Tigers compiled a 58-29 record that included the 1997 SEC Tournament Championship and a pair of NCAA Tournament berths in 1997 and 1999.

Harper joined the Auburn team as practice player and then manager, starting in 1996-97, and worked up to head manager in 1998-99. That season, he was charged with increasing responsibilities that included overseeing the male practice players that scrimmaged the Lady Tigers. He eventually served an internship with the coaching staff.

Harper earned his bachelor's degree in health promotion/sports management in March 1999 and in May of that year married the former Kellie Jolly. After receiving his degree, Harper taught physical education and was an assistant football coach at Lee-Scott Academy in Auburn. He then moved into private business before joining the basketball coaching ranks on the Chattanooga staff.

The Harpers welcomed their first child, son Jackson, in November 2013, and had a daughter, Kiley, in June 2018.

JENNIFER SULLIVAN

ASSISTANT COACH

SECOND YEAR AT TENNESSEE/15TH YEAR AS AN ASSISTANT MEMPHIS '05

Jennifer Sullivan is in her second season at Tennessee and in her 16th year overall as an assistant coach, serving for the second time as a member of Kellie Harper's staff.

Sullivan helped UT build a foundation in year one on Rocky Top. A UT team that played the bulk of the year with only one returning starter from a year ago and two freshmen in the first five put together a 21-10 record and finished tied for third in the SEC with a 10-6 mark after being picked seventh. Those numbers were up from a 19-13/7-9 (18th) result prior to Sullivan's arrival, and the league placement was UT's highest since finishing first in 2014-15.

The squad ranked second nationally in blocked shots per game (6.9), third in rebounds per game (45.97), third in defensive rebounds per game (31.2) and sixth in field goal percentage defense (33.8). The staff also mentored its initial two players to SEC recognition, including All-SEC First Team choice RENNIA DAVIS and SEC All-Freshman honoree JORDAN HORSTON.

Sullivan was officially announced as a member of the Lady Vol staff on April 15, 2019. She was previously an integral part of Kellie Harper's program at Missouri State from 2013-18, serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator there alongside current UT colleague Jon Harper before spending the 2018-19 season at Ohio State as an assistant coach.

After five seasons in Springfield, Mo., at MSU, Sullivan joined the OSU women's program in 2018. Her lone year in Columbus found the Buckeyes mixing together five graduate transfers and three freshmen with four returning players. Sullivan played an instrumental role in developing chemistry throughout the campaign. The Buckeyes started the year 4-8 but went on to win 10 of their final 15 regular season games to finish fifth in the Big Ten Conference with a 10-8 mark.

At Missouri State, Sullivan played a significant role in the Lady Bears landing stellar recruiting classes each of her five seasons there. In her first recruiting class at MSU, Sullivan helped land a trio of all-state players from Missouri and another from Illinois that helped the Lady Bears to 79 wins and four postseason appearances during the careers, combining for 439 career games, more than 3,100 points and nearly 1,500 rebounds.

Missouri State's subsequent recruiting classes reinforced the school's strong presence in the region, with players from Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Illinois and Minnesota signing National Letters of Intent to play for the Lady Bears.

Prior to making the move to Springfield, Sullivan spent the 2012-13 season as associate head coach for Garry Brodhead at the University of Louisiana in Lafayette, serving as the team's recruiting coordinator while handling guard development and scheduling.

Prior to her stint with the Ragin' Cajuns, Sullivan was an assistant at Arkansas State in her hometown of Jonesboro for three seasons. Sullivan served as ASU's recruiting coordinator in addition to duties with summer camps, academic monitoring and opponent scouting.

Sullivan's strong southern ties date to her playing days at the University of Memphis from 2001-05, where she was a

CATHERINE GREENE

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

SECOND YEAR AT TENNESSEE
NORTH CAROLINA '08

Catherine Greene is in her second season as director of basketball operations for the Lady Vol program, joining the staff on May 31, 2019.

She arrived on Rocky Top after serving from 2017-19 as the director of student-athlete enrichment for the University of North Carolina women's basketball program. She was responsible for a variety of tasks within the program, including community engagement, community outreach, social media oversight, academics, marketing liaison, team building and career development in preparing student-athletes for life beyond basketball.

Greene is active within the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA), specifically organizing the director of operations sessions at the 2016 & 2017 conventions, and was a presenter in both 2014 & 2016.

She is also an active member in Women Leaders in College Sports (formerly NACWAA). Greene attended the Women's Leadership Symposium in 2014 and the Institute for Administrative Advancement in 2016.

Previously, Greene spent five seasons as a member of the Georgia Tech women's basketball program, the last four years as the director of women's basketball operations. Greene oversaw all aspects of the program's day-to-day operations as well as the Yellow Jackets' team travel, promotional and fundraising efforts, community service initiatives and community relations.

Greene took on leadership roles within the Georgia Tech Athletic Association as a member of the department's culture committee and senior staff.

She joined the Tech staff for the 2012-13 season as associate director of basketball operations after spending the previous two and a half years working full-time in event operations at North Carolina.

During her time at UNC, Greene served as director or co-director of more than 10 NCAA or ACC postseason championship events. She also worked as the game day manager for the Tar Heels' men's and women's soccer, field hockey, women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse and baseball teams.

Greene graduated from North Carolina in 2008 with Bachelor of Arts degrees in sociology and from the School of Journalism and Mass Communication with a public relations concentration. She earned a Masters of Arts in exercise and sport science with a sport administration specialization in 2010.

Greene, who hails from Gastonia, N.C., served as a manager for the Tar Heels' women's basketball team and was the head manager for three years. During that time, the Tar Heels won four ACC Championships and advanced to the 2006 and 2007 Final Fours. As a graduate student, Greene was a graduate student assistant for the women's team for one season before serving as the graduate intern for the Dean E. Smith Center.

JESSICA JACKSON

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING OPERATIONS

WESTERN CAROLINA '10

Jessica Jackson is in her second year as director of recruiting operations with the Tennessee women's basketball program after being a part of Kellie Harper's staff at two other universities.

With her help, UT signed four-star perimeter freshmen Destiny Salary, Tess Darby and Marta Suárez as well as graduate transfer post Keyen Green from Liberty.

A former player, graduate assistant and assistant under Harper, Jackson spent the 2018-19 season as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for Missouri State's NCAA Sweet 16 squad. She joined the Lady Vol program on May 31, 2019.

Prior to coming onboard with Harper at MSU, Jackson was employed during the 2017-18 campaign by Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., where her main responsibilities with the Bulldog women's program included recruiting, academics and scheduling.

She spent the previous three years (2014-17) at Appalachian State, contributing to a variety of aspects of the program in addition to her coaching and recruiting duties, ranging from equipment to compliance. Jackson was on the staff of ASU head coach Angel Elderkin, who served as a graduate assistant and then video coordinator for the Lady Vols from 2005-07.

Prior to her time at Appalachian State, Jackson was the director of women's basketball operations at Kent State University for two seasons from 2012-14.

Originally from Roswell, Ga., and a 2016 inductee to the Roswell High School Hall of Fame, Jackson played college basketball for two seasons at South Florida before transferring to Western Carolina prior to the 2007-08 season to play for Harper. She dished out a team-high 117 assists as a starting point guard for the Catamounts' NCAA Tournament team in 2009, and finished her college career with 475 points and 279 assists in 113 games.

Jackson graduated from WCU in 2010 with a marketing degree and earned her master's in adult and community college education from North Carolina State in 2012 after a two-year stint as a graduate assistant on Harper's staff in Raleigh from 2010-12.

HEATHER ERVIN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER RELATIONS & ADMINISTRATION

FIFTH YEAR ON STAFF/19TH YEAR AT TENNESSEE TROY '97

Heather Ervin is in her fifth season as a member of the UT women's basketball staff, and in her second season as the director of player relations and administration.

She made a return to college athletics after serving as the program administrator at the UT Center for Information and Communication Studies in the College of Communication from March 2015 to July 2016.

Prior to that, Ervin worked in athletic administration at UT for 13 years, from 2001-14. She was promoted in 2009 to assistant director of football operations, as the only female in the Southeastern Conference to hold that position. Ervin has a wealth of knowledge in the sports industry not only as a former student-athlete but as a coach and administrator as well.

A member of the WBCA and Women Leaders in College Sports, Ervin's responsibilities include providing mentorship and serving as the academic liaison for the Lady Vols. Additionally, she is involved with facility projects and campus housing as well as providing marketing insight.

Previous responsibilities have included assisting with all aspects of day-to-day recruiting operations, updating the recruiting boards and assisting with official and unofficial visits. She also was responsible for managing pre- and post-signing paperwork as well as organizing prospect evaluations and managing the coaches' recruiting travel.

Ervin's responsibilities in her previous role in athletics were to manage the head football coach's daily schedule while also providing administrative support to the director of football operations and the senior associate athletics director for football administration. Ervin also was responsible for arranging summer employment opportunities for student-athletes and working closely with the Thornton Center in monitoring student-athletes' class attendance.

In addition, she served as chief liaison for all player family event functions as well as managing a website designed for players' families. Ervin also was substantially involved with official and unofficial on-campus recruiting visits.

The Sweetwater, Tenn., native holds both a bachelor's degree in health and human services and a master's degree in foundations of education with an emphasis in sports management from Troy University, where she played basketball and later served as a graduate assistant basketball coach for two years.

Prior to that, she played two seasons at Hiwassee College in nearby Madisonville, Tenn. While there, Ervin helped the Tigers to a combined 57-10 record and two trips to the NJCAA national tournament.

During her playing days at Sweetwater High School, the former Heather Lenoir was a multi-sport athlete in basketball, softball and track and field. She set 12 track records and still owns nine of those today.

Ervin and her husband, Harry, reside in Maryville. They have two daughters: Jasmine (17) and Jada (13).

ALEX VARLAN

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING & ANALYTICS

FOURTH YEAR ON STAFF
TENNESSEE '13

Alex Varlan, a Knoxville native, Tennessee alum and former Lady Vol basketball manager, joined the program in July 2017 and is in his fourth consecutive and fifth overall season with the team. Originally hired as a video coordinator, he was promoted to director of scouting and analytics in May 2019 under Kellie Harper.

Prior to joining the staff at UT, he worked with the men's basketball program at Oakland University in Michigan from 2014-17. After serving as OU's video coordinator during the 2014-15 and 2015-16 campaigns, Varlan was named the team's director of scouting and recruiting innovation for the 2016-17 season.

Prior to his stint at Oakland, Varlan served as basketball operations coordinator for the Delaware 87ers of the NBA D-League in Wilmington, Del. While there, he served as an on-court member of the coaching staff, participating in practices, workouts, film breakdown and scouting reports. Additionally, he worked as the liaison between players and coaches/front office staff and also managed the team's operations budget, equipment, travel and game day staff.

Before being promoted to working with the 87ers, Varlan was an intern with their NBA affiliate, the Philadelphia 76ers. With the 76ers, Varlan worked directly with the team's director of player personnel, scouts, and coaching staff during the 2013 NBA Draft, 2013 NBA preseason, and the beginning of the 2013-14 NBA regular season. He continued as the liaison between the 87ers and 76ers coaching staffs throughout the 2013-14 NBA season.

Varlan, a graduate of Bearden High School, attended UT and graduated in 2013 with a degree in communication studies. He worked in the athletics department and spent time with the Lady Vols' nationally ranked basketball program in 2010, handling video services, stats and general team management activities.

TYLER WATSON

DIRECTOR OF WBB SPORTS PERFORMANCE

CHATTANOOGA '14

Tyler Watson is in his second year on the Tennessee women's basketball staff, coming aboard as the program's director of basketball sports performance on May 31, 2019.

Watson came to the Lady Vols from Missouri State, where he worked previously with head coach Kellie Harper. He spent the 2018-19 season as assistant strength and conditioning coach with the MSU women's and men's basketball programs as well as the women's and men's golf teams.

He served from December 2015 to the spring of 2018 as head strength and conditioning coach at Elon University in North Carolina. In that capacity, he oversaw all 16 athletic teams while working directly with men's and women's basketball in addition to volleyball, women's lacrosse and track & field.

Watson previously served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at both Tennessee State and Clemson. Watson worked with women's basketball, football and volleyball at TSU and had primary responsibility with volleyball and track & field at Clemson while assisting with football.

He holds a number of professional credentials, including USAW Level I sports performance certification, and has served internships at Southern Miss, Vanderbilt and with the Buffalo Bills.

Watson earned his undergraduate degree in exercise science from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga in 2014.

where he spent four years with the Xavier men's basketball team as a student program assistant. He is pursuing a master's degree in sports management.

CASI DAILEY

ASSOC. DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE

FIRST YEAR ON STAFF/FOURTH OVERALL YEAR AT TENNESSEE HOPE '08

Casi Dailey is in her first season at Tennessee as an associate director of sports medicine and oversees the medical care for the Lady Vol basketball team.

Dailey, who had a previous stint at UT from 2008 to 2011 as a graduate assistant and intern, returned to Knoxville from North Carolina State University, where she was employed from 2012-20. In her first year in Raleigh, she worked alongside Kellie and Jon Harper as part of the Wolfpack basketball staff.

During her eight years at NC State, Dailey worked primarily with a women's basketball program that claimed the 2020 ACC Tournament and posted back-to-back NCAA Sweet 16 appearances in 2018 and 2019. She also assisted the softball team and served as the treasurer for the ACC Sports Medicine Association from 2018-20.

Dailey received her bachelor's degree in athletic training in 2008 from Hope College in Holland, Mich., and became a certified athletic trainer. She then attended UT, where she earned a master's in sport management in 2010, with her master's project entitled "An ATC's Guide to Eating Disorders in Female Collegiate Athletics."

As a graduate assistant at Tennessee, Dailey worked with the 2009 NCAA champion Lady Vol track & field team as well as the women's golf and women's tennis programs. After earning her master's from Rocky Top, Dailey stayed an additional year as an intern athletic trainer.

Dailey has completed all three of the classes offered by the Kinesio Tape Association International. She is BFR certified through Owens Recovery Science. She also has completed the first module of Graston courses. In 2018, she became an Advisory Council member for the College Athletic Trainers Society. She also is a member of the NATA.

ANGIE BOYD KECK

SR. ASSOCIATE A.D./SR. WOMAN ADMINISTRATOR

26TH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
TENNESSEE '94

Senior Associate Athletics Director Angie Boyd Keck works closely with SEC and NCAA staff as UT's Senior Woman Administrator and also serves as the sport administrator for women's basketball, men's and women's golf, rowing and volleyball.

Among her duties, she monitors and directs sports programs in all aspects of operations, budget planning, resource allocation and scheduling. She approves and monitors practice, competitive schedules and NCAA time management legislation as well as advising the director of athletics on all matters concerning assigned sports programs.

Additionally, she manages and facilitates administrative situations associated with those sport, conducts evaluations of assigned coaches and oversees the general conduct of the program, including player/coach relationships, event management, travel conditions and criteria, competitiveness and student-athlete behavior and conduct.

She also shoulders responsibilities related to camp/clinic administration and finances. Keck assists with facility renovation and construction designs, fundraising for new facilities and renovations, and she also provides input for marketing plans and promotions for assigned sports.

Immediately prior to assuming her current post, she served as an associate AD—most recently for Business &

Internal Affairs—from 2008-19. She took on the role of SWA in the summer of 2019.

In the fall of 2019, Keck began a four-year term on the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Committee. She also has served on UT's exempt staff council, the Work Culture Improvement Team and is a member of Women's Leaders in College Sports.

Keck began her career in intercollegiate administration in 1994-95, when she was the assistant women's golf coach with the Lady Vols. Prior to her coaching stint, she was a member of the inaugural Tennessee women's golf team in 1992. Keck (then Angie Boyd) captained the 1993-94 squad to a 13th-place NCAA finish in 1994. She was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in both her years as a player and earned a spot in the Lady Vols Hall of Fame (now the University of Tennessee Athletic Hall of Fame) in the Fall of 2005.

A 1994 graduate of Tennessee, Keck earned her bachelor's degree in public administration. In 1997, she received her master's in sport administration from UT.

Keck and her husband, Kelly, reside in Dandridge, Tennessee. They have a son, Josh, and a daughter, Sidney.

DR. DONALD BRUCE

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

22ND YEAR AT TENNESSEE
DREW UNIVERSITY '94

Donald Bruce is the Douglas and Brenda Horne Professor of Business in the Center for Business and Economic Research (CBER) and the Department of Economics at UT Knoxville.

He joined the UTK faculty in 1999 after receiving his M.A. and Ph.D. in Economics from Syracuse and his B.A. with honors in Economics from Drew University.

As a CBER economist, Dr. Bruce regularly provides objective, non-partisan policy research and evaluation under contracts with an array of government agencies at the federal and state levels. His recent work in CBER has included an ongoing evaluation of Tennessee's welfare program, Families First, for the Tennessee Department of Human Services, an analysis of teacher supply and demand in Tennessee for the Governor's Office of Education Policy, and a forecast of expenditures on Tennessee Education Lottery Scholarships for the Tennessee Higher Education Commission.

In addition to his CBER research, Dr. Bruce studies the economic and behavioral effects of tax policies on such things as small business activity and owner-occupied housing. His work has been presented and published in a variety of academic journals, edited volumes, and professional meetings. He has testified before Congress on the topic of internet taxation, and he presented his work on taxes and small business activity before the President's Advisory Panel on Federal Tax Reform in 2005.

Dr. Bruce regularly teaches graduate and undergraduate courses on the economics of taxation and the economics of health and health care. He has recently served as the Director of Graduate Studies in Economics and the Director of the Undergraduate Major in Public Administration. Before becoming Faculty Athletics Representative, Dr. Bruce served for two years as chair of the Athletics Board's Fiscal Integrity and Long-Range Planning Committee. He has also served as chair of the UTK Faculty Senate's Budget and Planning Committee. Dr. Bruce is an active member of the National Tax Association, the International Institute of Public Finance, and the American, Southern, and Western Economic Associations. His community service has included numerous economic and policy presentations for state and local organizations, and he currently serves as Chairman of the Board of Innovative Education Partnership, the non-profit governing body of the Clayton-Bradley STEM Academy in Blount County.

Dr. Bruce lives in Walland, Tenn, with his wife Jennifer, a mathematics teacher at Clayton-Bradley, and their daughter, Annie.

PHILLIP FULMER

VICE CHANCELLOR/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

THIRD YEAR AS TENNESSEE A.D.
TENNESSEE '72

Phillip Fulmer was appointed as the University of Tennessee's Director of Athletics on Dec. 1, 2017. He accepted the position after serving as the UT system president's special advisor for community, athletics and university relations since June 20, 2017.

A campus leader, he also holds the title of Vice Chancellor and is an engaged member of the Chancellor's cabinet.

Fulmer—a former Tennessee football co-captain who went on to lead the Volunteers to a football national championship and earn first-ballot induction into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame—has faithfully served the University of Tennessee for more than 40 years.

He wasted no time getting to work in the AD chair. Six days after taking the reins of the athletic department at his alma mater, he finalized a deal to make Jeremy Pruitt the 26th head coach in the storied history of the Tennessee football program.

Fulmer had experience in such endeavors, as in 2013 he was tabbed by the administration at ETSU to serve as "special assistant to the athletic director and advisor to football," providing guidance and expertise as the school sought to restart its football program, which had been dormant for 10 years.

Since taking over as AD, Fulmer also has hired head coaches for volleyball (Eve Rackham), men's golf (Brennan Webb) and Tennessee's storied Lady Vols basketball program (Kellie Harper). He also came to terms on new or extended contracts for several other coaches—including 2019 Naismith National Coach of the Year Rick Barnes.

In Pruitt's second season leading the football program (2019), the Vols won seven of their last eight games, capped by a Gator Bowl win, while being only one of seven FBS teams to face at least nine bowl-eligible opponents. When Tennessee kicked off the 2020 season, it owned the second-longest active win streak among FBS programs.

Under Fulmer's leadership, Tennessee has laid claim to a pair of team SEC championships (men's basketball in 2018 and women's swimming & diving in 2020), 34 individual/relay SEC championships and three individual/relay NCAA titles.

Fulmer assumed his current duties midway through a year in which Tennessee finished 46th in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup. The Big Orange then improved to 35th in the 2017-18 Directors' Cup standings before ascending higher to a 25th-place finish in 2018-19.

The 2019 calendar year marked the first in school history that Tennessee's football team earned bowl eligibility while baseball, softball and men's and women's basketball all made their respective NCAA Tournaments.

The cornerstones of Tennessee Athletics under Fulmer's leadership are communication, trust, warmth and intensity.

»Communication – Open and honest communication—no surprises—as we pursue our goals.

»Trust – Trust is earned, not given. Every day... be trustworthy.

»Warmth – You know that I care about you, and I know you care about me; together, we care about our student-athletes, our university, our state, our fans and our community.

»Intensity – We attack each day with great intensity to achieve our goals and be the very best at our chosen calling.

Fulmer leaned on those same four pillars while leading his alma mater’s storied football program to the most dominant era in its modern history.

Fulmer’s 17 years at the helm of the Volunteers program produced a record of 152 wins and 52 losses. At the conclusion of Fulmer’s final season, he was the dean of SEC football coaches and no active coach with at least a decade in Division I-A had a better winning percentage (.744).

Under his tutelage, the Volunteers were the first to win the Bowl Championship Series National Championship in 1998 and made five appearances in the SEC Championship game, winning it in 1997 and 1998 and also capturing SEC East titles in 1997, 1998, 2001, 2004 and 2007.

Fulmer was named SEC Coach of the Year and National Coach of the Year in 1998.

A 1972 Tennessee graduate, he starred on the offensive line during his playing career, serving as team co-captain as a senior. The Vols were 30-5 and won an SEC Championship and a Sugar Bowl during his playing career from 1969-71.

He returned to Rocky Top as an assistant coach in 1980 before being named head coach in 1992.

Fulmer’s family approach in developing and guiding his young men on and off the field gave him the opportunity to mentor some of the top names in college and NFL history—including Manning, Eric Berry, Chad Clifton, Al

Wilson and Jason Witten. Fulmer’s motivation was rooted in his role as a principled mentor who pushed his student-athletes to grow socially, spiritually, academically and personally, as well as athletically.

Fulmer’s reputation as an ace recruiter led many analysts to praise him as one of the top head coach recruiters. His holistic approach earned recognition from his peers as he was named the second coach in history to earn the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Trophy, the presidency of the American Football Coaches Association, and national, regional and conference coach of the year honors.

His induction into the 2012 National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame on the first ballot was a rare accomplishment, signifying immense respect from his peers. He previously was inducted to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 2001 and the Greater Knoxville Sports Hall of Fame in 2008. He was welcomed into the Tennessee Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

In 2019, Fulmer served as chair of the board of directors for the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

Fulmer and his wife, Vicky, have been passionate and active supporters of several philanthropic causes. He has served as the national spokesperson for The Jason Foundation, Inc., since 1998. He also serves as honorary chair of the Knoxville Alzheimer’s Association Walk and sits on the Board of Trustees for the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Tennessee Valley. The annual Phillip Fulmer Golf Classic since 2001 has raised more than $1 million for Boys & Girls Clubs of the Tennessee Valley. Additionally, Vicky stands as an honorary board member with Friends of the Smokies.

Fulmer’s three daughters—Courtney, Brittany and Allison—each graduated from the University of Tennessee’s College of Communication & Information. Brittany and Allison also lettered as Lady Vols, competing as a diver and a softball player, respectively. His son, Phillip Jr., lives and works in White House, Tennessee.

CAREER HONORS

- VOLeaders Academy -- 2020-21
- SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll -- 2019-20

2019-20 FRESHMAN

- Came off the bench in 30 games to average 2.7 ppg. and shoot 43.9 percent from the field in her first year.
- Fired in 25 three-pointers in 54 attempts to rank third on the team in treys made and first in three-point field goal percentage (.463).
- Her .463 three-point shooting percentage was the second-highest for a season in UT history behind only Dena Head (25-51, .490).
- Started the year three of 15 (.200) from long range over her first eight games before shooting a toasty 22 of 39 (.563) during her final 22 appearances of the season.
- Had a breakout game against Howard, knocking down five of seven from the arc to score a career-high 16 points in 19 minutes of duty.
- Four games later, she went three of three on treys at Ole Miss and connected on both free throw tries to finish with 11 points.

- During a four-game span vs. No. 22/25 Arkansas, Vanderbilt, Ole Miss and Auburn late in the season, she went a combined seven of 13 (.538) against those SEC foes.
- Best effort during that stint came at Arkansas, where she was three of four for nine points in 13 minutes against the Razorbacks.
- Played 14 minutes against Ole Miss in their second meeting, scoring six points on two-of-three long-range marksmanship and grabbing a rebound in UT's win in Knoxville.
- Drained a three against Central Arkansas to score her first points as a Lady Vol while also leading the team in steals with two.
- Had her first game with multiple treys, firing in two in three attempts to net a (then) career-high eight points against Colorado State.
- Dished out a career-best four assists and grabbed two boards in UT's win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

HIGH SCHOOL

- Attended Bendigo Senior Secondary College

PLAYERS

- Competed for the Bendigo Spirit of the Women's National Basketball League and the Bendigo Lady Braves of the South East Australian Basketball League.
- Despite her youth compared to the other participants, Rennie rose through the ranks of the club circuit to earn a roster spot with the Bendigo Lady Braves.
- She played in 10 games her first year in 2016 for the Lady Braves at 15 years of age, hitting 14 of 39 field goals (.359), including 13 of 34 beyond the arc (.382). She was a perfect two of two from the free throw line and averaged 4.3 ppg.
- Scored 14 points, hitting four three-pointers in her first SEABL game.
- She saw duty in 25 games in 2017 for the Lady Braves, connecting on 56 of 128 field goal tries (.438), knocking down 32 of 88 (.364) shots from beyond the arc.
- She was 11 of 12 at the charity stripe and averaged 6.2 ppg.
- In 2018, she was selected as a development player for the Bendigo Bank Spirit in the Women's National Basketball League (WNBL).

- Rennie, though, missed all of the 2018 season after suffering a torn ACL in late 2017.
- Rennie first started playing for the Bendigo Lady Braves at the U14 level.

■ 2019-20 POSTSEASON NOTEBOOK

FIRST SEASON IN THE BOOKS FOR HARPER

- The inaugural season of the Kellie Harper era at Tennessee is in the books. It came to an unexpected and surreal end when the coronavirus (COVID-19) global health crisis forced the cancellation of the 2020 NCAA Tournament and altered typical human activities around the world for a substantial period of time.
- A Lady Vol team that started two freshmen most of the way and played most of the season with only one returning starter from 2018-19 put together a 21-10 record and finished tied for third in the SEC at 10-6 after being picked seventh.
- That third-place SEC finish was the best by UT since the 2014-15 squad captured the program's league-best 18th regular-season championship.
- The Lady Vols won 20+ games in a season for the 43rd time in the last 44 years and were in position to keep their perfect attendance mark for NCAA Tournament participation.
- Tennessee remains the only school to compete in every women's NCAA tourney, holding a streak of 38 straight berths.
- UT continues to be the winningest program in NCAA Women's Basketball history with a 1,384-343 all-time record.

YEAR ONE SUCCESS DESPITE YOUTH

- The 21 victories in her initial season at Tennessee marked the most earned by Kellie Harper in year one of any of her four stints as a head coach.
- It was the eighth 20-win season of Harper's head coaching career, including three straight and four of the last five years.
- Harper has twice recorded 20-win campaigns in her first year at a school. She was 18-14 in year one at Western Carolina, 20-14 in her first season at NC State, 14-17 in year one at Missouri State and finished 21-10 in year one at UT.
- UT's tie for third place in the SEC standings in 2019-20 marked the ninth top-three league finish by a Harper-coached team and the best outcome she has had in her first season at a school.

A CLOSER LOOK AT LAST SEASON

- The Lady Vols' only losses in 2019-20 were to teams that were destined for NCAA Tournament bids. Eight of those came against ranked foes, including four that were top-10 ranked teams (No. 1 Stanford, No. 1 South Carolina, No. 3 UConn, No. 8 Mississippi State) when UT played them.
- Tennessee beat Notre Dame, 74-63, on Nov. 11 when the Irish carried a No. 15/14 ranking.
- The Lady Vols stopped a two-game losing streak to Notre Dame and won for the first time at Purcell Pavilion since Jan. 5, 2008.
- Tennessee handed Notre Dame its first home loss to an unranked team (AP Poll) since 2012 vs. West Virginia. That streak ended at 91 games.
- The Lady Vols were the first team other than UConn to defeat the Fighting Irish at Purcell Pavilion in the previous 114 games.
- The Big Orange ended a 48-game N.D. winning streak in the month of November.
- UT had no bad losses on its résumé, picked up a win over LSU (receiving votes) and had close defeats vs. No. 13 Kentucky and No. 16 Texas A&M.

MILESTONES ACHIEVED

- Kellie Harper won her 300th game as a head coach

when the Lady Vols beat Alabama, 65-63, on Jan. 20.

- In that win over Bama, Tennessee picked up its 400th SEC regular season win. UT finished the year with a 405-84 all-time record vs. league foes during the regular season.
- The "W" vs. Bama equaled UT's 10th home win of 2019-20. UT has had at least 10 home victories in every one of Thompson-Boling Arena's 33 seasons.
- The Lady Vols' 7-1 start in SEC play was UT's best league open since going 13-0 in 2014-15.
- Kellie Harper coached the 500th game of her head coaching career on Dec. 1, as the Lady Vols defeated Air Force, 81-54, in Knoxville.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE DAVIS

- Renna Davis recorded 11 double-doubles in 2019-20, which tied for the seventh best total all-time by a Lady Vol junior with Cindy Noble and Shekinna Stricklen.
- Ranked ahead of her are Mercedes Russell (19), Isabelle Harrison (18), Chamique Holdsclaw (16), Candace Parker (14), Daedra Charles (13) and Glory Johnson (12).
- Davis is tied with Bashaara Graves for 10th in UT history with 29 double-doubles during her first three seasons.
- Ranked ahead of Davis are Chamique Holdsclaw (57), Mercedes Russell (46), Candace Parker (45), Glory Johnson (36), Mary Ostrowski (35), Tamika Catchings (32), Isabelle Harrison (31) and Daedra Charles and Sheila Frost (30).
- Among active SEC players, Davis ranks third (29) in the league for career double-doubles, and she tied for fourth with 11 during the 2019-20 season.

MORE NUMBERS FROM "RE"

- Renna Davis eclipsed the 1,000-point plateau last season, becoming the 46th Lady Vol to do so. Davis finished the year with 1,400 points and stood 29th on the all-time UT scoring list.
- Renna Davis averaged 18.0 points, 8.2 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game while shooting 46.9 percent from the field and 80.2 percent from the free-throw line.
- Her scoring and rebound averages rank sixth and seventh, respectively, among all-time UT juniors.
- Davis' scoring average was the best by a Lady Vol since Candace Parker averaged 21.3 in 2008.
- She was first on the team in threes made (34), second in steals (28) and third in assists (74).
- Against nine ranked opponents, Davis put up 19.8 ppg. and 7.0 rpg. and shot 43.8% on field goals and 84.2% on free throws vs. those teams.
- She averaged 19.9 ppg. and 8.0 rpg. vs. SEC foes while hitting 49.6% from the field and 82.8% at the charity stripe in 16 regular-season contests.
- Davis scored in double figures in 29 of 30 games, including the last 28 straight. She now has scored in double figures in 42 of her last 43 contests.
- Among her 29 games with 10 or more points, she reached 15+ on 25 occasions and had 20+ six times. She now has 13 20-point efforts during her career to rank No. 9 all-time at UT.
- Re ranked second in the SEC in points (541) and field goals made (209), third in field goal attempts (446) and points per game (18.0), fourth in free throw percentage (80.2) and fifth in rebounds (245) and rebounds per game (8.2). She was eighth in field goal percentage (46.9).

- Davis' career rebounding (7.82) and scoring (14.9) averages rank No. 9 and No. 10, respectively, among anyone who has played for the Lady Vols. Her career free throw percentage (.804) ranks No. 10 as well.
- Her 10-of-10 free throw effort vs. LSU on Jan. 26 was the best ever by a Lady Vol at Thompson-Boling Arena and ranked as the fourth-best effort in school history behind only perfect efforts with 13, 12 and 11 attempts from previous players.

MULTITUDE OF HONORS FOR DAVIS

- Rennia Davis was named All-SEC First Team for the initial time in her career. She was a second-team honoree as a sophomore in 2018-19 and named to the SEC All-Freshman Team in 2017-18.
- Davis earned AP, USBWA and WBCA All-America honorable mention acclaim.
- She made the Cheryl Miller Award Top 10, the John R. Wooden Award Top 20, the Citizen Naismith Trophy Midseason Top 30 and the Wade Trophy Midseason Watch List.
- Davis earned SEC Player of the Week accolades three times, College Sports Madness SEC Player of the Week twice and USBWA National Player of the Week on one occasion.

HORSTON NAMED SEC ALL-FRESHMAN

- Jordan Horston made the SEC All-Freshman Team.
- The 6-foot-2 guard averaged 10.1 points, 5.5 rebounds and 4.6 assists while starting 22 of 31 games and coming off the bench the final eight.
- Horston scored in double figures 15 times and led UT in assists on 21 occasions, tallying five or more dimes 17 times.
- She finished with 27 three-pointers, which ranked second only behind the 34 of Rennia Davis.
- Her 143 assists and 4.6 assist average both rank second among all-time freshmen at Tennessee.
- After one season on Rocky Top, Horston's 4.6 assist average ranked fourth on UT's career list.

KEY, LADY VOLS BIG ON BLOCKS

- Tennessee recorded 215 blocked shots in 2019-20, which is the fourth-highest total in school history. The 6.9 bpg. average ranked No. 1 in school history, topping the 6.5 of 2009-10.
- The Lady Vols finished the year ranked second in the SEC and nationally in blocks (215) and blocks per game (6.9).
- Tamari Key recorded 86 blocked shots to tie Candace Parker for the fifth-most in a season in UT history and had the second-most ever by a Lady Vol freshman.
- Key finished No. 1 in the SEC in blocked shots (86) and blocks per game (2.77) and ranked 11th and 13th in the NCAA in those categories, respectively.
- She stands No. 1 in career block average (2.77).
- Key's nine blocked shots at South Carolina and seven vs. Kentucky ranked as the second and fifth-best single-game totals in school history.

THEY FOUND THE OPEN TEAMMATE

- Freshman Jordan Horston and sophomore Jazmine Massengill gave Tennessee a pair of guards each registering 100+ assists.
- Horston dished out 143 and averaged 4.6 apg., while Massengill had 128 dimes and an average of 4.1 per contest.
- Horston's 143 assists and 4.6 average both rank second all-time by a UT freshman, and she ranked fifth and fourth last season, respectively, among all SEC players and first among freshmen.

- Massengill's 4.13 average and 128 assists ranked sixth and seventh among all-time UT sophomores, respectively, and she was sixth in the SEC in both categories in 2019-20.
- She also had one of the nation's best assist-to-turnover ratios, ranking third in the SEC and 12th nationally at 2.67 to 1.
- Massengill tied for UT's seventh-best all-time assist total, carding 12 vs. Missouri on Jan. 2, 2020.

JESSIE FOR THREE

- Reserve freshman guard Jessie Rennie fired in 25 three-pointers in 54 attempts to rank third on the team in treys made and first in three-point field goal percentage (.463).
- Rennie's .463 three-point shooting percentage was the second highest for a season in UT history behind only Dena Head (25-51, .490).
- Started the year three of 15 (.200) from long range over her first eight games before hitting 22 of 39 (.563) during her final 22 appearances of the year.

BURRELL SURGES IN SECOND SEASON

- Sophomore Rae Burrell was the team's top reserve for the first 22 games before starting the final nine contests of the season.
- Burrell finished as Tennessee's second-leading (active) scorer at 10.5 ppg. and rebounder at 5.5 rpg., tying with rookie Jordan Horston.
- The 6-1 wing scored in double figures 15 times, with nine games of 15+ points and three of 20+.
- The Las Vegas native led UT in three-point shooting nine times and finished with 21 treys on the year to rank fifth on the team.

TEAM STRENGTHS, STATISTICALLY

- Besides being one of the best shot blocking teams in the nation, the Lady Vols were solid at rebounding, field goal percentage defense, assists and field goal percentage.
- UT was second in the SEC and third nationally in rebounds (1,425) and rebounds per game (45.97), while ranking second in the SEC and fifth in the NCAA in rebound margin (10.7). Additionally, the Lady Vols were second in the SEC and 25th nationally in offensive rebounds per game (14.8).
- The Lady Vols out-rebounded 25 of 31 opponents during the season and had eight players average better than 4.0 boards per game.
- Tennessee ranked second in the SEC and sixth in the nation in field goal percentage defense (33.8) and was second in the SEC and 42nd in the NCAA in three-point field goal percentage defense (28.5).
- Tennessee allowed 60.3 points per game, which ranked 13th in school history. That contrasted the 2018-19 average of 69.1, which was the second-most allowed in UT annals.
- The Lady Vols led the SEC and were 23rd nationally in assists per game (16.3) and were second in the league and 23rd nationally in assists (506).
- Tennessee finished fifth in the SEC and 37th nationally in field goal percentage (44.0).

OUR DEFENSE GOT BETTER

- UT finished 2019-20 second in the SEC and sixth nationally in field goal percentage defense at 33.8.
- The sports technology company Synergy ranked the Lady Vols No. 6 overall and No. 1 in Power 5 in zone defense opposition field goal percentage (32.4) last year.

BENCH PROVIDED BIG BOOST

- UT's bench outscored the opposing bench, 231 to 15.5 in 2019-20, winning the point battle 19 times in 31 games, including in seven of the last eight.
- In addition to Horston, Burrell and Rennie aiding this cause, Kasiyahna Kushkituah (5.4 ppg./4.4 rpg.) led a corps of reserves that also included Jaiden McCoy, Kamera Harris and Emily Saunders.

HARRIS RECOGNIZED FOR SERVICE

- Kamera Harris was named to the 2020 SEC Women's Basketball Community Service Team.
- Harris participated in the Adopt-A-Family program, joining with team members to purchase and deliver gifts at Christmas. She also helped serve the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee's (SAAC) Community Holiday Meal, providing food to the less fortunate during the holiday season, and she welcomed youngsters to the UT campus for Voloween, a Halloween celebration for kids in UT's Neyland-Thompson Sports Complex that is organized by SAAC.
- Additionally, Harris supported the Race for the Summit 5K, which was held to raise awareness and support for the Pat Summitt Foundation, an organization named for the late, legendary Lady Vol coach that is at the forefront for finding a cure for Alzheimer's. Other activities have included volunteering time at the Boys and Girls Club, participating in the Down Syndrome Awareness Group of East Tennessee's Hoops For Hope, decorating Christmas cookies with kids at East Tennessee Children's Hospital, volunteering at the Fantasy of Trees East Tennessee Children's Hospital fundraiser, assisting in the Cole's Launch paper airplane contest for patients at East Tennessee Children's Hospital, and celebrating and dancing with teens suffering from chronic illnesses at the East Tennessee Children's Hospital's "One Unforgettable Night."

SENIOR SALUTE

- UT said goodbye to seniors Lou Brown and Kamera Harris. They were honored in Senior Night ceremonies prior to the Ole Miss game on Feb. 27.
- Brown was a graduate transfer from Washington State who was supposed to contribute in 2018-19, but a torn ACL suffered in preseason practice ended her season before it started.
- She was granted a sixth season of eligibility by the NCAA and started 30 of 31 games for UT, averaging 4.6 points and 4.6 rebounds. The 6-foot-3 forward was fourth on the team with 22 three-pointers and shot 41 percent from the field and 86 percent from the charity stripe.
- Harris, also 6-3, played in a career-most 28 games, carving out a role as a reserve after moving from center to forward prior to her final season.
- She averaged 1.6 points and 1.4 rebounds for the year and played very well in the win over No. 15/14 Notre Dame, with six points and four rebounds, and vs. Texas, with six points and three boards.
- Brown and Harris, who earned her bachelor's degree in three years, both spent their final season on Rocky Top putting the finishing touches on master's degrees in communication and information with concentration in journalism and electronic media.

SEC HONORS EIGHT FOR ACADEMICS

- The Lady Vols had eight members of a 12-player roster recognized for their work in the classroom.
- Tennessee had five returnees make the list, including three starters. Earning accolades were redshirt senior Lou Brown, sophomore Rae Burrell, junior RENNIA Davis, senior Kamera Harris and junior Kasiyahna Kushkituah.
- Earning a spot on the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll were Jordan Horston, Jessie Rennie and Emily Saunders.
- Only two players were honored in 2018-19.

ATTENDANCE NUMBERS WERE UP

- Tennessee drew 8,645 fans in 16 home dates during the first year of the Kellie Harper era, ranking No. 6 nationally and marking an increase in attendance for the first time in eight seasons.
- After having no home crowds over 10,000 in 2018-19, Tennessee had three crowds better than 10K in 2019-20, including 12,738 vs. Texas A&M, 10,230 vs. LSU and 10,036 vs. Georgia.
- The 12,738 on hand for Texas A&M was the most at home since Feb. 25, 2018, when 13,058 witnessed Tennessee's victory over South Carolina.
- The Lady Vols played in front of three of the nation's seven largest crowds in 2019-20, including 13,735 at South Carolina (2nd), 13,659 vs. UConn in Hartford (3rd) and 12,738 vs. Texas A&M in Knoxville (6th).
- The Lady Vols have finished in the top 10 nationally in average attendance for the past 33 seasons and have been No. 1 19 times.
- Tennessee was one of only two universities (Louisville) with its men's and women's basketball teams ranked in the top 10 nationally for average attendance in 2019-20.
- The Vols (No. 4 / 18,990) and the Lady Vols (No. 6 / 8,645) featured the highest ranked combination of program attendance in the nation in 2019-20.

RIVALRY RENEWED

- The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame organized a renewal of the historic series between Tennessee and UConn.
- As part of the two-year series, UConn hosted UT on Jan. 23, with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the Pat Summitt Foundation and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. The Lady Vols led 31-28 at the half, but #3/5 UConn came back to win, 60-45, in Hartford.
- During the 2020-21 season, the Lady Vols will host the Huskies in Knoxville on Jan. 21.

EUROPEAN TRIP

- Tennessee went 3-0 on a trip to Western Europe from August 5-15, 2019.
- UT traveled to The Netherlands, Belgium and France on an excursion that balanced practice, games, academics and visits to tourist sites.
- The Lady Vols defeated Dozy BV Den Helder in the city of Den Helder, Netherlands, 97-45, on Aug. 8. They then cruised by KBBC Upkot Sparta Laarne in Laarne, Belgium, 106-64, on Aug. 10. UT closed out the tour in France by rolling past AK Select in the village of Brétigny-sur-Orge, 93-43, on Aug. 13.

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. -- The Lady Vols staved off a tenacious ETSU squad, opening the Kellie Harper era with a gritty 72-68 win in front of a crowd of 5,881 at Freedom Hall in Johnson City, Tenn.

Tennessee (1-0) was paced by junior Renna Davis and freshman Tamari Key who each notched double-doubles. Davis ended the evening with 13 points and 10 rebounds, while Key recorded 11 points and 12 rebounds. Sophomore Zaa Green led UT in scoring with 17 points.

ETSU (0-1) was led by Erica Haynes-Overton who poured in a commanding 41 points while pulling down 10 boards and snagging seven steals. El'Lease Stafford was also in doubles figures for the Bucs with 13.

Redshirt junior Jaiden McCoy got things started for the Lady Vols, posting up and spinning for a layup from the left block to score the first official points of her Tennessee career less than a minute into the season opener. UT then hit a scoring slump, going nearly four minutes without a bucket while ETSU jumped out to a 7-2 lead. Freshman Jordan Horston broke the drought, driving the full length of the floor to lay the ball in for two points. Redshirt senior Lou Brown and freshman Tamari Key would combine for six unanswered points to tie the game at 10-all with three minutes left in the quarter before Horston struck again to reclaim the lead for UT at 12-10. Tennessee went on to take a 19-15 lead into the second stanza.

The teams traded baskets through the first three and a half minutes of the second quarter before Green scored six straight points to fuel an 11-4 run that put UT up 34-24 with just under three and a half minutes remaining in the half. Micah Scheetz answered with a long-range three for Bucs, but UT kept the pressure on and took a 40-30 lead into the break.

Green struck first in the second half, draining a three to put UT up 43-30 a minute into the quarter. Both teams picked up the pace on offense as the quarter progressed, but Tennessee outpaced the Buccaneers, outscoring them 16-13 to close out the third with a 61-50 lead.

With just under seven minutes remaining in the game, Haynes-Overton sank a three then followed it up with a steal and layup to cut UT's lead to single digits at 63-56. Davis answered with a three of her own to put the Lady Vols back up by 10 with just over five minutes remaining. The Bucs rallied back though, cutting the lead to three off the hardwood of Overton-Hayes and Stafford with just over a minute to play. Overton-Hayes then converted on one of two free-throws to further shrink the deficit to two with 34.1 seconds remaining. Green responded by knocking down back-to-back free throws on the other end to extend UT's lead to 70-66 with 26.9 to play. Haynes-Overton again answered, knocking down a 10-foot jumper on the baseline, but Davis and Burrell each hit free throws to put the game out of reach, and UT went on to win 72-68.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- In just the third meeting in school history, the University of Tennessee defeated Central Arkansas, 63-36, in Thompson-Boling Arena with a crowd of 7,278 looking on.

After allowing 18 points to the Sugar Bears (0-1) in the first quarter, Tennessee (2-0) surrendered just 18 points the rest of the way to give UT Head Coach Kellie Harper her first regular season win on The Summit. The effort enabled the Lady Vols to improve their record in home openers to 43-3 all-time.

In her first career start in a Lady Vol uniform, freshman guard Jordan Horston posted a team-leading 17 points on 7-of-9 accuracy from the field and 2-of-2 shooting from the three-point arc. She also pulled down five rebounds and dished out three assists in 27 minutes of duty.

Along with Horston, Key also had her first career start, and the two newcomers scored UT's first 14 points to give Tennessee a 14-6 lead halfway through the first quarter.

Horston started the game off hot by scoring the first two buckets for the Big Orange, giving UT an early 5-0 lead. The freshman duo put up a perfect 6-for-6 showing in field goals, as Horston finished with eight points and Key contributed the other six during the early spurt. The Lady Vols finished the first quarter with 20 points, with Horston tallying 13 of them.

Horston continued her scoring streak by making the first bucket in the second frame, followed shortly by a three-pointer from sophomore Zaa Green. Another fellow newcomer, Jessie Rennie, also reached a milestone by scoring her first career points as a Lady Vol, draining a clutch three-point bucket with less than two minutes remaining in the half to extend UT's lead to 31-26. To finish off the first half, sophomore Jazmine Massengill scored a last-second bucket, pushing the Big Orange's lead to 33-26 entering the locker room. The newcomers combined for 22 points in the first half.

The Lady Vols came out storming in the third quarter, shooting a blazing 64.3 percent from the field and jumping to a 51-32 lead after 10 more minutes of play. Horston opened up the second half with another jumper and brought her scoring total to 17 points in three quarters of play. Defensively, UT only allowed the Sugar Bears seven points in the quarter and 16.7 percent shooting from the field.

In the final stanza of the non-conference game, Green and sophomore Rae Burrell each scored four points. Freshman Emily Saunders also scored her first career bucket and collected three rebounds in just four minutes of play. Tennessee also had an impressive showing from the bench with 21 points scored by reserves. The Lady Vols dominated the paint, scoring 44 points, and only allowed 14 by UCA. UT also led in the rebounds column, outworking the Sugar Bears, 41-36, in rebounds.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. -- Renna Davis tied her career high of 33 points to lead Tennessee (3-0) to victory over No. 15/14 Notre Dame on the road, 74-63. It was the Lady Vols' first victory on the road in the series since 2008.

Davis, the 6-foot-2 junior from Jacksonville, Fla., also pulled down 10 boards to record her second double-double of the season and the 20th of her career. Freshmen Jordan Horston and Tamari Key were also in double digits for UT with 12 and 11 points, respectively, while Jazmine Messingill narrowly missed a double-double, pulling down a team-high 13 rebounds and dishing out nine assists to set new career highs in both categories.

Notre Dame (2-1) was led by Destinee Walker, who finished with 18 points. Sam Brunelle pitched in 16.

Horston and Key got things started for UT, combining for UT's first five points to knot the score at five-all just over two minutes into the game. Davis then scored back-to-back buckets to give the Lady Vols a 9-5 lead by the 6:32 mark, and another Horston 3-pointer stretched the lead to 12-7 by the media timeout with 4:24 to go in the quarter. Coming out of the timeout, Davis poured in another five points to put Tennessee up by 10. A seven-point run by the Fighting Irish cut the lead to three with under two remaining, but UT closed out the quarter with a 5-0 run of its own and took a 21-14 lead into the second stanza.

The first two minutes of the second quarter were riddled with fouls, and neither team scored anything but free throws until Key knocked down a layup off a Messingill assist to put UT up 26-16 with 7:42 remaining in the half. The Irish rallied back with a 7-2 run to cut the lead to five, but Messingill answered with a driving layup to set off a 4-0 run that put UT back up 32-23. Notre Dame again bounced back, scoring five quick points to cut the lead to four with under three minutes left in the quarter. Senior Kamera Harris put up four points for UT, while Messingill blocked a shot on a fast break to hold Notre Dame scoreless for the final three minutes to help the Big Orange take a 36-28 lead into halftime.

Davis kicked off things in the second half, knocking down back-to-back threes to stretch UT's lead to 42-28 less than a minute in. Katlyn Gilbert hit a layup for Notre Dame to curb the run, but Tennessee answered with a Key layup and Horston try to lead by 17 at the 8:12 mark. Notre Dame relief following the media timeout, hitting threes on back-to-back possessions, but Kasiyahna Kushkutihau stepped up for UT, contributing four points over two possessions and blocking a shot on the defensive end to boost the Lady Vols' lead to 15 with under three in the stanza. UT closed out the period with a 60-47 lead.

Key and Horston scored the first five points of the final quarter to stretch UT's lead to 17 in less than a minute, but the Irish fought back with a 6-0 run to cut the lead to 11 with just over six minutes remaining in the game. That score held through the 3:38 mark, when Davis knocked down a 10-footer to stretch the lead back to 13. Anaya Peoples answered with a three on the other end and followed it up with a free throw on the following possession to slice the lead to single digits at 66-57 with 2:29 to play. With time on its side, Tennessee was able to manage the clock and convert on free throws to take a 74-63 victory out of Purcell Pavillion.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- The Lady Vols moved their record to 4-0, defeating Tennessee State, 73-43, in front of a crowd of 7,213 at Thompson-Boling Arena.

The win marked the third-straight year that UT has started out 4-0, and the Lady Vols improved to 6-0 all-time against the Lady Tigers (1-1).

Eight players for the Big Orange scored during the first of six consecutive home games, with three of them scoring in double digits. Sophomore Rae Burrell came off the bench to lead the way with a career-high-tying 14, while junior Renna Davis and junior Kasiyahna Kushkutihau added 12 and 11, respectively.

Davis, the current SEC Player of the Week, led UT in rebounding for the second time this season, grabbing 10. Her double-double was her third of the season and 21st of her career.

Tennessee State was led by Taylor Roberts with 12 points, followed by Deaja Richardson who logged 11.

Tennessee continued its dominance on the glass by out-rebounding Tennessee State, 60-38. The Lady Vols have now grabbed more rebounds than their opponents in all four contests so far this season. The Big Orange had 31 points from bench players and tallied 44 vs. TSU in the paint.

Sophomore Jazmine Messingill got UT on the scoreboard first, followed by a layup from freshman Tamari Key and a three-pointer from redshirt senior Lou Brown to quickly give Tennessee an early 7-2 lead with just over two minutes gone in the first quarter. UT led 14-10 at the end of the period, with nine players seeing action in the first 10 minutes.

Freshman Jordan Horston scored the opening bucket in the second quarter, giving UT a 16-10 lead. The next five points were scored by Davis, who started a scoring streak for the Lady Vols. Burrell had back-to-back buckets, and Horston nailed a three-pointer and followed it with a fast break lay-in, extending UT's lead to nine with 2:57 remaining in the second frame. Davis scored four more points for the Lady Vols, and Kushkutihau finished the first half with a lay-up, giving Tennessee a 35-22 lead at the end of the opening 20 minutes.

The Lady Vols held TSU to a 21.6 shooting percentage in the first half, only allowing eight field goals. Offensively, UT shot at a 40.6 clip in the opening half and out-rebounded the Tigers, 33-16.

Brown opened up the second half with a corner three-pointer less than a minute into the quarter, beginning a run of six different UT players scoring in the period. Freshman Emily Saunders led the Lady Vols in scoring in the third stanza with back-to-back buckets less than two minutes in the frame. After two made free throws by Messingill with 59 seconds left in the third quarter, UT had its then-largest lead of the game with a 25-point advantage at 51-26.

Tennessee went on to a 10-0 run to open the fourth quarter, and five different Lady Vols contributed to a 15-6 scoring burst. The spurt gave UT its largest lead of the game at 64-33 with just under five minutes remaining in the game.

The Big Orange had its best shooting percentage during the final frame, hitting 50 percent and going on to win 73-43.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Five players scored in double figures, as No. 23 Tennessee topped Stetson, 73-46, at Thompson-Boling Arena to improve to 5-0 on the year.

The Lady Vols opened with five straight wins for the third season in a row, and they gave head coach Kellie Harper the first 5-0 start of her career.

Junior Rennie Davis and freshman Jordan Horston led Tennessee in scoring with 15 and 14 points, respectively. Sophomore Rae Burrell notched her first career double-double with 10 points and 11 rebounds, while sophomore Jazmine Massengill pitched in 12 points and junior Kasiyahna Kushkitsuah tallied 11.

Stetson (2-3) was led in scoring by DayNesha Banks, a high school teammate of Davis, with 21, followed by Kennedy Colough with 10.

Senior Lou Brown scored the opening points of the evening with a corner three less than a minute into the game. Tennessee would go on to knock down five more three-point shots in the opening quarter, recording a 66.7 shooting percentage from beyond the arc in the period.

Horston quickly drained two more three-pointers, giving the Lady Vols an early 9-2 lead over the Hatters. Sophomore Rae Burrell came off the bench at the 4:44 mark and quickly sank another trey for UT, giving the Lady Vols a 12-8 advantage. Freshman Jessie Rennie kept the three-point scoring streak alive with another bucket from beyond the arc, putting the Lady Vols up 15-10. Horston would finish out the quarter with a jumper from inside the paint to give the Big Orange a 20-11 lead at the end of the first period.

The Big Orange went on a 9-0 scoring run to close out the second stanza, starting with a pair of free throws from Kushkitsuah with 2:15 left and followed up with two buckets from Davis and a last second 3-pointer from Horston to put UT up 39-24 at half.

Massengill opened up the third period with two buckets, followed by a jumper from Key to extend UT led to 45-26 with 6:50 left in the quarter. Burrell came off the bench again to score a lay-in and make the game 49-28 with just over four minutes remaining in the quarter. Kushkitsuah went on to score Tennessee's next three buckets via layups to put UT up 58-35 heading into the final stanza.

Burrell scored an easy jumper in the opening two minutes of the fourth quarter, making it 60-38 in favor of the Lady Vols. Massengill scored UT's eighth bucket from beyond the arc with 7:16 left to play, followed by two free throws from Burrell to extend the lead by another five points. The Lady Vols led the Hatters by 27 for most of the fourth quarter and finalized it at the end following a couple free throws from Massengill in the last 30 seconds of the game.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- No. 20/25 Tennessee moved to 6-0 on the season, defeating the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff, 92-51, in Thompson-Boling Arena.

The Lady Vols were led by junior forward Rennie Davis, who recorded her fourth double-double of the season with 17 points and 11 rebounds. Sophomore Rae Burrell added a career-high 17 points, while junior Kasiyahna Kushkitsuah chipped in 15.

The Golden Lions (0-4) were paced by junior Trastly Totten, who finished the night with 19 points and four rebounds. Jayla Altmore and Tyler Pyburn contributed 12 and 11, respectively.

The Lady Vols had their best performance in a first quarter so far this season, jumping out to a 26-7 lead after the opening 10 minutes. The 26 points marked the most scored by UT in a single quarter so far this season.

Senior Lou Brown opened up a 15-1 scoring run, tallying a lay-up two minutes into the first period. A total of seven different players got on the scoreboard during the opening stanza, led by Kushkitsuah totaling seven. Senior Kamera Harris was right behind Kushkitsuah, tying her career high with six points in the quarter.

The Big Orange didn't allow a two-point bucket until seven minutes into the first period, holding the Golden Lions to a 13.3 shooting percentage and forcing five turnovers. UT also out-rebounded Arkansas-Pine Bluff, 17-4, and recorded a 60-percent shooting percentage.

Tennessee continued its dominant performance in the second quarter, hitting a season-high 48 points in the half and only allowing the Golden Lions 11 points. The Lady Vols went on a 20-0 run during the stanza, with Burrell leading the scoring charge with six points and two steals to boot.

Defensively, the Big Orange held UAPB without a bucket until 1:07 remaining in the half and only allowed four points in the quarter, marking a new program record for fewest points scored by an opponent in a second period.

In the third quarter, Davis and Kushkitsuah both carded six points and three rebounds. Key had the first three points for the Lady Vols in the second half, scoring off a free throw and a lay-in. Davis went on to score the next four points, giving UT a 55-20 lead. Kushkitsuah closed out the third stanza by making a lay-in, extending the lead to 67-35 at the end of 30 minutes.

Freshman Emily Saunders brought her point total to eight in the fourth quarter, marking a new career high during her eight minutes on the court. Freshman Jordan Horston followed that bucket with another lay-in, giving the Lady Vols a 75-42 advantage with 6:28 left in the game.

In her first game back since Nov. 11 at Notre Dame, junior Jaiden McCoy scored a career high eight points with back-to-back buckets in the last four minutes of the game, contributing to UT's 85-44 lead. Harris closed out scoring for UT, hitting a jumper with 28 seconds left. The bucket marked eight points for the senior, a career best for the Lady Vol.

Tennessee finished the game with 54 points off the bench and 62 in the paint, both season bests. The Lady Vols also out-rebounded the Lady Lions 53-32, continuing their streak of out-performing their opponents on the boards for the sixth-straight game.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- In the first-ever meeting between the teams, No. 20/25 Tennessee flew past Air Force, 81-54, in Thompson-Boling Arena to open the season 7-0 for fifth time in the past 10 years.

With a season-high crowd of 8,032 looking on, nine different players scored for the Big Orange. UT tallied 56 points inside the paint, had 23 points created from 22 Air Force (1-7) turnovers and shot a season-high 54.8 percent from the field. UT knocked down a sizzling 66.7 percent of its shots in the second quarter and 64.7 percent in the third period.

Junior Renna Davis just missed her fifth double-double, recording 18 points and nine rebounds to share leading scorer honors with sophomore Rae Burrell, who posted a scoring career high for the second straight game. Three other Lady Vols scored in double digits, including junior Kasiyahna Kushkithuah, sophomore Jazmine Massengill and freshman Tamari Key, who contributed 13, 11 and 10, respectively.

Air Force was paced by sophomore Riley Snyder, who scored 20 points and recorded six rebounds. Kaelin Immel finished with 13 points. The Falcons shot only 29.6 from the field, but out-rebounded Tennessee, 40-39. It marked the first time all season UT has been beaten on the boards.

Key scored the first points of the day after being fouled underneath the basket, nailing a pair of free throws. Davis followed that up with the first lay-up of the game and a bucket from beyond the arc, tying the game at 8-8. With two lay-ins from Key and Massengill, the Lady Vols led 12-11 with 3:58 left in the quarter. UT started pulling away shortly afterward. The Lady Vols tallied four lay-ins in a row, with three of those coming from Kushkithuah and the other from Burrell. Later, Burrell finished off the Lady Vols' scoring in the opening stanza with a jumper, making it a 24-15 lead for the Big Orange after one.

Freshman Jordan Horston started to create havoc for the Falcons in the second quarter by forcing a handful of turnovers that led to fast breaks and points for the Lady Vols, extending UT's lead to 30-20 with 5:07 left in the half. Burrell had quick back-to-back buckets with 3:34 remaining, giving UT its then-largest lead of the game at 34-20. Burrell closed out the second quarter with a lay-up on a fast break after senior Kamera Harris forced a turnover. Overall, the Lady Vols shot a blistering 66.7 percent in the second stanza and recorded four steals.

Davis scored the opening points in the second half and was followed by a lay-up from senior Lou Brown, making it a 47-27 advantage for the Lady Vols. UT went on a 7-0 scoring run from that point, as Key contributed a lay-in, followed by a Burrell jumper and three-point bucket - both on fast breaks - to make it 56-32. Kushkithuah and Davis scored the rest of the points in the third, giving the Big Orange a 22-point lead heading into the final frame.

Freshman Emily Saunders came off the bench to score the first points in the fourth quarter, giving UT a 69-45 lead. Massengill scored next, adding a lay-up right before the shot clock expired with 6:05 left in the game. Saunders recorded an offensive rebound on UT's next possession and scored another bucket followed by a three-point score from Burrell, boosting Tennessee to a 76-51 advantage. Davis closed it out with a jumper to give UT the 27-point win.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- The No. 17/19 Lady Vols suffered their first loss of the season, falling to Texas in Thompson-Boling Arena, 66-60.

Tennessee (7-1) was led by junior Renna Davis who finished the day with 15 points and seven rebounds. Sophomore Jazmine Massengill was also in double figures for the Lady Vols with 10. Junior Kasiyahna Kushkithuah led the team in rebounding with nine. Overall, Tennessee won the rebounding battle at 54-42.

Seniors Sug Sutton and Lashann Higgs were the leading scorers for Texas (5-4), posting 19 each.

After back-to-back three pointers from Massengill and redshirt senior Lou Brown, the Vols jumped out to an early 6-4 lead over the Longhorns. Davis fought for an offensive rebound and was fouled going up, extending the Big Orange's lead to 8-4 after both made free throws.

After being down 20-13 in the first, the Lady Vols went on a 6-0 run and came within one at 20-19 after four points from Kushkithuah and a jumper from senior Kamera Harris. At the end of the first 10 minutes, Tennessee was down 22-19 but was leading on the boards with a 15-9 advantage and had eight points contributed by its bench.

Sophomore Rae Burrell scored the first points for the Lady Vols in the second quarter, followed by a lay-up from freshman Tamari Key, pulling Tennessee within one point again at 24-23 with 8:39 left in the half. Davis made a last-second three-point bucket to close out the first half, making it 42-36 Texas.

The Big Orange came out firing in the third quarter and scored a quick bucket from Massengill, followed by a lay-up from Davis to make it a two-point game at 42-40. The Longhorns, though, went on a 6-0 scoring burst and extended their lead to 48-40. The Lady Vols kept fighting throughout the third quarter, however, going on their own 5-0 scoring run and pulling to within 48-45. The Big Orange didn't allow another bucket from Texas in the last 2:24 of the quarter, as the Lady Vols went on another run to cut the deficit to 50-49 at the end of the third.

Tennessee held Texas to a 211 shooting percentage in the third, which marked the Longhorns' lowest of the game. The Lady Vols also out-rebounded the Longhorns, 16-14, and forced three turnovers.

Davis gave Tennessee its first lead of the game since the first quarter with a bucket 18 seconds into the final stanza. Key followed it up with another bucket, giving the Lady Vols a 53-50 lead less than a minute into the fourth period. The Big Orange didn't score again until the 4:48 mark, while the Longhorns scored eight points in the meantime to regain the lead, 58-55.

Massengill made the next bucket for Tennessee with 2:23 left in the game, cutting the deficit to 60-57. The Lady Vols scored three more free throws in the final quarter but could get no closer the rest of the way.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Renna Davis poured in 23 points to score her 1,000th career point and lead UT to a 79-41 win over Colorado State in Thompson-Boling Arena.

Davis added 11 rebounds to her total to record her fifth double-double of the season. Freshman Jordan Horston also posted a double-double for Tennessee (8-1), scoring 10 points to go along with a career-high 14 rebounds and seven assists. Sophomore Jazmine Massengill and freshman Tamari Key were also in double figures for UT, scoring 16 and 11, respectively.

Colorado State (5-6) was led by redshirt junior Megan Jacobs with 10 points and five rebounds. Davis, a junior guard/forward from Jacksonville, Fla., opened the game with a jumper and gave the Lady Vols a lead they'd never relinquish. She paced UT in scoring during the first quarter with five points. Despite five first-quarter UT turnovers and six-for-16 shooting in the period, the Lady Vols were active on defense and held the Rams to 26.7 percent shooting and ended the first ten minutes with a 15-10 advantage. Horston had a hand in the lead as well, pulling down six rebounds in the quarter to help UT own the boards, 14-5.

UT opened the second stanza on a 13-2 run, with Davis (6), Key (4) and Horston (3) fueling that spree. Davis fired in eight points in the period, and Jazmine Massengill added six to pace Kellie Harper's squad to a 21-8 score over CSU during the frame. UT entered the locker room at the intermission, leading 36-18 after shooting 52.9 percent in the period and building its advantage on the boards to 30-12.

Colorado State outscored Tennessee 5-1 to open the third quarter and closed the gap to 37-23, but the Lady Vols stormed back with an 18-0 run over a five-minute stretch to take a 55-23 lead. Horston had five, and Davis and Massengill each dropped in four to aid the charge. Davis joined the 1,000-point club at the 7:40 mark of the third quarter with a layup, the second bucket during that UT blitz. Horston, meanwhile, hit her first career double-double in the third quarter.

Freshman Jessie Rennie extended the home team's lead to 32 points with a 3-pointer to open the final quarter. The Lady Vols would push the margin to as many as 42 points with back-to-back free throw from Emily Saunders with 2:18 to go.

STANFORD, Calif. -- The No. 23/24 Lady Vols suffered their second loss of the season, falling in Maples Pavilion to top-ranked Stanford, 78-51.

Tennessee (8-2) was led by junior Renna Davis, who finished with 14 points and six rebounds. Freshman Jordan Horston was UT's second-highest scorer, posting nine points and five boards.

Junior Kiana Williams led Stanford (10-0), finishing the day with 19 points and seven assists. Sophomore Lexie Hull and freshman Ashton Pretchel were also in double figures for the Cardinal with 11 and 10, respectively.

The game started out as a back-and-forth affair with five lead changes and two ties in the opening minutes. Renna Davis scored Tennessee's first five points to lift UT to a 5-3 advantage two minutes into the game. Stanford bounced back, taking a three-point lead off a Francesca Belibi jumper at the 6:31 mark, but UT answered with back-to-back buckets from Horston and Davis to take a 12-10 lead into the media timeout. The Cardinal launched into a 10-0 run following the break, leading 20-12 at the end of the first after holding UT scoreless the final five minutes of the frame.

Neither team was able to get much going offensively to start the second quarter, with Kasiyahna Kushkituah scoring the lone point of the first two minutes off a free throw. Hull broke the drought for SU, knocking down a jumper to put Stanford up 22-13 with 7:59 to play in the quarter. Following a UT timeout, the Lady Vols scored five unanswered points to pull within five by the 5:17 mark. The Cardinal rallied with 5-0 run of its own, however, and the score stood at 30-20 with 3:35 remaining before the half. The teams traded baskets to close out the opening 20 minutes, and Tennessee went into the break down 10 at 34-24.

Jazmine Massengill was first on the board in the second half, hitting a layup to cut the deficit to eight just over a minute in. But Stanford was quick to answer, knocking down back-to-back threes to lead by 14 with five minutes left in the period. The 14-point lead would hold until the final minute and a half, when back-to-back threes would put the Cardinal up by 18 at 58-40 entering the final stanza.

Davis knocked down a three to give UT a spark midway through the fourth quarter, but Stanford kept its foot on the gas offensively, going 7-of-9 to close out the game.

PORTLAND, Ore. -- The No. 23/24 Lady Vols shot a scorching 51.4 percent from the floor and 46.2 percent from behind the arc, defeating Portland State in Viking Pavilion, 88-61.

Sophomore Rae Burrell led Tennessee (9-2) in scoring, narrowly missing a double-double with a career-high 21 points and nine rebounds. Freshman Jordan Horston was close behind, also setting a career high with 20 points. Junior Renna Davis recorded her tenth rebound of the game just over two minutes into the second half to solidify the 24th double-double of her career. She went on to collect a season-high 13 rebounds while scoring 18 points.

Portland State (6-4) was led in scoring by Kylie Jimenez and Desrae Hansen, who finished with 15 and 10, respectively.

Tennessee came out of the gate hot with Key and Horston combining for nine unanswered points in the first three minutes of play. Jordan Stotter broke the drought for PSU, knocking down a three to set off a 12-3 run that tied that game up at 12-all with 4:31 to play in the quarter. The score remained knotted until Belle Frazier hit a 3-pointer to give Portland State its first lead of the game at 19-16 with 43 seconds to play in the first. Burrell answered on the other end, hitting a layup in the paint at the buzzer to put UT within one heading into the second stanza.

The teams swapped baskets to start the second period until Key knocked down an eight-foot jumper at the 6:47 mark, setting off a 14-0 run that gave UT a 38-24 lead with 25 seconds remaining in the half. Stotter ended the scoring slump for PSU with a 10-foot jumper, but Horston beat the buzzer on the other end, hitting a layup to give Tennessee a 40-26 lead at the half.

Junior Rae Burrell scored five points in the opening minutes of the third quarter, fueling an 11-4 run that put UT up 51-30 by the 5:18 mark. Kamera Harris and Jessie Rennie combined for another five points following the media timeout to extend the streak of unanswered points to 14 before Stotter hit a pair of free throws to put the score at 59-32 with 3:43 remaining in the period. Tennessee kept its foot on the gas, scoring in another nine points while holding the Vikings to three, entering the final stanza up 65-35.

Horston came out hot in the fourth, scoring nine points in the first four and a half minutes. Cassidy Gardner and Labrea Denson gave the Vikings a spark with just under three minutes remaining in the game, knocking down treys on three-straight possessions to cut the deficit to 28, but UT held on to a comfortable margin, winning 88-61.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Sophomore Rae Burrell logged her second career double-double to lead UT to an 88-38 victory over Howard in Thompson-Boling Arena.

With a crowd of 9,269 looking on, Burrell led Tennessee (10-2) in scoring with 18 points while grabbing a career-high 12 boards. Freshman Jessie Rennie also had a career day, enjoying a 5-of-7 afternoon behind the arc for a career-best 16 points. Junior Renna Davis and freshman Jordan Horston were also in double figures for the Big Orange with 16 and 14 points, respectively.

Howard was led by junior Jayla Thornton who finished with nine points and two rebounds.

Tennessee got off to a hot start, scoring on its first five possessions to lead 11-2 by the 6:41 mark. Horston led the team offensively in the opening minutes, tallying five of UT's 13 points by the media timeout. UT kept its foot on the gas following that break, scoring nine points while holding Howard to just two points to close out the quarter with a 22-6 lead.

Iyanna Warren knocked down a long-range two-pointer for the Bison to cut the lead to 14 at the start of the second period, but UT answered on the other end with a fast-break layup from Jazmine Massengill. The Lady Vols went cold offensively following the basket, but a pair of Burrell free throws broke a two-minute scoring drought and set off an 8-0 run that put UT up 32-10 with just under five minutes remaining in the half. Renna gave UT a spark to close out the quarter, completing a rare four-point play, then collecting a rebound on the other end to assist Burrell on the fast break. She book-ended it with a second 3-pointer to put UT up 44-12 with just over a minute remaining before the break. Sophomore Krislyn Marsh managed a jumper for Howard in the final seconds to bring the halftime score to 44-14.

Davis got things started in the second half, knocking down a long-range three to move the score to 47-14 on UT's first possession. The Bison managed a 7-0 run to pull within 29 by the 2:33 mark, but Burrell answered, knocking down back-to-back baskets before Horston landed a buzzer-beater to put the Lady Vols up 60-29 entering the final stanza.

Davis, Horston and Jaiden McCoy fueled an 8-0 run for Tennessee to open the fourth quarter, stretching the lead to 68-29 before Ayonna Williams hit a free throw for Howard to stop the drought with 6:43 remaining in the game. UT, however, picked right back up where it left off with five Lady Vols contributing to a 9-0 run that saw the Big Orange up by 47 with 5:07 to play. Tennessee closed out the game with back-to-back buckets from freshman Emily Saunders and a final 3-pointer by Rennie to prevail, 88-38.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- A dominant effort in the paint and an outstanding defensive second quarter helped the Lady Vols give Tennessee head coach Kellie Harper a victory in her SEC debut, as No. 22/23 UT defeated Missouri, 77-66, to open conference play.

Tennessee (11-2, 1-0 SEC) led the Tigers (5-11, 0-1 SEC) to three field goals and just seven points in the second period. And the Lady Vols outscored Missouri 44-22 in the paint during Thursday's triumph. The Lady Vols lived up to their reputation as one of the nation's top-rebounding teams, out-rebounding the Tigers, 43-22. Tennessee pulled down 18 offensive boards and enjoyed a 19-4 edge in second-chance points.

Lady Vol junior Renna Davis recorded her seventh double-double of the season and the 25th of her career Thursday, finishing with 19 team-high points and a game-high 12 rebounds. Jazmine Massengill handed out a career-high 12 assists and also added seven points and 8 rebounds. Tamari Key totaled 16 points on 8-of-11 shooting, and fellow freshman Jordan Horston scored 13.

The teams traded blows during the game's first five minutes. Tennessee held a 14-12 lead at the first media timeout of the afternoon--the 4:18 mark in the first quarter. Each team was shooting 50 percent from the field at that point.

Mizzou then clamped down on defense--holding the Lady Vols without a field goal for close to five minutes--and struck together a 9-2 run to lead by five at the end of the first quarter.

The Tigers' drained five 3-pointers in the opening frame, matching UT's long-range output for the entire game. The Lady Vols held Mizou to just six more triples over the game's final 30 minutes, as nearly half of the Tigers' 23 field goals Thursday came from beyond the arc.

Tennessee buckled down defensively in the second quarter, holding Missouri to 3-of-15 shooting in the frame. The Lady Vols, meanwhile, shot 62 percent (8 of 13) in the second quarter.

A transition layup in traffic by UT sophomore Rae Burrell less than a minute before halftime capped an 8-0 run and gave the Big Orange a 32-28 lead at the midway point. Horston led the Lady Vols with eight first-half points, while fellow starters Lou Brown and Davis added six points each.

Massengill assisted on back-to-back baskets by Key early in the third quarter, pushing UT's lead to eight points and forcing a timeout by the Tigers. Minutes later, the Massengill-to-Key combo struck again on a fast break, causing Mizou to burn another timeout in an effort to quell a 12-2 Tennessee run that gave the Lady Vols a 46-32 advantage.

The Tigers fought back in the closing minutes of the third quarter, making four straight field-goal attempts at one point and closing the period on a 9-2 run that trimmed the Tennessee lead to seven, 51-44.

A 3-pointer by Mizou's Haley Trout early in the fourth quarter cut the Lady Vols' lead to 51-47, but that was as close as the Tigers would come. Tennessee erupted offensively in the game's final 10 minutes, scoring 26 fourth-quarter points on 10 of 19 shooting.

LEXINGTON, Ky. -- Renna Davis turned in a 27-point performance, but it wasn't enough to pull off the upset bid over No. 13/13 Kentucky as the No. 22/23 Lady Vols fell in Memorial Gymnasium, 80-76.

Also in double figures for Tennessee (11-3, 1-1 SEC) were sophomore Rae Burrell, who finished with 16 points and six rebounds, and freshman Jordan Horston, who posted 13 points and a career-high nine assists. UK (12-2, 1-1 SEC) was led by Rhyne Howard with 37 points and nine rebounds, while Sabrina Haines added 11.

The game started out as a 42-and-fourth affair with three lead changes in the first five minutes of the game. The Lady Vols struck first, winning the tip and scoring on their first possession off a Tamari Key put-back. Kentucky quickly heated up, nailing shots from behind the arc on three-straight possessions to lead 9-6 by the 7:00 mark. Davis and Horston combined to reclaim the lead for UT at 10-9, but Kentucky scored on back-to-back possessions to lead 13-10 at the first media timeout. The Wildcats closed out the quarter with an 8-4 run, fueled by two more treys, to tie 21-14 heading into the second stanza.

The Lady Vols struggled to connect offensively at the start of the second quarter, remaining scoreless for the first three minutes while Kentucky stretched its lead to 13. Following a UT timeout, Burrell answered with a baseline three to set off an 8-0 run that put the Lady Vols within five at 27-22 with just over five minutes remaining in the half. The teams traded free throws to keep the deficit at five until Kasiyahna Kushkitsuah hit a pair of free throws followed by a Davis fast-break layup off a steal by Burrell to put UT within one with 3:11 remaining. Howard answered with a bucket on the other end, but Burrell struck from long distance again to tie the game at 31-31 a minute later. Horston then knocked down a pair of free throws to put UT up 33-31, and Kentucky answered with a basket on the other end. Massengill had the final say, however, knocking down a buzzer beating to reclaim the lead for the Lady Vols at the half, 35-33.

Kentucky came out hot in the third, taking the lead off a Haines three-pointer at 37-35 and extending that into an 11-0 run that put the Wildcats up 44-35 by the 6:33 mark. Davis ended the drought for UT, hitting a layup to cut the lead to seven with just over five minutes remaining in the period. Howard knocked down two more treys following the media timeout to put Kentucky ahead, 50-37, before Kamera Harris found Key under the basket to set off a 9-0 run for UT to close out the quarter down five at 51-46.

UK opened the final stanza with an old fashioned three-point play by Howard, but Key answered for UT with a layup on the other end. The teams traded buckets until a Haines 3-pointer with 6:15 remaining in the game gave the Wildcats a double-digit lead at 63-53. The teams again traded baskets until four quick points by Burrell cut the deficit to eight with 3:20 to play. Kushkitsuah then hit two free throws to whittle the lead down to six, and a Horston layup following a UK timeout pulled the Lady Vols within four at 72-68 with 2:22 remaining. UT played scrappy defense in the closing minutes but ultimately couldn't pull out the victory, falling in Lexington, 80-76.

OXFORD, Miss. -- No. 23/24 Tennessee picked up its second SEC win of the season, rolling past Ole Miss, 84-28.

Junior Renna Davis led the Lady Vols (12-3, 2-1 SEC) with 17 points, seven rebounds and five assists. Freshman Jordan Horston narrowly missed a double-double, finishing with 11 points, nine rebounds and seven assists. Freshman Jessie Rennie also was in double figures with 11 points, shooting a perfect 3-of-3 from behind the arc and 2-of-2 from the free-throw line.

Ole Miss (8-8, 0-3 SEC) was paced by Dominique Banks with 12 points and Jayla Alexander who had nine.

UT shot a scorching 73.3 percent in the first quarter, fueled largely by Davis who went 4-of-5 for nine points. Tennessee got out to a quick start with Davis, Horston and Lou Brown combining for eight points on UT's first four possessions while holding Ole Miss scoreless for nearly three and a half minutes. Deja Cage ended the drought for the Rebels, knocking down a three to bring the score to 8-3 with 6:38 remaining in the first quarter. The Lady Vols answered by going 4-of-4 for a 9-0 run to lead 17-3 less than three minutes later. Alexander scored Ole Miss' only basket in the closing minutes of the period, and Tennessee closed out the quarter with an 8-0 run to lead 25-6 to start the second quarter.

The Lady Vols kept their run going in the second stanza, scoring 10 additional unanswered points to extend the run to 19-0 and lead 36-6 before Banks scored on back-to-back possessions to put the Rebels in double digits with 3:51 remaining in the half. Four different Lady Vols knocked down baskets while holding Ole Miss to just four points, closing out the quarter with a 46-14 lead.

Tennessee shot a season-high 62.5 percent from the floor in the first half and every active member of the UT roster contributed at least two points by halftime.

Horston kicked things off in the third quarter with an old-fashioned three-point play, Davis and Tamari Key followed that up with layups to put Tennessee up 53-14 by the 7:02 mark. The layup was the first of seven-straight points by Key, giving UT a 58-17 lead with 5:26 remaining in the quarter. Bryn Parker hit a layup for the Rebels just before the media timeout, but multiple Lady Vols made it to the free-throw line following the break, going a perfect 6-of-6 to lead by 45 points with 3:33 remaining in the stanza. Torri Lewis and Banks then combined for five quick points for Ole Miss, but Tennessee outscored UM 5-2 in the closing minutes to lead 69-26 heading into the final stanza.

The Lady Vols opened the fourth with eight unanswered points, holding the Rebels scoreless until Alexander hit a jumper with less than two minutes remaining in the game. Rennie hit one final basket for the Lady Vols, knocking down her third try of the game as Tennessee seized an 84-28 victory in Oxford.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- The No. 23/24 Lady Vols picked up their third SEC win, defeating Georgia at Thompson-Boling Arena, 73-56, in front of a season-high crowd of 10,036.

UT (13-3, 3-1 SEC) was led by junior Renna Davis with 17 points and six rebounds. Senior Lou Brown and freshmen Tamari Key and Jordan Horston were also in double figures with 12, 13 and 14, respectively.

Junior Maya Caldwell paced Georgia (10-7, 1-3 SEC) in scoring with 13 points. Gabby Connally chipped in 11 points, and Que Morrison finished with 10.

Horston led Tennessee team in assists, collecting seven. Sophomore Jazmine Massengill recorded a team-high seven rebounds, while UT out-rebounded UGA 35-29 and out-scored UGA in the paint, 36-22, with 20 of those coming in the second half.

Key got things going for the Lady Vols, scoring the first four points and making it a 4-3 lead for the home team early in the first quarter. With back-to-back three pointers from Davis and Massengill, the Lady Vols went on an 8-0 run over a one-minute, 45-second span to extend the lead to 12-5 on the Lady Bulldogs.

Georgia followed that up with an 8-0 run of its own, providing UGA a 20-19 lead after the first ten minutes of play. UT finished the first quarter with a 58.3 shooting percentage and a perfect two-for-two accuracy from beyond the arc, while the Lady Bulldogs shot at a 69.2 percent clip.

With 2:56 left in the second quarter, Horston brought some life to the Lady Vols by tying the game at 27-27 after making a jumper. The freshman followed it up with a three-pointer to give UT the lead back at 30-27.

Davis continued the scoring run for the Big Orange with a jumper, followed by a three-point bucket from sophomore Rae Burrell to give Tennessee a 35-29 advantage going into the locker room. That lead came courtesy of a 14-4 UT run over the last five minutes. Defensively, Tennessee held Georgia to an icy 17.6 shooting percentage in the second quarter.

Massengill opened up scoring for the Big Orange in the third quarter with a three-pointer. Brown responded with a lay-up on the next possession, propelling UT a 40-34 lead.

Tennessee went on a 12-2 run in the middle of the third and held Georgia scoreless for over three minutes, pushing the lead to 47-34. After the scoring spree, Horston made a jumper that was followed by points from Davis and Brown at the end of the quarter, providing Tennessee a 53-43 advantage.

The Lady Vols put together a 10-0 run to help seal their victory in the fourth quarter, going five-for-five from the field during that stretch. Key started the run with a lay-in, which was followed closely by three pointers from Davis and Brown. Brown finished the streak with another lay-in, giving UT a 65-47 advantage.

Junior Kasyahna Kushkituah finished the game with a last-second lay-in under the basket to close the scoring at 73-56.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- The No. 24/25 Lady Vols picked up their third-straight SEC win, defeating the Gators in Exactech Arena, 78-50.

Junior Rennia Davis, playing in front of family and friends who made the drive down from Jacksonville, led the effort for Tennessee (14-3, 4-1 SEC), finishing the day with 18 points and five rebounds. Sophomore Rae Burrell was also in double digits with 11 points.

Freshmen Lavender Briggs and Brylee Bartram led Florida (11-7, 2-3 SEC) with 11 points each.

Florida scored on its first three possessions to jump out to a 6-2 lead, but Davis and Jordan Horston combined to tie it up at six by the 6:39 mark. Rae Burrell converted on a three-point play to give the Lady Vols the lead at 9-6, but Florida countered with a layup by Williams to pull within one heading into the media timeout. Davis poured in six points coming out of the break and Burrell knocked down a pair of free throws, while UT held Florida without a field goal for the remainder of the quarter. Zada Williams hit a free throw for the Gators in the final minute to end the dry spell and cut Tennessee's lead to 17-9.

The Lady Vols picked up where they left off in the second quarter, extending their run to 11-0 after a Massengill old-fashioned 3-point play on their first possession. Davis and Brown also got in on the action, hitting jumpers on back-to-back possessions to put UT up 24-9 with 8:29 remaining in the period. Nina Rickards broke the slump for UF, knocking down a jumper just under two minutes into the quarter. Six different Lady Vols poured in buckets to help their squad lead by 20 with three minutes remaining, but Florida knocked down two long-distance jumpers to close out the half down at 40-24.

The second half started out slow with neither team finding success offensively until Lou Brown hit a jumper two and half minutes in. UF remained scoreless, while Horston and Brown each hit treys to put UT up 48-25 by the media timeout. Bartram ended the drought for the Gators with 4:15 left in the period, hitting back-to-back buckets for five points to pull UF within 19 at 48-29. UT answered with an 8-0 run to lead by 27 with 1:41 remaining in the quarter. The Gators countered with four fast points to enter the fourth quarter down 56-33.

At the start of the fourth, Burrell and Kasiyanna Kushkitsuah combined for four quick points, putting UT up by 27 just over 30 seconds into the final stanza. Midway through the period, Bartram hit back-to-back threes to give UF a spark, but the Lady Vols stayed hot offensively, closing out the game 78-50.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Rennia Davis' deep, step-back three-pointer with 0.8 seconds remaining lifted No. 23/25 Tennessee past Alabama, 65-63, at Thompson-Boling Arena. The junior forward's heroics helped the Lady Vols end a five-game losing streak to the Crimson Tide and provide Kellie Harper her 300th career victory as a head coach.

Freshman Jordan Horston led Tennessee (15-3, 5-1 SEC) in scoring with 19 points and eight rebounds. Davis also had another strong showing, connecting on seven of 11 shots from the field, including her only three-point attempt, to finish with 16 points and nine rebounds.

Jasmine Walker had a double-double for Alabama (11-7, 1-4 SEC), tallying 14 points and 10 rebounds, while Jordan Lewis led the team in scoring with 17 points.

In the last two minutes alone, there were seven lead changes and two ties before the clock hit zero. The Lady Vols trailed by one point with 15 seconds left after the tie of the Cierra Johnson hit a pair of free throws, Alabama had two fouls to give and did so, leaving Tennessee with the ball out of bounds with nine seconds remaining. Davis tried to create something and found herself several feet beyond the men's three-point arc before unleashing the game-winner as time wound down. The crowd of 8,537 erupted and then celebrated jubilantly after Alabama's long leave at the buzzer was off the mark.

The Lady Vols started off on the right foot by jumping out to a 10-6 lead halfway through the first quarter after an 8-0 run. Davis contributed six of those points, and UT also got buckets from Key and Horston in that burst. UT increased its lead to 13-6 after redshirt senior Lou Brown drained a three-point shot in transition with a dish from sophomore Rae Burrell. The Lady Vols held UA to an SEC-foe season low of eight points in the first quarter.

With six minutes left in the second quarter, Brown nailed another shot from beyond the arc to increase UT's lead to 18-11. Junior Jaiden McCoy was next to score a bucket, and she was followed by a jumper from Davis to close the half. Going into the locker room, Tennessee led 24-17 after holding Alabama to a 21.2 shooting percentage in the first half.

The Big Orange got out to a hot start in the second half after Horston made a quick lay-up, followed by a three-point bucket from sophomore Jazmine Massengill to extend UT's lead to 29-21. Horston scored back-to-back buckets for the Lady Vols, but the Tide came back to tie the game at 33-33. Tennessee responded with a 6-0 run, getting scoring from Massengill, Horston and Davis, to provide UT a 39-33 cushion. Davis scored one more jumper before time expired in the third quarter to make it 41-37 in favor of the Big Orange.

Tennessee continued its scoring streak in the final quarter, going on a 7-0 run over a minute and 33 seconds. The run was highlighted by Horston draining a three and then stealing the ball on Alabama's next possession to make a fast break lay-in, giving the Big Orange a 48-39 advantage.

Alabama went on a 7-0 run to cut UT's lead to 52-51 with 3:27 left in the game. Burrell stopped the run with back-to-back jumpers, making it 56-53 in favor of the Lady Vols with 2:25 to go. The teams would exchange the lead the rest of the way before Davis' dagger put the home team up for good.

HARTFORD, Conn. -- No. 23/23 Tennessee took a 31-28 lead into halftime but couldn't hang on, falling to No. 3/5 UConn in front of a crowd of 13,659 at the XL Center, 60-45.

The game was the first time the two teams had met since Jan. 6, 2007, when Candace Parker led UT to a 70-64 victory in Hartford in a No. 4 vs. No. 5 match-up. The game was the first of a two-year Basketball Hall of Fame Revival Series, from which a portion of the proceeds benefit the Pat Summitt Foundation, the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame.

Rennaia Davis paced Tennessee (15-4, 5-1 SEC) with 16 points and eight rebounds, while sophomore Jazmine Massengill turned in 11 points and five assists.

UConn (17-1, 7-0 ACC) was led by Crystal Dangerfield with 14 and Aubrey Griffin with 13.

Davis poured in five points in the opening minutes to help UT jump out to a 10-4 lead by the 6:12 mark. UConn quickly battled back, trailing just 12-10 by the media timeout. Sophomore Rae Burrell pitched in four points following the break to put the Lady Vols ahead by six with under two minutes remaining in the period, but the Huskies answered with back-to-back buckets to cut the lead to 16-14 to start the second frame.

Freshman Tamari Key was the first to score in the second quarter, and Davis followed it up with a layup to stretch the lead back to six a minute and a half in. Dangerfield put UConn within five with a 10-foot jumper, but Massengill scored six quick points to stretch UT's lead to 26-18 with just over six minutes remaining in the half. The Huskies cut their deficit to five with a Megan Walker 3-pointer before the media break and followed it up with two Griffin free throws and a layup to pull within one by the 3:42 mark. Rae Burrell knocked down a jumper to stop the run and put UT up by three with just over two minutes left in the half. In the final minute UConn converted a Tennessee turnover into three points, but Davis answered with a clutch trey on the other end to put the Lady Vols ahead 31-28 at the half.

Tennessee out-shot the Huskies 43 percent to 31 percent in the first half, holding them to just 11 of 35 from the floor and two of 10 from behind the arc.

The Lady Vols' shooting went cold in the second half, and they were plagued by turnovers. They remained scoreless for nearly four minutes, while UConn took the lead off a 7-0 run before Davis hit a layup to end the drought and bring the score to 35-33. The Huskies kept the pressure on, launching into a 10-0 run before Massengill scored five points on back-to-back possessions to cut the lead to 47-38. Olivia Nelson-Ododa converted on two free throws for the Huskies to close out the period up 49-38.

The teams traded baskets in the opening minutes of the fourth until Nelson-Ododa scored seven-straight points to put UConn up 59-42 with 2:30 left in the game. Burrell scored three points to finish the game, but it wasn't enough as Tennessee fell, 60-45.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- The No. 23/23 Lady Vols got back in the win column, defeating LSU, 63-58, in a key SEC match-up in front of a season-best crowd of 10,230 at Thompson-Boling Arena.

The victory enabled the Lady Vols to post a 2-1 record during a week in which they played three games, including both SEC opponents entering games having had an off-date prior to their meeting with the Lady Vols.

Junior forward Rennaia Davis led Tennessee (16-4, 6-1 SEC), going a perfect 10 of 10 from the free-throw line en route to a game-high 30 points and eight rebounds.

LSU (14-5, 4-3 SEC) was led by redshirt senior Ayana Mitchell, who logged a double-double with 24 points and 12 rebounds. Khayla Pointer was also in double figures for the Tigers with 12.

Freshman Tamari Key got things going for the Lady Vols in the first quarter, scoring a jumper and tying the game at 2-2. From there, LSU went on a 9-2 run with Davis stopping the run by draining a three-pointer, cutting UT's deficit to 11-7. Mitchell was responsible for all 11 of the Tigers' points.

The Lady Vols responded with their own 10-0 run in the last few minutes of the first quarter, claiming the lead and moving on to, 14-13, at the end of the stanza.

In the second quarter, LSU opened up with a 7-0 run, while UT was held scoreless for over three minutes. Davis ended the drought by scoring a lay-in and cutting the Tigers' lead to 22-18 with 4:05 left in the half.

Davis couldn't be stopped from there, as she scored 12 out of UT's 16 points in the second quarter, creating a 6-0 run and helping her team regain the lead with 59 seconds left in the first half. Freshman Jordan Horston closed out the quarter with a last-second jumper to give UT a 30-26 lead going into the locker room.

Opening up the third quarter, Key scored on the first possession by draining a jumper from the free-throw line. Davis followed it up with another bucket, giving the Lady Vols a 35-28 advantage.

Tennessee went on to build its largest lead of the game with 3:50 remaining in the third quarter after Davis scored a lay-up on a fast break, putting UT up 41-36.

Sophomore Rae Burrell would score next on a fast break, followed by a jumper from junior Jaiden McCoy to give the Lady Vols a 47-39 lead at the end of the third quarter.

During the final quarter, LSU came within four points, but the Big Orange responded quickly with back-to-back jumpers from sophomore Jazmine Massengill and redshirt senior Lou Brown.

The Tigers didn't back down from there, as they closed to within three points with only 1:42 remaining. Massengill, however, answered with another jumper on UT's next possession to help her team wrestle back a five-point lead.

After a back-and-forth battle down the stretch, a made free throw from Horston and a block from redshirt senior Lou Brown closed out the five-point win for Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. -- Junior forward Renna Davis poured in 22 points to lead No. 22/22 Tennessee to a 78-69 victory over in-state rival Vanderbilt at Memorial Gymnasium.

Davis scored 16 of her points in the second half to hit double figures in points for the 19th straight game and for the 33rd time in her past 34 games. Jazmine Massengill was Tennessee's (17-4, 7-1 SEC) second-highest scorer with 14 points, and Jordan Horston and Rae Burrell each turned in 11.

Vanderbilt (12-9, 2-6) was led by Koi Love who had 16 points. Kiara Pearl added 13.

Davis and Massengill got UT out to a 4-0 lead to start the game, but Vanderbilt rallied back to take the lead at 6-4 three minutes into the contest. Horston hit a baseline three to put the Lady Vols back on top, but Vandy mounted an 8-2 run to lead by five with just over two minutes remaining in the quarter. The teams traded buckets to close out the period, but Jordyn Cambridge banked in a long-range jumper at the buzzer to extend VU's lead to 21-15.

Burrell gave UT a spark to start the second stanza, knocking down a 3-pointer on UT's first possession to cut the deficit to three. She would strike again a minute and a half later, converting on an old-fashioned three-point play to reclaim the lead for Tennessee at 23-21. Vandy scored on a layup to tie it up just under four minutes into the quarter, but UT held the Commodores scoreless for another three and a half minutes while pouring in 11 points to stretch the lead to 34-23 before Pearl ended the drought with a trey at the 2:14 mark. Pearl and Chelsie Hall combined to build Vandy's run to seven unanswered points to close out the quarter and bring the halftime score to 35-30.

The teams traded baskets through the opening minutes of the second half. UT maintained its five-point advantage until LeaLea Carter and Mariella Fasoula combined for buckets on back-to-back plays to cut the score to 42-41 by the media break. Vandy would reclaim the lead following the timeout off a layup by Love. The lead would change hands three more times before Davis nailed a 3-pointer to set off a 7-0 UT run that would put the Big Orange ahead at 51-46 with just over two minutes remaining in the quarter. The Commodores scored three points from the free-throw line before Davis hit a layup to set the score at 53-49 heading into the final stanza.

Massengill kicked off the fourth with a steal and a score, and Burrell followed it up with a running jumper on the next possession to stretch Tennessee's lead to eight. Love turned in three points for Vandy, but Horston and Davis scored on back-to-back plays to build the lead to nine. The lead would remain at nine until the 6:48 mark, when Pearl hit a three to give VU some life, cutting the score to 63-57. Tennessee answered with a 6-0 run to push the lead to 12 with 4:30 remaining in the game. UT maintained its double-digit lead until the final seconds when Hall hit a 3-pointer to cut the lead to nine, sending the Lady Vols home with a 78-69 victory.

COLUMBIA, S.C. --The No. 22/22 Lady Vols couldn't overcome the high-powered offense of No. 1/2 South Carolina, falling 69-48 in Colonial Life Arena.

Tennessee (17-5, 7-2 SEC) was led by junior Renna Davis who posted a double-double with 18 points and 10 rebounds, while freshman Tamari Key blocked a career-high nine shots to set a new Lady Vol freshman single-game record.

Zia Cooke led USC (21-1, 8-1 SEC) with 20 points. Destanni Henderson and Aliyah Boston were also in double figures, finishing with 12 and 10, respectively.

Tennessee got off to a rocky start with turnovers on its first two possessions, but Lou Brown got UT on the board by scoring on a layup to tie the game at two-all a minute in. Key kept the Lady Vols in it defensively, blocking three shots in the first three minutes of play, but South Carolina managed an 8-4 lead before the media timeout. Rae Burrell gave Tennessee a spark offensively, hitting a 3-pointer following the break, but South Carolina rallied with five quick points to lead by eight at the 2:44 mark and then closed out the quarter with a 6-0 run to take a 21-9 advantage into the second period.

Both teams struggled to score at the outset of the second quarter, combining for just three points in the opening four minutes. Tyasha Harris broke the slump with a jumper for USC, while Davis answered on the other end to make the score 24-13 Gamecocks with 5:44 left in the half. Following a timeout, Harris hit a 3-pointer to set off a 10-2 run that would put USC up 34-15 by the 2:37 mark. The 19-point deficit would hold until Kasiyahna Kushkituah and Jazmine Massengill combined for four unanswered points to close out the quarter and bring the halftime score to 38-23.

The Lady Vols picked up where they left off in the second half, scoring the first six points of the period to extend their run to 10-0 and cut the lead to nine just over two minutes in. Three and a half minutes later, the Gamecocks had built their lead back up to 14 at 45-31, but Davis responded with five straight points for UT to cut the lead to 11 with 2:26 remaining in the quarter. Henderson heated up for USC in the closing minutes, scoring seven points off a 9-0 South Carolina run that moved the score to 56-36 entering the final stanza.

The teams largely traded baskets through the opening minutes of the fourth. Tennessee mounted a 5-0 run with 3:14 left in the game to cut USC's lead to 16, but LeLe Grissett killed that momentum with an old-fashioned three-point play with 1:39 to play, and South Carolina went on to win 69-48.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- The No. 23/25 Lady Vols took a lead into the second quarter but couldn't hang on, falling to No. 8/8 Mississippi State in Thompson-Boling Arena, 72-55.

Sophomore Rae Burrell led Tennessee (17-6, 7-3 SEC), scoring 20 points and pulling down 10 boards to record a double-double in her first career start and her third overall. Freshman Jordan Horston and sophomore Jazmine Massengill were also in double digits with 12 and 11, respectively, as the Lady Vols played without leading scorer Renna Davis (18.1 ppg.), who is recovering from a bout with the flu.

Rickea Jackson was Mississippi State's (21-3, 9-1 SEC) high scorer, tallying 14 points and nine rebounds. Chloe Bibby was close behind with 13 points.

UT out-rebounded Mississippi State, 40-39, as both teams recorded 16 offensive boards. Tennessee shot at a 36.2 percent clip from the field while holding the Bulldogs to a 40-percent performance that was 7.5 percent below their 47.5 season mark. The Big Orange also held MSU 9.5 points below their typical scoring average of 81.5.

Tennessee jumped out to a 3-0 lead early in the game after Massengill scored a jumper and Horston made a free throw. The Bulldogs responded with a 4-0 run, but Burrell got the Lady Vols the lead back by draining a jumper and a free throw, making it 6-6.

The Big Orange went on to a 7-0 run that included back-to-back fast break buckets from Burrell to give UT a 15-11 lead. Tennessee finished the quarter with two unanswered scores from Kasiyahna Kuskituah and Massengill, giving the Lady Vols a 21-19 advantage after ten minutes.

Burrell led the team with nine points and three rebounds in the first period. UT also out-rebounded MSU, 12-10, and shot at a 47.4 percent rate.

In the second quarter, Kuskituah scored the opening points for the Lady Vols and gave them a 23-21 lead. Mississippi State responded with a 10-0 run, which was ended by a lay-in from Horston. The freshman went on to score the last three points for Tennessee, cutting the Big Orange's deficit to 38-30 at the half.

Coming out of the break, Massengill got points on the board for UT and the Lady Vols closed to within six after scores from Horston, freshman Tamari Key and Burrell, making it 43-37 with 4:48 left in the third stanza. The Bulldogs then went on an 8-0 run and held Tennessee to just one more bucket in the quarter to give themselves a 56-40 lead going into the final period.

UT opened up the fourth quarter with a lay-in from Key and a three-pointer from Massengill, cutting MSU's lead to 11. Burrell continued her stellar performance by scoring the Big Orange's next seven points, and Horston closed out the game by scoring a three-pointer with 29 seconds left.

BATON ROUGE, La. -- The #25 Lady Vols pulled within one but couldn't overcome a 26-point fourth-quarter surge by LSU, falling 75-65 at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

Junior forward Renna Davis led Tennessee (17-7, 7-4 SEC) with 19 points and six rebounds. Redshirt senior Lou Brown and freshman Tamari Key were nearly in double digits, finishing with nine points each. Khayla Pointer and Awa Trasi were the top scorers for the Tigers (18-5, 8-3 SEC) with 24 and 22, respectively.

Both teams started out sluggish offensively, playing nearly a minute and a half before Pointer knocked down the second of a pair of free throws to put LSU on the board at 1-0. Brown scored Tennessee's first points 30 seconds later with a short jumper. The Tigers jumped out to a 5-2 lead three minutes in, but the Lady Vols had it tied up at seven by the media break. Neither team would hit a field goal for four minutes following the timeout before Brown knocked down a trey to put UT up 10-8 at the 1:40 mark. Trasi answered with a three just before the buzzer for LSU to tie the score at 12-12 heading into the second period.

Tennessee's bench got active in the second stanza with senior Kamera Harris, freshman Jessie Rennie and redshirt junior Jaiden McCoy scoring UT's first three baskets of the quarter and giving the Lady Vols a 19-17 lead two minutes in. The Tigers rallied back, taking the lead at 24-21 off a Trasi trey with 5:32 remaining in the half. LSU stretched its lead to four before Tennessee mounted an 8-2 run to lead 30-28 with just under two minutes to go. LSU managed a 6-0 run of its own in the final minute before Key hit two free throws to make the halftime score 34-32 in favor of the home team.

The Tigers stretched their lead to six in the opening minutes of the third quarter before Davis drained a baseline jumper to cut the deficit to four at the 7:19 mark. But the Lady Vols, plagued by fouls and turnovers, continued to struggle offensively, falling behind 44-35 by the 5:05 mark. Davis responded for UT, converting on a three-point play to cut the deficit to six. Pointer hit a pair of free throws for LSU, but Jordan Horston posted another three-point play, and Davis followed it up with a quick jumper to pull Tennessee within three at 46-43 with 2:58 left in the period. LSU maintained its three-point lead into the final minute before McCoy hit two free throws to cut the lead to one, cutting the margin to 49-48 heading into the final stanza.

Pointer opened the fourth with a pair of free throws to stretch LSU's lead back to three, but Jazmine Massengill answered with a 10-foot jumper on the other end. The teams largely traded buckets until Pointer and Trasi combined for six unanswered points, putting LSU up 62-54 with five minutes left in the game. Davis hit a jumper to end the drought for UT, but Trasi followed it up with a long-range 3-pointer, giving LSU a surge of momentum and a nine-point lead with 4:13 to play. Tennessee would get within eight but couldn't pull off the comeback, and LSU went on to hit its free throws, picking up a 75-65 win at home.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- No. 25 Tennessee pulled to within two points in the final minute but couldn't overcome a No. 16/18 Texas A&M team that went 28 of 33 from the free-throw line en route to a 73-71 victory in Thompson-Boling Arena.

Sophomore Rae Burrell led UT (17-8, 7-5 SEC) with 19 points and seven rebounds in front of a season-best crowd of 12,738. Junior Renna Davis was also in double figures for the Big Orange, posting 18 points, six assists and five rebounds.

Junior Chennedy Carter was the high scorer for Texas A&M (20-5, 8-4 SEC), finishing with 37 points and five rebounds. Carter was 14 of 16 from the charity stripe for the Aggies.

After being down 6-2 early in the opening quarter, the Lady Vols tied things up at 6-6 following a dish from sophomore Jazmine Massengill to Brown under the basket. UT continued its 10-0 scoring spree and took its first lead of the game after a bucket from Davis. The Big Orange extended its lead by six after a jumper from freshman Jordan Horston and another score from Davis, making it 12-6. Tennessee ended the quarter on top, 15-12, after forcing three turnovers in the final minute of the period. Davis led the team with six points and one board.

A&M came out in the second quarter and went on a 7-0 scoring surge, but Burrell responded with a run of her own by scoring 10-straight points for the Lady Vols to help cut the Aggies' lead to 33-27. The teams scored three more points apiece the rest of the half, with a 25-14 second-stanza burst providing the visitors with a 36-30 lead at the break.

Coming out of the intermission, freshman Tamari Key got things going for the Lady Vols with a jumper and a free throw, cutting UT's deficit to five. The Aggies, however, then went on a 6-0 run to extend their lead to 10. Tennessee stuck around, though, as the team went on its own 6-0 run to make it a two-possession game after a three from Davis and an and-one play from Burrell. Then, Burrell scored on a fast break and scored a bucket with another free throw, pulling UT to a 50-47 deficit. UT's defense also was impacting play, as TAMU was held to 5-for-17 shooting on field goals during the third. The Aggies finished the period on top, 53-47.

Key scored first in the fourth, making it a four-point game again. Horston and Davis both tallied buckets on the next possessions, keeping the game within reach at 57-53. After another three-pointer from Davis, UT went on a 4-0 scoring run to pull within three points, 63-60, with just over four minutes remaining. The Aggies went on a quick 5-0 burst of their own to gain an eight-point advantage, but the Big Orange battled back with Massengill and Brown scoring jumpers and Horston nailing a three-pointer to make it a three-point game with 32 seconds remaining.

Carter drained two more free throws with nine seconds left, but Massengill scored another jumper on the other end to narrow the gap to three points with six seconds remaining. After Ciera Johnson made a free throw, Davis finished the game with a last-second lay-in to make it a two-point final differential.

Fayetteville, Ark. -- Rae Burrell poured in 15 points in the fourth quarter to pull UT within four in the final minutes, but it wasn't enough to overcome No. 22/25 Arkansas on road in an 83-75 setback at Bud Walton Arena.

Burrell led Tennessee (17-9, 7-6 SEC) in scoring and rebounding with 21 points and nine boards, narrowly missing a double-double. Renna Davis was also in double digits, finishing with 18 points and eight rebounds.

Amber Ramirez was Arkansas' (21-5, 9-4 SEC) high scorer, posting 29 points, and Alexis Tolefree was close behind with 22.

Davis got off to a quick start, driving in for a layup after Tamari Key won the tip. UT built up a 6-0 lead before Ramirez got the Razorbacks on the board with a 3-pointer two minutes in. By the 6:53 mark Tennessee led 10-5, but back-to-back buckets by Ramirez cut the lead to one before Key knocked down a jumper just before the media timeout to push the score to 12-9. Immediately following the timeout Ramirez hit a long-range trey to tie the score at 12-12. The teams swap wet baskets through the end of the quarter until a Tolefree jumper at the buzzer put Arkansas up 18-16 at the end of the first.

Tolefree struck again in the second quarter, hitting a 3-pointer to stretch the Razorbacks' lead to five. Tennessee struggled to score, going more than three minutes without a bucket before Lou Brown found Davis cutting to the basket for a layup. Taylah Thomas converted on an old-fashioned three-point play on the other end to put Arkansas up 24-18 midway through the period. The Razorbacks maintained their six-point lead until Jessie Rennie hit a three to cut it to 26-23 with just under three minutes remaining in the half. UA responded with a 5-0 run to take an eight-point lead into the intermission.

Tolefree was first to score in the second half, stretching Arkansas' lead to 11 with a 3-pointer before Davis answered with a jumper for UT, setting off a 9-2 run that pulled Tennessee within four six minutes in. With 3:58 left in the quarter the Razorbacks went up 48-38, scoring five quick points off a Makayla Daniels jumper and a Ramirez 3-pointer after Tolefree stole the inbound pass. The 10-point deficit would hold until the final seconds when Chelsea Dungee knocked down a 10-foot jumper at the buzzer to push the score to 58-46 heading into the final stanza.

The Razorbacks opened the fourth quarter with four unanswered points before Burrell and Rennie scored a combined 13 points in the first four minutes to pull UT within 11 at 70-59. Jordan Horston followed it up with a jumper and Burrell converted on a 3-point play to move Tennessee within six with 3:59 to play. Arkansas bounced back with four quick points off a pair of Ramirez jumpers. Burrell responded by knocking down a three and following it up with a layup to make the score 75-69 with 1:15 remaining. Davis hit a three-pointer to pull the Lady Vols within four with 15 seconds left in the game, but that's as close as they would get, as Arkansas went on to hit free throws and win 83-75.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Tennessee held off in-state rival Vanderbilt, winning in Thompson-Boling Arena, 67-63.

Junior forward Renna Davis led Tennessee (18-9, 8-6 SEC), posting a double-double with 18 points and 10 rebounds. Freshman guard Jordan Horston was close behind with 16 points, while sophomore forward Rae Burrell finished with 12 points and nine rebounds.

Chelsie Hall and Mariella Fasoula were the high scorers for Vanderbilt (13-14, 3-11 SEC) with 20 and 18, respectively.

Early in the first quarter, the Lady Vols claimed a 6-2 lead with four of those points coming from freshman Tamari Key. Defensively, UT held Vanderbilt without a field goal until the 4:27 mark in the opening stanza. Horston led the team with seven points, as the Big Orange led Vandy 18-14 after the opening 10 minutes of action.

Davis and Horston traded baskets at the beginning of the second quarter, providing Tennessee its largest lead to that point, 27-18. The offense would continue to produce points, as UT completed a 10-0 run to push the score to 32-18 with 5:33 to before the half. During that outburst, Vandy went zero for six in field goal attempts.Vanderbilt, however, responded with its own run with a 6-0 burst. Freshman Jessie Rennie ended that streak thought with a three-pointer to give Tennessee a 10-point lead. The Commodores finished the second quarter with five more points, cutting UT's lead to 38-33 going into the locker room.

At the half, the Lady Vols maintained a 30-25 rebounding edge and had forced 11 turnovers. Horston led the team with 14 points and three assists over the first 20 minutes, while Brown recorded a team high of eight boards. The bench contributed 19 of UT's 38 points for UT, and 24 of those came inside the paint.

Coming out of the break, Davis scored the opening points for Tennessee. Brown and Davis then went on to contribute to a 5-0 scoring run for the Big Orange, increasing UT's lead to eight with 5:44 to go in the third period. Vanderbilt responded with its own 7-0 run to make it a one-point game, 45-44, with 3:49 left in the quarter. Davis ended the scoring drought with a jumper to increase UT's lead to three. Tennessee then ended the third stanza with back-to-back buckets from Burrell and Davis, giving the Lady Vols a 51-47 lead with one quarter left.

With 6:02 left in the game, VU pulled ahead by one on the strength of a 5-0 run. The Lady Vols, though, took action and went on an 8-0 run of their own with buckets from three different players to command a seven-point lead. The Commodores stuck around, however, as they went on a 7-2 spree and pulled within a point with 1:25 left. Horston gave UT a late cushion, though, making a lay-up in the paint on a fast break and giving Tennessee a three-point advantage with less than a minute to go. Sophomore Jazmine Massengill sealed the win by draining a free throw in the last eight seconds, and Tennessee thwarted any last-second buckets by the Commodores.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- The Lady Vols prevailed over an upset-minded Ole Miss team, taking a 77-66 win on Senior Night at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Junior Renna Davis was Tennessee's (19-9, 9-6 SEC) high scorer, recording her 28th career double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds. Freshman Tamari Key and sophomore Rae Burrell were also in double figures, with Key scoring a career high of 17 points and Burrell finishing with 14 in the final regular-season home game of the 2019-20 campaign.

Ole Miss (7-21, 0-15 SEC) was led by Deja Cage and Mimi Reid, who posted 22 and 21 points, respectively.

Burrell scored Tennessee's first seven points, going 3-for-4 on field goals in just five minutes of competition. Her play sparked a 15-0 run from the Big Orange, which also included a team-high eight points from Key. At the end of the first quarter, UT led 20-9 with four different players scoring for the Lady Vols. Defensively, Tennessee held Ole Miss to an icy 211 shooting percentage and out-rebounded the Rebels, 15-9.

In the second period, the Lady Vols forced an early timeout from Ole Miss after stringing together another 5-0 run that featured freshman Jessie Rennie's second three-pointer of the game and a lay-in from Davis. UT resumed its scoring surge to build the run to 9-0, holding the Rebels to no points over four and a half minutes. Ole Miss responded late in the second quarter, going on a 7-0 spree and holding Tennessee without a field goal for the last two minutes to cut UT's lead to 37-28 going into the locker room.

During the opening half, Key led Tennessee with 12 points in seven minutes of play, while Davis recorded a team high of seven boards. Horston, meanwhile, tallied five assists in the first half, while UT out-rebounded the Rebels, 25-16.

Miss opened up the third quarter with a three-pointer, cutting the Tennessee lead to 37-31. Key scored UT's first points of the half, making a bucket from underneath the basket.

Midway through the third, the Rebels' hot shooting from long range cut the UT lead to three, but the Lady Vols took back control of the game via a 5-0 run with points from both Key and Davis, extending the Big Orange's lead to 50-42.

With four seconds remaining in the third stanza, Brown took a charge, her 12th of the season, to give Tennessee possession. The quarter ended with a last-second bucket from way beyond the arc by Davis, improving UT's advantage to 65-50 entering the final frame.

Davis scored an early basket in the fourth, but it was countered by back-to-back threes from the Rebels. The Big Orange stiffened to prevent a comeback, as the Lady Vols scored seven more points to keep at least a nine-point lead for the remainder of the game.

Overall, UT out-rebounded Ole Miss, 45-27, and held the Rebels to only a 37.7 shooting percentage. The bench contributed 47 points and outscored the Rebels 34-18 from inside the paint.

Auburn, Ala. -- Junior Renna Davis tallied a double-double with 22 points and 10 rebounds, and freshman Jordan Horston hit a runner in the lane with 0.6 seconds left on the clock to lift Tennessee to a crucial 56-55 win at Auburn to close out the regular season.

The victory improved the Lady Vols' record to 20-9 overall and 10-6 in the SEC, earning them a four-way tie for third place in the SEC regular season with Texas A&M, Kentucky and Arkansas.

The double-double was the 29th of Davis' career (11th this season), tying Basheera Graves for 10th all-time among Lady Vols. Redshirt senior Lou Brown was Tennessee's next highest scorer, posting nine points off three-of-six shooting from behind the arc.

Auburn (10-17, 4-12 SEC) was paced by senior Daisa Alexander, who finished with 15 points, followed by sophomore Robyn Benton who had 11.

Tennessee jumped out to a quick lead, going up 9-2 lead by the 6:21 mark. After an AU timeout, Jazmine Massengill stretched UT's cushion to nine before Unique Thompson converted on a pair of free throws to set off a 7-0 Tigers run that put them within two with two and a half minutes left in the frame. Brown, Davis and Jessie Rennie combined for four-straight 3-pointers in the closing minutes to send UT into the second period up 23-16.

Benton hit a free throw to pull AU within six at the start of the second, but Kamera Harris put in a layup on the other end, sparking a 7-0 UT run that stretched the lead to 30-17 with six minutes to go in the quarter. UT went cold offensively following the break, while AU rallied within five points off a 10-2 run to trail just 32-27 at the half.

Tamari Key scored her first points of the game at the start of the second half, hitting a layup off a Davis assist to stretch UT's lead to seven. Davis then added three quick points herself to put the Lady Vols up 37-27 three minutes in. Auburn's full-court press began causing problems for UT, though, and the Tigers converted Tennessee turnovers into points, pulling within three before Davis stopped the surge with a layup of her own. UT responded, closing out the period with a 6-0 run to give the Lady Vols a 48-38 lead heading into the final stanza.

Auburn came out swinging on its first possession of the fourth, pulling within six off buckets by Alexander. The deficit remained at six points until Annie Hughes hit a baseline jumper with 6:37 to play that pulled the score to 50-47. Burrell hit the second of a pair of free throws to lift UT back up by four, but Hughes hit another jumper to cut it to two with just over four minutes remaining in the game. Auburn then forced a shot clock violation, and Thompson hit two free throws on the other end to tie the game at 51-47 with three minutes left.

Kasiyahna Kushikutuah responded with a layup on the other end, and UT came up with a pair of defensive stops before Horston hit a free throw with 15 seconds left in the game to stretch the Lady Vols' lead to three. With 3.8 seconds remaining Alexander was fouled by Horston behind the arc, and in her last game in Auburn Arena, the senior hit all three shots to tie the game at 54-47. But Horston would redeem herself on the next possession, driving through the lane to score on a six-foot runner to give UT a two-point lead with 6 seconds left in the game. Before the ball was inbounded, a foul was called on UT to send Alexander to the line. She knocked down her first one, but her second free throw came up short and Tennessee escaped with a 56-55 victory.

GREENVILLE, S.C. -- No. 6 seed Tennessee overcame a 13-point second-quarter deficit and ended up winning by 13, in a 64-51 victory over 11th-seeded Missouri in the second round of the SEC Tournament at Bon Secours Wellness Arena.

UT (21-9), which won its fourth straight game, put three players in double figures. Sophomore Rae Burrell led the team with 16 points, and juniors Renna Davis and Kasiyahna Kushikutuah finished with 15 and 13, respectively.

Missouri (9-22) was led by Ajija Blackwell with 13 and Hannah Schuchts with 11. The Tigers got off to a hot start with Blackwell and Jordan Roundtree combining for nine points to give Missouri a seven-point lead four minutes in before Renna Davis knocked down a long-range jumper to end the Mizzou run and pull the score to 9-4 at the media timeout. Following the timeout Blackwell converted on a three, but Kushikutuah got the put-back on the other end and freshman Jordan Horston followed it up with a driving layup on the next possession to move the score to 12-8 with just under two minutes remaining in the quarter. The Tigers answered with a 5-0 run before redshirt junior Jaiden McCoy hit a pair free throws to send UT into the second period trailing 17-10.

Mizzou struck first to start the second quarter, but Kushikutuah rallied UT, scoring five-straight points to pull the Big Orange within four just 1:15 in. The Tigers bounced back with a 9-0 run to lead by 13 at the 5:10 mark before the Lady Vols outscored Missouri 11-6 to close the half down by eight at 34-26.

Freshman Tamari Key was the first to score in the second half, putting in a turn-around jumper that Burrell followed up with a baseline three to pull UT within three just over a minute into play. A minute and a half later Davis converted on an old fashioned three-point play to tie the score at 34-34. Mizzou built its lead back up to six off free throws and a Jordan Chavis layup before Burrell scored seven-straight points to give UT its first lead of the game at 41-40 with 3:39 left in the period. Burrell scored two more points on a running jumper, and Kushikutuah and Horston each added buckets to extend the Tennessee run to 13-0 and stretch the lead to 47-40. Jazmine Massengill beat the shot clock to score the final bucket of the quarter and put the score at 49-40 heading into the final stanza.

Davis hit a free throw at the start of the fourth to stretch the Lady Vols' run to 16-0 before Hayley Frank posted a 3-point play to cut the score to 43-50. Kushikutuah stretched the lead back to nine before the media timeout, but Schuchts hit a three to cut the deficit to six with 4:52 left in the game. Horston and Davis combined for four-straight points for UT to boost the lead back to 10 by the 2:39 mark. Mizzou scrapped back within seven off free throws, but Tennessee closed out the game with an 8-2 run to win 64-51.

GREENVILLE, S.C. -- Freshman Jordan Horston poured in a career-high 24 points, but it wasn't enough to fend off a hot-handed #16/18 Kentucky team that shot 51 percent from the floor to seize an 86-65 victory in a No. 3 seed vs. No. 6 seed match-up in the SEC Tournament Third Round.

Junior Renna Davis and senior Lou Brown were also in double figures for Tennessee (21-10), posting 14 and 10 points, respectively.
 Kentucky (22-7) was led by Rhyme Howard who finished with 24 points, Tatyana Wyatt with 14 and Sabrina Haines with 12.

Kentucky jumped out to a four-point lead before Rae Burrell drove the baseline for a layup to get UT on the board. Brown then knocked down back-to-back threes to tie the score at eight-all by the 6:37 mark. Howard answered with a three-pointer of her own, but Brown put in a layup on the other end to make the score 11-10 UK at the media break. Kentucky pulled away to 15-10 following the timeout before a Horston trey cut Kentucky's lead to 15-13 with 30 seconds left in the period. Howard drew a foul on the opposite end and hit both free throws to push the score to 17-13 at the end of the first period.

Horston struck again at the start of the second stanza to once again pull UT within two, but the Wildcats came back with an 8-0 run to lead 25-15 just over three minutes in. The teams traded threes following a Tennessee timeout, but UT struggled to score while UK poured in four more points, stretching the lead to 32-18 with 4:30 left in the half. Horston broke the drought for UT with a layup, and Brown followed it up with another to inch within 10 points. The teams traded baskets until Howard knocked down a three and Blair Green scored a layup on a fast break to put Kentucky up 41-26 with 1:15 remaining. Davis knocked down a jumper on the other end, but Howard hit a 3-pointer in the closing seconds to stretch the UK halftime lead to 44-28.

Tamari Key hit two free throws to start the second half, but Howard immediately answered with a trey on the other end, setting off a 7-0 UK run. Tennessee scrapped back within 17, but Kentucky got hot offensively, going eight of eight from the floor over a five-minute span to lead 71-46 with 1:25 remaining in the quarter. Horston put in a trey in the final minute to send the game into the last stanza with the score at 71-49.

The fourth quarter was a more even affair, but Tennessee couldn't gain any ground on UK. Horston hit two free throws to move the Lady Vols within 20 to start the period, but despite her and Davis pouring in six points apiece, UT couldn't close the gap, falling 86-65.

THE EARLY YEARS

The following is a list of all women known to have been a member of a University of Tennessee women's basketball team between 1903 and 1974. Years of participation refer to the end of that academic year, the conclusion of the season. This list, compiled from all available sources, is not assumed to be complete or even necessarily correct.

LADY VOL SUCCESS IN THE COACHING RANKS

Over the past 46 years, the Lady Vol program has prepared players and staffers to have careers in basketball. The list of people who have worked at the professional, collegiate and high school levels stands at 103 (41 are active) and represents 64 Lady Vol graduates (25 are active) as well as current and former assistant coaches, graduate assistants, managers, operations directors, video coordinators and directors of character development who now are serving or have served in the coaching ranks. UT helped develop 42 head coaches, 27 of whom are former players. Twelve are currently active, including 10 LVFLs.

LADY VOL LEGENDS

Tennessee has recognized the careers of six supremely-gifted Lady Vols and a history-shattering coach with the hanging of jersey-banners from the rafters of Thompson-Boling Arena. The most recent individual added to the collection of Lady Vol legends came on Jan. 2, 2014, when a No. 3 banner honoring player Candace Parker was hoisted skyward.

Parker joined players Holly Warlick, Bridgette Gordon, Daedra Charles, Chamique Holdsclaw and Tamika Catchings, and coach Pat Summitt among those honored with a banner hanging in UT's basketball venue.

NO. 22 HOLLY WARLICK

Guard » 1976-80 » Knoxville, Tenn.

The first Tennessee athlete, either male or female, to have her jersey retired was Holly Warlick. Her uniform was retired on Feb. 18, 1980, in a ceremony after Tennessee's 89-72 win over Clemson in Stokely Athletics Center. A play-making wizard for the Lady Vols from 1976-80, Holly earned All-America honors three times. At the time of the ceremony, she held UT records for most assists in a game (14), most steals in a game (9), and most assists in a season (225).

Holly could not hang up her uniform right away. She played six more games after the retirement party. The final time she donned No. 22 was in the AIAW National Championship game when the Lady Vols fell to Old Dominion, 68-53.

During her years at Tennessee, the Lady Vols produced a 118-23 overall record, three trips to the Final Four and a first-ever SEC Tournament title. She later went on to become a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team.

Later serving as the head coach of the Lady Vols from 2012-19, Warlick's No. 22 banner hangs in the rafters above the court in Thompson-Boling Arena.

NO. 30 BRIDGETTE GORDON

Forward » 1985-89 » DeLand, Fla.

Ten years later, the second Lady Vol basketball jersey was retired. Bridgette Gordon returned to Thompson-Boling Arena after a stellar career at Tennessee to see her No. 30 honored during halftime of Tennessee's 76-70 win over Texas on Jan. 17, 1990.

Bridgette led the Lady Vols to a 115-21 record during her four years at UT. She was the driving force behind an NCAA-record four consecutive trips to the Final Four as well as two NCAA and two SEC Championships.

Bridgette was the first freshman ever to lead UT in scoring, and she earned co-SEC Rookie of the Year and All-SEC honors. The next year she led Tennessee to its first NCAA title, earned All-SEC honors again and was named to the All-Final Four team. She capped All-SEC honors and was named MVP of the SEC Tournament as a junior. She also earned her first of two Kodak All-America honors that year.

After earning a gold medal as a member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic basketball team, Bridgette returned to Tennessee for her senior season. She led the Lady Vols to the 1989 NCAA title and was named MVP of the Final Four. She finished her career as the all-time leading scorer in NCAA Tournament history.

Bridgette graduated in 1989 with a B.S. in political science. She was basketball's nominee for the 1989 Honda-Broderick Award, which is symbolic for women's academic and athletic achievement. She later returned to Rocky Top to spend two seasons (2017-19) as an assistant coach for the Lady Vols.

NO. 32 DAEDRA CHARLES

Center » 1988-91 » Detroit, Mich.

When Tennessee hosted the SEC-Big 10 Challenge in Dec. 28, 1991, Daedra Charles became the next Lady Vol to have her jersey retired. Charles returned to Knoxville from Como, Italy, where she was playing professional basketball with former Lady Vol teammate Bridgette Gordon. Charles came to surprise Lady Vol head coach Pat Summitt by announcing the endowment of the Pat Head Summitt Scholarship, presented by Charles, Gordon and another former Lady Vol, Lisa McGill Reagan. Summitt, who was unaware of the endowment, had planned the retirement ceremony as a surprise for Charles.

A two-time Kodak All-American at Tennessee, Daedra was the 1991 SEC Woman Athlete of the Year. She became the first player from the SEC to win the Wade Trophy, the highest honor in women's basketball. All this came after leading Tennessee to its third NCAA title in five years.

She finished her career seventh on the UT scoring list (1,495), sixth in rebounding (858) and second in shots blocked (95), despite missing her freshman season as a Prop 48 student. Still, Daedra graduated in four years, earning a bachelor's degree in child and family studies.

NO. 23 CHAMIQUE HOLDSCLAW

Forward » 1995-99 » Astoria, N.Y.

During halftime of the Lady Vols' 92-88 home triumph over archrival Connecticut on Feb. 1, 2001, the collegiate career of arguably the greatest women's player to ever play the game was officially closed when Chamique Holdsclaw became just the fourth Lady Vol to have her jersey retired.

The Naismith Player of the Century and one of only six four-time Kodak All-Americans in the history of women's basketball when her career concluded, Holdsclaw led the Orange and White to a 131-17 overall record and an unprecedented three consecutive national championships from 1996-98, while establishing herself as the program's all-time leader in scoring (3,025 points) and rebounding (1,295).

The NCAA Tournament's most outstanding player in 1997 and 1998, Holdsclaw still holds the record for most points (479 points), and held the mark for most rebounds (198 rebounds), tallied in tournament games until 2008.

The first two-time winner of the Associated Press Player of the Year Award, Holdsclaw garnered 34 individual awards during her career, including 21 player of the year honors from a variety of organizations. In 2006, Holdsclaw was named to the NCAA 25th Anniversary Team. She was previously named to the Kodak 25th Anniversary Team in 1999. She also played on the gold-medal winning 2000 U.S. Olympic Team and was named to the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2018.

NO. 24 TAMIKA CATCHINGS

Forward » 1997-01 » Duncanville, Texas

The fifth Lady Vol jersey to be retired belonged to Tamika Catchings in a halftime ceremony on Dec. 7, 2003, against Louisiana Tech. From the moment she stepped on the court in the number 24 orange and white jersey, we knew from her contagious smile that she was a special person, and from her deadly baseline-to-baseline hustling for all 40 minutes, a truly phenomenal player.

This special six-foot, one-inch forward had the heart of a champion and could play anywhere on the court. Her UT career was shortened during her senior year when she went crashing to the floor with a torn anterior cruciate ligament in game 17 versus Mississippi State.

Her list of awards was staggering, as she captured a slew of them while being tabbed as UT's second four-time Kodak All-American. What she accomplished in the span of her collegiate career is the stuff of legend. She played in 127 games as a Lady Vol. Her assault on the record books is legendary for both scoring (2,113 points) and rebounding (1,004 boards), with both marks ranking her third at UT at the conclusion of her career. She also finished her career second all-time in steals with 311 and blocked shots with 140. And remember, she missed half of her senior season.

Her teammates will tell you how special it was to earn a blue adidas headband after Catchings went out with the injury. Earning one meant they hustled like "Catch" would have. The Eleanor Roosevelt League for the Hard of Hearing honored her in 1998 – as a special role model for youngsters and adults with hearing impairments. Her UT academic counselors will relate stories about Catchings graduating ahead of her class in December 2000. People in the Knoxville community will tell you of the countless hours she put in with youths from all walks of life – from playgrounds to hospitals.

A WNBA All-Star for the Indiana Fever, Catchings added to her collection of accolades in the Summer of 2004 with a gold medal as a member of the USA Women's Basketball Team at the Athens Olympic Games. She also added gold medals at the 2008, 2012 and 2016 Olympiads as well.

PAT SUMMITT

Head Coach » 1974-2012 » Henrietta, Tenn.

The sixth woman and first non-player to be honored with a banner at Thompson-Boling Arena was Pat Summitt, who coached Tennessee for 38 years and compiled a 1,098-208 career record with the most wins in NCAA women's or men's basketball history at the conclusion of her career. Summitt's banner was hoisted prior to a nationally-televised game vs. Notre Dame on Jan. 28, 2013.

The legendary Summitt directed Tennessee to eight NCAA National Championships, 31-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and 18 NCAA Final Fours. At the conference level, she led her squads to 16 SEC regular-season titles and 16 SEC tournament championships, including a tourney title in her final season at the helm in 2012.

During her career, Summitt produced 21 WBCA/Kodak/State Farm All-Americans, 39 All-SEC players, 12 Olympians and 34 WNBA draft picks, including 15 first-round selections. The number she was most proud of, however, was the 100-percent graduation rate for the 122 players who completed their careers and earned degrees at Tennessee under her watch.

Collecting an incredible array of honors during her career, Summitt was named SEC Coach of the Year eight times – 1993, 1995, 1998, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2007 and 2011. She was named the 1987, 1989, 1994, 1998 and 2004 Naismith Women's College Coach of the Year and WBCA/Converse Coach of the Year in 1983 and 1995 and the IKON/WBCA Coach of the Year in 1998.

Summitt belongs to the FIBA International, Naismith Memorial, Women's Basketball, Women's Sports Foundation, UT Athletics Tennessee Sports, Greater Knoxville Sports and National Association for Sports and Physical Education Hall of Fame. Her most esteemed honor, however, came on May 29, 2012, when she received the Presidential Medal of Freedom (presented by President Barack Obama) at the White House.

NO. 3 CANDACE PARKER

Guard/Forward/Center » 2004-08 » Naperville, Ill.

The seventh woman and sixth player to be honored with a jersey retirement ceremony at Thompson-Boling Arena was Candace Parker. The 6-foot-4 Parker's banner was unveiled on Jan. 2, 2014, prior to the Lady Vols' SEC opener vs. LSU.

During her three-year playing career, Parker led the Lady Vols to a pair of NCAA Championships in 2007 and 2008, to an SEC regular-season crown in 2007 and to SEC Tournament titles in 2006 and 2008. Tennessee posted a 101-10 overall record during her time at Rocky Top and a 38-4 mark in SEC play.

Parker started 109 of her 110 career games, scoring the third-most points in school history (2,137) and pulling down the sixth-best rebounding tally at 972 as of her career's end. She still ranks No. 3 in career double-doubles with 45 and stands tied for No. 2 in career rebounding average (8.8) and No. 4 in career scoring average (19.4).

Not the first player to dunk in the college game or even at Tennessee, Parker did make the dunk a more common occurrence in women's basketball. She was the first to dunk in an NCAA game, doing so twice vs. Army on March 19, 2006. She also set UT records for most dunks in a game (2), season (4) and career (7).

Because of her play, she has earned a plethora of awards. Among them, John R. Wooden and USBWA Player of the Year (2007, 2008), NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player (2007, 2008), WBCA All-American (2006, 2007, 2008), SEC Female Athlete of the Year (2008), SEC Player of the Year (2007), Coaches First-Team All-SEC (2006, 2007, 2008), CoSIDA Academic All-American (2007, 2008) and CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year (2008).

After helping Tennessee win the 2008 NCAA title in Tampa, Fla., Parker was chosen as the first pick of that spring's WNBA Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks, earning league MVP and rookie of the year honors. She also played a key role in the U.S. women winning a gold medal at the 2008 and 2012 Summer Olympics and has continued to escalate her stature in both the professional ranks and internationally.

LADY VOLS IN THE PROFESSIONAL RANKS

There have been a limited number of opportunities for women to play basketball in the professional ranks through the years. However, 60 Lady Vols have taken advantage of the opportunity to play past their collegiate days in overseas leagues and in the United States. In 2020, seven #LVFL standouts were regular-season members of teams in the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA).

LADY VOLS IN THE WNBA DRAFT

The Lady Vol basketball program has produced 60 professional players over the years, including 48 alumnae who went on to play in the WNBA. Of those 48 who continued their careers at the professional level in the WNBA, 42 were selected on Draft day and 17 were picked in the first round.

Tennessee has placed two or more players in the first round of the draft five times. The 2012 draft was the Lady Vols' best yet, as Shekinna Stricklen (2nd, Seattle), Glory Johnson (4th, Tulsa) and Kelley Cain (7th, New York) all went in the first round. Vicki Baugh was taken in the third round (25th overall pick) by Tulsa.

Candace Parker and Alexis Hornbuckle were taken in 2008. The Sparks chose Parker with the first overall pick. Hornbuckle followed closely behind as the Shock picked her up with the fourth selection.

Dena Head and Daedra Charles were selected first and eighth respectively in the 1997 Elite Draft. Lady Vols doubled up again in 1999, with Chamique Holdsclaw going first to the Mystics and Tonya Edwards going seventh to the Lynx. Kara Lawson and Gwen Jackson were taken with back-to-back picks in 2003, with Lawson going fifth to the Shock and Jackson going sixth to the Fever.

HISTORIC TIMELINE FOR LADY VOL BASKETBALL

April 30 (1974) – As a senior at the University of Tennessee-Martin, Pat Summitt is sent a letter asking her to become a physical education teacher and head women's basketball coach at UT. Summitt, then known as Pat Head, received it in the mail and accepted the job at age 22.

Dec. 7 (1974) – Pat Summitt coached the first of her 1,306 games at Tennessee, with her squad dropping a nail-biter to Mercer, 84-83, at Alumni Gym.

Jan. 10 (1975) – Pat Summitt picked up her first win as Tennessee's head coach, 69-32, over Middle Tennessee State in front of 53 fans at Alumni Gym.

Nov. 13 (1976) – In her debut game as a Lady Vol, senior Patricia "Trish" Roberts fired in 51 points (and made it a double-double with 20 rebounds) to lead Tennessee to a season-opening 107-53 victory over Kentucky. That single-game scoring total still stands as the school record through the 2019-20 season and matches the UT men's record of 51 held by Tony White.

Feb. 19 (1977) – Senior Patricia "Trish" Roberts pulled down 24 rebounds vs. Anderson to set the Lady Vol record for a single game. That marks still stands through the 2019-20 season.

March 26 (1977) – The Lady Vols defeated Immaculata, 91-71, in Minneapolis to finish 28-5 overall and take third in their initial appearance in the AIAW Championships Tournament.

Jan. 13 (1979) – Pat Summitt earned her 100th career victory in her fourth season as head coach with a 79-66 triumph at NC State.

Feb. 10 (1980) – Fifth-ranked Tennessee won the first-ever SEC Tournament for women's basketball, defeating Ole Miss, 85-71, at Stokely Athletics Center.

Feb. 18 (1980) – The first Tennessee athlete, male or female, to have her jersey retired by the University of Tennessee was Knoxville native Holly Warlick (1976-80), who was honored after the final home regular season game of her career vs. Clemson. Warlick, whose No. 22 now hangs from the rafters of Thompson-Boling Arena, would later serve as an assistant coach and associate head coach for Pat Summitt (1985-2012) and follow her coach, friend and mentor as the Lady Vol skipper from 2012-19.

March 23 (1980) – UT, which finished third in two previous trips to the AIAW Final Four, played in its first AIAW National Championship game, falling to Old Dominion, 68-53, in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan.

March 29 (1981) – The Lady Vols made a return to the title game of the AIAW Final Four, finishing as runner-up for the second year in a row with a 79-59 loss to Louisiana Tech. It marked UT's last appearance in an AIAW postseason event with the first edition of the NCAA Tournament coming in 1982.

Dec. 3 (1982) – Tennessee defeated St. John's, 69-56, at the Coca-Cola Classic in Detroit, giving Pat Summitt career victory number 200.

March 26 (1982) – Tennessee played in the inaugural NCAA Final Four for women, falling, 69-46, to Louisiana Tech in the semifinal round.

Aug. 7 (1984) – Serving as the head coach of the U.S. Olympic Team and assisted by UT aide Nancy Darsch, Pat Summitt guided the American women to their first-ever gold medal with an 85-55 victory over South Korea in Los Angeles. Summitt was carried off the Inglewood Forum floor by her players, including Lady Vols Lea Henry and Cindy Noble.

April 1 (1984) – In their second trip to the NCAA Final Four, the Lady Vols advanced to their first championship game before falling to Southern California at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles, 72-61.

Feb. 17 (1985) – The Lady Vols began a streak of 565 consecutive weeks in the Associated Press Top 25, stretching until Feb. 22, 2016. During that 31-year run, the Lady Vols had been ranked No. 1 103 times. They were in the top five for 407 weeks and in the top 10 506 times.

March 3 (1985) – Tennessee beat Auburn, 63-60, in Oxford, Mississippi, to capture the SEC Tournament Championship (UT's second) and provide the Lady Vols with their first-ever season sweep of league hardware after previously claiming their initial regular season title in 1985 as well.

Jan. 4, (1987) – Career victory number 300 came Pat Summitt's way, thanks to an 87-68 home triumph over North Carolina.

March 29 (1987) – Tennessee got 13 points each from sophomores Bridgette Gordon and Sheila Frost as well as freshman Final Four Most Outstanding Player Tonya Edwards to roll past Louisiana Tech, 67-44, in Austin, Texas, and claim the school's first NCAA title in women's basketball in its fourth trip to the NCAA Final Four and eighth overall Final Four trip including AIAW tournaments.

Dec. 3 (1987) – The Lady Vols played their first-ever game in brand-new Thompson-Boling Arena, racing to a 102-59 victory over Stetson. A men's game followed, with the Vols beating Marquette, 82-56.

Dec. 9 (1987) – The Lady Vols set a world record for women's basketball attendance, as a crowd of 24,563 attended a contest between No. 1 Tennessee and No. 2 Texas that the Longhorns won, 97-78.

March 6 (1988) – Senior Dawn Marsh dished out 18 assists to set the Lady Vol single-game record in an 82-76 SEC Tournament semifinal round victory over Georgia in Albany, Ga.

April 2 (1989) – Most Outstanding Player Bridgette Gordon fired in a title game record-tying 27 points and pulled down 10 rebounds, as the Lady Vols beat SEC foe Auburn, 76-60, in Tacoma, Washington, to claim their second NCAA title in three seasons.

Jan. 17 (1990) – Two-time WBCA All-American and 1988 U.S. Olympic gold medalist Bridgette Gordon (1985-89) became the second Lady Vol to be honored with a banner in Thompson-Boling Arena when her No. 30 was raised to the rafters. She would later serve as assistant coach at UT from 2017-19.

HISTORIC TIMELINE FOR LADY VOL BASKETBALL

Feb. 2 (1991) – The Lady Vol beat Tennessee Tech, 94-67, at Thompson-Boling Arena to record the first victory in what would become a program-best 69-game home-court winning streak. That spree was the longest in NCAA women's history at the time.

March 31 (1991) – After Virginia eliminated UT from the 1990 NCAA Tournament and prevented the Lady Vols from playing in a Final Four hosted at Thompson-Boling Arena in Knoxville, Tennessee exacted revenge in the 1991 Final Four in New Orleans. Junior Dena Head scored a championship game-record 28 points to help the Big Orange take down guard Dawn Staley and the Cavaliers, 70-67, in the first-ever NCAA Women's Final Four overtime game for the Big Orange's third crown in five seasons.

Dec. 28 (1991) – While Tennessee hosted the SEC-Big 10 Challenge, Daedra Charles (1988-91) returned to Knoxville thinking she'd be joining other teammates in surprising Pat Summitt with a scholarship in the coach's name. Summitt had a surprise, too, retiring the two-time All-American and 1991 Wade Trophy winner's No. 32 jersey and making her the third Lady Vol to be so honored.

Nov. 21 (1993) – Pat Summitt celebrated victory number 500 after the Lady Vols ran past Ohio State, 80-45, at the inaugural State Farm Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Classic in Jackson, Tennessee. OSU was coached by former Summitt assistant Nancy Darsch, who was at UT from 1978-85 and was on Summitt's 1984 Olympic staff.

Jan. 16 (1995) – Pat Summitt agreed to add up-and-coming program UConn to the schedule and played the first game in the series at the Huskies' Gampel Pavilion in Storrs. The second-ranked hosts claimed the first-ever meeting with No. 1 UT, 77-66.

Jan. 14 (1996) – Senior Michelle Marciniak tallied a school-record 11 steals in a 60-45 win at Kentucky.

March 29 (1996) – Tennessee picked up its first victory over UConn in four tries, defeating the Huskies at the 1996 Final Four in Charlotte, 88-83 in overtime, to advance to the title game.

March 31 (1996) – After going without an NCAA title for four seasons, Tennessee reclaimed its throne in Charlotte, N.C., beating UConn in the semifinals and cruising past Georgia in the championship game, 83-65, with senior guard Michelle Marciniak earning Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors.

Nov. 23 (1996) – Career triumph No. 600 for Pat Summitt came vs. Marquette via an 83-68 blowout at the Howard Bank Classic in Burlington, Vermont. Howard Dean (then Vermont governor) was on hand to present a congratulatory cake to Summitt after the game.

March 15 (1997) – With a 91-54 victory over Grambling during the NCAA First Round in Knoxville, the Lady Vols both launched their improbable six-game run to the 1997 NCAA Championship and won the first of what would become a 46-contest string of victories that lasted until No. 5 Purdue upset No. 1 Tennessee, 78-68, in West Lafayette, Ind., on Nov. 15, 1998.

March 30 (1997) – The Lady Vols overcame a 10-loss season and won their first back-to-back NCAA titles, capturing the 1997 trophy with a 68-59 victory over Old Dominion in Cincinnati, thanks to a 24-point title-game effort from Final Four Most Outstanding Player Chamique Holdsclaw and a Final Four-record 20 assists in two games (title-game best 11 vs. ODU) from Kellie Jolly.

Nov. 23 (1997) – UT Martin names its basketball playing surface Pat Summitt Court after its former star.

Jan. 3 (1998) – The Lady Vols set a (then) NCAA record for on-campus attendance at a women's basketball game, drawing 24,597 to watch an 84-69 victory by No. 1 UT over No. 3 UConn.

Feb. 7 (1998) – The first advance sellout in Lady Vol basketball history is announced, and 24,373 are on hand to witness No. 1 UT blow out No. 3 Old Dominion, 85-61.

March 29 (1998) – Tennessee pulled off the first-ever 39-0 season and championship three-peat in NCAA women's basketball history, cruising past Louisiana Tech, 93-75, in Kansas City, Missouri, to claim the program's sixth all-time national title. Tamika Catching (27), Chamique Holdsclaw (25) and Kellie Jolly (20) led the way for the Big Orange, as UT put up a Final Four-record 55 points in the first half to build a 23-point lead at the intermission.

Dec. 5 (1999) – Win number 700 of Pat Summitt's career occurs, as the Lady Vols win at Wisconsin, 85-62, enabling Summitt to join Jody Conradt of Texas as the only women's coaches at the time with 700 career victories.

May 4 (1999) – Four-time All-American Chamique Holdsclaw was taken as the No. 1 pick in the WNBA Draft, going to the Washington Mystics.

June 5 (1999) – Pat Summitt was inducted with the inaugural class into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in Knoxville.

Oct. 13 (2000) – Pat Summitt was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts, gaining entrance the first time she was on the ballot.

Nov. 25 (2000) – Tennessee junior Michelle Snow executed the first dunk by a woman captured on live TV, when she threw one down with both hands and hung on the rim briefly in UT's 111-62 victory over Illinois at the Women's Maui Invitational.

Feb. 1 (2001) – Chamique Holdsclaw (1995-99) became the fourth Lady Vol to have her jersey retired, with her No. 23 jersey being hoisted skyward in Thompson-Boling Arena at halftime of a marquee showdown vs. UConn. Through the 2019-20 season, Holdsclaw remains the all-time scoring (3,025) and rebounding (1,295) leader in UT women's history.

Jan. 5 (2002) – Tennessee and UConn reset the (then) NCAA on-campus attendance bar once again, as 24,611 packed Thompson-Boling Arena to watch the No. 1 Huskies hold off the No. 2 Lady Vols, 86-72.

Jan 17 (2002) – Senior Michelle Snow dunked during an 80-61 win at South Carolina, becoming the first woman to dunk three times in a college career.

March 25 (2002) – Pat Summitt coached her team to the NCAA Final Four for the 13th time, passing UCLA legend John Wooden.

March 29 (2002) – Tennessee and UConn played in front of the largest crowd to ever see an NCAA women's basketball game, with the Huskies taking a 79-56 Final Four semifinal game victory in front of 29,619 at the Alamodome in San Antonio.

HISTORIC TIMELINE FOR LADY VOL BASKETBALL

Jan. 14 (2003) – Pat Summitt racked up career win No. 800 with a 76-57 home victory over DePaul and was celebrated post-game with fireworks, balloons and flowers.

Dec. 7 (2003) – The fifth Lady Vol jersey retirement came in a halftime ceremony during a game vs. Louisiana Tech. Four-time WBCA All-American and four-time U.S. Olympic gold medalist Tamika Catchings (1997-2001) saw her No. 24 join UT's display of legends at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Feb. 29 (2004) – Tennessee closed out the 2003-04 season by beating LSU, 85-62, to go 14-0 in SEC play. In doing so, the Lady Vols claimed their league-record seventh straight SEC regular season trophy. UT had an incredible 95-3 record in conference games during that run, beginning that dominance during the 1997-98 season.

March 4 (2005) – Pat Summitt tied Adolph Rupp of Kentucky for second place in all-time wins by an NCAA women's or men's coach (876), as Tennessee defeated Auburn, 64-54, in the SEC Tournament quarterfinals at Greenville, South Carolina.

March 20 (2005) – Tennessee's 94-43 win over Western Carolina in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Knoxville allowed Pat Summitt to tie Dean Smith for first on the all-time win list among NCAA men's or women's coaches at 879.

March 22 (2005) – UT defeated Purdue, 75-54, in the NCAA Second Round in Knoxville, pushing Pat Summitt past North Carolina men's coach Dean Smith to become the NCAA's all-time winningest coach with 880 career victories. The UT administration surprised her during a postgame ceremony by announcing the Thompson-Boling Arena court would be named "The Summitt."

Jan. 7 (2006) – The Lady Vols hosted UConn in a No. 1 vs. No. 7 match-up, and Tennessee walked away with an 89-80 victory with a new NCAA record on-campus crowd of 24,653 looking on. That record still stands today.

March 19 (2006) – Redshirt freshman Candace Parker became the first woman to dunk in an NCAA Tournament game and the first to record two dunks in the same game, throwing one down in each half of UT's 102-54 victory over Army in the NCAA First Round at Norfolk, Virginia.

May 22 (2006) – Pat Summitt became the first college women's basketball coach to earn a one-million-dollar salary. The six-year deal was scheduled to increase to 1.125 million in 2006-07 and to 1.5 million in 2011-12.

Nov. 12 (2006) – Redshirt sophomore Candace Parker became the first woman to dunk at Thompson-Boling Arena, firing up the home crowd during a 102-72 runaway over Chattanooga. She went on to become the first woman to tally three slams in a single season.

April 3 (2007) – Picking up its first NCAA title since 1998, the Lady Vols toppled Rutgers, 59-46, in Cleveland, Ohio, for UT's seventh national championship. Redshirt sophomore Candace Parker was named Most Outstanding Player after leading Tennessee with 17 points in the finale.

Feb. 3 (2008) – Candace Parker executed the seventh and final dunk of her career, sending one home in the second half of a 79-51 home romp over Kentucky. Through the 2019-20 season, Parker still possesses the school records for single game (2), season (3) and career (7) dunks.

April 8 (2008) – Tennessee claimed its eighth, and Pat Summitt's final, NCAA National Championship, with redshirt junior Candace Parker repeating as Final Four Most Outstanding Player as the Lady Vols claimed back-to-back titles with a 64-48 victory over Stanford in Tampa, Florida

April 9 (2008) – Three-time All-American Candace Parker was taken as the No. 1 pick in the WNBA Draft, going to the Los Angeles Sparks. The rest of UT's 2008 NCAA Championship team starting five [Alexis Hornbuckle (1st Rd./4th), Shannon Bobbitt (2nd Rd./15th), Nicky Anosike (2nd Rd./16th), Alberta Auguste (3rd Rd./35th)] also was selected in the draft, marking the first occasion and one of only two times that has occurred (Notre Dame, 2019).

April 12 (2008) – Pat Summitt becomes the first women's coach to earn the John R. Wooden Legends in Coaching Lifetime Achievement Award.

Oct. 3 (2008) – Candace Parker became the first-ever winner of WNBA MVP and Rookie of the Year honors in the same season. Her 2008 year also included capturing an NCAA Championship at Tennessee, being taken as the WNBA's No. 1 draft pick and winning a gold medal with the U.S. Olympic Team.

Feb. 5 (2009) – Pat Summitt became the first woman or man to win 1,000 games in NCAA basketball, as Tennessee rolled past Georgia with a 73-43 home victory.

Feb. 22 (2009) – Tennessee's second-longest home-court winning streak began on this day, as the Lady Vols started a 38-game spree with an 82-68 victory over Mississippi State at Thompson-Boling Arena. UT did not lose again on The Summitt until Nov. 27, 2011, in a 76-67 defeat at the hands of No. 1 Baylor.

Dec. 28 (2009) – In the first-ever women's outdoor NCAA Division I basketball game, No. 2 Tennessee held off host Arizona State, 67-63, in front of 16,782 fans on a cool desert night at the home of Major League Baseball's Arizona Diamondbacks, Bank One Ballpark, in Phoenix.

Feb. 22 (2010) – Redshirt sophomore Kelley Cain blocked a UT record 12 shots in a 70-61 home win over LSU. She would go on to card 113 rejections for the season, also a school record.

Dec. 19 (2010) – The Lady Vols beat Stanford in overtime, 82-72, in Knoxville, beginning a program-best 25-game winning streak that would not end until March 28, 2011, with a 73-59 loss to Notre Dame in the Dayton Regional Final.

Aug. 23 (2011) – At the age of 59, Pat Summitt announced that she had been diagnosed with early-onset dementia, Alzheimer's type. Bravely, she continued on as head coach for the 2011-12 season, which would be her last as leader of UT women's hoops.

Sept. 22 (2011) – Tamika Catchings became the second Lady Vol alum to win WNBA MVP honors, earning the award after finishing second in balloting in 2003, 2009 and 2010.

Nov. 27 (2011) – At halftime of a home game vs. Baylor, Pat Summitt and her son, Tyler, announced the formation of the Pat Summitt Foundation.

HISTORIC TIMELINE FOR LADY VOL BASKETBALL

Feb. 26 (2012) – Tennessee is victorious in what many felt would be Pat Summitt's final game on the court that bears her name. Her Lady Vols took care of Florida on senior day, 75-59, with a season-best crowd of 18,563 on hand to run the year's per-game average to 14,414.

March 4 (2012) – In her final conference tourney as head coach, Pat Summitt's Lady Vols captured an emotionally-charged SEC Tournament crown in Nashville, defeating LSU by a 70-58 count for Summitt's 16th SEC postseason trophy. The legendary coach cut down a championship net for the final time.

March 24 (2012) – Sophomore Meighan Simmons scored 22 points, and UT came from 14 points down, as Pat Summitt secured what would be the final victory of her career in an 84-73 triumph over Kansas in the Des Moines Regional Semifinal.

March 26 (2012) – In the Des Moines Regional Final, the Lady Vols fell to eventual national champion Baylor, 77-58, in what turned out to be Pat Summitt's final game as head coach.

April 16 (2012) – Tennessee had three players selected within the top 10 picks of the WNBA Draft, as Shekinna Stricklen went at No. 2 to the Seattle Storm (from Chicago), Glory Johnson went at No. 4 to the Tulsa Shock and Kelley Cain went at No. 7 to the New York Liberty.

April 18 (2012) – Pat Summitt, who had announced a diagnosis of early-onset dementia, Alzheimer's type on Aug. 23, 2011, stepped down as head coach of the Lady Vols, finishing with a career record of 1,098-208 (.840), with eight NCAA championships, a combined 32 SEC crowns (16 regular season/16 tournament) and a 100 percent graduation rate for players who completed their eligibility at UT.

April 19 (2012) – After playing at Tennessee (1976-80) and serving as an assistant and later associate head coach at UT from 1985 to 2012, Holly Warlick was introduced at a gathering at Thompson-Boling Arena as the successor to Pat Summitt, who moved to a role as head coach emeritus.

May 29 (2012) – In a ceremony at the White House, Pat Summitt was presented the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President Barack Obama.

Jan. 28 (2013) – Prior to a game vs. Notre Dame, head coach emeritus Pat Summitt became the sixth person and first non-player associated with the Lady Vol program to be honored with a banner at Thompson-Boling Arena. With great honor and distinction, she led the Lady Vols for 38 seasons from 1974-2012.

Feb. 28 (2013) – Tennessee, under first-year head coach Holly Warlick, defeated Texas A&M, 82-72, on The Summitt to clinch its first SEC regular season title with someone other than Pat Summitt at the helm.

June 19 (2013) – Pat Summitt was inducted into the FIBA Basketball Hall of Fame.

Sept. 19 (2013) – Lady Vol alum Candace Parker wins her second WNBA MVP award, becoming just the fifth player to earn that distinction on more than one occasion.

Nov. 2 (2013) – Pat Summitt was inducted into the University of Tennessee Athletics (then Lady Vol) Hall of Fame.

Nov. 22 (2013) – The Pat Summitt Plaza and Statue (created by renowned sculptor David Adickes of Houston, Texas) were dedicated at the corner of Lake Loudoun Blvd. and Phillip Fulmer Way.

Jan. 2 (2014) – The sixth Lady Vol and seventh woman affiliated with the UT program to have her jersey retired, three-time All-American and two-time Olympic gold medalist Candace Parker (2004-08) saw her No. 3 banner raised to the rafters prior to Tennessee's SEC opener vs. LSU.

March 9 (2014) – The Lady Vols claimed their 17th all-time SEC Tournament title, edging Kentucky, 71-70, in Duluth, Georgia.

March 1 (2015) – Tennessee beat Vanderbilt, 79-49, in the regular-season finale to finish 15-1 in league play and capture its 18th SEC championship.

June 28 (2016) – Pat Summitt, legendary Lady Vol basketball coach, mentor and mother-figure to her players; a revered ambassador for her university and state; a trailblazer for women; and a role model for people all over the world, passed away in Knoxville at the age of 64. She had announced a diagnosis of early-onset dementia, Alzheimer's type, on Aug. 23, 2011.

Aug. 20 (2016) – Tamika Catchings becomes the first Lady Vol alum and one of only five American women to win four Olympic gold medals in basketball, helping the U.S. beat Spain, 101-72, in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

March 27 (2019) – After seven seasons at the helm of the Lady Vol program, during which she produced a 172-67 record (.720) with seven NCAA Tournament appearances, two SEC regular titles and an SEC tourney crown, the Holly Warlick era comes to an end after UT finished 19-13 and lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

April 9 (2019) – LVFL (1995-99) and Pat Summitt protégé Kellie Harper (previously at Missouri State) is announced as the third Lady Vol head coach in the history of women's intercollegiate athletics at Tennessee.

Jan. 20 (2020) – Tennessee picked up its 400th all-time SEC regular season win and Kellie Harper won the 300th game of her career, as Renna Davis hit a long-range, buzzer-beating three-pointer to lift UT past Alabama, 65-63, at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Jan. 23 (2020) – After not meeting since Jan. 6, 2007, Tennessee and UConn renewed their rivalry for a worthwhile cause, playing at the XL Center in Hartford, Connecticut, with proceeds from the game going to the Pat Summitt Foundation and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. With a home crowd of 13,659 behind them, the Huskies won the contest, 60-45, to halt a three-game UT winning streak in the series.

March 12 (2020) – Due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) global health crisis, the NCAA announced the 2020 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament and all other collegiate athletic events remaining that spring were canceled.

THOMPSON-BOLING ARENA

The Thompson-Boling Assembly Center and Arena is one of the largest on-campus arenas in the country and a very tough place for visitors to win. The Lady Vols own a 465-48 (.906) record at the facility through 33 years entering the 2020-21 season.

A mammoth structure located on the banks of the Tennessee River, it was named for B. Ray Thompson and retired UT President Edward J. Boling. The building is 448 feet long and 310 feet wide. It contains more than 411,000 square feet of floor space and more than 17 million cubic feet of space.

Following renovations in 2007, Thompson-Boling Arena has an official seating capacity of 21,678. As part of a $19 million renovation of the arena prior to the 2007-08 season, 32 luxury suites were added to the existing north balcony along with a loge area just below the suites that includes 166 side court seats. A $3 million center-hung scoreboard, new black seats and several concourse refurbishments also were part of the renovation. The distance from the playing floor to the roof is 120 feet, the equivalent of a 12-story building. The structure contains 142,000 square feet of roof area, which is approximately three and one-quarter acres.

The enormous facility houses the Tennessee women's and men's basketball offices. The UT Ticket Office is located on the Phillip Fulmer Way level on the west end of the building. A continuous-ring concourse encircles the building, permitting entrance to eight restrooms, six concession areas and 32 portals that lead to the arena. The playing floor level provides access to the media room and storage areas as well as the very impressive Larry Pratt Basketball Locker Room Complex and the visitor dressing rooms, constructed from 2017 to 2018.

Since the building opened on Dec. 3, 1987 (the Lady Vols beat Stetson, 102-59), UT women's basketball has enjoyed a number of lengthy home winning streaks. On Dec. 28, 2003, Texas snapped a 24-game run that dated back to the 2001-02 season. A previous streak of 26 consecutive wins in the home confines ended on Jan. 5, 2002, with an 86-72 loss to Connecticut. The Lady Vols broke the NCAA homecourt winning streak record with 69 consecutive victories before Connecticut spoiled the streak with a 59-53 win in game number 70 on Jan. 6, 1996. Tennessee claimed 64 straight home SEC victories before third-ranked LSU snapped the streak with a 72-69 victory - its first ever in Knoxville - on Feb. 9, 2006. The Lady Vols took a 36-game home winning streak into the 2011-12 season before Baylor snapped it at 38 on Nov. 27, 2011.

UT won all 18 contests in Knoxville in 2014-15, setting a school and arena record for most home wins in a season and best record in a season. Coupled with winning its last four home games of the 2013-14 season and the first five in 2015-16, UT strung together 27-consecutive victories before falling to Texas on Nov. 29, 2015.

In 1998-99, the Lady Vols played before the largest average home crowd in the history of women's collegiate basketball, as 16,565 spectators per game spectated through the turnstiles. In all, 231,915 fans viewed home games in Knoxville. During the 1997-98 season, Tennessee set several collegiate attendance records. On Jan. 3, 1998, the Lady Vols entertained a new women's collegiate record 24,597 fans for the game with Connecticut. A month later, the first advance sell-out in UT women's basketball history occurred when the Lady Vols were set to meet Old Dominion in Knoxville. For the record, 24,373 fans attended the UT-ODU game.

The all-time attendance mark was reset during the 2001-02 season when 24,611 fans visited the arena for a #1/#2 clash between UT and Connecticut. It was again reset on Jan. 7, 2006, when the Huskies came to Knoxville in front of 24,653 spectators. The women's basketball attendance mark was established at the 2002 NCAA Final Four when 29,619 people filled the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas, for the championship game.

The Lady Vols started the record-breaking trend in women's collegiate basketball attendance in 1987. That season, the Lady Vols broke the (then) world record for single game attendance at a women's basketball game with 24,563 at the Tennessee versus Texas game on Dec. 9, 1987. Three years later, UT established new NCAA Women's Final Four attendance marks on March 30 and April 1, 1990, with a total paid attendance of 39,490 for the three-game event. The turnstile count of 34,196 (17,601 semis/16,595 finals) also broke all other attendance marks.

In 2013-14, UT led the NCAA in attendance for the 11th-straight season and the 17th time in the last 18 years. UT was second from 2014-17, fourth in 2017-18, sixth in 2019-20 and seventh in 2018-19.

- During the last 42 years, nearly 10.5 million people have watched the Tennessee Lady Volunteers play basketball. UT crossed the 10 million mark during the 2017-18 season with 9,016 attending a home game vs. Ole Miss.
- It breaks down into 6,039,337 spectators at home viewing the team and 4,460,613 folks watching the team on the road or at a neutral site for a total of 10,499,950.
- Tennessee originally set the world record for most spectators at a women's basketball game with 24,563 in attendance at the Tennessee vs. Texas game on Dec. 9, 1987. UT continues to hold the mark for most fans to attend a women's basketball game at an on-campus facility, with 24,653 against Connecticut on Jan. 7, 2006.

STOKELY ATHLETICS CENTER ►

Stokely Athletics Center was home to the Lady Volunteer basketball team from 1976-87. The facility, which still housed UT Athletics offices long after its days of hosting games, was closed for good in December 2012 and demolished during the summer of 2014.

The Stokely Arena, which was encircled by a four-lane Tartan indoor track, seated 12,700, while the building housed the former men's and women's athletics department offices. The building was originally called the UT Armory Field House in 1958 and seated just more than 7,000 spectators. Through the generosity of the late William B. Stokely, Jr., further construction was completed and on Dec. 1, 1966, the facility was renamed to honor the Stokely family.

In 1986, Stokely took on a new look as a wood playing surface replaced the old tartan court. The Horner "Pro King" hardwood was painted with the traditional outline of the state of Tennessee in the center of the floor and the familiar end line markings. The court was special-made for the University by the same manufacturer who supplied the basketball court to the Forum for the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games.

Stokely Athletics Center was the site of some historic games for the Lady Vols. The first women's contest played in SAC pitted Tennessee versus Kentucky on Nov. 13, 1976. The Lady Vols not only trounced the Lady Kats, 107-53, but UT's Patricia Roberts tossed in a Field House record 51 points. That mark stands as the Lady Vol record to this day.

Along the way, Tennessee hosted the great gold medalist USSR Olympic Team in 1979, the USA All-Star team in 1979 and the first Southeastern Conference Championships in 1980.

The last Lady Vol game in Stokely, before moving to Thompson-Boling Arena, was a 77-61 win over Auburn in the finals of the NCAA Midwest Regionals on March 21, 1987. A week later, the Lady Vols returned to Stokely to celebrate UT's first NCAA basketball title with thousands of fans in attendance.

Although no formal attendance figures were kept prior to 1982, Tennessee most-assuredly was among the nation's elite in fan support.

ALUMNI GYM ►

Constructed in the 1930's, Alumni Gym was the first real home to the inaugural Lady Vol team in 1974, which was coached by Pat Summitt. The court in the tiny arena (seating 3,000) was the centerpiece of an encircling tri-balcony seating arrangement.

PRATT PAVILION

In October 2006, Tennessee Athletics had a ground-breaking ceremony to officially recognize construction on the Pratt Pavilion, the state-of-the-art basketball practice facility named in UT alumnus Larry F. Pratt's honor for his $5 million lead gift to the basketball programs. The Pratt Pavilion, which opened in the fall of 2007, houses two full-size gymnasiums, one each for the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as space for an athletic training room, weight room, film study room and a recruiting lounge.

Directly connected to Thompson-Boling Arena, Pratt Pavilion has convenient ground level parking. The 70,000-square-foot structure has four short courts within each of the two full-size courts. The facility is equipped with secured practice facilities, spacious locker rooms and recruiting rooms as well. Balconies at the south side of the building overlook the practice courts.

Pratt Pavilion had a total project cost of $16 million, funded entirely through private gifts. Lead donor Pratt's commitment in April 2006, coupled with leadership gifts from other campaign donors, including Jim Haslam, Brenda Lawson and Robbie Nutt, enabled UT to move forward with the project.

This was not Pratt's first donation. In the 1990s he honored his father Floyd by creating an endowed scholarship in his name as a member of the Nathan Dougherty Society. He also was recognized at the Tennessee vs. Georgia football game in 2003 for a $1 million donation to the STEP-UP Campaign. Pratt, an Athens, Tenn., native, currently resides in McLean, Va. He graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1972 from the UT College of Business and serves as president and CEO of First Savings Mortgage Corporation, the largest private mortgage banker in Washington D.C.

THE FEW. THE PROUD. THE NCAA CHAMPIONS.

The few. The proud. The NCAA Champions. During Pat Head Summitt's tenure as head coach (1974-2012), only 161 women were selected to wear the Orange and White of the University of Tennessee Lady Volunteers.

Fifty-eight players of 161 (through the 2011-12 season) earned the distinction of being an "NCAA Champion" during their playing days at the University of Tennessee. That's practically 40 percent! And that is truly remarkable. Additionally, more than 40 percent of the 58 players have brought home two or more titles.

A total of 12 coaches helped to bring the eight titles to the Knoxville campus. The common denominator of the eight championships with coach Summitt was (then) associate head coach Holly Warlick. In her first tenure with the Lady Vols, Mickie DeMoss claimed six rings (1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997 and 1998). Former assistants Al Brown (1996, 1997 and 1998) and Nikki Caldwell (2007, 2008) are the only former aides with numerous titles. Current assistant Dean Lockwood picked up his first national titles as a Lady Vol coach in 2007 and 2008. Seven graduate assistant coaches had the opportunity to experience one title each.

NCAA STATS /// MISCELLANEOUS NCAA ACCOMPLISHMENTS

■ Tennessee has played in the most NCAA tourney games (155).

■ UT has the most NCAA Tournament wins (125) and is second in tourney winning percentage (.806).

■ The Lady Vols are the only team to appear in all 38 NCAA Tournaments.

■ Tennessee's 18 Final Four appearances are second to only Connecticut.

■ A total of 95 Lady Vol team members have participated/played in the Final Four.

■ Six Lady Vols have been the tournament's leading scorer on eight occasions -- Mary Ostrowski (1984), Bridgette Gordon (1987, 1989), Dana Johnson (1995), Chamique Holdsclaw (1997, 1998), Tamika Catchings (2000) and Candace Parker (2007).

■ UT's Chamique Holdsclaw is the NCAA's all-time leading tournament scorer (1996-99) with 479 points. She played in 22 tournament games and averaged 21.8 ppg.

■ Seven Lady Vols have been the tournament's leading rebounder -- Mary Ostrowski (1984), Sheila Frost (1987), Daedra Charles (1991), Chamique Holdsclaw (1998), Tamika Catchings (2000), Gwen Jackson (2003) and Candace Parker (2007).

■ Tennessee has twice come from 17 points down to win NCAA Tournament games, doing so most recently on March 28, 2015, vs. Gonzaga in Spokane, Wash. The Lady Vols trailed the Bulldogs, 57-40, with 6:34 to play before rallying to force overtime and prevail, 73-69, after an extra five minutes of play.

■ Prior to that epic comeback vs. Gonzaga, Tennessee trailed Virginia by 17 in Charlottesville, 31-14, with 17:06 remaining before rallying to take a 52-46 victory over the Cavaliers in the Elite Eight on March 25, 1996.

Center Kasyahna Kushkituah scored 16 points vs. UCLA in the 2019 NCAA Tournament and 10 vs. Liberty in 2018 for a career postseason scoring average of 13.0 ppg. as a Lady Vol.

1987 National Champions

Tennessee may have failed in its first bid at the NCAA national championship in 1984, but the second time was the charm for the Lady Vols. Tennessee thumped Louisiana Tech, which was vying for its second title, 67-44.

"Well, the monkey's off my back," head coach Pat Summitt said. "I do not think I could go without recognizing that it was a tremendous team effort...has been for the last three weeks. This team has played as hard and as smart as I could ask any team to play."

The Lady Vols built a 33-24 halftime edge and never looked back. Seven minutes into the second half, Tennessee had increased its lead to 14, 47-33, and the rest was history as Tennessee took its first NCAA title.

Tennessee attempted 19 more field goals and grabbed 11 more rebounds than the Lady Techsters. A championship-game record crowd of 9,823 watched Tonya Edwards net 13 points and grab seven rebounds en route to most outstanding player honors. Two additional Lady Vols contributed 13 points - Bridgette Gordon and Sheila Frost. Gordon joined Edwards on the All-Championship team, as she also led the Tennessee carom parade, pulling down a game-high 12 rebounds.

1989 National Champions

It was a battle of Southeastern Conference powerhouses - Tennessee versus Auburn for all the marbles.

The Lady Vols looked to regain the national title they earned in 1987. Although they were up against a Lady Tiger team that had made its second straight national championship final, Tennessee took home its second NCAA championship in three years with a 76-60 win.

Playing in her triumphant final game, All-America forward Bridgette Gordon treated the 9,758 spectators to a spectacular 27-point performance, tying a championship-game record. She also collected 11 boards on the way to most outstanding player honors.

Gordon's seven first-half baskets helped the Lady Vols to a 35-27 halftime lead. Auburn was able to stay close, cutting the score to 50-47. But after a timeout, the Lady Vols went on a 13-4 run to put the game out of reach. The keys to the victory were the battle of the boards, where Tennessee outboarded Auburn 45-30, and the free throw line, where Tennessee shot 20-26, while Auburn was 8-12.

Sheila Frost joined Gordon on the All-Championship team. Playing in her final game at Tennessee, Frost had six points and 12 boards. Also coming up big for the Lady Vols in the final was Dena Head, with 19 points.

1991 National Champions

Vindication was finally Tennessee's in the 1991 NCAA women's final, as the Lady Vols downed a talented Virginia Cavalier club, 70-67, in the first NCAA Final Four overtime title game. Virginia had eliminated Tennessee before it could reach the 1990 Women's Final Four - which just happened to be held in Knoxville. But the Lady Vols took New Orleans and their third NCAA title in five years.

The first half was tight, with Tennessee holding a paper-thin 27-26 advantage at the intermission. But the Lady Vols opened up a small lead in the second half. Small lead; small comfort.

Virginia's Dawn Staley, who was named the most outstanding player, led the Virginia comeback to tie the game at 60 at the end of regulation. But the overtime belonged to Tennessee and Dena Head, who scored a championship record 28 points in the final.

Wade Trophy winner Daedra Charles added 19 points and 12 boards for Tennessee and joined Head on the All-Championship Team. Tennessee's effort was also aided by the play of Lisa Harrison, who poured in eight points and 13 boards.

With the victory, the Lady Volunteers kept their streak of odd-year championships going. Tennessee also won national titles in 1987 and 1989.

1996 National Champions

It seemed only fitting that the Lady Vols would win another NCAA crown in the "Queen City" of Charlotte, N.C. And it was equally fitting that the Lady Vols' fourth NCAA title would come over a fierce SEC rival in the Georgia Lady Bulldogs, 83-65.

After the emotionally draining overtime win versus Connecticut, the skeptics wondered if UT would have enough emotional energy left for the title game. They did...and then some. Although Georgia held a modest three point lead early in the game and led by two with 14:11 to go in the first half, it would be their only lead in the title contest. UT senior Latina Davis put the handcuffs on Player of the Year Saudia Roundtree in the first half as the Lady Vols grabbed an early nine point lead, 28-19 with 7:36 to go in the first half. Georgia recovered to trail by just five at the half, 42-37.

In the first three minutes of the second half, UT took off and never looked back. Abby Conklin's tray (her first of four) with 14:55 left gave UT a 16-point lead, 57-41. Davis upped the ante to a 21 point lead with 2:25 showing, 81-60. The celebrating started early as the Final Four MVP, Michelle Marciniak, and All-Tournament Team members Chamique Holdscraw and Tiffani Johnson left the game to wildly cheering fans. Davis, who held Roundtree to 17 points below her average, was UT's quiet heroine.

On the night, Holdscraw and Johnson tallied 16 points to lead UT, while Conklin added 14 points, Pashen Thompson a dozen, and Marciniak 10 in the final game of her career.

1997 National Champions

No team had ever won the NCAA championship coming in with more than six losses. But proving that it's wise to save your best for last, Tennessee took its fifth NCAA championship and second straight title with a 68-59 win over Old Dominion despite entering the tournament with a 23-10 record.

"Of all our runs to a championship, this one is really the most unexpected," said coach Pat Summitt. "It came from a team with tremendous heart and desire."

Tennessee took control quickly at the start of the title game, jumping out to a 20-8 lead. By halftime, the Lady Vols still had a comfortable lead, 34-22.

In the second half, Old Dominion clawed its way back, taking its first lead at 44-43 with 9:06 left in the game. The Lady Monarchs extended the lead to two, 49-47, before Chamique Holdscslaw led the Lady Vols on a 12-2 run to put the game away for Tennessee.

Holdscslaw was a unanimous choice as the most outstanding player, as she poured in 24 points and seven rebounds. Six of her points came during the decisive run at the end of the game. Joining Holdscslaw on the All-Championship team was Kellie Jolly, who only scored five points, but set a championship record with 11 assists in the final game and a Final Four record with 20.

With the win, the Lady Vols earned their fifth national title, played in their seventh championship game and became only the second team to win consecutive championships. (Southern Cal, 1983 and 1984).

1998 National Champions

The 1998 Tennessee Lady Vols will be remembered as history-makers. A perfect 39-0 record and the most wins ever in women's collegiate basketball... an NCAA unprecedented three consecutive titles... and the systematic blowout night-after-night of the opposition.

When the team finally reached the NCAA title game against a dear old rival in Louisiana Tech, the contest started out tight with UT taking an 8-6 lead. Then "the greatest team ever to play the game," according to Louisiana Tech head coach Leon Barmore, exploded out to a 34-11 run over the next seven minutes. The points were coming in bunches to the tune of 63% field goal accuracy as these Lady Vols were on a mission.

By the halftime break, Tennessee led 55-32 and had registered an NCAA record for the most points scored in a half at the Final Four. Leading the way for UT in game 39 were the Three Meeks - MVP Chamique Holdscslaw, Tamika Catchings and Semeka Randall—who collectively tallied 62 points and 25 rebounds in the Lady Vols' 93-75 victory.

Holdscslaw, who scored 25 points and grabbed 10 rebounds, won the top player honors in the final game. She was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Catchings, who recorded 27 points in her first title game, and an honorary "Meek", Kellie Jolly, who added a career-high 20 points.

With the win, the Lady Vols earned their sixth national title, played in their eighth championship game and became the first team to win three consecutive NCAA titles.

2007 National Champions

On April 3, 2007, the Tennessee Lady Vols captured an elusive seventh national title, beating Rutgers to the ball for second and third shots in a 59-46 win to reclaim their customary place above all other programs.

Parker scored 17 points to lead her squad to a 34-3 final record, but the tournament's most outstanding player got plenty of help from Shannon Bobbitt who scored 13 points — nine of them on three treys in a lightning-quick span in the second half — and Nicky Anosike had 16 rebounds for the Lady Vols, who had 24 offensive boards.

After building a 16-point lead and then holding off a late push by Rutgers, the Lady Vols could finally celebrate, dribbling out the final 30 seconds under the Rutgers basket until Tennessee's players, some in tears, danced at midcourt as orange, blue and gold confetti fell from above.

"To win anything you have to be a tight team," Summitt said. "They believed in each other and they all had one goal, to be here in Cleveland and cut down the nets. I'm real, real proud of this team."

A three-pointer by Rutgers ended a 7-0 UT run that brought the Scarlet Knights to 50-42, but Parker made six straight free throws in 37 seconds to make it 56-44 with 1:08 left. As she went down the floor, Parker looked at the bench where senior Sidney Spencer was crying, knowing all the hard work during the offseason would end the best way possible.

The 2007 NCAA tournament ended the same way it has nearly one-third of the time since it started — with Tennessee setting up ladders to cut down the nets.

2008 National Champions

On April 8, 2008, the "under-rated" Tennessee Lady Vols captured their eighth national title, defeating Stanford 64-48. Incredible defensive pressure by UT forced 25 Cardinal turnovers which the Big Orange converted into 26 points.

"They came out with a great mentality to play hard, especially on the defensive end," Pat Summitt said. "On offense, we got more people involved, but it was our defense that got it done."

Tennessee standout Candace Parker, despite playing with a dislocated shoulder, scored 17 points and grabbed nine rebounds to help the Lady Vols capture their second straight championship, but unlike earlier games in the tournament when she had to carry the Lady Vols, her supporting cast came through. Shannon Bobbitt scored 13 points and Nicky Anosike added 12 points, eight rebounds and six steals for the Lady Vols. Freshman Vicki Baugh had eight points before tearing her ACL in the second half.

Bobbitt scored all of her points in the first half as the Lady Vols jumped out to a 37-29 advantage. Trailing by one early, Tennessee used a 13-4 run to take a 17-9 lead midway through the half. Bobbitt hit two three-pointers and made a nifty layup to cap the spurt. The teams traded baskets before two free throws by Bobbitt gave the Lady Vols a 35-25 lead — their biggest of the half.

Parker didn't shoot nearly as many jumpers as usual, instead taking the ball to the basket on an array of moves. She converted one steal in the second half into a pretty layup that gave the Lady Vols a 10-point advantage. She then followed it up with a three-point play on a driving layup. The Cardinal, who had a season low for points, would get no closer than eight the rest of the way. With the game in hand and a minute left, Parker went to the Tennessee bench for the final time, holding up four fingers on each hand to signify the eight titles the Lady Vols have won.

"One is disputable, but two, you can't stumble onto two national championships, so we're pretty good," Parker said.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

Senior transfer All-Americans and Olympians Patricia Roberts and Jill Rankin played for the Lady Vols during their senior year only. Though they didn't or haven't become 1,000-point scorers at UT, their career marks are some of the nation's all-time bests.

MEDIA POLICIES

COVERING PRACTICE

Due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) global health crisis, there will be no in-person practice access this season. Occasionally, UT Media Relations will share practice video and photos with the media.

PLAYER AND COACH INTERVIEWS

We will do our best to make Coach Harper and players available via Zoom during the course of the season, including postgame. Media wishing to interview coaches or players for special features are encouraged to set up interviews in advance with the Media Relations Office.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media outlets interested in obtaining credentials to cover Tennessee women's basketball home games must apply for credentials online via Sports Systems (the same system used for Tennessee football credentialing and several SEC events).

There will be no "full season" credentials issued this year, as attending media will be required to clear a no-contact health screen and temperature check on gameday prior to receiving their credential for that game.

To apply, please visit <http://www.SportsSystems.com/Tennessee>. Once there, applicants must check the box indicating they agree to the SEC's credentialing terms. Applicants may then scroll down to the list of schools and, under Tennessee, select "Women's Basketball."

Please coordinate with colleagues so that all attendees working for the same outlet are included on a single application, submitted by an editor/manager. Please also note that physical distancing requirements have limited our media seating to fewer than 10 seats. As a result, it is unlikely that any outlet will receive multiple credentials for any game. And many outlets that received full-season credentials in previous seasons are unlikely to be approved for every home game this year.

THE SEC MEDIA POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event.

(b) Video may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online site of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

MANDATORY ELECTRONIC PRE-SCREENING

All individuals credentialed for any 2020-21 Tennessee basketball home game will receive an electronic health questionnaire email via Sports Systems within 48 hours of tipoff. This questionnaire must be completed before arriving on campus. In the event the individual credentialed for the contest becomes ill or is a "close contact" to someone who has tested positive for COVID-19, the outlet should contact Kimberly Hood (khood3@utk.edu, 865-974-1211) as soon as possible to arrange for a substitute credentialed representative.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking space will once again be available in the G-10 garage at the east end of the arena. Media must request parking access along with credential needs via SportsSystems and will need to show I.D. to the attendant to proceed. There will be no parking placards this season.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media entrance is once again located just west of the G-10 garage, below the east end arena overhang at loading dock level. Please be advised that everyone must proceed through metal detector, have their I.D. to enter Thompson-Boling Arena and is subject to having their bags checked.

CREDENTIAL PICK-UP/TEMPERATURE CHECK

All credentials must be picked up on game day at the media gate. Credential pickup will begin one hour before tipoff.

Upon entering the arena, a medical representative from UT's College of Nursing will conduct a no-contact temperature check. Once cleared (by registering a temperature of 100.3 or lower), the media member will receive their credential and can then proceed to their assigned seat on press row or credentialed photo/video location. All visitors to Thompson-Boling Arena must wear a protective mask during the duration of their visit.

PRESS ROW

Press row, which has limited seating this year due to a socially-distanced venue configuration, is located in the lower level southeast corner of the arena behind the baseline nearest the G-10 garage. Only accredited media will be allowed in this area, and access will be through the stands and not from court level as has been customary. Credentialed media members will enter through the media gate and take the nearby freight elevator to the concourse to access the stairs to press row.

MEDIA ROOM SERVICES

We apologize, but there will be no access to the media room this season. The floor level is a restricted area, and that room will be off limits. We apologize, but no media meals will be provided.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Services provided include statistics generated from the Genius Sports computer statistics program. Statistics can be accessed via laptop or iPad. Due to the pandemic, there will be no hard copies of stats distributed to media.

To access up-to-date stats during a game, visit UTStats.com for a live feed.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Both home and visiting postgame press conferences will be conducted virtually via Zoom. These press conferences will be password protected. When possible, the visiting team will go first, followed by the home team. Questions may be asked by using the "raise hand" feature in Zoom.

RADIO

Requests to broadcast must be made in writing at the earliest possible date to receive permission. Stations are responsible for contacting Glenn Thackston at IMG/Lady Vol Network in Knoxville for use of the phone lines in Thompson-Boling Arena. Mr. Thackston can be reached during business hours at (865) 212-3570. The radio broadcast location is on the floor level at the secondary scorer's table.

TELEVISION GAMES

Thompson-Boling Arena permits the inside parking of television tractor-trailer units and offers secure parking adjacent to the arena for satellite uplink units. Personnel from Arena Management, including electricians, are available to meet arriving trucks in advance of the game. Please notify the Media Relations Office of your arrival plans for television games.

UTSPORTS.COM

UTSports.com is the official online home for Tennessee Athletics. Here, one can find schedules, results, rosters, player bios and stats. There is unique content including photo galleries of events, behind-the-scenes features, video highlights and features, video interviews with players and coaches, as well as the latest news on every team on campus.

UTSports.com features links to game video being provided by SEC Network+, WatchESPN and other entities. By using the live (Sidemart Stats) stats link, fans can also follow the action online and stay updated on general statistics and trends.

LADY VOL NETWORK

For more than 60 years the Vol Network has served as the main communications link between the University of Tennessee and its fans. IMG College/Vol Network/Lady Vol Network manages the multi-media and marketing rights to University of Tennessee Athletics. IMG is recognized as the world's premier sports, entertainment and media company. With 50 radio affiliates and statewide coverage, the Vol Network boasts one of the largest collegiate basketball networks in the country. The Kellie Harper Television Show, which begins in early January and runs weekly during basketball season is shown on network television stations across the state in all five major Tennessee television markets.

LADY VOL BASKETBALL PROGRAMMING

The Tennessee Lady Vols first found a home on the radio during the 1977-78 season. At that time, a handful of games were aired with John Ward, former play-by-play guru of UT football and men's basketball, handling the microphone.

The flagship station of the University of Tennessee Lady Vol basketball broadcasts is Sports Radio WNML (990 AM and 99.1 FM) in Knoxville, Tenn. This will mark the 44th year of Lady Vol games on the air. The Lady Vol Network, with affiliates across the state, is the largest women's basketball radio network in the country. For more information about joining the Lady Vol Network, contact Glenn Thackston at IMG/Vol Network: (865) 212-3570.

Additionally, Lady Vol basketball games will again find a home on the Internet at www.utsports.com, as fans worldwide will be able to access the broadcasts. For more info, visit the Live Audio/Video section under the Fans tab.

Calling the play-by-play action again this season will be Mickey Dearstone, who is in his 22nd season calling the games full-time. Dearstone took over full-time play-by-play duties from Bob Kesling after the 1998-99 season.

THE KELLIE HARPER SHOW

The Kellie Harper TV Show takes Tennessee fans inside the workings of the winningest program in women's basketball. This entertaining 30-minute television show is hosted by head coach Kellie Harper and the Lady Vol Network's Mickey Dearstone. The show includes game highlights, exclusive behind-the-scenes player and team features as well as a scouting report for the upcoming week in Lady Vol basketball.

The show airs for nine consecutive weeks during basketball season and is shown in Knoxville on WVLT (Saturday, 11:30 a.m.) and WBXX (Sunday, 12:30 p.m.), in Chattanooga on WTVC-TV (Saturday, 12:30 p.m.), in Nashville on WUXP (Saturday, 11:30 a.m.) and in the Tri-Cities on ABC Tri-Cities (Saturday, 12:30 p.m.). All times are local. Stations and times are subject to change. Check local listings for The Kellie Harper TV Show in your area.

Mickey Dearstone is the "Voice of the Lady Vols."

SEC ON THE WEB: For all you need to know about the Southeastern Conference and its member schools, access the SEC Web Page at www.SECsports.com. The site contains team information, scores, conference standings and statistics, awards recipients, history and records, feature stories, television information on conference events, details about tickets to SEC events, SEC merchandise and much, much more.

WEEKLY HONORS: The SEC will name a Player and Freshman of the Week each week throughout the regular season. Each week's selections will be released late Tuesday morning and also will be announced in the league's weekly release. The league women's basketball sports information directors make nominations for the award each week.

SEC HISTORY: The Southeastern Conference was formed Dec. 8-9, 1932, and included 13 schools at the time: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane, and Vanderbilt. The league's first president was Frank L. McVey of Kentucky. Due to the continually increasing amount of work administering the league, the office of Commissioner was established by its member institutions in 1940. Former Mississippi governor Martin Conner was named as the first commissioner, a post he held until 1948. Following Conner were Bernie Moore (1948-66), A.M. Coleman (1966-72), Dr. Boyd McWhorter (1972-86), Dr. Harvey Schiller (1986-90), Roy Kramer (1990-2002), and Mike Slive (2002-2015). Greg Sankey is currently Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference and its 14 member institutions.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. Cross country, golf, swimming, tennis and indoor track were added later. The SEC began recognizing women's championships during the 1979-80 academic year. The conference office officially took over regulation of women's athletics on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and twelve women's sports. Baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming and diving, tennis and track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country) are currently sanctioned for men. The women's sports are basketball, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country) and volleyball.

SEC WOMEN'S HOOPS BY THE NUMBERS

With nine national championships, 12 runner-up finishes, a nation-leading 38 Final Four appearances and 144 first-team All-America honors, the Southeastern Conference stands firmly as the nation's premier intercollegiate women's basketball conference.

The SEC has posted impressive non-conference records in the last decade. The SEC compiled a 131-45 (.744) non-conference record during the 2019-20 season.

Since the 1990 season, the SEC has compiled a 4,352-1,321 (.744) record against other conferences. The league has recorded 150+ wins during 13 seasons and has never recorded a non-conference winning percentage below .703.

SEC teams have earned appearances in 28 of 38 NCAA Final Fours, an accomplishment unmatched by any other league. The next closest are the Big East and ACC with 22 each.

Overall, SEC squads have filled 38 of the 152 Final Four berths, including having two Final Four teams in 1988 (Auburn, Tennessee), 1989 (Auburn, Tennessee), 1995 (Georgia, Tennessee), 1996 (Georgia, Tennessee), 1998 (Arkansas, Tennessee), 2004 (LSU, Tennessee), 2005 (LSU, Tennessee), 2007 (LSU, Tennessee), 2008 (LSU, Tennessee) and 2017 (Mississippi State, South Carolina).

SEC teams have made 21 appearances in a nation-high 18 NCAA Championship games, winning nine NCAA Championships (Tennessee: 1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2007, 2008); South Carolina (2017).

The league also had the distinction of providing both national finalists three times in its history in 1996 (Tennessee 83, Georgia 65); 1989 (Tennessee 76, Auburn 60) and 2017 (South Carolina 67, Mississippi State 55).

SEC teams have won 431 NCAA Tournament games against 229 losses (.653) for an average of 11.3 NCAA wins per year. In addition, all 14 current members have made appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

The SEC has led the pack or shared the lead in NCAA tournament bids 25 times in its 38-year history.

The Southeastern Conference had nine teams earn bids to the 2016 NCAA Division I Women’s Basketball Championship. This was the most SEC teams to receive bids to the NCAA tournament in conference history and the second time in NCAA history that one conference has sent nine teams to the tournament. The Big East did so in 2011.

Until 2004, the SEC was the only conference to ever have eight teams receive NCAA bids. The league achieved that feat five times, in 1999, 2002, 2012, 2014 and 2017.

The SEC was also the first league to ever have seven teams invited to the NCAA Tournament and earned this honor a leading 12 times (1986, 1991, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2003, 2004, 2009, 2013, 2014, 2018, 2019).

The SEC is one of a handful of leagues to have won three national tournament titles with nine NCAA, two WNIT and four NWIT. Along with the nine NCAA championships; Arkansas (1999) and Auburn (2003) captured Women’s NIT titles. But the first-ever SEC national title belongs to Georgia, winners of the 1981 NWIT which predates the current WNIT tournament. Vanderbilt (1984), LSU (1985) and Kentucky (1990) also won NWIT titles. As members of their previous conferences Arkansas (1987), South Carolina (1979) and Texas A&M (1995) won the WNIT, while Texas A&M (2011) won the NCAA title prior to joining the SEC.

The SEC has had 70 student-athletes named as first-team All-America selections. Those 70 have been named a total of 119 times since the 1982-83 season (first year of SEC sponsorship).

The Southeastern Conference had 22 former student-athletes make 2020 WNBA opening day rosters. In this year’s WNBA draft, a total of three SEC women’s basketball players were taken. Since the inaugural WNBA draft in 1997, the SEC has had 163 former players drafted for the professional league, including six No. 1 picks.

SEC schools have produced 42 Olympians since 1976, with 38 coming since the SEC began sponsoring women’s basketball. Seimone Augustus, LSU; Tamika Catchings, Tennessee; Sylvia Fowles, LSU; and Candace Parker, Tennessee were part of the USA’s gold-medal effort in London in 2012 while Augustus, Fowles and Catchings repeated the feat in Rio de Janeiro in 2016. They helped the Red, White and Blue win gold for the sixth-consecutive Olympiad.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The media credentialing system for the 2021 SEC Tournament will be available online from early January until late February. Go to www.SECsportsmedia.com for the online credentialing system.

For further information concerning media coverage of the 2021 SEC Tournament, please contact the SEC Communications Department.

TOURNAMENT INFORMATION

On Feb. 7, 1980, the first SEC women’s basketball tournament began play. It ended four days later with Tennessee defeating Ole Miss for the title. Fast forward 38 years later and the SEC Tournament is still enjoying success and increased popularity.

Beginning with its inception and through 1986, the tournament was held at campus sites. The tournament was then sent to Albany, Ga., which served as the site for six years from 1987-92. The tournament then moved to Chattanooga, Tenn., where it was held from 1993-2000, with the exception of 1998 when the tournament moved to Columbus, Ga.

Since 2001 the tournament has enjoyed many new sites, including Memphis (2001), Nashville (2002, 2004, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2018), Little Rock, Ark. (2003, 2006, 2009, 2015), Greenville, S.C. (2005, 2017, 2019, 2020, 2021), Duluth, Ga. (2007, 2010, 2013, 2014) and Jacksonville, Fla. (2016).

The winner of the 13-game tournament will receive the league’s automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The tournament seeds and conference champion will be determined by the 16-game regular-season SEC schedule.

TICKET INFORMATION

Tickets for the 2021 Southeastern Conference Women’s Basketball Tournament will go on sale at a later date. The 2021 tourney will be held at Bon Secours Wellness Arena in Greenville, S.C., on March 3-7.

This is the fifth trip to Greenville, S.C., for the SEC Women’s Basketball Tournament. The city previously hosted the event in 2005, 2017, 2019 and 2020.

All fans, regardless of age, must have a ticket to enter Bon Secours Wellness Arena for the SEC Tournament.
