BLUE RAIDER NETWORK

Blue Raider basketball is on the air! The 2015-16 basketball season marks the ninth year of the Blue Raider Network under the umbrella of a joint venture between Middle Tennessee athletics and LearfieldSports Marketing.

The Blue Raider Network, which actually debuted in the early 1960s, is blessed with two flagship stations for football and men's basketball, including ESPN Nashville 102.5 The Game in Nashville and 97.5 FM in Murfreesboro, NewsRadio WGNS AM-FM (1450/100.5/101.9), and Middle Tennessee Public Radio WMOT-FM (89.5).

The combination of these three stations provides coverage to Middle Tennessee sports fans in a 100-mile radius of Murfreesboro.

WGNS and 102.5 The Game will carry all Blue Raider football and men's basketball games along with the Rick Stockstill and Kermit Davis radio shows.

WGNS, which made its return to carrying Blue Raider athletics in 2005, blankets the local area by reaching to McMinnville to the east, Columbia to the west and Gallatin to the north.

Campus station WMOT 89.5 FM will also broadcast football and men's and women's basketball games for Middle Tennessee in 2015-16. WMOT, a 100,000-watt station, reaches beyond Bowling Green, Ky., to the north, Cookeville, Tenn., to the east, and Huntsville, Ala. to the south.

All Blue Raider football, men's and women's basketball and baseball broadcasts can also be heard on the Internet at GoBlueRaiders.com and on the all-new Blue Raider Gameday App.

THE NETWORK

WMOT FM 89.5 (Murfreesboro)
WGNS AM 1450 (Murfreesboro)
WGNS FM 100.5 (Murfreesboro)
WGNS FM 101.9 (Murfreesboro)
WPRT FM 102.5 (Nashville)
WPRT FM 97.5 (Murfreesboro)
WMSR AM 1320 (Manchester)
WATX AM 1600 (Cookeville)
WATX FM 101.9 (Cookeville)

KERMIT DAVIS RADIO SHOW

The Blue Raider Network carries Kermit Davis LIVE on WMOT, WNSR, and WGNS AM-FM each Monday night from 7-8 p.m. The show originates from Sam's All-American Sports Grill in Murfreesboro during the season and is open to the public.

COVERING MT

Credentials

Arrangements for media credentials for the 2015-16 basketball season should be directed to the Athletic Communications office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in an email to Alex Mitchell (mitchell@goblueraiders.com). Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Middle Tennessee basketball on a regular basis. Student publications will be limited to one working credential and one photo pass, if needed. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space-available basis.

Email Service

Basketball releases can be obtained electronically by contacting Alex Mitchell. The release will be sent as an HTML file. This is a media service ONLY.

Practice Coverage

Practices are open to the media with few exceptions. Media wishing to attend practice are encouraged to contact Alex Mitchell in advance. Team meetings before, during and after practice are private. Check with the Athletic Communications office for practice times.

Media Parking

Parking space can be reserved with a request received by Middle Tennessee's Athletics Communications office at least one working day prior to the game. Media parking is located in the Greenland Drive parking lot. Satellite trucks will park on the north side of the Floyd Stadium pressbox and will enter off Middle Tennessee Boulevard just before the Faulkinberry Road entrance.

Postgame Interviews

After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Kermit Davis will be made available to members of the media. The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, interviews will be conducted in the media room. On the road, requested players and Coach Davis will be brought to a designated area outside the locker room or to the visiting media room.

Postgame Services

Complete individual and team statistics, play-by-play and postgame quotes will be available to the media following each game. One hour prior to tipoff, media packets containing game programs, flipcards, updated stats and game notes will be distributed in the media working area. A fax service is also available upon request. A pregame meal is served in the media area 90 minutes before tipoff.

Telephones

There are a limited number of telephones available along press row. They are for first-come, first-serve use only. It is suggested that media members wishing to have a private line contact Steve Prichard, director of telecommunications, at 615-898-2991. For specific line location, please list Alex Mitchell as the contact from the athletic department. Telephone lines for visiting radio networks have been installed by Middle Tennessee. Reciprocating trade agreements for these lines can be made by contacting Alex Mitchell at 615-904-8115.

Radio Coverage

Radio broadcast permission must be obtained in advance, along with press row reservations. Middle Tennessee maintains a courtesy line for use by schools who can provide reciprocal arrangements for the Blue Raider Network. A radio station wishing to obtain an ISDN line must contact Steve Prichard, director of telecommunications, at 615-898-2991.

Media Will-Call

For members of the media wishing to pick their credential up at media will call, it is located at the base of the ramp at the NE corner inside Murphy Center.

Coach and Student-Athlete Interviews

All interviews with head coach Kermit Davis and student-athletes should be directed through the Middle Tennessee Athletic Communications office. Contact Alex Mitchell at mitchell@goblueraiders.com or 615-904-8115.

Internet Guidelines

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgement of Middle Tennessee's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and an outlet's agreement to abide by any restrictions Middle Tennessee may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by MT may result in revocation of press credentials.

Middle Tennessee reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real-time play-by-play, game-related statistics, and information through the Internet. ("real time" is defined as any online media providing live, continual play-by-play coverage, in-game statistics, digital photographs, or audio or video of an event.)

Internet Access

Press row in Murphy Center is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Media wishing to utilize the wireless Internet simply need to click on the Internet and use the Guest option located at the bottom of the screen. Ethernet lines are also available in the Athletic Communications office.

Website

All of Middle Tennessee's news releases and statistics, as well as other information pertaining to the Athletic Department, can be accessed at GoBlueRaiders.com. For more in-depth updates during the game, follow @MTAthletics and @MT_MBB on Twitter.

COACHES & STAFF BIOS

Kermit
DAVIS

HEAD COACH
14TH SEASON
MISSISSIPPI STATE, 1982

Kermit Davis enters his 14th season at the helm of the Middle Tennessee program in 2015-16 and is fresh off another great stint with the Blue Raiders after they came one game away from a berth in the NCAA Tournament in only their second season in C-USA.

Last year, Davis led MTSU to another winning season that included a stellar 12-4 record at home. The Blue Raiders won four straight games in early March to reach the C-USA Championship Game and earn an invite into the Collegelinsider.com Tournament (CIT).

In the inaugural year in C-USA, MT shared the regular season title by garnering a 13-3 record in conference play and finishing the 2013-14 season with a 24-9 overall record. Davis led the Blue Raiders to three-straight regular season conference titles and four in the last six years (2014, 2013, 2012 and 2010).

MT claimed its second-straight Sun Belt Conference regular season crown, after posting program-best records with a 28-6 overall mark and a 19-1 mark in conference play during the 2012-13 campaign. Davis then picked up back-to-back Sun Belt Coach of the Year honors, marking the third time he has received the award (2013, 2012 and 2003). Under his guidance, the Blue Raiders have won the Sun Belt regular season title three times in the past four seasons.

Under the Leakesville, Miss., native's leadership, MT reached the NCAA Tournament in 2013 for the first time since 1989 and seventh time in program history, when the team took on Saint Mary's in a First Four matchup.

After such a successful 2012-13 season, Davis was listed as one of the finalists for the Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year Award, which is given annually to the nation's top mid-major coach. He is the all-time winningest coach in program and Sun Belt history, amassing 208 victories.

The 2011-12 season proved to be one of the most historic in program history. On Dec. 29, 2011, Davis became the program's all-time winningest coach, surpassing Jimmy Earle's mark of 164, as he earned his 165th victory at the helm of the Blue Raiders with a 71-66 triumph over FIU. MT went on to set school records for wins (27), conference wins (14) and road wins (11). The Blue Raiders made their first appearance in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) since 1988 and advanced to the quarterfinals, beating in-state foe Tennessee for the first time since 1988. MT finished the season as the fourth-best shooting team in the country at 49.5 percent with the top performance coming at UCLA, when the Blue Raiders hit a school-record 71.4 percent of their shots, including a 10-for-11 performance from beyond the arc en route to the 86-66 win.

The Blue Raiders raked in accolades following the 27-7 season, as Davis was named the Sun Belt Coach of the Year for the second time in his tenure. Senior LaRon Dendy claimed the league's Player of the Year award and earned First Team honors, while juniors Marcos Knight and JT Sulton were also named to All-Conference teams. The trio of selections marked the most since MT joined the Sun Belt for the 2000-01 season.

The 2011-12 season also saw a jump in attendance at Murphy Center, as the Blue Raiders averaged more than 5,000 fans at home games. The increase proved to be the sixth-largest in college basketball at season's end.

During the 2010-11 campaign, Davis earned his 150th win as the head coach of Middle Tennessee, defeating rival WKU on Feb. 10. He became just the second coach in program history to reach the milestone, joining Coach Jimmy Earle. He also has more than 250 career victories, reaching that milestone on Jan. 29, 2009 with a win over Louisiana. He owns 322 wins in 17 seasons at the Division I level and 66 in three years in junior college for a total of 388 victories.

The veteran coach was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year in 2003, as voted on by league coaches. He was named the Sun Belt's Coach of the Year by College Insiders in 2008 after leading the Blue Raiders into the Sun Belt Championship game and again in 2010 after winning the Sun Belt East Division title. Davis also ranks among the winningest coaches in Sun Belt history.

In addition to creating a winning environment at Middle Tennessee, Davis's success has translated to the student-athletes who have played for him as well, both on the court and in the classroom. Desmond "Boogie" Yates became the school's all-time scoring leader during the 2009-10 season, while Kevin Kanaskie took the assist leader title in 2008-09. Off the court, the Blue Raiders enjoyed a 2.92 team GPA during the spring semester of 2010 - the highest for a Middle Tennessee men's basketball team in 20 years.

The Blue Raiders have been a model of consistency during Davis' tenure. Middle Tennessee has racked up an average of 19.3 wins per season, the third-best total for any Blue Raider coach. Middle Tennessee's 100 wins during a six-year span (2002-2008) were the most of any Blue Raider coach since 1988-93. He ranks third all-time at MT in winning percentage, boasting a .603 in his 416 games, the most of any coach in Blue Raider history.

Before leaving the Sun Belt Conference, Davis became the league's all-time winningest coach with MT's 66-61 victory at UALR on Feb. 16, 2013 with his 113th league win. Davis surpassed South Alabama's Ronnie Arrow, who had 112 conference wins. Davis left the Sun Belt with 117 wins in league play.

Another sign of consistency under Davis has been the growth in attendance. Middle Tennessee has realized an attendance increase in eight of Davis' 14 seasons, and three have generated the highest home attendance average in the last 17 seasons.

A Murphy Center attendance record of 11,807 was set on February 26, 2004 when fans flocked to the "Glass House" to cheer Middle Tennessee to a 73-59 win against three-time defending Sun Belt champion Western Kentucky and when 18,071 attended the Blue Raiders' game against Memphis at the Sommet Center in Nashville, Tenn., it marked the largest crowd ever for a regular-season men's basketball game at that venue. Middle Tennessee also drew 11,802 for its home game against Tennessee November 2009.

In his first season as the Blue Raiders' head coach, Davis inherited a group of players who had never enjoyed success as members of the Sun Belt. The 2002-03 Blue Raiders were picked fourth (of five) teams in the Sun Belt's East Division, and eighth of 11 teams overall, but heading into the final week of the regular season Middle Tennessee remained in the championship hunt. For his efforts, Davis was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, marking the third time in five years as a Division I head coach he had been so honored.

While Davis' first team surprised many by reaching the finals of the Sun Belt tournament and putting together the most wins for a Blue Raider squad (16) since the 1997-98 campaign, his second Blue Raider team had to be even more surprising.

Middle Tennessee entered the 2003-04 season with only one returning starter and four letter winners from Davis' initial Blue Raider team, but the proven winner molded his squad into a championship contender by mid-season. The Blue Raiders increased their number of wins and had fans coming through the turnstiles in record numbers with an exciting style of play.

Middle Tennessee went a step beyond in 2004-05 when the Blue Raiders posted a 19-win season in Davis' third year, marking the first time since 1997-98 that the team had won as many games.

Like all successful coaches, Davis has been victorious by recruiting players who fit the personality of the team and take ownership of their squad. The 2004 squad was as high as the No. 11 signing class and the 2011-12 class ranked as high as No. 19 by Hoop Scoop.

Prior to being named the head coach at Middle Tennessee, Davis spent five seasons as the associate head coach at LSU under former head coach John Brady. Prior to Davis' arrival with Brady at LSU, the Tigers had been languishing near the bottom of the SEC.

It didn't take long for the team's fortunes to change. After two seasons of putting the pieces together, the Tigers captured the SEC title in 2000 and went on to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. The Tigers returned to the postseason in 2002 with a trip to the National Invitational Tournament. In the three years immediately preceding Davis' arrival in Murfreesboro, LSU averaged 20-plus wins per season.

Before LSU, Davis spent one season as the head coach at the University of Idaho; however, his stint with the Vandals was his second tour of duty in Moscow. He also served as the school's head coach from 1989-90. During his three years as the head coach at Idaho, Davis compiled a 63-29 record, the best three-year total in the program's history. Davis posted two of the best single-season tallies in school history during his first two seasons at Idaho as well, turning in 25-6 marks in both of those seasons (1988-89, 1989-90).

His Idaho squad won the Big Sky championship in 1989 and went on to capture the league's tournament crown and a berth into the NCAA Tournament, as well. For his efforts, Davis was named Big Sky Coach of the Year. History repeated itself in 1990 when Davis once again led the Vandals to the Big Sky title in both the regular season and tournament, garnering yet another NCAA Tournament berth.

In fact, Davis himself made history when he became the Vandals' head coach in 1988. Upon his hiring, Davis was the youngest Division I head coach in the nation at age 28. It was not the first time Davis had been the youngest head coach in the country. When he was hired as the head coach at Southwest Mississippi Junior College in 1984, he became the youngest junior college coach in the nation at age 24. His youth served him well at Southwest Mississippi, as he put together a 39-20 record in two seasons. His 1986 squad won 22 games, posting the school's first 20-win season in 17 years.

After spending two seasons as the head coach at Idaho, Davis went on to become the head coach at Texas A&M for the 1990-91 campaign. From Texas A&M, Davis moved on to serve as associate head coach at Chipola Junior College for two seasons before ascending to the top spot for the 1993-94 campaign. During his season as the team's head coach, Chipola finished the season ranked No. 4 in the national polls and posted a 27-5 record, giving the team the second-most wins in school history.

From Chipola, Davis moved on to serve as associate head coach at Utah State from 1995-96. At Utah State, Davis coached under current Southern Mississippi coach Larry Eustachy, and the pair combined to win the Big West championship in 1995. His Utah State tenure ended with his return to Idaho as the Vandals' head coach and the rest is history.

Davis' rapid ascent up the coaching ladder is no coincidence since he grew up watching how one of the preeminent coaches in the country operated on a daily basis. Kermit Davis, Sr., was one of the most respected college coaches in the nation, and the younger Davis spent many hours around his dad in the gym and even on the bench during games.

After completing his playing career at Mississippi State, Davis began his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant on Bob Boyd's staff from 1983-84. Davis earned his bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 1982 and then obtained his master's degree there in 1984. He and his wife, Betty, have two daughters, Ally and Claire.

In 13 seasons at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders registered four straight winning seasons under Davis to start his Blue Raider coaching career, making him one of only two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start a Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is first on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 251.

Win
CASE

ASSISTANT COACH
EIGHTH SEASON
UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE & ARTS OF OKLAHOMA, 1986

Win Case begins his eighth season with the Blue Raiders in 2015-16 and has brought a wealth of experience with him as an assistant coach on Kermit Davis' men's basketball staff.

Case handles recruiting duties for three states and assists with perimeter development and advanced scouting. In addition to his coaching duties, Case is also in charge of com-community outreach, academics and oversees the walk-on program. "got a call from Bill Self and he just raved about coach Davis," Case said. "(Self) told me coach Davis was one of the best and he told me I needed to look hard at the position. At that time the position had not been offered, but what coach Self said certainly appealed in terms of having an opportunity to work with a coach who has that type of reputation. Coach Davis has a reputation around the country that is second to none."

Case began his coaching career as an assistant at Oklahoma Baptist in 1987. He spent two seasons as an assistant at Eastern Oklahoma before joining the staff at Oklahoma City University. He earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma in 1986.

Case has three children – Jeremy, Tiffany and Pierce. He is married to the former Ronda Crowe.

community outreach, academics and oversees the walk-on program.

Head Coach Kermit Davis feels that Case has made a big impact on the staff. "Win has exhibited great energy with a fantastic upbeat personality that has been very good in our recruiting, as well as working with our current players."

Case has been highly successful at each of his previous collegiate stops and has a proven track record as both an assistant and head coach, having been part of national championship teams in each capacity. His career won-lost record is a gaudy 436-191.

The highly successful coach was most recently head men's basketball coach at Redlands College for one season, following a two-year stint at Eastern Oklahoma State College, where he served as head men's basketball coach and athletics director. Case was head coach at Oklahoma City University for 13 years, posting a 343-127 record and winning the NAIA National Championship in 1994 and again in 1996. Before being head coach at Oklahoma City, Case served as an assistant there for two years and was part of two NAIA national championships (1991, 1992). The 1992 squad was 38-0.

Case played two seasons at Seminole Junior College and led the team to a runner-up finish in the NJCAA national championship game. Following two years of junior college, Case played two years at Oklahoma State, where he averaged 10.7 points as a senior. Case and current Kansas head coach Bill Self were teammates at Oklahoma State, and his son, Jeremy, was a member of Kansas' national championship team in 2008 and is currently an assistant coach at Southeast Missouri State.

Case said a phone call from Self stimulated his interest in the vacant position on Davis' staff.

"When I was trying to decide if I was going to pursue this position I

Greg

ASSISTANT COACH
FIFTH SEASON
SOUTHWEST TEXAS STATE, 1979

Greg Gensing enters his fifth season in 2015-16 as a member of the Blue Raider coaching staff.

Gensing's responsibilities include in-state recruiting, advanced scouting and post player development. He also assists with the team's academics and compliance and MT's summer camp program.

Gensing spent six seasons as an assistant coach at UNLV prior to coming to Middle Tennessee. Gensing joined the Runnin' Rebels after spending 11 seasons on the Creighton University men's basketball coaching staff, including the 2004-05 season as the associate head coach.

During his time at Creighton, Gensing worked for former head coach Dana Altman, which was a partnership that dated back to 1986-87, when they started three seasons of work as assistant coaches under UNLV head coach Lon Kruger at Kansas State.

When Kruger left KSU, Gensing remained in Manhattan, Kan., as a member of Altman's staff and was with him for 15 years at KSU and Creighton.

Gensing has coached in a total of 14 NCAA Tournaments, six while at Creighton and three with the Runnin' Rebels. As the recruiting coordinator at Creighton, he brought in talented basketball players as well as talented students. The Bluejays played in the postseason in each of his last eight years there (six NCAA Tournaments) and had an Academic All-District selection in seven of those eight seasons. Two of his more notable recruits to Creighton are current NBA player Kyle Korver (currently with the Atlanta Hawks) and former NBA player Rodney Buford.

The native of Council Grove, Kan., graduated from Southwest Texas State University in 1979 with a bachelor's degree in journalism and began his coaching career with a two-year stint as a graduate assistant at his alma mater. In 1981, after receiving his master's degree in physical education from Southwest Texas State, Gensing spent one season as an assistant at Laredo (Texas) Junior College, then two years as an assistant at Idaho State University from 1982-84.

Following the 1983-84 season, Gensing joined Kruger's staff at Pan American University in Edinburg, Texas. After serving two years at Pan American, Kruger was named head coach at Kansas State and hired Gensing as an assistant for the Wildcats.

Gensing started his collegiate playing career as a guard at Independence (Kan.) Community College, helping the Pirates to a 62-6 record and the 1977 national title as the team's sixth man.

Following the 1977 season, Gensing transferred to Southwest Texas State and led the Bobcats to a 49-13 record in two seasons, including a third-place finish in the 1979 NAIA National Tournament.

Gensing is married to the former Michelle Taylor and the couple has two daughters, Aubrey and Gentry, and one son, Tryce. Gensing also has a stepson, Justin Nielson.

Ronnie
HAMILTON

SECOND SEASON
DUKE, 2002

Ronnie Hamilton enters his second season as an assistant coach with the Blue Raiders in 2015-16.

Hamilton handles recruiting for three states and assists in perimeter development and advanced scouting. He also contributes to the team's academic progress and is responsible for the team's mail-outs and innovative ideas.

Hamilton, a native of Oxford, N.C., came to Murfreesboro well acquainted with Conference USA after stints at Houston and Tulane. He joined the Blue Raider coaching staff after a two-year stop at Houston.

During the 2012-13 season, Hamilton helped the Cougars post a 20-13 record and a 7-9 mark in C-USA play before making the move to the American Athletic Conference this past season.

In his first season with Houston, Hamilton worked closely with guard Joseph Young, who was named to the All-Conference USA Third Team and was selected to the USBWA All-District VII squad. During the 2012-13 campaign, Hamilton also worked closely with Danuel House, who went on to garner C-USA Freshman of Year honors, marking a program first for Houston in C-USA.

Prior to his two years at Houston, Hamilton spent a pair of years on the Tulane coaching staff. With the Green Wave, he played a large role in recruiting 2012 All-Conference USA First Team honoree and C-USA Freshman of the Year Ricky Tarrant. Hamilton was also heavily involved in recruiting Josh Davis, who was a First Team All-C-USA player during the 2012-13 season.

The Oxford, N.C., native spent two years as an assistant at The Citadel, where he was instrumental in the development and recruitment of All-Southern Conference selection and mid-major All-Americans Demetrius Nelson, John Brown, Michael Groselle and Cameron Wells. While on the Bulldog coaching staff, Hamilton helped lead The Citadel to 36 wins, including a school-record tying 20 wins during the 2008-09 campaign.

Hamilton made his way to Charleston, S.C., after a three-year stint at Division II member Tarleton State from 2005-08. The Texans posted a 70-23 record, picking up wins against Baylor and TCU during his tenure in Stephenville, Texas. In 2005-06, Tarleton State made the program's second-straight Elite Eight appearance and posted a 27-7 overall record.

In 2005, Hamilton graduated with his master's in physical education with a concentration in sports administration from UNC Pembroke, where he served as a graduate assistant coach for the Braves from 2003-05. As a GA at Pembroke, he was responsible for planning practices, leading on-floor coaching, heading up the strength and condition program and handling film exchange, while also serving at the recruiting coordinator.

He received his bachelor's degree in political science and history from Duke in 2002. Hamilton was a four-year letterman for the Blue Devil football team as a defensive back.

Hamilton is married to the former Christabell Mariner and they have a 15 month-old daughter named Annalisa Nola Afakasi.

Jarrod
LAZARUS

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
FOURTH SEASON
FLORIDA STATE, 2009

Jarrod Lazarus begins his fourth season in 2015-16 with the Middle Tennessee men's basketball program and third as Director of Operations.

Lazarus is in charge of all of the team's travel plans, scheduling practice times and video equipment. He also handles the ordering of the team's equipment, oversees the team's managers and lines up the team's future scheduling.

Lazarus worked as the director and an assistant coach under the legendary Marcos "Shakey" Rodriguez for Gold Coast Basketball from 2004-12. During his time with Gold Coast, a member of the Amateur Athletic Union, Lazarus was involved in player development and training, budgeting, marketing, arranging travel accommodations and game planning. The team made back-to-back Sweet 16 runs at AAU Nationals, including an Elite Eight appearance in 2008. He also served as an academic advisor and was the youngest member to win the AAU Leadership Award in 2010.

Lazarus attended Florida State University, where he served as a student manager for the men's basketball team for four years. The Weston, Fla., native was responsible for assisting at practices, breaking down opponents, keeping stats during games and helping with camps. During his senior season, the Seminoles qualified for the NCAA tournament and finished as one of the nation's top 25 teams.

Throughout his career, Lazarus has helped place 45 athletes into Division I, II and JuCo programs.

Lazarus graduated from Florida State in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in business management and will earn a Masters of Business Administration at Middle Tennessee in spring of 2016.

Lazarus also married Joy Christal Heriveaux in July 2015.

In 2014 he primarily worked with men's basketball, while also assisting with football.

Willis is a Tennessee native as he grew up in Columbia, Tennessee.

2014-15 REVIEW

SEASON AT A GLANCE

- At 19-17, the Blue Raiders qualified for their third postseason tournament in four years. MT was invited to play in the CollegenInsider.com Tournament (CIT) where they hosted Kent State on March 18. The Blue Raiders lost the game, 68-56, but it was the program's 15th postseason game.
- The No. 6-seed Blue Raiders made an amazing run in the Conference USA Tournament. MT notched wins over Charlotte (63-60), Old Dominion (59-52) and UTEP (53-50) before finally falling in the Championship Game to UAB (73-60).
- Perrin Buford and DJ Jones truly emerged in the postseason and both collected C-USA All-Tournament Team Honors. In the C-USA Championship, Buford led the team in the tournament with 13.8 points per game while adding six blocks and three steals. Jones stepped it up to record 10.8 points per game during the championship run with nine 3-point field goals and five steals.
- Kermit Davis earned his 250th career win at Middle Tennessee against Old Dominion in the C-USA Quarterfinals. He is the only coach in program history to earn 200+ wins.
- Giddy Potts earned C-USAAI-Freshman Team accolades after averaging 6.6 points and 2.7 rebounds, a year removed from starring at Athens HS in Ala.
- MT's 67 bench points at UAB tied for the highest scoring bench output in the nation. Also, the Blue Raider bench was the only team in the country that scored more than 40 percent of the team's points.
- Eleven different players led the team in scoring over the course of the season, and 12 players saw action during the season.
- MT made history at FAU (3/7/15) when they went a perfect 18-of-18 from the free throw line. It marked only the second time the program recorded a flawless night at the line.
- Giddy Potts' eight three-pointers against Marshall was the most by an MT freshman in school history and the most by a C-USA player on the year.

NOTABLES -

GOING TO POST

Middle Tennessee went to its third postseason tournament in four years. It was the Blue Raiders' second-ever appearance in the CIT as they fell to tournament champion Missouri State in 2010, 87-79. The teams that have won the CIT have found great success in building their program following their tournament run with Murray State winning the 2014 CIT and being on the NCAA Tournament bubble only one year later. Other past CIT Champions include Old Dominion (2009), Missouri State (2010), Santa Clara (2011), Mercer (2012) and East Carolina (2013). Old Dominion was ranked in the top-25 in the country throughout the season this year, while Mercer beat Duke in the 2014 NCAA Tournament.

BUFORD AND JONES IN POSTSEASON

Perrin Buford and DJ Jones truly emerged in the postseason and both collected C-USA All-Tournament Team Honors. In the C-USA Championship, Buford led the team in the tournament with 13.8 points per game while adding six blocks and three steals. Jones stepped it up to record 10.8 points per game during the championship run with nine 3-point field goals and five steals.

GIDDY UP

Against Marshall Giddy was on fire and tallied a career-high 28 points with eight three-point baskets. His eight treys were the most by any player in Conference USA all season. Potts tied the school record for second-most three-pointers in a game with eight. Potts' total was the highest freshman scoring output since Kery Hammonds II tallied 28 his freshman year in 2011. Potts' 28 points is tied for the 23rd-most in a single game in MT program history. He is the youngest player in MT history to drain that many three-point baskets in a game. In non-conference action Giddy averaged 3.1 points per game but had more than double that in conference action with 9.2 points per game against C-USA teams. He followed that outing with a 22 point showing vs WKU and picked up C-USA Freshman of the Week, College Sports Madness C-USA Player of the Week and TSWA Player of the Week.

BENCH MOB

The Middle Tennessee bench averaged 27.4 points per game last season. The bench recorded 38 points on three occasions last season; Cincinnati, Akron and Chattanooga and a season high 39 points against one of the top defensive teams in the country, Old Dominion. The Blue Raider bench marked a season-high in scoring at UAB when it recorded 67 points led by Buford and Jones. The 67 points was tied for the most points scored in a game by a bench last season; tied with Duquesne that reached the mark vs Abilene Christian. MT's bench scored 43 percent of the team's total points (959/2,229); the only team in the country to have its bench with more than 40 percent of the team's points. The MT bench outscored its opponents bench's by +11.7 had a +4.3 rebounding margin. The MT failed to score double figures once last season and it was at FAU when the bench only recorded four points.

SHUFFLING LINEUPS

With the abundance of young players on last year's team, Coach Davis tried to find the right starting five that gave him the best chance to win. MT put out 20 different starting lineups through the 36 contests, while 12 different Blue Raiders notched at least one start.

SPREAD THE LOVE

MT had 11 players averaging 3+ points per game with seven players averaging 6+ points per game. Last season, 11 different players were the game-high scorer in the Blue Raiders' 36 games with 12 Middle Tennessee players seeing decent action.

ROOKIES RAMP UP SCORING

The Blue Raider freshmen were major contributors to Middle Tennessee's scoring whether they were starting or coming off the bench. MT's freshmen had 510 points last season with 252 of those points coming from three-point buckets; accounting for 35.9 percent of the Blue Raiders' three-point field goals. A freshman started for the Blue Raiders in every game except one last season with the four rookies picking up a combined 47 starts.

DAVIS WINS

Head Coach Kermit Davis collected his 250th career win at Middle Tennessee in the C-USA quarterfinal vs ODU. He is the only coach in program history to earn 200+ wins. Davis has a winning percentage of 61 percent with the Blue Raiders in 414 games. In a 13 year span Davis is 146-46 at home.

DAVIS: BEST COACH FOR THE MONEY

Coach Davis was named to Forbes list of Best College Basketball Coaches for the Money. Davis was No. 4 on the list, only behind San Diego State's Steve Fisher, Syracuse's Jim Boheim and Gonzaga's Mark Few.

DAVIS IN MARCH

It is all about March Madness with the close of the regular season and post season tournaments. Head Coach Kermit Davis has a winning record at MT in the month of March with a 24-20 record.

C-USA CHAMPIONS

Middle Tennessee has earned at least a share of the conference regular season title four of the last six years. Two seasons ago, the Blue Raiders were in their first season with Conference USA and procured a 13-3 record in conference play to grab a share of the regular season title.

STRONG DEFENSE MAKES 60 THE MAGIC NUMBER

The Blue Raiders were 17-6 last season when scoring 60 or more points and they held their opponents to 62.4 points per game last season. Middle Tennessee's defense forced its opponents into 472 turnovers. The Blue Raiders ranked second in C-USA only behind Old Dominion who averaged 56.6 points allowed per game. MT was 66th nationally in scoring defense.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

The Blue Raiders have been dominant at home as they went 12-4 last season and hold a record of 56-8 at the Murphy Center in the last four seasons. The Blue Raiders have won double digit games at home each of the past eight years and 11 of the last 13 seasons under Head Coach Kermit Davis. Middle Tennessee went 16-0 in home games during its 2012-13 campaign, including a win at Bridgestone Arena.

TOUGH OPPONENTS

The Blue Raiders faced some tough opponents last season. MT had a challenging road schedule with contests against Auburn, Oklahoma State, Belmont and Akron in non-conference action. MT closed 2014 with a road contest vs. the SEC's Auburn on December 29 for the team's final preparation before conference play began. This marked the first year of a three-year series with the Tigers with the second game taking place at Bridgestone Arena in Nashville, Tennessee and the third played at the Birmingham Civic Center. The Blue Raiders have seen three teams that were 2014 NCAA Tournament teams in Creighton and Cincinnati at the Emerald Coast Classic and Oklahoma State on Dec. 16. Old Dominion cracked the top-25 in the AP Top-25 Poll earlier in the season but fell out after WKU defeated and the Blue Raiders beat them. Murray State was ranked in the top-25 in both national polls as they went to the OVC Championship final but fell to Belmont as the Bruins earned the automatic bid. The Blue Raiders rank 181 in RPI; the sixth-best RPI in C-USA. Conference USA has six teams in the top-200 in RPI. Old Dominion, UTEP and LA Tech are ranked in the in the top-75. Three teams that MT played this year made it to the big dance with Cincinnati, Oklahoma State and Belmont.

ROZIER'S YEAR

Middle Tennessee's senior forward Jacquez Rozier (Waynesboro, Ga.) was nominated for the 2015 Allstate Good Works Team®, announced the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). Rozier, the lone four-year senior on the Blue Raider squad, logged nearly 50 hours of community service since his arrival on Middle Tennessee's campus. Throughout his time with MT, Rozier has actively shared his upbeat and contagious personality with the surrounding community. Jac put in countless volunteer hours helping children by teaming up with a program called Special Kids. This prestigious community service award recognizes a distinguished group of student-athletes who have demonstrated a commitment to enriching the lives of others and contributing to the greater good in their communities.

SIGN THE DOTTED LINE

The Blue Raiders added Karl Gamble and Justin Coleman to the 2015-16 squad as Gamble hails from South Carolina and Coleman transfers in after two seasons at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College. Gamble comes in as the top-recruited forward out of South Carolina after leading his A.C. Flora High School team to the Class AAA South Carolina High School Sports League state championship last season. Gamble averaged a double-double last season as a 6-foot-9, 200 pound forward. Coleman transfers to Middle Tennessee from Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College (MGCCC) where he is currently a sophomore. The Nashville native began his high school career at Beech High School in Hendersonville before he played his 2012-13 senior season at Blackman High School under Coach Barry Wortman. His freshman year at MGCCC he averaged approximately 20 minutes per game along with six points and six rebounds per contest.

MURPHY CENTER REMODELED

The Murphy Center has undergone $12-million worth of renovations. The significant renovations include new arena lighting, a new roof, a new HVAC system, updated bathrooms and updated concessions

Fresh from winning its first-ever Ohio Valley Conference title for both the regular season and the league's postseason tournament, Middle Tennessee's Blue Raiders suffered a severe case of "first-appearance jitters" against Oregon State.

The Blue Raiders hit only 33 percent from the field and 17 percent at the foul line in the first half and found themselves trailing, 30-19.

The Blue Raiders played the Pac-8 runners-up dead even in the second half, but the 11-point margin was reflected in the final score, 78-67.

George Sorrell shared the game's scoring honors with OSU's Shelton, each with 23 points. George was the game's top rebounder with 17.

Detroit, coached by TV-personality-to-be Dick Vitale, took advantage of a hot shooting hand (62.5 percent for the game) to overcome solid rebounding by Middle Tennessee.

The only Blue Raider lead of the game came briefly in the second half, 54-52, on a tip-in by center Bob Martin. However, Detroit immediately went on a 25-8 scoring run that iced the decision despite 28 points from Martin and 15 rebounds by forward Greg Joyner.

 Middle Tennessee 30 20 50
 Kentucky 30 14 44

In what is quite arguably the biggest Blue Raider basketball victory ever, Middle Tennessee got off to a very quiet start, trailing 8-0 after two-and-a-half minutes of play.

The Raiders fashioned a moderate lead late in the half and the score was knotted at 30 at the intermission. The score was tied three times in the second half as well, but Kentucky was never able to regain the lead.

It was a rock-ribbed defense that stopped the Wildcats. Not a single Kentucky player mustered more than eight points, but Rick Campbell had 19 and Jerry Beck had 14 for the Blue Raiders.

Beck's 10 rebounds helped fashion a 36-27 edge on the boards for Middle Tennessee.

After receiving the only at-large bid in the history of the Ohio Valley Conference, the Blue Raiders lost something of a see-saw battle with Notre Dame's Irish. Middle Tennessee led early in the first half, fell behind, then led again for a time late in the half only to see Notre Dame pull to a 37-31 halftime edge. The Raiders never led in the second half, but pulled within two points twice, with 5:59 remaining and at 5:20.

Dwayne Rainey had 22 points for Middle Tennessee. He also led all rebounders in the game with nine.

The trail to New York City's final two NIT rounds ended abruptly for the Blue Raiders, the result of a combination of a solid Boston College team and a knee injury to guard Chris Rainey.

Rainey injured his knee against Tennessee and was limited to only 11 minutes of play in the win over Georgia. He gamely came back to play 30 minutes against BC, but was obviously not in his usual form, on either offense or defense.

Randy Henry had one of his best games as a Blue Raider, racking up 34 points and grabbing 12 rebounds. Baynham had 12 points and Chris Rainey added 11, as Middle Tennessee ended its season at 23-11.

There may have been bigger comebacks in Middle Tennessee basketball history, but none more important than this victory over a highly regarded band of Seminoles. Middle Tennessee trailed by 17 (67-50) with just 16 minutes to play but it outscored FSU, 47-16, the rest of the way. The catalyst for the Middle Tennessee comeback was the shooting of freshman guard Mike Buck, who posted what would remain a career-high 26 points without missing a shot. He was 7 for 7 from the field (including 6 for 6 from 3-point range) and 6 for 6 at the foul line, all in only 22 minutes of play. Forward Randy Henry also had 26 points for the Raiders.

Senior Desmond Yates scored 21 points in the second half to help give Middle Tennessee a shot at a win over Missouri State, but the Blue Raiders fell 87-79 in the first round of the CollegInsider.com Tournament.

Yates, who had struggled in recent weeks, ended the night with a season high 30 points after going 12-15 from the field and 4-5 from behind the arc.

As a team, the Blue Raiders shot 53.6 percent from the field, with senior Montarrio Haddock and junior James Washington adding 16 and 13 points respectively.

Middle Tennessee went 8-11 from the free throw line which aided the Bears, who were 20-24, with Will Creekmore going a perfect 7-7 at the charity stripe.

The Blue Raiders outshot Missouri State 54.2 percent to 53.8 percent from the field in the first half but the Bears had two more points off turnovers with eight.

LaRon Dendy posted his seventh double-double of the season with 18 points and 13 rebounds to lead the Middle Tennessee to an 86-78 victory over the Marshall Thundering Herd in the opening round of the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) at Murphy Center.

The postseason win marked the first for MT since 1989 when the Blue Raiders earned a 97-83 win over Florida State in the NCAA tournament. The last time MT won an NIT game was in 1988 against Georgia in the tournament's second round, a game that also took place in Murfreesboro.

JT Sulton scored 16 points, Shawn Jones matched his career-high with 15 and Raymond Cintron tacked on 12. Bruce Massey produced a solid all-around performance, grabbing a career-best nine rebounds in addition to tallying seven assists and seven points. Jimmy Oden was one of the key reasons MT tallied 23 assists on 32 baskets, collecting a career-high eight assists in the contest.

The Blue Raiders finished the game shooting 52.5 percent and out-rebounded the Herd, 38-36.

The Blue Raider men's basketball team mounted a 15-0 run in the final minutes to knock off top-seeded Tennessee, 71-64, in the second round of the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) at Thompson-Boling Arena. Bruce Massey led the charge with his first career double-double, posting career-highs of 20 points and 10 rebounds to propel Middle Tennessee to its first victory over the Vols since the 1988 NIT.

Massey was especially clutch at the free throw line, finishing the contest 8-for-9. He also chipped in four assists and three steals. LaRon Dendy also neared a double-double, scoring 10 points and grabbing nine rebounds.

Trailing by eight with 7:11 to play, the Blue Raiders hit five straight free throws, including four from Massey, to cut the deficit to three with 4:31 to go. Marcos Knight made it a one-point game with a driving layup then Massey kissed one off the glass with his left hand to put MT back on top for good at 65-64 with 1:30 remaining. Knight finished the game with nine points.

Massey wreaked havoc on the Vols at the other end as well, blocking Trae Golden's jump shot on Tennessee's next possession and adding a jump-stop bucket in the paint with 39.1 seconds left in the game.

Raymond Cintron made four free throws in the final 17.2 to seal the win and finish the 15-0 run.

The Blue Raiders held Tennessee without a basket for the final 7:11. MT also out-rebounded Tennessee, 46-30, and finished the game shooting 46.2 percent compared to the Vols' 37.9 percent.

Marcos Knight neared a double-double with 19 points, matching his career-high, and nine rebounds for Middle Tennessee, but the Blue Raiders' late rally fell short to the Minnesota Golden Gophers in a 78-72 defeat in the quarterfinals of the NIT at Murphy Center in front of a season-high crowd of 10,521 fans. MT closed its historic season with a 27-7 overall record.

Raymond Cintron and LaRon Dendy also added double-figures for the Blue Raiders, scoring 15 and 11, respectively.

The Blue Raiders narrowed the game to one possession in the final minute, but Minnesota converted 11 of 12 free throws, including its last eight in a row.

In a game featuring nine lead changes through the first 26 minutes, Minnesota took charge midway through the second half. The Gophers broke a stalemate by taking a 46-43 lead on an Austin Hollins 3-pointer with 13:55 remaining.

Minnesota led the rest of the way but struggled to put MT away in the final minutes. In the final 28.6 seconds, MT narrowed the lead to three twice and two once, but the Gophers made all eight free throws in that span to hold on.

In its first appearance in 24 years, Middle Tennessee fell in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to Saint Mary's, 67-54 before a crowd of 12,027 at Dayton Arena. The Blue Raiders, regular season champions of the Sun Belt Conference, finished the year with a 28-6 record.

Marcos Knight led three Blue Raiders in double figures with 16 points, while Kerry Hammonds and Neiko Hunter added 10 each. Knight also added six assists and six rebounds to go with his 27th double figure scoring game of the year.

As a team, the Blue Raiders struggled shooting the basketball by making just 22 of 52 attempts for 42 percent and had a hard time getting to the free throw line. Saint Mary's attempted 25 free ones to 7 by the Blue Raiders.

After a back-and-forth first half, the Blue Raiders went cold from the field as Saint Mary's ended the first stanza on an 11-2 run to take a 29-20 lead into the locker room. MT shot just 32 percent from the field while the Gaels owned a 10-2 advantage in points off turnovers.

The Blue Raiders came out of the locker room a different team offensively. After trading baskets, MT went on a 7-0 run to trim the Gaels' lead to 41-38 at the 12:36 mark. A Kerry Hammonds three keyed the run.

The Gaels answered right back to go on a 13-4 run to grab its biggest lead of the night, 54-42, with 5:48 to play. The Blue Raiders would not threaten again as the Gaels advanced to the second round to face Memphis.

The Middle Tennessee men's basketball team (19-17, 9-9 C-USA) dropped a 68-56 decision to Kent State in the opening round of the Colleg Insider.com Tournament (CIT) on Wednesday night at Murphy Center.

Jacquez Rozier and Perrin Buford each scored 10 points to lead the Blue Raiders in the scoring column. Rozier managed seven points in the second half and nearly registered a double-double in his final game with eight rebounds.

Both teams came out shooting with a hot hand as each side drained five three's in the first half. The Blue Raiders started 3-of-3 from three-point range to go up 11-10 at the first media timeout.

The Raiders eventually built a six-point lead, going up 23-17 following a quick 8-0 spurt at the midway point of the half. However, the Flashes locked down the MT shooters and closed out the frame on a 14-2 run to go up 40-29 at the break.

Giddy Potts cut the KSU lead to single digits by hitting his first trey with just under 15 minutes left. Potts had an outstanding sequence that saw him block a KSU shot at the rim before knocking down the three at the other end. The Blue Raiders registered six blocks on the night.

MT kept chipping away at the lead as a D.J. Jones three trimmed the deficit to seven, 54-47, with 10:41 to go in regulation. That was the closest the Blue Raiders would get though, after the Flashes' lead swelled to 15 in the final minutes.
