BLUE RAIDER NETWORK

Blue Raider basketball is on the air! The 2013-14 basketball season marks the eighth year of the Blue Raider Network under the umbrella of a joint venture between Middle Tennessee athletics and Nelligan Sports Marketing. Nelligan started managing the exclusive athletics marketing rights in January 2007.

The Blue Raider Network, which actually debuted in the early 1960s, is blessed with two flagship stations for football and men's basketball, including Sports Radio 560 WNSR in Nashville and WGNS AM-FM in Murfreesboro.

Middle Tennessee fans throughout the southeast region also can follow their favorite teams on WMOT FM 89.5, which reaches a three-state coverage area.

The combination of these three stations provides coverage to Middle Tennessee sports fans in a 100-mile radius of Murfreesboro.

WGNS and WNSR will carry all Blue Raider football and men's basketball games along with the Rick Stockstill and Kermit Davis radio shows.

WGNS, which made its return to carrying Blue Raider athletics in 2005, blankets the local area by reaching to McMinnville to the east, Columbia to the west and Gallatin to the north.

Campus station WMOT 89.5 FM will also broadcast football and men's and women's basketball games for Middle Tennessee in 2013-14. WMOT, a 100,000-watt station, reaches beyond Bowling Green, Ky., to the north, Cookeville, Tenn., to the east, and Huntsville, Ala. to the south.

WDUC FM 93.9 The Duck, joins the network this season and will provide additional coverage in southern middle Tennessee and northern Alabama.

All Blue Raider football, men's and women's basketball and baseball broadcasts can also be heard on the Internet at GoBlueRaiders.com.

THE NETWORK

WMOT FM 89.5 (Murfreesboro)
WGNS AM 1450 (Murfreesboro)
WGNS FM 100.5 (Murfreesboro)
WGNS FM 101.9 (Murfreesboro)
WNSR AM 560 (Nashville)
WNTC FM 103.9 (Drakesboro, Ky.)
WDUC FM 93.9 (Tullahoma/Lynchburg)

KERMIT DAVIS RADIO SHOW

The Blue Raider Network carries Kermit Davis LIVE on WMOT, WNSR, and WGNS AM-FM each Monday night from 7-8 p.m. The show originates from Sam's All-American Sports Grill in Murfreesboro during the season and is open to the public.

COVERING MT

Credentials

Arrangements for media credentials for the 2013-14 basketball season should be directed to the Athletic Communications office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in an email to Katie Parker (parker@goblueraiders.com). Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Middle Tennessee basketball on a regular basis. Student publications will be limited to one working credential and one photo pass, if needed. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space-available basis.

Email Service

Basketball releases can be obtained electronically by contacting Katie Parker. The release will be sent as an HTML file. This is a media service ONLY.

Practice Coverage

Practices are open to the media with few exceptions. Media wishing to attend practice are encouraged to contact Katie Parker in advance. Team meetings before, during and after practice are private. Check with the Athletic Communications office for practice times.

Media Parking

Parking space can be reserved with a request received by Middle Tennessee's Athletics Communications office at least one working day prior to the game. Media parking is located in the Greenland Drive parking lot. Satellite trucks will park on the north side of the Floyd Stadium pressbox and will enter off Middle Tennessee Boulevard just before the Faulkinberry Road entrance.

Postgame Interviews

After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Kermit Davis will be made available to members of the media. The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, interviews will be conducted in the media room. On the road, requested players and Coach Davis will be brought to a designated area outside the locker room or to the visiting media room.

Postgame Services

Complete individual and team statistics, play-by-play and postgame quotes will be available to the media following each game. One hour prior to tipoff, media packets containing game programs, flipcards, updated stats and game notes will be distributed in the media working area. A fax service is also available upon request. A pregame meal is served in the media area 90 minutes before tipoff.

Telephones

There are a limited number of telephones available along press row. They are for first-come, first-serve use only. It is suggested that media members wishing to have a private line contact Steve Prichard, director of telecommunications, at 615-898-2991. For specific line location, please list Katie Parker as the contact from the athletic department. Telephone lines for visiting radio networks have been installed by Middle Tennessee. Reciprocating trade agreements for these lines can be made by contacting Katie Parker at 615-904-8115.

Radio Coverage

Radio broadcast permission must be obtained in advance, along with press row reservations. Middle Tennessee maintains a courtesy line for use by schools who can provide reciprocal arrangements for the Blue Raider Network. A radio station wishing to obtain an ISDN line must contact Steve Prichard, director of telecommunications, at 615-898-2991.

Media Will-Call

For members of the media wishing to pick their credential up at media will call, it is located at the base of the ramp at the NE corner inside Murphy Center.

Coach and Student-Athlete Interviews

All interviews with head coach Kermit Davis and student-athletes should be directed through the Middle Tennessee Athletic Communications office. Contact Katie Parker at parker@goblueraiders.com or 615-904-8115.

Internet Guidelines

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgement of Middle Tennessee's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and an outlet's agreement to abide by any restrictions Middle Tennessee may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by MT may result in revocation of press credentials.

Middle Tennessee reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real-time play-by-play, game-related statistics, and information through the Internet. ("real time" is defined as any online media providing live, continual play-by-play coverage, in-game statistics, digital photographs, or audio or video of an event.)

Internet Access

Press row in Murphy Center is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Media wishing to utilize the wireless Internet simply need to click on the Internet and use the Guest option located at the bottom of the screen. Ethernet lines are also available in the Athletic Communications office.

Website

All of Middle Tennessee's news releases and statistics, as well as other information pertaining to the Athletic Department, can be accessed at GoBlueRaiders.com. For more in-depth updates during the game, follow @MTAthletics and @MT_MBB on Twitter.

COACHES & STAFF BIOS

DAVIS

HEAD COACH
13TH SEASON
MISSISSIPPI STATE, 1982

Kermit Davis enters his 13th season at the helm of the Middle Tennessee program in 2014-15 and is fresh off another great stint with the Blue Raiders after they completed their first season in Conference USA.

In the inaugural year in C-USA MT shared the regular season title by garnering a 13-3 record in conference play and finishing the 2013-14 season with a 24-9 overall record. Davis has led to the Blue Raiders to three-straight regular season conference titles and four in the last five years (2014, 2013, 2012 and 2010).

MT claimed its second-straight Sun Belt Conference regular season crown, after posting program-best records with a 28-6 overall mark and a 19-1 mark in conference play during the 2012-13 campaign. Davis then picked up back-to-back Sun Belt Coach of the Year honors, marking the third time he has received the award (2013, 2012 and 2003). Under his guidance, the Blue Raiders have won the Sun Belt regular season title three times in the past four seasons.

Under the Leakesville, Miss., native's leadership, MT reached the NCAA Tournament last season for the first time since 1989 and seventh time in program history, when the team took on Saint Mary's in a First Four matchup.

After such a successful 2012-13 season, Davis was listed as one of the finalists for the Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year Award, which is given annually to the nation's top mid-major coach. He is the all-time winningest coach in program and Sun Belt history, amassing 208 victories.

The 2011-12 season proved to be one of the most historic in program history. On Dec. 29, 2011, Davis became the program's all-time winningest coach, surpassing Jimmy Earle's mark of 164, as he earned his 165th victory at the helm of the Blue Raiders with a 71-66 triumph over FIU. MT went on to set school records for wins (27), conference wins (14) and road wins (11). The Blue Raiders made their first appearance in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) since 1988 and advanced to the quarterfinals, beating in-state foe Tennessee for the first time since 1988. MT finished the season as the fourth-best shooting team in the country at 49.5 percent with the top performance coming at UCLA, when the Blue Raiders hit a school-record 71.4 percent of their shots, including a 10-for-11 performance from beyond the arc en route to the 86-66 win.

The Blue Raiders raked in accolades following the 27-7 season, as Davis was named the Sun Belt Coach of the Year for the second time in his tenure. Senior LaRon Dendy claimed the league's Player of the Year award and earned First Team honors, while juniors Marcos Knight and JT Sulton were also named to All-Conference teams. The trio of selections marked the most since MT joined the Sun Belt for the 2000-01 season.

The 2011-12 season also saw a jump in attendance at Murphy Center, as the Blue Raiders averaged more than 5,000 fans at home games. The increase proved to be the sixth-largest in college basketball at season's end.

During the 2010-11 campaign, Davis earned his 150th win as the head coach of Middle Tennessee, defeating rival WKU on Feb. 10. He became just the second coach in program history to reach the milestone, joining Earle. He also has more than 250 career victories, reaching that milestone on Jan. 29, 2009 with a win over Louisiana. He owns 251 wins in 14 seasons at the Division I level and 66 in three years in junior college for a total of 317 victories.

The veteran coach was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year in 2003, as voted on by league coaches. He was named the Sun Belt's Coach of the Year by College Insiders in 2008 after leading the Blue Raiders into the Sun Belt Championship game and again in 2010 after winning the Sun Belt East Division title. Davis also ranks among the winningest coaches in Sun Belt history.

In addition to creating a winning environment at Middle Tennessee, Davis' success has translated to the student-athletes who have played for him as well, both on the court and in the classroom. Desmond "Boogie" Yates became the school's all-time scoring leader during the 2009-10 season, while Kevin Kanaskie took the assist leader title in 2008-09. Off the court, the Blue Raiders enjoyed a 2.92 team GPA during the spring semester of 2010 - the highest for a Middle Tennessee men's basketball team in 20 years.

The Blue Raiders have been a model of consistency during Davis' tenure. Middle Tennessee has racked up an average of 18.9 wins per season, the third-best total for any Blue Raider coach. Middle Tennessee's 100 wins during a six-year span (2002-2008) were the most of any Blue Raider coach since 1988-93. He ranks third all-time at MT in winning percentage, boasting a .599 in his 347 games, the most of any coach in Blue Raider history.

Before leaving the Sun Belt Conference, Davis became the league's all-time winningest coach with MT's 66-61 victory at UALR on Feb. 16, 2013 with his 113th league win. Davis surpassed South Alabama's Ronnie Arrow, who had 112 conference wins. Davis leaves the Sun Belt with 117 wins in league play.

Davis' teams have also been consistent winners in league play. The Blue Raiders' 109 wins against Sun Belt opponents under Davis are tied for second-most in a 10-year span, and Middle Tennessee's 46 Sun Belt road wins under Davis are the most of any current league member since 2002-03, Davis' first season at Middle Tennessee.

Another sign of consistency under Davis has been the growth in attendance. Middle Tennessee has realized an attendance increase in eight of Davis' 11 seasons, and three have generated the highest home attendance average in the last 17 seasons. The Blue Raiders ranked second in the Sun Belt, behind Western Kentucky, in average home attendance with 4,126 in 2006-07, and they averaged 4,225 during 2007-08, marking the first time Middle Tennessee had averaged in excess of 4,000 in three consecutive seasons since 1986-89.

In all, Middle Tennessee has realized the largest increase of any Sun Belt member during the last 11 years. Middle Tennessee reached a Sun Belt Conference high 4,843 in average attendance for league home games in 2005-06. A Murphy Center attendance record of 11,807 was set on February 26, 2004 when fans flocked to the "Glass House" to cheer Middle Tennessee to a 73-59 win against three-time defending Sun Belt champion Western Kentucky and when 18,071 attended the Blue Raiders' game against Memphis at the Sommet Center in Nashville, Tenn., it marked the largest crowd ever for a regular-season men's basketball game at that venue. Middle Tennessee also drew 11,802 for its home game against Tennessee November 2009.

The Blue Raiders reached the Sun Belt tournament title game in 2003, their first appearance in a conference tournament championship since 1989. The Blue Raiders also reached the title game in 2008 after upsetting South Alabama on its home court to end the Jaguars' 18-game home win streak.

Just as he has done at previous stops, Davis has developed a program that suddenly has expectations placed on it. Even though the Blue Raider program has made great strides in a short time, Davis says the foundation doesn't change. The building process continues into Davis' 12th season.

In his first season as the Blue Raiders' head coach, Davis inherited a group of players who had never enjoyed success as members of the Sun Belt. The 2002-03 Blue Raiders were picked fourth (of five) teams in the Sun Belt's East Division, and eighth of 11 teams overall, but heading into the final week of the regular season Middle Tennessee remained in the championship hunt. For his efforts, Davis was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, marking the third time in five years as a Division I head coach he had been so honored.

While Davis' first team surprised many by reaching the finals of the Sun Belt tournament and putting together the most wins for a Blue Raider squad (16) since the 1997-98 campaign, his second Blue Raider team had to be even more surprising.

Middle Tennessee entered the 2003-04 season with only one returning starter and four letter winners from Davis' initial Blue Raider team, but the proven winner molded his squad into a championship contender by mid-season. The Blue Raiders increased their number of wins and had fans coming through the turnstiles in record numbers with an exciting style of play.

Middle Tennessee went a step beyond in 2004-05 when, the Blue Raiders posted a 19-win season in Davis' third season, marking the first time since 1997-98 that the team had won as many games.

Like all successful coaches, Davis has been victorious by recruiting players who fit the personality of the team and take ownership of their squad. Four of the last six classes have been rated among the Top 25 in the nation, including a No. 11 signing class in 2004. The 2011-12 class ranked as high as No. 19 by Hoop Scoop. The 2007 class was ranked No. 48 nationally. By recruiting players who value character, have a high level of toughness, and have a desire to obtain a college degree, Davis has been able to develop a winning formula not only at Middle Tennessee, but also at each of his stops.

Prior to being named the head coach at Middle Tennessee, Davis spent five seasons as the associate head coach at LSU under former head coach John Brady. Prior to Davis' arrival with Brady at LSU, the Tigers had been languishing near the bottom of the SEC.

It didn't take long for the team's fortunes to change. After two seasons of putting the pieces together, the Tigers captured the SEC title in 2000 and went on to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. The Tigers returned to the postseason in 2002 with a trip to the National Invitational Tournament. In the three years immediately preceding Davis' arrival in Murfreesboro, LSU averaged 20-plus wins per season.

Before LSU, Davis spent one season as the head coach at the University of Idaho; however, his stint with the Vandals was his second tour of duty in Moscow. He also served as the school's head coach from 1989-90. During his three years as the head coach at Idaho, Davis compiled a 63-29 record, the best three-year total in the program's history. Davis posted two of the best single-season tallies in school history during his first two seasons at Idaho as well, turning in 25-6 marks in both of those seasons (1988-89, 1989-90).

His Idaho squad won the Big Sky championship in 1989 and went on to capture the league's tournament crown and a berth into the NCAA Tournament, as well. For his efforts, Davis was named Big Sky Coach of the Year. History repeated itself in 1990 when Davis once again led the Vandals to the Big Sky title in both the regular season and tournament, garnering yet another NCAA Tournament berth.

In fact, Davis himself made history when he became the Vandals' head coach in 1988. Upon his hiring, Davis was the youngest Division I head coach in the nation at age 28. It was not the first time Davis had been the youngest head coach in the country. When he was hired as the head coach at Southwest Mississippi Junior College in 1984, he became the youngest junior college coach in the nation at age 24. His youth served him well at Southwest Mississippi, as he put together a 39-20 record in two seasons. His 1986 squad won 22 games, posting the school's first 20-win season in 17 years.

His success at the junior college level landed him a spot on Tim Floyd's staff at Idaho, where Davis served as an assistant for two years prior to being named the program's head coach.

After spending two seasons as the head coach at Idaho, Davis went on to become the head coach at Texas A&M for the 1990-91 campaign. From Texas A&M, Davis moved on to serve as associate head coach at Chipola Junior College for two seasons before ascending to the top spot for the 1993-94 campaign. During his season as the team's head coach, Chipola finished the season ranked No. 4 in the national polls and posted a 27-5 record, giving the team the second-most wins in school history.

From Chipola, Davis moved on to serve as associate head coach at Utah State from 1995-96. At Utah State, Davis coached under current Southern Mississippi coach Larry Eustachy, and the pair combined to win the Big West championship in 1995. His Utah State tenure ended with his return to Idaho as the Vandals' head coach and the rest is history.

Davis' rapid ascent up the coaching ladder is no coincidence since he grew up watching how one of the preeminent coaches in the country operated on a daily basis. Kermit Davis, Sr., was one of the most respected college coaches in the nation, and the younger Davis spent many hours around his dad in the gym and even on the bench during games.

After completing his playing career at Mississippi State, Davis began his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant on Bob Boyd's staff from 1983-84. Davis earned his bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 1982 and then obtained his master's degree there in 1984. He and his wife, Betty, have two daughters, Ally and Claire.

In 12 seasons at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders registered four straight winning seasons under Davis to start his Blue Raider coaching career, making him one of only two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start a Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis first on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 180.

CASE

ASSISTANT COACH
SEVENTH SEASON
UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE & ARTS OF OKLAHOMA, 1986

Win Case begins his seventh season with the Blue Raiders in 2014-15 and has brought a wealth of experience with him as an assistant coach on Kermit Davis' men's basketball staff.

Case's responsibilities continue to be recruiting, scouting and day-to-day preparation of the Blue Raider basketball team.

Head Coach Kermit Davis feels that Case has made a big impact on the staff. "Win has exhibited great energy with a fantastic upbeat personality that has been very good in our recruiting, as well as working with our current players."

Case has been highly successful at each of his previous collegiate stops and has a proven track record as both an assistant and head coach, having been part of national championship teams in each capacity. His career won-lost record is a gaudy 436-191.

The highly successful coach was most recently head men's basketball coach at Redlands College for one season, following a two-year stint at Eastern Oklahoma State College, where he served as head men's basketball coach and athletics director. Case was head coach at Oklahoma City University for 13 years, posting a 343-127 record and winning the NAIA National Championship in 1994 and again in 1996. Before being head coach at Oklahoma City, Case served as an assistant there for two years and was part of two NAIA national championships (1991, 1992). The 1992 squad was 38-0.

Case played two seasons at Seminole Junior College and led the team to a runner-up finish in the NJCAA national championship game. Following two years of junior college, Case played two years at Oklahoma State, where he averaged 10.7 points as a senior. Case and current Kansas head coach Bill Self were teammates at Oklahoma State, and his son, Jeremy, was a member of Kansas' national championship team in 2008 and is currently an assistant coach at Southeast Missouri State.

Case said a phone call from Self stimulated his interest in the vacant position on Davis' staff.

"When I was trying to decide if I was going to pursue this position I got a call from Bill Self and he just raved about coach Davis," Case said. "(Self) told me coach Davis was one of the best and he told me I needed to look hard at the position. At that time the position had not been offered, but what coach Self said certainly appealed in terms of having an opportunity to work with a coach who has that type of reputation. Coach Davis has a reputation around the country that is second to none."

Case began his coaching career as an assistant at Oklahoma Baptist in 1987. He spent two seasons as an assistant at Eastern Oklahoma before joining the staff at Oklahoma City University. He earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma in 1986.

Case has three children – Jeremy, Tiffany and Pierce. He is married to the former Ronda Crowe.

GRENSING

ASSISTANT COACH
FOURTH SEASON
SOUTHWEST TEXAS STATE, 1979

Greg Grensing enters his fourth season in 2014-15 as a member of the Blue Raider coaching staff. Grensing brings a wealth of experience after assistant coaching stints at Creighton, Kansas State and most recently UNLV.

Grensing spent six seasons as an assistant coach at UNLV prior to coming to Middle Tennessee. Grensing joined the Runnin' Rebels after spending 11 seasons on the Creighton University men's basketball coaching staff, including the 2004-05 season as the associate head coach.

During his time at Creighton, Grensing worked for former head coach Dana Altman, which was a partnership that dated back to 1986-87, when they started three seasons of work as assistant coaches under UNLV head coach Lon Kruger at Kansas State University.

When Kruger left KSU, Grensing remained in Manhattan, Kan., as a member of Altman's staff and was with him for 15 years at KSU and Creighton.

Grensing has coached in a total of 14 NCAA Tournaments, six while at Creighton and three with the Runnin' Rebels. As the recruiting coordinator at Creighton, he brought in talented basketball players as well as talented students. The Bluejays played in the postseason in each of his last eight years there (six NCAA Tournaments) and had an Academic All-District selection in seven of those eight seasons. Two of his more notable recruits to Creighton are current NBA player Kyle Korver (currently with the Chicago Bulls) and former NBA player Rodney Buford (New Jersey Nets).

The native of Council Grove, Kan., graduated from Southwest Texas State University in 1979 with a bachelor's degree in journalism and began his coaching career with a two-year stint as a graduate assistant at his alma mater. In 1981, after receiving his master's degree in physical education from Southwest Texas State, Grensing spent one season as an assistant at Laredo (Texas) Junior College, then two years as an assistant at Idaho State University from 1982-84.

Following the 1983-84 season, Grensing joined Kruger's staff at Pan American University in Edinburg, Texas. After serving two years at Pan American, Kruger was named head coach at Kansas State and hired Grensing as an assistant for the Wildcats.

Grensing started his collegiate playing career as a guard at Independence (Kan.) Community College, helping the Pirates to a 62-6 record and the 1977 national title as the team's sixth man.

Following the 1977 season, Grensing transferred to Southwest Texas State and led the Bobcats to a 49-13 record in two seasons, including a third-place finish in the 1979 NAIA National Tournament.

Grensing is married to the former Michelle Taylor and the couple has two daughters, Aubrey and Gentry, and one son, Tryce. Grensing also has a stepson, Justin Nielson.

HAMILTON

ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON
DUKE, 2002

Ronnie Hamilton enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Blue Raiders in 2014-15.

Hamilton, a native of Oxford, N.C., comes to Murfreesboro well acquainted with Conference USA after stints at Houston and Tulane. He joins the Blue Raider coaching staff after a two-year stop at Houston.

Davis' Blue Raiders posted a 24-9 record this season for the program's third-straight 20-win season. With a 13-3 record in C-USA play during the 2013-14 campaign, Middle Tennessee earned a share of the Conference USA regular season championship, marking its third-straight regular season conference title and fourth in the last five years.

During the 2012-13 season, Hamilton helped the Cougars post a 20-13 record and a 7-9 mark in C-USA play before making the move to the American Athletic Conference this past season.

In his first season with Houston, Hamilton worked closely with guard Joseph Young, who was named to the All-Conference USA Third Team and was selected to the USBWA All-District VII squad. During the 2012-13 campaign, Hamilton also worked closely with Danuel House, who went on to garner C-USA Freshman of Year honors, marking a program first for Houston in C-USA.

Prior to his two years at Houston, Hamilton spent a pair of years on the Tulane coaching staff. With the Green Wave, he played a large role in recruiting 2012 All-Conference USA First Team honoree and C-USA Freshman of the Year Ricky Tarrant. Hamilton was also heavily involved in recruiting Josh Davis, who was a First Team All-C-USA player during the 2012-13 season.

The Oxford, N.C., native spent two years as an assistant at The Citadel, where he was instrumental in the development and recruitment of All-Southern Conference selection and mid-major All-Americans Demetrius Nelson, John Brown, Michael Groselle and Cameron Wells. While on the Bulldog coaching staff, Hamilton helped lead The Citadel to 36 wins, including a school-record tying 20 wins during the 2008-09 campaign.

Hamilton made his way to Charleston, S.C., after a three-year stint at Division II member Tarleton State from 2005-08. The Texans posted a 70-23 record, picking up wins against Baylor and TCU during his tenure in Stephenville, Texas. In 2005-06, Tarleton State made the program's second-straight Elite Eight appearance and posted a 27-7 overall record.

In 2005, Hamilton graduated with his master's in physical education with a concentration in sports administration from UNC Pembroke, where he served as a graduate assistant coach for the Braves from 2003-05. As a GA at Pembroke, he was responsible for planning practices, leading on-floor coaching, heading up the strength and condition program and handling film exchange, while also serving at the recruiting coordinator.

He received his bachelor's degree in political science and history from Duke in 2002. Hamilton was a four-year letterman for the Blue Devil football team as a defensive back.

Hamilton is married to the former Christabell Mariner and they have a 15 month-old daughter named Annalisa Nola Afakasi.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
THIRD SEASON
FLORIDA STATE, 2009

Jarrod Lazarus begins his second season in 2014-15 with the the Middle Tennessee men's basketball program and first as Director of Operations.

Lazarus worked as the director and an assistant coach under the legendary Marcos "Shakey" Rodriguez for Gold Coast Basketball from 2004-12. During his time with Gold Coast, a member of the Amateur Athletic Union, Lazarus was involved in player development and training, budgeting, marketing, arranging travel accommodations and game planning. The team made back-to-back Sweet 16 runs at AAU Nationals, including an Elite Eight appearance in 2008. He also served as an academic advisor and was the youngest member to win the AAU Leadership Award in 2010.

Lazarus attended Florida State University, where he served as a student manager for the men's basketball team for four years. The Weston, Fla., native was responsible for assisting at practices, breaking down opponents, keeping stats during games and helping with camps. During his senior season, the Seminoles qualified for the NCAA tournament and finished as one of the nation's top 25 teams.

Throughout his career, Lazarus has helped place 45 athletes into Division I, II and JuCo programs, including the likes of Adrian Diaz (Kansas State), Angel Rodriguez (Kansas State), Charles Hankerson Jr. (Wyoming), Austin Keel (Central Michigan), Tyrone Haughton (Iowa Western CC), Michael Birts (SIU-Edwardsville), Cody Mann (FIU), Eddie Odio (Boston College), Andy Diaz (North Florida), Blake Foeman (Denver), Jerron Granberry (North Florida), Ismaila Dauda (Polk State College), Shawn Jones (Middle Tennessee), Wesley Aclegaire (Liberty), Isaac Cohen (Columbia), Frederick Conner (South Alabama), Gabriel Dos Santos (Detroit), Shea Jones (Presbyterian), Dylan Karell (UCF), Ray Rodriguez (North Florida), Linwood Ross (IUPUI) and Brandon Vega (Winthrop).

Lazarus graduated from Florida State in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in business management and is currently pursuing a Master of Business Administration at Middle Tennessee.

Fred
SPENCER

STUDENT ASSISTANT
SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE, 2008

Fred Spencer enters his first season as student assistant for the Middle Tennessee men's basketball program in 2013-14.

Despite being new to the Blue Raiders, Spencer is no stranger to Head Coach Kermit Davis and his coaching style. Spencer played for Davis from 1991-93 at Chipola Junior College in Marianna, Fla., before transferring to Troy, where he was co-captain of his team for two years.

After his two years at Troy, Spencer played professionally overseas. He was in the European Basketball Association League in Vigo, Spain from 1995-1999.

Spencer comes to MT with 15-plus years of experience in athletic conditioning and fitness. His coaching arsenal consists of sound basketball fundamentals with an emphasis on defensive and offensive planning strategies. He has spent time coaching at the high school and college levels, where he has focused on the importance of balancing academics and athletics. His most recent stop included a four-year stint as the Club Director at Boys and Girls Club of Riverview in Riverview, Fla. He was responsible for overseeing all the daily operations of the organization, including activities, program staff and operating budget.

During the 2008-09 season, Spencer served as the head assistant coach for the men's basketball team at Colby Community College in Colby Kan. He assisted in all phases of the program, including scouting and recruiting new talent, while also implementing an academic report program to monitor player progress in the classroom.

Prior to his stint with the Trojans, Spencer worked with the Campo Family YMCA in Valrico, Fla., as the Sports Director before being promoted to the District Sports Director. He was with the Campo YMCA from 2004-2007, before taking over as the Senior Sports Director at the Dr. P. Phillips YMCA in Orlando, Fla., for a year.

Spencer spent the two seasons at Bloomingdale High School in Valrico, Fla., where he was the head JV boys' basketball coach and the head assistant coach for the varsity team. During the 2002-03 season, he served in the same roles at Masters Academy in Oviedo, Fla.

The Butler, Ala., native finished his college degree in 2008, earning a Bachelor of Science in human services from Springfield College in Tampa, Fla. Spencer and his wife Kisha have four children, two boys and two girls.

Drew

ATHLETIC TRAINER
EIGHTH SEASON
WEST VIRGINIA, 1987

Drew Shea begins his eighth season in 2013-14 as the athletic trainer for men's basketball at Middle Tennessee after serving in the same capacity with LSU men's basketball for the previous seven seasons.

Shea was promoted to director of sports medicine at Middle Tennessee in August 2008. He oversees all aspects of the athletic training operation.

Shea is primarily responsible for the men's basketball team, but he also treats athletes in many of Middle Tennessee's other 17 sports.

Shea is responsible for athletic injury recognition and care and treatment and rehabilitation for the men's basketball team and also coordinates all athletic training support services for the Athletics Department.

He leads the assessment, evaluation, and rehabilitation of all Division I intercollegiate athletes at Middle Tennessee. Other responsibilities include education of graduate and NATA-accredited undergraduate curriculum students, managing and maintaining all inventories, supervising the athletic training room, and various administrative duties.

Shea served as student athletic trainer during his undergraduate days at West Virginia. His primary responsibilities were with the soccer and football squads. He also served as head student athletic trainer for baseball in 1987.

Following his graduation in July 1987, Shea began a nine-year association with Morgantown Physical Therapy Associates.

There he served as clinical athletic trainer, where he was responsible for providing daily patient care in a sports medicine/general orthopedic physical therapy clinic.

On the professional level, he served in the spring of 1992 as the co-head athletic trainer for the Frankfurt Galaxy Football Club of the World League of American Football in Germany.

Shea returned to West Virginia in 1996 to work on his master's degree. While there, he served as head athletic trainer for the 1996-97 women's gymnastics team and the 1997-97 women's basketball team and performed other athletic related duties.

Shea has authored many professional presentations at various conferences and has served as a Special Olympics volunteer. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Drew and his wife Lori are the parents of three children: Alexandra, Madison, and MacKenzie.

Mark
MOORE

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH
SECOND SEASON
MIDDLE TENNESSEE, 2009

Mark Moore joined the Middle Tennessee Strength and Conditioning staff in June 2012. Moore will oversee the Blue Raider men's basketball team.

A native of Murfreesboro and a graduate of Riverdale High School, Moore was already familiar with Middle Tennessee, where he enrolled in 2005 and earned a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science in 2009. After graduation, Moore spent the summer at Middle Tennessee as a strength and conditioning intern.

From MT, Moore went to Murray State University, where his duties as an assistant strength and conditioning coach included designing and implementing programs for the softball team as well as for both the men and women's rifle teams. Both Riley and Jason Spray, MT's strength and conditioning coach for football, helped Moore get on the staff at Murray, and felt that his work there, particularly in the area of designing and implementing his own programs, was very valuable.

Following his year at Murray, Moore began an internship at Mississippi State in June of 2010, assisting in the strength and conditioning program for the Bulldog football team. That fall, he began work on his master's degree in kinesiology and served as a graduate assistant. In addition to his duties with the football team, Moore also had a hand in baseball, both men's and women's tennis, and the throwing athletes on the track team.

Graduate degree in hand, Moore returned to Middle Tennessee in January and assisted Spray with men's basketball. When Spray was elevated to fill the vacancy as head of the football program, Moore became head strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball.

Moore is certified as a Strength and Conditioning Coach, as a Strength and Conditioning Specialist and as a Level 1 Club Coach. He is also CPR and AED certified.

2013-14 REVIEW

SEASON AT A GLANCE -

- The No. 3-seed Blue Raiders picked up a 62-48 win over No. 6-seed Old Dominion in the quarterfinal round of the C-USA Championship to advance to the semifinals, taking on No. 2-seed Tulsa Friday at 3 p.m. CT on CBS Sports Network.
  - Senior Shawn Jones was named the 2014 Conference USA Player of the Year and earned All-Conference First Team honors, averaging 15.1 points per game and 8.1 rebounds a contest in league play.
- The 2013-14 season marked the first time Middle Tennessee swept the conference player of the year awards on both the men's and women's sides. Ebony Rowe of the MT women's basketball team was named C-USA Player of the Year earlier in the week.
- Senior Tweety Knight was named to the C-USA All-Defensive Team, after leading the Blue Raiders with 64 steals, ranking 30th in the nation and second in C-USA according to the NCAA statistical rankings released March 10.
  - With a 55-53 victory at UAB March 6, Middle Tennessee won a share of the regular season Conference USA title, marking its third-straight regular season conference crown and fourth in the last five seasons. Jones earned this third C-USA Player of the Week honor this season March 7, after recording 16 points and 18 rebounds at UAB for his 10th double-double of the season.
  - Knight scored the winning layup with four seconds to go in MT's 55-53 victory at UAB March 6, marking the Raiders' third win on the season that came down to the final possession. Redshirt-sophomore Jaqawn Raymond hit the game-winning three-pointer at Marshall Feb. 22 and the winning layup at FIU Feb. 8.
- Middle Tennessee was the only school in the country in 2013-14 to have both its men's and women's programs win a regular season league title in the athletic department's first year in a new conference.
- The Raiders shared the 2013-14 C-USA men's basketball regular season crown with LA Tech, Tulsa and Southern Miss. This was the third time in the league's 19-year history that multiple teams have tied for the regular season championship.

NOTABLES -

SHAWN SHINES

Shawn Jones was tabbed Conference USA Player of the Year, just two days after garnering First Team All-Conference accolades. The three-time C-USA Player of the Week and paced MT during the regular season, averaging 14.5 points per game and 15.1 points an outing in league play. Jones leads the Blue Raiders on the boards, pulling down 8.5 rebounds a game and 8.1 boards per contest in C-USA games. He led MT in blocked shots with 61 on the year to average 2.0 swats per game and 2.5 in conference play. In C-USA only games, he ranks seventh in scoring, fifth in rebounding and second in blocked shots. The Hialeah, Fla., native became the fifth player in program history and second in the last three years to earn conference player of the year honors, following one Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and three Ohio Valley Conference Players of the Year.

CONFERENCE CROWNS

A win at UAB March 6 gave Middle Tennessee a share of the Conference USA regular season title, marking the third-straight regular season championship for the Raiders and fourth out of the last five years. The Blue Raiders have won five conference tournament titles, all in the Ohio Valley Conference. MT reached the NIT quarterfinals in 2011-12 and followed that with an NCAA First Four appearance in 2012-13. MT reached the Big Dance last year for the first time since 1989 and the seventh time in program history.

ALL THEY DO IS WIN

With a 71-49 victory at Charlotte Feb. 20, the Blue Raiders notched their 20th win of the season, marking MT's third-straight 20-win season. The last time MT recorded three-straight 20-win seasons was 1986-89 (1986-87, 1987-88, 1988-89). In 2012-13, MT posted back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since the 1987-88 and 1988-89 seasons. With 28 wins, the 2012-13 season marked the ninth winning season under MT head coach Kermit Davis and fifth in the last six years for MT. MT broke the school record of 27 wins, set in 2011-12 and has also cracked double-figure wins for six straight seasons.

JONES-ING FOR HISTORY

Shawn Jones made program history Feb. 8, notching his 1,000th career-point off of a dunk with 10:24 to go in the first half at FIU. With 1,088 career-points, 605 career-rebounds and 158 career-blocks, he is just the third player in program history to amass 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 100 blocks. He is the 16th Blue Raider to post 1,000 points and 500 rebounds and is the 31st member of the Middle Tennessee 1,000 point club.

STREAKING

The Blue Raiders enjoyed a nine-game winning streak earlier this season from Jan. 25-Feb. 22, marking the longest streak for MT this season. MT dropped a 55-39 decision on the road at LA Tech Feb. 27, snapping the conference-leading win-streak. The 39 points marked a season-low for the Raiders this season; MT recorded 48 points at Cincinnati Dec. 21. During the nine-game winning streak, the Blue Raiders posted a scoring margin of +12.8 and averaged 5.9 blocks per game. Three Blue Raiders averaged 14-plus points per game during the nine-game stretch as Shawn Jones averaged 15.8 points a game, while Neiko Hunter and Kerry Hammonds put up 14.4 and 14.2 points a contest, respectively.

SENIORITY RULES

There are seven seniors suiting up this year in Kerry Hammonds, Shawn Jones, Zane Gibson, Neiko Hunter, Tweety Knight, Torin Walker and Tavarres Jefferson. With a 71-49 victory at Charlotte Feb. 20, this year's seniors became the winningest class in program history with 91 wins. This year's senior class now has 95 wins. Last year's senior class posted a 90-43 record over four years. The Blue Raiders defeated Rice 65-41 March 1 for Senior Day as all seven seniors landed in the scoring column by the end of the game.

THREES PLEASE

The Blue Raiders have made at least one three-pointer in 567 consecutive games. Middle Tennessee is shooting 34.0-percent from three-point range. MT drained a season-high 11 three-balls against Southern Miss Feb. 15. The Blue Raiders hit nine of their first 10 three-point attempts against the Golden Eagles. MT drained nine threes in the first half against Southern Miss, tying a program record for threes in a half set at UT-Martin Jan. 31, 1998 and done again at FIU Jan. 5, 2002. The Raiders posted a season-best 54.5-percent from behind the arc against Akron Nov. 16, going 6-for-11 from long distance.

Individually, Kerry Hammonds II netted six threes against Southern Miss, tying a career-best mark set against Louisiana Jan. 19, 2013. He went 6-for-10 from three-point range en route to 26 points. Hammonds went on to earn C-USA Player of the Week honors Feb. 17, after averaging 22.0 points per game, shooting 58.8-percent from three-point range. He connected on 10-of-17 threes for the week.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

The Blue Raiders are 14-2 this season at home for a 45-4 mark over the last three years, including a 25-1 mark in home conference games. MT dropped its first home loss of the season Dec. 3, falling to Belmont 70-58 and snapping the Raiders' nation-leading 33 game regular season home winning streak. Prior to the Dec. 3 loss, MT's most recent regular season loss in Murphy Center also came at the hands of the Bruins Nov. 20, 2011, when MT dropped an 87-84 double overtime decision to Belmont. The Blue Raiders have won double-digit games at home in each of the past seven years and 10 of 12 seasons under Davis. After finishing 15-2 at home in 2011-12, MT continued to defend its home court during the 2012-13 campaign. The Blue Raiders were 16-0 in home games last season, including a win at Bridgestone Arena.

THE CENTURY MARK

The Blue Raiders have hit the century mark twice this season. MT first picked up a 115-65 victory over Fisk Dec. 9. The contest was also the first time this season seven Blue Raiders have scored double-figures. MT took a 56-34 lead into the locker room at the half. The last time the Raiders scored 50 points in the first half was Jan. 8, 2011 against UL-Lafayette. The high-scoring affair was also the first time MT scored 100 points in a game since defeating Houston Baptist 109-79 Feb. 13, 2010 and marked the largest scoring output for MT under head coach Kermit Davis. MT reached the 100-point plateau for the second time this season, earning a 102-52 victory over Tennessee Temple Dec. 17 as six Blue Raiders scored double-figures. The 50-point win matched the largest margin of victory for MT this season, which was set against Fisk Dec. 9. Freshman Reggie Upshaw, Jr., led the Blue Raiders against Tennessee Temple with a career-high 18 points, while Tharone Chilton also notched a career-best with 11 points.

NONCONFERENCE NUGGETS

Five of Middle Tennessee's nonconference opponents from this season won regular season titles in their respective conferences - No. 13/12 Cincinnati (American), No. 1/1 Florida (SEC), Murray State and Belmont (OVC) and Southern (SWAC).

MT had a tough nonconference slate for this season with six NCAA Tournament teams from last season on the docket, including Elite Eight participant Florida. The season-opener at Murphy Center featured a battle between a pair of 2013 NCAA Tournament teams as the Blue Raiders picked up a 78-75 win over Southern University Nov. 10.

The Blue Raiders faced their second NCAA team, when Akron came calling Nov. 16 as Middle Tennessee picked up an 80-73 victory inside the Murphy Center. MT then traveled to then-No. 16/14 Florida Nov. 21, where MT squared off with its third NCAA Tournament team in five games. The Blue Raiders returned home Dec. 3 to take on their fourth NCAA team from a season ago, when they hosted nearby Belmont. The Blue Raiders headed south Dec. 14 to square off with reigning SEC Champion Ole Miss, dropping a 72-63 decision. MT hit the road again for a pre-Christmas trip to Cincinnati Dec. 21, marking the Blue Raiders' sixth NCAA Tournament opponent in a two-month span and third on the road.

Fresh from winning its first-ever Ohio Valley Conference title for both the regular season and the league's postseason tournament, Middle Tennessee's Blue Raiders suffered a severe case of "first-appearance jitters" against Oregon State.

The Blue Raiders hit only 33 percent from the field and 17 percent at the foul line in the first half and found themselves trailing, 30-19.

The Blue Raiders played the Pac-8 runners-up dead even in the second half, but the 11-point margin was reflected in the final score, 78-67.

George Sorrell shared the game's scoring honors with OSU's Shelton, each with 23 points. George was the game's top rebounder with 17.

Detroit, coached by TV-personality-to-be Dick Vitale, took advantage of a hot shooting hand (62.5 percent for the game) to overcome solid rebounding by Middle Tennessee.

The only Blue Raider lead of the game came briefly in the second half, 54-52, on a tip-in by center Bob Martin. However, Detroit immediately went on a 25-8 scoring run that iced the decision despite 28 points from Martin and 15 rebounds by forward Greg Joyner.

In what is quite arguably the biggest Blue Raider basketball victory ever, Middle Tennessee got off to a very quiet start, trailing 8-0 after two-and-a-half minutes of play.

The Raiders fashioned a moderate lead late in the half and the score was knotted at 30 at the intermission. The score was tied three times in the second half as well, but Kentucky was never able to regain the lead.

It was a rock-ribbed defense that stopped the Wildcats. Not a single Kentucky player mustered more than eight points, but Rick Campbell had 19 and Jerry Beck had 14 for the Blue Raiders.

Beck's 10 rebounds helped fashion a 36-27 edge on the boards for Middle Tennessee.

After receiving the only at-large bid in the history of the Ohio Valley Conference, the Blue Raiders lost something of a see-saw battle with Notre Dame's Irish. Middle Tennessee led early in the first half, fell behind, then led again for a time late in the half only to see Notre Dame pull to a 37-31 halftime edge. The Raiders never led in the second half, but pulled within two points twice, with 5:59 remaining and at 5:20.

Dwayne Rainey had 22 points for Middle Tennessee. He also led all rebounders in the game with nine.

Reveling in their role as hosts, the Blue Raiders got Tennessee down early and kept it there, never trailing in rapping out a solid win. Middle Tennessee led by 10 after just over 10 minutes of play.

The Vols staged a late second-half rally to shave the lead to only two at 75-73 with 1:44 left, but some clutch free-throw shooting by Gerald Harris and Ty Baynham kept UT at bay.

Chris Rainey led five Blue Raiders in double figures with 20 points. Randy Henry had 19, Harris 17, Dwayne Rainey added 12, and Leslie Gregory had 10.

Dyron Nix had 21 and Clarence Swearingen had 18 for the Vols.

Hosting their second SEC foe in five days, the Blue Raiders had to struggle early before putting away Georgia's Bulldogs.

Middle Tennessee trailed by as many as eight points (25-17) in the first half before rallying for a 36-33 halftime lead behind 13 points from Ty Baynham and 10 from Randy Henry.

Middle Tennessee hit 49 percent from the floor against 41 for Georgia and had a solid 46-24 lead in rebounds. Baynham was the Raiders' top scorer with 24 points, followed by 18 from Henry and 10 by Phil Snell. Willie Anderson had 18 and Alec Kessler added 16 for Georgia.

The trail to New York City's final two NIT rounds ended abruptly for the Blue Raiders, the result of a combination of a solid Boston College team and a knee injury to guard Chris Rainey.

Rainey injured his knee against Tennessee and was limited to only 11 minutes of play in the win over Georgia. He gamely came back to play 30 minutes against BC, but was obviously not in his usual form, on either offense or defense.

Randy Henry had one of his best games as a Blue Raider, racking up 34 points and grabbing 12 rebounds. Baynham had 12 points and Chris Rainey added 11, as Middle Tennessee ended its season at 23-11.

There may have been bigger comebacks in Middle Tennessee basketball history, but none more important than this victory over a highly regarded band of Seminoles. Middle Tennessee trailed by 17 (67-50) with just 16 minutes to play but it outscored FSU, 47-16, the rest of the way. The catalyst for the Middle Tennessee comeback was the shooting of freshman guard Mike Buck, who posted what would remain a career-high 26 points without missing a shot. He was 7 for 7 from the field (including 6 for 6 from 3-point range) and 6 for 6 at the foul line, all in only 22 minutes of play. Forward Randy Henry also had 26 points for the Raiders.

LaRon Dendy posted his seventh double-double of the season with 18 points and 13 rebounds to lead the Middle Tennessee to an 86-78 victory over the Marshall Thundering Herd in the opening round of the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) at Murphy Center.

The postseason win marked the first for MT since 1989 when the Blue Raiders earned a 97-83 win over Florida State in the NCAA tournament. The last time MT won an NIT game was in 1988 against Georgia in the tournament's second round, a game that also took place in Murfreesboro.

JT Sulton scored 16 points, Shawn Jones matched his career-high with 15 and Raymond Cintron tacked on 12. Bruce Massey produced a solid all-around performance, grabbing a career-best nine rebounds in addition to tallying seven assists and seven points. Jimmy Oden was one of the key reasons MT tallied 23 assists on 32 baskets, collecting a career-high eight assists in the contest.

The Blue Raiders finished the game shooting 52.5 percent and out-rebounded the Herd, 38-36.

The Blue Raider men's basketball team mounted a 15-0 run in the final minutes to knock off top-seeded Tennessee, 71-64, in the second round of the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) at Thompson-Boling Arena. Bruce Massey led the charge with his first career double-double, posting career-highs of 20 points and 10 rebounds to propel Middle Tennessee to its first victory over the Vols since the 1988 NIT.

Massey was especially clutch at the free throw line, finishing the contest 8-for-9. He also chipped in four assists and three steals. LaRon Dendy also neared a double-double, scoring 10 points and grabbing nine rebounds.

Trailing by eight with 7:11 to play, the Blue Raiders hit five straight free throws, including four from Massey, to cut the deficit to three with 4:31 to go. Marcos Knight made it a one-point game with a driving layup then Massey kissed one off the glass with his left hand to put MT back on top for good at 65-64 with 1:30 remaining. Knight finished the game with nine points.

Massey wreaked havoc on the Vols at the other end as well, blocking Trae Golden's jump shot on Tennessee's next possession and adding a jump-stop bucket in the paint with 39.1 seconds left in the game.

Raymond Cintron made four free throws in the final 17.2 to seal the win and finish the 15-0 run.

The Blue Raiders held Tennessee without a basket for the final 7:11. MT also out-rebounded Tennessee, 46-30, and finished the game shooting 46.2 percent compared to the Vols' 37.9 percent.

Marcos Knight neared a double-double with 19 points, matching his career-high, and nine rebounds for Middle Tennessee, but the Blue Raiders' late rally fell short to the Minnesota Golden Gophers in a 78-72 defeat in the quarterfinals of the NIT at Murphy Center in front of a season-high crowd of 10,521 fans. MT closed its historic season with a 27-7 overall record.

Raymond Cintron and LaRon Dendy also added double-figures for the Blue Raiders, scoring 15 and 11, respectively.

The Blue Raiders narrowed the game to one possession in the final minute, but Minnesota converted 11 of 12 free throws, including its last eight in a row.

In a game featuring nine lead changes through the first 26 minutes, Minnesota took charge midway through the second half. The Gophers broke a stalemate by taking a 46-43 lead on an Austin Hollins 3-pointer with 13:55 remaining.

Minnesota led the rest of the way but struggled to put MT away in the final minutes. In the final 28.6 seconds, MT narrowed the lead to three twice and two once, but the Gophers made all eight free throws in that span to hold on.

In its first appearance in 24 years, Middle Tennessee fell in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to Saint Mary's, 67-54 before a crowd of 12,027 at Dayton Arena. The Blue Raiders, regular season champions of the Sun Belt Conference, finished the year with a 28-6 record.

Marcos Knight led three Blue Raiders in double figures with 16 points, while Kerry Hammonds and Neiko Hunter added 10 each. Knight also added six assists and six rebounds to go with his 27th double figure scoring game of the year

As a team, the Blue Raiders struggled shooting the basketball by making just 22 of 52 attempts for 42 percent and had a hard time getting to the free throw line. Saint Mary's attempted 25 free ones to 7 by the Blue Raiders.

After a back-and-forth first half, the Blue Raiders went cold from the field as Saint Mary's ended the first stanza on an 11-2 run to take a 29-20 lead into the locker room. MT shot just 32 percent from the field while the Gaels owned a 10-2 advantage in points off turnovers.

The Blue Raiders came out of the locker room a different team offensively. After trading baskets, MT went on a 7-0 run to trim the Gaels' lead to 41-38 at the 12:36 mark. A Kerry Hammonds three keyed the run.

The Gaels answered right back to go on a 13-4 run to grab its biggest lead of the night, 54-42, with 5:48 to play. The Blue Raiders would not threaten again as the Gaels advanced to the second round to face Memphis.
