DUKE

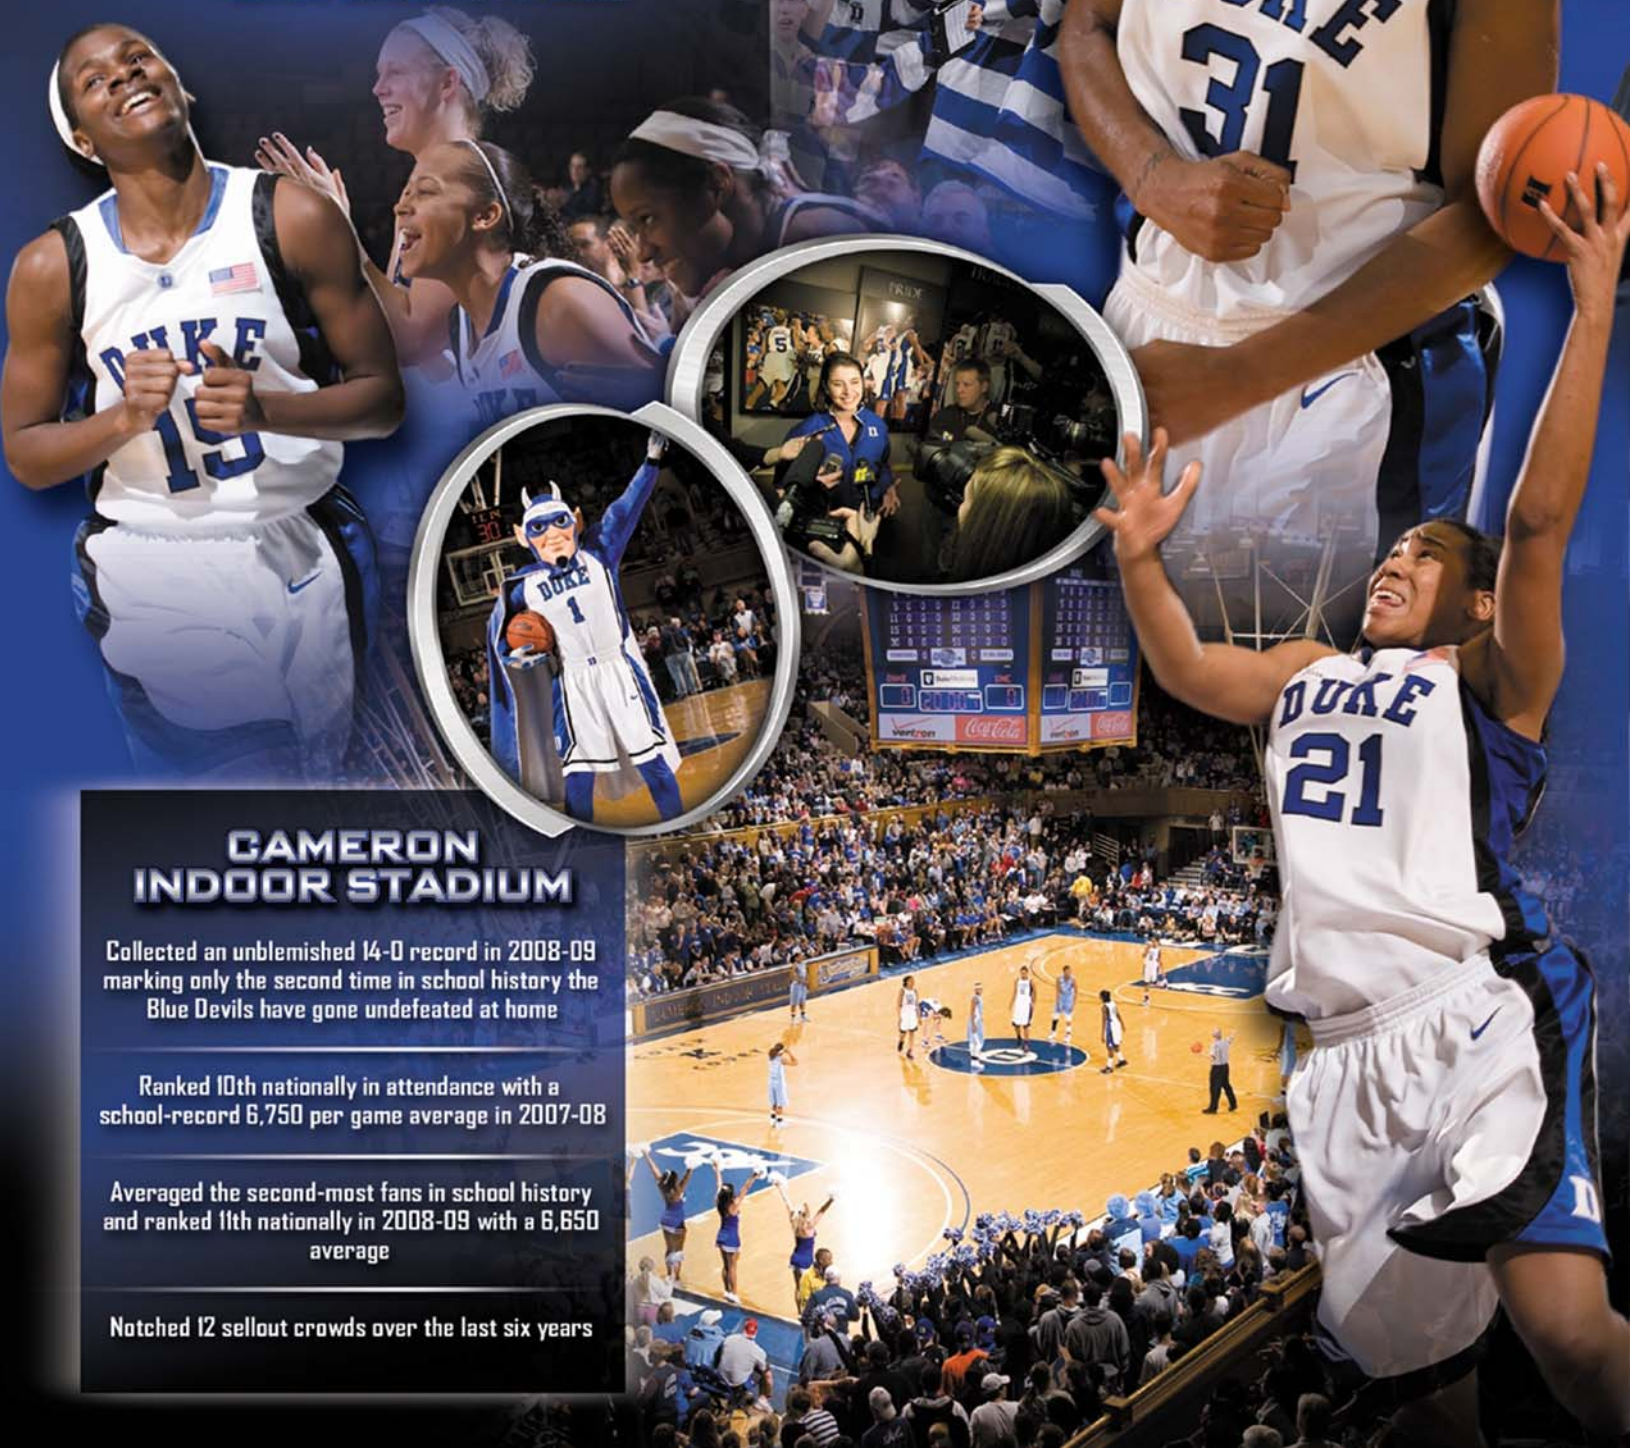

BASKETBALL

GAMEDAY

"There is nothing like playing in Cameron Indoor Stadium when there is a packed house. The anticipation of running out to the court while everyone is cheering for you is incredible. Having the Cameron crazies so close to the action makes playing in Cameron a one of a kind experience."

- SENIOR BRIDGETTE MITCHELL

GAMERON INDOOR STADIUM

Collected an unblemished 14-0 record in 2008-09 marking only the second time in school history the Blue Devils have gone undefeated at home

Ranked 10th nationally in attendance with a school-record 6,750 per game average in 2007-08

Averaged the second-most fans in school history and ranked 11th nationally in 2008-09 with a 6,650 average

Notched 12 sellout crowds over the last six years

AT DUKE

"Coaching in Cameron Indoor Stadium is like no other experience I've ever had as a head coach -- it's electric and exciting. It is one of the most fascinating environments ever created in women's basketball. The structure is a cathedral in nature, but within the cathedral you have all sorts of excitement and chaos."

- JOANNE P. MCCALLIE
HEAD COACH, DUKE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

"Playing in Cameron is an unbelievable experience. It's smaller than most gyms we play in but that is what I love about it. It can get so loud and it's great to know those loud cheers are for your team."

Historic Cameron Indoor Stadium: The Cathedral of College Basketball & the state-of-the-art Mike Krzyzewski Center for Academic & Athletic Excellence

Play for a unique coaching staff that has been a part of a combined 50 NCAA Tournaments, 12 Final Fours, won three NCAA Championships and won 16 conference championships throughout their careers

#3
A chance to compete for multiple championships

Receive the most specialized and personal academic support on the court and in the classroom

To make your dreams come true because dreaming big is at the highest level

"I chose Duke because I felt like it was the school with the best combination of basketball and academics. Graduating with a Duke degree will immediately open up a lot of opportunities for me in the future."

- SOPHOMORE CHELSEA HOPKINS

DUKE

Become a part of the Blue Devil Family which includes an incredibly diverse and interesting group of players #7

"The support system is very reliable. Whenever we are faced with an issue that seems overwhelming and unbearable, our academic and athletic staff are always there! That's what Duke is all about."

- JUNIOR KARIMA CHRISTMAS

DUKE

Have the opportunity to be one of the many Blue Devils to play in the WNBA and overseas #8

"I chose Duke because it was probably the best opportunity of my life. It is a great place, with great people, and so many things to learn."

- FRESHMAN ALLISON VERNEREY

DUKE

National Media Exposure: Be featured in elite games in front of a national audience #9

"The CAPE experience not only gave me exposure to a variety of medical specialties, but the doctors I met and interacted with have intimately shaped the doctor I am today."

- GEORGIA SCHWEITZER BEASLEY, '01

Play in front of the Cameron Crazies - the best fans in the country #10

THE DUKE FAMILY

“There is closeness and an understanding about the excellence we pursue on and off the court at Duke -- so many value this tremendously and greatly. There is a quiet understanding of what we are trying to achieve here and of the difficulty in trying to achieve excellence every single year.”

- JOANNE P. MCGALLIE

DUKE

“When I look at my family back home in New Haven, Mo., I see such a tight knit, loving, and honest group of people. That is exactly what I see here at Duke. They ARE my second family. The women are my sisters that I never had and the coaching staff is supportive in every way possible. Together that makes us a family -- the Duke Women’s Basketball family.”

- SOPHOMORE KATHLEEN SCHEER

DUKE

“My teammates are the best in the world. I would not trade any of the relationships I have formed for anything. They are the greatest, kindest, funniest, happiest and most caring and loving people.”

- JUNIOR KRYSTAL THOMAS

THE DUKE EXPERIENCE

"Winning ACC Championships and going to NCAA Final Fours were wonderful. However, the memories, the friendships and the lessons learned at Duke will remain with me forever."

- THREE-TIME WNBA ALL-STAR ALANA BEARD

"My teammates are exceptional individuals. Our diverse backgrounds, unique characteristics and love for the game are all what make us a special team. The trials and successes that we have experienced in our lives up until this point will be used to propel us forward this year. Striving to be better than we have ever been in both athletics and academics is important to us all. I am proud to be on a team where progression is a key focus."

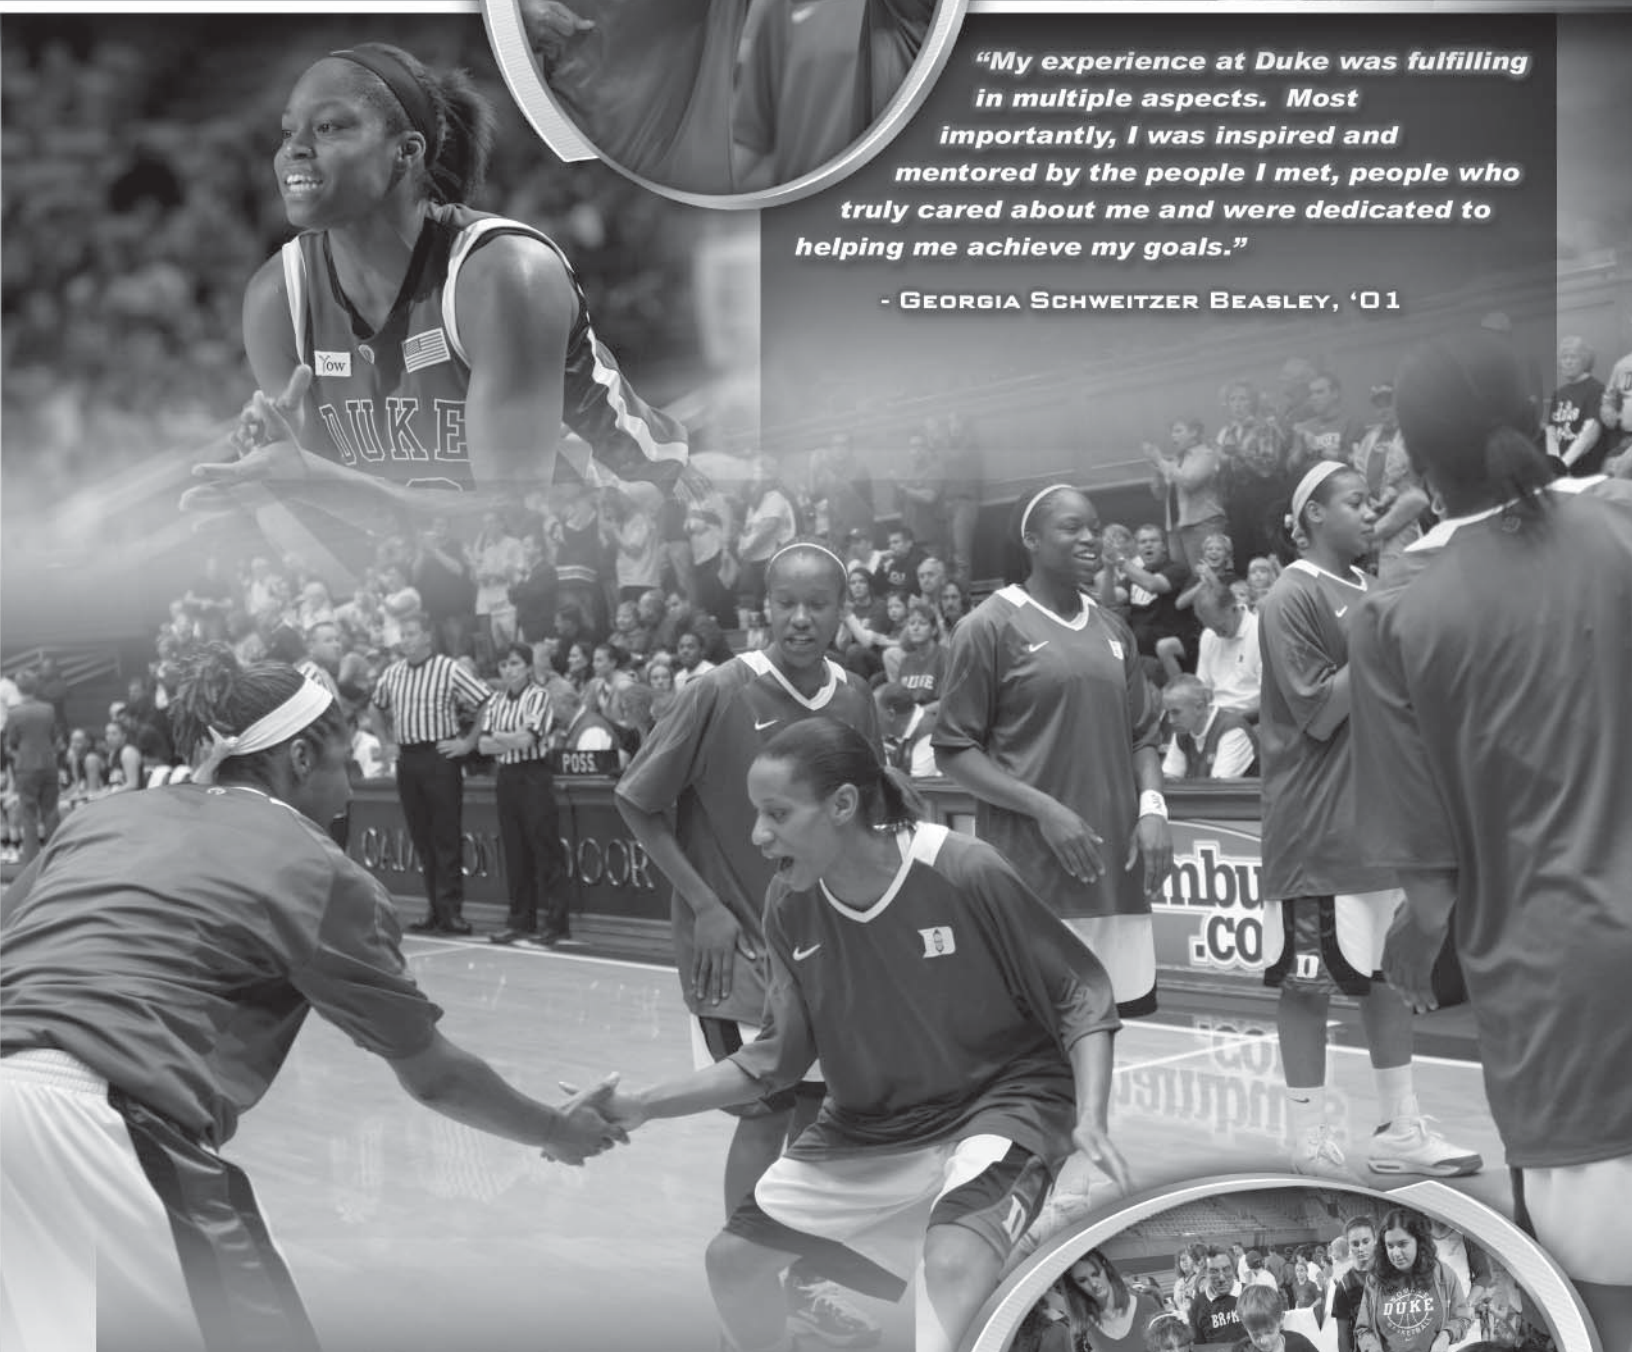

- SENIOR BRIDGETTE MITCHELL

"My experience at Duke was fulfilling in multiple aspects. Most importantly, I was inspired and mentored by the people I met, people who truly cared about me and were dedicated to helping me achieve my goals."

- GEORGIA SCHWEITZER BEASLEY, '01

"I grew so much here. The best decision I've ever made was to come to Duke. I think back on it and it was just an awesome experience."

COACHING STAFF

- Two different coaches who have been a head coach during their career
- The coaching staff has advanced to a combined 50 NCAA Tournaments, 12 NCAA Final Fours, won three NCAA Championships and won 16 conference championships over their careers

"Our coaching staff is diverse and has multiple skill sets. We are very good at developing players and developing teams."

- JOANNE P. MCCALLIE

"The coaching staff is incredible at Duke. They are always there for you and they are constantly willing to help. They are all so knowledgeable about the game and about life, which makes it easy to go to them for almost anything."

- SOPHOMORE KATHLEEN SCHEER

"Our coaching staff is awesome! We have Coach Brown (a.k.a The Basketball Guru), who knows everything about all opponents, the energetic Coach Trisha, the clever motivator Coach Sam and the passionate Coach P. With these great coaches who are willing to help each player get better, there is no limit to what we can do."

- SENIOR BRIDGETTE MITCHELL

"There is nothing that can compare to the enthusiasm Coach P. brings to her program. She cares about her players and staff as if we were a part of her family. The focus she brings to the program is long-term growth in everyone and pursuing greatness."

- ASSISTANT COACH SAMANTHA WILLIAMS ON COACH P

VISION

BLUE DEVIL BASKETBALL

"Every day is a growing day. Everyone wants to know, 'What are you going to do for us today.' My goals for our program are long-term. Winning championships, but that's not only what I mean. I mean becoming a championship program repeatedly, and we will do that with passion and enthusiasm. I believe there are absolutely no limits for what we can do at Duke. And so I look at our women, I look at our focus, and I look at our commitment, and all we have to do is keep working every single day by objective. Keep working hard every single day in aspiring to the highest level of academic and athletic excellence. I think for the long term, into perpetuity, we can take the Duke Basketball Family to an unmatched level of something incredibly special."

- JOANNE P. MCCALLIE

THE TRAVELING BLUE DEVILS

"I love the traveling we get to do at Duke. Growing up and playing AAU basketball, I had a little brother who played AAU right behind me as well so we didn't have the time or the money sometimes to take those nice trips with our family. Having the opportunity to have my mom, my brother and my sister come with me to Mexico and to the Virgin Islands, it's great. It's so much fun and it's a time that you can relax but still play great teams. I love the opportunity to be able to do those things."

- SENIOR JOY CHEEK

"I think it's amazing what student-athletes get today and of course they work very hard to earn it. Our students are at the elite level and they get the elite level of travel to experience different cultures and see different things. They also receive that bonding time on road trips. There is a lot of expectation because we work very hard but we also receive a great deal -- having a humble nature is important in achieving the highest level."

- JOANNE P. MCCALLIE

TELEVISION

ESPN
ESPN 2

"The television exposure at Duke to me just makes the world smaller. As a Duke student-athlete, our women are seen all around the world. I just think the East Coast is the way to go in getting maximum exposure on many different networks. We certainly appreciate everything that ESPN does for women's basketball. I'm always amazed at how I'm approached in airports and people talk about our team and players on a first name basis – that is because of the excellent television coverage."

- JOANNE P. McCALLIE

- Eight regular season contests to be aired in 2009-10
- Duke was featured on television 16 different times in 2008-09
- Over the last 11 years, the Blue Devils have been on television 162 times
- Joanne P. McCallie was a color commentator with the Detroit Shock from 2003-06

Duke continues to receive national media attention. Each year the Blue Devils earn articles in national newspapers, magazines and over the internet, as well as extensive local and national television attention.

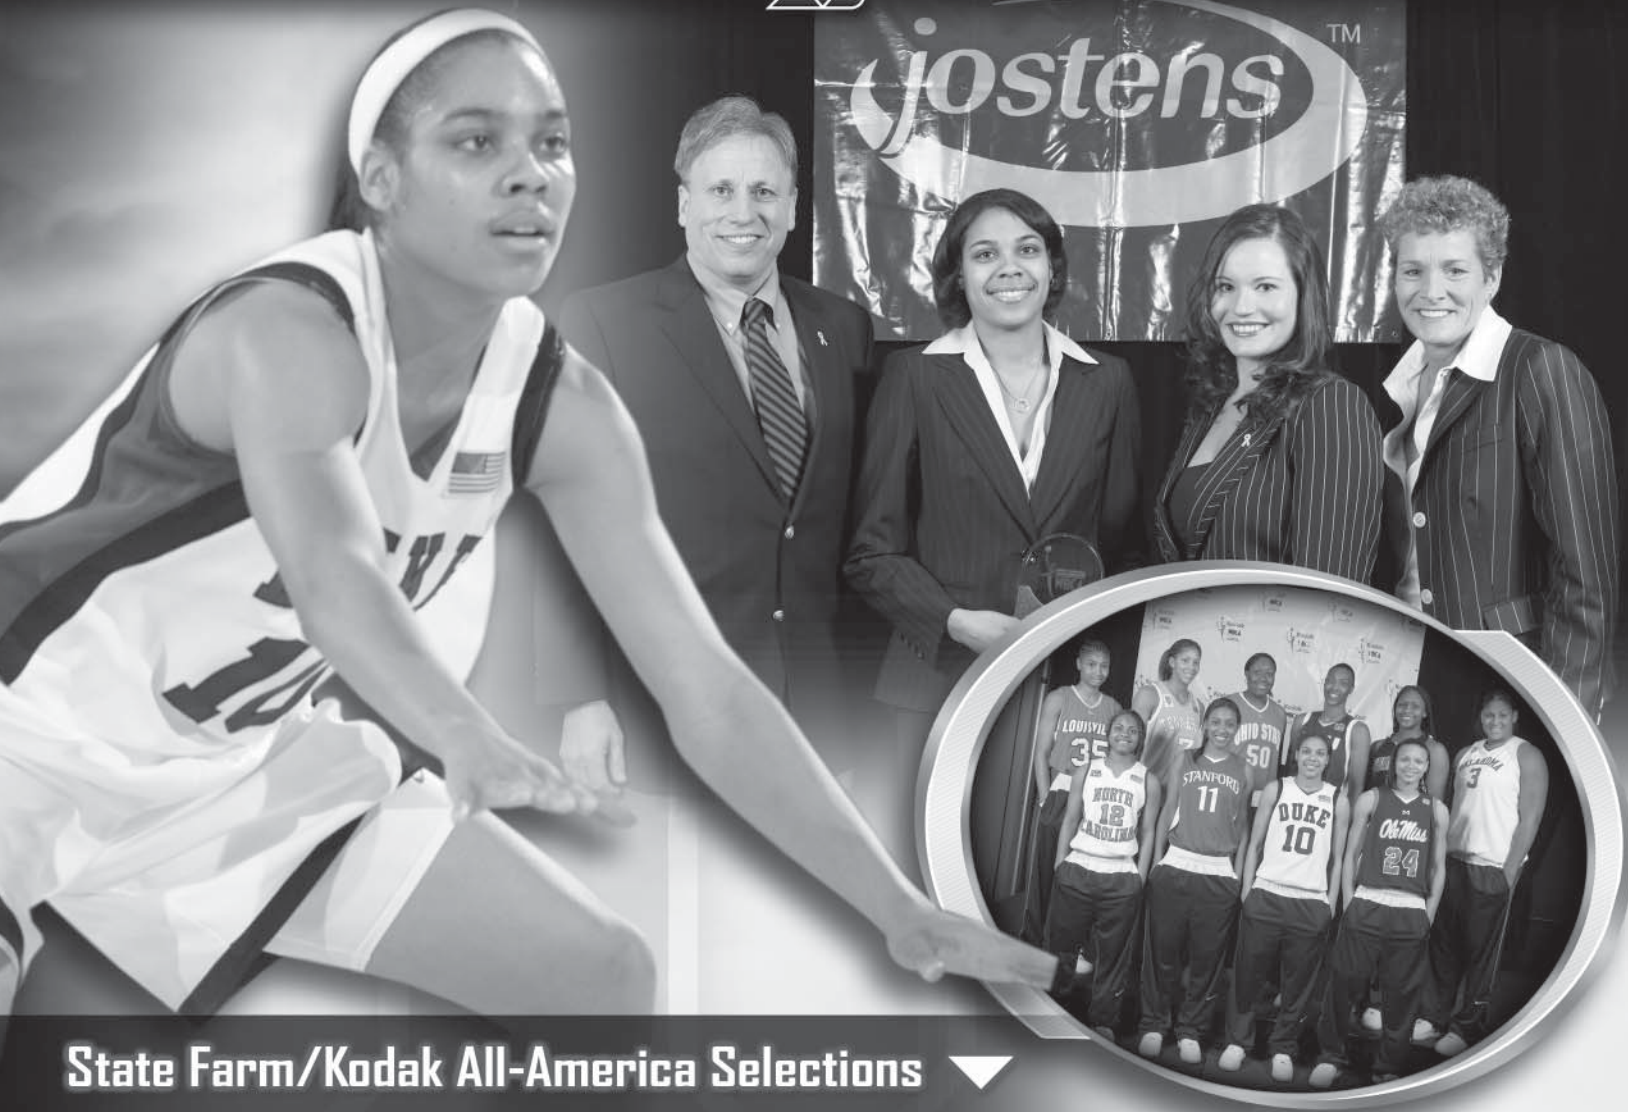

ESPN also continues to make the trip to Durham each winter to film interviews and have photo shoots in preparation for its NCAA Tournament coverage.

Former Duke stars Lindsey Harding and Abby Waner have also served as on-camera talent for selected ESPN and ESPNU events.

Lindsey Harding, 2007

Alana Beard became the first Duke women's basketball player in school history to earn National Player of the Year accolades in 2003. Beard earned the Victor Award and ESPN.com National Player of the Year, after averaging 22.0 points, 6.9 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 2.8 steals and 1.3 blocks as a junior.

In 2004, Beard was named winner of the State Farm Wade Trophy, the inaugural Wooden Award, ESPN.com, Associated Press and USBWA National Player of the Year honors, after posting averages of 19.7 points, 5.4 rebounds, 3.9 assists and 2.4 steals.

Since 1999, Duke has registered at least one player on the Kodak All-America squad every year except two. Michele VanGorp earned the first Kodak selection for Duke in 1999 and since then Georgia Schweitzer, Beard, Iciss Tillis and Monique Currie and Lindsey Harding have each been selected.

VanGorp averaged 16.9 points, 5.5 rebounds, 1.1 assists and 1.0 blocks in 1999 as the Blue Devils advanced to the NCAA Final Four and ACC Championship game for the first time in school history. She played a huge role in defeating the three-time defending NCAA Champion Tennessee to advance to the Final Four.

In 2001, Schweitzer guided Duke to a 30-4 record and a trip to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, while averaging 14.1 points, 4.7 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 1.5 steals. She hit a then school-record 65 three-pointers on the season.

Currie was the runner-up for numerous National Player of the Year awards in 2004-05 and challenged for a second straight season in 2005-06.

In 2006-07, Lindsey Harding was named Naismith and ESPN.com National Player of the Year after averaging 13.6 points, 4.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.5 steals. She helped guide Duke to a perfect 29-0 mark in the regular season, becoming the first ACC squad and 14th team in NCAA history to go undefeated in the regular season.

Harding was also selected the inaugural winner of the WBCA National Defensive Player of the Year award. Game in and game out she guarded the opponent's best scorer and held many of the top players in the nation under their scoring averages.

Also in 2006-07, senior Alison Bales was a finalist for the State Farm Wade Trophy as she blocked 151 shots, averaged 11.9 points, 7.8 rebounds and 4.4 blocks on the season. The 151 blocked shots was the second-most in NCAA history.

Duke was the only team in Division I to have at least one representative on each of the Kodak All-America teams from 2001-07.

RETIRED JERSEYS

On Jan. 24, 2004, Alana Beard became the first women's basketball player at Duke to have her jersey retired. The number 20 will hang from the rafters in Cameron Indoor Stadium and won't be worn again by a Blue Devil.

A sellout crowd of 9,314 packed Cameron Indoor Stadium to view the ceremony in a contest versus Tennessee. Beard, a native of Shreveport, La., joined the 11 men's basketball players who have had their jerseys retired.

In attendance along with Alana were her parents LeRoy and Marie Beard.

Over her career, Beard was the 2002-03 and 2003-04 National Player of the Year, was a three-time ACC Player of the Year, three-time Kodak All-America, three-time Associated Press All-America, four-time All-ACC Defensive selection and we could go on and on...

Beard left Duke scoring an amazing 2,687 points, which is more than any women's player in Duke history. For her career, Beard registered averages of 19.8 points, 5.8 rebounds, 3.7 assists, 3.0 steals and hit 52.7 percent of her field goals.

Over the four years, she was selected ACC Player of the Week an ACC-record 18 times, which is 11 more than any other player in the history of the ACC. Beard was also the first player in ACC history to be named ACC Player of the Year for three straight years.

BEARD

JANUARY 24, 2004

"I think I realize how special it is now. It's just an honor to have your jersey retired along with so many great players and to hang it in the rafters. The crowd support was awesome. I loved every minute of it. Just to see my parents standing out there with smiles going from ear to ear was the most enjoyable thing. If anything, I wanted it for my parents because they're so happy. You could see the expressions on their faces."

-TWO-TIME NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR ALANA BEARD

"When I first got here, no woman had had her jersey retired. I didn't come in and say, I'm going to go to Duke and get my jersey retired. I had different goals and never thought about it until my senior season with all these awards and all this talk. This is the biggest accomplishment I've ever had. Graduating was huge, of course, but this will be here forever. When Alana left and I looked up there and saw the jersey, it was a bit of an inspiration knowing that she changed history. I would love it if another player comes through and says, Alana Beard did this, Lindsey Harding did this - two different players, but both found a way to impact this program - and provide inspiration to future Duke players. It's a pretty cool feeling and it's definitely an honor."

-2007 NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR LINDSEY HARDING

When Lindsey Harding arrived at Duke, no Blue Devil had ever had the honor of a retired jersey. She went on to watch Alana Beard's jersey be hung in the rafters in 2004 and wanted to have hers next to Beard's one day.

This dream became a reality on Jan. 20, 2008, as Harding's jersey was raised among the other great Duke Basketball players at halftime of the N.C. State game.

In attendance along with Harding was her father, Michael Harding, her mom Lillian Andrews and her stepmom Carlotta Harding.

Over her career, Harding scored 1,298 points, posted a school-record 579 assists, 565 rebounds and 261 steals.

Harding became only the second Duke player (Alana Beard) and sixth ACC player in league history to notch over 1,000 points, 500 assists, 500 rebounds and 250 steals over their career.

As a senior, Harding earned the Naismith Award and ESPN.com National Player of the Year, while also taking home the inaugural Defensive Player of the Year award from the WBCA.

A first team All-America as a senior, Harding also won the Nancy Lieberman Award as the nation's top point guard, won the ACC Player of the Year, ACC Defensive Player of the Year and earned the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award.

THE DUKE DIFFERENCE

THE MISSION OF DUKE UNIVERSITY

James B. Duke's founding Indenture of Duke University directed the members of the University to "provide real leadership in the educational world" by choosing individuals of "outstanding character, ability and vision" to serve as its officers, trustees and faculty; by carefully selecting students of "character, determination and application;" and by pursuing those areas of teaching and scholarship that would "most help to develop our resources, increase our wisdom, and promote human happiness."

To these ends, the mission of Duke University is to provide a superior liberal education to undergraduate students, attending not only to their intellectual growth but also to their development as adults committed to high ethical standards and full participation as leaders in their communities; to prepare future members of the learned professions for lives of skilled and ethical service by providing excellent graduate and professional education; to advance the frontiers of knowledge and contribute boldly to the international community of scholarship; to promote an intellectual environment built on a commitment to free and open inquiry; to help those who suffer, cure disease, and promote health, through sophisticated medical research and thoughtful patient care; to provide wide ranging educational opportunities, on and beyond our campuses, for traditional students, active professionals and life-long learners using the power of information technologies; and to promote a deep appreciation for the range of human difference and potential, a sense of the obligations and rewards of citizenship, and a commitment to learning, freedom and truth.

By pursuing these objectives with vision and integrity, Duke University seeks to engage the mind, elevate the spirit, and stimulate the best effort of all who are associated with the University; to contribute in diverse ways to the local community, the state, the nation and the world; and to attain and maintain a place of real leadership in all that we do.

At Duke University, student-athletes are awarded the best possible college experience with a first-rate combination of academics and athletics and have accepted the task of upholding the strong traditions put forth by their predecessors.

DUKE

UNIVERSITY

- JUNIOR JASMINE THOMAS

- Duke University is an independent, comprehensive, non-sectarian research university that traces its roots to 1838, when it was established as Union Institute in Randolph County, North Carolina. Through the support of the Duke family and others, in 1892 the school – renamed Trinity College – was moved to Durham on what is now East Campus.

- In 1924, Trinity College, a long-time beneficiary of Duke family generosity, became the nucleus of Duke University. With $21 million provided by James B. Duke as a memorial to his father, Washington Duke and the donation of land by Julian S. Carr, West Campus was created and East Campus was rebuilt.

- Today, the Georgian architecture of East Campus and the Gothic-styled West Campus are part of a 9,350-acre campus that includes two undergraduate schools – Trinity college of Arts and Sciences and the Pratt School of Engineering – as well as eight graduate and professional schools, the world-renowned Duke University Medical Center, the 7,900-acre Duke Forest, and the beautiful 55-acre Sarah P. Duke Gardens.

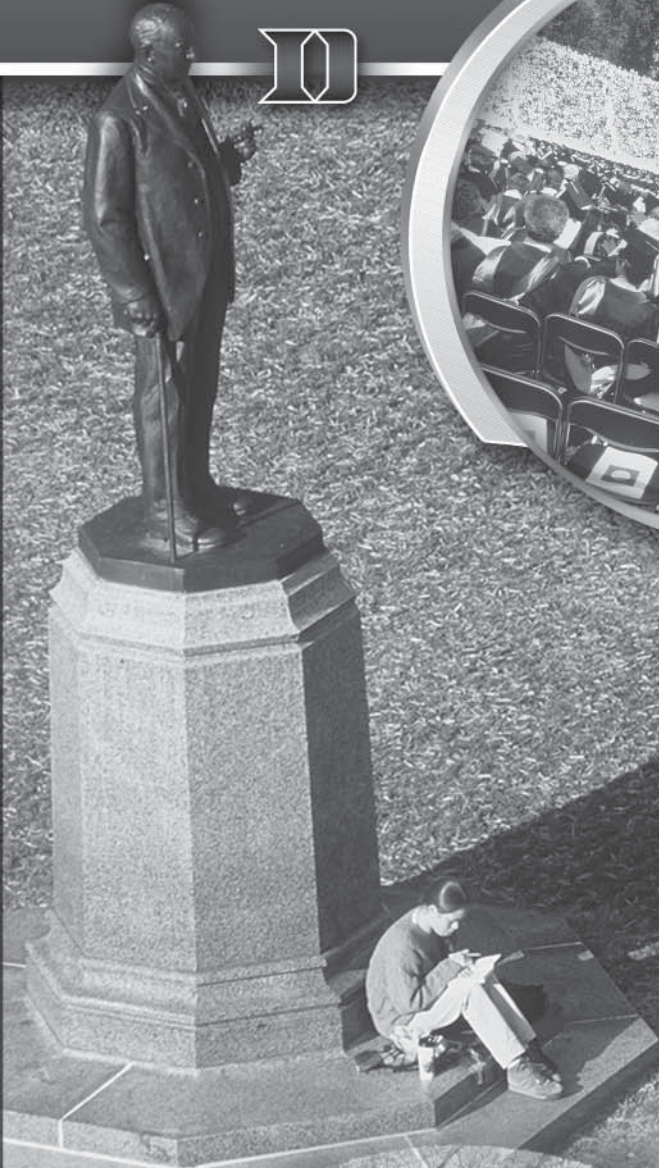

- Duke offers one of the most dynamic undergraduate academic experiences in the world. There are many different choices with majors, minors, certificate programs, Focus clusters and first-year seminars. The Duke education is structured and flexible, classic and contemporary, theoretical and realistic. Come with an open and curious mind, a readiness to challenge and to be challenged, and a willingness to take chances.

Washington Duke
Inn & Golf Club

• Open to the public since 1957, the Duke Golf Club has been ranked the top golf course in the triangle for four consecutive years. The venue hosted the NCAA Men's Golf Championship in 2001.

"I love Durham as it has an interesting blend of people. The arrival of the Durham Performing Arts Center (DPAC) is absolutely fantastic. One of the most powerful things I have done since I've been at Duke is seeing the Color Purple at the DPAC. Durham has a lot of big city things, yet it has an incredible small city feel. There is an authenticity about Durham and my family really enjoys living here."

- JOANNE P. MCCALLIE

In 2002, Employment Review Magazine ranked “The Triangle” area of Durham, Chapel Hill and Raleigh as the number one place in America to live and work. Money Magazine made the same selection in 1994.

• Brightleaf Square, shown below, in downtown Durham is a turn-of-the-century tobacco warehouse renovated as a unique shopping, dining and entertainment district.

• Located in the heart of North Carolina’s rolling Piedmont region, Durham stands out as a gem among southern cities. Through the years, the city has evolved from a tobacco and textile town into an international center for medicine, scholarship, biotechnology and electronics.

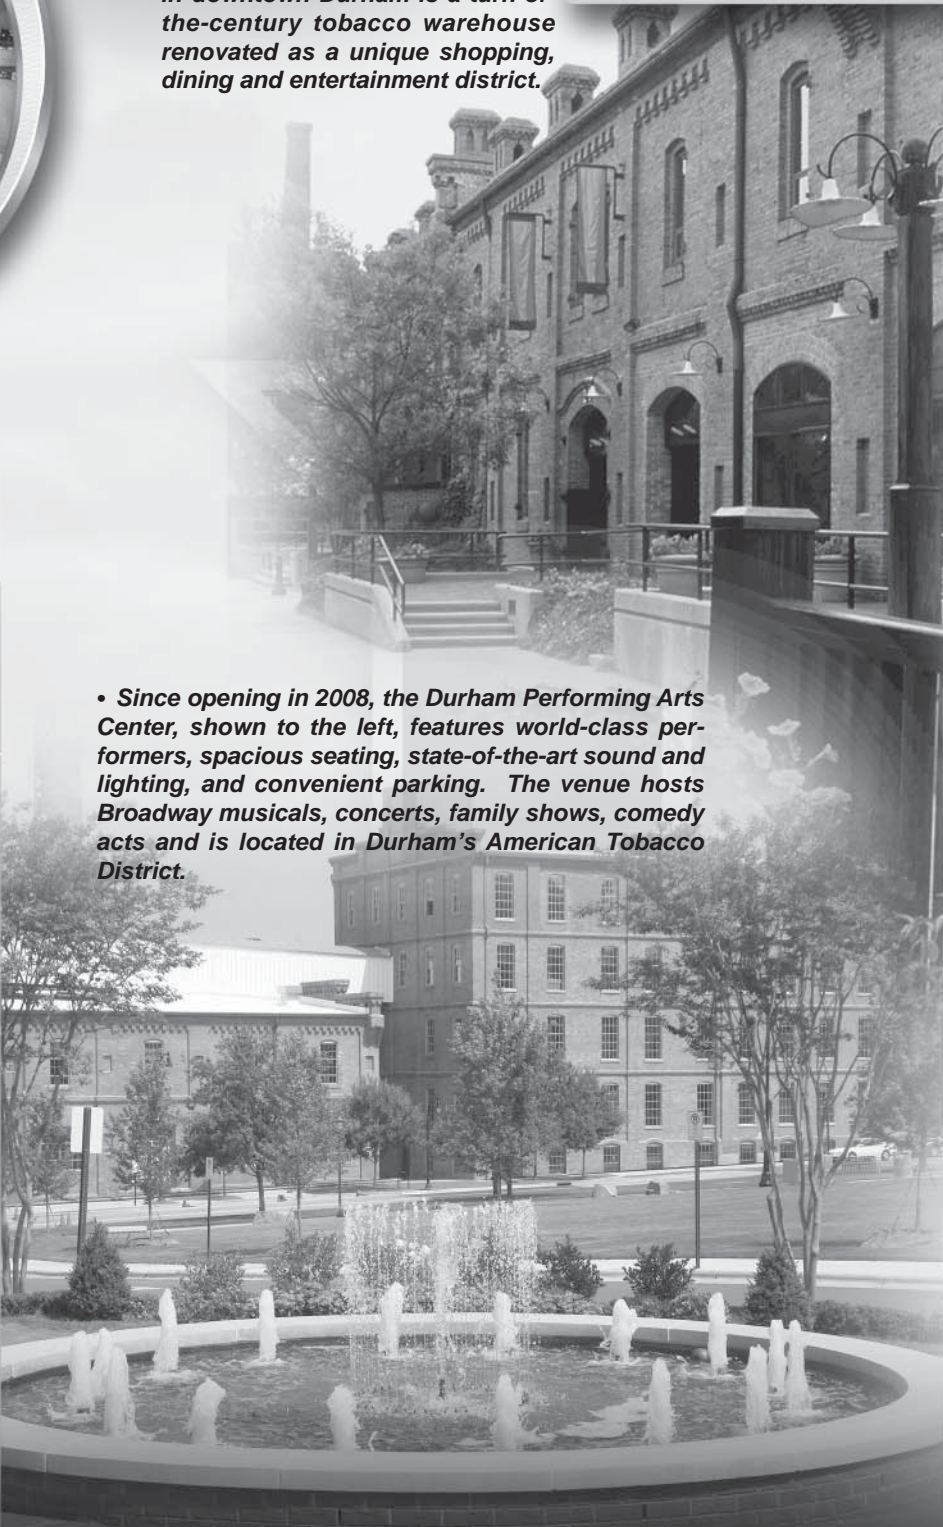

• Founded in 1853, Durham is widely recognized for its diversity. Originally a manufacturing center, the city now is known for excellence in medicine, education, research and industry. The wide range of activities available in the area lends the city a multifaceted appeal that strikes even first-time visitors.

• Durham has a natural appeal as well, characterized by 98,000 acres of hardwood and evergreen forests including the only remaining old growth Piedmont bottomland forests and 7,800 acres of cropland. Hills and dales, meandering rivers and streams, several lakes, 26 rare plant species and several rare species of birds and animals can also be found here.

• With 187,000 residents in the one-city county, Durham is the fourth-largest city in North Carolina. It is ideally located on the large and small scale. Within the immediate area it stands as the pinnacle of the “Triangle” region of North Carolina, a metropolitan population of 1,000,000 people that includes Chapel Hill to the south and west and Raleigh, the state capital, to the south and east. On a regional level, this area is the primary center of culture, sports, education and government between Washington, D.C., and Atlanta.

• With excellent sports and cultural activities in the area, Durham is a fun place to be. People from all walks of life — academic, industrial, professional, agricultural — blend to provide a warm, rich sense of hospitality and diversity.

NORTH CAROLINA

FIRST IN FLIGHT

From the mountains to the west and the beaches of the Atlantic Ocean to the east, North Carolina's landscape is as diverse — and beautiful — as any state in the nation.

Millions of tourists come to North Carolina each year to take advantage of all the state has to offer.

- North Carolina is a state of diversity — diversity in its population, in its economic production and in its beautiful scenery. According to the 2000 census, North Carolina was the home to more than eight million people of many nationalities.

- Known for its major production of tobacco, North Carolina is also a major producer of textiles and furniture, fueled by the thousands of acres of forests that cover the state. Among its other leading products are broilers, hogs, turkeys, greenhouse products, sweet potatoes, corn, soybeans, peanuts and eggs. In addition, there are hundreds of coastal fisheries that yield shrimp, menhaden and crabs as the primary catches.

- The scenery throughout the state is diverse and beautiful. From the mountains to the west and the beaches adjoining the Atlantic Ocean to the east, North Carolina is one of the nation's most picturesque states. Some of the major attractions in the state include the Great Smoky Mountains, the Blue Ridge National Parkway, the Cape Hatteras and Cape Lookout National Seashores, the Wright Brothers National Memorial at Kitty Hawk, Guilford Courthouse and Moores Creek National Military Parks. This scenery, enhanced by a mild climate with enough rainfall to assist with the state's abundant greenery, attracts millions of visitors who come to North Carolina annually to take advantage of its clean and uncluttered beaches, its string of forests and the mountain ranges in the western part of the state.

- In recent years, North Carolina has become a favorite place for the entertainment industry. Some of the television shows and movies filmed in North Carolina include Cast Away (2001), The Green Mile (1999), Dawson's Creek (1997-2003), Kiss the Girls (1997), I Know What You Did Last Summer (1997), Forrest Gump (1998), The Fugitive (1993), The Last of the Mohicans (1992), Sleeping with the Enemy (1991), Bull Durham (1988) and Dirty Dancing (1987).

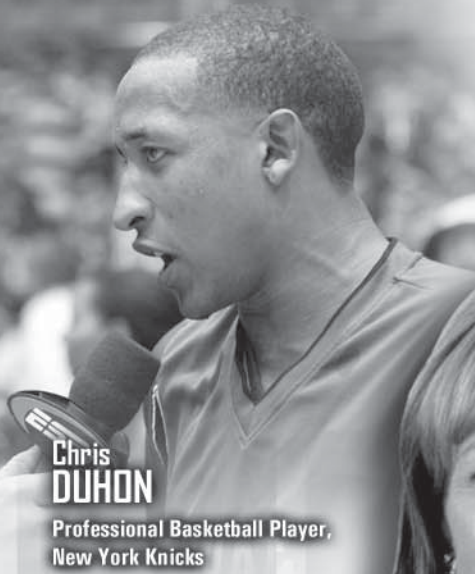

"North Carolina is one of the most beautiful states I have ever had the privilege of being in. I have so much more to do in getting to know North Carolina whether it's the mountains or the ocean. Being at Bald Head Island this summer for us was incredible. It's exactly what you would dream of. It's beautiful, it has city, it has country, and I just love it."

“Ten years ago, Duke Women’s Basketball experienced a program changing event as we went to our first-ever NCAA Final Four. This team changed the face of our program and an entire weekend was dedicated in honor of the players, coaches, administrators and support staff who were a part of the journey. Naz Medhanie, Payton Black, Hilary Howard, Nicole Erickson, Janee Hayes, Peppi Browne, Krista Gingrich, Georgia Schweitzer, Rochelle Parent and myself were reunited to celebrate and remember the 1998-99 season. Having everyone back on campus together and being introduced to the crowd in Cameron during half-time of our Georgia Tech game was a special time for all of us!”

In 2008, the Blue Devils held an alumni reunion weekend which featured 70 former players, staff, managers and family come back to Durham to support the Duke women's basketball program.

"The 1999 reunion brought back a rush of great memories. Being together with old friends to watch our victory over Tennessee in the Regional Final was really fun. I had a great time reconnecting with former teammates and retelling old stories!"

Duke has registered six first round WNBA Draft selections since 2004 -- Lindsey Harding (1), Alana Beard (2), Monique Currie (3), Alison Bales (9), Chante Black (10) and Iciss Tillis (11).

Alison Bales

Duke has been a springboard for student-athletes going from Durham to the professional ranks after graduation. From playing overseas, in the American Basketball League (ABL) and the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA), the Blue Devils have been well-represented.

Kira Orr was the first Duke player to be drafted professionally in the ABL in 1997 by the Seattle Reign in the fourth round, while Michele Van Gorp was the second player from the class of 1999 selected in the 1999 WNBA draft. Van Gorp was picked in the second round with the 18th overall pick by the New York Liberty.

In 2000, Peppi Browne was drafted by the Charlotte Sting in the WNBA with the 43rd overall pick in the third round. Due to a knee injury she never played for the Sting.

For the third consecutive year, Duke had a player picked in the 2001 WNBA draft as Georgia Schweitzer was selected in the second round by the Miami Sol with the 21st overall selection. Schweitzer was then traded to the Minnesota Lynx where she played in 70 games in three years.

In the 2004 WNBA Draft, Duke was represented in the first round with two players being picked-- Alana Beard second by the Washington Mystics and Iciss Tillis 11th by the Detroit Shock. Beard became the highest player drafted from the Atlantic Coast Conference and Duke was the only school to have two players drafted in the first round.

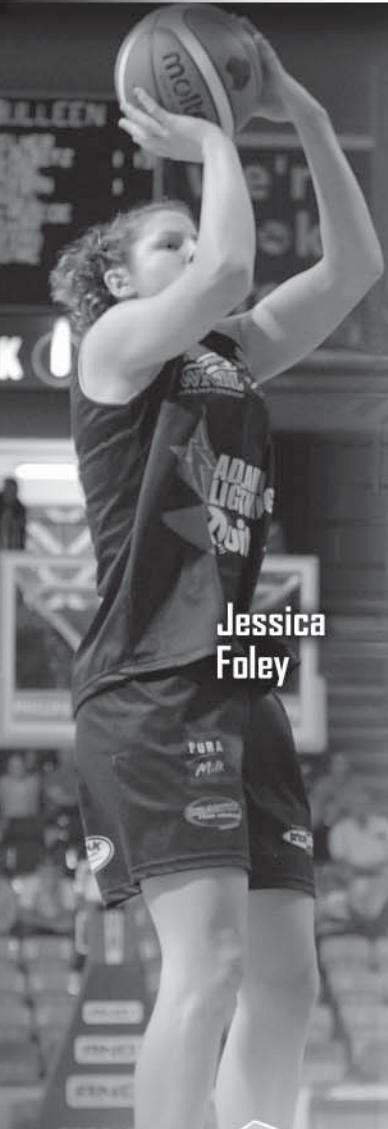

Beard has gone on to be named to the WNBA All-Star team three straight years.

Monique Currie was selected third in 2006 by the Charlotte Sting, Mistie Bass was 21st by the Phoenix Mercury before being traded to the Houston Comets, while Jessica Foley was picked 38th by Indiana.

Currie came out in 2006 and was named to the WNBA's All-Rookie Team, after averaging 10.5 points and 3.9 rebounds for the Charlotte Sting. Currie was traded in 2007 to her hometown team -- Washington Mystics.

In 2007, Lindsey Harding became the ACC's first No. 1 pick in the WNBA Draft as she was selected by the Phoenix Mercury, before being traded to the Minnesota Lynx.

Harding was on her way to being named WNBA Rookie of the Year in 2007 before suffering a torn ACL.

Also in 2007, Alison Bales was picked ninth by the Indiana Fever and ended up playing in 17 contests. The Fever advanced to the semifinals of the WNBA playoffs. Bales was traded to the Atlanta Dream midway through the 2008 campaign.

In 2008, Wanisha Smith was taken with 13th pick the second round and 27th overall by the New York Liberty.

Last year, Chante Black was selected with the 10th overall selection by the Connecticut Sun and went on to start eight contests in her rookie season. Abby Waner was also selected in the 2009 draft by the New York Liberty with the 21st selection in the second round.

Here is a list of the overseas players from past and present--

INTERNATIONAL HOOPS

Former Duke three-time All-America Alana Beard (above) is currently in the pool of players who are selected to represent the USA Women's Basketball Senior National Team.

Beard started eight of 11 contests in the 2006 spring training session and led USA to a 10-1 mark. She led the squad with 25 steals and 25 assists as she played the second-most minutes on the team.

In the 2006 Opals World Challenge, Beard started all five games as the USA squad posted a 4-1 record and finished in first place. She averaged 8.6 points, 4.0 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.9 steals in the challenge.

She also played in the 2007 Tour of Italy and averaged 8.0 points in two contests before being injured.

Duke freshman Allison Vernerey is a member of the French National team, after being added to the roster in January of 2009.

Vernerey played for France in the U19 World Championship for Women in Bangkok, Thailand in the summer of 2009. She saw action in all nine games as her team notched a 4-5 record. Vernerey averaged 6.2 points, 6.8 rebounds and 1.2 blocks. In the final game, she posted 15 rebounds, nine points, two blocks and one steal in 26 minutes versus Lithuania.

Former Duke National Player of the Year selections -- Lindsey Harding and Alana Beard -- are seen above to the left playing against each other during the USA Basketball Tour of Italy in April of 2007. The duo traveled to Italy and posted a 4-0 mark in those contests. Harding started two of four games and led the squad with eight assists. Beard played in only two games due to injury.

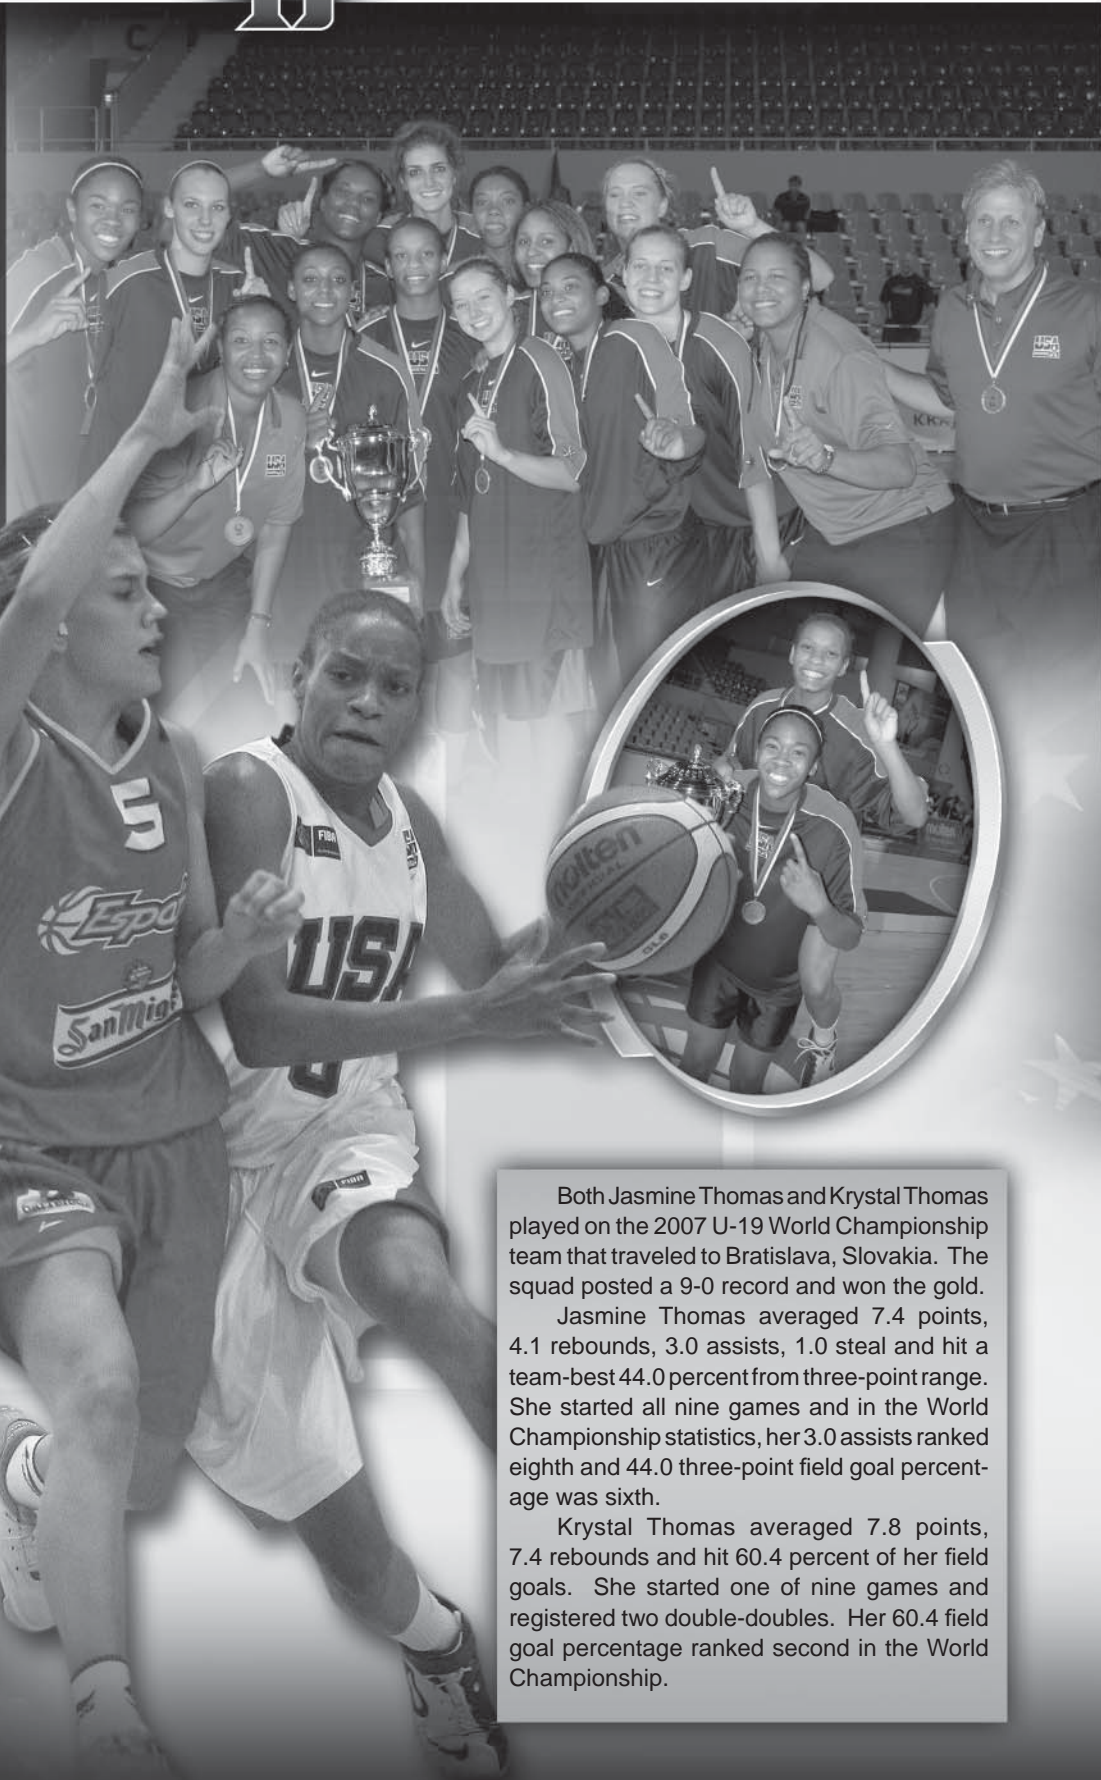

Both Harding and Beard competed for a spot in the 2008 Olympics in China and are currently in the National Team pool who are training for the 2010 FIBA World Championship.

The USA Basketball Senior National team trained at Cameron Indoor Stadium for two weeks in the fall of 2006 as they prepared for the Opals World Challenge.

The Blue Devils have been a mainstay with USA Basketball over the years. In this decade, Duke has featured 20 representatives on USA Basketball squads as players and coaches, the most of any team in the nation.

In 2007 a total of four Blue Devils earned gold medals, tied for the most of any team in the nation (Tennessee).

Both Jasmine Thomas and Krystal Thomas played on the 2007 U-19 World Championship team that traveled to Bratislava, Slovakia. The squad posted a 9-0 record and won the gold.

Jasmine Thomas averaged 7.4 points, 4.1 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 1.0 steal and hit a team-best 44.0 percent from three-point range. She started all nine games and in the World Championship statistics, her 3.0 assists ranked eighth and 44.0 three-point field goal percentage was sixth.

Krystal Thomas averaged 7.8 points, 7.4 rebounds and hit 60.4 percent of her field goals. She started one of nine games and registered two double-doubles. Her 60.4 field goal percentage ranked second in the World Championship.

Duke and USA Basketball have developed an excellent relationship over the years as many Blue Devils have had the privilege to wear USA on their jerseys.

Jessica Foley, Australia

Growing up in Australia, 2006 graduate Jessica Foley has played on numerous Australian National teams since 1999 and is currently a member of the Senior National team, the 'Price Attack' Opals.

In 2007, Foley played in the World University games and led the squad to a gold medal, while averaging a team-best 16.6 points.

Over the summer of 2005, Foley was selected to play for the World University Games team and the 'Price Attack' Opals squad, but was unable to participate due to an injury.

Foley now plays professionally in Australia for Adelaide in the WNBL.

Duke University's Cameron Indoor Stadium, the crown jewel of college basketball's classic venues, has undergone a series of improvements over the summer of 2009 to enhance the gameday experience, while also retaining the revered qualities of the facility as it approaches its 70th year as the home of the Blue Devils.

In front of the undergrads will be a new state-of-the-art press table featuring 90-feet of LED (light emitting diode) technology. The new press row will improve crowding in the first row of the student section and features two aisles that will help fans and media members in and out of their seats at halftime and after the game. One of the most visible enhancements came in the upper bowl of Cameron where all 5,649 seats were painted Duke blue in conjunction with an extensive pressure washing of the seats, concrete, railing and tunnels.

Each of the distinctive brass railings that surround the arena will be refurbished prior to the beginning of the 2009-10 basketball season.

“The Cameron crazies are hilarious, very smart and difference makers for us on the court. They are the best in the world and take great pride in what they do.”

- JOANNE P. McCALLIE

Cameron Indoor Stadium has been a perfect home for the Duke University basketball program. Conceived on the back of a matchbook cover and renovated in the late 1980s at a cost of $2 million, Cameron has been the site of 718 Blue Devil victories.

It was on the cover of a book of matches that Eddie Cameron and Wallace Wade first sketched out the plan for Duke's Indoor Stadium in 1935. The story may be a myth (the matchbook has never been found), but then the Indoor Stadium that emerged from those first scribbles lends itself to the propagation of myths.

For 69 years, spectators, players and coaches have understood the unique magic of the Indoor Stadium. The building was dedicated to longtime Duke athletic director and basketball coach Eddie Cameron, a legend in his own right, on Jan. 22, 1972. An unranked Duke team upset then third-ranked North Carolina, 76-74, after Robby West drove the length of the court to hit a pull-up jumper to win the game.

It's the intimacy of the arena, the unique seating arrangement that puts the wildest fans right down on the floor with the players. It's the legends that were made there, the feeling of history being made with every game. And it's something more than either of these, something indescribable that comes from the building itself. No one who has experienced it will ever forget it.

The Stadium was ready to be opened by the first of the new year in 1940. The final cost: $400,000 (which Duke finished paying after the football team won the Sugar Bowl in 1945).

Duke's new Indoor Stadium was officially opened on Jan. 6, 1940. Touring the building before the evening ceremony and subsequent game, local city officials were "speechless." Said Chamber of Commerce President Col. Marion B. Fowler, "It is so colossal and so wonderful ... This building will not only be an asset to the university, but to the entire community as well." Chamber Secretary Frank Pierson concurred, "There are no superlatives for it."

The building was dedicated before a crowd of 8,000, the largest ever in the history of southern basketball. President William P. Few and Dean William H. Wannamaker presented the Stadium to the University. The Blue Devils beat the visiting Princeton Tigers that night, 36-27.

Renovations to the arena began in 1987. The lobbies and concourse were remodeled during the summer of 1987. Then, in 1988, work began on the interior of the arena. A new electronic scoreboard, new sound system and decorative wood paneling gave Cameron an updated look, while maintaining the original elegance.

The addition of 750 new student seats, increasing Cameron's capacity to 9,314, gave the Cameron crazies, the Duke students who have made a name for themselves as Duke's exceptional "Sixth Man," a little more room to practice the art of supporting their team creatively.

"Cameron Indoor Stadium is a tough place for us to play – it's an exciting environment. The students are so involved and you feel like everyone is right on top of you. That is a big advantage from a home-court perspective."

Home Sweet Home

Cameron Indoor Stadium celebrates its 70th season in 2009-10 as one of the greatest homecourts in all of college basketball.

Cameron has been a friendly home arena for the Duke women's basketball team over the last 34 seasons. The Blue Devils played the first two home games of their inaugural campaign, 1975-76, in the gym on East Campus, but moved over to Cameron for the third home game of that season and have played 439 home contests there since. The team heads into the 2009-10 campaign with a 336-107 (.759) all-time record at home. The Blue Devils posted a 20-game home ACC winning streak from 1997-2000.

BASKETBALL FACILITIES

"The Mike Krzyzewski Practice Facility is one of the most interesting, fascinating, and state of the art facilities in the country. Everything has been done so well. If I was a student-athlete, there is absolutely no better practice facility in which to come to, none."

- JOANNE P. McCALLIE

The Duke basketball program has one of the top facilities in the country, featuring the $15.2 million Michael W. Krzyzewski Center - Dedicated to Academic & Athletic Excellence and the Schwartz/Butters Athletic Center.

The Krzyzewski Center, which opened in February of 2008, is a first-class athletics complex designed to inspire, enhance and celebrate Duke University's extraordinary student-athletes. The three-story, 56,000-square-foot complex contains three vital components — the department's academic support center, a premier campus banquet space and a basketball training facility.

"It's a great building. It's not a good one, it's a great building," says the namesake, Mike Krzyzewski. "It's uplifting. Everybody — the players, the coaching staff, the support staff — when you walk into it, it makes you feel better."

The academic support center features extensive computer resources, classrooms, computers, tutoring and counseling rooms and a team study space, while the banquet facility can host more than 300 people with additional room in the outdoor plaza, which is highlighted by quiet seating areas and beautifully landscaped terrain. The academic center is open 24 hours a day for all student-athletes.

The basketball training area features two full-court practice areas, a world class weight and conditioning room, an alumni locker room and a state of the art theatre-style video room. There are also four baskets positioned around the sides of each court, giving the facility 12 total baskets.

The K Center is located next to Cameron Indoor Stadium and the Schwartz/Butters Athletic Center.

Complementing the Krzyzewski Center is the Schwartz/Butters Athletic Center. The building, which is adjacent to Cameron Indoor Stadium, was dedicated on April 15, 2000. It is named after Alan D. Schwartz, a former Duke baseball player and the current executive vice president of Bear Stearns and Companies, Inc., and Tom Butters, Duke's long-time athletics director.

The six-story building overlooks Blue Devil Plaza, an open grassy area that connects several of Duke's athletic facilities, including Cameron Indoor Stadium, Card Gym, the Wilson Student Recreation Center, the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center and Ambler Stadium. During basketball season, Blue Devil Plaza transforms into Krzyzewskiville, the tent village of hundreds of Duke students waiting to get into games at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

The Schwartz/Butters Athletic Center is the anchor of the vast athletics complex, housing the Duke Sports Hall of Fame in addition to new offices, locker rooms and player lounges for both the men's and women's basketball programs.

On the fourth floor, the women's basketball coaches and staff offices are located with easy and quick access to Cameron Indoor Stadium and the K Center.

The women's basketball locker room and lounge was renovated in the summer of 2007 and comes equipped with a jacuzzi, coaches locker room, coaches office, lounge, two big screen televisions, Nintendo Wii and a kitchen area. There are also training facilities and an equipment room with state-of-the-art equipment for the basketball team.

"The practice facility is magnificent and extremely well done -- it is the best in the country," said Joanne P. McCallie. "Pride, tradition and excellence come to mind, immediately, when I think about the K Center. This will give our student-athletes an opportunity to become great players at Duke. It is a celebration of excellence."

Both facilities, part of a $75 million athletic facilities renovation project at Duke, are perfect complements to historic Cameron Indoor Stadium and provide the Blue Devils with one of the finest complexes in all of college basketball. It is tangible evidence of the university's commitment to providing its student-athletes with top-notch facilities.

“Our facilities are phenomenal. The K Center is a great addition that allows us to become better athletes. Since we have 24-hour access, we can always go there to shoot and become better players.”

- SENIOR BRIDGETTE MITCHELL

“The K Center is incredible. It makes it very convenient to do extra work whether it's shooting, running on the treadmill, or lifting.”

- JUNIOR JASMINE THOMAS

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

"It's a lot of work but strength is critical. We are constantly trying to get stronger, quicker, faster, tougher and challenge ourselves. At this level, it really comes down to physical play, especially in the NCAA Tournament. The weight room is our friend and it allows us to prepare for the battles ahead."

- JOANNE P. MCGALLIE

"Coach Will is a critical part of the success of Duke Basketball. He is extremely dedicated to the development of each and every player, and he works incredibly hard at what he does."

- JUNIOR KRystal THOMAS

William Stephens
Associate Director of Strength & Conditioning
12th Year at Duke

Associate Director of Strength & Conditioning William Stephens is in his 12th season with the Duke Athletics program. He is the Head Strength & Conditioning Coordinator for Men's & Women's Basketball.

The 43-year-old is a native of Whiteville, N.C., and a 1987 graduate of N.C. Central University with a degree in criminal justice. He is an accomplished weightlifter, as he was a three-time state powerlifting champion from 1991 to 1993. He also held the state record in the deadlift (661 lbs.) and was a gold medal winner at the World Championships for Law Enforcement in 1994.

A member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Stephens has been a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) since 1996.

Stephens along with his wife Nancy and son P.J. (12), reside in Durham.

Jeff Howser
Speed & Conditioning Coach
10th Year at Duke

Former Atlantic Coast Conference track champion and All-America Jeff Howser is in his 10th season as Duke's speed and conditioning coach.

A 1971 graduate of Duke, Howser was a six-time ACC champion with the Blue Devils. Recently named an ACC 50th Anniversary top 50 athlete in indoor track, he went on to earn a bronze medal at the 1969 World Championships in the 110-meter high hurdles and was an alternate on the 1968 United States Olympic Team. Howser ran track on the international level from 1968-82, and was a four-time U.S. Olympic Trials qualifier and two-time U.S. Olympic Trials finalist.

Howser served previous track and field assistant coaching stints at Florida (1971-74), N.C. State (1974-77), Duke (1977-79 & 1989-90) and North Carolina (1979-80).

SPORTS MEDICINE

Led by nationally renowned physicians and certified athletic trainers, Duke's sports medicine program is widely considered one of the best in the nation. In essence, the mission of the sports medicine program at Duke is to combine the latest innovations and technology in injury recognition, prevention, treatment and performance enhancement with an outstanding collection of doctors, certified athletic trainers and other support personnel to give the Blue Devil student-athlete a quality experience while at Duke.

Duke student-athletes have access to some of the top doctors with vast experience in athletics at the college and professional levels, all of whom are affiliated with the Duke Sports Medicine Center. Dr. Claude T. Moorman III, former head team physician for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens, serves as the center's director and head team physician. A 1987 graduate from the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine, he returned to Duke after serving as the Director of Sports Medicine at the University of Maryland Medical Center from 1996-2001. Moorman, a Duke football letterman from 1980-82, heads the Sports Medicine Center staff, which also includes:

- Alison Toth, MD - Director, Duke Women's Sports Medicine Program; Assistant Professor of Surgery (Orthopaedics). Assistant team doctor for the NFL's New York Giants and the Iona College Gaels during the 2000-01 season. Toth, a New Fairfield, Conn., native, graduated from Yale in 1990, where she played varsity basketball. Toth was the 1994 Valedictorian of her medical school class. She completed her orthopaedic surgery residency at Duke University Medical Center in 2000, and her Sports Medicine and Shoulder Surgery fellowship at the Hospital for Special Surgery at the Weill Cornell Medical Center in New York City in 2001. She is in her ninth year as Team Physician for Duke Women's Athletics. Toth is also currently serving as the N.C. Central Orthopaedic Physician. The Duke Women's Sports Medicine Program is one of the first programs in the country dedicated to the care of active women.

- Debbie Squire, MD - Pediatric Physician in the Duke Children's Faculty Practice and attending physician with the Duke Sports Medicine Clinic; In her 32nd year at Duke and 26th as a team physician for the Duke women's basketball team. Squire, a Pittsburgh, Pa., native, graduated from Wheaton (Ill.) College and received her medical degree from Northwestern University. She completed her pediatric residency at Duke University Medical Center, where, during her year as chief resident and two years as Robert Wood Johnson Fellow, she served as a clinical fellow in sports medicine under the direction of Dr. Frank Bassett III, then team physician for Duke athletics. She is a founding member and former member of the Board of Directors of the American Medical Society of Sports Medicine (AMSSM) and served as President of the AMSSM from 1999- 2000.

- Jeffrey R. Bytomski, DO, FAOSM - Medical Team Physician. Bytomski completed a fellowship at the Duke University Sports Medicine Center in 2002. During the fellowship, he worked with the women's soccer and women's basketball teams. He was also the medical team physician for North Carolina Central University and Carolina Cobras (Arena Football). Now in his seventh year at Duke, Bytomski is a 1993 graduate of San Diego State University. He completed his medical training at Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine in 1998 and family medicine residency at Phoenix Baptist Hospital.

"The medical staff at Duke is incredible. It's always reassuring to know I'm being cared for by the best people at their given profession. Not only do they fix the problem but they follow you through a full recovery."

- FIFTH-YEAR SENIOR
KETURAH JACKSON

“It’s overwhelming the opportunity academically and medically here for our student-athletes. Our doctors are terrific. They have chosen to be here and to be the very best. You feel the pride of Duke within the medical staff and they have great respect for our student-athletes.”

- JOANNE P. McCALLIE

The Duke athletic training staff is headed by Dave Engelhardt, now in his 28th year at Duke, and Summer McKeehan, who is the head women’s basketball trainer.

McKeehan, now in her ninth year at Duke, works year-round with the Blue Devil women’s basketball program. She also assists with the Duke cheerleading program.

A 1998 graduate of Utah State with a degree in Exercise and Sports Science with an emphasis in sports psychology, McKeehan enters her fifth year with women’s basketball after serving as the trainer for the women’s soccer and track & field squads at Duke. McKeehan also received a Master’s in Sports Psychology in 2000 from the University of Utah.

Kerry Mullenix serves as the director of athletic rehabilitation in the Duke training room. He has a bachelor’s degree with an emphasis in athletic training from Nebraska in 1993 and a master’s degree in physical therapy from the Nebraska Medical Center in 1997. Prior to arriving at Duke in 1998, the Woodbine, Iowa, native worked at Jennie Edmundson Sports Medicine in Iowa and at Healthworks Rehabilitation Center.

Other certified athletic trainers on staff who assist in the care of Duke student-athletes include Hap Zazour, Jen McCollum, Joe Ferraro, Jose Fonseca, Kristi Hall, Nicole Gehrich, Nick Potter, Jennie Serenelli, Alan Duncan, Kyle Beatty and Emily Norcross.

Other facets of the sports medicine program include the very best training meals, monitored by sports nutritionist Franca Alphin, access to sports psychologists, and the ability to utilize the resources of the Duke Sports Medicine Center. Those resources include The Duke Sports Medicine Clinic, Michael Krzyzewski Human Performance Lab (K-Lab) and the Duke Sports Performance Program. Each program brings an important element to the care of Duke student-athletes.

In the summer of 2002, Duke opened its newest training room in the Yoh Football Center. It is a 5,500 square-foot facility, featuring extensive hydrotherapy system, rehabilitation and treatment areas. The hydrotherapy area includes a 10 x 20 multidepth rehabilitation pool featuring an underwater treadmill, an 8 x 8 chiller pool and an 8 x 8 warm whirlpool. The treatment area is highlighted by modern modalities and the latest technological equipment. Duke’s new rehabilitation equipment ensures constant monitoring and thoughtful progression through every stage of rehabilitation. An unweighted treadmill and Biodex muscle testing and rehabilitation equipment are also featured in Duke’s rehabilitation area.

An additional asset for the student-athletes is the Michael Krzyzewski Center for Athletic Excellence, which houses a state-of-the-art study center for all Duke student-athletes. The center opened in 2008 and includes a general study area along with computers, individual tutoring rooms, a classroom, resource room and staff offices, which will be open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

On The ACC Honor Roll

“Academics have to come first. You have to be focused about your academic work because, here at Duke, it is very serious. Student-athletes have to value learning. If you value learning and you are willing to work hard, you’re going to do absolutely great at Duke. You have to be a bit of a thinker and you can’t be afraid to be wrong. There is a culture here of learning, growing, and really strengthening yourself.”

In 2008-09, Duke led all ACC schools with eight selections to the ACC Honor Roll.

DUKE IN THE COMMUNITY

"Working in the community is critical because it makes basketball more than just a game. It allows us to connect with those people who support us throughout the year."

- JUNIOR KRYSTAL THOMAS

"It is very important for our program to extend to the community. We want our community to understand that we are their team. We are Durham's team as well as Duke's team."

- JOANNE P. McCALLIE

Head Coach Joanne P. McCallie and the Duke women's basketball team feel very strongly about making their presence felt in the community.

The Blue Devils have four major relationships in the surrounding area they help with each year -- The Ronald McDonald House, Duke Childrens Hospital, Duke Women's Health and the Emily Krzyzewski Center.

Duke is also involved with other community projects as well -- Durham Soup Kitchen, Camp Kaleidoscope, Read with the Blue Devils, Tutoring & Mentoring, School Days and many others.

For the past seven Christmas holidays, members of the women's basketball team have purchased gifts for families in need, wrapped the gifts and presented to the families prior to heading home for the holiday. It has provided gifts to those families that need help the most. This past year, the family came to Coach McCallie's house along with the team for dinner and were presented gifts.

- In addition to hosting several "Meet the Blue Devils" events on campus, the Department of Athletics community outreach efforts continue with its highly successful reading program entering its 16th year of existence in the Durham Public School System. Intended to aid area teachers by providing reading incentives for third and fourth graders in Durham, the program touches area youth.
- Verizon remains the title sponsor of the Read with the Blue Devils program. Verizon uses the Duke program as a model for other schools and organizations across the nation.
- Several members of the 2008-09 squad tutored children through a program in education service learning course they were taking. The student-athletes traveled to local elementary schools each week.

"We are trying to broaden the CNC Club and grow it for girls and boys. Kids today need back up, they need some help and we try to have a great time. We get the CNC Club members to games, get them excited about our team, allow them to meet our team, provide a pizza party and other neat things for them. Along the lines of fun, they receive philosophy on learning how to make the right choices from a young age into being a teenager. The program gives them an opportunity to see our student-athletes as role models because these are women who have made good choices."

TRUE BLUE GOLF CLASSIC

True Blue Golf Classic

The Duke Women's Basketball program held the second annual True Blue Golf Classic on Monday, Oct. 19, at the Duke University Golf Club. Head Coach Joanne P. McCallie, the women's basketball staff and members of the 2009-10 team were on hand as everyone enjoyed a day of golf and fun with friends, fans, and alumni. At the conclusion of the golf outing, there was a lunch and a silent auction. The silent auction included one-of-a-kind items, including autographs, as well as the chance to travel with this year's team to a road contest. The tournament was a success as it was completely sold out! For those interested in signing up, go to GoDuke.com and print off the brochure or call Lauren Rice at (919) 613-7571.

"The True Blue Golf Classic is an incredible way to pull together people who support our team and program. I love golf and I have been a golfer for quite some time now. Golf is an incredibly difficult sport and bringing people together on a golf course is more than just playing the game. It's that camaraderie, spending that time together, getting away from the office and getting to know our players away from their comfort. It is a great, healthy way to mix the following -- to promote the team, fundraise, and develop life long friendships."

"The ACC is the most incredible conference when you're talking about speed and athleticism. It is also very convenient with travel. The ACC is the neatest conference in terms of the mix of opportunities that students-athletes get. You're playing against the best, you're becoming the best, but yet you're in a conference that's manageable and helps you have more class time. I can't think of a better combination than the ACC."

- JOANNE P. MCCALLIE

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor. However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 57th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since its inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 113 national championships, including 60 in women's competition and 53 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 160 times in men's competition and 91 times in women's action.

Since 1977, when the league adopted women's basketball, a tradition of excellence was established. It is that tradition that provides motivation for all 12 member institutions to reach new heights.

The 2005-06 season marked the first time in NCAA history that a conference sent three teams to the same Final Four. The title game pitted an automatic ACC winner as second-seeded Maryland faced No. 1 seed Duke. The Terrapins claimed their first national title in school history and the league's second with a thrilling 78-75 overtime game at the TD Banknorth Garden in Boston, Mass., on April 4, 2006.

Following the 2006-07 season, Duke became the first ACC team and only the 14th in NCAA history to finish a regular season undefeated (29-0), while 34 wins for North Carolina marked the most in program history.

The 2008-09 season was no different in the continuation towards excellence as eight ACC teams earned postseason bids, including six NCAA Tournament berths. It also marked the seventh consecutive year the league sent at least six to the "Big Dance". Joining No. 1 seeds of Duke and Maryland as representatives of the ACC in the NCAA Tournament were Florida State, Georgia Tech, North Carolina and Virginia. Boston College and Wake Forest represented the league in the Women's NIT, marking the second all-time appearance for both squads. Boston College advanced to the semifinals, giving the squad 23 wins for the season, its third 20-plus win tally in the past four years.

For the third consecutive season, a pair of ACC teams earned two of the No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament. Duke, which collected a 14-0 record at home in 2008-09, marking only the second time in school history it had posted an undefeated mark during a single season in Cameron Indoor Stadium, and Maryland, which concluded its winningest four-year run in school history, compiling a record of 126-19 (.869), earned top seeds in the NCAA postseason tourney.

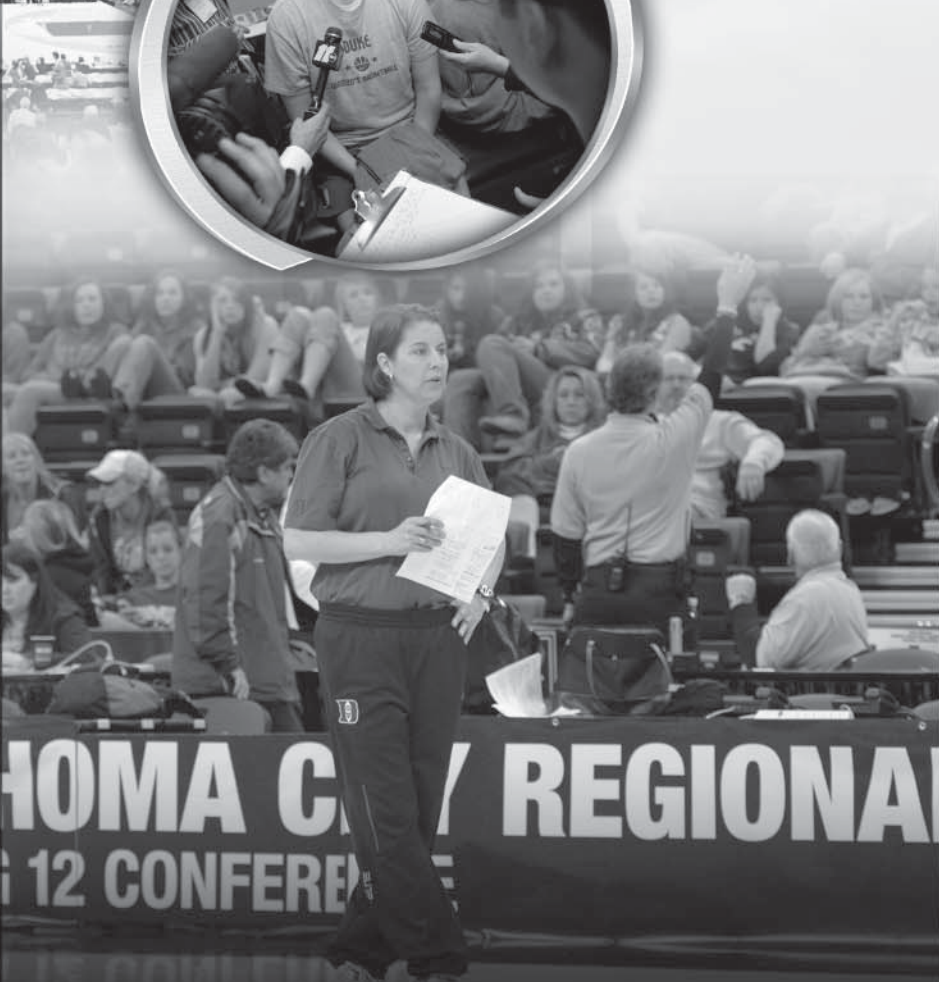

Since the inaugural season of the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) in 1997, the ACC has been a recognizable presence in the league. Seventy-eight former ACC stars have played on the hardwood in the WNBA, while six former players have worked the sidelines as coaches. Three ACC players were selected in the first round of the 2009 WNBA Draft, including two of the first three. In all, nine league players were selected in the 2009 WNBA Draft, matching the league's record selected in 2006 and 2007.

In addition, ACC women's basketball players have earned first-team Academic All-America honors 10 times, including Virginia's Val Ackerman in 1981, the former President of the WNBA. In 1997, NC State's Jennifer Howard was tabbed GTE CoSIDA Academic Player of the Year after posting a flawless 4.0 grade point average throughout her career. Thirteen players have earned ACC postgraduate scholarships, while three others were named NCAA Postgraduate Scholars.

MARCH MADNESS

- 15-straight NCAA Tournament Appearances
- Seven No. 1 seeds since 2001 - an NCAA best
- 17-consecutive NCAA Tournament first round wins
- 1999, 2002, 2003 and 2006 NCAA Final Four
- 1999 and 2006 National Championship game appearances
- Notched an NCAA Tournament record of 40-16 (71.4 winning pct.)
- Duke will host the NCAA Tournament first and second rounds in 2010

2010 WOMEN'S FINAL FOUR SAN ANTONIO

"March Madness is the most important part of the season for a college basketball player. It is the time of year when your team is tested every single game, because with one loss the season is over and you won't be able to redeem yourself for another year. It is the renewed enthusiasm each player brings to the court after a long regular season; everyone starts fresh come tournament time. Personally, I experienced everything from a disappointing early exit to winning the ACC Tournament and going to the national championship game. It is all part of the game, the excitement of playing with the elite of college basketball."

-2007 WNBA FIRST ROUND PICK ALISON BALES

"Playing in the NCAA Tournament -- there's nothing like it. The atmosphere and the excitement that's built around it is incredible. You have your teammates that are so excited about reaching something that everybody has dreamed of for so long."

NIKE

EQUIPMENT & APPAREL

"Nike, I just can't say enough about their commitment. I've been with Nike my entire coaching career -- going on 18 years as a head coach. They've always been there for me so I have a personal relationship with Nike. Trying to grow Duke with Nike is an incredible thing. I love the way Nike operates and I like the way they think."

- JOANNE P. McCALLIE

Components of the Duke-Nike Agreement

- Nike will provide cash compensation annually to the Duke Department of Athletics over the term of the contract.
- Nike will provide annual funding to local charities of Duke's choice.
- Each year, one Duke student-athlete will receive a paid internship at Nike headquarters near Beaverton, Ore., beginning in the summer of 2009.

- In 2009, Duke University and Nike Inc. reached a 10-year sponsorship agreement that will supply all 26 of the Blue Devils' athletics teams with uniforms, footwear, apparel and equipment.
- Under the terms of the contract, Nike will phase in its exclusive agreement with all Duke Athletics teams over a three-year period beginning in 2008-09.
- Additionally, all officially licensed Blue Devils merchandise sold by Nike will comply with labor policies consistent with Duke's position on workers' rights. Duke has long been a leader in demanding manufacturers of licensed products protect the rights of workers.
- In 1997, Duke was the first university in the country to adopt a code of conduct for apparel manufacturers requires licensees, their contractors and sub-contractors to accept independent monitoring of factory working conditions. Two years later, Duke established another standard by requiring its licensees to publicly disclose the names and locations of factories that manufacture Duke items. Duke remains very involved in these issues and committed to ensuring that products bearing its name and/or trademarks are manufactured under decent and humane working conditions.
- "We are thrilled to partner with Nike as our athletics footwear and apparel provider for the next decade," said Duke Vice President and Director of Athletics Kevin White. "Nike is completely committed to the mission of Duke Athletics – to attain excellence in all phases of the student-athlete experience, whether it is in the classroom, on the playing fields, or in the Durham community. This agreement provides significant financial resources to service our student-athletes by providing the finest equipment and apparel in college athletics."
- "As an institution, Duke is rich in tradition, both in academics and athletics," said Nike Director of College Sports Marketing Kit Morris. "Nike has enjoyed longstanding relationships with many Blue Devil coaches and teams, and we are especially excited to expand this partnership to include all programs. A commitment to exemplary performance, shared between Duke and Nike, serves as the foundation for this new agreement."

DUKE

"Practice is a critical element for each player. To me practice should be harder than games and it should be challenging and competitive. There is no room for not preparing, you have to prepare. It's important to us as coaches that we battle and we demand to get the most out of people in practice because I think that's where championships are won."

- JOANNE P. MCCALLIE

"Everywhere you go people are proud to represent this school. As a student and an athlete, I know I have a lot of support just for being a Duke Blue Devil."

The Notebook

Noting The 2009-10 Blue Devils...

McCallie Enters Third Campaign...

After securing her "Dream Job" in April of 2007, Joanne P. McCallie guided the Blue Devils to a 25-10 overall record in her first season and then posted a 27-6 mark and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament in year two.

In two years so far with the Blue Devils, McCallie has led Duke to a 52-16 overall and a 21-7 league mark. Duke has advanced to the NCAA Tournament both years as well as the ACC Championship.

McCallie's group made history in 2008-09 as the Blue Devils became only the second team at Duke to go undefeated in Cameron Indoor Stadium with a 14-0 record.

In her 17 years as a head coach, McCallie has led 13 teams to the NCAA Tournament, registered a 368-164 overall record, notched a 69.2 winning percentage, was the 2005 National Coach of the Year, won five conference championships and collected 13 20-win seasons.

Preseason Rankings...

Duke has been tabbed fourth nationally in the Athlon Magazine preseason poll, while also being listed sixth by Lindy's Magazine.

Experience Returns...

Duke returns two starters and nine letterwinners from last season, while losing three seniors -- Chante Black, Carrem Gay and Abby Waner. Both Waner and Black were selected in the WNBA Draft, and Gay signed with a professional team in Israel.

The Blue Devils return 58.5 percent of their scoring and 63.3 percent of rebounding from a year ago. Duke returns five players who started at least two games from last year -- Jasmine Thomas (28), Bridgette Mitchell (11), Joy Cheek (16), Keturah Jackson (16) and Karima Christmas (2).

Other returning letterwinners include Chelsea Hopkins, Kathleen Scheer and Shay Selby.

Blue Devils Add Three Freshmen...

Head Coach Joanne P. McCallie added three freshmen for the 2009-10 campaign -- Allison Vernerey (Alsace, France), Janeé Johnson (Matthews, N.C.) and Alexis Rogers (West Chester, Ohio).

Vernerey, a 6-5 center, is coming off playing for France in the U-19 World Championship over the summer where she averaged 6.2 points, 6.8 rebounds and 1.2 blocks. She notched 15 rebounds, nine points, two blocks and one steal in 26 minutes versus Lithuania to close out the championship. She is also a member of the French National Team.

Rogers, who attended Lakota West high school., is a 6-1 wing was ranked as high as 24th in the Blue Star Report after averaging 15.0 points,

7.8 rebounds, 2.3 steals and 1.7 assists as a senior. She was the 2009 GMC, Butler and District 15 Player of the Year. Rogers posted 10 double-doubles as a senior and finished second in career points (1,027) and rebounds (536) at Lakota West in just three years.

Johnson, a 6-1 forward, was tabbed No. 62 in the Blue Star Report in the class rankings. She averaged 12.1 points, 7.0 rebounds, 3.5 steals and 1.6 assists as a senior at Providence Day School. Johnson earned NCISAA All-State first team accolades, while also being named All-Conference, Charlotte Weekly Super Team second team, Charlotte Observer All-Observer third team and Charlotte Observer All-Mecklenburg County second team.

Jackson Returns For Fifth Year...

Fifth-year senior Keturah Jackson will return for her final year with the Blue Devils after receiving a degree in sociology over the summer. Jackson is attending the Fuqua Business School in 2009-10 at Duke.

Over her career, Jackson has seen action in 90 games and made 26 starts. Known best for her defensive play, Jackson has notched 109 steals in 90 games, while averaging 3.2 points and 2.7 rebounds.

She will look to continue Duke's trend of having very successful fifth-year seniors over the last number of years -- Chante Black, Lindsey Harding and Monique Currie all stayed five years and were All-America selections in the final year.

Trio of Blue Devils Have Offseason Surgery...

Both Chelsea Hopkins and Shay Selby had surgery on their right knees in the offseason by Dr. Alison Toth.

A native of Las Vegas, Nev., Hopkins appeared in 20 games as a freshman this past season, while averaging 2.7 points, 1.1 rebounds and hitting 51.9 percent of her field goals. She originally hurt her knee in the Western Kentucky contest on Nov. 28 and missed five games. Hopkins came back to play 16 games following the Christmas holiday.

Selby, who is from Cleveland, Ohio, saw action in 26 games in her first year with the Blue Devils. She averaged 2.7 points, while hitting 10-of-24 three-point field goals for a 41.7 percentage.

Fifth-year senior Keturah Jackson also had surgery over the summer as she suffered a torn left rotator cuff in a pick-up game at home.

As a junior, Jackson averaged 3.1 points, 2.9 rebounds and 1.3 steals. A product of Columbia, S.C., she also made 16 starts.

Blue Devils Add New Assistant Coach...

Joanne P. McCallie added Trisha Stafford-Odom as an assistant coach over the summer following the departure of assistant coach Shannon Perry. Stafford-Odom will be heavily involved in recruiting and coaching the guards at Duke.

Stafford-Odom, a standout student-athlete at the University of California who went on to play professionally in the WNBA and overseas, had previously served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at UCLA from 2005-08. Recognized as one of the most influential and positive coaches that continues to impact the women's game, Stafford-Odom has an infectious personality that captivates players, coaches, event coordinators and parents.

During her years with UCLA, Stafford-Odom brought in the third-best recruiting class nationally, which was the Bruins' top class in school history. She also worked with the perimeter players, did scouting and guided four UCLA student-athletes to WNBA Draft selections.

Smoak Promoted; Lehman Added to Staff...

Over the summer, Kevin Lehman was added to the women's basketball staff and Sarah Smoak was promoted. Lehman joins the staff as an Assistant Director of Basketball Operations, and Smoak will now serve as Director of Marketing/Assistant Director of Basketball Operations for women's basketball after having interned for the team in 2008-09.

In her new post, Smoak will develop and execute marketing and promotional concepts with women's basketball along with the day-to-day operations of the program, assist with game and practice preparation, help arrange team community involvement and assist with on-campus recruiting.

A Lancaster, Ohio native, Lehman comes to Duke after two years as the Director of Basketball Operations for the Eastern Michigan University Eagles. Prior to his time at Eastern Michigan, Lehman worked as a student manager and assistant video coordinator for the Michigan State University women's basketball program while earning his undergraduate degree. In 2007, Lehman graduated from Michigan State with a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism.

Lehman will assist with on-campus recruiting, recruiting correspondence, team travel, special event functions and planning, game day operations, video editing and coordinating the scout team.

Impressive Numbers for Coach P...

Head Coach Joanne P. McCallie became one of only two head coaches in Division I history last year to lead two different programs to No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament (Vivian Stringer).

Coach P also became one of only three head coaches to lead three different programs to the NCAA Tournament (Gary Blair, Jim Foster and Vivian Stringer).

McCallie is also one of only four head coaches to guide three different programs to 25 or more wins in a single season (Vivian Stringer, Jim Foster and Tara VanDerVeer).

Stellar In The Classroom...

The women's basketball program had another stellar year in the classroom in 2008-09 as the Blue Devils registered over a 3.0 grade-point average in both the fall and spring campaigns.

Duke notched a 3.144 grade-point average in the fall and then posted a 3.019 GPA in the spring last year. A total of eight Blue Devils notched over a 3.0 in the fall.

Challenging Schedule Awaits...

The 2009-10 schedule is made up of 11 teams that advanced to the 2009 NCAA Tournament, including two that advanced to the NCAA Final Four -- Stanford and National Champion Connecticut.

Duke will also face nine squads that are preseason ranked in the Athlon Sports preseason rankings -- Texas A&M, Ohio State, Stanford, Georgia Tech, Connecticut, Maryland, Florida State, Virginia and North Carolina. Connecticut, Stanford and Ohio State are ranked No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 in the preseason rankings.

Seven of those nine teams who are preseason ranked are listed in the top 14 of the national rankings.

DUKE

"It means the absolute world to me to wear the Duke uniform. It is everything that I worked for up to this point. I love this game and when I was a little girl, I dreamed of playing at a school like Duke. Putting that jersey on is a dream come true, a dream that I worked extremely hard to reach. Putting that jersey on makes me smile because I know I am playing for all those little girls that were just like me -- Plus, Duke is the greatest school in the world."

- SOPHOMORE KATHLEEN SCHEER

"The biggest key with leadership is AUTHENTICITY. Who are you, what do you bring to the table and what are you willing to do to make a team better? I have never been a fan of captains. Every one of our team members can lead, they can come from a place inside of them and make a difference on the team as long as they are willing to change and grow. Leadership is critical and it is always exciting to see how it develops."

"Keturah has been working very hard on her game, going to school, and working camps. She has taken a leadership role and worked on all the things she possibly could given her surgery earlier this summer. Keturah is in many ways symbolic of what we want the team to be in terms of all positions in the way she fights all the time. Even with her unfortunate injury she has exhibited that fighter behavior and that fighter mindset and I know it has trickled over to her teammates. KJ is a fierce competitor. I am thrilled to have her back."

"Bridgette has worked hard on all facets of her game and she has spent a lot of time committing to the development of her shot -- her pull up jumper and her ball handling. We want her to play the 1-4 positions. She is not afraid to speak up and speak the truth. She is ready to get out there and say what she thinks and try to offer motivation to her teammates and I think that's important. I love her competitive spirit and fight. To Bridgette, it comes naturally."

#13 KARIMA CHRISTMAS

5-11 • JR - 2L • Forward/Guard
Houston, Texas (J. Frank Dobie)

An explosive leaper who plays bigger than her height ... physical rebounder who has expanded her perimeter skills ... a defensive specialist ... the strongest player on the Duke squad.

Career: After hitting zero three-pointers as a freshman, nailed 17-of-37 from downtown as a sophomore and now owns a career three-point field goal percentage of 39.5 ... played in 62 games, while making two starts.

As a Sophomore (2008-09): Earned a starting spot in two of the 33 contests ... averaged 7.5 points, 4.2 rebounds, 1.0 assists and 1.4 steals ... hit 49.4 percent from the field ... had a career game against Miami collecting 21 points, six steals, and hitting three three-pointers ... dished a career-high four assists against Michigan ... pulled down 13 rebounds versus Michigan State, a career high, in the NCAA Tournament ... missed one game during the ACC schedule due to a concussion ... notched 14 points, nine rebounds and two steals against third-ranked Stanford off the bench ... hit 17-of-37 from three-point land for a 45.9 percentage, which ranks fifth all-time on Duke's season charts.

As a Freshman (2007-08): Came off the bench in 30 games ... averaged 4.1 points and 2.6 rebounds ... reached the double-figure scoring mark on two occasions against Penn State and N.C. Central ... pulled down a season-high seven boards against Virginia Tech ... hit 52.1 percent of her field goals ... came off the bench to play 16 minutes at North Carolina, while scoring eight points, grabbing four rebounds and blocking one shot ... missed three games midway during the season with a kidney infection.

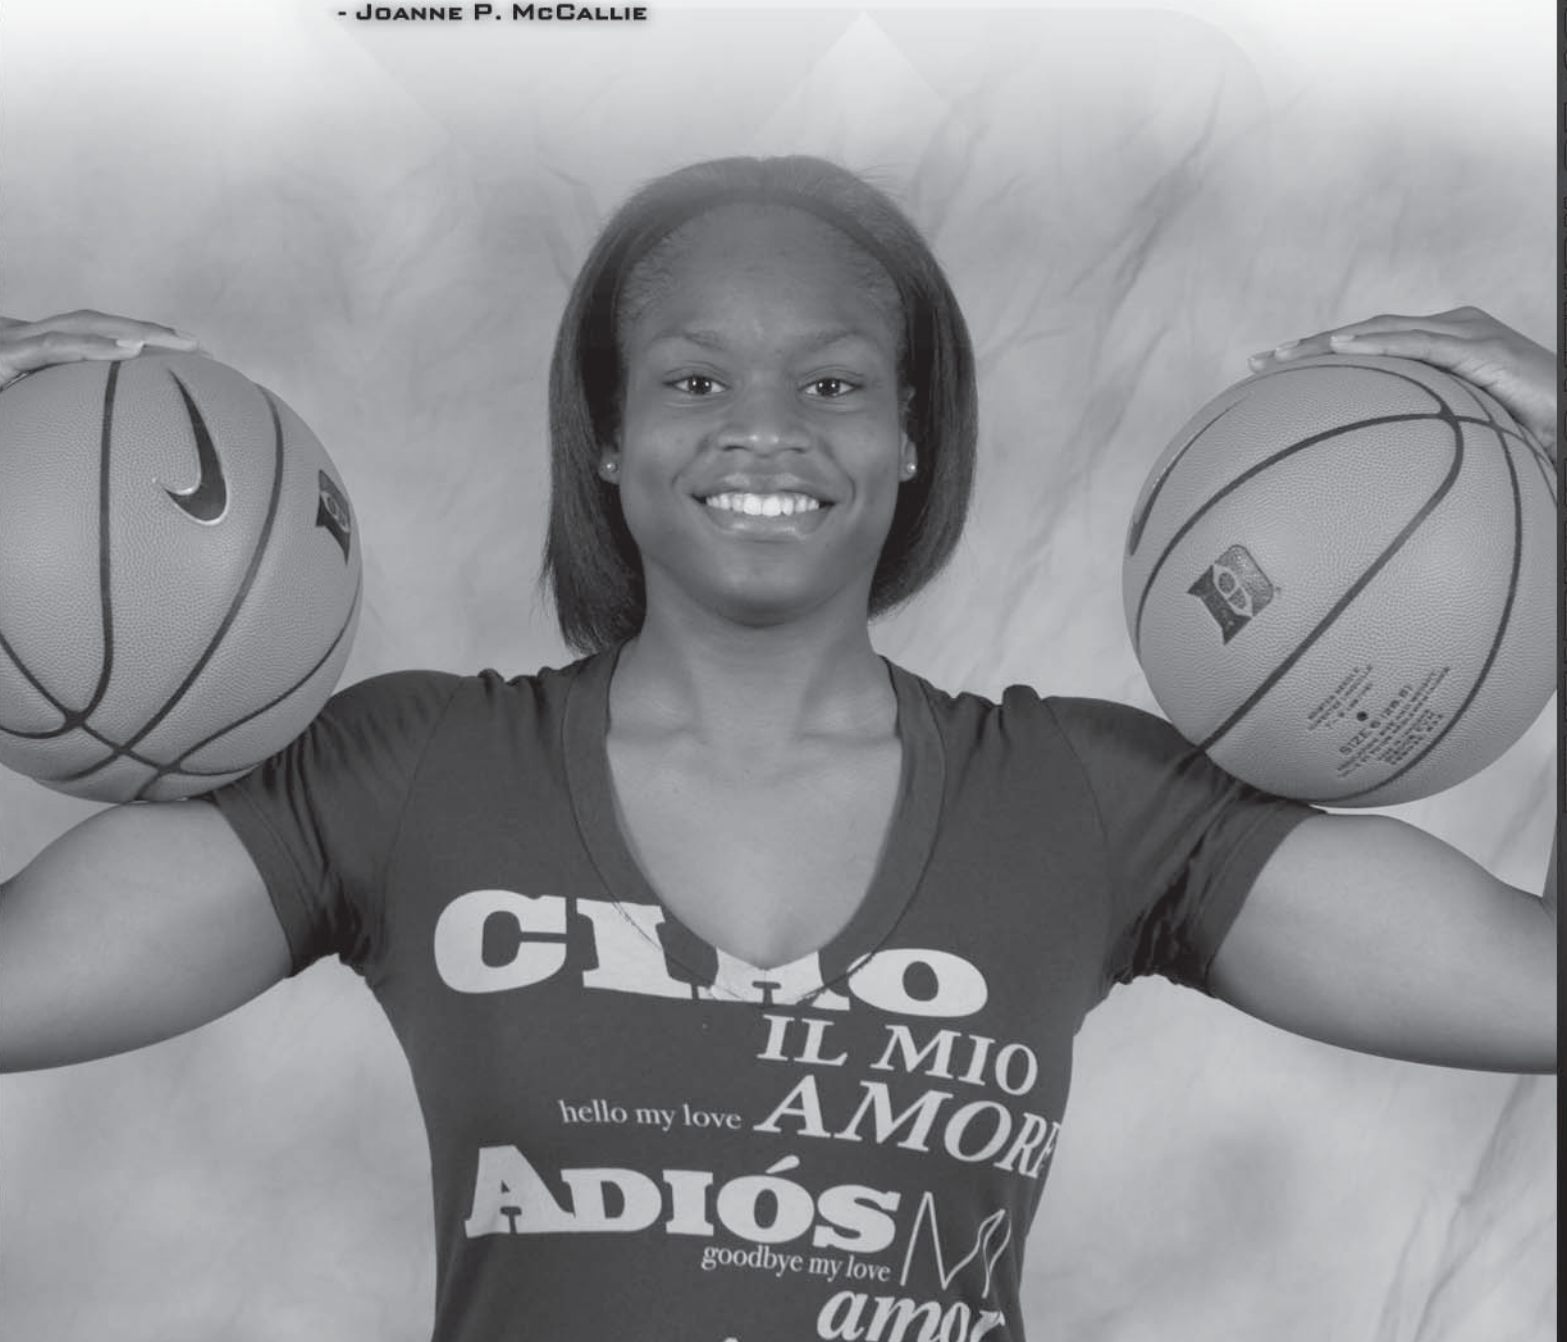

Prior to Duke: A four-year letterwinner at J. Frank Dobie H.S. under Head Coach Doug Gibson ... 2007 Parade Magazine fourth team All-America ... played in the WBCA H.S. All-America game and scored four points, while pulling down five rebounds ... three-time All-District selection and TABC All-Region honoree ... received two-time All-District 23-5A honors ... MVP of her H.S. squad in 2005 and 2007 ... as a senior, averaged 18.7 points, 9.6 rebounds, 4.1 steals and 3.2 assists ... led her J. Frank Dobie H.S. squad to a 32-7 record her senior year ... three-time Street & Smith's Honorable Mention All-America ... in the final recruiting rankings, was listed 13th by the All-Star Girls Report, 21st by BBALLX.com, 31st by Hoopgurlz and 38th by

"Karima's strength and conditioning is at its all time best -- it's phenomenal what she does in the weight room. She has worked hard on carrying that work ethic over to the court. Karima continues to grow and improve. Karima continues to push herself to get that work ethic that matches the incredible talent and opportunity she has. She will impact us in many ways and showed great flashes as a sophomore."

#5 JASMINE THOMAS

5-9 • JR - 2L • Guard
Fairfax, Va. (Oakton)

A potentially dominant scorer ... showed her ability to take over a game as a sophomore ... equally adept at attacking the basket, pulling up for a jumper or dishing off to a teammate ... can play either guard slot ... uses speed, quickness and aggressiveness to bring an exciting style of play to the floor.

Career: Has started 48-of-65 games played in her two years ... has hit 52 treys and averaged 1.6 steals a game as a freshman and sophomore ... an excellent student as she was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District team as a sophomore.

As a Sophomore (2008-09): Started 28-of-30 contests in which she saw action, averaging 29.5 minutes per game ... scored double-figures in 15 contests ... notched a career-high 22 points once at Southern Cal in an overtime win and also at Virginia ... hit the game-tying basket to send the game into overtime in the Blue Devil win over ninth-ranked North Carolina ... finished the UNC game with 19 points, four rebounds, three assists, and two steals ... earned All-ACC Academic Team honors ... named Women of Troy Classic All-Tournament ... ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District ... averaged 10.2 points, 2.7 rebounds, 3.3 assists, and 1.7 steals per game with a field goal percentage of 36.1 and a free throw percentage of 74.3.

As a Freshman (2007-08): Came in and started 20 of 35 contests in her first year ... earned Honorable Mention All-ACC Freshman honors ... averaged 7.9 points, 2.8 rebounds, 2.3 assists, 1.5 steals and 0.9 blocks ... notched double-figure scoring on 12 occasions ... registered a season-high 17 points against Penn State and Maryland ... grabbed a season-high nine boards against Murray State, while dishing a season-high six assists versus North Carolina and Murray State ... started the final six contests of the season ... selected preseason ACC Rookie of the Year.

Summer of 2007: Led the USA U19 World Championship Team to a 9-0 record and the gold medal in Bratislava, Slovakia ... averaged 7.4 points, 4.1 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 1.0 steals and hit a team-best 44.0 percent from three-point range ... started all nine games ... in the World Championship statistics, her 3.0 assists ranked eighth and 44.0 three-point field goal percentage was sixth.

Prior to Duke: Four-year letterwinner at Oakton High School in Vienna, Va., where she led her squad to a 101-11 mark ... named 2007 EA Sports, USA Today, Street & Smith's and Parade first team All-America ... Gatorade State Player of the Year, AP State Player of the Year and D.C. All-Met Player of the Year as a senior ... McDonald's All-America ... named MVP of the McDonald's game with 16 points, nine rebounds and six assists ... played in the WBCA H.S. All-America game scoring nine points and totaling five rebounds ... two-time District Defensive Player of the Year

"Jasmine has grown a great deal over the last couple of years. She was a difference maker in many games and a catalyst for us last year. Jasmine now understands she is capable of taking over games with her teammates but being a lead person in doing so. It's pretty incredible what she did as a sophomore. She is very coachable and she understands the essence of team and developing a team and I don't think there is any limit to her. Jasmine is one of the most dangerous guards in the country."

#1 CHELSEA HOPKINS

5-8 • SO - 1L • Guard
Las Vegas, Nev. (Mojave)

A very quick point guard who was hindered by a knee injury most of her freshman campaign ... an exceptional passer and has great leadership potential ... has lots of energy and is an excellent defender ... can take the ball to the basket without hesitation and get to the foul line.

As a Freshman (2008-09): Played in 20 of the 33 contests ... posted a season-high nine points against Maine in her first game with the Blue Devils ... also, snatched four steals and had four assists in that Duke victory ... averaged 2.7 points, 1.1 rebounds, 0.6 assists, and 0.8 steals per game with a field goal percentage of 51.9 and a free throw percentage of 75.0 ... played 8.2 minutes per game ... suffered a knee injury early in the season at Western Kentucky and was not 100 percent healthy the rest of the season ... had surgery on her left knee following the season.

Prior to Duke: A four-year letterwinner at Mojave High School ... 2008 Las Vegas Athletic Club Female Athlete of the Year ... Gatorade Player of the Year finalist ... led the state of Nevada in scoring as a junior and senior ... as a senior, averaged 28.5 points, 7.3 rebounds and 7.9 assists ... in the 2008 class rankings, was 62nd (Hoopgurlz), 34th (Blue Star) and 118th (All-Star Girls Report) ... Co-MVP of Northwest Division ... a two-time first team All-State selection ... three-time All-Conference honoree ... averaged 27.7 points, 8.4 assists, 8.2 rebounds and 6.2 steals as a junior ... during her sophomore year, averaged 21.6 points, 5.8 rebounds, 7.3 assists and 4.3 steals ... selected Co-League MVP along with North Carolina junior Italee Lucas ... second team All-State ... Las Vegas Athletic Club Athlete of the Year ... as a freshman, averaged 15.7 points, 6.8 assists, 4.5 rebounds and 2.6 steals ... named the Gatorade Newcomer of the Year as a freshman ... second team All-Conference selection ... played for the West Coast Elite Black club team ... attended the Nike Skills Academy ... a member of the Straight "A" honor roll, salutatorian and senior class treasurer ... held a 4.6 grade point average ... National Honor Society and Black Student Union member.

"Chelsea has learned how to focus in the weight room and has gotten a lot stronger. As a point guard, it is very important to be able to focus and to really be able to lead your team everyday in practice. That was a challenge for her as a freshman. As a sophomore, she can really thrive. To me she is an attack artist and she knows how to get into the paint. At the same time, I want her to take her speed and quickness and match that with improved technical skills and decision-making."

"Kathleen is somebody to me who is a terrific shooter and she is a great complement to everybody on the team. What's important for her is to be herself and play her game, which is a great catch-and-shoot player. She can play multiple positions because she can play the two, three, and four positions. Kathleen gives us consistency from outside the arc and we are going to need that. She has a special role on this team."

"Lex is a very athletic player and very impressive on the court. For Alexis, it's about putting it all together. It's taking the weight room, on court practice, and getting the intensity that's needed every time she hits floor. Alexis is very talented -- she is a slasher and she is going to play the four and maybe some three positions. She is going to be somebody who can hit the high post jumper, step out and shoot the three, and also put the ball on the floor with quickness. She is an excellent rebounder and she just needs to focus and get consistent with her efforts on the court."

DUKE

"I'm most impressed by Coach McCallie's drive. She seems to be driven by some forces that don't drive other coaches. She is inspired to develop players and she strategically mixes and blends talent so the ultimate result is perfect chemistry. I see how passionate Coach P is about what she's doing, and I can't help but be ignited by her fire."

MEET THE STAFF

JOANNE P. McCALLIE

Head Coach

3rd Season at Duke • Northwestern, '87 • Auburn, '90

2009-10 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

"We are indeed extremely fortunate to have such a highly talented, engaging, and dynamic head women's basketball coach. Joanne P. McCallie is inordinately bright and an exceptional leader both on and off the court. To be sure, her enthusiasm and passion for the game of women's basketball, and Duke in general, is exceedingly contagious."

- KEVIN M. WHITE
DUKE VICE PRESIDENT & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

“Coach P has a lot of energy, is very motivational and easy to talk to. She is a players’ coach because she has high expectations of her players and holds them accountable.”

BUILDING CHAMPIONS

A relentless competitor, McCallie has been the catalyst of building championship programs. Beginning with her first head coach tenure at Maine, McCallie has shown the ability to revitalize a program. While at Michigan State, the Spartans went from not qualifying for any postseason tournaments to upsetting national favorite, Tennessee, on their way to competing in the national championship game in 2005. McCallie now aims to take the Blue Devils to new heights as she enters her third year at Duke University.

IN GOOD COMPANY

Coach P is one of only two head coaches in Division I history to lead two different programs to No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament. She led Duke to a No. 1 seed in only her second year at the helm of the Blue Devils. She is also one of only four head coaches in Division I history to lead three different programs to the NCAA Tournament. Coach P is also one of only four head coaches in Division I history to lead three different programs to 25 or more wins in a single season.

“Playing for Coach P means everyday is a life lesson -- everyday I learn and get better.”

- FIFTH-YEAR SENIOR KETURAH JACKSON

During her second season as Head Coach of Duke University, Joanne P. McCallie led the Blue Devils to their 11th straight 25-win season, an appearance in the ACC Tournament Championship game as well as a No. 1 seed in the 2009 NCAA Tournament.

Under Coach P's direction, the Blue Devils compiled a 14-0 record in Cameron Indoor Stadium last year, marking only the second time in school history the program has gone undefeated at home.

Duke collected wins over eight nationally ranked opponents including Stanford, Tennessee, North Carolina, Maryland and Florida State. The Blue Devils undefeated home record was aided by an average of 6,655 fans, the second-highest average in school history and ended the season ranked No. 11 nationally in average attendance. The program continued its streak of NCAA Tournament appearances last season under McCallie as Duke was selected to the “Big Dance” for the 15th consecutive time and the seventh time in school history as a No. 1 seed. McCallie coached seniors Chante Black and Abby Waner who were Duke's 12th and 13th players drafted to the WNBA. Black and Waner were selected No. 10 and No. 21, respectively, in the WNBA Draft in April by the Connecticut Sun and New York Liberty.

In her first season with the Blue Devils in 2007-08, McCallie led Duke to its 10th straight 25-win season with an appearance in the ACC Championship game and a trip to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in Oklahoma City, Okla., which marked the 11th consecutive appearance in the regional semifinals for the program.

The NCAA Tournament appearance was its 14th straight and 15th overall tournament bid for the Blue Devils.

SO WHAT DOES THE P STAND FOR?

Those who have not known Joanne P. McCallie long may wonder why her players and those who know her well call her “Coach P.” The “P” stands for Palombo, her maiden name. McCallie is proud of her Italian heritage, and early in her career found many similarities between herself and coaching legend Jim Valvano. She reasoned that if there could be a “Jimmy V”, why not a “Joanne P?” Therefore, during her years as Joanne Palombo, she became known as “Coach P”, and after her marriage to John McCallie, she decided to keep the “P” as a middle initial. But old habits die hard, so players, coaches, staff members and friends continue to refer to her simply as “Coach P.”

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

"I love working with Joanne. She has endless enthusiasm and a desire to build a program that is truly representative of our university. We really consider both programs to be one. That is a great relationship to have because I know a lot of people around the country don't have it."

- MIKE KRZYZEWSKI

- Guided Duke to its 15th straight NCAA Tournament and the Blue Devils' seventh overall No. 1 seed in 2009.
- Became only the second Division I head coach to lead two different programs to a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.
- Won 191 games the last eight seasons.
- Is one of only three Division I head coaches to guide three different programs to the NCAA Tournament.
- Led Duke to a 14-0 record at home in 2008-09 marking just the second time in school history the Blue Devils have gone undefeated in Cameron Indoor Stadium in one season.
- Coach P is one of only four head coaches in Division I history to lead three different programs to 25 or more wins in a single season.
- Won a gold medal as coach of the 2006 U-20 National team and the 2007 U21 World Championship team.
- Led Michigan State to five straight NCAA Tournaments and consecutive Sweet 16 appearances in two out of the last three years.
- Guided MSU to an 81-23 record her final three years, including an 8-3 mark in the NCAA Tournament.
- In 2005, led MSU to the Big Ten regular season and tournament championships and the NCAA National Championship game.
- Guided Michigan State to a school-record 33 wins in 2004-05.
- Left Maine as the school's all-time winningest women's basketball coach (167 victories).
- Appeared in two National Championship games as an assistant coach at Auburn.

McCallie coached Duke's 11th player drafted to the WNBA as Wanisha Smith was selected in the second round (27th overall) by the New York Liberty. Duke also saw a rise in attendance in McCallie's first season. The Blue Devils received a national ranking in attendance for the year of No. 10 while averaging a school-record 6,755 fans in 13 home contests.

McCallie has already made her presence felt in the Durham and neighboring communities as well as on campus. She has been the keynote speaker for the Durham Sports Club, Durham Chamber of Commerce - Professional Women's Network, the Duke Club of Washington, D.C., Special Olympics, N.C. High School Coaches Association, Hospice, the Hays Barton United Methodist Church and the Raleigh Sports Club. She participated in a panel discussion on campus for Women at Duke. She has also participated in the Duke Children's Hospital Radiothon as well as being a spokeswoman for Duke Women's Health. McCallie also participated in the second annual 4Kay Golf outing this past September in Greensboro, N.C. The outing is set to raise money for breast cancer research. Being a huge advocate for youth development, McCallie and the Duke Women's Basketball team have developed a relationship with a local non profit organization, The Emily K Center, by participating in after school leadership programs.

The Blue Devils have four major relationships in the surrounding area they help with each year -- The Ronald McDonald House, Duke Children's Hospital, Duke Women's Health and the Emily Krzyzewski Center -- while also participating in other activities to help the community.

Coach P created the "Choice Not Chance" kids club whose philosophy focuses on making the correct choices in life. The philosophy is widely used by McCallie, her staff and players, who are very active in the community speaking about "CNC." In its inaugural year the program received membership of over 100 children who are entering the eighth grade or under.

Another innovation in McCallie's first season was the first ever coaches radio show for women's basketball at Duke, which was featured on 620 AM The Bull and hosted by Morgan Patrick. The show was performed live once a month at Satisfaction Restaurant, which featured standing room only attendance. During the broadcast of the show fans had the opportunity to ask Coach P about upcoming games and events involving the Duke Women's Basketball team.

In October 2008, embracing McCallie's vision, the program launched its first ever True Blue Golf Classic. The Duke University Golf Club played host to 112 golfers in an effort to raise money for the program. From the success of the 2008 Classic, the 2009 Classic featured a capacity number of participants tee off.

Coach P has an undying passion to develop people into winners. She is only one of four coaches who has taken three different programs to the NCAA Tournament. McCallie is also one of two coaches to guide her teams to a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament at two different schools. Coach P has three National Championship game appearances in her career and has been named conference coach of the year four times. She has coached nine players who have received All-America honors. In her 17-year head coaching career, her teams have reached 20 wins 13 times.

Player development is a key component to Coach P's philosophy. During McCallie's career she has seen nine of her former players go on to play professionally. Four players have been first round WNBA Draft picks: Cindy Blodgett, Kristin Haynie, Elizabeth Shimek and Chante Black. In the WNBA offseason, these players, as well as Carrem Gay, Lindsay Bowen, Kelli Roehrig, and Lorenda Haynes have enjoyed an overseas experience playing in countries such as Israel, Russia, Greece, France and Denmark. Coach P does not only produce great professional players, she also prepares players to be great coaches. Cindy Blodgett, a former player at Maine, is currently the head coach at the University of Maine. Four others are either assistant coaches or administrators at the D-1 level -- Julie Veilleux, Assistant Coach at Navy, Candice Jackson, Assistant Coach at Wake Forest, Wanisha Smith, Assistant Coach at Longwood University and Julie Dombrowski, Dir. of Operations at Michigan State.

McCallie coached the FIBA U-21 World Championship team in Moscow, Russia from June 29 - July 8, 2007, where she led the USA squad to an 8-0 record and won the gold medal. Her team of college stars, including former Blue Devil Abby Waner, captured nine USA Basketball U-21 records by registering a 30.0 point average margin of victory, scoring 93 points per game, netting the highest three-point percentage and field goals during the championship. Defensively, three players sit atop the blocked shots charts and four out of five of the top rebounders were members of this team. Over the summer of 2006, McCallie guided the USA Basketball U-20 team to a 5-0 record and a gold medal in the FIBA Americas Championships in Mexico City. The squad outscored its opponents by an average of 62 points per game and set 28 USA Basketball U-20 records in the event including most points averaged, highest field goal percentage and most field goals and three-pointers made. For her team's accomplishments, McCallie was named USA Basketball Developmental Coach of the Year.

Prior to coming to Duke, McCallie spent seven years at Michigan State University. While piloting MSU to a nationally elite level, McCallie, the 2005 Associated Press Coach Of the Year, guided the Spartans to their first ever NCAA Final Four and National Championship game appearance as well as their first ever NCAA Elite Eight and repeat Sweet Sixteen appearances, the programs second Big Ten Regular Season title and first ever Big Ten Tournament Championship in 2005. Under McCallie the program collected four consecutive 20-win seasons and an 81-23 record over her final three years in East Lansing. The Spartans also posted a school-record four straight appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

In 2005, Michigan State advanced to its first National Championship game after earning the programs first No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. That record setting team won 33 games (10 more than the previous record), won a 14 Big Ten games, shared just its second Big Ten regular-season championship, won its first Big Ten Tournament title, finished 13-0 at home, had a school-record 17-game winning streak, and beat 13 nationally-ranked teams. Over her seven-year stint in East Lansing, the Spartans beat 25 ranked opponents.

For her efforts, McCallie was named 2005 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, Basketball Times, and Nike, as well as being voted Big Ten Coach of the Year by the league's media members. It marked the first time an MSU women's basketball coach was named national coach of the year and the second time a Spartan head coach earned the conference's coach of the year award. McCallie was also named the 2005 Basketball Coaches Association of Michigan College Coach of the Year.

Under McCallie, Michigan State saw its fan base increase dramatically as well, including a rise of 78% since her arrival. The team set season attendance records in four out of her final five seasons, including a school-record average of 6,787 fans in 2005-06, which ranked 10th nationally. The Spartans were ranked second in attendance in the Big Ten and ninth nationally during McCallie's final season with an average of 6,646 fans a game. At the time of McCallie's departure from MSU, all of the Spartan top 15 single-game crowds in program history came during Coach P's tenure, including a school-record 14,066 against Ohio State in a nationally televised game on Feb. 20, 2005. Prior to her arrival at MSU, the women's basketball program averaged only 1,506 fans per game in 1999-2000.

A native of Brunswick, Maine, McCallie owns a career mark of 368-164 during her 17-year stint as a head coach at Maine, Michigan State and Duke. As a coach and player, she has led her teams to 13 conference titles, 18 NCAA Tournament appearances, six NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, four NCAA Elite Eight appearances, three NCAA Final Four appearances and three NCAA Championship game appearances.

During her eight-year career at Maine, McCallie guided the Black Bears to seven straight 20-win campaigns, including a 20-11 overall record in 1999-2000 and their sixth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. She was named coach of the year on three occasions, twice in the North Atlantic Conference (1995 and 1996) and once in the America East (1999).

While at Maine, McCallie organized an event called "Realizing the Dream: Celebrating Women in Athletics" that featured speakers Dr. Donna Lopiano and Sheryl Swoopes. During the 1997-98 season, Dana Rae Warren filmed a documentary of the Maine women's basketball season. McCallie was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame in 2004. In October of 2005, she was inducted into the Maine Sports Legends Hall of Honor as well as the Maine Sports Hall of Fame in June of 2008 and the University of Maine Athletics Hall of Fame in October of 2009.

Prior to becoming head coach at Maine in 1992-93, McCallie was an assistant coach at Auburn from 1988-92. As the team's primary recruiter, she helped sign the fourth-ranked class in the nation in 1990-91 and the 16th-ranked class in the nation in 1991-92. While at Auburn, McCallie and the Tigers appeared in two national championship games and made an appearance in the NCAA Elite Eight.

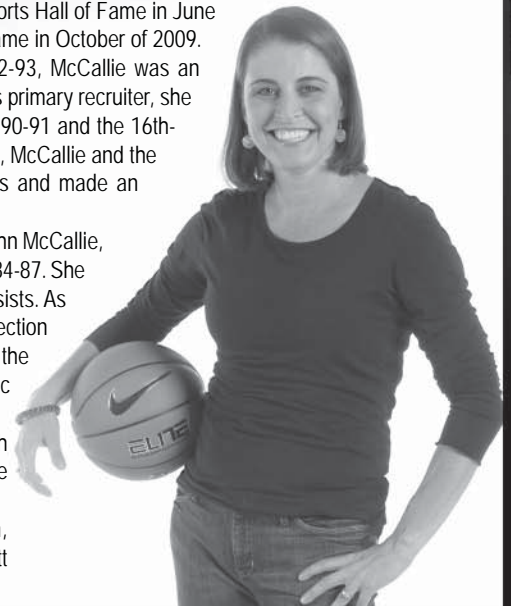

The former Joanne Palombo, prior to marrying John McCallie, played her collegiate basketball at Northwestern from 1984-87. She still ranks seventh in Wildcat history with 378 career assists. As a senior, she was an All-Big Ten honorable mention selection and helped lead the Wildcats to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. McCallie also was named Academic All-Big Ten First-Team as a senior.

McCallie graduated from Northwestern in 1987 with a degree in political science and earned a master's degree in business administration from Auburn in 1990.

The McCallie family includes husband John, daughter Madeline (Maddie - 15) and son John Wyatt (Jack - 9). The family resides in Durham, N.C.

"What impresses me most about Coach P is her desire and the energy she brings to the floor. She settles for nothing less than what she thinks is good."

- FRESHMAN ALEXIS ROGERS

THE MCCALLIE FAMILY

The McCallie family not only emphasizes education to the young women on the Duke team, but their own accomplishments further demonstrate their commitment to academics. Head coach Joanne P. McCallie holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Northwestern and a master's degree from Auburn in business administration.

John McCallie, Ph.D, Joanne's husband, is currently a professor at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. But it should come as no surprise that the McCallies are well-educated, as the name McCallie has long been synonymous with the word "education." The McCallie School (pictured to the right) is a college preparatory school for boys located on Missionary Ridge near Chattanooga, Tenn. It was founded in 1905 by Spencer Jarnagin McCallie and James Park McCallie, the grandfather and great-uncle, respectively, of John McCallie.

The McCallie School accepts young men with above average to exceptional academic abilities, and those students matriculate at some of the best colleges and universities in the nation. In recent years, the school has been recognized for its innovative educational programs and its overall standards of excellence. Recently, the Atlanta Journal/Constitution called McCallie "one of the leading secondary educational institutions in the United States."

In addition, John McCallie's great-aunt, Grace McCallie, was one of three founders of the Girls Preparatory School in 1906, also in Chattanooga. The school prepares girls for college through academic training, and instills in them high principles of honesty, integrity and consideration for others.

AL BROWN

Assistant Coach

3rd Season at Duke • Purdue, '64

Al Brown enters his sixth season alongside Joanne P. McCallie and third on the Duke University staff after being hired on May 2, 2007. Since arriving in the coaching world 31 years ago, Brown has produced numerous winning teams and is thought of as having one of the best basketball minds in the game today.

He has been a part of three NCAA Championships, four NCAA runner-up teams, eight NCAA Final Four squads and 18 NCAA Tournaments. He has coached men's and women's basketball at 11 different schools including Purdue, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Western Michigan, Ball State, South Carolina, Tennessee, Cleveland State, Michigan State, and Duke since taking his first assistant coaching position at Purdue in 1967.

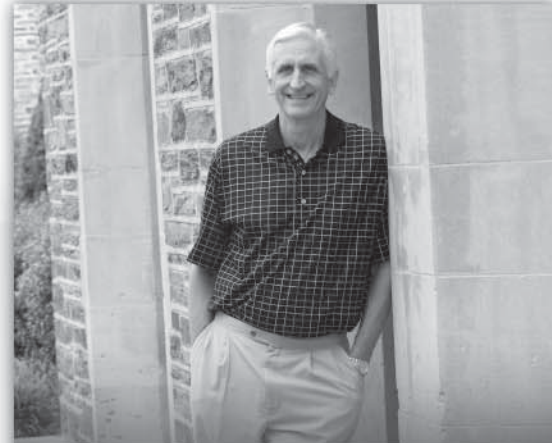

His record in women's basketball speaks for itself as his squads have won 80.0 percent of their games, advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 13 of the 15 years, and won three NCAA titles. Brown has led three teams to the NCAA Championship game a total of seven times and won 79.0 percent of league contests.

In the two years with the Blue Devils, Brown coached Chante Black and Carrem Gay, who are both currently playing professionally. Black was taken with the 10th overall pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft by the Connecticut Sun, while Gay signed with a professional team in Israel. Brown helped guide Duke to a 52-16 record in two years with the Blue Devils, while advancing to the NCAA Tournament twice and the ACC Tournament Championship game in both years.

Brown is known for his video breakdowns and opponent analysis, as well as his on-court teaching expertise, which has proven to be a valuable contribution to the success of every basketball team he has ever coached. He was recognized for his coaching expertise when he was named one of the top assistant coaches in the country in a poll conducted by Women's Basketball Journal.

He has had an interesting and unique career as he is the only coach in the history of intercollegiate athletics to have played an active role in national championship games in three different sports, including five appearances as a coach in the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship game. Brown is also the only coach to coach men's and women's basketball in the Southeastern Conference and the Big Ten Conference at two different schools in each conference. Also, he is the only coach in college basketball history to coach in the men's (1969, Purdue vs. UCLA) and women's national championship game (Tennessee, 1996-98, 2000; Michigan State, 2005).

Brown has 15 years of college coaching experience in the women's game and 16 years in the men's game. On the men's side, he has coached five teams at two schools in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the Sweet 16 three times, the Elite Eight twice and the final game once.

Brown was the motivational speaker for the Tennessee football team throughout the 1998 season. Coach Phillip Fulmer, the former head coach at Tennessee, asked him to speak to the team in Tempe, Ariz., before the Fiesta Bowl National Championship game. Brown was on the field in the coaching box during the Vols' victory over Florida State in the title game.

During his seven years in the women's program at Tennessee (1995-2002), the Lady Vols went to the NCAA Final Four five times, playing in the national title game four times, and won three national championships in a row (1996-98), which is an NCAA record. Over that seven-year period, the Lady Vols went 224-29, good for a winning percentage of 89 percent. He was a part of five consecutive Southeastern Conference championship teams, during which time Tennessee posted a league record of 67-3.

During his first year at Michigan State, the Spartans won the Big Ten regular season and tournament championships, went to the NCAA Championship game for the first time in school history, and won a school-record 33 games. Overall, during his three years at Michigan State the squad produced an 81-23 record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament each of those three years. In the Big 10, the Spartans notched a 38-10 mark and finished no lower than third each year.

A 1964 graduate of Purdue, Brown was a three-year letterwinner on the Boilermaker basketball team before making the switch to the coaching ranks as an assistant coach with his alma mater in 1967. Brown served three seasons at Purdue before moving to Ball State where he was an assistant for five seasons (1977-1982).

He then spent five years (1982-87) as the head coach at Ball State. His 1986 Cardinal team had a record-setting year, posting 21 wins en route to the Mid-American Conference tournament championship and the school's second berth in the NCAA Tournament. The first time Ball State advanced to the NCAA Tournament was when Coach Brown was an assistant.

After spending the 1987-88 season assisting at Western Michigan, Brown served on the staff at Minnesota for three years (1988-1991), where the Gophers advanced to two NCAA Sweet 16's and one NCAA Elite Eight, before moving on to the men's program at Tennessee for the 1991-92 and 1992-93 seasons.

Coach Brown has recruited and coached some outstanding players. The first Walter Byers Scholarship winner and the 1984 Naismith Award winner, an award given to the best player in the nation under six feet, were two of Brown's recruits. He has coached 10 NBA players and 11 women who are playing in the WNBA, plus numerous players who have played overseas.

Brown and his wife, Karen, have one son, Edwin. Edwin and his wife, Erica, reside in Hopkinton, Mass., with their son, Simon, and daughter, Fiona.

SAMANTHA WILLIAMS

Assistant Coach

3rd Season at Duke • Auburn, '96

Entering her third season as an assistant coach at Duke, Samantha Williams has developed into one of the top recruiting coordinators in the nation under Head Coach

Joanne P. McCallie.

After being hired as an assistant coach under McCallie at Michigan State on April 13, 2007, Williams decided to continue on to Duke once McCallie took the head coaching position with the Blue Devils. Williams works primarily with the guards and is one of two recruiting coordinators at Duke.

In her first year with the program, Williams helped bring in the fifth-best recruiting class in the nation with Chelsea Hopkins, Kathleen Scheer and Shay Selby and then followed that up with a solid class which included French National Team standout Allison Vernerey, Alexis Rogers and Janee Johnson. As the Blue Devils put the finishing touches on their 2010-11 freshman class, Duke has a group of four student-athletes who are ranked No. 1 nationally in the early listings.

Williams helped coach former Duke All-ACC selection Abby Waner over the last two years, who was selected with the 21st overall selection in the 2009 WNBA Draft by the New York Liberty.

A former Auburn standout, Williams spent three years at DePaul as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before arriving at Duke. She helped the Blue Demons through the most successful period in school history going a combined 72-25 for a 74.2 winning percentage. DePaul advanced to three NCAA Tournaments, including the school's first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2005-06.

If you could be on the cover of any magazine, which one would it be? Time.

What three words best describe you?
Compassionate, committed and competitive.

What was your favorite cartoon growing up?
I had many -- Looney Tunes, The Smurfs and Scooby Doo.

My advice to youngsters is? Do the very best in school that you can. Leave nothing. It's the same as you would approach basketball. You don't want to look back when you are an adult and wish you would studied more or applied yourself more to school. Give it everything you have.

If you could invite three people from the past or present to dinner, who would they be?
Jesus Christ, Martin Luther King, Jr., Oprah

What is your favorite type of movie to watch?
I like to watch all type of movies, but if a movie can make me laugh AND cry, then it's a good one in my book!

What is your favorite way to relax and get away from everything?
The ideal place for me to relax is at the beach. In the shade of course, but I love to watch and listen to the water. It is very soothing for me.

What is your favorite kind of ice cream?
Chocolate Chip Cookie Dough.

Do you prefer a SUV or convertible?
Definitely SUV.

Williams went to DePaul after serving as an assistant coach at her alma mater, Auburn, in 2003-04, working with her former coach, Joe Ciampi. The Tigers posted a 22-9 record and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Williams worked with perimeter players and was also in charge of the strength and conditioning program.

She began her collegiate coaching career with Conference USA's Saint Louis University, serving as an assistant for one season in 2001-02 before moving on to Columbus State in 2002-03. Serving as the Division II school's recruiting coordinator and top assistant, Williams helped Columbus State to a 28-4 record.

As a student-athlete at Auburn, Williams was a four-year starter (1992-96) and two-time co-captain (1994-96) while leading the Tigers to three NCAA Tournament appearances and earning a bachelor of science degree in human sciences from Auburn in 1996. In those three NCAA appearances, Auburn reached the Sweet 16 twice and the Elite Eight once. Individually, Williams set Auburn's career three-point field goal record with 161 three-pointers.

Williams was recruited to Auburn by McCallie prior to Coach P taking over the reigns at Maine in 1992.

In 1993, Williams played for the U.S. Junior National Team that took the bronze medal at the R. William Jones Cup in Taipei, Taiwan.

Following her four-year collegiate career, she played for the San Jose Lasers of the American Basketball League in 1996-97. The Louisville, Ky., native attended Manual High School and was a first team Parade and Street and Smith's All-America. She was also named to USA Today's Super 25.

Williams resides in Durham, N.C.

TRISHA STAFFORD-ODOM

Assistant Coach

1st Season at Duke • California, '92

Trisha Stafford-Odom was hired as an assistant coach at Duke on June 1, 2009 and will be heavily involved in recruiting and coaching the guards at Duke.

"We are very excited to welcome Trisha to the Duke family," commented Head Coach Joanne P. McCallie. "She is a high-energy person with a proven track record of excellence. She did a fabulous job on her interview, as she met with the coaches on our staff. She has a passion for the game, passion for recruiting, and I have no doubt that she can bring a lot of energy and enthusiasm to our program. We are very, very excited to welcome her to our family."

Stafford-Odom, a standout student-athlete at the University of California who went on to play professionally in the WNBA and overseas, had previously served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at UCLA from 2005-08. Recognized as one of the most influential and positive coaches that continues to impact the women's game, Stafford-Odom has an infectious personality that captivates players, coaches, event coordinators and parents.

"I'm thrilled about the opportunity to re-enter into the women's coaching arena on this high level," said Stafford-Odom. "To be back in my comfort zone, developing players, interacting, and sharing my knowledge, is a blessing I've been waiting for. As an added bonus, Coach P is allowing me to exercise my passion in the elite Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), for an outstanding institution such as Duke. I'm ecstatic!"

During her years with UCLA, Stafford-Odom brought in the third-best recruiting class nationally, which was the Bruins' top class in school history. She also worked with the perimeter players, did scouting and guided four UCLA student-athletes to WNBA Draft selections.

Prior to joining the UCLA staff in 2005, she spent the previous three seasons as the head coach at Westchester High School in Los Angeles, Calif. At Westchester H.S., Stafford-Odom guided more than 10 players who earned college scholarships.

Stafford-Odom, a Los Angeles native, is one of the all-time great players in the history of California basketball, ranking sixth on the all-time scoring list (1,530) and ninth on the all-time rebounding charts (721) after her three-season career. She helped lead Cal into its first two NCAA Tournament appearances (1990 and 1992) and was selected to the school's 10-player All-Decade Team (1986-1996).

In 1991-92, she topped Cal and the Pac-10 in scoring (22.3 ppg) and also led the Golden Bears in rebounding (8.7). In the process, she posted one of only two 20-plus point scoring averages in school history. Her season total of 647 points was the fourth-most in school history. She was named an honorable mention All-American by Kodak and Basketball Times and a second-team selection by the Women's Basketball News Service for 1991-92. She earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors in '91-92 and '90-91. She is still listed in the school's top-10 career best lists in seven categories. In 1990, she was a member of the U.S. Junior National team and played in the 1990 U.S. Olympic Sports Festival and the 1993 World University Games.

Stafford-Odom played professionally in the WNBA in 2001 with the Houston Comets and in 2002 with the Miami Sol. She played in the ABL for San Jose and Long Beach and has also played professionally overseas in Italy, Spain, Israel, Brazil and Puerto Rico.

She is married to DeWayne Odom, and they have two young sons, Amari (4) and Trajen (2). The Stafford-Odom family resides in Durham, N.C.

LAUREN RICE

Video Coordinator
4th Season at Duke • Duke, '00

After being away from Durham, N.C., for six years, Lauren Rice came back to her alma mater in 2006 and enters her fourth season on the Duke women's basketball staff as the video coordinator.

Rice is responsible for alumni relations, video exchange, film breakdown and the production of the team highlight videos. Additionally, Rice served as the camp director the last three years for the Duke Girls Basketball Camps.

Rice continues to spearhead the True Blue Golf Classic, now in its second year. All funds raised in the tournament go to support the Duke women's basketball program.

Rice, a 2000 graduate of Duke with a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology and history, was a four-year letterwinner and member of Duke's first Final Four team in 1999 and first ACC Championship squad in 2000.

A letterwinner at Duke University from 1997-2000, Rice appeared in 126 contests and as a senior started 32 of 34 games, while averaging 9.6 points, 4.8 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 1.8 steals. She was named to the All-ACC Tournament first team in 2000 and to the ACC Honor Roll in 1998-99.

Prior to her arrival at Duke in 2006, Rice was an assistant coach at the University of South Alabama in 2000-01. Rice then entered the energy field where she served as an Energy Analyst for Prenova, Inc. from 2001-03. During that time, Rice stayed involved with basketball by officiating girl's and boy's junior and senior high basketball games in Atlanta. In 2003, she moved to Pittsburgh and worked as Team Leader for the Customer Relations Department at Strategic Energy. Rice was promoted to Customer Relations Manager in 2005 and served in that capacity until her return to Durham in 2006.

Originally from Peru, Ind., Rice resides in Apex, N.C.

"Lauren is very good at what she does. She obviously specializes in video for us but she does so much more. She has done a terrific job with the basketball camps and a great job with the golf tournament. She is very organized, on top of things and passionate about Duke."

- JOANNE P. McCALLIE

DUKE

"To be a champion is a relentless pursuit of day to day activity. You become a champion through the preparation and the day to day commitment. Every team member has to do it. It's an anytime, anywhere, any place mentality. The teams that thoroughly get to the point where they play against themselves are the teams that become champions."

- JOANNE P. MCCALLIE

"To me wearing a Duke uniform means that I represent the standards of excellence set by this University. Every time I step on the floor with that uniform on, I am expected to compete at the highest level while conducting myself with integrity."

- JUNIOR JASMINE THOMAS

• *The Basics...*Duke has made 15 consecutive and 16 overall trips to the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Devils made their first appearance in 1987 and since 1995 have advanced to the "Big Dance" each year. Duke now owns an all-time record of 40-16 in NCAA Tournament play and is 41-17 in all postseason action, including the NCAA & WNIT. The Blue Devils have hosted NCAA Tournament games eight times out of 16 appearances.

• *The History...*Each time Duke has been in the NCAA Tournament, it has won at least one game. The Blue Devils have advanced to at least the Sweet 16 in 11 out of the past 12 years, advanced to the Elite Eight in eight of the last 13 years and to the Final Four three out of the last eight seasons. Duke advanced to the Elite Eight in 1998, the National Championship game in 1999, the NCAA Final Four in 2002 and 2003, the Elite Eight in 2004 and 2005 and the National Championship game in 2006. The Blue Devils own a 34-11 record in their last 45 NCAA Tournament games.

• *The Seedings...*The last 14 seasons, Duke has been no lower than a No. 5 seed. From 2001 through 2004 and in 2006, 2007 and 2009, Duke was a No. 1 seed. The Blue Devils were a No. 2 seed in 1998, 2000 and 2005. Duke was a No. 3 in 2008. The seven No. 1 seeds for the Blue Devils since 2001 leads the NCAA.

DUKE

"At Duke, we look for special people who have it in their hearts to be elite, who want the challenges and the whole package that comes along with it."

- JOANNE P. MCCALLIE

"When I chose Duke University, I did not fully grasp how much my education would mean to me when I graduated four years later. I enjoyed my classes and loved exploring the many academic opportunities. I had experiences that are not available at other universities. I explored the anatomy of a cadaver in a laboratory class, stood in an operating room looking over the shoulder of one of the most talented neurosurgeons in the world, read books written by the very professor teaching the class and beat UNC in front of a standing-room only crowd at historic Cameron Indoor Stadium. (I had to sneak in a little basketball because at Duke that is a huge part of everyone's experience). My Duke education and the contacts I made through my classes will follow me the rest of my life and open doors for me that I didn't know even existed."

NIKE ELITE

DUKE

"Game day at Duke starts with a slow trickle as the fans come in early, its sort of fun to see them enter the arena. When I think about game day there is an enormous excitement. I love the fact that kids that come early can get really up and close to the teams. I am always amazed how Cameron Indoor Stadium fills up. It's an incredible thing watching everyone in their routines and really game day is a celebration. A lot of hard-work prior to game day and there is a cut loose, freeing feeling about it."

- JOANNE P. McCALLIE

"Playing for Duke is something serious. When I have that jersey on, I know I am representing a team of strength, loyalty, and respect."

- SOPHOMORE CHELSEA HOPKINS

MEDIA INFORMATION

2009-10 Duke Women's Basketball

Media Information

Media Information

The 2009-10 edition of the Duke University Women's Basketball guide has been published to provide pertinent information concerning Blue Devil basketball and to assist the media in its continuing coverage of Duke Women's Basketball.

Services

The Duke Sports Information staff will provide programs, pregame notes and statistics, halftime and final box scores, game play-by-play, postgame notes and postgame quotes to all credentialed media. Statistics will be distributed at halftime and following the game. Phones will be available for the working press located in the Sports Information Office in 115 Cameron Indoor Stadium. The fax number is (919) 684-2489.

Email

The Duke Sports Information Office has the capability to send out releases via email. If you would like to receive Duke women's basketball information through this channel, please call or email Associate SID Lindy Brown at (919) 684-2664 or lbrown@duaa.duke.edu.

Coach P & Player Interviews

Duke Head Coach Joanne P. McCallie is generally available in the mornings and after practice in the early evenings. Player interviews during the week must be arranged through the Sports Information Office by calling Lindy Brown at (919) 684-2664. Phone interviews with out-of-town media can also be arranged. All interview requests should be made at least one day in advance and the best time for interviews is generally before or after practice.

Ticket Information

Tickets to Duke Women's Basketball games can be purchased through the Duke Ticket Office by calling (919) 681-2583 or (877) 375-3853. Tickets can also be purchased online at www.GoDuke.com.

Credentials

All media and photographers attending Duke basketball home games must wear proper media credentials. Requests for credentials should be made in advance by mail, email or fax on company stationery and directed to Associate Sports Information Director Lindy Brown. Duke reserves the right to refuse any credential request deemed not to be in the best interest of the University.

Facilities

All home Blue Devil basketball games are played at Cameron Indoor Stadium, located at the end of Whitford Drive across from Wallace Wade Stadium. Cameron Indoor Stadium can also be reached from Towerview Road.

Parking

Parking for the media is available for home contests. Working press can request parking passes from Associate Sports Information Director Lindy Brown. All requests should be made in advance by mail, email or fax.

Media Accommodations

During the game, media will be seated at tables located on the floor level on the west side of Cameron Indoor Stadium. Media guides, notes and statistics, as well as work areas, are located in the Bill Brill Media Room on the north side of Cameron. The room will be open prior to the game, at halftime and after the game for postgame interviews.

Working Media Filing Space

Print and electronic media planning to file postgame reports will work in the media room in Cameron Indoor Stadium. The work area has 10 phone lines available for local, charge card, toll free and collect calls only. Space is limited and is on a first-come, first-serve basis. Wireless internet service is also available in Cameron Indoor Stadium. The username and password will be posted in the press room for each contest.

Radio Information

The radio broadcast booths are located on the east side of the stadium and are suspended from the ceiling. Access to the booths is through section six off the upper concourse. One phone line with voice coupler and one business phone line will be provided by Duke free of charge to the visiting radio network as designated by that school's sports information office. ACC institutions will have Switch 56 capabilities at their site. Additional lines must be ordered directly from Tony Williams, Duke Tel-Com, at (919) 660-7221.

Post-Game Policies

Duke Head Coach Joanne P. McCallie and selected players will participate in a postgame press conference in Cameron Indoor Stadium's media room immediately after all games. Opposing head coaches and players will also be available for postgame interviews in the same room. Towards the end of the game a representative of the Duke Sports Information Office will poll the media to find out whom they would like to interview after the contest.

Sports Information

The Duke Sports Information Office is located in room 115 at Cameron Indoor Stadium. The phone number, fax number and mailing address are as follows: Duke University Sports Information; 115 Cameron Indoor Stadium; Box 90557, Durham, N.C. 27708; Phone: (919) 684-2633; Fax: (919) 684-2489.

2009-10 Duke Women's Basketball

Television Coverage

Throughout the last 11 years, the Duke women's basketball program has become a national powerhouse. The Blue Devils have advanced to the national championship game twice, won five ACC championships and advanced to the NCAA Final Four four times.

With the success of the program, Duke has garnered a great deal of television coverage and 2009-10 will be no different with eight regular season contests scheduled to be televised. Over the last 11 years, the Blue Devils have been seen 162 different times on television.

The broadcast team for the 2009-10 ACC season will be Debbie Antonelli and Mike Hogewood. They will handle most games on the regional sports networks. Antonelli, who has served as a color commentator for the WNBA and ABL, will serve as the ACC's lead analyst for the 12th consecutive season. Antonelli has worked as the radio analyst for the national syndication of the Westwood One/NCAA Radio Network for the past ten Women's Final Fours, while also working the sideline as a reporter for CBS at the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.

Hogewood has been associated with Raycom Sports (formerly Jefferson-Pilot Sports) for the past 20 years. He began his association by anchoring the company's coverage of the Nextel Cup races at the Lowe's Motor Speedway. Best known for his work on the sidelines at ACC football games, Hogewood is in his 21st season of reporting from the field and his fifth with ACC women's basketball. This year marks the second consecutive year Mike, who is a two-time Emmy award winning play-by-play commentator, will serve as the ACC women's basketball play-by-play personality.

ACC Tournament Building History

In the past 32 years of the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament, there have been eight different sites. The inaugural tournament was held in 1978 at University Hall on the campus of the University of Virginia in Charlottesville. The Tournament then moved to Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh, N.C., in 1979, hosted by North Carolina State University. The University of Maryland's Cole Field House in College Park was the site of the 1980 Tournament, while Clemson University's Littlejohn Coliseum, was home to the 1981 event. It returned to Reynolds Coliseum in 1982.

The Conference Tournament remained in North Carolina from 1983 to 1991, hosted by Fayetteville's Cumberland County Memorial Arena. The Tournament then moved to Winthrop Coliseum in Rock Hill, S.C., for a four-year span (1992-96), until the 1997 Tournament moved to Independence Arena in Charlotte, N.C., which hosted the event for three years. Over the last 10 years, the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament was held in the Greensboro Coliseum, which will also serve as its home through the 2015 Tournament.
