LARRY SCOTT PAC-12 COMMISSIONER

WELCOME!

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about the Pac-12 Conference. This past school year was the first of the Pac-12's second century, and the student-athletes and coaches of our 12 universities made it clear that they intend for this century to be as illustrious as our first, winning a total of 13 NCAA Championships in 2016-17 and pushing the Pac-12 over the 500-mark in all-time NCAA team championships. As we move forward, the Pac-12 intends to continue to serve as a catalyst for our universities' brands' growth and exposure, for progress and forward thinking in college sports, and for sustained academic and athletic excellence across our campuses.

That balance of athletic and academic achievement has come to define the Pac-12 as the "Conference of Champions ®." Home to thousands of talented student-athletes and 12 storied institutions of higher education, the Pac-12 has won far more NCAA Championships than any other conference while asserting dominance in Olympic sports on the international stage. As we celebrate our tradition of success across all sports, as well as off the field, we also strive to modernize college athletics and ensure that it will continue to benefit all student-athletes, present and future.

The most vital role of the conference is to make sure that its student-athletes have every possible opportunity to excel in their sport and otherwise. To that end, we are funding millions of dollars in research to improve student-athlete health and well being, we have added student-athletes to the conference's formal governance structure, and we've rewritten the rules around student-athlete time demands to ensure that student-athletes have the time necessary to pursue all of their academic and extracurricular interests. The universities of the Pac-12 are centers of excellence, fueled by a perpetual pursuit of research and discovery, and we as a conference seek to harness that pioneering spirit for the benefit of student-athletes everywhere.

Our vision remains rooted in the West Coast, but our appetite for innovation has pushed us outside traditional geographic boundaries. Reflecting our universities' global reach, the Pac-12 remains uniquely committed to a global vision of college sports. We're exporting our unique combination of elite higher education and best-in-class athletics around the world, while giving student-athletes the opportunity to enjoy new cultural experiences and important career development.

The Pac-12 is also proud to continue providing our student-athletes with unprecedented exposure on Pac-12 Networks. In addition to telling the moving stories of our student-athletes and coaches, Pac-12 Networks pushes the limit of what a wholly-owned media company can do for our universities. From televising 850 live events, to engaging fans on innovative digital platforms, to providing athletic departments with sales, sponsorship, and analytics support, Pac-12 Networks provides our universities with incredible resources and flexibility in a new era of college athletics.

As you can see, there are many exciting things happening on and off the field here in the Pac-12. Over the 101-year history of the conference, our universities have proven time and time again that they are uniquely committed to both championship-level athletic success and world-class educational opportunities. The 2017-18 academic year promises to once again produce magical moments on and off the field, captivate fans with championship performances, and develop young people ready to take on the world. I hope you enjoy every minute of it.

Sincerely,

Commissioner Larry Scott

BUILT ON A FIRM FOUNDATION of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Pac-12 Conference renewed its undisputed claim as the Conference of Champions® in 2016-17, becoming the first conference to win 500 NCAA Championships. Beyond the court's and fields, the Pac-12's accomplishments extend into the classrooms across 12 campuses, and outside its traditional geographic footprint into new corners around the world.

En route to becoming the first conference to win 500 NCAA Championships, the Pac-12 led the nation in 2016-17 with 13 NCAA crowns. This haul adds to the an incredible 158 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000 and 300 since 1981-82, the start of women's sports sponsorship, an average of over nine per year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success with championships coming in 29 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 51 of the last 57 years, the only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third in 1998-99 and 2004-05.

For the 12th-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most or tied for the most NCAA titles of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so nine times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning over a century of outstanding athletics achievements, The Pac-12 has claimed 501 NCAA Championships (297 men's, 174 women's, 30 combined), nearly 200 more than the next league. It was also the first to win 400 championships then surpassed 450 when Colorado and Utah joined the league in 2010-11.

Pac-12 members have won 297 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 81 more than the next-closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools, 54 tennis titles, 47 outdoor track & field crowns, and 28 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 47 NCAA titles in volleyball, 43 of 48 in water polo, 30 in skiing, and 24 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Over 2,000 (2,292) individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years with 1,358 by male student-athletes. Student-athletes have also captured 185 individual titles at combined championships (ie., skiing and fencing).

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 36 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 26 occasions, including a current streak of 17-consecutive years, dating back to 2000. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 174 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 100. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 23 tennis crowns, 15 volleyball titles, 18 of the last 28 trophies in golf, and 15 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 749 NCAA individual crowns, an average of over 20 championships per season, including 30 in 2016-17.

The Pac-12's excellence is further proven in the annual Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD won an unprecedented 23rd-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2016-17 to lead the Conference. Five Pac-12 member institutions ranked among the top-15 Division I programs, and a remarkable six institutions were in the top 20: No. 1 STANFORD, No. 3 USC, No. 8 OREGON, No. 9 UCLA, No. 12 CALIFORNIA and No. 20 WASHING-TON. At least five member institutions have been ranked in the top 20 in all but one year of the Director's Cup program, with seven appearing in the top 20 on five different occasions (1998, 2001, 2003, 2005 and 2006).

2016-17 REVIEW

The Conference's 13 NCAA titles came in the form of a record 10 women's crowns, two men's and one combined (skiing - UTAH). Seven members claimed at least one NCAA title and, of the six institutions in the country to have won multiples titles, three were from the Pac-12.

STANFORD was one of just two schools in the nation to claim four championships. The Cardinal extended its streak of winning an NCAA title to 41 years, holding up the national championship trophy in men's soccer, women's swimming and diving, women's water polo, and women's volleyball. The OREGON women made history completing the first-ever "Triple Crown," winning women's national titles in cross country and both indoor and outdoor track and field. USC also took home a pair of championships winning women's soccer and its second-straight beach volleyball title.

ARIZONA STATE won a record eighth NCAA women's golf title, CALIFORNIA won its 14th men's water polo national championship, defeating the Trojans in overtime, while UTAH won its first skiing crown since 2003, and WASHINGTON also made history en route to claiming its fourth NCAA title in women's rowing, the first program in the 21-year history of the NCAA Rowing Championship to sweep all three grand finals.

In addition to the 13 national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in nine NCAA Championship events: men's cross country (STANFORD), men's water polo (USC), skiing (COLORADO), men's swimming and diving (CALIFORNIA), women's swimming and diving (CALIFORNIA), men's golf (OREGON), rowing (CALIFORNIA), women's tennis (STANFORD) and women's water polo (UCLA). Overall, the Conference had 38 teams finish in the top four at 24 NCAA Championship events, including at least three teams in the top four in women's golf, and men's and women's water polo.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-12 in 2016-17. Of the 23 sports sponsored by the Conference, 21 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 64 of a possible 100 teams into the postseason (64.0 percent), while the women sent 88 of a possible 126 teams (69.8 percent).

Six Pac-12 football teams earned bowl bids, producing a 3-3 record. Pac-12 Champion WASHINGTON provided the Conference with a College Football Playoff semifinalist for the second time in three years. The Huskies won their first-ever Pac-12 Football Championship Game, defeating South Champion COLORADO, 41-10, at Levi's® Stadium. USC had a dramatic 52-49 victory over Penn State in the Rose Bowl giving the Pac-12 eight of the last 10 Rose Bowl victories in which it was pitted against the Big Ten. UTAH edged Indiana in the Foster Farms Bowl, 26-24. STANFORD got a big defensive stop on North Carolina's attempt at a two-point conversion with 0:25 remaining in the game and pulled out a 25-23 victory in the Hyundai Sun Bowl. After posting the first 10-win season since 2001, Colorado made its first bowl appearance in nine seasons at the Alamo Bowl. WASHINGTON STATE participated in the third-lowest scoring game in Holiday Bowl history but fell, 17-12.

Four Pac-12 men's basketball teams earned postseason bids, including regular-season co-champions ARIZONA and OREGON. Pac-12 teams went 10-4 in the NCAA Tournament, buoyed by the Ducks' run to the NCAA Final Four, their first since 1939. It also marked the fourth-consecutive year a league team has advanced to the Elite Eight, the only conference in the country to accomplish the feat. Joining the Wildcats and the Ducks in the Big Dance were UCLA and USC. CALIFORNIA, COLO-RADO and UTAH participated in the postseason in the NIT. For the first time in the Conference's 101-season history, three teams had at least 30 wins, and had four 25-win teams for just the second time ever. Three teams finished ranked in the top 10 in the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll, the Ducks earning a No. 3 final ranking and the Wildcats a No. 4 rating by the coaches. The Bruins were ninth in that poll.

Pac-12 women's basketball continued to reestablish itself as a premier league in the sport. After sending two teams to the Women's Final Four in 2016 for the first time ever, it set the stage for another record-breaking season which saw a record seven teams earn NCAA Tournament berths and an additional three received WNIT bids. OREGON STATE won its second-consecutive Pac-12 regularseason title, but STANFORD emerged at the end of the season as the tournament champion in KeyArena in Seattle, then made its 13th all-time trip to the NCAA Women's Final Four. Cardinal Naismith Hall of Fame coach Tara VanDerveer cemented herself as one of the greats in NCAA men's and women's history, logging her 1,000th-career win and WASH-INGTON's Kelsey Plum shattered the NCAA singlescoring record and was the unanimous national player of the year en route to becoming the all-time women's scoring record in NCAA history. The league had a record 15 NCAA Tournament wins, placing two teams in the Elite Eight for the second-straight year. The Pac-12 was also the best-represented conference in the Sweet Sixteen after a league-record five teams advanced. Four teams appeared in the final Associated Press poll, tying for the most ever for the Conference. Five earned rankings in the USA Today/WBCA poll for the second-straight year with Stanford leading the way at No. 4.

STANFORD won its NCAA-record-tying seventh women's volleyball national title with four freshmen in the starting lineup. WASHINGTON was the Conference's regular-season champion for the second-straight year and third time in four years. Eight Pac-12 teams earned NCAA berths, including ARIZONA, OREGON, UCLA, USC, UTAH and WASHINGTON STATE, along with the Cardinal and Huskies. It marked the 17th-consecutive year the league has received at least six bids. The Pac-12 has dominated the sport of women's volleyball, winning a record 15

NCAA volleyball titles since 1982.

OREGON STATE represented Pac-12 baseball in the NCAA College World Series after winning the Pac-12 regular-season crown which marked the program's third title in the last five years. The Beavers were awarded the No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament, but came up short of the champion-ship series despite recording just the fifth .900+winning season in NCAA history. OSU was joined by Arizona, Stanford and UCLA in the postseason. The Pac-12 has, by far, won the most baseball national titles of any conference in the country, claiming 28 titles dating back to 1947.

The Pac-12 Conference has historically dominated the sport of softball where league teams have claimed 23 NCAA titles in the 36-year history of the championship. Pac-12 teams captured an unprecedented nine in a row from 1988-1997, then most recently claimed six-straight from 2006-11. Ten teams participated in the tournament in 2017, marking the 21st-straight season the Pac-12 has had five or more teams advance to the postseason, and has had at least three berths every year since the league began sponsoring the sport in 1987. OR-EGON, UCLA and WASHINGTON advanced to the Women's College World Series. ARIZONA claimed its 11th all-time Pac-12 regular-season title and first since 2007.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE HISTORY

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back more than 100 years, to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Imperial Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon Agricultural College (now Oregon State University).

All four are still charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and the PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities (AAWU) was formed with Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, USC, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Since then, the Conference has been considered the premier league in women's athletics, securing the most NCAA titles in women's sports of any conference nearly every year.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009, when he was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott.

The University of Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, the University of Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978.

It was during the 2010-11 academic year that Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the Conference into a modern 12-team league. In addition to expanding to 12 teams, member institutions agreed to equal revenue sharing for the first time in the Conference's history, created two football divisions - the North and the South, and established a Football Championship Game for the first time. He also secured landmark media rights deals with ESPN and FOX that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school, in addition to establishing Pac-12 Networks which guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 13 women's sports, with women's lacrosse a new addition for the 2017-18 academic year and beach volleyball having been added in 2015-16. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and two women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located in the heart of San Francisco in the SOMA district.

LEARFIELD SPORTS DIRECTORS' CUP

The STANFORD Cardinal captured their 23rd-consecutive Directors' Cup in leading the Pac-12 Conference to another impressive finish in the final 2016-17 Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) announced.

Led by four NCAA titles (women's volleyball, men's soccer, women's swimming and diving, and women's water polo), Stanford won its 23rd-consecutive Cup. In all, the Cardinal posted 11 top five finishes in tallying an impressive 1,563.00 points. That's 219.25 points more than runner-up Ohio State.

Behind a pair of NCAA titles (women's soccer and beach volleyball), USC finished fourth with 1,251.25 points for its fourth consecutive top 10 finish. OREGON placed ninth overall with 1,027.00 points, the best-ever finish by the Ducks in the Directors' Cup. Oregon collected three NCAA titles for the second straight season as it claimed the triple crown with titles in women's cross country, women's indoor track and field, and women's outdoor track and field. UCLA placed 11th overall with 1,007.00 points, while CALIFORNIA, aided by its men's water polo title, finished 14th with 916.75 points. That gave the Pac-12 five teams among the top 15, more than any other conference.

WASHINGTON added an NCAA title in women's rowing, the Pac-12's 500th NCAA title all-time, and placed 22nd with 801.25 points. COLO-RADO finished 34th (641.00), followed by ARIZONA at 42nd (545.50). ARIZONA STATE was right behind the Wildcats at 43rd (543.50), thanks in part to the women's golf program capturing their nation-leading eighth NCAA golf title. UTAH, which picked up its 11th NCAA skiing title, was 54th (459.50), followed by OREGON STATE (69th, 333.75) and WASHINGOTN STATE (101st, 202.50).

The success of the Pac-12 in the Directors' Cup was bolstered by the capturing of 13 NCAA titles, most among all conferences. In addition, 10 Pac-12 league members combined to post 39 top-four finishes in 24 NCAA championships.

The Directors' Cup was developed as a joint effort between the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and USA Today. Points are awarded based on each institution's finish in up to 20 sports - 10 women's and 10 men's.

PAC-12 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

THURSDAY-SUNDAY, MARCH 1-4, 2018 KEYARENA • SEATTLE, WASH.

After drawing a record attendances the last two seasons, the 17th-annual Pac-12 Women's Basketball Tournament remains in Seattle in partnership with Force 10 Sports Marketing, LLC, the Seattle Sports Commission and Seattle Center. The tournament will be held at KeyArena from March 1-4, 2018 and will receive unprecendented national television coverage once again with each game of the tournament scheduled to be televised either on the Pac-12 Networks or ESPN2.

The City of Seattle has embraced women's basketball and women's athletics. The WNBA's Seattle Storm loyal fan base has increased over the last several years. The majestic city provides convenient travel for teams and fans, with non-stop flights available from every Pac-12 city. In the three years the Pac-12 Tournament has been in the Emerald City, the four-day event has seen its biggest successes, recording three of the top four attendances in the 14-year history. The 2017 tournament set a record for total attendance and had the event's first sold-out session.

The Pac-12 Women's Basketball Tournament made its debut in 2002 and was held on the University of Oregon campus in Eugene, Ore. The Conference's premier women's sporting event then moved to HP Pavilion at San Jose for a six-year run (2003-08). It spent four years (2008-2012) in Los Angeles, with Galen Center playing host. The final two-year run of the event saw it combined with the men's tournament and the semifinal and championship games were played at the STAPLES Center.

The winner of the 12-team tournament receives the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship. The tournament seeding and Conference Champion are determined by the 18-game regular-season Pac-12 schedule.

Even in its infancy, the Pac-12 Conference played a significant role in the development of women's basketball. On April 4, 1896, California and Stanford squared off at the Page Street Armory in San Francisco in the first women's intercollegiate game in the nation. And two weeks later, the University of Washington hosted Ellensburg State in Seattle.

While progress slowed through much of the first half of the century, women's basketball pioneer Carol Eckman changed the game's history by engineering the first official women's tournament in 1969. In 1972, the tournament expanded into the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW). At that point, women's basketball was off and running.

In 1978, just six seasons after the advent of the AIAW, UCLA was the first league squad to represent the Conference with a national title. The Bruins accomplished the feat at Pauley Pavilion on the UCLA campus in front of an AIAW record crowd of 9,351. However, UCLA was not the last Conference team to win a national crown.

The 1981-82 season marked the first year that women's basketball began competing in the NCAA with the advent of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship, implementing a 32-game field which, with the increasing popularity of the sport, first expanded to 48 teams and has grown to 64 teams after a second expansion in 1994.

League play began in 1986-87, the first year the Pac-10 Conference began sponsoring women's sports, combining the NorPac Conference (California, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington and Washington State) with the Western Collegiate Athletic Association (Arizona, Arizona State, Stanford, UCLA and USC).

Former USC players Cheryl Miller and Lisa Leslie are two of the most decorated players in the history of women's basketball.

The Conference quickly established a reputation as one of the strongest women's basketball leagues in the nation, with solid teams across the board. The Pac-10 sent at least four teams to the NCAA Tournament nine times in the decade of the '90s, and every Conference member made a trip to the Big Dance during that decade. In the new millennium, the story has proved much the same with 11 Conference teams advancing to the NCAA Tournament since 2000, 10 different teams have represented the Confernce since expansion in 2011 and four different teams have advanced to the NCAA Women's Final Four.

Stanford head coach Tara VanDerveer took the Pac-10 Conference to new heights by winning a pair of NCAA titles in the 1990s. National Player of the Year Jennifer Azzi led the Cardinal to its first title in 1990, while Val Whiting guided the Cardinal to its second national championship in 1992. All told, Stanford made six trips to the NCAA Final Four in a seven-year span of the '90s. The Cardinal repeated that feat with the Ogwumike sisters - Nnemkadi and Chiney - leading the way from 2008-2014. Thanks to that remarkable stretch, at least one league team has been in the Final Four in nine of the last 10 years.

Since the beginnings of the AIAW, the Conference's most significant contribution to the success and development of women's basketball has been its legendary players.

Names like Ann Meyers, Cheryl Miller, Cherie Nelson, Denise Curry, the McGee Sisters, Azzi, Sonja Henning, Whiting, Natalie Williams, Lisa Leslie, Kate Starbird, Tina Thompson, Nicole Powell, Candice Wiggins, Briann January and the Ogwumike sisters are just a few of the Pac-12 stars who have written a chapter in women's basketball at both the national and Conference level. Most recently, Kelsey Plum broke several records during her four years at Washington, becoming the NCAA women's basketball scoring record which had stood for 16 years.

The first of this elite group to bring the women's game into the national spotlight was Meyers, the first four-time All-American. Meyers led the UCLA Bruins to the 1978 AlAW Championship under the direction of then-first year head coach Billie Moore. Curry, also a member of the 1978 title team, earned All-America honors three times and still stands as UCLA's all-time leading scorer, male or female. After 16 seasons, Moore ended her stint as the Bruins' mentor with a 423-182 career coaching record, with 296 of her victories coming at UCLA.

Miller led USC to consecutive national titles in 1983 and 1984 and rewrote the school's record books. A four-time All-American, Miller won the Naismith Award three times, an amazing feat considering the honor is the equivalent of college football's Heisman Trophy. Miller was also selected to the "1980s NCAA Team of the Decade" as voted by a panel of media and coaches.

In 1999, Kodak named its Silver Anniversary Team, honoring the top-10 Division I players of all-time, and Meyers and Miller were two of the 10 athletes honored.

Only 29 women have ever been inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mo., and six of those outstanding individuals hail from the Pac-12: Meyers (1993), Miller (1995), Curry (1997), Moore (1999), Cynthia Cooper-Dyke (2010) and legendary head coach Tara VanDerveer (2011).

The Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in Nashville, Tenn., announced its inaugural class of 25 inductees in 1998, honoring legends from the 107-year history of the women's game. Moore, Meyers, Curry and Miller were inducted in the initial year. VanDerveer and former USC and California Coach Marianne Stanley joined the ranks in 2002, while former Oregon player and former Ducks head coach Bev Smith was inducted with the Class of 2004.

Former UCLA star Ann Meyers was the first-ever four-time All-American and led the Bruins to the 1978 AIAW National title.

On the national level, women's basketball has made tremendous strides in both popularity and attendance. The 2008 Olympic Team won its fourth-straight gold medal as Leslie became just the second basketball player ever to win four gold medals (Teresa Edwards, U.S.). Leslie was joined by former Pac-10-great Thompson on the 2008 national team.

Many outstanding Pac-12 women's basketball plavers have gone on to success at the professional level, including 17 former Pac-12 stars who are currently playing or coaching in the WNBA. Headlining that prestigious list of athletes who have played in the WNBA is Leslie, a five-time All-WNBA first team honoree and the 2002 WNBA Finals MVP. The first player to be placed on a team when the league began, Leslie became the first WNBA player to amass 5,000 career points and recorded the first dunk in league history during the 2002 campaign. She guided the Los Angeles Sparks to back-to-back league titles in 2001 and 2002. Fellow USC alumnae Thompson and retired WNBA star Cynthia Cooper helped guide the Houston Comets to four straight WNBA titles in 1997-2000. In August 2003, Thompson became just the second WNBA player to amass 4,000 points, following in Leslie's footsteps. Regarded throughout the league as the face of the WNBA and the most dominant player in the sport, Leslie announced her retirement in 2009, concluding a career that spanned 15 years.

The newest chapter in Conference women's basketball history was the addition of a postseason tournament in 2002 and the league expanded to include Colorado and Utah and. An inaugural Pac-10 Women's Basketball Tournament was held Mar. 1-4, 2002, at storied McArthur Court on the University of Oregon campus. The Arizona State Sun Devils defeated the Stanford Cardinal in the championship game, capturing the Conference's first tournament trophy. Beginning in 2003, the tournament moved to the Northern California Bay Area and HP Pavilion at San Jose for a six-year run (2003-08), which saw UCLA and the Cardinal capture titles. In 2009, the event moved to the Galen Center in downtown Los Angeles and proved to be another exciting chapter. The tournament was combined with the men's tournament in 2010 and, for the first time ever, the semifinals and championship games were played at the STAPLES Center. In 2013, the tournament moved again, this time to KeyArena in beautiful Seattle with great success, drawing record crowds in each of its six season in the Emerald City where four different champions have been crowned.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- Under second-year head coach Adia Barnes, the Wildcats return just three players from last year's squad, two of which were starters. Another four freshmen join the team for 2016-17 with four transfers added as well, one of which will be able to play this season.
- This year's team will look drastically different from last season's squad. Barnes will depend heavily on returning starters sophomore Lucia Alonso, one of the first players to sign with Barnes last fall. Hailing from Spain, she brings international experience with her as a member of the U18 Spanish National Team. She led the Wildcats in three-point shooting last season.
- The only other starter returning is junior Destiny Graham, a guard out of San Francisco, Calif. One of just two seniors on the team, Jalea Bennett played in all 30 games last season, earning five starts. She averaged 6.9 points last season and was the second-best free-throw shooter on the squad.
- Senior transfer Kat Wright will try to make a big impact in her only season with the Wildcats. A transfer from Florida Atlantic, she will play immediately due to a medical redshirt last season. Wright will give added depth from the three-point line. A 40-percent shooter from long range, she sunk 11 threes in a game in January 2016, the second-most threes in a game in NCAA history.
- Barnes has just 11 players on the roster this season, three of which are not eligible to play because of NCAA transfer rules. In addition to limited option this year, Barnes also has a young squad. But practices should be competitive with transfers from programs such as Washington, Purdue and Iowa State, which should prepare the rest of the squad for the regular-season slate.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- The Sun Devils advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament where it nearly knocked off eventual NCAA Champion South Carolina, losing by a margin of 71-68. It was ASU's fourth-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament, but 2017-18 leaves little to build on.
- With the departures of go-tos Sophie Brunner and Quinn Dornstauder, no seniors on the roster and four newcomers, Charli Turner Thorne will need to determine who can fill their roles.
- The only two starters returning are sophomore Reili Richardson and junior Sabrina Haines. Richardson led the team in assists last season, was the team's third-leading scorer (and highest-returning scorer) and was named honorable mention Pac-12 All-Freshman team. She was also selected to the USA U19 World Cup team and that experience will elevate her play.
- Haines averaged just a half a point less than Richardson and was in the top-three on the squad in assists and steals. With her experience, she looks to take on a greater role on the team.
- ASU welcomes two freshmen and a pair of transfers. Among the transfers is junior Courtney Ekmark who lands in Tempe after spending two seasons at Connecticut. Her experience winning two national championships at UConn will serve a young squad well.
- Top-100 recruit Eva Rubin is a 6-5 center, one of the two freshmen joining the team, and should make an impact.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- After missing out on the NCAA Tournament for the first time since Lindsay Gottlieb arrived on campus in 2011-12, the Golden Bears clawed their way in last season as one of the last teams selected, advancing to the second round. Cal looks to continue that momentum with 10 letterwinners returning, including four starters back, and the No. 17 recruiting class in the nation joining the team.
- Junior Kristine Anigwe will continue to be the focal point of the Bears. The national freshman of the year two years ago, she commands a lot of attention from opposing defenses, as the only player on the team to average double figure scoring and nearly 10.0 rebounds per game.
- Anigwe, along with teammates Mi'Cole Cayton, Mikayla Cowling and Asha Thomas competed in the USA
 Basketball 3x3 National Tournament, which pitted seven Pac-12 teams against each other in a pilot program, governed by FIBA 3x3 rules.
- A three-year starter, Cowling led the team in assists and was named to the Pac-12 All-Defensive team. A junior this season, Thomas is a threat from long range, knocking down 69 threes, the second-most in a season in Bears history. She has started every game the last two seasons. Cayton had a strong rookie campaign, earning 12 starts. She scored 18 points in the upset of UCLA last season.
- Cal has not lacked talent, but needs to maintain consistent play, which has plagued it the last two seasons relying primarily on underclassmen. But with perennial starters as seniors this year, the Bears look to be ready to build on last year's success.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- The Buffs were a much-improved team in 2016-17, winning 10 more overall games than the year before and two more league games than the previous season. In the first season under head coach JR Payne, Colorado finished tied for ninth in the Pac-12 and advanced to the first round of the WNIT. It was the first time the Buffs had been to the postseason in three years.
- In trying to rebuild Colorado and take it back to the level it once was when it went to the NCAA Tournament in 10 out of 13 years from 1992-2004, Payne has brought in eight newcomers to go which will make this year's edition of the Buffs very different from last season.
- Only five letterwinners are back, three of which are starters. Juniors Kennedy Leonard and Alexis Robinson were the team's leading scorers last year, and return to lead the team in 2017-18. Voted to the All-Pac-12 team, Leonard became the scoring threat Payne challenged her to be and ranked in the top five in scoring in the Pac-12, while also averaging the second-most assists and steals in the Conference.
- Robinson was the team's second-leading scorer and a solid all-around threat. She has spent the offseason rehabbing a knee injury suffered in the postseason last year. Her expected return this fall will be highly anticipated.
- Payne will rely on the leadership of seniors Zoe Correal and Brecca Thomas, the only two seniors on the team. Correal was a regular starter, averaging 4.3 points and 4.2 rebounds per game.
- Payne's first recruiting class at Colorado includes top-100 rated recruit Aubrey Knight. A California State Player of the Year in her division, she is a big guard that could make an immediate impact.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- The Ducks outperformed expectations last season, first earning a NCAA Tournament bid for the first time since 2005, then advancing to their first-ever NCAA Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight. With nine letterwinners returning, including all five starters, the expectations have increased for Oregon exponentially.
- Leading the way is USBWA National Freshman of the Year Sabrina Ionescu. She made herself known right away. Aside from ranking in the top 10 in the Pac-12 in seven statistical categories, including 10th in points per game, fourth in assists and second in assist-to-turnover ratio, she led the nation with four triple-doubles, already making her one of just three players in league history with multiple triple-doubles in their careers.
- Sophomore Ruthy Hebard also emerged as a big-time player last season, averaging nearly 14 points and 8.5 rebounds per game to rank in the top 10 in both categories in her rookie campaign.
- Junior Maite Cazorla returns with an abundance of experience at point guard, serving in that role since her freshman season. Senior Lexi Bando is back as the outside threat, ranking second in the Pac-12 in threepoint shooting and a big reason the Ducks ranked fourth in the category.
- Sophomore center Mallory McGwire was one of three freshmen in the starting lineup last season, the only team in the NCAA Tournament with three rookies starting. Though she has a strong inside presence, she can hurt teams from the outside, boasting a 53 percent shooting percentage last season, good for second in the Pac-12.
- Fourth-year head coach Kelly Graves has not let up on the recruiting trail, even after a top-three rated class last year. Graves has signed two of the top international prospects, including Satou Sabally, the No. 1 prospect in the world out of Germany.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- For the first time in the history of the program, the Beavers have made three-consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, including the program's first-ever NCAA Women's Final Four appearance. Head coach Scott
 Rueck has built a national contender in eight years, also claiming three-consecutive regular-season Pac-12 crowns.
- OSU lost its most impactful players over the last two seasons that helped put the Beavers back onto the national scene, players like Gabriella Hanson, Ruth Hamblin, Jamie Weisner and Sydney Wiese. Replacing them will be a tough challenge but Rueck has already brought in high-caliber players to help challenge for another league title and an NCAA Tournament bid.
- Senior Marie Gulich is one of two starters returning and the only senior. Her strength is taking up space in the paint as a 6-5 center, ranking in the top-10 in the league in rebounding.
- Sophomore Mikayla Pivec was a reliable guard for the Beavers and was a utility player of sorts, contributing points, rebounds, assists, steals and blocks.
- Junior Katie McWilliams and sophomore Kat Tudor played in the majority of games. Tudor had the secondbest three-point shooting percentage and the second-most threes on the team behind Wiese.
- Known for its defensive-minded play, OSU has had the last three Pac-12 Defensive Players of the Year, most recently Hanson.
- Rueck has four incoming recruits that make up a top-20 recruiting class. Taya Corosdale will add to the Beavs inside which includes five players measuring 6-foot-2 to 6-foot-8. She is ranked No. 26 in the nation.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- Stanford will once again be in the conversation of top teams in the Pac-12 and the nation. The defending Pac-12 Tournament Champion is coming off its 13th all-time NCAA Women's Final Four appearance. The Cardinal lost three key starters but has added top talent to help fill the voids left by graduating seniors Erica McCall, Karlie Samuelson and Briana Roberson. The Cardinal were third in the country in total blocks and rebounds, two categories where McCall had the biggest impact.
- Senior Brittany McPhee was vastly improved in her junior campaign, averaging nearly 7.0 points per game more than her sophomore season. She is a big guard that is a threat from the three-point line and on the inside. as well.
- Senior Kaylee Johnson was a strong presence on the inside as a starter, especially on the boards, and junior Marta Sniezek was a spark off the bench last season, leading the team in assists while earning starts in nine games.
- Hall of Fame coach Tara VanDerveer brought in a talented class last season that made an immediate impacts, including Nadia Finghall in the post and DiJonai Carrington, an athletic guard, both of whom helped VanDerveer win her 1,000th-career game. The head coach has followed up with the fifth-rated recruiting class in the country, that includes two top-11 prospects and a pair of high school All-Americans in Kiana Williams (#8) and Maya Dodson (#11). Williams was named the Jordan Brand Classic MVP.
- Stanford faces a challenging schedule, as usual, opening the campaign with a tough road trip to face Ohio State, then follows up with Connecticut two days later. It will be the first meeting UConn and Stanford in three years.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- UCLA's No. 1 2014 recruiting class are now seniors, including Jordin Canada and Monique Billings. After winning the WNIT title as freshmen, the duo have led the Bruins to back-to-back NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearances for the first time in program history.
- Billings and Canada have raised the profile of the Bruin program since arriving on campus. A preseason national player of the year and All-American candidate, Canada was the team's third-leading scorer and while also ranking in the top 15 in the nation and leading the Pac-12 in assists per game and assist-to-turnover ratio.
- Also an All-American candidate, Billings was one of just two players in the Pac-12 to average a double-double, along with former Washington Husky and All-American Chantel Osahor. Defenders have a hard time keeping up with her in the paint, often drawing contact and sending her to the line last season the seventh-most of anyone in the country, third in the Pac-12.
- In addition to Billings and Canada returning, senior starter Kelli Hayes is also back. She was a part of that headline-making recruiting class in 2014, as well. Junior Kennedy Burke had a breakout season as a sophomore. A big guard, she is an outside scoring threat.
- Head coach Cori Close has done another stellar job on the recruiting trail, signing the No. 6 recruiting class in the nation. The class includes three five-star recruits, including Michaela Onyenwere (#10, high school All-American) and Chantel Horvat (#15) who are both ranked in the top 15 in the nation.
- With so much talent and experience on the squad, the Bruins will be a tough opponent for any team on the schedule, and will figure in the national scene and compete for a Pac-12 title.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- USC will have a familiar face on the sideline this season with head coach Mark Trakh returning at Galen Center after eight years away. In his previous five seasons at USC from 2004-09, he led the Trojans to backto-back NCAA Tournament appearances and a top-five finish in the Pac-10 every season, including a tie for second his first season.
- Trakh's first order of business was to put together his coaching staff, which was with him at New Mexico State. In his last three seasons with the Aggies, NMSU won three-consecutive WAC titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.
- On the floor, Trakh welcomes back nearly the full squad from last season's team with 11 letterwinners returning, including four starters. Senior Jordan Adams has been dealing with several injuries in her career and now looks to close out her time at USC healthy and helping the team win games. Last season, she was coming off a career season averaging 12.8 points per game and 7.7 rebounds per game in 12 games, before being sidelined.
- Senior Kristen Simon led the team in points (14.5) and rebounds (8.5) per game, both the best of her career. The power forward was an All-Pac-12 honoree last season and will be depended on to be the focal point in the paint with a guard-heavy roster.
- Starters junior Sadie Edwards and sophomore Ja'Tavia Tapley have another year of experience, while sophomore Minyon Moore could compete for a starting role after leading the team in assists and steals and was second in scoring.
- Incoming freshmen Ayanna Clark and Shalexxus Aaron are top-83 rated prospects. Clark is a local product and was named a high school All-American.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- Head coach Lynn Roberts employed a balanced offense last season with four of the five starters averaging at least 10 points per game. The core of that team returns with seniors Emily Potter and Tanaeya Boclair leading the team, as is junior Erika Bean.
- A 2016 All-Pac-12 honoree, Potter spent some time over the summer with Team Canada and that experience should help her to be an even bigger force in the paint on both the offensive and defensive sides. Potter averaged 13.7 points and 8.2 rebounds per game, both solid numbers and tops on the team but down from her sophomore campaign when she averaged a double-double (15.3 ppg, 10.2 rpg). She should be motivated to close out her campaign on a strong note.
- Bean was the primary distributor of the ball, leading to the third-best assists average in the league. She looks to diect the offense again. Boclair is a versatile player, also contributing in assists, steals and blocks.
- The Utes have plenty of experience on the roster and look to mentor a big incoming class that includes six newcomers. All the returnees saw playing time in the majority of games last season.
- The highlight of the incoming class is a top-100, four-star prospect Tori Williams. The Gatorade Idaho Player of the Year, she has the talents to score from the outside, stretching the defense and giving Utah's posts space in the paint to score. If the Utes are going to move up the standings, they will need that balance throughout the team, again.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- After back-to-back headline-making seasons and just one starter back from last year, the Huskies will be in a rebuilding phase. And with a new head coach in the ranks in Jody Wynn, the Huskies will have a lot to learn about the new staff.
- The Huskies have big shoes to fill with the graduations of the NCAA's all-time scoring leader and consensus national player of the year Kelsey Plum, All-American Chantel Osahor and Katie Collier. Plum and Osahor, especially, were the focal point of the offense, which ranked No. 1 in the Pac-12 and sixth in the nation. accounting for over 55 percent of the points. Plum led the nation in scoring, while Osahor was the nation's rebounding and double-doubles leader.
- That dynamic duo will be not replaced, instead the Huskies are going to have to set their own identity without them, starting with veteran Natalie Romeo, the only returning starter. Romeo was a weapon from long range, ranking in the top 25 in the country in threes made.
- Juniors Deja Strother and Hannah Johnson have game experience, with Johnson earning three starts last season. Seniors Jenna Moser and Mackenzie Weiburg were both practice players who earned spots on the squad and will be looked to for leadership.
- Sophomores Mai-Loni Henson and Amber Melgoza also return to build on the experience they received playing in a combined 26 games.
- Five newcomers join the squad this season that bring with them a wealth of high school accolades and should be able to contribute right away.

TEAM OUTLOOK

- The Cougs lose just one from last season's roster that advanced to the semifinal of the WNIT, returning 12 letterwinners and add to it a trio of incoming freshmen. Last season's postseason first-round victory was the first postseason win in the history of the program. WSU and head coach June Daugherty look to build on that but health will be a contributing factor.
- The 2015-16 freshman sensation of Borislava Hristova was injured after nine games into her sophomore season. During her rookie campaign, she was one of the top-scoring freshmen in the nation, averaging just over 16 points per game. She looked to be on the same track last season before being sidelined because of injury, leading the team in scoring with 14.7 points per game. Her return to the court will be highly anticipated for the Cougs, and will be a bonus for a team that has already achieved so much.
- Sophomore Chanelle Molina also burst onto the scene in Pullman, taking over the for the injured Hristova. She was named the national freshman of the week after putting on a performance where she scored 33 points in a game but was sidelined just weeks into Conference play.
- Ten different players earned starts last season, a testament to the Cougs' ability to make adjustments and Daughtery's ability to get the most of her players. Six different players last season averaged at least 8.0 points per game, including Pinelopi Pavlopoulou, a senior guard who upped her game in the postseason averaging 13.4 ppg and 7.4 rpg in five WNIT games
- Starting nearly every game last season, senior Caila Hailey was a honorable mention Pac-12 All-Defensive team honoree after ranking third in the Pac-12 with 2.1 steals per game.

Many outstanding Pac-12 women's basketball players have gone on to succeed at the professional level, as 10 former Pac-12 stars were on the opening day rosters as players or coaches in the WNBA. Headlining the list of former Pac-12 athletes who have played in the WNBA is Lisa Leslie, a five-time All-WNBA first team honoree and the 2002 WNBA Finals MVP who retired in 2009. Leslie became the first WNBA player to amass 5,000 career points and recorded the first dunk in league history during the 2002 season. She guided the Los Angeles Sparks to back-to-back league titles in 2001 and 2002. Fellow USC alums and retired WNBA stars Tina Thompson and Cynthia Cooper helped guide the Houston Comets to four-straight WNBA titles from 1997-2000. Most recently, former Stanford Cardinal and current LA Spark Nnemkadi Ogwumike was named the WNBA's Rookie of the Year in 2012. Two years later, her sister Chiney won the award as a member of the Connecticut Sun. In 2016, Nnemkadi was voted the WNBA Player of the Year.

USC's Lisa Leslie was named the MVP of the 2002 WNBA Championship.

LAWRENCE G. SCOTT	2009-Present

Throughout his career as a student-athlete, professional athlete, and sports executive, Larry Scott has been a game changer: a bold, innovative leader with a vision for transformative change — from expansion and revitalization of the Pac-12 to equal prize money at Wimbledon. Commissioner Scott's firm belief that sport has the power to be a force for positive change has been the hallmark of his career.

EXPANSION AND INNOVATION AT THE PAC-12

In his eight years as Pac-12 Commissioner, with the support of the Pac-12 universities' presidents and chancellors, Scott has orchestrated a rebranding of the conference, with messages of innovation, excellence, and the advantages of a West Coast location at its core. Scott also led the conference through an expansion for the first time since 1978 by successfully adding Colorado and Utah.

During his tenure, the Pac-12 added a Football Championship Game, transformed its men's and women's basketball tournaments into must-attend events, and secured an agreement for equal revenue sharing for the first time ever.

Scott has also led a transformation of the conference's media posture by delivering much-needed revenue, dramatically increasing exposure for women's and Olympic sports, establishing ever-evolving digital and mobile platforms for Pac-12 content, and creating training and employment opportunities for thousands of Pac-12 students interested in launching media careers. To achieve these goals, he delivered a landmark media rights agreement with ESPN and FOX and created Pac-12 Networks, the first-ever integrated media company owned by a collegiate conference.

Commissioner Scott and the presidents and chancellors of the Pac-12 have led the way in ensuring that Pac-12 universities' academic missions and the growth and development of student-athletes remain the primary focus of intercollegiate athletics. Through a series of reforms, Pac-12 schools have committed to enhanced student-athlete benefits, including increasing scholarship limits to cover the full cost of attending college and adding student-athletes to the conference's formal governance structure. For the 7,000 student-athletes in the Pac-12, participation in intercollegiate athletics provides an avenue to earn a degree from one of the best universities in the world. Scott is staunchly committed to retaining college sports a vital component of American higher education by continually adapting to the changing needs of today's student-athletes.

Under Scott's leadership, the Pac-12 also created a Student-Athlete Health and Well Being Initiative: a collective effort between the conference and its member universities to identify ways to reduce injuries, share current best practices, and conduct research to uncover new ways to keep student-athletes as safe as possible. Over the last three years, the Pac-12's Student-Athlete Health and Well Being Grant Program has funded millions of dollars in research on Pac-12 campuses focused on everything from head trauma to overuse injuries to thermal management.

Scott's vision for the conference also reaches beyond geographic borders. In 2011, the Pac-12 launched Pac-12 Global, an initiative that aims to expand the conference's and its members' footprint around the world. Since its advent, Pac-12 Global has been the catalyst for several international athletic events and student-athlete cultural exchange programs, all while spreading Pac-12 universities' brands to new audiences. In 2015, the Pac-12 hosted the first-ever regular season basketball game, collegiate or professional, to be played in China and has since made the Pac-12 China Game an annual opener to the college basketball season. The conference has also made inroads in Australia, where a team of Pac-12 men's basketball all-stars traveled and competed during the summer of 2016.

All the while, the athletic excellence that has defined the Pac-12 for over a century has only increased during Scott's tenure. In May of 2017, the Pac-12 won its 500th NCAA team championship, becoming the first conference to hit the milestone and putting the Pac-12 nearly 200 NCAA Championships ahead of any other conference. Pac-12 athletes have also made their mark on the world in recent years, winning a total of 55 medals at the 2016 Rio Olympics, a number that would have made the conference fifth in the medal count had it been a country.

PROVEN LEADERSHIP IN ATHLETICS

Scott succeeded Tom Hansen as the sixth Commissioner of what was then the Pac-10 Conference on July 1, 2009. Before that, he served for six years as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Sony Ericsson Women's Tennis Association (WTA) Tour, where he helped generate unprecedented growth and popularity for women's professional tennis on a global scale.

At the WTA Tour, Scott worked with Billie Jean King and others to achieve the long-sought goal of equal prize money for women in tennis' grand slam events. He also became the architect of the largest-ever sponsorship in both women's sports and professional tennis, a six-year $88-million title sponsorship agreement with Sony Ericsson. His many other WTA achievements include the largest television deal in women's tennis history, a reform package that led to a 40 percent increase in prize money, and $750 million in facilities investments.

Scott's career in athletics extends back to his captaincy of the Harvard men's tennis team, where he was named an All-American, earned a B.A. in History, and developed a first-hand understanding of the importance of maintaining balance between academics and athletics.

He went on to play tennis professionally on the ATP circuit, winning one title, and then going on to

He went on to play tennis professionally on the ATP circuit, winning one title, and then going on to work for more than a decade with the ATP, where his roles included Chief Operating Officer, President of ATP Properties, and Executive Vice President of the International Group. In those roles, he was credited with significantly increasing the global popularity of men's tennis, establishing the Tennis Masters Cup as one of the sport's most successful events, negotiating a renewal of the ATP's 13-year partnership with Mercedes-Benz that remains one of the preeminent sponsorship agreements in tennis history, and launching tournaments in places like China and the Persian Gulf.

RECOGNITION AND SERVICE

Scott has often earned recognition for his visionary leadership. He has been a finalist for the Sports Executive of the Year Award given by Sports Business Journal and was awarded the Vision Award by Cynopsis Sports. Scott was also given the Americanism Award by the Anti-Defamation League in tribute to his mission of fostering positive change through sports.

Scott serves on several boards inside and outside of intercollegiate athletics, including the 150th Anniversary of College Football, College Football Playoff LLC Management Committee, the Rose Bowl Management Committee, and the Women's Sports Foundation.

Larry and his wife, Cybille, live in Danville, Calif., and have three children: Alexander, Sebastien, and Alannah.

LEARFIELD SPORTS DIRECTORS' CUP

The STANFORD Cardinal captured their 23rd-consecutive Directors' Cup in leading the Pac-12 Conference to another impressive finish in the final 2016-17 Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) announced.

Led by four NCAA titles (women's volleyball, men's soccer, women's swimming and diving, and women's water polo), Stanford won its 23rd-consecutive Cup. In all, the Cardinal posted 11 top five finishes in tallying an impressive 1,563.00 points. That's 219.25 points more than runner-up Ohio State.

Behind a pair of NCAA titles (women's soccer and beach volleyball), USC finished fourth with 1,251.25 points for its fourth consecutive top 10 finish. OREGON placed ninth overall with 1,027.00 points, the best-ever finish by the Ducks in the Directors' Cup. Oregon collected three NCAA titles for the second straight season as it claimed the triple crown with titles in women's cross country, women's indoor track and field, and women's outdoor track and field. UCLA placed 11th overall with 1,007.00 points, while CALIFORNIA, aided by its men's water polo title, finished 14th with 916.75 points. That gave the Pac-12 five teams among the top 15, more than any other conference.

WASHINGTON added an NCAA title in women's rowing, the Pac-12's 500th NCAA title all-time, and placed 22nd with 801.25 points. COLORADO finished 34th (641.00), followed by ARIZONA at 42nd (545.50). ARIZONA STATE was right behind the Wildcats at 43rd (543.50), thanks in part to the women's golf program capturing their nation-leading eighth NCAA golf title. UTAH, which picked up its 11th NCAA skiing title, was 54th (459.50), followed by OREGON STATE (69th, 333.75) and WASHINGOTN STATE (101st, 202.50).

The success of the Pac-12 in the Directors' Cup was bolstered by the capturing of 13 NCAA titles, most among all conferences. In addition, 10 Pac-12 league members combined to post 39 top-four finishes in 24 NCAA championships.

The Directors' Cup was developed as a joint effort between the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and USA Today. Points are awarded based on each institution's finish in up to 20 sports - 10 women's and 10 men's.
