FAST FACTS

MATCHUP HISTORY

- The Spirit owns an 11-8-7 all-time regular season record against the Houston Dash with a +4 goal differential (33-29).
- When Washington visited Houston last April, the team conceded a goal in the first minute of the match to former Spirit player Natalie Jacobs. Despite carrying the deficit into halftime, the Spirit scored three goals in the second half to secure three points on the road.

SPIRITED RECENT HISTORY

The Spirit has lost just one of its 11 most recent matches (all competitions) against the Dash, the October 2022 meeting between the sides at Audi Field. Since September 2019, Washington holds a 5-1-5 record against Houston. Additionally, the Spirit has not lost in its last five matches at Shell Energy Stadium, holding a 1-0-4 record.

COMPANY IN THE TROPHY CASE

The Spirit kicked off its 2025 campaign with a Challenge Cup title, taking down the defending Shield winner and NWSL champion Orlando Pride after penalty kicks. Even short-handed, missing the likes of Croix Bethune, Courtney Brown, Paige Metayer, Ouleye Sarr, Andi Sullivan and others, the Spirit equalized in the second half thanks to a free kick strike from midfielder Leicy Santos. After regulation, the Spirit picked up where it left off in its 2024 semifinal against Gotham FC, connecting on every attempt while goalkeeper Aubrey Kingsbury made a key save to deliver the team its first trophy since the 2021 NWSL Championship.

Washington Spirit Acquires Additional International Roster Slot in Trade with Racing Louisville FC

Washington, D.C. (03/11/2025) – The Washington Spirit has acquired an additional international roster slot for the 2025 season in a trade with Racing Louisville FC, the clubs announced today. In exchange, the Spirit sent $80,000 in intra-league transfer funds to Louisville.

The Spirit now has nine international roster slots for the 2025 season. Currently under international designation on the Spirit roster are Leicy Santos (Colombia), Ouleye Sarr (France), Esme Morgan (England), Rebeca Bernal (Mexico), Rosemonde Kouassi (Ivory Coast), Narumi Miura (Japan), Sandy MacIver (England), and Kysha Sylla (France).

The Spirit kicked off the team's 2025 campaign by winning the second trophy in club history in the annual NWSL Challenge Cup last week against the Orlando Pride. Fans can secure their spot to see the Spirit in the team's next match at Audi Field by becoming 2025 Season Ticket Members here.
