FAST FACTS

MATCHUP HISTORY

- The Spirit holds a 17-13-10 all-time record against Gotham FC with a +12 goal differential (55-43), including a 14-10-6 record in the regular season with a +10 goal differential (44-34).
- Including last year's playoffs, the Spirit has taken three straight against its east coast rival, winning both regular season matchups by a 2-0 margin and advancing past Gotham in the 2024 semifinal after a 3-0 penalty kick shootout victory.
- Gotham FC is the Spirit's most-played opponent in club history, with 30 regular season matches and 40 total matches between the sides.

RIVALRY RENEWED

Saturday's match will be the first between the Spirit and Gotham since November's semifinal thriller in front of a sellout crowd at Audi Field. In that match, Gotham's Esther scored the go-ahead goal in the second half before Spirit rookies Hal Hershfelt and Makenna Morris connected for the equalizer late in stoppage time. After a scoreless extra time, the Spirit shut out Gotham in a penalty shootout when Aubrey Kingsbury saved all three attempts from the visitors and advanced Washington to its third NWSL Championship.

HOMEFIELD FORTRESS

Since the Spirit began playing home matches at Audi Field in DC, the side has established a significant homefield advantage with a 23-9-9 (over 67% winning percentage) regular season record at the venue. Gotham FC is winless in the side's six visits to DC, with Washington holding a 3-0-3 record in the series at Audi.

Washington Spirit to Play Bay FC at Iconic Oracle Park in San Francisco, presented by Visa

SAN FRANCISCO (04/22/2025) - Bay FC announced today that the club's home match Saturday, August 23 vs. the Washington Spirit will be hosted at San Francisco's Oracle Park, home of Major League Baseball's San Francisco Giants. The match, presented by Visa, will kick off at 4 p.m. EDT/1 p.m. PDT and be broadcast nationally on CBS.

Pre-sale opportunities will begin on Monday, May 5 with tickets becoming available to the general public at 12 p.m. EDT on Tuesday, May 6. Fans who want pre-sale access can sign up here by becoming a Bay FC Insider.

"Oracle Park is an iconic venue and has proven across its 25-year history to be a gathering place for the most passionate fans in sports. We're eager for the opportunity to create league history alongside the Washington Spirit by being the first professional women's teams to play at Oracle Park and thankful to the San Francisco Giants for their support of our ambitions," said Bay FC CEO Brady Stewart. "Playing a match in San Francisco allows us to connect with our fans from around the Bay Area in an incredible setting."

Bay FC and Washington Spirit's August 23 matchup will be the second of the 2025 NWSL season between the two clubs and the fifth all-time. The two sides met once already this season, March 28 at Audi Field, as well as last fall in Bay FC's first playoff match in club history, the 2024 NWSL Quarterfinals.

2025 TEAM NOTES

MARCH 14: WAS at HOU

- The Spirit had four players make their Spirit debuts. Rebeca Bernal, Narumi Miura, Margie Detrizio and Meg Boade all appeared in their first regular season match for the Spirit. Detrizio and Boade also made their professional debuts.
- Second-year pro Makenna Morris scored her fourth goal in as many regular season matches with her go-ahead goal in the 16th minute.
- Forward Ashley Hatch buried the game-winner in the 33rd minute, the 54th of her regular season career. The goal tied her with Jess McDonald for fifth-most regular season goals in NWSL history.

MARCH 22: WAS vs KCC

- Goalkeeper Aubrey Kingsbury recorded her 500th career regular season save late in the match, becoming just the fifth player in NWSL history to do so.

MARCH 28: WAS vs BAY

- Forward Ashley Hatch netted her 55th and 56th career regular season goals, moving past Jess McDonald for fifth-most in league history.

APRIL 12: WAS at LOU

- Forward Ashley Hatch netted her 50th career regular season goal with the Spirit (57th total) with her header in the 75th minute.
- Goalkeeper Aubrey Kingsbury collected her 39th career clean sheet, moving into a tie with Jane Campbell and Casey Murphy for fourth-most shutouts in NWSL regular season history.

APRIL 19: WAS at ORL

- The Spirit snapped the Orlando Pride's 22-match home unbeaten streak with a 1-0 win at Inter&Co Stadium. The regular season win was the Spirit's first in Orlando since 2019 and the Pride's first loss of the 2025 season.
- Goalkeeper Aubrey Kingsbury tallied a six-save shutout, her 40th career regular season clean sheet. Kingsbury became just the fourth player in NWSL history to reach the 40-shutout milestone.
