LAST TIME OUT - HILLCATS 7, RIVERDOGS 4

The RiverDogs held the Hillcats to three hits, but all three went for extra bases, including two homers, in a 7-4 defeat on Wednesday night at Bank of the James Stadium... Starter Jayden Voelker surrendered a run in the second and another in the fourth, but completed a season-high four innings... Lynchburg took command of the game in the sixth thanks to a Jeffery Mercedes grand slam... Jack Lines blasted a three-run homer in the eighth, making his first as a pro, to trim the lead to 7-4... Charleston went 1-8 with runners in scoring position...

SLIDING

The RiverDogs five-game losing streak is the longest active losing skid in the Carolina League. It's the team's second losing streak of five games or more this season, as the squad opened the season 0-6 - the franchise's worst start since 1990)

APRIL SHOWERS...

Charleston finished the season's opening month 8-15. The 15 April losses are the most by a RiverDogs team on record. The RiverDogs have struggled in April recently, losing 13 or more games three seasons in a row.

GIVEN, NOT EARNED

The RiverDogs have allowed at least one unearned run in each of the last five games (11 unearned runs in total). Charleston is 1-5 this season when committing three errors or more (the lone victory came on Thursday vs FBG).

NIP AND TUCK

Each of the RiverDogs last four losses have been decided by two runs or fewer. 13 of the RiverDogs 22 games have been decided by three or less.

DOWN TO A TREVOR!

Today's starter, Trevor Harrison, has delivered back-to-back shutout outings, entering tonight's start with a 9.2 inning scoreless streak. Harrison is the No. 85 prospect in baseball according to Baseball America.

THROWING STRIKES

Charleston's pitching staff has surrendered 96 walks in 23 games - the second fewest in the Carolina League (Augusta). The team's 62% strike percentage is second in the league, and the club has thrown an average of 16.28 pitches per inning, the second fewest in Single-A.

HELD IN CHECK

Low run production has been the main culprit in the vast majority of Charleston's 15 losses this season. The RiverDogs have been held to three runs or fewer in 11 of their 15 defeats - with three of the four exceptions coming in the last three games. The team has scored six runs or more in five of their eight wins.

STAFF IN STRIDE

Since opening the season 0-6, the RiverDogs' pitching staff has been strong. Across the last 16 games, Charleston has posted a 3.48 ERA - eighth in Single-A in that span.

GOOD TO SEE YOU, GILLEN

Rays 2024 1st round draft pick Theo Gillen rejoined the RiverDogs for Sunday's series finale in Fredericksburg. The 19-year old is the Rays' No. 5 prospect and is ranked the No. 95 prospect in baseball according to MLB Pipeline. Gillen is the lone top-100 prospect on the 'Dogs roster.

LONG WAY FROM HOME

The RiverDogs are now past the midway point of their longest road trip of the season, playing 12 straight games in the state of Virginia. The trek from Riley Park to Bank of the James Stadium is 391 miles - roughly 6.5 hours.

GETTING BABIP'ED?

RiverDogs hitters have proved to be tough to strikeout through 22 games, collecting 190 - the fourth fewest in Single-A. Despite putting the ball in play at a high rate, the club's .202 batting average is the second-lowest in the Carolina League - thanks in part to a league-low .263 BABIP (league average is .306).

NO HITS, NO PROBLEM

The RiverDogs were no-hit by the Hickory Crawdads last Friday, but managed to win 1-0. The win marked the first time since April 8, 2023 that a Minor League team was no hit and won (Rocket City no-hit Chattanooga and lost 7-5 in seven innings). It was the first time since April 14, 2019 that a MiLB team delivered at least eight no hit innings and was defeated (Tulsa). The last Major League team to lose without allowing a hit was the Cincinnati Reds, as they were defeated by the Pirates 1-0 on May 15, 2022.

SCOUTING REPORT

Works with a three pitch mix: 4-seam fastball (95-99), Slider (84-86), Changeup (separation, fade)...

Baseball America - MLB No. 85, Rays No. 5 prospect: "His fastball doesn't have exceptional carry, but his velocity—he touches 98-99 now—makes it a plus pitch... Harrison has the physicality to develop into a frontline starter with power stuff." Ranked team's top pitching prospect

MLB Pipeline - Rays No. 11 prospect: "The Rays have credited Harrison for being fearless on the mound and attacking hitters, displaying confidence beyond his years."

SEASON NOTES

LAST START: Shut out Fredericksburg for five innings and struck out a season-high seven batters... Earned the win in a 6-0 shutout...

GET US STARTED: Started Opening Day for the RiverDogs on 4/4 vs MB... Allowed 4 ER in 2.1 innings... Struck out six, including the side in the top of the first... Shortest start as a member of the RiverDogs.

LAST THREE: Since allowing four runs on opening night, Harrison has allowed just two across 14.2 innings... Has struck out 16 batters in that span.

ABOUT TREVOR

ORIGIN STORY: Drafted by Rays in 5th round of 2023 draft out of Mitchell High School in Newport Richey, Florida... Signed out of commitment to his "dream school" Florida State. Was originally committed to UAB.

HOPEFUL HOMETOWN HERO: Harrison grew up a Rays fan in the Tampa area.... Evan Longoria was favorite player growing up.

STRIKEOUT MACHINE: Of his nine regular season starts with the RiverDogs last season, Harrison struck out six or more batters in five outings.... In his lone playoff start vs Kannapolis on Sept. 13, he punched out six in five innings of one-hit ball...

WHAT'S WITH THE GOGGLES?: Harrison wears rec-specs during his starts in order to combat the glare from stadium lighting... He does not have a glasses prescription.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING: Rays AGM Kevin Ibach to Baseball America (October 2024): "The poise, the maturity on the mound for a teenager, Trevor's stuff... my guess is a year from now he will be talked about as one of the biggest movers... He's still flying a little bit under the radar right now."

IN MY FREE TIME: Harrison enjoys fishing as a hobby and at one point considered pursuing a career as a fishing charter captain.

THE RETURN: Broke wrist as a sophomore in high school and nearly quit baseball afterwards... Was talked back into playing by mom and travel coach.

COACHING STAFF

Sean Smedley

Manager

Sean Smedley is back for his ninth season with the Rays and third season as Manager of the RiverDogs. Smedley led the team to complete the three-peat as Carolina League Champions in 2023, as well as the South Division second half title in 2024. During his playing career, he was a part of the Rays system in Bowling Green and Hudson Valley, and in 2016 he began his coaching career within the same organization he played for as video coordinator for the Princeton Rays. From 2017-2019, he was the bench coach for Hudson Valley. In 2021, after the Covid-19 pandemic, he became the bench coach for the RiverDogs. Smedley helped guide the RiverDogs to a dominant 82-38 campaign where they would eventually secure their inaugural title. He left to become a bench coach for Double-A Montgomery in 2022 and returned to the Lowcountry the following year.

Brett Schneider

Hitting Coach

Brett Schneider returns to the Holy City for a second season as the hitting coach of the RiverDogs. The bats saw massive improvements throughout 2024 and finished third in the league in walks and fourth in on-base percentage. Schneider spent the previous four years as a hitting coach in the Seattle Mariners farm system, including with the Arizona Complex League Mariners in 2023. Prior to coaching in the professional ranks, Schneider was a volunteer assistant coach at Florida Atlantic University. He also served as hitting coach for the Green Bay Bullfrogs of the Northwoods League in 2016 and managed the Great Lakes Collegiate League's Richmond Jazz in 2017.

Levi Romero

Pitching Coach

Levi (pronounced Lev-ee) Romero is back for a third season as the pitching coach after guiding the 2024 staff to the most shutouts in the league (15) and the circuit's fourth-best ERA. Prior to joining the RiverDogs, he served in the same role with the Rays Florida Complex League affiliate in 2022. Romero was the pitching coach for one of the Rays two entries in the Dominican Summer League in 2021. His playing career began in 2003 when he was signed out of Venezuela by the Houston Astros. In all, he pitched for five years in Minor League Baseball with the Astros and Texas Rangers before embarking on a seven-year international career that included stops in Venezuela and Japan and ended in 2015.

Francisco Leandro

Bench Coach

Leandro will serve as bench coach for the RiverDogs after spending each of the last two seasons with the FCL Rays. His primary responsibilities will include outfield defense and baserunning. After playing collegiately at Central Missouri, Leandro was drafted by Tampa Bay in 2004 and played in 31 games for the RiverDogs later that season. Prior to joining the Rays, the Venezuela native coached for both the Toronto Blue Jays and New York Yankees. He returned to Charleston as a defensive coach for the 2019 RiverDogs, who were affiliated with New York at the time.

Rance Terry

Strength and Conditioning

Rance Terry is in his first season with the Rays as well as the RiverDogs. He spent the last four years as the Senior Performance Coach for the University of Louisville's baseball and men's golf teams. Terry has previously worked in the farm systems of the Kansas City Royals and St. Louis Cardinals as well as collegiately at Purdue, Louisiana Tech, Florida Gulf Coast University, Tarleton State, Texas Tech and Texas Christian University. A 2012 graduate of Lubbock Christian University, Terry earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science while catching for the Chaparral baseball team. In 2015, he earned also a master's degree in Kinesiology from Tarleton State.

Kyndell Crowell

Athletic Trainer

Kyndell Crowell is in her first full season as Athletic Trainer for the RiverDogs. She served in the same role for the FCL Rays during each of the last two seasons.
