Since the inception of Chicago White Sox Charities (CWSC),

THE TEAM'S PHILANTHROPIC GIVING TOTALS $48 MILLION.

In 2024, the White Sox announced cumulative charitable donations of nearly $5 million.

Donations include $777,000 in grants to 30 Chicagoland non-profit organizations through the White Sox Community Fund, a McCormick Foundation Fund, as well as $125,000 through Chicago White Sox Charities (CWSC) to seven agencies providing services throughout the community. In addition, Sox Give, a White Sox employee-driven program, awarded $70,000 to 12 different agencies. CWSC also made donations totaling nearly $550,000 to fund White Sox youth baseball initiatives - including the organization's highly regarded Amateur City Elite (ACE) and Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) programs - and to fund non-profit organizations, such as the Jackie Robinson Foundation and the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum.

In June, the White Sox recognized the five organization beneficiaries during a special pregame check presentation ceremony. A gathering of many of the country's leading medical experts and pancreatic cancer thought leaders, each organization was presented with a personalized commemorative baseball bat signed by Hall of Famer Harold Baines.

CHICAGO SPORTS ALLIANCE

The White Sox, alongside the Chicago Bears, Blackhawks, Bulls and Cubs, have provided resources through the Chicago Sports Alliance (CSA) to seek innovative, evidence-based solutions to gun violence in the city.

Locally, the Alliance has invested $7 million in data-driven programs informed by the research and analysis of the University of Chicago Crime Lab. The McCormick Foundation has contributed an additional $3 million in matching grants since 2019 – for a total of $10 million in funding.

Recognizing June as National Gun Violence Awareness Month, the CSA supported six local organizations with $1.5 million in grants addressing this issue:

A community-based partnership with organizations in Little Village to provide wraparound services that address violence and support youth development

CHICAGO FUND FOR SAFE & PEACEFUL COMMUNITIES

Supports local organizations and alternative activities to violence during months when victimizations typically are at their highest level

A collective providing a platform for collaboration and advocating for sport as a vehicle for social change in our community

VIOLENCE PREVENTION PROGRAM

Leverages prevention, intervention, and restoration to form a comprehensive approach to reducing violence in East Garfield Park through street outreach, case management, safe space events through the game of basketball, and victim services

CENTER FOR CHILDREN

An independent non-profit provides research and expertise to build more effective services and systems focused on better serving children and families living in under-resourced communities

Convenes citywide organizations to help heal Chicago's communities experiencing the highest levels of gun violence

FUNDRAISING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

CWSC is powered by the selfless contributions and generous financial donations of sponsors and fans. Here's a snapshot of the initiatives that raised funds to promote youth education and advancement, share the love of the game through youth baseball initiatives, assist children and families in crisis and champion those battling cancer:

- Sox Split 50/50, presented by Wintrust, invited fans to purchase raffle tickets throughout the ballpark and online during every home game in 2024. During the final month of the season, the September Showdown rollover jackpot exceeded $226,000 – the largest jackpot of the year.
- Beyond the Diamond, presented by Peoples Gas and Wintrust, returned in May at Navy Pier. The program featured trivia with Hall of Famer Frank Thomas and a Jeopardy-style game show with players from the 2024 roster and play-by-play broadcaster John Schriffen. Proceeds from the event benefited the CWSC-supported Amateur City Elite program.
- The sold-out Field of Greens Celebrity Golf Outing, presented by Modelo, welcomed White Sox players, coaches, and franchise greats, including members of the 2005 World Series Championship team, to chip in for charity.
- Lunch with the Sox returned for its fifth year in September, featuring a spirited conversation with two-time American League MVP Frank Thomas.

- The tenth annual CWSC bobblehead fundraising campaign honored Hall of Famer and fan-favorite-catcher Carlton Fisk, commemorating his No. 72 jersey retirement. The retired jersey bobblehead sale, combined with previous bobblehead fundraising campaigns, has generated more than $750,000 for CWSC.
- White Sox fans could enter to win a Mazda CX-30, generously donated by Mazda of Orland Park, as part of the annual White Sox Car Raffle. This season marked the 11th consecutive year fans have won brand new cars through this CWSC fundraising campaign.
- All season long, fans were invited to the Charities Corner, a one-stop shop for game-used baseballs, bobbleheads, lineup cards and more. Located in Section 154, fans stopped by to make donations, bid on the latest auction items and purchase 50/50 raffle tickets, all while learning more about White Sox community outreach initiatives.
- White Sox Charities held several in-person garage sales and auctions, giving fans access to unbeatable savings on memorabilia, authentic apparel, game-used equipment and more. These efforts – inclusive of online auctions, the Run Your Sox Off 5K, presented by the Illinois Corn Growers Association, and sales of customized scoreboard messages – raised over $400,000.

LEADING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Naturalization Ceremony: The White Sox and the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois held a naturalization ceremony on the field prior to a game in May. Twenty-five candidates from 17 different countries were officially sworn in as U.S. Citizens by Hon. Thomas M. Durkin. After the ceremony, Sox infielder Bryan Ramos – who later in the season obtained his official U.S citizenship – passed out celebratory Sox hats to the group.

Juneteenth: Marking the Juneteenth holiday, the Sox collaborated with former second baseman and multidisciplinary artist Micah Johnson on artwork inspired by ACE athletes' creative input. Following a brainstorming session and honest discussion on Black liberation, Johnson wove the players' perspectives into a T-Shirt and commemorative patch design that mirrored individuals' aspirations both on and off the field. The finished creations featured an iteration of Johnson's digital character, Aku, as seen on the cover of Time Magazine in 2022, and were worn by White Sox and ACE team members throughout the homestand.

Our Roots Chicago: Hall of Famer Harold Baines and White Sox players joined Chicago Mayor Brandon Johnson to plant a ceremonial tree as part of a larger Earth Day sustainability effort through Our Roots Chicago. The project added nearly two dozen trees in the Armour Square Park area of Bridgeport, including 14 deciduous shade trees along 34th Street, as well as an additional eight trees at various parks and schools in the nearby community. CWSC also donated $5,000 to the Morton Arboretum, a key partner to Our Roots' community-driven, data-informed project and equitable approach to tree canopy.

Voter Awareness Efforts: Supporting the federal general election, the White Sox welcomed tabling efforts from Headcount, a non-partisan organization focused on registering individuals to vote and building interest in democracy. Together, the organizations shared voter registration and election poll information, while reminding fans of key dates, such as National Voter Registration Day, the Illinois voter registration deadline, Early Voting Day and Election Day.

SERVING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

White Sox Volunteer Corps:

A signature program for the White Sox, the Volunteer Corps was created in 2009 in response to a call for Americans to better their communities through service. The program organizes local outreach events that incorporate support from current and former players, coaches, Southpaw, front office staff and members of the volunteer group as they serve shoulder-to-shoulder to make Chicago a better place to live, work and play.

Sox Serve Week: In 2024, Sox Serve Week invited players, team personnel and fans to participate in several unique outreach events, including:

Misericordia Visit, where player families volunteered and assisted in vocational training programs, art activities and the Hearts and Flour Bakery.

ACE & Teflon Career Day featured more than 40 student-athletes from the organization's Amateur City Elite and Teflon Softball programs shadowing White Sox front office staff members in their respective sports careers.

Volunteer Corps Playground Build, in collaboration with Roc Solid Foundation, saw Sox players joining more than 100 volunteers to construct three playground sets which were gifted to children battling cancer.

Charities Day, presented by NBC Sports Chicago, invited fans to purchase limited-edition CHI Jam T-Shirts featuring broadcasters Chuck Garfien, Ozzie Guillén, John Schriffen, and Steve Stone in support of CWSC.

Matthew House Food Repacking, where White Sox front office staff and players assembled support bags with food and other essential items for families and children at risk of, or experiencing homelessness.

Grant Day, presented by Peoples Gas, recognized the 49 Chicagoland non-profits receiving CWSC grant support.

COMPETING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Amateur City Elite: The White Sox created the Amateur City Elite (ACE) program in 2007 to provide a pathway to the game of baseball for African American youth, while offering resources and mentorship to pull kids away from the dangers of some of Chicago's most violent neighborhoods. ACE offers the tools needed for success on the diamond and in life, and in 2022, the program received Major League Baseball's prestigious Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence.

ACE/Teflon Mental Health: The White Sox renewed an investment into its highly regarded mental health and performance enhancement program. In addition to weekly seminars, participants have access to a curated list of top mental health professionals, providing vital resources and a holistic approach to individuals' respective mental health journeys.

Double Duty Classic (DDC): Named after Negro Leagues standout Ted "Double Duty" Radcliffe, the White Sox held the annual Double Duty Classic (DDC) in July, an event celebrating the history and tradition of Negro Leagues baseball in Chicago. An opportunity to compete in front of college scouts, 48 DDC players have been selected in the MLB Draft since its inception in 2008. After a workout in front of college scouts, and a Negro Leagues Chicago Mahogany Bus Tour, players visited South Side landmarks while hearing stories that highlighted the enduring impact of Black Baseball pioneers.

Team Teflon Softball: In back-to-back seasons, the White Sox have supported the Black-owned and operated travel softball program, Teflon. Fully funding all tournaments for the program comprised of more than 30 predominantly African American and Hispanic student-athletes. The organization also spotlighted Teflon Softball as its flagship all-girls team for Major League Baseball's RBI Regional Tournament in mid-July.

RBI World Series Champions: Major League Baseball's RBI program provides young people an opportunity to play baseball and softball while encouraging academic achievement and teaching teamwork. For the third consecutive year, the White Sox junior and senior teams promoted ACE players to represent the organization at the Nike RBI World Series in Vero Beach, Florida. The teams won both the junior and senior Baseball Division Championship, marking the seventh and eighth overall championship in Nike RBI World Series history. With these victories, the program is now tied with Dominican Republic Nike RBI for the fourth most Nike RBI World Series Championships since its inception.

PBATS: The White Sox, with assistance from the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS), welcomed ACE and Team Teflon athletes to the ballpark for a youth sports clinic in August. The Promoting a Lifetime of Activity for Youth (PLAY) event featured two organized kickball games, strength and conditioning training, as well as a Q&A with White Sox players.

Jackson Yelle Foundation Support: The White Sox welcomed Scott Yelle, father of the late Jackson Yelle, to the ballpark in June as part of his 30-ballpark tour to raise funds for the Jackson Yelle Family Foundation. During batting practice, Yelle presented a $2,000 check to ACE program manager Troy Williams to carry on Jackson's legacy through the team's RBI program. Jackson tragically lost his life in a hit-and-run accident last April at 21 years old.

Additional Youth Baseball Initiatives: In 2024, the White Sox welcomed more than 9,000 kids from more than 40 different communities to instructional camps across Chicagoland. This included a Nike Home Run Derby with White Sox players, the White Sox RBI Jersey program and the Inner City Youth Baseball program (ICYB).

YOUTH BASEBALL INITIATIVES

9,300+ ANNUAL YOUTH PARTICIPATION

27,000 JERSEY PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS, PRESENTED BY WINTRUST CHICAGO'S BANK

12 MLB NIKI RBI TEAMS

8 RBI CHAMPIONSHIPS

Multicultural Celebrations: The White Sox continued several fan-favorite multicultural celebrations aimed at deepening cultural engagement, strengthening ties with local organizations and attracting diverse community groups to Rate Field. Among the programming, fans enjoyed Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Night in May and a Chicago American Giants jersey giveaway honoring the Negro Leagues flagship team for African American Heritage Night in August. In September, the organization paid tribute to the richness of all Hispanic cultures recognizing their contributions across baseball and beyond for Hispanic Heritage Night, presented by Modelo.

BMO  BMO Small Business Hub: New this season, the White Sox partnered with BMO to welcome local, small businesses to the ballpark to highlight community offerings and products and services for sale. Aimed at empowering neighborhood entrepreneurs and boosting visibility for these local shops, the BMO Small Business Hub engaged fans during promotional nights and some of the highest-attended games of the season, including Mexican Heritage Night and Women's Equality Night, among other celebrations.

DIVERSITY BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Game Changers Series:

In its eighth season, the Game Changers series, presented by Modelo Especial and Saint Xavier University, empowered underrepresented communities by welcoming a diverse group of photographers to the ballpark to capture games through their own unique lens. At the end of the season, the White Sox held Game Changers Summit: Inclusive Innovation: Boosting Performance Through Diverse Teams, which welcomed award-winning journalist Sasha-Ann Simons, Major League Baseball DEI Director Misha Hurd and Roz Stuttley of Choose Chicago for an engaging discussion surrounding the benefits of diversity and a mix of perspectives in driving overall team performance. The panel shared key differences between touting diversity and backgrounds to bolster a stronger, more inclusive workplace culture.

Additional Initiatives: From philanthropy and outreach in Chicago's underserved communities to supporting conversations about race, representation and culture throughout the game, the White Sox passionately and proudly promote equality and foster positive social change.

SPECIAL EVENTS | THEME NIGHTS | RECOGNITIONS

During select home games during the 2024 season, the White Sox held special events to celebrate Chicago's many diverse community groups and honor the drive and perseverance of those facing extraordinary hardships.

Lou Gehrig Day: MLB celebrated its fourth annual Lou Gehrig Day to raise awareness and funds for the fight against ALS. In June, the White Sox welcomed individuals from I AM ALS, ALS

United Chicago and Les Turner Foundation for several gameday experiences including a ceremonial first pitch, game ball delivery, line up card exchange and play ball announcement.

Mexican Heritage Night: The White Sox held the organization's first-ever Mexican Heritage Night in June, presented by Modelo, in June celebrating the rich culture of the organization's Mexican and Mexican American fanbase. The event led to the team's first sold-out game of the 2024 season. More than 40,000 fans enjoyed authentic performances, an Aztec-inspired jersey giveaway, a Mercadito and a live Loteria.

Pride Night: Fostering inclusivity and celebrating the LGBTQ+ communities, the White Sox held Pride Night presented by Vizzy Hard Seltzer, in June. The game offered various initiatives and Pride-themed events from vibrant in-game photo opportunities and a Pride flag raising in Championship Plaza, to exciting on-field entertainment, including a pregame performance from Afterhours Collective.

Roland Hemond Award: The White Sox surprised Chicago-area native and longtime community partner Dan Weishar with the 2024 Roland Hemond Award.

The honor celebrates the memory of the longtime baseball executive's extraordinary commitment to putting the needs of others before his own. Weishar was recognized with a ceremonial first pitch and is scheduled to enjoy a VIP White Sox Spring Training experience this offseason. White Sox Charities donated $2,500 to the Andrew Weishar Foundation, further honoring Dan's late brother and his hope for friends and family to pay forward the kindness he received before passing.

Women's Equality Night: The White Sox in August held Women's Equality Night offering programming around the ballpark centered on empowerment of women-owned organizations and movements. White Sox players' wives and significant others joined members of Youth Guidance's Working on Womanhood to assemble menstruation kits during a pregame event then distributed to young women from Chicago's under-resourced neighborhoods. As gates opened, the White Sox welcomed student-athletes to a "Women in Sports Panel" discussion about growing the legacy of Title IX and the building momentum of the women's sports industry.

Roberto Clemente Day: In September, MLB celebrated its league-wide Roberto Clemente Day. In addition to special base jewels, lineup cards and tribute videos, players and coaches around the league wore "21" to honor the Hall of Fame great and selfless humanitarian. White Sox first baseman Andrew Vaughn was selected as the team's nomination for the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award for his efforts through Going, Vaughn.

RUSH Road Home: Military veterans and their families joined the White Sox for a pregame ceremony and check presentation as part of the organization's Road Home program in partnership with RUSH. After watching White Sox batting practice right behind home plate, individuals recognized had an opportunity to meet with Hall of Famer Harold Baines and fellow veteran, White Sox great Carlos May.

Childhood Cancer Awareness Month: In recognition of Childhood Cancer Awareness Month, the White Sox teamed up with Rush University Medical Center to welcome cancer fighters and their families to the ballpark. Stephen Foltin, who is battling Ewing Sarcoma, threw the game's ceremonial first pitch. Following the game, kids were invited to run the bases alongside their families and friends.

Hero of the Game: At every home game, the White Sox welcomed members of the U.S Armed Forces who have gone above and beyond the call of duty. This season's highlights included Chicago natives Sergeant Francisco Nunez of the U.S Marine Corps, a Mexican born hero recognized on Mexican Heritage Night, and Corporal Mathius Carter of the U.S Army, both of whom enlisted just months before the tragic events of September 11, 2001.

JERRY REINSDORF

CHAIRMAN

Jerry Reinsdorf begins his 45th season as chairman of the Chicago White Sox in 2025, only the seventh individual in Major League Baseball history to surpass the 40-year milestone as a club owner (Connie Mack holds the mark with 50 seasons in leadership of the Philadelphia A's).

During his time as chairman, Reinsdorf's two professional sports teams – the White Sox and the NBA's Chicago Bulls – have delivered seven World Championship titles to the city of Chicago and its fans. Reinsdorf accepted the Commissioner's Trophy from Bud Selig on October 26, 2005, after the White Sox swept their way to the team's first World Series Championship since 1917. The championship was celebrated by a ticker-tape parade attended by nearly 2 million Chicagoans.

The White Sox have reached the postseason seven times during Reinsdorf's tenure, most recently in 2021 when the team captured the American League Central title to reach the postseason in successive seasons for the first time in franchise history. The Sox also captured division titles in 1983, 1993, 2000, 2005 and 2008, as well as claiming a wild card berth in 2020. Every one of the club's Top 20 single-season attendance totals have come since 1981, including a franchise-record 2.95 million fans in 2006.

Reinsdorf's White Sox teams have featured three Most Valuable Player Award winners (Frank Thomas in 1993-94 and José Abreu in 2020), two Cy Young Award winners (LaMarr Hoyt in 1983 and Jack McDowell in 1993), four Rookies of the Year (last Abreu in 2014), five Managers of the Year (last Ozzie Guillen in 2005) and two Executives of the Year (Roland Hemond in 1983 and Rick Hahn in 2020).

Reinsdorf and the White Sox have received five prestigious honors in recognition of the franchise's ongoing commitment to giving back to the community. In December 2022, Reinsdorf and the White Sox received MLB's Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, recognizing the team's Amateur City Elite (ACE) program which provides baseball and educational opportunities for underserved Chicago youth. Since its inception in 2007, over 30 ACE players have been drafted, while more than 300 have signed scholarships to play college baseball. Several other ACE alumni are in coaching positions across professional and college baseball. The White Sox are just the third franchise to be honored with the Selig Award twice, also being recognized in 2011 for the club's Volunteer Corps program, an initiative that activates staff, players, resources and over 5,000 fan volunteers for various projects improving the Chicagoland community.

In June 2011, Reinsdorf traveled to Washington D.C. to accept the Jefferson Award, one of the nation's top honors for community service and volunteerism, known as the "Nobel Prize for Public Service," while in August 2011, he received the Barnes and Thornburg Jackie Robinson Award for diversity in the workplace. In September 2012, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were again recognized nationally, receiving the Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in sports philanthropy for the team's Volunteer Corps program. Reinsdorf's life-long support for charitable and community organizations has resulted in numerous other awards and recognitions.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises have donated millions of dollars to causes in the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and Chicago

Bulls Charities. Chicago White Sox Charities has donated more than $48 million to worthy Chicagoland organizations in cumulative giving. In 2015, the Chicago Bulls received honors as the inaugural ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year, and in 2017, the White Sox were finalists for the same award, which celebrates and recognizes how members of the sports industry use sport to serve their communities and make a positive impact. In December 2017, owners for five Chicago sports teams – the Bears, Blackhawks, Bulls, Cubs and White Sox – joined together as the Chicago Sports Alliance to donate $1 million annually to the UChicago Crime Lab and other worthy programs in an ongoing effort to support solutions to the violence that plagues some neighborhoods in Chicago.

Reinsdorf was instrumental in the formation of the Diverse Business Partners (DBP) Program in 1998, and Major League Baseball honored Reinsdorf and the White Sox with the Club Appreciation Award in 2018 to celebrate the program's 20th anniversary. Over the past 20-plus years, Major League Baseball and its clubs have purchased hundreds of millions of dollars in goods and services from minority and women-owned businesses, and the White Sox annually rank among baseball's leaders in the DBP program.

In recognition of his life-long commitment to diversity, the White Sox hosted Major League Baseball's 2013 Diversity Summit in Chicago, and the franchise was chosen to host MLB's Civil Rights Game and Beacon Awards Luncheon in August 2014.

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has been involved in Major League Baseball initiatives at an industry-wide level. He served on the Commissioner's Executive Council and many other committees, including Player Relations, Relocation, Ownership & Legislative, Business and Media Board and Long-Range Labor Planning.

In 2008, his long history of donating time to Major League Baseball led to Reinsdorf being asked to serve on the Board of The Baseball Hall of Fame. Frank Thomas and Tony La Russa were inducted as members of the Hall of Fame's Class of 2014, Tim Lincecum in 2017, Jim Thome in 2018, Harold Baines in 2019 and longtime great Minnie Minoso was inducted in July 2022. Ken "Hawk" Harrelson was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasting excellence in 2020.

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in March 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls – the third-longest in the NBA – the team has captured six World Championships (1991-93, '96-98). Reinsdorf was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2016 in Springfield, Mass., becoming the 10th NBA owner to be honored.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University and earned a law degree from Northwestern University after moving to Chicago in 1957. Reinsdorf and his late wife, Martyl, have three surviving children, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

HOWARD PIZER

SENIOR EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Howard Pizer begins his 45th season with the White Sox in 2025. Pizer, who attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf, has primary responsibility for the business and administrative operations of the White Sox, as well as oversight of the club's legal matters and governmental relations.

The more than 50-year business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group. He served as the club's executive vice president from 1981-2012 before being promoted to the position of senior executive vice president by Reinsdorf in October 2012.

As a member of the MLB President's Committee, Pizer collaborated with executives across the industry to respond to challenges created by the global pandemic for the White Sox and for baseball. During his 40-plus-year tenure with the White Sox, Pizer has supervised the franchise's hosting of two Major League All-Star Games (1983 and 2003), the team's seven postseason appearances (1983, 1993, 2000, 2005, 2008, 2020 and 2021), and the 2005 World Series, the first won by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years. Pizer also has coordinated the team's last three Hall of Fame induction celebrations, for Frank Thomas in 2014, Harold Baines in 2019 and the induction of "Mr. White Sox," Minnie Minoso in 2022.

Pizer served as the lead White Sox contact with MLB for the Field of Dreams game in Dyersville, Iowa, in August 2021. Highlighted by Tim Anderson's dramatic walk-off home run, the nationally televised game against the New York Yankees was the most watched regular-season baseball game in 16 years.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to build new Comiskey Park, now Rate Field. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons. He continues to serve in an executive position at the United Center.

Pizer also participated in the development of the Advocate Center, the Bulls training center located next to the United Center, the Fifth Third Arena, the Blackhawks practice facility and community ice center. Pizer is the White Sox chief liaison for the White Sox with the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA), the state agency that serves as owner of Guaranteed Rate Field. He has been responsible for the overall relationships between the White Sox and their longtime concessionaires, Delaware North, and Levy Restaurants.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the board of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities; Special Children's Charities, the fundraising arm of Chicago Special Olympics; Local Initiatives Support Corporation/Chicago Board of Advisors; and Near West Side Community Development Corp.

Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities, and is a longtime advocate for the franchise's Volunteer Corps initiative and Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program, both of which have been honored by MLB with the Allan H. "Bud" Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence.

Born on October 23, 1941, in Chicago, Ill., Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline and Rachel; and four grandchildren.

CHRIS GETZ

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Chris Getz begins his second full season as Executive Vice President/General Manager of the Chicago White Sox, who spent seven seasons as an infielder in the major leagues, including 2008-09 with the White Sox, was named to the position on August 31, 2023.

Following the 2024 season, Getz named Will Venable as the club's 44th different manager. Venable, who played in the major leagues with San Diego (2008-15), Texas (2015) and the Dodgers (2016), coached with the Chicago Cubs (2018-20), Boston (2021-22) and Texas (2023-24), winning a World Series title with the Rangers as associate manager in 2023.

Getz made one of baseball's biggest trades at the 2024 Winter Meetings acquiring C Kyle Teel, OF Braden Montgomery, INF Chase Meidroth and RHP Wikelman González from Boston on December 11 in exchange for LHP Garrett Crochet, the 2024 American League Comeback Player of the Year.

Following the trade, the White Sox farm system was ranked among the Top 5 in baseball, featuring six players rated among baseball's Top 60 according to MLB Pipeline: LHP Noah Schultz (No. 16), Teel (No. 25), LHP Hagen Smith (No. 30), SS Colson Montgomery (No. 37), Braden Montgomery (No. 54) and C Edgar Quero (No. 59). Schultz and Smith entered 2025 as the top two left-handed pitching prospects in baseball. Smith was Getz's initial first-round selection (No. 5 overall) in the 2024 draft out of Arkansas.

Since the end of the 2024 season, the White Sox have added 11 players from outside the organization to the 40-man roster (17 have departed). Getz acquired LHP Cam Booser, LHP Tyler Gilbert, González, and C Matt Thaiss by trade, claimed RHP Penn Murfee off waivers, selected RHP Shane Smith in the Rule 5 Draft and signed free agents INF Josh Rojas, OFs Austin Slater and Mike Tauchman and RHP Bryce Wilson.

During spring training of 2024, Getz traded RHP Dylan Cease to San Diego in exchange for RHPs Drew Thorpe, Jairo Iriarte and Steven Wilson and OF Sammy Zavala. Thorpe, Iriarte and Wilson pitched for the White Sox in 2024. At the trade deadline in July, the Sox acquired 3B Miguel Vargas and INFs Alexander Albertus and Jeral Pérez from the Dodgers, RHP Jarold Rosado from the Royals, INF William Bergolla from Philadelphia and LHP Trey McGough from Baltimore.

The Class AA Birmingham Barons, managed by former Sox RHP Sergio Santos, won the 2024 Southern League title. Justin Jirschele, who coached and managed in the Sox system, is now the third-base coach with the major league club.

Among his first moves, Getz named Josh Barfield as assistant general manager, Brian Bannister as senior advisor to pitching and Gene Watson as director of player personnel. Barfield and Director of Player Development Paul Janish lead the White Sox minor league system. Getz rounded out the department on January 11, 2024 by naming longtime baseball executive Jin Wong as assistant general manager. Prior to the 2025 season, he added David Keller as special assistant overseeing international operations and Ryan Fuller as the organization's director of hitting.

Getz spent seven seasons (2017-23) overseeing the White Sox minor league operations and player development system, including the last three with the added title of Assistant General Manager. Before his promotion in January 2021, he served as Director of Player Development from 2017-20 after being hired in October 2016. He spent the 2015-16 seasons as a Baseball Operations Assistant/Player Development with Royals, who won the 2015 World Series.

Getz handled day-to-day operations of the minor-league system and supervised operations in 2020-21 of the club's alternate training site in Schaumburg, Ill. Of note in 2018, he implemented a first-of-its-kind Enhanced Education Program for the organization's Latin American players, which to date has produced almost 40 graduates.

In 2022, Getz helped implement "Project Birmingham," another innovative program in which most of the organization's top prospects as well as player development staff were assigned to the Class AA Birmingham roster from August 23 through the end of the season.

At the major-league level, Getz assisted on player acquisition and staff hiring decisions at the MLB level, as well as working with Director of Amateur Scouting Mike Shirley on preparation for the annual First-Year Player Draft. He also helped oversee the organization's Sports Science Department, which includes the Arizona Sports Science Lab used for players' motion capture testing and analysis.

During Getz's tenure, the farm system produced OFs Eloy Jiménez and Luis Robert Jr., INFs Andrew Vaughn, Jake Burger, Nick Madrigal and Gavin Sheets, RHPs Cease, Michael Kopech, Reynaldo López and Codi Heuer, and LHPs Aaron Bummer and Crochet, all of whom played roles as the White Sox reached the postseason in back-to-back seasons for the first time in franchise history in 2020-21.

Originally drafted by the White Sox in the fourth round in 2005, Getz played seven MLB seasons with the Sox (2008-09), Royals (2010-13) and Toronto (2014), batting .250 (352-1,409) with 176 runs scored and 89 stolen bases in 459 games. His 83.2 percent (89-107) stolen-base success rate ranks 26th in MLB history (min. 100 attempts). Getz was named to Topps All-Star Rookie Roster in 2009.

A native of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., and a graduate of the University of Michigan, Getz played collegiately at Wake Forest (2003) and Michigan (2004-05), earning First-Team All-America honors in 2005. On January 25, 2024, he was inducted into the newly established Grosse Pointe South High School Hall of Fame..

Getz is a member of the board of Chicago White Sox Charities. He and his wife, Nicole, reside in Winnetka, Ill. with their three children: Luke, Alexandra and Avery.

TIM BUZARD

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, ADMINISTRATION

Tim Buzard begins his 44th season with the White Sox, the longest tenure of any chief financial officer in MLB. Promoted to Executive Vice President of Administration prior to the 2025 season, Buzard is responsible for the ticket office, accounting, human resources, data processing and communications departments.

Buzard has played a major role in the implementation of MLB's revenue-sharing agreement as well as other league-wide financial and insurance initiatives. In 2020-21, he played a key role in the organization's human resource and financial response to the COVID-19 pandemic, including the franchise's ticketing policies related to the pandemic's impact on limited attendance in 2021 and the shortening of the 2020 season to 60 games played without any fans in attendance.

He has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign for the White Sox, the development of a human resources department and is responsible for the organization's integrated approach to communications. Buzard is a member of the MLB Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Plan Committee and the Subscribers' Advisory Committee of the MLB Assurance Exchange Society, MLB's captive insurance company.

After joining the franchise in 1981, Buzard served as controller for five years, vice president of finance for 12 and vice president of administration and finance for six. He oversaw the automation of the accounting department and has supervised multiple organization-wide IT upgrades. Buzard also has initiated new cash management and comprehensive risk management systems, which reduced risk exposures and costs for the franchise.

Promoted to senior vice president in 2004, Buzard was instrumental in the operation of the Chicago Bulls/White Sox Training Academy in Lisle, Ill., from 2001-2020. The facility, which offered professional baseball, softball and basketball instruction for kids of all ages up to professional athletes, saw more than one half million visitors during nearly two decades.

Buzard graduated in 1978 from the University of Illinois with a degree in accounting and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years prior to joining the Sox. Buzard was born on September 13, 1955, in Evanston, Ill. He and his wife, Sandra, have two children: Jacqueline and Kevin, and two grandchildren. The family resides in Riverwoods, Ill. The Buzards donate their time as members of the White Sox Volunteer Corps and SHORE Community Services supporting individuals with developmental disabilities.

TERRY SAVARISE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, STADIUM OPERATIONS

Entering his 45th season with the Chicago White Sox, Terry Savarise is responsible for all aspects of the operation of Rate Field, including more than 2,000 day-of-game employees. Savarise was named executive vice president, stadium operations, prior to the 2025 season.

Savarise was responsible for the planning and construction of the new ballpark, which opened in 1991. He has overseen the ballpark's many renovations and remodeling efforts, including the installation of three new video boards in 2016, construction of the Goose Island seating area in right field in 2019 and new LED field lighting as part of a green initiative in 2020.

Most of the renovations to Rate Field have focused on improving the game experience for fans by creating a more intimate and fun atmosphere. Among the changes, the Sox added the popular Fan Deck in center field, changed the color scheme of the ballpark and in its most dramatic change, removed the top eight rows of the upper deck and added a flat roof over the back rows of the upper deck. In 2023, enhancements included two new View Bars for fans located on the ballpark's 500-level and an expansion of the home clubhouse that includes high-tech batting cages and a re-imagined space for player kids and families.

Savarise serves as executive vice president – CEO of the United Center (UC), home of the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls and the six-time Stanley Cup Champion Chicago Blackhawks. The arena hosts over 220 major events each year, making it one of the busiest venues in the United States. The UC was the host site for the 2024 Democratic National Convention as Savarise oversaw and coordinated all planning for the event, which drew a global audience of over 81 million viewers. Including the 1996 Democratic National Convention, also held at the UC, the city of Chicago has played host to 26 political conventions. Savarise was responsible for all design and construction of the 960,000-square foot, multi-purpose arena and its surrounding campus – including the Chicago Bulls Advocate Center, Fifth Third Community Ice Arena and the United Center Atrium. In addition to the 2020 NBA All-Star Game, other recent major events include the 2017 NHL Draft, 2017 NCAA Frozen Four, 2018 Laver Cup and the 2019 Starbucks Leadership Conference. To date, he has led $1.5 billion of campus investment on the west side of Chicago.

In 2024, the Reinsdorf and Wirtz families announced plans for The 1901 Project, a $7-billion private investment transforming more than 55 acres of parking lots on Chicago's West Side surrounding the UC. As CEO of the new 1901 Development group, Savarise is spearheading all aspects of the initiative, which will create a development with over 25 acres of public open space, housing, retail and entertainment destinations, dramatically changing the UC campus and neighborhood.

In response to challenges faced by the sports and entertainment industries due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Savarise oversaw the implementation of health and well-being protocols for MLB, the NBA and the NHL. Beyond his work to maintain the health and safety of athletes, staff and fans across the MLB, NBA and NHL, Savarise played an instrumental role in crisis relief efforts within the city of Chicago by leveraging the UC campus as the city's logistics hub throughout the COVID-19 pandemic.

Savarise led efforts to make the UC a critical resource, including: a satellite storage facility for the Greater Chicago Food Depository holding 774,840 pounds of non-perishable items; one of the first PPE drives in collaboration with Project C.U.R.E. collecting over 13 pallets of PPE supplies for distribution among local healthcare providers; a PPE donation drop-off location for Team Rubicon, a veteran-led global disaster response organization; Chicago's first mass vaccination site from March-June 2021, administering more than 301,000 vaccines.

OFFICERS

In addition, Savarise oversaw operations for the arena to serve as a safe and accessible in-person voting supersite on Election Day 2020. The UC was noted as the city's busiest polling site, casting more than twice as many ballots as any other location. Savarise supervised the design and construction of Camelback Ranch – Glendale, the 10,000-seat, award-winning White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers spring training facility in Glendale, Ariz., which opened in 2009. Savarise sits on the board of the joint venture which runs Camelback Ranch – Glendale.

Savarise is a member of the Arena Managers' Association and the International Association of Auditorium Managers and has served on the board of directors of the Stadium Managers' Association. He is a graduate of the Ohio University Sports Administration program. He and his wife, Tara, have two children: Katie and Jon.

WRONG SIDE OF HISTORY

- The White Sox went 41-121 (.253) in 2024, setting the major-league record for most losses in a single season held by the 1962 New York Mets (40-120) ... the Sox suffered their 120th loss on 9/22 at San Diego to set the American League record and their 121st defeat on 9/27 at Detroit to set the MLB mark.
- The Sox recorded a franchise-record, 21-game losing streak from 7/10-8/5, tied with the 1988 Baltimore Orioles for the second-longest in MLB history behind the 1961 Philadelphia Phillies (23) ... the Sox also lost a then franchise-record 14 games in a row from 5/22-6/6, joining the 1911 Boston Rustlers, 1935 Boston Braves and 2021 Baltimore Orioles as the only teams in the modern era (since 1901) to record multiple 14-plus game losing streaks in a single season (Elias).

WHITE SOX HISTORICAL NOTES

- The 1960 White Sox were the first major-league team with player names on the backs of their uniforms.
- The first official American League game was played on April 24, 1901 between the White Sox and Cleveland Indians ... the Sox won, 8-2, with Roy Patterson earning the victory.
- White Sox shortstop Chico Carrasquel, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, was the first Latin American player to appear in an All-Star game when he represented the AL in 1951 at Detroit ... Minnie Miñoso, who broke the Sox color barrier on May 1, 1951, was a substitute in that All-Star Game.

Orlando “El Duque” Hernández threw 3.0 scoreless IP in relief in Game 3 of the ALDS at Fenway Park. With Chicago holding a 4-3 lead in the seventh inning, Hernández inherited a bases-loaded, no-out situation but worked out of the jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon on a 3-2 count to end the threat. The White Sox went on to post a 6-3 victory and complete a three-game sweep of the defending World Champion Red Sox.

WHITE SOX WIRE-TO-WIRE

● The 2005 White Sox were in first place all 183 days during their world championship season, breaking the franchise record set in 2000 (169), and also eclipsing the club record for most consecutive days spent in first place (167), also set in 2000 ... the 1919 Sox spent 134 days in first place, followed by the 1901 (128), 1917 (126), 1993 (125) and 2012 (117) clubs.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 8, ANGELS 2

Notes: Freddy García nearly duplicated Mark Buehrle's five-hitter and Jon Garland's four-hitter, making the White Sox the first team to pitch three straight complete games in the postseason since the 1973 New York Mets (Tom Seaver, Jon Matlack and Jerry Koosman) ... García, who was pitching for the first time since clinching the ALDS, gave up two early runs while striking out five ... A.J. Pierzynski homered for the White Sox, his third of the postseason, and Joe Crede added a two-run single in the eighth off Esteban Yan ... Paul Konerko homered in the first inning for the second straight game ... Chicago scored seven runs in the first innings of the series.

Notes: The White Sox advanced to their first World Series since 1959, defeating Los Angeles, 4-1, in the ALCS ... José Contreras tossed the fourth consecutive complete game by a Sox hurler, retiring his final 15 batters faced as he bounced back after dropping Game 1 ... the Angels led, 3-2, when Joe Crede hit a leadoff homer in the seventh off Kelvin Escobar ... after Aaron Rowand walked, and A.J. Pierzynski reached first on Escobar's error in the eighth, Crede's slow roller up the middle plated Rowand with the go-ahead run ... Paul Konerko, who was named the series MVP, added a RBI double in the ninth and Rowand capped the night with a sacrifice fly ... the Sox won the sixth AL pennant in franchise history.

GAME 1: WHITE SOX 5, ASTROS 3

Notes: In the first World Series game held in Chicago since 1959, the White Sox posted a 5-3 victory vs. Houston ... Jermaine Dye hit an opposite-field home run off Roger Clemens in the first inning ... the Sox added a pair of runs in the second on A.J. Pierzynski's RBI groundout and Juan Uribe's RBI double ... Lance Berkman evened the game with a two-run double in the third, but Joe Crede put the Sox ahead for good with a solo home run off Wandy Rodriguez in the fourth ... Houston put runners on first and third with no outs in the eighth, but Neal Cotts (two strikeouts) and Bobby Jenks (one strikeout) combined to end the Astros threat ... Clemens left after 2.0 IP with a sore left hamstring ... José Contreras, the sixth Cuban pitcher to ever start a World Series game, earned the victory despite tying a Fall Classic record by hitting three batters.

GAME 2: WHITE SOX 7, ASTROS 6

Notes: Paul Konerko hit the 18th grand slam in World Series history, and Scott Podsednik hit a game-ending home run as the White Sox won Game 2, 7-6 ... with the Sox trailing, 4-2, in the seventh inning, Konerko homered on Chad Qualls' first pitch to put the Sox in front, 6-4 ... Houston tied the game in the ninth when pinch-hitter José Vizcaino laced an opposite-field, two-run single off Bobby Jenks with two outs to set up Podsednik's heroics ... Podsednik, who went homerless in the regular season, hit a 2-1 pitch from Brad Lidge over the right-center field fence for the 14th game-ending homer in World Series history ... the game was delayed seven minutes by rain, the first in a World Series since Game 3 in 1993 at Philadelphia (1:12) ... each Sox player collected at least one hit.

2005 WORLD SERIES

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 7, ASTROS 5 (14)

Notes: For the second straight game, an unlikely hero came to the forefront for the White Sox as Geoff Blum hit a solo home run in the 14th inning to break a 5-5 tie ... Blum, who had one prior postseason at-bat, entered the longest game in World Series history in the 13th and lined a 2-0 pitch over the right-field wall to give the Sox the lead ... Chicago added an insurance run on Chris Widger's bases-loaded walk ... Houston put runners on the corners in the 14th, but Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle came on to retire Adam Everett on a popout to shortstop Juan Uribe to end the game ... the Astros left the winning run at third base in the ninth and at second in the 10th and 11th ... Jon Garland allowed four runs in the first 4.0 IP but retired 12 of his last 13 batters faced ... Chicago overcame a 4-0 deficit by scoring five runs in the fifth off Roy Oswalt, highlighted by Joe Crede's solo homer and A.J. Pierzynski's two-run double that put the Sox ahead, 5-4 ... Jason Lane's double off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth tied the game at 5-5 ... the 43 players used by both teams was a World Series record, and it marked the first Series game played in Texas.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 1, ASTROS 0

Notes: The White Sox captured their first World Series title since 1917 with a 1-0 victory over the Astros at Minute Maid Park ... Jermaine Dye, the eventual Most Valuable Player of the series, drove in the only run with an eighth-inning single off Brad Lidge that scored Willie Harris ... Harris led off the eighth with a single, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Scott Podsednik and to third on Carl Everett's ground out ... Bobby Jenks pitched a scoreless ninth inning for the save with help from Juan Uribe, who dove into the stands down the left-field line to record the second out of the final frame before retiring Orlando Palmeiro on a grounder to end the game ... starters Brandon Backe and Freddy Garcia each tossed 7.0 scoreless IP ... the Astros were 0-11 with runners in scoring position and were held without a run in the final 15 innings of the World Series ... Chicago went 11-1 in the postseason, tied for the second-best playoff record since 1969 (minimum seven games).

WRONG SIDE OF HISTORY

- The White Sox lost a major-league record 121 games in 2024, breaking the mark of 120 set by the 1962 New York Mets.
- The Sox endured three losing streaks of 10-plus games during the season: a then franchise-record 14 games from May 22-June 7, 21 games from July 10-August 5 and 12 games from August 23-September 3 ... they joined the 1911 Boston Rustlers, 1935 Boston Braves and 2021 Baltimore Orioles as the only teams in the modern era (since 1901) to record multiple 14-plus game losing streaks in a single season (Elias).
- Chicago's 21-game slide tied the 1988 Baltimore Orioles for the second-longest in MLB history behind the 1961 Philadelphia Phillies (23) ... as part of that streak, the White Sox also became the first team in MLB history to lose their first 17-plus games of the second half, breaking the mark of 0-13 set by the Boston Braves in 1935 (STATS)
- The Sox went 23-58 (.284) at home, the lowest winning percentage in franchise history ... they lost 28 of 29 games from July 10-2 vs. Minnesota to September 13, bookending that stretch with a franchise-record, 12-game losing streak followed by a new franchise-record, 16-game streak ... the White Sox posted the first 0-10 homestand in club history from August 23-September 1.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

● The White Sox set a major-league record by holding the lead in each of their first 37 games in 2005, breaking the previous mark of 25 straight held by the 1955 Brooklyn Dodgers ... the Sox 37-game streak also tied for the third-longest ever in major-league history, trailing only the 1998 Yankees (48) and 1932 Yankees (40).

PERFECT HOMESTANDS

#Tied For League Lead

THE BIG HURT

- With a .347 average in 1997, Frank Thomas became just the second player (third time) in White Sox history to win the American League batting title ... Luke Appling won batting crowns for the Sox in 1936 (.388) and 1943 (.328).
- At 6-foot-5 and 275 pounds, Thomas also is the largest player to win a batting title ... Dave Parker (1978-79) and John Olerud (1993) were listed at 6-foot-5 when they led the league in average, while Miguel Cabrera (2011-13, '15) was listed at 250 pounds.

CROCHET MAKES HISTORY

● LHP Garrett Crochet became the second pitcher in White Sox history to make his first major-league start on Opening Day when he faced Detroit on March 28, 2024 in Chicago ... Crochet allowed one run on five hits over 6.0 IP and became just the third left-hander in American League history to record eight-plus strikeouts with no walks on Opening Day, joining Oakland's Mark Mulder in 2002 and the White Sox' Gary Peters in 1969.

STREAKING SOX

● The White Sox won 11 consecutive games from June 15-26, 2010, tied for the sixth-longest streak in franchise history, and their longest since a 12-game run from June 17-27, 1961 ... the Sox went 25-5 to end the first half of 2010, matching the 1975 Cincinnati Reds and 1990 New York Mets for the best record in major-league history in the final 30 games before the All-Star Break.

CAMELBACK FACTS AND INFORMATION

A baseball oasis, Sonoran desert-inspired Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G), now in its 17th season as the spring home of the White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers, is a successful public-private partnership between the two teams and the City of Glendale (Arizona). It features a 141-acre campus, largest in the Cactus League, and a state-of-the-art stadium that seats 13,500 fans (10,500 permanent seats, 3,000 grass). A five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (Dodgers) and west (White Sox). The two teams honor their histories with photo opportunities along the water feature recognizing their all-star players.

Ballpark Firsts

- Game: White Sox vs. Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Pitch: Hiroki Kuroda, Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Hit: Jayson Nix, White Sox, double, second inning, 3/1/09.
- Home Run: Gordon Beckham, White Sox, ninth inning, 3/1/09.

The Ballpark at Camelback Ranch

- The stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for over 3,000 fans.
- Natural materials (real stone veneer, architectural metal "rusty" panels, three-tone faux painting) were used for external finishes to blend the desert surroundings. Caramel-colored seats and stone retaining walls further the natural look.
- Prior to the 2020 season, extended the protective netting down the left and right-field lines to ensure the safety of and improve the game-watching experience for fans
- CR-G in 2018 debuted a 30' x 50' Daktronics outfield videoboard. The HD videoboard provides fans with a dramatic upgrade to the visual and interactive experience during games.
- Another significant enhancement in 2018 was the addition of two new 100-foot shade structures along the first base concourse. The structures, designed by HKS, complement existing design features while providing more shaded seating.

Ballpark Boulevard

- Prior to the start of 2020 spring training, the city of Glendale, Camelback Ranch, the White Sox and Dodgers announced the opening of Ballpark Boulevard (111th Avenue).
- The new 1.8 mile stretch of road connects CR-G with the Loop 101, Westgate and Glendale's sports/entertainment district. The road opening greatly enhances gameday ingress and egress.

Campus

- The distinctive complex covers 141 acres, making CR-G the largest campus in the Cactus League.
- The five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (LAD) and west (CWS) and provides field irrigation, landscaping and aesthetic enhancement.
- Landscaping includes approximately 5,000 plants and trees.

Connectivity

- Fans are able to enjoy free public Wi-Fi throughout the stadium by connecting to the CRG_Public network, opening a browser, and following instructions for Wi-Fi powered by Cox.
- White Sox fans can share photos and experiences using #SoxSpringTraining, and are encouraged to follow @camelbackranch on Instagram and Twitter.

Photo Spots

- The White Sox have joined the Dodgers in honoring their all-star players along the five-acre river and lake system separating the teams' practice fields. The displays list every all-star player in history position by position for fans to enjoy as they walk to and from the stadium and practice fields.
- Each side of the complex also has a six-foot-tall team logo, perfect for selfies. Inside the stadium, snap a pic with larger-than-life bobbleheads of Frank Thomas and Tommy Lasorda.

Team Buildings

- The Dodgers and White Sox buildings contain more than 118,000 square feet of major/minor league clubhouse space.
- Two of the 12 practice fields (four MLB, eight MiLB) replicate the Dodger and White Sox home ballparks with exact dimensions of Dodger Stadium and Guaranteed Rate Field.
- On the White Sox side, the club in 2020 completed the construction of a new group meeting space and indoor batting cages on the minor-league side of the complex.

Clubhouse Store

- The stadium added an improved and larger satellite Clubhouse Store location down the left field line prior to the 2022 season. The container structure features New Era product, Spring Training-exclusive and White Sox merchandise.
