TEAM NOTES

2024 Season Recap: The Cincinnati Bengals compiled their fourth consecutive season with a record above .500 in 2024, finishing at 9-8 overall. After falling to 4-8 in early December, the team rallied for five straight wins to close out the schedule and finished just shy of the AFC playoffs.

The 2024 Bengals season was highlighted by historic individual efforts put forth by fifth-year QB Joe Burrow, fourth-year WR Ja'Marr Chase and eighth-year DE Trey Hendrickson. Burrow led the NFL and set team single-season records in passing attempts (652), completions (460), passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43). He passed for at least 250 yards and three TDs in eight consecutive games from Weeks 9-17, the longest such streak in league history, and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for both November and December/January.

Chase became the sixth player in the Super Bowl era to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," as he led the NFL in receptions (127; team record), receiving yards (1708; team record) and receiving TDs (17; tied team record). He posted 100 or more receiving yards in five games. Chase earned his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl selection, was voted a unanimous first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and was named a finalist for AP Offensive Player of the Year.

Steered by Burrow and Chase's connection, the Bengals led the NFL in passing offense (272.9 net passing yards per game) for the first time since 1975. Cincinnati in 2024 also ranked in the top 10 leaguewide in scoring (sixth, 27.8 points per game) and total yards (ninth, 365.5). Complementing Chase once again was fifth-year WR Tee Higgins, who amassed 73 catches for 911 yards and tied for sixth in the NFL with a career-best 10 receiving TDs.

Hendrickson joined Chase as a four-time Pro Bowler and first-team All-Pro in 2024, after leading the NFL with 17.5 sacks. That total matched his career high from the 2023 campaign and tied for the second-most in a season in team history, and he became the first Bengals player to lead the league in sacks since it became an official NFL statistic in 1982. Hendrickson had five multi-sack games and received two AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors (Weeks 9 and 18).

In addition to the team's perennial star performers, Cincinnati saw several young players emerge as foundational pieces in 2024. Second-year HB Chase Brown contributed in both the run and pass game, posting 990 rushing yards and 360 receiving yards for 1350 total yards from scrimmage (17th in NFL). WR Andrei Losivas furthered his development as another reliable option for Burrow with six TD catches and a career-high 479 receiving yards in his sophomore campaign. OT Amarius Mims, the team's first-round draft pick last April, started 13 games at ROT during his rookie season and garnered high praise from his coaches and teammates.

Each Bengals home contest in 2024 was played in front of an announced attendance figure of over 65,000, with two games — Week 8 vs. Philadelphia and Week 17 vs. Denver — ranking in the top five largest home crowds in team history. Cincinnati also played in five road games that kicked off in prime time (7 p.m. ET or later), the most by an NFL team since 1963. The Bengals collected a 3-2 record in those games, with wins in Week 6 at the N.Y. Giants, Week 14 at Dallas and Week 18 at Pittsburgh.

Following the end of the regular season, the team made changes to its defensive coaching staff, headlined by Al Golden taking over as defensive coordinator. A former linebackers coach for the Bengals from 2020-21, Golden returned to Cincinnati following three seasons ('22-24) as defensive coordinator at the University of Notre Dame.

2024 AFC North standings: The Bengals had their fourth straight winning season in 2024 with a 9-8 final record. Cincinnati was 3-5 in games played at home and 6-3 on the road. The team placed third in the AFC North Division, with Baltimore and Pittsburgh each clinching a playoff spot.

Here is the AFC North picture at the end of the 2024 regular season:

TEAM	W-L	PCT.	DIV.
Baltimore Ravens	12-5	.706	4-2
Pittsburgh Steelers	10-7	.588	3-3
Cincinnati Bengals	9-8	.529	3-3
Cleveland Browns	3-14	.176	2-4

Bengals to draft 17th: Barring a trade, the Bengals will have the No. 17 overall selection in the 2025 NFL Draft, which will be held from April 24-26 in Green Bay, Wisc.

Last year, Cincinnati used the No. 18 overall pick to select OT Amarius

Mims, who started 13 games at ROT and lined up for 834 total offensive snaps in his rookie campaign.

The Bengals have possessed the 17th overall draft choice five times previously in team history. They used the pick to select Brigham Young DE Jason Buck in 1987, North Carolina LB Brian Simmons in '98, Georgia LB David Pollack in 2005 and Alabama CB Dre Kirkpatrick in '12. Cincinnati also had pick No. 17 in the 2004 draft, but traded it to Denver in return for the Broncos' first-round selection, fourth-round selection and CB Deltha O'Neal.

2025 opponents: Cincinnati's home and away opponents for 2025 were finalized at the conclusion of the '24 regular season. The full schedule, with dates and kickoff times, will be released in May.

In addition to their six games against fellow AFC North Division teams, the Bengals will face all teams in the AFC East and NFC North.

Cincinnati also will play two games — at home against Jacksonville and on the road against Denver — that were determined by 2024 divisional standings. As third-place finishers in the AFC North, the Bengals are matched up against the third-place teams from the AFC South (Jacksonville) and AFC West (Denver).

In 2021, the NFL added a 17th game to the regular-season schedule, and for the Bengals in '25 that will be a home contest against Arizona. The additional game each year features an interconference matchup and is based on the prior season's standings on a rotating four-year cycle. These contests match a first-place team from one division with a first-place team in an opposite-conference division that the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second, third and fourth-place finishers in each division are matched the same way. The home conference for this game alternates each season, with the AFC hosting the game in 2025.

Cincinnati's additional game in 2024 was played at Carolina in Week 4, which the Bengals won 34-24.

Here is a list of the Bengals' opponents for 2025:

- HOME: Baltimore-Cleveland-Pittsburgh, plus Arizona, Chicago, Detroit, Jacksonville, New England and N.Y. Jets.
- AWAY: Baltimore-Cleveland-Pittsburgh, plus Buffalo, Denver, Green Bay, Miami and Minnesota.

Head coach Zac Taylor: Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019. The 2024 season was his sixth in the position.

In 2024, Taylor guided the Bengals to their fourth consecutive winning season with a final record of 9-8. He once again orchestrated a dynamic offense, play-calling for a unit that led the NFL in passing yards per game (272.9), ranked sixth in points per game (27.8) and ninth in total yards (365.5). Working with Taylor, fifth-year QB Joe Burrow led the league and set team single-season records in passing attempts (652), completions (460), passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43). WR Ja'Marr Chase became the sixth player in the Super Bowl era to win the receiving "Triple Crown," as he led all players in receptions (127), receiving yards (1708) and receiving TDs (17). Taylor also implemented HB Chase Brown as a versatile piece in the offense, helping the second-year pro total 1350 yards and 11 TDs from scrimmage.

In 2023, Taylor led Cincinnati to a 9-8 mark despite a few key players missing time due to injuries. With Taylor overseeing an offense that featured a healthy Burrow from Weeks 5-10, the Bengals ranked fourth leaguewide in passing (275.6) and seventh in scoring (26.6). Following Burrow's season-ending injury in Week 11, Taylor worked with backup QB Jake Browning as he stepped into the starting role for the first time in his career. Browning completed 71.5 percent of his passes and ranked second in the NFL in passing yards (1868) over the final seven weeks of the regular season, and Taylor guided the Bengals to a 4-3 record to close out the schedule.

In 2022, the Bengals won their second straight AFC North Division title under Taylor and made a repeat appearance in the AFC Championship. After entering November with a 4-4 record, he helped Cincinnati tie team regular-season records for consecutive wins (eight) and total wins (12) to earn the No. 3 seed in the AFC playoffs. Taylor's offense ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in passing yards (fifth, 265.0), scoring (seventh, 26.1) and total yards (eighth, 360.5), while the Bengals' defense held opposing passers to a league-low 59.8 completion percentage and ranked sixth in points allowed (20.1).

Taylor led the Bengals to their first division title in six years in 2021, before winning three postseason games to claim the AFC crown and a berth in Super Bowl LVI. Burrow, playing in his first full season in Taylor's system, was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year after leading the league in completion percentage (70.4), while Chase posted the most receiving yards by a rookie in the Super Bowl era (1455, since surpassed) en route to winning Offensive Rookie of the Year honors.

In the postseason, Taylor guided the Bengals to their first playoff win in 31 years, a home Wild Card victory over Las Vegas, before the team went on the road to defeat the AFC's top two seeds, Tennessee and Kansas City.

In 2020, Taylor helped Cincinnati navigate the league's COVID-19 pandemic protocols which included no in-person offseason program. He guided a rookie Burrow to notable production that included the second-most ever completions by a QB through their first 10 career games (264) and the sixth-most passing yards (2688).

In 2019, his first season as head coach, Taylor led the Bengals to second-half turnarounds on both sides of the ball. Offensively, the team's per-game rushing average jumped from 70.6 yards from the first half of the season (59.5) to the second half (130.1). Defensively, Cincinnati notched 11 more sacks in the second half of the season compared to the first, and allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game.

Taylor came to the Bengals after two seasons (2017-18) with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in '17 and quarterbacks coach in '18. In 2018, he helped QB Jared Goff to then-career highs in every major passing category as the Rams won the NFC West and advanced to Super Bowl LIII.

Taylor had a one-year stint at the University of Cincinnati in 2016, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Taylor broke into NFL coaching in 2012 as assistant QBs coach for the Miami Dolphins. He was elevated to QBs coach from 2013-15, and spent the final five games of the '15 season as interim offensive coordinator and primary play-caller.

Taylor's coaching career began at Texas A&M University, where he served as offensive graduate assistant and tight ends coach under head coach Mike Sherman from 2008-11.

As a player, Taylor began his college career at Wake Forest (2002-03) before transferring to Butler County Community College in Kansas ('04) and then spending his final two seasons ('05-06) at the University of Nebraska. He was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year in 2006, after passing for 3197 yards and leading the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record, an appearance in the conference championship game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017.

Taylor joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp and never saw NFL action. Later that year, he joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League, where he spent one season (did not play).

Taylor's father, Sherwood Taylor, was a defensive back and team captain at the University of Oklahoma from 1976-79. Sherwood later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State. Taylor's younger brother, Press, played QB at Marshall University and currently is the offensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Taylor was born in Norman, Okla., on May 10, 1983. He earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of Nebraska in 2006. He is married to Sarah Taylor, the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman. They have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly.

2025 coaching staff: Head coach Zac Taylor made five additions to the coaching staff following the 2024 season, headlined by defensive coordinator Al Golden. A former head coach at the college level who spent two seasons (2020-21) as linebackers coach for the Bengals, Golden returns to Cincinnati following three years ('22-24) as defensive coordinator at the University of Notre Dame.

Bengals pick up 400th W: Cincinnati's Week 15 win at Tennessee marked the 400th regular-season victory in franchise history. The Bengals closed the 2024 regular season with 403 all-time wins, which include 242 in games played at home and 161 on the road.

The first regular-season win in Bengals history came on Sept. 15, 1968, when they defeated the Denver Broncos 24-10 at Nippert Stadium on the campus of the University of Cincinnati. One hundred and seven Bengals regular-season victories have come at Paycor Stadium (formerly Paul Brown Stadium).

Here is a look at the milestone regular-season victories in Bengals history:

WIN #	DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT
100th	Sept. 12, 1982	vs. Houston Oilers	27-6
200th	Dec. 22, 1996	vs. Indianapolis	31-24
300th	Nov. 18, 2012	at Kansas City	28-6
400th	Dec. 15, 2024	at Tennessee	37-27

The jungle is jammin': The Bengals have welcomed an announced attendance figure of 65,000 or more in 24 consecutive regular-season home games dating back to Week 1 of the 2022 campaign. That ties the longest streak in team history, matching a previous span of 24 straight home contests from 2005-07.

Each of the 14 highest attended home games in team history, in terms of announced attendance figure, have occurred since the start of the 2022 calendar year. Two of those contests were played in the 2024 season, as Cincinnati welcomed an announced crowd of 67,239 for its "White Bengal" game in Week 8 vs. Philadelphia (second-largest in team history), then hosted an announced figure of 66,546 for the Week 17 overtime thriller against Denver (fourth-largest).

The largest home attendance figure in team history is 67,260, which came in Week 4 of the 2022 season when the Bengals defeated Miami on Thursday Night Football. That figure also marked the largest crowd for a sporting event in Cincinnati history.

Here is a look at the largest announced home crowds in Bengals franchise history:

DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT	ATTENDANCE
Sept. 29, 2022	Miami	W, 27-15.....	67,260
Oct. 27, 2024	Philadelphia	L, 37-17.....	67,239

Dec. 28, 2024	Denver	W, 30-24 (OT).....	66,546

Five road prime-time games: Of the Bengals' nine road games in the 2024 season, five were played in "prime time," which the Elias Sports Bureau defines as a kickoff time of 7 p.m. ET or later. It marked the most road prime-time games played in a single season in NFL history, and tied for the most ever by any pro football team. The only other team to play five prime-time contests on the road is the 1963 Oakland Raiders of the American Football League.

Cincinnati compiled a 3-2 record in its five road prime-time games, with wins coming in Week 6 at the N.Y. Giants (Sunday Night Football), Week 14 at Dallas (Monday Night Football), and Week 18 at Pittsburgh (played Saturday night at 8 p.m.). Both losses were one-score decisions — a 35-34 loss at Baltimore in Week 10 (Thursday Night Football), and a 34-27 loss at the L.A. Chargers in Week 11 (Sunday Night Football).

2024 Bengals captains: The Bengals in 2024 were led by eight captains who were decided through a players-only vote. The captains were composed of three offensive players, three defensive players and two special teams representatives.

On offense, the captains were fifth-year QB Joe Burrow, ninth-year C Ted Karras and seventh-year OT Orlando Brown Jr. Burrow has been elected a team captain in each of his five pro seasons since entering the league in 2020. Karras, who joined Cincinnati as a free agent in 2022, served as a captain for the third straight season with the Bengals and a fourth time overall, after doing so with the Miami Dolphins in '20. Brown, a four-time Pro Bowler who previously played for the Baltimore Ravens (2018-20) and Kansas City Chiefs ('21-22), carried the honor for the first time in his career.

The defensive captains were ninth-year S Vonn Bell, seventh-year DE Sam Hubbard and sixth-year LB Germaine Pratt. Bell served as a Bengals captain for the fourth time overall, after previously wearing the patch from 2020-22 (spent '23 season with Carolina). Hubbard, a Cincinnati native who has been with the Bengals since 2018, was voted a captain for the fourth straight year. Pratt was named a captain for the first time in his career.

Cincinnati's two special teams captains — fifth-year LB Akeem Davis-Gaither and fifth-year K Evan McPherson — each were elected for the first time in their careers.

Players of the week: Bengals players' individual performances during the 2024 regular season were recognized with a combined five weekly awards, which included two AFC Offensive Player of the Week, two AFC Defensive Player of the Week and one AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. It marked the third straight season in which Cincinnati boasted five or more weekly award winners. The Bengals' 21 weekly honors since the start of the 2021 season are the third-most by any NFL team in that span. Philadelphia (NFC) and Buffalo (AFC) are tied for the most overall weekly awards in that time frame with 25 each.

Here is a closer look at the five Player of the Week recognitions earned by Bengals players in 2024:

- WR Charlie Jones, Week 7, AFC Special Teams Player of the Week: Jones notched his first career weekly honor after taking the opening kickoff at Cleveland and returning it 100 yards for a TD. The play tied for the longest KOR in the NFL in the 2024 season, and was the first return of 100 or more yards in the league's new Dynamic Kickoff. It also was just the second time in Bengals history in which a player returned the opening kickoff for a TD.

- DE Trey Hendrickson, Week 9, AFC Defensive Player of the Week: Hendrickson logged a career-high four sacks in a dominant home win over Las Vegas. His four sacks were the second-most by any player in a game during the 2024 regular season, and tied for the third-most in a game in Bengals history.

Three of his sacks came in the fourth quarter, including a strip-sack that led to a Cincinnati fumble recovery at the Raiders' 13-yard line.

- WR Ja'Marr Chase, Week 14, AFC Offensive Player of the Week: Chase tallied a season-high 14 receptions for 177 yards and two TDs in a road win at Dallas on Monday Night Football. His 14 catches tied for the most by any player in a game in 2024, and also went in as the second-most in a game in Bengals history behind his own single-game record of 15 in 2023 at Arizona. Chase's final grab of the night was a 40-yard TD with 1:01 remaining in the fourth quarter that proved to be the game-winner.

- QB Joe Burrow, Week 17, AFC Offensive Player of the Week: Burrow completed 39 of 49 passes (79.6 percent) for 412 yards and three TDs to lead Cincinnati to an overtime victory over Denver in a must-win game. He also rushed four times for 25 yards, including a one-yard TD that put the Bengals ahead late in regulation. In the fourth quarter and overtime period, Burrow went 18-for-20 for 217 yards and two TDs, capped off by a three-yard game-winning TD pass with 1:07 left in OT.

- DE Trey Hendrickson, Week 18, AFC Defensive Player of the Week: Hendrickson culminated his All-Pro regular season with 3.5 sacks in a road win at Pittsburgh. Two of his sacks came late in the fourth quarter to help keep Pittsburgh out of field goal range as Cincinnati sealed a 19-17 victory. He became the first Bengals player to win multiple Defensive Player of the Week awards in the same season since DE Carlos Dunlap in 2019.

Back-to-back Player of the Month: QB Joe Burrow was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for his performance in Cincinnati's three games played in November, then won the award again for the team's six regular-season games in December and January. He became the first player in Bengals history to receive two monthly awards in the same season.

Since the NFL began awarding Player of the Month in 1986, Burrow is one of 14 players to receive offensive honors in consecutive months within the same season. Prior to Burrow, the last player to accomplish that feat was Indianapolis RB Jonathan Taylor in October and November of the 2021 campaign.

Burrow and QB Andy Dalton are the only players in team history to be named AFC Offensive Player of the Month twice in their Bengals career. Dalton received the honor for his performance in October of 2013, then again for October of '15.

Bengals net three Pro Bowlers: QB Joe Burrow, WR Ja'Marr Chase and DE Trey Hendrickson were selected to the AFC team for the 2025 Pro Bowl Games. Chase and Hendrickson were voted starters at their respective positions, and both players earned their fourth consecutive — and fourth career — Pro Bowl nod. They are the 11th and 12th players in Bengals history to receive four Pro Bowl honors during their Cincinnati careers.

Burrow was voted a Pro Bowler for the second time in his career, with his first selection coming in the 2022 season. He is the fifth QB in team history to be selected to the Pro Bowl multiple times, joining Ken Anderson (1975-76, '81-82), Boomer Esiason ('86, '88-89), Carson Palmer (2005-06) and Andy Dalton ('11, '14, '16).

Chase became the second player in team history to receive a Pro Bowl selection in each of his first four seasons, joining WR A.J. Green (2011-14). Hendrickson is the third defensive player to notch four Pro Bowl honors during his Cincinnati career, joining DT Geno Atkins (eight selections) and CB Lemar Parrish (six).

Additionally, HB Chase Brown was voted as a third alternate for the AFC squad, and OT Orlando Brown Jr. was named a fourth alternate. Alternates were added to the event if voted player(s) in their position group were unable to participate. Selections from the two teams reaching the Super Bowl were among those unable to play, as were players who were not cleared due to injury.

The 2025 Pro Bowl Games were held Sunday, Feb. 2 at Camping World Stadium in Orlando, Fla.

Burrow named Comeback Player of the Year: QB Joe Burrow was awarded the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year for 2024, as voted on by members of the Associated Press. Burrow, who previously received the honor for the 2021 season, joined former Miami/N.Y. Jets QB Chad Pennington (2006, '08) as the only players to win it twice in their career.

Burrow suffered a season-ending wrist injury in Game 10 of the 2023 campaign, which required surgery and an extensive rehab process. He returned to action in time to start the 2024 preseason opener, and went on to set regular-season team records while leading the NFL in passing attempts (652), completions (460), passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43). He earned his second career Pro Bowl selection, and was twice named the AFC Offensive Player of the Month (November, December/January).

Burrow and former QB Jon Kitna (2003) are the only Comeback Player of the Year recipients in Bengals history.

WR Ja'Marr Chase also took home a postseason honor for his performance in 2024, as he was voted one of two FedEx Air and Ground Players of the Year. The award was decided through a fan vote, and for the first time in its 22-year history, wide receivers and tight ends were eligible to be recognized in addition to quarterbacks and running backs. Chase, who became the sixth player in the Super Bowl era to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," was voted the FedEx Ground Player of the Week twice during the regular season (Weeks 5 and 10). He shared Air and Ground Player of the Year honors with Buffalo QB Josh Allen.

Burrow and Chase accepted their awards at the NFL Honors ceremony on Feb. 6 in New Orleans.

An NFL first: Cincinnati's best individual performances in the 2024 season also were tops in the NFL, as QB Joe Burrow led the league in passing yards (4918), WR Ja'Marr Chase led in receiving yards (1708) and DE Trey Hendrickson led in sacks (17.5). The Bengals became the first team to boast the league leader in each of those three categories since 1982, when the NFL began officially tracking sacks.

Coincidentally, Cincinnati also became the first team since 1982 to have the NFL leaders in passing yards, TD passes, receiving yards and receiving TDs. In addition to their respective yardage totals, Burrow paced the league with a career-high 43 scoring passes, while Chase's career-best 17 TD catches led all players. The 1982 San Diego Chargers accomplished that feat with QB Dan Fouts and WR Wes Chandler.

Top-ranked passing offense: The Bengals averaged a league-best 272.9 net passing yards per game in 2024. It marked the second time in team history in which Cincinnati led the NFL in passing offense, with the first instance being the 1975 campaign. That year, Ring of Honor QB Ken Anderson guided the Bengals to an average of 231.5 net passing yards.

Cincinnati's 272.9 net passing yards per game also set a team record, eclipsing the previous mark of 265.0 in the 2022 season. The Bengals in 2024 recorded 300 or more net passing yards six times, including a season-high 421 in Week 10 at Baltimore. That was the fifth-highest passing yardage total by any team during the 2024 regular season.

Red zone scoring streak: The Bengals scored either a TD or a FG on 42 consecutive drives that reached their opponent's 20-yard line during the 2024 season. The streak began with a TD in the third quarter of Week 1 vs. New England and ended with a fumble in the second quarter of Week 15 at Tennessee.

Cincinnati's 42 straight red zone trips resulting in a score marked the longest streak by any team in 2024. It also was the longest such streak by the Bengals since at least 1980, when the Elias Sports Bureau began tracking drive data. The 2024 streak surpassed 41 consecutive red zone scores for Cincinnati from Week 14 of the 2005 season through Week 10 of 2006.

The Bengals in 2024 came away with points on 56 of 61 drives that reached the red zone (91.8 percent), the fifth-best rate in the NFL. Cincinnati also scored a TD on 63.9 percent of its red zone drives (39 of 61), the fifth-highest percentage leaguewide behind Baltimore (74.2), Buffalo (71.6), Detroit (69.4) and Tampa Bay (66.7).

Offense shares the wealth vs. Broncos: In Cincinnati's Week 17 win over Denver, three different Bengals players recorded at least nine catches — WR Tee Higgins (11), TE Mike Gesicki (10) and WR Ja'Marr Chase (nine). It marked the first game in team history in which three players had nine or more receptions.

The Bengals became the first NFL team to accomplish that feat since Carolina in Week 9 of the 2020 season, when RB Christian McCaffrey caught 10 passes while WRs Robbie Anderson and Curtis Samuel each brought in nine.

Higgins' 11 grabs against the Broncos were the second-most in any game of his career, one shy of his career-high 12 in Week 16 of the 2021 season against Baltimore. Gesicki's 10 catches matched his career high from Week 3 of 2021, when he played for Miami. Higgins and Gesicki also became the first Bengals duo to log at least 10 receptions apiece since Week 13 of 2004, when WRs T.J. Houshmandzadeh and Chad Johnson both had 10 in a road win over the Ravens.

Higgins finished the Week 17 contest with a game-high 131 receiving yards, while Chase added 102. It was the only game of the 2024 season in which two Bengals players had 100 or more receiving yards.

Another 99-yarder in "Battle of Ohio": Early in Cincinnati's Week 16 game versus Cleveland, the Bengals took over possession at their own one-yard line and proceeded to drive the ball 99 yards in eight plays, culminating in a two-yard TD pass from QB Joe Burrow to WR Tee Higgins. The offense featured a balanced attack during the drive, as Burrow completed each of his four passing attempts for 41 yards and the team rushed four times for 53 yards.

The Bengals' offense has pulled off a 99-yard TD drive in each of the past two seasons, and both have come against their in-state rival. In Week 18 of the 2023 campaign, QB Jake Browning engineered a 99-yard march in the third quarter that ended with a scoring pass to WR Andrei Iosivas, extending Cincinnati's lead over the Browns to 31-0. However, prior to 2023, the last 99-yard TD drive for the Bengals was on Sept. 18, 1994, against New England at Riverfront Stadium.

Nine takeaways in two games: The Bengals' defense recorded nine takeaways over a two-game stretch in Week 15 at Tennessee and Week 16 vs. Cleveland. It tied for the most forced turnovers in a span of two games by any team in 2024, as Philadelphia also had nine in Weeks 16-17. It also marked Cincinnati's most combined takeaways in two games since Weeks 11-12 of the 2006 season.

The Bengals' nine takeaways included six INTs and three fumble recoveries. They forced six turnovers in the win over the Titans, the most in a game by Cincinnati since Week 10 of the 2007 season at Baltimore (also six). The defensive effort at Nissan Stadium was spearheaded by four INTs, marking the first time the Bengals picked off four passes in a game since Week 8 of 2018 against Tampa Bay.

Cincinnati followed up its performance against the Titans with two more INTs and a FR in the following week's home win over Cleveland. The first of those takeaways was a forced fumble and recovery by S Vonn Bell at the Bengals' one-yard line, which kept the Browns out of the end zone on the game's opening drive.

Burrow on top: Joe Burrow, who completed his fifth pro season in 2024, put together arguably the best individual campaign by a QB in Bengals history. The former No. 1 overall draft pick led the NFL in completions (460), passing attempts (652), passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43), while ranking third in passer rating (108.5) and fourth in completion percentage (70.6; minimum 14 attempts per team's games). Each of those figures also set a team single-season record.

Burrow is the first Bengals QB to lead the league in completions, passing yards and TD passes in the same season. The last Cincinnati signal caller to pace the NFL in completions was QB Ken Anderson in 1982 (218 completions). Anderson also threw for the most passing yards twice, in 1974 (2667) and '75 (3169). The only other QB in team history to lead the NFL in TD passes is Carson Palmer in 2005 (32).

Since 2000, there have been five instances of a QB finishing a season as the outright league leader in all three categories — St. Louis Rams QB Kurt Warner in '01, New Orleans QB Drew Brees in '11, Denver QB Peyton Manning in '13, Tampa Bay QB Tom Brady in '21 and Burrow in '24.

Burrow also became the fourth QB in NFL history to pass for at least 4500 yards and 40 TDs while throwing 10 or fewer INTs, joining Manning (2004 and '13), Brady ('07) and Green Bay QB Aaron Rodgers (2011).

Historic eight games for No. 9: QB Joe Burrow passed for at least 250 yards and three TDs in eight straight games from Weeks 9-17. That marked the longest such streak in NFL history, surpassing six consecutive games by former New England QB Tom Brady during his 2007 MVP season.

Burrow's streak began in a dominant Week 9 win over Las Vegas, when he tied his career high with five TD passes and threw for 251 yards. He followed up four days later with a season-high 428 passing yards and four TDs on Thursday Night Football at Baltimore, then in Week 11 at the L.A. Chargers amassed 356 yards through the air and three more scoring tosses.

Burrow, who was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for November, opened December with 309 passing yards and three TDs in Week 13 vs. Pittsburgh. He then led Cincinnati to a Monday Night Football victory at Dallas in Week 14, logging 369 passing yards and another three TDs. He posted a 271-yard, three-TD stat line in Week 15 at Tennessee, with his third scoring pass marking a franchise-record 36 on the season.

Burrow eclipsed Brady's streak with 252 passing yards and three TDs in Week 16 vs. Cleveland, while also recording his second-highest passer rating of the season (134.3). In the Week 17 thriller against Denver, Burrow finished with 412 passing yards and three TDs, including the game-winning scoring pass with 1:07 left in overtime.

Burrow became the fourth QB in NFL history with at least three TD passes in eight consecutive games, joining Brady (10 straight in 2007), and former Indianapolis QBs Peyton Manning (eight in '04) and Andrew Luck (eight in '18). He also became the first QB to pass for 27 or more TDs in a span of eight games since 2020, when Seattle QB Russell Wilson had 28 from Weeks 1-9.

Joe is the first: In Weeks 10 and 11, QB Joe Burrow became the first QB in NFL history to record at least 50 passing attempts, 350 passing yards and three TD passes with zero INTs in consecutive games.

In Week 10 at Baltimore, Burrow posted season highs in attempts (56) and yards (428), while throwing four TDs. His 56 attempts were the second-most in any game in his career, trailing a career-high 61 in Week 2 of his 2020 rookie season at Cleveland. His 428 passing yards were the fourth-most he has ever thrown for.

Burrow's performance against the Ravens was just the eighth time in NFL history in which a QB had at least 50 attempts, 400 passing yards and four TD passes with no INTs.

Burrow followed up by going 28 of 50 for 356 yards and three TDs in Week 11 at the L.A. Chargers. Each of his three TD passes and 245 of his passing yards came in the second half as he helped Cincinnati climb back from a 21-point deficit to tie the game.

Single-season TD record: QB Joe Burrow's league-leading 43 TD passes in 2024 set a Bengals single-season record. He clinched the record with his 36th TD pass in Week 15 at Tennessee, which surpassed his own previous mark of 35 in the 2022 campaign.

Burrow also holds the third spot on Cincinnati's single-season TD list, as he passed for 34 in 2021. He is one of four players in NFL history to record 30 or more TD passes in three of his first five seasons, alongside Miami QB Dan Marino, Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes and Buffalo QB Josh Allen.

Burrow is the 11th QB in league history with 40 or more TD passes in a season. His 43 TDs in 2024 included a career-high five scoring passes on two occasions — Week 5 vs. Baltimore and Week 9 vs. Las Vegas. He became the first QB to throw five or more TD passes multiple times in a season since 2021, when Mahomes and Tampa Bay QB Tom Brady each had two such games. Baltimore QB Lamar Jackson also passed for five TDs in two games in 2024 (Weeks 7 and 15).

Burrow's career TD tally: QB Joe Burrow's 43 TD passes in 2024 boosted his career total to 140. That is the third-most scoring passes in a player's first five seasons in NFL history, trailing only Miami QB Dan Marino (168) and Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes (151).

Burrow threw his 125th career TD pass in Week 13 vs. Pittsburgh, when he completed a highlight-reel jump-pass to WR Ja'Marr Chase in the end zone. Playing in his 64th regular-season game, he became the third-fastest QB in league history to reach 125 TDs, behind Mahomes (50 games) and Marino (54).

Burrow also logged his 100th career TD pass on the opening drive of Week 3 vs. Washington. He tied for the seventh-fastest QB to reach that milestone (55 games).

Burrow has 26 career games with three or more TD passes, the third-most such games in NFL history in a player's first five seasons behind Marino (33) and Mahomes (28).

Here is a look at the QBs with the most TD passes in their first five seasons

in NFL history:

PLAYER	TEAM	YEARS	TD PASSES
Dan Marino	Miami Dolphins	1983-87	168
Patrick Mahomes	Kansas City Chiefs	2017-21	151
Joe Burrow	Cincinnati Bengals	2020-24	140
Peyton Manning	Indianapolis Colts	1998-2002	138
Josh Allen	Buffalo Bills	2018-22	138

Joe masters the deep ball: QB Joe Burrow threw an NFL-best nine TD passes of 40 or more yards during the 2024 regular season. Seven of those went to WR Ja'Marr Chase, highlighted by a pair of 70-yarders in Week 5 and Week 10 against Baltimore. Burrow also connected with TE Mike Gesicki for a 47-yard TD in Week 9 vs. Las Vegas, and hit WR Tee Higgins for a 42-yard score on a fourth-down play in Week 11 at the L.A. Chargers.

Since entering the NFL in 2020, Burrow has a league-leading 28 TD passes of 40-plus yards. The next closest player in that time frame is former Las Vegas/current New Orleans QB Derek Carr with 21. Burrow led the NFL with 10 TD passes from at least 40 yards out in 2021, then followed up with seven in '22 and two in '23. He also leads the league in scoring passes of 50 or more yards (18) and 60 or more yards (14) since 2020.

Burrow on the mark: QB Joe Burrow threw his 1500th career passing attempt in the 2022 regular-season finale, which qualified him for the NFL's completion percentage record. With a career percentage of 68.63 at the end of the 2024 season, he is the all-time leader in the category.

Burrow's 70.552 completion percentage in 2024 ranked fourth leaguewide (minimum 14 attempts per team's games in season). It also set a single-season team record, narrowly edging out QB Ken Anderson's completion rate of 70.550 in 1982. Burrow completed at least 70 percent of his passes in 11 games in 2024, including each of the final six — the longest such streak in his career. His previous long was a four-game streak from Weeks 6-9 of the 2022 season.

In the overtime period of Week 17 vs. Denver, Burrow threw his 2500th career passing attempt. His 1710 completions at the time he reached that mark are the most in NFL history through a QB's first 2500 throws.

Burrow completed 37 of 46 passes (80.4 percent) in the Week 18 win at Pittsburgh. It marked his 26th career game with a completion percentage of 70 or higher on at least 30 attempts, the most such games in a player's first five seasons in NFL history. The next closest are Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes and Miami QB Tua Tagovailoa (21 games each).

In Week 9 vs. Las Vegas, Burrow recorded his 1500th career completion in what was his 61st regular-season game. That marked the second-fewest games in NFL history to reach 1500 completions, trailing only L.A. Chargers QB Justin Herbert (57).

After leading the NFL in completion percentage in 2021 (70.4), Burrow followed up with a 68.3 percentage in '22, the second-highest rate in the league.

Here is a look at the NFL's all-time leaders in career completion percentage (minimum 1500 passing attempts):

PLAYER	TEAM(S)	YEARS	COMP. %

Burrow hits yardage milestones: QB Joe Burrow led the NFL and set a Bengals single-season record with 4918 passing yards in 2024. He passed for at least 300 yards in seven games, the most by any QB during the 2024 campaign and most in a season in team history.

Burrow now owns the three highest single-season passing yardage marks in Bengals history, as in addition to his 2024 total, he had 4611 in 2021 (sixth-most in NFL that year) and 4475 in '22 (fifth in NFL). He is the first Cincinnati QB to pass for 4000 or more yards in three different seasons during his Bengals career. Former QBs Carson Palmer (2006-07) and Andy Dalton ('13, '16) each did it twice.

Burrow eclipsed 15,000 career passing yards in the Week 4 win at Carolina. Playing in his 56th regular-season game, he tied for the fourth-fastest player in NFL history to reach that milestone. He finished the 2024 campaign with 19,001 career passing yards, the sixth-most in a player's first five seasons in league history.

In Week 5 vs. Baltimore, Burrow surpassed former QB Jeff Blake (15,134) for the fifth-most passing yards in team history.

Here is a look at the most passing yards in a season in Bengals history:

Joe's New York dash: QB Joe Burrow's first rushing TD of the 2024 season came on the opening drive of Week 6 at the N.Y. Giants, when on a third-and-18 he scrambled out of the pocket and sprinted 47 yards to the end zone. It was his 11th career rushing score (regular season), and his first since Week 13 of the 2022 campaign. Here are some notable facts on the play:

- It was the longest rushing TD by a QB in Bengals history, surpassing the previous long of 27 yards by Jeff Driskel on Nov. 11, 2018 vs. New Orleans.
- It was the second-longest rushing attempt overall by a QB in team history, behind a 73-yarder by Virgil Carter on Nov. 15, 1970 vs. Cleveland.
- According to the NFL's NextGen Stats service, Burrow's top speed on the play was 19.86 mph, the fastest he has run on any play of his career.
- Burrow's previous longest rushing attempt was 23 yards, which he hit twice — on a TD in his career debut on Sept. 13, 2020 vs. the L.A. Chargers, and on a scramble on Sept. 11, 2022 vs. Pittsburgh.
- Burrow finished the Giants game with a career-high 55 rushing yards on four carries.

Chase claims Triple Crown: WR Ja'Marr Chase led the NFL in receptions (127), receiving yards (1708) and receiving TDs (17) in his fourth pro season, earning the prestigious receiving "Triple Crown." He became just the sixth Triple Crown winner in the Super Bowl era (1966-present), and the first since L.A. Rams WR Cooper Kupp in 2021.

Chase's receptions total and receiving yardage each set a Bengals single-season record, while his 17 receiving TDs tied WR Carl Pickens' team record set in 1995. Chase had five games with 100 or more receiving yards in 2024, tying for the second-most such games in a season in team history behind WR A.J. Green's six games in '13.

Chase also became the fifth player in NFL history to log at least 100 catches, 1500 receiving yards and 15 receiving TDs in a season, joining Kupp (21), former Minnesota WR Randy Moss (03), former Indianapolis WR Marvin Harrison (01) and former San Francisco WR Jerry Rice (1995).

Following the regular season, Chase was voted a unanimous first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. It marked his second career All-Pro selection, as he received second-team honors in his 2021 rookie campaign. He is the first Bengals offensive player to earn first-team accolades since OT/G Andrew Whitworth in 2015.

PLAYER	TEAM	SEASON	REC.-YDS.-TDS
Lance Alworth	San Diego Chargers	1966	73-1383-13
Jerry Rice	San Francisco 49ers	1990	100-1502-13
Sterling Sharpe	Green Bay Packers	1992	108-1461-13
Steve Smith Sr.	Carolina Panthers	2005	103-1563-12
Cooper Kupp	L.A. Rams	2021	145-1947-16
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals	2024	127-1708-17

Chasing history: WR Ja'Marr Chase's career numbers at the end of the 2024 campaign placed him alongside some of the top receivers in NFL history through their first four seasons.

Chase's 46 career receiving TDs are the third-most in a player's first four seasons in league history, behind only Pro Football Hall of Famers Randy Moss (53) and Jerry Rice (49). In 2024, he surpassed former New England All-Pro TE Rob Gronkowski (42) for fourth place on that list, and Hall of Famer Bob Hayes

(45) for third. Chase has 11 career games with multiple TD catches, tied with Moss and former Green Bay WR Antonio Freeman for the third-most in a player's first four seasons. Only Rice (13 games) and Gronkowski (12) had more in their first four years.

Chase's 5425 receiving yards also are third-most in any player's first four seasons, behind Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson (5899) and former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas (5512). His 395 career receptions are the fourth-most, trailing Thomas (470), Detroit WR Amon-Ra St. Brown (430) and former Miami WR Jarvis Landry (400).

Chase is the first player in NFL history to record at least 80 receptions, 1000 receiving yards and seven receiving TDs in each of his first four career seasons. He is one of six players all-time to begin his career with four consecutive 1000-yard receiving seasons, and the second Bengals player to do so following WR A.J. Green (2011-14).

The Bengals' first-round draft pick (No. 5 overall) in 2021, Chase holds a career average of 87.5 receiving yards per game (62 regular-season games). That is the second-highest mark in NFL history behind Jefferson (96.5). The players behind Chase in that category include Hall of Famer Calvin Johnson (third; 86.1 receiving yards per game), WR Antonio Brown (fourth; 84.2) and WR Julio Jones (fifth; 82.5).

In the 2024 season, Chase became the 11th player in NFL history to average at least 100 receiving yards and one receiving TD per game. The last player to accomplish that feat was former N.Y. Giants WR Odell Beckham Jr. in 2014. Chase also became the first player all-time with at least 1700 receiving yards and 17 receiving TDs in a single season.

Ja'Marr passes Housh: WR Ja'Marr Chase's league-leading 127 receptions in 2024 set a Bengals single-season record, surpassing former WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh's previous team mark of 112 in the '07 campaign.

Chase became the first player in Bengals history to finish a season as the NFL's outright receptions leader. Houshmandzadeh is the only other Cincinnati player to come close, as his 112 grabs in 2007 tied New England WR Wes Welker for the league lead.

Chase logged 10 or more catches in four games during the 2024 season, including a season-high 14 in the Week 14 win at Dallas on Monday Night Football. That marked the second-most receptions in a game in Bengals history, trailing Chase's own team record of 15 in Week 5 of the 2023 campaign at Arizona.

In Week 6 at the N.Y. Giants, Chase recorded his 300th career reception in what was his 51st regular-season game played. He became the fastest player in team history to reach that mark, four games ahead of WR A.J. Green (55), and tied for the eighth-fastest in NFL history.

Here is a look at the most receptions in a season in Bengals history:

Chase breaks own yardage record: WR Ja'Marr Chase's 1708 receiving yards in 2024 led the NFL and were the most in a season in Bengals history. He eclipsed his own previous team record of 1455 receiving yards set in his 2021 rookie season.

Chase became the second player in team history to lead the league in receiving yards, joining former WR Chad Johnson, who topped the NFL with 1369 yards in 2006.

Chase totaled 100 or more receiving yards in five games in 2024, tied with several players for the most such games in the NFL. It also tied for the most 100-yard receiving games in a season in Chase's career, alongside 2021 and '23.

On his game-winning TD late in the fourth quarter of Week 14 at Dallas, Chase surpassed 5000 career receiving yards. Playing in his 58th regular-season game, he tied former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas for the fifth-fastest player in NFL history to reach that milestone. The only players to get to 5000 receiving yards in fewer games are former San Diego Chargers WR Lance Alworth (52), Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson (52), former N.Y. Giants WR Odell Beckham Jr. (54), and former Atlanta WR Julio Jones (56).

Here is a look at the most receiving yards in a season in Bengals history:

Uno finds the end zone: WR Ja'Marr Chase's 17 receiving TDs in 2024 tied the Bengals single-season record, which originally was set by former WR Carl Pickens in 1995. Chase became the first player in team history to lead the NFL in TD catches.

Chase had an NFL-best five games with multiple receiving TDs in 2024, including a career-high-tying three scores in Week 10 at Baltimore. He previously caught three TD passes in Week 17 of the 2021 season vs. Kansas City and Week 5 of 2023 at Arizona. He became the third player in team history to score three receiving TDs in at least three games during his Bengals career, joining Pickens (four games) and former WR Chad Johnson (three).

Of Chase's 17 receiving TDs, eight came during a four-game stretch from Weeks 10-14. It marked the most TD catches in a span of four games in team history, and the most by any NFL player in four games since former Kansas City WR Tyreek Hill also had eight from Weeks 8-12 of the 2020 season.

Chase scored his 40th career receiving TD in Week 11 at the L.A. Chargers, in what was his 56th regular-season game. He became the fastest player in Bengals history and the eighth-fastest in NFL history to reach that mark.

Here is a look at the most receiving TDs in a season in Bengals history:

On the Chase: WR Ja'Marr Chase in 2024 led the NFL in TD receptions of 40 or more yards (seven), 50 or more yards (four) and 60 or more yards (four).

Chase now has 12 career receiving TDs from at least 60 yards out, five more than any other player since he entered the league in 2021 (regular season). It also is the most in a career in Bengals history, ahead of former WR Isaac Curtis (10), and the most in NFL history by a player under the age of 25.

Chase's first TD of the 2024 campaign came on a 41-yard pass from QB Joe Burrow on the opening drive of Week 3 vs. Washington. He then scored on a 63-yard catch-and-run to the end zone in Week 4 at Carolina, and the following week against Baltimore he had TDs of 41 and 70 yards. Chase became the first NFL player to log four TD receptions of 40-plus yards in a span of three games since former Dallas WR Terrell Owens in 2007.

Ja'Marr shines against Baltimore: WR Ja'Marr Chase caught 10 passes for 193 yards and two TDs in the Bengals' first matchup against the Ravens in Week 5 of the 2024 season, then followed up with 11 grabs for 264 yards and three scores in the Week 10 Thursday Night Football contest at Baltimore. His combined 457 receiving yards are the most in NFL history by one player against a single opponent in a season, surpassing former Raiders WR Art Powell's 428 yards vs. the Houston Oilers in 1963.

Chase's 264 receiving yards in Week 10 were the most by any NFL player in a game during the 2024 season, while his Week 5 output tied for the fourth-most. His Week 10 yardage total also marked the second-most ever in an NFL game played on a Thursday, behind Cleveland Rams receiver Jim Benton's 303 receiving yards on Thursday, Nov. 22, 1945.

Combining his Week 10 effort with a Bengals-record 266 yards and three scores in Week 17 of the 2021 season against Kansas City, Chase is the first player in NFL history to record at least 250 yards and three receiving TDs in multiple games in his career. He also is the first player ever with 260 or more receiving yards in multiple games.

Chase has five career games with at least 10 catches, 150 receiving yards and two receiving TDs — the most in a player's first four seasons in league history.

Tee's top 2024 highlights: Fifth-year WR Tee Higgins ranked second on the Bengals this season in receptions (73), receiving yards (911) and receiving TDs (10). His career-high 10 TD catches also tied for sixth in the NFL.

Higgins was inactive for five games due to injuries, but in his 12 appearances (nine starts), he further established himself as one of the league's most productive pass catchers. He returned to the lineup following a three-game hiatus from Weeks 8-10, and over the last nine weeks of the regular season he tied for the NFL lead in receiving TDs (seven) and ranked 17th in receiving yards (570). That late-season stretch was kicked off by a season-best 148 receiving yards on nine catches in Week 11 at the L.A. Chargers. In the third quarter of that contest, he caught a 42-yard TD pass from QB Joe Burrow on a fourth-down play to bring Cincinnati within seven points.

Higgins followed up his showing in Los Angeles with five grabs for 69 yards and a TD in Week 13 against Pittsburgh. He finished the Steelers game with 300 career receptions (regular season), tying former WR Tyler Boyd as the fourth-fastest player in team history to reach that mark (65 games).

A native of Oak Ridge, Tenn., Higgins returned to his home state in Week 15 against the Titans and brought in five more catches for 88 yards, including a 38-yard TD in the second quarter. He found the end zone again in Week 16 vs. Cleveland, securing a two-yard pass from Burrow on the Bengals' first offensive possession.

Higgins' most notable performance of the 2024 campaign came in the Week 17 matchup vs. Denver. With Cincinnati facing a must-win situation to keep its playoff hopes alive, Higgins came through with a season-high 11 receptions for 131 yards and three TDs, including the game-winning TD catch with 1:07 remaining in overtime. It marked his first career game with three TD receptions, and his 14th career outing with 100 or more receiving yards.

Cincinnati's offense featured a healthy Higgins earlier in the season, during a five-game stretch from Weeks 3-7. In that span, he ranked seventh leaguewide in receptions (29) and 10th in receiving yards (341). He caught nine passes for 83 yards and his first two TDs of the season in Week 5 vs. Baltimore, then two weeks later had four grabs for 82 yards and another score to help the Bengals earn a win at Cleveland. He eclipsed 4000 career receiving yards during the Week 7 contest, becoming the fifth-fastest player in team history to hit that milestone (63 games).

Since entering the NFL as a second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2020, Higgins ranks in the top 20 leaguewide in receiving yards (18th; 4595) and receiving TDs (T-14th; 34). He posted back-to-back 1000-yard receiving campaigns in 2021 and '22, then followed up with 656 on 42 catches in 12 games played in '23.

Higgins was named the Bengals' designated franchise player last February, and on June 17 he signed the one-year tender for the 2024 season.

Here is a look at the fastest players in Bengals history — in terms of games played — to reach 4000 receiving yards:

Chad Johnson	2001-04	57
Tee Higgins	2020-24	63

And here is a look at the fastest players in Bengals history to reach 300

career receptions

PLAYER	YEARS	GAMES TO REACH 300 RECEPTIONS
Ja'Marr Chase	2021-24	51

Tyler Boyd	2016-20	65
Tee Higgins	2020-24	65

Holiday Higgins: WR Tee Higgins has saved some of his best performances for when it matters most, as six of his 14 career 100-yard receiving games have occurred in the month of December. Since entering the NFL in 2020, he ranks second leaguewide in receiving TDs (16), tied for sixth in receiving yards (1597) and 11th in receptions (109) during the calendar's final month.

Higgins' 2024 season highs in receptions (11) and TDs (three) were posted on Dec. 28 against Denver. He also logged 131 receiving yards, his second-highest output of the season, and caught the game-winning TD pass from QB Joe Burrow in overtime.

Higgins had at least one TD catch in four of Cincinnati's five games played this past December, and his six total receiving scores during the month tied Tampa Bay WR Jalen McMillan for the league lead. He averaged 11.9 yards per reception on 31 catches in December, with 18 of those grabs resulting in a first down for the Bengals.

Higgins' single-game career high for both receptions (12) and receiving yards (194) came on Dec. 26, 2021 against Baltimore. His 2023 season high for receiving yards was 140 on Dec. 23 at Pittsburgh, which included a career-long 80-yard TD.

Higgins' notable production late in the year also has carried beyond December, as he ranks second in Bengals postseason history in receptions (31) and receiving yards (457). He has two 100-yard receiving games in the postseason, with 103 in the AFC Championship at Kansas City following the 2021 season and 100 two weeks later in Super Bowl LVI.

Brown does it all: After flashing his potential late in his 2023 rookie season, HB Chase Brown asserted himself as a key piece of the Bengals offense during his sophomore campaign. In 2024, Brown ranked in the top 20 leaguewide in rushing attempts (229; 16th), rushing yards (990; 17th), rushing TDs (seven; T-19th), yards from scrimmage (1350; 17th) and TDs from scrimmage (11; T-17th).

Brown shared carries with free agent acquisition Zack Moss through the first half of the season, but when Moss was placed on the Reserve/Injured list in early November, the Bengals turned to Brown as their primary back. From Weeks 9-18, he posted the eighth-most scrimmage yards among all running backs (930), and averaged 116.3 scrimmage yards per game. He also was one of two players in that span with at least 600 rushing yards and 250 receiving yards, alongside Detroit RB Jahmyr Gibbs.

Brown wrapped up 2024 by totaling at least 90 scrimmage yards in each of his final eight games played. He became the second player in Bengals history to log 90 or more scrimmage yards in eight straight contests, joining former FB Boobie Clark, who also had an eight-game streak from Oct. 14-Dec. 2, 1973.

Brown also reached 100 scrimmage yards in five consecutive games from Weeks 11-16, becoming the first Cincinnati running back to do so since HB BenJarvus Green-Ellis in 2012 (Weeks 11-15). Brown nearly made it six straight in Week 17 vs. Denver, as he had 91 scrimmage yards before suffering an ankle injury late in the fourth quarter that kept him out of action during the OT period.

A fifth-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, Brown scored his first two career rushing TDs in the Week 4 win at Carolina. His top statistical performance came in Week 9 vs. Las Vegas, when he posted his first career 100-yard rushing day (120), and added career highs in carries (27) and scrimmage yards (157). He found the end zone four times in a three-game span from Weeks 13-15, including a 19-yard TD catch in Week 14 at Dallas that contributed to a season-high 65 receiving yards. The Week 15 victory at Tennessee marked Brown's first career game with both a rushing and receiving score.

Gesicki's debut season in stripes: The Bengals added Mike Gesicki in the 2024 free agency period, looking to complement their talented receiving corps with a proven pass catcher at the tight end position. The seventh-year pro became a dependable option for QB Joe Burrow in his first season with Cincinnati, as he contributed 65 receptions (second-most in career), 665 receiving yards (third-most) and two receiving TDs.

Gesicki's 65 catches were the second-most in a season by a tight end in Bengals history, trailing only Dan Ross' 71 receptions in 1981. His 665 receiving yards also were the most by a Cincinnati TE since Jermaine Gresham had 737 in 2012.

Gesicki hit several career milestones in the 2024 campaign, beginning with his 100th regular-season game played in Week 2 at Kansas City. He honored the occasion that day with a game-high seven catches for 91 yards. He went on to surpass 3000 career receiving yards in Week 3 vs. Washington and 300 receptions in Week 14 at Dallas.

Gesicki's best statistical performance as a Bengal came in Week 9 vs. Las Vegas, when he caught five passes for a season-best 100 yards and two TDs. His second TD, a 47-yarder to help seal the win in the fourth quarter, was the second-longest reception of his career. In Week 17 vs. Denver, Gesicki tied his career high with 10 receptions that went for 86 yards. Two of his catches for 22 yards came in overtime.

NFL sack king: Eighth-year DE Trey Hendrickson led the NFL with 17.5 sacks in the 2024 season. He became the first Bengals player to lead the league in sacks since it became an officially tracked statistic in 1982.

Hendrickson's 17.5 sacks both tied his career high from the 2023 campaign and tied for the second-most in a season in team history, behind former DE Coy Bacon's 22.0 sacks in 1976 (the Bengals tracked sacks back to '76 and recognize Bacon as the record-holder).

Hendrickson had five games with multiple sacks in 2024, beginning with a two-sack effort in Week 2 at Kansas City. He logged two sacks in back-to-back games in Week 6 at the N.Y. Giants and Week 7 at Cleveland, becoming the first Cincinnati player to do so since former DE Antwan Odom in Weeks 1-2 of the 2009 season. Hendrickson then tallied a career-high four sacks in Week 9 vs. Las Vegas, and punctuated his season with 3.5 sacks in Week 18 at Pittsburgh.

The 2024 season was the fourth of Hendrickson's career in which he ranked in the top five in the NFL in sacks. He tied for second leaguewide in 2020 with 13.5 sacks, then ranked fifth in '21 (14), and tied for second in '23 (17.5).

Here is a look at the Bengals players with the highest sack totals in a single season:

PLAYER	SEASON	SACKS
Coy Bacon	1976	22.0
Trey Hendrickson	2023	17.5
Trey Hendrickson	2024	17.5
Trey Hendrickson	2021	14.0
Carlos Dunlap	2015	13.5

And here is a look at the NFL sack leaders during the 2024 regular season:

PLAYER	TEAM	SACKS
Trey Hendrickson	Cincinnati Bengals	17.5
Myles Garrett	Cleveland Browns	14.0
Nik Bonitto	Denver Broncos	13.5
Kyle Van Noy	Baltimore Ravens	12.5
(Three players tied)	—	12.0

Trey's torrid pace: With 17.5 sacks in both 2023 and '24, DE Trey Hendrickson became the first Bengals player to record double-digit sacks in consecutive seasons since former DE/DT Eddie Edwards in 1980-81.

Since the start of the 2023 campaign, Hendrickson's 35.0 combined sacks are 4.5 more than any other NFL player. He joined the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent during the 2021 offseason, and in his four years in Cincinnati he has totaled 57.0 sacks. That ranks as the third-most leaguewide in that span, trailing only Cleveland DE Myles Garrett (60.0) and Pittsburgh OLB T.J. Watt (58.5). It also is two shy of former DE Ross Browner (59.0) for the fifth-most sacks in a player's Bengals career.

In addition to his sack totals, Hendrickson has forced 11 fumbles since the start of the 2021 campaign, tied for the second-most in the NFL behind Watt (16). He forced two fumbles in 2024, as he strip-sacked Las Vegas QB Desmond Ridder in Week 9, then in Week 15 knocked the ball free from Tennessee QB Will Levis on a designed quarterback run. Both fumbles were recovered by Cincinnati.

A Florida Atlantic University product, Hendrickson spent his first four pro seasons (2017-20) with New Orleans, but started just three games over his first three years and totaled 6.5 sacks. He then broke out with 13.5 sacks in 2020, which tied for second in the NFL.

Hendrickson's production for the Bengals was rewarded in July of 2023, when he signed a one-year contract extension that keeps him in Cincinnati through the 2025 season.

Hendrickson wrecks the Raiders: DE Trey Hendrickson earned his second career AFC Defensive Player of the Week honor in Week 9, when he recorded a career-high four sacks in the home win over Las Vegas. It was the second-most sacks in a game by any player in 2024, behind Detroit DL Aidan Hutchinson's 4.5 in Week 2.

Hendrickson became the fourth player in Bengals history with four or more sacks in a game, and the first since former DE Antwan Odom had five in Week 2 of 2009 at Green Bay. Odom's total is tied for the team single-game record, alongside former DE/DT Eddie Edwards on Dec. 21, 1980 against Cleveland.

Three of Hendrickson's four sacks against the Raiders came during the fourth quarter, including a strip-sack that led to a recovery by Bengals LB Logan Wilson. It marked Hendrickson's 13th career forced fumble, and his 10th since joining the Bengals in 2021.

Hendrickson's previous single-game high for sacks was 2.5, which he recorded twice — in Week 3 of the 2022 season at the N.Y. Jets and in Week 5 of '23 at Arizona. He posted 3.5 sacks in the 2024 regular-season finale at Pittsburgh, which now stands as the second-most in his career.

Here is a look at the Bengals players with the most sacks in a game in team history:

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	SACKS
Eddie Edwards	Dec. 21, 1980	vs. Cleveland	5.0
Antwan Odom	Sept. 20, 2009	at Green Bay	5.0
Alfred Williams	Oct. 16, 1994	at Pittsburgh	4.0
Trey Hendrickson	Nov. 3, 2024	vs. Las Vegas	4.0

ADG steps into starting role: Fifth-year LB Akeem Davis-Gaither took over one of Cincinnati's starting LB spots late in the 2024 season with Logan Wilson out of the lineup due to an injury. Davis-Gaither started each of the final six contests, after lining up as a starter in just five of his previous 65 career regular-season games.

From Weeks 13-18, Davis-Gaither led the NFL with 58 total tackles. He finished the season with a career-best 77 stops, 40 more than his next highest total (37 in 2022). He posted double-digit tackles in three games in 2024, starting with a career-high-tying 13 in Week 13 against Pittsburgh. He then logged 12 in both Week 15 at Tennessee and Week 18 at Pittsburgh.

While his defensive responsibilities increased, Davis-Gaither maintained his role as a key special teamer, and in the season finale against the Steelers he recovered a fumble on punt coverage to set up the Bengals offense in Pittsburgh territory.

In Week 2 at Kansas City, Davis-Gaither recorded his first regular-season INT since his 2020 rookie year, as he picked off Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes and returned it 12 yards to set up a Cincinnati TD drive.

Three in a row for Geno: S Geno Stone intercepted a pass in Week 14 at Dallas, Week 15 at Tennessee and Week 16 vs. Cleveland. He became the first Bengals player with a pick in three or more consecutive games since former S Reggie Nelson had one in five straight contests from Weeks 10-14 of the 2015 season.

In the Week 14 win at Dallas, Stone picked off a deflected pass at Cincinnati's four-yard line on the opening play of the second quarter. He followed that with his first career pick-six in Week 15 at Tennessee, stepping in front of a throw by QB Will Levis and returning it 39 yards to increase the Bengals' lead to 31-14 in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter of Week 16, Stone tracked down a tipped pass and secured it with one hand to preserve a two-score lead over the Browns.

Stone, who signed with Cincinnati as a free agent during the 2024 offseason, notched his first INT as a member of the Bengals in Week 7 at Cleveland. Combining his Bengals totals with his AFC-leading seven picks as a member of the Baltimore Ravens in 2023, Stone's 11 INTs over the past two seasons are tied for the second-most in the NFL.

Stone totaled five takeaways for Cincinnati in 2024, as in addition to his four INTs, he recovered a fumble deep in Bengals territory in Week 11 at the L.A. Chargers to set up a game-tying TD drive.

Charlie's 100-yard return: WR Charlie Jones took the opening kickoff of Week 7 at Cleveland from his own goal line and returned it 100 yards for a Bengals TD just 12 seconds into the game. The play garnered Jones his first career AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honor, and was the first return of 100 or more yards in the NFL's new Dynamic Kickoff. Here are some notable facts on the return:

- It was the 13th TD on a KOR in Bengals history, and the first since former S Brandon Wilson had a 103-yard return on Nov. 29, 2020 against the N.Y. Giants.

- It was the second time in team history that the Bengals returned the game's opening kickoff for a TD. The first time came on Oct. 13, 2019, when Wilson had a 92-yard return at Baltimore.

- It tied for the third-longest KOR in team history and the sixth-longest play overall. The previous KORs that went for 100 or more yards were Wilson's 103-yarder, HB Eric Bieniemy's 102-yarder on Oct. 26, 2007 vs. the N.Y. Giants, and WR Glenn Holt's 100-yarder on Nov. 4, 2007 at Buffalo.

- It tied for the longest KOR in the NFL during the 2024 season, alongside a 100-yard return by N.Y. Giants WR Ihmir Smith-Marsette in Week 17. It also was one of seven TDs on a KOR in 2024.

- Jones also had an 81-yard punt return TD in Week 2 of the 2023 season against Baltimore. He and former CB Lemar Parrish are the only players in team history to score a TD via KOR and PR during their Bengals career.

Rookie Rehkow sets records: P Ryan Rehkow, who Cincinnati acquired on the third day of training camp in 2024, punted 53 times for 2603 yards during his rookie campaign. His 49.11 total yards per punt and 42.92 net yards per punt each set a Bengals single-season record. Both figures surpassed former P Kevin Huber's previous team records set in the 2020 season.

Rehkow finished his rookie season ranking sixth in the NFL in net punting average and ninth in gross average. He had 25 punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line compared to five touchbacks.

In Weeks 5-7, Rehkow became the first punter in team history to record four inside-20 punts in three consecutive games. He totaled season highs in punts (eight) and punting yards (354) in Week 7 at Cleveland, with zero attempts going for a touchback.

Following a four-year career (2020-23) at Brigham Young University in which he averaged 47.4 yards on 176 punts, Rehkow signed with Kansas City as a college free agent in May of 2024. He was waived by the Chiefs in June, then joined the Bengals on July 26.

A historic debut: P Ryan Rehkow kicked off his career with four punts for 258 yards in Week 1 vs. New England. His gross average of 64.5 yards set an NFL single-game record (minimum four punts), surpassing the previous mark of 63.60 by Las Vegas P AJ Cole in Week 9 of the 2023 campaign. The previous Bengals record (minimum three) belonged to Will Brice, who averaged 63.0 yards on Sept. 12, 1999 at Tennessee.

Rehkow's second punt against the Patriots, which came midway through the first quarter, was booted from his own 20-yard line and rolled just past the New England goal line for a touchback. It went in officially as an 80-yard punt, marking the longest in team history. The previous longest punt by a Bengal was 75 yards, shared by Kyle Larson (Oct. 9, 2005 at Jacksonville) and Kevin Huber (Dec. 1, 2013 at San Diego Chargers). Rehkow's 80-yarder also was the third-longest punt in a career debut in NFL history.

In the fourth quarter of Week 1, Rehkow launched a 70-yard punt that traveled from the Cincinnati 15-yard line to the New England 15. He also had a 57-yarder for a touchback on his first career punt in the first quarter, and in the second quarter dropped a 51-yarder that was fair caught at the Patriots' 17-yard line.

Rehkow's 52.0 net average was the second-highest in a game in team history behind 55.5 by Huber in Week 13 of 2013 at the San Diego Chargers. It also was the second-highest ever in an NFL debut, trailing only Seattle P Michael Dickson, who averaged 57.5 net yards on Sept. 9, 2018.

Here is a look at the highest single-game punting averages in NFL history (minimum four punts):

PLAYER	TEAM	DATE	PUNTS-YDS	AVG
Ryan Rehkow	Cincinnati Bengals	Sept. 8, 2024	4-258	64.5

York ties team record: K Cade York drilled a 59-yard FG as the first half clock expired in Week 16 vs. Cleveland, extending Cincinnati's lead to 17-0 at the break. It tied for the longest made FG in Bengals history, matching K Evan McPherson's 59-yarder in the 2022 season opener against Pittsburgh.

York's kick was a career long and tied for the fifth-longest in the NFL in the 2024 season. His previous long was a 58-yarder, which he kicked in his NFL debut in Week 1 of the 2022 campaign while playing for the Browns.

York was added to Cincinnati's practice squad on Dec. 4, then signed to the active roster on Dec. 17. He kicked in five games for the Bengals, converting nine of 11 FGs and 14 of 15 PATs.

Here is a look at the longest made FGs in Bengals history:

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	FG DISTANCE
Evan McPherson	Sept. 11, 2022	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	59
Cade York	Dec. 22, 2024	vs. Cleveland Browns	59
Evan McPherson	Dec. 19, 2021	at Denver Broncos	58

Dillon, Krumrie join Bengals Ring of Honor: A pair of Bengals all-time greats, HB Corey Dillon and NT Tim Krumrie, were inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during a halftime ceremony in Cincinnati's Week 3 game against Washington. They became the ninth and 10th members of the Ring of Honor, which for the fourth consecutive season recognized former players, coaches and individuals who have played a significant role in the franchise's storied history and tradition.

Dillon is the team's all-time leader in rushing attempts (1865), rushing yards (8061) and 100-yard rushing games (28). He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl selections from 1999-2001, and owns the top three single-game rushing performances in team history. Those performances include a then-NFL rookie record 246 yards against the Tennessee Oilers in 1997 and a then-NFL record 278 yards against the Denver Broncos in 2000.

Among the most notable draft selections in team history in terms of value, Krumrie entered the NFL as a 10th-round pick of the Bengals in 1983 and went on to spend his entire 12-year playing career ('83-94) in Cincinnati. He played in 188 regular-season games, the most ever by a Bengals lineman on either side of the ball, and earned a reputation for his tough and physical playing style. He was a two-time Pro Bowler (1987-88), and in '88 was voted a first-team All-Pro while helping lead Cincinnati to an appearance in Super Bowl XXIII.

Bengals season ticket members selected Dillon and Krumrie from a ballot that featured 11 individuals. Previous Ring of Honor inductees include QB Ken Anderson, OT Willie Anderson, team founder/head coach Paul Brown, WR Isaac Curtis, QB Boomer Esiason, WR Chad Johnson, OT Anthony Munoz and CB Ken Riley.

Orlando Brown Jr. named WPMOY nominee: The Bengals in December announced OT Orlando Brown Jr. as the team's nominee for the 2024 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. Considered the league's most prestigious honor, the award recognizes players who excel on the field and demonstrate a steadfast commitment to creating a positive impact beyond the game.

Brown, who has been a longtime advocate for type 1 diabetes research and education, became involved with the Southern and Central Ohio chapter of Breakthrough T1D (formerly JDRF) after joining the Bengals as a free agent in 2023. He has taken part in several initiatives to help raise awareness over the past year, including a Children's Congress event in Washington, D.C., where he joined youth from across the country to educate lawmakers about T1D and urge the renewal of the federally funded Special Diabetes Program.

Brown also partnered with Breakthrough T1D and Kroger at the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center's Juneteenth Jubilee. As a guest speaker, he emphasized the importance of improving access to T1D educational resources, diabetes management devices and affordable insulin in black communities.

"I'm so thankful for the opportunity to represent the Bengals organization as its Walter Payton Man of the Year," said Brown. "With all the work that I've done with Type 1 Diabetes, Breakthrough T1D, and so much that we've done as well in the black community here in Cincinnati — I'm very thankful."

Three players in Bengals history have been named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year — QB Ken Anderson in 1975, LB Reggie Williams in '86 and OT Anthony Munoz in '91.

Three listed on "Top 100": For the 14th consecutive season, current NFL players voted to determine the top 100 players in the league, with the final list revealed throughout July on social media and the NFL Network.

Cincinnati was represented by three players on the 2024 list — QB Joe Burrow (No. 39), WR Ja'Marr Chase (No. 45) and DE Trey Hendrickson (No. 77). It marked the third appearance on the list for Burrow and Chase, and the fourth for Hendrickson. It also was the fifth time in the history of "Top 100" that three or more Bengals players were featured.

Uniform notes: The Bengals wore nine different uniform combinations during the 2024 season, with three different jerseys, four pants and three socks featured at least once.

Cincinnati's most frequent combination in 2024 was black jerseys, white pants (orange stripes) and orange socks, which was worn four times and yielded a 3-1 Bengals record. The 2024 season also featured the introduction of orange pants with black stripes. The pants were unveiled on the team's social media channels in August, and made their debut in the regular-season opener against New England. Cincinnati donned the orange pants in five total games, as in addition to Week 1 against the Patriots, they were worn in Week 5 vs. Baltimore, Week 11 at the L.A. Chargers, Week 16 vs. Cleveland and Week 18 at Pittsburgh.

The Bengals unveiled new uniforms in 2021, marking the team's first significant uniform redesign since '04. There are three different color options for the current jerseys — black, white and orange. The pants feature four different options — black with orange stripes, white with orange stripes, white with black stripes, and orange with black stripes. Options for sock color include black, white and orange.

In 2022, with the league's approval for the use of alternate helmets, Cincinnati introduced a new helmet branded as the "White Bengal," featuring a white base coat and the team's iconic black stripes. The Bengals have worn the helmet five times and collected a 4-1 record in those games. The helmet's lone appearance of the 2024 season was in Week 8 against Philadelphia.

Here are the Bengals' records in every possible uniform combination (regular season and postseason only) since the team redesigned the uniform in 2021:

* — The league permitted teams to create alternate helmets for the 2022 season. However, teams were required to wear those alternate helmets only with alternate, throwback or color rush uniforms (CR) that season. The Bengals donned their new alternate white helmet in 2022 with their color rush jersey, which at the time had not been worn since '20, prior to the '21 primary uniform redesign. In 2023 and thereafter, the Bengals were permitted to wear their alternate white helmet with their primary white jersey.

^ — NFL rules allow teams to wear designated alternate and/or throwback and/or color rush uniforms for a combined total of three regular-season games. The Bengals' designated alternate uniform includes the team's orange jersey. The Bengals do not have a throwback uniform.

+ — The Bengals added orange pants with black stripes to their uniform lineup in 2024.

Bengal bites: The average age of the Bengals' active roster at the end of the 2024 season was 26.4 years ... Cincinnati opened its Week 8 game against Philadelphia with a 17-play, 70-yard TD drive; it marked the most plays of an opening drive which resulted in a TD by any team during the 2024 regular season ... According to the NFL's Next Gen Stats service, which tracks players' speed using GPS, the top speed by a Bengals ball-carrier in 2024 was 21.42 mph by WR Ja'Marr Chase on his 70-yard TD in Week 5 vs. Baltimore ... The longest-tenured player on the active roster at the end of the 2024 season was DE Sam Hubbard, who concluded his seventh season with the team after joining the Bengals as a third-round draft pick in 2018 ... The oldest player on the roster at the end of the 2024 season was C Ted Karras, who was 31 (born March 15, 1993) ... 2024 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1, GAME 1

New England Patriots 16, Cincinnati Bengals 10

Sunday, Sept. 8, 2024 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals trimmed their deficit to six points twice in the second half, but the Patriots forced a punt late in the fourth quarter and ran out the final 2:13 of regulation to hand Cincinnati a regular-season opening loss. New England controlled the clock for much of the game while rushing for 170 yards, while the Bengals' offense had to overcome a slow start with three straight three-and-outs. Cincinnati found its rhythm during a 13-play drive in the second quarter but came away with no points, as what was originally ruled a TD catch by TE Mike Gesicki was overturned, and two snaps later TE Tanner Hudson fumbled near the goal line and New England recovered. The Patriots capitalized with a FG as the first half expired, then forced a fumble on a Bengals punt return early in the third and cashed in with another FG to extend their lead to 13-0. Cincinnati responded later in the quarter with a rushing TD by HB Zack Moss, who finished with a team-high 44 yards on the ground in his Bengals debut. A Patriots FG midway through the fourth quarter was answered with a 51-yarder by Bengals K Evan McPherson, but that proved to be the last time Cincinnati crossed midfield.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Kansas City Chiefs 26, Cincinnati Bengals 25

Sunday, Sept. 15, 2024 at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium

The Bengals and Chiefs played to a one-score result for a sixth straight time since January 2022, as Kansas City K Harrison Butker kicked a 51-yard game-winning FG as time expired. The game featured six lead changes. Cincinnati held a two-point lead and forced the Chiefs into a fourth-and-16 with under a minute remaining, but a QB Patrick Mahomes downfield heave resulted in a defensive pass interference penalty to set up the kick. The Bengals' defense had three takeaways, including a pair of INTs, and allowed just 137 net passing yards. Offensively, Cincinnati scored points on five of its first six true possessions. Bengals QB Joe Burrow completed 23 of 36 passes for 258 yards and a 103.7 passer rating, as well as two TD passes to WR Andrei Iosivas. Cincinnati fell to 0-2, while Kansas City improved to 2-0.

WEEK 3, GAME 3

Washington Commanders 38, Cincinnati Bengals 33
Monday night, Sept. 23, 2024 at Paycor Stadium

Washington scored on all six of its offensive possessions which didn't end halves to defeat Cincinnati on Monday Night Football. The Bengals also were efficient offensively, totaling 436 net yards and coming away with points on six of their seven drives, but they ultimately could not climb back from a double-digit deficit in the second half. The game marked the NFL's first matchup since 1940 in which neither team punted nor committed a turnover. Commanders rookie QB Jayden Daniels completed 91.3 percent of his passes (21 of 23), which set both an NFL rookie record and a Bengals opponent record for a single game (minimum 20 attempts). Bengals QB Joe Burrow finished with 324 passing yards and three TDs, including his 100th career TD pass to WR Ja'Marr Chase on the game's opening drive. Cincinnati fell to 0-3, while Washington improved to 2-1.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

Cincinnati Bengals 34, Carolina Panthers 24

Sunday, Sept. 29, 2024 at Bank of America Stadium

The Bengals scored TDs to close out the first half and open the second half on the way to earning their first win of the season at Carolina. The Panthers marched to Cincinnati's one-yard line on the game's opening drive, but DT Kris Jenkins stuffed a rushing attempt on fourth-and-goal to prevent an early deficit. Cincinnati opened the scoring with the first of two rushing TDs by HB Chase Brown, who also finished with 80 rushing yards. In the second quarter, WR Ja'Marr Chase caught a pass from QB Joe Burrow near midfield and fought off several Panthers defenders before taking it down the sideline for a 63-yard TD. Cincinnati's next possession began with 1:09 left in the half, and Burrow led a quick drive that ended with a TD pass to HB Zack Moss with one second remaining to give the Bengals a 21-14 lead at the break. The Panthers closed their gap from 17 points to seven in the fourth quarter, but Cincinnati's offense ate three minutes off the clock late in the period and an Evan McPherson 46-yard FG regained the two-score advantage. Cincinnati improved to 1-3, while Carolina fell to 1-3.

WEEK 5, GAME 5Baltimore Ravens 41, Cincinnati Bengals 38 (OT)
Sunday, Oct. 6, 2024 at Paycor Stadium

A missed Bengals FG in OT was followed by a 52-yard run by Ravens RB Derrick Henry that set up Justin Tucker's game-winning kick, as Cincinnati fell to Baltimore in a shootout. The Bengals built a 10-point lead in the fourth quarter when WR Ja'Marr Chase took a short screen pass from QB Joe Burrow 70 yards for his second TD of the afternoon. Burrow passed for 392 yards, five TDs and a 137.0 rating, but an INT by CB Marlon Humphrey late in regulation led to game-tying FG drive. The Bengals were set up for a potential game-winning FG with 4:31 left in OT, but a mishandled snap led to K Evan McPherson kick sailing it wide left. Cincinnati fell to 1-4, while Baltimore improved to 3-2.

WEEK 6, GAME 6Cincinnati Bengals 17, N.Y. Giants 7

Sunday night, Oct. 13, 2024 at MetLife Stadium

The Bengals held the Giants to seven points and allowed just 190 net passing yards in a road prime-time win. Cincinnati jumped in front on the game's opening drive, when on a third-and-18 QB Joe Burrow escaped the pocket and ran 47 yards to the end zone for an early TD. The offense then stalled over its next six possessions, punting on five straight and committing a fumble in Giants territory early in the third quarter. Cincinnati's defense kept New York off the board through halftime, but the Giants put together a 16-play drive in the third period that ended with a one-yard rushing score to tie the game. Burrow responded on the very next play from scrimmage by finding WR Ja'Marr Chase downfield for a 33-yard gain, which helped set up a go-ahead FG. The Giants elected to go for it on fourth down from the Bengals' 36-yard line with three minutes remaining, but QB Daniel Jones' pass was broken up by CB DJ Turner II to force the turnover on downs. Cincinnati cemented the win five plays later when HB Chase Brown broke free for a 30-yard TD to make it a two-possession game. The Bengals improved to 2-4, while New York fell to 2-4.

WEEK 7, GAME 7

Cincinnati Bengals 21, Cleveland Browns 14
Sunday, Oct. 20, 2024 at Huntington Bank Field

WR Charlie Jones returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for a TD and Cincinnati's defense recorded two INTs as the Bengals earned their first win at Cleveland since 2017. A Browns TD before halftime pulled them within a point, but starting QB Deshaun Watson exited the game with an Achilles injury during the scoring drive and did not return. QB Dorian Thompson-Robinson entered the game and threw two picks in the second half, one to Bengals DE Sam Hubbard and the second to S Geno Stone. Cincinnati built a 21-6 lead in the third period on a pair of TD passes from QB Joe Burrow, who finished the game 15 of 25 for 181 yards and no turnovers. The Browns turned to their emergency third QB, Jameis Winston, on their final drive of the game, and Winston threw a TD pass followed by a two-point conversion to cut the Bengals' lead to seven with 1:27 left. However, Cincinnati recovered the ensuing onside kick to squander any potential Cleveland final-minute comeback attempt. The Bengals improved to 3-4, while Cleveland fell to 1-6.

The Eagles collected two takeaways in the second half and closed the game with 20 unanswered points to hand the Bengals a home loss. Cincinnati grabbed an early lead with a 17-play opening drive that lasted over 10 minutes and ended with a TD pass from QB Joe Burrow to WR Ja'Marr Chase. Philadelphia doubled up with TDs late in the first half and early in the second to pull ahead, before the Bengals knotted the score at 17 on HB Chase Brown's TD late in the third period. The Eagles went back in front on a 45-yard TD pass from QB Jalen Hurts to WR DeVonta Smith, and Cincinnati was unable to match as its next three offensive possessions included a turnover on downs, an INT and a lost fumble. The Eagles outgained the Bengals 161-58 in net rushing yards, and Hurts scored three rushing TDs while completing 16 of 20 passes. Cincinnati fell to 3-5, while Philadelphia improved to 5-2.

WEEK 9, GAME 9

Cincinnati Bengals 41, Las Vegas Raiders 24
Sunday, Nov. 3, 2024 at Paycor Stadium

QB Joe Burrow threw five TD passes, DE Trey Hendrickson logged four sacks and the Bengals pulled away with 21 straight points to earn their first home win of the season. Cincinnati's spurt began just before halftime, when Burrow found WR Andrei Losivas for a TD which broke a 10-10 tie. Burrow then connected with TEs Drew Sample and Mike Gesicki in the third quarter to extend the lead to 31-10, and Hendrickson notched three of his four sacks in the fourth period to help shut down Las Vegas. Raiders CB Jack Jones' 29-yard pick-six cut it to a two-score game early in the fourth quarter, but Burrow later connected with Gesicki for his second score, a 47-yarder that essentially sealed the win. Gesicki finished with 100 receiving yards, while HB Chase Brown led the Bengals with 120 rushing yards. Cincinnati improved to 4-5, while Las Vegas fell to 2-7.

The Bengals attempted a two-point conversion to potentially take the lead with 38 seconds remaining, but QB Joe Burrow's pass fell incomplete as Cincinnati came up just short on Thursday Night Football. Burrow finished with 56 passing attempts and threw for 428 yards and four TDs, with 264 yards and three scores going to WR Ja'Marr Chase. Chase's first TD was a 67-yarder early in the third quarter that increased the Bengals' lead to 21-7. Cincinnati was driving with the two-score lead later in the third, before a fumble forced and recovered by Baltimore sparked 21 straight points for the Ravens. Burrow and Chase connected on a 70-yard TD midway through the fourth to tie it, but Ravens QB Lamar Jackson's fourth TD pass of the night with 1:49 left proved to be the difference. Cincinnati fell to 4-6, while Baltimore improved to 7-3.

WEEK 14, GAME 13

Cincinnati Bengals 27, Dallas Cowboys 20
Monday night, Dec. 9, 2024 at AT&T Stadium

WR Ja'Marr Chase scored a 40-yard TD with just over a minute remaining to lift Cincinnati to a prime-time victory on Monday Night Football. The game-winning drive was set up when a Bengals punt initially was blocked by the Cowboys, but the ball was then touched by a Dallas player and ultimately recovered by LB Maema Njongmeta to give Cincinnati fresh set of downs. Bengals QB Joe Burrow threw three TD passes, with two going to Chase and the other to HB Chase Brown. Chase finished with 14 catches for 177 yards, while Brown posted 123 yards from scrimmage (58 rushing, 65 receiving). Dallas scored 10 straight points to pull back in front 20-17, but the Bengals' defense closed the game by forcing two punts and a turnover on downs on the Cowboys' final three drives. Both Cincinnati and Dallas left the game with 5-8 records.

WEEK 15, GAME 14

Cincinnati Bengals 37, Tennessee Titans 27

Sunday, Dec. 15, 2024 at Nissan Stadium

Cincinnati and Tennessee combined for 10 turnovers, the most in an NFL game since 2007, but QB Joe Burrow battled through the chaos with three TD passes to help lead the Bengals to a road victory. Cincinnati's defense logged six takeaways, including a 39-yard pick-six by S Geno Stone that gave the Bengals a 31-14 lead in the third quarter. The Bengals trailed by seven halfway through the second period, before DE Trey Hendrickson forced a fumble that was recovered by Cincinnati, and his fellow starting DE Sam Hubbard caught a two-yard TD pass from Burrow on the ensuing possession to tie the score. The Bengals created separation going into halftime when an INT by CB Cam Taylor-Britt led to a TD drive, and on the Titans' next play from scrimmage CB Mike Hilton picked off another pass to set up a FG. Cincinnati improved to 6-8, while Tennessee fell to 3-11.

WEEK 16, GAME 15Cincinnati Bengals 24, Cleveland Browns 6
Sunday, Dec. 22, 2024 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals recorded three takeaways against the Browns on defense and 326 net yards on offense to complete their first season sweep over Cleveland since 2017. Browns RB Jerome Ford broke off a 66-yard run on the opening play from scrimmage, but three plays later RB D'Onta Foreman was stripped by S Vonn Bell at the goal line to keep the game scoreless. Cincinnati followed the takeaway with a 99-yard drive, capped off by a two-yard TD pass from QB Joe Burrow to WR Tee Higgins. Burrow finished 23 of 30 for 252 yards and three TDs, becoming the first QB in NFL history to pass for at least 250 yards and three TDs in seven consecutive games. The Bengals stretched their lead to 17-0 when K Cade York tied a team record with a 59-yard FG as the first half expired. Cincinnati picked off Browns QB Dorian Thompson-Robinson twice in the fourth quarter, as S Jordan Battle and S Geno Stone had INTs on consecutive defensive possessions to maintain the Bengals' two-score advantage. Cincinnati improved to 7-8, while Cleveland fell to 3-12.

WEEK 17, GAME 16Cincinnati Bengals 30, Denver Broncos 24 (OT)

Saturday, Dec. 28, 2024 at Paycor Stadium

QB Joe Burrow threw the game-winning TD pass to WR Tee Higgins with 1:07 remaining in overtime to lift the Bengals to their fourth straight victory. Denver tied the game with under 10 seconds left in regulation, as QB Bo Nix's desperation heave to the end zone on fourth down was caught by WR Marvin Mims. Cincinnati's defense responded in OT by forcing a Broncos punt, and the offense drove into FG range to set up a potential winning kick for K Cade York, but his attempt bounced off the left upright. Denver was forced to punt again, giving Cincinnati possession with 2:20 on the clock. The offense marched 63 yards in five plays, with Burrow finding Higgins for a 31-yard gain to set up the game-winner. Higgins caught each of Burrow's three TD passes and finished with 131 yards on 11 receptions. Cincinnati improved to 8-8, while Denver fell to 9-7.

WEEK 18, GAME 17Cincinnati Bengals 19, Pittsburgh Steelers 17

Saturday night, Jan. 4, 2025 at Acrisure Stadium

The Bengals closed out the regular season with a road win in prime time to keep their playoff hopes alive. Cincinnati opened the game with a nine-play, 73-yard drive capped by a TD pass from QB Joe Burrow to WR Ja'Marr Chase to build an early 7-0 lead. The score marked Chase's 17th receiving TD of the season, which tied the team single-season record. The Bengals were kept out of the end zone the rest of the night, but increased their lead to 19-7 with four FGs from K Cade York. Pittsburgh scored a TD midway through the fourth quarter then kicked a FG later in the period to cut its deficit to two. The Steelers got the ball back inside the two-minute warning with a chance to potentially drive to win the game, but Cincinnati's defense wrapped up its strong performance by forcing a turnover on downs. DE Trey Hendrickson led the effort with 3.5 sacks, and the Bengals held the Steelers' offense to 193 total net yards. Cincinnati concluded the regular season at 9-8, while Pittsburgh, which already had clinched a playoff berth prior to the game, fell to 10-7.
