PRO: The Titans used the 20th overall pick in the 2012 NFL Draft to select Baylor wide receiver Kendall Wright. Since then, Wright has become one of the most dynamic and productive young receivers in team history. His total of 251 receptions during his first four seasons with the club is unprecedented among Titans and Oilers players. Wright edged Drew Hill's 250 catches from 1985 through 1988. In 2013, Wright became the first player in franchise history to lead the team in receptions in each of his first two NFL seasons, and his 158 catches in that span were the most in team annals for a player's first two campaigns. His 94 catches in 2013 ranked fifth in franchise history for a single season, and his 1,079 receiving yards were the most by a Titans player since 2004 (Drew Bennett and Derrick Mason). The 5-foot-10-inch, 191-pounder made an immediate impact in 2012 by tying for the NFL lead among rookies with 64 receptions. Wright was used principally as a slot receiver in college, but he has grown to become a weapon that can be used all over the field. He is a primary weapon whose sudden burst and consistent, strong hands figure to make him a key component in the Titans' offensive scheme for years to come.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2014, Wright's 57 receptions and 715 receiving yards ranked second on the team. His six touchdown catches led the squad and set a new career high.
- In 2013, Wright led the team with 94 catches and 1,079 receiving yards. He ranked fifth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in receptions, and his reception total also ranked fifth in franchise history for a single season. Wright's 1,079 receiving yards were the most by a Titans player since 2004, when Drew Bennett (1,247) and Derrick Mason (1,168) each finished with more than 1,100.
- As a rookie in 2012, Wright saw action in 15 games and tied for first among all NFL rookies with a team-best 64 receptions. He also tied for the team lead with four receiving touchdowns and ranked second on the squad with 626 receiving yards.
- Wright concluded his Baylor career as the most decorated and accomplished receiver in school history. He set virtually every significant receiving record for the program, totaling 302 receptions for 4,004 yards and 30 touchdowns. He never missed a game in his four years with the Bears and recorded at least one reception in every contest.
- As a senior in 2011, Wright set Baylor single-season records in receptions (108), receiving yards (1,663), receiving touchdowns (14), 100-yard games (nine), all-purpose yards (1,772) and consecutive games with a reception (tied own record with 13). He landed on numerous All-American lists and was a Biletnikoff Award semi-finalist.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- As a freshman at Baylor, Wright played on the basketball team. He appeared in 13 games as a reserve guard and scored 10 points.
- Wright was a three-sport star at Pittsburg (Texas) High School, where he earned All-State honors in football, basketball and track. He captured the state 3A titles in the long jump (24-0 3/4) and triple jump (48-5 1/4).
- During the 2013 offseason, Wright went back to Baylor to train for his second NFL campaign. He worked out with Dallas Cowboys receiver Terrance Williams and lost close to 15 pounds.
- In his spare time, Wright enjoys playing basketball, bass fishing, video games and watching comedy movies.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

TITANS FAIL TO FINISH IN SEASON-OPENING LOSS TO VIKINGS

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE SEPTEMBER 12, 2016

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — A year ago, the Titans began the season with a dandy.

On Sunday, they produced a dud.

A nice start faded into a disappointing finish as the Titans lost 25-16 to the Vikings at Nissan Stadium. It ended a streak of three consecutive wins on the NFL's Kickoff Weekend.

"Turnovers, self-inflicted wounds," tight end Delanie Walker said afterward. "That's why we're sitting here talking about how this one got away. But we have each other's back. This is not the way we wanted to start this year, but it's only one game. We'll overcome this."

The Titans dominated early, but mistakes and turnovers doomed them in the second half as the Vikings took control of the contest, spoiling the team's season opener.

The Titans looked good early while surging to a 10-0 lead at halftime.

After 28-yard field goal by kicker Ryan Succop made it 3-0, running back DeMarco Murray provided a big highlight – and a big touchdown – late in the first half when he scored on a six-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Marcus Mariota.

With the Titans facing a secondand-goal, Murray caught a ball in the flat, turned upfield and headed toward the end zone. Vikings defensive back Terence Newman was there waiting for him, but Murray hurdled him and landed in the end zone for a touchdown, making it 10-0.

Murray was swarmed by teammates on the field and on the sideline, as the Nissan Stadium crowd went wild. When Vikings kicker Blair Walsh misfired on a 56-yard field goal on the final play of the half, the Titans were feeling great.

Coach Mike Mularkey delivered this message at the half: "Finish, finish this game. That's one thing we failed to do last year."

But things changed in the second half as the Vikings scored 25 consecutive points, thanks to some costly turnovers by the Titans.

After a pair of field goals from Walsh, disaster struck for the Titans – twice.

Facing pressure, Mariota was intercepted by Vikings linebacker Eric Kendricks, who returned it 77 yards for a touchdown.

After a 45-yard field goal by Walsh gave the Vikings a 15-10 lead, Mariota and Murray botched an exchange, and Vikings defensive lineman Danielle Hunter picked the ball up and raced 24 yards into the end zone to make it 22-10. A 30-yard field goal by Walsh with 2:36 left made it 25-10.

Mularkey called the turnovers "catastrophic."

"It's frustrating," Mariota said. "It is something we can learn from. We really just kind of beat ourselves today. We were moving the ball efficiently, and we ended up giving them 14 points and we just can't do that."

A four-yard touchdown pass from Mariota to Murray with 28 seconds left made it 25-16.

Mariota completed 25-of-41 passes for 271 yards and two touchdowns in the contest, with an interception. His favorite target was rookie receiver Tajae Sharpe, who hauled in seven passes for 76 yards.

Murray ran for 42 yards on 13 carries, while rookie Derrick Henry had just five carries for three yards. Both players turned in big plays catching the football. Before Murray's highlight-reel dive into the end zone, Henry caught a 29yard pass on an earlier drive.

The Titans shut down Vikings running back Adrian Peterson, who managed just 31 yards on 19 carries. But quarterback Shaun Hill was efficient, completing 18-of-33 passes for 236 yards.

Mularkey said he was happy with the performance of his defense, which didn't give up a touchdown.

"Our defense gave us a chance," Mularkey said.

On this day, however, it wasn't good enough.

"Definitely frustrating," Titans linebacker Brian Orakpo said. "Definitely not what we expected. We had high expectations of coming into this locker room with a victory. But it's the NFL. Crazy stuff happens. That's what this NFL is all about. There is a lot of adversity that you have to face throughout the game. It's back-and-forth, and back-and-forth. And when they had a turnover, we just couldn't catch up. We have to learn from it and get ready for Detroit."

TITANS RALLY TO BEAT LIONS, 16-15

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE SEPTEMBER 19, 2016

DETROIT, Mich. — The Titans sputtered early in the Motor City, but got revved up just in time.

The result was a head-spinning, 16-15 win over the Detroit Lions.

"I just think we learned some lessons about ourselves today," Titans coach Mike Mularkey said. "I think we know who we are and what we are capable of doing. ... (The players) came back, and finished the game. I was really proud of the grit this team showed."

Quarterback Marcus Mariota connected with receiver Andre Johnson on a nine-yard touchdown pass to give the Titans the lead with 1:13 left.

When Detroit got the ball back, cornerback Perrish Cox intercepted Lions quarterback Matthew Stafford with 22 seconds remaining to end it.

It capped a gutsy comeback for the Titans, who trailed 15-3 after three quarters. The Titans celebrated in the locker room afterward at Ford Field. Jon Robinson was awarded a game ball for his first win as general manager, and Mularkey also received one for his first win as the team's permanent head coach.

"This is what we are all about this year -- knowing how to finish games," said linebacker Brian Orakpo, who had two sacks. "This is just one step closer to many more to come hopefully."

Trailing 15-3, Mariota connected with tight end Delanie Walker for a 30-yard touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter to make it 15-10.

The two teams exchanged possessions until the Titans got the ball with 7:04 remaining.

Then came the 13-play, 83-yard drive for the Titans. The gamewinning pass came on a 4th and 4. Johnson caught the ball in between two defenders. The Titans converted two third downs earlier on the drive.

"He made a great play," Mariota said of Johnson. "I just tried to give him a chance, and he made a huge play."

The Titans improved to 1-1 with the win.

Things weren't pretty early, as the Titans trailed 12-3 at the half.

Running back DeMarco Murray was tackled in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter, and the Lions made it 9-0 when Stafford connected with receiver Anquan Boldin for a 24-yard touchdown.

A 46-yard field goal by Succop made it 9-3, but the Lions added a field goal by Matt Prater to make it 12-3 at the half, which ended with the first career sack by rookie linebacker Kevin Dodd.

The Lions stretched their lead to 15-3 on another Prater field goal with 1:40 left in the third quarter.

But the Titans rallied to win it.

Mariota finished the game 25-of-33 for 238 yards and two touchdowns. Murray carried the ball 12 times for 89 yards, and also caught seven passes for 56 yards.

Murray and other members of the offensive unit applauded the effort of the defense for keeping the team in it. In two games, the Titans defense has allowed just one touchdown.

The Titans sacked Stafford four times in the game, and held the Lions to just three points in the second half. In their season opener last week, the Lions won 39-35 over the Colts.

Titans tackle Taylor Lewan said the win provided a big positive, but he said the team needs to make sure it serves as a building block. The Titans face the Raiders next Sunday at Nissan Stadium.

"Last year, we won (the season opener) and everyone overreacted," Lewan said. "The past two years we haven't won two games in a row and we need to break that streak.

"I don't think we have arrived until we've won the Super Bowl. So I don't want anybody to overreact to this. The team played together and we won, and it was awesome to get a win. But we have to now find a way to win two games in a row."

TITANS COME UP SHORT IN COMEBACK ATTEMPT, LOSE 17-10 TO RAIDERS.

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE SEPTEMBER 26, 2016

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The Titans provided more drama, more defense, and another last-minute drive on Sunday against the Oakland Raiders.

They weren't able to provide a win, however, and it felt like a punch in the gut.

"It's tough to take," linebacker Brian Orakpo said after the team's 17-10 loss to the Raiders. "We were resilient, we fought all the way until the end, and we had some things go against us at the end. It hurts to lose this one. No one is happy about it.

"But I'm telling you, we have the arrow pointing up in the right direction. It's a whole different brand of football that's being presented out here at Nissan Stadium. This loss hurts, but I'm still optimistic. We're still optimistic. We're going to win ball games."

The Titans fell behind 17-3, but nearly rallied to tie it late.

A fourth-down pass from quarterback Marcus Mariota to receiver Harry Douglas fell incomplete in the end zone with 12 seconds left.

Moments earlier, the Titans had a touchdown negated because of an offensive pass interference call against receiver Andre Johnson. The Titans made it all the way to the three-yard line at one point, but an unnecessary roughness penalty on tackle Taylor Lewan backed them up.

"We had a chance to win a game, all the way to the last play we had a chance to win the game and not play the best of football consistently," coach Mike Mularkey said. "We made some plays. Again, there's a lot we can learn from these games, there's a lot of good things happening with our team. But this is a fine line in this business, if we make some mistakes, it'll make it hard to win."

Running back DeMarco Murray finished the game with 114 yards on 16 carries, along with a touchdown. He became the team's first 100-yard rusher since Chris Johnson did it in the final game of the 2013 season.

Quarterback Marcus Mariota was 17-of-33 for 214 yards in the contest, with two interceptions, and a fumble.

The Titans kept the Raiders, ranked No.1 in the NFL in total offense entering the game, off the scoreboard in the second half. Mariota kicked himself for his mistakes.

"I thought (our defense) played great," Mariota said. "They gave us an opportunity to win the game. We have to play better on the offensive side of the ball so we can kind of match what they are doing on defense."

After jumping out to a 3-0 lead early on a 34-yard field goal by kicker Ryan Succop, the Raiders scored 17 straight points to take control of the game in the first half.

The Raiders scored a touchdown on their opening possession on a 22-yard run by Latavius Murray to make it 7-3, and following a Mariota fumble, they made it 10-3 on a 52-yard field goal by kicker Sebastian Janikowski.

The Raiders stretched the lead to 17-3 just before halftime on a 19-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Derek Carr to Seth Roberts.

A five-yard touchdown run by Murray cut Oakland's lead to 17-10 with 5:51 remaining in the third quarter.

The two teams played a scoreless fourth quarter.

The Titans, who played without tight end Delanie Walker and receiver Kendall Wright, took over at their own 20-yard line with 1:51 remaining, with a chance to tie it. An eight-play, 68-yard drive put them in great position. But this time, unlike their come-from-behind win at Detroit last week, they weren't able to finish.

The Titans (1-2) travel to Houston next Sunday to face the Texans.

"We can't blame the refs," Titans linebacker Avery Williamson said. "I thought we were about to have another fourth-quarter victory, but we just couldn't get things to go our way.

"We have to bounce back and be ready to get a win next week."

TITANS CAN'T COMPLETE COMEBACK; FALL 27-20 TO TEXANS

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE OCTOBER 3, 2016

HOUSTON — The Titans missed out on a golden opportunity here on Sunday.

As a result, they're going to have to dig themselves out of an early hole in the AFC South.

"We just have to keep fighting," Titans running back DeMarco Murray said after the team's 27-20 loss to the Houston Texans. "It's no time to panic. We know what we are doing wrong, and we have to consistently do the right thing. But nobody is pouting, and no one is going to cave in. We just have to do better.

"There is no doubt we have the right group of guys, the right coaching staff. We just have to make the plays. The players on the field have to make the plays. It's up to us."

After falling behind at the start, the Titans weren't able to close the deal after rallying to tie the game in the second half.

The Titans, Colts and Jaguars are now all 1-3, behind the first-place Texans, who improved to 3-1.

"The good news is we are capable of winning these games, we are just finding ways to lose them with just a handful of plays," coach Mike Mularkey said. "I'm talking just a handful. With three or more plays a game we'd be in a different spot than we are.

"I liked a lot of things this team did, coming back. This football team has a lot of heart. This is a good football team that's not making enough plays to get over the hump, but we're close."

The Titans aren't there yet, however.

In back-to-back weeks, the Titans have fallen behind and put themselves in a position that's proven to be too much to overcome.

The Titans fell down 14-0, and 17-3 early as the Texans scored on their first three possessions.

Texans quarterback Brock Osweiler threw touchdown passes to C.J. Fiedorowicz (14 yards) and Will Fuller (five yards), and after Titans kicker Ryan Succop's 48-yard field goal, Texans kicker Nick Novak connected from 53 yards to make it 17-3 early in the second quarter.

"The slow start got us," cornerback Perrish Coxsaid. "You can't get down 14-0 from the jump."

But the Titans battled back.

A two-yard touchdown run by Murray capped a five-play, 78-yard drive with 11:21 remaining in the first half. The highlight of the drive was a 60-yard pass from quarterback Marcus Mariota to receiver Rishard Matthews.

Later in the second quarter, Murray scored again, this time on a one-yard run. It capped off a nine-play, 39-yard drive that was set up by a Jason McCourtyinterception.

The Texans took a 20-17 lead into halftime on a 45-yard kick by Novak.

At the start of the second half, the Titans put together a 13-play, 59-yard drive to start the third quarter, and tied the game at 20-20 on a 26-yard field goal by Succop.

But the Texans turned in a big play at the end of the third quarter when Fuller returned a punt 67 yards for a touchdown, which made it 27-20.

After a fourth-and-1 stop, the Titans had a chance to tie it late, but a drive stalled at the Houston 28-yard line as Mariota was unable to connect with receiver Andre Johnson.

Mariota finished the day 12-of-28 for 192 yards, and an interception.

Murray finished with 95 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries.

The Titans travel to Miami next Sunday to face the Dolphins.

"We are close, and we have to continue to believe that," Mariota said. "It's a process, and we need to believe in each other, stay together and just go back to work.

"The mindset does not change. We just have to continue to work, correct our mistakes and get ready for Miami."

TITANS DOMINATE DOLPHINS IN 30-17 WIN

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE OCTOBER 10, 2016

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. – Marcus Mariota cruised, the running game bruised, and the Titans defense abused the Miami Dolphins here on Sunday.

The team's most complete effort of the season added up to a 30-17 win at Hard Rock Stadium.

"It was a good win, a good win on the road," Titans coach Mike Mularkey said. "I'm very happy for these guys and I'm very proud of these guys. I thought we played better and I thought we played more complimentary football as a team. ... For the most part guys stuck together and really executed the schemes. I'm really, really proud of them."

Mariota was sharp. He completed 20-of-29 passes for 163 yards and three touchdowns in the game, and also ran for a touchdown. His passer rating was 117.5.

Running back DeMarco Murray was a workhorse. He ran for 121 yards on 27 carries, and was part of a rushing attack that produced 235 yards on the ground. Derrick Henry added 54 yards on seven carries, and Mariota ran for 60 himself.

Most importantly, the Titans improved to 2-3 with the win. They outgained the Dolphins 398 to 200 in total yardage in the contest, and had 23 first downs compared to eight for Miami. They held the ball 36:44 of the game's 60 minutes.

"I thought our offensive line did a great job with the blocking, and the tight ends did a hell of a job with their blocking," Murray said. "It takes all 11 guys and the coaching staff to put together a great game plan. We were able to run the ball. ... We just have to build on this."

The Titans were also a force on defense.

The Titans sacked Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill six times in the contest. The team entered the contest with six sacks through four games. The Titans also picked off Tannehill twice, getting interceptions from cornerbacks Jason McCourty and safety Daimion Stafford.

"It was a good day defensively," said linebacker Derrick Morgan, who had two of the sacks. "Just to be able to get out there and play loose, play with a lead, it was good. It was a whole team effort. We had great coverage, and the quarterback was holding the ball. When he holds the ball like that, we are able to get back there.

"We showed what we are capable of, but we have to build on this and keep it going. It's just one game. We have to win back-to-back, and we are 2-3, below .500. We are headed in the right direction, but we have to build on this as a team."

The Titans dominated play throughout, and they got out of the gate early.

Mariota's 5-yard touchdown run gave the Titans a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. At the end of a 61-yard drive, Mariota took the snap and sprinted into the corner of the end zone.

The Dolphins tied the game early in the second quarter, however, on a 74-yard punt return by Jakeem Grant, which was made possible by some sloppy tackling from the Titans.

But the Titans answered back. A 12-play, 76-yard drive was capped off this time with a five-yard touchdown pass from Mariota to receiver Andre Johnson, which made it 14-7. The Dolphins tied it up later in the quarter, however, on a four-yard touchdown run by Jay Ajayi.

The Titans responded once again, however. After getting the ball back on their own 25-yard line at the 2-minute warning, the Titans went 75 yards on just six plays, and scored on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Mariota to tight end Delanie Walker with 47 seconds left before halftime. Mariota went 5-of-5 on the drive, with a 21-yard run.

"From prior games, you have seen we don't put our heads down when the other teams make plays," Walker said. "We are always going to fight back. ... The score at the end of the half was big. We need to answer and we did."

The Titans and Dolphins swapped field goals early in the third quarter. Ryan Succop's 40-yard kick for the Titans was set up by McCourty's interception.

A four-yard touchdown pass from Mariota to receiver Rishard Matthews capped off a nine-play, 66-yard drive and made it 30-17 midway through the fourth quarter.

The Titans got pressure throughout on Tannehill, as defensive lineman Jurrell Casey, linebacker Brian Orakpo and Morgan all recorded two sacks each.

The Titans face the Browns next Sunday at Nissan Stadium, the start of a three-game homestand.

"For us, it is one day at a time," Mariota said. "We can't look too far in the future. We have things to correct, so we have to continue to get better. It is nice we'll be home for a few weeks now. Hopefully this will build into some momentum."

TITANS GAIN MORE CONFIDENCE IN 28-26 WIN OVER BROWNS

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE OCTOBER 17, 2016

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The Titans found a way to win their second game in a row on Sunday.

In the process, they perhaps also found out a lot more about themselves.

"I'm not so sure in the last couple of years (the team) could win that game," Titans coach Mike Mularkey said after the 28-26 win over the Cleveland Browns. "This year, we found a way to win the game. Obviously we didn't want to make it that close, but we did a lot of good things.

"We're on the right track. We still have things to improve on obviously, but we're on the right track."

Yes, make it two in a row for the Titans.

Sunday's win at Nissan Stadium gave the Titans back-to-back wins for the first time since the end of the 2013 season.

With the win, the Titans improved to 3-3, matching their win total from a year ago.

In the locker room after the contest, players talked about progress and momentum, instead of how they'd let another one slip away. The Titans won just two games in 2014, and just three games a year ago.

Six games into the 2016 season, they're in the conversation in the AFC South. Quarterback Marcus Mariota said after the contest winning the division was the team's goal heading into the year, and nothing has changed.

"You can see how we are still learning, and still trying to create an identity and win ball games in the end," Titans linebacker Brian Orakpo said. "We got it done this time. We have some stuff to correct. But overall, great effort. We didn't quit and kept fighting.

"We are digging deep and finding ways to win. ... It was definitely unheard of from past Titans teams, but we kept fighting."

Mariota completed 17-of-24 passes for 284 yards and three touchdowns in the contest, with a passer rating of 132.6. Mariota has seven touchdowns in the past two weeks.

Receiver Kendall Wright had eight catches for 133 yards in the contest, with a touchdown.

The Titans racked up six more sacks on Sunday, giving the defense 12 in the past two weeks. Linebackers Brian Orakpo, Derrick Morgan, Wesley Woodyard, Avery Williamson and Sean Spence all had sacks, along with defensive lineman Jurrell Casey.

The last time the Titans posted 6 sacks in back-to-back games was 2010, against Denver and Dallas.

"We are just trying to stay in the right direction here, in order to help this team win," Casey said. "We wanted to put as much pressure on them as possible. I wish we could have finished stronger, but the important thing is we won."

The Titans jumped out to a lead in this one, and then had to hold on to win it at the end.

The Titans took a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Mariota to receiver Rishard Matthews. It capped a seven-play, 75-yard drive, and it gave the team its first opening possession touchdown of the season.

The Browns cut the deficit to 7-6 with a pair of field goals from kicker Cody Parkey, from 37 and 45 yards, before the Titans answered back with a big play from Wright, who turned in the play of the day early in the second quarter.

After getting behind the Cleveland defense, Wright made a diving catch on a ball from Mariota. Wright quickly got up, and managed to get into the end zone for a 48-yard touchdown catch before Browns defensive back Derrick Kindred could touch him down.

"Just (seeing) the replays at the stadium, he made a hell of a catch," Mariota said of Wright. "And that is kind of the expectation for him, to make plays like that. I was glad to see him get in the game a little bit, he had a great game and provided us another option outside."

The Browns cut the lead to 14-13 just before halftime on a seven-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Cody Kessler to receiver Terrelle Pryor.

The Titans stretched the lead to 21-13 on their opening possession of the third quarter when running back DeMarco Murray scored on a three-yard touchdown run, capping a seven-play, 70-yard drive. A 43-yard pass from Mariota to Matthews, who made a diving catch, helped set up the score.

But the Browns didn't quit. Kessler connected with Pryor for a five-yard touchdown with 2:07 left to make it 28-19. After recovering an onside kick, the Browns added another score on a one-yard touchdown run by Duke Johnson with 27 seconds left.

"My job is to make somebody quit every single Sunday," Titans tackle Taylor Lewansaid, "and those guys didn't quit."

The Titans didn't quit either.

In the end, they made the plays necessary to win the game. They'll face the Colts next Sunday at Nissan Stadium.

Titans tight end Delanie Walker said the team was energized by fans at the game. He said it created a winning atmosphere, and a true home-field advantage. He's glad the team was able to reward them with a win.

"This was probably the best game we had with our Tennessee fans – they did a great job today," Walker said. "That's what we need. I was stoked when I heard the crowd going nuts.

"I think the fans see what we see. It's coming. The storm is coming. And today, the fans were the thunder in that storm."

TITANS FRUSTRATED AFTER ANOTHER TOUGH LOSS TO COLTS

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE OCTOBER 24, 2016

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The roar was back at Nissan Stadium, and late in the fourth quarter on Sunday, it looked like the Titans would finally take a bite out of Indianapolis Colts.

Only it didn't happen.

The result – a 34-26 loss to the Colts – was especially tough to take for a team still searching for ways to get over the hump against their AFC South rivals.

"I'm upset," Titans defensive lineman Jurrell Casey said. "Really at a loss for words right now. That makes 10 in a row to lose to the Colts, and me personally, I've been losing to (Andrew Luck) since college. It hurts me deeply. I've just got to find a way, and my team just has to find ways to win these close games.

"We are very disappointed in ourselves."

It's true. The Titans have now lost 10 straight games to the Colts, and Sunday's game was a painful one.

The Titans had a chance to take a big step in the AFC South, and move ahead of the Colts. The two teams are now tied at 3-4 in the division, behind the Texans (4-2).

"We let this one get away from us," Titans tight end Delanie Walker said. "We had it, and I think everyone feels the same way right now. We feel like we let this one go. ... They keep finding a way to beat us, and that has to stop."

After battling back from an early deficit, the Titans went ahead 23-20 with just 6:02 remaining on a 48-yard field goal by kicker Ryan Succop.

Earlier, the Titans tied the game 20-20 on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Marcus Mariota to Walker with 12:39 remaining.

Momentum was on Tennessee's side late.

But the Colts rallied, and regained the lead 27-23 on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Luck to tight end Jack Doyle, which capped off a 12-play, 70-yard drive with 1:55 left.

When the Titans got the ball back, Mariota had the ball knocked out of his hand by Colts defensive lineman T.Y. McGill, and Colts defensive lineman Robert Mathis picked it up and ran it back 14 yards for a touchdown to make it 34-23. The Titans added a late field goal to account for the final margin.

Coach Mike Mularkey said the Titans made things difficult on themselves with early mistakes. A botched extra point and the failure to recover an onside kick were among the gaffes.

"Those are things that help you win close games and we are going to be in a lot of close games like this," Mularkey said. "Those are things we have to do a better job of making plays and we have done that. We have won some close games. We have to do it over and over, more consistently."

Mariota finished the day 22-of-36 for 232 yards and two touchdowns, and a 95.8 rating.

Running back DeMarco Murray racked up 107 yards on 25 carries in the contest. It was his third 100-yard game of the season.

But Titans had their two-game winning streak snapped because they weren't consistent enough on offense, and because the defense couldn't get stops when needed in crunch time.

Time and again Luck converted big third downs. He finished the game 27-of-39 for 353 yards and three touchdowns.

"I have all the respect in the world for Luck," said Titans linebacker Derrick Morgan. "He is one of the best competitors I've ever played against. But we didn't play our brand of defense today. And we didn't make plays when we needed to."

The Titans jumped out to a 6-0 lead early, thanks to touchdown on their opening drive for the second week in a row. The Titans scored in a way not many expected – on a 10-yard touchdown pass from Mariota to left tackle Taylor Lewan. But the Titans failed on the extra point attempt because of a mishandled snap.

The Colts responded quickly. Luck connected with running back Frank Gore for three-yard touchdown pass, and then found receiver T.Y. Hilton open for a 37-yard touchdown pass. After a 28-yard field goal by kicker Adam Vinatieri, it was 17-6 Colts.

The Titans got a big scoring drive at the end of the first half, one that was capped off by a one-yard touchdown run by Murray, making it 17-13 at the half.

The Colts stretched their lead to 20-13 on a 33-yard kick by Vinatieri, who broke an NFL record with the kick. It was Vinatieri's 43rd consecutive made field goal.

Then the Titans rallied, only to see things unravel in the end.

The Titans will face the Jaguars on Thursday night at Nissan Stadium.

"I think with what happened today, guys are hungry to get back on the field," Mariota said. "It's an opportunity to get back on track and get rolling again."

TITANS BEAT JAGUARS WITH IMPRESSIVE ALL-AROUND PERFORMANCE

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE OCTOBER 28, 2016

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — What a Rush.

The Titans turned in a dominating performance on Thursday night, beating the Jaguars 36-22 in an impressive all-around effort at Nissan Stadium. Decked out on their light blue Color Rush uniforms, the Titans turned the Jaguars black and blue before a national television audience.

And they gained more confidence in the process.

"I think it speaks loudly," Titans tight end Delanie Walker said. "I think everyone saw how we felt coming in at halftime, and how we felt coming in after the game. I know they are not blind.

"I think they understand this is the way we need to play every week. ... Guys like this feeling."

The Titans were feeling it on Thursday night.

Quarterback Marcus Mariota was sharp. He completed 18-of-22 passes for 270 yards and two touchdowns, with a passer rating of 148.1, before being relieved by back-up Matt Cassel late in the contest. Mariota has 10 touchdown passes vs. one interception in the last four games.

Running back DeMarco Murray ran with authority, and finished the game with 123 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries. It was Murray's fourth 100-yard effort in the past six games. Running back Derrick Henry also contributed to the attack, with 60 rushing yards and his first career NFL touchdown.

The Titans ran for 214 yards against the Jaguars, and it sparked four scoring drives in the second quarter alone.

"It is hard to run the ball in this league, and it is definitely hard to run for 200 yards," Murray said. "... We have a good team, and we all believe in that and we have all said that all along. Just to see the three phases play collectively well throughout the night, obviously it wasn't perfect.

"But to have that game, it was huge for us going forward."

Yes, most important for the Titans is the fact the team improved to 4-4 with the win, and matched Houston (4-3) for the most wins in the AFC South in the process.

At the season's midway point, the Titans eclipsed their win total (3) from last season. After starting the season 1-3, the Titans have won 3 of their last 4 games.

"I'm proud of our guys, very proud," Titans coach Mike Mularkey said. "I'm proud of the way they do things. We wanted to win this quarter, that was important, and we had a home stint. We let one get away (against Indianapolis) and it was important to come back.

"There's a pack here right now at this stage of the year with a lot of teams around us ... and we're going to try and stay in it and come out of this pack at some point. We need to stay in it and we did that tonight."

The Titans jumped out early.

The Titans took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 32-yard field goal from kicker Ryan Succop, then they really got rolling.

It became 10-0 when Mariota connected with receiver Kendall Wright on a 36-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter.

Less than five minutes later, the Titans made it 17-0 on a six-yard touchdown run by Henry. Henry's first career touchdown capped an 8-play, 69-yard drive.

"It felt good," Henry said. "It's something I'll remember for the rest of my life."

But the Titans weren't done yet. On this night, there would be plenty more to celebrate.

A 14-yard touchdown run by Murray made it 24-0. Then, on the final play of the first half, Succop made a 22-yard field goal to stretch the lead to 27-0 at the half.

The Titans outgained the Jaguars 354 to 60 yards in the first half.

The Titans played suffocating defense in the first half, and held the Jaguars in check until the end, when Jacksonville added some late scores when the game was out of reach. Linebackers Derrick Morgan and Avery Williamson had sacks for the Titans.

The Jaguars did finally break through and score on their opening possession of the second half, driving 75 yards on 11 plays and scoring on a 10-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Blake Bortles to tight end Julius Thomas. The ensuing two-point conversion made it 27-8.

But the Titans quickly answered back. A 47-yard pass from Mariota to Walker put the Titans deep in Jacksonville territory, and moments later Mariota connected with receiver Rishard Matthews on a four-yard touchdown pass to make it 33-8. The Jaguars added two late scores when Bortles connected with Allen Hurns for a five-yard touchdown and then Bryan Walters for a seven-yard score.

The Titans have scored 26-plus points in four straight games for the first time since 2003.

They'll return to action on November 6 against the Chargers, in San Diego.

"We let some games get away from us (earlier this year) but that's kind of typical of an NFL season," Mariota said. "To stand here and be 4-4, to be in the thick of it with our division is really important. That's all we can really ask for now and just take it one game at a time.

"I don't think the mentality changes. We just want to continue to win and continue to get better every single day. Eventually, hopefully, we will pick up our heads when the season's done and like where we're at."

TITANS HURT THEMSELVES WITH TURNOVERS IN LOSS TO CHARGERS

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE NOVEMBER 7, 2016

SAN DIEGO — The Titans lost a shootout here on Sunday to the Chargers.

Unfortunately, they ended up shooting themselves in the foot a few too many times along the way as well. It was costly in a 43-35 loss at Oualcomm Stadium.

"It's so disappointing," Titans tackle Taylor Lewan said. "We let that one slip out, and it is so frustrating. It really (ticks) me off. But we are going to get back to the drawing board. ... We have to get back to .500 and keep fighting. We have to get back on the train."

Quarterback Marcus Mariota had some special moments in front of a crowd packed with his supporters from Hawaii, Oregon and California, completing 27-of-43 passes for 313 yards and three touchdowns for the Titans. But Mariota also threw two interceptions, and lost a fumble. Two of those turnovers were returned for San Diego defensive touchdowns.

"I can't let those things happen," Mariota said.

On defense, the Titans had all kinds of trouble stopping Chargers running back Melvin Gordon, who ran for 196 yards and a touchdown on 32 carries. Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers completed 24-of-33 passes for 275 yards and two touchdowns in the contest.

Coupled with the turnovers, it was all just too much to overcome.

The Titans dropped to 4-5 with the loss.

"Gordon is very good, but we did a lot of things where we didn't fit right, and we didn't tackle well, so we made him that much more special," Titans linebacker Brian Orakpo said. "And that is uncharacteristic for us. "We have to learn from this. We can't dwell on this. We definitely had a poor performance today in a lot of areas, so we have to get better from this."

The Titans were slow out of the starting gate.

The Chargers jumped out to a 16-0 lead early, scoring first on a 13-yard touchdown pass from Rivers to tight end Antonio Gates.

After a 32-yard field goal by Josh Lambo made it 9-0, the Chargers scored again on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rivers to receiver Tyrell Williams.

The Titans cut the lead to 16-7 in the second quarter on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Mariota to receiver Rishard Matthews, who fought off a defender to make the catch.

After the Chargers extended the lead to 19-7 on a 23-yard field goal by Lambo, the Titans then closed the half with a bang.

After taking over at their own 25-yard line with 1:32 remaining before the half, the Titans drove the ball down the field in seven plays. Mariota connected with Matthews once again for a score, this time from seven yards, to cut the lead to 19-14 with just 14 seconds left before the half. A 29-yard completion from Mariota to rookie receiver Tajae Sharpe set up the score.

The Titans then took the lead 21-19 on their first possession of the second half on a 14-yard touchdown run by Mariota, which capped off a nineplay, 75-yard drive.

"This team has a lot heart, to come back," Titans coach Mike Mularkey said. "Everybody else thought it was doom and gloom, and this team did not think that."

The Chargers responded with a scoring drive of their own, however, and reclaimed the lead 26-21 on a one-yard run by Gordon.

Disaster struck on Tennessee's next drive, as Mariota lost the handle while running to his right on an option play. Chargers safety Dwight Lowery picked up the loose football and ran it back 43 yards for a touchdown, making it 33-21 Chargers with 2:31 left in the third quarter.

The Titans didn't fold. Mariota directed the Titans on a seven-play, 80-yard drive, and capped it off with an eight-yard touchdown pass to tight end Delanie Walker. A 48-yard completion from Mariota to receiver Kendall Wrightput the Titans within striking distance.

Another field goal by Lambo, this one from 36 yards out with 6:05 left, made it 36-28.

When the Titans got the ball back, Mariota was intercepted by Chargers cornerback Brandon Flowers, who returned it 33 yards for a touchdown to make it 43-28. Wright took the blame for that one after the game.

"I have to come downhill more when the ball is in the air," Wright said. "I just have to fix it and make sure I don't do it again."

A one-yard touchdown run by DeMarco Murray made it 43-35 with 2:45 remaining, but the Titans never got the ball back.

The Titans face the Packers next Sunday at Nissan Stadium.

"I am going to give them credit," Mularkey said of the Chargers. "They came right out and scored on their first three possessions and ran the ball very effectively. Every time we came back and thought we had a chance they came right back, too, so that is a credit to their guys.

"But you can't turn the ball over, and you certainly can't turn the ball over for scores. That makes it next to impossible to win in this league. Losing is deflating, but the way you lose is frustrating."

TITANS TURN IN DOMINATING PERFORMANCE IN WIN OVER PACKERS

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE NOVEMBER 14, 2016

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The Titans wanted to make a statement on Sunday against the Green Bay Packers.

Mission accomplished.

The Titans came out swinging on Sunday, and they never stopped.

The end result was a dominating 47-25 win over the Packers. The point total was the highest in a game since the 2009 season. The Titans have now scored 35-plus points in three straight regular season games for the first time in franchise history.

"We were going to leave it all on the field," tight end Delanie Walker said. "We said we needed to make a statement, and this was a game to make a statement in and I think we did that. We felt like we controlled the game."

Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota connected on 19-of-26 passes for 295 yards and four touchdowns, with a passer rating of 149.8. He now has 17 touchdown vs. only three interceptions in the last six games.

In the past six games, Mariota has 17 touchdowns vs. only three interceptions. Mariota has at least two touchdown passes in six consecutive games, and he's already surpassed his rookie total for touchdown passes on the season with 21. Mariota became the first Titans quarterback since Steve McNair in 2003 to thrown for 20 touchdowns in a season. McNair threw for 24 touchdowns that season.

"It is a huge stepping stone," Mariota said of the win. "It is getting us in the right direction. There's still a lot of season left, a lot of things we have to go and accomplish. But hopefully we can use this as momentum for the rest of the year."

Running back DeMarco Murray ran for 123 yards on 17 carries, including a 75-yard touchdown run the team's first offensive play.

The Titans improved to 5-5 with the win, and in the process matched their win total for the previous two seasons combined.

"There was a lot of energy on the sideline," Titans coach Mike Mularkey said. "They wanted it bad and you could see it on the sideline. The body language and just the offense pulling for the defense, being up there when they were coming off the field, it's great. These guys pull for each other more than you know, and it was fun to watch that today."

Murray busted through a hole on the left side of the line and raced untouched on his 75-yard touchdown run.

On the team's next series, the Titans scored again, this time with some trickery, when Murray threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Walker, which made it 14-0. Murray became the first non-QB with a 75-plus yard touchdown run and a touchdown pass in a single game since Hall of Famer John Henry.

The Titans jumped out to a 21-0 lead when Mariota connected with tight end Anthony Fasano for a nine-yard touchdown pass.

The quick start sent Nissan Stadium into a frenzy, as fans chanted "Go Titans Go!" time and again early. It continued.

The Packers got on the scoreboard in the second quarter when quarterback Aaron Rodgers connected with receiver Jordy Nelson for a one-yard touchdown pass, making it 21-7.

But the Titans had a quick answer. A 35-yard pass from Mariota to Murray moved the ball across midfield, and then Mariota connected with receiver Rishard Matthews for a 32-yard touchdown catch to make it 28-7. The touchdown was the sixth for Matthews in the last six games.

The Packers got a 29-yard field goal from kicker Mason Crosby to make it 28-10 with 3:55 left before halftime.

But the Titans kept on swinging, and they were in a good chance to do so late in the first half when LeSeaun Sims recovered a fumbled punt by the Packers. Three plays later, Mariota connected with receiver Kendall Wright for a six-yard touchdown to give the Titans a 35-10 lead at the half.

The 35 points tied for the second-most first-half points in franchise history.

The Packers added another score just before halftime as Rodgers connected with James Starks for a 13-yard score to make it 35-16 at the half.

The Packers then cut the lead to 35-22 midway through the second half on a 20-yard touchdown run by Rodgers.

And back came the Titans. Mariota connected with receiver Tajae Sharpe for a 33-yard touchdown pass to give the Titans a 41-22 lead with 6:27 left in the third quarter. Another field goal from Crosby late in the third quarter made it 41-25 Titans.

The Titans took away any suspense with a pair of field goal from kicker Ryan Succop, from 51 and 23 yards out.

The Titans travel to Indianapolis next Sunday to face the Colts.

"You all have been seeing this since day one -- this is a different Titans team," linebacker Brian Orakpo said. "This is not the typical team where you play so good for a half or three quarters, and they just fold in the fourth. We are going to be in it for the whole entire game. If it's positive or negative, we are going to be in it. And today we had a lot of positives. So definitely a great game to be a part of.

"Because we get to go back to .500, and we beat a very good team in the Green Bay Packers. And they travel well ... with all the Green Bay fans I saw out there, and all those Cheeseheads. It was good that we were able to keep them level, and keep them quiet somewhat the whole game, and for us to go out there and execute."

TITANS FRUSTRATED AFTER COMEBACK EFFORT FALLS SHORT AT INDY

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE NOVEMBER 21, 2016

INDIANAPOLIS — The Titans dug themselves into a big hole on Sunday against the Colts.

A second-half rally fell short in a painful 24-17 loss here at Lucas Oil Stadium.

It left players frustrated, but not without hope with five games to go in the season.

The Titans, however, will now also have to dig themselves out of a hole in the AFC South as well.

"It is very frustrating, especially for a guy like me who has been playing against the Colts the last six years," Titans defensive lineman Jurrell Casey said. "It (stinks), and it hurts deeply inside. It is time to get over the hump and beat them."

But it didn't happen on Sunday.

"It drives me crazy losing any game," Titans cornerback Jason McCourty said. "You want to win every time you step foot on the field and obviously we haven't been able to (against the Colts) and we want to do so. Part of beating them is getting to our ultimate goal, so it is deflating and disappointing.

"You just have to move on and get ready for the next one."

Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota completed 25-of-38 passes for 290 yards and two touchdowns in the contest. Running back DeMarco Murray ran for 70 yards, giving him exactly 1,000 yards for the season. Receiver Rishard Matthews caught nine passes for 122 yards, and linebacker Derrick Morgan's 1.5 sacks gave him a career-high with eight.

But the only numbers that mattered in the end were on the scoreboard.

The Titans (5-6) have now lost 11 straight games to their AFC South rival. The Colts, meanwhile, improved to 5-5 with the win.

The Colts jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on a one-yard touchdown run by running back Robert Turbin.

The Colts then extended the lead to 14-0 when quarterback Andrew Luck connected with receiver Donte Moncrief for a two-yard touchdown.

It got worse before it got better. The Colts scored again on their next possession, in the most agonizing way for the Titans.

On a fourth-and-1 from the twoyard line, Luck threw the ball to receiver T.Y. Hilton in the end zone, and Titans cornerback Perrish Cox was right there. The ball managed to slip through Cox's hands, however, and ended up in Hilton's arms, making it 21-0.

"You have to be able to make those plays," Cox said, "and unfortunately I wasn't able to make it."

The Titans finally got on the scoreboard just before halftime when Mariota connected with Murray for a three-yard touchdown pass.

On the third down play, Mariota side-stepped pressure from defensive tackle Hassan Ridgeway before finding Murray in the end zone, which made it 21-7 at the half.

The Titans kept fighting, and they got back in it. After taking over at their own two-yard line, Mariota drove the team 98 yards on nine plays, capping the drive off with a 34-yard touchdown pass to rookie Tajae Sharpe. It was the second touchdown in as many weeks for Sharpe, and it made the score 21-14.

The Titans cut the lead to 21-17 early in the fourth quarter on a 47-yard field goal by kicker Ryan Succop. But the Colts responded with a scoring drive that produced a 49-yard field goal from kicker Adam Vinatieri to make it 24-17 with 10:50 left.

The Titans were driving to try and tie the game late, but Murray was stopped on a fourth down play from the Indy 19-yard line with just over two minutes remaining, and the Colts ran out the clock.

"On fourth-and-1, and that's your identity," Titans coach Mike Mularkey said, "you have to be able to make a first down on that play, somehow, some way you have to find a way to make a yard."

The Titans face the Bears next Sunday in Chicago.

After the game, players all said the team can't afford any more slow starts.

The Titans controlled the game on both sides of the football in the second half, but in the end, it wasn't enough.

"I wouldn't even call it frustrating as much as it disappointing, knowing we came out slow against Luck and their offense," Sharpe said. "Having a large deficit like we did is like being in the NBA playoffs and being down 3-1 in a seven-game series. It is tough.

"We just have to keep fighting. We are strong, and we are together as a team. A loss like this is going to make us work that much harder. This loss is past us now, and there's nothing we can do. And with the team we have, I know we will keep fighting."

TITANS HOLD ON TO BEAT BEARS, IMPROVE TO 6-6

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE NOVEMBER 28, 2016

CHICAGO — As the final second ticked off the clock here on Sunday, plenty went through the minds of the Tennessee Titans.

There was excitement, and there was relief.

"What did I think?," linebacker Derrick Morgan said with a smile. "I thought, 'Thank God.' I was thanking God for the victory, really. We have been in those positions in the past and come out on the wrong side a lot of times. To finish with a win, that's all that matters. So it felt good."

The Titans took care of business here in a 27-21 win over the Chicago Bears.

Yes, they made it more interesting than they would've liked, but the end result was positive.

"It was quite a ride," Titans coach Mike Mularkey said. "Every one of these games is like a whitewater (ride). It was quite a ride and we found a way to win. We need some of those games. I've been on the other end of a lot of those games here, and we needed one of those games to go our way."

Now, the Titans get a chance to ease back for a week before things get serious.

Then, things could get very interesting.

With Sunday's win, the Titans improved to 6-6 and moved into second place in the AFC South behind the Houston Texans, who lost to San Diego on Sunday to drop to 6-5. The Colts are 5-6.

The Titans have a bye next Sunday. They'll return to action on December 11 against the Denver Broncos at Nissan Stadium. With a quarter of the season left, the Titans are alive and in the hunt for the division title, and a playoff spot.

"The feeling is excitement," tight end Delanie Walker said. "At the end of the day, it's football. No one said it is going to always be pretty. It was a tough-fought game ... but we conquered and all I ask for is to get a W

"Now, this is the fourth quarter (of the season). Ultimately we want to win out, win all four games. That is the mindset we have. But we are going to have to be on point."

Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota led the way again on Sunday. Mariota completed 15-of-23 passes for 226 yards and two touchdowns, and helped the team jump out to a 27-7 lead in the second half.

Mariota has now thrown at least two touchdown passes in eight consecutive games. He's now the third player in franchise history with 25 touchdowns in a season, and the first since Warren Moon did it in 1990. Mariota now has 25 touchdown passes on the season vs. just eight interceptions.

"We are right in the thick of it," Mariota said of the team's mindset, and standing "Our mentality can't change. We have to continue to take it one game at a time, and find ways to improve. ... You want an opportunity this time of year to get a chance to make a run at a division title and maybe make a run at the playoffs, and that is all you can really ask for."

The Titans went on a heck of a whitewater ride here on Sunday, as Mularkey described it. After a nice start, they nearly got tossed out of the raft at the end.

The Bears jumped out to a 7-0 lead on a seven-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Matt Barkley to tight end Daniel Brown.

The Titans answered back on their next possession, however, with a seven-play, 75-yard drive that was capped off with an 11-yard touchdown run by Derrick Henry. It was Henry's second career touchdown, and he picked up a key block from Walker on his way to the end zone.

Walker got into the end zone himself on Tennessee's next drive. His fouryard touchdown catch from Mariota capped off an eight-play, 64-yard drive and gave the Titans a 14-7 lead with 9:11 left in the second quarter.

The Titans extended their lead to 21-7 late in the second quarter on a beautiful 29-yard touchdown catch by receiver Rishard Matthews, who got behind the defense and caught the ball with his body in flight.

A 19-yard field goal by kicker Ryan Succop made it 24-7 in the third quarter. Succop added a 31-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to make it 27-7 with 13:45 remaining. It looked like the Titans might cruise to a win, but things got bumpy.

After a shaky start on defense, the Titans made some plays that ultimately proved to be game-savers. One of the biggest was an interception by linebacker Wesley Woodyard at the 11-yard line, which halted a Chicago drive in the first half.

In the third quarter, safety Da'Norris Searcy picked off Barkley in the end zone on a third down play.

But the Bears still managed to make things interesting - or downright scary - late.

An eight-yard touchdown pass from Barkley to Marquess Wilson made it 27-14 with 8:23 remaining. Barkley then connected with Deonte Thompson for a six-yard touchdown pass to make it 27-21 with 3:06 left.

The Bears ended up driving the field and had in first-and-goal at the Tennessee 7-yard line in the closing moments, but they couldn't score. A fourth-down pass fell incomplete, and the Titans celebrated.

"Nothing matters right now but the fact we got the win, and we are in the position we want to be in," Titans rookie safety Kevin Byard said. "It is hard to win in this league, and in the NFL a "W" is a "W."

TITANS PICK UP EXHILARATING 13-10 WIN OVER BRONCOS

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE DECEMBER 12, 2016

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Titans linebacker Avery Williamson was initially thinking "make the tackle." Just get Broncos tight end A.J. Derby on the ground, and keep the clock running in the closing minute.

Then he felt an opportunity to get the ball out, and he did.

The Titans pounced on the loose football after Williamson forced the fumble, and then ran out the clock. It started a wild celebration following a critical win over the Denver Broncos on Sunday at Nissan Stadium.

"Oh, man, what a great feeling," Williamson said after the team's 13-10 win. "When we recovered that fumble I knew that was the end of the game. It was a surreal feeling. I probably won't sleep tonight thinking about it."

Yes, the defending Super Bowl champions came to town on Sunday, and the Titans didn't flinch.

They led from beginning to end, and sealed it when Williamson forced a fumble that safety Daimion Stafford recovered at the Denver 40-yard line with just 53 seconds left.

In the eyes of the Titans, it was no fluke.

"We didn't look at it as them being the defending champs," Titans tight end Delanie Walker said. "In the back of our minds we knew they went to the Super Bowl last year, yes. But when you step on the field that goes on the window. It is a football game, and we're across the line from one another. The most physical team is going to win. And that is basically what happened today."

The Titans improved to 7-6 with the victory, and remained in a first-place tie with the Houston Texans in the AFC South with three games left to play. The Texans beat the Colts on Sunday to keep pace. The Titans now control their own destiny.

The Titans led from the start here on Sunday, and on this day won it with their running game, and a resilient defense.

Running backs DeMarco Murray (92 yards) and Derrick Henry (42) were part of a 180-yard rushing attack for the Titans, who also got 38 rushing yards out of quarterback Marcus Mariota.

Mariota completed just 6-of-20 passes for 88 yards against the NFL's topranked pass defense.

But the Titans won it by slugging it out in the end, and getting some key stops.

"That's what you have to do in these kinds of games," Titans coach Mike Mularkey said. "You have to make plays ... in crunch time and the defense did most of the day. They've done it all year. I thought it would be a one score game, just like it ended."

Titans linebacker Brian Orakpo believes the Titans have learned how to win.

"Previous years, we fell short so many times in these situations," Orakpo said. "But this is a totally revamped Titans team from head to toe, and previous times I am not too sure we win this game.

"There is definitely a different mindset, a different culture now that we are trying to instill in everybody. The winning message is starting to come into play.... The lowly Titans, as people looked at before, they're not around here any longer. It says a lot for us to beat those guys."

After forcing a three-and-out on defense, the Titans drove the field on their opening possession and scored on a one-yard touchdown run by Murray to take a 7-0 lead. The run capped off an 11-play, 70-yard drive that included a 23-yard reception by tight end Delanie Walker on third down.

On Denver's next possession, Titans safety Rashad Johnson forced a fumble by running back Justin Forsett, and cornerback Jason McCourty jumped on the loose football.

A few plays later, Titans kicker Ryan Succop connected on a 53-yard field goal to give the Titans a 10-0 lead with 5:48 remaining in the first quarter.

The Titans made it 13-0 just before halftime with Succop hit a 41-yard field goal, which capped off an impressive 19-play, 74-yard drive that took 8:04 off the clock.

The two teams played a scoreless third quarter.

After the Titans finished off a goal-line stand on defense early in the fourth quarter, the Broncos got the ball back on a short field and made quick work with a five-play, 26-yard drive.

A three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Trevor Siemian to receiver Emmanuel Sanders made it 13-7 with 9:58 remaining.

The Titans held the Broncos out of the end zone with a big defensive stand late in the game. After Denver reached the Tennessee 7, rookie linebacker Aaron Wallacesacked Siemian on first down before safety Da'Norris Searcy and cornerback Brice McCain made nice plays in coverage to hold the Broncos, who were forced to settle for a 34-yard field goal from kicker Brandon McManus to make it 13-10 with 4:33 left Titans punter Brett Kern pinned Denver back at their own two-yard line with a late punt which was downed by receiver Tre McBride, and the Broncos were stopped when Williamson forced the fumble.

It was a beautiful sight for rookie safety Kevin Byard.

"I was on the bench at the time, me and Searcy were standing next to each other, and I was kind of in disbelief," Byard said. "The ball was out and we were kind of holding everybody back like someone kind of just got dunked on in basketball. It was probably one of the best moments of the season when you talk about the crowd, the sideline. It was amazing."

The Titans, however, know they can't celebrate long.

They travel to Kansas City next Sunday to face the Chiefs.

"We like the situation we are sitting in," Walker said, "but right now we are focusing on the Titans. We have a big game coming up in Kansas City, a cold one, against another physical team, and that is our main focus right now."

TITANS PULL OFF IMPROBABLE COMEBACK WIN OVER CHIEFS

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE DECEMBER 19, 2016

KANSAS CITY — In the coldest game in franchise history, Titans kicker Ryan Succop had ice water in his veins.

Succop nailed a 53-yard field goal on the final play of the game as the Titans rallied to beat the Chiefs, 19-17.

Players spared Titans coach Mike Mularkey a Gatorade bath in the wake of an improbable come-frombehind win, but there was no denying the importance, or hiding the emotion, after the kick sailed over the crossbar.

"Wow. What a win," Titans defensive lineman Jurrell Casey said. "This is No.1 right here for me. I started jumping and screaming. I was very excited, I'm not going to lie. It was incredible."

"I could have gotten us flagged," Titans tight end Delanie Walker added with a smile. "I was on the field running to the locker room yelling stuff after he made it. You don't want to know what I was yelling. I can't really remember a win I had like this in my 11 years in the NFL. This is one of the most exciting ones I have been a part of.

"I believe in this team, man."

The Titans gave their fans even more reason to believe on Sunday, when the Titans pulled off a memorable rally on a day when the temperature was one degree at kickoff, with a wind chill of minus-9. It went down in the record books as the coldest game in franchise history.

The Titans trailed all game, but rallied late.

Real late.

Down 17-16, the Titans took over at their own 25-yard line with 1:07 left in the contest. Quarterback Marcus Mariota drove the team 40 yards on six plays, and put Succop in a position to win it. Barely.

Succop didn't kick one over 49 yards in pregame. But his 53-yard field goal sailed just over the crossbar when it mattered. Moments earlier, Succop was short on a kick from the same distance, but the kick didn't count because the Chiefs had called a time out.

"You could give me 10 kicks from there and I don't know if I could make one, honestly, in the weather and the cold and just kicking a frozen football," Succop said. "There is one explanation for why that ball went in and it's because it was the Lord's will for it to go in. Glory to God. What a day."

Mariota completed 19-of-33 passes for 241 yards, along with an interception. Running back DeMarco Murray ran for 89 yards on 18 carries while Derrick Henry ran for 58 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries for the Titans.

The Titans (8-6) travel to Jacksonville next Saturday to face the Jaguars.

Mularkey showed some guts late in the fourth quarter when, after a oneyard run by Henry made it 17-16 with just 3:12 remaining, the Titans tried to win it with a two-point conversion. But Mariota's pass was incomplete.

"I wanted to win, I wanted to win the game right there instead of going into overtime, instead of having to possibly do what we did there at the end," Mularkey said. "I wanted to get us up and make a statement to our team that that's why we came here. When we got the ball I went around the sidelines and talked to the guys on this team, the leaders and I said that this is my plan and they were all – let's go. They knew before the drive started that we were going for it."

When it didn't work, the Titans got a stop on defense, and got the ball back for a second chance.

"I think the amazing thing is nobody doubted that we were going to come back and win," Titans linebacker Derrick Morgan said. "It was a great team win."

The Titans got off to a miserable start, and they made it difficult on themselves throughout by committing three turnovers.

Chiefs receiver Tyreek Hill ripped off a 68-yard touchdown on Kansas City's second offensive play, making it 7-0 early.

The Titans appeared on the verge of quickly answering back, but receiver Rishard Matthews lost a fumble inside the Kansas City five-yard after making a catch, and the Chiefs cashed it in for more points. It became 14-0 when Chiefs quarterback Alex Smith ran it in from 11 yards out on a scramble.

But the Titans answered back, scoring on a four-yard touchdown run by Henry early in the second quarter to cap off a six-play, 87-yard drive and make it 14-7. Henry had five carries for 41 yards on the scoring drive.

The Titans turned the ball over twice in the first half. In addition to Matthews, Mariota also lost a fumble that was recovered by Chiefs linebacker Ramik Wilson. The turnovers snapped a streak of four consecutive games without a turnover for the Titans.

The Titans turned in a pair of goal line stands to keep Kansas City out of the end zone, and stay in it.

The first came in the second quarter, and it was capped off with back-to-back stops from the one-yard line on third and fourth down. On the fourth-down play from the one, safeties Kevin Byard and Daimon Stafford combined with linebacker Wesley Woodyard to stop Chiefs running back Spencer Ware for no gain.

The second came in the third quarter, and it ended with an interception in the end zone from rookie cornerback LeShaun Sims. On the play, Sims was covering Chiefs receiver Jeremy Maclin, and he stepped in front of him to end the drive and keep the game at 17-7 with 6:02 in the third quarter.

The Chiefs made it 17-7 at halftime on a 34-yard field goal by kicker Cairo Santos.

The two teams played a scoreless third quarter before Succop connected on a 39-yard field goal to make it 17-10 with 11:54 remaining.

Then came the late rally, which sets the stage for a big finish to the 2016 season.

"Man, it's one of those feelings where you can't help but feel if this year is kind of magical," Byard said. "For (Ryan) to barely miss the kick the first time and then to get another chance, it's just crazy. We knew on this playoff run we would have to win these kinds of games, and we were able to get a W. It was magical.

"We don't quit and we keep going. With that mentality, it leads to this."

TITANS LOSE TO JAGUARS AS MARIOTA SUFFERS FRACTURED FIBULA

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE DECEMBER 25, 2016

JACKSONVILLE — The Titans suffered a costly defeat here on Saturday.

In the process, they also lost quarterback Marcus Mariota.

Mariota fractured his right fibula in the third quarter when he was sacked while his foot was planted in the ground. Mariota's lower right leg was put in an air cast, and he was carted off the field. He left the locker room and headed to the team bus on crutches after the contest.

He'll undergo surgery in the coming days.

It was part of a miserable day for the Titans, who trailed from the beginning and lost 38-17.

Titans coach Mike Mularkey said he feels awful for Mariota.

He made no excuses for the Titans.

"I give them credit," Mularkey said of the Jaguars. "They beat us. It is the first time I can honestly say this season that we have been beaten like that and it is bad timing for it.

"We didn't play well enough to win against anybody."

Mariota completed 8-of-20 passes for 99 yards in the game before being injured. He was replaced by back-up Matt Cassel, who finished the game, but was unable to lead a comeback on a day when the Titans fell behind, and could never catch up. On this day, the defense couldn't get stops, and the offense couldn't sustain drives.

"We just got beat," running back DeMarco Murray said. "From start to finish, they beat us. They literally just outplayed us, out-executed us.

"It is very disappointing, and you just have to look in the mirror. They just outplayed us."

The Titans got off to another slow start in this one, and things got worse throughout the day.

The Titans dropped to 8-7 with the loss.

They'll wrap up the season next Sunday against the Texans at Nissan Stadium. The Texans clinched the AFC South on Saturday night with a win over the Bengals.

After the contest, players stayed in the locker room a lengthy period of time.

"I think we're just trying to digest everything, take it in," linebacker Derrick Morgansaid. "This is such a letdown. Given the position we were in, for this game to turn out the way it turned out today, it is a letdown for sure."

The Jaguars got the ball first, and scored on a 21-yard pass from quarterback Blake Bortles to receiver Allen Robinson to make it 7-0. The Jaguars made it 10-0 when Jason Myers kicked a 29-yard field goal with 4:03 left in the first quarter.

The Titans, meanwhile, sputtered on offense on their first two possessions before scoring when Mariota completed a three-yard touchdown pass to receiver Rishard Matthews on third-and-goal. It was the eighth touchdown catch of the season for Matthews.

But the Titans couldn't sustain the brief momentum.

The Jaguars drove the field on their next possession and scored on a one-yard touchdown run by running back Chris Ivory to make it 16-7. The Jaguars tacked on three more points on a 48-yard field goal by Jason Myers to make it 19-7 at the half

The Titans got on the scoreboard early in the third quarter after linebacker Brian Orakpo forced a fumble and safety Da'Norris Searcy recovered it at the Jacksonville 26-yard line. Moments later, kicker Ryan Succop booted a 42-yard field goal to cut the lead to 19-10.

But the Jaguars answered back, as Myers drilled a 56-yard field goal to make it 22-10 with 8:13 left in the third quarter. Myers added another field goal from 50 yards to make it 25-10 late in the third quarter.

Cassel completed a 14-yard touchdown pass to tight end Delanie Walker to make it 25-17 with 8:42 remaining, but things got ugly late.

Jaguars receiver Marqise Lee completed a 20-yard touchdown to Bortles on a trick play to make it 31-17. Then, Jaguars rookie cornerback Jalen Ramsey intercepted Cassel and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown to make it 38-17.

Cassel finished the game 13-of-24 for 124 yards with a touchdown and an interception for the Titans.

The Jaguars outgained the Titans 415 to 263 in total yards.

"This is a team sport, so the loss falls on the players, the coaches and everyone," tackle Taylor Lewan said. "The frustration is real."

TITANS BEAT TEXANS, FINISH SEASON WITH 9-7 MARK

BY JIM WYATT TITANS ONLINE JANUARY 2, 2017

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — On the first day of 2017, the Titans ended the 2016 season a high note.

The team's 24-17 victory over the Houston Texans gave the franchise its first winning season since 2011. It also closed out a season when the Titans matched the largest single-season turnaround in franchise history.

The Titans finished 9-7, a year after ending the 2015 season with a 3-13 mark.

"Obviously it is a really good feeling," Titans coach Mike Mularkey said. "But still disappointed we are not playing (next week). Feel a little bit empty here that we don't have a chance to keep going after today. That's just a lesson learned, but very proud of these guys. ... There's a lot of accomplishments that I know took place."

While no one was satisfied with the end result – the Texans will represent the AFC South as the division winner in the playoffs – it's impossible to deny the progress made in 2016, Mularkey's first full season on the job.

The Titans finished the season 5-3 at Nissan Stadium, where they ended the year with four straight wins. They finished second in the division behind the Texans, ahead of the Indianapolis Colts (8-8) and Jacksonville Jaguars (3-13).

After a 1-3 start, the Titans ended the season with wins in eight of their final 12 games. The Titans posted wins over six teams with winning records, and five teams headed to the playoffs -- the Dolphins, Chiefs, Packers, Lions and Texans. They also beat the Broncos (9-7), the defending Super Bowl champs.

But in some ways, that makes the final outcome even worse.

"We feel that it should be us that's going into the postseason and it's not," receiver Rishard Matthews said, "so that will light the fire this offseason."

"It is going to be hard for me to sit back and watch the playoffs, seeing the teams we beat still playing," linebacker Brian Orakposaid. "I think we definitely got the respect of the league, the way we competed, the way we hustled all year. We won nine games, and have five Pro Bowlers. The Titans are relevant again. But we wanted more."

Titans defensive lineman Jurrell Casey, who had two sacks on Sunday, said the team played mad on Sunday – because the team ended the season angry. If not for a loss last week in Jacksonville, the Titans would be focusing on a playoff game next weekend at Nissan Stadium.

Instead, players will gather for a final team meeting on Monday, and go their separate ways for the offseason. Some won't return, while plenty of new faces will be added to the roster.

"I won't be able to appreciate what we did this season until 2017, when we are sitting in the playoffs," Casey said. "This season is over. At 9-7, you are still a loser and you didn't make it to the Super Bowl, and that is every team except the one that wins. There is only one winner in this thing and everyone else is a loser. 9-7 is a winning record, but you are still a loser. No one is satisfied. I feel like if you don't win the Super Bowl, everybody is a loser. 9-7 is not good enough and that has to be the mindset."

The Titans took care of business on Sunday.

Quarterback Matt Cassel, playing in place of an injured Marcus Mariota, completed 16-of-26 passes for 150 yards with a touchdown and an interception on Sunday. Running back Derrick Henry led the Titans with 65 yards on 15 carries, and a two-yard touchdown run. DeMarco Murray finished with 21 yards on 11 carries. Murray ended the year as the AFC's leading rusher with 1,287 yards on the season.

"Obviously that's a credit to the offensive line and this team as a whole," Murray said. "But we play to win games and make it to the playoffs and we didn't accomplish that this year."

Matthews had a team-high nine catches for 114 yards, and a touchdown. He had a 50-yard catch that also set up another score.

The Titans had four sacks on defense, including two by Casey.

The Titans started with a bang – on defense.

Linebacker Sean Spence forced a fumble when he sacked Texans quarterback Tom Savage, and defensive lineman DaQuan Jones recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown to give the Titans a 7-0 lead with 9:57 remaining in the first quarter.

It was part of an impressive early showing by the Titans defense. In the second quarter, safety Daimion Stafford sacked Texans quarterback Brock Osweiler on fourth down to end another drive. Osweiler replaced Savage early in the second quarter after the starter left while being checked for a concussion, and he finished the game.

The Titans jumped out to a 14-0 lead when Cassel completed a two-yard touchdown pass to Matthews with just 23 seconds left before the half. It gave Matthews his ninth touchdown of the season.

The Titans held the Texans to just 57 yards of total offense in the first half, and to only six first downs.

The Texans drove the length of the field to start the second half, however, and capped off the 13-play drive with a four-yard touchdown pass from Osweiler to tight end C.J. Fiedorowicz, which made it 14-7.

But the Titans quickly answered back, driving 55 yards on 10 plays and capping it off with a two-yard touchdown run by Henry, who picked up 30 yards on the drive on his own. The touchdown stretched the lead back to 21-7 with 4:44 left in the third quarter.

The Texans then cut it to 21-10 on a 26-yard field goal by Novak, but the Titans answered back with a 35-yard field goal from kicker Ryan Succop to make it 24-10.

The Texans cut the lead to 24-17 on a one-yard touchdown run by Osweiler with 3:11 left. The Titans held the Texans on their final possession, and celebrated the win.

Mariota congratulated his teammates for their effort, and players applauded one another for finishing in style.

No, it wasn't the ending anyone wanted.

But a number of Titans recognized the positive steps made in 2017.

"We have an identity now," linebacker Derrick Morgansaid. "Everyone knows what we are, and we did a good job of accomplishing that this year. It is a great transformation that happened here. From last year, being the bottom of the barrel to a winning record this year. It was a great turnaround. We didn't get to the playoffs, but it doesn't really negate what took place this year and I think we have a lot to be proud of. We have a lot to build on."

Tight end Delanie Walker agreed.

"The way this team fought, I am very happy about the way everything went down," Walker said. "I appreciate it today. The one-year turnaround we had, it's beautiful. Everyone outside of Nashville has to notice what the Titans are doing. This is a team that's on the way up."

FRANCHISE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMERS

GEORGE BLANDA

QUARTERBACK/KICKER • 6'2" • 215 lbs • COLLEGE: KENTUCKY NFL SEASONS: 26 • YEARS WITH OILERS: 7 (1960-66) HOMETOWN: YOUNGWOOD, PA. • BORN: SEPT. 27, 1927 GAMES PLAYED: 340 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 1981

George Blanda, who came out of retirement with the emergence of the American Football League in 1960, was the offensive catalyst for the explosive Oiler squads of the early 1960s. He played quarterback and handled the placekicking chores in Columbia blue for seven of his NFLrecord 26 seasons in the league. Blanda was the team's leading passer and scorer in each of those seven seasons and still owns franchise records for most extra points (299), most touchdown passes in a season (36) and most touchdown passes in a game (7). He is also third in points scored with 596. The 36 scoring tosses stood as an NFL record for an astounding 23 years. Blanda's NFL career records included most games (340). most points (2,002) and most extra points (943). He also passed for 236 touchdowns. Blanda captained the Oilers to two consecutive AFL titles in 1960 and 1961, earning AFL Player of the Year honors in 1961. Blanda's career was divided into three distinct parts, 10 years with the Chicago Bears, seven seasons with the Houston Oilers and nine years with the Oakland Raiders. In 1970, he became the oldest quarterback to play in a title game. He was just a month shy of his 49th birthday when he retired before the 1976 season. Blanda passed away at age 83 on Sept. 27, 2010.

KEN HOUSTON

SAFETY • 6'3" • 197 lbs • COLLEGE: PRAIRIE VIEW A&M NFL SEASONS: 14 • YEARS WITH OILERS: 6 (1967-72) HOMETOWN: LUFKIN, TEXAS • BORN: NOV. 12, 1944 GAMES PLAYED: 196 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 1986

Considered one of the best safeties in football history, Ken Houston picked off 49 passes (898 yards), recovered 21 fumbles and scored 12 touchdowns over his 14-season NFL career, earning Pro Bowl honors 12 consecutive times (1968-69 AFL, 1970-79 NFL). Houston returned an NFLrecord nine interceptions for a touchdown in his six seasons as an Oiler. Four of those scores came in 1971, tying an NFL record. He returned two in one game against San Diego in the 1971 season finale, which also ties an NFL mark. His other three touchdowns came on a punt return, a fumble return and a blocked field goal return. Houston also holds the Oilers record for most career interception return yards with 650. With a long, fluid stride, Houston had excellent speed and guickness. His 6-3, 197-pound frame made him an ideal pass defender. Yet his lean, muscular body helped him to become a punishing tackler. Originally a ninth-round draft choice out of Prairie View A&M, Houston earned a starter's role by the third game of his rookie season. Two weeks later in a game against the New York Jets, he scored two touchdowns, one on a 71-yard blocked field goal attempt, and the other on a 43-vard interception return. After excelling for six years with the Oilers, Ken was traded to the Redskins for five veteran players in 1973. The Redskins once referred to Houston as "pro football's most underrated superstar," but his capabilities were widely recognized. He won all-league acclaim with the Oilers in 1969 and 1971, and then was either All-Pro or All-NFC with the Redskins every year from 1973 to 1979. He was selected for either the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl 12 straight seasons from 1968 through 1979. He played in 183 consecutive games before suffering a broken arm against the New York Giants Nov. 25, 1979.

EARL CAMPBELL

RUNNING BACK • 5'11" • 232 lbs • COLLEGE: TEXAS NFL SEASONS: 8 • YEARS WITH OILERS: 7 (1978-84) HOMETOWN: TYLER, TEXAS • BORN: MARCH 29, 1955 GAMES PLAYED: 115 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 1991

Earl Campbell, a 5-11, 232-pound ball-carrying dynamo from the University of Texas, joined the Houston Oilers as the first player taken in the 1978 National Football League Draft. The first player to earn All-Southwest Conference honors four years, Campbell was a consensus All-America and the Heisman Trophy winner in 1977. Campbell took the NFL by storm from the outset. In 1978, he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player, All-Pro, and Rookie of the Year. He won the league rushing championship with a club-record 1,450 yards and was named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. It was more of the same the next two years with NFL rushing titles, MVP honors, and consensus All-Pro acclaim each season. He followed his rookie campaign with 1,697 yards in 1979, but his finest year came in 1980 when he rushed for 1,934 yards, which at the time was second only to 0. J. Simpson's 2,003 yards gained in 1973. That year, Campbell gained over 200 yards in four games. In 1981, he won his fourth straight AFC rushing title with 1,376 yards. A sensational runner, Campbell was picked for the Pro Bowl five of his first six NFL seasons (1978-81, 1983). In his eight-year career, which finished in New Orleans, Campbell rushed 2,187 times for 9,407 yards, and 74 touchdowns, retiring as the NFL's seventh all-time leading rusher. He also gained 806 yards on 121 receptions to bring his career combined net vards total to 10.213. He set Oilers records for most career yards (8,574), most career attempts (1,979), most touchdown runs (73) and most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (5). His most famous performance came in a Monday night game against Miami in his rookie season. That night, he rushed for 199 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Oilers to a spectacular 35-30 victory. In spite of the constant pounding he took from opposing defenders, Earl missed only six games out of 115 because of injuries. Midway into his seventh season, he was traded by the Oilers to the New Orleans Saints for a first-round draft pick. He played a season and a half with the Saints before retiring after the 1985 campaign. Campbell is one of just four people officially designated a Texas Legend by the Texas State Legislature. The others are Davy Crockett, Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin. Campbell was the only designee of the 20th century.

CHARLIE JOINER

WIDE RECEIVER • 5'11" • 188 lbs • COLLEGE: GRAMBLING NFL SEASONS: 18 • YEARS WITH OILERS: 4 (1969-72) HOMETOWN: MANY, LA. • BORN: OCT. 14, 1947 GAMES PLAYED: 239 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 1996

Charlie Joiner played 18 seasons in the NFL, including his first four with the Houston Oilers. One of the league's most prolific receivers, he amassed 750 career receptions for 12,146 yards and 65 touchdowns, ranking as the league's leading receiver of all-time when he retired at the age of 39 in 1986. His 18 seasons played were longer than any other wide receiver in history at the time of his retirement. The Oilers originally targeted Joiner for the defensive backfield when they picked the 5-11, 180-pounder from Grambling in the fourth round of the 1969 AFL-NFL Draft. Joiner played briefly on defense and the kickoff return team but soon became established as a premier pass catcher. Joiner caught 82 of his 750 career passes as an Oiler, totaling 1,480 yards and 12 touchdowns. He paced the squad with 681 yards and seven touchdown grabs in 1971. In his fourth season in 1972, Houston sent him to the Cincinnati Bengals in a four-player swap. Four years later in 1976, he was traded to San Diego. With the Chargers, Joiner blossomed into super-stardom. He and quarterback Dan Fouts formed a lethal pass-catch team that accounted for the preponderance of his 586 receptions as a Charger. During his 11 years in San Diego, Joiner caught 50 or more passes seven times and had 70 or more receptions three seasons. Injuries cut into his playing time at the beginning, but in a 193-game span over his final 13 seasons, Joiner missed only one game. He was an All-NFL pick in 1980 and a Pro Bowl choice three times. In the 1980 AFC title game, he led the Chargers with six receptions for 130 yards and two touchdowns. Blessed with excellent speed and tantalizing moves, Joiner averaged 16.2 yards per catch and accounted for 12,146 yards and 65 touchdowns. When he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996, Joiner ranked fifth in receptions and sixth in receiving yardage on the NFL's all-time list. Joiner was once described by San Francisco 49ers coaching great Bill Walsh as "the most intelligent, the smartest, the most calculating receiver the game has ever known."

GUARD • 6'3" • 281 lbs • COLLEGE: PENN STATE
NFL SEASONS: 12 • YEARS WITH OILERS: 12 (1982-93)
HOMETOWN: SCRANTON, PA. • BORN: MARCH 5, 1960
GAMES PLAYED: 159 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 2001

Mike Munchak was the eighth player overall and the first offensive lineman chosen in the 1982 National Football League draft. Selected by the Oilers, the former Penn State standout was an immediate success with the Houston club, earning the starting left guard spot in his first training camp. The 6-3, 281-pound lineman wasted little time establishing himself as one of the premier guards in the NFL. In 1984, in just his third year in the league, he was named to the first of seven All-AFC teams. That same year he received the first of nine Pro Bowl invitations. Not coincidentally, the Oilers' on-the-field successes increased as Munchak's development and experience increased. From their dismal 1-8 record in the strike-shortened 1982 season, the Oilers improved nearly every year that Munchak played. Along the way, the team advanced to the playoffs seven consecutive years (1987-1993) and captured the 1991 and 1993 AFC Central Divisional crowns. Munchak was a devastating blocker and considered the key to an offensive line that kept the Oilers at or near the top of the NFL's offensive statistical categories. In 1988 he led the Oilers' offensive line that gave up just 24 quarterback sacks which was third in the NFL. It was also the fewest sacks allowed by the team in 10 seasons. The following season the offensive line held opponents to no sacks in six games. In 1991, the Oilers offensive line finished second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in the fewest guarterback sacks allowed. Behind the Munchak-led line, Houston led the NFL in total offense in 1990 and passing offense in 1990 and 1991. The Oilers finished second in points scored in 1990 and second in total offense in 1991. Equally effective as a run blocker, Munchak led the Oilers offensive charge in 1993 as the team finished fourth in the NFL in both average gain per rushing play (4.4) and average gain per offensive play (5.3). Although he suffered from chronic knee problems, Munchak played in 159 regular season games. His 12 seasons with the Oilers tied him for second longest in the franchise's history at the time of his retirement. He became the first player inducted into the Hall of Fame who played his entire career with the Oilers. Long-time teammate Bruce Matthews presented Munchak for induction.

ELVIN BETHEA

DEFENSIVE END • 6'2" • 260 lbs • COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA A&T NFL SEASONS: 16 • YEARS WITH OILERS: 16 (1968-83) HOMETOWN: TRENTON, N.J. • BORN: MARCH 1, 1946 GAMES PLAYED: 210 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 2003

Defensive end Elvin Bethea, an eight-time Pro Bowl selection during his outstanding career with the Houston Oilers, was named to the five-man class of the 2003 Pro Football Hall of Fame that included running back Marcus Allen, guard Joe DeLamielleure, wide receiver James Lofton, and coach Hank Stram. A third-round draft pick in 1968 (77th player overall) Bethea played in 210 games over 16 seasons, never missing a game until breaking his arm on Nov. 13, 1977. He was considered a "steal" in a draft class that produced three future Hall of Fame players in Larry Csonka, Art Shell, and Ron Yary. When he retired, he held three team records relating to career service: most seasons (16), most career regular season games played (210), and most consecutive regular season games played (135). Having led the team in sacks in six seasons, Bethea's unofficial 105-career sack total still ranks first in franchise history, including his team-best 17 sacks in 1973. He recorded four sacks and a fumble recovery in his best single game performance against San Diego in 1976. He played in eight playoff games and posted 691 career tackles. Bethea also played in eight Pro Bowls (1970, 1972-1976, 1979, 1980) and earned All-Pro secondteam honors in 1973, 1975, 1978, and 1979. More than just a pass rusher, Bethea was also effective against the run. Eventhough 1974 was the first year such statistics were compiled by the Oilers, his 691 career tackles, are still among the best in franchise history, even excluding the first six years of his career. "When people ask me who the best guy I ever played against was I always tell them Elvin Bethea and Lyle Alzado because both of them were complete ballplayers," said Art Shell, Hall of Fame member of the Oakland Raiders. "Elvin was one of the quickest guys I've ever been around. We always had to double-team him. There were times when I was supposed to block him when he would get by me so quick. And then Gene Upshaw was supposed to pick him up and he also got by him so quick that we would get back to the huddle and Upshaw would say, 'Did you see that?' and I'd say, 'Yeah, I saw that. He just beat the heck out of me too!' Elvin was just a great player."

WARREN MOON

QUARTERBACK • 6'3" • 212 lbs • COLLEGE: WASHINGTON NFL SEASONS: 17 • YEARS WITH OILERS: 10 (1984-93) HOMETOWN: LOS ANGELES, CALIF. • BORN: NOVEMBER 18, 1956 GAMES PLAYED: 208 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 2006

Warren Moon, the fourth leading passer in NFL history, was inducted into the 2006 class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Moon played 10 years (1984-93) with the Oilers/Titans organization and holds the franchise records for passing yards (33,685) and touchdowns (196), while leading the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987-93. During a 17-year NFL career, Moon played for the Houston Oilers, Minnesota Vikings, Seattle Seahawks and Kansas City Chiefs and amassed 49,325 passing yards, 291 touchdowns and 102 wins. He earned nine Pro Bowl invitations (tied for the most by a quarterback with John Elway and Dan Marino), posted nine 3,000 yard seasons, 49 300-yard games and led his team to nine playoff appearances. His eight consecutive playoff berths matched a feat accomplished by Terry Bradshaw and Joe Montana. At the time of his retirement, he held the single-season passing yardage record for three different franchises: Oilers (4,367 in 1991), Vikings (4,364 in 1994) and Seahawks (3,678 in 1997). Moon tallied many accomplishments during his Oiler career. His finest season came in 1990, throwing for 4,689 yards (363 for 584) and 33 touchdowns in only 15 games. He earned AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year for his efforts and his third of nine Pro Bowl invitations. Against Kansas City in 1990, Moon threw for 527 yards, which ranks as the second highest single-game total in NFL history (Norm Van Brocklin, 554 yards in 1951). In 1991, he surpassed the previous season's yardage total with 4,690 yards and became just the third player (Marino, Fouts) in NFL history to produce consecutive 4,000 yard passing seasons. Moon joined the Oilers and the NFL in 1984, after six seasons in the Canadian Football League, where he led his team to five Grey Cups (League Champions). In the CFL, Moon threw for 21,228 yards and 144 touchdowns. Moon was driven to play in the CFL after drawing little interest from the NFL as a starting quarterback following his senior season at the University of Washington. Moon became the first African-American quarterback to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame and his legacy as a minority quarterback cannot be underestimated. At the time of his arrival in the NFL only two black quarterbacks had been significant starters for their NFL teams (Shack Harris, Rams; Doug Williams, Tampa

BRUCE MATTHEWS

GUARD/TACKLE/CENTER • 6'5" • 305 lbs • COLLEGE: USC NFL SEASONS: 19 • YEARS WITH OILERS: 19 (1983-2001) HOMETOWN: ARCADIA, CALIF. • BORN: AUGUST 8, 1961 GAMES PLAYED: 296 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 2007

Arguably one of the best offensive linemen to ever play the game, Bruce Matthews became the first Tennessee Titan to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. At the time of his retirement, Matthews played in more NFL games (296) than any non-kicker in the league's history. Longevity and durability were his hallmarks, but that coupled with his unparalleled play, earning a league record 14 consecutive Pro Bowl (9 at guard and 6 at center) selections (tied with Merlin Olsen) and seven times named AP All-Pro, made him one of the all-time greats. He rose to the challenges presented to him in starting at every position on the offensive line during his NFL career (87 C, 99 LG, 67 RG, 22 RT, 17 LT). He becomes the first Hall of Fame offensive lineman to play significant time at all five offensive line positions. A constant for the Oilers/Titans franchise, Matthews started in a team record 229 consecutive games (streak started at Indianapolis, Nov. 29, 1987) and never missed a game because of injury. His 19 seasons also are a team record and he ranks second in NFL history for years with one team behind Jackie Slater, who spent 20 seasons with the Rams. Matthews and G Randall McDaniel (Vikings) were the only two NFL players to play in every game during the decade of the 90's. Matthews was a part of nearly one-half of the franchise's first 42-years of history and helped the team win 146 games, make the playoffs nine times, earn the only three AFC Central titles in team history, earn an AFC Championship and the franchise's only Super Bowl appearance. He blocked for 15 quarterbacks and 27 running backs, including five different 1,000-yard rushers (Earl Campbell, Mike Rozier, Lorenzo White, Gary Brown and Eddie George). During his career, he played in offenses that produced nine 1,000-yard rushing seasons and eight 3,000-yard passers. Additionally, he played in 42 different stadiums during his NFL career. During his career. Matthews blocked on a line that helped produce 65 100-yard rushing performances and 48 300-yard passing performances. Originally drafted by the Houston Oilers in the first round (ninth overall) of the 1983 NFL Draft, Matthews earned All-America honors at the University of Southern California. Matthews and his brother, Clay, each played 19 NFL seasons and the duo set an NFL record for games played by a pair of brothers with 574 games. Clay Matthews played in 278 games during his NFL career. Matthews had his number 74 jersey retired by the team and was inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame during a December, 2002 ceremony. Matthews joined a 2007 Hall of Fame class that included Dallas Cowboys WR Michael Irvin, Buffalo Bills RB Thurman Thomas, Detroit Lions TE Charlie Sanders, Cleveland Browns G Gene Hickerson, and St. Louis CB Roger Wehrli.

CURLEY CULP

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • 6'2" • 265 lbs • COLLEGE: ARIZONA STATE NFL SEASONS: 14 • YEARS WITH OILERS: 7 (1974-1980) HOMETOWN: YUMA, ARIZ. • BORN: MARCH 10, 1946 GAMES PLAYED: 179 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 2013

Curley Culp was voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Culp played in 179 games during his NFL career with the Kansas City Chiefs (1968-1974), Houston Oilers (1974-1980) and Detroit Lions (1980-81). He was considered the prototypical nose tackle and helped pioneer the 3-4 defense. Hailing from Arizona State, where he was an All-American in both football and wrestling, Culp was selected in the second round of the 1968 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos, who intended to use him as an offensive guard. However, his brief stint in Denver ended when he was traded to the Chiefs, who inserted him permanently on the defensive side. In 1969, the Chiefs won Super Bowl IV, and Culp was an instrumental member of one of the league's top defenses. He helped the Chiefs defeat the Oakland Raiders in the AFL Championship Game and the Minnesota Vikings in the Super Bowl. In 1974, during his seventh campaign in Kansas City, Culp was traded to the Oilers along with a first-round draft pick (used to select Robert Brazile) in exchange for John Matuszak. The move paid almost immediate dividends for the Oilers, who previously suffered through 1-13 records in both 1972 and 1973. In 1975. Culp's first full season in Houston, he helped the Oilers to a record of 10-4, the first winning mark for the club in eight years. With Culp anchoring the defense, the Oilers finished with the AFC's top-ranked run defense (third in the NFL). Individually, Culp produced arguably the finest season of his career, recording 11.5 sacks and earning NFL Defensive Player honors by the Newspaper Enterprise Association. Culp continued as a leader of the Oilers defense that culminated in back-to-back appearances in the AFC championship games in 1978 and 1979. He was named to one AFL All-Star Game and five Pro Bowls during his career. Culp also was picked as a first-team All-Pro in 1975 and a second-team selection in 1971, 1977, 1978, and 1979. He was selected first- or second-team All-AFC five times. "Curley Culp was perhaps the strongest man I ever lined up against," said Raiders Hall of Fame center Jim Otto. Culp used his strong wrestling background to create havoc for opposing guards and centers. He was the 1968 NCAA heavyweight wrestling champion and was named to the U.S. Olympic wrestling team that year. Culp joined a 2013 Hall of Fame class that included offensive linemen Larry Allen and Jonathan Ogden, wide receiver Cris Carter, coach Bill Parcells, linebacker Dave Robinson and defensive lineman Warren Sapp.

RETIRED JERSEY NUMBERS

In the history of the Oilers/Titans franchise, only six players have had the distinction of having their jersey number retired — Jim Norton (No. 43), Elvin Bethea (No. 65), Earl Campbell (No. 34), Mike Munchak (No. 63), Bruce Matthews (No. 74), and Warren Moon (No. 1).

Jim Norton played nine seasons for the Oilers (1960-68) as a safety and as a punter, establishing team records at both positions. As a rookie from the University of Idaho, Norton was a member of the Oilers' 1960 AFL Championship team. A four-time league all-star, he holds the club record for most interceptions in a career with 45. Also an accomplished punter, Norton was tops in club history with 519 career punts for a 42.3-yard career average and a long kick of 79 yards (11/22/64 vs. Kansas City).

Elvin Bethea joined the Oilers in 1968 after an outstanding career at North Carolina A&T. He started at defensive end in the 1968 season opener and didn't miss a game until breaking his arm in November 1977. That streak of 135 consecutive games played stands third in team history. An eight-time Pro Bowler (1970, 1972-76, 1978-80), Bethea ranks second for most seasons played (1968-83), while his 210 games played (1968-83) also stands second behind Bruce Matthews. Bethea led the team in sacks six times, including a career-best mark of 17 in 1973. The Oilers honored him with an "Elvin Bethea Appreciation Night" on Aug. 4, 1983. He became the sixth player in franchise history to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 3, 2003.

Earl Campbell, the franchise's second leading rusher and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was honored by having his number retired at ceremonies on Aug. 13, 1987. He set a single-season club record with a league-leading 1,450 yards his rookie season. Campbell followed that performance with 1,697 yards in 1979 and an astounding 1,934 yards in 1980. Both those totals led the NFL and the latter was second only to O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. Campbell was selected to five Pro Bowls (1978-81, 1983) and retired as the NFL's seventh all-time leading rusher (9,407). He ranks second in franchise history in career rushing yards (8,574) and attempts (1,979), first in touchdown runs (73) and first in most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (5).

Mike Munchak joined the Oilers as a first-round draft pick in 1982 out of Penn State. He was the first offensive lineman selected in the draft and the eighth overall selection. Munchak won the starting left guard position as a rookie and went on to play in 12 campaigns (1982-93) and 159 games (156 starts) for the Oilers. He is tied for third on the team's all-time list for seasons played and ranks fifth in games played. Munchak became a fixture on an offensive line that helped the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93). One of the premier guards in the National Football League, Munchak was selected to NFL's "Team of the Decade" for the 1980s and was chosen in 1989 to Oilers' 30th Anniversary "Dream Team." He ranks second in club annals with nine Pro Bowl selections, seven as a starter. Munchak announced his retirement on July 21, 1994, and on the same day, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr,. announced that jersey No. 63 would be retired on "Mike Munchak Appreciation Day" on Nov. 6, 1994.

Bruce Matthews played in more games (296) than any non-kicker in NFL history. Longevity and durability were his hallmark. And that, coupled with his unparalleled play, in which he tied a league record with 14 Pro Bowl selections (tied with Merlin Olsen) and earned All-Pro honors six times, made him one of the all-time greats. He rose to the challenges presented to him in playing every position on the offensive line during his NFL career (87 at center, 99 at left guard, 67 at right guard, 22 at right tackle, and 17 at left tackle). His number was retired during a halftime ceremony in Nashville on Dec. 8, 2002.

Warren Moon, the fourth leading passer in NFL history, played 10 years (1984-93) with the organization and holds the franchise records for passing yards (33,685) and touchdowns (196), while leading the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987-93. Moon's finest season came in 1990, throwing for 4,689 yards (363-for-584) and 33 touchdowns in only 15 games and becoming the third player in NFL history to produce consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons. He earned AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year for his efforts and his third Pro Bowl berth. His jersey was retired in a halftime ceremony in Nashville on Oct. 1, 2006.
