Robert C. McNair

Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Robert C. McNair is perhaps best known in the business community as the founder of Cogen Technologies, which was sold in 1999. Cogen was the largest privately owned cogeneration company in the world with aggregate capacity of 1,400 megawatts. Today, he retains ownership in a 345-megawatt plant in New York and a 50-megawatt plant in West Virginia.

McNair now serves as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of The McNair Group, headquartered in Houston, Texas, where he oversees an investment portfolio including cogeneration assets in the eastern United States. Mr. McNair also owns Palmetto Partners, Ltd., a private investment company that manages the McNairs' public and private equity investments, and is Chairman of the McNair Foundation. In June 2000, Mr. McNair formed a biotechnology capital fund, Cogene Biotech Ventures, where he serves as Chairman.

Committed to bringing a National Football League team to Houston, Mr. McNair formed Houston NFL Holdings in 1998. On October 6, 1999, the NFL announced that the 32nd NFL franchise had been awarded to Mr. McNair, returning football to the City of Houston in the year 2002 and Super Bowl XXXVIII in 2004. On September 8, 2002, the Houston Texans kicked off their Inaugural Season with a victory over the Dallas Cowboys – 19 to 10.

Mr. McNair's two football-related hires have been lauded throughout the league. He hired former Washington Redskins general manager Charley Casserly within three months of securing the franchise. Casserly helped build three Super Bowl winners over a 23-year career in Washington. Mr. McNair then hired Dom Capers as the first head coach of the Texans. Capers previously served as head coach of the expansion Carolina Panthers, leading them to the NFC Championship Game in just their second season of existence.

Those two hires paid immediate dividends in 2002 as the Texans won four games in their inaugural season. Houston defeated Dallas in its nationally-televised season opener, becoming the first expansion club to win its opening game since the 1961

Minnesota Vikings. The Texans also won at Jacksonville and upset the Giants and Steelers, both of whom eventually made the playoffs.

Stonerside Stable, a major thoroughbred horse farm in Kentucky, is also among McNair's successes. A 1,500-acre thoroughbred horse farm and racing stable, Stonerside is home to nearly 200 racehorses, broodmares, yearlings and weanlings. Mr. McNair serves on the Boards of Directors of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association and the Breeders' Cup Limited. McNair also served as Chairman of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association's Regulation Task Force in 2000.

Mr. McNair is a current or past member of the Boards of Trustees of a number of institutions including Rice University, Baylor College of Medicine, the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston Grand Opera, the Greater Houston Partnership, the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Free Enterprise Institute and the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

Mr. McNair is a member of the Texas Business Hall of Fame and a recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award, the Northwood University Outstanding Business Leader Award and the Association for Private Enterprise Education's Herman W. Lay Memorial Award. He recently received the Distinguished American Award from the Houston Chapter of the National Football Foundation and the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Rotary Club of Houston. In April 2002 The South Main Center Association presented McNair with the prestigious City Builder Award. In April 2003 McNair received the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Sam Houston Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, and in May 2003 McNair received The Denton A. Cooley Leadership Award from the Texas Heart Institute. He also is a founder of the Cotswold project, a revitalization project focused on downtown Houston.

Born in Tampa, Fla., Mr. McNair has been a resident of Houston since 1960. He graduated from the University of South Carolina in Columbia in 1958 with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 1999, Mr. McNair received an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from the University of South Carolina. Mr. McNair serves as an elder at Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church.

What They're Saying About Bob McNair

"Let me tell you how I feel about Bob. I would have carried him piggy back across the desert to have him as a partner."

— Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones

"I always thought Bob was the ideal guy to bring the NFL back to Houston."

— Tennessee Titans owner Bud Adams

"I think this is probably the best any expansion city has come together. They had good time to plan. They picked good people. But it all starts at the top, and I think Bob McNair is top drawer."

— New England Patriots owner Robert Kraft

"Another thing I like about Bob is that he is a sportsman first and a businessman second."

— Indianapolis Colts owner Jim Irsay

"He has an extraordinary sense of morals and ethics. He's a true gentleman. He believes in honesty, in community, in charity. He's so humble and so genuine. He's the type of person that others want to emulate."

— Dr. John Palms, former president of the University of South Carolina

"Here's a switch among NFL owners; they genuinely like being around him."

— Thomas George, The New York Times

"McNair's biggest victory this year was not the Cowboys game. It wasn't the Steelers game...It was earning the confidence and the dollars of his hometown fans. From those with Reliant Stadium suites to those who never will get closer to a Texans game than their living room TV, a relationship was built. Sports fans in this city trust Bob McNair and have confidence he will deliver a winner. And Bob McNair has lived up to his promises of doing things the right way, not compromising quality for a few extra bucks."

— John Lopez, The Houston Chronicle

Philip Burguières

Vice Chairman

Philip Burguières, one of Houston's most innovative leaders, serves as Vice Chairman of the Houston Texans.

Burguières also serves as Chairman and CEO of EMC Holdings, LLC, an investment management company specializing in oil services and exploration and production industries. Additionally, he serves as Chairman Emeritus of Weatherford International, an international energy company. Until 1996, Burguières was Weatherford International's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Prior to joining Weatherford in 1990, Burguières was Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Panhandle Eastern Corporation. He worked for 20 years at Cameron Iron Works, Inc., an international oil service company. Where he served as Chairman and CEO for ten years.

Burguières is on the board of directors at McDermott International, Newfield Exploration Company, Weatherford International and J.P. Morgan Chase. He also serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of The J.M. Burguières Co., Ltd. (a family-owned limited partnership). He is a member of the National Petroleum Council, the World's President's Organization, is past president of the Petroleum Club of Houston, the Petroleum Equipment Suppliers Association and past chairman of the National Ocean Industries Association. In May of 2000, Burguières was awarded the prestigious Ima Hogg Award from the Mental Health Association of Greater Houston and was the 2003 recipient of the National Mental Health Association's William Styron Award. He is a Director of Catholic Charities, The Mental Health Association, M.D. Anderson Cancer Hospital and The Texas Heart Institute.

A native of Franklin, La., Burguières graduated with a bachelor's of science degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Louisiana, where a Chair in the engineering department has been named in his honor. He was a recipient of his alma mater's Outstanding Alumni Award in 1992. He served in the U.S. Navy for four years, reaching the rank of Lieutenant. Burguières received his master's in business administration from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business. He and his wife Cheryl have two children, Emily and Martial.

Charley Casserly

Senior Vice President and General Manager, Football Operations

In 1989, Charley Casserly took over as general manager for the Washington Redskins. By his third season, the Redskins were hoisting their third Lombardi Trophy.

Now Casserly enters his second season in that same general manager position with the Texans. And while winning the Super Bowl is probably not a viable option for the second-year expansion club in the next few seasons, the challenge for Houston in 2003 is no less daunting.

Staring a diluted free agent pool and 31 established teams square in the eye, Casserly and his staff had to get creative in building their inaugural roster. Houston's 2002 starting lineup featured eight expansion draft picks, six rookies, three unrestricted free agents, three free agents, one trade acquisition and one waiver wire pickup. The kicker was a restricted free agent and the punter was a free agent.

But what appeared on paper to be a scattered collection of gridiron cast-offs was in fact a team built for future success. Just two starters – cornerback Aaron Glenn and defensive end Gary Walker – were over 30 years old. The team was constructed with a slant towards defense and special teams to keep the Texans in games where they were on the shorter end of the talent gap.

The plan? Solid. But Casserly still wasn't sure what to expect on the eve of the Texans' first regular season game, a nationally-televised prime time affair against the Dallas Cowboys.

"Let's be honest," he said a few hours before kickoff. "There's a little bit of the fear of the unknown at play here. What's this thing going to look like?"

A few hours, everyone saw what "it" looked like. The Texans stunned the Cowboys 19-10, becoming the first expansion club to win its regular season debut since the 1961 Minnesota Vikings. Houston eventually posted a 4-12 record with two wins over playoff teams (Giants, Steelers). The Texans were a tough out all season and promise to be for seasons to come.

Casserly continues to play a crucial role in that vision. He is crafting a young team with speed and skill. And he has the right coach in Dom Capers to instill toughness and discipline in the group.

Quarterback David Carr, who took every snap of his rookie campaign, is one of the NFL's rising stars. Carr, the first overall pick of the 2002 draft, was one of six draft picks to start on offense as rookies. Casserly tabbed Miami wide receiver Andre Johnson with the team's 2003 first-round pick, giving Carr a weapon that can stretch the field along with fellow receivers Corey Bradford and

"Charley brings to the committee a wealth of experience and a comprehensive knowledge of the game."

— NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue on Casserly's appointment to the league's competition committee

Jabar Gaffney. The line should be much improved with the addition of free agent tackle Zach Wiegert and the return of tackle Tony Boselli from a shoulder injury. And Casserly signed free agent running back Stacey Mack to bolster the running game.

On defense, Houston features a quartet of fast linebackers suited perfectly to Capers' 3-4 defense. And those two 30-somethings? Well, they made the Pro Bowl, a first for an expansion club since the 1970 merger. Casserly re-signed strong safety Eric Brown and linebacker Jay Foreman this past March, ensuring that 10 of 11 starters from the defense will return for the team's second campaign.

What's next for the Texans? Nobody knows for sure. The Texans still have the depth issues that plague all second-year franchises. The 2003 schedule features five playoff teams and three division winners, including defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay. But Casserly and his staff feel they have this team headed for sustained success.

"We will win here in Houston," Casserly said. "The tools are in place. We have a great owner, great coach, great facilities and one of the best places to live in this country. It's just a matter of everybody working together to see this through."

Texans owner Bob McNair hired Casserly on January 19, 2000, as Senior Vice President/General Manager of Houston's NFL expansion franchise. He heads all football operations for the club.

"We were so fortunate to be able to attract a world-class football man like Charley Casserly," McNair says.

Casserly enters his second season – but fourth year – with the Texans after a highly-successful 23-year stint with the Redskins. In Washington, Casserly was known for his tireless work ethic and a keen eye for football talent, traits that

"Charley knows the personnel business. He's a hard worker and has what it takes to be successful. He's also a good person."

— Dan Rooney,
Pittsburgh Steelers owner

continue to serve him well in Houston. Washington went to four Super Bowls during Casserly's tenure, winning three. NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue recently appointed him to the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee for the second time.

Casserly famously started with the Redskins in 1977 as an unpaid intern under Hall of Fame coach George Allen. Washington hired Casserly as a scout the next season and during his early years was a scout, he unearthed free agents Joe Jacoby and Jeff Bostic, who were original members of the famed "Hogs" offensive line and key components of Washington's first two Super Bowl teams. Jacoby was selected to four Pro Bowls and Bostic made one trip to Honolulu. The Redskins elevated Casserly to assistant general manager in 1982 and the club went on to capture its first Super Bowl. That year, Casserly also re-instituted the club's intern program, which has produced more than 20 league executives over his years in Washington and Houston.

In 1987, Casserly faced perhaps the biggest challenge of his Redskins career when NFL players went on strike. League owners decided on replacement players, sending personnel men scrambling to fill roster spots. With about a week to assemble a full complement of replacement players, Casserly put together a team that won all three of its games before the strike ended, including a Monday Night win against a Dallas team that featured a number of its star players. That experience was the subject of the Warner Bros. feature film, "The Replacements," starring Keanu Reeves and Gene Hackman.

When he was elevated to GM in 1989, Casserly sustained the Redskins' history of uncovering high-quality players in the later rounds of the draft. He used a fifth-round pick in 1990 to select Southwest Louisiana quarterback Brian Mitchell. Washington then converted Mitchell to a running back/kick returner, where he later joined Jim Brown as the only players in NFL history to lead the league in combined net yards four times. In 1996, Casserly plucked Auburn running back Stephen Davis in the fourth round. Davis paced the NFC in rushing in 1999 with 1,450 yards.

And during the 1999 off-season, Casserly made moves that immediately benefited the Redskins. First, he traded three draft choices to Minnesota for signal-caller Brad Johnson. The eight-year veteran responded with a Pro Bowl season in 1999, throwing for 4,005 yards and 24 TDs. (Johnson led the Bucs to a championship last season, meaning Casserly traded for both Super Bowl XXXVII quarterbacks – he traded for current Raiders quarterback Rich Gannon in 1992.)

Casserly then fired the shot heard 'round the league on draft day, acquiring all of the New Orleans Saints' 1999 selections, plus their first and third-round picks in 2000. To do so, Casserly simply swapped the Redskins' fifth selection in the first round for New Orleans' 12th choice. He still managed to obtain the player that Washington wanted, ultimately selecting Georgia cornerback Champ Bailey with the seventh pick in the first round. In part for those efforts, Sports Illustrated, Pro Football Weekly and USA Today named Casserly their Executive of the Year.

Casserly is determined to build a similar track record in Houston. He has already crafted one of the league's best scouting staffs and his football staff can boast 28 Super Bowl rings.

"The scouting staff is crucial for any expansion franchise," Casserly says. "Mr. McNair has provided us the means to assemble one of the most experienced staffs in the NFL."

Casserly's first order of business was last year's expansion draft, which produced eight eventual starters. He then pulled the trigger on Carr, ensuring the club a franchise quarterback for seasons to come. This year's draft focused on offense and Casserly was also able to pick up two additional selections for next year's draft, essential for a team still in its infancy stage.

Casserly began his career as an assistant coach at Cathedral High School in Springfield, Massachusetts, from 1969-72 before moving to a similar post at his alma mater, Springfield (MA) College from 1973-74. He returned to Cathedral High School to serve as the school's athletic director for two years before becoming head football coach at Minnechaugh High School from 1975-76. He holds a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in guidance from Springfield College, where he also played football. He is a member of the Springfield College Sports Hall of Fame.

A native of River Edge, N.J., Casserly and his wife of 23 years, Beverley, have a daughter, Shannon, who is attending Southern Methodist University. The family lives in Houston.

Jamey Rootes
Senior Vice President,
 Chief Sales & Marketing Officer

Jamey Rootes accepted the position of Vice President, Sales & Marketing of the Houston Texans in February of 2000 and was promoted to Senior Vice President in May of the same year. Now, as Chief Sales & Marketing Officer, he is responsible for all revenue generating and branding activities of the team. Since joining the Texans, Mr. Rootes has led the team's efforts to secure stadium naming rights and sponsorship, coordinated radio and TV broadcasting relationships, engineered the club's successful PSL and suite sales campaigns, led the successful launch of the team's identity, and developed the team's highly-acclaimed customer service strategy.

During 2002, the Texans earned several distinctions, including the American Marketing Association's "Crystal Award" for the best overall marketing campaign. Also, J.D. Power & Associates recognized the team for providing the best fan experience in the NFL. In November, Rootes was selected by Sports Business Journal as a member of their distinguished "Forty Under 40" list of leading sports executives for his role in the Texans' successful launch.

In the community, Rootes helped lead the Super Bowl Task Force that secured Super Bowl XXXVIII for Houston and is now a board member of the Super Bowl XXXVIII Host Committee. Rootes also serves on a number of community boards, including Downtown Houston Association, Junior Achievement and Teach For America.

Rootes joined the Texans with a solid track record of success. Prior to joining the club, Mr. Rootes was the President of the Columbus Crew and Crew Stadium. Under his leadership, the Crew developed the league's largest season ticket base, highest average attendance and strongest brand. During his tenure, the Crew introduced the first-ever major league, soccer-specific stadium in the United States. In 2000, Crew Stadium was named the "Foremost Sports Facility of the Year" by the International Sport Summit.

Rootes helped the Crew advance to the Eastern Conference finals for three consecutive years from 1997-1999. In 1996, Rootes was named MLS Executive of the Year. In 1999, the American Marketing Association recognized the Crew as Marketer of the Year and Rootes received distinction as Major League Soccer's Marketing Executive of the Year.

A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Rootes attended Clemson University and was a member of the Tigers' soccer team that captured two NCAA titles and served as Student Body President. While earning an MBA at Indiana University, he served as an assistant soccer coach for the Hoosiers. Mr. Rootes has previously held marketing and sales positions at IBM and Procter & Gamble. Rootes lives in the West University area of Houston with his wife Melissa and their son Christopher.

Scott Schwinger
Senior Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer

Scott Schwinger was named the Texans' Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer in August of 2000. He was promoted to his current position in May of 2001.

For the past eight years, Schwinger has held positions with various companies owned, directly or indirectly, by Robert C. McNair, including Vice President of Palmetto Partners, Ltd. and Cogene Biotech Ventures, L.P., both private equity investment companies, and Cogen Technologies, an independent power company. Schwinger also serves as Managing Director of EMC Holdings, L.L.C., a private energy investment fund.

Schwinger oversees a staff of over 20 and is responsible for financial reporting, budgeting, cash management, risk management, management information systems and all debt and equity financings of the Texans and other McNair Group companies. He provided the financial analysis support in the effort beginning in 1998 to bring professional football back to Houston. Schwinger also serves on the Houston Super Bowl XXXVIII Host Committee, Inc. In addition, he provides investment management oversight, venture capital due diligence, and negotiates deal structuring for Cogene, Palmetto, and EMC.

Since the award of the team in 1999, Schwinger has successfully coordinated and structured debt financings totaling $325 million, one of the largest financings to date for a professional sports team.

Schwinger received a bachelor of arts in mathematics from Vanderbilt University and a Master's of business administration from the University of Texas. In the community, he serves on the boards of the Weiss Energy Hall at the Houston Museum of Natural Science and the YES College Preparatory School. He and his wife, Becca, both native Houstonians, are the parents of son, Corbin, and daughter, Cara.

Suzie Thomas
Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Chief Administrative Officer

Suzie Thomas joined the McNair Group and the Houston Texans in March of 2000 after serving as General Counsel and Vice President of Human Resources of Corporate Brand Foods America, Inc., since October 1998. CBFA was a meat processing business that was purchased by Tyson Foods.

Prior to her stint at CBFA, Thomas spent 16 years at Weatherford International, Inc., an international energy service and manufacturing company, the last 12 years as Senior Vice President and General Counsel. She started her legal career as an associate attorney at Baker Botts L.L.P. in Houston.

Thomas earned her law degree from the University of Houston's Bates College of Law. She earned her undergraduate degree in Spanish from the University of Texas. Thomas is a member of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas, where she served as Chair of the Corporate Counsel Section from 1994-95. Thomas also serves as a director of and General Counsel to Child Advocates, Inc. She and her husband, Ray White, live in Houston.

David Peart

Vice President, Corporate Sales

A 20-year sports marketing professional, David Peart was hired as Vice President, Corporate Sales for the Texans in January of 2000. Peart oversees the Texans Alliance Partnership program and directs the corporate sales efforts including sales of radio, television, Reliant Stadium signage, print, and promotions for the team. Peart has recruited a talented team of sales and service experts to help create a partnership program that will deliver world-class service and exceptional marketing value to the team's roster of corporate clients.

Prior to joining the Texans, Peart was Assistant VP of Advertising Sales for the Southwest Sports Group in Dallas. Peart was responsible for sponsorship sales for the Dallas Stars, Texas Rangers, the Ballpark in Arlington and the Mesquite Rodeo. He also developed the Stars' new media strategies and the team's first web site.

Prior to his stint in Dallas, Peart served as Regional VP of Sales for Network International/SMG, handling sponsorship sales for more than 55 sports and entertainment facilities, including Three Rivers Stadium, Anaheim Stadium, Soldier Field and the Pittsburgh Civic Arena. He also consulted numerous professional and college teams on sports marketing projects.

From 1987-1993, he was Director of Advertising Sales for the Pittsburgh Civic Arena Corporation where he responsible for the sales of integrated sponsorships of the team's in-house rights for the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins and the Pittsburgh Civic Arena (now the Mellon Arena).

Peart has been a member of the host organization for the 1990 NHL All Star Game and the 1994 MLB All Star Game. He has been involved in six professional sports venue naming rights projects in four U.S. cities, most recently Reliant Stadium.

A Pittsburgh native, Peart earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from Point Park College in Pittsburgh. He was named the college's outstanding journalism and communications graduate in 1984. Peart attended Carnegie Mellon University for his graduate studies. He lives in The Woodlands with his wife Julie and two children (Tyler, 12, and Kelsey, 9).

Tony Wyllie

Vice President, Communications

Tony Wyllie is entering his fourth season with the Texans and his 11th in the NFL. He was hired as Vice President, Communications by the Texans in the summer of 2000 and is responsible for shaping and molding the image of the team in the public and the community. He serves as the Texans' liaison between the local and national media and the Texans' front office, coaches and players. Wyllie coordinates all interviews and generates publicity for the club while serving as the club's spokesman. He also oversees the Texans' public relations, community relations, internet and publications departments Wyllie began his NFL career as a game day intern with the Houston Oilers in 1991 before working as a summer intern with San Diego Chargers PR department in 1992. He spent 1993 as an intern in the PR department with the Dallas Cowboys, earning a Super Bowl ring before heading west to Los Angeles to work with the Los Angeles Rams as the assistant director of public relations. Wyllie moved with the team to St. Louis in 1995 and became the youngest PR director in the NFL three years later when the Tennessee Oilers hired him in 1998. He picked up an AFC championship ring with the Titans in 1999 before joining the Texans staff in 2000.

Wyllie has twice (1997, 2000) been part of a staff he has earned the Pete Rozelle award, which is presented annually by Pro Football Writers of America to the outstanding NFL public relations staff. He also was chosen by the NFL to work the 1996 and 1997 NFC Championship games, the 1999 Pro Bowl in Hawaii and the last three Super Bowls. In 2000, Business Nashville magazine named Wyllie to its top 40 under 40 list.

Wyllie serves on numerous Board of Directors including the Ensemble Theatre in Houston and the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. He also serves as a sub-committee chairman on Houston's Super Bowl XXXVIII host committee. He also is a member of Houston Association of Black Journalists, a sports task force officer with the National Association of Black Journalists and a 1987 initiate of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

Wyllie worked three years in the sports information department of Texas Southern University, where he received his degree in Journalism. In college, Tony also was a part-time reporter for the Houston Chronicle, Houston Post and Associated Press.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Wyllie grew up in Northwest Houston and attended Cy-Fair High School.

Marilan Logan

Controller

Marilan Logan joined the Texans as the team's controller in February 2001. She is responsible for maintaining the team's financial records.

Logan came to the Texans after serving as controller/treasurer for the Houston Aeros Hockey Club, Aerodromes Ice Rinks and Houston Aeros Foundation for two seasons. Prior to joining the Houston Aeros, Logan was the controller for the Houston Oilers (now Tennessee Titans) from 1978-97. Her responsibilities included accounting for player contracts, maintaining the club's financial records and aiding club management with special projects. Prior to the Oilers, she was a cost accounting specialist for Reed Tool Company.

Marilan and her husband, Rick have a daughter, Sandy, two sons Jeff and Roy, and two grandsons Kyle and Todd. The couple resides in Kingwood.

Dom Capers Head Coach

It is easier to go down a hill than up it, but the view is much better at the top...

— Arnold Bennet

Few thought this expansion road would be easy, least of all Dom Capers.

This road is, in fact, fraught with pigskin peril and the Texans head coach knew that the second he took the job two-and-a-half years ago. Where experience is sought, you're saddled with youth; where cohesion is desired, there is disorder; and in a league that demands respect, you have not one ounce of history to lean on.

More than 100 players reported to training camp in Houston last summer to learn a new system taught by new coaches and executed with new teammates. The Texans were off and running, but running to stand still, trying to forge a team while the league's 31 other teams were simply trying to polish up.

But a funny thing happened on that bumpy expansion road – the Texans won four games. They were competitive. They were resilient. In short, the NFL's newest entry was a very tough out for all but a few teams on its docket.

And looking back, we shouldn't be all that surprised.

After all, Capers had been down that road before in 1995 with the expansion Carolina Panthers, who set a professional sports record with a 7-9 record in their initial season. Seven years is an eternity in this league. The free agent landscape had changed drastically and two additional teams had diluted the talent pool.

But something hadn't changed in those seven years. Capers' legendary work ethic and attention to detail continued to flourish. Those qualities rubbed off on the Texans, from the players to the coaches to the staff, just like they had in Charlotte. And they will continue to light a fire in 2003 and beyond. Ask most and they will say that success will follow Dom Capers in Houston. In many ways, it already has.

Capers built his coaching track record on defense, so he set about building a veteran defensive unit to play his preferred 3-4 alignment in 2002. The Texans leaned on that defense to keep them in games and the unit responded with a stellar effort, ranking eighth in the AFC in total defense and fourth in the conference in pass defense despite lining up for the second-most defensive series in the NFL. The defense also produced two Pro Bowl starters in cornerback Aaron Glenn and defensive end Gary Walker. Houston was the first expansion club since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to produce a Pro Bowler.

Meanwhile, Houston's offense started an astounding six rookies, including quarterback David Carr, the first pick in the 2002 NFL Draft. Carr took every offensive snap and earned all-rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly.

Each of Houston's four wins in 2002 was memorable and meaningful. The Texans stunned the football world by defeating Dallas in their first game, becoming the first expansion team to win its first regular season game since the 1961 Vikings. In October, the Texans earned their first-ever road win with a late comeback at Jacksonville, where Capers had spent his previous two seasons as defensive coordinator. In November, the Texans shocked the Giants, who would go on to win four of their last five games and make the playoffs. And on December 8, the Texans secured perhaps the most bizarre victory of the NFL season, winning at eventual AFC North champion Pittsburgh 24-6. Houston won despite gaining just 47 yards of total offense, relying on its defense for all three of its touchdowns.

But the Texans have officially shed the expansion moniker. Now the challenge for Capers and his staff is to build on 2002.

"The first season is always a big test for everybody involved," Capers says. "But I think what we went through in 2002 will pay tremendous dividends as long as we learn from it. We found a way to be very competitive in a lot of football games and the next step for us is to find a way to win more of those games."

The Texans introduced Capers as their first head coach on Jan. 21, 2001. Capers served as the defensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars during the 1999 and 2000 seasons. Prior to his stint in Jacksonville, he spent four seasons as head coach of the Panthers, guiding that expansion franchise from its infancy to a playoff berth.

Capers compiled a 30-34 record in four seasons with the Panthers. The Panthers' 7-9 record set an NFL mark for most victories by an expansion team. Carolina also posted the first four-game winning streak in expansion history, the first winning home record by an expansion club and the first win over a defending Super Bowl champion (San Francisco) in expansion annals.

In 1996, the Panthers shook up the league by winning their final seven regular-season games, resulting in a 12-4 record and the NFC West title. Carolina then defeated defending Super Bowl champion Dallas in the divisional playoffs before bowing to Green Bay in the NFC Championship Game at Lambeau Field. The Panthers, riding a defensive unit that ranked second in the league in points allowed, posted a 9-0 home record (including playoffs). Eight Panthers played in the Pro Bowl. Capers was named Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, among numerous other honors.

The Panthers posted records of 7-9 and 4-12 the next two seasons, resulting in Capers' dismissal. The Jaguars signed him six weeks later and the hiring paid immediate dividends.

Under Capers, the Jaguars improved from 25th in the NFL in total defense in 1998 to fourth in 1999. Jacksonville also yielded the fewest points (217) in the NFL, an average of 13.6 points per game. Since the advent of the 16-game schedule in 1978, only 11 teams had allowed fewer points in a season. Capers' unit set club records for sacks (57) and interceptions (19), while tying the team mark record for takeaways (30). Three Jaguars defenders made the AFC Pro Bowl squad (defensive end Tony Brackens, linebacker Kevin Hardy and safety Carnell Lake), marking the first time any Jacksonville defensive player had earned a trip to Honolulu. Capers was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Writers of America/Pro Football Weekly and USA Today. In 2000, the Jaguars ranked 12th in the league in total defense and again tied the club single-season record for takeaways with 30.

Capers arrived in Houston one year before the Texans began building their roster, a luxury he did not have in Charlotte. The early start enabled him to formulate a long-term plan for consistent success. Capers' attention to detail is legendary in league circles. He has recorded the date, time and details about every event in his day since his late father, Eugene, gave him his first leather-bound notebook for Christmas in 1981.

"He was my toughest critic, but also my biggest supporter," Capers said. "And he always believed that you got back out of things what you put into them. If you come in every day, expend all the energy you have and do things right, opportunities will present themselves.

"Since the first day I started coaching, that's the approach I've tried to take."

Capers cut his NFL teeth with veteran NFL head coach Jim Mora. After winning two USFL titles with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, Mora accepted the Saints' head coaching position in 1986 and brought Capers along with him as defensive backs coach. Capers served in that capacity through the 1991 season, helping the Saints to the first three playoff berths in franchise history.

Capers then accepted the defensive coordinator's post with the Pittsburgh Steelers, helping the team win two AFC Central titles. In his three seasons with the Steelers, no team in the NFL yielded fewer touchdowns. Linebacker Greg Lloyd and cornerback Rod Woodson made three consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl under Capers' watch.

Capers began his coaching career in 1972 at Kent State, where he was a graduate assistant for three seasons while earning a master's degree in administration. In 1975 he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Washington. Capers became a full-time coach the following year, and then matriculated to Hawaii, San Jose State, California, Tennessee and Ohio State.

Capers was born August 7, 1950, in Cambridge, Ohio, and he was raised in nearby Buffalo, Ohio. He was a star athlete at Meadowbrook High School. He graduated with a degree in physical education and a minor in psychology from Mount Union College in 1972, where he played a combination of safety-linebacker.

Capers hosts an annual charity golf tournament in the Buffalo, Ohio, area which has raised thousands of dollars for the American Heart Association. He and his wife, Karen, live in Houston.

Vic Fangio

Defensive Coordinator

Vic Fangio enters his second season as defensive coordinator for the Houston Texans after orchestrating one of the league's best defensive performances in 2002.

The expansion Texans' defense sent two defensive players to the Pro Bowl (CB Aaron Glenn, DE Gary Walker) and ranked eighth in the AFC in total defense and fourth in the conference in pass defense despite lining up for the second-most defensive series in the NFL. The Texans also ranked seventh in the league in third-down defense, eight in red zone defense, fourth in penalties and ninth in yards per play.

Fangio's troops helped the Texans stay competitive throughout their inaugural campaign, turning in huge performances in the team's season-opening win over Dallas and subsequent late-season upset victories over two highly-ranked and playoff-bound offenses in the Giants and Steelers. In the remarkable 24-6 win at Pittsburgh, Houston's defense scored all three of the team's touchdowns. Overall, seven of the Texans' defensive starters posted career highs in tackles, even though none of the starters had played in the club's 3-4 defensive scheme.

Fangio came to Houston after serving in the same capacity for the Indianapolis Colts the previous three seasons. Fangio led the defense to major improvements in all statistical categories, which helped the Colts post a 23-9 record over the 1999-2000 seasons after posting a 6-26 record the two previous campaigns. Indianapolis also won its first division championship (1999) in 15 seasons and posted its best two-year record since moving from Baltimore in 1984. In Fangio's first season in Indianapolis, the Colts jumped from 29th in the league to 15th in total defense. His 2000 defense racked up 42 sacks, the most for the Colts in 11 years, and ranked 15th in points allowed.

Before his stint with the Colts, Fangio orchestrated one of the league's more fearsome units under Dom Capers for four seasons at Carolina, helping the Panthers win the NFC West title in just their second season. In 1995, the expansion Panthers tied for seventh in the NFL in total defense and ranked sixth in scoring defense, 10th in rushing defense, fifth in takeaways and second in defensive passer rating. Fangio's defense allowed just 218 points in 1996, ranking second in the NFL as Carolina posted a 12-4 mark. That unit also ranked 10th in total defense, first in third down defense, first in sacks, second in first downs allowed and fifth in takeaways. The Panthers yielded just five touchdowns and 56 points in the second half, breaking Chicago's 1985 record of 71 points – a record that still stands. Fangio's 1997 unit ranked seventh in points allowed, sixth in first downs allowed and ninth in pass defense. His 1998 group ranked seventh in the NFL in takeaways. Fangio coached three All-Pro linebackers in Kevin Greene, Lamar Lathon and Sam Mills.

Like Capers, Fangio cut his professional coaching teeth under veteran NFL head coach Jim Mora, his head coach in Indianapolis. Mora hired Fangio as a defensive assistant for the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars in 1984. After winning two USFL titles, Fangio followed Mora to the New Orleans Saints as outside linebackers coach for eight seasons. He spent 1994 as the Saints' linebackers coach. During his tenure in the Crescent City, Fangio helped five different linebackers – Rickey Jackson, Vaughn Johnson, Sam Mills, Pat Swilling and Renaldo Turnball – reach a combined 16 Pro Bowls. The Saints' defense cracked the league's top 10 in total defense four times and the NFL's top 10 in rushing defense six times, including a first-place finish in 1989. New Orleans advanced to the playoffs for the first time in 1987, making return trips in 1990, 1991 and 1992.

Fangio launched his coaching career in 1979 at his alma mater, Dunmore (PA) High School, coaching linebackers for one season before becoming defensive coordinator. He was defensive coordinator at Milford Academy in 1982 before moving on to the University of North Carolina, where he coached for one season. Fangio was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 1993.

A native of Dunmore, Pa., Fangio and his wife, Patty, have a son, Christian and a daughter, Cassandra. The family lives in Sugar Land.

Joe Marciano

Special Teams Coordinator

Joe Marciano enters his second season as special teams coordinator for the Houston Texans. Regarded as one of the league's top coaches in his field, Marciano has directed special teams for 17 NFL seasons.

In Houston, Marciano has been reunited with Dom Capers, with whom he spent his first nine professional coaching seasons, and his brother, Tony, who serves as the team's offensive line coach.

Marciano's charges enjoyed a solid first season in both the kicking and return game. Kicker Kris Brown connected on 17 of 24 field goals (13 from 40-plus yards) and hit two game-winners (at Jacksonville, New York Giants). Punter Chad Stanley ranked second in the AFC in net average (36.8) and led the conference with 36 punts inside the 20. The Texans also scored two touchdowns on special teams (punt return, punt block), recovered three fumbles and yielded just 5.7 yards per punt return, leading the AFC.

Marciano arrived in Houston after spending the previous six seasons in the same capacity for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Under Marciano, the Bucs boasted one of the NFC's most consistent special teams units. Tampa Bay blocked 20 kicks, registered nine of the 10 longest punt and kickoff returns in club annals and recorded 10 NFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards during his six seasons.

Kicker Martin Gramatica posted remarkable numbers during his first three NFL seasons. Gramatica nailed 84 of 101 field goal attempts (counting playoffs) and earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2000, breaking his own club single-season records in points scored (126), field goals (28), consecutive field goals (16), 50-plus-yard field goals (5) and extra points (42). Also in 2000, Tampa Bay set a team mark and tied a league mark by blocking seven kicks (four field goals, three punts), returning two for touchdowns.

In 1999, starting linebacker Shelton Quarles broke a 10-year Bucs single-season record with 31 special teams tackles. Tampa Bay opponents averaged just 17.6 yards per kickoff return, which set a club record for lowest opponent kickoff return average. In 1998, Marciano's charges set single-season club marks in both kickoff return average (23.7) and punt return average (13.7). In 1997, wide receiver Karl Williams finished as the NFC's second-leading punt returner and the Bucs finished first in the NFL in opponent net punting and opponent field goal percentage.

Marciano joined the Bucs after spending the previous 10 years as the special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. For the first nine of those campaigns, he also coached the team's tight ends. In 1995, the Saints ranked third in the league in lowest punt return average allowed (6.5) and sixth in lowest kickoff return average permitted (19.8). During Marciano's New Orleans tenure, he coached three special teams players who were selected for the Pro Bowl (Morten Andersen, Tyrone Hughes, Bennie Thompson).

Marciano's first professional football job came as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the club win two league championships. Marciano joined the Stars after spending 1982 as the tight ends/special teams coach at Temple.

In 1981, Marciano tutored the tight ends for Joe Paterno at Penn State. There, he coached future NFL offensive lineman Ron Heller who played TE for the Nittany Lions. Marciano also coached tight ends at Villanova (1980) and Rhode Island (1978-79). He began his college coaching career overseeing the tight ends at East Stroudsburg University in 1977. Marciano coached at Wyoming Area High School in West Pittston, Pa., in 1976.

A native of Dunmore, Pa., Marciano was a quarterback at Temple, where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He is an avid fisherman who has conducted various fishing tournaments and has appeared on numerous ESPN fishing shows. In 1993, Marciano was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He is single and now resides in Missouri City with his son, Joseph.

Chris Palmer

Offensive Coordinator

The Texans named former Cleveland Browns head coach Chris Palmer as the team's first offensive coordinator on February 2, 2001.

Palmer, a 14-year coaching veteran, is best known for developing quarterbacks and he appears to have another star pupil in Texans quarterback David Carr.

Carr, the top overall pick of the 2002 NFL Draft, earned the starting job in training camp and took every offensive snap. Displaying a strong arm, command in the huddle and unparalleled resiliency, Carr threw for 2,592 yards, the second-most by a rookie signal-caller on an expansion team in NFL history, and earned all-rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly.

Overall, Palmer's young offense started six rookies in 2002, making it by far the youngest unit in the league. Nevertheless, Houston's offense produced 17 touchdowns, two 500-yard rushers (James Allen, Jonathan Wells) and four players with 40 or more receptions (Allen, Corey Bradford, Jabar Gaffney, Billy Miller). Miller paced the Texans with 51 catches and Bradford ranked fifth in the AFC with a 15.5-yard-per-catch average.

Before returning to Houston, Palmer spent two seasons as head coach of the expansion Browns, leading Cleveland to a 2-14 mark in its inaugural season and an injury-ravaged club to a 3-13 record in 2000. Palmer drafted current Browns QB Tim Couch with the top pick in the 1999 NFL Draft.

Palmer spent the 1997 and 1998 seasons as the offensive coordinator on Tom Coughlin's staff in Jacksonville. He helped the Jaguars claim the AFC Central Division title in 1998 as the club approached the 400-point mark in both seasons (394 in 1997, 392 in 1998).

Palmer served as an instrumental tutor to Pro Bowl QB Mark Brunell, who has developed into one of the most explosive quarterbacks in the NFL. In 1997, Brunell led the AFC with a 91.2 passer rating and made the Pro Bowl. But Palmer's influence on Jacksonville's other young signal-callers was also evident. Five Jaguars QBs (Brunell, Rob Johnson, Steve Matthews, Jamie Martin and Jonathan Quinn) won at least one game for Jacksonville under Palmer's guidance.

Prior to joining the Jaguars in 1997, Palmer spent four seasons on Bill Parcells' staff in New England. As the Patriots' quarterbacks coach in 1996, Palmer retooled the mechanics of Drew Bledsoe, who ended the season leading the NFL in passing attempts and completions and finishing third in passing yards and touchdowns. The Patriots defeated Jacksonville in the AFC Championship Game to advance to the Super Bowl for the first time in 11 years and Bledsoe made his second Pro Bowl. When Palmer was the Patriots' wide receivers coach in 1994, the team set an NFL first when five different players caught more than 50 passes.

Palmer's first NFL coaching experience came with the Houston Oilers, where he was wide receivers coach for the Oilers from 1990-92 under Jack Pardee. During Palmer's three-year stay in Houston, the Run 'N Shoot Oilers boasted the top-ranked passing offense in the NFL. Four Oilers wide receivers - Curtis Duncan, Ernest Givins (twice), Drew Hill and Haywood Jeffires (twice) - made the Pro Bowl during Palmer's three seasons in Houston.

Palmer was the head coach at Boston University from 1988-89, installing the Run 'N Shoot offense and producing one of the country's most prolific units. He was the head coach at the University of New Haven in 1986 and 1987, where the Chargers posted consecutive 8-2 records and set more than 50 school records.

Palmer's first professional coaching experience came in 1983 when he was the offensive line coach for the Montreal Concordes in the Canadian Football League. In 1984, he coached receivers for the USFL's New Jersey Generals, and the following season he was promoted to quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator. That year, Palmer's offense featured QBs Doug Flutie and Brian Sipe and RB Herschel Walker, who set a professional football single-season rushing record with 2,411 yards.

Palmer launched his coaching career as an assistant at the University of Connecticut in 1972, coaching the defensive line and wide receivers. In 1975, he moved to Lehigh as the wide receivers coach. The following season he was named the offensive coordinator at Colgate, where he coached for seven years (1976-82). In 1977, the Red Raiders led the nation in offense, averaging 486 yards per game.

Palmer played quarterback for Southern Connecticut State from 1968-71 and was selected to the New Haven Gridiron Club following his senior season. He earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees at SCSU, where he was recently inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame. He is also a member of the hall of fame at the University of New Haven and Immaculate High School.

A native of Brewster, N.Y., Palmer and his wife, Donna, have two children, Mark and Kristin, and one granddaughter, Annette Grace. The couple lives in Houston.

Kippy Brown

Wide Receivers Coach

Kippy Brown, an 11-year NFL coaching veteran, enters his second season as wide receivers coach for the Houston Texans.

Brown's young corps of Texans receivers produced 116 catches last season, led by fifth-year pro Corey Bradford, who posted career-high numbers with 45 receptions for 697 yards and six touchdowns. Bradford's 15.5-yard average ranked fifth in the AFC. Brown also oversaw the development of rookie Jabar Gaffney, who hauled in 41 passes for 483 yards and one score.

Before arriving in Houston, Brown served as head coach of the XFL's Memphis Maniax. Prior to his stint in Memphis, Brown spent one season with the Green Bay Packers as their running backs coach, helping Ahman Green break through with his first 1,000-yard rushing campaign.

Before arriving in Green Bay, Brown spent four seasons with the Miami Dolphins under Jimmy Johnson, the final two seasons as offensive coordinator. Brown arrived in Miami as the running backs coach, helping Karim Abdul-Jabbar become the first Dolphins back to crack the 1,000-yard barrier in 18 years. The following season, Abdul-Jabbar tied for the NFL lead in rushing touchdowns with 15.

Johnson elevated Brown to offensive coordinator in 1998, where he worked with future Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. The Dolphins earned a wild card berth in both of Brown's seasons calling the plays.

Brown served one season as the running backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995. Prior to that, he returned to the University of Tennessee, serving two seasons as the assistant head coach and wide receivers coach. The Volunteers outscored their opponents 847-383 over those two seasons en route to an 18-6 mark. Brown helped tutor future No. 1 draft pick Peyton Manning as a freshman.

Brown's first NFL coaching stop came in New York, where he spent three seasons (1990-92) as the running backs coach for the Jets. In 1991, the Jets ranked fifth in the league in rushing and advanced to the playoffs for the first time in five seasons.

Brown's initial stint at Tennessee was as wide receivers coach from 1983-89. He helped develop such prolific Vols receivers as Anthony Miller, Tim McGee, Alvin Harper and Carl Pickens. Prior to arriving in Knoxville, Brown coached wide receivers at Louisville, including future Dolphins standout Mark Clayton.

Brown launched his coaching career at his alma mater, Memphis State, coaching running backs in 1978 and wide receivers in 1979-80. Brown was a starter for the Tigers at quarterback. He graduated from MSU in 1977 with a degree in communications. Brown prepped at Sweetwater (TN) High School, leading his charges to consecutive state titles in 1972-73.

A native of Memphis, Tenn., Brown and his wife, Deon, have two children, Jerome and Jennifer. The couple lives in Houston.

Jedd Fisch

Defensive Quality Control Coach

Jedd Fisch enters his third year as the Texans' defensive quality control coach. Fisch assists Reggie Herring coaching the club's linebackers, as well as assisting the coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports and opponent breakdown.

Fisch joined the Texans in May 2001, the club's fourth coaching hire. He spent the previous two years as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida. The Gators posted a 19-7 record over those two seasons, advancing to two New Year's Day bowl games (Florida Citrus, Sugar) and winning one Southeastern Conference title. Fisch graduated from UF with a bachelor's degree in criminology and law and a master's degree in sport management.

During his undergraduate years, Fisch served as an assistant coach at PK Yonge High School. Before embarking on his graduate degree, he served as a quality control and wide receivers coach for the New Jersey Red Dogs of the Arena Football League.

Fisch is single and lives in Houston.

Todd Grantham

Defensive Line Coach

Todd Grantham enters his second season as defensive line coach for the Houston Texans. In 2002, Grantham's three starters (Gary Walker, Seth Payne, Jerry Deloach) all produced career-high numbers in tackles and Walker earned his second Pro Bowl invitation after racking up 115 tackles and 6 1/2 sacks.

Grantham arrived in Houston after spending the previous three seasons in the same capacity for the Indianapolis Colts. Grantham's charges registered 96 sacks over three seasons, helping the Colts post a 29-19 record and advance to the playoffs twice. Indianapolis' 10-win improvement from 1998 to 1999 marked the greatest one-season turnaround in league history. In 1999 and 2000, the Colts posted 56 sacks, the highest two-year total for the club since it moved to Indianapolis.

Prior to his stint in Indianapolis, Grantham served three seasons as the defensive line coach at Michigan State. He added the title of assistant head coach in final season in East Lansing. MSU ranked 19th in total defense in 1996 and 13th in 1997, making consecutive bowl trips.

Grantham spent six seasons (1990-95) at his alma mater, Virginia Tech, the final two as defensive line coach. In 1995, the resurgent Hokies ranked first nationally in rushing defense, fifth in scoring defense and 10th in total defense. Tech racked up 50 sacks en route to the Big East title and a Sugar Bowl triumph over Texas. Grantham coached defensive ends and inside linebackers from 1990-91 and defensive tackles from 1992-93.

Grantham played guard and tackle for the Hokies from 1984-88. He earned second-team All-South and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. Grantham earned a bachelor's degree in sports management.

A native of Pulaski, Va., Grantham and his wife, Paige, have a son, Corbin. The family lives in Sugar Land.

Chick Harris

Running Backs Coach

Chick Harris enters his second season as running backs coach for the Houston Texans after spending the previous seven seasons in the same capacity for the Carolina Panthers.

Harris can boast more than two decades of NFL experience. He helped tutor a Houston backfield that produced two 500-yard rushers last season in rookie running back Jonathan Wells and veteran James Allen. Wells ranked third among rookie rushers in yards and Allen set a career high with 47 receptions for 302 yards. Harris also helped rookie fullback Jarrod Baxter earn a starting role.

Harris was originally hired in Charlotte by Dom Capers, who did so before the Panthers' inaugural season in 1995.

During Harris' seven-year tenure with the Panthers, injuries forced the club to suit up a bevy of running backs, from Tshimanga Biakabutuka to Richard Huntley to Brad Hoover to Fred Lane to Anthony Johnson to Derrick Moore. Harris' attention to detail and encouragement helped each of those young backs succeed at the highest level.

Harris helped Carolina set an expansion record with seven wins in 1995, then helped the Panthers reach the NFC Championship Game the following season.

Harris joined the Panthers after spending three seasons with the Rams in Los Angeles, the last season as offensive coordinator. In 1993, Harris helped rookie running back Jerome Bettis earn NFL Co-Rookie of the Year honors after rushing for 1,429 yards and seven touchdowns.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Harris served nine seasons as the offensive backfield coach for the Seattle Seahawks. Seattle advanced to the AFC Championship Game in Harris' initial season and made three other playoff appearances during his tenure. In 1988, Harris helped Curt Warner establish a single-season franchise record with 1,481 rushing yards.

Harris launched his NFL coaching career with the Buffalo Bills in 1981, coaching two seasons. He entered the coaching profession at Colorado State in 1970, coaching three seasons before heading to Long Beach State. After one season with the 49ers, Harris joined the Detroit Wheels of the World Football League in 1974. He then moved on to the University of Washington, where he spent six seasons, helping the Huskies to two bowl wins, including a Rose Bowl triumph over Michigan.

Harris lettered in football and track at Northern Arizona, where he is a member of the Lumberjacks' athletic hall of fame.

Born in Durham, N.C., Harris (9/21/45) attended Long Beach (CA) Polytechnic High School. He has a son, Tyler, and a daughter, Tarana. Harris and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Kara. The family lives in Sugar Land.

Reggie Herring

Linebackers Coach

Reggie Herring enters his second season as the linebackers coach for the Houston Texans. Herring's linebackers enjoyed a stellar 2002 season in Houston's 3-4 defense.

Herring's two starters at inside linebacker each posted career-high numbers in 2002. Jay Foreman led the team with a career-high 193 tackles, while Jamie Sharper racked up a career-best 178 stops. Herring's unit helped the Texans' defense rank eighth in the AFC in total defense despite lining up for the second-most defensive series in the NFL.

Herring came to Houston after serving as the defensive coordinator for Clemson the previous five seasons. He signed on as the defensive coordinator at Ole Miss after the 2001 season before assuming his current post with the Texans. Before he was named defensive coordinator at Clemson, Herring tutored the

Prior to his eight-year stretch at Clemson, Herring was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas Christian for two seasons. He previously spent six years at Auburn as linebackers coach, helping the Tigers reach five bowl games, including two Sugar Bowls (1988, 1989). Herring launched his coaching career in 1981 at Oklahoma State as a defensive graduate assistant. He was elevated to linebackers coach the following season, spending a total of five seasons in Stillwater and helping the team to three bowl games.

Herring was a three-year starter at linebacker at Florida State. In his four years with the Seminoles, FSU posted a 38-6 record while making three bowl appearances (two Orange, one Tangerine).

He played on three FSU teams that finished the season with a top 15 AP ranking, including a No. 6 finish in 1979 and No. 5 finish in 1980. As a senior, Herring earned second-team Associated Press All-America honors and served as team captain. He was inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame in 1989.

Overall, Herring has been a part of 18 bowl teams in his career, three as a player and 15 as a coach.

Jon Hoke

Defensive Backs Coach

Jon Hoke enters his second season as the Texans defensive backs coach. Hoke directed a secondary that featured one Pro Bowl selection (CB Aaron Glenn) and ranked 10th in the NFL in pass defense, yielding just 196.3 yards per game through the air. Houston's defensive backs picked off nine passes, recovered four fumbles and scored three touchdowns.

Hoke came to Houston after spending the previous three seasons as defensive coordinator at the University of Florida. Hoke replaced current University of Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops at Florida in 1999, initially serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach. In 2000, he added the title of assistant head coach.

Under Hoke, the Gators went to three consecutive New Year's Day bowl games (Citrus, Sugar, Orange), won the 2000 Southeastern Conference championship and finished as high as No. 3 in both national polls (2001). Hoke's ball-hawking defensive units forced 88 turnovers over three seasons.

In 2001, Florida led the SEC in total defense, scoring defense, first downs allowed, passing efficiency defense and third-down conversion defense. UF ranked ninth nationally in total defense, fifth in scoring defense, 12th in rushing defense and 13th in passing defense – the only SEC school to rank in the top 15 in all four categories. The Gators yielded just 19 touchdowns, the fourth-fewest in the country, and only five aerial scores, tying national champion Miami for fewest nationally.

In 2000, Hoke's defense led the country with 40 turnovers. His 1999 unit ranked ninth in the nation in rushing defense and paced the conference with 43 sacks.

Hoke arrived in Gainesville after five seasons tutoring the defensive backs at Missouri. The Tigers earned bowl bids (Holiday, Insight.com) in Hoke's last two seasons, thanks in large part to a defense that forced 48 turnovers, leading to 208 points. Hoke helped Mizzou rank 22nd in the nation in scoring defense in 1998, yielding UM's fewest points in 15 years. Hoke also coached the Tigers' kick block team, which blocked 11 extra points, seven punts and five field goals in his five seasons in Columbia.

Prior to coaching at Missouri, Hoke spent four years at Kent State, coaching defensive backs all four seasons and adding the title of defensive coordinator in his final season. He coached defensive backs and special teams at San Diego State from 1987-88 and launched his coaching career in the same capacity at Bowling Green in 1983, helping the Falcons win the Mid-American Conference title with an 11-0 mark in 1985.

Hoke was a four-year letterman at Ball State (1976-79), earning All-MAC honors as a defensive back. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education before playing in 11 games for the Chicago Bears in 1980.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Hoke and his wife, Jody, have four children — Mallory, Kyle and twins Kendall and Carly. The family lives in Sugar Land.

Offensive Line Coach

Tony Marciano enters his second season as offensive line coach for the Houston Texans. Marciano coached a unit besieged by injuries throughout last season. The Texans used six different starting lineups and featured two rookie starters in left tackle Chester Pitts and right guard Fred Weary, but showed steady improvement as the season progressed.

Marciano, whose brother, Joe, is the team's special teams coordinator, came to Houston after spending the previous four seasons as tight ends coach for the Indianapolis Colts. In his four seasons with the Colts, Marciano tutored one of the most productive tight end duos in the league in Marcus Pollard and Ken Dilger. Pollard posted a career-high 47 receptions for 739 yards and eight touchdowns in 2001. Dilger hauled in 150 passes and scored 18 times over his four seasons under Marciano. Both players earned their first trip to the Pro Bowl in 2001.

Prior to his stint with the Colts, Marciano spent three seasons as the offensive line coach for the Canadian Football League's Calgary Stampeders, adding offensive coordinator duties for his final season. He spent the 1994 campaign as the offensive line coach for the Toronto Argonauts.

Before joining the professional coaching ranks, Marciano spent two years at Kent State as its assistant head coach/offensive line coach. He launched his college coaching career at Texas Christian, serving as the assistant offensive line coach for two seasons, as well as the strength and conditioning coach. Marciano then coached tackle, tight ends and kickers at Southern Methodist for six seasons before serving as the offensive

Steve Marshall

Assistant Offensive Line Coach

Steve Marshall enters his second season as the assistant offensive line coach for the Houston Texans. Marshall helped tutor a line that, due to various injuries, had six different starting lineups in 2002 and featured two rookie starters in left tackle Chester Pitts and right guard Fred Weary.

Marshall came to Houston after spending the previous two years as the University of Colorado's offensive line coach. Marshall also led the Buffaloes' offensive field goal/PAT and kickoff return units on special teams.

Marshall's 2001 offensive line was a major reason the Buffaloes captured their first Big 12 Conference championship and a Fiesta Bowl berth. The Buffs ranked eighth nationally in total rushing, 20th in total offense and were second in total offense in the Big 12.

Prior to his dual years in Colorado,

Marshall spent two seasons as North Carolina's offensive coordinator and served as the instructor of the Tar Heels' offensive line. Although the North Carolina offensive unit was beset by injuries, he played a significant role as the team increased its scoring against six common opponents from the previous year. Before his stint in Chapel Hill, Marshall served in the same capacity for Texas A&M during the 1997 season. He came to College Station from UCLA where he tutored the Bruins offensive line for one year.

From 1993-95, Marshall led the Tennessee offensive line and spent his last year as the team's offensive coordinator. He was also the running game coordinator from 1994-95. The Volunteers earned two bowl bids (Gator, Citrus), while Marshall's offensive line protected quarterback Peyton Manning and paved the way for running back James Stewart. It marked the second occasion in Marshall's 22-year collegiate coaching career that he spent time in Tennessee, the first being from 1980-81 when he served as a part-time assistant offensive line coach.

Before coaching at Tennessee, Marshall spent six seasons as the Virginia Tech offensive coordinator/offensive line coach under Frank Beamer, whom he served under in the same capacity at Murray State for two seasons prior to his stint with the Hokies. In 1984, Marshall led the offensive line and tight ends at his alma mater, the University of Louisville. Before his return to UL, Marshall coached the offensive line and kicking team at Marshall for two seasons. He launched his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Plymouth State in 1979.

Marshall has coached 194 Division I-A games as well as seven bowl games, four on New Year's Day (two Citrus, one Cotton, one Fiesta). He has also been a mentor to All-America and Outland Trophy winner Kris Farris and All-America Jim Pyne, two of his 13 eventual NFL players.

Marshall was a one-year letterman both at both guard and tight end at Louisville. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education.

A native of Hartford, Conn., Marshall and his wife, Karin, reside in Houston.

Strength & Conditioning Coach

Dan Riley joined the Texans as the club's first strength and conditioning coach on February 1, 2001. Riley enters his 22nd year as a strength coach in the National Football League.

Riley spent the previous 19 seasons in the same capacity with the Washington Redskins. Riley served as an integral part of three Super Bowl champions, four NFC champions and five NFC champions during his tenure.

Riley has authored four books on weight training. In addition, he wrote a physical fitness column for the Washington Post and also authored the "Power Line," a monthly fitness column for Coach and Athletic Director magazine. Riley now authors the "Fitness Corner" column on HoustonTexans.com.

Prior to his stint with the Redskins, Riley spent five years as the strength coach at Penn State after serving four years as the strength coach at the United States Military Academy at West Point.

A native of Manchester, N.H., Riley graduated from Keene State College with an undergraduate degree in physical education. He has a Master's degree in physical education from Indiana University. Riley and his wife Brenda have two sons – Marty, who works for Microsoft and lives in Redmond, Wash., and T, who lives in Houston and is employed at the University of Houston in the athletic department.

Greg Roman

Tight Ends Coach

Greg Roman enters his second season as the tight ends coach for the Houston Texans. Under Roman's guidance, Texans tight end Billy Miller led the expansion club with a career-high 51 receptions for 613 yards and three touchdowns last season. Roman also helped tight end Jabari Holloway make the transition from Houston's practice squad to a valuable contributor to the offense.

Before coming to Houston, Roman spent seven years with the Carolina Panthers, beginning with their expansion season to his most recent stint as the team's assistant offensive line coach.

Roman initially served as the Panthers' defensive quality control coach and strength and conditioning assistant. Over that span, Roman was a key cog in forming the Carolina defensive unit that set an NFL record for fewest second-half points allowed in a season in 1996. In 1998, Roman moved to the offensive side of the ball, overseeing offensive quality control. In 1999, Roman assisted all aspects of a Panthers offense that finished second in the NFL in passing offense and fifth in yards per rush. In 2001, Roman moved to the offensive line, where the Panthers lowered their sacks allowed total by more than 50 percent.

Roman was a part of the defensive line and was at John Carroll University, where he was a four-time letter winner.

A native of Atlantic City, N.J., Roman was an All-South Jersey guard for Holy Spirit High School. Roman and his wife, Dana, live in Pearland.

Brian Stewart

Assistant Defensive Backs Coach

Brian Stewart enters his second season as the Houston Texans assistant defensive backs coach. Stewart helped tutor a secondary that featured one Pro Bowl selection (CB Aaron Glenn) and ranked 10th in the NFL in pass defense, yielding just 196.3 yards per game through the air.

Stewart came to Houston after spending one season as the defensive backs coach for Syracuse University. Stewart's defensive backs helped the 10-3 Orangemen to a second-place finish in turnovers in the Big East as well as a victory against Kansas State in the Insight.com Bowl to finish the season ranked 14th in the nation.

Prior to his lone season at Syracuse, Stewart served as the defensive backs coach for Missouri, where he was formerly a graduate assistant for defense in 1996. During his second stint with the Tigers, he mentored two-time All-Big 12 free safety Julian Jones, who led the conference in interceptions with six in 1999. The next season, Stewart produced two additional all-conference selections in cornerback Antoine Duncan and safety Clarence Jones.

From 1997-98, Stewart coached the defensive backs at San Jose State for two years. His group recorded 20 interceptions and included 1998 All-Western Athletic Conference selections Lyle West and Omar Smith, who led the conference with seven interceptions. Prior to his stint with San Jose State, he spent just over one season at his alma mater, Northern Arizona, as the squad's tight ends coach. Stewart began his coaching career at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo where he served as the wide receivers coach in 1993 and the running backs coach in 1994. The Mustangs won the American West championship in 1994.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Stewart has worked with the National Football League's minority fellowship program with the Seattle Seahawks and Washington Redskins. Stewart played at NAU after transferring from Santa Monica City College.

A native of West Covina, Calif., Stewart and his wife, Kimberly, live in Missouri City with their daughter, Leila.

Eric Sutulovich

Assistant Special Teams Coach/ Administrative Assistant

Eric Sutulovich enters his second season as the assistant special teams coach/administrative assistant for the Texans. In his current role, Sutulovich assists in all aspects of special teams and also assists head coach Dom Capers with team meetings and statistical analysis.

Sutulovich came to Houston after serving as the offensive coordinator for Fort Scott Community College in Fort Scott, Kan., where he held that position for almost one year. Sutulovich's duties included overseeing the running backs and tight ends as well as developing game plans and tutoring the special teams unit in punt protection and kickoff returns.

Prior to his one-year stint at Fort Scott, Sutulovich served as the offensive graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh, primarily concentrating on tutoring the tackles. After the 2000 season, the Panthers finished third in the Big East with a 4-3 record and made a trip to the Insight.com Bowl in Phoenix. Sutulovich played a role in the Pittsburgh offense ranking seventh nationally in pass efficiency and 18th in total passing.

Before assisting the Pittsburgh offensive staff, Sutulovich served one season as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator for the Indoor Football League's Casper Calvary in Casper, Wyo. Prior to his time there, he served as an assistant coach and passing coordinator for Bishop Ward High School in Kansas City, Kan.

Sutulovich was a standout tight end for Louisiana Tech from 1993-95. He went on to function as the Bulldogs assistant strength and conditioning coach before tutoring the offense as a graduate assistant when Louisiana Tech ranked as one of the top offensive teams in the country.

Sutulovich was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes from 1992-99 and is a member of the American Football Coaches Association. He and his wife, Melissa, live in Houston.

Chuck Banker

Director of Pro Scouting

Chuck Banker was hired in February 2000 as Houston's first director of pro scouting. Banker has 22 years of NFL experience, both in player personnel/scouting and as an assistant coach.

In his current post, Banker oversees Houston's pro scouting department, which will include scouting players on the other 31 NFL teams, as well as monitoring the talent in the Canadian Football League (CFL), and the Arena Football League (AFL).

Banker came to Houston after spending the previous three years (1997-99) as the scouting coordinator for the Washington Redskins. It was Casserly, then the Redskins' GM, who hired him for what was his second stint with Washington. Prior to that, Banker worked for the Philadelphia Eagles for three years, first as the team's director of player personnel (1994-95) before being promoted to director of scouting in 1996. With the Eagles, Banker was responsible for evaluating pro and college players, and for making recommendations on potential player acquisitions through free agency, trades and waivers. Philadelphia posted two 10-win seasons during Banker's tenure.

Banker's first association with the Redskins lasted from 1987-94. He coached Washington's special teams for Joe Gibbs for two seasons (1987-88), helping the club capture Super Bowl XXII. From 1989-94, he served as a scout for the Redskins, and was a part of the organization that won Super Bowl XXVII. Banker accepted his first NFL position as an assistant coach under Jim Hanifan with the St. Louis Cardinals from 1980-85 (special teams 1980-84, running backs 1985), and then worked as the assistant head coach/defensive ends coach at Iowa State in 1986.

Prior to coaching for the Cardinals, Banker was the defensive coordinator at Boise State from 1976-79. From 1974-75, he was the head coach at Viewmont High School in Bountiful, Utah. Banker coached the offensive line at the University of Utah from 1971-73 after serving as the head coach (1970) and defensive coordinator (1968-69) at Westminster College in Salt Lake City. From 1966-67, Banker was the linebackers coach at Utah after beginning his coaching career in a similar capacity at Glendale (CA) Junior College.

Banker earned a bachelor's of science degree in physical education from Westminster College after previously attending Cal State-Los Angeles. He has two daughters, Christy and Sara, and a son, Bryan. Chuck and his wife, Mary, reside in Missouri City.

Bobby Grier

Associate Director of Pro Scouting

Bobby Grier was tabbed as Houston's associate director of pro scouting on May 16, 2000. Grier previously held the title of vice president/player personnel for the New England Patriots.

Grier spent 18 years as a player personnel executive and as a coach with the Patriots, serving in his VP role for four-plus years. In that capacity, he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of New England's pro and college scouting departments, player evaluations, free agency and the annual NFL draft. From 1995 until being promoted to his most recent post, Grier served as the team's director of player personnel. He worked as the Patriots' director of college scouting from 1993-95.

From 1985-92, Grier was New England's running backs coach, working under three different head coaches (Raymond Berry, Rod Rust, Dick MacPherson). The '85 squad captured the franchise's first AFC championship before losing to the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XX. That season, Grier's backs had 2,331 rushing yards, including 1,227 by Houston native Craig James. Grier was a college scout for New England from 1982-84 after spending '82 as the offensive coordinator at Northwestern for head coach Dennis Green. Grier's first NFL position came in New England in 1981 when he was the running backs coach under Ron Erhardt.

Grier spent 1978-80 as the running backs coach at Boston College under Ed Chlebek, helping the team improve from 0-11 to 7-4. Grier's initial college coaching post came at Eastern Michigan where he coached the running backs for George Mans and then Chlebek from 1974-77. From 1970-73, Grier was the head coach at Detroit's Martin Luther King High School where his team captured the city championship in '73 with a 9-1 mark. Grier's first coaching assignment came as an assistant at Kettering (MI) High School from 1966-69.

Grier is a native of Detroit. He holds a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Iowa, where he was a three-year starter at running back as well as a two-time Honorable Mention All-Big Ten selection. As a senior, Grier led the Hawkeyes in rushing. He and his wife Wendy live in Houston. They have two sons — Chris, who is a regional scout for the Miami Dolphins, and Michael, who plays for the NHL's Washington Capitals.

Miller McCalmon

Associate Director of Pro Scouting

Miller McCalmon was originally hired as Houston's assistant director of pro scouting before being elevated to associate director of pro scouting on May 16, 2000.

McCalmon can boast 26 years of experience as a pro football coach, scout and administrator. He joined the Texans after spending the previous 10 years as a college scout for the Washington Redskins. Prior to that, McCalmon worked from 1988-89 as a scout for BLESTO, which is a national scouting combine that presently represents 12 NFL teams.

From 1986-87, McCalmon served as an assistant coach in charge of special teams and tight ends for the Houston Oilers. He had spent a year in private business (1985) after working for the Buffalo Bills from 1980-84. While with the Bills, McCalmon spent three years as a special assignment assistant before working as the club's special teams coach under head coach Kay Stephenson from 1983-84. He was an administrative assistant for defensive planning for the Baltimore Colts and head coach Ted Marchibroda from 1978-79, after breaking into the NFL as a personnel scout for head coach George Allen's Redskins from 1976-77. Ironically, one of his fellow personnel scouts with Washington in 1977 was Texans general manager Casserly.

McCalmon's coaching career began as a graduate assistant at Tulsa University in 1970 while he earned his master's degree in educational administration. He coached the receivers for Colorado State from 1971-72 before becoming the head coach at Erie (CO) High School from 1973-75. McCalmon played defensive back for Tulsa from 1967-69.

McCalmon is a native of Denver, Colo. He and his wife, Georgia, have three daughters — Piper, Katherine and Jennifer — plus four grandchildren. The family has resided in Missouri City for the past 17 years.

Mike Maccagnan

Coordinator of College Scouting

Mike Maccagnan was Charley Casserly's first Texans hire. After initially joining the club as a pro scout on Jan. 25, 2000, Maccagnan was promoted to his current post on May 24 of that year.

Maccagnan coordinates all of the Texans' college scouting efforts, managing one of the most experienced staffs in the league. Before arriving in Houston, Maccagnan spent the previous six years as a scout for the Washington Redskins. He served as a college scout (1994) for the Redskins before becoming a pro scout in 1995.

Prior to joining Washington, Maccagnan worked for the Canadian Football League's Ottawa Rough Riders as the club's Director of Scouting (1992) and Director of Player Personnel (1993). In 1994, he was the Director of Player Personnel for the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders. He also was the Director of Player Personnel for the World League's London Monarchs when that franchise captured the league championship in 1991. In 1990, Maccagnan worked in the World League office in Dallas as a league scout.

A native of Hightstown, N.J., Maccagnan holds a B.A. degree in economics from Trinity (CT) College. While a student at Trinity, Maccagnan served as a Redskin training camp scouting intern for Casserly in 1990. Mike and his wife, Betty, live in Houston.

George Saimes

National Scout

The Texans hired George Saimes as their first national scout on March 24, 2000. Saimes, who has 29 years of experience in pro football scouting, is not confined to any particular region as he scouts college talent all over the country.

Saimes joined the Texans after spending the previous 16 years with the Washington Redskins, including the last 11 as director of college scouting. He originally joined the Redskins in 1984 as a college scout after spending two years (1982-83) in a similar post for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Prior to that, Saimes worked as a BLESTO scout for eight years from 1974-81.

As a player, Saimes was a defensive back for 10 years for the Buffalo Bills (1963-69) and Denver Broncos (1970-72). A member of the American Football League's All-Time Defensive Team, Saimes was also named to the Bills' Silver Anniversary Team. He earned All-AFL honors in five of his seven Buffalo seasons. Saimes has been inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame and the Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame. In college, Saimes starred at Michigan State and is a member of the Spartans' All-Time Defensive Team. He was inducted into the Michigan State Athletic Hall of Fame in the fall of 2000.

Saimes is a native of Canton, Ohio. He and his wife, Betsy, currently reside in North Canton, Ohio. They have three daughters — Kelley, Linda and Stephanie.

Larry Bryan

Western Region Scout

Larry Bryan was hired by Houston on April 26, 2000, the second scout tabbed by the club. Bryan is responsible for scouting college talent in the Western Region.

Bryan spent the previous 10 years in a similar capacity for the Washington Redskins. He joined Washington in 1990 when he was hired by Texans general manager Charley Casserly. For his first four Redskin seasons, Bryan was the team's BLESTO scout before becoming a college scout in 1994. Prior to that, Bryan worked as a coach and in scouting/player personnel on the high school, college and pro levels. From 1988-89, he coached at Corona Del Mar High School in Newport Beach, Calif. During that span, Bryan also published the Orange County (CA) Football Magazine, which detailed high school football in that area. During the 1988 season he also worked as a part-time scout for the Kansas City Chiefs. Bryan spent 1987 scouting for the San Diego Chargers after working in 1986 as a scout for the Canadian Combine.

Bryan was affiliated with the USFL for the league's entire tenure. From 1982-84, he served as the running backs coach for the Oakland Invaders. During the Invaders' off-seasons, Bryan worked in player personnel scouting NFL games. In 1985, he moved to the USFL's New Orleans Breakers as their scouting director just before the franchise relocated to Portland for the league's final season.

From 1977-79, Bryan coached the running backs (1977-78) and quarterbacks (1979) at Oregon State after having directed the secondary at Utah State from 1975-76. In 1974, he worked as a scout for the World Football League's Hawaiians after serving as the Head Coach/Athletic Director at Salesian High School in Los Angeles from 1972-74. Bryan's first college coaching job came as the running backs coach for John McKay at USC from 1969-70. Bryan began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Bishop Amat High School in Los Angeles (1966-68).

Bryan holds a B.A. in physical education from Utah State (where he played running back) and a master's degree in secondary education from Cal State-Los Angeles. A native of Huntington Park, Calif., he and his wife, Gayle, reside in Balboa Island, Calif. They have two sons, Derek and Pete.

Rob Kisiel

BLESTO Scout

Rob Kisiel was promoted to regional scout in May 2002 and takes over the club's BLESTO scouting role this season. The Texans originally hired Kisiel as the team's pro administrator in May of 2000. In his current role, Kisiel serves as a college scout in the east and midwest regions.

Kisiel came to the Texans after serving as the draft coordinator for the Washington Redskins for one season. In that role, Kisiel worked with team scouts in scheduling and coordinating college visits, while also conducting research as it pertained to player contracts and the NFL salary cap. Prior to that, Kisiel worked as an intern in the operations department of the NFL's Management Council. He served as a Redskin training camp intern during the summers of 1995 (public relations) and 1996-97 (scouting).

In addition, Kisiel interned for the World League's London Monarchs during the 1997 season.

Kisiel is a native of Clearwater, Fla., and holds a bachelor's degree in business communications from Florida State.

During his four-year tenure as a student at FSU, he worked as a student assistant for head coach Bobby Bowden, assisting in recruiting efforts and Bowden's memorabilia demands. Kisiel is single and resides in Houston.

Joel Patten
Southeastern Regional Scout

The Texans hired Joel Patten in May 2000. He is responsible for scouting the southeastern portion of the country.

Prior to joining the Texans, Patten spent three years in a similar position with the Washington Redskins, where he was initially hired by Charley Casserly. Patten was also a part-time Washington scout in 1996.

Patten played eight seasons in the NFL and three years in the USFL as an offensive tackle. He initially signed as an undrafted free agent with the Cleveland Browns in 1980. In his NFL career, Patten played a total of 56 games for the Browns (1980-82), Indianapolis Colts (1987-88), San Diego Chargers (1989-90) and Los Angeles Raiders (1991-92). Patten played all three seasons of the USFL's existence for the Washington Federals (1983-84) and the Orlando Renegades (1985). As a player, he lists his two biggest NFL thrills as being a member of the Browns' playoff team in his rookie season of 1980 and making his first Monday Night Football start for the Colts (vs. Chicago) in 1987.

Patten holds a degree in history from Duke, where he played tight end and was a co-captain for the Blue Devils. The son of a career Army man, Patten was born in Augsburg, Germany, moving to the United States at the age of seven. He and his wife of 20 years, Betsy, live in Fairfax, Va., with their three children, Jake, Christina and Kimberly. Patten previously owned and operated two General Nutrition Center (GNC) franchises in Fairfax.

Paul "Pete" Russell
Southeastern Regional Scout

The Texans hired Paul "Pete" Russell in May of 2000. Russell scouts the southeastern region for the Texans.

Russell joined Houston after serving as a college scout for the St. Louis Rams from 1994-99. Prior to that, he was the tight ends coach at James Madison in 1993. From 1990-92, Russell worked as a graduate assistant coach (offensive line, tight ends) at Arizona.

A standout baseball player, Russell was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals. He was a catcher in the Cardinals organization for four years before retiring from baseball in 1986. Russell then enrolled at City College of San Francisco where he played football for two seasons (1986-87). He transferred to Arizona and was a fullback, tight end and nose tackle for Dick Tomey's Wildcats from 1988-89. In both of his seasons at Arizona, Russell won the school's Bronko Nagurski Award, symbolic of UA's top two-way player. Russell is the only two-time recipient of that honor. He holds a BA degree from Arizona.

Russell is a native of San Francisco and played football and baseball at that city's Sacred Heart High School. He is married to CNN anchor Laura Okmin and the couple resides in Alpharetta, Ga.

Dave Sears
Midwestern Regional Scout

The Texans hired Dave Sears as a college scout on May 8, 2000.

Sears came to Houston after three seasons with the Washington Redskins, where he worked in the scouting department. Sears served as a scouting administrator in 1997 before being promoted to serve as Washington's BLESTO scout for the next two seasons. BLESTO is the national scouting combine that presently represents 12 NFL teams. Sears was initially hired by Charley Casserly as a Redskins scouting/player personnel intern in 1996. Sears also worked as an intern for the Springfield Falcons in the American Hockey League.

Sears holds a degree in sports management from Springfield (MA) College, the same school that Casserly attended. Sears played four years as a linebacker for the Springfield football team. He attended Hauppauge High School in his hometown of Hauppauge, N.Y., lettering in football, basketball and lacrosse. Sears is single and lives in Houston.

Tom Throckmorton
Eastern Regional Scout

The Texans appointed Tom Throckmorton as their BLESTO scout in May 2000. After three years in that role, he now scouts the northeast for Houston.

Throckmorton is a veteran of 28 years as a college coach. Before coming to Houston, he served as the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at William & Mary. Prior to his arrival at W&M, Throckmorton coached the linebackers at Richmond (1997) and Boston College (1996), and was the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at VMI (1994-95). In 1990, he worked as a scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Throckmorton also had stints as the linebackers coach at Wake Forest (1987-89) and Virginia Tech (1985-86), and as the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach for East Carolina (1983-84). He tutored the linebackers at VMI from 1980-82, and oversaw the defensive ends for Richmond from 1973-79. Throckmorton's first two collegiate positions came as the linebackers coach at Randolph-Macon (1972) and North Carolina State (1971). His 1983 East Carolina squad (8-3) and his 1986 Virginia Tech team (9-2-1) both finished in the Top 20. Throckmorton's 1973 Richmond defense led the nation with five shutouts.

Throckmorton is a native of Richmond, Va. He holds a degree in history and sociology from Randolph-Macon College, where he played tight end and defensive end. Throckmorton also attended Ferrum (VA) Junior College. He and his wife, Jane, reside in Saluda, Va. They have one son, Chris.

Kevin Bastin
Head Athletic Trainer

Kevin Bastin enters his third year as the Texans' head athletic trainer. Bastin spent the previous 12 seasons as the assistant athletic trainer for the Washington Redskins, helping the team to four playoff appearances and a Super Bowl XXVI triumph.

Bastin spent two years working with Morgantown (WV) Physical Therapy Associates before assuming his post with the Redskins. He previously worked as an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Louisville. Bastin also worked with the University of Miami football team while he earned his master's degree in health and athletic training at UM.

Bastin, a native of Quiet Dell, W. Va., graduated from West Virginia University. He and his wife, Carrie, live in Sugar Land with their two children – daughter Shelby and son Blake.

Tom Colt
Coordinator of Rehabilitation

Tom Colt enters his second season as coordinator of rehabilitation for the Texans.

In his current role, Colt coordinates all player rehabilitation and assist with daily athletic training duties.

Prior to coming to Houston, Colt worked as a physical therapist and athletic trainer for Physiotherapy Associates in Phoenix. Before his stint in Phoenix, Colt spent six years at Morgantown (WV) Physical Therapy Associates. During his time at that clinic, he served as the head athletic trainer at West Virginia University for one year, as well as the head athletic trainer for NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy.

Colt graduated from West Virginia in 1986 before earning his master's degree in adapted physical education from Arizona State University. In 1996, he graduated from WVU's School of Physical Therapy.

Colt and his wife, Kristy, who is also a physical therapist, live in Houston.

Jon Ishop
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Jon Ishop enters his second season as the Texans' assistant athletic trainer. Ishop oversees inventory and injury record keeping in addition to assisting the staff with daily athletic training duties.

Ishop previously served as the head athletic trainer at Dunbar High School in Dallas. He broke into the NFL as a training camp assistant for two summers with the Washington Redskins. He graduated with a degree in kinesiology from the University of Texas in 1998, then earned his Master's degree in sports administration from the University of Houston in 2001.

Jon resides in Houston with his wife, Kedra, and their son, Aedan.

Jay Brunetti
Director of Equipment Services

The Texans hired Jay Brunetti as the team's first equipment director on April 2, 2001.

Brunetti came to Houston from Washington, where he spent the previous 26 years with the Redskins. Brunetti joined the George Allen-led Redskins on a part-time basis in 1975 when he was in junior high. He then became a full-time assistant in 1979 before becoming the youngest equipment manager in the league in 1981 at the age of 19. Coach Joe Gibbs' teams advanced to four Super Bowls and won three world championships with Brunetti heading the equipment staff.

For the past five years, Brunetti has served on NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue's appointed sub-committee on mild traumatic brain injuries. He is also a certified member of the AEMA.

Brunetti and his wife Linda have two sons, Jimmy and Drew, and a daughter, Tori. The family lives in Houston.

Matthew Grupp
Assistant Equipment Manager

Matthew Grupp enters his second season as assistant equipment director for the Texans. Grupp spent the past three seasons in a similar role for the St. Louis Rams, helping the club win two NFC titles and Super Bowl XXXIV.

Prior to his stint with the Rams,

Grupp served on the Carolina Panthers equipment staff for three seasons (1996-98) under then-head coach Dom Capers.

Grupp and his wife, Autumn, reside in Pearland with their dog Elvis.

Greg Read
Assistant Equipment Manager

Greg Read enters his second season as assistant equipment manager for the Texans. Read spent the previous three years in the same capacity at the University of Texas.

Prior to his stint in Austin, Read served two seasons as a graduate assistant equipment manager at his alma mater, Mississippi State University. Read earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from MSU, then earned his master's of sports administration in Starkville.

Read, a native of Quitman, Miss., is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. He is single and lives in Houston.

Ken Sparacino Director of Video Operations

Ken Sparacino returned to Houston as the Texans' first video director in April 2001.

He oversees all videotaping, editing and production for the Texans, breaking down practice and game tape for the coaching staff. In addition, he oversees the club's game film library and maintain videotapes on all draft-eligible players for coaches and scouts.

Sparacino spent 18 seasons with the Oilers/Titans, the last 15 as video director. The Houston native attended Waltrip High School, then attended Stephen F. Austin. He worked part-time for the Oilers in film production and cinematography before earning a full-time position with the club.

Ken and his wife, Marilyn, have a son, Bobby, and a daughter, Angela. The couple lives in Houston.

Joe Malota Assistant Director of Video Operations

Joe Malota returned to Houston as assistant video director in February 2002. He spent the previous five seasons as the video director for the New Orleans Saints.

Malota broke into the league as the assistant video director for the Houston

Oilers in 1989. He spent eight seasons with the Oilers before the club moved to Nashville.

Malota attended Southwest Texas State University. He and his wife, Jen, have a daughter, Molly (4). The family lives in Cypress.

Robert Wells Video Operations Assistant

Robert Wells enters his second season with the Texans' video department after spending the 2001 season as a graduate assistant football coach at Louisiana College in Pineville, La. Wells served as an intern in the Miami Dolphins video department during the 2000 season.

Wells played defensive end at McMurry University in Abilene, Texas, where he graduated with a degree in exercise and sports science in 1999. Wells earned academic all-conference honors as a junior and senior. He then earned his Master's degree in sports administration from the University of Miami.

A native of Baytown, Wells is single and lives in Houston.

Dan Ferens Director of Negotiations

The Texans hired Dan Ferens as their first director of negotiations on Aug. 1, 2001.

Ferens spent the previous year as vice president for McCormack Advisors International, the financial arm of International Management Group in Cleveland. IMG is one of the world's largest athlete management and sports marketing agencies.

Prior to his stint with IMG, Ferens spent 20 years with the Pittsburgh Steelers as the club's chief negotiator/business coordinator. The Steelers advanced to the playoffs 10 times during that span, including an appearance in Super Bowl XXX. In 1998, Ferens was one of two unanimous selections for best capologist in a poll of 50 NFL executives conducted by USA Today.

Ferens, a native of Connellsville, Pa., earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from St. Vincent College in Latrobe, Pa. He later received a Master's degree from Robert Morris College in Pittsburgh. Ferens and his wife, Mary, live in Spring with their daughter, Christine, and son, Danny.

Barry Asimos Director of Operations

Barry Asimos enters his third year with the Texans as the club's operations director after six seasons with the Washington Redskins. Asimos assists Texans general manager Charley Casserly, as well as coordinating team travel and Texans training camp.

In addition, Asimos oversees game day operations from a competition standpoint to include any aspect that deals directly with the game or the Texans and the visiting team. On game day, he will be responsible for setting up the field, equipment, team catering, player and coaches parking, and serve as the team liaison with the NFL. During the week, Asimos will oversee the team practice facility and Texans areas in the Reliant Stadium, including scheduling, cleaning and maintenance.

Prior to his arrival in Houston, Asimos spent six seasons in a similar role with the Washington Redskins. He started as an intern in Washington's scouting department before being promoted to the clubs director of administration. Prior to joining the Redskins, he interned with the Baltimore Orioles public relations and baseball operations departments. Asimos also interned with the public relations and customer service staffs of the Washington Bullets (now Wizards).

Asimos graduated from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Va., with a degree in sports administration and business. He and his wife, Heather, live in Missouri City with their daughter, Abby Reese.

Kim Babiak
Director of Marketing

Kim Babiak enters her third season as the club's director of marketing. She joined the Texans in 2001 after spending the previous five seasons as the director of advertising and promotions with the Philadelphia Eagles. As marketing director, Babiak oversees all branding and logo usage, advertising and creative, broadcast partnerships, special events and promotions, game entertainment, youth and grass roots outreach programs, merchandise and the cheerleaders/mascot/pep band entertainment groups.

During her time with the Eagles, Babiak created and oversaw all special events, game entertainment, advertising, promotions and the entertainment department. She also sold corporate partnerships and hospitality opportunities to the corporate community.

Prior to the Eagles, Babiak served as director of marketing for the Baltimore Bandits in their inaugural season in the American Hockey League. From 1993-1995, Babiak served as project manager for the Women's Final Four with the University of Minnesota. From 1991-1993, she worked in the athletics marketing and operations department for Jacksonville University, while earning her master's of business administration.

A native of Toms River, N.J., Babiak currently resides in Houston.

Joanie Haley
Executive Director, Houston Texans Foundation

Joanie Haley serves as the executive director of the Houston Texans Foundation and the Robert and Janice McNair Foundation. She joined the McNair Group in 1995 as an assistant to the executive director of the McNair Foundation after having served as an active community leader in the Houston area for over 20 years. She was elevated to executive director of the Robert and Janice McNair Foundation in 1999 and, concurrently, to her dual role when the Houston Texans Foundation was established last year.

Haley is a graduate of the University of Texas where she was named a Cactus Outstanding Student and the Silver Spur Outstanding Senior Woman. She taught math in the Spring Branch Independent School District, served as the math department chairman and was a private math tutor for 15 years. Haley was named an "Outstanding Secondary Educator of Texas".

Haley's fund-raising experiences included serving as the first Corporate Fund-Raising Chairman for the Children's Museum, helping to raise the initial funds for the Spring Branch ISD Educational Foundation and serving as a founding Board member of Camp for All. Her other community activities included serving on the Junior League of Houston Board of Directors as Public Relations Chairman, Placement Chairman and Editor of the Newsletter. Her present Board responsibilities include serving on the Partners in Education Boards for the Spring Branch and Katy Independent School Districts, the Texas Business and Education Coalition, the Neuhaus Education Center and the Board of Stewards for St. Luke's United Methodist Church.

Joanie is married to Don Haley. They have two children and two grandchildren.

Nick Ignatiev
Director of Information Technology

Nick Ignatiev joined the Houston Texans as Director of Information Technology in January of 2002. As the IT director, Ignatiev is responsible for all network and telecommunications infrastructure for the Houston Texans and The McNair Group. He was also instrumental in the design and implementation of the network infrastructure for Reliant Stadium, including the Texans' state-of-the-art digital video system used by the coaching staff.

Before joining the Texans, Ignatiev worked for four years as the Director of

IT for Luminant Worldwide, a nationwide consulting company focusing on e-business solutions. During that time, Ignatiev's primary focus was designing, implementing and maintaining LAN/WAN infrastructure as well as the organizational and technical set up of the corporate IT department.

Raised in Houston, Ignatiev received a BBA in MIS from the University of Houston. Nick and his wife, Sheila, live in Meyerland with their daughter Nina and their son Alex.

Diane Ozzolek
Director of Customer Service

Diane Ozzolek enters her second season as the team's director of customer service. She oversees all aspects of customer service for the Texans and is responsible for managing all suite and club seat holder accounts. Ozzolek also serves as a liaison to SMG, the management company for Reliant Stadium, and Aramark, the exclusive food and beverage provider.

Prior to coming to Houston, Ozzolek was the director of premium club and guest services for FleetCenter in Boston. Home of the NHL's Boston Bruins and NBA's Boston Celtics, the 20,000-seat FleetCenter hosts over 200 major events per year and has played host to such events as the 1996 NHL All-Star Game, the 1996 and 2000 U.S. Gymnastics Olympic Trials, the 1998 NCAA men's Frozen Four tournament, the 1999 NCAA men's basketball east regionals and the 2001 U.S. Figure Skating Championships. During her tenure, Ozzolek was responsible for the implementation of the Premium Club concept for all suite and club seat holders. She was also instrumental in the planning and execution of the Premium Cruise – a seven-day cruise to Bermuda exclusively for club seat and suite patrons of the FleetCenter. In addition, Ozzolek also managed the FleetCenter's service staff.

Prior to joining the FleetCenter, Ozzolek completed her master's of science in sport studies from the University of Massachusetts-Amherst. Before earning her graduate degree, she completed a 10-month internship at Rice University in the Office of Academic Advising for Student Athletes. She also holds a bachelor's degree in marketing with a minor in sociology from the UMass. A native of Northhampton, Mass., Ozzolek resides in Houston.

Ryan Reichert Director of Security

Ryan Reichert joined the Texans as director of security on October 7, 1999, one day after the NFL awarded its 32nd franchise to Houston. Reichert is responsible for all aspects of stadium security, player security and team travel. He also serves as a liaison between the Texans and federal, state and local law enforcement.

Reichert is a former Houston police officer and served nearly 10 years with the department before assuming his current post. He was stationed at the Westside Command Substation as a patrolman and finished his career in the HPD's community service division, developing community involvement programs and serving as a public speaker.

Reichert joined the Houston Police Department in 1990 upon graduating from Angelo State University with a bachelor's degree in sociology and a minor in criminal justice.

Reichert hails from Jourdan, Texas, just south of San Antonio. He and his wife, Melissa, and their five daughters reside in west Houston.

John Schriever Director of Ticket Operations

John Schriever joined the Texans in July 2000. He oversees all aspects of PSL and ticket sales for the team.

Prior to his current position with the Texans, Schriever worked for four years at Texas Motor Speedway in Ft. Worth, Texas, as the speedway's ticket director. He also assisted on the opening of the Speedway in 1997. Before the working at the speedway, Schriever worked for 12 years with the Texas Rangers, where he was the team's director of ticket operations and worked on the opening of The Ballpark in Arlington in 1994.

Schriever is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas. He and his wife Dana have two children, Nicholas and Sarah. The family resides in Houston.

Patrick Streko Director of Corporate Sales

Patrick Streko joined the Texans as the team's corporate sales director in April of 2001. Streko is responsible for establishing corporate partnerships for the team through the sale of stadium signage, television, radio, promotions, publications and hospitality opportunities.

Streko came to Houston after serving as Associate General Manager for Villanova Sports Properties at Villanova University. While at Villanova, Streko's efforts included the sale of corporate partnerships for the university's Athletic Department. From 1993-2000, Streko served as Director of Sales for Network International's South Region. Based at the Louisiana Superdome, his responsibilities included the creation, sale and implementation of corporate partnerships through advertising and marketing opportunities at stadiums, arenas and convention centers throughout the United States.

A native of Lafayette, N.J., and a graduate of Villanova University, Streko currently resides in Pearland.

Carter Toole

Director of Internet Services & Publications

Carter Toole enters his fourth season as the Texans' director of Internet services and publications. He runs the team's website and serves as chief editor for all team publications, including the media guide, yearbook, newsletter and game programs. He also wrote Opening Night, the team's commemorative book chronicling the Texans' first-ever regular season victory.

Toole came to Houston after spending one season as communications manager for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he edited all team publications and served as one of the team's media liaisons. Prior to his stint with the Bucs, he worked for the Tennessee Oilers/Titans as a media relations assistant. Toole broke into the league as a public relations intern for the NFC champion Green Bay Packers in 1997. Toole has also worked in media relations for Arizona State University and the Oakland Athletics. He has worked six Super Bowls and two national championship games.

Toole earned a bachelor's degree in English from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1995. Toole is a native of Alexandria, Virginia. He and his wife, Barbara, reside in Bellaire with their daughter, Catherine.

Regina Woolfolk Director of Community Relations

The Texans hired Regina Woolfolk in February 2002 as the club's director of community relations. Woolfolk works directly with creating and coordinating community events and campaigns for the Texans and partnering with non-profit and social service organizations seeking involvement with the Texans.

Prior to joining the club, Woolfolk worked in the broadcast industry. After receiving her degree in mass communications from Loyola University of Chicago, she worked as a radio news anchor in Memphis, Jacksonville, New York and Houston. In her last stint she served as community relations manager and public affairs director at Houston's KTRK-TV/ABC-13 for 10 years. She also hosted one of the station's weekly public affairs show.

Woolfolk is married to former NFL running back Butch Woolfolk. They have resided in the Bayou City since 1985, where their two sons, Jarrel and Troy, were born and raised.

Hard Knocks

Bills LB Takeo Spikes on Carr...

"I've seen several times where I thought he should have gotten sacked, but he found a way to get out of there. He's a strong quarterback, and it looks like he's in very good physical shape. Unlike some quarterbacks, they're like a glass quarterback. Hit 'em, and they've got a concussion. He's the type of guy who is like a Timex. He takes a licking and keeps on ticking."

passes on drive that resulted in Kris Brown's eventual game-winning FG...connected on 20 of 35 passes for 137 yards at Colts (12/1)...sacked six times...completed just 3 of 10 passes (all to Miller) for 33 yards in bizarre 24-6 win at Pittsburgh (12/8)...completed 19 of 34 passes for 196 yards and two INTs versus Baltimore (12/15)...first pick ended streak of 95 passes without an INT...led Texans on season-long 91-yard touchdown march...connected on 12 of 31 passes for 112 yards and one pick at Washington (12/22)...sacked three times, lifting that total to 73, a new single-season league record (Randall Cunningham, Eagles, 72 in 1986)...ended season completing 21 of 40 passes for 214 yards and one INT in loss to division champion Titans (12/29).

COLLEGE: Record-setting quarterback at Fresno State...completed 62.6 percent of his career tosses and compiled a career passer rating of 141.4...completed 587 of 934 passes for 7,849 yards, 70 TDs and 23 INTs in 37 career contests (counting two bowl games)...started final 26 games of collegiate career, leading Bulldogs to an 18-8 mark and two bowl berths...led the nation in both passing yards (4,308) and TD passes (42) as a senior, helping FSU rise to as high as No. 8 in the national

David Carr

2003
First-Round
Draft Pick
Andre Johnson

HEAD OF THE CLASS

The Texans and the Rockets were both awarded the top overall selection in their respective 2002 drafts. The Texans picked Fresno State QB David Carr, while the Rockets picked center Yao Ming. With the two selections, it marked just the third time that a city has had the top picks in both drafts. In 1965, the N.Y. Giants selected Tucker Frederickson and the Knicks picked Princeton star Bill Bradley. In 1975, the Atlanta Falcons selected Cal QB Steve Bartkowski, while the Hawks took N.C. State forward David Thompson.

TEXANS 19 COWBOYS 10

RELIANT STADIUM, SEPTEMBER 8, 2002

"Let me tell you something: What happened here tonight, that was no accident, now. It came from a lot of hard work and a lot of preparation -- mentally, physically and emotionally. Remember what it took because that's what it's going to take every week. I couldn't be prouder of you guys."

—Texans head coach Dom Capers

"We came out with a lot of emotion. It was a fun game. It was a spirited game. And we're aware of the history that we made tonight."

—Texans center Steve McKinney

SUMMARY

The Houston Texans won the first game in franchise history with a 19-10 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Reliant Stadium. It marked the first time that an expansion club won their opening game since Minnesota defeated Chicago 37-13 in 1961. The Texans also became the first expansion team since New Orleans in 1967 to score on their first possession when QB David Carr hit TE Billy Miller on a 19-yard passing strike. The play was engineered after Dallas CB Bryant Westbrook was called for a 43-yard pass interference penalty. Three plays and 62 yards later, Houston had a 7-0 lead over Dallas. Early in the second quarter, Texans LB Kailee Wong sacked Dallas QB Quincy Carter for an eight-yard loss, recording the first sack in Texans history. The Houston defense was just getting warmed up and on the next play, CB Aaron Glenn intercepted Carter's pass at the Dallas 18 for the first interception in the Texans annals and 25th of Glenn's nine-year career. The turnover set up a Kris Brown 42-yard field goal to put Houston ahead 10-0. Just before the end of the first half, the Cowboys drove 34 yards towards their own end zone. On third and six at the Houston 14, the Texans defense held strong and the Cowboys settled for a 33-yard Billy Cundiff field goal to put the score at 10-3 in favor of the Texans at halftime. Dallas received to start the second half of play and quickly entered into Houston territory to the 24. The Houston defense held the Cowboys on third and five and Cundiff came in to attempt a 42-yard field goal but the kick sailed wide left and the score remained 10-3. On their next possession, Dallas evened the score at 10 when they produced an 84-yard drive that was sealed off by a 46-yard touchdown run by Michael Wiley. To begin the fourth quarter, the Texans answered when Carr lofted a pass to WR Corey Bradford who hauled it in for an impressive 65-yard touchdown run to put Houston ahead 17-10. With just 2:42 remaining in the game, Dallas began one last drive deep in their own territory at the four. The possession was quickly terminated when Texans DT Seth Payne sacked Carter in the end zone for a safety, sealing the Texans' 19-10 win, the first in franchise history.

SUMMARY

The Houston Texans' regular season record fell to 1-1 after losing to the San Diego Chargers 24-3 in Qualcomm Stadium. The Chargers took an early lead when QB Drew Brees hit WR Curtis Conway for a 35-yard TD pass in their first possession of the game. After the teams exchanged punts, Texans QB David Carr threw high to WR Corey Bradford, who tipped it into the waiting arms of Chargers LB Junior Seau. Seau returned his 15th career interception to the Texans 6. Brees and Conway connected again three plays later on a three-yard reverse to give San Diego a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. The Texans defense came on strong in the second quarter, with LB Jeff Posey pushing Brees back to the Chargers goal line. Houston LB Jamie Sharper scooped up what appeared to be a Brees fumble and ran it into the end zone but the play was ruled as forward progress and the Chargers punted. The Texans regained control of the ball and began in good field position at the Chargers 35. But were stopped by the San Diego defense on 3rd and 2 and settled for a 45-yard Kris Brown field goal. With three seconds remaining in the half, San Diego padded their lead as K Steve Christie nailed a 36-yard field goal to put the score at 17-3. Both the Chargers and Texans defensive units held strong to keep the third quarter scoreless. Early in the fourth quarter, San Diego put the game away when LB Ben Leber got past Texans TE Billy Miller to sack Carr in the end zone, causing the ball to come loose. Chargers DE Raylee Johnson recovered the fumble and San Diego took a three-touchdown lead that it would hold onto for the remainder of the game.

SUMMARY

The Houston Texans dropped their second consecutive game after losing to the Indianapolis Colts 23-3 in front of a home crowd at Reliant Stadium to bring their record to 1-2. The game marked the first time in over thirty years that a Houston team took the field in an outdoor venue, with the retractable roof kept open. The last occasion was on December 16, 1967, when the Houston Oilers defeated the San Diego Chargers 24-17 in Rice Stadium. The Texans were forced to punt on their first possession and handed the reigns over to the defense where LB Jeff Posey sacked QB Peyton Manning in an effort to stop the Colts ensuing drive, sending the ball back into the hands of the Texans offense. The Texans were forced again to punt and Indianapolis ate 3:42 off of the play clock while Manning engineered a seven-play, 80-yard drive, sealed by a 42-yard touchdown strike to WR Qadry Ismail. K Mike Vanderjagt split the uprights to give the Colts a 7-0 first quarter lead. On the following Colts possession, LB Jay Foreman forced a fumble, which was recovered by CB Marcus Coleman. But two plays later, Texans QB David Carr's pass bounced off of intended receiver Rod Rutledge's hands where Colts CB Idrees Bashir would record his first and only pick of the night. The turnover set up a 26-yard Vanderjagt field goal to extend the Colts lead 10-0. The Texans responded when RB Jonathan Wells ran the ball 37 yards into Colts territory to set up a 54-yard Kris Brown field goal attempt. Brown's kick had plenty of leg but hit the right upright to keep the Texans at zero. Indianapolis finished the first 30 minutes of play with a 46-yard drive capped off by a 39-yard Vanderjagt field goal to increase the Colts lead 13-0 at halftime. On their first possession of the second half, the Texans were able to put some points on the board when they traveled 56 yards on 12 plays, settling for a 24-yard Brown field goal to put the score at 13-3, still in favor of Indianapolis. The Texans' defense forced their second fumble of the night when DT Gary Walker recovered WR Marvin Harrison's fumble on the Houston 13, however the Texans could not convert the turnover into points. The Colts added a 43-yard touchdown when Manning hit WR Reggie Wayne to put the Colts ahead 20-3. In the final four minutes of the game, Carr was sacked four times and fumbled once, a turnover that the Colts converted into a 37-yard field goal to cap the scoring.

SUMMARY

After taking an early 7-0 lead on the Eagles, the Houston Texans eventually succumbed to Philadelphia 35-17, bringing their season record to 1-3 heading into the bye week. Texans QB David Carr hit WR Corey Bradford on Houston's second possession. Bradford hauled in a one-handed catch for 26 yards to the Eagles 43. After a pass interference call moved them further towards the end zone, Carr and Bradford connected again on a 23-yard touchdown pass to give Houston an early 7-0 lead. Eagles QB Donovan McNabb, who misfired on three consecutive passes on Philadelphia's initial drive, was picked off by Texans SS Eric Brown on his next attempt. But the Texans weren't able to capitalize on the turnover and Philadelphia regained the ball, marching 72 yards downfield to the Houston 7. The Texans defense kept them out of the end zone and the Eagles settled for a David Akers 25-yard field goal to cut the lead 7-3. Carr scrambled for a first down on the Texans next possession but fumbled on his way down and Eagles FS Brian Dawkins scooped it up and returned it to the Texans 42. A few plays later, Eagles RB Duce Staley plunged into the end zone from one yard out to give the Eagles a 10-7 lead. Philadelphia scored on their next possession to set up a 41-yard run to put the score at 17-7 in the Eagles favor. Dawkins picked off Carr on Houston's next possession to set up a 41-yard Akers field goal to give Philadelphia a 20-7 lead. In the third quarter, the Eagles extended their lead when RB Brian Mitchell threw a 57-yard scoring strike to Dawkins on a fake punt on 4th and 7. After a two-point conversion, the Eagles went up 28-7. The Texans offense answered when Carr engineered a five-play, 60-yard drive with a 29-yard touchdown pass to Bradford to cut the Eagles lead 28-14. Houston's defense got the ball back when CB Marcus Coleman recovered a fumble but Carr was picked off in the end zone. After an Eagles punt, the Texans set up a 48-yard Kris Brown field goal to put the score at 28-17. The Eagles sealed the win when McNabb hit WR James Thrash on a 38-yard scoring strike with 4:52 remaining in the game to put the final score at 35-17.

SUMMARY

The Texans offense reached the Bills 14 with 52 seconds remaining in the game but couldn't make the decisive play to send the game into overtime and the Bills took home a down-to-the wire 31-24 win. Houston lost their fourth game of the season but made offensive strides with 338 total net yards. The Texans defense forced a punt on the Bills opening drive and came out of the gate with an 81-yard David Carr to WR Corey Bradford aerial strike to put Houston in the red zone. Texans K Kris Brown was called into duty and booted a 26-yarder to put the Texans ahead 3-0. Houston's defense forced Buffalo to punt again but a five-yard running into the kicker call turned the ball back over to the Bills. K Mike Hollis hit a 33-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Three series later, Carr hit Bradford for a 19-yard catch to set up a 26-yard Jabar Gaffney TD reception, extending the Texans lead 10-3. Houston's offense exploded again after two Gaffney catches and a crucial Jonathan Wells run positioned Carr to rush 17 yards into the end zone to put the score at 17-3. But Buffalo's offense recharged on their next possession and engineered an 80-yard scoring drive in the final minutes of the first half with RB Travis Henry punching in a one-yard TD to cut the Texans lead 17-10 at halftime. The Bills opened up the second half by eating 5:10 off of the play clock with another 80-yard TD drive. QB Drew Bledsoe hit WR Jay Riemersma in the end zone but the TD was called back because of a 15-yard leg-whip penalty. Henry ran the ball 23 yards on the next play to tie the score at 17. Houston punted on their next possession, handing the ball back to Buffalo, but Texans LB Kalile Wong forced a fumble while LB Jamie Sharper scooped it up for another two yards. After a 15-yard roughing the passer penalty moved them to the Buffalo 8, Carr was able to hand the ball off to RB James Allen who hit TE Billy Miller for a five-yard TD reception to put the score at 24-17 at the beginning of the fourth quarter. The Bills answered with seven points after two, 15-yard penalties moved them closer to the end zone. Bledsoe hit WR Eric Moulds on a 23-yard TD strike after marching 75 yards downfield to even the score at 24. Bledsoe led his troops in their third scoring drive of the second half when WR Peerless Price caught a 26-yard reception in the end zone to seal the victory.

SUMMARY

SUMMARY

Houston lost its third road game of the season and fell to 1-5 after losing 34-17 to the Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium. The Texans defense stopped the Browns on three consecutive possessions to open the game but Browns TE Steve Heiden stripped Texans WR Jermaine Lewis on a punt return, giving Cleveland possession at the Texans 13. Five plays later, Browns RB William Green plunged in from one yard out to give Cleveland a 7-0 lead. But the Texans took just four plays to even the score. QB David Carr hit TE Billy Miller for 21 yards on 3rd and 6 and on the next play, engineered a fake to RB Jonathan Wells before hitting WR Cory Bradford in the end zone. The Texans got the ball back and marched into Cleveland territory but the drive stalled and K Kris Brown pulled wide left on a 40-yard field goal attempt. Cleveland then pulled ahead to take the lead when K Phil Dawson booted through a 35-yard field goal to put the score at 10-7. The Texans answered when WR Jabar Gaffney lined up in the backfield and took a pitch from Carr. Gaffney then lofted a pass to a wide-open Bradford. The 39-yard scoring strike gave Houston a 14-0 lead. But Browns WR Andre Davis raced 95 yards to the end zone on the kickoff return to take a 17-14 lead. The Texans offense reached the Browns 27 on their next possession and Brown nailed a 47-yard field goal to tie the game at 17. Cleveland QB Tim Couch marched the Browns to the Houston 37, converting a 4th and 4 before hitting WR Quincy Morgan in the left corner of the end zone on the next play. The Texans managed to reach the Browns 29 but consecutive sacks forced a punt. Browns RB Jamel White rumbled 36 yards to the Texans 44 but the defense held, forcing a punt. The Texans went three-and-out and punted the ball back to Cleveland. Houston appeared to hold the Browns on 3rd and 8 from the Cleveland 45 but Texans DE Gary Walker was flagged for roughing the passer, giving the Browns a first down on the Texans 40. Dawson hit a 43-yard field goal a few plays later, increasing Cleveland's lead to 10 points with 5:20 remaining. Carr later fumbled deep in Texans territory, giving White the opportunity to pad the lead with a two-yard touchdown run.

SUMMARY

The Texans won their first first-ever road trip and first AFC South division game in a hard-fought 21-19 contest at Jacksonville. The victory snapped a five-game losing skid for Houston and brought their season record to 2-5. After exchanging punts, Jacksonville K Tim Seder missed a 50-yard field goal attempt while Houston K Kris Brown's 45-yard attempt sailed wide left. The Jaguars were finally able to break through the Texans defensive efforts early in the second quarter when QB Mark Brunell hit WR Jimmy Smith on a 25-yard touchdown strike to take a 7-0 lead. The Texans answered when QB David Carr led his troops 46 yards downfield where he hit TE Jabari Holloway on an 11-yard pass. Just one play later, RB Jonathan Wells took the ball three yards into the end zone to even the score at seven. Both teams were forced to punt on their next possessions but Houston P Chad Stanley's boot was blocked and bounced into the end zone for a Jaguars safety to increase their lead 9-7. With three seconds left in the first half, Seder was again called in for duty but missed from 35 yards out, his second failed attempt of the day. Texans TE Billy Miller caught a 37-yard pass en route to a 43-yard Brown field goal to begin the second half and put the Texans ahead 10-9. Seder booted a 34-yard field goal after the Jaguars capitalized on a Carr fumble, putting them back in the lead 12-10. Carr came back to engineer an 80-yard scoring drive highlighted by Miller's 40-yard reception to put the unit in the red zone. Miller followed with a one-yard touchdown catch to take the lead. Carr then hit WR Jabar Gaffney in the back of the end zone on the two-point conversion to put Houston ahead 18-12. Brunell led the Jacksonville offense 70 yards into the end zone where RB Stacey Mack's two-yard rush into the end zone put the Jaguars back in the lead 19-18. Houston's special teams came up big when Gaffney fielded Chris Hanson's punt at the Houston 20 before tossing a lateral to Aaron Glenn who returned it 47 yards into Jacksonville territory. RB James Allen added three rushes to set up Brown's 45-yard game-winning field goal. With two minutes remaining in the game, the Jaguars gave one last effort but Texans LB Kaile Wong led Houston's defensive stand and sacked Brunell twice as time ran out and the Texans took home a 21-19 victory.

SUMMARY

Cincinnati defeated Houston 38-3 to improve their record to 1-7, while the Texans dropped to 2-6. Houston got the ball first and had plenty of help from the Bengals en route to its initial points. Cincinnati CB Kevin Kaesviharn was flagged twice for pass interference on Texans WR Corey Bradford. Bengals OT Oliver Gibson was then hit with a 15-yard facemask penalty, which set up a 23-yard Kris Brown field goal to give Houston an early 3-0 lead. Cincinnati regained possession and marched down the field, settling for a 25-yard Neil Rackers field goal to tie the score. The Texans offense drove to the Bengals 5 but on 3rd and goal, Carr threw a pick to CB Artrell Hawkins who returned it 102 yards for a touchdown. Houston challenged the ruling, arguing that Hawkins stepped out of bounds at the Texans 24, but the touchdown stood. Cincinnati stopped the Texans and took over where QB Jon Kitna hit WR Michael Westbrook on a 26-yard touchdown reception. The Bengals offense struck again when Kitna threw a 33-yard touchdown strike to WR Peter Warrick with 42 seconds remaining in the half to give the Bengals a 24-3 lead heading into the locker room. The Texans offense wasn't able to produce any points in the second half while Cincinnati engineered a 13-play, 97-yard drive early in the fourth quarter with a 12-yard Kitna to Westbrook touchdown pass. The drive ate more than seven minutes off of the play clock and increased the Bengals lead 31-3. Kitna then threw his fourth touchdown pass of the day when WR Chad Johnson hauled in a 10-yard reception in the end zone to the win.

SUMMARY

The Texans fell to 2-7 after losing to the Tennessee Titans 17-10 at The Coliseum in Nashville. The Texans opened the game with a three-and-out but on Tennessee's second offensive play, CB Aaron Glenn picked off Titans QB Steve McNair, returning the theft to the Texans 48. The Texans moved the ball to the Tennessee 36 but Titans CB Andre Dyson sacked QB David Carr on a third-down blitz, forcing a punt. Tennessee had to start its second possession at its own 7, but the Titans marched down the field where McNair hit WR Derrick Mason on a 13-yard touchdown pass for an early 7-0 lead. On Houston's ensuing possession, Carr was intercepted by Titans CB Samari Rolle at the Texans 31. The Titans drove into Houston territory but Tennessee wasn't able to capitalize on the turnover after Joe Nedney's field goal attempt sailed wide left from 49 yards out. Carr and the offense went three-and-out next, bringing P Chad Stanley. But a bad snap and holding penalty gave the Titans field position on the Houston 43. The Texans defense halted their efforts and the Titans downed Craig Hentrich's punt at the 4. Houston C Steve McKinney fumbled a snap on the drive, turning the ball back over to McNair's charges. After a strong Houston defensive stand, the Titans settled for a 24-yard Nedney field goal to increase their lead 10-0. The Texans answered by moving the ball 41 yards on 12 plays to set up a 51-yard Kris Brown field goal to put the Texans on the scoreboard heading into the locker room at half-time. Just over four minutes into the second half of play, the Titans went seven plays for 66 yards when McNair hit TE Shad Meier on a 17-yard strike in the end zone to extend the Titans lead 17-3. After defensive stands from both squads and an interception from Texans CB Marcus Coleman, the Texans offense found the ball back in their possession, but weren't able to capitalize on the turnover. With just over five minutes remaining in the game, Houston's offense came alive when Carr hit FB Jarrod Baxter on a 10-yard touchdown reception to close the scoring gap 17-10. The Texans defense held strong, forcing a punt at the two-minute warning. But Houston's last scoring attempt in the final minutes of the game was unsuccessful.

SUMMARY

Houston dropped its third consecutive game and fell to 2-8 after losing to Jacksonville (5-5) 24-21. On the Texans second possession, QB David Carr saw his pass ricochet off WR Jabar Gaffney and into the hands of Jaguars FS Marion McCree. McCree raced 35 yards to the Texans 2 where Carr dragged him down. Houston's defense stopped Jacksonville on three successive plays but the Jaguars turned a 4th and goal into a one-yard Stacey Mack touchdown run to give Jacksonville a 7-0 lead. The Texans punted on their next possession and Jacksonville returned with two big pass plays; a 45-yarder to TE Pete Mitchell followed by a 30-yarder to WR Bobby Shaw to put the ball at the Texans 4. Brunell connected with TE Kyle Brady from two yards out to extend the lead 14-0. The Texans sliced that lead in half when Carr connected with WR Corey Bradford on a 52-yard scoring strike. Houston tried an onside kick but the Jaguars recovered at the Texans 47 and began to march down the field but Texans SS Eric Brown picked off Brunell at the one-yard line. The Jaguars defense held, forcing a Chad Stanley punt and then reached the red zone, settling for a 23-yard Tim Seder field goal to take a 17-7 heading into the locker room for halftime. Houston forced a three-and-out to start the second half but return man Jermaine Lewis fumbled the ensuing punt. Jaguars WR Micah Ross recovered at the Texans 27, setting up a Brunell to Jimmy Smith scoring pass to put the Jaguars lead to 17. The Texans answered after a pass interference call helped them reach the one-yard line where Carr would dive into the end zone to make the score 24-14. The Texans got the ball back with 7:26 and drove down the field where Carr recorded his second rushing touchdown of the day to bring the Texans within three points. K Kris Brown tried a quick pooch kick but the Jaguars recovered at their 39. The Texans defense held after LB Jeff Posey sacked Brunell to help give the reigns back to the Houston offense with 1:32 left. Jaguars DT John Henderson sacked Carr for a nine-yard loss while his fourth-down pass to Bradford was incomplete, sealing the Jaguars' win.

SUMMARY

The Texans captured their third win of the season and brought their record to 3-8 when they defeated the New York Giants 16-14 at Reliant Stadium. The Texans had the ball for six possessions while the Giants held onto it for five, all in the first quarter, while neither team amassed any points. Houston put up the first numbers of the game at the beginning of the second half when QB David Carr hit TE Billy Miller on a 42-yard reception to set up a 40-yard Kris Brown field goal, putting the Texans ahead 3-0. After each team exchanged two punts, the Giants took over and RB Tiki Barber raced 70 yards down the sideline to the Houston 16. Four plays later, he took the ball two yards into the end zone to give the Giants a 7-3 lead. With just under two minutes left in the first half, the Texans defense forced a Giants punt. New York snapper Bob Jones sent the ball sailing over P Matt Allen's head. Allen kicked the ball into the end zone and out of bounds to give the Texans a safety and put the score at 7-5 heading into the locker room. The Giants received to start off the third quarter and were forced to punt on a 3rd and 25 situation. Texans return man Jermaine Lewis returned Allen's punt 39 yards to the Giants 34. RB Jonathan Wells contributed with three runs on the scoring drive before punching the ball in from one yard out to put the Texans ahead 11-7. Carr found RB James Allen in the end zone for the two-point conversion, extending Houston's lead 13-7. On the Giants next position, a Kerry Collins to TE Jeremy Shockey connection set up K Matt Bryant's 33-yard field goal attempt. But the kick sailed just wide of the left upright to give the Texans the ball at their own 23. Houston was forced to punt, giving the ball back to the Giants, who engineered a 61-yard touchdown drive. Collins hit WR Amani Toomer on a 31-yard pass to put the score at 14-13 in favor of New York. On the next Houston drive, Brown split the uprights on a 50-yard field goal to put Houston back in the lead 16-14. The Texans defense held the Giants from posting any more points, largely in part by FS Matt Stevens and LB Jeff Posey's clutch fourth-quarter interceptions that helped seal the Texans' second home victory and third win of the season.

SUMMARY

The Colts defeated the Texans 19-3 at the RCA Dome to sweep the season series while the Texans fell to 3-9. Houston turned the ball over twice early. On their second possession, RB Jonathan Wells fumbled and Colts DE Chad Bratzke recovered at the Texans 17. But the Texans defense held serve, forcing Indianapolis to settle for a 31-yard Mike Vanderjagt field goal and 3-0 lead. Texans WRs Jermaine Lewis and Frank Murphy collectively bobbled the ensuing kickoff and the Colts recovered at the Texans 16. Colts QB Peyton Manning hit TE Marcus Pollard in the end zone on the next play to extend the lead 10-0. Manning marched the Colts into Texans territory again early in the second quarter where Vanderjagt hit a 46-yard field goal to give Indianapolis a 13-0 lead at the half. Manning hit WR Reggie Wayne for a 35-yard gain at the end of the third quarter, his longest completion of the day. But Wayne appeared to fumble as he went down at the Texans 1. CB Aaron Glenn recovered in the end zone and the play was initially ruled a touchback. But officials said that Wayne was down before the ball came loose. Colts RB James Mungro plunged in to the end zone from one yard out on the net play. After a failed two-point conversion, the Colts led 19-0. The Texans reached the Indianapolis 26 on their next possession but DE Dwight Freeney sacked David Carr for a 10-yard loss. Coupled with two penalties, Houston was pushed out of scoring range. Colts WR Troy Walters fumbled on the punt though and Texans CB Jason Bell recovered at the Indianapolis 21. K Kris Brown hit a 34-yard field goal to put Houston on the scoreboard.

SUMMARY

The Texans captured their fourth win of the season and second on the road with a dominant defensive performance that sealed a 24-6 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Steelers defense got off to a stellar start when LB Jason Gildon sacked QB David Carr twice in the Texans first offensive series. The Texans defense quickly answered when CB Kenny Wright picked up QB Tommy Maddox's fumbled ball and scampered 40 yards into the end zone to give Houston a 7-0 lead. Fellow CB Aaron Glenn picked up where Wright left off on the Steelers next possession when he picked off a Maddox pass and returned it 70 yards for a touchdown to extend the Texans lead 14-0. Soon after, Pittsburgh WR Antwaan Randle El dropped a 13-yard pass on the Houston 24. CB Jason Simmons recovered but the Texans offense wasn't able to capitalize on the turnover. With just 20 seconds remaining in the half, the Steelers were able to put points on the board when K Jeff Reed hit a 40-yard field goal. On the Steelers first drive of the second half, Reed was called in again and hit a field goal from 31 yards out to cut the Texans lead 14-6. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Reed came in to attempt a 43-yarder but the kick fell short of the uprights. On the next Pittsburgh punt, Texans return man Jabar Gaffney fumbled Josh Miller's kick and the Steelers took over on the Houston 25. Going for the end zone, the Steelers went for a first down on fourth-and-third, but Gary Walker and Jeff Posey combined to make a clutch sack, giving Houston the ball back. Houston LB Troy Evans recovered Randle El's fumble on the next Texans punt at the Houston 21 to give the Texans another scoring opportunity with under four minutes remaining in the game. K Kris Brown came in and split the uprights from 43 yards out to extend Houston's lead 17-6. Glenn further sealed a Texans victory when he intercepted Maddox's pass on the Steelers next possession and returned it 65 yards for his second touchdown of the day to finish off a 24-6 Houston win.

SUMMARY

The Texans fell to 4-10 after the Baltimore Ravens escaped Houston with a 23-19 win, keeping them alive in the race for the AFC North crown. On the Texans' second possession, Ravens SS Ed Reed picked off QB David Carr and returned it to the Houston 12. The Ravens settled for a 22-yard Matt Stover field goal to go ahead 3-0. The Texans immediately regrouped on offense with Carr completing five of six passes for 61 yards, including a 24-yard pass to TE Jabari Holloway to set up 1st and goal at the 1. RB Jonathan Wells punched into the end zone one play later to seal a 91-yard touchdown drive and give the Texans a 7-3 lead. The Ravens reached the Texans 5 on the next drive but stalled there as Stover booted a 22-yard field goal to cut the deficit to one. Baltimore regained the lead near the end of the first half when QB Jeff Blake lofted a 26-yard touchdown pass to WR Travis Taylor to put Baltimore ahead 13-7. On the Ravens' second possession of the second half, Blake connected with RB Chester Taylor in the end zone to extend Baltimore's lead 20-7. Houston's defense forced a Baltimore punt on the Ravens' next possession and Texans WR Avion Black returned it 76 yards for a score to put the Texans back within six points. Stover nailed his third field goal from 47 yards out on the next possession to give Baltimore a 23-14 cushion. Carr drove the Texans into the red zone on the ensuing possession, setting up a 41-yard Kris Brown field goal that trimmed the lead to six points. The Houston defense held on the next drive and Baltimore P Dave Zastudil ran out of the end zone for a safety, giving the Texans two points where they still trailed 23-19. Houston got the ball at its own 32 with 2:13 left but after two incompletions and an interception, the Ravens sealed the win in Reliant Stadium.

SUMMARY

The Texans dropped their last road game of the season with a 26-10 loss to Washington to make their record 4-11 going into the final game against Tennessee. Texans K Kris Brown scored the first points of the game when he split the uprights on a 46-yard field goal. The Redskins answered soon after when QB Patrick Ramsey hit WR Rock Cartwright on a 12-yard touchdown pass. After exchanged punts, Chad Stanley was called in when a stalled Texans offensive effort set him up to punt the ball out of the Redskins end zone. TE Billy Miller was called for holding in the end zone, which was ruled a safety, giving Washington a 9-3 advantage. On their next drive, Redskins K Jose Cortez's 48-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right, turning the ball over to the Houston offense. QB David Carr was intercepted on the ensuing drive by S David Terrell, who returned the pick 22 yards. The Redskins weren't able to convert the turnover into points and both teams again exchanged punts. Ramsey hit WR Derrius Thompson on a 13-yard touchdown strike after marching 80 yards to the end zone to put the Redskins ahead 16-3 at halftime. Cortez missed his second field goal of the day from 46 yards out to start the second half of play. Washington LB LaVar Arrington knocked the ball loose from Carr's hands on the Texans next possession, turning the back over to the Redskins offense. After exchanging punts, RB Ladell Betts punched the ball into the end zone from the 3 to extend the Redskins lead 23-3. In the fourth quarter, Texans LB Jimmy McClain got a piece of Craig Jarrett's punt, sending the ball into the end zone where FS Kevin Williams dove on top for seven points, cutting the lead 23-10. Washington then marched down the field 69 yards where Cortez kicked a 23-yard field goal to seal the Redskins' 26-10 victory.

SUMMARY

The Texans concluded their inaugural season with a 4-12 record after losing the season finale 13-3 to the AFC South champion Tennessee Titans. The Texans put together a solid first drive but after Texans K Kris Brown hooked a 50-yard field goal, the Titans took over at their own 40. Two plays later, Titans QB Steve McNair hit WR Justin McCareins on a 36-yard reception that set up a 28-yard Joe Nedney field goal. The Texans stalled at the Titans 10 on the next drive, bringing out Brown for a 19-yard field goal. But the kick was blocked by Titans SS Tank Williams. The Titans made another big play on special teams later in the second quarter when LB Rocky Boiman blocked a punt by Chad Stanley while the Titans recovered at the Houston 22. Houston's defense held firm, forcing another Nedney field goal from 26 yards out to give Tennessee a 6-0 lead. On Houston's second possession of the second half, the offense still couldn't punch the ball in the end zone, settling for a 31-yard Brown field goal. But Titans DT Albert Haynesworth was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct for trying to vault off a teammate to block the kick and the Texans were awarded the ball 1st and goal at the Titans 7. The Texans again went backwards and Brown came in again to nail a 42-yarder, putting the score at 6-3 in favor of the Titans. With just over eight minutes remaining in the game, McNair hit Tennessee WR Drew Bennett for a 53-yard pass and first down to set up a four-yard Eddie George touchdown run that sealed Tennessee's 11th win.

Texans Timeline

TEXANS TEAM HISTORY

1997

June 18: The NHL bypasses Chuck Watson and Bob McNair's efforts to bring an expansion hockey club to Houston. The pair moves on to their next project – returning the NFL to Houston.

July 3: Houston Oilers owner Bud Adams gets the green light to move his team to Nashville, Tennessee. U.S. District Judge Lynn Hughes signs the final consent judgment in the lawsuit against the team after all parties involved agree to a settlement.

October 15: NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue praises the early plans of Bob McNair and Houston for an expansion franchise at the NFL Owners' Meetings.

October 17: In reaction to Tagliabue's comments, officials from the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo (HLS&R) say they will push for the building of a domed stadium that the Rodeo will share with an NFL team, as opposed to renovating the Astrodome. It marks the Rodeo's first public statement in support of McNair's efforts.

1998

March 23: The NFL expansion committee awards an expansion team to Cleveland. McNair, Harris County Judge Robert Eckels and Mayor Lee Brown meet with Tagliabue for the first time as a group at the owners' meeting held in Houston.

May 7: Los Angeles-based entertainment broker Michael Ovitz announces he will spearhead a $750-million proposal to build a stadium in Carson, California, in an effort to bring the NFL back to L.A.

June 30: Tagliabue and NFL Stadium Committee head Jerry Richardson visit Houston to see plans for the city's retractable-roof stadium, meeting for several hours with McNair, Houston Sports Authority Jack Rains, Brown, Eckels and HLS&R president Jim Bloodworth.

September 25: The HLS&R votes unanimously to approve paying a $1.5 million annual lease to use the proposed retractable-roof NFL stadium.

October 27: Tagliabue announces that NFL owners will have a decision on the league's newest expansion team by April.

1999

February 16: The NFL Expansion Committee meets, but does not pick a winning bidder from the three finalists. Tagliabue says the decision will come within a month.

March 16: The NFL Expansion Committee votes 29-2 to give Los Angeles until September 15 to work out a feasible stadium and ownership plan. If L.A. cannot get a plan together, the committee will then recommend Houston for the 32nd franchise.

June 3: In a two-hour meeting with Tagliabue, McNair is encouraged to step up his efforts for an expansion team.

Texans Timeline

July 28: Los Angeles presents an exclusive negotiating agreement to the NFL but the league does not sign it, stating that it does not address the financial situation behind the New Coliseum at Exposition Park.

September 9: NFL executives tell the Houston group to be prepared to come to the owners' meetings in Atlanta on October 6.

September 28: Marvin Davis, one of the bidders for the Los Angeles franchise, bows out of the expansion race.

October 6: The National Football League owners vote 29-0 to award the 32nd NFL franchise to Houston and Bob McNair for a record amount of $700 million.

November: McNair and Houston NFL executives start the first of 40 separate focus group sessions, which eventually total 500 individual participants. The sessions are conducted not just in Houston, but in Galveston, Austin, Beaumont, San Antonio and Corpus Christi as well. Fans are asked for their opinions on the image of Houston and its surrounding areas, the image of the NFL and the expectations for the Houston franchise.

November 24: Houston NFL debuts "transition" logo, which serves as the organization's mark until a team name is selected, and the corresponding official logo, team colors and uniform are developed. The "transition" logo is created by NFL Properties, the New York-based licensing and marketing arm of the NFL.

2000

January 19: Houston NFL hires Charley Casserly as Executive Vice President/General Manager. Casserly comes to Houston after 23 years with the Washington Redskins, the last 10 as general manager. The Redskins captured Super Bowls XVII, XXII and XXVI during his tenure in Washington.

February: The National Football League begins researching and developing computerized designs for potential logos. Additional focus groups are conducted in Houston and San Antonio.

March 2: Houston NFL announces that its team name search has been narrowed to five choices: Apollos, Bobcats, Stallions, Texans and Wildcatters. The five names were determined after several months of research conducted jointly by Houston NFL 2002 and National Football League Properties. That research included multiple focus group studies performed in both English and Spanish in not only Houston, but also in numerous surrounding markets such as San Antonio, Austin, Galveston and Beaumont.

March 9: Houston NFL 2002 celebrates the official groundbreaking of the new stadium that will house the team when it begins play in 2002. The 69,500-seat state-of-the-art facility will be the world's first retractable-roof football stadium. Houston NFL 2002 will be a co-tenant of the new stadium with the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Participants in the groundbreaking ceremony include Bob McNair, NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo President Mike Wells, Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Commissioner Steve Hatchell, Houston Mayor Lee Brown, Harris County Judge Robert Eckels, Harris County Commissioner (Precinct 1) El Franco Lee, Harris County Sports & Convention Corporation Chairman Mike Surface and Harris County-Houston Sports Authority Chairman Billy Burge.

Texans Timeline

April: The list of five team names is shaved to three – Apollos, Stallions and Texans. Color logo designs are presented to focus groups for feedback.

August 10: McNair and other club officials view the final proofs of the selected team logo at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. NFL Properties conducts television and photo testing of the logo as well.

September 6: The NFL's 32nd franchise is officially christened the Houston Texans before thousands at a downtown rally on Texas Avenue. NFL commissioner Tagliabue introduces McNair, who then unveils his team's name, colors and logo to the crowd. The ceremony, televised live on ESPN2, includes simultaneous unveilings in Austin and San Antonio. McNair then heads to Enron Field, where he throws out the first "pitch" (actually a Texans football) to Houston Astros Owner Drayton McLane before the Astros play the Florida Marlins.

September 7: The Texans are honored by the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in Waco. Club officials present the Hall of Fame with a Texans helmet, football and other merchandise, which is placed in a display case in the football wing of the Hall of Fame.

October 26: Reliant Energy acquires the naming rights for Houston's new state-of-the-art football stadium and the sports, entertainment and convention complex currently known as the Astrodomain Complex. Reliant Energy's 32-year agreement to acquire the naming rights for five different buildings and the complex is the most comprehensive naming rights agreement in history. Reliant Park will be a partnership of mutual support between the Harris County Sports and Convention Corporation, the Houston Texans, RodeoHouston and Reliant Energy. The facilities at Reliant Park will include Reliant Stadium, Reliant Astrodome, Reliant Arena, Reliant Hall and Reliant Center.

November 1: At its owners' meetings in Atlanta, the NFL announces that Reliant Stadium will host Super Bowl XXXVIII on February 1, 2004.

Houston becomes the seventh city to host multiple Super Bowls. Rice Stadium hosted Super Bowl VIII in 1974. Jacksonville is awarded Super Bowl XXXIX and Detroit earns Super Bowl XL.

2001

January 21: The Texans introduce Dom Capers as the club's first head coach. Capers comes to Houston from Jacksonville, where he served the previous two seasons as the Jaguars' defensive coordinator. From 1995-98, Capers was the head coach of the expansion Carolina Panthers, leading the team to the NFC West title and a berth in the NFC Championship Game in 1996.

February 2: Chris Palmer is hired as the Texans' first offensive coordinator. Palmer spent the previous two seasons as head coach of the expansion Cleveland Browns.

May 22: The NFL formally unveils its realignment plan for the 2002 season at league meetings in Chicago. The league will feature eight four-team divisions. The Texans are placed in the AFC South with Indianapolis, Jacksonville and Tennessee.

Texans Timeline

June 12: Bob McNair and Titans owner Bud Adams each donate $100,000 to the Red Cross in an effort to aid Houston flood victims. NFL Charities matches the donation. More than 20,000 Houston-area families were displaced from their homes by raging flood waters the previous weekend.

August 15: The NFL announces its new schedule rotation for 2002. In addition to their home-and-home series with AFC South rivals Indianapolis, Jacksonville and Tennessee, the Texans will host Baltimore, Cincinnati, Dallas, the New York Giants and the fourth-place team from the AFC East in 2002. Houston will then travel to Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Washington and the fourth-place team in the AFC West.

September 25: The Texans unveil their team uniforms before a crowd of 12,000 fans in downtown Houston. Local dignitaries and numerous Texan celebrities join Bob McNair on stage for the ceremony. The Houston Texans Cheerleaders also make their debut.

November 5: The Texans hold their first player workouts, evaluating a group of defensive backs.

December 29: The Texans sign 10 players to the first contracts in club history. The team's first players are running back Michael Basnight, safety Leomont Evans, tackle Robert Hicks, defensive tackle Jason Nikolao, quarterback Mike Quinn, fullback Matt Snider, cornerback Jason Suttle, linebacker Casey Tisdale, safety Kevin Williams and tackle Jerry Wisne.

2002

January 14: The Texans hire former Indianapolis Colts defensive coordinator Vic Fangio as their first defensive coordinator.

March 4: The Texans execute the first trade in club history, shipping QB Danny Wuerffel to Washington in exchange for DT Jerry DeLoach.

March 6: The Texans sign their first unrestricted free agent, inking former Colts offensive lineman Steve McKinney.

March 25: The Texans launch their off-season program at Reliant Astrodome. All 65 players report.

April 20: The Texans select Fresno State quarterback David Carr with the first overall selection of the 2002 NFL Draft. Carr flies back to Houston from New York that afternoon to sign a seven-year contract. He is the first of 12 players Houston selects over seven rounds.

April 26: The Texans open their first mini-camp with 99 players, including 25 rookies.

April 28: The Texans launch their first Texans Outreach Tour, taking players to Austin, Beaumont, College Station, Corpus Christi and Lufkin over a five-day stretch.

July 20: Ninety-seven players report for the Texans' first-ever training camp. Camp is held at the club's training facility in Houston. The players go through conditioning drills the following day before hitting the practice field on July 22.

Texans Timeline

August 5: In their first preseason game, the Texans fall to the New York Giants 34-17 in the annual Pro Football Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio. Kris Brown kicks a 22-yard field goal for Houston's first points. TE Billy Miller and WR Sherrod Gideon follow with touchdown receptions.

August 10: The Texans record their first preseason win, defeating the New Orleans Saints 13-10 at the Louisiana Superdome.

August 24: The Texans open Reliant Stadium with a 24-3 preseason loss to the Miami Dolphins.

September 8: The Texans become the first NFL team in 41 years to win their expansion debut, stunning the Dallas Cowboys 19-10 before 69,604 at Reliant Stadium. QB David Carr throws two touchdown passes, including a 19-yarder to TE Billy Miller for the club's first-ever touchdown. DT Seth Payne sacks Cowboys QB Quincy Carter in the end zone for a safety to clinch the victory.

October 27: The Texans win on the road for the first time, defeating Jacksonville 21-19 at ALLTEL Stadium. K Kris Brown nails a 45-yard field goal with 2:11 left to provide the winning points.

December 8: Despite just 47 yards of total offense, the Texans shock eventual AFC North champion Pittsburgh 24-6 at Heinz Field. All three of Houston's touchdowns are scored by the defense – two interception returns by CB Aaron Glenn and a fumble return by CB Kenny Wright. The 47 yards mark the lowest output by a winning team in NFL history.

December 19: CB Aaron Glenn and DE Gary Walker are selected to represent the AFC in the 2003 Pro Bowl. It is the third selection for Glenn (1997, 1998) and the second for Walker (2001). The Texans tie the 1961 Vikings for the most players selected on an expansion team and become the first expansion club to be represented since the Saints in 1967, when all teams were required to have at least one player selected.

2003

February 2: CB Aaron Glenn and DE Gary Walker start for the AFC in the Pro Bowl and help their conference to a 45-20 win before 50,125 at Aloha Stadium in Honolulu.

February 13: Texans general manager Charley Casserly is named to the NFL's Competition Committee for the second time in his 25-year NFL career.

April 26: The Texans use the third overall selection of the 2003 NFL Draft to pick Miami WR Andre Johnson, who caught 22 touchdown passes in three seasons with the Hurricanes.

LEADING ORTHOPEDIC CARE

In life, some are naturally driven to lead. This is the spirit at Methodist, where you'll find the most comprehensive orthopedic program in the region.

Performing over 8,000 surgeries a year, the experience of these orthopedic surgeons is unparalleled.

These specialists are internationally distinguished in the research, diagnosis and treatment of bone and joint disorders—such as metabolic bone disease, scoliosis, and arthritis. And their minimally invasive joint replacement surgery for the hip and knee has improved countless lives.

Little wonder, Methodist has been named one of the country's top 100 orthopedic hospitals for two years in a row. For orthopedic problems—from common to rare—you want the leaders on your side.

Reliant Stadium

The city of Houston has always been on the cutting edge of stadium development. Houston first introduced the Astrodome, which opened in 1965 as the world's first dome stadium. The trend continued in 2002 with the debut of Reliant Stadium.

Reliant Stadium, the first NFL stadium with a retractable roof, opened for business on Aug. 24, 2002, as the Texans hosted the Miami Dolphins in their first home preseason game. Houston's regular season debut against Dallas on Sept. 8 was televised nationally on ESPN. The Texans stunned the Cowboys before a raucous crowd, unveiling a gameday atmosphere that would become a staple throughout the Texans' inaugural campaign.

The Texans averaged 69,915 fans over their eight regular season games at Reliant Stadium. A record crowd of 70,694 witnessed Houston's home finale against the Tennessee Titans on Dec. 29, marking the largest non-Super Bowl crowd in the city's history.

After the Texans conclude their second season at Reliant Stadium, the stadium will host the world's largest sports showcase. Super Bowl XXXVIII will be played at Reliant Stadium on Feb. 1, 2004, marking Houston's first Super Bowl in 30 years.

Reliant Stadium also hosted two major college football games in 2002. Oklahoma State defeated Southern Mississippi before a crowd of 44,687 in Reliant Stadium's first Houston Bowl on Dec. 27. Reliant Stadium also hosted the 2002 Big 12 Championship Game on Dec. 7. Oklahoma defeated Colorado 29-7 before a crowd of 63,332.

After the football season concluded, Reliant Stadium continued to host premier events. The Rolling Stones played before a packed house on Jan. 25. The Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo moved to Reliant Stadium in February, boasting acts such as Alabama, Ashanti, Bon Jovi, Julio Iglesias, Martina McBride, LL Cool J, George Strait and ZZ Top. The

Reliant Stadium

U.S. National Soccer Team hosted Mexico at the facility on May 8 in the two teams' first match since their 2002 World Cup meeting.

On March 9, 2000, ground was broken on Reliant Stadium, which stands makes it the largest in the NFL. Each concession stand has multiple televisions enabling Texans fans to stay on top of the action.

Reliant Stadium can also boast a larger than life scoreboard. Following the adjacent to Reliant Astrodome. The stadium, covering 1.9 million square feet, features 44,000 seats on the sideline. There are 8,200 club seats and 166 suites. The suites are the closest to the field in the NFL.

With the innovation of the retractable roof, Houston had outdoor NFL action last season for the first time since Super Bowl VIII at Rice Stadium in 1974. The roof is made of translucent Teflon-coated fiberglass fabric, and takes 10 minutes to open and close. When opening, the roof splits at the 50-yard line and docks in the end zones. The roof can withstand winds as strong as 140 miles per hour when closed and secured. The climate-controlled stadium also features a natural grass-playing surface. The grass is grown on eight-foot square trays then transported to the stadium.

Reliant Stadium features an open view of the playing field from the main concourse and on the club level. The main concourse is 40 feet wide, which trend that was started with the Astrodome scoreboard, Reliant Stadium houses two of the largest in the league. Both include out of town scores, down and distance, the game clock and a host of other traits. The video boards are the largest in the NFL.

The Texans' front office is located on the south end of the stadium, enabling the club's day-to-day operations to be under one roof. Players report to the stadium to take part in film sessions, practice, treatment and training. The 10,000-square-foot weight room is the largest in the league. The players can also take advantage of a three-lane lap pool.

Houston's working media has its own offices and library on the ground level of Reliant Stadium. Texans head coach Dom Capers conducts his weekly press conference in the media workroom. His post-game press conferences are held in one of the team's two media auditoriums on the ground level. The stadium's press box is located on the eighth level of the stadium's west side, flanking Kirby Drive.

Across the street, the Texans' training facility features three grass practice fields. One field is lit for night sessions during training camp. The Texans also have an indoor practice field outfitted with Field Turf. The air-supported structure offers the team a seamless transition from outdoor to indoor practice in case of inclement weather. The state-of-the-art facility also doubles as the team's training camp headquarters. The players and coaches report for camp on July 25.

THEN AND NOW

"We are still, in many ways, building on the concepts utilized by the Romans in 82 A.D. In fact, the Roman Coliseum had a retractable fabric roof that could be drawn manually by ropes and pulleys to cover the colossal stadium's seating bowl. The canopy's opening allowed the bright Italian sun to illuminate the savage events on the floor."

"Two thousand years later, Reliant Stadium in Houston, Texas, also offers a retractable fabric roof. But where the Romans used a hand-sewn white canvas and ropes and pulleys, Reliant Stadium uses puncture-resistant Teflon-coated fiberglass and laser-guided transporters that operate with the push of a button. The Romans held their finger in the air to determine wind speed and appropriateness of drawing the fabric closed, while Reliant Stadium has computer-operated weather sensors that determine approaching rain and high wind gusts to cross-coordinate operational speed against potential uplift."

Reliant Energy

Houston-based Reliant Energy is proud of its 100-year heritage of providing energy products and services to homes and businesses. Our residential division currently serves over 1.5 million Texas customers. The business divisions provide electric services to over 200,000 small-to-medium-sized companies, as well as customized, integrated electric commodity and energy management services to large commercial, industrial and institutional customers in Texas. In addition, we are currently expanding to serve business customers in several northeastern states.

Reliant Energy's wholesale energy business acquires, develops and operates electric power generation facilities that are not subject to traditional cost-based rate regulation and conducts commercial activities related to these assets. Currently we have nearly 20,000 megawatts of generation in operation in six regions of the U.S. and more than 2,400 MW under construction.

Reliant Energy in the community

Reliant Energy is committed to its tradition of community involvement and service through both volunteer activities and financial contributions. Our goal is to make a positive impact on the community and the environment, while fulfilling Reliant Energy's responsibility to provide reliable energy for the customers we serve.

Reliant Energy and the Houston Texans

Reliant Energy is proud to be the power behind the Houston Texans – and to have helped bring the NFL back to Houston. Reliant Stadium represents a major investment in the future of Harris County and Houston that will bring benefits to the region and enjoyment to Texans for many years to come.

Cheerleaders

The Houston Texans Cheerleaders debuted on September 25, 2001, in conjunction with the team's uniform unveiling ceremony. Since then, the squad has made numerous appearances in the greater Houston community each week on behalf of the Texans.

The 2003 squad will donate much of its time to community efforts and play a major role in the Texans Outreach Tour, Health & Safety Tour and the Big Brother/Big Sister Program. More information about the Houston Texans Cheerleaders and requests for involvement in public and charity events can be obtained by accessing www.houstontexans.com.

Texans in the Community

When Bob McNair began to form the league's 32nd franchise, he envisioned that both the Texans squad and organization would embody certain characteristics. The foundation of the team would reside in its character, attitude and enthusiasm. Those traits form the building blocks for success on and off the field.

The Texans take great pride in the greater Houston community. Whether showing their support through community, civic or charitable efforts, with the teamwork of coaches, players, cheerleaders, TORO and the front office staff, the Texans are able to impact those who are in need of assistance. The organization is committed to supporting the community that has been there to encourage and cheer on the Texans from the outset. Here is a glance of some of the club's continuing community efforts.

Texas Trek

The Texans made the trek to various cities throughout the state of Texas on their second Texans Outreach Tour. The tour visited hospitals, schools and Chamber of Commerce events. Texans players, cheerleaders and TORO appeared at local malls along the tour route to sign autographs and meet fans. Contests, promotions, prize giveaways and interactive games were also a part of the activities.

Stop, Drop and Roll

The Texans teamed up with The Methodist Health Care System to hold their second Health and Safety Tour. The tour is a program to educate elementary students on health and safety issues, involving one-hour assemblies in eight elementary schools around the Houston area. The assemblies included performances and lectures by the Houston Texans Cheerleaders and TORO while integrating interactive games and skits.

Draft Day Festivities

Fans flocked to the Texans' training facility on Saturday, April 26, to show their pride and share in the enthusiasm surrounding the 2003 NFL Draft. Those in attendance were able to take part in interactive games, hear live bands, register for prize giveaways and meet Texans players, TORO and the cheerleaders.

The day kicked off with the second annual Running of the Bulls 5K race, sponsored by The Methodist Health Care System. Race proceeds benefited the YMCA of Greater Houston and the Houston Texans Foundation.

Brush-A-Thon

WR Corey Bradford teamed up with a group of children from a local YMCA to participate in the Colgate-Palmolive Citywide Brush-A-Thon. Thousands of children around the city of Houston brushed their teeth in unison in an effort to raise oral health awareness.

Corey Bradford's good hands and technique help his teethbrushing, too.

Junior Player Development

The Houston Texans and the NFL kicked off their second Junior Player Development Program in March with the help of Texans players. The introductory tackle football instructional camp was sponsored by the Texans and took place at various locations throughout Houston with as many as 150 children at each site, four nights a week. Led by Madison High School coach Ray Seals, the 13-14-year old participants learned the fundamentals of football in a step-by-step progression with plenty of hands-on interaction, including a 30-minute competition at the close of each practice.

Gatorade Junior Training Camp

Houston Texans Gatorade Junior Training Camp returned in 2003 with over 15 schools on the tour that began in January and continued through the month of June. The Gatorade Junior Training Camp is a community outreach program designed to provide a fun opportunity for young fans to interact with the Texans. The program introduces the fundamentals of football through a curriculum of physical instruction and educational messages. These half-day camps, free to all boys and girls ages 8-15, take place during the school year, and along with the Junior Player Development Program, are part of the Texans' on-going goal to re-direct and increase participation in area football programs as well as strengthen the classroom skills of student athletes.

Texans in the Community

Texans Style Show

Texans players and their wives hit the runway for the first "Touchdown in the Community Style Show". The evening also included a VIP reception and silent auction that raised over $18,000 to benefit the Family Services of Greater Houston and the Houston Texans Foundation.

Thanksgiving Dinner

Several Texans players donned aprons and chef hats to dish up a pre-Thanksgiving meal to children at a Houston-area Boys and Girls Club. The food was provided by the Houston Food Bank's Kids Café, which provides nourishing, after-school snacks and regularly scheduled hot meals prepared on-site with the help of the children.

Take a Texan to School Day

The Texans partnered with the Houston Chronicle to create the Take a Texan to School Day contest, where students around the city wrote an essay explaining why they love the Texans. Eight Texan players escorted the essay contest winners to their classes for a day. RB Jonathan Wells visited St. Michael's Catholic School and spoke to the students on the importance of education and staying disciplined.

Read Across America

C Steve McKinney and OT Tony Boselli participated as celebrity guest readers at local schools in partnership with the Read Across America Program. The program is sponsored by the National Education Association, which encourages children to read and master basic skills. Read Across America is held annually on the birthday of renowned children's author Dr. Seuss.

Tony Boselli chills with some other cool cats.

The Gift of Life

The Houston Texans partnered with the Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center for the Houston Texans Citywide Blood Drive held in Reliant Stadium in October. Houston Texans Players, Cheerleaders and TORO were on hand to greet the 764 donors and sign autographs throughout the day.

Texans in the Community

The Texans showed their appreciation for our men and women in uniform at Fort Hood.

Donors received Houston Texans Blood Drive t-shirts and stress balls and were entertained by local high school bands.

Fort Hood

This past April, OT Tony Boselli, LB Jamie Sharper, TE Billy Miller and DE John Gilmore spent a day at Fort Hood where the troops treated them to a day of life on their army base. The players were able to get an up-close and personal experience with the impressive military artillery as well express their appreciation for the United States Armed Forces.

Tipping the Scales

The Texans teamed up with Campbell's Chunky Soup in the Campbell's Chunky/NFL Tackling Hunger campaign. Defensive linemen Gary Walker and Seth Payne were both weighed in and Campbell's donated 185,385 cans of soup to the Houston Food Bank based on the combined weight of the two players.

Texans in the Community

Hometown Huddle

Several Texans players participated in the NFL and United Way's Annual Hometown Huddle. In October, CB Aaron Glenn, LB Kailee Wong and FB Moran Norris joined the Students Together Achieving Results program at Cossaboom YMCA in Houston. The trio led the group in football drills and relay races before dividing into teams to build picnic tables for the YMCA.

Houston Texans Foundation

The Houston Texans Foundation is committed to encouraging and enabling all youth and families in Houston and the surrounding area to reach their full potential and to achieve success. We seek to assist through educational, financial, volunteer and collaborative support. The Foundation administers programs that develop strong minds and bodies, with an emphasis on leadership, integrity and character for the youth who will become the leaders of the next generation.

The Texans Foundation provides major financial support to The United Way of the Texas Gulf Coast, Sam Houston Area Council Boy Scouts of America, Girls Scouts of San Jacinto Council, Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, Harris County Precinct 1 Street Olympics and Youth Football Initiatives.

In addition, the Texans Foundation takes part in the Ikon All-Stars Ticket Program. The program enables approximately 3,000 youth between the ages of 9 and 17 to earn the privilege of attending a home game by organizing and completing a community service project and attaining set goals.

The Houston Texans Foundation also works closely with the NFL to administer programs to recognize outstanding community volunteers in the NFL Community Quarterback Awards, to provide academic coaches for selected high school football programs in the NFL Play It Smart Program, to encourage safe football practices and coaches clinics through the NFL Youth Football Fund and to participate in community outreach such as the NFL Hometown Huddle.

Texans Radio Network

Infinity Broadcasting Corporation signed a 10-year agreement with the Houston Texans in September of 2000. This agreement gave Infinity the exclusive right to broadcast Houston Texans Football games and produce numerous ancillary programs featuring the team. Infinity will simulcast all Texan games on Country station 100.3 KILT FM and SportsRadio 610 AM. Infinity Radio Houston stations Smooth Jazz 95.7 and Business Radio 650 will be promotional partners with the Houston Texans as well. The game broadcasts will include a three-hour pre-game show and a two-hour post-game show hosted by Rich Lord, Charlie Pallilo and Lance Zierlein on SportsRadio 610. Texans weekly guests on SportsRadio 610 include head coach Dom Capers, general manager Charley Casserly, cornerback Aaron Glenn and center Steve McKinney.

Marc Vandermeer was drafted last year for the Texans' inaugural season to be the "Voice of the Houston Texans". Vandermeer brings a solid 14 years of radio broadcasting experience to the booth. Prior to his work in Houston, Marc was the voice of the University of Miami Hurricanes football and basketball teams. He currently serves as a talk show host on SportsRadio 610 and does morning drive sports reports on 100.3 KILT. Joining Vandermeer in the booth to provide analysis is former Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware. Ware, a native Houstonian, played his college football at the University of Houston and was a first-round draft pick of the Detroit Lions. After his football career, Ware made the jump into the broadcast booth as color commentator for the Houston Cougars before moving on as analyst for SEC games broadcast on CBS.

SportsRadio 610 talk show host John Granato will handle sideline reporting during all Texans games. Granato has worked in television and radio with a wide range of experience. He currently serves as a co-host of SportsRadio 610's morning show.

Spanish Radio Network

KLAT "La Tremenda" 1010 AM

LA TREMENDA
KLAT 1010AM

KLAT La Tremenda is proud to be the flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Houston Texans for the second consecutive season. With 37.4 percent of Houston's 1.9 million people, Hispanics offer a huge fan base for the Texans. Since the team's inception, the Texans have realized the power of Hispanic Houston and recognized how many long-time fans they stand to gain. It's no wonder they turned to Houston's Heritage Spanish Station, La Tremenda, to reach these fans with their broadcast. So get your team spirit pumping, strap on the pads and ask yourself: Are you ready for some fútbol Americano?

La Tremenda 1010 AM is owned and operated by Hispanic Broadcasting Corporation, which owns 47 radio stations in 13 of the top Hispanic markets in the U.S. In Houston, they also broadcast KLTN-FM (102.9 FM, Estereo Latino), KOVE-FM (106.5 FM, KLOVE), KOBT-FM (100.7 FM, Orbita) and KPTY-FM (Party 104.9 FM).

An avid sports fan, Rolando Becerra will continue to serve as the play-by-play voice for the Texans on La Tremenda. Becerra is the only Hispanic commentator to have done play-by-play broadcasts for five major sports teams: the Houston Astros (1986-1992), the Houston Rockets (1988-1993), the Houston Oilers (1995-1997), the Houston Aeros (1999-2000) and the Texans (2002).

Becerra, originally from Cuba, began his radio career in Miami in 1973. He's been a Houston resident and radio constant for more than 20 years. You can also catch him on KLAT-AM as host of the "Rolando Becerra Show", which airs Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Becerra has been married to his wife, Jenny, for 33 years and they are parents of four children: Barbra, Jason, Jaron and Megan.

Enrique Vasquez returns to handle color commentary duties for Texans broadcasts on La Tremenda. Vasquez came back to the Houston football scene after a two-year run doing color commentary for the Dallas Cowboys, where he also did play-by-play in the late 1990s. He has also done sports broadcasting for Fox Sports, covering everything from basketball to Olympics to Super Bowls. Some Texans fans and La Tremenda listeners may remember Vasquez as one of the Spanish broadcast voices for the Houston Oilers from 1992 to 1995. Vasquez also writes a popular weekly column for the Spanish section of HoustonTexans.com.

Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.

Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).

Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for bending the elbow.

Bone scan - "Radionuclide Imaging," which is useful to demonstrate stress fracture not evident on routine x-rays.

Brachial Plexus - Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae running down the arm.

Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

C.P.R. - Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation; artificial establishment of circulation of the blood and movement of air into the lungs in a pulseless, non-breathing person.

Calcaneus - The heel bone.

Calf - Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavicle - The collar bone.

Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital - Existing before birth; to be born with.

Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortisone - An anti-inflammatory medication.

Costochondral - The cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration - Loss of body water.

Deltoids - Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.

Disc - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Echymosis - Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).

Medical Glossary

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).
Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.
Electrolyte - Ionized salts in blood, tissue fluids and cells including salts of sodium, potassium and chlorine.
Electrolyte Drink - Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.
EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.
Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.
Eversion - Turning outward.
Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.
Extensor - A muscle which upon contraction results in straightening a joint.
External Rotation - Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.
Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.
Femur - Thigh bone.
Fibula - The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.
Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.
Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.
Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.
Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.
Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.
Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phalangeal joint of the thumb.
Glenohumeral - The shoulder socket, containing the glenoid, the humeral head and the labrum.
Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).
Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.
Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.
Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.
Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.
Heat Cramps - Painful muscle spasms of arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolyte.
Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.
Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.
Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.
Hyperextension - Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.
Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide facial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.
Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.
Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.
Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.
Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.
Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).
Itis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).
Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.
Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.
Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Lumbosacral - Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.
Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.
Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.
Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.
Meniscus - Crescent shaped cartilage usually pertaining to the knee joint.
Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.
Metacarpals - Five long bones of hand, just below fingers.
Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.
Mobilization - Passive stretching movements performed by a therapist at a slow speed slow enough that a patient can stop the movement.
Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle.

Medical Glossary

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.
Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.
Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.
Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.
Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.
Osteomyelitis - An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.
Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.
Patella - The kneecap.
Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.
Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.
Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.
Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.
Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.
Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.
PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.
Quadriceps (Quads) - The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.
Radiography - Taking of X-rays.
Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.
Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.
Referred Pain - Pain felt in undamaged area of body away from actual injury.
Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.
S-C joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.
Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.
Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).
Scapula - The shoulder blade.
Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.
Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the cap.
Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.
Shin splint - A catch-all syndrome describing pain either in the front of the lower leg or on the inner aspect of the leg.
Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.
Spleen - Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.
Spondylitis - Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.
Spondylolisthesis - Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.
Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.
Sprain - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.
Stinger - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.
Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle of a tendon.
Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.
Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.
Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.
Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.
Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.
Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.
Talus - The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula.
Tarsus - Arch of foot.
Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.
Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.
Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.
Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.
Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.
Trachea - The windpipe.
Trapezius - A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.
Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.
Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.
Turf Burn - Abrasion resulting from contact with artificial turf in which one or more layers of skin are removed.
Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.
Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.
Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

Texans Media Policy

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Only credential requests from working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication will be honored credential requests. Credentials will not be issued to free-lance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. All credential requests must be submitted online at www.houstontexans.com/media/credential.cfm. Call (832) 667-2282 for more information.

PARKING: Parking for Texans games must be applied for via written request. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to media parking lots on gameday.

MEDIA ENTRANCE AND WILL CALL: The media entrance is located at the press gate on Murworth/Kirby intersection on the West side of the stadium. The will call window is located inside the press gate in the hallway next to the daily press workroom. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the credential will-call window. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers who are credentialed on a season-long basis for sideline access will be required to wear an armband. Photographers on a game-by-game basis will have a different credential. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for recognized or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct post game interviews will be given access to the Texans' and visiting interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE TEXANS LOCKER ROOM. With six minutes remaining in the game take the media elevator the field level. With two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, media members will be allowed on the field. NO INTERVIEWS ARE ALLOWED ON THE PLAYING FIELD. Dom Capers' post game interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Texans team meeting room across from their locker room. Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the multibox to ease congestion at the podium. Players also will be available approximately 10 minutes after the game when the locker room is open. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitor's interview room adjacent to the visiting locker room.

PRESS BOX: The press box phone numbers are (832) 667-2301 (Texans PR) and (832) 667-2310 (visiting PR).
