Robert C. McNair

Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Robert C. McNair is perhaps best known in the business community as the founder of Cogen Technologies, which was sold in 1999. Cogen was the largest privately owned cogeneration company in the world with aggregate capacity of 1,400 megawatts. Today, he retains ownership in a 345-megawatt plant in New York and a 50-megawatt plant in West Virginia.

McNair now serves as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of The McNair Group, headquartered in Houston, Texas, where he oversees an investment portfolio including cogeneration assets in the eastern United States. Mr. McNair also owns Palmetto Partners, Ltd., a private investment company that manages the McNairs' public and private equity investments, and is Chairman of the McNair Foundation. In June 2000, Mr. McNair formed a biotechnology investment firm, Cogene Biotech Ventures, where he serves as Chairman.

Committed to bringing a National Football League team to Houston, Mr. McNair formed Houston NFL Holdings in 1998. On October 6, 1999, the NFL announced that the 32nd NFL franchise had been awarded to Mr. McNair, returning football to the City of Houston in the year 2002 and Super Bowl XXXVIII in 2004. On September 8, 2002, the Houston Texans kicked off their Inaugural Season with a victory over the Dallas Cowboys – 19 to 10.

Mr. McNair's two football-related hires have been lauded throughout the league. He hired former Washington Redskins general manager Charley Casserly within three months of securing the franchise. Casserly helped build three Super Bowl winners over a 23-year career in Washington. Mr. McNair then hired Dom Capers as the first head coach of the Texans. Capers previously served as head coach of the expansion Carolina Panthers, leading them to the NFC Championship Game in just their second season of existence.

Those two hires paid immediate dividends in 2002 as the Texans won four games in their inaugural season. Houston defeated Dallas in its nationally-televised season opener, becoming the first expansion club to win its opening game since the 1961 Minnesota Vikings. The Texans also won at Jacksonville and upset the Giants and Steelers, both of whom eventually made the playoffs.

Despite facing a rash of injuries and the NFL's toughest schedule in the 2003 season, the Texans posted a 5-11 campaign in their second NFL season. Houston stunned Miami on the road to open the season, becoming the first expansion team in league history to win its first two regular season openers. The Texans also upset

Buffalo on the road and won three home games, including an upset victory over eventual NFC champion Carolina.

Stonerside Stable, a major thoroughbred horse farm in Kentucky, is also among McNair's successes. A 1,500-acre thoroughbred horse farm and racing stable, Stonerside is home to nearly 200 racehorses, broodmares, yearlings and weanlings. Since its inception in 1994, Stonerside has won 56 Graded Stakes races including Grade I wins in the Belmont, Breeders Cup Mile, the Travers, the Haskell, the Hollywood Gold Cup, the Cigar, the Carter, the Swaps, the Wood Memorial, the Matriarch and the Oak Leaf Stakes. Stonerside also has finished second and third in the Kentucky Derby and was the co-breeder of Fusaichi Pegasus, winner of the Derby.

Mr. McNair is a current or past member of the Boards of Trustees of a number of institutions including Rice University, Baylor College of Medicine, the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston Grand Opera, the Greater Houston Partnership, the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Free Enterprise Institute and the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

Mr. McNair is a member of the Texas Business Hall of Fame and a recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award, the Northwood University Outstanding Business Leader Award and the Association for Private Enterprise Education's Herman W. Lay Memorial Award. He recently received the Distinguished American Award from the Houston Chapter of the National Football Foundation and the Distinguished Citizen

Award from the Rotary Club of Houston. In April 2002 The South Main Center Association presented McNair with the prestigious City Builder Award. The Houston Advertising Federation honored McNair in November 2002 with the Annual Trailblazer Award recognizing him for significantly enhancing the overall image of Houston, both locally and globally. In April 2003 McNair received the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Sam Houston Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, and in May 2003 McNair received The Denton A. Cooley Leadership Award from the Texas Heart Institute. In November 2003 the McNairs received the Freedom's Foundation at Valley Forge National Award for Outstanding Patriotism, Responsible Citizenship and Community Involvement. The McNair Foundation was honored as the 2003 Outstanding Philanthropic Foundation at the National Philanthropy Day luncheon sponsored by the Association of Fundraising Professionals. In April 2004 McNair was honored with the Heart of Houston award from the Fifth Ward Enrichment Program. He also is a founder of the Cotswold project, a revitalization project focused on downtown Houston.

Born in Tampa, Fla., Mr. McNair has been a resident of Houston since 1960. He graduated from the University of South Carolina in Columbia in 1958 with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 1999, Mr. McNair received an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from the University of South Carolina.

Philip Burguières

Vice Chairman

Philip Burguières, one of Houston's most innovative leaders, serves as Vice Chairman of the Houston Texans.

Burguières also serves as Chairman and CEO of EMC Holdings, LLC, an investment management company specializing in oil services and exploration and production industries. Additionally, he serves as Chairman Emeritus of Weatherford International, an international energy company. Until 1996, Burguières was Weatherford International's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Prior to joining Weatherford in 1990, Burguières was Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Panhandle Eastern Corporation. He worked for 20 years at Cameron Iron Works, Inc., an international oil service company. Where he served as Chairman and CEO for ten years.

Burguières is on the board of directors at Newfield Exploration Company, Weatherford International and J.P. Morgan Chase. He also serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of The J.M. Burguières Co., Ltd. (a family-owned limited partnership). He is a member of the National

Petroleum Council, the World's President's Organization, is past president of the Petroleum Club of Houston, the Petroleum Equipment Suppliers Association and past chairman of the National Ocean Industries Association. In May of 2000, Burguières was awarded the prestigious Ima Hogg Award from the Mental Health Association of Greater Houston and was the 2003 recipient of the National Mental Health Association William Styron Award. He is a Director of Catholic Charities, The Mental Health Association, M.D. Anderson, The Texas Heart Institute and Menninger.

A native of Franklin, La., Burguières graduated with a bachelor's of science degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Louisiana, where a Chair in the engineering department has been named in his honor. He was a recipient of his alma mater's Outstanding Alumni Award in 1992. He served in the U.S. Navy for four years, reaching the rank of Lieutenant. Burguières received his master's in business administration from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business. He and his wife Cheryl have two children, Emily and Martial.

Charley Casserly

Senior Vice President and General Manager, Football Operations

To succeed in the NFL's salary-cap era, you have to make every player decision count. And when you're charged with ushering an expansion team into the mix, each of those decisions is magnified.

Charley Casserly knew that when he took the job as Houston's general manager, nearly 30 months before the Texans would even play a down. Now as the Texans enter their third season, it appears that Casserly has this team headed in the right direction. He has done so with big splashes, and also with subtle ripples.

Houston has a franchise quarterback in David Carr and one of the league's best young wide receivers in Andre Johnson. Both were conspicuous first-round picks. But the team's first 1,000-yard rusher — running back Domanick Davis — was a fourth-round pick. The Texans' leading receiver through their first two seasons — tight end Billy Miller — was a street free agent who didn't play in 2001. Three of Houston's biggest unrestricted free agent signings have quietly addressed the offensive line.

The Texans secured some big-name defensive players in the expansion draft, including two Pro Bowlers (cornerback Aaron Glenn, defensive end Gary Walker) and the NFL's leading tackler a season ago (linebacker Jamie Sharper). Houston also signed defensive tackle Robaire Smith away from division rival Tennessee this past March. But the Texans also signed strong safety Eric Brown during their first training camp. Trades landed linebacker Jay Foreman and defensive end Jerry Deloach, neither of whom has missed a start in Houston. And kicker Kris Brown, a restricted free agent signing, has made 35 of 49 field goals, including three game-winners.

In this year's draft, Casserly again maximized his team's resources with tremendous results. He stuck to his guns at No. 10, passing on some trade-down offers to stay put and select cornerback Dunta Robinson, who will start at right corner as a rookie. And when Casserly saw another potential starter floating on the board, he traded up, selecting outside linebacker Jason Babin with the 27th overall pick. The Texans also enter next year's draft with an extra third-round selection, thanks to Casserly taking a flyer on a sixth-round draft pick in 2003, selecting Yankees third baseman (and former Michigan quarterback) Drew Henson and eventually trading him to Dallas.

The Texans improved to 5-11 in 2003, losing five games they led in the fourth quarter and playing the league's toughest schedule based on their opponent's winning percentage. And they reside in arguably the NFL's toughest division, one which boasts each of the league's reigning co-MVPs. So the path to the postseason is a treacherous one. Casserly will be the first to admit that much. But his vision and creativity from his GM post have set the course for a bright future.

"We will win here in Houston," Casserly said. "The tools are in place. We have a great owner, great coach, great facilities and one of the best places to live in this country. It's just a matter of everybody working together to see this through."

Texans owner Bob McNair hired Casserly on January 19, 2000, as Senior Vice President/General Manager of Houston's NFL expansion franchise. He heads all football operations for the club.

"We were so fortunate to be able to attract a world-class football man like Charley Casserly," McNair says.

Casserly enters his third season — but fifth year — with the Texans after a highly-successful

"Charley knows the personnel business. He's a hard worker and has what it takes to be successful. He's also a good person."

— Dan Rooney, Pittsburgh Steelers owner

23-year stint with the Redskins. In Washington, Casserly was known for his tireless work ethic and a keen eye for football talent, traits that continue to serve him well in Houston. Washington went to four Super Bowls during Casserly's tenure, winning three. NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue recently appointed him to the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee for the second time.

Casserly famously started with the Redskins in 1977 as an unpaid intern under Hall of Fame coach George Allen. Washington hired Casserly as a scout the next season and during his early years as a scout, he unearthed free agents Joe Jacoby and Jeff Bostic, who were original members of the famed "Hogs" offensive line and key components of Washington's first two Super Bowl teams. Jacoby was selected to four Pro Bowls and Bostic made one trip to Honolulu. The Redskins elevated Casserly to assistant general manager in 1982 and the club went on to capture its first Super Bowl. That year, Casserly also re-instituted the club's intern program, which has produced more than 20 league executives over his years in Washington and Houston.

In 1987, Casserly faced perhaps the biggest challenge of his Redskins career when NFL players went on strike. League owners decided on replacement players, sending personnel men scrambling to fill roster spots. With about a week to assemble a full complement of replacement players, Casserly put together a team that won all three of its games before the strike ended, including a Monday Night win against a Dallas team that featured a number of its star players. That experience was the subject of the Warner Bros. feature film, "The Replacements," starring Keanu Reeves and Gene Hackman.

When he was elevated to GM in 1989, Casserly sustained the Redskins' history of uncovering high-quality players in the later rounds of the draft. He used a fifth-round pick in 1990 to select Southwest Louisiana quarterback Brian Mitchell. Washington then converted Mitchell to a running back/kick returner, where he later joined Jim Brown as the only players in NFL history to lead the league in combined net yards four times. In 1996, Casserly plucked Auburn running back Stephen Davis in the fourth round. Davis paced the NFC in rushing in 1999 with 1,450 yards. Casserly also drafted future Pro Bowlers wide receiver Keenan McCardell (12th round, 1991) and tight end Frank Wycheck (sixth round, 1993).

And during the 1999 off-season, Casserly made moves that immediately benefited the Redskins. First, he traded three draft choices to Minnesota for signal-caller Brad Johnson. The eight-year veteran responded with a Pro Bowl season in 1999, throwing for 4,005 yards and 24 TDs. (Johnson eventually led the Bucs to a championship, meaning Casserly traded for both Super Bowl XXXVII quarterbacks – he traded for current Raiders quarterback Rich Gannon in 1992.)

Casserly then fired the shot heard 'round the league on draft day, acquiring all of the New Orleans Saints' 1999 selections, plus their first and third-round picks in 2000. To do so, Casserly simply swapped the Redskins' fifth selection in the first round for New Orleans' 12th choice. He still managed to obtain the player that Washington wanted, ultimately selecting future Pro Bowl cornerback Champ Bailey with the seventh pick in the first round. In part for those efforts, Sports Illustrated, Pro Football Weekly and USA Today named Casserly their Executive of the Year.

Casserly is determined to build a similar track record in Houston. He has already crafted one of the league's best scouting staffs and his football staff can boast 28 Super Bowl rings.

"The scouting staff is crucial for any expansion franchise," Casserly says. "Mr. McNair has provided us the means to assemble one of the most experienced staffs in the NFL."

Casserly's first order of business was the 2002 expansion draft, which produced eight eventual starters. He then pulled the trigger on Carr, ensuring the club a franchise quarterback for seasons to come. The 2003 draft focused on offense and Casserly honed in on defense this past April as the team's first seven picks were on that side of the ball.

Casserly began his career as an assistant coach at Cathedral High School in Springfield, Massachusetts, from 1969-72 before moving to a similar post at his alma mater, Springfield (MA) College from 1973-74. He returned to Cathedral High School to serve as the school's athletic director for two years before becoming head football coach at Minnechaugh High School from 1975-76. He holds a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in guidance from Springfield College, where he also played football. He is a member of the Springfield College Sports Hall of Fame.

A native of River Edge, N.J., Casserly and his wife of 24 years, Beverley, have a daughter, Shannon, who is attending Southern Methodist University. The family lives in Houston.

"Charley brings to the committee a wealth of experience and a comprehensive knowledge of the game."

— NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue on Casserly's appointment to the league's competition committee.

Jamey Rootes

Senior Vice President, Chief Sales & Marketing Officer

5th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Jamey Rootes accepted the position of Vice President Sales & Marketing of the Houston Texans in February 2000 and was promoted to Senior Vice President in May of the same year. Now, as Chief Sales & Marketing Officer, he is responsible for all revenue generating and branding activities of the team. Since joining the Texans, Mr. Rootes has overseen the team's efforts to secure stadium naming rights and sponsorship, coordinated radio and TV broadcasting relationships, engineered the club's successful PSL and suite sales campaigns, led the successful launch of the team's identity, and helped develop the team's highly-acclaimed customer service strategy.

Since their inaugural season, the Texans have earned several distinctions, including the American Marketing Association's "Crystal Award" for the best overall marketing campaign and J.D. Power & Associates recognized the team for providing the best fan experience in the NFL. Also, Sports Business Daily and the University of Massachusetts-Amherst's Sports Management Department recognized the Texans with the 2002-2003 PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major league professional sports team based on business excellence criteria.

In 2003, Rootes assumed a number of new duties at the Texans, including management of senior executive relationships with key Texans business partners, coordination with the NFL and Houston's Host Committee regarding Super Bowl XXXVIII, and management of gameday service delivery. Rootes and his team created a novel service initiative (the S.T.E.P. Program) to guide off-season event planning and development activities, which has helped the Texans and Reliant Stadium achieve league-leading customer service scores from fans and professional "secret shopper" services.

Rootes also oversees Lone Star Sports & Entertainment (LSSE), an event management and business development company affiliated with the Texans that manages non-Texans events in Reliant Stadium. In this capacity, he has helped secure such marquee events as the U.S. vs. Mexico soccer match on May 8, 2003, which drew the largest soccer crowd in Texas history and was named the best soccer crowd of 2003 by U.S. Soccer. LSSE also hosted the largest crowd of the 2004 Interliga Copa Libertadores qualification tournament with over 30,000 attendees on January 11, 2004.

In 2002 and 2003, Rootes was selected by Sports Business Journal as a member of their distinguished "Forty Under 40" list of leading sports executives, and in 2003, Rootes completed Harvard University's prestigious General Manager Program.

In the community, Rootes serves on a number of community boards and committees, including the Greater Houston Partnership, Houston Downtown Alliance, Junior Achievement Teach For America and the South Main Center Association.

A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Rootes attended Clemson University and was a member of the Tigers' soccer team that captured two NCAA titles and served as Student Body President. While earning an MBA at Indiana University, he served as an assistant soccer coach for the Hoosiers. Mr. Rootes has previously held marketing and sales positions at IBM and Procter & Gamble and was President and General Manager of the Columbus Crew in Major League Soccer before joining the Texans. Rootes lives in West University with his wife Melissa and their children, Christopher and Caroline.

Scott E. Swinger

Senior Vice President, Treasurer & Chief Financial Officer

5th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Scott Swinger was named the Texans' Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer in August 2000. He was promoted to his current position in May 2001.

For the past 10 years, Swinger has held positions with various companies owned, directly or indirectly, by Robert C. McNair, including Vice President of Palmetto Partners, Ltd. and Cogene Biotech Ventures, L.P., both private equity investment companies, and Cogen Technologies, an independent power company. Swinger also serves as Managing Director of EMC Holdings, L.L.C., a private energy investment fund.

Swinger oversees a staff of more than 20 and is responsible for financial reporting, budgeting, cash management, risk management, management information systems and all debt and equity financings of the Texans and the other McNair Group companies. He provided the financial analysis support in the effort beginning in 1998 to bring professional football back to Houston. Swinger also served on the Houston Super Bowl XXXVIII Host Committee, Inc. In addition, he provides investment management oversight, venture capital due diligence, and negotiates deal structuring for Cogene, Palmetto, and EMC.

Since the award of the team in 1999, Swinger has successfully coordinated and structured debt financings totaling $350 million, one of the largest and most successful financings to date for a professional sports team.

Swinger received a Bachelor of Arts in mathematics from Vanderbilt University and a Master's of Business Administration from the University of Texas at Austin. In the community, he serves on the boards of the Wiess Energy Hall at the Houston Museum of Natural Science, the YES College Preparatory School, and The Endowment Fund. He and his wife, Becca, both native Houstonians, are the parents of son, Corbin, and daughter, Cara.

Suzie Thomas

Senior Vice President, General Counsel & Chief Administrative Officer

5th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Suzie Thomas joined the Houston Texans in March 2000. She also holds positions with various other entities in The McNair Group.

Thomas previously served as General Counsel and Vice President of Human Resources of Corporate Brand Foods America, Inc., a meat processing business that was subsequently purchased by Tyson Foods, since October 1998.

Prior to CBFA, Thomas spent 16 years at Weatherford International, Inc., an international energy service and manufacturing company, the last 12 years as Senior Vice President and General Counsel. She started her legal career as an associate attorney at Baker Botts L.L.P. in Houston.

Thomas earned her law degree from the University of Houston's Bates College of Law. She earned her undergraduate degree in Spanish from the University of Texas. Thomas is a member of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas, where she served as Chair of the Corporate Counsel Section from 1994-95. Thomas also serves as a director of and General Counsel to Child Advocates, Inc. She and her husband, Ray White, live in Houston.

Tony Wyllie

Vice President, Communications

12th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Tony Wyllie is entering his fifth season with the Texans and his 12th in the NFL. He was hired as Vice President of Communications by the Texans in the summer of 2000 and is responsible for shaping and molding the image of the team in the public and the community. He serves as the Texans' liaison between the local and national media and the Texans' front office, coaches and players. Wyllie coordinates all interviews and generates publicity for the club while serving as the club's spokesman. He also oversees the Texans' public relations, community relations, internet and publications departments.

Wyllie began his NFL career as a game day intern with the Houston Oilers in 1991 before working as a summer intern with the San Diego Chargers PR department in 1992. He spent 1993 as an intern in the PR department with the Dallas Cowboys, earning a Super Bowl ring before heading west to Los Angeles to work with the Los Angeles Rams as the assistant director of public relations. Wyllie moved with the team to St. Louis in 1995 and became the youngest PR director in the NFL three years later when the Tennessee Oilers hired him in 1998. He picked up an AFC championship ring with the Titans in 1999 before joining the Texans staff in 2000.

Three times Wyllie has been part of a staff that has earned the Pete Rozelle award, which is presented annually by Pro Football Writers of America to the outstanding NFL public relations staff. The Rams earned the award in 1997, the Titans won it in 2000, and the Texans were the most recent honoree. He also was chosen by the NFL to work the 1996 and 1997 NFC Championship games, the 1999 Pro Bowl in Hawaii and the last four Super Bowls. In 2000, Business Nashville magazine named Wyllie to its top 40 under 40 list.

Wyllie serves on numerous Board of Directors including the Ensemble Theatre in Houston and the Touchdown Club of Houston. He also served as a sub-committee chairman on Houston's Super Bowl XXXVIII host committee. He also is member of Houston Association of Black Journalists, a sports task force officer with the National Association of Black Journalists and a 1987 initiate of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

Wyllie worked three years in the sports information department of Texas Southern University, where he received his degree in journalism. In college, Wyllie also was a part-time reporter for the Houston Chronicle, Houston Post and Associated Press.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Wyllie grew up in Northwest Houston and attended Cy-Fair High School.

John Schriever

Vice President, Ticket Operations

5th NFL Season 5th with Texans

John Schriever is entering his fourth year with the Texans and his 20th in the professional sports industry. During his career, Schriever has been part of the sales and service of more than 28 million tickets to sporting events. He started with the Texans in July of 2000 as director of ticket operations and was promoted to vice president in July 2003. Schriever oversees all aspects of ticketing for the Texans, including the sales and service of PSLs, suites, season tickets, group and individual game tickets.

Schriever began his sports business career with the Texas Rangers Baseball Club in 1984 as a season ticket sales intern. By the 1989 season, Schriever had been promoted to director of ticket operations. During his 12 seasons with the Rangers, the team was purchased by an ownership group headed by George W. Bush, acquired Nolan Ryan, closed Arlington Stadium, opened The Ballpark in Arlington and hosted the 1995

Major League Baseball All-Star Game.

During the summer of 1996 Schriever worked with the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games at the Summer Olympics. He worked in ticketing as a customer service manager at Fulton County Stadium and Olympic Stadium.

Following the Olympic games Schriever took the position of director of tickets for Texas Motor Speedway in Ft. Worth, Texas. He was part of the management staff that opened the Speedway in the spring of 1997. The speedway debuted that year with a crowd in excess of 200,000 for its inaugural Winston Cup race.

Schriever is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas, where he earned a degree in business management. John and his wife, Dana, who owns a degree in teaching from the University of Texas in Austin, have two children, Nicholas and Sarah.

Marilan Logan

Controller

24th NFL Season 4th with Texans

Marilan Logan joined the Texans as the team's controller in February 2000. She is responsible for maintaining the team's financial records.

Logan came to the Texans after serving as controller/treasurer for the Houston Aeros Hockey Club, Aerodromes Ice Rinks and Houston Aeros Foundation for two seasons. Prior to joining the Houston Aeros Logan was the controller for the Houston Oilers (now Tennessee Titans) from 1978-97. Her responsibilities included accounting for player contracts, maintaining the club's financial records and aiding club management with special projects. Prior to the Oilers, she was a cost accounting specialist for Reed Tool Company.

Marilan and her husband, Rick have a daughter, Sandy, two sons Jeff and Roy, and two grandsons Kyle and Todd. The couple resides in Kingwood.

Dom Capers

Head Coach

19th NFL Season 4th with Texans

The Panthers can reach the Super Bowl two seasons removed from a 1-15 campaign. The Raiders can plummet to 4-12 just 11 months after a Super Bowl appearance.

Today's NFL has become a virtual roller coaster ride that thrills fans and drives coaches batty. The difference between winning and losing is so slim that yesterday's ugly ducklings can quickly transform into swans. And vice versa.

The Texans finished their second season under head coach Dom Capers 5-11, a modest one-game improvement from their 4-12 expansion voyage. Modest, perhaps, on paper. But when you dissect Houston's 2003 campaign, you come to the conclusion that Capers and his staff produced a rather remarkable season.

First off, the Texans tied Buffalo for the toughest schedule in the NFL. Houston's opponents boasted a .570 winning percentage and the Texans played seven games against playoff teams, including both Super Bowl XXXVIII participants. Secondly, the Texans battled a staggering amount of attrition as 17 players landed on injured reserve, including five opening day defensive starters.

And finally, 10 of Houston's Sundays came down to the fourth quarter and the Texans had a fourth-quarter lead in five of their 11 defeats. They upset NFC champion Carolina, kicked a field goal to win at Miami and defeated Jacksonville on the game's final snap. They also lost in overtime to Super Bowl champion New England and dropped last-second heartbreakers to Tennessee and Indianapolis.

In short, what the Texans learned most in 2003 is that the difference between a 5-11 season and an 11-5 season in today's NFL is slight. The Texans now have to figure out how to bridge that gap in 2004.

"I know that season was a big test for all of us," Capers says. "I liked the character of our football team because you find out what people are made of, especially when you're tested the way we've been tested."

"We've won some close games, but we haven't shown we can win the close games against those top teams. That's the next step."

If so, then Capers is the right man to help the Texans take that collective step. In the face of his second expansion project, Capers' legendary work ethic and attention to detail continue to flourish. Those qualities have rubbed off on the Texans, from the players to the coaches to the staff. Ask most and they will say that success will follow Dom Capers in Houston. In many ways, it already has.

The Texans boast a young offense that has the potential to be one of the best in the league. Quarterback David Carr already has 29 starts under his belt at age 25. Second-year running back Domanick Davis is coming off a 1,000-yard season that earned him NFL Rookie of the Year honors. Wide receiver Andre Johnson caught 66 passes for 976 yards as a rookie. And Houston's offensive line cut its sack total by 40 from 2002 to 2003.

The Texans' defense still boasts two Pro Bowlers in cornerback Aaron Glenn and defensive end Gary Walker. Linebacker Jamie Sharper led the league in tackles in 2003 with 195, while cornerback Marcus Coleman enjoyed a career season with seven interceptions and 23 passes defensed.

Even as they toil in arguably the league's toughest division, success for the Texans is there for the taking. Capers knows it, and is determined to keep his team's focus.

"Every team in this league is either going to get better or they're going to get worse," he says. "There is no easy way. As much as you'd like to snap your fingers and make it happen, immediately it just doesn't happen. It's a step-by-step process you have to go through. There are no quick fixes, but I do believe that we've established a good, solid foundation."

The Texans introduced Capers as their first head coach on Jan. 21, 2001. Capers served as the defensive coordinator for the Jaguars during the 1999 and 2000 seasons. Prior to his stint in Jacksonville, he spent four seasons as head coach of the Panthers, guiding that expansion franchise from its infancy to a playoff berth.

In his first season in Houston, Capers helped the Texans win four games, including a stunning season-opening win over Dallas at Reliant Stadium. Houston became the first expansion entry to win its regular season debut since the 1961 Vikings. The Texans later beat the Jaguars and two eventual playoff teams, the Giants and the Steelers. Glenn and Walker became the first Pro Bowlers from an expansion team since the 1970 merger.

But expansion success was nothing new to Capers, who compiled a 30-34 record in four seasons with the Panthers. The Panthers' 7-9 record in 1995 set an NFL mark for most victories by an expansion team. Carolina also posted the first four-game winning streak in expansion history, the first winning home record by an expansion club and the first win over a defending Super Bowl champion (San Francisco) in expansion annals.

In 1996, the Panthers shook up the league by winning their final seven regular-season games, resulting in a 12-4 record and the NFC West title. Carolina then defeated defending Super Bowl champion Dallas in the divisional playoffs before bowing to Green Bay in the NFC Championship Game at Lambeau Field. The Panthers, riding a defensive unit that ranked second in the league in points allowed, posted a 9-0 home record (including playoffs). Eight Panthers played in the Pro Bowl. Capers was named Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, among numerous other honors.

The Panthers posted records of 7-9 and 4-12 the next two seasons, resulting in Capers' dismissal. The Jaguars signed him six weeks later and the hiring paid immediate dividends.

Guts and Glory

Capers earned Staples NFL Coach of the Week honors last Sept. 28 after making a spirited call at the end of Houston's game against Jacksonville. Trailing 20-17 with two seconds left, the Texans had the ball on the Jaguars' 1. Instead of kicking a field goal and taking his chances in overtime, Capers called for a quarterback sneak. David Carr leaped over the goal line to give the Texans a 24-20 win. "I'm glad Coach has the confidence in us to call plays like that," guard Zach Wiegert said after the game.

Under Capers, the Jaguars improved from 25th in the NFL in total defense in 1998 to fourth in 1999. Jacksonville also yielded the fewest points (217) in the NFL, an average of 13.6 points per game. Since the advent of the 16-game schedule in 1978, only 11 teams had allowed fewer points in a season. Capers' unit set club records for sacks (57) and interceptions (19), while tying the team mark record for takeaways (30). Three Jaguars defenders made the AFC Pro Bowl squad (defensive end Tony Brackens, linebacker Kevin Hardy and safety Carnell Lake), marking the first time any Jacksonville defensive player had earned a trip to Honolulu. Capers was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Writers of America/Pro Football Weekly and USA Today.

In 2000, the Jaguars ranked 12th in the league in total defense and again tied the club single-season record for takeaways with 30.

Capers arrived in Houston one year before the Texans began building their roster, a luxury he did not have in Charlotte. The early start enabled him to formulate a long-term plan for consistent success. Capers' attention to detail is legendary in league circles. He has recorded the date, time and details about every event in his day since his late father, Eugene, gave him his first leather-bound notebook for Christmas in 1981.

"He was my toughest critic, but also my biggest supporter," Capers said. "And he always believed that you got back out of things what you put into them. If you come in every day, expend all the energy you have and do things right, opportunities will present themselves."

"Since the first day I started coaching, that's the approach I've tried to take."

Capers cut his NFL teeth with veteran NFL head coach Jim Mora. After winning two USFL titles with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, Mora accepted the Saints' head coaching position in 1986 and brought Capers along with him as defensive backs coach. Capers served in that capacity through the 1991 season, helping the Saints to the first three playoff berths in franchise history.

Capers then accepted the defensive coordinator's post with the Steelers, helping the team win two AFC Central titles. In his three seasons with the Steelers, no team in the NFL yielded fewer touchdowns. Linebacker Greg Lloyd and Cornerback Rod Woodson made three consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl under Capers' watch.

Capers began his coaching career in 1972 at Kent State, where he was a graduate assistant for three seasons while earning a master's degree in administration. In 1975 he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Washington. Capers became a full-time coach the following year, and then matriculated to Hawaii, San Jose State, California, Tennessee and Ohio State.

Capers was born August 7, 1950, in Cambridge, Ohio, and he was raised in nearby Buffalo, Ohio. He was a star athlete at Meadowbrook High School. He graduated with a degree in physical education and a minor in psychology from Mount Union College in 1972, where he played a combination of safety-linebacker.

Capers hosts an annual charity golf tournament in the Buffalo, Ohio, area which has raised thousands of dollars for the American Heart Association. He and his wife, Karen, live in Houston.

Fearsome Foursome

"I think the Texans might be really good next year. What a division the AFC South will be in 2004: the Colts will be better yet with more defensive improvements; the Titans will continue being the Titans; the Jags are finishing this year really strong and Byron Leftwich is gaining all this experience; and the Texans will have a good back (Domanick Davis) and great aerial connection (David Carr-to-Andre Johnson)."

Vic Fangio

Defensive Coordinator
19th NFL Season 3rd with Texans

club's 3-4 defensive scheme.

Fangio came to Houston after serving in the same capacity for the Indianapolis Colts the previous three seasons. Fangio led the defense to major improvements in all statistical categories, which helped the Colts post a 23-9 record over the 1999-2000 seasons after posting a 6-26 record the two previous campaigns. Indianapolis also won its first division championship (1999) in 15 seasons and posted its best two-year record since moving from Baltimore in 1984. In Fangio's first season in Indianapolis, the Colts jumped from 29th in the league to 15th in total defense. His 2000 defense racked up 42 sacks, the most for the Colts in 11 years, and ranked 15th in points allowed.

Several veterans still produced outstanding seasons in 2003, most notably linebacker Jamie Sharper, who led the NFL with 195 tackles. Cornerback Marcus Coleman also turned in a career season with seven interceptions and 23 passes defensed.

In 2002, the Texans ranked eighth in the AFC in total defense and fourth in the conference in pass defense despite lining up for the second-most defensive series in the NFL. The Texans also ranked seventh in the league in third-down defense, eighth in red zone defense, fourth in penalties and ninth in yards per play.

Fangio's troops helped the Texans stay competitive throughout their inaugural campaign, turning in huge performances in the team's season-opening win over Dallas and subsequent late-season upset victories over the Giants and Steelers. In the remarkable 24-6 win at Pittsburgh, Houston's defense scored all three of the team's touchdowns. Overall, seven of the Texans' defensive starters posted career highs in tackles, even though none of the starters had played in the under veteran NFL head coach Jim Mora, his head coach in Indianapolis. Mora hired Fangio as a defensive assistant for the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars in 1984. After winning two USFL titles, Fangio followed Mora to the New Orleans Saints as outside linebackers coach for eight seasons. He spent 1994 as the Saints' linebackers coach. During his tenure in the Crescent City, Fangio helped five different linebackers — Rickey Jackson, Vaughn Johnson, Sam Mills, Pat Swilling and Renaldo Turnbull — reach a combined 16 Pro Bowls. The Saints' defense cracked the league's top 10 in total defense four times and the NFL's top 10 in rushing defense six times, including a first-place finish in 1989. New Orleans advanced to the playoffs for the first time in 1987, making return trips in 1990, 1991 and 1992.

Fangio launched his coaching career in 1979 at his alma mater, Dunmore (PA) High School, coaching linebackers for one season before becoming defensive coordinator. He was defensive coordinator at Milford Academy in 1982 before moving on to the University of North Carolina, where he coached for one season. Fangio was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 1993.

A native of Dunmore, Pa., Fangio and his wife, Patty, have a son, Christian and a daughter, Cassie. The family lives in Sugar Land.

Chris Palmer

Offensive Coordinator
15th NFL Season 4th with Texans

Chris Palmer enters his fourth season as Houston's offensive coordinator. The Texans hired the former Cleveland Browns head coach on Feb. 2, 2001.

Palmer, a 15-year coaching veteran, is best known for developing quarterbacks, which showed in 2003 as the Texans suited up three different starters under center.

In Houston's 2002 expansion season, Palmer's young offense started six rookies, making it by far the youngest unit in the league. But that experience paid off in 2003 as the Texans upped their point total by 72, cut their sack total by 40 and established club records in every offensive category.

Palmer appears to have another star pupil in quarterback David Carr. Carr, the top overall pick of the 2002 NFL Draft, has already started 29 games before his 25th birthday. Displaying a strong arm, command in the huddle and unparalleled resiliency, Carr has thrown for 4,656 yards. He earned all-rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly in 2002 and gutted through an injury-plagued 2003 campaign.

When Carr went down, Palmer ensured veteran backup Tony Banks was well-equipped to lead Houston's offense. Banks started three games and completed a career-high 59.8 percent of his passes, leading the Texans to wins over Carolina and Buffalo. Rookie Dave Ragone started two road games when Banks broke his throwing hand.

Houston's quarterbacks also have some young weapons at their disposal in second-year running back Domanick Davis (the reigning NFL Rookie of the Year) and wide receiver Andre Johnson. Davis paced all rookies with 1,031 rushing yards and set 16 club records. Johnson caught 66 passes for 974 yards in his rookie campaign.

Before returning to Houston, Palmer spent two seasons as head coach of the expansion Browns, leading Cleveland to a 2-14 mark in its inaugural season and an injury-ravaged club to a 3-13 record in 2000.

Palmer spent the 1997 and 1998 seasons as the offensive coordinator on Tom Coughlin's staff in Jacksonville. He helped the Jaguars claim the AFC Central Division title in 1998 as the club approached the 400-point mark in both seasons (394 in 1997, 392 in 1998).

Palmer served as an instrumental tutor to Pro Bowl quarterback Mark Brunell, who has developed into one of the most explosive quarterbacks in the NFL. In 1997, Brunell led the AFC with a 91.2 passer rating and made the Pro Bowl. But Palmer's influence on Jacksonville's other young signal-callers was also evident. Five Jaguars signal-callers (Brunell, Rob Johnson, Steve Matthews, Jamie Martin and Jonathan Quinn) won at least one game for Jacksonville under Palmer's guidance.

Prior to joining the Jaguars in 1997, Palmer spent four seasons on Bill Parcells' staff in New England. As the Patriots' quarterbacks coach in 1996, Palmer retooled the mechanics of Drew Bledsoe, who ended the season leading the NFL in passing attempts and completions and finishing third in passing yards and touchdowns. The Patriots defeated Jacksonville in the AFC Championship Game to advance to the Super Bowl for the first time in 11 years and Bledsoe made his second Pro Bowl. When Palmer was the Patriots' wide receivers coach in 1994, the team set an NFL first when five different players caught more than 50 passes.

Palmer's first NFL coaching experience came with the Houston Oilers, where he was wide receivers coach from 1990-92 under Jack Pardee. During Palmer's three-year stay in Houston, the Run 'N Shoot Oilers boasted the top-ranked passing offense in the NFL. Four Oilers wide receivers - Curtis Duncan, Ernest Givins (twice), Drew Hill and Haywood Jeffires (twice) - made the Pro Bowl during Palmer's three seasons in Houston.

Palmer's Coaching Ledger

1983:	Offensive Line, Montreal Concordes
1976-82:	Offensive Coordinator, Colgate
1975:	Wide Receivers, Lehigh
1972:	Wide Receivers/Defensive Line, University of Connecticut

Palmer was the head coach at Boston University from 1988-89, installing the Run 'N Shoot offense and producing one of the country's most prolific units. He was the head coach at the University of New Haven in 1986 and 1987, where the Chargers posted consecutive 8-2 records and set more than 50 school records.

Palmer's first professional coaching experience came in 1983 when he was the offensive line coach for the Montreal Concordes in the Canadian Football League. In 1984, he coached receivers for the USFL's New Jersey Generals, and the following season he was promoted to quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator. That year, Palmer's offense featured QBs Doug Flutie and Brian Sipe and RB Herschel Walker, who set a professional football single-season rushing record with 2,411 yards.

Palmer launched his coaching career as an assistant at the University of Connecticut in 1972, coaching the defensive line and wide receivers. In 1975, he moved to Lehigh as the wide receivers coach. The following season he was named the offensive coordinator at Colgate, where he coached for seven years (1976-82). In 1977, the Red Raiders led the nation in offense, averaging 486 yards per game.

Palmer played quarterback for Southern Connecticut State from 1968-71 and was selected to the New Haven Gridiron Club following his senior season. He earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees at SCSU, where he was recently inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame. He is also a member of the hall of fame at the University of New Haven and Immaculate High School. A native of Brewster, N.Y., Palmer and his wife, Donna, have two children, Mark and Kristin, and one granddaughter, Annette Grace. The couple lives in Houston.

Joe Marciano

Special Teams Coordinator 19th NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Joe Marciano enters his third season as special teams coordinator for the Houston Texans. Regarded as one of the league's top coaches in his field, Marciano has directed special teams for 18 NFL seasons.

In Houston, Marciano has been reunited with Dom Capers, with whom he spent his first nine professional coaching seasons, and his brother, Tony, who serves as the team's tight ends coach.

In 2003, the Texans' special teams units enjoyed another solid season in both the kicking and return game. Punter Chad Stanley led the NFL with 36 punts inside the 20 and his 36.7-yard net average ranked sixth in the league. Kicker Kris Brown nailed 18 of 22 field goals, missing just one inside 50 yards. J.J. Moses ranked fifth in the AFC with a 23.4-yard kickoff return average.

In 2002, Brown connected on 13 field goals from 40-plus yards and Stanley ranked second in the AFC in net average (36.8) leading the conference with 36 punts inside the 20. The Texans also scored two touchdowns on special teams (punt return, punt block), recovered three fumbles and yielded just 5.7 yards per punt return, leading the AFC.

Marciano arrived in Houston after spending the previous six seasons in the same capacity for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Under Marciano, the Bucs boasted one of the NFC's most consistent special teams units

Tampa Bay blocked 20 kicks, registered nine of the 10 longest punt and kickoff returns in club annals and recorded 10 NFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards during his six seasons.

Kicker Martin Gramatica posted remarkable numbers during his first three NFL seasons. Gramatica nailed 84 of 101 field goal attempts (counting playoffs) and earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2000, breaking his own club single-season records in points scored (126), field goals (28), consecutive field goals (16), 50-plus-yard field goals (5) and extra points (42). Also in 2000, Tampa Bay set a team mark and tied a league mark by blocking seven kicks (four field goals, three punts), returning two for touchdowns.

In 1999, linebacker Shelton Quarles broke a 10-year Bucs single-season record with 31 special teams tackles. Tampa Bay opponents averaged just 17.6 yards per kickoff return, which set a club record. In 1998, Marciano's charges set single-season club marks in both kickoff return average (23.7) and punt return average (13.7). In 1997, the Bucs finished first in the NFL in opponent net punting and opponent field goal percentage.

Marciano joined the Bucs after spending the previous 10 years as the special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. For the first nine of those campaigns, he also coached the team's tight ends. In 1995, the Saints ranked third in the league in punt return average allowed (6.5). During Marciano's New Orleans tenure, he coached three special teams players who were selected for the Pro Bowl (Morten Andersen, Tyrone Hughes, Bennie Thompson).

Marciano's first professional football job came as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the club win two league championships. Marciano joined the Stars after spending 1982 as the tight ends/special teams coach at Temple.

In 1981, Marciano tutored the tight ends for Joe Paterno at Penn State. Marciano also coached tight ends at Villanova (1980) and Rhode Island (1978-79). He began his college coaching career overseeing the tight ends at East Stroudsburg University in 1977. Marciano coached at Wyoming Area High School in West Pittston, Pa., in 1976.

A native of Dunmore, Pa., Marciano was a quarterback at Temple, where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He is an avid fisherman who has conducted various fishing tournaments and has appeared on numerous ESPN fishing shows. In 1993, Marciano was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He is single and resides in Missouri City with his son, Joseph.

Kippy Brown

Wide Receivers Coach 12th NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Kippy Brown, a 12-year NFL coaching veteran, enters his third season as wide receivers coach for the Houston Texans.

Brown's young corps of speedy receivers turned in an outstanding 2003 season, led by rookie sensation Andre Johnson, who caught 66 passes for 976 yards and four touchdowns. Johnson posted three 100-yard receiving performances, set nine single-season team records and ranked first among AFC rookies in receptions and receiving yards.

Sixth-year pro Corey Bradford averaged 19.2 yards per catch in 2003 and has averaged a staggering 48.1 yards on his 10 touchdowns receptions in two seasons under Brown. Both Johnson and Bradford possess tremendous breakaway ability — Johnson ranked first in the AFC in yards after catch (6.7), while Bradford's 9.9 average would have led the league if he had enough receptions to qualify. Second-year pro Jabar Gaffney caught 34 passes for 402 yards and two scores in 2003. In all, Brown's trio posted 18 receptions of 25 yards or more.

Before arriving in Houston, Brown served as head coach of the XFL's Memphis Maniax. Prior to his stint in Memphis, Brown spent one season with the Green Bay Packers as their running backs coach, helping perennial Pro Bowl back Ahman Green break through with his first 1,000-yard rushing campaign.

Before arriving in Green Bay, Brown spent four seasons with the Miami Dolphins under Jimmy Johnson, the final two seasons as offensive coordinator. Brown arrived in Miami as the running backs coach, helping Karim Abdul-Jabbar become the first Dolphins back to crack the 1,000-yard barrier in 18 years. The following season, Abdul-Jabbar tied for the NFL lead in rushing touchdowns with 15, Johnson elevated Brown to offensive coordinator in 1998, where he worked with future Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. The Dolphins earned a wild card berth in both of Brown's seasons calling the plays.

Brown served one season as the running backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995. Prior to that, he returned to the University of Tennessee, serving two seasons as the assistant head coach and wide receivers coach. The Volunteers outscored their opponents 847-

Brown's first NFL coaching stop came in New York, where he spent three seasons (1990-92) as the running backs coach for the Jets. In 1991, the Jets ranked fifth in the league in rushing and advanced to the playoffs for the first time in five seasons. Brown's initial stint at Tennessee was as wide receivers coach from 1983-89. He helped develop such prolific Vols receivers as Anthony Miller, Tim McGee, Alvin Harper and Carl Pickens. Prior to arriving in Knoxville, Brown coached wide receivers at Louisville, including future Dolphins standout Mark Clayton. Brown launched his coaching career at his alma mater, Memphis State, coaching running backs in 1978 and wide receivers in 1979-80. Brown was a starter for the Tigers at quarterback. He graduated from MSU in 1977 with a degree in communications. Brown prepped at Sweetwater (TN) High School, leading his charges to consecutive state titles in 1972-73.

A native of Sweetwater, Tenn., Brown and his wife, Deon, have two children, Jerome and Jennifer. The couple lives in Houston.

Todd Grantham

Defensive Line Coach

6th NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Todd Grantham enters his third season as defensive line coach for the Houston Texans. Odds are he'll never have another season like his second.

Houston's defensive line was devastated by injury in 2003. Nose tackle Seth Payne suffered a season-ending ACL injury in Week 2 and Pro Bowl defensive end Gary Walker played in just four games due to shoulder and toe injuries. But Grantham managed to mix and match his linemen effectively as defensive end Jerry Deloach collected a career-high 109 tackles and nose tackle Steve Martin racked up 92 stops in just 14 games.

In 2002, Grantham's three starters (Walker, Payne, Deloach) all produced career-high numbers in tackles and Walker earned his second Pro Bowl invitation after racking up 115 tackles and 6 1/2 sacks.

Grantham arrived in Houston after spending the previous three seasons in the same capacity for the Indianapolis Colts. Grantham's charges registered 96 sacks sacks, the highest two-year total for the club since it moved to Indianapolis.

Prior to his stint in Indianapolis, Grantham served three seasons as the defensive line coach at Michigan State. He added the title of assistant head coach in his final season in East Lansing. MSU ranked 19th in total defense in 1996 and 13th in 1997, making consecutive bowl trips.

Grantham spent six seasons (1990-95) at his alma mater, Virginia Tech, the final two as defensive line coach. In 1995, the resurgent Hokies ranked first nationally in rushing defense, fifth in scoring defense and 10th in total defense. Tech racked up 50 sacks en route to the Big East title and a Sugar Bowl triumph over Texas.

Grantham coached defensive ends and inside linebackers from 1990-91 and defensive tackles from 1992-93.

Grantham played guard and tackle for the Hokies from 1984-88. He earned second-team All-South and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. Grantham earned a bachelor's degree in sports management.

A native of Pulaski, Va., Grantham and his wife, Paige, have a son, Corbin, and a daughter, Olivia. The family lives in Sugar Land.

Chick Harris

Running Backs Coach

24th NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Chick Harris enters his third season as running backs coach for the Houston Texans after spending the previous seven seasons in the same capacity for the Carolina Panthers. Harris can boast more than two decades of NFL experience.

Last season Harris was instrumental in developing one of the NFL's rising stars in rookie running back Domanick Davis. Davis, a relatively little-known fourth-round pick out of LSU, led all rookies in rushing with 1,031 yards and won NFL Rookie of the Year honors. Davis set 16 club records in 2003 despite not starting until Week 6 against the Jets. From that point on, Davis accounted for a staggering 44.5 percent of Houston's offense.

Harris' charges scored 12 touchdowns, eight by Davis and four by veteran Stacey Mack. Rookie Tony Hollings also gained valuable experience and fullback Moran Norris had his best NFL season, starting all 16 games after incumbent Jarrod Baxter suffered a season-ending injury in preseason.

Harris was originally hired in Charlotte by Dom Capers, who did so before the Panthers' inaugural season in 1995.

During Harris' seven-year tenure with the Panthers, injuries forced the club to suit up a bevy of running backs, from Tshimanga Biakabutuka to Richard Huntley to Brad Hoover to Fred Lane to Anthony Johnson to Derrick Moore. Harris helped Carolina set an expansion record with seven wins in 1995, then helped the Panthers reach the NFL Championship Game the following season.

Harris joined the Panthers after spending three seasons with the Rams in Los Angeles, the last season as offensive coordinator. In 1993, Harris helped rookie running back Jerome Bettis earn NFL Rookie of the Year honors after rushing for 1,429 yards and seven touchdowns. Prior to his stint with the Rams, Harris served nine seasons as the offensive backfield coach for the Seattle Seahawks. Seattle advanced to the AFC Championship Game in Harris' initial se-son and made three other playoff appearances during his tenure. In 1986, Harris helped Curt Warner establish a single-season franchise record with 1,481 rushing yards.

Harris launched his NFL coaching career with the Buffalo Bills in 1981, coaching two seasons. He entered the coaching profession at Colorado State in 1970, coaching three seasons before heading to Long Beach State. After one season with the 49ers, Harris joined the Detroit Wheels of the World Football League in 1974. He then moved on to the University of Washington, where he spent six seasons, helping the Huskies to two bowl wins, including a Rose Bowl triumph over Michigan.

Harris lettered in football and track at Northern Arizona, where he is a member of the Lumberjacks' athletic Hall of Fame. Born in Durham, N.C., Harris attended Long Beach (CA) Polytechnic High School. He has a son, Tyler, and a daughter, Tarana. Harris and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Kara. The family lives in Sugar Land.

Jon Hoke

Defensive Backs Coach
3rd NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Jon Hoke enters his third season as the Texans defensive backs coach, directing one of the league's most talented secondary units.

In 2003, cornerback Marcus Coleman turned in a career season, picking off a club-record seven passes, which tied him for first in the AFC. No other NFL cornerback has more passes defensed over the past two seasons than Coleman, who boasts 44.

Hoke's teaching skills were most evident on the other side of the field, where Pro Bowler Aaron Glenn missed five games with a groin injury. Backups Kenny Wright and Demarcus Figgins did outstanding jobs in Glenn's absence. Strong safety Eric Brown posted a career-high 120 tackles and free safety Marlon McCree returned an interception 95 yards for a touchdown, the longest score in club history.

In 2002, Hoke helped Glenn make his third Pro Bowl as the Texans ranked 10th in the NFL in pass defense, yielding just 196.3 yards per game through the air. Houston's defensive backs picked off nine passes, recovered four fumbles and scored three touchdowns.

Hoke came to Houston after spending the previous three seasons as defensive coordinator at the University of Florida. Hoke replaced current University of Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops at Florida in 1999, initially serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach. In 2000, he added the title of assistant head coach.

Under Hoke, the Gators went to three consecutive New Year's Day bowl games (Citrus, Sugar, Orange), won the 2000 Southeastern Conference championship and finished as high as No. 3 in both national polls (2001). Hoke's ball-hawking defensive units forced 88 turnovers over three seasons.

In 2001, Florida led the SEC in total defense, scoring defense, first downs allowed, passing efficiency defense and third-down conversion defense. UF ranked ninth nationally in total defense, fifth in scoring defense, 12th in rushing defense and 13th in passing defense – the only SEC school to rank in the top 15 in all four categories. The Gators yielded just 19 touchdowns, the fourth-fewest in the country, and only five aerial scores, tying national champion Miami for fewest nationally.

In 2000, Hoke's defense led the country with 40 turnovers. His 1999 unit ranked ninth in the nation in rushing defense and paced the conference with 43 sacks.

Hoke arrived in Gainesville after five seasons tutoring the defensive backs at Missouri. The Tigers earned bowl bids in Hoke's last two seasons, thanks in large part to a defense that forced 48 turnovers, leading to 208 points. Hoke helped Mizzou rank 22nd in the nation in scoring defense in 1998, yielding UM's fewest points in 15 years. Hoke also coached the Tigers' kick block team, which blocked 11 extra points, seven punts and five field goals in his five seasons in Columbia.

Prior to coaching at Missouri, Hoke spent four years at Kent State, coaching defensive backs all four seasons and adding the title of defensive coordinator in his final season. He coached defensive backs and special teams at San Diego State from 1987-88 and launched his coaching career in the same capacity at Bowling Green in 1983, helping the Falcons win the Mid-American Conference title with an 11-0 mark in 1985.

Hoke was a four-year letterman at Ball State (1976-79), earning All-MAC honors as a defensive back. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education before playing in 11 games for the Chicago Bears in 1980.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Hoke and his wife, Jody, have four children, Mallory, Kyle and twins Kendall and Carly. The family lives in Sugar Land.

Tony Marciano

Tight Ends Coach

7th NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Tony Marciano enters his third season with the Houston Texans and first as tight ends coach. He spent the past two seasons as the team's offensive line coach.

In 2003, Marciano's line cut its sack total by more than half. The offensive line also escorted rookie running back Domanick Davis to a 1,000-yard rushing season. The offensive line showed tremendous collective improvement over 2002, when the expansion Texans were forced to start two rookies and had six different starting lineups over the course of 16 games.

Marciano, whose brother, Joe, is the team's special teams coordinator, came to Houston after spending the previous four seasons as tight ends coach for the Indianapolis Colts. In his four seasons with the Colts, Marciano tutored one of the most productive tight end duos in the league in Marcus Pollard and Ken Dilger. Pollard posted a career-high 47 receptions for 739 yards and eight touchdowns in 2001. Dilger hauled in 150 passes and scored 18 times over his four seasons under Marciano. Both players earned their first trip to the Pro Bowl in 2001.

Prior to his stint with the Colts, Marciano spent three seasons as the offensive line coach for the Canadian Football League's Calgary Stampeders, adding offensive coordinator duties for his final season. He spent the 1994 campaign as the offensive line coach for the Toronto Argonauts.

Before joining the professional coaching ranks, Marciano spent two years at Kent State as its assistant head coach/offensive line coach. He launched his college coaching career at Texas Christian, serving as the assistant offensive line coach for two seasons, as well as the strength and conditioning coach. Marciano then coached tackle, tight ends and kickers at Southern Methodist for six seasons before serving as the offensive coordinator at Brown (1987-88) and the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Richmond (1989-90).

Marciano graduated from Indiana (PA) University, where he was a three-year starter on the offensive line and team captain as a senior.

A native of Scranton, Pa., Marciano and his wife, Kelly, have a son, Anthony, and a daughter, Anna. The family lives in Missouri City.

Steve Marshall

Offensive Line Coach (Tackles) 3rd NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Steve Marshall enters his third season coaching the offensive line for the Houston Texans. He held the title of assistant offensive line coach the past two seasons before earning his current title for the 2004 campaign.

In 2003, Marshall's line cut its sack total by 40 and helped Houston's offense establish team record in every offensive statistical category. The offensive line also escorted rookie running back Domanick Davis to a 1,000-yard rushing season. The offensive line showed tremendous collective improvement over 2002, when the expansion Texans were forced to start two rookies and had six different starting lineups over the course of 16 games.

Marshall came to Houston after spending the previous two years as the University of Colorado's offensive line coach. Marshall also led the Buffaloes' offensive field goal/PAT* and kickoff return units on special teams.

Marshall's 2001 offensive line was a major reason the Buffaloes captured their first Big 12 Conference championship and a Fiesta Bowl berth. The Buffs ranked eighth nationally in total rushing, 20th in total offense and were second in total offense in the Big 12.

Prior to his two years in Colorado, Marshall spent two seasons as North Carolina's offensive coordinator and served as the instructor of the Tar Heels' offensive line. Although UNC's offense was beset by injuries, he played a significant role as the team increased its scoring against six common opponents from the previous year. Before his stint in Chapel Hill, Marshall served in the same capacity for Texas A&M during the 1997 season, coaching current Texans center Steve McKinney. He came to College Station from UCLA where he tutored the Bruins offensive line for one year.

From 1993-95, Marshall led the Tennessee offensive line and spent his last year as the team's running game coordinator.

1982-83:	Offensive Line/ Kicking Game Marshall
1980-81:	Assistant Offensive Line, University of Tennessee
1979:	Offensive Line, Plymouth State

He was also the running game coordinator from 1994-95. The Volunteers earned two bowl bids (Gator, Citrus), while Marshall's offensive line protected quarterback Peyton Manning and paved the way for running back James Stewart. It marked the second occasion in Marshall's 22-year collegiate coaching career that he spent time in Tennessee, the first being from 1980-81 when he served as a part-time assistant offensive line coach.

Before coaching at Tennessee, Marshall spent six seasons as the Virginia Tech offensive coordinator/offensive line coach under Frank Beamer, whom he served under in the same capacity at Murray State for two seasons prior to his stint with the Hokies. In 1984, Marshall led the offensive line and tight ends at his alma mater, the University of Louisville. Before his return to UL, Marshall coached the offensive line and kicking team at Marshall for two seasons. He launched his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Plymouth State in 1979.

Marshall has coached 194 Division I-A games as well as seven bowl games, four on New Year's Day (two Citrus, one Cotton, one Fiesta). He has also been a mentor to All-America and Outland Trophy winner Kris Farris and All-America Jim Pyne, two of his 13 eventual NFL players.

Marshall was a one-year letterman both at both guard and tight end at Louisville. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education.

A native of Hartford, Conn., Marshall and his wife, Karin, reside in Houston.

Tony Oden

Defensive Assistant/Assistant Defensive Backs 1st NFL Season 1st with Texans

Tony Oden enters his first season in Houston, where he will serve as defensive assistant while also assisting Jon Hoke with the Texans' defensive backs.

Oden was most recently at Central Michigan University after spending the previous season as defensive backs coach at Eastern Michigan. From 2000-02, Oden coached in various capacities at East Carolina. He was originally hired as the Pirates' wide receivers coach but switched to outside linebackers prior to the 2000 spring campaign to work with defensive coordinator Tim Rose. Oden moved over to defensive backs in 2001 and coached the safeties and assisted with special teams in his last season in Greenville. The Pirates reached two bowl games during his tenure.

Prior to his stint with ECU, Oden spent two seasons in West Point, serving as Army's assistant secondary coach. He also led the junior varsity program in 1999 after serving as its defensive coordinator in 1998. In 1997, Oden coached wide receivers as a graduate assistant at Boston College. Oden's first college coaching job came at Millersville (PA), where he was an assistant secondary and assistant special teams coach.

Although this is Oden's first full-time NFL coaching stop, he is no stranger to the league. He twice served as a summer coaching intern, first for Green Bay (1999) and then for Cleveland in 2001.

Oden was a two-time all-conference selection at linebacker at Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, Ohio. He was the Yellow Jackets' team captain as a senior, earning All-America recognition and Co-Defensive MVP honors.

A native of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, Oden has a son named Jaylen and is married to the former Amanda Evans. The couple lives in Rosharon.

Tom Olivadotti

Linebackers Coach

20th NFL Season 1st with Texans

Tom Olivadotti enters his first season as linebackers coach for the Texans and his 20th overall season in the NFL.

Olivadotti's teams have made the playoffs in 12 of his previous 19 seasons, highlighted by six division titles and one conference crown. Only three of those clubs have posted losing records.

Olivadotti's most recent NFL stint came in New York, where he served as the Giants' linebackers coach for four seasons. Olivadotti was instrumental in the development of linebackers Mike Barrow and Dhani Jones. Barrow averaged 135 tackles per season under Olivadotti, including 177 last season. Jones earned a starting job in 2002 and averaged 128 tackles in his two seasons as a starter.

Olivadotti's linebackers helped the Giants rank third in the NFL in scoring defense in 2002. In 2001, New York ranked eighth in the league against the run and linebacker Jessie Armstead earned his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl berth. In 2000, Olivadotti's first season with the Giants, New York ranked fifth in total defense and second in rushing defense, propelling the Giants to the NFC title.

In the NFC Championship Game, those Giants defeated Minnesota, where Olivadotti had spent the previous four seasons coaching linebackers. One of his linebackers led the Vikings in tackles in each of those four seasons. Ed McDaniel and Dwayne Rudd combined for 318 tackles in 1999. The Vikings reached the NFC Championship Game in 1998, posting a 15-1 regular-season mark.

From 1987-95, Olivadotti served as defensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins. In 1990, the Dolphins ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense, the first time since 1983 that Miami had cracked the top 18 in that category. In 1992, the Dolphins advanced to their first AFC Championship Game in seven years. Two years later, Olivadotti's troops led the NFL in interceptions with 23. In 1995, the Dolphins yielded just seven rushing touchdowns.

Olivadotti's first NFL coaching stop came in Cleveland, where he served as linebackers and secondary coach for two seasons. The Browns won the AFC Central in both seasons and advanced to the AFC Championship Game after a 12-4 regular season in 1986. Two Browns defensive backs – Hanford Dixon and Frank Minnifield – earned Pro Bowl berths. Veteran linebacker Clay Matthews had made the Pro Bowl the previous season.

Olivadotti's professional coaching debut came in 1984 with the USFL's Washington Federals. He had spent the previous four seasons as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Miami, culminating with the Hurricanes' first national championship in 1983. In those four seasons, Olivadotti coached 18 future NFL players.

Olivadotti coached linebackers at Boston College from 1978-79, tutoring future Pro Bowlers Fred Smerlas and Joe Nash. Olivadotti launched his collegiate coaching career at Princeton, coaching linebackers in 1976 and offensive line in 1977. He had previously headed the football program at Salesianum High School in Wilmington, Del., for four years after working as a high school assistant coach in New Jersey for five years.

Olivadotti was a four-year letterwinner at Ursula College in East Orange, New Jersey, starting at defensive back, linebacker and wide receiver. He also lettered in baseball and track.

After earning a business degree from Ursula, Olivadotti played semi-pro football while coaching in the high school ranks.

Olivadotti and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Kari Anne, and a son, Kirk, who played football at Purdue and coaches linebackers for the Washington Redskins. The couple lives in Houston.

Joe Pendry

Offensive Line Coach (Center/Guards)

18th NFL Season 1st with Texans

Joe Pendry enters his 18th NFL season and his first in Houston, where he will coach the Texans' interior offensive linemen.

The Texans hired Pendry this past January, reuniting him with head coach

Dom Capers. Pendry served as Capers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for three seasons in Carolina (1995-97). In all, Pendry has worked for six previous NFL teams over 17 seasons, reaching the playoffs 11 times.

Pendry arrived in Houston after assisting the Southwest Missouri State football program during the 2003 season. His last NFL stop came in Washington, where he spent the 2001 season as the Redskins' offensive line coach under Marty Schottenheimer. Pendry's troops helped the Redskins rush for 1,948 yards, including a club-record 1,432 yards by running back Stephen Davis. Left tackle Chris Samuels was selected to his first Pro Bowl in just his second NFL season.

Pendry's previous post was in Buffalo, where he served as the Bills' offensive coordinator for three seasons. In Pendry's first season, the Bills jumped from 25th to sixth in the NFL in total offense, reaching the playoffs and sending four offensive players to the Pro Bowl. Buffalo again made the postseason in 1999, ranking 11th in the league in offense. Under Pendry, the Bills averaged 2,041 rushing yards per season, cracking the league's top 10 all three seasons.

In Charlotte, Pendry helped the Panthers set an NFL expansion record for wins in 1995 (seven) and then reach the NFC Championship Game in just their second season. Quarterback Kerry Collins played in the Pro Bowl and running back Anthony Johnson posted the first 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history.

Pendry spent the 1993-94 seasons in Chicago after serving four seasons in Kansas City as Schottenheimer's offensive coordinator. The Chiefs made the playoffs in three of Pendry's four seasons. Pendry accompanied Schottenheimer to Kansas City from Cleveland, where he broke into the NFL as the Browns' running backs coach. Cleveland reached two AFC Championship Games and in 1985 became the first team in NFL history to boast two 1,000-yard running backs (Earnest Byner, Kevin Mack).

Pendry, like Capers, launched his professional coaching career with the USFL's Philadelphia Stars. He served as Philadelphia's offensive coordinator in 1983 before becoming head coach of the Pittsburgh Maulers in 1984.

Pendry began his coaching career at his alma mater, West Virginia, in 1969. He

Greg Roman

Quarterbacks Coach

10th NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Greg Roman enters his 10th NFL season and first as quarterbacks coach for the Houston Texans. He spent the previous two seasons as the team's tight ends coach.

Over his 10-year career, Roman has worked with defensive backs, linebackers, offensive line, running backs and tight ends.

Under Roman's guidance, tight end

Billy Miller has caught a team-leading 91 passes over the past two seasons for 968 yards and six touchdowns. Now, alongside Chris Palmer, Roman moves his focus to the player throwing most of those passes, third-year quarterback David Carr, as well as backups Tony Banks and Dave Ragone. All three quarterbacks started at least two games for Houston last season.

Before coming to Houston, Roman spent seven years with the Carolina Panthers, beginning with their expansion season to his most recent stint as the team's assistant offensive line coach.

Roman initially served as the Panthers' defensive quality control coach and strength and conditioning assistant. Over that span, Roman was part of a defensive unit that set an NFL record for fewest second-half points allowed in a season in 1996. In 1998, Roman moved to the offensive side of the ball, overseeing offensive quality control. In 1999, Roman assisted all aspects of a Panthers offense that finished second in the NFL in passing offense and fifth in yards per rush. In 2001, Roman moved to the offensive line, where the Panthers lowered their sacks

Eric Sutulovich

Assistant Special Teams Coach/Administrative Asst.
3rd NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Eric Sutulovich enters his third season as the assistant special teams coach/administrative assistant for the Texans. In his current role, Sutulovich assists in all aspects of special teams and also assists head coach Dom Capers with team meetings and statistical analysis.

Sutulovich came to Houston after serving as the offensive coordinator for Fort Scott Community College in Fort Scott, Kan., where he held that position for almost one year. Sutulovich's duties included overseeing the running backs allowed total by more than 50 percent. Roman was a standout defensive player at John Carroll University. It was during that time that Roman founded "Project H.O.P.E." aiding the developmentally disabled of northeast Ohio.

A native of Atlantic City, N.J., Roman was an All-South Jersey guard for Holy Spirit High School. Roman and his wife, Dana, live in Pearland with their son, Connor.

Chuck Banker

Director of Pro Scouting

24th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Chuck Banker was hired in February 2000 as Houston's first director of pro scouting. Banker has 23 years of NFL experience, both in player personnel/scouting and as an assistant coach.

In his current post, Banker oversees Houston's pro scouting department, which will include scouting players on the other 31 NFL teams, as well as monitoring the talent in the Canadian Football League (CFL), and the Arena Football League (AFL).

Banker came to Houston after spending the previous three years (1997-99) as the scouting coordinator for the Washington Redskins under current Texans general manager Charley Casserly. It was Casserly, then the Redskins' GM, who hired him for what was his second stint with Washington. Prior to that, Banker worked for the Philadelphia Eagles for three years, first as the team's director of player personnel (1994-95) before being promoted to director of scouting in 1996. With the Eagles, Banker was responsible for evaluating pro and college players, and for making recommendations on potential player acquisitions through free agency, trades and waivers. Philadelphia posted two 10-win seasons during Banker's tenure.

Banker's first association with the Redskins lasted from 1987-94. He coached Washington's special teams for Joe Gibbs for two seasons (1987-88), helping the club capture Super Bowl XXII. From 1989-94, he served as a scout for the Redskins, and was a part of the organization that won Super Bowl XXVII. Banker accepted his first NFL position as an assistant coach under Jim Hanifan with the St. Louis Cardinals from 1980-83 (special teams 1980-84, running back 1985), and then worked as the assistant head coach/defensive ends coach at Iowa State in 1986.

Prior to coaching for the Cardinals, Banker was the defensive coordinator at Boise State from 1976-79. From 1974-75, he was the head coach at Viewmont High School in Bountiful, Utah. Banker coached the offensive line at the University of Utah from 1971-73 after serving as the head coach (1970) and defensive coordinator (1968-69) at Westminster College in Salt Lake City. From 1966-67, Banker was the linebackers coach at Utah after beginning his coaching career in a similar capacity at Glendale (Cal) Junior College.

Banker earned a bachelor's of science degree in physical education from Westminster College after previously attending Cal State-Los Angeles. He has two daughters, Christy and Sara, and a son, Bryan. Chuck and his wife, Mary, reside in Missouri City.

Bobby Grier

Associate Director of Pro Scouting

24th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Bobby Grier was tabbed as Houston's associate director of pro scouting on May 16, 2000. Grier previously held the title of vice president/player personnel for the New England Patriots.

Grier spent 18 years as a player personnel executive and as a coach with the Patriots, serving in his VP role for four plus years. In that capacity, he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of New England's pro and college scouting departments, player evaluations, free agency and the annual NFL draft. From 1995 until being promoted to his mo-recent post, Grier served as the team's director of player personnel. He worked as the Patriots' director of college scouting from 1993-95.

From 1985-92, Grier was New England's running backs coach, working under three different head coaches (Raymond Berry, Rod Rust, Dick MacPherson). The '85 squad captured the franchise's first AFC championship before losing to the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XX. That season, Grier's backs had 2,331 rushing yards, including 1,227 by Houston native Craig James. Grier was a college scout for New England from 1982-84 after spending '82 as the offensive coordinator at Northwestern for head coach Dennis Green. Grier's first NFL position came in New England in 1981 when he was the running backs coach under Ron Erhardt.

Grier spent 1978-80 as the running backs coach at Boston College under Ed

Chlebek, helping the team improve from 0-11 to 7-4. Grier's initial college coaching post came at Eastern Michigan where he coached the running backs for George Mans and then Chlebek from 1974-77. From 1970-73, Grier was the head coach at Detroit's Martin Luther King High School where his team captured the city championship in '73 with a 9-1 mark. Grier's first coaching assignment came as an assistant at Kettering (MI) High School from 1966-69.

Grier is a native of Detroit. He holds a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Iowa, where he was a three-year starter at running back as well as a two-time honorable mention All-Big Ten selection. As a senior, Grier led the Hawkeyes in rushing. He and his wife Wendy live in Houston. They have two sons — Chris, who is a regional scout for the Miami Dolphins, and Michael, who plays for the NHL's Buffalo Sabres.

Miller McCalmon

Associate Director of Pro Scouting

28th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Miller McCalmon was originally hired as Houston's assistant director of pro scouting before being elevated to associate director of pro scouting on May 16, 2000. McCalmon can boast 27 years of experience as a pro football coach, scout and administrator. He joined the Texans after spending the previous 10 years as a college scout for the Washington Redskins. Prior to that, McCalmon worked from 1988-89 as a scout for BLESTO, which is a national scouting combine that presently represents 12 NFL teams.

From 1986-87, McCalmon served as an assistant coach in charge of special teams and tight ends for the Houston Oilers. He had spent a year in private business (1985) after working for the Buffalo Bills from 1980-84. While with the Bills, McCalmon spent three years as a special assignment assistant before working as the club's special teams coach under head coach Kay Stephenson from 1983-84. He was an administrative assistant for defensive planning for the Baltimore Colts and head coach Ted Marchibroda from 1978-79, after breaking into the NFL as a personnel scout for head coach George Allen's Redskins from 1976-77. Ironically, one of his fellow personnel scouts with Washington in 1977 was Texans general manager Casserly.

McCalmon's coaching career began as a graduate assistant at Tulsa University in 1970 while he earned his master's degree in educational administration. He coached the receivers for Colorado State from 1971-72 before becoming the head coach at Erie (CO) High School from 1973-75. McCalmon played defensive back for Tulsa from 1967-69.

McCalmon is a native of Denver, Colo. He and his wife, Georgia, have three daughters — Piper, Katherine and

Mike Maccagnan

Coordinator of College Scouting

11th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Mike Maccagnan was Charley Casserly's first Texans hire. After initially joining the club as a pro scout on Jan. 25, 2000, Maccagnan was promoted to his current post on May 24 of that year.

Maccagnan coordinates all of the Texans' college scouting efforts, managing one of the most experienced staffs in the league. Before arriving in Houston, Maccagnan spent the previous six years as a scout for the Washington Redskins. He served as a college scout (1994) for the Redskins before becoming a pro scout in 1995.

Prior to joining Washington, Maccagnan worked for the Canadian Football League's Ottawa Rough Riders as Jennifer — plus five grandchildren. The family has resided in Missouri City for the past 18 years.

Rob Kisiel

Pro Scout

6th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Rob Kisiel enters his first season as a pro scout for the Texans, but his fifth season overall with Houston. He served as a regional college scout the past two years after two years as the team's pro administrator.

Kisiel came to the Texans after serving as the draft coordinator for the Washington Redskins for one season. In that role, Kisiel worked with team scouts in scheduling and coordinating college visits, while also conducting research as it pertained to player contracts and the NFL salary cap. Prior to that, Kisiel worked as an intern in the operations the club's Director of Scouting (1992) and Director of Player Personnel (1993). In 1994, he was the Director of Player Personnel for the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders. He also was the Director of Player Personnel for the World League's London Monarchs when that franchise captured the league championship in 1991. In 1990, Maccagnan worked in the World League office in Dallas as a league scout.

A native of Hightstown, N.J., Maccagnan holds a B.A. degree in economics from Trinity (CT) College. After graduating from Trinity, Maccagnan served as a Redskin training camp scouting intern for Casserly in 1990. Mike and his wife, Betty, live in Houston.

department of the NFL's Management Council. He served as a Redskin training camp intern during the summers of 1994 (public relations) and 1996-97 (scouting). In addition, Kisiel interned for the World League's London Monarchs during the 1997 season.

Kisiel is a native of Clearwater, Fla., and holds a bachelor's degree in business communications from Florida State. During his four-year tenure as a student at FSU, he worked as a student assistant for head coach Bobby Bowden, assisting in recruiting efforts and Bowden's memorabilia demands. Kisiel is single and resides in Houston.

George Saimes

National Scout

41st NFL Season 5th with Texans

The Texans hired George Saimes as their first national scout on March 24, 2000. Saimes, who has 30 years of experience in pro football scouting, is not confined to any particular region as he scouts college talent all over the country.

Saimes joined the Texans after spending the previous 16 years with the Washington Redskins, including the last 11 as director of college scouting. He originally joined the Redskins in 1984 as a college scout after spending two years (1982-83) in a similar post for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Prior to that, Saimes worked as a BLESTO scout for eight years from 1974-81.

As a player, Saimes was a defensive back for 10 years for the Buffalo Bills (1963-69) and Denver Broncos (1970-72). A member of the American Football League's All-Time Defensive Team, Saimes was also named to the Bills' Silver Anniversary Team. He earned All-AFL honors in five of his seven Buffalo seasons. Saimes has been inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame and the Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame. In college, Saimes starred at Michigan State and is a member of the Spartans' All-Time Defensive Team. He was inducted into the Michigan State Athletic Hall of Fame in the fall of 2000.

Saimes is a native of Canton, Ohio. He and his wife, Betsy, currently reside in North Canton, Ohio. They have three daughters — Kelley, Linda and Stephanie.

Eugene Armstrong

College Scout

5th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Eugene Armstrong enters his fifth season with the Texans and first as a college scout, primarily scouting the Midwest.

Armstrong joined the Texans in 2000 as a scouting intern. In 2002, he was promoted to college assistant, responsible for reviewing prospect tapes, maintaining the team's college database and attending to the road scouts. Armstrong also scouted Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana.

Armstrong earned a sports management degree from the University of Tulsa, where he played safety for the Golden Hurricane. He prepped at Elsik High School in Houston, playing football and baseball. Armstrong has a daughter, Shelbi. He is single and lives in Houston.

Larry Bryan

Western Regional Scout
18th NFL Season 5th with Texans

The Texans hired Larry Bryan on April 26, 2000, the second scout tabbed by the club. Bryan is responsible for scouting college talent in the western region.

Bryan spent the previous 10 years in a similar capacity for the Washington Redskins. He joined Washington in 1990 when he was hired by Texans general manager Charley Casserly. For his first four Redskin seasons, Bryan was the team's BLESTO scout before becoming a college scout in 1994. Prior to that, Bryan worked as a coach and in scouting/player personnel on the high school, college and pro levels. From 1988-89, he coached at Corona Del Mar High School in Newport Beach, Calif. During that span, Bryan also published the Orange County (CA) Football Magazine, which detailed high school football in that area. During the 1988 season he also worked as a part-time scout for the Kansas City Chiefs. Bryan spent 1987 scouting for the San Diego Chargers after working in 1986 as a scout for the Canadian Combine.

Bryan was affiliated with the USFL for the league's entire tenure. From 1982-84, he served as the running backs coach for the Oakland Invaders. During the Invaders' off-seasons, Bryan worked in player personnel scouting NFL games. In 1985, he moved to the USFL's New Orleans Breakers as their scouting director just before the franchise relocated to Portland for the league's final season.

From 1977-79, Bryan coached the running backs (1977-78) and quarterbacks (1979) at Oregon State after having directed the secondary at Utah State from 1975-76. In 1974, he worked as a scout for the World Football League's Hawaiians after serving as the Head Coach/Athletic Director at Salesian High School in Los Angeles from 1972-74. Bryan's first college coaching job came as the running backs coach for John McKay at USC from 1969-70. Bryan began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Bishop Amat High School in Los Angeles (1966-68).

Bryan holds a B.A. in physical education from Utah State (where he played running back) and a Master's degree in secondary education from Cal State-Los Angeles. A native of Huntington Park, Calif., he and his wife, Gayle, reside in Balboa Island, Calif. They have two sons, Derek and Pete.

Rob Lohman

College Scout
4th NFL Season 4th with Texans

Rob Lohman enters his first season as a college scout for the Texans. He served as the team's pro administrator the past two seasons and did all the team's advance scouting in 2003.

Lohman broke in with the Texans as a scouting intern in 2001. Before arriving in Houston, he spent two years as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University, where he earned his master's degree in higher education. In 1998, Lohman worked at Hofstra University as a special teams and recruiting assistant.

Lohman graduated from the University of South Carolina, where he earned a degree in sports management and worked with the Gamecocks football team as an undergraduate assistant. A native of Oceanside, N.Y., Lohman is single and lives in Houston.

Pete Russell

Southeastern Regional Scout
11th NFL Season 5th with Texans

The Texans hired Pete Russell in May of 2000. Russell scouts the southeastern region for the Texans.

Russell joined Houston after serving as a college scout for the St. Louis Rams from 1994-99. Prior to that, he was the tight ends coach at James Madison in 1993. From 1990-92, Russell worked as a graduate assistant coach (offensive line, tight ends) at Arizona.

A standout baseball player, Russell was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals. He was a catcher in the Cardinals organization for four years before retiring from baseball in 1986. Russell then enrolled at City College of San Francisco where he played football for two seasons (1986-87). He transferred to Arizona and was a fullback, tight end and nose tackle for Dick Tomey's Wildcats from 1988-89. In both of his seasons at Arizona, Russell won the school's Bronko Nagurski Award, symbolic of UA's top two-way player. Russell is the only two-time recipient of that honor. He holds a BA degree from Arizona.

Russell is a native of San Francisco and played football and baseball at that city's Sacred Heart High School. He is married to Fox Sports anchor Laura Okmin and the couple resides in Alpharetta, Ga.

Dave Sears

Central Regional Scout
8th NFL Season 5th with Texans

The Texans hired Dave Sears to scout the central region on May 8, 2000.

Sears came to Houston after three seasons with the Washington Redskins, where he worked in the scouting department. Sears served as a scouting administrator in 1997 before being promoted to serve as Washington's BLESTO scout for the next two seasons. BLESTO is the national scouting combine that presently represents 12 NFL teams. Sears was initially hired by Charley Casserly as a Redskins scouting/player personnel intern. Sears also worked as an intern for the Springfield Falcons in the American Hockey League.

Sears holds a degree in sports management from Springfield (MA) College, the same school that Casserly attended. Sears played four years as a linebacker for the Springfield football team. He attended Hauppauge High School in his hometown of Hauppauge, N.Y., lettering in football, basketball and lacrosse.

Sears and his wife, Nancy, live in Houston.

Tom Throckmorton

Eastern Regional Scout

5th NFL Season 5th with Texans

Tom Throckmorton enters his second season scouting the northeast for the Texans. He spent the previous three years as the team's BLESTO scout.

Throckmorton is a veteran of 28 years as a college coach. Before coming to Houston, he served as the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at William & Mary. Prior to his arrival at W&M, Throckmorton coached the linebackers at Richmond (1997) and Boston College (1996), and was the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at VMI (1994-95). In 1990, he worked as a scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Throckmorton also had stints as the linebackers coach at Wake Forest (1987-89) and Virginia Tech (1985-86), and as the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach for East Carolina (1983-84). He tutored the linebackers at VMI from 1980-82, and oversaw the defensive ends for Richmond from 1973-79. Throckmorton's first two collegiate positions came as the linebackers coach at Randolph-Macon (1972) and North Carolina State (1971). His 1983 East Carolina squad (8-3) and his 1986 Virginia Tech team (9-2-1) both finished in the Top 20. Throckmorton's 1973 Richmond defense led the nation with five shutouts.

Throckmorton is a native of Richmond, Va. He holds a degree in history and sociology from Randolph-Macon College where he played tight end and defensive end. Throckmorton also attended Ferrum (VA) Junior College. He and his wife, Jane, reside in Saluda, Va. They have one son, Chris.

Kevin Bastin

Head Athletic Trainer

16th NFL Season 4th with Texans

Kevin Bastin enters his fourth year as the Texans' head athletic trainer. Bastin spent the previous 12 seasons as the assistant athletic trainer for the Washington Redskins, helping the team to four playoff appearances and a Super Bowl XXVI triumph.

Bastin spent two years working with Morgantown (WV) Physical Therapy Associates before assuming his post with the Redskins. He previously worked as an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Louisville. Bastin also worked with the University of Miami football team while he earned his Master's degree in health and athletic training at UM in 1985.

Bastin, a native of Quiet Dell, W. Va., graduated from West Virginia University in 1984. He and his wife, Carrie, live in Sugar Land with their two children, daughter Shelby and son Blake.

Tom Colt

Coordinator of Rehabilitation

3rd NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Tom Colt enters his third season as coordinator of rehabilitation for the Texans. In his current role, Colt coordinates all player rehabilitation and assist with daily athletic training duties.

Prior to coming to Houston, Colt worked as a physical therapist and athletic trainer for Physiotherapy Associates in Phoenix. Before his stint in Phoenix, Colt spent six years at Morgantown (WV) Physical Therapy Associates. During his time at that clinic, he served as the head athletic trainer at West Virginia University for one year, as well as the head athletic trainer for NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy.

Colt graduated from West Virginia in 1986 before earning his Master's degree and serving as an athletic trainer at Arizona State University. In 1996, he graduated from WVU's School of Physical Therapy.

Colt and his wife, Kristy, who is also a physical therapist, live in Houston.

Jon Ishop

Assistant Athletic Trainer

3rd NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Jon Ishop enters his third season as the Texans' assistant athletic trainer. Ishop is primarily in charge of training room operations. He also assists with athlete rehabilitation, inventory and injury record keeping in addition to assisting with daily athletic training duties.

Ishop previously served as the head athletic trainer at Dunbar High School in Dallas. He broke into the NFL as a training camp assistant for two summers with the Washington Redskins. He graduated with a degree in kinesiology from the University of Texas in 1998, then earned his Master's degree in sports administration from the University of Houston in 2001.

Jon resides in Chappell Hill, Texas, with his wife, Kedra, and their son, Aedan.

Jay Brunetti

Director of Equipment Services

30th NFL Season 4th with Texans

The Texans hired Jay Brunetti as the team's first equipment director on Apr. 2, 2001.

Brunetti came to Houston from Washington, where he spent the previous 26 years with the Redskins. Brunetti joined the George Allen-led Redskins on a part-time basis in 1975 when he was in junior high. He then became a full-time assistant in 1979 before becoming the youngest equipment manager in the league in 1981 at the age of 19. Coach Joe Gibbs' teams advanced to four Super Bowls and won three world championships with Brunetti heading the equipment staff.

For the past seven years, Brunetti has served on NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue's appointed sub-committee on mild traumatic brain injuries. He is also a certified member of the AEMA.

Brunetti and his wife, Linda, have two sons, Jimmy and Drew, and a daughter, Tori. The family lives in Houston.

Matthew Grupp

Assistant Equipment Manager
9th NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Matthew Grupp enters his third season as assistant equipment director for the Texans. Before coming to Houston, Grupp spent three seasons in a similar role for the St. Louis Rams, helping the club win two NFC titles and Super Bowl XXXIV.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Grupp served on the Carolina Panthers equipment staff for three seasons (1996-98) under then-head coach Dom Capers.

Grupp attended Illinois State University (1992-96), where he earned a bachelor's degree in biology with a minor in chemistry.

Grupp and his wife, Autumn, reside in Pearland with their son, Luke Matthew, and their dog Elvis.

Greg Read

Assistant Equipment Manager
3rd NFL Season 3rd with Texans

Greg Read enters his third season as assistant equipment manager for the Texans. Read spent the previous three years in the same capacity at the University of Texas.

Prior to his stint in Austin, Read served two seasons as a graduate assistant equipment manager at his alma mater, Mississippi State University. Read earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from MSU, then earned his Master's of sports administration in Starkville.

24th NFL Season 4th with Texans

The Texans hired Dan Ferens as their first director of negotiations on Aug. 1, 2001.

Ferens spent the previous year as vice president for McCormack Advisors International, the financial arm of International Management Group in Cleveland. IMG is one of the world's largest athlete management and sports marketing agencies.

Prior to his stint with IMG, Ferens spent 20 years with the Pittsburgh Steelers as the club's chief negotiator/business coordinator. The Steelers advanced to the playoffs 10 times during that span, including an appearance in Super Bowl XXX. In 1998, Ferens was one of two unanimous selections for best capologist in a poll of 50 NFL executives conducted by USA Today.

Ferens, a native of Connellsville, Pa., earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from St. Vincent College in Latrobe, Pa. He later received a Master's degree from Robert Morris College in Pittsburgh. Ferens and his family reside in Pittsburgh.

Barry Asimos

Director of Operations

10th NFL Season 4th with Texans

Barry Asimos enters his fourth year with the Texans as the club's operations director after six seasons with the Washington Redskins. Asimos assists Texans general manager Charley Casserly, as well as coordinating team travel and training camp.

In addition, Asimos oversees game day operations from a competition standpoint to include any aspect that deals directly with the game or the Texans and the visiting team. On game day, he is responsible for setting up the field, equipment, team catering, player and coaches parking, and serves as the team liaison with the NFL. During the week, Asimos oversees the team practice facility and Texans areas in the Reliant Stadium, including scheduling, cleaning and maintenance. Prior to his arrival in Houston, Asimos spent six seasons in a similar role with the Washington Redskins. He started as an intern in Washington's scouting department before being promoted to the club's director of administration. Prior to joining the Redskins, he interned with the Baltimore Orioles public relations and baseball operations departments. Asimos also interned with the public relations and customer service staffs of the Washington Bullets (now Wizards).

Asimos graduated from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Va., with a degree in sports administration and business. He and his wife, Heather, live in Missouri City with their daughters, Abby Reese and Ashten Rose.

Tough as Nails

Don't let the glamour position and the laid-back California persona fool you – Carr is as tough a customer as you'll find in football. After getting sacked a league-record 76 times as a rookie (but not missing a snap), Carr battled through ankle and shoulder injuries in 2003. In Houston's game against Atlanta, Carr relieved Tony Banks and immediately scampered 36 yards to set up the go-ahead score, falling hard on his already-injured throwing shoulder. Although he could barely lift his right arm, Carr helped the Texans to a 17-13 win.

last-second 24-20 win over Jacksonville...hit WR Jabar Gaffney on a 24-yard scoring strike...capped off the winning drive in dramatic fashion, diving over the goal line from six inches away on the game's final snap...set career highs in attempts (42), completions (25) and yards (371) in loss at Tennessee (10/12)...threw a 65-yard TD pass to Bradford to cap a team-record 98-yard drive in just two plays...later added a 13-yard scoring toss to WR Derick

Armstrong but also threw career-high three INTs...Texans set a club mark with 458 total yards...completed 15 of 23 passes for 170 yards against the Jets (10/19)...connected with Johnson on a game-long 37-yard pass...completed 8 of 9 passes for 62 yards and one score at Indianapolis (10/26) before leaving with an ankle injury in the second quarter...hit TE Billy Miller on a one-yard scoring toss to give the Texans a 14-3 lead in the second quarter...posted career-high 132.4 passer rating...ankle sprain caused him to miss the first game of his NFL career the following week against Carolina (11/2) as backup Tony Banks started...returned to start at Cincinnati (11/9), completing 11 of 25 passes for 146 yards with two TDs and one INT...connected with Bradford on a 73-yard strike in the second quarter, the third-longest reception and second-longest TD reception in team history...later hit Gaffney for an eight-yard score...completed 2 of 4 passes for 12 yards in win at Buffalo (11/16) before leaving the game with a right shoulder injury...injured on a sack by Bills LB Jeff Posey in the end zone in the first quarter, which resulted in a safe-

242 yards with one TD and two INTs...rushed for 40 yards on four carries...hit Bradford on a 20-yard TD pass in the third quarter to tie the game at 17...connected on 13 of 23 passes for 105 yards and one INT in season finale versus division champion Colts (12/28).

2002: Started all 16 games as a rookie...completed 233 of 444 passes (52.2 percent) for 2,592 yards with nine TDs and 15 INTs, compiling a passer rating of 62.8...also rushed for 282 yards on 59 carries (4.8 avg.) with three scores...earned first-team All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly...helped engineer one of the league's most stunning recent victories in his NFL debut...completed 10 of 22 passes for 145 yards, two TDs and one INT in 19-10 win over Dallas (9/8) before national ESPN audience...connected with Miller for team's ty...inactive the following week against New England (11/23)...designated the backup versus Atlanta (11/30), but started the second half for injured Banks (hand) and led the Texans to a 17-13 win...turned in a gutty performance, rushing for 30 yards and attempting just five passes due to injured shoulder...scampered 36 yards to set up go-ahead TD, landing hard on right shoulder...“David went out and put together a courageous effort,” head coach Dom Capers said after the game. “He was not at full strength out there today”...inactive the following week at Jacksonville (12/7) due to the shoulder and the flu...did not play at Tampa Bay (12/14) due to injury...returned to the starting lineup against Tennessee (12/21), completing 17 of 34 passes for first-ever TD, a 19-yard scoring strike on Houston's third play from scrimmage...later broke a 10-10 tie with a dazzling 65-yard TD pass to a streaking Bradford...win marked the first triumph for an expansion team in its debut in 41 years (Minnesota over Chicago, 1961)...harassed into 6 of 25 showing for 87 yards and two INTs at San Diego (9/15)...sacked season-high nine times for 58 yards...completed 12 of 22 passes for 99 yards and one INT versus Indianapolis (9/22)...connected on 16 of 29 passes for 188 yards, two TDs and two INTs at Philadelphia (9/29)...hit Bradford twice for scores – one a 23-yarder to give Houston an early 7-0 lead and another 29-yarder in the fourth quarter...returned from the bye week with a terrific effort against Buffalo (10/13), completing 12 of 23 passes for 218 yards and one TD (99.5 passer rating)...also rushed for 50 yards and first career TD...hit Bradford on season-long 81-yard pass on the Texans' first play from scrimmage...later connected with Gaffney on a 26-yard TD toss...also ran 17 yards for first career rushing TD, which was also the first rushing score in franchise history...completed season-high 22 of 36 passes for season-best 267 yards and one TD at Cleveland (10/20)...connected with Bradford on 39-yard TD...sacked eight times...connected on 11 of 18 passes for 184 yards and one score in 21-19 win at Jacksonville (10/27)...did not throw an INT for third consecutive game...found Miller for 40 yards on a play-action fake to set up a one-yard TD toss to Miller...posted season-high passer rating of 114.1...victory marked first road triumph in club annals...completed 18 of 32 passes for 199 yards and two INTs versus Cincinnati (11/3)...picked off by Bengals CB Artrell Hawkins in the first quarter, ending season-high streak of 97 passes without an INT...connected on 19 of 34 passes for 182 yards with one TD and two INTs at Tennessee (11/10)...hit FB Jarrod Baxter on a 10-yard scoring toss to pull Texans within seven points late in the fourth quarter...completed 22 of 30 passes for 228 yards and one TD in 24-21 loss to Jaguars (11/17)...also rushed for two scores (2, 14), pacing the club with 33 yards on seven carries...hit Bradford on 52-

yard scoring strike...eluded the rush and dove into the end zone from 14 yards out...completed 10 of 23 passes for 103 yards and rushed for career-best 54 yards in 16-14 win over Giants (11/24)...had a season-long 20-yard scamper and set up Houston's lone TD with a 13-yard run down to the Giants 1...completed 3 of 4 passes on drive that resulted in Kris Brown's eventual game-winning FG...connected on 20 of 35 passes for 137 yards at Colts (12/1)...sacked six times...completed just 3 of 10 passes (all to Miller) for 33 yards in bizarre 24-6 win at Pittsburgh (12/8)...completed 19 of 34 passes for 196 yards and two INTs versus Baltimore (12/15)...first pick ended streak of 95 passes without an INT...connected on 12 of 31 passes for 112 yards and one pick at Washington (12/22)...sacked three times, lifting that total to 73, a new single-season league record (Randall Cunningham, Eagles, 72 in 1986)...ended season completing 21 of 40 passes for 214 yards and one INT in loss to division champion Titans (12/29). COLLEGE: Record-setting QB at Fresno State...completed 62.6 percent of his career tosses and compiled a career passer rating of 141.4...completed 587 of 934 passes for 7,849 yards, 70 TDs and 23 INTs in 37 career contests (counting two bowl games)...started final 26 games of collegiate career, leading Bulldogs to an 18-8 mark and two bowl berths...led the nation in both passing yards (4,308) and TD passes (42) as a senior, helping FSU rise to as high as No. 8 in the national polls and post an 11-2 mark...first-team All-Western Athletic Conference selection and WAC Offensive Player of the Year as a senior...became the sixth quarterback in NCAA annals to top 4,000 passing yards and 40 TD passes in the same season...cracked the 300-yard passing barrier 11 times in 14 games in 2001...won the Johnny Unitas Award, Sammy Baugh Award and the Pop Warner Award...Football News Offensive Player of the Year...tossed career-best six TDs in home finale against Utah State...threw for career-high 531 yards and five TDs in Silicon Valley Football Classic against Michigan State...finished fifth in the 2001 Heisman Trophy balloting...second-

Run to Daylight

Carr might not conjure up images of Fran Tarkenton or Michael Vick, but the 6-3 signal-caller owns some serious wheels when he needs them. Carr has rushed for 433 yards and five touchdowns in just 28 career games, ranking eighth in yards and sixth in average (5.03) among quarterbacks over the past two seasons.

Fourth Quarter Comebacks

QB David Carr has led the Texans to four fourth-quarter comebacks in two seasons. (9/28/03) The Texans were down by three against Jacksonville when Carr drove the team 41 yards in 2:59 that was capped off by a gutsy one-yard rush by the second-year quarterback with no time left on the clock. (9/7/03) The Texans trailed four times in the season-opener against Miami, but QB David Carr guided the team to an impressive 21-20 win by setting up a K Kris Brown field goal with 25 seconds remaining. (10/27/02) The Texans were down 12-10 heading into the fourth quarter against Jacksonville and won the game 21-19. (11/24/02) Against the Giants, Houston was down 14-13 and with 7:01 remaining, until K Kris Brown split the uprights with a 50-yard field goal that put the Texans up 16-14. The Texans were also tied with the Cowboys 10-10 heading into the fourth quarter, before Houston scored nine unanswered points.

Digging the Long Ball

Chris Palmer's offense stretched the field more in 2003, taking full advantage of Carr's arm strength. Carr's nine scoring tosses last season averaged 36 yards, including a 78-yarder to Corey Bradford in Houston's season-opening win at Miami.

TEEN SPIRIT

Wide receivers are now allowed to wear jersey Nos. 10-19 at any time, even if a jersey number in the 80s is still available.

Signature Moments

Carr has had a flair for the dramatic in his two seasons in Houston, having a hand in arguably the franchise's two signature moments. In the Texans' first regular season game, Carr hit a streaking Corey Bradford on a 65-yard touchdown pass to lift Houston to a 19-10 win over Dallas at Reliant Stadium. Last season, Carr leaped over the goal line on the game's final play to cap a scintillating 24-20 win over Jacksonville.

PLAYOFF POSSIBILITIES

The Rockets broke a five-year playoff drought this year, falling to the Lakers in the first round. The Astros are again battling for the National League Central title. The Texans have a tough road to hoe but are optimistic heading into their third season. When was the last time all three Houston pro entries made the playoffs? It was 1980 – the Oilers lost a wild card game at Oakland, the Rockets lost a first-round playoff series to Atlanta and the Astros fell to Philadelphia in the NLCS.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-0) became the only NFL expansion team to win their opening game for the second consecutive year when they upset the Miami Dolphins (0-1) 21-20 in Pro Player Stadium. On the Texans second offensive series, QB David Carr hit WR Jabar Gaffney on a 33-yard strike that helped set up Kris Brown's 36-yard field goal to give Houston an early 3-0 lead. The Texans defense held but Carr wasn't able to lead his troops to the end zone, handing the ball back to the Miami offense. Texans LB Jay Foreman sacked QB Jay Fiedler to snuff the Dolphins drive, but two series later, the Miami offense clicked and Fiedler connected with WR Chris Chambers on a 57-yard TD pass to put Miami ahead 7-3. The Texans stalled on their next possession but RB Ricky Williams fumbled on the Dolphins next play and LB Charlie Clemons recovered at the Texans 49. Brown soon split the uprights from 50 yards out to bring the score to 7-6, still in favor of Miami. Fiedler found Chambers again at the end of the second quarter when he hit him on a 22-yard score to extend the Dolphins lead 14-6. Brown attempted a 54-yarder with :07 seconds remaining in the half but the kick sailed wide left and the Dolphins maintained their lead heading into the locker room. Mid-way into the third quarter, Carr hit WR Corey Bradford on a slant where he high-stepped past the Dolphins secondary and 78 yards later, he found himself in the end zone. Bradford's grab brought the score to 14-12 with Miami still in the lead after the Texans two-point conversion attempt failed. The Texans defense held and Carr got the ball right back, hitting WR Andre Johnson for 28 yards before RB Domanick Davis scampered 15 yards en route to a 23-yard Brown field goal to give the Texans a 15-14 lead. The Dolphins answered at the beginning of the fourth quarter when Fiedler found Williams in the flat where he rushed to a 35-yard touchdown. The two-point conversion failed but Miami had still regained a 20-15 lead. Carr hit Johnson on a 17-yard strike, hooked up with TE Billy Miller for a nine-yard gain and Gaffney caught an 11-yarder to set up Brown's 24-yard field goal to put the Texans within two points of a tie. The Dolphins got the ball back but Fiedler's loft to Miami WR Derrius Thompson was intercepted by Coleman, who returned it to the Dolphins 36. With 25 seconds remaining, Brown nailed a 35-yarder to give the Texans a 21-20 victory.

SUMMARY

After a stellar second half of play, the New Orleans Saints (1-1) defeated the Texans (1-1) 31-10 at the Louisiana Superdome. Saints RB Deuce McAllister broke free on a 24-yard touchdown run to give New Orleans a 7-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. Though the Texans weren't able to answer with any points, the special teams unit ran an impressive trick play when CB Jason Simmons ran for seven yards and a first down on a Chad Stanley fake punt. Both teams again exchanged punts and the Texans were the next to score after driving 61 yards to tie the game. The march was highlighted by QB David Carr to WR Andre Johnson strike for 10 yards down the sideline before Carr hit WR Jabar Gaffney to put Houston at the Saints 11. Confusion ensued on Gaffney's next reception when he hauled in a six-yard pass on 3rd and 7 from the Saints 8. Gaffney dove for the pylon but the ball slipped out of his hand. The officials originally ruled the play a fumble at the one yard-line but after the play was challenged, the Texans were given the ball at the two, where Gaffney stepped out of bounds. On 4th and 1, Carr faked a handoff to RB Stacey Mack, rolled out and juiced Saints S Jay Bellamy to plunge into the end zone and tie the score at seven. The Houston defense was able to hold the Saints on three offensive possessions and one minute remaining in the half, Carr hit Johnson for a 20-yarder before connecting with WR Corey Bradford on a huge 31-yard strike to move the ball to the Saints 13. A sack and penalty pushed Houston back but K Kris Brown was still able to split the uprights from 30 yards out to give the Texans a 10-7 halftime lead. The Saints began the second half with an 83-yard scoring drive QB Aaron Brooks sailed a 35-yard touchdown toss to WR Donte Stallworth to give the Saints a 14-10 lead. The Texans were forced to punt and New Orleans came on strong again when Brooks hit WR Joe Horn for a 38 yarder before connecting with Stallworth for an 11-yard catch. K John Carney booted through a 39-yarder to extend the Saints lead 17-10. The Texans surrendered the ball back to New Orleans where Horn hauled in 17 and 11-yards before McAllister scampered 31-yards into scoring range. Brooks hit TE Ernie Conwell from two yards out to put New Orleans ahead 24-10 in the fourth. Houston tried to rally late, but Carr's pass to TE Billy Miller was knocked out of his hands and into the air by CB Ashley Ambrose. A waiting Derrick Rogers grabbed the loose ball and ran it back into the end zone to punctuate the Saints' victory.

SUMMARY

Houston fell to 1-2 after being defeated 42-14 by Kansas City (3-0) in its home opener at Reliant Stadium. Texans LB Kailie Wong got the home crowd on its feet when he took down Chiefs QB Trent Green on Kansas City's first offensive series. The Texans were forced to punt on their first possession and the Kansas City offense moved into high gear. WR Dante Hall gained 16 yards on a reverse. Then Green hit TE Tony Gonzalez for a 20-yard gain to the Houston 44. RB Priest Holmes scampered 31 yards to put the Chiefs in the red zone before plunging into the end zone for a six-yard touchdown run to give the Kansas City a 7-0 lead. In the second quarter, CB Marcus Coleman picked off Green's pass at the Texans 4. RB Stacey Mack chipped in on Houston's offensive drive with a 13-yard run while RB Tony Hollings picked up another 14 yards on the ground en route to the Texans' 96-yard scoring drive. QB David Carr hit WR Andre Johnson on a 43-yard touchdown strike to tie the game at seven. Holmes scored again from five yards out to give the Chiefs a 14-7 lead at halftime. Carr was picked off early in the third quarter by Chiefs CB Dexter McCleon at the Texans 5. Houston was able to get the ball back but Chiefs S Jerome Woods knocked the ball loose from Hollings' hands while McCleon recovered, giving the Kansas City offense possession at the Houston 32. Three plays later, Green found WR Eddie Kennison in the back left corner of the end zone to give the Chiefs a 21-7 lead. On the ensuing punt, Chiefs return man Hall, covered 73 yards of field en route to the end zone to further cushion the Kansas City lead 28-7. Green then fired a 50-yard strike to WR Johnnie Morton. A personal foul penalty on Texans CB Aaron Glenn made it a 65-yard gain. Kansas City RB Derrick Blaylock ran 20 yards for a touchdown to extend the lead 35-7. FS Matt Stevens then picked off Green on the Chiefs' next possession, but Mack fumbled after catching a pass out of the backfield and Kansas City recovered at their 16. Houston got the ball back but Chiefs S Shaunard Harts picked off Carr and raced 39 yards for a touchdown to put Kansas City ahead 42-7. Backup QB Tony Banks took the field for the next series and led Houston on a 16-play, 73-yard touchdown drive. The final Texans' scoring series was capped by a four-yard touchdown toss to Johnson with under two minutes remaining in the game.

SUMMARY

Houston improved its record to 2-2 heading into the bye week after a thrilling last-second victory over Jacksonville (0-4) at Reliant Stadium. QB David Carr connected with WR Andre Johnson and RB Moran Norris to kick off the opening drive, capped by a five-yard scoring run by RB Stacey Mack. The Jaguars answered with a 29-yard Seth Marler field goal to make the score 7-3. The Texans offense continued its hot streak and extended their lead 14-3 after Carr found WR Jabar Gaffney down the middle where he darted 24 yards into the end zone. The Texans defense was able to hold but Mack fumbled on the first snap of Houston's next drive and Jacksonville was able to score as RB Fred Taylor scampered into the end zone one yard to make the score 14-10 still in favor of Houston. With two minutes remaining in the half, Carr's tipped pass was intercepted by Jaguars CB Fernando Bryant. CB Kenny Wright then stepped in front of a Leftwich pass to give the ball back to the Houston's offense. RB Domanick Davis continued the turnover trend when he fumbled a reception, handing the ball back to the Jacksonville offense. Leftwich threw one final hail mary to end the half but CB Marcus Coleman came up with the ball for another turnover. DE Jerry DeLoach pounced on a loose Jaguars ball at the beginning of the third quarter and set up a 48-yard Kris Brown field goal to extend the Texans' lead to 17-10. On Jacksonville's ensuing drive, Wright intercepted his second pass of the day but the offense was forced to bring in the punting unit. Leftwich next found WR Troy Edwards, who took a one-handed grab 84 yards into the end zone to tie the score at 17. Houston was able to get into field goal range on its next drive but Brown's 50-yard attempt sailed wide right. The Jaguars were able to add a 20-yard Marler field goal to their scoring total to put them ahead 20-17. At the Jacksonville 25, Carr handed the ball to Mack who tried to hit Johnson down the middle but CB Jason Craft stepped in front of the attempt. Jacksonville took over and Texans SS Eric Brown made a clutch play after stripping the ball from a scrambling Leftwich. FS Matt Stevens dove on the loose pigskin to give the Texans one last chance to win the game. Davis gained yardage on four carries and chipped in with two receptions to help set the Texans up on the one yard-line. With two seconds remaining, Carr dove over the pile on 4th and 1 to give the Texans a 24-20 victory.

SUMMARY

The Texans fell to 2-3 for the season after Titans QB Steve McNair hit WR Derrick Mason on three scoring strikes while passing for a career-high 421 yards en route to a 38-17 Tennessee victory. The Titans (4-2) jumped on the Texans early as McNair hit Mason on a 32-yard touchdown pass for a 7-0 lead at the beginning of the first quarter. On the Titans' second drive, McNair lofted a 46-yard touchdown pass to a wide-open Mason to give Tennessee a 14-0 lead. On Houston's third drive, QB David Carr completed four consecutive passes but the offense wasn't able to find the end zone as Chad Stanley punted the ball away. On the Titans' next possession, McNair fumbled the exchange and LB Charlie Clemons pounced on the loose ball, giving the offense another shot. Titans LB Rocky Boiman was able to cut the drive short when he picked off Carr but Houston's defense held strong. McNair then hit WR Tyrone Calico three times to help put the Titans offense at the Houston 5. Titans RB Robert Holcombe then dove into the end zone to give Tennessee a 21-point lead. With under a minute remaining in the half, Carr hit RB Domanick Davis twice before finding WR Andre Johnson in stride for 33 yards to set up a 29-yard Kris Brown field goal to put the score at 21-3 in favor of Tennessee at halftime. Houston's defense held to start the second half but Titans CB Craig Hentrich pinned the Texans at their own 2. Houston responded with its quickest drive of the season when Carr connected with TE Jabari Holloway for 33 yards before firing a 65-yarder to Bradford, who outraced the Titans' secondary to the end zone to cut Tennessee's lead to 21-10. Titans K Gary Anderson padded their lead later in the third quarter when he nailed a 33-yarder to put the score at 24-10. Tennessee scored again early in the fourth quarter when McNair hit WR Justin McCareins for a 44-yard gain before connecting with Mason again for a 50-yard score to extend the lead 31-10. Soon after, Titans CB Andre Dyson intercepted Carr's second pick of the day for a 49-yard touchdown return to put the Texans scoring deficit at 38-10. On their next drive, Carr found WR Derick Armstrong for a 13-yard touchdown, a career first for Armstrong, to cap the scoring.

SUMMARY

Houston dropped its second consecutive game and fell to 2-4 after losing in the final minutes to the New York Jets 19-14. The Texans were off to a high-speed start when RB Domanick Davis helped the offense into the red zone on its first possession. RB Stacey Mack sealed the scoring drive with a 10-yard touchdown run to give the Texans an early 7-0 lead. Both squads exchanged punts while LB Antwan Peek and DE Corey Sears came up with two big sacks of Jets QB Vinny Testaverde. The Texans' offense continued their scoring streak after QB David Carr engineered a 36-yard drive capped by a one-yard Mack leap into the end zone to put Houston ahead 14-0. Testaverde then led the Jets offense on a 91-yard drive after hitting TE Anthony Becht on a 16-yard strike before WR Santana Moss picked up a 21-yard reception to put New York in scoring range. Testaverde then hit Moss on an 18-yard touchdown pass to put the score at 14-7 heading into the locker room. The Jets scored the only points in the third quarter after Testaverde hit Moss and Becht on 16 and 14-yard passes respectively. He then connected with RB LaMont Jordan before finding FB Jerald Sowell in the air for a 25-yard gain to set up Doug Brien's 39-yard field goal, cutting Houston's lead to 14-10. The Texans' defense held strong into the fourth quarter as the Jets marched into the red zone. Testaverde lofted a deep pass into the end zone intended for WR Curtis Conway, but CB Jason Bell forced it incomplete and Brien kicked a 30-yard field goal to close the scoring gap 14-13. The Jets began an 86-yard drive after 14 and 20-yard runs from Martin helped put the New York offense at the Houston 8. Jordan punched in the scoring run to put the Jets ahead 19-14. DE Gary Walker batted down Testaverde's two-point conversion attempt, giving the offense just over one minute to manufacture a scoring drive. Return man J.J. Moses ran back a 63-yard kickoff to set up the Texans at the New York 27. Carr hit Davis for a 15-yard gain and WR Corey Bradford for another seven, but on 4th and 4 with 27 seconds remaining, Carr's pass ricocheted off the hands of WR Andre Johnson, sealing the 19-14 win for New York (2-4).

SUMMARY

Indianapolis defeated Houston 30-21, improving its record to 6-1 and sending the Texans (2-5) to their third consecutive loss. After both teams exchanged punts, the Colts' offense started to click behind RB Edgerrin James and QB Peyton Manning connected with WR Troy Walters for a 31-yard completion. The drive stalled at the Texans 14 and K Mike Vanderjagt connected on a 32-yard field goal to give Indianapolis a 3-0 lead. The Texans were forced to punt on their next possession and LS Bryan Pittman recovered a fumble by Colts KR Brad Pyatt, giving the Texans the ball at the Colts 28. Texans backup QB Tony Banks came in for an injured David Carr and hit WR Andre Johnson for 13 yards before RB Dominic Davis scampered 15 yards around the right end for the go-ahead touchdown on the next play. Carr returned to the huddle for the next offensive series and completed a pass to Johnson before handing it off to Davis for a 14-yard gain. Two plays later, Davis broke off a 19-yard run to the Colts 43. Carr hit WR Jabar Gaffney in stride for a 13-yard gain to the Colts 28 before lofting the ball to TE Billy Miller who made a gorgeous catch at the back of the end zone to give Houston a 14-3 advantage. Manning responded by hitting WR Marvin Harrison for a 37-yard pass down the left sideline. He then connected with WR Reggie Wayne for 12 yards before CB Marcus Coleman was flagged for a face mask to give the Colts first and goal at the Texans 5. James got the ball to the edge of the goal line and Manning lofted a scoring strike to TE Marcus Pollard to close Houston's lead to 14-10. Banks returned to the huddle and handed off the ball to Davis, who fumbled. Colts DT Larry Tripplett recovered and Indianapolis was back in business at the Texans 23. Houston's defense stiffened on two runs but Manning hit Wayne for a two-yard touchdown pass on third and goal to convert the turnover into a 17-14 lead at halftime. Two plays into the second half, Manning found a wide-open Wayne gliding down the right sideline to give Indianapolis a 24-14 lead. The Texans punted and Manning marched his unit 72 yards, moving Vanderjagt into position to hit a 29-yard field goal to give Indianapolis a 27-14 lead. But Banks and the offense kept plugging away. Davis broke off a 16-yard run to move over the 100-yard mark for the second consecutive game and Banks completed some short passes to move Houston into field goal range. Instead of having Kris Brown attempt a 42-yard field goal on 4th and 2, P Chad Stanley took the snap and ran 12 yards to pick up the first down. Davis scored from two yards out on third and goal to put the score at 27-21. But Vanderjagt's 22-yard FG with 5:16 left pushed the lead to nine and the Texans couldn't get any closer.

SUMMARY

A 20-yard touchdown pass from QB Tony Banks to TE Billy Miller sealed the Texans' 14-10 win over Carolina (6-2), lifting their season record to 3-5. Carolina wasted no time putting RB Stephen Davis to work as he picked up 20 yards on the Panthers first possession to help set up a 24-yard QB Jake Delhomme to WR Steve Smith touchdown to give Carolina an early 7-0 lead. The Texans were forced to punt on their first drive, putting the ball back into the hands of the Panthers' playmakers. Just 25 yards from the end zone, Plummer lofted a pass to WR Muhsin Muhammad, but CB Aaron Glenn damped Carolina's scoring hopes and as he picked off the pass. The Texans weren't able to capitalize on the turnover and both teams exchanged punts before halftime. The Texans came out of the locker room fired up as RB Domanick Davis rushed for gains of nine, four and 23 yards. Banks followed up with a six-yard strike to Miller before connecting with WR Andre Johnson on an 11-yard pass. Davis picked up 17 more yards on the ground before Miller hauled in an 11-yard catch to put the Texans inside the five yard line. RB Stacey Mack picked up two yards before punching in a one-yard touchdown to seal a 73-yard scoring drive and tie the game at seven. The Panthers answered with a 68-yard scoring jaunt as Stephen Davis kept the Houston defense busy, picking up 32 yards that drive. But the Texans' defense didn't wear as it stopped Carolina at the five-yard line on third down, forcing John Kasay to boot a 23-yard field goal to put Carolina ahead 10-7. Banks was determined to vault the Texans into the lead for the first time all day and first hit Johnson on a 12-yard pass before finding him again for a key 35-yarder on 3rd and 18 to put Houston on the Carolina 28. After runs by Mack and RB Tony Hollings, Banks threw a laser down the middle to Miller, who made an impressive one-handed 20-yard scoring snag to put Houston ahead 14-10. Houston's defense made its most substantial stand of the day on Carolina's next offensive series, forcing a Todd Sauerbrun punt to give Houston possession with just under six minutes remaining. The Texans' offense chewed up the game clock before turning the ball over on downs with just one second remaining. Carolina made one last scoring try, but as time ran out, Houston snapped a three-game losing streak with a win over the NFC's top team.

SUMMARY

The Texans rallied to take the lead twice in the second half as the team set a record for points in a game but the Bengals came out on top with a 34-27 victory at Paul Brown Stadium. Cincinnati improved to 4-5 while the Texans dropped to 3-6. Bengals QB Jon Kitna hit WR Chad Johnson on a 14-yarder before RB Rudi Johnson rumbled 21 yards to the Houston 35 to set up a Kitna to FB Brandon Bennett six-yard touchdown pass. Houston KR J.J. Moses put the Texans in good field position, running back the ensuing kickoff 38 yards to the Bengals 44. WR Andre Johnson picked up 11 yards on a reverse before K Kris Brown booted through a 45-yard field goal to put the score at 7-3 in favor of Cincinnati. On the first play of the second quarter, QB David Carr hit WR Corey Bradford on a 73-yard touchdown catch-and-run to give Houston a 10-7 lead. On the Bengals next drive, Rudi Johnson carried the ball nine times for 50 yards before plunging into the end zone from one yard out to put the score at 14-10 in favor of the Bengals. Cincinnati extended the lead after Texans P Chad Stanley shanked a punt 20 yards, moving the Bengals into field goal range where K Shayne Graham split the uprights from 40 yards out for Cincinnati to gain a 17-10 lead. CB Kenny Wright intercepted a Kitna pass at the Bengals 44 to help set up WR Jabar Gaffney's eight-yard touchdown catch to tie the game at 17. RB Domanick Davis opened the second half with a 51-yard run down the sideline before capping off the drive with a two-yard scoring dash to put Houston ahead 24-17. Rudi Johnson's 17-yard touchdown run tied the game at 24 in the third quarter but Houston answered with a 33-yard Brown field goal to give the Texans a 27-24 advantage. Kitna hit WR Peter Warrick twice for 39 yards en route to a one-yard Rudi Johnson touchdown to give a 31-27 lead back to Cincinnati in the fourth quarter. The Bengals regained possession and drove 56 yards to set up a 40-yard Graham field goal to put the score at 34-27. The Texans had 2:26 to make a comeback but Carr's intended pass for TE Billy Miller was tipped first by Bengals DE Duane Clemons, then tipped by Miller before falling into the arms of CB Terrell Roberts to preserve the Bengals' 34-27 victory.

SUMMARY

Houston notched its second road win of the season and lifted its record to 4-6 after defeating Buffalo (4-6) at Ralph Wilson Stadium. LB Kailee Wong helped the defense stop the Bills early when he recorded his second sack of the season after nailing QB Drew Bledsoe for a five-yard loss. But former Houston LB Jeff Posey sacked QB David Carr soon after to give the Bills a safety and 2-0 lead. The sack sidelined Carr for the remainder of the game with a bruised shoulder. Buffalo's next scoring quest quickly stalled on the Houston 11 and K. Rian Lindell was called in to boot a 29-yarder but the kick sailed wide left. QB Tony Banks took over Houston's offensive reigns but his first series in the pocket resulted in a Chad Stanley punt, giving Bledsoe another stab at an end zone appearance. Buffalo was forced to rely on Lindell to light up the scoreboard but his 44-yard attempt again went wide left. Stanley was soon called in to punt and placed the Bills at their own 7. Two plays later, RB Travis Henry broke free on a 65-yard run to put the Bills within scoring range at the Houston 15. Bledsoe picked up two yards but on 3rd and 4, his end zone pass to WR Sam Aiken fell incomplete and Lindell came in to split the uprights from 23 yards out to give the Bills a 5-0 lead. Houston answered with a late first half 73-yard scoring drive that took just 55 seconds. RB Domanick Davis picked up three yards on the ground before hauling in catches of 13 and 16-yard gains. Banks found WR Andre Johnson down the middle at the Buffalo 35 and scampered into the end zone to give the Texans a 6-5 lead on an impressive 46-yard score. Though their two-point conversion failed, the Texans were able to keep the Bills offense from putting any addition first half points on the board with the help of LB Shantee Orr's 10-yard sack. Houston maintained its pace into the third quarter after a 27-yard Johnson gain and 15-yard personal foul penalty against the Bills set up Brown's 41-yard field goal to extend Houston's lead to 9-5. But the Bills' defense made up for the points when CB Antoine Winfield picked off Banks' intended pass for Johnson and returned it 11 yards to set up a 20-yard Lindell field goal and put the score at 9-8. With just under nine minutes remaining in the game, Davis picked up 18 yards on the ground before WR Corey Bradford and Johnson chipped in with seven and 32-yard catches respectively. The Texans settled for a 34-yard Brown field goal to extend Houston's lead to 12-8. LB Jamie Sharper then collided with Bledsoe on the Houston 31 for a seven-yard sack while knocking the ball out of Bledsoe's throwing hand. Orr recovered to help Houston's offense run the clock down to three seconds. The Texans lined up in punt formation and Johnson fielded the snap, running for minus-34 yards and a safety to ensure Houston's 12-10 victory.

SUMMARY

The Texans fell 23-20 to New England (9-2) in the club's first-ever overtime game, falling to 4-7 on the season. On the Texans second possession, QB Tony Banks hit WR Corey Bradford on a 10-yarder before he lateraled to WR Jabar Gaffney. Gaffney looked downfield but was forced to run for a 13-yard pickup. Houston settled for a 19-yard Kris Brown field goal to go ahead 3-0. The Patriots answered when QB Tom Brady found WR Bethel Johnson for a 27-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-3 lead. SS Eric Brown intercepted Brady at the Houston 10, but Brown fumbled as he tried to gain yardage and Bethel Johnson recovered at the Texans 7. K. Adam Vinatieri kicked a 21-yard field goal to extend the Patriots lead 10-3. Then Vinatieri came in to kick a 38-yard field goal but the ball hit the right upright to keep the score at 10-3 at halftime. New England re-gained its momentum to start the third quarter but on 4th and 5, Brady lofted a long pass to WR Deion Branch that was broken up by CB Kenny Wright. The Texans couldn't take advantage of the defensive stand and punted the ball back to New England, who began the drive at their own 5. Brady hit Bethel Johnson on a 15-yarder but CB Marcus Coleman picked off a pass shortly after and returned it to the New England 11. Two plays later, Banks found WR Andre Johnson on a 10-yard touchdown pass to tie the score at 10. On the ensuing possession, NT Junior Ioane and LB Shantee Orr combined for a Brady sack, holding New England to a 32-yard Vinatieri field goal to give the Patriots a 13-10 lead at the beginning of the fourth quarter. Both teams exchanged punts and on the Texans' next try, Banks found TE Billy Miller on a 16-yard scoring strike to take a 17-13 lead. On the Patriots' ensuing possession, SS Ramon Walker blocked Ken Walter's punt and Houston took over at the Patriots 20. Brown kicked a 29-field goal to push the lead to seven points. But Brady answered, hitting TE Daniel Graham on a four-yard touchdown to tie the score at 20 and send the game into overtime. The Texans won the overtime coin toss but Banks threw an interception to Patriots LB Mike Vrabel, who ran to the Houston 27. Vinatieri's first, 37-yard attempt was blocked by Walker, his second of the day. But the Patriots kicker later nailed a 28-yarder with 41 seconds remaining in overtime.

SUMMARY

The Texans showed impressive grit in a 17-13 home victory over Atlanta (2-10) while improving their season record to 5-7. Both the Atlanta and Houston defenses kept the game scoreless in the first quarter but it was the Falcons who found the end zone first at the beginning of the second quarter. QB Doug Johnson hit WR Brian Finneran on a 10-yarder before connecting with TE Alge Crumpler for a 24-yard strike. A pass interference call on CB Kenny Wright moved Atlanta to the Houston 3 and shortly after, RB T.J. Duckett punched in a one-yard touchdown to give Atlanta a 7-0 lead. Houston answered with a 40-yard Kris Brown field goal after QB Tony Banks hit TE Billy Miller down the middle for a 23-yard gain. RB Domanick Davis chipped in another 13 yards on the ground to put the Texans in field goal range. The Falcons were able to put themselves in position to score again before the end of the half but the Texans defense limited the unit to a field goal. K Jay Feely came in to try the 49-yard attempt but the kick came up short to keep the score at 7-3. On the ensuing possession, a roughing the kicker penalty on Texans P Chad Stanley gave Houston another scoring shot before heading into the locker room. But Brown's 52-yard attempt hit the right upright to give Atlanta a 7-3 advantage at halftime. QB David Carr took over after Banks left the game with a fractured hand. On the Texans' first offensive drive of the third quarter, Carr scampered for 36 yards before finding Davis on a screen pass for a 15-yard gain. Two plays later, Davis ran in a seven-yard touchdown to give Houston a 10-7 lead, their first of the day. On the Falcons' next possession, CB Marcus Coleman stepped in front of Johnson's pass to set the Texans offense at the Atlanta 22. Davis ran for stints of nine, four and two yards before plunging into the end zone to extend Houston's lead to 17-7. QB Michael Vick entered the game for Atlanta and marched the Falcons into field goal range where Feely split the uprights from 45 yards out to put the score at 17-10. Feely came in shortly after to kick his second fourth quarter field goal from 42 yards out and cut the score to 17-13. Feely attempted an onside kick to give the Falcons one last chance for a win, but Coleman recovered and the Texans were able to run the clock down to notch their third home victory of the season.

SUMMARY

The Texans dropped to 5-8 on the season after the Jaguars (4-9) handed them their first-ever shutout, a 27-0 loss at ALLTEL Stadium. Texans kick returner J.J. Moses took back the opening kickoff 33 yards to the Texans 47. Houston QB Dave Ragone completed his first pass, an 11-yarder to WR Andre Johnson, but a holding penalty on WR Jabar Gaffney pushed Houston back. On 3rd and 12, RB Tony Hollings caught a short pass from Ragone and fumbled. Jaguars FS Deke Cooper scooped up the loose ball to give Jacksonville possession at its own 39. The Texans' defense held, giving the offense the ball back but Houston couldn't get a first down and the Jaguars took advantage. RB Fred Taylor picked up 18 yards on the ground before QB Byron Leftwich hit WR Jimmy Smith in the end zone to give the Jaguars a 7-0 lead. In the next seven possessions, each team could manage just one first down. With less than seven minutes remaining in the half, Jacksonville K. Seth Marler split the uprights from 35 yards out to extend the lead 10-0. Jacksonville got the ball back with under two minutes remaining and Leftwich hit WR Cortez Hankton for 22 yards. CB Demarcus Faggins was flagged for pass interference, moving the ball to the nine-yard line. Three plays later, Taylor scored on a two-yard run and Houston went to the locker room down 17 points. Houston forced a punt to start the second half but soon gave the ball back to the Jaguars' offense, which was able to march down the field for a 41-yard Marler field goal attempt. But Marler's kick sailed wide right. The Texans were forced to punt and Taylor scampered for a season-long 62-yard run before RB Brandon Toefield bulled in from one yard out to increase the Jaguars lead 24-0. Marler lit up the scoreboard one more time when he hit a 28-yard field goal to cap a 27-0 Jacksonville win.

SUMMARY

The Texans fell to 5-9 after losing their final road game of the season in Tampa 16-3. The Bucs (7-7) wasted no time getting an early edge over Houston when they drove 53 yards for a touchdown on their first possession. Bucs RB Thomas Jones picked up runs of eight and four yards before QB Brad Johnson hit WR Keenan McCardell on a 14-yard strike to put Tampa Bay in the red zone. Jones plunged in from 18 yards out to give the Bucs a 7-0 lead. The Texans offense was forced to punt and Houston's defense was able to hold Tampa Bay on fourth and one to give their offensive charges another shot. But P Chad Stanley punted the ball back to Tampa Bay. Jones ran for nine yards before Johnson hit FB Jameel Cook on a hefty 19-yard pass to put the Bucs at the Houston 24. K Martin Gramatica came in soon after and split the uprights from 36 yards out to extend Tampa Bay's lead 10-0. The Bucs were able to get one more Gramatica field goal before the end of the first half after Johnson connected with WR Charles Lee for a 14-yard reception. Two plays later, Johnson found an open RB Michael Pittman who hauled downfield 50 yards to the Houston 5. But the play was called back for offensive holding and the Bucs had to settle for a 23-yard field goal to lead 13-0 at halftime. Houston's defense forced a Tampa Bay punt to start the second half and the Texans offense was able to put together a productive series. RB Dominick Davis ran for 15 yards before QB Dave Ragone hit WR Corey Bradford on a 24-yard strike. K Kris Brown came in and hit a 38-yard field goal to put the score at 13-3. But Tampa Bay responded quickly when Johnson connected with Lee on the second play of the series. Lee ran for 72 yards to put the Bucs at the Houston 8. But Houston's defense prevented a touchdown as Gramatica kicked a 26-yard field goal to extend the lead to 16-3. Houston punted and Johnson hit McCardell on receptions for 10 and 12 yards to set up a 41-yard Gramatica field goal. But SS Eric Brown got a piece of the attempt and Houston took over at their own 22. Both squads exchanged punts and Gramatica was called in for another 41-yard field goal attempt. The kick was no good but an unsportsmanlike leaping penalty against Houston gave the Bucs offense control of the ball and the opportunity to run out the clock.

SUMMARY

The Texans fell to 5-10, losing their third consecutive game and fourth against the Titans, who improved their record to 11-4 after a last-second, 24-20 win. The Texans' defense forced successive three-and-outs but Houston's offense didn't fare much better until K Kris Brown hit a 49-yard field goal in the second quarter to put the Texans up 3-0. Titans QB Steve McNair found WR Derrick Mason on a 19-yard pass before WR Justin McCareins hauled in a 73-yarder to the goal line. McNair found TE Erron Kinney on a two-yard scoring toss to give the Titans a 7-3 lead. Tennessee K Gary Anderson split the uprights from 41 yards out to extend the Texans lead 10-3 at halftime. The Texans got the ball to start the second half but on the second snap, Carr's pass to WR Andre Johnson was picked off by Titans CB Samari Rolle. McNair went back to work but FS Marlon McCree stepped in front of a pass intended for Mason and raced 95 yards for a touchdown to tie the score at 10. Houston's defense remained composed but when the Texans' offense got the ball back, RB Domanick Davis fumbled and Rolle scooped up the loose ball, running for a 61-yard touchdown to extend the Texans' lead 17-10. Houston's offense answered when Carr fired a 37-yard strike to Johnson before finding WR Corey Bradford in the end zone for a 20-yard touchdown to tie the score at 17. The Titans came back again and were able to get a 26-yard Anderson field goal to inch ahead 20-17. Both teams exchanged punts twice before Carr hit WR Derrick Armstrong for an 18-yard gain that was followed with an electrifying 42-yard Johnson catch. Davis plunged five yards into the end zone soon after to give Houston a 24-20 advantage. But McNair completed two passes to WR Drew Bennett and one to RB Chris Brown to reach the Tennessee 23. Four plays later, McNair threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to Bennett on 4th and 10 with 17 seconds remaining to lift the Titans to a 27-24 win.

SUMMARY

The Texans (5-11) dropped their final outing of the season in a gripping 20-17 loss to the Colts (12-4), who clinched the AFC South. Houston punted on its first three possessions while Indianapolis turned the ball over on two punts and once on downs to start the game. Colts QB Peyton Manning hit WR Marvin Harrison for 18 yards en route to a 69-yard scoring drive that was capped by Mike Vanderjagt's 39-yard field goal to put Indianapolis ahead 3-0. The Texans answered when QB David Carr found WR Andre Johnson on a 12-yard strike before RB Domanick Davis made two catches for 22 yards. Davis scampered 11 yards into the end zone soon after to give the Texans a 7-3 lead. CB Marcus Coleman stepped in front of a 29-yard Manning pass for a 41-yard return to set up Kris Brown's 36-yard field goal that extended Houston's lead 10-3 at halftime. Davis notched a 14-yard run to start the second half, catapulting him over the 1,000-yard mark for the season. Johnson chipped in with catches of 18 and 11 yards before Davis picked up his second touchdown of the day on a 13-yard run to give Houston a 17-3 lead. Colts RB Edgerrin James collected runs of 26 and 12 yards before finding the end zone from six yards out to put the score at 17-10 still in favor of Houston at the beginning of the fourth quarter. Houston was forced to punt on their next possession but SS Eric Brown knocked the ball loose from James while DE Corey Sears pounced and recovered at the Texans 24. The Texans offense wasn't able to take advantage of the fumble recovery and two possessions later, took over again at their own five-yard line after Vanderjagt faked a field goal with a pooch punt. Three plays later, Carr's intended pass for Johnson was intercepted by Colts DB Donald Strickland who returned the ball to the Texans five-yard line. Manning found WR Brandon Stokley for a 5-yard touchdown pass to tie the score at 17. The Texans were shut down by the Colts defense on their last possession of the game and Indianapolis took over at the two-minute warning. Manning marched the Colts offensive unit into field goal range and Vanderjagt booted a 43-yard field goal as time expired.

Texans Timeline

TEXANS TEAM HISTORY 1997

June 18: The NHL bypasses Chuck Watson and Bob McNair's efforts to bring an expansion hockey club to Houston. The pair moves on to their next project – returning the NFL to Houston.

July 3: Houston Oilers owner Bud Adams gets the green light to move his team to Nashville, Tennessee. U.S. District Judge Lynn Hughes signs the final consent judgment in the lawsuit against the team after all parties involved agree to a settlement.

October 15: NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue praises the early plans of Bob McNair and Houston for an expansion franchise at the NFL Owners' Meetings.

October 17: In reaction to Tagliabue's comments, officials from the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo (HLS&R) say they will push for the building of a domed stadium that the Rodeo will share with an NFL team, as opposed to renovating the Astrodome. It marks the Rodeo's first public statement in support of McNair's efforts.

March 23: The NFL expansion committee awards an expansion team to Cleveland. McNair, Harris County Judge Robert Eckels and Mayor Lee Brown meet with Tagliabue for the first time as a group at the owners' meeting held in Houston.

May 7: Los Angeles-based entertainment broker Michael Ovitz announces he will spearhead a $750-million proposal to build a stadium in Carson, California, in an effort to bring the NFL back to L.A.

June 30: Tagliabue and NFL Stadium Committee head Jerry Richardson visit Houston to see plans for the city's retractable-roof stadium, meeting for several hours with McNair, Houston Sports Authority Jack Rains, Brown, Eckels and HLS&R president Jim Bloodworth.

September 25: The HLS&R votes unanimously to approve paying a $1.5 million annual lease to use the proposed retractable-roof NFL stadium.

October 27: Tagliabue announces that NFL owners will have a decision on the league's newest expansion team by April.

February 16: The NFL Expansion Committee meets, but does not pick a winning bidder from the three finalists. Tagliabue says the decision will come within a month.

March 16: The NFL Expansion Committee votes 29-2 to give Los Angeles until September 15 to work out a feasible stadium and ownership plan. If L.A. cannot get a plan together, the committee will then recommend Houston for the 32nd franchise.

May 25: Ovitz unveils a new plan for a 60-acre spread of parks, parking garages and a new stadium where the Los Angeles Coliseum currently sits. The plan impresses the NFL, but the league remains concerned about a lack of financial planning for the proposed project.

June 3: In a two-hour meeting with Tagliabue, McNair is encouraged to step up his efforts for an expansion team.

July 28: Los Angeles presents an exclusive negotiating agreement to the NFL but the league does not sign it, stating that it does not address the financial situation behind the New Coliseum at Exposition Park.

September 9: NFL executives tell the Houston group to be prepared to come to the owners' meetings in Atlanta on October 6.

September 28: Marvin Davis, one of the bidders for the Los Angeles franchise, bows out of the expansion race.

Texans Timeline

October 6: The National Football League owners vote 29-0 to award the 32nd NFL franchise to Houston and Bob McNair for a record amount of $700 million.

November: McNair and Houston NFL executives start the first of 40 separate focus group sessions, which eventually total 500 individual participants. The sessions are conducted not just in Houston, but in Galveston, Austin, Beaumont, San Antonio and Corpus Christi as well. Fans are asked for their opinions on the image of Houston and its surrounding areas, the image of the NFL and the expectations for the Houston franchise.

November 24: Houston NFL debuts "transition" logo, which serves as the organization's mark until a team name is selected, and the corresponding official logo, team colors and uniform are developed. The "transition" logo is created by NFL Properties, the New York-based licensing and marketing arm of the NFL.

January 19: Houston NFL hires Charley Casserly as Executive Vice President/General Manager. Casserly comes to Houston after 23 years with the Washington Redskins, the last 10 as general manager. The Redskins captured Super Bowls XVII, XXII and XXVI during his tenure in Washington.

February: The National Football League begins researching and developing computerized designs for potential logos. Additional focus groups are conducted in Houston and San Antonio.

March 2: Houston NFL announces that its team name search has been narrowed to five choices: Apollos, Bobcats, Stallions, Texans and Wildcatters. The five names were determined after several months of research conducted jointly by Houston NFL 2002 and National Football League Properties. That research included multiple focus group studies performed in both English and Spanish in not only Houston, but also in numerous surrounding markets such as San Antonio, Austin, Galveston and Beaumont.

March 9: Houston NFL 2002 celebrates the official groundbreaking of the new stadium that will house the team when it begins play in 2002. The 69,500-seat state-of-the-art facility will be the world's first retractable-roof football stadium. Houston NFL 2002 will be a co-tenant of the new stadium with the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Participants in the groundbreaking ceremony include Bob McNair, NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo President Mike Wells, Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Commissioner Steve Hatchell, Houston Mayor Lee Brown, Harris County Judge Robert Eckels, Harris County Commissioner (Precinct 1) El Franco Lee, Harris County Sports & Convention Corporation Chairman Mike Surface and Harris County-Houston Sports Authority Chairman Billy Burge.

April: The list of five team names is shaved to three—Apollos, Stallions and Texans. Color logo designs are presented to focus groups for feedback.

August 10: McNair and other club officials view the final proofs of the selected team logo at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. NFL Properties conducts television and

September 6: The NFL's 32nd franchise is officially christened the Houston Texans before thousands at a downtown rally on Texas Avenue. NFL commissioner Tagliabue introduces McNair, who then unveils his team's name, colors and logo to the crowd. The ceremony, televised live on ESPN2, includes simultaneous unveilings in Austin and San Antonio. McNair then heads to Enron Field, where he throws out the first "pitch" (actually a Texans football) to Houston Astros Owner Drayton McLane before the Astros play the Florida Marlins.

September 7: The Texans are honored by the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in Waco. Club officials present the Hall of Fame with a Texans helmet, football and other merchandise, which is placed in a display case in the football wing of the Hall of Fame.

October 26: Reliant Energy acquires the naming rights for Houston's new state-of-the-art football stadium and the sports, entertainment and convention complex currently known as the Astrodomain Complex. Reliant Energy's 32-year agreement to acquire the naming rights for five different buildings and the complex is the most comprehensive naming rights agreement in history. Reliant Park will be a partnership of mutual support between the Harris County Sports and Convention Corporation, the Houston Texans, RodeoHouston and Reliant Energy. The facilities at Reliant Park will include Reliant Stadium, Reliant Astrodome, Reliant Arena, Reliant Hall and Reliant Center.

November 1: At its owners' meetings in Atlanta, the NFL announces that Reliant Stadium will host Super Bowl XXXVIII on February 1, 2004. Houston becomes the seventh city to host multiple Super Bowls. Rice Stadium hosted Super Bowl VIII in 1974. Jacksonville is awarded Super Bowl XXXIX and Detroit earns Super Bowl XL.

January 21: The Texans introduce Dom Capers as the club's first head coach. Capers comes to Houston from Jacksonville, where he served the previous two seasons as the Jaguars' defensive coordinator. From 1995-98, Capers was the head coach of the expansion Carolina Panthers, leading the team to the NFC West title and a berth in the NFC Championship Game in 1996.

February 2: Chris Palmer is hired as the Texans' first offensive coordinator. Palmer spent the previous two seasons as head coach of the expansion Cleveland Browns.

May 22: The NFL formally unveils its realignment plan for the 2002 season at league meetings in Chicago. The league will feature eight four-team divisions. The Texans are placed in the AFC South with Indianapolis, Jacksonville and Tennessee.

June 12: Bob McNair and Titans owner Bud Adams each donate $100,000 to the Red Cross in an effort to aid Houston flood victims. NFL Charities matches the donation. More than 20,000 Houston-area families were displaced from their homes by raging flood waters the previous weekend.

Texans Timeline

September 25: The Texans unveil their team uniforms before a crowd of 12,000 fans in downtown Houston. Local dignitaries and numerous Texan celebrities join Bob McNair on stage for the ceremony. The Houston Texans Cheerleaders also make their debut.

November 5: The Texans hold their first player workouts, evaluating a group of defensive backs.

December 29: The Texans sign 10 players to the first contracts in club history. The team's first players are running back Michael Basnight, safety Leomont Evans, tackle Robert Hicks, defensive tackle Jason Nikolao, quarterback Mike Quinn, fullback Matt Snider, cornerback Jason Suttle, linebacker Casey Tisdale, safety Kevin Williams and tackle Jerry Wisne.

2002

January 14: The Texans hire former Indianapolis Colts defensive coordinator Vic Fangio as their first defensive coordinator.

March 4: The Texans execute the first trade in club history, shipping QB Danny Wuerffel to Washington in exchange for DT Jerry DeLoach.

March 6: The Texans sign their first unrestricted free agent, inking former Colts offensive lineman Steve McKinney.

March 25: The Texans launch their off-season program at Reliant Astrodome. All 65 players report.

April 20: The Texans select Fresno State quarterback David Carr with the first overall selection of the 2002 NFL Draft. Carr flies back to Houston from New York that afternoon to sign a seven-year contract. He is the first of 12 players Houston selects over seven rounds.

April 26: The Texans open their first mini-camp with 99 players, including 25 rookies.

April 28: The Texans launch their first Texans Outreach Tour, taking players to Austin, Beaumont, College Station, Corpus Christi and Lufkin over a five-day stretch.

July 20: Ninety-seven players report for the Texans' first-ever training camp. Camp is held at the club's training facility in Houston. The players go through conditioning drills the following day before hitting the practice field on July 22.

August 2: The Texans scrimmage the Cowboys before a crowd of 27,536 at the University of Houston's Robertson Stadium.

August 5: In their first preseason game, the Texans fall to the New York Giants 34-17 in the annual Pro Football Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio. Kris Brown kicks a 22-yard field goal for Houston's first points. TE Billy Miller and WR Sherrod Gideon follow with touchdown receptions.

Texans Timeline

August 10: The Texans record their first preseason win, defeating the New Orleans Saints 13-10 at the Louisiana Superdome.

August 24: The Texans open Reliant Stadium with a 24-3 preseason loss to the Miami Dolphins.

September 8: The Texans become the first NFL team in 41 years to win their expansion debut, stunning the Dallas Cowboys 19-10 before 69,604 at Reliant Stadium. QB David Carr throws two touchdown passes, including a 19-yarder to TE Billy Miller for the club's first-ever touchdown. DT Seth Payne sacks Cowboys QB Quincy Carter in the end zone for a safety to clinch the victory.

October 27: The Texans win on the road for the first time, defeating Jacksonville 21-19 at ALLTEL Stadium. K Kris Brown nails a 45-yard field goal with 2:11 left to provide the winning points.

December 8: Despite just 47 yards of total offense, the Texans shock eventual AFC North champion Pittsburgh 24-6 at Heinz Field. All three of Houston's touchdowns are scored by the defense – two interception returns by CB Aaron Glenn and a fumble return by CB Kenny Wright. The 47 yards mark the lowest output by a winning team in NFL history.

December 19: CB Aaron Glenn and DE Gary Walker are selected to represent the AFC in the 2003 Pro Bowl. It is the third selection for Glenn (1997, 1998) and the second for Walker (2001). The Texans tie the 1961 Vikings for the most players selected on an expansion team and become the first expansion club to be represented since the Saints in 1967, when all teams were required to have at least one player selected.

February 2: CB Aaron Glenn and DE Gary Walker start for the AFC in the Pro Bowl and help their conference to a 45-20 win before 50,125 at Aloha Stadium in Honolulu.

February 13: Texans general manager Charley Casserly is named to the NFL's Competition Committee for the second time in his 25-year NFL career.

April 26: The Texans use the third overall selection of the 2003 NFL Draft to pick Miami WR Andre Johnson, who caught 22 touchdowns passes in three seasons with the Hurricanes.

Sept. 7: The Texans become the first NFL expansion team to win two consecutive regular season openers, stunning the heavily-favored Dolphins 21-20 in Miami. K Kris Brown hits a game-winning 35-yard FG in the final minute, one of a team-record five field goals.

Sept. 21: The Texans, in conjunction with Siemens and the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, open a photography exhibit entitled First Down Houston: The Birth of an NFL Franchise. The exhibit features 86 black-and-white photos taken by Robert Clark, who followed the Texans throughout their inaugural season.

Texans Timeline

Sept. 28: QB David Carr leaps over the goal line from one yard out on the game's final play, lifting Houston to a 24-20 win over Jacksonville at Reliant Stadium. Dom Capers is named Staples NFL Coach of the Week for his decision to go for the touchdown.

Nov. 13: After rushing for 104 yards and one touchdown in Houston's loss to Cincinnati, rookie RB Domanick Davis wins his fourth consecutive NFL Rookie of the Week honor, the first in league history to do so.

Jan. 29: RB Domanick Davis is named NFL Rookie of the Year at a press conference at the George R. Brown Convention Center. NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue is on hand to present Davis the trophy. WR Andre Johnson is another one of the five finalists.

Feb. 1: Reliant Stadium hosts one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever as New England defeats Carolina 32-29 in Super Bowl XXXVIII. Patriots K Adam Vinatieri nabs a 41-yard FG with four seconds remaining to give his team the win.

Mar. 4: The Texans sign three unrestricted free agents, inking former Titans DT Robaire Smith, former Dolphins T Todd Wade and re-signing G Todd Washington.

Mar. 31: NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue selects Bob McNair to chair a new league committee that will study revenue and costs.

Apr. 24: The Texans select twice in the first round of the NFL Draft for the first time in club history, using the 10th pick to select South Carolina CB Dunta Robinson and trading up to get Tennessee's first-round pick (27th overall), where Houston selected Western Michigan LB Jason Babin.

SIDELINES

KEEPING THE TEXANS AT PEAK PERFORMANCE

The Houston Texans understand the aches and pains associated with professional football.

That's why they depend on The Methodist Hospital to get them back in the game.

Ranked as one of the best orthopedic hospitals in the country, Methodist combines the latest research with leading technologies, offering patients some of the most advanced options. For orthopedic problems — from common to rare — you want the all-stars on your side.

Reliant Stadium

The city of Houston has always been on the cutting edge of stadium development. Houston first introduced the Astrodome, which opened in 1965 as the world's first dome stadium. The trend continued in 2002 with the debut of Reliant Stadium.

Reliant Stadium, the first NFL stadium with a retractable roof, opened for business on Aug. 24, 2002, as the Texans hosted the Miami Dolphins in their first home preseason game. Houston's regular season debut against Dallas on Sept. 8 was televised nationally on ESPN. The Texans between the New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers. The Patriots won 32-29 on Adam Vinatieri's 41-yard field goal with four seconds remaining before a raucous crowd of 71,525. The event also featured elaborate pregame and halftime shows featuring the likes of Aerosmith, Beyoncé, Kid Rock, Janet Jackson, P. Diddy, Nelly, Toby Keith and Willie Nelson.

Reliant Stadium has also played host to numerous college football games, including two Houston Bowls and the 2002 Big 12 Championship Game. The stadium has stunned the Cowboys before a raucous crowd, unveiling a gameday atmosphere that would become a staple throughout the Texans' inaugural campaign.

That trend continued in 2003 as the Texans averaged 70,469 fans for their eight regular season games, including a record crowd of 70,758 against Tennessee on Dec. 21, the largest non-Super Bowl crowd in the city's history.

And speaking of the Super Bowl, the world's biggest sports spectacle returned to Houston for the first time in 30 years this past February as Reliant Stadium hosted a memorable Super Bowl XXXVIII also become one of the nation's leading soccer venues. The U.S. National Soccer Team hosted Mexico before a sold-out crowd in May 2003 in the two teams' first match since their 2002 World Cup meeting. Earlier this year, Reliant Stadium hosted four soccer matches of the Interliga qualification competition featuring eight Mexican first-division club teams.

The Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo continued to play to a packed house in 2004, boasting such acts as John Mayer, Reba McIntire, Brooks and Dunn, Jessica Simpson and Enrique Iglesias. The 2003 Rodeo lineup featured Alabama, Ashanti,

Reliant Stadium

Bon Jovi, Julio Iglesias, Martina McBride, LL Cool J, George Strait and ZZ Top. Reliant Stadium has also played host to The Rolling Stones and Metallica.

Ground broke on Reliant Stadium on March 9, 2000. The stadium, covering 1.9 million square feet, features 44,000 seats on the sideline. There are 8,200 club seats and 187 suites. The suites are the closest to the field in the NFL.

With the innovation of the retractable roof, Houston returned to outdoor NFL action in 2002 for the first time since Super Bowl VIII at Rice Stadium in 1974.

Adam Vinatieri's last-second field goal propelled the Patriots to a 32-29 win over the Panthers in Super Bowl XXXVIII at Reliant Stadium.

The roof is made of translucent Teflon-coated fiberglass fabric, and takes 10 minutes to open and close. When opening, the roof splits at the 50-yard line and docks in the end zones. The roof can withstand winds as strong as 140 miles per hour when closed and secured. Six of the 16 Texans games have been played with the roof closed, as was Super Bowl XXXVIII.

The climate-controlled stadium also features a natural grass-playing surface. The grass is grown on eight-foot square trays then transported to the stadium.

Reliant Stadium features an open view of the playing field from the main concourse and on the club level. The main concourse is 40 feet wide, which makes it the largest in the NFL. Each concession stand has multiple televisions enabling Texans fans to stay on top of the action.

Reliant Stadium can also boast a larger than life scoreboard. Following the trend that was started with the Astrodome scoreboard, Reliant Stadium houses two of the largest in the league. Both include out of town scores, down and distance, the game

His post-game press conferences are held in one of the team's two media auditoriums on the ground level. The stadium's press box is located on the eighth level of the stadium's west side, flanking Kirby Drive.

Across the street, the Texans' training facility features three grass practice fields. One field is lit for night sessions during training camp. The Texans also have an indoor practice field outfitted with Field Turf. The air-supported structure offers the team a seamless transition from outdoor to indoor practice in case of inclement weather. The state-of-the-art facility also doubles as the team's training camp headquarters.

Reliant Energy

Houston-based Reliant Energy is proud of its 100-year heritage of providing energy products and services to homes and businesses. Our residential division currently serves over 1.6 million Texas customers. The business divisions provide electric services to over 200,000 small-to-medium-sized companies, as well as customized, integrated electric commodity and energy management services to large commercial, industrial and institutional customers in Texas. In addition, we are currently expanding to serve business customers in several northeastern states.

Reliant Energy's wholesale energy business acquires, develops and operates electric power generation facilities that are not subject to traditional cost-based rate regulation and conducts commercial activities related to those assets. Currently we have nearly 20,000 megawatts of generation in operation in six regions of the U.S. or under construction.

Reliant Energy in the Community

Reliant Energy is committed to its tradition of community involvement and service through both volunteer activities and financial contributions. Our goal is to make a positive impact on the community and the environment, while fulfilling Reliant Energy's responsibility to provide reliable energy for the customers we serve.

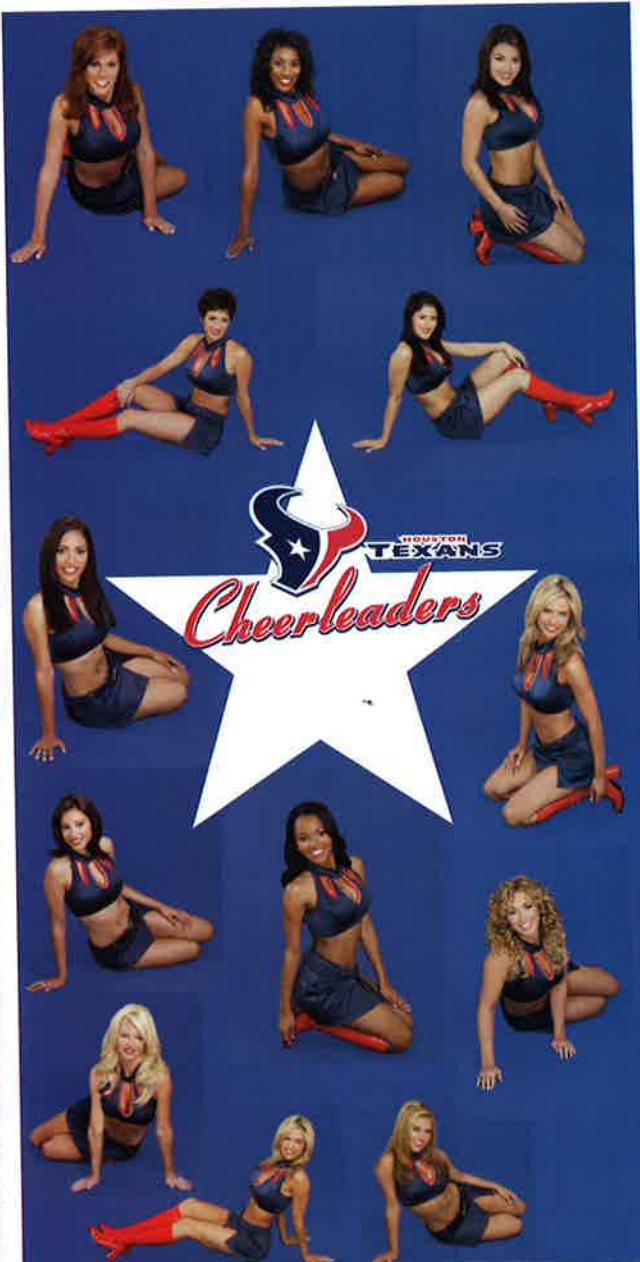

Reliant Energy and the Houston Texans

Reliant Energy is proud to be the power behind the Houston Texans – and to have helped bring the NFL back to Houston. Reliant Stadium represents a major investment in the future of Harris County and Houston that will bring benefits to the region and enjoyment to Texans for many years to come.

Community Round Up

When Robert McNair formed the league's 32nd franchise, he envisioned that the Texans' success would reside in its character, attitude and enthusiasm both on and off the field.

The Texans take great pride in the greater Houston community. Whether showing support through community, civic or charitable efforts, the organization is committed to aiding the community that has been there to cheer on the Texans' efforts from the outset. Here is a glance at some of the club's continuing community endeavors.

Devoted Donors

Donors began lining up even before the 7 a.m. door opening of The Houston Texans and Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center Second Annual Houston Texans Blood Drive at Reliant Stadium on September 16, 2003.

The drive collected over 1,700 donations, as Texans players, Cheerleaders and team mascot TORO were on hand to meet and greet patrons throughout the day.

Texans Trendsetters

Over 20 players and their hip wives took part in the Football with Style Fashion Show. Those in attendance saw the football personalities come to life on the catwalk while proceeds from ticket sales and auction items went to benefit Family Services of Greater Houston and The Houston Texans Foundation.

Shop with the Texans

A group of 25 children from the Houston-area Women's Center went on a very memorable outing when the Texans and Palais Royal teamed up for a group holiday shopping spree. The children were given a Palais Royal gift card while Texans players and Cheerleaders assisted them in making their holiday gift purchases.

Fred Weary helps his shopping partner pick out a holiday gift.

Opening Its Door for the Texans

Several Texans players were welcomed into the Open Door Mission men's shelter to serve lunch to the members of the Mission's program. The Open Door Mission provides a safe haven for men in the Houston community who are homeless, addicted and destitute. The men are able to recover from substance abuse, continue education, and receive healthcare, clothing and food.

Thanksgiving Feast

Several Texans celebrated Thanksgiving with the children of the Lincoln Park Housing Project in the Boys and Girls Club Kids Café, which provides nourishing, after-school snacks and hot meals prepared on-site with the help of the children. The players served up a turkey lunch with all the fixings and stayed to visit with the children and sign autographs.

Getting a Head Start

The Texans hosted almost 200 high school students for their first "Join the Team: Integrating Business and Sports" career day at Reliant Stadium. The students took part in seminars led by guest speakers from the sports marketing, business and journalism fields. The forum gave students an opportunity to get an early jump on pursuing a career in the sports industry.

Community Round Up

Friendly Competition

Texans kicker Kris Brown showed off his impressive toe touch, linebackers Kailee Wong and Jamie Sharper resurrected their favorite high school cheer routine and defensive end Gary Walker tapped into his artistic talent as the group competed against employees from The Methodist Hospital in the Second Annual Methodist Hospital Pep Rally.

Making Rounds

Throughout the fall, the Texans players, Cheerleaders and TORO spend much of their

Tuesday off time visiting various hospitals throughout the Houston area. While many of Houston's children's hospitals are popular Tuesday stops, a group of Texans players and Cheerleaders spent a few hours in November with inhabitants of the Houston Veterans Affairs Medical Center that houses more than 435,000 veterans in southeast Texas.

Teachers for a Day

As part of the Texans' on-going involvement in area educational outlets, offensive tackle Chester Pitts and Vice President of Communications Tony Wyllie took part in the "Teach for America Program." The two set off for a day in the classroom at Sherman Elementary School and put their writing and arithmetic skills to the test as guest teachers.

Houston Texans Foundation

The Houston Texans Foundation is committed to encouraging and enabling all youth and families in Houston and the surrounding area to reach their full potential and to achieve success. The Foundation seeks to assist through educational, financial, volunteer and collaborative support while administering programs that develop strong minds and bodies, with an emphasis on leadership, integrity and character for the youth who will become the leaders of the next generation.

The Texans Foundation provides major financial support to The United Way of the Texas Gulf Coast, Sam Houston Area Council Boy Scouts of America, Girls Scouts of San Jacinto Council, Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, Harris County Precinct 1 Street Olympics and Youth Football Initiatives.

IKON All-Stars Ticket Program

The Texans Foundation completed a second successful year of its unique ticket program, where youth earned the privilege to attend a game by developing and implementing a com munity service project in their neighborhood. Over 3,000 youth qualified for the IKON All-Stars program, earning tickets to cheer on the Texans at Reliant Stadium.

Swing Away

Over 130 golfers hit the links for the Second Annual Houston Texans Charity Golf Classic presented by Verizon Wireless. The group convened at The River Oaks Country Club for a round of golf, a luncheon and auction that produced $135,000 in proceeds to fund The Houston Texans Foundation's major charities for the 2004 season.

Texans players, corporate participants, and guest celebrities hit the links in support of the Texans Foundation's many charities.

Tackling Reading

Houston Texans Seth Payne and Billy Miller, along with Robert and Janice McNair, served as spokespersons for the Reliant Energy Power Readers Program. The literacy program encourages good reading habits, increases library usage and family participation as it rewards children and young adults who have attained set goals in summer and fall reading programs.

Along with Reliant Energy, the City of Houston Public Libraries, the Houston READ Commission, Harris County Libraries and

TE Billy Miller leads story hour at a Houston-area library.

ARAMARK, the Houston Texans Foundation put on the free program throughout the fall with guest reading appearances from both Payne and Miller. The Texans and Reliant Energy also provided 100 general admission tickets to each of the Texans home games with a free hot dog, soft drink and t-shirt.

Driving Through the Community

At Reliant Stadium, the Texans Foundation joined Craig's Cleaners for a very successful Coat & Blanket Drive for the Star of Hope Missions. Along with the Marine Corps, the Texans took part in the Toys for Tots Drive and also teamed up with the Houston Food Bank for a game day Food Drive. Fans came through with flying colors for the Book Drive, as reading materials were distributed to Houston communities by the Houston READ Commission speakers such as Texans owner Robert McNair and general manager Charley Casserly. Proceeds from the series of luncheons benefited the Texans Foundation.

Texans Special Events Outreach

Honoring Houston Community Heroes
The Houston Texans named Shirley Grimes of the Tamina Community Center as their 2003 recipient of the NFL Community Quarterback Award. The NFL Community Quarterback Award recognizes outstanding volunteers in the 32 NFL markets and awards nearly $1 million to the charitable organizations that they serve.

Shirley Grimes accepted the Texans NFL Community Quarterback Award for her tremendous efforts in her community of Tamina.

Grimes was honored for her tireless efforts in her community of Tamina. As the overall winner, she received $10,000 from the Texans Foundation and $25,000 from the NFL for her organization in addition to two Super Bowl tickets. The ten Community Quarterback Award finalists were each presented with a $1,000 check for their organizations.

Texans Business Lunch Series

Guests joined Texans speakers, players, Cheerleaders and mascot TORO for a series of lunches at the Hotel Derek throughout the year. Some of the area's top business leaders heard

The Texans have created many fan events throughout the year. Events include the Texans Draft Party, Running of the Bulls 5K Run, Outreach Tour, Cheerleader and Bull Pen Pep Band Tryouts, Football 101, Training Camp, Texans Week, Cheerleader Magazine Preview Party, Cheerleader Halloween Party, Ultimate Fan Contest and Youth and Hispanic Outreach Programs. These events are programmed to cultivate the Texans' fan base and make a positive impact on their lives.

Outreach Tour

The Texans extended their outreach throughout Texas on their annual Outreach Tour sponsored by Miller Lite. Texans players, Cheerleaders and TORO visited Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Tyler, Lubbock, Ft. Hood, College Station, Austin, San Antonio, Galveston and other cities outside of Houston. School visits, hospital visits, autograph signings and fan events were scheduled throughout the tour.

Health & Safety Tour

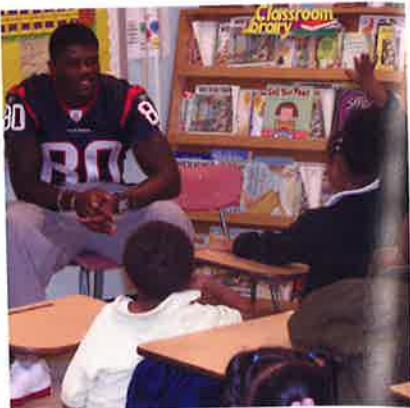

The Texans Cheerleaders and TORO teamed up with The Methodist Hospital for their annual Health & Safety Tour. This elementary school tour emphasizes the importance of health and safety issues that will positively influence the students. The program includes interactive games, a skit on fire safety and nutritional information.

Football 101 for Women

The Texans hosted the 4th Annual Football 101 for Women at Foley's Downtown this past January. Texans players and coaches taught a sold-out crowd the X's and O's of the game and the women got insight into Super Bowl XXVIII held in Houston. All attendees received a Texans gift bag with a Football 101 guide.

WR Andre Johnson returns to the classroom as a part of Take a Texan to School Day.

Holiday Down Under

The Texans teamed up with Outback Steakhouse in December for a special Holiday Luncheon with a spirited group of Houston-area children. Children from Stovall Academy dined over chicken fingers with a group of Texans players, Cheerleaders and TORO.

WR Corey Bradford and his lunch pals chat over a few steaks at the Texans holiday luncheon.

Youth Outreach

The Texans are committed to increasing the sport of football and the game's youth fan base. Events and programs include Youth Coaching Clinics, Coaching Academy, Junior Player Development, Senior Player Development, Quarterbacks Camp, Kicking Camp and Youth Football Camps. The Texans also orchestrate Gatorade Jr. Training Camp, NFL Flag, Punt, Pass & Kick, High School Coach of the Week and the Kid's Club.

Hispanic Outreach

The Houston Texans have created many outreach programs to build a relationship with the Hispanic community. The Texans have a strong broadcast and promotional partnerships with Univision Radio and Univision Television. Grass roots events include Football Fiesta, Football en Espanol, JA Job Shadow Days, Gatorade Jr. Training Camps, Hispanic Heritage Day, Hispanic Corporate Summit and a Hispanic Media Luncheon. The Texans also created a Hispanic Advisory Board and have formed partnerships with the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.

Preseason Television

ABC-13/KTRK-TV is the official television home of the Houston Texans and the flagship station of the Houston Texans Television Network. The announcers for all four of the Texans' 2004 preseason games will be veteran broadcasters Joel Meyers and Craig James. Meyers spent 10 years as a play-by-play voice for NBC's NFL coverage, the NBA, Major League Baseball, the Olympics and golf. He also has extensive play-by-play experience with FOX

Sports and ESPN. James, a former SMU and NFL running back, is a college football analyst for ABC/ESPN and a former analyst for CBS Sports' NFL pre-game studio show, "The NFL Today."

On the sidelines and hosting pre-game and post-game coverage will be ABC-13's Eyewitness Sports Team members Bob Allen (13 Sports Director), Tim Melton (13 Weekend Sports Director) and Bob Slovak (13 Sports reporter/anchor).

Texans Radio Network

Infinity Broadcasting Corporation signed a 10-year agreement with the Houston Texans in September 2000. This agreement gave Infinity the exclusive right to broadcast Houston Texans Football games and produce numerous ancillary programs featuring the team. Infinity will simulcast all Texans games on Country station 100.3 KILT-FM and SportsRadio 610 AM. Infinity Radio Houston stations Smooth Jazz 95.7 and Business Radio 650 will be promotional partners with the Houston Texans as well. The game broadcasts will include a three-hour pre-game show and a two-hour post-game show hosted by Rich Lord, Charlie Pallilo and Lance Zierlein on SportsRadio 610. Texans weekly guests on SportsRadio 610 include head coach Dom Capers, general manager Charley Casserly, cornerback Aaron Glenn, center Steve McKinney, and quarterback David Carr.

Marc Vandermeer enters his third season as the "Voice of the Houston Texans." Vandermeer brings a solid 15 years of radio broadcasting experience to the booth. Prior to his work in Houston, Vandermeer was the voice of the University of Miami Hurricanes football and basketball teams. He currently serves as a talk show host on SportsRadio 610 and does morning drive sports reports on 100.3 KILT-FM. Joining

Vandermeer in the booth to provide analysis is former Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware. Ware, a native Houstonian, played his college football at the University of Houston before becoming a first-round draft pick of the Detroit Lions. After his football career, Ware made the jump into the broadcast booth as color commentator for the Houston Cougars. He also currently serves as an analyst for college football games on ESPN. Ware was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame this year.

SportsRadio 610 talk show host John Granato will handle sideline reporting during all Texans games. Granato has worked in television and radio with a wide range of experience. He currently serves as a co-host of SportsRadio 610's morning show.

Texans Spanish Radio Network

LA TREMENDA 1010AM

KLAT La Tremenda is proud to be the flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Houston Texans for the third consecutive season. Representing 37.4 percent of Houston's 1.9 million people, Hispanics offer a huge fan base for the Texans. Since the team's inception, the Texans have realized the power of Hispanic Houston and recognized how many long-time fans they stood to gain. It's no wonder they turned to Houston's Heritage Spanish Station, La Tremenda, to reach these fans with their broadcast. So get your team spirit pumping, strap on the pads and ask yourself: Are you ready for some fútbol Americano?

La Tremenda 1010 AM is owned and operated by Univision Communications Inc., the premier Spanish-language media company in the United States, which currently owns and/or operates 68 radio stations in 17 of the top 25 U.S. Hispanic markets and four stations in Puerto Rico. In Houston, they also broadcast KLTN-FM (Estereo Latino 102.9 FM), KOVE-FM (KLOVE 106.5FM), KQBU-FM (Que Buena 93.3 FM), KOBT-FM (Orbita 100.7FM), KRTX-AM (Tejano 980 AM) and KPTY-FM (Party 104.9 FM).

An avid sports fan, Rolando Becerra will continue to serve as the play-by-play voice for the Texans on La Tremenda. Becerra is the only Hispanic commentator to have done play-by-play broadcasts for five major sports teams: the Houston Astros (1986-1992), the Houston Rockets (1988-1993), the Houston Oilers (1995-1997), the Houston Aeros (1999-2000) and the Texans (2002-04).

Becerra, originally from Cuba, began his radio career in Miami in 1973. He's been a Houston resident and radio constant for more than 20 years. You can also catch him on KLAT-AM as host of the "Rolando Becerra Show," which airs Monday through Friday from 6-9 a.m. Los Houston Texans is broadcast on La Tremenda Mondays from 6-7 p.m. and Deportes Espectacular will air Saturdays from 3-5 p.m. with Becerra and Felipe Valenzuela. Becerra has been married to his wife, Jenny, for 35 years and they are parents to four children: Barbra, Jason, Jaron and Megan.

Enrique Vasquez returns to handle color commentary duties for Texans broadcasts on La Tremenda. Vasquez came back to the Houston football scene after a two-year run doing color commentary for the Dallas Cowboys, where he also did play-by-play in the late 1990s. He has also done sports broadcasting for Fox Sports, covering everything from basketball to the Olympics to Super Bowls. Some Texans fans and La Tremenda listeners may remember Vasquez as one of the Spanish broadcast voices for the Houston Oilers from 1992 to 1995. Vasquez also writes a popular weekly column for the Spanish section of HoustonTexans.com.

Medical Glossary

A-C Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process (of the scapula) and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct - Movement of any extremity away from the body.

Abrasion - Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess - An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Achilles Tendon - The tendon at the back of the heel.

Abductor - Any muscle which moves a part toward the median axis of the body.

Adhesion - Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic - Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired; required for sustained periods of hard work and vigorous exercise.

Anabolic Steroids - Testosterone, or a steroid hormone resembling testosterone, that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.

Anaerobic - Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg (comprising of muscles, nerves and arteries to the foot) jeopardizes the viability of the muscles and nerves within the compartment.

Anti-Inflammatory - Any agent which prevents inflammation (such as aspirin or ibuprofen).

Arteriogram - Film demonstrating arteries after injection of opaque medium (dye).

Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected in affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).

Arthroscope - An instrument used for visualization of the interior of a joint cavity; sometimes referred to as "scope."

Arthroscopy - Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of surgical viewing apparatus (arthroscope) inserted into the joint.

Aspiration - The withdrawal of fluids from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus (syringe).

Asymptomatic - Without symptoms.

Atrophy - To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis - Death of a part due to lack of circulation (can occur in the elbow from throwing).

Avulsion - A tearing away forcibly of a part of structure.

Axilla - The armpit.

Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.

Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).

Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for bending the elbow.

Bone scan - "Radionuclide Imaging," which is useful to demonstrate stress fracture not evident on routine x-rays.

Brachial Plexus - Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae running down the arm.

Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

C.P.R. - Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation; artificial establishment of circulation of the blood and movement of air into the lungs in a pulseless, non-breathing person.

Calcaneus - The heel bone.

Calf - Also known as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavicle - The collar bone.

Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital - Existing before birth; to be born with.

Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortisone - An anti-inflammatory medication.

Costochondral - The cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration - Loss of body water.

Deltoids - Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.

Dice - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Ecchymosis - Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ecotomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).

Medical Glossary

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.

Electrolyte - Ionized salts in blood, tissue fluids and cells including salts of sodium, potassium and chlorine.

Electrolyte Drink - Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.

EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.

Eversion - Turning outward.

Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.

Extensor - A muscle which upon contraction results in straightening a joint.

External Rotation - Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Femur - Thigh bone.

Fibula - The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.

Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.

Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.

Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.

Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.

Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenohumeral - The shoulder socket, containing the glenoid, the humeral head and the labrum.

Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.

Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.

Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.

Heat Cramps - Painful muscle spasms of arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolyte.

Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide fascial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodes, etc.

Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.

Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).

Iitis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).

Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbosacral - Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.

Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Meniscus - Crescent shaped cartilage usually pertaining to the knee joint.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.

Metacarpals - Five long bones of hand, just below fingers.

Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.

Mobilization - Passive stretching movements performed by a therapist at a slow speed slow enough that a patient can stop the movement.

Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.

Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis - An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.

Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for evertting the foot.

Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

Quadriceps (Quads) - The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.

Referred Pain - Pain felt in undamaged area of body away from actual injury.

Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.

S-C Joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.

Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.

Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).

Scapula - The shoulder blade.

Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.

Scoliosis - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the cap.

Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.

Shin splint - A catch-all syndrome describing pain either in the front of the lower leg or on the inner aspect of the leg.

Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.

Spleen - Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis - Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylosis - Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.

Sprain - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

Stinger - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle of a tendon.

Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.

Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.

Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.

Talus - The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula.

Tarsus - Arch of foot.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.

Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.

Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.

Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue in a particular depth.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trapezius - A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.

Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Turf Burn - Abrasion resulting from contact with artificial turf in which one or more layers of skin are removed.

Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.

Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Texans Media Policy

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Only credential requests from working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication will be honored credential requests. Credentials will not be issued to free-lance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. All credential requests must be submitted online at houstontexans.com/media/credentials.

PARKING: Parking for Texans games must be applied for via written request. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to media parking lots on gameday.

MEDIA ENTRANCE AND WILL CALL: The media entrance is located at the press gate on Murworth/Kirby intersection on the West side of the stadium. The will call window is located inside the press gate in the hallway next to the daily press workroom. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the credential will-call window. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers who are credentialed on a season-long basis for sideline access will be required to wear a photo vest. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for recognized or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct post game interviews will be given access to the Texans' and visiting interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE TEXANS LOCKER ROOM. With six minutes remaining in the game, take the media elevator the field level. With two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, media members will be allowed on the field. NO INTERVIEWS ARE ALLOWED ON THE PLAYING FIELD. Dom Capers' post game interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Texans team meeting room across from their locker room. Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the multi-box to ease congestion at the podium. Players also will be available approximately 10 minutes after the game when the locker room is open. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitor's interview room adjacent to the visiting locker room.

PRESS BOX: The press box phone numbers are (832) 667-2301 (Texans PR) and (832) 667-2310 (visiting PR).

Texans Media Policy

DURING THE WEEK

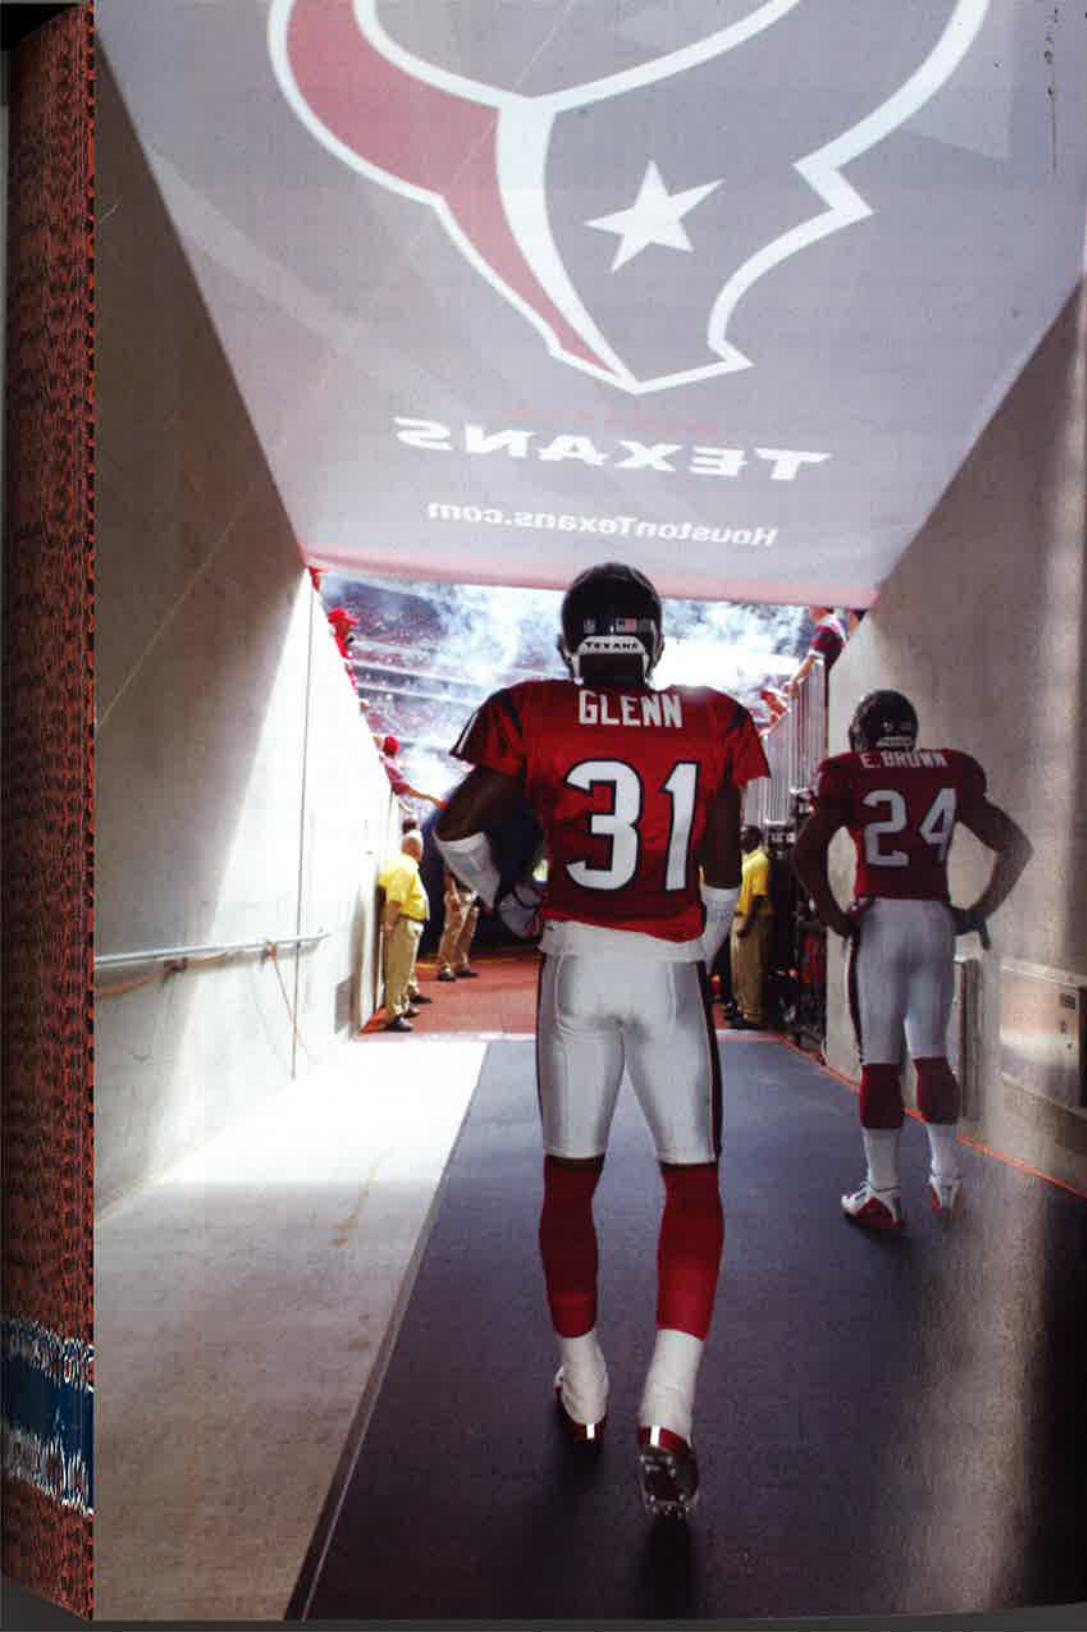

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom is located on the concourse level at Reliant Stadium across from the Texans' locker room. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Phones, Texans information, NFL news releases and other information are available.

DOM CAPERS INTERVIEWS: Head coach Dom Capers will conduct a weekly news conference at 3:00 p.m. (CST) on Mondays in the media workroom. He also will be available after practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The Texans' locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. Tuesday is the players' day off. The locker room is open to the media from 3:30-4:00 p.m. (CST) on Mondays, from 11:45-12:15 a.m. on Wednesdays and Thursdays, and from 2:15-2:35 on Fridays. All interviews should be arranged through the Texans media relations office. Interviews may be conducted in person or by phone. Please call in advance when possible to schedule.

PRESS RELEASES: The Texans' weekly press releases, as well as other news and information on the club, can be accessed on the team's official website at houstontexans.com or in the media section at houstontexans.com/media/. Members of the media also can access league information from the NFL's media site at nflmedia.com. The NFL's official web site address is nfl.com.

Highest Model Loyalty

F-Series has the Highest Model Loyalty in its class as recognized by Polk. *

You Keep Your Best Players.

Ford owners have put the franchise tag on F-Series. That's because F-Series has more return purchases than any other full-size pickup, as recognized by Polk.* With more towing, more payload, a quieter interior and more, Ford F-Series is the best-selling truck more Texans want to own.

BEST IN TEXAS

*According to Polk statistics for the Full-Size Pickup category in the 2003 model year, Ford F-Series ranked highest by having the greatest percentage of households return to purchase or lease another F-Series vehicle.

Ford is the Official Vehicle of the Houston Texans.
