TEXANS OPEN 2018 PRESEASON AT CHIEFS

The Houston Texans open their 2018 preseason schedule on the road against the Kansas City Chiefs on Thursday, Aug. 9. Kickoff at Arrowhead Stadium is set for 7:30 p.m. CT on KTRK (ABC-13), SportsRadio610 (610 AM, 100.3 FM) and in Spanish on Mega 101 FM (101.1 FM).

Houston has completed over a week of training camp and will travel from The Greenbrier in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. to Kansas City, Mo. on Wednesday, Aug. 8 to face the Chiefs. Following the game, the Texans will travel back to Houston to continue 2018 Training Camp presented by Xfinity at the Houston Methodist Training Center. On Aug. 15-16, Houston will welcome the San Francisco 49ers for joint practices leading up to their second preseason game.

The Texans went 1-2 in the 2017 preseason, including defeating the New England Patriots in Week 2, but had their fourth preseason game vs. the Dallas Cowboys cancelled due to Hurricane Harvey. Houston is 5-2 in their last seven preseason games after going 4-0 in the 2016 preseason. The Texans are also 9-7 all-time in preseason openers and 10-6 all-time in their first road game of the preseason, including 9-3 in their last 12 road preseason openers.

Houston last faced Kansas City to start the 2009 preseason in a 16-10 road win. The Texans are 2-1 all-time against the Chiefs in the preseason, including a 24-14 victory at home in 2006 and a 19-9 loss on the road in 2002. The last time Houston and Kansas City faced one another was in Week 5 last season on Sunday Night Football, a game the Texans lost 42-34.

Italic indicates games subject to flex scheduling. See notes below.

All kickoff times are Central; # - Televised Nationally; Home Games in BOLD

All games are broadcast live on Texans Radio on SportsRadio610, 100.3 The Bull and in Spanish on Mega 101 FM.

FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING

- Flexible scheduling may be applied in Weeks 5-10. During that period, flexible scheduling can be used in no more than two weeks by shifting a Sunday afternoon game into primetime and moving the Sunday night game to an afternoon start time.

- Also, a select number of games are being "cross-flexed," moving between CBS and FOX to bring potentially under-distributed games to wider audiences.

- "Flexible scheduling" will be used in Weeks 11-17 as it has been in recent years. In Weeks 11-16, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to an afternoon start time. Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday, Saturday or Monday nights. A flexible scheduling move would be announced at least 12 days before the game. For Week 17, the Sunday night game will be announced no later than six days prior to December 30.

- The schedule does not list a Sunday night game in Week 17, but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot. Flexible scheduling ensures quality matchups in all Sunday time slots in those weeks and gives "surprise" teams a chance to play their way into primetime.

CAMP QUOTEBOOK

GENERAL MANAGER BRIAN GAINE

How does it feel to be here for your first training camp?

"Excellent. It makes me reflect on a lot of work that we put in since the day I arrived here in January. Just thinking about the process we put in place to arrive to this moment. A lot of hard work. A lot of great effort from a lot of good staffers. So, we're ready to get to work."

How much does it mean to have DE J.J. Watt and QB Deshaun Watson healthy and what does it say about how hard they worked to get healthy?

"It's a testament to their work ethic and their commitment to get better, No. 1. To Geoff Kaplan, Dr. (Walter) Lowe and his staff, No. 2, to get the guys ready to perform and to be with their team, to be out here with their team, to get the repetitions that are necessary to get the season started off on the right foot. Also to help build chemistry. When guys are out there and they're unified and they're all out there together as one, you're working on that intangible element as well. It's great to have them all healthy and back. So, looking forward to the results on the field."

How much chemistry can be built on a trip like this?

"A ton of chemistry. We're here alone, by ourselves. There's no distractions from being home. We're all in on football. There's a lot of time spent on a daily basis where the guys are fully committed to just football. In terms of how the guys interact and work with their teammates, communicate with their coaches, there's a lot that gets accomplished by just being together and having singular focus on football."

Is there anything you're looking for during training camp generally speaking?

"Player evaluation is critically important. There's 90 players here. There's only 53 spots. We don't need to explain that to the players. I think there's going to be a lot of tough decisions here to make in terms of competition. We wanted to greatly improve the competition this offseason as best as we could. We feel like we've positioned some positions to do that. So, player evaluation will be significantly important to us on a day-to-day basis. I couldn't stress enough the element of fourth down as it relates to building out the 53."

How much of what you see from QB Deshaun Watson is a result of studying?

"He's put a lot of time in. He's in there early, he studies on his own, he watches a lot of tape on his own and he studies the playbook on his own. You have to. If you want to be successful in this league at quarterback, you have to be obsessed with football. I mean, there's just no other way to be successful. If you're not obsessed with football as a quarterback in this league, then you really have no chance, and so that's what he is. He has a passion for the game, he loves to learn, he tries to get better every day and that's just who he is."

WR DEANDRE HOPKINS

Do you still feel like you're underrated amongst your peers in the league?

"I definitely feel like I'm underrated. I think I'm the best receiver in the NFL so I'm always going to feel like that even if I have zero touchdowns."

How exciting are you for this season if you and QB Deshaun Watson can stay healthy?

"It's very exciting. Not just for what Deshaun and myself can do but what this team can do as well."

CAMP QUOTEBOOK

DE J.J. WATT

How exciting is it for you to just be out there?

"It's great. These last two years have been very tough. I've had a lot of down days. I've had a lot of up days, and a lot of people have helped me get through what I've been through. I'm just so happy and fortunate to be back out on the field and playing the game I love. Looking forward to taking it one day at a time with the guys. We have so much fun. We have a good group of guys. We have a good coaching staff. I just love coming to work."

What did you learn about yourself during the rehab process?

"I learned how important it is to have good people around you. I have my girlfriend, my brothers, my parents, my teammates. Nobody can do that by themselves. Nobody can overcome adversity, nobody can go through these types of tough situations by themselves. Then, I learned that I have people that I can look to. I look at guys like DQ (David Quessenberry), Dre (Andre Hal). People are going through stuff that's much worse than a broken leg and how hard they fight and how much they overcome. I get to play a game. I'm so happy and I'm so fortunate to be out here. I could look back at these last two years and say, 'Man, those are two of the shittiest years of my life,' but then I can also look back at them and say how much I've learned and how important it is for me to go back on this field and play at the level I know I can play at to show that I can overcome what I've been through."

QB DESHAUN WATSON

Head Coach Bill O'Brien said to be a successful quarterback in this league you have to be obsessed with football and he said you have are. Can you talk about your love of the game?

"That stuff comes natural. I love the game of football. I've been playing it since I was four or five in the backyard. It's kind of just drawing up plays in the dirt, watching film, watching YouTube videos, watching ESPN – all types of stuff. The game is everyday life for me. The people that know me and communicate with me on a daily basis, they understand that regardless of the situation and what we are doing, I'm either talking about football or it's related to football. I love the game. I love what I do. I love to study, not just study myself but study other guys in different positions. That's just me."

How does it feel to be 100 percent and know all that hard work paid off?

"It feels good. Just putting in the work. It's been long days, early mornings, late nights, tough times, mornings where I didn't want to get up and drills that I didn't want to do, but I stuck through it. I just appreciate the training staff we have here and all the guys that helped me get through the process and to get to where I'm at now. The process isn't done now. I'm going to continue to train and rehab throughout the training camp and throughout the season."

THE HEAD COACHES

TEXANS HEAD COACH BILL O'BRIEN

Bill O'Brien was named the third head coach in Houston Texans franchise history on January 3, 2014. O'Brien, who owns 26 years of collegiate and NFL coaching experience, is just the 14th coach in the NFL since 1978 to begin his head coaching career with three consecutive winning seasons. In 2017, the Texans suffered a slew of injuries that led to an NFL-record 78 different players recording at least one snap on offense, defense, special teams. Still, in week 4, the Texans scored a team record 57 points in a game.

In 2016, Houston also won its first postseason game since 2012. The Texans finished the season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, and won a franchise-best seven home games.

In 2015, Houston became the first NFL team since 1950 to earn a trip to the postseason with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game and the Texans defense set the franchise single-season record for sacks.

Under O'Brien in 2014, Houston's seven-win improvement led the NFL and made the Texans the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a season in which it won two or less games.

Prior to Houston, O'Brien was head coach at Penn State from 2012-13, and in the latter year won multiple National Coach of the Year awards.

From 2007-2011, O'Brien helped lead the New England Patriots to a pair of Super Bowl berths.

In his fifth season with the Chiefs, Reid and company tallied 10 wins, bringing his total to 54 victories in his first five seasons with Kansas City. In 2017, Reid led the Chiefs to their first back-to-back AFC West Division Championships in franchise history. Additionally, Reid led the Chiefs to their first playoff win since 1993, with a win at Houston in the Wild Card round of the 2015 playoffs.

In his first season in Kansas City in 2013, helped orchestrate the franchise's best single-season turnaround as the Chiefs won 11 games and made the playoffs after going 2-14 the previous season.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, served as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles for 14 years (1999-2012), earning NFL Coach of the Year honors three times.
