TEXANS FACE TITANS ON MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

The Houston Texans (7-3) will face the Tennessee Titans (5-5) at home in Week 12. Kickoff at NRG Stadium is set for 7:15 p.m. CT on ESPN Monday Night Football, Westwood One Sports (National Radio), SportsRadio610 (610 AM, 100.3 FM) and Mega 101 FM (101.1 FM).

SALUTE TO SERVICE DAY

PRESENTED BY BUD LIGHT

The Texans are the only team in the Super Bowl era and the first team since the 1925 New York Giants to win seven consecutive games after starting 0-3 in NFL history. Houston has tied the longest winning streak in franchise history by winning seven games in a row in a season for the first time since Weeks 7-14 of the 2011 season.

In Houston's 23-21 victory over the Redskins in Week 11, WR DeAndre Hopkins caught five passes for 56 yards (11.2 avg.) and one touchdown. It marked his eighth touchdown reception of the season and he has now caught 15 touchdowns from QB Deshaun Watson in 17 games played together. Watson has 37 touchdown passes in 17 games, which is tied for the second-most in NFL history through a player's first 17 career games with Patrick Mahomes and Dan Marino, trailing Kurt Warner (41).

Defensively, the Texans tallied the most team sacks in a game (5.0) since Week 3 of 2017 at New England. Houston had five different players (DE/ OLB Jadeveon Clowney, CB/S Kareem Jackson, S Tyrann Mathieu, OLB Whitney Mercilus and DE J.J. Watt) record a sack against the Redskins, which marks the first time at least five different players have recorded a sack in a game since Week 13 of 2006 at Oakland.

S Justin Reid intercepted a pass from Redskins QB Alex Smith in the end zone and returned it 101 yards for his first career touchdown. Reid's pick-six marks the second-longest interception returned for a touchdown in franchise history and the longest since Marcus Coleman (102 yards) at Kansas City in Week 3 of 2004. It also tied for the second-longest interception returned for a touchdown by a rookie in league history, trailing only Pete Barnum's 103-yard return in 1926.

The Texans and Titans met in Week 2 in Tennessee in a game the Titans won 20-17. Houston is 15-18 all-time against Tennessee and 9-7 at home. Under Head Coach Bill O'Brien (2014-18), the Texans are 6-3 against the Titans and 4-0 at home.

All games are broadcast live on Texans Radio on SportsRadio610, 100.3 The Bull and in Spanish on Mega 101 FM.

FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING

- Flexible scheduling may be applied in Weeks 5-9. During that period, flexible scheduling can be used in no more than two weeks by shifting a Sunday afternoon game into primetime and moving the Sunday night game to an afternoon start time.

- Also, a select number of games are being "cross-flexed," moving between CBS and FOX to bring potentially under-distributed games to wider audiences.

- "Flexible scheduling" will be used in Weeks 9-17 as it has been in recent years. In Weeks 9-16, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to an afternoon start time. Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday, Saturday or Monday nights. A flexible scheduling move would be announced at least 12 days before the game. For Week 17, the Sunday night game will be announced no later than six days prior to December 30.

- The schedule does not list a Sunday night game in Week 17, but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot. Flexible scheduling ensures quality matchups in all Sunday time slots in those weeks and gives "surprise" teams a chance to play their way into primetime.

2018 TEAM NOTES

GOING STREAKING

With a win at Washington in Week 11, the Texans became the only team in the Super Bowl era and the first team since the 1925 New York Giants to win seven consecutive games after starting 0-3 in NFL history. No team in league history has won eight games in a row after starting 0-3.

Houston has tied the longest winning streak in franchise history by winning seven games in a row in a season for the first time since Weeks 7-14 of the 2011 season. The Texans earned their fourth-consecutive road win, which marks the first four-game road winning streak for the franchise since 2012. Houston is now 4-2 on the road this season after having won three road games total in 2016-17. Houston's four-game road winning streak ties for second-longest in franchise history (six in a row in 2012).

The Texans also own the second-longest active winning streak in the league behind the New Orleans Saints (nine). Only two teams have won more than seven games in a row in 2018: the Los Angeles Rams (eight in a row from Weeks 1-8) and the Saints (nine in a row from Weeks 2-11).

The Texans were just the second team in NFL history to start 0-3 and find themselves in first place in their division after seven games, joining the Kansas City Chiefs in 2011. In the Super Bowl era, there have been 233 teams start 0-3 and Houston is the first to go to 7-3 after an 0-3 start.

The Texans have also forced 14 turnovers during their streak, which is tied for the fourth-most in the NFL since Week 4.

Houston is 4-0 when allowing 19-or-fewer points this season (Weeks 5-7 and 9) and 83-15 in franchise history when they allow 19-or-fewer points.

In Week 11 at Washington, CB/S Kareem Jackson and S Tyrann Mathieu became the first pair of defensive backs to each have at least eight solo tackles, one tackle for loss, 1.0 sack and one quarterback hit in the same game since Rodney Harrison and Alex Molden did it for the Chargers in Week 17 of the 2002 season.

The Texans have had three different players (WR DeAndre Hopkins, WR Will Fuller V and WR Keke Coutee) record at least one 100-yard receiving game in a season for the first time since 2013. It also marked the first time it has occurred in the first four weeks of a season in team history.

In addition, the eight individual performances of 100-plus receiving yards in a game, Hopkins (four), Fuller (three) and Coutee (one) were the most the Texans have ever had in the first 10 games of a season.

In Week 4 at Indianapolis, Houston had two receivers, Hopkins (169) and Coutee (109), each compile more than 100 receiving yards. It marked the second game this season where two receivers each had more than 100 receiving yards.

In Week 2, Hopkins (110) and Fuller (113) accomplished the feat for the third time together (Week 8 of 2017 and Week 2 of 2016).

This season marks the first time since 2011 and only the second time in franchise history that the Texans have had multiple games where two receivers compiled more than 100 yards in the same game in one season. WR Andre Johnson (128) and TE James Casey (126) did it in Week 3 of 2011 and then TE Joel Dreessen (112) and RB Arian Foster (116) accomplished the feat in Week 5 of 2011. Hopkins (10) and Coutee (11) also became the third pair of receivers in Texans history to each record 10-plus receptions in a game, joining Johnson (12) and Kevin Walter (11) in 2010 and Johnson (10) and Eric Moulds (10) in 2006.

Additionally, over the last two seasons (2017-18), Hopkins (21) and Fuller (11) rank second in the NFL in touchdown receptions by a pair of teammates (32), trailing Chiefs WR Tyreek Hill (18) and TE Travis Kelce (15).

It marked the first time Clowney, Mercilus and Watt each recorded at least 1.0 sack in a game together.

The Texans defense held Smith and McCoy to 18-of-39 passing (46.2%), which marks the lowest completion percentage against the Texans since Week 15 of the 2016 season vs. Jacksonville. The Texans defense also held the Redskins quarterbacks to the lowest passer rating (47.9) against the Texans since Week 6 of the 2017 season when Browns QB Kevin Hogan posted a 38.1 passer rating and Houston recorded the most passes defensed (eight) since Week 6 of 2017 vs. Cleveland.

The Texans are averaging 122.1 rushing yards per game this season, which ranks fourth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL. Houston also has the sixth-most rushing yards through Week 11 in franchise history (1,221). RB Lamar Miller (611), RB Alfred Blue (343) and QB Deshawn Watson (275) have each recorded at least 275 rushing yards, which marks the first time in team history that the Texans have three players each with at least 275 rushing yards through Week 11.

In Week 8 vs. Miami, Houston recorded the most rushing yards (188) since Week 11 of 2014 at Cleveland (213). The Texans had 315 rushing yards in Weeks 1-2, which tied for the most rushing yards gained in Weeks 1-2 in team history (2010).

Houston also had three players (Miller, Watson and Blue) each record more than 30 yards rushing in Weeks 1-2. This marks the first time the Texans had three players run for 30-or-more yards in back-to-back games since Weeks 10-11 of 2006 (David Carr, Samkon Gado and Wali Lundi).

SPECIAL PERFORMANCES

In Week 6 vs. the Bills, the Texans made multiple key plays on special teams that helped lead to their third-consecutive victory. Houston blocked a punt by Bills P Corey Bojorquez in the second quarter, which marked the first blocked punt for the Texans since RB Alfred Blue blocked a punt in Week 1 of the 2014 season vs. Washington. The punt was blocked by ILB Tyrell Adams and recovered by OLB Brennan Scarlett.

Scarlett had a huge game on special teams for Houston. He recovered the blocked punt at the Buffalo 35-yard line and returned it 14 yards to the Buffalo 21-yard line. He also recorded the first fumble recovery of his NFL career at the Buffalo 29-yard line after Bills WR Ray-Ray McCloud III muffed a punt by Texans P Trevor Daniel in the first quarter. Additionally, Scarlett tallied one special teams tackles, which marked his second of the season and eighth of his NFL career. Houston hit a field goal four plays after Scarlett recovered the blocked punt and scored a touchdown five plays after the fumble recovery on the muffed punt.

Texans RB Buddy Howell was also a contributor on special teams in Week 6. He recorded two special teams tackles and a forced fumble. Howell forced a fumble on McCloud on the opening kickoff of the game that was recovered by Buffalo.

KEY PLAYS ON D

In Week 6 vs. Buffalo, Houston put together a terrific defensive performance to lead to their 20-13 victory over the Bills. The Texans sealed the win on a 28-yard interception returned for a touchdown by CB Johnathan Joseph off Bills QB Nathan Peterman with 1:23 left in the game to give Houston a 20-13 lead after K Ka'imi Fairbairn made the extra point.

For the game, the Texans held the Bills to 229 total net yards (100 rushing and 129 passing) and 12 first downs (four rushing, eight passing). Houston allowed just 13 points to the Bills and shut out Buffalo in the first half, marking the first time the Texans haven't allowed any points to an opponent in the first half since Week 16 of the 2015 season at Tennessee. Houston followed up that performance with a second-consecutive first half shut out against Jacksonville in Week 7.

The Texans improved their all-time record against the Bills to 5-4 (3-2 at home) and earned their first win against Buffalo since Week 4 of the 2014 season. Houston also improved their record against the Bills to 2-1 overall and 2-0 at home under Head Coach Bill O'Brien.

THE MEN IN THE MIDDLE

MCKINNEY

In Houston's Week 6 victory over the Bills, Texans ILB Zach Cunningham and ILB Benardrick McKinney led the way on defense with two dynamic performances.

Cunningham led the team with a career-high 13 total tackles (nine solo). His 13 total tackles are the most recorded by a Texans player since McKinney (16) in Week 3 of the 2016 season at New England.

McKinney finished second on the team in Week 6 with 11 total tackles (six solo) and tallied 1.0 sack, two quarterback hits and one tackle for loss. He recorded the most total tackles he's had in a game since Week 1 of the 2017 season vs. Jacksonville (11). He also notched 11 total tackles and 1.0 sack in a game for a fourth time in his career, which passes DeMeco Ryans and Jamie Sharper (three) for the most games with at least 11 total tackles and 1.0 sack in franchise history.

Cunningham (13) and McKinney (11) combined for the most total tackles by a pair of Texans since Week 3 of the 2010 season vs. Dallas when Bernard Pollard (15) and DeMeco Ryans (10) combined for 25 total tackles. It also marked the first time the Texans had two players with 11-or-more total tackles since Week 4 of the 2010 season at Oakland when Ryans (11) and Pollard (11) accomplished the feat.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

In Week 8 vs. Miami, the Texans tallied the most points scored (42) since Week 4 of 2017 vs. Tennessee (57). Houston scored 28 points in the second half, which is tied for the second-most second half points scored in franchise history and the most since Week 6 of 2010 vs. Kansas City (28). The Texans recorded more touchdown passes (five) than incompletions (four) in the game and had three touchdown drives that lasted under one minute. Additionally, Houston converted 6-of-12 third down attempts (50 percent), 1-of-1 fourth down attempts (100 percent), 4-of-4 red zone attempts (100 percent) and 3-of-3 goal to go attempts (100 percent).

CAGING THE JAGUARS

The Texans put together their best defensive performance of the season in a 20-7 win at Jacksonville in Week 7. Houston shut out the Jaguars in the first half, which marked the second week in a row Houston didn't allow a point to their opponent in the first half (Week 6 vs. Buffalo). It also marked the first time Houston shut out their opponents in the first half of back-to-back games since Weeks 15-16 of 2004 when they accomplished the feat in Week 15 at Chicago and Week 16 at Jacksonville.

In Week 7, the Texans forced the most forced fumbles (three) in a game since forcing four in Week 3 of the 2017 season at New England. Houston also held the Jaguars to 259 total net yards (70 rushing and 189 passing) and just 15 first downs (four rushing, 11 passing). The Texans earned their seventh win in the last nine meetings with Jacksonville and their first win against the Jaguars since Week 15 of 2016. Houston is now 20-13 all-time against the Jaguars, including 7-2 under Bill O'Brien (2014-18).

90 AND 99

WATT

In Houston's Week 4 win at Indianapolis, Texans DE J.J. Watt, who won AFC Defensive Player of the Month for September, and DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney, who won AFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 4, became the second pair of teammates to combine for at least 4.0 sacks, five tackles for loss, five quarterback hits and a fumble recovery returned for a touchdown in the same game since those stats began being tracked by the NFL.

Watt finished the game with four total tackles (four solo), 2.0 sacks, one tackle for loss, two quarterback hits and two forced fumbles while Clowney recorded four total tackles (four solo), 2.0 sacks, four quarterback hits, four tackle for loss and one fumble recovery for a touchdown.

Since 2014, only three NFL players have recorded multiple games with at least 2.0 sacks, two tackles for loss, three quarterback hits and one fumble recovery: Clowney (three), Watt (two) and Von Miller (two).

PEER PRESSURE

CLOWNEY

The Texans have had five different players record at least 2.0 sacks and four tackles for loss in a single game in franchise history: DE J.J. Watt, DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney, OLB Whitney Mercilus, OLB Connor Barwin and DE Mario Williams. That is tied with the Los Angeles Rams for the most players on one team to accomplish the feat since tackles for loss became an official NFL statistic.

Clowney is the only player to record 2.0 sacks, four tackles for loss and one fumble recovery returned for a touchdown in a single game since tackles for loss became an official NFL statistic and he has accomplished the feat twice (Week 3 of 2017 at NE & Week 4 of 2018 at IND).

Watt has recorded 2.0 sacks and four tackles for loss in a single game eight times in his career, which is the most by any player since tackles for loss became an official NFL statistic. DeMarcus Ware is second with four.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

P Trevor Daniel (Tennessee) and WR Vyncint Smith (Limestone) made the Texans' 53-man roster coming out of training camp this season after Houston signed them as college free agents following the 2018 NFL Draft.

This marks the sixth-straight year, dating back to 2013, that Houston has had at least one undrafted rookie from the same year's draft earn a spot on the Week 1 active roster. Below is a list of those 14 players over the past six seasons. Seven of the 14 players are still on the current Texans roster.

WELCOME TO THE NFL

QB Deshaun Watson played in seven games (six starts) in 2017 and completed 126-of-204 passes (61.8%) for 1,699 and a single-season rookie franchise record 19 touchdowns before sustaining a season-ending injury. Watson also rushed for 269 yards on 36 attempts (7.5 avg.) and two touchdowns. Watson set the NFL record for most passing touchdowns (18 in Weeks 3-8) by a rookie over any five-game span in NFL history.

He led all rookies in passing touchdowns (19), total touchdowns (21) and passer rating (103.0). He also led the Texans to 30-point outputs in five straight games for the first time in franchise history and led the league's highest-scoring offense (30.7 points per game) at the time of his injury.

Watson recorded three games with four-or-more passing touchdowns, joining Fran Tarkenton (1961) as the only rookies in NFL history to do so. He became the fifth quarterback and first rookie in NFL history to have a five-game stretch of at least 225 passing yards and 20 rushing yards.

In Week 8, Watson became the first player in NFL history with at least 400 passing yards, four passing touchdowns and 50 rushing yards in a game. He also became the first player in NFL history with 400 passing yards on fewer than 20 completions since Steve McNair (2003) and the only rookie in NFL history to do so. Watson's 402 yards are the fifth-highest total by a quarterback in team history and the most since 2012.

Watson became the first rookie quarterback in NFL history with five-or-more total touchdowns in back-to-back games (Weeks 4-5) and the second rookie quarterback in NFL history to throw for four-or-more touchdowns in back-to-back games (Robert Griffin III in 2012). He was the first quarterback in team history to throw for four-or-more touchdowns in back-to-back games and the first rookie quarterback in NFL history to throw for at least 260 passing yards and 20 rushing yards in three straight games.

Watson became the first rookie quarterback in NFL history with two games of at least 300 passing yards and 40 rushing yards in a season (Week 3 & Week 8), the first rookie quarterback with at least 400 passing yards in a game since Luck in 2012 and the first rookie quarterback with at least 300 passing yards and 40 rushing yards in a game since Luck. Watson joined Cam Newton (2011) as the only rookies in NFL history to average at least 240 passing yards and 35 rushing yards per game and the sixth quarterback in NFL history to do so in at least five starts in a season.

In Week 4, Watson became the third rookie quarterback with at least four touchdown passes and a rushing touchdowns and first since Tarkenton (1961). Watson and Tarkenton are the only rookie quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 250 passing yards, four touchdown passes and a rushing touchdown in a game. Houston's 57 points against the Titans were the third-highest point total in NFL history with a rookie quarterback.

WATT NAMED WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

Houston Texans DE J.J. Watt was named the 2017 Walter Payton NFL Man Of The Year Presented By Nationwide. Considered the league's most prestigious honor, the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award recognizes a player for his excellence on and off the field.

Prior to kickoff of Super Bowl LII, Man of the Year winners were recognized on-field, as a testament to their contributions to the game and to their communities. The Man of the Year Legacy Pregame Moment culminated with the introduction of Watt as the 2017 recipient, welcoming him into the exceptional fraternity.

In the wake of Hurricane Harvey, Watt solidified his importance to the city of Houston by being an unwavering fixture of hope. While watching the events unfold from a hotel room in Dallas, Watt posted a video on social media announcing a fundraising campaign with a very reasonable goal of $200,000, to which he matched the first $100,000. In 19 days, he raised $41.6 million making it the largest crowdsourced fundraiser in world history. Watt has dedicated himself to finding organizations that will apply the funds in the way he has promised the donors and victims of Harvey. He recently announced a plan with strategic partners, making good on his promise to ensure that every dollar goes directly to the people of Houston and its surrounding areas.

Watt's dedication to charitable service began at a young age when the thought of being in the NFL was still just a dream. He started the Justin J. Watt Foundation in Wisconsin in 2010 out of a desire to help underserved kids. His personal motto of "Dream Big, Work Hard" culminated into a mission that he continues to use to impact communities nationwide. The foundation has provided over $3.4 million in funding to middle schools and organizations that have insufficient funding for after-school athletic programs or no after-school athletics whatsoever for 6th – 8th grade children.

Watt received $500,000, half of which will go to a charity of his choice and half of which will support the expansion of Character Playbook across the country.

OTHER ACCOLADES FOR WATT IN 2017:

- 2017 SPORTS ILLUSTRATED SPORTSPERSON OF THE YEAR
- 2018 HONORARY DEGREE AT BAYLOR MEDICAL SCHOOL
- 2018 TIME 100 LIST (MOST INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE)

- Repairing & rebuilding Harvey-damaged homes with Habitat for Humanity.

Letter from Watt on Aug. 27: "As I reflect on the events of Hurricane Harvey one year ago, the memories of destruction and devastation remain, but they are accompanied by memories of hope, selflessness and the beauty of the human spirit. The actions of professional first responders and everyday citizens alike were an inspiration to the world and a shining example of the inherent good that lies within us all. Those actions locally were then supported by the actions of hundreds of thousands from around the world showing their support and donating their money in order to help out in any way they could. I was fortunate enough to witness that generosity first hand, as the fundraiser that I started with a simple goal of $200,000 turned into an unbelievable outpouring of support from people all around the globe. When it was all said and done, after the late donations and checks that came in after the deadline were counted, the total amount that was donated and is now hard at work in the community was $41.6 million. In the past year, those funds have been used to repair and rebuild houses, allowing people to finally return and once again have a place to call 'home'. Those funds have restored and rebuilt childcare centers so that parents can once again have a place to take their children where they know they will be safe, so that they can return to work and resume a sense of normalcy. Those funds have provided millions and millions of meals to people who weren't sure where their next meal might be coming from after being devastated by the storm. And those funds provided physical and mental health care to those who suffered from the events of that awful weekend one year ago. While a great deal has been accomplished in the past 12 months, there is still much work to be done. Moving forward, there will be more of the same, as we continue to work with our incredible nonprofit partners to provide as much help and support as we possibly can for those affected by Harvey. I cannot thank everyone enough for your support and generosity. You have truly provided an unbelievable example of what the human spirit is capable of accomplishing. Every time that I am fortunate enough to witness someone step back into their home for the first time or a child run around on the playground again, I am reminded of the generosity of strangers that helped make it all possible. Thank you and never stop spreading the positivity! #HoustonStrong"

In Week 9 at Denver, Scarlett joined Falcons S Brian Poole, Titans S Kevin Byard and Bears DB Sherrick McManis as the only players in the NFL to record one pass defended, one quarterback hit and one special teams tackle in a game this season. Scarlett also recorded the first fumble recovery of his NFL career after Bills WR Ray-Ray McCloud III muffed a punt by Texans P Trevor Daniel in the first quarter. Houston hit a field goal four plays after Scarlett recovered the blocked punt and scored a touchdown five plays after the fumble recovery on the muffed punt.

Scarlett is tied for third on the team with five total special teams tackles this season in 10 games (three starts) and now has 11 in his NFL career. He joins Eddie Pleasant (78 games) and A.J. Thomas and Daniels are the only rookie tight ends to accomplish the feat in team history.

Thomas is the only rookie tight end in the NFL this season to record multiple touchdown receptions in a game. He caught a 13-yard touchdown pass from Watson in the second quarter vs. Miami to give Houston a 14-7 lead and then caught a two-yard touchdown pass from Watson in the third quarter to extend Houston's lead to 21-10.

Reid tied for the second-longest interception-return touchdown by a rookie in league history, trailing only Pete Barnum's 103-yard return in 1926. Cowboys CB Bryan McCann also accomplished the feat as a rookie in 2010 and it tied for the eighth-longest interception returned for a touchdown in the NFL since 2000.

Reid has tied Fred Bennett (three in 2007) for the third-most interceptions in a season by a rookie in franchise history. His three interceptions are already the most by a rookie safety in franchise history. He also registered his seventh pass defended of the season and second career game with multiple passes defended (Week 8 vs. Miami).

Wright is an eight-year NFL veteran who has played for the Bills (2017), Ravens (2015-16) and Chargers (2011-14).

NOT DUNN YET

DUNN

In Week 9 at Denver, Texans NT Brandon Dunn recorded a career-high six total tackles (four solo), one tackle for loss and one forced fumble. He forced a fumble on Broncos RB Devontae Booker at the Broncos 25-yard line for his first career forced fumble. S Justin Reid recovered the ball on the Denver 23-yard line and Houston scored a touchdown three plays later. He also rallied his career-high fourth tackle for loss of the season and the seventh of his NFL career (2014-18).

In Week 9, Dunn became the first nose tackle in franchise history to record six total tackles, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble in a single game. Dunn's six total tackles are tied with Chargers NT Brandon Mebane for the most total tackles by a nose tackle in the NFL in a game this season.

ETCHED IN LIMESTONE

SMITH

Texans WR Vyncint Smith became the first rookie college free agent to start in Week 1 in franchise history.

Only two other rookie college free agents started in their debut in Week 1 across the NFL: Browns T Desmond Harrison and Colts ILB Skai Moore.

Smith, who attended Limestone College, became just the third college free agent from a Division II school to start as a rookie in Week 1 since 1997.

Browns T Desmond Harrison (West Georgia, 2018) and former Bears TE Khari Lee (Bowie State, 2015) are the other two. Lee was originally signed as a college free agent by the Texans after the 2015 NFL Draft and then traded to the Bears for a sixth-round pick in 2017.

Smith has appeared in five games for Houston and caught one pass for 28 yards. He has also contributed on special teams.

What would have happened yesterday if you had lost another offensive lineman and were down to four?

"It's a great question, but I don't really want to give you the details on that. We have a plan in place for that. We've usually brought – no matter how many we have on the 53 – we've usually brought seven to the game, so we've always had a plan for that type of scenario. We have a plan for that."

Does losing two offensive linemen in a game make you consider having eight active offensive linemen on gameday?

"Oh yeah, we always talk about that every week about how many do we need, but, like anything else, if you decide to keep eight there for the gameday roster then what is that taking away from either offense, defense or special teams? It's the risk-reward decision that you have to try to make. It's all based on who we're playing, the opponent, our injury status, all of those different things."

What's it like for you when you go back and watch the tape of S Justin Reid's interception return for a touchdown?

"That was a great play. He made an excellent play. It was the play of the game. It really got our sideline going, got us going and I can't say enough about what he's done as a rookie. He's really an instinctive player, he's really worked hard to improve, good teammate, everything you're looking for in a teammate, and that was a great play."

What was it like for you to see S Justin Reid's interception return unfold in front of you?

"It was an exciting play, no doubt about it. I haven't been around too many pick-sixes for 101 yards or whatever it was, but they're exciting plays. You can tell right away that it's going to go because you can see it kind of open up and it's coming toward you. That's a pretty cool feeling if you're the coach of that team."

RB Lamar Miller and RB Alfred Blue ran hard yesterday. Was the successful run game more a result of the running backs or the offensive line blocking well?

"I think you're right about Lamar and Alfred. They ran the ball very hard. They really did. They got their pads down. We ask them to do that. That's got to continue. I think our offensive line did a decent job, the tight ends did a decent job. It wasn't always perfect but they fought hard. I think any offensive lineman would tell you at the end of the day they love to run block more than pass block. I'm not saying it's easier. Nothing's easy, but I think they enjoy coming off the rock and blocking people."

Do you still see most college offensive linemen pass blocking for the majority of their college careers?

"If you look at the high school game – I went to a game the other night around Houston a couple of weeks ago – it's a lot of spread. There's some mixture of downhill runs. You look at the college game now. Some teams are spreading it out, going east and west because they have so many great athletes, but other teams are downhill. It depends on the type of guy you get. Does he want to put his hand in the dirt and come off the ball and block people? It's kind of a mentality. I think that's something that we're always going to look for in our linemen here that they have that type of mentality."

What did you think of WR DeAndre Carter in his first game, and what are some of the challenges of getting WR Demaryius Thomas more involved in the offense?

"DeAndre Carter did a nice job. He came in, he's a strong player. I thought he fielded the ball pretty well. There was one that he could've done a better job on, but overall, he came up on that short kickoff and made a great catch on that, helped our field position. Had a good 16-yard return on one. Did a nice job. Great guy to work with in the week that he's been here. Very professional guy, did a good job coming in the door. I think with D.T. we have to look at that as an offensive staff. I think he did some good things. He ran some good routes. The ball just didn't go his way. We'll continue to work with him. I think he's a great teammate, he understands, he just wants to win, but I think we need to work at really getting him more involved in the offense. No doubt about it."

Did you have to put an emphasis on helping players stay positive after starting the season 0-3?

"I think you look back, and you don't want to look back too much, you've got to really look forward, but just on that question, it's all about what you have in the locker room from a character and leadership standpoint. If you have guys in the locker room that don't have the character that these guys have or the toughness or the mental toughness, the physical toughness, you have no chance to turn it around. I think all of the credit does go to the players, but – and that is a huge but – we haven't done anything. We haven't done a thing. We've done a great job of digging ourselves out of a hole, but we don't want to be known for a record that was set in 1925. My point is we haven't done anything. We've got a very, very difficult opponent coming in here on Monday night that beat us earlier in the season. We've got to get back to work because in the end, what have you done? It's better to be able to say that after a win, obviously, but we've got to really work hard to get better every week."

Do you think mental toughness and character in the locker room are the primary reasons the team has won so many close games?

"I think that it has a lot to do with it. Since I've been here, I think you guys know, I give all of the credit to the players. I do think we have a very experienced coaching staff that helps in late-game situations, but I think all of the credit goes to the players. The players play hard, they believe, they believe in each other, they never feel like – even if something bad happens – that they're out of a game. There were some bad things that happened in the game. Our guys kept fighting back. We talk about answering the bell. I think our guys did a good job of that for the most part, but there are a lot of things that we need to improve on, but our guys, they fight hard."

What did you think about QB Deshaun Watson's performance?

"I think there are always things with any quarterback that – quarterbacks are perfectionists, so there are always things that he's going to want to improve on, but I thought he played a tough game, I thought he got us into the right play many, many times, did a great job in the running game, did a nice job on a lot of the passing game. Some things we can improve upon from a route-running standpoint, from a protection standpoint, but I thought he did a nice job. The one interception on the screen pass, I'd like to have that play-call back. That's not anything that he can really control. 94 (Redskins LB Preston Smith) made a great play on that, tipped the ball in the air, those are things that happen. The other one that he had when Hop (DeAndre Hopkins) had it on the ground and then the guy – whatever the ruling was there – look, those things happen. That was a good read. He made the right read on that. Other than that, he forced one earlier in the game, but I think overall he played a very good game."

How important is Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator Romeo Crennel to this staff?

"Romeo's meant a lot to me. To be able to have a guy like Romeo on the staff is – think about his history in the league. He worked for Bill Parcells, won Super Bowls, worked for Bill Belichick, won Super Bowls, was a head coach. He's seen it all from off the field issues to on the field issues. He's just a great man, a great coach and I think we're all lucky to have him here. Then we've added Brad Seely. You can say the same thing about Brad. He's done a really good job here in the year that he's been here. We all know it's a 'what have you done for me lately' league, so we have to keep it going, but those two guys have really helped to this point. No doubt about it."

How do you think K Ka'imi Fairbairn played yesterday?

"Look, he made a 54-yarder. That's a big kick, but then he had the one at the end there that – I think the ball was on the 27-yard line so it was a 45, 46-yarder – he just mishit it. I have a lot of confidence in Ka'imi. We all do. He's got a really good demeanor for that position. He's a very talented kicker. He can make all the kicks. He had a day where he made a big kick, he missed a big kick. All right, so we move on to the next one and we try to correct, maybe, some technique issues this week and we move on to Tennessee."

How important has the rookie class been so far this season?

"I think that they've done a good job. Brian Gaine – we were just talking about that upstairs – Brian and his crew did a great job of scouting those players and finding the right guys. Look, like I said earlier, we haven't done anything yet, but those guys have really been an impressive class just from a personal standpoint – maturity, work ethic and they really work hard to improve and they understand their role on the team, their spot on the team. Guys in that class are very respectful of the veterans in the locker room. I think they've added a lot to the chemistry of the locker room. You see guys like Justin Reid, obviously, make a huge play yesterday. I thought Jordan Akins did some good things, (Martinus) Rankin goes in and fills in at guard, Jordan Thomas does some decent things, and there are others. On special teams, look at some of the guys on special teams – Johnson Bademosi, who's not a rookie, A.J. Moore, Buddy Howell – those guys are playing at a high level on special teams. A lot of those guys are contributing."

How important are LS Jon Weeks and P Trevor Daniels to K Ka'imi Fairbairn when kicking a field goal?

"It's huge, yeah. The operation is the key. It's got to be a perfect snap, it's got to be a perfect hold, with the proper side of the ball, the belly of the ball, not the laces showing. It's all of it. It's definitely teamwork, and they rep it thousands of times. I thought that on the last kick, that the operation of the snap and the hold were pretty good, I just think that Ka'imi, from a technical standpoint, just needs to clean a couple things up, and he'll be fine. But, you can't underestimate how important the operation is on that."

How big is the margin of error on a field goal?

"Very slim, very slim. I mean, if the snap's high, if the snap's low, if the hold is not placed correctly, exactly where it's supposed to be placed, if the laces are showing to the foot of the kicker, it's very slim margin. So, it's something that seems like an elementary part of football, but it's something that's always worked on, hundreds of times a day."

Do you think C/G Zach Fulton and G Senio Kelemete's injuries will be short or long-term?

"Short term."

One of the common phrases you hear from the players in the locker room after and during the winning streak has been 'belief'. Why is belief so important?

"No pun intended, I'm a big believer in that. I think that the mental part of the game is very important. You have to have talent. If you don't have talent you have no chance. But, if you have some talent, then you have some guys that have the ability to understand work ethic and how important that is and how important it is to get along with your teammates and how important it is to root for your teammate, even though it's a very competitive league within the roster itself, very competitive, obviously, competitive with other teams, but the belief that you have that your teammates, the accountability that you have that you know, 'Hey, this guy next to me is going to do the job.' That's a big deal. That's a big deal and it's hard to get that. It's not easy to get that. That takes time, and I think this team believes in each other."

What did you think of the Titans' loss in Indianapolis?

"I just think this league is a very tough league. I think the Titans are a very good – look, they just had a little bit of an off day yesterday but they're a very good team. They just beat the Patriots two weeks ago, in Tennessee, 34-10. So, I think the league is a very, very tough league. I think every game is a battle, and Monday night is going to be no different. Monday night is going to be a very physical, tough football game against a very good team."

Is there a huge difference in the team at 7-3 than there was at 0-3 or is the margin pretty small?

"No, I would say that it's been a slim margin. I think that guys have improved, I think guys have improved in their individual play, I think that we make more plays now in critical moments than we made earlier in the season, I think we're coaching better, but I think it's a very slim – I think that our guys understand – look, if we don't continue to work, put the time in, understand the detail of each play, the situation that we're in, then we're going to be back where we were. We're not far away from that. That's the type of league it is, so we understand that. But, I do think there's been a lot of improvement, but it has to continue."

When you watch S Justin Reid's pick-six, did you notice a certain block that may have allowed him to score the touchdown?

"I think (Christian) Covington had a block on the play that I remember, but I was viewing it from the angle I had. It was one of those plays that as soon as he picked it off, just based on the lane that he had and I know the speed that he has, that it was almost like a kickoff return, if you've seen one of those. You know, where the guy – if the lane opens up, and if the guy has the speed – now if he's slow, he's got no chance because that window will close fast, but if he can run, I was like this guy's got a chance to go back right away. It was one of those plays. But, I know that there were a couple blocks. I think Cov had one, but it was just a lane that opened up, and Justin hit it. He was running, he was moving because Alex (Smith) was chasing him and Alex can run. He can really run."

Do you think it's important to allow your team to have some time off for Thanksgiving?

"Oh, absolutely. I think so. We're going to work today, we'll work Wednesday, give them Thanksgiving off, we'll work Friday, Saturday, Sunday, but I think it's important. What I think is important – and I talked to the team about this on Saturday night – this is a team that really gives back to the community. If you walk down our hallway there, Brian (Gaine) had everything redone down there (by) our position rooms. There's a big TV that shows all the different things that our guys do in the community, whether it's working with Best Buddies, or the Food Bank, or YMCA, or whatever it is, Boys & Girls Club, whatever it is. Now, I know this week it will be – they'll be giving out turkeys or whatever each guy's doing for the community. I think that's important, too, and our guys do a great job of that. But, I definitely think Thanksgiving is – it's my favorite holiday. I'm not big into presents and I don't really enjoy birthdays. I do like Christmas but I'm not a big present guy. I'd rather eat a lot of food and that's why I like Thanksgiving. I like the Fourth of July too because I like the fireworks."

Is it promising to know that there's even more potential from your team and you're already on a seven-game winning streak?

"I do think that that's a good thing when you're winning, that you're able to stand up in front of your team, put the film on and say, 'Look, this is good, but this still is not very good, and if it doesn't get better, it's not going to be very good on Monday night.' So, I think that that's a big thing, and I think that's kind of what I'm saying about this team. They have an understanding of that. They'll look at the tape when I show them the tape at 12:30, and they'll say, 'Yep, we do need to improve on that. We can't do that again. We've got to communicate better. We've got to use better technique here. We've got to get in and out of the huddle faster, or whatever penalties. We got to stop doing penalties – the one's that we can control, the neutral zone infractions, the false starts.' These are things that'll get you beat late in the season, and when you're winning and you can still coach that, that can be a good thing."

When you say the team is making big plays during critical times, do you consider DE J.J. Watt and DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney's sacks during the second-to-last drive those kinds of plays?

"That's exactly right. That's a great two- or three-play sequence that you can point to right there that was huge in the game because I thought Colt (McCoy) came in and did a good job. He was moving the ball and he was scrambling and running the ball. I've known Colt for a long – I've worked him out when I was in New England when he was coming out of Texas. He's a good quarterback. They made some big plays there at the end. They came up big at those critical moments at the end and there were a couple more plays that were made on the final drive that I thought were really important. The PBU by Justin Reid on the shot play that would have been a really difficult field to stop, that one was a big play by Justin. So, there were a lot of big plays made in those critical moments, I thought."

What did you think about the use of the Redskins quarterbacks in the running game yesterday?

"Yeah, the quarterback run-game is very difficult to defend. It's really hard to defend, and teams that do a great job like Jay Gruden does with his scheme, it's hard. These quarterbacks are like magicians with the ball, so it's very difficult to defend and you really have to play assignment football. It's just a good scheme. Especially when they add on a lead blocker or if it's just one guy they're reading and that's all it is, either a give or keep, maybe that's whatever, but the other element that they had with it was pretty hard, too. If you add a pitch in with it, it can be very hard to defend."

THE HEAD COACHES

TEXANS HEAD COACH BILL O'BRIEN

Bill O'Brien was named the third head coach in Houston Texans franchise history on January 3, 2014. O'Brien, who owns 26 years of collegiate and NFL coaching experience, is just the 14th coach in the NFL since 1978 to begin his head coaching career with three consecutive winning seasons. In 2017, the Texans suffered a slew of injuries that led to an NFL-record 78 different players recording at least one snap on offense, defense, special teams. Still, in week 4, the Texans scored a team record 57 points in a game.

In 2016, Houston also won its first postseason game since 2012. The Texans finished the season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, and won a franchise-best seven home games.

In 2015, Houston became the first NFL team since 1950 to earn a trip to the postseason with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game and the Texans defense set the franchise single-season record for sacks.

Under O'Brien in 2014, Houston's seven-win improvement led the NFL and made the Texans the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a season in which it won two or less games.

Prior to Houston, O'Brien was head coach at Penn State from 2012-13, and in the latter year won multiple National Coach of the Year awards. From 2007-2011, O'Brien helped lead the New England Patriots to a pair of Super Bowl berths.

The 2018 Houston Texans season will be broadcast throughout Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana on 40 Houston Texans Radio Network affiliates, and a network of 14 television affiliates will air all four of the team's preseason games throughout the state of Texas.

The Texans Radio Network boasts 33 stations across Texas, four in Mexico, one in Arkansas and one in Louisiana. The radio pregame show will air for 30 minutes, and the postgame show will last 20 minutes.

Once again this season, radio affiliates will air Texans programming during the week in addition to the game broadcast. Affiliates will broadcast the "Bill O'Brien Show," which will air Mondays at 5 p.m. in Houston, the "Texans Players Show," which will air Tuesdays at 6 p.m. and "Texans Replay," an hour-long condensed replay of the previous week's Texans game, will be broadcast on Tuesdays at 8 p.m. All three shows, along with all Texans Radio programming, will be produced and broadcast live on SportsRadio 610, the team's flagship station.

Texans TV affiliates will carry all four of the team's preseason games this year, beginning with Thursday's game vs. Kansas City at 7:30 p.m. CT, Saturday, Aug. 18 vs. San Francisco, Saturday, Aug. 25 at Los Angeles Rams and Thursday, Aug. 30 vs. Dallas. KTRK-ABC 13 in Houston produces and broadcasts the games across the Texans Television Network.

Again this season, TV affiliates will air the team's weekly "360/Texans Buzz" show, which airs every week of the year at 11 p.m. in Houston. Affiliates will air the team's weekly "Extra Points" show (starting Saturday, Aug. 11 at 6:30 p.m. in Houston) and "Inside the Game" show (starting Sunday, Aug. 12 at 10:35 p.m. in Houston).

New this season on the Texans official Spanish television partner, Telemundo, the Telly Award-winning program "Primero y Diez" (First and Ten) will extend to a 30-minute show and air on Sunday nights at 11 p.m. during the preseason and regular season. Telemundo will also host a pregame and postgame show that will be distributed exclusively on the network's Facebook page.

The Texans Spanish game broadcast will air on Mega 101 in Houston and will feature Enrique Vasquez as the play-by-play host and Gustavo Rangel will serve as color commentator. The Texans are one of seven NFL teams to broadcast in Spanish on the FM frequency. The broadcast will feature a 30-minute pregame and postgame show each week. Through a continuing partnership implemented in 2016 with Grupo Radio Centro, the leading radio broadcaster in Mexico, Texans fans in Mexico will hear the Spanish broadcast in Guadalajara, Mexico City and Monterrey. This season's Texans games will also broadcast across five Spanish radio affiliates, including cities such as El Paso and San Antonio, Texas.
