QUOTE WORTHY

Here is what Revolution II Head Coach Clint Peay and goalkeeper Nico Campuzano said following the team's 1-1 draw vs. Toronto FC II on Friday:

Revolution II Head Coach Clint Peay:

On his team's performance:

Peay: "I just think it was a gutsy performance being short numbers and having a couple of injuries. The guys just put it all out there and left it on the field. I couldn't be prouder of the way they approached the match knowing that they were up against it with numbers and how they finished it."

Revolution II Goalkeeper Nico Campuzano

On appearing off the bench as an emergency forward:

Campuzano: "As soon as Nakye [Greenidge-Duncan] went in, I was actually just talking to Pablo [Di Benedetto], like, 'Oh, wow, now if something happens, I'm in.' So, he pointed out, he was like, 'Wait, I think Weverton actually pulled his hamstring, so I think you're in.' And I just looked at the bench and everybody was calling for me, so at that point, obviously, I think the ref was giving them some trouble, because like different jersey, different number, it was not my number. They ended up just sorting it out and I just had to change as fast as I could and just get in."

On what was going through his head subbing on as a forward:

Campuzano: "Honestly, I'm just trying to remember what they ask the forwards to do. At that point, I know I'm not going to try to do anything fancy, I'm just going to run, try to press, body people, be a target when I can, defend when I can. At the end of the day, I was also trying to drop back and track some guys so that maybe somebody else can save their legs and they can stay up top, you know? So, I'm trying to stay away from the ball as much as I can, just help defend, and just try to remember how we're trying to shape them, how we're trying to defend, and just do whatever I could."

MATCH PREVIEW VS. HUNTSVILLE FC

New England Revolution II (8-5-3; 30 pts.; 3rd in East) travel to Joe Davis Stadium to take on Huntsville FC (4-7-3; 18 pts.; 9th in East) on Sunday night. The match kicks off at 7:00 p.m. ET and streams live on MLS Season Pass on Apple TV with Marisa Pilla calling the action.

New England is coming off a 1-1 draw vs. Toronto FC II last week, earning the additional point after a 4-2 shootout victory. Forward Jordan Adebayo-Smith tallied his team-leading seventh goal of the season in the match while Marcos Dias, Jacob Akanyirige, Ben Awashie, and Nakye Greenidge-Duncan all buried their penalty kick opportunities. The match also featured goalkeeper Nico Campuzano entering in the 83rd minute as an emergency substitute. The second-year pro closed out the match in a field position to help seal Revolution II's third shootout win of 2023.

"I just think it was a gutsy performance being short numbers and having a couple of injuries," Head Coach Clint Peay said postgame. "The guys just put it all out there and left it on the field. I couldn't be prouder of the way they approached the match knowing that they were up against it with numbers and how they finished it."

New England and Huntsville face off for the first time on Sunday night as Huntsville continues its inaugural season in MLS NEXT Pro. Revolution II currently sits in second in league rankings with 33 goals scored this season. Adebayo-Smith's seven goals place him tied for fourth-most in the league while the striker continuing to lead MLS NEXT Pro with 22 shots on target.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR AGAINST HUNTSVILLE FC:

- New England adding to their 33 goals scored this season, sitting behind Colorado Rapids 2 (36) for second most in the league.
- Forward Jordan Adebayo-Smith adding to his team-leading seven goals and 22 shots on target.
- Defender Colby Quiñones making his 65th appearance with New England's second team.
- Defender Pierre Cayet adding to his 41 interceptions, ranking second in MLS NEXT Pro.
- Defender Italo surpassing 2,000 minutes played with Revolution II with a 71-minute appearance.

LAST TIME OUT: REVS II BATTLE TORONTO FC II TO 1-1 DRAW

New England Revolution II (8-5-3; 30 pts.) battled Toronto FC II (3-8-4; 15 pts.), to a 1-1 draw on Friday night at Gillette Stadium, claiming the extra point with a 4-2 shootout win. Revolution goalkeeper Jacob Jackson made five saves as forward Jordan Adebayo-Smith scored his team-leading seventh goal of the season in the match.

Adebayo-Smith opened the scoring in the 37th minute after his high press caused a turnover in Toronto's defense. The Englishman led New England with three shots and three on target. Toronto tied the game with Julian Altbelli's tally in the 61st minute.

After Revolution II's three subs entered the match in the second half, goalkeeper Nico Campuzano was called upon in the 83rd minute as an emergency forward for Weverton. The second-year pro closed out the remaining seven minutes of the match in a field position and narrowly missed a scoring opportunity off a corner kick in stoppage time. With the score even at one, the two sides headed to the penalty kick shootout.

New England's Marcos Dias, Jacob Akanyirige, Ben Awashie, and Naye Greenidge-Duncan all buried their opportunities while Jackson recorded two saves in the shootout, marking his second shootout win of the season and securing the additional point for Revolution II.

BACK-TO-BACK: U-19S WIN 2023 MLS NEXT CUP CHAMPIONSHIP

The New England Revolution Academy Under-19s won the 2023 MLS NEXT Cup Championship on June 25 after defeating FC Delco 2-1 in the MLS NEXT Cup Final. Revolution Homegrown defender Peyton Miller (2007 – Unionville, Conn.) and forward Alex St. John (2005 – Needham, Mass.) both tallied in the second half to secure New England's second consecutive MLS NEXT Cup Championship.

U-19 Head Coach Brad Knighton, a former Revolution goalkeeper, led the team to its second national title after joining the Revolution Academy at the beginning of the spring season. Max Weinstein (2004 – Montpelier, Vt.) earned Goalkeeper of the Tournament honors for the second straight year, after starting all five matches and earning two clean sheets and two shootout victories. Forward Jason Zacarias (2004 – Billerica, Mass.) started all five matches, tallied the game-winner in the semifinal, and was named Player of the Tournament.

"This is a proud moment for the Revolution and our entire program," Revolution Technical Director Curt Onalfo stated. "To win consecutive championships at the U-19 level, after qualifying three teams into the MLS NEXT Cup playoffs, is a testament to the incredible talent and commitment to excellence we have throughout our organization and especially in our academy, from Rob Becerra on through every member of the coaching staff. Congratulations to all the players, coaches, and staff for this incredible achievement."

FC Delco found the scoresheet first with Kaio Reis' tally in the 44th minute. New England entered the second half down a goal and substituted in Gianluca Armellino (2005 – Plainville, Mass.), Alexi Karalis (2005 – Belmont, Mass.), and 15-year-old Miller, who immediately made his presence felt, equalizing in the 50th minute with a left-footed rocket from just outside the 18-yard box for his second goal of the tournament and first with the U-19s.

Defender Jack Burkhardt (2005 – Sutton, Mass.) was issued two yellow cards in the 43rd and 77th minutes of the match, as New England played the final 13 minutes down a player. Defender Alex Parvu (2005 – Cumberland, R.I.) sent a cross from the right wing directly to Alex St. John (2005 – Needham, Mass.) for a first-time finish just inside the near post for the lead, marking St. John's second game-winning tally of the postseason. Delco kept the pressure on throughout stoppage time, but the 10-man Revolution held on to claim their second MLS NEXT Cup Championship.

"For us to go back-to-back and be the first academy to ever do it is something special. It's a testament to the staff, it's a testament to the organization, to the Kraits, to Brian Billelo, to Curt Onalfo, everyone that's bought in and been a part of this ride," Knighton said. "The last two years have been something special, and we're going to continue. We're producing great players from young ages all the way through and that's why we've given ourselves the opportunity to compete for championships."

The U-19s' victory caps off an MLS NEXT Cup tournament that saw all three of New England's eligible squads qualify through the MLS NEXT Flex tournament. The U-15s opened their postseason vs. Columbus Crew and rounded out the tournament with Showcase action vs. LA United Futbol Academy and Southern Soccer Academy. The U-17s earned their way to the quarterfinals after defeating Florida Rush and Nashville SC in their opening matches. The U-19s' road to the Final went through FC Golden State, Strikers FC, Players Development Academy, and FC Dallas before meeting FC Delco in the final.

MILLER'S MAKING MOVES: 15-YEAR-OLD SIGNS HOMEGROWN CONTRACT

New England Revolution defender/midfielder Peyton Miller, a 15-year-old Revolution Academy product originally from Unionville, Conn., is now the youngest player in club history to sign a Major League Soccer contract. Miller will join the MLS NEXT Pro roster for the remainder of the 2023 season before ascending to the MLS roster in 2024 as a Homegrown Player on a four-year contract with an additional one-year club option.

At 15 years and 216 days old, Miller is the second player in club history to ink a deal with the Revolution first team before his 16th birthday, the last being Diego Fagundez, who was announced as the New England's first Homegrown Player signing in 2015 at 15 years and 274 days old.

"Our pro player pathway is designed to foster special players like Peyton and help them accelerate their growth as professionals. Peyton is still a young man, but he has excelled in every opportunity presented to him and is very deserving of this opportunity to prove himself at the next level," Revolution Technical Director Curt Onalfo said. "We are excited to continue working closely with Peyton as he continues his development here in New England."

Miller became the youngest player to make his professional debut with Revolution II earlier this season on March 26, 2023 in the developmental team's season-opening victory. The outside back has since become a mainstay on the second team's matchday roster, logging 11 appearances, with 10 starts, and two assists in MLS NEXT Pro this season.

"I am incredibly grateful for the opportunity to sign my first professional contract with the New England Revolution, and I want to thank Bruce Arena, Curt Onalfo, Clint Peay, Marcelo Santos, BJ Noble, and Rob Becerra for their confidence in me throughout my time here," Miller stated. "Taking this next step in my development is a dream come true and I appreciate my family and all of the coaches for the guidance and support that helped make this possible."

Miller joined the Revolution Academy in 2021 and tallied five goals in nine games with the Under-17 team in the 2022-23 season. He also led the Under-15s with 25 goals across 28 appearances last year.

A United States youth international, Miller has earned four call-ups, most recently earning his first nod to join the U.S. Under-17 National Team for a training camp in Palm Beach, Fla. He made three appearances with the Under-16s and netted one goal on November 25, 2022 against Wales in the Football Federations Cup.

CLINT PEAY*HEAD COACH

Clint Peay is in his fourth season as the first head coach of Revolution II, the New England Revolution's developmental side that began play in USL League One in 2020, following his appointment to the position on Nov. 20, 2019. Peay brings more than 18 years of coaching experience to the club with a focus on youth player development including an eight-year tenure working in the U.S. Youth National Team program and 10 years as a collegiate head coach and assistant.

Peay spent the 2019 season as an assistant coach with USL Championship side North Carolina FC, where he worked alongside Dave Sarachan and helped guide the club to an Eastern Conference playoff berth. An experienced scout and evaluator of up-and-coming talent, Peay worked on U.S. Soccer's technical staff from 2012-19, beginning as a member of the Under-17 staff. He was later named head coach of the U-14 Boys' National Team in 2016, before advancing to manage the U-15 Boys' National Team in 2018, where he succeeded current Revolution Assistant Coach Dave van den

Bergh in that role.

Prior to joining U.S. Soccer, Peay built his resume over four coaching stints at the collegiate level, including four seasons as head coach at Richmond University from 2009-12. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Georgetown University in 2003, before moving on to Davidson College from 2004-07, where he helped the Wildcats to back-to-back appearances in the conference final in his first two seasons. He later worked as an assistant coach with George Mason in 2008, helping guide the Patriots to the Colonial Athletic Association conference title in 2008.

A proven winner at the game's highest levels, Peay enjoyed a decorated playing career spanning a decade from his collegiate days at the University of Virginia (1991-95) through five MLS seasons with D.C. United (1996-2000).

MARCELO SANTOS*ASSISTANT COACH

Marcelo Santos is in his fourth season as assistant coach of Revolution II and his fourth with the club, having spent 2018-19 as a head coach in the New England Revolution Academy. Before being promoted to the Revolution II staff, Santos was head coach of the Under-19 team after serving as the head coach of the Under-17 team during the 2017-18 season.

Prior to joining the Revolution Academy, Santos served as an assistant for Marquette University, where he coached for 10 seasons. He also spent years as a U.S. Soccer Federation network scout, responsible for identifying and evaluating potential U.S. Youth National Team players in Milwaukee and Chicago, conducting training evaluations for U.S. Development Academy clubs, and conducting training centers for players with international potential.

Santos joined Marquette as a volunteer assistant in 2008 and served in that role for four seasons prior to being promoted to full-time assistant on head coach Louis Bennett's staff. While coaching at Marquette, Santos saw the Eagles claim two BIG EAST regular season titles (2011, 2013), a BIG EAST tournament championship (2013), and two NCAA tournament appearances (2012, 2013). In 2011, Marquette's coaching staff was named BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year. At least a dozen of Santos' players went on to play professionally including Columbus Crew SC defender Axel Sjöberg, Austin Bold FC midfielder Calum Mallace, New York City FC goalkeeper Luis Barraza, New York Red Bulls defender Patrick Seagrist, and former LAFC, Seattle Sounders, and current MLS Pool goalkeeper Charlie Lyon.

In 2016, Santos served as head coach of Kokomo Mantis FC of the Premier Development League. In their lone season, Santos led Mantis FC to a 4-6-4 record and fourth place finish in the Heartland Division of the PDL Central Division.

YUTA NOMURA*GOALKEEPER COACH

Yuta Nomura is in his fourth season as the goalkeeper coach for Revolution II, the New England Revolution's developmental side, following his appointment to the position on Feb. 3, 2020. Nomura spent the 2017-19 seasons tutoring goalkeepers on the coaching staff at the University of Central Arkansas in NCAA Division I.

In Nomura's first season at Central Arkansas, he was part of a coaching staff that collectively won the Missouri Valley Conference Coaching Staff of the Year award. Central Arkansas finished 8-6-4 overall in 2018, including 4-1-1 in conference play. Nomura helped guide UCA to a 2018 Missouri Valley Conference title and a berth in the D-I NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament. After switching to the Sun Belt Conference in 2019, Nomura stayed on staff to help guide the Bears to a Sun Belt Conference regular season title with a 4-1 league record and a 10-7-1 finish overall.

Prior to his coaching days, the native of Tokyo, Japan spent parts of two seasons playing professionally in Sweden for BK Olympic, based out of Malmö, from 2017-18. In his first season, he helped lead the club to promotion back to the Västra Götaland followed by a ninth-place finish in Tier 4 for the 2018 season.

Nomura played collegiately for NAIA school Lindsey Wilson College in Columbia, Kentucky where he majored in communications. As a freshman in 2011, Nomura started all 23 games for the Blue Raiders, leading the team to an NAIA National Title and an undefeated season. That year, he set career-highs in save percentage (.838), shutouts (14), goals allowed (12), and saves (62).

CURT ONALFO
TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Curt Onalfo is entering his fifth season as Technical Director of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on June 2, 2019. In his role, Onalfo works closely with Sporting Director Bruce Arena managing the club's day-to-day soccer operations, including oversight of Revolution II, the Revolution Academy, and the scouting department.

Since arriving in New England, Onalfo spearheaded the launch of Revolution II ahead of its inaugural season in USL League One in 2020, elevating the club's player development process by providing a fully defined pathway from the Academy to the professional ranks, facilitating growth through higher-level competition and a professional structure. In its three seasons, Revolution II paved the way for 42 players to make their professional soccer debuts, including 25 current and former Revolution Academy members.

Onalfo has overseen a renaissance in the club's Academy following the establishment of the new MLS NEXT Academy league. In two seasons, the Revolution Under-15 team reached the 2021 MLS NEXT Cup Quarterfinals and the Revolution Under-19 side won the 2022 MLS NEXT Cup National Championship. In addition, eight Revolution Academy players have signed directly to Revolution II and three additional players have been inked to Homegrown Player contracts with the first team side.

The Sao Paulo, Brazil native and Ridgefield, Conn. Product brings his experience to the Revolution following an extensive coaching and playing career in Major League Soccer and with the United States Men's National Team. He owns 13 years of MLS coaching experience, highlighted by stints as head coach of D.C. United (2010), the Kansas City Wizards (2007-09), and the LA Galaxy (2017).

While continuing as an assistant with the Galaxy, he also served as the inaugural head coach of USL Championship side LA Galaxy II from 2014-16, where he led the club to a Western Conference title in 2015. When he departed "Los Dos" to take over head coaching duties with the Galaxy first team, his overall record with the developmental side finished at 46-29-20.

On the international level, Onalfo spent six years as an assistant coach for the United States Men's National Team under Bruce Arena. He served as an assistant for the USMNT from 2002-07 – including at the 2002 and 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup™ – and also worked as an assistant with the U.S. Under-23 MNT in 2002. Prior to joining the Revolution, he most recently assisted the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team from 2018 through May 2019, including in Poland at the FIFA U-20 Men's World Cup™, and briefly served as acting head coach of the U-19 side for a training camp in January 2019.

Onalfo, 51, entered the coaching ranks an assistant with D.C. United in 2000 following his retirement. He remained with the Black and Red until September 2002, briefly serving as interim head coach in 2001. After his time in the U.S. Men's National Team setup, Onalfo was appointed head coach of the Kansas City Wizards shortly after the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. He led Kansas City for two-and-a-half seasons, compiling a 27-29-22 record, and helped the club reach the postseason twice, including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2007. In December 2009, Onalfo was named head coach of D.C. United, where he would remain for eight months before departing the club.

After starring as a defender at Ridgefield High School in Connecticut, Onalfo played collegiately for Bruce Arena at the University of Virginia from 1987-1990. In four seasons as a defender with the Cavaliers, he earned a pair of All-ACC First Team selections and helped the team win the 1988 ACC Championship. Onalfo was selected by the LA Galaxy in the inaugural MLS Draft and would make 13 appearances for the club in 1996, helping it reach the first ever MLS Cup. The defender went on to register 23 appearances across four seasons in MLS, spending additional time with San Jose (1997) and D.C. United (1998-99). He recorded one international cap with the U.S. Men's National Team and featured extensively at the youth level, including the 1989 FIFA World Youth Championship, the 1991 Pan American Games, and the 1992 Summer Olympics.

Onalfo's journey took a detour soon after the 1992 Olympics, when a diagnosis of stage three Hodgkin's disease at the age of 24 disrupted his career and nearly ended his life. After surviving his arduous battle with cancer, Onalfo resumed his playing career with Connecticut and then Mexican side Tampico FC, before joining the Galaxy for the inaugural MLS season.

BRUCE ARENA*SPORTING DIRECTOR

Bruce Arena is in his fifth season as Sporting Director and Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on May 14, 2019. The five-time MLS Cup winner is the eighth head coach in club history and oversees all soccer operations for the New England Revolution, including head coaching duties, roster management, scouting, and the oversight of Revolution II and the Revolution Academy.

In his first four seasons at the helm in New England, Arena has led the side to three MLS Cup Playoff appearances. His .601 winning percentage with New England entering 2022 is the best of any manager in the club's history. In 2021, Arena won his record fourth Supporters' Shield, the first in Revolution history, after guiding the team to 22 wins, 73 points, and 2.15 points per game – all MLS records. For his efforts, Arena was awarded with his league-leading fourth MLS Coach of the Year honor.

In 2022, Arena became the all-time winningest head coach in MLS history. New England's victory on March 5, 2022 gave Arena his 241st career victory in MLS regular season play, surpassing Sigi Schmid for the most in league history. Arena reached 250 career wins on October 1, 2022, the first coach in the history of MLS to do so.

In 2020, his first full season in New England, Arena led the Revolution to the Eastern Conference Final. Arena's impact in New England was immediately evident upon his arrival in Foxborough. Arena made his return to the MLS postseason in 2019 by leading one of the most remarkable turnarounds in league history. After a 2-8-2 start had the Revolution sitting in last place in MLS, Arena went unbeaten in his first eight games at the helm and helped New England reach the postseason, ending a three-year drought for the club. The team's historic renaissance came despite Arena only making one in-season addition to the roster, bringing in Argentine striker Gustavo Bou via a club-record transfer in July.

The Long Island, N.Y. native joined the Revolution with one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history that has spanned more than 40 seasons at the collegiate, professional, and international levels. Arena's MLS resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, four Supporters' Shields, seven conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. He has reached the MLS Cup final in seven of his 16 seasons coaching in the league. Arena has earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, tied for the most all-time, first winning the honor in 1997 with D.C. United before being recognized in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy.

With 285 combined regular season and postseason wins in MLS entering the 2022 season, and a regular season record of 250-147-124 (.598), Arena is the league's all-time winningest head coach and owns the best winning percentage in MLS history. Arena is the league's all-time leader in MLS Cup Playoff games coached with 55 (35-13-7), while his 35 playoff wins are also the most in league history.

On the international stage, Arena, 71, coached the U.S. Men's National Team over two separate stints from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, amassing the most wins in the program's history with a record of 81-35-32. He led the Stars and Stripes to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup – the country's best showing since 1930 – as well an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also guided the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, capturing the continental trophy three times in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

Before his time in the professional ranks, Arena began his head coaching career with one season at the University of Puget Sound (1976), before being named the head coach at the University of Virginia in 1978. During his decorated 18-year tenure at Virginia, he led the Cavaliers to five NCAA Division-1 National Championships, including four in a row from 1991-94, as well as six ACC Men's Soccer titles (1988, 1991-95). While at Virginia, Arena coached a number of American soccer legends, including Claudio Reyna, John Harkes, and current D.C. United Head Coach Ben Olsen.

In 1996, Arena received an offer to lead the United States Under-23 Men's National Team in the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta. Shortly after the Olympics, he assumed the head role with D.C. United, where he led the Black-and-Red to a 61-35 record, including the first two MLS Cup titles in 1996 and 1997, and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title in 1996.

Following the 1998 FIFA Men's World Cup in France, the United States Soccer Federation turned to Arena, who helped the team qualify for the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup. In the tournament, Arena's team recorded an impressive win over powerhouse Portugal and topped Mexico, 2-0, in the Round of 16 en route to thenation's first appearance in the Quarterfinals in a 72-year span. That same year, Arena led the USMNT to the Concacaf Gold Cup title, one of his three triumphs in the competition. In 2005, Arena won his second Concacaf Gold Cup ahead of the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup in Germany. In the 2006 tournament, the United States earned a 1-1 draw against Italy, but a 2-1 defeat to Ghana sent the USMNT home early.

The next season, Arena took charge of the New York Red Bulls, where he spent the end of the 2006 season and all of the 2007 campaign. In 2008, Arena joined the LA Galaxy for what would be an incredible nine-year tenure that included three MLS Cups in a four-year span and two Supporters' Shields in 2010 and 2011. Following his decorated career with the Galaxy, Arena rejoined the U.S. Men's National Team in November 2016. In his second run as head coach, he lost only two out of 18 games at the helm, though the United States fell short of qualification for the 2018 FIFA Men's World Cup. A 2010 National Soccer Hall of Fame inductee, Arena was named the 2015 Werner Fricker Builder Award recipient, earning U.S. Soccer's highest honor for his more than 40 years of service to the game.

A talented lacrosse player, Arena grew up on Long Island and would go on to attend Nassau Community College, where he played both lacrosse and soccer. Arena then transferred to Cornell University in 1971, where as a goalkeeper, he led his team to the 1972 NCAA College Cup Final Four and earned the tournament's Most Valuable Defensive Player award. During the 1973 season, Arena contributed as an assistant coach with Cornell, before then accepting a head coaching position at the University of Puget Sound.

Off the field, Arena has authored a number of books and is a member of the NJCAA Lacrosse Hall of Fame, after receiving induction in 2008. He and his wife, Phyllis, live in Boston. Arena's son, Kenny, was an assistant coach under his father with the LA Galaxy from 2014-16 and is now an assistant coach with FC Cincinnati.
