NOTABLE STORYLINES

- The Browns remain at FirstEnergy Stadium for the second consecutive week and look to capture three straight wins at home for the first time since 2014. The team will host the Los Angeles Chargers for the second time in three seasons (third game overall) and will kick off at 1 p.m. ET on CBS.
 - This week's game will also honor former Browns LT Joe Thomas, inducting his 10,363 consecutive snaps streak into the franchise's Ring of Honor. Thomas, who retired after 11 seasons with Browns in 2017, is the fifth player and only offensive lineman in league history to be selected to the Pro Bowl each of his first 10 seasons. The former No. 3 overall pick was selected to the Associated Press All-Pro team eight times.
 - In Week 5, the Browns knocked off the Baltimore Ravens, 12-9, in overtime and remain undefeated in AFC North play. K Greg Joseph knocked down a 37-yard field goal with two seconds to play in extra time that lifted Cleveland to the dramatic win and the team's best start (2-2-1) to a season since 2014 (3-2).
 - The Browns have played three overtime games this year, their most in a season since 1989 when the team played in four. The three games tie with the 2002 Buffalo Bills, 1995 Indianapolis Colts and 1987 Green Bay Packers for the most such games in a team's first five games of a season.
 - The Browns defense collected two takeaways (one interception and one fumble recovery), increasing its total to 15, the unit's most through five weeks since 1989 (17). With eight picks this season, the Browns have already surpassed their total of seven in 2017 and have improved their -28 2017 turnover ratio to +8 through the first five games of 2018.
 - Rookie QB Baker Mayfield completed 25 of 43 passes for 342 yards and one touchdown in the overtime win over the Ravens. His passing yards total is the second most by a Browns rookie and the victory made him the sixth QB selected No. 1 overall to win his first-career home start in the common draft era.
 - WR Jarvis Landry had five catches for 69 yards in the victory. With 429 career receptions in five seasons, Landry surpassed Larry Fitzgerald's 426 (2004-08) for the most receptions by a player in his first five seasons in NFL history.
 - Rookie DB Denzel Ward recorded one interception, three passes defensed, five tackles and blocked a field goal. His team-leading three interceptions are the most by a Brown through the first five weeks since Anthony Henry in 2001, while his blocked field goal was the first by a Brown since Jamie Meder in 2016.

THE LAST TIME VS. THE CHARGERS

BROWNS 10
CHARGERS 19Dec. 3, 2017
StubHub Center, Carson, Calif.

Despite a late push, Cleveland dropped its Week 13 matchup against the Los Angeles Chargers, 19-10. Chargers K Travis Coons opened the scoring with a pair of field goals (21 and 40 yards) in the second quarter, while rookie QB DeShone Kizer found rookie TE David Njoku for a 28-yard touchdown pass to give the Browns a 7-6 advantage. On the ensuing possession, Coons connected from 22 yards for a 9-7 Los Angeles halftime lead. The Chargers opened the second half with a 10-play, 78-yard drive capped by a seven-yard strike from QB Philip Rivers to WR Keenan Allen to extend Los Angeles' lead to 16-7. Later in the third quarter, Coons nailed his fourth field goal of the day to give the Chargers a 19-7 edge. In the fourth quarter, rookie K Zane Gonzalez connected on a 35-yard field goal to bring the Browns within nine, but a pair of late turnovers inside the Chargers 30-yard line sealed the 19-10 victory for Los Angeles.

THE LAST TIME VS. THE CHARGERS AT HOME

CHARGERS 17
BROWNS 20Dec. 24, 2017
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns earned their first win of the season over the San Diego Chargers, 20-17, at FirstEnergy Stadium. San Diego and QB Philip Rivers marched down the field and scored on the first possession of the game with an eight-play, 75-yard drive, capped by a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Antonio Gates. The Browns answered with a 10-play, 72-yard touchdown drive, finished by an eight-yard RB Isaiah Crowell touchdown rush that tied the game at 7-7 just under 10 minutes into the first quarter. The Chargers scored once more in the first quarter as K Josh Lambo culminated the ensuing possession with a 43-yard field goal to gain a 10-7 advantage, but Cleveland answered yet again as the Browns opened the scoring in the second quarter behind another impressive 10-play drive as Crowell found the end zone on a four-yard rush for his second touchdown to give Cleveland a 14-10 advantage. DB Jamar Taylor brought the next San Diego drive to a halt when he picked off a Rivers pass for his third interception of the season, and the Browns capitalized as K Cody Parkey capped the ensuing drive with a 49-yard field goal to take a 17-10 lead that Cleveland would carry into halftime. To begin the third quarter, Parkey finished an eight-play, 57-yard drive with a 27-yard field goal attempt, extending the Browns' lead to 20-10. The Chargers responded as Rivers led them on an 11-play, 75-yard drive capped by a one-yard touchdown pass to WR Tyrell Williams. San Diego had the first opportunity to score in the fourth quarter with just over five minutes remaining in the game, but DL Jamie Meder blocked a 32-yard Lambo field goal attempt by bursting through the middle and getting a hand on the kick. The Chargers had one last chance to score on their final possession, but Lambo would miss a 45-yard field goal attempt wide right as time expired.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

TEAM

- A win would improve the Browns to 3-2-1 (.583) on the year and would be the team's best start to a season since 2001, when they started the season 4-2 (.667).
- A win would improve the Browns to 3-0-1 (.875) at FirstEnergy Stadium and would be the team's best start at home since 1963, when they started with a perfect 4-0 record at home.
- A win would mark the Browns' third consecutive win at home and would be the first time it's happened since 2014 (Weeks 6, 8-9).

OFFENSE

- A rushing score by any Brown will give the team nine on the year and will be the most by a Browns team through the first six games of a season since 1971.

RB Nick Chubb

- With another multi-touchdown performance, would become the first Browns rookie since Isaiah Crowell in 2014 to do so twice in a season. The total would tie for the second-most multi-touchdown games by a Browns rookie in the category.
- With another 100-yard performance, would become the first Browns rookie to do so multiple times in a season since Trent Richardson (three) in 2012. The two games would also tie for the second most in the category.

RB Carlos Hyde

- With a rushing touchdown, becomes the first Brown since Leroy Kelly in 1966 to record at least one rushing score in five of the first six games of a season.
- A rushing touchdown will be his sixth of the season and will be the most by a Brown through the first six contests of a year since Kelly rushed for six in 1966.
- Two rushing scores will mark the second time he's done so in 2018 and will make him the first Brown to rush for multiple scores in at least two of the first six games of a single season since Kelly in 1971.

RB Duke Johnson Jr.

- With 50-plus receiving yards, will mark the 14th times he's done so in a single game and tie him for fifth (Theo Riddick and James White) among all active RBs.
- With eight scrimmage yards, will have 3,000 for his career.
- With two receptions, will have 200 for his career.

WR Jarvis Landry

- With at least 10 receptions, will have done so in eight games since 2015 and will tie Julio Jones for third in the category.
 - With at least 11 catches, will have done so in five games since 2015 and can tie Jones and Keenan Allen for second in the category.
- Los Angeles Chargers vs. Cleveland Browns | Regular Season Week 6, Game 6

- With at least a pair of catches, will have done so in 69 consecutive games, the longest streak in the league since 2014.
- With 100 receiving yards, will have done so in three of the first six games of the season and will make him the first Brown to accomplish the feat.
- With four receptions, will have caught four passes in 23 consecutive games, the NFL's longest active streak. The mark will also tie Haywood Jeffries (Sept. 8, 1991-Nov. 1, 1992) and Antonio Brown (Oct. 25, 2015-Dec. 5, 2016) for the eighth-longest streak in NFL history.

QB Baker Mayfield

- Could join Brandon Weeden (Weeks 2-3 in 2012) as the only Browns rookies in Browns history to record 300 passing yards in consecutive games.
- Could be the first Browns QB to reach 300 yards passing in consecutive games since Josh McCown in 2015 (Weeks 5-6).

TE David Njoku

- A receiving touchdown will be the fifth of his career and the third most by a Browns TE in his first two seasons.
- Could be the first Browns TE since 2016 (Gary Barnidge) to have at least five receptions in three consecutive games.

DEFENSE

DL Myles Garrett

- With 1.5 sacks, will pass Michael Dean Perry (1988-89) for the fourth-most sacks by a Brown in his first two seasons (13.5).
- With a half-sack, could be the first Brown to do so in four consecutive games since Desmond Bryant in 2012 (Weeks 14-17).

DB Damarious Randall

- Another interception can tie him with Ha Ha Clinton-Dix and Darius Slay for the third-most interceptions by a single player since 2015 with 13.

DB Denzel Ward

- Another interception will be his fourth of the season and will be the first time a Brown has recorded that many through the first six games of a season since Tashaun Gipson in 2014. It will also be the first time a Browns rookie has done so in a season since Anthony Henry in 2001.

HALEY'S COMET

Todd Haley was named offensive coordinator on Jan. 24, 2018. Haley spent the past 21 years coaching in the NFL, including the past six as the offensive coordinator of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Haley oversaw one of the top offensive units in the league during his time in Pittsburgh, which led the NFL with six offensive players being selected to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

Last year, Pittsburgh posted a 31:56 average time of possession for the league's fourth-best average and a 377.9 yards-per-game average, the NFL's third-best output.

Prior to leading one of the NFL's best offenses over the past six years, Haley had three seasons as the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs. There, he helped the Chiefs win the AFC West Division title in 2010, when Kansas City led the NFL in rushing yards per game (164.3).

EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER

Along with Haley, the Browns offense has added assistant coaches with decades of NFL experience. Quarterbacks coach Ken Zampese has joined Cleveland's staff for his 20th NFL season and like Haley, Zampese is familiar with the AFC North. Zampese has been either offensive coordinator or quarterbacks coach of the Cincinnati Bengals since 2003 and helped shape QBs Carson Palmer and Andy Dalton into two of the highest-rated statistical passers in Bengals history.

Moreover, running backs/associate head coach Freddie Kitchens spent the last 11 seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, having held coaching roles with the RBs, QBs and TEs.

GET REDY

The Browns offense is tied for seventh in the NFL in the red zone with a 92.9 scoring efficiency, 6.1 percent ahead of the league average. Last year, the Browns finished last in the NFL in red zone scoring efficiency with 69.2, 17.3 percent below the league average.

SETTLING THE SCORE

The 25.1 points-per-game average and 2.60 touchdowns-per-game average are both the highest marks by a Browns team since 2007, when the team also had a 25.1 points-per-game average and was average 2.88 touchdowns per game.

GIVE AND TAKE

After only forcing 13 turnovers in 2017, the Browns defense has already surpassed last season with a league-leading 15 takeaways this year, including eight interceptions and seven fumble recoveries. It's the unit's most takeaways through the first four games of the season since 1989 (17).

The unit currently ties for the third-most interceptions in the NFL and has the most fumble recoveries.

With the offense giving away five interceptions and two fumbles this season, the Browns' turnover differential (+8) is the NFL's top tally. Last season, the Browns ranked last in the league with a -28 turnover differential.

BIG-TIME SECURITY

The 2018 Browns have a group of three players that each started all 16 games last season. OL Joel Bitonio, JC Tretter and Kevin Zeitler headline a front that helped the Browns offense rank sixth in rushing average (4.46). Since 2016, the Browns are second in the entire league in rushing average in such span (4.67). Bitonio enters his fifth NFL season, having spent his entire tenure in Cleveland.

SPECIAL FORCES UNIT

The Browns have also added experience to the special teams coaching staff, welcoming special teams coordinator Amos Jones. Jones, who most recently was special teams coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals for the past five seasons, is no stranger to the AFC North, having been on the Pittsburgh Steelers' staff from 2007-12. Under Jones' tutelage, two Cardinals special teamers were selected to Pro Bowls and K Chandler Catanzaro tied the NFL record for most consecutive made field goals to begin a career (17) in 2014. In his first season in the desert in 2013, Jones guided P Dave Zastudil to tie the NFL lead with 35 punts inside the 20-yard line. With the Steelers, Jones was a member of a staff that won Super Bowl XLIII, developed WR Antonio Brown into a Pro Bowl kick returner in 2011 and helped Pittsburgh lead the NFL with a franchise record of 1,581 return yards in 2009. Jones has a total of 37 years of coaching experience at the high school, college and professional levels.

AWAKEN THE SLEEPING GIANT

General Manager John Dorsey was named to his current position on Dec. 7, 2017, following Week 13 of the 2017 NFL season. Since then, Dorsey has enhanced the roster through free agency and trades, as well as taking advantage of the Browns' draft selections.

Dorsey also bolstered the roster off the field, headlined by the additions of Assistant General Manager Eliot Wolf and vice president of player personnel Alonzo Highsmith. Both Wolf and Highsmith's connection to Dorsey spans from the trio's time and experience with the Green Bay Packers. Dorsey was first hired by the Packers as a college scout, joining Hall of Famer Ron Wolf's staff, who is also the father of Eliot.

Dorsey served as general manager of the Kansas City Chiefs from 2013-16. During that time, Dorsey's teams earned three postseason berths and a 2016 AFC West title. The Chiefs also won at least nine games a year in that span and registered a 43-21 (.672) overall record, the NFL's fourth-highest winning percentage.

As the Chiefs' GM, Dorsey selected three players who went on to earn first team All-Pro honors and were also selected to multiple Pro Bowls, including TE Travis Kelce (third round, 2013), CB Marcus Peters (first round, 2015) and WR Tyreek Hill (fifth round, 2016). In 2017, he drafted RB Kareem Hunt (third round), who led the NFL in rushing during his rookie season and was selected to the Pro Bowl. The year prior in 2016, LB D.J. Alexander (sixth round, 2015) was also selected to the Pro Bowl.

APRIL SHOWERS BRING PRO BOWL FLOWERS

Dorsey's career success in the spring has been evident in the winter, as he's selected a rookie Pro Bowler in each NFL Draft since 2015.

WR | 80 JARVIS LANDRY

LEADING LANDRY

WR Jarvis Landry finished 2017 with a league-best 112 receptions for 987 yards and a career-best nine touchdowns. Not only did his number of receptions pace the NFL, but it was the best in the league since 2015 and marked a new career high. Since last year, Landry is second among all NFL receivers in receptions (141).

Landry and Pittsburgh's Antonio Brown are the only players to record the following receiving milestones since 2014:

- 100 receptions in 2017 (Landry 112, Brown 101).
- 200 total receptions from 2016-17 (Brown 207, Landry 206).
- 300 total receptions from 2015-17 (Brown 343, Landry 316).
- 400 total receptions from 2014-17 (Brown 472, Landry 400).

A HANDFUL OF CATCHES

Landry has registered at least five catches in 53 career games, giving him the best mark all time among players in their first five seasons. His total is three ahead of the next-best total of 49 belonging to Cincinnati's A.J. Green (2011-15) and four ahead of Houston's DeAndre Hopkins (2013-17). Additionally, he ranks third in the NFL since 2014, behind Pittsburgh's Antonio Brown (56) and Denver's Demaryius Thomas (56).

KEEPIN' IT 100

Landry is one of just 11 Browns in history to record multiple 100-yard receiving games through the first five games of a season and is the first to do so since Gary Barnidge (two) in 2015.

JarVIS Landry

Landry collected six points on nine receiving touchdowns last year. The total not only beat his previous career high by four, but also tied for the fourth-best total in the league. Since 2017, Landry's receiving touchdowns mark ties for ninth in the league.

400 Club

With 429 career receptions, Landry is just one of seven players to have 400-plus catches since 2014, including Antonio Brown (501), Julio Jones (440), Demaryius Thomas (405), Larry Fitzgerald (403), Golden Tate (405) and DeAndre Hopkins (400).

ROAD WARRIOR

In away stadiums since 2014, Landry had posted the league's third-most receptions (230), third-best receptions-per-game average (6.8) and sixth-most receiving first downs (119).

FAMILIAR FACES

Landry's 171 career receptions (third), 6.6 receptions-per-game average (tied for third), 104 receiving first downs (fourth), 1,881 receiving yards (fifth) and 72.3 yards-per-game average (seventh) all rank in the NFL's top 10 among receivers facing divisional opponents since 2014.

ABOVE-AVERAGE START

Through the first five weeks of 2018, Landry has registered a 13.1 receiving average for the best start of his career.

DL | 95 MYLES GARRETT
TROUBLE MAKER

DL Myles Garrett has been a problem for opposing QBs since last year, registering 12 sacks in just 16 career games. The total is the fourth-best mark by an active player in his first 16 career games and also ties for the 14th most in NFL history. Additionally, it's the most ever by a Brown in the category and is already the fifth most in franchise history by a player in his first two years, just 6.5 short of Reggie Camp's record in 1983-84.

BANNER YEAR

Johnson Jr. entered the Browns' record books last year by compiling numerous accomplishments.

1. First Brown to record at least 50 receptions in three consecutive seasons since WR Braylon Edwards (2006-08).
2. First Browns player with at least three rushing and three receiving touchdowns in the same year since RB Terry Kirby (1999).
3. First Brown to rush for at least 300 yards and record at least 500 yards in a single season three times.

CATCHING HISTORY

Last year, Johnson Jr. joined Herschel Walker as the only two NFL RBs ever to record 500 receiving yards in each of their first three seasons.

FIRST-TIMER

Johnson Jr.'s 2017 season ended with him making history by becoming the first NFL RB to collect at least 50 receptions in each of his first three seasons.

SOFT HANDS

Johnson Jr.'s 137 receptions are the third-most by an RB over the last three seasons (2016-18), trailing only Pittsburgh's Le'Veon Bell (160) and New England's James White (148). However, Johnson Jr. has posted a 9.5 receiving average, compared to Bell's 7.9 and White's 8.4, and he's only 47 yards short (1,298) of L.A. Rams' Todd Gurley II 1,345 league-leading mark.

NOT YOUR AVERAGE RUNNING BACK

With 1,741 receiving yards through his first three NFL seasons (2015-17), Johnson Jr. hauled in the most receiving yards by an NFL RB in the category since 1999.

According to Elias Sports, out of the 1,200-plus times an NFL player has rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns in a game, Chubb's Week 4 performance made him the only one to do it in three carries or less.

TURNING AN INCH INTO A MILE

Needing just three carries to rush for over 100 yards, Chubb is the first player to do so since 2007 (Cordarrelle Patterson) and is just the fourth to ever accomplish the feat.

ALL-TIME NFL RUSHING LEADERS: 100-YRD GAMES (3 OR LESS ATT)

AGE IS JUST A NUMBER

At 22 years and 277 days old in Week 4, Chubb became the youngest Brown since Jim Brown in 1958 (22 years, 272 days) to rush for over a 100 yards and score multiple touchdowns in a single game. He's also the youngest NFL player since Dallas' Ezekiel Elliott (22 years, 99 days) in 2017 to accomplish the feat and is the youngest rookie since Leonard Fournette (22 years, 263 days) did so last year.

ABOVE-AVERAGE BACK

Chubb's 11.38 rushing average is not only an NFL best among all RBs (minimum of 10 attempts), but his two rushing touchdowns are tied for third among all rookie backs this season.

HEAD COACH HUE JACKSON

Hue Jackson was named the 16th full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history by Dee and Jimmy Haslam on January 13, 2016. He has 31 years of coaching experience, including the last 17 in the NFL. He has spent 11 seasons coaching in the AFC North, during which time he helped his team advance to the postseason seven times. Jackson was head coach of the Oakland Raiders in 2011 and guided the team to an 8-8 record. He has also served as offensive coordinator in Washington (2003), Atlanta (2007), Oakland (2010) and Cincinnati (2014-15).

In 2017, the Browns defense made significant improvements in many categories. The Browns, who finished 31st in the NFL in both total defense and rushing defense in 2016, ranked 14th in total defense and seventh in rushing defense in 2017. Cleveland recorded its best finish in rush defense since 1992 and held opponents to a 3.35 rushing average. Joe Schobert became the first Browns linebacker named to the Pro Bowl in 16 years, as he was second in the NFL with 142 tackles. Defensive lineman Myles Garrett, the first overall pick of the 2017 NFL Draft, led the Browns with seven sacks, tied for second among all NFL rookies.

Offensively, running back Duke Johnson Jr. led the team in receptions (74) and receiving yards (693), while totaling seven touchdowns. He averaged 6.7 scrimmage yards per touch, third most in the NFL among running backs in 2017. Rookie tight end David Njoku led the Browns with four receiving touchdowns, the most ever by a Browns rookie tight end. Rookie quarterback DeShone Kizer recorded the second-most passing yards by a Browns rookie and third-most touchdown passes.

In his first year with Cleveland, Jackson helped the Browns finish second in the NFL with a 4.89 rushing average, the team's best mark since 1966. Linebacker Christian Kirksey finished third in the NFL with 148 tackles, while left tackle Joe Thomas was selected to his 10th career Pro Bowl.

Jackson helped develop one of the youngest teams in NFL history. The Browns opened the 2016 season with 17 rookies on their 53-man roster, the most by an NFL team in a season opener since 2002. Second-round pick defensive lineman Emmanuel Ogbah recorded a team-best 5.5 sacks, tied for the fourth-most by a Browns rookie.

Prior to joining the Browns, Jackson spent the previous four seasons (2012-15) with the Cincinnati Bengals. During that time, he helped the Bengals to two division titles and a trip to the postseason all four years. In 2012, he served as secondary/assistant special teams coach before coaching the running backs in 2013. Jackson spent 2014-15 as offensive coordinator.

With Jackson as coordinator in 2015, the Bengals offense finished third in the AFC in yards per play (5.7) and points per game (26.2). He was voted by the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA) as the Co-Assistant Coach of the Year as quarterback Andy Dalton set a career high and franchise record with a 106.3 rating, which led the AFC and was second in the NFL. After losing Dalton to injury in Week 14, Jackson guided quarterback A.J. McCarron to a 2-1 record in the final three games of the season as the Bengals clinched the AFC North title. The Cincinnati running game produced two 700-yard rushers in Jeremy Hill (794) and Giovani Bernard (730) for the first time since 1988. Tight end Tyler Eifert experienced a breakout season after hauling in 13 touchdown receptions, the most by a Bengals tight end in franchise history and the most by a Cincinnati player since 2001. Wide receiver A.J. Green added 10 receiving touchdowns on 86 receptions for 1,297 yards. Eifert, Green and left tackle Andrew Whitworth were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In Jackson's first year as offensive coordinator for Cincinnati in 2014, the run game posted its highest yards per game average (134.1) since 2000. Dalton passed for 3,398 yards and Green totaled 1,041 receiving yards. Hill led all NFL rookies with 1,124 rushing yards, the second-most by a Bengals rookie in team history.

After spending the 2010 season as the Raiders offensive coordinator, Jackson was promoted to head coach in 2011. Oakland finished the year 8-8 and tied for first in the AFC West but missed the postseason via tiebreaker. The 8-8 mark was the best record by any Raiders team since 2002. The Raiders finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (379.5 yards per game) and seventh in rushing offense (131.9).

Before joining the Raiders, Jackson spent two seasons (2008-09) as quarterbacks coach for Baltimore, helping the Ravens advance to the playoffs both years. He was vital in the development of Joe Flacco, who was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 2008 and became the first rookie quarterback to win two playoff games as the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship game.

From 2004-06, Jackson served as the Bengals wide receivers coach, helping develop one of the best wide receiver tandems in NFL history with Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh. During that span, the two combined to average 173.3 catches, 2,363.3 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns per season. In 2005, Johnson led the AFC with 1,432 receiving yards. In 2006, Johnson and Houshmandzadeh became the first Bengals duo to each top 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.

Jackson gained his first fulltime NFL experience with Washington, where he served as the running backs coach from 2001-02, before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2003. Under Jackson's tutelage, running back Stephen Davis led the NFC with 1,432 rushing yards in 2001.

Jackson spent 14 years coaching on the college level, going from a graduate assistant at Pacific all the way to offensive coordinator at Southern California. He spent four seasons (1997-2000) as USC's offensive coordinator, where he also helped to recruit and develop players, including quarterback Carson Palmer, who went on to win the Heisman Trophy and be selected No. 1 overall in the NFL draft.

He was a minority coaching fellowship intern with the Los Angeles Rams in 1990, Arizona Cardinals in 1992 and Washington Redskins in 1995. He also served as the running backs/wide receivers/special teams coach for the London Monarchs of the World League in 1991.

Born Oct. 22, 1965, Jackson was a quarterback at Pacific from 1985-86 and threw for 2,544 yards and 19 touchdowns. The Los Angeles native also lettered in basketball and earned his degree in physical education.

Jackson and his wife, Michelle, have three daughters, Jordyn, Baylee and Haydyn.

THE HUE JACKSON FOUNDATION

Hue Jackson and his wife, Michelle, launched the Hue Jackson Foundation on July 20, 2017. The foundation is committed to empowering children, teen and adult survivors of human trafficking through the funding of organizations that champion for and serve as a voice for those who are exploited. The foundation also focuses its efforts to further awareness, prevention and healing for victims of human trafficking.

On July 17, 2018, the Hue Jackson Foundation opened the Hue Jackson Foundation Survivors of Human Trafficking Residence. This residence is approximately 4,500 sq. ft. and provides a safe environment for up to 12 recovered adult survivors of human trafficking. It offers collaborative and holistic services, and provides shared office space for law enforcement, healthcare, and social services providers, to help assist these survivors on their road to recovery.

The foundation's website is www.huejackson.org.

WEEK 1, GAME 1

STEELERS 21
BROWNS 21Sept. 9, 2018 (OT)
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns kicked off the 2018 season with a tie against the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-21. In the first tie for the Browns since 1989, the team's defense forced six turnovers for the first time since 2010. Rookie DB Denzel Ward became the first Browns DB to secure two interceptions in his NFL debut since 1971 (Clarence Scott). Browns DL Myles Garrett forced a career-best two fumbles, while matching career-best marks in tackles (six) and sacks (two). Following a scoreless first quarter, Steelers RB James Conner culminated a 10-play, 88-yard scoring drive ending in a four-yard touchdown run. After the 7-0 halftime break, Browns QB Tyrod Taylor led Cleveland on an opening-half possession that he ended with a 20-yard touchdown run by him, tying the game at 7-7. Pittsburgh answered as QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 22-yard touchdown pass on the ensuing possession. After forcing the Browns to punt, Conner found the end zone again for his second score of the game, giving the Steelers their largest lead of the game, 21-7. After recovering the team's second fumble of the game, Browns RB Carlos Hyde punched in a one-yard score. Before the final whistle of regulation, Taylor found WR Josh Gordon for a 17-yard strike with 1:58 remaining in regulation to tie the game, 21-21. In the OT period, each team exchanged possessions with punts, before the Steelers put together an eight-play, 31-yard drive to set up a K Chris Boswell game-winning field goal attempt, but Boswell's try missed to the left. Following a Cleveland punt, Roethlisberger was strip-sacked by LB Genard Avery on the following possession. The ensuing Browns K Zane Gonzalez game-winning field goal attempt was blocked by Steelers LB TJ Watt, forcing the teams to tie, 21-21.

BROWNS 18
SAINTS 21Sept. 16, 2018
Mercedes-Benz Superdome, New Orleans, La.

In the first road game of 2018, the Cleveland Browns fell to the New Orleans Saints, 21-18. Despite leading 12-3 going into the final quarter, the Saints rallied to score 18 points in the final 8:41 of the contest, securing the victory. K Zane Gonzalez opened the scoring for the Browns with his first of two 39-yard, first-half field goals. However, Saints K Wil Lutz provided an equalizing field goal on the ensuing possession. At the half, the Browns went into the locker room with a 6-3 lead. New Orleans punted on the opening possession of the second half, as RB Carlos Hyde capped a 12-play, 79-yard drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. On the Saints' first drive of the fourth quarter, WR Michael Thomas caught his first of two fourth quarter touchdowns from QB Drew Brees. Following a Browns QB Tyrod Taylor interception, New Orleans took their first lead of the game after another with Thomas' second score. Saints RB Alvin Kamara ran in the ensuing two-point conversion attempt. Following the two-minute warning, Taylor found WR Antonio Callaway for a 47-yard touchdown reception to tie the game at 18, as Gonzalez missed the extra point attempt. With 1:16 remaining, Brees orchestrated a six-play, 49-yard drive to set up th go-ahead field goal, which Lutz made from 44 yards out with 0:21 remaining. Taylor found Browns WR Jarvis Landry for a 25-yard reception, followed by a 16-yard catch from Callaway to set-up the game-tying field goal for Cleveland, but Gonzalez missed the attempt wide right.

WEEK 3, GAME 3

JETS 18
BROWNS 21Sept. 20, 2018
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the New York Jets on Thursday Night Football, 21-17, securing the team's first win since Week 16 of the 2016 season. Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield entered the game prior to the end of the first half due to an injury suffered by QB Tyrod Taylor, propelling Cleveland to 14 unanswered points and a fourth-quarter touchdown en route to a victory. Mayfield finished the game with 17 completions on 23 attempts for 201 yards, scoring on the receiving end of a two-point conversion attempt thrown by WR Jarvis Landry. Landry added eight receptions for 103 yards, his best single-game showing as a Brown. Following a scoreless first quarter, Jets RB Isaiah Crowell opened the scoring for New York, rushing in from seven yards out four seconds into the second quarter. After a Cleveland punt on the ensuing possession, Crowell scored for the second time of the evening from two yards out, capping a 10-play, 63-yard touchdown drive. Down 14-0, and following the Taylor injury, Mayfield entered the game and led the Browns on a six-play, 39-yard drive for a 45-yard field goal from newly-acquired K Greg Joseph. The Jets took their 14-3 lead into the intermission. Following a strip forced fumble by Browns DB Denzel Ward of Jets WR Robby Anderson, Joseph connected on his second field goal, this time from 27 yards out to draw the Browns within one score. Before the final whistle of the third quarter, Browns RB Carlos Hyde capped a 69-yard scoring drive with a goal-line plunge from one yard out. The ensuing two-point conversion attempt was successful, as Landry's end around pass found Mayfield in the corner of the end zone. Jets K Jason Myers ended Cleveland's 14-point burst with a field goal from 28 yards out, giving Cleveland the ball back with 8:55 remaining in regulation. On the next drive, Hyde scored his second one-yard touchdown rush of the game to end a 15-play drive, giving the Browns their first lead of the contest. On a third-down attempt, LB Joe Schobert intercepted Jets QB Sam Darnold's pass. Following a Browns punt, Darnold threw his second pick of the game, as DB Terrance Mitchell picked off his sixth career interception to secure the win for Cleveland.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

BROWNS 42
RAIDERS 45Sept. 30, 2018 (OT)
Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, Calif.

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Oakland Raiders, 45-42, in the team's second overtime game of the season. Though leading by 14 points midway through the fourth quarter, the Browns allowed the Raiders to score 21 fourth-quarter points and the eventual game-winning field goal in the overtime period. Rookie QB Baker Mayfield, in his first career NFL start, threw for 295 yards and two touchdowns on 21 completions. Fellow rookie, RB Nick Chubb, rushed for 105 yards and a pair of scores on just three carries, a franchise rookie record. DBs E.J. Gaines and Damarious Randall each had an interception, giving the Browns 13 takeaways through the first four games of the season for the first time since 1989. RB Carlos Hyde also scored on the ground for a league-best fifth time this season. Following an exchange of punts to begin the game, Mayfield's second drive ended in an interception returned for a touchdown by Oakland DB Gareon Conley. Down, 7-0, the Browns rallied by scoring 17 unanswered points before the end of the first half. A field goal from K Greg Joseph with two minutes remaining in the first quarter got Cleveland on the board, along with a 63-yard score by Chubb. Following an Oakland missed field goal, Mayfield found TE Darren Fells for a 49-yard passing score, capping a four-play, 70-yard drive. Mayfield's connection with Fells was his first career touchdown pass. The Browns' ensuing two-point conversion attempt was successful, as RB Duke Johnson Jr. ran around the left end to put the Browns ahead by 10 points. However, the Raiders answered with a receiving score from WR Amari Cooper, leading to the halftime score of 17-14 in favor of Cleveland. The Browns scored on each of their first two drives in the second half, with a Joseph field goal and a WR Jarvis Landry touchdown reception, the first in his Browns career. After two fumbles and three punts on five possessions, the Raiders scored 13 unanswered points to take a 34-28 lead with less than 11 minutes remaining in regulation. Returning the favor, Hyde capped a seven-play, 77-yard drive with a one-yard rushing score after WR Antonio Callaway's 59-yard reception to set it up. Later, Chubb scored again with a 41-yard touchdown before Oakland put together a six-play, 53-yard scoring drive with a touchdown pass to TE Jared Cook from QB Derek Carr. The Raiders converted the two-point conversion attempt with a WR Jordy Nelson catch, taking the game into overtime, 42-42. Raiders K Matt McCrane missed his first field goal attempt on the team's first possession, but after forcing a Browns punt on the following drive, he redeemed himself and connected on a 29-yard attempt to secure Oakland's first win of the season.

WEEK 5, GAME 5

BROWNS 21

Oct. 7, 2018

FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the Baltimore Ravens in overtime, 12-9, the franchise's first win on a Sunday since 2015. With the win, Cleveland advanced to 2-2-1 on the season, the team's best start to a season since 2014 (3-2). Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield threw for 342 yards on 25 completions and a touchdown. The 342 yards in a single game are the second most by a Browns rookie in franchise history. After a Mayfield pick on Cleveland's first offensive drive, Baltimore capped a four-play drive with a 44-yard field goal by K Justin Tucker to give the Ravens the early 3-0 lead. The three-point lead was Baltimore's only lead of the contest. With 40 seconds before the halftime whistle, Mayfield found WR Rashard Higgins for Higgins' first score of the 2018 season. Each team notched on a field goal in the third quarter, with Browns K Greg Joseph and Tucker connecting from 35 yards and 25 yards out, respectively. Later, Tucker would register his third field goal of the contest, this time from 32-yarder, to draw the score at 9-9. In the Browns' third overtime game of the year, each team exchanged punts after the Browns took the ball to start the overtime period. Getting the ball at the Cleveland 16 yard line, Mayfield orchestrated a seven-play, 65-yard drive to set up Joseph for a 37-yard game winner.
