CLEVELAND BROWNS WEEKLY GAME RELEASE

REGULAR SEASON WEEK 7, GAME 7

1 P.M. ET | OCTOBER 21, 2018

AT TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

BROWNS (2-3-1) VS. BUCCANEERS (2-3)

CAPACITY 65,890 | SURFACE GRASS

NOTABLE STORYLINES

- The Browns hit the road for two consecutive weeks, beginning with a Week 7 matchup against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at Raymond James Stadium (Tampa, Fla.). The contest will be the first between the teams since 2014 and kickoff is set for 1 p.m. ET.
- Last week, the Browns lost their first home game of the 2018 season to the Los Angeles Chargers, 38-14. Prior to Week 6, the Browns competed in three overtime finishes and five games that were decided by an average of just 2.6 points. The club's 2-3-1 (.417) record is the best start by a Browns team since 2014 (3-3, .500).
- RB Duke Johnson Jr. recorded a season-high 109 scrimmage yards (73 receiving, 36 rushing) against the Chargers. He registered four receptions to increase his career total 202, the sixth most by a Browns player through their first four years and the most by an RB.
- TE David Njoku registered a career-high seven receptions for 55 yards and a one-yard touchdown. His five career receiving touchdowns are the third most by a Browns TE in their first two seasons.
- Rookie QB Baker Mayfield passed for 238 yards on the Chargers. His 875 passing yards are the most by a Brown in their first three starts.
- LB Christian Kirksey recorded his first career interception last week to increase the defense's takeaway total to 16 this season. The 16 takeaways are its most through six weeks since 1989 (19), while its nine interceptions have already surpassed its total of seven in all of 2017. Through six games, the Browns have a +7 turnover ratio after finishing last season -28.
- Rookie DB Denzel Ward earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his Week 5 performance in the win over the Baltimore Ravens. Additionally, Ward garnered Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors for the second time this season (Week 1). With Mayfield and RB Nick Chubb also receiving the award in Week 3 and Week 4, respectively, the Browns have had a player receive the honor four of the first five weeks of the 2018 season.
- The Browns have played three overtime games this year, their most in a season since 1989 when the team played in four. The three games tie with the 2002 Buffalo Bills, 1995 Indianapolis Colts and 1987 Green Bay Packers for the most such games in a team's first five games of a season.

THE LAST TIME VS. THE BUCCANEERS

BUCCANEERS 17
BROWNS 22

Nov. 2, 2014
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Browns defeated the Buccaneers in a back-and-forth contest at FirstEnergy Stadium, 22-17, to improve to 5-3 on the season, the franchise's best start since 2007. Tampa Bay drove down the field on their first drive of the day. However, the Buccaneers were kept off the scoreboard, as Browns DL Billy Winn blocked a 31-yard field goal attempt by Patrick Murray. Billy Cundiff scored the first points of the game when he converted on a 49-yard field goal attempt, putting the Browns up 3-0. Murray attempted to tie the game on the Buccaneers' second drive, but missed from 55 yards away. With 38 seconds left in the first quarter, Joe Haden deflected a deep pass from Mike Glennon that was intended for Mike Evans. The deflected pass found its way into the arms of Donte Whitner who returned the interception for 54 yards. The Browns' takeaway led to Cundiff's second field goal of the game when he split the uprights from 29 yards away. Tampa Bay responded on the ensuing drive when Glennon found Evans for a 24-yard touchdown strike, taking the lead 7-6. After the Browns turned the ball over deep in their own territory, Tashaun Gipson picked off Glennon in the end zone, returning it 12 yards. The Buccaneers extended their lead to 10-6 with 2:29 to play in the first half, as Murray hit a 40-yard field goal. Cleveland responded with a field goal of their own when Cundiff converted from 43 yards out as time expired before halftime. The Browns came out of the half strong, driving 80 yards in 11 plays and finding the end zone on a 2-yard reception by Terrance West. With 4:02 remaining in the third quarter, Tampa Bay answered when Glennon found Evans for the duo's second 24-yard touchdown of the day. With the Browns down 17-16 in the fourth quarter, Craig Robertson got his hand on a Tampa Bay punt that resulted in a 1-yard play and gave Cleveland the ball at Tampa Bay's 35-yard line. Two plays later, Hoyer found Taylor Gabriel for a 34-yard touchdown to go along with Gabriel's team-high 87 receiving yards on the day. In an effort to extend their lead to seven points, the Browns attempted a two-point conversion but failed. With less than two minutes remaining in regulation, the Browns held the Tampa Bay offense on fourth down inside Cleveland territory to secure the victory.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

TEAM

- A win would improve the Browns to 3-3-1 (.500) on the year and would be the team's best start to a season since 2014, when they started the year 4-3 (.571).

OFFENSE

- A rushing score by any Brown will give the team nine on the year and will be the most by a Browns team through the first seven games of a season since 2014 (nine).
- With another successful two-point conversion, the 2018 Browns would set the franchise record for most in a single season (five).

RB Nick Chubb

- With another multi-touchdown performance, would become the first Browns rookie since Isaiah Crowell in 2014 to do so twice in a season. The total would tie for the second-most multi-touchdown games by a Browns rookie in the category.
- With another 100-yard performance, would become the first Browns rookie to do so multiple times in a season since Trent Richardson (three) in 2012. The two games would also tie for the second most in the category.

RB Carlos Hyde

- With a rushing touchdown, becomes the first Brown since Peyton Hillis (five) in 2010 to record at least one rushing score in five of the first seven games of a season.
- A rushing touchdown will be his sixth of the season and will be the most by a Brown through the first seven contests of a year since Leroy Kelly rushed for six in 1966.
- Two rushing scores will mark the second time he's done so in 2018 and will make him the first Brown to rush for multiple scores in at least two of the first seven games of a single season since Mike Pruitt (two) in 1984.

RB Duke Johnson Jr.

- With 50-plus receiving yards, will mark the 15th times he's done so in a single game and place him fifth among all active RBs in the category.
- With 95 receiving yards, will have 2,000 for his career.
- With four rushing yards and 95 receiving yards, will have a total of 1,200 and 2,000, respectively, in each category. He will become the first player since Le'Veon Bell (2013-16) to have done so in the first four years of his career. Additionally, he will be just the 15th player ever and first Brown to accomplish the feat. He will also join Bell as the only two active players to reach the milestone.

WR Jarvis Landry

- With at least 10 receptions, will have done so in eight games since 2015 and place him fourth in the category.
- With at least 11 catches, will have done so in five games since 2015 and can tie Julio Jones and Keenan Allen for second in the category.

- With at least a pair of catches, will have done so in 70 consecutive games, the longest streak in the league since 2014.

- With 100 receiving yards, will have done so in three of the first seven games of the season and will make him the first Brown to accomplish the feat since Gary Barnidge in 2015. He will also join Barnidge, Gary Collins (1965) and Braylon Edwards (2007) as the only Browns ever to have done so.

QB Baker Mayfield

- With at least 20 completions for 200-plus yards, will mark the fourth game he's done so and will tie for the second-highest total by a Browns rookie QB (DeShone Kizer, 2017) in a season. The four games will also be the most by a rookie QB in his first five games since 2012, when Andrew Luck had five and Nick Foles and Brandon Weeden each had four.
- By throwing for a touchdown, 20 completions and 200 yards, he will become the first rookie since Luck in 2012 to have done so in four of his first five games and just the third ever (Marc Bulger, 2002).
- Mayfield's four games with a passing touchdown, 20 completions and 200 passing yards will also be consecutive and will tie for the fourth most by a Brown. It will also be the longest streak by a Brown since Josh McCown in 2014 (Weeks 3-6).

TE David Njoku

- A receiving touchdown will be the sixth of his career and the third most by a Browns TE in his first two seasons.
- Could be the first Browns TE since 2015 (Gary Barnidge) to have at least five receptions in four consecutive games.

DEFENSE

DL Myles Garrett

- With 1.5 sacks, will pass Michael Dean Perry (1988-89) for the fourth-most sacks by a Brown in his first two seasons (13.5).

DB Damarious Randall

- Another interception can tie him with Ha Ha Clinton-Dix and Darius Slay for the third-most interceptions by a single player since 2015 with 13.

DB Denzel Ward

- Another interception will be his fourth of the season and will be the first time a Brown has recorded that many through the first seven games of a season since Tashaun Gipson in 2014 (five). It will also be the first time a Browns rookie has done so since Anthony Henry in 2001. Ward will become the first Browns rookie to have at least four total interceptions in a season since Joe Haden in 2010 (six).
- With an interception in Week 7, would be the first rookie since 2013 (Kiko Alonso) to have four picks through a player's first seven career games.

HALEY'S COMET

Todd Haley was named offensive coordinator on Jan. 24, 2018. Haley spent the past 21 years coaching in the NFL, including the past six as the offensive coordinator of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Haley oversaw one of the top offensive units in the league during his time in Pittsburgh, which led the NFL with six offensive players being selected to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

Last year, Pittsburgh posted a 31:56 average time of possession for the league's fourth-best average and a 377.9 yards-per-game average, the NFL's third-best output.

Prior to leading one of the NFL's best offenses over the past six years, Haley had three seasons as the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs. There, he helped the Chiefs win the AFC West Division title in 2010, when Kansas City led the NFL in rushing yards per game (164.3).

EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER

Along with Haley, the Browns offense has added assistant coaches with decades of NFL experience. Quarterbacks coach Ken Zampese has joined Cleveland's staff for his 20th NFL season and like Haley, Zampese is familiar with the AFC North. Zampese has been either offensive coordinator or quarterbacks coach of the Cincinnati Bengals since 2003 and helped shape QBs Carson Palmer and Andy Dalton into two of the highest-rated statistical passers in Bengals history.

Moreover, running backs/associate head coach Freddie Kitchens spent the last 11 seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, having held coaching roles with the RBs, QBs and TEs.

GET REDY

The Browns offense is tied for fourth in the NFL in the red zone with a 94.1 scoring efficiency, 7.1 percent ahead of the league average. Last year, the Browns finished last in the NFL in red zone scoring efficiency with 69.2, 17.3 percent below the league average.

A FORCE UP FRONT

With 91 total tackles this season, the Browns DL rank eighth in the NFL. Additionally, they're tied for eighth in the league with two forced fumbles and are tied for second with six passes batted down.

BIG-TIME SECURITY

The 2018 Browns have a group of three players that each started all 16 games last season. OL Joel Bitonio, JC Tretter and Kevin Zeitler headline a front that helped the Browns offense rank sixth in rushing average (4.46). Since 2016, the Browns are second in the entire league in rushing average in such span (4.67). Bitonio is in his fifth NFL season, having spent his entire tenure in Cleveland.

SPECIAL FORCES UNIT

The Browns have also added experience to the special teams coaching staff, welcoming special teams coordinator Amos Jones. Jones, who most recently was special teams coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals for the past five seasons, is no stranger to the AFC North, having been on the Pittsburgh Steelers' staff from 2007-12. Under Jones' tutelage, two Cardinals special teamers were selected to Pro Bowls and K Chandler Catanzaro tied the NFL record for most consecutive made field goals to begin a career (17) in 2014. In his first season in the desert in 2013, Jones guided P Dave Zastudil to tie the NFL lead with 35 punts inside the 20-yard line. With the Steelers, Jones was a member of a staff that won Super Bowl XLIII, developed WR Antonio Brown into a Pro Bowl kick returner in 2011 and helped Pittsburgh lead the NFL with a franchise record of 1,581 return yards in 2009. Jones has a total of 37 years of coaching experience at the high school, college and professional levels.

AWAKEN THE SLEEPING GIANT

General Manager John Dorsey was named to his current position on Dec. 7, 2017, following Week 13 of the 2017 NFL season. Since then, Dorsey has enhanced the roster through free agency and trades, as well as taking advantage of the Browns' draft selections.

Dorsey also bolstered the roster off the field, headlined by the additions of Assistant General Manager Eliot Wolf and vice president of player personnel Alonzo Highsmith. Both Wolf and Highsmith's connection to Dorsey spans from the trio's time and experience with the Green Bay Packers. Dorsey was first hired by the Packers as a college scout, joining Hall of Famer Ron Wolf's staff, who is also the father of Eliot.

Dorsey served as general manager of the Kansas City Chiefs from 2013-16. During that time, Dorsey's teams earned three postseason berths and a 2016 AFC West title. The Chiefs also won at least nine games a year in that span and registered a 43-21 (.672) overall record, the NFL's fourth-highest winning percentage.

As the Chiefs' GM, Dorsey selected three players who went on to earn first team All-Pro honors and were also selected to multiple Pro Bowls, including TE Travis Kelce (third round, 2013), CB Marcus Peters (first round, 2015) and WR Tyreek Hill (fifth round, 2016). In 2017, he drafted RB Kareem Hunt (third round), who led the NFL in rushing during his rookie season and was selected to the Pro Bowl. The year prior in 2016, LB D.J. Alexander (sixth round, 2015) was also selected to the Pro Bowl.

APRIL SHOWERS BRING PRO BOWL FLOWERS

Dorsey's career success in the spring has been evident in the winter, as he's selected a rookie Pro Bowler in each NFL Draft since 2015.

WR | 80 JARVIS LANDRY

LEADING LANDRY

WR Jarvis Landry finished 2017 with a league-best 112 receptions for 987 yards and a career-best nine touchdowns. Not only did his number of receptions pace the NFL, but it was the best in the league since 2015 and marked a new career high. Since last year, Landry is third among all NFL receivers in receptions (143).

SEEING RED

Landry posted career highs in red-zone receiving and red-zone touchdowns last year with 17 receptions and all nine of his 2017 scores coming inside the 20. His 17 receptions paced all NFL players on the year, while his touchdowns were second to only Seattle's Jimmy Graham (10). Landry continues to impress in the red zone in 2018.

5 AND 50

In his first five seasons, Landry has recorded at least five receptions and 50 receiving yards in 41 games. The tally is fifth best in the league since 2014. His total of 37 games through last season tied with Cincinnati's A.J. Green (2011-14) for the most by any NFL player in the first four years of a career (2014-17).

With 10 games left in 2018, Landry is only six games shy of Antonio Brown's (2011-14) record mark of 47 games.

HIGH-FIVE

The only player in the NFL to have at least five receptions in all 16 games last year, Landry became just the fourth player (fifth time overall) to accomplish the feat. He joined Jimmy Smith (2001), Pierre Garcon (2013) and Antonio Brown (2013-14).

His streak of 20 games (min. five receptions) that dated back to the 2016 season was the longest active and was the second longest in league history.

TURNPIKE COMPANY

Landry and Pittsburgh's Antonio Brown are the only players to record the following receiving milestones since 2014:

- 100 receptions in 2017 (Landry 112, Brown 101).
- 200 total receptions from 2016-17 (Brown 207, Landry 206).
- 300 total receptions from 2015-17 (Brown 343, Landry 316).
- 400 total receptions from 2014-17 (Brown 472, Landry 400).

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Since his sophomore season in 2015, Landry has reeled in double-digit receptions in seven games, tied for the league's fourth-best total in that span. He's also caught 11 passes or more in four games, which is also ranked No. 4 in the NFL in that span.

BANNER YEAR

Johnson Jr. entered the Browns' record books last year by compiling numerous accomplishments.

1. First Brown to record at least 50 receptions in three consecutive seasons since WR Braylon Edwards (2006-08).
2. First Browns player with at least three rushing and three receiving touchdowns in the same year since RB Terry Kirby (1999).
3. First Brown to rush for at least 300 yards and record at least 500 yards in a single season three times.

CATCHING HISTORY

Last year, Johnson Jr. joined Herschel Walker as the only two NFL RBs ever to record 500 receiving yards in each of their first three seasons.

FIRST-TIMER

Johnson Jr.'s 2017 season ended with him making history by becoming the first NFL RB to collect at least 50 receptions in each of his first three seasons.

SOFT HANDS

Johnson Jr.'s 141 receptions are the third-most by an RB over the last three seasons (2016-18), trailing only Pittsburgh's Le'Veon Bell (160) and New England's James White (153). However, Johnson Jr. has posted a 9.7 receiving average, compared to Bell's 7.9 and White's 8.5.

NOT YOUR AVERAGE RUNNING BACK

With 1,741 receiving yards through his first three NFL seasons (2015-17), Johnson Jr. hauled in the most receiving yards by an NFL RB in the category since 1999.

DB | 21 DENZEL WARD

THE WARDEN

Making his NFL debut in Week 1 of 2018, rookie DB Denzel Ward recorded two interceptions. Ward is the fourth-youngest player (21 years, 134 days) in NFL history with a pair of interceptions in a game. He joined Clarence Scott (Sept. 19, 1971) as the only Browns rookies to record two interceptions in their NFL debut. He's the first Browns rookie to record two interceptions in a game since T.J. Ward on Nov. 21, 2010 and the first Brown to record two interceptions in a game since Joe Haden on Sept. 18, 2016. Additionally, he became the first rookie to record multiple interceptions in a season-opening game since Indianapolis' Eugene Daniel on Sept. 2, 1984 against the Jets.

QB | 5 TYROD TAYLOR

T-MOBILE

Two-time Pro Bowl QB Tyrod Taylor has 1,700 rushing yards since 2015, which is second best among all NFL QBs during that span and is the most in the AFC. For his career, Taylor has carried the ball for 1,788 yards and ranks ninth among AFC QBs on the NFL's all-time rushing yards list.

2015-18 NFL RUSHING LEADERS: QB

	Player	Team	Total
1.	Cam Newton	Carolina	1,957
2.	Tyrod Taylor	Cleveland	1,700

TOUCHDOWN TYROD

Taylor is also one of only five active QBs with 50 passing touchdowns and 10 rushing touchdowns since 2015, along with Cam Newton, Kirk Cousins, Marcus Mariota and Dak Prescott. He and Newton are also the only two players in the NFL to register a minimum of 8,000 passing yards and 1,500 rushing yards in that span.

TOUGH TO TAKE FROM TY

Taylor's career interception percentage of 1.5 (min. of 1,200 attempts) is tied for an all-time low in NFL history.

RUNNING RAMPANT

Taylor's 125 rushing yards in 2018 are currently the eighth most in the NFL among all QBs.

T-NOT-SO-SQUARED

Taylor's active streak of 45 consecutive games played without throwing multiple interceptions is an all-time NFL best by a QB.

ELITE COMPANY

Along with Steve Young and Steve McNair, Taylor is just the NFL's third quarterback to record three consecutive seasons (2015-17) of 60-plus completion percentages (min. 200 attempts) and 400-plus scrimmage yards. It's currently the NFL's only active streak.

RIGHT ON THE T-MONEY

Since 2015, Taylor has the fewest interceptions (18) by a QB who's started 30-plus games.

HEAD COACH HUE JACKSON

Hue Jackson was named the 16th full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history by Dee and Jimmy Haslam on January 13, 2016. He has 31 years of coaching experience, including the last 17 in the NFL. He has spent 11 seasons coaching in the AFC North, during which time he helped his team advance to the postseason seven times. Jackson was head coach of the Oakland Raiders in 2011 and guided the team to an 8-8 record. He has also served as offensive coordinator in Washington (2003), Atlanta (2007), Oakland (2010) and Cincinnati (2014-15).

In 2017, the Browns defense made significant improvements in many categories. The Browns, who finished 31st in the NFL in both total defense and rushing defense in 2016, ranked 14th in total defense and seventh in rushing defense in 2017. Cleveland recorded its best finish in rush defense since 1992 and held opponents to a 3.35 rushing average. Joe Schobert became the first Browns linebacker named to the Pro Bowl in 16 years, as he was second in the NFL with 142 tackles. Defensive lineman Myles Garrett, the first overall pick of the 2017 NFL Draft, led the Browns with seven sacks, tied for second among all NFL rookies.

Offensively, running back Duke Johnson Jr. led the team in receptions (74) and receiving yards (693), while totaling seven touchdowns. He averaged 6.7 scrimmage yards per touch, third most in the NFL among running backs in 2017. Rookie tight end David Njoku led the Browns with four receiving touchdowns, the most ever by a Browns rookie tight end. Rookie quarterback DeShone Kizer recorded the second-most passing yards by a Browns rookie and third-most touchdown passes.

In his first year with Cleveland, Jackson helped the Browns finish second in the NFL with a 4.89 rushing average, the team's best mark since 1966. Linebacker Christian Kirksey finished third in the NFL with 148 tackles, while left tackle Joe Thomas was selected to his 10th career Pro Bowl.

Jackson helped develop one of the youngest teams in NFL history. The Browns opened the 2016 season with 17 rookies on their 53-man roster, the most by an NFL team in a season opener since 2002. Second-round pick defensive lineman Emmanuel Ogbah recorded a team-best 5.5 sacks, tied for the fourth-most by a Browns rookie.

Prior to joining the Browns, Jackson spent the previous four seasons (2012-15) with the Cincinnati Bengals. During that time, he helped the Bengals to two division titles and a trip to the postseason all four years. In 2012, he served as secondary/assistant special teams coach before coaching the running backs in 2013. Jackson spent 2014-15 as offensive coordinator.

With Jackson as coordinator in 2015, the Bengals offense finished third in the AFC in yards per play (5.7) and points per game (26.2). He was voted by the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA) as the Co-Assistant Coach of the Year as quarterback Andy Dalton set a career high and franchise record with a 106.3 rating, which led the AFC and was second in the NFL. After losing Dalton to injury in Week 14, Jackson guided quarterback A.J. McCarron to a 2-1 record in the final three games of the season as the Bengals clinched the AFC North title. The Cincinnati running game produced two 700-yard rushers in Jeremy Hill (794) and Giovani Bernard (730) for the first time since 1988. Tight end Tyler Eifert experienced a breakout season after hauling in 13 touchdown receptions, the most by a Bengals tight end in franchise history and the most by a Cincinnati player since 2001. Wide receiver A.J. Green added 10 receiving touchdowns on 86 receptions for 1,297 yards. Eifert, Green and left tackle Andrew Whitworth were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In Jackson's first year as offensive coordinator for Cincinnati in 2014, the run game posted its highest yards per game average (134.1) since 2000. Dalton passed for 3,398 yards and Green totaled 1,041 receiving yards. Hill led all NFL rookies with 1,124 rushing yards, the second-most by a Bengals rookie in team history.

After spending the 2010 season as the Raiders offensive coordinator, Jackson was promoted to head coach in 2011. Oakland finished the year 8-8 and tied for first in the AFC West but missed the postseason via tiebreaker. The 8-8 mark was the best record by any Raiders team since 2002. The Raiders finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (379.5 yards per game) and seventh in rushing offense (131.9).

Before joining the Raiders, Jackson spent two seasons (2008-09) as quarterbacks coach for Baltimore, helping the Ravens advance to the playoffs both years. He was vital in the development of Joe Flacco, who was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 2008 and became the first rookie quarterback to win two playoff games as the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship game.

From 2004-06, Jackson served as the Bengals wide receivers coach, helping develop one of the best wide receiver tandems in NFL history with Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh. During that span, the two combined to average 173.3 catches, 2,363.3 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns per season. In 2005, Johnson led the AFC with 1,432 receiving yards. In 2006, Johnson and Houshmandzadeh became the first Bengals duo to each top 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.

Jackson gained his first fulltime NFL experience with Washington, where he served as the running backs coach from 2001-02, before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2003. Under Jackson's tutelage, running back Stephen Davis led the NFC with 1,432 rushing yards in 2001.

Jackson spent 14 years coaching on the college level, going from a graduate assistant at Pacific all the way to offensive coordinator at Southern California. He spent four seasons (1997-2000) as USC's offensive coordinator, where he also helped to recruit and develop players, including quarterback Carson Palmer, who went on to win the Heisman Trophy and be selected No. 1 overall in the NFL draft.

He was a minority coaching fellowship intern with the Los Angeles Rams in 1990, Arizona Cardinals in 1992 and Washington Redskins in 1995. He also served as the running backs/wide receivers/special teams coach for the London Monarchs of the World League in 1991.

Born Oct. 22, 1965, Jackson was a quarterback at Pacific from 1985-86 and threw for 2,544 yards and 19 touchdowns. The Los Angeles native also lettered in basketball and earned his degree in physical education.

Jackson and his wife, Michelle, have three daughters, Jordyn, Baylee and Haydyn.

THE HUE JACKSON FOUNDATION

Hue Jackson and his wife, Michelle, launched the Hue Jackson Foundation on July 20, 2017. The foundation is committed to empowering children, teen and adult survivors of human trafficking through the funding of organizations that champion for and serve as a voice for those who are exploited. The foundation also focuses its efforts to further awareness, prevention and healing for victims of human trafficking.

On July 17, 2018, the Hue Jackson Foundation opened the Hue Jackson Foundation Survivors of Human Trafficking Residence. This residence is approximately 4,500 sq. ft. and provides a safe environment for up to 12 recovered adult survivors of human trafficking. It offers collaborative and holistic services, and provides shared office space for law enforcement, healthcare, and social services providers, to help assist these survivors on their road to recovery.

The foundation's website is www.huejackson.org.

WEEK 1, GAME 1

STEELERS 21
BROWNS 21Sept. 9, 2018 (OT)
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns kicked off the 2018 season with a tie against the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-21. In the first tie for the Browns since 1989, the team's defense forced six turnovers for the first time since 2010. Rookie DB Denzel Ward became the first Browns DB to secure two interceptions in his NFL debut since 1971 (Clarence Scott). Browns DL Myles Garrett forced a career-best two fumbles, while matching career-best marks in tackles (six) and sacks (two). Following a scoreless first quarter, Steelers RB James Conner culminated a 10-play, 88-yard scoring drive ending in a four-yard touchdown run. After the 7-0 halftime break, Browns QB Tyrod Taylor led Cleveland on an opening-half possession that he ended with a 20-yard touchdown run by him, tying the game at 7-7. Pittsburgh answered as QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 22-yard touchdown pass on the ensuing possession. After forcing the Browns to punt, Conner found the end zone again for his second score of the game, giving the Steelers their largest lead of the game, 21-7. After recovering the team's second fumble of the game, Browns RB Carlos Hyde punched in a one-yard score. Before the final whistle of regulation, Taylor found WR Josh Gordon for a 17-yard strike with 1:58 remaining in regulation to tie the game, 21-21. In the OT period, each team exchanged possessions with punts, before the Steelers put together an eight-play, 31-yard drive to set up a K Chris Boswell game-winning field goal attempt, but Boswell's try missed to the left. Following a Cleveland punt, Roethlisberger was strip-sacked by LB Genard Avery on the following possession. The ensuing Browns K Zane Gonzalez game-winning field goal attempt was blocked by Steelers LB TJ Watt, forcing the teams to tie, 21-21.

BROWNS 18
SAINTS 21Sept. 16, 2018
Mercedes-Benz Superdome, New Orleans, La.

In the first road game of 2018, the Cleveland Browns fell to the New Orleans Saints, 21-18. Despite leading 12-3 going into the final quarter, the Saints rallied to score 18 points in the final 8:41 of the contest, securing the victory. K Zane Gonzalez opened the scoring for the Browns with his first of two 39-yard, first-half field goals. However, Saints K Wil Lutz provided an equalizing field goal on the ensuing possession. At the half, the Browns went into the locker room with a 6-3 lead. New Orleans punted on the opening possession of the second half, as RB Carlos Hyde capped a 12-play, 79-yard drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. On the Saints' first drive of the fourth quarter, WR Michael Thomas caught his first of two fourth quarter touchdowns from QB Drew Brees. Following a Browns QB Tyrod Taylor interception, New Orleans took their first lead of the game after another with Thomas' second score. Saints RB Alvin Kamara ran in the ensuing two-point conversion attempt. Following the two-minute warning, Taylor found WR Antonio Callaway for a 47-yard touchdown reception to tie the game at 18, as Gonzalez missed the extra point attempt. With 1:16 remaining, Brees orchestrated a six-play, 49-yard drive to set up th go-ahead field goal, which Lutz made from 44 yards out with 0:21 remaining. Taylor found Browns WR Jarvis Landry for a 25-yard reception, followed by a 16-yard catch from Callaway to set-up the game-tying field goal for Cleveland, but Gonzalez missed the attempt wide right.

WEEK 3, GAME 3

JETS 18
BROWNS 21Sept. 20, 2018
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the New York Jets on Thursday Night Football, 21-17, securing the team's first win since Week 16 of the 2016 season. Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield entered the game prior to the end of the first half due to an injury suffered by QB Tyrod Taylor, propelling Cleveland to 14 unanswered points and a fourth-quarter touchdown en route to a victory. Mayfield finished the game with 17 completions on 23 attempts for 201 yards, scoring on the receiving end of a two-point conversion attempt thrown by WR Jarvis Landry. Landry added eight receptions for 103 yards, his best single-game showing as a Brown. Following a scoreless first quarter, Jets RB Isaiah Crowell opened the scoring for New York, rushing in from seven yards out four seconds into the second quarter. After a Cleveland punt on the ensuing possession, Crowell scored for the second time of the evening from two yards out, capping a 10-play, 63-yard touchdown drive. Down 14-0, and following the Taylor injury, Mayfield entered the game and led the Browns on a six-play, 39-yard drive for a 45-yard field goal from newly-acquired K Greg Joseph. The Jets took their 14-3 lead into the intermission. Following a strip forced fumble by Browns DB Denzel Ward of Jets WR Robby Anderson, Joseph connected on his second field goal, this time from 27 yards out to draw the Browns within one score. Before the final whistle of the third quarter, Browns RB Carlos Hyde capped a 69-yard scoring drive with a goal-line plunge from one yard out. The ensuing two-point conversion attempt was successful, as Landry's end around pass found Mayfield in the corner of the end zone. Jets K Jason Myers ended Cleveland's 14-point burst with a field goal from 28 yards out, giving Cleveland the ball back with 8:55 remaining in regulation. On the next drive, Hyde scored his second one-yard touchdown rush of the game to end a 15-play drive, giving the Browns their first lead of the contest. On a third-down attempt, LB Joe Schobert intercepted Jets QB Sam Darnold's pass. Following a Browns punt, Darnold threw his second pick of the game, as DB Terrance Mitchell picked off his sixth career interception to secure the win for Cleveland.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

BROWNS 42
RAIDERS 45Sept. 30, 2018 (OT)
Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, Calif.

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Oakland Raiders, 45-42, in the team's second overtime game of the season. Though leading by 14 points midway through the fourth quarter, the Browns allowed the Raiders to score 21 fourth-quarter points and the eventual game-winning field goal in the overtime period. Rookie QB Baker Mayfield, in his first career NFL start, threw for 295 yards and two touchdowns on 21 completions. Fellow rookie, RB Nick Chubb, rushed for 105 yards and a pair of scores on just three carries, a franchise rookie record. DBs E.J. Gaines and Damarious Randall each had an interception, giving the Browns 13 takeaways through the first four games of the season for the first time since 1989. RB Carlos Hyde also scored on the ground for a league-best fifth time this season. Following an exchange of punts to begin the game, Mayfield's second drive ended in an interception returned for a touchdown by Oakland DB Gareon Conley. Down, 7-0, the Browns rallied by scoring 17 unanswered points before the end of the first half. A field goal from K Greg Joseph with two minutes remaining in the first quarter got Cleveland on the board, along with a 63-yard score by Chubb. Following an Oakland missed field goal, Mayfield found TE Darren Fells for a 49-yard passing score, capping a four-play, 70-yard drive. Mayfield's connection with Fells was his first career touchdown pass. The Browns' ensuing two-point conversion attempt was successful, as RB Duke Johnson Jr. ran around the left end to put the Browns ahead by 10 points. However, the Raiders answered with a receiving score from WR Amari Cooper, leading to the halftime score of 17-14 in favor of Cleveland. The Browns scored on each of their first two drives in the second half, with a Joseph field goal and a WR Jarvis Landry touchdown reception, the first in his Browns career. After two fumbles and three punts on five possessions, the Raiders scored 13 unanswered points to take a 34-28 lead with less than 11 minutes remaining in regulation. Returning the favor, Hyde capped a seven-play, 77-yard drive with a one-yard rushing score after WR Antonio Callaway's 59-yard reception to set it up. Later, Chubb scored again with a 41-yard touchdown before Oakland put together a six-play, 53-yard scoring drive with a touchdown pass to TE Jared Cook from QB Derek Carr. The Raiders converted the two-point conversion attempt with a WR Jordy Nelson catch, taking the game into overtime, 42-42. Raiders K Matt McCrane missed his first field goal attempt on the team's first possession, but after forcing a Browns punt on the following drive, he redeemed himself and connected on a 29-yard attempt to secure Oakland's first win of the season.

WEEK 5, GAME 5

RAVENS 18
BROWNS 21

Oct. 7, 2018

FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the Baltimore Ravens in overtime, 12-9, the franchise's first win on a Sunday since 2015. With the win, Cleveland advanced to 2-2-1 on the season, the team's best start to a season since 2014 (3-2). Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield threw for 342 yards on 25 completions and a touchdown. The 342 yards in a single game are the second most by a Browns rookie in franchise history. After a Mayfield pick on Cleveland's first offensive drive, Baltimore capped a four-play drive with a 44-yard field goal by K Justin Tucker to give the Ravens the early 3-0 lead. The three-point lead was Baltimore's only lead of the contest. With 40 seconds before the halftime whistle, Mayfield found WR Rashard Higgins for Higgins' first score of the 2018 season. Each team notched on a field goal in the third quarter, with Browns K Greg Joseph and Tucker connecting from 35 yards and 25 yards out, respectively. Later, Tucker would register his third field goal of the contest, this time from 32-yarder, to draw the score at 9-9. In the Browns' third overtime game of the year, each team exchanged punts after the Browns took the ball to start the overtime period. Getting the ball at the Cleveland 16 yard line, Mayfield orchestrated a seven-play, 65-yard drive to set up Joseph for a 37-yard game winner.

CHARGERS 38
BROWNS 14

Oct. 14, 2018

FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Los Angeles Chargers, 38-14, for the second time in as many seasons, at FirstEnergy Stadium. Led by RB Melvin Gordon III's three rushing touchdowns and WR Tyrell Williams' two receiving touchdowns, the Chargers scored five total times and collected 449 yards of total offense. Browns QB Baker Mayfield accounted for 238 yards on 22 completions, adding a fourth-quarter touchdown to TE David Njoku. K Greg Joseph connected on two second-quarter field goals and Mayfield found WR Antonio Callaway on a successful two-point conversion attempt to account for Cleveland's 14 points. The Browns have now successfully converted four two-point conversion attempts on the season, the first time that a Browns team has had four in a single season since 1994. After Gordon III's first rushing touchdown in the first quarter, Joseph connected on a 33-yard field goal less than three minutes into the second frame to give the Browns their first points. Los Angeles tallied on Williams' two receiving touchdowns, before Joseph hit his second field goal of the game, this time from 28 yards out. At the half, the score was 21-6, in favor of the Chargers. Out of the intermission, Gordon III had his final two out of three total rushing touchdowns, giving the Bolts their largest lead of the game (29 points) through three quarters of play. In the fourth quarter, Mayfield orchestrated a seven-play, 42-yard drive that was capped by Njoku's touchdown. K Michael Badgley made a 44-yard field goal with four minutes remaining to finalize the score, 38-14.
