NOTABLE STORYLINES

• The Browns hit the turnpike this week, visiting their neighbors to the east and division rival, the Pittsburgh Steelers. The two teams opened the 2018 regular season against each other in Cleveland with 21-21 overtime tie. The game marked the first Kickoff Weekend game to end in a tie since Sept. 19, 1971, when the Miami Dolphins and Denver Broncos played to a 10-10 draw. It was also the Browns' second tie in the overtime era (since 1974), with the team's only other overtime tie occurring on Nov. 19, 1989 against the Kansas City Chiefs, 10-10. The AFC North matchup kicks off at 1 p.m. ET on CBS.

• Last week, the Browns fell to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in a back-and-forth overtime loss, 26-23. The Buccaneers sealed the victory when K Chandler Catanzaro put a 59-yard field goal through the uprights with 1:50 to play in the extra period. The loss to the Buccaneers was the Browns' fourth overtime game of the season, tying a franchise record set in 1989. The Browns are the first team since the 2011 Arizona Cardinals to play in four overtime games in a season.

• The Browns defense continued its trend of changing possession, posting four takeaways (two interceptions and two fumble recoveries) to increase its total to 20 on the year. The total is its most through seven weeks since 1989 (20). The unit also has 11 interceptions, four more than it had in all of last season, and has improved its -28 2017 turnover ratio to +10.

• DL Myles Garrett recorded two sacks and one forced fumble against the Buccaneers and leads the team with seven sacks this season. Garrett's seven sacks are the most by a Brown through the first seven weeks of a season and his 14 career sacks are the fourth-most sacks by a Brown in their first two seasons.

• WR Jarvis Landry posted a season- and game-high 10 receptions for 97 yards and a touchdown. With at least a pair of catches in each of his past 70 games, Landry has the second-longest active streak in the NFL. His 441 career receptions are the most all-time by an NFL player through their first five seasons. He leads the team in receptions (41) and receiving yards (489) this year, with his receptions total being the fourth most by a Brown through the first seven weeks of a season.

• Rookie QB Baker Mayfield passed for 215 yards, two scores and no interceptions for a career-high 104.4 rating. His 1,090 passing yards are the most by a Brown in their first four career starts.

THE LAST TIME IN THE REGULAR SEASON

STEELERS 21
BROWNS 21

Sept. 9, 2018 (OT)
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns kicked off the 2018 season with a tie against the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-21. In the first tie for the Browns since 1989, the team's defense forced six turnovers for the first time since 2010. Rookie DB Denzel Ward became the first Browns DB to secure two interceptions in his NFL debut since 1971 (Clarence Scott). Browns DL Myles Garrett forced a career-best two fumbles, while matching career-best marks in tackles (six) and sacks (two). Following a scoreless first quarter, Steelers RB James Conner culminated a 10-play, 88-yard scoring drive ending in a four-yard touchdown run. After the 7-0 halftime break, Browns QB Tyrod Taylor led Cleveland on an opening-half possession that he ended with a 20-yard touchdown run by him, tying the game at 7-7. Pittsburgh answered as QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 22-yard touchdown pass on the ensuing possession. After forcing the Browns to punt, Conner found the end zone again for his second score of the game, giving the Steelers their largest lead of the game, 21-7. After recovering the team's second fumble of the game, Browns RB Carlos Hyde punched in a one-yard score. Before the final whistle of regulation, Taylor found WR Josh Gordon for a 17-yard strike with 1:58 remaining in regulation to tie the game, 21-21. In the OT period, each team exchanged possessions with punts, before the Steelers put together an eight-play, 31-yard drive to set up a K Chris Boswell game-winning field goal attempt, but Boswell's try missed to the left. Following a Cleveland punt, Roethlisberger was strip-sacked by LB Genard Avery on the following possession. The ensuing Browns K Zane Gonzalez game-winning field goal attempt was blocked by Steelers LB TJ Watt, forcing the teams to tie, 21-21.

THE LAST TIME AT PITTSBURGH

BROWNS 24
STEELERS 28

Dec. 31, 2017
Heinz Field, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Browns dropped their 2017 season finale to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 28-24. On the game's opening possession, Steelers QB Landry Jones led an eight-play, 72-yard drive that ended in a 29-yard touchdown run by WR Darrius Heyward-Bey for a Steelers' 7-0 advantage. In the second quarter, Jones connected with WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for a 20-yard touchdown strike to extend Pittsburgh's lead, 14-0. QB DeShone Kizer responded by orchestrating a five-play, 75-yard drive capped by a two-yard touchdown run from RB Duke Johnson Jr. to cut the lead, 14-7. Later in the first half, Steelers RB Stevan Ridley found the end zone from two yards out to put the Steelers up, 21-7. However, a 56-yard touchdown strike from Kizer to WR Rashard Higgins would shrink Pittsburgh's halftime lead to 21-14. On the first drive of the second half, Kizer once again connected with Higgins for a five-yard touchdown, evening the score at 21-21. On the ensuing kickoff, Smith-Schuster broke free for a 96-yard return for a touchdown, putting the Steelers back in front, 28-21. K Zane Gonzalez would later connect from 51 yards out to bring the Browns within four points, but a late stand by Pittsburgh's defense would seal the 28-24 victory.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

TEAM

• A win would improve the Browns to 3-4-1 (.438) on the year and would be the team's best start to a season since 2014, when they started the year 5-3 (.625).

OFFENSE

• A rushing score by any Brown will give the team 10 on the year and will be the most by a Browns team through the first eight games of a season since 1974 (10).

• With another successful two-point conversion, the 2018 Browns would set the franchise record for most in a single season (five).

RB Nick Chubb

• With another multi-touchdown performance, would become the first Browns rookie since Isaiah Crowell in 2014 to do so twice in a season. The total would tie for the second-most multi-touchdown games by a Browns rookie in the category.

• With another 100-yard performance, would become the first Browns rookie to do so multiple times in a season since Trent Richardson (three) in 2012. The two games would also tie for the second most in the category.

• A rushing touchdown would be his fourth of the season and would tie Crowell (2014) and Travis Prentice (2000) for the second-best total by a Browns rookie RB in the first eight games of a season since 1999.

• Is three yards short of Crowell (256) for the fourth-most rushing yards by a Browns rookie RB through the first half of a season since 1999. He's also 49 yards shy of Terrance West's third-best total (302).

• With at least 50 rushing yards and a touchdown, would be the first Browns rookie to reach the marks in back-to-back games since Richardson in 2012.

RB Duke Johnson Jr.

• With 50-plus receiving yards, will mark the 15th times he's done so in a single game and place him fifth among all active RBs in the category.

• With 72 receiving yards, will have 2,000 for his career.

• With 72 receiving yards, will have at least 1,200 rushing yards and 2,000 receiving yards, becoming the first player since Le'Veon Bell (2013-16) to have done so in the first four years of his career. Additionally, he will be just the 15th player ever and first Brown to accomplish the feat. He'll also join Bell as the only two active players to reach the milestone.

WR Jarvis Landry

• With at least 10 receptions, will have done so in nine games since 2015 and will tie him with Larry Fitzgerald and Julio Jones for second in the category since 2015.

• With at least 11 catches, will have done so in five games since 2015 and can tie Jones and Keenan Allen for second in the category.

• With at least a pair of catches, will have done so in 71 consecutive games, the longest streak in the league since 2014 and the second-longest active mark.

• With 100 receiving yards, will have done so in three of the first eight games of the season and will make him the first Brown to accomplish the feat since Gary Barnidge in 2015. The three game swill also tie for the second-best total by a Brown in the category.

• With 10 catches, will tie Kellen Winslow (51) 2006 for the most receptions by a Brown in the first half of a season.

QB Baker Mayfield

• With at least 20 completions for 200-plus yards, will mark the fifth game he's done so and will be the second-highest total by a Browns rookie QB in a season. The five games will also tie Andrew Luck (2012) and Marc Bulger (2002) for the most by a rookie QB in his first six games.

• By throwing for a touchdown, 20 completions and 200 yards, he will join Bulger as the second rookie ever to have done so in five of his first six career games.

• Mayfield's five games with a passing touchdown, 20 completions and 200 passing yards will also be consecutive and will tie for the third most by a Brown. It will also be the longest streak by a Brown since Tim Couch (5) from Dec. 8, 2002-Oct. 5, 2003.

• By throwing multiple touchdowns, will have done so in three games this season, tying DeShone Kizer (2017) for the third most by a Browns rookie in a season.

TE David Njoku

• A receiving touchdown will be the seventh of his career and will tie Oscar Roan (1975-76) for the second most by a Browns TE in his first two career seasons.

• Could be the first Browns TE since 2015 (Gary Barnidge) to have at least four receptions in four consecutive games.

• With a receiving touchdown, would be the first Brown to register at least one receiving score in three consecutive games since Travis Benjamin in 2015.

• With 50 receiving yards and four catches, will have done so in five consecutive games and will be the first Brown to accomplish the feat since Winslow (five) from Dec. 31, 2006-Sept. 30, 2007.

DEFENSE

DL Myles Garrett

• With at least a half-sack, will have the most sacks of any Browns defender through the first half of a single season.

• A half-sack will also give him 7.5 on the year, marking a new career high.

• With at least one sack, will have 15 in his first 19 career games, tying Terrell Suggs (2003-04) for third in the category.

• One and a half sacks will tie him with Jabaal Sheard (15.5, 2011-12) for third most by a Brown in his first two seasons.

• With multiple sacks, will have notched at least two in four games in the first half of the season, tying him for the best total in league history. It will also be the first instance since Justin Houston in 2014. His total of three is already the most ever in franchise history.

• Four games with multiple sacks will also tie him with Jamir Miller (2001) for the most by a Brown in a single season.

• With at least two sacks, will have done so in five career games to tie for the ninth-best mark by a player in his first two seasons and will be the most since Joey Bosa (five) in 2016-17.

• Could become the first Brown to have multiple sacks in consecutive games since Miller (two) 2001.

LB Christian Kirksey

• Could become the first Brown since Tashaun Gipson (2014) to record an interception in three consecutive games. He would also be the first Browns LB to accomplish the feat since John Garlington (three) in 1969.

DB Damarious Randall

• Another interception can tie him with Ha Ha Clinton-Dix and Darius Slay for the third-most interceptions by a single player since 2015 with 13.

DB Denzel Ward

• Another interception will be his fourth of the season and will be the first time a Brown has recorded that many through the first half of a season since Tashaun Gipson in 2014 (six). It will also be the first time a Browns rookie has done so since Anthony Henry in 2001. Ward will become the first Browns rookie to have at least four total interceptions in a season since Joe Haden in 2010 (six).

HALEY'S COMET

Todd Haley was named offensive coordinator on Jan. 24, 2018. Haley spent the past 21 years coaching in the NFL, including the past six as the offensive coordinator of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Haley oversaw one of the top offensive units in the league during his time in Pittsburgh, which led the NFL with six offensive players being selected to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

Last year, Pittsburgh posted a 31:56 average time of possession for the league's fourth-best average and a 377.9 yards-per-game average, the NFL's third-best output.

Prior to leading one of the NFL's best offenses over the past six years, Haley had three seasons as the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs. There, he helped the Chiefs win the AFC West Division title in 2010, when Kansas City led the NFL in rushing yards per game (164.3).

EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER

Along with Haley, the Browns offense has added assistant coaches with decades of NFL experience. Quarterbacks coach Ken Zampese has joined Cleveland's staff for his 20th NFL season and like Haley, Zampese is familiar with the AFC North. Zampese has been either offensive coordinator or quarterbacks coach of the Cincinnati Bengals since 2003 and helped shape QBs Carson Palmer and Andy Dalton into two of the highest-rated statistical passers in Bengals history.

Moreover, running backs/associate head coach Freddie Kitchens spent the last 11 seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, having held coaching roles with the RBs, QBs and TEs.

GET REDY

The Browns offense has posted 109 red-zone points through the first seven games of 2018, the franchise's second-best total since 1991.

ORANGE RUSH

In franchise history, the Browns have already rushed for some of the club's best numbers to date in the first half of a season, despite only playing seven games so far. The team's nine rushing scores have already tied for the franchise standard in the category, while its 945 rushing yards are fourth and its 4.70 rushing average is second. Additionally, the unit is tied for the fourth-most rushing first downs (46) and has the second-best total (30) of rushing plays for 10-plus yards.

SETTLING THE SCORE

The Browns' 21.6 points-per-game average and 2.43 touchdowns-per-game average are both the highest marks by a Browns team since 2007, when the team had a 25.1 points-per-game average and was averaging 2.88 touchdowns per game.

BIG-TIME SECURITY

The 2018 Browns have a group of three players that each started all 16 games last season. OL Joel Bitonio, JC Tretter and Kevin Zeitler headline a front that helped the Browns offense rank sixth in rushing average (4.46). Since 2016, the Browns are second in the entire league in rushing average in such span (4.67). Bitonio is in his fifth NFL season, having spent his entire tenure in Cleveland.

GIVE AND TAKE

After only forcing 13 turnovers in 2017, the Browns defense has already surpassed last season with a league-leading 20 takeaways this year (11 interceptions, nine fumble recoveries), four of which came in last week's game at Tampa Bay. It's the unit's most takeaways through the first seven weeks of a season since 1989 (20). The unit currently ties for the most interceptions and has the most fumble recoveries in the NFL.

With the offense giving away seven interceptions and three fumbles this season, the Browns' turnover differential (+10) is the NFL's top tally. Last season, the Browns ranked last in the league with a -28 turnover differential.

SPECIAL FORCES UNIT

The Browns have also added experience to the special teams coaching staff, welcoming special teams coordinator Amos Jones. Jones, who most recently was special teams coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals for the past five seasons, is no stranger to the AFC North, having been on the Pittsburgh Steelers' staff from 2007-12. Under Jones' tutelage, two Cardinals special teamers were selected to Pro Bowls and K Chandler Catanzaro tied the NFL record for most consecutive made field goals to begin a career (17) in 2014. In his first season in the desert in 2013, Jones guided P Dave Zastudil to tie the NFL lead with 35 punts inside the 20-yard line. With the Steelers, Jones was a member of a staff that won Super Bowl XLIII, developed WR Antonio Brown into a Pro Bowl kick returner in 2011 and helped Pittsburgh lead the NFL with a franchise record of 1,581 return yards in 2009. Jones has a total of 37 years of coaching experience at the high school, college and professional levels.

RETURN POLICY

The Browns returners have combined for the league's seventh-most punt return yards (165), seventh-most kickoff return yards (397) and fourth-most total kick return yards (652) through the first seven games of 2018. On the opposite end, the Browns are ranked 10th in the league with 185 kickoff return yards against.

BONUS BALL

The Browns tied a franchise record by playing in their fourth overtime game in Week 7 this year. The team also played in four in 1989. The Browns are the first NFL team since Arizona in 2011 to play four overtime games in a season.

AWAKEN THE SLEEPING GIANT

General Manager John Dorsey was named to his current position on Dec. 7, 2017, following Week 13 of the 2017 NFL season. Since then, Dorsey has enhanced the roster through free agency and trades, as well as taking advantage of the Browns' draft selections.

Dorsey also bolstered the roster off the field, headlined by the additions of Assistant General Manager Eliot Wolf and vice president of player personnel Alonzo Highsmith. Both Wolf and Highsmith's connection to Dorsey spans from the trio's time and experience with the Green Bay Packers. Dorsey was first hired by the Packers as a college scout, joining Hall of Famer Ron Wolf's staff, who is also the father of Eliot.

Dorsey served as general manager of the Kansas City Chiefs from 2013-16. During that time, Dorsey's teams earned three postseason berths and a 2016 AFC West title. The Chiefs also won at least nine games a year in that span and registered a 43-21 (.672) overall record, the NFL's fourth-highest winning percentage.

As the Chiefs' GM, Dorsey selected three players who went on to earn first team All-Pro honors and were also selected to multiple Pro Bowls, including TE Travis Kelce (third round, 2013), CB Marcus Peters (first round, 2015) and WR Tyreek Hill (fifth round, 2016). In 2017, he drafted RB Kareem Hunt (third round), who led the NFL in rushing during his rookie season and was selected to the Pro Bowl. The year prior in 2016, LB D.J. Alexander (sixth round, 2015) was also selected to the Pro Bowl.

WR | 80 JARVIS LANDRY*LEADING LANDRY

WR Jarvis Landry finished 2017 with a league-best 112 receptions for 987 yards and a career-best nine touchdowns. Not only did his number of receptions pace the NFL, but it was the best in the league since 2015 and marked a new career high. Since last year, Landry is third among all NFL receivers in receptions (153).

TURNPIKE COMPANY

Landry and Pittsburgh's Antonio Brown are the only players to record the following receiving milestones since 2014:

- 100 receptions in 2017 (Landry 112, Brown 101).
- 200 total receptions from 2016-17 (Brown 207, Landry 206).
- 300 total receptions from 2015-17 (Brown 343, Landry 316).
- 400 total receptions from 2014-17 (Brown 472, Landry 400).

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Since his sophomore season in 2015, Landry has reeled in double-digit receptions in eight games, the league's fourth-best total in that span. He's also caught 11 passes or more in four games, which is also ranked No. 4 in the NFL in that span.

MADE WITH 67.6% REAL JUICE

Landry's overall reception percentage of 69.6 was the fourth best among receivers who were targeted 100-plus times last season. It marked the second consecutive year Landry finished among the league's leaders, as he was also fourth in 2016 (71.8). It was also the third time in four years he received such ranking, after pacing the NFL as a rookie in 2014 (75.0).

His career reception percentage (67.6) is 10th among the league's receivers since 2014 who have been targeted over 300 times.

BANNER YEAR

Johnson Jr. entered the Browns' record books last year by compiling numerous accomplishments.

1. First Brown to record at least 50 receptions in three consecutive seasons since WR Braylon Edwards (2006-08).

2. First Browns player with at least three rushing and three receiving touchdowns in the same year since RB Terry Kirby (1999).

3. First Brown to rush for at least 300 yards and record at least 500 yards in a single season three times.

CATCHING HISTORY

Last year, Johnson Jr. joined Herschel Walker as the only two NFL RBs ever to record 500 receiving yards in each of their first three seasons.

FIRST-TIMER

Johnson Jr.'s 2017 season ended with him making history by becoming the first NFL RB to collect at least 50 receptions in each of his first three seasons.

SOFT HANDS

Johnson Jr.'s 145 receptions are the third-most by an RB over the last three seasons (2016-18), trailing only Pittsburgh's Le'Veon Bell (160) and New England's James White (161). However, Johnson Jr. has posted a 9.6 receiving average, compared to Bell's 7.9 and White's 8.4.

NOT YOUR AVERAGE RUNNING BACK

With 1,741 receiving yards through his first three NFL seasons (2015-17), Johnson Jr. hauled in the most receiving yards by an NFL RB in the category since 1999.

PASS BREAKERS

Along with Arizona's Tre Boston, the N.Y. Jets' Morris Claiborne, Houston's Kareem Jackson, L.A. Rams' John Johnson III, N.Y. Giants' Janoris Jenkins and New England's Jonathan Jones, Randall and teammate DB Denzel Ward are currently the only NFL players who have accrued at least six pass breakups and a pair of picks. Additionally,

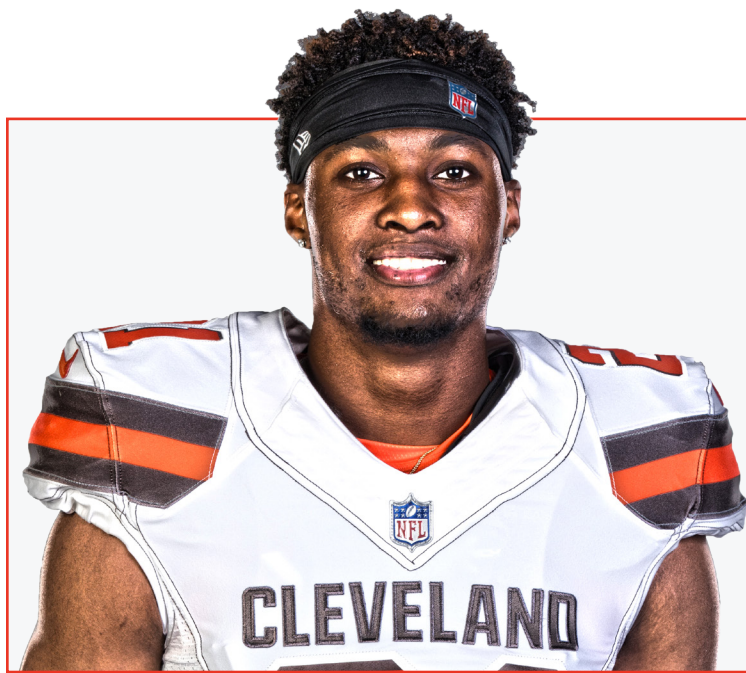

Randall and Ward are just the 13th and 14th Browns to have done so through the first seven weeks of a season and are the first pair to do so in the same season.

PICK OF THE LITTER

Along with Ward and Kirksey, the Browns have the second-most AFC players with multiple interceptions in 2018, behind the Miami Dolphins (4). Additionally, The Browns have a combination of seven defenders (Randall, Ward, Kirksey, Schobert, LB Jamie Collins Sr., DB E.J. Gaines and DB Terrance Mitchell) who have picked off at least one pass this season, tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL.

DB | 21 DENZEL WARD

THE WARDEN

Making his NFL debut in Week 1 of 2018, rookie DB Denzel Ward recorded two interceptions. Ward is the fourth-youngest player (21 years, 134 days) in NFL history with a pair of interceptions in a game. He joined Clarence Scott (Sept. 19, 1971) as the only Browns rookies to record two interceptions in their NFL debut. He's the first Browns rookie to record two interceptions in a game since T.J. Ward on Nov. 21, 2010 and the first Brown to record two interceptions in a game since Joe Haden on Sept. 18, 2016. Additionally, he became the first rookie to record multiple interceptions in a season-opening game since Indianapolis' Eugene Daniel on Sept. 2, 1984 against the Jets.

Ward's three interceptions on the year tie him for the most picks in the league, while his eight pass breakups rank tied for fifth.

Ward is just the sixth player all time and first since 2015 to record multiple interceptions (three) and pass breakups (eight), along with at least one forced fumble and fumble recovery through his first seven career games.

Ward is also just the 39th player since forced fumbles became an official statistic in 1994 to record such stats in his first NFL season and is only the third to do so in eight games or less.

RB | 24 NICK CHUBB

IN THE NICK OF TIME

Rookie RB Nick Chubb ran with purpose in Week 4, rushing for 105 yards on three carries, including a 63-yard touchdown. The score was the longest run by a Browns rookie since Lee Suggs (78t) in Week 17 of 2003 and is the third-longest run in the NFL this season. Chubb is the first Browns rookie RB to eclipse the 100-yard rushing mark since Terrence West in Week 1 of 2014.

BREAKING THE PLANE

In franchise history, Chubb's three rushing scores are tied for the ninth most by a Brown through his first seven career games.

HISTORY MAKER

According to Elias Sports, out of the 1,200-plus times an NFL player has rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns in a game, Chubb's Week 4 performance made him the only one to do it in three carries or less.

TURNING AN INCH INTO A MILE

Needing just three carries to rush for over 100 yards, Chubb is the first player to do so since 2007 (Cordarrelle Patterson) and is just the fourth to ever accomplish the feat.

AGE IS JUST A NUMBER

At 22 years and 277 days old in Week 4, Chubb became the youngest Brown since Jim Brown in 1958 (22 years, 272 days) to rush for over a 100 yards and score multiple touchdowns in a single game. He's also the youngest NFL player since Dallas' Ezekiel Elliott (22 years, 99 days) in 2017 to accomplish the feat and is the youngest rookie since Jacksonville's Leonard Fournette (22 years, 263 days) did so last year.

ABOVE-AVERAGE BACK

Chubb's 7.44 rushing average is not only an NFL best among all RBs (minimum of 15 attempts), but his three rushing touchdowns are tied for fourth among all rookie backs this season.

HEAD COACH HUE JACKSON

Hue Jackson was named the 16th full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history by Dee and Jimmy Haslam on January 13, 2016. He has 31 years of coaching experience, including the last 17 in the NFL. He has spent 11 seasons coaching in the AFC North, during which time he helped his team advance to the postseason seven times. Jackson was head coach of the Oakland Raiders in 2011 and guided the team to an 8-8 record. He has also served as offensive coordinator in Washington (2003), Atlanta (2007), Oakland (2010) and Cincinnati (2014-15).

In 2017, the Browns defense made significant improvements in many categories. The Browns, who finished 31st in the NFL in both total defense and rushing defense in 2016, ranked 14th in total defense and seventh in rushing defense in 2017. Cleveland recorded its best finish in rush defense since 1992 and held opponents to a 3.35 rushing average. Joe Schobert became the first Browns linebacker named to the Pro Bowl in 16 years, as he was second in the NFL with 142 tackles. Defensive lineman Myles Garrett, the first overall pick of the 2017 NFL Draft, led the Browns with seven sacks, tied for second among all NFL rookies.

Offensively, running back Duke Johnson Jr. led the team in receptions (74) and receiving yards (693), while totaling seven touchdowns. He averaged 6.7 scrimmage yards per touch, third most in the NFL among running backs in 2017. Rookie tight end David Njoku led the Browns with four receiving touchdowns, the most ever by a Browns rookie tight end. Rookie quarterback DeShone Kizer recorded the second-most passing yards by a Browns rookie and third-most touchdown passes.

In his first year with Cleveland, Jackson helped the Browns finish second in the NFL with a 4.89 rushing average, the team's best mark since 1966. Linebacker Christian Kirksey finished third in the NFL with 148 tackles, while left tackle Joe Thomas was selected to his 10th career Pro Bowl.

Jackson helped develop one of the youngest teams in NFL history. The Browns opened the 2016 season with 17 rookies on their 53-man roster, the most by an NFL team in a season opener since 2002. Second-round pick defensive lineman Emmanuel Ogbah recorded a team-best 5.5 sacks, tied for the fourth-most by a Browns rookie.

Prior to joining the Browns, Jackson spent the previous four seasons (2012-15) with the Cincinnati Bengals. During that time, he helped the Bengals to two division titles and a trip to the postseason all four years. In 2012, he served as secondary/assistant special teams coach before coaching the running backs in 2013. Jackson spent 2014-15 as offensive coordinator.

With Jackson as coordinator in 2015, the Bengals offense finished third in the AFC in yards per play (5.7) and points per game (26.2). He was voted by the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA) as the Co-Assistant Coach of the Year as quarterback Andy Dalton set a career high and franchise record with a 106.3 rating, which led the AFC and was second in the NFL. After losing Dalton to injury in Week 14, Jackson guided quarterback A.J. McCarron to a 2-1 record in the final three games of the season as the Bengals clinched the AFC North title. The Cincinnati running game produced two 700-yard rushers in Jeremy Hill (794) and Giovani Bernard (730) for the first time since 1988. Tight end Tyler Eifert experienced a breakout season after hauling in 13 touchdown receptions, the most by a Bengals tight end in franchise history and the most by a Cincinnati player since 2001. Wide receiver A.J. Green added 10 receiving touchdowns on 86 receptions for 1,297 yards. Eifert, Green and left tackle Andrew Whitworth were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In Jackson's first year as offensive coordinator for Cincinnati in 2014, the run game posted its highest yards per game average (134.1) since 2000. Dalton passed for 3,398 yards and Green totaled 1,041 receiving yards. Hill led all NFL rookies with 1,124 rushing yards, the second-most by a Bengals rookie in team history.

After spending the 2010 season as the Raiders offensive coordinator, Jackson was promoted to head coach in 2011. Oakland finished the year 8-8 and tied for first in the AFC West but missed the postseason via tiebreaker. The 8-8 mark was the best record by any Raiders team since 2002. The Raiders finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (379.5 yards per game) and seventh in rushing offense (131.9).

Before joining the Raiders, Jackson spent two seasons (2008-09) as quarterbacks coach for Baltimore, helping the Ravens advance to the playoffs both years. He was vital in the development of Joe Flacco, who was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 2008 and became the first rookie quarterback to win two playoff games as the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship game.

From 2004-06, Jackson served as the Bengals wide receivers coach, helping develop one of the best wide receiver tandems in NFL history with Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh. During that span, the two combined to average 173.3 catches, 2,363.3 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns per season. In 2005, Johnson led the AFC with 1,432 receiving yards. In 2006, Johnson and Houshmandzadeh became the first Bengals duo to each top 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.

Jackson gained his first fulltime NFL experience with Washington, where he served as the running backs coach from 2001-02, before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2003. Under Jackson's tutelage, running back Stephen Davis led the NFC with 1,432 rushing yards in 2001.

Jackson spent 14 years coaching on the college level, going from a graduate assistant at Pacific all the way to offensive coordinator at Southern California. He spent four seasons (1997-2000) as USC's offensive coordinator, where he also helped to recruit and develop players, including quarterback Carson Palmer, who went on to win the Heisman Trophy and be selected No. 1 overall in the NFL draft.

He was a minority coaching fellowship intern with the Los Angeles Rams in 1990, Arizona Cardinals in 1992 and Washington Redskins in 1995. He also served as the running backs/wide receivers/special teams coach for the London Monarchs of the World League in 1991.

Born Oct. 22, 1965, Jackson was a quarterback at Pacific from 1985-86 and threw for 2,544 yards and 19 touchdowns. The Los Angeles native also lettered in basketball and earned his degree in physical education.

Jackson and his wife, Michelle, have three daughters, Jordyn, Baylee and Haydyn.

SUPPORTING EFFORTS TO COMBAT
HUMAN TRAFFICKING IN CLEVELAND

THE HUE JACKSON FOUNDATION

Hue Jackson and his wife, Michelle, launched the Hue Jackson Foundation on July 20, 2017. The foundation is committed to empowering children, teen and adult survivors of human trafficking through the funding of organizations that champion for and serve as a voice for those who are exploited. The foundation also focuses its efforts to further awareness, prevention and healing for victims of human trafficking.

On July 17, 2018, the Hue Jackson Foundation opened the Hue Jackson Foundation Survivors of Human Trafficking Residence. This residence is approximately 4,500 sq. ft. and provides a safe environment for up to 12 recovered adult survivors of human trafficking. It offers collaborative and holistic services, and provides shared office space for law enforcement, healthcare, and social services providers, to help assist these survivors on their road to recovery.

The foundation's website is www.huejackson.org.

WEEK 1, GAME 1

BROWNS 21

Sept. 9, 2018 (OT)
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns kicked off the 2018 season with a tie against the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-21. In the first tie for the Browns since 1989, the team's defense forced six turnovers for the first time since 2010. Rookie DB Denzel Ward became the first Browns DB to secure two interceptions in his NFL debut since 1971 (Clarence Scott). Browns DL Myles Garrett forced a career-best two fumbles, while matching career-best marks in tackles (six) and sacks (two). Following a scoreless first quarter, Steelers RB James Conner culminated a 10-play, 88-yard scoring drive ending in a four-yard touchdown run. After the 7-0 halftime break, Browns QB Tyrod Taylor led Cleveland on an opening-half possession that he ended with a 20-yard touchdown run by him, tying the game at 7-7. Pittsburgh answered as QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 22-yard touchdown pass on the ensuing possession. After forcing the Browns to punt, Conner found the end zone again for his second score of the game, giving the Steelers their largest lead of the game, 21-7. After recovering the team's second fumble of the game, Browns RB Carlos Hyde punched in a one-yard score. Before the final whistle of regulation, Taylor found WR Josh Gordon for a 17-yard strike with 1:58 remaining in regulation to tie the game, 21-21. In the OT period, each team exchanged possessions with punts, before the Steelers put together an eight-play, 31-yard drive to set up a K Chris Boswell game-winning field goal attempt, but Boswell's try missed to the left. Following a Cleveland punt, Roethlisberger was strip-sacked by LB Genard Avery on the following possession. The ensuing Browns K Zane Gonzalez game-winning field goal attempt was blocked by Steelers LB TJ Watt, forcing the teams to tie, 21-21.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

SAINTS 21

Sept. 16, 2018
Mercedes-Benz Superdome, New Orleans, La.

In the first road game of 2018, the Cleveland Browns fell to the New Orleans Saints, 21-18. Despite leading 12-3 going into the final quarter, the Saints rallied to score 18 points in the final 8:41 of the contest, securing the victory. K Zane Gonzalez opened the scoring for the Browns with his first of two 39-yard, first-half field goals. However, Saints K Wil Lutz provided an equalizing field goal on the ensuing possession. At the half, the Browns went into the locker room with a 6-3 lead. New Orleans punted on the opening possession of the second half, as RB Carlos Hyde capped a 12-play, 79-yard drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. On the Saints' first drive of the fourth quarter, WR Michael Thomas caught his first of two fourth quarter touchdowns from QB Drew Brees. Following a Browns QB Tyrod Taylor interception, New Orleans took their first lead of the game after another with Thomas' second score. Saints RB Alvin Kamara ran in the ensuing two-point conversion attempt. Following the two-minute warning, Taylor found WR Antonio Callaway for a 47-yard touchdown reception to tie the game at 18, as Gonzalez missed the extra point attempt. With 1:16 remaining, Brees orchestrated a six-play, 49-yard drive to set up th go-ahead field goal, which Lutz made from 44 yards out with 0:21 remaining. Taylor found Browns WR Jarvis Landry for a 25-yard reception, followed by a 16-yard catch from Callaway to set-up the game-tying field goal for Cleveland, but Gonzalez missed the attempt wide right.

JETS 18
BROWNS 21
 Sept. 20, 2018
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the New York Jets on Thursday Night Football, 21-17, securing the team's first win since Week 16 of the 2016 season. Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield entered the game prior to the end of the first half due to an injury suffered by QB Tyrod Taylor, propelling Cleveland to 14 unanswered points and a fourth-quarter touchdown en route to a victory. Mayfield finished the game with 17 completions on 23 attempts for 201 yards, scoring on the receiving end of a two-point conversion attempt thrown by WR Jarvis Landry. Landry added eight receptions for 103 yards, his best single-game showing as a Brown. Following a scoreless first quarter, Jets RB Isaiah Crowell opened the scoring for New York, rushing in from seven yards out four seconds into the second quarter. After a Cleveland punt on the ensuing possession, Crowell scored for the second time of the evening from two yards out, capping a 10-play, 63-yard touchdown drive. Down 14-0, and following the Taylor injury, Mayfield entered the game and led the Browns on a six-play, 39-yard drive for a 45-yard field goal from newly-acquired K Greg Joseph. The Jets took their 14-3 lead into the intermission. Following a strip forced fumble by Browns DB Denzel Ward of Jets WR Robby Anderson, Joseph connected on his second field goal, this time from 27 yards out to draw the Browns within one score. Before the final whistle of the third quarter, Browns RB Carlos Hyde capped a 69-yard scoring drive with a goal-line plunge from one yard out. The ensuing two-point conversion attempt was successful, as Landry's end around pass found Mayfield in the corner of the end zone. Jets K Jason Myers ended Cleveland's 14-point burst with a field goal from 28 yards out, giving Cleveland the ball back with 8:55 remaining in regulation. On the next drive, Hyde scored his second one-yard touchdown rush of the game to end a 15-play drive, giving the Browns their first lead of the contest. On a third-down attempt, LB Joe Schobert intercepted Jets QB Sam Darnold's pass. Following a Browns punt, Darnold threw his second pick of the game, as DB Terrance Mitchell picked off his sixth career interception to secure the win for Cleveland.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

BROWNS 42
RAIDERS 45
 Sept. 30, 2018 (OT)
Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, Calif.

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Oakland Raiders, 45-42, in the team's second overtime game of the season. Though leading by 14 points midway through the fourth quarter, the Browns allowed the Raiders to score 21 fourth-quarter points and the eventual game-winning field goal in the overtime period. Rookie QB Baker Mayfield, in his first career NFL start, threw for 295 yards and two touchdowns on 21 completions. Fellow rookie, RB Nick Chubb, rushed for 105 yards and a pair of scores on just three carries, a franchise rookie record. DBs E.J. Gaines and Damarious Randall each had an interception, giving the Browns 13 takeaways through the first four games of the season for the first time since 1989. RB Carlos Hyde also scored on the ground for a league-best fifth time this season. Following an exchange of punts to begin the game, Mayfield's second drive ended in an interception returned for a touchdown by Oakland DB Gareon Conley. Down, 7-0, the Browns rallied by scoring 17 unanswered points before the end of the first half. A field goal from K Greg Joseph with two minutes remaining in the first quarter got Cleveland on the board, along with a 63-yard score by Chubb. Following an Oakland missed field goal, Mayfield found TE Darren Fells for a 49-yard passing score, capping a four-play, 70-yard drive. Mayfield's connection with Fells was his first career touchdown pass. The Browns' ensuing two-point conversion attempt was successful, as RB Duke Johnson Jr. ran around the left end to put the Browns ahead by 10 points. However, the Raiders answered with a receiving score from WR Amari Cooper, leading to the halftime score of 17-14 in favor of Cleveland. The Browns scored on each of their first two drives in the second half, with a Joseph field goal and a WR Jarvis Landry touchdown reception, the first in his Browns career. After two fumbles and three punts on five possessions, the Raiders scored 13 unanswered points to take a 34-28 lead with less than 11 minutes remaining in regulation. Returning the favor, Hyde capped a seven-play, 77-yard drive with a one-yard rushing score after WR Antonio Callaway's 59-yard reception to set it up. Later, Chubb scored again with a 41-yard touchdown before Oakland put together a six-play, 53-yard scoring drive with a touchdown pass to TE Jared Cook from QB Derek Carr. The Raiders converted the two-point conversion attempt with a WR Jordy Nelson catch, taking the game into overtime, 42-42. Raiders K Matt McCrane missed his first field goal attempt on the team's first possession, but after forcing a Browns punt on the following drive, he redeemed himself and connected on a 29-yard attempt to secure Oakland's first win of the season.

RAVENS 18
BROWNS 21

Oct. 7, 2018 (OT)

FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the Baltimore Ravens in overtime, 12-9, the franchise's first win on a Sunday since 2015. With the win, Cleveland advanced to 2-2-1 on the season, the team's best start to a season since 2014 (3-2). Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield threw for 342 yards on 25 completions and a touchdown. The 342 yards in a single game are the second most by a Browns rookie in franchise history. After a Mayfield pick on Cleveland's first offensive drive, Baltimore capped a four-play drive with a 44-yard field goal by K Justin Tucker to give the Ravens the early 3-0 lead. The three-point lead was Baltimore's only lead of the contest. With 40 seconds before the halftime whistle, Mayfield found WR Rashard Higgins for Higgins' first score of the 2018 season. Each team notched on a field goal in the third quarter, with Browns K Greg Joseph and Tucker connecting from 35 yards and 25 yards out, respectively. Later, Tucker would register his third field goal of the contest, this time from 32-yarder, to draw the score at 9-9. In the Browns' third overtime game of the year, each team exchanged punts after the Browns took the ball to start the overtime period. Getting the ball at the Cleveland 16 yard line, Mayfield orchestrated a seven-play, 65-yard drive to set up Joseph for a 37-yard game winner.

CHARGERS 38
BROWNS 14

Oct. 14, 2018

FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Los Angeles Chargers, 38-14, for the second time in as many seasons, at FirstEnergy Stadium. Led by RB Melvin Gordon III's three rushing touchdowns and WR Tyrell Williams' two receiving touchdowns, the Chargers scored five total times and collected 449 yards of total offense. Browns QB Baker Mayfield accounted for 238 yards on 22 completions, adding a fourth-quarter touchdown to TE David Njoku. K Greg Joseph connected on two second-quarter field goals and Mayfield found WR Antonio Callaway on a successful two-point conversion attempt to account for Cleveland's 14 points. The Browns have now successfully converted four two-point conversion attempts on the season, the first time that a Browns team has had four in a single season since 1994. After Gordon III's first rushing touchdown in the first quarter, Joseph connected on a 33-yard field goal less than three minutes into the second frame to give the Browns their first points. Los Angeles tallied on Williams' two receiving touchdowns, before Joseph hit his second field goal of the game, this time from 28 yards out. At the half, the score was 21-6, in favor of the Chargers. Out of the intermission, Gordon III had his final two out of three total rushing touchdowns, giving the Bolts their largest lead of the game (29 points) through three quarters of play. In the fourth quarter, Mayfield orchestrated a seven-play, 42-yard drive that was capped by Njoku's touchdown. K Michael Badgley made a 44-yard field goal with four minutes remaining to finalize the score, 38-14.

WEEK 7, GAME 7

BROWNS 23
BUCCANEERS 26

 Oct. 21, 2018 (OT)
 Raymond James Stadium, Tampa, Fla.

In Cleveland's fourth overtime game of the season, the Browns fell on the road to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 26-23. The overtime matchup tied a franchise record for overtime games in a season. Despite scoring two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and overcoming a 14-point halftime deficit, the Browns fell to 2-4-1 on the season when Buccaneers K Chandler Catanzaro made a 59-yard field goal in extra time. Browns QB Baker Mayfield completed 23 of 34 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. WR Jarvis Landry paced Cleveland's offense by setting a season-high mark of 10 receptions and accounted for 97 yards. Landry also caught his second touchdown of the season. The Browns forced four turnovers against the Buccaneers, advancing their season mark to 20 takeaways. Browns P Britton Colquitt averaged a season-best 51.7 yards per punt, notching a career-long 79 yard punt before the end of the first half to pin the Buccaneers at their own one-yard line. On Tampa Bay's opening drive, Browns DL Trevon Coley stopped Bucs RB Peyton Barber in the end zone for a safety, opening the afternoon's scoring. However, Cleveland would punt on each of their first six possessions, while Tampa Bay took a 16-2 lead after the first half. After the half and down by two touchdowns, Mayfield threw his first touchdown pass of the afternoon to TE David Njoku to bring the Browns within one score. Tampa Bay answered with RB Ronald Jones' rushing score from two yards out, capping a 13-play, 73-yard series. Cleveland answered by orchestrating their longest drive of the game, as rookie RB Nick Chubb rushed for a one-yard score less than three minutes into the fourth quarter. After a DB Jabrill Peppers 32-yard punt return to put the Browns inside of Tampa Bay's 20-yard line, Mayfield found Landry for the game-tying score with less than three minutes remaining in regulation. Set up for a game-winning field goal, Catanzaro missed wide right as time expired to force overtime. Browns LB Jamie Collins Sr. intercepted Bucs QB Jameis Winston on the first drive, but after an exchange of punts, Catanzaro redeemed himself by connecting on a 59-yard boot to down the Browns.
