PANTHERS (6-6) VS. BROWNS (4-7-1)

CAPACITY 67,431 | SURFACE GRASS

NOTABLE STORYLINES

• This week, the Browns return home to Cleveland for a 1 p.m. contest against the Carolina Panthers on Sun., Dec. 9. The game marks the teams' first meeting since 2014 and Carolina holds a 4-1 advantage over the Browns in head-to-head matchups.

• Although a stronger second-half showing helped the Browns narrow the Houston Texans' lead, the Texans took full advantage of the visiting Browns' first-half mishaps en route to their ninth straight win. The Browns were outscored 23-0 in the first half and ultimately fell, 29-13, at NRG Stadium. Rookie QB Baker Mayfield completed just five passes for 46 yards and three interceptions in the game's first 30 minutes, but ended the contest 29-of-43 for 397 yards and a touchdown, a Browns single-game rookie passing yards record.

• In addition to breaking the team's rookie record with 397 passing yards, Mayfield also became the first Browns QB since Bernie Kosar (1987) to throw for at least one touchdown in nine consecutive starts. In the second half alone, Mayfield completed 24 of 30 passes for 351 yards and became the first NFL QB to total 350 second-half passing yards since the New England Patriots' Tom Brady (367) in 2012. Moreover, Mayfield's 18 passing touchdowns in just nine starts are the most by a Browns rookie, while his 2,639 passing yards are third.

• DL Myles Garrett recorded 1.5 sacks to increase his 2018 team-leading total to 11.5, tied for fourth all time by a Brown in a season. With 18.5 sacks in just 23 career games, Garrett is tied for the most sacks by a Brown in their first two seasons, which are also tied for ninth most by any NFL player in their first 23 career games.

• Rookie RB Nick Chubb posted 72 scrimmage yards with one rushing touchdown. He has six total touchdowns over the past four games, including a rushing touchdown in four straight contests. On the season, Chubb's seven rushing scores are tied for fourth most by a Browns rookie, while his 694 rushing yards rank fifth all time among Browns rookies.

• WR Jarvis Landry recorded six receptions for 103 yards. He now has 10 career 100-yard receiving games, three of which happened this season. Landry is the first Brown to do so since 2016 and the three games also tie for the fourth-best total in a single season in team history. Landry has also recorded at least a pair of catches in each of his past 75 games, the second-longest active streak in the NFL, with his 466 receptions being the most all time by an NFL player through their first five seasons. Landry is leading the team in receptions (66) and receiving yards (733) this season. His 66 receptions are the fourth most by a Brown through the first 13 weeks of a season.

THE LAST TIME VS. THE PANTHERS

BROWNS 13
PANTHERS 17

Dec. 21, 2014

Bank of America Stadium, Charlotte, N.C.

The Browns fell to the Panthers, 17-13, at Bank of America Stadium after the Carolina offense totaled more than 200 yards on the ground in the contest. The Panthers took the lead, 3-0, after K Graham Gano split the uprights from 23 yards away with 2:47 to play in the first quarter. The Browns responded with a 10-play, 55-yard drive which resulted in a 43-yard K Garrett Hartley field goal to tie the game. Carolina took back the lead after QB Cam Newton found the end zone on a 2-yard run with 1:55 remaining in the first half. QB Brian Hoyer went under center with under two minutes to play after QB Johnny Manziel was injured on a run before halftime. DL Billy Winn picked off a Newton pass and Hartley brought the Browns to within four points with 3:14 to play in the third quarter after converting on a 31-yard field goal attempt. Cleveland took the lead, 13-10, at the 9:59 mark in the fourth quarter after Hoyer and TE Jordan Cameron connected for an 81-yard touchdown pass, marking the team's longest completion of the season. The Panthers responded on the ensuing drive after Newton found RB Jonathan Stewart for a 9-yard touchdown pass with 7:07 left in regulation. On the first play of the next drive, Panthers DB Josh Norman picked off a Hoyer pass intended for WR Travis Benjamin, returning it 33 yards before Benjamin caught him from behind and stripped the ball loose. Benjamin also recovered the fumble on the play, giving the ball back to the Browns' offense. Cleveland was forced to punt on the drive and Carolina was able to run out the clock.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

Team

• By not allowing a sack, it will be the first time the Browns haven't let defenders drop the QB in four consecutive games since 1988.

• A rushing score by any Brown will give the team 14 on the year and will be the most by a Browns team through the first 13 games of a season since 2014 (16).

• With another successful two-point conversion, the 2018 Browns would set the franchise record for most in a single season (five).

• With a takeaway, will become the first Browns team since 2001 (36) to have at least 28 takeaways through the first 13 games of a season.

• With a win, would mark the first pair of consecutive home wins since Weeks 8-9 in 2014.

• A win would also mark the team's fourth victory at FirstEnergy Stadium this season, the first time the team has recorded that many wins at home since 2014. It would be the fifth time a Browns team won four times through the first 13 games since the team returned in 1999 (2014, 2012, 2007 and 2001).

RB Nick Chubb

• With another multi-rushing touchdown performance, would become the first Browns rookie since Isaiah Crowell in 2014 to do so twice in a season. The total would tie for the second-most multi-touchdown games by a Browns rookie in the category.

• With another 100-yard performance, would become the first Browns rookie to do so three times in a season since Trent Richardson in 2012 (three), tying a franchise record.

• With another 40-plus-yard rushing touchdown, would become the first NFL player since Doug Martin and Adrian Peterson in 2012 to do so four times in a season.

• Is 39 scrimmage yards away from tying Derrick Alexander in 1994 for the 10th most by a Browns rookie in history (866).

• A rushing and receiving score will mark the first time since Gale Sayers in 1965 a rookie has done so in three games.

• With at least 50 scrimmage yards and a score of any kind, will be the first Brown to have done so in five straight games since Josh Gordon in 2013.

• With at least 50 scrimmage yards and a touchdown, will be the first Browns rookie to have done so in six games since Eric Metcalf in 1989.

• With 174 yards from scrimmage, would become just the second Browns rookie since 2012 to eclipse 1,000 scrimmage yards in a season.

• By accumulating 1,000 scrimmage yards, would become just the fifth Browns rookie in franchise history to reach 1,000 scrimmage yards in a season.

• Could become the first Brown to rush for a touchdown in five straight games since Greg Pruitt in 1975.

RB Duke Johnson Jr.

• With 50-plus receiving yards, will mark the 16th times he's done so in a single game and will tie him fifth among all active RBs in the category (LeSean McCoy).

• With a receiving touchdown, will have nine for his career and will have the second most by a Browns RB since 1999, behind Steve Heiden (12).

WR Jarvis Landry

• With at least 10 receptions, will have done so in nine games since 2015 and will tie him with Larry Fitzgerald for third in the category since that time. With at least 11 catches, will have done so in five games since 2015 and can place fourth in the category.

• With at least a pair of catches, will have done so in 76 consecutive games, the longest streak in the league since 2014 and the second-longest active mark.

• With 100 receiving yards, will have done so in four of 13 games this season and will make him the first Brown to accomplish the feat since Josh Gordon in 2013. The four games will also tie for the second-best total by a Brown in a season.

• With eight catches, will pass Kellen Winslow (67) in 2006 for the most receptions by a Brown through the first 12 games of a season.

QB Baker Mayfield

• With at least 20 completions for 200-plus yards, will mark the seventh game he's done so and will be the second-highest total by a Browns rookie QB in a season. It will also tie Marcus Mariota (2015), Sam Bradford (2010) and Brandon Weeden (2012) for the fourth most by a rookie QB in the first 13 games of a season and will tie Mariota and Dak Prescott (2016) for the seventh most in a season.

• By throwing for a touchdown, 20 completions and 200 yards, will have done so in seven games this season. He will be in second place on the list of rookies who have accomplished the feat in their first 11 career games.

• By throwing multiple touchdowns, will have done so in seven games this season, already the most by a Browns rookie in a year. The seven games will also be the most by Browns QB since Derek Anderson (10) in 2007. He will also tie for the fourth most by an NFL rookie in a season, along with Prescott (2016), Dan Marino (1983) and Peyton Manning (1998).

• A passing score will mark the first time a Brown has done so in 10 straight starts in a season since Bernie Kosar (10) in 1987.

• By throwing for at least 350 yards, would become the first Browns QB since Josh McCown (2015) to throw for at least 350 yards in consecutive games.

• By throwing for at least 375 yards in Week 13, would become the first rookie QB since Carolina QB Cam Newton (2011) to hit such a mark in consecutive games.

DL Myles Garrett

• With at least one sack, will have 19.5 in his first 24 career games, tying Terrell Suggs (2003-04) for fourth in the category.

• With a half-sack, will break Reggie Camp's record (1983-84) for the most by a Brown in his first two seasons with 19.

• With multiple sacks, will have notched at least two in four of the first 13 games of the season, a new team record. It will also tie Jamir Miller in 2001 for the most by a Brown in a year.

• With at least two sacks, will have done so in five career games to tie for the fourth-best mark by a player in his first two seasons and will tie for the most since Joey Bosa (five) in 2016-17.

DB Damarious Randall

• Another interception can tie him with Darius Slay for the third-most interceptions by a single player since 2015 with 14.

• Another interception will be his fourth of the season and will be the first time a Brown has recorded that many through the first 12 games of a season since Tashaun Gipson in 2014 (six).

DB Denzel Ward

• Another interception will be his fourth of the season and will be the first time a Brown has recorded that many through the first 13 games of a season since Tashaun Gipson in 2014 (six). It will also be the first time a Browns rookie has done so since Anthony Henry in 2001. Ward will become the first Browns rookie to have at least four total interceptions in a season since Joe Haden in 2010 (six).

P Britton Colquitt

• With three punts inside the 20, will mark a new team record for a single season (33).

ORANGE RUSH

In franchise history, the Browns rushed for some of the club's best numbers to date in the first 13 weeks of a season. The team's 13 rushing scores are its most since 2014 (15), while its 1,447 rushing yards are its most since 1985 (1,897) and its 4.52 rushing average is ranked 13th all time and is the highest mark since 1968 (4.53). Additionally, the unit is fourth in rushing first downs (73) and has the most total rushing plays for 10-plus yards since 1994 (44). Since the franchise came back to Cleveland in 1999, the 2018 team has posted rushing totals that are tops in nearly every category.

SETTLING THE SCORE

The Browns' 22.2 points-per-game average and 2.75 touchdowns-per-game average are both the highest marks by a Browns team since 2007, when the team had a 25.1 points-per-game average and was averaging 2.88 touchdowns per game.

A WELL-RECEIVED AVERAGE

Through the first 12 games, Browns WRs have combined for a yards-per-game average of 259.3, the club's fourth-highest mark in history. Their 21.5 receptions-per-game average are ranked third in Browns annals.

MAKING STRIDES

The Browns' Week 12 35-20 win over Cincinnati Bengals, marked their first on the road since October 2015 and gave the club its first back-to-back victories since November 2014. Additionally, they won back-to-back games by double digits for the first time since 2013 and moved to 4-6-1 on the season, their most wins since 2014. The Browns are 2-1-1 in division play, their best start since the formation of the AFC North in 2002.

BIG-TIME SECURITY

The 2018 Browns have a group of three players that each started all 16 games last season. OL Joel Bitonio, JC Tretter and Kevin Zeitler headline a front that helped the Browns offense rank sixth in rushing average (4.46). Since 2016, the Browns are second in the entire league in rushing average in such span (4.65). Bitonio is in his fifth NFL season, having spent his entire tenure in Cleveland.

The team's Week 10 starting OL of LT Greg Robinson, LG Bitonio, C Tretter, RG Zeitler and RT Chris Hubbard didn't allow a sack for the first time since Dec. 27, 2015. The group also aided the Browns' on the ground with 211 rushing yards, their most since Week 17 last year.

Following a Week 11 bye, the group again kept defenders from the QB in Weeks 12 and 13, marking the first time the Browns haven't allowed a sack in three straight games since 1988.

SPECIAL FORCES UNIT

The Browns added experience to the special teams coaching staff, welcoming special teams coordinator Amos Jones. Jones, who most recently was special teams coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals for the past five seasons, is no stranger to the AFC North, having been on the Pittsburgh Steelers' staff from 2007-12. Under Jones' tutelage, two Cardinals special teamers were selected to Pro Bowls and K Chandler Catanzaro tied the NFL record for most consecutive made field goals to begin a career (17) in 2014. In his first season in the desert in 2013, Jones guided P Dave Zastudil to tie the NFL lead with 35 punts inside the 20-yard line. With the Steelers, Jones was a member of a staff that won Super Bowl XLIII, developed WR Antonio Brown into a Pro Bowl kick returner in 2011 and helped Pittsburgh lead the NFL with a franchise record of 1,581 return yards in 2009. Jones has a total of 37 years of coaching experience at the high school, college and professional levels.

RETURN POLICY

The Browns returners have combined for the league's 10th-most punt return yards (204), sixth-most kickoff return yards (684) and sixth-most total kick return yards (888) through the first 13 weeks of 2018.

BUILDING BLOCKS

With their opponents successfully converting 20 of 27 field goals, two of which were blocked by Browns, the team's field goal block unit is ranked fourth in the NFL in opponent field goal percentage (74.1).

BONUS BALL

The Browns tied a franchise record by playing in their fourth overtime game in Week 7 this year. The team also played in four in 1989. The Browns are the first NFL team since Arizona in 2011 to play four overtime games in a season.

AWAKEN THE SLEEPING GIANT

General Manager John Dorsey was named to his current position on Dec. 7, 2017, following Week 13 of the 2017 NFL season. Since then, Dorsey has enhanced the roster through free agency and trades, as well as taking advantage of the Browns' draft selections.

Dorsey also bolstered the roster off the field, headlined by the additions of Assistant General Manager Eliot Wolf and vice president of player personnel Alonzo Highsmith. Both Wolf and Highsmith's connection to Dorsey spans from the trio's time and experience with the Green Bay Packers. Dorsey was first hired by the Packers as a college scout, joining Hall of Famer Ron Wolf's staff, who is also the father of Eliot.

Dorsey served as general manager of the Kansas City Chiefs from 2013-16. During that time, Dorsey's teams earned three postseason berths and a 2016 AFC West title. The Chiefs also won at least nine games a year in that span and registered a 43-21 (.672) overall record, the NFL's fourth-highest winning percentage.

As the Chiefs' GM, Dorsey selected three players who went on to earn first team All-Pro honors and were also selected to multiple Pro Bowls, including TE Travis Kelce (third round, 2013), CB Marcus Peters (first round, 2015) and WR Tyreek Hill (fifth round, 2016). In 2017, he drafted RB Kareem Hunt (third round), who led the NFL in rushing during his rookie season and was selected to the Pro Bowl. The year prior in 2016, LB D.J. Alexander (sixth round, 2015) was also selected to the Pro Bowl.

HIGH-FIVE

The only player in the NFL to have at least five receptions in all 16 games last year, Landry became just the fourth player (fifth time overall) to accomplish the feat. He joined Jimmy Smith (2001), Pierre Garcon (2013) and Brown (2013-14).

His streak of 20 games (min. five receptions) that dated back to the 2016 season was the longest active and was the second longest in league history.

KEEPIN' IT 100

Landry is the first Brown to record at least 100 yards in multiple games through the first 12 contests in a season (three) since Gary Barnidge and Travis Benjamin in 2015.

FAMILIAR FACES

Landry's 182 career receptions (third), 6.5 receptions-per-game average (tied for third), 109 receiving first downs (fourth), 1,950 receiving yards (fifth) and 69.6 yards-per-game average (ninth) all rank in the NFL's top 10 among receivers facing divisional opponents since 2014.

TURNPIKE COMPANY

Landry and Brown are the only players to record the following receiving milestones since 2014:

- 100 receptions in 2017 (Landry 112, Brown 101).
- 200 total receptions from 2016-17 (Brown 207, Landry 206).
- 300 total receptions from 2015-17 (Brown 343, Landry 316).
- 400 total receptions from 2014-17 (Brown 472, Landry 400).

JarVI's Landry

Landry collected six points on nine receiving touchdowns last year. The total not only beat his previous career high by four, but also tied for the fourth-best total in the league. Since 2017, Landry's receiving touchdowns mark (11) ties for 12th in the league among WRs.

3RD DOWN'S A CHARM

Landry proved to be a go-to target on third downs last season, tying for the fourth-best receptions total (28) in the NFL, a new career high. Since then, Landry's 47 receptions are one of the best numbers in the league, no different than when he entered the league in 2014.

LUCKY 13

In Week 2 at the Los Angeles Chargers last season, Landry hauled in 13 receptions, tying him for the league's highest mark on the year (Larry Fitzgerald). It also matched his single-game career high set in Week 12 of 2015 at the New York Jets. With two 13-plus reception games in away stadiums for his career, Landry ties for No. 2 all time in the category.

Landry's overall reception percentage of 69.6 was the fourth best among receivers who were targeted 100-plus times last season. It marked the second consecutive year Landry finished among the league's leaders, as he was also fourth in 2016 (71.8). It was also the third time in four years he received such ranking, after pacing the NFL as a rookie in 2014 (75.0). His career reception percentage (67.5) is seventh among the league's receivers since 2014 who have been targeted over 400 times.

START YOUR ENGINES

Mayfield passed for 342 yards with one touchdown and one interception in his first win as a starter (Week 5). He became the sixth QB selected with the first overall pick to win his first career home start in the common draft era. The other five to accomplish the feat are New England's Jim Plunkett (Sept. 19, 1971), Atlanta's Michael Vick (Nov. 11, 2001), Houston's David Carr (Sept. 8, 2002), Cincinnati's Carson Palmer (Sept. 19, 2004) and Indianapolis' Andrew Luck (Sept. 16, 2012).

His 342 passing yards in the start rank as the third most by a Browns rookie, with his 397 in Week 13 being the most.

Both Rodgers and Warner did so in three contests and were named Associated Press MVP in those seasons.

HITTING THE MARK

Mayfield opened the team's Week 10 game with 13 consecutive completions. In addition to ending Week 9 with a completion, his stretch of 14 consecutive completions tied for the fourth-most in team history.

A NOVEMBER TO REMEMBER

For the month of November, Mayfield Completed 65 of 88 passes for 771 yards with nine touchdowns, one interception and a 129.5 passer rating. His 129.5 passer rating led the AFC and all NFL rookies for the month, while his 73.9 completion percentage ranked third in the conference and also led all NFL rookies. Mayfield joined OL Joe Thomas (November 2007) and QB Tim Couch (October 1999) as the only Browns to win the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month award.

REDY TO GO

Mayfield's 115.1 passer rating in the red zone this season is second to only Drew Brees (116.9) and is the second highest by a rookie since 2000, behind Marcus Mariota (116.1) in 2015. His total is also the highest by any Browns QB since 1991.

Player	Years
Damarious Randall	2015-18
Leon Hall	2007-10
Richard Sherman	2011-14

Additionally, Randall is the only current player to have three or more interceptions a season from 2015-18.

QUICK TO PICK

With 13 career interceptions in 41 career starts, Randall ranks tied for No. 1 in picks among active players who have started 41 or fewer career contests.

Along with 12 others, Randall and teammate Ward are currently the only NFL players who have accrued at least eight pass breakups and three picks. Additionally, Randall and Ward are just the 23rd and 24th Browns to have done so through the first 13 weeks of a season.

PICK OF THE LITTER

Along with Ward and Kirksey, Randall and the Browns are tied with the Cincinnati Bengals, Houston Texans, New England Patriots and Oakland Raiders for the second-most AFC players with multiple interceptions in 2018 (three), behind the Miami Dolphins (four). Additionally, The Browns have a combination of nine defenders (Randall, Ward, Kirksey, Schobert, LB Jamie Collins Sr., DB E.J. Gaines, DB Terrance Mitchell, DB Derrick Kindred and former DB Denzel Rice) who have picked off at least one pass this season, tied for the third-best total in the NFL.

DB | 21 DENZEL WARD

THE WARDEN

Making his NFL debut in Week 1 of 2018, rookie DB Denzel Ward recorded two interceptions. Ward is the fourth-youngest player (21 years, 134 days) in NFL history with a pair of interceptions in a game. He joined Clarence Scott (Sept. 19, 1971) as the only Browns rookies to record two interceptions in their NFL debut. He's the first Browns rookie to record two interceptions in a game since T.J. Ward on Nov. 21, 2010 and the first Brown to record two interceptions in a game since Joe Haden on Sept. 18, 2016. Additionally, he became the first rookie to record multiple interceptions in a season-opening game since Indianapolis' Eugene Daniel on Sept. 2, 1984 against the Jets.

Ward's three interceptions on the year tie him for the ninth-most picks in the league, along with Randall, and are tied for the third most in the AFC. His 11 pass breakups also rank tied for 10th in the NFL and tied for seventh in the conference.

RB | 24 NICK CHUBB

IN THE NICK OF TIME

Rookie RB Nick Chubb has been running with purpose since entering the league this season. Chubb rushed for 105 yards on three carries, including a 63-yard touchdown, at Oakland in Week 4. The score was the longest run by a Browns rookie since Lee Suggs (78t) in Week 17 of 2003 and was the third-longest run in the NFL this season. Chubb also became the first Browns rookie RB to eclipse the 100-yard rushing mark since Terrence West in Week 1 of 2014.

That was until Week 10 against Atlanta, when Chubb registered a career-high 176 rushing yards, including a 92-yard touchdown. The score became the longest in Browns history and the second-longest by a rookie in NFL history, behind Pittsburgh's Bobby Gage in 1949 (97). He now has eight (six rushing, two receiving) touchdowns on the season, with three of the runs coming from 40-plus yards (92, 63 and 41). Chubb is the first player since Doug Martin in 2012 with at least three rushing touchdowns of 40-plus yards in his first 10 career games.

THE LONG HAUL

With three rushing touchdowns coming from at least 40 yards out (92, 63 and 41), Chubb became the first player to do so in a season since Adrian Peterson in 2015, first rookie since Doug Martin in 2012, first Brown since Leroy Kelly in 1966 and is the first Browns rookie to reach the mark.

New York Giants' rookie RB Saquon Barkley joined Chubb (68, 51 and 50) in the category following Week 12.

HISTORY MAKER

According to Elias Sports, out of the 1,200-plus times an NFL player has rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns in a game, Chubb's Week 4 performance made him the only one to do it in three carries or less.

TURNING AN INCH INTO A MILE

Needing just three carries to rush for over 100 yards, Chubb is the first player to do so since 2007 (Cordarrelle Patterson) and is just the fourth to ever accomplish the feat.

AGE IS JUST A NUMBER

At 22 years and 277 days old in Week 4, Chubb became the youngest Brown since Jim Brown in 1958 (22 years, 272 days) to rush for over a 100 yards and score multiple touchdowns in a single game. He's also the youngest NFL player since Dallas' Ezekiel Elliott (22 years, 99 days) in 2017 to accomplish the feat and is the youngest rookie since Jacksonville's Leonard Fournette (22 years, 263 days) did so last year.

ABOVE-AVERAGE BACK

Chubb's 5.30 rushing average is not only fifth best in the NFL, but his seven rushing touchdowns are third among all rookie backs this season and tied for seventh in the league.

D.K. ALL DAY

DB Derrick Kindred has collected 10 tackles for loss in just 37 career games. The mark ranks fourth among active DBs who have appeared 40 games or less.

A SAFE BET

At Pittsburgh in Week 8, Kindred recorded his second career interception and forced a Steelers fumble. The marks made him just one of six S in the NFL this season to register a pick and force a fumble in the same contest.

TOUCHDOWN TYROD

Taylor is also one of only five active QBs with 50 passing touchdowns and 10 rushing touchdowns since 2015, along with Cam Newton, Kirk Cousins, Marcus Mariota and Dak Prescott. He and Newton are also the only two players in the NFL to register a minimum of 8,000 passing yards and 1,500 rushing yards in that span.

TOUGH TO TAKE FROM TY

Taylor's career interception percentage of 1.5 (min. of 1,200 attempts) is tied for an all-time low in NFL history.

RUNNING RAMPANT

Taylor's 125 rushing yards in his three 2018 starts (Weeks 1-3) were the second most during that span by a QB.

T-NOT-SO-SQUARED

Taylor's active streak of 45 consecutive games played without throwing multiple interceptions is an all-time NFL best by a QB.

ELITE COMPANY

Along with Steve Young and Steve McNair, Taylor is just the NFL's third quarterback to record three consecutive seasons (2015-17) of 60-plus completion percentages (min. 200 attempts) and 400-plus scrimmage yards. It's currently the NFL's only active streak.

RIGHT ON THE T-MONEY

Since 2015, Taylor has the fewest interceptions (18) by a QB who's started 30-plus games.

HEAD COACH GREGG WILLIAMS

Gregg Williams was named Browns interim head coach on Oct. 29, 2018. He has served as the team's defensive coordinator since Jan. 7, 2017. Williams also served as the head coach of the Buffalo Bills from 2001-03 and has 17 seasons of experience as an NFL defensive coordinator. His defenses have finished in the top five in total defense five times, including the top defense in the NFL in 2000. Williams also oversaw a Saints defensive unit that won Super Bowl XLIV and a Titans defense that advanced to Super Bowl XXXIV.

In his first season, the Browns defense made significant improvements in many categories. The Browns, who finished 31st in the NFL in both total defense and rushing defense in 2016, ranked 14th in total defense and seventh in rushing defense in 2017. Cleveland recorded its best finish in rush defense since 1992 and held opponents to a 3.35 rushing average. That figure was the second-best by a Browns team in a season, second in the NFL in 2017 and fifth in the NFL since 2009.

Williams helped Joe Schobert become the first Browns linebacker named to the Pro Bowl in 16 years. Schobert tied for first in the NFL with 144 tackles. Williams also helped develop defensive lineman Myles Garrett, the first overall pick of the 2017 NFL Draft. Garrett led the Browns with seven sacks, tied for second among all NFL rookies and third-most by a Browns rookie. Garrett joined Oakland defensive tackle Tommy Kelly (2004) and Cleveland linebacker Barkevious Mingo (2013) as the only NFL players since 2004 to record at least one sack in each of their first three NFL games. In his first game, Garrett recorded a sack on his first NFL play and became the only No. 1 overall pick to record multiple sacks in his NFL debut.

Williams spent the previous three seasons (2014-16) as the defensive coordinator for the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams. In 2016, the Rams defense finished in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense and passing defense. During his three seasons with the Rams, the team recorded 281 tackles for a loss, the second-most in the NFL during that span.

Williams also helped oversee the development of 2014 first-round pick Aaron Donald. Donald was voted the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and was selected to the Pro Bowl all three seasons under Williams.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Williams served as senior assistant defensive coach in Tennessee in 2013 and helped the team make significant improvements in nearly every defensive category. The Titans improved in points per game (16th from 32nd), total defense (14th from 27th), pass defense (11th from 26th) and third down defense (7th from 21st).

Williams served as defensive coordinator in New Orleans from 2009-11. He helped the Saints advance to the postseason all three years, capture division titles (2009 and 2011) and win Super Bowl XLIV. During his three seasons in New Orleans, the Saints posted a 37-11 regular season record, tied for the best in the NFL during that span. In 2010, the Saints allowed the fewest touchdown passes (13) in the league. In his first season with the Saints, he was in charge of a unit that recorded 35 defensive takeaways and returned seven for touchdowns.

He spent one season (2008) with Jacksonville as defensive coordinator/assistant head coach following four seasons (2004-07) as assistant head coach/defense with Washington. The Redskins had one of the NFL's top defenses over that span, allowing just 19.4 points per game and ranking sixth overall in defense during the four-season stretch. In 2005, the Redskins' defense was a key factor in the club making its first postseason appearance since 1999.

HC | GREGG WILLIAMS

Prior to joining the Redskins, Williams spent three seasons (2001-03) as head coach of the Buffalo Bills, where the defense improved each season. The defense improved from 21st in the NFL in 2001 to 15th in 2002 to second in 2003.

Williams joined the NFL ranks in 1990 and spent 11 seasons with the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans working his way up from defensive quality control coach (1990-92) to defensive coordinator (1997-00). He also served as special teams coach (1993) and linebackers coach (1994-96). In 1999, he helped the Titans advance to Super Bowl XXXIV. In 2000, Tennessee led the NFL in total defense for the first time in franchise history and allowed 191 points, the third-fewest in league history since the adoption of a 16-game schedule in 1978. The Titans also set club records for sacks (55), fewest passing yards allowed (2,424) and fewest touchdowns allowed (17).

Prior to arriving in the NFL, Williams was a graduate assistant at the University of Houston from 1988-89. From 1984-87, Williams was the head coach at Belton (Mo.) High School after opening his coaching career at his alma mater Excelsior Springs (Mo.) High School.

Williams graduated from Truman State University, where he played quarterback and also played baseball. He later earned a master's degree from Central Missouri.

Williams is passionate about giving back to the youth. Since 2004, Williams has helped raise more than $2 million for Excelsior Springs young people through the Gregg Williams Foundation. The money raised annually provides two scholarships for Excelsior Springs High School graduates and funds both school and local youth athletics. For more information, visit www.greggwilliamsfoundation.org.

In January of 2016, Williams was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame. The induction celebrated his decorated NFL coaching career, as well his unwavering commitment to his home state of Missouri and the mentorship of young men.

THE GREGG WILLIAMS FOUNDATION

The Gregg Williams Foundation, Inc. was founded in December 2004 as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization to fund programs for kids in the Excelsior Springs, Mo. area. The Foundation also donates funds to various community organizations to help improve the community as a whole.

The Foundation hosts several fund-raising events throughout the Excelsior Springs area and beyond, but the primary source of income for the Foundation is derived from the various fund-raising activities around the annual Gregg Williams Tiger Classic Golf Tournament. This is a 3-day event which includes the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and Dinner, a Tiger Classic Reception & Dinner for all golfers, the Tiger Golf Classic Golf Tournament with various auctions, raffles, donations and sponsorships. The Tiger Classic is a large community event and sells out quickly each year with over 80 golf teams.

The Foundation has given back nearly $750,000 to the schools and our community with a total community impact of over $1 million since 2005.

WEEK 1, GAME 1

STEELERS 21
BROWNS 21Sept. 9, 2018 (OT)
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns kicked off the 2018 season with a tie against the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-21. In the first tie for the Browns since 1989, the team's defense forced six turnovers for the first time since 2010. Rookie DB Denzel Ward became the first Browns DB to secure two interceptions in his NFL debut since 1971 (Clarence Scott). Browns DL Myles Garrett forced a career-best two fumbles, while matching career-best marks in tackles (six) and sacks (two). Following a scoreless first quarter, Steelers RB James Conner culminated a 10-play, 88-yard scoring drive ending in a four-yard touchdown run. After the 7-0 halftime break, Browns QB Tyrod Taylor led Cleveland on an opening-half possession that he ended with a 20-yard touchdown run by him, tying the game at 7-7. Pittsburgh answered as QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 22-yard touchdown pass on the ensuing possession. After forcing the Browns to punt, Conner found the end zone again for his second score of the game, giving the Steelers their largest lead of the game, 21-7. After recovering the team's second fumble of the game, Browns RB Carlos Hyde punched in a one-yard score. Before the final whistle of regulation, Taylor found WR Josh Gordon for a 17-yard strike with 1:58 remaining in regulation to tie the game, 21-21. In the OT period, each team exchanged possessions with punts, before the Steelers put together an eight-play, 31-yard drive to set up a K Chris Boswell game-winning field goal attempt, but Boswell's try missed to the left. Following a Cleveland punt, Roethlisberger was strip-sacked by LB Genard Avery on the following possession. The ensuing Browns K Zane Gonzalez game-winning field goal attempt was blocked by Steelers LB TJ Watt, forcing the teams to tie, 21-21.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

BROWNS 18
SAINTS 21Sept. 16, 2018
Mercedes-Benz Superdome, New Orleans, La.

In the first road game of 2018, the Cleveland Browns fell to the New Orleans Saints, 21-18. Despite leading 12-3 going into the final quarter, the Saints rallied to score 18 points in the final 8:41 of the contest, securing the victory. K Zane Gonzalez opened the scoring for the Browns with his first of two 39-yard, first-half field goals. However, Saints K Wil Lutz provided an equalizing field goal on the ensuing possession. At the half, the Browns went into the locker room with a 6-3 lead. New Orleans punted on the opening possession of the second half, as RB Carlos Hyde capped a 12-play, 79-yard drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. On the Saints' first drive of the fourth quarter, WR Michael Thomas caught his first of two fourth quarter touchdowns from QB Drew Brees. Following a Browns QB Tyrod Taylor interception, New Orleans took their first lead of the game after another with Thomas' second score. Saints RB Alvin Kamara ran in the ensuing two-point conversion attempt. Following the two-minute warning, Taylor found WR Antonio Callaway for a 47-yard touchdown reception to tie the game at 18, as Gonzalez missed the extra point attempt. With 1:16 remaining, Brees orchestrated a six-play, 49-yard drive to set up th go-ahead field goal, which Lutz made from 44 yards out with 0:21 remaining. Taylor found Browns WR Jarvis Landry for a 25-yard reception, followed by a 16-yard catch from Callaway to set-up the game-tying field goal for Cleveland, but Gonzalez missed the attempt wide right.

WEEK 3, GAME 3

JETS 18
BROWNS 21Sept. 20, 2018
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the New York Jets on Thursday Night Football, 21-17, securing the team's first win since Week 16 of the 2016 season. Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield entered the game prior to the end of the first half due to an injury suffered by QB Tyrod Taylor, propelling Cleveland to 14 unanswered points and a fourth-quarter touchdown en route to a victory. Mayfield finished the game with 17 completions on 23 attempts for 201 yards, scoring on the receiving end of a two-point conversion attempt thrown by WR Jarvis Landry. Landry added eight receptions for 103 yards, his best single-game showing as a Brown. Following a scoreless first quarter, Jets RB Isaiah Crowell opened the scoring for New York, rushing in from seven yards out four seconds into the second quarter. After a Cleveland punt on the ensuing possession, Crowell scored for the second time of the evening from two yards out, capping a 10-play, 63-yard touchdown drive. Down 14-0, and following the Taylor injury, Mayfield entered the game and led the Browns on a six-play, 39-yard drive for a 45-yard field goal from newly-acquired K Greg Joseph. The Jets took their 14-3 lead into the intermission. Following a strip forced fumble by Browns DB Denzel Ward of Jets WR Robby Anderson, Joseph connected on his second field goal, this time from 27 yards out to draw the Browns within one score. Before the final whistle of the third quarter, Browns RB Carlos Hyde capped a 69-yard scoring drive with a goal-line plunge from one yard out. The ensuing two-point conversion attempt was successful, as Landry's end around pass found Mayfield in the corner of the end zone. Jets K Jason Myers ended Cleveland's 14-point burst with a field goal from 28 yards out, giving Cleveland the ball back with 8:55 remaining in regulation. On the next drive, Hyde scored his second one-yard touchdown rush of the game to end a 15-play drive, giving the Browns their first lead of the contest. On a third-down attempt, LB Joe Schobert intercepted Jets QB Sam Darnold's pass. Following a Browns punt, Darnold threw his second pick of the game, as DB Terrance Mitchell picked off his sixth career interception to secure the win for Cleveland.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

BROWNS 42
RAIDERS 45Sept. 30, 2018 (OT)
Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, Calif.

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Oakland Raiders, 45-42, in the team's second overtime game of the season. Though leading by 14 points midway through the fourth quarter, the Browns allowed the Raiders to score 21 fourth-quarter points and the eventual game-winning field goal in the overtime period. Rookie QB Baker Mayfield, in his first career NFL start, threw for 295 yards and two touchdowns on 21 completions. Fellow rookie, RB Nick Chubb, rushed for 105 yards and a pair of scores on just three carries, a franchise rookie record. DBs E.J. Gaines and Damarious Randall each had an interception, giving the Browns 13 takeaways through the first four games of the season for the first time since 1989. RB Carlos Hyde also scored on the ground for a league-best fifth time this season. Following an exchange of punts to begin the game, Mayfield's second drive ended in an interception returned for a touchdown by Oakland DB Gareon Conley. Down, 7-0, the Browns rallied by scoring 17 unanswered points before the end of the first half. A field goal from K Greg Joseph with two minutes remaining in the first quarter got Cleveland on the board, along with a 63-yard score by Chubb. Following an Oakland missed field goal, Mayfield found TE Darren Fells for a 49-yard passing score, capping a four-play, 70-yard drive. Mayfield's connection with Fells was his first career touchdown pass. The Browns' ensuing two-point conversion attempt was successful, as RB Duke Johnson Jr. ran around the left end to put the Browns ahead by 10 points. However, the Raiders answered with a receiving score from WR Amari Cooper, leading to the halftime score of 17-14 in favor of Cleveland. The Browns scored on each of their first two drives in the second half, with a Joseph field goal and a WR Jarvis Landry touchdown reception, the first in his Browns career. After two fumbles and three punts on five possessions, the Raiders scored 13 unanswered points to take a 34-28 lead with less than 11 minutes remaining in regulation. Returning the favor, Hyde capped a seven-play, 77-yard drive with a one-yard rushing score after WR Antonio Callaway's 59-yard reception to set it up. Later, Chubb scored again with a 41-yard touchdown before Oakland put together a six-play, 53-yard scoring drive with a touchdown pass to TE Jared Cook from QB Derek Carr. The Raiders converted the two-point conversion attempt with a WR Jordy Nelson catch, taking the game into overtime, 42-42. Raiders K Matt McCrane missed his first field goal attempt on the team's first possession, but after forcing a Browns punt on the following drive, he redeemed himself and connected on a 29-yard attempt to secure Oakland's first win of the season.

RAVENS 18
BROWNS 21

Oct. 7, 2018 (OT)

FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the Baltimore Ravens in overtime, 12-9, the franchise's first win on a Sunday since 2015. With the win, Cleveland advanced to 2-2-1 on the season, the team's best start to a season since 2014 (3-2). Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield threw for 342 yards on 25 completions and a touchdown. The 342 yards in a single game are the second most by a Browns rookie in franchise history. After a Mayfield pick on Cleveland's first offensive drive, Baltimore capped a four-play drive with a 44-yard field goal by K Justin Tucker to give the Ravens the early 3-0 lead. The three-point lead was Baltimore's only lead of the contest. With 40 seconds before the halftime whistle, Mayfield found WR Rashard Higgins for Higgins' first score of the 2018 season. Each team notched on a field goal in the third quarter, with Browns K Greg Joseph and Tucker connecting from 35 yards and 25 yards out, respectively. Later, Tucker would register his third field goal of the contest, this time from 32-yarder, to draw the score at 9-9. In the Browns' third overtime game of the year, each team exchanged punts after the Browns took the ball to start the overtime period. Getting the ball at the Cleveland 16 yard line, Mayfield orchestrated a seven-play, 65-yard drive to set up Joseph for a 37-yard game winner.

CHARGERS 38
BROWNS 14

Oct. 14, 2018

FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Los Angeles Chargers, 38-14, for the second time in as many seasons, at FirstEnergy Stadium. Led by RB Melvin Gordon III's three rushing touchdowns and WR Tyrell Williams' two receiving touchdowns, the Chargers scored five total times and collected 449 yards of total offense. Browns QB Baker Mayfield accounted for 238 yards on 22 completions, adding a fourth-quarter touchdown to TE David Njoku. K Greg Joseph connected on two second-quarter field goals and Mayfield found WR Antonio Callaway on a successful two-point conversion attempt to account for Cleveland's 14 points. The Browns have now successfully converted four two-point conversion attempts on the season, the first time that a Browns team has had four in a single season since 1994. After Gordon III's first rushing touchdown in the first quarter, Joseph connected on a 33-yard field goal less than three minutes into the second frame to give the Browns their first points. Los Angeles tallied on Williams' two receiving touchdowns, before Joseph hit his second field goal of the game, this time from 28 yards out. At the half, the score was 21-6, in favor of the Chargers. Out of the intermission, Gordon III had his final two out of three total rushing touchdowns, giving the Bolts their largest lead of the game (29 points) through three quarters of play. In the fourth quarter, Mayfield orchestrated a seven-play, 42-yard drive that was capped by Njoku's touchdown. K Michael Badgley made a 44-yard field goal with four minutes remaining to finalize the score, 38-14.

WEEK 7, GAME 7

BROWNS 23
BUCCANEERS 26Oct. 21, 2018 (OT)
Raymond James Stadium, Tampa, Fla.

In Cleveland's fourth overtime game of the season, the Browns fell on the road to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 26-23. The overtime matchup tied a franchise record for overtime games in a season. Despite scoring two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and overcoming a 14-point halftime deficit, the Browns fell to 2-4-1 on the season when Buccaneers K Chandler Catanzaro made a 59-yard field goal in extra time. Browns QB Baker Mayfield completed 23 of 34 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. WR Jarvis Landry paced Cleveland's offense by setting a season-high mark of 10 receptions and accounted for 97 yards. Landry also caught his second touchdown of the season. The Browns forced four turnovers against the Buccaneers, advancing their season mark to 20 takeaways. Browns P Britton Colquitt averaged a season-best 51.7 yards per punt, notching a career-long 79 yard punt before the end of the first half to pin the Buccaneers at their own one-yard line. On Tampa Bay's opening drive, Browns DL Trevon Coley stopped Bucs RB Peyton Barber in the end zone for a safety, opening the afternoon's scoring. However, Cleveland would punt on each of their first six possessions, while Tampa Bay took a 16-2 lead after the first half. After the half and down by two touchdowns, Mayfield threw his first touchdown pass of the afternoon to TE David Njoku to bring the Browns within one score. Tampa Bay answered with RB Ronald Jones' rushing score from two yards out, capping a 13-play, 73-yard series. Cleveland answered by orchestrating their longest drive of the game, as rookie RB Nick Chubb rushed for a one-yard score less than three minutes into the fourth quarter. After a DB Jabrill Peppers 32-yard punt return to put the Browns inside of Tampa Bay's 20-yard line, Mayfield found Landry for the game-tying score with less than three minutes remaining in regulation. Set up for a game-winning field goal, Catanzaro missed wide right as time expired to force overtime. Browns LB Jamie Collins Sr. intercepted Bucs QB Jameis Winston on the first drive, but after an exchange of punts, Catanzaro redeemed himself by connecting on a 59-yard boot to down the Browns.

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 33-18, at Heinz Field in Pittsburgh, Pa. The loss was Cleveland's first in 2018 division play. The 1-1-1 start against division opponents is the club's best mark through the first three divisional games since 2013 (2-1). The Browns opened the game with an 11-play, 66-yard scoring drive that was capped by K Greg Joseph's 34-yard field goal, which was Cleveland's first score on an opening possession this season. Following Browns DB Derrick Kindred's interception, Joseph connected on his second attempt of the day from 45 yards out to give the Browns a 6-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. Pittsburgh answered early in the second quarter with a 43-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antonio Brown. Steelers DB Joe Haden intercepted Mayfield, as Pittsburgh orchestrated a 16-play, 87-yard drive, capped by a Brown receiving touchdown to lead 14-6 at the half. In the second half, Pittsburgh gained two points off a safety, as Browns OL Desmond Harrison was called for a holding penalty in the Browns' end zone. A free kick ensued, which the Browns recovered, setting up a WR Antonio Callaway one-yard receiving touchdown from Mayfield. After the missed extra point, Pittsburgh put together a five-play, 75-yard scoring drive, capped by a Conner 12-yard touchdown run. After regaining possession off of an exchange of punts, Steelers K Chris Boswell connected from 49 yards out, his longest kick of the season, to give Pittsburgh a 26-12 lead through three and a half quarters. Conner added an exclamation point to Pittsburgh's day, scoring a 22-yard rushing touchdown just before the two-minute warning. Browns TE Seth DeVale caught his first touchdown of the season with six seconds remaining in regulation to give Mayfield his second passing score of the game. A failed two-point conversion attempt drew the final tally to 33-18.

WEEK 9, GAME 9

CHIEFS 37
BROWNS 21

Nov. 4, 2018

FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Kansas City Chiefs, 37-21, in interim head coach Gregg Williams' first game at the helm. Kansas City scored five touchdowns in their first six possessions, with Cleveland natives RB Kareem Hunt and TE Travis Kelce each accounting for multiple scores. Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield threw for 297 yards on 29 completions and two touchdowns for his third consecutive game with multiple passing scores. RB Duke Johnson Jr., who led the Browns in receiving in 2017, tied a career high with nine receptions and accounted for 78 receiving yards and two touchdowns. After a Chiefs' opening-possession touchdown, the Browns scored on consecutive drives, both of which were at least 11 plays, to notch a 14-9 game midway through the second quarter. K Greg Joseph also made a career-long 51-yard field goal in the first quarter, followed by a RB Nick Chubb touchdown on the ensuing drive. Hunt then punched in his second score of the afternoon to give the Chiefs an edge with two minutes left in the half. Johnson Jr. caught his first receiving touchdown of the game with 26 seconds remaining in the first half. Following halftime, Kelce and Hunt each scored on Kansas City's two possessions in the third quarter, giving Kelce his second and Hunt his third total touchdown of the contest. Three seconds into the final quarter, Johnson Jr. scored his second touchdown of the game, bringing Cleveland within 13 points, 34-21. Chiefs K Harrison Butker made a 39-yard field goal later in the final quarter, drawing the final score to 37-21 in favor of Kansas City.

FALCONS 16
BROWNS 28

Nov. 11, 2018

FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the Atlanta Falcons, 28-16, for the team's third home win of the season. Browns QB Baker Mayfield completed each of his first 13 attempts to begin the game, carrying a perfect passer rating (158.3) into the third quarter. Mayfield finished the game with 17 completions for 216 yards and a career-best three passing touchdowns, recording his fourth consecutive multi-touchdown game. Mayfield finished the contest with a 151.2 rating, the best ever by a Browns rookie QB in a single contest. Browns RB Nick Chubb rushed for a career-best 176 yards, recording the franchise's longest run in history on a 92-yard score in the third quarter. For the second consecutive week, RB Duke Johnson Jr. led the team in receptions, recording four for 31 yards and a touchdown. Following an exchange of punts, Mayfield found WR Rashard Higgins for a 28-yard score, his second of the season, to give Cleveland an early 7-0 lead following a K Greg Joseph PAT. The Falcons answered on the ensuing possession, then again one possession later following a Browns interception. With a subsequent WR Julio Jones one-yard touchdown reception, Atlanta had their largest lead of the game, 10-7, with a little over five minutes remaining in the half. Chubb then put an exclamation point on an eight-play, 80-yard scoring drive with a 13-yard receiving touchdown, giving the Browns the lead, 14-10, heading into the intermission. Out of the break and after an Atlanta fumble, Johnson Jr. caught an 11-yard passing touchdown, Mayfield's third passing score of the game, with 10:27 remaining in the third quarter. After forcing Atlanta to punt, Chubb broke free on the second play of the drive for his 92-yard rushing score to grant Cleveland their third-straight scoring possession. Following Chubb's third quarter score, the Browns had their largest lead of the game, 28-10. Atlanta TE Austin Hooper scored with 4:24 remaining in regulation to draw the final score to 28-16.

WEEK 12, GAME 11

BROWNS 35
BENGALS 20

Nov. 25, 2018

Paul Brown Stadium, Cincinnati, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the Cincinnati Bengals, 35-20, to secure the team's first road win since Week 5 of 2015. The Browns scored touchdowns on all four of their first-half possessions and continued the trend into the second half with a touchdown on the opening drive of the third quarter. QB Baker Mayfield threw for a career-best four touchdowns on 19 completions, along with 258 yards and no interceptions. Mayfield's four touchdown passes broke the franchise's rookie record for most passing touchdowns in a season (17), doing so in just his eighth NFL start. The Browns opened the game with Mayfield completing all six of his opening-drive pass attempts for 71 yards, which was capped by a rushing touchdown from RB Nick Chubb. Following a blocked field goal by DL Myles Garrett, Cleveland capped a four-play, 56-yard series with a 13-yard passing touchdown from Mayfield to WR Antonio Callaway. On the Browns' third possession of the game, they amassed a 12-play, 96-yard touchdown drive, ending with a TE David Njoku six-yard receiving score. After DB Damarious Randall recorded his third interception of the season, Mayfield found Chubb for the rookie RB's second score of the half, connecting from 14 yards out to give the Browns the team's largest lead over an opponent this season, 28-0. Bengals WR John Ross caught a two-yard touchdown pass before the half to cut into Cleveland's lead. Following the intermission, the Browns capitalized on a DL Emmanuel Ogbah fumble recovery, as TE Darren Fells caught Mayfield's fourth scoring pass of the game. Cincinnati rallied for touchdowns on back-to-back possessions later in the game, narrowing Cleveland's lead to two scores. Cleveland's defense ended the game by converting Cincinnati's final two possessions to consecutive turnovers on downs, cementing the final score, 35-20.

WEEK 13, GAME 12

BROWNS 13
TEXANS 29

Dec. 2, 2018

NRG Stadium, Houston, Texas

Despite two second-half red zone touchdowns, the Cleveland Browns fell to the Houston Texans, 29-13, on the road in Week 13. Browns QB Baker Mayfield finished the game with 397 passing yards and a touchdown, doing most of his work in the second half. Mayfield completed 24 of 30 attempts for 351 yards and a touchdown in the second half alone. His 351 second-half passing yards were the most by any NFL QB since 2016. Houston K Ka'imi Fairbairn converted a Texans field goal on the team's opening possession of the game. Following a Browns punt, Houston scored on an 11-yard touchdown reception to TE Jordan Thomas. Midway through the second quarter, Texans ILB Zach Cunningham returned a Mayfield interception 38 yards for a touchdown. After two more Fairbairn field goals, Houston took a 23-0 lead into the halftime period. Out of the break, Mayfield orchestrated a nine-play, 75-yard scoring drive, which was capped by a Nick Chubb two-yard touchdown rush to put the Browns on the scoreboard. On the scoring drive, Mayfield completed all five of his pass attempts for 73 yards to set up Chubb's club-record seventh rushing score of his rookie campaign. Fairbairn added a 53-yard field goal in the third quarter and a 38-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to extend Houston's lead. Toward the end of the fourth quarter, Mayfield again put together a nine-play, 75-yard scoring drive, ending with a WR Rashard Higgins 17-yard touchdown reception. Following an opening-drive incompletion, Mayfield connected on eight consecutive passes for all 75 of the possession's accrued yards. The two second-half touchdowns helped Cleveland close the scoring differential gap, leading to the final score of 29-13.
