REGULAR SEASON WEEK 8

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (3-4) at ATLANTA FALCONS (3-3)

DATE: November 4, 2001

SITE: Georgia Dome (71,228) - Turf

TIME: 1:00 p.m. EST

TELEVISION: This week's game will be broadcast regionally on CBS (locally on WBZ Channel 4 in Boston). Craig Bolerjack will provide the play-by-play detail and will be joined by broadcast partner Trevor Matich.

RADIO: WBCN's Rock Radio Network 104.1 FM. Gil Santos, now in his 25th season as voice of the Patriots, will call the action along with former Patriots center Peter Brock.

The New England Patriots (3-4) will travel to Atlanta to face the Falcons (3-3) this Sunday. It will be their third and final game on their current road swing before returning to Foxboro, where the Patriots will host three consecutive games. The Patriots and the Jacksonville Jaguars are the only teams that have had to play three consecutive road games this season.

Atlanta returns to action this week after enjoying a Week 7 bye. Prior to the bye, the Falcons snapped a two-game losing streak with a 20-13 victory over the Saints in New Orleans. While the Patriots have struggled on the road this year (1-3 record), the Falcons have struggled at home (1-2). Their only home win was a Week 2 victory over the Carolina Panthers, 24-16.

This week's game will be the 10th in the series between the two non-conference teams and the Falcons have proven over time to be a formidable foe, boasting a 6-3 series advantage. The Patriots' last victory in the series was a 25-17 win in 1986. Their only win in five tries in Atlanta was a 16-10 victory in 1977. The last time the Patriots traveled to Atlanta, Scott Zolak led the team into battle in 1995 after replacing Drew Bledsoe, who had sustained a separated shoulder the previous week. (For more series information, see page 2).

Last week, Patriots quarterback Tom Brady extended his NFL-record for pass attempts without an interception to start a career to 162 career attempts before Denard Walker snared a pass intended for David Patten in the end zone 1:48 into the fourth quarter at Denver. Unfortunately for the Patriots, the picks came in bunches. Brady was intercepted on each of the team's four fourth quarter possessions, including a 39-yard return for a touchdown that capped the scoring, 31-20. The loss dropped the Patriots to fourth place in the division.

A victory this weekend would give the Patriots a 4-4 record at midseason and the momentum of winning two-out-of-three on the road prior to returning home to host three consecutive games in November.

FORMIDABLE FOES

Including the Falcons, none of the Patriots' first eight opponents have a losing record as the NFL enters its eighth week. Those opponents have a combined record of 27-19 (.587). Unfortunately, their upcoming opponents don't offer much relief either. Of their remaining nine opponents (including the Falcons), only Buffalo (1-5) and Carolina (1-6) have losing records. The other six opponents have a combined record of 25-13 (.658).

PATRIOTS VERSUS NFC WEST

When the Patriots square off against the Falcons this weekend it will be their first clash with a member of the NFC West. New England was scheduled to play the Carolina Panthers on Sept. 16, but the game was postponed until Jan. 6. The last time the Patriots faced the NFC West, 1998, they finished with a 2-2 record. They defeated New Orleans 30-27 and San Francisco 24-21, but lost to Atlanta 41-10 and St. Louis 32-18. Last season the Patriots lost all four of their meetings with the NFC Central.

SERIES NOTES

- A pair of Falcon kickers share the record for longest field goal against the Patriots. Morten Anderson (10/1/95) and Norm Johnson (11/29/92) both kicked 54-yard field goals against the Patriots.
- Cornerback Deion Sanders made his NFL starting debut against the Patriots on Oct. 15, 1989.

- Patriots defensive end Anthony Pleasant played in 11 games with the Falcons during the 1997 season.

GAME REVIEW – BRONCOS 31, PATRIOTS 20

GAME REVIEW

The New England Patriots lost 31-20 to the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. New England dropped to 3-4 while Denver improved to 4-3. The Patriots were outscored 21-3 in the second half and lost for the first time this season and just the 10th time since 1996 when they led at the half.

The Patriots opened the game by driving 74 yards on 10 plays and scored on a 24-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri. Quarterback Tom Brady completed all five of his passes on the drive to four different receivers. It was the third consecutive game the Patriots scored on their opening drive.

New England's defense held the Broncos on their first drive to only three plays before they punted away the football. The Patriots offense covered 69 yards on four plays and scored on a 30-yard pass from Brady to wide receiver David Patten, increasing their lead to 10-0. It was the first time this season, they scored on their first two drives of the game.

Denver rebounded on their next drive with a touchdown cutting the Patriots lead to 10-7. Broncos running back Mike Anderson ran 8 yards up the middle for the score.

The Patriots attempted a wide receiver pass at the beginning of the second quarter, but Patten's throw was intercepted by Eric Brown on the Broncos 2-yard line.

Later in the quarter, Griesse was intercepted by linebacker Tedy Bruschi and the Patriots quickly capitalized on the turnover. Brady connected with wide receiver Troy Brown on a 5-yard score and New England led 17-10 at the half.

The second half started well for the Patriots when safety Matt Stevens intercepted Griesse on their third play from scrimmage in the half. They added a 44-yard field goal by Vinatieri and led 20-10.

The Broncos cut their deficit by seven on their next play when Griesse teamed up with wide receiver Rod Smith for a 65-yard touchdown pass. The Broncos moved 80 yards on nine plays and took a 24-20 lead on a 6-yard touchdown pass from Griesse to Dwayne Carswell.

New England moved into scoring position at the beginning of the fourth quarter when they drove to the Denver 13-yard line. Unfortunately, Brady was intercepted in the end zone by Denard Walker. The interception ended Brady's NFL record streak of 162 passes without an interception to start a career. The streak also ranked third on the Patriots all-time list.

Brady threw three more interceptions in the quarter, one that was returned 39 yards for a score by Walker and capped all scoring, 31-20.

The Broncos win ended the Patriots two-game winning streak in the series.

MILLER LITE PLAYER OF THE GAME

Patriots defensive end Willie McGinest was named Patriots Miller Lite Player of the Game. McGinest started and recorded his first two sacks of the season. He now has 47.5 sacks in his career.

New England has outscored their opponents 97-52 in the first half, but have been outscored 69-16 in the third quarter this year ... The Patriots five first downs by penalty was a season-high.

BILL BELICHICK'S COMMENTS

Re: The 31-20 loss to the Broncos:

"I think we found out some things about our team today. I think we just have to play a little bit better than we played. There's enough there to work with if we can just be a little bit more precise, a little bit more exact and execute the game plan just a little bit better than we did today. There were a lot of big plays in the game and Denver had more than we did and that's why they deserved to win."

Re: What he found out about his team:

"I thought we did some good things out there. We didn't do enough of them to win, so that's not good. But I thought we worked against a pretty good running game and we worked against a pretty good secondary and we were able to put some plays up there and put some points up there. We just didn't put enough of them up."
