GRAND OPENING OF GILLETTE STADIUM TO FEATURE REMATCH OF AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME IN 2002 SEASON PREMIERE OF MNF

This Week: The defending Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots will kickoff the 2002 season in grand style when they host the defending AFC Central Division Champion Pittsburgh Steelers in a rematch of the 2001 AFC Championship game. The rematch will be the season premiere of ABC's Monday Night Football and will mark the much anticipated Grand Opening of Gillette Stadium. Kickoff is scheduled for 9:07 p.m.

Television: The 2002 season premier of ABC's Monday Night Football features a new lineup. This season, play-by-play analyst Al Michaels will be joined in the booth by John Madden, while Melissa Stark will continue to provide sideline reports throughout the game.

Radio: Every Patriots game can be heard in stereo on the Patriots official flagship station WBCN 104.1 FM. Gil Santos, now in his 26th season as the voice of the Patriots, will call the game along with Patriots Hall of Famer Gino Cappelletti, who will provide in-depth analysis for his 22nd season. A complete list of the Patriots WBCN Rock Radio Network can be found on pages 462-463 of the 2002 Patriots media guide or at www.patriots.com.

National Radio: This week's game will be broadcast nationally on CBS Radio. Marv Albert and Boomer Esiason will be calling the play-by-play and John Dockery will report from the sidelines.

New Rivalry? This week's game between the New England Patriots and the Pittsburgh Steelers will be the seventh meeting in the past seven years, with three of the last five clashes in the playoffs. The Patriots won two of those three playoff games, including last season's AFC Championship game at Heinz Field in Pittsburgh, 24-17. Overall, the Patriots and the Steelers have squared off 18 times (including playoffs), but this week's game will be just the fifth in the series played in Foxborough. The Patriots only home victory in the series came in the playoffs in 1996 when they defeated the Steelers 28-3 in a divisional playoff game. The Patriots have won their last two meetings in the series and three of their last five by a combined score of 102-60. Since 1996, the Patriots only losses to the Steelers both came in 1997 when they suffered a 24-21 loss in overtime in Foxborough and a 7-6 loss in a divisional playoff game at Pittsburgh.

Happy Anniversary? The Patriots hope to celebrate the Grand Opening of Gillette Stadium with a victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers on the 42nd anniversary of their first regular season game in franchise history. On Sept. 9, 1960, the Patriots hosted the AFL's Denver Broncos at Boston University's Nickerson Field before a crowd of 21,597 fans.

Preseason: The Patriots finished the preseason 3-1 with a 28-14 victory over the Washington Redskins. This preseason marks the 11th time they have recorded a .750 winning percentage or better. Following eight of those preseasons, they earned a winning record and qualified for the playoffs six times, including two visits to the Super Bowl (XXXI and XXXVI).

How's That For Starters: Patriots have won six of their last eight games when they opened the season at home. They have opened the season at home 24 times in their 42-year history and have a 12-12 record.

Home Sweet Home: The Patriots have won six consecutive games at home, including their two preseason games this season. Their last loss at home was on Nov. 18, 2001, when the Rams defeated the Patriots 24-17. Foxborough has been a wonderful home to the Patriots since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. The team has compiled a 56-28 (.667) overall record at home during that time span.

PATRIOTS OPENING UP IN NEW STADIUMS

This week's season opener against the Steelers at Gillette Stadium will be the sixth time the Patriots have opened a new home stadium. They have a 4-1 record in their previous five open houses.

DATE	W/L	SCORE	NEW STADIUM

PATRIOTS AND STEELERS SERIES RESULTS

SERIES HISTORY

This week's game will be the first meeting between New England and Pittsburgh since the Patriots defeated the Steelers 24-17 in the AFC Championship at Heinz Field. The Steelers lead the overall series 12-6, but the Patriots have won the last two and three of the last five meetings in the series. This week's game will be only the fifth time in the 18 games of the series they will meet in Foxboro. This will be the second time they have met to open a season. The Steelers defeated the Patriots 16-13 in overtime in a game that was also on Monday Night Football on Sept. 3, 1979.

THE LAST MEETING – (Patriots 24-Steelers 17)

The last time these two teams met was in last year's AFC Championship game. The Patriots defense recorded four turnovers and their special teams scored two touchdowns as they defeated the Steelers 24-17 at Heinz Field. The Patriots opened the scoring with 55-yard punt return for a touchdown by Troy Brown. New England scored a second touchdown in the second quarter and led 14-3 at the half. The Patriots special teams added their second score of the game when Brown scooped up a blocked field goal and then lateralled to Antwan Harris who ran the ball 49 yards for the score. The New England defense limited the Steeler running game to only 58 yards and held Jerome Bettis to eight yards on nine carries. Their secondary was also strong, recorded three interceptions, including two in the final 2:54.

XVII	Washington	Lost Super Bowl
XXIII	San Francisco	Won Super Bowl
XXVII	Dallas	Won Super Bowl
XXXI	Green Bay	Lost Super Bowl
XXXII	Denver	Won Super Bowl
XXXVI	New England	?????

WINNING WAYS

With their 20-17 victory over the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, the Patriots increased their current winning streak to nine games. Including postseason games, it is the longest streak in franchise history. Their streak started with a 34-17 win against the New Orleans Saints on Nov. 25. Their last loss came against the St. Louis Rams on Nov. 18, 2001.

Wins	Dates
9	Nov. 27, 2001 - ?
7	Nov. 3, 1994 - Dec. 24, 1994
	Oct. 19, 1986 - Nov. 30, 1986
	Sept. 24, 1978 - Nov. 5, 1978

TURN, TURN, TURN

The Patriots finished the 2001 season with a +7 turnover ratio and ranked fourth in the AFC. They earned a 9-1 record when they recorded a positive turnover ratio during the 2001 season, including the playoffs and are 36-10 since 1996. During their season-ending nine-game winning streak, the Patriots had a +16 turnover ratio. The Patriots have finished 17 seasons with a positive turnover ratio and in 16 of those seasons they had a winning record.

THE LAST TIME THE PATRIOTS OPENED A STADIUM

It was Sept. 19, 1971, when the Patriots hosted the Oakland Raiders in the first game at the brand new Schaefer Stadium in Foxboro, Mass. The Patriots were victorious, 20-6, over the Raiders. The stadium closed last season in the same fashion in which it was opened, with a victory over the Raiders (16-13 in overtime). The Patriots have played in 242 games in Foxborough and have 137-105 home record. Here are some facts about the year 1971, the first season the Patriots spent in their first "new" home:

- President Richard Nixon was nearing the end of his first term as the President of the United States. He was voted the 37th president in 1969.
- The Twenty-sixth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution was ratified to lower voting age to 18.
- "All in the Family" won an Emmy for Outstanding Comedy Series.
- "You've Got a Friend" by James Taylor and Carol King won a Grammy for song of the year.
- "The French Connection" won an Oscar for best picture and Gene Hackman earned an Oscar for best actor.
- "The Theme from Shaft" by Isaac Hayes won an Oscar for best song.
- A half gallon of milk cost 46 cents in 1971 (1.99 in 2002)
- A loaf of bread cost 34 cents in 1971 (1.50 in 2002).
- Only seven of the 64 Patriots were alive in 1971 (as of 8/31).
- Only four of the 61 Steelers were alive in 1971 (as of 8/31)
- Patriots head coach Bill Belichick was entering his freshman year at Wesleyan University.
- Steelers head coach Bill Cowher was a freshman in high school at Carlynton (Pittsburgh, Pa.) High.

REALIGNMENT FOR THE 2002 SEASON

The "new-look" NFL - now with East, North, South and West divisions in both the American and National Conferences - has been realigned for the first time since 1970. The Patriots will stay in the AFC East with the Bills, Dolphins, and Jets while the Colts will move to the AFC South. The new divisions are as follows:

AFC
East	West	North	South
Buffalo	Denver	Baltimore	Houston
Miami	Kansas City	Cincinnati	Indianapolis
New England	Oakland	Cleveland	Jacksonville
NY Jets	San Diego	Pittsburgh	Tennessee

NFC
East	West	North	South
Dallas	Arizona	Chicago	Atlanta
NY Giants	St. Louis	Detroit	Carolina
Philadelphia	San Francisco	Green Bay	New Orleans
Washington	Seattle	Minnesota	Tampa Bay

OPENING AT HOME

The Patriots have won six of their last eight games when they opened the season at home. They have opened the season at home 24 times in their 42-year history and have a 12-12 record.

OPENING ON MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

The Patriots have opened the season twice before on Monday Night Football and they lost both contests. In each game, the Patriots faced the previous season's Super Bowl Champion. In 1979 they were defeated 19-16 in overtime by the Pittsburgh Steelers who were coming off of a victory in Super Bowl XIII. In 1998, they traveled to Denver and fell 27-21 to the Super Bowl XXXII champions.

GAME RECAP –PATRIOTS 28, REDSKINS 14

GAME RECAP

The Patriots traveled to FedEx Field and delivered the Redskins their first defeat of the preseason, 28-14, in their preseason finale. New England finished 3-1 on the preseason, while the Washington closed out with a 4-1 record. The Patriots defense limited the Redskins, who were averaging 37.5 points per game, to only two second half touchdowns.

The Patriots put the game away in the second quarter when they scored three touchdowns, including two by rookie tight end Daniel Graham. The Redskins were kept out of the end zone and limited to only 62 total yards in the first two quarters of play.

New England opened the scoring with an Antowain Smith 1-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. The drive covered 80 yards on 14 plays and gave the Patriots a lead they would not relinquish.

Later in the quarter, Kevin Faulk returned a punt 45 yards, to the Redskin 19 yard-line and put the Patriots inside the red zone. Three plays later, quarterback Damon Huard connected with Graham for a 13-yard touchdown reception, increasing their lead to 14-0. Graham barreled into the end zone after running through two Redskin defenders after making the catch.

The Patriots regained possession with 2:53 remaining in the half and Huard led them 66 yard on 13 plays into the end zone. He connected with Graham again, this time on a 2-yard diving score with only 18 second remaining in the half. Huard finished the preseason as the Patriots leading passer with a rating of 108.9.

The Patriots defense also shined in the first half, limiting the Redskins offense to just 62 total yards. They sacked quarterback Danny Wuerffel five times and stripped him of the football four times. Both Mike Vrabel and rookie Jarvis Green recorded two sacks apiece.

In the second half the two teams traded possessions until the Redskins got on the board with a 37-yard touchdown pass from Shane Matthews to Darnerien McCants.

The Patriots struck right back following a 44-yard kickoff return by Faulk, driving 57 yards on five plays and put another score up on the board. Rookie quarterback Rohan Davey completed his first touchdown pass of the preseason, a 36-yard pass to wide receiver Fred Coleman. The Patriots increased their lead to 28-7. Washington added a late touchdown to make the final 28-14.

BILL BELICHICK IN THE PRESEASON

Bill Belichick has compiled an overall record of 18-11 (.621) in the preseason, including a 9-4 mark as Patriots head coach. Belichick's teams have been .500 or above in all eight of his preseasons as a head coach in the NFL.

PATRIOTS IN THE PRESEASON

New England holds an 83-111-1 (.428) all-time preseason record, including last week's 28-14 victory over the Redskins. The Patriots have had winning records in seven of their last nine seasons, totaling a record of 24-15-0 (.615). Prior to 2000, the Patriots had qualified for the playoffs in every year that they had a winning record in the preseason, dating back to the 1986 season. Last year, they jumped on the same track with a 3-1 preseason record and their first trip to the playoffs in three years.

PRESEASON PREMONITIONS?

The Patriots won three of four games this past preseason for the second straight year, earning a .750 winning percentage. New England has finished with at least a .750 winning percentage in 10 previous preseasons. Following eight of those preseasons they earned a winning record and qualified for the playoffs six times, including two visits to the Super Bowl.

PRESEASON FINALES

The Patriots have won their last three preseason finales and six of their last seven. They finished the preseason 3-1 after their 28-14 victory over the Redskins. It was the seventh time in the past nine years they have finished the preseason with a winning record.

ROOKIES GET RAVE REVIEWS

The Patriots rookie class shined during the final tune-up last week against the Redskins. First-round draft pick, tight end Daniel Graham led all Patriots receivers with four catches, including two for touchdowns. He barreled into the end zone from 13 yards out, running over two Redskin defenders in the process for his first score. Graham then closed out the scoring in the first half with a diving 2-yard reception in the end zone.

Quarterback Rohan Davey, who was the first of two Patriots picks in the fourth round of the 2002 draft, completed his first touchdown pass of the preseason when he hooked up with Fred Coleman on the first play of the fourth quarter. Davey, who played the entire second half, completed 4-of-11 passes for 76 yards, one touchdown and one interception. The Patriots other fourth-round pick, defensive tackle Jarvis Green, collected two sacks, increasing his total to three during the preseason, tops on the team.

SACK ATTACK

The Patriots defense sacked Redskin quarterback Danny Wuerffel five times and forced him to fumble on four of those sacks. Mike Vrabel and Jarvis Green led the charge with two sacks apiece and defensive tackle Steve Martin recorded the fifth sack. They finished the preseason with 14 sacks, an average of 3.5 per game. If they hold that sack rate during the regular season, they would finish with 56 sacks. Last year, they recorded 41 sacks. The last time they had 50 or more sacks was 51 in 1985.

THE RETURNS ARE IN...

The Patriots special teams was up to its old tricks last week, recording three returns of 44 yards or more against the Redskins. Kevin Faulk recorded two of the three, a 44-yard kickoff return and a 45-yard punt return. Each return yielded great field position for the Patriots offense and ultimately resulted in touchdowns for the team. Troy Brown recorded the longest return of the game, bringing a punt back 47 yards in the first quarter.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Last season, Tom Brady became the only quarterback in franchise history to win 11 of his first 14 regular season starts as a Patriot. Vito "Babe" Parilli ranks second in Patriots annals with 10 wins in his first 14 starts. Brady currently ranks second among current starting quarterbacks with a .786 winning percentage.

THEY SAID IT - Hall of famer Jim Kelly on Tom Brady:

"Two things he did impressed me last season: No. 1, to see him throw the football against the Raiders [in the AFC Divisional Playoff game] where he put the ball on a rope in a snowstorm, and secondly, to do what he did in the Super Bowl on that last drive told me that the guy is for real."

CATCHING ON

Patriots wide receiver Troy Brown needs only nine catches to move past Terry Glenn (329 catches) into fourth place on the Patriots all-time receiving list. He also needs 43 catches to move past Irving Fryar (363) into third place on the Patriots receiving list. Brown established a Patriots franchise record with 101 catches during the 2001 season.

PATIENCE IS A VIRTUE

Brown earned the first 1,000-yard receiving season of his nine-year playing career in 2000 and established a Patriots franchise record with 101 catches. His 1,199 receiving yards rank second in Patriots history behind Stanley Morgan's 1,491. Brown's nine seasons before his first 1,000-yard season tie him for the second-longest streak in NFL history.

MR. SMITH GOES TO FOXBORO

Patriots running back Antowain Smith eclipsed the 100-yard mark in four games during the 2001 season (11 for his career), including a career-high 156 yards vs. Miami (12/22/01). It was the most by a Patriots running back since Robert Edwards recorded four 100-yard games in 1998. The Patriots had a 4-0 record when he rushed for over 100 yards in 2001 and his teams are now 10-1 in those games during his career.

DEFENSIVE-SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

ANYONE CALL A LAWYER?

Milloy has been a constant on the Patriots defense since he was drafted in 1996, playing in all 96 games, including 80 consecutive starts. Milloy needs just four starts to become only the fourth player in Patriots history to hold a consecutive games played streak of 100 games or more (K/WR Gino Cappelletti, 152; Len St. Jean, 140; and Bob Dee, 112).

Milloy led the defense with 113 tackles in 2001, marking the fifth consecutive season he has surpassed 100 tackles. It was also the fourth consecutive season he led the team in tackles.

LAW AND ORDER

Law will begin the 2002 season needing only three interceptions to move past Maurice Hurst (27 interceptions) into sixth place and four interceptions to move past Mike Haynes (28) into fifth place. If he records five, he will move past Ron Hall, Roland James and Fred Marion (all 29) into second place on the Patriots all-time list. Law has averaged almost four interceptions a season during his seven-year career.

CLUTCH KICKER

Vinatieri became the first kicker in Super Bowl history to kick a game-winning field goal on the final play of the game. His Super Bowl-winning 48-yard field goal against the Rams was also the longest kick in Patriots postseason history.

Vinatieri kicked four field goals during the 2001 season in the final minute of the fourth quarter or in overtime to give his team the victory, increasing his career total to 12. Against the Raiders in last season's Divisional playoff game, Vinatieri boomed a 45-yard kick with 27 seconds remaining in regulation to tie the game at 13 and send it into overtime. In the extra session he nailed a 23-yard field goal, giving the Patriots a 16-13 victory. Half of his game-winning kicks (six) have come in overtime, including three in 2001. His game-winning kicks are listed below:
