NEW ENGLAND (4-4) TRAVELS TO CHAMPAIGN, ILLINOIS TO FACE THE CHICAGO BEARS (2-6)

This Week: The New England Patriots (4-4) will travel to Champaign, Ill. to face the Chicago Bears (2-6) at Memorial Stadium (70,904 capacity) on Nov. 10 at 4:15 p.m. This will be the Patriots second of four meetings against the NFC this season. It will also be the second game of the Patriots three-game road trip.

Television: This week's game will be broadcast nationally on CBS (locally on WBZ Channel 4). The play-by-play duties will be handled by Kevin Harlan, who will be joined in the booth by Randy Cross. Beasley Reece will provide sideline reports throughout the game.

Radio: Every Patriots game can be heard in stereo on the Patriots official flagship station WBCN 104.1 FM. Gil Santos, now in his 26th season as the voice of the Patriots, will call the game along with Patriots Hall of Famer Gino Cappelletti, who will provide in-depth analysis for his 22nd season. A complete list of the Patriots WBCN Rock Radio Network can be found on pages 462-463 of the 2002 Patriots media guide or at www.patriots.com.

National Radio: This week's game can also be heard nationally on CBS Radio. Dave Sims and Rick Walker will be calling all the action.

All Aboard the Patriots A-Train: Patriots running back Antowain Smith recorded his first 100-yard game of the season, gaining 111 yards 29 carries (3.8 avg.) last week against Buffalo. It was Smith's 12th 100-yard rushing game (fifth with the Patriots) during his career and his teams have registered an 11-1 record, including a 5-0 record with the Patriots. Smith has gained 80 more yards through eight games this year (554), than he did last year (474), on the same amount of carries (128).

Three's Company: The Patriots have converted 46.7% of their third downs this season and rank first in the AFC and fourth in the NFL. The ability of the Patriots to convert their third downs on offense, while limiting their opponents conversions, has been a major factor in their wins and losses this season. In their four victories, the Patriots converted over half their attempts 53.4% (31-58), while they have only done so on 38.8% (19-49) in their four losses. Defensively, they have been very stingy on third downs in their victories, allowing only 31.3% (15-48), but have yielded half (28-56) in their losses.

On the Road Again: The Patriots will continue their three-game road trip when they travel to Champaign, Ill. this weekend to face the Bears. The Patriots will conclude their trip next week when they travel to Oakland to face the Raiders. The road trip, which will cover 7,872 miles, is the longest road streak this year in the NFL.

TOMMY GUN

Patriots quarterback Tom Brady recorded one of the most complete games in Patriots history last week against the Bills. He established franchise highs with an 85.2 completion percentage and a 154.1 quarterback rating. Brady also passed for 310 yards and four touchdowns in their 38-7 victory. He now owns three of the top five quarterback ratings (see below) and two of the top five completion percentages in Patriots single-game history (min. of 20 attempts).

Brady leads the NFL with 19 touchdown passes this season and has already eclipsed the number of touchdown passes he recorded last season (18). He has thrown a touchdown in the last 10 games, equaling the fourth-longest streak in franchise history.

DID YOU KNOW?

The last time New England played at a college stadium was on Oct. 22, 1989 when the San Francisco 49ers hosted the Patriots. The game was played at Stanford Stadium in Palo, Alto Calif. because of an earthquake that hit the Bay area on Tuesday, October 17, at 5:04 p.m. The Patriots were defeated by the 49ers 37-20. Patriots quarterback Steve Grogan threw for a game-high 240 yards and two touchdowns, including a 50-yard strike to Stanley Morgan. The 49ers used two quarterbacks in the game, Joe Montana and Steve Young, while current Oakland Raider Jerry Rice caught a touchdown pass from each quarterback.

BRADY VS. ILLINOIS

Patriots quarterback Tom Brady played at Michigan from 1997-1999 but never played at Illinois' Memorial stadium. He did however play one game against Illinois in Ann Arbor. Michigan fell to the Fighting Illini, 35-29 and Brady went 23-38 for 307 yards and two touchdowns. Brady completed four passes to current Chicago Bear David Terrell and current Bear and former Wolverine, Anthony Thomas rushed for 128 yards on 21 carries including two touchdowns.

ARTIFICIAL TURF

This week's game will be the Patriots second consecutive game they've played on artificial turf. The Patriots have won their last six games on turf, including the playoffs. Their last loss on artificial turf was at Detroit on Thanksgiving (11/23/00).

LAST TIME

The Patriots dropped a 24-17 decision to the Bears at Soldier Field on Dec. 5, 2000. It was one of their 13 games of the season decided by eight points or less. The Bears began the scoring with a 24-yard field goal on their opening possession. The Patriots responded in the second quarter with a 12-yard touchdown pass and grabbed a 7-3 lead. The Patriots capitalized on a takeaway later in the quarter with an Adam Vinatieri field goal. The Bears evened the score at 10 with a touchdown right before the half. Chicago drove 64 yards on their opening drive of the second half and took a 17-10 lead on a 16-yard touchdown run. They added to their lead early in the fourth quarter on a 6-yard touchdown pass, 24-10. New England answered with a touchdown strike of their own, but fell short, 24-17.

GAME RECAP – PATRIOTS 38, BILLS 7

GAME RECAP

The New England Patriots traveled to Buffalo and defeated the Bills, 38-7 last weekend. The Patriots 31-point victory equaled their largest margin of victory in the series (52-21 in 1961 and 31-0 in 1983). Four of their previous five meetings had been decided in overtime.

The win was also the Patriots 45th against the Bills, their most against any opponent and it extended their current winning streak against the Bills to four.

Patriots running back Antowain Smith eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the first time this season with 111 yards on 29 carries. It was the 12th time in his career, including five times with the Patriots. Smith also scored three touchdowns, two receiving and one rushing. It was the his third three-touchdown performance of his career. Tom Brady also performed well against the Bills, completing 23 of 27 passes (franchise best 85.2 percent completion rate) for 310 yards and four touchdowns.

New England started with a bang on their opening drive, moving 68 yards on eight plays and scored on a 5-yard pass from Brady to Christian Fauria. It was the second time this season the Patriots opened the game with a touchdown on their first possession of the game (at San Diego).

The Bills moved into scoring position on their first drive, making it all the way to the Patriots 18-yard line. However, on third-and-two for the Bills, Patriots linebacker Ted Johnson sacked Drew Bledsoe for a 14-yard loss and moved them back to the 32-yard line. Bills kicker Mike Hollis missed his 50-yard field goal attempt on the next play.

New England began another scoring drive late in the first quarter, using four Brady completions and four Smith rushes to move the team downfield. A 13-yard Brady to Smith touchdown pass that capped the drive.

The Patriots defense then forced the Bills to attempt a field goal after driving inside the red zone for the second consecutive time and Hollis missed his second consecutive attempt, this time from 25 yards.

New England responded by driving to the Bills 28-yard line and increasing the lead by three with a Vinatieri 46-yard field goal, 17-0.

Before the half, the Bills drove 80 yards in 16 plays and cut their deficit to 17-7 on a 1-yard touchdown pass from Bledsoe to Peerless Price.

Following a Bills punt on their first drive of the second half, the Patriots trekked 83 yards on eight plays and increased their lead to 24-7 on a 45-yard screen pass for a touchdown from Brady to Kevin Faulk. It was Faulk's third touchdown of the season.

The Patriots offense continued to move the football, gaining 76 yards on 11 plays during their next drive, including a 2-yard touchdown run by Smith. Brady completed five-of-six passes on the drive, including a 31-yarder to rookie tight end Daniel Graham. The score was Smith's second of the game.

The Bills moved the ball down the field on their next drive, but missed a chance to score on a missed 45-yard field goal attempt by Hollis, his third miss of the game.

New England capitalized on their next possession with a 14-yard scoring pass from Brady to Smith for the 38-7 victory.

VERSUS THE AFC EAST

The Patriots have recorded an 8-1 record against their AFC East rivals in their last nine meetings, including a 2-1 record this year. The Patriots have played all three divisional games on the road this season and will conclude their regular season with three of their last four games at home against AFC East rivals.

POINT OUTAGE

The Bills entered last week's game averaging 30.1 points per game over their first eight games, scoring at least 23 points in each game this season. The Patriots defense held the Bills offense to just seven points, equaling the Patriots fewest points allowed this year (7, at N.Y. Jets 9/15/02).

THIRD DOWN CONVERSION RATE

In the Patriots victory against the Bills, New England converted 67 percent of their third downs (8-12), their highest total of the season. It was also their highest total since they converted 67 percent at Miami (12/28/87). Defensively, the Patriots limited the Bills to 36 percent conversion rate (4-11) on third down.

Third down conversion rates have been a telling statistic in the Patriots wins and losses this season. In their four victories, the Patriots converted over half their attempts .534 (31-58), while they have only done so on .388 (19-49) in their four losses. Defensively, they have been very stingy on third downs in their victories allowing only .313 (15-48), but have yielded half (28-56) in their losses.

CHRISTIAN FAURIA

The Patriots tight end caught his fourth touchdown pass of the season, and the second in as many weeks, on the Patriots opening drive of the game last week. Fauria leads all Patriots receivers with four touchdown grabs this season. His previous high was two touchdown receptions, which he set in both 1998 and 2000 with Seattle.

Fauria leads all Patriots tight ends with 16 catches for 132 yards (8.3 avg.) and four touchdowns. Through the first eight games of this season, the Patriots tight ends have eclipsed all receiving totals of their 2001 counterparts (see below).

2002 TE Totals	35	303	8.7	31	6

DANIEL GRAHAM

The Patriots rookie tight end caught a career-high three passes for 68 yards against the Bills. It was his first game back after missing three with an injured shoulder. Graham recorded receptions of 31 and 22 yards against the Bills.

SACK ATTACK

The Patriots recorded four sacks against the Bills, their third-highest sack total of the season. Their highs were five in each of their first two games of the season (vs. Pittsburgh, 9/9 and at N.Y. Jets, 9/15).

TED JOHNSON

Recorded his first sack of the season, dropping Drew Bledsoe for a 14-yard loss in the first quarter. It was Johnson's first full sack since Jan. 2, 2000 vs. Baltimore. Johnson has also recorded half sacks at Pittsburgh (1/27/02 – AFC Championship Game) and at Miami (9/24/01).

RICHARD SEYMOUR

Recorded his third sack of the season and the sixth of his career. an 8-yard sack of Bledsoe in the second quarter. It equaled his single-season high of three he set last year.

WILLIE MCGINEST

Sacked Bledsoe for an 8-yard loss in the second quarter. It was his fourth of the season, which leads the team. McGinest ranks fourth in Patriots history with 55.5 career sacks.

The Patriots are also tied with Indianapolis and Oakland for second in the NFL, behind Buffalo (10) in 100-yard receiving games in the NFL.

TOP ROOK

Patriots wide receiver Deion Branch earned AFC Rookie of the Month honors for September to become the first Patriot to earn the honor. Branch leads all NFL rookies with 37 catches and 408 yards receiving. Below is a comparison of Branch and the 10 receivers taken before him in the 2002 draft.
