NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (3-0) vs. MIAMI DOLPHINS (0-4)

Sunday, October 10, 2004 ★ Gillette Stadium (68,756) ★ 1:00 p.m. EDT

The New England Patriots will return to Gillette Stadium for the first time in a month when they play host to the Miami Dolphins on Oct. 10. New England will try to set a pro football record with its 19th consecutive victory and will bid for the feat against Miami, its division rival and a franchise with which it now shares the all-time record of 18 consecutive wins. But using the week-to-week, game-by-game approach that has proven to be successful 18 consecutive times, the Patriots players and coaches will concentrate simply on coming up with a way to try to beat the Dolphins, leaving the analysis of their accomplishment to the domain of the history books.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

TELEVISION: This week's game will be broadcast on CBS. The game can be seen in Boston on WBZ-TV Channel 4. Dick Enberg will handle the play-by-play duties and Dan Dierdorf will provide analysis. Armen Keteyian will provide reports from the sidelines.

RADIO: WBCN 104.1 FM is the flagship station for the Patriots Rock Radio Network. Play-by-play broadcaster Gil Santos is in his 28th season as the voice of the Patriots and will call the action along with Patriots Hall of Famer Gino Cappelletti. Santos and Cappelletti are celebrating their 21st season as a broadcast tandem.

NATIONAL RADIO: The game will be broadcast nationally by Westwood One. Dave Sims and Jack Ham will call the action from Gillette Stadium.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Patriots enter this week's game sporting a 16-3 (.842) all-time record at Gillette Stadium, including regular-season and postseason games. New England has won an NFL-best 12 consecutive regular-season and postseason contests at home, with its last defeat coming in a 30-14 regular-season loss to the New York Jets on Dec. 22, 2002. Last season, the Patriots were undefeated at home for the first time in team history, winning all eight regular-season games and two postseason games in Foxborough. The Patriots' .842 winning percentage at Gillette Stadium is the highest of any NFL team at its current home stadium.

RECORD STREAK

The Patriots have won 18 consecutive regular-season and postseason games, tying the all-time pro football record for consecutive victories. The Patriots have not lost a meaningful game in more than a year, and have become the seventh team in history to compile an 18-game winning streak including regular-season and postseason games. New England won its final 15 games of the 2003 season en route to a victory in Super Bowl XXXVIII, and has begun the 2004 season with a 3-0 record. The last time the Patriots lost a game was on Sept. 28, 2003, when they dropped a 20-17 decision on the road to Washington. When New England takes the field against Miami, 377 days will have passed since its last loss.

THIS WEEK: PATRIOTS VS. DOLPHINS

SERIES HISTORY

The New England Patriots and Miami Dolphins will meet for the 78th time in their history this weekend, and for the 39th year as division foes. New England trails in the overall series, 45-32 including the postseason, but the Patriots swept both matchups in 2003 and split the season series in 2001 and 2002. In all, the teams have managed 19 series splits in the 36 seasons in which they have played twice. The Patriots have won three out of the last four matchups and seven of the last nine games played in Foxborough. Last season, two of the Patriots' most memorable wins came over the Dolphins, as New England pulled out a dramatic 19-13 overtime victory in Miami and posted a 12-0 shutout at Gillette Stadium to clinch the AFC East title. The Patriots have also experienced success over the Dolphins in the playoffs, holding a 2-1 advantage, including wins in the 1997 Wild Card round and in the 1985 AFC Championship at the Orange Bowl.

The complete listing of the results of the 77 games between the Patriots and Dolphins can be found on page 346 of the 2004 Patriots Media Guide.

BEAST OF THE EAST

The Patriots have recorded the best divisional record among AFC East teams over the last three seasons. Since 2001, the Patriots are 16-5 against divisional opposition, including a 15-3 record in their last 18 games. Over the same three-year time span, the Miami Dolphins and New York Jets are tied for second with identical 11-10 records, while the Buffalo Bills have compiled a 5-16 record. The Patriots have won six straight division games.

QUICK HITS

- The three points scored in the Patriots' 3-0 victory over the Dolphins in the "Snow Plow Game" at Schaefer Stadium on Dec. 12, 1982 stands as the fewest combined points scored in a game in franchise history.
- Last season's game against the Dolphins at Gillette Stadium on Dec. 7, 2003 was the sixth-coldest game in franchise history with a game-time temperature of 28 degrees.
- Bill Belichick and Dave Wannstedt have split the series at an even 4-4 since becoming head coaches of the Patriots and Dolphins in 2000. They also hold identical career head coaching records against the other team (4-6).
- The Patriots will host the Dolphins in Foxborough during the month of October for the first time since 1999. Prior to this season, each of Miami's last four trips to New England took place in December.
- Two of the last three games between the teams have gone into overtime.

LAST SEASON'S SERIES

Patriots 12, Miami 0

December 7, 2003 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,436)

The Patriots clinched the seventh division title in team history with a 12-0 shutout over the Dolphins in front of an enthusiastic crowd that braved a record snowstorm that saw 30 inches of snow blanket the Foxborough area. The Patriots posted their second straight shutout at Gillette Stadium and did not allow a touchdown for the fourth consecutive home game.

New England got on the board with less than two minutes remaining in the first quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri to put the Patriots up 3-0. However, a defensive battle saw neither team score for the next two quarters as the Patriots and Dolphins fought back and forth in an offensive stalemate. New England's defense finally broke through in the fourth quarter to add points to the Patriots' side of the board on a 5-yard interception return for touchdown by linebacker Tedy Bruschi. With just over a minute remaining in the game, the Patriots defense struck again, with Jarvis Green sacking Miami quarterback Jay Fiedler in the end zone for a safety, sealing New England's 12-0 win and the AFC East crown.

Patriots 19, Dolphins 13 (OT)

October 19, 2004 ★ Pro Player Stadium (Att: 73,650)

The Patriots came up with one of the most dramatic endings of the 2004 NFL season, defeating the Dolphins 19-13 in overtime at Pro Player Stadium. Tom Brady found a streaking Troy Brown for an 82-yard touchdown with 5:45 left in the extra frame to give the Patriots their first win in Miami since 1997. The victory broke a five-game skid against the Dolphins in Miami and moved the Patriots into first place in the AFC East, a position they would not relinquish for the remainder of the season.

The first three quarters were a back-and-forth affair, with New England taking an early 3-0 lead and Miami bringing a 10-6 advantage into halftime. A third-quarter field goal gave Miami a 13-6 cushion, but as the fourth quarter loomed, the Patriots tied it up. David Givens hauled in a 24-yard touchdown pass from Brady to make the score 13-13 going into the fourth.

Each team exchanged two punts to start the quarter before Miami put together a 73-yard drive to give kicker Olindo Mare a shot at a 35-yard field goal to put the Dolphins in front with two minutes to go. But Richard Seymour came up with a big play, blocking the field goal to send the game into overtime.

In the extra session, the Dolphins won the toss and drove down the field to give Mare another shot at a 35-yarder to win the game. But the Miami kicker pushed the ball wide right and the Patriots took advantage of their new opportunity. After a Patriots punt gave the Dolphins the ball back, Miami was again driving just past midfield when Tyrone Poole intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass to give the Patriots the ball again. On the very next play, Brady threw the bomb to Brown, who beat Miami safeties Sammy Knight and Brock Marion to scamper into the end zone and send the Patriots home victorious.

- Miami assistant defensive line coach Glenn Pires was the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State in 1995, working under Patriots linebackers coach Deen Pees who was the Spartans' defensive coordinator from 1995-97.
- Patriots strength and conditioning coach Mike Woicik held the same position for the New Orleans Saints from 1997-99, while Miami offensive quality control/receivers coach Judd Garrett was an offensive assistant for the Saints during the same time period.
- Patriots tight end Jed Weaver started 11 games for the Dolphins from 2000-02, catching 18 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns in 2001.

PASSING PERFORMANCES

Tom Brady and Jay Fiedler are scheduled to match up at quarterback for the seventh time. Brady and the Patriots have taken all three of the meetings in Foxborough, while Fiedler and the Dolphins have taken two of the three battles between the quarterbacks in Miami. Brady and the Patriots have won four of the last five matchups between the signal callers, including the last three clashes.

THIS WEEK IN PATRIOTS HISTORY

October 4 – October 10

October 10, 1961: Mike Holovak replaces Lou Saban as head coach.

October 8, 1967: In a game moved to San Diego due to the 1967 World Series at Fenway Park, the Boston Patriots and San Diego Chargers fought to a 31-31 tie. It was the ninth tie in franchise history, and the Patriots have not tied a game since. New England is currently working on a 561-game streak without a tie.

October 6, 1974: The Patriots improve to 4-0 on the season with a 42-3 win over the Baltimore Colts at Schaefer Stadium. The 39-point victory is the fourth-largest in team history.

October 10, 1993: Head Coach Bill Parcells and quarterback Drew Bledsoe each record their first victory in New England as the Patriots defeat the Phoenix Cardinals 23-21 at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Ariz.

October 6, 1996: The Patriots score the most points by a New England team since 1984 and gain a 46-38 shootout win over the Baltimore Ravens at Memorial Stadium. To date, the 46 points are the most scored by a Patriots team in 20 years.

October 5, 2003: The Patriots defeat the Tennessee Titans 38-30 at Gillette Stadium to kick off their 15-game winning streak en route to a Super Bowl XXXVIII win.

PATRIOTS MEDIA WEB SITE

The New England Patriots' media-only Web site, located at <http://media.patriots.com>, will be updated for registered users throughout the season with all of the latest media information, schedules, rosters and press releases. Additionally, the site's archives allow access to all of the Patriots media materials and press released from the 2002 and 2003 seasons. The media site will also serve as the team's exclusive credentialing system in 2004.

WEEK 3: PATRIOTS 31, BILLS 17

PATRIOTS 31, BILLS 17

October 3, 2004 ★ Ralph Wilson Stadium (Att: 72,698)

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	10	7	0	14	— 31
Buffalo Bills	10	7	0	0	— 17

The Patriots won their record-tying 18th consecutive game and improved to 3-0 on the season with a 31-17 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Orchard Park, N.Y. New England was able to avenge last year's 31-0 loss in the season opener and improve to 14-6 against the Bills in the last 20 meetings between the teams.

Patriots quarterback Tom Brady nearly reached the 300-yard benchmark, finishing the day with 298 yards on 17-of-30 passing, while throwing for two touchdowns and compiling a passer rating of 112.9. Brady's favorite target on the afternoon was David Patten, who led all Patriots receivers with five catches for 113 yards, marking the second consecutive game in which the Patriots have had a 100-yard receiver. Wideout David Givens continued his strong start to the season, grabbing four balls for 86 yards, while running back Corey Dillon also turned in a strong performance, gaining 79 yards on 19 carries and scoring his first touchdown in a Patriots uniform.

Defensively, the Patriots played another solid game, sacking Bills quarterback Drew Bledsoe seven times and forcing two turnovers. The New England defense kept Buffalo off of the board in the second half and also produced the Patriots' first defensive score of the season on a 68-yard fumble return by Richard Seymour that iced the game. Tedy Bruschi tied for the team lead with seven tackles (4 solo), and also recorded two sacks and forced the fumble that Seymour scooped up and returned for a touchdown.

The first quarter was an offensive shootout, with each team scoring 10 points. New England started the barrage with a 9-play, 77-yard opening drive that ended in a 2-yard touchdown run from Dillon and a 7-0 Patriots lead. The teams then traded field goals before Buffalo's Terrence McGee returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 10 as the quarter wound down.

Defense ruled the day for the first part of the second quarter, as the teams exchanged turnovers. New England's Tyrone Poole recorded his first interception of the season when he picked off a Bledsoe pass at midfield after Buffalo was poised with good field position. The Patriots proceeded to drive down to the Buffalo 2-yard line and were on the verge of taking the lead when Dillon coughed up the ball for his first fumble since the 2002 season, giving the Bills the ball deep in Patriots territory. Bledsoe and his charges wasted little time in capitalizing, driving 96 yards on just six plays to take a 17-10 lead on a 41-yard touchdown bomb from Bledsoe to Eric Moulds. New England faced up to the challenge, though, as it used the ensuing drive to go 61 yards on six plays and tie the score on a 30-yard scoring pass from Brady to Patten and tie the score at 17 heading into halftime.

Neither team could find an offensive rhythm for much of the third quarter, as the Bills punted twice and the Patriots kicked once. New England gained possession at its own 20-yard line with 2:14 left in the quarter and proceeded to embark on what would prove to be the game-winning drive. It took 12 plays and five minutes, 57 seconds of clock time, but the Patriots methodically marched down the field on an 80-yard drive, ending in a 2-yard touchdown catch by Daniel Graham to gain a 24-17 advantage with 11:17 left in the game. The teams then traded punts before the Bills mounted a comeback bid in the game's final five minutes. Buffalo penetrated the Patriots red zone, but faced a fourth-and-three from the New England 17-yard line with three minutes left in the game. With the game hanging the balance, Bruschi penetrated through the Buffalo line and sacked Bledsoe, forcing a fumble that Seymour brought 68 yards to the end zone to give the Patriots a decisive 31-17 advantage. The Patriots defense snuffed out Buffalo's last bid for a score and improved to 3-0 on the young season.

BRADY REACHES MILESTONE

TOM BRADY recorded the 1,000th completion of his career on a 13-yard toss to Corey Dillon in the first quarter. Brady becomes the fourth Patriots passer to join the 1,000-completion club, joining Drew Bledsoe (2,544), Steve Grogan (1,879) and Vito "Babe" Parilli (1,140).

PATTEN'S 100-YARD DAY

DAVID PATTEN caught five passes for 113 yards, marking the sixth time he has reached the century mark in a game in his career, and the second consecutive game that the Patriots have produced a 100-yard receiver (David Givens, 120 yards at Arizona). Patten recorded four catches for 101 yards in the first half, including a 30-yard touchdown grab with 1:28 left in the half. Patten's score was his second touchdown in as many games, giving him two for the season and 15 for his career. The last time Patten passed the 100-yard receiving mark was on Oct. 6, 2002, when he snared five passes for 102 yards at Miami.

"BIG SEY" SEES THE ZONE

Two-time Pro Bowl defensive lineman RICHARD SEYMOUR scored his first career touchdown, scooping up a Drew Bledsoe fumble caused by Tedy Bruschi and rumbling 68 yards for the score and a decisive 31-17 advantage for the Patriots. Seymour became the first Patriots defensive lineman to score a touchdown since Willie McGinest recovered a fumble in the end zone in a 30-28 win over the New York Jets in the 1999 season opener.

GRAHAM GRABS TDs

DANIEL GRAHAM has grabbed a touchdown pass in four consecutive games, dating back to the 2003 regular-season finale. Against Buffalo, he caught a 2-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady with 11:17 left in the game to give the Patriots a 24-17 lead, giving him a team-leading four touchdowns in three games this season and raising his career total to nine touchdowns. Graham's four consecutive games reaching the end zone is one shy of the Patriots' team record for consecutive games with a touchdown reception.

KEEP OUT

The Bills' opening drive saw them crack the Patriots' 10-yard line, but New England's defense was able to hold Buffalo to a 33-yard Rian Lindell field goal. New England has now kept its opponent out of the end zone on their opening drive in 18 consecutive games. The last time the Patriots allowed their opponent to score a touchdown on their opening drive was in their last trip to Buffalo on Sept. 7, 2003.

FULL TILT, FULL TIME

TEDY BRUSCHI sacked Drew Bledsoe twice, marking his third career multiple-sack game. Bruschi's first sack produced one of the biggest plays of the game, as he rushed in on Bledsoe, sacked him and forced him to fumble as the Bills were driving and looking for a game-tying touchdown late in the fourth quarter. Richard Seymour scooped up the ensuing loose ball and rumbled 68 yards for the game-breaking score, giving New England a 31-17 lead. Bruschi is the third Patriot to record multiple sacks in a game this season (Rodney Harrison and Willie McGinest, two sacks each at Arizona 09/19/04). It is Bruschi's first multiple sack game since he recorded 1.5 sacks against Minnesota on Nov. 24, 2002. His 2.0 sacks ties his career high, set in his rookie season, when he recorded two sacks at Baltimore on Oct. 6, 1996.

STARTING STRONG

The Patriots have begun the season with three consecutive victories for the sixth time in the team's 45-year history. New England was previously 3-0 in 2002, 1999, 1997, 1974 and 1964. The Patriots' longest winning streak to begin a season came in 1974, when they won the season's first five games.

DILLON: RARE MISCUE

COREY DILLON's second-quarter fumble was his first fumble in 229 touches, dating back to the 2002 season. Before the Buffalo game, the last time Dillon fumbled was on Dec. 22, 2002, when he coughed the ball up in the first quarter while playing for Cincinnati in a game at New Orleans. Since that fumble, Dillon had recorded 212 rushes and 17 receptions without fumbling.

OFFENSE FROM DEFENSE

RICHARD SEYMOUR's fumble return was the Patriots' first defensive touchdown of the season and New England's first touchdown on a fumble recovery since Matt Chatham recorded a 38-yard scoop-and-score in a 17-6 win over the New York Giants at Gillette Stadium on Oct. 12, 2003. Last season, the Patriots led the NFL with six defensive touchdowns and were 6-0 in games in which they scored on defense. Including their win over the Bills, the Patriots are now 13-2 in their last 15 games in which they scored a defensive touchdown, dating back to 1999.

OPENING DRIVE

The Patriots scored a touchdown on their opening drive for the first time this season and for the sixth time in their last nine games, as Corey Dillon rumbled into the end zone from 15 yards out to complete a nine-play, 77-yard drive. New England was remarkably proficient on opening drives at the end of last season, reaching the end zone on five of their last six opening drives, including the postseason. Including field goals, the Patriots have put points on the board following their opening drive in eight of their last 11 games, and the Patriots have scored first in each of their last 11 games. The last time the Patriots allowed their opponent to score the first points of the game was at Houston on Nov. 23, 2003, when the Texans jumped out to a 3-0 lead on a 19-yard boot from Kris Brown.

KEY CATCHES

DAVID GIVENS caught a 44-yard pass from Tom Brady in the first quarter as the Patriots faced a first-and-35 on their own 24-yard line. The 44-yard grab was the longest play from scrimmage by Patriots so far this season, and New England's longest play from scrimmage since Givens caught a career-long 57-yard pass from Brady on Nov. 16, 2003 against Dallas. Givens made a leaping grab at Buffalo's 32-yard line, recording the third-longest catch of his career and kick-starting a Patriots touchdown drive that ended in a 15-yard run by Corey Dillon.

DILLON DOMINATES

COREY DILLON scored the first touchdown of his Patriots career on a 15-yard run up the middle to cap off the Patriots' first scoring drive and give New England a 7-0 lead. It was the Patriots' first touchdown run of over 10 yards in nearly a year. The last time New England ran the ball in from more than 10 yards out was on Oct. 5, 2003, when Michael Cloud scampered 15 yards to the end zone in a 38-30 win over Tennessee.

TOUCHDOWN RETURN

Buffalo's Terrence McGee returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter to tie the game at 10. It was the second longest kickoff return the Patriots have allowed in team history, and the first time a Patriots opponent returned a kickoff to the end zone since Denver's Deltha O'Neal notched an 87-yard touchdown return on Oct. 1, 2000. The only time the Patriots allowed a longer kickoff return was also against Buffalo, on Nov. 7, 1965. That day, the Bills' Charlie Warner returned a kickoff 102 yards for a touchdown against the Boston Patriots at Fenway Park.

WHITE JERSEYS

The Patriots wore their white road jerseys against Buffalo for the first time in six games. The last time New England suited up in white was when it traveled to the Meadowlands to play the New York Jets on December 20, 2003 and came away with a 21-16 victory. The Patriots wore white jerseys in just five of last season's 19 games and recorded a 4-1 record, with the only loss coming in their season-opening defeat at Buffalo. Since the beginning of the 2002 season, the Patriots have now worn white jerseys in 10 of their last 38 games, recording a 6-4 record in those games.

QUICK HITS

- Roosevelt Colvin recorded his first sack of the season, his third sack as a Patriot and the 29th sack of his six-year career when he pounced on Drew Bledsoe for a 12-yard loss in the second quarter.
- Buffalo punter Brian Moorman ran the ball 34 yards following a botched punt attempt in the second quarter. It was the longest run the Patriots have allowed since Miami's Chris Chambers scampered 44 yards on a reverse in the 2002 season finale on Dec. 29, 2002.
- Bethel Johnson downed a Josh Miller punt at the Bills' two-yard line in the third quarter.
- Roman Phifer sacked Drew Bledsoe for a six-yard loss on third-and-six in the third quarter, forcing a Bills punt.

COACH BELICHICK QUOTES

Below are quotes from Head Coach Bill Belichick's postgame press conference following New England's 31-17 win over the Buffalo Bills on Oct. 3.

(On his overall impression of the game)

As usual, it was a tough division game here. It came down to some key plays there in the fourth quarter. I'm proud of the team. We really stepped up and made some plays at the end. Offensively, we had a couple good drives, especially digging it out from our own one-yard line or whatever it was. That gave us some field position. We played better on defense and got a couple turnovers. But, I thought we had a poor first half, [we] made a lot of mistakes. We had a bad day on special teams. I think that's obvious. So, we still got a lot of work to do, but we're glad to come in here and be able to get a win. It's a tough place to play and Buffalo is a good team. They played us hard. We're just fortunate we had a few key plays at the right time. So now it's on to Miami.

(On the Patriots' 18-game winning streak)

We don't care anything about a record. We're just trying to win a game, trying to win another division game. That's what is coming up. Division games are important. We got one, but we have Miami coming up and we know they'll be tough. We always have tough games with them. So that's all we need to worry about.

(On the improvement in the second half at Buffalo)

We came in at halftime and talked about the way the first half went. We didn't play very well, gave up a 50-yard fake punt, gave up a 100-yard kickoff return, gave up a couple big plays on defense, and offensively we missed some opportunities. So we just tried to go back and play a little more consistently, tried to execute a bit better and I think the players did a good job of being focused coming out in the second half. We still had some mistakes out there, but it was a lot better than it was in the first half. So I think that's a real credit to the players, and to Charlie [Weis] and Romeo [Crennel] for some of the adjustments they made at halftime. We changed a couple things and I think that helped us in the running game offensively. Buffalo had a good game plan, they kept us off balance a little bit and we had a little bit of trouble getting into some things in terms of rhythm in the first half of the game.

WEEK 2: PATRIOTS 23, CARDINALS 12

PATRIOTS 23, CARDINALS 12

September 19, 2004 ★ Sun Devil Stadium (Att: 51,577)

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	7	7	3	6	— 23
Arizona Cardinals	0	6	6	0	— 12

The New England Patriots notched their second straight victory to open the 2004 season with a 23-12 win over the Arizona Cardinals at Sun Devil Stadium on Sept 19.

The game began as a defensive battle, with neither team able to move the ball and settling for punts on the first three series. With just over two minutes remaining in the first quarter, the Patriots struck first, capping a 68-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Brady to Graham.

On the following drive, the Patriots defense continued its stingy ways, with McGinest and Harrison notching back-to-back sacks of Cardinals signal caller Josh McCown on the first two plays of the series. Two plays later, Wilson recorded his first interception of the day and returned it 14 yards to the Arizona 30-yard line to end the Cardinals drive. New England capitalized on the turnover five plays later when Brady and Graham hooked up for the second time of the afternoon on a 19-yard touchdown pass to give the Patriots a 14-0 lead.

The teams continued to battle defensively, with the Patriots forcing a three-and-out on the Cardinals next drive. But the Patriots were unable to capitalize on the defensive stand when Brady fumbled and the Cardinals recovered the ball deep in Patriots territory. Arizona got as close as the Patriots 9-yard line before McGinest and Harrison combined once again for back-to-back sacks, pushing the Cardinals back to the New England 33-yard line. Arizona was forced to settle for a 51-yard field goal by Neil Rackers to bring the score to 14-3. On the next drive, Brady was intercepted at the New England 42-yard line. Four plays later, Rackers connected on a 52-yard field goal to bring the score to 14-6 at the half.

The Patriots started the second half strong, with Brady orchestrating a 69-yard drive, including back-to-back 27- and 16-yard completions to Givens and David Patten, culminating in a 29-yard field goal by Vinatieri to extend New England's lead to 17-6. On the next drive, the Cardinals marched 80 yards down the field to score on a 1-yard run by Emmitt Smith. McCown attempted a pass to Smith for the two-point conversion, but it failed, giving the Patriots a 17-12 advantage over the Cardinals.

The Patriots quickly answered back, with Brady completing three passes for 51 yards to Givens on the following drive. Vinatieri capped the drive with a 28-yard field goal, to bring the score to 20-12. The Patriots defense thwarted the Cardinals next drive when Wilson notched his second interception of the day. The Patriots converted the turnover into points when Vinatieri connected on his third field goal of the day, a 24-yard attempt, to give the Patriots a 23-12 victory over the Cardinals to improve to their record to 2-0 entering the bye week.

MILESTONE MEN

The Patriots had a rusher and a receiver break the 100-yard mark, as Corey Dillon (158 rushing yards) and David Givens (118 receiving yards) both broke the 100-yard mark. It was the first time since 1997 that the Patriots had a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver in the same game. On Nov. 2, 1997, Curtis Martin ran for 104 yards and Shawn Jefferson caught 108 yards worth of passes at Minnesota.

GIVENS GETS 100

DAVID GIVENS exceeded the 100-yard receiving mark for the first time in his career, exceeding his previous career high of 87 yards, set on Nov. 3, 2003 at Denver. Givens became the first Patriot to gain 100 receiving yards since Kevin Faulk notched 108 yards (on eight catches) on Nov. 23, 2003 at Houston. Last season, the Patriots produced four 100-yard receiving games, each by a different player.

HOT ROD

RODNEY HARRISON sacked Josh McCown twice in the first half, recording the third multiple-sack game of his 11-year career and his first since Nov. 26, 2000 (2.0 sacks at Kansas City).

MEAN GENE

EUGENE WILSON recorded two interceptions, marking the first multiple-pick game of his career. Both of Wilson's picks kick-started Patriots scoring drives, with his first-quarter interception leading to the Patriots' second touchdown of the game and his fourth-quarter steal starting a New England field goal drive. Last year, Wilson tied for the NFL rookie lead with four picks and the Patriots led the NFL with 29 interceptions.

GRAHAM CRACKER

DANIEL GRAHAM grabbed two touchdown passes from Tom Brady in the first half, a 2-yard grab in the first quarter and a 19-yarder in the second quarter to give the Patriots a 14-0 lead. Graham has caught a touchdown pass in each of his last three regular-season games, dating back to the 2003 regular-season finale against Buffalo (12/27/03).

DILLON DOMINATES

COREY DILLON broke the 100-yard mark for the first time in his Patriots career and for the 29th time in his NFL career, rushing 32 times for 158 yards (4.9 avg). His 158 yards were the most by a Patriots rusher in nearly six years, since Robert Edwards cut loose for 196 yards (on 24 carries) on Dec. 13, 1998 at St. Louis.

Corey Dillon's 32 carries were...

- The most by a Patriot in more than seven years (since Curtis Martin set a franchise record with 40 carries in a game against the New York Jets at Foxboro Stadium on Sept. 14, 1997).
- The most for Dillon in nearly four years, since he ran 35 times (for 216 yards) for the Bengals against the Arizona Cardinals in Cincinnati on Dec. 3, 2000.
- The fourth-largest workload of Dillon's eight-year career. He had a career-high 39 carries for the Bengals against Tennessee on Dec. 4, 1997.

Corey Dillon's 158 yards were...

- The most by a Patriot in nearly six years (Robert Edwards, 196 yards on 24 carries at St. Louis on Dec. 13, 1998).
- The 29th time in his career that Dillon has exceeded 100 yards in a game.
- The eighth time in his career that Dillon has exceeded 150 yards in a game.

WILLIE MAC ATTACK

WILLIE MCGINEST sacked Josh McCown twice in the first half, continuing to show a knack for coming up with big plays for the Patriots. The Arizona game was the 16th multiple-sack game of McGinest's career. He forced McCown out of bounds for a sack with 2:06 left in the first quarter, then nailed him for a nine-yard loss with 9:23 left in the half. The sacks upped his career total to 65.5 career regular-season sacks (ranking fourth on the Patriots' all-time list). Including the 2003 postseason, during which he led the NFL with 5.0 sacks, McGinest has recorded 8.0 sacks in his last five games. Dating back to the 2003 regular season, he has 9.5 sacks in his last seven games, and has 10.5 in his last nine.

WEEK 1: PATRIOTS 27, COLTS 24

PATRIOTS 27, COLTS 24

September 9, 2004 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

	1	2	3	4	Final
Indianapolis Colts	0	17	0	7	— 24
New England Patriots	3	10	14	0	— 27

The New England Patriots opened the 2004 regular season with a hard-fought 27-24 victory over the Indianapolis Colts. In a rematch of the 2003 AFC Championship Game, New England held onto a 3-point lead when Colts kicker Mike Vanderjagt missed a field goal with 24 seconds remaining in the game, propelling the Patriots to their first win of the season.

The Patriots were the first to strike on offense after Bethel Johnson returned the opening kickoff 32 yards to the New England 37-yard line. Brady orchestrated a 9-play, 48-yard drive, including a 19-yard pass to David Givens on the first offensive play, to set up Vinatieri's 32-yard field goal with less than five minutes elapsed. On the ensuing drive, Indianapolis drove deep into Patriots territory with the help of a 42-yard pass completion from Peyton Manning to Reggie Wayne. The Colts had the ball inside the Patriots 10-yard line but couldn't capitalize. On second-and-goal, Tedy Bruschi lunged in front of a Manning pass and intercepted it at the 1-yard line, ending the drive.

The second quarter began with a game-tying 32-yard field goal by Vanderjagt, starting a scoring barrage, as the Patriots and Colts combined for 27 points in the quarter. After a Patriots punt, the Colts marched 66 yards down the field, capping the drive with a 3-yard touchdown run by Dominic Rhodes to give the Colts a 10-3 lead. Brady proceeded to march the team down the field, ending the drive with a 16-yard touchdown pass to Branch. Vinatieri's extra point knotted the score at 10 with three minutes remaining in the half. Indianapolis broke the stalemate with an 82-yard touchdown drive, ending with a 3-yard pass from Manning to Marvin Harrison and a 17-10 lead with 45 seconds left in the half. But Bethel Johnson returned the ensuing kickoff 34 yards, giving the Patriots prime field position. Brady completed three consecutive passes and Vinatieri connected on his second field goal of the night, a 43-yard attempt to bring the Patriots within three points at the interval.

The Patriots defense forced the Colts to go three-and-out on their first possession of the second half. The Patriots took advantage of the defensive effort as Brady led the team 69-yards downfield, ending the drive with a 25-yard touchdown pass to David Patten for the go-ahead score. The defense continued making big plays, recovering an Edgerrin James fumble on the New England 18-yard line, snuffing out another Colts drive. The Patriots took advantage of the turnover with an 82-yard touchdown drive, with Brady's 8-yard pass to Daniel Graham putting New England up 27-17 with a quarter to play.

The Colts opened the final quarter with a 7-yard touchdown strike from Manning to Brandon Stokley to get within three points of the Patriots. New England preserved its 3-point lead as the Colts drove into Patriots territory in the final minute of the game and appeared to be in position for at least a game-tying field goal. But a 12-yard sack by Willie McGinest forced the Colts to try a 48-yard attempt to send the game into overtime. Vanderjagt's kick went wide right with 24 seconds left on the clock to seal the Patriots' first win of the season.

RED ZONE D

The Patriots defense thwarted three potential scoring drives by forcing three Indianapolis turnovers in the red zone. On the Colts' opening drive, Tedy Bruschi intercepted a Peyton Manning pass on the New England 1-yard line with 6:37 remaining in the first quarter, returning the ball five yards. With 5:14 remaining in the third quarter and the Patriots clinging to a 20-17 lead, Ty Warren forced an Edgerrin James fumble on the New England 18-yard line which Eugene Wilson recovered to end the Colts' scoring threat. The Patriots capitalized on the turnover by marching 82 yards down the field and scoring on an 8-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Daniel Graham to go up 27-17. In the fourth quarter, Wilson combined with Vince Wilfork for a touchdown-saving turnover, forcing James to fumble on the New England 1-yard line with 3:51 remaining in the game.

A LEADING STREAK

The Patriots fell behind the Colts by a 10-3 score on a 3-yard Dominic Rhodes touchdown run with 8:06 left in the first half. It marked the first time the Patriots were behind in a regular-season game since they trailed the Houston Texans 20-13 on Nov. 23, 2003. The Patriots tied that game in Houston on a touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Daniel Graham, kick-starting a span of 327 minutes, 53 seconds of regular-season clock time in which the Patriots were either tied or held a lead. In all, the Patriots did not trail their opponents over a span of nearly five-and-a-half games.

TOUCHDOWN TOMMY

TOM BRADY threw for 335 yards, marking the seventh time in his career he has exceeded the 300-yard mark. Brady also threw for three touchdowns, marking the 12th time in his career he has thrown for three or more scores. Brady excelled in all phases of the offensive game, registering a 111.2 passer rating. The win over the Colts marked the 16th time in Brady's career he surpassed the 100.0 passer rating plateau. He is 16-0 all time when he registers a 100-plus rating.

WILLIE MAC ATTACK

WILLIE MCGINEST sacked Peyton Manning for a 12-yard loss on third-and-eight on the New England 29-yard line with 49 seconds remaining in the game. The sack forced the Colts to settle for a 48-yard field goal attempt by Mike Vanderjagt to tie the game at 27. Vanderjagt missed the attempt wide right with 24 seconds remaining in the contest, preserving the Patriots' victory. This marks the second consecutive season in which a big play by McGinest near the end of the game has foiled the Colts. Last year, McGinest stopped Edgerrin James on the 1-yard line on fourth down on the final play of a 38-34 Patriots victory in Indianapolis (11/30/03).

PICKLESS AT HOME

TOM BRADY was intercepted by the Colts' Nick Harper in the fourth quarter, ending a string of 288 consecutive passes without an interception at Gillette Stadium. He did not throw a pick at home in the 2003 regular season. Prior to the season opener against the Colts, the last time Brady was intercepted at home was in the 2002 season finale, when Miami's Brock Marion picked him off on Dec. 29, 2002.

KEY TURNOVER

A pair of 2003 Patriots draft picks – TY WARREN and EUGENE WILSON – combined to force a key Indianapolis turnover in the third quarter that led to the Patriots' third touchdown of the night and a 10-point New England lead. With the Colts having cracked the Patriots' red zone, Warren reached in and punched the ball away from Edgerrin James at the Patriots' 18-yard line with 5:14 left in the third quarter and the Patriots clinging to a 20-17 lead. Eugene Wilson pounced on the loose ball to give the Patriots possession as the Colts were threatening to score. The Patriots proceeded to drive the field to take a 27-17 lead.

FULL TILT, FULL TIME

TEDY BRUSCHI lunged into the path of a Peyton Manning pass and intercepted it at the Patriots' 1-yard line to end the Colts' opening drive of the game. It was Bruschi's ninth career interception and was the first time he notched a pick against Manning. Four of Bruschi's nine career interceptions have been returned for touchdowns, and he has seen the end zone after an interception twice in each of his last two seasons prior to 2004.

NEON DEION

DEION BRANCH scored the Patriots' first touchdown of the 2004 season with a 16-yard touchdown reception from Tom Brady with 3:07 left in the first half to tie the score at 10. It was the sixth touchdown catch of Branch's career. Last season, he led the Patriots with 57 receptions and 803 receiving yards.

THE HEAD COACH

BILL BELICHICK

Overall Record: 85-70 (.548)
Regular Season: 78-69 (.531)
Postseason: 7-1 (.875)
With Patriots overall: 48-25 (.658)
Overall since 2001: 43-14 (.754)
Super Bowl Titles: 4 (86, 90, 01, 03)
Conf. Titles: 5 (86, 90, 96, 01, 03)
Division Titles: 9 (75, 78, 86, 89, 90, 96, 98, 01, 03)

Bill Belichick is celebrating his 30th consecutive season as an NFL coach and has spent more consecutive seasons in the league than any other current head coach. He has been a part of four Super Bowl championship teams, including two world titles in his four seasons as Patriots head coach. In addition to the team's current success, Belichick has built a firm foundation for the Patriots to remain competitive into the future. Since 2001, the Patriots have blossomed, rattling off 43 wins in their last 57 games and making Belichick the winningest NFL head coach since the 2001 season. His overall record of 48-25 (including a 6-0 playoff mark) gives him the best winning percentage of any head coach in Patriots history.

BELICHICK'S PATRIOTS RENAISSANCE

Any successful project requires a sound plan, and once head coach Bill Belichick had the time to implement his design on the Patriots, his approach has given him the best record of any NFL head coach since 2001. Belichick hit the ground running as soon as he arrived in New England in 2000, shaping and molding the Patriots into a contender. After the team endured a 5-11 rebuilding year in his first season, the fruits of Belichick's labor were put on display to the entire NFL, as his team posted an 11-5 record in 2001 and claimed the first Super Bowl title in franchise history. Since 2001, his plan has been in place in New England, and Belichick and the Patriots have compiled the best record in the NFL, winning two of the last three Super Bowls. The remarkable run includes postseason play, where Belichick and the Patriots own a perfect 6-0 record.

THE KRAFT ERA

Since ROBERT KRAFT purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced a remarkable reversal of fortunes. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund franchise that had won just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.). In the early 1990s, the franchise appeared destined for relocation until Kraft bought the team and rejuvenated local interest. By the start of the 1994 season, every game was a complete sellout. Ten seasons later, the consecutive sellout streak is now at 107 and counting. Since Kraft took ownership, the Patriots have won more conference championships than any other team in the NFL, claiming three AFC titles in the past eight seasons.

SUCCESS STORY

By 1996, Robert Kraft's third season of ownership, the Patriots reached the Super Bowl for the second time in team history and had established themselves as one of the NFL's elite teams. Since 1996, the Patriots have won two Super Bowls, three conference titles and have qualified for the playoffs six times, positioning themselves over time as one of the NFL's top clubs.

WORKING OVERTIME

The Patriots have won their last eight overtime games (including the playoffs). New England's eight-game overtime winning streak is the longest in NFL history. The Patriots won two overtime games in 2003, defeating the Dolphins 19-13 in Miami and defeating the Texans 23-20 in Houston. New England has not lost in overtime since Buffalo won 16-13 at Foxboro Stadium on Nov. 5, 2000. Since that time, the Patriots have won eight straight, including five games in which they scored on their first possession of overtime.

HOLDING THE LEAD

The Patriots lead the NFL with 29 consecutive regular-season victories when holding a lead entering the fourth quarter. The last time New England lost a game in which it held a fourth-quarter lead was on Dec. 24, 2000, when it led Miami 24-17 entering the fourth quarter and ended up losing, 27-24. Since then, the Patriots have won six games in which they trailed or were tied entering the fourth quarter. New England was 10-0 when leading after three quarters in 2001, 6-0 in 2002, 11-0 in 2003 and is 2-0 in 2004.

QB TOM BRADY NEWS & NOTES

RECORDING SUCCESS

TOM BRADY has quarterbacked the Patriots to victories in 37 of his 49 regular-season starts during his career, compiling a .755 winning percentage and giving him the best record of any active quarterback in the NFL with at least 30 starts. Including the playoffs, he is 43-12 (.782) as a starter. Including preseason, regular-season and postseason games, he is 50-15 (.769).

OVERDRIVE IN OVERTIME

TOM BRADY owns a career record of 7-0 in overtime, including the postseason. Brady is the all-time NFL leader in overtime wins without a defeat. Brady and former Steelers signal caller Terry Bradshaw are the only two NFL quarterbacks to be undefeated in overtime (minimum of five games). The top six quarterbacks in overtime are listed below.

COMEBACK KID

TOM BRADY has engineered 16 game-winning drives to break a tie or take the lead in the fourth quarter or overtime in his career. He has accomplished the feat twice in the Super Bowl, most recently engineering a 47-yard drive with just over a minute remaining to lead the Patriots to victory in Super Bowl XXXVIII. He led seven comebacks in 2003, including a fourth-quarter comeback to break a 14-14 tie against Tennessee in the AFC Divisional Playoffs in addition to comebacks against Houston, Indianapolis, Miami, Tennessee and Denver in the regular season. Brady's record also includes his dramatic performance to lead the Patriots to victory in Super Bowl XXXVI and his heroics in the snow against the Oakland Raiders in the 2001 Divisional Playoffs, giving him four comebacks in six postseason starts.

CAREER WINNING PERCENTAGE

TOM BRADY is the winningest quarterback in the Super Bowl Era (since 1966) among signal callers who have made at least 40 starts. He is one of just three quarterbacks in the Super Bowl Era to own a career winning percentage above 70 percent. Brady joins Roger Staubach, Joe Montana and Kurt Warner as the only two quarterbacks to win as many as 70 percent of their starts. A list placing Brady's accomplishments in a historical perspective is below.

CLOSE CALLS

Tom Brady has compiled a sparkling 17-1 record as a starter in games where the final margin was less than a touchdown, including a 4-0 postseason record in such games. In games decided by three points or fewer, Brady is 12-1. In the 2003 season, Brady led the team to nine victories by six points or fewer, including two in the playoffs. Since Brady took over as the starting quarterback early in the 2001 season, the Patriots have lost just one game by less than a touchdown.

CAREER NUMBERS

TOM BRADY ranks fourth among Patriots' all-time leading passers, and is the franchise's all-time leader in completion percentage. Brady passed Tony Eason to move into fourth place on the Patriots yardage list at Arizona on Sept. 19. With 153 more completions, he can pass Vito "Babe" Parilli and move into third place on the Patriots all-time completions list. Brady became the fourth Patriot to reach the 1,000-completion mark at Buffalo on Oct. 3.

LAST-MINUTE MAN

ADAM VINATIERI nailed his second Super Bowl-winning field goal, booting a 41-yarder through the uprights with four seconds left to give the Patriots a 32-29 victory over Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII. He is the only kicker in NFL history to kick a game-winning field goal in the final minute of the Super Bowl and has accomplished the feat twice, including his 48-yarder to win Super Bowl XXXVI. Out of the Patriots' six playoff wins since 2001, four were decided on game-winning boots by Vinatieri. In all, Vinatieri has kicked 17 game-winning field goals in his career, including nine in the past three seasons. His game-winners are listed below:
