NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (4-0) vs. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS (3-1)

Sunday, October 17, 2004 ★ Gillette Stadium (68,756) ★ 1:00 p.m. EDT

The Patriots enter the most challenging stretch of their 2004 schedule when they play host to the Seattle Seahawks this week in search of their 20th consecutive victory. After compiling a 4-0 record against teams with a combined record of 5-14, the Patriots set out on a four-game stretch during which their opponents are an aggregate 14-4. The Gillette Stadium faithful hope the home team can win its record-tying 17th consecutive regular-season contest in the second game of its three-game homestand against the 3-1 Seahawks, who will face the Patriots for the first time since 1993.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

TELEVISION: This week's game will be broadcast on FOX. The game can be seen in Boston on WFXT-TV Channel 25. Dick Stockton will handle the play-by-play duties, while Troy Aikman and Cris Collinsworth will provide analysis. Pam Oliver will provide reports from the sidelines.

RADIO: WBCN 104.1 FM is the flagship station for the Patriots Rock Radio Network. Play-by-play broadcaster Gil Santos is in his 28th season as the voice of the Patriots and will call the action along with Patriots Hall of Famer Gino Cappelletti. Santos and Cappelletti are celebrating their 21st season as a broadcast tandem.

TOUGH ROAD AHEAD

The Patriots are about to enter the toughest stretch of their 2004 schedule. New England's next four opponents hold a cumulative record of 14-4, while its first four opponents are a combined 5-14. The only team the Patriots have played so far that currently has a winning record is Indianapolis, but the next four teams on tap for New England are all above the .500 mark. New England has won its last 12 games against teams that finished the season with a winning record (or in the case of the 2004 Colts, currently own a winning mark).

BROKEN RECORD

The Patriots have recorded a one-game winning streak 19 consecutive times, setting an all-time pro football record. Using their game-by-game, week-by-week approach to remain focused, the Patriots have not lost a meaningful game in more than a year. The last time the Patriots lost was on Sept. 28, 2003, when they dropped a 20-17 decision on the road to Washington. As of Oct. 17, 384 days will have passed since the Patriots' last loss.

THIS WEEK: PATRIOTS VS. SEAHAWKS

SERIES HISTORY

The New England Patriots and the Seattle Seahawks meet for the 14th time and the first time since 1993. The Patriots won six of the first eight games in the series, began in 1977. The Seahawks currently hold a 7-6 series lead over the Patriots and have won the last five meetings, dating back to 1989. The Patriots, however, have proven to possess the more consistent scoring threat, amassing a total differential of 81 points in their six series victories compared to a differential of 67 points in the seven victories that belong to the Seahawks. New England looks to even the series standings this Sunday when Bill Belichick and Mike Holmgren meet as head coaches for the first time since 1995 when the two directed the Cleveland Browns and Green Bay Packers, respectively.

HISTORICAL HITS

- Seattle is one of just two teams the Patriots have yet to play in the Bill Belichick Era in Foxborough (since 2000). New England also has not played the San Francisco 49ers.
- The Patriots and Seahawks played 12 times in a 14-year span from 1980-93, but have not played in 11 years.
- New England and Seattle played six times over a six-year span from 1988-93.
- The Seahawks are the only non-divisional team that the Patriots have played twice in the regular season in the same year. That scheduling oddity took place during the 1993 season, the only year in which the league's 16-game schedule was played over an 18-week span and each team was allotted two bye weeks.
- The Seahawks are the only NFL team that the Patriots have not played since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. The last time the two teams squared off, James Busch Orthwein owned the Patriots and the team's future in New England was severely in doubt.
- Seattle will be the most-traveled team in the NFL during the 2004 regular season, with seven of its eight road games requiring a round trip of at least 2,220 air miles.
- Including this week's game, seven of the last eight games between the Patriots and Seahawks will have taken place in New England. The Patriots have traveled to Seattle just once since their Super Bowl XX season of 1985 (on Oct. 24, 1993).

THEN AND NOW

THEN: 3-26 over a 29-game span from 1990-93

NOW: 25-4 over a 29-game span from 2002-04

The last time the Patriots and Seahawks played on Oct. 24, 1993 the franchise from Foxborough resembled its current incarnation in absolutely no respects. At that time, New England was kicking off a seven-game losing streak as part of a run of futility that touched three different seasons (1990-93) and saw the Patriots compile a 3-26 record over a 29-game span. Compare that to the most recent 29 games in the franchise's history, a span over which the Patriots are 25-4 since Week 12 of the 2002 season. New England's 3-26 run spanned from the final week of the 1990 season through an entire 2-14 season in 1992 and through a 1-11 start to the 1993 season. Over that span, the Patriots' most common non-divisional opponent was Seattle, a team that dealt the Patriots three losses in that time frame.

THE LAST TIME

Seahawks 10, Patriots 9

Oct. 24, 1993 – Kingdome – Seattle, Wash.

The last time New England and Seattle met, a touchdown pass from the Seahawks' Rick Mirer to Brian Blades with 25 seconds left in the game erased a 9-3 Patriots lead and gave Seattle a 10-9 win. The loss was the Patriots' 21st defeat in 24 games. Scott Sisson nailed three-of-five field goal attempts to account for New England's scoring on the day.

After a scoreless first quarter, Seattle took a 3-0 lead when John Kasay kicked a 30-yard field goal that capped a seven-play, 49-yard drive. The Patriots, who outgained Seattle by 41 yards in the first half, missed two field goals in the second quarter to remain scoreless at the half.

The Patriots tied the game at three when Sisson kicked a 36-yard field goal that capped an eight-play, 48-yard drive in the third quarter. Sisson kicked a 25-yard field goal early in the final stanza, followed by a 19-yarder with 9:07 remaining, to put the Patriots up, 9-3. The Seahawks rallied with a 14-play, 54-yard drive that culminated in a 1-yard pass from rookie quarterback Rick Mirer to receiver Brian Blades with just 25 seconds to play. The touchdown held up, and the Seahawks were victorious by a score of 10-9.

PATRIOTS-SEAHAWKS PLAYER NOTES – 10/24/93

- Scott Secules started at quarterback for the Patriots in place of injured rookie Drew Bledsoe and completed 15 of 30 passes for 129 yards, throwing no touchdowns and two interceptions.
- Leonard Russell was the Patriots' leading rusher, gaining 97 yards on 21 carries.
- Rookie Troy Brown, an eighth-round draft choice, returned three punts for 54 yards and returned a kickoff 15 yards.
- Seattle quarterback Rick Mirer, chosen second overall behind Bledsoe in the 1993 NFL Draft, completed 22 of 43 passes for 203 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions.

THIS WEEK IN PATRIOTS HISTORY

OCTOBER 10 – OCTOBER 17

October 11, 1963: The Boston Patriots played their first game in Fenway Park, notching a 20-14 victory over the Raiders.

October 13, 1974: New England blanked the New York Jets 24-0 at Shea Stadium to improve to 5-0 on the season. The five wins to begin the 1974 campaign are the most to start a season in franchise history.

October 13, 1985: Patriots cornerback Raymond Clayborn established a new team record for consecutive starts when he started his 111th straight game. Ray Hamilton had the old mark of 110 starts (set Sept. 16, 1973 to Oct. 26, 1980). Clayborn celebrated the record-setting day by scoring his first professional touchdown on a 27-yard interception return.

October 14, 2001: The Patriots rallied from a 26-16 deficit with less than five minutes to go in the game to post a 29-26 overtime win against San Diego at Foxboro Stadium. The win was the first in a series of 10 wins in 12 games en route to an 11-5 record in the Patriots' first championship season.

CHANGING PLACES

Since the Patriots last played the Seahawks in 1993, much has changed both in the NFL world and in the world in general. Here is a snapshot of a few developments from the last 11 years.

In the NFL...

- The L.A. Rams moved to St. Louis (1995), the L.A. Raiders moved back to Oakland (1995), the Cleveland Browns moved to Baltimore (1996) and the Houston Oilers moved to Tennessee (1997).
- The league added four teams, growing from 28 to 32 clubs. Added were Carolina (1995), Jacksonville (1995), the expansion Cleveland Browns (1999) and Houston (2002).
- NFL active rosters grew from 47 players to 53 players.

In the World...

- The U.S. participated in six Olympic Games.
- The U.S. had two presidential elections (1996, 2000) and is about to have a third (Nov. 2).
- Dolly the sheep, the first animal cloned from adult cells was born (1996).
- The European Union adopted the Euro as the official currency of 12 countries in Europe (2001).
- The North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) was implemented (1994).

REGULAR-SEASON RECORD

New England is one victory shy of the NFL's all-time regular-season record of 17 consecutive victories, set by the 1933-34 Chicago Bears. Last week against Miami, the Patriots tied the post-merger record of 16 consecutive regular-season victories. The Patriots join the 1971-73 Dolphins and the 1983-84 Dolphins as the only post-1970 teams to win as many as 16 consecutive games in the regular season. The only team in NFL history to have won more consecutive regular-season games than the Patriots was the 1933-34 Chicago Bears, coached by the legendary George S. Halas, one of the NFL's founding fathers.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Patriots enter this week's game sporting a 17-3 (.850) all-time record at Gillette Stadium, including regular-season and postseason games. New England has won an NFL-best 13 consecutive regular-season and postseason contests at home, with its last defeat coming in a 30-14 regular-season loss to the New York Jets on Dec. 22, 2002. Last season, the Patriots were undefeated at home for the first time in team history, winning all eight regular-season games and two postseason games in Foxborough. The Patriots' .850 winning percentage at Gillette Stadium is the highest of any NFL team at its current home stadium.

GAME 4: PATRIOTS 24, DOLPHINS 10

PATRIOTS 24, DOLPHINS 10

October 10, 2004 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

	1	2	3	4	Final
Miami Dolphins	0	7	3	0	— 10
New England Patriots	7	10	7	0	— 24

The New England Patriots notched their fourth victory of the 2004 season with a 24-10 win over the Miami Dolphins at Gillette Stadium on Oct. 10. With the win, the Patriots improved to 4-0 on the season and recorded their 19th consecutive win, setting an all-time professional football record.

The Patriots defense dominated the game, coming up with three red zone stands in the fourth quarter to hold the Dolphins to just 10 points and dropping the Patriots' average points allowed to 15.8 per game, second in the AFC. Richard Seymour, Vince Wilfork and Rodney Harrison combined to sack Miami quarterback Jay Fiedler three times for 29 yards in losses, and rookie cornerback Randall Gay notched the first interception of his professional career when he picked off a Fiedler pass and returned it 10 yards.

On the offensive side, running back Corey Dillon tallied 94 yards on the ground, including a 36-yard run, his second-longest of the season, to set up Rabi Abdullah's 1-yard touchdown plunge in the third quarter, the first score of Abdullah's seven-year career. Wide receiver David Givens led the Patriots' aerial attack, snagging four catches for 33 yards and one touchdown.

The first quarter was a battle of the defenses, as both teams struggled to find their groove early on. Brady threw an interception four plays into the game to end the opening drive. The two teams traded punts for several drives before Gay intercepted Fiedler to give the Patriots excellent field position on the Miami 30-yard line. Brady and the offense capitalized on the turnover, and a 1-yard touchdown reception by Daniel Graham gave the Patriots an early 7-0 lead.

The Patriots defense kept up its effort and forced another Dolphins punt on the ensuing possession. The Patriots offense marched down the field and scored on a 40-yard Adam Vinatieri field goal to extend their lead to 10-0. However, three possessions later, Fiedler completed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Chris Chambers to put Miami on the board. The Patriots got the ball with just over three minutes left in the first half and chewed up the clock before Brady hooked up with Givens for a 5-yard touchdown pass with just 39 seconds left, giving the Patriots a 17-7 lead at the half.

On the opening drive of the second half, the Dolphins marched down the field and appeared to be threatening to score before Harrison forced a Fiedler fumble, which Dexter Reid recovered. The Patriots orchestrated a six play, 48-yard drive, including a 36-yard run by Dillon, culminating in Abdullah's 1-yard touchdown run. The Dolphins answered back on their next drive with a 29-yard field goal by Wes Welker, but three red zone stands by the Patriots defense in the fourth quarter solidified the Patriots' 24-10 victory and their place in the NFL history books.

TURNING OVER POINTS

RODNEY HARRISON dropped Jay Fiedler on a run up the middle in the third quarter, forcing him to fumble on the play and allowing Dexter Reid to collect the loose ball. New England promptly drove down the field and took a 24-7 lead on a 1-yard touchdown run from Rabi Abdullah. It was Harrison's second forced fumble of the season and the 11th of his career. Harrison's turnover produced one of the Patriots' two touchdowns off turnovers on the day.

DILLON DOES IT

COREY DILLON broke free for a 36-yard run in the third quarter, helping to set up Rabi Abdullah's 1-yard touchdown plunge and give the Patriots a solid 24-7 lead. Dillon's 36-yard jaunt is his second longest run this season, following the 38-yarder he tore off against Indianapolis in the season opener on Sept. 9.

GOLDEN GRAHAM

DANIEL GRAHAM grabbed a 1-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter, marking the fifth consecutive regular-season game in which he has caught a scoring pass, tying a team record. The former 2002 first-round pick has five touchdown catches this season. Graham caught a touchdown against Buffalo in the final regular-season game of the 2003 season and has grabbed at least one score in each of New England's four games this season. Graham is two games shy of the team's record for consecutive games with a touchdown of any kind.

BACK AT HOME

The Patriots played their first home game in 31 days, ending the longest in-season interval between home games in franchise history for a non-strike year. Prior to the Miami game, the last time the Patriots took the field at Gillette Stadium was on Thurs., Sept. 9, when they opened the season with a 27-24 victory over Indianapolis. The longest interval between home games before this year was 28 days, which had happened 10 times in franchise history, most recently in 2002.

PICK A STREAK

Including the Miami game, the Patriots have notched at least one interception in each of their last 10 regular-season home games and have recorded a pick in 17 of their last 18 regular-season games overall. The last time the Patriots did not pick off the opposing quarterback at Gillette Stadium was on Dec. 29, 2002, when New England did not intercept Miami's Jay Fiedler in a 27-24 overtime victory. Including last season's two postseason games in Foxborough, the Patriots have at least one pick in each of their last 12 home games. Last season, New England led the NFL with 29 interceptions, the most by a Patriots team since 1964.

RANDALL GAY'S DAY

Rookie cornerback RANDALL GAY notched the first interception of his professional career when he picked off a Jay Fiedler pass at Miami's 40-yard line in the first quarter and returned it 10 yards. Gay is the only member of the Patriots to make the team after being signed in 2004 as an undrafted free agent. The theft gave New England possession on the Dolphins' 30-yard line and led to the Patriots' first touchdown of the day, a 1-yard toss from Tom Brady to Daniel Graham.

SACK ATTACK

RICHARD SEYMOUR, VINCE WILFORK and RODNEY HARRISON combined to sack Miami quarterback Jay Fiedler three times for 29 yards in losses. So far this season, the defense has registered 16 sacks for a 4.0 sack-per-game average. The Patriots are on pace to notch 64 sacks on the season, which would be an all-time Patriots record for team sacks in a season. Since sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, the team single-season record for sacks is 55, set in 1984. That year, linebacker Andre Tippett notched 18.5 sacks, a Patriots franchise record.

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	10	7	0	14	— 31
Buffalo Bills	10	7	0	0	— 17

The Patriots won their record-tying 18th consecutive game and improved to 3-0 on the season with a 31-17 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Orchard Park, N.Y. New England was able to avenge last year's 31-0 loss in the season opener and improve to 14-6 against the Bills in the last 20 meetings between the teams.

Patriots quarterback Tom Brady nearly reached the 300-yard benchmark, finishing the day with 298 yards on 17-of-30 passing, while throwing for two touchdowns and compiling a passer rating of 112.9. Brady's favorite target on the afternoon was David Patten, who led all Patriots receivers with five catches for 113 yards, marking the second consecutive game in which the Patriots have had a 100-yard receiver. Wideout David Givens continued his strong start to the season, grabbing four balls for 86 yards, while running back Corey Dillon also turned in a strong performance, gaining 79 yards on 19 carries and scoring his first touchdown in a Patriots uniform.

Defensively, the Patriots played another solid game, sacking Bills quarterback Drew Bledsoe seven times and forcing two turnovers. The New England defense kept Buffalo off of the board in the second half and also produced the Patriots' first defensive score of the season on a 68-yard fumble return by Richard Seymour that iced the game. Tedy Bruschi tied for the team lead with seven tackles (4 solo), and also recorded two sacks and forced the fumble that Seymour scooped up and returned for a touchdown.

The first quarter was an offensive shootout, with each team scoring 10 points. New England started the barrage with a 9-play, 77-yard opening drive that ended in a 2-yard touchdown run from Dillon and a 7-0 Patriots lead. The teams then traded field goals before Buffalo's Terrence McGee returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 10 as the quarter wound down.

Defense ruled the day for the first part of the second quarter, as the teams exchanged turnovers. New England's Tyrone Poole recorded his first interception of the season when he picked off a Bledsoe pass at midfield after Buffalo was poised with good field position. The Patriots proceeded to drive down to the Buffalo 2-yard line and were on the verge of taking the lead when Dillon coughed up the ball for his first fumble since the 2002 season, giving the Bills the ball deep in Patriots territory. Bledsoe and his charges wasted little time in capitalizing, driving 96 yards on just six plays to take a 17-10 lead on a 41-yard touchdown bomb from Bledsoe to Eric Moulds. New England faced up to the challenge, though, as it used the ensuing drive to go 61 yards on six plays and tie the score on a 30-yard scoring pass from Brady to Patten and tie the score at 17 heading into halftime.

Neither team could find an offensive rhythm for much of the third quarter, as the Bills punted twice and the Patriots kicked once. New England gained possession at its own 20-yard line with 2:14 left in the quarter and proceeded to embark on what would prove to be the game-winning drive. It took 12 plays and five minutes, 57 seconds of clock time, but the Patriots methodically marched down the field on an 80-yard drive, ending in a 2-yard touchdown catch by Daniel Graham to gain a 24-17 advantage with 11:17 left in the game. The teams then traded punts before the Bills mounted a comeback bid in the game's final five minutes. Buffalo penetrated the Patriots red zone, but faced a fourth-and-three from the New England 17-yard line with three minutes left in the game. With the game hanging the balance, Bruschi penetrated through the Buffalo line and sacked Bledsoe, forcing a fumble that Seymour brought 68 yards to the end zone to give the Patriots a decisive 31-17 advantage. The Patriots defense snuffed out Buffalo's last bid for a score and improved to 3-0 on the young season.

BRADY REACHES MILESTONE

TOM BRADY recorded the 1,000th completion of his career on a 13-yard toss to Corey Dillon in the first quarter. Brady becomes the fourth Patriots passer to join the 1,000-completion club, joining Drew Bledsoe (2,544), Steve Grogan (1,879) and Vito "Babe" Parilli (1,140).

PATTEN'S 100-YARD DAY

DAVID PATTEN caught five passes for 113 yards, marking the sixth time he has reached the century mark in a game in his career. Patten recorded four catches for 101 yards in the first half, including a 30-yard touchdown grab with 1:28 left in the half. The last time Patten passed the 100-yard receiving mark was on Oct. 6, 2002, when he snared five passes for 102 yards at Miami.

"BIG SEY" SEES THE ZONE

Two-time Pro Bowl defensive lineman RICHARD SEYMOUR scored his first career touchdown, scooping up a Drew Bledsoe fumble caused by Tedy Bruschi and rumbling 68 yards for the score and a decisive 31-17 advantage for the Patriots. Seymour became the first Patriots defensive lineman to score a touchdown since Willie McGinest recovered a fumble in the end zone in a 30-28 win over the New York Jets in the 1999 season opener.

KEEP OUT

The Bills' opening drive saw them crack the Patriots' 10-yard line, but New England's defense was able to hold Buffalo to a 33-yard Rian Lindell field goal. New England has now kept its opponent out of the end zone on their opening drive in 18 consecutive games. The last time the Patriots allowed their opponent to score a touchdown on their opening drive was in their last trip to Buffalo on Sept. 7, 2003.

FULL TILT, FULL TIME

TEDY BRUSCHI sacked Drew Bledsoe twice, marking his third career multiple-sack game. Bruschi's first sack produced one of the biggest plays of the game, as he rushed in on Bledsoe, sacked him and forced him to fumble as the Bills were driving and looking for a game-tying touchdown late in the fourth quarter. Richard Seymour scooped up the ensuing loose ball and rumbled 68 yards for the game-breaking score, giving New England a 31-17 lead.

OFFENSE FROM DEFENSE

RICHARD SEYMOUR's fumble return was the Patriots' first defensive touchdown of the season and New England's first touchdown on a fumble recovery since Matt Chatham recorded a 38-yard scoop-and-score in a 17-6 win over the New York Giants at Gillette Stadium on Oct. 12, 2003. Last season, the Patriots led the NFL with six defensive touchdowns and were 6-0 in games in which they scored on defense. Including their win over the Bills, the Patriots are now 13-2 in their last 15 games in which they scored a defensive touchdown, dating back to 1999.

KEY CATCHES

DAVID GIVENS caught a 44-yard pass from Tom Brady in the first quarter as the Patriots faced a first-and-35 on their own 24-yard line. The 44-yard grab was the longest play from scrimmage by Patriots so far this season, and New England's longest play from scrimmage since Givens caught a career-long 57-yard pass from Brady on Nov. 16, 2003 against Dallas. Givens made a leaping grab at Buffalo's 32-yard line, recording the third-longest catch of his career and kick-starting a Patriots touchdown drive that ended in a 15-yard run by Corey Dillon.

QUICK HITS

- ROSEVELT COLVIN recorded his first sack of the season, his third sack as a Patriot and the 29th sack of his six-year career when he pounced on Drew Bledsoe for a 12-yard loss in the second quarter.

GAME 2: PATRIOTS 23, CARDINALS 12

PATRIOTS 23, CARDINALS 12

September 19, 2004 ★ Sun Devil Stadium (Att: 51,577)

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	7	7	3	6	— 23
Arizona Cardinals	0	6	6	0	— 12

The New England Patriots notched their second straight victory to open the 2004 season with a 23-12 win over the Arizona Cardinals at Sun Devil Stadium on Sept. 19.

The game began as a defensive battle, with neither team able to move the ball and settling for punts on the first three series. With just over two minutes remaining in the first quarter, the Patriots struck first, capping a 68-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Brady to Graham.

On the following drive, the Patriots defense continued its stingy ways, with McGinest and Harrison notching back-to-back sacks of Cardinals signal caller Josh McCown on the first two plays of the series. Two plays later, Wilson recorded his first interception of the day and returned it 14 yards to the Arizona 30-yard line to end the Cardinals drive. New England capitalized on the turnover five plays later when Brady and Graham hooked up for the second time of the afternoon on a 19-yard touchdown pass to give the Patriots a 14-0 lead.

The teams continued to battle defensively, with the Patriots forcing a three-and-out on the Cardinals next drive. But the Patriots were unable to capitalize on the defensive stand when Brady fumbled and the Cardinals recovered the ball deep in Patriots territory. Arizona got as close as the Patriots 9-yard line before McGinest and Harrison combined once again for back-to-back sacks, pushing the Cardinals back to the New England 33-yard line. Arizona was forced to settle for a 51-yard field goal by Neil Rackers to bring the score to 14-3. On the next drive, Brady was intercepted at the New England 42-yard line. Four plays later, Rackers connected on a 52-yard field goal to bring the score to 14-6 at the half.

The Patriots started the second half strong, with Brady orchestrating a 69-yard drive, including back-to-back 27- and 16-yard completions to Givens and David Patten, culminating in a 29-yard field goal by Vinatieri to extend New England's lead to 17-6. On the next drive, the Cardinals marched 80 yards down the field to score on a 1-yard run by Emmitt Smith. McCown attempted a pass to Smith for the two-point conversion, but it failed, giving the Patriots a 17-12 advantage over the Cardinals.

The Patriots quickly answered back, with Brady completing three passes for 51 yards to Givens on the following drive. Vinatieri capped the drive with a 28-yard field goal, to bring the score to 20-12. The Patriots defense thwarted the Cardinals next drive when Wilson notched his second interception of the day. The Patriots converted the turnover into points when Vinatieri connected on his third field goal of the day, a 24-yard attempt, to give the Patriots a 23-12 victory over the Cardinals to improve to their record to 2-0 entering the bye week.

MILESTONE MEN

The Patriots had a rusher and a receiver break the 100-yard mark, as Corey Dillon (158 rushing yards) and David Givens (118 receiving yards) both broke the 100-yard mark. It was the first time since 1997 that the Patriots had a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver in the same game. On Nov. 2, 1997, Curtis Martin ran for 104 yards and Shawn Jefferson caught 108 yards worth of passes at Minnesota.

GIVENS GETS 100

DAVID GIVENS exceeded the 100-yard receiving mark for the first time in his career, exceeding his previous career high of 87 yards, set on Nov. 3, 2003 at Denver. Givens became the first Patriot to gain 100 receiving yards since Kevin Faulk notched 108 yards (on eight catches) on Nov. 23, 2003 at Houston. Last season, the Patriots produced four 100-yard receiving games, each by a different player.

HOT ROD

RODNEY HARRISON sacked Josh McCown twice in the first half, recording the third multiple-sack game of his 11-year career and his first since Nov. 26, 2000 (2.0 sacks at Kansas City).

MEAN GENE

EUGENE WILSON recorded two interceptions, marking the first multiple-pick game of his career. Both of Wilson's picks kick-started Patriots scoring drives, with his first-quarter interception leading to the Patriots' second touchdown of the game and his fourth-quarter steal starting a New England field goal drive. Last year, Wilson tied for the NFL rookie lead with four picks and the Patriots led the NFL with 29 interceptions.

GRAHAM CRACKER

DANIEL GRAHAM grabbed two touchdown passes from Tom Brady in the first half, a 2-yard grab in the first quarter and a 19-yarder in the second quarter to give the Patriots a 14-0 lead.

DILLON DOMINATES

COREY DILLON broke the 100-yard mark for the first time in his Patriots career and for the 29th time in his NFL career, rushing 32 times for 158 yards (4.9 avg). His 158 yards were the most by a Patriots rusher in nearly six years, since Robert Edwards cut loose for 196 yards (on 24 carries) on Dec. 13, 1998 at St. Louis.

Corey Dillon's 32 carries were...

- The most by a Patriot in more than seven years (since Curtis Martin set a franchise record with 40 carries in a game against the New York Jets at Foxboro Stadium on Sept. 14, 1997).
- The most for Dillon in nearly four years, since he ran 35 times (for 216 yards) for the Bengals against the Arizona Cardinals in Cincinnati on Dec. 3, 2000.
- The fourth-largest workload of Dillon's eight-year career. He had a career-high 39 carries for the Bengals against Tennessee on Dec. 4, 1997.

Corey Dillon's 158 yards were...

- The most by a Patriot in nearly six years (Robert Edwards, 196 yards on 24 carries at St. Louis on Dec. 13, 1998).
- The 29th time in his career that Dillon has exceeded 100 yards in a game.
- The eighth time in his career that Dillon has exceeded 150 yards in a game.

WILLIE MAC ATTACK

WILLIE MCGINEST sacked Josh McCown twice in the first half, continuing to show a knack for coming up with big plays for the Patriots. The Arizona game was the 16th multiple-sack game of McGinest's career. He forced McCown out of bounds for a sack with 2:06 left in the first quarter, then nailed him for a nine-yard loss with 9:23 left in the half. The sacks upped his career total to 65.5 career regular-season sacks (ranking fourth on the Patriots' all-time list). Including the 2003 postseason, during which he led the NFL with 5.0 sacks, McGinest has recorded 8.0 sacks in his last five games. Dating back to the 2003 regular season, he has 9.5 sacks in his last seven games, and has 10.5 in his last nine.

GAME 1: PATRIOTS 27, COLTS 24

PATRIOTS 27, COLTS 24

September 9, 2004 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

	1	2	3	4	Final
Indianapolis Colts	0	17	0	7	— 24
New England Patriots	3	10	14	0	— 27

The New England Patriots opened the 2004 regular season with a hard-fought 27-24 victory over the Indianapolis Colts. In a rematch of the 2003 AFC Championship Game, New England held onto a 3-point lead when Colts kicker Mike Vanderjagt missed a field goal with 24 seconds remaining in the game, propelling the Patriots to their first win of the season.

The Patriots were the first to strike on offense after Bethel Johnson returned the opening kickoff 32 yards to the New England 37-yard line. Brady orchestrated a 9-play, 48-yard drive, including a 19-yard pass to David Givens on the first offensive play, to set up Vinatieri's 32-yard field goal with less than five minutes elapsed. On the ensuing drive, Indianapolis drove deep into Patriots territory with the help of a 42-yard pass completion from Peyton Manning to Reggie Wayne. The Colts had the ball inside the Patriots 10-yard line but couldn't capitalize. On second-and-goal, Tedy Bruschi lunged in front of a Manning pass and intercepted it at the 1-yard line, ending the drive.

The second quarter began with a game-tying 32-yard field goal by Vanderjagt, starting a scoring barrage, as the Patriots and Colts combined for 27 points in the quarter. After a Patriots punt, the Colts marched 66 yards down the field, capping the drive with a 3-yard touchdown run by Dominic Rhodes to give the Colts a 10-3 lead. Brady proceeded to march the team down the field, ending the drive with a 16-yard touchdown pass to Branch. Vinatieri's extra point knotted the score at 10 with three minutes remaining in the half. Indianapolis broke the stalemate with an 82-yard touchdown drive, ending with a 3-yard pass from Manning to Marvin Harrison and a 17-10 lead with 45 seconds left in the half. But Bethel Johnson returned the ensuing kickoff 34 yards, giving the Patriots prime field position. Brady completed three consecutive passes and Vinatieri connected on his second field goal of the night, a 43-yard attempt to bring the Patriots within three points at the interval.

The Patriots defense forced the Colts to go three-and-out on their first possession of the second half. The Patriots took advantage of the defensive effort as Brady led the team 69-yards downfield, ending the drive with a 25-yard touchdown pass to David Patten for the go-ahead score. The defense continued making big plays, recovering an Edgerrin James fumble on the New England 18-yard line, snuffing out another Colts drive. The Patriots took advantage of the turnover with an 82-yard touchdown drive, with Brady's 8-yard pass to Daniel Graham putting New England up 27-17 with a quarter to play.

The Colts opened the final quarter with a 7-yard touchdown strike from Manning to Brandon Stokley to get within three points of the Patriots. New England preserved its 3-point lead as the Colts drove into Patriots territory in the final minute of the game and appeared to be in position for at least a game-tying field goal. But a 12-yard sack by Willie McGinest forced the Colts to try a 48-yard attempt to send the game into overtime. Vanderjagt's kick went wide right with 24 seconds left on the clock to seal the Patriots' first win of the season.

RED ZONE D

The Patriots defense thwarted three potential scoring drives by forcing three Indianapolis turnovers in the red zone. On the Colts' opening drive, Tedy Bruschi intercepted a Peyton Manning pass on the New England 1-yard line with 6:37 remaining in the first quarter, returning the ball five yards. With 5:14 remaining in the third quarter and the Patriots clinging to a 20-17 lead, Ty Warren forced an Edgerrin James fumble on the New England 18-yard line which Eugene Wilson recovered to end the Colts' scoring threat. The Patriots capitalized on the turnover by marching 82 yards down the field and scoring on an 8-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Daniel Graham to go up 27-17. In the fourth quarter, Wilson combined with Vince Wilfork for a touchdown-saving turnover, forcing James to fumble on the New England 1-yard line with 3:51 remaining in the game.

A LEADING STREAK

The Patriots fell behind the Colts by a 10-3 score on a 3-yard Dominic Rhodes touchdown run with 8:06 left in the first half. It marked the first time the Patriots were behind in a regular-season game since they trailed the Houston Texans 20-13 on Nov. 23, 2003. The Patriots tied that game in Houston on a touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Daniel Graham, kick-starting a span of 327 minutes, 53 seconds of regular-season clock time in which the Patriots were either tied or held a lead. In all, the Patriots did not trail their opponents over a span of nearly five-and-a-half games.

TOUCHDOWN TOMMY

TOM BRADY threw for 335 yards, marking the seventh time in his career he has exceeded the 300-yard mark. Brady also threw for three touchdowns, marking the 12th time in his career he threw for three or more scores. Brady excelled in all phases of the offensive game, registering a 111.2 passer rating. The win over the Colts marked the 16th time in Brady's career he surpassed the 100.0 passer rating plateau.

WILLIE MAC ATTACK

WILLIE MCGINEST sacked Peyton Manning for a 12-yard loss on third-and-eight on the New England 29-yard line with 49 seconds remaining in the game. The sack forced the Colts to settle for a 48-yard field goal attempt by Mike Vanderjagt to tie the game at 27. Vanderjagt missed the attempt wide right with 24 seconds remaining in the contest, preserving the Patriots' victory. This marks the second consecutive season in which a big play by McGinest near the end of the game has foiled the Colts. Last year, McGinest stopped Edgerrin James on the 1-yard line on fourth down on the final play of a 38-34 Patriots victory in Indianapolis (11/30/03).

PICKLESS AT HOME

TOM BRADY was intercepted by the Colts' Nick Harper in the fourth quarter, ending a string of 288 consecutive passes without an interception at Gillette Stadium. He did not throw a pick at home in the 2003 regular season. Prior to the season opener against the Colts, the last time Brady was intercepted at home was in the 2002 season finale, when Miami's Brock Marion picked him off on Dec. 29, 2002.

KEY TURNOVER

A pair of 2003 Patriots draft picks – TY WARREN and EUGENE WILSON – combined to force a key Indianapolis turnover in the third quarter that led to the Patriots' third touchdown of the night and a 10-point New England lead. With the Colts having cracked the Patriots' red zone, Warren reached in and punched the ball away from Edgerrin James at the Patriots' 18-yard line with 5:14 left in the third quarter and the Patriots clinging to a 20-17 lead. Eugene Wilson pounced on the loose ball to give the Patriots possession as the Colts were threatening to score. The Patriots proceeded to drive the field to take a 27-17 lead.

FULL TILT, FULL TIME

TEDY BRUSCHI lunged into the path of a Peyton Manning pass and intercepted it at the Patriots' 1-yard line to end the Colts' opening drive of the game. It was Bruschi's ninth career interception and was the first time he notched a pick against Manning. Four of Bruschi's nine career interceptions have been returned for touchdowns, and he has seen the end zone after an interception twice in each of his last two seasons prior to 2004.

NEON DEION

DEION BRANCH scored the Patriots' first touchdown of the 2004 season with a 16-yard touchdown reception from Tom Brady with 3:07 left in the first half to tie the score at 10. It was the sixth touchdown catch of Branch's career. Last season, he led the Patriots with 57 receptions and 803 receiving yards.

Bill Belichick is celebrating his 30th consecutive season as an NFL coach and has spent more consecutive seasons in the league than any other current head coach. He has been a part of four Super Bowl championship teams, including two world titles in his four seasons as Patriots head coach. In addition to the team's current success, Belichick has built a firm foundation for the Patriots to remain competitive into the future. Since 2001, the Patriots have blossomed, rattling off 44 wins in their last 58 games and making Belichick the winningest NFL head coach since the 2001 season. His overall record of 49-25 (including a 6-0 playoff mark) gives him the best winning percentage of any head coach in Patriots history.

BELICHICK'S PATRIOTS RENAISSANCE

Any successful project requires a sound plan, and once head coach Bill Belichick had the time to implement his design on the Patriots, his approach has given him the best record of any NFL head coach since 2001. Belichick hit the ground running as soon as he arrived in New England in 2000, shaping and molding the Patriots into a contender. After the team endured a 5-11 rebuilding year in his first season, the fruits of Belichick's labor were put on display to the entire NFL, as his team posted an 11-5 record in 2001 and claimed the first Super Bowl title in franchise history. Since 2001, his plan has been in place in New England, and Belichick and the Patriots have compiled the best record in the NFL, winning two of the last three Super Bowls. The remarkable run includes postseason play, where Belichick and the Patriots own a perfect 6-0 record.

THE KRAFT ERA

Since ROBERT KRAFT purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced a remarkable reversal of fortunes. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund franchise that had won just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.). In the early 1990s, the franchise appeared destined for relocation until Kraft bought the team and rejuvenated local interest. By the start of the 1994 season, every game was a complete sellout. Ten seasons later, the consecutive sellout streak is now at 108 and counting. Since Kraft took ownership, the Patriots have won more conference championships than any other team in the NFL, claiming three AFC titles in the past eight seasons.

SUCCESS STORY

By 1996, Robert Kraft's third season of ownership, the Patriots reached the Super Bowl for the second time in team history and had established themselves as one of the NFL's elite teams. Since 1996, the Patriots have won two Super Bowls, three conference titles and have qualified for the playoffs six times, positioning themselves over time as one of the NFL's top clubs.

WORKING OVERTIME

The Patriots have won their last eight overtime games (including the playoffs). New England's eight-game overtime winning streak is the longest in NFL history. The Patriots won two overtime games in 2003, defeating the Dolphins 19-13 in Miami and defeating the Texans 23-20 in Houston. New England has not lost in overtime since Buffalo won 16-13 at Foxboro Stadium on Nov. 5, 2000. Since that time, the Patriots have won eight straight, including five games in which they scored on their first possession of overtime.

The last time New England lost a game in which it held a fourth-quarter lead was on Dec. 24, 2000, when it led Miami 24-17 entering the fourth quarter and ended up losing, 27-24. Since then, the Patriots have won six games in which they trailed or were tied entering the fourth quarter. New England was 10-0 when leading after three quarters in 2001, 6-0 in 2002, 11-0 in 2003 and is 3-0 in 2004.
