Lookouts Unveil Alternate Identity

The Chattanooga Lookouts are proud to announce a new alternate identity for the 2024 season. The new alternate identity was chosen to recognize Chattanooga as the birthplace of the wrecker and to honor the past, present, and future of the towing industry. For six games the team will play as the Chattanooga Wreckers, featuring new on-field jerseys and hats in a dark navy and orange color scheme. The primary mark features a vintage wrecker in orange inspired by the inventor of the tow hitch, Ernest Holmes Sr. The team is partnering with Miller Industries and the International Towing and Recovery Museum to help shine the spotlight on the hard-working men and women who work in the towing and recovery industry.

“Having the opportunity to tell the story of a homegrown industry, an industry that was born and built right here in Chattanooga, is a unique opportunity” said Lookouts Vice President Andrew Zito. “The Lookouts and the towing industry have been a staple of Chattanooga for more than 100 years. We are super excited to bring this identity to life throughout our 2024 season.”

The Chattanooga Wreckers, presented by Miller Industries, will play their first game during the Wreckers Kickoff Extravaganza weekend on Friday, April 26, and Saturday, April 27. The remaining dates include Sunday, June 16, Friday July 12, Saturday, August 3, and Thursday, August 29. Both Friday, April 26 and Saturday, April 27 will feature a Wreckers Car Air Freshener Giveaway for the 1st 1,000 fans. Friday, April 26th's game will be capped off with a spectacular fireworks display. Wreckers' games will also feature special entertainment, promotions and yes, tow trucks.

"The Towing Museum is incredibly proud to be a community partner with the Chattanooga Lookouts," said Executive Director of the International Towing Museum, Lauren Colón. "With our industry foundations being here in Chattanooga, we look forward to engaging with our community while spotlighting the towing industry and slow down move over law awareness. We would also like to extend a big thank you to Miller Industries for sponsoring this exciting collaboration."

"Miller Industries is thrilled to partner with the Lookouts," said Miller Industries Vice President of Marketing Kipp Felice. "With Chattanooga being the birthplace of towing, and home of The World's Largest Manufacturer of Towing and Recovery Equipment, Miller Industries, we knew we needed to be a part of this and are very proud to be the presenting partner of the Chattanooga Wreckers. We look forward to working alongside the International Towing and Recovery Museum and the Lookouts to highlight and share the history of our industry."

ROOKIE

ARIZONA COMPLEX LEAGUE REDS

So you've made it out of Extended Spring Training, congratulations! Now it's time to show what you've got in the Reds Rookie-level team in Goodyear, Arizona. These are what we call "Short Season" teams, because they only play 76 games during their season that starts in June and ends in September.

www.milb.com/arizona-complex

SINGLE - A

DAYTONA TORTUGAS

You're on the Daytona Tortugas, the Low Single-A affiliate of the Reds. Most of the time the players on the Tortugas have a year or two of experience after high school. It might have been professional or in college, but the Tortugas normally don't get players right out of high school and players usually have not played a season this long.

Players in the Reds system make it or break at this level as most are given a chance to prove their value to the team.

DaytonaTortugas.com

ADVANCED - A

DAYTON DRAGONS

If you start with the Dragons (in Dayton, Ohio) it means that you were a high draft pick right out of college - ready to prove yourself right away. A player on the fast track to the Major Leagues spends a year per team.

DaytonDragons.com

Cincinnati Reds Minor League System

DOUBLE-A

CHATTANOOGA LOOKOUTS

The prospects almost ready to make the jump to the big leagues are waiting with the Lookouts in Chattanooga, Tennessee. These players are polishing up their skills and working to eliminate weaknesses that are leaving them short of their ultimate goal. The defense is better, the batters hit harder, and the pitchers move faster.

A Major League team's hottest prospects are typically in Double-A, waiting for a chance at their shot to show what they can do.

Lookouts.com

TRIPLE - A

LOUISVILLE BATS

Triple-A players are only one notch below the big leaguers and you can see it with the Louisville Bats. With rosters full of players who have seen at least some action at the Major League level, this is where players try to make a comeback or are just one step short of being a complete player.

Well played baseball, with a lot of familiar names & faces, is paired with some of the largest Minor League ballparks in the country.

LouisvilleBats.com

MLB

CINCINNATI REDS

Well, you made it to the "The Show!" You've made your dreams come true! Now, don't get lazy. You know that you still have to prove yourself every day - there are plenty of players in the Minors that want your job!

Notable players who have made it to Cincinnati from Chattanooga include Edwin Encarnacion, Joey Votto, Adam Dunn, Tyler Stephenson, and 2021 NL Rookie of the Year, Jonathan India.
