PATRIOTS MEDIA WEBSITE

The Patriots' media-only website, located at <http://media.patriots.com>, will be updated for registered users throughout the season with all the latest media information, schedules, rosters and press releases. In addition to up-to-date media information, the site's archives allow access to all of the Patriots media materials dating back to the 2002 season. The media site will serve as the team's primary credentialing system in 2008.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (2-1) at SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS (2-2)

Sunday, October 5, 2008 ★ Candlestick Park (69,732) ★ 4:15 p.m. EDT

The Patriots return to action following their bye week with an Oct. 5 matchup against the 49ers in San Francisco. New England will play the 49ers on the road for the first time since 1995 and for just the fourth time overall.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

TELEVISION: This week's game will be broadcast to a regional audience by CBS. Dick Enberg and Randy Cross will call the game, which can be seen in the Boston area on WBZ-TV Channel 4.

RADIO: WBCN 104.1 FM is the flagship station for the Patriots Rock Radio Network. A complete listing of the network's 36 stations can be found in this press release. Play-by-play broadcaster Gil Santos is in his 32nd season as the voice of the Patriots and will call the action along with Patriots Hall of Famer Gino Cappelletti. Santos and Cappelletti are celebrating their 25th anniversary season.

NATIONAL RADIO: This week's game will be broadcast to a national audience by Sports USA Radio. Howard David and Gary Barnett will call the game and Troy West will provide updates from the sideline.

PATRIOTS IN OCTOBER

The Patriots enter the month of October having won 10 consecutive games during the month, a streak that dates back to 2005. Since 2003, the Patriots are 19-3 in October games, having swept the month in 2003, 2006 and 2007. This season, the Patriots open the month of October with road games at San Francisco and San Diego and then have back-to-back home games against Denver and St. Louis.

PATRIOTS ON THE WEST COAST

This season, the Patriots play all four of the NFL's West Coast teams – San Francisco, San Diego, Seattle and Oakland – marking the first time in team history that New England will play four times on the West Coast. The Patriots and the New York Jets both play all four West Coast teams this season, becoming the first NFL teams from the eastern time zone to play four times on the West Coast since the 2005 New York Giants (who went 2-2 in their West Coast games en route to an 11-5 season and a wild card berth). The Patriots' 2008 western slate of games begins this week against San Francisco, immediately followed by a trip to San Diego (Oct. 12). The Patriots also have back-to-back West Coast games to open the month of December, traveling to Seattle (Dec. 7) and Oakland (Dec. 14).

PATRIOT PLACE

Game days at Patriot Place are getting even more exciting. Every week a new retailer, restaurant or entertainment venue is opening in Patriot Place's North Lifestyle Center, directly adjacent to Gillette Stadium.

More than half of the 70 shopping, dining and entertainment options at Patriot Place are expected to be open by the end of September. Fans are encouraged to visit Patriot-Place.com to get the latest updates on what's happening at Patriot Place, where everyone wins!

PATRIOTS VS. 49ERS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and 49ers will meet for 11th time in their history and for the first time since 2004.

The Niners hold a 7-3 lead in the series' previous 10 games. The Patriots have won the past two meetings ('98,'04) but the Niners won six straight contests prior to 1998. The Patriots have never won in San Francisco. New England's last trip to San Francisco was in 1995, when the 49ers claimed a 28-3 victory at 3Com Park. The last time the cross-country rivals tangled was when the Patriots closed out the 2004 regular season with a 21-7 victory at Gillette Stadium.

TOUGH TRAVELS

The 49ers are one of two NFL teams the Patriots have never defeated on the road. The Patriots are 0-4 all-time against San Francisco on the road, with three of those four games being played in San Francisco and one game (1989) played in Palo Alto at Stanford Stadium, after Candlestick Park was damaged in an earthquake. Along with the 49ers, the Patriots have not defeated the Washington Redskins on the road.

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 14 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won eight division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than two Super Bowl berths.

A CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

The Patriots and the San Antonio Spurs are the only teams from North America's four major professional sports leagues to have won three titles since 2001. Since 1994, the Patriots trail only the New York Yankees and San Antonio Spurs in having won three titles in the period since Robert Kraft purchased the team.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 153 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 14-plus years of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest win total, the league's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team.

BILL BELICHICK NEWS & NOTES

THE HEAD COACH

Overall Record: 144-86 (.626)
Regular Season: 129-82 (.611)
Postseason: 15-4 (.789)
With Patriots overall: 107-41 (.723)
Overall since 2001: 102-30 (.773)
Super Bowl Titles: 5 (86, 90, 01, 03, 04)
Conf. Titles: 7 (86, 90, 96, 01, 03, 04, 07)
Division Titles: 13 (75, 78, 86, 89, 90, 96, 98, 01, 03, 04, 05, 06, 07)

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 88-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times in the last seven seasons and has produced five straight AFC East titles and six division championships in the last seven seasons. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second best postseason record in NFL history (15-4) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (102-30). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 107-41 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history.

ELITE COMPANY

Bill Belichick is one of nine NFL head coaches to win three or more championships since the league began postseason play in 1933. With the Patriots' victory in Super Bowl XXXIX, Belichick joined an exclusive club in which each of the eight other members has been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

HEAD COACHES WITH THREE OR MORE NFL TITLES

BELICHICK'S PATRIOTS RENAISSANCE

Any successful project requires a sound plan, and once head coach Bill Belichick implemented his design on the Patriots, his approach has given him the best record of any NFL head coach who has coached at least 30 games since 2001.

AMONG THE GREATS

Coach Belichick has recorded a career winning percentage of .626 as a head coach, placing him fourth in NFL history among all NFL coaches with at least 140 career victories. Belichick trails only George Halas (.671), Don Shula (.665) and Joe Gibbs (.629) on that list. Among coaches who began their head coaching careers after the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, Belichick ranks second in league history among coaches with at least 140 career wins.

TOP WINNING PERCENTAGE AMONG HEAD COACHES WITH AT LEAST 140 WINS (INCL. POSTSEASON)

NOTE: Winning percentage calculated using current NFL rules, counting a tie as a half-win, half-loss.

SUPER SUCCESS

Bill Belichick is one of just four head coaches to win three championships since the Super Bowl Era began following the 1966 season. Belichick is the only coach to win three Super Bowls in the post-1993 salary cap era.

COACH BELICHICK ON...

Coach Belichick on Sam Aiken, July 29

Sam did a good job in the spring. He had a real good off-season program. He worked hard in the passing camps and he showed up very positive here in training camp both as a receiver and in the kicking game. He is a big guy and strong - very strong for his position. He is tough, very professional and works hard at his job. Football is important to him. He is on top of things. If he makes a mistake, he really works hard to correct it and make sure he has it right the next time. I like his attitude, I like his work ethic and I like his versatility. He has done a good job.

Coach Belichick on Wesley Britt, Aug. 12

Wes came to us a couple of years ago and we put him on the practice squad. He has developed a lot and is one of the hardest working guys on the team. He has a big frame, like you would like a tackle to have. He has improved a lot since he has been here, like a lot of our young offensive linemen do. He is one of many who has been on the practice squad and eventually worked his way on to the roster and then worked his way into the lineup for some playing time. He has done nothing but improve since he has been here. His hard work, determination and ability to take coaching have enabled him to do that.

Coach Belichick on Matt Cassel, Sept. 8

We have a lot of confidence in Matt. Matt's grown up through the system. He has expanded his knowledge of the offense as the offense has expanded through the years. He ran it a lot in preseason this year, in training camp and some of the time that Tom [Brady] missed. I think that he is capable of handling himself in a lot of different situations because he has been through them. It is not just chalk talk but it's actually going out there and doing it on the field and doing it in practice situations. I think he showed that [against Kansas City] - that he could go out there, manage the game and manage the team.

Coach Belichick on Heath Evans, Sept. 19

He's a just good all around player. He does a lot of things for us and does a lot of things well. He's a bigger guy that can hold up against bigger people in pass protection. As a run blocker, he runs the ball effectively as a power back. He plays in the kicking game on the coverage teams and also on the return teams. He's a smart guy with some versatility and he does a lot of different roles for us. He's been our third down back in the past when Kevin [Faulk] wasn't available. He's really done a lot of fullback, halfback and special teams. He's been a very versatile player for us. He's another dependable guy that works hard and he's a smart kid. He's got very good playing strength. He's a strong player.

Coach Belichick on Jabar Gaffney, Sept. 3

I think he is appreciated around here by the coaching staff, the offensive coaches, the players and the quarterback. He is a very versatile player. He does a lot of different things for us. I don't think there is any way for someone outside this organization to understand how versatile a player he is and how much he patches together, in one way or another, on different plays and formations. He is smart, versatile and a good receiver that has been effective in a lot of different situations - man, zone, red area, third down. He has a good skill set and is a very flexible player that helps our offense in many different ways - some subtle and some not so subtle. He is one of the bonding agents that holds things together.

Coach Belichick on Gary Guyton, Sept. 3

He is a smart kid. He has good size. He runs well. He is instinctive. He is versatile and does some different things for us. He has shown up in the kicking game. Even the tackle he made in the Baltimore game, you could see his speed just on that play on the punt return. He has shown good versatility. He is smart. He gives us good depth and he has made some plays. He played at a good level of competition at Georgia Tech and showed some of those same things in college. He's a good run player, pass player and blitzer. Like I said, he has come in, picked up things quickly, showed a lot of versatility for a rookie, and done a good job when he has been given the opportunity.

Coach Belichick on Rodney Harrison, July 31

He brings a level of play and intensity out there to the practice field that is good for everybody. It is good for the defense, offense and for the entire football team. Nobody practices harder than Rodney. I don't think, in my career, I have ever coached a player that practices any harder than Rodney practices on a daily basis. He has a tremendous work ethic and is as good as anybody I have been around, especially on the defensive side of the ball. That carries over to other players and forces them to rise up to his level. It is good to have him back out there.

Coach Belichick on Russ Hochstein, Aug. 4

I don't know where we would be without [Russ's versatility]. Russ is one of the most solid and consistent players we have on our team. He is really the same guy everyday, whether it be practice, games, preseason or postseason, the first quarter, or the fourth quarter - it doesn't matter. He is a very consistent and dependable guy.

Coach Belichick on LaMont Jordan, Aug. 12

Every player has their own set of skills. I think LaMont has a good set. He is a powerful guy, has some quickness and catches the ball well. He has good speed, he is not a track guy, but he has competitive speed, good quickness and can get through the hole. He breaks tackles. He has some things going for him.

Coach Belichick on Jerod Mayo, Sept. 19

He's been very consistent. He's learning something every time he walks out onto the field both in practice and in the games. I think he's shown, in both of the regular season games against Kansas City and the Jets, his speed, his range, toughness and his playmaking ability. He's made big plays in both of those games, open field tackling and things like that. There are things that Jerod [Mayo] hasn't, that every rookie hasn't, seen before. Things that are a little bit different than the situation in practice. [Things] that we went through in practice, he learns from those, improves on them the next time and they're usually not problems. I think he's gaining a little more experience and reacting a little bit quicker each time he goes out on the field. He works awfully hard at it. He is a very attentive and detailed young man.

Coach Belichick on Brandon Meriweather, July 31

I thought he made a lot of improvement last season during the course of the year and in training camp. He had a good off-season and a good spring. He is having a good training camp. I think he is much better now than where he was last year at this time. He continues to improve on a regular basis. He works hard and takes coaching well.

COACH BELICHICK ON...

Coach Belichick on Kevin O'Connell, Aug. 14

Kevin has kind of gotten better each day. He is making a big transition from college to the NFL. He is going from a shotgun offense to an offense that is less than 50 percent shotgun. In addition, there are a lot of other differences with the reads, terminology and so forth. Kevin has gotten better every day. He works hard and is a smart kid. He is a talented athlete because he is big and can run. He has a good arm and pretty good accuracy. There are still a lot of things he has to work on just from a mechanics standpoint, with terminology, learning our system and getting comfortable with the reads and the adjustments. He has made a lot of progress and seems to get better each day.

Coach Belichick on Lewis Sanders, Aug. 4

Lewis is working hard. He is another guy that has had a lot of different responsibilities for us in the kicking game, playing both corner and safety defensively. He's got good experience in a couple different systems so I don't think anything he is doing here is anything that new. It is just a question on some new terminology or adapting it to a different situation but he is an experienced guy and he keeps showing up. He shows up with a play or two everyday and he is a hard working guy.

Coach Belichick on Richard Seymour, Aug. 13

I think Richard has [tipped as many passes and disrupted the quarterback] as well as anybody. Year in and year out, he has tipped more balls than anybody around here and more than anyone I have coached. He is tall and has long arms. He is athletic, can jump and has a good sense of timing of when to try and get in the throwing lane, when to keep rushing the quarterback and attack the blocker. He is probably as good as you are going to get at that.

Coach Belichick on Matthew Slater, Aug. 4

Matthew is a smart kid. We have been working him at some different spots since he has gotten here in all three phases of the game. We will see how that all comes together but he is a smart guy that has a good set of skills.

Coach Belichick on Adalius Thomas, Aug. 13

Adalius is a smart guy who works hard. He has played in multiple positions in our defense. Last year at this time he was playing inside, getting some reps outside, involved in different things in the sub defense, playing off and on the line, playing in coverage and playing as part of the pass rush. He has a lot of experience from doing different things. He has played 16 regular season games and three postseason games plus the preseason last year. He has a lot of game situations under his belt. I think he has really become one of the leaders on defense, not that he wasn't last year but more so going into his second year. Going into his second year he knows more of what he is doing as opposed to feeling like 'I have to learn this and learn that.' I am not saying he doesn't have anything to learn; we all have more to learn. He is a lot further ahead than he was last year. He has been very positive in his work ethic and with helping some of the younger linebackers like Shawn [Crawley], Vince [Reed], Pierre [Woods] and those guys. He really stepped up and gave a lot of leadership and good work ethic to the entire unit. He has done well and we are glad to have him.

Coach Belichick on David Thomas, Aug. 19

The bad news for David [Thomas] was '07. The good news was he really got off to a good start in '08. Kind of getting off to a good start, he's been able to maintain that momentum and the start there in the spring has carried over in the training camp and the preseason ... David works hard. He works hard at everything. He's a very competitive kid. He's smart. He knows how to use his strengths, leverage and position to his advantage. He competes hard. He has good playing strength and good quickness. He has done a good job with that.

Coach Belichick on Ray Ventrone, Sept. 15

No one has worked harder than Ray. He's just continued to improve the last couple years. He has good playing strength. He has good speed and he's a tough, fearless guy. He will throw his body in there, anywhere, in any situation. He has good concentration, like we saw in preseason, catching the ball - taking hits in traffic, hanging onto it and running with it after the catch. Ray's the type of player that works hard. He's improved steadily. He's gotten stronger, faster and quicker in his training. He's become a better football player because of his techniques and work ethic on the field. He's not really a starting type of player on offense and defense that's actually helped him in ways that he's been able to get reps on both sides of the ball. He's really been able to develop as an offensive and a defensive player, as well as, his role in the kicking game. That's kind of self-contained. But, on offense and defense he's been able to work into roles on those sides of the ball and actually take reps in both areas on a pretty consistent basis. He's kind of a unique player in his role, his niche and his versatility. You usually don't see a player have the kind of exceptional toughness and the kind of physical play that he does - that does all that. That's kind of a rare combination of forces coming together in his skill set.

Coach Belichick on Wes Welker, Sept. 16

His quickness [and] his running style make him effective after the catch. He's strong for his size. He has good balance and he's a hard guy to wrap up and tackle. [He is] similar to but also different than Troy Brown, who was another smaller type of guy who was hard to tackle because he could make people miss and bounce off some tackles because of his size, lower body strength and balance. He's able to stay on his feet and gain some extra yards. So, it's a combination of quickness, running style and vision. I think Wes does a good job of finding where there is a soft spot on defense and getting what's there.

Coach Belichick on Pierre Woods, July 27

Pierre [Woods] is one of our hardest workers and one of our most diligent players. He works hard at his job and tries to do everything right, just the way you want it.

PATRIOTS NEWS & NOTES

DOMINATING DEFENSE

Since the beginning of the 2003 season, the Patriots have allowed an average of 17.19 points per game (including playoffs), a mark that leads the NFL over that span. In regular-season play only, the Patriots' 16.93 points per game allowed since 2003 also leads the NFL over that span. In 2007, the Patriots allowed 274 points, marking the fourth time in the last five seasons (since 2003) that New England has allowed fewer than 275 points in a season.

CASSEL OFF TO SOLID START

MATT CASSEL won his first career start on the road against the New York Jets on Sept. 14, a week after playing the final three-plus quarters of the Patriots' season-opening win over Kansas City on Sept. 7. Through three games, Cassel has completed 66.7 percent of his passes, a completion rate that is tied for fourth in the NFL. In September 2008, the Patriots as a team completed 58-of-87 passes, with their 66.7 percent completion rate standing as the third highest in team history for that month, trailing only the 2007 (79.5) and 2002 (69.4) Patriots squads.

CAPTAINS ELECTED

The following players were elected as Patriots captains by their teammates during the week leading into the season opener—Offense: QB Tom Brady, T Matt Light, WR Randy Moss; Defense: LB Tedy Bruschi, S Rodney Harrison, LB Mike Vrabel, NT Vince Wilfork; Special Teams: LB Larry Izzo.

DEFENSE/SP. TEAMS NEWS & NOTES

CHARTER MEMBER OF 30/30 CLUB

RODNEY HARRISON is the only player in NFL history to record at least 30 sacks and at least 30 interceptions in his career. He has 30.5 career sacks and 33 career interceptions over 14 seasons with the San Diego Chargers (1994-2002) and New England Patriots (2003-07). Harrison established the 30/30 club on Oct. 21, 2007, when a sack against the Miami Dolphins raised his career sack total to 30.5. Harrison is the NFL's all-time leader in sacks by a defensive back, dating back to when sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

WEEK 3: DOLPHINS 38, PATRIOTS 13

DOLPHINS 38, PATRIOTS 13

September 21, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|-----------------------------|---|----|---|----|-------|
| Miami Dolphins | 7 | 14 | 7 | 10 | — 38 |
| New England Patriots | 0 | 6 | 7 | 0 | — 13 |

The Patriots fell to 2-1 on the season, dropping a 38-13 decision to the Miami Dolphins at Gillette Stadium. New England's 21-game regular-season winning streak was broken as the Patriots lost in regular season play for the first time since Dec. 10, 2006, when they fell 21-0 at Miami. The Patriots lost at home for the first time since Nov. 12, 2006, snapping a streak of 15 straight home victories in the regular season and playoffs.

2008 PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME INDUCTION WEEKEND

The Patriots will conclude the inaugural Patriots Hall of Fame Induction Weekend with a halftime ceremony at the Dolphins game. Patriots Hall of Famers honored on the field at halftime included: Nick Buoniconti, Gino Cappelletti, Ben Coates, Steve Grogan, John Hannah, Mike Haynes, Stanley Morgan, Steve Nelson, Babe Parilli and Andre Tippett. The late Bob Dee was represented by his son, Bob Dee, Jr., and the late Jim Lee Hunt was represented by his wife, Rosa Hunt. The weekend's events included a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Thursday Sept. 18 for The Hall at Patriot Place Presented by Raytheon, and a re-induction of all Patriots Hall of Famers and the enshrinement of 2008 Patriots Hall of Fame inductee Ben Coates on Saturday, Sept. 20.

HOBBS SETS PATRIOTS RECORD FOR MOST KICKOFF RETURN YARDAGE IN A GAME

Ellis Hobbs totaled 237 yards on six kickoff returns, setting a Patriots record for most kickoff return yardage in a game. Hobbs topped the previous Patriots record of 220 kickoff return yards, set by Kevin Faulk against the New York Jets on Dec. 22, 2002. Hobbs had long kickoff returns of 81 yards and 50 yards en route to his record against the Dolphins. His 82-yard return in the third quarter set up Matt Cassel's 5-yard touchdown pass to Jabar Gaffney. Playing in his 50th career game, Hobbs returned the opening kickoff of the game 50 yards to the Miami 49-yard line. In his 50-game career, Hobbs has now recorded six kickoff returns of 50 yards or longer and nine kickoff returns of 40 yards or longer.

GAFFNEY SCORES

Jabar Gaffney snared a 5-yard touchdown pass from Matt Cassel on fourth-and-three with 3:20 remaining in the third quarter to cut the Miami lead to 28-13. The touchdown catch was Gaffney's first of the season and the 14th of his career. Last season, Gaffney set a career high with five touchdown receptions.

EVEN STEPHEN

Stephen Gostkowski was two-for-two on field goals, connecting from 37 yards and 44 yards. His kicks against the Dolphins were Gostkowski's 13th and 14th consecutive successful regular-season field goals, extending the longest success streak of his career, and tying the fourth-longest streak in Patriots history (also achieved by Tony Franklin from 10/26/86 to 11/23/86). Gostkowski has now made 27 of his last 29 regular-season field goals (93.1 percent) and is 57-for-67 in his regular-season and playoff career, with his 85.1 percent accuracy rate standing as the highest in Patriots history. Last week against the Jets, Gostkowski tied his career high with a 4-for-4 field goal performance.

QUICK HITS

- 2008 Patriots Hall of Fame Inductee Ben Coates served as an honorary captain at the coin toss.

- The Dolphins game was the 153rd straight home sellout for the Patriots. The streak is now in its 15th season and includes every Patriots preseason, regular-season and playoff game since the 1994 regular-season opener.
- Patriots tackle Matt Light played in his 100th career game. Light, a 2008 offensive captain, was drafted by the Patriots in the second round (48th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.
- Sam Aiken made his Patriots debut after missing the first two games of the season. Aiken, signed as a free agent from the Buffalo Bills in the offseason, caught his first pass in a New England uniform in the second quarter, a 9-yard catch on third-and-two.

THIS WEEK IN PATRIOTS HISTORY September 29 – October 5

Four Years Ago: October 3, 2004: The Patriots defeat the Buffalo Bills, 31-17, at Ralph Wilson Stadium to tie the all-time pro football record with their 18th consecutive regular season and playoff victory.

Five Years Ago: October 5, 2003: The Patriots defeat the Tennessee Titans 38-30 at Gillette Stadium to begin their NFL-record 21-game winning streak, including a Super Bowl XXXVIII win.

Seven Years Ago: Sept. 30, 2001 – Second-year quarterback Tom Brady made his first career start in a 44-13 victory over the Indianapolis Colts to give the Patriots their first win of the season.

Ten Years Ago: October 4, 1998: Adam Vinatieri nails a 27-yard field goal with three seconds left in the game to give the Patriots a 30-27 win over the New Orleans Saints at the Louisiana Superdome.

Fourteen Years Ago: Oct. 2, 1994 – The Patriots improved to 3-2 in Robert Kraft's first year as owner with a 17-16 win over the Green Bay Packers. New England's record moved above .500 for the first time in more than five years, dating back to the end of the 1988 season.

Twenty Years Ago: October 2, 1988: The Patriots defeat the Indianapolis Colts 21-17, with Doug Flutie providing the game-winning touchdown on a 13-yard bootleg with 29 seconds left in the game to erase a 17-14 deficit.

CALIFORNIA DREAMIN'

Ten Patriots players, along with two New England coaches, grew up in California. All of the Patriots' quarterbacks grew up in California. Eight of the California native players stayed in the Golden State for college. Tight ends coach Pete Mangurian and assistant head coach/offensive line coach Dante Scarnecchia were both born in Los Angeles.

WEEK 2: PATRIOTS 19, JETS 10

PATRIOTS 19, JETS 10

September 14, 2008 ★ Giants Stadium (Att: 78,554)

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|----------------------|---|---|----|---|-------|
| New England Patriots | 3 | 3 | 10 | 3 | — 19 |
| New York Jets | 0 | 3 | 0 | 7 | — 10 |

The Patriots began the season with a 2-0 record for the third straight season and won their 21st consecutive regular-season game, a 19-10 road divisional victory over the New York Jets. Matt Cassel, in his first career start at quarterback, completed nearly 70 percent of his passes, while Stephen Gostkowski hit all four of his field goal attempts to help the Patriots to victory. New England's defense allowed just 10 points for the second straight week, and a key interception by Brandon Meriweather in the third quarter set up a New England touchdown that gave the Patriots a solid lead.

TWENTY-ONE IN A ROW

The Patriots won their 21st consecutive regular-season game, improving on their all-time NFL record for consecutive regular season wins. The Patriots have not lost in the regular season since Dec. 20, 2006, when they fell to the Dolphins in Miami. Since then, they won the final three games of the 2006 regular season, won all 16 games in the 2007 regular season and have won the first two games of the 2008 campaign. New England also holds the second longest regular-season winning streak in NFL history, claiming victory in 18 straight regular season games from Oct. 5, 2003 to Oct. 24, 2004. The 1933-34 Chicago Bears rank third with 17 straight wins.

CASSEL WINS FIRST CAREER START

Matt Cassel made his first career start at quarterback and completed 16-of-23 passes (69.6 percent) for 165 yards and a passer rating of 89.9 in helping the Patriots to a 19-10 divisional win on the road. Through two games this season, Cassel has completed 29-of-41 passes for 317 yards and a touchdown with no interceptions, totaling a 101.4 passer rating, as New England has started the season with a 2-0 record for the third straight year and for the fifth time in the nine seasons since Bill Belichick became head coach in 2000.

DEFENSE: 20 POINTS THROUGH TWO GAMES

The Patriots allowed the Jets to score 10 points and allowed a total of just 20 points through two games (Kansas City also scored 10 points in a 17-10 Patriots win on Sept. 7). The 20 points allowed through the season's first two games is the lowest total by a Patriots team since Bill Belichick became head coach in 2000. The last time the Patriots allowed a total of 20 points or fewer in the season's first two games was in 1997, when New England allowed a total of 13 points, beginning the season with a 41-7 win over San Diego at Foxboro Stadium and following that up with a 31-6 win at Indianapolis.

GOSTKOWSKI TIES CAREER HIGH

Stephen Gostkowski nailed all four of his field goals – from 21, 37, 28 and 27 yards – improving to a perfect 5-for-5 on the season. He tied his career high for field goals in a game, matching his 4-for-4 performance against Houston as a rookie on Dec. 17, 2006. Gostkowski has hit 12 straight regular-season field goals dating back to last season, and has nailed 25 of his last 27 regular season boots (92.6 percent). Following his four kicks against the Jets, Gostkowski has hit 55-of-65 field goals in his regular season and playoff career, and his 84.6 percent career accuracy rate is the highest in Patriots history. The Patriots selected Gostkowski in the fourth round (118th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft out of Memphis. Additionally, Gostkowski booted five kickoffs out of the end zone for touchbacks.

MERIWEATHER'S FIRST CAREER INTERCEPTION SETS UP TOUCHDOWN

Brandon Meriweather recorded his first career interception, picking off a Brett Favre pass at the Jets' 44-yard line in the third quarter and returning it 13 yards to give the Patriots possession at the New York 31-yard line. The play set up a 6-play, 31-yard drive that ended in a 1-yard scoring plunge by Sammy Morris that gave the Patriots a 13-3 lead. Meriweather was selected by the Patriots in the first round (24th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft out of Miami.

MORRIS SCORES

Sammy Morris gave the Patriots a 13-3 third-quarter lead with a 1-yard touchdown rush, diving into the end zone. The touchdown run was Morris's second in as many weeks. He also scored on a 5-yard touchdown run in the Patriots' season-opening win over Kansas City on Sept. 7. The touchdown was Morris's 19th career rushing touchdown and his 20th career overall touchdown (one receiving).

RED ZONE STOP

The Patriots held the Jets to a field goal after New York had gained a first-and-goal from the Patriots' 3-yard line in the second quarter. On first down, Tedy Bruschi and James Sanders stuffed Thomas Jones for a 1-yard gain. On second down, Rodney Harrison snared Jones for just a 1-yard advance. And on third-and-goal from the 1-yard line, Richard Seymour stuffed Jones in the backfield for a 2-yard loss to force a New York field goal and keep the Patriots ahead, 6-3.

SERIES STREAKS

- With their win over the Jets, the Patriots took the lead in the all-time series against New York, 49-48-1 (including a 2-0 playoff record). The last time the Patriots were above .500 in their all-time series with New York was in entering the 1967 season, when they led 7-6-1.
- The Patriots defeated the Jets for the eighth consecutive time on the road. The streak dates back to a 17-16 win at Giants Stadium on Dec. 2, 2001.
- The Patriots have now held the Jets to 17 points or fewer in 10 of their last 11 meetings.

QUICK HITS

- Matt Cassel completed his first four passes of the day for 61 yards. His longest and final completion in the string was a 26-yard completion to Wes Welker that drove the Patriots to the Jets' 5-yard line, setting up a 21-yard Stephen Gostkowski field goal and a 3-0 Patriots lead.
- Matt Cassel found Kevin Faulk for a 22-yard gain on third-and-10 to extend a Patriots touchdown drive in the third quarter.
- Kevin Faulk made a heads-up play in the second quarter when he snared a deflected Matt Cassel pass for a 9-yard gain on third-and-four to extend a Patriots field goal drive.
- Richard Seymour sacked Brett Favre for a loss of nine yards in the second quarter.
- Adalius Thomas sacked Brett Favre for a loss of 20 yards in the fourth quarter, dragging Favre down at the Jets' own seven yard line.
- Jerod Mayo buried Thomas Jones in the backfield for a 3-yard loss on second down in the second quarter, forcing New York into a third-and-18 that it did not convert.
- Deltha O'Neal started for the Patriots at left cornerback, recording his first start in a New England uniform. O'Neal was signed by the Patriots as a free agent on Sept. 1.
- Stephen Gostkowski booted five kickoffs out of the end zone for touchbacks.

WEEK 1: PATRIOTS 17, CHIEFS 10

PATRIOTS 17, CHIEFS 10

September 7, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|----------------------|---|---|---|---|-------|
| Kansas City Chiefs | 0 | 3 | 0 | 7 | — 10 |
| New England Patriots | 0 | 7 | 7 | 3 | — 17 |

The Patriots won their 20th consecutive regular-season game, a 17-10 victory over Kansas City to open the 2008 season. Randy Moss had six catches for 116 yards and a touchdown, while the Patriots totaled 126 rushing yards on 28 carries (4.5 avg.) and quarterback Matt Cassel completed 13-of-18 passes (72.2 percent) and threw for a touchdown in relief of an injured Tom Brady.

After losing starting quarterback Tom Brady for the season due to a left knee injury in the scoreless first quarter, the Patriots got on the board as quarterback Matt Cassel directed a 10-play, 98-yard drive that ended in a 10-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss and a 7-0 Patriots lead. The Chiefs closed the gap to 7-3 with a field goal in the final minute of the first half, but the Patriots used their only possession of the third quarter to march 80 yards on 11 plays and extend their lead to 14-3 on a 5-yard touchdown run by Sammy Morris. The Chiefs answered back with a touchdown to open the fourth quarter, cutting the New England lead to 14-10. After two three-and-outs by the Patriots and one by the Chiefs, Ellis Hobbs intercepted a Damon Huard pass and gave the Patriots possession near midfield, setting up a field goal that extended New England's lead to 17-10 with 2:26 left in the game. The Chiefs mounted one last charge, gaining a first-and-goal from the Patriots' 5-yard line with 53 seconds left, but the Patriots defense bore down with a key red zone stop to keep Kansas City out of the end zone and preserve the 17-10 victory.

RED ZONE STOP IN FINAL MINUTE

The Patriots defense clinched the 17-10 win by keeping Kansas City out of the end zone after the Chiefs had gained a first-and-goal from the 5-yard line with 53 seconds left in the game. The Patriots did not allow the Chiefs to even gain a yard. The Patriots forced an incompletion on first down, Richard Seymour and Mike Vrabel combined to stop Larry Johnson for no gain on second down, and then New England forced two straight Kansas City incompletions on third and fourth downs.

CASSEL LEADS 98-YARD DRIVE

In his first drive at quarterback in the first quarter, Matt Cassel directed a 10-play, 98-yard drive that ended in a 10-yard scoring strike to Randy Moss and a 7-0 Patriots lead. The drive was the longest for the Patriots since Sept. 23, 2007, when they also embarked on a 10-play, 98-yard drive against Buffalo at Gillette Stadium.

MOSS SCORES 126th CAREER TOUCHDOWN

Randy Moss caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Matt Cassel in the second quarter, recording his 126th career overall touchdown and his 125th career receiving touchdown. His 126 total touchdowns (125 receiving, 1 via punt return) tying him with Jim Brown (106 rushing, 20 receiving) for eighth on the NFL's all-time touchdowns list. LaDainian Tomlinson ranks seventh with 129 total touchdowns. Moss's 125 receiving touchdowns rank fourth on the league's all-time list.

MOSS BREAKS 100-YARD MARK IN 1ST QUARTER

Randy Moss had 101 yards on four receptions in the first quarter, marking the third time in his career that he has broken the 100-yard receiving mark in the first quarter. The last time he achieved the feat was on Oct. 3, 1999, while playing for Minnesota in a game against Tampa Bay. Last season, Moss had 100 or more receiving yards in a quarter on one occasion—in the second quarter at Miami on Oct. 21, 2007, when he had 104 yards on three receptions.

MOSS TOPS 100 YARDS FOR 56th TIME

Randy Moss recorded his 56th career 100-yard receiving game. That total ranks third in NFL history, trailing only Jerry Rice (76) and Marvin Harrison (59). Last season, Moss had nine 100-yard receiving games and broke the mark in each of the first four games in 2007.

PATRIOTS DEBUTS

Nine players made their Patriots debuts against the Chiefs: LB Gary Guyton, T Mark LeVour, RB LaMont Jordan, LB Jerod Mayo, CB Deltha O'Neal, CB Lewis Sanders, WR Matthew Slater, CB Terrence Wheatley and CB Jonathan Wilhite.

HOBBS INTERCEPTION

Ellis Hobbs intercepted a Damon Huard pass at the Kansas City 41-yard line with 7:21 remaining in the game and the Patriots holding a 14-10 lead. Hobbs pounced on the pass intended for Dwayne Bowe and returned the ball to the 38-yard line. The interception was the seventh of Hobbs's regular-season career. He also has two career postseason interceptions. Including the 2007 playoffs, Hobbs has four interceptions in his last five games—he had one in the 2007 regular season finale and added two in three playoff games last season before opening the 2008 regular season with a pick.

MORRIS SCORES

Sammy Morris gave the Patriots a 14-3 lead on a 5-yard scoring run with 3:01 left in the third quarter. The touchdown was the 19th of Morris's career (18 rushing, one receiving). Last season, Morris played in six games with two starts and totaled 384 yards on 85 rushes (4.5 avg.) before being placed on injured reserve with a chest injury on Nov. 2, 2007.

CASSEL-TO-MOSS

Matt Cassel's 51-yard completion to Randy Moss on the final play of the first quarter was the longest completion of his career, topping his 36-yard completion to Andre Davis in the 2005 regular-season finale against Miami on Jan. 1, 2006.

BIG BOOT FOR HANSON

Chris Hanson's 70-yard punt in the second quarter was the longest punt by a Patriot since 2001 and was his longest boot since 2005. The play pinned the Chiefs at their own 9-yard line following no return. The last time a Patriots player had a punt of 70 yards or longer was on Sept. 9, 2001, when Lee Johnson had a 76-yard boot in the season opener at Cincinnati.

BRUSCHI ENTERS 13th SEASON

Tedy Bruschi played in his 177th game as a Patriot and is in his 13th season with New England since being selected in the third round of the 1996 NFL Draft. Bruschi's 13 seasons as a Patriot tie Raymond Clayborn, John Hannah, Stanley Morgan and Mosi Tatupu for sixth on the team's all-time list. Bruschi's 177 games played rank eighth on the club's all-time list.

QUICK HITS

- The Chiefs game was the 152nd straight home sellout for the Patriots. The streak is now in its 15th season and includes every Patriots preseason, regular-season and playoff game since the 1994 regular-season opener.
- The Patriots won their fifth straight regular season opener, and won their first game of the season for the sixth time in the last seven years.
