PATRIOTS VS. BRONCOS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Broncos will meet for the 42nd time in series history and for the 13th time in the last 15 years. The Broncos have won five of the last six regular-season and playoff contests, including a 2-0 mark at Gillette Stadium. Denver has won the series' last three games, including two regular-season contests and a 2005 AFC Divisional Playoff matchup. The last time the two teams met was in week three of the 2006 season when the Broncos won a defensive battle, 17-7, Sept. 24 at Gillette Stadium. The Broncos own a 26-15 advantage in the series, including a 2-0 mark in the playoffs. Of the 41 previous games in the series, only 16 have been played in New England. The Patriots have played more games against the Broncos than any other team that has never been in New England's division. The history between the teams dates back to the first days of the American Football League in 1960. The Patriots played the Broncos in the inaugural game of each franchise, a 13-10 Denver win on Sept. 9, 1960 at B.U. Field. The teams squared off twice a year in the decade prior to the AFL-NFL merger, with the Patriots taking a 10-7 advantage out of those games.

LAST MEETING

BRONCOS 17, PATRIOTS 7

September 24, 2006 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

	1	2	3	4	Final
Denver Broncos	0	10	0	7	— 17
New England Patriots	0	0	0	7	— 7

The Patriots suffered their first loss of the 2006 season, dropping a 17-7 decision to the Denver Broncos in their inaugural appearance on NBC's Sunday Night Football.

Strong defensive play from both teams led to a scoreless first quarter, as the two teams traded several punts. After New England failed to convert a fourth-and-one play midway through the second quarter, the Broncos drove from their 37-yard line to the Patriots' 4-yard line where Broncos kicker Jason Elam opened the scoring with a 23-yard field goal. New England responded with a 60-yard drive to the Denver 19-yard line that featured three consecutive first down plays, but the Broncos special teams unit blocked a field goal attempt by Patriots kicker Stephen Gostkowski. Capitalizing on the turnover, Broncos quarterback Jake Plummer hit receiver Javon Walker in stride down the right sideline for a 32-yard score, giving Denver a 10-0 lead at the half.

The defenses were on display again in the third quarter, as neither squad mounted a significant drive in a battle for field position, but the Broncos scored early in the fourth quarter, converting a third-and-6 play on a Walker catch and run for 83 yards and a touchdown to stretch the Broncos' lead to 17. The Patriots responded on their next drive, marching 80 yards downfield and scoring when newly acquired receiver Doug Gabriel snared a Brady bullet in the back of the end zone. The touchdown catch was Gabriel's first as a Patriot, and came just six plays after making his first catch in a New England uniform. Gabriel finished the game with six catches for 65 yards, all coming in the fourth quarter. The Patriots switched to a no-huddle offense with 3:36 remaining in the game and drove into the Denver red zone, but were unable to mount a comeback bid.

LAST WEEK: CHARGERS 30, PATRIOTS 10

CHARGERS 30, PATRIOTS 10

October 12, 2008 ★ Qualcomm Stadium (Att: 68,704)

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	0	3	0	7	— 10
San Diego Chargers	10	7	10	3	— 30

The Patriots saw their 12-game road winning streak snapped in a 30-10 loss to San Diego at Qualcomm Stadium. The Chargers took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter and held off New England's second-half comeback try to snap the Patriots' 11-game winning streak in the month of October. The Patriots seemed poised to cut the deficit to 17-10 after getting the opening kickoff of the second half and gaining a first-and-goal on the San Diego 1-yard line. But the Chargers came up with a goal-line stand to maintain a 17-3 lead and promptly drove the length of the field to extend their advantage to 24-3. Two San Diego field goals extended the lead to 30-3 before a New England touchdown with 5:18 left in the game made the final score 30-10.

ROAD STREAK ENDS

The loss to San Diego ended the Patriots' streak of 12 consecutive regular season road victories, dating back to a Dec. 24, 2006 win against the Jaguars in Jacksonville. The Patriots' 12-game road winning streak is the second-longest road winning streak in NFL history (San Francisco, 18, 1988-90). Three teams have won 11 straight road games (San Diego 1960-61, San Francisco 1987-88, Pittsburgh 2004-05).

GOSTKOWSKI'S STREAK ENDS AT 17

Stephen Gostkowski missed a 48-yard field goal attempt in the first quarter, marking his first regular-season miss since Dec. 9, 2007. Gostkowski had made 10 straight field goals to open the 2008 season and had a streak of 17 straight field goals dating back to last season. His string of 17 straight successful regular-season field goals was the third longest consecutive field goal streak in Patriots history, trailing only a 25-kick streak by Adam Vinatieri from 1996-97 and a 23-kick streak by Vinatieri in 2004. Gostkowski nailed a 47-yard boot in the second quarter to improve to 11-for-12 (91.7 percent) on the season.

WELKER CONSISTENT

Wes Welker had nine catches against San Diego, marking the fifth straight game to open the season that Welker has had six or more catches. Welker has 36 receptions in 2008 and is averaging 7.2 catches per game this season after averaging seven catches per game in 2007, his first season with the Patriots. Welker's 112 catches in 2007 tied for the league lead and set an NFL record for most receptions by a player in his first season with a new team.

FUMBLE RECOVERY

Ty Warren recovered a fumble by Jacob Hester in the fourth quarter, marking the Patriots' first defensive fumble recovery of the season. The fumble recovery was the sixth of Warren's career, and set up an 8-play, 46-yard drive that ended in a 1-yard touchdown run by Sammy Morris.

MORRIS TOUCHDOWN

Sammy Morris scored on a 1-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to make the score 30-10. The touchdown was Morris's third rushing score of the season and was the 20th rushing touchdown of his 9-year NFL career. He also has one career receiving touchdown. Morris's three total touchdowns lead the team through five games and equal his total of three touchdowns in 2007.

MORRIS CATCH

Sammy Morris gained 28 yards on a pass play in the third quarter, tying the second longest reception of his career. The catch trails only his 44-yard reception on Oct. 22, 2006 while he was with the Miami Dolphins. Morris's other 28-yard reception also came that year during the Dolphins' Dec. 10 game against the Patriots. Morris's 28-yard catch against the Chargers set the Patriots up in a first-and-goal from the 1-yard line.

QUICK HITS

- The Patriots lost a game in October for the first time since 2005, snapping a streak of 11 straight October wins. Prior to falling in San Diego, the Patriots' last loss in October came on Oct. 16, 2005, a 28-20 loss at Denver.
- Ty Warren stuffed LaDainian Tomlinson for a 1-yard loss in the second quarter and stopped him for another 1-yard loss in the fourth quarter.
- Chris Hanson had a 44-yard punt in the second quarter that was downed by Jonathan Wilhite at the Chargers' 3-yard line.

WHITE JERSEY STREAK

The Patriots wore their road white jerseys for the fifth consecutive game after wearing them in each of their first four games, including two home games. The Patriots typically wear their blue jerseys at home, but home teams have the option of choosing which jersey to wear.

TOP TELEVISION RATINGS

Historically, the Patriots have been at or near the top of the weekly television ratings for the 2.4 million homes in the Boston TV market. More than 20 percent of the Boston market has tuned in to each of the Patriots' five games this season.

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 14 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won eight division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than two Super Bowl berths.

A CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

The Patriots and the San Antonio Spurs are the only teams from North America's four major professional sports leagues to have won three titles since 2001. Since 1994, the Patriots trail only the New York Yankees and San Antonio Spurs in having won three titles in the period since Robert Kraft purchased the team.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 153 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 14-plus years of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest win total, the league's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team.

THE HEAD COACH

Overall Record: 145-87 (.625)
Regular Season: 130-83 (.610)
Postseason: 15-4 (.789)
With Patriots overall: 108-42 (.720)

Division Titles: 13 (75, 78, 86, 89, 90, 96, 98, 01, 03, 04, 05, 06, 07)

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 88-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times in the last seven seasons and has produced five straight AFC East titles and six division championships in the last seven seasons. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second best postseason record in NFL history (15-4) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (103-31). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 108-42 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history.

ELITE COMPANY

Bill Belichick is one of nine NFL head coaches to win three or more championships since the league began postseason play in 1933. With the Patriots' victory in Super Bowl XXXIX, Belichick joined an exclusive club in which each of the eight other members has been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

COACH BELICHICK ON...

Coach Belichick on Sam Aiken, July 29

Sam did a good job in the spring. He had a real good off-season program. He worked hard in the passing camps and he showed up very positive here in training camp both as a receiver and in the kicking game. He is a big guy and strong - very strong for his position. He is tough, very professional and works hard at his job. Football is important to him. He is on top of things. If he makes a mistake, he really works hard to correct it and make sure he has it right the next time. I like his attitude, I like his work ethic and I like his versatility. He has done a good job.

Coach Belichick on Matt Cassel, Sept. 8

We have a lot of confidence in Matt. Matt's grown up through the system. He has expanded his knowledge of the offense as the offense has expanded through the years. He ran it a lot in preseason this year, in training camp and some of the time that Tom [Brady] missed. I think that he is capable of handling himself in a lot of different situations because he has been through them. It is not just chalk talk but it's actually going out there and doing it on the field and doing it in practice situations. I think he showed that [against Kansas City] - that he could go out there, manage the game and manage the team.

Coach Belichick on Shawn Crable, Sept. 30

I think Shawn has improved all the way through camp and in the regular season in the opportunities that he's had. If we were able to take more players to the game, I am sure Shawn would go to the game and I am sure he would play. So far this year we have to limit it to 45. He hasn't been on the active roster but we have a lot of confidence in Shawn and I'm sure that he would be able to contribute for us if he was at the game. It is just a question of whose place he would have to take and what other ramifications would come into play there. But he has done a good job and he's getting better all the time.

Coach Belichick on Heath Evans, Sept. 19

He's a just good all around player. He does a lot of things for us and does a lot of things well. He's a bigger guy that can hold up against bigger people in pass protection. As a run blocker, he runs the ball effectively as a power back. He plays in the kicking game on the coverage teams and also on the return teams. He's a smart guy with some versatility and he does a lot of different roles for us. He's been our third down back in the past when Kevin [Faulk] wasn't available. He's really done a lot of fullback, halfback and special teams. He's been a very versatile player for us. He's another dependable guy that works hard and he's a smart kid. He's got very good playing strength. He's a strong player.

Coach Belichick on Kevin Faulk, Oct. 5

Kevin does a great job. Seems like no matter what we ask him to do, he always does it well; whether it's blitz pick-up, or pass receiving on third down, running the ball, goal line. He's a clutch, dependable player for us.

Coach Belichick on Jabar Gaffney, Sept. 3

I think he is appreciated around here by the coaching staff, the offensive coaches, the players and the quarterback. He is a very versatile player. He does a lot of different things for us. I don't think there is any way for someone outside this organization to understand how versatile a player he is and how much he patches together, in one way or another, on different plays and formations. He is smart, versatile and a good receiver that has been effective in a lot of different situations - man, zone, red area, third down. He has a good skill set and is a very flexible player that helps our offense in many different ways - some subtle and some not so subtle. He is one of the bonding agents that holds things together.

Coach Belichick on Stephen Gostkowski, Oct. 6

Steve's been kicking the ball very well in all situations - kickoffs and all the field goal extra point situations. Not only is he hitting them straight, but with good elevation, get-off time and good hang time on the kickoff. I think he's really done a good job in every opportunity he's had here in the past four games. He's been outstanding - he really has.

Coach Belichick on Gary Guyton, Oct. 10

I don't think [Gary] he has missed anything at all - not a practice, not a snap. He works hard. He is a smart kid and he has some versatility. He keeps getting better every single day on special teams, on defense, in the passing game and in the running game. We give him different assignments and things to do and he handles it well. He's had opportunities to play and he's been pretty productive in the preseason, [against San Francisco] on defense, and on special teams - he made a real good tackle on a kickoff return. He's one of those kids that works hard and keeps on getting better. As long as he does that I am sure his playing time will increase and he will get more opportunities. He continues to take advantage of them.

Coach Belichick on Rodney Harrison, July 31

He brings a level of play and intensity out there to the practice field that is good for everybody. It is good for the defense, offense and for the entire football team. Nobody practices harder than Rodney. I don't think, in my career, I have ever coached a player that practices any harder than Rodney practices on a daily basis. He has a tremendous work ethic and is as good as anybody I have been around, especially on the defensive side of the ball. That carries over to other players and forces them to rise up to his level. It is good to have him back out there.

Coach Belichick on Russ Hochstein, Aug. 4

I don't know where we would be without [Russ's versatility]. Russ is one of the most solid and consistent players we have on our team. He is really the same guy everyday, whether it be practice, games, preseason or postseason, the first quarter, or the fourth quarter - it doesn't matter. He is a very consistent and dependable guy.

Coach Belichick on LaMont Jordan, Aug. 12

Every player has their own set of skills. I think LaMont has a good set. He is a powerful guy, has some quickness and catches the ball well. He has good speed, he is not a track guy, but he has competitive speed, good quickness and can get through the hole. He breaks tackles. He has some things going for him.

Coach Belichick on Jerod Mayo, Sept. 19

He's been very consistent. He's learning something every time he walks out onto the field both in practice and in the games. There are things that Jerod [Mayo] hasn't, that every rookie hasn't, seen before. Things that are a little bit different than the situation in practice. [Things] that we went through in practice, he learns from those, improves on them the next time and they're usually not problems. I think he's gaining a little more experience and reacting a little bit quicker each time he goes out on the field. He works awfully hard at it. He is a very attentive and detailed young man.

Coach Belichick on Brandon Meriweather, Oct. 8

He's made a lot more catches in practice and he's had some picks now in games - in the preseason and regular-season. That's good. I'm glad to see it paying off. His interception against the Jets, that was a big play. Then, just sticking with it there on the tip play in San Francisco, that was a big turnover for us after they had just taken one from us. He has worked hard on it; I'm glad that it has paid off in some production.

COACH BELICHICK ON...

Coach Belichick on Kevin O'Connell, Aug. 14

Kevin has kind of gotten better each day. He is making a big transition from college to the NFL. He is going from a shotgun offense to an offense that is less than 50 percent shotgun. In addition, there are a lot of other differences with the reads, terminology and so forth. Kevin has gotten better every day. He works hard and is a smart kid. He is a talented athlete because he is big and can run. He has a good arm and pretty good accuracy. There are still a lot of things he has to work on just from a mechanics standpoint, with terminology, learning our system and getting comfortable with the reads and the adjustments. He has made a lot of progress and seems to get better each day.

Coach Belichick on Deltha O'Neal, Oct. 8

Deltha's a smart guy. He's got a lot of experience. He's worked hard. He's picked up our system. I obviously wish that he would've been there through training camp to get all of the little things, but he's certainly worked hard to accelerate the learning and the communication, the adjustments, and all those kinds of things that we have to do defensively in the secondary. He's got a good work ethic. He's an experienced player. He understands concepts and he's an instinctive player. He's put it together pretty quickly. It's been really impressive really.

Coach Belichick on Lewis Sanders, Aug. 4

Lewis is working hard. He is another guy that has had a lot of different responsibilities for us in the kicking game, playing both corner and safety defensively. He's got good experience in a couple different systems so I don't think anything he is doing here is anything that new. It is just a question on some new terminology or adapting it to a different situation but he is an experienced guy and he keeps showing up. He shows up with a play or two every day and he is a hard working guy.

Coach Belichick on Richard Seymour, Aug. 13

I think Richard has [tipped as many passes and disrupted the quarterback] as well as anybody. Year in and year out, he has tipped more balls than anybody around here and more than anyone I have coached. He is tall and has long arms. He is athletic, can jump and has a good sense of timing of when to try and get in the throwing lane, when to keep rushing the quarterback and attack the blocker. He is probably as good as you are going to get at that.

Coach Belichick on Matthew Slater, Aug. 4

Matthew is a smart kid. We have been working him at some different spots since he has gotten here in all three phases of the game. We will see how that all comes together but he is a smart guy that has a good set of skills.

Coach Belichick on Adalius Thomas, Aug. 13

Adalius is a smart guy who works hard. He has played in multiple positions in our defense. Last year at this time he was playing inside, getting some reps outside, involved in different things in the sub defense, playing off and on the line, playing in coverage and playing as part of the pass rush. He has a lot of experience from doing different things. He has a lot of game situations under his belt. I think he has really become one of the leaders on defense, not that he wasn't last year but more so going into his second year. Going into his second year he knows more of what he is doing as opposed to feeling like 'I have to learn this and learn that.' I am not saying he doesn't have anything to learn; we all have more to learn. He is a lot further ahead than he was last year. He has been very positive in his work ethic and with helping some of the younger linebackers like Shawn [Crawley], Vince [Redd], Pierre [Woods] and those guys. He really stepped up and gave a lot of leadership and good work ethic to the entire unit. He has done well and we are glad to have him.

Coach Belichick on David Thomas, Aug. 19

The bad news for David [Thomas] was '07. The good news was he really got off to a good start in '08. Kind of getting off to a good start, he's been able to maintain that momentum and the start there in the spring has carried over in the training camp and the preseason ... David works hard. He works hard at everything. He's a very competitive kid. He's smart. He knows how to use his strengths, leverage and position to his advantage. He competes hard. He has good playing strength and good quickness. He has done a good job with that.

Coach Belichick on Ray Ventrone, Sept. 15

No one has worked harder than Ray. He's just continued to improve the last couple years. He has good playing strength. He has good speed and he's a tough, fearless guy. He will throw his body in there, anywhere, in any situation. He has good concentration, like we saw in preseason, catching the ball - taking hits in traffic, hanging onto it and running with it after the catch. He's really been able to develop as an offensive and a defensive player, as well as, his role in the kicking game. That's kind of self-contained. But, on offense and defense he's been able to work into roles on those sides of the ball and actually take reps in both areas on a pretty consistent basis. He's kind of a unique player in his role, his niche and his versatility. You usually don't see a player have the kind of exceptional toughness and the kind of physical play that he does - that does all that. That's kind of a rare combination of forces coming together in his skill set.

Coach Belichick on Mike Vrabel, Oct. 8

Mike's one of our most consistent, versatile players. We ask him to do a lot of things, defensively, and also goal-line stuff on offense, things like that. Mike's very smart. He's one of the best prepared, smartest players I've ever coached. He can do a lot of things in regular defense, sub defenses. He can rush the passer, play in coverage. He has a lot of different responsibilities. He kind of thrives when we're changing things up and he's doing different things and playing in different spots and we move him around. We ask him to do that a lot because he does a good job.

Coach Belichick on Wes Welker, Sept. 16

His quickness [and] his running style make him effective after the catch. He's strong for his size. He has good balance and he's a hard guy to wrap up and tackle. [He is] similar to but also different than Troy Brown, who was another smaller type of guy who was hard to tackle because he could make people miss and bounce off some tackles because of his size, lower body strength and balance. He's able to stay on his feet and gain some extra yards. So, it's a combination of quickness, running style and vision. I think Wes does a good job of finding where there is a soft spot on defense and getting what's there.

Coach Belichick on Terrence Wheatley and Jonathan Wilhite, Sept. 30

I think [Terrence] Wheatley and Jonathan Wilhite have both improved quite a bit. They worked hard, got a lot of snaps in training camp and in the preseason games, especially Wheatley. As we have gotten into the regular season we have cut down because of our scheme, we just game plan for one team. Instead of running everything against everything, we narrow it down to the calls we are going to make in this particular game plan. I think that helps young players and new players coming into your team because they don't have to worry about every defense against every formation and every adjustment. I think there has been some improvement with Wheatley and Wilhite.

Coach Belichick on Pierre Woods, July 27

Pierre [Woods] is one of our hardest workers and one of our most diligent players. He works hard at his job and tries to do everything right, just the way you want it.

New England Patriots	7	10	7	6	— 30
San Francisco 49ers	14	0	0	7	— 21

... The Patriots improved to 3-1 on the season with a 30-21 win on the road against San Francisco. Matt Cassel set career highs in passing yards and completions, while Randy Moss totaled 111 receiving yards, including a 66-yard touchdown grab. Stephen Gostkowski was a perfect three-for-three on field goals, including a crucial 49-yarder that gave the Patriots a two-score advantage in the fourth quarter. The Patriots defense came up with three interceptions to help halt the San Francisco momentum, while Kevin Faulk set a career high with two rushing touchdowns.

... The Niners got on the board first, taking a 7-0 lead on a 16-yard touchdown pass from J.T. O'Sullivan to Frank Gore. The Patriots answered just three plays later, with Cassel and Moss hooking up for a 66-yarder that tied the game at seven. San Francisco answered back just four plays after that with a 6-yard scoring pass from O'Sullivan to Isaac Bruce, capping off a sequence of three total touchdowns in less than four minutes of clock time with the 49ers claiming a 14-7 lead. The Patriots chipped back to 14-10 on a 35-yard field goal midway through the second quarter and after a three-and-out by the New England defense, the Patriots proceeded to drive 80 yards on 12 plays and take a 17-14 lead on Faulk's 2-yard scoring run with six seconds left before the half. Faulk found the end zone again in the third quarter, giving New England a 24-14 lead with a 2-yard touchdown run on a direct snap on fourth down. The Patriots began the fourth quarter with 40-yard field goal that extended the lead to 27-14, but San Francisco answered with an 8-yard drive that ended in the second scoring hookup of the game between O'Sullivan and Bruce, making the score 27-21. Gostkowski's 49-yard field goal extended the lead to 30-21 with 4:42 left and the Patriots defense used a Deltha O'Neal interception and a fourth-down stop to shut the door on the Niners and preserve the win.

CAREER HIGHS FOR CASSEL

Quarterback Matt Cassel set single-game career highs with 259 yards, 22 completions and 32 attempts. Prior to the game against the 49ers, his previous single-game highs were 168 yards (vs. Miami on Jan. 1, 2006), 19 completions (vs. Miami on Sept. 21, 2008) and 31 attempts (vs. Miami on Sept. 21, 2008).

FAULK'S GOAL LINE SCORES

Kevin Faulk scored on a two-yard run to give the Patriots a 17-14 lead with six seconds remaining in the first half and a two-yard run on fourth and goal to give the Patriots a 24-14 lead in the third quarter. It was the first time Faulk has scored two rushing touchdowns in a game and just the third time he has scored two total touchdowns in a game (vs. Houston, 12/17/06 and at Chicago, 11/10/02). The touchdowns were Faulk's first two of the season. Faulk's first touchdown was his first rushing score since Dec. 17, 2006, when he had an 11-yard scoring run against the Houston Texans. Last season, Faulk scored one touchdown, via a 13-yard reception at Indianapolis on Nov. 4, 2007. For his career, Faulk now has 13 rushing touchdowns, 11 receiving touchdowns and two touchdowns via kick return.

MOSS GOES FOR 111

Randy Moss had five receptions for 111 yards, recording his second 100-yard receiving game of the season and the 57th 100-yard receiving game of his career. Moss's 57 career 100-yard receiving games rank third in NFL history, trailing only Jerry Rice (76) and Marvin Harrison (59). In 2007, Moss had nine 100-yard receiving games. Moss had four catches for 111 yards in the first half against San Francisco.

CASSEL BOMB TO MOSS

On third and eight from the 49ers' 34-yard line in the first quarter, Matt Cassel rolled to his right and hit Randy Moss, who had split the defense down the middle, on a 66-yard touchdown, tying the score at seven. The catch was Moss's longest reception as a Patriot and his longest reception since Oct. 2, 2005, when he snared a 79-yard catch while playing for Oakland against the Dallas Cowboys. The touchdown toss was the longest of Matt Cassel's career, the longest play of the year for the Patriots and the longest since Donté Stallworth's 69-yard touchdown reception against Dallas on Oct. 4, 2007. The touchdown was Moss's 126th career scoring reception and his 25th touchdown grab since joining the Patriots via trade prior to the 2007 season. Last season, Moss had touchdown receptions of 65 yards (at N.Y. Giants, 12/29/07) and 63 yards (vs. Pittsburgh, 12/9/07).

GOSTKOWSKI'S FIELD GOAL STREAK

Stephen Gostkowski nailed three field goals in the game -- a 35-yarder, a 40-yarder and a 49-yarder. The kicks were Gostkowski's 15th, 16th and 17th consecutive successful field goals, extending a streak that dates back to Dec. 9, 2007. Gostkowski has made 30 of his last 32 regular-season field goals (93.8 percent) and is a perfect 10-for-10 this season following his kicks against San Francisco. Gostkowski's 17 straight successful field goals streak is the third longest in Patriots history, trailing only a 25-kick streak by Adam Vinatieri from 1996-97 and a 23-kick streak by Vinatieri in 2004.

FIRST WIN IN SAN FRANCISCO

The Patriots' 30-21 victory over the 49ers was New England's first win in San Francisco. The Patriots had lost in each of their four previous road matchups with the 49ers. The Washington Redskins are now the only NFL team the Patriots have never beaten on the road.

MERIWEATHER HIGHLIGHT

Brandon Meriweather recorded his second interception of the season and the second interception of his career when he made an acrobatic play to intercept a J.T. O'Sullivan pass at the San Francisco 4-yard line in the first quarter, tipping the ball in the air and corralling it with his back on the ground. Meriweather, who also had an interception in the Patriots' week two victory over the New York Jets, leads New England with two interceptions in 2008.

HARRISON'S PICK

Rodney Harrison intercepted a J.T. O'Sullivan pass in the third quarter to give the Patriots possession at the San Francisco 24-yard line and set up Kevin Faulk's second touchdown of the day, giving the Patriots a 24-14 lead. The interception was the 34th of Harrison's 15-year career and his eighth regular-season interception since joining the Patriots in 2003. Harrison also has seven interceptions in nine playoff games with New England. Harrison now has 34 career interceptions and 30.5 career sacks and is the only player in NFL history with at least 30 career interceptions and 30 career sacks.

O'NEAL INTERCEPTION

Deltha O'Neal intercepted a J.T. O'Sullivan pass that was deflected by Rodney Harrison with 2:45 remaining in the game and the Patriots holding a 30-21 lead. The interception was O'Neal's first in a New England uniform after being signed as a free agent on Sept. 1. The pick was the 32nd of O'Neal's nine-year NFL career. He had 14 interceptions with Denver from 2000-03 and 16 picks with Cincinnati from 2004-07.

HOBBS SETS PATRIOTS RECORD FOR MOST KICKOFF RETURN YARDAGE IN A GAME

Ellis Hobbs totaled 237 yards on six kickoff returns, setting a Patriots record for most kickoff return yardage in a game. Hobbs topped the previous Patriots record of 220 kickoff return yards, set by Kevin Faulk against the New York Jets on Dec. 22, 2002. Hobbs had long kickoff returns of 81 yards and 50 yards en route to his record against the Dolphins. His 82-yard return in the third quarter set up Matt Cassel's 5-yard touchdown pass to Jabar Gaffney. Playing in his 50th career game, Hobbs returned the opening kickoff of the game 50 yards to the Miami 49-yard line. In his 50-game career, Hobbs has now recorded six kickoff returns of 50 yards or longer and nine kickoff returns of 40 yards or longer.

GAFFNEY SCORES

Jabar Gaffney snared a 5-yard touchdown pass from Matt Cassel on fourth-and-three with 3:20 remaining in the third quarter to cut the Miami lead to 28-13. The touchdown catch was Gaffney's first of the season and the 14th of his career. Last season, Gaffney set a career high with five touchdown receptions.

QUICK HITS

- 2008 Patriots Hall of Fame Inductee Ben Coates served as an honorary captain at the coin toss.
- The Dolphins game was the 153rd straight home sellout for the Patriots. The streak is now in its 15th season and includes every Patriots preseason, regular-season and playoff game since the 1994 regular-season opener.
- Patriots tackle Matt Light played in his 100th career game. Light, a 2008 offensive captain, was drafted by the Patriots in the second round (48th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.
- Sam Aiken made his Patriots debut after missing the first two games of the season. Aiken, signed as a free agent from the Buffalo Bills in the offseason, caught his first pass in a New England uniform in the second quarter, a 9-yard catch on third-and-two.

WEEK 2: PATRIOTS 19, JETS 10

September 14, 2008 ★ Giants Stadium (Att: 78,554)

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	3	3	10	3	— 19
New York Jets	0	3	0	7	— 10

The Patriots began the season with a 2-0 record for the third straight season and won their 21st consecutive regular-season game, a 19-10 road divisional victory over the New York Jets. Matt Cassel, in his first career start at quarterback, completed nearly 70 percent of his passes, while Stephen Gostkowski hit all four of his field goal attempts to help the Patriots to victory. New England's defense allowed just 10 points for the second straight week, and a key interception by Brandon Meriweather in the third quarter set up a New England touchdown that gave the Patriots a solid lead.

CASSEL WINS FIRST CAREER START

Matt Cassel made his first career start at quarterback and completed 16-of-23 passes (69.6 percent) for 165 yards and a passer rating of 89.9 in helping the Patriots to a 19-10 divisional win on the road. New England started the season with a 2-0 record for the third straight year and for the fifth time in the nine seasons since Bill Belichick became head coach in 2000.

DEFENSE: 20 POINTS THROUGH TWO GAMES

The Patriots allowed the Jets to score 10 points and allowed a total of just 20 points through two games (Kansas City also scored 10 points in a 17-10 Patriots win on Sept. 7). The 20 points allowed through the season's first two games is the lowest total by a Patriots team since Bill Belichick became head coach in 2000. The last time the Patriots allowed a total of 20 points or fewer in the season's first two games was in 1997, when New England allowed a total of 13 points, beginning the season with a 41-7 win over San Diego at Foxboro Stadium and following that up with a 31-6 win at Indianapolis.

GOSTKOWSKI TIES CAREER HIGH

Stephen Gostkowski nailed all four of his field goals – from 21, 37, 28 and 27 yards – improving to a perfect 5-for-5 on the season. He tied his career high for field goals in a game, matching his 4-for-4 performance against Houston as a rookie on Dec. 17, 2006.

MERIWEATHER'S FIRST CAREER INTERCEPTION SETS UP TOUCHDOWN

Brandon Meriweather recorded his first career interception, picking off a Brett Favre pass at the Jets' 44-yard line in the third quarter and returning it 13 yards to give the Patriots possession at the New York 31-yard line. The play set up a 6-play, 31-yard drive that ended in a 1-yard scoring plunge by Sammy Morris that gave the Patriots a 13-3 lead. Meriweather was selected by the Patriots in the first round (24th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft out of Miami.

SERIES STREAKS

- With their win over the Jets, the Patriots took the lead in the all-time series against New York, 49-48-1 (including a 2-0 playoff record). The last time the Patriots were above .500 in their all-time series with New York was in entering the 1967 season, when they led 7-6-1.
- The Patriots defeated the Jets for the eighth consecutive time on the road. The streak dates back to a 17-16 win at Giants Stadium on Dec. 2, 2001.
- The Patriots have now held the Jets to 17 points or fewer in 10 of their last 11 meetings.

GAME 1: PATRIOTS 17, CHIEFS 10

PATRIOTS 17, CHIEFS 10

September 7, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

	1	2	3	4	Final
Kansas City Chiefs	0	3	0	7	— 10
New England Patriots	0	7	7	3	— 17

The Patriots won their 20th consecutive regular-season game, a 17-10 victory over Kansas City to open the 2008 season. Randy Moss had six catches for 116 yards and a touchdown, while the Patriots totaled 126 rushing yards on 28 carries (4.5 avg.) and quarterback Matt Cassel completed 13-of-18 passes (72.2 percent) and threw for a touchdown in relief of an injured Tom Brady.

After losing starting quarterback Tom Brady for the season due to a left knee injury in the scoreless first quarter, the Patriots got on the board as quarterback Matt Cassel directed a 10-play, 98-yard drive that ended in a 10-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss and a 7-0 Patriots lead. The Chiefs closed the gap to 7-3 with a field goal in the final minute of the first half, but the Patriots used their only possession of the third quarter to march 80 yards on 11 plays and extend their lead to 14-3 on a 5-yard touchdown run by Sammy Morris. The Chiefs answered back with a touchdown to open the fourth quarter, cutting the New England lead to 14-10. After two three-and-outs by the Patriots and one by the Chiefs, Ellis Hobbs intercepted a Damon Huard pass and gave the Patriots possession near midfield, setting up a field goal that extended New England's lead to 17-10 with 2:26 left in the game. The Chiefs mounted one last charge, gaining a first-and-goal from the Patriots' 5-yard line with 53 seconds left, but the Patriots defense bore down with a key red zone stop to keep Kansas City out of the end zone and preserve the 17-10 victory.

RED ZONE STOP IN FINAL MINUTE

The Patriots defense clinched the 17-10 win by keeping Kansas City out of the end zone after the Chiefs had gained a first-and-goal from the 5-yard line with 53 seconds left in the game. The Patriots did not allow the Chiefs to even gain a yard. The Patriots forced an incompletion on first down, Richard Seymour and Mike Vrabel combined to stop Larry Johnson for no gain on second down, and then New England forced two straight Kansas City incompletions on third and fourth downs.

CASSEL LEADS 98-YARD DRIVE

In his first drive at quarterback in the first quarter, Matt Cassel directed a 10-play, 98-yard drive that ended in a 10-yard scoring strike to Randy Moss and a 7-0 Patriots lead. The drive was the longest for the Patriots since Sept. 23, 2007, when they also embarked on a 10-play, 98-yard drive against Buffalo at Gillette Stadium.

MOSS SCORES 126th CAREER TOUCHDOWN

Randy Moss caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Matt Cassel in the second quarter, recording his 126th career overall touchdown and his 125th career receiving touchdown. His 126 total touchdowns (125 receiving, 1 via punt return) tying him with Jim Brown (106 rushing, 20 receiving) for eighth on the NFL's all-time touchdowns list.

MOSS BREAKS 100-YARD MARK IN 1ST QUARTER

Randy Moss had 101 yards on four receptions in the first quarter, marking the third time in his career that he has broken the 100-yard receiving mark in the first quarter. The last time he achieved the feat was on Oct. 3, 1999, while playing for Minnesota in a game against Tampa Bay. Last season, Moss had 100 or more receiving yards in a quarter on one occasion—in the second quarter at Miami on Oct. 21, 2007, when he had 104 yards on three receptions.

MOSS TOPS 100 YARDS FOR 56th TIME

Randy Moss recorded his 56th career 100-yard receiving game. That total ranks third in NFL history, trailing only Jerry Rice (76) and Marvin Harrison (59). Last season, Moss had nine 100-yard receiving games and broke the mark in each of the first four games in 2007.

PATRIOTS DEBUTS

HOBBS INTERCEPTION

Ellis Hobbs intercepted a Damon Huard pass at the Kansas City 41-yard line with 7:21 remaining in the game and the Patriots holding a 14-10 lead. Hobbs pounced on the pass intended for Dwayne Bowe and returned the ball to the 38-yard line. The interception was the seventh of Hobbs's regular-season career. He also has two career postseason interceptions. Including his interception against Kansas City, Hobbs had four interceptions in a five-game span—he had one in the 2007 regular season finale and added two in three playoff games last season.

MORRIS SCORES

Sammy Morris gave the Patriots a 14-3 lead on a 5-yard scoring run with 3:01 left in the third quarter. The touchdown was the 19th of Morris's career (18 rushing, one receiving). Last season, Morris played in six games with two starts and totaled 384 yards on 85 rushes (4.5 avg.) before being placed on injured reserve with a chest injury on Nov. 2, 2007.

CASSEL-TO-MOSS

Matt Cassel's 51-yard completion to Randy Moss on the final play of the first quarter was the longest completion of his career at the time, topping his 36-yard completion to Andre Davis in the 2005 regular-season finale against Miami on Jan. 1, 2006.

BIG BOOT FOR HANSON

Chris Hanson's 70-yard punt in the second quarter was the longest punt by a Patriot since 2001 and was his longest boot since 2005. The play pinned the Chiefs at their own 9-yard line following no return. The last time a Patriots player had a punt of 70 yards or longer was on Sept. 9, 2001, when Lee Johnson had a 76-yard boot in the season opener at Cincinnati.

BRUSCHI ENTERS 13th SEASON

Tedy Bruschi is in his 13th season with New England since being selected in the third round of the 1996 NFL Draft. Bruschi's 13 seasons as a Patriot tie Raymond Clayborn, John Hannah, Stanley Morgan and Mosi Tatupu for sixth on the team's all-time list.

QUICK HITS

- The Chiefs game was the 152nd straight home sellout for the Patriots. The streak is now in its 15th season and includes every Patriots preseason, regular-season and playoff game since the 1994 regular-season opener.

Red football helmets will be available for a $1 donation and silver paper helmets will be available for a $5 donation. The goal is to raise enough money through the campaign to provide 350,000 meals.

"We need everyone to realize that hunger is a problem that affects all of our communities, and is especially hard-hitting among children," said Josh Kraft, President of the New England Patriots Charitable Foundation. "While it's a problem that doesn't often command headlines, it should and we hope that this program will bring light and support to the issue. If everyone makes a small donation, collectively we can make a very big impact."

Each person that purchases a helmet at checkout will also be eligible to win Patriots prizes, including a trip to a Patriots away game, VIP tickets to a home game, and autographed memorabilia.

The number of people seeking emergency food assistance in our region has doubled in the past ten years and a third of those receiving assistance are children. The Patriots, Shaw's and local food banks hope to decrease childhood hunger by supporting this unique Kids Cafe program. The goal is to open three new Kids Cafes by the end of 2009 and to continue to support the program throughout New England.

PATRIOTS VISIT FLOATING HOSPITAL FOR CHILDREN

During the bye week, three Patriots players spent their day at Floating Hospital for Children at Tufts Medical Center visiting patients and handing out Patriots treats. Despite being given the weekend off, running back Sammy Morris, offensive lineman Logan Mankins and linebacker Pierre Woods spent their Friday afternoon visiting pediatric patients in the hospital's bone marrow transplant center before heading to the hospital playroom to play pool and air hockey with the kids. The players passed out books and Patriots trinkets to the kids while making sure to pose for photographs and sign autographs for dozens of patients and medical staff.
