PATRIOTS VS. LIONS

THE LAST MEETING PATRIOTS 28, LIONS 21

December 3, 2006 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|-----------------------------|---|----|---|----|-------|
| Detroit Lions | 0 | 10 | 8 | 3 | — 21 |
| New England Patriots | 3 | 10 | 0 | 15 | — 28 |

The Patriots improved to 9-3 with a tight 28-21 victory over the Detroit Lions at Gillette Stadium. Detroit led 21-13 with 13:07 left in the game, but the Patriots scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns and added a 2-point conversion to secure the comeback victory. Corey Dillon tied a team record by scoring three touchdowns and Tom Brady completed 14 of his 15 fourth-quarter passes to secure the victory. New England's defense forced a season-high five turnovers, including a career-high two interceptions by Mike Vrabel, and held the Lions to just one touchdown in four red-zone trips.

The Patriots opened the scoring with a 25-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski – capping off a 17-play, 81-yard drive – to take a 3-0 first-quarter lead. Detroit moved ahead, 7-3, on a 5-yard touchdown pass from Jon Kitna to Mike Furrey early in the second quarter. After the Patriots went three-and-out on their next possession, the Lions mounted another drive, gaining a first-and-goal at New England's 4-yard line, and looked poised to take a 14-3 lead. But Artrell Hawkins forced the Lions' Kevin Jones to fumble and Mike Vrabel pounced on the loose ball after Asante Samuel tipped it to him to give the Patriots possession. A Jason Hanson field goal gave Detroit a 10-3 lead with 3:19 left in the half, but the Patriots' two-minute drill produced two quick-strike drives to claim a 13-10 halftime lead. First, Brady drove the Patriots 73 yards in five plays to tie the game at 10 on Dillon's first of three scoring runs on the day. After Asante Samuel intercepted Kitna with 47 seconds left in the half, New England drove 61 yards on eight plays to take a 13-10 lead on a 27-yard field goal by Gostkowski as time expired in the half.

The third quarter saw Detroit take control of the game, scoring three times – on two field goals and a safety – to take an 18-13 lead as the game headed into the final quarter. Hanson booted his fourth field goal of the game with 13:07 left to give the Lions a 21-13 lead and set the stage for New England's comeback. On the ensuing possession, Brady completed all six of his pass attempts to direct a touchdown drive that ended in Dillon's second touchdown run. Brady then fired a strike to Troy Brown for a two-point conversion that tied the game at 21 with 8:35 left. Vrabel's first interception ended the Lions' ensuing drive, but a Benjamin Watson fumble gave Detroit the ball back three plays later. But just two more plays saw the Patriots record their fourth turnover of the day, a Roosevelt Colvin strip-sack of Kitna that set up New England's game-winning drive. Following the fumble, Brady marched the Patriots 32 yards in seven plays, completing all five of his passes to set up Dillon's third touchdown of the game and give New England a 28-21 lead with 2:33 left. In the first play after the two-minute warning, Vrabel sealed the game with his second interception, ending Detroit's bid to tie the game and allowing New England to run out the clock and secure the win.

LAST WEEK: PATRIOTS-COLTS

PATRIOTS 31, INDIANAPOLIS 28

November 21, 2010 ★ Gillette Stadium

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|----------------------|---|----|---|----|-------|
| Indianapolis Colts | 0 | 14 | 0 | 14 | 28 |
| New England Patriots | 7 | 14 | 7 | 3 | 31 |

The New England Patriots beat the Indianapolis Colts 31-28 in their annual meeting to improve to an 8-2 record and remain tied for first place in the AFC East.

RB BenJarvus Green-Ellis ran for 96 yards with a touchdown, and RB Danny Woodhead gained 69 yards rushing, including a 36-yard touchdown run, to support a 2-touchdown effort by QB Tom Brady. Brady not only out-dueled a four-time MVP in QB Peyton Manning, but also won his 25th straight regular-season home start, equaling Brett Favre's record when he was with Green Bay. Brady finished 19-of-25 for 186 yards and two touchdowns. He completed 12 of 14 passes in the first half.

Despite a 31-14 fourth quarter lead, the Patriots let the game get close at the end. Manning completed 38 passes for 396 yards with four touchdown passes but threw his third interception of the game with the Colts in position for a game-tying field goal with 31 seconds to play.

Down three points with 2:25 left to play, Manning led the Colts to the New England 24-yard line with 37 seconds to play to get into field goal range. S James Sanders clinched the victory for the Patriots when he intercepted a Manning pass at the 6-yard line with 31 seconds to play. Brady took a knee on two straight plays to seal the victory.

Brady led the Patriots on touchdown drives on New England's first three offensive drives to jump to a 21-7 lead. The Patriots' first touchdown was set up when S Brandon Meriweather picked off Manning and returned the ball 39 yards to help the Patriots start their first drive at the Indianapolis 32-yard line. Four plays later, Brady connected on a 22-yard touchdown pass to WR Wes Welker. After stopping the Colts on the ensuing drive, Brady engineered a 15-play, 82-yard drive that ended with an 8-yard touchdown pass to TE Aaron Hernandez for a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter.

Indianapolis converted two third-down plays on the next series before culminating the drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass from Manning to make it 14-7. New England responded with an 8-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 5-yard touchdown run by Green-Ellis for a 21-7 lead.

Manning cut the lead to 21-14 before the half with an 85-yard drive that ended when he hit WR Reggie Wayne for an 11-yard touchdown.

The Patriots took a 28-14 lead heading into the fourth quarter after Woodhead weaved in and out of traffic for a 36-yard touchdown run at the end of the third quarter. A 25-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham extended the lead 31-14 early in the fourth quarter to set the stage for Indianapolis' comeback attempt.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS: PATRIOTS TO FINISH ABOVE .500 FOR THE 10TH STRAIGHT SEASON

With their eighth win of the 2010 season, the Patriots are guaranteed to finish the season with a record of .500 or better for the 10th consecutive year. At the conclusion of the 2010 season, the Patriots will be the only NFL team to finish with a record of .500 or better in each of the last 10 years (2001-2010). Each of the other 31 NFL teams had at least one losing season between 2001 and 2009.

BRADY TIES FAVRE FOR MOST CONSECUTIVE HOME GAMES WON AS A STARTING QB

Tom Brady won his 25th consecutive regular-season start at Gillette Stadium, tying Brett Favre's post-merger NFL-record 25-game home winning streak. Favre won 25 home games in a row from 1995-98. The last time the Patriots lost a regular-season home game in which Brady started was on Nov. 12, 2006 against the New York Jets.

BELICHICK TIES JOE GIBBS FOR 11TH PLACE IN NFL HISTORY WITH 171 WINS

With the victory against the Colts, Bill Belichick passed Paul Brown and tied Joe Gibbs with his 171st career victory as a head coach, including playoff games. Belichick and Gibbs are tied for 11th in NFL history with 171 career victories. Mike Holmgren ranks 10th with 174 career wins.

SANDERS PICK ICES GAME

James Sanders clinched the victory for the Patriots when he intercepted a Peyton Manning pass at the Patriots' 6-yard line with 31 seconds left and New England holding a 3-point lead. Sanders' big play thwarted a potential game-tying field goal try or a potential game-winning touchdown. The interception was Sanders' second of the season and his second in as many weeks. The previous week at Pittsburgh, Sanders returned an interception 32 yards for a touchdown. The interception against the Colts was the seventh of Sanders' six-year career.

GREEN-ELLIS SCORES SEVENTH RUSHING TOUCHDOWN OF THE SEASON

BenJarvus Green-Ellis scored his seventh rushing touchdown of 2010 on a 5-yard run in the second quarter. Green-Ellis has seven rushing touchdowns through the first 10 games of the year. It is the first time that a Patriots running back has had seven rushing touchdowns in the first 10 games since Corey Dillon had seven through the first 10 games in 2006. Dillon finished with 13 rushing touchdowns that season. Green-Ellis is on pace for 11 rushing touchdowns in 2010, which would make him just the eighth player in Patriots history to record double digit rushing touchdowns in a season and the first since Corey Dillon did it three years in a row between 2004 and 2006. Besides Dillon, the other Patriots with 10 or more rushing touchdowns in a season are Curtis Martin (2), Steve Grogan, Antowain Smith, Horace Ivory, Jim Nance and Tony Collins.

GREEN-ELLIS HAS THIRD GAME OF THE SEASON WITH 95+ RUSHING YARDS

BenJarvus Green-Ellis had 96 rushing yards, marking the third time this season that he has topped the 95-yard rushing mark. In addition to his performance against the Colts, Green-Ellis had 112 rushing yards on 17 carries against Minnesota (10/31) and he had 16 rushes for 98 yards against Buffalo (9/26). Green-Ellis is the first Patriots player to have 95 rushing yards or more in three or more games in a season since Laurence Maroney had 95 or more yards in three games in 2007. The last time a Patriots player eclipsed the 95-yard rushing mark more than three times in a single season was in 2004, when Corey Dillon broke the mark 10 times.

WOODHEAD SCORES ON A 36-YARD TD RUN

RB Danny Woodhead scored on a career-long 36-yard touchdown run in the third quarter to give the Patriots a 28-14 lead. It is the longest run of the season for New England, besting a 26-yard run by RB BenJarvus Green-Ellis' vs. Minnesota (10/31). It is Woodhead's second touchdown run of 20 or more yards. He had a 22-yard touchdown run vs. Buffalo (9/26). The 36-yard touchdown run was the longest scoring run for the Patriots since Laurence Maroney had a 45-yard touchdown in the Patriots' 59-0 win over Tennessee on Oct. 18, 2009.

WOODHEAD HAS A CAREER-HIGH 69 YARDS RUSHING

Woodhead had a career-high 69 yards rushing, topping the 63 yards he had vs. Baltimore (10/17).

PRODUCTIVE RUNNING TANDEM

BenJarvus Green-Ellis ran 21 times for 96 yards and Danny Woodhead ran seven times for 69 yards. Today's game marked the first time the Patriots have had two players rush for 69 or more yards in nearly two full years, dating back to a Dec. 21, 2008 game against Arizona where Sammy Morris had 88 yards and LaMont Jordan had 78 yards.

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 16 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won nine division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than three berths.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 177 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 16 seasons of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team. The Patriots have now won nine or more games in 13 of the 16 seasons that Robert Kraft has owned the team.

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. He spent 20 years as an assistant coach in the NFL and this is his 16th season as a head coach. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the only man in NFL history to serve 20 or more seasons as an assistant coach and at least 15 seasons as a head coach. Over a 100-game span from 2003-08, Belichick directed the team to an 82-18 record, marking the best 100-game span for any team in NFL history. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 90-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times and has produced seven division championships, including five straight from 2003-07. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), and established the record for consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second-best postseason record in NFL history (15-5) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (129-43). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams.

Bill Belichick passes Paul Brown and tied Joe Gibbs with his 171st career victory in the Patriots, 31-28 win over Indianapolis and is now tied for 11th in NFL history.

Welker passed Fryar on an 8-yard reception from QB Tom Brady in the third quarter vs. Buffalo (9/26/10). RB Kevin Faulk is in fourth place with 424 receptions.

WELKER'S ROUTE TO THE NFL

Despite being named the Oklahoma football player of the year by both USA Today and the Daily Oklahoman, Wes Welker's only scholarship offer came from Texas Tech, and only after a player that committed to Texas Tech backed out.

"I was thinking I'd get a scholarship somewhere," Welker said. "When it didn't happen, when it was supposed, to I was pretty hurt by it."

Welker had an impressive collegiate career, accumulating 259 receptions and eight punts returned for touchdowns. He even won a national award as the best special teams player in the country. Despite those accolades, he was passed over in the 2004 NFL draft and signed with San Diego as a free agent. He made the team, then was cut after the first game. He signed with Miami soon after and was used just on special teams. He caught New England's eye with a 71-yard punt return on Monday Night Football in a game against the Patriots. He was acquired by the Patriots in a trade with Miami in 2007.

PATRIOTS News & Notes

WELKER TIES NFL RECORD FOR FEWEST INDIVIDUAL GAMES PLAYED TO REACH 100 RECEPTIONS

Welker reached 100 receptions in his 11th game of the 2009 season to tie Marvin Harrison for the fewest individual games played to reach 100 receptions in a season in NFL history. Harrison caught 100 passes in his first 11 games of the 2002 season en route to an NFL-record 143 catches. (Welker missed two games in 2009 due to injury).

DEION BRANCH RETURNS TO THE PATRIOTS

Deion Branch was acquired by the Patriots in a trade with Seattle on Oct. 12, 2010. Originally a second-round pick of the Patriots in 2002, Branch was traded to Seattle in 2006 for a first round pick (Brandon Meriweather). Branch returns to a team that he helped win two Super Bowls. Branch was awarded the Pete Rozelle Trophy as the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXIX. His 11 receptions in the game tied the Super Bowl record, also achieved by Jerry Rice, Dan Ross and Wes Welker. On the day of Super Bowl XXXIX, Deion called a dozen of his former football coaches to thank them for the support that they gave him throughout his high school, junior college and college careers. Hours after talking to his coaches, he tied the Super Bowl record with 11 receptions and was named MVP of the game. Branch has turned in his biggest performances on the greatest stage in sports, leading all receivers in Super Bowls XXXVIII and XXXIX. He recorded a combined 21 receptions in the two games and owns two of the top seven receiving performances in Super Bowl history. His career reception total in the Super Bowl ranks third all-time, trailing only Jerry Rice (33) and Andre Reed (27).

ROOKIE TIGHT ENDS ARE MAKING AN IMPACT

Rookie tight ends Rob Gronkowski and Aaron Hernandez are making an impact in the Patriots offense. Gronkowski (6) and Hernandez (3) account for 9 of Tom Brady's 19 touchdown passes in 2010.

ROB GRONKOWSKI SETS PATS ROOKIE TE MARK

Gronkowski has 6 touchdowns to establish a record for most touchdown catches by a rookie tight end in Patriots history, besting Russ Francis (4 in 1975) and Don Hasselbeck (4 in 1977). Gronkowski became the first Patriots rookie to ever record three touchdowns in a game with a three-TD game at Pittsburgh (11/14). The Patriots record for most touchdown catches by a rookie is 9 WR John Colclough in 1960 and WR Randy Vataha in 1971.

AARON HERNANDEZ STARTS BIG

Hernandez's first NFL reception was a 45-yard catch in the first quarter of the season-opener vs. Cincinnati (9/12). It is the longest reception by a Patriots rookie on his first catch since WR Tony Simmons had a 47-yard reception in his debut on Oct. 15, 1998. Hernandez has 444 receiving yards on 37 receptions. He is threatening the franchise record for a rookie tight end. Greg Baty had 37 receptions in 1986 and Russ Francis had 636 receiving yards in 1975.

PATRIOTS CAPTAINS

Prior to the season the Patriots announced that QB Tom Brady and RB Kevin Faulk will serve as offensive captains and NT Vince Wilfork and LB Jerod Mayo will serve as defensive captains. During the Bye Week, veteran TE Alge Crumpler was added as a team captain. Said Crumpler on joining the list, "It was an honor. Coach announced it to the team on Wednesday. I just need to continue to do the things that I've set forth from the first day I stepped into this organization, that's help this team win. I've been through a lot of situations; I've been a captain before. I didn't expect this, but I embrace the opportunity to keep leading and keep helping this ball club win games."

PATRIOTS CALL ON VETERAN K SHAYNE GRAHAM

Many kickers have quite a journey before landing a roster position on an NFL team. Such has been the case during kicker Shayne Graham's road to a 10-year NFL career. He originally signed with New Orleans as a rookie free agent in 2000 and went to camp with Seattle in 2001 before finally securing a roster spot with Buffalo later that season. He then spent time with Carolina before a seven-year stint with Cincinnati. Graham went to camp with Baltimore in 2010 and had a week stint on the Giants roster. He spent time in between jobs practicing at the Virginia Tech campus with two pieces of packed luggage in his car at all times as he waited for a call for a team in need.

BRANDON TATE HAS TWO KICKOFFS RETURNED FOR TOUCHDOWNS IN 2010

Brandon Tate has blossomed into a dual threat in both the return game and the receiving game. He has returned two kickoffs for touchdowns to provide the Patriots a spark on special teams, after returning the second half kickoff vs. Cincinnati 97 yards for a touchdown and the second half kickoff at Miami 103 yards for a touchdown. He is the first Patriots player to return two kicks for a touchdown in a season since Kevin Faulk returned two for a touchdown in 2002. The Patriots record for most kickoff returns for a touchdown in a season is three by Raymond Clayborn in 1977. His prowess for returns carries over from his collegiate days where he holds numerous NCAA and ACC career records including the NCAA career record for combined kick and punt return yards with 3,523. A native of North Carolina, Tate was a four-year return man for the Tar Heels. Tate suffered a knee injury against Notre Dame as a senior and missed the final seven games of the season. Tate joined the Patriots in the third round of the 2009 draft, but his rookie year was derailed by injury as he was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 14 after seeing action in only two games.

WOODHEAD GOES FROM DIVISION II TO THE NFL

Danny Woodhead was a standout at Division II Chadron State in Nebraska. He averaged 178.9 yards per game and totaled 101 rushing touchdowns during his collegiate career. Woodhead's outstanding junior and senior seasons earned him two Harlon Hill Trophies, the Division II equivalent to the Heisman Trophy. He is one of just three players to ever win two or more Harlon Hill Trophies, joining Texas A&M University-Kingsville running back Johnny Bailey, who won it three times (1987-89) before playing six seasons in the NFL for the Bears, Cardinals, and Rams. Valdosta State University's Dusty Bonner was the only other player to win the Harlon Hill Trophy multiple times (2000 and 2001). Cincinnati Bengals running back Bernard Scott (2008—Abilene Christian) joins Woodhead as active NFL running backs who have won the award. In his first game with the Patriots, Woodhead scored on a 22-yard run in the win vs. Buffalo (9/26).

EDELMAN GOES FROM STANDOUT QB TO WR

Julian Edelman began his college football career with a year at the College of San Mateo (Ca.) before transferring to Kent State where as a senior he completed 56% of his passes (153 of 275 passes for 1,820 yards) with 13 touchdowns. He was also the leading rusher, gaining 1,551 yards on 215 attempts (an average of 7.5 yards per carry) and scoring 13 touchdowns. His offensive numbers broke Kent State's single-season record for total offense set by Joshua Cribbs in 2003.

WILFORK WEARS HIS HEART ON HIS NECK

Vince Wilfork wears No. 75 over his shoulder pads. Underneath hangs a gold chain locket for those who were number one in his heart: his parents. In 2002, parents David and Barbara Wilfork both passed away within five months of each other, leaving the then University of Miami star without his greatest support system. Wilfork, who lost his father to diabetes, has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for diabetes-related causes. His annual draft day fundraiser, a bowling event he has held for seven years, is one of the signature fundraising events held by a pro athlete in New England. For his charity work, Wilfork was awarded the 2010 New England Patriots Ron Burton Community Service Award. While he will always cherish his National Championship and Super Bowl rings, his constant reminder lies closest to his heart, a picture of his late parents at their high school prom. "I carry them with me wherever I go", Wilfork said of his parents' keepsake. "My parents pushed me to be the best I could be. The things I do and my wife does, we do out of the kindness of our heart, and we do it for the community. I never look for anything in return. My teammates are my second family. My kids, my wife, the New England Patriots – that's all I have."

ZOLTAN MESKO: COMING TO AMERICA

Rookie P Zoltan Mesko was born in Timosoara, Romania, on the Romania-Hungary border. On Many occasions in 1989, during the communist revolutions, his family was forced to take cover by diving on the floor to avoid gun shots from the armies. Even after the fall of the Berlin Wall, his family lived in poverty. His family was finally able to escape Romania when his father won a United States Permanent Resident Card (green card) in the Diversity Immigrant Visa Lottery in 1997 when Mesko was 11.

MESKO DISCOVERS FOOTBALL

An avid soccer player from his days in Romania, Mesko had a strong leg. It was only when he came to America that he discovered his leg could take him places. In eighth grade, Mesko was playing kickball in the gym when he kicked the ball so high that he broke a light fixture. He was given a choice: pay for the light fixture or play football. With his family still struggling with money and football being a more popular sport than soccer at his school, the choice was an obvious one—Mesko decided to play football. His leg would land him numerous Division I Scholarships and admission offers from Ivy League schools. From these, Mesko chose to play football at Michigan.

DOUBLE TROUBLE: CB DEVIN MCCOURTY

After being selected by the Patriots in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft, CB Devin McCourty became part of a select group in league history. McCourty's identical twin brother, Jason, is a cornerback with Tennessee, selected in the sixth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. The two are the 11th set of twins to play in the NFL. Devin and Jason were cornerbacks in the Rutgers secondary from 2005-08. Devin redshirted for the 2005 season and therefore was a year behind his brother in eligibility. McCourty is the second twin to suit up for the Patriots, after CB Kato Serwanga was a member of the team from 1998-2000. His twin brother Wasswa played for San Francisco and Minnesota from 1999-2001. According to McCourty's mother, the two can only be told apart by tiny scars on their faces left by chickenpox.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: TE ROB GRONKOWSKI

Rookie TE Rob Gronkowski grew up playing football against his brothers in the backyard. Now, he has a chance to play against them in the NFL. Dan Gronkowski, the oldest of the bunch, is currently in his second season as a TE for the Denver Broncos, while 23-year old Chris is currently a rookie with the Dallas Cowboys as a fullback. The Gronkowskis are among 22 different sets of brothers currently in the NFL, yet they are the only family that can claim to have three siblings in the league. According to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the Gronkowski brothers join nine other families to have at least three brothers playing at the same time.

The event allows for participants to test their clay shooting skills against a host of celebrities, including members of the New England Patriots as well as stars from TV and movies. The Light Foundation was established in 2001 and strives to instill the values of responsibility and hard work to youths.

READ BETWEEN THE LINES

The Patriots teamed up with Ahern Middle School in Foxborough on June 9 to introduce "Read Between the Lines," a new program featuring Patriots offensive and defensive linemen to promote the school's "Summer Reading Blitz." Every student in attendance received a "Read Between the Lines" playbook and was encouraged to set their personal reading goals of at least two books this past summer. If the 923 students collectively read more than 2010 books over the summer, a Patriots lineman promised to return for another assembly to reward the students. On Sept. 28, Stephen Neal returned to the school to reward the students who accomplished their summer reading goals. One student received a "game ball" for her efforts after reading 70 books.

GREETINGS FROM KAARST, GERMANY: SEBASTIAN VOLLMER MAKES HIS MARK

A native of Kaarst, Germany, Vollmer did not begin playing football until the age of 14 when he started playing for the Dusseldorf club team. Vollmer helped lead his German prep school team to two national football championships. His early football success landed him an appearance in the 2004 Global Junior Championships in San Diego, which led him to a scholarship at Houston. He spoke almost no English when he signed with Houston, but he became fluent in the language as he developed from a 250-pound tight end into a 315-pound lineman who started his final 25 games at tackle for the Cougars. Vollmer's collegiate career created interest from the NFL where the Patriots drafted him in the second round of the 2009 draft. Earned the nickname, Seabass, during his playing days at Houston. The nickname has carried over to the NFL.

PATRICK CHUNG'S JOURNEY TO THE NFL

Long before S Patrick Chung picked up flag football as a teen, his mother, Jamaican recording artist Sophia George, had preached about being a tough man in a song. Her hit single, "Girlie Girlie" – a traditional reggae song about poking fun at a boy who was not man enough – topped the charts in 1985. Chung is aware that among his talents he was born with, speed and agility, singing is not one of them. Chung, who possesses a great sense of pride in his unique heritage – his mother is Jamaican and his father is half Jamaican and half Chinese, was born in Jamaica and moved to California at age 12 where he started to play football as a freshman in high school. Chung went on to star at Oregon, where he holds the distinction of starting more games than any other defensive player in school history with 51 starts. He originally entered the draft as a junior but ultimately decided to return for his senior season. Pinned to the back of his locker is a reminder of the support he has gotten to this stage, a Jamaican flag that indicates his family's importance to him.

BENJARVUS GREEN-ELLIS – THE LAW FIRM

BenJarvus Green-Ellis, who earned the nickname the Law Firm from his Patriots teammates because of his multi-part name, was signed by the Patriots as an undrafted free agent in 2008 out of the University of Mississippi. As a rookie, he recorded touchdowns in four straight games after being called up from the practice squad in October. His knack for finding the end zone has continued this season as he has reached the end zone a career-high seven times, including his first two-touchdown performance vs. Minnesota (10/31). Green-Ellis also had a 112-yard rushing performance against the Vikings with 62 yards on the Patriots' final fourth quarter touchdown drive that extended a 3-point lead to a 10-point cushion in a 28-18 victory.

PATRIOTS HAVE TOP TELEVISION RATINGS

The Patriots are on a record-setting pace for household ratings through nine weeks in their designated market area with a 32.4 HH rating. This season, the Patriots have also been part of two record-setting NFL broadcasts. New England's 23-20 overtime victory over Baltimore on Sunday, Oct. 17 helped CBS set the mark for the highest rating for its single game window since it acquired the current AFC package in 2008. The Patriots-Jets game on Sunday, Sept. 19 was the most watched September CBS game ever.

BRADY-TO-TATE FOR LONGEST PLAY FROM SCRIMMAGE IN 2010

Brandon Tate's 65-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter of the Patriots win vs. Minnesota (10/31) was the Patriots' longest play from scrimmage in 2010 and was the team's longest play from scrimmage since Dec. 6, 2009, when Sam Aiken hauled in an 81-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady at Miami.

FREE AGENTS MAKE AN IMPACT

Seventeen players on the New England 53-man roster entered the NFL as rookie free agents. Two that came to the Patriots as rookie free agents have been consistent contributors on offense. Stephen Neal been a regular in the starting lineup at right guard since 2004. BenJarvus Green-Ellis, who came to the Patriots as a rookie free agent in 2008, has scored a touchdown in five straight games. Defensively, the Patriots have five players who have made a big impact. Mike Wright came to New England as a rookie free agent in 2005. He has a career-high 5.5 sacks so far in 2010 Gary Guyton came to New England as a rookie free agent in 2008. In the opening game of the season, Guyton recorded his first career interception, which he returned for a touchdown. Kyle Arrington came to the Patriots as a rookie free agent in 2009 and has been a regular starter at cornerback this season. Both Sergio Brown and Dane Fletcher are rookie free agent signees from this past offseason who have made regular defensive and special teams contributions. Brown had five tackles including one that saved a first down against San Diego TE Antonio Gates that helped preserve the Patriots 23-20 victory over the Chargers. Fletcher had a forced fumble and three defensive tackles in that same game against the Chargers.

THE TEAM OF THE DECADE

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 16 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s.
