2021 NEW ORLEANS SAINTS WIN FOUR OF FINAL FIVE GAMES TO FINISH 9-8 WITH FIFTH STRAIGHT WINNING SEASON; TEAM HOLDS 18TH PICK IN 2022 NFL DRAFT

2021 SEASON

The New Orleans Saints rallied to win four of their final five games in 2021 to finish 9-8 in what would be Head Coach Sean Payton's final season with the club, following a standout 16-season stint, where he finishes his Black and Gold coaching career with a 161-97 record.

Despite a one-month displacement of the team's base of operations due to Hurricane Ida, a myriad of injuries and COVID-19 challenges, Payton, New Orleans coaching staff and the players met every challenge presented as finished 7-3 away from the Caesars Superdome and posted a winning campaign for the fifth straight season.

GAME SUMMARIES

Week 1: New Orleans Saints 38, Green Bay Packers 3; September 12, 2021 @ TIAA Bank Field (Jacksonville, Fla.) – Jameis Winston and the hurricane-displaced Saints looked right at home in northeast Florida — no doubt to the delight of fans rebuilding homes and lives back in New Orleans.

Winston passed for five touchdowns, New Orleans intercepted reigning NFL MVP Aaron Rodgers twice, and the Saints kicked off the post-Drew Brees era with a strikingly dominant 38-3 victory over Green Bay.

"We knew that even though some people don't have power, they're going to find a way to watch the Saints," LB Demario Davis said. "That's just what this team means to the city — and the city means the same to us."

The game, originally scheduled for the Superdome, was moved while the New Orleans area continues to clean up wreckage left by Hurricane Ida, which struck as a Category 4 storm on Aug. 29.

After canceling their last preseason game and practicing two weeks in Dallas, the Saints looked as sharp and inspired as any club with such distractions could have hoped. "That was for the city," Winston said. "We did that for them. We knew how much it would mean to get a great victory for that region. They've been through so much. ... Hats off to them for their resilience, because they motivated us. They inspired us to come out there and ball."

Winston was an efficient 14 of 20 for 148 yards. New Orleans rushed for 171 yards.

"Drew always preached, it's about the decision, not the result," Winston said, alluding to last season, when he served as a reserve and understudy to Brees in an effort to improve the long-term trajectory of his career. "Sometimes the decision is throwing the ball away, sometimes the decision is running, tucking. Sometimes the decision may be taking a sack."

Winston didn't take a sack, but did take off and run for a few key third-down conversions in the first half.

The only risky throw that backfired on him, a deflected pass caught by Packers defensive back Darnell Savage in the end zone — was negated by a contested roughing-the-passer penalty called against edge rusher Z'Darius Smith.

The penalty set up the second touchdown catch of the game by Juwan Johnson, who came in with four career catches and was converted from receiver to a tight end this offseason.

On the day before his 25th birthday, Johnson also converted a screen pass into a 12-yard, first-down gain on fourth-and-7 in the second quarter, when the game was still in doubt. He capped that drive with a leaping catch in the end zone on fourth-and-two. The two fourth down conversions highlighted a pivotal 14-play drive that consumed 10 minutes.

"You've got to pick your spots where you want to be aggressive and it's a little bit easier on that end of the field," Payton said. "I felt pretty good about the calls."

Green Bay fans seemed to outnumber Saints fans in a crowd announced at 35,242 for what was officially a Saints home game. But they left disappointed in a day that could not have gone much worse for Rodgers, who was pulled with nearly 11 minutes left.

As the time expired, the remaining Saints fans joined in triumphant chants of "Who Dat!" that echoed throughout the stadium.

"This is a good kick in the you-know-where," said Rodgers, who finished 15 of 28 for 133 yards and no TDs. "We felt like we were going to go up and down the field on whoever they have and that obviously wasn't the case."

Opening the third quarter down 17-3, the Packers squandered a chance to trim their deficit when Rodgers' wobbly pass under pressure was intercepted by rookie defensive back Paulson Adebo at the New Orleans 7 early in the third quarter.

On Green Bay's next drive, Marcus Williams intercepted Rodgers' deep overthrow and returned it to the Packers 12, setting up Winston's 10-yard TD to Chris Hogan.

"Every team has a game like this," said Packers running back Aaron Jones, who was limited to 9 yards on five carries. "It's better to get it out now."

Week 2: Carolina Panthers 26, New Orleans Saints 7; September 19, 2021 @ Bank of America Stadium – The Carolina Panthers, a week after their season-opening win over the New York Jets, continued to take advantage of home cooking and handed the New Orleans Saints a 26-7 defeat on a warm afternoon at Bank of America Stadium to improve to 2-0 and even out New Orleans' record at 1-1. Carolina quarterback Sam Darnold was impressive and efficient throughout the majority of the game, completing 26-of-38 passes for 305 yards with two touchdown passes, one interception and a 99.1 rating. But Darnold wasn't the lone story of the day, as a healthy Christian McCaffrey gained 137 total yards from scrimmage and one rushing touchdown.

The Panthers defense seemingly took away most of the Saints' big play abilities, with New Orleans' longest play a 27-yard connection between quarterback Jameis Winston and wide receiver Lil'Jordan Humphrey. New Orleans struggled running the ball (17 carries for 48 yards) and on early downs, resulting in unfavorable situations on third down (2-for-11) and losing the time of possession battle 38:32-21:28.

Defensively, LB Demario Davis led the club with 12 tackles, while a pair of young defensive linemen in DT Malcolm Roach and DE Payton Turner recorded their first career interception and sack respectively.

The New Orleans special teams units also worked to keep the Saints in the hunt on a day of tough sledding. Punter Blake Gillikin pinned the Panthers back several times, recording a 45.0 net punting average on six punts with a 60-yard punt. Wide receiver Ty Montgomery had a career-high three coverage stops. Midway through the third quarter, defensive end Carl Granderson, who had made his first career start on defense, blocked a 55-yard field goal attempt by Panther kicker Zane Gonzalez and it was recovered and returned by linebacker Zack Baun. WR/RS Deonte Harris returned five kickoffs for a career-high 156 yards, running back a kick late in the second quarter 39 yards.

Week 3: New Orleans Saints 28, New England Patriots 13; September 26, 2021 @ Gillette Stadium – Only one brand of football comes to mind when Jameis Winston thinks about the best New Orleans Saints teams of the past.

"Saints football has always been efficiency and physicality up front," he said. "That's all I know. They win up front and they play tough. That's what we did here."

Winston threw two touchdown passes, Malcolm Jenkins returned an interception for a score, and the Saints beat the Patriots 28-13 on Sunday.

A week after a career-low passer rating Winston showed better command of the offense, completing 13 of 21 passes for 128 yards. Taysom Hill ran for a touchdown and Alvin Kamara rushed 24 times for 89 yards and had a receiving TD. He got support from a defense that made Patriots rookie quarterback's life miserable.

Mac Jones entered the day hoping to stretch the field after two games in which the passing attack was mostly underneath. Instead, he found himself under pressure most of the day and threw three interceptions, two leading to touchdowns. New Orleans sacked Jones three times and hit him 11. He finished 30 of 51 for 270 yards and a touchdown. "I think it just goes back to execution," Jones said. "I can do a better job just sticking to my reads and being patient and letting things develop. I didn't do a good job of that today." P.J. Williams returned Jones' first pick of the day 46 yards to set up a second quarter 7-yard TD pass by Winston. Jenkins was the beneficiary of the second interception, snaring a pass bobbled by tight end Jonnu Smith. He returned it 34 yards and put the Saints in front 21-3.

The Patriots cut it to 21-13 following Jones' 22-yard touchdown pass to wideout Kendrick Bourne with 9:22 left in the game. The Saints responded with a 13-play, 75-yard drive that ate up 6:45 and ended with a 4-yard run by Hill. Saints head coach Sean Payton harped all week on the Patriots' 108-7 home record (including playoffs) since 2000 when they win the turnover battle. He said having a plus-three differential was huge for New Orleans' hopes. "We're mindful of it every week, but it had to be something that was put in our heads every day," he said. "I thought we took care of the football. I thought that was important." New Orleans overcame an early injury to take a 14-3 lead into halftime. The Saints' offensive line was already down one starter with center Erik McCoy (calf) ruled out. They lost another early in the first quarter after tackle Terron Armstead exited (elbow).

But after going three-and-out on their opening drive, the Saints got efficient, sweeping down the field mixing runs and passes, and a long third-down conversion to get inside the red zone. Winston then put a bow on the 11-play, 69-yard drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Kamara. The Saints turned defense into offense for their second score. The Patriots had third down near midfield when linebacker Kaden Ellis pressured Jones, forcing a pass tipped and intercepted by Williams. He returned it 46 yards to the Patriots nine-yard line. Three plays later Winston connected with Marquez Callaway for a seven-yard touchdown. "There's no magic sauce here," Belichick said. "Just have to go back to work and do better."

Week 4: New York Giants 27, New Orleans Saints 21; October 3, 2021 @ Caesars Superdome – The Giants spoiled the Saints' Dome-coming party as they won a 27-21 overtime game in the Caesars Superdome.

Down 21-10 with 12 minutes to play QB Daniel Jones started the comeback by hitting RB Saquon Barkley on a 54-yard scoring play with 6:52 to play. Jones ran it in for the two-point conversion to make it 21-18. Jones then led the Giants on a late drive to tie the score at 21 when K Graham Gano made a 48-yard field goal with 31 seconds to play. The Giants won the coin toss and took the ball to start the 10-minute overtime period and marched down the field, ending it with a powerful run by Barkley. Jones finished 28 of 40 for 402 yards with two touchdown passes and one interception. Barkley had 13 carries for 52 yards and the game-winning touchdown.

The loss dropped the Saints to 2-2 and ruined the team's first game in front of a full home crowd in 637 days. The scheduled home opener was moved to Jacksonville because of damage to the area from Hurricane Ida and the team had been training in Dallas until Sept. 24. The Saints had seemed to be in command of the game thanks to their quarterbacks, Jameis Winston and Taysom Hill.

Winston handled the passing-17 of 23 for 226 yards and a touchdown-while Hill took care of the rushing, powering in for two 8-yard touchdown runs.

The loss ruined one of the best games of running back Alvin Kamara's five-year career running the ball. He recorded his fourth 100-yard rushing game, carrying a then-career-high 26 times for 120 yards. Hill finished with 28 yards rushing on six carries and also caught two passes for 26 yards.

Week 5: New Orleans Saints 33, Washington Football Team 22; October 10, 2021 @ FedEx Field After QB Jameis Winston connected with WR Marquez Callaway on a Hail Mary touchdown on the final play of the first half, New Orleans Head Coach Sean Payton recalled a similar play in his first season in charge of the team.

15 years ago, his team's Hail Mary in Atlanta overshadowed a halftime performance by country music duo Sugarland. Payton thought to himself: "If there was any halftime entertainment, that's a tough spot to be in."

This one was even sweeter. The Hail Mary connection was one of Winston's four touchdown passes to help the Saints beat Washington 33-22 for a bounce-back victory after a frustrating Week Four overtime loss to the New York Giants.

"Turnovers are going to happen — you just don't want the trickle-down effect to happen," said Winston, who completed 15 of 30 passes for 279 yards and made up for an inexplicable interception on the first possession and a fumble on DE Chase Young's first sack of the season. "We played efficient football. We made plays when we needed it."

The win came at a cost with two more injuries. Winston took every snap at quarterback for the first time, a necessity after Taysom Hill suffered a concussion.

Winston completed a 72-yard touchdown pass to Deonte Harris, who departed (hamstring). He also connected with Callaway on the 49-yard Hail Mary touchdown, found him wide open from 12 yards out early in the fourth quarter and sent Washington fans to the exits with a pass to Alvin Kamara that turned into a 19-yard score. Kamara also had a 23-yard TD run, returned punts in Harris' absence and racked up 151 total yards.

"Any time I'm catching the ball, I love it," said Kamara, who didn't have a reception last week in the overtime loss to the New York Giants. "I think it adds an aspect to our offense. We had an opportunity to do that."

The Saints picked off Taylor Heinicke twice and put pressure on him a week after not sacking the Giants. RB Antonio Gibson ran for two touchdowns, but Washington couldn't outscore another rough performance by its defense.

Week 7: Saints 13, Seahawks 10; October 25, 2021 @ Lumen Field Alvin Kamara and Jameis Winston were the happy beneficiaries of the Seahawks' many mistakes. Then it was rookie Brian Johnson's turn to make sure the Saints got the win they needed to keep pace in the NFC South.

"In a game like this where things are close, things get a little a little ugly towards the end, it builds confidence to be able to come into a game like this and close it out the way we did," Saints DE Cameron Jordan said.

Johnson kicked a 33-yard field goal with 1:56 left, and New Orleans outlasted Seattle 13-10.

Kamara carried the load for New Orleans and Winston made a handful of plays when needed, but the Saints escaped Seattle thanks largely to a series of Seahawks blunders.

Two of the Seahawks' biggest mistakes came on New Orleans' deciding drive when Seattle was flagged for roughing the passer and jumping offside on a long field-goal attempt. Both penalties gave New Orleans first downs, and Johnson's field goal coming out of the 2-minute warning put the Saints ahead.

Johnson, a rookie, made a PAT and both field-goal tries, connecting from 21 yards in the first half.

"It was tough trying to see what the wind was doing because it was changing constantly throughout pregame and the game itself," Johnson said. "So just stick with my plan I had coming into it and really focusing on just hitting my ball and hitting good contact that will cut through the wind."

Geno Smith made his second start at QB for Seattle (2-5) since Wilson suffered a serious finger injury in a loss to the Rams. The backup hit DK Metcalf for an 84-yard touchdown in the first quarter but went nowhere when the Seahawks had a final chance to tie or win.

Smith was sacked on consecutive plays by Malcolm Jenkins and Demario Davis. On fourth-and-28, Smith was pressured again and his throw to Metcalf fell incomplete.

Smith went 12 of 22 for 167 yards — half coming on the TD toss to Metcalf — and was sacked five times as Davis, Cameron Jordan and others made his night uncomfortable.

Seattle's lost three straight for the first time since 2011 and fell to 0-3 at home for the first time since 1992. Although both defeats with Smith under center have been by three points, the Seahawks aren't the same without Wilson.

"I've been here a long time and if we didn't have Russell, I probably wouldn't have been here a long time because of all the magic he has created over the years," coach Pete Carroll said.

Kamara finished with 10 catches for 128 yards and a 13-yard TD reception late in the first half. It was his fifth career regular-season game with double-digit receptions. He rushed for 51 yards.

Winston was 19 of 35 for 222 yards and added 43 yards rushing. He also made enough plays—thanks to Seattle penalties—to get the Saints in range for the field goal.

Seattle appeared to get a stop, but Marquise Blair was called for roughing the passer on a third-down sack after hitting Winston with the crown of his helmet. Kamara then sprinted past a blitz for 12 yards on third-and-10 and the Saints were in field-goal range.

Al Woods jumped offside as Johnson lined up for a 43-yard attempt, allowing New Orleans to burn another 90 seconds off the clock before Johnson made the shorter try.

"We got to get right," Seattle LB Bobby Wagner said. "We've got to really fix our mistakes, play smarter, make less penalties."

Seattle's Jason Myers missed two field goal attempts — the second into the open end of the stadium after Smith took another costly sack. Myers made a 50-yarder.

Kamara had 21 touches on New Orleans' 39 offensive plays in the first half. He was mostly ineffective on the ground, but Seattle couldn't slow him down in the pass game. He already had 108 yards receiving by halftime.

Four of his receptions came on the final drive of the half when his 31-yard catch-and-run out of the backfield set up his 13-yard TD catch and a 10-7 halftime lead.

"Every game has a life of its own, so that was just the flavor of this week, ended up getting a lot of touches," Kamara said.

Week 8: Saints 36, Buccaneers 27; October 31, 2021 @ Caesars Superdome - When Jameis Winston could no longer walk on his own, his Saints teammates rose up in dramatic fashion to knock off Tom Brady and the defending champs.

P.J. Williams intercepted Brady and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown with 1:24 left, helping New Orleans seal an eventful but potentially costly 36-27 victory over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on Sunday.

Winston injured his left knee during a scramble early in the second quarter when pulled down from behind by Devin White, who was flagged for a horse collar tackle.

"I think it's significant," said coach Sean Payton, adding he cried when he saw Winston in the locker room. "He felt something and is on crutches right now...When he got up and had to go back down, you were a little concerned."

Backup Trevor Siemian took over for Winston and completed 16 of 29 passes for 159 yards and a touchdown without a turnover, leading the Saints on five scoring drives that produced two touchdowns and three field goals.

Payton said he had confidence in Siemian, who'd started for Denver from 2016-2017. Payton added his play calling for the game's duration had more to do with how Tampa was defending than the fact that backup was under center.

"He's an experienced player," Payton said.

Siemian, who last took a meaningful snap in Week 2 of 2019 with the Jets, said he'd "kind of lost a little bit a sense of how fun it is."

"There's a joy to this game," Siemian said. "There's nothing better than to see your teammates make plays and you're moving the ball and it's the best."

Winston's first start against the team that drafted him first overall in 2015, and then let him go in 2020 to sign Brady, was a subplot of this NFC South clash.

And Winston looked determined to do whatever it took to win, passing for 56 yards and a 14-yard touchdown to Tre'Quan Smith, and scrambling for 40 yards before his injury. Payton gave Winston a game ball, and teammates lamented his injury.

"It was hard, man, because he worked so hard this offseason," said Williams, Winston's friend since they were teammates at Florida State. "It's tough for me, it's tough for the team and I know it's tough for him. I told him at halftime we were going to go out there and win for him." Brady passed for four TDs, but also turned the ball over three times on a pair of interceptions and a fumble, which the Saints converted into 16 points.

The Bucs nearly overcame their mistakes. They wiped out a 16-point second-half deficit and took a lead with 5:44 to go when receiver and former LSU trickster Cyril Grayson was left uncovered and Brady found him for a 50-yard TD. New Orleans responded by driving for a field goal and a 29-27 lead with 1:41 left, leaving Brady, no stranger to late-game heroics, that much time plus a timeout to get in field goal range. Instead, the Saints' defense came up big.

"I just threw it to the wrong guy," Brady said of his late interception. "I had Mike (Evans) open. It cost us the game."

MOMENTUM SWINGS

New Orleans' defense came up with two second quarter turnover and the offense converted those into nine points.

Brady fumbled on a double-pump caused by pressure from DE Cameron Jordan. DT David Onyemata, newly activated after a six-game suspension, recovered near midfield.

The Saints got a field goal, but only after a roughing-the-passer call against William Gholston wiped out what would have been an interception by Antoine Winfield Jr. in the end zone.

Later, Brady was intercepted by C.J. Gardner Johnson, who had left his man to undercut a pass intended for Chris Godwin.

New Orleans capitalized by driving for Siemian's 1-yard pass to fullback Alex Armah shortly before halftime. The Saints widened their lead to 23-7 on the opening possession of the second half, which began with Siemian hitting Kevin White for a 38-yard gain. Alvin Kamara finished it on a pitch play on fourth-and-goal from the 1. But Brady responded by leading the Bucs to touchdowns on two straight possessions. He hit RB Giovani Bernard for a 7-yard TD and launched a 41-yard scoring strike to Evans, who beat Marshon Lattimore in single coverage.

STAT LINES

For the Bucs, the loss squandered a prolific day for Godwin, who had eight catches for 144 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown in the first quarter.

The Saints rushed for 152 yards — led by Kamara's 61 — against Tampa Bay's top-ranked run defense, which came in allowing 67.4 yards rushing per game.

The Saints sacked Brady three times: one each by Jordan, Kwon Alexander and Tanoh Kpassagnon.

Week 9: Atlanta Falcons 26, Saints 5; November 7, 2021 @ Caesars Superdome - Matt Ryan's last and longest of several deep completions spared the Atlanta Falcons from another infamous collapse.

Ryan hit Cordarrelle Patterson for a 64-yard gain with a minute left to set up Younghoe Koo's 29-yard field goal as time expired, and Atlanta defeated mistake-prone New Orleans on Sunday after allowing the Saints to wipe out an 18-point, fourth-quarter deficit.

We just like to give our fans a heart attack, just keep them on their toes to make sure they're paying attention," Patterson joked. "We wanted to put them away early, but it's the Saints; they've got a great team over there. They fought till the end. We did a better job. We got the win, that's all that matters."

Ryan passed for 343 yards, connected twice with Olamide Zaccheaus for touchdowns, and the veteran quarterback also ran for a score on a bootleg as the Falcons (4-4) snapped the Saints' three-game winning streak and prevented New Orleans (5-3) from moving into a tie with Tampa Bay (6-2) atop the NFC South.

"I felt good after that one," Ryan said. "I was excited. We needed to make a play. We needed to win that game. I'm proud of the guys for getting the job done."

Ryan's second scoring pass gave the Falcons a 24-6 lead with 10:39 left in the fourth quarter. But the Saints rallied to briefly take the lead on Trevor Siemian's 8-yard pass to Kenny Stills with 1:01 left.

New Orleans then missed a 2-point conversion try for the second time in the game, leaving the door open for the Falcons to win with a field goal.

"We got it going but it was too little, too late," Siemian said. "You can't spot a team that many scores. I knew there was a lot of time left and the game wasn't over when we scored at the end. You were still holding your breath a little bit."

LOST LEADS

The Falcons have seen their share of blown double-digit leads in recent years — none worse than a Super Bowl loss five seasons ago to the Patriots in overtime after leading 28-3.

The Falcons lost four fourth-quarter leads last season, when they also became the first team in NFL history to lose back-to-back games after leading by 15 or more in the fourth quarter.

And just last December, the Falcons fell to Tampa Bay after leading 24-7.

But against their historical rivals in New Orleans, the Falcons didn't fold. Rather, Ryan pulled off his 41st career comeback. Ryan needed just one play to burn the Saints' defense for his fourth completion of more than 30 yards in the game — and his second long connection with Patterson. The versatile running back beat rookie Paulson Adebo down the right sideline to give him six catches for 126 yards on the day.

"That's 'Matty Ice,'" Patterson said. "He's not nervous, he's been doing this his whole career."

STATS AND SUCH

Even with top Falcons WR Calvin Ridley unavailable while addressing mental health issues, Ryan completed 23 of 30 passes without a turnover. Russell Gage caught seven passes for 64 yards, rookie TE Kyle Pitts caught three for 62 yards and Zaccheaus caught three for 58 yards.

Saints head coach Sean Payton started Siemian on the heels of Jameis Winston's season-ending knee injury a week ago, and intermittently mixed in Taysom Hill behind center. CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE

Siemian passed for 249 yards and two touchdowns without an interception, and Hill completed both of his passes for 33 yards. But both quarterbacks were hindered by a combination of penalties, dropped passes and protection breakdowns.

"They played better than us today," Payton said of the Falcons. "We did not do the things that winning teams do consistently in our league, and we have got to get that corrected."

Falcons Outside Linebacker James Vaughters' blind-side sack and strip of Siemian set up Atlanta's final touchdown after linebacker Steven Means recovered and returned the fumble 32 yards to the New Orleans six.

But New Orleans rallied for three straight touchdowns in the final eight minutes, starting with Siemian's five-yard pass to wide receiver Marquez Callaway and running back Alvin Kamara's two-yard scoring run with 4:35 to go in the contest.

The Saints failed on a 2-point try after Kamara's touchdown, but New Orleans sacked Ryan for the first two times all game to force a punt and set up its late, go-ahead possession.

"You'd love to have a comfortable lead. Everybody wants to be comfortable," Falcons first-year coach Arthur Smith said. "That's not the NFL, not when you're on the road playing a good team."

"Our mindset has been we are going to finish games," Smith added. "This shows more about their mental toughness."

Week 10: Tennessee Titans 23, New Orleans Saints 21; November 14, 2021 @ Nissan Stadium - An untimely turnover, a questionable call that took away an end zone interception, two missed extra points and a false start penalty prior to a two-point conversion attempt proved too much for the New Orleans Saints to overcome in a 23-21 loss to the Tennessee Titans on Sunday, Nov. 14 at Nissan Stadium in Nashville, Tenn.

It was the Saints' second consecutive loss and dropped them to 5-4. Tennessee improved to 8-2.

The Saints had a chance to send the game to overtime after quarterback Trevor Siemian's 15-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Marquez Callaway made it 23-21 Tennessee with 1:16 to play. With Taysom Hill in at quarterback for the two-point play, the Saints were penalized for a false start by second-year tight end Adam Trautman. Siemian came back in and his pass to running back Mark Ingram II from the seven-yard line was incomplete.

The comeback was necessary after New Orleans returner Deonte Harris fumbled the kickoff to start the second half, giving Tennessee the ball at the 19-yard line. The Titans quickly scored on a 2-yard pass from quarterback Ryan Tannehill to MyCole Pruitt, which increased Tennessee's lead to 20-6.

Another key play in the game came when the Saints appeared to have stopped a Tennessee scoring drive in the first half when safety Marcus Williams intercepted Tannehill in the end zone but the Saints were penalized for roughing the passer by linebacker Kaden Elliss. Later in the drive, linebacker Demario Davis was called for pass interference, giving Tennessee the ball first and goal at the 1. Tennessee scored on the next play on a dive by Tannehill for a 13-6 halftime lead.

The Saints scored their first touchdown of the contest on an 11-yard pass from Siemian to wide receiver TreQuan Smith in the second quarter. The score was set up by a 46-yard completion to Harris. Rookie kicker Brian Johnson missed the extra-point attempt, the first of two missed extra points, which would lead to a kicking change in Week 11. New Orleans entered the game without offensive stars running back Alvin Kamara, left tackle Terron Armstead and wide receiver Michael Thomas and playing its second game without starting quarterback Jameis Winston. Siemian got the start again at quarterback and was 19 of 34 for 298 yards and two touchdown passes. He was sacked four times, all in the first half.

Ingram took over the load from Kamara and was effective, rushing the ball 14 times for 47 yards and scoring the team's second touchdown on a 13-yard scamper through the right side. The team's 2011 first-round draft pick also set up a 20-yard Johnson field goal with a 34-yard reception from Siemian in the fourth quarter. Ingram had four receptions for 61 yards.

Defensive end Marcus Davenport had a strong game for New Orleans with two sacks.

INGRAM SETS RECORD: Ingram has added another line to an already impressive resume': all-time leading rusher for the Saints.

The 2009 Heisman Trophy winner and 2011 first-round draft pick out of the University of Alabama entered Sunday's game with 6,077 career rushing yards with the Saints, 19 yards behind Saints Hall of Famer Deuce McAllister. Ingram accomplished the mark in the third quarter with a 6-yard run.

Week 11: Philadelphia Eagles 40, New Orleans Saints 29; November 21, 2021 @ Lincoln Financial Field—A lengthy injury report and the rushing attack of the Philadelphia Eagles was too much for the New Orleans Saints to overcome as they dropped their third consecutive game, this time a 40-29 defeat to the Eagles on Sunday, Nov. 21 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.

The loss dropped the Saints to 5-5 with a Thanksgiving night game coming up against the Buffalo Bills at Caesars Superdome.

"We didn't do the things necessary to win in this league," Saints Coach Sean Payton said. "All of us have to do a better job. It's going to be a short week."

The Eagles (5-6) ran the ball at will against the Saints, carrying the ball 50 times for 242 yards. Philadelphia also forced Saints quarterback Trevor Siemian into two interceptions, the second one returned 51 yards for a touchdown by cornerback Darius Slay toward the end of the second quarter.

Mark Ingram II, starting at running back in place of an injured Alvin Kamara, carried the ball 16 times for 88 yards and caught six passes for 25 yards. He lost a fumble early in the third quarter, the team's third turnover.

Siemian, who replaced Jameis Winston at quarterback after Winston was lost for the season to an injury sustained against Tampa Bay on Oct. 31, had an uneven performance, completing 22 of 40 passes for 214 yards with three touchdown passes (18 yards to tight end Adam Trautman, 26 yards to wide receiver Marquez Callaway, four yards to wide receiver Lil'Jordan Humphrey), a 17-yard touchdown run and the two interceptions. Trautman, who had five receptions for 58 yards and a touchdown, left the game in the fourth quarter with an injury.

In addition to the absences of Kamara and Winston, the Saints were missing three-fifths of their starting offensive line (left tackle Terron Armstead, left guard Andrus Peat and right tackle Ryan Ramczyk) and star wide receiver Michael Thomas.

The New Orleans defense was relatively healthy but struggled to contain Eagles quarterback Jalen Hurts and running backs Miles Sanders and Jordan Howard. Hurts had two short touchdown runs in the first quarter and put the game away with a 24-yard touchdown run with 3:59 to play. Philadelphia kicker Jake Elliott converted on all four of his field-goal attempts (50, 37, 33 and 47 yards).

Defensive end Cameron Jordan recorded a sack.

The Saints scored 15 consecutive points in the fourth quarter - 22 total for the period - to get back into the game. It was the third consecutive fourth quarter rally for the Saints (22 points in fourth quarter of loss to Atlanta, nine points in loss to Tennessee) but they came up short each time. It is the team's first three-game losing streak since the 2016 season.

Week 12: Buffalo Bills 31, New Orleans Saints 6; November 25, 2021 @ Caesars Superdome—On the night that legendary New Orleans quarterback Drew Brees said goodbye to Saints fans, the New Orleans offense had one of its least effective games as the Buffalo Bills cruised to a 31-6 victory on Thanksgiving night at the Caesars Superdome.

Quarterback Trevor Siemian, making his fourth start in place of an injured Jameis Winston, couldn't get anything working early as the Saints lost their fourth consecutive contest to drop to 5-6. New Orleans had 64 yards of offense at halftime and just 190 for the game. The Saints didn't get on the scoreboard until 14:54 remained when Siemian hit tight end Nick Vannett with an 11-yard touchdown pass.

The New Orleans offense was decimated by injuries. The Saints played without their two top running backs (Alvin Kamara, Mark Ingram), their starting quarterback (Winston), their star receiver (Michael Thomas), their All-Pro right tackle (Ryan Ramczyk), their Pro Bowl left guard (Andrus Peat) and their top tight end (Adam Trautman). Taysom Hill was the team's backup quarterback and took no snaps.

Siemian was 17 of 29 for 163 yards with one touchdown pass and one interception and running back Tony Jones Jr. was the top rusher with 27 yards on 16 carries. Ty Montgomery was the top receiver with five catches for 31 yards. The Saints were 5 of 13 on third down and had just 12 first downs.

The defense was missing three of its top four defensive ends but held tough through a 10-0 first half, coming up with two interceptions (cornerback Bradley Roby and linebacker Kwon Alexander) and two sacks (defensive end Carl Granderson, linebacker Kaden Elliss). But Bills quarterback Josh Allen and his offense eventually broke the game open in the second half, scoring on a 5-yard pass to wide receiver Stefon Diggs, a 24-yard pass to Dawson Knox, his second touchdown of the game, and a 23-yard pass to running back Matt Breida.

The Saints will play host to the Dallas Cowboys (7-4) next Thursday at the Caesars Superdome. While Winston and Thomas are out for the season, the Saints could get several of their injured star players back for the game. The four-game losing streak is the Saints' longest since the 2015 season. CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE

Week 13: Dallas Cowboys 27, New Orleans Saints 17; December 2, 2021 @ Caesars Superdome—The New Orleans Saints lost their fifth consecutive game Thursday, Dec. 2, dropping a 27-17 decision to the Dallas Cowboys at the Caesars Superdome.

The loss dropped the Saints to 5-7. This is the Saints' first five-game losing streak since the 2005 season when the team was displaced from New Orleans because of damages to the Superdome and the city from Hurricane Katrina. The team had separate six- and five-game losing streaks that season.

The win improved the Cowboys' record to 8-4. Dallas played the game without its head coach, Mike McCarthy, who missed the game because of the league's Covid-19 protocols. Former Falcons coach Dan Quinn served as the interim coach.

"A disappointing loss. We did well in the first half. I thought we played well defensively," Head Coach Sean Payton said after the game. "The second half, obviously, was different."

Taysom Hill got the start at quarterback for the Saints, his first start at that position since filling in for Drew Brees for four games during the 2020 season. The fifth-year veteran out of BYU did everything he could to keep the Saints in the game with his legs. He ran the ball 11 times for 101 yards, crossing the 1,000-yard mark for his career and becoming the second Saints quarterback to ever rush for 100 yards in a game (Aaron Brooks, 2000 vs. San Francisco). He was less effective passing, possibly because of an injury to one of the fingers on his throwing hand in the first quarter, completing 19 for 40 yards for 264 yards with two touchdowns and four interceptions, three in the fourth quarter.

"I thought he played with a lot of heart, a lot of guts," Payton said of Hill. "We didn't help him in the first half."

Cornerback Marshon Lattimore put the Saints in scoring position with an interception of Dak Prescott in the fourth quarter but Hill was hit while throwing and had his pass intercepted by Damontae Kazee with 6:24 to play, Hill's second of the game. Hill was picked off by cornerback Trevon Diggs on the very next possession, and again on the next possession. The final one was returned 29 yards for a touchdown by defensive tackle Carlos Watkins.

New Orleans had a 70-yard touchdown reception by Deonte Harris with 2:32 to play in the game for the final score.

Running back Mark Ingram II returned from a one-game absence due to a kneed injury and had 10 carries for 28 yards, but New Orleans still had to play without star tailback Alvin Kamara, its two starting offensive tackles - left tackle Terron Armstead and right tackle Ryan Ramczyk - starting tight end Adam Trautman, starting left guard Andrus Peat and three of its top four defensive ends.

Week 14: New Orleans Saints 30, New York Jets 9; December 12, 2021 @ MetLife Stadium – The New Orleans Saints welcomed running back Alvin Kamara back to the lineup and said good riddance to the team's five-game losing streak with a 30-9 victory over the New York Jets on Sunday, Dec. 12 at MetLife Stadium.

Kamara, who had missed the past four games with knee and hamstring injuries, had an outstanding game, scoring on a 16-yard run in the second quarter and running for more than 100 yards for the fifth time in his career. He ran for 120 yards on a career-high 27 carries and caught four passes for 25 yards. His first reception of the game set a National Football League record for the most catches by a running back in his first five seasons in the NFL (359 catches).

"I'm back healthy. I think that was the most important thing," Kamara said. "O-line played well. I think we played well overall as a team. ... It looked good, it felt good."

Taysom Hill started at quarterback for the second consecutive game and was 15 for 21 for 175 yards and scored on 2 -yard and 40-yard touchdown runs. Kicker Brett Maher was a perfect three-for-three on field-goal attempts, converting from 23, 31 and 37 yards. The Saints had a massive advantage in time of possession, holding onto the ball for nearly 39 minutes.

The New Orleans defense dominated the Jets (3-10), forcing four three-and-outs in the first half. Linebacker Kwon Alexander (two) and defensive end Carl Granderson had sacks for New Orleans as the Saints kept the Jets out of the end zone, allowing just three field goals. New York was three of 14 on third down attempts and one of three on fourth down.

The Saints (6-7) will play at the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on "Sunday Night Football" on Dec. 19 before returning home to host the Miami Dolphins on "Monday Night Football" on Dec. 27.

The Saints played without three players who were put on the Covid-19 list last week - defensive end Cameron Jordan, running back Mark Ingram II and running back Ty Montgomery. It was the first game Jordan has missed in his career, ending a streak of 172 consecutive games played.

Week 15: Saints 9, Buccaneers 0; December 19, 2021

@ Raymond James Stadium – Eyes did not deceive. In a 9-0 victory over Tampa Bay on Sunday night, the New Orleans Saints' defense likely slotted in the best submission on a resume that has had several of them in the last few seasons, including three others against Tampa Bay in the previous three games against the Buccaneers.

New Orleans shut out what had been the league's leading scoring offense (31.5 points per game) and gave fits to quarterback Tom Brady, who holds – or will hold – just about every meaningful record for an NFL quarterback if and when he ever retires. Brady completed 26 of 48 passes for 214 yards, but committed two turnovers (and interception and lost fumble) and was sacked four times.

On Sunday night at Raymond James Stadium, the Buccaneers were unsuccessful on 13 of 19 third-down attempts, were stopped on their only fourth-down attempt and never reached the red zone against the Saints.

The Saints, with defensive coordinator Dennis Allen serving as acting head coach due to the absence of Coach Sean Payton (Covid-19 protocols after testing positive last Friday), had seven quarterback hits and six passes defended, and committed just one penalty on defense.

"I think just in general, defensively, I think that's probably as well as we've played," Allen said Monday. "I think our ability to get up on their receivers and disrupt on the line of scrimmage and not allow free access into the defense, I think that in conjunction with our pass rush, which I think affected the quarterback (was exemplary).

"And I think maybe even more than anything else, I thought our tackling was outstanding in the game. There was very little run-after-catch on these completions. There was a lot of catch-tackles when they were able to complete the passes. In that aspect, I thought that was outstanding."

New Orleans effectively smothered Tampa Bay, causing and recovering a fumble on the Bucs deepest drive. But the shutout, and the ability to keep Tampa Bay out of the red zone, wasn't defense-exclusive, Allen said.

"It was a great team win," he said. "And I felt like we played really good on defense. But to be able to do those things, you can't turn the ball over, you have to be able to play the field-position game, you have to be able to pin them down there when you have opportunities to pin them down there and make them go the long, hard way.

"They took over the ball one time on the 43-yard line, and that was the best field position that they had all night, and that was the one opportunity that they had that they missed the field goal (45-yard attempt in the second quarter, which would of halved New Orleans' six-point lead).

"A lot of the things that we felt like we needed to do to win the game, we were able to accomplish."

Allen said the Saints played with emotion and energy, and that until Payton is able to return the team will resume the formula that it utilized for Sunday.

"I think we've got to approach it, really, basically the same way we approached last week," he said. "We all know that we've got a job to do and certainly we're hoping that Coach is back sooner rather than later. But he's prepared all of us for the job at hand.

"Most of us have been with him long enough that we know exactly what's expected of us. The players know exactly what's expected of them. And we kind of operate business as usual, and hopefully we'll have him back in the building sooner rather than later and we'll be following his lead."

But Sunday, Allen was the leader, his first game as head coach since 2014, his last season as Oakland's coach.

"Certainly I received a lot of texts (after the game), and it's greatly appreciated," he said. "But, again, we're sitting here in the middle of a playoff chase and we really got to just focus in on doing our job and winning the next one.

"I just told the players when you start paying too much attention to everybody that's patting you on the back, the next thing you know you're going to turn around and there'll be somebody that's going to be kicking you in the butt. That's the way our league works, so we've just got to stick to the process, understand the plan and focus in now on making the corrections and moving on to Miami."

Week 16: Dolphins 20, Saints 3; December 27, 2021 @ Caesars Superdome

– Saints coach Sean Payton said QB Ian Book's NFL debut was "hard to evaluate."

The very reason the rookie out of Notre Dame was pressed into service in the first place was a COVID-19 outbreak on that also robbed New Orleans of 16 players.

Add in a knee injury that made T Terron Armstead inactive and it was bound to be a tough day for even an experienced QB — never mind Book, a fourth-round draft choice.

Book was intercepted twice — once for a touchdown — and sacked eight times in a 20-3 loss to Miami.

"He's competitive and tough. He's going to be fine," Payton said of Book. "He'll be frustrated, like all of us, with some plays, but certainly it's not going to define his growth or his career or what he does.

"It was kind of one of those perfect storms," Payton added. "We're all anxious to see him and yet it was just a tough spot for him to be in." CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE

Book didn't have the benefit of having either of the Saints' starting tackles. Ryan Ramczyk was among the players placed on COVID-19 reserve. Reserve T Jordan Mills, who started due to injuries in a win at Tampa Bay a week earlier, also was placed on COVID reserve this week.

WR Tre'Quan Smith, the most accomplished Saints receiver available, left (chest) and did not have a catch. The Saints' top two receiving tight ends — Adam Trautman and Juwan Johnson — also were on COVID reserve.

Unable to get comfortable with his pass protection, Book was quick to flee the pocket. He was a good scrambler in college, but found out how much quicker defenders' closing speed can be in the NFL. He was dragged down repeatedly on scrambles behind the line of scrimmage.

"I can't take that many sacks," Book said. "I've just got to throw it away and be smart. Trying to do a little too much."

Book's ability seemed to be less of a problem than his decision-making. When Book was comfortable, he threw decisively and accurately, completing 12 of 20 passes for 135 yards. But he said Miami surprised him with some unexpected defensive looks.

The Saints expected Miami to play man-to-man coverage. Instead, they played a lot of zone.

"They'd never seen me play and they want to test my arm and make me throw into certain zones, which is a smart tactic," Book said. "They were taking away some shorter routes that we were trying to hit and I just got to move to the next level (downfield). There's was definitely some of those I could have got."

The Saints also were unable to move the ball on the ground consistently, rushing for 83 yards. New Orleans did not convert any of its 12 third downs.

New Orleans' defense, coming off a shutout of Tom Brady and the Buccaneers, limited the Dolphins to just one offensive TD and two field goals. That was despite playing without starting LBs Demario Davis and Kwon Alexander, or S Malcolm Jenkins — all swept up in the outbreak.

Marshon Lattimore had an interception. Cam Jordan had two sacks and Marcus Davenport had one. Miami's only offensive TD came on a shovel pass to receiver Jaylen Waddle on a misdirection play that made it 17-3 with 5:10 left in the third quarter.

"Certainly, they played well enough for us to be in this game, which we were for a good majority of it," Payton said of New Orleans' defense.

Many of the missing players, having tested positive before Friday, are expected to be available vs. Carolina Sunday.

That means Book's maiden start could be his only one this season. And as rough as it went, he saw it as something upon which to build.

"I was having fun. I wanted to go out there and bring energy," Book said. "I could have played a little bit faster, you know, obviously doing some thinking the first time out there."

"I learned a lot already. So, that's a pretty cool feeling. I'm excited about that," Book added. "It's about moving on. Don't hang your head. It didn't go our way tonight."

Week 17: Saints 18, Panthers 10; January 2, 2022 @ Caesars Superdome — Cameron Jordan bolted into the backfield from the left edge of Carolina's offensive line. The Saints defensive end wrapped both arms around Sam Darnold, lifted the Panthers' quarterback off his feet and pulled him to the turf on his side as if they were on a wrestling mat.

That was one of 3 1/2 sacks for Jordan, who led a menacing, seven-sack performance by New Orleans' defense in a crucial 18-10 Saints victory over the reeling Panthers on Sunday that kept the Saints in the hunt for a playoff spot. "It's a full-blown push from the entire D-line," Jordan said. "We're a force to be reckoned with. ... When we take over the game, there's not much anybody can do."

The way Jordan and Co. were playing, the Saints might have won for the second time in three games without even scoring a touchdown. But after Brett Maher kicked four field goals to give them a 12-10 lead, Alvin Kamara capped the scoring by turning a short pass into New Orleans' first touchdown in more than 11 quarters.

The third victory in four games for the Saints (8-8) — also just their second triumph in seven games played in the Superdome this season — assured New Orleans would head into the final week of the regular season with a chance to cap an adversity-filled season with a postseason berth. "When we hear people say must-win games, today was a must-win game," Saints coach Sean Payton said, crediting his players' sense of urgency. "These guys understood it." Taysom Hill completed 17 of 28 passes for 222 yards. He also led the Saints in rushing with 45 yards while playing behind an offensive line missing four season-opening starters. Marquez Callaway caught six passes for 97 yards and Kamara had five catches for 68 yards, including his 12-yard TD in the fourth quarter.

C.J. Gardner Johnson squelched Carolina's last chance to drive for a tying score with his interception in the final minute, dooming the Panthers (5-11) to a sixth straight loss. "Bottom line is just everyone's not playing good enough," Darnold said. "Everyone on offense — we're just not playing good enough to win games. I think that's as simple as it is."

Darnold regained his starting job this week after Cam Newton had started in Carolina's previous five losses. Darnold completed 17 of 26 passes for 132 yards — a significant drop-off from his winning outing against the Saints in Week 2.

"In the end their (defensive) front won the game for them; we weren't able to get them blocked," said Panthers coach Matt Rhule, who has come under increasing scrutiny as Carolina has lost 11 of 13 games. "It's the same story we've had when we haven't played well offensively. When Sam had protection, he was able to complete balls and had some nice throws."

Carolina did not trail in the first half, taking a 10-3 lead on Chuba Hubbard's slashing 21-yard run early in the second quarter.

After that, Gardner-Johnson said Saints defenders were resolved to "tackle better and run to the ball — play with passion."

They did not allow a point the rest of the way.

"Sometimes it's about X's and O's. Sometimes it's about passion," Gardner-Johnson said. "You got to be way more physical than the other team."

New Orleans looked primed to tie it when P.J. Williams dislodged the ball from Darnold on a sack and Marcus Davenport recovered, giving the Saints the ball at the Carolina 13. But New Orleans had to kick a field goal after three unfruitful plays.

With just more than a minute remaining in the half, the Saints faced a third-and-11 from their 3. Conventional wisdom would have been to run the ball and then punt because Carolina had no timeouts. Instead, Hill let fly a 28-yard back-shoulder throw that Callaway caught along the left sideline.

Hill then hit Lil'Jordan Humphrey for 18 yards and Callaway for another 15 before New Orleans used its last timeout. Hill completed one more quick pass to set up Maher's third field goal as the half ended to make it 10-9.

"We go from possibly having a punt backed up to putting the ball at midfield and then transitioning to a field goal," Payton said. "You start doing the math on how that half could have ended — I do think (that drive) was important." Most of the third quarter was played on Carolina's side of the 50, but the Saints had one promising drive stall on an intentional grounding penalty and the another ended with a field goal.

The Panthers missed a chance to retake the lead when Carolina kicker Lirim Hajrullahu's sailed a 47-yard field goal attempt wide right.

WEEK 18: New Orleans Saints 30, Atlanta Falcons 20; January 9, 2022 @ Mercedes-Benz Stadium — The New Orleans Saints did their part in Atlanta — thrashing the Falcons 30-20 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

But when the Los Angeles Rams blew a 17-point lead and lost to the San Francisco 49ers 27-24 in overtime, it kept the Saints out of the playoffs for the first time since the 2016 season.

"Obviously, the other game didn't go the way we wanted," Coach Sean Payton said. "I'm proud of this group. Fought hard all season."

The Saints end the 2021 season with a 9-8 record and winners of four of their final five games. Sunday's game was another example of what the team had to fight through all season — losing a star player to injury.

Starting quarterback Taysom Hill was knocked out of the game in the second quarter with a left foot injury and Trevor Siemian replaced him. Siemian started strong by throwing two touchdown passes in the second quarter and then was off and on in the second half but did enough to lead the Saints to victory. The Saints started four players at quarterback in 2021, a necessity after starter Jameis Winston suffered a torn ACL in a home win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. They also played the entire season without star receiver Michael Thomas and kicker Wil Lutz.

Siemian was nine for 15 for 71 yards with two touchdown passes against the Falcons while Hill was seven of nine for 107 yards with one touchdown in his limited action.

With right tackle Ryan Ramczyk back in the lineup, the Saints running game was strong. Alvin Kamara had his third 100-yard game of the season, carrying 30 times for 146 yards. Receiver Tre'Quan Smith had his best game of the season, catching five passes for 76 yards and a touchdown.

The New Orleans defense continued its outstanding play, forcing two first half turnovers (a Paulson Adebo interception, and Malcolm Jenkins forced a fumble) that led to 10 points. Linebacker Kwon Alexander forced a fumble in the fourth quarter that was recovered by defensive lineman Shy Tuttle. Defensive end Cameron Jordan had a sack, his 23rd sack of Matt Ryan and 12.5 for the season. Linemate Marcus Davenport had 1.5 sacks.

2021 OPPONENTS

The New Orleans Saints finished second in the NFC South with a 9-8 record. In addition to playing each NFC South opponent twice, the Patriots will play one game against each of the AFC North and NFC West teams. As the second-place finisher in the NFC South, the Saints will also play the second-place team of the NFC East (Philadelphia) and the NFC North (Minnesota), as well as a 17th game, hosting the second place team in the AFC West (Las Vegas).

PAYTON'S PLACE AMONG HEAD COACHES

Sean Payton enjoyed an impressive run as head coach. After the team had captured only two division titles prior to 2006, the club had seven under Payton, four straight from 2017-20, the first time the club won their division in consecutive seasons and only the third time an NFC team's won their division four straight seasons since 2002 realignment. The team's had 16 winning seasons in its 55-season history, ten under Payton's watch. Payton has the highest winning percentage (.624) and most wins (161) among the 16 Saints coaches, 22nd all-time, fifth among active coaches.

HIGHER EDUCATION

40 schools were represented on the Saints' final Week 18 53-man roster. Of that total, 12 were represented by multiple Saints, led by six from Ohio State (defensive end Jaylyn Holmes, safety Malcolm Jenkins, cornerbacks Marshon Lattimore and Bradley Roby, tight end Nick Vannett and linebacker Pete Werner).

ROSTER ROLL CALL

Of the players on the final Week 18 53-man roster, 42 were on the active roster, a reserve list or the practice squad at the end of 2020. 23 have less than four years of prior NFL experience. The following's a breakdown of New Orleans' roster by experience (year entering): 13 years-1, 11 years-3, 10 years-1, 9 years-2, 8 years-2, 7 years-3, 6 years-3, 5 years-7, 4 years-6, 3 years-7, 2 years-7, 1 year-3 rookies-7.

3:25 IS FINE

With the January 9 30-20 win in the regular season finale at Atlanta with a 3:25 CT kick, the Saints posted a 4-0 record in games that started at 3:25 in 2021. On Sept. 12, they defeated Green Bay 38-3 in the season opener relocated to Jacksonville due to Hurricane Ida, defeated Tampa Bay 36-27 at the Caesars Superdome on Oct. 31 and on Sunday defeated Carolina 18-10.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

A spot on the practice squad is another avenue to eventually get onto the active roster and have the opportunity to contribute. The Saints have ten players on their current 2021 53-man roster who moved up to their 53-man roster after being on NFL practice squads, all who spent time on the Saints practice roster before being promoted. Below is an overview of players on the club's Week 18 53-man roster with extensive practice squad experience.

Running back Dwayne Washington participated on the Saints practice squad briefly in 2018 after spending most of the 2016 and 2017 seasons on Detroit's active roster. Through development, the tailback, in addition to his running skills, has developed into a core special teams player with 11 stops, to have a career-high seven for 2021.

Tight end Juwan Johnson was signed by New Orleans out of Oregon, where he spent his graduate transfer season following the 2020 NFL Draft as a wideout. Recording four receptions for 39 yards seven contests, Johnson spent the majority of the season on the practice squad. Converted to tight end in 2021, Johnson's took advantage of his frame and participation in his first full offseason strength and conditioning program and led the tight ends group with four touchdown grabs.

After spending the last six weeks of the 2019 season and the first 16 weeks of the 2020 campaign on the team's practice squad, linebacker Andrew Dowell was elevated to the club's active roster for the regular season finale at Carolina. In two preseason games in 2021, he posted five tackles, one forced fumbles and two coverage spots to secure a regular season roster spot. In Week 3 at New England, Dowell recorded the first blocked punt that an opponent had against the Patriots since the 2015 season. Dowell's five special teams tackles on December 19 at Tampa Bay was the highest single-game total in the NFL in 2021 and he finished the season tied for fifth in the league with 14 coverage stops.

After starting his career on the New Orleans practice squad as a rookie undrafted free agent out of Texas in 2019, wide receiver Lil'Jordan Humphrey appeared in five regular season games and one postseason start. In 2020, he was promoted to the active roster in December and posted his first career touchdown. In 2021, the 6-4, 225-pound wideout further learned to use his size and speed as an asset, posting 13 grabs for 249 (19.2 avg.) yards and two touchdowns, no catch more important than 18-and-eight-yard grabs in a two-minute drill near the end of the first half in the January 2 18-10 win over Carolina that helped set up an important field goal as time expired at the end of the second quarter.

INTRODUCING THE NEW ORLEANS SAINTS?

Much of head coach Sean Payton's time during the 2021 season was spent introducing new players to the team with 95 different players appearing in a contest and an NFL-record 58 of them in the starting lineup for at least one game. The day of the team's December 27 game vs. Miami, he literally met several additions to the roster that gameday. There were six players who played in the regular season finale at Atlanta, who were not on the Week One 53-man roster. One were players who began the season on the Saints practice squad, one was on reserve/suspended, four were on injured reserve and three signed or re-signed with the team after Week One.

The Saints produced their most impressive run-stopping effort in several seasons in 2018 and carried it over in 2019 and 2020. In seven straight games in 2018, they didn't surrender 100 rushing yards to an opponent for the first time since 2007 had a seven-game run in 2020. The Saints have not given up 100 yards rushing in their last four regular season contests. Below are the longest streaks in team history the defense has gone without surrendering 100 yards. Between 2017-20 they didn't allow a 100-yard rusher in a 55 straight games (regular season and postseason), the longest streak in NFL history. In holding Buccaneers TB Ronald Jones to nine yards on Nov. 8, New Orleans' efforts produced dominant results as his rushing total was the lowest for a leading rusher in a contest for an opponent during this streak. In Keeping San Francisco RB Jerrick McKinnon to 18 carries for 33 yards (1.8 avg.), New Orleans set the NFL record for the longest streak of keeping individual rushers under 100. After the last streak ended, New Orleans currently again has the longest streak in the NFL of not surrendering a 100-yard rusher.

Pos.: QB Ht.: 6-4 Wt.: 231 Exp.: 7 College: Florida State

Regular Season Career GP/GS (83/77): 2021: (7/7)

2021 REVIEW: vs. Green Bay (9/12): Made his first start for the Saints and passed for 148 yards on 14-of-20 passing with a 130.8 quarterback rating. Winston threw 5 touchdown passes, with a long of 55 yards on a touchdown pass to Deonte Harris. His five touchdown passes tied a career-high from when he threw five touchdowns against the Eagles (11/22/15) as a member of Tampa Bay. He also finished with 37 rushing yards on six attempts. In his first start with the Saints, Winston became the third player since 1950 to throw for five touchdowns in his first start with a team, finishing 14-of-20 for 148 yards and the five touchdowns. Winston's 148 passing yards is the fewest yards with five passing touchdowns since 1948. With zero interceptions, Winston becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to throw five touchdown passes with no interceptions in his first career start with a new team in a season-opener. Overall, Winston becomes the 7th quarterback with five touchdown passes and no interceptions in a season opener, and first since Baltimore QB Lamar Jackson did so at Miami on September 8, 2019. Winston became the 33rd player to start a game at quarterback for New Orleans, and the 11th to win in his first start. The victory is Winston's third career opening day victory and his first win over Green Bay. at Carolina (9/19): Started and completed 11-of-22 passes for 111 yards and two interceptions. Winston got the Saints on the scoreboard with his first rushing touchdown of the season with 14:37 remaining in the fourth quarter. Winston eclipsed 20,000 career passing yards. at New England (9/26): Made his third start as a Saint, completing 13-of-21 passes for 128 yards and two scores. The win marks the 18th team Winston has defeated in his career as a starter. vs. N.Y. Giants (10/3): Started and completed 17-of-23 passes for 226 and one score on the afternoon, without having a chance to see the field in overtime. Winston completed 12 consecutive passes at one point in the contest to tie a career-high. This was Winston's first start in the Caesars Superdome as a Saint. at Washington (10/10): Made his fifth start as a Saint and also made his 75th career start, completing 15-of-30 passes for 279 yards and 4 scores with a 108.2 passer rating. Also had 6 rushes for 26 yards. Winston threw a career-long 72-yard touchdown pass to Deonte Harris in the first quarter, the longest of his career. Marquez Callaway also caught a 49-yard touchdown pass to end the first half; the last time the Saints had two scoring plays of 45 yards, or more was on December 18, 2016, at Arizona when WR Brandon Cooks had 45-yard and 65-yard touchdown receptions from Drew Brees. Sunday was the first time Winston has thrown 2 TD passes over 45 yards in his career. Winston's 4 touchdown passes, and 279 passing yards were the most in his Saints career. Washington becomes the 19th team Winston has defeated as a starter. at Seattle (10/25): Started, completing 19-of-35 passes for 222 yards and one score. Also rushed eight times for 40 yards, his season high and also his most rushing yards with the Saints. Winston led the Saints on their longest scoring drive of the season, which lasted 19 plays for a total of 86 yards and accounted for a total of 10:16. Winston now has a 2-1 record against Seattle, where he has completed 69-of-107 passes (64.5%) for 666 yards with five touchdowns, and one interception. In his first Monday night start since 2017, Winston improved his record on Monday nights to 2-1. vs. Tampa Bay (10/31): Made first career start against his former team, going 6-of-10 passing for 56 yards and a touchdown with four rushes for 40 yards. On a scramble in the second quarter, suffered a left knee injury and did not return. Tampa Bay becomes the 20th team Winston has defeated as a starter.
