BILL AUSTIN, Head Coach

Most football authorities who know Bill Austin rate him as a promising young man with a bright future in this hazardous occupation of football coaching. Austin starts his life as a head coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers this year. He will be the fourteenth headmaster in the Steelers' 34-year history in the National Football League.

And he comes with a wealth of experience. He's a Californian who first began thinking seriously of football as a career when he gained some fame as a lineman with Oregon State in the late forties.

The New York Giants drafted him in 1949 and he played two seasons before serving a hitch in the service. He returned to play with the Giants from 1953 through 1957. His coach, Jim Lee Howell, called him the "best offensive guard in the league." He received his baptism in coaching at Wichita University in 1958 when he signed on as a line coach with Woody Woodward. The following year he joined Vince Lombardi, who was starting his dynasty at Green Bay. He was the offensive line coach there until 1964. He spent one year as an assistant coach in Los Angeles. Austin was born October 28, 1928 in San Pedro, California, but he and his wife now make their home in Pittsburgh.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LAVERN "TORGY" TORGESON, Defensive Coach

Lavern "Torgy" Torgeson, who spent eight years as a linebacker and five time an All NFL Pro selectee, has charge of the Steelers entire defensive unit.

He first came to the Steelers in 1962 as an assistant to Buddy Parker and now is the oldest coach in the point of service.

He was the Detroit Lions' fifth draft pick in 1951 and was co-captain of some of the Auto City's greatest championship teams.

He finished his playing career with the Washington Redskins and turned to coaching when a damaged knee put him out of action.

"Torgy" played at Washington State and since 1951, he has been associated with the National Football League, either as a player or a coach. He now resides in Pittsburgh with his wife and two daughters. He was born February 28, 1929.

TOM FLETCHER, Defensive Backfield Coach

It took Tom Fletcher a little while but he finally made it to the National Football League. He joins the Steeler staff as coach of the defensive backs.

He first tried his hand with the pros back in 1953. He went to camp with the San Francisco 49ers but a serious ankle injury during the pre-season cut short his career. He quit for a season and tried again with the New York Giants but the ankle injury was chronic. He then joined the Arizona State staff as an assistant to Clyde Smith and stayed on when Dan Devine moved to the head coaching post. Later, Fletcher moved with Devine to Missouri before joining the Steelers in 1966.

He was a halfback along with former Steeler John Henry Johnson, at St. Mary's and when the California college dropped football, both players switched to Arizona State.

He was born November 3, 1928. He is married and has two daughters.

DON HEINRICH, Offensive Backfield Coach

A Young man with ten years experience in the National Football League handles the offensive backfield for the Steelers. He is Don Heinrich, the former University of Washington All American who spent six years as quarterback with the New York Giants.

A brilliant diagnostician of defense, Heinrich was the nation's leading collegiate passer in both the 1950 and 1952 seasons. Five of his six years in pro ball were spent under Vince Lombardi, then the Giants offensive coach.

He worked a season for Tom Landry at Dallas and then returned to New York to handle the offensive backfield. He rounded out his education as an assistant with the Los Angeles Rams and then helped to establish the Atlanta Falcons' scouting system.

He was born September 19, 1931, is married and the father of four youngsters.

LEON McLAUGHLIN, Offensive Line Coach

Leon McLaughlin, former star center for UCLA and the Los Angeles Rams, has charge of the Steelers' offensive line.

McLaughlin came to Pittsburgh from the Stanford football staff. He had been there since 1959.

He graduated from UCLA in 1950 and played on the 1946 Bruin team which met Illinois in the Rose Bowl in the opening game of the Pacific Coast Conference—Big Ten post-season series.

He joined the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and was a standout center until 1955. He played on the 1951 Championship team and the 1955 divisional winner. Prior to his work at Stanford, he worked at the high school level and at Washington State University. He was born May 30, 1925 in Santa Monica, Calif. He is married and the father of four youngsters.

HUGH "BONES" TAYLOR, End Coach

Hugh Taylor has charge of the Steelers' offensive ends. You may know him better as "Bones" Taylor. He and Sammy Baugh caused a great deal of trouble in the National Football League a few years back.

Taylor played with the Washington Redskins from 1947 to 1954, and he was a rather busy fellow. He caught 272 passes for 5,233 yards and 58 touchdowns, something no Redskin has done before or since.

In the intervening years he has been a head coach at Arkansas State and the Houston Oilers. He also labored as an assistant at Florida State, the New York Jets and San Diego.

Born in Wynne, Arkansas on July 7, 1923; is married and has four daughters.

STEELERS' TRAINER

ROGER D. MCGILL

Joined the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1962 as Head Trainer. He brought with him 15 years of experience along with a Masters Degree in Education and a Therapy degree from Veterans hospital. He started his career as an assistant to Howard Waite, former trainer at the University of Pittsburgh. A former Marine, Roger is married and has two sons and a daughter. He is past president of the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association. He and his family reside in Mt. Lebanon, Pa.

ASBURY, WILLIE

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 6.1 Wt. 230

Kent State

Acquired for a future draft pick from Atlanta, Asbury was the Falcons 4th pick last November (1965). A powerful runner with speed. Good blocking ability too. Lives in Cincinnati, Ohio.

BAILEY, TOM

FIRST YEAR

GUARD

Ht. 6.3 Wt. 265

Alcorn A & M

Tom returns for another tryout after spending the 1965 season on the "taxi" squad. Played a little in the United Football League. Is big enough. Lives in Chicago, Illinois.

BAKER, JOHN

NINTH YEAR

END

Ht. 6.6 Wt. 270

North Carolina College

"Big John" began his football career with Los Angeles in 1958. In 1963 he moved to Philadelphia and later that same season he was traded to Pittsburgh. Upon arrival in Pittsburgh, however, John was immediately hospitalized with pneumonia which forced him to sit out most of the '63 season. A great competitor, John was the mainstay of the '65 defensive line. His greatest effort came last season when he was selected as the team's defensive captain, replacing the injured Myron Pottios. Married, has two children. John lives in Raleigh. During the off-season he does rehabilitation work with prisoners.

BALLMAN, GARY

FIFTH YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 6.1 Wt. 200

Michigan State

After spending most of the 1962 season on the taxi squad, Gary came on with a rush in 1963. That year he was voted the best "second year" Rookie of the Year as he led the team in kickoff returns; was second in receiving and, fourth in scoring. A constant threat on both long and short patterns, Ballman again led all Steeler receivers last season with 40 receptions for 859 yards and five touchdowns. He was the second leading scorer on the team with 48 points on eight touchdowns. Though he had seven less receptions in 1965 than the previous year, and despite double coverage on almost every play, Gary played well enough to win himself a trip to the Pro Bowl game. With an experienced quarterback at the helm this year, it is most likely that Gary will better last year's effort. Ballman holds a degree in Hotel Management from his alma mater. Originally from East Detroit, Michigan, Gary now resides in Bethel Park, Pa. with his wife and their son, John.

BELL, TOM

FIRST YEAR

DEFENSIVE HALFBACK Ht. 5.10 Wt. 190 Central Okla: State

Signed as a free agent Tom is a shifty, but tough runner with good drive and determination. A good tackler, also he has the speed and the moves for pro pass coverage. Could possibly be used as a kickoff and punt return specialist. Size is only problem. Resides in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

BRADSHAW, CHARLIE

NINTH YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.6 Wt. 250 Baylor University

Makes the best of two worlds. In addition to being one of the top offensive tackles in the league, he also is a practicing attorney in Houston. Is the only attorney among the active players and also is president of the Player's association. Completed his studies two years ago and finished No. 1 in the Texas Bar examination. Traded from the Rams in 1961. Has been named to the Pro Bowl. Lives in Houston with his pretty wife and son.

BRADSHAW, JIM

FOURTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6.2 Wt. 205 Chattanooga University

With good size and speed, Jim has come a long way since he broke into the Steeler organization four years ago. With Clendon Thomas switching to offense, Jim stepped in and took over the vacant safety position. Jim proved a capable replacement as he led the team in interceptions this past season with 5 and scored one touchdown. Jim's greatest effort came against the Philadelphia Eagles last year when he intercepted four passes and scored one touchdown. A native of St. Clairsville, Ohio, he now lives in Pittsburgh with his wife and four children.

BRANDON, CHARLES

FIRST YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.3 Wt. 225 Shaw U

A free agent in 1965, Charlie is back for his second try with the Steelers. A big, strong tackle who played both ways in college. A Physical Ed. major in Shaw. Lives in Fuquay-Varina, North Carolina.

BREEDLOVE, ROD

SEVENTH YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6.2 Wt. 225 Univ. of Maryland

A third draft pick of San Francisco in 1960, Rod was traded to Washington just prior to the 1960 opener. Came on strong in his second season, winning a starting position. Improved with each game and in 1962 was an All-Pro linebacker and played in the '63 Pro Bowl Game. Joined the Steelers in time for the kickoff of the 1965 season in an attempt to bolster a linebacking corps rocked by injuries. Married and has three children. During the off-season Rod works in the Real Estate business. Resides in Bowie, Maryland.

BREEN, GENE

THIRD YEAR

LINEBACKER

Ht. 6.2 Wt. 230

Va. Tech.

Was the Packers' 15th draft choice while still a junior in 1963. Acquired in a trade with Green Bay at the start of the 1965 season.

A tough competitor, Gene stepped into the linebacking spot last year and played like a veteran. With a little more experience, could be a good one. Resides in Mt. Lebanon, Pa.

BUTLER, JIM

SECOND YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 5.10 Wt. 195

Edward Waters College

"Cannon Ball" showed brief signs of stardom last season. Runs the 100 yard dash in 9.7. His last season at Edward Waters he scored 21 touchdowns. Specialized in kickoff returns last season, returning 25 kickoffs for 509 yards to lead the team in that category. His speed makes him a constant threat for the long bomb. Lives in Pittsburgh and teaches during the off-season.

CAMPBELL, JOHN

FOURTH YEAR

LINEBACKER

Ht. 6.3 Wt. 225

Univ. of Minnesota

A top-rated linebacker acquired by Pittsburgh from Baltimore prior to the start of the 1965 season. Began his career with Minnesota in 1963 but was traded to the Colts in spring of 1965. Was a top man on the kicking units with Baltimore and since coming to Pittsburgh has shown that he is both willing and able to hit. Married and lives in Wadena, Minnesota. During the off-season John works as a radio announcer.

CARTER, JIM

FIRST YEAR

GUARD-TACKLE

Ht. 6.2 Wt. 225

Tennessee A & I

A rough and rugged competitor with good speed, Jim was signed as a free agent this year. Played defensive tackle for Tennessee A & I and did an excellent job. Rated one of the best linemen to come out of high school in a long time. A hard-nosed player, Jim could find a home with the Steelers.

CLARK, MIKE

FOURTH YEAR

KICKER

Ht. 6.2 Wt. 200

Texas A & M

Mike came to Pittsburgh from the Eagles, following trade of Lou Michaels to Baltimore. Originally signed as a free agent to replace the great Eagle Kicker, Bobby Walston. Kicked 29 extra points and had 7 field goals in 1963 with Eagles. Last year, he scored 52 points to lead the Steelers; scoring on 19 extra points and 11 field goals. Married and lives in Longview, Texas.

DANIEL, WILLIE

SIXTH YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 5.11 Wt. 185

Mississippi State

Plagued with various injuries his first three seasons, Willie developed into a top back in 1964 and played full time. Has tremendous speed and despite his size can tackle with the best of them. Had one interception last season and scored one touchdown. Had been a coach of a high school team before entering the pros. Now works as an insurance salesman in the off-season. Married, has two children and lives in Starkville, Mississippi.

DEAN, JACK

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 6.0 Wt. 185

Northern Illinois

Signed by Pittsburgh as a free agent. Jack played semi-pro ball last year. Is one of a number of top-flight end prospects. He lives in DeKalb, Illinois.

DIAL, BENJY

FIRST YEAR

QUARTERBACK

Ht. 6.1 Wt. 188

Eastern New Mexico U

A small but tough competitor, Benjy was the Steelers' 13th draft choice. Despite his size, Dial is an accurate passer on both long and short patterns. A scrambler who can run when he has to, Benjy is an excellent field general who will give it all he's got. Has the poise but his size may hurt him. Resides in Portales, New Mexico.

DOBSON, JOE

FIRST YEAR

TACKLE

Ht. 6.4 Wt. 248

Idaho

Outstanding offensive tackle for Idaho. Steelers' 15th round choice in the recent draft. Has good size, strength, and speed. Strong on pass blocking and downfield hitting. Played both ways while at Idaho and excelled on both teams. Has tremendous desire and could be a sleeper. Resides in Horseshoe Bend, Idaho.

DRESSEL, LARRY

FIRST YEAR

DEFENSIVE END

Ht. 6.2 Wt. 227

Dayton

At 227 lbs., Larry will have to rely on his exceptional speed to make it with the pros. A tough competitor, with a keen sense for football. Could possibly be tried at linebacker. Was a transfer from Detroit to Dayton last year and played a good brand of ball for them. Lives in Jackson, Michigan.

FAIR, GEORGE

FIRST YEAR

DEFENSIVE BACK

Ht. 6.1 Wt. 200

Syracuse

A three-year letterman at Syracuse with good reactions and hands. Called an extremely combative and dedicated performer by Orange Coach Ben Schwartzwalder. Is a good pass coverer and can tackle with the best of them. Has reasonable speed and fine hitting ability. Resides in Avenel, N. J.

GAGNER, LARRY

FIRST YEAR

GUARD

Ht. 6.3 Wt. 240

Florida U.

One of the top pro prospects in the nation. No. 2 draft choice of the Steelers. Has good size and speed and likes to hit. Larry was Florida's top offensive lineman two years ago and their top man on defense in 1965. An exceptionally good blocker on sweeps and downfield assignments. Can hold his own with the best in the league. With a little experience could develop into one of the top linemen in the league. Resides in Ormond Beach, Florida.

GUNNELS, RILEY

SEVENTH YEAR

END-TACKLE

Ht. 6.3 Wt. 255

University of Georgia

Originally a Steeler draftee, the 10th pick in 1959, Riley was released from the Steeler squad before the opening of the 1960 season. In 1960 he signed with the Eagles as a free agent and he was on his way. Won a starting berth the following year but was slowed by injuries during the 1963 season. Acquired by Pittsburgh to bolster the Steelers defensive unit. Has good speed and tremendous strength. Married and has one child. Resides in Stratford, New Jersey.

HILTON, JOHN

SECOND YEAR

END

Ht. 6.5 Wt. 220

Richmond University

A sixth round choice of the Detroit Lions in 1954, John came to Pittsburgh during the 1965 training season in a trade with Detroit. Harry Gilmer, the Lions' Head Coach, said he "hated to lose him but that he'll make a real good one—and soon." Has size and moves to be a top performer. Resides in Kent Store, Virginia.

HINTON, CHUCK

THIRD YEAR

TACKLE

Ht. 6.5 Wt. 260

North Carolina College

Along with Ben McGee and John Baker, bulwarked one of the best defensive lines in the league last season. Hinton had a couple of tryouts, one with the Baltimore Colts and one with the Cleveland Browns, before settling with the Steelers. Has developed rapidly and commands the respect of rival quarterbacks throughout the league. Married and lives in Southern Pines, N. C.

HOAK, DICK

SIXTH YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 5.11 Wt. 190

Penn State

With John Henry Johnson out for the entire season, Hoak took over the chore as the Steelers' leading rusher last year. He carried the ball 131 times last season, gaining 426 yards for a 3.2 average. Six times he struck paydirt and his 36 points made him the third leading scorer on the team. A fine receiver also, Hoak grabbed 19 passes last season for 228 yards. One of the best liked athletes on the squad, Hoak is a steady and vastly underrated player. Bobby Layne once tabbed him as a player who seldom makes a mistake. In the off-season Dick is a school teacher. Married and lives in Greensburg, Pa.

HOHN, BOB

SECOND YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 6.0 Wt. 185

University of Nebraska

Selected by the Rams on the 20th round in the 1963 draft selections as a "future" choice, Bob was traded to Pittsburgh the latter end of the 1965 training season. Small, but a deadly tackler. Played for the Cornhuskers in three bowl games: Gotham ('65); Orange ('64); and Cotton ('65). He also played in the Senior Bowl. Resides in Beatrice, Nebraska.

HUNTER, ART

TWELFTH YEAR

CENTER

Ht. 5.4 Wt. 245

Notre Dame

Acquired from the Los Angeles Rams in an off-season trade for Ed Holler, the Steeler linebacker and punter of 1964. In 1953 he was a near unanimous All-America choice at both center and tackle for Notre Dame. One of the NFL's top centers but has recently been slowed down by injuries. Tried for a comeback last season but is still bothered by knee trouble. Lives in Los Angeles. Married and has two children.

JAMES, DAN

SEVENTH YEAR

TACKLE

Ht. 6.4 Wt. 250

Ohio State

The past four years have seen Danny develop into a top-notch tackle. He was originally the 49ers first draft choice but reported overweight and left the squad. Stayed out of football that year and was traded to Pittsburgh. After a slow start he has come on fast, the last couple of years, doing a top job week in and week out. Married and has four children. Lives in Cincinnati, Ohio.

JEFFERSON, ROY

SECOND YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 6.2 Wt. 195

University of Utah

Playing both end and halfback in college, Roy has been called a "most complete football player" by his coach, Ray Nagel. In college he did everything; ran, received, kicked points after touchdowns and also field goals. Led Utah in scoring in all three seasons and was named on All America teams by Time magazine and Sporting News his last year. Injury plagued him last year, forcing Roy to sit out a good part of the season. Despite limited action however, Roy managed to snare 13 passes for 287 yards and one touchdown. The leading punt returner last season, Roy returned 13 kicks for 100 yards with the longest return covering 67 yards. With Jefferson back in action, opposing safetymen will have to concentrate on someone other than Ballman. Married lives in Compton, California.

JETER, TONY

FIRST YEAR

FLANKER-END

Ht. 6.3 Wt. 218

Nebraska

Acquired from Green Bay for a future draft choice, Jeter was the Packers third choice in the November, 1965 player selection. Tony is brother of Packer star, Bob. Big enough to make a top-notch tight end. Lives in Weirton, West Virginia.

JOHNSON, HERM

FIRST YEAR

DEFENSIVE BACK

Ht. 6.4 Wt. 215

Michigan State

A defensive specialist. Herm is adept at covering both deep and short patterns. He was named All Big Ten and played in the North-South Bowl his senior year. Was originally the sixth round choice of the Los Angeles Rams in 1964. Single and lives in Plainfield, New Jersey.

KEENAN, DICK

FIRST YEAR

DEFENSIVE END

Ht. 6.5 Wt. 245

Montclair State

Signed as a free agent, Dick has both the size and speed to make the Pros. He was named to both the offensive and defensive first teams of the Eastern Football conference, playing both ways for Montclair. Was also a top wrestler in his senior year. Married and lives in Montclair, New Jersey.

KEYS, BRADY

SIXTH YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 6.0 Wt. 185

Colorado State

A dangerous punt and kickoff return specialist, Brady ranked second in punt returns last season, returning 10 punts for 77 yards. Tremendous speed and agility enables Keys to stay with most any receiver in the league. One of the best if not THE BEST tackler in the Pittsburgh secondary, Brady is notorious for his high, "head-hunting" tackles. He intercepted one pass last season, returning it 20 yards. Improves each year, gaining knowledge and confidence with every game. Born in Austin, Texas. Now resides in Los Angeles.

KILLORIN, PAT

FIRST YEAR

CENTER

H* 6.2 Wt. 220

Syracuse U.

Associated Press' second team All-American center. The third round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers. An exceptionally agile and aggressive player, one of the best centers in the nation. Supposedly better than Ringo or Bemiller at the same stage. Strong pass protector, and a good head-on hitter. Rated top pro prospect by all of the scouts. Has ambition to teach. Resides in Watertown, New York.

KORTAS, KEN

THIRD YEAR

TACKLE

Ht. 6.4 Wt. 280

Louisville University

1965 was Ken's first year with Pittsburgh. Obtained from the St. Louis Cardinals in an off-season trade for Terry Nofsinger. Was the Card's No. 1 draft pick in 1964 but reported overweight and played sparingly. Has good speed and the necessary size and strength for defensive line. When he keeps his weight down, he plays a good brand of ball. Single and lives in Chicago, Illinois.

LAMBERT, FRANK

SECOND YEAR

KICKER - PUNTER

Ht. 6.3 Wt. 200

University of Mississippi

A tall, rangy punting specialist, Frank was the Giants' fifth choice in the 1964-65 player selections. Acquired in a trade with the Giants in time to start the 1965 season. Led the nation's major college punters in 1964 with a 44.1 average. Picked up right where he left off as he ranked third in the league last season with an average of 45.7 yards on 78 kicks. A four letter man at "Ole Miss," Frank played in two Sugar Bowls with them. Married and lives in Hattiesburg, Miss. During the off-season he studies finance.

LEFRIDGE, DICK

FIRST YEAR

FULLBACK

Ht. 6.2 Wt. 240

West Virginia

The first Negro player in the Southern Conference, Dick was the Steelers' No. 1 draft choice in the recent selections. Broke the career rushing record at West Virginia with 1,701 yards in 348 carries and was tabbed by Coach Gene Corum as the best blocker in the Southern Conference. The second back selected in the NFL draft, Dick has all the essentials to make it big with the Pros. A strong and powerful runner, Leftridge could be the answer to the Steelers' backfield problems. Resides in Hinton, West Virginia.

LOFQUIST, KRAIG

FIRST YEAR

DEFENSIVE BACK

Ht. 6.0 Wt. 195

Minnesota

Highly recommended by his coach, Murray Warmath. Spent all of last season with the taxi squad gaining experience. Rated the best of Minnesota's defensive backs his senior year. Played in the Buffalo All-American game in 1965. Single and lives in Biwabik, Minnesota.

LONG, JIM

FIRST YEAR

END

Ht. 6.1 Wt. 225

Purdue

A versatile player, Jim is capable of playing both offense and defense. Will be given a long look at the offensive slot. Strong, aggressive, and a good pass rusher. On offense he is a good blocker and has good hands. Has the size and ability to be a tight end and knows what to do when he catches the ball. Gives it all he has. Lives in E. St. Louis, Illinois. Married and has twins.

LUCAS, KEN

FIRST YEAR

QUARTERBACK

Ht. 5.10 Wt. 195

U. of Pitt.

Though an 18th round choice in the recent draft, Kenny could be the sleeper of the team. A hometown boy who played with a weak club but did exceptionally well. A good passer with poise and determination. Size may be against him but has the potential and the credits to make it big. Played in the North-South All-Star Game. Resides in Pittsburgh, Penna.

LIND, MIKE

FOURTH YEAR

FULLBACK

Ht. 6.2 Wt. 225

Univ. of Notre Dame

Mike was the fifth round choice of the 49ers in 1962 after having his best year as a college player. In 1964 he was the second leading ground gainer for the 49ers with 100 carries for 256 yards and seven touchdowns. Acquired early last year to bolster the Steelers' running attack, and did a fine job. Was the second leading ground gainer on the squad with 375 yards on 111 carries and two touchdowns. A dangerous pass receiver; also, Mike picked off 25 passes for 236 yards last season. Married and has two children. Lives in Chicago, Illinois.

MAGAC, MIKE

FIFTH YEAR

GUARD

Ht. 6.3 Wt. 240

University of Missouri

An outstanding lineman in the Missouri Valley conference, Mike was the San Francisco 49ers second draft pick in 1960. After a slow start he came on strong, winning a starting berth in 1962. Hampered somewhat by injuries during the 1963 campaign, he came back strong in '64 and gained the reputation as one of the hardest hitters in the league. Has good speed, and is an excellent downfield blocker. Came to Pittsburgh during the '65 training season in a trade with the 49ers. From East St. Louis, Missouri.

MALLICK, FRAN

SECOND YEAR

END

Ht. 6.2 Wt. 245

No College

Originally signed as a free agent after an impressive year with the Pittsburgh Valley Iron Men in 1964. Saw limited action last season but may be ready to make his move. A rugged player with exceptional strength and speed. Lives in McKeesport, Penna.

MANSFIELD, RAY

FOURTH YEAR

TACKLE

Ht. 6.3 Wt. 250

Univ. of Washington

A second round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1963, Ray was obtained from Philadelphia prior to the start of the '64 campaign. Played in the Rose Bowl, East-West, College All-Star game, and the Hula Bowl his senior year. Started regularly the end of the 1964 season and came on strong last year. Impressive tackler with good speed and plenty of power. Married and lives in Kennewick, Washington.

MARTHA, PAUL

THIRD YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 6.0 Wt. 185

Univ. of Pittsburgh

One of the best all-around backs to come out of Pitt in the past two decades. Pittsburgh's first draft pick in 1964. Paul led Pitt in kickoff returns, was second in punt returns, second in scoring, third in rushing, third in pass interceptions, fourth in pass receiving and fourth in passing. Won All-America honors as a halfback his senior year. Normally a clutch player, the early pressure was apparently too tough on Martha and he never really untracked himself in his rookie season. Paul started slow again last season but improved with each game. He hauled in 11 passes for 171 yards. A most versatile player, he could be a top receiver and bolster the Steeler's attack along with Ballman and Jefferson. Married and lives in Pittsburgh. During the off-season he attends Duquesne University Law School at night. Married and has one son.

McGEE, BEN

THIRD YEAR

END

Ht. 6.3 Wt. 250

Jackson State College

Tremendous speed and agility enabled Ben to crash the starting lineup as a rookie in 1964 and make the Steeler defensive front four one of the toughest in the league by the end of the season. Last season, along with big John Baker, McGee picked up where he left off, improving with each game. Possible all-pro selection this season. Was the Steelers' 4th draft choice in 1964 and was an All-American on the Pittsburgh Courier's 1964 team. Spent a year in the Air Force. Lives in Starkville, Mississippi.

NELSEN, BILL

FOURTH YEAR

QUARTERBACK

Ht. 6.0 Wt. 195

U.S.C.

Prior to last season Bill spent most of his time as an understudy to the aging Ed Brown. Received a starting opportunity last season and took full advantage of it. The No. 1 quarterback, Bill improved with every game. Despite being hampered by a leg injury, Nelsen managed to complete 121 of 270 attempts, good for close to 1,000 yards. Is very poised and has the leadership qualities field generals must possess. Can throw the ball exceptionally long. Could be the answer to the Steelers' quarterback problems. Married, works as a trucking salesman in off-season. Native Californian, now resides in Pittsburgh.

NICHOLS, BOB

SECOND YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6.3 Wt. 250 Stanford University
The ninth draft choice for Pittsburgh in 1964 when he was chosen while still a junior in college. Played only sparingly but was impressive. Top candidate as an offensive tackle. Good speed and strength. Married and lives in Palos Verdes, California.

PEAKS, CLARENCE

TENTH YEAR

FULLBACK Ht. 6.1 Wt. 220 Michigan State Univ.
Drafted No. 1 by the Philadelphia Eagles in 1956. Injuries prevented Clarence from gaining recognition until the 1960 season, but after a fast start, he broke his leg in the seventh game that year. Was traded to Pittsburgh for Red Mack and Glenn Glass. Was third on team in rushing last season with 230 yards on 47 carries. Kickoff returns were Peaks' specialty last season. He returned 20 kickoffs for 429 yards. A strong blocker and better than average pass receiver. Married and lives in Philadelphia.

POWERS, JOHN

FIFTH YEAR

END Ht. 6.2 Wt. 210 Notre Dame Univ.
Spent most of the season with the taxi squad but moved up near the end of the season. Best year was 1964 when he caught 8 passes for 193 yards. Had trouble getting acclimated and last season was played at linebacker for a while. Will be trying for a comeback this season. Resides in Pittsburgh. Married a former airline stewardess from Pittsburgh and has a daughter.

RUSSELL, ANDY

SECOND YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6.2 Wt. 215 Missouri University
Was the Steelers' 16th draft pick in 1963, the same year Pottios was out due to injuries. Was a real Sleeper. He took over the middle linebacker post as a rookie, but played like a seasoned veteran. Spent the 1964 and 1965 seasons in Germany coaching an Army Post team. A hustler with good speed and a keen sense for football. Is being counted on heavily to strengthen a linebacking corps that was racked with injuries last season. Married and lives in Ladue, Missouri.

SANDUSKY, MIKE

TENTH YEAR

GUARD

Ht. 5.11 Wt. 235

University of Maryland

Out for most of the 1964 season due to a knee injury, Mike rebounded to his old form last year. Drafted by San Francisco, he was traded to the Steelers along with Earl Morrall. Since coming to Pittsburgh, Mike has earned the reputation as one of the best guards in the league and in Steeler history. Recovered miraculously from a childhood injury and went on to earn All-America honors at Maryland. Is married, has three children and lives in Somerville, New Jersey where he owns a restaurant.

SAPP, THERON

EIGHTH YEAR

FULLBACK-HALFBACK

Ht. 6.1 Wt. 210

Univ. of Georgia

After spending most of his career with the Philadelphia Eagles, Theron joined the Steeler organization in 1963. Spent most of the season nursing injuries. Was used only sparingly last season, carrying the ball only 14 times for 54 yards. Is remembered as the player to score the only touchdown in 1957 Georgia Tech game and was then named as Georgia Athlete of the Decade following this feat. Married last December, lives in Macon, Georgia.

SAUL, BILL

FIFTH YEAR

LINEBACKER

Ht. 6.4 Wt. 225

Penn State

Was traded to Pittsburgh two years ago in the Lou Michaels deal. Played only sparingly at Baltimore. Was Baltimore's second draft choice in 1961. His presence makes the linebacking spot solid. Was injured most of last season but healthy and ready to play this year. Lives in Baltimore, Maryland during the off-season where he is a youth director at the Y.M.C.A.

SCHMITZ, BOB

SIXTH YEAR

LINEBACKER

Ht. 6.1 Wt. 235

Montana State

Was a fourteenth draft pick in 1961. Can play all of the linebacker positions. Was sidelined most of the 1964 season with a sprained knee and only saw limited action last season. Married, and has one daughter. Lives in Pittsburgh.

SIMMONS, JERRY

SECOND YEAR

END Ht. 6.1 Wt. 190 — Bethune-Cookman College
Signed as a free agent. Has good moves and plenty of speed. Spent most of last season with the taxi squad but will be given a long look by the coaches this season. Single and lives in Daytona Beach, Florida.

STOFA, JACK

FIRST YEAR

QUARTERBACK Ht. 6.2 Wt. 205 Buffalo University
A big boy who played at Bishop McCort High in nearby Johnstown, Pa. who for the past two years has been a stay in the now defunct Southern Professional League. Had a try with the Miami Dolphins and was picked up by Pittsburgh as a Free Agent. Married and has been living in Florida.

THOMAS, CLENDON

NINTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6.2 Wt. 200 Univ. of Oklahoma
Was the top defensive back on the team in 1963 when he intercepted eight passes to tie for second best in the NFL. Originally a Los Angeles Ram, Thomas came to Pittsburgh in exchange for Mike Henry, better known as "Tarzan." The trading of Buddy Dial and Red Mack along with the failure of rookies to take up the slack forced former coach Buddy Parker to shift Thomas to the split end position in the latter half of the 1964 season. His ability as an offensive receiver proved so phenomenal that Thomas remained at the split end position last year. He was second in receptions last season, grabbing 25 passes for 431 yards. Thomas is also an excellent kickoff and punt return specialist, last season returning 5 punts. Played on some of the great Oklahoma teams. Is an enthusiastic golfer and a licensed pilot. During the off-season he works in the home building business. Is single and resides in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

TOBEY, DAVE

FIRST YEAR

CENTER

Ht. 6.0 Wt. 200

Oregon

A "future" choice in 1964, Tobey rates as one of the nation's finest line performers. Was selected on AAWU's first team all-star squad and was named first team All-Coast his senior year. Also a superb linebacker, Tobey's future in the pros will be centered around the defensive platoon. A fine tackler, defends the pass exceptionally well and has a great instinct for the ball. Comes from Eugene, Oregon.

VOSS, LLOYD

THIRD YEAR

GUARD-TACKLE

Ht. 6.4 Wt. 260

Nebraska

Was the Packers first pick in 1964 and comes to Pittsburgh in a trade which is expected to bolster the offensive line. Started as a defensive tackle in his first year with Green Bay but is fast enough to be a guard. Lives in Lincoln, Nebraska.

WADE, TOMMY

THIRD YEAR

QUARTERBACK

Ht. 6.1 Wt. 190

Univ. of Texas

Has the size and strength to be a top-flight field general. Was signed as a free agent. Was an understudy to Nelsen last year but saw enough action to complete 33 passes in 66 attempts. Needs experience and would develop. Was an all-around athlete competing in track and baseball at Texas U. Is a personnel Management graduate. Married and lives in Henderson, Texas.

WALLER, JIM

FIRST YEAR

END

Ht. 6.1 Wt. 195

Missouri

A free agent signed with Pittsburgh on the recommendation of Tom Fletcher, new Steeler assistant coach but formerly at Mizzou. Another top receiver prospect. Lives in Kirkwood, Missouri.

WARD, CHESTER

FIRST YEAR

DEFENSIVE BACK

Ht. 6.1 Wt. 180

Rutgers

Was originally an offensive back his junior year when he gained 313 yards, caught 15 passes and led the squad in scoring with 30 points. Switched to the defensive platoon to help shore up in weak secondary. Possesses natural defense ability and is especially adept at covering the long patterns. A natural at tackling and hitting. Resides in New Castle, Pa. Signed as a free agent.

WATKINS, HORACE

FIRST YEAR

GUARD

Ht. 6.4 Wt. 245

Arkansas A. M. & N.

Comes from one of those little-known schools that often turn out the top players in football. A free agent signed by the Steelers after recommendations from numerous scouts. A lineman who might play guard or tackle. Lives in Pine Bluff, Arkansas.

WILBURN, J. R.

FIRST YEAR

END

Ht. 6.2 Wt. 190

South Carolina

The Steelers' 13th pick in 1964 while still a junior in college. A fine pass receiver and good runner after he catches the ball. One of the most promising of all Steeler rookies, he has exceptional speed and moves. Could play split end or flanker. Is also a pretty good downfield blocker. Lives in Portsmouth, Virginia.

WOODSON, MARV

THIRD YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 6.0 Wt. 185

Indiana University

Baltimore Colts first draft choice in 1964. Was traded to Pittsburgh for Lou Michaels. A versatile player in college, but was hampered by injuries. Reinjured his knee in first game of the 1964 season. Saw only limited action the year before last, but last season blossomed into a fine defensive back. Was second in interceptions on the team with three. A deadly punt return and kickoff return specialist. Has good speed and a deadly tackler on defense. Married and lives in Pittsburgh.
