STEELER HISTORY

The first AFC Central division championship since 1979 and a seven-game winning streak — longest in the NFL — made the 1983 season a noteworthy one for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

In 1984, the Steelers' 52nd season, more work must be done. A year ago, the roster counted 25 players with three or less years of NFL experience. With the retirements of cornerback Mel Blount and linebacker Loren Toews and Terry Bradshaw's uncertain status, the rejuvenation process under Chuck Noll will continue.

The Steelers were founded by Art Rooney in 1933 and carried the nickname Pirates until 1940. For more than five decades, Mr. Rooney has watched the growth of the NFL's fifth oldest franchise. The early years — 1930's and 1940's — were lean times while the 1950's and 1960's brought some success, though never a playoff entry. But during the 1970's, the Steelers were pro football's most successful team. They won four Super Bowls, more than any other team in NFL history while making the postseason playoffs a record-tying eight straight years.

Born in Coultersville, Pa., on January 26, 1901, Mr. Rooney moved to Pittsburgh with his family when he was a year and a half old. He grew up on the site now occupied by Three Rivers Stadium and still lives just a short walk from the Steelers' home field.

He was an outstanding athlete who excelled in football, baseball and boxing. Knute Rockne wanted him to play at Notre Dame, but he attended Indiana State (Pa.), Georgetown and Duquesne. In baseball, he was signed by the Boston Red Sox and Chicago Cubs, but an arm injury ended his major league ambitions. He was also selected to represent the United States on the 1920 Olympic boxing team.

With competition coming from major league baseball and the more established collegiate football game, the early years proved to be difficult ones for the Steelers and other pro football teams. Mr. Rooney's team played their games at Forbes Field, but frequently took the games to the fans, playing in such places as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans and Louisville.

In 1939, the Steelers stunned the sports world by signing Colorado All America Whizzer White to a $15,800 contract, an unheard of sum at that time. The NFL's first big-money player is now United States Supreme Court Justice Byron White.

Sparked by rookie halfback Bill Dudley, now a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the Steelers had their first winning season in 1942 (7-4). The nucleus of that promising club was soon in the military. During World War II, the Steelers combined forces with the Philadelphia Eagles (1943) and Chicago Cardinals (1944).

After the war, the Steelers rekindled their efforts to bring a winner to Pittsburgh. Jock Sutherland, a legend at the University of Pittsburgh, joined the team in 1946. Utilizing the single wing, the Steelers tied for the divisional title in 1947 before losing in the playoffs to Philadelphia.

When Sutherland died unexpectedly on a scouting trip in 1948, the Steelers were dealt another setback. John Michelosen replaced him.

In 1952, Joe Bach began his second term as the team's coach as the Steelers became the last pro club to abandon the single wing. Under Bach, the Steelers were playing exciting football and improved their performance to .500 in 1953 when he resigned for health reasons.

For the third time, Rooney called on his friend Walt Kiesling. He coached the team through 1956 before Buddy Parker arrived from Detroit (1957). Parker and the flamboyant Bobby Layne reeled off a string of four winning seasons in six years beginning with a 7-4-1 mark in 1958. In 1963, the Steelers fell one game short of delivering a title when they lost their final game to the New York Giants.

In 1964, Art Rooney, Sr. was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. At about the same time, a transition was beginning to take shape in the front office. Dan and Art, Jr., the oldest of Mr. Rooney's five sons, became active in the organization on a full-time basis.

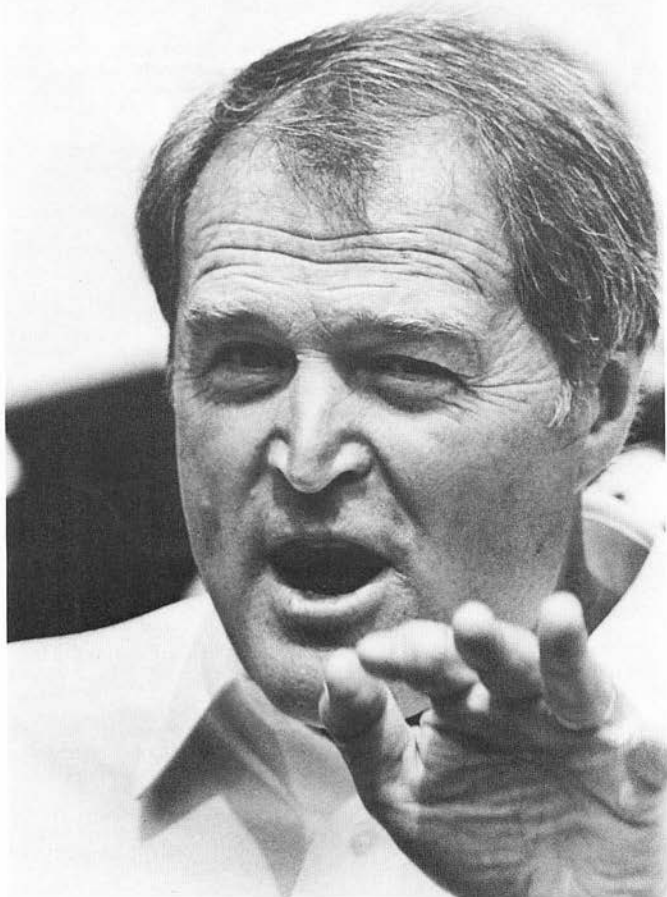

As youngsters, both had performed menial duties in training camp and their life spans actually paralleled that of the Steelers. Dan's first formal assignment was selling advertising and editing the program. Art, Jr. worked in the ticket office, specializing in group sales.

At 51, Dan is one of the most able and respected executives in sports. He currently serves on the three-member Executive Committee of NFL Properties and the same body of the Management Council and is on the Board of NFL Films. He also has served as Chairman of the NFL's Expansion Committee. On a club level, he has been the architect of one of the most successful franchises in professional sports and guides it with a steady hand.

Art's most significant contribution was and still is in personnel. A former football player at St. Vincent College, he is the man behind the great Steeler drafts. He oversees a department that has been creative and productive and still spends many hours himself scouring the country for talent.

Chuck Noll, one of the most successful coaches in National Football League history, looks to 1984 as one of the more unique in his 16 years as Steeler head coach.

Back-to-back playoff entries and a roster heavy with young players, brings significant promise for the coming season. There are also important question marks such as the team's sub-par play late in the 1983 regular season and in the playoffs, front line vacancies created by the retirements of Mel Blount and Loren Toews and the uncertain status of Terry Bradshaw.

Noll, who has conquered many obstacles since inheriting a 2-11-2 team in 1969, is the eighth winningest coach of all-time with a 147-87-1 career mark and needs eight victories to pass Steve Owen (154-108-17) for seventh. Only Tom Landry (234) and Don Shula (226) have won more games among active NFL coaches.

The 52-year-old Cleveland native has put together 12 consecutive non-losing seasons and his teams have made the playoffs 10 times in the last 12 years. He has the longest tenure of any of the 14 Steeler head coaches and has been with the same club longer than any other AFC head coach. Noll is one of only five NFL head coaches to lead a team for 16 consecutive seasons — Curly Lambeau (31), Landry (23), Owen (23), Bud Grant (16) and Noll.

With a .628 winning percentage, Noll is fifth among active coaches behind Joe Gibbs (36-12-0, .750), Shula (226-91-6, .709), Tom Flores (55-27-0, .670) and Landry (234-134-6, .634). Noll is the only coach to win four Super Bowls and needs one more to tie Vince Lombardi and the late George Halas who each won five NFL championships. Noll, Lombardi and Flores are the only coaches in pro football history who have not lost in the Super Bowl among those there more than once. His 14-6 postseason record is topped only by Lombardi (9-1) and Flores (8-1).

Now one of only 16 pro coaches with 100 wins, Noll's trademarks are patience and his enthusiasm for the teaching aspects of the game. He enjoys the daily routine of football and the intense preparation which accompanies it. The 1984 season marks Noll's 32nd in pro football as a player, assistant and head coach. His teams have recorded 25 winning seasons and have made the playoffs 20 times.

Noll came to Pittsburgh in 1969 from Shula's staff in Baltimore and immediately committed the Steelers to a program of building through the draft. The team makes infrequent trades — just nine in 16 seasons which brought players to Pittsburgh — including a 1984 offseason trade for Miami quarterback David Woodley. By comparison, in 15 of the last 16 drafts, the club has had extra picks. Fourteen active Steelers were obtained with extra selections including seven full-time and two part-time starters.

Noll's first team opened with a win and then lost 13 in a row to finish with the No. 1 draft choice (Terry Bradshaw). The losing streak carried over into 1970 when the Steelers began a new decade in a brand new Three Rivers Stadium with three straight losses and finished with a 5-9 mark. The following season, the club was 6-8, but a foundation was being built.

The breakthrough came in 1972 when the Steelers posted an 11-3 record and won their first AFC Central title. The team upended Oakland, 13-7, in the first round of the playoffs on a miraculous last-second touchdown by Franco Harris on a deflected pass. Eight days later, the Steelers lost to Miami, 21-17, in the AFC Championship game. The Dolphins finished with a perfect 17-0 record and their first Super Bowl. Noll was named UPI's AFC Coach of the Year.

The next year (1973), the team reeled off 10 wins but lost in the first round of the playoffs to Oakland. The club's productive drafting was beginning to pay big dividends.

In 1974, the Steelers rolled to the best regular season record in the NFL — 12-2 — and climbed to their ultimate goal. Pittsburgh whipped Buffalo (31-14) and Oakland (24-13) to win the AFC title and advanced to Super Bowl IX. Against Minnesota, the Steelers held the Vikings to just 17 yards rushing and won their first-ever world championship, 16-6. The victory climaxed a string of stellar defensive performances. To reach the Super Bowl, the Steeler defense produced one of the greatest efforts in playoff history, limiting the Raiders to 29 yards rushing.

In 1975, Noll became the third coach to win back-to-back Super Bowls when the Steelers won 10 of 14 regular season games, defeated Baltimore and Oakland in the AFC playoffs and capped the season by beating Dallas, 21-17, in Super Bowl X in Miami.

The following season (1976), the Steelers fielded what many say was Noll's best club, but it lost four of the first five games before rallying to win the last nine regular season games in a row and the opening playoff game. Noll was named NFL Coach of the Year by the Sporting News, but the Steelers' bid to become the first team in league history to win the Super Bowl three consecutive times ended with a 24-7 AFC Championship game loss to Oakland.

Pittsburgh made the playoffs for the sixth straight season in 1977, losing in the first round to Denver. In 1978 and 1979, the team rebounded, posting the best regular season won-loss records in the NFL and then going on to win Super Bowl XIII (35-31) and XIV (31-19) against Dallas and Los Angeles to finish the 1970's as the "Team of the Decade." In six short seasons, the club had become the first NFL team to win four Super Bowls and the first to win two consecutively twice.

Noll's pro football career began as a 21st round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1953 following a college career at Dayton, where he was team captain. He played seven seasons (77 career games) with the Browns as an offensive guard and linebacker. During that span, Cleveland won five Eastern Conference championships and played for three NFL titles (1953-54-55), winning two.

Noll's playing career ended prematurely at 27 when he retired to enter the coaching profession. However, an opportunity at Dayton did not materialize. He was planning a teaching career when Sid Gillman offered him the last spot on the staff of the Los Angeles Chargers of the new American Football League. Noll served as defensive assistant for six years with the Chargers winning four divisional titles and two AFL championships.

In 1966, he returned to the NFL as defensive backfield coach on the staff of Don Shula in Baltimore. In his three years, the Colts lost just three regular season games and won an NFL title in 1968 before losing to the New York Jets in Super Bowl III.

PERSONAL: Full name: Charles Henry Noll. Date of birth: January 5, 1932 in Cleveland, Ohio. Married, wife Marianne, and son Chris, (12/22/57), who teaches at Proctor Academy in Andover, New Hampshire. Noll attended Benedictine High School in Cleveland and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Dayton (1953). The Nolls live in Upper St. Clair.

Tackles/Tight Ends

A veteran of 24 years in the coaching ranks, Ron Blackledge begins his third season with the Steelers. This year, he will team with Bill Meyers and handle the offensive tackles and tight ends. Blackledge came to Pittsburgh in 1982 as an offensive assistant and then filled the void left by Rolie Dotsch's USFL departure.

The offensive line will be the focus of considerable attention after injuries and inexperience caused it to drop from its long-time top ten status in sacks allowed. The Steelers fell to 22nd and tied a team record by allowing 52 while in per game rushing average, another key measuring stick, the club was tied for eighth leaguewide (4.3).

The 46-year-old North Canton, Ohio native came to the Steelers from Kent State where he served as head coach from 1979 thru 1981, compiling an 8-25 mark. In 1977-78, he had served as offensive coordinator under Dennis Fitzgerald, now the Steeler inside linebaker coach.

Blackledge began coaching in the high school ranks for nine seasons at Canton South (1960-62), Canton Timken (1963-66) as head coach and at Canton Glenwood (1967-68). He moved to the college level as offensive line coach at Ashland College (1968-69) and later at the University of Cincinnati (1970-72). From 1973 thru 1975, he served as offensive line coach at Kentucky and then coached the line at Princeton (1976) before going to Kent State.

A member of the Bowling Green Hall of Fame, Blackledge played tight end and defensive end. He received a Physical Education degree (1960) and holds a master's in Guidance and Physical Education from Ohio University (1967).

PERSONAL: Full name: Ronald Dale Blackledge. Date of birth: April 15, 1938 in North Canton, Ohio. Married, wife Linda, with daughters Michelle (6/13/64) and Traci (8/17/71) and son Todd (2/25/61), a first round draft choice of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1983. The Blackledge family lives in the North Hills.

Defensive Coordinator

Tony Dungy, a four-year veteran on the Steeler coaching staff, begins his first season as defensive coordinator. The 28-year-old former defensive secondary coach is the NFL's youngest coordinator — defensive or offensive.

Dungy, a former defensive back with the Steelers, 49ers and Giants, replaces Woody Widenhofer, who joined the USFL's Oklahoma Outlaws. He inherits a defense which finished third in the league in total defense, fifth against the pass and among the top five in six major categories including tied for third in interceptions (28). Still, improvement is possible and replacements for retired 14-year veteran Mel Blount and linebacker Loren Toews must be found.

Dungy's coaching career began at Minnesota (1980) as defensive backfield coach. He joined the Steelers in 1981 as a defensive assistant and took over the secondary in 1982.

His first stint with the Steelers came as a player in 1977. After converting from quarterback, he made the team as a free agent safety, beating out veterans Ray Oldham and Glen Edwards. He played two seasons, primarily as a fifth defensive back and on special teams. In 1978, while starting only two games, he led the club in interceptions (6). In August of 1979, he was traded to San Francisco for a draft choice. The following year, Dungy was traded to the New York Giants and later waived.

As a player at Minnesota, the Jackson, Michigan native was an option quarterback, senior captain and two-time MVP. Until 1982, he held Gopher records for total plays (999), passing attempts (586), completions (274), passing yards (3,577) and touchdowns (25). He played in the Japan and Hula Bowls and the East-West game. Dungy earned a Business Administration degree (1977).

PERSONAL: Full name: Anthony Kevin Dungy. Date of birth: October 6, 1955 in Jackson, Michigan. Married, wife Lauren. The Dungys live in Allison Park.

Thirty-three year old Walt Evans is in his second season as assistant conditioning coach. He joined the Steelers prior to the 1983 training camp.

Evans assists Jon Kolb in implementing the club's extensive conditioning program and spends the bulk of his time with the weight training, flexibility and nutritional aspects.

Before joining the Steelers, Evans served as a corporate consultant for General Nutrition Corporation (1980-82) and helped formulate health and fitness programs for major area corporations such as Westinghouse and H.J. Heinz. He coached football and basketball at South High (1975-79) following his graduation from Marietta College in Ohio with a B.A. in Health and Physical Education (1974). In 1983, Evans received a master's in Sports Physiology from Pitt and is currently working towards a doctorate.

A member of the American College of Sports Medicine, Evans has written several articles on health and fitness for major magazines in the field and is presently working on a book on conditioning. He compiled a physiological profile of the Steelers following the 1983 season, a project which took a year to complete.

Evans played football and basketball at Oliver High School and played in the city championship game, the last game played at Forbes Field.

PERSONAL: Full name: Walter Evans. Date of birth: May 15, 1951 in Pittsburgh. Single, lives in Bellevue.

Dennis Fitzgerald, in his third season on the Steeler staff, this year teams with Jed Hughes at the linebacker position. Fitzgerald will handle the inside linebackers in the 3-4 scheme while Hughes will work with the outside linebackers.

The 48-year-old Fitzgerald brought 22 years of experience to the club when he joined the staff in 1982 from Tulane. For the second time in his career, he will be working with perennial All Pro Jack Lambert while Bob Kohrs and David Little will battle for a starting job vacated by Loren Toews' retirement. The team also expects to look at Robin Cole on the inside.

Fitzgerald's coaching career began at Michigan where he was assistant freshman coach (1961-62) and head freshman coach (1963-65) before being promoted to defensive line coach under Bump Elliott.

He served as defensive coordinator at Kentucky (1969-70) and before moving to Kent State (1971-74) where he coached nine-time Pro Bowler Jack Lambert. In 1975, he succeeded Don James as Kent State's head coach and compiled an 18-16 overall mark including an 8-4 record in 1976. In 1978, Fitzgerald coordinated the Syracuse defense before going to Tulane (1981) in the same capacity.

Fitzgerald was a five-time letterman in both football and wrestling at Michigan. He was the football team's MVP in 1960 as a halfback and still holds the school record for longest kickoff return — 99 yards vs. Michigan State in 1960. He also captained the wrestling team and won Big Ten championships twice (1960-61), was an NCAA semifinalist twice (1960-61), a national AAU finalist (1961) and participated in the 1963 Pan American Games and World Championships.

The Ann Arbor, Michigan native has an undergraduate and master's degree in Physical Education from Michigan.

PERSONAL: Full name: Joseph Dennis Fitzgerald. Date of birth: March 13, 1936 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Married, wife Elizabeth, son Timothy (11/3/64) and daughters Maureen (2/23/66), Eileen (8/10/67), Molly (8/8/68), Katherine (2/9/72) and Margaret (12/14/77). The Fitzgeralds live in the North Hills.

Offensive Backfield Coach

Dick Hoak has been a part of the Steeler organization for 23 years including 10 as a player. This year, the 44-year-old Jeannette, Pa., native begins his 13th season as the club's offensive backfield coach.

Last year, the Steelers gained more yards rushing than passing in seven of their 10 wins and wound up fourth in the league. Franco Harris, the key contributor, moved into second place on the all-time list behind Jim Brown while becoming the first back in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards eight times. In 1984, Hoak's versatility and unique credentials as a teacher and former player will be vital to offensive development with Walter Abercrombie's expanded role, the continued growth of Frank Pollard and the addition of three draft choices.

Hoak is Pittsburgh's No. 3 all-time rusher behind Harris and John Henry Johnson and second in rushing attempts. From 1961-70, he rushed 1,132 times for 3,965 yards and 25 touchdowns. He led the team in rushing three times while catching 145 career passes for 1,152 yards and eight touchdowns. In 1968, Hoak had his best year, gaining 858 yards, fourth in the NFL, and playing in the Pro Bowl. Former teammate Bobby Layne once called him "the most perfect player in my time."

As a collegian, Hoak played both quarterback and running back at Penn State (1958-60) where he was offensive captain and team MVP. He holds a Social Studies degree (1961) and is a former recipient of the Dapper Dan Club's award as Pittsburgh's outstanding sports figure.

PERSONAL: Full name: Richard John Hoak. Date of birth: December 12, 1939 in Jeannette, Pa. Married, wife Lynn, daughters Kelly (5/18/65) and Katie (7/23/68) and son Richard (7/5/72). The Hoak family lives in Greensburg.

Former Minnesota Vikings' assistant Jed Hughes is in his first season as the Steelers outside linebacker coach. He will be working with inside linebacker coach Dennis Fitzgerald and first-year coordinator Tony Dungy.

Hughes joins a defense with championship potential at one of the club's strongest positions. It is a critical area for development with young talents such as Mike Merriweather, Bryan Hinkle, Craig Bingham and Todd Seabaugh figuring in key roles.

The 36-year-old Hughes coached the Vikings' defensive secondary in 1982 and 1983 after 11 years of collegiate experience at Stanford, Michigan and UCLA. He began his coaching career at Biglerville (Pa.) High School (1970) before moving to Stanford as offensive line coach for one year and a year with the defensive line. He coached the offensive line for a season and the linebackers for three seasons at Michigan (1973-75) before joining the UCLA staff as defensive coordinator — inside linebackers and defensive line.

Hughes played football (tight end) and baseball (catcher) at Gettysburg College where he received a bachelor's degree in Biology and Physical Education (1970). He also holds a master's in Education from Stanford (1972) and a Ph.D. in Education Administration (1975) from Michigan.

FRITO-LAY 'CHALLENGE FOR CHILDREN'

For the second season, the Frito-Lay Corporation through its 'Challenge for Children' program will donate $100 for every point the Steelers score during regular and postseason games in 1984. Last year, the club scored 365 points with Frito-Lay's contribution totaling $36,500.

'Challenge for Children' proceeds are donated to the Steeler Fund which distributes them to a variety of youth related charities and young people suffering from an illness or disease.

JON KOLB Defensive Line/Conditioning Coach

Jon Kolb begins his third season as the Steelers defensive line and conditioning coach. He joined Chuck Noll's staff on Feb. 17, 1982 following his retirement after 13 seasons as an offensive tackle for the club.

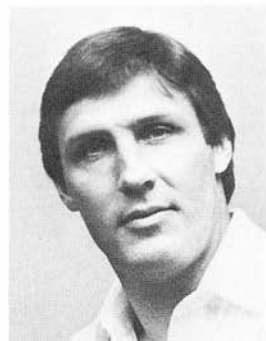

A year ago, the Steelers reached opposing quarterbacks 50 times to rank second in the AFC while finishing third overall in the NFL. It was the second year of the team's 3-4 scheme and Kolb played a major role in the top caliber play of nose tackle Gary Dunn and the development of Keith Willis, Keith Gary and Edmund Nelson. Willis, a former free agent, set a team record with 14 sacks in 1983.

As conditioning coach, Kolb is charged with developing and maintaining a strength and flexibility program. He brought a unique approach in 1982 and it continues. Without sacrificing the Steeler role as pioneers in weight work, Kolb introduced cardio-vascular stress tests for all players. The tests identify the conditioning needs of each individual player and workout routines are developed specifically to meet those needs.

Kolb's Steeler career began as a No. 3 draft choice in 1969 as part of Noll's first draft class. He started 138 games including 112 in a row (1971-79) at tackle and was one of the building blocks for what would be named the 'Team of the Decade.' In his first 10 seasons, the former All-America center at Oklahoma State started 156 of 157 possible games including postseason (1969-78). Kolb is one of only nine Steelers to play 13 seasons and stands fourth all-time in career games (177) behind all-time leader Mel Blount (200).

PERSONAL: Full name: Jon Paul Kolb. Date of birth: August 30, 1947 in Ponca City, Oklahoma. Married, wife Debbie and sons Eric (8/28/71) and Tanner (10/26/80). The Kolbs live in the North Hills.

BILL MEYERS Offensive Line Coach — Centers/Guards

Bill Meyers, a former offensive line coach with the Green Bay Packers, is in his first season with the Steelers. He will team with Ron Blackledge and handle the guards and centers.

Meyers inherits two talented positions in the Steeler line and a combination of players including six-time Pro Bowl center Mike Webster, experienced guards in Craig Wolfley and Steve Courson and capable young players in Emil Boures, Rick Donnalley and Blake Wingle. The Steelers were fourth in the NFL in rushing in 1983, but battled injury problems throughout the season while yielding a record-tying 52 sacks.

A veteran of 11 years in the collegiate ranks, Meyers coached the Packers' line in 1982 and 1983 after three seasons at Notre Dame as offensive line coach (1979-80) and later defensive tackles coach (1981) under new head coach Gerry Faust.

The 37-year-old Meyers started his coaching career at California as a graduate assistant working with the defensive line (1972-73). He coached the linebackers at Santa Clara (1974-76) before returning to California as offensive line coach (1977-78).

A junior college All-America at Long Beach (Ca.) City College, Meyers started for two seasons at Stanford when the school posted Rose Bowl championships in 1970 and 1971. He was All-Pacific Coast Conference in both seasons. Meyers earned an undergraduate degree from Stanford in Political Science and Pre-law (1972) and considered law school before deciding on the coaching profession.

Meyers is a Marine Corps veteran (1964-67).

PERSONAL: Full name: William John Meyers. Date of birth: October 8, 1946 in Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin. Married, wife Cathie, daughter Michelle (9/26/76) and son Charlie (6/9/72).

TOM MOORE Offensive Coordinator

A veteran of eight seasons as the Steelers wide receiver coach, Tom Moore begins his second season as the club's first offensive coordinator.

Last season, the Steeler offense was one of only two in the NFL to gain more yards rushing than passing. The team ranked fourth in the league in rushing, but 27th in passing and played without quarterback Terry Bradshaw. Moore will have a different cast in 1984 with Cliff Stoudt's departure, the addition of former Dolphin David Woodley and the first three picks of the 1984 draft, all receivers — two wide receivers and a tight end.

In 1983, Calvin Sweeney, a veteran of one NFL start, was the Steelers leading receiver with John Stallworth having season-long injury problems. Three rookie receivers made the active roster and two — Gregg Garrity and Wayne Capers — wound up as part-time starters.

Moore joined the Steelers in 1977 after serving as offensive coordinator at Minnesota where Tony Dungy was the Gopher quarterback. He began his coaching career at Iowa (1961-62) as freshman coach and moved to Dayton (1965) as backfield coach after a military stint. Moore was offensive coordinator at Wake Forest (1969) and backfield coach at Georgia Tech (1970-71) before accepting the first of two assignments at Minnesota as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach. He coached in the World Football League with the New York Stars (1974) and returned to Minnesota when the league folded.

Moore was a quarterback under Forest Evasheveski at Iowa (1957-60) on a Big Ten championship team (1958). The club beat California in the Rose Bowl and established a total offensive record (580 yards).

He received a History degree (1961) and a master's in Guidance (1966) from Minnesota.

PERSONAL: Full name: Thomas Young Moore. Date of birth: November 7, 1938 in Owatonna, Minnesota. Married, wife Emily, daughter Terry (8/31/64) and son Daniel (1/17/68). The Moores live in Upper St. Clair, Pa.

Ralph Berlin is in his 17th season as trainer for the Steelers. He joined the team in 1968 after working on the collegiate level at DePauw and the University of Kentucky.

The Pasadena, California native supervises the day-to-day health of the squad including rehabilitation of all injuries. He also has previous experience in the professional ranks with the St. Louis Cardinals (1963-64).

Berlin, an Iowa State graduate with a Physical Education degree, grew up in Philadelphia and served in the Marines for three years before beginning his training career at DePauw (Indiana). He later earned a master's degree in Health and Safety from Indiana (1965).

Berlin and his wife Dee have a daughter Beth and a son, Steven, who plays defensive tackle at Clemson.

Berlin is assisted by Gary Strager, now in his fourth season with the Steelers.

STEELERS IN HALL OF FAME

ROONEY, Founder, President and Chairman of the Board (1933-81), elected in 1964. BERT BELL, Co-owner (1933-46), elected in 1963. JOHNNY 'BLOOD' McNALLY, Player (1934, 1937-39), Coach (1937-39), elected in 1963. CAL HUBBARD, Player (1936), elected in 1963. BILL DUDLEY, Player (1942 and 1946), elected in 1966. WALT KIESLING, Player (1937-38), Coach (1933-44 and 1954-56), elected in 1966. BOBBY LAYNE, Player (1958-62), elected in 1967. MARION MOTLEY, Player (1955), elected in 1968. ERNIE STAUTNER, Player (1950-63), elected in 1969.

PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT

Director of Player Personnel

Dick Haley, a native of Midway, Pa., is in his 14th season as the Steelers' Director of Player Personnel. The former University of Pittsburgh standout has been a vital contributor in the team's success in building and maintaining a caliber club through the draft.

Haley played defensive back for Washington, Minnesota and the Steelers, a total of seven seasons (1959-65) before starting his player personnel career as a BLESTO area scout. As Director of Player Personnel, he spends a great deal of time during the year away from home scouting prospects.

Haley and his wife Carolyn, daughter, Callie Rene and son Richard Todd live in Upper St. Clair, Pa.

BILL NUNN, JR.

Assistant Director of Player Personnel

Bill Nunn is now in his 17th season as the team's Assistant Director of Player Personnel. The Pittsburgh native joined the Steelers in 1968 as a part-time scout after serving as sports editor to the Pittsburgh Courier. He was promoted to his current role in 1970.

Nunn, a graduate of West Virginia State, spends the bulk of his time on the road accessing future pro talent. He also doubles as training camp director.

Nunn and his wife Frances have a daughter, Lynell Stanton, who lives in Philadelphia, and a son William, III, now living in Atlanta.

Pro Talent Scout

Tom Modrak, a former BLESTO scout, enters his sixth year as pro talent scout for the Steelers. In this capacity, he handles the critical chore of scouting the team's next opponent as well as serving as the liaison with other NFL teams in personnel matters.

Modrak, a Pittsburgh native, joined the team on a part-time basis in 1973 and then scouted with BLESTO before rejoining the Steelers (1979).

Modrak and wife Sandy have two daughters, Stephanie and Erin.

Talent Scout—West Coast

Former Steeler linebacker Bob Schmitz, who began his personnel career as a full-time BLESTO scout, is in his ninth season as a member of the club's personnel department. He concentrates on the western colleges.

When Schmitz joined the Steelers in 1976, he brought nine years of BLESTO experience (1967-75). Prior to that, he played linebacker beginning in 1961 after joining the Steelers as a 14th round draft choice.

Schmitz and wife Kathryn live in Phoenix, Arizona, with daughters Meghan and Amy and sons Bobby and Michael.

College Talent Scout

Joe Krupa is in his sixth season as the Steelers' college talent scout. He is a former Pro Bowler who played nine seasons with the team as a defensive tackle.

Krupa played college football at Purdue before coming to Pittsburgh as a No. 2 draft choice in 1956. He earned Pro Bowl honors in 1964.

Krupa has a daughter, Annette and sons Joseph and Gary Ernest.

CAREER TOTALS: 21-13

PRO: A major Steeler story in 1984 because of his great natural talents and growing offensive role . . . A genuine 'big play' threat capable of producing touchdowns every time he touches the football . . . His size, speed, instinctive running style and ability as a receiver make him the team's most explosive weapon along with a healthy John Stallworth . . . Lingerin knee problems in 1983 limited his late season playing time and cut into a very productive early season . . . Started first 13 games of his second season, but will need good health and more opportunities to realize full potential . . . Finished fourth in rushing with career high 446 yards and 112 attempts a year ago and fourth in receiving (26 catches, 391 yards, three touchdowns) . . . Produced seven touchdowns — four in first five weeks — to tie Franco Harris for team lead . . . Exploded for 50-yard touchdown run and a 30-yard scoring pass at Houston (9/18) . . . Caught clutch 26-yard TD pass in last five minutes vs. New England (9/25) the next week for apparent winning points before defensive lapse a minute later meant defeat . . . Produced again in key situation for the third week in a row vs. Houston (10/2) with a 51-yard TD grab on a broken play for winning points in come-from-behind 17-10 victory . . . Also had 51-yard reception vs. San Diego which wound up as second longest pass plays of the season . . . Scored first TD vs. Baltimore (11/13) on 11-yard sweep in important road win . . . Established a career high with seven catches for 71 yards in comeback win over Tampa Bay (11/30) . . . Best rushing day came vs. Cleveland (10/16) with 65 yards on 15 carries . . . Suffered sprained left knee at Detroit (11/24), but missed only one game — vs. Cincinnati (12/4) . . . Returned in backup role to Frank Pollard and handled the ball only nine times from scrimmage in final two games . . . Caught at least one pass in 14 of 15 games played . . . A No. 1 draft choice in 1982, his rookie role was hampered by stretched left knee ligament in second preseason game vs. New York Giants (8/21) . . . Returned to action as Frank Pollard's backup for six games . . . Had best game vs. Cleveland (1/2) in regular season finale, rushing for a career high 73 yards including a 34-yarder, the team's longest run in 1982 . . . Scored first pro TD in that game . . . Also returned kickoffs late in the season, averaging 19.9 on nine returns . . . In 1983 minicamp, worked at wide receiver to learn position . . . In first two seasons, has played split back, I-back, receiver and slotback in various formations . . . One of three running backs drafted in first round under Chuck Noll (Franco Harris, Greg Hawthorne) . . . Top rated RB in 1982 draft by Steeler and BLESTO scouts . . . Was 12th player selected and fourth back . . . One of three Steelers from Baylor (Hawthorne, Pollard).

COLLEGE: Four-year starter . . . Led team in rushing every season, averaging 94.0 per game . . . Totaled 3,665 career yards, fifth in Southwest Conference behind Eric Dickerson (4,450), Earl Campbell (3,736), Craig James (3,742), and Curtis Dickey (3,703), and was fourth in rushing attempts (732) . . . Led Baylor to SWC title with 1,187 yards in 1980 and was conference Offensive Player of the Year . . . School's all-time leading rusher, a record he established after 19 games . . . Recorded 20 career 100-yard rushing games, five as a senior . . . Had 207 yards in first college game vs. Texas A & M . . . Two-time All-SWC . . . Offensive MVP in Hula Bowl . . . Scored two TDs in 1982 Japan Bowl . . . Worked on Education degree last offseason.

PERSONAL: Single . . . Native of Waco, Texas with home in Pittsburgh . . . All-state performer at Waco High . . . Gained 2,112 yards in final two seasons . . . CAREER TOTALS: 160-113

PRO: After finally achieving Pro Bowl status in 1982, struggled with leg injuries last season, making only eight starts . . . Started first five games when club ranked among league leaders in total offense and rushing . . . His absence for seven straight weeks was factor in team's slip from ranks of leaders in per rush average and sacks allowed . . . Still a near-flawless pass blocker . . . Peak health and his availability over long season would be significant boost to Steeler offensive fortunes . . . Now in eighth season at tackle after converting from tight end . . . Until 1983, had managed 52 starts in last 57 games including all 16 in 1980, 14 of 16 in 1981 and eight of nine in 1982 . . . Moved to tackle on full-time basis in 1977 after starting at tight end (1976) and subbing as tackle . . . First earned starting TE assignment in 1974, the year the club won its first Super Bowl vs. Minnesota . . . Began career as 225-pounder and started only one game in first three pro seasons . . . Had most productive season in first year as starter, catching 17 passes for 190 yards and a touchdown and then adding six receptions for 115 yards and a touchdown in postseason . . . The TD was a timely four yard reception in Super Bowl IX vs. the Vikings . . . Occasional target on tight end eligible play, the last time for a touchdown vs. Kansas City (1979) . . . Strongest player among Steeler linemen according to teammates . . . Built frame from 220's to 270 through club's weight program, but plans to play lighter — 255 — in 1984 . . . Only remaining member of talent rich 1971 draft class . . . Obtained with extra draft choice from New Orleans in RB Earl Gros' trade.

PRO: Bright young receiving prospect cut in the mold of John Stallworth . . . Genuine deep threat who made his presence known when healthy last season . . . Gifted player with great natural tools — size, speed, soft hands and knack for the leaping catch . . . Needs to play more aggressively . . . Coaches hope playing experience gained in 1983, his maturation during significant growth year and competition from 1984 draft picks Louis Lipps and Weegie Thompson will result in challenge for front-line playing time . . . Fastest veteran pass catcher with 4.47 speed . . . Started four games as a rookie at right wide receiver before foot sprain on 11-yard touchdown catch vs. Tampa Bay (10/30) put him on the sidelines and meant backup status for balance of the season . . . Had two catches in first pro start at Cincinnati (10/10) . . . Made leaping 36-yard grab over Cleveland defensive back (10/16) at the one to set up touchdown . . . Had best game of young career vs. Tampa Bay, catching five passes for 74 yards . . . Helped spark fourth quarter rally to win with 11-yard touchdown grab for first score, but injured foot on the play . . . Seven of his eight 1983 catches came as starter . . . Played sporadically as third receiver late in the season and had one catch for 21 yards at Cleveland . . . Produced two receptions in reserve role vs. Los Angeles Raiders in the playoffs including a difficult 44-yard leaping grab over Lester Hayes . . . Endured frustrating rookie training camp . . . After making good progress, suffered neck sprain the week before the first game . . . Missed the first two preseason contests and played in the final three, but did not catch a pass . . . Also used on kickoff coverage teams early in the regular season . . . Sixth receiver drafted in 1983.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter and four-year letterman . . . Converted from running back to replace Bengals' David Verser . . . Led team in receiving last two seasons . . . Most productive season came as junior, his first season as a starter, when he caught 36 passes for 629 yards (17.5) and four touchdowns to lead Big Eight . . . Had 25 receptions for 383 yards (15.3) and three TDs as a senior . . . Career totals include 73 catches, 1,138 yards (15.6) and eight TDs, sixth on the all-time list . . . Consensus All Big Eight as junior . . . Caught five passes for 11 yards in Senior Bowl including 11-yard TD to start North rally . . . Also played in Hula Bowl . . . Long jumper on Kansas track team with 24-0 best effort . . . Majored in Human Development.

PERSONAL: Married (Robbin), a Pittsburgh native and former Kansas basketball player . . . Daughter Tenesha (1/4/83) . . . Miami, Florida native who split offseason between Miami and Pittsburgh . . . PRO: Major training camp surprise as a rookie who begins his second pro season as the heir apparent to Mel Blount's starting job at right cornerback . . . His training camp battle with Sam Washington will be very closely monitored by Steeler coaches . . . As unheralded free agent in 1983, was impressive from the opening day of training camp . . . His rapid improvement was one reason for Anthony Washington's trade to Washington . . . Began the regular season as the fifth defensive back and key special teams' performer . . . One of the fastest Steelers (4.45) and an aggressive player despite his 5-9, 180 pound frame . . . Added 10 pounds with offseason weight program . . . Had 19 tackles (15 solos) and two quarterback sacks last season . . . Produced one of three interceptions returned for a touchdown in 24-14 Monday night win at Cincinnati (10/10) . . . His return of 70 yards, the longest of the year, capped the scoring . . . Gained experience at both corners, but played mostly as extra defensive back and Blount's backup . . . Missed games vs. Tampa Bay and Baltimore with knee and ankle problems, respectively . . . One of three free agents to make 1983 roster . . . Drew attention of team scouts after re-running the 40-yard dash because of discrepancy in reports.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman and starter the last two seasons . . . Had nine career interceptions, four as a senior . . . Led team in interceptions as junior (5), passes broken up (10) and shared fumble recovery lead (2) . . . Played behind Bobby Butler, now starting for Atlanta Falcons, his first two years . . . Had 103 career tackles (81 unassisted) . . . All-Metro and All-South independent (1982) . . . Criminology major.

Physically talented lineman who missed seven games in 1983 after starting 24 of 25 possible games the two previous seasons . . . Full-time playing status has meant improved techniques, especially in pass protection, and marked development in recent seasons despite injury problems . . . Can be dominating type of player because of strength, size and speed . . . Coaches feel good health and playing time are keys to more consistent play, a step which could bring all-star status . . . Started first five games of 1983 before pinched knee cartilage and slow rehabilitation process cost him five weeks . . . Returned as starter at Baltimore (11/13), but recurring knee problems meant on-and-off status . . . Did start regular season finale at Cleveland and AFC Playoff game vs. Los Angeles Raiders . . . Peak health will be important concern for him in 1984 in view of intense competition from Emil Boures and Blake Wingle . . . Earned starting assignment in last four training camps . . . In 1980, suffered dislocated foot after making first six starts which brought seven weeks on reserve before returning as a backup . . . Started all 16 games in 1981 and eight of nine in 1982 when he was Pro Bowl alternate . . . Started eight games in 1979 when injuries struck Gerry Mullins and Sam Davis . . . Also started first two games in postseason but missed the Super Bowl with ankle problems . . . Began career as standout special teams performer on return units . . . Used body builders program to build 6-1 frame to 270 pounds last season without sacrificing natural skills . . . Can still dunk a basketball . . . Fourth place finisher in NFL Strongman competition in 1982 . . . Drafted with extra pick obtained in TE John McMakin trade to Detroit.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at guard and three-year letterman . . . Played in East-West and Blue-Gray games after earning All South status as senior . . . Liberal Arts major.

PRO: A consistent and productive member of the Steeler offense, especially the last three seasons as a starter in 40 of 41 games played . . . After battling injury problems throughout most of his career, his ability to play and start in recent seasons has made him a key cog in the team's offense . . . In 1984, there is a possibility he will be tried at offensive tackle at training camp . . . Finished second in receiving in two of the last three years (1981, 1983) . . . Has climbed to eighth on the club's all-time receiving list . . . With 192 career receptions for 2,754 yards and 19 touchdowns, needs 39 receptions to join top five behind Lynn Swann, Elbie Nickel, John Stallworth and Franco Harris . . . Can get deep quickly and is a potent threat running with the football after a catch . . . Produced in pressurized situation in 1983 with inexperienced quarterback and wide receiver corps . . . For third straight year, started fast with 12 catches in first four games including five for 53 yards at Houston (9/18) . . . Caught at least one pass in 15 of 16 games which produced third highest single season catch total of career . . . Had touchdown receptions at Baltimore (11/13), vs. Minnesota (11/20) and at New York Jets (12/10) . . . Also had two catches for 32 yards in postseason loss to Los Angeles Raiders . . . Enjoyed solid year in strike-shortened 1982 season, especially in playoffs when he caught five Terry Bradshaw passes and scored a touchdown in 31-28 loss to San Diego . . . In 1981, had a complete season with career high 41 catches and full-time starting status — 15 of 16 games — after making just one start in 1980 . . . Produced career high eight catches vs. New England (9/27) including two crucial receptions in overtime . . . Had 18 catches for 232 yards in first four games, the basis for run at John Hilton's all-time Steeler record for catches by a tight end (46) . . . Consistency of play reflected in catching at least one pass in 14 of 15 games played . . . Started eight games in 1979 and caught 36 passes, a career high at that time, and then caught a touchdown pass in AFC Championship win over Houston . . . Major contributor in 1978 with 16 receptions and 20.1 per catch average before knee injury finished his season vs. Atlanta (10.8) . . . Made one of the big plays of his career that season with a 37-yard overtime touchdown reception to defeat Cleveland, 15-9 . . . One of the club's most physically gifted players who now benefits from considerable experience . . . First pro reception in 1976 was for a touchdown in Monday night loss to Minnesota.

COLLEGE: Consensus All-America and two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference player . . . Caught 64 career passes for 1,044 yards and 10 touchdowns as three-year starter and still ranks seventh among school's all-time receivers . . . Received Secondary Education degree.

PERSONAL: Married (Harriett) . . . Lives in Piedmont, South Carolina . . . Spent offseason working on Computer Science degree . . . Played at Seneca (S.C.) High School . . . Full name: Bennie Lee Cunningham.

PRO: A future pro football Hall of Famer and one of the greatest big game players in NFL history . . . Will become pro football's all-time leading rusher in 1984 . . . With 11,950 yards, needs 363 to pass Jim Brown (12,312) . . . Is 325 yards ahead of Chicago's Walter Payton (11,625) . . . NFL's all-time leader in rushing attempts with 2,881 and 1,000 yard seasons rushing with eight, one ahead of Brown and Payton . . . Six consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1974-79) is another record he shares with Payton (1976-81) . . . Holds or shares a total of 24 NFL records . . . With 100 touchdowns, ranks fourth all-time behind Brown (126), Lenny Moore (113) and Don Hutson (105) and is second in touchdowns rushing with 91 behind Brown (106) . . . With 600 career points, is the sixth leading active scorer in the league and first among non-kickers . . . Has scored two touchdowns in a game 21 times and has scored three in three different games, most recently vs. Cleveland (11/25/79) . . . Ranks as the NFL's all-time postseason leader in rushing yards (1,556), attempts (400) and touchdowns rushing (16) . . . Has been the leading rusher in 13 of the 19 postseason games played . . . Holds Super Bowl career records for yards rushing (354), attempts (101), and TDs (4) and the single game mark for TDs (2 vs. LA Rams in SB XIV) . . . Owns AFC Championship career records for yards rushing (402), attempts (113) and TDs rushing (4) and AFC Playoff highs for rushing (767), attempts (180), TDs (9) and TDs rushing (8) . . . Also has AFC Playoff single game high of three TDs rushing (vs. Buffalo, 1974) . . . Was the only NFL player named to the Pro Bowl every season from 1972 thru 1980 . . . Has been durable, missing just nine games in 12 seasons while playing 183 of 192 . . . At 34, is the third oldest running back behind Washington's John Riggins (35) and Dallas' Robert Newhouse

(34) . . . In 1983, he and Riggins became the second and third players in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards after the age of 30 . . . Former Steeler John Henry Johnson did it twice in 1962 and 1964 . . . Gained 1,007 yards in rank eighth in AFC . . . Added five 100-yard games last season to bring regular season total to 47, third behind Brown (58) and Payton (54) . . . Steelers are 42-5 (47-5 including postseason) in games in which he has rushed for 100 yards . . . Is third on all-time list for combined net yards with 14,449 behind Brown (15,459) and Payton (15,252) and could move into second place in 1984 . . . Had one of his most productive seasons in the abbreviated 1982 schedule . . . Capitalized on redesigned Steeler offense in which his role included more duties as a pass receiver to become the first player in team history to lead the club in rushing and receiving in the same season . . . Rushed for 604 yards to rank seventh in the AFC . . . Added three 100-yard games . . . In spite of a nine game schedule, had second best season (since broken as receiver) with 31 including a single game career high of 11 vs. Cincinnati (9/19) . . . With 306 career catches, is fourth on the all-time Steeler list behind Lynn Swann (336), Elbie Nickel (329) and John Stallworth (307) and has a shot at the all-time lead in 1984 . . . Was the Steelers' first draft choice in 1972, the first running back selected and the 13th player overall . . . Became the fifth first year pro player to rush for 1,000 yards and the second Steeler to ever do it even though he started only two of the first seven games . . . Finished fourth in the AFC in rushing with 1,055 yards and led the NFL in 100-yard games with a career high seven including six in a row which tied Brown's NFL record (since broken by O.J. Simpson and Earl Campbell) . . . Topped the NFL with a 5.6 rushing average, the second highest ever by a 1,000-yard rookie . . . Had 75-yard scoring run vs. Cleveland (11/19/72), the longest of his career . . . Led team to 11-3 record and its first division title ever . . . Was on the receiving end of the "Immaculate Reception," a 60-yard pass play to beat Oakland (13-7) in final five seconds of a first-round playoff game . . . Named AFC Rookie of the Year (1972) and was the only first-year player elected to the AFC Pro Bowl team . . . In 1973, injuries kept him out of two games and restricted his playing time in others . . . Rebounded in 1974 and was a key figure in the Steelers' drive for their first NFL title . . . Ran for 343 yards in three postseason games with back-to-back 100-yard outings vs. Oakland (111) in the AFC Championship game and vs. Minnesota in Super Bowl IX . . . Named Super Bowl MVP while setting game records for yards rushing (158) and carries (34), both broken by Riggins in Super Bowl XVII . . . Had his highest single season rushing total in 1975 with 1,246 yards and ranked second in the NFL and AFC, both his highest finishes . . . In 1976, set an NFL record with 41 rushes (143 yards) vs. Cincinnati, a mark since broken by James Wilder (42) and Butch Woolfolk (43) last season . . . Recorded career high 14 TDs . . . Combined with Rocky Bleier to become just the second pair of players from the same team to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season, matching feat of Miami's Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris in 1972 . . . After rushing for 132 yards in little more than a half vs. the Colts in a first-round playoff game, suffered a rib injury which forced him to miss the 1976 AFC Championship game vs. Oakland and cost the Steelers a chance at a third straight Super Bowl . . . In 1977, had his third best season rushing (1,162) and moved into ninth place on the all-time list . . . Following season, set a Steeler record with 310 rushes and moved up to fifth on the all-time list . . . In 1979, had one of his best seasons after his slowest start when he had just 189 yards in the first five games . . . Gained 1,186 yards for his second highest career total . . . Had five 100-yard games and five runs of 30 or more yards including a 71-yarder against Cleveland . . . In 1980, missed three full games and parts of others which deprived him of a seventh straight 1,000-yard season . . . Highlight of that season was reaching the 9,000 yard level vs. Cleveland (10/16) . . . In 1981, needed just 96 yards in the final three games to reach 1,000 but injury to Terry Bradshaw enabled Steeler opponents to stack their defenses against the run . . . Became third player to rush for 10,000 yards, reaching it vs. Seattle (11/18) . . . Caught career-high 37 passes . . . Missed Pro Bowl for the first time . . . His success has paralleled that of the Steelers . . . Team had never made the playoffs before his arrival and then made them eight straight seasons and 10 times in the 12 years he has been with the Steelers . . . Has unique running style which blends fullback's size and halfback's speed and shiftiness . . . Has rushed more times (437), gained more yards (1,928), scored more TDs (17) and has more 100-yard games (8) against Cleveland than any other team . . . In 22 games vs. Houston, has accumulated 1,497 yards, scored nine TDs rushing and had five 100-yard games while in the same number of games vs. Cincinnati, has totaled 1,495 yards, scored nine touchdowns and gained 100 yards four times . . . Monday night football's all-time leading rusher with 1,417 yards on 308 carries (4.6) nine TDs and seven 100-yard games . . . Has gained 1,685 yards on 379 carries in 22 prime time ABC appearances . . . Named Player of the Decade (1970s) by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and was selected to most NFL 1970's Teams of the Decade . . . Elected Dodge-NFL Man of the Year in national voting (1976) and Pittsburgh's Man of the Year by the Dapper Dan Club (1977).

COLLEGE: Three year letterman . . . Gained 2,002 yards on 380 rushes for a 5.3 average and 24 TDs . . . Ninth leading rusher in school history . . . Played in the 1970 Orange Bowl and the 1972 Cotton Bowl . . . Scored two TDs in Senior Bowl and played in the College All Star Game . . . Hotel and Restaurant Management major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Pittsburgh with Dana and son Dok (7/29/79) . . . One of the most active professional athletes in charity work, particularly with Multiple Sclerosis, Cystic Fibrosis, Easter Seals, Children's Hospital, Boy Scouts and several other youth-related projects . . . Chairman of the Pennsylvania Governor's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports . . . Board member of the new Keystone (Pa.) State Games . . . Received the Humanitarian Award from the New York Association of the Blind in 1980 and the David L. Lawrence Memorial Award from the Vectors in 1981 . . . Named a Distinguished Alumnus of Penn State University and won Whizzer White Humanitarian Award in 1982 . . . In 1984, honored by American Academy of Achievement with 'Golden Plate Award' . . . PRO: Versatile young back who made the active roster as a free agent . . . Played sparingly as a running back, but handled kickoff and punt returns . . . His 18 kickoff returns for 289 yards (16.1) was second on the team behind Henry Odom . . . Subbed for injured Paul Skansi as a punt returner at Houston (9/18) after not playing the first two games . . . Finished preseason third in rushing behind Walter Abercrombie and Franco Harris and was the kickoff return leader with a 20.1 average on eight returns . . . With size and agility, can play either halfback or fullback . . . Faces significant growth year and intense competition for roster spot from veterans such as Russell Davis and Henry Odom and three 1984 draft choices.

COLLEGE: School's all-time leading rusher . . . Accounted for 2,830 yards on 542 carries and 17 touchdowns . . . Set another school record as a junior, his best season, with 931 yards and five touchdowns . . . Excelled in key games including senior wins over Stanford and Washington with 156 and 124 yards rushing, respectively . . . Career statistics include 48 catches for 363 yards . . . Played in East-West game and was twice named All-Pacific 10 second team . . . Majored in Sociology.

PERSONAL: Single . . . Played at hometown Compton (Ca.) High School . . . Full name: Tim Allen Harris.

PRO: A dangerous receiving threat and one of the team's most talented athletes who turned front-line playing opportunity into role as significant contributor early in the 1983 season before being haunted by injuries . . . Started only one of first three games — at Green Bay (9/11) for John Stallworth — but led team in receiving with 11 receptions for 143 yards (13.0) . . . Caught five for 49 yards as reserve in opening game loss to Denver (9/4) . . . After first three weeks, quad muscle injury shelved him for six games and part of a seventh . . . Played briefly at Baltimore (11/13) and then caught longest Steeler pass of the season — 52 yards — vs. Minnesota (11/20) to help spark fourth quarter rally . . . Earned starting job in three of last four regular season games — at Detroit (11/24), at New York Jets (12/10) and at Cleveland (12/18) — but hamstring pull scratched him from playoffs . . . Was receiving bright spot at Cleveland, catching five passes for career high 66 yards . . . His first catch in preseason was 69-yard scoring bomb in Hall of Fame game vs. New Orleans (7/30) . . . At 6-2, 225, can terrorize opposing secondaries as possession receiver or deep threat with tight end-type size and receivers' (4.5) speed . . . Relishes new role in offense and has knack for running with the football after a catch . . . Still subs as running back on occasion . . . If healthy, could be a major story at receiver in 1984, a position now deep in young players battling for playing time . . . Began 1983 training camp with best playing opportunity of career with Lynn Swann's retirement and Jim Smith's USFL signing and coming off best year of his career . . . Switch to receiver was initially an experiment before producing eight catches in first three 1982 outings including three clutch receptions in 26-20 overtime win vs. Cincinnati . . . Also had crucial 22-yard third down grab in season opening Monday night win at Dallas (9/13) . . . Played in all regular season games for only time in career after enduring his least productive and most injury prone season in 1981, playing in 10 games and setting career lows for rushing attempts, yards, pass receptions and receiving yards . . . Started six games as running back (1980) after productive training camp but wrist, shoulder and rib problems meant part-time status . . . As No. 1 pick (1979), suffered pulled hamstring on first day of camp while running the 40 . . . Missed remainder of camp and then scored touchdown on first regular season rushing attempt vs. Houston (9/9) on eight-yard run . . . Steeler scouts saw him play tight end, running back and receiver during collegiate career . . . First running back drafted in the first round since Franco Harris (1972) and the fifth back selected in 1979.

COLLEGE: Gained 1,184 yards rushing on 236 carries and caught 45 passes for 579 yards as four-year starter at three different positions . . . Scored seven career touchdowns, rushed for 100 yards three times and caught touchdown passes of 74 and 80 yards . . . Senior season curtailed by broken hip vs. Ohio State (1978) in third game . . . Sociology major.

PERSONAL: Married (Linda), daughter Whitnee Lynn (5/5/81) and son Greg, Jr. (4/19/83) . . . Spent offseason in Pittsburgh . . . Fort Worth, Texas native who lettered in football, basketball and track at Polytechnic High School . . . Full name: Gregory Dale Hawthorne.

PRO: Talented linebacking prospect who will be an important training camp story in 1984, especially if planned move of Robin Cole to the inside is successful . . . Considered a 'semi-regular,' but did not start last season . . . Played very consistent football during stints at right and left outside linebacker, left inside linebacker and as extra linebacker in passing situations . . . Has progressed steadily in three seasons and appears ready for full-time duty . . . Determined, intelligent athlete who has used Steeler weight program to increase size from 210 to 220 without sacrificing quickness or 4.6 speed . . . Capable of making big plays such as 14 yard interception return for touchdown at Houston (9/18) this past season and key fumble recovery at Cincinnati (10/10) to stop first quarter drive . . . Coaches feel he is best suited for the outside and comes to camp at right outside linebacker . . . Credited with 34 tackles (25 solos) and is a mainstay on special teams . . . Excelled in preseason, finishing fifth in tackles (15) . . . Also intercepted two passes and recovered a fumble while playing all four 3-4 linebacker spots . . . Only career start came at Seattle (11/28) in 1982 on first visit to home area . . . Played in all nine games during strike-shortened season but quad muscle pull kept him out of playoff loss to San Diego . . . As No. 6 pick in 1981, spent entire rookie season on injured reserve because of hamstring pull and concussion in final preseason game . . . Says opportunity to practice with team, experience game preparations and work with strength program are key factors to his development and confidence.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman, first as quarterback and later as strong safety and linebacker . . . Moved to safety as freshman and wound up starting five games at linebacker that year . . . Knee problems interrupted his sophomore and junior seasons . . . Started all 11 games as senior when he produced 94 tackles (59 solos) . . . Played in East-West game . . . Has B.S. in Business.

PERSONAL: Married (Sue) . . . Spent offseason in Pittsburgh working in Steeler program . . . Lives in Silverdale, Washington where he played at Central Kitsap High . . . Full name: Bryan Eric Hinkle.

PRO: Experienced line prospect who will battle Ted Petersen for starting job at left tackle . . . Versatile player with experience at guard and center . . . Began the 1983 season on injured reserve because of a shoulder sprain before being activated (9/30) . . . Started the next week at right tackle at Cincinnati (10/10) for injured Larry Brown and wound up stringing together seven starts in a row on the right side . . . Did not play at Detroit (11/24) and then started the last three games of the season at left tackle for Ted Petersen (foot) . . . Also started the playoff game vs. Los Angeles Raiders (1/1) . . . Only previous career starts have come at right tackle . . . With depth problems at tackle, his improved play will be key concern this season . . . Has spent last four offseasons in Pittsburgh working on strength and conditioning program which is paying dividends . . . After beginning as center/guard prospect and No. 6 pick (1980), coaches now feel his best position is tackle because of speed (4.9), quickness and improving strength . . . Was waived during rookie training camp and then re-signed (10/15/80) when injuries hobbled Steve Courson . . . Turned second chance into NFL career by solid special teams play and occasional backup duty . . . First pro start came at Houston (12/20/81) at right tackle . . . Played strong game in next start on the right vs. Cleveland (1/2/83) . . . His hard work and development has meant markedly increased playing time the last two seasons.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman and starter the last two seasons at both center and tackle . . . During college career, also played guard, tight end and defensive tackle . . . Started as 190-pound TE . . . Has Broadcasting degree.

PERSONAL: Married (Sharon) . . . Lives in Pittsburgh . . . Native of Istanbul, Turkey where his mother (Ayten) was crowned Miss Turkey in 1950 . . . Moved to America at age two . . . Played high school football at Highland Park (Ill.) . . . Full name: Tunch Ali Ilkin.

PRO: One of the most versatile players on the Steeler defense with starting experience at left cornerback, free and strong safety . . . Continued in starting role at free safety for first seven games of 1983 before sprained left knee cost him four weeks . . . Played in final five games of regular season and in playoffs, but as backup at both safeties and extra back in passing situations . . . Quality player who made switch from three years of starting status at the corner to free safety in 1982, starting all nine games . . . For bulk of 1983 preseason, rotated at safety positions with Donnie Shell and Rick Woods . . . Played well late in preseason to earn starting spot over Woods although the threesome played almost the same number of plays in a game . . . Knee problems the last several years have hampered his speed . . . Has been most effective as a strong safety because of aggressive style of play . . . Had 44 tackles (28 solos), three interceptions and a fumble recovery in 1983 . . . Brought club from behind with 34 yard interception return for a touchdown at Cincinnati (10/10) for what proved to be winning points . . . Also had 34 yard return to set up score vs. New York Jets (12/10) . . . Began career as No. 1 draft choice and rookie starter at left cornerback, the first rookie to start for Chuck Noll since 1974 . . . Played all 16 regular season games and was first rookie to start for a Super Bowl championship team in Super Bowl XIII vs. Dallas . . . Contributed four interceptions that year plus one in postseason vs. Houston in AFC Championship game . . . In second season as starter, battled hamstring problems, playing 11 of 16 games . . . Returned to peak health in time for playoffs and second Super Bowl title vs. Los Angeles Rams in XIV . . . Youngest frontline defensive starter in 1980, playing all 16 games . . . Continued starting role in 1981 at cornerback before an ankle injury in opener vs. Kansas City (9/6) brought part-time status the balance of the season at cornerback, safety and occasionally as fifth DB . . . Began move to strong safety (1981) with three games (two starts) for injured Donnie Shell vs. Cleveland (10/11), at Cincinnati (10/18) and at Houston (10/26) . . . His 13 career interceptions include eight against AFC Central opponents — four vs. Cleveland . . . Also has three career fumble recoveries . . . Fourth defensive back selected in 1978 draft and 22nd player overall.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter with experience at both safety and cornerback . . . Began career as walk-on and finished as tri-captain, two-time defensive MVP and won All-Mid-American Conference honors twice . . . Senior Bowl MVP . . . Also played in East-West game . . . Speech Communications major with Marketing minor.

PERSONAL: Married (Donna), daughter Dwanesia Shevonne (12/30/81) and son Ron (5/23/80) . . . Splits offseason between Pittsburgh and Detroit . . . Played at Northwestern High in Detroit where he was senior class president and sports writer for newspaper . . . Full name: Ron Johnson.

Has played 157 of 164 possible career games including postseason at one of the game's high risk positions . . . Played 15 of 16 games in 1983, missing only at Seattle (11/23) because of ankle problems . . . Had interceptions in consecutive games at Cincinnati (10/10) and Cleveland (10/16) to run career total to 28, fifth among all-time NFL linebackers — Don Shinnick (37), Stan White (34), Jack Ham (32) and Steve Nelson (30) — and fifth all-time in team records . . . Racked up 10 or more tackles eight times last year including 19 vs. Minnesota and Cincinnati and 13 against the Raiders . . . In 1982, missed opener at Dallas (9/13) with sprained left knee, only the third time injuries have taken him off the field . . . In first start the next week vs. Cincinnati (9/19) totaled 19 tackles . . . Had career high three sacks vs. Kansas City (12/5) as team set then all-time record (8) . . . Recorded 14 tackles in playoff loss to San Diego . . . Shared club interception lead (6) with Mel Blount in 1981 and was voted team MVP for the second time . . . Contributed one of the season's key plays with an interception return of 31 yards against San Francisco's Joe Montana (11/1) to set up touchdown . . . Suffered concussion in Monday night loss at Oakland (12/7), a setback which ended Steeler playoff hopes . . . Began five-year run of landslide All NFL recognition in 1979 as NFL's Defensive Player of the Year for the second time in his career . . . Was first Steeler to lead league in interceptions (6) that season since Jack Ham (1974) . . . Named UPI's AFC Defensive Player of the Year . . . Excelled in 1978, playing every game as team won third Super Bowl title . . . In 1977, missed three games with knee injury, the first time he missed playing time since joining Steelers as No. 2 choice in 1974 . . . Still earned Pro Bowl starting job . . . NFL Defensive Player of the Year and team MVP in 1976 when the club lost four of its first five and then won 10 games in a row — five by shutouts — to make the playoffs . . . Established team record with six fumble recoveries . . . First earned Pro Bowl and All Pro status in 1975 . . . Recovered three fumbles in AFC Championship game vs. Oakland (1/4/76) to set NFL mark . . . All Rookie and AP's Defensive Rookie of the Year (1974) as the only rookie starter and youngest member of the Steel Curtain . . . Now in eighth season as defensive captain, a role first received in 1977 . . . Second among active Steelers in career sacks (23½) behind Gary Dunn (29) and in fumble recoveries (15) behind Donnie Shell (16) . . . Also second among active players in interceptions (28) behind Shell (36) . . . Has averaged 146 tackles per season (103 solos) throughout career . . . By making Pro Bowl this season, would extend his record as the only LB in pro football history to be named to game 10 consecutive seasons and tie Joe Greene's club record . . . Was 46th player drafted in 1974.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter as middle linebacker . . . Began career as defensive end . . . Mid-American Conference Defensive Player of the Year (1972) . . . STEELERS 5-0-1 IN OVERTIME GAMES

Since overtime was introduced into NFL regular season games in 1974, the Steelers have been involved in six such contests and have won five in a row after a tie with Denver in 1974.

Overtime results include:

Sept. 22, 1974: Steelers 35, Denver 35 at Denver.

Sept. 24, 1978: Steelers 15, Cleveland 9 at Three Rivers Stadium when Terry Bradshaw passed 37 yards to Bennie Cunningham (3:43).

Sept. 3, 1979: Steelers 16, New England 13 at Foxboro, Mass. Matt Bahr kicked a 41-yard field goal in the opening Monday night game of the season (5:10).

Nov. 25, 1979: Steelers 33, Cleveland 30 at Three Rivers Stadium. Matt Bahr kicked a 37-yard field goal (14:51).

Sept. 28, 1981: Steelers 27, New England 21 at Three Rivers Stadium. Terry Bradshaw passed 24 yards to Lynn Swann (3:19).

Sept. 19, 1982: Steelers 26, Cincinnati 20 at Three Rivers Stadium. Terry Bradshaw passed two yards to John Stallworth (1:08) after Dwayne Woodruff intercepted a Ken Anderson pass and returned it 30 yards to set up the touchdown.

PRO: Despite his status as Jack Lambert's backup, has developed into an important contributor on the Steeler defense . . . Saw more playing time last year than in any of his three previous years and in 1984 will be in thick of battle to fill inside linebacking void created by Loren Toews' retirement . . . Size and aggressive style of play helps him fit nicely on the inside, particularly at strong linebacker in the 3-4 scheme . . . Started one game at Seattle (10/13), but saw considerable action especially in short yardage and goal-line situations and as backup to Toews . . . Has gained valuable experience the last two seasons which has been reflected in his performance . . . Also started for Toews vs. Los Angeles Raiders in AFC Playoffs . . . Notched 54 tackles (37 solos), eighth on the team and tops among reserve linebackers . . . Has settled on the inside after several experiments outside . . . Coaches feel his physical style of play, speed and range best suits the inside spot . . . Standout special teams player throughout his career . . . Only other pro start was 1982 season opener at Dallas (9/13) on Monday night when he had eight tackles and a fumble recovery to stop a Dallas drive and set up the Steelers' first score . . . Quick learner who blossomed in rookie year after No. 7 draft status, but broken finger curtailed his progress late in the season.

COLLEGE: Consensus All-America (1980) . . . Averaged 14.4 tackles per game in 33 varsity games in career which started as nose guard . . . Established school records for total tackles (475) and solos (287) during career . . . Once had 21 tackles, two fumble recoveries and an interception in a game vs. Auburn . . . All-Southeastern Conference . . . Played in East-West game and Japan Bowl . . . Has Sociology degree.

PRO: Comes to training camp with best playing opportunity in five-year NFL career in uncertain quarterback situation because of 15-year veteran Terry Bradshaw's status . . . For the first time in 10 seasons, the starting job is not firmly in the hands of Bradshaw which will bring intense competition for starting status between Malone and newly acquired David Woodley . . . Gifted physical talent with very limited experience . . . Has come a long way back following major knee surgery which caused him to miss entire 1982 season . . . Great size, mobility and arm strength . . . In competition with Woodley, has some advantages including familiarity with Steeler system and personnel . . . By comparison, both are fifth year players with Woodley having edge in front line experience . . . Played in two games last year behind Cliff Stoudt — at Detroit (11/24) and at Cleveland (12/18) where he completed seven of 12 passes for 108 yards and a touchdown in two fourth quarter series . . . Also handled last two series in 38-10 playoff loss to Los Angeles Raiders . . . Spent bulk of 1982 season on Physically Unable to Perform list . . . Had his right knee reconstructed (February, 1982) and was active for final three games, but did not play . . . Played eight games in 1981, one as a receiver and seven at quarterback including two starts for an injured Bradshaw late in the season . . . Stepped into Monday night game at Oakland (12/7) in first quarter with team needing win to maintain playoff momentum . . . Completed 17 of 27 passes for 244 yards, two touchdowns and ran for another as team came-from-behind twice before losing, 30-27 . . . Completed 28 of 60 passes for 309 yards and one touchdown in final two games as starter, both losses, and threw three interceptions . . . First pro action came as receiver at end of 1980 season in hometown of San Diego for a few plays . . . Made first pro start as a receiver at Seattle (11/8/81) and caught 90-yard touchdown bomb from Bradshaw, the longest pass play in club history . . . Second quarterback drafted in 1980 and the first in the first round by the Steelers since Bradshaw (1970).

COLLEGE: Threw 26 touchdown passes as two-year starter in option oriented offense . . . Completed 250 of 320 passes for 3,388 yards, fifth in school all-time records . . . Also rushed 302 times for 1,344 yards (4.5) and 21 touchdowns . . . Senior MVP (1979) when he accounted for 22 touchdowns — 12 rushing and 10 passing . . . Produced 98-yard touchdown run that year vs. Utah State . . . Senior Bowl MVP and played in Hula Bowl . . . Industrial Education major.

PERSONAL: Married (Mary Ellen) . . . Lives in Pittsburgh . . . Very active in local charities including Multiple Sclerosis, Retarded Citizens, Epilepsy Foundation and Children's Hospital . . . PRO: Blue-chip talent at left outside linebacker who filled a big void left by Jack Ham as a 16-game starter last season . . . Very determined young player with the physical skills to join the NFL's elite . . . Should grow and develop significantly with second season of full-time status, a factor Steeler coaches feel will result in higher consistency of play . . . Had excellent season in 1983, finishing second in tackles behind Jack Lambert with 93 (52 solos), three pass interceptions and one-half a quarterback sack . . . Excelled vs. Cleveland (10/16) with two interceptions in Browns' first three series, one of which he returned 31 yards for a touchdown . . . Also had interception vs. San Diego (11/6) to set up third quarter field goal . . . Physical credentials include great size for a linebacker with the speed and quickness to make plays from sideline to sideline . . . Came to camp last summer as a starter after switching from right to left side, but had to prove himself in preseason and win position battle with Bryan Hinkle . . . Saw more playing time in 1982 than any rookie linebacker since Jack Lambert (1974) . . . Replaced Ham in most passing situations . . . Standout special teams performer.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter . . . As two-time All Pacific Coast Association player, totaled 132 career tackles (150 solos), 19 sacks and five interceptions . . . Named Outstanding Defensive Player, Most Loyal and Most Inspirational by teammates in senior year . . . Finished second in PCAA Defensive Player of Year voting (1981) and was second team NEA All-America . . . Played in East-West game and Olympia Gold Bowl . . . Holds History degree.

PRO: Versatile young defensive line talent and important contributor in his first two seasons . . . Made impressive physical progress in growth year from rookie season of 1982 to 1983 and played with increased confidence . . . Because of strength, size, athletic tools and depth at end, concentrated at nose tackle this past season . . . Made immediate impact, starting four games in a row for injured Gary Dunn at Green Bay, at Houston, vs. New England and Houston . . . For most of season, played dual role as backup at nose tackle and end or tackle depending on alignment . . . Produced 38 tackles (28 solos) and three sacks . . . Played both nose tackle and left end for John Goodman vs. Cincinnati (12/4) and wound up starting at left end in the regular season finale at Cleveland (12/18) and in the playoffs against the Los Angeles Raiders . . . Will again concentrate on the inside in 1984 where Steeler coaches feel he is most effective . . . PRO: Comes to training camp as the starter at left tackle after making a major contribution in 1983 . . . Worked through two seasons of physical problems to earn starting job last year . . . Started first 13 games in place of Ray Pinney before foot sprain at Detroit (11/24) shelved him for the season . . . Now completely recovered from surgery to remove benign tumor from right hip during 1981 training camp (8/11) . . . Versatile athlete with experience at both tackles including a start on the left side in Super Bowl XIV vs. Los Angeles . . . In 1981 and 1982, played only nine games while rehabilitating . . . Had played 16 games in 1979 (six starts) and 1980, a measure of his value in the club's offensive front . . . Made one of the key plays in the 1983 season at Seattle (10/23), when he recovered a fumble at the Steeler 16 to retain possession late in fourth quarter with team holding six-point lead . . . Should be improved in 1984 after a season back in the trenches at a position where Steelers need more consistent play . . . Still faces competition from Tunch Ilkin . . . Until hip problems, had accumulated 17 starts (1979-80) including postseason — 16 at left tackle and one at right tackle . . . Had missed just one career game (1978) before surgery and lengthy rehabilitation process . . . Came to Steelers with extra choice obtained from Green Bay for DE Bob Barber in fourth round (1977).

PRO: The club's most productive runner in 1983 despite his part-time status behind starters Franco Harris and Walter Abercrombie . . . A starter the last two years (1981-82), but had his best season a year ago, rushing for a career high 608 yards — the most by an NFL non-starter — while averaging a noteworthy 4.5 per carry . . . Reckless style of runner who played both halfback and fullback . . . His training camp battle with former Baylor teammate Walter Abercrombie will make Steeler offense that much better although his role will most likely stay as a semi-regular, a situation best suited to his all out running efforts . . . Very capable blocker . . . Has improved his pass receiving skills, catching 16 for 127 yards last year . . . Continued improvement could mean bigger role in offensive scheme . . . Finished second in rushing last year behind

Harris despite backup status . . . Had best game of five-year career at Green Bay (9/11) in important Steeler victory . . . Rushed 20 times for 90 yards (4.5) to establish new career highs . . . Also played vital role in win at Baltimore (11/13) with 80 yards on 15 carries . . . In both games, team's running attack topped the 200 yard mark . . . Started last three games of regular season vs. Cincinnati (12/4), at New York Jets (12/10) and at Cleveland (12/18) and then opened in the backfield with Harris in playoff loss to the Los Angeles Raiders . . . Scored touchdowns at Green Bay, vs. Houston (10/2), at Seattle (10/23) and the winning TD with only 41 seconds remaining in come-from-behind victory over Tampa Bay (10/30) . . . Started all nine games in 1982 and again was second to Harris in rushing . . . First earned starting job in 1981 at Miami (9/10) when he was surprise starter for Sidney Thornton . . . Produced 63 yards on 11 carries . . . The next week, had best game of young career with 72 yards on 12 carries and scored two touchdowns . . . Averaged 5.6 yards per carry in first four starts but season was hampered by knee problems . . . Also has experience as kickoff returner (1980) when he subbed for injured Larry Anderson . . . Began career as unheralded 11th round draft choice in 1980 . . . Excelled on special teams and in late preseason games . . . Rushed only four times in his first regular season . . . Changed from #44 to #30, his college number, in 1983.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter and three-year letterman . . . Rushed 221 times for 988 career yards (4.8) as both halfback and fullback . . . Missed most of senior season with broken jaw . . . Best career game came vs. Houston with 31 carries for 148 yards (1978) . . . Steeler scouts noted his progress during Baylor visits to see former No. 1 choice Greg Hawthorne . . . Health and Physical Education major.

PERSONAL: Single . . . Lives in Meridian, Texas, where he was standout performer in football and track at Meridian High . . . All-America hurdler . . . Full name: Frank Pollard.

PRO: The primary backup to Bennie Cunningham the last two seasons who will have to prove himself again at training camp in battle with Craig Dunaway and second round draft choice Chris Kolodziejski . . . Saw a bit more playing time in 1983, most as second tight end, while continuing as one of the team's most consistent special teams performers . . . An unknown commodity at tight end because of Cunningham's durability the last three seasons . . . Has two career catches, both in 1983 — one for 25 yards at Seattle (10/23) and one for 11 vs. Cincinnati (12/4) . . . Missed final regular season game and playoff loss with pulled hamstring . . . Originally made team as one of six free agents in 1982 . . . Used sparingly on offense after beating out Frank Wilson with two strong performances to close preseason . . . Caught 29-yard touchdown pass vs. Baltimore (8/28/82) and caught another the following week against Philadelphia (9/4) . . . Made club's biggest special teams play in 1982 vs. Cleveland (1/2) when he blocked a punt and returned it 18 yards for a touchdown to break 7-7 second quarter tie.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter . . . Had 31 career catches and three touchdowns with 21 receptions and two TDs as a senior . . . Played linebacker, defensive end and fullback before settling at tight end . . . Has degree with double major in Agriculture Business and Business Technology.

PRO: A valuable leader and experienced cog in the Steeler defense . . . Had consistent and productive season in 1982, but missed Pro Bowl recognition after a run of five consecutive appearances . . . Has led the team in interceptions in three of the last four years (1980, 1982, 1983) — sharing ties the latter two seasons — and finished second, one behind team leaders in 1981 . . . In 1983, shared interception lead (5) with Rick Woods, finished third in tackles — 90 (60 solos), first among defensive backs and recovered one fumble while starting every game for the second year in a row and for the fifth time in seven years since gaining starting status (1977) . . . As starter, has played in 99 of 103 regular season games and all nine in postseason . . . Intense, aggressive player in the secondary and one of the league's top flight strong safeties . . . Shares second place tie with Mike Wagner with 36 interceptions behind all-time club leader Mel Blount (57) . . . With Blount's retirement, becomes 'dean' of Steeler defensive backs . . . Last year, was part of rotating system of safeties involving Ron Johnson and Rick Woods, a plan which coaches feel "maximized" preparation and production of all three players . . . Shared AFC and team lead in interceptions (5) with Dwayne Woodruff in 1982 and was second behind Jack Lambert in tackles (54) . . . Came up with two interceptions in consecutive games vs. Cincinnati (9/19) and at Houston (11/21) . . . Picked off three Brian Sipe passes in 1981 game vs. Cleveland (11/22) . . . Missed two games (hamstring) which broke 60 game streak . . . Set career best in 1980, picking off seven passes while earning more All NFL votes than any other strong safety and being voted team MVP . . . Saved three victories that year with timely interceptions . . . Stopped late Baltimore drive with interceptions at five-yard-line and then repeated that feat three weeks later vs. Minnesota with interception of Tommy Kramer pass of seven-yard-line in closing 24 seconds . . . At Tampa Bay, saved another win with interceptions inside the 10 in fourth quarter . . . Opened that same season with longest career interception return — 67 yards — in one-sided win over Houston . . . All NFL honors included AP, Pro Football Writers, Pro Football Weekly, Football News and NEA . . . In Super Bowl championship season of 1979, established then career high of five interceptions . . . Played one of his best career games in 1979 postseason, forcing a fumble and recovering one vs. Houston in AFC Championship game . . . Only remaining free agent from talent-rich 1974 class . . . First made impression as special teams player and served as club's only special teams' captain . . . Eventually won safety job from Pro Bowler Glen Edwards . . . Excellent open field tackler who still enjoys special teams play and is a regular on coverage units . . . Has haunted AFC Central foes with 16 of his 36 interceptions coming against division opponents — seven vs. Houston, five vs. Cleveland, four vs. Cincinnati . . . Team leader among active players in career fumble recoveries (16) and has nine and one-half sack, tops among defensive backs . . . In second year, he caught a pass and intercepted one in the same game vs. San Diego (9/21/75).

COLLEGE: Two-time team MVP and All Mid-Eastern Conference player . . . Produced eight interceptions as senior and won Kodak and Pittsburgh Courier All America honors . . . Voted 'Best All-Around Athlete' by teammates . . . Has Education degree and master's in Guidance and Counseling.

PERSONAL: Married (Paulette) . . . Daughters April Nicole (12/20/76) and Dawn Patrice (9/12/81) . . . Lives in Columbia, South Carolina . . . Manages commercial properties in the offseason . . . Played at Whitmire (S.C.) High School in his hometown . . . One of seven brothers in a family of 10 children . . . Full name: Donnie Shell.

PRO: One of three rookie wide receivers to make the 1983 roster and the club's primary punt returner . . . Had 43 returns, second most in Steeler history, for 363 yards (8.4) after starting slowly because of a groin injury . . . Played sparingly as a receiver on the right side, catching three passes for 39 yards — two for 18 vs. New England (9/25) . . . Most productive day as a returner came against Tampa Bay (10/30) when he handled eight punts for 100 yards including his longest return of the season, 57 yards, to start Steeler rally . . . Also caught 21 yard pass to set up winning touchdown in that game . . . Possession-type receiver with sure hands who runs excellent routes . . . Despite inexperience as pro, makes adjustments to changing coverages well . . . With two additions to receiving corps thru 1984 draft, faces training camp fight for survival on the right side along with veterans Calvin Sweeney and former No. 2 pick Wayne Capers . . . Was one of two (Gregg Garrity) fifth round receiver picks to make the active roster as a rookie.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter who set school record with 138 career receptions for 1,723 yards (12.5) and 13 touchdowns . . . As team's leading receiver in three of four seasons, failed to catch a pass in only one career game . . . Caught four or more passes in eight of 12 senior appearances . . . Caught 50 passes for 631 yards (12.6) and three touchdowns in 1982 and then caught 10 passes for 87 yards in the Aloha Bowl vs. Maryland and five for 52 yards in the East-West Shrine game . . . Named Sun Bowl MVP as freshman after catching five passes for 52 yards including a game-winning 18-yarder to beat sixth ranked Texas . . . Senior captain . . . Sociology and Elementary Education major.

PERSONAL: Single . . . Lives in Gig Harbor, Washington . . . Exceptional high school athlete at Peninsula High where he caught 85 passes for 1,506 yards and 14 TDs on state championship team . . . NOW THERE ARE SIX!

With the retirements of cornerback Mel Blount, a 14-year veteran, and linebacker Loren Toews and Terry Bradshaw's uncertain status for 1984, only six Steelers remain from the four Super Bowl championship teams which won titles in 1974, 1975, 1978 and 1979.

Those remaining include offensive tackle Larry Brown, running back Franco Harris, linebacker Jack Lambert, strong safety Donnie Shell, wide receiver John Stallworth and center Mike Webster.

Sixteen Steelers played in at least one championship game. Only two members — one starter (Lambert) — remain from the "Steel Curtain" defense.

PRO: Despite playing only four regular season games in 1983, will be a major story this year if Steeler passing attack is to rebound . . . With departure of Lynn Swann and Jim Smith, had critical role a year ago, but injuries negated his season as the team's big play threat . . . A great natural talent and one of pro football's elite wide receivers . . . Never played more than one game in a row in 1983, a factor coaches feel disrupted the entire offense . . . A complete player . . . Combines great size with speed, acceleration and precise routes . . . Consistently makes tough catches . . . An accomplished leaper with the knack for acrobatic grabs . . . Surprising strong receiver as exhibited throughout career when he has broken tackles and turned high percentage catch into long gainer . . . Begins 1984 on the brink of rewriting all-time club receiving records . . . Caught eight passes for 100 yards last season but did not catch a regular season touchdown pass for the first time in his 10-year career . . . With 307 career receptions, needs 23 to pass Elbie Nickel (329) for second place on the Steelers' all-time list and 30 to pass Lynn Swann (336) for first . . . Needs only 59 yards to pass Swann's record for receiving yards (5,462) . . . Is also within range of Swann's mark for touchdown receptions (51) with 44, needing eight for first place . . . After injury prone 10th season, is part of two-man race towards the club receiving records with Franco Harris (306 catches) . . . Battled similar injury jinx in 1980, playing only three games . . . Came back in 1981 with 63 catches for 1,098 yards and five touchdowns and then earned his second Pro Bowl appearance in 1982 when he caught 27 passes in nine games, seven for touchdowns . . . In Pro Bowl, led AFC with seven receptions for 67 yards . . . Holds another team record with a pass reception in 67 consecutive games, a streak dating back to a game at Houston (10/9/77) and broken at Buffalo (12/12/82) in shutout loss . . . His seven TD receptions in 1982 was second in the AFC and third in the NFL . . . Caught 74-yard bomb from Terry Bradshaw vs. Kansas City (12/5), his longest career regular season catch and the longest on the team that season . . . Enjoyed standout playoff game vs. San Diego, catching eight passes for 116 yards and a touchdown . . . His 100-yard receiving effort was his fourth in postseason and tied Fred Biletnikoff's all-time league record . . . Pulled in a 58-yard TD pass in the 1983 playoff loss to the Los Angeles Raiders . . . It was the eighth straight postseason game in which he had a touchdown reception, another all-time NFL record . . . Has produced 10 career postseason TD receptions to tie all-time leader Biletnikoff (Swann had nine) . . . Was significant comeback story in 1981 . . . Established new career highs vs. New York Jets (9/20), catching eight passes . . . Two weeks later at New Orleans (10/4), grabbed seven passes for a career high 158 yards . . . Also caught six passes in a game three times that season . . . Produced best season in 1979, ranking second in team history and in the NFL with 1,183 yards on a team record 70 receptions . . . One of only three Steelers (Buddy Dial, Roy Jefferson) to record two 1,000-yard seasons as a receiver . . . Caught five or more passes in 11 of 16 games in 1979 and had three 100-yard outings en route to his first Pro Bowl . . . Provided the winning edge against the Los Angeles Rams in Super Bowl XIV with three key receptions . . . Grabbed 73-yard touchdown pass to give the Steelers the lead and then made sensational over-the-shoulder grab between three defenders to set up clinching score . . . In 1979 postseason, totaled 12 catches for 259 yards (21.6) and three touchdowns in three games . . . Also excelled in 1978 postseason, catching 14 passes for 228 yards and four touchdowns . . . Rewrote AFC record book with 10 catch performance for 156 yards vs. Denver and then hauled in three passes for 115 yards vs. Dallas including 75-yard TD in first half of Super Bowl XIII before injuries sidelined him . . . Holds Super Bowl records for career average per catch (24.4) and best single game average (40.3) vs. Los Angeles Rams . . . Shares Super Bowl records for most career touchdown receptions (3) with Swann and Cliff Branch and single game mark (2) with four different players. Also second in career with receiving yards (268) behind Swann (364) . . . Became full-time starter in 1977 after splitting time with Frank Lewis earlier in career . . . Since gaining starting status, has averaged 37 catches, 657 yards and five touchdowns per season despite playing a total of only seven games in 1980 and 1983 . . . In 1975 as part-time player, averaged 21.2 per reception to share NFL lead with Isaac Curtis . . . His career includes 15 100-yard games and six games with two TD receptions (five in regular season)

... Has stung AFC Central opponents with remarkable consistency, catching 113 passes for 2,003 yards (17.7) and 18 touchdowns including 40 for 762 yards (19.1) and six touchdowns vs. Houston; 37 receptions for 582 yards (15.7) and 14 TDs vs. Cincinnati and 36 for 659 yards (18.3) and career high eight TDs vs. Cleveland ... Statistics include two or more catches in a game 76 times — six receptions 10 times, four receptions 17 times and three catches 23 times ... One of the most productive No. 4 draft picks in the modern history of the NFL and a member of the talent rich 1974 draft class of which three remain (Jack Lambert and Mike Webster) ... Drafted with extra selection obtained from New England for DB Ralph Anderson.

COLLEGE: Had Alabama A & M jersey retired after career in which he caught 103 passes including 48 for 925 yards (19.3) and seven touchdowns as a senior ... Caught 10 passes in one game vs. small college champion Tennessee State and gained 261 yards receiving vs. Fisk ... Two-time All-Southern Intercollegiate Conference and played in Senior Bowl ... PRO: In his first season as a starter, led team in receiving while bearing a heavy production burden with the departure of Lynn Swann and Jim Smith and John Stallworth's injury problems . . . Proved to be durable and reliable, catching 39 passes for 577 yards and five touchdowns, the top TD producer among the receivers . . . Began 1983 starting at right wide receiver, but with Stallworth playing only four games, wound up starting 10 times on the left side . . . Had team's only 100-yard receiving day — career high 104 at Baltimore — on six receptions, another career best, and a touchdown . . . Only Steeler to catch two touchdown passes in a game last season vs. New York Jets (12/10) which was another career first . . . Performed consistently from the very start of the season with 11 catches for 188 yards (17.1) in the first four games . . . Played most of the season with a painful hip pointer but still managed at least one catch in all 16 games as the only receiver to make every start . . . Hauled in longest career reception (42 yards) at Baltimore . . . Also had 40-yard touchdown catch to close out 34-point first half vs. Cleveland (10/16) . . . Talented young player who should benefit with healthy return of Stallworth and competition from Wayne Capers, Gregg Garrity, Paul Skansi and 1984 draft selections . . . Prior to last season, made only previous pro start in 1982 vs. Cincinnati (9/19) and responded with four catches for 33 yards in overtime victory . . . Used sporadically for balance of the season, finishing with five receptions in seven games . . . Consistent performer on coverage teams . . . Has been determined worker in last three training camps bringing much more consistency in catching and improved pass routes . . . Had 20.3 per catch average prior to 1983, an example of his speed and ability to get deep . . . After spending his rookie season (1979) on injured reserve with unhealed foot fracture, turned second chance into 1980 roster spot and began his development . . . Waived on final cut that year, but re-signed (9/9) prior to second game at Baltimore . . . Five days later, caught key 22-yard third down pass to set up winning touchdown against the Colts . . . The next week, set then career high with three receptions for 71 yards including last minute catch to set up 51-yard field goal attempt in 30-28 loss . . . Blocked a punt which was recovered for a touchdown at Tampa Bay (11/9/80) and received a game ball . . . Until 1983, his only career touchdown reception came at Minnesota (10/5/80) as third receiver.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter who had 65 catches and eight touchdowns (18.6) during Trojan career including team leading 32 for 664 yards and two touchdowns as a senior . . . Began career at Riverside Junior College and later played at California-Riverside before the school dropped football . . . First team All West Coast and team All PAC-10 (1978) . . . Hurdler and 440 performer on track team and was two-time MVP . . . Has Business degree.

PERSONAL: Married (Zivia) . . . Lives in Santa Monica, California . . . One of eight brothers in family of 15 . . . Senior class president and All-America basketball player at Perris Union High . . . Nicknamed 'Pedro' by teammates . . . Full name: Calvin Eugene Sweeney.

PRO: The NFL's premier center and a Pro Bowler the last sixth consecutive seasons, five as a starter ... Outstanding talent and genuine team leader ... Has never missed a game in 10 seasons of demonstrating all the tools of his trade — exceptional strength, speed, quickness, lateral movement and sound techniques — blended with great experience ... A starter in every game since 1977, his durability has now stretched to 162 consecutive games including postseason (third longest in NFL) — 145 regular season games and 17 in postseason ... Carries a string of 121 consecutive starts in 1984 ... Has not missed a regular season offensive play in the last four years ... Truly the anchor of the offensive front and an invaluable contributor to the careers of young linemen such as Craig Wolfley, Emil Boures, Rick Donnalley and Blake Wingle ... Came to camp in 1983 lighter (245) and added 10 pounds as the season unfolded ... Felt the lighter weight made him more efficient ... Equally consistent as run and pass blocker who excels in matchups against nose tackles in 3-4 alignments ... Has won the majority of All Pro honors at center the last five seasons including AP, Pro Football Writers, Sports Illustrated, Pro Football Weekly, Sporting News and UPI ... His sixth straight Pro Bowl (1983) was his only non-starting assignment (Miami's Dwight Stephenson) ... Very determined athlete ... Played last four games of 1980 and Pro Bowl on damaged knee which required offseason cartilage surgery ... Began career as backup to Ray Mansfield and on special teams, playing in all 14 games ... Earned All Rookie honors by Pro Football Writers and Pro Football Weekly ... Played guard on occasion ... In 1975, played second and fourth quarters while splitting time with Mansfield ... Started six games at guard and two at center in 1976 and then earned starting job in AFC playoffs against Baltimore and Oakland ... Gained full-time starting status in 1977 and in 1978 was voted to the Pro Bowl, the first Steeler lineman to start in that game and only the third lineman to play in the game ... Established another milestone in 1982 when he and Larry Brown both won Pro Bowl honors, the first time since 1961 that two Steelers made the game ... Former No. 5 pick who began as 225-pounder and used club's strength program to build frame ... Teammates consider him the strongest Steeler ... Won NFL Strongman competition (1980) ... Handles snaps for punts and placements ... 1984 will be his fifth season as one of the team captains, a role he has shared with Jack Lambert since 1980.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at center ... Tri-captain, MVP and All-Big Ten as a senior ... Played in East-West, Hula and Senior Bowls and Coaches All-America game and then faced the Steelers in the College All-Star game ... Majored in Physical Education.

PERSONAL: Married (Pamela), daughter Brooke (12/11/76) and sons Colin (3/3/78) and Garrett (3/15/84) ... Lives in McMurray, Pa. ... Interested in coaching career following playing days ... Full name: Michael Lewis Webster.

PRO: A major Steeler defensive surprise last season when he established a new club record with 14 sacks and ranked among league leaders despite his role as a 'non-starter' . . . Jumped to the forefront as one of the league's premier pass rushers early in regular season when he started the first two games vs. Denver (9/4) and at Green Bay (9/11) at left end and had one and one-half sacks . . . As part-time player mostly in passing situations, racked up two sacks at Houston (9/18) and then started five-game sack streak with two at Cincinnati (10/10) . . . Had three and one-half sacks at Seattle (10/23) two weeks later . . . When he sacked Jack Thompson of Tampa Bay (10/30) twice, he broke Ernie Holmes' 10-year-old team record (11½) . . . Sack streak ended at Baltimore (10/13) and his race with NFL leaders Mark Gastineau (19), Fred Dean (17.5), Doug Betters (16), Jacob Green (16) and Curtis Greer (16) was slowed by his sprained right foot at Detroit . . . Missed games vs. Cincinnati (12/4) and against the New York Jets (12/10) . . . Played in regular season finale and in playoffs but did not have a sack . . . For second summer in a row, enjoyed productive training camp and preseason . . . Had five sacks in final three preseason games . . . Early in regular season with seven linemen splitting time, became something of a 'big play man' with timely sacks or pressure on opposing quarterbacks . . . Determined athlete who has worked diligently in first two pro seasons to develop skills . . . Began as long-shot

WILLIS SACKS HOLMES' RECORD

Defensive end Keith Willis, a former free agent (1982) from Northeastern, broke a 10-year-old Steeler single season record last year with 14 quarterback sacks. As a situation player, primarily in passing situations, Willis finished sixth in the NFL and fourth in the AFC behind New York Jets' end Mark Gastineau (19) while putting together a five-game sack streak including three and one-half at Seattle.

Willis broke Ernie Holmes' mark (11½), set in 1974. Other Steeler single season sack leaders include Joe Greene (11, 1972), Holmes (9½, 1975) and L.C. Greenwood (9, 1978).

Greenwood leads Steeler modern day all-time career sack records with 73½ ahead of Greene (66), Dwight White (46) and Gary Dunn (29), the leader among active players.

free agent candidate (1982) and one of eight defensive line candidates . . . Wound up with roster spot after L.C. Greenwood and John Banaszak were waived . . . Made rookie contributions as backup left end and on special teams . . . In just two seasons of part-time status, has 15 career sacks — fifth among active players . . . Plans to play at 260-265 in 1984.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter and two-time co-captain as defensive tackle . . . Team leader in tackles for final three years . . . Majored in Therapeutic Recreation.

PERSONAL: Married (Maxine) and daughter Jasmine Camille (2/9/83) . . . Lives in Pittsburgh . . . Played at Malcon X Shabazz High in hometown of Newark, N.J. . . . Full name: Keith Willis.

Experience and growing physical credentials have helped him blossom into one of the club's most consistent performers . . . Missed playing time (two games) last year for the first time in his five-year career . . . Strong, determined athlete who plans to play at lighter weight (255) in 1984 without sacrificing strength . . . Following lead of perennial Pro Bowler Mike Webster and advice from long-time Steeler Sam Davis . . . Productive run blocker and very efficient pass protector, traits attributed to playing time and determination by coaching staff . . . Played all 16 games as a rookie No. 5 draft pick in 1980, but did not start . . . Saw spot duty as reserve tackle and on return teams . . . Made significant improvement from first to second season, especially in size and strength and wound up starting every game in 1981 . . . Continued to develop in 1982, making every start . . . Starting string carried through first nine games of 1983 before sprained right foot caused him to miss games vs. San Diego (11/6) and at Baltimore (11/13) . . . PRO: Former MVP (1981) and a fixture in the Steeler secondary at left cornerback . . . Has played near All Pro form the last two seasons since first becoming a starter in 1981 and with Mel Blount's retirement, may receive the extra attention needed . . . Considered the team's steadiest defensive backfield performer in 1982 and 1983, a situation which has thrust him into a growing leadership role . . . Intercepted three passes last year — two vs. Cleveland (10/16) — as a 15 game starter . . . Missed his only start at Houston (9/18) because of the flu . . . Wound up fifth in tackles with 77 (55 solos), second among defensive backs . . . Has started 38 of 41 games since earning full-time status in 1981 and 24 of 25 the last two years . . . Produced MVP season in 1982 when he shared the AFC and team lead (5) in interceptions including three pivotal plays in playoff season . . . Picked off a Ken Anderson pass in overtime and set up winning touchdown vs. Cincinnati (9/19) . . . Had two interceptions in hard fought loss at Buffalo to keep club within striking distance . . . Woodruff's rapid maturity and Ron Johnson's move to safety from a starting role at left cornerback provided key opportunity in 1981 for the former No. 6 draft choice (1979) . . . Relieved injured Johnson in opener that season and started the next two games before freak forehead injury required 22 stitches to close . . . Missed two games then returned to start final 12 games . . . As reserve in 1980, played both cornerback and safety . . . Came to camp as safety candidate following Mike Wagner's retirement because of speed, but his coverage abilities destined him for the corner . . . After beating out veteran Ray Oldam and Tony Dungy, now his coach, in 1979, had interception in first pro game vs. New England (9/3) . . . Also made first rookie start vs. Washington . . . Produced interceptions in 1979 postseason victories vs. Miami and Houston leading to Super Bowl XIV . . . One of eight starters last year obtained with extra draft choice . . . Came to Steelers with selection from New England in trade for DE Dave Purifory.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at cornerback/safety after beginning career as a running back/wide receiver . . . Played in Blue-Gray and American-Canadian game . . . Dean's list student with Business-Finance degree.

PERSONAL: Married (Joy) and daughters Jillian (10/5/78) and Jenyce (5/1/83) . . . Established Pittsburgh residence in Wexford during offseason . . . Will begin work towards law degree this Fall at Duquesne . . . In past years, has worked for Humana, a hospital consulting firm and was honored as that firm's Black Achiever (1981) . . . MVP in football, basketball and track at New Richmond (Ohio) High School . . . Full name: Dwayne Donzell Woodruff.

PRO: A nine-game starter at free safety in his second season and one of the club's bright young defensive talents . . . Aggressive hitter capable of making the 'big plays' Steelers look for from the free safety position . . . The fastest of the veteran safeties and able to range from sideline to sideline . . . Shared team interception lead with Donnie Shell (5), ranked seventh in tackles — 61 (37 solos) and recovered two fumbles . . . After starting four of five preseason games in 1983, began regular season behind Ron Johnson, but saw considerable time as club rotated its three safeties . . . Missed game at Houston (9/18) with groin injury . . . Scored first of three defensive touchdowns in win at Cincinnati (10/10) on 38-yard fumble return in first quarter as backup . . . Had interception the next week vs. Cleveland (10/16) and then made first pro start at Seattle (10/13) . . . After strong performance against Tampa Bay (10/30) with eight solo tackles, ran off three-game string of interceptions vs. San Diego (11/6), at Baltimore (11/13) and vs. Minnesota (11/20) . . . Comes to camp as man to beat for starting job . . . Matured in second pro season as experience grew . . . Coaches compare his potential role to Mike Wagner's instinctive play . . . As rookie, made quick impression with an interception in first three preseason outings and stellar play on special teams . . . Began season as fifth defensive back . . . Had key interception in first pro game vs. Dallas (9/13) to set up third quarter field goal . . . Exciting punt returner because of reckless style and infrequent fair catches . . . Had 10.9 return average as a rookie and 9.2 in 1983, but handled returns only late in regular season and in playoff game last year . . . Must stay healthy to make the kind of contribution club is looking for . . . Suffered broken bone in elbow vs. Kansas City (12/5) in 1982 and returned for playoff loss vs. San Diego.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter . . . Led defensive backs in tackles in last three years while playing free and strong safety . . . Totaled 231 career tackles (100 unassisted) and seven interceptions, five as senior . . . Named MVP (1981) . . . Set school punt return records for attempts (113) and yards (1,147) . . . Three-time All Big Sky Conference who led league in punt returns (1980) . . . Team MVP as freshman . . . Played in Blue-Gray and Olympia Gold Bowl . . . History major.

PERSONAL: Married Karen Dokmanovich of Canton, Ohio on May 3, 1984 . . . Spent several weeks during offseason camping through Texas, New Mexico and Arizona . . . Three-sport letterman at Boise (Idaho) High, his hometown . . . Full name: Rick L. Woods.

Things That Could Happen in 1984:

- Currently eighth on all-time list of NFL coaches with 147-87-1 record and needs eight wins to pass Steve Owen (154-108-17) for seventh place.

FRANCO HARRIS

- With 11,950 career yards rushing, needs 363 to pass Jim Brown (12,312) for first place on NFL's all-time list. He is already the all-time leader in career rushing attempts (2,881).

- One of only four players in NFL history to score 100 touchdowns (91 rushing, nine receiving). Needs six TDs to pass Don Hutson (105) for third and 14 to pass Lenny Moore (113) behind Jim Brown (126).

- With 306 career pass receptions, is one of only four Steelers to catch 300 passes. Could take all-time lead with 24 catches, passing Elbie Nickel (329) and Lynn Swann (336). John Stallworth (307) needs 30 to pass Swann's mark.

- By making the Pro Bowl in 1984, would extend his record as the only linebacker in pro football history to be named to the game 10 consecutive seasons. It would also tie the Steeler record for most Pro Bowl appearances (10) held by Joe Greene.

JOHN STALLWORTH

- With 307 career catches, needs 23 to pass Elbie Nickel for second place (329) and 30 to pass Lynn Swann (336) for first on Steelers' all-time list.

- With 5,404 career receiving yards, needs 59 to pass Swann's team record (5,462) for first place.

- With 44 career touchdowns receiving, needs eight to pass Swann's team mark (51).

1983 STEELER REVIEW

DENVER 14, STEELERS 10

Sept. 4 at Pittsburgh, 58,233

Seven turnovers and 121 yards in penalties spoiled a great defensive effort, highlighted by seven quarterback sacks. Until the fourth quarter, the Steelers had held Denver to 59 yards total offense and three pass completions as John Elway made his pro debut by completing just one pass in eight attempts. The Broncos drove 54 yards on nine running plays before hitting a two-yard pass for the winning touchdown. Franco Harris' second lost fumble on the first play of the second quarter led to the game's first score. Two of Cliff Stoudt's three interceptions came deep in Denver territory which eliminated almost certain field goals and Frank Pollard's fumble occurred at the Denver 30. Six times the Steelers crossed midfield, scoring twice and turning the ball over the other four times.

The Steelers' running game kept the ball away from Green Bay's potent passing attack and did not commit a turnover as Cliff Stoudt won his first regular season game as a starting quarterback. Playing without three of their four defensive linemen and with a fourth hurting, the Steelers ran 34 more plays than the Packers and had the ball more than twice as many minutes. The Steelers rushed the ball 10 straight times on their first possession for the opening score and did not throw a pass until their 17th play. The failure of the Pittsburgh kicking game kept the score close as Gary Anderson had two field goals and one extra point blocked. Franco Harris passed the 11,000-yard plateau rushing and Frank Pollard had the highest rushing total of his career (90 yards). Bob Kohrs was a defensive hero with a sack and a safety which gave the Steelers breathing room at the end.

STEELERS 40, HOUSTON 28

Sept. 18 at Houston, 44,150

The Steelers had their highest point total since 1979 as they again controlled the ball and ran 19 more plays than the Oilers. Gary Anderson tied a Steeler record with four field goals, all in the first half, and three of the four followed Houston turnovers. His 16 points set a new mark for Steeler kickers. One of Anderson's field goals was a 49 yarder, a career best. The Steelers put the game out of reach with 85 and 80 yard drives on their first two second half possessions. Franco Harris had his 44th 100-yard game and Walter Abercrombie his first two-touchdown game. The defense added six sacks to take over the NFL lead. Keith Gary and Keith Willis had two each. Bryan Hinkle and Sam Washington had their first NFL interceptions while vets Donnie Shell and Ron Johnson also had steals.

NEW ENGLAND 28, STEELERS 23

For the second straight home game, the Steelers dominated the statistics and lost by giving up a touchdown late in the fourth quarter. The defeat dampened Franco Harris' milestone game in which he passed O. J. Simpson to move into second place on the all-time rushing list. The Patriots capitalized on three big plays to neutralize Pittsburgh's huge statistical advantage. The Steelers ran 36 of the first 40 plays but only had a 10-7 lead because of Steve Nelson's first down interception which he lateraled to Clayton Weishuhn while lying on the ground. They fell behind on the Patriots' third possession following another interception. The winning score came on a possession-type pass on which Dwayne Woodruff missed a sideline tackle. Two quarterback sacks on the Steelers' final possession killed their comeback chances. It was the third time in 14 seasons the Steelers had lost two games in a row at Three Rivers.

Oct. 2 at Pittsburgh, 56,901

A pass interference penalty, a broken play and three critical interceptions keyed the Steelers' first home victory of the season and moved them into a first place tie with Cleveland. After a scoreless opening quarter, Billy Kay bumped Calvin Sweeney and the 47-yard penalty gave the Steelers a first down on the Houston two-yard line. The Oilers got a field goal when Gifford Nielsen ran 20 yards with three seconds to play in the half and then marched 62 yards following the second half kickoff to take the lead. The Steelers went back in front early in the fourth quarter when a scrambling Cliff Stoudt looped a pass to a wide-open Walter Abercrombie. Donnie Shell's interception on the Steeler nine-yard line ended a Houston drive on the Oilers' first possession of the game and steals by Mel Blount and Rick Woods stopped two second half threats.

STEELERS 24, CINCINNATI 14

Oct. 10 at Cincinnati, 56,086

Getting three TDs from the defense and nine QB sacks, both team records, the Steelers won in Cincinnati for the first time since 1978. The Bengals lost fumbles on their first two possessions and the second was returned by Rick Woods for his first NFL touchdown. Cincinnati's third series was even more costly when Keith Gary sacked Ken Anderson and the Bengal quarterback left the game with a neck injury. After Gary Anderson made his ninth straight field goal attempt, the Bengals scored twice in the last six minutes of the first half. The tide turned in the third quarter when the Steelers recorded six sacks and the pressure paid off early in the final quarter on Ron Johnson's first pro touchdown. Jim Breech's 47-yard field goal attempt with 3:40, which would have tied the game, hit the left upright. Cincinnati had a first down on the Steeler 38 when Harvey Clayton clinched the win with his first NFL interception and a touchdown.

STEELERS 44, CLEVELAND 17

Oct. 16 at Pittsburgh, 59,263

The Steelers took over sole possession of first place for the first time in 1983 with their 14th straight victory over the Browns at Three Rivers before a record home crowd. The Browns committed seven turnovers and the Steelers followed six of these with scores, accounting for 34 points. They had interceptions on each of Cleveland's first three possessions with Mike Merriweather returning the third one for his first NFL touchdown. Both Cleveland TDs came after Steeler fumbles. Dwayne Woodruff's two second half interceptions deep in Steeler territory ended any Cleveland comeback hopes and brought the total to six for the game, one short of the team record. Cliff Stoudt tied Bill Nelsen's team record with 13 straight completions and Greg Best set a new team mark with a 94-yard fumble return.

Oct. 23 at Seattle, 61,615

Donnie Shell and Dwayne Woodruff broke up passes to stop a Seattle comeback that threatened to overcome a 24-point deficit. On the previous series, Ted Petersen saved the game when he recovered a Steeler fumble among several Seattle players on the Pittsburgh 16-yard line. The Steelers totally dominated the first half by scoring on three of their first five possessions and had a 228-32 edge in yardage and 16 first downs to three. They scored the first time they had the ball and then capitalized on three turnovers to take a 24-0 halftime lead. The Seahawks did not generate an offense until the last series of the third quarter to get their first score. They added a second TD quickly after recovering a Franco Harris fumble on the Steeler 11-yard line. The Steelers drove 66 yards after the kickoff to score a field goal but more important they used more than six minutes. Harris' 31 rushing attempts were the third most of his career.

STEELERS 17, TAMPA BAY 12

Oct. 30 at Pittsburgh, 57,648

In spite of seven turnovers, the Steelers won their fifth straight game and maintained their two game lead in the AFC Central. Only another strong defensive effort kept the Buccaneers in check as they were inside the Steeler 10-yard line twice but had to settle for four field goals, three of which followed Steeler fumbles. Paul Skansi's 57-yard punt return set up the Steeler field goal and his clutch 21-yard reception was the key play on the winning drive. Frank Pollard's 13-yard blast up the middle preceded his touchdown drive for the winning score. After playing poorly for three quarters in the face of a very strong Tampa Bay defense, Cliff Stoudt completed eight of 15 passes and ran for 23 yards in the pivotal final period. It was the Steelers' 16th victory in their last 17 home games against NFC opposition.

Nov. 6 at Pittsburgh, 58,191

The Steeler offense took the opening kickoff and moved 71 yards on six plays, sparked by Walter Abercrombie's 51-yard pass reception-run, and then turned the game over to Gary Anderson and the defense. The defense forced four turnovers which produced Pittsburgh's second touchdown and led to two of Anderson's team record-tying four field goals. Playing without Dan Fouts, the Chargers were limited to 218 yards and just 59 rushing. San Diego crossed mid-field just three times and only had two plays which gained 20 yards. Interceptions by Mike Merriweather and Rick Woods and sacks by Gary Dunn and Keith Willis, the fifth straight game in which he has had one, sparked the defense. The defense ran its total of quarters without allowing a TD to eight. The win snapped a three game losing streak to San Diego and upped the Steeler first place lead to three games as Cleveland lost to Green Bay.

Nov. 13 at Baltimore, 57,319

Cliff Stoudt made the big plays for the offense and the defense turned in another outstanding performance as the Steelers won their seventh in a row and their fifth straight road game. Aided by a roughing the punter penalty, the Steelers scored the first time they had the ball with a 21-yard scramble by Stoudt the big play. Mike Merriweather's blocked field goal attempt was sandwiched between a pair of three-pointers. Frank Pollard's 25-yard run sparked the Steeler field goal drive and then Stoudt completed four of five passes, all to Calvin Sweeney, in the last two minutes of the first half for the decisive score. With Baltimore trailing by just four points and driving, Donnie Shell's interception on the Steeler 46-yard line set up the final TD. The Steelers held the hard-running Colts to 37 yards rushing in the second half.

MINNESOTA 17, STEELERS 14

Nov. 20 at Pittsburgh, 58,417

The Steelers' seven game winning streak ended and they lost a game from their AFC Central Division lead. The Vikings' offensive and defensive lines outplayed their Pittsburgh counterparts. Both teams scored on their first possessions but after that the Steelers gained just 56 yards until their initial possession of the fourth quarter which resulted in a 96-yard TD drive. It was highlighted by a 52-yard Cliff Stoudt to Greg Hawthorne pass. Rick Woods' interception with 3:36 to play gave the Steelers a final chance but after two first downs, a sack and three incompletions killed their comeback hopes. The Vikings failed to capitalize on two excellent scoring chances late in the second quarter when they missed a 23-yard field goal attempt and Mel Blount's 56th interception on third down in the end zone stopped another serious threat. The loss was the Steelers' third in four home games.

DETROIT 45, STEELERS 3

Nov. 24 at Detroit, 77,724

The Steelers' AFC Central lead was shaved to one game as they suffered their worst defeat in the Chuck Noll era and third worst loss in team history. The Lions scored on their first four possessions. They took the opening kickoff and moved 83 yards, the longest drive of the season against the Steelers, for a touchdown. The Steelers turned the ball over on interceptions on their first two possessions and Detroit converted these into 10 more points. For the second straight game, the Steeler defense could not stop the run and the offense failed to sustain any of its drives, crossing midfield twice in the first half and then not again until midway in the fourth quarter on Frank Pollard's 32-yard run. It was the longest of his career. It was the Steelers' first road loss of the season and snapped a seven game road winning streak against NFC teams.

CINCINNATI 23, STEELERS 10

Dec. 4 at Pittsburgh, 55,832

For the second straight game, the Steelers committed five turnovers and the mistakes led to the Bengals' two first quarter touchdowns. A fumble and an interception on the Steelers' first two series gave Cincinnati the ball at the Pittsburgh 39 and 16-yard lines. Twelve consecutive running plays, nine by Pete Johnson, resulted in two scores. The Steeler offense produced a season-low 154 yards and just nine first downs. Its failure to move the ball and the defense's inability to create a turnover gave the Bengals a 31-play edge. A mild Steeler comeback was thwarted on a Turk Schonert-Steve Kreider 54-yard pass which led to the game's final score. In spite of the defeat, the Steelers held their one game lead as Cleveland lost in Denver. They finished their home season with a 4-4 record, the most losses in Three Rivers since the stadium opened in 1970.

STEELERS 34, NEW YORK JETS 7

Dec. 10 at New York, 53,996

The victory over the Jets combined with Cleveland's loss in Houston gave the Steelers their first AFC Central division title since 1979. The win was sparked by Terry Bradshaw's first appearance of the season. He played into the first series of the second quarter and directed two long scoring drives. With a lead for the first time in four games, the Pittsburgh defense also returned to form, forcing five turnovers and holding the Jets to 36 yards rushing which was the best performance by a Steeler defense in 12 seasons. Cliff Stoudt played the final three quarters and snapped his three game slump with two TD passes, matching Bradshaw's output. Mel Blount's 57th career interception and Franco Harris' 47th 100-yard game were other highlights of the significant victory.

CLEVELAND 30, STEELERS 17

Dec. 18 at Cleveland, 72,313

Except for a second quarter drive and another in the closing minutes, the Steeler offense struggled while the defense was unable to control the game as it did in the first meeting between the teams. It forced just one turnover and had only one QB sack. The Steelers failed to convert a critical fourth down and two play at midfield late in the second quarter. The Browns scored on the ensuing possession which stretched their halftime lead to 23-10. Terry Bradshaw did not play because he reinjured his right elbow the week before. Mark Malone relieved Cliff Stoudt in the fourth quarter and threw the ball well. Franco Harris reached 1,000 yards rushing for a record eighth time and Gary Anderson won the AFC scoring title with 119 points.

AFC PLAYOFFS

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 38, STEELERS 10

Jan. 1 at Los Angeles, 90,334

For the second straight year, the Steelers were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs. The defeat was their fifth in the last six games and their sixth straight to the Raiders. After taking the lead on an impressive 78-yard drive which produced three first downs, the Pittsburgh offense struggled for the balance of the game. On their first scoring series, the Steelers elected to kick a field goal rather than try for a touchdown inches from the Raider goal line. The march was highlighted by a spectacular 44-yard reception by Wayne Capers. The Raiders took the lead the next time the Steelers had the ball when Lester Hayes stepped in front of a Cliff Stoudt to Calvin Sweeney sideline pass. Los Angeles scored on its next possession and added a field goal with six seconds remaining in the first half. The Raiders scored the first three times they had the ball in the second half with drives of 72, 58 and 65 yards while the Steelers settled for a 58-yard scoring pass from Stoudt to John Stallworth. it was a record-tying 10th TD reception for Stallworth and the eighth straight playoff game in which he had scored to extend his own NFL mark. The attendance of 90,334 was the largest postseason crowd in NFL history other than a Super Bowl and the second largest to ever see the Steelers play.

In 1969, the Rooneys named 37-year-old Chuck Noll as the 14th coach in the club's history. Relying solely on the draft to build, he patiently nursed his young team to maturity.

The team's ability to maximize their draft selections has been the key to their unprecedented success. When Joe Greene was picked in the first round in 1969, he became the nucleus of what was to become a great defense. The following year Terry Bradshaw was the first choice and it was the makings of an explosive offense.

After three building years under Noll in which the team went from 1-13 in 1969 to 5-9 and 6-8 the next two seasons, the big breakthrough came in 1972 as the Steelers won their first division title ever. They lost to Miami, the eventual NFL champion, in the AFC Championship game but it was to be their first of six trips in eight years to that plateau.

In 1974, the Steelers won their first league crown. The next season they became the third team to win back-to-back Super Bowls. In 1978, they were the first team to win three Super Bowls and in 1979, became the first to win four and win two consecutively twice. Their total of four league championships is third to Green Bay (11) and Chicago (8).

The Steelers 50th Anniversary season (1982) was a very special one. An all-time team was selected by the fans and honored at a gala banquet in October. The banquet was part of a weekend of activities which attracted thousands of people to an exhibit featuring memorabilia and other informational materials from the five decades of Steeler football.

STALLWORTH PRODUCING RECORDS

John Stallworth is one of only three Steelers in team history to record 1,000-yard season's receiving. Stallworth, Buddy Dial and Roy Jefferson have each done it twice.

Stallworth, now in his 11th year, has caught a touchdown pass in eight consecutive NFL postseason games, a league record. He also has 10 touchdown receptions and four 100-yard games receiving in postseason which tie Fred Biletnikoff's all-time NFL marks.

He holds the Steeler single season record for pass receptions (70) in 1979 and could rewrite Lynn Swann's career records for catches, yards receiving and touchdown receptions this season.

TERRY BRADSHAW'S PRO RECORD

Terry Bradshaw, the first player selected in the 1970 draft after the Steelers won a coin flip with the Chicago Bears, is one of only three Steelers (Mel Blount, Ernie Stautner) to play 14 seasons. He ranks among the NFL's all-time top 15 in the four major passing categories including ninth in touchdown passes (212). With 27,989 career yards passing, he stands 13th and is 12th in all-time attempts (3,901) and 15th in passes completed (2,025).

A two-time Super Bowl Most Valuable Player, Bradshaw holds six Super Bowl records including career passing yards (932), touchdown passes (9), highest average gain (11.1) and single game marks for yards passing (318 vs. Dallas, SB XIII), TD passes (4, SB XIII) and highest average gain (14.1, SB XIII). In four appearances, he completed 49 of 84 passes (58.3%) for nine TDs and only three interceptions.

ACTIVE STEELERS IN PRO BOWL

Seven members of the Steelers active roster have played in the Pro Bowl. Running back Franco Harris and linebacker Jack Lambert have each been named to the game nine times.

Lambert is the only linebacker in pro football history to be named to the game the last nine years in a row (1975-83). That feat broke a tie he shared with former teammate Jack Ham (8).

Harris, who also played in nine consecutive Pro Bowls (1973-80), was the only active NFL player to play in every Pro Bowl game during that period.

By making the Pro Bowl squad this season, Harris and Lambert could tie the club for Pro Bowl appearances (10) held by Joe Greene.

Center Mike Webster has a six game Pro Bowl streak, but Donnie Shell saw his five-game string end last year.

Placekicker Gary Anderson, the AFC's leading scorer, was voted to the game for the first time and kicked a field goal for the only AFC points in the game.

Remaining active players in Pro Bowls include John Stallworth (2) and Larry Brown (1).
